

Board Size to Be Increased in '63

Republicans Retain Grip on Township Offices

Despite a dogged effort by Democrats, Plymouth Township Republicans maintained their past strength and returned to Township Hall with a 2 to 1 victory in Monday's Biennial election.

Township voters also decided to increase the size of their Township Board to seven members by adding two more trustees two years from now.

There were 1,716 voters at the polls Monday—133 more than the previous Biennial election in 1959.

On the whole, Republicans had an easier time of it this time than two years ago. Supervisor Roy Lindsay, who has held that post since June 1953, pulled 1,078 votes Monday while his Democratic opponent, Dr. Leo Speer, received 552. This was a margin of 526. Two years ago the supervisor won by only 346 votes from Orville Tungate.

Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, the Township's treasurer since 1953, again was the leading vote-getter. She won with 1,115 votes while next in line was Fred L. Miller, with 1,103 votes, winning his second term as Township clerk. All of the Republicans, except two of the constable candidates, were incumbents.

Winning his third term as Township trustee was Louis Norman. He was elected for a two-year term in 1955 and a four-year term in 1957. He was the only Township Board incumbent who was faced with a candidate in the February primary where he won over Harvey Ziel.

The other township trustee, C. V. Sparks, has two more years to serve on his term. Trustees serve four-year terms while the other three Board members—the supervisor, clerk and treasurer—have but two-year terms. Also elected four years were Justice of the Peace Martin Schomberger and the GOP Board of Appeals candidate, Loyd Sharland.

Also handling their opponents with ease were the four constable candidates, Donald King and Robert Burns, incumbents, and Richard Powell and Gene Leader, new candidates, Frank Millington was re-elected highway commissioner.

By a vote of 1,022 to 575, Township electors approved the enlargement of the Township Board. Law required that the proposal be placed on the ballot because after a Township reaches population of over 5,000 it is allowed two more trustees. The 1960 census found 8,364 people in Plymouth Township.

By approving the proposal, the Board will add two more trustees in 1963.

Looking at other parts of the ballot, Plymouth Township voters approved the Constitutional Convention proposal, 1,022 to 575.

Traditionally Republican Township voters gave other State and County GOP candidates around an 8-5 endorsement. One exception was popular Democratic Highway Commissioner John Mackie who lost by only 90 votes. He received 673 while Republican Charles Bedwell polled 763.

State Proposal No. 2 dealing with the loaning of State money to aid in industrial development was also approved, 819 to 629.

Township Democrats did not have any candidates file for election this year, but wrote in a slate in the February primary. They had no candidate for Board of Review.

Despite the fact that Democrats have never won a Township office, they made another all-out effort this year. A phone and a house-to-house campaign was conducted.

Dr. Speer raised the ire of his Republican opponents at the Town Hall meeting last Wednesday night by charging "one man rule" in the Township and claiming that Supervisor Lindsay is in a favorable position by operating a real estate business while serving as supervisor.

The 69-year-old supervisor was appointed to the post in 1953 to fill out the term of Charles Rathburn who died in office. Lindsay was elected in 1955, 1957 and 1959.

During his terms, the Township has built a sanitary sewer system and is now constructing a water system carrying Detroit water. Both are in the eastern half of the Township.

A veteran of World War I, the supervisor started his real estate and insurance business here in 1946. As a member of the Board of Supervisors, he holds committee posts on the powerful Ways and Means Committee, the Sewer and Water Committee and Wayne County General Hospital committee. He is also vice-president of the Michigan Townships Assn.

Canton Turns Down Chartered Township Issue

A proposal to place Canton Township under a "chartered township" form of government was turned down by voters Monday by a five-vote margin.

The proposal received 379 yes votes and 384 against.

Receiving the support of the Township Board, the proposal was to give the Board some broader powers that are outlined in recent State statutes. Only a few Michigan townships have adopted this chartered township government, but the number is increasing.

There were no races for the Township Board offices and the present Township Board, led by Supervisor Louis Stein, were all returned to office without opposition.

Returned to the Board with Stein, a Republican, are Clerk John Flodin (D), Treasurer Philip Dingeldey (D) and Trustee Harvey Vetal (R).

There was a race for the Board of Review, Republican J. D. Clark beat out incumbent Democrat Charles Gorham, 402-260.

One of the five constable candidates was also eliminated. Elected were Gerald Cather, 343; John Collins, 324; Bert Walling, 316; and Ernest Muller, 282. Melvin Pearl lost out with 263 votes.

There were only 866 going to the polls, considerably less than two years ago.

Plant Moves From Plymouth To Willow Run

Peerless Industries, a small manufacturing plant that has been at 150 Fair St. in Plymouth since 1958, will move next month to a new location at Willow Run. President Russell P. Hoffman announced this week.

The plant makes screw machine products, flexible plumbing supplies and related fittings and heater replacement parts.

Peerless was started in 1943 in Detroit and later moved to 3030 N. Terriorial Rd., in Salem Township. In 1958 the building was destroyed by fire.

Later that year, Peerless acquired the Fair St. property and converted the apartment into a factory building.

Hoffman said that the present 4,500 square foot plant is too small for the operation. The new plant was formerly occupied by the Monarch Governor Co. and is across from the Corvair assembly plant. It has 40,000 square feet.

Hoffman said Peerless is not hiring new personnel.

NEWS BEAT

With some 150 Plymouth area families now receiving surplus food, the Department of Social Welfare has requested the City to open a distribution center here, possibly in the City-owned Bronson Building in the Central Parking lot. The City Commission was giving the request consideration Tuesday night as The Mail went to press ... The Commission meeting was held a day later this week because Monday, election day, was an official holiday in Michigan.

GOVERNOR HERE: Governor John Swainson arrived at the Township Hall Monday at 11 a.m. to cast his ballot in the Biennial Election. It took him less than a minute to vote. He brought along with him the absentee ballot of his wife, Alice, who is being treated for lung trouble in Lansing ... While the governor voted in Precinct 3, Democratic supervisor or candidate Dr. Leo Speer was voting in Precinct 2 a few yards away in the Township Hall meeting room. It can be presumed that the two men voted for the same candidates.

POLICE BEAT: A woman giving probably a fictitious name of Joyce McMullen, decided to rent an apartment on Ford Rd. March 22 and told the owner that she expected delivery of a TV and refrigerator. She then went to Hubbs & Gilles, ordered a TV set and had it delivered. The next morning she told the apartment owner she had rented an apartment elsewhere, took the TV set and left. Hubbs & Gilles have filed a complaint charging larceny by trick ... Floyd Harden, Wayne, reported that someone broke into his locked car March 31 parked on Amelia near Main, took a Polaroid camera and transistor radio ... And the Chamber was warning its members this week that counterfeit Chrysler Corp. checks using five digit numbers instead of four digits are being circulated in Wayne County.

ON OFFENSIVE: Ed Ebert, C & O yard conductor here, has been flooded with letters from Teamsters and their wives ever since he wrote an article in the C & O newspaper urging fellow roaders to write their legislators defending the railroads' right to keep the "piggybacks" on the rails ... Now, Mrs. Floyd Korabacher, wife of the assistant trainmaster, is leading a letter-writing offensive by wives of the railroaders. They plan to write legislators and answer letters written to Ebert. Teamsters claim that the haulaway trucking business is dying because railroads have been given an overly-favorable auto-hauling rate by the government.

FIRE RUNS: A car owned by Robert Wiser, 575 Simpson, was damaged inside by smoke and heat Friday morning. A lighted cigarette apparently smoldered in the front seat from 3 a.m. until it was discovered at 9:10 a.m., City firemen said ... A child pulled a cord from a lamp at the Thomas Noteboert home, 840 Beech Ct., Monday morning and caused a small burn on the sofa.

NO YOLK, SON: When two young boys got the notion Sunday night to heave some hard-boiled eggs at a car, one might say that it was appropriate that it was on Easter. But car owner Thomas Campbell, 383 Starkweather, failed to see anything funny and police were called. Fathers of the boys promised police to have the car washed.

Supervisor Job Goes to Vallier

Two businessmen, James Houk and Robert O. Beyer, will officially become City Commissioners next Monday night while two other present commissioners, Richard Wernette and William Hartmann, will rejoin the legislative body — all the result of Monday's City election that saw 1,661 voters going to the polls.

Also elected on the local non-partisan ballot was A. E. Vallier, who will be the City's representative on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors for the next four years.

One incumbent candidate for Commission, J. Rusling Cutler, was edged out.

Houk, owner of Fisher's Shoes, was the leading vote-puller in the eight-way race for four Commission seats. He gathered 973 votes. Beyer, owner of three Beyer Rexall Drug stores, was next in line with 899 votes.

Running third was incumbent Richard Wernette, a Probate Court deputy, who will be starting his second term. He won 719 votes.

Houk, Beyer and Wernette will serve four-year terms. The fourth highest candidate, William Hartmann, received 659 votes and will have a two-year term. Hartmann is completing a four-year term, but during the 1950's served on the Commission and was mayor. He is manager of a gasoline products distributorship.

Cutler ran fifth with 588 votes and he was followed closely by Mrs. Catherine Henderson with 585. Fabe Mirto pulled 411 votes and trailing eighth was Richard Merriam, 402.

Mrs. Henderson was also a losing candidate for supervisor. She received 548 votes while Vallier tallied 743. Vallier, a Ford Motor Co. engineer, succeeds George Witkowski who did not run. There were four candidates in the February primary.

The new terms of office will start next Monday. At the next regular meeting on April 17, commissioners will elect the mayor. Mayor Harold Guenther was not eligible to run this year because of a two-term limitation.

The 1,661 people voting was 189 more than the Biennial Spring Election two years ago. Voting by precincts was as follows:

Precinct 1, (City Hall) 282; Precinct 2, (Fire Station 2) 479

Arbor Plaza Center, planned for construction at the northeast corner of Ann Arbor and Sheldon Roads, will be the site of the S. S. Kresge Co. company's second store in Plymouth.

Kresge will join Wrigley Super Market and several yet unnamed firms in the six and one-quarter acre shopping development. Gould Homes, Inc., is developer of the shopping center. Owner Loren Gould said this week that final plans for the development have not been completed, but that it will be of colonial design.

Gould Homes is the same firm that will open a new subdivision of homes in the southwest corner of the City, north of the shopping center, as soon as the County sewer ban is lifted.

Township Budget Goes Up But Millage Rate Is Same

No increase in millage over last year was the good word heard at the Plymouth Township Annual Meeting held last Saturday at which a budget of $415,902 — nearly $113,000 higher than the previous year — was approved.

There were 41 citizens at the meeting, including most of the candidates who faced each other in Monday's Biennial Election. But despite differences in political opinions, there was complete harmony at the Annual Meeting.

The major item of business was the adopting of the 1961-62 budget. Changes in the budget that required a special vote of the audience were increases in the salaries of the supervisor and clerk. The supervisor's salary was adjusted upward from $7,200 to $8,500. The clerk's salary was hiked from $5,200 to $8,000.

For the first time, the treasurer's salary is in the budget. Previously, the treasurer was paid one per cent of the tax collections but a resolution last fall by the Township Board abandoned the fee method and placed the treasurer on a salary of $7,500.

The new budget's total of $415,902 is $112,914 higher than the one adopted a year ago. Only $217,628 was spent of the $302,988 budgeted in the past fiscal year. An expanded water system caused a substantial budget increase.

The Township millage for the new fiscal year is expected to again be 3.5 mills ($3.50 per $1,000 of valuation). Of this, 1 mill is used for general government, 1.5 mills will go for sewer debt retirement and 1 mill for water debt retirement.

One major item set aside last year but never spent was $26,000 for a fire truck and equipment. It had been proposed that a new pumper be purchased, but it was never done. This year it is proposed that the pumper and perhaps a rescue truck be bought. The truck would be one that would pump from hydrants and would not carry water, such as the present trucks. The eastern half of the Township will soon have hydrant coverage.

