

Treasure Chest Keys Coming Your Way

One of the most adventuresome Christmas-time promotions ever undertaken in Plymouth will begin next week when nearly 40 merchants throughout the City and Township initiate a gigantic Holiday Treasure Hunt through the pages of a special section of The Plymouth Mail.

As a result, approximately 100 shoppers in Plymouth between Dec. 7 and Dec. 23 will be showered with free prizes valued at upwards of $1,500.

The 1961 Holiday Treasure Hunt, conducted under the auspices of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce and The Mail, will feature miniature treasure chests displayed in local stores.

The Plymouth Mail, on Monday of next week, will direct mail 30,000 copies of a specially-prepared Treasure Hunt section into all homes in Plymouth and Plymouth Township and into surrounding areas.

Containing valuable shopping messages from Plymouth merchants, The Mail's Treasure Hunt section will also have attached to its face a metal key.

Of the 30,000 keys delivered into homes in western Wayne County, some 100 will be "magic" ones which will open treasure chests in Plymouth stores.

Hidden within the treasure chests will be a vast array of valuable gifts which will be presented free to those lucky shoppers who find that their keys open the treasure chest lock.

Among the gifts, all of which are being purchased from Plymouth stores, are portable television sets, a typewriter, bicycles, sporting equipment, dress and sports clothes, radios, gardening tools, extension telephones and more than 80 other free prizes.

Chamber officials estimate that the value of the prizes may exceed $1,500.

The event is timed to coincide with the dates that most Plymouth stores will start remaining open each night until 9 for the convenience of Christmas shoppers. Keys may be used in treasure chest locks up to Dec. 23.

While distinctive window banners will identify the participating stores, a complete list of the Treasure Hunt "Key" stores will appear in The Mail's Treasure Hunt section next week.

In the planning stage for nearly four weeks, the Holiday Treasure Hunt has been kept secret from Plymouth shoppers until this announcement.

If the event is as well-received this season as is expected, the Treasure Hunt could become an annual affair, officials indicated yesterday.

The Retail Merchants' Division of the Chamber of Commerce has supervised all Treasure Hunt plans.

Santa to Breeze Into Town Aboard Fire Truck Dec. 9

Don't worry about it, kiddies. Santa Claus is coming to town. The man with the long white beard will be arriving in Plymouth at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Dec. 9. And instead of arriving by helicopter such as he has during the past two years, he has decided to use a fire truck this time.

Erecting Modern Park Shelter for Ice Skaters

A new shelter for Riverside Park that will also serve ice skaters at Wilcox Lake is now under construction. Foundations for the building have been poured on the site of the former temporary shelters that were placed each winter along the north-west shore of the small lake. Cost of the new shelter is $29,600.

The Burger Construction Co. of Plymouth is contractor for the project. The building has a three-month completion date and should be ready for use sometime in February, according to contractor Ernest Burger.

The modernistic building of contemporary architecture has a main room 32 feet in diameter with a fireplace in the center. There are also electric heaters in the roof. Another wing of the building is devoted to rest-rooms. City of Plymouth water has been granted by the City Commission for the structure while a Wayne County sewer running through the park will be utilized.

The laminated beams rest on concrete piers that have now been poured. The unusual roof design will have a large overhang for protection.

It is evident that the shelter will not be ready for the early part of the ice skating season, which hits its peak during the Christmas holidays. Wilcox Lake is one of the popular skating sites in the Wayne County park system.

City Tax Rate Falls Slightly While Township's Increases

Bills Totaling $2.5 Million Going Out

Treasurers of the Township and City of Plymouth will be journeying to the Post Office within the next few days, dropping in bundles of envelopes that will carry the seasonal message that it's time for the payment of taxes once again.

Over 6,800 bills will be passed out during the next week and property owners in the City will be able to find some consolation in the fact that their bills will be a few dollars less. But Township property owners will find their bills up somewhat over last year.

Pair Caught Here Clears Up Series of Burglaries

Two Detroit men have admitted stealing $958 worth of television sets and radios from a Plymouth store Nov. 19 and also claim they were responsible for other thefts in Livonia, St. Clair Shores, Mt. Clemens and Monroe County.

The two are James Johnson, 32, of 6728 Taft, Detroit, and Charles O. Rivers, 34, who lists his address at a John R. St. hotel.

Director of Public Safety Kenneth Fisher said that Rivers, leader of the two, has confessed to the burglaries here and in the other three areas.

