Norma Leslie Becomes Bride Of Massachusetts Resident

Exchanging marriage vows at a 6 o'clock ceremony officiated by the Reverend Henry Welch at the First Presbyterian church Saturday evening, November 17, were Norma Arlene Leslie, daughter of Mrs. Elsie M. Drake of 234 West Ann Arbor trail, and William Walter Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Fletcher of Graniteville, Massachusetts.

A street-length dress of beige lace with teacup sleeves, sweetheart neckline and tiered skirt of five-point lace darkening to shade of cocoa brown was worn by the bride. Complementing the ensemble was a beige, feathered hat with waist-length veil and shoes of matching shade. She carried white baby mums centered with a large orchid.

The bride was given in marriage by her stepfather, Lawrence D. Drake, and was assisted by her sister, Mrs. June E. Bell, as matron of honor. Services of best man were performed by Harold H. Leslie, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Bell wore a light blue dress with angora trim, black accessories and pink carnation corsage. Mrs. Drake's selection for her daughter's wedding was a beige dress with matching accessories, also accented with a pink carnation corsage.

After the ceremony a reception for the immediate family and friends was held at the Drake residence, on West Ann Arbor trail. For going away, the new Mrs. Fletcher wore a beige wool suit with brown accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. Destination of the wedding trip was Massachusetts where the couple will be making their home in Graniteville.

The bride has been employed by Michigan Bell Telephone company since graduation from Plymouth high school in June 1955. The bridegroom graduated from Westford academy and attended Lowell Technological school in Massachusetts. He was discharged November 1 following completion of three years service with the U. S. Marine Corps.

To Use 'Mitten' Tree to Aid Needy

Residents are being asked to participate in an unusual Yuletide benefit project—that of trimming a "mitten" tree for the needy.

An evergreen is being placed in the lobby of the First National Bank, Main street, on Friday, November 23, for this project being sponsored by Senior Girl Scout Troop 3.

The tree will have starting decorations of mittens made by the Scouts. It is hoped that residents will add to these either home-made or factory-made mittens and gloves which will be turned over to local Goodfellows at Christmas-time for distribution to the needy. Any excess will be sent to the American Friends Service committee for distribution overseas.

All sizes from infants through adults may be used. Each pair of mittens placed on the tree should be fastened together and marked as to size. The tree will remain in the bank building for two weeks, Friday, November 23—Friday, December 7.

Mrs. William Edgar and Mrs. E. P. Light, troop 3 leaders, are supervising the project, with each troop member to contribute a pair of mittens. Other Scouts will join in the endeavor.

NEW ROUTE TO HEALTH

By C. C. Wiltse
Registered Pharmacist

Progress in the treatment of disease is achieved by various means. One method is to use an established drug in a new way by taking advantage of our knowledge of human physiology. It has long been known that certain substances can pass through the inner lining of the mouth directly into the circulation without being swallowed. This is called "buccal absorption."

One of the substances that possesses that quality is vitamin A, the anti-infective vitamin. The problem of making a tablet containing a potent amount of vitamin A which would slowly dissolve in the mouth, was recently solved. As the tablet dissolves, it bathes the inner lining (mucous membrane) of the mouth.

The vitamin A passes through the membrane into the fine blood vessels underneath. In this way the vitamin A enters the blood stream and is carried to all the outer and inner linings of the body, including the skin, the conjunctiva or inner lining of the eyelids, the vagina, the nasal passages, and other parts of the body.

Another advantage of the slowly-dissolving tablet is that it permits the vitamin A to come into prolonged contact with oral sores or ulcers. The new, slowly dissolving tablet, made for buccal absorption, by-passes the stomach and the liver. Its full strength is thus largely available for immediate effect on diseases of the skin and mucous membranes. Your doctor knows which diseases respond to vitamin A. He can now prescribe the buccal tablet, available at our pharmacy, for the new route to health!

This is another in a series of informative advertisements appearing in this paper each week, presented by Community Pharmacy, 330 S. Main.

Nipp-Ranney Vows Spoken

Shirley Ann Ranney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Crump of Francis street, and Glenn Nipp, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Nipp of Plymouth road were united in marriage at a ceremony held Saturday evening, November 10, at 8 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents.

The Reverend W. A. Palmer, Jr. of Spring Street Baptist church performed the double-ring ceremony which was attended by members of the immediate families of the couple.

For the rites the bride wore a street-length dress of two-tone blue taffeta, its fitted bodice styled with V-neckline and trimmed with matching lace. Completing her ensemble were shoes of matching shade and corsage of white roses.

The couple's only attendants were the bridegroom's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nipp. After the reception which followed the ceremony in the bride's home, the couple left for their new residence on Haggerty in Wayne.

Another Plymouth

Today, a bowling green exists on the wide expanses of the Hoe, where Drake is reputed to have finished his famous game of bowls before giving chase to the Armada. His statue stands nearby and looks out over the waters in which he sailed.

