PLYMOUTH SOLDIERS' DEATH AND BURIAL

RED CROSS OFFICERS WRITE DETAILS OF THE DEATH AND BURIAL OF PRIVATE DAVID OLIVER OF THIS PLACE, WHO DIED ON HIS WAY OVERSEAS.

The American Red Cross National Headquarters, Washington, D. C. February 10, 1919.

Mrs. Ada Oliver Hallam, Plymouth, Michigan.
My Dear Mrs. Oliver Hallam:

We have today received the enclosed letter to you, telling of the death of Private David Oliver, Company A, 118th Machine Gun Battalion, on his way across to the other side, and we feel the greatest sorrow, not only for him that his hopes of taking a share in the present victory were thus cut short, but also the most sincere sympathy for you that this young life was asked without even a chance to accomplish the great purpose for which you sacrificed him and let him leave you.

It is only on receipt of details such as is given by our representative that you will gain any peace of mind or feel less lonely about this fatality, which occurred so far from home, and I hope that if there is anything further you wish to know which this bureau can learn for you, you will not fail to apply to us.

Yours sincerely,
WM. R. CASTLE.

American Red Cross, Liverpool Office, 35 Dale St. Liverpool, England. 7th January, 1919.

Mrs. Ada Oliver Hallam, Plymouth, Michigan.

My Dear Mrs. Oliver Hallam:

Owing to the circumstances over which we have had no control in consequence of the abnormal conditions due to the prevailing epidemic of influenza during the past few months we are sorry not to have been able to write earlier, regarding the death of Private David Oliver. He died on board the S. S. "Derbyshire" on October 17, 1918, at 5:30 a. m., of pneumonia, following influenza. His body was brought ashore, and buried in the Everton cemetery, Liverpool, on November 4, 1918. There were present at the funeral, myself as representing the Home Communication of the American Red Cross, and two ladies, representing the local committee of the American Red Cross. A "triumph" wreath, consisting of green cypress leaves, cream chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern, together with a small stars and stripes flag, was placed on the grave by one of the ladies. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. G. F. X. Walsh, United States Army chaplain of New Orleans, La. Private Oliver was accorded full military honors. The number of the grave is 234G in the United States division of the cemetery.

We wish to convey to the relatives and friends of the deceased, the sincerest sympathy of the American Red Cross, but we feel that it will be a comfort for them to know that he gave his life for his country, and in the interest of the great cause for which we have been fighting—that of the righteousness and liberty and democracy—and that his sacrifice has not been in vain. I am
Yours respectfully,
DAVID W. ROBERTS,
Captain, American Red Cross
Home Communication Service

LOCAL TALENT WILL GIVE PLAY

THE PLYMOUTH DRAMATIC CO. WILL PRESENT A COMIC MUSICAL DRAMA, "THE LONDON FLATS," AT PENNIMAN ALLEN THEATRE, FRIDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 28.

The Penniman Allen Theatre will have as its attraction, Friday evening, February 28th, "The London Flats," a comic musical drama in two acts, seasoned with vaudeville of a high order.

The Plymouth Dramatic Company presenting this drama includes some of the best local talent obtainable.

The scene is in London and opens in a beautiful garden in front of Mr. and Mrs. Tipple's elegant home. Three months later, a grand exhibition is taking place, and Mrs. Tipple, milliner and fashionable lady, is situated with the display of accumulation and decides to turn their elegant home into apartments for visitors to the exhibition.

