Bids Taken for Township Water Expansion

Colony Sub Petitions For Sewer

A petition signed by 47 property owners was presented to the Plymouth Township Board last week asking that sanitary sewer facilities be made available to Plymouth Colony homes.

The subdivision, located on the west side of Sheldon Rd. next to the City limits, has individual septic tanks.

Melvin Fuelling, 11767 Priscilla Lane, was spokesman for the property owners and presented the petition. The petition noted that the septic tank tiles are full of water and that unfavorable ground conditions prevent necessary seepage.

The petition asked that the Board immediately make a survey to determine what action can be taken to correct the condition.

It was pointed out by the Board that some money may be available from the surplus remaining from the $790,000 sewer project completed this year. The Board asked that their consulting engineer, Herald Hamill, conduct a study of the area to determine what can be done and to establish a cost.

Hamill noted that it would be possible to connect a line to the present sewer which comes as far west on Ann Arbor Rd. as Sheldon Rd., but that such a connection could not be made until the State Department of Health lifts its sewer ban. This ban will not allow further sewer connections until interceptor capacity is increased.

Supervisor Roy Lindsay said this week that the Plymouth Colony problem is very serious. "They have a high water level there and the sewage beds are full of water."

Michigan's governor-elect, Lt. Governor John B. Swainson, is a resident of Plymouth Colony. His name was not on the petition.

The recently completed sanitary sewer project did not extend as far west as Plymouth Colony, but Supervisor Lindsay said this week that two other subdivisions which had previously rejected the sewer are now asking for it. Most Rocker Subdivision homeowners would now like the sewer, the supervisor said, and some Arbor Village people now want it, while others are still against it.

AN OUTDOOR living Nativity scene will bring Christmas to life on the lawn of the Riverside Park Church of God, Plymouth and Newburgh Roads, this Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The Bethlehem story will be enacted by members of the congregation during three performances nightly, 7:30, 8 and 8:30 p.m. The 20-minute performances feature colorful costumes, inspiring music and story. Even live sheep and a goat are in the cast.

Supervisor Says Industry Already Indicates Interest

"The biggest thing that has ever hit Plymouth!" Those were the words of Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy R. Lindsay as he announced yesterday that final steps are now being taken that will assure the Township of an expanded water system that will carry Detroit water.

The supervisor predicts that ground will be broken by the end of February.

Bids were taken last week for the construction. Thirteen firms submitted bids with the lowest coming from the D'Agostini Corp. Their bid was $780,159.06. This does not mean that this firm will be awarded the contract, however.

Bonds will be sold Dec. 29 and will be delivered by Jan. 16. After the bonds are delivered, the construction contract can be signed and work started as soon as the contractor desires. D'Agostini estimated his completion time at 180 days.

It had been estimated that the cost of the new water system would be $1,100,000. With the low bid coming in at almost $20,000 lower than the estimate, Supervisor Lindsay feels that this was an extremely good time to obtain bids.

The proposed new system will be tied in to the present Lake Pointe Village water system. A 16-inch main will be laid from the Lake Pointe water tower to the Detroit Water Board's main that comes as far west as Eckles Rd. on Schoolcraft.

The Township's present water supply coming from wells, will be used only for stand-by purposes. Detroit's water comes from the lake and is considerably softer. Its arrival will be warmly greeted by present users who are plagued with all of the problems connected with extremely hard water.

Supervisor Lindsay said that after the first publicity several months ago concerning the proposed arrival of Detroit water, he has received numerous inquiries, mainly from small manufacturers who are interested in building here.

"They are interested in Detroit city water," Lindsay said. "One said he wanted to put up a $300,000 plant."

The expanded water system will cover Plymouth Township east of Northville Rd. (north of the City of Plymouth) and will go as far west as Sheldon Rd. south of the City. Further expansion can be expected later.

The supervisor predicted that after the water system is complete and the State Department of Health lifts its sanitary sewer ban in Wayne County, Plymouth Township can expect some spectacular growth.

Earlier this year a new sanitary sewer system was completed covering the same general area as the proposed water system. When these two facilities are available, business, industry and subdivisions become interested.

Enlarged Post Office Easily Handles Mounting Volume During Final Days

Plymouth Post Office is braced to handle peak loads this week and for the first time in many years the building is big enough to take care of the entire job.

Postmaster George Timpona declared Monday that up until that day the volume of mail has lagged behind a year ago. But during the first six hours of work Monday starting at 9:30 a.m., 39,000 outgoing pieces of mail had been postmarked, exceeding last year.

This does not include metered mail sent out by business and industry. By the end of the day, 80,000 pieces had been postmarked. Tens of thousands of other letters also poured into the Post Office, but these are not counted.

Thirty-five extra carriers and clerks have been hired for the holiday rush. They work around the clock and there was even a delivery last Sunday.

Helping greatly to expedite the flow of mail this year is the expanded building. Floor space was more than doubled last summer and for the first time in many years the Post Office has not had to rent extra facilities to handle parcel post.

The postmaster said that he believed the lag in mail before this week was due to unemployment and the fact that many people believe that they can complete their mailing during the final week.

Because the next two Mondays will be holidays, The Plymouth Mail will be published one day later the next two weeks. The newspaper will be received in the mail on Thursdays instead of Wednesdays.

The deadline for news and advertisements will be one day later — 5 p.m. Tuesdays.

Plymouth Heights Charter Appears In This Issue

The charter for the proposed City of Plymouth Heights appears in this issue of The Plymouth Mail as Section 4.

Sixteen pages long, the charter appears in its entirety. The charter proposal will be the subject of a special election in Plymouth Township on Tuesday, Jan. 14. Should it be approved, the eastern portion of Plymouth Township from McClumpha Rd. will become the new City of Plymouth Heights.

It's Boar's Head — A la Carte

Yule Tradition Lives On

Six years ago, a woman employee of Terry's Bakery arrived at work one pre-Christmas morning, peered into an oven and came very close to fainting dead away.

What she saw staring out of the oven was the main attraction for a new tradition that was being established by the Men's Council of First United Presbyterian Church — a boar's head.

Last Wednesday night was the sixth annual Boar's Head Dinner. Attended by 160 men and their sons, the dinner is opened by flourish of trumpets. Musicians, gaily dressed in early English costume, lead the procession, followed by the chef carrying the boar's head, a long line of assistant chefs bearing platters of food and the choir singing the traditional Boar's Head Carol.

Most people have heard a little of the boar's head tradition and have seen pictures of the roast pig with the apple in its mouth. Few people have actually seen one — in the flesh.

Actually, the boar is shot in England in those days is almost extinct, but its refined successors do just as well. Bob Lidgard, local meat wholesaler, provides the head which is roasted at the bakery. Attorney Robert Delaney has been chairman of the dinner for all six years and has taken special charge of preparing the head which is decorated with a garland of flowers, an ear-ring attached to one ear and an apple placed in the mouth.

The Boar's Head Dinner as practiced over the ages has usually been a masculine event. Legend has it that a student of Queens College in Oxford University was walking one day in Shotover Forest when a boar charged at him from a thicket. The student was reading Aristotle and instinctively threw the volume at the boar who caught it in his mouth and choked.

The student drew his sword and cut off the boar's head and carried it back to college where it was roasted and eaten. Since that time in the Christmas season, it was the custom among students to roast the boar's head and carcass and eat it. Around this legend there grew up many customs, one of which was the singing of the famous Boar's Head Carol.

The custom was taken over by many of the English rulers, who carried on the tradition.

Today, the boar's head is just for decoration. The

NEWS BEAT

Although many loose ends are still to be tied up, it is almost a certainty that a new shopping center will go up next year on Ann Arbor Rd., at Sheldon, on the City side. Three major stores and seven minor ones are planned. The developer will announce it after signing up the stores, probably in January.

FRACTURES HIP: Miss Edna Allen, retired teacher and principal who has an elementary school named in her honor, fractured a hip Friday as she got out of her car in the Kroger parking lot. A patient in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, Miss Allen underwent an operation Monday.

SAME DAY: Despite the fact that the Mondays after Christmas and New Years are holidays, rubbish will be picked up those days as usual in the City.

PRESSURE ON: The Wayne County Health Department will be handing out court notices soon to 16 City homeowners whose homes still aren't connected to a sanitary sewer. Most are in the City's south end, which has had a sewer now for three years. There are also two small areas where there is no sewer available for homes and septic tanks are in use.

SEEKS LICENSE: Two representatives of the Brunswick-Balke Collender Co., bowling equipment manufacturers, appeared at the Township Board meeting last week to inquire about obtaining a Class C liquor license for a proposed new lane. They were told to check with State Liquor Commission people first. There have been several attempts to obtain the license, which is considered necessary before opening a new alley. They are considering the southwest corner of Lilley and Ann Arbor Rd.

WRONG NUMBER: The "Save Old City Hall Committee" of Detroit has asked the Plymouth City Commission to pass a resolution pleading for rescue of the ancient edifice. The City Commission, which may some day want to tear down its own pre-1900 City hall, decided Monday night not to get involved in Detroit's battles and hurriedly filled the request.

POLICE BEAT: Thieves broke into the VFW Hall on Mill St. Sunday night and got an undetermined amount from the pay phone and juke box. A pair jumped from a car at Chevrolet Spring & Bumper plant the other night, pulled an entire string of outdoor Christmas tree lights from an evergreen, and drove off. Three out-of-town people were injured last Friday in a two-car collision on Harvey St.

A PAGE OUT of old English history is taken each Christmas time by the Men's Council of First United Presbyterian Church. The sixth annual Boar's Head Dinner, held amid fanfare of consumed musicians and chefs, was held again last Wednesday. From left are Keith Burton, William Upton, Sylvester Cooper and James Garber.

Will Tour Russia With Michigan Concert Band

Passports to Russia and other foreign countries, "shots" at the Health Service and the many other details involved in overseas travel are high on the agenda for Larry J. Livingston, 529 Jener, and 93 University of Michigan students.

The University's Symphony Band, under the direction of William D. Revelli, will leave Feb. 18 for an extensive tour of the Soviet Union, several satellite countries and some of the eastern Mediterranean nations.

Larry, a clarinetist with the band, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Livingston. Mr. Livingston is Junior High School band director.

The band will be on tour until the end of May under sponsorship of the United States Department of State, with all expenses covered by the President's Special International Program for Cultural Presentation. Plans are being developed for a concert in New York City's Carnegie Hall on Friday, June 2 to mark the band's return to this country.

A definite itinerary for the Symphony Band is being planned by the State Department but exact dates and places must await word from the Soviet Union as to the length of time and the number of concerts which will be scheduled within the USSR.

Once this information reaches Washington, the possibilities of concerts in Poland, Bulgaria, and Roumania will be surveyed. Egypt is definitely on the schedule and other appearances in the Eastern Mediterranean area will be completed by the State Department.

Travel arrangements are being completed through the American National Theatre and Academy, a non-profit organization chartered by Congress and located in New York City, which provides administrative services under contract with the Department of State.

It was ANTA's advisory committee which recommended the University's Symphony Band for the cultural exchange program, a recommendation that was accepted by the State Department and which also received the approval of the proper authorities within the USSR. The U-M Symphony Band is the first university band to be invited for such a tour.

A doctor and nurse, two interpreters from the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures and a faculty member will also be a part of the traveling party. In all, the group will number 104.

Fire Strikes Guild's Shop At Bartlett

Bartlett School, closed to classrooms several years ago, was hit by a fire Tuesday morning, causing several thousands of dollars in damage to the building and to Plymouth Theatre Guild equipment inside.

The building, located on Canton Center Rd. in Canton Township, dates back to the 1880's.

Canton firemen received three separate calls at around 8:05 a.m. Tuesday from passersby and neighbors who saw smoke pouring from the building.

Chief Fred Korte, Jr. said that the fire started around the oil furnace located in a cement block addition to the building. It spread to the roof area. Water and smoke, however, heavily damaged scenery and costumes of the Theatre Guild.

The two-room school was closed four years ago because the water supply was not good. It was used for storage by the School District and later turned over to the Theatre Guild. Guild President Jerry Thaden estimated that the Guild had $3,000 to $4,000 worth of equipment and costumes in the building.

School Administrative Assistant Melvin Blunk said that the building and school-owned contents are fully insured and that the Guild had some insurance on its property.

Both Plymouth and Canton Township firemen were on the scene two hours.

Firemen Seek Civil Service

Plymouth Township voters will be given the question at the Feb. 20 Primary election of whether Township employees should be placed under Civil Service.

The Township Board voted last week to place the proposal before voters when the Board received a petition asking for the Civil Service System.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Stace

Evening Ceremony Unites Vivian Force - Gerald Stace

Vivian Caroline Force became the bride of Gerald Edward Stace, Dec. 3, at an evening ceremony at the Plymouth Methodist Church. Dr. Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Harvey L. Force and was attended by her sister, Nancy, who was maid of honor.

Anthony Cousino of Plymouth was best man. Bill and John Stace, brothers of the groom, and Laurence Force, the bride's brother were ushers.

Gold vases filled with giant white mums and candelabra decorated the altar. The family pews were marked off with white satin bows.

The groom's father, Alvin Stace, sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's ballerina length gown was of white lace over taffeta. Keeping tradition with the past of "something old," Vivian wore a small locket with a gold cross set in a pearl face, the same one she wore when she was baptized as a baby.

Her flowers, which rested on the white Bible she carried, were made up of white orchids surrounded by baby mums.

The maid of honor wore a gown of royal blue nylon over taffeta and was similar in design to the bride's. On her head rested a dainty tiara, and she carried a bouquet of large and small deep yellow mums.

The mother of the bride was dressed in a navy blue sheath and wore a pink corset. The groom's mother wore a brown and yellow floral print with a corsage of yellow mums.

The Fellowship Hall reception room in the church was simply but beautifully decorated. On each side of the punch bowl stood large, square white candles with a large silver poinsettia at the base of each.

The main table, where the cake was, was decorated with white candles.

Nearly 100 guests from Michigan and Ohio attended. A small reception was held later at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Stace, 11667 Brownell St., for close family and friends.

The bride's going away outfit was a two-piece brown and lavender wool sheath with a matching lavender blouse.

Following their brief Canadian honeymoon the couple settled at their new apartment at 105 N. Union St.

Jean's Jottings

By JEAN CAMPAU

Members of the Plymouth Branch of the Women's Farm and Garden Assn. are happy people these days. Their "Christmas Walk" of last Thursday proved to be an overwhelming success. Some 460 people (around 25 of them men) went on the tour that covered hours from morning until night. Moving from home to home, the visitors saw many unusual and delightful ways of decorating for the holidays.

Not only were the Garden Club members pleased from the standpoint of attendance and the money they took in, but they were happy at the response from their guests. Many called back to certain homes asking about how specific decorations were made. "The people were wonderful," one club member exclaimed. Despite all of the foot traffic, not one house suffered any damage.

The guest registration book contained names from Ann Arbor, Detroit, Ypsilanti, Grosse Pointe, Pontiac, Birmingham and most of the nearby communities. Nine homes were on the tour.

One of the few public dances of the season and probably the gayest is the Symphony Ball, coming up Tuesday, Dec. 27 at the Junior High. The decorating committee is hard at work to carry out their Christmas theme. Several members of the committee are nursing cut fingers suffered while cutting out decorations. So you see, these hard-working Symphony women are going to all lengths to make the event a success — even to donating a few red and white corpuscles.

This is the time of the year that it's nice to pack up the family in the car and spend an evening driving around to enjoy the Yuletide decorations. One of the heaviest concentrations of decorations is in Lake Pointe Village. At the Don L. Koch home on Brentwood there is a Santa-on-the-roof scene that is most unusual. This Santa has just toppled from the chimney and is sprawled on the roof with toys and wrapped gifts scattered.

