Board Sets 23.70 Mill Tax Rate

The school tax rate for the Plymouth Community School district will be 23.70 mills for the 1962-3 school year. The rate was established and approved by the board Monday and will be placed on the tax rolls starting September 1.

This compares with a 22.25 mill rate for 1961-2 and reflects the additional 1.5 mills approved by voters in the election on July 30.

The breakdown is 15.9 mills for operating, 5 mills for building and sites and 2.8 mills for debt retirement. This compares with 14.4 for operating last year, 5 mills for building and sites and 2.85 for debt retirement.

The decrease of .05 mills in debt retirement is reflected by the increase in the state equalization.

FACTS and OPINIONS

by Paul Chandler

Every other candidate in this area is (and should be) envying the resourcefulness and success of a group of citizens in Plymouth.

They are energetic individuals who by their own wits have, in recent months, brought to their community a group of new industries and commercial enterprises. While others have been discussing the general subject at great length, the Plymouth men have been quietly tilling the field and bringing in the sheaves.

As a result, an "Industrial Park" is blossoming out along Plymouth Road in the area of Burroughs plant, involving now a new electronic plant, a small automotive machineries plant, and others.

They now have a small "insurance office complex," involving handsome home office buildings, close to the City of Plymouth, south of the "Industrial Park." They have a tenant in the vacated Daisy Manufacturing quarters. First Federal is rebuilding an entire downtown corner in new, modern Colonial style.

In addition, the group also has threaded its way through the highly involved Federal maze leading to an "urban renewal project." Within the City this new course will see the clearing of ancient, sub-standard housing in the providing of open land to be offered on the market for enterprises with high tax yield.

Indirectly, the successes of Plymouth have spurred Livonia to new activity in this direction. This week, the Livonia City Council authorized the hiring of a $10,000 a year "Industrial Coordinator" to try to get some action in steering vital plants to Livonia. The recent Plymouth triumphs accelerated the action.

Redford Township hasn't spent any real money on the effort, and actually doesn't have much land available at the moment to offer anyone.

But Redford's "Industrial Commission" is in action, straining this way and that with some modest results. Redford, too, "lost a plant to Plymouth", not long ago, however.

The wonderful thing about the Plymouth effort is that it has been done without the need of any high-priced "coordinator" or expensive local government assistant. Partly because of its small size, but also because of its big local pride, Plymouth's leadership is tightly knit, working formally or informally as the occasion demands, shopping through rules and red tape wherever they might interfere.

The City, Township, Chamber of Commerce, Schools and all other institutions have been able to move fluidly and quickly at a time of decision, taking action while others would be debating or waiting a place on some agenda somewhere.

A group of business men raised a sum of money through a non-profit cooperation, the funds being available on a moment's notice whenever a loan or small subsidy might make the difference in snaring a prospect.

Many people share the responsibility and the continuing Plymouth effort and its really unfair to pick out individuals for special credit. Still, former Mayor Harold Guenther, Frank Arlan, City Manager Al Glassford, Chamber of Commerce President George Lawton are a few who stand out in retrospect.

The lesson which Livonia and Redford may or may not yet realize is this:

The best possible method for community progress is to have all the several elements of power and leadership functioning together with trust, mutual respect, cordiality, in the same harness, toward the same objectives.

As Predicted Here A Week Ago

Livonia OK'd For College

Barring unforeseen complications, Livonians can settle back and wait for September 1964 when the Northwest Community College opens doors to its new buildings and displays its new campus for the first time at the intersection of Seven Mile and Haggerty Roads.

As predicted last week in this newspaper, the facilities committee recommended the site and the Board of Trustees accepted the recommendation and instructed the business manager to go ahead with plans for options and what ever other steps are necessary to purchase the plot.

The Committee made the single recommendation from the list of eight sites under consideration although there was some discussion of the plot at Six Mile Road and Levan as a possible second choice.

Business Manager W. Kenneth Lindner immediately started negotiations with Mrs. R. S. Esch for a preliminary option and each turned the matter over to their respective attorneys for the final approval so that the options may be presented to the Board in two weeks for an OK.

"We don't anticipate any difficulties," said Lindner, "but we felt it better to turn the matter over to the two attorneys and have them draw up the options for the Board's consideration."

