Friday and Saturday in Plymouth

Sidewalk Sale Offers Unusual Bargains

The days way back when—when Grandma and Granddad were just youngsters enjoying farm life and Plymouth wasn't much more than a village (a tiny one at that) will be revived next Friday and Saturday (Aug. 2 and 3) when the Retail Merchants division of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce presents its colorful and traditional Sidewalk Sales.

There'll be men clerks attired in straw hats, loud colored blazers, tight fitting pants and sales ladies dressed in long-flowing skirts, button-up shoes and the huge, rather wild hats of the period around the turn of the century.

And they'll all be on the sidewalks telling of the many bargains that are inside their respective stores and selling the hundreds of items that will be displayed on special racks on the sidewalks in front of the establishments.

The Sidewalk Sales event is one of the most outstanding events sponsored by the Retail Merchants and Co-Chairmen Bernie Morrison and Wendell Lent believe this will be the greatest ever.

"Every one of the stores in the downtown business section is co-operating," said the chairmen, "We believe the offerings this year will give residents of the Plymouth community the most bargains and the best merchandising display in all the years we have had this traditional event."

Most of the merchants have been busy marking down items for the past week and a good many of the unusual bargains will be displayed on the sidewalk racks on a first come first get basis.

But that's only part of the story. Every merchant will have shelves filled with bargains for the two-day event. Bargain seekers will get a taste of the offerings on the sidewalk but the choice items will be inside.

In addition, many businessmen are planning special offerings in the stores and all warn that this is the year to take advantage of the sidewalk sales—you'll be sorry if you fail to visit Plymouth's downtown business section on Friday and Saturday.

There's plenty of parking. There'll be plenty of fun for all and there'll be bargains that even the most astute bargain seeker will have to admit are amazing.

RARE COMBINATION of a husband and wife serving as commanders of American Legion Posts at the same time in the same area is the story of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Koi, 625 Arthur St., Plymouth. Mrs. Koi, shown receiving congratulations from her husband, is commander of the Beals Post in Livonia and he is head of the Plymouth American Legion Post.

Plymouth Woman Heads Livonia Legion Post

Dorothy J. Koi, 625 Arthur, Plymouth, has the unique distinction of being the first woman commander of Myron H. Beals Post of the American Legion and the first member of her sex to hold that office in the Legion's 17th district.

Mrs. Koi was elected Commander at the annual meeting of the Livonia organization.

And that makes two Legion commanders in the same household—her husband Ernest is head of the Plymouth Post of the Legion. It is one of the few times that a husband and wife have been elected commanders of posts in the same district and serving simultaneous terms.

Mrs. Koi served as Adjutant for Beals Post last year, has held offices for the Plymouth Legion and has served as Adjutant and Junior Vice Commander for the 17th District.

In 1957 she was elected State Historian for the Department of Michigan, an office she held for four years. That is longer than any woman has held a state post in an organization composed mostly of males.

Mrs. Koi is also a member of the 20 and 4, the honor society of the Legion for woman members. She was elected Junior V. I. P. of the 20 and 4 at the annual state convention in Detroit in June.

Credit Union Pays $21,450 In Dividends

The Plymouth Community Credit Union poured $21,450 into the community semi-annual dividends to its 2,770 shareholders, according to an announcement by Treasurer-Manager George Lawton.

Lawton reported the Credit Union spent $48,020 in the community during the same period in salaries and miscellaneous items.

It maintained $2,335,000 insurance on its members in savings and loans and paid $15,500 in death benefits to 10 residents of the community during the six-month period.

Plymouth Man Bound Over for Bad Check

Max Newsome, 645 Forest, Plymouth, entered a plea of guilty to uttering and publishing, waived examination and was bound over to Circuit Court by Municipal Judge Harry Deyoe.

Newsome was charged with issuing a check for $66.78 to Willoughby's Shoe Store and it bounced due to insufficient funds, according to Plymouth Police reports.

Matter Up for Action Monday

Council Battle Looms Over Reservoir

The question of whether Plymouth should go forward immediately with plans for the construction of the proposed reservoir at Beck and Six Mile Roads or whether the matter should be delayed pending further study will have the attention of the City Commission next Monday in what may develop into one of the hottest meetings in some time.

Construction of the reservoir was approved by the previous Commission in mid-March following a torrid pre-meeting session in which Commissioners reportedly became involved in a bitter debate as to whether the City should go forward with plans for the City Hall or drop it in favor of the reservoir.

Inasmuch as a federal grant with matching funds had been approved for the City Hall, the Commission voted to go ahead with the project but also passed a resolution approving the construction of the reservoir.

Since then, four members of the Commission have retired—Mayor Robert Siscook, Marvin Terry, Carl Shear and William Hartmann—and the reservoir matter has been allowed to sit dormant in the press of other business.

The four retiring Commissioners were replaced by Arch Vallier, George Lawton, Robert Smith and James Jabara, all freshmen and all carefully feeling their way before taking any major steps.

However, the reservoir decision was brought to a head two weeks ago when Vallier demanded that it be placed on the agenda for the Aug. 5 meeting for discussion and action.

At the moment, the Commission appears to be split by a 4-3 vote on the proposal—three commissioners, Mayor Richard Wernette, James Houk and Vallier in favor while Robert Beyer, Lawton, Smith and Jabara are against immediate action pending additional study.

The reservoir became a major issue at the recent meeting between the Commission and Plymouth Township's Board which presumably was called to informally discuss the water problem.

The Township contracted for Detroit water two years ago and Supervisor Roy Lindsay told the Commission his group was very happy with the change from "well water."

He indicated the Township has no problems with rust and only minor problems with pressure. It was the latter that attracted the attention of the Commissioners.

Lindsay and Township Engineer Herald Hamill admitted that there had been a pressure problem during the lengthy dry spell in early July and the Township had to tap into its own wells to maintain a constant flow. This situation existed for only a day or so.

Inasmuch as the Commission has been looking into the Detroit water situation, especially since Detroit Water Board General Manager Gerald Remus proposed that Plymouth and adjoining communities join the system, the pressure problem hit home.

"This more or less proved to us that Plymouth does need a reservoir, regardless of whether we consider Detroit water or not," commented Mayor Wernette.

Vallier demanded action on the reservoir on the basis that Western Electric Co. made a complaint some time ago about lack of pressure and asked the City to correct the situation as soon as possible.

"We haven't done a thing since the complaint," said Vallier. "Western Electric officials feel that we are dragging our feet in making corrections and I guess I have to agree with them."

During the informal meeting with the Township, Houk told the Trustees that Plymouth was considering building a much larger reservoir than originally planned with the thought of taking care of the west end of the Township.

However, it was pointed out that the Township is under contract to Detroit and can't accept water from any other source.

There isn't any question as to the thoughts of Commissioner Beyer on the subject. He termed the Plymouth water as "horrible" and asked the Council to make a complete study of the possibilities of Detroit water before taking any action on the re-ervoir. All of which should make Monday's meeting a memorable one if the Commission becomes involved in a hassle on the subject. There is a possibility that the majority group could vote to table the matter for additional information and study.

But as Vallier indicated when he asked that the matter go on the agenda: "I hope the citizens of Plymouth come out to listen to the discussion. We have been dragging our feet long enough on the matter of pressure for Western Electric."

Chandler Drops Complaints

Mich. Bell Seeks OK To Shift 120 Phones

Michigan Bell will proceed immediately to transfer the service of all residents now in the Northville exchange, to the Livonia exchange, a company spokesman informed State Rep. Paul Chandler Monday.

All of the residents involved live in the northwest corner of the City of Livonia and heretofore have been required to buy their service from the Fieldbrook (Northville) exchange, which charges heavy tolls on all calls into the Detroit area. Some calls placed even within the City of Livonia by FI customers are "toll" calls.

Rep. Chandler, who filed a formal complaint on the Fieldbrook situation with the Michigan Public Service Commission, wrote the Commission Tuesday and requested that his complaint be withdrawn "in view of Michigan Bell's action."

The changeover from the Northville to the Livonia exchange first must be approved by the Public Service Commission, and the legal proceedings are likely to consume several weeks before the switch will become effective.

Michigan Bell said approximately 120 customers are involved at the present time. However, the area, includes the site of the new Schoolcraft Community College, and many other big developments are imminent there, which makes the change far-reaching for the future.

In discussing the importance of the change, Chandler called attention to page 11 of the Telephone Directory.

"In a table there of 35 exchanges—offered by Michigan Bell as typical points called most frequently from this area—29 of them were rated for Fieldbrook customers as 'long distance' calls at the regular long distance rates. Only 6 were 'local' calls. By contrast, in the Livonia exchange only 10 of the points are 'long distance'."

"The savings to these existing households will be substantial and over a period of years, considering the future growth there, millions of dollars in ultimate savings for Livonia residents are involved," said Chandler.

Earlier, the phone company was ordered by state authorities to transfer the Plymouth-exchange customers (who live in Livonia) to the Livonia exchange. This followed a hearing on a formal complaint by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shirley, residents who waged a long, successful fight against being forced to take Glenview service. The Northville exchange clash was similar in its issues.

72 Seek Vacant City Clerk Post

The job of Plymouth City Clerk has to be one of the most desirable in Michigan.

At least that's the impression of City Manager Albert Glassford as he looks at the stack of 72 applications on file with more expected before the Wednesday, July 31 deadline.

Glassford advertised the position shortly after the resignation of Joseph Near in May and set the July 31 deadline. He anticipated a flood of applications but nothing like the stream that have been pouring into his office for blanks.

The list includes residents of Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Livonia, Wayne, Detroit, Redford Township and a list of applicants from within Plymouth's city limits.

Near vacated the job in early July in order to take his vacation and accrued leave days and Glassford named Charles Thompson as deputy clerk and divided the duties temporarily among members of the clerk's staff, Thompson and himself.

Glassford was appointed Urban Renewal Director, to replace Near in that capacity, by the City Commission two weeks ago.

He plans on studying all applications within the next two weeks and then make recommendations to the Commission for approval.

Jerry Pease
Jerry Pease Dies at 60

Gerald "Jerry" Pease, 60, 1600 N. Territorial Road, prominent Plymouth businessman, died Saturday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor following a lengthy illness.

Members of the Plymouth Rotary Club had held a round-the-clock vigil at his bedside for the past month. He had operated a paint store in Plymouth for the past 13 years, coming to the community from Livonia.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday in the Schrader Funeral Home in charge of Rev. Hugh White. Burial was in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens in Novi.

