

Tells of Life On Lone Raider

running low on ammunition. You heard the song. Listen brother, we were all shouting "pass the ammunition." Believe me our gun was red hot. But we kept shooting away.

After three days of hunting for the Japs, we went back into harbor and fueled up and started right away for San Francisco with some hospital ships. We were in San Fran overnight, and then took a convoy right back to Honolulu where we stayed until Christmas.

Right after Christmas, we took some more ships back to San Francisco and had a twelve-day leave there. The officers told us all to go ashore and have a good time. They must have known what was coming, for after the leave we started to Australia with the first direct troops and transports to leave this country for down under.

"It was the longest American convoy trip ever made without a loss. It is quite a ways to Melbourne. We took the five ships in alone. Not another war ship made the trip. We heard there were Japs around us, but we didn't see any of them.

"And believe me we were looking. Funny thing, on board ship that way, you don't talk much about the Japs. You hate them too damned much to talk about them. But all of us were thinking way down deep just how much we wanted to meet some of them. We knew just what we'd do if we ever found them.

"Well, we were the first American warship into Australia after we got into the war. We were cheered by the people as we arrived in the harbor. They knew then that we had come to help, and believe me they wanted help.

"Those Australian people are the best in the world. They give the Americans anything they want. The girls all want to take you to tea. Everything is free. You walk in a movie or a race track or anything like that, and they just tip their hat and say welcome. I only hope the American people are treating the Aussie troops who are here as well.

"We stayed in Australia quite a while, moving back and forth between Melbourne and Sidney, conveying ships between the two ports.

"After we'd been in Australia a little while, they sent us out to the Indian ocean to hunt for a German raider. We hunted for six months, but we never found it. It seemed like we spent our time just hunting the ships, but never found any of them. But all the time, we were aching for action.

"It was while we were on our way back to Australia that our rations began to get low. We lived for several days on beans and rice. One day we'd have beans for breakfast and supper and rice for dinner. The next day, we'd have rice for breakfast and supper and beans for dinner. But there was always plenty of coffee, and it was always hot. I mean, it is hot 24 hours a day, and most of the boys drink it black.

"But we made it all right. They when we got back in port we stocked up and had some real feeds. That beans and rice business is the exception though. Mostly we really get good food in the navy.

"It was on this trip to Melbourne that I saluted General MacArthur. I was on shore leave and was walking along the street and saw him walking towards me. I didn't know whether to turn around and run or keep on going.

"While I was making up my mind, he was right there beside me. I saluted him as I would any other officer, and he saluted me back, and I walked on down the street. But my heart was in my mouth. I think I was more scared of that than anything that happened to me.

"But say do the Australians like that guy. Believe me they think he's tops.

"Well after that shore leave, we were sent out to the Solomons to screen the landing of the troops there. We never saw the fleet or the troop ships, but some submarines got after us. There were 23 torpedoes fired at us, and they all missed. But we never even got a submarine, and you could see those torpedoes coming, too.

"After screening that action, it was back to Australia again, and then we screened the landing of the troops on New Guinea. You see what I mean, when I say you see the world in the navy.

"After fueling up in Australia again, we started out of the harbor, but it wasn't until we were out of sight of land, that they told us we were going home. Boy when they told us, there sure was a shout.

"And when we saw American land for the first time, brother, everybody was lined up along the rail, and when you could just begin to see the land, man the shout that went up. But I didn't feel any better at seeing American soil than I do at seeing good old Plymouth again.

"From what I can see Plymouth is doing a good job in war production too, but say the fellows really get some when they read in our daily mimeographed newspaper about the strikes. When I say sore, I mean sore. One of the fellows said the government ought to put the miners and all the rest right in the army, and then send them back into the mines at $21 a month. And after he said that we all agreed with him."

"Why," said Mrs. Passage, "we haven't suffered any up here. We haven't eaten just beans and rice for days, and we haven't gone for days and days without sleep."

"No," Stanley Passage went on, "but we've had a good time. The only time we feel bad is when we can't get at the Japs and when we read about these strikes."

Plan Recreation Program

recreation program which was held in abeyance by the city commission at its last session.

The recreation group expressed the opinion that the general public has an erroneous impression of what the recreation program is and what it is intended to do.

The recreation group went on record to "squell" the impression that the recreation program is one of child care under which the child would be cared for between the time school is out and the time the child goes to bed.

Rather, it was pointed out, the program is intended to stimulate the child's activity at home and in school.

Mrs. Arthur Bixler, a member of the commission, was appointed by Chairman Charles Brake to write a series of recommendations for a year round program.

The commission also took steps to recommend to the Wayne county highway department that a toboggan slide be erected on some of the hills in the parks near to Plymouth in order that it along with other park facilities may be used in the program.

Mrs. Kenneth Gust and young son, Kenneth, left Thursday for Cambridge, Massachusetts, where they will spend the next two months with Ensign Gust, who is at Harvard University preparing for naval services. They were accompanied on the trip East by Mrs. Elton R. Eaton and Elmore Carney.

Gladys Lang and Roy Wheeler Are Wed

Gladys J. Lang became the bride of Roy O. Wheeler at a quiet ceremony in the Thurman home in Newburg, held at 8:00 o'clock Sunday evening, May 22. Rev. Verle Carson of Newburg read the wedding ceremony.

Miss Lang was attended by Susan Thurman and Mr. Wheeler chose as his best man Harry Stanley. The bride and bridesmaid both wore corsages of American Beauty roses.

