

Give blood Friday for Vickie

A Red Cross bloodmobile will arrive Friday afternoon (Oct. 1) to collect what friends of Hodgkins' Disease victim Vickie Wooley hope will be 200 pints of blood.

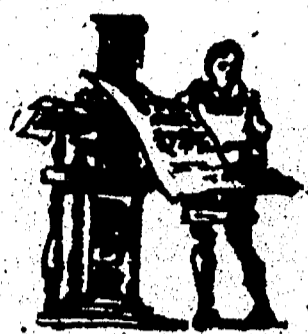

The bloodmobile will be stationed behind Central Middle School annex which can be entered from the rear of the school, from 1:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Nurses and volunteers will be on hand to welcome donors. Persons of all blood types may donate.

Miss Wooley, 20, a 1975 Plymouth High School graduate, has been hospitalized in Southfield's Providence Hospital since Labor Day in her latest bout with Hodgkins.

In a letter to the Crier, Miss Wooley, who is recuperating from surgery which included substitution of a nylon vein in her arm to allow massive blood transfusions, wrote, "I have been to the hospital many times. It has been a struggle financially and mentally for myself and family, but we have pulled through.

"Well, here I am again! This time I was told I would probably need blood, and as it turns out, I do... Now I hear there are many people who want to help. Knowing there are so many wonderful people wanting to help me has restored my faith in God and humanity."

Vickie is in Room 408, bed two in Providence Hospital.

Reserves seek gun permits

To keep the Canton Reserve Police from being pulled off the road because of an unclear law concerning concealed weapons, Supervisor Police Chief Bob Greenstein has applied for 25 concealed weapons permits for his reservists.

Greenstein says the law is not explicit with regard to the use of weapons by reserve officers, and that some reserve units in Wayne County have permits, while others do not.

The permits if issued, will only cover use of the weapons while the reserves are on duty.

Currently the police unit is armed with .357 magnum revolvers using .38 caliber ammunition.

The Concealed Weapons Board is expected to rule on the permits at its Oct. 12 meeting.

The reserve's legality was challenged recently in a class-action law suit filed by Canton resident Leonard Wasczenski. Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph B. Sullivan ruled that no injunction would be issued to take the reserves off the street because they presented a clear danger to township residents.

He also said a hiring of the officers was not a violation of township civil service rules, as had been suggested in the Wasczenski suit.

Meanwhile, a meeting was held last Wednesday in Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan's office to determine whether or not the prosecutor will seek legal action to remove the reserve unit from the streets. A spokesman for the office of Dominick Carnovale, chief of the prosecutor's criminal division, said a ruling on the matter will be made sometime today (Wednesday) or tomorrow.

With cushion against state cuts Schools levy full 4.75 mills

BY HANK MEIJER

By a one-vote margin, Plymouth School Board members Monday voted to levy the entire 4.75 mills approved by school district voters earlier this month.

According to the tax rate resolution as offered by Trustee George Lawton, however, .5 mil of the total or about $240,000 in revenues, will be earmarked as contingency funds that could offset much of an executive order cutback in state school aid expected by many school officials later this fall.

Lawton's resolution prohibits the district from spending the contingency funds until February, by which time the impact of expected state cutbacks will be known.

While Lawton's levy-with reserve approach won support from Board Treasurer Richard Arlen and Trustees Tom Yack and Marcia Borowski, President Joe Gray, Vice-President E.J. McClendon and Secretary Flossie Tonda urged the board to reduce the levy by .5 mills.

Said McClendon, "Several of us (board members) said we might be able to manage this year's growth without it, and if we were to be able to, we wouldn't levy it. It's an excellent time to keep faith with the voters and taxpayers."

Countered Lawton, "normally my position is one of conservatism on budget items, but we promised voters we'd try to maintain the same level of education we did in the 1975-76 school year. If there are executive order cutbacks, we'd be providing voters with less than we promised them."

Arlen said, "Initially I wanted to return it (the .5 mill) too, but I see the same barbed wire as last year coming down our financial road in the next six to eight months. We do have an opportunity to reduce the millage we have coming up in the spring (a five-mill renewal).

"There's always room to squeeze out fat. We're willing to keep looking for fat. It's only wisdom at this time to provide for state cutback contingency and not be forced to strip the budget when the cutback comes later."

School officials project revenues in 1976-77 of more than $21.6 million, compared to expenditures of $21.4 million.

Total local millage will be 39.95 mills, including a debt retirement levy of 6.19 mills - a reduction of .4 mill from last year. Last year's total millage levied was 35.6 mills.

School officials say the contingency reserve is the result of the difference between revenues and expenditures plus nearly $155,000 provide in the budget.

Reacting to community interest in the influence of teacher negotiations on budget decision, a school official said, "additional funds are available (under the 4.75 mill appropriation) for more teachers, but not for higher salaries."

Busing restored for 800 K-2 students

In a move which affects some 800 of the youngest Plymouth School District students, school board members Monday reversed an earlier policy change and agreed to provide bus service for kindergarteners and first and second graders who live more than a mile but less than a mile and a half from school.

The board had raised its walking limit for the younger children earlier this year from a mile to a mile and a half, the standard set by the State Department of Education.

School officials said a return to the old busing policy would require one to two weeks.

Crier's Fowl Festival trainee flies the coop

The Community Crower, a white leghorn which has been in training as The Crier's entry to the Oct. 10 First Fowl Festival chicken race, has escaped.

According to Steve Herbruck, of Herbruck's Poultry Ranch in Saranac where the chicken was training, the escape was made late last week. A posse has been formed by the Ionia County Animal Shelter and Humane Society by its director, Diane Herbruck (nee Wendover), a former Plymouth resident.

Searchers were optimistic that The Crier's flier would be recaptured although it's believed to be hiding in a deep wooded area near the river there. "We'll have to catch it at night with flashlights," Herbruck said, "if we can just find where it's nesting."

It is expected The Community Crower will be recaptured in time to ride down to Plymouth with the 100 chickens being supplied by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce to Fowl Festival contestants who do not already have their own entries.

But many Festival entrants like Hugh Jarvis Gifts, the First National Bank of Plymouth and Mardon Construction have chickens already in training. Jarvis has become known for his letters to his chicken trainer imploring them to send him down a winner while the bank has been secretly flying its chicken through its lobby after hours and on weekends.

Bill Graham, of First National Bank, was obviously pleased Saturday morning, to see the rapid progress the bank's chicken was making (having hatched from a Mayflower Hotel egg Friday night). "We all took turns sitting on the egg," he clucked.

"We're really proud of this company achievement."

Fowl Festival organizers told The Crier that all preparations are going according to schedule for the zainness which will cause Main Street to be closed off in front of Kellogg Park.

There are still several openings in the racing bill. Businesses interested in reserving a chicken or in flying their own bird may call Julie Thoman (453-8310). Information on the chamber-sponsored event may be obtained from Joan Gerigk (427-8226) or the chamber office (453-1450).

Union Street rezoning set

Plymouth City Commissioners are expected to act Monday on a planning commission proposal to rezone much of the west side of the block of Union Street between Main and Church from light industrial to office district.

AN UNUSUAL DEPOSIT was discovered last Saturday morning in the First National Bank of Plymouth when branch manager bill Graham (right) opened the bank for the day. The bank's entry in the First Annual Fowl Fest was already strutting around the lobby like a winner. The nameless bird is now the subject of a "name -the-chicken" contest. CANTON HIGH SCHOOL HOMECOMING meant hard work for Canton seniors who chipped in this week to put together their float for this year's homecoming parade. Homecoming activities started this week and will end Saturday night with a football game against Waterford Mott and then the homecoming dance. Working on the float are (from far left), standing) Gary Williams, (kneeling) Richard Furioso, Cyndi Gortney and Rochelle Collins, and (at top) Patti Muraske, Susan Denski and Craig Brass. ## Grid clash, dance climax week Chiefs mark homecoming even though it's early in the season, the Canton High School Chiefs are gearing up for this weekend's homecoming game against Waterford-Mott.

All the traditional activities are planned for the weeklong prelude climaxing with Friday's game (kickoff at 8 p.m.) and Saturday's homecoming dance for the Chiefs.

On Monday nominations for homecoming court were announced following a lollipop lick-off in the Canton cafeteria. It was also Chief Day - where the boys couldn't talk to the girls.

Tuesday was Squaw Day - the gals couldn't talk to the guys. In addition, it was the day for the Tricycle Races, which were held in the bus loop at the Centennial Educational Park.

Today will mark "Spirit Hall" where each homeroom decorates a portion of the halls. It will end with a hamburger eating contest.

Thursday will be highlighted by a bubble gum blowing contest at 1 p.m. in the Canton cafeteria.

The homecoming parade will be held at 7 p.m. Thursday in the downtown area.

Stepping out from Central Middle School's parking lot at 7 p.m. onto Adams Street, the parade proceeds down Church to Harvey, down Harvey to Ann Arbor Trail, up the Trail to Main Street, and then up Main Street to Church and back to the school.

Featured in the parade will be the CFP Band, the cheerleaders, the Chiefettes, the homecoming court candidates and the Canton football team members - as well as the class floats.