Mr. Pease was born Nov. 8, 1902 in Van Wert, O., a son of Adam and Nettie Bennett Pease. He was a member of the Plymouth Rotary Club, the First Methodist Church and of the Northville Lodge 183, F.&A.M.

Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Clara Pease; his mother, Mrs. Nettie Gibbons of Caro; a daughter, Mrs. Gloria Green, Plymouth; a brother, Paul of Detroit; and three grandchildren.

Plymouth Campaign Quiets Noisy Drivers

Plymouth's communitywide drive, against screeching tires, loud mufflers and fast driving in the residential areas, is paying off.

That was the report of Director of Public Safety Kenneth Fisher who indicated complaints against wild driving and excessive noise have dropped considerably in the past two weeks.

"When the City Commission asked the police to take every step possible," said Fisher, "we did and one of the first was to ask the full co-operation of all parents and guardians of youths driving cars."

"We figured that the place to get the message home was in the parents who would warn their youngsters against such tactics. I guess you'd have to say that the word has spread around for the complaints have dropped almost to nothing.

"However, this doesn't mean that the Police Department is relaxing its vigilance, that's far from the truth. We have redoubled our patrols and we are still taking every step we can to stamp out these practices."

"Once again I urge all citizens and parents to file complaints and we in the Police Department wish they would back up these complaints with warrants so that we can haul some of the culprits into court. A few fines, suspended licenses and harsh warnings will work wonders."

Area Obituaries

DPW News And Notes In Plymouth

By Joseph Bida, Supt. Dept. of Public Works

The shopping section was swept several times. All of the main streets were cold patched and a hump was cut out of Union Street N. of Dodge Street.

There were two funerals held at Riverside Cemetery and the crew continued with the mowing and cleaning and a new flag pole was installed. Parks and Playgrounds were mowed and cleaned and weeds were cut on vacant lots.

One storm sewer tap was installed. Sanitary sewers were checked in the north part of the city. Catch basins were cleaned.

Time was put in at the Salem refuse site covering rubbish. Ends of big tubes were dug out and replaced with concrete ends at Burroughs and Cooldidge.

'The Readers Speak Up' on School Millage in City

Editor: Let's take first things first and not confuse the school issue with hopes of possible tax relief from the legislature at some future date. We must all realize that the only local source of income for our schools is the property tax—hopes of future assistance cannot solve our present problems. The issues for the August 5th election are quite clear. Three mills are needed to operate at the present level. The school budget has been balanced in the past few years but our children paid the cost in cutbacks. Cuts were made in the reading, foreign language, and athletic programs; also in home economics, industrial arts, physical education, consultant staff, maintenance, and last, but far from least, the science coordinator who left a year ago, was not replaced.

The three mills will not buy back what we have already lost, but it guarantees that we will keep that which we now have. We don't have the best, but let's keep it good! The third high school and addition to Bentley must be built as we will be 1,475 over capacity in 1966. Our present high school capacity is 3,960—yet the enrollments will be 4,500 in '64, 4,845 in '65 and 5,475 in '66. On the basis of these figures we can see the need for supporting the school bond issue.

In a comparison of 62 metropolitan schools Livonia ranks second on membership. Our administrative costs per pupil were lower than that of 43 other schools—less than 3% of our budget. Our instructional costs were lower than 18 other schools. Our operation costs were lower than 31 schools. Our maintenance costs took less than 3% of our budget and we ranked 28th in the comparison with other schools.

These facts speak for themselves. It's imperative that we all get out and support our schools on August 5th. No threats have been made but it should be obvious to all that something is going to give way if the two propositions on the ballot are not passed.

Sincerely, Helen Taddonio

Editor: It's summertime in our suburban community, and the evidence is everywhere you go—well cared for green lawns, gardens bursting with beautiful flowers and happy youngsters enjoying the playground facilities, the swimming and baseball programs—just having fun. The atmosphere is one of happiness and relaxation.

Parents are relaxed too. Many are so relaxed they are unaware of anything that doesn't affect their own little family group this week or this month—a swimming pool, a new bicycle or perhaps a fleeting thought of picking up a few bargains for their cherubs are more important than their most important community investment—their child's future.

In another month our schools will be converted from recreational activities to academic facilities, but few realize that on September 4th 25,000 Livonia children will have a seat in the classrooms of our 35 schools. These same few people also fail to realize that in our city of 80,000 citizens another 5,000 children will be added in our schools.

We are fortunate to have been blessed with these wonderful gifts of love, but when do we wake up to reality to provide for them in other ways than a new toy — our love should extend to that strong desire to provide the biggest gift of all, something that can never be taken away—a Good Education.

Tax-hating individuals seem to be more prevalent than Value-thinking persons these days. Where, however, do you get such value for your money as through your own local control? Divide your school taxes by the number of children in your family and you will find the average person pays very little towards their child's future.

We don't have the best now, but we must keep what we have. Let's exercise our rights as Americans and vote August 5th for Quality Education for Quantities of Children.

Sincerely, Geraldine W. Joyner

Editor: We are asked to vote again on August 5 about the Livonia school millage. I for one and many others who are on Pension feel this is the straw that breaks the camel's back.

Hospitalized, Gets a Ticket

Gordon Kolehmainen, 31654 Joy Road, Livonia, was rushed to St. Mary Hospital with serious injuries after his car skidded, sideswiped a parked vehicle and roared on for another 100 feet before ramming into a tree, according to police reports. Kolehmainen, according to officers, was traveling at an excessive speed, going west on Joy Road when he allegedly lost control. He was ticketed for driving at an excessive speed.

I'm a widow and if taxes are raised again, it might force me and others to sell their property to make their money stretch. I, like many others, have paid school taxes for years and never had a child in school, so now I feel widows and people on pensions should have some reduction or relief from them. So why not get smart, we in Michigan, and run a sweepstakes to take care of schools and hospitals. It would relieve the already over-burdened taxpayer. I think along with others I have done my share to schools, having lived here since 1941. Why make the house owner a goat every time they choose to build such elaborate schools? I hope you will publish this in your paper and pray something will be done about it. One of Your Readers J. B.

Pacers, Trotters Return To Wolverine Raceway Friday for Fifty Nights

The richest stakes offering of any harness racing track in the area, Ladies night every Tuesday with a mink stole for some lucky gal, and all members of the distaff side admitted free, Grand Circuit week with the nation's outstanding two and three-year-old pacers and trotters and some of the finest racing of the year.

That's just part of the tasty menu in store for Livonia and Michigan's standardbred enthusiasts as Wolverine Harness Raceway opens its 50-night meeting Friday at the Detroit Race Course.

It is the third and final segment of the sport in the Motor City area and by far the best of the entire year. The meeting opens Friday and continues through Saturday, Sept. 28—by that time Wolverine officials promise patrons will have seen the best of the land in action. Following this weekend's activities, Wolverine entertains the Roaring Grand Monday, Aug. 5 for eight stakes in four nights, winding up on Thursday, Aug. 10.

There's a strong possibility that the Hambletonian and may give preview performances since practically all of the early outstanding contenders are nominated in the Wolverine stakes.

Castleton Farm's Speedy

Scot, everybody's choice as the two-year-old trotter of 1962, tops the list of eligibles for the Matron scheduled for Tuesday, Aug. 6 with an estimated value of $26,000. He's the No. 1 choice in this year's Hambletonian and will try to carry on at Wolverine where he left off a year ago by capturing the Tompkins Memorial.

Other standouts nominated for the Matron are Floris, Kentucky Belle, Cheer Honey, Fred Walker, Filter and Quentin Hanover.

Overtrick, who dominated the two-year-old pacers just as Speedy Scot did the trotters, is among the eligibles for the Brown Jug Trial on Thursday, Sept. 12, just a week in advance of the rich Brown Jug Classic in Delaware, O. The Trial has an estimated value of $21,000.

The Trial attracted 34 nominations, 28 of whom are eligibles for the Jug finale. Other standouts in the sophomore stake are: Country Don, Hondo Hanover, Majestic Hanover, James B. Hanover, Meadow Skipper, Steady Beau, Chapel Chief, Sly Yankee and Max Hanover to mention a few.

Wolverine moves into the Grand Circuit after its opening weekend for five nights of stakes that promise the best racing of the year to Detroit area and outstate Michigan enthusiasts.

On the Roaring Grand program are: Monday, Aug. 5 — Tompkins Memorial for two-year-old trotters with an estimated value of $17,000 and Breeders Filly stake for three-year-old pacers with an estimated pot of $5,000; Tuesday, Aug. 6—Matron for three-year-old trotters for an estimated $26,000 and Breeders filly stake for two-year-old trotters for an estimated $5,000; Wednesday, Aug. 7—Geers for two-year-old pacers, estimated $14,000, and Breeders filly for three-year-old trotters, about $5,000; Thursday, Aug. 8—Matron for three-year-old pacers, estimated $19,000, and Breeders Filly for two-year-old pacers, about $5,000.

In addition, the Wolverine schedule includes: the historic Merchants and Manufacturers trot on Aug. 15 for an estimated $25,000; traditional Motor City Pace on Aug. 22 for an estimated $25,000; and the Jug Trial, which is expected to go as high as $21,000.

President Frederick Van Lennep and Vice President and Operational Manager Orlov Owen also have agreed to sponsor six of the $5,000 Michigan colt stakes in which the top 10 in point standings of the season-long series clash, and will schedule the $5,000 Governor's Cup pace later in the meeting when Gov. George Romney fits his busy program into a Saturday at Wolverine.

Dan Popa Elected Director of NAA

Daniel J. Popa has been elected a Director (in charge of manuscripts) of the Oakland County Chapter, National Association of Accountants.

Popa, who with his wife and three children lives at 19353 Hardy Drive, Livonia, is a supervisor in Budget and Financial Analysis with Chrysler Corporation, and a graduate of Ohio State University.

In addition to his activities with the National Association of Accountants, Dan has served as chairman of the Finance Commission of Calvary Church, Chairman of the Ohio State University Development Fund, and a community drive chairman for the United Foundation of Detroit.

R. Monson Picks Up Trophies in Europe

Ronald Monson, 14327 Denne, Livonia, who teaches in Ypsilanti, has returned from a three-weeks tour of Europe with the Sullivan's baseball team of Grand Rapids.

The tour was part of the People to People correspondence program.

The Sullivans played in France, Germany and The Netherlands in an international "Honkbal" tournament. "Honkbal" is Dutch for baseball.

