METHODIST CHURCH

DEDICATES NEW ORGAN

The events of the last few days at the local Methodist church witness the culmination of seven years of effort after the burning of the church. Six years ago the eighth of April the new church was dedicated by Bishop Theodore Henderson. Last Sunday, the fifteenth of April, the new pipe organ was dedicated with Dr. W. H. Phelps, editor of the Michigan Christian Advocate, preaching a wonderfully impressive sermon on "The Priceless Value of Knowing Christ." Dr. Phelps' genial wit and humor served but to give added emphasis to the message he sought to convey. His hearers will long remember both the message and the messenger, but still more will they keep ever before them the clearer vision of the Christ and all that He means to us, and to all the world.

A brief service of dedication included a dedication prayer by Dr. Phelps, while the members of the choir, the organist and the organ committee of the church stood together at the altar.

At the evening service Dr. Howard Field of Wesley Methodist Church, Detroit, held his audience for nearly an hour, with a gripping and heart-searching message on the application of the Golden Rule to our personal daily life, and to the world's life in general, clearly convincing all present that Christianity can be applied any time and everywhere, if we but will do so. After all, these principles of Christ are the only hope of this old world of ours, and these present Sunday evening, are grateful for this timely message.

Large crowds attended the services Sunday, in spite of the stormy weather, the church being filled morning and evening. Everyone was delighted with the new organ, and the organist, Miss Winifred Jolliffe, is to be complimented on her splendid efforts at handling a new organ. On Monday evening a packed house greeted the appearance of Guy C. Filkins, organist of Central Methodist Church, Detroit, whose playing is being broadcasted every Sunday. He easily proved his exceptional ability at handling an organ, and folks who heard him, have a deeper appreciation of the wonderful qualities and possibilities of a pipe organ. Each one of Mr. Filkins' selections were greeted enthusiastically by an appreciative audience. He was assisted by Harold Roberts, tenor soloist of Royal Oak, whose two pleasing numbers added richly to the delightful program. Plymouth is fortunate to have had this concert by two such capable musicians.

Tuesday evening nearly two hundred people sat down to one of the finest banquets of the year, prepared by the ladies of Mrs. Thoma's division of the Ladies' Aid, and served by the young ladies of the Sunday-school. Rev. Hathaway, who was present, returned thanks. After the feast, the pastor of the church introduced Rev. Frank M. Field of Detroit, former pastor of the local church during the time when the new church was built, and plans laid for the purchase of the new pipe organ. His "home-coming" added much to the joy of the occasion. And his efficient leadership as toastmaster quickened the pulse of the whole program. Mrs. D. D. Nagle sang an opening number with a well-rendered solo, following which Robert Jolliffe responded with the toast, "In Battle Array," showing what the church had been accomplishing, and presenting what the church yet needs to be doing. We are now ready for the fray. The company present were then treated to a very exceptional piano solo by Ruth Allison, a very talented and promising young lady at the ivories.

The toast by Mrs. E. V. Jolliffe was one which left a deep impression on those present. "Under Fire" was her topic, and surely in the home, in the church, and everywhere while under fire, we will bear up courageously and do our part. Dr. Leeson, District Superintendent, followed this with a note of "Victory," complimenting us for victories achieved, and encouraging us to go on to greater achievements. The program would not have been complete without this word from the general leader of Ann Arbor District.

The main address of the evening was given by Dr. Russell Brady, pastor of Central Church, Pontiac, and also Mayor Pro Tem of that city, who, with impelling conviction showed us our duty as citizens of this community and of this great country, to stand by the highest and best interests of our own community, and in order to do this we must stand by the Christian church. It was one of the greatest addresses that has been delivered in Plymouth, and those present will not soon forget it. Dr. Brady's Irish wit and humorous anecdotes added quality to his impressive words. Folks will want to hear him again whenever they get a chance.

We were able to catch just a word from our good friend and brother, Paul W. Voorhies, who, with his wife, was present from Detroit. We are always glad to have these good folks come back to us, for we feel that they belong to Plymouth church and community. It was a pleasure to have them with us for the occasion. Among others present from out of town were: Mrs. Hudd and son, Leslie, of Detroit; Mrs. W. R. Pierce of Springfield; Mrs. H. A. Leeson of Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Frank Field and Miss Nellie Huger of Detroit. After a closing word of greeting and counsel from E. V. Jolliffe, chairman of the organ committee of the church, Dr. Leeson dismissed the gathering with prayer and a benediction.

JOHN L. GALE PASSES AWAY

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS, MR. GALE WAS IDENTIFIED WITH THE BUSINESS LIFE OF PLYMOUTH.

Plymouth people were greatly shocked last Friday forenoon, when it became known that John L. Gale, one of our best known citizens, and for over half a century a prominent business man had been found dead in his yard, where he had been doing some work. Mr. Gale had been chopping down a bush in the back yard, when his niece, Ivaleta Cole, who resided with him, saw him lying upon the ground. She called to him several times, but getting no response, became alarmed and went to the neighbors to summon aid. A physician was called at once, but death had evidently come instantly, as the unfortunate man had pitched forward on his face as he probably was in the act of swinging the ax.