During the last war, practically the whole of the shopping center of Plymouth was destroyed by bombing, mainly on two disastrous nights in March 1941. Less than three hours after the then King and Queen had left the city, places they had visited were razed. Shortly afterwards, Davenport, at the western end of the city was similarly "blitzed" and left a mass of smoking ruins.

Altogether, nearly 5,000 buildings were destroyed, including 3,500 homes and 500 shops. Over a thousand lives were lost and the population dropped drastically as many evacuated.

Faced with this disaster, the city council displayed spirit and foresight for which Plymouth has always been famous. Within six months the city engineers, Paton Watson and Sir Patrick Abercrombie, had agreed to prepare the new "plan for Plymouth" which has now become famous. Although the war was still in progress, work commenced on the plan immediately and it was approved in principle by the council in 1944.

Working with a clean slate, they planned an entirely new city to rise from the ashes. A few historic buildings still remain in the New City Center, such as the Guild Hall which was gutted by fire but is now being restored. St. Andrew's the Mother Church, was also burned out, but open-air services were held in the shell during the war and it has since been rebuilt.

Perhaps the single word "Resurgam" (I shall rise again) which appeared on a sign over the main entrance typifies the spirit of Plymouth during those dark days.

In the new Plymouth, white-stoned modern stores line the main thoroughfare, "Royal Parade," officially opened in 1947 by King George VI and Queen Elizabeth. At the main intersection is a tall flagstaff springing from a cylinder of bronze, which is an exact replica of Drake's famous drum.

During the last few years, the New City Center has steadily extended; new roads, shops and spacious gardens have been built around this Centre point. New housing estates have sprung up on the outskirts and blocks of flats have been built in the Centre to replace dwellings lost during the war. Schools and churches of modern design have followed and now new light industries provide alternative employment to the dockyard.

Today, Plymouth is a modern city with modern ideas—but old traditions (and new buildings) are carefully preserved, and its citizens remember with pride the part which they and their ancestors have played in English and American history through the centuries.

3 Win Turkeys For Thanksgiving

Jessie England of 390 Adams street, Plymouth, has a 15 pound turkey—free—for her Thanksgiving table.

She won it when Chamber of Commerce secretary Ed Hart pulled her name from among hundreds of entries in a "Win Your Holiday Turkey" contest sponsored by Plymouth merchants. She clipped her coupon from The Mail last week and deposited it at Minerva's Womens Wear.

Another turkey, a 12-pounder, went to Fred Lute of 19250 Newburg road, Livonia. And third prize, a 10-pounder, was won by Olga Landau, 674 Maple, Plymouth. She also deposited her entry at Minerva's, while Mr. Lute placed his with Bluford Jewelers.

The contest was open to everyone but employees and families of the sponsoring merchants and of The Plymouth Mail.

130 Attend

in detail the "radial" zoning plan that was proposed to the board last week in a petition from himself and others living in that part of the township.

This proposal takes exception to the recommendation that children in that area should be transported to Gallimore when buses carrying high school students go by Bird school.

The proposal made by Baker and others also points out that if transfer of students must occur, that entire grades should be temporarily moved intact, but that they still be considered part of Bird school, and that all extracurricular activities remain at Bird.

Richard Wernette, 387 Adams, strongly defended the position of the school board in having to make boundary line changes. Now having a youngster attending Bird school, Wernette said that if a change to Starkweather "is for the best of all the children in the system, that's where he should go." He added that he didn't feel that his property values would change.

"There are some people here tonight who think that Starkweather school is not as good as others—and I take exception to that 100 per cent," Wernette exclaimed. There was loud applause twice during his talk.

Another of the proposals made by the boundary committee was to send some of the sixth grades to the new junior high when it is completed in September 1957. Several citizens expressed their displeasure with having to send their sixth grade children a mile across town when the elementary school is so close.

Still another spokesman suggested that the board should consider adding one room to each wing of the present buildings and that 17-room buildings should be built instead of 13 as "stretch space."

It is not known when the board will make its decision on the boundaries. The board will have a special meeting on December 3 as well as its regular meeting December 10.

The Immaculate circle of St. Michael's church met at the home of Lucille McNulty, 11034 Ingram, Tuesday, November 13, at 8 p.m. Lucille is chairman of this group. Other members present were: Briggitta Cook, Ginny Gamber, Mary Jo Swain, Lou Wight, June Ginter, Irene Richard, Jeanette Ammann, Jean Gizowski, Marie Ayres, Jean Shaunessy, Marie Martin and Marge Boss.

Any local ladies interested in four-part harmony? The "Sweet Adelines" meet the first and third Thursdays of each month at the U.A.W. hall on Plymouth road in Livonia, and welcome new members. If interested come to the meeting at 8 p.m.

