Age vs. Youth In Scrap For Township Posts

Plymouth Township's rapidly approaching primary election on Feb. 18 presents one of the most interesting races in years for three trustee posts.

It is the first time in history that three trusteeships are open in the same poll—due to the fact that the Township voted to increase the Board membership from five to seven members.

Thus when incumbent C. Veach Sparks ended his two-year term, instead of voting for one trustee, electors will be called upon to pick three candidates for the April 1 election.

Only seven Republicans filed for the primary but the three successful nominees on Feb. 18 will face three Democrats expected to be named in a caucus in the near future. In the April 1 vote, the two receiving the most votes get four-year terms and the third a two-year term.

The seven candidates include three oldtimers in political circles and four comparatively newcomers.

Heading the list of veterans is Sparks, who resides at 44934 Joy Road and is well-known in Plymouth theatrical circles for his performances with the Theater Guild and other amateur groups. Sparks is a Burroughs Corp. executive.

Ralph Garber, 46225 North Territorial Road, is an old hand in politics although a newcomer to the Township races. He is the best known of the candidates outside of Sparks.

Garber is retired but served as chief assistant prosecuting attorney under Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald O'Brien. He is the father of James Garber, president of the Plymouth Community Junior Chamber of Commerce, and has long been interested in Republican affairs.

Frank Millington, 14900 Beck Road, gave up the post of Township Highway Commissioner to seek the job of trustee. He is an executive for the Cadillac Motor Division of General Motors.

The younger candidates, none of whom has resided in the Township as long as the three seniors, have their sights set on winning the three positions.

Dick Lauterbach, 41035 Greenbrook Lane in Lake Pointe Village, was one of the leaders in the movement to increase the Township Board to seven members. He is an industrial arts teacher in the Dearborn school system.

Martin Fleming, 9456 Southworth, is head of the personnel department at the Plymouth plant of Burroughs Corp.

David Katke, 8466 Marilyn, works in quality control at the Rawsonville plant of the Ford Motor Co. He moved to the area three years ago from Lansing and has been active in numerous community functions.

Frederick Berry, 14323 Shadywood in Lake Pointe Village, is employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co.

Although the primary also includes voting for Supervisor, Clerk and Treasurer, no candidates field to oppose Roy Lindsay, Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes and John McEwen — thus the principal interest will be in the trustee race.

Report Shows Plymouth Isn't Paying Way To U. F.

Plymouth is not paying its way for services available from the United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit, in fact it received $19,000 in 1962 for health and welfare services, according to a report prepared for the Board of Directors of the Plymouth Community Fund by Mrs. Ruth Eckstein, a consultant from the University of Michigan.

Her report points out that the PCF can be said to be paying indirectly for some services to individuals or families in UF affiliated communities but it definitely is receiving $19,000 while returning a scant $2,700 to the UF.

The report which touches on numerous subjects related to the Community Fund and Plymouth, points out that the Township will have a greater population than the City by 1970 on the basis of the population trend and projection for the Community.

Mrs. Eckstein projects a population of 10,500 for the City by 1970 and estimates the Township will grow to 16,500 by that time, giving the Community a total of 27,000.

And she points out that this data is significant to community planners because it raises the question of whether the City and Township will converge or diverge as a result of this expansion.

Her report to the Board also was aimed at answering the question of "Should the Plymouth Community Fund dissolve and become a part of the Metropolitan Detroit United Fund?" and that of "If so, what activities now supported would have to be provided by other means?"

She answered the first question by stating that in weighing the problem of affiliation, the PCF should bear in mind that it does not start with a clean slate.

In the area of fund raising, it has de facto already delegated to the UF the responsibility for collections from large firms in the greater metropolitan area. She was referring to the fact that any of the area plants have employ collections and company donations made to the UF with the funds earmarked as going back to the PCF.

Therefore, Mrs. Eckstein points out, the decision to be made concerns the desirability of extending professional fund-raising techniques to the local level, thereby delegating all of the responsibility to the UF and probably increasing the amount collected.

In answering the second question, she wonders if it is necessary to retain autonomy in order to keep fund allocation in close relationship with local problems and needs.

She was referring to the Plymouth Symphony, Veterans Memorial Building, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, which she points out in the report are receiving funds not allocated in other communities or receiving more funds than considered necessary in other places.

If it is necessary for local autonomy, then the problem is how to compensate the UF for the "big city" services used by Plymouth residents in the metropolitan area.

She suggests this could be accomplished by a retainer fee which would enable Plymouth to do its part in the maintenance.

Blind Luck Aided Bandit in Holdup

How much of it was blind luck which permitted a bandit to walk into a branch of the Bank of Livonia at 2:55 p.m. last Tuesday and leave 15 minutes later with $153,000 in bills stuffed into a paper grocery bag?

In the afternoon the branch bank had phoned the main bank (on Five Mile road) for some routine information. When the main bank attempted to call back, there was no answer. Another call on a separate private line wasn't answered either.

The main branch immediately phoned Livonia police to express alarm of a hold-up and the police car arrived five minutes later, while the robber was still inside the building. A chance phone call for routine information—and he almost was caught right in the act.

Blind luck? But so cornered, in a back room of the bank, with two policemen approaching him from the front, the bandit

Corps of FBI, the Livonia police department, bank officials and others were running the devilish question through their minds today as they continued a fevered man-hunt.

The man they seek probably used a 1962 or 1963 blue Falcon two-door for his getaway. He is about 30 years old, about 150 pounds, white, about 5 feet 6.

Two Livonia policemen currently stand suspended from their jobs as the result of their performance at the scene. They arrived at the branch bank on Plymouth road, at Yale, while the bandit was still inside, frantically trying to open a back door to flee. The patrolmen protest the suspension and a hearing will be held soon.

Tips are being phoned the FBI and the police as to men "they should check" and these are being run down, systematically one at a time.

One man was brought to the Livonia station Sunday evening. One of the robbery witnesses thought there might be a resemblance between the 23-year-old Detroit and the robber, but two other witnesses said it wasn't the robber and he was released. He was a "hot" suspect because he had a prison record.

To answer one of the questions: all of the money will be replaced by the bonding company which insures the bank against such possibilities.

The bonding company has offered a reward of 10 percent of the recovered loot to anyone who provides information which leads police to it.

The episode is strewn with distressing coincidences.

The vault, in which the big sums of money are kept, during the day is kept locked by a delayed time device. President Guy Spencer of the Bank of Livonia says that standard operating regulations forbid tripping the time device until after banking hours have been completed—at 3 p.m. Then, it requires 20 more minutes before the vault can be opened . . . say about 3:30.

But it was open when the bandit tried it at 3:05. A vault clerk said he had tripped the timer device early, so he could total up his figures and get home sooner.

If the robber had only been able to scoop up the cash in the teller's cages, his total haul would have been no more than $9,000 or $10,000 at the most. Instead, he left with 15 times that sum—because the vault was open.

Blind luck? Under normal circumstances the branch bank holds no more than $50,000 or $60,000. On the afternoon of Jan. 29 there was more than $200,000. The bandit left more than $50,000 in the tellers' cages and in smaller bills.