The two men had loaded a car with five television sets and seven radios at Hubbs & Gilles on Ann Arbor Rd. around 6 a.m. Sunday, Nov. 19. A short time later, one of the owners, Robert Gilles, stopped at the store and discovered the theft. They had broken through a back door.

Reporting the theft to police, Gilles left and Patrolman Calvin Brown was questioning neighbors on nearby Sutherland Ave. when he noticed an Avis rental truck behind the store. Brown went to the store and there found Rivers and Johnston. They refused to state their business and were jailed on a disorderly persons charge. (Later in the session, they admitted that they had secured the truck with the intention of carrying out some of the refrigerators and heavier appliances.)

The pair refused to admit any part of the earlier theft, so Municipal Judge Harry Deyo sentenced them to 28 days in the Detroit House of Correction on the disorderly person charge.

Last week, Rivers began to talk and admitted the theft, along with the others. He admitted that he was especially interested in office machines. The Livonia thefts were from an insurance firm there.

Rivers was free on bond from Oakland County where he was wounded in a leg while fleeing from a breaking and entering, Fisher said.

Investigation is continuing to determine where the pair disposed of their loot. Meanwhile,

Tax statements will go out to City property owners this Friday. Treasurer Kenneth W. a y said, Township Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes expects to get her statements out next week. The statements are prepared by the County.

The 4,000 bills of the City and 2,800 in the Township represent a grand total of $2,589,893 in taxes. Of this amount, the City should collect $989,535.61 while the Township is scheduled to collect $1,600,358.

Township tax bills are for the County, School and Township while the City is collecting just for the County and School. Taxes for City operation were collected last July.

Township taxpayers will be paying $45.48 per $1,000 of valuation. This is $1.36 per $1,000 higher than last year. The increase, according to Mrs. Holmes is due to a five per cent reduction in personal property assessments as ordered by the State Bureau of Taxation. This reduction is made up by increasing the total rate. In a breakdown of the increase, the County tax rate is up 18 cents per $1,000 valuation, the Township up 10 cents and the School up $1.08.

But Township taxpayers will receive somewhat of a reduction in another form this year. There will be no one per cent collection fee this year. This fee formerly went to pay the treasurer, but starting this year, the treasurer is on a fixed salary paid by the Township and the Township Board voted not to impose the collection fee for Township use which it can legally do.

A breakdown of the actual tax rate for each governmental unit shows that the County millage is 9.56; the Township, 4.90; and School, 31.02.

City taxpayers will be paying a different millage than those in the Township. The City's rate is 8.56 mills for the County and 27.90 mills for the School, for a total of 36.46 mills. Last July, they paid 14.81 mills for City operation.

The difference in tax rates is due to the equalization by the State and County tax boards. The City was re-assessed in 1957, while it has been many years since the Township was completely re-assessed. As a result, the Bureau of Taxation

NOPE, THESE aren't Christmas cards that the City treasurer's office is preparing to mail Friday. These envelopes contain some of the 4,000 tax bills that go out this time of year. Evelyn Armitage, clerk in the treasurer's office, and Carol Olean, secretary, are shown sorting the bills. Next week the Township treasurer will be sending out 2,800.

Rev. Hoeneckes Work in Africa

A letter from Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Hoenecke from Southern Rhodesia in Africa tells of their present activity in that far-off land. Formerly with St. Peter's Lutheran Church here in Plymouth, the Hoeneckes presently make their home in Mesa, Ariz.

According to Rev. Hoenecke's note, they are in Africa where he is building a medical clinic and two staff residences for a Lutheran mission which he established there. They add that the winter rains are now much in evidence in a king roads impassable and confining them to the bush where they are located but that in spite of the rain the weather is balmy and most pleasant.

According to their note they expect to be back in this country to celebrate the holidays with their family in Arizona.

Vending Firm Opens in New Building Here

A Detroit vending machine firm has moved its headquarters to Plymouth and is now operating from a newly-erected building on Davis St.

Called the Plymouth Vending Co., the business was formerly the Hopkins Vending Co. at Grand River and Plymouth Rd. The owner, Carl Hopkins, is known to many local people, with his father once operating a similar firm here a decade ago.

The new building, measuring 35 by 90 feet, is at the north end of Davis St., near the C & O Railroad. It also has a 30 by 60 foot garage. The firm deals mainly in coffee, candy, cigarette and soft drink vending machines and is now limiting its operations to the area west of Telegraph Rd.