Friday will start with balloting for the queen contestants and will rise to a high pitch at the 2 p.m. pep assembly in the Canton cafeteria.

During half time of the game Friday night, the winners of the week's contests will be announced and the winner of the homecoming Queen balloting will be crowned.

Saturday's Homecoming Dance will be held from 8 to 11 p.m. at the school cafeteria.

Audit shows added $$$

After months of budget slashing last spring, a newly released annual audit of the Plymouth Community School District shows the schools have a fund equity - - otherwise known as a contingency fund or surplus - - of $550,000.

That's an increase of $190,000 over the 1974-75 fund equity of $359,547, but it's also a bare minimum to be prepared for unexpected expenses, according to Ray Hoedel, the district's assistant superintendent for business.

The audits places the district's revenues for 1975-76 at $17,385,892, against expenditures of $17,161,940, to create a surplus of $223,952. Add to that the 1974-75 year-end balance and the district ended this past school year with a balance of $583,409, from which adjustments were made to account for prior-year needs for a final balance of $550,127.

Said Hoedel, "The schools are maintaining sound business practices. Right now, we're only guessing at revenues for the next year."

The district's biggest fund equity in recent years came in 1971-72 when a balance of more than $669,000 was reported, against a budget of $10 million, compared to $17 million this year.

Hoedel said many experts recommend that school districts should budget a contingency of from eight to 10% of their total expenditures, with a balance equivalent to two weeks' expenses as a minimum.

Until 1974-75, most fund equities exceeded 5% of the total budget. That year the figure dropped to 2.33% climbing back to 3.21% this year. Two week's expenses are estimated this year at $660,000 or $110,000 above the current fund equity balance.

New ordinance would stiffen park rules

Plymouth Township Trustees were expected to give first reading last night to an ordinance regulating use of the Township Recreation Area.

Although many of the rules had already been established, officials say the ordinances would enable police to enforce them.

Park hours are to be 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. unless otherwise provided by order of the supervisor.

Adds the proposed ordinance, "The supervisor may order any public park closed, prohibit the consumption of any alcoholic beverages upon the premises of any public park at any time whatsoever whenever he deems such action is necessary to conserve the peace, suppress disorder, preserve property or protect the public safety and welfare."

The ordinance would ban dogs, cats, horses and minibikes from township park property.

Violation of any provision of the ordinance would carry a maximum penalty of $100 fine and 90 days in-jail.

Canton studies plan for center

The Canton Board of Trustees was expected last night to consider site plan approval for an office and shopping complex located on the west side of Canton Center Road south of Warren.

The complex is to be built in three phases, beginning with an office complex and followed by a retail shopping center to be built in two other phases.

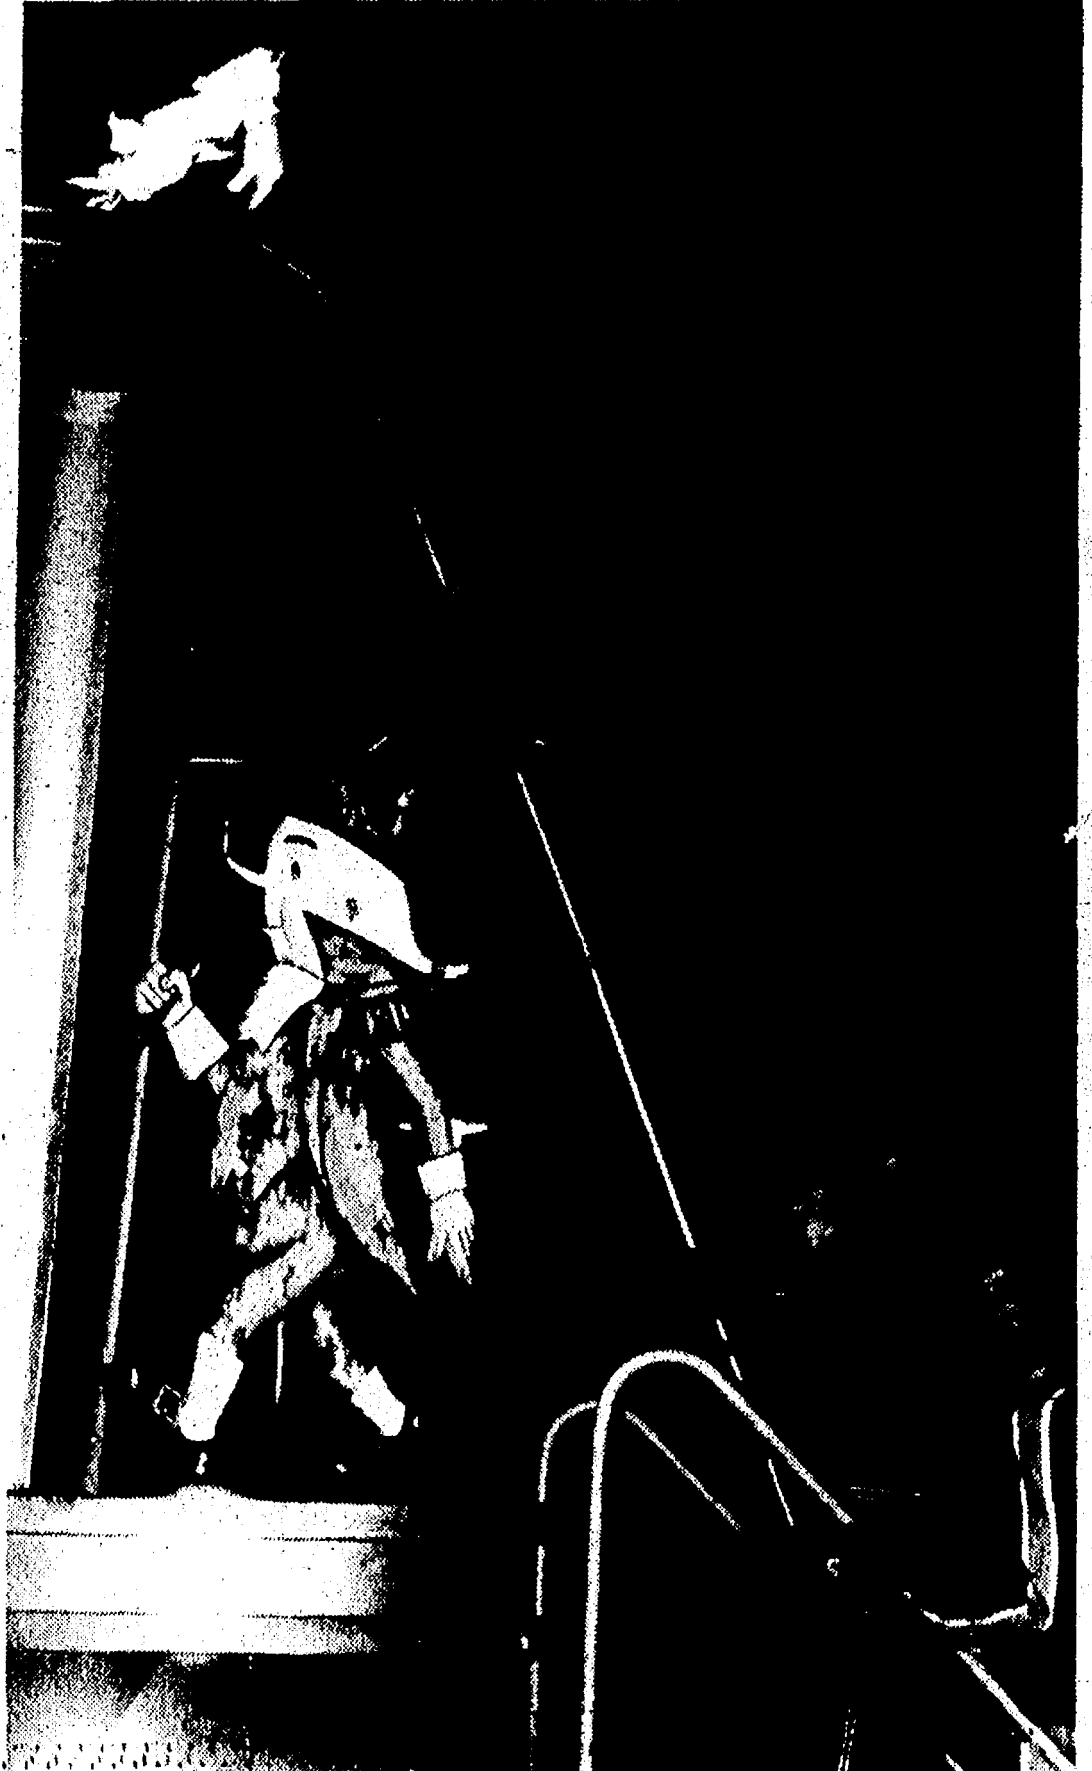

Approval of the proposed development was tabled at the Sept. 14 meeting after no agreement could be reached on disposition of paving Hanford Road south of the third phase of the complex. Developer Ara Gholioian has agreed he will pave the road during construction of the third phase, which is scheduled to begin two or three years after phase one is completed.

