Richard Arlen and incumbent Flossie Tonda won easy election Monday to four-year seats on the Plymouth School Board, unseating in the process Board President Marda Benson, who placed third in the voting. Arlen, 46, of 1771 Hartsough in Plymouth, topped all candidates with 3,127 votes. He is an accounting instructor at Schoolcraft College.

Runner-up Flossie Tonda, 49, won election to her first full term on the board, garnering 2,997 votes. She was appointed to the board in January to

Contested ballots break tie

Millage loses by one absentee vote

BY HANK MEIJER

Supt. John Hoben sat on the edge of a desk in the Plymouth School Board offices late Monday night and said, "Ever feel like you wanted to cry?"

That was when a tie vote seemed to have killed the schools' millage bid. A day later, the outcome was in doubt.

But late yesterday this district's board of canvassers opened five absentee ballots whose legality had been questioned. The five split 3-2, and the millage was lost. At press time, the final tally had not been certified.

After hours of counting and re-counting by school election personnel, Hoben announced shortly before midnight Monday that the vote on the district's request for an additional 4.75 mills had ended in a tie.

The proposal had been winning by a scant 13 votes out of 7,123 cast, but a count of the absentee ballots revealed 134 'yes' votes and 147 'no' to even the votes at 3,431 either way.

The tie vote stunned school officials, who had never before been faced with such a situation.

Despite muggy weather and the end of school, residents voted in greater numbers than ever before in a school election. Some 27% of the district's 26,000 registered voters turned out. Previous high was 6,410 in 1972, although that vote reflected a higher percentage of voters because the district's population was substantially lower then.

Tension began to mount soon after the polls closed Monday as early returns were posted at the school board's regular meeting at Canton High School. Board members and residents in the audience watched the millage request fall behind, then cheered as returns from Miller School - a precinct where many families will be sending children to one of the district's three elementaries slated to open this fall - pushed the 'yes' votes into the lead.

That narrow margin held until some three hours later, when the absentee results were announced.

School officials said they would consider bringing the same millage proposal back be-

Portable bank to be Canton police HQ?

BY KATHY KUENZER

Canton officials may have unexpectedly killed two birds with one stone last week when they entered into a consent judgment agreement with Bank of the Commonwealth to settle a dispute over the future of a new branch bank in the township. Not only did the township settle a suit pending against it by the bank, but in doing so it also acquired a portable branch bank building which Canton may use a headquarters for its new auxiliary police force.

The suit against Canton had evolved from the township's Zoning Board of Appeals denial this spring of a renewal of a temporary occupancy permit for the bank's Warren and Sheldon branch. ZBA members cited the bank's "failure to go forward" with plans for a permanent bank building at the site.

Terms of the consent judgment, reached out of court by township and bank attorneys, include the bank's promise that

County agrees to Sheldon light

A full-phase stoplight will soon be installed at the corner of Sheldon and Hanford roads, according to Canton Supervisor Bob Greenstein.

Greenstein said Tuesday he would meet with officials of Detroit Edison tomorrow to plan installation of the light, which Wayne County Road Commission officials agreed last week should be installed.

Greenstein said a survey by county road engineers showed heavy traffic volume at the intersection warranted the light.

He credited pleas from neighborhood residents at the last township board meeting and aid from County Commissioner Royce Smith as factors in the county's decision to install a light.

Neighborhood residents had turned out en masse at last week's township meeting, held six days after a four year old Canton boy was killed when a car slammed into the rear of the car in which he was riding.

In anticipation of the turnout, Greenstein asked representatives of the State Police, Wayne County Sheriff and Wayne County Road Commission (WCRC) to attend.

Lyle Nustad WCRC traffic and safety engineer, told the audience the intersection had been "under study" for three years.

Driver charged in fatality

A 23-year old Canton man was arraigned Friday on a charge of negligent homicide in the traffic death June 2 of Munna Mohla, 4, also of Canton.

Perkins' car struck the one in which the youth was riding at the intersection of Sheldon and Hanford. According to Wayne County Sheriff's Detectives, Perkins, if convicted of negligent homicide, could be sentenced to up to two years in jail. Negligent homicide is a high misdemeanor.

Judge Dunbar Davis of 35th District Court set Perkins' preliminary examination for July 8. Perkins, of 1912 Marlowe, was released on personal bond of $10,000.

Jaycees still need July 4th lantern passers

With the Bicentennial fast approaching Plymouth Jaycees still need help with their plans to pass "Paul Revere's lantern" down a line of 1,776 local residents stretched arm in arm July 4 along the Bicentennial Mile - Main Street.

According to the Jaycees, less than 300 residents have signed up thus far. Each individual or family participating will select a date in the first 200 years of American History whose passage they will symbolize by the exchange of the lantern.

Although many recent dates are already taken, the Jaycees say plenty are left. The ceremony will precede the annual Fourth of July parade. Among those who have signed up for a year of American history are: the R.L. Place family, who will be dressed as frontiersmen for 1876; the Thomas Coleman family, who chose 1929, the year of their parents' marriage (the parents will be visiting for the celebration); Cindy Lampton, 1887 - the year her grandfather was born; Carol Dodge, 1883 - the year her family came to Plymouth; Frank Laurette, 1860 - the Civil War period; the Rogers family, 1920 their favorite era; Dr. P.S. Vacher, 1960 - the year he came to the U.S.; Charley and Doris Root, 1930 - the year both graduated from Plymouth High; Curtis and Violet Powell, 1900 - the year of father's birth; Mark Gliha, 1974 - a random selection, and Peggy Sommers, 1867 - her favorite literary date.

The Community Crier's editor, Hank Meijer, will represent 1887, the year the Plymouth Mail started.

For details or to sign up for what promised to be a memorable Fourth of July celebration, contact Scott Dodge at 455-4374.

Massey asks for zoning

The Plymouth Township Planning Commission was expected last night to consider a request by Don Massey Cadillac for rezoning from mid-rise to C-2 commercial zoning of property located on the south side of Ann Arbor Road between Hines Park Lincoln Mercury.

Massey recently has been negotiating with Canton officials on site plan requirements for a proposed new dealership on the southwest corner of Lilley and Ford roads in that township.

Buses returning from the Michigan Avenue and Shelby will leave that location at 4:50 p.m., arriving at the Thrifty Acres lot at 6:09 p.m.; 5:15 p.m., arriving at 6:34 p.m., and 5:50 p.m., arriving in Canton at 7:04 p.m.

Parking suit hearing today

A show cause hearing on a lawsuit protesting the City of Plymouth's parking credit policy will be held today (Wednesday) before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Benjamin Burdick.

The suit, seeking an injunction that would restrain the city from allocating spaces in its Weidman Parking Lot, was filed by the Lorenz family, owners of the Mayflower Hotel.

The hearing was originally scheduled for last Friday.

Tower to move by rail

BY DONNA LOMAS

Plans for moving - by train - Plymouth Township's Lake Pointe water tower are finally getting underway.

According to Herald Hamill, former township engineer, LaPlant Adair Co. in Florida has secured a bond to load special moving equipment for the project and send it to Plymouth.

"It will take a week to get here," said Hamill, "about two weeks to assemble the equipment, a couple more to reinforce the base of the tower and then move it."

According to Hamill, they plan to move the 133 foot, 150 - ton tower by reinforcing the base, placing it right side up on a flatcar, and rolling it over to the new site, closer to the new Wilcox Road fire station which is scheduled for completion soon.

"The water in the tower has been empty for a month," added Hamill. "We don't foresee any danger in case of fire. We have an ample water supply pressure from Detroit. And if that pressure drops, we can operate valves manually here and get more water."

Time to get Fall Fest booth

A crazy quilt of color and activity will cover Kellogg Park when the Fall Festival comes to town on Sept. 9-12.