Also budgeted this year is $25,000 for Township Hall, building and ground improvement. The amount is being

Another New Bowling Lane Proposed Here

Plymouth — which this season has had but one bowling alley — may have three by the time the next bowling season opens next Fall.

"Lake Pointe Lanes" is the name given to a new alley that intends to open next Fall in Lake Pointe Village. Also expected to open is Plymouth Bowl, located on Plymouth Rd. across from Whitman & Barnes.

The newest entry into the local bowling scene will have 32 AMF lanes. Lee Butler is the promoter.

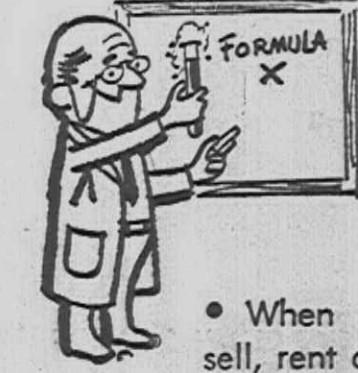

The lanes will be located along Schoolcraft Rd., west of the Fire Station No. 2. It will be the second commercial venture in the Lake Pointe Shopping Plaza, joining Detroit Bank & Trust Co. Plans for the new lanes are now pending before Township building inspector.

Included in the new lanes will be a restaurant, snack counter, dance patio, meeting rooms, cocktail lounge, "quickeer bar," and a free nursery.

The other proposed lane, Plymouth Bowl, is being slowed down by a necessary change in zoning. The property is now zoned. The property and must be changed to C-2 (commercial). A public hearing is scheduled before the Township Planning Commission April 19.

V.F.W. Observes 15th Year In Plymouth This Saturday

It was in early 1946 that a group of discharged Plymouth veterans who had served overseas discussed the possibilities of forming a fraternal service organization. Its purpose would be to perpetuate the memory and history of their departed comrades, to assist their widows and orphans and foster patriotism and allegiance to the government of the U.S.

On April 11, 1946, at the Plymouth High School, Mayflower Post 6895 Veterans of Foreign Wars, was instituted.

Robert Burley was the first post commander. In celebration of its 15th birthday, the V.F.W. Post will gather this Saturday, April 8 at 7 p.m. at its Post Home. A family-style chicken dinner will be served, after which there will be presentations of 10 and 15 year pins. Entertainment will follow.

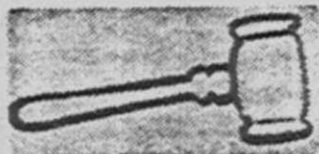

During the first years of its existence, the Post held meetings in numerous places, including the Veterans Memorial Center, and in a building at 920 N. Mill St., which was recently destroyed by fire. After much deliberation which saw other plans come and go, the present Post Home site was purchased and ground was broken October 17, 1952.

The first meeting was held in the partially-completed building June 6, 1953 with Commander Richard Neale presiding. Formal dedication of the Post Home took place February 20, 1955. In the ensuing years, the Post has made steady progress, not only in membership growth which now stands at 172 paid members, but in all its activities.

In April 1959 the mortgage was burned. Improvements have been made, an addition completed and in the past year during Commander Harold Young's term, the last of all outstanding debts and loans were paid.

Maxine Willoughby

Upon meeting Maxine Willoughby, one is immediately impressed with her quiet efficiency and subtle sense of humor.

Currently she presides as Regent of the 101 members of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She has been active with this group for the past 23 years.

A Michigander by birth, part of her growing up took place in Louisiana. She first arrived on the Plymouth scene in 1927 when she taught junior high students in the seventh and eighth grades. Wedding bells rang for Maxine and Robert Willoughby in June of 1927. In addition to raising three children, Margaret Jean, Robert and Janet, Mrs. Willoughby has found time to participate in many community organizations. She served as president of the Plymouth Woman's Club during 1939-41, as well as being one of the charter members of the Woman's Club Glee Club, which has just celebrated its 20th anniversary. She served on the Plymouth School Board for three years, is a member of the Daughters of Colonial Wars (D.C.W.), is a member of the Michigan chapter of the National Society of Founders and Patriots of America, was state president of C.A.R. (Children of the American Revolution) from 1952-55, belongs to the Huguenot Society, U of M Club and is an active worker in the League at St. John's Episcopal Church.

It stands to reason that anyone with such a range of interests would also have a hobby, and she does. For quite a number of years Mrs. Willoughby has been collecting miniature antique lamps. These include whale oil and kerosene lamps that came from England and the Eastern seaboard states. Betty lamps, which were utility lamps burning grease and fat, and a variety of rarer colored glass lamps.

We would be remiss if we concluded this introduction of Maxine Willoughby without mentioning her agility in the culinary arts.

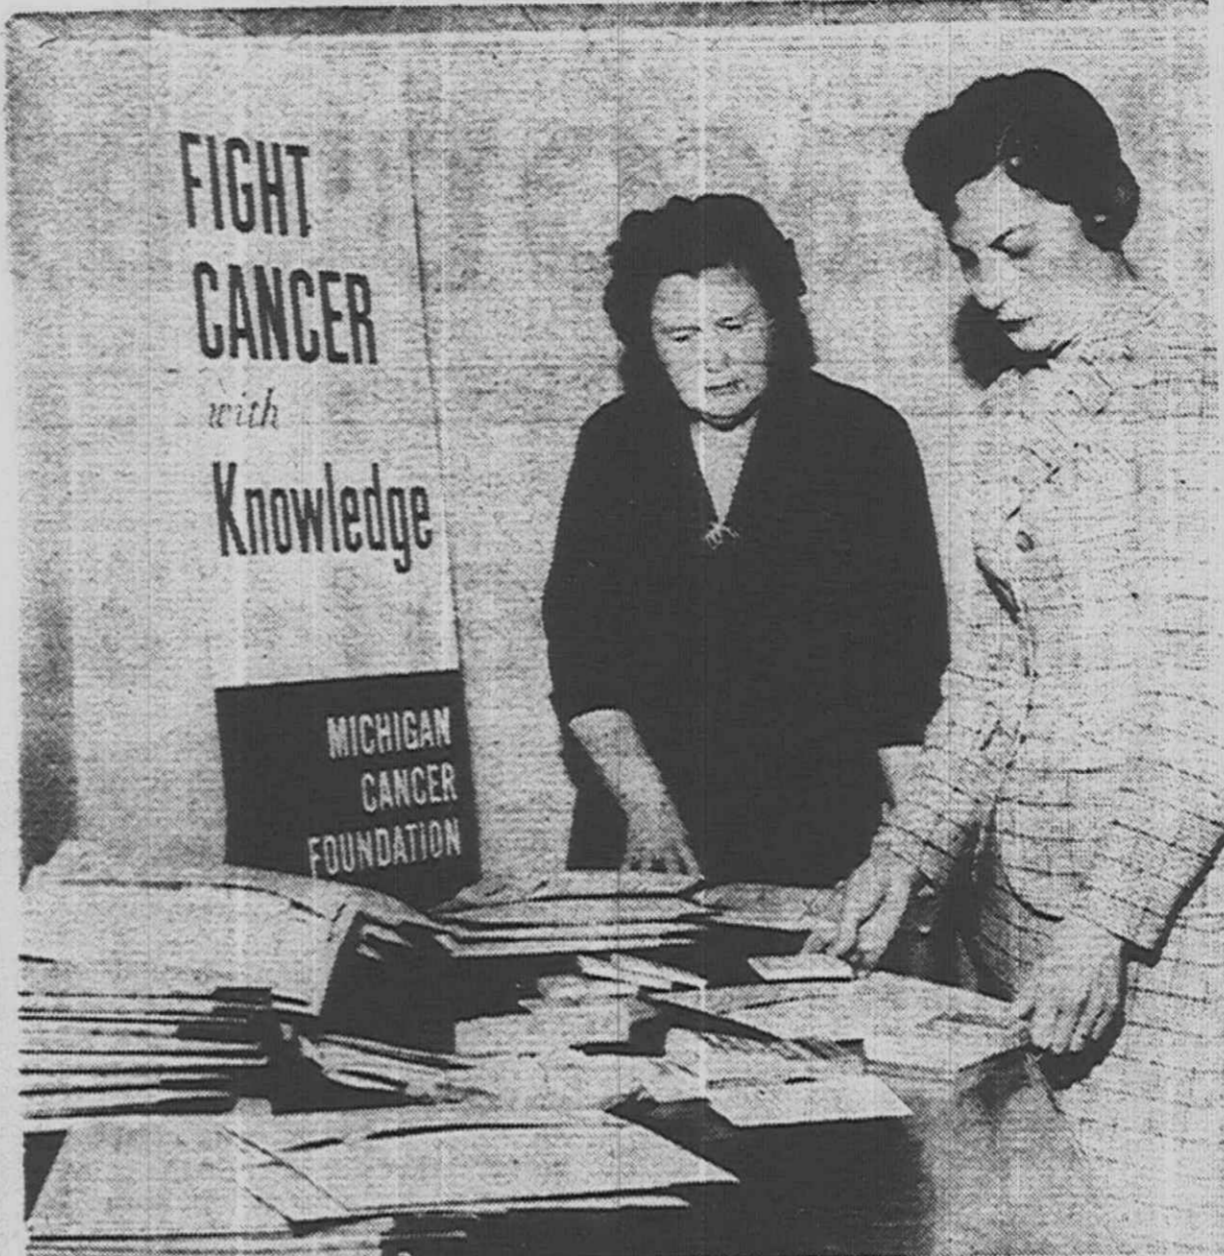

There are about 2,500 museums in the United States today, compared with 600 in 1932.

Engaged It's Short Step From Playpen to Poison Cabinet

Jacqueline A. Booth

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Booth, Jr. of 1225 Sheridan Ave., Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jacqueline A. Booth to Charles R. Oja of 31587 Five Mile Rd., Livonia.

An August wedding is planned.

Dr. Lowrey suggests these poison safety rules:

1. Keep all drugs, known poisons and other chemicals out of reach of children, or locked up.

2. Discard old medicines and other chemicals in such a manner that they cannot be reached by children or pets.

3. Read all labels and carefully follow directions.

4. Do not store potentially poisonous substances in food or beverage containers.

5. Do not take or give medicines in the dark.

6. Give medications only with the direction of a doctor, and make sure specific instructions are obtained from him. (True for all ages, this is especially true in the child where overdosage is a greater threat).

7. Remember that many apparently harmless substances such as aspirin, sleeping pills, metal polishes, and other cleaning agents, may not be labeled sufficiently to indicate their potential danger. Therefore, all such items should be kept in safe storage.

8. When using cleaning fluids adequate ventilation is important and when using pesticides care must be exercised to avoid contaminating food as well as to avoid inhalation or excessive contact on the skin.

From playpen to poison may be a short step, according to doctors at The University of Michigan Medical Center.

Last year the U-M Poison Center received 491 telephone calls concerning poisoning cases — and 315 of them, 64 per cent, dealt with youngsters from one to three years old.

"It should be emphasized that this is the age span which is most difficult to educate," Dr. George H. Lowrey, U-M associate professor of pediatrics and communicable diseases, explains in Safety Digest, a publication of the University Safety Committee.

Dr. Lowrey suggests these poison safety rules:

1. Keep all drugs, known poisons and other chemicals out of reach of children, or locked up.

2. Discard old medicines and other chemicals in such a manner that they cannot be reached by children or pets.

Woman's Club Elects Officers April 7

The regular business meeting of the Plymouth Women's Club will be held April 7 at 1 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. This will be followed by the annual meeting, at which time election of officers for 1961 and 1962 will take place. It is important that the active membership attend to vote on the revision of the by-laws. These revisions have been presented at previous meetings.

