

Thousands View Parade

'Twas Grand July 4 For Plymouthites

A barrage of aerial and ground fireworks brought to a close Tuesday night another successful Independence Day celebration that had opened last Friday with a carnival and included such events as an hour-long parade and the selection of Miss Plymouth of 1961.

It was Tuesday afternoon's parade that attracted the largest single crowd with thousands of people lining Main Street's curbs.

Everything went off as planned, the sponsoring Jaycees declared Tuesday night as a night of patriotism and fun.

The parade, which departed at 4:10 p.m. Tuesday, was a grand dashing into Main Street in the carnival grounds and was struck by a car.

Plymouth's traditional big July 4th parade began shortly after 1 p.m. and included dozens of marching units, floats, antique automobiles, rock n roll bands and a marching band.

The Keweenaw Club furnished floats for the parade. First place in the parade category was won by the Plymouth Grand Old Style. A "New Frontiers" theme it depicted the "Frontier" of 1775 with a Revolutionary War cannon and soldiers. Even a horse was used on the float. At the rear of the parade was the "Frontier" float with a rocket launch for the moon.

Special place went to our local group of floats with a float carrying a "New Frontiers" theme. The float carried a Revolutionary War cannon and soldiers. Even a horse was used on the float. At the rear of the parade was the "Frontier" float with a rocket launch for the moon.

Third place in the parade category went to the "Frontier" float with a Revolutionary War cannon and soldiers. Even a horse was used on the float. At the rear of the parade was the "Frontier" float with a rocket launch for the moon.

In the commercial float division, first place went to Fisher Sales with Buster Brown and second place to Smith Music which had an electric organ mounted on a trailer.

Parade winners will be announced later this week.

Concerts In Park Revived In Plymouth

Summertime means a concert in the park time in thousands of American towns several decades ago, but the tradition has died out in most of the nation's communities.

But in Plymouth the tradition has been revived. Each Friday from 7:30 to 9 p.m., the Plymouth Community Band will play a concert in Kellogg Park.

Led by the High School band director James Griffith, the band is composed of both adults who once played in bands and of present student band members. The group was formed over six months ago and this will be the first season for the group.

Those attending the concerts will find that there are no chairs. Blankets to spread on the ground or camp chairs are in style. Without public notice, the band staged its first concert last Friday night and attracted several hundred people.

A canvas "shell" has been provided for the band. Band leader Griffith said this week that the outdoor concerts are being made possible through the efforts mainly of three men, DPW Superintendent Joseph Bida; Thomas Kelly, the school district's buildings and grounds supervisor; and Dr. William Covington.

Inmates at the Detroit House of Correction also gave the project an assist by sewing the canvas.

The 40-piece band will play a wide variety of selections, the director announced. These will include marches, symphonic pieces, waltzes and "everything from classical to Daisy Belle," Griffith added.

tion dipped low dropping 50 pounds of peanuts. The grounds was covered with children searching especially for colored peanuts which were good for prizes.

Fireworks at 10 p.m. ended the holiday. The display was financed through donations by local business, industry, the City and Township.

Governor's Day

Governor John Swanson returned to his hometown Monday noon for a Governor's Day luncheon at the Mayflower Hotel where he was presented a plaque making him a lifetime member of the Plymouth Jaycees. He has been a member of the club. In his remarks, the governor, who just returned from the Governors Conference in Hawaii, said that it is always a pleasure to be in Plymouth.

Hydrants to Mean Insurance Rate Drop

Those little red fire hydrants springing up along streets throughout the eastern half of Plymouth Township will eventually mean money saved for owners of homes and commercial buildings.

A reduction in fire insurance rates is in store for building owners whose properties are along the 17 miles of Plymouth Township water line that will be completed this summer. The $1,100,000 project was started last January and six streets have already been approved for tap-ins.

According to James Thornton, president of the Plymouth Association of Insurance Agents, local agents are already being besieged with questions from homeowners asking when their insurance rates will drop.

Most people will be eligible for decreased rates, Thornton said, but they should not expect the rate drop immediately, or automatically.

The rate-making policy is handled by the Michigan Inspection Bureau. At present, the City of Plymouth has a "Class 7" rating for fire insurance purposes. Just outside the City's perimeter and in Township locations where a water system is now in operation, there is a "Class 9" rating.

Most of the other parts of the Township have a "Class 9" rating while the extreme western portion of the Township is in "Class 10." These classifications are based on available water supply, pressure, fire department location, the number of full-time and part-time personnel, their equipment, training and other factors.

The best advice I can give is for each person to contact his insurance agent and discuss the reduction as it pertains to his individual policy," Thornton declared.

In order to take advantage of the reduction, it is necessary to rewrite the policies. Since each policy is different, it may pay some persons to hold onto their present policies until its anniversary.

Tanya Gilmour — Miss Plymouth of 1961

Tanya Gilmour Is New Miss Plymouth

Don't sell yourself short is the lesson that petite, 17-year-old Tanya Gilmour learned last Saturday. She had to be sold by others on the idea of entering the annual Miss Plymouth competition.

The result: She is the 1961 Miss Plymouth. Tanya, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Gilmour, 14278 Shadywood, in Lake Pointe Village, wasn't too keen on entering the contest. But in the eyes of the three judges who viewed the 13 contestants on the basis of looks, personality, talent and poise, Tanya stood first.

Tanya's selection was announced at the Saturday night program at the Junior High School. Judges had talked with the girls earlier in the day at the Mayflower Hotel where they wore bathing suits. Tanya was sponsored by The Plymouth Mail.

Following a musical revue, "IT'S A BLAST" produced by the Plymouth Theatre Guild, the Miss Plymouth contest was narrowed down with the selection of the three finalists. The three were Sharon Wesley (Miss Terry's Bakery) third place; Margo Van Antwerp (Miss Plymouth Washer & TV Service), second place, and Tanya.

Each of the winners received a host of prizes.

Tanya, a blonde standing 5 feet, 3 1/2 inches, wore an ice blue organza dress with a full skirt for her Saturday night appearance. Besides the prizes, she received the royal crown from last year's Miss Plymouth, Mavis Williams, Jaycee President Terry West presented her with a trophy and Mayor Pro Tem Marvin Terry presented her with a bouquet of roses.

The new Miss Plymouth was a June graduate of Plymouth High School. She and her family had moved to Plymouth four years ago. This fall, Tanya will enter Michigan State University where she will take a teaching course with plans to become a business education teacher in a high school. Tanya has an older sister, now married.

To the new queen went a three-piece set of luggage from the Jaycees, a rhinestone crown from Blufford Jewelry, a necklace from Heuser Jewelry, a $10 gift certificate from Fisher's Shoes, a steak dinner for two from Ellis Restaurant, a new hair style every week for a month from Joyce's House of Curl and a bouquet from Bartel's Greenhouse.

The second place winner received a corsage from Heide's Greenhouse, a black straw purse from Minerva's, a matching set of summer jewelry from Cassidy's and a $20 permanent donated by Midge's Beauty Shop and two hairstyles from Joyce's House of Curl.

The third place winner was presented a $5 gift certificate from Craig's Ladies Apparel, a leather wallet from Graham's, two hair styles and matching lipstick and fingernail polish from Joyce's House of Curl and a corsage from Heide's Greenhouse.

All contestants will receive a finished portrait of themselves taken by Bob Gray Studio and two hairstyles, one before they had their portraits taken and one for the final judging of Miss Plymouth. The hair styles were re-

School Budget Cut $41,000

Hit by State Equalization Slice

Some cutbacks have been made and projects delayed due to a cut in anticipated revenue for the Plymouth Community School District during the new fiscal year.

The Board of Education approved its 1961-62 budget last week before the new fiscal year began July 1. The new budget is $41,000 less than the amount spent during the past year.

A final figure of $2,304,000 was established in the new budget. During the just completed year, $2,345,000 was spent.

The $41,000 drop was due to a decrease of state equalized valuation within the school district of almost $4 million.

Since 85 per cent of the operation revenue goes toward salaries, the $41,000 cut had to be made in other areas.

The Board held three budget review meetings and met with the administrative staff, Supt. Russell Isherster declared. "They have attempted to find a way to cut out $41,000 with a decreasing quality of education."

One item that will be cut about 50 per cent will be the educational field trips away from the community. There will also be a delay on some planned capital expenditures and general maintenance.

Because of new census figures, the intended hiring of six and a half additional teachers next fall has been cut to five. Purchase of a new line of textbooks in one area has also been delayed. Personnel have not been given a general salary increase this year. Normal increment increases will be given, however.

The school's tax rate is now $21.92 per $1,000 of valuation. Of this, $14.40 is for bond retirement and the building and site sinking fund. The remaining $7.52 is for operating budget comes from local tax sources and the remaining one-third comes from the state.

It will again be necessary this summer for the school district to "borrow ahead" on its anticipated taxes. For several years now, the district has not had enough money to tide itself over from late summer until taxes are collected in December and January. As a result, the district borrows on its anticipated taxes. This summer, the Board will ask for bids on a $600,000 loan that it will repay by April 1962.

The Board will also borrow on the anticipated building and site sinking fund revenue that it will collect in December 1962. They intend to borrow $460,000 to pay for the new junior high construction and Senior High alterations.

AAUW Committees End Another Year

Three Study Groups of the Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women closed their year's activities by attending programs in Ann Arbor and Detroit during the month of June.

The Drama Study Group, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ray Wisniewski, attended the presentation of Eugene O'Neill's play, "Touch of the Poet" in Ann Arbor. Proceeding the performance, the group met for dessert at the Corner House. Attending with Mrs. Wisniewski were Mrs. L. T. Scharnien, Mrs. R. N. Fritz, Miss Mildred Young, Miss Lucille McLaughlin, Miss Irene Tressell and Mrs. Gordon Vetal, chairman of the Drama Study Group for the 1961-62 Branch year.