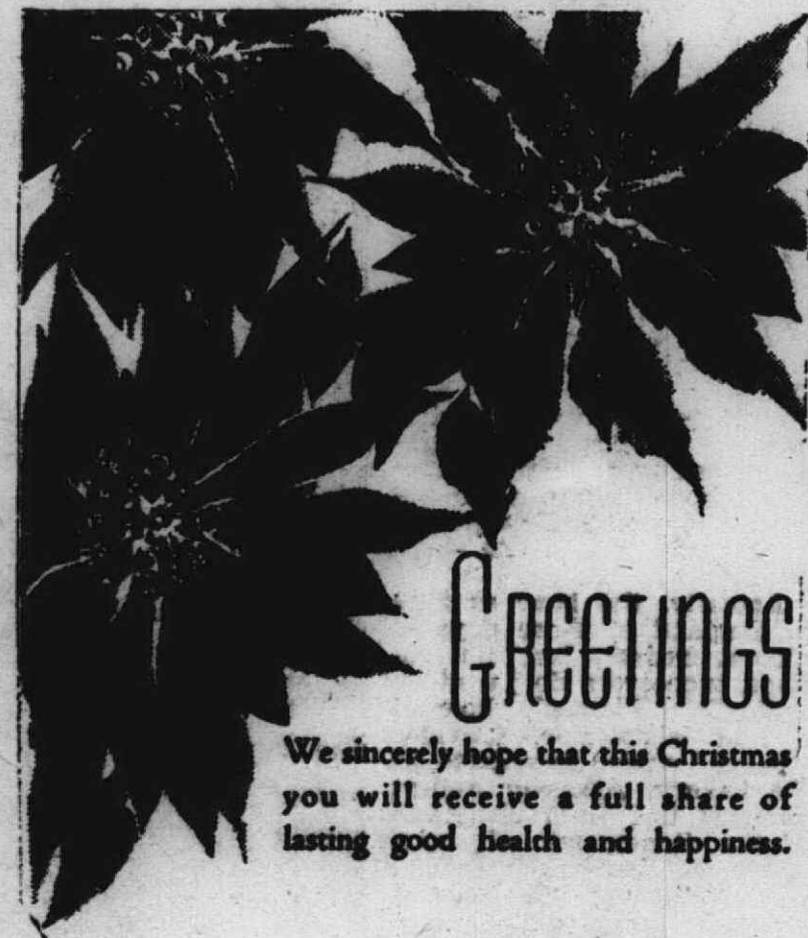

In case one wonders where The Mail is getting those letters to Santa Claus that appeared last week and this, they come from Mr. and Mrs. Russell P. Hoffmann, who in turn get them from the letter by signing Santa's name. They have been doing this for a number of years. One can imagine the joy these letters bring to the kiddies!

Many individuals and organizations this Christmas are sharing the warmth and spirit in their hearts with the patients in Northville State Hospital. In addition to the monthly ward parties groups like the Plymouth Friends, Plymouth Birthday Ladies and the Plymouth Woman's Club have been giving Christmas ward parties.

Mrs. Arthur Jacobs, Mrs. R. B. Stribley, Mrs. Ellis Wylie, Mrs. Robert Fisher and Mrs. John Ing, all members of the Plymouth Friends, assisted the staff greatly before Thanksgiving processing slips and names for the patients of the hospital. An estimated 1,000 names of patients are shared with individuals and organizations. Each name is accompanied by a "hint list" of three or four items completed by the patient or an attendant nurse who knows well a patient's needs.

This "hint list" from each patient then is shared with his next of kin, so that practical, wanted gifts are received by the patients. When next of kin are unknown or cannot be located, the patient's name is shared with an organization or individual in the community.

"Although this extra effort by our employees, patients, and volunteers in preparing and mailing an individual slip for each patient is quite extensive, the importance for each patient to receive what he wants is so important," Philip N. Brown, M.D., hospital superintendent, commented.

GREETINGS

We sincerely hope that this Christmas you will receive a full share of lasting good health and happiness.

TELLING IT TWICE

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI) — Lewis Talianero has his name listed twice in the telephone directory here but under different spellings.

To lessen confusion, Talianero, an attorney, entered his name under the phonetic spelling "Toliver," and, of course, under the true spelling "Talianero."

As expected, Plymouth's swimming team whipped Kimball of Royal Oak last Saturday, but the margin was surprising, 74-31. For Kimball it represented the first dual meet loss in two years. For Plymouth it continued a string of victories that stretches back more than two years.

Happy and wet (after his usual post-meet dunking) Coach John McFall said, "I expected Kimball to be tougher, but our boys did a good job." Part of the job included five team records, four pool records and another that was equaled.

"We still have some tough meets yet," McFall said, "especially Jackson, Fordson and Ann Arbor. Some of the teams in the league (Suburban Six) have good personnel," he cautioned.

Dick Grätzinger had to be good to beat Kimball's Redlin in the 100 yard butterfly and he was. He set a pool and team record of 57.9, while Kimball placed second and third.

Dick Michaels tied a team record of 1:01.8 in the 100 yard backstroke, and Tom Hoffman was third. Phil Bender won the 100 yard breaststroke and Doug Cash was second.

Ron Daley got Plymouth back in the record groove by winning the 100 yard freestyle in 53.3 for a new team and pool record and a teammate Warren Smith was second.

Nick Herrick was second in the diving, which was won by Boothman of Kimball for the Royal Oak school's only first of the meet. Grätzinger added his second meet team and pool record by winning the 200 yard individual medley in 2:16.1. Barry Corwin was third.

Ron Daley set a team record of 2:00.9 in the 200 yard freestyle, missing the pool record by one tenth of a second. Bob Daley was second.

Michaels, Bob Crosby, Herrick and Gould won the 200 yard medley relay and Dave Dunning, Ken Fischer, Bob Koers and Win Schrader won the 200 yard freestyle.

Eight Bentley pool records and two team records topped into history last Thursday, as Coach John McFall's swimming aggregation continued its fantastic fish for fame with a 75-30 win over Bentley.

It's getting routine, but this is the way it went this time: Robert Daley was first in the 400 yard freestyle and set a pool record of 4:31.0. Bill Rossow was second. In the 50 yard freestyle Jim Izett was first in 24.5 (a pool record, naturally) and Bill Britcher was second.

Mostly, however, it was a happy moment, which was arrived at in the following manner in the Plymouth Pool:

Robert Daley sped to a 4:23.0 team and pool record in the 400 yard freestyle to get things started right. Bill Rossow was third.

Dick Grätzinger had to be good to beat Kimball's Redlin in the 100 yard butterfly and he was. He set a pool and team record of 57.9, while Kimball placed second and third.

Dick Michaels tied a team record of 1:01.8 in the 100 yard backstroke, and Tom Hoffman was third. Phil Bender won the 100 yard breaststroke and Doug Cash was second.

SPORTSEEN

BY BILL NELSON

In various semi-humorous attempts at worldlines cynics have said "It matters not how you played the game but whether you won or lost" and in another version "matters not how you played the game, but whether you team got the most points."

The trite saying, of course, is the reverse of the above and, perhaps, has been badly quoted often enough by sophomoric sentimentalists. The popularity of the cynics' approach is understandable.

What brings the subject to mind is the soul stirring basketball game that was played in Plymouth's high school gym last Friday. Bentley, it is no news, won the game 47-31 in the last three seconds.

There will be no attempt here to imply in any way that Bentley was undeserving or that the victory was gained by any dubious methods. It was a wild, thrilling affair a near perfect match on that particular evening. Either team could have won.

Plymouth played a whale of a ballgame, and 1960 far can rightfully get together in years hence and ask each other "Were you there the evening of Friday, December 1, 1960?"

It was simply the most exciting High School basketball game I have ever seen. The officials said, "It is the best game I've officiated in years" and "the teams played pretty much the same way."

Bentley is unbeaten in three games, and Plymouth still has won but one. Bentley is still the league champion and the league leader.

Not down the names of Jim Ralston, Dan Stremiel, John Spigarelli, Dave Palmer and Art Nelson. Because based on prior records, these five lads had no business doing what they did last Friday. They should have been easy victims of Bentley's new drive to league domination.

While you're listing names, note the name Jim Doyle, the Plymouth coach. These people learned something and taught something last Friday night.

They learned that you can play as hard as they did and still lose. They learned you can give everything of yourself and still get beat. And their performance was a lesson to any fan watching that never quitting, while a terrific quantity, is no guarantee of success in any particular endeavor.

In addition, they won something: they won the hearts of those of us who have followed them since the star saw a tremendous spirit rebound time and again as Bentley couldn't quite be sure that Plymouth would roll over. Bentley, in addition to justifiable jubilation, breathed a big sigh of relief when the buzzer went off.

With that one second on the clock, the Rocks were still trying and no one would say at that point that somehow Plymouth might not score again, although in retrospect seems a silly position to have taken.

Maybe all any of us can ask is a battle to fight, a game to be won, and chance to give it all we've got.

And few are the times that any team has been able to breathe new life into the old bromide "It matters not whether you've won or lost, but how you've played the game."

If they do nothing else, this team has made a success this year. It has played its heart out. And, if you'd like another hunch (we predicted Plymouth might win the game last week), I suggest that you make it a point to watch this team of February 3, 1961, when they meet Bentley again.

While you couldn't give away the idea in the post-game Plymouth dressing room, the game was a wonderful Christmas present from the Rock squad to its fans, even if the wrapping was a little stained.

Rocks Set 8 Marks For Bentley's Pool

Eight Bentley pool records and two team records topped into history last Thursday, as Coach John McFall's swimming aggregation continued its fantastic fish for fame with a 75-30 win over Bentley.

It's getting routine, but this is the way it went this time: Robert Daley was first in the 400 yard freestyle and set a pool record of 4:31.0. Bill Rossow was second. In the 50 yard freestyle Jim Izett was first in 24.5 (a pool record, naturally) and Bill Britcher was second.

Dick Grätzinger was first

Nick Herrick won the diving with 68.2 points and Mark Schultheiss was second.

Ron Daley set another pool record (2:05) to win the 200 yard freestyle. Hoffman, Crosby, Herrick and Izett then got together to set another pool record in the 200 yard medley relay. They were timed in 1:53.0.

Dunning, Sweet, Fischer and Benz won the 200 yard freestyle relay, but this was not a pool record!

JV's Beat Bulldogs In 33-31 Thriller

In the excitement of the great sports drama that unfolded in the gym during the varsity game, one almost forgot that earlier in the evening Coach Mike Hoeben's JV's had taken the Bulldogs 33-31 in another exciting game.

The Rocks outscored Bentley 10 to three in the second period and then held on to win. Bentley led at the end of the first quarter 8-6, but trailed 16-11 at the half. With three minutes left in the third quarter and Plymouth ahead 25-12 Dave Gothard and Jim Gavigan were lost on fouls.

Bentley promptly cut the lead to 26-21 at the start of the final period. Jared Stevens led Plymouth with 13 points and Tom Worthington and Gothard each contributed seven. Corky Wyman added six points.

The JVs now have a 2-2 season record and 1-1 league record.

Swim Schedule For Holiday

Holiday time in the Plymouth schools means that the schedule for the swimming pool is changed. Coach John McFall has announced that the pool will be closed during the remainder of this week and on Monday, Dec. 26.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday of next week, there will be open swimming from 1 until 2:30. The pool will be closed Wednesday.

Cagers Great In 47-46 Defeat

Bentley Wins With 3 Seconds Left After Ralston Gives Rocks Lead

With its greatest performance in years Plymouth's basketball team came within three seconds of upsetting heavily favored Bentley last Friday. The surprising Rocks lost 47-46, when Bentley center Greg Mapes tipped in an errant shot with just three seconds left. The lanky Bulldog pushed through from a scramble under the basket.

The basket signaled a wild Bentley demonstration as Rock fans stared in quiet disbelief. Plymouth took time-out with one second left, but it was too late.

The reaction of the crowd was understandable. Only 12 seconds earlier with Bentley leading 45-44, Jim Ralston pumped in a short shot to give Plymouth a 46-45 lead. Rock fans went wild as they sensed victory and Bentley fans were stunned. The unbeaten 1960 league champions appeared on their way to defeat.

It was to Plymouth's credit that they matched Bentley throughout the game. This was a different team from that which performed during the first three games of the season. From somewhere Plymouth had found an aggressive desire to do battle. The game opened routinely enough. As expected Bentley quickly jumped off to an early lead which stretched to 14-7 in the first period. The first hint of what was to come was provided when Plymouth promptly cut this to 14-13 just after the beginning of the second quarter.

The two teams traded baskets until finally Ralston broke a 23-23 tie with a driving layup just before the half ended and to the surprise of everyone Plymouth led 25-23. The third period was close, but Bentley scored seven points to Plymouth's four and led 30-29 at the start of the wild final period.

Both teams scored 17 points in the last period which was as thrilling a finish as has ever been seen in the Plymouth gym. Plymouth went ahead 35-34 early in the period when Art Nelson dropped in a shot from the corner. Dan Stremmick, John provided nine points in quick succession and Plymouth could almost taste victory. With two minutes and five seconds left Bentley trailed 44-37 by seven points. The Rocks stalled until 1:43 was left and Dennis Snarey sunk two foul shots to make it 44-39. Bentley chopped away at the lead again with 1:10 left when John Hawkins sunk a field goal to make it 44-41.

Plymouth missed a couple of foul shots in the fourth period, including a technical foul given to someone on the Bentley bench with a minute and four seconds left. When play resumed Snarey added two more foul shots for Bentley to make it 44-43 with 55 seconds left. With 50 seconds left Pete Boroday sent Bentley ahead 45-44 with a field goal. It set the stage for the final wild exchange between Ralston and Mapes. When it was over Rock headquarters just couldn't believe the game had been lost. One referee said it was "the best game I have handled in years."

 As of now, firemen are the only Township employees who would qualify for Civil Service.
 There are now six full-time firemen, including Chief Howard Holmes.
 Institution of a Civil Service program would mean that a Civil Service Board would be appointed who would hire employees through examination.

United States War Department expenditures during 1949-51 were $632,804. In 1944 and 1945 they were 850 billion each year.

To Issue Temporary License to Cab Firm

Commissioners will issue a temporary permit to Mrs. Geraldine Fisher to operate the Plymouth Cab Co. starting Jan. 1—but for a while Monday night they were somewhat confused about who owned the company.
 Mr. and Mrs. Theodore A. Johnson were once the owners and in 1957 sold the business, license and good will to Ross C. Bush in return for a chattel mortgage. Bush, Northville, sold the business to Mrs. Fisher in April 1960.
 The license was still in Bush's name and it expires the end of this month. John-son's attorney has asked the City Commission to re-issue the license to the Johnsons, since Bush has apparently not made good on his mortgage.
 Commissioners, however, claim that they are entitled to issue the license to whom- ever they please and that since the Fishers own the equipment, it should be issued to them. The mortgage matter between the Johnsons and Bush, they added, is of no concern to the City. But until all legalities are checked, Commissioners voted to issue a temporary license to the Fishers so that the City will have no interruption of taxi service.

Toy-Making for Homeless In 26th Year for Plymouthite

It was 26 years ago that Leo Flowers, 9055 Ball St., decided that he was capable of making many more toys than his son could possibly use.

Handy with tools, Flowers decided that he would turn over some of his excess toys to children who haven't got as many. And so every year since then, the Plymouthite has spent his spare time manufacturing toys and giving them to homeless children at Christmas time.

Two weeks ago he packed up 50 hand-made toys and took them to the Sarah Fisher home on 12 Mile Rd. The orphanage will then decide who should receive which toy and will wrap it up.

In previous years, Flowers has given toys to such places as the Maybury Sanatorium, Lutheran Home and Salvation Army. Most of his toys this year are pull-toys, some of which he designed himself. His new design this year is a clown riding on a rocket.

Flowers makes the toys on several power tools that he has in his basement — a circular saw, jig saw and sander. Mrs. Flowers handles the painting detail.

He also reconditions old toys that are given to him by friends and neighbors. Flowers lived in Detroit when he first began his toy-making hobby. After he made more than his son could handle, he started making them for neighborhood children. Finally, he struck upon the idea of making them for the needy and homeless.

In 1941, the year of Pearl Harbor, Flowers sent his toys to an orphan home in Hawaii.

Flowers has been employed by Burroughs Corp. for 32 years. During World War II he was moved from the Main plant in Detroit to work on the bomb sight at the Plymouth plant. Eleven years ago when Burroughs started making the Sensimatic here, he moved his home to Plymouth.

Seventh Day Adventist Fill 1961 Church Offices

Thirty church offices were filled for 1961 recently when the Plymouth Seventh-day Adventist Church held its annual election.

Named head elder (lay assistant to the minister) for the new year was Francis S. Patterson, 11820 Jarvis, Livonia. Associate elder will be Marvin Nick, 32116 Merritt Drive, Garden City.

Church members elected A. J. Lock, 11704 Haggerty, Plymouth, head deacon and Mrs. Fred Otto, 15596 Maxwell, Plymouth, head deaconess. Each will have two assisting him in the office of deacon or deaconess.

The new Sabbath School superintendent for 1961 will be Mrs. Gene Schille, 8320 Ravine Drive, Livonia. Youth leader for the church will be Mrs. Quincy Miller, 8438 Perrin, Garden City. Church Treasurer will be Mrs. Loren Zimmerman, 730 S. Harvey, Plymouth. Mrs. Francis Patterson will be church clerk, and Dorcas Leader, Mrs. Wayne VanOrman, 41090 Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth.

