WILL PLACE CORNERSTONE OF NEW TELEPHONE BUILDING

Appropriate Ceremonies Will Attend the Placing of the Cornerstone in the Handsome New Building Tuesday Afternoon, May 18th, at 3:30 O'clock.

R. E. Crowe, manager here for the Michigan Bell Telephone company, assisted by President H. C. Robinson of Plymouth, will place the cornerstone of the new Plymouth telephone building...

The new Plymouth telephone building, one of the finest erected in any city of this size in the country, is a two-story structure of brick. With the central office equipment, plant equipment and other apparatus and the outside telephone plant installed in connection with its building, it represents a new investment here by the telephone company of approximately $190,000.

On the ground floor of the new structure will be located the company's business office, with rooms in the rear for the plant department. In the basement will be the cable entrance vault and the auxiliary power plant. The central office, operators' rooms, cafeteria and kitchen for use of the operators will be on the second floor.

Telephone people, telephone subscribers and other residents of the community, school faculty and pupils, public officials and others are invited by Manager Crowe to attend the cornerstone ceremony, following which an inspection of the new building and the equipment being installed will be made.

Manager Crowe, commenting on the expansion program here of the telephone company, declares that the new building will be of sufficient capacity to care for considerable growth of service as the community grows industrially and in point of population. Sufficient equipment capacity to serve approximately 1,250 telephones is being installed. This can be added to at any time deemed necessary.

Mr. Crowe states that the telephone company believes the community will show continuing growth and that the officials of the company desire to aid in that growth and to contribute their efforts to the prosperity of Plymouth and surrounding districts.

SCOTTISH BROTHERS EXEMPLIFY THE WORK AT THE MASONIC TEMPLE.

Last Saturday evening at the Masonic Temple, the members of the St. Andrew's degree team of Detroit, came out to Plymouth and exemplified the work of the Master Mason's degree.

There was a very large attendance which included many members from the surrounding lodges.

The ladies of the Eastern Star, as usual, served a splendid supper, after which the visitors put on a short program of entertainment before the work.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

The remains of William Matt, who died in St. Mary's hospital, Detroit, Tuesday, May 4th, were brought here for interment in Riverside cemetery, last Friday. Mr. Matt resided in Plymouth about twenty years ago.

Leona Gale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gale, former residents of West Plymouth, has been chosen valedictorian of the class of 1926 of Ypsilanti High school.

GAS COMPANY EXTENDING LINES

The Michigan Federated Utilities Gas Co., owners of the local gas plant, have started the work of laying mains within the village of Wayne, and work has also been started from this end to lay the mains to that village.

The Wayne end of the job is being handled independently of the trench excavation from Plymouth to the Wayne village limits. The company has a large force of men at work on the job, and our neighboring village can be assured of the installation of gas service at the earliest possible time.

Frank A. Youngs, in charge of the sales department, has had a crew working in Wayne for several weeks, securing applications for the installation of gas service. The company has a stock of the splendid line of stoves and appliances which they carry on display at Wayne. An office will be opened later.

In addition to extending their lines to Wayne, the company will also serve the new subdivisions in the Marquette Park district.

During the past few weeks many new services have been installed in Plymouth and Northville, which is a sure indication that the citizens of these two towns appreciate the splendid service they are getting.

The improvements at the local plant of the company are progressing rapidly. One new compression tank has been installed, the water gas building is well under way, and the water gas machine and a new boiler are now being installed. The first ring of the 100,000 foot gas tank has been completed.

MUNICIPAL NOTES BY THE MANAGER

Our column of notes didn't get written last week, owing to press of work. There were a number of interesting things to be written about, too.

Another paving petition—for Mill street between Main and Starkweather—was presented to the Commission the evening of the 3rd, and granted, the work to be done next year, and the preparation of the plans and the underground work to be done this season. The street lighting will also be revamped, after the paving is done.

The Commission also granted sewers for the Sunset addition, the work to be taken up in its order with our other sewer jobs.

Our two sanitary sewer contractors are making good progress. Blum & Dickinson are nearly to Spring street on Mill. One of Tom Nolan's machines is about done, or will be when these notes are read, on Wing street at Main. The other gang is working on Ann Arbor street and going slowly in deep, wet digging.

The clean up campaign of the last week has rather opened our eyes as to the extent to which people will take advantage of such a time. We set no limit as to what we would haul away—and there has been no limit to what we have had to haul. Automobile frames, bed springs, ranges, oil stoves, besides the ordinary house rubbish and cans kept two trucks busy for four days. It really seems as if the citizens ought to do a little for themselves during the year.

This is the time of year people begin to think of road oil. The first car is due to be shipped the fifteenth of this month, and should be here before the twentieth. Sixteen thousand gallons will be applied at this time, and ten thousand late in August.

The Wayne County Branch Library are moved into their new room at the village hall. There will be several hundred more books, making a total of more than two thousand volumes.

There are still about eight first quarter water bills unpaid. This is not very many, but we wish all could be paid on time.

We have the deed for the extension of Gravel avenue, and are prepared to go ahead with the opening of this street, as soon as the buildings are off the property.

We have printed traffic guides on the pavement at the corner of Starkweather and Main, which we hope will straighten out some of the confusion caused by a very few drivers who haven't seen fit to co-operate, by driving carefully at this corner.

ORATORICAL CONTEST TO BE AT ZEELAND

The twenty-eighth annual final state contest in oratory and declamation, will be held at Zeeland, May 21, at 8:00 o'clock in the evening. Zeeland is a thriving little city of twenty-five hundred people, five miles from Holland, on the shore of Lake Michigan. It was originally settled by a Dutch colony in 1847.

Zeeland has been an active participant in public speaking activities for many years. In 1916, their declaimer and orator were both in the final contest of the state. In 1923, their orator was on the final program. In 1924, their declaimer placed second.

This year in the twenty-eighth final declamation contest, the schools competing for the state championship bronze medal are Zeeland, Midland, Mason, Ludington, Hancock and Detroit Southeastern. In oratory, the competitors for the state championship gold medal are Zeeland, Royal Oak, Mason, Cadillac, Escanaba and Plymouth. Miss Julia Wilcox, Plymouth's representative, will give her oration, "The Spirit of Peace," with which she won the sub-district and district contests April 8th and April 21st, when she defeated the representatives of the Detroit and all other High schools in Wayne County.

It is much regretted that the contest is to be so far away that Plymouth people can not have the pleasure of hearing the state championship orators. Nevertheless, your good wishes will be greatly appreciated.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Willett and son, Chase, and Mrs. Ed. Willett went to Howell, Monday, to attend the funeral of Mrs. Horace Terhune. Mr. and Mrs. Terhune were former residents of Plymouth.

DIES OF BLOOD POISONING

Marshall P. Smith, son of Richard and Mary Smith, deceased, was born September 20, 1875. He lived with his parents on the farm in Livonia township, where he was born, until the age of twenty years, when he secured a position on the Detroit, Grand Rapids & Western railroad, now called the Pere Marquette, as a brakeman. He also was employed as a switchman and yardmaster for the Michigan Central railroad for several years, his railroad career being from 1895 to 1911.