Community groups are already piecing together a host of activities for the four-day celebrations.

Non-profit organizations in the Plymouth Canton community that wish to join in the Bicentennial extravaganza are urged to turn their applications in soon, since booth space is limited.

A $25 entrance fee and a $25 dollar insurance fee must accompany the application.

For further information, contact Fall Festival manager Ed Page at the Pupil Personnel Services office of the Plymouth Community School District.

Schools release Symonds, hire new maintenance chief

The Plymouth School Board Monday night hired a new supervisor of maintenance and custodial operations, but only after board members split over the resignation of the former supervisor.

James Symonds, former supervisor, quit the district earlier this year to take a similar post with the Wayne County Intermediate School District. Symonds, a five-year employe of the district, was still in the first year of his two-year contract.

Under a penalty clause in the board's administrative contracts - inserted when the district's assistant superintendent for curriculum quit last year after less than a year on the job - administrators must pay the schools a large portion of what would have been their salary for the duration of the contract.

Board member Marcia Borowski, who urged that the penalty clause be considered criticized the short notice Symonds gave the district. "I cannot conceive of someone in an administrative position not giving one month's notice," she said. "If we give two years' security, we deserve commitment in turn. I see absolutely no reason for a penalty clause if we're not going to use it."

Administrators urged approval of the resignation, citing Symonds' weekly visits to the district to aid with maintenance problems and the relationship of the local district with the intermediate district.

"It's highly unusual we'd release such an individual before the summer cleaning schedule started," countered Board Treasurer Tom Yack.

Said Board President Marda Benson, "We may have been neglectful," in not making the contract's language clearer.

The board approved the resignation by a 4-2 vote, with Yack and Ms. Borowski dissenting.

Replacing Symonds will be Leslie E. Tinson, 54, of Farmington, foreman of maintenance and operations in the Farmington School District.

Tinson, who will receive starting salary of $15,453 in his new post, was employed by the Farmington Schools from 1962 to 1972, when he resigned as supervisor of maintenance and custodial operations ther to enter private business. Three years later he returned to the schools.

The board approved Tinson's hiring by a 5-0-1 vote. Board Vice-President Marcia Borowski abstained, after apologizing because, she said, "I haven't finished reading the packet" on Tinson which the board received shortly before the meeting.

Hearing planned Will Township nix another school bill for guard costs?

Who'll pay for crossing guards in Plymouth Township? Will there be any next year?

School officials who insist the township split with the schools the $7,357.65 cost last year paying for guards there will soon be billing the township for the service of the guards in 1975-76.

Unless the township decides this time around it will share the cost of the guards, that bill, will probably be returned unpaid, just as those from the last two years were. School officials say the township now owes $12,731.11

The schools last year sought to split the $16,500 cost of crossing guards with all three governmental units in which the guards are stationed - Canton, the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township. Canton has paid every year. The city finally did, too, but not until March, and then with the proviso that the schools pull guards off township corners if that municipality doesn't pay its bill.

The district wide Intergovernmental Committee has set a public hearing for Wednesday, June 23 at 7:30 p.m. in Plymouth City Commission Chambers to seek out public views on the controversy.

Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley ruled recently that neither the township nor the schools were constitutionally obligated to provide the guards. The decision brought the question back to local officials.

The school district's Safety Committee has issued a statement urging Plymouth Township parents to lobby for township payment of the crossing guard bill.

"As a concerned parent, please notify your township officials, of your feelings for the safety of your children," the group said.

Township officials say their one-mill maximum levy for general operations is so small it prohibits the expenditure.

Cantonites to discuss limits on fire millage

A public hearing on the establishment of a fire protection special assessment district in Canton will be held from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Tuesday June 11 at the Township Meeting Hall, Canton Center and Cherry Hill Roads.

Creation of the assessment district for construction of a new township fire station on Warren west of Haggerty was approved by Canton voters May 18. At that time, Canton officials said they would not levy more than 1.5 mills of the maximum 10 mills allowable in such an assessment district.

Special Education is a basic need

Editor:

I resent the implication in your editorial of June 9 that special education is a luxury and can be lumped together with football, music and art. Special education is instructional and mandated. The others are not. (Public Act 198).

It is time this community woke up and realized that special education is the basics. It is the opportunity for many children to receive the best possible education according to their abilities rather than their disabilities. It is the teaching of reading, writing, and arithmetic. It is a necessity for many children in order for them to become productive citizens. Or, have we become so superior oriented that we can't be bothered to help those that need help.

Learning disabilities is just Learning disabilities is just a small facet of special education. There are hundreds of children who are helped through the many services which special education provides.

Special education is designed to meet the individual needs of children who deviate from the "normal" or "average" either physically, mentally, socially or emotionally; to the degree that necessitates different methods, materials, techniques and equipment in order that he may profit from his educational experience.

Juvenile delinquency has been proven to be the most frequent and tragic end resulting from the widespread failure of public school systems to meet the needs of learning disabled youngsters.

Let's put special education in its proper perspective.

BARBARA LEFFLER, PRESIDENT
PLYMOUTH-NORTHVILLE-
CHAPTER MACLD

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Crier did not intend to lump special education with more expendable school activities. Special ed is an essential part of any school program. We mention it along with other endangered activities only because even school board candidates disagree as to its priority - and budget cuts might then treat special ed as an added program, rather than as one of the traditional "basics".

Thanks for talking shop with students

Editor:

Mr. Gretzinger and I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your participation in speaking on your career for the Career Education class at Canton High School.

The students expressed particular enjoyment in having taken part in your presentation. Your willingness to take time from your busy schedule to share your experiences with this class is most commendable. We hope that you will again consent to take part in the class in the future.

MARY BAXTER
BILL GRETZINGER

It's been said a million times that every vote counts.

After Monday's Plymouth Schools election results it needn't be said again.

One vote - one way or the other - would have saved the millage issue from the perpetual limbo it will now forever occupy in history.

A tie vote, which apparently is what we'll end up with (although there may be legal challenges to the final vote tally), defeats a millage issue.

So if you're one of the several thousand voters who didn't make it to the polls Monday for one reason or another, think a moment about what your vote could have meant - for or against the millage.

We voters of the Plymouth School District should never need reminding that...EVERY VOTE COUNTS!!!!!!

Teacher is unsung achiever

Editor:

I feel that the endeavors of the people that support this community are often overlooked. One person who adds much to support the spirit of Plymouth is Marlyn Finch. Mrs. Finch is actively involved in community affairs, in school projects, and teaches in the Plymouth Community School District.

Mrs. Finch's greatest efforts are poured into the school system. She has served Gallimore School in many capacities, co-chaired the Pioneer Middle School's PTO with her husband, and is currently Bicentennial chairperson at Isbister, where she teaches.

Through her efforts and leadership, Isbister's students and teachers have participated in many successful bicentennial projects. We now have an amphitheatre that all the students at Isbister worked together to build. Isbister has a rather unique mustering May 21 to celebrate Michigan Week. We all gathered around a huge flag made up of cupcakes one for each child in the school.

This past week we had a whole school sharing and learning day which gave individual classes an opportunity to share their bicentennial projects with other classes. Also throughout the year we have had special Bicentennial lunches that Mrs. Finch and Mrs. Coutts, our school cook, helped organize and prepare for our students. These activities have been both enriching and exciting for everyone at Isbister.

I feel the outstanding reason for the success of each project this past year is the time and effort Mrs. Finch put into each project. Without her unselfish contribution of her own time and extra effort Isbister would not have had such a super red, white and blue year!

Thanks Marlyn.

Truck cuts fire wires in Canton

Telephone service in and out of the Canton Fire Department was reduced to only two lines last Wednesday and Thursday when telephone wires were ripped down by a passing truck on Canton Center Road.

