Reservoir Project Gets 'Go-Ahead' Signal

Enrollment Rise Means $35,000 Revenue Gain

An increase in enrollment — amounting to 156 pupils more than had been projected for this school year — will bring the Plymouth Community School District an additional $35,000 in state school aid monies.

At the same time, it will increase the School District's expenditures through the expected hiring of the two additional teachers and a teacher's aide to accommodate the extra enrollment growth.

This was evident Friday when the District conducted its annual student census, an act that must be performed on the fourth Friday in September.

Tentative figures indicated that total enrollment within the District had swelled to 5,306, an increase of 327 over the total a year ago and 156 greater than school officials had anticipated in earlier projections.

It had been estimated that public school enrollment here would reach 5,150 this year.

The tentative figures will become official as soon as certified statements are received by Superintendent Russell Isbister sometime this week from classroom teachers and respective school principals.

The exact increase in state school aid funds amounts to $34,944.

Isbister is expected to recommend to the School Board next week that the District hire two extra teachers and a teacher's aide, who although not certified to teach may assist in many classroom supervisory duties.

Since September 1957, enrollment in the Plymouth School District has grown from 4,203 to the present total of 5,306.

It represents an increase of slightly more than 25 per cent in five years.

Largest individual school enrollment here, of course, was at the senior high where 1,139 students were listed Friday.

VANDALS STRUCK at the old Newburg Cemetery on Ann Arbor Trail recently, demolishing many headstones and knocking over many others. In all, more than 70 headstones were damaged. The cemetery, in use for well over 100 years, includes many graves of persons buried in the 1840's, only a short time after the area was originally settled. The majority of damage was done to older stones, put in place prior to 1900. Above, a staff member of The Plymouth Mail surveys a portion of the damage. Police are investigating the vandalism.

City Plan Would Avoid Dependence on Detroit

Plymouth City officials were scheduled to meet with representatives of the Detroit Water Board today (Wednesday) to discuss further the possibility of using Detroit water here.

But, in the meantime, Commissioners moved forward hopefully with plans that ultimately may lead to the construction of a new 3,000,000 gallon City-owned reservoir which would substantially improve the City's present water supply system.

This was the outcome of action taken by City Commissioners in regular session Monday evening.

Commissioners authorized the City's consulting engineer firm to draw up plans and specifications for a proposed reservoir to be located someplace in the vicinity of Beck Rd. between Five and Six Mile Roads.

A primary site for the new reservoir, only the City's second in nearly half a century is on Wayne County Training School property along Beck Rd. between Five and Six Mile.

In a safety-valve measure, an alternate location is this week being sought by City Manager Albert Glassford. It is on property also along Beck Rd., directly opposite the Training School site. The land for the alternate lo-remainder — the City's actual cost — would not require a special bond issue, but instead would be met out of the City's present Water Improvement and Water Repair & Replacement Funds.

The specifications and plans for the reservoir will be drawn up as soon as possible, and the application to the federal government will follow immediately.

BULLETIN

Word was received at The Plymouth Mail late Wednesday morning from Congressman Martha Griffiths that the Community Facilities Administration has approved a $6,950 advance for the City of Plymouth to be applied toward preliminary planning of improvements and extensions to the public water system here.

According to City Manager Albert Glassford, the money can be applied toward costs of the preliminary plans ordered Monday night for the proposed new reservoir.

cation is owned by Our Lady of Providence School, a Catholic institution.

Once the preliminary plans have been completed by the consulting engineer firm of Johnson & Anderson, the City will make application to the federal government for financial assistance on the project under the terms of the recently passed Public Works Acceleration Act.

This act provides for federal assistance up to 50 per cent of the cost of the project, excluding land acquisition.

The latter item is entirely a City financial responsibility.

Tentative cost of the reservoir has been placed at about $150,000 with the cost for using or purchasing the land an added item.

The Federal government — if it should approve the City's request for aid — could finance as much as $75,000. The

A vice president of Detroit Edison Co. will be the guest speaker at the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce annual banquet Monday evening, Oct. 29, at Lofy's Arbor-Lill here.

Edwin O. George, whose association with Detroit Edison began in 1929, will be the speaker, announced Chamber of Commerce meeting chairman James Thornton.

The banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m. More than 300 local businessmen and other individuals are expected to attend the affair.

New Junior High Dedication Oct. 11

Plymouth's new $817,000 Junior High West will be dedicated in formal ceremonies next Thursday, Oct. 11, thus bringing to a close the first phase of a two-phase construction program here.

The dedication will be held at 8 p.m. that evening, while informal tours of the building will be conducted from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. The public is invited to take part in both events.

The formal dedication ceremonies, which will be led by School Board president Gerald Fischer, will be held in the school's gymnasium. Students themselves will conduct the public guided tours up to about 5 p.m. and unescorted tours will be permitted until as late as 10 p.m.

Junior High West, located at the corner of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Tr., now houses all of the school District's seventh graders and approximately 80 sixth graders as well.

The building was financed primarily on a pay-as-you-build basis through the District's building and site-sinking fund.

Post Office Lobby To Get New Look

Plymouth's busy post office will undergo further interior modernization within the next few weeks, according to Postmaster George Timpona.

Unchanged since the building was constructed in 1936, the row of lobby service windows will be up-dated in time to meet the heavy rush of Christmas mail.

Already, Timpona has sent out requests for bids to four contractors. The bids are expected to be received and opened within the next three weeks and work should begin before the end of the month.

Plans call for the modernizing of the parcel post, stamp and money order service windows — referred to as the "screen line" in postal nomenclature — along with the installation of a new letter mail drop, a new stamp vending machine, and new under-the-counter cabinets for the clerks.

In addition, Timpona said that the branch here expects to receive by the first of the year a new money order processing machine, which will speed the handling of money order requests.

During the up-dating work this month and next, an additional 65 patron lock boxes will be installed to supplement the present 300 in use. Each customer service window will be equipped with aluminum rolling shutters, replacing the vertical sliding windows now in use.

"The modernization will improve our customer services considerably," said Timpona

REIGNING over Plymouth's 1962 Homecoming festivities last weekend was Homecoming Queen Vicki McCuaig, a petite brown-haired senior who is also a Varsity cheerleader. She was elected by her fellow students Friday afternoon, but the election results were not announced until half-time during the football game that night.

Building Authority Becomes Official

City Commissioners in action Monday night dealt with a multitude of matters, including the adoption of incorporating articles for a municipal building authority which will direct the financing of a proposed new City Hall here.

Membership of the five-man building authority commission is expected to be taken up shortly, although no candidates were mentioned Monday night.

At the same time, the firm of Wheeler & Becker was approved by Commissioners as the architectural firm to prepare preliminary plans for the proposed $500,000 municipal structure, which will carry a colonial theme. It would be located on Main St., probably adjacent to the library.

A federal grant — as in the case of the proposed new City water reservoir — will be sought for the City Hall project. There was no immediate mention as to when the preliminary architectural plans would be made available, but the application for federal financial assistance cannot be made without them.

Elsewhere on the agenda, City Manager Albert Glassford reported on the progress of the Penniman-Fralick-Main St. parking improvement program.

"I feel as if we have all of the letters we'll need to accompany our application," he said. He referred to an earlier request directed at downtown businessmen and asking for letters estimating the number of jobs the parking improvement would create.

He said the letters estimated as many as 50 new jobs would be created if the project became a reality.

The project deals with expansion of certain parking lots in the Penniman-Fralick-Main St. area, together with the construction of others.

Discussion touched upon the possibility of having Plymouth's Community Industrial Development Corp. administer the project and deal directly with the federal government in matters pertaining to a federal grant.

Frank Arlen, president of the local development corporation, said that the corporation would be glad to cooperate in any way possible. He suggested that consideration be given to forming a 'Parking Authority,' perhaps on the order of the newly-formed City Hall 'Building Authority.'

The matter was referred to Vilican & Leman, planning consultants.

Several citizens appeared before the Commissioners regarding a previous complaint against Transport Container, Inc. here. The earlier complaint suggested that nighttime work at the manufacturing firm's location at 350 South Mill was creating bothersome flashes of light and excessive noises.

Commissioners heard a report from Director of Public Safety Kenneth Fisher, who said that the company had been cooperative with City requests to combat the noise and excessive light problem.

A citizen, Amos Taylor, 566 Karmada, said: "There's a lot of flash and it bothers at night when we're sleeping. Even with out shades down, the light goes right through."

Sees Industrial Tenants Entering UR Area by '63

The possibility that new industrial tenants will occupy Plymouth's Urban Renewal development by late next year was advanced Friday by Joe Near, the City Urban Renewal Director.

Already, Near has negotiated the purchase of five individual parcels of land within the 17-acre development, and he hopes to complete the purchase of three others before the end of this week.

In all, there are 13 individually-owned pieces of property involved.

The Urban Renewal project, which is heavily supported by federal funds, is located on the west side of Mill St. and extends north from Ann Arbor Tr. to the edge of Bathey Mfg. Co's property.

Near indicated that the City possibly must turn to condemnation proceedings in order to acquire perhaps three parcels of land there. "I have no idea how long this will take," he said.

He hopes to have acquired for the City all of the other parcels by Nov. 1, minus the property that may go through condemnation proceedings.

Eventually, the City will request bids on the demolition of existing buildings there. Near has set a tentative target date of April 1 for the installation of utility services there.

It is entirely feasible that we'll have new tenants there by late 1963," he said. "Already the City has received about seven inquiries on the land from interested industrial firms."

Near said that the new tenants will be limited to the "light industrial" type.

