1,359 — 16 Per Cent — Turn Out for Primary Vote

Lawton, Vallier Finish One-Two In City Balloting

George Lawton, honored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce as Plymouth's "Man of the Year" for 1962, led the balloting in City of Plymouth's primary election Monday.

Voters nominated eight men to run for four City Commission vacancies at the April 1 biennial spring general election.

Lawton polled 559 votes out of a total of 339 ballots cast and led second-place vote-getter, Arch Vallier, by 41 votes. Vallier is the City's supervisor to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

The surprising strength of candidate Robert Smith, Jr., a high school counselor, impressed many election observers. Smith, who earlier had hoped that "I just get past the primary cut-off," polled 466 votes and ranked third, 26 votes ahead of Jamiel Jabara who had 440.

Jabara is co-owner of Plymouth Tank & Fabricating Co. here.

The four other nominees, in their order of finish, include: George Hudson (386), Neil Davidson (368), J. Rusling Cutler (337), Leon Merriman (334).

Voters eliminated Eldon "Bud" Martin, William Silvis and Harry Hunter. Martin polled 320 votes, Silvis had 300 even, and Hunter had 294.

Fifth-ranked Hudson is a member of the City planning commission. Davidson who trailed Hudson by 28 votes was the 1962 Plymouth Kiwanis president. Cutler was a commissioner here in 1955-57 and again in 1959-61.

Merriman, a local realtor, and Cutler were separated by only three votes with Merriman placing eighth in the total voting picture.

By comparison to the primary returns two years ago, the unofficial tally Monday was a "resounding" turn-out by City voters. In 1961, only 8 1/2 percent made the trip to the polls. This time, slightly more than 18.5 percent cast ballots.

"George Daze" This Weekend

Crazy, daring Plymouth merchants this week are celebrating annual "George Daze" with a host of low, low bargains ranging from autos to men's, ladies' and children's wear and hardware and houseware items.

A total of 26 Plymouth merchants have combined forces in a special section of this week's edition of The Mail. The bargains being offered are gigantic, but they will be available only this Friday and Saturday.

The merchants include: Allison Chevrolet, Beglinger Oldsmobile-Cadillac, Berry Pontiac, Calhoun Ford, Flesia Rambler, Selle Buick, West Bros. Mercury, Graham's, Kresge's, The Photographic Center, Famous Men's Wear, Dunning's, Sharrard's, Fisher's Shoe Store, Minerva's, Forest Dodge, Inc., Melody House, Davis & Lent, S & W Hardware, Craig's Ladies Apparel, Fashion Shoes, Beyer Rexall Drug Stores, Beitner's, Better Home Appliances and Stop & Shop supermarket.

Only two days, remember — Friday and Saturday. Big bargains in Plymouth. So hurry on down. We'll see you in town.

Garber, Sparks, Lauterbach Win Trustee Battle

Republicans Ralph Garber, C. Veach Sparks and Dick Lauterbach scored solid victories in the Plymouth Township Trustee race Monday as Township voters turned out in greater-than-expected numbers for the primary election.

The official returns, canvassed Tuesday morning, showed Garber — a former Wayne County chief assistant prosecutor — with 308 votes, while incumbent Sparks had 227 and Lauterbach received 191.

Next closest finisher was Frank Millington, who polled 44 fewer votes than Lauterbach. Millington, along with Frederick Berry, David Katke and Martin Fleming Jr., failed to survive the primary cut-off.

Thus, the Township Trustee nominations among the Republican contenders go to Garber, Sparks and Lauterbach. In addition, the three appear virtually guaranteed of election to office April 1.

These three men — on April 1 — will contest three Trustee terms since voters two years ago agreed to expand the Township Board to seven members. It presently is five, with two members designated as Trustees.

The three Trustee terms include a pair of four-year and a two-year assignment. On April 1, the winning candidate receiving the fewest number of votes will assume the two-year term, and the other two will receive four-year terms.

Elsewhere in the Township primary, there was less interest in the eventual outcome, since most of it was as much as pre-ordained.

There was no opposition to Supervisor Roy Lindsay, Clerk John McEwen, or Treasurer M. S. Elizabeth Holmes, all of whom are Republican.

Mrs. Holmes, just as she did two years ago, polled the most votes of any individual candidate. She received the GOP nomination — and will run unopposed on April 1 — on the strength of 420 votes Monday.

3 City Construction Contracts Awarded

City Commissioners Monday night awarded construction contracts, approved the purchase of gas masks for the firemen, held a brief public hearing on a proposed zoning ordinance amendment, and passed a resolution regarding the telephone rate squabble.

Upon adjournment at 8:20 p.m., most of them gathered in the City Clerk's office to learn of the primary election results.

Since none of them is running for re-election, their interest in the balloting was mostly academic.

The resolution on telephone rates pertained to the difference in long-distance calls from Glenview exchange subscribers to central Detroit in comparison to the price of identical calls from Garfield numbers.

It requested that Michigan Bell Telephone Co. study the toll rate structure "with a view to reducing charges." The resolution also asked the telephone company to "re-evaluate the metro calling plan to include more daylight hour calls and report its findings to this City Commission."

The purchase of eight smoke masks for City firefighters was approved, with the $600 cost to come from surplus funds.

Three construction contracts were also awarded.

One was for the concrete paving of Industrial Drive, along Plymouth Rd. The contract was awarded to Banchero Cement Co., of Detroit, the low bidder. Amount was $17,361.

Another contract was let for the installation of a sanitary sewer extension to the Crestwood Apartments, which will be located on Sheldon Rd., north of Ann Arbor Rd. Amount of the contract is $4,823 and it was awarded to the low bidder, Zephireux LeDuc Co., of Dearborn.

The third was for installation of 125 feet of culvert along Harding St. at a cost of $7,368. George A. Odien, Inc., of Detroit, was low bidder and was awarded the contract.

The Commissioners approved a sanitary sewer agreement with Plymouth Township, subject to a final approval by the City's consulting engineering firm. The agreement provides for mutual use by the City and the THREE members of Boy Scout Explorer Post No. 1533 last week received Eagle badges after having attained the highest rank in scouting here. Making the presentation (above) was Sunset Scout District field commissioner Sidney Strong. From left: Strong and new Eagle Scouts John Bates, Ross Willett and Earl Fulton. Ceremonies were held at Starkweather school last Thursday evening and included presentation of awards to 17 other scouts from the post. A potluck dinner opened the evening. Explorer advisor for Post No. 1533 is Ferris Mathias. Also on hand for the event was Kaji Jabara, Plymouth Rotary Club's Boy Scout chairman. The Rotary Club sponsors the Post No. 1533. A number of parents, other relatives and friends also attended.

Flu Threat Slight Here.. Feldkamp

The current danger of wide-spread Asian flu here and throughout southeastern Michigan is not a situation that can be met with "hysteria" or "panic," according to City of Plymouth health officer Dr. Lee Feldkamp.

He said he did not believe the so-called "threat" has been felt in the Plymouth community as yet, but added "it is possible we will get it."

For those who apparently suffer the symptoms of a respiratory tract infection, he prescribed "adequate rest and consultation with the family physician."

Symptoms of the flu — Asian or otherwise — are much like those of a common cold, coughing, running nose and sneezing, but also include fever, assorted aches and pains, and a "washed out" feeling.

Adequate rest will ward off the flu if noticed early, but if the symptoms are other than mild prompt consultation with a physician is imperative, he indicated.

Pneumonia is one of the serious complications of the flu.

The City health officer cautioned the young, the elderly and those with heart conditions that it would be advisable for them to consult their physician early.

"Flu-sufferers don't need to panic about this or become hysterical over any impending danger. Instead, if they will get plenty of rest and prompt care there will not be any serious after-effects," he said.

Immunization against the flu involves a series of two shots taken a month apart. Booster shots should then be taken annually in the fall after the initial two-shot series.

Three years ago, when a similar threat of wide-spread flu took place, Plymouth had a number of cases displaying moderately severe colds and bronchitis-like infections.

"But no serious side-effects resulted in most instances where adequate rest and care were provided," Dr. Feldkamp added.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS of the Plymouth Community Fund met last Thursday morning to discuss a number of business matters including a course of action on the recent "Eckstein report." The latter report, prepared by Mrs. Ruth Eckstein, a consultant from the University of Michigan, was a study of Plymouth's health and welfare needs with relationship to the activities of the Community Fund. The Board agreed to meet Friday evening, March 1, at 8 p.m., at the home of Fund President Russell Isbister to discuss the report further with Mrs. Eckstein. Isbister, newly-elected president of the Fund, is shown above (right) with immediate past president Robert Barbour and Mrs. Marshall North, who is on a committee that is studying the need for housing for a family service agency here. Plans for establishing a family service agency are also underway.

Delinquent Taxpayers Face Penalty March 1

Approximately four per cent of City taxpayers are in for further penalties on their 1962 local tax payments if they are not paid by Feb. 28, Clerk Kenneth Way cautioned this week.

He said that he estimates only 96 per cent of the total tax roll of $1,093,000 will have been paid by the Feb. 28 deadline. Since Jan. 19, City tax payments have been subject to a four per cent penalty.

After the end of this month, the payments may only be made at the Wayne County treasurer's office in the City-County building in Detroit, and the penalty goes up one-half of one per cent for each additional month of delinquency.

The current tax collection by the City of Plymouth covers only local school taxes and those for the community college and Wayne County. Actual City taxes are not collected until summer-time.

Meanwhile, a similar situation exists in Plymouth Township, where Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes estimates that two per cent of the tax roll will be unpaid starting March 1. This, too, will make the delinquent taxes subject to a penalty amounting to one half of one per cent per month.

Unlike the City, the Township had earlier waived the four per cent penalty otherwise due from Jan. 19 to Feb. 28.

And unpaid Township taxes starting March 1 may also only be paid at the County treasurer's office in Detroit.

Mrs. Holmes said that the total Township tax roll comprised taxes for the Township itself, in addition to those for the local school system, the community college and Wayne County.

Total tax roll in the Township amounts to approximately $1,988,000, Mrs. Holmes said. The Township's share of this revenue is $206,000, she said.

Stein 'Tops' With Voters In Canton

Canton Township residents gave a solid vote of confidence to incumbent supervisor Louis Stein, a Republican, at Monday's primary election.

Stein polled 179 votes to lead all individual balloting and win his party's nomination for a sixth term as supervisor. He will be opposed by Democratic candidate Robert Waldecker, who received 87 votes.

Stein out-pollled by 32 votes his nearest rival for top vote-getting honors. In second place in individual pulling power was incumbent Republican Trustee Elmer Schultz who had 147.

There were a total of 393 votes cast unofficially by Canton Township eligible residents. Registrations amounted to approximately 2,400.

While most of the attention in Canton centered on the Trustee race, where four ultimately will be elected to serve on April 1, nominations from both parties for clerk and treasurer were also accomplished.

Incumbent clerk John Flodin won the Democratic nomination while veterinarian Clifford McClumpha captured (Continued on page 8)

Delay Move To Rezone Canton Land

The Canton Township Board last week declined to set a date for a public hearing over proposed zoning changes that conceivably will hasten the development of a 400-acre area along Joy Rd.

Already in the hands of several industrial and residential developers, the Canton property is being eyed for at least partial residential development this summer, providing the zoning changes are made.

The public hearing aspect was referred to Township Clerk John Flodin, who will confer with the Township's attorney and will report back to the Board at the next regular meeting.

A zoning change would convert 280 acres of agriculture and to industrial districting and 120 acres to residential use. The residential zoning will be in two forms, one of R-1-H designation for half-acre homesites and the other of R-1-B for lots with 50-foot minimum frontages.

The 400 acres extend along Joy Rd. to the Township's eastern-most boundary at approximately Koppernick Rd.

$1.5 Million Water System Includes $335,000 'Mortgage'

By Jerome O'Neil
(Last of a Series)

City of Plymouth's water system — and the accompanying problems that have recently arisen from it — could be likened perhaps to a debt-ridden manufacturer who would like to install more equipment.

Hampered by heavy existing mortgages on his present equipment, the manufacturer — financially — can ill afford to make an addition to his existing facilities.

A similar "cash bind" surrounds the City and its water system.

Not that the City's water system and its accompanying equipment are less than serviceable.

But any extensive conversion to another method of supplying water to consumers here would unquestionably weaken the established financial arrangements that the City has lived with comfortably since 1948.

The issue in question, namely, is the proposed shift to Detroit water, whereby local water department revenue stands to be heavily reduced and portions of a $1.5 million dollar system here could conceivably be shelved.

To make matters more difficult, the City has an outstanding debt of about $335,000, representing the balance of a more-than-half-million-dollar bond issue dating from 15 years ago.

It was in April, 1948, that the City issued $325,000 in water revenue bonds to improve a well field on Beck Rd. and to beef up the water system generally.

Prior to that time, the City had managed with a system which had changed little in half a century.

Years ago, residents of the Village of Plymouth (it wasn't incorporated as a City until 1932) utilized private wells for the most part as their source of man's most precious liquid.

It wasn't until the early 1890's that the Village acquired an acre of land on Beck Rd. known as "Big Spring." Unbeknownst to Village fathers of that era, it marked the beginning of the City's present-day water system.

A tile water line was built in order to transmit the water from the small Beck

Rd. site into the Village where users tapped on, much in the same fashion as "taps" are achieved today.

Apparently, the one acre site was inadequate for a rural community that gradually was moving toward "suburbia." The first pang of Plymouth's growth were being felt by the turn of the century.

Thus, in 1907 — according to old and yellowed deeds — the Village obtained 80 acres on the east side of Beck Rd., almost directly opposite the "Big Spring" site.

The 80-acre parcel has since come to be known as the "Beck Rd. well field." More recently, the City acquired another well field on Six Mile west of Beck. It is described as the "Six Mile field."

The original tile water line from Beck Rd. measured 10-inches in diameter, according to DPW superintendent Joseph Bida, and was installed about 1893. It was at least partially replaced around 1907 and the present 10-inch line was laid in 1921.

It has not always been in use, however. City of Plymouth voters — at the 1948 biennial Spring Primary election — approved the $525,000 water bond issue by a margin of 472-293. The bonds were issued in April of that year at an interest rate of about 2.5 per cent.