The Thurman home was beautifully decorated with snapdragons, stocks and lilies. A wedding dinner was served to the immediate families following the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, who are well known to their host of Plymouth friends, will reside on Ann Arbor Trail. To them go the congratulations and best wishes of all their acquaintances.

Last week Mrs. Gladys Ebersole returned from a two weeks' vacation in Florida, where she has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Howard Ebersole of Bradenton, Florida. FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.
T. Leonard Sanders, minister.
Mrs. M. J. O'Conner, director of music. Memorial Sunday, May 30; 10 o'clock church school with classes for all. Wesley Kaiser, superintendent, 11 o'clock. Memorial Day service; subject, "We Shall Live and Meet Again." Read Job 1 and St. John 14:1-14. Special Memorial music by the chorus choir and hymns by choir and congregation: 6:30. Youth Fellowship Hour and election of officers. 7:30. Youth social hour. Beverly Nichols in "The Fool Hath Said" wrote: "As I sit down to write this final chapter on a dark and stormy evening, the church bells are ringing for evensong. They are fine old bells, and if you were to climb up the steep stairs to the belfry, taper in hand, you would see that the two earliest date from 1585, and are chiselled with the inscription 'Come, come and pray.' For 350 years, in fair weather and in foul, those bells have echoed through the valley, and there was a time when people heard them gladly, because they knew that the bells were praising a God who was, indeed, a very present help in trouble." Friends that same God calls every one of us "Come, come and pray." Kindly keep in mind the Daily Vacation School of the Presbyterian-Methodist churches which starts Monday, June 21 at the Presbyterian church. "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 30. The Golden Text (Isaiah 50:7) is: "The Lord God will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded; therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be ashamed." Among the Bible citations is this passage (II Tim. 4:18): "And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 569): "He that touches the hem of Christ's robe and masters his mortal beliefs, animality, and hate, rejoices in the proof of healing,—in a sweet and certain sense that God is Love."

IN MEMORY OF OUR HEROES

They volunteered to our country's call
 And there, their life is given
 A sacrifice of human life,
 Into this fray was given.
 Now some do in the church yard lay
 Some sleep beneath the sea,
 Here on earth their time's no more.
 They have fought unto the end.
 Their life to their country they gave.
 Now in some cold and silent grave
 Lies some mother's soldier boy.

Metal Helmets For Air Wardens

Plymouth Supply Has Been Received

A supply of metal hats for use of air raid wardens and other important workers in the civilian defense program, have been received by the city of Plymouth. A supply of overalls for auxiliary firemen also have been received.

The number of hats received is a "military secret" but there will be sufficient for all of the wardens, most of the firemen and most of the police. There also will be a supply for the decontamination and rescue squads.

Clarence H. Elliot, coordinator of civilian defense in this area, said that it had been called to his attention that several of the auxiliary police and firemen had painted a large "E" on their automobiles.

This is a violation, the coordinator said. The "E" which designates emergency service in event of an air raid is only for those automobiles which are absolutely essential to the protection of the public in event of an air raid.

Fire trucks, police and ambulance vehicles, fire messengers, automobiles used by utilities are the only ones which are permitted to carry the "E" all of the time. Firemen and police are to use the "E" only during an air raid.

Communication

To the Editor:

It has been brought to my attention that the board of education is considering a proposal to send all children living north of Farmer street, to Starkweather grade school to reduce the over-taxed facilities of Central grade school.

This proposal might have a sound background were it not for the fact that Central grade school is not overcrowded with Plymouth children but has seen fit to absorb a great number of rural pupils. The tuition for these rural pupils is paid for with county taxes and naturally nets a sizeable income for the school board over and above its allotment from city taxes, without proportionately increasing the cost of maintaining the school. It is therefore reasonable to suppose that from a purely mercenary angle, the board of education would be desirous of keeping all the rural pupils possible.

The question in my mind and in the minds of all my neighbors is whether or not it is fair to ask our children to walk a mile, over a dirty, dangerous road, and across a railroad track, in order to make room, in a school only a half mile away, for children who live outside Plymouth.

Every member of the board of education should consider hard and long before incurring the justifiable anger of such a large portion of Plymouth's population with the passage of this act.

I personally have two youngsters who will soon be starting in kindergarten and would constantly fear for their safety going and coming from school with modern traffic conditions as they are. If there was no school nearer, the conditions would have to be accepted, however it seems utterly foolish to deliberately expose them to additional risk merely to swell the coffers of the board of education.

Sincerely,
HARRY D. MARTIN,
525 Blunk Avenue
Plymouth, Michigan

P.S. I feel that your publication of this letter would be a wonderful service to those concerned and would be deeply appreciated by all of us.

The Plymouth Mail has learned upon inquiry that no action has been taken by the board of education upon this question and that no recommendation of any kind has been made.

Recently after it was stated that there might be some 100 new houses built in Plymouth, located on the north and northwest side of the city, a recommendation was made to the board that consideration be given to the increased school population that would result, if and when 100 or more new homes should be erected in that part of the city.

Based entirely upon the rumored construction of the new homes, it was suggested that the board of education give thought to four possible solutions of ways to care for the prospective increased school population, if that number of new homes should be erected in Plymouth.