The Grand Rapids team won the tourney and Monson brought back three individual trophies for most valuable player, most home runs and the best hitter.

The Sullivans were invited to The Netherlands and to participate in the tourney after the Netherland All-Stars visited Michigan in 1961 and played several exhibition games.

Many of the Livonia schools are active in the People to People program.

McCamant, Adams Tie In Golf

Bob McCamant and Len Adams will battle it out next Sunday in an 18-hole playoff for the championship of the third annual Livonia Invitational golf tournament.

They tied at the end of the regulation 54-hole medal play affair with identical 224s and the playoff was ordered by Tournament Director Al Roscoe.

They will be joined in the playoff by Al Morehead and D.P. Hickey, who tied for third with 225s.

The top five finishers in the annual meet qualified for the state recreation association tourney in Pontiac on Sept. 7, as representatives of the City of Livonia.

Bill Booth took down the fifth place with 233 and School Supt. Ben Yates was sixth with 237.

McCamant fired 75, 76 and 73 and Adams had 81, 73 and 70.

Adams and Jerry Devitt tied in the closest to the hole contest, each winding up 94 from the cup. Adams also won the longest drive with a belt of 360 yards.

“TWAS A HAPPY OCCASION when Mrs. Sophie Huegel prepared to celebrate her 99th birthday while her tiny great grandson, Gary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brokas, 433 N. Evergreen, Plymouth, will celebrate No. 1 on the same day—Wednesday, July 31. There were four generations on hand for this picture in the Brogas home and the group includes: (from left) Mrs. Shirley Brokas, granddaughter; Mrs. Sophie Saner, daughter; Mrs. Sophie Huegel, mother; Albert Huegel, son; and great grandson, Gary, seated on Mrs. Saner's lap.

Grandma, 99, Shares Birthday with One-Year-Old Grandson

Two birthdays, adding up to 100 years with a span of 98 years between the participants, were celebrated Wednesday, July 31, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Avery Penney, 48222 Powell Road, Plymouth. The celebration honored 99-year-old Mrs. Sophie Huegel, who resides on Windover Lake with her daughter, Mrs. Sophia Saner, and her great grandson, Gary, one-year-old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brokas, 433 N. Evergreen. Gary enjoyed the activities up to a point (bedtime) but for great grandma, it was one of the greatest days of her life. A family celebration was held Sunday at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth but it was the party on the natal day that mean just as much to Mrs. Huegel. Present at the Mayflower were: her daughter, Mrs. Saner; son, Albert Huegel, 44675 Joy Road, Plymouth; grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Balko, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Casterline and Mr. and Mrs. Jukius Saner, of Northville; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schultz, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Penney and Mr. and Mrs. Brokas of Plymouth; and 12 great grandchildren. Mrs. Huegel was a resident of Plymouth until 1941 when her husband died and she moved in with her daughter at Windover Lake. She was the mother of eight children, five still alive, including: Albert of Plymouth, Harry in Phoenix, Ariz.; Alfred in Monroe; Sophie at Windover Lake; and Lena in Pasadena, Calif.

Mrs. Huegel has 11 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren. She was born in Alsace Lorraine, France, and came to the United States with her husband, Henry, in 1914.

Club Awards Will Honor Women's Group

A $50,000 awards program honoring women's clubs for outstanding work in aid to education will be continued in the 1963-1964 season for its second year, according to the General Federation of Women's Clubs and Shell Oil Company, co-sponsors.

Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, president of the GFWC, said that the clubs that won the 1963 awards—and the many others that were considered—enabled communities throughout the United States to improve schools, provide scholarships, aid in training teachers, and support education in other ways.

“The nation's future is in its schools right now,” she said, “and we are continuing these awards to encourage all our member clubs to continue their efforts in helping education.”

Two awards of $500 each are made in each state. One goes to the club with the best education program in a community of 10,000 or more; the other, to the club with the best program in a rural area or community of less than 10,000.

The cash awards, provided by Shell, are used by winning clubs to make their education programs even better.

Michigan's winning clubs in 1963 were Iron Mountain—Kingsford Women's Club, Iron Mountain, and the Tuesday Study Club of Wyandotte.

Any federated women's club is eligible for the GFWC-Shell Oil Company Education award. Judging is done state by state. Judges are the state education chairman and two prominent educators.

New Social Service Agency Will Serve Livonia, Redford

The opening of a new district office serving western Wayne County was announced today by the Reverend Paul J. Hickey, Director, Catholic Social Services of Wayne County. The Agency's new office, located in the Marion Building, 31406 Ford Road, Garden City, will open to the public on Monday, August 5, 1963.

The new office will serve residents of Garden City, Livonia, Dearborn Heights, Wayne, Inkster, Redford, Northville and Nankin and Canton Townships. Office hours will be 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

According to Father Hickey, the decision to open the field office was based on a review of the area's rapid population growth and the related sharp increase in casework being handled in these communities by social workers operating out of the Agency's Detroit headquarters.

“Our study of the area's past and projected population growth pattern clearly indicates the immediate need for a local office,” Father Hickey said. “Not only will it greatly improve the Agency's operating efficiency on the west side of the County, but it also will provide area residents with a convenient source of highly skilled, professional help to aid them in solving their problems,” he said.

Father Hickey also announced that Miss Adele Aras, M.S.W., district administrator of the Agency's Allen Park office, will supervise the operation of the Garden City office. Miss Aras will be assisted by Mr. Phillip M. O'Dwyre, M.S.W., who will be in charge of casework.

A Torch Drive agency, Catholic Social Services of Wayne County specializes in a broad range of public service assistance programs for individuals, families, and/or groups having social or emotional problems.

Counseling is offered in marital and parent-child relationships; placement of children in foster homes or institutions; protective services for children; child behavior problems; individual personality problems; and assistance to unwed mothers.

Father Hickey said that the new office which will render social service assistance to this rapidly growing section of Wayne County is a good example of U.F. dollars-in-action. “We at the Agency are most grateful to all those whose generosity has made possible the new facility,” he said.

BLUE SKIES and cool Caribbean breezes greeted Dr. and Mrs. Conrad Pearl, 18818 Hillcrest Ave., Livonia, as they arrived at Miami International Airport following a jet flight from Detroit. The local doctor, who is a general practitioner, will spend a 10-day vacation with his wife at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami.

CAROLE COLLARD Mr. and Mrs. John Collard, 15810 Middlebelt, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carole Jeanne, to Daniel L. Goodfellow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Goodfellow, 16487 Surrey Drive, Livonia. Both Carole and Dan are graduates of Bentley High School. No wedding date has been set.

Carole is presently pursuing a course in court reporting at the Elsa Cooper School in Detroit. She has attained since September speeds of 180 words per minute, and has passed a test at 200 words per minute, necessary for graduation. Carole's name and background was selected by the school to represent it at the recent Associated Stenotypists of America convention because of her progress in nine months, since the course usually takes three years. She received a certificate of proficiency at the ASA Convention.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD ZABOROWSKI

Carnations Decorate Altar At Lucille Cicirilli Wedding

Vases of pink and white carnations graced the altar of St. Michael's Church in Livonia on Saturday, July 13, for the 10 a.m. wedding of Lucille Cicirilli and Ronald Zaborowski.

Lucille is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cicirelli of 33605 Plymouth Rd. and Mr. Steven Zaborowski of Detroit is the bridegroom's father.

Rev. McMahon performed the double ring ceremony. Richard Grzeskowiak, organist, assisted Lloyd Fitzgerald sing the nuptial mass.

Joseph Cicirelli, Jr., brother of the bride, sang, “O'Santisima” at the offertory of the Mass and “On This Day, O, Beautiful Mother,” as the bride and groom placed a bouquet on the altar of the Blessed Mother. Escorted by her father, the bride approached the altar in a full length gown of rose point lace over tulle and white silk. The fitted bodice was detailed by a sabrina neckline edged in seedpearls and sequins, and the long sleeves extending to points over the hands. A crown of sequins and seedpearls held in place her veil of silk illusion and she carried a mother-of-pearl rosary and a cascade of white orchids, rose buds, carnations and stephanotis blossoms. Her only adornment was a dew drop pearl and matching earrings.

Lucille's sisters were her attendants: Jane, maid of honor, and Josephine and Carmella, bridesmaids.

The girls wore identical gowns fashioned of white silk chiffon over tulle and taffeta. A primrose cummerbund cinched the waistline of the bouffant full length skirts. Each attendant wore a white veiled hat and primrose and white crystal necklaces and earrings. They carried a cascade of pink and white carnations and red rose buds.

Edward Zaborowski served his brother as best man. The ushers were Tony Bankowski and Tom Sarnowski, friends of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Cicirelli chose a dusty rose colored brocaded silk dress. Her accessories were white and she wore orchids.

A wedding breakfast was served for the bridal party, close friends and relatives following the service at the St. Francis Council Knights of Columbus Hall. In the evening, at the same location, a buffet dinner was served to over 500 guests coming from New York, Ohio, Massachusetts, Tennessee, Pontiac, Birmingham, Novi, Ypsilanti, Dearborn, Detroit, Garden City, Plymouth and Livonia, Michigan. Music for the reception was furnished by Jerry Hoelcher and his band. Following a short honeymoon the couple will make its home on Robinson in Dearborn Heights.

Local Girls Camp Four girls from this area will go to the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron for the third camping session, July 28-Aug. 10. They are: Ellen Baumgartner, 15074 Minock; Cheryl Ladson, 15471 Grandville; Edna Hayes, 12820 Fenton; and Jean Rhodes, 16584 Edinborough.

To Women It May Concern

By MYRA COX

If you heard the rumor the “Top of the Flame,” the delightful restaurant at the very top of the Detroit Gas Company new building sports an all-electric kitchen—it's just not true. One nice thing about being a reporter—you get paid for being nosy—they were proud to show off their kitchen which offered proof-positive the Gas Company prevails to the top.

With nothing overlooked in good taste and interesting decor why do you suppose it is so situated as to have the very best view of the city from the ladies powder room?

Also, it is not a rumor the builders of the $500,000 motor inn and restaurant being built on Schoolcraft, east of Middlebelt in Livonia want help in naming their project. Wah Yee and Associates, the architects, are taking all suggestions. Since the 32-room dwelling is to be located across from the race track they are interested in a tie-in with the ancient sport of horse racing. It is to be Early American in its architecture and decor. It will be two stories with restaurant and cocktail lounge, heated swimming pool, etc.