The Suburbanites, local bowling team, bowled Wednesday evening, November 14, for the prize of a turkey. Marge Boss kept the prize cool in the freezer. Jean Gizowski of Vermont street, who keeps saying that she "never wins anything" won the turkey with 101 pins over her average. This is a real pleasant way to get the "bird", Jean!

Barbara Jerolaman of Auburndale visited her sister, Margaret Briggs of Vermont street, for the day Wednesday, November 14.

Dave and Jackie Seehlin, 9913 Westmore, went square dancing at Novi Saturday night, November 10.

Some of the women from Vermont street met at the home of Marilyn Rutherford, 32611 West Chicago, Thursday evening, November 15, for an evening of cards. Those present were: Phyllis Wilks, Jeanette Chion, Doris Chapin, Mary Wilson, Margaret Briggs, Jean Snyder, Frances Galassa and Beth Herzl. Refreshments were served at the end of the evening.

Mary and Mike Wilson, 32610 Vermont, had as their guests Sunday, November 11, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murphy of Detroit. The Murphys are Mary's parents. Mike provided the main feature of the dinner—pheasants that he bagged on a hunting trip.

Glenn Snyder, 32610 Vermont, went bowling Tuesday night, November 13, and brought home the bacon in the form of a turkey that he won. Too bad Jean doesn't have a crystal ball, because she'd already purchased the family turkey for the holiday.

It's a baby girl for the Gildays, Vivian and Ed. Maryhelen Joan arrived in A-1 condition Wednesday, November 14, at 3 p.m. in St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor. The baby weighed five pounds, 10 ounces. Kevin hasn't hasn't commented as yet on what he thinks of baby sisters, but he can express just about anything on the subject since he still needs a translator! So next week we can look forward to the Gildays bringing home their brand new baby in their brand new car! How rich can you get?

The Yadloski family of Vermont street visited Marion's cousins, Sally and Ray Hallowell and their four children in Windsor the weekend of November 10.

The Grant P.T.A. held its second meeting Wednesday night, November 14, at 8 p.m. The meeting was called to order by Lillian Wells, temporary chairman.

and minutes were read by the secretary, Edna Mills. Then the meeting was turned over to Mr. Yates who spoke on the program of the school board for the year, new schools, additions to schools, and future school sites. A report was given by nominating chairman, Gordon Dona, followed by introduction of nominees.

Then refreshments were served and everyone had a chance to get acquainted with the candidates. Larry Rosenthal read the proposed by-laws, with discussion of them led by Lillian Wells. The amended by-laws were accepted and the meeting was turned over to the new president, Mrs. Alene Holtquist, who promptly adjourned the meeting. Other new officers elected were:

Nicky Voskuile, teacher vice president; Lenore La Pyrne, mother vice president; Bud Hallett, father vice president; Edna Mills, secretary; Betty Dana, corresponding secretary; Allan Rusch, treasurer; Pat Bowers, historian; Vern Patterson, parliamentarian. Council delegates are Jim Green, Larry Rosenthal and Marvin Lefens.

There was a jewelry demonstration at the home of Dee De Wulf, 9335 Woodring, Tuesday, November 13. Among those present were: Doris Chapin, Loretta Penn, Gladys Wendt, Betty Benarz, and Betty Grachowski. The demonstrator was Jerry McDougall. Cake and coffee were served at the end of the evening.

Mrs. Bernice Roberts, elementary coordinator for Livonia schools, was at Grant school Monday, November 19, at 7:30 p.m. for a meeting to discuss and explain the report card system of the Livonia schools system, and also to discuss plans for the February Parent-Teacher conference which will be held in place of report cards at that time.

It's been comparatively quiet here on Vermont street this week, since the building has just about come to a standstill in this area while all the workers have taken to the hills for the hunting season. The peace and quiet is wonderful, and while we hate to hurt the workers' feelings by saying we don't miss them—we don't!

Rose and David Gibson, 11309 Cranston, attended the Michigan-Illinois football game at Ann Arbor Saturday, November 10.

Marie Heitner, 11320 Berwick, attended the Rosedale School open house Thursday, November 15, and embarrassed the life out of Cheryl, 9½, with her alleged stupidity! During the class Marie asked the teacher a question concerning the use of "a" and "an" preceding the word "hour" and said she thought "an" was correct, but had noticed the other form was often used in newspapers.

After the class was over Marie thanked the teacher, Mr. Newlin, and said she had 'really learned something'. Cheryl came home indignant, telling her mother that she had embarrassed the life out of her by admitting that she, a mother, of all things, didn't know something and had to have the teacher teach her something!

Cheryl said she thought parents, in school, should be seen and not heard. Cheer up, Cheryl, you'll be surprised how stupid you're going to be in 20 years.