Plymouth Vending now services 450 machines, 175 of them in the immediate Plymouth area. The largest installation is at Northville State Hospital with 110 machines. The business employs three full-time and one part-time person besides its owner.

"I have always felt close to Plymouth," owner Carl Hopkins declared. "I always thought I

THIS MODERN structure will be rising behind Plymouth Township Hall, probably next spring. As headquarters for the Township's Department of Public Works, it will house the superintendent's office,

Jean's Jottings

By Jean Campau, Women's Editor

The social whirl of the holiday season will be off to a sparkling beginning this Saturday night when an anticipated 400 or so men and women gather at the Junior High for the Starlight Ball. This festive night-out is annually sponsored by the Plymouth Symphony Women's League.

Bob Durant and his orchestra will provide the music for the evening. Durant is well known to dancers in the Bloomfield area and Grosse Pointe Hunt Club.

Ticket holders will have an added incentive to assemble promptly at the 9:30 p.m. starting time, for at 10 p.m. there will be a drawing for several beautiful pieces of silver.

Certainly there will be a wave of ooh's and aah's when five lucky people will be presented a chafing dish, coffee server, candelabra, compote and fruit bowl.

Those responsible for shaping the event are Mrs. Ray Hulce, chairman and her committee women, Mrs. Carl Cederberg, Mrs. Ervin Fronk, Mrs. Lloyd Gates, Mrs. Loren Gould, Mrs. Harold Guenther, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Mrs. David Mather, Mrs. Robert Maurer, Mrs. Thomas Nichols, Mrs. John Robison, Mrs. William Sempiner, Mrs. David Wood, Mrs. George Bauer, Mrs. Gordon Jewell, Mrs. Robert Utter, Mrs. Ralph Lorenz, Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Mrs. Walter Gemperline and Mrs. James Randall.

According to ticket chairman, Mrs. David Wood, ticket sales are going beautifully and many others will be filled within the next couple of days. However, they may also be purchased for $4 per couple, at Melody House, or reserved by calling Mrs. Wood at GL 3-1727.

This occasion offers the perfect opportunity for the ladies to wear their holiday party dresses for, now, as in past years, this is considered THE social event of the year. Any number of private parties will precede the Ball for cocktails and dinner.

All proceeds from the sale of tickets will be turned over to the treasurer of the Plymouth Symphony for its general use and upkeep.

Because of League and Community support the Symphony will continue to delightfully entertain its patrons throughout the coming year.

The Christmas Corner

By Jean Campau
EDITOR'S NOTE: Now that Thanksgiving is behind us, thoughts loom large toward the approaching Christmas season.

Part of the Christmas time fun lies in making things both edible and decorative to add to the natural warmth and gaiety of this happy period.

For this reason, The Mail will interview four Plymouth women between now and Christmas who will share with our readers some of their holiday decorating ideas.

Mrs. George Schmemman of 7095 N. Territorial Rd., has several clever and artistic ideas to pass along.

A straightened coat hanger and chicken wire (bent into a cylinder) form the foundation upon which two ever green boughs are fastened to make a swag. Along the center Mrs. Schmemman adds a large bow, pine cones and a white ornamental violin for extra eye appeal.

Pine cones, ribbon and Christmas ornaments transform an unrimmed pine frame into a holiday door wreath or a centerpiece, depending on trim and whim.

To use as a striking centerpiece, Mrs. Schmemman leaves off the bow and in the center sets a large, tall, red candle.

With considerable imagination empty bottles can lend the Christmas spirit to any spot in the house. By pouring red (or any color) poster paint and sloshing it around inside the bottle, interesting effects can be achieved. A ribbon, a cluster of artificial green grapes (or what have you), topped with a candle makes a pretty conversation piece.

Silver spray, glitter, sequins, braid, snow spray and styrofoam can also be used to add the gay, festive touch.

An oak branch set in plaster of Paris in a coffee can, sprayed with gold paint becomes a modernistic Christmas trim for table or mantel. Mrs. Schmemman

★Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary News★

As usual and probably more so than at any other time of the year, the Auxiliary endeavors to help some family that needs assistance. A basket of food appropriate for a Thanksgiving dinner was given to a family that is very much in need of help. There are several children in the family and clothing is needed. If you have suitable clothing that your child has outgrown, please contact President Olson and arrangements will be made to pick it up.

