

Approve $255,500 Grant for City Hall Work Must Begin by May 15

Federal authorities this week furnished the "key" to Plymouth's proposed new City Hall.

It came in the form of notification that a $255,500 grant for City of Plymouth had been approved by the Community Facilities Administration in Washington.

As a result, within 15 months the new colonial-styled two-story municipal headquarters is expected to rise on a 1.9-acre site along Main St. between the library and the Plymouth Historical Museum.

Work will begin by May 15.

The present City Hall—built in the late 1870's—will remain standing during construction of the new building. Then, after the administrative move to the new structure has been completed, old City Hall will be razed.

The grant, an outright gift to the City, represents essentially one-half of the total estimated construction costs of the new building. The funds are provided under the terms of the accelerated public works act.

The City itself, through an issuance of revenue bonds by its Municipal Building Authority, will furnish the balance of funds necessary to complete the $518,000 project.

Site acquisition of two parcels of land not yet owned by the City will require an additional $70,000, it is estimated, thus bringing the total to roughly $600,000.

No local tax increase will be necessary to meet the financial requirements of the project.

First word that the application for a grant for the proposed City Hall had been approved came Monday afternoon in the form of a telephone call to Mayor Robert Sincock from U.S. congresswoman Martha Griffiths.

A pair of telegrams early Tuesday confirmed Mrs. Griffiths' verbal notification. She sent one herself and the other was from U.S. Senators Pat McNamara and Phil Hart.

Sincock promptly returned an acknowledging message to Hart, McNamara, Mrs. Griffiths and Congressman-at-large Neil Staebler. It read:

"We, of the City of Plymouth, extend to you our sincerest appreciation for your untiring efforts which resulted in the approval of a federal grant which will assist this city in the erection of a new municipal building."

News that the grant had been approved culminates nearly four months of high hopes and hard work locally. At one time recently, however, even City officials were somewhat doubtful that Plymouth would receive approval.

Two other grants are still pending, one for a 3-million-gallon water reservoir and the other for improvements to the internal water transmission system. How the approval of the City Hall request will affect the remaining two is unknown.

Three simultaneous courses of action lay ahead, before actual work on the new City Hall may get underway. A stipulation of the grant is that demolition of existing buildings on the 1.9-acre site begin no later than May 15.

The Municipal Building Authority must complete its site acquisition before demolition may proceed. Only two parcels are yet to be acquired. They are the property on which Stadnik & Shekell's auto lot is situated and the adjacent lot on which stands the building that houses Kenneth Harrison's real estate office.

In addition, permission must be obtained from the Municipal Finance Commission—a state agency—to issue a maximum of $360,000 in revenue bonds. This move is mainly a formality, since much of the groundwork for the bond issue has already been laid.

Final architectural plans for the colonial-styled structure will require the longest wait. Primary architect for the project is the firm of Wheeler-Becker & Associates, with Harold Pine as one of the associates.

Byron Becker stated it will take approximately 60 days for the preparation of final working drawings and buildings specifications. He has already finished the preliminary plans, but was compelled to wait for notification of the grant approval before going further.

Thus, by the end of April a call for bids on the project may be issued and, shortly thereafter, construction contracts will be awarded by the building authority.

Becker said Tuesday that a demolition contract will probably be awarded earlier so as to assure meeting the May 15 starting deadline.

He said complete demolition will require about 10 days. Construction of the new City Hall will take between 10 and 12 months from that time, he explained.

Becker's final plans on the building must receive the approval of the City Commission and the Municipal Building Authority, in that order.

The building authority, chairman of which is former mayor Harold Guenther, must make preparations to issue $360,000 in revenue bonds. City Clerk Joseph Near, himself a member of the authority, said the bonds will probably be sold at an interest rate of between 3.5 and 4.5 per cent.

With the City's favorable credit rating, the interest rate conceivably will be close to the 3.5 per cent figure, he said.

The bonds will most likely be issued for a 30 year period and will be redeemed with money provided by the City's annual "lease-rent" payment of $28,000 to the building authority.

GIVING CLOSE INSPECTION to the fishing equipment he received at a testimonial dinner in his honor last Wednesday evening in the Mayflower Hotel are Dr. and Mrs. Melbourne I. Johnson. Dr. Johnson, pastor of the First Methodist Church since 1950, is planning to retire June 1.

Methodist Minister to Retire June 1

Testimonial Dinner Pays Tribute to Rev. Johnson

More than 100 local citizens paid tribute to Dr. Melbourne I. Johnson and his wife at a surprise testimonial dinner last Wednesday evening at the Mayflower Hotel.

Dr. Johnson, minister of the First Methodist Church, Plymouth, since 1950, is planning to retire June 1.

The dinner, which carried out the theme "This is Your Life," also pointed out the fact that Dr. Johnson is a rich man for all of his many friends—thus illustrating his own oft-quoted adage that it is better to have friends than gold or silver.

Opening remarks at the dinner were given by Jerry Pease, who spearheaded the tribute, followed by a prayer given by Frank Henderson, words of tribute from Mayor Robert Sincock and a warm "good-bye" poem, written and given by James Stimpson.

Following the dinner, Dr. Johnson's life was reviewed by Earl West, who in turn introduced various speakers who related different segments of the honored guest's life.

Warren Worth told of his early years; Bud Gould related his courtship years, during which he met and married his wife, Thelma; Arnold Johnson told of his married years; and Carl Caplin reviewed his ordained years which brought him to Plymouth.

Following presentation of a camp trailer and fishing equipment to Dr. Johnson, a sportsman, friends, music was presented by the Chorales.

'Express' Bus Run to Detroit Starts Monday

An "express" bus service between Plymouth and downtown Detroit will be inaugurated next Monday morning by the Northville Coach Line, Inc., according to Adolf Schiller, president of the coach line.

Three trips daily will be provided, Schiller said, with buses leaving from the C & O railroad depot here. The first bus will depart at 6:55 a.m., the second at 7:10 a.m. and the third at 3:40 p.m.

Only stop between Plymouth and Detroit will be at the corner of Five Mile and Farmington Rds. in Livonia. Passengers will unload in Detroit at the corner of Washington Blvd. and Grand River.

Fare for the trip will be 90 cents one way, Schiller said. Return trips via the same buses will be made starting at 8:30 a.m., 5:10 p.m. and 3:25 p.m. The buses will load in Detroit at the Washington Blvd. and Grand River corner.

At the present, the express bus commuter service will be offered only during the weekdays, although Schiller said that he is "contemplating" a Saturday arrangement where by a bus would leave here about 9 a.m. and return around 4 p.m.

He said he did not expect to expand the express service to a seven-day-a-week operation, although the Saturday service is a definite possibility.

The addition of Saturdays depends a lot on how many requests we get," he explained.

Plymouth's City Commission, after contacting officials of the DSR, granted permission to Northville Coach Line to utilize a loading and unloading space near the depot here.

Flu Sneaks In After The Mail Tells About It

Sometimes the old adage "Let well enough alone" should be better heeded. At least, a couple of staffers at The Plymouth Mail learned this anew last week.

Readers of last week's issue of The Mail will recall the front page story relating that the so-called "threat" of widespread Asian flu was "slight" here.

The idea for the story came from Mrs. Sterling Eaton, wife of the publisher. The article was written by editor Jerome O'Neil after an interview with Dr. Lee Feldkamp, City Health Officer.

Immediately after the story appeared, O'Neil and his wife and three boys were bitten by the flu "bug." All (Continued on Page 6)

Acquires Retail Phase Of Plymouth Nursery

A Detroitier has purchased the retail operation of Christensen's Plymouth Nursery, it was announced this week.

Effective March 1, Peter Christensen—who established the nursery at 38901 Ann Arbor Rd. in 1931—will retire and Detroitier Wayne Jones will assume the direction of the retail phase of the business.

Christensen's son, Lee, will continue to handle the wholesale operation there.

The name of the business will revert to "Plymouth Nursery" although Lee Christensen will operate the wholesale effort under the name of Christensen's Inc.

Peter Christensen, who will remain in Plymouth, said he will help out at the nursery this spring to assure "an orderly transition of ownership."

Jones, the new owner, has been affiliated with a nationally-known fertilizer manufacturer and distributor in Detroit for the past five years. He is a graduate of Ohio State University. Plymouth Nursery will continue to do custom landscaping work and will operate in the same professional manner that it has in the past years under Christensen's direction, Jones announced. Lee Christensen, who retains the wholesale end of the business, is a Plymouth High graduate.

PRETTY HOSTESSES at Stop & Shop Supermarket's 14th birthday celebration last week-end included Nancy and Pat Rucker. Nancy (right) is actually Mrs. J. G. Rucker, Jr., while Pat is Mrs. W. J. Rucker. Hundreds of grocery-shopping housewives enjoyed refreshments during the birthday celebration last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Final Listening Post Program Is March 5

Two outstanding scholars, equally eminent in their respective fields, will be the guests at the third and final Listening Post program March 5, at 8:30 p.m., in the Senior High auditorium.

Absent Rate Unaffected By Flu 'Bug'

Absentism within the Plymouth school system remained about normal last week, despite numerous reports of families being sidelined with common colds and perhaps even the flu.

The number of students absent daily from any of the nine schools in the Plymouth School District normally averages between eight and 10 per cent, according to Superintendent Russell Isbister.

Last week, with the exception of two elementary schools, the average remained at that level.

Gallimore reported a 21 per cent rate of absenteeism for the five-day period between Feb. 18 and Feb. 22, and Farland school encountered 11.5 per cent. The high rate at Gallimore was attributed to the sweeping effects of chicken pox, measles and strep throat, however, and not apparently to the flu.

Aside from those two schools, the percentages were in line with other weeks of the winter.

The lowest rate for the week was reported at the Senior High where it was eight per cent. An even 10 per cent was reported at Smith school. The rate of ab-

The two are Dr. Rupert Cortright and Dr. Alfred H. Kelly, both faculty members at Wayne State University. The scholars will discuss opposite view points on the subject of "Where America is Going: Centralized Bureaucracy or States Rights?" Seymour Riklin, assistant director of the Detroit Adventure Series, will serve as moderator.

Dr. Kelly, chairman of the history department at Wayne State University, is an authority on American History. He is the author of several books, including "The American Constitution," "Foundations Or Freedom" and "American Foreign Policy and American Democracy."

Congressional committees have requested his service as an advisor.

Dr. Cortright is chairman of the WSU speech department graduate committee and has been listed in "Who's Who" for his many civic, religious and educational activities.

He is the author of the books "Effective Speech" and "Creative Discussion" and has lectured extensively in the United States and Hawaii.

The Plymouth Listening Post committee has made available to certain high school students a total of 15 tickets to the March 5 session. The tickets—at 50 cents apiece—may be obtained from the principal's office. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. W. V. Clarke, who will act as chairman, and Mrs. L. W. Becker and Mrs. K. L. Hulsing.

A BIG PANCAKE and a little girl produced this result Tuesday evening at the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper held at St. John's Episcopal Church here. Nearly 150 guests, including 4 1/2-year-old Wendy Dusbiber, attended the annual event. She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dusbiber, 14401 Shadywood Dr. For more on the Pancake supper, along with a complete roundup of local Lenten activities, see photos and story inside this edition of The Mail.

Thunderbird Inn Reopens

Extensively remodeled, the Thunderbird Inn on Northville Rd. will re-open this Saturday.

The Thunderbird Inn will feature daily businessmen's luncheons, smorgasbord dinners Thursday evenings, and family dinners on Sundays.

A banquet room is available for business meetings, weddings and special parties. A formal grand opening is being scheduled for the near future.