All church offices are filled by the democratic election processes with the exception of that of the pastor, who is assigned to his Church by the Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists with headquarters in Lansing.

Good Counsel Plans Special Christmas Events

Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church will have their annual midnight Mass this Christmas Eve, commencing with Christmas carols at 11:30 p.m.

At midnight the Solemn High Mass, offered by the pastor, Father Francis Byrne, assisted by Father William Child and Father Daniel of the Passionist Monastery, will be celebrated with gold vestments: chasuble, dalmatic, and tunic. The choir, under the direction of William Grimmer, with David Conrad, organist, will feature a number of seasonal hymns, closing with "Birthday of a King."

Midnight services follow, the chanting including the Mass of Marsh in honor of St. Joseph, Palestrina's offertory motet "O Bone Jesu," and Mauro-Cottone's "Ave Maria" coinciding with the Communion distribution.

Christmas Day itself will offer the regular schedule of Masses at 6, 8, 9:30, 11 and 12:15. Under the direction of Sister Ann Carolyn SSI, with Mary Ann Sincock, organist, the school children's choir will sing hymns during the 8 o'clock Mass.

The pre-Christmas schedule calls for confessions Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30, Friday and Saturday afternoons and evenings. The traditional manner of penance before a great feast day emphasizes abstinence and fast for Friday, Catholic adults being required to abstain from more than one full meal, and no meat permitted to all Catholics. The spiritual significance is to demonstrate in a more graphic way love for Christ on His birthday.

HOW IT HAPPENED

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — Ever wonder how the blimp got its name? During World War I, the British used a small, non-rigid airship which they called the "limp" to distinguish it from rigid zeppelins. The word "blimp" came into the language from a type of limp airship which was widely used as a submarine spotter.

Who's Who in the Plymouth Community Schools

James William Marshall

James William Marshall, third year teacher of Social Studies, History, and Sociology at Plymouth High School is our Who's Who teacher this week. Born in Ann Arbor, son of a paint contractor, his schooling, family affiliations and early employment are all centered in the Ann Arbor area. He attended Michigan State University, but received his Bachelor's Degree, and last July, his Master's Degree from Eastern Michigan University.

During his college days he worked as Recreation Director at Mercywood Neuropsychiatric Hospital in Ann Arbor. He was Counselor and Assistant Supervisor for two years in the Michigan Corrections Department, spending time with youthful offenders at Camp Brighton. He also has worked on and off as a child therapist at Children's Psychiatric Hospital in Ann Arbor, an area of vital interest to him.

Besides the above activities and interests, he is very busy as father of four young Marshalls: Deborah, 7, a second grader and David, 6, a first grader, at Allen School. James W. III is 3 and Roger just one. His wife, Marilyn, formerly a legal and medical secretary, finds homemaking her complete dedication these days, but both parents are active in the Allen PTA. Mr. Marshall is president this year, verifying the old saying, "If you want something done, find a busy person."

He is also an active participant in the Plymouth Community Planning Group, working on the Special Education Committee, and holds membership in the Plymouth Education Association. His college fraternity was Alpha Gamma Upsilon.

He has been on the active and reserve list as a seaman in the United States Navy, and between 1949 and 1954 saw active duty in the Caribbean and the Mediterranean, receiving the Victory medal following European occupation.

Most of his travel experience, financed by the U. S. Navy, included the Mediterranean area, Spain, Italy, Lebanon, Greece, North Africa, and Crete. Also, he has seen much of the country around the Gulf of Mexico, having been stationed in Florida for eighteen months.

Among his hobbies we find him putting around his home at 500 Kellogg, working with his wife on its Early American decor, refinishing furniture and bricabrac. At one time he was an offset press operator during his own printing press. During the summer he has worked as a salesman, and following his father's profession, has done house painting.

Plymouth is much the richer for this able citizen!

Dress will be semi-formal. The Stan 'D' Orchestra has been secured for the occasion. Tickets for the Ball are $2.50 per couple.

Christmas Customs-How They Came About

Everybody loves we-do-it-every-year Christmas activities. And since your family traditions have to start some time, why not make this year's to launch a few new ones?

Mistletoe: Hang a mistletoe kissing ring in your doorway—it's a symbol of love. In the language of flowers, the word mistletoe means "give me a kiss." As each lad claims a kiss from the girl who happens to be under the kissing ring, e removes a berry from the mistletoe. When all the berries are taken, no more kisse are available.

To make your own "kissing ring," use three metal rings which can be removed from the tops of one-pound coffee cans. Wrap the rings in red ribbon, fix them inside each other to form a ball, and tie a cluster of mistletoe in the center.

Holly: Use Christmas holly as decoration around a candle, around the punch bowl, or over the mantle. Holly has come to represent the crown of thorns worn by Christ, the red berries representing His blood.

Christmas Bells and Stockings: Decorate your home with stockings for Santa to stuff. St. Nicholas, a 4th century Christian bishop who befriended children with his interest and gifts, is probably the ancestor of our Santa Claus.

It is said that the real St. Nicholas befriended three young maidens who did not have money for marriage, by leaving bags of gold in their stockings which had been hung by the fireplace to dry. The Christmas balls which we use today are symbolic of the bags of gold which St. Nicholas left for the young maidens.

Christmas Stars: The star which decorates the top of many Christmas trees is symbolic of the star of Bethlehem which guided the three wise men. It is written, "When they saw the star they rejoiced with exceeding great joy."

Christmas Bells: Be sure to take a Christmas bell or two with you as you go caroling. St. Nicholas carried a hand bell of good tidings when he visited the children. In some parts of New England in the early 1800's it was unlawful to celebrate Christmas. The town crier rang a bell as he walked through the streets reminding people not to celebrate. Longfellow speaks of bells in his poem, "I heard the bells on Christmas day, repeat, of peace on earth, their old familiar carols play, good will to men."

ROTARIANS FROM Northville and Plymouth held a joint meeting last Thursday at the Wayne County Training School with the school's chorus providing Christmas entertainment. A luncheon dinner was served by the students and staff. This is the third year that the two clubs have held the joint meeting. The boys and girls provided a 40-minute program of music.

DOLLS MADE BY Girl Scouts of Intermediate Troop 259 will go to children at Maybury Sanatorium and will be delivered by the girls Friday. They are shown here with their leader, Mrs. Grace Wheeler, at her home at 1032 N. Holbrook. The Scouts have been working on the dolls for six weeks. For mothers who feel that they are too busy to become Girl Scout leaders, Mrs. Wheeler is a mother of eight children.

Kalamazoo College Student From Nigeria Visits Here For Christmas

This week, Charles Chukwu Orji, a Nigerian student now attending Kalamazoo College under the auspices of the Foreign Student Leadership Project of the National Student Association, is staying at the home of a fellow student, David Keener, of 695 Simpson. This project, only partly academic in nature, each year provides an opportunity for 15 foreign students from African or Asian nations to become acquainted with American life from the vantage point of an American college campus. Charles, like the other participants, was selected for the project on the basis of academic achievement and leadership qualities. While carrying well a major in economics at the Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology in Lagos, Charles figured importantly in student activities. He furthermore helped to organize the Zikist National Vanguard (a political organization), took part as a guide and interpreter in "Operations Crossroads Africa," and served his country and university in various other capacities. All this was in addition to the help he was expected to give on his father's cocoa plantation. Charles finds it "quite nice" here, and is only dismayed by the general lack of knowledge of conditions in Africa. He likes to draw parallels between the American and Nigerian temperaments and cultures. "There is frequently more resemblance between my people and the Americans than there is between the English and the Americans," claims Charles, and cites as examples — music, and sense of humor. He thinks that student leadership and student organizations in general are less powerful than in his own country. After completing his studies this year at Kalamazoo College, Charles will go to Cambridge, England to study law. Then, home, where he hopes to serve in the legislature of his newly independent country. The average American uses about 26 million gallons of water during his lifetime. Per capita water consumption now is 145 gallons a day compared with 97 gallons in 1900.

Merchants Ask 2-Hour Limit For Free Central Parking Lot

Too many all-day parkers in the free Central Parking Lot has brought about a request from merchants to place a two-hour parking limit. Businesses surrounding the lot lease it from the City for $5,000 a year in order to provide free parking to customers. As of now, there are no restrictions. But merchants checking the lot find that too many of the cars are parked there all day, cutting down the customer parking. The all-day parkers, it is presumed, are those working downtown. City commissioners received a request from the Chamber of Commerce Monday night asking that signs be placed in the lot limiting the parking to two hours. The Police Department would enforce the time limits. Commissioner Marvin Terry, one of the participating merchants himself, said he personally favored a three-hour limit. Mayor Harold Guenther said that before the Commission orders the signs, they should check to make sure that the majority of merchants participating in the program want it. Santos in Brazil is now the world's leading coffee export source.

New Personnel Rule

Spouses of employees of the City will no longer be hired to fill other City jobs, a new personnel rule stipulates. Commissioners approved the new ruling Monday after City Manager Albert Glassford said that employing spouses of employees creates areas of conflict between departments and creates bad public relations. The new rule does not apply to employees of the City who are married during their employment by the City.

CIRCULATING questionnaires to business and industry in the area is the Program—Youth, Business & Industry—Committee of the Citizens' Study Committee for the proposed Northwest Wayne County Community College. From left are Mrs. Douglas Hewitt, Mrs. Keith Foster, Mrs. Jerome Bates, Livonia; Mrs. William DeVoe, Mrs. Ernest Grimm, Mrs. Walter Ream, South Redford; Mrs. Gilbert Drutchas, Mrs. William Eaves, Redford Union; Mrs. Richard Stevens, Clarenceville; Mrs. Margaret Oldenburg, Mrs. Evelyn Monroe, Garden City; and Chairman Charles Barnett, South Redford. Standing are Mrs. A. J. Sansone, Mrs. H. G. Weber, Mrs. T. C. McArthur and Mrs. Douglas Mueller, South Redford.

Industries, Businesses Receive Community College Questionnaire

A Citizens' Committee, composed of residents from the school districts of Clarenceville, Garden City, Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Union and South Redford, is studying whether conditions warrant the establishment of a community college in the area.

May this Yuletide impart New Joy and Happiness into your heart.

The college would be a two-year institution offering academic programs comparable to the freshman and sophomore years of four-year colleges and universities. In addition, the offerings would include occupational programs of two years or less designed to prepare persons for direct job entry.

In addition to a study of the financial resources and requirements, probable building site needs and possible locations, and community history and growth trends, the committee is attempting to discover whether need exists for various types of educational programs that could be offered. This part of the total survey is extremely important and significant, yet about the most difficult.

Considerable effort has been given by the local Citizens' Committee and technical professional consultants from the University of Michigan to preparations for obtaining information from local industries and businesses. It was decided that necessary information could be obtained by questionnaires if businesses and industries would cooperate in providing it.

Questionnaires were delivered personally by members of the Citizens' Committee beginning Friday, Dec. 16. In most instances committee members will seek appointments with top administrative and managerial officials prior to delivery of questionnaire. Previous studies in other communities have demonstrated the general willingness and cooperative assistance of industrial and business leaders in this connection.

Several elected local business and industrial enterprises were selected to cooperate in field testing the questionnaire developed for the purpose. The committee is now ready to distribute the questionnaire in final form to all industries or businesses in the six districts employing over 10 employees. An urgent appeal is made to all firms of over 10 employees for their cooperation in completing the questionnaire when it arrives and in returning it promptly.

 SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — The State of California has allocated $599 million in aid to local school districts for the 1960-61 fiscal year. Education points out the figure is almost triple the $202 million granted a decade ago.

POOR ADVICE
 BRATTLEBORO, Vt. (UPI) — It cost Theodore R. West of Springfield, Mass. $25 for taking his mechanic's advice. He paid the sum as a fine after he was arrested for speeding. He told police his mechanic said to race the car to get "kinks" out of it.

Groups Planning Christmas Luncheon for Senior Citizens

The Senior Citizens have planned a co-operative Christmas luncheon for 12 o'clock next Thursday, Dec. 22. Please bring your own dishes, silver and a dish to pass. The meat will be furnished by the V.F.W. Auxiliary who is serving as Hostess this month.

There will be singing of Christmas carols and visiting to fill out the afternoon.

The regular meeting will be held as usual Dec. 29 from 1 to 5 p.m. in the Odd Fellow Hall on Elizabeth Street.

Musical numbers by the Triple Trio from the high school were enjoyed by all who heard them last week.

There is a wonderful group attending these meetings, some with perfect attendance and new ones every week. Interested folks are urged to come out and get acquainted.

A telephone call to GL 3-1830 or GL 3-7575 will assure transportation to and from the meetings. This service is sponsored by the Soroptimist Club.

PESTS DAMAGE CROPS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — California agriculture lost an estimated $177,974,144 because of insects last year, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The total includes estimates of actual crop damage and the cost of controlling the pests.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

by Carl Peterson

Once upon a time there was a little girl who had waited a long time for Christmas Eve. When it finally came she went several times to the door to peer anxiously out into the night.

Noticing her dejection when she turned back into the room, her mother asked the reason. Sadly the little girl said, "You said it was Christmas Eve... but the sky didn't open and the angels sing." Guess maybe that happens to a lot of us.

Like the little girl, we build ourselves up for something great and when the time comes we're disappointed. Maybe it's because we try to get too much out of the time. Maybe our thoughts are dwelling on what will come to us, rather than what we can give to someone else.

Christmas is a feeling, a very personal, peaceful feeling. The sky won't open and the angels sing. But when the time comes something will sing inside of us. And, as always, there'll be love in the air and a feeling of fellowship. And just this once a year there'll be peace and happiness a-plenty and we'll think that we have more of love and substance to share. And we'll share it.

There's nothing like it. So... merry, merry Christmas to you, and happiness for the coming year.

International Relations Class Aims For $1,100 to Finance Trip to UN

By Lester Bartson III

A study trip to the United Nations in New York next February and all the preparations it entails are now occupying much of the time of the 27 members of the International Relations class of Plymouth High School and their teacher, Miss Gertrude Flegel.

The class, which studies international problems in relation to the UN, first hit upon the idea of making a personal visit there early in this school year. Enthusiasm flared, but, the problem of financing such a venture had to be considered. In a short time an evening meeting was held at which Miss Flegel, the students and their parents met to consider the proposal further and see how it could be financed. The enthusiasm of the students soon spread to the adults, and before the evening was over a full fund raising program had been set up, and a number of parents, in excess of the required number, had decided to go along as chaperones.

Through negotiations with the New York Central Railroad a special group rate was obtained; rooms were secured at a reduced rate at the Belmont Plaza Hotel, only three blocks from UN Headquarters. It was decided that the class goal would be the cost of these two main expenditures for the tures in New York would be handled on an entire group of students, while additional expenditures in New York would be handled on an individual basis.

First of the money-making projects was a car wash, held at West Bros. on Forest Ave. in November. The students battled icy water, sleet, snow and cold, but went through with a $100 profit that warmed their hearts. The event was repeated with great success two weeks later. Seeing the score of students working so industriously at the car wash, one man was later quoted as saying that to see them devote so much effort to a project had reaffirmed "his faith in teen-agers."

Currently the group is busily selling chocolate confections, and soon expects to have the total earnings up far past the $500 mark.

A festive New Year's Eve Dance — "International Holiday" — which will be open to the general public is currently being prepared by the teenagers and their parents. Decorations of a cosmopolitan flavor, a dance band, refreshments, and foreign entertainers through special arrangements with an Ann Arbor organization are to be features of the gay evening. The price has been kept down to a dollar a person.

A real treat for busy townspeople will occur on the evening of Jan. 14 when the class members will turn restaurateurs, presenting a spaghetti dinner which will be served at the high school. Tickets will soon be on sale.

Other money has been finding its way to the class treasury through smaller individual projects such as raking leaves and polishing cars. All of the large activities have been supported by every student in the group in one way or another.

As their goal draws nearer to attainment, the eager students are growing more and more excited, pondering their activities in New York, already arranged with UN Headquarters.

Leaving Ann Arbor on the Central's evening streamliner "The Wolverine," the Plymouthites will arrive at Grand Central Station on the morning of Feb. 3. After checking in at the Belmont, they will head for the gleaming marble and glass headquarters of the world organization for a day of sitting in on the proceedings of various UN groups and committees, interviewing foreign delegates, touring the building, and even a luncheon in the delegates' dining room.

Interviews with delegates, other diverse activities at the UN, and some sightseeing will fill the group's three additional days in Manhattan. Emphasis is to be placed on gaining a real-life understanding of how the United Nations functions.