Spencer said that the large sum had been ordered to prepare for meeting payroll checks at the week's end. This particular payday fell so that both monthly-paid and weekly-paid employees of the big plants along Plymouth road would be appearing at the same time. This required extra cash. But was it normal to have it on hand two days early? Paydays were Jan. 31 and Feb. 1.

Unusual coincidences? Earlier

A TOKEN of appreciation for his appearance before the Plymouth Kiwanis Club is presented to Detroit Councilman William Patrick by President Walter Gemperline as Plymouth City Attorney Edward Draugelis (center) looks on. Draugelis was program chairman and was responsible for arranging the appearance of Patrick, who is considered one of the outstanding members of Detroit's ruling body.

Plymouth Kiwanis Get Details Of Metro Government

A proposal for a metropolitan government was presented to members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club by Detroit Councilman William Patrick in his address on the topic of "Citizen Participation in Government."

Patrick, who is chairman of the powerful Ways and Means Committee of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors and one of the first Negro members of the Detroit City Council, stressed that citizens should participate in Federal, State, County and local governments as much as time will permit.

Then he went into a discussion of the new type of government, which doesn't exist in Michigan at the moment, and told of the benefits of a metropolitan governing body.

He proposed combining such functions as zoning, planning, water, police, transportation, sewers, air pollution and fiscal problems for a more economical system of operation.

"There are 10 such areas in the state," Patrick said, "these areas have approximately 73 per cent of the state's population. One such section would include Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties."

"Wayne County alone has 25 cities, 14 townships, five incorporated villages, 45 school districts and miscellaneous authorities. Just think how much could be saved by placing these operations under a metropolitan government."

Patrick pointed out that there are continuing meetings of municipal officials as a start in the discussion and an attempt to solve some of the mutual problems.

He mentioned Toronto, Canada and Dade County in Florida, which includes Miami, as two areas where a form of metropolitan government or authority has been put into operation for the benefit of the entire community.

Patrick closed his talk with a quotation from Victor Hugo as a climax saying, "Nothing is more powerful than an idea whose time has arrived" and indicated that the quote aptly explains the present situation in the 10 areas in Michigan.

Chandler said Governor Romney had been advised of the Livonia situation.

FACTS and OPINIONS

by Paul Chandler

Every now and then one encounters a speaker who haunts the memory for days thereafter . . . it happened again at a University of Michigan alumni meeting in Livonia last week.

Roger Leatherman was the man's name. He directs the "Phoenix Project" at the U of M. This is a special program, which for the past 15 years has been paying scientists to experiment around with radioactive materials, seeing how they behave under a variety of conditions.

That's fascinating enough, but at the finish the youngish-appearing, crew-cut scholar began to wrap his remarks with some philosophical thinking.

A concern was whether the American people, when all's said and done, will even want to "face up to" the expanding knowledge and new truth which is boiling forth in the laboratories (and in space) these days.

He thought it quite possible that, when confronted with the vast dollar cost of paying for the schools and research, plus mentally facing the agony of discarding ideas of the world and life which have been sacred for generations, the American people instead "might turn away from all of it, turn on the television, and drink beer . . ."

The foremost question of the hour, he says and we agree, is: "To what degree can society afford to increase its interest in knowledge and science?"

For instance—and Dr. Leatherman provided the parable—somebody in ancient Egypt decided that the best way society could spend its time was to build large pyramids. And a civilization virtually went broke raising large, pointed tombs toward the sky.

Today it might be quite easy to bankrupt our present world with the project of building devices to journey out into space.

If we continue and do build vehicles capable of speeds approaching that of light, and if we send crews out into space on journeys consuming 2,000 or 3,000 years (measured in earth time; we'll skip the subject of relativity today; just assume that such trips are plausible); and if we spent billions and billions of dollars on such adventures—well, is there any point in it?

The same money spread across the surface of the earth obviously would eliminate wholesale suffering, disease, hunger, provide education for mankind, and Heaven alone knows what else.

In a direct way, you and I will make some of the decision here in our suburban living rooms by deciding on how much money to spend on education.

Dr. Leatherman made a considerable point of describing the huge amounts of knowledge and the great depth of educational training which are required in a single brain in these days of atomic living.

Today it is not enough for a man to be a specialized "botanist", in the traditional sense. A typical botany experiment these days, employs a chemist, a metallurgist, a physicist and a couple of others, none of whom are the traditional "botanist" who simply knows the species and parts of growing things.

To be qualified for the work, a man should be educated in a complex of scientific areas. "Total education" might be a descriptive term.

At the same time, new discovery is bringing new crisis-decisions in morals, theology, sociology and the other humanities. The scientist needs more background and education there than he ever has in history. Ex-

Plymouth Commission Works Fast; Accomplishes Plenty

Plymouth's City Commission acted in rapid-fire order Monday in one of the fastest meetings of the new year but touched on the water problems, telephone rates, the City Hall, Reservoir, water main improvements and Fralick parking lot projects and passed a resolution supporting House Bill 62 that will aid the Mayflower Hotel.

Then members voted approval for Mayor Robert Sincoc, City Manager Alfred Glassford and City Attorney Edward Draugelis to make a trip to Washington to meet with Senators and Congressmen for action on the various projects. The trio boarded a plane at 9:05 p.m. Monday for the trip.

The Commission approved Mayor Sincoc's appointment of a committee of three to meet with Detroit water chief Gerald Remus for a discussion of rates for Plymouth should it desire to join the Detroit water system.

The committee includes: Sincoc, Glassford and City Supervisor Arch Vallier. It is expected to make arrangements in the near future for the meeting.

State Rep. Paul Chandler sent a communication to the commission informing it of the pending battle with Michigan Bell over inequities in telephone rates in the area.

The Commission considered a resolution backing Chandler but decided to withhold action for a week pending a special meeting with representatives of the phone company next Monday night.

Hazen Wilson, manager of the Livonia-Plymouth district for Michigan Bell, requested the meeting, asking the Board to withhold passage of a formal resolution until the groups had a chance to discuss the matter.

"We feel this matter is more serious than for the Commission to make a decision without study," he said. "We agree the rates aren't exactly what you want but we also feel that an arbitrary change may cause hardships in other areas. Thus we would appreciate more thought on the subject."

Supervisor Vallier requested the Commission to consider sending a questionnaire to all users of Plymouth water with the next billing, asking their opinion on Detroit water.

Vallier produced figures to show the water rates would increase 124 per cent if Detroit water is accepted and asked the Commission to have the questionnaire show what the customer is paying now and what the bill would be under Detroit rates.

"I feel that the customers should know that a $5 bill for Plymouth water would be more than $10 for that from Detroit," explained Vallier. "If the Commission gets this across to the customers and they return the questionnaires, then the Commissioners will have a better idea of what the water customers want."

The Commission followed action of the Chamber of Commerce in passing a resolution supporting House Bill 62. The bill would permit hotels in a situation similar to that of the Mayflower—a hotel with all services in a dry community without a liquor by the glass permit—to make such sales on approval of the City Commission and the Michigan Liquor Control Commission.

The resolution reads: "Whereas, the Mayflower Hotel employs in excess of 100 persons and is now and will continue to be an important part in the economic future of the Plymouth community, and

"Whereas, House Bill 62 will not only in a general way greatly assist the Michigan tourist industry but specifically will help to strengthen the economic position of the Mayflower Hotel, "Be it resolved that the Plymouth City Commission go on record as supporting this bill and urging its passage."