Mr. Gale's death came as a great shock to his most intimate friends, as he had expressed himself to them lately as feeling unusually well, in fact better than he had been for some time. Mr. Gale just recently disposed of his grocery business, and had planned to spend his remaining years in ease and comfort, after over sixty years, as a clerk and proprietor in the mercantile business in Plymouth. Beginning as a clerk when only fourteen years of age, Mr. Gale had seen many changes in the business personnel of Plymouth. Merchants have come and gone, but with the exception of a single one, all are gone who were in business in Plymouth when he acquired an interest in the drug and grocery business conducted by his uncle, the late Dr. A. B. Coleman.

Mr. Gale was highly esteemed by all who knew him, and his death makes the close of a long and useful life. The funeral services were held from his late home, Monday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. D. D. Nagle officiating. As a mark of respect, the business places were closed during the funeral hour. The interment took place in Riverside cemetery.

John L. Gale was born in Salem, Washtenaw county, Michigan, July 14th, 1846. He was the son of John L. and Sarah Packard Gale. His parents having died, he came to Plymouth when seven years of age, and lived with his uncle and aunt, the late Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Coleman, who were engaged in the drug and grocery business. At the age of 21, Mr. Gale was taken in as a partner, and upon the death of his uncle, he became sole owner of the business, in which he was continuously engaged, until a few weeks before his death. On August 21, 1876, he was united in marriage to Fannie Deborah Cole, who passed away February 16, 1921. Mr. Gale leaves three nieces, Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, Mrs. Henry Harez and Miss Ivaleta Cole, and several cousins.

SOME BIG PICTURES COMING

Manager Luah of the Penniman Allen theatre, has booked the following big pictures: Douglas Fairbanks in "Robin Hood," April 28, 30 and May 1; Harold Lloyd in "Safety Last," May 6, 7, 8; Mary Pickford in "Tess of the Storm Country."

PIPE ORGAN OPENING AT PENNIMAN ALLEN THEATRE

The pipe organ opening at the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday and Monday evenings, drew large crowds, the theatre being packed both nights. The new organ proved a most delightful surprise to all who heard it. The instrument is wonderfully rich in tone, and the various attachments lend a most pleasing effect in making the pictures more realistic. Sidney P. Harris gave a short recital preceding the first show both evenings. Mr. Harris is a musician of much ability, and he rendered the various numbers on the program in a most skillful and artistic manner. The addition of the pipe organ to the local theatre is a most progressive step on the part of the owner, Mrs. Kate E. Allen, and one that will be appreciated by the patrons of this popular playhouse. The picture, Jackie Coogan in "Daddy," could not have been a better selected one for the pipe organ opening. It is Jackie's best and latest picture, and the acting of this wonderful little lad in this picture is truly marvelous.

WILL GIVE BOYS AND GIRLS A BANQUET.

Through the efforts of Karl W. Hillmer, the boys and girls of the Plymouth High school basket ball teams, the debating team and the oratorical members are to be given a banquet at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, April 26th, at 6:30 o'clock. The ladies of the church will serve the banquet. Dean Bessie L. Priddy of the Ypsilanti Normal, and Dr. W. D. Henderson of the U. of M., will be the speakers. The price of the tickets are $1.00 per plate, and tickets can be procured of K. W. Hillmer or George A. Smith. This is a good way to show the appreciation of our citizens for the splendid work of the boys and girls in athletics and declamation.

THE ATHLETIC CARNIVAL

The annual athletic carnival will be held in the High school, Friday, April 27th. Baked goods will be on sale during the afternoon, along with shrubs and bulbs for spring planting. These last will consist of spires, roses (Dorothy Perkins), Excelsior roses, wisteria, Niagara and Concord grape vines, climbing roses, phlox, lilies and cut flowers, all at a satisfactory saving over usual prices. Then there will be popcorn, ice cream, hot dogs, two song and minstrel shows, a movie in the auditorium, a grab-bag furnished by the manual training pupils, a shooting gallery, all sorts of noise makers and some very much worth-while Japanese goods. If anyone needs summer lunch sets in Japanese materials, they can be bought here.

The carnival comes in the evening, but the baked goods and plants will be on sale at 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon of April 27th.

An Expensive
Meal for Mice

Just recently a daily paper printed an item telling about a man who had buried all his savings which amounted to over $13,000.00.

Later he wanted to use the money, but on digging up the jar in which it was placed, instead of finding his money he found only scraps of paper, the remains of what the mice had left after an expensive meal.

So the savings of a lifetime went to feed mice.

The only safe place to keep money is in the bank where it is invested by competent men for the benefit of the depositor, or kept in steel vaults not only mouse-proof but fire and burglar-proof as well.

Don't risk losing your hard-earned money. Deposit it in this strong bank.

HOW DO THEY BUY?

How does a farmer buy implements? By driving into town, parking his fivver in a handy place and walking into the store and ordering it delivered at once, sight unseen? Well, hardly. How does a woman buy a dress? By stopping in front of the dry goods store and telling the proprietor to send out one of such and such size? Not on your life. The farmer knows what machine is best for his business, because he reads the ads of implement houses. He knows what he wants even better than the man he buys the implement from. It isn't guesswork, for long years have taught him just what machinery will work best on his farm, and which will pay for itself quickest. The woman knows what colors are best adapted to her particular type, and she also knows when dry goods are reasonably priced. The fact is the farmers and the housewives read the newspapers and they're educated along buying lines. And that is why the intelligent buyer prefers to buy from the man who is intelligent enough to know that advertising pays. He feels sure that no man is going to advertise something he is ashamed of. He has confidence in the man who advertises, and he feels safer than in trading with someone who keeps his business a secret.

