BY DONNA LOMAS

City Commissioner Tom Turner became the new mayor of the City of Plymouth Monday by a majority vote of the newly-installed city commission.

Commissioner Scott Dedge was chosen mayor pro-tem as newly-elected Commissioners James Houk, David Pugh, Mark Wehmeyer and Mary Childs were sworn into office by City Clerk Paul Brumfield.

In selection of a major to succeed Joe Bida Brumfield placed all seven commissioners' names in nomination. Commissioners voted by secret ballot.

Turner: "I believe in the long run that the city and the township would both benefit from some sort of a merger."

Deputy Clerk Linnea Salow, City Attorney Chuck Lowe and Plymouth Police Chief Timothy Ford counted the ballots and announced the results.

"It is with a real sense of pride - but with an equal share of humility - that I accept this office. "I am very conscious of the tremendous responsibility that goes with this office," Turner said. "I am especially pleased that we were able to accomplish it on one vote.

"Not that there should not be differences of opinion," he added, "for that would be tragic. It would be my hope, however, that our differences would be issue-oriented, and that they do not become personality conflicts. Our mutual aim in all

I-275 mishaps snarl traffic

MINOR ACCIDENTS created a major traffic jam Friday night in the southbound lanes of I-275 between Five Mile and Schoolcraft in Plymouth Township. Township and City of Plymouth rescue squads responded as several accidents occurred within minutes of each other on the icy pavement. Traffic was stalled for nearly an hour as wreckers, police and rescue crews cleared the lanes. (Crier photo by Hank Meijer.)

What's Township's future: Merger or incorporation?

BY HANK MEIJER
If the City of Plymouth tries to annex any more of Plymouth Township than it currently expects to -- the Burroughs parking lot property on Plymouth Road - township voters can expect to be asked to incorporate a new city, Plymouth Place.

That's the reaction of township officials in the wake of their quick petition drive last week that gathered enough signatures to place the cityhood question on the ballot sometime in the future.

Township Clerk Helen Richardson delivered the petitions to Jim Hyde, executive secretary of the State Boundary Commission, last Wednesday in Lansing. Township officials, with citizen volunteers, collected 1,310 signatures, or slightly more than five per cent of the township's population.

PCF nears half of goal

The Plymouth Community Fund has reached 45 per cent of its quarter of a million dollars goal for this year.

A total of $112,465 has been brought in for the Fund thus far, reported PCF chairman Dan LeBlond at a Monday morning breakfast meeting.

Jim Boyce, PCF co-chairman said "we're doing better this year" than at the same time last year.

The Plymouth Community Fund drive will end with a final report at noon on Dec. 9. Last year's Fund exceeded its $244,000 goal by about $30,000.

High-rise approval questioned

Attorney rips Footnote O

BY CHAS CHILD

A controversial zoning clause that permitted a nine-story high-rise in downtown Plymouth was declared illegal Thursday by City Attorney Chuck Lowe.

In a legal opinion submitted to City Manager Fred Yockey, Lowe said that the clause, footnote O, was not included in legislation passed by the City Commission in 1972.

The attorney's judgment came two days after a City Commission election where approval of the high-rise had been a major campaign issue.

Lowe's opinion has no legal basis but it does serve notice to the city and Dartmoor's developers that the legal basis which permitted the high-rise is in doubt.

"He" has recommended that to be on solid ground, the city should re-enact the ordinance," City Manager Fred Yockey said.

John Thomas, a local attorney and one of the developers of Dartmoor, agreed that the zoning had to be properly enacted to go ahead with the project, but Lowe's opinion "does not change our plans to proceed with Dartmoor."

The chairman of the planning commission, Tex Thomann, said, however, that Lowe's ruling, "is just an opinion." He said no changes are needed in the ordinance, because footnote O was deleted merely by a typographical error.

The City Commission is scheduled to discuss Lowe's opinion

Bigger tax base is Canton EDC's goal

As taxes go up in a community, one obvious way to relieve the taxes on homeowners is to bring in businesses and industry to take up the slack.

Canton township officials are trying to do just that and Supervisor Harold Stein said he expects progress soon in luring industry into the township.

Up to now, the obvious growth in Canton has been residential. A common pattern, in many communities is for the houses to go up first with industry coming in later, said Maurice Roach, the chairman of the Wayne County Planning Commission.

The competition for the industries is fierce, Roach said, and some communities are more successful than others in attracting them.

Livonia, for example, has been "reasonably successful," in luring industries, especially along the C & O Railroad line between Schoolcraft and Plymouth roads, said Roach.

Stein said that Canton has many favorable selling points to business. Foremost among these is I-275 he said traversing the township from north to south and the two railroad lines in the southeast and

New policy boosts CEP attendance

The new Centennial Educational Park attendance policy is improving attendance and grades, the schools report.

David Oppe, an area coordinator at Canton High School, said that the staff of both high schools are reporting that attendance is generally better than last year.

"There has also been a demonstrable improvement in grades for the first marking period," Oppe noted. "That is if you assume that regular attendance results in better grades and we do."

For the first marking period, Oppe said there was a two per cent increase in the number of A grades and a one per cent increase in B's. The most drastic change was seen in a five per cent drop from the number of E's given for the first marking period last year --half the number of failing grades given at first marking last year, Oppe said.

At a meeting yesterday, the school's Attendance Committee was scheduled to receive a report on the policy.

The school board adopted the new policy earlier this fall.

Anchor Inn awaits liquor panel decision

The Anchor Inn, the rural bar where six Plymouth youths had been drinking before they died in a car accident in July is still voluntarily closed and waiting for a Liquor Control Commission hearing Nov. 29.

The hearing in Lincoln Park was rescheduled recently from Oct. 26.

The owners of the inn could not be reached for comment, but a spokesman for the Washtenaw County Sheriff Department said the inn is closed until "the charges are cleared up."

The Michigan Beverage News Magazine reported the Anchor Inn closed Oct. 7.

The charges being brought by the Liquor Control Commission against the inn are selling to minors and minors consuming on the premises.

Of the six killed, five were minors.

Twp. girl improves

The condition of an eight-year old Plymouth Township girl has improved and she is now listed in fair condition, St. Mary Hospital authorities reported Tuesday.

Tammy Bartalsky was struck by a car in front of her home on Haggerty Road nearly two weeks ago.

Slick street leads to crash

THE ICY OVERPASS of Five Mile Road over I-275 in Plymouth Township was the scene of a two-car accident Friday night which sent two persons to area hospitals. Treated for minor injuries in St. Mary Hospital was Robin L. Galik, 30, of Livonia, a passenger in a car which police said lost control on the icy overpass and struck another car. (Crier photo by Hank Meijer.)

School offices clear room for parking

TOO EXPENSIVE TO RENOVATE, this house next to Plymouth-Canton Schools' administrative offices on Maple Street was razed last week. A new roof, furnace and structural reinforcements were needed, school officials said. The site will be used for additional parking for the schools' administrative offices. (Crier photo by Bill Bresler.)

Twp. won't alter license stand

BY HANK MEIJER

Plymouth Township Board of Trustees last week refused to drop its opposition to the renewal of a Class C liquor license held by former Thunderbird (now Hilton) Inn owner Art Kobierzynski.

The board voted 5-2, with Trustee Maurice Breen and Lee Fidge dissenting, not to alter a stand it took in a letter to the State Liquor Control Commission in March, 1977. At that time, board members went on record against transfer of Kobierzynski's license, which had applied to the Thunderbird, out of escrow to a vacant lot across the street from what is now the Hilton Inn on Five Mile Road. The Liquor Control Commission, which makes the final decision in such matters, denied Kobierzynski's request in June, 1976.

Said attorney Ronald Maister, representing Kobierzynski, "The original Liquor Control Commission denial appears in large measure a consequence of the opinion expressed by the Plymouth Township Board in its letter."

Kobierzynski is scheduled to go before the liquor commission again tomorrow (Nov. 17), in a final effort to retain the license, which he held after the Hilton was sold and the new owners were granted a new license by the township.

Kobierzynski has announced plans to build a shopping and apartment complex across Five Mile Road from the Hilton which would include a lounge and restaurant, should the township grant his rezoning request.

Trustee Breen argued in favor of changing the township's position. "I've known Art for many years," he said. "... we should have the courtesy to give them an opportunity to save the license."

Countered Trustee Dick Gornick, who was on the board when it rejected Kobierzynski's request to keep the license last year, "I think the opportunity has already been given. The board has become extremely sensitive to problems of liquor licenses. He's not being punished unduly."

Gornick noted that the township has additional licenses available and that Kobierzynski, should his proposed project become reality, would be given full consideration in any request for a new license.

Profitable Fall Fest called 'solid success'

The 1977 Fall Festival earned about $50,000 profit for the various service organizations this year and has been termed a "solid success" by its organizers.

Carl Glass, manager of the yearly event, said that the Fall Festival Board also made money this year, contrary to last year's red ink.

"We should have about $4,000 to $5,000 left over to use for next year," Glass said. Last year, the board lost about $3,000, he said.

The 32 service organizations selling the dinners, kiddie rides, etc., increased their profits about 70 per cent, said Glass. The $50,000 profit will be returned to the community, he said.

"I'm very pleased. We received a lot of criticism for raising the entry fee from $25 to $100, so I'm glad we did as well as we did."

City hires woman cop

The City of Plymouth has hired its first woman Community Service Officer (CSO), announced Plymouth Chief of Police Tim Ford. Ford said Anne Herndon, 27, is scheduled to begin duties Dec. 5.

"She is the first lady to be hired in the capacity of a sworn officer in Plymouth," said Ford.

Terry Tatro, 27, will be training for another CSO position to fill a vacancy caused by a retirement on the force, said Chief Ford. Tatro is a recent graduate of the Michigan State University Police Program.

"Mrs. Herndon is altogether a totally qualified individual," said Ford. "She is also, incidentally, a woman."

Mrs. Herndon was a Detroit police officer for the past four years and received a master's degree in criminal justice and a bachelor's degree in social sciences.

Her most recent assignment in Detroit, said Ford, was to develop a crime analysis unit, a method by which information is used to project where future crimes could occur.

"She will bring a whole plethora of skills with her," said Chief Ford. Following six weeks as a CSO, she will be assigned patrol duty. Herndon is a certified officer.

Tatro will begin training for the CSO position Dec. 12.

Police seek pair after worker's abduction here

A Ford Motor Co. Sheldon Road plant worker who tried to do a good deed was forced at gunpoint early last Wednesday morning to drive two men from Plymouth to Ann Arbor. State Police said Ronald Freeman of Ypsilanti was driving northbound on Sheldon Road on his way to work when he noticed two other men, also walking north, in front of the Western Electric Co. plant. He told police he thought the two men might also be Ford employees, so he slowed down to see if they needed a lift or help. According to police, the men, whom Freeman did not recognize when he stopped, said their car had broken down on North Territorial Road and that they needed a ride to Ann Arbor. Freeman said he didn't have much time, that he was on his way to work. When they asked if a phone was nearby, he offered to drive them to the Palace restaurant on Ann Arbor Road, he told police. But when he pulled up to the Palace, police said, the man in the front seat beside him pulled a small handgun from his coat and ordered him to drive to Ann Arbor. According to police, Freeman was told, "As long as you do what we say, you won't get hurt. We have to get to Ann Arbor real bad." When they reached that city, Freeman was directed down several streets and finally ordered to stop, police said. According to report, one of the abductors asked for his wallet, counted out its $18 contents, and handed it back, money and all, but not before the second man copied down Freeman's address from his driver's license. Freeman said the second man said they would send him $25 for the trip, then they ran off. The Ford employe then called police, who found no vehicle on North Territorial. The two men, were described as black, of medium height and slender build. One wore thick glasses and had a mustache, both had short afros. Police are seeking the pair on charges of kidnapping and felonious assault.

Promoting voting not simple in city

BY DONNA LOMAS

Some city politicians and officials were a little red in the face during the city commission elections last week. One of the candidates, former Mayor James Houk, posted non-partisan signs, at his own expense, urging city residents to go out and vote, according to Commissioner Scott Dodge. Houk checked with city officials before putting the signs up, and they told him signs weren't allowed on public property. Houk then received permission from private property owners to put them up, said Dodge, who, among others helped erect the signs at Houk's request. But the signs were in violation of a city ordinance which states that the only signs allowed even on residential property are "for sale" signs. On election day, candidate John Moehle went to City Hall and asked that the signs be taken down. City Manager Fred Yockey sent out DPW crews to take the signs down, said Dodge, but later had to call them back. A legal opinion from City Attorney Chuck Lowe said the city couldn't take them down without notifying the property owners. "I didn't know we were in violation of the ordinance until this morning (last Tuesday)" said Dodge. All the non-partisan cardboard signs urging city residents to vote had been removed by Wednesday morning.