Rose Gibson of Cranston street held a card party at her home Wednesday, November 14, to help raise money for equipment for the Boy Scout troop to which her son belongs. The mothers of the boys in the troop decided to take turns inviting seven friends in to play cards and asking each guest to donate a dollar. Dessert and a prize will be featured at these parties. Seems like a real painless way to raise money for a good cause to us! Present Wednesday evening were: Virginia Tasco, Irene Keales, Dorothy Sterrit, Peg Miquelon, Pat Milliman, Millie Hancock, and Nadine Bokelman.

Sorry to hear that Esther Mepyan, West Chicago, has been ill with the flu lately.

Lyndy Core, daughter of Barb and Les Core, 11021 Cranston, is entertaining a fine case of mumps, and we hope we don't have the same news to report on brother Roger in a week or so!

Kay Durivage's brother, Jack Lehnerd, drove up from Youngstown, Ohio and took his three nieces, Mitche, Susy and Ginny back to Ohio with him to visit Grandma and Grandpa Lehnerd for the Thanksgiving holiday. The Durivages reside at 11035 Blackburn.

The board members of the Woman's club staged their annual "Santa's Workshop" at the clubhouse Thursday evening, November 15, with a real big turn-out of persons interested in getting ready for Santa Claus. Bury Hoganson, crafts designer from Dearborn was there and showed the women how to make "Kissing Rings", a real fancy excuse to get in an extra smooch during the holidays.

Various materials went into these rings, including the necessary ingredient, mistletoe, and they turned out quite handsome. There was a display table of ideas brought by the members which included fancy work, gift ware, and decorating ideas. Noticed two felt skirts for little girls that were really wonderful, and one member brought a set of mugs for family use during the holidays which had Christmas wreaths painted on them and also the owner's name. Refreshments of coffee and pumpkin pie were served.

Let's not forget the monthly dance for Rosedale Garden Civic Association members and their guests at the clubhouse this Saturday night, November 24! Mr. and Mrs. Art Cole will be chairman. Assistants will be Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Salmonson. So call the baby sitter, get on your dancing shoes, and let's dance!

Now, I've told you all the things that your neighbors are doing—what are you doing? My number is still GA. 1-5231 and I will always be willing to bend an ear to news from Rosedale Gardens, so let's hear from you, please.

Mrs. Lawrence Lyons entertained members of her contract bridge at dessert on Tuesday in her home on North Main street. Guests were Mrs. Henry Wollens of Farmington, Mrs. Harry Deyo, Mrs. William Bartel, Sr., Mrs. Howard Sharpley, Mrs. Florence Wood, Mrs. Earl Russell and Mrs. Edwin W. Zipse.

FIRST DEER known to be shot by a Plymouthite as the season opened Thursday was Ralph Lefler, 1475 Beck road, (left), who shot this buck at 8:20 a.m. Quincy McCullough, 44067 Gordon, also shows his trophy.

First Deer Kill Returned Here

Plymouth area hunters seem to be getting their share of Michigan's 1956 deer crop, according to early reports received from returning sportsmen. The season opened last Thursday.

Bagging the biggest deer to come out of Alger Woods near West Branch so far this season was Ralph Lefler, 1475 Beck road, who returned Monday with a 194 pound animal. He made the kill 20 minutes after the season opened. Returning with him with a 189 pound deer was Quincy McCullough, 44067 Gordon. Another reader, Jack Dempsey, 14773 Arden, Livonia, shot a 120 pound (dressed) deer 45 minutes after the season opened in Clair county. It was a six pointer. A nine-point, 185-pounder was shot Sunday near Everett by Roy Bennett 551 Irvin.

We had a very pleasant, enjoyable meeting of the Grange last week Thursday evening. A good attendance although it was a disagreeable night. Five new members were obligated into our Order and four more new names were proposed for membership. It seems to bear witness to the fine qualities of our members as a whole that so many seem to find entertainment and help in joining the group. The Grange is a non-partisan, nonsectarian group of fine people who enjoy the fellowship meetings.

We were happy to see Mollie Tracy back in her place as chair-lain after her absence of three or four meetings.

Albert Groth is reported much better, but still confined to his room at the hospital.

At the meeting of Thursday night a short program of Thanksgiving readings was given by Isabel Taylor, Jennie Cramer and Jessie Vealey, followed by an amusing little five-minute barbershop skit by Charlie McConnell, Harmon Gates and Lloyd Fillmore that caused much laughter. Doughnuts and coffee were served in the dining room after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Rienas had as their guest for 10 days Mrs. Rienas' niece, Mrs. Mildred Van Orden from Garden Grove, California, a former resident of St. Paul, Minnesota who came to Michigan to get the "little brown jug" of football fame, won by Minnesota from Michigan this fall.

On Tuesday, November 13, Pomona meeting was held here with about 60 present. The new officers of Pomona were installed by James Marr without a book. He is in his 70's and has been installing the state officers for about 20 years. He was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Turner as installing marshalls.