Guest speaker, Mrs. L. Sprinkle, a lapidarian, will give a talk on semi-precious gem stones from their rough state to the finished product. She will show stones from Africa and many from America and discuss the methods used in their cutting.

Hostesses for the day—Mrs. Gladys Deyo, Mrs. John Gaffield, Mrs. Charles Garlett, Mrs. Peter R. Miller and Mrs. Ralph Snook. Mrs. Guy Higley will be acting as a chairman for the day in the absence of Mrs. M. W. Newell.

PLYMOUTH Chamber CHARGE PLAN

Jean's Jottings

By Jean Campau, Woman's Editor

It was a real family affair and, no doubt, a memorable, exciting, and hectic five day period for Mr. and Mrs. Milton Gibson of Morgan St., for within that time both of their daughters, Mrs. Linda Dely and Mrs. Barbara Bonar, made them grandparents.

Mrs. James Bonar gave birth to a 9 lb., 1 oz. daughter, Juliett Robin, March 23 at St. Mary in Livonia, then five days later on March 27, Mrs. William Dely, in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, had a 6 lb. 10 oz. baby girl, Cheryl Anne.

Now the chain of family events had yet another forging, for Mrs. Mary Jane (Dely) Clark, daughter of Mrs. Anna Dely of Maple St. and aunt of Linda's husband, also had a baby girl, Vicki Ann, born in St. Mary's Hospital on March 23, and both Mary Jane and Barbara had rooms cross the hall from each other and visited back and forth during their confinement.

So it was an occasion of "firsts" and similarities in many ways; all the mothers produced daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson became first-time grandparents, Mrs. Bonar and Mrs. Dely became aunts as well as mothers and Mrs. Clark became a great aunt. All of the grandparents assure us that the infants are pretty and healthy.

In this age of push-button, labor-saving convenience we often take for granted the ease of washing diapers and the general laundry.

This fact was brought home to us recently when we came across a delightful bit of homespun philosophy in the Nurses Digest which we would like to share with you. It's the "recept" for washing clothes, given many years ago to a young bride by her Kentucky mountain grandmother. We think you will agree with us that it is a universal application — the satisfaction of a job well done. Here it is, just as it was originally written.

1. bid fire in back yard to heat kettle of rain water.
2. set tubs so smoke won't blow in eyes if wind is pert.
3. shave one hole cake lie soap in bilin water.
4. sort things, make three piles. 1 pile white. 1 pile cullord, 1 pile work britches and rags.
5. stur flour in cold water to smooth then thin down with bilin water.
6. rub dirty spots on board, scrub hard, then bile, rub cullord but don't bile, just rench and starch.
7. take white things out of kettle with broom stick handle then rench, blew and starch.
8. spred tee towels on grass.

Election of P.T.A. Officers Among News from Canton Twp.

By Esther Sprengel
GL 3-0194

On Tuesday, March 28, the Gallimore PTA held their monthly meeting which included election of officers and a discussion for more successful PTA meetings for next year. The new executive board officers are: president, John Schroeder; first vice-president, Arnold Williams; second vice-president, Mrs. Lois Vetal; secretary, Mrs. Virginia Stokes; and treasurer, Mrs. Karen Osen. Members of the PTA group entered into a general discussion on the future of their organization and plans to interest more parents of the school in such meetings. Questionnaires were passed out to the group asking for their suggestions and also asking for their services on various committees. Twenty-five questionnaires were turned in for consideration by the executive board, and Mr. Schroeder announced that these questionnaires would also be sent home with the students to be filled out by all parents of Gallimore. Members of the group expressed a desire for more speakers, more information on the happenings of their school and School Board. Mr. Schroeder, acting president for this meeting and elected president for next year, answered the group with great enthusiasm and assured the group that their suggestions would help plan the program for next year.

As parents of sixth grade students know, the time for their camping trip is near. The parents and boys and girls of the Gallimore sixth grades have put great effort and time raising funds for their trip. The groups collected jars of all sizes and descriptions, labeled and put them up for sale to serve many uses. Some transformations were: cookie jars (peanut butter jars), salt and pepper shakers (from baby food jars), jars for nail's workshop to hold those nails, screws, and what have you (also from baby food jars), and small tin cans (became attractive crayon holders with six paper covering them.) These items cost only the price of the decals and paint to make them useful, plus the elbow grease of the mothers, especially Mrs. Daly, and many of her helpers. The group was under the chairmanship of Mrs. James Spigarelli. Other items sold to raise funds were T-shirts with the school name, and cloths that served many useful purposes.

The mothers were also on hand on conference day to serve coffee and cookies, with a little cup for donations, also to be used for the camping fund. The coffee break seemed to go over well with parents attending the conferences.

Just a reminder to all parents. The executive board of the Plymouth Junior High PTSA wishes to extend an invitation to the parents of school children to attend their April 10 program. Dr. Clayton Lafferty, psychological consultant of the Wayne County Board of Education, will speak to the group on case studies of behavior problems and analysis and discussion of portions of actual recorded interviews. Underlying causes of behavior problems will be developed along with possible remedial corrective action. The meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m. in the general purpose room.

Economist Speaks To Newcomers

The April Newcomers' Club luncheon will be held on April 13 at Lofy's Arbor-Lill, 42390 Ann Arbor Rd. This meeting had originally been scheduled for April 6, but was postponed a week in order to engage the guest speaker.

The usual Hospitality Hour will precede the luncheon at 12:45 p.m.

Mrs. Helen McGivney, home economist from the Iron-rite Co. will give an interesting demonstration on "How All Ironing Can Be Flat Ironing" on an Iron-rite.

The reservation hostesses are Martha Smith, GL 3-9244 and Evelyn Joslin, GL 3-1869. Reservations must be made by Tuesday evening, April 11. Guests are welcome!

President Of Private School Speaking Here

Arthur S. Huey, president of the Leelanau schools, Glen Arbor, Mich., will speak about the role of the private school in college preparatory education on Sunday afternoon, April 9, at the American Legion Hall in Livonia. He will also show color movies of the school, which is educational, and its summer camp for boys.

With 600 acres situated on Lake Michigan near Sleeping Bear Dunes, Leelanau offers unique advantages to college preparatory students. An independent school, it provides an education tailored to the needs of its students. Small classes, a skilled faculty and constant research into study methods and effective curriculum practices assure the best possible preparation for college work.

Because of its remote location, away from the distractions of a city environment, Leelanau's atmosphere encourages closer concentration by its students on achievement of the objectives of pre-college study. Sunday's program will start at 3 p.m. The American Legion Hall is located on Newburg Rd. just south of Ann Arbor Trail. Interested persons are invited.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Nobody's in the Doghouse

The question of our town dog catcher came up at the last town meeting and someone started a little fuss about Slim Thomas — said he'd been dog catcher for a year and hadn't caught a single dog.

Buck Hanson spoke right up. "Aren't any dogs to catch. Any stray turns up, and if the dog's healthy, Slim gives it to some youngster to keep for a pet. We don't want to elect a man who'd put harmless little pups in cages, do we?"

I guess we don't, because Slim got re-elected, and they even gave him a raise in pay.

From where I sit, the folks in our town are a pretty nice bunch. Live and let live, they say — and they don't just apply this old axiom to strays, either. Me, for instance. Most every time a neighbor asks me over for dinner he serves me a glass of beer. He knows that's my preference, even though his might be coffee or tea. There's no "catch" to being a good neighbor — just be a tolerant one.

Extension Group Hears Lesson On Calorie Value

The last meeting of the Worden Extension group was held in the Smith-Durance home, with 21 members and several guests attending.

Following a dinner at noon, the meeting was opened by president Francis Sellars with the Michigan Woman's Creed. The roll call was answered with "what do you do when you do what you want to do?"

The secretary's report pertaining to past month's lesson on the "Hidden Values and Fashion Apparel of the Well Dressed" was read and accepted. Her report on good taste and meticulous care in planning fashions proved to be fascinating with a challenge to our own ingenuity for individually.

Mrs. Dora Nelson, a long time member, unable to attend, was remembered by the group at Easter.

Topics discussed were the district spring parties and a food demonstration on infrared cooking.

The meeting was then turned over to the project leaders, Luella Wilson and Josie MacIntyre, who gave the lesson on "Food and Calorie Value."

The meeting ended with a happy Easter note and to meet with Irene Kelly in April.

Brother Against Brother, Publisher Against Publisher

Now that there is no longer anyone alive who had to fight in it, the Civil War is becoming a remarkably popular institution.

Last year alone nearly 100 different Civil War books were published. And that, of course, was just the opening salvo. This month sees the official start of the four-year Civil War Centennial Celebration and the publishers intend to wage total war. Unless the American reading public caves in a lot quicker than the Confederates did we can expect the book barrage to continue right up to April 9, 1965, the anniversary of Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox Court House. On that date, we presume, Bennett Cerf will sign a truce with Alfred A. Knopf and the rest of us can relax for another century.

In the meantime we are all in this thing together. Fortunately the publishers are making it easy for the general or non-fanatic Civil War reader to get hold of the best books by bringing them out in inexpensive paperback editions.

We spotted these on the newsstands this week:

Two excellent books by Bruce Catton, This Hallowed Ground and A Stillness at Appomattox. Mr. Catton is regarded by many as the most readable of historians dealing in the Civil War; certainly This Hallowed Ground gives the best coverage, both politically and militarily, that you are likely to find. The book is accurate, fair and informative and any American will gain by reading it. Catton's Appomattox is a more detailed account of the grueling war waged in 1863-64 when Grant was rebuilding the Army of the Potomac for victory. Both books sell for 50 cents.

The War Years by Carl Sandburg (two volumes, 75 cents each) is a shortened version of the poet's monumental Lincoln study and was originally published in four volumes. It goes without saying that these are books that anyone can profit enormously from reading; they bring us close to one of the world's truly great men and are told in language that is down to earth but memorable.

An off-beat effort is MacKinley Kantor's If the South Had Won the Civil War (35 cents).

Department of Depressing Information
Who is the most translated author (living or dead) in the world today?

You're right: Nikita Khrushchev.

According to figures just released on international publishing ventures for the year 1959 (latest year available) Khrushchev's writings were translated 198 times.

In second place — this doesn't get much better — was Lenin with 174 new translations published around the globe. He was followed by the Bible with 171, Tolstoy with 130, Jules Verne with 124, Dostoiyevsky with 114 and finally comes the voice of the West, Agatha Christie, with 103. Shakespeare slipped to 90 new translations in 1959.

We can't draw any cosmic conclusions from these statistics.

But it's beginning to look as though our side is losing something in the translation.

PLYMOUTH JUNIOR High School seventh graders with their teacher Charles Kipp were guests at the Western Electric Distribution House in Plymouth. They are shown on the stairway in the main lobby. After a tour of the plant, refreshments were served in the cafeteria. Lionel Harrison, methods and accounting manager, greeted the group and they viewed a film, "Tools of Telephony." Mr. Kipp is shown at right rear and Charles Sizemore, personnel supervisor, second row, left.

Local Enthusiasts To Hold First Coin Show

Several local coin enthusiasts and collectors announce that they will hold a coin show and exhibit on Sunday afternoon, April 16, at the new American Legion Hall on 888 Sheldon Rd. The hours of the show will be from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Chairman of the exhibit, Ernest Koi, states that to the best of all available information, such a show has never been held in Plymouth although many large exhibits are held periodically in Pontiac and Detroit.

The main purpose of this show, states Koi, is to create interest enough to organize a Plymouth Coin Club. The purpose of such clubs is to assist youngsters and beginners in creating and improving their personal collections.

The coin hobby, as all other hobbies, is a most fascinating one. Although, as such, it is not done by the real enthusiast as a means of financial gain the large collector eventually can realize a financial goal as a by-product of the hobby.