Some township board members, however, argued that Hanford Road should be paved during the construction of phase one.

Bundarin vs. Stein: First of 3 parts

Canton hopefuls would keep cops

BY KATHY KUENZER AND HANK MEIJER

Canton Township's controversial reserve police force will likely remain on patrol no matter who wins the Nov. 2 election for township supervisor, but not without some major changes in its supervision.

Bundarin says he would allow the reserves to patrol only when accompanied by professional police officers. Initially, he says, that could be accomplished by hiring certified officers on a part-time basis, who live in Canton. (The current reserve force includes in its ranks a few certified officers).

"It would not be a permanent set-up," Bundarin adds. "But we need an interim measure."

In the long run, the Republican attorney says, the answer may be a metropolitan police department that would serve Canton and some surrounding communities.

"Plymouth is my orientation," he says, suggesting that the Plymouth Police Department be approached about expanding to serve Canton - as well, perhaps, as Plymouth Township.

He says that approach would provide Canton residents with the service of jail cells and a detective bureau at lower cost than establishing such facilities for township residents alone.

While he would require reservists to be accompanied by certified officers, he would also permit them to carry guns. "I would never allow an officer to be on the street without protection," he says.

Bundarin suggests he would also consider seeking a millage to support an expanded police operation. "If properly presented and show to be a good investment - and with all the exposure we've had to our lack of police protection - voters would be willing to support a small millage," he concludes.

Stein, who narrowly defeated incumbent Bob Greenstein in the August primary, made the reserves a key issue in his campaign.

He says that placing the reserves under the direction of the Wayne County Sheriff Department or some other police agency might answer the town-

Bills reveal cop costs

Record of Canton Township expenditures show that in the last month more than $21,000 has been spent on the Canton Reserve Police Department.

The largest single expense in a total of $21,679 in disbursements for the reserves was uniforms, with $8,600.89 spent on shirts, raincoats, belts, trousers, jackets, hats and skirts.

Another expenditure for police car lights, flashers and other special lighting, came to $4,625.01 while employes' salaries for three weeks came to some $3,254.50 for a total of 1,415 man hours at $2.30 per hour.

Other purchases and expenditures since Aug. 31 includes $981 for breast and cap badges, $734.45 for campaign hats and covers, uniform jackets, ties and shirts, and other accessories. Liability insurance for the reserves came to $2,478.

A total of $23,000 has been set aside for police fees as per diem and supplies in the proposed budget for 1977. Only $6,000 was budgeted for police protection in the 1976 fiscal year.

City relies on Twp. water

While City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township politicians often have little good to say about each other, there's no shortage of cooperation at other levels of government.

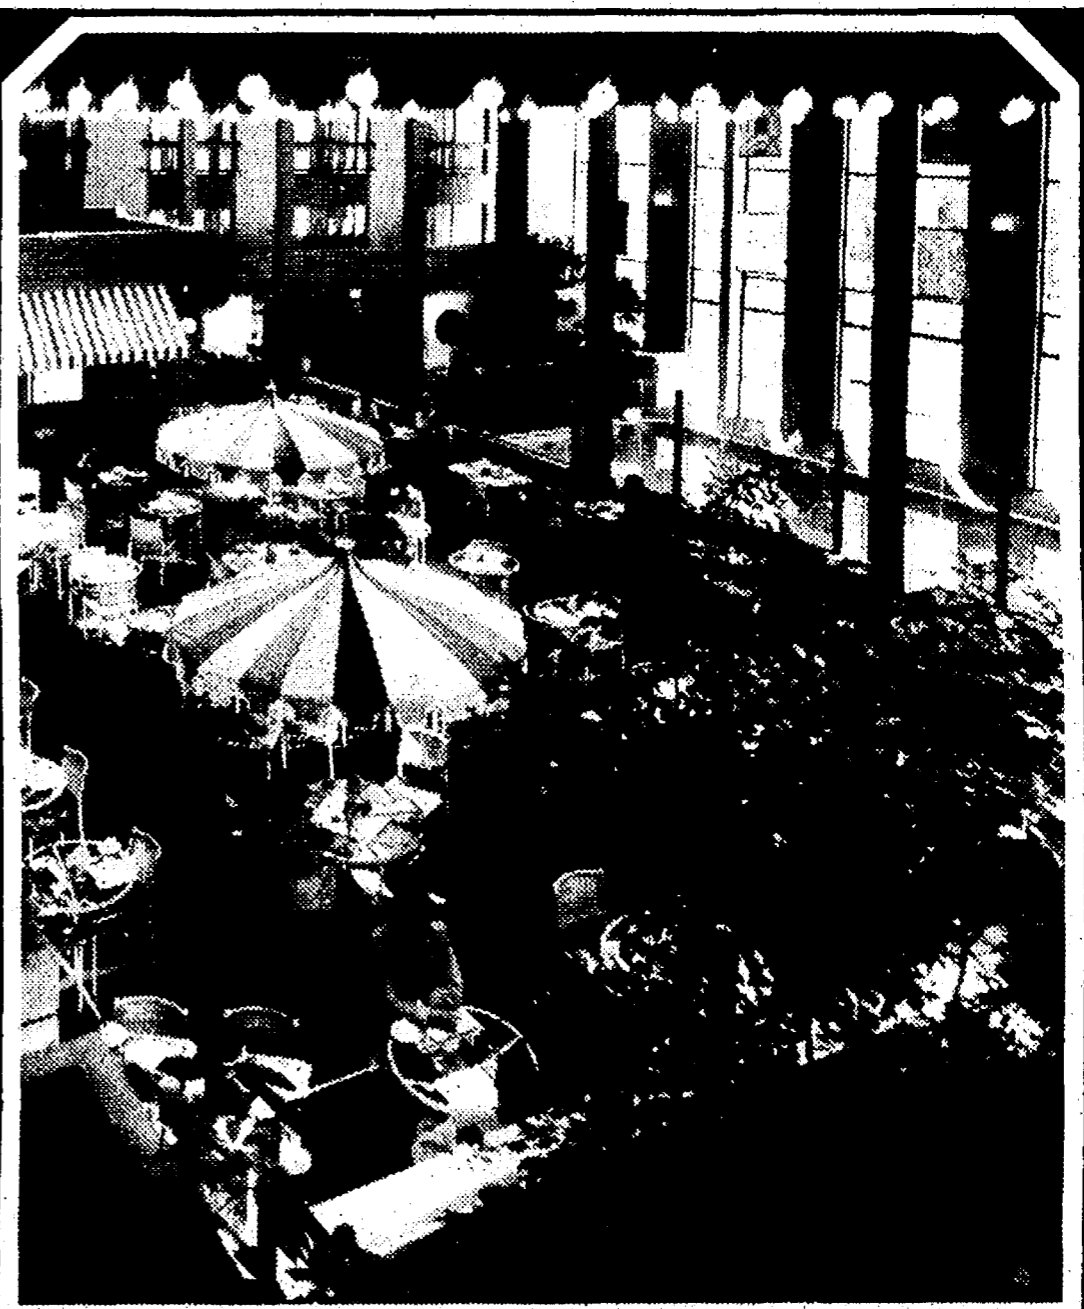

Township DPW Chief Web Kincade received a letter of thanks last week from Ken Vogras, his counterpart at the city DPW, for township help during a city water main break earlier this month.

The break occurred Sept. 9 during a rainstorm. When water for homes and fire hydrants in the city's New England Village subdivision at Sheldon and North Territorial was cut off, DPW crews connected a township hydrant to a city hydrant.

"Without your cooperation," Vogras wrote Kincade, "We would have had about 200 homes without domestic water and fire protection for several hours."

"Even though there may be political differences between our two governmental bodies, cooperation between departments I feel is most essential."

The township billed the city for some 7,000 gallons of water pumped from its hydrant.

Politics, police always mix

Editor:

Look who's wearing two hats! To the authors and lead- astray supporters of all those adamant letters to the editor crying, "Keep politics out of the police department," and "You can't be in an administrative government position and be the Chief of Police, too" I ask:

1. How is keeping politics and police separate when you are supporting Lt. Eugene Daley, a top officer and official of the Wayne County Sheriff, as the Stein, Slate candidate for trustee?

2. How is keeping politics and police separate when your Stein slate received $500 cold cash for campaign funds?

3. How is keeping politics and police separate when the Wayne County Sheriff's Union printed and sent out to every registered voter in Canton (numbering over 11,000) TWO separate political mailings?

4. How is keeping politics and police separate when you had a few Wayne County Sheriff officers handing out Stein's political information?

5. Tell me that if Daley gets in office, he will tell his boss (the Wayne County Sheriff) "Thanks for the money and literature and support but, sorry, we just aren't going to pay $300,000 per sheriff's car to patrol Canton."

6. Why didn't you cry foul when Supervisor Dingeldey was appointed to the identical position as Chief of Police? You felt it was legal for Dingeldey, but not for Greenstein? How's this?

(NOTE: The majority of those voicing complaints were in the Township at the time of Dingeldey's appointment). Funny thing, Dingeldey was the Stein Slate's second highest financial supporter!

Please remember the President of the United States is commander of all the armed forces, and the Governor is the commander of the National Guard and State Police - men in responsible positions have to wear more than two hats.