This, then, was the parentage of the City's present $325,000 water system indebtedness. Repayment of the money is scheduled to run until 1976, but more of this later.

Purpose of the bond issue, as described in a February, 1948, issue of The Plymouth Mail, was "to provide for the laying of mains from the Beck Rd. well farm, for drilling additional wells there, for the installation of a new 16-inch feeder main, and for the construction of a new water storage tank."

The storage tank is the elevated one on Byron St. today, just east of Main St. Much to the distress of many, the Byron St. tank has never functioned. It's estimated cost was $45,000. This fact, too, will be enlarged upon in a moment.

For the five years immediately prior to 1948, it appears that the Beck Rd. well field lay relatively dormant for lack of sufficient funds with which to further develop it. In fact, in 1948, the 10-inch main from Beck Rd. was turned off.

In 1943, a well was drilled at the northern end of Mill St. and this source supplied water to the City during the next half decade. The Mill St. well is available now for use only in emergencies.

Even in 1948, Detroit water had made an appearance at the City Commission tables. Major drawback at that time, as today, was price. One estimate stated that it would require $2 million to construct a supply line from Detroit to Plymouth.

At that time, the County was charged with the responsibility of furnishing water to agreeable communities outside the immediate Detroit metropolitan area.

Obviously, the Detroit matter was tabled and in its place the $525,000 bond issue materialized.

As a result of a legal suit in the early 1950's, the City in 1954 purchased another 18 acres adjacent to the Beck Rd. field. The new acreage formed a "buffer" from excavating work that was taking place nearby and, the City held, threatened the future use of the Beck Rd. wells. Cost of the 18 acres was $9,000.

Almost simultaneously, the City spent another $20,000 to further improve the Beck Rd. site and then dipped down for $80,000 more with which to acquire and develop the newer well field on Six Mile west of Beck.

Since then, few major City expenditures have been made for capital improvements to the water system here. Ordinarily repairs and minor installations, of course, have continued.

Today, City Commission is contemplating further major expenditures. Although repeatedly described in recent issues of The Mail, the proposals bear telling once again.

One project is the construction of a 3-million-gallon water reservoir on Beck Rd. A site has already been acquired. The City would also like to make extensive improvements to an internal transmission system that is understandably antiquated. Included would be the replacement of many of the older and under-sized mains that roam underground throughout the City.

Estimated cost of the reservoir is $288,000. Price of the internal improvements is set at $336,000. Should all of the City's applications for federal funds be approved, one-half of the cost of the two projects would be borne by an out-right grant from money appropriated under the terms of the accelerated public works act.

It remains a matter of discussion as to whether property owners would encounter a City tax boost, if the two projects are undertaken. One City official says that a tax hike is "not contemplated."

All in all, the City's water system represents approximately $1.5 million in capital improvements, with a fifth of this still "mortgaged," in a sense.

Last bond of the $335,000 indebtedness will not come up for redemption until 1976, explains City Manager Albert Glassford. In the meantime, the City's annual payments on the bond issue range from $27,000 to $33,000 including interest.

It is this long-term debt that appears to have thrown a considerable-sized "wrench" into the works. A conversion to Detroit water hints at a loss of total water department revenue, and hence perils the City's ability to redeem handily the bonds over the next 13 years.

But, before exploring the financial picture, let's take a look at the water system itself.

One and one-half million dollars in capital investments has created a complex, sometimes unwieldy, and still highly-serviceable water system for the City of Plymouth as far as water systems go.

It also has its embarrassing points. In its most simple form, the system consists of two well fields, a reservoir, two elevated storage tanks, extensive pumping equipment and some 60 miles of mains.

The Beck Rd. field, there are actually seven wells, deepest of which is 95 feet. At Six Mile, while there are five wells in all, only one — a 90-footer — is in use. The other four are capped. All five were drilled in 1954 and only three are useable.

That the system is certainly serviceable is illustrated by the tremendous volume of water that can be drawn from the well fields and forced into the City for consumption.

Electrically-driven well pumps at Beck Rd. can produce 2,100 gallons per minute, on demand. At the Six Mile site, similar pumps can furnish up to 2,800 gallons per minute.

By pumping just 700 gallons per minute for 24 hours, a well produces approximately 750 million gallons annually.

Then there is the other well, at Mill and Wilcox, which measures 110 feet in depth. The pump there can produce 1,400 gallons per minute.

A pair of feeder mains carry the water from the well fields west of here into the City. One of these is the 40-year-old 10-inch main, while the other is a 16-inch reinforced concrete feeder.

The 10-inch main, which was put back into full use in 1950 after having been abandoned in 1948, comes across country, entering the City at Starkweather and Mill Sts. During the 12-year span from 1948 to 1960, the 10-inch feeder served only as "a minor main," Glassford said.

It rambles past the fish hatchery, bypasses the Northville cemetery, crosses the Edward Hines parkway, moves through Cass Benton park, and then follows Northville Rd. to Starkweather and Mill.

The 16-inch main journeys south along

Beck Rd. to Five Mile, then east to Sheldon and enters the City at the Goldsmith St. control station. It was built in 1948.

Inside the City, there are about 30 miles of cast iron transmission mains that measure 4, 6, 8, 10, 12 and 16 inches in diameter. Many are suspected of having been in place since the early 1900's.

They are so old, in fact, that the pressure of Detroit water conceivably would rupture many of them.

The City's only existing reservoir is an ancient structure located at the end of Reservoir Dr. off Northville Rd. Bida said it was built originally as an open-top storage facility in the 1890's, but about 1921 was closed over.

Its present capacity is estimated at between 1.5 million and two million gallons. It is built entirely of poured concrete.

Today it stands virtually empty. Two and one-half years ago the City spent about $10,000 having the walls repaired, after leaks were discovered. But then hairline cracks developed on the reservoir floor, and it has since fallen into disuse.

Bida says the water is only knee-deep there today. It cannot be relied upon as a storage facility.

There are two elevated storage tanks within the City. One is on Church St., near the Presbyterian Church and the other is on Byron St. west of Main St.

The Church St. tank has a capacity of 157,000 gallons and acts as "the water control center for the system." It is kept between 50 and 90 per cent full by pumps, that automatically regulate the water level.

According to a report made by Bida to the City Commission in October, 1960, "the tank is just high enough to maintain a pressure of 22 pounds in the high (north-ern) part of town."

Along with perhaps the reservoir, which was repaired in 1960 but still is relatively inoperable, the Byron St. storage tank is a point of embarrassment for City officials.

The Byron St. tank is also inoperable, and represents essentially a $45,000 fiasco. It was built in 1948.

In fairness to all parties, it was built before Glassford became City Manager and before Bida was made DPW superintendent. Further, the consulting engineering firm of those years is no longer on the City's payroll. Glassford says that higher water consumption had been foreseen in the area south of the City, but the advent of the Detroit water system in Plymouth Township nullified this function for the tank.

The tank has a capacity of 250,000 gallons, and why it doesn't work requires an intricate and perhaps confusing explanation. Essentially, the situation hinges on a difference in elevation between the two tanks. The Byron St. tank is 12 feet lower than the tank on Church St.

The Byron tank "fills" from the Church St. structure, and then only when the water in the Church St. tank drops to a certain minimum level.

In order to keep adequate pressure in

Canton Nominee Dies Suddenly

Harvey Vetal, incumbent Canton Township Trustee who Monday was renominated for office on the Republican ticket, died suddenly Tuesday night. He was 66 years of age.

Mr. Vetal had lived in Canton Township for 28 years and since the late 1940's had served as a Township Trustee. He was a retired farmer and school teacher.

His home was at the corner of Sheldon and Warren Rds. Canton Township election officials are unsure as to what course of action will be taken with regard to the April 1 election. Four Republicans had been nominated, but with the death of Mr. Vetal only three remain. There are four Trustee vacancies being contested. There are also only three Democratic nominees.

Funeral services for Mr. Vetal will be held at 1 p.m. Friday, Feb. 22, at Schrader Funeral Home. Interment will be in Grand Lawn Cemetery, Detroit.

the northern end of town, the Church St. tank is never permitted to fall to the level that allows the Byron St. tank to come into use.

As Bida wrote in his 1960 report to the Commission:

"Thus, in an emergency, you have a reserve supply (in the Byron St. tank). However, it is likely to be stale as the water in the tank cannot change unless you drain it out into the sewer."

The Chicago Bridge & Iron Co. has estimated it would cost $25,000 to raise the height of the Byron St. tank 15 feet to a point where it would operate in conjunction with the Church St. tank.

And even this estimate does not include any possible modifications to the present foundation of the tank in order to accommodate the increased weight of the additional steelwork.

One other large expenditure — dating from 1960 — is significant, but fits more properly into the water system's financial picture. It concerns a $70,000 expense for a 16-inch main from Mill to Haggerty Rd., thus providing maximum water provisions to the City's largest user, Burroughs Corp. The 16-inch main assures Burroughs of one million gallons per day, if required.

But, first, what about the water, itself? Users complain of rust in the water, the hardness of it, and some argue over the taste of the water.

According to an analysis by Hall Laboratories in Pittsburgh, City of Plymouth water has a "total hardness" measuring between 320 and 360, depending upon exactly which well the water is drawn from.

In other words in every million parts of City water there are between 320 and 360 parts calcium carbonate (CaCO₃). Detroit water, by comparison, is decidedly softer. It is rated at about 100 parts calcium carbonate in every million parts of water.

There is only a fractional amount of iron in the water, but it produces enough rust to make this a basic contention among users, particularly residential customers.

The City puts "calgon" in the water in an effort to minimize the rust that forms in mains and pipes. Calgon is actually metaphosphate, a chemical in crystal form that dissolves upon contact with water.

It keeps iron in the water in a state of suspension for a period of about 48 hours after the calgon is added. Many City water users argue that calgon does not help sufficiently, if at all.

City water is also chlorinated (purified) and fluoridated.

Taste of the water is a personal matter, but still much debated. A new resident of the City might describe the flavor of the water as unpleasant. Long-time City water users, for the most part, seem to have become accustomed to its taste.

The water department's financial status requires lengthy explanation.

There are 3,165 users, most of them residential. Consumer prices for City water are detailed in City Ordinance No. 216, effective since March 11, 1957.

Prices are based on "per 1,000 gallons" consumed. The first 17,000 gallons cost 34 cents per 1,000. The remainder of the rate structure is as follows:

Next 50,000 gals. —	28 cents
Next 133,000 gals. —	17 cents
Next 300,000 gals. —	15 cents
All over 500,000 gals. —	13 cents

Largest single user of City water is the Burroughs Corp., Plymouth Rd. plant. So large, in fact, is this account — and so important to the City — that the 16-inch $70,000 water main extension from Mill St. to Haggerty was installed primarily for Burroughs in 1960.

The main was built on the recommendation of the engineering consultants, McNamee, Porter & Seelye, of Ann Arbor. However, Johnson & Anderson, of Pontiac, is the present engineering consultant firm for the City.

The City's water department revenue during fiscal 1961-62 was roughly $150,000. Of this amount, Burroughs provided 20 per cent and used 30 per cent of all water consumed.

Specifically, Burroughs utilized 200 million gallons during 1961-62 and paid the City almost $30,000.

The rates for Burroughs and other large consumers are set down in section 8(d) of the City's water rates ordinance. Under this section, the large water users pay double the regular rate for the first four million gallons consumed and at the regular rate for the balance of every two month cycle.

Among the other large industrial consumers is Haller Inc., on Northville Rd. It used 9.5 million gallons in 1961-62 and was charged $2,800. In all, there are about 30 "major" users, including industrial and large commercial accounts. Hotel Mayflower is in this latter category.

The City's estimated water revenue for fiscal 1962-63 has been set at $176,000. Burroughs' share of this total is estimated to be about $31,000.

Budgeted expenses for 1962-63 include $28,000 for bond redemption and interest, $12,000 for capital outlay (new equipment), $29,000 for improvements, $15,000 for pumping, labor and supplies, and $27,000 for transmission and distribution.

General administration will take another $50,000, approximately.

What, then, does the future hold for City of Plymouth and its water system?

What will become of a water system representing $1.5 million in capital investments... investments actually made by City taxpayers?

Investments that are still being paid for each year by taxpayers? And the present "mortgage" has 13 years to run, too.

MAN'S MOST precious liquid is water. City of Plymouth, utilizing two major well fields west of town, pumps approximately 750 million gallons each year.

It is entirely feasible that at least a part of the well field facilities out on Beck Rd. would have to be shelved, for they no longer would be useful if Detroit water should come.

The Detroit proposal would deliver water to a point along Sheldon Rd., probably at Five Mile.

If the reservoir proposed for the Beck Rd. site does not materialize, the extensive well field pumping facilities would have no further role in the City's water picture after Detroit water arrives.

However, Glassford has stated that the City "needs the reservoir in any event to take care of surges from Detroit water and to insure constant supply."

Arch Vallier, City Supervisor to the County Board of Supervisors, has suggested that the City will lose to Plymouth Township seven "major" accounts if Detroit water comes. The seven accounts presently provide about $37,000 to the City's coffers.

In order to continue the orderly repayment on the $325,000 bond issues, and sustain the present water department operation, Vallier then predicts that the City would have to boost its water rates at least 38 per cent across the board.

Under particularly extenuating circumstances, Vallier says, the City rates would have to be raised an awesome 124 per cent across the board.

Whether City residents would stand still for this sort of a rate hike (whether it's 38 or 124 per cent) is unknown.

Among the major accounts that the City would lose, Vallier explains, is Burroughs Corp., on which the City spent $70,000 in 1960 in order to assure a minimum of one million gallons per day to the plant, if the need arises.

Water — in the City of Plymouth — is indeed a thorny problem today. Little more can be resolved between now and April 1, when an essentially new City Commission takes office and a new mayor is named.

Meanwhile, water department administrators and City residents and other civic officials struggle with an issue that seems destined to change Plymouth's complexion by leaps and bounds in the years just ahead.

Appoint Jabara Chairman of Local Mich. Week Program

Jamiel Jabara, co-owner of Plymouth Tank & Fabricating Co. here, has been named chairman of Plymouth's Michigan Week activities for 1963. Michigan Week is the second week in May.