These suggestions included a proposed study as to the advisability of (1) erecting a new grade school in that part of the city to care for the new pupils, (2) or the exclusion of 75 to 100 more high school tuition pupils, (3) or half day school sessions, (4) or the use of four unused school rooms in the Starkweather school. If the last suggestion should be followed, if and when the 100 new houses are erected, then it was suggested that the city should be asked to construct sidewalks along Farmer avenue (which should be done anyway—and this is an editor's note) in order to accommodate occupants of the proposed new homes. It is apparent that it is out of these recommendations that the question raised in Mr. Martin's letter has developed.

Compare These Ration Points

Then Make Up Your Mind We're Well Off

The next time you go to the store and wonder whether you have enough ration points to buy what you want, consider the people who live in Belfast, Ireland.

Joseph J. Wickens, owner of the Specialty Feed Co., whose home used to be in Belfast, still gets the Belfast Weekly Telegraph, which this week contained the ration point values of foods there.

There is this difference. In this country, we get 16 ration points per person, per week. In Belfast, a person gets 20 ration points for a period of say April 4 to May 1, a period of nearly a month.

And during that period, those ration points won't go very far. Cereal breakfast foods, which are not rationed here at, are quoted at 2, 3 or 4 points per package, dependent on the size of the package.

Canned herring and mackerel sell for 2 points for a five ounce tin. In the United States they are seven points a pound.

Fruit in Belfast is quoted at 12 points for a large tin, 9 points for a medium sized tin and six points for a small tin. Compare that with your own ration points, bearing in mind that they get only 20 points for three weeks.

Canned meat loaf sells, plus cash, at 18 points for a 12 ounce tin. Here, it is only seven points. In Belfast, canned rabbit is 20 points a pound. Rabbit is not rationed here. Luncheon meats, sold in slices, is 16 points a pound, compared with an average of 10 points in the United States.

Tomatoes are 3 to 9 points (when available at all) depending on the size of the tin. Dried prunes (which are not rationed here) cost four points a pound in Belfast.

It takes about 40,000 Nazi occupation troops in Norway to hold down that country's population of approximately three million inhabitants.

In simplifying manufacture of hand tools for Victory Gardens, 324 types of forks have been cut to 76, styles of rakes have been reduced from 55 to 8, hoes from 362 to 39, and hand cultivators from 14 to 8.

The government's conservation and simplification program in the manufacture of men's, women's and children's hosiery is expected to save 14,800,000 pounds annually of cotton, rayon, and wool yarns.

Lewis and supported by Comm. Hondorp that the city keep within the building code on houses being considered at this time. Carried. A petition was presented requesting that the city of Plymouth purchase and operate the Allen residence for use as a community and recreation center. Motion was made by Comm. Hondorp and supported by Comm. Corbett, that these petitions be presented to the City Manager for checking signatures. Carried. Another petition was presented requesting that a recreational director be employed. Municipal Court report for the month of April was read. It was moved by Comm. Hondorp and supported by Comm. Corbett that this report be accepted and filed. The Ex-Service Men's club requested the city to have three signs painted, (1x2 feet) to indicate the Service Men's Center which is being established at the Mayflower hotel. It was moved by Com. Whipple and supported by Com. Corbett that the request be granted. Carried. The City Manager presented information concerning the paving of Farmer street from Blunk to the railroad. The following resolution was offered by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett:

WHEREAS, the construction of a pavement on Farmer street between Blunk and the P.M. Railroad seems necessary because of the heavy traffic on this street. WHEREAS, this is a special benefit to the property owners abutting the said improvement.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that this Commission will meet and consider any objections hereto on Monday, June 7, 1943, at 7:30 p.m. Carried. A communication was received from the Board of Review stating that the Board of Review had certified to the commission the 1943 assessment roll in the amount of $6,077,520.00.

Members of the Lutheran church requested that the assessment roll which had been made by the board of review on lands owned by them at the corner of Garfield and Penniman avenue be removed from the tax roll because it was church property. Because of the facts presented it was moved by Comm. Corbett and supported by Comm. Whipple that assessment on church properties of the St. Peter's Lutheran church, and the First Church of Christ, Scientist, on Ann Arbor Trail be removed from the roll for 1943 because of war conditions.

Ayes: Mayor Shear, Comm. Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried. The Mayor asked if there were any other objections to the assessment roll. It was moved by Comm. Hondorp and supported by Comm. Corbett that the following resolution be adopted: WHEREAS, the City Assessor has reported the Assessment Roll for the year 1943 to the Commission, and WHEREAS, all valid objections have been adjusted.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Assessment Roll for the City of Plymouth for the year 1943 as adopted by the board of review and adjusted in the total sum of $6,072,350.00. Ayes: Mayor Shear, Comms. Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried. The following resolution was offered by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett:

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the salary of the City Employees shall be fixed and shall not exceed the amounts as filed. It was moved by Com. Lewis and supported by Com. Whipple that the bills in the amount of $7,617.10 as audited by the auditing committee be approved. Ayes: Mayor Shear, Commissioners Corbett, Lewis, Hondorp and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried. Mrs. Caroline Dayton was present and made the suggestion that men and women should be given the authority to question youngsters on the street and make reports to the police department. It was moved by Commissioner Corbett and supported by Commissioner Hondorp that the meeting be adjourned. Time of adjournment 9:30 p.m. Carried. CARL G. SHEAR, Mayor. CLARENCE ELLIOTT, Clerk