"We're not going to have any trouble finding takers for that land," he added. "None, what-so-ever."

Meanwhile, Near is busy re-locating the present residential occupants of the neighborhood. A portion of the federal grant was issued for this express purpose.

Once the land has been cleared and improved with the necessary utility services lines, the City will call for bids on the property.

Construction Moves Ahead

Work on two major building projects here is moving steadily toward completion.

Radio Corporation of America, which is constructing a 40,000-square-foot manufacturing plant and office building on Plymouth Rd., has indicated that it will occupy the structure early in November.

The RCA plant is situated on 4.8 acres of land within the City's lengthy industrial belt along the south side of Plymouth Rd. opposite Burroughs Corp.

At the same time, in Downtown Plymouth, work is progressing on schedule in the construction of First Federal's new colonial-styled financial headquarters at the corner of Penniman and Main St.

When completed sometime in February, the building will house not only First Federal's own Plymouth branch, but a local branch of the Automobile Club as well.

According to general contractor Ernest Burger, of Burger Construction Co. Inc., the major exterior work — including roofing — will be completed by Oct. 20. Extensive interior finishing and partitioning will follow, before the building becomes ready for its two tenants the middle of February.

The construction was planned so that roofing could be finished before the onset of cold weather.

The First Federal building — a two-story structure — is replacing several old buildings that had been an eyesore in Downtown Plymouth for many years.

The new structure will carry a colonial exterior theme, in keeping with the overall appearance of the community. Explained one First Federal official: "The New England atmosphere, as expressed in the name Plymouth, itself, will do much to encourage more colonial exteriors and will certainly en-

Mrs. Gertrude Simonetti announces that a cost-of-living increase in compensation to nearly two million war-disabled veterans has been hailed as very welcome by American Legion Auxiliary members here. The increase amounts to an average of 9.4 per cent for veterans disabled as a result of wounds, illnesses or injuries suffered in war service. This is the first increase in the compensation rates since 1957. We believe that it was badly needed and will make an important difference to a vast number of disabled veterans and their families.

American Legion Auxiliary delegations from every state, District of Columbia, Panama Canal Zone and Puerto Rico are scheduled to assemble in Las Vegas, Nev., Oct. 8 for the beginning of the 42nd National Convention. The Auxiliary's 920,000 members will be represented by 812 voting delegates, presided over by Mrs. J. Howard McKay of Springfield, Pa., National President. The convention will close Oct. 11 with the election of national officers for the coming year. Mrs. O. L. Koger of Topeka, Kan., was the only announced candidate for National President. Our Past 17th District President, Melva Gardner, from our Unit is getting ready to attend this convention. She will give a complete report on all her activities attending all the meetings at our district meeting.

Barrel Fight, Parade Head Fire Display

A fire department parade, coupled with a fire-fighting equipment display and a unique barrel fight, will highlight local participation in Fire Prevention Week here next week.

Township and City fire departments are co-sponsor of an evening program scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 11, in which a number of neighboring fire departments will take part as well.

In addition, the Plymouth City and Township firemen will be visiting various schools in the Plymouth area during the forth-coming week, presenting a special fire prevention program to the students.

The two departments have issued invitations to the public to visit the various City and Township stations during the week in order to view first-hand the fire station functions.

Fire equipment will be paraded through the streets of the community starting at 6:30 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 11. The parade will terminate at the departmental display area along Mill St. opposite the VFW Hall there.

In the display area, all types of local fire fighting equipment will be stationed for public inspection. There is no admission fee.

Firemen will conduct actual demonstrations of fire-fighting technique by battling purposely-lighted oil, gas and other types of common household and community fires.

A unique "barrel fight" is expected to attract considerable interest, during the evening's events. It resembles a tug-of-war in purpose.

But, instead, a barrel is the center of interest. The barrel is hung by a pulley device that extends between two anchor points.

At both ends, firemen using water hoses will attempt to force the barrel past a certain point on the rope. The team that first pushes the barrel into the opposing firemen's area will be the winner.

$3,600,000

Pay Day for First Federal Savers

On Friday, September 28, $3,600,000 was added to First Federal savers' accounts—money ahead for them to do with as they like. Since January first this year, these folks have totalled up $10,400,000 in earnings on their savings at 4% current annual rate, paid a n d compounded quarterly.

Does your extra money work that hard for you?

Can you keep any amount you want in your savings (even as little as $1)—and still earn that big 4%? Are the earnings on your savings compounded every 3 months? Do you get earnings from the first of the month on money added by the 10th of that month? The answer is "yes" at First Federal.

Your savings at First Federal are insured to $10

 The building will contain approximately 9,165 square feet. First Federal's space will front on Penniman, while the AAA offices will face Main St.
 Meanwhile, RCA expects to start moving equipment into its new building on Plymouth Rd. sometime the middle of this month. The plant will engage in the manufacture of electronic custom-gauging equipment.

Norman R. Amberg, who is presently located in Detroit as manager of the Industrial and Automation Products Department of RCA, will transfer himself and approximately 100 RCA employees out here when the new plant is completed.
 It is expected that eventually new jobs will develop in the RCA plant here.
 As work on the RCA plant is being completed here, another major industrial firm began construction of a large warehouse facility in the same immediate vicinity as RCA.
 Willys Motors had earlier purchased approximately two acres adjacent to RCA's location in the City's industrial belt. The steel frame-work for the Willys building was scheduled to go up this week. That building, when completed, will comprise 25,200 square feet.

Reservoir

City of Plymouth users, has created something of a controversy between Plymouth and Detroit.

Detroit, which is undertaking to furnish water to most of Wayne County as well as some adjacent counties hopes to complete an extensive water supply system in this area by 1965.

This includes a 24-inch supply line that would reach out westward along Eight Mile to Northville, move south down Sheldon and return to Detroit somewhere south of the Plymouth City limits.

Plymouth City officials have been invited by Detroit water authorities to tie Plymouth in with this vast water system. But City Commissioners have indicated that they are hesitant to place the City of Plymouth in a position whereby it is entirely dependent upon Detroit for water.

Cost of Detroit water has been another bone of contention.

At present, Plymouth City users pay approximately $1.4 per thousand cubic feet of water consumed. Source for this water is the City's own water fields via an existing reservoir on Reservoir Drive.

This cost includes 24 cents simply to draw the water out of the City's wells. The remainder ($1.16) is operational expense.

On the other hand, best estimates of Detroit water costs indicate that users here would be faced with a substantial increase, should Detroit water ultimately come to the City of Plymouth.

According to Frank Lodge, a member of the City's consulting engineering firm, it would cost Plymouth City users approximately $2.66 per 1,000 cubic feet of water with Detroit as the supplier. It represents nearly a 40 percent increase.

One other factor which has not made the situation any easier for City Commissioners is an estimate that the City's existing water fields contain sufficient water to supply the community — at the present rate of consumption — for some 20 to 40 years from now.

This, too, could vary greatly depending upon the rate of daily consumption. (At present, City users now consume some two million gallons per day.)

A certain amount of friction has arisen between City officials here and authorities on the Detroit Water Board. This has stemmed to a great degree from the fact that the City of Plymouth has not appeared "anxious" to tie-in with the extensive Detroit water supply plans.

Compromise methods of solving the problem have been sought. A suggested answer to the matter was presented to Commissioners Monday night by Lodge, the member of the City's consulting engineering firm.

Lodge recommended that the City undertake the construction of the proposed reservoir along Beck Rd. at the most advantageous terrain altitude available there.

He then pointed out that, with this reservoir, the City would never become absolutely dependent upon Detroit as a source. He added that, when Detroit's main water line is finally completed — the target date is two years from now — the City of Plymouth request to tie its reservoir into the Detroit line.

(This aspect would have to be worked out contractually and to the mutual agreement of both municipalities.)

Thus, whenever the pressure in the Detroit supply line dropped below sufficient level — as in summer months when lawn-watering places a heavy demand on the supply — the pumping stations at the City's water fields could be used to maintain adequate supply, by keeping the proposed reservoir properly filled.

Lodge said it was "engineering-wise, a sound undertaking."

Such a proposal, however, may not immediately meet with Detroit approval. Commissioners, Monday night, seemed receptive to the suggested solution in view of the fact that such an arrangement thus eliminates the possibility that the City of Plymouth would ever become "entirely dependent and at the mercy of the City of Detroit."

Howard Town is Award Winner

Local resident, Howard Town, was presented the Alumni Award, Saturday night, Sept. 28, at the Annual Electronic's Awards Ceremony held at the Detroit Latin Quarter.

Mr. Town, who lives at 717 McKinley and is director of engineering for the National Educational Radio and Television center, received the award from Dr. J. W. Head, president and founder of the Electronic Institute of Technology.

Four awards were presented annually by the Institute to outstanding men of science and electronics. Also honored was Lee Hills, vice president and executive editor of the Detroit Free Press, who received the Communications award.

The Science award was given to Dr. Magnus von Braun, director of Engineering and Research for the Chrysler Missile Division.

Edward R. Murrow, director of the U.S. Information Agency, accepted the Freedom award.

Those wishing to preview the new Pontiacs can see them at Berry Pontiac Inc., Oct. 4-6 from 8 to 10 p.m.

Retaining a strong Pontiac identity, the 1963 cars have a split grille that features sunken air scoops flanked by an exclusive "over and under" vertical headlight arrangement which vividly extends the wide track theme. Rear end styling is expansively wide achieving a longer, lower appearance.

Pontiac's high volume production series, the Catalina, is available in seven models: two and four-door sedans, two and four-door hardtops, six and nine passenger Safaris and a convertible.