The appointment was made by the City Commission upon the recommendation of Mayor Robert Sincok.

Jabara, Monday, won nomination for the April 1 biennial spring general election here at which time four City Commission seats will be filled from among a total of eight final candidates.

Jabara ranked fourth in the primary balloting.

Last year's Michigan Week chairman for Plymouth activities was City Attorney Edward Draugelis.

Draugelis Buys Vacant Building

City Attorney Edward Draugelis has purchased from First Federal's Perry Richwine the vacant building at 824 Penniman Ave. and has announced that he will convert it into an office building.

It once housed Terry's Bakery but has remained vacant much of the past two years. Draugelis, whose office presently is at 861 Penniman, says that he intends to have the interior of the building renovated, a new front put on the structure, and will open it in 60 days.

Hockey Teams Busy

Plymouth recreation hockey teams had a busy week last week. The Plymouth PeeWees, in the Nankin Twp. play-offs, defeated the VFW Blues from Nankin, 12-1, as Dave Palmer scored four goals. Later, the Pee Wees defeated the Nankin Rams, 3-2, as Don Hudson, John Hickner and Bill Griffin each scored once.

The Bantams, in the Garden City league, lost to Dearborn, 2-1, as John Gilles scored the lone goal.

Plymouth goal. The Bantams were also defeated in the state tourney by a 2-0 margin by Dearborn St. Martha.

Plymouth's Midget Royals, in the Garden City play-offs, defeated the Garden City Maple Leafs, 7-0, as Terry Cosgrove scored a three-goal hat-trick. In the state tourney, the Royals were eliminated by a 3-1 score by Royal Oak. Jim McKindies averted a Plymouth shut-out.

The Juveniles, in the Garden City play-offs, defeated Wayne, 4-0, as Lee Benz, Dennis Packard, Al McAllister, and Roger Wilhelm each scored single goals. In the state tourney, the Juveniles lost 2-0 to Royal Oak.

The Plymouth Seniors defeated Northville, 3-1, in the Garden City play-offs as Bill Hawkins scored twice, and Elmer Whipple added a single goal for the winners.

Five Plymouth Bowlers Lead K of C Tourney

Five Plymouth bowlers stand to win the $500 first prize in the Knights of Columbus state bowling tourney in East Lansing, providing their 3079 total holds up over the course of the next three weeks.

The local quintet leads the tournament by 19 pins at present.

The team, Fiesta Rambler of the Catholic Men's league here, is comprised of Dick Nelson and his father, Charles, Jim Doyle, Lou Vukovich and Earl Demel.

They turned in their 3079 total including a 480-pin handicap Feb. 9 and the tourney ends the second week in March.

Dick Nelson led the Plymouth contingent with a 570 series and his father contributed 559. Vukovich had 515, Doyle mustered a 487 and Demel contributed a 468 total. Second prize in the tournament is $350. There is a long list of lesser awards, Dick Nelson said.

CITY FIREMEN QUELL FLAMES ON GARAGE

City firemen Tuesday noon were called to 298 North Harvey to extinguish a minor fire that had broken out in some trash behind the garage. "Flames caused minor damage to the rear wall of the garage. The fire was extinguished in a matter of minutes."

Auto-Crat Loses Sixth In Men's Cage Loop

Distribution Service, Inc., an entry in the men's recreation basketball league here, had its best opportunity in a month to break into the victory column, but Tai's Cleaners turned in a 33-point second half last Wednesday to down D.S.I., 67-49.

As a result, D.S.I. remained winless through six games in the men's conference. Tai's picked up its second win in posting the victory over D.S.I.

Bob Basham led Tai's with 19 points and Dick Bearup, the junior varsity cage coach at Plymouth High, contributed nine. Tom Ferguson dumped in 18 for the losers and Dave Gothard had 15.

In other men's league action, Cloverdale blasted Auto-Crat 63-37, at a time when an Auto-Crat victory would have forced a tie for the league leadership. Instead, Cloverdale maintained its front-running position with Auto-Crat running second.

Again Ken Kisabeth paced Cloverdale. He scored 19 and teammate Bud DePlonche added 10. For Auto-Crat, Dan Stremick tallied 15 and Bill Ruehr had seven. Auto-Crat scored only eight points in the fourth period while Cloverdale mustered 22. At half-time, Cloverdale led 28-22.

The standings:

Team	WON	LOST
Cloverdale	6	0
Auto-Crat	4	2
Tai's	2	4
D.S.I.	0	6

The men's recreation league games are held Wednesday nights at the Senior High gymnasium. First game is at 8:30 p.m. Paul Cummings is league supervisor.

MEMBERS OF the Plymouth Swim Club were issued official team sweat-shirts Saturday morning, as part of the first realization of proceeds from the club's Christmas tree sale this year. With approximately $500 in profits from the tree sale, administrators of the club purchased the shirts recently and plan to buy warm-up suits next. There are four age divisions in the club, ranging from eight to 16. The club is seeking AAU recognition. Chairman of the club is Jim Gretzinger, 679 N. Harvey, while Loren "Bud" Gould, of 13925 Ridgewood is co-chairman. Gould is shown here distributing sweat-shirts to team members with the help of Dick Berry, an assistant. Berry is also a member of the Plymouth varsity swim team. In the background is club chairman Jim Gretzinger and coach Tom Workman. The club, which has about 60 members, is planning a meet with another club from Redford Township in the near future.

Swimmers Claim No. 11, Eye 2 Tough Opponents

Common with all of Plymouth's swimming opponents these days, Bentley High and Royal Oak Kimball have high hopes this week of snapping the Rocks current victory streak.

The two teams — Bentley Thursday and Royal Oak on Saturday — both will invade Plymouth's pool with an eye toward ending what today amounts to a nine-meet week.

Plymouth's ninth victory in a row came last Thursday as Belleville bowed, 71-34 before the Rocks' juggernaut. It was a near-repeat of Plymouth's earlier 77-28 decision over the same school Jan. 10. Of the two invading opponents this week, Royal Oak stands the biggest chance of stopping the Rocks onslaught. Bentley has already bowed once to Plymouth this winter, but Royal Oak and the Rocks have not faced each other in dual-meet circumstances since last season.

At that time, the Kimball swimmers captured a close battle, only by winning the final event of the meet, the 200-yard freestyle relay.

"It's going to be another rough meet," was the way Plymouth Swim Coach John McFall summed it up last Friday. "They're (Royal Oak) a tough opponent."

Two Rocks turned in double-victory performances against Belleville.

Team co-captain Gary Gould turned the trick with the 50-yard free and the 100-yard butterfly, and Jim Beglinger achieved the feat with first place finishes in the 200-yard individual medley and the 100-yard backstroke.

A member of the Eastern Michigan conference, Royal Oak swims against such stalwart schools as Birmingham and Port Huron.

In the state class A championships a year ago, Royal Oak was in the top 10. During the Kimball Relays earlier this season — an annual event that the school hosts — the Kimball swimmers finished third, two or three notches above the Rocks, who were also entered.

At any rate, last Thursday marked Plymouth's ninth win in a row and gained for the Rocks an 11-2 record for the season with three meets remaining. Victories in all three could bring Plymouth its 100th dual meet win since swimming was introduced at the high school here in 1953.

Two Plymouth swimmers each scored 10 points from

Here's how the Rocks beat Belleville for the second time this season:

Rick Malboeuf, Dave Agnew, Dave Beglinger and Pete Gustafson won the opening event, the 200-yard medley relay. Dick Berry won the 200-yard free with George Collins finishing second.

Gould won the 50-yard free and Tom Blunk placed third. Jim Beglinger followed with his victory in the 200-yard individual medley, where Jeff Hoffman was third.

Mark Schultheiss, the team's other co-captain, won the diving event as Bert Quinn placed second. Gould produced his second victory of the contest, winning the 100-yard butterfly. Mike Drennan was third.

Dave Beglinger and Gustafson were one-two in the 100-yard free, and Dave's brother, Jim, chalked up his second victory as he won the 100-yard backstroke. Jim Harbauer and Doug Jaskierney were two-three in the 400-yard free.

Agnew won the 100-yard breast-stroke with Al Curtis a close second.

In the final event, Schultheiss, Jerry Wallace, Jim Mattison and Berry placed second in the 200-yard freestyle relay.

Plymouth's match with Bentley is here Thursday and Royal Oak comes to town Saturday evening. The Rocks conclude their regularly-scheduled dual-meet agenda with a return bout with Trenton, there on Feb. 28.

Cagers Bow 65-52

Plymouth Fails in Bid For Third Straight Win

Prosperity left Plymouth's varsity cagers in the lurch Friday evening as visiting Belleville pounded the Rocks with a 65-52 defeat.

Earlier, Plymouth had captured two victories in a row, one an astounding upset over Redford Union.

The loss to Belleville was Plymouth's ninth defeat in 13 games and left the Rocks in fourth place in the Suburban Six conference.

A victory over Belleville would have moved the Rocks into a tie for third-place. With the loss, however, Plymouth's league record is 3-5.

Belleville permitted the hopeful Rocks little chance to advance in the Suburban Six standings. Plymouth's visitors fashioned a 19-7 first period advantage and led at half-time by a 32-22 margin.

In the second half, the Rocks never were closer than eight points, although at one point they appeared on the verge of a serious rally. It sputtered away, though, as the Plymouth cagers suffered from personal infractions and many faults in their attack.

By the close of the third period, the visitors led 50-40 and stretched this margin still further in the waning moments of the contest. The winners made 21 of 35 free throws and scored 22 field goals.

By comparison, Plymouth converted 16 of 29 free throws and dumped in 18 field goals.

Plymouth coach Charlie Ketterer relied heavily on his recently-inaugurated two-plate system, but the fortunes of the game went against both him and his cagers.

Often, throughout the test, Ketterer was substituting single players in an effort to weld a playing combination that could cope with Belleville's rapid-fire tactics.

It was all in vain, however. Plymouth's scoring was widely shared. Jerry Kisabeth, who missed innumerable shots, paced the Rocks with 10 points. Junior forward Dick Eloff had nine and team floor captain Dick Schryer, who also was often in-ent, scored seven points.

Tom McGill contributed six and Cal Luibrand, Jim Lake and Chris Gaffield each scored five apiece.

Belleville's attack hinged heavily on the scoring efforts of a trio of team members. All-league football player Frank Nunley poured in 24 points to pace the winners and got ample help from Dave Sala with 14 and Rick Hedges with 10.

League-leading Bentley High hosts Plymouth Friday evening, and the Rocks' regular season ends March 1 when Trenton invades the local camp.

The class A district tourney, in which Plymouth is entered, will be held March 5-9 at Bowen Field House on the campus of Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti. Beyond that, the regional team floor games will be March 12-16

JayVee Cagers Rout Belleville With Platoons

Plymouth's junior varsity basketball team dumped in 29 of 67 field goal attempts Friday night for a 43 per cent shooting average that led to a 65-37 decision over Belleville's JayVees.

It was the junior Rocks fifth win in 13 games.

Strengthened by balanced scoring and relying on a two-plate system throughout much of the contest, Plymouth marched swiftly past the invading Belleville cagers.

Steve Ward, with 15 points, paced Plymouth's offensive efforts. He scored 10 in the second half. Ward is a forward.

Coach Dick Bearup's starting five players accounted for 36 points and the Rocks' second five-man unit added 31. Bearup played all 15 men on his roster with 11 of them sharing in the scoring.

The junior Rocks moved to a 16-9 first period lead and stretched it to 34-17 at the intermission. The third period was more of the same as Plymouth moved further ahead, 48-24.

Ken LaCross led the losers with 11 points.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE $69,000.00 City of Plymouth Rehabilitation Bonds

Sealed bids for the purchase of City of Plymouth Rehabilitation Bonds, to be issued by the City of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, of the par value of $69,000.00, being coupon bonds of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, will be received by the undersigned at the City Hall, 167 S. Main Street, in said City, until 5:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, on Monday, the 4th day of March, 1963, at which time and place said bids will be publicly opened and read.

Said bonds will be dated November 1, 1962, will be numbered consecutively from 1 to 69, both inclusive, and will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding five per cent (5%) per annum, expressed in multiples of 1/8 of 1%, said interest to be payable on November 1, 1963, and semi-annually thereafter on May 1st and November 1st of each year. The interest rate shall be the same on all bonds maturing in any one year and represented by one interest coupon.

Said bonds will mature, without option of prior redemption, on the first day of November of each year as follows: $13,000.00 November 1, 1964; $14,000.00 November 1st of each year from 1965 to 1968, inclusive.

Principal and interest on said bonds shall be payable at a bank or trust company to be designated by the original purchaser of the bonds, which paying agent shall be qualified as such under Michigan or Federal statutes.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from April 1, 1963 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the City. No bid for less than all of the bonds nor for less than 100% of the par value thereof will be considered. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such bonds must be paid by the purchaser at time of delivery.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $1,380.00, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the City of Plymouth, must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest will be allowed on the good faith checks, and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

These bonds will be general obligations of the City of Plymouth, a municipal corporation, which is authorized and required by law to levy upon all the taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay the bonds and interest thereon without limitation as to rate or amount. The bonds are exempt from all taxation in the State of Michigan.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the bonds, which opinion will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof. The City will pay the cost of printing and delivery of the bonds. Executed bonds will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

APPROVED: FEBRUARY 5, 1963 STATE OF MICHIGAN MUNICIPAL FINANCE COMMISSION (2-20-63)

Bird PTA Will Honor 'George'

The Bird Elementary School Parent Teachers Association will observe George Washington's birthday in their monthly meeting to be held on Tuesday the 26th of February.

Included in the program will be a posting of the colors by the Cub Scouts of the Bird School Pack, the Pledge of Allegiance led by Plymouth's newest and youngest naturalized citizen and presentations by the school's second and fifth graders.

Refreshments will follow the motif and as an added feature cherry pies will be presented to those lucky parents who can satisfy a requirement which will be announced at the meeting by the PTA board.

In conjunction with the theme of patriotism the organization has been promoting the idea of a flag in every home in the area. Flag kits have been on sale for the month and this project will be concluded at the meeting. Orders will be taken up to and including that evening.