The dance sponsored by the drill team was a tremendous success. The newcomers to the drill team did a very fine job of planning the party and are to be congratulated on their efforts. Harry Krumm was the lucky winner of the turkey given away at the dance.

Mary and Ed Holdsworth and a party of four other couples celebrated their wedding anniversary at the dance.

The annual children's Christmas party will be held Sunday, Dec. 17. Mary and Ed Holdsworth are the chairmen of this affair and plans are already being made that show promise of a wonderful afternoon for the children. Remember to reserve the date and bring your children to see Santa.

Climaxing a month of den meetings devoted to the theme of Cub Scout Magic, Pack 293, sponsored by the Bird School P.T.A., enjoyed a show by "Ham, the Magic Man" at its monthly meeting. Assisted by his professional dummy, Joe Doakes, "Ham" presented a ventriloquist act with songs and dialogue, and performed various magic tricks to amaze the Cubs and their parents.

In every day life, "Ham" is Dwight K. Hamborsky, director of the Federal Housing Administration Detroit office, but he performs occasionally as a hobby and public service the acts which he formerly did professionally as a U. of M. law student.

The Bird School Cub Pack has increased its membership more than 60 per cent this fall, and now has eight regular dens, in addition to an active Webelos den.

To express an appreciation for an accolade of a citizenry starving for a simple interpretation of those things happening in their own home town is not easy.

A citizenry knowing it is the responsibility and purpose of its hometown newspaper to inform and interpret . . . a citizenry hungry for a hometown loyalty which builds and expands those things which make our homes richer in which to live . . . our shops and stores more ample to serve . . . a courier sending forth the fruits of our spiritual and cultural achievements for all to enjoy . . . it is this dimension which the people so eagerly crave and so rightly demand . . . it is to this responsibility which we so seriously dedicate our efforts of the future . . . this acceptance of our duty to inform, interpret and enlighten is our first and last manifest . . . all else become secondary to the work at hand.

The representation of local business, professional and civic leaders at the testimonial banquet last Monday . . . the hundreds upon hundreds of calls, letters and telegrams which have poured into our offices and our home have been received most humbly. We certainly would also be remiss if we didn't thank local industry and business firms for the printing orders which almost swamped our printing department last week . . . the hundreds and hundreds of people who have sent checks to The Plymouth Mail . . . according to our bookkeeper, Mrs. Carl Hartwick, one hundred and twenty seven subscriptions were recorded on her books Monday of this week . . . letters from former residents resubscribing from all over the country . . . a crew in our plant headed by Walter Jendrycka again, and having such faithful old time friends and helpers as Bill Krauter, Stewart Robinson, Dean Busch, Herb Allen, Eugene Dallas, Dorothy Finney and Jim Sponseller all working and pulling together to make this once again a great team effort, along with our newer recruits, Don Golem, Jerome O'Neil, Jean Campau, Judy Jimmerman, Pat Etherington, Edward McClellan, Ida Nairn, Marvel Rogers, Bill Cardenas, Blanche Davis, Karen Petrowsky, Daryl Porter and Lucille Ingle.

Last, but not least, to be included in our lineup is our faithful and competent C.P.A., Don Sutherland, without whose guidance and unusual organizational ability we would have had trouble surviving.

Need we say that never before did we realize, and fully enjoy the fruits and the bounties of Thanksgiving . . . this year we most certainly do.

Rotunda Again Opens Christmas Fantasy to Public

Ford Motor Company's ninth annual Christmas Fantasy opened to the public last Saturday at the Ford Rotunda in Dearborn.

As ever, the feature attraction for children is Santa Claus and his collection of toys and gifts. Santa's North Pole castle is displayed this year in a "Night Before Christmas" motif. In keeping with the theme, Santa's helpers are seen working busily to prepare for his annual Christmas Eve trip. Nearby, Santa's cooks are making cakes, cookies and candy. Youngsters find Santa inside the castle gate, guarded by wooden soldiers, and give him their Christmas requests and receive a Christmas coloring book.

From the land of fairy tales, Wee Willie Winkie and Humpty Dumpty perform their traditional roles. A circus theme, complete with animals, wagons, and clown band are also featured.

The central religious theme of the Fantasy — one of the Nation's best-known holiday presentations — is a life-size Nativity scene in the Rotunda center court. Represented in the tableau are figures of Mary and Joseph, the Christ child, the Wise Men and their camels, and shepherds and their sheep.

