Voters OK both school millages

BY HANK MEIJER

Plymouth School District voters Monday renewed 5.15 mills for general operating by a more than two-to-one margin and narrowly passed another .46 mill to replace expiring levies.

The proposition to renew 5.15 mills was approved by a vote of 2,996 to 1,243. The replacement .46 mills passed 2,132 to 1,988.

In all nine precincts the larger levy won handily, although only 18 per cent of the district's 23,500 registered voters cast ballots.

The .46 mill replacement won by only 144 votes, according to unofficial returns, gaining a majority in only five of the nine precincts.

Voters in precinct nine at Miller School gave sizable margins to both levies, however, approving the 5.15 mills by a vote of 365 to 158 and the smaller proposition 288 to 226. Some observers had predicted that opposition to the 45 - 15 year round school program among many Miller parents would damage millage efforts there.

All precincts but one, precinct four at Starkweather School, gave the 5.15 mill request better than two-to-one support. Voters who cast ballots at Fiegel School gave the large proposition its most resounding approval, with 331 yes votes and 83 no.

News of the millage victory reached board members and administrators at their regular Monday night meeting.

"We're all feeling a little lightheaded," said Board President Dr. E.J. McClendon. "We always meet with trepidation the possibility that these millages might fail."

He thanked all volunteer groups who worked for yes votes.

"I'm incredibly relieved," he added. "It would have been a tragic loss for the children of this district if the

Gray, Yack win seats

BY W. EDWARD WENDOVER

It was a fine night for Joe Gray Monday, as Plymouth School Board election results showed he had regained a seat on the board.

Gray ran on top of a field of six candidates which also saw Tom Yack, the only school board incumbent seeking reelection, win a second term.

Flossie Tonda, who heads the school district's safety committee and parent - teacher council, placed a strong third, but trailed Yack by 250 votes.

According to unofficial results supplied by the Plymouth School District, the votes were:

Gray, 1,885; Yack, 1,814; Tonda, 1,571; Leslie C. Cavell, 935; Elden J. Thomas, 712; and Jack D. Wiegand, 373.

Gray lost in a close race a year ago to Marcia Borowski and George Lawton, both of whom won four-year terms. Two years earlier, Gray had beaten Borowski by only 17 votes - earning the label "Landslide Gray."

But a landslide it was for Gray Monday, since many observers had forecast the Yack Tonda - Gray race as "too close to call."

Gray will replace Carl Berry on the school board and, with Yack's reelection, will not dramatically change the liberal - conservative balance on the board. (Berry did not seek reelection.)

It may be the adage, "An incumbent runs with a handicap in this district," (which Yack said after the returns were in Monday), that best describes why Gray lost last year but beat out Yack for the top spot this year. "I was surprised how well Joe (Gray) pulled," Yack said.

Yack has been considered by many school board members to be in the running for the board presidency with reelection to a four - year term under his belt.

The far - trailing candidates, Cavell and Thomas, failed to turn their special interest backings into wide - based votes. Cavell was the "special education" candidate, while Thomas received anti-year-round-school votes.

Sewer rates to climb

The cost of your sewage may soon be going up.

Official of Canton and Plymouth Townships and the City of Plymouth were notified Monday that their sewage disposal rates will be raise nearly 50 per cent as of Sept. 1.

The projected rate hike, from $94.18 to $140.96 per millions gallons of water, will mean very roughly an addition of about $2.71 on average per quarter to the water bills of city residents, according to Plymouth City Manager Fred Yockey.

"The average doesn't mean an awful lot," Yockey said. "It all depends on your usage of water."

Water rates vary widely with individual households and with seasons of the year, Yockey said.

Officials of Canton and Plymouth townships said they can't predict the effect of the rate hikes on their individual customers, but said increases are likely in those areas also.

"Some judgement will have to be made," said Canton Clerk John Flodin. "Our sewer and water rates have not gone up since the system was started (in 1960). But I would doubt if we'd absorb this one."

"I knew there was a raise coming," said Web Kincade, Plymouth Township DPW director. "The Detroit Metropolitan Water Department has control of sewers as well as water."

According to a letter to local officials from George Bingham, director of the Board of Public Works of Wayne County, an arm of the Wayne County Road Commission, the new rate "reflects the increase announced by the Detroit Metropolitan Water Department as well as the cost of operating and maintaining the Rouge Valley Interceptor Sewer system."

"It's a reality. They told us there was one (an increase)

Rev. Cargo to leave Plymouth

BY KATHY KUENZER

When Rev. Paul Cargo of Plymouth's First United Methodist Church moves to Clarkston to take on new duties in the Methodist Church there, it will be a return to his birthplace of 53 years ago.