Churches Make Variety of Plans as Lenten Season Arrives

ABOUT 150 PANCAKE LOVERS turned out for the traditional "Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper" held last night at St. John's Episcopal Church. The custom dates back to an old English tradition where it was customary for ladies of a village to have a big supper of pancakes the day before Lent began in order to use up all the fat in the house before the start of the fasting period. The day goes by many names and in some cities and countries it is a carnival day: It's called Shrivetide in England, Mardi Gras ("Fat Tuesday") in France and Fastnacht in Germany. Preparing and ready to serve the

Today, Ash Wednesday, marks the beginning of the observance of the Lenten period by Christians throughout the world. In addition to personal sacrifices made by individuals during this time, many churches offer special services, study groups, etc., during the Lenten period. As a public service, The Plymouth Mail, herewith, presents a summary of activities being held in local churches during the next 40 days.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Tenabrae services will be held in the First Methodist church, beginning at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, March 7. On the following four successive Thursday evenings, beginning at 7:30, guest lecturers will address members of the church. Lecturers and dates they will appear are: Dr. Dwight Large, pastor of the Central Methodist Church, Lansing, March 14; Dr. Robert Bodine, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist Church, Detroit, March 21; Dr. Louis Norris, president of Albion College, March 28; and Dr. James Laird, pastor of the Central Methodist Church, Detroit, April 4. Holy Communion services will be held at the church, beginning at 7:30 p.m., on Maundy Thursday, April 11. On Good Friday, April 12, the Ore Union services, under the auspices of the Plymouth Ministerial Assn., will be held at the First United Presbyterian Church, from 12-3 p.m. On Easter Sunday, April 14, a Sunrise service will be held at 7 a.m., with Mr. Sanford Burr, preaching. Rev. Melbourne Johnson will preach at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

FIRST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Third Annual School of Religion Courses will be offered by the First Presbyterian Church on Wednesday evenings for six weeks, beginning tonight, Feb. 27. Prior to the course meetings, beginning at 7:15, a potluck dinner will be held in the church diningroom, starting at 6:30 p.m. During the meetings, a care service will be conducted for toddlers and children, during which time children's films will be shown. The three courses which are being offered are Religion & Literature, Great Themes of the Bible, and The Sub-Sahara Nations of Africa.

Religion & Literature, dealing with the effect of religion on literary thought in fields of philology, history, poetry, the novel, and scriptures, will be conducted by Dr. Henry Walch.

Great Themes of the Bible, presenting some of the essential concepts of both the old and new testaments will be conducted by three speakers. Rabbi Syme, of Temple Israel, Detroit, will teach the first three sessions on the Old Testament; Rev. Jack Borekard, of Westminster Foundation, Ann Arbor, will teach two sessions on the new testament, and Rev. Edward Castner, of the First Presbyterian Church, Plymouth, will conduct the final session.

The course on Sub-Sahara Nations of Africa will survey the economic, social and political situations of the six nations of the Sub-Sahara Africa which are of current interest. The first of the series, dealing with Kenya, will be given by Nelson Ochieng, a graduate student at the University of Michigan, from Kenya. Other speakers will be announced later.

On Maundy Thursday, April 11, the Women's Assn. of the church will hold its 14th annual White Breakfast, beginning at 9:30 in the church basement. Program will include a talk by Mrs. Donald E. Zimmerman, head of the Womens Organization of the United Presbyterian Church of the U.S.A.

The Ore Union services, under the auspices of the Plymouth Ministerial Assn., will be held Good Friday, April 12, at the church, from 12-3 p.m. A special baptismal service will be held Saturday, April 13, starting at 4 p.m.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

Tonight, Ash Wednesday, George Pool, of the World Radio Missionary Fellowship, of Quito, Ecuador, will be guest speaker at a special lecture series to be held every Wednesday during Lent at the Calvary Baptist Church. The Wednesday evening services will begin at 7 p.m.

Beginning Sunday, March 10, and lasting through Sunday, March 17, a Spiritual Life & Missionary Conference will be held. Speakers for the nightly services, beginning at 7:30, will include Dr. J. C. Macaulay, president of the London College of Bible and Missions; Rev. Philip Armstrong, executive director of the Far Eastern Gospel Cascade; and Rev. Richard Thompson, missionary to Pakistan.

A men's breakfast and prayer meeting will be held every Saturday morning throughout Lent, starting at 6:30.

On Easter Sunday, April 14, the Senior Choir will present the cantata, "No Greater Love" by John W. Peterson, at 7 p.m.

LUTHERAN CHURCH OF THE RISEN CHRIST

Special mid-week Lenten services will be held each Wednesday at the Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ, beginning at 7:30 p.m. Themes and dates of the lecture series are: "The Thief who asked to be remembered" (Luke 23:39-43), March 6; The Rev. Luther Kriefall, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Hamburg, will be a guest speaker on March 13 "Judas—the betrayer" (Matthew 26:46-50, March 20; The Rev. Luther Kriefall will again be a guest speaker on March 27, "The Weeping Women" (Luke 23:27-31), April 3; "I Thirst" (John 4:1-42), April 10.

Special services will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Maundy Thursday, April 11, and on Good Friday, April 12.

OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL

Observance of the Lenten period in Our Lady of Good Counsel began today with special Ash Wednesday services, with distribution of blessed ashes following the 6:30 a.m., 8 a.m., 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. masses.

Father William T. Cunningham, of the Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit, will be a guest speaker at the evening mass tonight, beginning at 7:30.

Throughout the Lenten period Way of the Cross and benediction services will be held each Friday evening, beginning at 7:30 p.m. and masses will be held each day at 6:30 and 8 a.m. and at 7:30 each Wednesday evening.

Beginning March 10, a special week-long Mission for women will be given by the Passionist Fathers. Masses will be held daily at 6:30, 8, and 9 a.m. and a mission talk will be held each evening at 7:30.

Beginning March 17, a week-long Mission will be given by the Passionist Fathers for men. Masses will be held daily at 6, 7, and 8 a.m. Mission talks will be held each evening at 7:30.

On Palm Sunday, April 7, time for the high mass, which will be preceded by the blessing and distribution of palms, will be changed from 9:30 to 9:15 a.m.

On April 11, special Holy Thursday services will be held at 8 a.m., 5:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

On Good Friday, April 12, Tre Ore services will be held at 12:15 p.m.

On Holy Saturday, April 13, an Easter Vigil service will be held at 11 p.m., to be followed by a solemn mass.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Ash Wednesday was observed in St. John's Episcopal Church today with services of the Holy Communion at 6:30 a.m. and 10 a.m. Imposition of Ashes was administered to those who desired it in accordance with an ancient custom.

 tom dating back to the Old Testament.
 Tonight at 7:30 p.m. the Preaching-Teaching mission conducted by the Rev. Canon Leslie G. Warren of St. Paul's Cathedral, Detroit will begin.
 The Mission will continue on Thursday and Friday evenings at the same hour and will conclude on Sunday morning March 3, with Canon Warren preaching at all the services.
 For the evening services, provision will be made to care for the children in the Parish Hall and an interesting program will be arranged for them.
 On Sunday mornings during Lent, the Rector, the Rev. David T. Davies will deal with some of the Key Words of the Christian Faith: Repentance, Obedience, Commitment, Grace, Suffering and Freedom.
 On the Wednesdays of Lent, with the exception of Ash Wednesday, the Holy Communion will be celebrated at 6:30 a.m. and 10 a.m. In the evening services, beginning at 7:30 p.m. a series of challenging films will be shown as follows: March 6, The Great Challenge; March 13, Africa and Schweitzer; March 20, The Split Level Family; March 27, The Red Trap; April 3, The Higher Pardon.
 ST. PETER'S EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH
 Observance of the Lenten season in St. Peter's Evangelical Church will begin this evening, at 7:30, with the traditional Ash Wednesday communion service.
 Special mid-week Lenten Vesper services will be held each Wednesday, starting at 7:30, throughout Lent. Theme for the sermons at these services will be "The Testimony of Christ's Enemies Concerning His Passion." The Junior and Senior Choirs, as well as groups from the Lutheran Day School, will present Lenten anthems at each service. Following each Wednesday night service, the Lutheran Girl Pioneers and their leaders will serve coffee.
 Holy Week celebrations will begin with a communion and children's confirmation service on Palm Sunday, April 7. On Wednesday, April 10, the Concert Choir of Dr. Martin Luther College, of New Ulm, Minn., will present a concert of sacred music.
 Communion services will be held on Maundy Thursday, April 11 and on Good Friday, April 12, the traditional noon-time service will be held.
 REORGANIZED CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER DAY SAINTS
 Pre-Easter services for the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will begin on Palm Sunday, April 7, at which time there will be two services, one at 11 a.m. and one at 7 p.m.
 A communion service will be held in the evening on Thursday, April 11.
 Easter services will be held at 11 a.m. and at 7 p.m.

DON ZANDER (right), a junior partner in Fisher's Shoe Store here, last week completed a week-long training program for prescription footwear applicators at Ball State Teachers College in Muncie, Indiana. Zander is shown with store owner Jim Houk. The program was designed to aid footwear specialists in proper fitting of corrective shoes. It dealt with anatomy and physiology of the foot, as well as special instruction on shoe construction and footwear prescriptions.

Sells "Starting Point" Of Beyer Drug Chain

A Liberty St. building that served as the cornerstone for the present-day Beyer Rexall Drug Store chain here was sold this week.
 Druggist Robert Beyer sold his building at 165 Liberty to James Flora, of North Territorial, who — with his wife, Scottie — will remodel it and utilize it for offices and display area in conjunction with their business as manufacturers' representatives.
 The building was constructed in 1915 by Beyer's father, the late Otto F. Beyer, a long-time Plymouthite who started in the druggist business here in 1907.
 The Beyer Rexall Drug operation has since grown to a three-unit chain which has received wide acclaim throughout the state and the mid-west for its progressive business operation.
 Otto Beyer started in business in 1907 in a building next door to the 165 Liberty St. address. The adjacent building today houses Clover TV Service. He moved to 165 Liberty eight years later.
 Robert Beyer closed the Liberty St. store at the end of 1960, six months after opening the modern outlet at the corner of Main and Mill Sts.
 One of the other two Beyer Rexall stores is on Forest Ave. and was opened in 1951, while the third, on Ann Arbor Rd., was opened in December, 1957.
 Another Beyer Rexall unit is under construction on the north side of Ann Arbor Rd., almost directly opposite the present store there.
 When the new outlet is completed, however, Beyer will close the one across the street, thus remaining with three stores here.
 The new store, which is planned for official opening sometime in April, is nearly three times larger in square foot floor space than the other one on Ann Arbor Rd.
 Beyer explained that a building adjoining the new store will be available on a lease agreement. It measures 20 feet by 120 feet and Beyer said he will finish the interior according to a new occupant's preference.

Okay Grant for City Hall

The building authority will serve as legal owner and "land-lord" of the new City Hall for the duration of the bond issue. When the final bonds have been redeemed, the building authority will be disbanded and the City itself will legally assume ownership of the new structure.
 Other members of the authority, which was appointed by City Commission on Nov. 12, include Louis Borregard, Dave Mather and Everett Burmester. Borregard, is treasurer and Mather, who is also Urban Renewal Director here, is the Secretary.
 The building authority was scheduled to meet Wednesday morning to begin work on resolving the intricacies of the tight time-table that confronts it.
 "Now that we've been granted the money," said chairman Guenther Monday night, "we can get down to the exact specifics of the job at hand." He met Tuesday with Near to map the Wednesday morning agenda.
 The new City Hall will feature a porch-like front entrance supported by four tall architectural columns. The building will include facilities for the police and fire departments, as well as all other municipal offices.
 Enlarged municipal court room facilities and Commission chambers are included.
 The building that currently houses the Plymouth Historical Society Museum, immediately east of the present City Hall, will remain untouched, according to a spokesman. The City owns the building and land there.
 Eventually, after the new building is completed and old City Hall is leveled, Church St. will be extended across Main St. and will curl around behind the new structure, meeting Dodge St., midway to Union. The portion of Dodge between that point and Main St. will be closed off and will become part of the new City Hall site.
 The proposed new City Hall will comprise more than 24,000 square feet of floor space. A 26-space parking lot will be located immediately to the rear of the building, which will face Main St.
 The site extends about 500 feet back of Main St.