By special invitation from Wayne State University, Mrs. Sidney Cady and Mrs. John Haas, outgoing and incoming Legislative Chairmen for AAUW, attended a Con-Con Seminar which was under the leadership of Dr. L. L. Friedland of Wayne State University's Political Science Department. Participating in the Seminar with 11 other Detroit area AAUW Branches were the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the League of Women Voters, Citizens for Michigan, Michigan Research Council, and Wayne State University. Purpose of the Seminar was to inform interested organizations of the improvements needed in our state constitution and develop a background for intelligent election of Con-Con delegates in the July and September elections.

Program of the day included opening remarks by Professor Bromage of the University of Michigan, a luncheon address by Professor Pollock of U. of M., and a choice of six panels in specialized Morning panels were (1) Legal Powers led by Robert Fryer of the Michigan Municipal League, (2) State Fiscal Reform, headed by James Parkes of Wayne State University, and (3) Local Government Problems, presided over by Lou Friedland. After the luncheon address entitled "The Constitution and Constitution Making," the afternoon panels were (1) Metropolitan Area Government with Robert Peoley of U. of M., (2) Municipal Functions with Robert Pickup of Wayne, and (3) Reapportionment led by Charles Schull of Wayne.

To further inform themselves before election time, Mrs. John Moebie hosted a coffee on her home June 29 for AAUW Board Members and friends to meet and talk with candidates Anne Conkin and Paul Chandler.

Mrs. John Robertson, chairman of the International Relations Study Group, and six of her group members, attended the 23rd Alumni University Program at U. of M. dealing with "Tumult in Africa." The group has been studying the African problems this past year and will continue the study in the fall. From the Political Science Department of U. of M., Roy Pierre spoke on "The Situation in Algeria," Henry Bretton on "The Situation in the Congo," and Leonel Lang on "The Situation in the Union of South Africa."

Wanda Dedert Shirley

Dr. Richard A. Shirley Takes Bride July 1 in Iowa City

Wanda L. Dedert became the bride of Dr. Richard A. Shirley at Nuptial Mass at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Iowa City, Iowa, July 1. The Rev. Msgr. C. H. Mennerger officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, came down the aisle wearing a formal gown of imported silk tulle. The bodice was fashioned of bombazine and heavily jeweled with a deep scoop neckline and tiny cap sleeves. The bouffant skirt of chiffon tulle had a deep bank of bombazine billowing from a basque waistline. Garlands of jeweled applique made of Alencon lace bordered the band of bombazine and flowed into the cathedral train. Her many tiered veil of imported French illusion was caught by a queen's crown of seed pearls with teardrop crystals in the crown. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids and white fringed carnations.

Miss Nancy Kacere of Cedar Rapids was maid of honor. Mrs. Norma McNay and Mrs. Sandra Moore, both of Quincy, Ill., were bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in ballerina-length frocks of white organza. The long torso bodices were of shirred organza with deep scoop necklines and dropped shoulders. The bouffant skirts of scalloped tiers embroidered in powder blue were caught with contour insets of blue satin with bows at center front. Their crowns of seed and teardrop pearls in light blue caught the circular veils they wore. They had blue shoes to match their dresses and white gloves and white pearl earrings. And they carried cascade bouquets of white and blue fringed carnations.

Miss Martha Ann Wright of Quincy was flower girl. She wore a chiffon necked, blue and white ruffled wide tiered dress and carried a basket of pink rose petals.

Best man was Dr. Roger W. Park of Benton Harbor. Ushers were Dr. Walter T. Gilsdorf and Dr. James C. Caterine, both of Iowa City.

The church altar was adorned with tiffany baskets of white gladioli and the pews were trimmed with white satin bows and greens.

Miss Jeanette Kuncel, organist, accompanied Dr. Donald Warkentin, soloist.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Iowa City University Athletic Club. The reception was also held there.

The couple honeymooned in Maine and will be at home Oct. 1 in San Antonio, Texas.

The new Mrs. Shirley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Dedert, of 2234 Locust St., Quincy, Illinois. She graduated from Quincy High and received her bachelor of Science in nursing from the State University of Iowa. She is a member of Alpha Xi Delta and has been a staff nurse at University Hospital in Iowa City.

The bridegroom, Dr. Shirley, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Shirley, 345 Canton Center Rd., Plymouth. He graduated from U. of D. High School and University of Michigan and is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi and Phi Rho Sigma.

Jean's Jottings

By Jean Campau, Women's Editor

With the sun high in the sky and vacation plans just a reach away from becoming reality the time has come to take the luggage out of the attic and gather up the holiday wardrobe. Whether you plan a long-extended trip or a cottage jaunt, proper packing is a pre-requisite to a neat appearance on arrival at one's destination.

Mary Gordon, travel advisor for Trans-World Airlines, has some timely tips on efficient packing that we would like to pass along.

As an experienced traveler, Mary knows her subjects. Frequently business trips have of necessity taught her the essentials of living out of a suitcase and still appearing fresh and well groomed.

Ideal luggage for women, she says, is a 26 or 28 inch case, lightweight but sturdy, with reliable locks and construction.

Mary suggests that the odd-shaped articles make up the first layer, shoes in plastic bags, toe to heel, at one end. At the other end place your waterproof cosmetic bag, leaving the middle space empty. Place your extra nylon underthings, then stockings in the same end with the cosmetic bag. Now fill the remaining space on the bottom with all other odd items like jewelry case, extra gloves, blouses, packable hat, scarfs, bathing suits and such things that are not used regularly. The section should be packed so that it is level with the shoes and cosmetic bag. The second layer is composed of dresses and suits. "One good principle to follow," Mary says, "is to cover as much area of the suitcase as possible with dresses, having as few folds as you can."

To pack a skirt, fold it so that it fills the suitcase on all sides. In the case of a gored skirt, fold over triangles at each side. Full skirts should be gathered into the suitcase. To pack a dress, leave the belt on the dress, fastened loosely; fasten most of the buttons. Pick the dress up by the shoulders, drawing it across the length of the suitcase until the hem falls inside the case. Now fold the dress back across itself with the sleeves turned underneath, making sure the lapels and shoulder pads are smooth. If the skirt is gored or straight, fold it to fit the complete area of the suitcase, and if the skirt is gathered at the waist let it fall into natural folds. When packing a jacket, fasten most of the buttons. Pick the jacket up by the shoulders, laying it face down across the width of the suitcase. Tuck the collar down into the suitcase gently. Pick up the sleeves by the back of the jacket. Now flip the bottom of the jacket over into the suitcase, folding it at the waist. In this way, lapels, collar and shoulder will be smooth.

Lastly, the things you'll need to get at easily make up the third layer.

"In order to take out or replace the items you have in the ends of the first layer, pick up the bottom corner of the second layer. To get at things in the middle of the first layer, you can lift out the whole second layer four or five times without repacking," Mary states.

Now you are ready to leave for anywhere and your suitcase, if you follow these directions, won't look like it has been stirred by a spoon when you reach your destination.

Two Local Women Attending July 'Witness' Convention in Europe

Marion Finnegan and Edna Willoughby will attend the International Jehovah's Witnesses in Europe from July 11 through Aug. 11. Both from Plymouth, Marion is an employee of Burroughs and Edna has been with Stop and Shop for 11 years.

They will leave Metropolitan Airport and land in Copenhagen. Delegates from many lands will make a truly international convention, and it will be one of the largest Christian conventions ever held in Scandinavia. An anticipated attendance of 25,000 delegates is expected. The Witnesses will assemble at the football stadium in Copenhagen.

Hamburg, Germany will be an eyewitness to a spectacular convention held there from July 18-23. This world renowned harbor city will see its population of about 2,000,000 rise sharply when an estimated 80,000 to 100,000 persons pour into the city.

The assembly will be held from July 18-23 in the Palazzo delle Esposizioni in Turin, Italy, a city situated on a plain south of the Italian Alps. And from July 25 through 30 Jehovah's Witnesses will assemble at Twickenham, in London. In Paris the assembly will be held at the Parc Des Princesses, a sports stadium.

The primary purpose of the gatherings is to make known and to glorify the Supreme God Jehovah and to announce His purpose on the earth.

THE MAIL ATTITUDE

BY PAUL CHANDLER

Putting together a column by paragraphs— This newspaper applauds the recent decision by the City of Plymouth Commission to add fluoride to the town's drinking water.

We have listened to the arguments of opponents for years and utterly fail to understand them. Fluoride is a natural element. It is present in water in many areas. Insufficient quantities hasten tooth decay.

Would these dissenters set up plants to remove minerals from water, if they should be present naturally? Do they use iodized salt to prevent goiter? Are they opposed to pasteurized milk? What about vitamin-fortified bread?

There is some talk of a public election in Plymouth on the matter. It's unnecessary.

There's a provision in the brand new Federal housing bill which seems tailor-made for our area. Under it, the U.S. will assist local communities, with money, in the purchase of park and recreation sites. The idea is to build new areas with proper "open space" within. Congresswoman Martha Griffiths, incidentally, cited Redford Township as one place where growth exploded and the "open space" provision was shamefully ignored. She lamented the fact. Livonia and Plymouth doubtless will study the new act and take advantage of it immediately.

The death of author Ernest Hemingway will leave its mental scars on the minds of anyone who thinks or reads. This man more than any other single individual impressed the literary style of those who were maturing in the late 30's and 40's. His philosophy, a swash-buckling back-to-nature individualism, has taunted great minds. The fact that he seems to have selected suicide for the closing chapter won't fail to disturb the whole world, consciously and subconsciously.