And while he has no memory of the people there (his family left when he was 10 months old), he figures many of the oldtimers will remember his father, a retired Methodist minister himself who lead the congregation there when Paul Cargo was born.

Moving to a new church is nothing unusual for Methodist ministers, who are transferred many times through the course of their ministry. But each move has its sadness, both for the minister and his family and for the congregation he leaves, particularly when that minister and congregation have shared seven years of growth, building and common experiences.

"Within two or three days of my arrival in Plymouth in 1968," Rev. Cargo recalls, "I visited the church property out here (on North Territorial). At that time it was nothing but weeds and grass and some woods in back."

On my first Sunday I shared with the people the fact that I had been out at the new property and that I understood (continued on page 9)

City filing deadline nears

No sooner are the Plymouth School Board races over than the spotlight turns to the Plymouth City Commission races.

Next Tuesday, June 17, at 4 p.m. is the petition filing deadline for candidates seeking election to the four city commission seats up for election this year.

Those four seats are now held by Mayor Beverly McAninch and Commissioners Harold Guenther, Robert Sincock, and John Cummings. Sincock cannot seek reelection to another term under the city charter provision, which restricts the number of consecutive terms to two, and Guenther will not seek reelection.

If more than twice as many candidates file for election as there are seats (meaning at least nine), a city primary will be held Aug. 5. There has been no city primary for many years.

The final election, in which the top three vote getters win four-year terms and the fourth-place runner wins a two-year term, will be held Nov. 4.

Petitions for the office are available to city residents at city hall and must be submitted by the deadline containing no fewer than 20 nor more than 50 signatures.

Chamber opposes parking hike

The board of directors of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce has gone on record opposed to the proposed increase in parking rates on downtown lots and meters.

Dr. Leary quits as curriculum chief

Dr. James Leary has announced his resignation, effective June 30 as assistant superintendent for instruction of the Plymouth School District.

Leary petitioned the board of education for release from the remainder of his two-year contract in order to become associate superintendent of the Walled Lake School System.

The board approved his petition at its Monday meeting.

Leary was hired in August, 1974 to direct curriculum in Plymouth schools.

"I am sad to be leaving Plymouth," he said. "I've put down some roots here and have established many close personal and working relationships. But it is an advancement that offers me an opportunity to effect even more of my educational goals. I felt that for my personal and professional growth and for my family's future, it was a step I had to take."

"We wish Dr. Leary every success in his new position and congratulate him on his promotion," said Board President Dr. E.J. McClendon. "Of course we regret the loss of an able person and are sorry events did not permit Dr. Leary to remain in Plymouth long enough to fulfill the great potential we think he showed for improving our instructional program."

Leary had formerly served as assistant superintendent of the Clarneceville Schools in Livonia and Farmington since 1966 and had worked in the Clarenceville system since 1956. He holds a doctorate in education from Wayne State University and lives in Farmington with his wife and five children.

Leary said in his Walled Lake position he will be responsible for the entire instructional program and would receive a salary "commensurate" with those responsibilities.

Sculpture plans dropped

A contemporary sculpture for the park in front of Central Middle School may be a long way off.

The Plymouth Community Arts Council announced yesterday that it has dropped plans to give the City of Plymouth a contemporary sculpture grouping as its major Bicentennial project.

Plans for the propose art work were met with little enthusiasm by city commissioners when they were first presented last month.

Arts council members also said publication of the sketch of the sculpture brought criticism of the proposal from several quarters.

Mettetal support

The board of directors of Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce has gone on record in support of the continuing operation of Canton Township's Mettetal Airport.

"We feel very strongly that the airport is a vital link in the economic health of this area," said James McCartney, outgoing chamber executive director.

"Without this transportation media, there's going to a serious handicap to the development of this part of the county," he said. "We encourage any means necessary to maintain this facility. It's an attractive area - for many industries it's a real plus. If we ever do away with that particular facility you could probably be assured we wouldn't have something to replace it. We need it for smaller planes."

Sign of the times

Property owners in Canton Township who want to ask for rezoning of their land face a new requirement in the township rezoning process.

Under an existing state statute, the township will now require the owner to erect a four - by - eight foot sign on the property at least 30 days prior to public hearing on the rezoning.