DECLARES DIVIDEND

Directors of Associated Spring Corporation, with general offices in Bristol, Conn., today declared a first-quarter dividend of 20 cents per share. The dividend is payable March 11 to shareholders of record as of the close of business March 1. A dividend of the same amount was paid each of the last two quarters of 1962.

Plymouth Township Minutes

MEMBERS PRESENT: Roy R. Lindsay, John D. McEwen, Elizabeth Holmes, C. Veach Sparks, Louis Norman.

The meeting of the Township Board was called to order at 8:05 p.m. and the minutes of the meeting of January 8, 1963 were read and approved.

Supervisor Lindsay read a list of bills amounting to $10,258.09. It was moved by Louis Norman, and supported by C. Veach Sparks, that warrants be drawn and bills paid. Carried.

Supervisor Lindsay presented an agreement and Resolution to be consummated between the City of Plymouth and the Township of Plymouth regarding the utilization of common sewerage facilities now in use as well as those planned for the future. This matter was deferred for the time being so that the Board may examine and study the agreement more thoroughly. Communications wherein the Board was notified as to the following items:

- (1) Plymouth Township's Urban Planning grant application was forwarded to U.S. Regional Division of Urban Renewal Agency, as approved by the State of Michigan Urban Planning Section.
- (2) Proposed text and map amendments to the Zoning Ordinance of Canton Township was referred to the Planning Commission.
- (3) Payment of $959.16 to be held in escrow by the American Savings & Loan Association for inspection fees for Park Lane Estates.
- (4) Resolution from the City of Plymouth announcing their discontinuance of stand-by fire protection for the Pilgrim Driven Steel Division of Automotive Materials Corporation was referred to the Fire Department.

A Resolution was passed authorizing Elizabeth Holmes, Treasurer, to transfer funds from the 1962 Tax Collection and to be distributed as follows:

SEWER RECEIVING ACCOUNT	$84,289.50
WATER RECEIVING ACCOUNT	$36,179.57

The Board directed that the amount of $12,626.27 be paid the Wayne County Library Board for services rendered to the Township from December 1, 1961, to November 30, 1962.

The final payment on the D.P.W. building contract was deferred, pending a check of the heating system.

The Board authorized the Leave of Absence, with pay for Captain Maas to attend the Fire Inspectors' Conference in Memphis, Tennessee, from February 23 to March 1, 1963.

A resolution from the Plymouth Township Planning Commission was read commending the Township Board on inaugurating a street lighting program.

A petition from residents in the vicinity of Ann Arbor Trail and Francis Street requesting a street light be installed at that corner, was passed, upon a motion by John D. McEwen, supported by Louis Norman.

Mr. Steward Oldford requested the Board to extend the existing water lines for McClumpha to Beck Road, inasmuch as they are ready to develop Woodlote Subdivision and would rather have Detroit water than the wells as originally planned. The matter was deferred until the March meeting.

Mr. George Wilson appealed to the Board for relief on the charge of a tap-in to the Township sewer line in the front of his home. This matter was deferred for study and examination.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned at 9:20 p.m.

John D. McEwen
Plymouth Township Clerk

LONG LINES at the license bureau on Liberty St. are in store for 1963 license tab buyers, if they delay their purchase much longer. This was the scene a year ago at the license bureau. This year, buyers will obtain the tiny "tabs" shown in the inset. Deadline to buy the tabs is Feb. 28.

nd the GOP nomination. Flodin polled 119 votes, McClumpha had 132.

Incumbent treasurer Phil Dingley won the Democratic nomination for that office with 130 votes, and the GOP's Mrs. Bonnie Berg will oppose Dingley on April 1. She gained 111 votes.

With four trustees to be eventually elected, the seven GOP candidates were trimmed to four, and write-ins helped fill the Democratic slate for April 1 to the maximum of four.

On the Republican side in the Trustee race, incumbent Schultz led the way with 147 votes and fellow incumbent Harvey Vetal polled 126 for second place. The other two nominations went to Perry Hix (112 votes) and Richard Palmer (110).

Eliminated on the Republican side were: Robert Simmons who was fifth with 94 votes, and John Collins and William Sprengel each of whom received 55 votes.

The two declared Democratic candidates for Trustee nominations were George Bradley and Henry Rupert, who were joined via write-in votes by Forrest Truesdell and Melvin Paulun. Bradley led with 72 votes, Rupert had 63, Truesdell polled 23 write-ins and Paulun had five write-ins.

There was one Republican nomination for the single justice-of-the-peace vacancy. It went to Shedd who had 23 votes. He will be opposed April 1 by Democratic nominee Alton Shirley who had 89 votes Monday.

There was no Democratic candidate for the nomination to the Canton Board of Review. Republican nominee is Albert Schrader who gained Four constable vacancies will be fought among a full Democratic slate and one lone Republican nominee.

The single Republican nomination went to Wilford Cather with 131 votes. There were no other GOP candidates for constable.

The quartet of Democratic nominees for constable is comprised of Bert Walling (105 votes), Samuel Grady (75), Lawrence Baron (57) and Joe Canup (54). Eliminated in the Democratic constable race was Ernest Mueller who wound up with 47 votes.

Plymouthite Guest Speaker at W.S.U. Education Clinic

Dr. Harold C. Wells, of Plymouth, will be a speaker at the second annual alumni-faculty clinic of Wayne State University College of Education Saturday, March 16.

Dr. Wells, of 1368 Dewey, is principal of McKinley School in Livonia.

The day-long event, composed of 23 clinics, will be held in the Community Arts Auditorium and the College of Education building on the W.S.U. campus. All area educators are invited.

Clinic theme is "Meeting the Challenge of the Megalopolis Through Experimentation and Research."

Credit Union to Hold Discussion on New Constitution March 1

A discussion of the proposed new Michigan constitution will be held Friday, March 1, at the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union.

The event will begin at 8 p.m. Con-con delegate Mrs. Adelaide Hart will explain how the proposed document will affect residents of the state and will emphasize its relationship to problems in the areas of education and taxation.

Chairman for the meeting will be William J. Nelson. Sponsored by the Citizens for Sound Government Committee, the meeting will feature refreshments later in the evening.

The public is invited.

tion will be Lindsay, who received 413 votes, and McEwen who got 401. It will be Lindsay's sixth term as supervisor and Mrs. Holmes fifth as treasurer.

Only declared candidate on the Democratic primary ballot Monday was Maurice Breen, who won nomination for justice-of-the-peace with 33 votes. He will oppose Republican nominee Lawrence Schendel who defeated another GOP candidate, Lee Butler, by a 264-149 margin.

There is one JP vacancy to be decided April 1.

Meanwhile, the four constable candidates at the Republican ticket were automatically nominated in Monday's balloting. There was no Democratic opposition here either and, hence, all four are as good as elected to office.

The four — and their degrees of favor with the voters — are:

Louis Schomberger, a volunteer Township fireman, who polled 342 votes; Philip Truesdell who had 318; Donald King who had 313; and Robert Burns with 303.

Incumbent board of review member Walter K. Sumner, a descendant of an area pioneer family, was strongly endorsed. He won nomination with 382 votes and will be unopposed April 1.

Write-in votes for lesser Township offices were insufficient for any of the prospective candidates to gain a spot on the April 1 ballot.

A total of 520 votes turned out to cast ballots, nearly one-third more than voted in the Township primary two years ago. The Trustee race was singled out as the major cause for the increase.

In other statistics, the turnout represented about 13.5 percent of the registered voters in the Township. Registrations were figured to be 3,864 by Clerk McEwen.

April 1 biennial spring general election.

Write-in votes produced another Democratic nominee, James Johnston, a candidate for treasurer. Johnston gained 10 write-ins and, thus, will oppose Taylor on April 1 for the $1,000-per-year treasurer's job.

Republicans in Salem Township swept all other nominations.

Ralph Cole was unopposed in his efforts to win the GOP nomination for one justice-of-the-peace vacancy. Cole was the recipient of 299 votes, and thus led his party in vote-getting strength.

Robert Bulmon defeated Coda Savery, 254-137, in the race for one vacancy on the Township's board of review. The four constable candidates were all winners, since there are an equal number of vacancies.

The four are: Carleton Hardesty (281 votes); William Edmunds (257); Raymond Doolin (247); and Kent Stanbury (242).

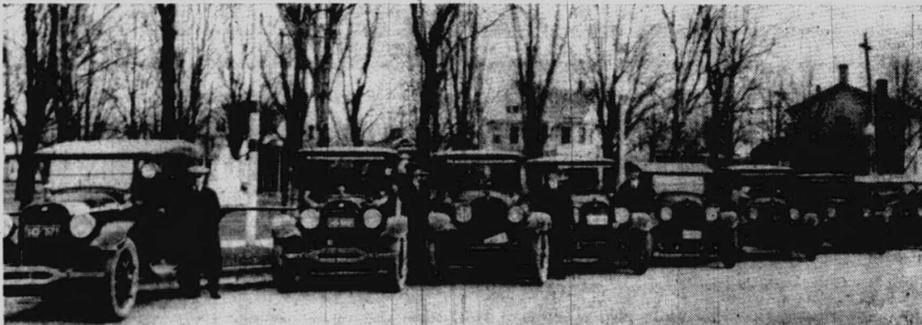

There were other write-in votes cast in the Salem balloting, but none of the persons involved received sufficient votes to gain a spot on the April 1 election ballot.

The canvass of Salem Township voting returns in order to declare them official, was to take place no later than Wednesday evening.

Commissioners also were notified that City of Dearborn will host the annual regional meeting of Region III of the Michigan Municipal League on March 21.

Township of six sewer lines, thus to provide more efficient flowage rights.

City Manager Albert Glassford reported his findings on a previous request by Northville Coach Lines to pick up customers in Plymouth for an "express" bus service to downtown Detroit. Glassford had talked with officials of the DSR.

As a result of his report, Commissioners gave permission to the Northville firm to make a stop at the C & O railroad depot here to load and unload customers.

Commissioners approved the first hearing of an amendment to the City's zoning ordinance, wherein open storage shall be permitted in manufacturing (M-1) districts. It must pass two more readings before becoming official.

Rev. Donald Williams, pastor of the First Baptist Church, appeared to voice an objection to the recent action taken by the Commission enjoining a pending House bill that would permit qualified hotels and motels to sell liquor by the glass, whether the area concerned is "wet" or "dry".

"I feel that democracy has taken a step backwards when this sort of thing goes on," he said. "The citizens of the City voted liquor-by-the-glass down and you go ahead and endorse a bill that proposes liquor in 'dry' areas."

Commissioners waived an additional "going-out-of-business" fee, amounting to $200, upon the request of Stan Kirsh, owner and manager of Fashion Shoes here. He had earlier paid the initial $100 fee. He said that Fashion Shoes will close permanently on Feb. 28.

Byron Becker, Thomas Kelly, Stewart Oldford, Robert Gilles and Harold Stevens were appointed to a Board of Appeals on Building. The body has the duty of answering various technical questions, or hearing appeals from the decision of the building inspector, and for rendering final decisions.

Flagg McCartney, who operates a service station at 702 South Main, requested permission to tear down his station and replace it with a bar. City officials will contact him as to the proper methods of accomplishing this.

A request by a leukemia service group to conduct a fund-raising campaign was referred to the Community Fund.

Commissioners accepted the first Master Plan Study of the City's future development as "a tool on which to make plans."

Commissioners were to meet jointly with the Township Board Tuesday night to discuss the transfer of a six-inch water main along General Drive. The main presently belongs to the City and the Township wishes to acquire it.

The Commission also learned it will cost the City almost $14,000 to relocate the 10-inch water main that runs along Northville Rd. The relocation of the main is necessary since the county is planning to widen bridges there.

Glassford was authorized to prepare bids on the project. Cost of the work will come from the Water Improvement Fund.

Commissioners also were notified that City of Dearborn will host the annual regional meeting of Region III of the Michigan Municipal League on March 21.

Salem Treasurer 'In' As Next Supervisor

Salem Township's treasurer appears likely to make a job change come April 1, but he won't really be going too far, geographically.

Glenn Renwick, 65, is the Salem Treasurer today, but beginning the day after the spring biennial general election on April 1, he is as good as guaranteed of being Salem Supervisor.

He will also get a $2,000 a year pay raise. As treasurer he draws an annual salary of $1,000, but the supervisor's pay is $3,000.

Renwick, born in Salem, won the Republican nomination for Salem supervisor in Monday's primary balloting as he handily defeated another GOP hopeful, Roland Brengle.

Renwick out-pulled Brengle, 297-129, and helped turn back a four-man faction that had contributed to a stormy primary campaign trail there. Only one of the four-member faction was nominated.

With no Democratic opposition, for lack of a candidate at the primary election, Renwick appears a cinch to win the supervisor's job in the forth-coming general election.

The chance of a write-in campaign defeating him is slight, indeed.

The incumbent supervisor in Salem is Harlow Ingall, who chose not to run for reelection.

Renwick is a retired farmer, who lived in Plymouth for 20 years (1926-46), and was an auto salesman at Allison Chevrolet here for a time and then managed his own used car lot later.

He is a member of the F & AM Masonic Lodge here and of the Plymouth Grange. His other affiliations include the South Salem Farm Bureau. He is a member of the Salem Federated Church. Renwick lives at 7596 Angle Rd.

Your BEAUTY CARE

By MIDGE DU VALL

Authorities tell us that one out of four women use hair coloring. Most women and especially those of us in the business, can quickly spot hair coloring defects that need not exist.

A good coloring should leave the hair glistening and light reflecting instead of having a flat, even color. When selecting a color from a chart, be sure you choose a color that is a shade lighter than the finished color you desire.

Here at MIDGE'S, you will find experts to give you friendly, genuine help. You will see our experts are highly skilled, the best in the business. You will be proud of how they handle your hair. Come in or phone - PHONE GL 3-1690 for an appointment and see for yourself.

Have You Heard How MODERN GAS DRYERS "Baby" Your Clothes?

Nothing treats your clothes better than a modern gas dryer! The gas dryer is so kind to diapers and dresses, creepers and comfy clothes of all sorts.