"The truck had a large tank on it," said Chief Mel Paulun, "and after it knocked down the lines it just kept going."

Paulun said a fireman walking in front of the station at Canton Center and Cherry Hill saw the wires falling on the road.

"We were without full service from Wednesday afternoon until Thursday morning," said Paulun. "If all the lines had been down, we could have been in real trouble - but the good Lord was watching over us."

ED MORRIS of Canton resident works the soil in a row of green pepper in the township's community garden area at Warren and Lilley roads. Morris, who considers himself a "professional gardener," maintains six plots, one for himself and five more for his neighbors. After convincing them to participate in the garden project, he committed the area to "organic farming procedures, where nothing but natural things go on the plants or soil, no chemicals." As he says, "I can pick a tomato and eat it without fear of what I am eating."

Canton parish takes name

Sunday, June 20, at the 11:30 a.m. Mass, Bishop Arthur Krawczak of the Catholic Archdiocese of Detroit, will install The Rev. Edward Baldwin as pastor of Blessed John Neumann Roman Catholic parish in Canton.

At that time, Bishop Krawczak will also install Carl Brown as married permanent deacon and all lectors and extraordinary ministers.

The name of the parish, Blessed John Neumann, was selected by parish members and designated officially by Cardinal John Deardon of Detroit.

John Neumann, an immigrant seminarian, was ordained the first American Redemptorist priest in Baltimore and later installed as the fourth Bishop of Philadelphia.

The priest, who did much to foster devotion to the Holy Eucharist, is expected to be canonized a saint early this fall. Naming of the new Canton parish after Blessed John was appropriate for the Bicentennial year, parish members decided.

The Canton parish which holds its services at Miller School, now has more than 360 registered families.

Anyone in the Canton area who would like to become a member of Blessed John Neumann Parish may do so by calling Father Baldwin at the Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church Parish House at 453-0326.

Alcoholic treatment center to open soon

Officials of Wayne County and the Sacred Heart Rehabilitation Center will sign a $3.8 million five-year lease this week that will allow a program for the treatment of alcoholics to begin operating this summer at the Wayne County Child Development Center on Sheldon Road north of Five Mile.

An agreement to lease the center for use as the largest inpatient alcoholic rehabilitation center in Michigan was formally approved by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners at its May 20 meeting.

The agreement calls for the State Department of Social Services to pay more than $3.7 million to lease the county owned complex, including 20 buildings on 100 acres of land, so that Sacred Heart officials may expand their alcoholic rehabilitation program, now headquartered in downtown Detroit.

Father Vaughn A. Quinn, director of the Sacred Heart Rehabilitation Center, said he would bring in his mop and bucket crew to spruce up the facilities as soon as the lease was signed.

"We probably won't be prepared to accept women and youngsters until September," he said.

All patients will be screened at the present facility in Detroit before they are sent on to Northville for a minimum 17 week stay in what has been described as "the longest, toughest most intense inpatient alcoholic treatment program in the nation."

'Doc' to retire after decades as cops' voice

Plymouth Police Dispatcher Doc Raven picked up his nickname back when he was riding an ambulance. His colleagues at Schrader Funeral Home decided "Doc" was better than "Eldridge," and, after all, they predicted he'd find himself delivering a baby someday.

He never did. Shortly after, he suffered a heart attack. He was 39 then. Three weeks later, his buddies delivered a baby in the ambulance right outside Plymouth City Hall.

The first heart attack sidetracked Doc. Then, three years later, he was stricken a second time. "That was when they pretty near put curtains for me," he recalls.

To the surprise of some however, he survived, and tomorrow, more than 20 years later, Doc retires after two decades as the Plymouth Police Department's night dispatcher. He and his wife, Cornelia, will be moving from their Parkview Drive home to Lakeland, Fla.

He suspects, however, that he'll miss going to work in the afternoons, as he has for 20 years. "I hired on for that shift and I've been with it ever since," he says. "You get a lot of action then - after the big wheels are gone for the day."

It's an unpredictable job. One minute things are quiet, the next there's a chase or a robbery or an accident - or maybe a loose dog.

The worse calls he gets he says, are those from children trapped in the midst of a domestic quarrel. "When somebody says, 'Daddy's beating up my mother,' that's the most horrifying thing."

Other times, people want him to settle a bet. They'll call from a bar in Los Angeles and ask which way Plymouth Road runs.

There's been a murder, an attempted murder and more than a few fires during his tenure but the most important thing as he sees it, is "getting through without one of my boys (Plymouth's police officers) getting killed, that's my goal."

It looks like he'll get his wish. He worked first in the old City Hall, when one switchboard served the whole building. In the new building he's been behind the police desk.

People rely on the police more and more whenever a problem arises, he says and that factor, along with population growth, has meant a big increase in police calls.

"People don't stop to think as much as they used to," he says. "They can't cope with a cut finger." When power was out, he adds, an old lady called an politely asked how long her heat would be off, then said she'd just go to bed and put on a couple of blankets. "Young couples sometimes don't think about that," he says. "They're lost."

He predicts the city's 911 services, scheduled to begin operation this fall, will speed up emergency response time provided Canton and Plymouth Township residents know where they should call in an emergency and don't find themselves dialing the city's 911. "It's going to be quite a problem until it's straightened out," he says.

The 60-year old dispatcher says his years with the city have been good ones. "I was sick when I came," he recalls, "I was out of a job and I didn't have any profession. It's been a good marriage for both of us."

Doc Raven never did deliver that baby, but he's done just about everything else in some pretty anxious moments on telephone and radio as the gruff night-time voice of Plymouth Police.

'International Night' tomorrow

Trio of park fetes planned

Bicentennial-in-the-Park programs will be featured in Kellogg Park on three consecutive Thursday nights during the early weeks of summer.

"International Night" is scheduled for June 24, and "Nostalgia Night" for July 1. All area residents are invited to attend the bicentennial festivities, which will be held from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. in the park, or in the Central School gym in the event of rain.

Ethnic groups from throughout the Detroit Metropolitan area will present songs and dances of many cultures during the "International Night" program June 17.

On June 24 the Bicentennial-in-the-Park program will feature the opening of the Plymouth Community Band Summer Concert Series and heritage craft demonstrations by the Plymouth Community Arts Council. The community Band, under the direction of James Griffith, begins its 17th season of summer concerts in the park. Their first concert will feature light listening music, mainly marches and popular show tunes.

PCAC craftsmen will demonstrate crafts popular since colonial times. Visitors will be able to watch artist working on the following crafts: Caroline Kleinsmith, corn husk dolls; Gloria Teter, spinning; Teresa Ohno, lace making; Grace Kabel, basketry; Thelma Cupler, quilting; Carol Noffz, count thread embroidery; and Margaret Moon, crewel.

On July 1, the Bicentennial-in-the-Park series brings "Nostalgia Night" to the park. The regularly-scheduled summer band concert will feature the Plymouth Community band and as special guests, an all-girl band from Copenhagen Denmark.

The park audience will be able to join in the nostalgic portion of the program during a sing-along sponsored by the Plymouth Northville Chapter of the American Association of Retired Persons.

Souvenir "Our Heritage of Song" programs with the word for 25 popular American songs will be distributed to the audience. These in attendance will then be asked to join song leader Red Bradley in the old favorites.

New elementaries to start with Livonia library

You might call it instant libraries.

The Plymouth School District has acquired some 5,000 books and 500 audio-visual resource items to serve as the core of media centers in the district's three new elementary schools.

The district paid about $15,000 for the contents of Livonia's Taft School library. Taft is closing this year.

"We're very satisfied it is a fine collection in sound physical condition," said Bea Green, the district's director of libraries. "This was a direct offer to Plymouth only. As Livonia closes schools, other collections may become available and we can pick up some bargains."