Mrs. Esch made one stipulation in her original offer—that she be permitted to retain 10 acres, presumably at the corner of Seven Mile and Haggerty where her farmhouse is now located.

However, before any options can be drawn up, she will have to make a definite stand and it is rumored that she is pondering whether to ask for 10 acres at the southwest or north-west corners of the property.

"We have to move fast now," said Lindner, "With the site selected, we plan on pushing the architects for designs and plans so that we can ask for bids early in 1963 in order to have construction start by next spring."

"Before we can consider an option, we have to have a survey made of topography of the land and the boundaries. That means we'll have to move quickly in order to make a presentation to the Board at its Aug. 22 meeting."

In other actions at last Wednesday's meeting, the Board hired the First of Michigan Corporation to act as a financial consultant in preparation and marketing of bonds.

The Seven Mile-Haggerty site was one of four presented to the committee for consideration by Mayor Harvey Moelke, of Livonia, on Aug. 1, the deadline for presentation of properties.

Moelke's presentation and recommendation of the site and the one at Six Mile and Levan as the most desirable in Livonia along with reasons why Livonia should be the location of the college, impressed the committee so much that members visited the two plots a day later and practically made a decision then.

"Twas City of Plymouth night at Wolverine Harness Raceway and members of the city family were on hand to view the races and make a presentation to the winner of the City of Plymouth $5,000 Invitational Race. Watching the pacers and trotters are: (from left) Mayor Robert Sincok, Commissioner Robert Beyer, DPW Superintendent Joseph Bida and Commissioner Marv Terry; (at right) Mrs. Bida, Mrs. Beyer, Mrs. Sincok and Mrs. Terry.

City Vote Sags In Primary, But Its Big For GOP

Traditionally Republican, the City of Plymouth didn't change a bit in last week's election, which found about three times as many from the GOP turning out as Democrats.

As a matter of fact, Gov. John Swainson, who is a home-town boy, didn't fare any better than other Dems, polling a total of 174 votes in the city contrasted to 532 for Republican nominee George Romney.

The turnout was one of the smallest in years with only 764 voters going to the polls—compared to 1,129 two years ago and contrasted to a registration total of 4,211 in the City.

The principal interest was in the Congressional and state legislative posts and Plymouth voters will find this situation when they go to the polls in November.

Harvey Beadle, incumbent Democratic state representative, will clash with Paul Chandler in the battle for the 21st district post.

Republican James O'Neil will meet incumbent Democrat Martha Hicks in the 17th Congressional District race.

Incumbent Democratic State Senator Raymond Dzendzel locks with Republican Patrick McNally.

Plymouth City voters gave Chandler a 243 to 167 edge over Robert Hoard. Beadle had an 88-2 margin over Beverly Pool.

O'Neil polled 265 votes in the city again 95 for Heaney and 62 for Pillion. Mrs. Griffiths collected 177 votes.

Dzendzel had 105 to beat Davidson's 39 and Robinson's 32 in the City while McNally defeated Daoust, 230 to 153 with Weidendorf third with 58 votes.

Those filing for precinct delegates had no opposition in the city. The list includes: Republicans, Precinct 1, Richard Merriam; Precinct 2, Charles Zoet; Precinct 3, George Bauer; Precinct 4, William Saxton; and Precinct 5, Betty Jacobus.

Democrats: Precinct 1, James Earns; Precinct 2, Dorothy Frank; Precinct 3, Charles Root; Precinct 4, George Onuski; and Precinct 5, Lois Jensen.

Maxwell Wachowiak

Plymouth, Redford Men Promoted

Maxwell Wachowiak, 3200 Woodland Place, Plymouth, has been named general manager automotive of Dura Corp., in Detroit. He previously was division manager of Motor State Products division.

Donald E. Brodeur, 33723 Bloomfield Drive, Livonia, succeeds Wachowiak at Motor States division and also becomes division manager of Paragon Aluminum Corp., in Monroe, another Dura subsidiary.

Prior to joining Dura, Wachowiak was director of manufacturing for Motec Industries. He has held executive engineering and manufacturing management positions with Wall Tube and Metal Products, Rheim Manufacturing Co., U. S. Steel and Western Brass Division of Olin Corp.