The Star Chief is offered in a four-door hardtop Vista and four-door sedan models. The Bonneville is available in four models; two and four-door hardtops, a six-passenger Safari and a convertible.

The 1962 Pontiac offers greatly improved front and rear suspension, self adjusting brakes, increased engine performance, less owner maintenance and significant developments in new accessories and safety items.

A Pontiac pioneered breakerless ignition system is now offered as optional equipment on all 1963 models equipped with a premium fuel engine. Among its advantages is improved performance, hotter spark at the plug and quicker starting.

The popular Tempest series is more appealing than ever with a longer, wider design, new exterior styling, new interior. A new LeMans series will be available in sports coupe and convertible models.

An idyllic combination of sports car appeal and superior performance is offered in the custom-built Grand Prix sports coupe, the "most distinctive series ever produced by Pontiac."

BUICK
All regular-size Buicks maintain approximately the same dimensions as last year, but the Special series models will be four inches longer.

The Wildcat, introduced last spring, has been expanded.

Mrs. Harold Todd of Clemons Dr. with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Todd and son, Kevin, returned to Plymouth last Wednesday after a six week trip which included visits with another son, Harold Todd and family in Seattle, Wash., and still another son, Robert Todd and family at Valley Head, Ala. They spent some time at the World's Fair, visited her brother in Casper, Wyo., and parks and other scenic places enroute.

Progress from the aircraft industry reached into Plymouth recently at Eckles Fuel & Supply Co. here.

A computing register, developed by Lockheed Electronics Company — a division of Lockheed Aircraft Corp. — has been installed on all of the trucks in the Eckles' fuel-oil delivery fleet.

The device, which costs $750, improves efficiency of fuel oil delivery in a number of ways, according to Eckles' owner, Bob Allison.

The machine automatically imprints all pertinent information pertaining to each delivery on an invoice for the resident. It indicates the total gallons of fuel oil delivered, the price per gallon, the state sales tax on the sale, and the total cost of the delivery.

"It rules out all human error," Allison said.

"This is another advance in the operation of fuel oil delivery at Eckles," he added.

"It improves customer services and makes for better working conditions for our employees."

The computing register, mounted at the rear of the truck where the delivery originates, assures the customer that his bill is accurate to the penny and it provides a formal invoice right at the customer's door, Allison said.

The device has a special setting to indicate the price per gallon. As the price changes, the setting is re-adjusted. Beyond that, the device is entirely automatic, printing out the details of each delivery so that the customer may readily check the figures against his own fuel oil request.

NEW COMPUTING REGISTER that automatically indicates the number of gallons of fuel oil delivered, together with automatic imprint of price per gallon, total state sales tax and total price per delivery, has been installed on fuel oil delivery trucks at Eckles Fuel & Supply Co., 882 Holbrook. Owner Bob Allison, of Eckles, is shown pointing out the new device, a product of Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

St. Peter's to Host Lutheran Teachers Conference Here

St. Peter's Lutheran Day School, Plymouth, will be host to about 150 pastors, teachers and professors, at the 50th annual convention of the Michigan District Lutheran Teachers Conference on Oct. 10, 11 and 12.

Registration for the conference will take place between 1 and 2 p.m. Wednesday, with sessions being held in the afternoon. That evening a special 50th anniversary church service will be held, at 7:30. Guest speaker will be Rev. Winfred Koelpin, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Livonia. Guest organist will be Miss Carolyn Smart, a former teacher at St. Peter's who is now teaching at Grace Lutheran School, in Benton Harbor. The Teacher's Choir and Children's Choir will be led by Mr. V. J. Schulz, of Emmanuel Lutheran Church, in Lansing.

Thursday conference sessions will be highlighted by a talk by Mr. A. F. Fehlauer,

College in Line For $40,000 In State Funds

The Northwest Wayne County Community College will receive at least $40,000 — a minimum amount — in state community college funds by June of next year, the college announced this week.

The Michigan Legislature has appropriated nearly $1.3 million which will be shared by all Michigan community colleges on a pro-rated basis for aid in construction, alterations, refurbishing or remodeling work.

The fund is allocated by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under a formula worked out in cooperation with the Michigan Junior College Assn.

The $40,000 for the college here represents a base amount. It is possible that the college will receive an added $50,000 before the present fiscal year ends next June 10.

Under the formula, no more than $300,000 may be allocated to any one community college, and the amount — regardless of size — must be matched with funds from the local college district.

After the college here actually has a student body, there will be a substantial increase in the so-called "matching funds" aid from the Department of Public Instruction.

Thursday evening an anniversary dinner will be held at Lofy's Arbor Lull, beginning at 6 p.m. Master of ceremonies for the evening's activities, which will include a show by a local quintet, will be Mr. Orlan Dorn, of Trinity Lutheran School, Bay City. Speaker for the evening will be Mr. Albert Wandersee, a retired Christian day school teacher, who will point out highlights of the development and growth of the Michigan Conference.

To conclude the Friday sessions, to be held from 9-4 p.m., an inspirational address will be given by Rev. Kenneth Vertz, of Owosso.

In connection with the conference, displays will be set up at the school by many educational publishing houses, including one by Northwestern Lutheran Publishing House, of Milwaukee.

Kiwanians Hear State Policeman

A member of the Michigan State Police was guest speaker at last week's regular meeting of the Plymouth Kiwanis club. More than 70 members were present, including guest, Carl Pursell.

Harry Reeves, program chairman, introduced Sgt. Adolph Pologhn of the Michigan State Police force. Pologhn reviewed the requirements necessary to become a state police force member and also listed many of the functions of the force.

Included among these are conducting searches for missing persons, controlling traffic, assisting local police agencies.

Sgt. Pologhn has been a police officer for over 22 years and he entertained the club with a number of his experiences.

Jim Winterhalter, chairman of the Peanut Sale, announced that, after all expenses were paid, over $800. would be available for boy's and girl's organizations in our community. This year's sale was an outstanding success.

The Kiwanis rummage sale will be held on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 5 and 6, at the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union located at the corner of S. Harvey St. and Maple Ave.

WITH A HIGHLY successful peanut sale already behind them, Plymouth Kiwanians this week were wrapping up final plans for another money-raising activity — an annual rummage sale. Proceeds from the event will help the local club with its various charitable undertakings. Arranging rummage sale merchandise in the basement of the Credit Union last Saturday were these four club members. From left: Bill Lyons, Bill Pfaff, Jo Graves and George Burr. The sale is scheduled for this Friday (from 9 to 9) and Saturday (from 9 to 6). It will be held in the Credit Union basement on Harvey St.

Cancer Chairman Attends Convo

Mrs. Francis Patterson, office chairman of the Plymouth branch of the Michigan Chapter Foundation, attended an education conference for branch chairmen at Kellogg Center in East Lansing last weekend.

Meanwhile, Dr. Karl Van Newkirk was appointed chairman of the local nominating committee for the organization to prepare a slate of candidates, from which new officers will be elected in November.

At the same time, the nominating committee also has the responsibility to fill vacancies on the Board of Directors of the local branch. Lee Coolman and Mrs. S. L. LeFever are the other members on the nominating committee.

The Plymouth office was servicing eight patients at the end of August, according to the service chairman's report. Two patients were using loan closet items. There were 170 participants sewing cancer pads, while 25 regular volunteers were on the list and four others were on call.

The local branch has also issued a request for additional volunteers, whose help is needed to carry on the work of the Cancer Society here.

Grange Cleanings

BY MOLLY TRACEY GL 3-3244

The Grange meeting of Sept. 20, was an annual open house for all Grangers and their friends, with a large crowd who were enjoying every minute of the wonderful program, our lecturer Bessie Salow and her committee had arranged.

The program for the evening opened with a welcome by our Worthy Master, Jessie Fritten, followed by students from Miss Shirley's Dance Studios from Detroit, with four dance numbers. Also, Miss Shirley and her sister did a beautiful dance. Margaret and Jack Rudloff did three numbers on the accordion. Mrs. Thomas Lock sang a solo, as two of our Grange couples, Mr. and Mrs. John Gilles and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar T. Thiele celebrated their golden weddings. To honor them, a mock wedding was performed. Mrs. Flock played the wedding march and sang "O Promise Me." The play began 50 years ago and went down through the years, ending with Grandma Louise Hutton and Grandpa Sam Spicer, who took their parts very romantically. Following the play, all retired to the dining room for cake and coffee.

Our next Grange meeting will be Oct. 4, with a pot-luck supper.

Our best wishes to all our sick members. Hope to see you all at grange.

SALEM NEWS

By Vera Clair - GL 3-2610

The Salem Federated church released about two hundred helium filled balloons on Sunday, Sept. 23, in their "race-for-space contest". The contest is sponsored by the Greater Detroit Sunday School Assn. and will continue through Oct. 28. There are twenty churches with a Sunday school attendance of 149 to 250 participating in this contest.

A folder with a Bible verse and announcements of the church services was placed in each balloon. A gift will be given to the person who finds a balloon the greatest distance away and writes to the Pastor and also to the one who brings a balloon from the longest distance. Rev. Chipchase tells me he has already received cards from people who have found balloons.

Doris Marshall of Salem Rd. suffered a broken nose, head injury, and many body bruises when she was hit by a bicycle on Main St. in Plymouth on Saturday morning, Sept. 22. Doris would be pleased to hear from her friends while she is confined to her home.