There's no sun-fading or wind-whipping to damage clothes in the gas dryer . . . only gentle warm breezes . . . that's why clothes wear longer. White clothes stay whiter and all clothes come out fluffy, sweet and shine-fresh.

And it's not only the clothes that benefit from the gas dryer . . . the whole family is better off! No more stooping, carrying and stretching for Mother . . . she just turns the dial and clothes are dry in minutes instead of hours. That means she has more time for cooking, gardening and for family fun!

Sound the trumpets, unfurl the banners, the Shakespearean actors have come to town. Well, not Plymouth, at least they are close at hand in Ann Arbor. The Winter Shakespearean series under the auspices of the Michigan Professional Theater program opened last week to loud acclaim from all the critics.

Old George was seen throwing his chapeau high into the clouds in recognition of the fine job done by Ellis Raab and company.

Some of our old favorites from the U of M players were on stage with the professional company: Ed Ciccarelli (now known as Ed Cambria), George Pentecost, and Nancy Heisel. They performed their parts admirably.

In fact, "Midsummer Night's Dream" was a perfect beginning for what we hope will continue over the years until the full complement of 37 plays will be seen in Ann Arbor. Several busloads of Plymouth students attended the matinees.

With so much theatrical activity in the area: the Wayne State players, Vanguard, U of M. Professional Theater, the Stables Coffeehouse, the Fisher and at least twenty more to mention if I had the space... little wonder that we have feeling that theatrically we have begun to arrive.

Add the AAUW Children's Theater performances to that list of growing attractions that always please their audiences.

On Saturday, Feb. 23, the AAUW Children's Theater will unveil "Beauty and the Beast" for its eager moppet audience.

The AAUW has adopted a practice of not crowding too many children in the auditorium. They restrict their audiences to 325. This is an excellent practice. Along with their strict supervision you can be assured that everyone will be able to hear and enjoy the fine performances of "Beauty and the Beast".

As in the past, the production will be a colorful extravaganza. Children's theater must have some thing flashy, full of action, and scenes that make kids "oooh" and "aaah." And the story Lady is an integral part. She quietly guides the young folks (ages 4-9) so that they obtain the maximum amount of pleasure for the ageless favorite "Beauty and the Beast". Tickets are on sale for this big, wonderful show at your local P.T.A. or any member of the AAUW.

Vanguard's professional Children's theater is playing "Jack and the Beanstalk" Saturday and Sundays at 2 p.m. If your youngsters enjoy the current AAUW presentation of "Beauty and the Beast", you might want to treat them to some additional fun and thrills by attending the Vanguard matinees on the weekends in March. William Feaster, Vanguard's top comic, plays the Giant in droll fashion. His interpretation is sure to be a favorite with the small fry.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS-AT-HEART

BY MELVIN L. WOELL, MGR. INFORMATION DIVISION MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

The U.S. wheat surplus is a terrific problem. Farmers, economists and politicians agree that we can't continue piling up wheat. But what to do with it? Obviously, sell more. If we don't need it in the United States, how about foreign trade?

Canada continues to make a financial killing by shipping wheat to Red China. The United States, meanwhile, has a rigid rule preventing use of such Communist markets these few short years after Red Chinese slaughtered American and Canadian boys in Korea.

In today's super-charged international atmosphere, the U.S. farmer is greatly limited in the amount of his surplus wheat that can enter the foreign market. He strongly backs the idea of no trade with the Communist bloc, deplores other deals where the government makes international politics a part of the price. He is wary of the proposed high tariffs talked of in the European Common Market, and finds comfort in the fact that 70 per cent of all wheat sold "overseas" last year, moved under Public Law 480. This is the law that allows American surplus crops to be exchanged, — not for dollars, but for the currency of the country buying them.

Adding to the uneasiness is the new "Multiple-Price Certificate Plan," upon which farmers will note in referendum. Should the scheme go into effect, the Secretary of Agriculture would have power to manipulate these Public Law 480 sales in several fashions. The proposed Certificate plan would force exporters to first buy certificates, (average value about 80 cent per bushel) then solicit the Commodity Credit Corporation for an export subsidy, which when received "may be more or less than the cost of the certificates." Then add this chunk of red-tape. "The portion of wheat production for export, covered by certificates, is 'discretionary' with the Secretary."

Instead of encouraging expanded foreign sales, such political proposals could be the final blow to farm hopes of more markets. Rather than providing a solution to the surplus wheat problem, the proposed Certificate plan for wheat is a monstrosity, another bureaucratic Rube Goldberg device.

FAT OVERWEIGHT

Available to you without a doctor's prescription, the new drug called ODRINEX. You must lose weight in 7 to 10 days or your money back. No strenuous exercise, laxatives, massage or taking of so-called reducing candies, crackers or cookies, or chewing gum. ODRINEX is a tiny tablet and easily swallowed. When you take ODRINEX, you still enjoy your meals, still eat the foods you like but you simply don't have the urge for extra portions because ODRINEX depresses your appetite and decreases your desire for food. Your weight must come down, because as your own doctor will tell you, when you eat less, you weigh less. Get rid of excess fat and live longer. ODRINEX costs $3.00 and is sold on this GUARANTEE: If not satisfied for any reason just return the package to your druggist and get your full money back. No questions asked. INSURANCE MAN ROY FISHER, of 11734 Amherst Court, isn't sure how much these nine bills are worth today, but a century ago their face value amounted to $44. Eight of the nine bills are for $3 and the bottom one is a $20 bill. All of them date from the time of the "wild-cat" banks, when so many bills were issued by innumerable banks throughout the state that the notes became worthless and the banks folded. Eventually the government voided this type of currency, Fisher explained. He feels that the nine bills today each may be worth as much as $15. A collector for three years, Fisher has 70 different notes issued by state banks, insurance companies and mining banks. All date from the period 1830-1860. The $20 note at the bottom of the picture was payable originally at the old Wayne County bank here in Plymouth. The bill was issued about 1837, Fisher said.

High Honors to Musicians From Junior High East

Instrumental musicians from Junior High East won a total of 68 ribbons in two divisions of competition at the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Festival at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti last Saturday.

In all, 3,500 high school band students from Wayne, Washtenaw and Monroe counties performed for judges. The Plymouth contingent was awarded 40 blue ribbons, signifying superior performance in the first division, and 28 red ribbons for excellent performance in the second division.

Judges were comprised of top-ranked instrumental high school and college instructors, as well as several professional musicians. Competition was among soloists and ensembles.

Many of the Plymouth soloists and ensemble groups were accompanied by William Grimmer, vocal instructor at Junior High East. Instrumental instructor at Junior High East is Laurence Livingston.

A blue ribbon indicates the best possible performance in a particular age level and section of competition. The red ribbon signifies excellent performance in similar categories.

Soloists receiving a blue ribbon, first division, superior rating included:

Ed Jones, tenor saxophone; Don Burleson, baritone; Dick Lorenz, trombone; Norman Fischer, cello; Robin Wideman, violin; Jim Nelson and Ron Jones, sousaphone; Cornelia Delaney, flute.

Students who performed in ensembles and were rated first division, superior, were: Joelle Kuczynski and Laura Raaflaub, Cornelia Delaney and Nancy Each, flute quartet;

Betsy Williams, Andy Wisniewski and Cheryl Drennan, violins.

Ensembles awarded the second division ratings included:

Laura Raaflaub and Joelle Kuczynski, flute duet; Sharyn O'Brien and Leslie Smith, clarinet duet; Cindy Erdelyi and Margaret Rudloff, clarinet duet;

Donna Tate, Brian Smith, Bob Myers, and Jill Dunlap, clarinet quartet; Tom Weber, Jim Gibson, Ron Jones, Dick Lorenz, Danny Hartford and Sam Farmer, brass sextet; Roberta Van Meter and Joan Thom, violin duet; Jane Palmer and Roberta Van Meter, violin duet.

Honor Student Ruth Ann Lidgard Eyes Peace Corps Work

In reporting the scholastic list of the "Top Ten" seniors among Plymouth High's 1963 graduating class of 316 students in last week's issue, complete information on the student placing tenth was omitted in data submitted by The Mail's high school correspondent.

Because the story dealt with the top ten students, we herein, present the complete information concerning the tenth-place student, Ruth Ann Lidgard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lidgard, of 11826 Morgan.

Holding a 3.66 average, Ruth Ann, a member of the National Honor Society, is considering entering the Peace Corps sometime next Fall. She will not be 18, minimum age requirement for the Peace Corps, until next August.

Presently a library assistant at Junior High East, Ruth Ann is formerly a member of the future Nurses Club and secretary of the Spanish Club.

A cheerleader for two years, she was a member of the PHS band for two years, where she was a member of the flute section. In her freshman year she received a scholarship from the Elks to attend Interlochen where she was a member of the All-State High School Band, holding eighth chair in the 32 flute section.

MRS. WILLIAM BIRGE

Transylvania Goulash is the recipe offered by Mrs. William Birge, this week's guest cook. The recipe is unusual because it teams up fresh cabbage and sauerkraut with beef, instead of the usually expected pork.

Mrs. Birge received the recipe from a friend whose mother had used it for years and suggests it for a hearty winter meal and for potluck suppers.

She is the mother of four children. Peter, 10, and Anne, 6, are in the fifth and first grades at Bird school. There are two pre-schoolers still at home, Nancy, 5, and John, 2. The family lives at 1294 W. Maple.

Reading is Mrs. Birge's favorite hobby but she is also interested in the theatre and music and is an active member of the A. A. U. W.

5th Symphony Concert Will Feature Cello Solo

The fifth concert by the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra will be held Sunday afternoon, March 10, and will feature a solo performance by a widely-known cellist who is also assistant professor of cello and chamber music at the University of Michigan.

Jerome Jelinek, a former member of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under Paul Paray, will be the soloist.

The concert will be held in the Senior High auditorium and will begin at 4 p.m. on March 10, as is the case with all Sunday afternoon performances. Free baby sitter service for children over the age of two will be provided.

Jelinek will play the Boccherini Cello Concerto in B-flat major.

Symphony conductor Wayne Dunlap has centered the remainder of the March 10 performance around a "space music" theme featuring the overture to "The World of the Moon" by Haydn and selections from "The Planets" by Holst.

Jelinek, the guest soloist, received both his Bachelor and Master of Music degrees from the University of Michigan and was at one time the cellist for the U.S. Naval Academy's string quartet.

A 1956-57 Fulbright scholar, Jelinek during that span lived in London and studied at the Royal Academy of Music. He has presented concerts and recitals in both England and Germany.

Since 1961 he has been on the faculty at the University of Michigan school of music.

The March 10 concert is the fifth such performance of the orchestra's 17th season. Final concert of the current season is scheduled for April 21.

Symphony publicist Mary Anderson said that attendance for the four previous concerts this year has averaged around 850, about equal to average attendance of last season.

The Family Concert, always popular, featured a particularly high attendance and helped boost the average, she said.

There is no charge for admission to any of the Symphony concerts here.

Board, Administration To Meet at Hotel

A joint dinner meeting of the Board of Education and members of the administrative staff will be held Monday evening at the Hotel Mayflower.

Purpose of the informal session, which will not include a review of past accomplishments of the School District and discuss major needs for the 1963-64 school year.

In other news from the school system superintendent Russell Isbister this week is attending the annual conference of the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Isbister will serve on a panel discussion group during one portion of the four-day convention, which concludes Thursday. An estimated 20,000 school administrators are attending the affair, many from Canada.

Among the guest speakers will be Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Art Around Us: by Mrs. Ispis Hudson

Art, from the time of the cave-dwellers, Egyptian slaves, members of medieval guilds and communities, was for the most part executed by anonymous artists. But after the twelfth century and as the Church gradually ceased to be the only patron of the arts, princes, nobles and wealthy burghers began to take over this function. Subject matter also began to change from religious traditions to more worldly representations and individual artists began to emerge from anonymity.

One of the first artists to be known by name, Cimabue (chimbaboo) of Florence, was credited with a great many masterpieces, including a huge Madonna enthroned between two angels. Some doubt exists, however, about just how much work was actually done by this master and how much by lesser known contemporaries. On the whole, Cimabue (or friends) kept to accepted Byzantine tradition, painting his figures in ceremonial poses, with abstract colors on a gold background. His style was distinctive, though, and heralded an attempt to introduce space into hitherto two-dimensional paintings by using bolder movement and freer line. Whether or not he was the painter of all the masterpieces attributed to him, Cimabue is an important figure in the renaissance art as the teacher of Giotto.

Giotto (jotto) of Bordone is considered the father of Renaissance naturalistic painting though a superficial look at his work makes one wonder what it had in common with the later painters. He used many of the Byzantine traditions, gold backgrounds, awkward poses, large central motif, but there is a new emotionality to the poses and expressions and some attempt at spatial representation. Giotto's angels are airborne and seem to zoom around in a more naturalistic environment and to his contemporaries these paintings seemed very realistic indeed. They seem old-fashioned and stiff to our eyes, conditioned as they are to later conventions of perspective both linear and aerial, to overlapping planes, and to change in size and shape. One wonders if our present paintings will seem as old-fashioned and primitive to viewers six hundred years from now. Take paintings such as William Lewis' (Louis) presently at the Forsythe Gallery in Ann Arbor, for instance. To many viewers not yet adjusted to the contemporary world of abstraction they may seem to be two hundred years ahead of this time, but how will they look to viewers of 2563? Will they seem quaint and naive as Giotto's seem to us? Will Lewis' pink, red and white splashes symbolizing Robert Frost seem like an overstatement? We, ourselves, do not see just these particular colors represent Robert Frost who seems more blue and orange and white to us, but we wonder what the future viewer will think of them.

We could wish that Mr. Lewis were not so literary in his titles but would leave us free to enjoy his abstractions without inserting social meanings. He has a series called "Notices on the Gates of Hell" and somewhere upon an otherwise appealing abstraction is printed such slogans as "We mind our own business," "We only follow orders," or "Accept no substitutes." While these may be legitimate criticisms of our society and ones with which we agree, we are not at all sure that they belong on paintings. One is apt to be so busy hunting for the written message that one forgets to see the painting. The didactic meaning creates a barrier between the viewer and the painting. The paintings are satisfying enough in themselves.