Brodeur has been assistant division manager for the past 18 months. Before that he was executive engineer with Dura's Research Center. He spent five years as administrative engineer with Packard Motor Co. before joining Dura.

He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Detroit where he studied engineering and administration.

Twp. Voters Nix Annual Meeting

Although apathy of voters was about equal to the interest in the annual meetings in recent years, the Plymouth Township Board won't have to schedule the annual event any more — it was lopped off the agenda in last week's election, 285-176.

The Board had asked voters to decide if the annual meeting should be abolished and the affirmative reply didn't make a single member unhappy.

The annual meeting had been outmoded for years but the statutes required one to be held — that is until now, the vote took care of that in convincing style.

Interest in the primary sagged to its lowest point in years in the township where a scant 554 voted compared to 881 two years ago and to a total registration of 3,800.

And as expected, Republicans turned out three times as strong as Democrats in the traditional Republican stronghold.

An indication of the vote in Township came in the tabulation for Governor which showed Gov. John Swainson, a Plymouthite, getting a total of 136 votes while Republican nominee George Romney received 376.

In the Township, those filing for precinct delegates had no opposition.

The Republicans named: Precinct 1, Charles Childs; Precinct 2, William Frank; Precinct 3, Ray Hulce; Precinct 4, Jessie Latta; and Beulah Smith 2. Democrats: Precinct 1, none; Precinct 2, Orville Tungate; Precinct 3, Thomas Foley; Precinct 4, Charles Bartolo.

Churches Hit by Robbers

Two Plymouth churches were broken into and robbed, making a total of three looted in the past two weeks.

Plymouth Police suspect juveniles in all three robberies but report no clues thus far.

The First Church of Christ Science, 1100 W. Ann Arbor Trail, was robbed of $48.55 by robbers who gained entrance through a window in the east wing.

St. Peter's Lutheran Church, 1343 Penniman, was looted of $3 in stamps and some 20 metal ash trays, all bearing the inscription "Aid Association for Lutherans."

A week ago the Presbyterian Church was broken into but the robbers left empty handed.

To Women It May Concern

By MYRA CCX

Since each of us must, we might as well find something to be glad about getting older.

After considerable research and talking to myself my "glad" is because with each passing year comes new experiences.

It isn't reading books, make up, long eyelashes, good cook, or happy housekeeper that makes us a better and wiser one—but rather our experiences.

Of course we must reflect on them so we can let them be real. Life moves so fast our experiences sometimes just don't sink in. If we could sort of climb a mountain top and look down on all the things that happen to us—we would be in a position to benefit from them.

The experiences of the past five years, the end of one life and beginning of another and climbing up my mountain top I've learned.

FROM POLITICS—never judge a man when he's winning—judge the cut of him when he's a loser.

FROM POLITICS—pay little attention to words—a friendly man-like grin or a little girl smile with big round eyes can be saying the nicest things to you and be doing ill deeds against you—judge by performances.

FROM THE LOCAL J.C.'s—There's hope for the old world. When Washington news commentator Paul Harvey was the guest speaker up at Manistique last week end addressing the Junior Chamber of Commerce Summer Board meeting his words were cheered by this group of young, aggressive men, in whose hands lies the future of the United States.

To me Paul Harvey's words weren't as inspiring as the way the young men recognized truth when they heard it, and how they rose as one and applauded him.

He said we (Americans) had to get back to work before they (Russia) put us to work in chains. We didn't need more leisure, we needed to keep busy—he said the only place where men could go and not pay taxes, and just sit around and be fed—have a maximum of security and a minimum amount of responsibility was Alcatraz.

I particularly loved the part of his talk when he said Government managed businesses were not as good as free enterprise—"Take the post office for instance"—well haven't we all had to at times—wouldn't most of us love to have taken our business across the street to a competitor?

FROM A HEALTH FOOD EXPERT—Harry Zerbo convinced me and backed up my theory a tranquil atmosphere and natural food will take the place of those little chase-away-the-blues you take out of the bottle. Are we sure what the lasting effect of tranquilizers are? And isn't really better sometimes to allow our conscience to prick us—feel blue occasionally—do we always have to feel tranquil?