The role of leading lady, awarded to Mrs. R. E. Cooper, is one that is entirely suited to her talents and personality. Harry Green as leading man, is a magnetic young actor of unusual merit. Mrs. Calvin Whipple and Miss Casaria Fenney present a beautiful and artistically set act in the opening scene. Mr. Whipple and Mr. Giles portray with decided cleverness, the sportive dashing characters of Casey Mulligan and Pop Dudelwinker. The act of the Model by Dorothea Haribut, pupil of Mrs. Underwood, in her Doll Dance, is a novel creation. Mrs. John Quartel, Jr., with her usual compelling charm, creates in the character of Clementina, a clever and radiantly alive interpretation. John Quartel, Jr., is a cow-boy acting naturally, not an actor trying to be what he thinks a cow-boy should be; he is a star of ranch life, bringing you a wholesome atmosphere of the wild west. John Patterson, as the Scotchman, brings an act of superior quality to the performance. Ralph Lorenz, portraying the French character, brings to the play a distinctive pleasant foreign atmosphere. B. E. Giles features the Red Man with a whoop and dance in a vivid "Call to the Wild" style that is sure to produce many laughs.

Harry Robinson, in the role of Sambo, whose mirth is well known to Plymouth patrons, is a fun-maker of excellence.

The chorus has been selected for its singing ability, as well as its personal attractiveness. There is a funny side to the most trying situations, and the loggers that rush out at the alarm of fire as the climax to the comedy emphasize in a most amusing manner this fundamental fact.

NANKIN SOLDIER IN MANY AIR BATTLES

Sergeant Orlo Robinson, U. S. A., and Sergeant Guy Robinson, U. S. M. C., are home from France. Guy, who is in the Marine Flying Corps, has the distinction of being officially credited with shooting down three Boche planes while flying with the British and French in the North Sea Bombing Group. Guy has been in countless aerial battles, and has been shot down four times himself, the last time with twenty-one bullet holes in his body. He will soon return to New York for another operation on his arm. The Sergeant Robinsons are sons of Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson of Nankin township.

Mr. Bicknell accepted the call and plans for his installation were arranged as follows: The date of the installation was set for March 2nd at 7:30 o'clock. The membership of the Presbytery was Mr. Hansen, D. D., pastor of the Bull Avenue Presbyterian church, will preside and ask the constitutional questions and deliver the installation prayer; Rev. William T. Jacques, D. D., will preach the sermon; Rev. Edward V. Belles of Northville, will charge the people, and Rev. C. W. Lawrie, pastor of Bethany church, will charge the pastor. A pot-luck supper will be served at 6:00 o'clock, and everyone in the community is asked to be present and bring your supper, and enjoy the evening and attend the service.

THE VALENTINE PARTY

The valentine party given in the Penniman Allen auditorium, last Friday evening, under the direction of the Underwood Dancing Academy, was one of the prettiest parties of the season, over ninety couples being in attendance. Many of the dancers were appropriately dressed for the occasion, and their costumes were made very attractive with hearts of various sizes and other ornamentation. As each guest entered the hall they were presented with valentines, the ladies with hearts and the gentlemen with red arrows, which they were requested to wear. The hall, beautiful in itself, was made more attractive with valentine decorations, the color scheme of red being carried out. Suspended from the walls of the room were several huge red hearts and with the background of white and gold was most attractive. Dainty shades covered the lights and cast a soft glow over the scene. During the evening Mrs. Underwood, with one of her advanced pupils from Detroit, gave a demonstration of several of the popular dances.

A FINE LECTURE

The fourth number of the Citizen's Entertainment Course was given at the High School auditorium, last Tuesday evening, when Dr. Preston Bradley of Chicago, gave his popular lecture, "The United States of Tomorrow." Dr. Bradley came here highly recommended as a well known speaker and a brilliant orator, but his ability as a lecturer was beyond all expectation of all who attended, and at the close of the lecture the universal comment was of praise, and he was declared one of the best and most interesting speakers a Plymouth audience has ever been privileged to hear. A delightful concert was given by the High school orchestra during the evening, under the direction of Miss Helen M. Shearer.

