"DO YOU KNOW

why you are recovering so rapidly from your accident," asked the physician of a young man who had declared that he did not take much stock in religion,—“why the bones knit and the wounds heal so rapidly? It is because those ancestors of yours have bequeathed to you clean blood and a sound constitution—the physical make-up of those who have kept God's laws. If I were you I would cultivate an appreciation of that heritage.”

This physician's advice is good for all of us. Let us take it and

COMMUNITY BANQUET LARGELY ATTENDED

OVER 300 ATTEND BIG EVENT
AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM
LAST WEEK THURSDAY EVENING
AND WAS A GREAT SUCCESS.

The community banquet, given under the auspices of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, at the High school auditorium, last week Thursday night, was largely attended, and proved to be a most enjoyable event for all who were present. Over three hundred sat down to the banquet tables, and after the invocation by Rev. D. D. Nagle, a most appetizing menu of roast pork, roast beef, mashed potatoes with brown gravy, biscuits, cabbage salad, baked beans, coffee and brick ice cream was served. Mark Wellman, the chef, prepared the eats, and the goodness of the menu was highly complimented upon by everybody. Members of the Chamber of Commerce acted as waiters. During the banquet, the High school orchestra rendered a number of selections in a most creditable manner, that bespoke well for the efficiency of this splendid organization, under the direction of Miss Fern Hall.

After the banquet, President Edward Denniston of the Chamber of Commerce, called the assemblage to order for the program of the evening. The ladies' quartette, composed of Mesdames Moon, Olaver, Bales and Cassady, with Mrs. D. G. Brown at the piano, rendered a beautiful selection, and responded to an encore. President Denniston then made a few remarks regarding the work of the Chamber of Commerce during the past year, and some of the things the organization hoped to accomplish during the coming year. The speaker made an earnest plea for the support and encouragement of every citizen in Plymouth, to make the Chamber of Commerce a great and important factor in every worthy project and development which the village of Plymouth may undertake and all pull together for the common good of the whole.

Following President Denniston's remarks, members of the C. of C. passed among the banqueters, and many signed applications for membership in the C. of C.

The ladies' quartette then sang another selection, and responded to an encore.

President Denniston then introduced the speaker of the evening, Dr. Hugh Cabot, dean of the medical department at the University of Michigan. Dr. Cabot's theme was on, "The Relation of the Physician to the Community." It was a most scholarly address and highly instructive.

Following the address, President Denniston called upon various citizens for a few remarks, and all responded most graciously.

The banquet was a splendid success and much credit is due to the entertainment committee, who had the arrangements in charge.

CANTON COMMUNITY CLUB

The club meeting at Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wolf's, January 24, was a very enjoyable affair. After a successful dinner, Mr. Carr, in behalf of those present, very appropriately presented the host and hostess with a dozen teaspoons as a token of esteem. A very interesting program featured the afternoon. The next meeting, February 28th, will be with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hauk; program in charge of L. A. Wiseley, W. Postiff and A. Huston.

Thursday afternoon, February 8th, the nutrition group will meet at the High school building at 2:00 o'clock, and instructed by a specialist, giving a clear conception of the value and necessity of nutritious foods for our children.

JARSKY-WOLLGAST

Edward Jarsky and Miss Julia Wollgast, married in Detroit, last Saturday, January 27th. The young couple were attended by Miss Fern Wollgast and George Wollgast, sister and brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Jarsky will make their home with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wollgast, for the present. They have the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

SPECIAL SALES DAY A GREAT SUCCESS

The special sales day held in Plymouth, Tuesday, under the auspices of the publicity committee of the Chamber of Commerce, was one of the most successful events of its kind yet held. Many shoppers were down town from early in the forenoon until late in the afternoon, to get the bargains offered by our business men. The free picture show given in the afternoon at the Penniman Allen theatre drew a big crowd, as did the two evening shows. The dance at the auditorium drew a large crowd. The picture shows and dance were given through courtesy of H. R. Lush, manager of the Penniman Allen theatre and auditorium, while the business men provided the music for the dance. Many availed themselves of the free supper in the store room, soon to be occupied by Jacob Simon & Son, in charge of the entertainment committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The luncheon was donated by the merchants. Taken all in all, it was a most satisfactory day for our business men.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN PASSES AWAY

Charles Edwin Maynard was born April 11, 1843, in Redford township, and lived all his life there and in Livonia township until his removal to Plymouth. On February 23, 1866, he was united in marriage to Ann Londrugh. To this union ten children were born, four of whom, with the wife preceded him to the Great Beyond. On August 11, 1862, at the age of 19 years, Mr. Maynard enlisted in Company K, Twenty-fourth Michigan Infantry of the Iron Brigade. He was honorably discharged, February 17, 1864. He was a member of Eddy Post, G. A. R., of Plymouth, and the Newburg Patriotic society.