School Board To Open Bids On March 11, 12

School Board members on March 11 and 12 will open bids pertaining to three major construction projects within the Plymouth School System. The three projects include: a two-room addition to Farrant Elementary School; the construction of phase II of Junior High West; and the further rehabilitation of the Senior High Building. At present, prospective bidders are obtaining bid forms from the architects in charge of the projects. Bennett & Straight, Inc. is the firm for Junior High West and Wheeler-Becker & Associates is handling the other two projects.

Flu Sneaks In

were sidelined until Monday. On that day, Mrs. Eaton found herself in bed with a similar bout with the pesky ailment. Wednesday, The Mail learned that the other party to the news article — Dr. Feldkamp — escaped with less difficulty. He was troubled only by a common cold over the weekend, not the flu that plagued O'Neil and Mrs. Eaton. The real irony of the matter was further compounded in light of the fact that Marvel Rogers, The Mail's linotype operator who set the story last week, was also downed by the "bug" Monday and Dean Busch, newspaper foreman who helped lock the story into the front page "form" a week ago, came down with the flu this Wednesday and departed for home and adequate rest. Understandably the Mail's remaining employees are somewhat "gun-shy" of the flu, whether the "widespread threat" of it is absolutely real or otherwise. Moral of the circumstances seemed to be: Don't write about the flu unless you are ready for a visit by it. We hope that all readers of the original article were not similarly stricken by the irony of the situation.

WASHING MACHINE MOTOR CATCHES FIRE
City firemen Monday were called to 283 East Ann Arbor Tr. to extinguish a fire that broke out around an electric washing machine motor in the home of W. H. Baskins. Only minor damage resulted.

WOMEN

Host Tells Hostess of Party by Letter

26 Enjoy Rabbit Stew Dinner

What do you do when you have six rabbits in your freezer left over from hunting season? Why, invite about twenty friends over for a rabbit stew dinner, of course. At least, that's what Joe Fletcher, of 14302 Ridge Rd., did last Sunday!

Plans for the "hunter's dinner" originated about a month ago, when Fletcher and Wendell Smith, of 14302 Shadywood Lane, first started talking about getting a "few friends" together to help clear out Fletcher's freezer.

But, from that day on, unbeknown to Mrs. Fletcher, plans started mushrooming, until the climax last Sunday, when 36 children met at the Fletcher home in the afternoon for a skating party, followed by a rabbit stew dinner that evening for their parents. . . 26 all told.

The first invitation, signed by M. J. Tohara and T. M. Lin Sau, requesting recipients to set aside Feb. 24 for a rabbit stew dinner, was mailed from Honolulu.

The second invitation, mailed from Miami the first of last week and signed by Peter

Rabbit and Peter Cottontail, included additional information on the upcoming feast, complete with address and time. (Incidentally, this was the first that Mrs. Fletcher learned that she was to have dinner guests on the 24th. . . and it was also the first that Fletcher, himself, realized that the evening before, was the night they were hosting a Newcomer's Club skating party for about 100 guests.)

The dinner itself, completely prepared by the husbands, proved to be a huge success, and, perhaps, a bit tiring for the all-male kitchen force. Preparations for the feast — including the slicing of 36 potatoes, and 24 cups of tomatoes, cutting three lbs. of butter into walnut-sized pieces and rolling each in flour, preparing 6 rabbits and 6 chickens, etc. — began about 1 p.m. As the afternoon progressed onions, lima beans, corn, salt pork, and spices were added to the brew and preparations were started for making garlic bread and a tossed salad.

The recipe makes enough for 36 servings and if you want more clear cut instructions on how to make the stew, just call Joe Fletcher, alias T. M. Lin Sau, alias Peter Cottontail — and, who knows, he might even plan a party for you to surprise your wife with!

Engaged

W. JEAN MURDOCH

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Murdoch, of 355 Cantor Center Road, announce the engagement of their daughter, W. Jean, to Dale F. Houghton. Mr. Houghton is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Houghton, 155 North Mill Street, and the late Alfred W. Houghton.

Miss Murdoch, a 1960 Plymouth High School graduate, is employed as a bookkeeper at National Bank of Detroit, while Mr. Houghton, a graduate of Plymouth High School and Cleary College is employed as an accountant at American Home Foods, Ann Arbor.

The Antique Corner

By Mrs. John Gibbons

It is not my intention to discuss certain fields of antiques on a specialized basis, but rather to arouse interest in a world that is as fascinating as a patch work quilt. Perhaps, in this series of articles we can share our experiences, and bits of information together. I would appreciate hearing from you.

I am repeatedly being asked what constitutes an antique? How old need any object be to be called antique? Are all old objects antiques? So, I thought a definition might be a good beginning. The dictionary defines antique as a piece of furniture, tableware, or the like made at a much earlier time than the present. One must admit that although very true, it is rather non-committal as to age. The United States Government has established the age of an antique as 1830 (1700 for carpets and 1800 for musical instruments) by the Tariff Law of 1930. This law was for the purpose of customs claims and duty from other countries. I am of the opinion that this date was decided because it is about the end of the period of the hand craftsman and just prior to the machine age.

One of the most concise definitions of an antique that I located was in a book written by C. W. Dreppard and M. M. Smith (entitled "Handbook of Tomorrow's Antiques.") that stated that an antique is any object of social history venerated by collectors and rescued from oblivion. Any old object collected because of its beauty, rarity, excellence of workmanship, or craftsmanship. Once again, there is no limitation by a certain number of years, but rather because of reason of rarity, beauty, or craftsmanship.

I have heard it expressed among connoisseurs of antiques, that the Americans cannot offer a true antique in comparison to the other nations of the world. I must concede our country is but a babe, when we look upon the history of the world, however each must have a beginning and our heritage is a proud one.

I will plan to use the word "antique" in its most liberal sense during this series and not adhere to any age limitations for there is no definite date to establish an antique. In browsing a round in the antique shops today, it is not uncommon to find "collectors items" that bare no age of any consequence but rather fall into Mr. Dreppard's and M. M. Smith's definition.

"If all the sky is blue then all that is blue is sky." This statement holds as much truth as "Antique objects are old, therefore, all old objects are antique." There are many ways to judge a piece to see if it may be called an antique, but I think that if we keep in mind the description and definition of an antique we can use it as a guide to recognizing one when we see it.

Throughout the article today I have referred to craftsmanship and I would like to look a little further into this next week and perhaps discuss the causes of the disappearing craftsman.

TWO SENIOR art students at Plymouth High recently earned further laurels for their artistic talents. Marcia Livingston (center) is one of 26 teens chosen for national art scholarships at an art exhibit now in progress at Crowley's in Detroit. Doug James (at left) was awarded a certificate of merit for an impressionistic landscape he did. The two seniors are shown with Mrs. Sam Hudson, art teacher.

FAYE LIETZ, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lietz, of 1496 Sheridan Ave., became the bride of Wayne Rickert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rickert, of Livonia, in a double ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church, on Saturday, Feb. 16.

Faye Lietz, Wayne Rickert Wed in Double Ring Rites

In a double ring ceremony at the First Presbyterian church on Feb. 16, Faye Lietz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lietz of 1496 Sheridan, became the bride of Wayne Rickert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rickert of Livonia.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of pale blue with seed pearls at the sabrina neckline and a chapel train. A finger tip bouffant veil was held in place by a Swedish jeweled crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses, baby mums and ivy.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Darwin Grote of Howell wearing a ruby brocade dress with a bell-shaped skirt. She carried a bouquet of white mums and red roses. Bridesmaids were Mrs. John Campbell, sister of the bride, from Plymouth; Mrs. Peter Enderle, sister of the groom, Wayne; Mary Agnew of Chicago, and Mrs. Leon Case of Garden City, and Carolyn Pisk of Detroit. They wore matching gowns and carried flowers identical to those of the matron of honor.

Allan Rickert served as best man for his brother, Darwin Grote of Howell, John Campbell of Plymouth, Tom Wellman from Taylor, Toru Baumbach of Livonia, and Peter Enderle of Wayne were ushers.

Guests from New York, Ontario, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Michigan attended the reception held at Hawthorne Valley Country Club.

Leaving for a wedding trip in Nassau the bride chose a brown knit dress with brown and beige accessories.

Mrs. Rickert, a graduate of Western Michigan University, teaches at Long Acre school in Farmington. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Mr. Rickert is a sales engineer with Clyde Records Inc., Redford Township, ship.

The couple is now at their new home at 42373 Brentwood.

Sally Anthony in Water Show Cast

Miss Sally J. Anthony, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ford W. Anthony, 319 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, has been selected as a member of the "Aqua Ballerina Water Show" at Central Michigan University, Mt. Pleasant. The production will be given May 3, 10, and 11.

CELEBRATE 48 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. August Hauk, of Warren Rd., celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary at a family gathering at their home last Sunday.

Attending the gathering were their daughters, and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Shoner, and children of Brighton, and Mrs. Veneta Molnar, of Plymouth, and great grandchildren.

Debate on Race For Beta Sigma Phi

A debate on "Racial Problems in the U.S." was the highlight of the last meeting of the Eta Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held at the home of Mrs. Harry Luce, 530 Provincetown Lane.

The program, chaired by Mrs. Luce and Mrs. JoAnne Darwin, of Garden City, was followed by a discussion period.

The three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Upton, 1314 Carol, opened the program with four folksongs on the theme of brotherhood and justice. The girls are Carla, 6, Laura, 10, and Karen, 13.

Garden Club Sets March 4 Meeting

The next meeting of the Garden Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Gerald Honorp, 1317 Park place, on March 4 instead of on March 11 as previously planned. The meeting is set for 1 p.m.

Tea chairman for the day will be Mrs. Leo Crane and Mrs. J. R. Von Stein will review the book "Silver Spring."

IT WASN'T REALLY TOPSY TURVY DAY, but in the Joe Fletcher household, at 14230 Ridge Rd., last Sunday it may have seemed so to Mrs. Fletcher, who had learned only the Wednesday before that her husband had invited 24 guests for a rabbit stew dinner, which was completely prepared by the men. Ready to begin work on the stew are, left to right, Wendell Smith, of 14302 Shadywood Lane, and Fletcher, the two instigators, and Calvin B. Strom, of 884 Palmer.

Bouffant-Fading - at last!

New "Belle" Look Predicted for Spring

Spring is in the air — and in the hair — as thoughts turn to the new look for the new season. The hairdo predicted to be the most popular silhouette for the Spring and Summer seasons is the new "Belle" look.

Dorothy Conn of D.D. Hair Fashions, 1058 South Main, relayed this news that she got at the recent National Beauty Show celebrating National Beauty Salon week held in Detroit, Feb. 11-13.

At the show Miss Charlotte Clark of La Grange, Ill. through the courtesy of Realistic Co., introduced the style to Detroit.

In the "Belle" look the hair is combed and directed to give a definite fullness at the back of the crown giving the rest of the head free rein. The remainder of the hair may be combed into a more informal or daytime style by having a domed crown with the hair coming in at the brow line to hug the head. The hair comes out again hugging the ear and neck area.

Another version of the "Belle" is called the "Jockey Cap." In this style the hair is combed toward the face with the exception of the crown area where it is raised in a circular motion thus creating a "cap-look."

The length of hair suggested ranges to 2½" at neck line and 3½" over the ears. Top lock lengths are optional but crown area should be 5"-7". A love back is also very popular in this new trend. A strand of hair is curled or waved and placed at various places on the head wherever possible. A smooth brow line is recommended.

Why head for trouble when you can head away from it?

For example, you have seen women change a hair color — and trouble is hardly the word to use for what followed. Know why? They simply did not follow instructions. The product manufacturer always gives clear instructions on how and how not to use a product, so you are heading for trouble when you deviate from those instructions.