Among local collectors who are planning to exhibit at the show are William G. Rimmer, Ken Butterfield, Roy Fisher, Mel Blunk and Ernest Koi. Other collectors who are interested in participating in the show may contact Chairman Koi by mail at 625 Arthur St., Plymouth, or by phone after 7 p.m. at GL 3-5684.

Starting a new lawn this spring?

1. Don't worry about poor soil. You don't need to go to the trouble and expense of bringing in topsoil. Any soil—even subsoil—can give a satisfying lawn with regular feedings of Scott's protein-building TURF BUILDER.

Lift that golf club, tote that bale of dead twigs, and tug on that kite string. Activities of a Springish nature places our suburban areas. Many a parent has left the easy chair by the TV and gone outdoors to hit a few grounders for Junior.

When you've had enough of the great outdoors, take time to consider a trip over to Livernois and Six Mile Rd., the University of Detroit campus. The University Players at the U of D are in the midst of presenting the last half of their repertory series. "A Touch of the Post" and "Measure for Measure" have finished their weekend runs. "Man and Superman" and "Faust, Part One" remain.

Not these dates down for easy reference: April 15 and 29. These two Saturday evenings mark the beginning of the season. You'll have to see the hilarious Shaw comedy "Man and Superman." Fred Janic spins his way through Shaw's prolix passages with professional ease. His portrayal of a garrulous revolutionary hits a new high for the U of D Theater.

German Classic Coming

"Faust, Part I" enters the repertory at the U of D on April 14. This great classic of the German stage has been rarely seen in the American stage. Old George remembers seeing this play as a youth back in the windy city of Chicago during the days of federally supported theaters. The Depression Days of the '30's brought sorrow and misery to many a family. But to the American theater it brought Federal funds. Uncle Sam paid out huge sums to theatrical centers in our land. For 30 or 40 cents you could get a balcony seat. And if you were truly "flush," a dollar bought the best seat in the house.

Ah well, so much for memories of those dark penurious days. My advice is for you to join me in attending the U of D production of "Faust." It's sure to be a winner. Sir Burgwin and his student company of repertory drama experts have yet to disappoint me. Call UN 2-6000 and ask for the University Theater box office.

At the U of M

Time to start thinking about the University of Michigan's coming production of "School For Husbands" by that comedy writer of all times, Papa Moliere. If you have yet to see a play by the master of French wit, this riotous comedy of manners will do as a starter. "School For Husbands" is being directed by Hugh Norton. Special music and dances will add to the festive air of the comedy. Hope you get a chance to purchase a ticket for this fine production. It will be presented April 12-15 at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater in Ann Arbor.

Movie Parade

Looking for a moment at the downtown Detroit movie screens. I find some noteworthy changes taking place. "Spartacus" has moved on and "Pepe" with Cantinflas leading a parade of 35 guests takes over the silver screen. The roster of guests include Bing Crosby, Jimmie Durante, Greer Garson, Kim Novak, Sammy Davis, Maurice Chevalier, and many, many more. "Pepe" opened on March 30 at the Madison Theater. You'll find this a picture for the entire family as it has equal ingredients of fun, color, drama, music and screen pageantry. Columbia Pictures' delightful film "Pepe" has been booked into the Madison for a long run. I'm sure you'll find it an interesting evening as you visit with Cantinflas and his many Hollywood friends.

"A Raisin In The Sun" is back in Detroit once more. Earlier this season the stage version of this fine film was played at the Cass. If you were fortunate enough to see the live version, you'll recall the powerful message that fairly left at you as climax upon climax occurred in this excellent play. Columbia Pictures spared no expense to translate this play faithfully to the big screen. All the original actors of the stage version can be seen in the picture. Philip Rose and David Susskind went out to Chicago and did most of the movie on location to gain authenticity. Result: a movie equally as great as the stage version.

You can see "Raisin In The Sun" at the Adams Theater in downtown Detroit. Claudia McNeil, Ruby Dee, and Sidney Poitier have the lead roles, but the entire cast of this Columbia Pictures film deserves equal credit. Everyone does a top job. Put this film on your "must see" list.

The Penn Theater is showing a film ("Swiss Family Robinson") that evokes a few memories. Old George remembers the Swiss Family fondly. Here is one of the first adventure tales ever read by your scnie reporter. How I thrilled to the adventures of this family as they fought the elements and managed to eke out an existence on their island. Well, you can thrill once again. Walt Disney has made an excellent movie of this perfect adventure story. You can laugh, cry and have the time of your life watching this cinema classic. It's a perfect attraction for the family.

In Old New York

I promised last week to lend a little realism to the column as I thought I would be writing you from my hotel room just off Times Square. Of course, I did warn you that I might get locked in my hotel room and not get to the nearest typewriter. And you know that's just what did happen. The chambermaid finally freed me only after I gave her some sage advice. She wondered if she could get a divorce because of her husband's flat feet. I told her she might be able to if she could prove his feet had been in the wrong flat.

Old Movies Revived

Watch for the following old movies on Channel 9: "Big Money," a British comedy with Iran Carmichael (Thursday at 11:30 p.m.); "Tarzan and the Slave Girl," Tarzan kidnapped by mysterious band of men from Egypt—or "Me, slave girl; you, Tarzan" (Friday, 7:30 p.m.); and Tyrone Power in "Captain from Castile" on Saturday at 11:20 p.m. Bring your own popcorn and root beer. We'll have a blast chomping and sipping as we view those movies on TV.

Some of the spectaculars, especially the Easter productions, showed us that our TV producers can give us some mighty fine entertainment when they want to. Be sure to write to them and tell them. "Give Us Barrabas" over the NBC network was one such drama that deserves kudos.

Over-Fertilizing, Excess Water Not Good for Lawns

Good lawn management, for greener, healthier grass, consists in large part of leaving the lawn alone, especially during Spring and Summer months.

A copyrighted article in the current issue of the Kiplinger Magazine notes that most lawn diseases are caused by fungi which thrive on grass that has grown fast and become succulent and therefore weak, and which thrive also in a warm humid atmosphere. "When the grass is heavily fertilized in the Spring and forced to grow fast and lush, just at a time when the weather warms and the air becomes humid, then disease makes its greatest inroad," the magazine states.

Quoting experts from the U. S. Agricultural Research Service at Beltsville, Md., the following program for Spring lawn care is recommended:

(1) A light application of fertilizer. It might take the form of an organic or a slow-releasing fertilizer that would not give the grass such a sudden shot in the arm as heavier fertilizing, which should be reserved until Fall.

(2) The cool-weather grasses are strengthened by mowing them tall — at a height

Fathers Should Be Protected From Polio Too

Dr. Joseph G. Molner calls attention to the urgent need to have many more adults, as well as children, protected against polio by their physician before the next polio season begins.

Last year, Detroit had a good record with only nine cases and no deaths, however, the age distribution of the patients with paralytic polio who were in Herman Kiefer Hospital is revealing. Of the five patients who had paralytic polio and were in respirators at Herman Kiefer Hospital last year, four were young men and fathers—all were between 22 and 29 years old. The four had a total of 12 young children. Most of the children and mothers of these families were protected, but the fathers were not.

Dr. Molner urges every man to be sure that he has the required number of polio protection treatments for himself, as well as for each member of his family. If you have not already begun, it is never too late to start.

If you get off schedule, you need not start all over again, simply resume where you left off regardless of the time interval from your last treatment unless your doctor advises otherwise.

Regardless of your age, you need protection against polio. Follow this schedule. Dr. Molner recommends the following up-to-date polio protection schedule for adults and older children.

First treatment — start today

Second treatment — one month later

Third treatment — six months later

Fourth treatment — one year later

Fifth treatment — two years later

Boosters — every five years

In fact, Rambler American took the first 6 places—8 of first 10. And Ambassador V-8 by Rambler won its Class, swept the first 8 places and 9 of the first 10 spots. Traveling at speeds up to 65 M.P.H. and averaging more than 40 M.P.H., the winning Rambler American made 14 complete stops, one stop every 1.9 miles, and shifted through the gears 15 times while circling the 3.7 mile course and still averaged a phenomenal 26.86 miles per gallon. This is the second straight year that Rambler has won the Pure Oil Economy Trials. Want more proof of Rambler value? Then see your Rambler dealer. White Cane Week Coming

The week of April 16-22 has been proclaimed by State and City officials as White Cane Week throughout Michigan.

For the past 25 years the Lions of Michigan have annually observed such a week to bring to the attention of the public their contributions to the blind, the youth, and the community activities made possible through the sale of the miniature White Cane, with the red tip, which is the symbol of the blind.

It is these blind whose guardianship is the sworn duty and the prime interest of Lions throughout the world. Lions Club members now number 640,000 in 15,414 Lions Clubs of 111 countries and geographical areas of the free world.

Guided by their motto of "We Serve" each Lions Club strives to do more and more for its community, and each Lion member extends a helping hand to his more unfortunate neighbor.

Within a period of one year, the calendar year of 1960, the Lions of Multiple District 11-A-1, comprising greater Detroit and outlying areas, including the Lions Club of Plymouth, expended in excess of $145,000. Blind activities accounted for $104,403 of the total. Another $20,273 went to youth activities and 19,324 was expended for community activities.

Plymouth Near Top in Easter Seal Donation

Plymouth is in second place in Western Wayne County in its donations to the Easter Seal Society, a report this week indicated.

A total of $2,258.62 was reported. Leading the Plymouth figure slightly is Livonia where $2,616.61 was reported. There are 22 communities involved in the Western Wayne County Easter Seal drive.

Mail returns have yielded $941.50 in Plymouth. Another $611.50 has been collected from individuals who are among major givers. The Lily Parade held two weekends ago, sponsored by the Rotary Arms, resulted in another $705.62.

There is still time to donate to the Easter Seal campaign. Those who have misplaced their return envelopes may mail their donations to the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County, P.O. Box 101, Inkster, Mich. The total collection so far is $19,720.

THE MAIL ATTITUDE

BY PAUL CHANDLER

This newspaper for months has believed that juvenile delinquency is a serious and growing problem in our suburban communities.

Bluntly, we do not share the view that "let's look at the good kids, the percentage of bad ones is small, and it's been ever thus."

The latter is a Pollyanna approach to the matter, convenient pattern of dusting the facts under the rug and hoping they'll stay there.

The reasons for the increase in juvenile unrest and mischief are deep-rooted in our American society. They are related to international tension, lack of national purpose, bored parents trying to justify a hysterical "prosperity" and growing hours of "leisure," and other matters which are too philosophical to go into here.

Whatever the causes, the problem worsens. Hence, one of the most thought-provoking studies I've encountered recently is the work of a Livonia city councilman, Jack Salvatore. He is employed in youth work in the South Redford school system, aside from his political duties in Livonia.

Salvatore says that juvenile delinquency is mounting every day and won't go away if we just cease thinking about it. He spells out his case with some agonizing examples.

Then he makes two conclusions:

1. The State of Michigan has fallen "hopelessly behind" in providing counsel and facilities for youth delinquents.
2. It's time for local communities to take the problem into their own hands and do something about it, without waiting for the State or anybody else.

He suggests that neighboring communities—Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Township, Garden City, Nankin, Farmington sit down together to pool their brains and their funds for an attack on the problem.

A local "Youth Home" is one matter which could come from it. New officers and counselors, serving the whole area, are another necessity.

Salvatore says the problem is a joint one of the courts, police departments, schools, and city and township officials in these areas. He would have them meet together, attacking the job from their particular requirements.

It's an intelligent, sensible suggestion. In theory, it's the same idea of attacking a problem on the local level, with local resources, because it's a better method than "waiting for the State or Federal government to do it for us."

It keeps control here and it retains local control of the purse strings. So, wishing Councilman Salvatore support in his plan, we'll close by citing some of his examples.