Mr. Maynard was a member of Farmington Lodge, No. 151, F. & A. M. While a resident of Livonia township, he held the offices of justice of the peace, highway commissioner and school director.

The deceased had been in poor health for the past year, which confined him to his home, but was able to be about the house until January 20th. He gradually grew weaker until the end came peacefully on Saturday, January 27th.

He leaves five daughters, Mrs. Lewis McDonald of Daviaville, Mich.; Mrs. Charles Johnson of Detroit; Mrs. Edward Egloff and Mrs. John Higgins; also one son, Joseph of Plymouth; one brother, William Maynard of Stark; twenty-two grandchildren and fifteen great grandchildren, besides other relatives.

The funeral services were held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Tuesday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. F. M. Field of Detroit, officiating. Interment took place at the Livonia Center cemetery, where the Masonic order had charge of the services.

"THE HOTTENTOT" COMING TO THE PENNIMAN ALLEN

The great feature film, "The Hottentot," comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, February 7 and 8. We take in part from an article in the Detroit Free Press of January 15th, commenting on this great picture, which has been running in that city:

It seemed Sunday afternoon as if half of Detroit wanted to help the Capitol theatre management celebrate anniversary week, and not since this handsome and commodious theatre was opened one year ago have so many people been entertained within its walls.

The feature film offering is a screen version of one of the most successful of recent stage comedies, "The Hottentot," which made such a hit in New York and other cities, and which seems to have lost none of its entertaining features in its transference to the silver sheet. The story is that of a young man who, all his life has been afraid of horses, but who is forced, through mistaken identity, to assume the character of a famous rider, and mount the famous "Hottentot" in a steeplechase. Douglas MacLean is seen in the role assumed by Willie Collier on the stage, and his antics in trying to cling to the back of the speedy runner kept Sunday's audience rocking with laughter.

Opposite him is seen Madge Bellamy, a comparative newcomer to the screen, but a young woman of attractive face and winning personality, who promises to become a star of unusual brightness in the near future. The word picture of the race in which she can see her hero riding her colors to victory, is a clever bit of work, and in the love scenes which close the picture, she is just as sweet and winning as any girl the screen can boast of. MacLean possesses abilities as a comedian, which few suspected, and he was responsible for most of the hilarity, which the offering caused.

To those who love comedy that is infectious without being suggestive, and entirely free of slapsticks, "The Hottentot" will come as one of the best of the season.

GUN CLUB PLANS FOR COMING SEASON

DON'T BE HASTY

Sometimes when you see on the streets of Plymouth a man who is poorly dressed, or when you have business transactions with a man who cannot pay you what he owes you, don't be too hasty in your conclusion that he is a poor manager. Perhaps the man has had sickness in his family; he may have had bad luck with his crops or live stock, or he may have been out of work for sometime and is now unable to meet his obligations as promptly as he would like to. Suppose something should happen that you would lose a sum of money, or that you were out of a job for several weeks, or that you had to pay heavy doctor bills and had little if anything coming in to pay it with? Would you think it poor management if you should happen to meet with a run of bad luck or misfortune? Then don't be too hasty to pass judgment on the fellow who doesn't dress as natty as you think he should. We all live in glass houses—that's why it's foolish in any of us to throw stones.

THE SEEDLESS APPLE

At a recent gathering of fruit growers in Quebec, a seedless apple took first rank among the exhibits. It is a member of the Fameuse family, one of the oldest and best established stocks of apples in eastern and middle western orchards, and is described as having neither seeds nor a place for them. In other words here seems to be a fruit which lives up to the statement of the Plymouth who told his companion that "there ain't going to be any core." Experts who saw the new apple agree that grafts made from the seedless tree will produce seedless fruit in their turn. If this is true, and the seedless apple can be produced in quantity, it will have a distinct advantage over other apples in which there is more or less waste. But it must retain its flavor to prove popular, however, and must not, like the seedless orange discovered some years ago, prove a thing of beauty, but wholly inferior to the orange that bears seeds. We await with considerable interest further experiments and additional reports from the men now interested in growing the seedless apple.

Not only is there an increase of one per cent over last year in the number of milk cows on farms in Michigan, but the value per head shows a slight gain, being $55 as compared with $53 last year. During the two years of financial stress farmers have found one of their best and most regular sources of income through the dairy herd. The steady increase in industrial population is also a factor, by increasing the demand for dairy products. The estimated number of milk cows in the state is 977,000.