Wake up Canton YOU are being led astray by the Stein force!

Disclosure shows honesty

Editor:

I was pleased to read in the newspaper that Democratic Congressional candidate Dr. Edward Pierce has made public his personal finances. Since the Watergate scandal, I have been concerned about the sources of income of candidates for public office. I believe that Dr. Pierce has given strong evidence of his personal honesty by this revelation, and it gives me added confidence that this is a candidate who will not be bought by anyone.

However, I am disappointed that Dr. Pierce's opponent, Carl Pursell, has not seen fit to follow suit and reveal his personal finances also. I have heard that Dr. Pierce has challenged him repeatedly to do so, but apparently he has not responded.

I wish that the Crier would inquire from Mr. Pursell why he is not revealing his finances, and report his answer to the voters, so that we will have a better idea of the voting choice we have for Congress election day.

CHRISTINE KERWIN

Editor's Note: Pursell has revealed his personal financial statement.

Last Words

by Hank Meijer

In case you haven't noticed, new township - and city - halls are all the rage this year.

Word is out among municipal officials that Uncle Sam will soon be releasing some $2 billion in public works bill funds designed to boost employment in the construction trades. W

While the stampede that announcement started may not be the answer to all our unemployment woes, it's certainly keeping some architects busy.

Experts say communities with plans already drawn up and ready to go - perhaps plans that were shelved in previous years when local governments ran out of money - have the edge in the federal funding free-for-all. If that's the case, the City of Plymouth is odds-on favorite among local municipalities. The city merely dusted off some old plans for a $500,000 addition to City Hall.

While the townships are long shots, Canton has come up with a contemporary design - or at least a design that was contemporary in the 1950s - in practically no time at all.

If it turns out to be a win-place-show affair locally, look for Plymouth Township to trail the others across the finish. The thrifty township board has not harbored visions of a new hall in its near future, so a rush application for federal funds caught township officials off guard.

They've got a good site - the triangle between Ann Arbor trail, Beck and Powell, but their plan is still in its early stages. They know their bet is a long shot, but then as one trustee put it, "We might as well ask for the most expensive thing we can get."

Why not? Christmas only comes once a year.

PCF taps Canton despite new ZIPs

Despite promises that the Plymouth Community Fund would not be soliciting by mail in Canton this year, it is.

Problems in the past with Canton's "Plymouth" mailing address were understandable. The mailings went to all Plymouth addresses, which included most of the northern half of Canton. Confusion existed, since Canton is part of the Greater Detroit United Fund campaign and, with only a few exceptions, its residents are not eligible for PCF agency assistance.

This year, with Canton sporting its own mailing address, the problems were supposed to be solved.

But it happened -- this reporter received a solicitation for the PCF in the mail, addressed to "Resident, Canton."

the Ford LTD Story

Ford hasn't forgotten the big-car family.

For 1977, some car makers will offer you only shorter, narrower, lighter "Full-Size" cars. Ford has a better idea. Ford feels people who want the traditional full-size car they're used to should have that choice. So Ford hasn't reduced the 1977 Ford LTD by a single inch.

BY TED EVANOFF

The Republican cited his accomplishments and the Democrat flayed republicans when the two candidates for the united States Congress from the 2nd District debated Friday, in Ann Arbor.

It was the first face to face public meeting in the race between Edward Pierce, 46, a medical doctor from Ann Arbor, and Carl Pursell, 43, a Republican State Senator from Plymouth.

The two spoke mainly on national topics before some

Vacancies await action in Canton

Vacancies on three Canton Township boards and commissions were expected to be filled at last night's meeting of the Board of Trustees.

The board was expected to consider the appointment of one member to the planning commission, two additional members to the zoning board of appeals (ZBA) and two members to the Citizens Advisory Council (CAC).

A planning commission seat has been vacant since the May resignation of Commissioner Bob Simmons. Two additional members are needed on the ZBA to meet state requirements basing total membership on population. The CAC has been adding to its list of representatives since its inception last year.

Judging by audience applause, response to each candidate's remarks was comparable, although Pierce drew ringing applause in his opening statement when he branded the Republican party "Unwilling and incompetent" in handling the socially-divisive issues of the 1960's and '70's.

Pursell began first, stressed his integrity, willingness to go against the Republican grain on issues, and chided Democratic fiscal policy, saying the problems of America cannot be solved simply by spending.

"The future of the country is not in Washington D.C.," Pursell said, "I think it is with the individual who cares for his fellow man." Pursell said.

Pierce portrayed himself as compassionate, a poor man's child during the Depression raised an "economic Democrat" because of 1920's Republican

Y alters classes

The Canton-Northville-Plymouth YMCA has announced the rescheduling of its picture framing class to a beginning date of Wednesday, Oct. 19, from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at the Frameworks in Forest Place Mall.

In addition, the Y says a children's tap dancing class was inadvertently omitted from its program flyer. Classes for children six and older will be held from 5 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Mondays at Farrand School, Tuesdays at Allen School and Wednesdays at Fiegel School, beginning the week of Oct. 11.

Registration for both of these classes can be done by calling the Y at 453-2904.

CARL PURSELL

fiscal arrogance toward the poor, which, he says, continues today. He bemoaned the present mass apathy, and mistrust toward government and the lack of party affiliation among citizens.

Questioned about establishing jobs for Detroit unemployed, Pierce said he favors government spending in times of recession, especially to create work, and endorsed the Humphrey-Hawkins large-scale employment bill.

Pursell, on the same question, said the nation must live within its means. He favored government as employer during extreme emergencies and a modified version of the Humphrey-Hawkins bill, but said the long term solution was industrial expansion through tax incentives and industrial diversification to end dependence on the automobile industry.

He cited his environmental bill in the Michigan senate as a lure for attracting environment oriented industries.

Both favored aid to decaying American cities. Pierce would want more money devoted to regions with high crime, for crime, he said, is integrally tied to decay.

Pursell extolled his senate work in helping the development of a "massive, long range master plan" for Detroit.

On the federal policy of selling arms to both the Arab nations and Israel, Pursell said he supported Israel and favored the current administration's military, technological, and educational commitments to the Middle East.

Pierce thought supplying both sides with equipment and technicians would entangle the U.S. in a complicated position. He said an arms reduction is vital and that he would want assured the existence of Israel.

Program offers job hope

With good training, handicapped young people can become valuable employees through the Plymouth Community School District's Individual Vocational Educational Program.

Under the direction of special education teacher Patrick O'Donnell at Centennial Educational Park, 22 students received individual job training in 1975-76.

To participate in the Individual Vocational Education Program, a student must be identified as mentally impaired, learning disabled or emotionally impaired. With proper guidance, school officials say, many of these students show a high degree of job success.

Of last year's group, the first in the new program, 16 found jobs. They worked in auto mechanics, building repair, carpentry, child care, automotive assembly, domestic cleaning and other occupations.

Among the firms which trained students were Fisher Body, Mayflower Hotel, Red Roof Inn, Volk Corporation of Farmington and Fishaw's Automotive Repair.

O'Donnell is now seeking positions for as many as thirty students for the coming school year. Since the program receives federal funds for vocational education for handicapped high school students, the participants and their trainers have ample instruction and counseling.

This is an educational program, not just a way to keep kids busy, O'Donnell emphasizes. Students receive credits toward a regular high school diploma. A planning committee must approve the training plan and the amount of credit to be given.

During the training period, the student does not become a regular employee and does not receive a wage. This type of program should provide job entry skills or prerequisite skills for entry into post-school training, officials say.

Matching a student with a community trainer is the key to a successful program. It is necessary to have a pool of interested trainers available to be able to find the right spot for each student.

If a trainer agrees to work with a student, a contract is drawn up specifying work hours and cooperative goals. During the training, O'Donnell works with the student and trainer on evaluation and solving any problems that arise.

Most students in the Individual Vocational Education Program continue to attend school.

Handicapped students, like other young people, need to learn both job skills and how to be good employees, according to O'Donnell. Employers interested in providing a training position for a student in the Individual Vocational Education Program can contact O'Donnell through the Plymouth Community Schools, 8415 Canton Center Rd.

'Rocky' joins local mineral society

Plymouth's newest non-profit corporation, the Plymouth Rock and Mineral Society has geared up for another season of sharing interests in rocks and minerals cutting and polishing, tumbling, silversmithing and other related earth sciences.

The group consists of 48 members who enjoy the study of rocks and minerals. And this year, they've adopted a logo which they hope will catch the eye of others in the community.

"In an attempt to continue the thread of continuity for a recognizable theme for the Plymouth community," says the group's president, Hal Young, "we adopted the Fall Festival figure, called him 'Rocky,' and installed him on a colonial-type sign - thus our official logo."

Meetings of the society are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on the second Monday of each month, from September through May, at the Cultural Center. Meetings are open to all age groups to anyone with an interest in earth science.

In addition to regular meetings, occasional field trips are scheduled to local limestone quarries, gravel pits and nearby mineral museums.