Clerical talks languish

Negotiations between Plymouth-Canton Schools and its secretaries are stalled this week until an attorney's opinion on mediation is reached. "We're at a standstill right now," said Walter Bartnick, negotiator for the schools. "I don't know if we'll go into mediation, but we're plugging away. We may meet one day this week." Louise Gates, spokesperson for the Plymouth Canton Schools' Secretarial Association said they have turned their case over to their attorney and "he is handling it." "We hope for a quick settlement," she said. "We are waiting to hear from him on mediation now." At presstime Tuesday, no further developments had been announced.

What gives Chas the right?

MR. CHILD:

The action Mr. Moshimer took against you during the Salem-Harrison football game was provoked because of your bad taste in reporting about teams and individuals. No coach would take such action just for predicting his team would lose. Coaches and athletes need publicity but on an unbiased basis.

There is more at stake here than the public and coaches rebelling against a reporter with no feelings toward a team or individual.

The Constitution has given you "Freedom of the Press without Harassment". It does not give the media a right to predict the outcome of an event, sports, politics or any other event. Nor does it give the right to form an opinion.

Freedom of the Press does not give you the right to say a team can not beat their cheer leaders and if you played on that team you would ask for a transfer to the flag section. That is not reporting nor is it close to what the Constitution meant by Freedom of the Press, it was cruel and in bad taste. It might have been your intent to help "get the teams up" for their up coming games but it still is not within the confines of the Constitution.

All year long your articles have shown very little feeling for the kids that play football. You have hurt them and their coaches. The coaches, players and the public have had enough of your kind of reporting so please report the events as they happen.

My son is one of the football players so for obvious reasons this is unsigned.

EDITOR'S NOTE: "Freedom of the press means both newspapers and their readers have the right to form opinions and express them in print.

If the Constitution did not grant the press the right to predict outcomes of events and to form opinions, Jimmy The Greek, Al Ackerman and the Gallup Poll would be out of business. We ask that all letters to the editor be signed unless a sound reason is given for not signing a proper name.

Burying problems does not solve them.

If the school board chooses now to let the censorship problem die, it will not have solved anything. It will only have stalled a decision which it may be forced to consider again in the future.

Problem avoidance may take the heat off, but it doesn't generate light from the heat.

Unfortunately, there currently are no real guidelines for determining when or how a Plymouth-Canton student's article or opinion, drawing or photograph, should or should not appear in any publication or be aired on the radio station funded by the school district.

Without even considering the touchy legal subject of prior review and restraint, this lack of guidelines may cause future problems for the board and abridgement of Constitutional freedoms for students.

Answer this question: although the school district owns Centennial Educational Park, does the district (through its elected board of education or hired administration) have the right to disallow someone from making a speech there?

Applying the philosophy behind that question's answer, to a similar question regarding school publications, becomes legally muddled because of the schools' status as a publisher. Legally a school district could be found responsible for something printed in its publication.

Laws relating to libel, pornography and literature which incites imminent illegal actions, are complicated and ever changing. Are school newspaper advisers, principals and board members competent in interpreting those laws? It is difficult enough for full-time journalists to determine their rights under the changing laws, but at least they must bear the consequences of their own decisions.

Clearly, since we seek to offer a complete spectrum of education to our students, high school newspapers and radio are necessary as a training ground (to mention nothing of the valuable communication role they play in the schools). Students of journalism should learn their rights and responsibilities under our country's system of the media. Fortunately, Plymouth-Canton schools boast of top-flight administrators and advisers to help them at the moment.

But what of the future? What if a high school student submits an opinion piece to the school paper or radio station attacking the schools' administration? Such an opinion may well be an appropriate expression.

But would it be printed or aired as our schools' guidelines currently exist? If a problem ensued, who would decide the matter?

The answers are unclear, and will only remain so, if the school board tries to sweep this under the rug.

If prior review of students' work is to be applied (and some courts are now siding more and more with students' rights to publish), the schools should set down specific procedural safeguards which include:

* A definition of distribution, funding and control of school district publications.

* Delineation of to whom students are to submit literature prior to publication or airing.

* Criteria - in specific terms - by which material will be judged for publication or airing.

* Outlining of a brief time frame in which school officials should announce a decision on distribution of the material. Instructions on what steps may be taken if the time limit is not met.

* An appeal process under which the student may challenge the decision in public (including appearance by the students to argue the case).

These matters should be resolved for the protection of Plymouth-Canton School District students and residents. Having no policy on this matter can jeopardize the district in the future if a court must make a decision.

Coach should get respect

To The Crier Staff:

As parents of two Plymouth Salem Football players; one presently playing under Coach Moshimer and one who was coached by him to the 1974 State Championship, we feel proud and very fortunate to have our sons play under the direction of Coach Moshimer.

Both our sons have great admiration and respect for him. We feel this man has taught them good sportsmanship and fair play and has, in no way, ever taught them personal harassment. In fact, this 1977 team has more compassion and unity than we have seen in many years.

We think your statements by Chas Child and also the Crier Staff are one-sided, incomplete and half truths.

We feel sure that we do not stand alone in our feelings on this matter. Many parents, we are sure, would voice themselves much in the same manner as we have.

Coach Moshimer should have the right to express his feelings on what really prompted him to have Chas Child removed from the area.

Either print both sides or don't print any of it!

Prep girl athletes merit our support

EDITOR:

I am writing you with concern for the "Women Athletes" of Plymouth Canton High School.

We (the women of Canton) think that you should take a better look at the women's sports. We are really moving up in the world, but unless we start getting better publicity we won't get anywhere, because we need support.

Finally, another sport (women's basketball) has taken the league title and has great hopes of going on in the finals; and we need some support, from newspapers, and fans!

Another thing is comparing our news paper publicity with the boys. They had that fantastic pre-season section of the boys' basketball teams, and that's great, but we are just asking for the same.

We are No. 1 and would like everyone to know this! Thank you for listening.

His program has sometimes been referred to as a "movie-slide presentation." He has presented this unusual program in some of the largest auditoriums in the country.

Chamber lists speakers

The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce has compiled a speaker's bank through its Education Committee.

Included in the bank are names and addresses of persons who are willing to speak to students or service clubs, according to Chris Kresta, Chamber office manager.

She said the present list contained 40 topics and 45 speakers.

All speakers are volunteers and their is no charge to the group. Included with the bank is information on whether films or slides are available, if tours are possible and if there is an age limit.

The Speakers Resource Guide is available to any service club or teacher who needs a speaker for their group. The list can be picked up at the Chamber office at 878 Wing St.

AAUW plans 'assertive' workshop

The November meeting of the Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women will be a workshop in assertiveness training - branch members will learn the skills necessary to be direct, honest, and appropriate in expressing themselves.

The workshop will be conducted by Sandra Prochazka, a member of the staff of the Associated Counseling Services located at 352 N. Main St. in Plymouth. Ms. Prochazka is a counselor, teacher, psycho-therapist, and clinical social worker.

The meeting will be on Nov. 17 at West Middle School, and will be preceded by an "Early Bird Special" which will provide information on effective legislative letter writing, and on current legislation. The Early Bird Special will begin at 7:15, and the regular meeting at 7:30.

Bus drivers teach safety

Plymouth Canton schoolchildren were taught safety by the district's own bus drivers, schools report. Nearly 40 hours of the driver's own time last month were contributed by a committee and 11 bus drivers.

Central Middle School had one hour of instruction for each grade. All children at Smith, Gallimore, Field and Hulsing elementaries heard about bus safety.

Drivers who contributed time and safety knowledge were Georgette Dougherty, Carol Lepkowski, Jan Young, Grace O'Brien, Annabelle Mayer, Ellen Maizel, Kay Beacham and Barbara Demers.

A committee composed of Alice Horstead, Jeanne Morris and Judy Clement also visited the schools. Robert Horstead, director of transportation appointed the committee.

Davis's gems shine

Martha Davis of Plymouth has been awarded a blue ribbon in the novice mineral class at the recent Greater Detroit Gem and Mineral Show at the Light Guard Armory.

Mrs. Davis, who entered portions of her collection in several different classes, was in competition with nearly three dozen other metropolitan area rock collectors.

Mineral crystals were judged on their perfection - lack of chips and blemishes - as well as the quality of labels and lining in the display cases.

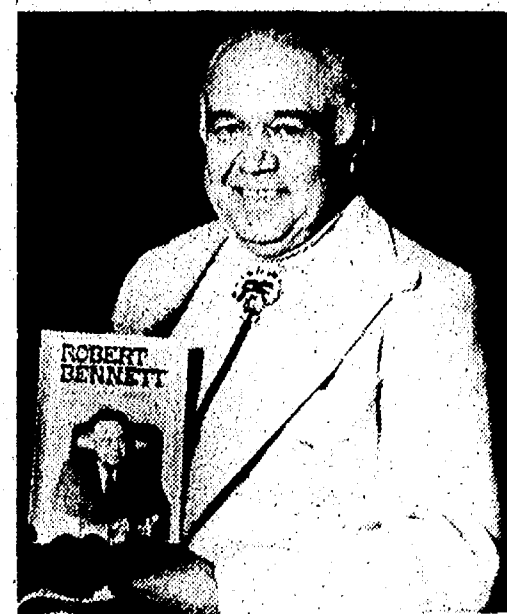

The event was sponsored by the Michigan Mineralogical Society. Mrs. Davis, wife of 35th District Judge Dunbar Davis, is a member of the local Plymouth Rock and Mineral Club.

Bennett visits Center

Robert L. Bennett, former Commissioner of the Bureau of Indian Affairs presented the Indian Heritage Center with an autographed copy of his biography, Robert Bennett by Mary Carroll Nelson.

The biography, published in 1976, describes the life of the second man of Indian descent to be appointed Commissioner of the BIA. It covers Bennett's childhood on the Oneida Reservation, his education at Haskell School, to his 1966 appointment as Commissioner under the Johnson Administration. In 1969, Bennett retired from government and became the Director of the Indian Law Center at the University of New Mexico.

Bennett was invited to visit

ROBERT BENNETT

the Indian Heritage Center by his son, Leo A. Bennett, the Chairperson of the Parent Committee for the Heritage Center, which is a Title IV A program of the Indian Education Act.

Canton church named

The new Moravian Congregation in Canton has just been officially named by the District Executive Board of the denomination. The new church will be called the "Faith Community Moravian Church."

The name was chosen to reflect the intent of the church that this be a community oriented congregation. It is a "community church" in that it will be serving within the Canton community.

"It is also a 'faith community,' a community of people seeking to discover what it means to live in faith," said Rev. Darryl Bell of the church.

The congregation will hold its first worship service Dec. 4 at 10:30 a.m. at Pioneer Middle School, 46081 Ann Arbor Rd. A nursery will be available.

Indian Center hosts open house

The Native American Indian Heritage and Cultural Center will hold an open house at Central's gym annex this Saturday Nov. 19 from 11 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Authentic Indian Dancers from the Detroit Indian Center will perform during the open house from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

An Indian couple will cater the event with Indian-food. Featured, among other foods, will be Indian corn and Indian fry bread.

FURNITURE

... and miles to go before I sleep

After the Civil War, this country began the great task of rebuilding. The daylight hours were filled with hard work and the night was left for dreams. As candles and oil lamps were extinguished, glowing hearth embers cast their light on furniture that had been lovingly crafted... furniture that reflected both the aspirations and practicality of the age. River Road is an authentic representation of that time. The amber tones of an oak finish enhances oak solids and veneers, and all pieces have "wheat stock" embossing - it has even been etched on the wing mirror. Enjoy the heavy drawer moldings and brass hardware on the armoire, night chest and dresser. The massive bed is the backbone of this collection... as strong and spirited as the pioneers who first conceived its styling. River Road by Burlington House Furniture... it's already a part of your heritage... now make it a part of your life.