Nays: None. Carried. The recreation problem was considered by the commission. Letters from the following various organizations were read by the Clerk: Rotary club, Church of the Nazarene, University of Michigan club, League of Women Voters, Myron H. Beals Post, The Woman's Club, Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, The Salvation Army, Plymouth Lodge 238, Kiwanis club, Tonquish lodge No. 32, Ex-Service Men's club, Methodist church, First Church of Christ, Scientist, and Navy Mother's club. Many of these letters stated that the organization was in favor of a recreational director. Some organizations felt that they had no interest in the matter. Rev. Hoenecke spoke about the recreation program. He stated that he did not like to base the program on Juvenile Delinquency. That a recreation program would not solve Juvenile Delinquency. He felt that our program was chiefly one for the home and that he believed in the curfew. If a recreation program is undertaken it must not infringe on home life. Mayor Shear then made the following recommendations concerning the recreation program. Mayor Shear stated that he felt:

1. That the City should repossess the two houses which are owned by the city; one to be used for a Boys' Club and the other for a Girls' Club. 2. That the recreation commission be increased from five to seven members and that the Manager and Superintendent of Schools be made members of the commission and that a full-time director be not hired at this time. 3. That the recreation commission be authorized to go ahead with a summer program and, 4. After the City gets possession of the houses, then authorize the hiring of a full-time director. It was moved by Comm. Hondorp and supported by Comm. Corbett that the recommendations of the Mayor be adopted. It was moved by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Lewis that the motion be amended to provide that if the recreation commission wished to make a recommendation concerning recreation before the re-possession of the houses that they may have the privilege of doing so. The vote on the amendment to the motion was carried. An aye and nay vote was called for on the original motion as amended. Ayes: Mayor Shear, Comms. Corbett, Hondorp, Lewis and Whipple. Nays: None. Carried.

The following resolution was offered by Comm. Whipple and supported by Comm. Corbett:

RESOLVED, that the Annual City Budget for the year 1943-4 as reviewed at this meeting and previous meetings of the City Commission in the total amount of $110,220.50 be approved and that the same be pro-rated over the various funds as follows: General Fund $ 38,385.00 Highway Fund 12,325.00 Bond and Int. 7,487.50 Sewer Fund 3,030.00 Police fund 17,890.00 Fire Fund 3,775.00 St. Lighting 7,520.00 Welfare 30.00 Garbage & Rubbish 9,115.00 Mun. Veteran Publisher Visits Plymouth

Len Feighner of Nashville, former publisher of the News, and one time secretary and then-president of the Michigan Press association, was a Plymouth visitor a few days ago. Mr. Feighner, who has been living in semi-retirement for a number of years, declares that, from his observations, this must be one of the busiest parts of the entire country. The 54 billion passenger-miles traveled by Americans on trains in 1942 was an all-time high.

And you have a perfect right to be proud of your city. One can plainly see that it is a busy place," he stated.

Mr. Feighner is one of the pioneer publishers of the state, having been a publisher for nearly half a century before he decided to take things a bit easier. His visit to Plymouth followed a business trip to Detroit.

Bothered by meat rationing? LET ME HELP YOU! I'm your electric waffle iron—and you don't need any ration stamps to enjoy the crisp, golden treat that I prepare on a few minutes' notice. Made of milk, eggs, flour, and shortening, waffles are a wholesome dish. And waffles help save meat for our armed forces. You can serve waffles for breakfast with poached eggs, with creamed codfish, or simply with marmalade or syrup. For luncheons, cheese waffles can be served with vegetables or fish, or you can use waffles to dress up left-overs. To add zest to evening meals—try Welsh Rarebit Sauce over Crisp Bacon and Tomatoes on Waffles, or Eggs a la King on Waffles, or Spiced Mushrooms with Chicken on Waffles. The interesting waffle combinations possible for desserts are almost endless: Waffles with Crushed Pineapple Sauce, Waffles topped with Vanilla Ice Cream and Caramel Sauce, etc. Here are just a few of the many different varieties of waffles: Cheese Waffles, Blueberry Waffles, Bacon Waffles, Corn-meal Waffles, Apple Waffles, Gingerbread Waffles, Chocolate Brownie Waffles, Orange Waffles and Pecan Waffles. WILBERT FOWLER IN HOSPITAL WITH A FRACTURED ARM.

Wilbert H. Fowler, who enlisted in the Coast Guards some time ago, is right now confined in the Norfolk Naval hospital at Portsmouth, Virginia suffering from a fractured left arm. Some time ago a big generator fell on his arm, causing not only a fracture but severe bruises. The Coast Guardsman is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fowler of Plymouth road.

KARL JOHNSON HOME FOR A BRIEF VISIT.

Private First Class Karl Johnson, located at Chanute Field, Illinois, has been spending a few days at his home in Plymouth. He has been in the army for the past three months and declares that he not only likes army life, but all the training he gets. He says the food could not be better.

WOULDN'T TRADE UNIFORM FOR ANYTHING IN THE WORLD

"As much as the boys complain about the army, I do not know of one of them who would swap his uniform for the clothes of any civilian in this entire world," wrote Sergeant Kenneth E. Kelley to The Mail last week. "During the eight months that I have been in service, I have not missed a single issue of The Mail. You cannot realize how much we like it," he said. "On April 22, just two days before my birthday, I was promoted from corporal to the rank of sergeant. There are some jobs in the army we don't like and a lot of them that we do like, but I have had a pretty good job for sometime, and I like it." Kenneth is located in Independence, Kansas.

HAS HIGH PRAISE FOR HIS ASSOCIATES IN THE ARMY.