FREWAY WOULD SPAN LIVONIA

Schoolcraft Tabbed for I-96

Michigan State Highway Department is on the verge of designating Schoolcraft road through Livonia and Redford Township as part of the major I-96 freeway, and Mayor Moelke has been lobbying furiously to have the decision made final and the construction date advanced.

Moelke has visited Lansing and guided the engineers over the terrain here in recent days. Involved is the route by which the main east-west freeway across central Michigan will enter the City of Detroit. Today I-96 is open from Lake Michigan, all the way through Lansing to approximately Grand River and Seven Mile. There it dissolves into Grand River avenue.

HOCKEY AND ICE SKATING keep Plymouth youngsters busy during the current cold spell at the Hamilton playground which is kept up by the Department of Public Works. These boys are getting ready for an impromptu hockey battle.

The new proposed routing would drop I-96 south at approximately Grand River and Haggerty roads. It would continue south until circling easterly on Schoolcraft at Haggerty. Then it would follow the Schoolcraft axis all the way across metropolitan Detroit, interlocking with the John Lodge near Highland Park.

According to the present time-table, if the route is approved, the State would begin to acquire right of way in 1965 and construct immediately thereafter. But Mayor Moelke is attempting to urge greater speed with the project.

The big freeway would border the vital "Industrial Belt" which Livonia is seeking to open between Schoolcraft and the C and O Railroad west of Middlebelt roads. Moelke and the city planners believe the freeway would provide a great impetus to bringing industry into the belt.

It also would be a distinct boon to the Detroit Race Course, which pours millions of dollars into the State treasury from its location at Schoolcraft and Middlebelt. And it would serve the new Community College at Seven Mile and Haggerty, among other things.

The Highway Department purportedly is nearing its final decision right now.

Lady Luck Aided Bandit

still got away. He was armed with a revolver. When the two officers got inside, they heard him rattling the back doors the first made a mistake and tried to get out through the ladies room) frantically seeking escape.

At this very moment, the officers turned around and went back through the front door. One radioed for help, one raced to the rear. When the patrolman arrived at the rear, the door was ajar and the bandit not in sight. The officer went inside the building. The man was fleeing somewhere outside.

Police Chief James Jordan suspended the two men, Archie Hewitt (10 years with the force) and Charles B. Nix (8 years with the force) on the recommendation of Capt. Michael Vorgitch, who arrived at the bank a few minutes after the call and directed operations there.

Letters to the two patrolmen this week, signed by Jordan and Public Safety Director Addison Bacon, said: "The reason for this suspension being to investigate your conduct while on duty before, during and after the hold-up of the bank . . . as soon as a full and complete investigation of the facts and circumstances surrounding said hold-up and your conduct at that time has been completed, you will be formally notified as to the action of the Department of Public Safety in this matter."

Unusual coincidence? Just a few days before, Mayor Moelke had removed Department of Public Safety Director Charles Trick from the post. A new director (Bacon) had been on the job only for a few hours.

The two suspended officers told reporters they were being unfairly punished because they had been cordial with the former safety director. In accordance with sound procedure at the scene of the crime.

A young bank messenger from Plymouth was a witness. He was sitting in his car outside when the first two policemen arrived. It was normal for him to arrive about 3 p.m. and pick up papers and checks to be returned to the main branch. His key opened the lock to admit the policemen through the front door.

It now develops that the messenger had a juvenile crime record before he was hired and only recently came off two years probation. He reportedly left the bank's employment this week and was employing heavy questioning Monday afternoon.

Packaging Corp.'s Sales, Earnings Dip

EVANSTON, Ill.—Sales of PACKAGING CORPORATION of America, for the six months ended December 31, 1962, totaled $63,707,170 compared to $68,069,180 for the same period a year ago. Packaging Corp. has a plant in Plymouth, Mich.

Net earnings, after provision for preferred dividends, were $835,626 or 21 cents per common share, compared to last year's six months earnings of $2,983,085, or 75 cents per common share.

Labor disruptions, primarily a 12 week strike at the Rittman, Ohio paperboard mill, folding carton plant, and corrugated container plant and a 10 day work stoppage at the Filer City, Michigan paperboard mill caused most of the decrease in sales and earnings.

Report Reveals How Plymouth Changed

of these services when needed or by having the PCF pay the cost of these services actually used, or by a combination of both.

Mrs. Eckstein's study shows that less than one-half of the persons living in Plymouth have been there for five or more years. More than one-sixth of the population, or 2,500 new persons came to the community from other parts of the country since 1955.

This enriched the community by the cultural difference they brought with them, or presented it with the problem of integrating them culturally as well as socially.

Contrary to a recent brochure of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. Eckstein revealed that "workers in the area are not all possessed with a high educational level or background," and produced figures that show one-fifth of the residents over 25 years of age have had eighth grade or less education.

Her report shows that 23 per cent of Plymouth's 6,400 employed workers in 1960 were in the unskilled class. In fact, 1-400 Plymouth residents are in occupations most vulnerable to unemployment, occupational displacement and educational handicaps in retraining.

Figures comparing family incomes for the community in 1959, show that 22 per cent of the City's residents earned less than $4,999 and 17 per cent in the $5,000 to $9,999 class against 55 per cent in the Township and had 28 per cent in the $10,000 and over group compared to 28 per cent in the Township.

The report shows that there are a sizeable number of families in the very low and very high income brackets with 181 making less than $1,999 and 80 in the above $25,000 class.

Mrs. Eckstein indicated that Plymouth has experienced the passing of the days when the population was homogenous, with "everyone" accepting the value of a fine school system and pitching in to shape the general character and quality of the community.

The present day population has many people who come from outside of Plymouth and who do not feel that they are fully part of it or responsible for it.

Some of the oldtimers have not recognized the significance of the changed size and nature of the community and also have some sense of alienation. What is lacking therefore is not an able or dedicated citizenry but rather a new unity and a consciousness for aiming for it.

In the face of attacks on special educational services as "frills" at a time when increasing size and turnover in school population makes them all the more necessary, the school has begun to exert less leadership in the community, both to protect educational standards and to encourage the development of communal aids and resources.

Recognition of the need to do a job of public relations and to interpret itself has come upon the heels of a new awareness that there are those in the community who do not realize what makes the school system good, that there is a relationship between low delinquency and good schools, and that within the schools themselves, there is a need to be more open to the participation and constructive criticism of the newcomer.

Kids Show Amazing Speed In Swim Meet

Competing in 16 events, the youngsters of Plymouth's AAU-sanctioned Swim Club marked their first intra-club meet a week ago and pronounced themselves ready to take on all comers.

Top marks for the meet in the Plymouth High pool were posted by 12-year-old Mary Raafilaub who won the 50-yard freestyle in a time of 31.1 and posted a time of 34.8 in the 50-yard backstroke. Her time in both events topped all age groups among the boys and girls. Best time in the breast stroke was 45.2 by 15-year-old Sue Ward.

Coach John McFall and Swim Club Chairman Jim Gretzinger were amazed with the times and the turnout. Medals were awarded to the first place winners in all events.

Plymouth High Band Nets $250

The Plymouth High School band is one-third of the way to raising the $3500 needed for the annual week of training at the Interlochen Music Camp in August according to Director James Griffith.