The background motif for the Nativity scene is a full-size reproduction of a church organ with organ music adding a touch of realism.

Another Fantasy highlight — a live, 33-foot-tall Christmas tree — glistens with 15,000 colored lights. Near the Christmas tree are more than 2,000 dolls dressed by members of the Ford Girls Club for distribution by the Goodfellows to underprivileged children. As usual, cartoons are shown in the Rotunda auditorium.

Rotunda hours for the Christmas Fantasy are 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily. The special exhibition ends at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 24, when the Rotunda will close for the Christmas holiday.

More than 595,000 persons saw last year's Christmas display, raising to 5,090,630 the total attendance for eight previous Fantasy productions.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir: We in America who are getting Bomb Shelter conscious have the solution already in our grasp.

What we are looking for, is protection for the Public at private cost, not on a Government subsidy basis, now it stands to reason that this must be a place where the Public has ready access. We've got it.

My plan is — Build all future bowling alleys underground. The majority of the American women and children are already there.

They are open 24 hours a day, with child care, restaurants, steam baths, billiards, T.V. and lounges.

The ground above could be used for parking, if the cars are destroyed it won't matter because there won't be any place to go afterwards anyway.

Yours for the first strike on the Russians,

Max Trucks.

Send Wives to Buying Class?

By Elmer E. White
Michigan Press Association

Housewives in America spend at least one-third of the nation's annual income.

For this reason, a group of Michigan people believe public school education should train women to be discriminating buyers from the time they are playing with dolls until they are ready to buy toys for their own children.

A recent consumer protection conference conducted by a division of the state attorney general's office spent a long day considering the problems facing the public in everyday buying.

"It is rather difficult to explain to a person with a minimum education the difference between the various size packages in relation to price and content," said Mrs. Maxine Virtue, assistant attorney general in charge of the consumer protection division.

"The conference participants suggested education in this area should start in the grade school and be carried continuously in the curriculum through the university," she said.

It was also urged that people in responsible, leadership positions should educate the housewife-consumer regarding habits of discrimination as contrasted with economics.

"Industry interests play largely on motivational aspects of marketplace choice," Mrs. Virtue said.

"If the consumer seriously wishes to be protected, she should develop a resistance to these practices."

Conference participants generally were agreed packaging habits of industry should be standardized by legislation.

"It seemed to be the consensus, however, that proper education and communication would bring about a great deal of voluntary self-regulation by both producers and retailers," said Mrs. Virtue.

Y E A R-END HOLIDAY preparations in Michigan being a sharp increase in both commercial and private mail traffic.

"Christmas seals" account for a large percentage of the commercial mailings in November and December.

The term "Christmas seals" started many years ago when tuberculosis was striking at its peak. Since then many organizations joined the bandwagon and distributed stamp-like seals during the holiday season.

TUBERCULOSIS associations throughout the nation have continued pre-holiday mailings of seals as their single fund-raising campaign of the year.

In Michigan this year seals were mailed to nearly two million homes and business places. The Michigan TB and Respiratory Disease Association hopes to set a new record, by collecting a million dollars.

Impact of the disease has lessened considerably, officials in the battle against TB have set 1970 as a target date for eradication of the disease.

THE HAPPY holidays this year will be somewhat less than joyous for many Michigan residents, state statistics show.

November, December and January are traditionally the worst months on the highways. Holidays throughout the year generally bring an increase in the number of traffic accidents.

The three year-end holidays contribute to heavy traffic substantially and wintry weather gives cause to extra care behind the wheel.

Highway department officials marked the recent opening of additional high mileage with predictions the new multi-lane divided highway through the north central section of the state would result in a sharp drop in traffic accidents.

DEPARTMENT studies on other freeways in the state would tend to support this prediction. There are fewer accidents on divided highways than on the roads they replaced. One reason for this, however, would seem to be that the old roads were not built to accommodate the current traffic loads and speeds.

State Police records tend to discount the highway department's rosy picture of the effect of multi-lane routes.

Overall traffic accident records in Michigan have not substantially decreased. In the last two years fatalities have been as high or higher than previous years.

STATE POLICE Commissioner Joseph Childs placed emphasis on recent months on extra care on roads near home.

"People get off the high-speed routes and near their homes, where they have driven the side roads year in and year out," he said. "They often get careless because they aren't ready for the unpredictable."