WOLLGAST-HANCHETT

Helen E. Hanchett of Perrinville, and George Wollgast of Plymouth, were quietly united in marriage Saturday evening, April 14th, at 6:00 o'clock, at the home of the bride's father, A. L. Hanchett, at Perrinville. They were attended by Miss Fern Wollgast, sister of the groom, and Donald Hanchett, brother of the bride. The house was prettily decorated in azure blue and gold, which colors also adorned the table. Only the immediate relatives were present, and after the ceremony, a bountiful supper was enjoyed. They will reside for the present with the bride's father. Their many friends wish them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

NEW GROCERY STORE OPENS

John W. Proctor opened his new grocery store to the public last Saturday, and many took the opportunity to call and get acquainted with the new proprietor and see the new store, which is located in the building formerly occupied by the late J. L. Gale, as a grocery. The store has been newly redecorated in white, and it certainly presents a clean, attractive appearance. Mr. Proctor has purchased a new stock of staple and fancy groceries, and has the goods all nicely arranged, which adds much to the general appearance of the whole store. To the many who called on the opening day, Mr. Proctor gave a neat souvenir.

OBITUARY

Edward Tyler was born in Romulus, Mich., September 2, 1878, and died April 12, 1923, aged 44 years, 7 months and 10 days. He had lived in and around Plymouth the most of his life. He joined the M. E. church a few years ago, and was a member of the Knights of Pythias. For some time previous to his death, he had been engaged in the taxi business. His kind and obliging manner won him many friends. He leaves to mourn their loss one sister, Mrs. H. J. Green, and two brothers, Jesse and Ben Tyler, all of Plymouth, and a host of relatives and friends.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon, from the home of his sister, Mrs. H. J. Green, with whom he made his home, Rev. D. D. Nagle officiating. Burial at Riverside. Relatives from out of town who were here to attend the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Walling, Jesse Walling, Jr., the Misses Josephine and Eva Walling, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Lewis, Mrs. Fred Chalker, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lewis, Miss Wilhelmine Lewis, Mrs. A. Julian, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Bakewell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis and Mrs. Watson Merrill all of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kohler and family of Northville, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hamill of Ann Arbor; also Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tyler of Port Huron.

Local news on every page.
Read Grinnell Bros. big ad in today's paper.

Mrs. Henry Messer of East Ann Arbor street, has been quite seriously ill the past week.

Mrs. Clarence Ebersole and little son, Howard, who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Herrick, returned home Sunday. Master Howard remained for a few days' stay with his grandparents.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. William Wakeley and daughter, Geraldine, of Detroit, were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Spicer of Ann Arbor street, and attended the dedication of the new pipe organ at the M. E. church.

While attending the Ladies' Aid bazaar at the M. E. church, last Friday, Mrs. Dalrymple fell and injured herself quite badly. She was taken to the home of her niece on South Main street, with whom she resides, and a physician called.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Rorabacher entertained the following guests, last Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Blunk and daughter, Madeline, of West Plymouth; Mr. and Mrs. Ford Becker, Miss Mabel Becker, Manfred Becker, Otto Reamer and Dale Rorabacher.

Superintendent Cady, Assistant Superintendent Radcliff and Mr. Spaulding of the D. J. C., were at the meeting of the village commission, last Monday evening. The purpose of their visit here was to confer with the commission regarding the passenger and freight service out of Plymouth.

Raymond Pelky of Roe street, was struck by an automobile, while crossing Main street on his way to school at noon Tuesday, and injured quite badly. Fortunately, the driver of the car was running his machine slowly, otherwise the accident might have been fatal. The child darted into the street in front of the car.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Adams, who left Plymouth nearly twenty years ago to make their home in Massachusetts, and who recently returned to Michigan and are now living in Detroit, expect to spend Sunday renewing old acquaintances in Plymouth. Dr. and Mrs. Adams plan to attend the morning service at the Methodist church, returning to Detroit in the afternoon.

W. J. Beyer, who has been spending the last month at Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Lancaster, N. Y., has returned home, reporting a fine visit and many sights, especially the new 200,000 horse power water power plant at Niagara Falls. It is a tunnel nearly a mile long and thirty-two feet in diameter, cut all the way through solid rock. It's lowest point in depth is 140 feet below the surface of the ground. It is a part of the new $11,000,000 project of the Niagara Falls Power Company. It is a wonderful piece of engineering to undertake. The large cofferdam at the intake is also a wonder. A trip through the tunnel is alone worth a visit to the falls. He took several pictures, which will also be a long remembrance of the same. For a nightseeing, the summer is much superior to the winter though, Mr. Beyer thinks.

TWELFTH CENTURY DEPICTED ON SCREEN

"DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS IN ROBIN HOOD" REPRODUCES STIRRING DAYS OF 800 YEARS AGO.

THE PICTURE THAT COST A MILLION AND A HALF TO FILM.

Mankind owes a great deal to the power of motion pictures for taking one back through the vista of years bygone and showing how things were when "you were a tadpole and I was a fish."

Now comes Douglas Fairbanks and takes folks back eight hundred years and reveals to them how things looked and how people acted when chivalry was at its zenith. He accomplished this notably in his latest United Artists Production, "Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood," which critics pronounce the greatest motion picture ever made, and which is coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, April 29-30 and May 1.