The seniors of South Lyon High School will be busy for two weeks selling subscriptions to magazines. Their profits will help finance their upcoming trip to Washington, D.C., and New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Knowles, members of South Salem and Mrs. Lupe Grimes and daughter, Sharon, of Five Mile Rd. enjoyed the football game at Ann Arbor Sept. 29. Nancy Grimes and Elizabeth Luers played in the South Lyon High School band.

The many friends of Rev. Chipchase will be pleased to know that his father, the Rev. Howard Chipchase of Cincinnati, O., will be speaking at the Calvary Baptist Church in Plymouth each night from Oct. 1 through Oct. 5.

There will be another canvassing session at the Federated Church on Thursday, Oct. 4. Time anyone can give to help with this worthy cause will be greatly appreciated.

As I was leaving the yard Saturday morning I noticed my mail box had been pulled from the post.

Now I'm wondering if it were vandalism; if so — what satisfaction did the guilty person or persons get? Then, on the other hand, if it were some one who wanted a free mail box, and if you read this, why not think twice next time and remember honesty is the best policy. I need my mail box or it wouldn't be out there.

Martha Lutchka of Five Mile Rd. attended band day at the University of Michigan stadium in Ann Arbor on Saturday, Sept. 29.

The Go-Getters 4-H Club met at the Lutchka home on Five Mile Rd. on Tuesday, Oct. 2 for the first fall meeting. The regular business meeting will be the first Tuesday of each month and the third Tuesday will be the work meeting.

Mrs. Tomaka has a charge of cooking. Mr. Bridenstine — wood-working and electricity, and Mrs. Lutchka sewing and knitting.

The regular business meeting of the Worden Farm Bureau will be held Thursday, Oct. 4, at 8 p.m. at the Frank Geiger home on Five Mile Rd. The officers elected at the September meeting were as follows: Frank Geiger chairman; Charles White, vice-chairman; Joseph Lutchka discussion leader; Dr. Forest Thompson, assistant discussion leader; Alta Geiger, secretary; Robert Barsuhn, legislation; Grace Geiger and Jane Bloom, women's representatives; William Bloom, Package Reporter; and Joseph Zwiernikowski, recreation and song leader.

Mrs. Josephine Lutchka spent Friday and Saturday, Sept. 21 and 22, at Camp Kitt near Cadillac at the workshop sponsored by the conservation leaders of Michigan.

Many of the Salem people will be saddened to hear of the passing of Hugh Means on Sunday morning, Sept. 30. After a long period of sickness at home he was admitted to Wayne County General on Sept. 5.

Mr. Means with his wife, Nina, lived in Salem Township for nineteen years, moving here in 1920. During these early years in the community he was superintendent of the Sunday school at the Federated Church.

A great deal of Mr. Means' time was spent at his hobby of wood carving. He took great joy in the "whittling" of Biblical characters which were his speciality.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kehrl of Seven Mile Rd. and daughter Dorothy of Grand Rapids returned Monday, Sept. 24 from an early fall vacation. They visited friends in Illinois, Kentucky and West Virginia. Other stops were made in Chicago and Springfield, Ill. and Gettysburg, Pa. to see the many historical spots and other points of interest. Dorothy visited with her parents until Sunday, when she left for her home in Grand Rapids.

After a long illness Mr. Bert Nelson passed away at his home on Five Mile Rd. Sunday, Sept. 30 at the age of eighty seven.

Mr. Nelson, with his wife, Dora have lived in this community for more than fifty years, and will be greatly missed by his friends and neighbors.

Rev. Davies Returns From Visit to Wales

That blue Volkswagen bearing Belgian license plates, that you may have seen buzzing around town during the past week, doesn't mean that Plymouth has a foreign visitor. It belongs to Rev. David T. Davies, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, who returned last month from an eight-week visit in England and Wales. He purchased the car in London and, upon completion of his travels there, had it shipped to the U.S.

Rev. Davies, who left by BOAC jet in June, picked the car up in London and drove it through England and Wales, and then shipped it to the U.S. It arrived in Detroit a week ago Saturday, aboard the S.S. Prince Wilhelm. He picked it up last Tuesday.

During his visit, Rev. Davies visited three sisters, two brothers and "innumerable nephews and nieces" in his birthplace of Carmarthen-shire in South Wales. It was the first visit he had made since 1948. He left Wales in January 1928 and immigrated to Windsor, Canada. The following December he entered the U.S.

Rev. Davies said that all of his family, with the exception of two "black sheep" — himself and a cousin in Florida — still live in Wales. His relatives, he said, constantly asked him when he was "coming home" and couldn't believe he could betray the "old Country" when he answered that the U.S. was now his home.

Weather was cold and rainy throughout his visit he said, thus making it necessary for him to wear a winter suit and sweater the entire time. Everyplace he returned Monday, Sept. 24 from an early fall vacation. They visited friends in Illinois, Kentucky and West Vir-

The Professor Says...

By Ed Brown

Ever so often we hear of someone who has a great desire to freely give his services to the cause of humanity.

Some satisfy this yearning by helping local institutions, organizations and religious groups in any way possible. However, to a few, this urge becomes so great that they must give up their present work to do something that is more self-satisfying.

Such is the case of a former Plymouth High School graduate, who recently made this inner decision to help his fellow men.

The 1947 graduate, Rod Highfield, has recently been appointed a missionary teacher by the African Inland Mission Board. He will leave this month for Mwanza, a small town in Tanganyika, on the east coast of Africa, to assume his new duties. The above mission board is an interdenominational group and receives support from many religious and service groups.

After high school, Rod entered Albion college for one year, and then transferred to Eastern Michigan University. He received his degree from the latter institution in 1951.

In college he met his present wife, the former Jane Reist of Saginaw and they now have three wonderful youngsters, Randall, 10, Cheryl, 7, and Linda, a 5-year old. Mrs. Highfield will also teach in Africa and help provide leadership in the various activities for women.

From college Rod, and his new wife, went to Colorado Springs, Colorado and became associated with a wholesale lumber company as a draftsman. He also taught industrial arts in the Monument, Colorado, schools for one year.

Because of this strong urge to do more for people, he left Colorado and went to the noted Fuller Theological Institute in California for three and a half years.

He then taught school in Los Angeles for another three and a half years until he received his recent appointment. While in this assignment he was stricken with polio, but miraculously recovered with little damage. The two Highfields have been busy giving talks and lectures to church groups in this area about their mission work, and are eagerly looking forward to this rewarding experience ahead of them.

A brother Ray Highfield, is also making his mark in life. Ray left PHS with the class of 1948. He then entered Michigan State University, and graduated from there with an Agricultural Engineering degree in 1952.

Ray then married the former Allyn Williams, who also graduated from Plymouth in 1948. They also have three lovely children — Gregory, 7, Rebecca, 5, and Carol Lynn, who is only four months old.

At MSU he was in the ROTC unit for four years, and was commissioned an officer in the Air Force before graduation.

Upon leaving college he joined the personnel of the International Harvester company in Chicago as a research engineer.

In a short time Ray was called to report for duty with the armed forces in the Korean conflict. He was sent to the Travis Air Base in California, where he received training in radio, bombing and target work. He became a navigator there, and this proved highly important, as later events proved, for he was chosen by his government as the navigator of a plane sent to Ethiopia by our country. For the latter feat he was personally awarded a medal by Haile Selassie, the emperor of that nation.

This young lad made some high scores on certain tests, and was assigned to the SAC (Strategic Air Command) and transferred to Maine.

In a few years Ray had to decide whether he wanted to return to civilian life or make a career of the service. He chose the latter, and was assigned to Wright-Patterson Air Base at Dayton, Ohio, for further work in electronics and electrical engineering.

At present he is back at that air base and plans on being there for at least a year and a half. He is now Captain Highfield.

A highlight of Ray's young life was being selected to attend the World Boy Scout Jamoree in France when still in high school.

Another member of this prominent family is Bruce

Besse, who graduated from PHS in 1949. After a year at MSU, he decided to join the Evans Products staff as a Packaging Engineer, and stayed with that firm for the next four years.

The Korean conflict saw him in Korea for two years as a member of the U.S. Army.

The past seven years Bruce has been associated with the Federal Screw Works in Detroit as a Materials Control Supervisor.

It is his responsibility to keep the inventory balance between sales and production on an even level.

Bruce is married, and lives with his pretty wife, Hazel, on Malvern St. in Garden City.

These former Plymouth students are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Besse of Plymouth.

Rogers' Holstein Breaks Record

Michome Fayne Fobes 3782094, an eight-year-old registered Holstein cow owned by Charles J. Rogers, Plymouth, Mich., has completed an official 345-day record of 18,044 lbs. of milk and 644 lbs. of butterfat.

Michigan State University supervised the weighing and testing of production as a part of the official breed improvement program of The Holstein-Friesian Assn. of America.

In announcing the new record, a spokesman for the national Holstein organization said that it compared to the average cow's annual output of 7,211 lbs. of milk containing 270 lbs. of butterfat.

Eight Plymouth High School Seniors Named Merit Scholarship Semifinalists

EIGHT PLYMOUTH High School students were named as semifinalists last week in the 1962-63 Merit Scholarship competition. The eight are shown here with Robert Smith, assistant principal in charge of guidance and counselling, who administered the scholarship test at Plymouth High. From left: Eileen Ash, Evelyn Heidt, Cheryl Planck, Bruce Hudson, Inge Dietrich, Susan McIntyre, Charles Hampton, Arthur Gulick and Smith.

Eight Plymouth High School seniors are among 11,000 high school students across the nation who were named last week as semifinalists in the 1962-63 Merit Scholarship competition.

They were selected for their outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, first step in the eighth annual Merit program.