Let's Give It Some Action

Every week there are more indications that Plymouth needs a community center — a place to house the multitude of active organizations and cultural functions that are now scattered about in inadequate surroundings. The idea is not new, but so far there has been no concentrated effort in this direction.

In our eyes, such a community center would contain an auditorium and enough extra space to provide a home for many of the now far-flung organizations. Two years ago the Board of Education put a proposal on the ballot for an auditorium and it failed. Because of other factors in another bond issue on the same ballot, we aren't convinced that the auditorium was turned down because voters didn't want it.

A few weeks ago, Plymouth High School students put on a play in the school's "auditorium." This is actually a room that is ordinarily used for a dining and study hall and was once the school's gym. It is also the "home" of the Plymouth Theatre Guild which has entertained audiences here for 14 years. How productions are possible on a stage where the walls are only a few feet off the wings is amazing to anyone who knows anything about theatre. The same production was being given at the same time by Northville students in their new school auditorium. A few who went to view both plays declared that they could only offer their sympathy to Plymouth players who are handicapped by their facilities — and to Plymouth audiences who must strain to see the stage and suffer on folding chairs.

OUR 100-PIECE PLYMOUTH Symphony, because of its quality, has flourished in its 16 years despite the fact that it plays in the barn-like gymnasium and hears audience complaints about hard chairs and bleacher seats. A few years ago, some of our citizens took pity on this outstanding musical group and contrived an acoustical backdrop that lowers from the gymnasium ceiling so that the 100 pieces could be heard just once — not a couple more times as the echo bounced around the big room.

Our Lions Club is offering a costly travel film series to around 500 people this season in the Junior High gymnasium. The Town Hall programs and many other events are also held in this gym. Like all gymnasiums, audiences must strain and struggle to see what is going on. Children often don't have a chance. The discomfort of a two-hour program discourages many Big news for the Class of '64 - the biggest class in the school's history - is last Monday's selection of class rings. A ring committee of 20 sophs met in Room 315 after school Monday, but the choice was made after press time, so more about class rings next week. It was the Class of '62 that started the "order-class-rings-early" trend, but these sophomores have been the first in a long time to allow more than just the exec board to choose rings.

BELLEVILLE will host the annual Suburban Six League Student Council Conference on Nov. 30. Representing Plymouth will be Freshman Carol Otwell, Sophomore Jane Vallier, Juniors Barb Utter and Ginny Fetner, Seniors Greta Jensen and Janet Graham. Treasurer Buzz Smith, Secretary Mary Lou Argo, Vice-Mayor Carolyn Scott and Mayor Jim Kropf.

MAYOR KROPP will be calling a special meeting this week to appropriate money for the student directory. This directory will have the names, addresses and phone numbers of 1200 students, and the Council hopes to have it on sale before Christmas.

Junior Barb Utter has made all the Council's arrangements for a sign to be placed by the stone hedge in front of the school facing Main Street. By the time swimming season starts, the sign will be proclaiming: THIS IS PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL, Home of the 1961 Class A State Swimming Champs!

Junior Janet VanAntwerp is compiling all the information about school history, organization, outstanding students and achievements for a radio program on WXYZ - this is another Council project for publicizing how great PHS really is!

"SURE WE want to go to away games and we need transportation - but a dollar's just too much to spend for a bus ride to a swimming meet or basketball game," Junior Ginny Fetner, who's working for the Council's plan to provide buses for away games, has found that most students have this "a-dollar's-too-much" attitude. If no other financial arrangement can be made, the Council may consider chipping in the extra money so that transportation to distant schools (Trenton is over 30 miles!) can be provided.

Other things the Council is working on: balloting to ratify a new Constitution, suggestion boxes in both cafeterias, a student announcement bulletin board (students could use this for "for sale" items, offers for rides to away games, lost and found, work wanted...) a Student Council bulletin board so students will be able to keep up with all the activities their Council has...

NEWS FROM the Class of '62: Rich Alford and Tony Hunt have been appointed co-chairmen of the prom... Christmas card sales have been rising since Michelle Bender's and Sue Tichy's teams challenged Dick Michaels' and Rich Alford's teams: "By the end of this month, our sales will be far above the joint sales of your two teams, proving once again that Senior girls are far superior to mere Swamp Rats!" The Swamp Rat teams countered with a charming poem - words to the effect that a bunch of "retards" could NEVER beat their great teams. A sequel to the boys announcement was the poem:

"Tish-tosh, Pish-posh
The Swamp Rats we'll squish -
SQUASH!
Tho' you may call us all retards
We're gonna sell more Christmas Cards!