Ms. Green and Kathryn Otto, principal of Plymouth's new Hulsing School, inspected the collection, which the district purchased at a rate of 50% of average book costs and $1.30 per audio-visual item.

Savings could be as much as $24,000 compared to current retail costs Ms. Green told the board of education Monday.

Separate ceremonies mark Canton, Salem graduations

Centennial Educational Park Field was the setting last week for the first separate graduation ceremonies of seniors from Salem and Canton high schools.

Salem's graduation Friday was highlighted by Principal Bill Brown's emotional appearance. Brown, who recently lost much of his sight because of hemorrhaging behind the retinas, said, "to be able to be present for the graduation of the Class of 1976 would be an honor for any principal, but for Bill Brown, this is an exceptional privilege. "Your class president, Dan Geopp, was right when he said this was a unique class. You are unique men and women."

Brown was on temporary release from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, to which he was admitted recently for tests. Among the graduates who received their diplomas were Susan Lynn Brown, the principal's daughter. Supt. John M. Hoben welcomed the class. An invocation was given by The Rev. Fr. Francis Byrne, pastor emeritus of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church.

Geopp, in his speech to his classmates, noted that on average, Salem graduates had taken four credits more than the minimum necessary to graduate. He said Salem graduates would "continue to put to good use - both for themselves and the community - the ingenuity it has taken to graduate."

He also outlined the class' myriad fundraising activities.

Following a musical salute by the CEP band, John D. Shingleton, director of the placement bureau at Michigan State University, addressed the seniors on the qualities which distinguish man in society. Brown presented the class, and Scott Beaman and Stephen Williams served as faculty announcers.

School Board President Marda Benson, assisted by Trustees Joseph Gray, E.J. McClendon and Flossie Tonda.

Canton graduates led off commencement ceremonies on Thursday night with 304 seniors accepting diplomas.

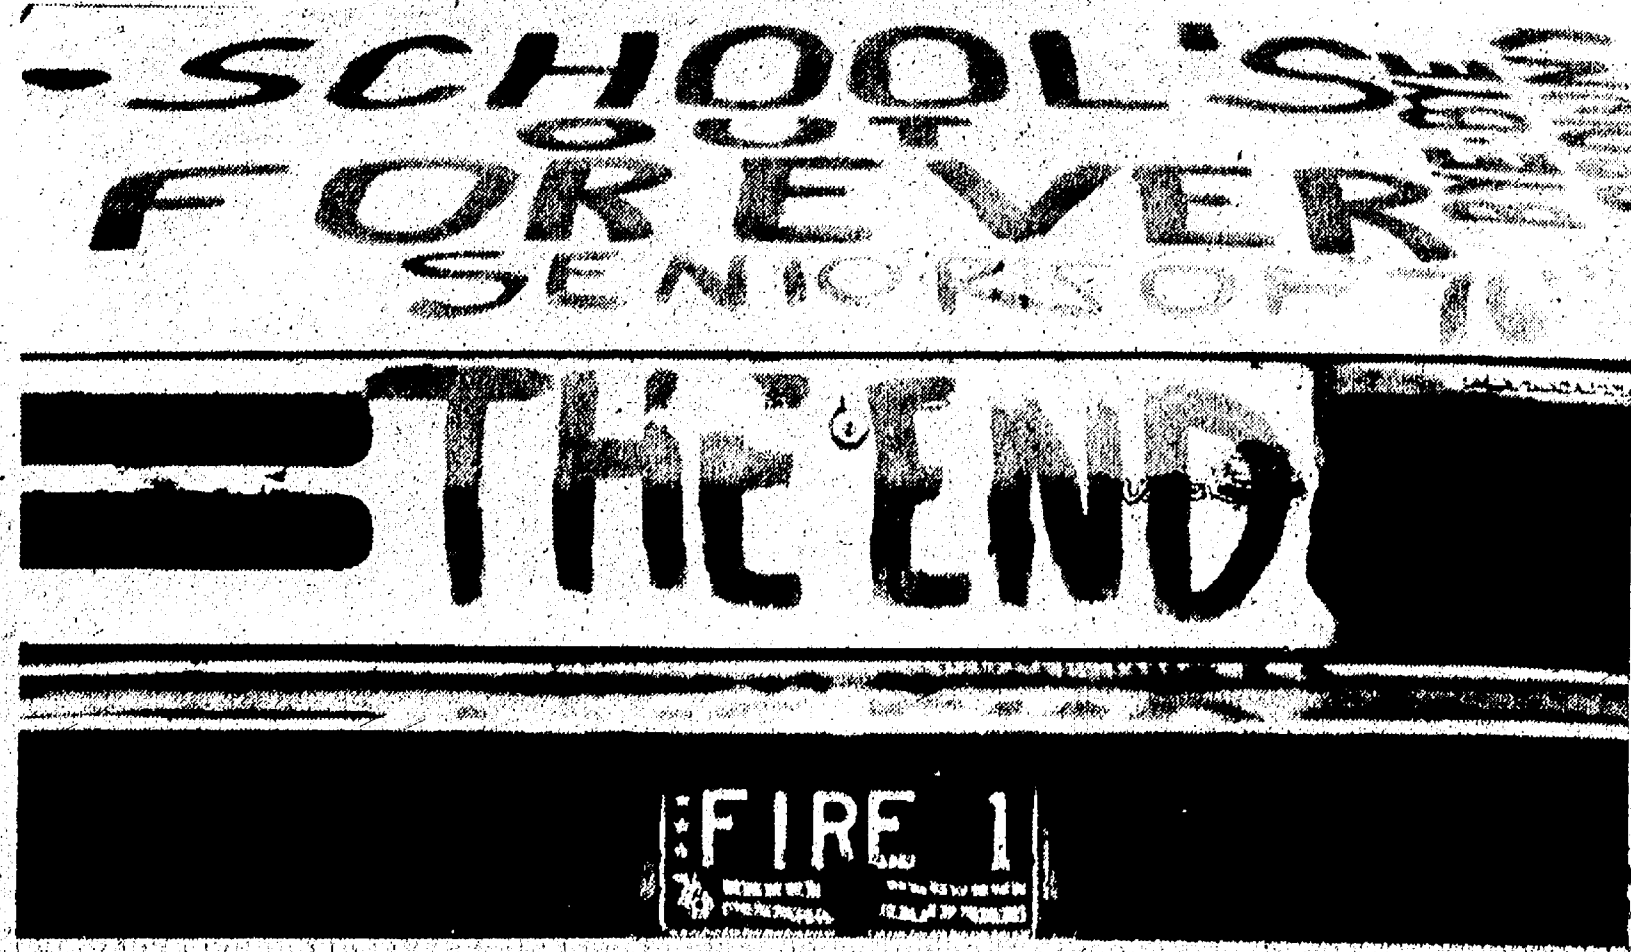

Following an invocation by the Rev. G. Douglas Routledge of Calvary Baptist Church, Supt. Hoben welcomed the class.

Addressing her Canton classmates and their families, Karen Lambert, class president, said, "Our ultimate success as human beings is measured not in high school diplomas, advance degrees or job classifications, but in how we have lived...If I had my life to live over, I would climb more mountains, swim more rivers and watch more sunsets. I would eat more ice cream and fewer beans. I would have more actual troubles and fewer imaginary ones."

Class orator Kathleen Malin made a presentation, followed by a musical salute by the CEP band. Joseph Rey, senior class vice-president, introduced the ceremony's main speaker, John R. Kinney, who spoke of the important questions facing today's graduates. Kinney is executive director of the Michigan State University Alumni Association.

Principal Kent Buikema presented the class. Handing out diplomas were School Board Vice-President Marcia Borowski, Secretary George Lawton, Treasurer Tom Yack and Trustee Flossie Tonda.