Next week, we will review some of the ways you can change a hair color. But above all, remember this: All authorities agree you should have an expert make any dramatic change, especially when you change from, for example, a dark brown to a blond. Even when frosting, tipping or streaking, have it done by qualified trained technicians of the trade. We have them here at MIDGE'S. Come in or phone in for an appointment and you will never head for trouble. MIDGE'S BEAUTY SALON, 450 Forest Avenue, Phone

BABY TALK

Set Round Table Discussion on New Constitution

The birth of a son, Rodney Dana, weight 4 lbs. 15 ozs., announced by Mr. and Mrs. Vito Ippolito of 670 Sheldon. The baby was born on Feb. 6 at St. Mary Hospital, Livonia. Mrs. Ippolito is the former Dorothy Briggs of Northville.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Davis of Livonia announce the birth of a 7 lb. 11 oz. daughter, Linda, born at Garden City Osteopathic Hospital on Feb. 23.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Dearborn and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Davis of 1941 Gorman.

Mr. and Mr. Eric Caplin, of Morrison St., announce the birth of a 7 lb. 12 oz. son, Lincoln, born Feb. 24, in Beyer Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Caplin is the former Suzanne Stecker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Stecker, of North Territorial Rd. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Caplin, of Joy Rd.

Boneless meats or fish are filets.

Set Round Table Discussion on New Constitution

A round table discussion on the proposed new Michigan constitution will be the program highlight for the March 6 meeting of the Plymouth Community School Planning Group, to be held at Junior-High West, beginning at 7:45 p.m.

The round table discussion will be given by members of Plymouth High School social studies class, under the leadership of William Green. Students will give the pro and con viewpoints of the new constitution.

Sara, Lady Bimbo Defy Cold Weather

Residents of the North Territorial Road region have been amazed all winter long by the spunk of Sara Stout. Not a day passes — not even during the recent below zero cold snap — when they didn't see Sara riding her horse, Lady Bimbo.

With a blanket on Lady Bimbo and a huge muffler around herself so that her face, was hardly seen, she rode her horse for at least 45 minutes a day.

Her mother, Mrs. W. Eugene Stout said, "You have to have a real love for an animal to go out in weather like this."

Sara, who lives at 13775 Ridgewood, gets up at 5 a.m. each morning to feed, water and clean Lady Bimbo's stall. She eats her breakfast, finishes her homework, and heads for school at Junior High East where she is in the ninth grade.

After school she hurries home to repeat her chores and ride Lady Bimbo, and refuses to let the weather interfere.

Last summer Sara learned to ride at Silver Stables on Warren Road after only ten lessons. Her instructor, Bill Campbell, sold her Lady Bimbo in August. When the Stout's garage was turned into a stall she brought Lady Bimbo home and has been taking care of her daily since then.

A member of 4-H, Sara intends to take Lady Bimbo to the 4-H Fair for all Wayne County clubs at Belleville this summer. Lady Bimbo will be entered into the trail or halter class competition there.

Her older brother Jim, a senior at Plymouth High, doesn't ride, but Sara has invited some of her friends to come out and see Lady Bimbo. "But I don't let them ride alone because she's a little high-strung."

Although she says she enjoyed riding Lady Bimbo through the winter snows she does admit that she looks forward to spring.

Familiar Faces

MRS. THELMA CUSHMAN

Stop & Shop's Mrs. Thelma Cushman who lives at 641 Forest, is a well-known local face having worked as Secretary-Bookkeeper there for 11 years.

Before coming to Plymouth in 1940 Mrs. Cushman lived for many years in Detroit and for a while in Southfield Township although she was born in a small town in Canada near Sarnia.

Past jobs include working as secretary for R. L. Kimbrough Co., which later became Better Home Appliances, and on the Ration Board in Plymouth during the duration before taking over her position at Stop & Shop.

She holds membership in the Business and Professional Women's Club here and is very active in Church work at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, where she was treasurer for the church for six years.

Previously she was a member of the Garden Club and treasurer for the first Girl Scout Council in Plymouth.

Classical and semi-classical music are her favorites. Mrs. Cushman says she is a badminton fan and used to play with a club here in town. Cards and sewing are other favorite past-times.

Mrs. Cushman has two children. Her daughter, Barbara, is married and lives in Dearborn Township and her son, Charles, also married, lives in Jackson. She has four grandchildren.

"I've always liked to work with figures and so enjoy every phase of my work here," Mrs. Cushman commented.

To glaze, means to coat with a syrup cooked to crack stage.

Rosary Society Has Talk; Film on Canadian Shrine

Speaking at the next meeting of the Rosary Society of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church will be Mrs. Sophia Nowosielski, who is organizing her 98th pilgrimage to St. Anne De Beaupre Shrine. In conjunction, a film on the Canadian shrine will be shown through the courtesy of the Quebec Travelogue agency.

A pilgrimage for parishoners of OLCG is being planned to the shrine. It will be for 7 days beginning August 28 and will include one day at St. Joseph Oratory in Montreal, 2 days at Cap-De-Lamadeleine and two days at St. Anne's.

All ladies of the parish are invited to attend this meeting on March 6 whether or not they plan to join the pilgrimage.

Art Around Us:

by Mrs. Jessie Hudson

Giotto (jotto), mentioned briefly last week, is considered by most art historians to be one of the first painters of the Early Renaissance in the thirteenth century Florence. He departed from traditional Byzantine style, by observing and painting the world around him instead of painting conventional symbolism and stereotyped backgrounds. In addition to being a painter of frescoes, Giotto was an architect and is given credit for designing the campanile, or bell-tower, of the Cathedral of Florence. His work in architecture influences his manner of painting figures. He gave them monumental form. They were solid citizens, not two-dimensional cut-outs as in paintings of the previous periods. He was also one of the first to use naturalistic light and shadow. As head architect (caomastro) for the City of Florence he was a figure of some importance and wielded a great deal of influence in the painters' guilds. He had many apprentices and pupils who carried on the work which he introduced.

A contemporary painter, Duccio (doochio) of Siena is considered the leader of a quite different style than Giotto's Florentine school. The Siense style kept to the traditional Byzantine conventions but added some grace and movement. Duccio's figures, are aristocratic, remote, formal. He included a great many small details in his tempera paintings, whereas Giotto did huge, sweeping frescoes with very little fussy detail. Duccio also kept to the conventional gold-leaf backgrounds and rich reds and blues.

Simone Martini (semoan marteni), a pupil of Duccio, developed the Siense-Byzantine-Gothic tempera into a so-called international style. His attendance at the papal court at Avignon in France and at what was then the Kingdom of Naples spread the influence of the Siena School to these "foreign" parts.

The true Renaissance in art began in the fifteenth century in Italy. The word "renaissance" means rebirth and when capitalized is meant to cover the rebirth of interest in learning and a return to the classics of antiquity. It sprang out of a period of decay in the Church, after the dissolution of the Empire, and at the beginning of the rise of nationalism when a growing humanism put Man at the center rather than religion. An avid interest in other countries was spurred by increased international trade. All of these are important factors in bringing about The Renaissance, a period in the history of art which is still considered its "Golden Age."

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

MRS. LOREN GOULD

A recipe for Sour Cream Coffee Cake is submitted to Plymouth cooks this week by Mrs. Loren Gould, 13925 Ridgewood. The recipe originally came from Mrs. Gould's aunt in Boston and is suggested for breakfast, lunch or tea time.

She is the mother of three sons. Gary, 17, is a senior at Plymouth High school; Bruce, 13, is a seventh grader at Junior High West; and Terry, 10, is a fifth grader at Bird School.

As hobbies Mrs. Gould enjoys gardening and with her family has been learning to ski this winter at nearby sites.

She is a member of the Plymouth branch of Women's National Farm and Garden

Assn., and Antique Club.
Sour Cream Coffee Cake
 Cream:
 1/4 lb. butter
 1 cup sugar
 Add:
 2 cups All Purpose flour
 1 tsp. baking powder
 1 tsp. baking soda
 pinch of salt
 Sift together.
 Add:
 2 beaten eggs
 1 cup sour cream (1/2 pt.)
 1 tsp. vanilla
 Topping:
 1/2 cup chopped nuts
 1/4 cup sugar
 1 tsp. cinnamon
 Put 1/2 batter in 9" tube pan. Add 2-3 of topping. Add balance of batter. Then balance of topping. Bake in 370 degree oven for 45 minutes. Cool ten minutes.

A FAMILIAR sight to residents on North Territorial Rd. is 15-year-old Sara Stout astride her horse Lady Bimbo. Each day, regardless of the temperature, Sara may be seen exercising her horse in the area near her home, at 13775 Ridgewood Dr.

SHOWN ABOVE is a close-up view of the girl and her horse often seen in the North Territorial Rd. area. Sara Stout, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Eugene Stout, of 13775 Ridgewood Dr., and her horse, Lady Bimbo, are a familiar sight to residents of that area, as each day, without fail, they can be spotted roaming over the nearby fields.

Annual World Day of Prayer Set March 1

The annual World Day of Prayer Children's Service will be held at the Salvation Army Citadel on Friday, March 1, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The program is planned for all elementary school children, grades one through six.

This worship service provides an opportunity for the children of Plymouth to join with children around the world in a period of devotion and praise to God. They will be seeking Divine guidance to make them "More Than Conquerors" which is the theme for this year.

Children from the local Church of the Nazarene, Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal, Assembly of God, Salvation Army, and First Baptist Churches will be participating in the program, along with girl scouts from five of the local troops.

An offering will be received to help provide Christian literature for children of other countries.

Children from all churches are welcome. Parents, den mothers, and Brownie leaders are urged to bring car loads of children to this significant service which is sponsored by the Plymouth United Church Women.

Children from all churches are welcome. Parents, den mothers, and Brownie leaders are urged to bring car loads of children to this significant service which is sponsored by the Plymouth United Church Women.

Plymouth City Minutes

Monday, February 4, 1963

A regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Monday, February 4, 1963 at 7:30 p.m.

PRESENT: Comms. Beyer, Hartmann, Houk, Shear, Wernette and Mayor Sincok.

MOVED by Comm. Hartmann and supported by Comm. Beyer that the minutes of the regular meeting of January 21, 1963 be approved as written. Carried unanimously.

Mayor Sincok introduced Mr. Hansel Wilson, the new local telephone company Supervisor. Supervisor Vaillier reported closing to the new Sunday day rate and the water rate situation.

The Clerk presented a communication from the City of Belleville enclosing a resolution adopted by its council requesting that the office of Drain Commissioner be abolished. The communication was ordered accepted and filed.

The following resolution was offered by Comm. Beyer and supported by Comm. Hartmann:

WHEREAS, in recent years, as a result of the present method of office assessments are being levied against communities and residents for the operation of said office, such as inspection of drains and the assessment of the tax payers to warrant such assessments, and the assessments for drains, particularly in farm areas, have become so exorbitant that many farmers are in danger of losing their property due to inability to pay such assessments, and WHEREAS, it appears that there is a conflict between the County Road Commission and the County Drain Commission whenever the latter involves a drain along a highway, and

WHEREAS, it is believed that if all drainage was under the jurisdiction of one County Agency the entire matter could be handled more economically, thereby reducing the burden upon the tax payers;

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Clerk be and he hereby is instructed to make a formal request to our State Representative and State Senator requesting that they introduce any bills which may be necessary in the present Legislature to abolish the office of County Drain Commissioner in Wayne County and to transfer the duties of the Drain Commissioner to the County Road Commission and place all drains under the jurisdiction of the County Road Commission.

By Mary Ann Sincok
 Welcome to our second semester student teachers! Mrs. Beth Mace, for Mr. Kipp, eighth grade math and science; John Bales, for Mr. Spring, Industrial Arts; Gary Smith, for Mr. Harrington, eighth grade English and social studies; Miss Joan Lender, for Mrs. Witweir, girl's physical education.

The Children's Federation Clothing Drive proved to be very successful. Mr. Weimer's, 84's topped the list with 150 boxes. Cathy McKindles brought in the highest amount. School spirit certainly exists in this room, with Candy Muehlbauer as their Student Council Representative. As a reward for their efforts a breakfast will be served to them on February 28.