In all of Michigan, the Juvenile Courts have but one institution to sentence the youthful offender. This is the Boys Vocational School in Lansing.

There is less space available in that school today than there was in 1900, though population has grown seven times.

For all of Wayne County the quota at Boys Vocational is five boys per week.

"Most commitments there will read 'commit until 19 or until rehabilitated.' Yet hardly ever is one kept there after age 17 or six months.

"It is nothing more than a fast shuffle, in the front door, out the back, so room can be made for newcomers. Results? Practically, none.

"Of all the boys sentenced there during the year 1957, more than 70 percent have gotten into further trouble with Jackson Prison welcoming the "graduates."

In western Wayne County, there is 800,000 population. Serving it are just five juvenile probation officers. "Probation has become a joke to these youngsters when they rarely see an assigned officer more than once every two weeks."

"It was my experience recently to attend a hearing involving five boys from this area who pleaded guilty to the theft of 17 cars. All were placed on probation. Since that time, two were picked up for the same offense, yet they all remain free at home with the knowledge that nothing has happened to them."

In Livonia last year the juvenile offense rate rose 25 percent while population increased 7 percent.

Salvatore spells out an almost fantastic lack of detention facilities in Wayne County. And he spends many words outlining the lack of training facilities for retarded and emotionally disturbed youngsters—who are a totally different kind of "delinquent."

It is refreshing to see the problem talked about in the open, candidly, and realistically.

We hope Salvatore lights a spark.

Introducing Next Guild Play Director

Allen Murdock

Allen Murdock, a resident of Plymouth, lives in Lake Pointe Village with his wife, Ellen, and his daughter. He is a director at WXYZ-TV and teaches electronics at Wayne State. Despite his crowded schedule, he has been a member of the Theatre Guild for the past two years and to the seasoned theater-goer of Plymouth, he will be remembered for his portrayal of "Doc" in "Mister Roberts."

Some of his past credits at WXYZ-TV include direction of the popular Soupy Sales Show.

He is currently directing the upcoming production of the "Philadelphia Story" which will be presented May 11 through 14. Already cast in this newest offering of the Theatre Guild is Betsy Gibson, who portrays Tracy, Hollis Jean, (Dinah), Effie Keisel (Margaret Lord), Nick Carpenter (Sandy Lord), George Hudson (Uncle Willie), Loretta Young (Liz Imbrie), Bill Moore (George Kittredge), John Canon (C.K. Dexter Haven), Petra (Elsie), Margaret Makowski (Mai).

"Still to be cast," says Murdock, "is the role of Mike." "Mike is a cynical newspaper reporter, tall and good looking and one of the main characteristics of this straight role is carrying the leading lady throughout many of the scenes in this sophisticated comedy."

Spraying Program for Elm Disease Starting in City

Spraying of city-owned elm trees will start next Monday (April 10), Department of Public Works Supt. Joseph Bida announced this week.

Only the city-owned trees located between the curb and the sidewalk will be sprayed.

There will be no spraying of private trees. Elms are sprayed annually for the prevention of Dutch Elm disease.

Spraying will be done during the early hours of the day starting at 4 a.m., Bida said. Citizens should, if possible, park their cars off the City streets. It is impossible to say when the spray crew will be in any area, Bida added. If the wind blows over five miles an hour, they cannot spray.

To spray all City trees, weather permitting, the job should be completed in about 10 days. People are asked not to place fish in outside ponds until the spraying is completed. If spray falls onto any automobiles, soap and water should be used, Bida advised.

Unemployment Benefit Extension Available

Gordon C. Packard, manager of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, Branch Office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, today announced that the Commission has signed an agreement with the Federal Government and is prepared to take claims for Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation benefits, beginning April 9.

Claims will be paid during the week beginning April 17 for unemployment occurring and filed for during the week beginning April 9.

Approximately 70,000 Michigan workers whose benefits have been exhausted since June 30, 1960, will be eligible immediately for benefits under the new program. They will include approximately 600 from the Plymouth office. An estimated 230,000 additional covered workers who may exhaust their benefits during the next year (before April 1, 1962) also will be eligible to file for the extended benefits, Packard said.

Laid off Federal employees and ex-servicemen are also eligible for these benefits if they have no state or Federal benefit entitlement, and have exhausted their benefits since last June 30.

Workers who have earned their benefits in other states may file in Michigan for Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation benefits if their home states have agreed to participate in this program.

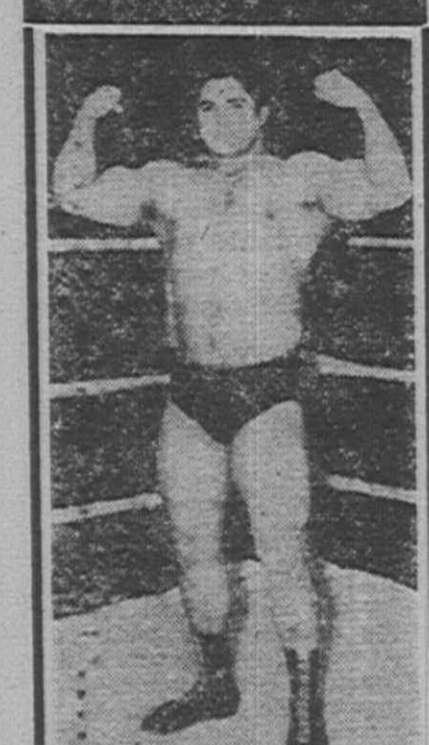

though the unemployed worker had exhausted his unemployment benefit rights after June 30, 1960. In general, he said, a worker who drew 26 weeks of benefits would be eligible for 13 additional weeks of temporary additional benefits under the Federal program. However, in no case can total State benefits already received, plus TEC, exceed 39 weeks for a compensation period.

In instituting the program, MESC Director Max M. Horton, signed an agreement with the United States Secretary of Labor for Michigan to act as agent of the United States in paying additional benefits to unemployed workers who have exhausted their benefit rights.

"The purpose of this new program is to provide an income to workers who have drawn all the unemployment insurance benefits to which they are entitled and who are still unemployed," Mr. Horton said.

"Workers who think they may be eligible for additional benefits should go to the nearest local office of the State Employment Service on or after April 10 and file a claim. It is important, however, that prospective claimants bear in mind that they must have exhausted all benefit rights under any unemployment insurance law, must be still unemployed, available for work and able to meet the eligibility requirements under the State's unemployment insurance laws," Horton added.

The Temporary Extended Unemployment Compensation program expires on June 30, 1962, but persons whose state or Federal benefits become exhausted after April 1, 1962 will not be eligible for the extended benefits.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) — The farm products grown in eight counties in California's rich San Joaquin Valley have a gross value higher than the total farm income of each of 5 states.

ONE HALF of the gigantic Cloverlanes recreation center on Schoolcraft Rd. is pictured here, ready to greet its first customers. Thirty-two lanes are back-to-back in the ultra-modern building, making a total of 64 lanes.

Ultra-modern Cloverlanes Opens on Schoolcraft Rd.

The glistening plate-glass windows to one of the nation's most modern bowling establishments swung open this week as Cloverlanes, Livonia's new 64-lane recreation center, officially opened for business.

The huge, contemporary structure, located on Schoolcraft Rd., near Middlebelt, will provide northwestern Wayne County pin enthusiasts with the very latest in bowling facilities and equipment.

Built by the Great Lakes Bowling Corporation, which operates five other giant centers in the Detroit area, Cloverlanes began operations this week while workmen continued to put the finishing touches on a snack bar, locker facilities, a children's nursery and other customer conveniences.

In addition to the very newest Brunswick automatic pin-setting equipment and ball-return mechanism, the center becomes one of the first in Michigan to provide lane-side telephone service.

Cloverlanes will be managed by Harper Cunningham, known throughout Livonia for his participation in civic affairs. Cunningham lives with his wife, Sally and their two daughters, Crystal, 8 and Candace, 6, at 28009 Lyndon, in Livonia.

To introduce the new establishment to area bowlers, one free game will be awarded to all those who attend a "pre-view party" scheduled for Friday, April 7.

In addition to Cloverlanes, for openings soon are two other centers, Northlans and Eight Mile and Greenfield and Strike 'n' Spare, at Telegraph and Maple Rd.

The Lansing Observer

By FRANK G. MORRIS
Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University, should be the recipient of the first "Peoples' Citation For Humble Honesty Below and Within the Call of Taxpayers."

If there happens not to be such a citation, it is hereby created.

For Dr. Hannah broke the basic rule of his union a few days ago by gathering together all members of his faculty and asserting in a clear, loud voice that Higher Education can use its immense share of taxpayers' money less wastefully.

His "betrayal" shocked sacred sanctuaries from Harvard to UCLA.

Obviously aware that he would cause quivering beards and clouds of angry pipe smoke on every university and college campus, the MSU resident admitted to the faculty that he was embarking on an unprecedented venture by daring to say that education can be improved at less cost to the people.

It appears that the foundation for Dr. Hannah's program is more efficient use of the plant to increase production at lower cost.

In other words, this realistic university prexy wants to move Higher Education out of the dreamy world of Mr. Chipps into the modern age of automated efficiency. And it is about time — if the taxpayers are to be left with a few bucks for gasoline for the old jalopy.

Full use of plant and equipment has been the basic principle of the business world since economists look over management in place of the mechanics and the tinkers like Henry Ford and Louis Chevrolet and the Dodge brothers.

My first lesson on this rule came from the late Judge Patrick H. O'Brien, an impractical and wonderful humanitarian who was Attorney-General of Michigan in the first Roosevelt years. When I was a very young reporter in 1928, Judge O'Brien lamented to me that so many automobiles were parked so much of the time.

"It's a waste of potential power to let those engines stand idle," he complained.

Years later I was a press agent for Pan American World Airways and I was shocked to discover that no plane must sit idle unless it is in the shop for repairs or the regular checkup.

A plane costing $2 million in those days (a modern jet costs $5 million) was required to produce revenue every day to be efficient. I was astonished because, being a newspaperman, I knew as much about business as I know about goat farming.

So if it is true that an exploding population requires our colleges to grind out bachelors, masters and doctors with production line efficiency, I can foresee a new era in Higher Education pioneered by Dr. Hannah.

He will require the student to earn the right to college education through the student's own efforts.

He will end repetitive teaching and drill, and as one newspaper commented, "end classroom baby-sitting."

He plans even to turn the dormitories into centers of learning and study.

Only 10 years ago, the colleges and universities needed $34 million from the legislature to augment the money they received from tuition fees, grants, Federal assistance and other sources.

During the fiscal year which will end June 30, the legislative appropriations for Higher Education totaled $98 million.

This increase is out of proportion with the 20 per cent growth in population during that period and cost increases due to inflation.

For a lawmaker to question the use of the taxpayers' money by the universities and colleges was to invite scornful ridicule.

But Dr. Hannah didn't come out of Harvard with classical ideas on the future of mankind.

He came out of the poultry department of old Michigan Agricultural College — with chicken mud on his shoes — to build that institution into one of the finest universities in the land.

It appears now that he will lead it to an even greater future — with the taxpayer getting a money-saving break at last.

Our Sports Editor Talks About Little League Ball

By GEORGE MASKIN

So much has been said — and written — about the pros and cons of Little League baseball that perhaps this is a good time to tackle the subject since these are the moments when kid teams are being formed throughout the area for the 1961 campaigns.

This corner has blurted it before and sounds off again: THE ONLY THING BAD ABOUT LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL ARE THE SELFISH MOMS AND POPS WHO THINK ONLY ABOUT THEIR OWN SONS.

Otherwise, you can't condemn the program which nationwide now involves upwards of one million boys in the age bracket of nine through 12. And it's a total which swells tremendously every year.