GYMNASTIC EQUIPMENT from telephone poles? That was the challenge for Farrand School children and their parents recently. Physical education teacher Bob Smith, with the help of $400 from the PTO and other donations of time and materials, organized construction of gymnastic equipment for the Farrand playground. The equipment includes chin-up bars, parallel bars, balance beams and other climbing apparatus which Smith said might have cost $10,000 for the real thing. (Crier photo by Dennis O'Connor)

McIntyre ends wait for sewers

After a wait of several years, McIntyre subdivision in Canton will finally be getting sewers. Canton Township engineer Dale Townsend announced at last week's township board of trustees meeting that the Michigan Supreme Court had refused to hear a case from the State Court of Appeals regarding sale of municipals bonds in the state, thereby letting a previous appeals' court's decision stand. The appeals court ruling said a municipality is not required to advertise the sale of municipa bonds in newspapers of landowners who lived outside the municipality. Townsend said the ruling means Canton may go ahead July 13 with the sale of bonds for the Canton Van Buren Sewer Authority project. "I expect we will proceed with construction by Aug. 1," said Townsend. "McIntyre Manor should have sewers sometime in November."

it will complete construction of the new building within 150 days of issuance of a building permit and will occupy the building within 180 days of the permit date.

Site plan approval had been granted to the bank earlier in the meeting.

In return Bank of Commonwealth will "donate to Canton" for the sum of $1 a temporary branch bank valued at some $40,000. The branch, located at 13270 Telegraph Rd. in Taylor, is identical to one located at Ann Arbor Road and Haggerty in Plymouth Township. Cost of the moving the modular building to Canton is estimated at $2,000 and will be paid by Canton.

Supervisor Bob Greenstein says the building has two possible uses — either as a headquarters for the auxiliary force or as new offices for the Canton Building Department.

"If the building looks conducive to operations of the building department," said Greenstein, "we could put them there. In that case there might also be room there for our engineer, planner and maybe the new industrial coordinator. Then the reserve would be out in the old building department offices.

"Or we could put the reserves in the bank building, as well as the engineer and planner and the coordinator.

"Right now we're kind of open," said Greenstein, "but now we will have a place to put the reserve police, which we didn't have before, plus we have a good shot at a place for our new industrial coordinator."

Greenstein says ideally the new building will be placed near the present building department annex, because that department's cars will be used the officers and stored there.

"Although a central location in the township might be better," said Greenstein, "the reserves would be using the same radio base as the building men," requiring them to be near one another.

Greenstein said the township would look into purchasing or leasing land at the end of the parking area behind the Township Business Offices for locating the bank modular.

replace Trustee Gary Mirto, who resigned. Ms. Tonda, former chairman of the school district's Safety Committee, lives at 39846 John Dr. in Canton.

Ms. Benson, 44, president of the board since last year, trailed a distant third with 2,586 votes. She was first elected to the board in 1972.

Taking fourth in the six-way race were Stephen Harper, 33, of Plymouth Township, a financial analyst for Ford Motor Co. He received 2,223 votes. Trailing the others by a wide margin were Elizabeth A. Hamann of Canton, who won 1,178 votes, and William L. Brown of Plymouth Township, who received 819 votes.

At stake in the wake of Ms. Benson's defeat is the school board presidency. Board members will elect their new president at the board's organizational meeting July 12.

Arlen and Ms. Tonda both enjoyed endorsements from the Concerned Parents, an organization which favors a return to traditional scheduling at Centennial Educational Park. Arlen also won the backing of the Plymouth Education Association.

Said Ms. Tonda of her victory, "I'm happy about the results. I think a lot of people are concerned about their schools. We still have to look in areas of trying to save money," she said, in light of the millage's defeat. "This board has worked hard, but we have to do a little bit more. My top priority is not to hurt programs that are going to affect the basics, and also programs that are mandates we have to continue with."

Ms. Benson said she will not run again. She said she would now devote more time to her graduate studies in education at Wayne State University, where she is enrolled in a doctoral program.

"The problems (at the intersection) correspond with the opening of Miller School," he said, "We have had counts of crossings of pedestrians and of the traffic, but it will take speed studies and more formal counts, plus looking back and seeing what accidents have been experienced there," said Nustad. "We will make an effort to get the studies done now, and an analysis and decision (on a solution) will follow in short order."

Greenstein told the officials, "no one wants to use this accident as an excuse, but only as a means to call attention to a need for lights."

"We don't want to say the accident could have been avoided by traffic lights, but we do want to avoid something more in the future."

Former chairman of the Plymouth Schools' Safety Committee, Flossie Tonda said estimates of traffic at the intersection showed 854 cars had passed through in 61 minutes, and 307 of them had either turned onto or off of Hanford Rd.

shortened school day in all grades - with the pink-slipping earlier this year of some 120 teachers, a $20 per student cut-back in supplies, no improvements in special education programs, an athletic budget reduced nearly 30% below what it would have been had the millage passed - and 18.7% under what it was this year.

In other reductions, the district's contingency fund would be trimmed from $149,000 to 15,000, and 13 custodial and five maintenance positions eli-said estimates showed the average speed of traffic on Sheldon is 51 miles per hour.

"We are supposed to have two to three minute gaps in traffic to cross children, she said, "but we are lucky to have two or three seconds."

"We want a light, reduced speed or maybe a restriction on left hand turns."

A letter from parents seeking an immediate solution was presented to the board, with a request that a traffic study be made, crosswalks in front of Miller and on Sheldon and Hanford be repainted, speeds be reduced and thought be given to installation of a traffic signal at the intersection.

Trustee Gerald Cheske said he felt Sheldon could also use "additional enforcement," especially at schooltime.

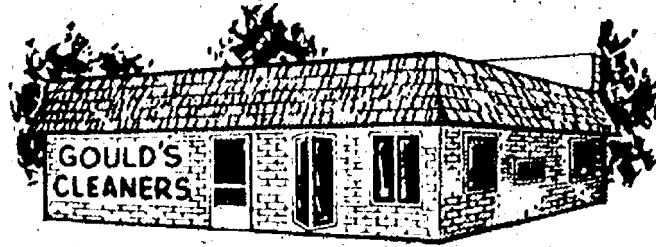

Cheske's motion that the board of trustees "go on record supporting a traffic light and a speed reduction are during school hours, to be determined among the schools, law enforcement agencies and the township" was unanimously approved.

junior athletic association would be eliminated.

We do not fully understand the strength that's in his guiding hand,

Drafted in 4th round Close chosen by K.C. Royals

Canton High School's Tom Close has been drafted in major league baseball's fourth round by the Kansas City Royals.

Close was the Chiefs' starting catcher for three years and the school's only nineletter winner.

"Kansas City scouts have been to every one of our games this season," said Chief coach Fred Crissey.

Close also had several college scholarship offers, but according to his father, John, "Tom is leaning toward the pro offer."

"Kansas City is a super organization with a good minor league training system," the elder Close said.

"They've made us an offer and we've countered, now it's

the Crier Sports

just a matter of working out the details. The offer is substantial."

Close met with manager Whitey Herzog and other members of the Royals organization on Monday when Kansas City was in town for a three game series with the Detroit Tigers.

Close hit for a .333 average this season, but was known for his tremendous improvements defensively behind the plate. His strong arm threw out many runners trying to steal second.

Close was named to all area and all league teams this past season for the second year in a row.

He is expected to sign sometime later this week. The amount of the Royals' offer was not disclosed.

Rock gals place 4th in Sub-8

The Salem High girls track team placed fourth in the Suburban Eight League meet last Wednesday at Redford Union.

The host Panthers won the league title, as expected, notching .90%. Bentley placed second to Redford with 85 points while Trenton nosed out the Rocks for third at place 64 to 63.

The top individual Salem performance of the day went to 220 dasher Jean Sellman who won the conference crown with a best time of :27.0. Sellman also anchored both the 440 and 880 relay combinations that placed first and second.