Griffith indicated the bandsmen raised more than $250 from the fish fry in the Plymouth High cafeteria a week ago despite the extremely cold weather.

The band will hold a second candy sale later in the spring and then sponsor a tag day in connection with its annual concert in May.

Nativity United Church of Christ Dedicates Education Unit Sunday

Dedication ceremonies for the new educational unit of Nativity United Church of Christ, Henry Ruff at West Chicago, will be held at the regular 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Worship Hours on Sunday, Feb. 10. The sermon will be preached by the assistant pastor of Nativity Church, Douglas S. Albert, who has special responsibilities in the field of Christian Education.

An Open House will also be held on Sunday, Feb. 10, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. so the general public may have an opportunity to view the expanded facilities of the church, according to Pastor

I. Kenneth Shreiner. The Open House will also enable Nativity members and friends to visit the departments in which their children are enrolled and speak to teachers.

The addition provides for a Crib Room, a Care Class, a 3 Year Old Nursery, a Kindergarten, a Primary and a Confirmation classroom. These departments were able to move into their new quarters in Deember, 1962, which allowed the Lower and Upper Junior Departments of the church school to move from Jefferson School, where they had previously been meeting, to the church building. A Church Furnishings Committee, composed of Chairman Richard Pannier, Church School Superintendent Mrs. Alex Rabchuk and Ralph Cann has been appointed to plan for and purchase the new equipment necessary for the unit. Some of the furnishings will be added Altar Guild Memorial Fund donations, according to Mrs. Billy Dane, Altar Guild President. Each church school department will be presented as memorials from previous work of art in memory of Laura Lentz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Lentz. The Pastor's Study and the 3 Year Old Nursery will be furnished in memory of Mizel Shreiner, wife of the pastor of Nativity, who, until the time of her death, served as superintendent of the Nursery. The draperies in the church office and the Kindergarten will be provided for from the General Memorial Fund.

Plymouth Church Of Christ To Be Dedicated Sunday

Sunday, Feb. 10th, the Plymouth Church of Christ will have Open House and formal dedication services in their new building. Willard Collins, evangelist in a recent meeting in Nashville, Tenn., attended by 90,467 in eight days, will speak at 10:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

New facilities of the Plymouth church are located at 9301 Sheldon Road. This is one half mile west of the old building and just south of Ann Arbor Road (M-14).

Reeder Oldham, minister of the Plymouth Church of Christ, has announced that the outstanding Christian educator and gospel preacher will speak on "What Is the Church of Christ?" at 3:00 p.m.

Collins has been vice-president of David Lipscomb College since 1946 and was at one time National President of the Lipscomb Alumni Association. Many alumni of the Nashville college live in the Detroit area, and at the first week. Ground-breaking ceremonies were held July 4th and actual construction started two or three weeks later.

Mr. E. R. Jones, Sr. of Memphis, Tennessee and father of one of the Plymouth members, was Paden's superintendent on the job.

The building is modern and functional. It has an area of 24,526 square feet. This is broken down into an 800 seat auditorium, classrooms, nine restrooms, lounge, nursery, two offices, kitchen, fellowship hall, furnace rooms, large foyer, coat rooms, hall ways, covered drive, etc. There are now 26 single classroom areas, one double room and two other areas that could be divided into as many as 17 more class rooms. This makes for a potential of 45 classrooms, which is probably the greatest number anywhere in the North Central area among Churches of Christ.

Off street parking is being provided for 200 cars. This will be nearly 1 1/2 acres of paved parking lot.

Total cost of the building proper is about $148,000. Sewer, parking lot, furniture, etc. runs another $30,000.

Elders of the Plymouth church are W. F. Albright, Clark G. Finley and James Ward. Floyd E. Albright and Nick G. Baggett, Sr. are deacons. Ministers are Reeder Oldham and Billy Nicks.

Dale Kaiser was chairman of the building committee. Other members were W. H. Baskins, Clark Finley, Evan Flippen and Herbert Smithson. Reeder Oldham was chairman of bond sales.

Reeder Oldham began with the church in July 1960. In September 1962 the second minister was added in the person of Billy Nicks.

The present membership of the church is about 225.

the present time 64 Michigan residents are enrolled, making it the fifth ranking state in furnishing students for Lipscomb.

Oldham said alumni, patrons and other supporters of the college are especially invited to attend the dedication service, which is also open to all who wish to come.

This open house and dedication service will be the culmination of more than a year and a half of planning by the Plymouth congregation. The 4.19 acres in Plymouth Township on which the building is erected was purchased for $19,000, in November, 1961. A contract was signed with Paden Construction Company in April, 1962. A $150,000 issue of Security Plan, Inc. bonds were sold in June, 1962. Forty-nine households in the congregation took 42% of this issue. They were 90% sold

Con-Con Debate Heard by JC's

A debate on the proposed new Michigan Constitution in Redford Township Monday night featured two Democrats—one pro and one con.

Tom Downs, attorney for the United Auto Workers and vice-chairman of the Constitutional Convention, spoke against the proposed document, while John McCalley, chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors and a former Con-Con delegate, spoke for the Constitution.

Scene was Redford Union High School before the annual stag night dinner of the Redford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce.

'Curtain Going Up'

By WALLY ROBERTS

At Wayne State U "The Rivals" transferred audiences back to their old England of the 18th Century. This vanished period of life in England came to life for a few hours through the combined skills of the director, scene designer, and the actors. Margaret Spear, the perspicacious director, kept the action flowed swiftly and meaningfully. Her actors knew what lines to punch and how to skillfully build each scene to its hilarious conclusion.

Howard Eagan, long a leading light of the Livonia-Redford Players Guild, had the choice part of grumpy, cantankerous Sir Anthony Absolute. He huffed, puffed, and roared as only Howard can. His liberal use of facial gestures provoked the audience to merry laughter. Martin Shakar played his son in his usual consummate correct manner. His tongue-in-cheek approach to the role added extra chuckles. Incidentally, Martin is a Redford Township resident. It was truly a grand night for the local lads.

Beverly Markowitz's Mrs. Malplot was sheer genius. She highlighted every one of her horrible poor choices of words. She was at the "pineapple" of success in this role. I liked Bev better than Claribel Baird over at the U of M when they did this show a couple of years ago. For old Wally to admit such heresy is tantamount to treason. Finally, Joe Barrett, now a TV director with Channel 56) was back as lovable Bob Acres. Odds eyeballs and fishhooks but Joe was a welcome sight. His comic touches with the right amount of pacing, timing gave new life to the country bumpkin. Bob Acres, Joe directed "Harvey" for the Livonia-Redford Players. Let's hope many of his friends in "L-R" group had a chance to see Joe in action. He truly deserved special plaudits for his work in this elaborate production.

The authentic reproduction of the raked stage of the 18th Century stage replete with the two chandeliers, footlights, wings, and drops provided a setting that put the audience in the mood. Each drop showed the artistry of Russ Smith, Tom Aston, and Lawrence Lerew. It's not often that you're treated to such visual consciousness: the blues, mauves, greens, and grays all blended beautifully. "The Rivals" as produced by the Wayne State University Players had an audience that could have all theater groups in the area marveling at such Detroit talent.