Mrs. Greene has posted a list of new library books; among them are: "Galley's East" by Arthur A. Gladd, this book is a history, adventure and sea lore in a tale with a Mediterranean setting. "Tales of the Gaudios" by W. H. Hudson is a book of South American tales of unusual quality by the well-known author-naturalist. "The Golden Goblet" by Eloise McGraw is a noted young people's author returning with new adventure stories laid in ancient Egypt. "Poems to Read Aloud" by Edward Hodnett, is a book to share with friends and family, the delight of a choice variety of poems. "The Science of Life" by Lois and Louise Darling, is the story of biological science from simple to complex, from early work to the newest research.

The Iliad recounts the siege and destruction of Troy during the Trojan War, 1200 B.C.

TWO CARS, one a station wagon owned by St. Mary's Hospital, collided last Wednesday afternoon at Sheldon and Ann Arbor Rd., and the hospital vehicle wound up looking like this. Wayne County Sheriff's deputies reported that a car driven by Burton Groves of Ann Arbor, disobeyed a stop sign and raced in front of the St. Mary's vehicle, driven by Dwight Johnson, of Detroit. Groves was issued a ticket for failure to heed the stop sign. Both drivers suffered minor injuries.

All Juniors Urged to Take Natl. Merit Scholarship Test

All juniors, especially those applying for scholarships, are invited to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test on Saturday, March 9, at Plymouth High School.

It is a three-hour examination which is designed to measure the students' educational development in five areas: English Usage, Math Usage, Social Studies Reading, Natural Science Reading, and Word Usage. This is an opportunity for students to find out more about themselves in comparison to other juniors across the country. Each person who takes the test will be given a complete report of the results with an interpretation pamphlet.

WASH-DAY CAST-A-WAY!

If you're adrift in a sea of washday woes, why not set your sail in the direction of a modern gas clothes dryer!

The gas clothes dryer has taken all the "blues" out of laundering. No more tiresome chore of lugging heavy, wet wash out to the clothesline, no more suffering frosted fingers or thawing out frozen clothes.

Just pop your laundry into the gas dryer, relax or tend to other chores. Your clothes are quickly dried fluffy-soft and sunny-fresh for only pennies a load.

You'll like this modern, automatic way of laundering... saves wear and tear on fabrics and on you too!

Hamill General Chairman of Seal Campaign Here

A new concept in design characterizes the 1963 Easter Seals which were revealed recently by the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County. The seals will be distributed during the appeal dates of March 7 through April 14. Purpose is to increase public understanding and support for the services provided by the Society. Herald Hamill, local engineer, is general chairman of the 1963 Easter Seal campaign and Dr. William Covington, Plymouth dentist, is chairman of the Rotary Club's crippled children's committee. Hamill is also a member of Rotary Club. The seals this year are intended as miniature posters and tell the story of the struggle of crippled children to overcome their handicaps.

Telestar Film Set For PTSA Group

"Project Telstar" is the title of a film that will be shown Monday evening, March 4, as part of the regular monthly meeting of the Junior High East parent-teacher-student association. The general meeting will begin at 7:45 p.m. Activities of the executive board will be discussed. Members of the executive group include: president, Richard Stribley; secretary, Mrs. Fred Foust; and treasurer, Warren Smith. Committee chairman are: Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Van Antwerp, who are in charge of membership; Mr. and Mrs. John Ing, hospitality; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Raaflaub, refreshments; and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Niles, publicity. Faculty advisors are Mrs. Chris Witwer and Carl Taylor.

Grange Cleanings

Another completely successful "Open House" has become a matter of Plymouth Grange history. On Thursday night, Feb. 21, members of Plymouth Grange invited their friends to our annual "Open House" at which time said friends responded in a most gratifying manner, despite flu and very cold weather. We are happy to report an attendance of 127. The program of the evening opened with greetings and words of welcome by our Master, Jesse Tritten. This was followed by several fine numbers by the Girls Ensemble from Junior High School, East, accompanied by their director, Mr. Grimmer. Betsy Williams favored us with a violin solo accompanied on the piano by her mother. This was an outstanding number and we will be most happy if they will come again soon. For the rest of the program we turned to the talents within our own membership. A team always ready, willing and able to entertain, is Mollie Tracy and Esther Jacobs and this meeting was no exception as they favored us with several harmonica and piano selections. An Old Time Barber Shop Quartet, dressed in appropriate costume, composed of Bertha Thiele, Evelyn Fischer, Orpha Benjamin, and Hilda Lunn favored us with several selections. The program was climaxed by a "Fashion Show" which really brought down the house. It was even enjoyed by the men present, who seemed to have no fear that their wives would be going overboard for the "newest styles" displayed by our ten attractive models. The program ended by a few more remarks by our Master, explaining the structure, purpose and advantages of the Grange. Following the program all enjoyed visiting over coffee or tea and cookies, and thus ended a very happy evening.

Our Rummage Sale is set for March 2. The Hall will be open Friday, March 1, 1 to 4 p.m., at which time all articles to be donated for the sale should be brought to the Hall. Those having donations, but who are unable to bring them in at that time, please call GL 3-7323 before noon on Friday. It will help greatly if clothing is marked for size.

WITH OUR SENIOR CITIZENS

BY ETHEL MILLARD
GL 3-3782

The weekly meeting for the Plymouth Senior Citizens was held Feb. 21 in the Masonic Temple with 74 members present who were delightfully entertained with several action selections rendered by Jack and Margaret Rudolf who was introduced by Clyde Fisher chairman of the entertainment committee. Agnes Rollins made a delicious and beautifully decorated birthday cake and all members whose birthdays were in February were honored.

Part of the afternoon was spent playing cards. February 28 will be our regular potluck dinner at 12:30 p.m.

American Legion News

The Passage-Gayde Unit will have a business meeting, Thursday, February 28, 8 p.m. at the Post Home, 888 N. Sheldon Rd. The month of February is Americanism Month in the Unit. "Patriotism is becoming popular again". It has been a long time since I've heard anyone refer to the American Legion and Auxiliary as "flag wavers" or "super-patriots". Mrs. Lillian Kinghorn reported.

Most people now recognize that the Stars and Stripes is a very significant flag to see waving, and that in these days of national danger we cannot have too much patriotic dedication. We of the American Legion Auxiliary hope that the flag which signifies America's free way of life will be flying throughout the nation on all occasions. With people living in Communist slavery only ninety miles off our shores, it is time that all of us looked up to the flag with

Sincock Takes Post As Real Estate Agent

Mavor Robert Sincock, who until recently was manager of the Standard Service station at Main St. and Ann Arbor Tr., has taken a position as real estate salesman for the Finlan Real Estate Co.

The announcement was made by owner Patrick Finlan Monday.

Before officially gaining an agent's status, he must pass the Michigan state real estate exam. Sincock will take the examination on March 19.

Plymouthite Cam Hudson Appearing in Detroit Play

By George Spelvin

Cameron Hudson, 344 Amelia Street, is home briefly on weekends to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ewalt Hudson. The rest of his days and nights are spent actively in Detroit theatrical ventures. Cam can be seen currently in the exciting production of "Zoo Story" at the Stables Coffeehouse Theater, 22 Charlotte, just off Woodward Avenue.

Auditions at Jam Handy studios for roles in industrial films, assistant to the director for the Detroit premiere of the Broadway success "Toys in the Attic", and freelance writing keep his days crowded and frantic. We were fortunate to be able to steal an hour of his precious time last weekend as we chatted with him Saturday noon in The Mail office.

Cam gazed thoughtfully out of the window and said in a meditative tone, "Hardly seems six years ago that I was sitting in Mr. Southgate's drama class at the High School a few blocks up the street. Time has a way of zooming by," he added with a chuckle.

What happened in the ensuing six years?

"Well, for one thing, I didn't finish my singing. Most of the people in Plymouth probably remember me as part of a trio with Danny Hargrove and Bob Ramp."

We assured him that Danny was still well-known as a singer. His latest recordings were still local favorites with the teen-age crowd.

"When I went to Eastern Michigan University in the fall of '57, I put my guitar in the attic. I was determined to be a lawyer. And it hadn't been for that girl selling tickets on the campus one afternoon, I might have made it!"

"Oh, so there was a girl?"

"Yes, isn't there always? She tried to sell me a season ticket to the plays in Quirk Theater. I hate to refuse people. Instead I told her I didn't need a season ticket since I was going to be in all the plays."

How could you make such a wild statement?"

"You're right, it was a wild statement. The girl said she would see me at the auditions that afternoon. I showed up "to save face" and as luck would have it I was given a role in "The Crucible". That was the start, the footlight fever had been contracted."

EXCITEMENT of stage and screen lure Plymouthite Cameron Hudson, a 1957 graduate of Plymouth High.

"Once that greaspatent soaks in, it's pretty deady."

"For the next two years at Eastern Michigan it seemed as though I was wearing greaspatent to my classes as I had a part in almost every show they did. Finally in June of 1960 I headed for New York city and the big time."

"You had to find out the hard way."

"Right, I held down a variety of jobs that I'm sure amazed the Income tax people in Washington. Worked for Time magazine as a writer, drove a stagecoach at Freedland (kids all took me for Nick Adams "The Rebel") toured figures as a bookkeeper, helped design the current off-Broadway hit "The Blacks", did publicity work, administered a law office, and tried occasionally to pick a show that would be a hit on off-Broadway."

"How many plays off-Broadway did you appear in?"

"In two years I must have been in and out of at least eight shows. Most of them opened and had short runs. Off-Broadway is exciting, but the mortality rate is high."

"And from off-Broadway it was only a short hop overseas to Spain, France, England, and almost a year of experiencing international theatrical work, isn't that what you indicated when we met earlier?"

"Yes, it's almost enough material for another interview."

I noted that Cam's cigarette had all but disappeared and the way he checked his wristwatch, it might be well to let him go for the moment. It only took a minute to close our interview and wish Cam the best luck as he dashed for the rehearsal hall in downtown Detroit.

Might be a good idea to save some of the overseas experiences that Cam related for next week. He told Randy Eaton and I some charming tales about his hot summer days in Paris, France. The cold, damp stay in London town. Yes, he did indicate that he had seen "The Mousetrap" while staying there. He expressed great interest in the Plymouth Theater Guild's forthcoming production of the famous Agatha Christie thriller. And his wild adventures in Spain are sure to titillate our domestic ears.

Next Week: Cam visits Spain, Paris, and London.

Plymouth High Notes

The Pilgrim Prints, the school paper, will play host to nine members of each school newspaper staff tomorrow Feb. 28, at the Suburban Six press conference. The journalists will register between 9:15 and 9:30 and then listen to an opening address delivered by Principal Mr. Carvel Bentley.

Speaking to students from Allen Park, Beverly, Bentley, Redford Union and Trenton will be Mr. William Noble of the Detroit News on careers in journalism.

Speakers from the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit will hold three discussion periods concerning make-up, advertising and interesting ideas. From 1 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. constructive criticism will be given by the speakers on each school paper.

The press conference was organized by Eileen Ash '63, Carole Loesch '64, and Pat Holmes '64, and a successful day is hoped for by all members of the Prints staff and their advisor Miss Elizabeth McDonald.

Plans for elections are beginning to take shape as Mary Lisa Frank '63, chairman, chose her election board. Eileen Ash '63, Cheryl Planck '63, Tom Wimsatt '64, and Janet Blunk '65 were chosen and have the responsibility to co-ordinate the election plans scheduled for April and the first week of May.

Band members are practicing up for the Parade of Bands which will be held Friday, March 15, and the Band Festival which will be held Saturday March 16.

Suggestions for a theme for the Prom are being taken and committees are beginning to form. Seniors are also looking forward to their upcoming mixer.

Last week, Feb. 18-22, the student council headed the annual "Bundle Days Drive" that gathers clothing for needy children. No report as yet as to the outcome of this project.