Without the complaining moms and pops, who insist their sons are the BIG stars of a team, you'd never hear any extensive beefing on the subject of Little League baseball.

It's these parents who rap umpires ... who squawk because a manager keeps their sons on the bench ... who find fault with this and that ... and yet these moms and pops seldom, if ever, make any direct contribution to the good of the Little League program in their particular area.

Our particular gripe is directed at moms and pops who protest that their son should play more often ... and permit the youngster to gush with tears because he wasn't used in a particular game.

Such pops and moms forget that a baseball team may field only nine players at a single time ... that most managers want to utilize all the performers on their rosters ... but they don't, because the idea in sports is to try and win.

If a manager or coach jerks a regular for a reserve and victory turns into defeat, the pilot daws fire, too. He's being unfair to himself, the team and the fans.

Just the other week up at the state prep basketball finals in East Lansing, the coaches of River Rouge and Catholic Central High held back on removing their regulars until the final couple minutes. And nobody could blame them — not even the benchwarmers or the moms and pops of the benchwarmers.

The kids on the bench were just as thrilled at being part of a winning team as the five regulars who did the bulk of the work in bringing home the bacon.

It's the same way in the pro leagues ... and, yep, it's the same way with Little Leaguers, notwithstanding what some of the hollering mothers and fathers try and say.

If you're a parent of a youngster who doesn't get to play too regularly, it should be your duty — along with the manager's — to pass along the word that no team is better than its bench ... that sooner or later the opportunity will break where your boy, too, will get the chance to see duty on a regular basis.

It should be noted that most benchwarmers in Little League play are the younger charges, the ten-year-olds who are just breaking in. Why should a parent demand his boy jump immediately into a regular assignment any more than a newly graduated professional player figures he belongs with the Tigers the moment he puts his name on a contract after being graduated from high school or college?

As for the assertions that Little League baseball with all its tension can spoil a boy for the future ... forget it. Two years ago this observer covered Hamtramck at Williamsport, Pa., when the Cosmos beat a California team for the world's Little League championship. That was the year a kid by the name of Artie Deras, just 12 years old, had his name splashed in papers from coast to coast. He was on radio, television and what have you.

The observer wondered about what might happen to Deras. We posed the subject to a gent in charge of conducting tests for the Little League Foundation, the parent organization of the L.L. program.

"Do you think for a moment we'd carry on this venture, if we knew it would hurt just one youngster?" the gent declared. Then he added: "We have checked thousands of boys. We want to find out how they react to every possible situation ... the effects of winning and losing in a key game before thousands of fans.

"And what have we found out? Why, the kids react without much of a flutter. Within an hour after a tense game is over, the kids have recovered from any tenseness or excitement. Yet, when we have checked parents and some of the dads and moms aren't back to normal — when it come to heart and pulse beats — for 24 hours after a game."

The Little League brass also have checked on their graduates three, four and six years later. Naturally, the L.L. was also eager to discover if playing in a state or national tournament harmed the boys.

"No trace of any damage," our friend concluded. We might add that we've inquired about the aforementioned Deras since his great moments at Williamsport. Deras, now 14, was just another player on his junior high football team. He was bowled over two or three times in quick order in one football game we saw.

He's played basketball and spent most of his time on the bench. He's taken his lickings in Pony League baseball. But never has anyone detected any "bigness" in this youngster's attitude on or off the athletic field. Never has he blurted to anybody: "Hey, remember who I was ... the great Deras of Little League fame."

Oh, yes ... there's another important point. A survey of the Hamtramck Little League champs two years after their glorious hour disclosed that as a group their school marks averaged higher than those of fellow students.

In Williamsport, the Little League brass will tell you such a situation is nationwide among the kids who play in their program.

New Faces Key To Rock Hopes

Rebuilding is the word which best describes the job facing Coach Keith Baughman as he strives to turn out another track champion — his fourth in 10 years — at Plymouth High School.

Baughman has lost 10 of 21 letterwinners from the 1960 team which won the Suburban Six League championship in a thriller.

"We have a fine nucleus," declared Baughman, "but a lot is going to depend on how well some of our new boys come through."

The Plymouth coach is encouraged by this year's turnout. More than 100 are trying for spots on the team which doesn't open its dual meet campaign until April 21 when the Rocks invade Redford Union.

Capt. Dave Westover, a half-miler, will lead the Rocks this season. Byron Latter and Frank Eidson also have returned to run the 880, thereby giving Plymouth a strong trio for the event.

Tony Hunt is a veteran miler again available, while John Spigarelli tops the contingent seeking spots to run in 440-yard (quartermile) competition.

The sprint field boasts strength with the return of Gary Mirto, Dick Alsbro and Dave Fey.

In the field events there are Charles Bowers, broad jump; Dan Stremick, high jump, and Mark Fischer, pole vault, who are back from the 1960 loop champs.

"We need more help in the field events, particularly in the shot put," Baughman said.

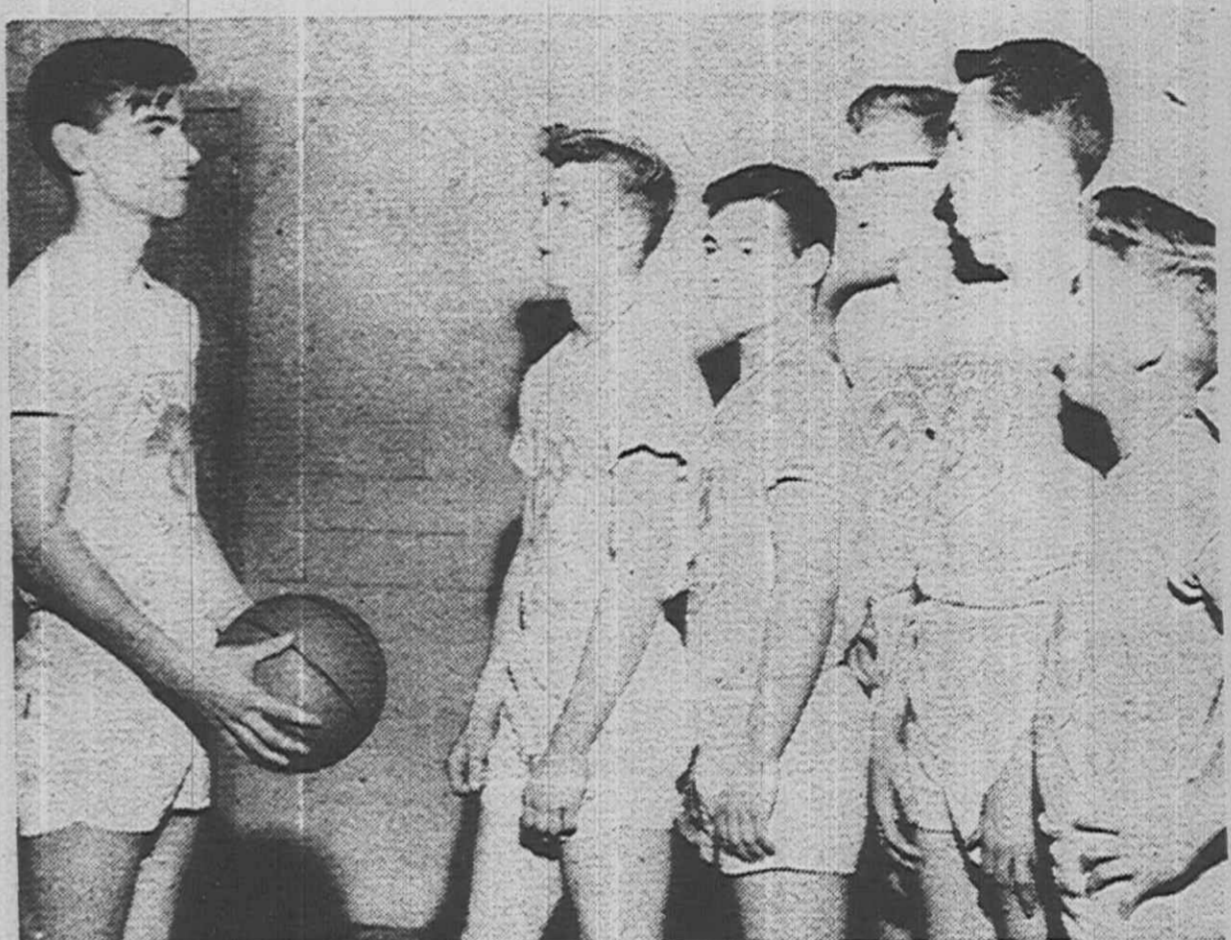

Although the Rocks have been on Easter vacation this week, many of the athletes have been working out for the extensive time tests which Baughman has booked for next Tuesday and Wednesday.

"After those tests, we should know better what we can expect this Spring," the coach added.

Plymouth will vie in six dual meets, the state regionals, state finals and league meet.

IT WAS A 9-0 season record for the Yellow Jackets of the 15 and Under League. The Wolverines were second with a 6-3 record, followed by the Indians (2-7) and Optimists (1-3). Pictured from left are Coach Garry Grady, Dale Petty, Ken Groom, Jim Lake, Dave Tidwell and Don Stamper.

Pro Wrestlers Tangle In Plymouth Show April 15

All-Star professional wrestling comes to Plymouth on Saturday night, April 15, at the High School gym. The stellar mat program, sponsored by Explorer Scout Post 1533, will feature six of the nation's finest wrestlers in four big matches.

Leaping Larry Chene, a 11-time favorite of Michigan wrestling fans, will take on Ricki "The Crusher" Cortez in the main event.

In his 10 years of wrestling, Chene has become a living legend. Fans all over the country recall his in-the-ring brilliance and his out-of-the-ring warmth. During his six years in Texas, Larry was many times urged by prominent political leaders to run for the state legislature.

Chene declined only because his one burning ambition was to return to his home state of Michigan and make good in front of his family and friends. He has done just that.

Few wrestlers of this century have captured the imagination of the public as has Leaping Larry. In addition to being a magnificent ring scientist, he is a superb showman who is genuinely concerned about the fans getting their money's worth. A highly articulate speaker, he is in constant demand as a banquet guest.

Yet all of Larry's ring triumphs could not have won for him the prestige he enjoys in the sporting world were it not for the fact of his humble, grateful nature. While there are many athletes with loyal followings, Larry is perhaps the only athlete of major stature who is fiercely loyal to his fans. He is never too busy to stop and chat with a youngster, and he yearly signs over 50,000 autographs. Special to the youngsters — Leaping Larry Chene will personally hand out his own signed photographs. Come early to get yours.

Ali Bey will go against Dynamite Johnny Gates in a supporting bout. A Mighty Midget match will pit the Brown Panther against Farmer Pete. As an extra added attraction, the winners of the first two matches will return against the losers in a mixed Australian tag-team bout. Midgets will be in the ring with heavyweights.

The Spring sports schedule for area high schools snaps open next week with the golfers of Redford Union the first to see action.

The RU linksmen host Taylor Center Monday afternoon at 3:45 p.m. The same Taylor Center team will help Livonia Bentley pry open the lid on its 17-match slate at Bentley on Wednesday. Also on Wednesday Plymouth treks to Trenton for its curtain raiser in golf.

Two track meets are on the agenda Tuesday. Farmington invades Bentley as Thurston goes to Taylor Center. Both meets start at 4 p.m.

Tennis gets going Wednesday with Allen Park playing at Bentley and Plymouth hosting Trenton.

Thurston will be the first in the area to perform in baseball, entertaining Riverside on Tuesday. Bentley starts baseball operations at Wayne on April 14, while Redford Union and Plymouth aren't booked for their curtain-raisers on the diamond until the following week.

Once in action, the Spring athletes are slated for intensified action over a seven-week span. In most instances baseball, track and tennis teams will play twice weekly, while golfers engage in three matches weekly.

State titles are to be decided in all sports except baseball.