Course Zero IS Vice President of the North Central Nutritional Foods Association and DOES have a health food store, but I do believe him when he says if we feed our youth delinquent foods they can develop a delinquent mind. He said 77 per cent of the delinquents tested by a well-known doctor in New York City showed they had Hypoglycemia which is low blood sugar. Besides ole black-strap molasses and wheat germ are fun to use—it makes you feel so basic.

FROM THE YOUNG—don't be too hasty.

A favorite of mine on radio was telling about the young boy who asked papa what does 6 s an an whole family alerted themselves—and mama secretly left the room. Papa took four glasses of water cleared his throat and then proceeded to "tell." When he was finished "sweating (literally) it out" the sprout casually said he knew all "that", but what he wanted to know was, he was elected vice of his club and what did it mean?

MRS. JAMES STEWART WOODBURNE, who until her marriage August 4 was Miss Susan Bradner of Dr. and Mrs. Eric Bradner of Livonia. James is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harris Woodburne of Essexville, Michigan. The young couple were united in marriage at First Presbyterian Church in Bay City. Dr. Bradner is the President of Northwest Wayne County Community College.

Tight Battle In Slo-Pitch

The race for first place in the Women's Slo-Pitch Softball League is the tightest in the league's history. Alloy and Tigerettes are tied for first and have two games yet to play against each other. Rio and Fiesta are tied for second and are only one game down from the leaders.

At Beech Field the Rockets got their second win, defeating the Trailers, 8-7. The Tigerettes brought themselves up the ladder another notch when they defeated the Anchoresses.

Meanwhile at C. Allison Orrie R's and Fiesta had a real thriller going. Orrie R's upset Fiesta by a score of 4-1. Alloy did it again and got another boost up when the defeated Rio, 14-3.

Dear Janet B.:
Everyone is different. Some teens seem alike only because they conform superficially; deep inside everyone is different. That's what makes life so interesting. If everyone were alike imagine how dull life would be. Everyone has their ways and if someone has faults we must make allowances, because we are not perfect ourselves. Be pleasant and interested in other people. Be a good listener, people love to talk about their own likes and themselves (especially boys). I'm sure if you develop these things fully you will see the whole world opening in front of you. By being different you are interesting yourself.

Reader Bemoans Bus Driver

Editor:
With summer vacation time almost over, I would like to thank Parks and Recreation for their wonderfully planned summer program at the playgrounds.

The T ball games and other sports were most enthusiastically enjoyed by my three boys. My daughter liked crafts and loved the trips to the zoo, Kensington Park and Greenfield Village. I accompanied the children to Bob-Lo and enjoyed a "family day" rather hectic but fun.

I would especially like to commend the Playleaders at Tyler, Kurt Longnecker, Judy Breejin, Cherrill Jones and Doug Hanaford for a terrific job. It isn't easy to supervise so many youngsters and still have a smile all the time.

I am sure the playleaders are hand picked but who picks the bus drivers for the day trips? What a bunch of grousches. On the bus ride to the Bob-Lo boat the children were all fairly well behaved and closely supervised by the playleaders and five mothers on the bus.

On the trip home our bus driver had a hysterical outburst about a bag, an unopened bag of peanuts one of the boys brought from a vendor who boarded the bus while roll was taken on the dock. As she grabbed the peanuts from him she knocked my daughter in the head with her elbow. It was absolutely uncalled for. She said she wasn't going to have any peanuts shells on her bus!

I thought the bus belonged to the people of Livonia. I know we all have our bad days, but oh my.

Editor:
As young people, my husband and I played a great deal of tennis on the Detroit public tennis courts. We loved the game. Consequently, we are very pleased that our fifteen-year old daughter has developed a great liking for the sport. It has long been our belief that young people actively engaged in sports have little time or inclination to get involved in undesirable activities.

Therefore, it grieves us that there are only three tennis courts for the youth of Livonia to play on. Surely our city fathers should do something about this deplorable situation, and see to it that there are more courts available to our young people.

Respectfully,
Viva Stieber

Two Agents Win Trips to Miami

Two Livonia agents, of the Maccabees Mutual Life Insurance Co., won all-expense paid trips to Miami for the company's annual sales conference a week ago.

The Livonians winners were: George Lawson, Jr., 20020 Antago Ave. and Charles Wittwer, 30427 Minton.