Of late years, Mr. Smith held a responsible position with the Ford Motor Company. Retiring in July, 1925, on account of failing health, he took up his residence on Merriman road, where he lived at the time of his death. He was united in marriage to Eva B. Consins, daughter of James and Sarah Consins, at Detroit, Michigan, May 7th, 1902. To this union no children were born.

On Sunday, May 2nd, he was stricken with blood poisoning in his left hand, which was not thought serious at the time. Monday morning, Mr. Harper was called from Detroit, and Mr. Smith was ordered to the hospital at once, where he could have the best of medical aid. His condition gradually became worse, and he passed away Sunday, May 9th, at 5:00 a. m., aged 50 years, 7 months and 19 days.

He was a member of Palestine Lodge No. 357, F. & A. M., and also King Cyrus Chapter, and charter member of Riverside Chapter Order of Eastern Star. He leaves to mourn his death, his kind and devoted wife, Eva B. Smith; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Schroder and Mrs. Mary Wilson of Detroit, and Mrs. Jennie McKinney of Plymouth; and four brothers, John W. Smith of Redford, Isaac E. Smith of Belleville, Richard S. Smith of Elm, and Ebdon C. Smith of Dearborn, and a host of relatives and friends.

THE CREDIT BUREAU BANQUET

It is hoped that every business man in Plymouth will attend the Plymouth Credit Bureau dinner at the Plymouth Hotel dining room, Tuesday, May 18th, at 6:45 o'clock. Floyd Miller, manager of the Pontiac Credit Bureau, will be the principal speaker of the evening, and he is sure to bring a message that will be of interest to every business man in Plymouth.

Northville business men have been invited, and it is expected that there will be a goodly representation from our neighboring village. The price is $1.00 per plate.

PLANNING FOR MEMORIAL DAY

A joint committee of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs met last Friday evening to formulate plans for Memorial Day, which falls this year on Sunday, May 30th, but it will be observed on Monday, May 31. A splendid program is being arranged. Every organization in Plymouth will receive invitations to have a part in the day's observance. The exercises will take place in Kellogg Park if the weather permits, but if not, the program will be given in the High school auditorium. Complete details and program will appear in the Mail in another issue.

A very pretty home wedding occurred last Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, when Miss Pearl Jolliffe became the bride of Lloyd E. Wilson. The double ring service was read by Dr. Frederick A. Landrum, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of which both parties are members. The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk crepe, and carried a shower bouquet of pink rose buds. Mrs. Wilson has been a teacher in the Detroit schools for a number of years, and Mr. Wilson is employed in the electrical force of the Cadillac Motor Co. They will make Plymouth their future home. Their many friends join in hearty congratulations and best wishes.

SOUTH MAIN STREET TO BE WIDENED

One of the big improvements which will take place in the village during the coming summer will be the improvement on South Main street. The old pavement will be removed, and the new pavement will have a width of 36 feet, with a six-inch curb. The street intersections will also be paved to the property line. The street will be graded down so that the top of the curb will be below the existing sidewalks. There will be several places where the curb line will be back of the present sidewalk, which will necessitate the relaying of the walk.

The new alignment of the road will provide for the straightening of the walk, which is now somewhat crooked. This will necessitate the removal of several trees and the resetting of the lamp posts.

Contrary to the custom in the past, no part of the cost of the work will be assessed against the property holders or the village.

The village is responsible for the underground work, such as sewer, water pipes, etc., and also to provide for drainage leading to catch basins located in the gutter line.

When the improvement is all completed, it will make a splendid street and will greatly enhance the value of property along the thoroughfare.

The road will be widened as far as the Ann Arbor road west.

WILL OPEN NEW SUBDIVISION

Announcement is made today by W. M. Crown, of the opening, Sunday of one of the real beauty spots of the Plymouth district, Plymouth Gardens, bordering Phoenix Park and lake on the Five Mile road.

According to the announcement, it is the intention of the owners, Messrs. Macdonald and Tobin, who have owned the property for some time, to develop a high class residential and business community along lines suggested by T. Glenn Phillips, city planner and landscape architect.

Phoenix Park has become one of the most popular recreational points of Wayne county since the completion of the paving of Five Mile road, and it has been a matter of speculation with many of the visitors as to when the beautiful knoll overlooking the park would be opened for homesites.

Mr. Crown, who is the exclusive representative for the Macdonald-Tobin properties, stated yesterday that it was his intention to permit Plymouth investors to make advance reservations of homesites previous to announcement of the opening in the Detroit papers, the formal opening being planned for Sunday, May 23.

Schoolcraft road, bordering the property on the south, is under the county plan for widening and paving, and is to be made a super-highway. This will provide splendid transportation accessibility into Detroit, and will relieve traffic considerably on the Five Mile road.

The plan of improvements as announced by Mr. Crown, will include graded and gravelled streets, ornamental lights, shade trees, cement sidewalks, sewer laterals, water, gas and electricity. Restrictions are carefully planned to conform to the dignity of the natural surroundings and assure the development of an exclusive high class community.

The owners also plan the construction of a protected private park fronting the lake on their additional holdings north of the Five Mile road. This park will be available only to the residents of the community, and will be beautified by the installation of ornamental lights, fountains, playground apparatus, bathing facilities, boat moorings, etc., according to Mr. Crown. The pre-opening next Sunday is designed to give local investors and home builders an opportunity to make their selections after which the general announcement will be made. Offices have been erected on the property opposite the park, where reservations may be made or at the office of Frank Rambo, 830 Penniman avenue, who is acting as Plymouth representative.

AS A RESULT OF THE MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET HELD IN THE COMMUNITY DINING ROOM TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 11TH, THERE IS ONE BOY THAT IS AS DICKENS SAYS, "AS DEAD AS A DOOR NAIL," AND THAT BOY IS THAT WOMEN WOULD NOT GIVE THE SAME SUPPORT TO AN ACTIVITY OF THIS KIND AS THE MEN THROUGH THEIR BUSINESS ORGANIZATIONS HAVE GIVEN TO THE BOYS. THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB AND INDIVIDUAL WOMEN IN TOWN, THE GIRLS WERE ABLE TO EXCEED THEIR HIGHEST HOPES. JUDGING BY THE ATTENDANCE WHICH WAS ABOUT 270, AND BY THE GENERAL INFORMALITY AND GOOD FELLOWSHIP WHICH PERVADED THE ATMOSPHERE, THIS BANQUET SURELY WAS A SUCCESS. THE GROUP SINGING TO TUNES EVERYBODY KNOWS, OF SONGS WHICH END IN LAUGHTER, IS ALWAYS ENJOYED AND THE MOTHERS SEEMED TO GET AS MUCH FUN OUT OF THE NONSENSE AS DID THEIR DAUGHTERS.