"All the fellows here at this Center, the largest of its kind for pilots, are certainly swell fellows. Everyone goes out of his way to help the other fellow. It is definitely no place or one that cannot take it," writes Donald R. Taylor from the pre-flight school at San Antonio, Texas. "I am glad to get The Mail as it helps me to keep track of all of my old pals who are now in the army and navy. Folks back home cannot realize how much it means to us. And I want to salute the people of Plymouth for doing so much in contributing to the war bond drive," says Donald in his letter.

JACK SIPES MAKES SURPRISE VISIT TO PLYMOUTH FRIENDS.

Jack Sipes, former teller in the Plymouth United Savings bank, who is now in Uncle Sam's navy stationed in Rhode Island, made a brief, surprise visit to friends in Plymouth last week-end. He also visited his sister, Mrs. E. G. Lenfestey and family of Rosedale Gardens. He is a pharmacist's mate and thoroughly enjoys the assignment he has drawn in the navy. He also likes the eastern seaboard. Other lads in the same naval outfit with Jack, like to read The Plymouth Mail almost as well as does Jack, he declares. They think the service men's page is about the "tops."

CORPORAL ALAN BENNETT TELLS OF WORK IN KANSAS CITY.

Corporal Alan Bennett, who was recently transferred from Atlantic City to Kansas City, writes The Mail in part, as follows: "Dear Staff: "Finally I find time to write you and thank you for the Plymouth Mail that I receive each and every week. It has sure helped me in keeping track of the old town and all my friends. "As you know I was taking my basic training in Atlantic City. Now I'm in Kansas City, Missouri going to a radio school. While in Atlantic City I applied for A. S. T. P. (army specialized training program), which is a plan whereby men are chosen to go back to college and continue in the line of work they were taking before or in some field useful to the army. I passed my tests and was called up before a board of officers. They decided I was O.K. so I am to go back to college. I'll be called from this camp probably by the end of June. Being accepted by the A.S.T.P. is about the best news I have ever had. "Here in Kansas City we also live in hotels. We have much more free time. Classes are from 8 'til 4 with two hours off for lunch. "From 4 'til 11 is our own time and bed check is at 11:30 except on Saturday nights which is until 2:00. Of course no classes are held on Sunday so that day is ours to spend as we wish. "As for the army in general and how I like it; it is swell but naturally I would rather be home. I'm working hard and am going to try to learn as much as possible while I'm in the service. The food is perfect and we get all we want. We drill only one hour a week so we really have time to study."

DOWN "DEEP IN HEART OF TEXAS" AND HE LIKES IT VERY MUCH.

From "Dick" Herter, well known Plymouth lad who is now in the army, comes a letter from Fort Bliss, Texas, where he says it's hot, but that he likes it down "Deep in the Heart of Texas," a place he had never expected to visit. "Thank the Canteen club for me—and thanks to The Mail," he writes. "I am writing from the desert down here along the Texas, New Mexico boundary line, and it has rained only three times since I have been here. But it's hot, that's one thing sure. "We are going to stay on the desert for seven weeks. I am in the anti-craft coast artillery. The closest town is El Paso. "I was glad to read about the success of the bond drive in Plymouth. It means that some one did some real work on it. I want to be sure and have The Mail say hello to all of my friends and that I'd like to hear from them. Tell them I'm feeling fine."

SOLDIER LIKES TO READ LETTERS FROM BOYS IN SERVICE.

From Staff Sergeant Keith Van Amburg, now stationed on the great Colorado desert near Blythe, California, comes a letter in which he says he thoroughly enjoys the communications from other Plymouth lads in service. He writes: "I am writing in regards to The Plymouth Mail which I receive each week from you and wish to thank you very much for it as I have not written in so long to thank you for the paper. "In the last issue that I received, there was a letter from Sergeant Leroy Cripe. In Sergeant Cripe's letter he asked if you would change his address on the paper that you sent to him. I would also like to know his address now as it is very near to where I am stationed and sure would like to get in touch with him as I haven't seen anyone from Plymouth around here yet. If I could get Sergeant Cripe's address I am sure that I could contact him on my day off and have a get-together. "I am sorry to hear that Dave Ingall was wounded but am sure he will come out of it O.K. as did Bob Kisabeth. As you can see The Plymouth Mail is our only source of news way out here in the desert with the exceptions of the letters we get from home, so you may understand how we always look forward to receiving The Plymouth Mail. "I think that publishing the letters that the boys in service write is an excellent way for all of the fellows to correspond with each other. It is just like writing a letter to all of your friends all at one time. I think that some of the older fellows, or fellows that have been in the service a little longer than the boys that are now writing in, are slipping up on the letter writing to The Mail for it seems as though when a fellow just enters the service he usually writes right away telling where he is and how he likes army life and then in a few months you don't hear any more from them. I suppose that most of the fellows are so busy though taking care of the Japs that they don't have much time for letter writing. "I would like to say hello to all of my friends in Plymouth hoping to see them all in the very near future, and thanking you again for The Plymouth Mail."

SERGEANT BOB HOUGHTON VISITS HOME.

CADET ROBERT FISHER HOME FOR FEW DAYS

Cadet Robert Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Fisher, who is a cadet in Uncle Sam's fighting forces and who has been stationed at Highland Park, is spending a few days at home on a brief leave of absence. He is expecting his assignment to a new training center upon the expiration of his leave of absence.