A spirit of sadness overshadowed the meeting because of the sudden death of Mrs. Ruth McCulloch of Pittsfield. She has been secretary of Pomona for several years and has been a faithful Grange member for 47 years. A very cheerful, pleasant person, she will be greatly missed.

The next meeting of Pomona will be at Pittsfield Grange on January 9. No meeting in December because of Christmas activities.

TIPS for TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

It's a boy, this time, with worries on his mind. He's not allowed to have fun with his friends—no dates, either—and needs a solution to the problem.

Q.—Dear Elinor: I am a boy of 14, in high school, and I have a problem. My mother refuses to let me have a date and has a fit when I ask to go out with my friends, day or night. She won't let girls call me up. Now some of my boy-friends' mother think I am too young for their sons. If you don't publish my letter, I think I'm going to run away. I can't stand it much longer.

A.—Either you want the wrong kind of fun or your mother doesn't like to face the fact that you are growing up. In a situation like this, easy does it! You'll succeed better if you ease into dating gradually, thus easing her worries and giving her a chance to get used to the idea.

Don't run away; you'd lose more than you'll gain. Besides, it's an immature, little-boy gesture. Act grown-up by working out a social-life deal with your mother. Try to have a quiet talk with her, explaining that a quick

Michigan Turkey Crop Hits Million this Year

Under today's methods anytime is turkey time, but the Michigan and national turkey picture is certainly a bright one for the housewife with Thanksgiving just around the corner and the other holidays not far away.

Michigan has a turkey crop of about a million, and nationally there is about 76 million turkeys, an increase of 16 percent over last year. There is an increase in heavy breeds and a decrease in light breeds which means about a fifth more total pounds of turkey meat this year.

The state's million turkeys, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture, will be matched with an additional million shipped in from other producing states. The value of the state's turkey production amounts to only about 8 percent of the total for all poultry products, which is about $74 million.

Health and Beauty

EATING FOR BEAUTY

Listening to a group of ladies talking, the writer is impressed that one of the most absorbing topics of conversation is cooking recipes. Most of the interest centers around desserts and foods that are mixed and combined with condiments to make them taste good.

Civilized races have gotten so far away from the simple food provided by nature, that it is no longer palatable to them, unless seasoned with condiments. Probably no race of people in the world suffers so much from constipation, colitis and intestinal disorders as the Americans.

In our own country, malnutrition is evident among the rich as well as the poor. There is no state in which there is any excuse for this. Vegetables of every kind, as well as many fruits, will grow if planted and given reasonable care. Every little farm should provide milk and eggs in abundance for the needs of the family.

Instruction in the care of the body must begin in the schools and homes of the nation if our people are to be healthy.

The prospective mother should be instructed how to eat properly, in order to put the right material into the teeth of their unborn children. Calcium or lime enters largely into the formation of sound teeth. She should eat fresh leafy vegetables, beans, fruit, milk, etc. The diet should be rich in lime and phosphorus. Only in this way will the child form sound teeth.

The baby should have milk, at first breast milk is best; fruit juices and cod liver oil with plenty of sunshine. If this regimen were carried out, the expensive dental clinics could probably be dispensed with in a few years.

The average child goes to school after a breakfast of hot biscuits (white), a piece of bacon and a cup of coffee if he wants it. The families who can afford that sort of diet could provide milk instead of coffee, whole wheat instead of white flour. Eggs could be substituted for bacon every day or two. Some butter could be served also.

A supper of fruit, milk, whole wheat bread, or oatmeal would spell the difference between undernourished, sick children and healthy ones.

Get 'Em Wholesale

The guest watched with amusement as the young son of the house amused himself by driving nails into the furniture. Recovering a bit from the shock, he turned to his host and asked: "Joe, isn't that an expensive pastime your son has? How can you afford it?"

"Oh, it's not bad?" answered the father. "We get the nails wholesale."

National Catholic Music Educators To Convene at U-D

The Michigan chapter, National Catholic Music Educators association (N.C.M.E.A.), extends a cordial invitation to music educators—priests, religious and lay, to attend the state convention to be held November 23-24 at the University of Detroit, Student Union building.

Addresses, demonstrations, departmental programs and concerts scheduled for the two-day conference will cover various aspects of music education, such as liturgical music, elementary school music education, vocal problems at high school level, and instrumental—string and band.

Following an address by the Very Rev. Msgr. Carroll F. Deady, superintendent of Detroit Parochial schools, several outstanding music educators will participate in other parts of the program. They are:

The Rev. Cletus P. Madsen, national N.C.M.E.A. president, St. Ambrose college, Davenport, Iowa; Mary LeBow, Wayne State university, Music Education Dept.; Sister Jean d'Alexandrie, S.N.J.M., St. Mary Academy, Windsor; Leo Lemke, Ph.D., Wayne State university and Nicholas Sabia, music instructor, Lansing schools. Harry Seitz, Ph.D., will chair a panel discussion on "Standards in Music," theme of the convention. Demonstration concerts will also be given.