While generally ignored so far in public discussion, many people believe a major issue at the Constitutional Convention in Lansing will be the legalizing of bingo. This old chestnut lost narrowly at the polls a few years back, but apparently isn't dead. At least two candidates we have heard on the platform openly are advocating not only licensing and taxing of bingo, but a state lottery to support special causes such as mental hospitals.

In the immediate future, at least 20 percent of our national population will be older people living on government pensions. The new retirement age is 62, yet life expectancy is rising and all of these men and women can anticipate 10 to 30 years of life after "retirement." They have energy, maturity and talent; still it is national policy to pay them not to work. Put one way, at any given time it means that the United States is artificially reducing its potential human work force by 50,000,000 man years. Why wouldn't it make great sense to put these citizens into government service; into our schoolrooms and government offices, where help is needed, where taxes must support the payroll anyway? Human beings can't live normally for 10 to 30 years without a personal purpose and still retain much of the quality known as happiness. It is cruel torture to pay intelligent people to await death in years of enforced idleness.

Why do so few retail businesses fail to use flowers to soften the image of the stores they offer the public? Flowers are inexpensive. They freshen even the most dreary and old architecture. They cheer and brighten the business street.

Sue Weberlein Hits Target With a Top National Honor

Sue Weberlein, Plymouth's 17-year-old Annie Oakley, won the National Championship in the Junior Indoor Rifle Girls Sectional Meet held in Ann Arbor this spring.

Approximately 125 girls were competing from this area and similar contests were held throughout the United States. After the scores had been computed in Washington, winners were notified by mail. Sue received her good news by wire and word that her trophy will be arriving soon.

In another competition held May 27 in Waterford, she was awarded the Charles Vincent Trophy in the State Outdoor Four-Position Championship Match.

Being interested in guns since she was a youngster, she joined Rifle Club classes in gun safety in 1959. The club is sponsored by the Plymouth Police Department and instructed by Mr. and Mrs. John Olendorf. In last year's competition, Sue placed fifth in the nation-wide meet.

Since her graduation from Plymouth High, June 15, Sue has been working for her sister, Dr. Marion Weberlein, at her Plymouth Veterinary Hospital on Harvey St.

Author to Lecture in Detroit July 8

Napoleon Hill, whose books based on a personal philosophy of success have been best-sellers for 25 years, will lecture on "The Laws of Success" at the Wolverine Hotel, on Saturday, July 8 at 8 p.m.

Hill's best known book is "Think and Grow Rich," which has grossed more than $8,000,000 in sales. It was the result of a 20-year study suggested by Andrew Carnegie to Hill, who subsequently interviewed some 500 outstanding men including Henry Ford, Thomas Edison and Woodrow Wilson, to analyze their keys to success.

Proceeds of Mr. Hill's current lecture tour will go to a hospital building fund at Kentuckiana, a chiropractic clinic for crippled children maintained by 100 doctors in Louisville, Ky. Dr. Edward S. Tooma is regional chairman for the fund in Detroit. Tickets are available at Grinnell's downtown, and at Marwil Book Stores at Northland and Eastland.

Mr. Hill, who is now 77 years old, came out of retirement nine years ago to resume writing and lecturing. His current tour, according to Dr. Tooma, is a gesture of gratitude for chiropractic help that restored the hearing of one of his sons.

What To Do With Bananas

BY ROSELLA M. BANNISTER

Wayne County Extension Agent, Home Economics

room temperature, about 70 degrees.

1. Should bananas be stored in the refrigerator? No, except to delay over-ripening when they are already fully ripe. When bananas which are not fully ripe are kept in a refrigerator, the ripening process is retarded and the delicate flavor is impaired.

2. Are tree-ripened bananas better? No. Even for their own use in the tropics, the natives cut bananas green and allow them to ripen in a shady place.

3. Is there a good way to prevent sliced bananas from discoloring when they have to stand before serving? Yes. Sprinkle the slices with fresh or canned grapefruit, orange, lemon or lime juice. Or use ascorbic acid crystals which are available at drug stores.

4. Can bananas be used in a weight reducing diet? Yes. A medium-sized banana contains 85 to 100 calories. Bananas provide essential vitamins and minerals which are lacking in many weight-reducing diets.

5. How should bananas be stored? Bananas are gaining a favorite spot in outdoor cookery. Why not feature this Ham-Banana Barbecue at one of your first cookouts of the season.

HAM-BANANA BARBECUE 1-ham steak, about 2 inches thick. 5 pineapple rings 5 firm bananas Melted butter Honey

Grill ham steak until brown about 13 to 15 minutes on each side or until done. When the steak is turned, arrange pineapple slices on aluminum foil tray and place on fire. Baste meat and pineapple with butter and honey.

Brush peeled bananas generously with butter and honey. Wrap each banana tightly in a piece of heavy duty aluminum foil, twisting ends. Grill 8 to 10 minutes. Remove from fire and open each package carefully with hands covered to avoid steam which will come from sealed packages. Makes 4-5 servings.

SOME TIPS ABOUT BANANAS

Suit the color to the use—that's the first rule in selecting bananas. The prices we've been enjoying will soon be going up, so now is a good time to use bananas in your menus.

Tipped with Green The banana is partially ripe. The pulp is firm, starchy, slightly tart — just ready to bake or broil or fry. Cooking brings out a different, delicious flavor.

All Yellow? Now the banana is ready to eat, or cook and use as an ingredient in baking.

Flecked with Brown? Now it's fully ripe, at its best for eating, infant feeding and as an ingredient in baking. It is sweet, mellow, thoroughly digestible and delicious in fruit cups, salads, desserts and milk shakes.

Here are answers to questions frequently asked about bananas?

1. What is the best way to ripen bananas? Allow bananas to ripen at a comfortable

Was Big Year for Small JA Companies

In spite of the recent economic set-back, teenage employees and executives of small local Junior Achievement companies finished the year in the black according to H. John Lowry, president of the business education organization's southeastern Michigan area.

Lowry who is president of Michigan Mutual Liability Company said Achievers redoubled their efforts to successfully weather the recent recession.

He said that the real value of JA experience for teenagers was that they understood the competitive free enterprise system and its principles.

Notwithstanding the basic aims of the organization, Lowry said the financial picture for nine Junior Achievement companies in the Plymouth area was quite impressive. With a total work force of one hundred high school juniors and seniors, the small firms sold $4,674 worth of products and services to the public this year.

The Achievers poured $2,063 into the local economy by spending that amount on raw materials for their products. They also produced a total of 3,707 units of merchandise.

Wages, bonuses and commissions amounted to $2,123. The young business people also sold 1,809 shares of 50-cent stock in their companies to 815 local stockholders.

In all some 361 Junior Achievement corporations in southeastern Michigan staffed by 8,000 young people made sales totaling $184,064 since October and spent $102,343 on raw materials from Michigan firms. The wages and salaries these teenage business people received during the year amounted to $61,941.

The small companies went out of business in May. Similar firms will start up in business this fall.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 1:

AGENDA ITEM NO. 4:
Due to numerous complaints from residents regarding the erection of fences by neighbors, the matter of requiring a permit was discussed. While our zoning ordinance does provide regulations for the construction of fences, it does not require the issuance of a permit by the Township. It was agreed, however, that no action should be taken at this time, pending a report from the Planning Commission, who are presently conducting a study of this matter.

Mr. Norman supported a motion by Mrs. Holmes that this item be tabled. Motion carried.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 5:
Mr. Lindsay reported on a meeting with representatives of Burroughs Corporation, Evans Products, Detroit City Bureau of Air Pollution Control and Wayne County Board of Health regarding air pollution by industries in Plymouth Township. Also present were Howard Holmes, Fire Chief, and Ted Malik, Heating Inspector.

Mr. Lindsay stated that the matter was ably presented by Mr. Mullan, Superintendent of the Bureau of Air Pollution Control of the City of Detroit and Mr. Stevens of Wayne County Board of Health, and that both Burroughs Corporation and Evans Products did agree to study this problem further and report their findings.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 6:
Mr. Lindsay informed the Board that water lines in the vicinity of the intersection of Five Mile Road and Northville Road were a necessity in order to supply the water needs of the new construction that is planned for that area.

Mr. Herald Hamill submitted an estimate of cost in the amount of $15,950.00, and was directed to proceed with preparation of plans for this project. Motion by Mrs. Holmes, supported by Mr. Norman, carried unanimously.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 7:
The installation of both sewer and water lines in the same trench has been a controversial question for some time. This was discussed without arriving at any definite decision, therefore Mr. Miller moved that the matter be tabled for further study. After support by Mrs. Holmes the motion to table carried.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 8:
Mr. Norman submitted the specifications for the rescue vehicle and related equipment that will be purchased for the fire department. After some discussion, it was agreed to accept the specifications with minor clarifications, and the Township Clerk was directed to advertise for bids.

Moved by Mr. Norman, supported by Mr. Sparks, the motion carried.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 9:
Mr. Tivadar Balogh presented a sketch for a building sewer and water maintenance equipment and stores to be erected on the rear of the Township Hall lot. Since this had not previously been discussed, it was the opinion of the Board to withhold action at this meeting, and give the matter further study.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 10:
Mr. Lindsay read a letter from the State Board of Health, wherein they informed that a complete ban on sewer connections has been imposed on the entire county of Wayne, pending definite arrangements to provide additional and adequate sewage disposal facilities.

This ban will result in the stoppage of all construction requiring sewer connections, and may be in effect for an indefinite period. Since Plymouth Township has purchased taps to the Middle Rouge Interceptor Sewer which are included in this ban, and which are urgently needed to correct the health problem in several areas in our Township, the matter of instituting legal proceedings to free these unused taps from this ban, was proposed.