The eight include:

- Eileen Ash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ash, 333 Pacific; Inge Dietrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Werner Dietrich 42193 Clemons Rd.; Arthur Gulick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Gulick, 741 Beech Ct.; Charles Hampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hampton, 41675 1st Rd.; Evelyn Heidt, daughter of Mrs. Fred Heidt, Jr., 100 Curtis Road; Bruce Hudson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Susan Hudson, 44951 North Central; Susan McIntyre, daughter of Mrs. Ruth McIntyre, 15512 Lakeside Drive; and Cheryl Planck whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Planck of 815 McKinley.

The semifinalist qualifying examination, a test of overall educational development, was given to students in more than 16,000 high schools last March. The semifinalists represent the year's highest-scoring graduating class members.

Another examination, a three-hour Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, will be given to the semifinalists on Dec. 1.

In past years, about 97 per cent of the semifinalists have gone on to become finalists.

As finalists, the students will be eligible for scholarship awards sponsored by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and about 150 business corporations, foundations, unions, professional associations and various individuals.

Approximately 1,000 Merit Scholarships will be awarded next spring. For Merit Scholars who require financial assistance, awards may reach a maximum of $6,000 for four years of college.

Let's face it, the pre-Broadway show "Step On A Crack" needs considerable theatrical glue in its present state. Occasional moments of high drama will not sustain Bernard Evslin's modified, modernistic version of "Hamlet."

Donald Madden soliloquizes superbly and has been rightfully accorded the honor of star billing with Gary Merrill. In fact, if the author can do a bit more re-writing so that the show is acceptable for Broadway, you can mark this play as Don's first big break in New York.

However, the play is still the thing that bothers old George in the case of "Step On A Crack." Act I takes too long to let us know that the father and son have a conflict. Specifically, the son presents Dad's philandering ways and what effect it's having on Mom. By Act II, Mom mentally telegraphs her mistress-to-be nurse before the triangle becomes a fact.

Act III, after our harried hero (much in the tradition of the Bard's Hamlet with great soul searching) decides to burn the nurse at the stake using some fireworks. Sound fantastic?

Old George won't divulge any more of the plot. You'll have to go down to the Fisher and see what happens.

Years ago when we trod the sidewalks with out childhood companions it always was a mistake to step on a crack since it meant bad luck may be your fate. I'm afraid Producers Roger Stevens and Herbert Swope weren't too careful when they took a dreamy stroll down Mr. Evslin's dialogue-filled sidewalk.

Helen Hayes and Maurice Evans will arrive at the Fisher on Oct. 15 for a week's engagement, each night with an evening of 18 excerpts from Shakespeare. Detroit will be the start of a tour that will take these two greats of the American and English stage to 69 cities during the '62-'63 season.

Ironically, the present designation of the season '62-63 — also represents the ages of the participants. Such an extensive tour for two troupers is more than a labour of love — it's a fabulous accomplishment. Plan now to go downtown to see these two great actors of our time.

What about the Broadway scene? "The Affair", a dramatization of a courtroom drama by C. P. Snow, fared fairly well at the hands of the critics. Audiences are not scrambling to buy tickets in large lots. The Perry Mason and Defenders courtroom series on TV haven't helped the situation.

Hottest ticket situation is still on the musical comedy front. "Funny Thing Happened to Me On The Way To The Forum" with zany Zero Mostel still playing to S.R.O. houses. "Stop the World — I Want To Get Off" has opened and is the first smash of the season. "How To Succeed in Show Business Without Really Trying" continues to sell-out. Looks like part of the secret is have a long, long title for a successful show.

Dore Scharly's "Banderol" closed out of town as did "La Belle", the Menasha Skulnick musical.

A few final short notes: Shubert Theater has had to reverse its October schedule at the last minute. "Get On Board" received poor notices in Toronto and gave up the ghost. "I Can Get It For You Wholesale", the Lillian Roth musical, has had a flurry of new business on Broadway and will delay its Detroit appearance until November.

The Shubert will now start its season on Nov. 18 with a week's engagement of Jackie Mason, the Rabbi that turned comic.

I predict that his one-man show will be as popular as Carol Burnett was this summer.

The Billboard
Week of October 3-10
Fisher Theater "STEP ON A CRACK" In Detroit for two weeks for polishing. Don Madden is worth seeing.

Campus Theater "TASTE OF HONEY" British film version of a controversial play. Sensational treatment and beautiful photography.

Cinerama Music Hall Theater "WONDERFUL WORLD OF BROTHERS GRIMM" You'll love Terry-Thomas and Buddy Hackett as they slay ferocious dragon. Fun for all... young and old.

Lydia Mendelssohn Theater "SCHOOL FOR SCANDAL" Sheridan's rousing restoration farce leads off the five play fall festival of the Assn. of Producing Artists in Ann Arbor. Call 663-1511, Ext. 3559 for ticket information.

Queen last year, was on hand to crown the new Queen. Carolyn now attends the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

After receiving the crown and robe Vicki was presented a bouquet of long-stemmed roses and then danced with Dave Milrose, the present drum major. Vicki's lovely court consisted of seniors Sue McIntyre, Faith Raycroft, and Janet Van Antwerp; junior Julie Lent; and sophomore Judy Olds. Almost everyone at PHS started out the day by wearing blue and white. The final voting for Queen was made before the pep assembly in the afternoon, but not until half-time during the game was the announcement made public.

There was a large turnout for the bonfire as well as for the parade and game. The parade featured decorated cars for the junior and sophomore representatives and the senior float which was pulled by some of the male members of the senior class. Although Plymouth lost the game 18-14 to Redford Union, it was an exciting and well played game. After the crowning of the new Queen at half time the band and majorettes presented an interesting program. The cold rainy weather certainly did not stop many people, as the turnout for all of the Homecoming events was very large with a lot of alumni returning for the activities.

Thinking of Christmas already? Well, the senior class certainly is, as it begins the big sale of Christmas cards this week. On a vote by the senior class, the traditional cloth cap and gowns will be worn for graduation.

An international dinner is being planned for Oct. 22 by the International Relations class for United Nations week. Each member of the class will bring a dish from a different country for the dinner.

arrive at this — a most significant — point in his life. After graduating from Plymouth 15 years ago, Rod attended Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti and received his degree in 1951. Already married he moved with his wife, Jane, who is from Saginaw, to Colorado Springs where for two years he did drafting work at a lumber company and then taught school for a year.

It was in 1953 that his footsteps first placed him firmly on the Lord's pathway.

He and his wife attended a city-wide evangelistic service in Colorado Springs and both came away feeling a strong desire to devote themselves to full-time Christian Service. After a year of preparation, during which time they sold off their household belongings and cleared up normal family financial obligations, they moved to Los Angeles where Rod enrolled in the Fuller Theological Seminary in nearby Pasadena. He attended the Fuller Seminary for one and a half years, working part-time on the side to support himself and his growing family. Then a series of illnesses to his wife forced him to drop out of school and return to full-time teaching. For four years he was a staff member within the Los Angeles school system.

During the time that he was teaching in Los Angeles, Rod heard a missionary speak on his work in East Africa.

He promptly applied to the Africa Inland Mission, an inter-denominational organization that is headquartered in New York City. After lengthy interviews, a carefully prepared doctrinal statement and a stiff physical exam, Rod received his appointment as a missionary in October, 1961.

In Tanganyika, the Plymouthite will be a secondary-level school teacher in a mission school for native children. His wife will most probably be engaged in doing similar missionary work with the native women and children.

Although he is not sure exactly where he and his family will be situated in Tanganyika, Highfield knows that his East African mailing address will be the Field Headquarters of the Africa Inland Mission in Mwanza. The natives of Tanganyika, contrary to some beliefs, are not just briefly removed from the old-time cults and customs of their ancestors. Instead, the children have been raised most of their life in the mission area and will have a basic understanding of Christianity.

"My job essentially," said Highfield, "will be to further convey the word of the Lord to the people there and undertake still further Christian education work."

In his own words, Highfield described his thoughts on his assignment and the importance of it.

"I'm going to serve the Lord Jesus Christ and I know that this is where God has called me."

Rod and his family — they have three children, Randy, 10, Cheryl, 7, and Linda, 5 — have been in Plymouth and Saginaw visiting friends and relatives since July.

THE PLYMOUTH MAIL Wednesday, October 3, 1962 3

An open house is being planned for them at the home from 2 to 5 p.m. and all of Highfield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Besse, 449 lives are invited.

Timothy Lutheran Church Dedication Service Oct. 7

Dedication services for a major expansion of Timothy Lutheran church in Livonia are scheduled for Oct. 7 with a nationally known churchman as dedicatory speaker. The church is located at Wayne and Joy Rds.

Dr. Fredrik A. Schlotz, president of the American Lutheran Church from Minneapolis, Minn., will preach the dedication services, assisted by Rev. Glenn Wegmeyer, Timothy's pastor.

The expansion includes nearly 8,000 square feet of worship and church school area for the five year old Livonia church which is located at 8820 Wayne Rd.

Daniels and Zernack of Ann Arbor are the architects for the two level structure and the general contractor is Burger Construction Co. of Plymouth. Cost of the construction is approximately $91,000.

Besides heading the American Lutheran Church, Dr. Schlotz is recognized nationally as a leading churchman. He represented the ALC at the recent World Council of Churches meeting in New Delhi, India. He will preach at both the 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. services.

According to Clifford Merriott, chairman of the building committee, this expansion project has pulled the Timothy congregation together in a way never before experienced. The members not only supported the project financially by the purchase of debenture bonds, but designed the worship center and built the chancel furniture.