Y offers after-school fun

The Plymouth Canton Northville (CNP) YMCA is offering an afterschool Y geared to help working parents and the child

The K-2 youths can be picked up by the CNP YMCA van at their schools and brought to Central Middle School auditorium for two hours of well supervised group activities, Luce said. The child should bring his own refreshments or 35 cents day. Parents must furnish a ride home.

The fee is $20 for four weeks or $5 per week for members and $28 for four weeks and $7 per week for non-members.

S'craft mails classes

Winter class schedules from Schoolcraft College should be delivered to all homes in the college district during the next two weeks.

This is the schedule for transfer and career classes. The one for continuing education and community services is not mailed until the new year.

Residents who fail to receive their schedule by Thanksgiving are asked to notify college relations at 591-6400. Additional copies will be mailed upon request.

The Schoolcraft district includes Plymouth-Canton and four neighboring school districts.

MACLD to teach gym

The Plymouth-Canton-Northville Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities will offer a perceptual-motor development gym program if enough interest is shown in forming such a program.

The instructor, James Glasgow, has been running such programs in surrounding areas for six years. Lessons taught in his physical education classes help children become aware of their bodies in space, discriminate between left and right, develop number concepts, improve self-image and increase self-confidence said MACLD spokesperson Ken Rowe.

Equipment used in his program include trampolines, balance beam, rings, climbing rope, high horse, pommel horse, rowing machines, treadmills, and parallel bars.

The classes will be held on Thursdays for one hour between 4:30 p.m. and 6:30 p.m. The fee is dependent on the number of students in a class. Location and starting date will be determined later.

If you are interested or have any questions, please call Ken or Linda Rowe, 455-1093.

Isbister parents decry overcrowding in classroom

Parents of Isbister Elementary School students voiced their displeasure again at Monday's Board of Education meeting at what they called overcrowding at the school.

Betty Griffity, an Isbister mother, said "How can you say you can't afford another teacher when you've allotted $50,000 to the talented and gifted program?"

Another parent referring to the overcrowding in Track D, said, "If you (the board) can't eliminate this problem this year, what guarantee do we have that it won't be eliminated next year?"

Superintendent Mike Hoben said that Track D is closed and that the other tracks on the Extended School Year (ESY) program are now absorbing the new students.

He also said that there were many classrooms throughout the district as crowded as the ones in Isbister the parents were complaining about.

The Isbister parents made similar complaints to the board about a month ago.

Pictured are the Rev. Dr. Carl H. Gratwohl, (left) of Plymouth, hospital administrator emeritus, the Rev. William H. Daniels, hospital board member and Associate Conference Minister for the East Area Conference of Michigan of the United Church of Christ, and the Rev. William F. A. Simon, of Wyandotte, three-time hospital board president.

Local woman hurt in twp. car crash

A 25-year old Plymouth Township woman remained in critical condition yesterday in the intensive care unit of Wayne County General Hospital following a three-car accident Friday night on North Territorial Road west of Beck.

According to State Police, Sandra Franck, of Jackson Drive in the township, was eastbound on North Territorial when her car began to spin on the slippery pavement.

Police said the driver of an oncoming vehicle, Earl Hedge, 60, of Plymouth, tried to avoid the Jackson car, but the two collided. A third car, driven by a Dearborn man, tried to get between the two others, but struck the Hedge vehicle.

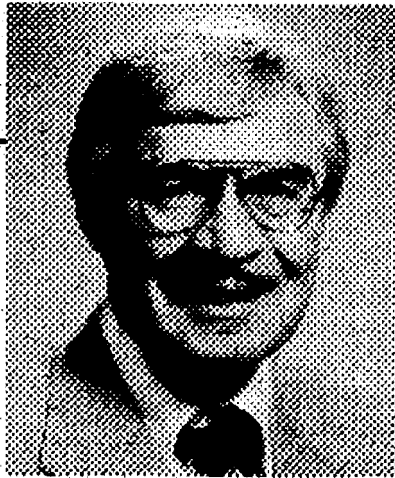

Hedge, a custodian at Gallimore school, is reported in satisfactory condition in Wayne County General Hospital. Occupants of the third car escaped unhurt.

Car runs amok

Plymouth City Police report that a yellow Vega ran over 40 feet of grass before hitting a gas lamp in Kellogg Park shortly after midnight last Wednesday night.

Three witnesses saw the incident, police said, and told them the car was headed east on Main St.

The car was found later in a Plymouth apartment complex by police who reported they "found the car still smoking."

Haze Wilson, Community Relations Manager, Livonia, reminds you:

There are things you can do to control the cost of your phone bill.

We are constantly searching for ways to help you economize on your phone service, but here are just a few ideas on how you can help yourself:

Call when it's least expensive. For example, when you're calling long distance, dial direct and plan your calls for times when the rates are lowest.

Budget Service that's really low budget! Look into the availability of Budget Service if you don't make a lot of phone calls every month. It's the least expensive one-or-two party phone service we offer.

Plan to have all your service installed in one visit. For instance, if you move, plan carefully so the installer doesn't have to make extra trips, for which you may have to pay additional charges. And while you're planning for new service, make sure it's going to be the kind most suited to your needs.

Sometimes, little tips can save you a surprising amount over the long haul. We'll keep trying to help you save.

Helicopter shuttle begins at Canton airport

BY DONNA LOMAS

A helicopter shuttle service that began in October from Mettetal Airport in Canton to a Dearborn hotel and to Metro airport has so far had no local passengers.

"The need is here and the traffic is here," said Barney Stutzman, whose 'pet project' for the past six years has been the development of the helicopter shuttle service.

License may be revoked

Canton's Board of Trustees recommended that a liquor license owned by Wilbert Tucker be revoked by the State Liquor Control.

The board said that Tucker has not followed through on his plans to build a restaurant on the corner of Ford and Lotz roads.

Station OK'd

A gas station at the southeast corner of Ford and Haggerty roads was approved by Canton's Board of Trustees last Tuesday.

The owners of the proposed Amoco station were required by the board to plant some trees on the property's easterly boundary and no exit from the station onto westbound Ford Road will be permitted for safety reasons.

The service is based in the Canton township airport and employs a staff of four helicopter pilots.

Two helicopters are now in service five days a week; one

Chamber discusses politics

Should Canton's Chamber of Commerce take part in political activities?

That's a question members will be looking for some answers to tonight (Wednesday) at 6:30 in a general membership meeting to be held at the Superbowl on Ford Road.

Joining the members in a discussion of whether they should have a political action committee will be Bob LaBrant, manager of political action committees for the state Chamber of Commerce, and Bob Pitzferro, an aide to State Sen. William Faust, whose district includes Canton.

DAR to meet

The Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) will celebrate their 51st birthday with a luncheon at the Plymouth Hilton, Monday Nov. 21 at noon.

Mrs. Joyce Greenler will be the speaker. Her subject will be DAR Schools.

operating on a scheduled service run to Dearborn and Metro airport and the other serving as an alternate. Each helicopter carries eight passengers.

"We are not running full loads yet," said Stutzman, "but the passengers are increasing daily - although no one from this area uses it that I know of."

The helicopter leaves Mettetal each morning Monday through Friday and lands at the Hyatt Regency hotel in Dearborn, and departs from there at 7:08 a.m. for Metro Airport.

The helicopters depart from the airport at 7:42 p.m. and arrive in Plymouth at 7:50 p.m. There are no scheduled routes from this area yet, said Stutzman.

To go from the Dearborn

Township firefighter talks progressing

Negotiations between Canton Township and its firefighters are proceeding normally, Clerk John Flodin said. There have been no major hangups so far he said and he expects a new contract to be settled before the current one expires Dec. 31.

Township officials and union representatives are meeting about once every two weeks. Flodin said.

hotel to Metro is $9.72, and from Plymouth to Dearborn is the same price, Stutzman says.

If you want to fly to work, Stutzman suggests calling the service, Detroit Helicopter Airlines at 455-6660.

Stutzman is thinking of expanding the shuttle service soon to downtown Detroit, with Cobo Hall, Renaissance Center or a bank as a landing spot. Eventually Stutzman hopes to land the shuttle service at Troy and Southfield.

"It took six years finding the right equipment, the right timing and the right landing spot," he said. "We certainly think it will work or we wouldn't have started the helicopter shuttle."

Canton youth arrested for theft

State Police Nov. 8 apprehended a 13-year old Canton youth for receiving and concealing stolen property, over $100 after he admitted to playing a role in burglaries last month in the Harvard Square shopping center and other businesses in Canton and Plymouth Township.

Police discovered property valued at $642 in the youngster's possession in his Canton home. Included were a radio, cassette recorder and other items missing from Pioneer School, State Police said. Also recovered, according to police investigators, were 77 motorcycle keys, CB antennas, a tennis racket and numerous other items.

The youth was placed in custody of the Wayne County Youth Home.

PLUS begins another year

The Plymouth Canton Schools PLUS (Pupils Learning Useful Skills) has started its fourth year at Central Middle School.

The preschool program is a joint project of the schools and the federal government.

Children and parents, or grandparents come to the school once a week and work on cooperative projects and activities that can be continued at home.

PHS lettergirls

LETTERGIRLS FROM THE CLASS OF '37. Used to be, every girl in Plymouth High School could earn two letters. One was a five-inch white chenille letter in Old English. The other was a letter distinguished from the first by a blue star in the stem. To earn their first letter, PHS girls had to earn 1000 points in various school departments like speaking, drama, scholarships, music, debating and intra-mural and individual sports. To earn the star in their senior year, they had to earn 400 points. The girls received the letters as soon as the points were tallied and received a certificate of achievement in the honors assembly. ## Chamber approves library

The Canton Chamber of Commerce has announced that it endorses a library in Canton. The Chamber unanimously voted to endorse the library after deciding one would enhance and improve the quality of life in Canton, following a review of the Canton library feasibility study.

Canton bones just a horse

BY CHAS CHILD
A number of bones found by some Plymouth Landing subdivision kids in Canton was identified Thursday as the remains of Equus, or a common farm horse.

The bones were studied by the University of Michigan's Paleontology Department in Ann Arbor.

There is still a possibility of an archeological "find" in the remains, however. Some of the bones, apparently different from the horse's, are being carbon-dated by the paleontologists in Ann Arbor.

Cindy Monks of Canton, who delivered the bones to the scientists, said she was not sure when the results of the testing would be known.

Carbon dating is a method of determining how old fossils are. The story of the discovery of the bones was told in The Crier Oct. 26.

WSDP listeners can win turkeys

As of Nov. 15 WSDP listeners have a chance to win a turkey. The contest runs through Nov. 22 and they will be giving away two turkeys. When the D.J. says to call in and you are the first caller, you win a chance for the bird.

On Nov. 22 two winners will be picked out of a hat to be the lucky person to receive the turkey. Listen to WSDP for more details on the turkey contest.

Thursday, Nov. 17 the Canton Girls Varsity Basketball team will go against Fordson. The game will be brought live to you from Phase III by WSDP. Starting at 8:10, Andy Melin and Jon Hewett will bring you all the play-by-play action.

Register to ski

The Plymouth-Canton Continuing Education and Recreation Department is announcing their annual Ski Club Registration Night.

All middle and high school students interested in joining the Ski Club can attend the Membership Registration Meeting on Thursday, Nov. 17 at Canton High School in the cafeteria from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. A free Membership will be offered as a door prize to a lucky member. Bring your registration fee of $30, which pays for 3 advance tow tickets and your transportation cost for the entire year. More details can be obtained from any principal's office. Also, any used ski items to sell are welcome.

Canton principals lead talks

Shirley Spaniel, principal of Miller School and Robert Kroeger, Salem High School teacher, were participants in a recent Staff Development Council session.

The sessions were planned to meet professional needs of teachers from seven school districts which make up the Northwest Staff Development Council. Others from the Plymouth-

Canton Schools leading discussions were:

Constance Peterson, Joyce Reefer, Barbara Bowman, Michael Homes, John Telford, Tom Workman, Beverly Marshall, Judy Ireson, Linda Clinard, John Demsick, Karen Zokas, Cynthia Morningstar, Gerald Elston, Pat Gibbons, Dolly McMaster and Robert Smith.

PHASE III of the Centennial Educational Park complex was on display for school board members and the public Monday night. Phase III cost $3,900,682 to build. The monies came from a funds raised through a bond issue in 1974. The center features complete vocal and instrumental musical facilities and physical education facilities such as swimming, racquetball, volleyball, gymnastics and volleyball. (Crier photo by Bill Bresler.)