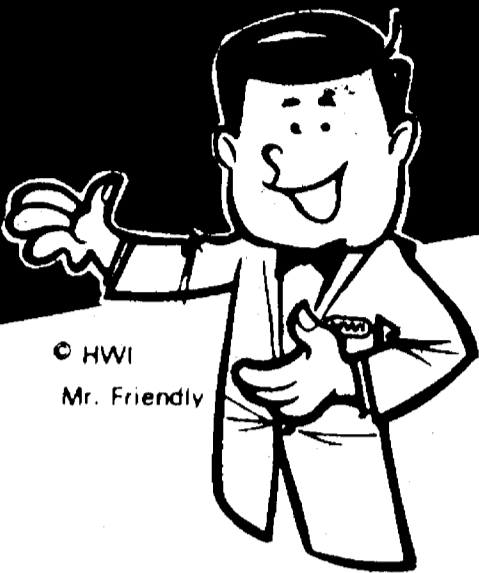

The sign must display under the heading "THIS PROPERTY PROPOSED TO BE REZONED," the following information: parties to the rezoning, present zoning, zoning sought, proposed use of the property if rezoning were approved, and the date and place of a public hearing.

According to Asst. Ordinance Officer Bruce Phillips, there will be a $100 deposit on the sign and a $30 permit fee to cover the township inspection.

If the property is on a corner, signs will be required on both streets.

'Emperor of Ice Cream' strikes dairy

Thieves late last Wednesday night or early Thursday morning robbed the Twin Pines Dairy, 1165 Starkweather, of $86 worth of ice cream, $16 in ice cream and fudge bars, and $35 in frozen orange juice.

According to Plymouth Police, a padlock was missing from a rear ice storage door. Entrance had been gained from the ice house at the rear of the building to the loading dock, then an ice storage spud had apparently been used to break out a plywood panel on an ice cream storage cabinet, police said.

Trainsssssss

Chester Cunningham of 47027 North Territorial told Plymouth Police last Wednesday morning that three trains held up traffic at the Starkweather crossing for a total of 17 minutes.

An open letter: PCAC abandons sculpture

With Malice
Toward None

Editor:
To the residents of the Plymouth Community:

The Plymouth Community Arts Council was founded with a desire to bring pleasure and joy into the lives of Plymouth residents. It was our intent that a gift of a sculpture to the city would do just that.

It was also our intent, after City Commission approval of such a gift, to present the design of the sculpture to the community in a public meeting where a fair description of the work, its idea, and its materials could be presented for reaction and questions.

After plans were final as to location and design of the sculpture a presentation to the Bicentennial Commission was the next step.

Unfortunately the drawings, which was rendered only for a group meeting, was sent to a newspaper and has caused great concern in the public sector and criticism of the Arts Council Board.

Because we desire only the goodwill and support of the community which we serve, we wish to withdraw our gift in the hope that one day the climate may be right and possibly a competition can be held for a sculpture for our city.

'Many don't want two bands'

Editor:
I am responding to the two letters which appeared in your newspaper last week.

Our director and the kids in the marching band have worked hard to establish such a good band and terrific reputation.

To split the bands now would be like throwing years of time and accomplishment right down the tubes! Maybe to see this you have to be part of the band, I don't know.

I do know that when I was in junior high, I really looked up to the marching band and waited (until I was a sophomore, because they didn't want freshmen then) eagerly to be a part of it.

If anyone was not accepted as a member of the band, it was because of their musical ability, which with work and time, must be brought up to a slightly higher standard. Some are just not ready for the music level of the marching band. Next year, they might be!

Let me also stress the fact that it is no 'one man who does not want to give up a good thing,' as stated in a previous letter. This letter also said that "the kids are getting punished by not having two bands".

Let me correct those unjustified statement. The fact is, kids would be punished if they did split the bands. So many kids do not want two bands!

People not yet in high school band need something to look up to, something to encourage them to keep growing musically, our one good marching band gives them this incentive.

SUE POCKLINGTON.

Who's saving money?

Democrats in the Second Congressional District recently held an "Issues Seminar" at Schoolcraft College which featured discussions of current problems led by experts from around the state.

We received several press releases, each promoting a different topic of discussion.

Certainly some of the most critical issues considered must have been addressed at a seminar on "Solutions for Your Economic Problems."

Clever how those Democrats solved the economic problems of paying for envelopes to promote the event - their release was sent under cover of the Department of Parks and Recreation of the City of Livonia.

They saved some money - but apparently at the expense of Livonia taxpayers.

'Split bands at once'

Editor:
I enjoyed reading the letters to the editor in your June 4 paper about splitting the Plymouth High School bands. I agree 100 per cent with the letters. We should have two high school marching bands if we have two high schools.

Every child should have a chance to play in the marching band. Taking the best from two high schools and making one band is not right. I think it is about time our Board of Education steps in to help our children out.

I understand the Board of Education wants to build a third high school out in Canton Township. I suppose if a third high school is built we will take the cream off the top of three schools to make one band. Common sense tells us every high school should have it's own marching band. Why does the Plymouth School District have to be so different?

I urge the Plymouth Board of Education to split the bands at once. Do what the kids really want. Give them all a chance to be in a marching band for the high school they attend.