HOW TO REMOVE SOOT

Large numbers of shingle roof and defective flue fires are being reported, due to the increasing use of soft coal. The accumulations of soot on heating surfaces reduce the value of the fuel, and frequently clog the flues and start fires. The Federal Fuel Administration Board suggests the following plan for removal of soot:

The fire is put into good condition with a substantial body of hot fuel. Common salt, thoroughly dried, is then thrown or sprinkled onto the incandescent fuel bed in a quantity depending entirely on the size of the furnace. In the case of a house heating furnace, one pound at a time is ample; in the case of a large power plant boiler, four or five scoops full may be required. The dampers are kept open so as to maintain the furnace temperature and the salt is allowed to remain until the fumes have entirely disappeared.

Immediately upon charging the salt, the furnace becomes filled with dense white fumes, which may require as much as half an hour entirely to disappear. If results are not secured on the first application, it should be repeated as many times as necessary.

Once the heating surface is thoroughly cleaned a small application every few days is usually sufficient to keep it so.

Everyone using soft coal is urged by the administration to use this remarkably simple and cheap process for getting rid of the soot, cleaning the heating surfaces of boilers, thus saving large amounts of coal, preventing fires from chimneys and generally conserving all along the line of heating and the production of power.

The eighth grade is taking up Agriculture and Orthography for the remainder of the year.

Livonia is on the map as the headquarters of a new enterprise, in the way of a Silver Fox ranch. The farm used for this purpose was formerly owned by Ed. Peck, and has been purchased by the Michigan Silver Fox Co., who imported 20 pairs of foxes from Winnipeg, Canada. The pens are constructed of chicken wire fencing, and each pen houses one pair of foxes. The enclosure which contains these pens, is surrounded by a tight board fence eight feet high, and this enclosure is 250x300 feet. The fur of these little animals is black with silver tips, and is very soft and lustrous. It is used principally for neck pieces and for trimming evening gowns. It is also very valuable, as each pair of foxes is said to be worth about $2,000. A keeper is in attendance to look after the wants of this family. A new house and other buildings will be erected in the spring, and the farm will be improved in other ways.

OBITUARY

Edith L., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving McBean, was born February 23, 1878, in Rollin township, Michigan, and passed to the great beyond at Grace hospital in Detroit, January 13, 1923. Her early life was spent in the vicinity where she was born, and where she was united in marriage to T. R. Finn. To this union were born two children, Seb of Plymouth, Mich., and Arvis, now Mrs. Glen Bradway, of Newcastle, Indiana, who with their families and the husband, a brother, D. I. McBean and family, and a sister, Mrs. Ione Harris and family, and scores of friends and other relatives, are left to mourn the loss of a loving and devoted wife, mother, sister and friend.

In the valley of the shadows,
Where your souls are bowed today;
In deepest sympathy of friends,
We enter if we may.

The words avail so little,
We long to say to you,
That in your hour of sorrow,
Our hearts are heavy too.

But when in days to come we too
Shall reach the unseen land,
Where bitter partings are no more,
Perhaps we'll understand.

"Tea" From Cassina Plant.

Laboratory investigations by the bureau of chemistry, United States Department of Agriculture, have shown that a very delightful beverage resembling tea in many respects can be made from cassina, a wild plant that grows abundantly in the South Atlantic and Gulf states from Virginia to Texas when the leaves of the plant are treated by processes similar to those used in curing tea. The cassina plant has been used to a limited extent by Indians and, during the Civil war when tea and coffee could not be obtained, by people of the Southern states to make a beverage. Unless properly cured, however, cassina does not make a good beverage.

It having been demonstrated in the laboratory that cassina could be treated by processes similar to those used in the tea industry and an excellent beverage made from it, work has been undertaken to produce it on a larger scale. An experimental plant has been installed near Charleston, S. C., and preliminary reports indicate that the laboratory results can be duplicated on a commercial scale.

Has Renewed Youth.

Biologists of the world over are attempting to promote longevity, while in London there is a man who mocks at the grappings of science. He is ninety-eight years old, and has grown not only a third set of teeth, but also has new eyesight. Up to last year he was forced to eat soft foods and wear glasses, now with his newly developed teeth and eyesight he may eat the toughest steak and read the smallest type without spectacles. Carrell, the great medical experimentalist, says that it would be possible for man to grow new tissues, eyes, teeth, thyroid glands, if they could manage to live to the age of about one hundred and twelve. Although he is only ninety-eight, the Londoner has commenced to develop brand new tissue. The only physical defect from which he suffers is poor hearing.