"Plans are being made to provide working demonstrations by club members of their various craft skills during the 1977 Fall Festival," says Young, "Another scheme presently under consideration is a formal proclamation of a local type of common fieldstone as 'Genuine Plymouth Rock.'"

Officers for the 1976-77 year are Young, president; Charles Collins, vice president; Bart Quello, treasurer; Scottie Flora, secretary; and Marge Collins and Hilda Van Ormer, directors. Immediate past president is Jim Flora.

WSDP seeks to upgrade service

BY TED EVANOFF

Since 1950, television has preempted radio as home entertainment. That could change for the Plymouth area if Jeffrey Cardinal has his way.

Station manager of the Plymouth School District's student-staffed WSDP, Cardinal is intent on polishing the station's product. He wants to use an informative educational format to draw audiences away from television and commercial radio and he needs a federal grant.

Presently WSDP broadcasts within its five-mile radius student-produced documentaries, music, community news and events, canned information and UPI wire news. It carries school board meetings live, covers the varsity in basketball tournaments, and airs girls and boys varsity football and basketball home games. It's budgeted at $6,500, funded by the Plymouth School Board.

Cardinal foresees upgrading the WSDP broadcast equipment and hiring either part or full-time professionals to assist and train students in the logistics of developing and producing informative stories with a political, historical or public service twist that carries weight enough to attract commercial network audiences.

This month, he and Samuel Ulsaker, administrative assistant for research program planning and deferral projects, met in Washington D.C. an official of the Bureau of Education to feel out the possibility of a grant. Cardinal estimates he needs funds in the range of $75,000 to upgrade WSDP.

Washington's reaction was mixed, Cardinal said, with the direction the station was heading favored, but with the need seen for a citizen advisory group to serve as a sounding board.

The grant is complicated by bills pending before the Federal Communication Commission which would do away with low-power stations on the National Education Radio spectrum like WSDP, the station manager says. The feeling in bureaucracy, according to Cardinal, is to make more room on the FM band for high-power public radio stations.

Another factor is the attitude in Washington that low power school stations are more training operations, Cardinal says. He discounts the attitude.

Cardinal considers the WSDP product professional, terms its 60-member student staff serious, and notes that like most commercial and National Educational Radio stations, serves community needs as set down in the license.

Cardinal hopes to see more intensive programming in about 18 months. He still must apply for the grant. Before then, he'll use Federal Communications Commission surveys to gauge citizen reaction to WSDP programming. The survey, with questions like "what do you think is wrong with the community that the station should be aware of?" should start this winter.

The station started broadcasting in February, 1974, and is on the air 10 months each year from noon until 8 p.m. (longer for scheduled events) at 89.3 FM.

Lunch with LOMAS

The world is moving so fast nowadays that if you leave a tuna sandwich on your lunch plate for three minutes, chances are you'll return to a "tuna puff" or a "tuna fish square."

Or maybe it's just the combination of what is served as lunch: at Central next Wednesday the volatile duo of tacos and garlic toast will be served.

Even if it is in the name of progress, lunch should not be changed from plain old pizza to "pizza puff" (Isbister on Friday), and the likes of "pizza noodle casserole", (East on Friday) instead of pizza.

Pizza cookies, anyone?

against a brick wall. We don't want to strike, but we aren't going to work the whole year without a contract."

Mrs. Reece said teachers are being instructed to call five parents each this week and next to discuss the PEA's side and "apply pressure to the school board" for movement at the bargaining table.

"They are stubborn," she said. "Norm (personnel director and administration negotiator (Norm Kee) can't get the board to move... We knew they could afford what we had in mind as a final settlement.

"We don't want to destroy the district, and we're not going to."

Although there will be no mediator present when negotiators return to the bargaining table this week, Kee is more optimistic about chances for settlement.

"I think she (Mrs. Reece) is being rather pessimistic about it," she said. "I'm optimistic, but it's going to take some movement on both sides."

Following an early-morning bargaining session yesterday, negotiators said they were no closer to agreement.

Added Kee, however, "we certainly didn't reach any agreement but there was some real movement being made off the table."

"A strike is the last thing we want and they (PEA officials) tell me it's the last thing they want."

Beginning Monday, teachers will be answering questions from residents on a hotline at 722-8190 between 3 p.m. and 7 p.m.

Candidates differ on cops

ship's need for expanded police protection.

"I would propose," he says, "that the reserve unit immediately work in conjunction with and under the direct control of the officers in the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, who on a regular, routine and scheduled basis provide the existing law enforcement services to Canton Township."

He too, suggests the possibility of a millage for police protection. "If people want additional services," he says, "The place to determine it is in the voting booth."

He adds, "If the reserves remain without direct supervision then their guns should be taken away. If they work directly under the Sheriff or the State Police, they can keep the guns."

Stein is critical of the part-time status of Canton reserves - they're only on the streets from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m.

"If they are going to be police, they should be a full-time unit, complete with all the benefits. They're doing the work, laying their lives on the line for minimum wages. It shouldn't be a question of 'how much will it cost' for full-time police, but 'how can the township be protected on a volunteer basis?'"

Stein denies allegations by the Greenstein slate during the primary campaign that he had already agreed to contract with the Sheriff for police service.

"I have not contacted the Sheriff in any way," he says. "The proper approach, anyway, would be through the Wayne County Board of Commissioners. I am not an elected official - I have not approached them. There might eventually be a good offer for them, but no one knows yet, because no approach has been made."

Stein says he would convene a "blue-ribbon committee" of township residents to "review the operations and cost of providing police services in surrounding communities, primarily Westland, Wayne, Romulus.

"The purpose, to determine what dollar amounts would be needed to establish and maintain our own law enforcement department, or, as an alternative, to enter into a contractual relationship with the Sheriff's department."

Simon blasts for gain

CHIEF FULLBACK Jerry Simon breaks through two Annapolis tackles as he runs up the middle of the field during Canton's first victory of the season.

Timely defense lifts Chiefs to 18-8 win in home debut

BY SPIKE KERSHAW

The Chief defense was in the right places at the right times Saturday night, scooping up a fumble and intercepting a pass in the third quarter according to a script that secured Canton head coach Dave Schuele's first triumph of the season, 18-8, over Dearborn Heights Annapolis.

The non-league win buoyed the spirits of a 1-1 Chief squad that faces a tough homecoming battle this Saturday at 8 p.m. against Western Six foe Waterford Mott at Centennial Park Field.

Neither offense nor defense showed much spark in the first half. A diminutive Annapolis team with an even smaller roster stymied the Chiefs at every turn, recovering a fumble and intercepting a pass to stop first quarter Chief drives. Early in the second quarter, a Cougar back, aided by a penalty against the Chiefs which gave Annapolis first and goal on the one yard line, slammed over the middle for a touchdown. A two point conversion attempt succeeded and the visitors took an 8-0 lead which they carried into the lockerroom at halftime.

Canton took the kickoff to start the second quarter, but was forced to punt after three plays. Annapolis took possession in good field position, on the Canton 45, when Schuele's troops got the chance they'd been waiting for.

Chief defensive end Doug Smith watched the Cougar quarterback roll out and spot a receiver deep in Canton territory. Reminded at halftime of the familiar pattern by his coaches Smith stepped in front of the intended receiver, grabbed the ball and raced 51 yards downfield before being dragged down on the Annapolis one-yard line.

Moments later, quarterback Mark Perkins kept the ball and dove over the line to pull the Chiefs within two, 8-6. A two-point conversion run was stopped short to keep the Cougars in front.

On the first play from scrimmage after the Chiefs kicked off, however, Canton noseguard and co-captain Tom Powell pounced on a Cougar fumble on the visitors' 29.

Runs by tailback Mark Hutton and fullback Jerry Simon brought the Chiefs to the Annapolis 14, the tailback Jim Meadows, taking a handoff from Perkins, crossed the field on a trap play to waltz in with a standup TD.

A pass for a two-point conversion was incomplete, but the Chiefs took the lead for the first time in the 1976 campaign, 12-8.

A face mask penalty cut short an Annapolis comeback bid, and although the Chief offense

Chiefs lead Rocks, both lag in best-ball

Canton Chief golfers edged the Salem Rocks by two strokes, 160-162, yesterday in the fifth annual Plymouth Best Ball tourney, sponsored by the Plymouth Community Schools and Brae Burn Golf Course.

The Plymouth Best Ball Tourney features four players from each of 28 schools that participated this year. The four players are split in two teams of two, playing their best score against one other school.

Canton players were Steve Morman and John Pearson, scoring 74 and Scott McGlone and Craig Brass, who came in with an 86.

Salem High participants were linksmen Craig Stevens and Mike Mullins, showing a 79. Ted Kuhns and Ross came in with an 83.

A low winning score of 140 went to Thurston. A high of 174 by one school put Canton and Salem in the middle.

Last year, Salem took first place honors.

Canton cagers tripped

BY MATT NORRIS

The Canton women's basketball team was dealt its first loss of the season by Waterford Mott last Thursday 44-37. "The girls hurried a lot of shots and were in a bad mental state for the game," explained Coach Mike McCauley.

Although the Chiefs have averaged 60 points per game, and had a 50% shooting average, neither was present Thursday. Only Kathy Sochacki reached double figures for Canton, while the team sank a paltry 26% from the floor.

