ONE MINUTE SERMON

ON CHURCHGOING

Text Hebrews 10:25: "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." Churchgoing is a means of grace, and divinely appointed. It is helpful and restful. A fine investment of your time. It develops the best powers of the man. But how easily neglected. Absence from next Sunday's sermon will make it easy to stay away from the next week. The slightest irregularity in attendance will work serious havoc with a good habit. Then we reach for an excuse. We shall find a plenty except good ones. Most excuses analyzed mean simply, "I don't wish to." If you will attend church regularly one quarter, you will want to go. Try the remedy. Begin next Sunday if you have not already begun. We shall look for you.

Make Brutal Attack on Old Man

One of the most brutal and bold attacks was made on an old man in this village Tuesday evening, that has occurred here in some years. About eight o'clock two strange young Italians entered the fruit store kept by Peter Spadaro, an Italian, next door to the D. U. R. station, and engaged the old man in conversation. They finally asked the proprietor if they might eat a little lunch in the back room of the store, and he gave them permission to do so, which they did. They then spoke about securing a place to sleep for the night and one of them said he would go to the hotel and see what it would cost them for a room. He later returned to the fruit store, where his companion had waited. He said he was cold and asked permission to go into the back room where there was a fire to get warm. On receiving the old man's consent to do so, they both went into the rear part of the store, where one of the strangers informed the proprietor that they did not have money enough to get a night's lodging, but demanded that he give them some. Upon his refusal to do so, one of them started to beat him up. His cries soon attracted the attention of persons nearby and becoming frightened the men beat a retreat, one going out the front door and the other out the back way, leaving the old man badly cut about the face and head. So far as can be ascertained they got nothing from the old fruit dealer. Officers Springer and Hawthorne were called and were upon the scene in a very few minutes. After making a search in the immediate neighborhood, the two officers went to the railroad yards, where they arrested a young Italian, his name as Joseph Marino, of Detroit. The man stood near the depot and when he saw Officer Springer approaching up the street he started west down the track, when Officer Hawthorne stepped out from behind a freight car and he was ordered to be searched and a loaded revolver and $8.42 in money was found upon his person. The officers made diligent search for the other man, but were unable to get any trace of him. Marino was identified as one of the men who was in the store the night before when the attack was made, by the fruit dealer the next morning. On being questioned as to who his partner was the man claimed he did not know, but that he fell in with him here that day and knew nothing about him. He also claims that the other man made the assault and not he, but did not deny being with him at the time. The prisoner was held on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and making a felonious assault. He was taken before Justice Campbell Thursday morning and his examination was set for Wednesday, Nov. 25. In default of bail he was remanded to the county jail.

Special Election Called

At a special meeting of the village council last Monday evening, it was decided to call a special election for Monday, December 7th, to give the people a chance to express themselves in regard to the proposition of bonding the village to cover the estimated cost of making necessary improvements at our electric light plant, as suggested by the engineers. Our village has outgrown our present electric light plant, there is not a question about that, and the council are facing the proposition of taking steps to make such improvements as are necessary to take care of the increased business that has been put upon the plant. Many new houses have been built the past year. Factories are using more current, and the present equipment is taxed to the utmost. If the machinery is crowded too much there is danger of its giving out completely and in the village will be in darkness. If we are to encourage new factories and engineering enterprises to locate in Plymouth and more new houses are to be erected next spring, it would seem that some way will have to be provided to furnish more current for electric lights and power, by increasing the capacity of our municipal electric light plant. It has been estimated that it will cost $12,000 to place the plant in first class condition, by installing new machinery and increasing the producing capacity to better take care of the heavy load that has already been placed upon it and the increased demand for current that is sure to come as the village grows. It is a proposition that is of vital interest to every tax payer and should receive his careful consideration and attention. A notice of the election and registration appears in this paper. Read it.

Church Re-opening Sunday, Nov. 22.