Farrand PTA to Hear Mrs. Belle Murray Speak

The Farrand P.T.A. will meet next Tuesday, Feb. 26 at 8 p.m. A short business meeting will be held to highlight plans for the forthcoming Flower and Fun Festival scheduled for May.

Highlight of the evening will be the guest speaker, Mrs. Belle Farley Murray, a well known child psychologist. Her subject will be "Why Our Children Act Like That!"

Mrs. Murray, who is a resident of Plymouth, has served on the staff of the University of Michigan Extension Service since 1941. A graduate of Michigan State University, she has done both undergraduate and graduate work in child development and parent education at Merrill-Palmer School in Detroit.

She also served on the staff as a specialist in parent education. For a four year period she served as director of Religious education at Christ Church, Cranbrook.

Of even greater interest, however is the fact that Mrs. Murray has the down-to-earth experience and practical point of view of a wife and mother. She has endeavored herself to hundreds of parents through-out Michigan by her warm personal interest and obvious sincerity in helping those with whom she has come in contact.

Three Cities Art Club Exhibit Here

The Three Cities Art Club met at Edgerton Studio, Northville, on Feb. 12, to discuss plans for its April meeting which will be held in the Space Theatre, Ann Arbor. At that time members will witness a stage show, produced by Milton Chohen, which demonstrates a new artform using dynamic projection of light and sound.

A new art display of paintings and ceramic work by members of the Three Cities Art Club went on exhibit at the Dunning-Hough Library last Saturday, replacing the display by Plymouth High School art students, which has been on exhibit since last December.

AAUW to Hear Talk by Dr. Quale

Dr. Gladys Robine Quale, a professor of history at Albion College, will be guest speaker when the Plymouth branch of the AAUW (American Association of University Women) hold their dinner meeting at the Mayflower Hotel this Thursday, Feb. 21 at 6:30 p.m.

Dr. Quale, a recipient of a fellowship award from the national organization, will discuss the fellowship program.

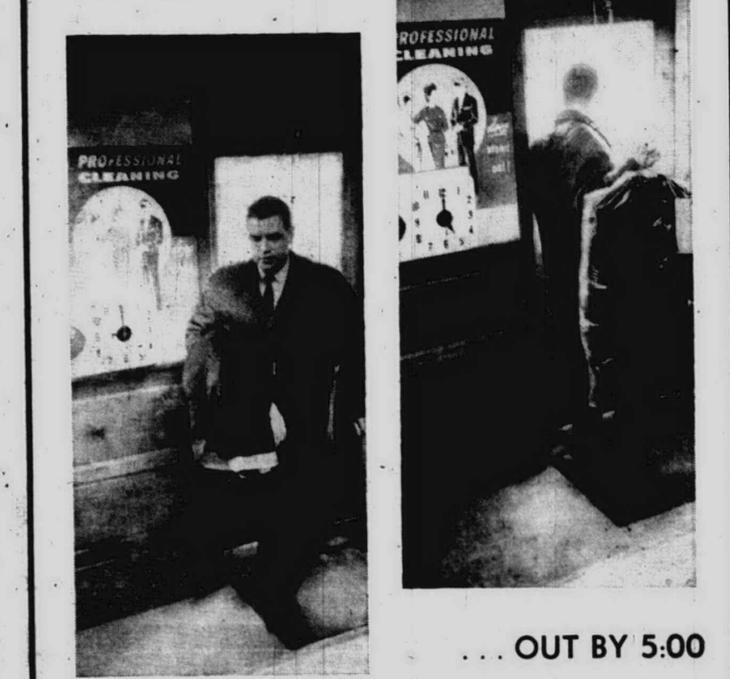

Hostesses for the dinner are Mrs. C. C. Wiltse, chairman; Mrs. W. V. Clarke and Mrs. Elmer H. Smith.

I'm glad our college board didn't give away that free year of tuition they offered to the winner of their name contest. It seems appropriate to me that they award it to themselves and use the study to improve their own judgment, especially along the lines of choosing names for institutions of higher learning.

The name of Schoolcraft is about as appropriate as would have been Podunk or Pottsville and the association of Henry Schoolcraft with this area is equally inappropriate.

I could rationalize Tonquish, the old Indian chief that caused so much trouble in and around Plymouth and Livonia, or some synonymous German handle that might relate in some way to the fine old German families that settled Livonia, but, Schoolcraft? Actually it doesn't mean anything to this total area except that there is a road by that name that does go through the locality.

Granted, Schoolcraft isn't the official name, but I can see absolutely no relation to it for any institution in Western Wayne County. When you are practicing your cheer leading at home tonight just try this one:

Don't fall off the raft
We'll fight for old Schoolcraft
You might think we are daft
But we'll win this game and laugh
Go, go, go for old Schoolcraft

Frank Konazeski up on Adams street nearly dropped his Sunday morning cup of coffee when he saw the color picture of Lt. Col. Jack Downey on the front page of the Parade section of the Detroit Free Press. Frank hadn't seen or heard of Downey since he served as a second Lt. navigator for Konazeski, a technical Sgt., in the air force during World War II when they were stationed in Italy.

Mayor Robert Sincok didn't report to the City Commission that he had seen Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy in Washington while on his recent visit there. A chance sight of Kennedy in one of the Washington office buildings prompted Sincok to walk over to him, offer his hand and say he was Bob Sincok from Plymouth... failing of course to mention Michigan. Kennedy responded with a warm handshake and said he was glad to say hello.

Martin Kirchoff, vacationing down in Phoenix, Arizona, sent us a clipping of Robert Ruark's column appearing in a daily there... the same one that appeared in the Free Press last Tuesday... giving more complete details on our scoop, of several weeks ago, about Daisy Manufacturing Company and Cass Hough building a factory and furnishing BB guns to the youth in India for preliminary military training.

Ruark says a contract calls for the building of a million dollar factory in Punjab, with the Indian's owning 51 per cent control. Completion of such a program wouldn't surprise me, as that active, generously inclined mind under Hough's thinning hair did institute this country's first big premium give-aways of Daisy toy pistols, etc. with our big national food manufacturers.

Look out for the day when you'll get a free tin box of Poppadums with a package of BBs, from "Injah"... you jolly well know.

Uncle Sam is getting ready to make a new kind of postal inspection here in Plymouth. Under the guise of an evaluation, many forms will be submitted to local postal authorities to provide information about local postal service to experts back in Washington.

I thought, perhaps, I could eliminate all this extra work for them by just putting a few words here saying that, as far as I know, Plymouthites are well pleased with their postal service, its personnel and its postmaster.

There is no use recording all the accomplishments of our local post office, such as every piece of Christmas mail being delivered the day before Christmas, the winning of award after award for superior accomplishment, safety and civic interest and participation.

With retirement in the offing, we would like to go on record of giving postmaster George Timpona a real pat on the back for his fine record, and that of his employees, since he became postmaster in 1949. Back in those days the postoffice grossed $162,000 and today it is almost a million dollar business, yet, with this tremendous growth postmaster Timpona still finds time to make every little postal problem his own, especially if it will help some local resident or the postal department in doing an efficient job.

Perhaps the local postoffice can just send this item to Washington, instead of filling out all those forms, to let authorities there know that all those we have an excellent postmaster and an equally excellent crew of some fifty employees to handle our mail.

Dear Sterling:
This is just a quick personal word to you. I note with interest the couple of paragraphs concerning the Sutton Road matter as it appeared in the February 6 "Chips" column. The comment Mel Partridge then made to you might imply that the term, North Territorial Road, had never been used until the county put up signs to that effect sometime in 1926.

True enough, as Mel says, the road was once also known as Sutton Road. My theory is this, however — that when the county road commission finally got around to give the highway some attention, and make improvements, as Mel says they did in 1926, they also decided to also give the road its old and correct designation. Only Mel, it seems, made no comment on the "North" part of the name.

In my opinion — or at least it is my theory — that there was never any legislation enacted to decree that the road should be called either Sutton or North Territorial — or even just Territorial. If there had ever been such we could just look up the statute or official rulings and that would end the matter. It would seem that in the early days people didn't much care what a highway might be named, anything so long as they knew where they were going.

When I was a boy in Plymouth what is now known as Penniman avenue in Plymouth was then known as Sutton street. And my mother before me, who was born in Plymouth in 1896, always used to say that it was Sutton street as far back as she could remember. I have before me a map, prepared by the Burton Abstract & Title Company, showing downtown Plymouth as it appeared in 1835. Sure enough, the controversial Sutton road was so named on it. But that does not necessarily indicate that it was never called North Territorial also. Map makers sometimes debate among themselves on these matters. The Sutton road residents of 1926 might have been so long used to that designation that they had either forgotten or perhaps never even knew about the North Territorial name.

On this same map I have, the present Ann Arbor Trail through Plymouth is marked "Territorial Road," and the present Main street is set down at "Mill Road." The 1926 residents of Sutton Road, or North Territorial Road, as Mel says, were disgusted when county men came along and erected the "North Territorial" signs. And maybe they had reason to be — or at least thought they had reason to be disgusted — but — did any of them at that time pry into the matter — or do some research work to learn just why county officials did as they did. Anyway, this whole happy discussion was motivated by the desire on the part of some to merely ascertain the why of the "North" in North Territorial Road and that I tried to explain to The Mail in a few issues back. As to the Sutton name, while I've always been interested in it,

I've so far never seen, nor talked with anyone, who either knew who Mr. Sutton was, nor whence came the name. Perhaps the knowledge can somewhere be located but, so far, I've never done any research in the matter. If anybody already knows "how come?" — then will somebody please let somebody else know too? Mel may be right — but so could I be. On the surface at least, there still seems to be no inconsistency. Cordially

Sterling Eaton
Dear Sterling:
To the Editor: Living in the Sunshine State thirteen hundred miles from Plymouth we still read the Mail with interest especially Chips from the Rock.

It seems some of the good people of Plymouth feel they have a corner on why Territorial Road. Is it possible this road became disjointed? Battle Creek has a Territorial Road also.

Then a few weeks ago a Florida beach was brought up in this column. I think it would be well to have a word on beaches just to clear up a few scores also. Last Aug. Mrs. Terry and I visited the Daytona beach also the beach fifteen miles to the south and this is what we found. A beautiful beach with hundreds of cars, hot dog wagons, ice cream carts, floats and umbrellas for rent. A real nice, place to drive.

Now for the real estate man the ex-politician and electrician if it is a beach to enjoy using and for beauty the best beaches are on the west coast of Florida. (CLEARWATER)

Sincerely
Harry and Maria Terry

Water Leak Keep
DPW Crews Busy

The City's public works department was troubled last week by broken water lines, one of which was a 12-inch main in front of 416 N. Evergreen.

DPW superintendent Joseph Bida explained that the 12-inch main was reported broken early Saturday and complications in locating the exact position of the break required nearly 10 hours of effort.

The break was finally sealed by late evening, Bida said. A similar situation took place on Sheridan Ave., where once more the exact point of the break was difficult to locate. Three other broken water mains, along with two frozen water lines, plagued the DPW, too, last week.

Bida reported that the City spread 122 tons of salt at various points during the week.

Mert Who??

Everything was fine in last week's announcement about a new manager of the Standard Service station at Main St. and Ann Arbor Tr.

Everything, that is, except the name of the new manager himself. Mert Williams recognized his face in the photo but the accompanying caption had him identified as "Mert Roberts." Williams has taken over the operation of the Standard station that City Mayor Robert Sincok has operated since 1952. The Mail regrets the mix-up on names.

PLYMOUTH

Telephone lines

By HUGH C. BRONAUGH, Manager

IF CALLING the folks back home has been only an occasional treat, why not make it a regular weekly event... at a time most convenient for you? More and more people are taking advantage of the lower Long Distance rates on many calls within Michigan. During the daytime, you can make a three-minute station-to-station call to anywhere in Michigan for a dollar or less. After 6 p.m. weekdays and all day Sunday, rates are even lower — 70¢ or less up to 9 p.m. And after 9 p.m., every day, you can call for 50¢ or less. Excluding taxes, of course. Take advantage of these low rates by calling your Michigan relatives and friends often. No doubt about it, Long Distance is the next best thing to being there.

THERE'S MONEY IN A PILE of old phone books. That's why we ship mountains of old directories back to the paper mill. They're reduced to pulp once again, then made into new paper for future Michigan Bell telephone directories. We salvage about 3 million old directories every year — enough to fill a 76-car freight train to capacity! This behind-the-scenes operation saves us a considerable amount of money. And it's just one of the many ways all of us at Michigan Bell work to keep expenses down so we can continue to provide you with telephone service that's high in value, low in cost.

Some $10,000 rolls into Michigan for every student from another state who attends Michigan State University for four years, according to a study by that institution.

A slight variation between the tuition fees at MSU, the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, the "Big Three" of state-supported institutions of higher learning, would indicate this could be an average contribution to Michigan's economy.

Multiply this by the number of non-resident students at the three universities and the contribution to the state is considerable.

Tuition at MSU is $870 per year for the nine-month school year, to non-residents. During the most recent complete school term MSU recorded 5,421 out-of-state students at East Lansing and another 77 at its Oakland branch.

The University of Michigan charges out-of-state students $900 during the first two years, and $960 for the upper-class years. The Ann Arbor institution leads the state colleges in non-resident enrollments with 7,748 out-of-state students registered last fall.

At Wayne, some 771 non-residents pay $666 per year for their education.

With the exception of one or two universities, MSU and U. of M. charge the highest non-resident rates in the nation.

Freeway motoring in Michigan would have fewer hazards if the traffic flow were more closely regulated, according to some experts.

With this closer regulation in mind, State Sen. Lester O.

A unique plan by a state aide completely outside the field of conservation is gaining strength rapidly among the outdoor recreation specialists.

When Paul Lutzeier, aide to the Secretary of State, first proposed the creation of a chain of 20 islands in Lake St. Clair, he considered it a dream which might be fulfilled during his lifetime.

"As a bachelor I will not leave any children to enjoy Michigan's recreational facilities, but it would be a great satisfaction to be able to have contributed something to the enjoyment of future generations," said Lutzeier.

Now the plan for using the shallow lake channel for filling in islands will be presented formally to the Michigan Legislature. The Conservation Commission has given Conservation Director Gerald E. Eddy the go-ahead to ask for $100,000 for the initial study of the Lutzeier proposal.