The joys and sorrows of the stirring Twelfth Century in England have been lived all over again in this modern day before the camera and the portrayal is deemed absolutely accurate, this whole production being based on every fact available in all the records extant.

The castle of the Norman period, surrounded by the inevitable deep moat, comes to the screen as the result of the consummate skill of American engineers, architects, artists and artisans and it is unquestionably a perfect replica of the center of kingly activity of eight hundred years ago.

Perhaps the most interesting single feature of this castle is the tremendous drawbridge, which, when raised, makes the big structure inaccessible, thanks to the depth and width of the moat. This drawbridge is raised and lowered with precision when needed and it serves to support many mounted and unmounted soldiers and knights in numerous dash- ing charges in and out of the building.

Realism abounds everywhere inside and outside this castle. For instance, the moat is filled with beautiful water illies and live bullfrogs. Among the interior is a banquet hall covering more space than the concourse in the Pennsylvania Railway Terminal in New York City. The floor in this banquet hall is composed of large concrete, vari-colored blocks said to be exact duplicates of the material and style in vogue those eight hundred years ago. All the goldware used for banquet in "Douglas Fairbanks in Robin Hood" picture was patterned faithfully after the specimens now in various museums.

The knights or warriors of those days, in storming a castle, did not like dying in the moats, but they considered it a very high honor if they could give up their lives beside their flagstaff or color standard. The flagstaff used by Mr. Fairbanks was fashioned after one used by King Richard. Its total weight was three hundred pounds.

During the many months in which the Pickford-Fairbanks Studios at Hollywood were given over to the filming of this epochal photoplay, the whole place was constantly a maze of spears. About two thousand spears and an equal number of swords were used and there were five hundred daggers besides. All of these weapons were hand-made and were exact copies of the very instruments of warfare which made the fighter of the Twelfth Century so formidable.

THE CONVENIENCE STATION

Many of our citizens are again inquiring as to what has become of the convenience station that has long been talked of and much needed in Plymouth. Village Manager Strong informs the Mail that the deal has been closed up for the locating of the convenience station in the alleyway, which will be closed up, between the stores of Blunk Bros. and the Woodworth Bazaar, and an architect is now preparing the plans for a suitable building to be erected there. It is expected that the plans will soon be ready, and the work of building got under way.

DISTINCT TYPES OF TEETH

Although Built on Same Principles, They Vary Greatly in Different Races of Mankind.

People's teeth reveal what they are. Every race of men-every type in each race-has teeth whose appearance are as distinctive as the color of their hair or the shapes of their heads.

The teeth of all animals are built on three patterns: those of the herbivore, those of the omnivore, and those of the carnivore. Another way of saying the same thing would be to call some teeth renderers, some cutters, and some grinders.

All human teeth partake of these three shapes, but to different degrees in different races. Front teeth are of the incisur, or cutting type, eye teeth are renderers, or fangs, while molars are built for grinding.

Nordics have teeth predominantly the rendering type-the type of carnivores with long eye cusps, the type of attackers. It is no coincidence that the Nordic mind is also the closest to the carnivore; fierce, untamable, and retrospective. A Nordic stalks alone in spirit and often, in fact, like a lion; hunting, either for game or adventure. Celts have teeth of the cutting type, with large pendulous upper incisors. Similarly Celts are of a more settled mind, more tractable, more given to government, and not so impatient of restraint. Magnons have teeth of an intermediate type, and mentally they stand between Nordics and Celts. Nordic teeth are soft, and usually yellow with age. White Nordic teeth are usually artificially bleached. Cro-Magnons have white teeth, hard teeth as a rule. Celts and Nordics are often troubled with toothache, because their tooth enamel will not resist the germs of decay that lurk in the crevices of the mouth.

If Aryan's teeth are middle ground, the Semites will stand on one side of them, with large teeth, while Alpines will be on the other side with small ones.

Semite teeth can be told at a glance. They are narrow, long crowned and hard and white. An infusion of Semite blood into a family stock can be detected in the children's teeth several generations after. A face of one type with teeth of another is a sign of a crossed ancestry.

Alpines have short crowned teeth, and in addition the front upper incisors are so short that the tooth edge in front is often concave upward instead of convex. This is sure mark of Alpine blood. In addition Alpine teeth are much blunter than Aryan or Semite, and approach closer to the herbivore's type. This is in keeping with the Alpine traits of mind, passivity, stolidity, and love of fixed abode.

NEWBURG

There was a good attendance at church Sunday last; forty-nine in Sunday-school and twenty-four in Epworth League. Your presence is desired at all these services. The play, "Miss Topsy Turvy," which was given at the hall, Saturday evening, was a decided success, all taking their parts fine. A great deal of credit is due those having it in charge, Mesdames Gunsolly and Joy and Miss Ada Youngs. A duet was given by Miss Ada Youngs and Mr. Lomas. Miss Gladys Horton's rendition of "Freckles," was cleverly done. Elden Geney sang a solo, and with fine selections from Mr. Mackinder's phonograph between acts, helped to make the entertainment a success. Receipts at the door were $43.40. The L. A. S. wish to thank all those who kindly assisted in the play.

Master Walter Norris is spending a few days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Mackinder. His parents spent over Sunday at the parental home.

E. A. Paddock and two sons attended the play and spent over Sunday at the Ryder homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Booth and Mrs. Mary Wight of Detroit, motored out to the burg, Saturday evening, to see "Miss Topsy Turvy."