Elks mark Flag Day

Editor:
June 14, 1975 is Flag Day. It is the one day of the year when the people of our nation stop for a moment, get a feeling patriotism and pay respect to those beautiful stars and stripes, our flag.

Flag Day observances was started many years ago by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks. Every Elks Lodge across the entire nation holds a special observance of the flag and its history. This program gives the history of each official banner since the first 13-star design of Betsy Ross. It's an interesting story, educational, colorful and dramatic.

The Plymouth Elks lodge will celebrate Flag Day Sunday

June 15 at 2 p.m. The Elks Club is located at 41700 Ann Arbor Road. Sunday is also Fathers Day, but what greater opportunity is there to show our sons and daughters our patriotism and love of our country, than to take 60 minutes of time and come to the lodge and be part of the service presented by the lodge officers and a guest speaker.

This service is open to the public and all are welcome to come to the lodge for the Flag Day observance, along with coffee and dessert to follow.

Mystery bridge built

The agenda for last night's meeting of the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees lists a letter sent to the board from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources notifying local officials that the Wayne County Road Commission has received a DNR permit to construct a pedestrian bridge across the

"Middle Rouge River in Section 25 of Plymouth Township."

Just where Section 25 is something of a mystery, but it's probably just as well, the bridge was completed two weeks ago before the board saw the DNR's letter.

Arts and crafts: fine things in Plymouth

BY JILL COMSTOCK

With today's prices, it's not always easy to find the money to enjoy a little cultural entertainment.

Sometimes people forget to take advantage of something when it's right around the corner. Take, for example, the world of art. There are at least three art galleries in town and several craft stores.

The galleries, which include the Old Village Gallery, the Plymouth House Gallery and Gallerie 12, all have displays of local talent, not only from Plymouth, but also from Northville, Westland, Garden City and Livonia.

Gallerie 12 has been in existence seven years and currently has 12 members who display their art works.

"We feel each gallery in Plymouth is unique and has something to offer," commented Pat Carne, owner of the Old Village Gallery on Starkweather just west of Main.

"What we're trying to create is a moderately priced gallery, with a warm and pleasant atmosphere."

The Old Village Gallery opened in mid-May in a refurbished white frame house. Mrs. Carne feels Plymouth is a good location for art lovers.

The displays, as in most galleries, are by local artists and vary from framed painting to pottery and weaving.

"The main purpose of our gallery," said Mrs. Carne, "is to give beginning artists a chance to display their works, and perhaps through this, they can get a name for themselves."

The Plymouth House Gallery, in town for five years, now, is owned by Donald Sellers. The gallery is housed in a building on Main at the C & O tracks.

"People come from Birmingham, Grosse Pointe and other towns to look at our displays and perhaps purchase some works," said Mary Sellers, daughter of the owner.

The gallery features a variety of art forms, traditional and contemporary. Styles and featured works are changed every month. This is true with most galleries.

"We've had a few college humanities classes come in, and recently some students told me they had learned more from one tour than they had in class," said Miss Sellers.

The Alphabet Gallery, 334 S. Main, emphasizes personalized gifts. Five women own the shop and display their art work: Mary Wollens, Elaine Hill, Wilma Halliburton, Joan Gerigk and Nancy Sheehan.

Pease Paint and Wallpaper craft store 570 S. Main, offers classes in decoupage, pine originals and white wear, all taught by Mona Stuebing.

A more unusual craft center is the Studio of Ellice. The atmosphere is old-fashioned and the crafts are time-honored.

"We've been here a little over a year," said Ellice Kulick, the owner. "The man who owned the house before us was the first postmaster in Plymouth, she added, describing the history behind the carefully renovated home.

Classes are taught in spinning, weaving, ceramics and rug hooking and last winter a pottery class was offered for third graders.

Mrs. Kulick and her daughter both teach the spinning classes and a drop spindle is included with the fee. Women of all ages come to learn the traditional crafts.

Crafts stores in town include Busy Bee Crafts, the Frameworks and Basket and Bows.

Busy Bee Crafts offers materials for making gifts and may have just the thing for a hobby on the side. Classes are offered in needlepoint, basket weaving, quillery, stain glass making, dip and drape, crewel, macrame, and children crafts.

The Frameworks a new store in Forest Place Mall, brings a new concept to Plymouth: a place where art purchasers can frame their own.

The owners, Al and John Larson, show customers how to go about cutting the mat and picking out the right frame for their pictures and photographs.

The Baskets 'n Bows crafts store in Forest Place offers classes in flower arranging and making cornhusk dolls.

Owners of galleries and stores in Plymouth don't see themselves competing with one another, they seem to enjoy working together. They believe Plymouth is a fine place for art, and that it show in their customers.