Our local "blonde bombshell" (Bey Penberthy) can be seen nightly in the latest Vanguard production, "The Master Builder". Bey plays the demanding role of Hilda, the troll-princess. Hilda is a very dangerous young lady. She's wild, youthful and filled with ruthless vitality. Hilda represents that impetuosity held in check so successfully by our middle-class morality. Will the Master Builder break away from his tame, orderly existence? Old Wally advises you to go down to the Vanguard and find out how the mighty Henrik Ibsen solved the situation. It's powerful, absorbing drama that can give you volumes for thoughtful discussion over that midnight snack.

The Shubert Theater lights up with a surprise visit from Lillian Roth in "I Can Get It For You Wholesale." Larry Kent and company were here with the show last fall at the Fisher. I have a hunch you'll enjoy it a bit more in the Shubert with Miss Roth in charge of the lead role. You have only Friday, Saturday and Sunday to catch her performance. Watch for "Pajama Tops" coming to the Shubert for a three week run.

TWO FINAL ITEMS: "Majority of One" tickets are going fast. Plan to take a whole raft of your friends to this K kosher comic opera. You'll laugh at the antics of Harriet Fernandez. She doesn't sing, but she has a Jewish waltz number in Act One with a Japanese industrialist that is sure to start a new dance rage. Already at rehearsal they are beginning to call it the "Bagel Bounce" or the "Kosher Kimono Special." Regardless of the name you can be assured that you'll have a swell time at the play on either Feb. 15, 16 or Feb. 22, 23.

The Ann Arbor Drama Season is dicker with Durward Kirby to come out this way in May to play in "Father of the Bride." We hope Ted Heusel can complete contractual arrangements. Mr. Kirby's broad humor is always a welcome relief on Garry Moore's show. And Wally Cox is being mentioned for Bob Wall's original comedy, "Money—Who Needs It?" All in all, it looks like a great season on the horizon.

Many Ways to Finance Projects

If you are like most families planning a major remodeling or modernization project, you most likely will find it necessary to borrow some or most of the money to pay for it. In today's money market, home improvement financing is one of the most common types of lending transactions. In fact, home improvements can be financed through a greater variety of techniques than almost any other kind of purchase. Choose Your Plan To choose the one method of financing that is best suited to your particular situation is a basic step in making sure that your remodeling or modernization project will meet all the requirements of a sound investment.

To aid you in making this selection, here is a quick wrap-up of methods of home improvement currently available.

FHA Title 1 Short-Term Loan: You can borrow up to $3,500 with five years to repay under this loan, which is insured by the Federal Housing Administration. It is confined to improvements considered "essential" to the home, such as modernizing kitchens, bathrooms, finishing off extra rooms, etc. Interest usually runs 5% discount on the first $2,500 of the loan, drops to 4% on the balance of the loan. "Discount" interest means that the full interest charges are deducted from the amount of the loan at the outset.

FHA Long-Term Loan (Section 203K): You can borrow up to $10,000 for as long as 20 years. The loan (also insured by the Federal Housing Administration) must be used to make major structural changes in your home, such as adding a new wing. Your dwelling must be at least 10 years old. Simple interest runs around 6%.

Bank Home Improvement Loan: Like a Title 1 Loan, you can borrow up to $3,500 and take five years to repay. The interest varies from 5% to 7% discount. While costing slightly more than Title 1 Loans, bank loans are more flexible. You can use the money for many improvements which are considered "non-essential," and, thus, not eligible for a Title 1 Loan.

Open End Mortgage Loan: If the mortgage on your home contains an "open end" provision, you may be able to borrow on it for home improvements, an amount equal to that which you have already paid off. To handle the added debt, (1) your monthly payment may be increased, or (2) the time of repayment may be increased slightly.

New Mortgages Refinancing Present Mortgage: If your mortgage does not include an "open end" clause, look into the possibility of retiring your present mortgage, by getting a new one large enough to pay off the old loan and also cover the additional cost of your home improvement project.

Personal Bank Loan: If your home improvement project is relatively minor, such as installing storm doors or windows, repainting or the like, you might consider this type of financing.

WOOD FLOOR TIP Scrubbing with soap and water will ruin the appearance of wood floors; in time may cause serious warping and discoloration. Modern floor cleaners have a solvent base which does not harm wood.

Look Into the Remodeling Possibilities

Has your family outgrown the "living space" in your present home? Why not consider adding an extra room in the basement or attic? Or how about enclosing a carport or converting a garage? Careful planning before remodeling can make your home a pleasure for years to come.

First, make an inventory of your family needs and then decide which area in your home would be best suited to fulfill your requirements.

In looking around for more living space, owners of basements are truly blessed, since few if any structural changes need to be made. The walls and ceilings are already there — it is merely a question of how to cover them. A drab basement could be transformed into an attractive place for you and your children to play and entertain.

Varied Effects A variety of effects can be achieved by making use of the different widths and patterns available from Western Pine region lumber. Solid lumber used in paneling or storage units, particularly the latter, comes in for a good deal of abuse. However, if it is simply stained and waxed, wood will not show signs of fingerprints or wear, and requires only an occasional dusting and wipe down with a sponge.

Attic owners too, have the basic ingredients for one room or several, depending on the size of the house.

Furring, partitioning, insulating, paneling and moulding — then who would know that this now highly livable area under the eaves was once a repository for trunks and old newspapers?

Attics can be converted for use as charming guest rooms or additional family bedrooms.

Living quarters may be moved out to enclose an outdoor area such as a porch, patio breezeway or carport. This newly found low-cost conversion space might well become a studio for your special interests, an informal room for relaxation and entertainment or a family room for family fun.

By blending imagination and practicality, remodeled patios and porches are designed to be activity areas, thus freeing the living room for normal and tranquil family use and saving the rest of the house from wear and tear.

Organized Storage A well planned remodeling project transforms wasted space into living space and can lead to organized storage in the form of built-ins. One of the most functional forms of built-in units is the storage wall. This type of storage may be either straight storage, a combination of storage and furniture, or storage and activity.

Whether your project entails a step-by-step remodeling process toward a total goal or a single project approach, careful planning is necessary.

Even if you plan a do-it-yourself remodeling project, you might wish to have the advice or part of the work done by a building contractor. He will also be able to counsel you on structural considerations and local building codes and restrictions. When it comes to choice of materials, your own lumber dealer is the best authority.