Get Reports of Bicycle Thefts

Bicycle thefts continued to plague Livonia Police with seven complaints reported during the past week of bikes taken by juveniles.

Steven Lawson, 12, 9806 Meriman, was shopping at Wonderland and found his bicycle missing when he returned. He valued it at $60.
Mrs. Gloria Burgess, 15005

Inkster, told police that her daughter's bike was stolen while parked in the rear of her home. She valued the two-wheeler at $30.
Mrs. Mae Hickey, 29822 W. Chicago, complained that her son's bicycle was stolen from the garage.

a service station at the northwest corner of Plymouth and Farmington Roads and discovered it was missing when he returned the next morning.

Five-year-old Martin Iwrey, 20079 Maplewood, tearfully informed police that his bike was stolen from the rear of his home while parked overnight. Marty didn't have the best bicycle in the neighborhood but it was his pride and joy even though valued at only $10.

Archie Ramsey, 14185 Lyons, complained that his son's bicycle was stolen while parked in the lot at Drugfair, Inkster and Schoolcraft Roads.
Thomas Brightbill, Jr., 34450 Pinetree, reported theft of his brother's bicycle while parked in the family garage.

Police Look For Meanest Thief Of Year

Plymouth Police are looking for the meanest thief of the year, one who robbed a home while the family was at the funeral home mourning the loss of a father and husband.

Mrs. Emma Lazick, 592 S. Harvey, was at the Schrader Funeral Home with the body of her husband when the robber broke into the home and stole a man's wrist watch, a $5 gold piece and a gold penknife—all mementoes of her dead spouse.

Burglars Loot Topper's; Take Cash, Cigarets

Robbers broke into Topper's Restaurant, 29433 West Eight-Mile Road, and escaped with cash and cigarettes valued at $182 according to a complaint by Manager Joseph Weitz to Livonia Police.

Weitz reported the thieves twisted the lock out of the rear door, took $70 from the cash register, $50 from a cigaret vending machine and $50 hidden in a cabinet along with more than 175 packages of cigarets.

Area Teachers Attend Course

The University of Detroit Workshop in Language Arts Teaching in the Elementary School, was attended by four area teachers.

They included: Mrs. Nancy J. Craig, a fourth grade teacher at the Our Lady of Loretto School, Redford; Joan C. Kras, a third grade teacher at the Grandview School, Livonia; Mrs. Rachel B. Simpson a third grade teacher at the Shear School, Redford School District; and Mrs. Frances B. Johnson, 26571 Kendall Court, Redford Township, a substitute teacher in the South Redford School District.

Mower Stolen
George Allen, 28579 Wentworth, Livonia, went out to mow his yard and discovered his power mower had vanished. He valued it at $30 according to police records.

San Francisco—Super Shell with Platformate has just delivered a mileage bonus of 4.33 percent. Platformate is Super Shell's mileage ingredient. Shell engineers test Super Shell for mileage in many different types of cars, in many different places. Here's how the test above was run. Exactly 250 cc (about half a pint) of a fuel blended without Platformate was fed into the test car's engine. The car was started, accelerated to 30 miles per hour, then held there until fuel ran out and the car rolled to a stop. Distance: 6186 feet (indicated by dotted line in background). Next, test was repeated, using Super Shell—the same fuel as before but with Platformate added. Precise same volume of fuel. Same car. Same speed. Same driver. Same conditions. Distance: 6454 feet. That's 4.33 percent farther than the car traveled with non-Platformate gasoline.

MILEAGE TEST

New documented tests prove that one of Super Shell's 9 ingredients packs extra mileage into every gallon

THE picture above was snapped a few moments after Super Shell with an extra mileage ingredient called Platformate delivered a mileage bonus of 4.33 percent.

That's a typical result from a series of mileage tests Shell engineers recently ran on the outskirts of San Francisco.

The tests compared two gasolines. One was a gasoline Shell scientists purposely blended without Platformate. The other was Super Shell—the same gasoline as before but with Platformate added.

Shell engineers used a 1962 convertible for the tests. You may be driving a similar car right now.

50 West 50 Street, New York 20, N. Y.

Platformate gets its name from the platinum re-forming process used to make it.

Pressures up to 600 pounds per square inch and temperatures up to 1000 degrees literally tear petroleum apart. A precious platinum catalyst then helps re-form the petroleum into super-energy components.