Canton High transfer denied

A Canton High School student's request to transfer to Salem was unanimously denied by the Board of Education Monday night.

Charles Russell, a junior at Canton said he wanted to be a Rock because all his friends were Salem students and he lived in a predominantly Salem neighborhood. He also said most of his classes were at Salem.

"Just one of the conflicts that has come up is that when I wanted to buy a school ring, I realized it had to be a Canton ring. I would like to be a part of Salem because that is where my heart is," Russell said. Board member George Lawton said there were hundreds of students in similar circumstances and he saw no "compelling reason to transfer Russell.

An exception in Russell's case would open the door to requests from many students, Lawton said.

Canton EDC goal: lure new investors

northeast corners of the township.

Another advantage Canton has is a natural gas company, Michigan Consolidated Gas Company, that is still offering gas to commercial customers.

Consumers Power Company in the neighboring communities of Westland, Wayne, Plymouth, Farmington and Livonia, and other places does not have gas to sell for new commercial users, Stein said.

The Canton Supervisor said the township is trying to attract warehouses, small factories, machine shops and larger industries as well.

One of the roadblocks in recent years to bringing industry in he said has been the 1976 Master Land Use Plan adopted by the administration of former Supervisor Robert Greenstein.

"The 1976 master plan does not allow for the proper mix of business and industry in Canton," Stein said. "The Planning Commission is working on revising the plan."

A major goal of this revision, Stein said, is to rezone many parts of the I-275 corridor to allow light industrial uses. Much of this area is now residential. At least one proposal to use this corridor for light industry has met with some opposition from neighboring residents. Although not strictly an industry, "The Center," a large sports complex planned for Haggerty Road near Ford Road, has been held up until the developers can guarantee that Haggerty will be paved.

Many observers have said that "The Center" and other projects would be better placed near the intersection of Michigan Ave. and I-275.

Besides rezoning, Stein is counting on Canton's newly created Economic Development Corporation (EDC) to attract industry.

Communities across the state use EDCs as a "vehicle," Stein said, to attract commercial development.

With a guarantee that the business will locate in Canton, the EDC can sell tax-exempt bonds for roads, sewers, even plant equipment, to help the new industry.

Stein said the township leases the plant equipment to the company and uses the money to pay off the bonds.

The township is not responsible to any debts incurred by the EDC, he said.

city commission in the next two years.

He noted that rising costs of city services not offset by the city's SEV (tax base), identifying needs of senior citizens, and implementing programs to meet those needs, and the continual zoning and parking problems were a few that would have to be dealt with.

Turner said he plans to work out an "acceptable agreement" with Plymouth Township that would eventually result in the consolidation of the city and township.

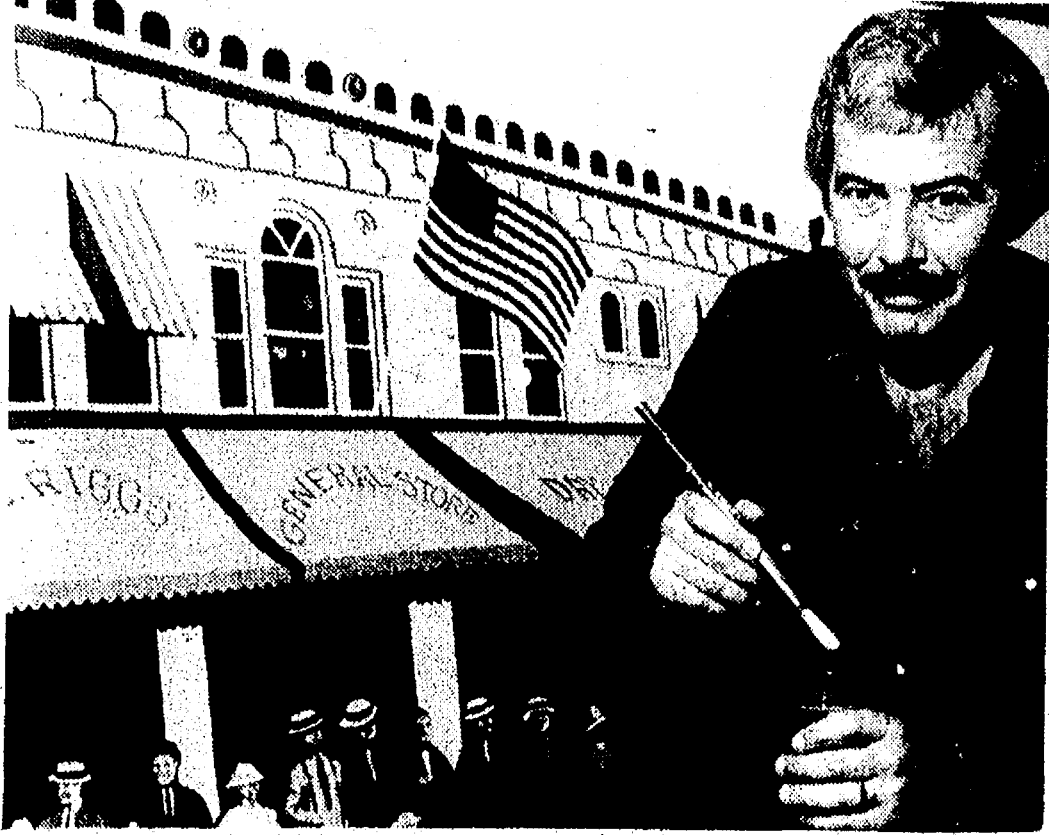

"I believe in the long run that the city and township would both benefit from some sort of a merger," he said. "If we can reach an agreement that both want to merge, I think there are ways to work it out."

Turner said he thought consolidation was the most acceptable way to merge both governments, but admitted the "treacherous decisions should be what is best for all the citizens of Plymouth."

Turner, 46, has been a resident of Plymouth for 13 years. He said there would be difficult decisions ahead for "I think a charter form of government would be established, with present city officials standing for re-election," he said.

Turner, a supply and district manager for Ford Motor Company in Livonia, served on the Plymouth School Board in 1973-74. He is married to June Turner and has a daughter, Judi-Lynn, and a son, Mark.

Carne finishes Plymouth mural

PLYMOUTH ARTIST and architect Erick Carne puts finishing touches on the 22-foot mural he painted for Manufacturers Bank on Ann Arbor Road of the Plymouth Village Green. The mural depicts downtown Plymouth in 1909 during the annual Fourth of July fireman's water battle. Carne is well-known for his paintings and drawings of the Plymouth-community.

The first snowflake has fallen and I promise not to make any more weather predictions. After all, what do you expect from November in Michigan? Now that winter is closing in it's time to have wood chopped for the fireplace or (oh lucky ones) pack for the south.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Silvis of Carol Ave. in Plymouth decided to head for Sun City, Arizona. During a recent vacation, they saw a full size replica of our nation's Liberty Bell in Del Webb's Resort-Retirement Community. The bell was cast from 7,000 pounds of metals donated by the residents.

The Plymouth Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will have a holiday luncheon Tuesday, Dec. 6 at noon at First Methodist Church, 45201 N. Territorial. Featured at the luncheon will be holiday table settings. Tickets are $4., and are going fast so if you plan to attend please call Mrs. Henry Pierce at 453-0670 or Mrs. Robert Schultz soon. Craft items will also be available for sale.

The Plymouth Branch, American Association of University Women will meet Thursday, Nov. 17 at West Middle School at 7:15 p.m. The meeting will be a workshop in assertiveness training. Members will learn the skills necessary to be direct, honest, and appropriate in expressing themselves. The workshop will be conducted by Sandra Prochazka, a member of the staff of the Associated Counseling Services in Plymouth.

Dr. Henry Walch, Senior Minister for 28 years at First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth was recently honored at a special coffee hour marking the 50th anniversary of his ordination last June. Dr. Walch, currently Minister Emeritus preached his Reformation Day theme on "The Living Presence".

The Mayflower Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Club will meet Thursday, Nov. 17 at 10 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Owen McKenny, 9320 Ivanhoe. Co-hostess for the meeting will be Mrs. Thomas Lewis. The members will be making Thanksgiving cornucopia arrangements.

Phyllis Joy Cunningham, daughter of Mrs. Shirley Cunningham of Ann Arbor Trail in Plymouth is a member of the homecoming court at Alma College. Phyllis is a senior majoring in recreation and physical education and is president of Alpha Zeta Tau sorority. She is a graduate of Salem High School.

Carol Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stone of Linden in Plymouth is a member of the Treble Choir at Western Michigan University. The choir will perform in a fall concert Sunday, Nov. 20 at 3 p.m. in Kanley Memorial Chapel. Conductor Will Hahnberg, associate professor of music at Western, has created a program in memory of Mrs. Dorothea Snyder, who served on WMU's choral music faculty from 1924 to 1962. Music chosen for this concert includes works by Britten, Brahms, Morgan Clokey, Este and others.

County gets turkey bill

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners is scheduled today to decide whether to pay for the loss of turkeys killed by stray dogs at Loyd Sharland's farm in Plymouth Township.

Sharland had previously asked Plymouth Township to pay for 10 dead hen turkeys and one tom turkey whose total value Sharland placed at $151.

The township board deferred the request to Wayne County, Sharland has asked for reimbursement from the township dog license fund.

MARILYN SCHWALLER receives the keys to the YMCA van used for senior citizens from Lions First Vice-President David Cook.

Hot lunch bus warms seniors

TONQUISH CREEK SENIORS gather up a senior to drive him to an appointment. Below, Mrs. Schwaller picks

A 'magic bus' is available now for Plymouth-Canton senior citizens providing transportation to lunch at Tonquish Creek Manor, shopping, doctor appointments or even delivering lunch if the need arises.

The 'magic bus' is really a van donated to the Plymouth Canton YMCA recently by the Plymouth Lions Club.

It is available four hours each day to seniors who live at Tonquish Creek Manor, and also for a home services program the Y sponsors, said Janet Luce, of the Plymouth-Canton Y.

"We transport seniors to doctor appointments, or shopping as well as other places," she said. "Our home services program helps seniors out with raking leaves, winterizing their homes, all on a volunteer basis." She said about 230 seniors used the service last year.

The van also brings in seniors from Canton and Plymouth to Tonquish Creek Manor to participate in a Wayne County sponsored Nutrition Program.

"We encourage people to come to the Manor to eat and socialize," said Fran Yokum of the City of Plymouth. "The program is free for seniors, but a 50 cent donation is asked. The van load varies from day to day, sometimes we have up to 12 people coming in. If needed, we can take lunches to those unable to get out."

If you are a senior citizen living in Plymouth or Canton and would like to know more about the 'magic bus' call the Y at 453-2904. For hot meals to a home, they ask for at least two or three days notice in advance, said Luce.

Portage ends Salem's season

BY CHAS CHILD

The tough defense of Portage Central lived up to its name Friday as they held off the Rocks and won the state quarterfinal playoff game, 21-3.

The loss, the first for Salem, ended the team's season and dashed their dreams of a state championship, which would have been their second in four years.

These dreams faded before the tight defense of the Mustangs, who only allowed the Rocks a single field goal by Kicker Dave Basierbe.

Central's linebackers were the key to the victory.

Jeff Smith's and Eric Van Derveen's blitzes through Salem's line many times stopped the Rocks' wishbone attack before it could get started.

The Mustangs have relied on their defense all season, and in their last seven games they've given up only 24 points.

Against this defense, the Rocks managed an unofficial total of 27 yards, 26 on the ground, and one in the air.

The Rocks only sustained drive of the cold and snowy evening resulted in Basierbe's field goal which gave the Rocks a 3-0 lead midway in the second quarter.

Salem fielded a punt on their own 44-yard line to start the drive. A face-mask penalty against Central on the next play gave the Rocks excellent field position at Portage's 35.

QUARTERBACK Paul Dillon dumps off a screen pass as Portage Central lineman pour in. The Rocks lost, 21-3. (Crier photo by Bill Bresler.)

Chris Ritchey slashed eight yards and Doug Rowe went seven for a first down on the Mustangs 20. Quarterback Paul Dillon kept the drive alive with a nine-yard jaunt to the 13, but the Rocks couldn't push it over the goal line and Basierbe came on to kick his 24-yarder.