Trees donated

The block of Ann Arbor Trail just west of Main in downtown Plymouth will soon offer a touch of shade and greenery to pedestrians.

James McCartney, outgoing executive director of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce, announced that five trees valued at $350 each have been donated by five local merchants. The five Norway maples will be planted in the sidewalk along the northside of Ann Arbor Trail.

Rev. Cargo bids adieu

 there were dreams of a new church building. Later one of the trustees told me, "Paul, you don't know what that did to hear you say that."

Unbeknownst to me, the congregation had a low expectation of whether they could build the church."

Driving by the new building, you might be surprised to hear of that negative attitude, for withing five years of Rev. Cargo's arrival, the church was built and in use.

The Cargo family will be sorely missed in many areas of church work, particularly music and education. Mrs. Cargo (Martha) was superintendent of the Church school, and she and the Cargo children have sung in the choir and as soloists. Rev. Cargo's avid interest in hymnology has often shed new light on why certain hymns were written and their significance to a particular event in the church.

Along with the high points of his seven-year stay, Rev. Cargo remembers quite vividly a low point in December of 1972 when he was told he had to have heart surgery.

Because of what the doctors called an "aortic difficulty" it was necessary to place an artificial valve in the minister's heart.

"The prayers and support of the people and the hard work of our associate minister (Dean Klump, at the time) kept the church moving and growing," recalls Rev. Cargo.

But by Easter Sunday, he was back in church. Doctors have said that it would take five years for recovery to his old self and he says he feels "right on schedule."

If Rev. Cargo leaves one philosophy with the Plymouth church, it is that the "strength of the church is in what the people can do themselves. The minister should be the 'enabler', getting others in essence to do his work for him."

Rev. Cargo's last sermon here will be given June 15.

Entitled "Singing the Lord's Song," it will be woven into a service of music, a fitting way to bid the Cargo family goodbye.

A Tribute To Dad

A dad's his family's strength and guide,
A source of hope and light,
The one his family looks up to
Because he makes things go right,
A dad is a companion
Whose loyalty has no end
For he's more than just a father,
He's the finest kind of friend,
A dad will hold his family close
And keep watch over all,
And he's the one the family knows
Will answer when they call,
And though he never seems to get
The praises that he's due--
The world's a better, happier place
Because of dads--like you!

I-275 delayed until July

The expected June opening of I-275 through Plymouth and Canton Townships has once again been delayed.

According to Frank Simmons, Department of State Highways spokesman opening of the stretch is set now for the first part of July. A meeting has been scheduled June 19 to determine the opening date, Simmons said.

The five-mile section extends from Schoolcraft Road to Ford Road and is part of a highway that will eventually connect I-96 in Farmington Hills with I-75 north of Monroe.

cafe seeks tavern license

The Plymouth Township Board of Trustees last night was expected to consider a request by the owner of the Coney Island restaurant at Sheldon and Ann Arbor roads for a tavern license.

Zoltan Egyed, new owner of the restaurant, was scheduled to appear before the board to submit his request. Egyed purchased the establishment last year. The board last year rejected a request from the former owner that the Coney Island be licensed to sell beer and wine.

The township has only one such license left to allocate.

Another whitewash for Willette

Rocks rout Dearborn 6-0, gear for finals

BY DENNIS O'CONNOR

Excellent pitching, solid hitting, clutch fielding and heads-up base running: all the elements that make a baseball team great came together last Saturday as the Plymouth-Salem Rocks won the Southfield regional in Michigan high school baseball tournament action.

After the Dearborn Pioneers beat Melvindale 2-0 in the morning contest, Plymouth came out and made it an all-Suburban Eight League final, dashing the Adrian 6-1.

In the afternoon finale, the Rocks, who had beaten Dearborn twice earlier in the season, drubbed the Pioneers once more with a 6-0 whitewash.

With only two innings of work in the first game, Plymouth pitching ace Tom Willette stifled Dearborn for his 12th victory of the year, his third over the Pioneers this season.

As he usually does, Willette had the Pioneer batters and the rest of the crowd in awe, as his blazing fastball and foot-breaking curve resulted in 14 strike outs and only two hits. Only one ball got out of the infield all that a single by all-Sub 8 third baseman Bob Knope.

On the offensive side, the Rocks came up with nine hits, scoring five runs in the second and another in the sixth.

Nine men went to the plate in the second. Willette led off with a walk. He moved to second on a single by Charlie Johnson and the bases were filled on Howard Inch's infield hit. Dan Moore followed with a walk, bringing home Willette, and Vern Nagel smacked a sacrifice fly into center allowing Johnson to score.

With two out, leadoff hitter Dave Pierce banged a single to left, bringing home Inch and Moore with runs three and four. Pierce went to second on the throw to the plate and came home for the fifth run on a Brian Wolcott single.