The program began with "Grace," sung by all standing. After the excellent meal provided by the women of the Episcopal Guild, the program was turned over to the toastmistress, Mrs. F. D. Schrader, who because of her knowledge of the speakers, was able to introduce them with especially apt remarks and stories. Josephine Schmidt speaking for the daughters, emphasized the slogan for the week, "Mother and Daughter—Chums," and indicated some of the things that daughters wish for from their mothers. This toast was replied to by Mrs. Frank Burrows, speaking for the mothers. She said that the fundamental desire of the mother for a daughter was the building of a fine personality. After the singing of "Aladdin's Lamp" by the Girl Scouts and Girl Reserves, Miss Jones, Dean of Women at the Michigan State Normal College, gave the main address. She said there were two causes of the separation of mother and daughter, one being the difference in thinking between the two generations so widely separated by modern inventions, a condition which is the fault of neither of them, but of the civilization in which they live, and which cannot be remedied. The other cause of the separation she thought could be remedied. It was a lack of understanding due to the lack of scientific thought and analysis of the daughter's environment on the part of the mother. Many mothers are willing to give everything their daughters may need or want except this most difficult of all things, a definite scientific thorough study. The program was concluded by the song, "Follow the Glean," sung by all the guests.

The girls wish to thank the members of the Woman's Club for their efforts in their behalf, the women who bought tickets that girls might attend who otherwise could not have done so, and the III-Y boys who served under the direction of Mr. Holcomb. They are hoping to put on another as successful a banquet next year.

They have the best wishes of their many friends for a happy wedded life.

HOGGING THE ROAD

Quite a few auto owners around Plymouth express the belief that the time is not far away when it is going to be necessary to frame some sort of special legislation covering the operation of trucks on public highways, since there is declared to be a growing tendency on the part of many truck drivers to "hog the road." The man operating a heavy truck is in position to make driving very difficult for others. They have size and weight that gives them the advantage in a collision with a passenger sedan or light touring car; they can get just far enough over in the road to make passing them dangerous, and without fear of consequence to the truck. And many drivers of trucks realize this advantage, and actually take it.

There seems to be no relief at present from the truck driver who is without common courtesy or who wants to "hog the road" because he knows his vehicle is heavy enough to withstand damage in case of a collision. But in New York state they are waging a campaign against such abuse of highway privileges, and New York's example may soon spread to other states, and relief measures will be had all over the country.

Trucks are indispensable, and modern business demands them. But that does not prevent the passage of highway laws to regulate their operation and to protect the drivers of lighter cars. From the number of complaints we are hearing now, we believe that such laws and regulations will have to be made at a very early date.

LET'S GET OUR SHARE

Over 12,000,000 people enjoyed auto tours last season and they spent $710,000,000 on touring and camping out. Another season is now upon us, and we should be ready to get our share of the vast sum, an even greater sum than was spent last year, that is soon going to be scattered in every state in the union. Special courtesy and hospitality to the auto tourists will help a great deal. Showing them they are welcome here, that we are glad to have them stop in our midst, if only for a few minutes, will go far toward securing our share of the vast sum tourists are now starting to spend, and will be spending over a four-month period. We may not have everything they want. But whatever we do have should be offered them in a friendly and hospitable way—and they will not only do their part of the spending but they will carry on with them a good word about the town and community that will be worth more to us than we may ever be able to measure.

THAT NEW CENSUS

We see where Uncle Sam has totalled up the farm census he has been taking for the last five years, and we also find in it many things of interest to Plymouth citizens and residents of the rural districts. It shows, for instance, that there is still a drift toward the cities but that the lands are more and more coming into the hands of working owners. It also shows that during the five-year period between 1920 and 1925 the number of farms in the U. S. has decreased from 6,448,343 to 6,271,617. The number operated by managers decreased from 68,449 to 40,765, or better than 40 percent. The number of farm tenants increased from 2,454,804 to 2,464,528.

These figures do not show that our farms are falling into the hands of people who will not work them but who will hire others to do so. Taking into account the number of farms that have been subdivided to make room for growing cities, and the increased use of labor-saving machinery, the figures show the land and the owners still hang together pretty well.

There seems to be no occasion to worry any more over a shortage of labor on the farms. Pretty soon now the call will go out for workers, and they will be showing up from all four corners of the country. The auto has made it possible for them to get into the fields from the cities without loss of time or heavy railroad fare, and they will be on hand when the call goes forth, you can rest assured of that.

STYLES IN ROADS

The day when road workers thought they were building "good roads" by simply scraping up the muck that had settled along the sides of the wornout highway and throwing it back to the center has passed. Styles in roads have changed because styles in vehicles that travel them has changed. We haven't all the good roads around Plymouth we would like to have, and that we must have if we keep step with the procession. But we have learned one thing in recent years, and that is that the cheap road is most expensive in the long run. Having to rebuild a road every year or so is not economy. Put them down in the first place so they will bear up under still heavier traffic than we now have, and they should be good for 10 or 20 years to come. It may cost a little more in the beginning, but it will be money saved in the end. Taxpayers will do well to keep this in mind and insist upon it when there is a road proposition up in their respective communities. And they should take time enough off from their work to express that demand to the men who have our road building and our road repairs in charge.

MAY FESTIVAL TO PRESENT WONDERFUL PROGRAM

The Ann Arbor May Festival, May 19, 20, 21 and 22 has attracted the attention of distinguished authorities throughout the country many of whom have taken the pains to express their opinions in complimentary letters.

Ossip Gabrilowitch, conductor Detroit Symphony Orchestra, writes: "I wish to congratulate you on your splendid program with such an array of soloists and conductors, and such an excellent choice of compositions, you are sure to have one of the most successful festivals held in recent years. I sincerely hope it may be possible for me to be among the listeners."

Next Sunday morning, Rev. F. L. Curry of Lansing, superintendent of Evangelism of the Baptists of Michigan, will speak in the church at 10:00 a. m.

Next Sunday evening, the service will be held by the Sayles family. Male quartet, duet solo; some of the work in Palm Beach reported by Harry Sayles. Several readings by Mrs. Harry Sayles. Sermon by the pastor. All come.

Last Sunday morning before the sermon on Mothers' Day, Fletcher Campbell presented to the church a picture of his father and mother, nicely framed, and requested it might be hung in the parlor of the church. The church, with a rising vote, promised to accept and care for the same. He read a poem of his own composition, that was in keeping with the event.

Mrs. Lee's circle will meet with Mrs. I. N. Dickerson, Fairground avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Towle's circle will meet with Mrs. Charles Thorn, 336 Ann street, Wednesday afternoon.

The music for Mothers' Day was especially pleasing. The solo by Mrs. Bake, "Mother's Prayer," was very well rendered, as was also the selection by the male quartet, "Tell Mother." These, together with the piano-organ offertory, furnished a very pleasing atmosphere for the service.

FARM WOMEN TO HOLD BIG STATE INSTITUTE

A special Farm Women's Institute, something new in the way of rural gatherings for the state, will be held at the Michigan State College from July 24 to 30, this summer, under the auspices of the Home Economics Extension division of the college.