Who's Who in the Plymouth Community Schools

Mrs. Jane West

Mrs. Jane Elizabeth West, a third grade teacher at Bird School has been an active citizen of Plymouth for many years. A member of the First Methodist Church she has in the past been active in the church choir and Sunday School, as well as a leader of the Vacation Church School. She has also been an executive board member of the Girl Scouts.

While her children were attending Bird school she was a very active member of the PTA giving many hours of work beyond her teaching time. She is also a member of the Plymouth Symphony and the Theater Guild.

Her family, residing at 837 Church St., includes husband, Joseph, who is treasurer of West Brothers Corp.; daughter, Martha, a freshman at Colorado State College in Greeley; and son, Bill, a junior at the high school. And for the school year 1958-59 there is another "daughter," Anneke Thasing from Amsterdam, Holland, who attended the Plymouth high school as an exchange student.

As it invariably happens to host families, the Wests are planning to visit Anneke in the near future in Holland. While in Europe they will also visit Mrs. West's brother and family who are stationed in England with the United States Air Force.

Mrs. West has been educated in Michigan schools, first in the Cherry Hill Elementary School and finally at Eastern Michigan University where she received her BS degree. During her

Governor Adds Welcome To Returning Publisher

A telegram from Gov. John Swainson was among the host of messages received last week after Plymouth citizens held a testimonial dinner for Plymouth Mail Publisher Sterling Eaton.

The testimonial was held in the Mayflower Room of the Mayflower Hotel. Mr. Eaton had been invited to the hotel to join "just a few friends" in a welcome back celebration. Instead, he walked into the dining room filled with 100 guests that included City and Township officials, businessmen, industrialists and many other friends who wanted to welcome him back to the newspaper business.

One of the guest speakers was Lyall Smith, sports editor of the Detroit Free Press, who observed, "To think that this many people would come out to welcome home a man who never left town is really something."

A telegram was received the next morning from Gov. Swainson which read:

"May I take this opportunity to express a warm welcome to Sterling Eaton on his return as publisher of the Plymouth Mail. He is dedicated to the highest ideals of journalism and he reflects credit on the newspaper profession. It is good to have him back with my hometown newspaper. I know his efforts will be directed to the best interest of Plymouth and the entire state of Michigan."

"Certainly I regret my schedule would not permit me to be present tonight to express in person my warmest regards to Mr. Eaton and all present on this fine occasion."

One of those scheduled to give a short welcome talk was Chamber of Commerce President George Lawton. But before he finished eating, Lawton was called out due to the impending arrival of a new family member.

October was a busy month for Intermediate Troop 243 and their leaders, Mrs. K. Van Antwerp, Mrs. R. Purkey, and Mrs. R. Utter. The weekend of Oct. 6 through 8 was spent on an overnight camping trip at Hilltop in Ann Arbor where the girls started work on their Outdoor Safety and Outdoor Cook badges, and sleeping in tents was a new experience. Mrs. D. Whitesell was in charge of the trip.

On Oct. 26 the troop held a Halloween party for the girls at Our Lady of Providence Home.

At the formal troop meeting held Nov. 2 four new members of the troop were introduced to the rest of the girls. They are Mary Beth Ott, Linda Young, Debbie Brown and Liz Brink. The girls also formally welcomed their two new co-leaders, Mrs. Purkey and Mrs. Utter. After an impressive Flag Ceremony in full uniform the two patrols elected their new leaders. The Fireflies chose Margaret Cooper as leader, Kathy Butler as assistant leader, Linda Young as treasurer and Judy Utter as scribe. Debbie Sand is the new leader of the Red Ant patrol. Sandy Whitesell is assistant leader, Pat Munzer is treasurer, and Liz Brink is the scribe.

Troop 267 really put in a full day in Detroit on Nov. 11. The Veterans' Day trip started at Hudson's where the girls were treated to a special tour of the store. Next on the agenda was a sub-teen fashion show to aid them in their work on their Clothing Badge. After lunch in the employees' dining room the troop attended the Veterans' Day Parade. The Fall Court of Awards was held on Thursday, Nov. 2, at the Veterans' Memorial Building. After a family pot-luck supper and a movie the girls were awarded the merit badges they had earned during the summer.