When the students roll back into Ann Arbor the following Tuesday they hope to be much better prepared for their forthcoming participation in the Model United Nations Assemblies at both Hillsdale College and the University of Detroit next spring.

Santa Claus To Visit Maybury Sanatorium

The children's ward at Maybury Sanatorium will be a very happy place this Christmas.

The employees of the National Bank of Detroit have each bought three gifts for 50 children in answer to their letters to Santa Claus.

The work, first begun by Mrs. Chabut 13 years ago, has been since carried on for four years in the Instaloan office and then into the bank by Mrs. Sandra Davis. Mrs. Brown is aided by Mrs. Lee Rambo.

The children in the hospital are for the most part charity cases suffering from tuberculosis and muscular dystrophy.

Little Johnny Cisneras will be a happy little boy on Christmas after writing this letter to Santa: Dear Santa: My name is Johnny. I'm three years old and I'm a very good little boy. I know I am because everybody says I am. I would like a bright red fire truck and a fireman's badge with a big red hat and some blocks to play with. Thanks very much. I'll be a real good boy because I really know how.

Thanks very much. I'll be looking for you on the 25th of December. John Cisneras SANTA'S HELPERS appear to have done quite a job this year for 50 children in Maybury Sanatorium. In answer to the children's letters, the employees of the National Bank of Detroit under the direction of Mrs. Lee Rambo and Mrs. Sandra Davis collected all these gaily decorated presents for these gaily decorated Christmas Day.

Allen Extension Club Slates Holiday Party

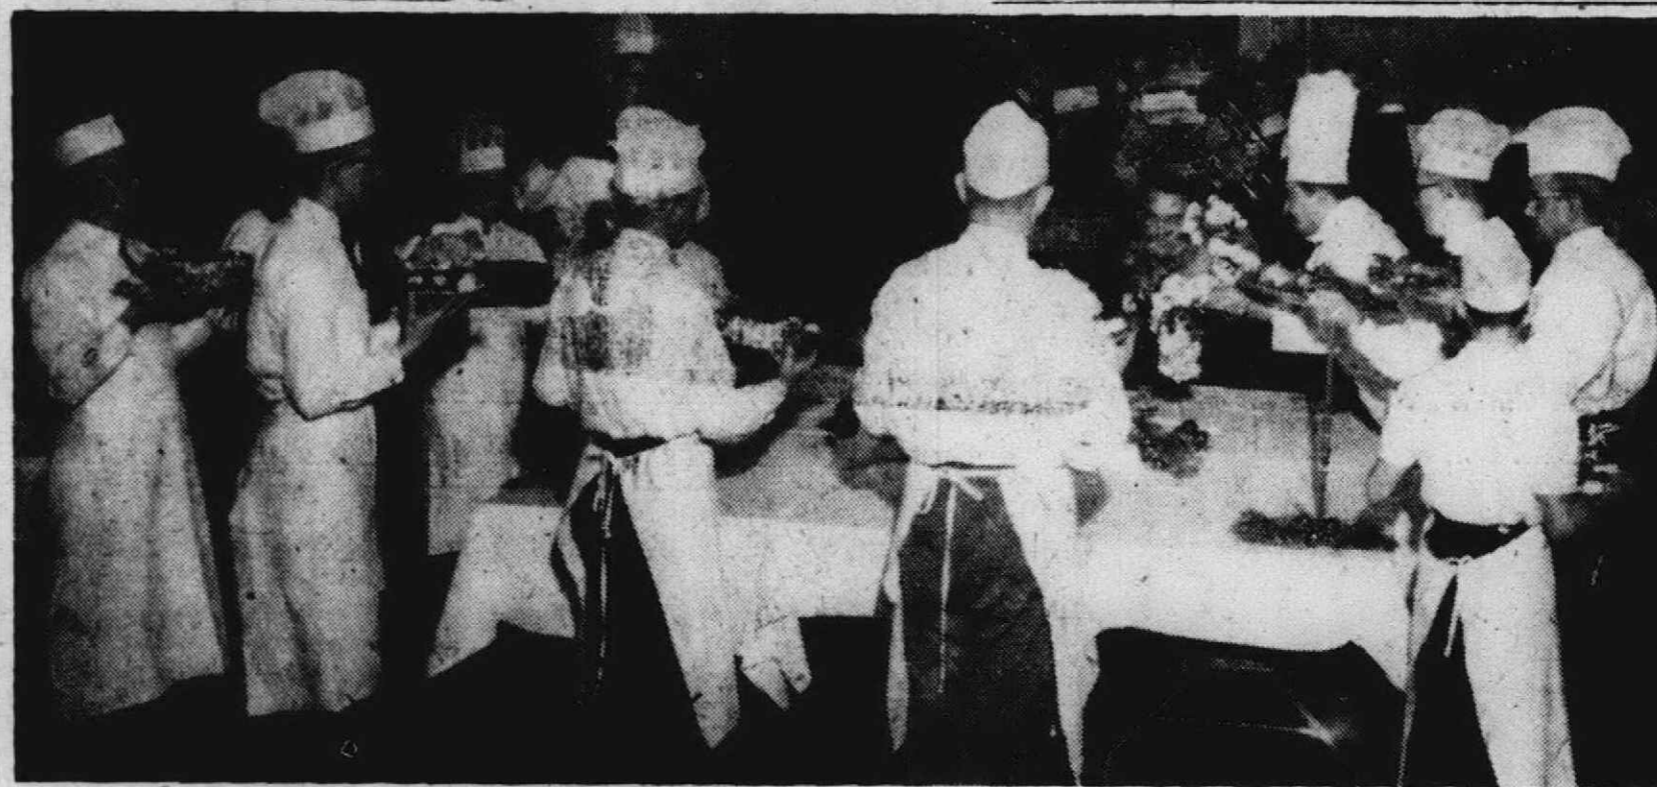

The Allen Club held their annual Christmas party, December 12, at the home of Mrs. Phyllis Goltz. All of the beautiful decorations made for a gay holiday party.

A delicious potluck dinner was enjoyed by every club member and no one was ill or unable to come.

After dinner a Christmas story was read by Mrs. Heloise Campbell.

There was a very short business meeting, with special guest, Mrs. Milton Rowe, a Wayne County Council member, who participated in the installation of officers.

Secret Pal gifts were exchanged and names drawn for the coming year. Games were played with some very lovely gifts for prizes.

A PROCESSION of chefs carrying their feast was part of the annual Boar's Head Dinner held last week at First United Presbyterian Church by the Men's Council. The Boar's head carried on a platter led the procession and it was placed on a pedestal. For story, see front page.

Bell Proposes Metropolitan Phone Service Trial for Plymouth

A new residential telephone service that will permit Plymouth customers to dial calls throughout the metropolitan area at a special monthly rate is proposed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

The monthly rate of $9.50 also will include the cost of one-party line service and unlimited calling within Plymouth's present local calling area.

At present, Plymouth customers — like all other suburban customers — pay additional charges for all calls made to telephones outside their local calling area.

The optional, new Metro - Calling Service, first of its kind ever proposed by a Bell System Company, will be offered in Plymouth on a one year trial.

In an application filed in Lansing last Friday with the Michigan Public Service Commission, Michigan Bell asked permission to put the new service into effect early next year.

The service that will be available to Plymouth residential customers will allow subscribers a total of four hours of calling per month to telephones in the metropolitan area outside their local calling area. The four hours of calls may be made at any time, any day of the week during a month. Usage in excess of the monthly four-hour calling allotment will be charged at the rate of 30 cents per each quarter-hour period.

Plymouth customers with Metro-Calling Service will be able to dial calls at this special monthly rate to about half the telephones in Michigan.

The service will be for private-line users but a second line to the home will not be necessary. Two-party line users desiring the new service will automatically be upgraded to individual-line service.

Plymouth residential customers who live outside the base rate area also will be offered Metro - Calling Service. The monthly rate to these customers will be somewhat higher.

J. R. Huntley, district commercial manager here for Michigan Bell, said the new Metro-Calling Service is a step toward simplifying telephone rates and more efficiently meeting the service needs of customers.

Plymouth was selected for the new service because it has switching equipment that can be easily adapted to the trial, Huntley said. The community also is typical of the rapid telephone growth in the metropolitan area and the resulting change in customers' telephone requirements, he said.

"This new service takes into account the changing trend in the calling habits of the general public," Huntley said.

"The basic provisions of Metro - Calling Service will enable subscribers to dial about half the telephones in Michigan for a special monthly rate.

"Although the Detroit area has been spreading out," Huntley said, "people who have moved to Plymouth still wish to retain their ties with friends and relatives who live either in Detroit or in other suburbs. The quickest and easiest method of maintaining contact, of course, is with the telephone.

"By introducing this new type of Metro-Calling, we are attempting to satisfy our customers' desires to maintain those contacts as inexpensively and conveniently as possible."

Communities in the metropolitan area that Plymouth customers will be able to call under provisions of the new service include:

Allen Park, Ann Arbor, Auburn Heights, Belleville, Berkley, Beverly Hills, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Bloomfield Township, Center Line, Clawson, Commerce, Dearborn, Dearborn Township, Detroit, Drayton Plains, Ecorse, Farmington, Ferndale, Flat Rock, Franklin, Garden City, Gibraltar, Grosse Ile, Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Farms, Grosse Pointe Park, Grosse Pointe Shores, Grosse Pointe Woods, Hamtramck, Harper Woods.

Park, Huntington Woods, Inkster, Keego Harbor, Lake Angelus, Lathrup Village, Lincoln Park, Livonia, Madison Heights, Melvindale, Nankin Township, New Boston, Northville, Novi, Oak Park, Orchard Lake, Pleasant Ridge, Plymouth, Pontiac, Redford Township, River Rouge, Riverview, Rockwood, Romulus, Royal Oak, Royal Oak Township.

South Lyon, Southfield, Southgate, Sylvan Lake, Taylor Township, Trenton, Troy, Walled Lake, Warren, Waterford, Wayne, West Bloomfield Township, Wixom, Wolverine Lake, Wyandotte and Ypsilanti.

THIS MAP shows the metropolitan calling area for Plymouth. Subscribers to the new Metro-Calling Service will get unlimited calling to Plymouth and shaded areas on map and four hours of calls a month to the remaining area shown above, which includes about half of the telephones in Michigan. It will cost extra to obtain the service.

ANNOUNCING PAYMENTS TO RAMBLER BUYERS AS RAMBLER'S SALES VOLUME INCREASES

Why You Should Join Rambler's New Crusade For Adequate Progress Sharing With Customers

"I believe participation by all consumers in economic progress is absolutely necessary in meeting the nation's economic needs."

engineering advances such as the acid-proof, rustproof Ceramic-Armored muffler and tailpipe. The Rambler line includes three basic sizes of compact cars—Rambler American, Rambler Classic and Ambassador, the latter two developed after the original American series.

RAMBLER SALES SOAR

In two years, Rambler's per cent of market has more than doubled. For the last 38 straight months, Rambler sales have established a new record for that month. We want to continue this growth by serving you even better.

THE NEW RAMBLER CRUSADE

Our new Rambler crusade, like our compact crusade, is based on sharing Rambler progress with car buyers.

We believe the new Rambler crusade has timely significance. Our country currently is experiencing a mild economic slowdown—with rising foreign competition and weakness of the dollar. Our larger competitors are considering partial manufacture and importation of cars for the U.S. market from abroad. There is a general profit squeeze.

We believe the greatest single economic cause is that relatively too much of the fruit of industrial effort has been going to a few well organized economic groups, not to the consumer.

CUSTOMERS TO SHARE RAMBLER PROGRESS

We decided there was something we could do. We decided to share future progress with ALL customers who take

HOW PAYMENTS TO BUYERS WILL BE DETERMINED IN AMERICAN MOTORS' CUSTOMER PROGRESS SHARING PROGRAM

IF SALES ARE UP over last year	BUYERS RECEIVE U.S. SAVINGS BONDS (Maturity Value)	BOND PAYMENT SALES LEVELS
		DECEMBER (Dec. sales)	JANUARY (Dec.-Jan. total)	FEBRUARY (Dec.-Jan.-Feb. total)	MARCH (4-month total)
50%	$125	45,247	97,671	140,139	195,946
40%	$100	42,231	91,159	130,796	182,883
30%	$75	39,214	84,648	121,453	169,820
20%	$50	36,198	78,136	112,111	156,757
10%	$25	33,181	71,625	102,768	143,694
SALES FOR SAME PERIOD LAST YEAR		30,165	65,114	93,426	130,631

NOTE: In all cases, "BUYERS" means a person who actually takes delivery, not places an order.

WHY IT WILL PAY YOU TO BUY NOW. This unique program is cumulative and retroactive. Early buyers can get more, but never less bonds, than buyers in succeeding months. Your Rambler dealer will be happy to give you the complete details of the plan but here is a quick example of how it works and keeps on working for you:

If December Rambler deliveries increase 20% over last December, December buyers of new Ramblers or Metropolitans will receive $50 bonds. As the four-month period progresses, additional bonds will be mailed to the December buyers each time the cumulative sales reach a higher bond payment sales level.

Also, if sales increase for the four-month period exceeds 50%, proportionate additional payments will be made to all buyers during any of the four-months.

BOTH CUSTOMERS AND AMERICAN MOTORS GAIN

You have everything to gain and nothing to lose by joining this crusade. The same is true for us.

You can't lose because Ramblers are better than big cars and the best of the compacts. Ramblers are more trouble-free, more useful, lower priced.

You make your regular deal in the regular way for a new Rambler. You then may share proportionately in the economies and profits of higher Rambler volume in December, 1960, and the first three months of 1961.

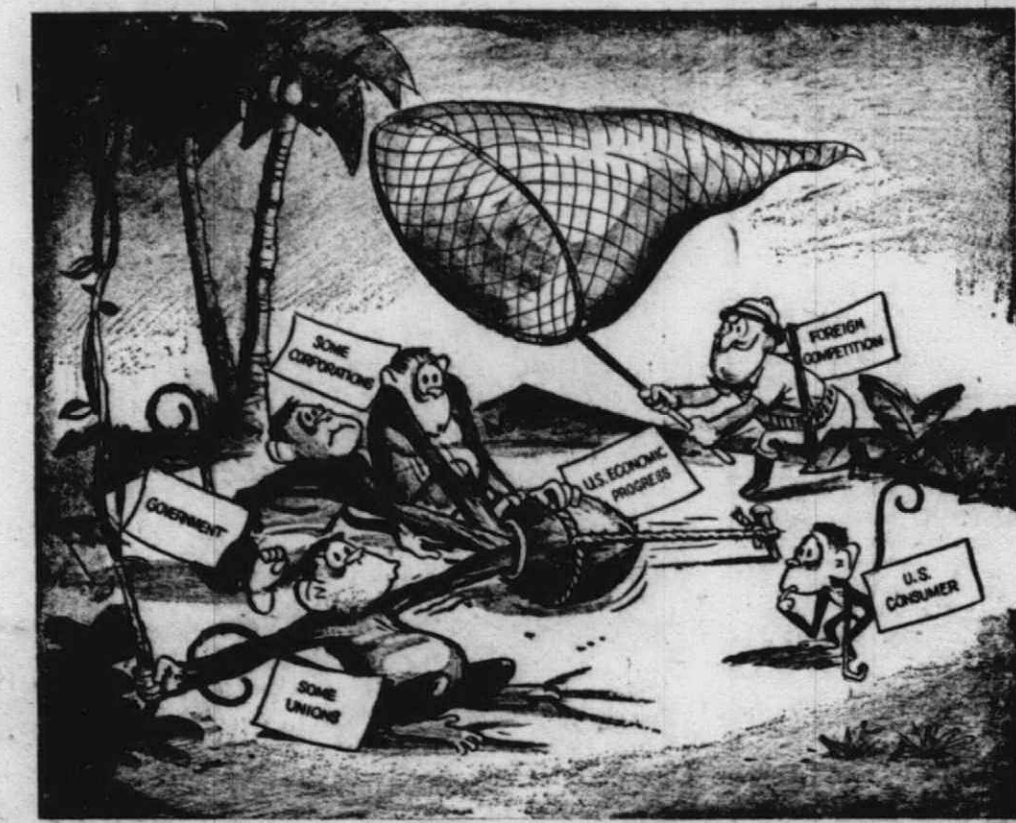

We gain by acquiring more Rambler owners, which will make our growing market even larger in the future. That's because Rambler owners become Rambler salesmen and are the most loyal "repeat buyers" of any make.