The Rocks didn't have the lead for long, however, as Central drove 62 yards on six plays after the kickoff to take a 7-3 lead into the locker room at halftime.

The touchdown run came on a fourth and two situation on Salem's 27-yard line. With a Salem defender trying to wrestle him down, Quarterback Pete Metzelaars pitched back to Todd Lipschultz who sprinted around left end for the score.

After a spirited show by CEP's marching band at halftime, Central came out and wrapped up the game with two long touchdown drives.

The first drive went for 53 yards on 13 plays and was capped by a one plunge by Metzelaars for the score. The possession ate up at least one-half of the third quarter clock, and boosted Portage's lead to 14-7.

With time running out and the weather getting snowier and windier, the Rocks' catch-up proposition was made even tougher.

And the Mustangs put the game out of reach in the fourth quarter with another score. The 55-yard drive was highlighted by two long passes by Metzelaars, one for 29 yards and the second went for 17.

Lipschultz went over from the three for Portage's last touchdown with 9:38 on the clock.

Chiefs trounce Harrison

BY JEFF REY

Coming off their league-winning game on Tuesday the Canton women's basketball team added icing on the cake Thursday by defeating their final league opponent of the season, Farmington Harrison, 46-31.

The Chiefs clinched the Western Six Championship Tuesday after beating Walled Lake Western, 71-21.

Kelly Heaton and Laurie Butler led the Chiefs in scoring with 12 points. Kathy Sochacki added 10 points. The win marked the first Western Six Championship in the team's history.

Thursday's win against Harrison also marked the first time in Canton's history that a team has beaten every league opponent its faced throughout the entire season.

The Chiefs, led 14-5 after the first quarter with Vicki Cavallaro scoring five points. Harrison battled back the second period, outscoring the Chiefs 14-6 to move within one point at the half.

Heaton sparked the Chiefs offense during the third quarter scoring seven points and Canton regained a more dominating lead, 37-25. The Chiefs extended their lead in the final quarter and went on to win their 17th game of the season.

"Heaton played a terrific game," said coach Mike McCaulley. She led the Chiefs offense with 15 points followed by Evie Pasek with a ten point effort.

Laurie Butler scored eight points and recorded 6 steals.

The Junior Varsity squad also whipped Harrison 58-25 to record their 16th win against one loss.

On Thursday Canton plays their final regular season home game against Dearborn Fordson at 8 p.m.

Karate winners

Arnold Sandinbrae of Canton took first place gold in Fighting and first place Kata Forms in the New York City Isshinryu Karate Tournament last week. Arnold is a second degree brown belt in the senior men's division.

Matt Santilli, 39666 Cather Drive, Canton took first place Pee Wee division, and Michael Innes, 39569 Cather Drive

Who's best free-thrower?

A free throw shooting contest for local boys and girls aged 8-13 will be held Dec. 17.

Sponsored by the Elks Club, local winners will qualify to advance to the district tournament in Ann Arbor. Those who keep winning will be able to advance to state tourney, also in Ann Arbor and the national finals in Kemper Arena in Kansas City, Mo.

Local free throw wizards will be shooting it out at Salem High School gym, 10 a.m. through 4 p.m. on Dec. 17. The boys and girls entering the contest may register at the door of the gym. There is no fee.

The youths will compete in these age groups: eight and nine year olds; 10 and 11; and 12 and 13.

The boys will shoot-off against the boys, and likewise the girls. Tennis shoes are required.

Salem whips Belleville, 37-31

BY CHAS CHILD

Adjusting their zone press defense in the third quarter, Salem's basketball team spurred ahead of the Tigers and went on to win, 37-31.

The Rocks started the game with a zone press but fell behind after one quarter, 11-6. From there Coach Debbie Hatcher put her charges into a half-court defense and used that to go out ahead at half-time, 18-13.

Hatcher said that she wanted to use the zone press in the upcoming districts, so she made some adjustments and used it in the third quarter.

The team responded and outscored the Tigers in the third stanza, 15-6. Kathy Dillon dropped in six points, and Nan Horwood contributed three in the quarter.

In the final stanza, Salem stalled the game at one point for about three and one-half minutes, trying to perfect another aspect of their game for the playoffs.

Last Tuesday, however, the Rocks lost to Ferndale, 60-46. Ferndale's center, 6'2" Lizzy Johnson, burned the hoop for 41 points, the most anyone has ever scored against the Rocks, Hatcher said.

"She has a lot of moves and was very dominating," Hatcher said. The Rocks did hold the rest of the Ferndale players to 19 points, however.

Although, the Rocks couldn't stop Johnson, other aspects of the game went well. They sank 40 per cent of their field goals and 63 per cent of their free throws. Salem also caused about twice as many turnovers as they committed.

Center Erin Moore led the Rocks in scoring against Ferndale with 15 points, close to her high game of 16 points against Edsel Ford.

Nan Horwood chipped in 11 for the Rocks.

Jr. icers selling candy

MAKING A SPLASH. Rock swimmers leave the starting blocks against Belleville.

Salem drowns Belleville, 55-28

Salem's swimmers trounced Belleville, 55-28, Thursday, tuning up for the Suburban Eight league meet tomorrow and Friday.

The league meet will be held at Salem High School, giving the Rocks the home-pool advantage.

Against Belleville, the team of Jill McCann, Collette Cabadas, Sara Stanwood, and Linda Frazee won the 200-yard medley relay.

The Rocks took first and second in the 200-yard freestyle with Sharon Ross first and Kim Coates second.

Amy McClumpha garnered 198.1 points to win the diving and Sue Schmidt and Sue Evans went 1-2 in the 200-yard butterfly.

Another first and second sweep for Salem came in the 100-yard backstroke. Renee Lakatos touched first and Diane Perpich, second.

In other events, Sue Stanwood won the 200 individual medley, Sue Sparling took a second in the 50-yard freestyle, and Marion Stanwood won the 500-yard freestyle.

Also, Madeleine Lakatos finished second in the 100-yard freestyle, Collette Cabadas won the 100 breaststroke and Sue Stanwood, Madeleine Lakatos, Kathy Sample and Marion Stanwood won the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Sub-8 meet here

Heading into the Suburban Eight swim meet, the Rocks look to be the favorites.

Salem is undefeated in the league and will enjoy the home team advantage.

The meet begins tomorrow at 3 p.m. with the preliminaries. The finals for all events will begin Friday, Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Admission for the preliminaries will be 50 cents, and $1 for the finals.

Harrison outswims Canton

"They were out to get us," said Canton Swim Coach Anne Massey after the Chiefs lost to Farmington Harrison on Thursday 95-77.

Canton managed three first place finishes and 5 seconds but it was not enough to overpower Harrison.

Kim Massey took a first in the 500-yard freestyle, turning in a 5:46.1 and a second in the 200 freestyle with a 2:09.

Cindy Shelansky placed first in the 100 backstroke and second in the 200 individual medley with times of 1:08.6 and 2:37.7 respectively.

Peggy McElmeel took a second with a 28.6 in the 50 freestyle and Sue Knight finished second in the 100 breaststroke, turning in a 1:21. Diver Jamie Zuberink took a second with a 154.3 point total.

Canton's 200-yard medley relay team finished second with a 2:10 effort. Swimming the event were Shelansky, Annette Piethe, Laura Toor and Jackie Bennett.

The 400 freestyle relay of McElmeel, Mary Reardon, Sue Vitoratos and Massey finished on top turning in a 4:27.3.

Chiefs steel for loop meet

The Canton Women's Swim team begin their league competition on Wednesday and coach Anne Massey expects it to be quite a hard fought meet.

Northville is picked to repeat its league championship but Massey said, "there should be a dogfight for second between Farmington Harrison, Walled Lake Western and ourselves."

The Chiefs have two swimmers who have already qualified for state. Kim Massey who qualified for state early in the year in the 500 freestyle is expected to do well at league along with Cindy Shelansky who just recently qualified in the 100 backstroke.

Jamie Zuberink, who has done superbly all year long, hopes to finish in the top three in diving.

If the league meet points are awarded through sixth place which should prove to be helpful to the Chiefs if they receive some of the good efforts that Massey was referring to.

Brass tapped

Craig Brass, former sports writer for The Crier, has been named assistant statistician and public relations man for the Bowling Green State hockey team effective immediately.

Brass, a freshman at Bowling Green, graduated from Canton High School this past June.

Nordic skiers to meet

The Plymouth-Canton-Northville YMCA will hold an organizational meeting December 2 from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at Pioneer Middle School cafeteria for beginners on cross country skiing.

You need only be a Y member to join and you can register there. Classes will be formed for adults, youths and children. Family fee is $15, single fee is $10.

From Nov. 19 through Dec. 17, a football program for seven year olds and up will begin. The class runs for four weeks from 9 to 10 a.m. at Starkweather gym, 550 Holbrook St. The fee is $8 for members and $12 for non members.

A Saturday Fitness Building will be held from Nov. 19 through Dec. 17 for kindergarteners through second-graders and for third through fifth graders.

K-2 classes will be held from 10 to 11 a.m. the four Saturdays, and third through fifth grade classes will be from 11 a.m. to noon. All classes will be at the Starkweather gym.

Fee for members is $12, non-members $16.

Extra skating set

The Plymouth Cultural Center has scheduled two extra open skating sessions for Friday, Nov. 25 only.

The sessions added are from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and an 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

CEP wrestlers to sell fruit

The Salem and Canton wrestling teams and parents are sponsoring a grapefruit and orange sale through Nov. 23.

The teams are raising funds for extra equipment and summer wrestling clinics, according to Dan Chrenko, Canton wrestling coach.

Oranges will be available in small cartons (40 to 50 oranges) for $5.25 each and large (80-100) for $9.50.

The Ruby Red type grapefruit will be available in small (18 to 24) cartons at $4.75 or large (36-48) at $8.25.

EMU icers to play here

The Eastern Michigan University Huron hockey team will play two regular season games at the Plymouth Cultural Center this winter. The first game is scheduled for Friday, Dec. 9 at 8 p.m., against Indiana Purdue University. # Footnote O's legality questioned at their next meeting, Monday Nov. 21.

As it was written, footnote O governed the height of buildings in zoning districts to which it was applied. The building's distance back from the road determined their height, it said.

The footnote originally applied to B-3 General Business in 1970 seemingly permitting Dartmoor, the nine-story high-rise planned for downtown Plymouth. Dartmoor was approved in September.

After changes were made in the code in 1972, however, footnote O did not appear in the final version adopted by the City Commission in that year.

Regardless whether the footnote was deleted from B-3 purposely or not, the approved version did not contain it, and therefore it had no legal basis, the attorney ruled.

Lowe said that the city would have to re-enact footnote O through the normal procedures to get it back into the zoning ordinance.

In his opinion, Lowe said he tried to discover when and why footnote O was deleted from the approved version. "It is obvious that a mistake had been made with footnote O as there had been no prior discussion of deletion of footnote O."

If the original document of the changes made in the zoning ordinances intended footnote O to be deleted from B-3, then it had no legality, Lowe said in his opinion.

If, on the other hand, the error was merely a typo, the footnote would be a part of actual legislation, he said.

The original document could not be found in city records, and an original given to the legal newspaper at the time, the Plymouth Observer, could not be found by Observer officials either, the attorney said.

Lowe then based his opinion on a copy of the ordinance printed in the Observer and returned to city hall as proof of publication.

The published copy did not show footnote O applied to B-3 and Lowe ruled it therefore was not part of the city's ordinances.

"It appears that the piece of legislation acted upon by the City Commission did not include footnote O as part of their legislation. Therefore, footnote O is not applicable to B-3 General Business District and has not been since September 9, 1972," Lowe wrote.

The attorney said that the city's planners are usually charged with checking to make sure the adopted versions are what the commission had approved

Will twp. become Plymouth Place?

The action followed a decision late last month by the State Supreme Court which recognized the boundary commission's authority to decide questions of annexation, thus paving the way for annexation of the Burroughs property to the city.

Also included on annexation petitions filed by the Plymouth City Commission in 1974 were calls for the annexation of the Hillside Inn property on Plymouth Road and, more significantly, of the entire township.

Before the entire township could be annexed, however, township voters would have to agree. Officials say township residents are almost certain to reject an annexation attempt by the City of Plymouth.

If that happens, voters would then be asked to approve creation of the City of Plymouth Place, officials predict.