The team fell behind early, making only one out of 16 shots in the first quarter. The Waterford team carried a five-point first quarter lead all through the Western Six contest.

"I admit I made a coaching error by getting angry," confessed McCauley, who expressed his frustration to the players in the fourth quarter. "But maybe this early loss will help us come back stronger."

The junior varsity lost to Mott by a slim 40-41 score. The Chiefs outscored Mott 16-4 in the third quarter to take a 29-25 lead, but saw it slip away in the final moments of the game.

Two days before the loss to Waterford, the Chiefs bounced John Glenn 59-27. Kathy Sochacki sparked the team to a 24-6 first quarter lead with five field goals.

The junior varsity also beat John Glenn 44-29. The Rockets were behind by five at half-time, and the Canton cagers fired in 15 points in the third quarter to easily win their third win against one loss. The varsity record also stands at 3-1.

Recreational Vehicle Life

by Earl Rafferty

Do you want to keep your refrigerator cool in hot weather driving? One innovative RV owner discovered a way to make a wind shield for his refrigerator. Using a hammer and a small metal chisel on a piece of scrap aluminum, he fashioned a shield with a blank frontal surface and a three inch wrap around on both sides. Cut outs were made to accommodate the gas tubings. A drawer pull made removal easy. This simple shield keeps the refrigerator cool and keeps food at its best.

Rock JV stops Tigers

Salem High gridders should have taken a cue from their junior varsity Friday night as the JV gave Belleville a 14-8 beating in their season opener last Thursday.

Sam Merrill made the first Rock touchdown on the third play with a 20-yard run, but an extra-point attempt was an offside penalty giving Salem a 6-0 lead.

A five-yard run by Dave Wilcox in the third quarter boosted the Rocks' lead to 12-0, but an extra-point kickoff was blocked by Belleville.

The score was boosted to 14 late in the third quarter on a safety by junior Bill Jacoby, as he tackled a Belleville punter in the end zone.

"We were ahead all the way, but it was tough," said coach Barr. "It was a good defensive game, and we had several outstanding players on defense."

The Rocks do battle at home tomorrow afternoon with Redford Union. "They were weak last year, so I'm looking forward to another victory (tomorrow)," said Barr.

But it was a sadder story for the JV Chiefs, who fell 21-9 to WL Central the same afternoon.

"We had a bad break the first half," said coach Steve Burton. "A pass was intercepted by Central and they ran it in for their first touchdown."

"We hadn't scrimmaged this year," he said. "But even though we were shellshocked the first half, we came out fighting the second half and played well."

Guard Brian James kicked a 29 yard field goal for the Chiefs first points, while tailback Tracey Stewart ran 6 yards into the endzone during the second half for the rest of the Chief's 9 point score.

The Chiefs travel to Garden City East tomorrow afternoon for their second game.

Rock cagers shoot for perfect record

BY DONNA LOMAS

Even the benching of two starters didn't hamper the Salem High girls basketball team much last Thursday, as the Rocks stretched their perfect record to 4-0 with a non-league triumph over Trenton, 76-46.

After topping Sub-eight foe Bentley 50-40 two days earlier coach Debbie Hatcher said the Trenton game was by far the better played.

Scoring honors in Thursday's game went to Cathy Dillon, who netted 18 points, and Erin and Peggy Moore, who tied for 13 points each.

Peggy Moore was high rebounder with 11.

"Everyone played very well Thursday," said coach Hatcher. "Everyone did their job, and I'm pleased to say the bench is developing very quickly."

"We expected Bentley to be tougher than they were," she commented. "But we played a flawless first quarter and scored 12 points off them. No complaints about that, but the rest of the game we played sloppily even though we won."

By the third quarter last Tuesday the score was 46-25 in Salem's favor, but Bentley rallied to within 10 before falling 50-40.

By presstime, Hatcher said she was looking forward to playing non-league Churchill yesterday (Tuesday).

"They've been working hard the past two years, and are probably coming into their own this year," she said. "If they play man-to-man this year, it should be exciting."

Traveling to Allen Park tomorrow, (Thursday), the Rocks don't expect much of a fight from perennially weak Allen Park.

Runners lose 2

BY MATT NORRIS

Victory eluded the Canton Harriers by seconds last Tuesday, placing third in a tri-meet at Cass Benton. Livonia Stevenson finished first, with 15 points, but Redford Union edged Canton 60-62.

William Murphy finished first for the Chiefs, ahead of all RU runners, but behind the Stevenson top five harriers. Half a minute behind Murphy was sophomore Rick Fleischer, who finished ninth. Mark Zydeck placed twelfth, Dennis Hennels 17th and freshman Brian Olk was 18th. Dave Spitz and Dan McGlenn finished 20th and 21st in the meet.

Three Chief reserves ran in the junior varsity meet the same day. Jerry Freiman and Dave Perrot had their first cross country experience, and finished 12th and 16th. Dave Talaga paced 17th with a 23:30 timing.

The five top runners showed improvement against Walled Lake Western Thursday, although the team lost 18-42. Murphy placed fourth with his best time of the season, a 16:34 clocking. Fleischer placed sixth at 17:13, and Zydeck's 17:26 was a full minute faster than his previous best. Hennels and Olk were 12th and 13th, both under 18 minutes. McGlenn, Spitz, and Talaga, and newcomer Steve Simms trailed Olk.

"Our hard work is starting to pay off," commented coach Dave Spitz, "and we should peak soon." He is happy with the team's improvement, and is optimistic about tomorrow's meet against Waterford Mott.

Your home should be, besides your nest of dreams, an income tax saver. From the moment you take title to the day you turn over the key to the next inhabitants, you are endowed with opportunities to minimize your tax bill.

While you own the home, your two major annual deductions are property taxes and the interest on the mortgage. These can be considerable deductions.

Keep in mind that it doesn't matter whether you pay property taxes directly or through an escrow account held by the bank. In either

Loop opener is sour, Tigers trip Rocks 12-6

BY DONNA LOMAS

The Salem Rocks lost their league opener at Centennial Park field 12-6 to strong running Belleville last Friday, dashing hopes for an undefeated season.

The Rocks just couldn't pick up the speed they needed to outrun the hard-hitting Tigers.

Belleville's first touchdown was made seconds into the first quarter, when halfback Kelvin Patterson ran 39 yards in three plays through a sleepy Rock defense. Curt Lewis and Bob Wate blocked the extra point kick and the score was suddenly Belleville 6, Salem 0.

"Their speed was the big thing," said coach Tom Moshimer after the game. "We were just a bit slow, and speed is important to win."

Salem clashes with Sub 8 foe Redford Union away next Friday.

"If we play like this - we might as well fold up the tent and go home," Coach Moshimer.

"They don't have the speed we saw here tonight," said Moshimer, "but we have to look out for them. They can move the ball, are more aggressive and are much improved on defense."

Belleville's running backs, Patterson and Kevin Barnes blew the Rocks defensive line wide open throughout the first quarter, running both inside and out, and playing offense close to the ground.

Belleville gained 13 yards in two plays when they regained possession of the ball, and finally overpowered the Rocks again, running seven yards up the left side to make another touchdown with 2:10 left to go in the first quarter.

Belleville tried to bootleg to the right, in an attempt to gain two extra points but was tackled by Salem's Dave Champion, Ben Wilcox and Lony Vitale.

At the beginning of the second quarter, Belleville was ahead of the stunned Rocks 12-0. The Rocks rallied a little trading possession of the ball with Belleville in the opening of the second quarter.

Rock co-captain Tim Lilley launched a running attack on Belleville, gaining 21 yards for the Rocks, before turning the ball over. But the tenacious Salem defense line held up at the 12 yard line in the last minutes of the first half, thwarting another touchdown try by Belleville.