Ask your neighbor all about his Rambler, then join the Rambler crusade. Join us in focusing the nation's attention on the essentiality of equitably sharing economic progress with ALL consumers if the WHOLE NATION is to prosper.

George Romney

P.S. Some may say one company can't do much about national problems as big and complex as those cited above. Well, that's what skeptics said about Rambler's first crusade. Let's remember, every great thing is born small. If this new Rambler crusade is right, it can succeed and spread, just as the compact car concept did.

Mr. Romney's recent New York Press Conference on "Customer Sharing and the Nation's Economy" attracted nationwide notice. For complete text of his statements, write American Motors, Box 29, Detroit 32, Mich.

Monkeys are caught by filling a coconut shell with chopped coconut meat. The monkeys grasp a bitful and, unwilling to let any go, cannot withdraw their paws. So, they are easy victims. The U.S. consumer is not as scrawny as shown, but unless there is a more equitable division of the productivity increase, he will get that way. One of the three American groups must go and set an example—or all will be captured and, along with the consumer, all will suffer.

Rambler's rise to a top position has put us in position to undertake a new crusade. This program, which could provide greater individual and national benefits than any we've yet undertaken, calls for customer progress sharing.

As volume goes up, costs come down. So, sharing economies that would result from a 50% Rambler sales gain over last year for the period December through March could provide payments to customers of $18,698.062.

But, before presenting our new Rambler crusade, let me review some highlights of the first one.

When we forged our basic Rambler concepts, U.S. cars were in a size, horsepower and styling-change race that cost the car buyer money. So, we developed the compact, economical, modernly engineered Rambler.

CONSUMER BENEFITS FROM LOWER PRICES

Because of low volume, we had to price our first Rambler Americans about equal with Chevrolet and Ford, traditionally "lowest priced."

As our output and economies increased, we shared the resulting economic advantages with Rambler customers. Despite inflation, we kept prices low. We also concentrated on durability and quality. That is why Rambler excels in trouble-free operation, as shown by trade surveys made by others.

What has this done? It has increased our sales—made us a vigorous new competitive factor, compelling all competitors to introduce compact cars. Their compact cars unquestionably are better buys than their big cars because their big cars don't have the compacts' advanced engineering.

Despite these moves to meet Rambler competition, Rambler American models are now priced not only below competitive big cars but below their economy compacts as well.

In addition, Ramblers provide customers several exclusive trouble-free

Exhibit Tells Yule Tree Tradition

A small exhibit which explains the origin of the Christmas Tree Tradition has added a Christmas touch to the Nature Center at Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford.

Rainer Brocke, park naturalist who prepared the exhibit and accompanying information, stated that in Michigan the White Pine, the official State Tree in Michigan, is often used as a Christmas Tree.

The exhibit, located in the foyer of the Nature Center, also includes pheasant groups may view exhibits by appointment Tuesday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Brocke stated that the Nature Center will be closed Sunday and Monday, Dec. 25-26 and on Sunday and Monday, Jan. 1-2. The winter visiting hours for the general public are from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. School and other civic

Currency Covers Christmas Tree

Dollar bills will serve as trimming for the Christmas tree at the Plymouth Seventh-day Adventist Sabbath School Saturday, as young and old bedeck the tree with their special Christmas missions offering.

For many years the Adventist Sabbath school has followed the custom of trimming its Christmas tree with cash gifts for some special mission field. The gifts are slated for specific projects in the appointed overseas field.

"This year," says Donald Macaulay, Sabbath School superintendent, "the trimmings on that tree will help to build a nurses' home for the denomination's hospital in Nicaragua, a brand new hospital, building for British Guiana, and a boy's dormitory for the church's boarding academy in Puerto Rico."

The church is now operating 106 sanatoriums and hospitals and 104 clinics throughout the world. It also has 4,758 schools, 333 of which are above the elementary level, the superintendent said. As part of the special Christmas missions service the children of the primary and kindergarten divisions will recite verses and sing songs relating to Christ's nativity, and will repeat Bible verses learned during the past three months.

THERE WERE over 460 people taking the Garden Club's Christmas Walk last Thursday. Nine homes decorated for the Christmas season were opened for the crowds all day. Pictured here are Mrs. Marvin Sackett and Mrs. Harold Fischer in the dining room of the Edwin Schrader home on Park Place. The six-tiered candelabra was used in the centerpiece. Decorations and baked goods were sold in the homes.

Christmas ---

Tips on Making Your Home's Outside Say Merry 'Christmas'

By GEORGE ADAMS
An outdoor Christmas tree is one of the simplest ways of having the property say "Merry Christmas" to all who pass by. There's a plastic one-sided Christmas tree lighted from within that can be fastened to the front door or against the long plain outer wall of a one-story house. But nothing is quite as real as an evergreen tree.

Lighting is an essential part of trimming an outdoor tree and, in fact, make the only decoration many of them. Any decorated evergreen on the property can be chosen. To make it a Christmas tree, nothing is more successful than a string or strings of outdoor lights. These must be purchased with completely insulated wire and weather-resistant sockets and plugs.

The front door can have its own Christmas tree. This must be a flat one, made by wiring evergreen twigs to a triangle of hardware cloth (fine wire mesh). If it's trimmed with little bells, they'll tinkle every time the door is opened. Or, small lollipops, candy canes or cellophane in bright colored packages will make every young guest think your home really belongs to Santa Claus.

Special Services Planned At St. John's Episcopal

The celebration of the Feast of the Nativity will begin in St. John's Episcopal Church, 574 South Sheldon Road, with the Junior Choir and congregation joining in singing the familiar carols at 7 p.m. Christmas Eve.

Following a 15-minute carol singing, the Festal Procession will take place with Choir and congregation singing the familiar "Adeste Fideles." The celebrant at this service will be the rector, the Rev. David T. Davies, and he will be assisted by the Very Reverend Stanley S. Dodge, Ph.D., dean of the Huron Valley Convocation of the Episcopal Church.

A feature of this service will be the blessing of all the children at the altar. During the Communion service the younger children will retire to the Parish Hall where they will be a plain celebration of the Holy Communion at 9 a.m. with no music.

Then at 11 a.m. there will be a Family Festal Eucharist and sermon with the Rector as celebrant. For this service both the Senior and Junior Choirs will occupy the choir gallery. Inasmuch as Christmas Day falls on Sunday this year, it is the hope of the Rector that people will want to worship the Lord on His own day.

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI)—Artist-architect Buck Schiweitz of Houston says part of the inspiration for a collection of his paintings published by the University of Texas Press was that "it was a source of continuing distress to me to see, year after year, so many of the state's beautiful old structures torn down to make way for parking lots, hamburger dispensaries and other symbols of 'progress'."

Plymouth High School

By Lester Barison

A festive atmosphere has been lent to the last few days of school as students and teachers prepare to close up shop for the holidays.

Planning for the Christmas Assembly, to be held tomorrow morning in the gymnasium, has been going on for the last few weeks. The program, which will cover both the light and religious aspects of the season is to include a reading of the story of the Nativity by Mayor Jerry Fischer, accompanied on the cello. Several other selected Christmas readings will be presented as well as individual singing performances by students. The Choir, under the direction of Mr. Fred Nelson will sing a number of gay and inspiring carols.

An old PHS tradition will be continued in the afternoon in most classes during last hour, when studies will be temporarily abandoned and teachers become partymasters.

A brand new aluminum Christmas tree, glowing in multi-hued beams of colored light can now be seen at the main entrance to the building. The most spectacular of all the decorations which have appeared, it is the result of even more stringent fire prevention regulations that have been enacted this year. The difficulties in providing the usual evergreen tree seemed so great that the student council appropriated $15 for the purchase of this artificial variety, which will be available for years to come.

Many comments on these new regulations have been heard, and there's sure to be more discussion of them after the holidays, due to the problems they will cause in the decoration for such events as the forthcoming senior prom.

Senior president Celeste Arjay and All-School Mayor Jerry Fischer were recently named "Best Citizens of the Class of 1961." Both will be presented with Honor Keys in Citizenship at the Senior Farewell Assembly next June.

Celeste will attend a luncheon given by the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution to honor the best girl citizens from the schools in this area. She is also to be given a questionnaire which will make her eligible to compete for an award to the most outstanding girl in Michigan.

The Best Citizens are chosen by the Senior Executive Board and the faculty on the basis of four points: Dependability, Service, Leadership and Patriotism.

A gala New Year's Eve Dance — "International Holiday" — is to be held by the International Relations class in the high school gym. Sounds like a good way to spend the festive night, and this is just a reminder to attend. The price is only a dollar a person, and the affair is open to all.

REBEKAH NEWS

The Christmas party was well attended and the group enjoyed seeing Santa Claus. Friday, Dec. 30 is Family Night. Bring your own table service and a dish to pass. Meat and coffee will be furnished by the Lodge.

Sisters Edna Gray and Louise Granger will be co-hostesses for the evening.

The elective officers for 1961 are Ethel Bulson, noble grand; Hazel Norgrove, vice grand; Louise Granger, recording secretary; Evelyn Stanible, financial secretary; Minnie Ray, treasurer; and Edna Gray, trustee.

The next general meeting is Friday, Dec. 23.

We wish to extend Season's Greetings to one and all.

Industry Thinks Competition From Abroad Can Be Helpful

If the United States pursues sound economic policies at home, the industrial resurgence of other nations will be beneficial rather than destructive to the American economy, the National Association of Manufacturers maintains.

Foreign competition can have the same helpful effects that domestic competition has, the NAM said in a study prepared under the supervision of its Economic Advisory Committee. The committee is made up of a cross-section of 27 businessmen from various sections of the country.

The NAM study said competition from abroad should be regarded as a challenge to "show the good sense to do the things we ought to be doing anyway." These things are:

"Removing the tax barriers to capital formation; authorizing sound depreciation policies, curbing the monopolistic powers of labor unions, and in general, providing the kind of economic climate which is conducive to business growth and individual freedom.

"There is no sacrifice involved in doing these things," the study continued. "They will strengthen our economy and raise our standard of living."

"However, if we fail to put our house in order, the consequences for the welfare of the American economy will be serious indeed."

The NAM pointed out that the United States would not have to lower its standard of living in order to meet foreign competition.

"Any nation's standard of living is a reflection of the productivity of its economy," the study said. "It cannot be any other way, since there is no magic in government action or labor union action — or for that matter in business action — which will permit a nation to enjoy more goods than it produces, or than it can get in return for the part of its production which it sends abroad. Foreign trade raises productivity — and hence the standard of living — because it enables a nation to concentrate its efforts on the particular types of activity in which it is most proficient."

The report pointed out that Japan and the nations of Western Europe have raised their productive efficiency to a high degree, chiefly by sticking to the principles of sound money, the free market, and the encouragement of private enterprise.

"They have shown more concern than the United States has in recent years for the control of inflation, perhaps because they have had more experience with its damaging effects," the study noted.

"They have demonstrated the kind of interest in, and ability for, technological innovation which used to be considered a special characteristic of the American economy."

Yet there is no intrinsic reason why the increased prosperity and productive efficiency of other parts of the world should cause damage to the United States economy, the NAM said.

"On the contrary, these developments abroad should open to us new opportunities for trade and for a broader division of labor between nations. The exchange of goods can be mutually beneficial whether those who make the exchange live in the same or in different countries," the study said.

"Some experts believe that if all the polls taken were laid end to end they would still lie." — Bert Kruse.

"A jury under the American system is a group of twelve citizens who could not exert enough influence to be excused." — Franklin P. Jones.

"I know exactly what our children are going to do with the large national debt. They will pass it on to their children" — Oren Arnold.

"It begins to look as if the price of liberty is eternal vigilance and no ceiling on the national debt." — Dan Bennett.

"If children didn't ask questions, how could they find out that we know so little?" — Herbert V. Prochnow.

The wretched have no compassion. — Samuel Johnson

DRIVING after dark

the short days of winter mean more after-dark driving. For tips in safety, follow these motoring tips:

eat lightly before a long, nighttime trip. A heavy dinner and heavy bends go together.

Turn on parking lights or head-lamps as soon as the afternoon daylight begins to dim. Go by the sky, not by your watch.

On the road, take frequent breaks. Walk about in the cold air to snap up your reflexes or stop for rest and coffee.

Keep the car well ventilated and go easy on the heater. Play the radio. Eye strain can make you sleepy. Avoid glare of oncoming cars by looking to right side of road. If you feel sleepy, pull completely off the road and take a refreshing nap.

Lansing Change-over

LANSING — Changes on the political scene are nothing new in the year of an election and the following spring.

But Michigan may set some kind of a record for personnel shifts among party people, despite the fact that Democrats will be holding the executive office for the seventh straight term. Gov. G. Mennen Williams is stepping down after 12 years as top man of state government.

His successor, present Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, naturally wants to place some of the people most helpful and friendly toward him during the primary and general election campaigns in positions of responsibility.

He would also like to retain some of the people from Williams' staff who have the know-how needed. Indications are Swainson will have a measure of both types of people.

Apparently Gov. Williams will take several of his present key aides with him to Washington where he has a new job as an assistant secretary of state for Africa in the administration of President-Elect John F. Kennedy.

Julie Lawlor, personal secretary to the Governor; executive secretary Sidney H. Woolner; and John S. Abernethy, an administrative aid, have been asked to make the trip to the nation's Capitol.

Others may find a place in Washington in a Democratic year.

At any rate, Swainson will have to replace those who go by choice and those who must be expended to make room for those in favor.

NO FANFARE OR CIVIC celebration marks the departure of Michigan men for military service these days.

The local Blue Star Mothers or some such group quietly sees the inductees and enlists off at the bus. Sometimes there's a Gideon Bible or a sewing kit as a going away present.

But they continue to go — some 451,795 of them since 1948.

A typical month sees roughly 800 men ordered up by the State Selective Service through local draft boards for physical examinations to determine eligibility for induction.

About half that number, often less, sometimes more, are actually summoned for service each month.

Others, of course, volunteer. Some enlist in one of the branches of the service for varying periods, and others are drafted.

Currently the age of the inductees is averaging about 22.

State Selective Service headquarters, located in Lansing, says approximately one million people have registered with local boards in the last 12 years. Since less than half that number have actually been called to serve, chances for a deferment seem reasonably good.

Handwriting Is Clue About You

Dear Miss Williams:

I will enjoy reading my handwriting analysis and really know what I am like. Thank you, Mrs. H. C.

Dear Mrs. H. C.:

You are a diplomatic person with ability for handling people and situations in the best possible manner. You carry some enthusiasm and are not sensitive to criticism. Details irritate you however, but you are a persistent person to keep at something until it's finished.

There is constructive ability in a creative way. You have penetration of thought, a good aim and purpose with definite decision. You choose your friends wisely and carefully.

Dear Miss Williams:

I would very much enjoy knowing what my handwriting reveals, if anything. We are moving soon, so I shall be watching for an analysis soon, if possible — I hope. Thank you, Mrs. R.

Dear Mrs. R.:

I just got to your letter and I'm afraid it's not very "soon." Perhaps you have had someone else watching for it to send it on to you.

You are very emotional and often get keyed up inside and become quite expressive.

You have a love of variation, action and moving about, of being a part of things. There is ability to thrust forward and do things of moving ahead. There is some future mindedness here also.

You have a sense of humor, like the arts, and have a creative tendency. There is literary ability and a love of music.

Your determination is flexible. You use it when you need it and can then draw on a good supply to be immediately put to use.

You love to possess, own and have. Dear Miss Williams: I would like to know what you see in my handwriting. Perhaps it would help me to make up my mind what I'd like to do when I get out of school. Sincerely, B. B.

Dear B. B.:

You are so overly sensitive. Your feelings are very easily hurt and you do not like anyone criticizing your way of life, what you do or standard of conduct. Even if a remark is half concealed you will imagine the rest and be hurt.

There is self-consciousness with your sensitivity. Your emotions are varied, up one day, down the other, sometimes very expressive.

You want attention and strive for it. You like to stand out and be recognized.

You have philosophical thinking and a very good imagination. There is a constant desire for acquiring, to own and have and add to what you already possess. You like to be physically active and constructive. You are capable of persistence and decision.

(I would like to wish all the readers of this column and the kind people who have written in — a Very Merry Christmas to Everyone. Send your letters to Lucille Williams in care of this newspaper for free handwriting analysis.)

I'll purge, and leave sack, and live cleanly. — SHAKESPEARE

Remember how long you have been putting off these things and how often you have received an opportunity from the gods and did not use it. You must now at last perceive that a limit of time is fixed for you, which if you do not use for clearing away the clouds from your mind, it will go and you will go, and it will never return.