Said the township clerk of the petitions for a vote on cityhood, "This was the only way to stop a city form taking piecemeal from us, whether it's Plymouth or Livonia." Most observers see the City of Plymouth as the only bordering municipality now interested in the annexation of the township.

Added Mrs. Richardson, "Our only hope is to incorporate or consolidate. Majority-wise, township people want to remain a township. I'm township-minded. I hate to be in the seat of pushing for consolidation, but hearing what you hear, that's feasible.

"I guess negotiation is the word; but I'm violently opposed to annexation - that's like choking somebody."

The Michigan Townships Association, on behalf of all townships in the state affected by the Supreme Court's ruling, has announced that it will pursue the question of the boundary commission's right to approve annexation to higher courts - meaning the federal bench.

Observed Mrs. Richardson, "If something's not done, townships out here (in suburban areas) are going to be swamped by cities."

It's time for a second look at consolidation -- the merger of the city and the township - some officials say. Local voters rejected a proposal to consolidate the two governmental units in March, 1974, but sources say the time may be ripe to open negotiations between city and township once again.

Newly-elected Plymouth Mayor Tom Turner has cited the prospect of consolidation as a dream he would like to see come to pass in his administration.

Mrs. Richardson, somewhat more hesitantly, sees the possibility of the same goal.

"We should start meeting with the city," she said. "We should start talking about it (consolidation) and have good faith from both parties. We have to find out what's palatable to our interests."

New name chosen overnight

Almost overnight, Plymouth Township voters are faced with the prospect, however far off just now, of living in a new municipality called the City of Plymouth Place.

Where did that name come from?

For years Plymouth Township voters have been addressing their feelings on cityhood to something called Plymouth Heights. Votes have been taken on its proposed charter several times over the last 20 years.

That name created confusion because of all those old charters and charter elections, however, so when a handful of township officials decided to start a petition drive last week, they needed another name.

Some wanted Plymouth Woods, others Plymouth Place. A minority even plugged for Plymouth Towne. Plymouth Place won it out, but perhaps only for the sake of the petition drive.

Said Clerk Helen Richardson, "The name can be changed at a later date. We had to pick something to fill in the petitions, and we had to pick fast."

ORDINANCE NO. 76

AN ORDINANCE TO ADOPT SUPPLEMENTARY RULES TO THE 1975 EDITION OF THE NATIONAL ELECTRICAL CODE

Rule 1. Circuit Interconnection
Section 210-4 is amended to read as follows:

210-4. Multiwire Branch Circuits
a. Branch circuits recognized by this Article shall be permitted as multiwire circuits. Multiwire branch circuits shall supply line to neutral load only.

Exception No. 1: A multiwire branch circuit supplying a single appliance.

Exception No. 2: Where all ungrounded conductors of the multiwire branch circuit are opened simultaneously by the branch circuit over-current device.

b. circuit Interconnection. Neutral and ungrounded Circuit conductors for two, three, or four wire circuits shall originate at the same outlet or panel. Neutral and/or ungrounded conductors for circuits shall not be tapped from different locations in the wiring system.

Rule 2. Motor-Operated and Combination Loads.
Section 210-22(a) is amended to read as follows:
210-22(a) Motor-Operated and Combination Loads. Where a circuit supplies only motor-operated loads, Article 430 shall apply. Where a circuit supplies only air conditioning and/or refrigerating equipment, Article 440 shall apply. Fixed appliances with motors larger than 1/8 HP rating shall be connected to circuits supplying motors only.

Rule 3. Branch Circuit Requirements - Summary.
Section 210-24 is amended to read as follows:

210-24. Branch-Circuit Requirements - Summary. The requirements for circuits having two or more outlets, other than the receptacle circuits of section 220-3 (b) as specifically provided for above, are summarized in Table 210-24. Branch Circuits in dwelling type occupancies shall not be connected to serve more than one dwelling unit.

Rule 4. Dwelling type Occupancies.
Section 210-25(b) is amended to read as follows:

210-25(b) Dwelling-Type Occupancies. In every kitchen, family room, dining room, breakfast room, living room, parlor, library, den, sun room, bedroom, recreation room, or similar rooms, receptacle outlets shall be installed so that no point along the floor line in any wall space is more than 6 feet, measured horizontally, from an outlet in that space, including any wall space 2 feet or more in width and the wall space occupied by sliding panels in exterior walls. The wall space afforded by fixed room dividers, such as free-standing bar-type counters, shall be included in the 6 foot measurement.

In kitchen and dining areas a receptacle outlet shall be installed at each counter space wider than 12 inches. Counter top spaces separated by range tops, refrigerators, or sinks shall be considered as separate counter top spaces. Receptacles rendered inaccessible by the installation of stationary appliances shall not be considered as these required outlets. Receptacle outlets shall, in so far as practicable, be spaced equal distances apart. Receptacle outlets in floors shall not be counted as part of the required number of receptacle outlets unless located close to the wall.

At least one wall receptacle outlet shall be installed in the bathroom adjacent to the basin location.

For a one-family dwelling, at least one receptacle outlet shall be installed outdoors.

At least one receptacle outlet shall be installed in each basement and attached garage.

Laundry equipment duplex receptacle in dwelling type occupancies shall be mounted on the wall not higher than forty-eight (48) inches above the floor within 6 feet of the intended location of the equipment. A laundry lift pump of less than one-sixth (1/6) HP shall be permitted to be connected to the laundry circuit.

At least one receptacle outlet shall be installed for the laundry.

Exception No. 1: In a swelling unit that is an apartment or living area in a multifamily building where laundry facilities are provided on the premises that are available to all building occupants, a laundry receptacle shall not be required.

Exception No. 2: In other than single-family dwellings where laundry facilities are not to be installed or permitted, a laundry receptacle shall not be required.

Exception No. 3: A dwelling that is a unit in a hotel, motel, motor court, or motor hotel, a laundry receptacle shall not be required.

As used in this Section a "wall space" shall be considered a wall unbroken along the floor line by doorways, fireplaces, and similar openings. Each wall space two or more feet wide shall be treated individually and separately from other wall spaces within the room. A wall space shall be permitted to include two or more walls of a room (around corners) where unbroken at the floor line.

The purpose of this requirement is to minimize the use of cords across doorways, fireplaces, and similar openings.

The receptacle outlets required by this Section shall be in addition to any receptacle that is part of any lighting fixture or appliance, located within cabinets or cupboards, or located over 5 1/2 feet above the floor.

Lavatory: At least one duplex receptacle outlet shall be installed on the same wall as the wash basin or on a wall immediately adjacent to the wash basin. The receptacle shall not be more than four (4) feet from any wash basin and shall be installed not less than thirty (30) inches and not more than forty-eight inches above the floor and rated 15 amperes, 125 volts.

Halls, corridors, etc., multifamily dwellings shall have at least one receptacle outlet for each twenty-five (25) linear feet or major fraction of hall length.

Receptacle outlets located more than twenty-four (24) inches above the floor or more than twenty-four (24) inches above a fixed work surface they are intended to serve and pendant receptacle outlets are not to be counted as any of the receptacle outlets required by Section 210-25(b) and (c) of the National Electrical Code except as provided for in lavatories.

Unfinished attic space in dwelling type occupancies adaptable for living which is accessible by permanent stairs shall be provided with at least one receptacle outlet which shall be wired on an independent circuit of at least 15 ampere capacity.

Rule 5. Receptacle Outlets (in other than dwelling type occupancies). Section 210-25 (e) is added as follows:

210-25(e) Receptacle Outlets (in other than dwelling type occupancies).

(a) Receptacle outlets shall be supplied by a circuit of minimum 20 ampere capacity in industrial plants, machine shops, service garages, gasoline stations or similar occupancies.

(b) Receptacle outlets in commercial buildings shall include not more than nine (9) on circuits of 20 ampere capacity and not more than six (6) on circuits of 15 ampere capacity.

(c) Receptacle outlets shall not be connected to circuits supplying general lighting including office portions of buildings.

(d) A readily accessible duplex receptacle, fed from any 115 volt receptacle circuit, shall be installed on the roof within twenty-five (25) feet of each roof top heating, air conditioning and refrigeration unit or any combination of these units.

Rule 6. Dwelling type occupancies.

Section 210-26(a) is amended to read as follows:

210-26(a) Dwelling Type Occupancies. At least one wall switch controlled lighting outlet shall be installed in every habitable room; in hallways, stairways, and attached garages; and at outdoor entrances.

At least one lighting outlet shall be installed in an attic, underfloor space, utility room and basement where used for storage or containing equipment requiring servicing.

Wall switches located for convenient and readily accessible use shall be required for all ceiling lighting outlets, except closets, storage spaces and unfinished basements. Lighting outlets over sink and dinette portions of kitchens, in halls, vestibule, and at outdoor entrances, shall not be combined in any manner and shall be switched separately. If more than one lighting outlet is installed in any one of these areas, such lighting outlets shall be permitted to be combined on a single switch.

Laundry lighting outlet in dwelling type occupancies shall be provided for use in the laundry area and shall be permitted to be connected to the same circuit which supplies the laundry equipment receptacle outlet.

Exception No. 1: In habitable rooms, other than kitchens or bathrooms, one or more receptacles controlled by a wall switch shall be permitted in lieu of lighting outlets.

Exception No. 2: In hallways, stairways, and at outdoor entrances remote, central, or automatic control of lighting shall be permitted.

Rule 7. Basement Lighting.

Section 210-26(d) is added to read as follows:

210-26(d) Basement Lighting. Basements in dwelling type occupancies shall be wired for a minimum of one lighting outlet in each 200 square feet or major fraction or area for use as general illumination. All enclosed areas that may be walked into such as toilet rooms, fruit storage rooms, utility rooms; excavated areas under porches, etc., shall be provided with at least one lighting outlet (except coal bins).

Rule 8. Stairways and Hallways (in dwelling type occupancies).

Section 210-26(e) is added to read as follows:

210-26(e) Stairways and Hallways (in dwelling type occupancies). (1) Stairways shall be provided with a lighting outlet or outlets so placed that each stair section shall be adequately illuminated. Such lighting outlets for basement, second floor or attic stairs shall be located directly over stairway section or at head or foot of stairs. These lighting outlets shall not be counted as comprising any of the required lighting outlets for basement, attic rooms, etc.

(2) All stairway lighting outlets shall have multiple switch control at head and foot of stairway unless supplied by house meter and controlled by time clock or controls accessible to authorized persons only.

(3) Unless served from separate house meter, stairway lighting outlets shall be supplied from circuits of the dwelling units using the stairway.

(4) Hallway lighting. A minimum of one lighting outlet shall be installed for each twenty-five (25) feet or major fraction thereof.

Rule 9. Switches (in other than dwelling type occupancies).

Section 210-28 is added to read as follows:

210-28. Switches (in other than dwelling type occupancies). (a) Switches shall be installed to control general lighting outlets. These switches may be wall switches or disconnecting means incorporated in a readily accessible distribution panel. Individual switches to control specific fixtures shall be permitted to be installed if desired. A switch adjacent to entrances to all areas that may be walked into shall be provided to control a fixture or fixtures located so as to furnish sufficient illumination for persons to see their way into those areas.

(b) All stairway lighting outlets shall have multiple switch control at head and foot of stairway unless supplied by house meter and controlled by time clock or controls accessible to authorized persons only.

Rule 10. Space Heating Equipment (other than electric heat).

Section 220-3(e) is added to read as follows:

220-3(e) Space Heating Equipment (other than electric heat). (1) At least one (1) individual branch circuit of not less than 15 ampere capacity shall be installed for the heating equipment.

(2) Only those motors which are an integral part of the heating equipment shall be permitted to be connected to the circuit required by (1).

Rule 11. Location of Service Equipment and Distribution Panels.

Section 230-72(c) is amended to include the following:

230-72(c) Location of Service Equipment and Distribution Panels. In dwelling type occupancies, service equipment and distribution panels shall not be located in coal bins, bathrooms, lavatories or clothes closets. Where practicable, they shall be located in the basement, utility room or garage. In single and two-family dwellings, this equipment shall be at least four (4) feet from the floor and shall not be subject to mechanical injury or shall be provided with suitable protection. Sufficient clearance and accessibility shall be provided when installed near laundry trays, oil tanks, or other permanently installed obstructions.

Rule 12. Wiring in Attics.