There were sixteen members present at the L. A. S. meeting, held at the home of Mrs. Bertha Joy. The election of officers resulted as follows:

A vote of thanks was given the retiring president, Mrs. Davey, and Ada Youngs. Mrs. Stella Davey has served nine years in succession as an officer in the L. A. S.-seven as treasurer and two as president-doing the work in a very acceptable manner. Light refreshments were served. The members are looking forward to a prosperous year in their L. A. S.

BAPTIST NOTES

Sunday arrived with its snow storm and everything was "white as snow," and a good congregation came out. The pastor who had been sick with the gripe, was on the platform. His sermon was, "Known of God." The men furnished the music, and gave us something worth while.

The B. Y. P. U. was well attended, Sunday evening. They had their monthly social, last Wednesday, beginning with a pot-luck supper and all had a good time. They are sending for new programs this week.

We had an exceptionally large chorus, last Sunday evening. Every chair was occupied. They expect to sing at the annual meeting of the church next Thursday evening. We want all the young people to be on hand.

Rev. Helen Phelps gives the address at the annual meeting, Thursday, April 26th, and the male quartet will sing and the orchestra will play.

The B. Y. P. U. district meeting will be held at Walled Lake, May 4th, at First Baptist church. All young people plan to go.

OBITUARY

Sarah Elizabeth Davis was born July 15th, 1852, and departed this life April 1, 1923, aged 70 years, 8 months 15 days. On November 17, 1870, she was married to Joshua Baldwin, who died several years ago. To this union were born fourteen children, seven boys and seven girls, ten of whom are still living: John Wm. and Joseph Spencer Baldwin, Mrs. Rebecca J. Curtis, Loten Lannen and Harley Baldwin, Mrs. Lida Micheal, Guy Baldwin, Mrs. Mary Melvina Rodman, Mrs. Margaret Groth, Mrs. Nettie E. Hilsheimer. Also two sisters, Mrs. Henry Williams and Mrs. H. P. Leisure, and one brother, Scott Davis, survive her. Mrs. Baldwin was laid to rest in Defiance, Ohio, her former home, where many friends and relatives will mourn their loss.

Mrs. Baldwin has been a life long member of the United Christian church, having joined at Clark Run chapel, Ohio, when a girl of twelve. She was baptized in 1866. She passed away with full confidence in her Lord. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

"How we miss thy voice so gentle,
Thy footsteps and thy call;
Thy vacant chair at table set,
Thy loving ways and all."

Preventative Medicine

The tendency of medical science is toward preventative measures. It is easier and better to prevent than to cure. Pneumonia, one of the most dangerous diseases that medical men have to contend with, often follows a cold or attack of grip. The cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the pneumonia germ. The longer the cold hangs on, the greater the danger. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the first indication of a cold appears so as to get rid of it with the least possible delay. It is folly to risk an attack of pneumonia when this remedy may be obtained for a trifle.—Advertisement.

SCHOOL NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Did you hear about the Rock's victory last Friday afternoon? Be sure to go and help them win at Northville today, (Friday.)

Miss Seller's tenth grade English classes have commenced the study of Tennyson's "Idylls of the King."

Several of the senior girls are studying for the teacher's examinations to be held in Detroit, on April 26 and 27.

In order that the seniors may dedicate as beautiful a memorial as did the seniors of last year, a committee of three has been chosen to select one or two things which they consider practical and then report to the class.

On Friday evening, April 20th, our local debating team will meet the team at Hastings in a debate on the question, "Resolved, that Canada and the United States jointly should construct a deep waterway to the Atlantic, by way of the St. Lawrence river as proposed in the report of the International Joint Commission, and submitted to Congress in 1922."

The debaters have been hard at work on their arguments. They are developing into convincing and forceful speakers and we are hoping that they will get into the final contest.

The juniors are practicing for a program to entertain the High school in assembly.

Because of having some of our Plympian pictures burned during the fire which destroyed Mr. Camp's studio in Ypsilanti, it was necessary to have a few of them retaken last week. Fortunately most of them had gone to the engravers.

The senior play cast are practicing for "The Charm School." No date has definitely been set.

As usual, the teachers presented us with the regular five weeks tests, last week.

Even though the weather does not remind us that it is almost time for school to close, the seniors realize the fact and have chosen a committee for their class-day program.

The twelfth grade English class have finished their book on, "Essays and Essay Writing," and are beginning the study of several magazines.

Be sure to visit the domestic art room on the second floor the night of the athletic carnival.

The physical training classes have been practicing for the exhibition on Tuesday evening, April 24th.

The cast has been chosen for the operetta, "The Windmills of Holland," to be given by the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs and the orchestra on May 11th.

A contest in rapid calculation in arithmetic eight is to be held some time next week.

The eighth grade cooking classes had a contest last week on the preparation of emergency biscuits. Six girls were chosen from section 1 and six from section 2, these girls representing their divisions. The audience was made up of the remaining members of the classes, and the judges.

The contestants were judged according to: 1, speed; 2, manipulation and method of working; 3, neatness and cleanliness of desk, supply table and person; 4, condition of finished product; 5, result of finished product. First place was given to section 2, composed of Evelyn Schrader, Alice Hathaway, Winifred Draper, Marie Miller, Beulah Fisher and Edna Gottschalk. The only point section 1 fell down on was "speed."