It's Forecast in Track

Thurston's Big Year?

"Watch out for Thurston in track this Spring!" That's what you hear if you troop in the Schoolcraft Avenue area these days.

In fact, said Coach Bob Parks today as he drilled his contingent for next Tuesday's opening meet with Taylor Center:

"I think this will be our best team yet."

Certainly last season's Thurston squad was no slouch. The team took the Mid-Wayne League crown, had an unbeaten record in dual meet competition within the circuit, lost only to outsiders Inkster and Redford Union in squeakers, topped the Thurston invitational and placed fifth in the state regional.

"Barring any unforeseen developments, we should improve considerably on 1960," Parks declared.

Here are some of the reasons for Parks' enthusiastic outlook:

ED CHRISTIE — a strong contender in the 440.

CAS JANKAUSKAS — a sure winner in 880 competition.

DON KELLER — Who already this season has run the mile in 4:42.2 to top the old school mark of 4:46.7 which he himself held.

TOM EVANOFF — A hurdler supreme. He was fifth a week ago in the Huron Relays. Tom also should pick up points in the broad jump.

TERRY SALMONSON AND JIM MACKEY — Two more excellent hurdlers. They also appear in the high jump and pole vault.

Then there are Jim Mollard (pole vault), Steve Leuchtmann (shot put) and Garry McCabe (sprinter) on whom Parks is counting heavily in the campaigning ahead.

Ed Kosikowski joins Mackey, Evanoff and Salmonson to give Thurston a strong shuttle-hurdle combination for relay meets. The names of Roger Hamilton (880), Ed Dahlka (mile), the Voightriter twins (Don and Ron), in the 440, Bruce Vorce (shot), Bob Lee (440), Don Orlikowski (pole vault) and Dennis Ellison and Dennis Manning (broad jump and sprints) also will be heard from before the season progresses very far.

Besides the dual meets, Thurston also will host its own invitational again on April 27-28 and make an appearance in the Albion Relays as forerunners to the state regionals which are slated on the Thurston track in May.

"We'll have 18 schools in our Invitational," Parks announced today. "Most of the Detroit Catholic League powers have entered, along with several teams in the area."

"It should be one of the best meets of its kind ever staged around here. If the weatherman gives us a break, I look for several records to go by the boards."

Phone Number Change Begins in Plymouth

The familiar two-letter, five-numeral system of numbering telephones has begun its gradual five-year retreat into history in Plymouth and the rest of Michigan.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. has introduced its All Number Calling (ANC) system in new telephones now being distributed throughout the Plymouth calling area.

But phone users will have to look hard to find numbers in the new directory that are listed under the new system. Only a few listings, including Michigan Bell itself, have been changed in the new book.

Under the ANC plan, telephones will be known by all numbers — no letters of a central office name. Instead of the Michigan Bell number of GL 3-9900, for instance, it is now 45-9900.

Jud Huntley, local business office manager, said that change will come about over a five-year period. Whenever a customer requires service at his home or office, the disc in the center of the dial will be changed to all numbers. When the next phone directory appears, the change will be listed.

All Plymouth numbers, instead of the "GL" prefix, will start with "45." This, of course, is what one dials when he dials the "GL" prefix.

William M. Day, Michigan Bell president, said that the supply of present two-letter, five-numeral numbers could soon be exhausted, pointing out the fact that about 17,000 telephones a day are being installed across the country. He said that the ANC numbering system will be in use nationwide eventually, making about 50 percent more numbers available immediately.

Michigan Bell claims that tests show that most people find it easier to locate numbers than letters on the dial. ANC eliminates the confusion between the letter "O" and the zero; between the letter "I" and the numeral "one."

San Bernardino County in California, with 20,131 square miles, is the largest county in the United States.

Democrat Wins Clerk Job In Salem Township

The traditional Republican stronghold of Salem Township was finally penetrated Monday by a Democrat, Edward R. Fitzgerald, who will be the new Township Clerk.

Fitzgerald defeated incumbent Republican Betty J. Shear who has held the post two years.

Otherwise, Salem's election provided little in the way of attraction for voters, since Fitzgerald was the only Democrat seeking office. There were 498 people voting.

The new supervisor will be Harlow Ingall, who held the post of treasurer for many years but won in the primary over incumbent William Scheel.

Results of Monday's election were:

Supervisor: Ingall (R) 376.
 Clerk: Fitzgerald (D), 249; Betty Shear (R), 208.
 Treasurer: Glen Renwick (R), 384.
 Trustee: Ferman A. Rohruff (R) 362.
 Justice: Rolland M. Brenkle (R) 356.
 Board of Review: Frank Geiger (R) 361.
 Constables: William M. Edmunds (R) 315; Carlton Hardesty (R) 342.
 Con-Con Proposal: Yes, 143; No, 212.
 Proposal 2: Yes, 147; No, 185.

AN EASTER coloring contest sponsored by Beyer Rexall Drugs brought together these winners Monday. From left are Douglas Miller, 7, of 12105 Amherst Court; Jack Shepherd, 5, of 18150 Floral, Livonia; Cornelia Delaney, 11, of 48130 Gyde Rd.; Jill Vanderveen, 8, of 686 Herald; and Debbie Schultz, 9, of 1360 Ross. Not present were two other winners, Karen Mahrley, 4, of 35540 Ann Arbor Trail, and Shari Reeder, 10, of 146 E. Ann Arbor Trail. The children colored pictures reproduced in The Mail.

Kresge announced that its new store will cover 18,000 square feet and will be a self-service operation. Construction is scheduled for completion in the fall.

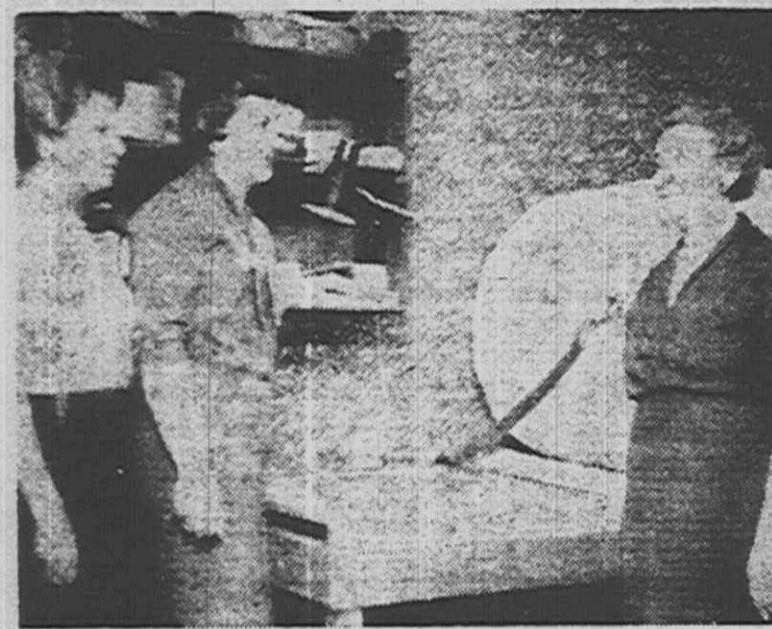

In announcing plans for the new variety store, Harry B. Cunningham, president and chief executive officer of the Kresge Company, said:

"We are extremely enthusiastic about our new location in Arbor Plaza. The Kresge Co. recognizes Plymouth as a growing community and is convinced that business opportunities in Michigan and the rest of the country are better than ever before."

"We are planning an attractive store equipped with the latest designs in display fixtures and the most modern merchandising methods for the new Plymouth store," Cunningham added.

Construction of the new Arbor Plaza store marks another step in the Kresge Company's expansion plans. Recently the huge retail variety store opened its first Puerto Rico units. Currently there are 769 Kresge stores located in 37 states, the District of Columbia and Canada.

Wrigley Super Market and Kresge will be two of three major stores in the Plaza. Seven smaller shops are also anticipated.

Population Count Done, but Census Work Always On

Contrary to popular belief, the U. S. Census Bureau does not fold its tents and fade away between the big 10-year population and housing counts, according to Director John E. Tharaldson of the Bureau's permanent regional field office at Detroit. The Detroit region includes parts of Indiana, Michigan and Ohio.

Tharaldson points out that nine major censuses will be conducted between now and the next decennial census in 1970. The first of these major censuses will be the 1962 Census of Governments which is conducted every five years. Then comes the five-year Censuses of Business, Manufactures and Mineral Industries. These will be taken in 1966 and 1969, covering business operations in 1965 and 1968 respectively. The Census of Agriculture will be conducted in 1964 and 1969.

In addition to these major censuses, the Bureau carries out a wide variety of current surveys on a monthly, quarterly and annual basis. Topics covered in the current surveys include employment and unemployment, population characteristics, housing, retail and wholesale trade, manufacturing, and related subjects. The purpose of the current surveys is to supplement and keep up to date the detailed information collected in the major censuses.

The Current Population Survey, conducted 12 times a year, is an interim Census Bureau activity which touches the lives of a number of local families. Each month a Census taker, working under the direction of the Detroit Regional Field Office, visits area households to obtain information on employment and unemployment. Information obtained locally is combined with that collected in 332 other areas of the country to provide national estimates. Information on migration, income, school enrollment, and other pertinent subjects are collected from time to time in the current Population Survey in addition to the facts on employment and unemployment.

Approximately 35,000 households throughout the country are included each month in the Current Population Survey. These households are selected at random under the Census Bureau's scientific sampling program to provide a representative cross-section of all classes of the population, and all types of areas of the country — large cities, small towns, rural areas, and so forth.

City voters overwhelmingly went along with the Con-Con proposal, 1,071 to 379. They gave closer approval to Proposal No. 2, 743 to 638.

City voters gave their usual support to Republicans in the partisan races. The margin was 2 to 1 for Republicans, except for State Highway Commissioner John Mackie who pulled 730 votes to the 796 given his GOP opponent, Charles Bedwell.

The retiring City commissioner, J. Rusling Cutler, has served two terms on the commission. He was first elected in 1953 and served a two-year term. In 1957 he was defeated but two years ago won another two-year term. An attorney, Cutler has also been a Plymouth's municipal judge and assistant city attorney.

Only five of the eight Commission candidates appeared at the Town Hall meeting last week. Commissioners Cutler and Hartmann did not attend and neither did candidate Fabo Mirto.

JAMES C. HOUK
 With God's Help I will fulfill the office to the best of my ability with fairness to all the people of the community.

Sincerely,
JIM HOUK

I wish to thank my many friends who worked in my behalf during the election campaign for City Commissioner.

To the Citizens of Plymouth:

I would like to express my thanks to those of you who supported me in the recent election for City Commissioner.

As you know, before the election, I had neither circulated handbills or put ads in the paper making promises or pledges of what I would do if I were elected.

Now, I would like to promise you this — With the help of God and your support, I will certainly do for you and the City of Plymouth as a whole, the best my ability allows.

Vocational Course To Be Offered

Unemployment in the Detroit Metropolitan area reached 207,000 in February, according to the Michigan Employment Security Commission. This represents 14.4 percent of the Detroit area labor force or 144 unemployed workers out of every 1,000.

Assuming that many of the unemployed will be seeking new job placements, a pilot project in Educational - Vocational Guidance will be offered in the Spring term by the Livonia Adult Education program. Many who are presently employed may also wish to avail themselves of this service in assessing their aptitudes with reference to future vocational opportunities.

Course content will include the discussion and administration of several tests such as intelligence, interest and personality. Test results will be analyzed and interpretation will be provided in assessing individual capabilities. Arrangements have been made to have Dr. Edward Roeder, psychologist, professor - University of Michigan; Dr. Clayton Lafferty, psychologist - Wayne County Board of Education and Dr. Philip Diskin, psychologist - Livonia Public Schools; available for consultation at various times.