More than 100 men, women and young people have assisted in the fabrication of furniture, including pews. The worship center will seat 300 at one service. The first floor of this two story addition will be used for educational and fellowship purposes. The congregation membership of 400 adults dedicated its mission chapel in November of 1957. Worship services are held each Sunday at 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. with church school at 9:45 a.m.

MR. AND MRS. VOTER OF THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH:

Regarding the question of the sale of spirits for on-premises consumption for the City of Plymouth

AN ECONOMIC QUESTION or A MORAL ISSUE

(As some might have you believe)

Here is an example of the economic importance of the liquor industry in Michigan. Since repeal Michigan citizens have realized over one billion dollars in clear net revenue from the sale of spirits. This fiscal year will produce over 100 million dollars in net revenue. Plymouth citizens receive their share of benefits from this revenue in the following manner —

Here's what the other '63's wish they looked like.

Today — Wide-Track Pontiac '63

Obvious, isn't it, that Pontiac's come up with another beauty this year. Fresh over-and-under headlights, clean profile—but you can see that. There's a wider Wide-Track, too, and a full line of Trophy V-8's. (That ought to be enough to make those other cars turn green.) And we haven't mentioned such happy touches as self-adjusting brakes. So what, pray tell, could be keeping you from a new Pontiac of your own? A small suggestion. Don't run down to see one. Gallop! Wide-Track Pontiac

It's New Car Unveiling Time Again

As the annual introduction of new cars takes the limelight, interested buyers, and curiosity-seekers throng to new car showrooms across the nation.

Plymouth is no exception. Already, residents here have viewed the 1963 Chevrolts and Fords and are awaiting the official unveiling of the other new models, with one eye on automobile glamour and performance and the other on the family pocketbook.

The following is a partial description of some of the new cars for 1963. Other new models will be described later.

FORD

The 1963 Fords were placed on view at Paul J. Wiedman,

Inc. last Friday amidst considerable celebration and activity. Numerous Plymouths already have visited the showroom and hundreds more are expected over the next few weeks and on into the new model year.

The '63 Fords are described as "The most service-free American cars offered." They feature a 36,000-mile lubrica-line for 1963, including a convertible in the Falcon series.

CHEVROLET

The 1963 Chevrolets, also, were unveiled last Friday. Ernest J. Allison, Inc. displayed the extensive line of new Chevrolets and drew large crowds during the first days with indications that the interest will keep up indefinitely.

series include a complete line of body styles, a new 'twin-stick' floor mounted transmission option, a console mounted between the bucket seats, a double-safety brake system.

New model designations are used on the 1963 Americans — including 220, 330, 440 and 440-H — superseding the Deluxe, Custom and 400 designations of last year.

An exclusive American feature — introduced last year — is the optional E-Stick transmission, which has automatic clutching action thus eliminating the clutch pedal. A synchromesh transmission is standard equipment. The normal change interval for engine oil is 4,000 miles.

Three six-cylinder engines, with a displacement of 195.6 cubic inches, are available in the Rambler American series. Standard engine on the 440 model has overhead valves and develops 125 horsepower. It is optional on the 220 and 330 models.

CADILLAC

New Cadillacs will be unveiled at Beginger Oldsmobile-Cadillac on Friday, Oct. 5.

For 1963, Cadillac will display increased size, a number of engineering accomplishments in the engine and drive line, and additional emphasis on comfort and convenience.

There will be 12 models in 1963, comprised within three basic series. Although the wheel-base is unchanged over a year ago, 11 models are one inch longer.

Mainstay of the Cadillac line is the Fleetwood Sixty Special, while the two-door models — Coupe de Ville and Series Sixty-Two coupe — share the spotlight.

Heading the list of mechanical accomplishments is a new engine, which is lighter, more durable and more efficient. Horsepower remains at 325 and cubic displacement is 390 inches. Compression is rated at 10.5 to 1.

TOP-OF-THE-LINE for 1963 Fords will be the luxurious Galaxie 500-XL convertible. The new Fords went on display last Friday at Paul J. Wiedman, Inc. here.

RESTYLED CHEVROLET Corvette made its 1963 debut last Friday at Ernest J. Allison, Inc. here. The Corvette convertible (above) is available in seven colors, with either folding top, removable hardtop, or both.

TWO NEW convertibles join the Mercury Comet line in 1963. The new cars will go on display Oct. 4 at West Bros. Mercury-Comet dealership here.

OLDSMOBILE

The 1963 Oldsmobiles go on display at Beginger Oldsmobile-Cadillac on Oct. 4.

Olds has designed its new models for broader appeal tion interval along with soft-riding "compliance-link" suspension.

Basic member of the full-size Fords is the Galaxie which accounts for approximately 46 per cent of Ford Division sales.

"The consumer trend to sporty and luxurious cars keynotes both the styling and the many comfort and convenience features offered in all 1963 Galaxies," explained one Ford official.

Features on the Galaxie include an optional Thunderbird-type swing-away steering column for easier entrance. An all-new, three-speed manual transmission is standard on all Galaxie models.

The 360-cubic-inch Challenger engine, designed to

A significant advance in the 1963 model Chevrolets is the extension of the warranty to 24 months or 24,000 miles. Chevrolet general manager, Semon Knudsen announced that the prices of the new Chevrolets will remain unchanged from last year.

Chevrolet offers 33 models in four separate categories, each aimed at a specific segment of the buyer market.

Traditional big car emphasis on luxury is continued in the new regular Chevie, while Chevy II will continue its basic styling of the previous models in that series. Chevy II will offer a Super Sport option on its Nova 400 coupe and convertible. Corvair, meanwhile, features limited styling changes within its eight models. The Cor-operate on regular fuel and custom performance, is available at 35 different levels through various combinations of six engines.

In all there are 14 models within the standard Galaxie line. There are 44 different models throughout the Ford vair now has self-adjusting brakes.

Corvette — in its 10th year on the market — is redesigned and re-engineered for the first time. On all 1963 Chevrolets on newer cars, engine oil change is recommended at 6,000 miles or 60 days. Chassis lubrication is recommended at 6,000 miles or six months.

MERCURY-COMET

Two convertibles and a number of cost-reducing maintenance improvements will be observed within the 1963 Mercury-Comet line, which will be unveiled Thursday, Oct. 4, at West Bros. Mercury-Comet dealership here.

The convertibles — with power-operated tops — are offered in the custom series and the S-22 series, a bucket-seat version of the Comet.

The major lubrication service cycle has been boosted to 36,000 miles, with minor lube intervals of 6,000 miles. Self-adjusting brakes are also redesigned to last longer than previously.

The 1963 Comet will not require initial servicing until either six months or 6,000 miles have elapsed. Over all styling theme of the Comet has been maintained with minor appearance changes in the grille, rear ornamentation and tail-lamps.

Two six-cylinder engines have been improved. They are the standard 144-cubic-inch power plant and the 170-cubic-inch engine. An improved carburetor has been designed to make both Comet engines perform better.

An optional four-speed floor-mounted manual transmission is in keeping with the sporty trend of Comet. A two-speed Merc-O-Matic transmission is also available.

Comet comes in 12 models. RAMBLER

Fiesta Rambler will display its new models here on Oct. 5, although the company introduced its 1963 compact Rambler American series last Thursday.

Features and improvements in the new American ing, a strong model identification and a number of engineering and passenger comfort improvements.

A total of 26 models will be available, ranging from the F-85 to the regular-sized cars to the sporty Starfire. The Starfire is a full-size sports car.

The Oldsmobile 98 has been described as the most luxurious ever offered by the Lansing auto producer. A new model in the 98 series is the custom sports coupe, which provides bucket seats, a power console and the power of the Starfire engine.

A 50 per cent reduction in the size of the front floor tunnel was noted as a significant improvement to interior front-seat floor space and the rear tunnel is four inches narrower.

All 1963 full-size Oldsmobiles are powered by 394-cubic-inch engines, designed for use with premium grade fuel. The Rocket engine — stand on the Dynamic 88 — produces 280 horsepower and features a two-barrel carb and 10.25 to 1 compression. Meanwhile, the Starfire engine develops 345 horsepower and is standard on the 98 Custom Sports Coupe and the Starfire as well.

A three-speed synchromesh transmission is standard on the F-85's and the Dynamic and Super 88's.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS-AT-HEART

By MELVIN L. WOLL, Mgr. INFORMATION DIVISION MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

Farm Labor Coalition?

"If only farmers would join labor unions, what strength we would have!" This wishful statement is commonly heard around the labor bargaining tables.

But somehow, the appeal for a farm-labor coalition is received with something less than enthusiasm by agriculture. Farmers have grown cynical over the years from hearing too many political promises, — and seeing too little sincerity on the part of

You can find your way back to health if you will prayerfully follow the instructions contained in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy. In this great book you will find a full explanation of the method of Christian Science healing.

Christian Science holds unwaveringly to the truth in the first chapter of Genesis that "God saw every thing that He had made, and behold, it was very good." Thus Christian Science restores the invalid to health.

TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF THE PLYMOUTH MAIL

10 YEARS AGO

A 10-woman crew kicks off "Operation Registration" here tomorrow by setting up an all-day-long registration booth in the S. S. Kresge company store.

An urgent city-wide plea is being made this week by the Plymouth Symphony Society for $4,300 in subscriptions, essential to meet its 1952-1953 operating budget.

A new column makes its appearance in The Mail this week called "Chips From the Rock."

The Chamber of Commerce Christmas lighting committee is already making plans for decorating Plymouth's streets for the holidays.