The formal re-opening of the Methodist church will occur next Sunday, Nov. 22. The morning service is at 10 o'clock and Rev. C. B. Allen of Detroit, District Superintendent, will deliver the sermon. The following musical program will be given: Prelude E flat Solo, "In Thee, O Lord, do I Trust," Edw. Read. Offertory, "The Lord, do I Trust," Adolph Frey. Trio, "I'll Guide Thee Home," Patrie. The new Sunday-school room will be formally opened at the close of the morning service. The evening service will be at 7:00 o'clock. Rev. George Elliott of Mt. Clemens, will deliver the sermon. Rev. Elliott is one of the most able and eloquent speakers in the Methodist denomination, and a rare treat is in store for those who hear him. The following special musical program has been arranged for this service: Prelude, "Pilgrim's Chorus," Wagner. "Show me the Way," Patrie. Double Quartette. Duet, "The Day is Ended." Mrs. Wm. Bake, Mrs. R. E. Cooper. Violin Solo, "Wienenthal," Winkhauser. Solo, "Lester VanDeCar," Lester VanDeCar. Solo, "I will Lay Me Down in Peace from the Triumph of David," D. Buck. Miss Hazel Conner. "I Waited for the Lord," Mendelssohn. Double Quartette. Postlude, "Avoaley March," Frost.

Annual Thanksgiving Service

The annual Thanksgiving service in which the three churches, Methodist Baptist and Presbyterian unite, will be held in the Presbyterian church Thanksgiving evening at 7 o'clock. There will be special decorations in keeping with the season. Rev. Bell of the Baptist church preaches the sermon. There will be a large attendance at this service as we have so much for which to be thankful and let this be a registration of our gratitude.

Literary Club Hold Pleasant Meeting

A pleasant meeting of the Woman's Literary Club was held at Mrs. Chas. Merritt's home last Friday afternoon. After the business session the program of the afternoon was given over to the fourth division, Mrs. F. F. Bennett acting as chairman. Current events were given by Mrs. Luther Peck, then followed a splendid paper on Ellen Keyes—Equal Suffrage in Europe, by Mrs. Frank Shattuck. Mrs. Grimes of Detroit, an earnest worker in the Suffrage cause, was present and gave an interesting talk, "The Club as a Public Stepmother," an excellent paper, was read by Mrs. Frank Beals. A paper on "Current Literature as an Element of Reform" had been prepared and was given by Mrs. F. F. Bennett, although this subject was a broad one to cover, it was ably handled by the writer. The meeting adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. Sarah Armstrong.

Ancient and Modern Methods of Feed Grinding

The grinding of grain has been of vital importance to man and beast ever since humanity discovered its nutritive value. In ancient times grinding was more of a crushing process, done by hand with crude shaped stones. In Bible times women did most of the grinding. The Indians by their methods simplified this laborious work to a certain extent. Finally came the old-fashioned grind mill—then followed other improvements. As usual, great creations come when the world needs them most and the Bi-Monthly Report of the BOARD OF AUDITORS of the County of Wayne for the Months of September and October, 1914.

Potoskey.—Fire destroyed the Bayside inn, resort hotel at Bay Shore, seven miles from Potoskey, with a loss of $7,000. The building was owned by Mrs. Gertrude Rosa. Considerable of the furniture was saved.

Manistee.—Albert Mayfield, about sixteen, placed the muzzle of a .32-caliber gun against the forehead of his chum, Ernest Tatnall, and saying "Guess I'll shoot you now," pulled the trigger. Tatnall is in the hospital with a bare chance to live.

Adrian.—Three horses and five head of cattle were burned when fire destroyed two large barns on the property of the St. Joseph's academy for girls, situated on the city limits. A crowd of 6,000 people was drawn to the fire, thinking that the academy buildings were burning. There are more than four hundred girls in the institution. Some of the smaller children gathered in their dormitories and prayed while the flames cast shadows over them.