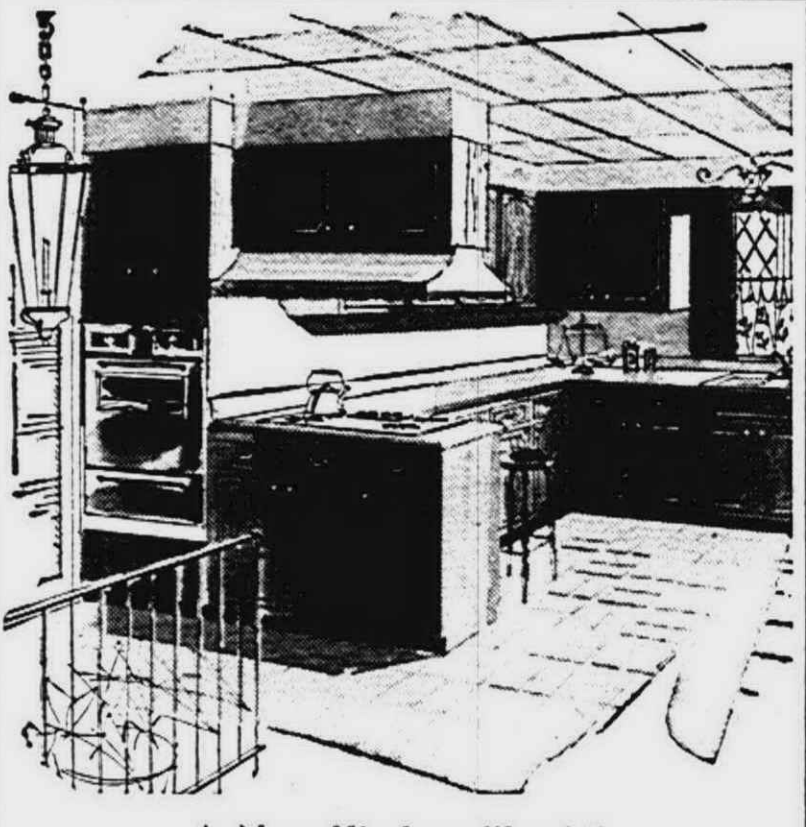

PAINTING DESIGNS When painting small designs on flat surfaces, draw designs on masking tape and cut out with a razor blade. The tape can then be pressed into position, and used as a painting guide.

Need More Living Space? Put Idle Areas to Work!

EVERYBODY RELAXES and has fun in this attractive family room, which has been finished off in the basement with paneling of striated Incense Cedar from the Western Pine region. The grain pattern of the lumber blends perfectly with the brick fireplace and knotty pine furniture.

Stapling Gun Is A Handyman's 'Best Friend'

By many "do-it-yourselfers," the handy stapling gun is well used for such annual chores as repairing screens and venetian blinds, trimming shelves and furniture, and installing insulation and weather stripping.

One squeeze of the gun's trigger drives each staple cleanly and accurately, with materials firmly engaged to one another.

They have put a new head (called a "crown") on one stapler to make it even more useful. By simply changing the head of the stapling gun from a standard driver to a crown driver, the tool can be used to double-staple acoustical or plain tongue and groove ceiling tile directly to gypsum board or rock lath.

Here's how double-stapling action is effected: the crown of the first driven staple conforms to the crown driver of the stapling gun, and serves as an anvil; the legs of the second staple flare out and reinforce the holding power.

J. A. Drive In Full Swing

Livonia J. A. Fund Raising Chairman, D. C. Mullen stated that as of February 4, the solicitation teams had collected $500. Although this is a long way from the $2700 quota, it has not dampened the spirits of these hard working solicitors.

It is hoped that by Feb. 20, when the Fund Raising Campaign ends, every businessman in the city will have been contacted. Also at that ing companies and business-time a list of the contributors will be published in the Livonian.

The success of any Fund Raising Campaign depends largely on a hard working group of solicitors. This J. A. Fund Raising endeavor is no different and without the help of the personnel listed below and their cooperating companies, a drive of this nature would not be possible.

REPORT from LANSING

By PAUL CHANDLER

State Representative, 21st District

LANSING — Running down some current matters:

ADCU—These initials refer to the controversial "Aid to Dependent Children of Unemployed Parents" program. Federal funds are available in the amount of some $9,000,000 to help hard-pressed local counties (Michigan) Wayne and Kent, in (Michigan) assist needy families.

In past sessions, the GOP-dominated legislature has refused to pass the enabling legislation which would permit accepting the Washington funds. There were some who objected to the "federal aid" principal and others who had misgivings about the money setting into wrong hands.

Governor Romney supports such legislation, however, and during the past couple of days there has been a change of heart among some Republican legislators.

Today, I co-sponsored a new bill which would enable Michigan to obtain the federal money. Our bill is Republican-backed and the chances of passage are good.

Both the Livonia City Council and the Redford Township Board will greet this as good news. They passed special resolutions recently urging State participation in the ADCU program.

It will take great pressure off the budget of Wayne County, to which all of us are significant tax contributors.

Title 10, School Aid—Today I introduced a bill which in some respects is a sort of "pint-sized" ADCU project.

There is available in Washington $35,000 which could be paid to Michigan for use in assembling school statistics. It is a "matching fund" proposal. The State for two years has appropriated and spent its own $35,000 but the Legislature has declined to pass the enabling act to apply for the matching $35,000.

After sounding out key House members, I believe my bill will pass.

If so, it will put another $35,000 in the hands of the Department of Education here to provide data and statistics, plus publishing the results of findings, on the complicated subject of schools. One project it will assist is the distribution of model accounting procedure manuals to all the school districts in the State.

Community Colleges, long a subject close to the hearts of those in our district, are getting a good share of attention in the early days of the legislative session.

Governor Romney, in his budget message, singled them out for increased appropriations, a notable exception to a budget which is "hold the line" in most respects.

Romney is asking for $500,000 in "immediate effect" appropriations to help with Community College construction.

Another controversial matter involves a proposal by the University of Michigan (Delta, by name) in the Saginaw Valley area; turn it into a four year, rather than two year school; and make it another U. of M. "branch."

This proposal was debated for 90 minutes in the House education committee last week and the committee generally is opposed to the U. of M. taking over Delta.

Such an action would be in direct violation of the Community College principle, which is to provide two years of college education at relatively low cost; feed the big universities with students seeking junior, senior and advanced work; maintain local control of policy and finance; provide technical and trade training; and offer enlarged adult education.

Another "chain store branch" of the U. of M., in essence a small four year college, would lose sight of most of the foregoing objectives and would trigger another competitive race for "branches" among the three big universities.

I'm going to resist the U. of M. plan.

Bay City Man Hired by College

Norman E. Dunn, Director of Public Personnel Services for the Bay City school system, has been appointed registrar of the Northwest Wayne County Community College and will assume his new duties on July 1.

Dunn

Hiring of Dunn to the all-important post was announced by the Board of Trustees after following the recommendation of President Dr. Eric Bradner in Wednesday's evening.

Dunn, who is widely known in educational circles throughout Michigan, will fill the posts of Registrar and Director of Admissions.

He received his master's degree from Michigan State University in 1948, became principal of Okemos High School and then took the position in Bay City in 1950.

As director of pupil personnel services in Bay City, Dunn coordinated the counseling services for students on educational, vocational, social and personal problems. In addition to his counseling work, he developed the procedures and use of data processing machines in the school system here.

Rotary Club, secretary of the Kiwanis Goodfellows, president of the Social Workers' Round Table and of the North Central Michigan Guidance Association, member of the American Personnel and Guidance Association, the National Education Association, the Michigan Education Association, Michigan Counselors' Association, Board of Directors of the United Fund of Bay County and was chairman of the Research and Planning Committee in 1959-61.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn and son, Robert, plan to move to Livonia in the early summer. A married daughter resides in Grosse Pointe.

Bentley, R. U. Clash Friday for Top Slot

There'll be a terrific collision in the Redford Union High School gym starting around 8 p.m. Friday night.

The impact will arise from a head-on meeting between Redford Union and Bentley with undisputed leadership — and likely the championship — of the Suburban Six League's basketball race riding on the outcome.

will take the floor with identical 5-1 conference records in what every body has proclaimed as "the game of the year" hereabouts.