Representatives from elementary schools, high schools and colleges, as well as music students are urged to attend.

CORRECTION

An unintentional error occurred in the Grand Opening announcement of the Margolis Nursery Variety and Gift Store, instead of "9600 Cherry Hill Rd. between Sheldon and Goffredson Rds." the ad should have read "9600 Cherry Hill Rd. between Goffredson and Prospect Rds." We regret any inconvenience this may have caused the parties concerned.

For Holiday Glamour Try A Tetrizzini

An elegant buffet dish which makes excellent use of planned holiday leftovers is Turkey Tetrizzini, a lyrical combination of turkey, mushrooms and a pale cream sauce smoothed with evaporated milk and livened with sherry.

Glamorous as the famous soprano from which it takes its name, Turkey Tetrizzini teams beautifully with a tart salad, hot coffee and a pretty dessert for an easy and effective buffet. The evaporated milk adds creaminess and serves as the perfect blending ground for the delicate turkey and mushroom flavors.

TURKEY TETRIZZINI

|-----------------------------------|--|
| 1 can (3 or 4 ounces) mushrooms   | 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco                           |
| 1 cup evaporated milk             | 2 cups coarsely diced cooked turkey            |
| 2 tablespoons butter or margarine | 1 to 2 tablespoons sherry, optional            |
| 2 tablespoons flour               | 2 cups (4 ounces) cooked macaroni or spaghetti |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt                 |  |
| 1 chicken bouillon cube           |  |
| 1/2 teaspoon monosodium glutamate |  |

Drain mushrooms; reserve liquid. Add enough water to liquid to make 1 cup. Combine with evaporated milk. Melt butter in saucepan. Remove from heat and blend in flour, salt, bouillon cube and monosodium glutamate. Gradually add evaporated milk mixture and stir over low heat until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Add Tabasco, turkey, mushrooms, sherry and macaroni, and bring to serving temperature. If desired, sprinkle with chopped ripe olives.

YIELD: 4 to 6 servings.

Serve Guests This Delicious Apricot Torte

Coffee is a natural when it comes to committee meetings—it seems to be the one thing that everyone can vote for before adjourning. And we think that Apricot Torte is another real natural that you can serve with coffee when the committee comes to your home.

Apricot Torte will most likely be the focus for your recipe-minded members. No wonder—everything about it is different and enticing. Its apricot tang is complemented by almond flavoring and sour cream. The torte's crunchiness is something special too—it comes from that old breakfast standby, shredded wheat. Accented with a ring of whipped cream, the handsome dessert served with fragrant coffee, will surely help to make your meeting stimulating and successful.

APRICOT TORTE.

- 5 shredded wheat biscuits
2/3 cup sugar, divided
1/4 cup melted butter or margarine
1 No. 2 1/2 cup apricot halves

Buying Notes

When buying Hubbard squash, be sure to choose those with hard, tough rinds that are yellow or dark green in color. Avoid soft-rinded squash. Medium to large sizes are usually your best bet.

Serve your squash boiled with butter, steamed, baked or in casserole dishes.

Squash Baked with Cream
6 serving size pieces Hubbard squash
2 tablespoons light cream
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3/4 teaspoon salt
Pepper

Pierce squash with sharp fork. Rub with salt and pepper and place in greased baking dish. Place one teaspoon cream on each squash piece and crumble one teaspoon butter or margarine over each.

Bake in hot oven (400°F.) 45 minutes or until tender and brown.

Yield: Six servings.

You may substitute undiluted evaporated milk for the cream if you wish.

APRICOT TORTE and plenty of coffee is a combination that will win you a vote of approval when you serve it at your next committee meeting. Something different — shredded wheat is part of the secret of the torte's appeal.

- 2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon almond extract
1 tablespoon sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon

Crush shredded wheat biscuits to fine crumbs (1 1/2 cups). Combine with 1/2 cup sugar and melted butter. Pat about 2/3 of crumb mixture on bottom of greased 8-inch round cake pan or spring form pan. Arrange apricot halves on crumb layer. Combine eggs, sour cream, 1/3 cup sugar, mace and almond extract; pour over apricots. Combine remaining crumb mixture with 1 tablespoon sugar and cinnamon and sprinkle over top. Bake in moderate oven, 325°F., 25 minutes or until set. Cool. Remove from pan. Garnish with whipped cream if desired. Cut in wedges to serve. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Color, Furniture Can Lend 'Spacious Look'

For a small room, if you want to create the greatest illusion of space, you should select cool, light, dull colors and avoid strong color contrasts. Furniture should be small in scale. Be careful not to over-furnish the room. As far as pattern is concerned, use it sparingly.