The program will include everything from discussion of gardening and farm subjects to the appreciation of art and music.

VOCATIONAL CONTEST

Michigan experts in various classifications of telephone workmanship will hold their 3rd Annual State-wide Vocational Contest at the Arena Gardens, Detroit, Saturday evening, May 22nd. It was announced today by Roy E. Crowe, manager here for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Preliminary contests have been held among the linemen, installers, repairmen, craftsmen and other telephone craftsmen in this district for the purpose of choosing district champions to take part in the divisional semi-final contests, which were held May 8th. Central division contests were held at Flint, and those for the southern division, embracing all the lower portion of the state, with the exception of Detroit and its immediate suburbs, were held in Kalamazoo. In the northern division, which embraces the upper peninsula, contests are being held locally in the several exchange areas for the purpose of determining who shall go to Detroit to represent the peninsula in the state-wide competitions.

Telephone people anticipate that the contests at Detroit this year, will arouse even greater interest than last year's, the first in which this division had representatives entered. The majority of the gold, silver and bronze medals offered by the Telephone Plant Employees' Association for the first, second and third place winners were captured by Detroit contestants a year ago. However, with the experience gained in that contest and the improvement shown in their preliminary competition this year, telephone men of this territory expect to take a goodly share of the honors.

The list of telephone work events in which there will be competition in this year's contest will be the same as that staged last year. The May 22nd program of events, with the present champions, follows: Cable splicing, B. R. Hadeu, Menominee; private branch exchange board cord changing, F. Wintermuth, Detroit; jumper wire soldering, Chester G. Curtis, Detroit; placing aerial strand and cable, the line crew of Foreman S. Curtis, Detroit, with Grand Rapids crew second; private branch exchange switchboard cable forming, R. Green, Detroit; metal work, B. Stewart, Saginaw; assembling the telephone instrument, F. Stonehouse, Bay City; multiple jack soldering, Perry Phillips, Detroit; installing telephone, Frank Johnson, Detroit.

The mere fact that any group of workmen will take sufficient interest in the labor in which they are employed to engage in competition to determine championships in doing that labor in the best possible manner and in the shortest length of time, has aroused a great deal of interest outside of telephone circles, Manager Crowe states.

Hit the Nail on the Head

It's getting up courage to drive the first nail that's the hard part about building. You can trump up dozens of reasons for postponing the job—but did you ever know anybody to be sorry he built?

Most building materials are low priced now. Not every thing is as cheap as lumber but by the time the other things have dropped probably lumber will rise. So all in all this is a good time for building. Hit the nail on the head!

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear husband and daddy, Frank Wolfram, who died May 17, 1925.

Dearest Daddy, he has left us,
And our loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.
Lonely our hearts, and sad the hours,
Since our dear one has gone;
But Oh! a brighter home than ours,
In Heaven is now his own.
Sadly missed by his loving wife and children.

Over 3,000 cities and towns have streets paved with portland cement concrete

Grand Haven's Concrete Streets No Surprise to Tourists

Tourists motor quickly and safely over the fine concrete highway connecting Grand Rapids and Grand Haven, the center of Michigan's famous fruit and berry belt.

These tourists are not surprised to see many of Grand Haven's streets paved with concrete. That is their common experience in hundreds of fast-growing cities throughout the country. They find that more and more of these cities are extending their yardage of this sturdy, good-looking pavement.

Grand Haven during the past fourteen years has laid over nineteen miles of concrete streets. These include prominent thoroughfares in both business and residential districts, and they are all in tip-top shape.

Naturally such service has met with praise from Grand Haven property owners. This service is all the more appreciated because maintenance—as always the case with concrete streets—has been so extremely low.

Many other Michigan cities are having the same happy experience with concrete streets as Grand Haven is having—and has had for fourteen years.

All of the facts are in our free booklet on "Concrete Streets." Ask for your copy.

The above tells the story of the base ball game Sunday, between the Standard Oil Star team of Detroit, and the Detroit House of Correction Farm team, at the farm grounds. The game was played under ideal conditions.

The addition of Budnick on second, and the changing of Batley to the outfield, has so strengthened the team that it looks as though Capt. Denniston has an aggregation of players that will take some batting to beat. Only twice did the visiting team have a chance to score, one in the second when Graham and Bardett singled. Spratke hit into a double play, Budnick to Jaska to Denniston, putting Graham on third. Again in the seventh after Carter flled in to Budnick, Graham tripled to right but Bardett and Butch were set down by Howland by the strikeout route.

The game from a spectator's point of view, was uninteresting, but consulting the box score one cannot help but realize that the game played by the home team was one of the best if not best ever played by the De-Ho-Co team. Only 30 batters faced Howland, eleven of which went out on strikeouts. Five hits were made in all, off his delivery, and only one for extra bases; not one was passed. Only two errors were made, those by Budnick in the fourth. After Capata singled in the ninth, and a fielder's choice forced at by Sampson, who took off second on Budnick's error, Long threw to Jaska, who caught Sampson off the base by the old hidden ball trick, and Carter struck out.

The infield work was snappy and well timed. The hitting of the home team was good, but the opponents' was greatly lacking. In all fifty-one batters took a trip to the plate; nine were passed, nine got on bases on errors, and eighteen hits were made for a total of thirty runs.

Complete box score follows:

| De-Ho-Co | A B H R E |
|-----------|-----------|
| Budnick | 6 3 4 2 |
| Hunter | 7 3 6 0 |
| Long | 2 1 0 0 |
| Denniston | 3 0 4 0 |
| A. Jaska | 5 2 3 0 |
| Hawley | 4 1 3 0 |
| Herr | 2 0 1 0 |
| Scharf | 6 2 2 0 |
| Batley | 5 2 2 0 |
| Howland | 7 1 2 0 |

| Totals | 51 18 30 2 |
|--------------|------------|
| Standard Oil | A B H R E |
| Carter | 4 1 0 1 |
| Stitz | 0 0 0 0 |
| Capata | 2 1 0 2 |
| Sampson | 4 0 0 1 |
| Baker | 2 0 0 1 |
| Graham | 3 2 0 2 |
| Sullivan | 2 1 0 1 |
| Bardett | 1 0 0 0 |
| Knuckles | 1 0 0 1 |
| Spratke | 1 0 0 1 |
| Butch | 2 0 0 1 |
| Roberts | 2 0 0 1 |
| Boelkay | 3 0 0 2 |
| Avers | 3 0 0 1 |

Totals: 51 18 30 2
Earned runs, 18. Three base hits.
2—Perry 1, Graham 1. Base on balls—Knuckles 3, Spratke 3, Butch 3. Base on errors, 9. Two base hits, 1—Hunter. Home run, 1—Batley. Struck out by Howland, 11; Knuckles 1; Spratke, 1; Butch, 3. Passed balls, Sullivan, 5; Bardett, 1. Double plays, 1: Budnick to Jaska to Denniston. Hit by pitcher, Budnick. Umpire, Thompson. Time, 2 hours, 40 minutes.
Saturday, May 15th, the De-Ho-Co Club will play Dodge brothers, and on Sunday, May 16th, a picked team from the Detroit Oddfellow League will be the attraction.

