That Mask Which Grew on Mr. Philetus' Face

PHILETUS SOLEMNLY could not understand why the children did not like him. He gave them good advice. He patted them upon their heads. He expressed the hope that they would be successful in life as he had been. He promised them rewards if they would behave themselves as he wanted them to. Yet they came to his school unwillingly and went home from it gladly. They were respectful, but unsmiling.

It was with hope, but not without difficulty, that a friend persuaded Philetus to officiate as Santa Claus at the Christmas festival and to assume the traditional garb of the part. Philetus did not see much use in such fanciful doings, but yielded to solicitation and appeared upon the occasion with as much grace as a feeling of foolishness would allow. His spare form was now rotund, his sober garments had become gay, and the jolly mask that had been adjusted to his long face gave him quite a new expression.

As the joy among the children progressed and the spirit of fun and frolic mounted high Philetus began to experience a change of heart. To his amazement he began having a good time himself and to feel like a real Saint Nicholas. For this reason, perhaps, he overestimated himself to such an extent that his mask fell off and it was revealed to the surprised audience that it had been contradicting the face of Mr. Solemnly.

This was really the best feature of the evening, and it proved to have a permanence about it, for, from that time, the Philetus phiz shortened and broadened, and fattened, and colored up, until it came to look a good deal like the face of that old fairy who is always young and kindly.

So the mask that fell off left its imprint and stayed on, and Philetus, able to be merry, became the familiar friend of the children.—Christopher G. Hazard.

THE THREE "F'S"

THE important thing about Christmas is the way you feel. Not bodily feeling, but heart-feeling. And the heart-feeling should be one of fun, faith and frolic. Fun for as many as you can reach.

There is too much running about to find pleasure when the greatest joy can be found on our own thresholds.

If we are determined to seek it—Martha B. Thomas.

GOOD IDEA

He—Don't you think it would be a good idea to hang up some mistletoe? She—Christmas is several weeks away. He—Yes, but we could be practicing.

HER CHRISTMAS TRIP

The family were going away for Christmas to their old home in the beautiful country which they loved so much. They hadn't gone back at Christmas time for ever and ever so long.

They said, at first, they would give their faithful, wonderful cook a check and a holiday, and then they asked her if she would like the Christmas trip as her Christmas present.

Would she indeed? Just because she was no longer a child it didn't mean that she couldn't enjoy it as a child.

She went and she loved it all—even the over-crowded trains, the hurrying masses of people in the jammed stations—for wasn't it her Christmas trip?

SPEAKING OF FUEL

THE RIGHT SPIRIT

Put the Christmas spirit into your politics and keep the partisan spirit out of your Christmas.

THOSE SLIPPERS

Grandfather is pretty sure it will be a pair of slippers. All that remains to be decided is how many pairs.

Between Quarrels.

Mrs.—How well I remember the night you proposed to me! You looked like a fool.

Mr.—Appearances are not always deceptive, my dear.

Unfortunate Indeed.

Visitor—What's up? Had a bad day?

Planner—Yes, I've lost over $25,000, and the worst of it is that $100 of it was my own money.—Passing Show.

Today's Reflections

Half of the world is said to be engaged in agriculture. Sure—that's how the other half lives.

We see an item in an exchange to the effect that Christmas trees are going to be short this year. Then they won't have anything on us.

Practical jokes will never cease so long as our women folks insist on picking out their husband's clothes.

We read every day or so of some girl being found where she lit when thrown from an auto. If they'd be a little slower getting in they wouldn't be so swift getting out.

It is said the average man now lives 31 years longer than they did in 1800. They have to get their taxes paid.

Longer skirts are stylish. But we heard a Plymouth boy say yesterday that his girl has two good reasons for wearing short ones.

On a cold morning the average Plymouth woman has as hard a time getting her husband started to work as he has getting the auto started to running.

There's too much newspaper talk about the "buying power" of the farmer. It's the "selling power" that's worrying him now.

Speaking of bravery, many a Plymouth man who is afraid to take a chance on an airplane, will take a chance on lying to his wife.

Maybe the reason some Plymouth children are what they are is because they followed their parent's example, instead of their advice.