Practices for the coming musical "Bye, Bye Birdie" have begun and results may be viewed by the public at four performances March 28, 29 and 30. (Two shows on Saturday, March 30.)

The International Relations class is now working on a new project — their trip to Hillsdale for the Model United Nations Assembly. This year the class is representing two countries, United Kingdom and Ghana.

Topics such as nuclear disarmament, representation of Red China, the Development Decade, the financial problems and the political rights of women will be discussed at the Assembly on March 15 and 16.

The Model United Nations will be held at the University of Detroit on April 26, 27 and 28, and the class will then represent Algeria and Congo Brazzaville.

In the pool, the Water Waves have chosen music for their numbers and are beginning to co-ordinate swimming with music. The boys are also working hard for the much awaited State Swimming Meet which is just around the corner — March 15 and 16.

Name Materials Superintendent At Evans Products

William R. Green has been appointed Materials Superintendent at the Evans Products Company plant here, it was announced by George M. Schueder, vice president of operations.

Green, formerly service manager, will now be in charge of production planning and scheduling, traffic, receiving, material handling and service.

He joined Evans in 1943, was production planning and scheduling supervisor from 1954 to 1958 and has been service manager since then. He lives in Redford Township.

MINOR DAMAGE DONE BY TOWNSHIP FIRES

Two fires in Plymouth Township caused only minor damages last week as Township firemen quickly quelled both of them. Both occurred on Feb. 21.

The first one broke out in a clothes closet at 11254 Gold Arbor and the second erupted around a fireplace at 9323 Morrison.

The Good Old Days . . .
TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF THE PLYMOUTH MAIL

10 YEARS AGO

Over $800 was contributed by Plymouth residents to the Netherland Relief Fund drive held Saturday, announced Mrs. Pieter Schipper, local chairman. Since an American dollar in Holland is worth three and eight tenths dollars Plymouth contributors can figure their donations worth $3,040 to the Dutch people. . . . The city moved one step closer toward bolstering its total water supply by some 2,000 gallons a minute after consulting engineers disclosed that "good water bearing ground" at the Beck road well field would permit construction. . . . Plans for the construction of a new 100 bed hospital were made public at an informal meeting of civic leaders of this area Sunday afternoon by the Felician Sisters. Speaking for the order, Sister Mary Paula, of the Villa St. Felix, located four miles east of Plymouth on Schoolcraft road, stated that St. Mary's hospital had been incorporated on January 18 of this year and specific action had been taken to bring about the completion of the hospital within the next two years. . . . The Library Book Club met on Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. George Cramer on North Harvey street. Mrs. Ralph Fluckey gave a splendid review of the book "A Man Called Peter" by Katherine Marshall. . . . The members of the S.Y.G. bridge club met on Wednesday evening in the home of Miss Cordie Strasen on North Harvey street. . . . Private Paul Denski spent last weekend in Plymouth visiting his fiancée, Miss Barbara Kanka, making plans for their wedding which will take place in either April or May. . . . A group of piano pupils of Mrs. James Honey presented a recital Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Marvin Terry on Roosevelt avenue. . . . Barbara Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horton Booth, of Sheridan avenue will celebrate her eleventh birthday on Saturday by having as her guests 10 of her school friends at a party from four until seven. . . . Miss Jane Stremich and Miss Ann Sambrone of Plymouth with a group of Detroit friends enjoyed skiing at Snow Valley near Grayling last weekend. . . . The Republican Woman's club of Plymouth presented to the Dunning Library a book in memory of Mrs. Florence Roberts last Thursday evening. A similar presentation was made in memory of Elton R. Eaton, former publisher of The Plymouth Mail. . . . Of the estimated six to eight million dollars Plymouth Township Treasurer Samuel W. Spicer has collected in his 18 years in office, he has never made an accounting error or been short so much as a penny. This was the tribute that Supervisor Charles Rathburn last Friday paid to the outgoing 76-year-old treasurer who announced his retirement several months ago and again last week with the statement that "I have no assurance I'll be feeling any better later than I am now". . . . Dr. and Mrs. Elmore Carney and two sons of Penn-

Patterson & Bennett have leased the old Bennett Building at the corner of Union street and Fenimian ave. and will convert it into an up-to-date garage. . . . A business deal was consummated last Friday, when Mr. A. Jones sold his drug business to J. W. Blinkenstaff & Co., of Lake Odessa, Mich. The new firm took possession immediately. Mr. Blinkenstaff is a young man who comes highly recommended as a business man and citizen, and the Mail welcomes him to the business circle of the village. . . . Robert Joliffe of this village has the agency for the Briggs-Detroit for Plymouth and neighboring townships. . . . Mrs. Ovid Kincaid very pleasantly entertained her piano pupils at her home on South Main street last Saturday afternoon. Ice cream and cake were served and all report a fine time. . . . The afternoon dancing class will be given a party in Pennington hall next Tuesday evening, from six to eight. The assembly will take place after the party. . . . Born to Mr. and Mrs. Willis Parke, a girl, Feb. 23rd. . . . Mr. and Mrs. George Curtis, Sr., have moved here from Wayne and are living with their son, Geo. Curtis, Jr. on Harvey street. . . . Mrs. W. O. Allen will entertain the five hundred club and other friends at a dancing party in Pennington Hall this evening. The guests are Miss Bertha Beals attended a concert in Detroit last requested to come in costume. . . . Mrs. L. L. Ball of Northville, was a guest at Geo. Richwine's last Sunday. . . . The ladies of the first division of the M.E. church will hold a sale of home baked goods at E. P. Lombard's office Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. . . . orchestra. Bill for dance, including supper, 50 cents. . . . week Wednesday evening at the church of Our Father, given by Mr. Victor Benham, under whose direction she has been studying for some time. . . . A grand masquerade ball will be given at Burke hall, Elm, Friday evening, March 7. Music will be furnished by Meldrum and McKinney's. The pupils of the Patchin school are enjoying (?) examinations this week. . . . A shadow social will be given by the Grange this (Friday) evening at Frank Palmer's in Canton. Ladies are asked to bring a cake. . . . An agent for acetline gas lights is demonstrating in this neighborhood this week. . . .

25 YEARS AGO

Final accounting of the Christmas street lighting committee made to President Stewart Dodge of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, shows a slight balance left in the fund with which to start next year's Christmas lighting program. . . . Spring has already arrived in Plymouth and vicinity! At least that is what the family of barn owls that have made one of the barns on Sam Spicer's farm their summer resort over a long period of years, seem to think. The owls have not only arrived back in Michigan for their annual summer stay, but in the nest high up on the rafter where many generations of this family of owls have been started on their way there are already six eggs in the nest, according to Mr. Spicer. . . . Officials of the Plymouth County club announced this week that the future activities of the club would be under the personal direction of William Rambo. . . . While State and Plymouth police officers are hunting down every clue which might lead to the arrest of two youthful bandits who, Sunday night, shot and dangerously wounded Arthur J. Todd, South Main street grocer, Mr. Todd is slowly recovering from a bullet wound that pierced his body just under his right shoulder. . . . Madelyn Blunk was the guest of honor Tuesday evening, at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. William Blunk, Mrs. Arthur Blunk, Mrs. M. Blunk and Mrs. Irving Blunk in the home of the former on Williams street. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Karl Grant Miller (Leonilla McDonough) announce the birth of a son, Robert Peter, on Saturday, February 19, Mrs. Miller was formerly of Saginaw. The boy is named after both of his grandfathers. . . . Mrs. N. E. Giles was hostess to the Mayflower bridge club at a dessert Tuesday afternoon of last week. The next gathering will be with Mrs. E. J. Allison on Tuesday, March 1. . . . The St.itch and Chatter group enjoyed a 1:00 luncheon, Thursday, with Mrs. Frank Burrows. . . . City Manager Clarence H. Elliott attended the winter meeting of Michigan City Managers association in Muskegon Tuesday and Wednesday. . . . Word has been received that the C. G. Drapers are enroute home from Florida. The Happy Helpers of the Lutheran church enjoyed dinner at the Hotel Mayflower Wednesday. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Simmons, and daughter, and Mrs. Claud Simmons have recently returned from a visit

Salvation Army Advisory Board Meets March 4

Reservations are still being taken for the annual dinner meeting of the Salvation Army advisory board. The meeting will be held March 4 at Lofy's. It will begin at 6:30 p.m. The affair will feature Commissioner Robert Hoggard, a long-time member of the Salvation Army and one of its most distinguished speakers. He is a former leader of the Salvation Army in both New Zealand and Sweden. Music during the evening will be furnished by an ensemble from the famous Detroit Citadel Band. Tickets are on sale at $3.50 each. They will be mailed to those requesting them by the Committee on Reservations. Address inquiries to the Salvation Army, 290 Fairground St.

One of the things that makes Plymouth such an outstanding community is the participation of its residents in our many and varied civic functions.

Of rather unusual character was the testimonial given last Wednesday evening at the Mayflower to Rev. Melvourne I. Johnson in tribute to his approaching retirement.

Since coming to Plymouth in 1950, Rev. Johnson has done a commendable job for not only his own church but his influence has been felt throughout the community in many ways.

Full credit for the tremendous effort, which provided so impressive an evening, should be given to Jerry Pease whose determination and enthusiasm, in spite of his illness, made the testimonial even a more significant event.

Testimonials are not uncommon in Plymouth and it is the acceptance and willingness of our people to participate in affairs of this nature, expressing thanks and gratitude for jobs well done, which truly gives Plymouth an independence of cultural understanding which the onslaught of metropolitan expansion will find most difficult to penetrate.

The State Chamber of Commerce released last week an interesting digest of the recorded votes of delegates to the recent Constitutional Convention. As interesting as it might seem today, and as hard as many of Michigan's politicians are working to make a partisan issue of the newly proposed constitution, it is interesting to note that of the 121 proposals submitted by delegate committees 120 of those proposals contained provisions that finally became part of the presently proposed new constitution.

According to the report their analysis shows that 73.5 per cent of all the committee proposals considered by the convention had 10 or less negative votes. Many of those proposals were controversial, but with few exceptions, voting was not party line.

The claim of partisan flavor of the New Constitution is not supported by the vote of the delegates on second reading, which was their last opportunity to cast negative votes on individual sections of each proposal.

The report concludes that there is presently an attempt to convince the voters that all votes recorded at the session were along party lines and obviously this line of attack is intended to label the New Constitution as a partisan document which it certainly is not.

Interesting, if you are interested, and you should be. A copy of the full report is available for your study at our office if you so desire. It is our opinion that a YES vote is a sound vote and from our past experience we fully believe Michigan needs a NEW CONSTITUTION.

To The Editor: Dear Sir,

I am an old man and I live in another community, but I read your paper every week, so I want to ask a question. I was a band member when I was a young man before the turn of the century, so my wife and I look forward to our summer Friday nights in the Plymouth Park. That's a wonderful band you have there, and we know that it takes everyone of them to make it as good as it is — not just one.

We have heard a rumor now that the Credit Union gave them $1,000 and it all goes to their conductor. The story goes on that the members are unhappy and we may not have a band to listen to next summer. That is my question.

If this is just a rumor, I'll be glad. If it is true, we will really miss something that gave us good memories and made Plymouth different than other towns. We always had nice uniforms and a band shell. It seems our director did get paid but only for concerts. I think the band could use some of the money and everyone would be happy — even us old cronies.

Please excuse my shaky writing. It's been a long time since I wrote a letter. Hope I didn't speak out of turn here, but on Social Security, the band is our biggest and best entertainment.

Can you find out the answer to this and put it in the paper, as I read it every week.

Respectfully yours, signed Mr. Ralph Stephen Livonia, Michigan

Mr. Stephen's note aroused my curiosity concerning our band concerts so I talked to several people in regard to the matter and am pleased to report that, at this writing, I feel no cause for concern about the future activities of our band.