Prepare For New Rationing Book

Applications Have Been Mailed Out
The Plymouth Price and Rationing Board now has made plans and preparations for the issuance of Ration Book 3, which will be applied for and received by the registrants by mail. Application cards have been distributed to all mail residents within the area of the Plymouth Price and Rationing Board. These application blanks should not be returned to the local office until after June first, but they must be mailed before June 10th in order for the applicant to receive his book by August first. Application blanks which are received after June 10th will not be considered until after all other applications have been mailed. Careful study of the application blank with its accompanying instructions are necessary for the application to be considered. It is necessary that the names of the members of the family shall be included on the application in order that the proper number of books shall be received by each family. The application should be mailed to the Plymouth rationing board with either a two or three cent stamp, dependent on whether the application is mailed within the Plymouth mailing district. Mailing of the new ration books, which will replace ration books 1 and 2 when those books expire, will start on June 20, but the applicant may not receive his book before August first. The remapping of iron formations in the western part of the upper peninsula, to find more that are workable, has already been resumed for this season, the conservation department reports. The U.S. geological survey is co-operating in the work, and a USGS geologist is now in the field in Iron county. New method: Six five-ton trucks and an electric hoist have replaced the locomotives and rails in the Plymouth open pit mine at Wakefield, which has been producing iron ore since 1916.

Five wild fruits that may be gathered free from state-owned lands for home canning are blueberries, cranberries, wild grapes, wild blackberries and dewberries. About 1,750,000 troops a month travel on American trains in official troop movements, exclusive of furlough travel. In the Kansas City, Missouri, and Kansas zone, 49 retail florists formed a joint plan for handling orders which is expected to save 150,000 truck-miles a year.

The Norris City, Illinois, terminal of the "big inch" oil pipeline dispatches an average of nearly 1,100 railroad tank cars a day on a single track line, or an average of a 75-car train every 52 minutes.

Please limit your call to 5 minutes. Others are waiting

EVEN in wartime, we'd like to give you prompt service on long distance calls. But telephone lines to many points now are overloaded, and urgent civilian calls often are delayed.

You can help speed the handling of all calls, including your own, if you make this your resolution:

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Just one more question, Judge. What is this thing called propaganda that you hear so much talk about these days?" "I'll give you an example, Hank. Last night I was reading an interesting little book called 'Hitler is in Favor'. It told how Hitler would very much like to see Americans fighting among themselves over prohibition because that would create disunity, waste the time of Congress and legislatures in wet-dry arguments and cripple our war effort. It also mentioned a booklet written about Hitler's government telling how Hitler's gang wants to maintain contact with foreign temperance organizations and how it contributes annually to an international temperance union. "You can bet Hitler isn't interested in seeing prohibition advanced in our country for any reason except that he knows it's a good way to stir up trouble. That's what they mean by propaganda, Hank."

Seniors Are Entertained

A long and complicated joke involving a round pool table and a pretty girl was told by Malcolm MacGregor as a welcome to the Junior and Senior Get-Together given by the Junior class last Friday night.

Janet Stracken then introduced Irene Niedospal and George Newton, masters of ceremonies, who introduced Bill Upton to lead the audience in singing. Lois Ridley then sang "Taking a Chance on Love" and "Wrong."

Dora Greubner gave a dramatic reading in which she told her friend all about the bruises she had "acquired" in learning to skate. Gwen Barber then pretended she was learning to skate and after several spills was skating like a professional.

A play entitled "Pinkie Pie Goes to the University of Ham" told about the evils of gambling which befell Pinkie Pie at the University of Hamtramck. He finally won his diploma and was offered a position by the government as a mascot for the Wags.

Shirley Lutermoser played a piano solo, "Impromptu." Donald Montgomery played several pieces on the accordion and then Dorothy Jean Woodbury and June Van Meter played a duet on the piano and the clarinet. The boys' double quartet sang and then Bill Upton announced that refreshments were being served.

Music for dancing was played until 11:30 by Frank Tabers' orchestra.

Band Recruits 55 Newcomers

With the band recruiting drive at a close, the finals have been announced at an estimated fifty-five recruits. Clarinets took the lead with fifteen applicants followed by the saxophone, cornets, trumpets, trombones, and drums. Although the members of the band fell short of their quota, they are quite proud of those they did get. The lower grades predominated as was expected. By the time they enter high school they will be ready to enter the band.

When the band was divided into two teams at the beginning of the drive, it was with the plan that the team who brought in the least recruits would treat the winning team. Joe Briscois' team has decided to treat Bill Upton's to a Harry Krumm, cornet player, brought in six recruits to take the lead as a recruiter. Coming in second was Dick Daniels with five.

Some of the previously unpublished names to be turned in are Janice Taylor, saxophone; Marion Oldenburg, clarinet; John Henderson, cornet; William Perkins, cornet; Donald MacGregor, clarinet; Fritzie Von Loo, baritone; Eddy Rea Norgrove, clarinet; Geraldine West, saxophone; Barbara Church, saxophone; Bill Bakewell, saxophone; Martin Meyers, trombone; Margaret J. Willoughby, flute; Don Vetal, cornet; Charles Stewart, clarinet; Sidney Davison, tenor saxophone; Ivan Goldstein, bass; Elizabeth Neal, drum; Patricia Zink, saxophone; Dick Richardson, clarinet.

Pictures of present band members and the names of new recruits will be shown on the first floor next week.

Final Exam Schedule

Senior examinations will be held during regular class periods on June 7 and 8. Seniors will not be in classes after June 8.