Section 334-13 is amended to read as follows:

334-13 Wiring in attics. Non-metallic sheathed cable and armored cable installed in attics of dwelling type occupancies shall conform to Section 336-9 National Electrical Code except, if headroom in any portion of the attic is four (4) feet or over, wiring shall be installed as concealed wiring at least to the point where headroom is reduced to three (3) feet. In liveable attics, or attics adaptable under the Building Code for future living, wiring shall be installed as concealed wiring at least to a point of one (1) foot clearance of roof rafters and attic floor joists.

Rule 13. Non-metallic Sheathed Cable. Uses permitted or not permitted.

Section 336-3 is amended to read as follows:

336-3 Uses Permitted or Not Permitted. Type NM and Type NMC Cables shall be permitted to be used in one and two-family dwellings, or multi-family dwellings and other structures.

(a) Type NM. This type of non-metallic sheathed cable shall be permitted to be installed for both exposed and concealed work in normally dry locations. It shall be permissible to install or fish type NM cable in air voids in masonry block or tile walls where such walls are not exposed or subject to excessive moisture or dampness.

Type NM cable shall not be installed where exposed to corrosive fumes or vapors; nor shall it be imbedded in masonry, concrete, fill, or plaster; nor run in a shallow chase in masonry or concrete and covered with plaster or similar finish.

(b) Type NMC. Type NMC cable shall be permitted for both exposed and concealed work in dry, moist, damp, or corrosive locations, and in outside and inside walls of masonry block or tile.

(c) Uses Not Permitted for Either Type NM or NMC. Types NM and NMC cables shall not be used as: (1) service-entrance cable, (2) in commercial garages, (3) in theaters and similar locations, except as provided in Article 518, places of assembly, (4) in motionpicture studios, (5) in storage battery rooms, (6) in hoistways, (7) in any hazardous location, (8) embedded in poured cement, concrete, or aggregate.

Rule 14. Lampholders

Section 410-49 is amended to read as follows:

410-49 Lampholders

(a) Lampholders installed in wet or damp locations shall be of the weatherproof type.

(b) Porcelain or metal shell sockets used as cord pendant lighting outlets shall not be permitted within reach of grounded portion of buildings.

Rule 15. Residential Food Waste Disposers.

Section 422-8(d) is added to read as follows:

422-8(d) Residential Food Waste Disposers. All such equipment and controls in dwelling type occupancies shall be provided with an independent disconnecting means within sight of the equipment and it shall be readily accessible. Food waste disposers of one-half horsepower or less shall be wired only with heavy duty 3-wire minimum No. 16 hard service cord and approved cap and three wire "U" slot grounding type receptacles. On new construction, a disconnect switch shall be mounted in the wall adjacent to the sink.

Rule 16. Space Heating Equipment (other than electric heat).

Section 422-21(c) is added to read as follows:

422-21(c) Space Heating Equipment (other than electric heat). (1) A readily accessible disconnect switch shall be mounted on the exterior of the heating equipment or on a surface adjacent to the heating equipment.

(2) Heating equipment which is not readily accessible shall have an additional disconnect installed at the nearest readily accessible location.

Rule 17. Circuits in Anesthetizing Locations.

Section 517-63(f) is amended to read as follows:

517-63(f). Circuits in anesthetizing locations. (1) A general purpose lighting circuit connected to the normal grounded service shall be installed in each operating room. Exception: Where connected to any alternate source permitted in 700-6 which is separate from the source serving the emergency system.

Rule 18. Elevator Rooms.

Section 620-73 is added to read as follows:

620-73 Elevator Rooms shall be wired for at least one lighting outlet controlled by a wall switch, and one receptacle outlet.

Rule 19. Conductor Physical Protection

Section 725-18 shall be amended to read as follows:

725-18 Conductor Physical Protection (a) Where damage to remote-control circuits of safety control equipment would introduce a hazard, as covered in Section 725-4, all conductors of such remote-control circuits shall be installed in rigid metal conduit, intermediate metal conduit, electrical metallic tubing, Type MI cable, Type ALS cable, Type CS cable, or be otherwise suitably protected from physical damage.

(b) Low Energy Wiring. Remote control, signaling, and power limited circuits.

(1) Conductors shall run parallel to or through joists.

(2) Conductors shall run parallel to beams and/or pipes if within one (1) inch, or shall be run on sill plates.

(3) Low energy wiring shall comply with (1) and (2). Vertical drops of conductors to furnaces, heaters, etc., shall be mechanically protected by securing to gas or oil pipes or electrical raceways, or securing to ducts, frame structures or back boards, or installing in metallic or non-metallic raceways, or forming in spiral coils for vertical drops of eight (8) inches or less.

Rule 20. Minimum Standards for Existing Dwelling Units.

Chapter 10 of the code is added as follows:

1000-1 Inspection: If inspection reveals that the wiring system of an existing dwelling type occupancy is inadequate, or if certification as a habitable dwelling is requested, the following minimum requirements shall be complied with:

(a) Entrances and exits: Where two (2) or more entrances and/or exits exist, at least two (2) entrances and/or exits shall be illuminated by exterior lights. Lighting outlets shall be controlled by interior wall switches, located for convenient and readily accessible use.

(b) Living Room: Living room shall be provided with illumination. Lighting outlet shall be controlled by a wall switch, located for convenient and readily accessible use, one of the receptacle outlets controlled by a wall switch in lieu of ceiling lighting outlet is acceptable. Convenience duplex receptacle outlets shall be provided. Receptacle outlets shall be equally spaced around the room with at least one duplex receptacle outlet on each wall.

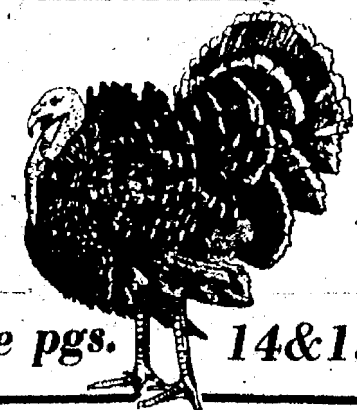

(c) Kitchen: Kitchen shall be provided with illumination. Lighting outlet shall be controlled by a wall switch located for convenient and readily accessible use.

A separate kitchen appliance circuit shall be provided, supplying a minimum of three (3) grounding type duplex receptacle outlets. Two (2) of these receptacles shall be readily accessible for convenient use of portable appliances. New appliance circuits shall be twenty ampere capacity.

(d) Bathroom: Bathrooms shall be illuminated. Lighting outlet shall be controlled by a wall switch. A receptacle outlet separate from the light fixtures, shall be provided and shall be located at least thirty (30) and not more than forty-eight (48) inches above the floor adjacent to the wash basin and not more than four (4) feet from the basin.

(e) All other Habitable Rooms: Illumination for each habitable room shall be provided. Lighting outlet shall be controlled by a wall switch. Wall switches shall be located for convenient and readily accessible use. Convenience duplex receptacle outlets shall be provided a mini-num of two (2) receptacle outlets equally spaced around the room. An additional receptacle outlet controlled by a wall switch is acceptable in lieu of a lighting outlet.

(f) Basement: Basement shall be wired for a minimum of one lighting outlet in each 200 square feet or major fraction of area for use as general illumination. All enclosed area that may be walked into, such as toilet rooms, fruit storage rooms, utility rooms, excavated areas under porches, etc., shall be provided with at least one lighting outlet (except coal bins).

Stairwell and laundry area lighting outlets shall not be counted as part of the required basement lighting outlets.

(g) Laundry Areas: Laundry areas shall be provided with illumination. Laundry circuit shall be an individual circuit. A wall-mounted grounding type duplex receptacle outlet shall be provided, located near the laundry equipment.

An existing drop cord receptacle outlet on a separate circuit shall be acceptable providing it is a grounding type receptacle outlet not more than five (5) feet six (6) inches above the floor.

(h) Space Heating System: Heating equipment requiring electrical energy for operation and/or control shall be provided with an individual circuit. A disconnect switch shall be provided on or adjacent to the heating equipment. (Exception: Thermo-Pile controlled furnaces).

(i) Stairwells: Stairwells shall be adequately illuminated. Lighting outlets shall be controlled by wall switches. Wall switches shall be located for convenient and readily accessible use. Switches shall not be located where it is necessary to use darkened stair sections for their operation. All stairwells to finished portions of dwelling shall be provided with multiple switch control, one at the head, the other at the foot of the stairwell.

(j) Service and/or Feeder: Service to existing dwelling unit shall be a minimum of one hundred ampere, three wire capacity. Service equipment shall be dead front having no live parts exposed whereby accidental contact could be made. Type "S" fuses shall be installed when fused equipment is used.

Exception: Existing service of fifty-five ampere three wire capacity, and feeders of thirty ampere of larger two or three wire capacity shall be accepted if adequate for the electrical load being served.

(k) Existing Wiring and Equipment: Existing wiring and equipment shall be in good repair. Circuit extensions made with flexible cord wiring in lieu of permanent wiring shall be eliminated.

1000-2 New Work: All new work shall conform to the National Electrical Code and these rules.

1000-3 Evidence of inadequacy: Evidence of inadequacy shall be any of the following:

(a) Use of cords in lieu of permanent wiring.
(b) Oversizing of overcurrent protection of circuits, feeders, or service.

(c) Illegal extensions to the wiring system in order to provide light, heat or power.

(d) Electrical overload.
(e) Misuse of electrical equipment.

(f) Lack of lighting fixtures in bathroom, laundry room, furnace room, stairway or basement.

Rule 20. Penalty

Section 21 of the Charter Township of Canton Electrical Ordinance is added to read as follows:

21 Penalty. Any person, firm, or corporation who shall violate or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or any of the regulations adopted in pursuance hereof, or who shall hamper, impede or interfere with the performance of the duties of the Building Official or other officer under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding One-Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment not exceeding ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Each act of violation and every day upon which such violation shall occur shall constitute a separate offense.

Rule 21. Liability

Section 23 of the Charter Township of Canton Electrical Ordinance is added to read as follows:

23 Liability. This Ordinance shall not be construed to relieve from or lessen the responsibility of any party owning, operating, controlling, or installing any electric wiring, electric devices and/or electric material for damages to person or property caused by any defect therein, nor shall the Charter Township of Canton be held as assuming any such liability by reason of the inspection authorized herein, or certificate of inspection issued as herein provided.

Rule 22. Section 24 of the Charter Township of Canton Electrical Ordinance is added to read as follows:

24 If any section of this Ordinance be declared void by legal actions for any reason, all other sections shall continue to be in force, until specifically declared void through action of the court.

Rule 23. Section 25 of the Charter Township of Canton Electrical Ordinance is added to read as follows:

25 This Ordinance shall become operative and effective upon its publication.

ORDINANCE NO. 77

AN ORDINANCE TO ADOPT BY REFERENCE THE NATIONAL ELECTRICAL CODE, 1975 EDITION, AS PROMULGATED AND PUBLISHED BY THE NATIONAL FIRE PROTECTION ASSOCIATION FOR THE PURPOSE OF SAFEGUARDING LIFE AND PROPERTY BY REGULATING AND PROVIDING FOR THE INSPECTION OF THE INSTALLATION AND MAINTENANCE OF ELECTRIC WIRING, ELECTRIC SERVICES AND ELECTRIC MATERIALS, TO PROVIDE FOR THE LICENSING OF AND REGISTRATION OF ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS AND THE LICENSING OF MASTERS AND JOURNEYMEN ELECTRICIANS IN THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON; TO PROVIDE A RECIPROCAL ARRANGEMENT FOR THE RECOGNITION OF EXAMINATIONS AND LICENSES ISSUED BY OTHER MUNICIPALITIES IN AND FOR THE STATE OF MICHIGAN; TO PROVIDE A PENALTY FOR VIOLATION THEREOF; AND REPEAL ORDINANCES AND SECTIONS OF ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT HERewith OF THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN.

THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON ORDAINS:

Sec. 1: ADOPTION OF CODE BY REFERENCE. Pursuant to the provisions of Sections 17 and 23 of Act. 359, of Public Acts 1947, (M.S.A. 5. 46 (17) and 46 (23) as amended), the National Electrical Code, 1975 Edition, as promulgated and published by the National Fire Protection Association, is hereby adopted by the Charter Township of Canton as herein may be modified for the purpose of safeguarding life and property by regulating and providing for the inspection of the installation and maintenance of electric wiring, electric services and electric material, to provide for the licensing and registration of Electrical Contractors and the licensing of Master and Journeyman Electricians in the Charter Township of Canton, to provide a reciprocal arrangement for the recognition of examinations and licenses issued by other municipalities in and for the State of Michigan.