Holland.—Federal Inspector E. J. Cary condemned a herd of 42 cows and 17 swine on the farm of Benjamin Fokert, at Holland, and the herd will be slaughtered. Two or three of the animals were afflicted with the hoof-and-mouth disease. Two large hogs owned by G. and Henry Kleinheusel, in that vicinity, were examined and although none of the animals was affected the herds will be kept in quarantine. The cattle were recently shipped from Chicago.

Marquette.—Forced to walk all night to keep from freezing and also because all around him he heard the howls of wolves Isaac Koski, Ishpeming miner, appeared at Humboldt exhausted after having walked more than 60 miles, following his failure to find his camp. He was with a party of friends who separated. All returned except Koski. Searching parties were out all night and all day but a telephone message came telling of his arrival at Humboldt.

Kalamazoo.—To be sure to make their marriage legal E. Mason Hooper, director of the Esany Film company of Chicago, and pretty Ruth M. Hennessy, of the same city, were married here, the wedding being their second within six months. A short time ago Hooper got a divorce from his first wife in Indiana. Within a few months he married Miss Hennessy at Crown Point, Ind. Not until after his marriage did he discover that the court had forbidden him to wed within a year. The bride is a motion picture actress.

Algonac.—Trixy, a four-months-old dog, saved the lives of Mrs. Ella Sanderson and her son, John Guleck. The Pleasant View hotel was struck by lightning. Trixy, who was sleeping at the rear of the hotel, ran to the second story of the building and jumped on Mr. Guleck's bed. His barking finally awakened his master, who ran to his mother's room and pulled her from bed. The two escaped from the building in their night clothing. The hotel burned to the ground in a few minutes.

Port Huron.—For some time fishermen in the vicinity of Point Edward have been taking a queer specimen of fish from their nets. Efforts to classify it have so far proved fruitless. Mark Hitchcock, veteran fisherman, believes it is a fresh water shad. For a time the fishermen were somewhat wary of eating the fish, but some of them experimented and it was found very palatable. The fish is about five inches long, with a white body, and has only one small fin. Fish wardens have endeavored to classify it without result.

Marquette.—Charles Wynn was found lying on a sidewalk unconscious from a fractured skull by the Newberry police. Wynn's wife appeared in justice court and asked for a warrant, charging her husband with assault and battery. Wynn died. It is alleged that the man, who has not lived with his wife and family for a year, came home drunk and began fighting. The wife says she was beaten, but that she does not know how Wynn was hurt. A boarder and stepson also are said to have fought with Wynn. The police are investigating.

Lansing.—According to the annual report of the department of public instruction issued by Superintendent Fred L. Keeler, the change in the constitution a few years ago whereby school districts forfeit their right to participate in the annual apportionment of the primary school money in the school treasury, has been a beneficial change. Superintendent Keeler says that after the amendment was adopted 493 districts forfeited their right to a portion of the primary money in 1913, whereas this year only 63 districts failed to qualify. The district boards no longer expended for the general improvement of school conditions.

Bay City.—Purt Chassee, Imbabula Insular Insular, who was arrested in Bay City on a charge of counterfeiting, was arraigned before United States Commissioner Frank S. Pratt and pleaded guilty. Commissioner Pratt declined to accept the plea and fixed November 13 as the time for hearing. Chassee was placed under $5,000 bail, which he was unable to furnish, and he will remain in jail.

Novesga.—Novesga suffered a $250,000 loss by fire when the Newwego Portland Cement company lost two large warehouses. The village is without electric lights as a result.

Benzie.—With a stiff northeast wind blowing in from the lake, a steady flurry of snow has fallen in this vicinity, which together with a drop of 10 degrees, has converted the snow and ice into a white waste. A fall of four inches has been recorded by our hunters say the snow will be of great assistance in the sport.

Dearborn.—A surprising conclusion was reached by a horse, the Arabian of Voltaire town, when he only learned this great horse was unable to see his feet. He was unable to see his feet.