The foursome of Dana Worsnop, JoAnn Langkabel, Polly Richard and Sellman won the 440 relay with a :51.6 time and set a school record in the 8080 with a second place clocking of 1:48.5.

Debbie Lyberger also set a school record with a second place time of 1:48.5, as she raced an incredible personal best time of 12:39.8, which is better than 30 seconds faster than her previous time. Linda Agardy also finished in second in the high jump with a five foot leap.

Carol Crissey and JoAnn Langkabel were third place racers in the mile run and 100 yard dash.

Cunningham coaches clinic

Plymouth Gymnastics coach John Cunningham will be one of several instructors in the Rebel Girls Gymnastics Club's summer gymnastics clinic, which begins Monday, June 21 at Dearborn Heights Riverside High School.

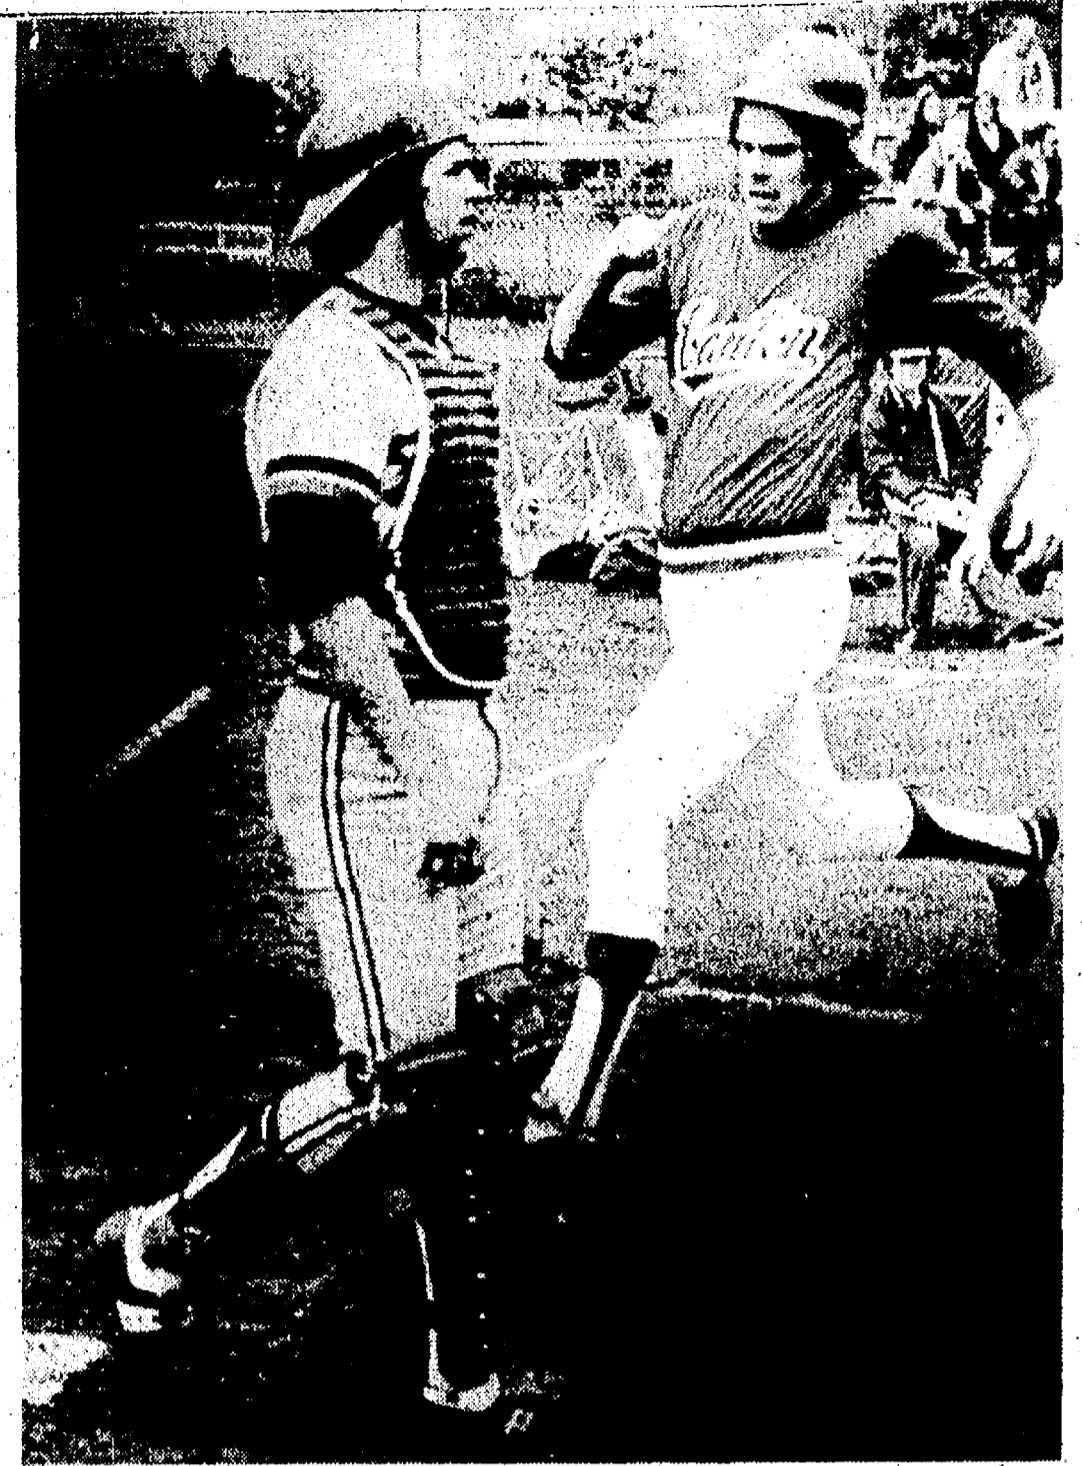

The summer program includes four two week sessions running

Sue Standwoods 880 yard performance along with a personal best run by Edie Voss in the two mile grabbed fourth. Lisa Morris also was fourth in the long jump.

The mile relay team of Carol Simonetti, Agardy, Cindy Levielle and Julie Mille placed fifth, while Laura Atwood and Worsnop were sixth in the 880 and 220 runs respectively.

through Aug. 13. Classes will be offered in competitive girls gymnastics, including vaulting, balance beam, uneven parallel bars, tumbling, dance and trampoline.

Chief netters bounced

Due to a lackluster performance by its doubles teams, the Canton High Chief tennis squad finished last in the Western Six League meet, held at the CEP courts last week Tuesday and Wednesday.

First seeded Steve Prueter, who was 9-1 in the regular season, lost in a three set semifinal match to Fred Bayoff, 6-3, 4-6, 3-6. Prueter's semifinalist position qualified him for his third consecutive all league year. Prueter contributed three team points to the Canton effort.

Junior Steve Pasley took the remaining team points for the Chiefs. Pasley received a bye through the first round, and beat Ken Vogler of Walled Lake in the second round, 6-0, 6-0. The junior's streak was soon halted, however, as he succumbed to Dan Green of Harrison, 2-6, 3-6.

All three doubles teams were soundly beaten, in two sets apiece. Doug Hetu and Dan Schmidt lost to league winners

Kelly Angell of Northville 0-6, 0-6. Paul Ardnowski and Tim Wise also lost to Northville opponents, 3-6, 1-6, and Don Perchard, coupled with Matt Norris, fell 2-6, 3-6. All six Canton doubles players will return to next year's squad. The only graduating netters are singles players Prueter and John Herron.

Herron and fourth singles player Stuart Sobzynski were overwhelmed in the first round, losing in straight sets.