We imagine that when we are thrown out of our usual ruts all is lost, but it is only then that what is new and good begins. While there is life there is happiness. There is much, much before us.

After innumerable resolutions formed and neglected, I have retired hither, to plan a life of greater diligence.

It was moved by Member H. Fischer and seconded by Member G. Fischer that the corridor lobby in the new junior high school be increased in width by two feet and the budget by $3,600 and the architect be authorized to proceed with this change.

He suggested, also, an additional spray coat of waterproofing on the exterior masonry walls.

COUGH UP!
CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI) — Harvard's famed Prof. George Lyman Kittredge once told his students he wanted no one to cough while he was lecturing.

Midway through the lecture he coughed himself. Glaring at the class, he swung his arms in the air as though ready to conduct a symphony and exclaimed: "Come, now, when I cough, everybody coughs!"

Tasty Sandwich Combines Beef, Cheese on Rye

For an easy-on-the-cook lunch or supper, sandwiches are always popular... they only take minutes to prepare. But there's such a difference in sandwiches! You can follow the natural habit of following only a few varieties, or you can use your imagination and treat your family to a variety.

Beef Rye Sandwich Specialty fills this need for a new dish that is both appetizing and speedy to prepare. Ground beef is combined with grated cheese and onions and spread on toasted rye bread. The open face sandwiches are broiled 5 to 7 minutes. Home economist Rebecca Staggs recommends broiling about 3 inches from the heat.

This sandwich variation is perfect for quick lunches or Sunday night suppers. You often have the ingredients on hand, so you can prepare this dish on the spur of the moment. Other breads can be easily substituted.

Beef Rye Sandwich Specialty

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1/2 cup grated American cheese
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 3 tablespoons thinly sliced green onions or chopped onion
- 5 to 7 slices rye bread

Mix ground beef, cheese, salt, pepper and onion. Toast rye bread slices on both sides. Spread meat mixture 1/4 inch thick, evenly, on toasted bread.

Front Row Center

By GEORGE SPELVIN

One thousand nine hundred and sixty years ago the world's greatest drama unfolded simply, but beautifully in a manger as Christ was born. Stars above provided a lighting effect never again duplicated.

The heavenly curtains parted on a historical event that evoked world-wide response. A plain manger in Bethlehem provided the setting. No great pageantry, pomp, or pretentious tapestry filled in the background for this all-important birth. The stage was starkly realistic.

Through the years we've acquired layers of materialistic trappings. Our philosophies consequently became weighted down with all these superfluous outer garments. Only when we take a moment out and meditate for a moment in the still of Christmas night, do we realize how silly all the gaudy trinkets are that we try to use as an external symbol of our happiness.

Inside our heart the warm glow of Christmas has to enter by a more subtle means. All the cheery lights and happy smiles won't do the job unless your sights have been set to aim at a deeper, more profound target.

"No Room At The Inn," a play by John Vincent Benet, catches this spirit of Christmas. You'll no doubt see it on TV sometime during the holidays. Hope you do for it tells of those early hours when Christ, a babe in swaddling clothes, first met the people that He was to die for later.

Fifteen years ago (has it really been that long ago) old George had the pleasure of directing "No Room At The Inn" for a local church group in Lansing. Not only did George do the directing, but he ended being the lighting expert, the costume designer, fitter, and dresser; and also, acting the role of the innkeeper. One thing that you can always be sure of when you toy around with church dramatic groups — you'll be plenty busy. It's a wonder you don't end up ushering and passing the plate. Knowing how penurious actors are, this duty never materializes.

Working with church groups is especially rewarding since you can utilize organ music or choral groups to back your drama most effectively. The movies with their background music sneaking in ever so softly give your emotions an extra prod or two ... you can take one of the first talkies ... in fact, half of the film had the old silent titles. Later, on Friday of the same week on Channel 7 ... Larry Parks did "The Jolson Story." It was quite a week for the mammy singer.

If you missed "South Pacific" on the first trip through, you'll want to scurry over to the Penn Theater this week. Lovely music, an interesting plot, and some interesting cinematic tricks make "South Pacific" a picture worth seeing more than one time. Mitzi Gavnor doing "I'm Going to Wash That Man Right Out Of My Hair" is well worth the price of admission alone.

Next week the theaters downtown, Cass and Shubert, come back to life. The Shubert will host Miss Dodie Goodman and Buster Keaton for a three week engagement of "Once Upon A Mattress" that will start Dec. 26. "How To Make A Man," a science-fiction tale of life in the 1990's, re-lights the Cass on Dec. 29. Vicki Cummings and Jan Sterling of movie land have featured roles in this nutty farce having its world premiere at the Cass.

And the Vanguard Theater is breaking all laugh records with its fast moving farce, "See How They Run." Call WO 3-3863 for ticket. The whole family will enjoy this clever comedy about some Russian spies loose in an English vicarage. For the holiday season the Vanguard has stored away its classical thespic robes and put on lighter, gayer colors to keep in the festive mood. Old George laughed long and loud at this farce. Give the Vanguard a try during the holidays.

Fish Seldom Remember The Hook

Fortunately for the angler, a fish is not smart enough to remember being hooked once before, according to a University of Michigan zoologist.

John E. Bardach, U-M associate professor of fisheries and zoology, points out that a fisherman once hooked, or bumped by a car, would be wary of a subsequent similar occurrence.

"But from what little we know about learning abilities of fishes, you would have to hook a bass four or five, perhaps even ten times in a row within a relatively short period of time—say a week—in order that he would remember."

The zoologist adds that a fish may not be biting for other reasons—such as not being fooled by an artificial lure.

Just how smart is a fish? Bardach was asked on "Conservation Report," radio series produced by the U-M Broadcasting Service (WUOM) and carried around the state.

"Calling an animal smart doesn't necessarily imply intelligence," the fishery specialist explains. "Fish are as smart as humans when it comes to distinguishing between two hues of a color. They are smarter than some in distinguishing between tones of a different pitch and probably smarter in distinguishing between two odors."

"Fish can learn, and certainly do remember many things in their lives. They find their way over long distances (as in spawning) and through corners in a stream — by following things they have learned such as the odor of a stream, the look of a boulder or other landmarks."

But the fish, which has "a more limited nervous system than the higher vertebrates, and performs in a more rigid and stereotyped manner," does quite well at learning simpler tasks such as negotiating a maze, Bardach reports.

All About Babies: Psychiatrists Say It's Normal for Child to be Afraid

By William Kitay National Association of Science Writers Editor, All About Babies

Is it normal for a baby to be afraid? Many child psychiatrists believe that it is, for that matter, they point out that all babies have basic fears during their emotional development.

These common fears of babyhood are familiar. For example, the fear of falling and the fear of a loud noise. As the infant grows, there's the fear of being separated from the parents, the fear of being hurt, the fear of darkness and the fear of strangers.

Some fears, however, are created by a specific happening. For example, the baby or child who is bitten by a dog becomes afraid of dogs. There are also fears that the parents, without meaning to, impress upon their babies. A mother who is afraid of thunder, for example, may pass her fear of thunder on to her baby.

In recent years, much has been learned about the many factors that cause fear in babies. One, that has concerned several studies is a baby's instinctive fear of losing the parents' love. Many of the fears that babies and children develop as they grow older seem to stem from this particular fear.

When the mother-baby relationship is not sufficiently satisfying, psychiatrists say, the child may develop the fear that he will fail his parents. The child, as a result, may try too hard to live up to the expectations of his parents so they will not punish him, hurt him, or discontinue their love. This leads to frustrations and to behavior problems.

Quite often, it is not so much the demand a parent makes that is unreasonable, but the premature timing of the demand. One example is a mother's insistence on the early toilet training of her baby.

When too much parental pressure is put on a baby to perform at a certain time and place, say psychiatrists, the baby, afraid of losing the mother's love and afraid of being punished, may not only show resentment for the toilet but may actually develop a real fear of going to the toilet.

This is one reason why many psychiatrists suggest that mothers keep their babies in diapers until about the age of two to permit the child to pick its own time. They believe that late toilet training is more natural. It is easier upon the baby and upon the mother. It contributes to less tension, less aggravation, less temper tantrums, less conflict between mother and baby — in other words, less fear and thus less danger of behavior problems developing as a baby grows older.

Former Plymouthite Married In Indiana

Beatrice R. Aquino became the bride of David Lee Swanson on Saturday, Dec. 1 at the Rolling Prairie, Ind. Methodist Church. Reverend Herbert G. Wingard officiated.

Miss Aquino is the daughter of the Albert Aquinos of Traverse City, Mich. and Mr. Swanson is the son of the Louis Swansons of Hesston, Ind.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza gown featuring a scoop neckline, short sleeves and bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train and sprinkled with seed pearls and sequins. A rhinestone tiara secured her fingertip veil and she carried white carnations, mums and roses in a crescent-shaped bouquet.

Mrs. Ruth Arend was matron of honor. Her gown was red peau de soie and she wore a white fur hat and carried a fur muff centered with red carnations.

Miss Carol Swanson and Miss Shirley Zila were bridesmaids and were gowned identically to the matron of honor.

Miss Michelle Cariveau, flower girl, wore a red velvet dress with white fur accessories.

Mrs. Swanson asked Clifford Smith to be best man and Dale Swanson and Ronald Ila were ushers.

Mrs. Aquino chose a gown of gray lace over pink taffeta with pink accessories and Mrs. Swanson wore beige lace over beige taffeta with tan accessories. Both mothers wore pink rose corsages.

A reception was held in the P.N.A. Hall in LaPorte, Ind., for guests from Chicago, St. Joseph, Hartford, Plymouth and Benton Harbor.

For a motor trip through Indiana, the new Mrs. Swanson wore a royal blue wool dress and pink accessories and a white rose corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Swanson will be at home at 311 Sheridan Beach Ave., Michigan City, Ind.

If Your Name Is Muriel

By ANN REYNOLDS

Want to pick a name for baby that is pretty and not too frequent? How about "Muriel" for your infant daughter? This is a name of Celtic origin. But this does not keep parents of other national background from picking it for their babies. Friends of mine, of French extraction, selected it, although they knew it was a Celtic name.

The Old Irish spelling used to be "Muirgheal," and this points to its having been put together from the words "muir," which means "the sea," and "gheal," which is "bright." It can be said that it means "bright as the sea," or "bright sea."

"Muriel" is a name mentioned in a collection of ancient Welsh tales, the "Mabinogion." This is a book compiled as a sort of textbook for young men who wished to perfect themselves in the trade of a bard, a singer and storyteller of the Middle Ages. How old the stories really are, we don't know. They may have been collected in the eleventh century. To us they came in a book dating from the 14th century, referred to as the "Redbook of Hergest." It was published in 1838 by Lady Charlotte Guest, and translated into many European languages.

"Muriel" was a popular name with the Normans; a half-sister of William the Conqueror was one Muriel. And how firm a hold this name took in England is demonstrated by the fact that quite a number of last names evolved from it. Among these "Merrill" is the most frequent. There also occurs Murrell, Merrall, Merrells, just to mention some.

Yet "Muriel," as a first name, was pretty much forgotten until the middle of the last century. Then, all of a sudden, it was brought to the attention of young parents in search of a name for their new girl baby. A novel made it stylish, entitled "John Halifax, Gentleman," written by Dinah Maria Mulock Craik. This story of middle-class English life moved readers to copious tears as they read about little Muriel, a blind child, whose life ends at the age of 11. Knocked down by a reckless horseman (the equivalent of today's hit and run driver) she slowly fades away. One scene in the novel, in which the family doctor, watched by the young parents, reaches the conclusion that the baby is blind, is unforgettable. The name "Muriel," so it says in the novel, was given the baby "after the rather peculiar name of her father's mother." Today this name is sufficiently known so that no young couple would feel it needed explaining why they chose it.

Plans for a rummage and white elephant sale on Jan. 7 are well on their way to completion. The sponsoring group are Boy Scouts of Troop 298. The fellows would appreciate any donations anyone might wish to give, things you have no longer use for, or any item you might wish to donate. The sale will begin at 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. The things left over at the end of the day will be sold at a free-will auction. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

To get rid of those things around your home, call Ralph Leffer, GL 3-0149, Harold Voss, GL 3-2996, or the Wiles residence, GL 3-3087. You might say the slogan for the sale is "We'll take anything and will try to sell it." The proceeds from the sale will help the boys in their camping projects.

The Spoon and Spool group Christmas party at the home of the leader, Mrs. Howard Moyer of Hanford Rd. The girls plan to exchange gifts, and the festivities will take place around the traditional Christmas tree, with refreshments as the highlight of the evening.

Members of the group include Barbara Authier, Janice Nagy, Janice Williams, Judy Taylor, Carol Hinote, Marilyn Moyer, Carol Bosman, Dee Ann Bosman and Patty Jean Bosman.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bassett of Beck Rd. will be the scene of a family Christmas card party and potluck supper on Saturday, Dec. 17. The group will be comprised of 12 couples.

Last Sunday the Bassett home was also the scene of a birthday party for their son Evan. Evan was 11 years old on Dec. 8. The guest list included members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. James Bassett of Livonia, Mrs. C. W. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. James Drury of Livonia and son Charles, and Evan's cousin, Dennis Wilkin.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bosman of Hanford Rd. will be the scene for two birthday celebrations. Patty, who will be 10, will celebrate her birthday with a guest, Sharon Breeze, for a skating party, followed by ice cream and cake with the family. On Wednesday, Carol will be 14 years of age, and plans for her celebration are being made.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hawk of Warren Rd. announce the marriage of their son, Coin Hawk. Coin took as his bride, Helga Pfersorff on Nov. 27 at the chapel on the post where he is stationed with the United States Army in Germany.

Announcements of the wedding were sent to friends, neighbors and relatives in the states by the family of the bride. The couple is due back in the states sometime after the first of the year. The Hawks' children are busy learning German to surprise their new sister-in-law, although she does speak English, but this will be their way of welcoming her to her new home.

The Plymouth Clover group of the 4-H is making plans for a holiday skating party. The girls also plan to make some tours through department store yard goods departments. The tour will be in connection with their 4-H project. Members of the group include Nancy Spigarelli, Connie and Bonnie Hoffman, Gretchen Steiner, Mary Ferguson, Sue Roberts, and Susan Hawk. The group is under the leadership of Mrs. Ira Hawk, assisted by Mrs. James Spigarelli.

The girls of Scout Troops 270 and 269 held a weekend camp-out at the Girl Scout Lodge. The group left Friday evening and stayed until Sunday morning. The group enjoyed a scavenger hunt under the leadership of Mrs. Lamar Authier, Mrs. Frederick Steiner, Mrs. Eugene Armstrong and Mrs. Karen Osenton. The girls also held their Court of Honor. Awards went to the following:

Linda Authier received her B. Y. camper and dabbler award; Jenny Buttermore, animal raiser; Linda Cather, child care and reader; Cornelia Delaney, dabbler; Caroline Dunston was invested as a Scout; Mary Ferguson, cook and outdoor cook; Connie Hoffman, child care and animal raiser; Marsha Hovorka, second class; William Little, cook; Sue Roberts, horsewoman and dabbler, swimmer, needlecraft, backyard camper; Nancy Spigarelli, second class, animal raiser, horsewoman, backyard camper and dabbler; Gretchen Steiner, animal raiser, horsewoman, cook, backyard camper; Linda Wilson, needlecraft.

The one thing we are told no one got was — sleep, but a good time was had by all.

An article we overlooked — a hayride given by the Spoon and Spool Group of the 4-H. The young ladies each invited a guest, making a total of 20 girls plus their two leaders, Mrs. Howard Moyer and Mrs. Edward Bosman. Also guests of the group were Debbie Bosman and Kenny Moyer (the only boy invited).

Aliens Must Report Address During January

District Director, Walter A. Sahli of the Immigration and Naturalization Service states that the annual alien address report program usually causes a sharp rise in the number of applications for naturalization.

The law requires all aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, to report their address each January. Throughout the United States, almost 30 percent more applications for naturalization are received during the months of January, February and March than are received during other months. Sahli attributes this sudden rise to the Alien Address Report Program.

Aliens not required to make this report are diplomats, those accredited to certain international organizations and those who have entered temporarily as agricultural laborers.

Forms for making the reports will be available to aliens at all Post Offices and offices of the immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January. Sahli indicated that aliens desiring information concerning naturalization or similar matters should obtain the forms at an office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service where personnel trained in these fields will be available.

TIPS FOR TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q. — "Dear Miss Williams: A friend of mine is in my English class and never does her homework, so she insists on copying mine. She is very nice to me before class so she can get my homework. She just takes my paper out of my book and copies it. If I refuse, she'll get all the kids mad at me. Lately, the teacher has been praising her work, and she brags about it. What can I do without losing friends?"