Who said man isn't growing more civilized? Nowadays they perspire instead of sweating and expectorate instead of spitting.

We may not know much about the movies, but no 20-year-old screen actor can put on a pair of overalls, a straw hat and a checked shirt, and make us believe he's a farmer.

An army expert says gas will settle future wars. It has certainly settled a lot of political battles.

Why is it that Germany can't be satisfied with all the trouble she has without bringing the Kaiser back?

There are a lot of things around Plymouth we can't explain, and one of them is why our bald-headed friends think they have to get their hair cut as often as the fellow who has lots of hair.

WILL ENFORCE RULES

The Pere Marquette R. R. are going to see that the Michigan Public Utilities Commission rules governing motor vehicles carrying passengers for hire, is strictly observed in the future. The rule provides as follows:

"No motor vehicle common carrier shall operate any of its motor vehicles carrying passengers for hire over or across a railroad crossing at grade without first having come to a full stop at a point where the driver thereof shall have a clear view of the railroad track in either direction so that the driver of such vehicle may ascertain whether there are any approaching trains before proceeding to cross such railroad tracks."

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McCullough entertained the following at their home Thanksgiving day: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McCullough and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCullough of Northville; Miss Doris Herrick of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Delker of this place.

PREVENT FIRES

Over three hundred fire losses, in the state of Michigan alone, have been averted by Instantaneous Fire extinguishers, manufactured by the Interstate Chemical Co., of Detroit, established in 1906. This extinguisher was demonstrated at Plymouth, Tuesday evening, and the many business men who saw its work commend the extinguisher in the highest terms. A large box was used, inside of which was kerosene and tar and after being ignited about two gallons of gasoline and kerosene were thrown in, but was extinguished in less than ten seconds. The box was to represent the interior of a building as ninety-eight per cent of all fires start from within, and extinguishers of every description are intended for fires of this kind—not for bon-fires, as there must be some walls to help confine the generated gas which is so deadly to fire. A fire around the engine of an automobile can be extinguished almost as quickly as the lighting of an eye because the hood confines the gas, and should the fire be under the car, the body helps to retain the gas and discharges from the air.

If the company's representatives succeed in their plans, a Service Station will be established in Plymouth for the convenience of its patrons, and will be the means of saving many thousands of dollars.—Advertisement.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL SUCCESSFUL

Recognizing the urgent need for help among the stricken peoples of the earth, particularly in Japan, the people of Plymouth and vicinity have responded so creditably that the officers and workers of the local branch of the Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross feel greatly elated. Of course, the fact is recognized that many who have renewed their memberships in prior years have not done so this year, yet we know that circumstances are often such that the outside call remains unnoticed in the effort to take care of home needs.

The committee, under the leadership of Mrs. C. H. Bennett is pleased to announce at this time a total receipt of $642.61, which of course, represents mostly new memberships at $1.00 each. Many organizations and individuals in Plymouth and vicinity have made splendid contributions to the cause, all of which is included in the above total.

The officers of the local organization take this opportunity of publicly expressing their appreciation of the interest manifested by the many citizens who co-operated in the carrying through to a successful conclusion the 1923 Red Cross Roll Call. The committee desires to express thanks especially to the following: Mrs. Albert Gayde and Mrs. Iva Bentley, Chairmen for North Village; Mrs. G. N. Bentley, Chairman for Elm; Mrs. Fred Jackson, Chairman for Waterford; Mrs. Isaac Gunsolly, Chairman for Newburg. Also the following workers: Mrs. F. J. Burrows, Miss Marion Beyer, Miss Elizabeth Beyer, Mrs. George Cramer, Mrs. B. E. Champe, Mrs. H. S. Doerr, Mrs. J. V. Horan, Miss Athalie Hough, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. J. F. Kiehl, Mrs. H. S. Lee, Miss Olive Merz, Mrs. Chas. Olds, Mrs. R. R. Parrott, Mrs. Pauline Peck, Mrs. W. R. Shaw, Mrs. A. F. Stever, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Frank L. Smith, Mrs. E. H. Tighe, Miss K. Schmidt, Mrs. Arthur White, Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Mrs. Wm. Wood, Miss Helen VanDeCar, Miss Ellen Gardiner, Miss Rose Hillmer and Miss Ella Jackson.