Softballers win finale

The Salem High School girls softball season came to an end last Tuesday with a 6-4 victory over Redford Union at the Panther field.

The triumph gave the Rocks a 9-4 overall record and a 7-4 third place tie with Redford Union Suburban Eight League standings.

The Rocks leading hitter, shortstop Donna Goodrich, paced the seven hit attack with a triple and single.

The game winning hit went to first baseman Peggy Moore, who blasted a three run homer in the seventh to pull out the victory. Moore totaled four RBIs on the day.

Debbie Pitera went all the way on the mound, hurling a two hitter and striking out 11. Lynne Brueckner added a solo homer in the sixth.

"We were much improved over last season and I'm pleased with their performance," said coach Liv Way. "I'm looking forward to an even better season next year."

Wolcott claims all-state berth

Salem's Brian Wolcott received the most prestigious honor any Michigan prep athlete can enjoy when he was named to the Class A All State baseball squad, last week. Wolcott this season compiled a perfect 15-0 record in leading Salem to a second consecutive Suburban Eight League championship.

"This was supposed to be a season where our pitching was questionable, and then Brian came from nowhere to win 15 and make all-state," said coach Brian Gilles. "The job he did for us this season was remarkable."

Along with the 15-0 record and a unanimous All-Suburban Eight League berth, are statistics that would be hard for any pitcher to match. Wolcott worked 92 innings, striking out 125 batters. He allowed just 20 earned runs in recording a 1.52 ERA.

"The thing Brian does so well is keep the ball down low," Gilles said. "He gets ahead of hitters and set them up for his sidearm delivery." Wolcott throws an effective knuckleball as well.

He becomes the second Rock pitcher named to the All State team in as many years. Tom Willette, the fireballing south-paw of a year ago, was similarly honored.

Wolcott's 15 victories set a new school record, topping Willette's total of 14 last season.

When the Suburban Eight League meet was over, one Salem tennis player emerged as a champion. The Rocks finished with a fourth-place team effort.

Ken Bloom, the Rock's best player all season long, captured the singles crown. Bloom breezed through his first two matches and went on to the finals against Allen Parks Steve Sarkisian. The match went three sets, but Bloom avenged a recent defeat to the Jaguar netter, winning 6-2, 4-6, 6-2.

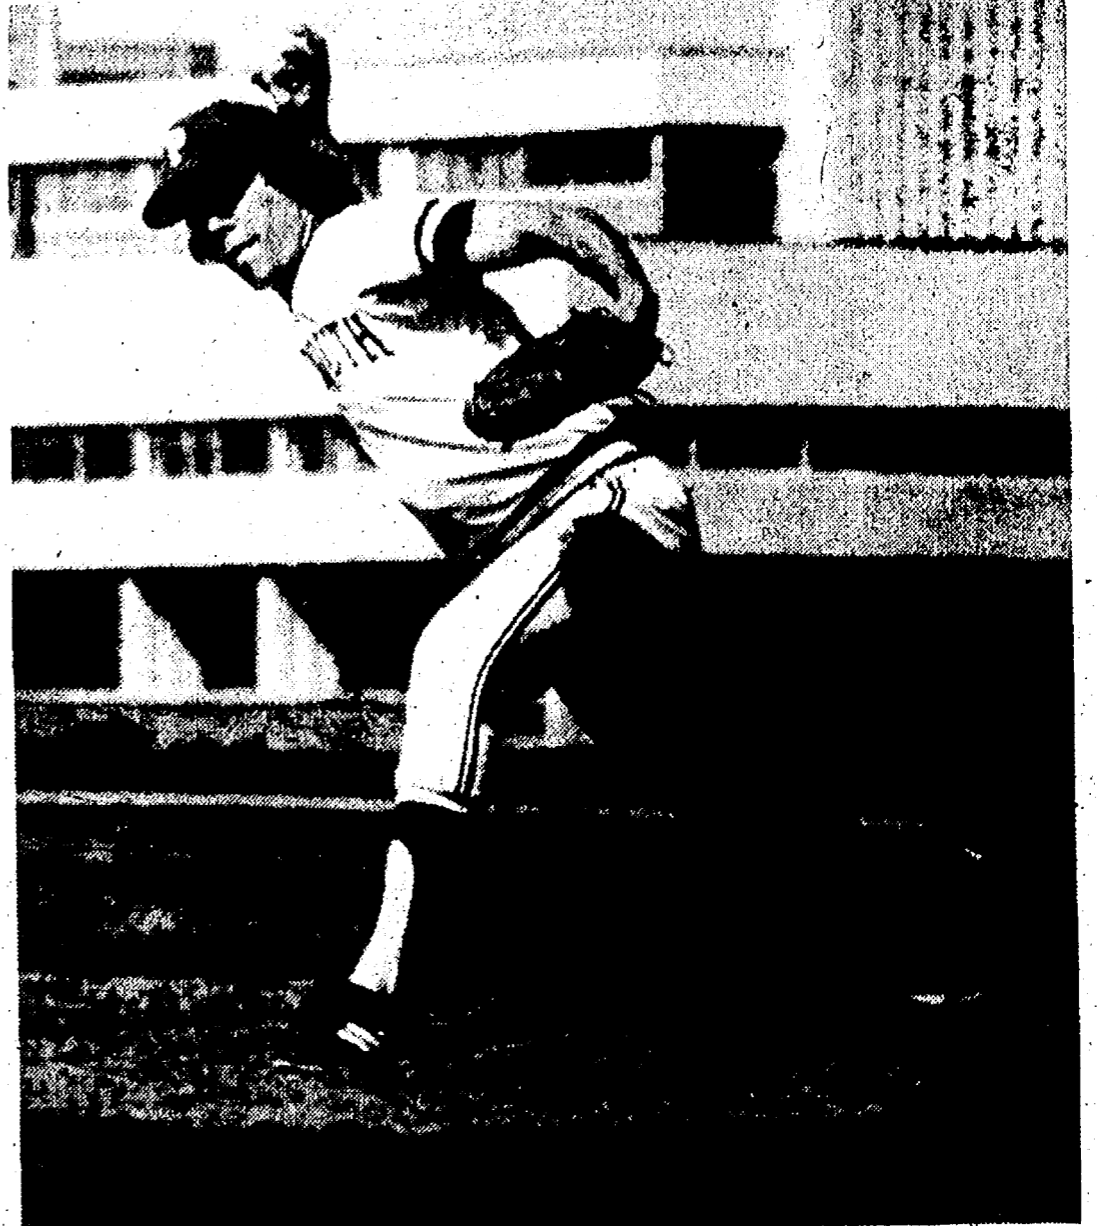

Curt Schultz, the Rocks' second singles player, advance to the semifinals before losing to Trenton's George Ghindia, 3-6, 6-1, 2-6.

Jim Larson and Kurt Olson, the only other Rock finalists, lost to a good Edsel Ford combination in straight sets, 6-0, 6-3.

Bill Cook the Rocks' third singles player, was upended in the second round, along with freshman Bob Braun.

Jeff Bearup and Ed Thomas couldn't get by a tough Dearborn tandem, also losing in straight sets. The third doubles team of Curt Lewis and Craig Stevens also fell in the opening round.

Rock racers tumble to 7th in loop

The Salem High boys track team finished the season with a disappointing seventh place finish in the Suburban Eight League meet last Wednesday at the Belleville track.

The Dearborn Pioneers ran away with the league title scoring 111 points while Dearborn Edsel Ford placed second with a 74 point total. The Rocks finished with 29 1/2 points, only three points away from fifth place Bentley.

"I'm disappointed in terms of the place we finished, but I'm not disappointed in terms of the effort our kids gave," said coach Gary Balconi in speaking of 19 different personal best times that were accomplished in Belleville.

"They came out and did their best - you can't ask for anything more. We ran in a super tough league," Balconi said.