Bentley owes a debt of gratitude to neighboring Plymouth for creating the situation whereby Friday evening's tussle presents the Livonians the chance to shoot ahead by themselves.

Rocks, under the coaching of Charles Ketterer, who negotiated one of the major upsets of the season in Greater Detroit by clipping Redford Union, 55-47, last Friday evening in the Rocks' sports palace.

in the league prior to opposing Redford Union in a return match. Earlier in the season, the Township had walked over Plymouth as if it were a case of men going against boys. All the glittering press clippings about Redford Union didn't upset the Rocks. Nor did the fact that the Rocks, after leading most of the way, suddenly fell apart early in the fourth quarter and dropped behind, 41-36. Just when it appeared Redford Union was ready to strike the killing blow, Plymouth bounced off the deck and it was the Rocks who applied the kayo punch.

During the final five minutes of action, Plymouth outscored Redford Union, 19-6. Dick Schryer with seven out of nine conversions from the foul line and Jerry Kisabeth and Chris Gaffield with four points each led the Rocks' comeback. Plymouth Coach Ketterer naturally was ached.

"It was our best showing of the season," he said. "The kids were hungry. They wanted this one. I can't single out a single boy who played better than anybody else. We used ten men, all ten scored.

"Call it a magnificent team effort... one which I think should give us a lift for the rest of the regular season... and who knows... maybe for the state tournament."

Coach Milo Karhu of Redford Union had only the highest praise for his conquerors.

"They outthumbed us," said Karhu. "That did it. We had a great chance when we came from behind in the last period, but they wanted to win this one more than we did. They (meaning Plymouth) deserved to win."

Karhu also saluted his rival coach.

"Ketterer does a terrific job over there," added Karhu. "He ran in two different teams against us. Each unit played a few minutes, then went out for a rest."

Plymouth bounced into an early 14-7 lead. By halftime it was 23-19 for Plymouth and the Rocks held a 36-33 bulge after Union ripped eight straight points before the Rocks recovered to win a goal.

Len LaPla of R. U. led all scorers with 18 points. Schryer with 16 points was the only Rock in double figures.

Bentley, meantime, pulled into a tie for first place by rolling past Trenton, 64-33. The game was lopsided all the way.

The Livonians grabbed a 17-3 lead after the first quarter in which Trenton made only one basket and one free throw. Trenton did the same in the second period and as a result Bentley carried a 28-5 lead to the locker room at halftime.

Trenton tried to withhold the ball from play and stall. The tactics didn't work against the stronger, more powerful Bentley cagers.

Wayne Stevens topped the Bentley scorers with 18. Bob Bolin had 13, Jim Storm nine and Mike O'Hare seven.

Bentley's reserves fell in overtime to Trenton, 52-48. The teams finished the regulation time tied at 43-43. Tim Dull netted 19 and Harvey Jaksch 18 for the losers.

The Redford Union reserves won easily at Plymouth, 61-32, as Al Maibach clicked for 15.

St. Agatha Whipped By Leader

A 25-point performance by Jack Harrington went for naught last Thursday evening when St. Agatha High School's basketball team dropped a 73-58 verdict to Royal Oak St. Mary's.

Losing to the Oaks constituted no disgrace for St. Agatha. St. Mary has all but wrapped up the divisional championship. St. Mary's took a 38-26 half-time lead and was in no trouble the rest of the way. Bob Dorchy and Bob Davis had 11 and 10 points, respectively, for the losers.

St. Agatha's high-powered reserve team continued to win under the coaching of Glen Goode. The second stringers, who have lost only once, scored a 43-32 decision as Mike Roemer ripped the cords for 22 points. St. Agatha plays at Waterford Our Lady of Lakes Friday night.

See Worst Over For Clarenceville

The worst appears over for Clarenceville High School's basketball team.

After taking a 76-36 whipping at the hands of powerful Bloomfield Hills last Friday night, Clarenceville returns home Friday night to meet Holly. Then follow home tilts with Northville and Brighton.

Poor marksmanship didn't help Clarenceville against Bloomfield Hills. The North Livonians pumped away 24 times at the basket before finally clicking with three minutes left to go in the first half.

The first period ended with the Hills in front 24-5. All five Clarenceville points came from the charity line. It was 38-11 at halftime.

Dave Graves paced Clarenceville's attack with 15 points. Chris Hawkins scored 20 points for the Clarenceville reserves, who also were beaten — their score being, 68-41.

Bentley Ties For Second:

Rock Swimmers Roll

Six meets... six victories. That's the swimming story for Plymouth High School this season as far as Suburban Six League competition is concerned.

Time Rocks' lead expanded last Thursday as they drubbed Redford Union, 66-39, as Bentley bested Trenton, 55-50, to move into a tie with the downriver team for second place. Bentley and Trenton each stand 4-2 in the league.

Plymouth won the first two events against Redford Union and never was in serious trouble the rest of the way. Redford

Union had to settle for only three victories to the meet.

Bentley had to go down to the final event — the free style relay — to edge out Trenton. Then it took a great anchorage by Jim Weinbrenner to save the relay and the meet for Bentley.

Weinbrenner had to make up at least two body lengths when he hit the water, as he came through by inches in one of the most exciting prefinishes of the season.

Ron Klassen accounted for a pool record at Trenton when the Bentley star copped the individual medley in 2:14.1.

Results of the two meets: PLYMOUTH vs. REDFORD 39. MEDLEY RELAY: 1—Plymouth (Dan Olson, Dave Agnew, Dave Boggs, Tom Blunk), 2—Redford (Don Ruetenick, Bob Truesdel, Bob Horton, Mike Caplan), Time: 1:50.4.

Plan Fete for Moms

It will be Parents Night Friday evening when Thurston High's basketball team entertains Taylor Center.

Coach Mike Pasternak is inviting the mothers and dads of his players as his honored guests.

Perhaps, the presence of the moms and pops also may alter the course of fortune which has struck the Thurston cagers this season. So far, Thurston stands 0-6 in the Mid-Wayne League and, overall, can show only one victory for the campaign.

Powerful Riverview broke loose in the second half to smother Thurston, 75-46, last Friday evening. The score was 15-12 for the winners at the end of the first quarter and Thurston lagged by only 12 points (32-20) at the intermission.

Thereafter, it wasn't much of a contest.

John Page led the winners with 18 points. Riverview had two players who between them counted 48 points, or two more than the entire Thurston aggregation.

The Thurston reserves also wound up losers, falling by a 43-39 score. Gary Kawalzyk topped the losers with eight points.

Wins Over Franklin

Bruce Kordenbroch established a new school record in the 100-yard breast stroke last Thursday night as Thurston High's swimming team won easily over Franklin, 73-31.

Kordenbroch was clocked in 1:07.9 to clip a tenth of the old mark set by Tom Robison a year ago.

Meantime, Thurston's All American tanker, Ken Wiebeck, sped the 100-yard back stroke in 57.2 seconds, a half second faster than the state record.

Franklin's non-senior team — there are only sophomores and juniors carrying the Franklin colors under Coach Rod Place, came up with two first places. Glen Kelley won the 50-yard free style while Franklin's free style relay also hit the tape in front.