MERCHANTS WIN AT SALEM

The Plymouth Merchants base ball team journeyed over to Salem, last Sunday, and won a loosely played game by a 18 to 6 score. Britcher took the mound for the locals, and got welcomed with two doubles and a triple in the first inning, which netted two runs. But George has a strong heart, and went back in the second only to see his offerings clouted for a single and two doubles and four more runs counted, which put vengeance in his heart. In the third, he set the Salemites down in one-two-three order. His lack of spring training caused him to tire, however, and Milross took up the chucking duties in the fourth and held Salem scoreless the rest of the game. The Merchants kept pecking away at Gale's twisters all through the game, and gathered nineteen hits and eighteen runs, of which eight were counted in the eighth inning, when Millman poled out a triple with the bases full. All the boys seem to show keen batting eyes, and it looks if our team was much improved over last year.

The Merchants will play their first game at home on Decoration Day, with Northville.

ELM SCHOOL NOTES

The Parent-Teacher Association has been making every effort this year to make their school a better place for the children to go. Their efforts have been very fruitful, as their school has earned the distinction of being one of only two gold star schools in Zone B, of Wayne County. Her sister sharing this honor is Brainard school, which won her star last year.

Friday, May 7, being Arbor Day, the pupils of Elm school took advantage of the day, and five blue bushes, one rose bush and some lilacs were set out, to help beautify the appearance of their school.

A Hatched Sharpener was held at Ypsilanti, last Friday. The contestants there were composed of the pupils of Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne counties, having the highest scores on an achievement test given to them. Richard Smith of Elm school won this honor from Zone B, for the eighth grades.

Don't forget the play and carnival this Friday evening May 14th, to be given at Elm school, by the parents, teachers, children and friends, for the benefit of the school and the playgrounds of the boys and girls of our community.

SALEM

The "Church Night" of the Federated church was a decidedly successful affair. An excellent roast beef dinner, with a dessert of new maple syrup and biscuits, was served to approximately 400 people. The ladies of the Auxiliary and the members of the Lloyd H. Green Post of the American Legion, were honor guests.

Schnute's orchestra of Northville, furnished excellent music throughout the evening. A very interesting feature of their work was the rendition of several pieces by five girls, dressed in pink, of violin music. These little Misses played excellently, and are a decided credit to their teacher, Prof. Schnute, George Wilson, who lives south of Salem, and is noted for his ability as a trap drummer, kept up his record of always pleasing his audience.

Mr. Cooperwhite, formerly the bass of the Hudson Male Quartette, gave two solos and a recitation. His high class work was enjoyed by all.

The speaker of the evening, Wilbur M. Brucker, of Saginaw, Prosecutor of Saginaw County, gave a splendid address from the subject, "What Price Citizenship." His remarks were full of inspiration and helpfulness.

This meeting, like the others that have preceded it, enable the church to function like the great friendly institution it really is. The next "church night" will be held in November.

Mrs. Laura Smith returned home from Northville, Monday, after helping care for Mrs. Anella Perkins, who is still at Dr. Atchison's hospital.

Rev. Halliday and family entertained Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Brokaw and daughter, Erna, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Atchison and sons, with other friends from Detroit, as dinner guests Sunday.

Ordered to Save Tires

Special orders have been issued by the War department for greater economy in the use of rubber tires for trucks and automobiles in the military service. For better operation and conservation of rubber, all army operators are cautioned to avoid such direct causes of deterioration in pneumatic equipment as excessive speed, underinflation, misalignment of wheels, overloading, improper adjustment of brakes, running on car tracks, improper application of skid chains, running the wheels against curbs and other obstructions and neglecting cuts, bruises and sand holes.

BIRDS ON CONSTANT OUTLOOK FOR FOES

Enemies of Feathered Flock Never at Rest.

In the nesting season birds of several species will join together to attack an enemy, says Oliver G. Pike, writing about the bravery of birds, in the London Mail. Near my house a pair of bullfinches have lived for several years. One afternoon I heard them calling loudly and saw birds from all directions joining them. Hurrying up, I found that the birds were attacking a stoat which was raiding the bullfinches' nest. I was too late to save the young, but as the robber slunk away through the grass the birds followed until he disappeared.

Our little brown squirrel is quite the most fascinating mammal we have in the country, but he is a great thief and is looked upon as an outlaw by birds. I caught one in the act of robbing a pied flycatcher's nest. I saw him coming out of a hole in a tree, and directly he left I looked inside and found all eight eggs broken and their contents eaten.

In a neighboring wood two squirrels attacked a nest of the jay. The latter is a bold bird and will not hesitate to fight almost any wild creature that goes near its home. The two birds were dashing at the squirrels, pecking as they flashed past. They struck from all sides, but the squirrels gained in the fight and got nearer and nearer the nest.

Now the jays, seeing that it was difficult to save their eggs, carried out a wonderful act of strategy. They ceased attacking the robbers and went straight to the squirrels' den in a neighboring tree! The tables were now turned; the squirrels ceased their attacks on the nest, and with a few wonderful aerial leaps were across the leafy pathway in the tree tops which led to their home. They were only just in time, too, for a moment or two later the young squirrels would have been killed by the angry birds.

In a Welsh wood we were searching for the nest of that rare bird the kite. The keeper's dog was a few yards ahead of us when suddenly we saw the flash of a pair of great wings, followed by a loud cry. We were almost underneath the nest without knowing it. The sitting bird saw the dog beneath, swooped down, fastened her sharp talons in his back, and sent him away howling with pain.

Solves the Problem of "Six" versus "High-priced Four"

"Shall I buy a high-priced four and forego six-cylinder performance superiority; or is there a low priced six which is free from the penalties of ordinary appearance, ordinary comfort and ordinary stamina?"

For several years this question has been widely debated by motor car buyers. That it has been finally solved by the Pontiac Six is clearly revealed in the spectacular triumph this new General Motors car is scoring the nation over.

General Motors devoted over three years to the development of a six that offered high quality at an unexpectedly low price. But every Pontiac Six owner will tell you that it was well worth waiting for—

—because from the very first time he took possession of the wheel he was convinced that he had made a sound investment, unequalled in the industry—a value that only General Motors could possibly achieve!

PHYSICAL TRAINING EXHIBITION

The fifth annual high school demonstration of physical training was given in the High school gym, Thursday evening, May 6th. It was well attended, and everyone enjoyed the program which was as follows:

THE STYLE SHOW

The style show was given Tuesday afternoon, May 4th. Miss Cornelius, of the J. L. Hudson Company store, Detroit, showed the right and wrong kind of dresses on different types of people. She used some of the High school girls as models.