When she asks you to write something for her, simply tell her you'll be busy and won't have time — you have to babysit, do errands for your mother, etc. Avoid her before class, keep your papers out of reach and have excuses ready when she demands that you write a book report for her.

Q. — "Dear Elinor: I am 19 and have just become engaged to a boy 21. Now he is suspicious and jealous if I'm not at home when he comes unexpectedly, even if it's only because I went next door to make a telephone call. What shall I do?"

Ans. — His attitude is unreasonable, unrealistic and childish. Try to make him understand now that you'll be at home when you know he is coming and when you don't have to go out for necessary things. But even if you are engaged, you can't wait for him on a shelf like an inanimate object. Life must go on and there are things that you, like everybody else, must do and not all of them can be done at home. This boy—and I do mean "boy" doesn't sound mature enough for marriage.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

May we take this opportunity to say to all our members and especially our out of state members — A very Merry Christmas to each and every one of you.

We of Post 6695 and all the VFW Posts and the Ladies Auxiliary will celebrate this Christmas season by trying to make sure the needy are not neglected and that children, in particular, have reason to be happy. Hundreds of VFW volunteers engage in a variety of community projects to bring Christmas cheer to others — to VA hospital patients, the residents of soldiers' homes, orphans, the ill, the aged and the needy. These good workers demonstrate the wonderful spirit of VFW community service at its best.

Speaking of worthwhile Christmas activities, don't forget the boys and girls at the VFW National Home who are depending so much on your generous response to the 1960 National Home Christmas Seal Sale. Got your gift list made out? Why not give a (Christmas visit) gift to a veteran in your nearest VA hospital this year and share in this wonderful experience. Light the candle of your own personality to help make his Christmas scene brighter.

May we remind you to pay your dues. Time is running out. If they are not paid by Jan. 1, you will be dropped from the mailing list of the News Letter and also the VFW Magazine.

For those of you who dislike driving very far New Year's Eve and yet love a good party, come out to our annual New Year's Eve Party to be held at the Post Home. Enjoy the friendly atmosphere, refreshments, dancing, food, favors, etc. Everything will be included and only $8 per couple. Hope to see you there.

Don't forget our last regular Wednesday night meeting tonight, Dec. 21 at 8 p.m.

Auxiliary News

Dan Halligan

Teen-agers write to me every day and one of their most consistent subjects is "going steady." Many teen-agers, especially girls and boys in their young teen years, go steady and actually don't know why — believe it or not.

Because this subject is always a matter of discussion, I'm repeating some of the arguments for and against that type of dating as given by high school students. If you're going steady and really don't know why, make sure you read this column.

Several popular reasons include the following:

1. A girl or a boy always knows he or she has a date for the important social events of the high school year.

2. It's less expensive than "playing the field." The girl doesn't necessarily have to have a new dress for important dates. The boy doesn't have to worry about spending several dollars on each date because in time the couple will be content in taking a ride, taking a walk or staying at the girl's house.

3. The girl and boy eventually feel they're a part of the other's family and if they can't get along with their own parents, believe they do have other adults who will "understand" them and their problems.

4. All humans want to "belong" or know that someone cares. In having a steady, a teen-ager believes he or she is someone "special."

5. Going steady is a "must" because "everybody's doing it."

6. Going to last-minute arranged parties at school or at a friend's house where a girl or a boy must bring a date is no trouble when a date can be arranged with the steady by a quick phone call.

A couple dating steady can always feel they have someone to confide in at any time. A girl may know more about her boy friend's troubles, thoughts and ambitions than his parents. The same is true in reverse.

Arguments against steady dating include the following:

1. The boy and girl gradually shut themselves off from their other friends and miss out on fun with "the gang."

2. Dating only one individual, boy or girl, will eventually result in the teen-ager having a one-sided point of view where members of the opposite sex are concerned. All teen-agers may be alike but at the same time they are quite different.

3. Going steady more often than not invites familiarity. Most boys wouldn't think of parking on a first date with a girl. However, parking in some cases becomes an accepted part of each date or is the date itself where going steady is involved.

4. Too many boys who go steady eventually believe they "own" the girl and should have certain personal privileges. Girls, in order to keep their boy friends and "prove" that their love is more than just talk, grant those privileges.

5. The break-up in most cases isn't worth the enjoyment of steady dating. If a girl and boy lost interest in each other at the same time, there's no harm done. However, in the large majority of cases, only one of the two involved loses interest and the "loser" is left emotionally depressed, sometimes seriously so.

6. Studies may suffer drastically because more attention is being given to the steady than to the books.

7. A boy may go into unnecessary debt for his girl. For example, buying a car he can't afford.

8. Steady dating at too early an age may ruin a teen-ager's future. Life-long plans for college may be discarded for a marriage right after high school graduation or even during high school.

You, as a teen-ager going steady, may have other reasons or if you don't go steady, may have reasons other than those mentioned just why you don't. Like everything else in life, steady dating has its good and bad points.

Coin Hawk Returns Soon to Canton Township With New German Bride

By ESTHER SPRENGEL
GL 3-0194

Plans for a rummage and white elephant sale on Jan. 7 are well on their way to completion. The sponsoring group are Boy Scouts of Troop 298. The fellows would appreciate any donations anyone might wish to give. Things you have no longer use for, or any item you might wish to donate. The sale will begin at 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. The things left over at the end of the day will be sold at a free-will auction. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

To get rid of those things around your home, call Ralph Leffler, GL 3-0149, Harold Voss, GL 3-2996, or the Wiles residence, GL 3-3087. You might say the slogan for the sale is "We'll take anything and will try to sell it." The proceeds from the sale will help the boys in their camping projects.

The Spoon and Spool group will be the scene of a family Christmas card party and a potluck supper on Saturday, Dec. 17. The group will be comprised of 12 couples.

Last Sunday the Bassett home was also the scene of a birthday party for their son Evan. Evan was 11 years old on Dec. 8. The guest list included members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. James Basse of Livonia, Mrs. C. W. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. James Drury of Livonia and son Charles, and Evan's cousin, Dennis Wilkin.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bosman of Hanford Rd. will be the scene for two birthday celebrations. Patty, who will be 10, will celebrate her birthday with a guest, Sharon Breeze, for a skating party, followed by ice cream and cake with the family. On Wednesday, Carol will be 14 years of age, and plans for her celebration are being made.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hawk of Warren Rd. announce the marriage of their son, Coin Hawk. Coin took his bride, Helga Petersdorff on Nov. 27 at the chapel on the post where he is stationed with the United States Army in Germany.

Announcements of the wedding were sent to friends, neighbors and relatives in the states by the family of the bride. The couple is due back in the states sometime after the first of the year. The Hawks' children are busy learning German to surprise their new sister-in-law, although she does speak English, but this will be their way of welcoming her to her new home.

The Plymouth Clover group of the 4-H is making plans for a holiday skating party. The girls also plan to make some tours through department store yard goods departments. The tour will be in connection with their 4-H project. Members of the group include Nancy Spigarello, Connie and Bonnie Hoffman, Gretchen Steiner, Mary Ferguson, Sue Roberts, and Susan Hawk. The group is under the leadership of Mrs. Ira Hawk, assisted by Mrs. James Spigarello.

The Detroit fairgrounds included boys and girls of the Plymouth Livestock group. Representatives from the Township included Danny Hawk who took tenth place; David McGraw, seventh place; also Todd Erhardt, Jim McGraw, Duane Wilkin, Doug and Dennis Hawk.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Irwin of Hanford Rd. will be the scene of a family Christmas dinner party. The group will exchange Christmas gifts and the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rocco of Napier Rd., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Pelchat and daughter of South Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gay of Detroit and grandmother, Mrs. Anna Wilson of Detroit. The festivities were held on Sunday, Dec. 18.

The girls of Scout Troops 270 and 269 held a weekend camp-out at the Girl Scout Lodge. The group left Friday evening and stayed until Sunday morning. The group enjoyed a scavenger hunt under the leadership of Mrs. Lamar Authier, Mrs. Frederick Steiner, Mrs. Eugene Armstrong and Mrs. Karen Osenton. The girls also held their Court of Honor. Awards went to the following:

Linda Authier received her B. Y. camper and dabbler award; Jenny Buttermore, animal raiser; Linda Cather, child care and reader; Corneilia Delaney, dabbler; Caroline Dunston was invested as a Scout; Mary Ferguson, cook and outdoor cook; Connie Hoffman, child care and animal raiser; Marsha Horvorka, second class; Willa Little, cook; Sue Roberts, horsewoman and dabbler, swimmer, needlecraft, backyard camper; Nancy Spigarello, second class, a nimal raiser, horsewoman, backyard camper and dabbler; Gretchen Steiner, a nimal raiser, horsewoman, cook, backyard camper; Linda Wilson, needlecraft.

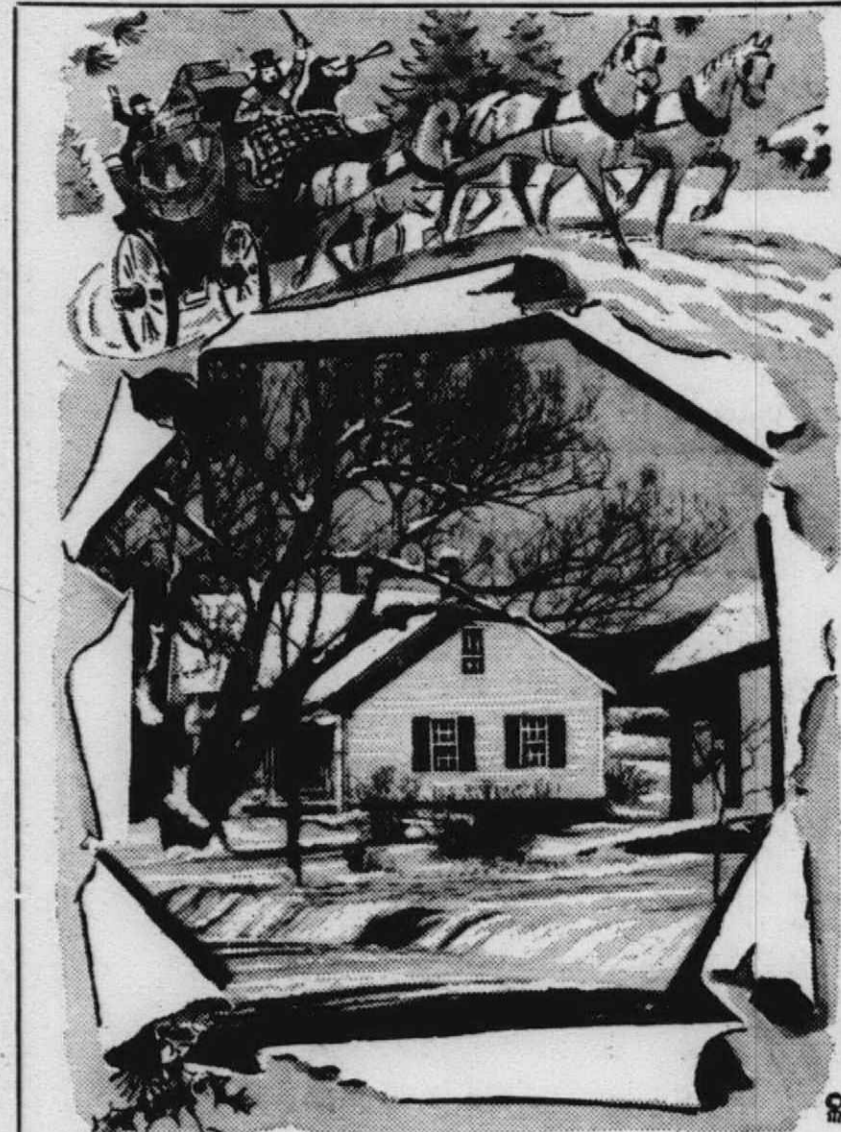

The one thing we are told no one got was — sleep, but a good time was had by all. An article we overlooked — a hayride given by the Spoon and Spool Group of the 4-H. The young ladies each invited a guest, making a total of 20 girls plus their two leaders, Mrs. Howard Moyer and Mrs. Edward Bosman. Also guests of the group were Debbie Bosman and Kenny Moyer (the only boy invited).

The girls have Mr. Howard Moyer to thank for their wonderful time. Mr. Moyer provided and drove the tractor which pulled the wagon of

Aliens Must Report Address During January

District Director, Walter A. Sahli of the Immigration and Naturalization Service states that the annual alien address report program usually causes a sharp rise in the number of applications for naturalization.

The law requires all aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, to report their address each January. Throughout the United States, almost 30 percent more applications for naturalization are received during the months of January, February and March than are received during other months. Sahli attributes this sudden rise to the Alien Address Report Program.

Aliens not required to make this report are diplomats, those accredited to certain international organizations and those who have entered temporarily as agricultural laborers.

Forms for making the reports will be available to aliens at all Post Offices and offices of the immigration and Naturalization Service during the month of January. Sahli indicated that aliens desiring information concerning naturalization or similar matters should obtain the forms at an office of the Immigration and Naturalization Service where personnel trained in these fields will be available.

TIPS FOR TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q. — "Dear Miss Williams: A friend of mine is in my English class and never does her homework, so she insists on copying mine. She is very nice to me before class so she can get my homework. She just takes my paper out of my book and copies it. If I refuse, she'll get all the kids mad at me. Lately, the teacher has been praising her work, and she brags about it. What can I do without losing friends?"

Ans. — What kind of friends are they, if they think you should carry this parasite on your back? If you don't want to say "No," avoid this brampicker before class, don't show up until the bell rings and she can't ask for help — no time — if you go straight to your seat as class begins. Keep your paper out of sight and out of reach, so she can't help herself. If she does have a chance to ask for it, be vague about where you put it and go through the motions of hunting for it until class begins and it's too late to give it to her. You owe it to yourself to have a sole benefit of your own work.

When she asks you to write something for her, simply tell her you'll be busy and won't have time — you have to babysit, do errands for your mother, etc. Avoid her before class, keep your papers out of reach and have excuses ready when she demands that you write a book report for her.

Q. — "Dear Elinor: I am 19 and have just become engaged to a boy 21. Now he is suspicious and jealous if I'm not at home when he comes unexpectedly, even if it's only because I went next door to make a telephone call. What shall I do?"

Ans. — His attitude is unreasonable, unrealistic and childish. Try to make him understand now that you'll be at home when you know he is coming and when you don't have to go out for necessary things. But even if you are engaged, you can't wait for him on a shelf like an inanimate object. Life must go on and there are things that you, like everybody else, must do and not all of them can be done at home. This boy — and I do mean "boy" — doesn't sound mature enough for marriage.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

May we take this opportunity to say to all our members and especially our out of state members — A very Merry Christmas to each and every one of you.

We of Post 6695 and all the VFW Posts and the Ladies Auxiliary will celebrate this Christmas season by trying to make sure the needy are not neglected and that children, in particular, have reason to be happy. Hundreds of VFW volunteers engage in a variety of community projects to bring Christmas cheer to others — to VA hospital patients, the residents of soldiers' homes, orphans, the ill, the aged and the needy. These good workers demonstrate the wonderful spirit of VFW community service at its best.

Speaking of worthwhile Christmas activities, don't forget the boys and girls at the VFW National Home who are depending so much on your generous response to your generous response to the 1960 National Home Christmas Seals Sale.

Got your gift list made out? Why not give a (Christmas visit) gift to a veteran in your nearest VA hospital this year and share in this wonderful experience. Light the candle of your own personality to help make his Christmas scene brighter.

May we remind you to pay your dues. Time is running out. If they are not paid by Jan. 1 you will be dropped from the mailing list of the News Letter and also the VFW Magazine.

For those of you who dislike driving very far New Year's Eve and yet love a good party, come out to our annual New Year's Eve Party to be held at the Post Home. Enjoy the friendly atmosphere, refreshments, dancing, food, favors, etc. Everything included and only $8 per couple. Hope to see you there.

Don't forget our last regular Wednesday night meeting tonight, Dec. 21 at 8 p.m.

Auxiliary News

Many Auxiliary members and their families attended the Christmas Party at the Post Home on Dec. 18. Santa was there and presented each child with a stocking filled with nuts, candy, and fruit. Many thanks to the Post and especially to Chairman Ray Danol and his committee for a wonderful time.

Hospital Chairman Geraldine Olson is planning a trip to Maybury Sanatorium to take gifts to approximately 123 patients.

Americanism Chairman Bettie Neale will be presenting new 50-star flags to newly formed Brownie troops at the Helen Farrand School and also to the Starkweather School for their new addition. More details later.