Mr. Demel, however, advised that the Township should defer the institution of legal proceedings until after a discussion with the Michigan Department of Health. It was agreed that a delegation, including the Supervisor, Township Attorney, and Township Engineer, should journey to Lansing to lay this matter before the State Board of Health, with the request that Plymouth Township be given relief from the restrictions imposed by this ban in order to deal with the health hazards which exist in several areas in our Township.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 11:
Building Inspector Howard Holmes presented a request that the minimum floor area for residential buildings as required by Ordinance No. 14 be increased to provide a better standard of housing in our Township. The Board concurred with the building inspector, and requested Township Attorney, Earl J. Demel, to draw up an amendment to Ordinance No. 14 that will increase the minimum floor space requirements as requested by the Building Inspector.

Moved by Mr. Norman, supported by Mr. Sparks, the motion carried unanimously.

AGENDA ITEM NO. 12:
On a motion by Mrs. Holmes, supported by Mr. Sparks, the Board unanimously authorized a contribution of $50.00 to the Junior Chamber of Commerce to help defray the cost of conducting their annual July 4 celebration with amusement concessions and fireworks.

There being no further business, Mrs. Holmes moved for adjournment. After support by Mr. Norman, the meeting was adjourned at 10:35 P.M.

Tips on How To Prevent Mildew Damage

Molds that cause mildew are always in the air, but they grow best in "muggy" summer weather. Mildew thrives in warm, damp, dark, poorly aired places such as basements, closets, shower stalls and on damp clothes.

Favorite victims of mildew are cotton, linen, rayon, silk, wool, leather, wood and paper. Most of the manmade fibers are resistant to it.

Here are eight tips to help prevent mildew:

1. Provide good ventilation in bathrooms, kitchen and closets.
2. Hang garments loosely so air can circulate.
3. Keep stored clothing clean and dry.
4. Get rid of dampness.
5. Vent clothes dryer outdoors.
6. Keep suitcases, shoes, papers and books off the floor. Store on perforated shelves at top of closet.
7. Use mechanical dehumidifiers when necessary. When using a dehumidifier, keep windows and doors closed.
8. Use a low-pressure spray (in Aerosol container) containing a fungicide to prevent mildew. (Available at drug and department stores.)

When the first odor of mustiness occurs, or the first speck of mildew appears—get busy. Brush off mildew outside since mildew spores scatter. Send non-washable items to the dry cleaner.

Wash mildew-stained fabrics at once, and dry in the sun. If stain remains, bleach with lemon juice and salt, household chlorine bleach, or sodium perborate bleach (available at grocery stores). Always test bleach on fabric before using, and follow directions on bleach label.

To remove mildew from shoes and leather goods, wipe with a cloth wrung out of dilute alcohol—1 cup denatured or rubbing alcohol to 1 cup water. Dry in breeze. Polish leather with a wax dressing.

Use low-pressure sprayer containing a fungicide to prevent mildew.

Wash bathroom tiled walls and floors with a dilute bleach to get rid of mustiness. Use ½ to 1 cup of liquid household bleach to a gallon of water. Rinse and wipe dry. Ventilate room.

Marathon Gasolines STOP HOT-WEATHER STALLING

Nothing is more embarrassing! You stop for a red light. It changes to green. You step on the accelerator. And the engine stalls. You press the starter hard. It grinds away. The gas gauge shows half a tank. Horns begin to blow. A traffic cop walks over. You get out. Lift the hood. Wonder what's wrong. Trouble like this doesn't have to happen to you this summer.

Marathon gasolines are power-processed for Midwest summers. Marathon SUPER-M® and MILE-maker® gasolines are power-processed to help end hot-weather stalling. Laboratory controls provide gasolines that guard your engine against choking and strangling caused by vapor lock.

These Marathon gasolines are also scientifically filtered to clean out engine-stalling bits of dirt that can clog fuel systems. This summer, make it Marathon, for gasolines that are all go 'til the last drop's gone.

Lady Race Promoter Jean Simmons Wins Attention with Her Success

"That lady promoter in Flat Rock" is becoming the talk of the sports world simply because she had the good sense to study the promotional techniques of others while she was a competitor.

And, what Joan Simmons saw that she liked, she put into effect during her own weekly racing shows at Flat Rock Speedway where the crowds just about double each week over the previous week.

The increase in the crowds is proof of Joan's arguments with the powers-that-be at Flat Rock that good racing will bring the fans out.

A good number of the fans now regard Flat Rock as "the new Motor City Speedway" because of what they see each Saturday night.

Joan, who lives at 40950 Micol Dr., Plymouth, is the first to admit that she picked up many of her ideas at the old Speedway at Eight Mile and Schoenherr "because they brought out millions of fans for more than a quarter of a century."

She is on hand at the entrance to meet and greet the fans who turn out each Saturday night.

She gets back into the pits to give the drivers a pat on the back and a good luck wish. And, she is on hand in the office when the purses and points are awarded to make sure everyone is satisfied.

Joan has engaged the former Motor City Speedway crew — publicity director, timer, starter and pit steward — to handle those important tasks.

There were some who laughed 10 years ago when Joan organized a group of girl drivers into the Michigan Powder Puff Assn. and there were some who laughed when she was announced as the Flat Rock track director earlier this year.

But, the scoffers are now her most ardent boosters. They are on hand to watch the precision-like presentation of each show. Everything goes as scheduled — time trials promptly at 7:30, first race at 8:30 sharp, everybody on their way home by 10:30 — satisfied with another thrilling program.

Joan's next show is Saturday night, July 8. It will be another of those popular nine-event semi-late model stock car affairs — a fender-crunching traffic jam that goes around in circles looking for a place to happen.

That's Flat Rock Speedway on Saturday night with little Joan Simmons joining the fans during the feature to cheer on her favorite.

And, who is her favorite driver?

"Why, Lil Richard, of course," she says with a smile.

"Lil Richard" is the favorite of many fans. He's also Joan's husband.

He'll be out Saturday night, too, along with about 50 of his rival racing buddies.

As usual, it will be trials at 7:30, the first race at 8:30, and homeward bound at 10:30 p.m.

Outstanding Mother Sought By State Fair

If you want your mother or someone else's mother to be named Mrs. Michigan State Fair, you must nominate her before the deadline, Aug. 14, Plymouthites were reminded this week.

This is announced by Donald L. Swanson, State Fair general manager, who said it will be the fourth annual selection of Michigan's favorite "mom".

She must be 21 years or older, a resident of Michigan and have a fine record of community service and activity.

In past years, the mothers selected were interested in cooking, sewing, hobbies, church work, club, school, PTA and other activities with emphasis on success as a good mother and a helping-hand neighbor.

"Do It Yourself" abilities in household painting and repairs also were important.

No applications blanks are necessary. Just write a letter to Mrs. Michigan State Fair Contest, Detroit 3, Mich., explaining why you think the candidate should be selected and also a recent photo of the mother along with her husband's name, her address, phone, age, etc. Snapshots or letters will not be returned.

But remember that your letter must be received before August 14.

The "mom" selected will be crowned by Governor John B. Swainson on Thursday night, Aug. 31, following the mammoth downtown Detroit opening State Fair parade. The crowning will be part of the ribbon cutting ceremonies and program at the Fairgrounds in Detroit.

Following the coronation, Mrs. Michigan State Fair will be royally entertained during the opening week-end of the State Fair which runs Sept. 1 through 10.

SPORTSEEN

BY BILL NELSON

"Picking horses is tough enough," a lover of thoroughbreds used to say, "but when they put carriages behind them, it's impossible."

He had been helpful through the years with tips on numerous horses, but mother always said not to listen to touts — so we went to Northville anyway last week.

The group consisted of my wife, an attorney friend and his wife. This is important, because another few factors affect the betting when the opposite sex is "offering" advice.

It was a pleasant enough evening, but the attorney is nameless — he may know the libel laws too well. Suffice it to say, that in the first race he liked a horse called "Legal Action."

While I was off looking for seats and sizing up the tote board, he slipped away and put two bucks on his horse. It won.

In the second race, I brought all my knowledge to bear on a selection called Trotwood Bob, based mainly on the information on the board that he was going off at 6-1. We split a combination ticket and the horse won. Neither of us brought a double ticket, which would have returned us $148.40 for our combined efforts on those first two races.

Lest there be any internal revenue agents in town, let me quickly add that we lost a total of 40 cents during the evening out, although our friend's investment returned some three dollars throughout the festivities. It's hardly worth a summons.

Things got worse anyway, and before long we were committing the unpardonable sin of not betting with the girls' advice. Women's intuition has been a subject that has intrigued writers from time to time. In racing, however, you can't fight it. You must bet with the ladies. If they win, all your superior sportsmanship and study of the program is for naught. If they're wrong, well they just "thought they'd try a hunch" and after all they don't really know much about this business.

We once lost 24 races in a row without feminine help. While this record is not the best testimonial of skill, it does say something for our perseverance.

This Northville game is a lot of fun and colorful under the lights. The weather was a little cool and cut the crowd considerably, but in the hot weather, there are few more relaxing activities.

And you really ought to take the girls, especially if you lose only 40 cents. It makes it interesting.

Exuberance shows in the reports of Plymouth recreational activity elsewhere on the sports page. The Plymouth program is moving at full speed now and it's invigorating to read of the widespread interest in the program.

One report, which came our way from the Lakepointe playground, says that the children are using up Plaster of Paris so fast in an Arts and Crafts project that a paint store proprietor said, "What are you doing with it over there, eating it?"

Well, what do you do with Plaster of Paris?