I would hope a better name will be chosen than that selected by local enigma Gus Nedz, host of Del Prado in Redford Township. He named his adjoining cocktail lounge “High Hopes”—and somehow it leads one to wonder.

I sort of like the name “Barrel Inn”—very Early American (as in cracker or pickle) and would indicate a place to retreat to if one made out badly just across the street—or, there is always reliable Ole Paul Revere—he certainly is “Early” and you must admit wouldn't have been much without his horse—or there is White Horse Inn—Black Horse Inn—well, to be in tune with the times Black 'n' White Horse Inn.

Probably the integration problem is nothing to treat facetiously. I am in complete sympathy with “the cause”. I can't help but think many of the colored leaders are overlooking their responsibility. They are not stressing education enough. If they would fight for equal education opportunities—the rest would follow in the due course of time.

Many people were in sympathy with the cause of no discrimination in education but are not when they say “a colored person MUST be on every TV show, work in EVERY grocery, department store, etc.” It would seem as though many of their leaders are more interested in “special privilege than anti-discrimination.” There is a difference.

If the Rev. Louis Johnson, pastor of the Friendship Baptist Church as well as many other colored leaders had worked as hard, and been as concerned about Cynthia Scott before she was shot she might not have been a knife-carrying prostitute. If only they would expend their energies to assist others like the Scott woman instead of trying to “get” the policeman that did it.

If only they would stop demanding from every level of authority action against the law and help the others like Cynthia Scott—fight ignorance—educate—they would have many helping hands. Demand, sure, fight, sure, but for good teachers, good schools, and colored kids staying in them.

Blisses Back from Styling Convention

Gerald and Mildred Bliss, owners of the Lana-LaBliss Hairstyling firm at 23711 Schoolcraft, have just returned from the National Hairdressers Convention in Las Vegas, Nevada.

“There are a number of new ideas which beauty parlor operators received at the convention,” they told The Observer.

“Gone are the extreme hair-dos and lacquer looks. The natural and carefree and short hair-dos are ‘in.’ The very important step in this is the haircut, shaping and styling.”

New ideas for styling and conditioning are being offered at the beauty parlor, the Blisses said. They are residents of Redford Township.

First Open House Attracts 375 LYI Guests to Franklin

Livonia Youth, Inc. held its official Open House at Franklin High School located on Joy Road with approximately 375 teenagers (members, their guests and parents) making good use of all the facilities available at the center.

There was keen activity at the ping-pong and pool tables, fast dribbling on the basketball courts, and a fast and lively game of volleyball going almost constantly.

In addition to the active physical sports, there were tables of various card games and a good number of dancers on the floor at all times. The only facility not used Friday evening during the Open House was the swimming pool. The pool is open only on Wednesday evenings.

Everyone in attendance was very impressed with the quality and variety of activities that are offered at this L. Y. I. Summer Teen Center.

All the teens in the Livonia area are invited to come down to Franklin High School and join in the fun. The center is open every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings. The hours on Monday and Wednesday are from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., with the swimming pool being open on Wednesday only. Friday night the hours are from 7:30 p.m. to 11:00 p.m. with a dance usually in full swing. All Livonia and Clarenceville teens, who aren't already members, can join L.Y.I. any evening the center is open. Membership is one dollar.

If you need any more encouragement to come and join the fun, well the crowds on Monday, Wednesday and Friday have been averaging over 150 teens. Maybe your friends are already members, why don't you come and see for yourself and spend a most enjoyable evening at the Livonia Youth, Inc. Summer Teen Center?

TENDERAY STEAK SALE!

NO OTHER BEEF SO FRESH CAN BE SO NATURALLY TENDER!
Kroger selects only higher-graded, grain-fed beef for Tenderay... places this fine beef in special rooms where temperature, humidity and air circulation are regulated to speed up natural tendering action... to protect natural juices and flavor. Kroger guarantees its exclusive Tenderay Brand beef to be naturally fresh and tender—a claim which no long-aged or artificially tenderized beef can make.

Area Youths Win College Scholarships

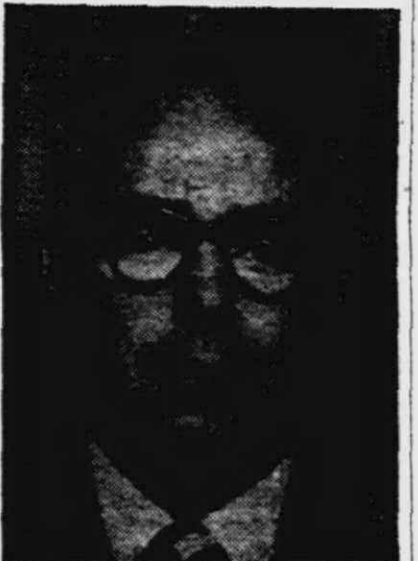

Two area carrier boys for the Detroit News were among 40 receiving $500 scholarships at the 12th annual carrier scholarship awards luncheon in the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel on Wednesday, July 31.

Winners were selected by the Student Aid Foundation of Michigan from a field of 888 applicants on the basis of scholastic aptitude, character, citizenship and performance of their newspaper boy duties.

The funds will be held in trust by the Foundation of Michigan until the recipients enter accredited colleges or universities of their choice.

William Silvis, 1329 Carol, Plymouth, received his second $500 award.

David Clemons, 9236 Idaho, Livonia, was among 25 carrier boys receiving their first scholarship.

Livonia Civil Service Commission has announced the appointment of James L. Miller (above) as the new Personnel Director of the Civil Service Commission. Miller was formerly with the Wayne County Civil Service Commission for just over seven years, as a Personnel Technician. In this capacity, he was responsible for competition, classification, and examination matters for assigned County departments. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan, he spent three years in the U.S. Army, is married and he and his wife are expecting an addition in September.

Plymouth Lions To Do Their Bit For Fall Festival

Plymouth Lions Club committees have been meeting through the heat of summer to forge a solid program in support of the Plymouth Fall Festival and to promote their annual film Travel Series.

A committee, chaired by Bill Fehlig, is planning the kick-off event for the Fall Festival on Thursday, Sept. 5. The Lions are planning on a turn-of-the-century ice cream and melon social in Kellogg Park from 4:30 until 9 p.m.

Other members of the committee are Dr. Ray Barber, Marshall North, Bruce Richards, Don Tate, Bob Erdelyi and Bill Nelson.

Dr. Ralph Snoke is chairman of the Lions Travel and Adventure Series.

The Lions Fall Festival committee will meet Wednesday, July 31, in Bill Fehlig's office.

Dick Bieser Heads Fraternity at U-D

Richard Bieser, 9937 Norborne, Redford Twp., has been elected president of the University of Detroit Epsilon Zeta chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, national professional fraternity.

Bieser is a junior in the U. of D. Evening College of Commerce and Finance majoring in industrial relations. He is employed by the Fisher Body Division of the General Motors Corporation, Livonia.

Hugh Downs To Judge 28th Photo Contest

FIRST PRIZE national winner in last year's 28th Children's Photography Contest was Philip Goffer, 7809 August, Garden City, Mich.

Hugh Downs, well-known radio and television commentator and host, was named as one of the judges for the 29th Children's National Photography Contest, sponsored locally by Wards Wonderland.

show, broadcast live Mondays through Fridays, from 7:00 to 9:00 A.M. EST over the NBC television network. He also acts as host for "Concentration," which is televised from 11:30 A.M. to 12 Noon daily except Saturday and Sunday, on the same network.

Downs is the host of "Today" as "Best Announcer of the year" by the International Broadcasting Awards Committee. He achieved his greatest fame, perhaps, as announcer and personality on the "Tonight" which starred Jack Paar.

Duplicate first prizes of 13-day Grace Line Caribbean cruise, or a 16'x32' Cascade swimming pool or a Renault "R-8" automobile will be awarded to the winning boy and the winning girl in the photograph contest.

Runners-up will receive a total of 273 additional prizes, including Melodigrand pianos, Magic Chef ranges, Pfaff portable sewing machines, Kitchen-Aid portable dish washers, Bell & Howell movie cameras, Flex Racers, AMF Roadmaster bicycles, Toastmaster automatic coffee makers, Toastmaster toasters, General Electric transistor radios and Scotch Kooler, Bel Aire chests.

To enter, the child must be photographed at the local store studio not earlier than Monday, July 29 and not later than Saturday, Sept. 7. A duplicate of the pose selected will be sent to the judges without extra charge. All entries will be judged on the basis of personality and character, as portrayed in the photograph. Beauty alone is not a requisite.

All photographs entered in each participating studio will be judged by a preliminary board of judges who will submit their selections to the celebrity judges, who will designate the final winners.

EMPLOYERS INVITED TO TESTIFY IN LIVONIA Legislators To Hold Minimum Wage Hearing Here Next Week

Local employers and all others in the general area interested in proposed Minimum Wage legislation will be able to testify and to hear the opinions of others at a Legislative hearing in Livonia next Tuesday, Aug. 6.

The session will start at 7:30 p.m. in the civil defense rooms of the new Livonia Police Building, Farmington road just south of Five Mile road.

Presiding will be a joint Senate-House interim committee consisting of Rep. Don Gordon (R), Rep. Marie Hager (R), Rep. James Karoub (D), Sen. Robert Vanderlaan (R), Sen. William Leppien (R), and Sen. Raymond Dzendzel (D). Rep. Paul Chandler (R) of this district also will be present.

Members of the local Chambers of Commerce and all employers with local businesses, are particularly urged to appear to state how they believe Minimum Wage legislation would affect them, if passed in Lansing. A bill proposing a $1.15 per hour minimum died on the floor of the House during the closing days of the session in April, but similar legislation is certain to appear next January.

Rep. Karoub, of Highland Park, is in charge of arrangements for the local hearing and may be contacted for information at TO 8-7000. "We are anxious to hear from anybody who might think he would be affected one way or another by a Michigan minimum wage. The only restriction is that oral statements will be limited to 10 minutes. Everyone present will be heard, if they want to testify."

Packaging Corp. Sales Take Dip For Fiscal Year

Evansville, Ill. — Packaging Corporation of America has reported annual sales of $131,000,000 for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1963, compared to sales of $137,446,920 a year ago. Packaging has a plant in Plymouth, Mich.

the company experienced an upturn in earnings during the final business quarter.