The arrangement of furniture pieces can add to an illusion of space or destroy it. So, in arranging furniture in a small room, keep it close to the walls in a parallel arrangement with the wall. In that way, you add to the apparent space in the room. The room will seem larger.

Always remember that, with rare exceptions, you do not have to talk.

Now's Time To 'Stock Up' On Apple Pies

Apple pie is known as America's favorite dessert. With apples now so plentiful it is a good time to prepare for future flavorful eating by freezing apple pies.

For such, best varieties are Jonathan, Northern Spy, Rhode Island Greening, or Stayman Winesap. When you prepare these fresh apples, treat the slices to prevent browning and darkening by adding two tablespoons of lemon juice to the fruit for each pie. Or, dip the fruit into a solution made from one teaspoon of ascorbic acid, that's vitamin C, and one pint of water.

To avoid a soggy lower crust, roll it thin. Brush the bottom and sides of the lower crust with melted fat before adding the filling. You can use either paper pie plates with metal rims or metal pans. Pies are more like the fresh product when they are baked after freezing. Prepare the pies just as you would for baking except for air vents. Don't cut those in the top crust until after the pie is removed from the freezer and ready for actual baking.

Pies freeze faster when unwrapped. They are also easier to wrap after freezing. Keep the pie level while freezing and wrap as soon as they have become hard. Then, before wrapping, place another pie plate or cardboard over the top to protect the crust. Wrap in moisture-vapor-proof material, seal and protect with stockinette, heavy paper or paper box.

When you are ready to bake a frozen pie, perhaps six months from now, cut vents in the top crust. Start baking the pie while it is still frozen. The oven temperature should be high at first, 450 degrees, for 15 to 20 minutes. Then, reduce the temperature to 350 degrees and bake until golden brown.

Hostess Job to Blend Guests' Ideas, Notes Social Scientist

One of the best ice-breakers at a party is a dramatically conceived decorative scheme, experienced hostesses have found.

If conversation is becoming a lost art in 1956, it is the hostess' function to help restore it. Often she finds that unusual fabrics in a coordinated decorative scheme will make an effective conversation piece.

Once the guests are at ease, the hostess should help keep the conversation flowing by providing a relaxed atmosphere for good talk. "The hostess should act as catalyst, blending the ideas of the guests. She is not there to express her own views," according to Dr. Samuel Hayakawa, internationally known social scientist and expert on word meanings.

Good conversation, he says, grows out of subjects where the participants agree on large principles but disagree over particular details, and it's the hostess' job to lead the conversation in this direction.

"Six or eight is the best number of guests at a party," Dr. Hayakawa says. "That's small enough for each person to have some contact with all the others."

Good listening is as important as good talking. Listening involves more than remaining silent while you try to think of what to say next; it means actively projecting yourself into the speaker's point of view, sharing his thoughts and drawing him out with questions.

"Most of us most of the time are chiefly concerned with getting our own views across, and we tend to find other people's speeches a tedious interruption of the flow of our own ideas," Dr. Hayakawa observes.

People who ramble should be prepared, and able, to lose money.

Foundations to Evening Clothes Reflecting Comfort Emphasis

There was a time when comfort was the least considered element of fashion. However, designers have come to realize that, when a lady is not comfortable and relaxed in her clothes, it is impossible for her to look her best.

Naturally, the first item of clothing to be considered is a properly-fitted foundation garment. There are so many styles and designs on the market that there is no excuse for being uncomfortable in bras, girdles or even corselettes. Keep trying until you find the one designed with your type of figure in mind.

The requirements of a young girl of 16 and a mature woman of 40 are not the same. The corselettes found in fine stores are a boon to the mature woman. Made of nylon elastic, they are tough and strong but, at the same time, light, cool and comfortable.

The corselette will be more expensive than the girdle bought for a young girl, but is probably the most important single piece of clothing to be chosen. It is just what the name implies, the foundation for your other clothes.

Not only have foundation clothes been made more comfortable through the years but street clothes, play clothes and evening clothes, as well. Top designers have tried, in recent years, to put over uncomfortable designs as high style, only to find that American women will not accept them. This should be considered a feather in our caps.

A good excuse for not doing something is the way to have nothing to do.

For the price of a package of pins* you can dry 2 full loads of diapers in your electric clothes dryer. Dryer-dried laundry is finished quick as a wink so babies get by nicely with smaller layettes. Soft, fluff-dried washables last longer, too, with gentle dryer care. Smart homemakers know you can . . .

Lobby Exhibits Commemorate Special Events

Exhibits in the new show case in the main entrance at Plymouth high school will commemorate various occasions, among them Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and graduation by housing displays depicting these occasions.

The project, sponsored by the National Honor society and headed by Seniors Wayne Huber and Ann Gaddard, will include participation by the freshmen, sophomores, junior and senior classes plus various departments and clubs on a weekly basis.