TELLS OF WESTERN TRIP

Near Colorado Springs, at the beautiful Seven Falls in located in South Cheyenne Canon, only four miles from Colorado Springs. The famous Helen Hunt Falls are in this canon. It is said this great author wrote most of her works surrounded by this awe inspiring grandeur. At the foot of the canon are two wonderful solid granite. The sides are two tremendous cliffs, "The Pillars of Hercules," nearly a thousand feet high. Geologists have spent their lives in research in this region, formulating theories, only to be disproved by further investigation. One can remember when I was a boy the theory was generally accepted that the interior of the earth was a molten mass. Now scientists, like Lord Kelvin of England, tell us the land tide is about six inches and were the interior fully molten, the land tide would be eight feet. For this reason and others like the transmission of earthquake shocks thousands of miles, it is now believed the earth must be more rigid than the hardest steel. We are also told that these wonderful mountains are still in their formation. I think it was on this drive to Cheyenne Canon, we passed a large hotel in the foot hills. The name I have forgotten. It contains three thousand rooms, each with bath, and the cheapest room was eleven dollars per day, without board. We didn't stop there long. Talking about expense, rooms in Denver were about the same as in Detroit, but Colorado Springs was even cheaper. There were many signs reading, "Rooms, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and up." One fifty cent room, a fairly good room. Board was the same as here. The best way to see this country is by auto. They charge three to five dollars a trip. Trip one takes in Manitou Springs, Garden of the Gods, Balcones Park, Cathedral Spires, The Gateway, Mt. Evans and the James Dyer. -Williams Canon, Tompkins Drive, and Cave of the Winds. Drive three - Cliff Dwellers and Cliff Dwelling Canon. Four - South Cheyenne Canon, Seven Falls, Stratton Park, Broadmead and the Stratton House. Five - Ute Canon, Green Mountain Falls and the Crisples Creek District. Six - Pike's Peak over the Ash. Highway, Seven - Royal Gorge, via Canon City and the famous Highway Drive, Right - Woodstock, Fraters' Home, Denver or Pueblo. As many of these drives overlap, the best way is to hire all day by the hour. Two or three dollars per hour for an eight cylinder car, and you can get an expert driver. Screen the car and you can see this region in the best of comfort and ease. Denver was a very interesting drive for a day, which includes the pleasure of the trip for the ladies. This follows and his own mother's death, the wife, who was much loved, and a wonderful view of the mountains, which were seen from the car. The drive was very interesting and the scenery was very beautiful.

sticks to the valleys, tunneling through the high places.
This district is only seven or eight days' ride by auto out the Lincoln Highway. If anyone likes auto touring and intends taking a month off the summer, by all means go to Colorado Springs.
Denver also has a beautiful Union depot. The city is noted, among other things, for its excellent movies. We found about half of them running with crowded houses for five cents. There were 20c movies, too, no better than the five centers, except music and a specialty or two. One can get a good bird's eye view of Denver from the top of Daniels and Fisher's tower, 330 feet in height. Denver is a clean, beautiful city, also very busy. There was a live stock show just closing, and rooms had been a scarce article all the week. I always supposed Denver was located in the mountains, but there are no mountains east of Denver, and it is twenty miles west to the foot hills. However, the mountains look very many newcomers start to take a walk out before breakfast, and walk out about five miles and discover their mistake and come back again. We watched Pike's Peak out of the car window for half a day. It seemed to travel right along with several other points of interest.
From Denver we took the street car out to Golden, a town about like Plymouth, located at the foot hills. Here we hired an auto and took the Denver Mountain Park Highway drive. One place at a sharp turn in the road, where if one run off the edge would land some thousand feet below, is called "Sensation Point." The driver told us what it was, and then whizzed around the corner with the fender almost out over the edge. We got the sensation all right. We visited Buffalo Bill's grave and several other points of interest. Stood on Wild Cat Point, climbed to the top of Castle Rock. The Mountain park, also Denver City park must be beautiful places in summer, but the mountain scenery is tame after visiting Colorado Springs.
Coming home via the Union Pacific and C. & N. W., we made short stops in Omaha and Chicago. The Field Columbian Museum in Jackson park, Chicago, is worth a day of anyone's time to visit. Part of the World's Fair. I have been through other museums in Milwaukee, Denver and Chicago, but this one is as large as any other three combined. It is so large they don't try to light it by electricity, so close up at 4 p. m. We were in there six hours walking steady, and then didn't see it all. I traveled across eight different states, and came home with the impression Michigan was a pretty good place to live in.—The end.