Overseas Christmas gifts for members of the armed forces and American civilian employees of the armed forces should be mailed between Oct. 12 and Nov. 15, according to George Timpona, local postmaster.

A half-million dollar expansion and building program to get underway here possibly by next year was revealed last week by an official of the Dunn Steel Products company.

There seems to be nothing safe in this area these days. Saturday night thieves visited the Peerless Industries plant on Territorial Rd. and removed a Brown and Sharpe automatic screw machine from the production line.

A $40,000 fire fought for 10 hours by four fire departments and 150 inmates completely destroyed a barn last Friday at the Detroit House of Correction.

E. S. Evans, Jr., president of Evans Products Co., announced this week acquisition of a new $1,500 plywood plant at Winchester, Ore.

Private James Law, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh E. Law of Ann Arbor Rd., sailed on Friday Sept. 20, from San Francisco for active duty in Korea.

An estimated 2,800 people attended the Northville-Plymouth football game last Friday night. It was one of the largest crowds ever to attend a local game and seats were available for only 1,900 fans.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Rice have returned to their home from Fyfe Lake where they have been vacationing. Mrs. Rice is recovering from blood poisoning.

25 YEARS AGO

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Rorbacher, Velda and Gerald, and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Jewell were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McLaughlin of Carleton.

The Loyal Daughters Class of the First Baptist church met at the home of Miss Evelyn Schackleton Tuesday with 29 present.

About 60 friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Van Tassel recently for a farewell party in honor of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nadeau, who are leaving to make their home at Billings, Montana.

The Misses Laurabelle Wileodon and Erma Bridge entered Michigan State Normal college as freshmen this week.

There were 21 present at the Burgett reunion held Sunday in Riverside Park. Guests attended from Plymouth, Detroit, Mt. Clemens, and Port Huron.

Redford Union Spoils Homecoming for Rocks, 18 - 14

Redford Union engineered an aerial invasion of Plymouth's 1962 Homecoming festivities last Friday night in an assault that would have done justice to the 82nd Airborne Division.

In the season's first conference adventure for both teams, the invading RU grid-ders pinned an 18-14 defeat on the Rocks, for Plymouth's first loss of the year.

The game left Plymouth's Homecoming fans among them new-crowned Homecoming Queen Vickie McCuaig — both chilled and bewildered. They were:

Chilled in the face of a brisk cold wind that knifed inside up-turned coat collars, and bewildered that such an awesome passing attack could be fashioned by a mere high school team which last year lost five of eight battles.

Relying on the slin-shot arm of quarterba. Check

Shelton, Redford Union amassed a total of 291 yards in the air. Shelton, who threw nine touchdown passes a year ago, connected on 16 of 26 attempts and two TD's to squelch Plymouth's hopes.

His touchdown tosses went to his favorite target of the evening, end Carroll Fifield. One covered 45 yards and the other 13. Fifield emerged from the game with as much success as Shelton, as the speedy sure-handed end pulled down eight passes, good for 229 yards.

Except for the loss, no one was disappointed in Plymouth's own individual performance.

The Rocks played perhaps better than they have in several seasons but simply could not come with the pinpoint passing accuracy of Redford Union's slender signal-caller. Plymouth quarterback Dick Schryer did all he could to off-set the devastating aerial attack that Redford Union unleashed from the very start of the contest.

Schryer, weary from a week-long bout with a virus, directed Plymouth 81 yards in nine plays to a touchdown their hands on the ball. A 21-yard pass from Schryer to sophomore right halfback Gary Grady was the clincher. Schryer kicked the extra point.

Late in the fourth period, with Plymouth trailing, 12-7, Schryer thrilled everyone with a stunning 85-yard touchdown run on a punt return. That score came only moments after Redford Union had first surged into the lead.

It gave the Rocks — after Grady booted the extra point — a slender, yet seemingly comfortable, 14-12 advantage with only 5:19 left.

But Shelton continued his passing wizardry and literally stole the victory from the hopeful Rocks. RU's winning touchdown came with less than three minutes remaining.

Starting at mid-field, Redford Union swiftly marched deep into Plymouth territory and Shelton put the game on ice for the visitors by hitting Fifield in the Plymouth secondary for a 13-yard gain and the touchdown.

Fifield spun almost untouched over the Plymouth goal as Homecoming fans moaned the Rocks misfor-Shelton's intentions became clear at the very out-set of the game. On the first play from scrimmage, after Plymouth kicked off, Shelton lofted a pass to Fifield, who almost beat the Plymouth defenders completely.

As it was, he reached the Plymouth 10 before being tackled. The play covered 66 yards and set the stage for what was to follow.

It didn't look particularly ominous at first, however, as Plymouth's defense dug in and the Rocks took over on downs at their own 19. Schryer moved Plymouth ahead with precision and hit Grady with his scoring toss to send the locals into the lead.

That margin held up until the first play of the fourth quarter.

Redford Union got underway mid-way in the third period and was stationed on Plymouth's four as the quarter ended. A 31-yard pass to Fifield was the key to RU's advance.

Fullback Vic Pegg dived over for the touchdown. But Plymouth still led when the extra point attempt failed.

Redford Union cleverly followed up this score with an on-sides kick that worked as the visitors recovered the short punt on Plymouth's 45. Shelton's pass missed Fifield on the first play after the recovery, but the next one connected and RU went ahead 12-7.

Following this score, Redford Union elected to punt all the way and Schryer gathered the kick in at his 15. Slicing toward the left sidelines, he picked up blockers.

At his own 45, Schryer cut back, headed for the far sidelines and raced all the way, covering the last 30 yards with at least four teammates guarding him.

He crossed the goal and, exhausted by the grueling all-out run that covered more than 100 yards all told, collapsed in the end-zone. Moments later, though, he was up and blocking in the backfield as Grady booted the extra point that gained the Rocks a short-lived two-point lead.

There was 5:19 remaining, and as it developed ample time for the skillful Shelton to direct Redford Union's winning touchdown in a r.c.h. Schryer, in the waning minutes of the game, tried his best to get off a long scoring pass but his receivers were too well covered on four straight attempts.

The ball went over to Redford Union at mid-field with 51 seconds left.

It was the first time since 1952 that Redford Union has beaten Plymouth in football. The Rocks stayed almost entirely on the ground in contrast to RU's aerial efforts.

Plymouth gained 231 yards in the air for a total of 282. Redford Union had a net rushing total of eight yards, but Shelton's passing more than made up for this deficiency. He completed 16 of 26 pass attempts for 291 yards and at one point had six straight completions.

Plymouth coach Mike Hoben tabbed Shelton as the "best high school passer" he has seen in his years of coaching.

Hoben also paid high tribute to Plymouth's entire team. "I think we out-played them from a stand-point of fundamentals, we were hitting harder and our defensive line did a great job," he said. "But we just couldn't defend against Shelton's passes and that's what beat us, just like the statistics say."

Sophomore left-half Roger Tobey was Plymouth's leading ground gainer with 45 yards on five carries. Schryer himself gained 32 yards from scrimmage on running plays and twice made good on quarterback sneaks on 4th down to earn Plymouth two extra first downs.

Next opponent for Plymouth is Allen Park. The game, at Allen Park, is Friday at 8 p.m.

Cross Country Team Picks Up First Win

The Rocks' cross country squad blasted Allen Park, 16-41, last Friday afternoon on the course at Riverside Park and thus engineered Plymouth's first victory into the victory column this season.

Plymouth's cross country record is one win against three defeats.

Team captain Denny Knapp, the only senior running on the squad, led Plymouth over the two-mile course and paced the finishers in 11:41.

The Rocks relied entirely on juniors and sophomores to wrap up the remainder of the contest as Skip Otwell and Larry Oldford, both juniors, claimed second and third, respectively, and sophomore Jim McKindles gained a fourth-place spot.

Otwell's time was 11:51, Oldford finished in 12:10 and McKindles in 12:13. Allen Park's Al Breisch barely trailed McKindles to become the "slacker" first finisher in 12:25.

Other finishers for Plymouth were Hal Kuisel, who was fifth in 12:19, Ray Christensen (ninth) in 12:41, and John Bowers (14th) in 12:58.

13:13. Kuisel and Bowsman are juniors while Christensen is a 10th grader.

"Our times were improved slightly," remarked Plymouth team coach John Sandmann later, "and it's going to do us a lot of good from a morale stand-point to have a victory under our belts."

Previously, Plymouth had lost three straight cross country contests.

"Allen Park was not a particularly strong team, however," Sandmann added.

A junior varsity meet followed the varsity battle with Plymouth again picking up the winner's tag. The Jay-Vee's won the Allen Park junior squad, 25-37.

Next on the agenda for the Rocks is Belleville here this Friday afternoon, again at the course in Riverside Park. Meet-time is 4 p.m.

To Enlarge, Light, Hockey Rink Here

With a $250 contribution from the Plymouth Jay-Cees, work began last Saturday on enlarging and modifying the recreation ice hockey rink behind the high school.

The Jay-Cees appropriated the money — much as they did a year ago when they donated $500 — so that the rink could be expanded to near regulation size.

"We wanted to get the rink as close to regulation size as possible," said Jim McKindles, president of the Plymouth Hockey Assn. "And thanks to the Jay-Cees, we'll be able to do it."

Volunteer help was the key to the modification work itself Saturday. After the work is finished, the rink will measure 192' x 88' and will essentially meet the regulation requirements of 200' x 85' overall.

Another donation to the Plymouth Hockey Assn. will result in lighting facilities for the rink, McKindles said. The Universal Lithograph Co. in Ypsilanti contributed $250 for this purpose.