The new display cases, built to house exhibits and modernize and beautify PHS, were purchased by funds donated by the Plymouth Alumni association.

The association originally had set aside the money for a scholarship fund but after careful thought and consideration on the part of students and faculty it was decided that a display case would be of most benefit to students, teachers and visitors alike. The cases, made by a local cabinet making firm, include an electric outlet.

Student Group To Attend Model U.N. Assembly

A delegation from Plymouth high school will attend the Eighth Model United Nations assembly (MUNA) at Hillsdale college, Hillsdale, on March 22-23.

The delegation will consist of three students, one alternate and one adult advisor. The model session will be sponsored by the International Relations club of the college and local Rotary Club.

Each school will be assigned a country which it is to represent. Some of the suggested items to be taken up are: Cyprus and Suez issues, representation of China, new members, technical assistance, race relations in South Africa, and perhaps some phase of the Atomic Energy Program.

At the first plenary session a general debate on two controversial issues will be taken up. Friday night a banquet will be held in conjunction with the Rotary club featuring a speaker of note. Saturday morning, the committees hold their second sessions and will finish up their resolutions. These are brought to the second plenary session and disposed of by the junior and senior classes. Students to attend will be chosen from volunteers of the junior and senior classes.

Start Coin, Stamp Club

The Coin and Stamp club, a new organization, has been started at Plymouth high school. Anyone with a genuine interest in coins and stamps may join regardless of whether or not he has a collection.

The club will have alternate meetings once a month, during noon at school and the following month at a member's home to see collections. The club at present has 12 members and is sponsored by Ed Brown, commercial teacher.

Members of the Future Homemakers of America Club, sponsored by Mrs. Jean Ross, are filling a Thanksgiving basket, which is their annual project, to be given to a needy family. The basket will contain a turkey with all the trimmings.

The Quill and Scroll Club is accepting new members. To be eligible to join a student must be a junior or senior with a B average and have at least 50 inches of published material. The president of the Club is Kay Porter and secretary, George Ann Bauer. The Club is sponsored by Miss Elizabeth McDonald, journalism teacher.

Pick Captains To Cheerlead Cage Season

Joan Bassett, senior, and Marianne Palmer, sophomore, were chosen cheerleaders for the basketball season at a meeting held November 9 in the girls' locker room.

Others on the squads are: For varsity; Janet Spigarelli, Carol Clark, Jeanette Foreman, Shug Watson and Cynthia Balfour; Junior Varsity; Karen Lent, Linda Heric, Betty Argo, Elizabeth Calhoun and Marilyn Richwine.

The varsity squad bought material to make new uniforms for this year's season. The money was received from the "Seahorse Swing", dance sponsored by the Cheerleaders and Water Waves, November 9.

The junior varsity group is using the Varsity's white skirts, which were used last year. Both squads have new cheers and will use the shakers, bought for this year.

Captain for the football season were Carol Clark, varsity, and Linda Heric, junior varsity. Mrs. Louise Cigle, girls' gym teacher, is the cheerleading adviser.

Starr Commonwealth Boys to Address PTA

Members of Floyd Starr's school, "Starr Commonwealth for Boys" in Albion, will be the program principals at next Tuesday night's meeting of Bird School Parent Teachers association to be held at 7:45 in the local elementary school.

Taking as its slogan, "There is no such thing as a bad boy," Starr Commonwealth has achieved outstanding results in straightening out many teen-age boys who might otherwise become serious problems to society in later years.

Tuesday night's program, to be presented entirely by boys from Starr Commonwealth, will consist of a panel discussion and question and answer period, several short talks, a colored film and quartette presentation.

All PTA members are urged to attend this unusual and highly-informative meeting.

Seek January '42 Grads Of Mackenzie High School

Mackenzie high school alumni association, Wyoming and West Chicago, Detroit, is seeking to learn the whereabouts of any of its January 1942 graduates in this area to complete plans for a 15-year class reunion to be held after the first of the year.

Persons answering this description are urged to write or call Pat Whitton, 30517 Minton, Livonia, GA 2-3508.

Honor Roll Additions

Plymouth junior high school has announced the following additions to its all-A honor list published in last week's issue of The Mail: Janet Graham, Karen Rank and Carol Baker.

Other all-A students, whose names previously appeared, were Linda Cockrum, Charles Ellis, Marq Hulsing, David Raaflaub, Gerald Fisher, Steve Hayskar, Ann West and Kathy White.

A diet may be good for the health but a good menu can do wonders also.

Melon-Seed Fight at White House

It happened one suppertime in the White House dining room between the President and Mrs. Truman. Margaret Truman reveals many such warm, human incidents in Souvenir, the open-hearted story of her life. You'll chuckle at the frank way Margaret discusses her mother and father—and what it's like to hobnob with royalty, to live in high Washington society. Souvenir comes to you in your Detroit Free Press on Monday, Nov. 26.