The Credit Union did provide funds for the band to be used at the discretion of the Band's board of directors, who chose to place it at the disposal of director, James Griffith. Some to insure a continuance of his excellent services, and some to be used for many of the small incidentals necessary to keep up interest and continuity.

Band president Keith Burton reported that he had heard of no serious effects of the gift among the membership, and that, as far as he was concerned, the activities of Plymouth's Community Band were right on schedule starting with their March 24th concert and continuing throughout the summer months.

Sometimes in this fast moving day and age we take many things for granted such as our summer band concerts which provide wonderful entertainment for our residents and neighbors like Mr. and Mrs. Stephen. Perhaps, if nothing else, Mr. Stephen's letter may have alerted us to the value of these concerts and perhaps we, as recipients of this free entertainment, should re-evaluate our own thoughts in this regard and look for a means of providing some recognition to these musicians who give so freely of their time for our entertainment.

Here, perhaps, is an area for our Chamber of Commerce, or some local civic group, to undertake a project to provide sustenance in any small way to show these musicians that their efforts are truly appreciated and that we realize they, too, are contributing to that cultural atmosphere we are so proud of here in Plymouth. Here, definitely, is a challenge and a project for some truly civic-minded organization.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS-AT-HEART

BY MELVIN L. WOELL, MOR. INFORMATION DIVISION MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

From all the fuss, one could get the idea that it is sinful for a Governor to propose a balanced budget. It should happen more often, the shock would be less.

Farmers, who followed the new Governor's balanced-budget message, applauded the idea, and plan to do everything they can to spread it to Washington. They can't help compare running a state, (or a nation) to operating their farms. True, one can borrow on the future, and many farmers do. True, one can defer payment but the Piper has to be paid eventually.

In speaking of improving the Michigan "fiscal climate" before proposing a bigger budget or more taxes, Romney told newsmen that operation of the state is little different from operating a farm. "You can't harvest without seeding first, you can't seed without preparing a seed bed," he said.

Farmers know first-hand of the wonderful natural and human resources of our state. They know that Michigan with vast land, timber, water and metal supplies, is virtually self-sufficient. Add skilled labor to this and great wealth is created.

In the words of Dr. Kenneth McFarland, speaking before the 95th annual meeting of the Michigan Press Association in East Lansing, "It took real genius to break Michigan."

Tax the daylight out of countries and they have little money left for their own affairs and must call for more "aid" from the State. Tax the state to the hilt and there is little money left for state affairs. The next step is Washington where our money becomes "everybody's money" and local responsibility and respect end.

Federal expenditures for government are rising much faster and higher than state and local expenditures. The foreseeable future includes 75 to 80 per cent of all money spent for government supplied by federal funds.

Farmers have offered to lead the way to a balanced federal budget through calling for a ten-billion dollar cut in federal spending, with one billion dollars of that amount coming out of "farm" appropriations. Most of these they have never asked for in the first place and would miss only for the political excitement they tend to Saginaw Valley will have a four-year institution of higher education if a group of legislators get their way this year, but there is at least one stumbling block in the offing.

The group, headed by Sen. Lester O. Begick, Bay City Republican serving his first term in the senate after two years in the House, has proposed a bill under which the state would establish a junior-senior year institution in the area now served on the freshman-sophomore level by Delta College.

Begick in the Senate and Rep. Russell H. Stranger, R-Clare, in the other chamber are hoping Sen. Stanley Thayer, Ann Arbor Republican, will go along with their proposal.

Thayer, representing the home city of the University of Michigan, has something of a conflict where the bill is concerned.

University of Michigan officials have expressed an interest in supporting an upper-level two year institution in the Delta College area. The plans have not progressed yet to the point where the University is ready to ask for state funds to establish the unit.

Residents in the Delta College area have been pushing for the creation of the full four years of higher education to be established in their area for several years now. Begick and Stranger, along with a number of others who conducted a study last summer of the possibilities for offering the service, are anxious for action this year.

As majority caucus leader in the Senate, however, Thayer's voice is powerful. His ties with the U-M could pose a threat to the possibility of legislative action if the University maintains its hopes of establishing a two-year branch in the Valley area.

Some legislators, however, don't want to see U-M and other existing colleges start creating a "chain store" or "piggy back" system of branches throughout the state. A number of these are afraid the Legislature would lose what little control it has over the institutions if this were to occur. On the other hand, there is keen competition within the universities to continue their growth and the "chain store" approach is seen as one of the few ways future growth can be assured.

Gov. George Romney has declined to express specifically his views on the U-M proposal as opposed to the legislative measure in the House.

"This is one of the policy questions in higher education which should be determined quickly," Romney said.

The Governor proposes to establish an advisory group, composed of between 40 and 50 persons, to determine what methods should be followed to best meet future needs of higher education. He said the group, to be appointed within a month, would take into consideration the facilities available in both public and private institutions.

Michigan teachers who seek overseas assignments with the idea they will find an ideal situation might get a surprise, according to those who know in the educational field.

It is true that assignments in the Overseas Dependent Schools operated by the Defense Department offer wonderful opportunities for teachers who want to travel in their spare time.

On the job, however, conditions are far from ideal according to National Education Association information circulating to state affiliates.

The schools attended by the children of military families are, in the horse-and-buggy era, while the military establishment is geared to an age of space exploration," said NEA Executive Secretary William G. Carr on the basis of a survey of the schools.

The survey disclosed shortages of supplies and current textbooks, lack of needed specialist personnel, an excessive teacher turnover rate, inadequate facilities in many locations, unsuitable housing at some posts, and unprofessional salaries.

Money, of course, was seen as a way to solve many of the problems noted in the survey, Carr said. Michigan's Lt. Gov. Bertlett, Superintendent of Schools in construction, was among a group of six persons who toured the overseas systems last fall and wrote the report on which Carr based his warning to lower the teacher's dream of ideal conditions to reality.

Michigan Week planners have called for recognition in each community of the local residents who have contributed most to the educational programs of the community.

Olivet College President Gordon Riethmiller, as chairman of "Education Day" on May 23, suggests special community awards, citations, dinners or programs to honor these individuals.

"In every community there are individuals who have contributed their time, energy, and wealth for many years in behalf of schools," Riethmiller said. "Such valuable services are often overlooked. This is why we are suggesting that Education Day be used to recognize and honor those who have contributed most in their communities."

STEALS LAUNDRY FROM AUTOMOBILE

A burglar stole a basket of laundry out of an abandoned car Saturday evening after Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sherman, of Canton Center Rd., found that their auto would no longer run. They were on their way home from Sherman's parents' home with a basket of bedding and other laundry items. When Sherman returned to the car in the morning he found the laundry missing. The incident was reported to the sheriff's office.

KIWANIS NOTES

By Ken Way

Kiwanian Lee Coolman introduced guest speaker for the evening, Mr. Carvel Bentley, the principal of the Plymouth Community High School. Mr. Bentley spoke on the subject of "Brotherhood". The United States is a melting pot of peoples of all nations who have come to this country to live and make their home. Here we have learned to live together, not in a perfect system but a generally workable one. There have been and probably will be in the future unpleasant incidents which began with the persecution of the Irish in 1800 and with the Little Rock situation in the last year or two. Each of us needs to know his neighbor better. Some of the problems that occur in high school are because the students imitate their parents in defying law and order. We hope to make more progress in intercultural education, not as a specific subject, but in conjunction with other subjects such as Music, Literature, Geography, Science and Languages. Our students learn tolerance through competitive activities with other schools, such as sports and debating. Recently an important step forward has been made with the exchange student program with foreign countries, sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches.

Mr. Bentley introduced a young lady from a small community of 5,000 inhabitants near Hanover, Germany, Miss Antze Hoefer. Miss Hoefer is attending Plymouth High School this year and presented some interesting information about German schools. In the 4th grade students take a one week test to see if they can pass the requirements for high school attendance. All subjects are required — no electives. The first foreign language is English which is introduced in the 5th grade, the second foreign language, usually French or Latin in the 7th grade and the third foreign language in the 9th grade. Generally there are about 35 students in a classroom and the students remain in the same room all day and the teachers move from room to room. Our countries have many of the same ideas and the people in the United States seem very friendly. In Germany the family is closer and does more things together as a family unit.

Mr. Bentley introduced a young man from Lund, Sweden, Mr. John Svensson. Mr. Svensson is attending Northville High School and presented the following information about Sweden. "Our school system is much like the one in Germany. I have found the people in the United States very friendly. In Sweden everyone seems to keep quiet, more to themselves. We are on the same latitude as Alaska, but have winter only from about December to March because our country is warmed by the Gulf Stream in the Atlantic Ocean. Our houses are generally larger and almost always made of wood. Our food is different. We do not have any hamburgers but when I got off the plane I enjoyed a snack of a hamburger and a coke. A television would cost about three times as much as it does here and we generally have only one channel broadcasting from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. We have a King, but the country is governed by a legislative body of two chambers; one chamber has 117 members who are elected for 4 year terms and the second chamber has 251 members who are elected for 2 year terms. Much of our trade is carried on with England. Even though they are not in the Common Market, we will continue such trade to stimulate our economic growth.

Kiwanian Jim McKeon introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Clara Renwick, Bill Mitchell and Charles Moore.

On March 5th, after the dinner, the club will go to the Hines Park Nature Center where Warren North and the Conservation Committee will show some of the equipment that the Plymouth Club has donated in the past two years.

From 1956 through 1961, hunters took 494,750 deer in Michigan, according to the Conservation Department. Only about 1 out of every 4 was an antlerless deer; and only about 1 out of every 5 was a female.

Swimmers Dump Bentley But Bow to Royal Oak

True to form, Royal Oak Kimball turned out to be one of Plymouth's toughest swimming opponents this season. The Kimball swimmers were so strong, in fact, that they managed to hand the Rocks their third loss of 1962-63 last Saturday evening. Plymouth dropped a 55-46 verdict to Royal Oak and saw its overall record for dual-meet competition slip to 12-3. The sting of defeat was somewhat lessened for Plymouth, however, since the Rocks Thursday evening dumped arch-rival Bentley High by a 64-41 margin. It gave the Rocks a .500 average for two contests in three days last week and an opportunity for a 13-3 season record, providing they can turn back Trenton a second time this Thursday.

The Trenton battle will conclude Plymouth's dual-meet action for the current campaign.

Only other schools to defeat Plymouth in swimming this winter were Birmingham Seaholm and Ann Arbor High. The loss to Royal Oak accomplished one other thing, too. It deprived the Rocks of the opportunity of notching Plymouth's 100th dual meet victory this year. Had Plymouth won against Royal Oak and then overcome Trenton tomorrow, the Rocks would have finished the season by accounting for victory No. 100.

Instead, Coach John McFall will have to wait until next season. He has been the varsity swim coach here since swimming was inaugurated in 1953.

Plymouth had a legitimate opportunity to defeat Royal Oak Saturday night, but couldn't take advantage of the moments.

Instead, Royal Oak swept first place finishes in three of the meet's final four events and ended Plymouth's hopes conclusively.

The Rocks won the 200-yard freestyle relay, final event of the contest, but by then it was far too late.

Here's the way the battle went: Plymouth jumped off to an 8-4 lead when the Rocks' 200-yard medley relay team won the opening event. Dan Olson, Dave Agnew, Jim Beglinger and Dick Berry turned in a record time of 1:48.5 to do the job. It is a new Plymouth pool mark.

Then Royal Oak bounced

Plymouth, Trenton Tied For 4th Place

The Plymouth-Trenton basketball clash Friday evening a test of the "lesser lights" in the Suburban Six conference will decide fourth place in the league's final standings.

Both teams display 3-6 records thus far in their conference battling and currently share fourth place in the league.

If Plymouth wins, the Rocks wind up in fourth alone and Trenton slips a notch into fifth. If Trenton wins, Plymouth finishes fifth.

Meanwhile, Bentley High and Redford Union emerged as an "also ran."