There are three different ways of selecting ready-to-wear clothing. First is the woman who buys what she wants regardless of its becomingness to her. The second woman buys this hat, that coat, another color dress, without thinking whether the color of her costume will combine. She does not take into consideration the color, occasion for which she would like to wear it, nor the durability. The last woman chooses her clothes with care. She considers the occasion for which she wants to wear it, the color—usually the color of her eyes—and the styles she can wear best. The latter way is the best way.

Miss Cornelius also said a tall slender person must not wear a dress with stripes running up and down. This makes her look taller than she really is. This kind of a dress would be just right for a short, stout girl.

A girl with red hair must avoid a red dress. This makes her look pale, and spoils the beauty of her hair.

She brought out the idea of taste. Do not have a handkerchief of one color, dress another, and coat still another. Becomingness is what counts the most.

There are four shapes of faces—the round, oval, rectangular and triangular.

Miss Cornelius showed formal and informal party dresses, afternoon, dinner and garden frocks, and graduation dresses. All the gowns displayed were from an educational point of view, and were not to be sold to the public. After the style show, the girls of the advanced Domestic Art class served the guests tea and wafers.

DEARBORN-PLYMOUTH BASE BALL GAME

Dearborn made three runs in the first three innings which made the score 3 to 0, in their favor. In the next four innings, Plymouth scored one point. With the help of the team and the support of the people on the bleachers, Lelroy Simmons and Wendell Dondt made two runs, making the final score 4 to 3. The teams were evenly matched, and our team did excellent work. They ought to be complimented on their hard work, which puts them now at the head of the league in base ball. They have won four games and lost none.

The players Friday, were: Wendell Dondt, p.; Needham Lockwood, c.; Gaylord Sayles, 1b.; Stuart Rambo, 2b.; Ted Hickey, 3b.; Gerald Simmons, Lelroy Simmons, Hawley Mills and Carleton Moore, fielders; George Brady, ss.

ROSEDALE GARDENS HOMES PLANNED

100 OR MORE TO BE BUILT. IT IS ANNOUNCED.

At least 100 or more high grade homes will be constructed this summer and fall in Rosedale Gardens, the new community development being created by Sheldon Sons, Buhl Building, C. W. Erickson stated Saturday.

"This new development is going forward just as rapidly as engineers can get the property in condition, with building proceeding apace," he added. "Rosedale Gardens is located on Plymouth road between Farmington and McKinney (Imperial highway) roads, and comprises 640 acres of ideal home sites.

The property is provided with all city facilities, including fire protection, electricity, sewers, concrete streets, sidewalks and telephones. In addition, the home owner in Rosedale Gardens has the advantage of a barrier of business frontage completely surrounding the development, which eliminates the possibility of disagreeable business activities springing up there.

"The importance of proper building is realized by Sheldon Sons, and the construction department handles all the building of the firm, assuring an economical and business-like home at cost and saving thousands of dollars to the purchasers," he continued.—Free Press.

ORIGIN OF "LOT" STRICTLY AMERICAN.

An interesting sidelight on the way "lot" came to mean "a parcel of ground" was given by Dr. W. A. Craigie, senior surviving editor of the Oxford dictionary, generally regarded as foremost authority on English words, speaking last week at Ohio State University.

"The use of 'lot' to signify a parcel of ground is distinctly American," Dr. Craigie said. "It originated in the custom of the early American settlers in dividing up the land and distributing it by lot. Finally lot became synonymous for a parcel of ground thus distributed, and now has been taken over into standard usage."

CODE OF ETHICS OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REAL ESTATE BOARDS.

ADDENDA

I.—Suggestions to the Public
(The following suggestions are made, not as a part of this Code of Ethics, but to indicate to the public how they can cooperate with Realtors so as to secure the best service.)

(1) Your relationship with a real estate broker should be considered confidential; it is unfair to a broker for you to quote to others the terms and properties which he has offered you in confidence.

(2) Competent counsel in connection with real estate transactions is valuable and proceeds from years of training and study; it should not be expected gratis.

(3) By retaining the services of a single broker and placing your confidence in him, you enable him to render you more intelligent and satisfactory service.

(4) Do not injure your property nor your broker's chances of serving you by quoting one price to the broker and another to a prospective purchaser.

(5) Do not list your property unless you are willing and ready to sell it.

(6) When you ask a Realtor for an opinion, you should expect it to be rendered in accordance with his best judgment, unbiased by your personal preferences.

II.
The term client is used in this Code to denote one who retains a Realtor to represent his interests in real estate matters.

The term customer is used to denote one who transacts business with a Realtor but does not retain his services.

III.
The By-Laws of the National Association of Real Estate Boards contains the following provisions:

ARTICLE IV.

"Section 1. Each Member Board shall adopt the Code of Ethics of the National Association as a part of its rules and regulations for violation of which disciplinary action may be taken.

"Section 2. Any Member Board which shall neglect or refuse to maintain and enforce the Code of Ethics with respect to the business activities of its constituent members may, after due notice and opportunity for hearing, be expelled from membership in the National Association by the Board of Directors."

Copies of this Code may be obtained from the Executive Secretary, National Association of Real Estate Boards, 310 South Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Russell A. Wingard, realtor, made a business trip to Grand Lodge, last week.

CODE OF ETHICS

PLEDGE URGED

WRITTEN AFFIRMATION BY ALL REALTORS SOUGHT BY NATIONAL BOARD.

A signal affirmation to abide by the realtors' code of ethics would be required of all persons who become qualified to use the title "Realtor," according to a proposed amendment to the by-laws of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, which was approved by the board of directors of the association at a quarterly meeting just concluded at headquarters of the association, Chicago. It is proposed that the affirmations be filed at the association's headquarters.

While all active members of a constituent board of the association are, under the present wording of the constitution, pledged to conform to the code of ethics of the national body, a regulation such as is proposed, would put the pledge formally on file both with the local board and the national association under each new member's signature. Formal signing of a pledge to abide by the code of ethics is already required of member boards.

The proposed regulation will come before the entire delegate body of the association for final action at its coming annual convention, to be held in Tulsa, Oklahoma, June 8-11.

The text of the proposed amendment is as follows:

As a condition of election of new active members who will, under the regulations of the national association, be entitled to use the term "Realtor" in connection with their business, member boards shall require each applicant for such active membership to sign a statement affirming that he has read the code of ethics of the national association and agreeing to be governed by it in all of his business transactions.

Such statement shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the board of directors of the national association, and shall be in duplicate, one copy to be retained by the member board and the other to be sent to the national association and recorded.

REALTORS BANQUET

The regular monthly meeting of the Plymouth Real Estate Board was held last week Thursday evening at the Plymouth Hotel dining room. Several invited guests were present also. A fine dinner was served, after which the meeting was called to order by President R. R. Parrott. Supervisor P. B. Whitbeck gave an interesting talk along the line of property assessments, and Attorney John S. Dayton gave a splendid talk on "What Makes a Good Abstract."

AVOID VAST WASTEFUL FUTURE EXPENDITURES BY CITY PLANNING AND ZONING.