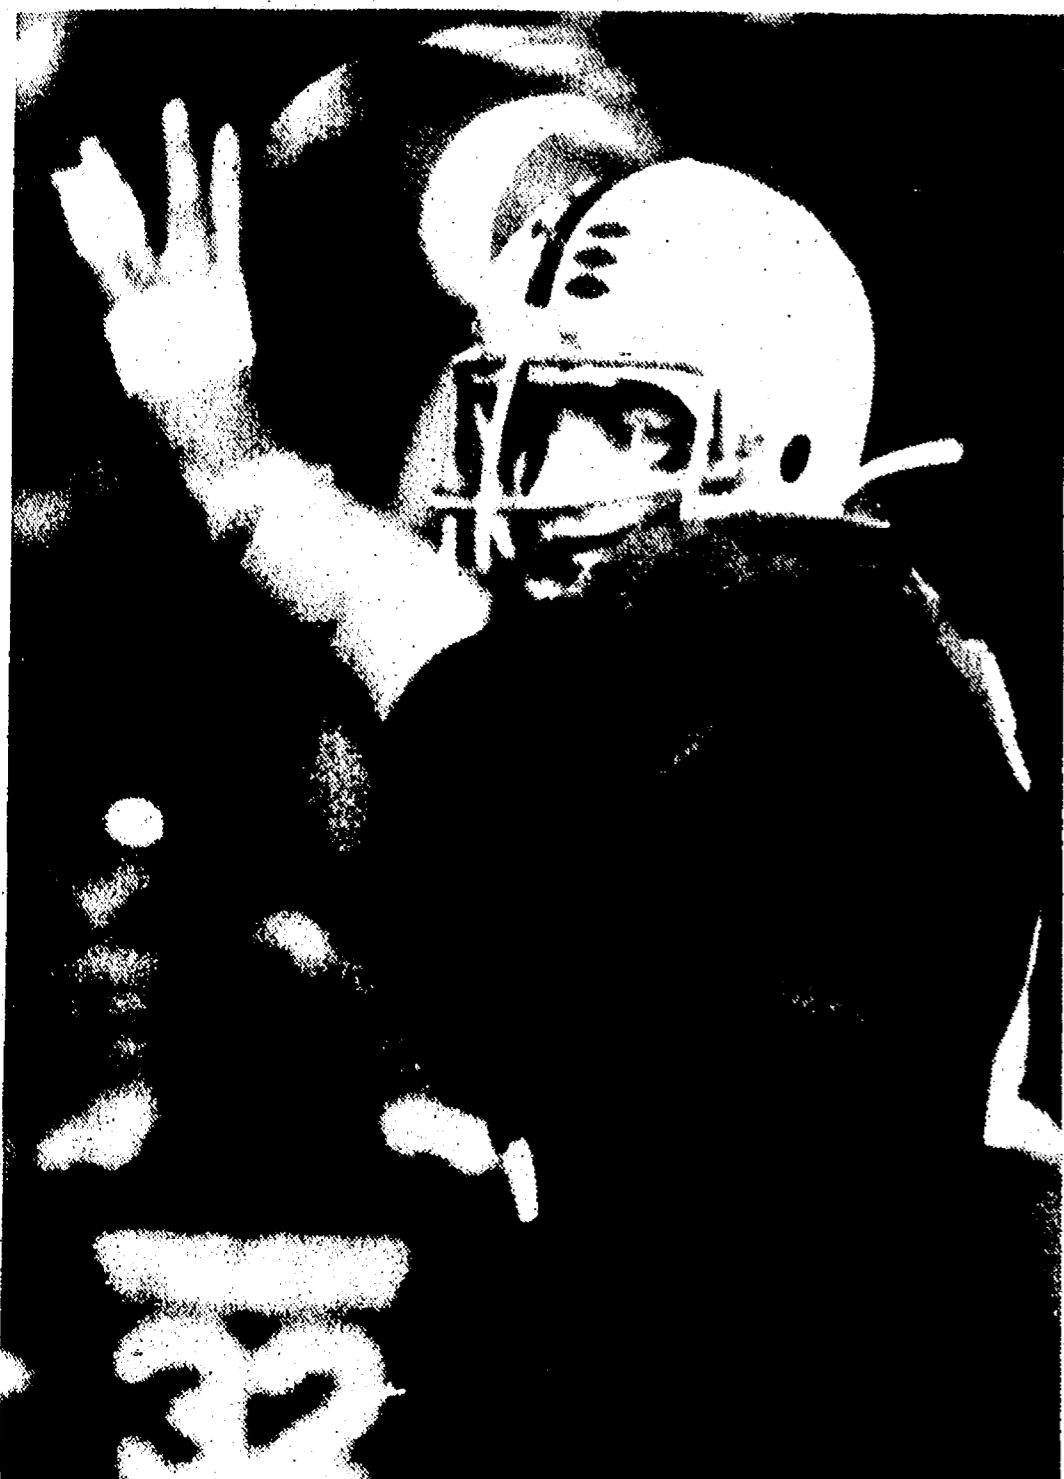

With senior Ben Wilcox replacing sophomore Rich Hewlett as quarterback, the Rocks moved the ball 20 yards and completed two passes to halfback Lilley before the ball became Belleville's again in the second half.

Salem's Bruce Piper blocked a Belleville try for a field goal from the Tiger's 32 yard line for 3 points, letting the score remain 12-0.

The Rocks never did get their offense to move, but by the time fourth quarter rolled around they were still halfheartedly trying.

Chief tankers rout Franklin

BY MATT NORRIS

Six Canton records were broken in the girls swimmer's debut last Thursday, as the Chiefs walloped the Franklin Patriots at home, 110 - 62.

The team won nine out of 11 events, taking first in all nine. School records were set by Annette Piethe in the 100 yard butterfly, Cindy Shelansky at the 100 backstroke, and Sue Knight in the 100 yard breaststroke. Piethe, Shelansky, and Knight teamed up with Tina DeWalt to set a new record of 2:09.6 in the 200 yard medley relay.

Lori Hogan won the 200 yard freestyle race in a record breaking 2:27.6 seconds. Senior Jane Anderson set a new mark in the 50 yard freestyle with a 27.9 second time. Anderson also took first in the 100 freestyle. Other firsts were earned by Shelansky in the 200 Individual Medley and the team of Hogan-Piethe-Anderson-McElmeel in the 400 freestyle relay.

The only events the Chiefs lost were diving (Where Weirdy Gray and Jamie Zuverink placed second and fourth), and the 500 freestyle marathon.

Coach Ann Massey was surprised that her team won by such a large margin, and is pleased with the team's progress.

"Some of the girls are as far now as they were at the end of last season," added the Canton coach.

Salem made their only touchdown with 25 seconds left in the fourth quarter. It was easy enough: Hewlett passed the ball five yards to Curt Lewis to score. Doug Waite's extra kick was blocked, and the final tally revealed the Rocks first defeat: 12-6.

Total rushing yards gained by Salem was 115 compared to Belleville's 268. Salem made seven first downs, Belleville 12; the Rocks completed six out of 14 passes, and the Tigers two out of four.

One interception was made each team, the Rocks gained 89 yards and Belleville 37. Salem outshone Belleville in defensive yard gains, 305 to 204.

Quarterback Rich Hewlett ran 36 yards, Doug Maigner ran 34, and co-captain Tim Lilley ran 25. Lilley and Curt Lewis caught three passes each.

Said a despondent coach Tom Moshimer after the game, "They came to play and we didn't, simple as that. We'll be back, we're too good to play like this all the time."

"But if we play like this two weeks in a row, we might as well fold up the tent and go home."

Realtors top touch grid standings

The third week of the Plymouth's Men's touch football season was greeted by rain and a soggy field, but not even the elements could stop a strong Realty World team from crunching the Mean Machine by a 34-9 score.

Realty World struck early as a deflected pass by Bernie Jackson at the line of scrimmage ended up in the hands of Tom Battistone who returned the ball 40 yards for a touchdown.

On the Mean Machines' next series of downs Dennis Galloway intercepted a pass and went 37 yards for a 14-0 Realty World lead. In the second quarter Realty World had the ball on their own 3 yard line when a bad snap from center resulted in a safety for Mean Machine.

Dan DeVito took the ball over from the one yard line to make the score 14-9 for Realty World at the half.

In the third quarter Realty World struck once again as Gary Knapp connected on an 80 yard bomb to Dennis Finrock.

Knapp connected on the next play with Ron Martinez for an 85 yard touchdown pass play. The scoring was rounded out when Knapp again connected with Finrock for a 63 yard gain to the Mean Machine 5 yard line.

From there Realty World rounded out the scoring as Knapp hit Ron Martinez with a 5 yard toss.

The Stoners and Team No.3 were hampered by the constant downpour in the second game. Mark Johnson booted a 21 yard field goal for the Stoners with 5:09 remaining in the game. The field goal stood up as the Stoners improved their record to two wins and one loss.

Vettese Builders proved to be good mudders in the final game of the day as they soundly defeated Wagenschutz 38-6. Vettese got a first quarter touchdown as Rick Neu intercepted a pass and returned it 27 yards. Three plays later Bill Lenaghan intercepted a Gary Baker pass and returned it 22 yards for a Wagenschutz touchdown. Vettese led 7-6 as the extra point was missed.

As the first half was nearing a close, quarterback Baker hooked up with Clark Fullerton for an 81 yard touchdown. With 30 seconds left in the half, a deflected pass at the Wagenschutz 10 yard line was intercepted by Fullerton and half end Bker rolled left and into the end zone for a 26-6 Vettese lead at the half.

In the third quarter Dan Moore intercepted a Wagenschutz pass and returned it 41 yards for a touchdown.

Late in the fourth quarter Gary Berr finished the scoring with a 70 yard punt for Vettese.

Tough Chiefs win 1st

still could not sustain a drive, punter Perkins finally found his range, booming the pigskin out of bounds on the Annapolis nine to toss the Cougars into a fourth-quarter hole they would never climb out of.

Against a feisty Chief defense tat showed improved pursuit and more than one pulled down a Cougar quarterback behind his line, Annapolis could mount no attack. The Cougars yielded the ball with a high, short punt that gave Canton possession at mid-field.

Hard running and a timely penalty brought the Chiefs to the visitor's 27 with less than six minutes left in the fourth quarter.

Fullback Simon pushed through the middle to the Cougar 17, then broke around right end two plays later for a first and goal on the four. In a replay of an earlier score, Perkins kept the football, sneaking in from the one to boost the Chiefs to an 18-8 edge and cap their only real offensive march of the night.