In the fourth business quarter, earnings were $1,150,000 or 30 cents per common share, compared to earnings of $1,532,581, or 39 cents per common share for the preceding three quarters of the fiscal year.

Earnings for the year reflect the adverse effects of the first three quarters. This year's net earnings, applicable to common shares, were $2,681,432, equivalent to 69 cents per common share. Last year, the company earned $5,611,195, or $1.43 per common share.

Along Realty Row

William Fehlig, 382 Adams St., Plymouth, has been in the building and real estate business since 1938, receiving his first real estate license in 1941. That was exactly four years after his graduation from Plymouth High.

Fehlig, a native of Belleville, moved to Plymouth in 1935 and received all of his high school training there. He is a broker-realtor and head of the William H. Fehlig Real Estate Co.

Bill is a charter member and past president of the Plymouth Lions Club and active in all of its programs. He is a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, Michigan Real Estate Association, United Northwestern Realty Association and the Wayne County Board of Realtors.

He is interested in antiques, camping and reading.

Bill and his wife, Virginia, are the parents of two children, David, a junior at Central Michigan University, and Patricia, a junior in Plymouth High School.

Kiwanis Club Gets A Peek Inside Alaska

Plymouth's Kiwanis received a peek into the beauty of Alaska and Northern Canada through the camera of Les Lesperance, from the Industrial Engine Division of the Ford Motor Co., in its meeting last week at Lofy's Arbor-Lil.

Lesperance and two companions made the trip via a small Piper Comanche plane and included a visit to the World's Fair in Seattle.

He told the Kiwanians that flying isn't any more difficult than driving the family automobile and his unusual picture indicated a freedom of movement that isn't possible for a motorist.

His film shows that a plane trip gives one a bird's eye view of many beautiful mountains, streams and forest that would be hidden from view with any other type of transportation.

Guests included Bonnie Gibson, who was recently selected as Miss Plymouth of 1963, Becky Lyons, Tim Wernette, Richard Irvine and Tim Graves.

Seek Juvenile Gang For Window Breaking

Livonia Police are seeking a band of juveniles suspected of shattering nine windows on the east side of Garfield School with BB pellets.

Custodian Norbert Green told officers the incident took place overnight. He estimated the damage at $200.

A's Cop Class F Title

The Jefferson Athletics, co-managed by John Paden and George Whitton, reign as Livonia's Class F major baseball champions.

By beating the Red Sox, two games to one, after the clubs had staged a 2-2 tie, the Athletics qualified to represent Livonia in the "District Class F" tournament against teams from Pontiac, Inkster and Wayne beginning during the week of Aug. 12.

There'll also be a tournament opportunity for Manager Charles Domer and his Red Sox. They'll go into Class F Intercity tournament the same week.

A five-run uprising in the first inning netted the Athletics all their runs in the payoff game with the Red Sox. The final score was 5-3.

Larry Draughn started the big explosion with a walk. Charles Wiggins singled and both came home when Dave Fisher drilled a homer.

Dave Paden then walked, after which Chip Campbell, Steve Deyo and Mike Vickers collected singles to wrap up the Athletics' scoring.

That was all the run production Cliff Brody and Paden needed as the former hurled until two were out in the sixth and Paden came on to strike out four of the final six Red Sox batters. Mike Domer was the losing pitcher.

The Athletics grabbed the series lead by taking the first game, 8-2, with the first inning again telling the story. The Red Sox, first to bat, had jumped into a flying start.

Fred Emory hit the first pitch delivered by Paden for a single. On Paden's next pitch, Domer swung and the ball sailed for a homer. Pitch No. 3 was slapped for a single by Larry Prentis. But Prentis was picked out by base and Paden settled down to retire the side.

Then the Athletics went to work on their own. Draughn, Fisher, Campbell and Vickers singled and Paden walked to net four runs and put the A's in front for keeps. Paden, who fanned 10, walked seven and allowed six hits, occasionally had to work out of jams. He helped himself by picking off three men, and Vickers, who was pressed into service as catcher, tossed out three Red Sox trying to steal.

The Red Sox evened the series with a 10-1 victory as Dave Storm and Domer combined to allow only one hit—a homer by Deyo—and fanned 14. The Sox tallied four times in the third and three in the sixth to put the game out of reach.

Ed Filer and Paul Lucas each slapped out two hits for the victorious Sox.

One Bad Inning Costs Championship

One bad inning wrecked the hopes of Redford Township's Champion Sporting Goods baseball team to keep alive hopes of making it to Tiger Stadium for the Detroit Free Press state finals on Aug. 12.

The same frame also chopped off the dreams Champion players had entertained of representing the state of Michigan in the American Junior baseball meet at Johnston, Pa.

On the front end of a 3-2 score going into the fourth inning against Adrian in the Free Press outstate semifinals at Ann Arbor last Saturday morning, the Champion team saw Adrian cash five runs to gain a lead which proved more than enough.

The final score read 10-6 for Adrian, which then lost in a grueling 4-2, 11-inning battle to Saginaw for the outstate crown. So it will be Saginaw which goes into Tiger Stadium on Aug. 12 against the winner of the Free Press Detroit League.

Manager Al Turner of Champion went with his ace, Tom

Tanner, against Adrian. The lanky Tanner, who reportedly will sign a bonus contract with the New York Yankees late this week, had flipped a real 5-2 win over East Detroit in the district playoffs less than 72 hours earlier.

The strain of trying to come back in so short a period showed on Tanner... especially with the thermometer registering in the 90's all week.

He was touched for two runs in the first inning by Adrian and then was bombed out in the fourth. Rick Clark came on to finish and allow the final three runs.

After Adrian had taken a 2-0 lead in the first inning, Champion boomed back with a pair of runs on singles by Dave Wolcott and Tanner and a double by Rick Harlow.

Champion made it 3-2 in the second, thanks to two Adrian errors.

Then came the fourth when Adrian capitalized on three hits and three walks. The big blow of the inning was a two-run triple by Dave Nelson, Adrian's first sacker.

Livonia came back with two runs in the bottom of the fourth and then threatened a couple of times before Adrian showed over two markers in the seventh to put the game out of reach.

Wolcott and Harlow each collected two hits for Livonia, which made eight in the game. Don Svenson knocked in two runs with his one hit.

Adrian rapped out 12 hits, nine of them off Tanner in the 3 1/2 innings he worked. Tanner fanned six and Clark added seven more strikeout victims.

Tanner spun a seven-hitter in leading Champion to its 5-2 verdict against East Detroit's strong Legion team at Belle Isle last Wednesday.

The two teams fought scoreless in four innings before Champion cut loose with a five-run bombardment. A walk to Mike Caplia started the proceedings for Champion. Svenson singled and Dave Woloch walked to load the bases.

Harlow drew another walk, this one forcing in Caplia. Tanner followed with a mighty triple to clean the socks and Bill Booth came through with a single to wrap up the Champion scoring.

Telischek Winner in Softball Play

Telischek reigns as the 1963 Class B modified softball champion of Livonia after ripping Cue Stick, 11-0, 24-8, in play-off action. Telischek, managed by Ernie Lyons had taken the regular season limited-division crown, while Cue Stick ruled the unlimited section.

Dick Pauline hurled a one-hitter while Max Summerville slammed a four-run homer and Bill Basham and Lyons circled with none aboard in the 11-0 romp. In the second encounter, a 13-run, seventh inning settled the issue. Seventeen players went to bat in the inning, 13 hit safely and another walked.

DRC 9 One Win From Title

A split at South Lyons on Sunday is all that stands between Livonia's Detroit Race Course senior baseball team and the outright Class A Recreation baseball crown.

DRC nailed down at least a share of the flag last weekend by downing Wayne Forge, 2-0, in a 12-inning thriller on Saturday and then picking up another win on Sunday when Ypsilanti failed to present enough players.

The two triumphs brought the DRC record to eight conquests in a row after the team had dropped the first two games of the season.

Ron Hellier buried a brilliant six-hitter and fanned 11 as he went the route against Wayne Forge. He worked out of his first jam in the eleventh inning when a Wayne batter tripled with one out. But the runner was nailed trying to score moments later on an infield tap.

Steve Powers laced a triple, his third hit of the game, to start DRC's winning outburst. After Dick Gray walked, Dick Boufford singled Powers home and Gray to third. Then Joe Antonazzo lifted a sacrifice fly on which Gray strolled home.

List 12 Horse Shows

Twelve horse shows will be presented free in the Coliseum during the 114th annual Michigan State Fair, Friday, Aug. 23 through Sept. 2.

LIVONIA CHAMPION has the center of the stage as Mayor Harvey Moelke presents awards to winners of the Class 'A' 50-yard-dash. The group includes: (from left) Andy Williams (Ecorse) third; Ray Parker, (Livonia) winner; William Council (Highland Park) second; and the Mayor.

CONGRATULATIONS are given Louise Gerrish, 31380 Westfield, Livonia, by Gloria Golsby, 9327 Sylvester, Detroit, after her victory in the Class 'A' softball throw in the sixth annual Physical Fitness competition on Livonia's new Henry Ford Centennial Athletic Field, Gloria was the runnerup.

3 Livonians Win 'Olympic' Crowns

With all the pageantry and pomp of the internationally famous Olympic Games, more than 2,000 youngsters from 45 cities in the metropolitan area marched out on Livonia's new Henry Ford Centennial Field last Thursday for the formal dedication and the sixth annual physical fitness program.

The youngsters, aged from 10 to 15 years, stood at attention for the flag raising and dedication services and then joined in a mass calisthenics before scattering to all parts of the 40-acre field to compete in track and field events.

Ford Motor's R. L. McNulty presented a centennial emblem to Mayor Harvey Moelke and the City on behalf of the company. Members of the Livonia Recreation Commission including Chairman Thomas Genova, Jesse Edwards and Janet Campbell also participated.

Livonia had three champions in the morning long athletic program with Ray Parker winning the Class "A" 50-yard-dash; Louise Gerrish the "A" girls softball throw; and Dana Hillman, the "B" girls running broad jump.

Redford Township came out with two blue ribbon winners when Wayne Sadler won the "B" running broad jump and Virginia Yanity captured the "A" girls running broad jump.

More than 125 officials from the participating communities attended a luncheon at the Roma Hall following the meet as guests of the Ford Motor Co.

Stan Kracht, Detroit's Supt. of Recreation, presented the John Considine trophy for sportsmanship, appearance, spirit and behavior to the City of St. Clair Shores.

Guest speaker was John F. Heflin, manager of promotion and training for the Ford Divisional Central Office.