No prize was awarded, but the winning team has the pleasure of looking forward to some treat, which is to be furnished by the losers. Just what the treat is to be has not yet been decided.

The cooking classes have just completed their bread lessons. Good results were obtained in spite of the fact that the time for preparing and baking was very limited. Much interest was shown in these lessons and now the girls are ready to begin on cakes and cookies.

GRADE NOTES

The pupils of the first and second grades who were neither absent nor tardy during the month of March are: Sheldon Baker, Kathleen Ford, Alice Funk, Ardith Baker, Inez Curtis, Ruth Hadley, Margaret Stoneburner, Berthold Lemly, David Mather, Cora-line Rathburn and Donald Potter.

Mrs. Flurey, Mrs. Potter, Mrs. Rathburn and Mrs. Wilden were visitors of the first A and second B grades, last week.

The following in the second grade are on the honor roll in spelling for this week: Elva Hill, Mary Jane Hamilton, Chester James, Rosalind O'Hara, Winifred Holcomb, Balva Schilling, Billy Donnelly, Russell Nicot, Irene Humphries, Alice Lee, Bertton Schwab, Dorothy Wnuk, Elmer Horvath, Lucille Ruthruff and Howard Schryer.

Viola LaPearl, who has just moved here from Flint, entered the first grade last week.

Ernestine Biery of Farmington, also entered the first grade last week.

Alden Sackett from Ypsilanti, entered the first A grade last week.

Three hundred and seventy-one pupils from the first to the eighth grade, made health posters for the Health Poster Contest, in which any of the schools in Wayne county that wished to could compete. The results of the contest will be published later.

Glen Mitchell furnished the write-up of the base ball game, Clara Hauk that of the banquet, Bonnie Mueller the grade notes, and Genevieve Butler the High school notes.

THE PUPPETEERS

Knowing that practically none of the school children had ever seen a puppet show, the seniors booked The Puppeteers for Wednesday evening, April 11th. This is a group of three young men from the University of Michigan, who are enthusiastic admirers of the new poetry and drama.

One of them writes dramatic criticisms for the Detroit Free Press. The group made their marionettes, and also arranged the speaking parts. At the end of the performance one of them came before the audience and explained the making and controlling of the puppets. The audience, composed of adults as well as of children, seemed a very appreciative one, and all the comment on the performance indicated most thorough enjoyment of the comedy and of the beauty of the show.

Lindy's dance to the accompaniment of Old Black Joe's violin brought down the house, while for the adults, Shaw's parody of Androcles and the Lion proved a hit.

AGGIE BANQUET A GREAT SUCCESS.

Ninety people were served at the banquet given by the Plymouth High School Aggie club, last Friday evening, April 13th. Parents of the club members, faculty and members of the school board were present. This is the second time a banquet of this kind has been given, and the Aggie club is planning to make it an annual affair.

There was a splendid program, with Olivias Williams as toastmaster. The speakers of the evening were:

Herbert Miller—History of Plymouth Agriculture Course.

Gladys Palmer—What Agriculture Does for the Farm Girls.

Mr. L. A. Wiseley—Why Agriculture in the School Appeals to Farmers.

Mr. Ross—The Purpose of Vocational Agriculture.

Mr. Walpole—The Sacrifice of an Education.

Mr. Walpole is assistant professor of education and critic teacher of the training school at M. A. C. The point that he tried to bring out in his talk was, "Living a clean life means success." He told the life story of Penny Baker, a poor boy whom he met in Ohio. This boy was just a little street waif, but some kind people got hold of him, and he was made leader of a Boy Scout patrol. Penny began living up to ideals and made a success of life. If one doesn't have some ideals he is not a credit either to himself or to anyone around him.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Franklin L. Gibson's subject last Sunday morning was, "Doubting Followers." John 20:29. Next Sunday Mr. Gibson's address will be on the subject, "Not Forgotten." Mark 26:7.

There was a fine attendance at the church-school session, last Sunday. It was expected that the school would start on the new set of lessons, which have been ordered. These have not yet arrived, but we hope to make a start with them next Sunday morning.

We were all glad to welcome Mrs. Murphy, the superintendent, back to church service and school session, last Sunday, and although still feeling very weak and far from well, she took over her duties as usual.

We regret to record the illness of Miss Emma Oliver. Miss Oliver has always taken a deep interest in our little mission church, and is thoroughly in sympathy with the church's work here in Plymouth.

Tonight (Friday) at 8:00 o'clock, there will be a special service at St. John's church, Wayne. The Rev. Robert Woodruff, rector of St. John's church, Detroit, will speak on the subject, "Spiritual Healing as Taught by the Episcopal Church." We believe that quite a large number of Plymouth community will go to Wayne this evening to hear this talented speaker, and all are urged to be there early so as to obtain seats.

A CARD—We desire to thank our many friends, neighbors and lodges for their kindness and sympathy during our bereavement, and for the many flowers sent us; also Rev. Nagle for his kindness to us, before and after the loss of our dear mother.

The Baldwin Children.

Better Than Ever

There is an erroneous idea abroad. You hear it every day. "Gasoline is not as good as it used to be." The fact is that the Red Crown Gasoline you are getting today is an almost perfect fuel.

Perhaps there is no industry where progress has made such rapid strides as the refining of petroleum.

For example, we cite the Burton Process, developed and perfected in the laboratories of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana). The Burton Process has enabled the refiner to bring gasoline to a point of efficiency hitherto un hoped for.