"Enjoy, Enjoy" Is Recreation Theme

Summer Program Is Well Attended

The Plymouth Recreation department's summer program is in full swing now and enthusiastic reports are filtering in from the playgrounds.

The Recreation Office urges youngsters "not to miss out on any more fun! There is still time left."

Thirteen playgrounds are in session every day, Monday through Friday, with competent supervisors in attendance always.

Here are some of the reports received this week:

ALLEN: Average attendance 63. Supervisors are Jack Birk and Rita Kimbrough. (Noon to 5 p.m.)

AUBURN: Average attendance is 67. Supervisors are

Marianne Wagner and Georgina Daubresse. (10 to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.) A "championship relay race" was held June 28, won by Pat Herter, Bradley Weage, Rodney Maas, Susanna Eicker and Robert Labadie. A hot dog roast is planned for "around July 7" and other events are being scheduled. Auburn says "come and join us at Auburn Playground."

BIRD: Supervisors are Mac Pierce and Judy Bradley. (10 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.)

CENTRAL: Average attendance is 74. Roxanne Smith is the supervisor. (9:30 a.m. to 11:30 and 1 to 4:30 p.m.)

CHERRY HILL: Average

attendance is 35. Supervisor is Wilma Wright. (1 to 4 p.m.) A peanut hunt was held last week and a hot dog roast is planned for this week. Other activities planned are: a hobo hike, a pet show and a watermelon eating contest. Cherry Hill says, "Lots of good things are happening; why don't you come join us?"

FARRAND: Supervisors are James Gunenko and Celeste Arjay. (12 to 3 p.m.) Farrand says, "Youngsters really enjoy making statues out of Plaster of Paris. Very fine works have resulted and the children can win prizes for them at Arts and Crafts contests."

GALLIMORE: Average attendance is 43. Supervisors are Don Alexander and Nancy Alford. (10 a.m. to 3 p.m.) Picnic lunches are scheduled every day here. Tuesdays and Fridays hot dogs and marshmallows are roasted over a fire and on Fridays watermelon is served. Arts and Crafts begin at 10 a.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays, while physical fitness begins at 10 a.m. on other days.

Organized games are scheduled mornings and afternoons throughout the week and are followed by hikes in the woods or sprinkler play on the lawn, ending at 3 p.m. Gallimore says, "Attendance has continued to increase, but there is room for more to come and enjoy."

HAMILTON: Average attendance is 100. Supervisors are Dianne Van Loo and Kitty Catlett. (10 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m.)

HOUGH: Supervisor is Elizabeth Carless. (9 a.m. to noon)

LAKEPOINTE: Supervisors are James Gunenko and Celeste Arjay. (9-11 a.m.) Arts and Crafts take up most of the scheduled period, but the youngsters have been "eager for new projects" and a kool-aid party, games, etc. have filled in other periods.

SMITH: Supervisors are Max Sammerville and Betsy Edgar. (9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and 1 to 4 p.m.)

TRUEDELL: Supervisor is Elizabeth Carless (1 to 4 p.m.)

STARKWEATHER: Average attendance is 52. Supervisors are William Foster and Carol Nitz. (12 to 3 p.m.)

Other activities in the recreation program also appear to be doing a booming business. A hundred students are registered for a tennis program conducted by James Stevens and Betty Argo. Classes are conducted every hour from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Hundreds of youngsters have leaped into the swimming program. Instructional programs in the morning are filled with waiting lists facing applicants for some. Afternoons are open for recreational swimming.

The fee for swimming is 15 cents per day or 10 tickets for $1.00. From 1 until 2 p.m. the pool is reserved for 2nd through 4th graders; from 2 till 3 p.m. for 5th and 6th graders, from 3 to 4 p.m. for 7th and 8th graders and from 4 to 5 p.m. for 9th through 12th graders.

In another area, Karen Dickerson is conducting baton classes, while Sally Gillis is working with future cheerleaders at Smith School from 1 to 2 p.m. and at Bird from 2 to 3 p.m.

Thirty per hour have turned out for John Sandmann's gymnastics classes from 8:30 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. daily. Kiddy Kampus is featured at Bird School from 10 a.m. until noon. It is for pre-schoolers. Pamela Turkett is the supervisor.

From 9 a.m. until 10 a.m., Pamela teaches French and French customs to 14 youngsters enrolled in a beginners class from the 4th grade up. C'est La Vie.

Bates of Plymouth, Ricky Cronk of Dearborn and Diane Blake of Livonia. Onalee is the wife of Gary Bates, 11101 Southworth. Her father is operator of Riverside Arena.

Livonia will become the capital of the roller skating world when an estimated 750 to 1,000 members of the U.S. Amateur Roller Skating Association open their national championship meet at Riverside Arena on Plymouth Rd. this Sunday.

Many of the skaters will be staying at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth and two of the skaters will be from Plymouth — Onalee Bates and Harold Lamb. Plymouth residents are invited to attend any of the week-long events.

Events in the colorful spectacle, according to George Appale of New York, President of the USARSA, include figures, free style, dance and speed in several age and experience classifications. In eight divisions, forty-nine individual titles are at stake in this meet as well as two club trophies, the National Artistic Club Trophy now in the possession of the Levittown (N. Y.) Skating Club and the speed cup held by the Reading (Pa.) Roller Racing Club. The USARSA represents about 18,000 organized amateurs, although the total number (Continued on Page 7)

Down Carlings; Upset Cloverdale

A couple of upsets shook the Class "A" Plymouth Softball League last week as DeHoCo beat Carlings and Herby's toppled Cloverdale.

DeHoCo, in last place with a 3-5 record, downed league leading Carlings 4-1. It was the second loss for Carlings, which has won eight. Herby's pushed its record to 4-6 for the season and moved closer to second place Cloverdale by winning 4-1. Cloverdale has won four and lost five.

In Class "B," Nick's remained on top by winning its eighth game. Nick's hasn't lost yet, but has tied one. Vico is second with a 5-2 record, while Waltons is third with a 3-4-1 mark. Merchants are fourth with a 3-5 record and McAllisters are fifth with three wins and six losses.

Reds Lead Minor League

Little League Minors, a group of 7½ to 12-year-old boys, are well underway with their league. The teams play behind the high school Monday through Thursday each week and practice on Fridays.

There are 100 boys in the league, and 25 on each of four teams. Currently the Reds are leading the league with a 5-1 record, while the Greens are second with a 4-2 mark. The Whites are third with a 2-4 mark and the Blues trail with one victory in six starts.

Maccabee News

The Maccabees will be the guests of the Northville ladies, July 10, for potluck dinner at the Willows, Five Mile and Northville Roads. In case of rain, the dinner will be held at Zada Riley's home, 430 Yerkes St. in Northville. All members are urged to attend as there will be no meetings at the Oddfellows Hall this month.

Men's Lutheran is last with one victory in seven tries.

Today in Class "A," Cloverdale meets DeHoCo at DeHoCo at 6:30 p.m., and Carlings meets Herby's at 7:30 p.m. in Plymouth. Friday, Cloverdale clashes with Carlings at 7:30 p.m. in Plymouth, and Herby's hikes to DeHoCo for a 6:30 p.m. game.

Monday, Cloverdale and Herby's play at 7:30 p.m. in Plymouth, while Carlings meets DeHoCo at 6:30 p.m. at the latter's field.

This week's Class "B" activity will see Men's Lutheran and McAllisters playing tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. Nick's and Vico play at 7:45 p.m. and Waltons meet Merchants at 9 p.m.

Tuesday, the Merchants meet Vico at 7 p.m. and McAllisters play Waltons at 8:15 p.m. All "B" games are at Plymouth High School.

Indians, Braves Lead Little Leagues

The Indians in the American League and Braves in the National League were the league leaders last weekend. No games were played either Wednesday or Thursday nights last week to allow time for a playoff game in each league.

But because there were no ties for first place in either league, these playoffs were unnecessary.

Residents were reminded that this Saturday, July 8 is "Little League Day" at the Burger Chef. Profits from the day will go toward the Little League effort. Supporters were also reminded to turn in any stamps they have to the refreshment stand at the Little League Park. They are used to purchase equipment there.

The Little League Park is located along Plymouth Rd., just east of Hillside Inn. Each of the two leagues has six teams this year. Each league has its own set of officers. The American League's president is Harry L. Crawford, Jr., and the National League president is Joseph Bida.

These are the standings as of last weekend:

American League	W	L

The 3,000 skating rinks in the United States estimate that 28 million skaters enjoy their facilities. Mr. Apdala said that 1,000 dance and mixed pair teams are formed every year by the 18,000 members. Their skill on the skating floor at sectional, state and the national competitions provides many memorable sights to audiences.

Skaters appearing at Riverside Arena during the seven day meet (July 9-15) won first, second or third place in state association competitions in 32 states. Participants range from age five through 45 although most of the present national champions are in their late teens or early twenties. The oldest is 31.

Defending national champions are: Dawn Brown, 20, Trenton, N. J., private secretary, senior ladies champion for three years.

Madelyn Higgins, 20, River Edge, N. J., stenographer, senior dance champion for two years, and her partner Earl Roberts, 26, Bloomfield, N. J., office worker.

Judy Armer, 20, Reading, Pa., clerical worker, senior ladies speed champion.

David Babb, 20, Patterson, N. J., supermarket assistant manager, senior mens' speed champion.

Paul Zukowski, 19, Irvington, N. J. high school senior is senior mens' singles champion and with Dianne Ludwig, 17, of the same city, senior pairs champion.

The USARSA is a member of the U.S. Olympic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union. One goal of the organization is to have skating accepted into the Olympic games.

One of the prime objectives of the United States Amateur Roller Skating Association is to win recognition of the sport as one of the Olympic games.