Western GC Hosts Tourney For Amputees

Area golf enthusiasts will have an opportunity to witness one of the most unusual tournaments of the year at Western Golf and Country Club in Redford Township on Aug. 8-10 when the National Amputee Golf Association will present its 15th annual championship event.

There is no admission charge and the public is welcome and urged to attend.

The activities will actually get underway on Aug. 6 in an exhibition golf clinic. The participants will include Andy Gianvito (army amputee), from Charlotte, Mich.; Ray Bolo, pro at Western; Thomas Cremer (one leg), 1962 National Amputee champion from Phoenix, Ariz.; and Robert Sandler (one arm), 1960 National champion from Des Moines, Ia.

Bolo and Gianvito will team against Cremer and Sandler in a nine-hole exhibition starting at 5 p.m.

The amputee golfers will hold practice rounds on Aug. 7 and then the tournament gets underway on Aug. 8 and continues through Aug. 10.

Dance Every Night

Square dancing will be held nightly in the Old-Timers' Grove during the Michigan State Fair, Friday, Aug. 23, through Monday, Sept. 2.

Colts Fall In Meet After Win

After getting off on the right foot, by beating Lincoln Park in a 10-inning battle, 4-3; the Redford Township Colts suffered a pair of losses—to Hamtramck, 8-6, and to Taylor, 3-0, to bounce from contention in the district Col baseball tournament at Hamtramck.

The host Hamtramck team, paced by the fabulous Art Deras, who not too many years ago pitched Hamtramck to the Little League world series title, went on to haul in the Colt crown for boys 15-16 and qualify for this week's sectional competition.

A walk to Jim Johnson, a sacrifice which sent Johnson from first to third, and John Rock's timely hit paved the way for the Redford run which turned back Lincoln Park in the tournament's most exciting contest.

Johnson had homered for Redford's first run, then a walk to John Page and a single by Johnny Eszes netted the Townshippers their second tally. A free pass to Rock, followed by a pair of errors in the sixth inning enabled the Redfordites to tie the score at 3-3 and force the three extra innings.

Page hurled until the sixth for Redford. Jim Higginson came in briefly, but had to retire when he was struck by a batted ball. Ken Krajewski finished up, fanning four and not allowing a hit in the four innings he worked.

Against Hamtramck in the second game, Redford pushed over two runs in the third inning. Rock was safe on an error, Higginson walked and both moved up on an error. Dave Woloch was safe on a fielder's choice to admit one run and Jim Sproul singled across the other.

In the fifth, with two out, Redford added four runs to get back into the ball game. Ed Madley walked, Sproul and Eszes singled and Johnson doubled for three runs. Johnson scored on a passed ball and error.

In the game with Taylor, the Redford bats fell asleep. The Townshippers were unable to muster a single hit off the offerings of Mike Stevens. Stevens missed a perfect game when Johnson walked in the fifth and Eszes was safe on an error. But Stevens retired the next three batters to end the threat and finished up by rushing through the sixth and seventh innings as well.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

It won't be long now—less than a month—before the area's high school football teams assemble for early fall drills.

In fact, the date is Aug. 26 just in case some of you mothers and fathers of prep gridders are wondering.

All of which prompted us to sound out Jack Hudnut, who directs the athletic program at Livonia's new Franklin High and reflect on what happened during the school's first year of interscholastic sports competition.

"If you just consider the win-loss records of our teams," said Hudnut, "you'd have to say that this has been a disappointing first year. After all, we didn't win very often. And, in many instances, we absorbed pretty one-sided setbacks.

"But, examine the other side of the picture. As we members of the athletic staff gather around today, we sense that our pupils have matured tremendously since that first day in September when they first came to Franklin High.

"It took time for the student body and the teachers to get that 'feeling of belonging' at Franklin. After all, the school was new, so were the pupils among themselves and toward the teachers and it was the same away among the teachers toward their brother instructors and the student body.

"Building school pride took some time. Very often, those who came from Bentley mumbled out: 'That's the way they do it over there (meaning Bentley)'. And, even, now, you still hear such statements made.

"We were kicked around trying to find a spot to call home for practicing football during the first five or six weeks. We went from one place to another to work out and played over at Bentley. Once we got our own practice grounds, you could sense immediately a change in the attitude of the players. Having their own home made a great difference.

"And it was the same in basketball. Once the gym was our's, the story altered 100 per cent."

And, what about the future?

Hudnut took issue with statements that Franklin should prosper in sports because more and better athletes reside in Livonia's South End (Franklin's district) than in the area which feeds pupils to Bentley.

"I used to hear such talk about the South End kids being better athletes while I was at Bentley," explained Hudnut. "But when you stopped to analyze matters you discovered that we had more pupils coming from the south side to Bentley because there were more junior highs shooting in pupils from that particular side of town.

"The way I see it, there are good kids, athletically speaking, all around the city of Livonia. You'll find that as the years pass that the cycle will shift. Bentley will have its fine teams, then Franklin will. Some years both teams may be 'up' together. But, it's ridiculous for anybody to think that either team will constantly dominate the Livonia sports picture.

"Going into our new league (with Thurston, N. Farmington, Birmingham Groves and Oak Park) should make a great deal of difference. When you play an independent schedule, you lose a game or two and there doesn't seem to be much for which you can shoot any more.

The subject of rivalries came up... and, surprisingly, so far our kids seem to have built up something special with North Farmington. You might have thought it might be with Bentley, whom we'll meet in every sport, but it doesn't look like that's the way it will be.

Personal wise, said Hudnut, Franklin should be in great shape next year.

"We'll have everybody back. We don't lose anybody because we don't have anybody graduating. Of course, it's possible we might lose a boy who moves away, or a kid becomes ineligible."

In general, one left Hudnut with the impression that as time goes on Franklin high will be heard from around the sports world.

And, what could be finer than another outstanding contender around this neck of the woods!

Legion '9' Ousted In Two Straight

Two games... two defeats... and home!

That was the story for Livonia's Beal Post team in the zone American Legion baseball tournament at Farmington last Thursday.

The Livonians, comprised mostly of players from Franklin high and competing for the first time in a post-season Legion meet, succumbed to Walled Lake, 10-4, in the morning round and then hit the sidelines in the afternoon when bested by East Detroit, 5-3.

The long ball proved too much for Beal to overcome against Walled Lake. While each side netted eight hits, all the Beal safeties were of the one-base or single variety. In contrast, Walled Lake clubbed three homers and a triple, plus four singles.

Beal took an early 3-0 lead. Run No. 1 came in the second inning when Sam Antonazzo was safe at first on a bunt. He stole second and went on to third on an infield out. Dave Falzetti was hit by a pitch. Then Antonazzo and Falzetti engineered a double steal for the run.

In the fourth, singles by Eric Miller, Falzetti, Tom Cannon and Dennis Wagner made it a 3-0 game. But, thereafter, the big Walled Lake bats went to work.

Mrs. Peggy Silverman and Edna Karkinen each shot 49's to pace the Red Division in last Friday's Livonia Women's golf tournament at Idyl Wyld. Mrs. Jesse Esterline was next with 51, followed by June Temple with 53 and Marge Kantzler with 54.

In the Blue Division, Phyllis Robinson led with 59, with Pauline Pryor carding a 60 and Mae Okerstrom a 61.

Junior honors were shared by Gary Rapp and Bob Huddleston, each with 43. Mike Hudak had a 45.

Advice on Investing? Stocks Featured in Library Books

If you're thinking about buying stocks or making investments of any kind, books at the Carl Sandburg Library give essential information to help you in forming a sound investment program, according to Librarian Skip Rosenthal. These books, Rosenthal said, are written for the layman and give a clear picture of the nature of various types of stocks and securities and the basic knowledge necessary for intelligent investing.

Some of the more recent manuals which give generalized advice about investing include "The Kiplinger Book on Investing for the Years Ahead," by John Hazard and Lew Coit; "Start With $100: Commonsense Investing," by J. J. Brown; "Invest Smartly," by Morton Yerman; "Investment Principles and Practice," by Ralph Badger; and "Save It, Invest It, and Retire It," by Donald Rogers.

Books on stock market investing, which are constantly requested by library patrons, are also plentiful. Some of the recent titles are Lin Tso's "The Seizable Investor's Guide to Growth Stocks"; Louis Engel's revised "How to Buy Stocks"; Ira Colleigh's "How to Get Rich Buying Stocks"; "A Primer for Profit in the Stock Market," by Harry Kahn; "How I Made $2,000,000 in the Stock Market," by Nicolas Darvas; and "How I Helped More Than 10,000 Investors to Profit in Stocks," by Edward Schaefer.

The rapid growth of investment clubs in recent years has made Raymond Trigger's "How to Run a Successful Investment Club" especially useful.

Those interested in following business and market trends will also find at the library the latest issues of "The Wall Street Journal," "Nation's Business," "Barron's" and "Business Week." "Moody's Stock Survey" is available at the South Branch only.

The Livonia Libraries are open as follows: Monday through Thursday, 12-8; Friday, 9-5. South Branch, 33720 Plymouth Road, GA 7-1990; Carl Sandburg Branch, 30100 W. Seven Mile Road, 476-0700.

EFFIE KUSEIL, Plymouth Theater Guild President, has been asked by the American Theater Wing of New York City to submit the scripts used for the Shakespeare in the Park series sponsored this summer by the Plymouth Theater Guild. Inquiries from all over Michigan have been made as to the extent and nature of this unique movement on the part of the Guild. The final presentation from "King Henry the Fourth" will be given tonight in Kellogg Park during the band intermission at approximately 8:30 p.m. Guild members are busy at work preparing a dramatic epic for the Fall Festival on Sept. 8.

Oldest State Fair

Michigan has the oldest State Fair in the nation. This year's the 114th, will run from Friday, Aug. 23, through Monday, Sept. 2.

Seek Artists to Design Seals

A "call for artists" has been issued throughout Wayne County to participate in nationwide competition for the design of the Christmas Seal utilized by the National Tuberculosis Association in its annual campaign to raise funds to fight TB and other respiratory diseases.

The design is selected each year by a committee composed of tuberculosis workers representative of the entire country. The committee meets during October and because of the time involved in production, selects a design which will be used two years later.

Many eminent artists have contributed Christmas Seal designs. The list includes Howard Pyle, Ben Nash, Steven Dohanos and Andre Dugo.

An award of $1,000 is offered to the artist whose design is selected.