A Man Is Needed Who Can See Ahead

Just look into the business and official record of H. Leonard Wilton, and see if he is not an ideal candidate for county auditor on the Republican ticket, at the primary election, March 5th.
Candidate Wilton sees great future possibilities for development in Wayne county—advance steps that will benefit every taxpayer and citizen.
As a member of the Board of Supervisors he is well acquainted with the business needs of Wayne county, and where changes can be made that will save taxpayers money as well as improve service.
Mr. Wilton became a resident of Grosse Ile township twenty-odd years ago. Why? He looked ahead.
Mr. Wilton was a pioneer in the lumber business of Michigan. Why? He looked ahead.—Adv't.

Rev. Bicknell is attending the Regional Conference of the New Era Movement in Detroit this week in preparation for the conference to be held here in Plymouth next week. The conference next week will be held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 and all are invited to attend. Good speakers and leaders from Detroit and elsewhere will be here to take charge of the conferences, and they will be worth your time. On Monday the theme will be "Church Activities," Tuesday, "Church Finance," and Wednesday, "Religious Education and Evangelism." Mr. McGarrath of Chicago, will be here Tuesday afternoon, and the conference will be worth our time in view of the fact that our task in the new era for the church is double its demands upon our forces, finances and leadership. Let us all get under these conferences and make them a success and a real benefit for the progress of our church.

The young people are planning to attend some of the conferences this week in Detroit for young people. They will attend Friday night at least, going down for dinner at First church and remaining for the evening meeting of communion and consecration. They will leave on the quarter to four car.

On Thursday of next week at the Open Forum of the prayer services, Mr. J. F. Wright, president of the Pathfinder Club of Detroit, and an authority on prison reform, will be here to address the meeting and lead the discussion. You are invited to attend and join in the service and discussion. The meeting is called for 7:30. Mr. Graham of the Anti-Saloon League of Michigan, will be here to address the meeting, and will enjoy him very much. He spoke on, "A Decade of Moral Reform."

Jacob Boerart continues very ill at the home of his son, Fred, on Penniman avenue.

If you have anything to buy or sell, advertise it in the Mail. It will bring results. Try it.

Indigestion

Take a few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets as directed for indigestion, and you will soon forget about your stomach troubles. Try it. Adv.

OUR NEIGHBORS

The village of Holly wants free mail delivery.

Julius Sandow, Oscar Stephens, Charles DeHoff and Harry Minthorn of Plymouth, have been chosen as circuit jurors for the March term of court.

The Howell postoffice has outgrown its present quarters, and an effort is being made to get an appropriation through congress for a new postoffice building.

Judd Lanning heads the Workingmen's ticket for village president, and Charles Pitkins the People's ticket in the coming village election at Northville. Mary Litsenburger is a candidate for village treasurer on both tickets. Della F. Harmon is a candidate for assessor on the People's ticket.

Village Attorney C. C. Yerkes has received gratifying recognition of his services on the board of trustees of the Pontiac State Asylum by another reappointment to the position. Mr. Yerkes has been greatly interested in his work for this important institution and has done much toward the general improvement of policies and conditions.—Northville Record.

The many friends of W. J. Thompson of the Alceium theatre, will be glad to know that he has returned from Rochester, Minn., and is improving as fast as circumstances permit—with aid of his usual invincible grit and determination. Mr. Thompson leaves this Friday to spend a few weeks at Northville and Brighton.—Northville Record.

Mary Elizabeth, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Webber of Detroit, is very ill with bronchitis and nervous trouble. Mrs. J. J. Webster of this place, and Mrs. Robert Webber of Plymouth, are there helping care for her. Mrs. Leon Green was also there Monday and helped them, and reports the child as not gaining very fast.—Farmington Enterprise.