Sec. 2: CODE ON FILE. Complete printed copies of the National Electrical Code, 1975 Edition, herein adopted, are available for public use and inspection at the Office of the Township Clerk.

Sec. 3: From and after the effective date of this ordinance, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to install, alter or repair any equipment used to distribute electrical power other than in pursuance of the provisions of this ordinance.

Sec. 4: INSPECTOR. The Charter Township of Canton Building Official, hereinafter called the Building Official is hereby authorized and empowered to inspect and approve or disapprove all electrical installations and changes, repairs and additions thereto, hereafter to be made within the Charter Township of Canton involving or for connection to an electricity supply system as herein provided. This authority may be delegated to a qualified electrical inspector hereinafter called the Inspector, appointed by the Supervisor.

The Building Official shall have the qualifications of a licensed Master Electrician, unless the authority as herein provided is delegated to an electrical inspector, in which case the electrical inspector shall have the qualifications of a Master Electrician.

Sec. 5: FEES FOR INSPECTION. A schedule of fees shall be established by resolution of the Township Board. Fees shall be charged for inspection of electrical installation, devices, apparatus and equipment in the Charter Township of Canton. The money so received shall be paid into the Treasury as part of the general receipts of the Township.

Sec. 6: RIGHT OF ACCESS TO BUILDING. The Building Official or the Inspector shall have the right during reasonable hours, to enter any building in the discharge of his official duties or for the purpose of making any inspection, or test of recognition scope and mode of the installation of electric wiring, electric devices and electrical material contained therein and shall have the authority to cause the turning-off of all electrical supply and cut or disconnect, in cases of emergency, any wires where such electrical currents are dangerous to life or property or that may interfere with the work of the Fire Department.

Sec. 7: PERMITS. No alterations or additions shall be made in the existing wiring of any building, nor shall any building be wired for the placing of any electric lights, motors, heating devices, or any apparatus requiring the use of electrical current, nor shall any alterations be made in the wiring in any building after inspection, without first notifying the Building Official and securing a permit therefore. Applications for such permit shall describe in detail the work to be done, and such other pertinent information as the Building Official may require, and shall be signed by the person, firm or corporation by whom the installation is to be made.

Sec. 8: INSPECTION. Upon completion of the wiring of any building or the installation of any electrical apparatus, it shall be the duty of the person, firm or corporation installing the same, to notify the Building Official of such completion and it shall be the duty of the Building Official or Inspector forthwith, to make an inspection thereof and if the same be found to fully comply with the provisions of this Ordinance, he shall issue to licensee a certificate authorizing connection to the electrical service. All wires which are to be hidden from view shall be inspected before concealment and it shall be the duty of the licensee to afford the Building Official or Inspector sufficient time to make the inspection thereof before such wire(s) are concealed.

Sec. 9: RE-INSPECTION. The Building Official or Inspector shall have the authority to make periodically, a thorough re-inspection of the installation in buildings of all electric wiring, electric devices, and electrical material now installed or that may hereafter be installed, within the Charter Township of Canton, and when the installation of any such wiring, devices, and/or material is found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition, the person, firm or corporation owning, using or operating the same shall be notified and shall make the necessary repairs or changes required to place such wiring, devices and material in a safe condition and have such work completed within fifteen (15) days or any longer period specified by the Inspector in said notice.

The Building Official or the Inspector is hereby empowered to disconnect or order discontinuance of electrical service to such wiring, devices and/or material found to be defectively installed until the installation of such wiring, devices and material has been made as directed by the Building Official or the Inspector.

Sec. 10: CONSTRUCTION REQUIREMENTS. No certificate of inspection shall be issued unless the electrical installation is in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance, the statutes of the State of Michigan, the rules and regulations issued by the Michigan Public Utilities Commission under authority of the State Statutes, and unless they are in conformity with approved methods of construction for safety to person and property.

Sec. 11: APPROVED MATERIALS. It shall be unlawful to install or use any electrical device, apparatus or equipment designed for attachment to, or installation of any electrical circuit or system for heat, light or power that is not good design as approved by Underwriters Laboratories. The Inspector shall have the power to disapprove the use of installation of devices not fulfilling those requirements.

Sec. 12: RECORDS. The Building Official shall keep complete records of all permits issued and inspections made and other official work performed under the provisions of this Ordinance.

Sec. 13: REVIEW. When the Building Official or Inspector condemns all or part of any electrical installation the owner or contractor may, within five (5) days after receiving written notice of such condemnation, file a petition in writing for review of said action with the Board of Examiners. Upon receipt of such petition, a hearing shall be scheduled to determine whether said electrical installation complies with this Ordinance. The hearing shall be at a time and place as determined by the Board of Examiners. The petitioner shall be sent a written notice by Certified Mail, of said hearing. The petitioner has the right to attend and be heard at said hearing. The petitioner may appeal the Board of Examiners determination within five (5) days to the State Electrical Board.

Sec. 14: BOARD OF EXAMINERS. A Board of Examiners is hereby created which shall consist of the Building Official, a representative of the Company furnishing the electricity supply, a licensed electrical contractor and a licensed electrical journeyman. The three (3) latter members of this Board shall be appointed by the Township Board for a term of one year and shall hold office without remuneration, from the Charter Township of Canton.

Sec. 15: POWERS OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINERS. The Board of Examiners is hereby authorized to make determination as to compliance with this Ordinance pursuant to the provision of Section 13. The said Board of Examiners is further authorized to provide for the examination of applicants for licenses under this Ordinance to grant such licenses to qualified applicants who have paid the prescribed fee, to revoke or suspend such licenses for sufficient cause. The Board of Examiners shall examine each applicant for a license requested pursuant to this Ordinance, at such time, place and in such manner as it may designate.

The examination shall be practical and elementary in character, but sufficient to determine the qualifications of the applicant. Approval shall be by majority vote of the Board, who shall thereupon issue to applicant such license. The Board of Examiners is hereby empowered and it shall be their duty to make such rules and regulations concerning electrical work in the Charter Township of Canton as may be required to properly provide for the situation therein. The rules and regulations shall become effective when approved by the Township Board of the Charter Township of Canton.

Sec. 16: LICENSE. No person, partnership or corporation shall provide for or engage in the installation, alteration, repair or maintenance of electrical equipment, wiring or apparatus in the Charter Township of Canton, Michigan, without first having obtained an Electrical Contractor's, Master's or Journeyman's license (except helpers and apprentices permitted by the rules of the Board of Examiners), except that no license shall be required in order to execute or perform any of the clauses of electrical work specified in the following paragraphs.

- (A) Minor repairs or maintenance, including minor repairs of flush and snap switches, replacement of fuses, changing of lamp sockets and receptacles, or repair of drop cords, or the connection of approved portable devices.
- (B) Installation, alteration or repair of electrical equipment installed on the premises of consumers by public utilities companies supplying the electrical energy for the use of such utility company.
- (C) Any installation of electrical equipment in a single family dwelling and accompanying out-buildings owned and occupied by the person performing the installation, alteration or repair of such electrical equipment where provisions are made for inspection of the completed installation of electrical equipment by an inspector having jurisdiction.
- (D) A person employing a licensed electrical journeyman to actively supervise the new installation of electrical equipment on premises owner or occupied, and used, by the applicant in the conduct of his business, and at which premises the licensed electrician performs his duties in those instances where business or industrial procedure required the regular employment of a licensed electrical journeyman. However, an affidavit form furnished by the administrative authority shall be signed by both the employer and the licensed journeyman. This affidavit shall be kept on file in the offices of the administrative authority, and shall contain the following:
  - (1) Name and business address of the person employing the licensed electrical journeyman.
  - (2) Name, address, and current license number of the licensed electrical journeyman.
  - (3) License numbers of two (2) previous years, and the name of licensing authority in order to establish the holding of a license for not less than two (2) years.
  - (4) Statement to the effect that the employer and the licensed electrical journeyman will comply with the provisions of the code regulating installation of electrical equipment in the state. A new affidavit shall be filed before permits are issued if the licensed electrical journeyman terminates his employment.

Sec. 17: RECIPROCITY. The Charter Township of Canton shall permit Electrical Contractors lawfully licensed by other municipalities or the State of Michigan to install, alter or repair electrical wiring, equipment, apparatus or fixtures for light, heat or power, purposes within the Township limits of the Charter Township of Canton upon payment of a registration fee, provided that such municipalities reciprocate in recognizing Electrical Contractors who are duly licensed under the provisions of this Ordinance by granting them the same privilege and charging the same uniform license and registration fees and provided further, that their licensing Ordinances are substantially equal to the requirements of this Ordinance. Journeyman Electricians employed by an Electrical Contractor and duly licensed by any Township or City cooperating in the reciprocal arrangement shall be permitted to work in the Charter Township of Canton without payment of a registration fee, provided, however, that Journeyman Electricians doing work within the Charter Township of Canton are holders of a license from a cooperating municipality, or the State of Michigan.

Sec. 18: APPLICATION FOR LICENSES. The designated representative of each applicant for a Contractor's, Master's, or Journeyman's license shall be examined to determine the knowledge of the required standard for electrical equipment and its installation, and to determine the general qualifications and fitness of the applicant for executing work to be done under the class of license applied for.

The Board of Examiners shall conduct examination or authorize the applicant to be examined by the Examining Board of another municipality cooperating in the reciprocal arrangement set forth in this section, and in this event, at least one member of the Board of Examiners shall be present at the examination. To be eligible for an Electrical Contractor's license, the person, firm or corporation applying for the same must have at least one individual duly qualified as a Master Electrician in its employ at all times. To be eligible for a Master's or Journeyman's license, the applicant shall be eighteen years of age or over, and shall have had practical trade or technical school experience according to the Supplementary Rules as herein adopted. Examinations for such licenses may be oral, written or such practical tests as the Board of Examiners shall determine. A complete record for every examination shall be kept on file for at least three years.

Sec. 19: LICENSE FEES. Before a license is granted to any applicant, the applicant shall pay to the Treasurer of the Charter Township of Canton a fee as set by resolution of the Township Board. Each license shall expire on the 31st day of December following the date of its issuance and shall be renewed by the Board of Examiners without examination upon application of the holder of the license, and payment of the required fee at any time before the date of expiration or within sixty (60) days thereafter.

Sec. 20: REVOCATION OR SUSPENSION. Any Electrical Contractor's, Master's, or Journeyman's license may, after a hearing, be suspended or revoked by the Board of Examiners upon evidence presented that false statements have been made in the application for license willfully or by reason or incompetence has violated the rules and regulations relating to inspection, installation, alteration, maintenance and repair. A hearing shall be scheduled to determine whether a Electrical Contractor's, Master's, or Journeyman's license should be suspended or revoked. The hearing shall be at a time and place as determined by the Board of Examiners. The licensee shall be sent a written notice by Certified Mail, of said hearing. The petitioner has the right to attend and be heard at said hearing. The licensee may appeal the Board of Examiners' determination within five (5) days to the State Electrical Board.

Sec. 21: PENALTY. Any person, firm, or corporation who shall violate or fail to comply with any of the provisions of this Ordinance, or any of the regulations adopted in pursuance hereof, or who shall hamper, impede or interfere with the performance of the duties of the Building Official or other officer under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding One-Hundred Dollars ($100.00) or by imprisonment not exceeding ninety (90) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Each act of violation and every day upon which such violation shall occur shall constitute a separate offense.

Sec. 22: REPEAL OF CONFLICTING ORDINANCE. All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances conflicting with the provisions of this Ordinance, are hereby repealed.

Sec. 23: LIABILITY. This Ordinance shall not be construed to relieve from or lessen the responsibility of any party owning, operating, controlling, or installing any electric wiring, electric devices and/or electric material for damages to person or property caused by any defect therein, nor shall the Charter Township of Canton be held as assuming any such liability by reason of the inspection authorized herein, or certificate of inspection issued as herein provided.

Sec. 24: If any section of this Ordinance be declared void by legal actions for any reason, all other sections shall continue to be in force, until specifically declared void through action of the court.

Sec. 25: This ordinance shall become operative and effective upon its publication.