The final Plymouth run came when Moore hit a shot over the right fielder's head for a double. He moved to third on a wild pitch and came home on Nagel's RBI single.

Pierce and Wolcott had two singles each to pace the nine-hit attack.

After Willette pitched the first two innings of the semifinal game against Adrian and struck out six, the story of the contest was Plymouth's other hurler, Chuck Thomas.

He pitched the last five innings to pick up his fourth win of the season, allowing only one

The road to Wyandotte

Only two games separate the Plymouth-Salem baseball team from the state championship.

And these two games, the semifinals and the championship, will be played this week at Wyandotte Memorial Field.

To get to the field, take Middlebelt Road three miles south past Eureka Road to Pennsylvania avenue. Turn left and take Pennsylvania east about 10 miles. The lighted field is located a couple of blocks east of the corner of Quarry and Pennsylvania at Lincoln Junior High School.

The Rocks start play at 10 a.m. Hazel Park. The 12:30 p.m. contest will feature Flint Central against Bay City Handy. The winners of these two games meet for the state title at 3:30 p.m.

The Plymouth-Hazel Park meeting will feature a duel between two pitchers, Tom Willette of the Rocks and Bud Yanus of Hazel Park.

The Hazel Park club was a pre-season pick to win the tournament, but Plymouth has been favored to triumph with Willette starting. Hazel Park holds a 22-4 record, while Plymouth has a 19-7 mark.

HIGHSTEPPING Doug Tripp dodged a pitch in the dirt Saturday afternoon, but he and the Rocks connected on enough Dearborn pitches to paste the Pioneers 6 - 0. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron.)

Parson, Chiefs nip Rocks in re-match

After a District loss to the Plymouth-Salem Rocks, the Plymouth Canton Chiefs rebounded to take a 3-2 non-league decision over Salem last Tuesday (June 3).

While the game was a bit of revenge for the Chiefs, Salem played in preparation for its regional last Saturday.

The Rocks used three pitchers in the contest. Tom Willette, Brian Wolcott and Chuck Thomas. Thomas, pitching the middle two innings, gave up the three runs, all of them unearned.

Canton's ace, Bill Parson went all the way for the Chiefs, allowing three hits and striking out nine to pick up his 11th win of the season. The three Salem pitchers combined for a four-hitter, striking out 14. The Salem ace, Willette, pitched three stanzas and struck out seven.

Canton scored all its runs in the third. Chris Martucci lead off with a single and went to third when Bob Ayotte was safe on a two-base error. Tom Close scored Martucci on a sacrifice fly to left. Mike Verduce brought Ayotte home with a single and eventually scored the third run on a wild pitch.

Salem scored its two in the sixth. Dave Pierce led off with a triple. Brian Wolcott was then safe on an error and they both scored on Willette's double to left.

For Canton, it was an end to a brilliant 19-4 season (22-4) including Cincinnati. The Chiefs' record earned them the number one rating in the final poll of the Detroit News.

For Salem the season goes on with a win in the regional and a shot Saturday at the state championship.

unearned run, and three hits. After a shaky first inning of work, Thomas settled down, got his curve ball over and had everything under control the rest of the way.

Plymouth scored two in the first on a bases loaded single by Inch. Two more came in the third stanza. Wolcott led off with a double and came home on Doug Tripp's RBI single. Tripp went on to steal second, and scored on Thomas' hit to right. Single runs in the fifth and sixth rounded out the Rocks attack. Inch scored on fielder's choice in the fifth and Tripp added his third run of the contest on a Johnson single.

Plymouth holds a record of 19-7 going into this Saturday's semifinal action at Wyandotte.

Plymouth-Salem High School has once again won in regional and district trophies and will be fielding an athletic team in the semifinals of the state tournament.

Last March, the basketball squad advanced to the semifinals, and now it's the baseball team's turn to try to win just two more games to become 1975 Michigan state champs.

The Rocks, supporting a 19-7 overall record, including a Suburban Eight League championship, are playing like champions. They are playing aggressively. They are fielding the ball well and getting the clutch hit when they need it. Their pitching has been superb: not allowing an earned run in their last three tournament games.

Aggressiveness appeared to be the Rocks' theme throughout last Saturday's regional Play. Their execution of base stealing and sacrifice bunting force the other teams to make mistakes.

One play of heads up base running that comes to mind was in the fourth inning of the title game against Dearborn. Dave Pierce smacked a single into center-field and never stopped running after he passed first base, forcing the Dearborn fielder to bobble to the ball as Pierce went into second safely.