Meet results:

200-yard free style relay: 1—Thurston (Jim Gardin, Kordenbroch, Frank Loutzenhister, Bob Lloyd), 2—Franklin (Jeff Bowers, Dennis Green, Joe Finck, Pete Otto). Time: 1:54.4.

200-yard free style: 1—Ron Gatzka (T), 2—Don Mueller (T), 3—Dave Wdowiak (F). Time: 2:12.

50-yard free style: 1—Kelley (F), 2—Jerry Chick (T), 3—Don Knight (T). Time: 25.7 seconds.

Individual Medley: 1—Bob Roberts (T), 2—Joe Vedder (T), 3—Doug Farn (F). Time: 2:34.

Diving: 1—Ed Suriano (T), 2—Jim Schuur (T).

100-yard butterfly: 1—John Kostrick (T). Time: 1:04.7.

100-yard free style: 1—Gatzka (T), 2—Jim Symonds (F), 3—Rex Korden (T). Time: 58.8 seconds.

100-yard breast stroke: 1—Kordenbroch (T), 2—Brian Hartley (T), 3—Norm Wilhelmson (F). Time: 1:07.2.

200-yard free style: 1—Franklin (Pete Otto, Ed Pritchard, John Rheinscheid, Glen Kelly). Time: 1:49.7.

School Contract Awarded

Contracts for an addition to Johnson Elementary School, 36652 Ann Arbor Trail, were awarded at a special meeting of the Livonia Board of Education, Jan. 29.
 The architectural trades contract for the eight-room addition was awarded to William T. Kriehoff Company, in the amount of $92,999; mechanical trades contract to Brady Plumbing and Heating Company, in the amount of $25,900; and the electrical trades contract to Donald Durand Electrical Contractor, Livonia, in the amount of $11,395. The contracts totaled $130,294, which is under budget estimates for this project.
 The Board unanimously passed the following resolution, honoring Stephen J. Ford, Rosedale Elementary School head custodian, who passed away Jan. 18: "... that the Board of Education convey its deep regret and sympathy to the family of Mr. Stephen J. Ford, of Rosedale School. Mr. Ford began employment with this district on Nov. 1, 1946. He served as Head Custodian of Rosedale Elementary School for most of this time. We appreciate the quiet kind of dedication which he gave to the operational maintenance of this building; also, and probably more important, the kind understanding way in which he was able to earn the respect of the teachers and students attending Rosedale School. The Board of Education and all employees of our school system had the highest regard for Mr. Ford as an outstanding employee and friend."

Livonia Lawyers Open Service; Directors Named

Livonia Bar Association held its annual meeting Saturday, January 26, 1963, at "Danny's Chop House." Approximately 30 lawyers, attended, the primary purpose being election of directors for the year 1963. The result of such election:
 Elected for one year: Wil- R. Wilder, Frederick Wilson, Otto Hedges, Donald Barton.
 Elected for one year: William Ponder.
 Directors holding over for remaining two years of their three year term are: Clarence Charest, Donald Deremo, Robert Lorion, James E. Mies.
 Immediately following the election of directors, there was a Board of Directors Meeting, at which the following officers were elected: President, James E. Mies; Vice President, Donald Deremo; Secretary, Robert Lorion; Treasurer, Frederick Wilson.
 The Livonia Bar Association has initiated a Lawyers Reference Service, similar in plan to one successfully used by the Detroit Bar Association.
 Realizing that there are many people who have legal problems arising, but are unacquainted with attorneys in the area, and reluctant to consult one because of their unfamiliarity with professional services available, the Livonia lawyers have initiated a central office where persons in this category may telephone for a conference with an attorney. The charge for such conference is a reduced charge of $5.00 for one-half hour. This will permit the attorney to analyze the client's problem and determine whether or not additional services are required. Many times, the solution is arrived at by the initial conference.
 It is not a profit-making arrangement for the attorneys, but they feel it accomplishes a needed public service, and is helpful to the profession in that it makes the public more aware of the availability and necessity of legal advice.
 Persons desiring to arrange a conference through the Legal Reference Service can telephone Garfield 7-800.

Franklin Falls Twice To Powers

Franklin High School's basketball team tried its hand at two of the Detroit area powers last week. The result: two defeats.
 First it was unbeaten Inkster Robichaud which rolled over Franklin by a 68-55 count. Bob Varty scored 21 points, Larry Duffield 15 and Len Buckingham 13 for the losers.
 Three nights later Franklin battled Pontiac Northern's front-runners in the Interlakes League. Northern had too many weapons and won going away, 76-58, with Duffield counting 14 to top the Livonians.
 Gary Hayward drilled in 34 points to pace Northern.
 Franklin's reserves were beaten in both their outings, dropping a 53-45 verdict to Robichaud and falling to Pontiac Northern, 52-34.

LIVONIAN James Newton, 30215 Bentley, has been promoted to supervising analyst on engineering studies for Detroit Edison's control department. He is a graduate of Wayne State University, member of the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers and active in Parent-Teacher activities in Livonia. Newton and his wife, Betty, are the parents of two children, Richard and Kathleen.

Facts-Opinions

ample: as doctors and medicine increase the life span and the numbers of people on the earth, what is their guilt and responsibility for the suffering of old age and over-population of the earth?
 So, to cope with new existence, we need more education—not just the same education for more youngsters; but more total training, more books, more teachers, more time in the classroom and laboratory—for everybody.
 Our high school curriculums, basically unchanged in a 100 years, are being rapidly found inadequate. They are too simple; too elementary.
 But how much should we spend for our schools? Is it proper we sacrifice everything, other than bare survival sustenance, for education? Or put 80 percent into schools, and 20 percent in all other items? Or maybe 50-50?
 Or maintain the present balance—something like 10 percent for education and 90 percent for other matters, including TV and brown brew?
 Obviously some of the decision depends on what the Russians might be doing, not to mention the French and the Cubans.
 Dr. Leatherman said he "didn't have the answer himself." One got the idea, however, that he wasn't sold on spending billions for space exploration, but did believe in allocating a lot of new money for education and research.
 Our own thoughts are a little different. Man, for some reason, always has been cursed to search. He climbs mountains just because they stand there; sails ships into nothingness, just to see what's beyond. There is a spring in the human spirit which drives men to hunt for truth; sometimes to his sorrow, to be sure, but inexorably.
 We won't stop trying to learn the mystery of the universe, whatever the cost—and we might just go bankrupt in the pursuit.
 As we said, a haunting speech. . . .

Mayor Proclaims Boy Scout Week Feb. 7-13

District Endorses O'Neil for Ballot

James F. O'Neil, 9840 Ingram, Livonia, who is seeking the nomination for State Board of Education was endorsed by the 17th District Republican Party at the District's Convention. O'Neil indicated his reasons for seeking the nomination.
 "He firmly believes that education holds most of the answers to the problems confronting us individually and as a society and that everything possible must be done to strengthen it at all levels.
 "He believes the proposed Constitution will greatly assist in providing the means for strengthening our State's educational system at all levels:
 "a. providing for the overall planning and coordination of education at all levels.
 "b. providing greater public control by broadening the citizens participation.
 "c. making the Superintendent of Public Instruction an appointive position rather than elective, and
 "d. requiring the governing boards of each institution of higher education to hold 'open' meetings and give an annual accounting of the disposition of their funds."