Mrs. Sheldon Gale attended the burial services for Miss Gwineth Pickett of Flint, who was killed in Detroit, last week Tuesday, and the remains were brought to Newburg, Friday.

Irish Hunt Wrens Day After Christmas

IRISH Hunting Day (the day after Christmas) is known as St. Stephen's day. On this day there is practiced an old custom that has come down through the ages and which is called "hunting the wren." A crowd of grown boys with blackened faces and dressed in the most grotesque costumes seek out a wren, which is the smallest of all birds in Ireland, and carrying it with them go from house to house all over their particular part of the country, asking, or rather singing a request for a little help with the celebration which takes place in the village that evening. There are several verses which they use, the following being a sample of their kind:

The wren, the wren, the king of all birds,
St. Stephen's day, she was caught in the furze,
Although she is little her family is great,
So please try your pocket and give us a treat (treat)
Just a drop to drown melancholy,
And if you draw it of the best
I hope in Heaven your soul will rest
And if you draw it of the small
It will not agree with the wren boys at all.

And so much is the spirit of hospitality and good will in evidence at Christmas time that they very seldom meet with a refusal and by evening the pile of small silver pieces has grown into large enough proportions to warrant a big celebration at which all the young folks in the district make merry.—Katherine Edelman.

CHRISTMAS CANDLES

It is a pleasant custom, when the Christmas tree is lighted and its many candles fall to give all the needed cheer, to light a candle from its fires and give the taller candles on the shelf and on the table a share in the happy illumination.—C. G. Hazard.

Read the Christian Advocate. It will make intelligent church membership, as it furnishes a survey of Methodism and its great extensive work at home and abroad.

Men's beefsteak supper next Tuesday night, at 6:30. You will miss a real treat if you are not there, brother. And we will miss you if you don't come. L. G. Alger, a prominent business man of Detroit, and director of Lay Activities for the Detroit Area of our church under the direction of Bishop Henderson. No charge for the supper, but a silver offering will be taken.

Our Sunday-school will present a beautiful Christmas pageant on Christmas Sunday evening, at 7:30.

The Boy Scouts and their dads were treated to a fine banquet at this church, last Wednesday evening, by the Ladies' Aid Society.

Next Thursday evening will be the last night of our Fall Course in Religious Education. Attendance has been fine, and the interest has been splendid. Be sure to be on hand for this last night of the course.

The Thanksgiving offering taken at the Union service at this church, for the Near East Relief, amounted to $14.30. The Golden Rule Offering on the following Sunday for the same cause was $19.90, making a total of $34.20 for the relief of these needy folks.

Our Methodist Hospital Fund will be presented next Sunday, and the Children's Home Fund will be arranged for by the Sunday-school Christmas offering.

Our third Friday Family Fellowship and Frolic program is to be tonight, at 8:00, in charge of the Epworth League young folks. Come and enjoy a good time.

Come and hear our male quartette sing at the Sunday morning service.

GRANGE NOTES

The meeting December 6th with a pot-luck dinner, was time and effort well spent. Mrs. J. C. Root's report of the State Grange was all that could be desired, and much appreciated by her hearers. The Gas Tax was a live topic throughout the whole session. Law Enforcement received its quota of attention, prohibition being the main target. Our representatives feel that the local organizations are not heard from strong enough to make their needs understood, making centralization of power the greatest today. The high per cent of alien population of Detroit, gives rise to the question as to the justice in Wayne County's greater representation. The state Grange also went on record as standing firmly behind the board of agriculture.

The next meeting of Plymouth Grange, December 20, will again be ushered in with a pot-luck dinner. Election of officers and a short Christmas program will be the order of the afternoon. Exchange of Christmas gifts, in charge of Mrs. Walter Postiff, will be a feature, price of gifts not to exceed 25c.