"Lighting a rink would normally run a lot more than that," McKindles pointed out, "but I think we'll be able to get the job done with some careful economy and more volunteer assistance."

The lighting installation will get started as soon as the enlarging work is completed.

Pick A Team Any Team . . .

As Plymouth was bowing to Redford Union, 18-14, in a suburban six league football opener last Friday night, the four other schools in the conference were similarly inaugurating their league schedules.

Allen Park, in fact, took particular delight in its premier performance for 1962.

The Parkers upset highly-favored Belleville, 13-12, by scoring the winning touchdown in the last 13 seconds of the game. A week earlier, Belleville had mauled Melvindale by a 38-7 count, the same team that Allen Park barely defeated, 14-7, two weeks previously.

Elsewhere in the Suburban Six race Friday, Trenton defeated neighboring Livonia-Bentley by a 20-7 margin, in a game that went much as advertised.

Of the six teams in the conference, only one — Bentley — is tabbed as a "weak sister" this fall. The remaining five all share thoughts of a league crown.

The standing in the conference:

W	L
Redford Union	1 0
Trenton	1 0
Allen Park	1 0
PLYMOUTH	0 1
Belleville	0 1
Bentley	0 1

Grid Brothers Win and Lose, By Same Score

Ah, the mysteries of life — and football.

Dick Egloff, junior end and linebacker for the Rocks, was in the thick of things all evening last Friday as Plymouth absorbed its first defeat of the season at the hands of Redford Union.

The score was 18-14 in favor of the invading Rutgers.

Saturday afternoon, another Egloff — Randy, to be exact — played a key role in Yale University's opening win of the new season.

Yale's Egloff, brother of Plymouth's Egloff and a 1960 graduate of PHS, caught a pass in the final minutes to help the Eli's to the win.

The score: 18-14.

Fires Ace

Carl Schultz, of 1181 South Harvey, fired a hole-in-one at Hilltop Golf Club last Friday using a No. 8 iron on the 117-yard fourth hole.

Playing with Stephen Schomberger, Schultz hit his iron shot perfectly, thus scoring the first ace of his golfing career. He had a 47 for the round.

To Fill College Board Vacancy By Appointment

The vacancy on the Board of Trustees of the Northwest Wayne County Community College — caused by the death of A. Ward McCain on Sept. 17 — will be filled by special appointment within the near future, it was indicated this week.

A Livonia resident will be appointed by the Trustees to fill out the remainder of McCain's term which expires in 1964.

Thus — and according to requirement — school district representation on the Board of Trustees will remain the same as it has been in the past. The Board numbers seven members, normally.

McCain, who lived at 18901 Shadyside, died after a lingering battle with cancer. He was 61 and served as the secretary on the Community College's Board of Trustees. He had been a member of the Livonia School Board for 15 years, including several terms as president.

Meanwhile, the Community College announced the addition of two more professional employees, bringing the number of professional staff members to six.

A director of technical education and an assistant librarian are the most recent additions. James H. Dotseth, the new director of technical education, is a former trade and industrial education consultant for the State Department.

He will study the technical needs of the community, assist in formulating advisory committees recommend various technical programs of instruction, assist technical teachers in the organization of courses of study, and aid in the placement of technical students.

The new assistant librarian is Edmund S. Snyder, who will be in charge of cataloging and also will help in book selection, reference work and library policies.

Snyder was previously employed at Swarthmore College in the library, and for several years was in charge of the Cranbrook library, during which time he developed a collection of 10,000 volumes there.

While Dotseth will not begin his duties at the Community College until Oct. 8, Snyder planned to start this week.

Chips from the ROCK

In the last few weeks I have been exposed to my first entanglements with the Michigan Employment Security Commission. While in the Legislature I had a slight brush with this arm of Michigan's government trying to help a local car dealer who felt he was given an unfair ruling in his dealings with this agency. To this day I still don't know how he finally came out with his problem, and to this day I didn't realize the complexity and problems that can confront an employer even though his cause is most innocent.

In my recent experiences I have been dealing with two cases where the employees actually quit their jobs. One verbally and one in writing and each in front of witnesses. As far as I was concerned there was no reason for either to make such a decision, and as far as that is concerned both could still be working at this minute with us if they hadn't chosen to do otherwise.

It was my impression that when an employee quit there was no basis for filing a claim for unemployment against an employer. This is not true and the resultant strain and costs imposed on the business firm caused by these employee actions is not minute.

The law provides an opportunity for any employee under any circumstance to file a claim against his former employer. On the basis of the employees claim and the answer of the employer a determination is made by the commission. The loser of this first determination is then privileged to file for a hearing before a referee in one of the State's offices. Here witnesses may be heard and testimony supporting both sides of the argument may be heard.

After the referee renders his decision the loser may again ask for another hearing in which only the first submitted testimony may be reviewed. After this the final fourth decision if the ruling still isn't to a claimants liking there is provided a costly opportunity to appeal to the courts. Imagine, then, if you will, the time and effort necessary to fight a claim as an employee or the time and effort necessary if you are an employer.

There is no question in my mind but what there is ample justification for such an act on the books of the State because there are many people and places that would take advantage of any, of many, justifiable claims. On the other hand many people and business firms are unfairly punished and inconvenienced by the unnecessarily long procedures involved under the total act.

The costs are not only high to those involved but the costs to the State are high as well. It seems to me that this agency could streamline the attainment of its final decision by making the decision of the referee or referees final and let this be the stopping place for all argument rather than having further reviews and court actions.

It is our opinion that in practically all of these cases the facts are stated in the first claims filed and in the first rebuttal. If the Commission's determination is disapproved then much effort and many dollars could be saved by all concerned if the ruling of the referees was the final one. The right of appeal is basic under our American system but in cases such as these it is my opinion most of the decisions could be made in all fairness to all parties concerned at the level of the referee, thereby eliminating further unnecessary expense and loss of time.

Residents of the City of Plymouth, and only residents of the City of Plymouth, will soon be given an opportunity to vote their preference on the serving of liquor by the glass within city boundaries.

As we look at this proposal at this time we sincerely believe it more an economic question rather than one of morals.

During the last few weeks we have had four or five letters from people who are not residents of the City concerning this proposal. They have been opposed to it and have had some harsh remarks about the same. Four of them lived in Plymouth Township, and for the life of me I can't understand why they haven't mentioned at this time, or before, the two new licenses in the Township. One issued not long ago on W. Ann Arbor Road, and the one approved by the Township board in the last week or two. Their only concern, it seems, is about the sale of spirits in Plymouth and not in the area where they reside.

As a Township resident, which I am, if I were inclined to want to participate in this argument I might be more concerned about more liquor outlets in the Township than I am in the City, because the City certainly offers the finest in policing and control over such establishments where in the Township only spotted policing is possible.

This is only my opinion, however, and I have no intention of dwelling on where liquor will be sold. My interest in the November proposal is one of fairness and discrimination and how those two items can and are now affecting our business community. In the first place it is my opinion that any business legalized by the State has a place in our business area if it is one that will help provide more service and bring more traffic. Liquor by the glass, especially at the Hotel, will do this.

It is common knowledge that many functions go out of the City because discriminatory liquor regulations make it impossible for the Hotel to serve their needs. Weddings, receptions, factory annual meetings, bowling banquets, etc., etc. Most of these functions are primarily serviced by a hotel where in many cases out of town guests are accommodated for over night as well.

Though there has been no actual statement from the Mayflower Hotel in regard to possible enlargement most of us know that the Hotel, or any other similar operation, motel or what have you, would and could not, consider such building or expansion without this additional service.

The last license approved by the Township Board, only a few days ago, was for a new bowling alley, of which we now have none in the city, and which might have been downtown had they been able to add this service to their operation which has now become standard equipment all over the country.

We have two fine eating places in Hillside and Lofy's Arbor Lil each on the edge of our city limits serving spirits, and that is fine. They are a definite asset to this area but for the state to enable them to serve liquor by the glass and not the Hotel is in my opinion discriminatory. In fact, the Liquor Control Commission in Lansing is cognizant of this fact as is the Liquor Committee of the Legislature which four years ago made some effort to relieve hotels throughout the state in similar situations.

This is a situation that none of us here in Plymouth have had any part of except, as city residents, we haven't voted the city commission the power to grant this license which I know they would do gladly if the voters gave them permission.

If we are to enlarge our downtown shopping areas then we must provide more services to draw people. The state license bureau for automobile license plates should be downtown, a liquor outlet should be available for John Q. Public and not only for those who join and pay dues to a private club.

Coincidentally along with the City of Plymouth, Northville and Salem townships are also posing the liquor by the glass question for their voters. In each case both proposals are brought about by discrimination. In Northville the Dun-Rovin Country Club is attempting to get liquor by the glass so it can provide the same services to its clientele as does Meadowbrook Country Club only a couple of miles away. In Salem a new club there is also hopeful of securing a license to serve its 700 members and their guests as did Saddle Ridge when it was operating in that township only a few years ago.

We haven't published the letters mailed us by non-voting people because we are hopeful that this issue can be offered to city residents and voted on by them with dignity. We shall enter into no spirited hassel over the pros and cons. It is most definitely our opinion that the issue should be passed for the good of all concerned and it is our further consideration opinion that if the issue is passed Plymouth's licensees will be given stricter and more complete policing than any area in the out-county district. In fact, it is the opinion of Plymouth's police department that they could cope with any problems caused by this influence better if it was under their supervision downtown than ten or twenty miles distant.