RESULT: Platformate can release more energy per gallon than the finest 100-octane aviation gasoline. Your engine can convert extra energy into extra mileage.

Anti-knock mix—to resist all kinds of knock.
Alkylate—to help control "high-speed knock."
"Cat-cracked" gasoline—for power.
Anti-icer—added in cold weather to help check carburetor icing stalls.
Gum preventive—to help keep carburetors clean inside.

Super Shell—the gasoline with 9 ingredients for top performance

Super Shell has 9 ingredients for top performance

Extra mileage is just one part of the top performance story. Super Shell's other ingredients complete the picture. Here's what they are and what they do.

TCP* for power, mileage, longer plug life.
Pentane mix—for fast "warm-up."
Butane—for quick starts.

*Trademark for Shell's unique gasoline additive. Gasoline containing TCP is covered by U.S. Patent 2889212.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

It's nice to hear how Livonia's Teen Athletic League is prospering.

This is an organization which came into being last winter with the interests of the teens of the community at heart.

The idea: Promote various phases of athletics for youngsters who otherwise wouldn't get the chance in high school, junior or otherwise.

The program started with nine boys basketball teams, which operated in a league. The TAL also sponsored the Livonia entry which performed in the Detroit Pistons Knot-hole Basketball League at Detroit's Convention Arena.

During the current summer, the TAL, working with the Department of Parks and Recreation, has fielded seven girls teams and eight boys teams in softball.

Now underway are plans for a touch football league (this fall for boys of junior high level) (seventh and eighth graders), plus an increased basketball program for the winter and bigger and better things for the summer of '63.

All such enterprises require financial help. Hence a donation of $200 from the Livonia Optimists, headed by President David Lee, makes the officials of the TAL happy indeed.

But happier yet are the kids who will reap a thousand rewards for every one dollar invested in them.

THE SUMMER as we noted a week ago, has zipped past. A week hence the football candidates at Redford Union, Thurston, Plymouth, Bentley, the new Franklin and St. Agatha, will assemble for physical examinations.

This year each boy must be fitted for a special mouthpiece before he can take part in either a practice or game. The skill of a dentist is required to make certain the mouthpiece fits properly.

Many dentists in the community will donate their time to help the prep footballers. So, let us take this moment, to pass along a flock of orchids to the wonderful guys who some times get their drills into the prong spots in our mouth. Or at least we think so.

JUST BACK from a short vacation swing through Cleveland and Niagara Falls.

If you haven't been away yet with your family and are wondering where to go—at a minimum of expense—why not head over into the Falls area and treat your kids to look at the wonders there and then down a piece of the road where Welland Canal locks are located.

Your eyes will pop and so will your kids' when they see how a boat drops or arises some 200 feet in the short span of a few moments.

TALKING ABOUT our trip, we dropped over to watch the Tigers play the Cleveland Indians. That was the night Steve Boros clouted three homers, but the Tigers still were beaten in the final inning.

The point, which struck us most, was how two communities react to their professional athletes.

In Cleveland, the fans are staying away because the Indians are having their troubles. In contrast, the fans still are showing up at Tiger Stadium and another million-plus season is assured at the gate.

And, who can say that the Tigers haven't had their problems this season?

ALSO NOTED while in Ohio that a special North-South high school all-star game was held this past week to kick off the prep grid season.

Such attractions are barred under Michigan High School Athletic Association rules.

We're in agreement with the MHSAA. Any time prep performers are exploited, the school authorities are in error.

The Michigan schoolboy athletic program ranks as one of the best in the country. Much of the credit must go to State Director Charles Forsythe, pluh all the coaches and athletic directors at the individual schools.

Three Women's Teams Play In State Meets

Trips to tournaments are in store for the three top teams in Livonia's women's softball league.

Colaid Asphalt, winners of the regular-season title with six wins and three losses, will go to Coldwater over the Labor Day weekend for the state Class C tournament.

Meantime, Michigan Bell, which tied with Rio Cleaners for second place, will take on Allen Park starting this Wednesday in a best-of-three series at Allen Park for the right to qualify for the state Class D meet at Petoskey. The game at Allen Park starts at 7 p.m.