Defense is always a key to winning, and center-fielder Tim Dillon came up with a tremendous clutch catch that saved two runs in the Adrian game. With the score 4-0 Plymouth in the fourth inning, Adrian had two runners on with two outs when John Selders sent Dillon back near the 400-foot mark in center. The Rocks fielder made a tumbling grab for the out.

Clutch hitting characterized both games. Against Adrian in the opening inning, Howard Inch took advantage of a bases loaded two-out situation by jum-

Tom Willette: Shutouts are his pastime

BY DENNIS O'CONNOR

He has blond hair and blue eyes, stands slightly over six feet has a duck-like walk and most notably, a left arm that may bring the Plymouth-Salem baseball team a state championship.

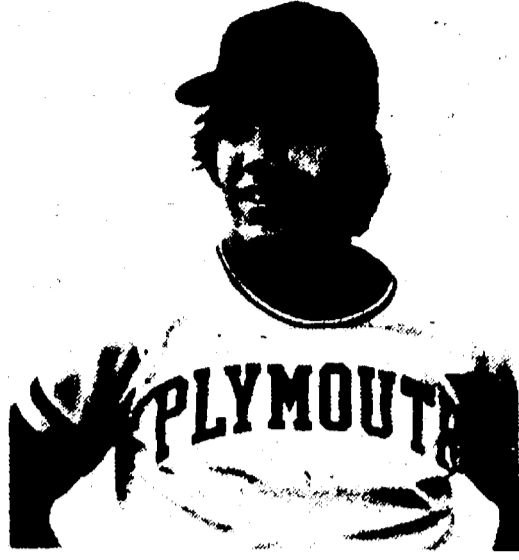

His name is Tom Willette, the southpaw who has won 12 of the Rocks 19 games.

Born in Indianapolis, Tom and his family moved to Plymouth nine years ago. He attended Smith Elementary, East and West Middle Schools, Central Junior High and finally, Plymouth-Salem, where he has pitched varsity ball for the past three seasons. He started playing baseball for his dad in the Plymouth junior baseball system before joining school ball teams in seventh grade.

In his two previous seasons of varsity ball, Tom won eight games while losing nine, but has a combined ERA of under two runs. After two years of experience, Plymouth was anxious for a great season from the fireballing 17-year old.

But there was a doubt whether Tom would even play this season. Not only had he suffered a cracked ankle during a recreation basketball game, but he was beaten up by some Detroit Denby high schoolers after a Plymouth basketball victory at Livonia Franklin.

Tom suffered a broken cheek, black eye, soreness in the back and other bruises that one doctor said might not be mended until the end of baseball season. Everyone at Centennial Park felt sorry for him, not only might he not be able to pitch, but his chance of winning a scholarship might also be lost.

Fortunately, the original diagnosis was wrong. After plastic surgery and a four-day stay in the hospital, Willette was ready for the upcoming season. He wasn't shy of the ball after surgery, but wore a mask for face protection the first week.

In that first week, Tom lost a game to Redford Union. He pitched one and one-third and gave up seven runs. He looked terrible, never getting the ball over the plate.

At that point, he threw the mask away and never wore it again. Tom later said that it wasn't the mask, that bothered him, he just took his frustration out on it for his poor performance.

When asked if he'd lost any confidence in himself after that game, and if the injury might have affected him, Tom said, it was just a case of having a bad day, and that the injury had nothing to do with it.

"I didn't lose any confidence, those things just happen once in a while," he added.

His team didn't lose any confidence in its ace, either. And Tom went on to win 12 straight games, averaging close to 14 strikes per contest. He has allowed only four earned runs since that day against Redford Union.

He was a unanimous choice for All-Suburban Eight League honors, and a first team all-area player. And if he doesn't get elected all-state pitcher, there will be more than a few visors raised around here.

At least 10 major league scouts and several college recruiters have watched Willette with awe this season. He has been offered scholarship to attend the University of Michigan, Eastern Michigan and North Carolina State. The NC State offer came after the head coach saw Tom pitch only five innings against Belleville, where he struck out 12 and allowed one hit.

Just last week, Willette was drafted in the fifth round by the San Diego Padres. He was the first Michigan high schooler to be drafted and the third state player chosen overall.

While Tom hasn't decided what college he'll attend next fall, Tom wants to go to school.

Although the question of college and his future career on the mound still loom in his mind, his sole concern right now is helping Plymouth win a state championship. And the way he's been pitching lately, the chances of the Rocks taking the title look better than ever.

Ed Hajek of Plymouth Township scored the first one of his 16-year golfing career last Thursday at the Glenhurst Country Club in Detroit. Using a nine iron, Hajek aced theyard 13th hole. He played in a foursome with Fred Nista, Joe Heavner and Deno Perentili.

millage had failed. We asked for absolutey the minimum needed. We believe these are difficult times, there will still have to be some economies affected."