Legislators interested in recreation have already heard much of the plan.

Four different ways to make going more fun than getting there

You can see why one of America's favorite outdoor sports is driving Chevrolets, with four entirely different kinds of cars like these to choose from. There's the Jet-smooth Chevrolet, about as luxurious as you can go without going overboard in price (has lots of new lower upkeep features, too, like a flush-and-dry rocker panel ventilating system that helps remove rust-causing salt and slush); the new low-cost Chevy II, a good-looking, fun-loving car that would send any family packing; another perennial family favorite, the sporty Corvair, whose rear-engine traction will make you think that ice and snow are kid stuff; and for pure driving adventure, America's only homegrown sports car, Corvette — now in two all-new versions with looks that can stop traffic like a rush-hour blizzard. Chances are you've already picked your favorite. The next thing is to take a turn at the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's. If that doesn't have you thinking of places to go, you'd probably rather spend what's left of winter just having a ball around town!

contributions made by the several hundreds of good citizens in this part of Wayne county who attended last Wednesday night's Lincoln day charity dinner at the Mayflower Hotel.

Mrs. Ralph Lorenz, Mrs. M. G. Blunk, Mrs. Lynn Felton, Mrs. Walter Harms and Mrs. Gus Lundquist attended the comedy, "Room Service" at the Cass matinee in Detroit Wednesday afternoon.

Fourteen friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Farwell on Adams street, in which they just recently moved, and gave them a complete surprise last Saturday night at a housewarming.

Barbara Olaver will entertain the following guests at a dinner party this (Friday) evening, preceding the J-Hop: Ky Moon, Jacqueline Schoof, Betty Mastick, Belva Barnes, Vivian Grovener, Bob Bray, L. J. Owen, Jack Selle, Larry Parmenter, Scott Cole, and Ken Wilbur.

The regular meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter of the D.A.R. will be held Monday afternoon, February 21, at the home of Mrs. Glenn Jewell on Northville road. A book review will be given by Mrs. C. M. Chase. Mrs. Roy Larkins and Miss Marian Paddock will give talks on Lincoln and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Moss were hosts to their dinner bridge club members, Thursday, with the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. Merle Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cowgill, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garlett and Mr. and Mrs. John T. Neal Jr.

Among recent arrivals in St. Petersburg, Florida, according to the registration department of the sunshine city are the following from Plymouth: Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy, Plymouth road; Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt and Marvin Schmidt, Plymouth road; Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Snyder, R. F. D.; Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Sorensen, Penniman avenue; and Chase Willett, Holbrook avenue.

Miss Magdelene Thumme, of Portland, Oregon, spent several days here last week with her uncle, Capt. Charles Thumme and family.

The P.E.O. group met Monday evening with Mrs. Ray Johns in her home on Penniman avenue. Mrs. Perry Richwine gave a talk on Child Welfare in Michigan.

The Laf-a-Lot club will meet with Mr. and Mrs. William Rengert, Saturday evening, for its potluck supper and evening of cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Henderson will entertain a dessert bridge Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johns. The guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Dykhouse, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Chute, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Witwer.

Mrs. Coello Hamilton and daughter, Mrs. Murray G. O'Neil have had as their guest this week Mrs. J. Perry Austin, of Waukegan, Ill. On Wednesday they entertained at luncheon in her honor Mrs. S. Eklund and Mrs. William Vandershalae, of Ann Arbor.

The Farmers' dinner bridge club will meet Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, in their home on Haggerty highway.

Betty Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Jones of Penniman avenue, celebrated Valentine day by entertaining 10 girl friends at a dinner party, Monday evening. Games were played. The following guests were among those present: Virginia Moore, Beth Ann Hobeisel, Margaret Jean Nichol, Joyce Tarnutzer, Jean Campbell, Doris Rowland, Dolores Wilson, Marleeta Martin and Signe Hegge.

50 YEARS AGO
Plymouth is to have a new business firm. Wm. Gayde and Henry Fischer have formed a co-partnership and will conduct a farm implement business here. The new firm, which will be known as Gayde & Fisher will carry a full line of farming implements, wagons, buggies, etc. Their ware room will be located in the building on the north side of Mr. Fisher's blacksmith shop in north village. Both gentlemen are well known and hustling business men of Plymouth.

At a recent meeting of the village council the following election committee were appointed for the coming village election: Registration, E. E. Caster, Anson Hearn and Chas. Curtis; Election Committee, A. Jones, L. Hillmer, E. E. Caster and Chas. Curtis; Election Commission, Fred Schradner and Edward Gayde.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Huston near Cherry Hill last Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Ethel Belle was united in marriage to Fred Barker of Sheldon, in the presence of about one hundred relatives and friends.

The Bonafide Mfg. Co. have sold E. O. Huston a '35 Studebaker touring car. . . . Born, Monday, Feb. 10th, a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Laurence.

granite for his monumental works at Plymouth and Pontiac. Mr. Lyon visited all the large quarries in the Green Mountain state while he was there.

Roderick Cassidy has announced himself as a candidate for the position of village clerk.

Last Monday night dogs got into the flock of sheep owned by C. W. Honeywell, who lives about five miles west of Plymouth, on the Ann Arbor road, and bit four of them so severely that they had to be killed. Several others were also bitten.

Sixteen of the employees of the Daisy factory perpetrated a surprise on Gifford Chase at the home of Myron Willet last week Thursday evening. Cards furnished the amusement of the evening and refreshments were served, and a fine time is reported.

Little Clara Dingledey was quite sick with a cold Tuesday, but stayed at school long enough to recite, so as not to get marked absent.

Miss Pheda Hix of Canton, was a guest of Mrs. Roy Jewell last week.

Remember the supper at the Baptist church, Friday evening, Feb. 28, from 5:30 to 7:30. Price 20 cent.

School was closed here last Monday, on account of the teachers visiting the public schools of Detroit.

Several from here attended the production of Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm at the Detroit Opera house this week.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church will meet Thursday afternoon, Feb. 27, at two o'clock, with Mrs. Louise Reber to talk over important business. All members are requested to be present.

School notes: The girls of the 8th grade are learning to make bread.

Marie Powell entertained twenty-two of her friends at a Valentine party last Friday evening. A dainty supper was served after which games were the entertainment of the evening.

The five hundred club were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Conner last Friday evening.

H. B. Jolliffe has just received a fresh shipment of Nunn & Bush work shoes for men. Also a new arrival of the celebrated Utz & Dunn shoes for ladies, all sizes, all lasts.

The young people's Guild of the Presbyterian church held their quarterly meeting in the church chapel last Saturday evening. There were about forty present and after the business meeting a social time was enjoyed.

The Woman's Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. F. M. Sheffield last Friday afternoon. The program was in charge of the second division and the afternoon was made pleasant by appropriate observance of St. Valentine's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Miller were pleasantly surprised last Wednesday evening, when about 30 of their friends gathered at their home bringing with them lunch baskets. Cards were indulged in and dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Etta Stuff has gone to Rochester to attend the Masonic ball, given there this evening.

Dr. Travis and Dr. Olaver attended the annual clinic of the First District Dental Association held at the Ponchartrain, Detroit, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. LeFever, of St. Louis, Mo., have moved to Plymouth. Mr. LeFever has a position in the experimental department of the Daisy Mfg. Co.

Chas. Wilson, Henry Panow and Will Bredin were drawn as jurors for the March-April term of the circuit court.

The W.C.T.U. meeting last week Thursday in spite of the cold was well attended, about ninety being present. Mrs. C. L. Calkins, state president was present and that added greatly to the interest of the meeting, as her words are always full of courage and hope for the future of our work. Those that could not be there missed a great treat.

The cattle sale of Fred Lees Tuesday went off flying. It was an ideal day and all came to buy. Some 24 head were disposed of in less than two hours.

OVERHEATED FURNACE IS CAUSE OF FIRE
Plymouth Township firemen were called to put out flames caused by an overheated gas furnace Monday afternoon in the home of Darrell Brockwell, 11218 Gold Arbor. The fire, described as a "very minor" one, caused no damage and was put out in a matter of minutes.

Plymouth High Notes

Named as finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Program were seniors Eileen Ash, Inge Dietrich, Art Gulick, Charles Hampton, Evelyn Heidt, Bruce Hudson, Sue McIntyre and Cheryl Planck.

All eight were previously National Merit Semi-finalists and took a three hour Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board on Dec. 1.

The Plymouth students are among 11,000 national winners and will receive a Certificate of Merit and be offered Merit Scholarships sponsored by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

ship is for high school graduates who attend Michigan State and is worth $1,500 per year and is renewable for a total of $6,000.

The cadet teaching program is again being carried out by the Future Teachers Club. The program consists of attending elementary schools in the community and assisting with the teaching. Presently, Carol Zalma ('64) and Beth Miller ('65) are helping at Farrand school with the kindergarten and third grade classes, respectively.

The members of the international Relations class are finally rested up from their exciting weekend in New York City. They visited the United Nations and talked with delegates from the United Kingdom and Algeria.

Castings for the all-school musical "Bye Bye Birdie" has been completed with Marilynne Moss ('64) as Rose Alvarez and Otto Dobos ('63) as Albert. Art Gulick ('63), Margaret Ellison ('64), Marna Roy ('64), Joe Geitgey ('63), Linda Wall ('63), Bonnie Hoffman ('64), Bill Arnold ('64), Cheryl Parmenter ('65) and Judi Adams ('63) also have major parts in the musical which will be presented on March 28, 29, and 30, in the Senior High auditorium.

The speech on foreign policy was interesting and the gift shops in the U.N. building were fascinating with gifts from all of the 110 countries in the U.N.

Shopping on Fifth Avenue, visiting Metropolitan Museum of Art, seeing the unusual cases in Night Court, viewing the Ed Sullivan rehearsal and the Voice of Firestone, and coming in at Grand Central Station were among the high points of the trip.

Rehearsals have already begun under the direction of producer Robert Stenger, and director Miss Mary Carey. Robert Southgate is the assistant director while Miss Lois Mattison is in charge of choreography.

Vocal music director is Fred Nelson, in charge of make-up is Mr. James Cook; costumes, Mrs. Betty Wolford and Mrs. Merle Atchison instrumental music director, Mr. James Griffith; scenery design, Mrs. Jesse Hudson and publicity, John Olson.

Other experiences included eating at the automat, riding on the subway, running down Broadway, the taxis that charged 25 cents for the first 1-5 mile, looking at the city lights from the top of the Americana, and going to church on Sunday. It certainly was a wonderful trip — interesting, informative, and fun!

KIWANIS NOTES

By Ken Way

Jim Winterhalter introduced our guest speaker for the evening, John H. Stadt of the Mobil Oil Company.

The members and guests enjoyed Stadt's talk and demonstrations of the benefits we have received from the cooperative efforts of the petroleum and chemical industries to produce better products for our everyday living.

This joint effort has produced about 1,500 different items. To name a few: asphalt products, such as house shingles and blacktopping; printers ink; cellophane; polyethylene film used in food packaging, which actually breathes or permits air to pass through it; and various plant and insect sprays — even one that is sprayed on cows as protection against insects, which, in effect — contented cows will give up to 27 per cent more.

They have created a whole family of synthetic materials, such as nylon, rayon, dacron, banlon, orlon and haughyde. These materials are used to make or add to artificial sponges, furniture coverings, curtains, paint, ladies hose, rope, stretch socks, safety glass, plastic bottles costume jewelry, microfilm and automobile tail lights, to name only a few.

Synthetic rubber for automobile tires, Mylar to make magnetic tape for tape recorders, and Alathon for unbreakable plumbing pipe are three additional products that have been developed.

Do you know what puts the sput in instant shaving cream, hair spray or bug spray? Freon 12. This same product was originally developed years ago for use in electric refrigerators to replace the poisonous gases in the motor which would sometimes escape and possibly prove fatal to the occupants of the dwelling.

These products are best illustrated by the slogan of a well known company, "Better Things For Better Living, Through Chemistry".

On Feb. 9, a Kiwanis Club was chartered in Nassau, The Bahamas.

Guest speaker at the Feb. 26 meeting of the Plymouth Club will be Steve J. Filipek, an Ann Arbor radio executive, with the topic "American Humor."

Earlier in the meeting, member Dale Carmine presented the guests. They included: Master James McKeon, Robert Nulty, William Silvis, Boy Scout Commissioner Sidney Strong, and Troop No. 1531 Scoutmaster Dick Rice, along with four committee members and 10 members of the troop itself.

Plymouthites to Picnic in Florida

The Plymouth Michigan Sunshine Club will hold its annual picnic on Tuesday, March 5, beginning at Noon, at the Lions Club Park, in Lake Alfred, Fla., located near Lakeland, Fla. Any Plymouth resident in the area at that time is cordially invited to attend. Picnickers are requested to bring their own table service and beverage, plus a dish to pass. The club was organized in 1950 by Carlton R. Lewis, the club's president; Bob Jolliffe, Irving Blunk, and Otto Soth.

MORE THAN 200 members of the Southern Michigan water and sewer utilities association turned out Thursday evening for the organization's annual membership dinner meeting at Lofy's. Host for the banquet was Joseph Bida, head of the City of Plymouth's water department and superintendent of the DPW. Most of the members of Plymouth's City Commission were also on hand for the event. Here, Bida is shown with Mayor Robert Sincock (center) and Lloyd W. Mosher, president of the SMWSA and a consulting engineer on community water and sewer problems. Canton Twp. Supervisor Louis Steinh was also on hand.

BY CLARA WITHERBY - GL 3-7435

The Parents and Teachers of the sixth grade pupils of Gallimore School met Wednesday evening Feb. 13, to plan their camping program for the week of May 26, at Proud Lake Recreation Camp. The meeting was under the direction of Mr. Howe, Camp Director, and the Principal, Mr. Earl Gibson.

A Valentine's Day Party was given for all the grades of Gallimore School, Thursday, Feb. 14, at 2 p.m. The room mothers furnished heart-shaped decorated cookies, and the P.T.A. furnished ice cream.

Charles Combs, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Combs of Beck Rd. has just returned home after spending two weeks in Belvill Community Hospital, in Belleville, suffering with bronchitis and a middle-ear infection.