The Rio team will perform at Dearborn, Aug. 21-23, in the state's first women's slo-pitch tournament.

For the Colaid team, this marked the second year in a row that the team managed by Florence Bowen and coached by her husband, Robert, ruled the roost.

The Bowens were forced to make some shifts in their roster between seasons because of two of their 1961 stars had to take leave of absence to become mothers.

The team is truly an all-area representative. Its personnel comes from Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Township and Farmington.

The roster includes a mother-daughter combination. Mrs. Virginia Gardell, who won't tell her age, is the versatile member of the squad. She plays any place she's needed.

Daughter Faye, who probably boasts because she's 16, does the catching.

The pitching is shared by Georgette Fawcett, the mother of one youngster, and Carol Greshaw, who returns to St. Louis in the fall for her final year in college.

Second baseman Sally Copley, one of the team's top hitters, has three children to take care of. Twice she's left the team to become a mother; then returned after the Stork arrived.

Shortstop Kathy Cazaban is the leading slugger. Only 16, Kathy averaged better than one homer per game. In one contest she rapped three round-trippers.

Mrs. Bowen plays when needed, but spends most of her time keeping score. She credits much of the team's success to her husband.

"Robert has done a terrific job," boasts his wife. "He organized the practices, makes the decisions during games and handles a variety of other tasks so necessary to win on the field."

King appeared to have the crown all locked up when he led, 5-2, in the third and deciding test.

But, with the chips down, Pierce proved he's a true champ. He came roaring back to pull even at 5-5. Pierce then went ahead, 6-5, but King rallied to knot matters at six apiece.

On service, Pierce forged in front for keeps in the thirteenth game, then busted King's service to end the match and retain the crown.

King earlier had staged a comeback of his own. Pierce

STAGES RALLY TO BEAT KING Pierce Keeps Net Title

Don Pierce, a law student at the University of Michigan, celebrated a happy twenty-third birthday last week.

For the third year in a row Pierce won over George King—this time by a score of 5-7, 6-1-8-6—to haul in the Livonia closed tennis championship at the Bentley High courts.

The tournament was co-sponsored by the Department of Recreation and the Livonian Observer.

It took an uphill battle for Pierce, who took his undergraduate studies at Ohio Wesleyan, to conquer his arch rival King, who at one time also was a student at the Ohio University.

King appeared to have the crown all locked up when he led, 5-2, in the third and deciding test.

But, with the chips down, Pierce proved he's a true champ. He came roaring back to pull even at 5-5. Pierce then went ahead, 6-5, but King rallied to knot matters at six apiece.

On service, Pierce forged in front for keeps in the thirteenth game, then busted King's service to end the match and retain the crown.

King earlier had staged a comeback of his own. Pierce swept into a 5-2 lead in the opening set and gave indications of turning the match into a rout.

However, King found his game and crushed Pierce five straight times to take the initial set, 7-5. It was all Pierce in the middle set.

More than 20 players made up the field in men's singles competition.

King eliminated Ralph Cornell, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3, in the semi-finals while Pierce won over Bob Waterstone, 6-1, 7-5, in his semi test.

Two other titles had been settled at the end of last week's action.

Charley Gillette won over Randy Baidas, 6-1, 6-1, in the boys (12 and under) finale. Only three played in the 12-under girls tourney. A round robin was staged with Paula Craston emerging as the queen.

Crowns in the junior boys and girls, women's singles, men's doubles and mixed doubles were to be settled this week—with all the matches on the Bentley courts.

Unlimited Stars Win Church League Duel

In the Department of Parks and Recreation first church league all-star game between unlimited and limited church league teams, manager Ron Hicks' unlimited team topped their opponents, 6 to 5 in a 13-inning game at Plymouth High School Friday evening.

Bill Maier manager of limited league champion St. Andrews, headed the limited league all-star team.

Final scoring went like this: In the top of the 13th inning, Bill Lloyd hit a home run to give his team a one-run edge.

Unlimited players came back in the last of the 13th to score two runs and win the game. Walt Kitcher tripled, Don Adams doubled, and came home with the winning run when Dick Balsten grounded out.