School administrators were also relieved at the outcome of the vote.

"I expected it would be rough," said Supt. John M. Hoben. "We were silently confident, it sure was needed. It's been a hard campaign."

Ray Hoedel, assistant superintendent for business, said, "I knew it would pass. It sure takes big pressures off the budget, we've already got enough pressure."

Sewer rates to rise

coming and this is it," Kincade said.

The county bills local municipalities for sewage on an estimated basis - simply on the number of gallons of water each local government buys, figuring that what goes out as water comes back as sewage.

Additionally, however, the county DPW has announced that as of Sept. 1 it will bill local government for "excess flow" water which leaks into sewer lines, at at rate of $125.66 per million gallons.

"It is felt that once the basic operating cost have been covered, the excess flow should be transmitted and disposed of at cost," Bingham said.

A public hearing on the sewer rate increases has been set for Tuesday, July 29 in the county DPW offices in Detroit. Officials from municipalities in the ROuge Valley are expected to be on hand.

"We will attend that and vigorously protest, I suspect," Flodin said.

GREAT $125,000

MERCHANDISE DISPOSAL SALE!!

WHICH MEANS THAT OUR ENTIRE STOCK AND MANY SPECIAL FACTORY PURCHASES OF HIGH-GRADE NATIONALLY-KNOWN AND ADVERTISED MEN'S WEAR WILL GO ON SALE AT SAVINGS THAT WILL CAUSE A SENSATION IN PLYMOUTH AND ITS ENTIRE TRADING AREA

DOORS OPEN PROMPTLY

WEDNESDAY

WED. THURS. FRI. 9 A.M. - 9 P.M.
SAT. 9 A.M. - 6 P.M.

THE REASON FOR THIS GREAT SALE
Early this year we went out into the remotest markets and extensively advertised famous name makers of the country to buy and contract for the greatest quantities of high grade men's and young men's wear in the entire history of our business... at which time we anticipated and had every reason to believe that our orders in amounts were sound. We soon find our store and warehouse overcrowded with merchandise that must and will be disposed of within the next few days regardless of cost or loss of profits in order to carry out our trusted policy of never carrying over merchandise from one season to another. In order to properly and quickly accomplish our purpose, our entire $125,000.00 inventory involving every department will go on sale at genuine money saving bargain prices that will cause a sensation not only in Plymouth but throughout the entire retail, wholesale and manufacturing men's apparel trade.

What is a Bargain?
Remember This - It Takes More Than Price to Make a Good Value in these days when we read so much of bargains - bargains - bargains. It is well to consider just what compromise a good value and a bargain. We believe a bargain to be an unusual offering caused by an unusual event or condition that forces a reduction in price, but not a reduction in quality. We are forced through necessity to dispose of our overstocked merchandise. In the shortest time possible regardless of loss of profits - you can be assured of buying genuine money-saving bargains on high-grade nationally known and advertised famous name men's wearing apparel as long as our stocks last. Nothing like it has ever happened in Plymouth, perhaps nothing like it will ever happen again. If you are looking for genuine money-saving, value-giving, you will be here promptly at 9 a.m. Tues. TERMS OF SALE All Sales Final - No Refunds - No Exchanges CASH - CHECK - CHARGE CARD

WE ALSO HAVE CLOSED OUR MIDLAND, MICH. MEN'S STORE AND THAT MERCHANDISE HAS BEEN BROUGHT TO OUR PLYMOUTH STORE TO GIVE YOU GREATER SELECTIONS & VALUE!

JUST THINK - What this Great CLOTHING DISPOSAL SALE means to you and every family living in Plymouth and its trading area, coming as it does in spite of today's high prices. Over $125,000.00 WORTH OF MEN'S WEAR STORE MERCHANDISE - consisting of Men's Suits, topcoats, raincoats, sport coats, sport jackets, slacks, dress pants, dress shirts, sport shirts, dress gloves, belts...and hundreds of articles that space will not allow us to mention will go on sale at prices and savings that will cause a sensation not only in Plymouth but throughout the entire wearing apparel trade. You have wanted lower prices on brand-new men's wearing apparel! You have hoped, dreamed and waited for lower prices - now they are here in lavish plenty by a reliable store and no one can gainsay, deny or dispute them. You can come to this sale expecting to buy the greatest Money-Saving, Value-Giving Bargains of a lifetime. We promise you will not be disappointed - but we caution you to come early. We have but one object and one aim and that is the reduction of as much merchandise as possible in the shortest time possible. THE PRICES TELL THE STORY OF A SALE THAT IS A SALE! A SALE WITH A REASON, NOT JUST AN EXCUSE! COME SEE AND YOU BE THE JUDGE! FAMOUS BRANDS CARRIED BY LENT'S.