The Bubblin Buttons 4-H Club girls are working hard on their projects, to have them ready for Achievement Day, April 6, at Junior High East.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Palmer of Beck Rd. held a family get-together Sunday afternoon Feb. 10 with 30 present, including their son David, who was home for the week-end from Sawyer Air Force Base, at Marquette, Mich., where he is stationed.

Boy Scout Troop No. 766, of Gallimore School, is planning to sell various articles at the regular P.T.A. meetings. If the venture is successful, they will continue the sales in order to raise money for camping equipment. They meet every Tuesday evening from 7 p.m. to 8:30 at Gallimore School. Mr. Prince, their leader, informs me that they would like to interest more boys in joining the Troop. If you are interested, please call Mr. Prince at GL 3-2135 or Mr. Eugene Daley at GL 3-0552.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack V. Travis of Hanford Rd. had, as weekend guests, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Travis and two daughters, Sharon and Pamela, of Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson, of Lotz Rd., are the proud parents of a new son, Robert Jerome. He weighed six pounds, two ounces, and was born Dec. 29.

Mr. Raymond Rinehart, who is a driver for the Mayflower Van Lines, spent last week at home with his family, on Beck Rd. and while here moved them across the road to a larger house.

Mr. and Mrs. Algy J. Kinchen of Beck Rd. had as guests, Thursday, Feb. 14 Mrs. Kinchen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, and her sister, Mrs. Doug Walker, all of Flint.

Non-Resident College Tuition Set at $165

Non-resident tuition fees for Schoolcraft College have been established by the community college's Board of Trustees.

Minimum tuition for students who are not residents of the college district will be $165 per semester, compared to $105 required of students who reside in the district.

Non-residents enrolling in less than 12 hours of class will pay $12 per credit hour, the announcement continued. Resident students will pay $8 per credit hour.

At the Feb. 13 meeting of the Trustees, Board members established two scholarships in memory of Mr. A. Ward McCain, who was a member of the Board at the time of his death last September.

The scholarships are each one-year full time awards and will be given annually on the basis of need and high school academic achievement. Both will be known as the A. Ward McCain Scholarships. The late Mr. McCain resided in Livonia.

Executive reorganization is a major advancement made in the state's proposed new constitution. Michigan's bodge-podge of 120 boards, bureaus and commissions are reduced to not to exceed 20 departments. And the governor is given broad powers to make additional re-organization.

Grange Cleanings

Jesse Tritten GL 3-6387

Tonight (Thursday) at 8 p.m. Plymouth Grange is holding annual "Open House". This is one of the meetings each year when members of the Grange invite their friends to attend with them. As usual a fine program is being planned and it is hoped that weather will also cooperate and make for a happy and successful evening for all.

Nine members of Plymouth Grange attended Pomona at Webster Grange last week and, although attendance was small, it proved to be one of the most interesting Pomona meetings we have had in a long time. Mr. Neil Nixon of Webster Grange showed pictures and gave an account of his tour with some thirty or more other farmers who visited European and especially Russian farms last summer. Even though Russia tried hard to show their best, we all agree we like the American way best.

Saturday, March 2, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. will be our Rummage Sale at our Hall on Union Street. Isabelle Taylor is chairman and she and her committee will be at the Hall Friday, March 1, from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., at which time articles to be sold may be brought in. Anyone having things to donate for this sale, but not having transportation, please call GL 3-7323.

Our Lecturer, Bessie Salow, had the misfortune to fall in Detroit last week. While no bones were broken she was badly shaken up.

Herb Norgrove

Life-Long Plymouthite New Tait's Manager

Herb Norgrove, a life-long Plymouthite, has been named general manager of Tait's Cleaners main plant on Northville Rd. and of the shirt laundry branch on Main St. here.

The announcement was made this week by the owner of Tait's Cleaners, John Addison, who recently purchased the well-known laundry and dry cleaning firm from Clifford Tait.

In making the announcement, Addison stressed his desire "to continue the operation of Tait's Cleaners on the same high standards attained under the direction of Mr. Tait."

He said that Norgrove's appointment illustrates the fact that the present group of employees of Tait's Cleaners will be retained in full, and that the professional high quality of work done by the local cleaning firm will be sustained as a result.

Norgrove, 49, lives at 1034 York St. here and has worked for Tait's Cleaners since 1935. At that time, the firm was known as Jewell's Cleaners. Tait did not purchase the business until 1944.

Starting as a route driver, Norgrove moved to the pressing department and, following a two-year stint as a production defense worker during World War II, returned to Tait's as a presser and operator of the cleaning machines.

More recently, he has been in charge of production at the main plant on Northville Road.

Born in Plymouth, Herb's parents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Norgrove. He attended Plymouth High, worked briefly at Daisy Air Rifle and at Maybury Sanitarium in Northville before joining Jewell's Cleaners 28 years ago.

He is married to the former Leora Lietzke, of Temperance, Mich., and the couple have two children, Herbert Ronald, 21, a junior at Eastern Michigan University, and Linda Diane, a sophomore at Plymouth High.

Norgrove's duties as general manager began this week. Tait had remained as a two-week period after the sale had been completed.

Addison, the new owner, is also president of Greene's Cleaners in Ann Arbor. He lives in Grosse Ile. The purchase of Tait's Cleaners was made independently of his associates in Ann Arbor.

America's 42,790,000 households would have to labor 57,000 years to can all the corn canned for them by companies in 1 year, according to "Life" magazine.

SALEM NEWS

By VERA CLAIR — GL 3-2610

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whittaker of Brookville Road are spending several weeks in Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whittaker are vacationing in Jamaica.

Mrs. Burton Rich of Salem Road with other officers of the Plymouth Pareweighers attended the Tops' Club work shop in Ferndale on Friday, the eighth.

Saturday, Feb. 9, Mrs. Rich drove to Stanton to visit her daughter's family, the McIntyres.

Cub Scout News: Dick McKinley wishes to thank Mrs. Ralph Bezesky and her committee for the wonderful window display last week. The judging will be announced later.

He also asks for the help and cooperation of all parents to hold the interest of the boys; the help of each and every one of you is needed at this time.

Mr. McKinley wishes to announce there will NOT be a pack meeting on Feb. 25.

The Blue and Gold Banquet will be held at the South Lyon High School Gym on March 2, at 6 p.m. This will be a pot luck dinner including the whole family. Milk and coffee will be furnished. The program will include the Genius Kit contest, Cub Scout Awards, and the Indian dancing group.

Many friends of Mr. Smith Reed will be pleased to learn that he is now living on the Don Lanning place on Seven Mile Road. Mr. Reed has been living in Novi for the past year.

At the Lyon School Millage Election on Monday there was a total of 1057 votes cast. They approved a seven mill operational proposal by 647 yes and 403 no. This was the first operational millage proposition in the history of the district to carry in the first election.

This means that next winter the voters will be taxed on the seven mills just voted.

According to school officials the school will be able to operate at its present level only if the curriculum is not upgraded. The board has decided to slash its proposed budget so that the seven mill levy will be sufficient.

The seven mill proposition approved Monday is for one year.

Mr. Bert Stanbro has been seriously ill for the past three weeks at his home in Salem but is recovering nicely now. He would enjoy cards and callers.

The Busy Twelve Hobby Club will meet at Mrs. Don Lanning's home on Seven Mile Road Tuesday evening, Feb. 26 at 7:30. "The Project"—making fancy pillows and covers. Refreshments and social hour will also be enjoyed.

Mrs. Oliver Baggett of Chubb Road who underwent surgery in Howell is now home and would enjoy hearing from her friends and neighbors.

Feb. 24 through Feb. 28 is the time when the Ladies' Aid of the Salem Federated Church will be collecting educational toys for the nursery. Anyone who can give toys for this worthy cause, call Joyce Carroll at FI 9-0399 or Ruth Lanning at FI 9-3147, or bring them to the church. They will be greatly appreciated.

The Go-Getters 4-H Club met on Tuesday for their regular business meeting at the home of Marie Stojanoff on Six Mile Road.

Billy O'Neil gave a demonstration on conductors of electricity. After plans were discussed for a skating party, the group enjoyed songs and games and, of course, refreshments were served.

The Worden Farm Bureau met at the home of Robert Barsuhn on Eight Mile Thursday, Feb. 14. The discussion led by Mrs. Lutchka and Kenneth Hannah was on the new proposed Constitution. All expressed approval on this new document.

The regular social, hour and refreshments were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Ellenwood of Monroe spent the week end of Feb. 17 with Mrs. Ellenwood's parents, the Harlow Ingalls of Joy Road. While there, son, John, attended the Boy Scout camp at Lake Washington.

Following is a list of some of the speakers along with their affiliations who are scheduled for the Missionary Conference to be held at the Salem Federated Church March 10 through March 17: Rev. Philip Armstrong — (USA), Far Eastern Gospel Crusade; Rev. Paul Whaley — (Detroit), Christian Witness to Jews; Rev. John Miles — (USA), Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music; Rev. Wright Van Plew Independent Bible Mission; Mr. Roy Jeffery — (Michigan and Philippines), Independent Bible Mission and the Far Eastern Gospel Crusade.

BY ED BROWN

It wasn't too long ago that I read with interest in an article that appeared in Metropolitan newspapers throughout the country. A heartwarming story, particularly so around Valentine Day, it concerned a devoted couple not too far distant from Plymouth. Knowing the husband quite well, I can believe all the facts of the story.

It seems that the husband, Jack Clack, a guard on an armored truck, wanted to do something to show the appreciation he has for his lovely wife, Thelma. Jack has always been a fun-loving, practical jokester, genuine, friendly type of individual, and one who is ever thinking of clever ways of expressing his thoughts.

He inserted an advertisement in a Detroit paper which simply stated: "I will be more than happy to be responsible for all the debts incurred by my wife, Thelma D. Clark. Thank you, dear, for 16 wonderful years of marriage — Jack."

Then he went out and bought an armful of papers and pointed out the ad to Thelma. Needless to say, she and their children were overjoyed at this display of affection, and all enjoyed a gala evening of family fun and togetherness. The couple have two small sons of their own, and make a home for two foster daughters that joined the family a few years ago.

I met Jack in World War II when I spent many of my 54 army service months in the same outfit with him. I knew Jack as a wonderful sergeant — one loved and respected by all the men under his command. Such an understanding non-com officer was a great inspiration to the many raw, young recruits who had been pressed hurriedly into service during the war period. Many a lonely youngster, some away from home for the first time, felt Sgt. Clack's warm friendship while undergoing the training period getting ready for combat duty, and later while fighting in General Patton's army in Europe.

The above-mentioned ad really gave me a renewed faith in the unselfishness of people. Especially in this day and age where we hear so much about the faults and wrong-doings of others, and our newspapers are filled with gossip and scandals of married couples.

Many of us take things for granted; I have been guilty of this many a time; therefore, it is most gratifying to see someone who shows some appreciation for his good blessings today, and is not afraid to tell it to the world.

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO???

A 1939 graduate of PHS who starred in football, basketball and baseball all four years as a student while in high school.

He was a pile-driving full-back, or a stalwart in the line, which ever was needed most at the time. In basketball, he played a guard position.

This former "great" was as good-natured as they come — except when "lugging the pigskin" through an opposing line in football. Some fans described him as a "human tank."

Teachers remember him as a jovial, always smiling, congenial, cooperative chap that they thoroughly enjoyed having in class.

In high school, he belonged to the Varsity Club, and says that his greatest thrill came from playing on the 1939 football team that won the league championship. Plymouth played in the tough Twin Valley league at the time and won most of their games even though against much larger schools such as Wyandotte, River Rouge and Dearborn.

This fellow is still smiling wherever you see him, and is usually enjoying the puffs from a big cigar — his trademark of recent years.

After high school, he joined the forces of Michigan Bell Telephone and has been a faithful worker for that company for 23 years. There was a period of three years away from his chosen work when he fought with the U.S. Marines during World War II.

Our guest married the former Betty Barnes, who also graduated from PHS, and they have three wonderful children — Geraldine Ann, 17, a senior at PHS; Jeannie Kay, 14; and Gary, a 7 year old youngster. The family reside at 572 S. Harvey Street.

Who is this former star athlete? Gerald "Bud" Krumm.

NEW VICE-PRESIDENT of the Plymouth Theatre Guild is Kathy Moore, 104 S. Holbrook, who is shown here with Guild President Merlin Heft. Kathy succeeds Hal Young, who resigned recently. Kathy has been active with the local theatre group in a number of administrative assignments as well as working on stage in recent productions. Next presentation by the Theatre Guild will be Agatha Christie's "The Mousetrap."

At the Methodist Church on Feb. 11 sixty members enjoyed a bountiful pot-luck dinner at noon. At each place was a red heart on which was a cupcake and red birthday candle. Members whose birthdays fell in the same month sat together at the part of the table for that particular month.

These sections of the table were decorated with a special centerpiece representing the month and supplied by a member whose birthday fell in that month.

A very enjoyable program of games, contests and singing was presented by Mrs. Bernard Curtis.

In the morning fifty cancer pads were made, many bandages rolled and picture cards made. Church World Service sewing units were distributed to those who wished to sew them. It was announced too that the men had completed two standing tables of special design for use at the Plymouth State Home and Training School for retarded children. The group is planning another "Cherished Treasure and Hobby Show" for April 22. Any who are interested in good times together and in any of our projects for helping others are welcome to come. Regular meetings are the second Monday in each month — projects in the morning, pot-luck dinner at noon, business and program in the afternoon. You are welcome to all or any of these activities.

SUBURBAN EMPLOYERS MEET FEBRUARY 20

Gerald Montgomery, executive director of the Detroit Safety Council, will be the guest speaker Feb. 20 at the regular meeting of the Suburban Employers' Association at the Hotel Mayflower at a noon luncheon.

To Attend Footwear Clinic in Indiana

Donald Zander, of Fisher's Shoe Store here, this week is attending a five-day prescription footwear residential program at Ball State Teachers College in Muncie, Indiana.

The conferences and study sessions will center on footwear needs and foot deficiencies that require special attention and exceptionally careful fittings, it was explained.

Zander is manager of the Fisher's Shoe Store here. Owner is Jim Houk.