Red Crown vaporizes to the last drop. There is no waste—it produces instant starting Winter or Summer—a quick get-away—a smooth running engine—tremendous sustained pulling power and racing speed if you want it.

Today's Reflections

The first kiss is worth a million dollars to some fellows, but they wouldn't give ten cents for the second one.

Every now and then a Plymouth woman saves a little money by hiding her pocketbook where she can't find it.

They tell us that travel broadens a man. Yes, but it also flattens the pocketbook.

When a Plymouth girl says she hasn't a "stitch to her back," she means most of her clothes are pinned on.

Kentucky isn't what she used to be. It took five men to shoot one deputy sheriff down there a few days ago.

The trouble with too many Plymouth men is they bring home the bacon but turn up their noses at the liver.

We heard one Plymouth man say yesterday that he is a bachelor by preference—his own instinct and the girl's preference.

It has gotten so in this country that a fellow can't have a case of anything about the house any more, unless it's a case of sickness.

After what the coal man has done to us it looks like mighty slim picking for the ice man when his turn comes.

Maybe some of these days someone will surprise the world by finding the lost art of making good corn bread.

We overheard a Plymouth man say yesterday that the love they used to make on the old parlor sofa was a lot slower, but it lasts a good deal longer than the kind they make nowadays.

The woman who goes through a man's trousers is nicer than the one who sends a bullet through them.

Once more we reach the season when most any Plymouth man can tell that it's housecleaning time by going home and finding the kitchen stove in the parlor.

It has also been our observation that old "means well" never brings home the bacon.

A New York woman had her new hat buried with her. The husband will probably have the bill buried with him.

They say snakes will not bite in the water, and to some fishermen it appears that a lot of fish are the same way.

The Plymouth man who growls most about his troubles thinks other people are foolish not to take theirs as a matter of course.

Sometimes we wonder how the girls put in their time before mirrors and powder puffs were invented.

Cheer up, fellows. We never yet missed having a warm spell between two winters.

BUILDING PROSPECTS GOOD

It now looks as if there would be considerably building activity in the village the coming summer. Quite a number are planning on building new homes, and at the end of the season there will no doubt be the usual number of houses built. The coming summer will see several business blocks erected in the village. Henry J. Fisher has two new stores in course of construction on Starkweather avenue, and J. H. Patterson has one under way on Penniman avenue. There are also good prospects now for the erection of several more business blocks before the year closes.

WILL IMPROVE KELLOGG PARK

A petition was recently presented to the village commission, asking that some improvements be made in Kellogg Park, in the way of some walks, grading and the general beautifying of one of the most sightly spots in the whole village. Manager Strong has had a nursery firm of Monroe prepare a survey of the park, showing the proper places for the laying out of walks and the planting of shrubbery. The commission have ordered some shrubbery, and a start will be made this spring, that will mark the beginning of what is hoped will eventually make Kellogg Park the beautiful spot that it should be, and one that will be a civic pride to the whole village, and a source of admiration to every visitor who passes through Plymouth. It is not the plan to make all the necessary improvements in one year, but to do a little each year, until the whole work is accomplished. A fountain in the center of the park would be a fine thing, and it would be a most generous act if some of our public spirited citizens would step forward and provide a suitable fountain. What better way could one perpetuate their memory than this? The improvement of Kellogg Park has long been needed, and long deferred, and the announcement that some improvements are to be made will meet the general approval of our citizens, and the commission are to be congratulated in taking this step.

Ezek. 32:1, "The word of the Lord came unto me saying, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh, king of Egypt (king of worldliness, the devil) and say unto him, Thou art a young lion (power) of the nations, and thou art as a whole (monstrous power) in the seas (peoples); and thou camest forth with thy rivers (sects), and troubled the waters (truth)." Is it possible that anyone should believe that this picture refers to literal Egypt. Sunday, April 22, 2:30 p. m. Welcome.

IS IMPOSSIBLE TO SEE SUN

Some Facts About Wonderful Ball of Fire That May Be New to Many Readers.

Have you seen the sun? It sounds a silly question, doesn't it? Yet, in spite of the great heat and glare of light which we receive from the flaming center of our universe, the fact remains that no living creature has ever seen the sun.

What we do see is the "photosphere," the outer layer of incandescent clouds which surround the sun's vast orb. Each of these white-hot clouds seems to be some 500 miles in diameter and to float in a medium which is darker compared with them.

Outside the photosphere comes the "reversing layer," about a thousand miles thick, and above that again, the "chromosphere," which is perhaps 5,000 miles in thickness. This last is a sea of leaping, blazing gas, so hot that we simply cannot imagine a temperature so terrible. The photosphere is visible to our eyes through the chromosphere.

It might be supposed that when a "spot" occurs upon the sun's disk—and of late there have been some very large ones—we might then get a glimpse at the real surface of the sun. But astronomers tell us that we never can see through the series of concentric shells which envelop the central body down to the more solid body which is the real sun.

Everything connected with the sun is staggeringly big. Those little dark sunspots which you peer at cautiously through the medium of a smoked glass are, most of them, many thousands of miles across. One was measured and found to have a diameter of 143,000 miles—which means that our whole planet could have been pitched into it like a golf ball into a large pall of water.