The top finished saw the Rocks collect four third place ribbons, two fourths and one fifth.

The fifth place finish was in the 880 relay where Greg Davis, Tom Kindree, Larry Rightler and Jerry Basierbe ran a school record 1:31.6 time. That same foursome ran a fourth place time of :44.7 seconds in the 440 relay.

Bob Dasher and Rick Gladstone grabbed third places in the discus and shot put throws with distances of 136 feet and 47 feet respectively.

Bob Spisich long jumped 20' 6 1/2" for another third in a field event.

Basierbe and Kindree ran side by side in the 220 yard race, placing third and fourth with :22.6 and :22.8 clockings.

Grappling camp set

A summer wrestling skills camp, taught by Salem High grappling coach Ron Krueger, will begin Monday, June 21.

The five week activity is designed to provide a basic understanding of wrestling. Fundamentals of takedowns, escapes, reversals, pins and counters will be taught.

A tournament will be organized for the fifth week. Grades 9-12 will meet Monday through Thursday from 9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. at the Salem auxiliary gym. Grades 6-8 have sessions immediately after the older group, from 10:30 a.m. to noon.

Cost of the camp is $12.

A PUTTING CONTEST part of the C.S. Mott Hospital Charity Golf Open will be held this weekend, June 19 and 20 in Ann Arbor. Golfers may enter the contest for a $3 fee with the lowest score winning the use of a Grand Prix, donated by Bob Jeannotte Pontiac of Plymouth, for the remainder of the Bicentennial year. The contest starts at 8:30 a.m. on both days. Saturday's action takes place at the Michigan Golf Course in Ann Arbor, with Sunday's putting at the Radrick Farms Course. Pictured is Bob Jeannotte (left) and University of Michigan head basketball coach Johnny Orr with the keys to the Grand Prix.

Typo trips Sox

129-0? That Crier score that appeared in the junior baseball results last week in a B American League game between the Orioles and the Red Sox wasn't quite right.

Actually the contest wasn't quite so lopsided. The Orioles won 29-0.

Donors thanked

Salem High wrestling coach Ron Krueger has expressed his thanks to all the people who helped or donated to a car wash held to raise money for the Dave Edminsten Memorial Fund.

"I'd like to thank Don Massey Cadillac for allowing us to use his facility (for the car wash) and for picking up the tab for the water," Krueger said.

"Our goal will be reached because of all the people who donated. Because of their help, the Dave Edminsten Memorial Fund can now become a reality."

With the end of another school sports season, it's time to say thanks to two fine young journalists who have been helping me cover Salem and Canton high sports throughout the 1975-76 school year.

Joe Pierce of Salem and Matt Norris of Canton helped The Crier provide the most comprehensive sports department around.

Norris covered Chief basketball, wrestling, tennis and track, while Pierce contributed Rock basketball stories, along with tennis and junior varsity baseball.

Both have finished their junior years at the Centennial Park and write for their respective school newspapers. Norris was unanimously chosen editor of Canton's "New Media" for next year.

I thank them again for their time and effort and I look forward to their services in the fall.

Rupert golf bigger & better

The second annual Hank Rupert Golf Classic will be held this Saturday, June 19 at the Hilltop Golf Course on Ann Arbor Trail.

This year's tournament is slated to be better than ever, as golfers from Salem High School's classes of 1975 and 1976, along with some teachers and coaches, plan to tee off for the 18-hole all day affair.

The Classic is hosted by Hank Rupert, head custodian at Centennial Park, who will be playing in the last foursome of the day.

Trophies will be given to the four top finishers.

"Close to 40 people will participate in this year's tourney and it should be a fun time for everyone," said tournament director Paul Sincock.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS.....NOW!!

When it comes to making a good real estate investment, if there was ever a good time to buy - that time is NOW! From all indications, the real estate market has bottomed and is on its way upward. The mortgage market has turned around and adequate funds are now available. Although mortgage interest rates have become more favorable they are not expected to drop below the current levels rather, they are expected to ease upward. The supply of good housing will diminish in the next 12 months. Last year's output of 1.16 million was the lowest in 29 years. This year's production will be somewhat higher, but will not meet housing requirements. Demand will outrace current supply. When this happens, prices always rise. Real estate has always been a sound investment and the best hedge against inflation. Its value historically increases faster than the cost of living. With all these factors falling into place, if there was ever a good time to buy real estate - that time is NOW!

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at REALTY WORLD, Wm. Decker, Inc. Realtors, 670 S. Main St. Plymouth. Phone: 455-8400. We're here to help!

Willette no-hits Caesars

Plymouth's Tom Willette continues to amaze baseball fans with his rifle quick fastball and deceiving curve. This time the former Salem High all stater playing for Adray Appliance used the tools of his trade to fire a no hitter in a 13-1 victory against respectable Little Caesar's in Detroit Adray League competition. Willette started with small control problems, walking three batters and allowing a ground out for Caesars only run of the game, but from then on it was all Willette and the Adray bats, as the squad buried Caesar's. Willette recently finished his freshman season at North Carolina State University which he attends on a four year scholarship. In that first season, he recorded a 4-3 record with an impressive 2.06 earned run average.

McMurray zapped

Smith Realty posted three victories last week to move into second place in the A Division ahead of Massey Cadillac in the Canton softball League.

Smith beat Massey 12-7 with an eight run outburst in the fourth inning, highlighted by a towering three run homer by Bill Barnes. Smith had an easy time beating Plymouth Construction, 10-4 scoring eight runs in the first two innings and coasting the rest of the way. Bob Garr belted a two run homer in the second to put it away.

Friday night Smith surprised everyone by trouncing previously unbeaten McMurray 18-11. Smith went ahead 2-0 in the first on five base hits and then in the second put five runs across on three successive home runs by Carr, Barnes and Vic Fryling. Barnes added another round tripper in the fifth, and did Marty LaPorte, as Smith pushed across six more runs. McMurray got rolling too late, coming up with five runs in the seventh with the aid of a home run by Carl Vasquez but it wasn't enough, as Smith won its sixth game in a row after losing the first two games of the year to Massey and McMurray.

In B Division play, K Mart knocked off the only two undefeated teams, Clark Block and Little Caesars.

Koufax, DiPonio action

The Plymouth Koufax baseball team split two games last week, giving the squad a 2-1 season record and a first place position in the Red Division of the Koufax League.

Plymouth scored a run in the last inning to pull out an 8-7 victory over Detroit Mic-Mac last Thursday, but lost a 1-0 heartbreaker to Dearborn J J Curran on Saturday.

Plymouth DiPonio of the Mickey Mantle League dropped two of three games last week and currently holds an even 2-2 record for the season.

DiPonio's lone victory came Friday in a 5-0 shutout win against Allen Park at the opponent's field. Matt Etienne hurled excellent ball in recording nine strikeouts.

Chief runners grab 5th

The Canton High School girls track team finished its regular season last week with a fifth place showing in the Western Six League meet.

The Chiefs compiled 24 points in beating the last place Northville Mustangs. To no one's surprise, powerful Walled Lake Western accumulated 107 points and the conference crown.

Veronica Gray was the leading Canton pointgetter, with three and fourth place finished in the high jump and 220-yard dash respectively.

Canton's 880 and mile relay teams both grabbed second places. Meagan Ford, Beth Richardson, Jennifer Tregembo and Gray combined in the 880, while Karen Sweeney, Sherry Gates, Richardson and Lynne Bigelow ran the mile.

Meagan Ford took second in the 100-yard dash.

Lynne Bigelow placed third in the 110-yard hurdles, and the 440 relay was fourth in that race. Tregembo, Gray, Liz Norton and Ford teamed for those relay points and mile runs respectively.

Tregembo and Kathi Gladden took fifth in the 440.