A pamphlet with details concerning the competition may be obtained by writing the TB & Health Society, 153 E. Elizabeth, Detroit, Mich. 48201.

'Curtain Going Up'

By Wally Roberts

"Anything Goes" at the Vanguard opened a busy week for your peripatetic drama critic. And anything did go in this spicily, but nice musical. The songs by Cole Porter had a brilliant lilt to them. Bill Feaster, Rennie Lee, John Gregory, and Warren Colster performed superbly. In fact, John Gregory was as close to perfection in his role of Billy Crocker as you'll ever see him. Warren Colston as Public Enemy Number 13 added to the original touches given the role years ago by Victor Moore. Before the evening ended you were convinced that Moonface Money was a living, lovable character. And Mr. Colston can take extra credit for making the evening such an entertaining one. Edward Shelton's staging of the musical added zip and dash. Never was there a dull moment. The "Let's Misbehave" number with Helen Alexander and Tom Pazik stopped the show cold in the second Act. The entire show is simply gorgeous and plays havoc with your funny bone. Here's a musical comedy that stresses funny lines. Call WO 3-3863 for tickets to an evening of fun in a wonderfully air-conditioned theater. "Anything Goes" is just the right type of hilarity for some of these sodden, high-humidity evenings. I'm hoping that Bill Gregory keeps this show running beyond the intended August 10 closing date. It deserves to be seen by all of Detroit.

The Windsor International Festival of fine plays came next on the schedule. Mr. Wayne Martens and Jonathan Knopf have assembled an excellent group of New York actors to perform some mighty difficult plays. "O Mistress Mine," a Terrence Rattigan play that featured the Lunts some years ago, occupied the bill last week. Jerry Ritzer stole the show with ease away from Yvonne Doolittle and Philip Baker Hall, although I will admit that Phil Hall didn't give in without a struggle. His deep, resonant voice did much to convince the audience that Sir John Fletcher was an important figure in British government. Biggest flaw of the evening was avoiding the obvious "updating" of the play. "O Mistress Mine" came out shortly after World War II and concerns itself with the manufacture of tanks and a governmental official that dallys a bit with another woman in preference to his own mate who in turn has a few men on the string. The present scandal over Christine Keeler and Mr. Profumo zooms this play into sharp focus. Sir John Fletcher might have been working on a space ship and Michael Brown's girl friend could have been called Christine. Additions of this nature wouldn't harm the basic comedy line so aptly scribed by Mr. Rattigan. Mark Schoenberg's direction for a jolly play of this nature was far too static. The stage should have been filled with bustling movement for a bright, witty comedy such as "O Mistress Mine." Too often during the evening the action dragged. Here is where an inventive director takes over and makes the play continue its headlong plunge to the next brilliant situation.

The Clearing Auditorium in Windsor is the real star of the evening. The acoustics are perfect. The view from the lobby is a perpetual joy. The sweep and magnificence of the Detroit River with the skyline is an intermission feature that is the delight of delights. Go to "Gideon" or "Shot In The Dark" in the coming weeks. Take time to enjoy a fine dinner at the Top Hat Club in Windsor before or after the show as we did. I'm sure Mr. Martens will present livelier productions in the weeks to come.

The Fifth Annual Detroit Summer Repertory swung into view on Thursday evening. As usual the Repertory group gave a highly competent professional performance of a Shaw play, "Captain Brassbound's Conversion." This wonderfully funny Shaw play had the engaging services of Seamus O'Brien and Mary Lee Brownlee to keep the audience in high spirits. Pat McElroy as Captain Kearney did an outstanding bit of character work in Act III. He stopped the show for old Wally with this uproariously perfect portrayal of a navy captain beset by a charming woman who has taken over. Robert Hachlinski's Sir Howard Hallam was a masterful job of underplaying for top comic effects. Bob's experience with the U of D group came through on many occasions and helped make "Brassbound's Conversion" a most successful riot of laughs. James Rodgers continues in the tradition out of U of D as a stager par excellence of any work by G. B. Shaw. Year after year, five to be exact, the U of D under the able tutelage of Evelyn MacQueen has been able to come up with some glittering, professional productions of works by G. B. Shaw. Once again I doff my cap to the U of D players for a most enjoyable, rewarding evening in their summer theater.

Late in the week after seeing many fine productions I ended my travels at the Quirk Theater and "She Stoops to Conquer". This 1773 comedy is not the easiest theatrical venture to stage. "Stoops to Conquer" calls for imagination and great inventiveness since the play is quite verbose. First task for a director would be to cut down the number of speeches drastically. Since this play appeared (1773) soon after the theater had been closed for a number of years by Cromwell, the length of a play tended to be a bit long. Most of the patrons were so starved for plays they didn't mind a lengthy evening in the theater. Many of the references that were topical surely could have been eliminated from this version of "She Stoops". Most high schools when they do this play eliminate the garden scene and the tavern scene to keep the "two hour traffic" upon the stage to its minimum time schedule. George Bird, designer and stager of this production, gave us the full length un-cut version of "She Stoops".

Such a spectacular version would have been acceptable had he moved the actors with the ease and fluidity that a Tyrone Guthrie might have. But no, the actors seldom criss-crossed themselves in frantic action. Chairs, davenport and other objects for the posterior were well-depressed by the end of the performance. Too much sitting and lack of movement made old Wally retitile this EMU production, "She Stood Stock-Still To Conquer".

In spite of these technical difficulties Marshall Borden managed to show a continual spontaneous brand of humor as he approached his role of Mr. Hardcastle with rich inventiveness. Patrick Connelly, Karen Forester, and Marti Virtue turned in more than adequate performances as they struggled to make the production move in a more lively fashion. Tony Lumpkin as played by Maraman Glossenger lacked a certain whirlwind quality that would have saved the show. Mr. Glossenger needed an impishness, a twinkle in his eye, and a laugh that sounded at least sincere. His approach to the part was all sound and fury. To be funny you must win the audience over by naturalness and a sense of credibility. Biggest mistake of the evening was that the actors seldom took the audience into their confidence and let them share the delightful zany happenings at the Hardcastle home.

Fisher Theater—"HERE'S LOVE." World premiere for the new Meredith Willson musical. Nightly until August 27.
Vanguard Theater—"ANYTHING GOES." A "must see" item on your summer viewing schedule. Closes on August 10, so hurry up and get those tickets.
Northland Playhouse—"CARNIVAL." Last week for the prize-winning musical. Dana Andrews next week in "Calculated Risk," hot off the Broadway circuit.
Clearly Auditorium—"GIDEON." Smash Broadway attraction in Windsor. Worth the trip across the international border to see this human comedy filled with poetry and excitement.
Lydia Mendelssohn Theater—"MOXIGUE." Mystery play closes out the U of M summer season of plays. "Madame Butterfly," School of Music's summer opera, arrives Aug. 7.
Campus Theater—"LANDRU." French comedy fresh from a long run in New York City. Plays until August 6.
U of M Summer Theater—"CAPT. BRASSBOUND'S CONVERSION" and "MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING." One more week left for you to see Shaw and Shakespeare at their best. Call 342-1000, ext. 207 for reserved tickets and information.

3-Year-Old Injured At Playground

A fall from a "monkey climb" while playing in Hough playground sent Billy McDowell, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George McDowell, 407 N. 7th St., Ann Arbor, to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, in Ann Arbor with a serious head injury.

The youngster was reported in fair condition by hospital officials Monday.

The accident occurred Friday afternoon while the boy, who was visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McDowell, 1340 Elm, was playing under the supervision of a babysitter. Billy was on top of the 10-foot high "monkey climb" when he lost his grip and fell head first to the ground where he landed on a sharp piece of concrete, suffering a serious head injury.

He was rushed to the hospital where doctors ordered emergency treatment and termed his condition temporarily critical. Billy showed considerable improvement over the weekend.

His parents were vacationing in Northern Michigan and were called back to his bedside.

ACTIVE in the organized reserves are officers of the newly organized Northwest Wayne County Detachment of the Marine Corps which headquarters in Livonia. The group completed 15 days of active duty last Sunday at Jacksonville, N.C. and Sgt. Loren Leveille (left), 876 Irvin, Plymouth is shown going over plans for the trip back to Livonia with Sgt. Loren Good, 9254 Louisiana, Livonia. Leveille served as commandant of the detachment and Good was detachment senior vice commandant.

Wernette Urges City Pay Tribute To Ford

Mayor Richard Wernette Monday in an official proclamation urged all Plymouth residents to pause and pay tribute to the late Henry Ford on the 100th anniversary of his birth and for his outstanding contributions to the American economy and industry.

The Mayor proclaimed the week of July 28 through August 3 as "Henry Ford Centennial Week."

"Whereas, Henry Ford, a great automotive pioneer whose birth centennial will be observed July 30, 1963, raised our industrial and social levels far beyond the imaginations of his contemporaries.

"Whereas, he introduced to the world a new way of life his revolutionary ideas of a fair wage and of mass production.

"Whereas, the citizens of Plymouth are indebted to him not only for his contributions to this area, but to every civilized culture.

"Therefore, I, Richard Wernette, Mayor of the City of Plymouth do hereby proclaim the week of July 28 to August 3 as Henry Ford Centennial Week in the City of Plymouth, and urge all citizens to pause and pay tribute to this outstanding American during the centennial observance of his birth."

Area Hosts Dog Trials

A six-month old female Doberman puppy, owned by Mark Bauer of Sylvania, Ohio, won the best puppy and best of breed award at the Doberman Sportsmen's Club Fun Match held last Sunday in Livonia.

Another winner in the match, taking the best of opposite sex title, was Bernaly's Hi Jinks, owned by Harold and Sandra Koven of Southfield.

Highest scoring Doberman Pinscher in obedience trials was Ochenbouie Mindemoya with a score of 197 1/2 out of 200. She is owned by Carol Silverman and June Monroe. Highest scoring dog in obedience trials was a Miniature Poodle, Jade Hope's Grey Haze, with a score of 199 1/2 out of 200, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kiebler of Clinton, Second in graduate novice class (obedience) with a score of 195 1/2 out of 200 was Pi, a Basset Hound owned by Donna Weiskopt of Livonia. Second in open B class (obedience) with a score of 194 out of 200 was a Collie, Sandy, owned by Norman Roffey of Livonia.

Also at the show was Mrs. Frank Holme of Livonia with her Bouviedes Flondras.