The code governing United States Amateur Roller Skating Association members is as strict and zealous as the simon pure rules applying to the sports already accepted by the United States Olympic Association, of which the roller skating organization is a member. It is also part of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Professionalism in roller skating is limited, because, aside from coaching and teaching in rinks, proficient and highly talented skaters find that the professional roller skating vanities and a few other troupes are the only organizations that offer gainful employment in the sport.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Editor: In regards to the recent letters published in your paper concerning fluoridation of our city water supply please let me state that fluoride isn't poison as some people seem to think. If it were I am sure that the city of Grand Rapids would be entirely wiped out after 15 years of drinking their city water. Grand Rapids as well as Philadelphia, Washington D.C. and many more cities in the United States have reported every successful results after several years of drinking fluoridated water.

In the July issue of Good Housekeeping Magazine, Dr. Arthur S. Fleming, former Secy. of Health, Education and Welfare, has written an article which I think every citizen of this city should read. Dr. Fleming has since 1939 served our government under three Presidents, Roosevelt, Truman and Eisenhower.

Our City Commission should be highly praised for their interest in the children of this City. Remember, it is the children who will be the leaders in the next generation.

Research has proven that two out of three cavities can be prevented by the use of fluoride in the water supply. Also protection afforded by fluoride costs only a few cents per person per year. Controlled fluoridation does not mean adding a foreign substance to the water. All water contains some fluoride. Fluoridation of our water supply simply means controlling the amount of fluoride in the public water system.

Anyone who has sat in a dentist's office and heard little children crying and in pain from a toothache certainly should be glad to spend a few cents a year out of the taxpayers' money to erase this unnecessary pain to our young people as well as the tremendous expense to the parents.

Blurbs on Back Cover

Columnist Bob Wright of the Oconto County (Wis.) Reporter did a piece back in April on the art of selling paper-backs that so delighted us.

Wright's inspiration came from reading "the paper-backed edition of a truly great contemporary novel," and which, by his own account, "is about as lurid as a Baptist Sunday School primer."

Wherefor this writer deduces that: "Somewhere in the canyons of New York City there must be a flourishing business where hordes of evil-minded writers produce the promotional paragraphs to put on the back covers of books they have never read on the assumption that the reading public will never read anything that isn't 'An exciting story of the raw and lurid, etc.'"

Wright admits wistfully, however, that he might be had by some wealthy publisher desiring to spark up old books. Here are some of his suggested back-cover blurbs:

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN — from what dark passions was the lovely Eliza fleeing? Was the blonde little Eva really as virtuous as she pretended?"

"U.S. INCOME TAX GUIDE — A daring drama of a man and his ductable wife."

"REBECCA OF SUNNYBROOK FARM — Now, forever answered! The truth about the farmer's daughter."

"LITTLE BLACK SAMBO — A gripping drama of... pitting the wild beasts of the jungle against this lone fighter for racial integration."

"THE NEW YORK PHONE DIRECTORY — What drama in the lives of these everyday men and women! The most tremendous cast of characters ever assembled in a single book."

"HIAWATHA — Even the icy waves of The Shining Big Sea Water came to a boil at the torrid romance of Hiawatha and the shapely Minnehaha!"

"ALICE IN WONDERLAND — Alice may have been just a girl when she stepped through the mirror, but the things she learned from the Mad Hatter really made a woman of her."

"INNOCENTS ABROAD — Now it can be told! Read what Mark Twain really did in the passion pits of Paris!"

"LADY CHATTERLY'S LOVER — Excellent information on modern game management practices."

"THE KINSEY REPORT — A good book."

The Army has developed a camera that requires no light but depends solely on heat radiation from the person or object being photographed.

Under 21

By DAN HALLIGAN

Dear Dan: I just graduated from eighth grade and my boyfriend gave me a watch as a present. My mother thinks it was improper and says I should have it exchanged for something else. I would be willing to do this if you think it's wrong. The watch wasn't extremely expensive. Just Wondering.

Dear Just Wondering: It's not so much the cost of the watch but the fact that you did get one as a graduation present. You're a little too young, about eight years, to be accepting such personal gifts.

Your mother should know better than to tell you to have it exchanged for something else. A gift isn't at all necessary in this case.

Dear Readers: So many parents whose 10 and 11-year old sons have never had a "real vacation" have responded to the "Under 21" offer of last month, a month's vacation for a boy in the Glacier Park area of western Montana, that we need your help.

Whether you live in the city or country, in a house or an apartment, in the United States or Canada, if you are financially able to pay for the round-trip transportation for a boy and have him spend two, three or four weeks with your family, write to us as soon as possible.

More than 100 boys (to date) are on our list for the one vacation offer we made and as much as we would like to, we can't accommodate more than one boy. Remember, it doesn't matter where you live, if you can give a youngster a change of scenery and a chance to see some fun, don't let this opportunity slide by. If you can help out, we'll try to arrange everything so that a boy living nearest to your home town is chosen for you. That way, train fare will be cut considerably.

One family, living hundreds of miles from me, voluntarily offered to take a boy for two weeks. Won't you do the same? You'll make a youngster happy and along the way, you'll enjoy life a little more too. Talk this over with your family and then if at all possible, write to "Under 21."

Dear Dan: If a girl you like and had asked for a date told you she was going to be busy on the night of the date and then you saw her at the movies with another boy, what should you think? I think if the girl had a date, she should have told me. There's no crime in being honest, is there? — Orv.

Dear Orv.: The girl did tell you but not in as many words as you would have liked to have heard. When a girl tells a boy, "I'm going to be busy," chances are she already has a date. Girls say that because they believe boys would rather get the "busy signal" than be told they're already dated up. The girl was honest.

How's Business?

Inventory Policies Changing

By ROGER W. BABSON

Changes in the nation's economic climate since World War II have largely reflected transitions in business policies with regard to inventories. The degree and duration of the increases and declines in the dollar value of goods and services produced in this country (Gross National Product) bear a striking correlation to those of the dollar value of business inventories.

This means that during periods of good business the rise in the Gross National Product curve has been matched or exceeded by the gain in inventory accumulation, while periods of business adjustment have shown generally comparable declines in Gross National Product and business inventories.

While other forces may actually trigger the shifts in business climate, nevertheless the inevitable effect has been to influence businessmen in their decisions as to whether they should accumulate or liquidate inventories. Hence, it would appear that the trend of business inventories should be a good barometer of business. This is true, but with certain reservations. Changes in inventories of certain raw materials and durable goods tend to coincide with changes in business conditions, but inventories — on the aggregate — experience a time lag. Thus, the value of this economic indicator is more in the nature of a confirming signal of business trends, and one must look to the more sensitive barometers such as new orders and commodity prices for signs of a turning point in business.

For nine months, commencing in the summer of 1960, businessmen have been paring inventories. This was finally halted in April of this year when a modest increase occurred, providing added confirmation that the economy is again in an expanding phase. With confidence restored, prospects for rising demand should encourage businessmen to replenish depleted supplies and commence some forward buying as well. This change in business inventory policy should impart definite strength to industrial activity in the months ahead.

RE-APPOINTED general campaign chairman for the 1961 Plymouth Community Fund drive is Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister, left, who is looking over this year's agency Board of Directors.

Insta-Loan Office Brightens Penniman

Penniman Ave. took on a brighter look last week with the opening of the new office of the Insta-Loan Department of the National Bank of Detroit. Located in the building formerly occupied by the former Insta-Loan office, the new office is a bright colonial-style addition to the street that a committee of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce is attempting to "revitalize."

The former Insta-Loan office was located three doors west of the National Bank of Detroit, making it inconvenient for customers who were referred from the main bank to the Insta-Loan office.

"We now have more room and there is much more customer convenience," according to Rolland Bonamici, manager of the Insta-Loan Department. The main entrance of the Insta-Loan Department is located in the entrance-way to the Penniman Ave. entrance of the main bank office.

There are now 33 people working in the Insta-Loan office, giving it a staff almost as large as its adjacent main bank office. National Bank of Detroit also has a branch at Ann Arbor Rd. and Harvey St.

Not only is the new location larger, but it also offers a rear entrance for customers parking in the Central Parking Lot. Its modern interior bears no resemblance to the half-century-old hardware store that formerly occupied the building.

The local Insta-Loan Department serves six suburban National Bank of Detroit branches located in Plymouth, Livonia and Novi. The department has been located here since October 1952. While customers can handle their Insta-Loan business in any of the six branches, the Insta-Loan Department keeps the records and passes on all credit applications in the branches.

Around $1 million in loans are granted each month by the department, the manager said: "The largest share is for automobiles," Bonamici noted, "followed by home improvement loans, appliance and furniture loans, and personal loans."

The Insta-Loan Department has longer hours than the bank itself. It is open from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Fridays.

Judges for the contest were Miss Hearnson, supervisor of stewardesses for North Central Airlines, Miss Love, head modeling instructor for Powers-Modeling School, and Mrs. Ann Winterhalter of American Airlines.

Lanny West of the Jaycees served as master of ceremonies for the Miss Plymouth finals.

The Saturday night program was held in the Junior High Parking lot and despite threatening rain, it was carried to its completion. The musical revue, which opened with the blast-off of a rocket, continued with the emergence of "Governor Williams" played by Charles Zoet. This was followed by a skit, "Going Up, Please," by members of the Theatre Guild — Russ Wallace, C. V. Sparks, Merle Hef, Bill Moore, Hollis Haynes, Saxie Hef and Nick Carpenter. A monologue, "My Fair Baby" was offered by Linda "Georgiana Spelvin" Wall. Theatre Guild members also supplied the cast for "The Unlaunchables."

The Town Criers, players and singers of folk music, was composed of John Tichy, Bob Evans, Ron Trip and Paul Malboeuf.