With time running out, the Cougars penetrated to the Canton 24 with a pair of passes, but the Chief pass rush stiffened and Canton regained possession with 28 seconds left to secure their first triumph. "It feels great," said the game short-sleeved Schuele after the game. "There's nothing like being a winner."

The new coach, also wearing bermuda shorts, added, "it never gets cold on the football field." In the stands a sparse crowd shivered in 40-degree night air.

Schuele praised his defense, which, although 'shy' in the first half, came alive in the second, he said.

He is approaching this week's homecoming showdown apprehensively. "We're going to have to be better prepared," he said.

The Chiefs mustered only 158 yards in total offense, to 171 for Annapolis, and completed no passes in three tries.

Running back Simon, Meadows and Hutton evenly divided the rushing yardage, with 47, 52, and 51 yards respectively. Meadows gained an average of 7.4 yards per carry.

The Chiefs ran only 42 plays on offense, to 51 for Annapolis.

Joining Powell and Smith in anchorin a tough defensive line was tackle Brent Eckler, while defensive backs Randy Rienaš and Scott Gray helped dash late Cougar passing efforts.

Junior basketball sign-up starts this Saturday

BY DONNA TOMAS

The most important part of the Plymouth-Canton Junior Basketball Association's philosophy is sportsmanship and knowledge of the game of basketball.

More than 1,000 youngsters played in an association league in its 17-year history.

As it has since its inception, PCJBA emphasizes the way the game is played, not winning.

The program has added third and 10 grade girls team this year to its established girls program. Registration begins this Saturday (Oct. 2) and continues the following two Saturdays (Oct. 9 and 16).

Boys and girls can register from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at West Middle School, at Ann Arbor Trail and Sheldon roads.

The Association officials are keeping the registration fee at $7.50, the same fee charged the past five years. Fees cover the association's operating costs.

More than 700 boys and 200 girls played basketball last year with the PCJBA. Each boy or girl on each team plays a minimum of one quarter (eight minutes) and a maximum of three quarters of each game. Youngsters from third grade through 10 are eligible, and do not have to know how to play to register.

Classifications include:

Boys "C" League - Third grade boys; Boys "B" League - fourth and fifth grade boys; Boys "A" League - sixth and seventh grade boys and the Boys "AA" League which is for boys from eighth through 10 grade.

For the girls, "C" League is for third and fourth grade girls; Girls "B" League - fifth, sixth and seventh grade girls; and Girls "A" League - eighth grade through 10.

The program begins Oct. 25 and ends March 5. Youngsters who are participating in other basketball leagues and who will later wish to join PCJBA must register at one of the registration dates and participate in the basketball tryouts (except for the "C" leagues) on October 23. The association rules do not allow youngsters who are participating in concurrent basketball programs to enroll in PCJBA.

Coaches are needed for all league classifications. If you are interested in coaching, call Bob Riemas, president of PCJBA at 455-0274.

Pioneers ace Rock netters

A heartbreaking 0-7 loss for the Salem girls tennis team against non league Ann Arbor provided some "excellent practice and game experience," according to coach Janet Lawson.

"They swept us off the court, but we played well," she commented. "Three were split sets and the scoring was close, it could have gone either way. It was well played high school girls tennis, and it was good practice for us."

In a close match against Trenton last Tuesday, the first, third and fourth singles won, while the Rocks lost the second singles and doubles sets to the experienced Trenton team.

But Salem earned important league points when they batted Edsel Ford in their league opener Wednesday, 6-1.

"We'll bounce back," said coach Lawson. The Rocks see action this week with league squad Bentley, (last Monday) and on Thursday with non-league Dearborn Heights Riverside.

Rock standout Scott Kream beat out Northville star Bob Gould with a 16:06 finish on the three mile course. Gould came in second, while Salem's Walt White was third, clocking 16:20.

"The weather really affected the time," said coach Steve Rea. "But I was pleased overall with the performances, and saw some improvement."

"We have a lot of depth and our times should continue to come down," he commented.

First-year runner Jeff Magnin, along with frosh Paul Hess and Craig Finley provided some of the depth the Rocks hope will carry them to a victorious season.

Now 0-2 (not including yesterday's race against Churchill) the Rocks open Suburban Fight competition tomorrow at Belleville against the host team and Dearborn.

Rock harriers outrun

It was a close race, but as Salem High cross-country coach Steve Rea put it last week, he didn't plan on winning.

The Rock harriers came out on the wrong side of a 24-33 score last week Tuesday against Northville. (Low score wins.)

CEP golfers triumph

Salem golfers are enjoying a winning streak so far this season, after winning against Belleville last Thursday by 23 shots. Rock "The day was really cool and super windy," said Coach Bob Watts, "otherwise we might have done even better."

Top medalist Thursday for the Rocks was Mike Wickham, coming in with the lowest score of 41, followed by a pair of 42's for Salem's Ted Kuhns and Doug Holloway. The other score that counted for Salem was Jim Ross' 44.

Canton High golfers upset powerful Northville Monday after splitting twin decisions to Western Six opponents last week. The Chiefs also competed in the Plymouth Best Ball tournament yesterday.

Jon Pearson led Canton with a 41. Steve Morman had a poor start and shot 45. Teammate Craig Brass has a 45, and underclassmen Scott McGlone and Dave Visser totaled 46 and 47.

All Chief golfers improved their scores Thursday, as the team topped Churchill at home 210,226.

Mott slams Chiefs in tennis

BY MATT NORRIS

A mid-week lineup change ended in vain for Coach Cindy Burnstein of the Canton girls' tennis team, as the squad lost its first league meet to Waterford Mott last Thursday. Three days before the Mott loss, the netters were trounced by Livonia Franklin.

Thursday's match saw the second and third doubles teams altered from two days earlier. Coach Burnstein moved Mindy Starkey up to the second team, and dropped Claudia Williams to third position. The mentor also replaced Sue Kidston with Debby Oakley in third doubles against Mott.

Despite the changes, the Mott Corsairs handed the young Chiefs a 6-1 loss in the opening conference match. Mary Riffe took the only Canton victory at first singles position. Third singles player Glenda Carney and the first doubles pair of Cathy Kidston-Stacy Williams went three sets before bowing to their opponents. Doubles combinations of Starkey-Chris Stylianou and Oakley-Williams lost, and Teresa Washburn and Connie Frech lost at second and fourth singles.

In the Franklin match, the team was swamped without a victory to a tough non-league foe. The netters rebounded the next day, beating Clarenceville 6-1. Canton won every match except first singles, where Riffe dropped a two set decision.

The squad played Thurston yesterday, and will square off against Northville at home tomorrow.

Ypsi tankers sink Rocks

The Salem High girls swim team lost its season opener a week ago Tuesday to non-league foe Ypsilanti, 93-79.

"Ypsi was the better balanced team," said coach Chuck Olson. "Our times were decent, but Ypsi was a little stronger."

Salem lost the two relays, but won six out of 11 individual events. Marion Stanwood won the 200 free and 500 freestyle races, qualifying her for state meet berth, with respective times of 2:05.8 and 5:35.8. Twin sister Sue Stanwood won the 100 butterfly with a time of 1:08.1, and the 200 with a time of 2:26 flat.

An Ypsilanti swimmer won by decision in the 100 freestyle, finishing in a dead heat with first-year Rock swimmer Ilona Schimdt at 1:01.9. The 100 backstroke was won by Jill McCann.

McCann also won the 100 backstroke, with a time of 1:10.1 while freshman Sharon Ross clocked a 6:08.2 in the 500 freestyle, a time coach Olson says is "good for a freshman. She improved her time by 20 seconds."

The swim team plans to work on the breaststroke in which Ypsilanti placed 1-2 last week.

Wayne Memorial won the double dual meet last year, but coach Olson thinks the Rocks "will not do too badly."

Mr. Gornick moved that the Board of Trustees table this matter until the September 28th meeting, pending more information relative to when we might be able to get this done, relative to a Lease vs Capital Outlay purchase (being more definitely spelled out) and, if in fact we are able to find out any more information as to what we might be able to use the data for, also suggestions for either getting quotes or bids on having the work contracted out with an outside engineering firm. Dr. Howard Parven Application No. 331 - Re: Land Split to take the R-1-S zoned property on the North side of Wedgewood Condo's away from the R-2-A zoned property. Mr. Dietrich stated that when this road matter came up at the time of rezoning and also at the time of the condo project: a) it has been the policy of the Township in the past that this property remain as "single family", b) that there be a road through the property; c) as part of the agreement, certain things are to be done to improve the site plan approval in relation to condo's (one item being construction and improvement of the road); d) he does not advise the Township to accept this road due to the fact that the Township may be asked to make improvements to it, but does recommend that the Township establishes the fact that when it is needed, it will be available to them; e) to his knowledge the road had never been dedicated, and f) the easement was part of the sewer easement.

Mr. West moved to table this matter until the Board of Trustees next regular meeting and turn this over to the Attorney for his guidance in regard to the easement of the street. Supported by Mr. Burke and carried unanimously.