The Lily Club spent a pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Salts, Tuesday, December 11, when Mrs. Henry C. Root and Thomas Gardner won the high honors in progressive needle, while Mrs. F. L. Becker and Perrin Hauk were consoled. The next meeting will be at the Grange Hall, with Mrs. Ross Gates as chairman of committees on arrangements.

"Merry Christmas," the Big Policeman's Wish

THE big policeman standing in the middle of the road there where two streets cross isn't just a part of the street furniture like the hydrant or the bridge, of course; but I had seen him there so many times a day, week in, week out, season in, season out, I had quite forgotten that he was human like you & I, perhaps a little more tired, but perhaps a little happier. But I woke up on Christmas day last year to his reality as a human being. I was crossing the street with a very gloomy heart. Everything with my life seemed to have gone wrong, and the crisis had been reached this Christmas day. My eyes were downcast at the dirty, slushy snow underfoot, and I gave a glance at no one. Then suddenly, out of the sky, out of the nowhere, came a deep-voiced, hopeful, "Merry Christmas!" Yes, there was the big policeman merry Christmasing me, and as though he meant it, too, in my surprise, I gave it back heartily, "Merry Christmas, yourself."

And with that cheerful spoken word bursting automatically from my surprised lips the day changed. There was a miracle for you! Not out of the New Testament, but out of today, this day of policeman and hydrants—and the Christmas spirit. On the opposite curb I met happiness face to face. In what form it came does not matter. That is my heart's secret. But it came! And this I know, it would not have come, or come, I would have surely missed it, had I not lifted my eyes to return the big policeman's "Merry Christmas," and had not the surprised smile stayed with me until I reached that curb.

The policeman this Christmas is to me a symbol. Never again will he be part of the street furniture.—Ethel Cook Elliot.

THE KINDLY STAR

THE little boy was afraid of the dark, but, as he looked out through the low window upon the pages of which a street was making his picture, he saw a bright star that was working at him with a most friendly and assuring light. It shone through the trees and seemed to say that it would watch over his sleep. So he shut his eyes and, stilling his sob, he tried to hear the carol singers across the street, was safely away to slumber and a dream. The dream body looked like his mother, all dressed in a robe that glistened and sparkled like snow, and she was bringing him the hope of his heart, the sled that was to take him so delightfully down the hill. And when he woke so early on Christmas morning he found that his dream had come true.—Christopher G. Hazard.

MODERN SIMPLICITY

At Christmas time, I do not wish For costly gifts, or rare; Just bring a bit of mistletoe And place it in my hair— Of course I'd want the "follow-up" To be a solitaire.

A PAINFUL EXPERIMENT

Having his Christmas joke, Harry Simpkins changed the road sign just a little, to more perfectly express his holiday sentiment. The reading had been, "Go Slow, School Ahead," but when Harry left it the wording ran, "Go Slow To School Ahead." But afterwards the teacher taught Harry that this was too much.—C. G. Hazard.

THAT MONEY QUESTION

Unfortunately, those who have the most Christmas spirit to make others happy are shy of funds; and probably if they had the funds, they'd be shy of the spirit. The reason lots of folks have piles of money is because they are careful about spending it.

A PRESENT FOR KITTY

"I'd like to give my kitty a radio," declared small Lucy. "What for?" inquired her father. "So she can enjoy all the cat-concerts over the world!"—M. B. Thomas.

Building Is a Permanent Thing

One builds, not for a day or a week or a month, but for a long period of years. It is real economy, then, to make sure that only the very best of everything is used. Weak materials in just one spot may ruin the entire fabric.

In the business of building, it is ESPECIALLY true that "Real economy consists more in getting a real dollar's worth than in getting a lot for a dollar."

THE THEATRE

"CIRCUS DAYS"

"Circus Days," Jackie Coogan's latest First National picture, is coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, December 15th, with an unusually strong cast appearing in support of the little star.

In this picture, which is adapted from James Otis' celebrated circus story, "Toby Tyler," Jackie has the stellar role of Toby, who runs away from an unhappy home to join a circus, becomes a peanut salesman and then, in an unexpected manner, the star clown of the show.