How much of a reduction can one expect? A typical frame home with brick veneer in the Class 9 district now pays 26 cents per $100. This would drop to 18 cents.

Applying this insurance covering a $15,000 home, the present rate of $39 a year would drop to $27.

Insurance rates for commercial property are figured individually by the Michigan Inspection Bureau. These rates are based on the type of business in each building, as well as the structure itself.

Beyer Installs New Ice Machine

A machine that makes crystal-clear, solid, round ice cubes has been installed at the Beyer Rexall Drugs Main St. store. Called the Scotsman, the machine makes up to 225 pounds of cubes daily for purchase. How many cubes is 225 pounds? That is 3,500, according to store owner Robert Beyer, who says that he expects the ice to be popular for those who want to simplify the ice problem when they have large groups.

Steer Winner
A 1,000 pound Black Angus steer was won by Don Trotten, owner of the Sunoco service station at Plymouth Rd. and Holbrook. He was present when the selection was made Tuesday night at the carnival grounds. The steer was given away by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce. It included a year's free locker space.

(Loss of Harold Fischer will mean some less confusion since the Board also has a Gerald Fischer. They are not related.)

The seven-member board draws a total salary of $2,000, giving each around $285 a year pocket money. (Most members use this to attend the American Association of School Boards conventions.) School Board terms are four years.

The American Legion served breakfast and lunch to the crowd.

I am very much impressed with the new the new Nellie Bird and George A. Smith elementary schools and the new addition to the high school," continued Mr. Isbister.

The first weekly concert was given last Friday evening in Kellogg Park for Plymouth residents who enjoyed the music sitting in the park and in their cars parked near the square. The weekly programs will include light classical favorites and marches.

An unusual civic and historical celebration is being planned July 27, when the tattered old flag of the Eddy Post of the G.A.R. is turned over to the city to become a revered relic of the "boys in blue" from here who were members of the Union Army during the Civil War. A fine cabinet is being made in which the flag will be preserved and displayed in the city hall.

The Grange picnic in John Root's woods was well attended in spite of the extremely warm weather and everyone seemed to have a fine time. Of course, the refreshment stand was well patronized and almost everything was sold. The program of music and recitations was excellent and all enjoyed the address of J. W. Helme of the Michigan State Grange. Harry Hanford of Detroit gave two humorous recitations that were especially fine, and Mrs. Gates, Mr. Harmon and Ed Quackenbush furnished some spirited music. The Grange evidently advocates the "s a n e Fourth of July".

Canton Beats Plymouth Twp. In Donkey Baseball Game

By Esther Sprengel
GL 3-0194

Where was the column last week? The answer, no news, no column! This week, however, we shall try to make up for it.

Although it wasn't greatly publicized, Canton Township Fire Dept. and Plymouth Township Fire Department, competed in a Donkey Baseball game. The winner, (of course) was Canton Township, with a score of 7 to 4. We say the Canton Dept. won, however, to the spectators it seemed a toss-up between the men and the donkeys, in fact, I think the donkeys had a slight edge.

The line-up - Dale Wilkins on first, with a very congenial donkey (at times), the pair did a fine job at keeping Plymouth from scoring. Second base, Bill Sprengel, who lost to a donkey at the start of the game. The donkey started right off showing Bill who was boss by tossing him off right on his head. However, his donkey partner at second base was very quiet, in fact to get him moving for the ball was a major project. Third base, Lawrence Longwish, now we don't exactly know if Lawrence had the wanderlust or the donkey had it, however the pair frequently galloped around the field without a leave of absence. The fielders - Gordon Vetalon (or I should say he spent his entire game trying to get on) a very energetic donkey who apparently hated the game and refused to let anyone ride him: After many efforts and tricks, Gordon mounted the animal (for short periods of time). Fielder - John Flodin also with an anti-baseball donkey, explained to the animal they had something in common (donkey-democrat was his explanation), the animal just couldn't see politics at this stage of the game, so the best John could do is lay across the animal and throw the ball to fellow players. Or could it have been that Moscow University tee shirt he was wearing? Fielder Ivan Campbell seemed to have his donkey under control (or at least he did while the donkey let him have control.) Mel Korte - fielder (with a little more cowboy instinct perhaps managed to stay mounted for reasonable lengths of time. Catcher - Vern Borabacher, he was one of the luckier players (no donkey). The pitcher was none other than the department's fire chief, Fred Korte. Jr. Fred was also one of the lucky ones, while in field, no donkey, however the animals got even when he was up to bat and tried to make-it to base, he did manage to master the brutes on a couple of runs.

Now to discuss our team up to bat. The fellows did a good job of hitting the ball (it was nearly the size of a basketball), however the odds were even due to the rules of using only one hand to bat. The fellows sent the ball flying and

Missionary Family Now Attending Moody Institute

Vernon F. Carvey and his wife, Bonnie Jean, are presently in Chicago attending summer school at Moody Bible Institute. The Carveys are missionaries to the Philippines and are supported by the Calvary Baptist Church at 496 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

Now in its 75th year, Moody Bible Institute is one of the nation's oldest and largest Bible and missionary training schools on a college level. One-tenth of all missionaries from North America have received training at Moody.

Mr. and Mrs. Carvey have served as missionaries in the Philippines for 4 1/2 years and are now on furlough. Vernon's home town is Plymouth, and he and his wife have resided here for the past year.

time if you want to enjoy yourself this summer

This common sense health tip was advanced by Richard L. Lea of Plymouth, executive-director of the TB and Health Society as July, one of the sunniest months of the year in Michigan, made its debut.

Too much sun can cause upset stomach, splitting headache, dizziness and sleeplessness for nights in a row, Lea warned.

Lea said doctors attached to the TB and Health Society recommend that you begin with no more than 20 minutes a day in the sun - covering well with a good lotion or cream.

"Time in the sun is the big danger," Lea warned. "Take it easy. Avoid blisters when you're searching for the tanned body beautiful."

Pictorial Peek at Plymouth's Holiday Weekend

SOON AFTER this picture was taken, 50 pounds of peanuts were dumped from the plane and hundreds of youngsters broke loose across the Junior High athletic grounds to start their hunt for colored peanuts Tuesday afternoon.

WINNING FIRST place in the float competition for civic organizations was this one sponsored by the Plymouth Grange. At far end was scene showing the "Frontier" of 1775 (the Revolutionary War) while the "Frontier" of 1975 showed a rocket headed for the moon. That is a real, live horse on the float, which was given a tranquilizer before the parade. The float took Grange members several days to complete.

are the runners-up, Sharon Wesley (Miss Terry's Bakery) 3rd, and Margo VanAntwerp, (Miss Plymouth Washer & TV Service) 2nd.

GOVERNOR John Swainson received a lifetime membership in the Plymouth Jaycees at Monday's Governor's Day luncheon at the Mayflower. Jaycee President Terry West is shown presenting the plaque to the governor.

SECOND PLACE in the float competition for organizations was this one on "cleanliness" sponsored by Our Lady of Good Counsel. Hundreds of balloons looked like soap bubbles.

sponsored by Our Lady of Good Counsel. Hundreds of balloons looked like soap bubbles.

MOST PLYMOUTH people got their first look Tuesday at a car owned by Miss Margaret Dunning that was selected a winner in last year's Midwest classic car competition. This is a 1930 Packard roadster.

COMPETING for ribbons were many of the area's horse owners. The horse show, sponsored by the Plymouth Block and Eridle Club, was held following Tuesday's parade.

THIRD PLACE in the civic division float contest went to the Theatre Guild with its United Nations theme.

SUMMER playgrounds were again represented in the parade and this one (Hamilton) showed how Africa of yesterday will compare with Africa of tomorrow.

DESPITE threatening rain, Saturday night's musical revue and Miss Plymouth finals went off as scheduled on the Junior High parking lot. Shown is a group from Jerry's Accordion Studio.

ONE OF the colorful entries in the July 4th parade each year is Peter Koziol, 7425 Sheldon Rd., who to many children looks like Santa Claus because of his long white beard.

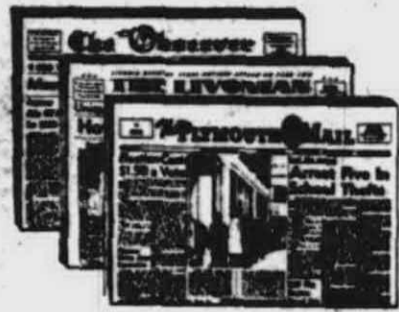

NOT A WINNER but a float that drew applause was this "Piece" C float sponsored by the Plymouth Symphony. Young ladies were dressed in costumes from around the world. Behind this came a very small float sponsored by the Junior Symphony.

Marvins Move to Virginia

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Marvin and sons John and Greg of Norborne Ave. are moving to their new home in Annandale, Virginia. Mr. Marvin's transfer to the Washington D. C. office of Detroit Diesel as assistant manager was announced in this paper in February.

The Marvins moved to the Township in 1941 and are celebrating their 20th wedding anniversary this month. John, who is 16 is a sophomore at R. U. High. Gregory, 5 years old is a kindergarten student at Bulman.

The Marvins have been active in civic and school affairs during their 20 years in the Township. Mrs. Marvin was secretary of the Roosevelt Mothers Club for 2 years. She also helped to organize the Bulman Mother's Club and was secretary for 2 years, a charter member of the Bulman Mother's Singers, a member of the Kenwood Women's Club and treasurer of the Flower Circle of Grace Lutheran Church, and an active member of the Lola Valley PTA and Kiwanians.