Under 21

By DAN HALLIGAN

Dear Dan: I won't sign my name because I'm ashamed of myself but I hope you will answer because I need your help desperately. What I'm about to write probably isn't something new in a letter to you but it has happened to me and I just don't know what to do.

I'm 19 years old and have been going off and on with this boy of the same age for nearly four years. We dated infrequently the first two years, scarcely any during the third year but quite steadily the fourth year.

I know he loves me and I know I love him and that's what makes everything so difficult. Like all couples in love, we vowed never to lose our heads but that was easier said than done. Four months ago we lost control of ourselves and went all the way. Oh, we were both sorry and said it would never happen again but it has. Three weeks later we again went all the way and since then, four more times.

Each time my boy friend tells me how much he loves me and that he'll marry me as soon as he is financially able. However, in the past three weeks he's only phoned me three times and said he was too busy at work to date me for a while.

Is this the end of it for me, Dan? Is this usually how these things end? Does a boy lose interest in a girl after she gives in to him? Should I see my boy friend and have it out with him? Right now I'm so ashamed of myself that I'm actually afraid to go to work each morning. Please help me soon.—Ashamed.

Dear Ashamed: You're right in saying that letters of the type you wrote aren't uncommon to "Under 21." So, if it's any consolation to you, your boy friend and you aren't the first couple to lose control of themselves.

As it always holds true in similar cases, you can figure the first time was a mistake but thereafter, the act was deliberate. Sure, you can excuse yourself each time but you don't have much of an excuse.

If nothing else, consider yourself fortunate that you aren't pregnant. As far as your boy friend is concerned, he may or may not be "busy" at work but in fairness to yourself and your future, you two should put your cards on the table and talk this out.

There have been many cases of a boy losing interest in a girl after she has given herself to him, but on the other hand, many couples are drawn that much closer together. In either case, it doesn't excuse the couple but the lesson should be invaluable for both the girl and boy.

My advice is for you to make it a point to see your boy friend, talk this out and if he wants to call it quits, you're just going to have to chalk it up to life or experience. If he is actually busy at work, watch yourselves in your future dating.

Dear Dan: I'm a 16-year-old boy and am supposed to be going with a girl of 14 but now I find out she's also going out with a guy who is 10 years older than she is. Should I keep going with her or look for someone else?—Trouble of Maryland.

Dear Troubled: I wish I could answer your question but I've got too many of my own to answer. Why do her parents allow her to date a man of 24? Why do they allow her to date at 14? Why are they trying to make her grow up too fast? Where you're concerned, I think you'd be smart to break up with the girl. If you do, give her a piece of advice and ask her to quit going out with the 24-year-old cradle robber.

I wish her parents would wake up because the chances are good that she's going to wind up in trouble and when and if she does, the blame will go right back to her very unwise parents.

No Wonder Natural Gas is So Clean!

Before Consumers Power Company pipes Natural Gas into homes and industries, it gives it a thorough scrubbing! This cleanliness means more efficient operation and longer life for appliances and industrial equipment. Yes, to make sure you get the cleanest fuel possible, all Gas is forced through huge cleaners called "scrubbers" (such as these pictured here at the Company's compressor station near Manchester, Michigan). Each "scrubber" costs $10,000 and this is only one of the many compressor stations operated by Consumers Power Company performing this cleaning operation.

Cadillac

Where logic endorses desire!

We doubt that he could tell you himself when the dream took hold in his heart.

Yet, there the dream had been over the years—a Cadillac for his family!

And so it was that he found himself getting the facts first-hand from his dealer.

And the facts quickly fashioned a remarkable truth: that the move to Cadillac is as logical as it is alluring—and every bit as wise as it is wonderful!

The lowest-priced Cadillac, for instance, actually costs less than a great many models of other makes.

And every Cadillac car represents an extraordinary bargain in terms of value received.

The car is so soundly and carefully crafted that it has reduced maintenance costs to the minimum.

And a Cadillac car is held in such regard that it traditionally commands a front-rank position in resale markets all across the land.

Little wonder that he decided this was the time—just as you will once the facts are at hand.

And need we remind you—they are no farther away than your nearest Cadillac dealer.

Theatre Guild Adds Community Service To Its Repertoire

Community service, far beyond presenting entertaining plays, is the program of the Plymouth Theatre Guild, one of the oldest and most active community groups in Western Wayne County.

PTG, as the group is known, is officially an activity of the Plymouth Community School District's Adult Education and Recreation Department. This, however, does not limit PTG's activities. With the encouragement of School Superintendent Russell Istebier and Adult Education Director Herbert Woolweaver, PTG has worked with almost every neighboring community.

As in most community theatre groups, PTG originated in 1947 simply as a group of people interested in "live" productions. Since then, however, PTG has not only presented outstanding plays, compared favorably to Broadway productions, but has been active in these areas as well.

School PTG has aided such school activities as play productions, dances, operettas, and other events with advisors, sets, lights and props. PTG actors have presented short historical skills for classes.

Community PTG has assisted the well-known Plymouth Symphony in various productions such as "Coppelia" and "Amahl." They have entered floats in various parades, capturing two first prizes in the process. PTG produced a minstrel show as a holiday highlight for the JayCees. They have had an attractive booth at various outdoor festivities, and presented theatre programs for civic groups. PTG light advisors are also working on Christmas lights for the city park pageant.

Neighboring communities: PTG advisors helped in starting such groups as the Garden City Footlighters, the Wayne Civic Players, and the Nankin Mills Players. PTG actors and advisors worked on productions in these groups, such as the Footlighters' "Charley's Aunt" and "Dear Ruth," the Wayne Players' "Glass Menagerie" and "Desk Set," and Nankin Mills' makeup group.

PTG has also exported their brand of theatre to other groups, putting on Dr. Ford Sutherland's original play "There Is Nothing Like A Dame" in Garden City, and a entertaining Farmington Players with "The Valiant."

Summer Job Hunting Tough for Students

Youngsters who expect to take summer jobs would be wise to start looking now. High nationwide unemployment is going to make it tougher to get a job this year, but it can be done if the applicant starts now and knows where to look.

To help him along, a current magazine includes the following suggestions:

Industry. Many smaller companies still have openings for student workers, but the applicant will have to check the ones he wishes to work for. Most of these positions are for those interested in working for the company after graduation.

Larger companies have plenty of job applications already. Though many of them do have student on-the-job training programs for the summer months, they have worked through college placement offices for a long time and have a backlog of applicants, some of whom have worked for them in preceding summers.

It is also suggested checking with college placement offices and local job sources to see whether national and international union headquarters have notified them of jobs available either in headquarters or the locals. Factories sometimes hire people to fill in for vacationing workers.

Federal government. Here, too, the supply of applicants exceeds the need. However, the Civil Service Commission still regulates a number of summer jobs through its student trainee and student assistant programs. In order to qualify for a trainee job, a student must pass a Civil Service test. For a comprehensive picture of jobs available under Civil Service, the editors advise sending 15 cents to the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C. for a copy of Pamphlet 45, Summer Employment in Federal Agencies.

Summer Camps. Jobs are available here, and information is available from a number of sources. Minimum hiring age is usually 19, and jobs start with beginner counselor and go up to specialty counselor and staff positions. The American Camping Assn. works through state employment services, and an applicant can write to them for a list of Camp Staff Placement Services; or if he or she prefers, the applicant can write to the camps directly, their 1961 Directory of Accredited Camps is available from the American Camping Assn., Bradford Woods, Martinsville, Ind. for $1.

The Association of Private Camps has a free placement service for applicants at least 19 years old with one year of college. Information is available from the Association at 55 W. 42nd St., New York 36.

Jobs also are available at YMCA camps and with the Girl Scouts. For information, the editors of the magazine advise writing Youth Program and Camping, National Council of the YMCA, 291 Broadway, New York 7, or, for the Girl Scouts, to Recruitment and Referral Advisor, Girl Scouts of America, 830 Third Ave., New York 22.

Local jobs. Younger students probably will find their jobs in their own back yard, according to the article. In addition, local state employment service probably has set up a special counseling service to develop summer jobs for students, and local businesses, organizations and individuals will also help. The editors advise checking state agencies, hospitals, plant nurseries, veterinarians, railroads, gas stations, public and private playgrounds and pools, and local offices which need people to fill in for employees on vacation.

Handwriting Is Clue About You

Dear Miss Williams:

I am curious to have you diagnose my handwriting as per article in the Dec. 14 paper.

I was just wondering whether you mail the analysis or whether you print it in the paper.

Thank you,
Freddie E.

Dear Freddie:

You're an emotional person with deep feeling. You aren't always expressive in your feelings but are "keyed up" to keep going, keep moving and doing things. Your aim and purpose is strong starting but often tapers off and doesn't quite finish itself. You are alert and analytical minded with a sensitivity to criticism! Details irritate you but you are emphatic in your ways and decisions. You're not one to change your mind once it's made up. You like some responsibility and activity with variation. You are somewhat philosophical and very determined to forge ahead.

Dear Miss Williams:
I would like very much to have you analyze my handwriting. I hope you can do something with mine.

Thank you,
H. K. W.

Dear H. K. W.:

You have a penetrating mind that explores, analyzes and sifts facts for your own interest and satisfaction. You learn rather easily and enjoy increasing your knowledge. You are future minded with strong aim and goals set by you to work toward. Your determined efforts are strong enough to see these goals achieved. Your memory is good, you retain what you've learned, hold on to possessions and belongings.

There is some irritation here which leads to some temper and resentment to imposition.

Dear Miss Williams:
I have always been interested in people and their handwriting. Please tell me what you think of mine!

Thanks in advance,
Viola A. P.

Dear Viola:
You have a very inquisitive mind, desiring more knowledge and exploring, sifting facts, delving into everything to increase your mental capacity.

Your aim and purpose are set in future-minded goals. In addition, local state employment service probably has set up a special counseling service to develop summer jobs for students, and local businesses, organizations and individuals will also help.

The editors advise checking state agencies, hospitals, plant nurseries, veterinarians, railroads, gas stations, public and private playgrounds and pools, and local offices which need people to fill in for employees on vacation.

Western Electric Achieves Record Production in '60

Western Electric Co., the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell Telephone System, achieved record production levels in 1960, the company's annual report disclosed today. The firm's Michigan warehouse is located in Plymouth.

Total sales for the year were $2,641,000,000 — an increase of about 14 per cent over 1959 sales and about six per cent more than the previous sales record set in 1957. About 70 per cent of the total sales, or $1,850,000,000, were to Bell System companies. Twenty-seven per cent, or $724,000,000, was to the U. S. government, consisting of products and services for national defense and space activities.

The annual report noted that the company manufactured 7,640,000 telephones, 4,415,000 lines of dial central office equipment and 155 billion conductor feet of cable to set new production levels in these major product lines.

Earnings for the company last year were $124,400,000, or $6.60 per share, compared with 1959 earnings of $102,188,000, or $5.92 per share.

H. I. Romnes, Western Electric president, reported that better products and faster services highlighted the company's 1960 performance. He noted that the Bell System team — American Telephone and Telegraph Co., Western Electric, Bell Telephone Laboratories and the operating companies — is constantly reducing the time between laboratory idea and service reality.

To aid in this effort, for example, Bell Laboratories units, resident at W. E. facilities, have been strengthened to assist on design and development problems. Basic research on production processes is being carried on by W. E. employees at the company's engineering research center in Hopewell, N. J., and new telephone products are being developed through a task force approach by the Bell System team, he said.

The company, through its purchasing and traffic division, did a billion-and-a-quarter dollar buying job for the Bell System from nearly 40,000 U. S. firms, about 90 per cent of which were small companies with fewer than 500 employees.

The number of people employed by W. E. increased to 143,352 at year's end, compared with 134,867 employed at the end of 1959.