Jackie has an exceedingly lovely and talented little sister, the person of Peaches Jackson, a dainty miss who enacts the role of the tiny equestrienne star of the sawdust ring.

It is Jackie's efforts as Toby Tyler to aid this little lady in her distress that result in his being suddenly projected into fame and success under "the big top."

Barbara Tennant plays the role of Jackie's screen mother, while Russell Simpson is to be seen as the mean-tempered uncle whose actions cause the boy to run away from home.

Cesare Gravini, who was the old musician and fathered Jackie in "Daddy," again befriends him as the old clown who takes Toby Tyler under his protection.

Other prominent members of the cast are: Claire McDowell, Sam De Grasse, as the lemonade man; De Witt Jennings as the circus owner; Nellie Lane and William Barlow, "the fattest woman and the 'skinniest man,'" respectively.

"ASHES OF VENGEANCE"

"A mountain among the myriad molehills of the screen." Thus did the critic of the New York World characterize Joseph M. Schenck's magnificent production, "Ashes of Vengeance," a First National picture starring Norma Talmadge, which the Penniman Allen theatre will present Sunday and Monday, December 16 and 17.

In his quest for material with which to add another brilliant chapter to the notable achievements of his great star, Mr. Schenck had his attention called to H. B. Somerville's novel, "Ashes of Vengeance," while in England a year ago. He read the novel and immediately acquired the screen rights. And he determined that the work would be filmed in strict adherence to the narrative and to historical accuracy.

Thus it is that "Ashes of Vengeance" is an entrancing romance with rich historical background, dealing with a dramatic period in the annals of France which offers richer opportunities for gorgeousness of costume and setting and for stirring deeds of valor, perhaps than any period in any other country's history.

To insure accuracy in production, Mr. Schenck delegated the writing of the continuity to Frank Lloyd, who had been selected as director, and the art direction to Stephen Gosson, of l'Ecole des Beaux Arts, of Paris. An immense amount of research was undertaken by these directors.

The ranks of motion picture talent were combed for types as true as possible to the historic personages who move across the screen in the majestic sequences of this stirring picture, among them Catherine de Medici, Charles the Ninth, and three of the Guises. Among the distinguished artists selected are: Norma Talmadge, Conway Tearle, Wallace Beery, Courtney Foote, Josephine Crowell, Betty Francisco, Claire McDowell, Andre de Beranger, Murdock MacQuarrie, Boyd Irwin, Carmen Phillips, Winter Hall, William Clifford, Hector V. Sarno, Earl Schenck, Jimmie Cooley, Lucy Beaumont, Forrest Robinson, Mary McAllister, Kenneth Gibson, Howard Truesdell, Frank Leigh and little Jeanne Carpenter.

"DESIRE"

"Desire," a special Metro production, will be the feature at Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday, December 19th. It is full of thrilling action and strong drama, and contains many scenes of great beauty, particularly one of a fashionable wedding held out-of-doors amid great splendor and lavishness.

What to Choose

Selecting an appropriate Christmas gift is often a matter of some perplexity. The principal, in fact, sole object, being to give pleasure, something of beauty is usually chosen.

But the gift that has only beauty to recommend it is soon neglected. If to beauty, however, can be added utility, you make a gift that will long be treasured and be an ever-present reminder of the giver.

These conditions are perfectly met when you select an electrical gift; for example, a lovely toaster for the breakfast table, or a handsome coffee percolator, or a comfortable bathroom heater, in fact, any one of a dozen attractive electrical devices.

Come in and inspect them.

BAPTIST NOTES

Sunday was a beautiful day and every church in this village ought to have been packed with people to listen to the gospel, the word of life.

Mr. Hamill sang the solo for the morning service. "The Lord's Hand Held Out in Pity." The new flower basket was filled again last Sunday and brought cheer to all. The pastor's sermon was on the swift justice of our God, "The Angel of the Lord Smote Him," Acts 12:20.

The B. Y. P. U. was led by Charles Duryee. The subject was "Home Missions; Our Work Among the Hoper Indians." The results are amazing. The brass quartet gave a number during their meeting.

A very good attendance at the evening service. The chorus gave some good music, assisted by the orchestra. The orchestra also played during the offertory.