All other final examinations will be held on June 11 in the afternoon, June 14 and 15 in the forenoon during the last two regular periods of the class. If your classes meet only two days a week, final examinations will come during the last two class periods.

Jack Schoof Artistic Junior

Jack Schoof, a very talented junior, has been studying art in school for three years. He is especially interested in oil paintings, especially sea scenes in blues and greens. Jack is a very versatile artist, since he has done work in pastels, charcoals, water colors, silhouettes, and pen and ink drawings. After high school he plans to go into commercial art work.

His hobbies are skating, fishing, swimming, and art—especially art. Of the three hours that Jack goes to school he takes art two hours, so it is easy to see how interested he is in his chosen profession.

Student council meeting! Where? Room 20-A. Designing for the senior annual—Room 20-A. One time court room, 20-A. Studying individually or practicing for programs—Room 20-A. Private music lessons—20-A. Oh, yes, fellow students, we could go on for hours just listing the uses of that room down the hall on the second floor. It is small but certainly proves the old adage, "Good things come in small packages." We could call it a utility room, but that does not seem appropriate. Yes, anytime there's a meeting scheduled and you don't know the place to go—it's Room 20-A.

Civilian Defense Speaks To 19,980

The Civilian Defense Speech Bureau, consisting of Mr. Latture's speech classes, has appeared before an estimated total audience of 19,980 people on twenty-two occasions consisting of defense rallies, churches, and public organizations in town, and school assemblies. The Bureau spoke for the Wayne and Northville bond and stamp drive contests, the Kiwanis, the Woman's Club, the Presbyterian Church, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Scrap drive and for many other occasions.

There are ninety different people in the Bureau who spoke at least once, but there are about a dozen main speakers.

Credit should be given to the group for their help in bringing the school quota for the second war loan drive up to the $84,000 mark.

Juniors and seniors saw some becoming pictures of themselves at the get-together Friday, especially the one of Joyce Tarnutzer.

The Senior Girl Reserves held a Girl Reserve Sunday at the Presbyterian Church last Sunday. The girls are planning to attend church once each month in a group.

Mrs. Sanders Addresses G. R.'s

The Girl Reserves in a union meeting had Mrs. Leonard Sanders as their speaker, Wednesday noon. The girls all meet together one noon each month for a special service. Mrs. Sanders spoke on the vital topic of racial prejudices. She stressed the point of the danger in prejudices and the degree to which all other races outnumber the white. MEMORIAL DAY.

Sunday is Memorial Day, the one day during the year set aside for Americans to commemorate the heroic deeds and sacrifices of those who made possible the Republic under which we live—the Republic for which our boys of today are shedding their blood on all the continents of the earth.

In this year of gravest national concern, a year of sorrow, misery, fear and death, it is strange, indeed, that we are entering into the sanctity of this sacred holiday with the blue skies above America so clouded that days seem almost as dark as nights.

They are clouds of greed, clouds of hate, clouds of class issues, clouds of isms, strikes, graft and downright thievery.

Alleged "labor" leaders who never toiled in their lives, tie up great munition factories so that they can gain both political and financial advantage. Favorite beneficiaries of the New Deal get war contracts at thievery prices. There are no blaring trumpets and marching bands to instill patriotism.

Meanwhile the true American mothers and fathers of America sacrifice as did the patriots of '77 and '61 so that our country might live. Our American boys freely offer their young lives so that America will remain the land of the free and the home of the brave.

They die while scoundrels at home by every conceivable scheme and trick, take from the pockets of the taxpayers every dollar they can get, whether it be through strikes or war contracts or downright graft.

Yes, the sky over America in this Memorial week period is clouded. It is black and it is depressing.

But America has had other days when the light of liberty burned dimly. And ALWAYS, America has emerged from these dark, despairing periods a greater and better country.

Clouds always blow away and some day the skies will clear, the sun will shine, the grafters will be punished, the cruel, vicious and unpatriotic, greedy labor politicians will suffer the tortures of a public scorn for their deeds of sabotage in these desperate hours of a national crisis.

Our fighting boys will come home to rebuild a new America, just as did the men of the Colonial army after the war of the Revolution and the men of the Grand Army of the Republic following the Civil War.

And may God speed the day when the boys now wearing the uniforms of the army, marines and navy will be the public leaders, officers and business men of the new America that will arise from the ashes of the new deal experiment devoted to the creation of class hatreds, money grabbing, crop scarcity and punishment of all who do not goose-step to the turn of the administration in power.

When the soldier-sailor lads of today are in command of America, this will again be truly the land of the free and the home of the brave.

They are shedding their blood for our country and when they have won, they are entitled to rebuild it in the kind of freedom they are now sacrificing to win. And when that time comes there will be no clouds in the sky on Memorial Day.

St. John's Plans Celebration

Church Becomes Self Supporting

St. John's Episcopal church in Plymouth is preparing to celebrate the passing of another milestone along its road. This Mission was founded in 1912 by the Rev. Henry Midworth, who had charge of services here until 1920. In the 31 years since the beginning of St. John's the work has been carried on by a succession of faithful clergymen and lay-readers who have helped the congregation to carry on in spite of conditions which were sometimes very discouraging. The foundations of the Mission have been well laid and the members are now ready to take another step forward in building a more useful church life in our city.