Bentley dumped Plymouth Friday night, 57-26, while RU — a league leader at one point this season — suffered a 78-64 loss at the hands of third place Belleville. Allen Park suffered a 63-57 setback Friday night when Trenton got hot at the foul line.

The combination of Bentley's victory and Redford Union's loss earned the Livonia school an outright basketball crown.

The standings, with one league game remains:

Team	WON	LOST
Bentley	8	1
Redford Union	6	3
Belleville	6	3
PLYMOUTH	3	6
Trenton	3	6
Allen Park	1	8

Bentley Hands JayVee Cagers 41-32 Defeat

Shooting inaccuracy doomed Plymouth's JayVee basketball team to defeat last Friday as Bentley's junior varsity cagers downed the junior Rocks, 41-32.

The defeat left the Plymouth junior varsity with a 5-9 season mark and one game remaining.

The junior Rocks could convert only 10 of 57 field goal attempts for a meager 18 per cent from the floor. Plymouth scored 12 free throws.

Bentley led all the way, starting with an 8-5 first period edge and building it to 23-17 at half-time. As the fourth quarter got underway, Bentley led 31-26.

Bill Nelson's eight points led Plymouth's scoring. Jed Foor had nine for the winners.

back with a one-two in the 200-yard free. Plymouth had George Collins in third place in that event. Gary Gould won the 50-yard free and Tom Blunk was second, and then Jim Beglinger finished third in the 200-yard individual medley.

Mark Schultheiss was second in the diving and Dave Beglinger won the 100-yard butterfly. Collins finishing third. Gould won the 100-yard free, Berry third. Olson was second in the 100-yard backstroke as Royal Oak put on its winning spurt.

Doug Breed was third in the 400-yard free, and Agnew gained a third in the 100-yard breast-stroke. The Rocks' victory in the 200-yard freestyle relay was "too little, too late."

The Plymouth foursome, however, was Schultheiss, Blunk, Dave Beglinger and Mike Britcher and their time was 1:37.5.

Bentley High — two days earlier — was practically "no contest." Olson, Agnew, Collins and Britcher opened proceedings with a win in the 200-yard medley relay, and Berry and Dave Beglinger finished two-three in the 200-yard free.

Plymouth gained first place ribbons in six of the nine remaining events to complete the rout of the Bulldogs. Gould won the 50-yard free in the time of :23.6 and Blunk finished third. Jim Beglinger was second in the 200-yard individual medley, and Schultheiss and Bert Quinn took first and second in the diving competition.

Dave Beglinger won the 100-yard butterfly, with Collins adding a third place ribbon there. Berry was first in the 100-yard free as Blunk came in second.

Olson won the 100-yard backstroke, Gardner finishing third. Gould was second in the 400-yard free and Jim Beglinger finished third. Agnew was second in the 100-yard breast-stroke.

Plymouth's foursome of Britcher, Jim Mattison, Jim Norman and Schultheiss won the 200-yard freestyle relay.

League Champ Bentley Clips Rocks, 57-26

Bentley High impressed its championship qualities upon luckless Plymouth last Friday evening as the Bulldogs pasted the Rocks, 57-26. It was Plymouth's 10th basketball loss this winter in 14 games and left the Rocks tied for fourth place in the league.

Plymouth and Trenton each have 3-6 conference marks and will decide the issue here this Friday.

The battle over fourth place will also conclude the Rocks' 1962-63 basketball campaign. A victory would earn the cagers a 5-10 overall mark, compared to the 6-9 record they had a year ago.

But, back to Bentley High last weekend: Plymouth struggled in vain against a taller opponent Friday night, and the outcome was rather expected. The Rocks were held to four points in the first period and period.

It never was much of a contest after that. Bentley raced a way to a 25-8 half-time advantage and stretched it to 42-17 as the third quarter came to a close.

The Rocks got 18 points in the second half. Said Plymouth cage coach Charlie Ketterer: "No comment."

Bentley relied on 6-foot-7 junior center Bill Bollin for the most part. The Rocks could not stop the towering pivot man, and he wound up with 22 points, he wound up with 22 points, he wound up with 22 points.

Roland Kent and Ron Bergman each contributed substantially to the winners' efforts.

Kent had 13 points and Bergman 10. For Plymouth, nine players scored, but no one had more than four points. The Rocks' resounding ineptness was illustrated in the statistics.

They made nine of 37 field goals for 24 per cent and cashed eight of 24 free throws for 33 per cent. While the percentages were not terribly embarrassing, the total number of shots taken by the Rocks left something to be desired.

Bentley made 23 of 50 field attempts for 46 per cent and added 11 of 17 free throws — 65 per cent.

Cloverdale, Auto-Crat Win in Men's League

Cloverdale and Auto-Crat picked up handy victories last week in the men's recreation basketball conference. Cloverdale downed D.S.I. by a 60-35 count and Auto-Crat turned back Tait's Cleaners, 68-56.

The win by Cloverdale maintained its unbeaten streak. Ken Kisabeth scored 12 and Chuck Thomas had 11 for the winners, while Dave Gothard had 14 and Gary Wilson six for the losers.

Auto-Crat relied on Dan Stremick and Eloy Menchaca for its scoring punch. Stremick poured in 19 points and Menchaca had 18. Tait's was paced by Lou Poteau with 16 and Lee Clare with nine.

The standings:

Team	WON	LOST
Cloverdale	7	0
Auto-Crat	5	2
Tait's	2	5
D.S.I.	0	7

Junior Varsity Swimmers Slip Past Bentley, 60-45

On the heels of a 60-45 conquest of the Bentley JayVees, Plymouth's junior varsity swimmers were scheduled to conclude the season this afternoon (Feb. 27) with a battle against Trenton.

The verdict over Bentley came last Wednesday and, according to coach Tom Workman, the contest was "closer than the score indicates."

The junior Rocks didn't clinch the meet until the second from the last event. Plymouth scored a first and a third in the 100-yard breaststroke and took a 52-41 lead.

A victory in the 200-yard freestyle relay, concluding event of the meet, earned Plymouth some additional icing on its winners' cake.

Jim Norman turned in his best time of the year as he won the 100-yard free in 5:54. Workman termed Norman's performance "a marked improvement."

This is the way the JayVee swimmers swept to victory over Bentley: Rich Irvine, Bob Williams, Tim Wernette and Doug Breed finished second in the 200-yard medley relay, and Doug Jaskierny was third in the 200-yard free.

Mike Drennan and Rick Ott finished one-two in the 50-yard free, and John Bowsman and Mike Bentley were two-three in the 200-yard individual medley.

John Herter was first in the diving with Dave Cook gaining second place. Wernette was first in the 100-yard butterfly and Drennan was third.

Norman won the 100-yard free and Jeff Burke was second. Second-place in the 100-yard backstroke went to Doug Irvine and Bowsman was third.

Jaskierny was second in the 400-yard free. Williams won the 100-yard breaststroke and Don Norman was third.

Rick Ott, Jeff Burke, Bob Knapp and Jim Norman won the 200-yard freestyle relay to end the meet.

The test with Trenton was slated to begin at 4 p.m. here this afternoon.

ROYALS WIN IT ALL In Midget Division

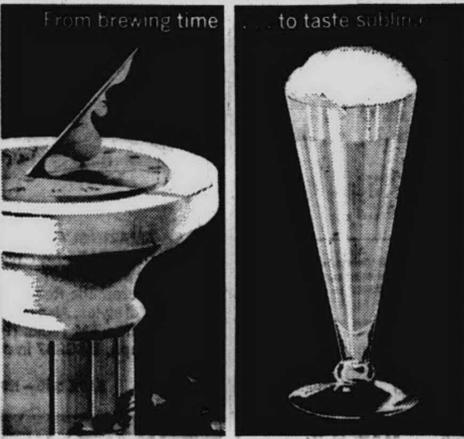

The Plymouth Royals, playing in the Midget Division of the Garden City recreation hockey league, won the undisputed conference championship last week by downing Dearborn Twp. in the final round of the league play-offs.

Final score was 2-1 in favor of the Royals.

The Royals trailed 1-0 going into the third period but a two-goal spree over a span of 20 seconds clinched the victory for the Plymouth team.

Terry Cosgrove scored the tying goal and Dale Tonkovich fired home the winning marker.

On Feb. 28, the teams in the league will assemble in full uniform at the Garden City rink and awards will be presented. The awards include an individual league championship trophy and a traveling trophy for the play-off winners.

BY GEORGE SPELVIN

The University of Michigan Professional Theater Program opened its second festival of plays for 1962-63. Will Greer, Keene Curtis, Jon Farwell, and Laurinda Barrett ran away with the acting honors in the first of three Shakespearean plays, "A Midsummer Night's Dream."

If the lucky patrons of last week could condense their evaluation of this lively presentation of one of the Bard's most lyrical works, they would use a simple adjective like "great."

The APA acting company's presentation of a modern-dress version of "The Merchant of Venice" lived up to its advanced expectations. Only fault and in the opinion of many it may be a virtue is that the production erred on the side of trying to give the audience too much.

Many of the gadgets to modernize the production did get in the way and slowed the pace of the splendid acting. The "La Dolce Vita" dance sequence tended to almost stop the action of the play.

When you have two actors such as Paul Sparer and Rosemary Harris, you need only to put them on a bare stage and say "Go". Of course, having a magnificent script penned by the master playwright, William Shakespeare, helps considerably.

Many actors over the years have tried the part of Shylock. Most famous for his association with the role was Charles Macklin. He enacted the role for 50 years (1739 to 1789). His interpretation was in direct contrast to Doggett's who saw Shylock as a comic figure.

Macklin's Shylock was a detestable monster. Edmund Keane (a sympathetic Shylock), Junius Booth (used Yiddish dialect in the interest of realism in Shylock's speeches), Edwin Booth (a noisy version), Henry Irving (a thoughtful interpretation), Richard Mansfield (wore a long gray beard, and Walter Hampden (old George saw him do the show as a youngster in Chicago) are but a few of the great actors of the century that have tackled this challenging role.

George C. Scott and Paul Sparer are two of our latest top actors to don the mantle of the Bard's great characterization.

Looking at the matter as objectively as I can, I'm afraid I'll have to award all the honors to Paul Sparer. His facial work showed great concentration on the part. He had gotten inside the role. Consequently, those of us watching were caught up in the intensity throbbing portrayal. You hung on his every word.

Rosemary Harris tried gallantly to wrest the play away from Paul, but let's face it, it was his evening. In fact, old George would go so far as to say that this modern-dress version should have ended with the roughing up of Shylock. If the curtain had gone down here the other evening, the audience would have gotten out reasonably close to the usual 11 o'clock departure hour.

No doubt, Director Richard Baldrige found such an endless treasurehouse of good things in "Merchant of Venice" that he was tempted beyond reason. Whatever his excuse may be, let's be thankful that he did lavish so much splendor and beauty on one of the finest productions of "Merchant of Venice" that I've seen.

Two busloads of Ninth graders from the Plymouth High School "ooohed and aahed" at the production. Tom Webber, a Theater Guild Apprentice actor, put his stamp of approval on the show. He looks forward as all of us do to next week's Shakespearean production of "Richard III". The Plymouth Youth Theatre Guild is at it again with a spine-tingling thriller of the first water "The Mousetrap" sets quite muddled with murders, sliding trap doors, and all kinds of mysterious characters sliding in and out of nooks and crannies.

Not since "Double Door" done in fine, eerie style by Dr. Sutherland for the Guild have we had the opportunity to be thrilled and chilled about a mystery play.

Mysteries are fun to read and more enjoyable to watch on stage. Something about a scream or two in a darkened auditorium. Makes your flesh do some weird wrinkling.

Incidentally, the Guild folks are meeting again in the Annex auditorium on Thursday night to continue with planning for the production. Looks like Thursday night is going to be Guild night in the Annex Auditorium. Again, the officers of the organization have told me to inform you that they welcome your attendance. No experience is necessary—enthusiasm and willingness to work are the only qualifications.