The Ladies' Aid Society gave a fine supper last Wednesday, as usual. Its annual bazaar and supper held each year. The only difference this year, they spread their table with new silver, and they have something to be proud of—knives, forks, spoons.

The new calendars are here, and are very nice. They contain "Young People's Topics," Sunday-school lessons, daily readings.

The pictures of our work in Africa last week Thursday, gave quite a surprise to the amount of work we are doing. If you had been at prayer meeting, you would have seen them.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

The beautiful lectern used for the first time last Sunday morning, has been presented to the church by the Busy Woman's Bible Class. It was manufactured by the Globe Furniture Co. of Northville, and was finished to match the organ. It is a fine addition to the furnishings of the church, and will always be a credit to the class that gave it.

The pastor will preach next Sunday evening, on the theme, "Dreams, Do They Come True."

The Busy Woman's Bible Class met last Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. George Cramer on Harvey street. A fine dinner was served after which the business session was held. The pastor was present, and thanked the ladies for their beautiful gift to the church.

A goodly number attended the prayer meeting this week. Tuesday night the meeting was at the home of Mrs. George Cramer. Wednesday night was at the manse. Next Tuesday it will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kennedy; next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Sophie Ashton. Have one in your own home if you desire, and call in the neighbors.

The choir turned out last Sunday night, and surprised the pastor. It was a fine surprise, and we hope it will be a permanent one.

A CARD—We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and consideration during our sad bereavement; also special thanks to Rev. Charles Strasen for his comforting words and Mrs. Cooper for her beautifully rendered solos.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

The service last Sunday was one of the brightest and most uplifting we have had for years. It was the service of the Holy Communion and Choral throughout, which was practiced at last Thursday's choir practice and well rendered.

The rector was at his best when he preached from Matt. 21:9, "Hosanna to the Son of David." During the offertory, Joseph Tracy gave a fine rendering of the solo, "One Sweetly Solemn Thought."

We all appreciate the work of our organist, Miss Pearson, and it was fine to see some of the vested choir in their places again.

The church school teachers' meeting was held at Mr. Strong's home last week, and all the teachers were present. The conducting of the school classes was discussed, after which the program of the Christmas festivities was arranged. The popcorn was great.

The choir practice at Mr. Tracy's home last week, was very successful and very instructive. There were about twenty present. These practices are being held every Thursday evening at 7:30, and we must not miss a single practice from now until Christmas, as Mr. Tracy wants to practice the Christmas carols at each practice. Any of our members will be welcome there, they will surely enjoy these practices.

Daniel Murphy wants to meet the members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew at Mr. Tracy's home on these practice evenings, to hold a short meeting there either before or after the practice.

It is decided to have the church school festivities on the Thursday night before Christmas, Nov. 20. The choir practice in that week will probably be on Friday evening.

Our Christmas services will be held on the Sunday before Christmas. There will be a shortened morning service for the members, after which there will be the services for the children. At this service there will be something of a surprise, something not attempted by us before. Some want all the children to take part in that service.

Next Sunday, the service will be in the evening, and the rector will give his second address of the series on "The Forward Movement," and "My Experiences in the Mission Field."

At the first address given two weeks ago, our little church was filled, but the rector expects a much larger congregation Sunday evening.

The Ladies' Guild will meet next Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. Tracy, 116

Main street, opposite Church street. All members are asked to be present. Watch the Church notice column for services and meetings.

AROUND ABOUT US

The congregation of St. John's church at Ypsilanti, realized a total of $5,000 from their fair held there recently.

The state will build a half million dollar manual training building on the Michigan State Normal campus at Ypsilanti, next year.

Redford is to have a co-operative nursery, where mothers may leave their children in safe care while shopping or resting. The arrangements include the services of a trained nurse. A small fee will be charged to defray the necessary expenses. The Child Study Club are back of the project.

An exceptional record for butter production was made recently by Joanna Perfection Pontiac Lass, of the Musolf Bros' herd, of South Lyon, according to the advanced registry office of the Holstein-Friesian association of America. At the age of two years and six months this cow produced 391.5 lbs. milk containing 17,815 pounds butterfat equal to 22.26 pounds of butter in seven days. —South Lyon Herald.