Profit by the experience of Detroit, where there is an opening and widening program under way for the expenditure of $170,000,000 within the next ten years. Now is the opportune time for Plymouth to get a zoning and planning system under way, according to Raymond Bachelard, local realtor.

The demand for suburban homes is bringing people through our village. They are impressed with its beauty and location, and consequently are becoming interested in locating here. One of their first questions is what is the plan of the restricted residential or business property here.

Let us save future expenditures by planning and zoning now.

PAINTING FREQUENTLY PROTECTS YOUR HOME.

People who are most vociferous in their appreciation of the sentimental values of their homes, who let it be known to all and sundry that they would never sell their home because of old associations, are frequently the readiest to sell if they get what they call a "good offer." They are really good salesmen, and their boasted affection for their homes is merely good sales talk. While this attitude may be a trifle calloused, there are few of us who do not keep a weather eye upon real estate values. We are proud and pleased when there is a "boom" in our immediate neighborhood. And rightly so. We are pleased whenever the property value of our home advances, because it has materially increased our potential estate, and proud that our purchase has proved a wise investment.

Keep your property well painted and you will have mighty few repair bills. Paint is far cheaper than new wood or metal replacements. Watch the less obvious vulnerable points, such as roof, eaves and down spouts, porch columns, etc. The trim is usually the first to suffer.

Russell A. Wingard, realtor, closed the deal for three houses last week. He states that never before in the history of Plymouth were houses in such a demand as they are right now.

POWER---

As exemplified by nature. The mighty cataract is as a baby in strength when compared to the mighty force of co-operative endeavor when applied to community building.

The limit of its power has never been measured by man, for the limit has never been reached.

All of our greatest communities are but the product of co-operation—the working toward a common end by a common people.

How great this community may grow, how prosperous and complete it may become, depends upon us—our willingness and our desire to work together.

A Surprise for Mrs. Spurling

So changed were the floors that Mrs. Spurling, back from a week's visit to the city, could hardly believe it was her own house. Jim had had Frank Lovejoy, the painter, get busy with Acme Quality Floor Paint and Varnish. The floors were refinished and beautified. In fact, all the wood-work smiled a welcome. And Mrs. S. said if a week and a little Acme Quality could make such a difference, she'd go away again and not come back for a month.

NEWBURG

Rev. Paul R. Havens gave an excellent Mothers' Day sermon, last Sunday, taking for his text, "Moreover his mother made him a little coat and brought it to him." I Samuel 2:19. Mrs. Havens sang a solo, "Mother of Mine." A number furnished beautiful plants and cut flowers, making the church very attractive. Ninety remained for the Sunday-school hour, which was taken up by a Mothers' Day program, each class contributing readings or songs. Services at the usual hour next Sunday. Everybody welcome.

The L. A. S. meeting at the hall was well attended, last week Wednesday. There was some discussion about moving the hall over next to the church. It was put on the table until another month. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Charles Ryder, the first Wednesday in June.

The church was well filled last Friday evening to hear the colored sextette give their negro spirituals and southern songs. The Epworth League added a nice sum to their treasury.

Samuel Jackson, a former Newburg boy, and his wife of Redford, called on Mrs. Jess Thomas, last week Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryder and son, Charles, and Miss Martha Britten motored to Stockbridge, last Sunday, taking dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jesse and Mrs. Mary Jesse.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm, Sr., entertained the following guests for Sunday dinner: Mrs. Hannah Gullstorf and son, Harvey, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lounhardt, son, Harvey, and daughter, Irma, and Jack Campbell of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ryder, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm, Jr., daughter, Virginia, and little Robert. This was a farewell party, as Mrs. Grimm, Sr., will leave for New York next Monday, sailing on the boat, President Roosevelt, Tuesday, for Bremen, Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Grimm also announced the engagement of their daughter, Charm, to Jack Campbell at this time.

Misses Anna and Ada Youngs motored with their brother, Ed, and wife, to Kingston, last week Thursday, to attend the funeral of their cousin, Mrs. Patterson, which was held on Friday. They remained with their aunt, Miss Kate Youngs, until Sunday.

Miss Martha Britten, after several weeks' visit with her cousin, Mrs. C. E. Ryder, left last Tuesday for Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Fishburn and daughter, Leola, and Frank Idster of Detroit, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carney.

Mrs. Carrie Hatt of Jackson, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. James Norris, of Strathmoor, is now the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clark Mackinder.

Hobart Jones of Acworth, New Hampshire, spent Sunday at the Ryder homestead.

People on Plymouth road are quite delighted with all the modern improvements. Electric lights and new gas pipes are being laid, which housewives will greatly appreciate, as well as the hourly service of the bus line. It is expected the gas will be extended to Newburg.

Rev. Havens and Donald Ryder were early birds, Tuesday morning. They arose at 5:30 a. m., and planted a nice elm tree on the church lawn. Some time in the near future the Patriotic Society expect to put a giant boulder at the base of the tree in memory of the veterans of the Civil war, Spanish and World wars.

THE THEATRE

"ROCKING MOON"

As the American has his Eagle, the British his Lion and the Russian his Bear, so the Alaskan Indian has his crest animal, each clan represented by a different creation. What the coat of arms is to the English aristocracy, so are the totemic marks of native families. They are of three kinds, the totem placed above the grave, the historical totem, and the genealogical totem, found before the dwelling of the native.

Totems are not subjects of worship, as so many think—they are merely picture writing in wood—cryptic records of the Indian past, heraldic and historical records carved in wood by a picturesque brown people who will soon be gone from the face of the earth. The white man has educated the Indian of today until he is scornful of the totem art of his forefathers. Yet even the most sophisticated must pay tribute to the wild and positive art of the totem carver, when he comes suddenly upon one of these columns.

Against the green of the forest they stand out vividly turquoise, red, white and black, their carved faces looking with wide lonely eyes to the sea. There is a mystic humanness about them. Silent, imperturbable, weirdly serene, they are yet pregnant with tales of native peoples. The Tlinglets, the Haidas, the Tsimp-si-ans.

"Rocking Moon" is booked to show at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, May 15th. Many totem poles are seen in the picture, and while the story does not center around totem poles—or totem lore—they are necessary to the picture, which was filmed in Alaska by Director George Melford.

In the cast are: Lilyan Tashman, John Bowers, Rockliffe Fellowes, Laska Winter, Luke Gosgrave, Eugene Pallette and Evelyn Selbie.

"THE BARRIER"

Replete with thrills, beautiful photography and splendid acting by a notable cast of principals, "The Barrier," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer photoplay of Rex Beach's novel, comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, May 16 and 17.

Beach's stirring novel of the Alaskan frontier, where the veneer of civilization dropped from men through their lust for gold, has been transferred to the screen with praiseworthy fidelity by Director George Hill. The work of the director is ably seconded by such popular screen stars as Norman Kerry, Lionel Barrymore, Henry B. Walthall, Marceline Day, Pat Harmon, Bert Woodruff and others. So well do these players acquit themselves that they ably deserve the title of the season's best cast.