Since the Rev. Francis Tetu came to St. John's as resident vicar last fall the membership has grown amazingly and the financial condition has improved to the point that the Mission is now out of debt. Moreover, it now becomes an independent Mission and no longer will receive financial aid from the Diocese of Michigan. This forward step will be celebrated by the congregation on Wednesday evening, June 2, at the church. A potluck supper at 6 p.m. will pave the way. At 7:30 a short service of thanksgiving will open the program. Guests of honor from out-of-town who will attend and congratulate the Mission will include Archdeacon Leonard P. Hagger, in charge of missions for the diocese, and Mrs. Hagger, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Whittlesey and Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Plant of Bloomfield Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lord of Highland Park. The latter three gentlemen are lay-readers of the Episcopal church and have contributed much in time and service to St. John's. The program will include singing and other social features. It will also signal the start of a campaign to raise the additional funds necessary to insure the self-supporting condition of an independent Mission. About five-sixths of the church support has been coming from the local membership, so it should be no hard task to raise the balance needed.

The progress of the work at St. John's church since Mr. Tetu came to Plymouth in October has been exceedingly satisfactory to him, to the members and to the diocese. It is felt that under the impetus of the growing numbers, freedom from debt and independent status, this church can take a larger and more effective place in the religious and community life of Plymouth.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

5 Ocean Navy

When Pearl Harbor burst upon us our great expanse of territory was protected by a one ocean navy of about 350 first line ships with an addition of an approximate number building.

Now we are in a five ocean war and we are required not only to pay for the building of enough ships of the line but also for hundreds of Liberty ships and auxiliary craft. The amount of money you invested in War Bonds when we had a one ocean navy was all right then, it isn't enough now. Buy more and more War Bonds.

Babson Says--

Tremendous New Developments To Come

Babson Park, Mass., May 28. My readers should remember, particularly when making investments, that some industries are always declining whereas other industries are showing healthy growth trends. During the war we have been in a kind of new industrial revolution. Our engineers and scientists have developed certain existing principles and made important new discoveries. After the war we all can benefit in our every-day lives from the progress being made in science and industry.

Investors and industrialists who wish to play more-or-less safe have a rather wide choice for their investment capital between the newer stocks and the old-timers. Among the industries which are now in a normal growth period are office equipment, electrical equipment, radio, rubber, electrical utilities, petroleum, building supplies and automobiles. Most of these industries are now concentrating upon war work, but after the war they will resume their customary operations. They may be expected, over a period of years, to grow slowly in their useful services and supplies.

Industries which have more-or-less already "arrived" are characterized by their stability of operation. Among them may be railroading, mining, farm implements, telephone and telegraph, leather, lumber, ice, soap, cosmetics, containers, food, paper, steel and iron, the textiles and anthracite coal. Merchandizing, banking and the printing and publishing industry may also be considered in the stable group. All these groups will be part of the American business scene for many years to come. But sooner or later they may proceed to the point where radical new developments will force them to change their methods or products or else they will enter a period of declining usefulness.

There is also a midway group which will perhaps reflect, over the long pull, new growth and expansion. These include lighting and heating fixtures, bituminous coal, farming, suburban transportation, food preservation, photography, pulp products and home appliances. We all know that the lighting of factories and office buildings has improved immeasurably in the last few years. Further strides will be made in this field until perhaps the ordinary electric light fixture, as we know it, will be a veritable antique.

Bituminous coal is already giving us many new types of products of a plastic nature. It is still, when easily accessible, a most efficient source of electric power. Farming through chemurgy has an incredible future both from an industrial and food point of view. If space permitted I could go on and outline further new developments that will be made in the glass industry and in other lines.

Industries in another classification are literally in the cradle. They may become to our grandchildren what the telephone, the automobile and the airplane have been to us. They include television, wired photography, electronics, pre-fabricated houses, synthetic fibres, safe meeting, unanimously voted to discontinue the custom of sending flowers to their sick members, and to contribute the money thus spent to the war relief fund. As a result of this decision, ten dollars was voted for the patriotic drive.

Maxwell Moon of Highland Park, and a former Plymouth boy, left last Friday for Fort Wood, New York, where he entered the meteorology department of the government service. Mrs. Moon will stay with her parents during her husband's absence.

On May 29th from 1:30 to 5:00 o'clock will be held a Mother Goose Market in Salem Town Hall. All market stalls will be occupied by characters found in Mother Goose book. Old King Cole will be there, Queen of Hearts will have tarts, candy and hearts to sell; Mistress Mary, a fine display of flowers. The Farmer's Wife will have everything pertaining to the farm; The Little Old Woman will have dusters, caps, aprons, etc.; Little Miss Muffett, cottage cheese, butter-milk, etc.

Bert McKinney of Livonia Township and Miss Irene Angell of Northville were married in Detroit Saturday May 18. After the ceremony the young couple went to the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McKinney where a sumptuous wedding supper was served. The groom has been a popular clerk in the Bentley store at Elm for several years, and is one of the young men who leaves here tomorrow for Camp Wheeler, Georgia. The bride is one of Northville's esteemed young ladies.

The Newburg Patriotic Society met at the pleasant home of C.E. on Maple street, Monday evening.

The bird carried a message wrapped around its right leg, but was so shy they were unable to get near enough to it to remove it. The bird seemed very tired and was lame in the leg carrying the message. They fed it several times while there and on Tuesday evening it disappeared.

A fine spirit of patriotism was shown Tuesday evening when the Lady Maccabees, at their regular Ryder on Plymouth Road, Friday evening. There were eighty present, eleven of them being young veterans of 61" who enjoyed talking over old times.