On a midsummer day we are apt to complain of the heat, yet the amount of the sun's heat which reaches this planet is simply infinitesimal. Perhaps the best way to put it is this: Suppose the sun's heat to be worth $25,000,000, the amount of his fortune he bestows on us is one cent.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Resting Weather

Storms are more often in our minds than in the air. This winter season is rather nature's quiet holiday, a vacation that will bear its fruit in more active seasons to come. Frost to tear at the rocks, ice to rub gravel down, melting snow and flooding rain to spread the life-containing loam over and through the earth's clay—any student can tell of these. The immortal life of our world pursues its way in the calm of winter, though more withdrawn from sight, just as in the leaping joy of spring.

And, as always, beautiful beyond knowledge or deserving. It is our eyes that are dull in winter, not the sky or land. Lavender of snow shadows, purple of maple buds, laced designs of tree tops living gray against the clouds, oak trunks coal black above melting ice, pointed firs like jade carvings over sunlit snow, the holy pearl and silver of late misted sunrise and the flaring red of sunsets wind-blown along the western hills, the winter days move over our world in beauty as the stars across the sky.—Collier's Weekly.

"All Their Eggs in One Basket."

Of all the multitudes of salmon that run up the rivers of Alaska and the Northwest coast, not one ever goes back to the sea. Their business is to reproduce their species and die. They do not spawn in the rivers. Those which escape capture on their way up ascend to the headwaters, where there is usually a lake—perhaps several lakes. They do not spawn in the lakes. For that purpose they seek streams that flow into the lakes, and there deposit their eggs, scooping out nests in the gravelly bottom with their fins.

Andrew Carnegie said that he believed in the policy of putting all of one's eggs in one basket, and then "everlastingly watching that basket." It is, in effect, what the salmon do, guarding the eggs and the young hatched from them until the latter are big enough to take care of themselves. There are many predatory enemies to be feared.

In the Hereafter.

A small boy, when told by his Sunday school teacher that he would leave his body behind when he died, said in alarm, "I don't understand that."

"You see," explained the teacher, "you will take all that is good with you to the better land and leave all that is naughty here on earth."
"Oh!" he exclaimed understandingly, and then, after a moment's thought, added soberly, "I guess I'm going to be pretty thin up there, teacher."

Fossils Found in Spain.

On a farm at Detortello, Spain, have been found large deposits of animal fossils, reports the Scientific American. One complete, measures 76 feet; another is a detached head measuring about 36 feet. Scientists have inspected the find and regard it as most important.

PLYMOUTH HIGH WINS FIRST BALL GAME

With two days of actual practice to put themselves in shape, the local High base ball team captured the first game of the season from Wayne here, Friday.

If a team of four letter men and five green hands can win a game without sufficient practice, what will they do with a good deal of coaching? The "Rock" infield that started the game with Wayne, was composed of veterans from last year's squad. Captain Sayles was again in his old position at first; Bartlett on second; Trimble on short, and Holmes on third. Stevens pitched the first three innings, allowing but two hits. He was succeeded by an unknown left hander from Newburg by the name of Taylor. In spite of the cold weather, Bob held the enemy for two innings without a hit. Trimble followed Taylor on the rubber for the last two innings and allowed Wayne one hit. Although his work was good, he was far below his form of last season, when he was the most dependable pitcher on the team. With more practice and warmer weather, he is expected to duplicate his good work of last year.

Cline, a new man on the squad this year, looked good in his first game, and should develop into a real catcher. The outfield had an easy day, having but few chances. Seger and Hickey looked good at bat, when they socked the old apple for extra bases. The team was strong in substitutes, having two on most of every position. Plymouth line-up—Hickey, c. f.; Bartlett, 2nd; Trimble, s. s.; Holmes, 3rd; Sayles, 1st; Millman, l. f.; Cline, c.; Seger, r. f.; Stevens, p. Substitutions—Taylor for Stevens; Trimble for Taylor; Sump for Trimble.

"Come thou with us that we may do each other good."

OBITUARY

Julia E. Pettit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gage, was born in Tuscola county, Michigan, near Gagetown, May 25, 1880. October 23, 1901, she was united in marriage to Frank L. Pettit, who passed away in November, 1921. Two children were born to them, one dying in early infancy, and one son, Gordon George, aged seven, now surviving. Part of their married life was spent at Pigeon and Ubyly in Michigan, and about eight years in Ekman, North Dakota. After her husband's death she and her son removed to Lansing, Michigan, where she remained in failing health until the time of her decease.

Shortly after her marriage, she united with the Presbyterian church at Pigeon, of which church her husband was an elder and clerk of session, and she maintained her membership in the church there and elsewhere throughout her life. She was also a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and of the Ladies of the Grand Army.

Besides her mother and son, there remain to mourn their loss, two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Cole of Detroit, Michigan, and Mrs. Ornelia Stromberg of Langdon, North Dakota; one brother, George W. Gage of Cleveland, Ohio, and a large circle of more distant relatives and friends.

The remains were brought to Plymouth for interment, and funeral services were held from the home of the mother of the deceased, Mrs. Margaret Gage, 1051 Mill street, on Monday, April 9th. Rev. S. Conger Hathaway officiated.

GRANGE NOTES

From now on during the summer, meetings will be held the first Thursday of each month, unless otherwise ordered.

Attention is called to the Lily Club meeting, Tuesday evening, April 24, at the hall, Frank Everett and mother, Mrs. Ed. Everett, as host and hostess. Grangers are welcome and a good time assured.