Our Ed. Fuller has again been out capturing honors for Northville in the poultry-breeding line. At the recent Grand Champion round-up at the M. A. C. Mr. Fuller won first Grand Champion prize on White Leghorn pen and second on cockerel. Mr. Fuller's efficient management of the poultry and pet stock department has made that section a big card for Northville's two annual fairs, and he will no doubt be again put in charge of this important feature, which contributes so largely to the general success of the fair.—Northville Record.

A complete history will be written of the various parts taken by Wayne county citizens in the world's war. While it will not be put into anything like book form until far in the future, data will be gathered as fast as available. Governor Sleeper has named C. M. Burton, city historian of Detroit, and Adam Strong, librarian, to have charge of the preliminary work. The boys from the village will receive the same consideration in the work as those from Detroit, and all are requested to aid in gathering the facts and general data for future use.

The sexton at the local cemetery in digging the grave, Tuesday, for the remains of David Haverahaw, was obliged to move the casket of a child of his, buried about 40 years ago, who died of diphtheria. At the time of its death, the nature of the disease was undetermined, and so a grave bomb was placed on top of the box. Wires were stretched across the grave underground so in case an attempt at grave robbery was made these wires, if disturbed, would pull a trigger on the bomb and let a big hammer fall onto a percussion cap, exploding the charge of powder contained in a cast-iron shell. It is a very ingenious device and looks as though it would be a very wicked thing to "monkey" with. It is on exhibition at H. L. Richardson's store.—South Lyon Herald.

Last Saturday about 6 o'clock as Miss Electa Chilson was returning from Northville, and attempted to step of the car at her home near School street, she became bewildered at the approach of an automobile, and after considerable "dodging" on both sides Miss Chilson was knocked down and her hip was broken. The car that hit her was driven by Dr. Murphy of Pontiac, who in company with Cloyes Steele and Dr. Miller, took Miss Chilson into her home, where it was found her thigh bone was broken, and she was made as comfortable as possible. Later was taken in an ambulance by Dr. Murphy to the Oakland County hospital at Pontiac, and at last accounts was getting along nicely. According to stories of the accident "both were to blame, and no one was to blame," Miss Chilson herself saying that it simply an accident.—Farmington Enterprise.

Methodist Mention

A father and sons' supper was planned and carried out by the boys of George Richvine's Sunday-school class on Wednesday evening. Each one of the twenty and more boys invited his father to the feed, which was enjoyed fully, as much by the "dads" as by the youngsters themselves. This is a live-wire class, with something doing all the time, growing attendance every Sunday and usually a record breaking offering, and it was a fitting thing that they should have observed "Father and Sons' Week" in this way.

The Junior Epworth League, designed especially for boys and girls from eight to fourteen, is now meeting each Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Miss Marguerite Huger is the president of the society and Miss Olive Landy and Lorena Perry are helping to make the meeting interesting and helpful. Special attention is being given to the boys' part of the program.

The Church girls enjoyed a potluck supper at the church last Friday evening, and afterwards went off to their "missionary" talk.

The home of Mrs. Marylees was filled for the meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, held Thursday afternoon, February 13th. CHANGE OF RATE!

The extra high cost of repairs and labor entering into the adjusting of claims has made it necessary for The Automobile Protective Association to change its rate from 25c to 40c per h. p. on all cars and trucks. The rate of 25c per $100.00 of the list price of the car when new and $1.00 membership fee will remain the same. The new rate is in effect March 1st, 1914. All applications received during February or postmarked February 23rd will be accepted at the old rate of 25c per h. p. Under no conditions will applications dated March 1st, 1914, be accepted at the old rate. Bear in mind at the new rate The Automobile Protective Association is yet giving the driver more and better protection than he can secure from any other source and for less money. Our policy is the most liberal one we know of. Our collision clause is very broad. Our records show that half of our claims are for collision. If you want this protection, which we were the first mutual company to give, at the old rate get in your application by February 23rd.

It will seem strange for Mr. Gale to be doing business elsewhere, as he had a store on the corner prior to the fire in 1893, and clerked in a store on the same corner previous to entering business for himself.