Norman Kerry and Marceline Day are the focus of romantic interest in the picture. As Lieutenant Meade Burrell, the haughty scion of a proud Virginia family, Kerry is sent to an Alaskan army post, where he meets and loves Necla, played by Marceline Day, a half-breed girl whom he believes white, as does the girl herself, having been raised as the daughter of Gale, the kindly old trader, portrayed convincingly by Henry B. Walthall.

Complications arise when Burrell learns the girl is not white. He is willing to overlook the barrier, but the feelings of his aristocratic family must be considered. His decision is made when the girl falls into the clutches of Stark Bennett, the brutal skipper of a whaling ship.

The picture is packed with high-power dramatic thrills. The rescue of the girl from the whaling ship jammed in the ice floes, the wreck of the ship in the ice, the furious battle between the young lieutenant and Bennett in the ship's cabin, the struggle between the first mate, essayed by Pat Harmon, and Burrell's orderly, Sergeant Murphy, combine to keep the spectator on the edge of his seat throughout the film.

The picture contains none of the monotonous heroics commonly associated with the stories of the frontier and a well defined vein of comedy, interpreted by George Cooper and Bert Woodruff, permeates throughout.

"The Barrier" is a picture that should not be missed.

"DANCING MOTHERS"

Have you any idea what's going on around you? What do you know about your neighbors? Are they happy? Do you ever stop to think that in this great throbbing existence of ours that we call "life" drama is being enacted daily by players who have never had any ideas about going on the stage?

For instance, in New York City, just last year, something happened which was known to only a few persons. Now the news has come out.

Most likely you have never even heard of the Hugh Westcourts. They are a wealthy couple whose marriage seems to have gone on the rocks. Hugh and Ethel had one daughter, a crazy, jazz-mad snapper, who liked to hit the bright lights. And her father had somewhat the same tendencies himself.

According to the story which is told, one night, while dancing with her youthful fiancé, Kenneth Cobb, Kittens started to flirt with Jerry Naughton, an understanding bachelor. Of course, Kenneth became irritated, and the more he showed his annoyance, the more she continued. Finally the evening was over, but not the flirtation.

In despair, Kenneth appealed to Mrs. Westcourt for help, and she set out to put a crimp in this unknown's naughty line. But on meeting him she, too, fell deeply in love, and he with her. So, as they say in the fable, "wasn't that a pretty dish to set before the king?"

What happened then? Did the daughter just resign or did she stay to contest her mother? How did the father take it? Did he try to bring his family together?

These are some of the things which audiences at Penniman Allen theatre will find out next Wednesday, May 19, when "Dancing Mothers," a new Paramount picture will be shown. Herbert Brenon directed the drama, which is an adaptation of the Edgar Selwyn, Edmund Goulding, stage success. Conway Tearle, Alice Joyce and Clara Bow are co-starred as the bachelor, the mother and the daughter.

Today's Reflections

The meanest man in Plymouth is one who can give away something he does not want, and make himself believe that he is liberal-hearted.

As the horse disappears, horseback riding becomes aristocratic and the time may yet arrive when it will be stylish to walk.

They say candy is a substitute for liquor, but we never heard of candy making a Plymouth man want to sing "Sweet Adeline."

Why is it that vegetables seem to do better in a little garden where there are also a few flowers?

It's going to take more than one nice spring day to make us forget a lot of the ones that should have been nice.

The Plymouth man who insists on going around with a grouchy look ought to know by this time why he doesn't see more smiles.

We found a truthful Plymouth man yesterday. We asked him what he would do if he had a million dollars, and he said he supposed he would spend his time wishing it was two million.

Biting off more than you can chew is almost as big a mistake as going hungry.

Who can remember the time when you couldn't get a Plymouth man to wear a checked suit because he was afraid somebody would think he was a gambler.

Wouldn't it be a terrible world if children were as bad as the neighbors all think children are?

In Auburn, Ia., 1,000 hens laid 798 eggs in one day, leaving 202 hens that thought it was Sunday.

About the only rod the modern Plymouth kid knows anything about is a steering rod.

When a man asks a girl for her hand he is liable to want to put it in some dish-water.

A little scare may be an aid to virtue. When people used to hear more about hell they raised less of it.

Everything else about an automobile may stop, but the payments will always run.

CHURCH CHORUS TO SING AT FARM DAY

SPECIAL CONTEST FOR SMALL TOWN AND COUNTRY GROUPS BOOKED FOR M. S. C. ON JULY 30TH.

Michigan's best church choirs, recruited from the smaller towns and country districts of the state, will "sing it out" for state championships at M. S. C. on July 30, during the annual Summer Farmers' Day at the college.

Special cash prizes will be awarded from the R. E. Olds community music fund, grading down from a first award of one hundred dollars.

Entries will be limited to country churches and churches from towns of not more than 2,000 population, insuring a real "country" classification for the interesting contest. The event is being held in line with the plan of the college in developing community singing in the rural districts of the state.

Each choir must consist of at least six singers, and may have as many more than that as desired. Each group will sing two selections, one of which will be a specified religious song.

Supremacy
in Fine Steel

In the percentage of Costly Chrome Vanadium Steel used, Dodge Brothers Motor Car outranks any other automobile in the World, regardless of cost.

It is everywhere conceded that Chrome Vanadium Steel is the toughest and most enduring metal ever created for use in the vital parts of a motor car.

It may not be so well known, however, that Dodge Brothers Motor Car ranks first in the world in the use of this costly and fatigue-proof material.

Dodge Brothers power assembly is almost entirely Chrome Vanadium—motor, connecting rods, crankshaft, transmission, universal joint, drive shaft, differential and rear axle.

Even the front axle is Chrome Vanadium—the entire steering unit—and every leaf of the springs.

In fact, wherever any manufacturer uses alloy steels, Dodge Brothers use costly Chrome Vanadium. And in numerous instances Dodge Brothers employ it where plain carbon steel, even in the costliest cars, is commonly thought sufficient.

This has been true from the day Dodge Brothers built their first motor car.

This explains why the words Long Life, Safety and Dependability are habitually associated with the name Dodge Brothers wherever motor cars are serving mankind.

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says that many a man who insists on his wife running the house on a budget is running his own business on a shoestring.

Another thing you never have to advertise for when you're hunting it is trouble.

Dad Plymouth says the old-fashioned way of courting in a hammock had one advantage over the modern auto courtship. When there was a break-down you didn't have to walk ten miles to get back home.

When some men buy a shiny new tin auto, they leave the tag on it for two weeks to show people that it is new.

"The trouble with a lot of fellows," says Dad Plymouth, "is they want to be drivers of the Prosperity wagon instead of helping to load it up."

Any time you tell a woman a "dead secret," you can bet your life she will put some life into it.

"I've always noticed," comments Dad Plymouth, "that when a man has an axe to sharpen he can always find a few suckers willing to turn the grindstone."

The country may be going to dogs, but it seems to us there are a lot of dogs that ought to go to the country.

Dad Plymouth says: "Some men are crazy about the radio—and others just look on it as something else they have to listen to."