Mr. Marvin was an active member of the Kiwanis Club of Lola Valley for 10 years, serving as president in 1955 and secretary 1956-1960. He was first president of the Lola Valley Jr. High PTA and served as treasurer of the Redford Union Junior High PTA during its second year. He also was treasurer of the Silver Reis Homeowner Association for several years and was Parents Chairman of the Cub Scouts Pack 130.

John is an enthusiastic designer and model builder. He has entered his second model car in the Fisher Body Craftsmen Guild competition. He spends much of his spare time constructing and flying gasoline engine powered model airplanes.

The Marvins were honored by farewell parties given for them by their friends, a dinner-party at Hucks Restaurant by the Kiwanis Club, and a luncheon by their neighbors held in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Kelly.

Prices Down Two Percent in Ward Catalogue

Prices of key items in Montgomery Ward's new 1961 fall and winter general catalogue are down an average of two per cent from prices of the same items in last year's catalogue, Charles W. Wood, vice-president and general merchandise manager, announced today.

The 1,456-page catalogue, the largest ever printed by Montgomery Ward, is being sent to more than 6,000,000 Ward customers throughout the nation.

"The principle emphasis of the new book is on value, quality and service," Wood said. "Our prices are competitive, our merchandise selections are better than ever, and our customer services are complete from design assistance to emergency delivery of an automobile battery."

"Apparel and home furnishings in the new book feature the great trend to color coordination that has become the outstanding characteristic of good taste among American families in the 1960's," he said.

For the first time in a general catalogue, Ward offers all items — more than 100,000 — on a no-down-payment basis to all customers. Previously, only established accounts were offered the no-down-payment privilege. The new policy was announced by the company in April.

The opening section of the new book features merchandise in the new fall colors and styles designed exclusively for Montgomery Ward by three top names in America's fashion and couture markets... John Fredericks (dresses, hats, gloves and hosiery), Richard Koret (handbags) and John Weitz (dresses and sportswear). The Kingston Trio, one of America's most popular recording groups, is pictured in the new book modeling a color and style coordinated collection of sport shirts, slacks, belts and jackets in the All American Ivy style for which the Trio is famous.

Chairs and tables by outstanding designers are offered in the new book. Maxwell Royal's high-backed "Country Parson" chair is upholstered in a colorful patchwork quilt design. George Mulhauser's "Mr. Chair" has a distinctive walnut swivel frame upholstered with deeply tufted leather-grain vinyl. A table and chair grouping designed in modern art form by Paul McCobb features a fan-shaped waltz plywood chair back for spring action.

Services available in the new catalog include a complete home furnishings color coordination program — Ward's Color Palette — to help customers select coordinated colors in a variety of merchandise when planning color schemes and decorating projects. Customers can solve their design problems by writing to Ward's customer engineering department. Ward's engineers will design and give free estimates to customers planning to remodel kitchens and bathrooms, or to build enclosed porches and breezeways. Free estimates and advice are available for installation of heating and air conditioning systems, gas and oil conversion burners, plumbing systems, lawn sprinkler systems, swimming pools and fencing. Water samples can be analyzed to determine the correct type of water treatment equipment for the home.

Customers may borrow tools for installation of ceramic tile, siding, plumbing, insulation, furnaces, lock sets, piping and fencing. Emergency delivery service is offered for water heaters, car batteries and truck tires. The new catalog is a source of other catalogs regularly issued by Ward. Coupons enable the customer to order the Farm Catalog, Garden Catalog, Camera Catalog and the Outdoor Sports and Camping Catalog.

Besides five full pages offering books, magazines and manuals, there are many valuable publications on auto and truck repair, slide rule operation, rifle and shotgun care and other subjects available elsewhere in the catalog. Plenty of free information is offered the do-it-yourself customer through handbooks on electric welding, wiring, home decorating, air conditioning, heating and radiation heating. Throughout the new book are helpful sections on what to look for in fabrics, ways to install curtains and insulating materials, how to judge the amounts of paint needed for walls, floors and ceilings, and ways to select water systems.

Wards continues its "department store look" in the catalog by grouping related merchandise lines into "shops," including junior fashions, coats and suits, half sizes, fabrics, lingerie, baby furnishings, notions, kitchen equipment and bathroom fixtures. A winter sports center offers skis, ski clothes, toboggans, snow shoes and sports accessories.

Special price reductions in the new catalog include a front-loading automatic washer for $229.95, a reduction of $55 from the spring book, an automatic dryer, $234.95 in the spring book, is now $199.95, a reduction of $35.

A complete line of tires, automotive equipment and repair parts for domestic and foreign cars is included in Ward's new catalog.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Editor: I wish to express my deep appreciation for the efforts many citizens of South Redford put forth in my behalf during the recent School Board election. I wish to sincerely thank not only the interested workers but also those who saw fit to cast their vote in my behalf. It is my sincere desire to see education prosper in South Redford. I will constantly strive for quality education for our children. A heartfelt thank you to all. DOUGLAS L. CROSS

The last firecracker has sputtered to a dismal poof. The sparklers are cold, black embers. And the watermelon rinds are piled high and deep after the onslaught of the local invasion of relatives for the grand and glorious Fourth.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce variety show, "It's a Blast," showed no such signs of attrition. The mood was gay, light, and fantastically professional. One act followed another with the ease and rapidity of a well-oiled machine. Plymouth Theater Guild members are to be complimented on their fine contribution to the Fourth of July festivities.

Charlie Zoer's masterful playing of Ex-Governor Williams was a sheer tour de force. A few folks in the audience were fooled momentarily and were ready to walk out on the production if that MAN was going to be a part of this show. These two Republicans calmed down after Williams hobbled off. Old George never realized how intense the political feelings really were until this incident on Saturday night at the show.

Russ Wallace, C. V. Sparks, Saxie Hoelt, Bill Moore, Merle Hoelt, Hollis Haynes, and Nick Carpenter deserve special plaudits for their excellent characterizations in both the sketches performed. These topical skits hit home with their up-to-the-minute lines. We should have more of this type of short, hilarious work by the Guild members.

And old George must point out that the gal that did the humorous monologue, "My Fair Baby," played her part to a fairly decent level of acceptance. And why not? Checking the program you'd have noted that the name of this performer was Georgina Spelvin. Since last week was Be-Kind-To-Relatives Week, we were forced to give her a good review.

A little later in the summer it is possible that a second musical revue might be forthcoming. Negotiations are now in the process to establish a cabaret-type theater on the Kroger Parking Lot. We would like to set up 25 card tables and about 50 chairs for a light, happy form of entertainment. I'll report back on this in a couple of weeks... that is, if I don't get lost in the concrete jungles of New York City. Making a quick trip out that way for just a couple of days.

If you're in the mood for some laughter, plan to attend "My Three Angels" during the week of July 12. The University of Michigan Players have worked up this three-act farce to a high degree of competency. You'll enjoy the antics of Joseph and his two Devil's Island companions. And the part of Adolph the shake is a sly one. I recommend this production at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater without reservation. It will play for four performances.

On July 12 the Plymouth Theater Guild members are planning to invade the Vanguard Theater. A theater party has been arranged for that evening - 30 or 40 members will drive down to Detroit's only resident theater to see "Leave It to Jane." By the way, you have only until July 15 to see this gay, mad musical. It's a really happy-type musical comedy. Call WO 3-3863 for tickets.

Out at Northland... Mr. Schwartz has booked the perennial favorite, "Oklahoma," for a week's run. James Gannon is singing the lead role of Curly. Big things are predicted for this lad. Two years ago Robert Guolet, lead in "Camelot," was singing out at the Northland Playhouse. It's like I've said many times that at the summer theaters give you a chance to see those show folk that are on the rise in their frantic world. See you in seven with more about the Gay White Way...

Veterans of Foreign Wars

With the commander on vacation, Sr. Vice Commander Lou Dely took charge of the last meeting.

Congratulations to Earl Manning of 355 S. Harvey St., who was voted into the post and will take his obligation soon.

Hal Young was at the meeting and brought along the two trophies and the check the color guard won at Lansing. The score sheet still has not arrived so the official score will be announced later. The color guard has had invitations to march in several July 4 parades for cash and possible trophies, but decided to stay and support the local parade.

If you want tickets to the Aug. 5 ballgame be sure to contact Gerald Olson before July 10. Also a reminder - the July 25 meeting will see a vote on the dues question.

Auxiliary

Delegates elected to the National Convention in Miami this year are Maria Terry, Blanche Shetterlee and Lucille Johnson. Alternates are Loretta Young, Rosemary Koolman and Betty England.

At a meeting in Lansing Saturday at the Department Convention, we were very proud to hear our Auxiliary commended time after time for citations, trophies, and personal awards for the outstanding work done during this past year. I feel it would be safe to say that we received as many or more awards than any other single auxiliary in the State of Michigan. We were given citations for community service, cancer, and legislation. Chairmen Lucille Johnson, Jennie Tallmadge and Bettie Neale were given personal citations for the fine job that they had done. Our legislative chairman, Lucille Johnson, was very highly commended and we were presented with a trophy for a first place prize for our division as a result of her wonderful efforts.

The fine job done by publicity chairman Jennie Tallmadge brought forth a trophy for second place. We were given a ribbon for 100 percent paid up membership and also the gold star for having made the honor roll. Bettie Neale was presented with a beautiful picture of the American flag for the remarkable job she had done on her Americanism notebook. We were complimented on our historian's scrapbook although there is no longer competition in this field.

The Wayne Auxiliary won the first place trophy for hospital and our Past Department President Alice Roche won a ring and a $50 bond for having taken in 29 new members. Our drill team again took first place in competition. The prize this year was a trophy and a $50 check. The Auxiliary and the drill team really carved a niche for themselves at this convention, and Eileen Williams, as past president, was extremely proud and grateful