Our New Bank Building

Corner Main St. and Penniman Ave.

It is with a pardonable degree of pleasure and satisfaction that we are enabled to present to our patrons and friends the above illustration from the architect's drawing of the new bank building, which we are going to erect on the site of the present Coleman block at the corner of Penniman avenue and Main street, the contracts for which have already been let, and work is to be commenced within a few days. Our present banking headquarters are entirely inadequate for the steadily increasing volume of business which the bank is enjoying, and larger and better accommodations are becoming necessary. We have given careful consideration to choosing a building that will meet our requirements for all time to come, and at the same time be a credit to the progressive spirit of the times and the community in which it will stand. It is impossible to give a comprehensive description of the building at this time, but we believe a brief outline of what it will contain will be of interest to our patrons and friends. The above illustration will give the reader an idea of how the exterior of the new structure will appear. The building will have a frontage on Main street of 20 feet and ten inches, and on Penniman avenue it has a frontage of 25 feet and 5 1/2 inches, which includes a store building on the rear. The store building is 12 feet deep, with two stories, and will be occupied by a store. The second floor will contain the offices of the bank, with all modern conveniences.

The exterior of the bank building is of gray granite limestone, with steel metal sash. The building is 22 feet in height from the grade line to the top. At the top center of the front of the building a clock will be installed, which is to be operated from a master clock in the interior of the building. This master clock will also operate a clock in the lobby of the bank and one in the directors' room. Plymouth has long felt the need of a town clock, and this feature will prove a most beneficial one to the entire public. The installation of this clock is made possible through the public spiritedness and generosity of the family of the late L. C. Hough, who was for many years a director in this bank. Two street lights have been provided at the front of the building. There is only one entrance to the bank, and that is on Main street. The entrance to the lobby is made through a vestibule six feet square. The open lobby is 21x23 feet, in the center of the building. The floor of the lobby is of marble, laid over reinforced concrete. The floor of the office and private rooms are of cork carpet. The side walls are finished in imitation grey wax, while a plain finish is used for the remainder to the cornice. A plaster ceiling with hidden light is used.

The lobby is provided with two marble customers' desks. The counter screen is finished in marble. At the right of the entrance is a private consultation room and the officers' space, both being finished in paneled American walnut. Next comes the discount cages and bookkeeping department. The commercial department, with a double cage for both paying and receiving is at the rear center of the lobby, facing the entrance and immediately in front of the vaults. At the left of the entrance is the ladies' rest room, finished in ivory, with mahogany furniture. This room is provided with a lavatory completely equipped. The savings department is next, with paying and receiving cages and an extra cage for tax collectors, etc. On this side of the lobby is a private telephone booth and two coupon booths. At the left of the vault and at the rear of the lobby is the customers' room, to be used by the patrons of the bank in the conduct of private business matters or in connection with their safety deposit boxes. This room is finished in paneled American walnut. Adjoining this room in the northwest corner of the building is a stairway which leads to the basement, in which is located an assembly room 17x23 feet, which will be available for public meetings, etc. The heating system is also located in the basement, together with storage vaults.

The vapor system of heating is to be used in the new building. On the main floor at the right of the vault is the janitor's room, lockers for employes and lavatories. At the rear of the banking room, over the vaults, in the mezzanine, is the directors' room, which is reached by means of a stairway at the rear of the banking office. This room is 13x24 feet and is finished in American walnut with paneled walls and beam ceiling, and is provided with a fireplace, clock, book cases and lavatory. This room opens on a court at the rear for light and ventilation. It also has windows opening upon the lobby. In the work rooms the furniture is of olive green. Large windows at the front and sides of the building will admit plenty of light. Electric chandeliers in the lobby and desk lamps in the offices will be used. While it is impossible in this brief description to give every little detail in connection with the construction of the new building, yet we believe the reader by the aid of the above pretty good idea of what the new building is going to be like, and we feel confident that when they have had a chance to see it for themselves, it will meet with universal satisfaction, and a building to which our citizens may have with pride and approval.