Last Saturday the shipment of foxes for stocking the new ranch of the Prince Edward Island Fox Breeders arrived, and were placed in their pens on the ranch. The animals are of the standard silver black variety and were bought of Farquarson & Holman of Charlotte-town, Prince Edward Island. They are quartered a pair in each double pen. The officers of the company which owns the ranch are Howard G. Patton, president; Hal Erwin, secretary, and J. E. Welch, treasure, all of Detroit.—Milford Times.

Officers of the Oakland County Farm Bureau report a falling off of at least 50 per cent in number of farmers in this county in the last three years. This became known following the opening of the farm bureau's drive for membership. In one township alone it is reported there are 3,000 idle acres. High wages paid workers in the factories has attracted many farmers to the cities, and many have let their land stand idle. It is also reported that many farms adjacent to cities, which were under the plow three years ago, have been sold for plating, and this is especially true to farms in Troy, Royal, Bloomfield, West Bloomfield, Waterford and Pontiac townships. In Lyon township the number of idle farms are reported to be widely scattered, and this also applies to the townships of Milford, Commerce and Novi.

BOY SCOUTS AND THEIR DADS BANQUET

The dining room of the M. E. church, Wednesday evening, was the scene of a very jolly gathering, when the Boy Scouts and their fathers as guests were treated to a fine banquet furnished by the M. E. Ladies' Aid society. About fifty sat down to the well-laden tables, and did justice to the viands set before them. During the supper hour they were treated to very fine music by Hillmer's orchestra.

After the supper, Mr. Strong took charge, and called for impromptu speeches from several of the dads. Then in a few well chosen words, he told what the Boy Scout troop meant to Plymouth, and how their advancement in this one year of their existence had been due to the fine leadership under which they had worked, and in behalf of the boys, presented their Scout Master, Rev. D. D. Nagle with an official Scout Master's outfit from hat to shoes. To say that Mr. Nagle appreciated this token of respect and affection of the boys puts it mildly. He was literally rendered speechless, but after a hearty Boy Scout yell "Ya Nagle," he took himself in hand, and in his usual gracious manner thanked the troop for the gift.

It should be said that the author of this movement of giving the gift to the Scout Master, and under whose leadership the affair was put across was a man of whom Plymouth has good reason to be proud and one whom every boy in Plymouth calls "his friend," Karl Hillmer.

Four Scouts were sworn in as Tenderfeet, after which every dad present took the Boy Scout oath. Through the courtesy of Mr. Smith, the boys and their fathers were given the use of the High school auditorium at 8:30, where the boys beat their dads at a game of volley ball.

DEATH OF A FORMER RESIDENT

T. A. Farrand, a resident of Plymouth for many years, passed away at St. Mary's hospital, December 12, 1923. Mr. Farrand was born in Inkster, December 17, 1872. He leaves a wife, two sons, a grandson; three brothers, William Farrand of this place; Robert Farrand of Leslie; Lyman Farrand of Farmington, and one sister, Mrs. A. P. Wright of this place. He had charge of the Horticulture Experimental station at South Haven for years. Later he was county agent of Eaton county. For the past two years he was connected with the M. A. C., acting as extension specialist and secretary of the State Horticultural society. More extended notice next week.

SCHOOL FOR AUTO DRIVERS TO BE OPENED DEC. 20.

The safety-first committee of the Detroit Automobile Club and the Detroit Public Safety Organization have endorsed the plan and the mayor of each city or village president will be requested to issue a proclamation designating Dec. 20 as a pre-holiday safety day. The school authorities will be requested to have it read in the schools of their respective communities. Chairman Charles T. Bush of the safety-first committee appointed a sub-committee to request Mayor Doremus to issue a proclamation. Sheriff Walters will make a similar request of officials outside of Detroit. County School Commissioner Yost will assist through the schools of the county.

A school for drivers will be opened on that day at each of the Sheriff's four sub-stations in the county, which includes Northville, Redford, and the Eureka-Telegraph district.