At this time may I wish each of you a very Merry Christmas and the best of everything during the New Year.

Teen-agers write to me everyday and one of their most consistent subjects is "going steady." Many teen-agers, especially girls and boys in their young teen years, go steady and actually don't know why — believe it or not.

Because this subject is always a matter of discussion, I'm repeating some of the arguments for and against that type of dating as given by high school students. If you're going steady and really don't know why, make sure you read this column.

Several popular reasons include the following:

1. A girl or a boy always knows he or she has a date for the important social events of the high school year.

2. It's less expensive than "playing the field." The girl doesn't necessarily have to have a new dress for important dates. The boy doesn't have to worry about spending several dollars on each date because in time the couple will be content in taking a ride, taking a walk or staying at the girl's house.

3. The girl and boy eventually feel they're a part of the other's family and if they can't get along with the other parents, believe they do have other adults who will "understand" them and their problems.

4. All humans want to "belong" or know that someone cares. In having a steady, a teen-ager believes he or she is someone "special."

5. Going steady is a "must" because "everybody's doing it."

6. Going to last-minute arranged parties at school or at a friend's house where a girl or a boy must bring a date is no trouble when a date can be arranged with the steady by a quick phone call.

A couple dating steady can always feel they have someone to confide in at any time. A girl may know more about her boy friend's troubles, thoughts and ambitions than his parents. The same is true in reverse.

Arguments against steady dating include the following:

1. The boy and girl gradually shut themselves off from their other friends and miss out on fun with "the gang."

2. Dating only one individual, boy or girl, will eventually result in the teen-ager having a one-sided point of view where members of the opposite sex are concerned. All teen-agers may be alike but at the same time they are quite different.

3. Going steady more often than not invites familiarity. Most boys wouldn't think of parking on a first date with a girl. However, parking in some cases becomes an accepted part of each date or is the date itself where going steady is involved.

4. Too many boys who go steady eventually believe they "own" the girl and should have certain personal privileges. Girls, in order to keep their boy friends and "prove" that their love is more than just talk, grant those privileges.

5. The break-up in most cases isn't worth the enjoyment of steady dating. If a girl and boy lost interest in each other at the same time, there's no harm done. However, in the large majority of cases, only one of the two involved loses interest and the "loser" is left emotionally depressed, sometimes seriously so.

6. Studies may suffer drastically because more attention is being given to the steady than to the books.

7. A boy may go into unnecessary debt for his girl. For example, buying a car he can't afford.

8. Steady dating at too early an age may ruin a teen-ager's future. Life-long plans for college may be discarded for a marriage right after high school graduation or even during high school.

You, as a teen-ager going steady, may have other reasons or if you don't go steady, may have reasons other than those mentioned just why you don't. Like everything else in life, steady dating has its good and bad points.

CHRISTMAS TIME in Plymouth means that the Salvation Army is hard at work bringing some happiness to low-income families. Capt. John Cunard is shown at left working on Christmas baskets. How much the Salvation Army can do at Christmas is determined how generous the public is with their donations.

Their familiar kettle is set up in front of the Kresge store. "When you give to The Salvation Army," Capt. Cunard said, "you can be sure that you are giving to those less fortunate the most effective gifts, the proper gifts chosen with wisdom and care against a background of knowledge and love."

U.S. Will Build 14 Million Homes In Next Decade

Nearly 14 million new homes will be built in America during the 'Sixties, a University of Michigan expert estimates.

James C. T. Mao (PhD), a sociate professor of finance tells why in "Residential Mortgage Financing: A Long-Range Projection" (40 pp., $2.50), just published by the U-M Bureau of Business Research.

Overall, Mao estimates, construction expenditures on new homes and home improvement will total $234 billion this decade, nearly one and one-half times the sum spent for this purpose during the 'Fifties ($158 billion).

Reflecting a rise in the standard of living, Americans will spend 16 percent more for their homes in 1969 than they did last year. Average construction cost per home will increase from $13,240 to $15,358.

The accompanying increase in residential mortgage debt outstanding will equal approximately two-thirds of the construction expenditures on new homes and home improvement, he adds. Total mortgage debt will rise by more than $150 billion, doubling the present total ($147 billion).

If present trends continue, funds will be available to finance this expansion of mortgage debt. Institutional savings alone can provide $133 billion of this increase, Mao estimates.

This assumes that:

1. Personal savings will comprise about 7.2 percent of personal disposable income;
2. An increased proportion of these savings — 70 percent — will be channeled into financial institutions;
3. Of the total increase in institutional savings, savings and loan associations will receive about 40 per cent, life insurance companies and commercial banks 25 percent each, and mutual savings banks 10 percent and
4. Of the savings received, investment in home mortgages will average 95 percent for savings and loan associations, 60 percent for mutual savings banks, 33 percent for commercial banks and 30 percent for life insurance companies.

The author notes, however, that the overall balance between supply and demand for mortgage funds in the 'Sixties' does not preclude the possibility of year-to-year fluctuations in credit available for this purpose.

Plans Winter Carnival Tour To Quebec

For the traveler who would like something different in February, World Wide Travel Bureau has the answer in a tour to Quebec during Winter Carnival Time. The trip has been carefully planned to be of interest not only to the sports enthusiast but also for all those young-at-heart travelers who will enjoy Winter at its Best, and includes a stopover in Montreal and a day at Lac Beauport.

The group will leave Detroit via Canadian Pacific Rail the morning of Feb. 6, spending the night in Montreal at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel. The following day includes sightseeing in the second largest French-speaking city in the world, with a late afternoon departure via rail to Quebec, where for the next three days the group will call the charming Chateau Frontenac home.

The colorful pageantry and exciting events of the Mardi Gras of the North, celebrated with the French-Canadian flair, promises an interesting time for all, starting with an excursion to Lac Beauport in the lovely Laurentian Mountains, where Le Manoir Saint-Castin provides a cozy lounge with a view of the ski slopes. For those who prefer to take their snow in smaller doses a sleigh ride through the picturesque countryside will be a memorable highlight of the trip.

Spectator seats have been requested for the great event of the social season, the Grand Regency Costume Ball, where the group can relax and watch the masqueraders parade in their gay costumes recalling the romantic bygone era of the historic Chateau.

Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, within thirty (30) days after taking of his office, the Mayor shall appoint all administrative officers and department heads of the City government, whether the office be established by this Charter or as may be created by ordinance. Provided however, that the appointment of the City Attorney and the City Assessor shall not become effective until it is confirmed by four (4) votes of the Council. Each appointive officer or member of any board or commission, unless otherwise provided in this Charter, shall hold office for an indefinite term at the pleasure of the official or body appointing him. The Council, however, shall have the power by four (4) votes of its members to remove from office for cause any appointive administrative officer or department head. In case the Council shall so remove any appointee, the term of office of such appointee shall terminate, and the vacancy so created shall be filled in accordance with the provisions herein above set forth for the appointment of administrative officers and department heads. Such removed officer shall not be reappointed to the same office during the same term of the Mayor. Provided further, however, such removed officer may be appointed by the Mayor to another office, but such appointment shall not be effective until it is confirmed by four (4) votes of the Council.

No elective officer may be appointed to any City office or be employed by the City during the term of office for which he was elected.

Section 5.4 Compensation. The compensation of the Mayor shall be eight thousand four hundred (8400) dollars per annum, and that of the City Clerk seven thousand two hundred (7200) dollars per annum, and that of the City Treasurer six thousand six hundred (6600) dollars per annum. Except as otherwise provided by Law or this Charter, the salary and compensation of every other administrative officer shall be fixed by the Council. Such salaries shall be payable monthly, and, except as otherwise provided in this Charter, shall constitute the only salary or remuneration which may be paid for services.

Section 8.6 Preparation of the Assessment Roll. On or before the first Monday in March of each year the Assessor shall prepare and certify an assessment roll of all property in the City liable to taxation. Such roll shall be prepared in accordance with Statute and this Charter. Values shall be estimated according to recognized methods of systematic assessment. The rolls shall show separate figures for the value of the land and of the building improvements.

On or before the first Monday in March the Assessor shall give by first class mail a notice of any increase over the previous year in the assessed value of any property where such increase does not involve additional construction to the owner as shown by such assessment roll. The failure to give any such notice or of the owner to receive it shall not invalidate any assessment roll or assessment thereon.

Section 8.7 Board of Review. The Board of Review shall be composed of three (3) freeholders who are qualified and registered electors of the City who during their term of office shall not be City officers or employees or be nominees or candidates for elective City office. One member of the Board shall be appointed by the Council in January, 1962 and annually thereafter for a term of three years, to replace the member whose term expires that year. The Council shall fix the compensation of the members of the Board.

The Board of Review shall annually in February select its own chairman for the ensuing year, and the Assessor shall be clerk of the Board and shall be entitled to be heard at its sessions. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

Section 8.8 Meetings of the Board of Review. The Board of Review shall convene its first session in the Council chambers in the forenoon of the Tuesday following the second Monday in March of each year and shall continue in session for six (6) hours during that day and each of the following three (3) days, for the purpose of reviewing and correcting the assessment roll of the City. The Council may extend this period by appropriate action.

In each case in which the assessed value of any property is increased over the amount shown on the assessment roll as prepared by the Assessor, or any property is added to such roll by the Board, or the Board has resolved to consider at its second session such increase of an assessment or the addition of any property as shown by such roll, the Assessor shall give notice thereof to the owner by such roll by first class letter mailed not later than the second day following the end of the first session of the Board. Such notice shall state the date, time, place and purpose of the second session of the Board. The failure to give any such notice or of the owner to receive it shall not invalidate any assessment roll or assessment thereon.

The Board of Review shall convene in its second session on the Tuesday following the fourth Monday in March of each year at such time of day and place as shall be designated by the Council. Provided, however, that at least one (1) meeting thereof shall begin at 3:00 p.m. and shall continue in session until all interested persons have had an opportunity to be heard, but in no case for less than six (6) hours. Section 8.9 Notice of Meetings. The Council shall provide for giving notice to the public of the time and place of the meeting of the Board of Review. Such notice shall be given not less than ten (10) days before the convening of the Board and as often thereafter as the Council deems necessary.

Section 8.10 Duties and Functions of Board of Review. For the purpose of reviewing and correcting assessments, the Board of Review shall have the same powers and perform like duties in all respects as are by Statute conferred upon and required of boards of review in townships, except as otherwise provided in this Charter. It shall hear the complaints of all persons considering themselves aggrieved by assessments, and if it shall appear that any person or property has been wrongfully assessed or omitted from the roll, the Board shall correct the roll in such manner as it deems just. In all cases the roll shall be reviewed according to the facts existing on the tax day and no change in the status of any property after said day shall be considered by the Board in making its decisions. Except as otherwise provided by Statute, no person other than the Board of Review shall make or authorize any change, additions or corrections to the assessment roll. It shall be the duty of the Assessor to keep a permanent record of all proceedings and to enter therein all resolutions and decisions of the Board.

Section 8.11 Endorsement of Roll. After the Board of Review has completed its review of the assessment roll, and not later than the first Monday in April, the majority of its members shall endorse thereon and sign a statement to the effect that the same is the assessment roll of the City for the year in which it has been prepared. The omission of such endorsement shall not affect the validity of such roll.

Section 8.12 Clerk to Certify Tax Levy. Within three (3) days after the Council has adopted the budget for the ensuing year, the Clerk shall certify to the Assessor the total amount which the Council determines shall be raised by general ad valorem tax. The Clerk also shall certify all amounts of current or delinquent special assessments and all other amounts which the Council requires to be assessed, reassessed or charged upon any property or against any person.

Section 8.13 City Tax Roll. After the Board of Review has completed its review of the assessment roll, the Assessor shall prepare a copy of the assessment roll to be known as the "City Tax Roll", and upon receiving the certification of the several amounts to be raised, as provided in Section 8.12, the Assessor shall spread upon said tax roll the several amounts determined by the Council to be charged, assessed or reassessed against persons or property valued in this Charter, and, except as otherwise provided in this Charter, shall also spread the amount of the general ad valorem city tax, county tax and school tax according to and in proportion to the several valuations set forth in said assessment roll. To avoid fractions in computation on any tax roll, the Assessor may add to the amount of the several taxes to be raised not more than the amount prescribed by Statute. Any excess created thereon by any tax roll shall belong to the City.

Section 8.14 Tax Roll Certified for Collection. After spreading the Taxes the Assessor shall certify the tax roll, and the Mayor shall annex his warrant thereto directing and requiring the Treasurer to collect prior to March first of the following year from the several persons named in said tax roll, the several sums mentioned therein opposite their respective names as a tax or assessments and granting to him, for the purpose of collecting the taxes, assessments and charges on such roll all statutory powers and immunities possessed by township treasurers for the collection of taxes. On or before June fifth, the roll shall be delivered to the Treasurer for collection.

Section 8.15 Tax Lien on Property. On July first, the taxes thus assessed shall become a debt due to the City from the persons to whom they are assessed, and the amounts assessed on any interest in real property shall become a lien upon such real property, for such amounts and for all interest and charges thereon, and all personal taxes shall become a first lien on all personal property of such persons so assessed. Such lien shall take precedence over all other claims, encumbrances and liens to the extent provided by Statute and shall continue until such taxes, interest and charges are paid.

Section 8.16 Taxes Due: Notification Thereof. City taxes shall be due on July first of each year. The Treasurer shall not be required to call upon the persons named in the City tax roll, nor to make personal demand for the payment of taxes, but he shall (a) publish between June fifteenth and July first, notice of the time when said taxes will be due for collection and the penalties and fees for late payment of same, and (b) mail a bill to each person named in such roll, but in cases of multiple ownership of property, only one (1) bill need be mailed.

Failure on the part of the Treasurer to publish said notice or mail such bills shall not invalidate the taxes on said tax roll, nor release the person or property assessed from the penalties and fees provided in this chapter in case of late payment or non-payment of the same.

Section 8.17 Errors in Tax Roll. When it shall appear that any tax or special assessment, or part thereof, has been illegally assessed, the Council shall have power to return the same, or such illegal portion, if collected; or if not collected, to vacate the tax or assessment in whole or in part.

Section 8.18 Collection Fees. All taxes paid on or before August thirty-first of each year shall be collected by the Treasurer without collection fee. He shall add to all taxes paid after August thirty-first a collection fee as the Council may determine but not to exceed four (4) per cent of the amount of said taxes. Such collection fee shall belong to the City and constitute a charge and shall be a lien against the property to which the taxes themselves apply, collectible in the same manner as the taxes to which they are added.

It is provided, however, that if delivery of the tax roll to the Treasurer, as provided in Section 8.14 is delayed for any reason by more than thirty (30) days after June fifth, the application of the schedule of collection fees provided herein shall be postponed thirty (30) days for the first thirty (30) days of such delay, and shall be postponed an additional thirty (30) days for each additional thirty (30) days, or major fraction thereof, of such delay.

Section 8.19 Failure or Refusal to Pay Personal Property Tax. If any person, firm or corporation shall neglect or refuse to pay any personal property tax assessed to him or them by October first, the Treasurer shall collect the same by seizing the personal property of such person, firm or corporation to an amount sufficient to pay such tax, fees and charges for subsequent sale, from which seizure no property shall be exempt. He may sell the property seized to an amount sufficient to pay the taxes and all charges in accordance with statutory provisions. The Treasurer may, if otherwise unable to collect a tax on personal property, sue in accordance with Statute, the person, firm or corporation to whom it is assessed.

Section 8.20 Delinquent Tax Roll to County Treasurer. All City taxes on real property remaining uncollected by the Treasurer on the first day of March following the date when said roll was received by him shall be returned to the County Treasurer in the manner and with like effect as provided by Statute for returns by township treasurers of township, school and county taxes. Such returns shall include all the additional assessments, charges and fees hereinbefore provided, which shall be added to the amount assessed in said tax roll against each property or person. The taxes thus returned shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes returned to the County Treasurer as collected, in accordance with Statute, and shall be and remain a lien upon the property against which they are assessed until paid. If by change in Statute, or otherwise, the Treasurer of the County of Wayne is no longer charged with the collection of delinquent real property taxes, such delinquent taxes shall be collected in the manner then provided by Statute for the collection of delinquent township, school and county taxes.

Section 8.21 State, County and School Taxes. For the purpose of assessing and collecting taxes for state, county and school purposes, the City shall be considered the same as a township, and all provisions of Statute relative to the collection of and accounting for such taxes shall apply. For these purposes the Treasurer shall perform the same duties and have the same powers as township treasurers under Statute.