Carrier Wins Golf Tourney

Winners in three flights of the Department of Parks and Recreation first annual summer employees golf tournament at Idle Wyld Golf Course were: Flight A: Wayne Carrier, 39; Paul Cosia, 44. Flight B: Glen Ekey, 32; Jim Waterston, 41. Flight C: Dick Prieks, 39; Mike Bright, 41.

Top Trotters Clash

Livonia area harness racing enthusiasts will be treated to one of the finest trotting races of the year Thursday night at Wolverine Harness Raceway in the 12th running of the $24,700 Merchants and Manufacturers stake.

The Wolverine meeting is held at the Detroit Race Course, located at the intersection of Middlebelt and Schoolcraft Roads.

The M&M, which is the state's richest and the nation's oldest trotting stake, dates back before the turn of the century when all of the top stars of that era competed for the trophy.

This year's renewal drew a field of 20 which forced Racing Secretary Bill Connors to divide it into two eliminations of 10 horses each with the first five finishers in each coming back for the championship finale.

The luck of the draw placed four of the standout contenders in the first elimination including Right Away, the three-year-old Castleton Farm filly who will try to give her stable the title two years in a row.

Matched against Right Away, the early favorite, are Winnie's Pride, Michigan's three-year-old champion of 1961 who recently won three straight in the East; Jim Curran's Landon Hanover and Billy Haughton's Dark Sun.

The second division is headed by Don Larlee's Sprite Kid, generally rated as one of the top trotters in the east this year. He'll have to beat off the challenges of Joe Hodgson's Sunny Hill Nell, Clint Hodgins' Medalist and Clyde Snook's Cedar Crest Liner.

Sheldon Chambers Quits DPR for Phoenix Post

Sheldon Chambers, assistant athletic supervisor for the Department of Parks and Recreation, has resigned to accept a teaching position in Phoenix, Arizona.

Chambers, physical education instructor at Keeler School in Redford township for the past five years, plans to join the recreation department in Phoenix in addition to his position as physical education teacher at Emerson Elementary School there.

A graduate of Bentley High School and a Livonia resident for 18 years, Chambers earned a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Michigan in 1954 and, after a two-year stint in the Army, received a Master's degree in recreation and youth leadership from U. of M.

Chambers lived at 10061 Chamber with his wife Mariyin and two daughters, Kathy, 5, and three-year-old Karen.

During the summer months Chambers has been assistant athletic supervisor for the Department of Parks and Recreation.

He headed the city's golf program for men and women which was expanded this year to include a golf league for children. Chambers directed the annual city-wide men's invitational golf tournament.

The post of assistant athletic supervisor will be filled by Steve Powers, 31542 Summers, who has been on the recreation staff on a part time basis for the past few years.

Powers, recent graduate of Bentley High School, was captain of the baseball and football team and also played varsity basketball.

Powers plans to enter Michigan State University in the fall to study political science. His position with the Department of Parks and Recreation will be during the summer months.

AIRMAN 3rd CLASS FREDERIC (TOM) HARRISON, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Harrison Sr. of 19931 Fremington Road, Livonia is presently stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base in Texas. He recently completed his basic training in Texas and will go into further study in Aircraft Maintenance. He is not expected home for leave until October. His enlistment is for four years.

Vets Pitch In To Aid Rogers

War veterans from Livonia, Plymouth and Redford Twp. are pitching in to make the Neil Rogers' benefit dance, slated Saturday in the DAV Chapter 113 Hall, 25544 Five Mile Road, just east of Beech Daly Road, starting at 9 p.m.

Working on the theme that the three time Purple Heart winner, who twice received the Navy Cross for heroism in the South Pacific, helped all when needed most during World War II, the veterans are urging everyone in the three communities to aid in the cause.

Neil is in Veterans Hospital suffering from the insurmountable Berger's disease which forced amputation of his right foot a week ago and is badly in need of financial assistance.

He has been unable to work since Christmas and his wife and five children are finding the financial burden a real problem these days.

The DAV has secured aid from the Veterans Trust Fund and the posts in Livonia and Redford have made donations along with other service organizations—but a big boost now will do a lot to brighten the spirits of the ailing hero.

The cost is only $2 and that includes dancing, beer, setups, chips, pretzels and other prizes. Tickets are available from any member of the DAV posts in the communities as well as at the offices of this newspaper at 33050 Five Mile Road. Do your bit today—we know it will be appreciated.