2 Plymouth Police Officers Undergo Serious Operations

Two members of the Plymouth Police Department underwent operations Monday in area hospitals and will be off duty for extended periods of time.

Patrolman Louis Westfall, a veteran of 20 years, underwent an operation in St. Mary Hospital in Livonia where he will be confined for several days. He has been off work and ailing for almost three months.

Patrolman Robert Coburn, with five years service, went under the knife for a spinal ailment at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. Coburn has been on the sick list for more than three weeks.

Evans' Earnings Rise

Evans Products Company reported first half earnings of $1.08 per share or $1,577,000, continuing the favorable contrast over results during the 1962 calendar year.

IVAN GAFFORD, swimming instructor, gives some pointers to Boys' Club day campers at the Kent Lake beach, during the club's weekly swimming instruction program.

compared to $55,104,000 for the same period a year ago. The net earnings were $1,577,000 against $793,000 for the first six months of 1962 when the earnings were 54 cents per share for the 1,460,219 common shares.

The company is a major producer and distributor of plywood, hardboard, and related building materials and the leading producer of damage prevention equipment for railroad freight cars and trucks.

The company states that demand for its principal products "continues strong, giving us a solid base for our third and fourth quarter sales and earnings."

Bit of Fun For All at Band Concert

There'll be a bit of entertainment for everyone on Friday's program for the weekly band concert in Plymouth's Kellogg Park by the Plymouth Community band.

The Plymouth trio, a Plymouth trio, will make a return appearance and Shakespearean actors will have the stage during the intermission for their third and final performance of the summer series.

Director Bob Wall, of the Plymouth Theater Guild, has selected a dramatic sketch from the Bard's historical "King Henry Fourth." Art Gulich, Paul Rawley, Don Conover and Linda Wall will have the featured roles.

The rolesmen will appear in a combined concert with the Belleville band there Thursday evening and then join in a dual effort in Kellogg Park in the season finale on Friday, Aug. 9.

Plymouth Man Gets Degree From GMI

Fred W. Heidt, 4101 Curtis, Plymouth, was among the 314 graduates receiving degrees in the annual commencement exercises of General Motors Institute in the IMA auditorium in Flint.

Heidt, who was sponsored by the Chevrolet Spring and Bumper plant in Livonia, was granted a degree in Mechanical Engineering.

The Red Cross bloodmobile which will be stationed at the St. Hilary parish, 10058 Appleton, Wednesday, August 7, from 2 to 4 and 5 to 8 p.m., will be open to all interested donors whether they have an appointment or not. Nick Kirkish,

PCF Group To Discuss 1963 Drive

The next meeting of the Plymouth Community Fund campaign committee will be held at 8:30 a.m., Tuesday, Aug. 6, in the Hillside Inn.

The Plymouth Community Fund is an independent campaign administered by Plymouth volunteers for the benefit of Plymouth.

This meeting is the first since the organizational meeting in June, and plans are expected to get moving for the fall campaign.

Among those serving the drive this year are the following: General Chairman, Robert Stremich; Report Luncheon Chairman, Richard Waga; Report Luncheon Vice-Chairman, Earl Merriman; Advertising Chairman, Phil Scott; Publicity and Special Events Chairman, Bill Nelson; Industrial Chairman, Elmer Hedlund; Business Chairman, Hugh Jarvis; Professional Chairman, Sidney Strong; Residential Chairman, Elizabeth Mather; Residential Vice-Chairman, Elizabeth Holmes and Advanced Gifts Chairman, Sterling Eaton.

Elks Seize 'D' Laurels; Win Trip

Fine one-hit pitching by Jim Edwards enabled the Plymouth Elks to blank the Wayne Monarchs, 3-0, and capture the Livonia Class D Recreation baseball title with a perfect 8-0 record. Edwards also had single and double and knocked in one run.

By winning the title, the Elks qualified to represent the league in the Recreation Association of Michigan tournament at Pontiac starting the week of Aug. 12.

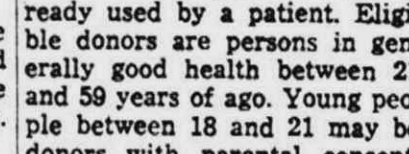

On Tuesday Dave Troutman and John Daniels combined to pitch a no-hit victory over the Optimists, 18-0.

Livonia DRC needed only to win one of two games this week to take the Connie Mack Division crown, which would qualify the team for the state Mack tournament.

Third in Attendance

The Michigan State Fair ranks third in the nation in attendance. Only Texas (which runs six more days) and Minnesota exceed it. Last year 1,002,681 attended the Michigan State Fair. This year even more are expected between Friday, Aug. 23, and Monday, Sept. 2.

HOW TO PICK A REALTY OFFICE There are dozens of brokers in the realty business. But how can you tell which one is the right one to help you? One of the few ways in which they differ is in their attitude toward prospects. Most realtors, like most businessmen, will gladly give you their full attention and assistance if they think you are "almost sold." A few will give you the same 100% service even if you are "just looking." Modesty prevents us from naming a prime example of the latter group.

One of the few ways in which they differ is in their attitude toward prospects. Most realtors, like most businessmen, will gladly give you their full attention and assistance if they think you are "almost sold." A few will give you the same 100% service even if you are "just looking." Modesty prevents us from naming a prime example of the latter group.

Reader Speaks Up
 Editor:
 First of all I will say that I have enjoyed Facts and Opinions in The Livonian Observer for quite some time. Knowing that your comments have helped. I too am coming to you for help. Please help the poor people that have to take screaming and yelling day in and day out from backyard swimming pools. People that own swimming pools have no respect for neighbors. All they want is fun, fun, fun. I, too, want fun, but too much is too much. It can be so bad that no one has the right to have a headache and feel sick. "I will rest." Backyard swimming pools are a nuisance. There is no peace. These people start swimming in the early morning and stay in the water until late at night, with spotlights to boot.
 I feel that people who do not own swimming pools have a right to live in this world and feel free to enjoy a little outside air. Because it is so noisy most of the time it becomes necessary to close windows and doors. Please print this in The Observer and perhaps it will make somebody realize that a little less noise is appreciated. Thank you.
 Yours truly,
 E. P. B.

'The Reader Speaks Up'

Editor:
For a front seat in this space, discover your libraries. Here you can branch off to your own special holiday. Maybe it's mystery, magic, or authentic tales. Whatever your taste, you will discover it at the Livonia Public Library. Let all their new books open up a wonderful world right at your own doorstep.

So many of us here in Livonia have more wealth and treasure in our libraries than we realize. One of our treasures are the girls that work in our libraries. Yet I wonder how many of us stop long enough to appreciate these young ladies. Myself, I'd like to say thanks to a real nice person at the Carl Sandburg branch. Her name is Gail Eisner, and her warmth and kindness makes you feel real good inside. No matter what my book list consists of, she is there with a smile and will try to find them for me. When she can't find them she tries real hard to locate them from another library.

I found a lot of treasures to read at the library, but my biggest find was Gail's wonderful smile and help. Thank you, Gail Eisner.

Sincerely,
ROSE TARANTINO

Editor:
"Let it show as a matter of record that all people living in suburbia are not heartened by recent telephone developments, as you stated in your 'Facts and Opinions' column of July 17, 1963. Either you are unaware of all opinion concerning this matter, or you have done an excellent job of suppressing in your column that opinion which does not agree with the picture you painted.

"In all fairness I hasten to point out that I agree with you that Livonia should be totally in the GARfield exchange instead of having the western portion assigned to the GLENview zone. It is only common sense that wherever possible municipal and telephone zonal boundaries should be coincident. Beyond this, however, our opinions are widely divergent on the matter of 'Joy in suburbia' with the advent of 'super-extended' service to Michigan Bell customers in Plymouth, Livonia, Northville and Farmington.

"My objection to the principle of 'super-extended' service is my belief that when a group desires a service over and above that required or desired by the majority, that group should be prepared to pay proportionately for the additional service rather than have the cost spread over the total.

"You may argue that this is a hard hearted attitude, but let's inspect this supposition for a moment. Your column singles out two groups who may well profit by 'super-extended' telephone service—the local businessman and the resident who has decided to move to suburbia while keeping tap roots in the central city.

"If the businessman is required by the nature of his business to place a large number of calls to distant points, is not this a part of his cost of doing business (the same as heat, electricity, labor, etc.) to be included in his charge for the item or service offered for sale? It certainly does not make sense that the cost of this raw material should be borne by all telephone customers rather than by only the ultimate recipient of the item or service.

"Let us look more closely at the resident who has decided to move to suburbia from the central city. When this decision was made he had to balance additional transportation and telephone costs to maintain contact with the central city against benefits to be derived from lower taxes, clean air and the wide open spaces offered by the suburbs. Obviously the scale tipped in favor of the suburbs or he would not have moved.

"Must we now assume that he made a poor decision and his telephone bill must be paid by the people who have always lived in suburbia to make the balance swing in the proper direction? What, also, of the residents who have come from Texas, New York and California? Should we not also share the expense of maintaining their tap roots back 'home'? I think not!

"Earlier I stated two groups will profit by 'extended-coverage' service. And for every profit there must be an equal loss. Obviously, Michigan Bell Telephone Company is not in business to provide a loss for its stockholders. Therefore, the cost of this service including the million dollars required to put it into effect will be borne by the majority of telephone users who elect not to avail themselves of the optional, new service because they cannot profit by doing so.

"In my opinion, whenever someone receives something for nothing (in this case, the same thing for less), a balance can only be achieved by someone else who receives nothing for something. In reality this plan is simply an extension of the welfare state in disguise, aimed at benefitting a different minority segment of the population.

Editor:
We wish to express our sincere appreciation for your personal and editorial support in our attempt to put South Redford School District in the Northwest Community College District. The Committee and those people who worked so hard for the proposition are bitterly disappointed with the outcome of the election.

Our concern is not the failure of a personal undertaking but for the effect this will have on the future education of our people. We appreciate the efforts and support of the hundreds of citizens who believed in the idea and could see its far-reaching effects. We give our grateful thanks to these people and sincerely hope their aspirations for their children will be fulfilled in some manner.

We are particularly disturbed at the manner in which some people expressed their opposition to the question. Realizing full well that many of our citizens honestly and justifiably are against any tax increase, we do not support the belief that free license is given one opposed to a proposition to distribute distortions and misrepresentations of established facts. It is indeed unfortunate that so many people saw fit to believe this propaganda and become convinced that the proposal was bad.

The future is rather dark and uncertain, but members of our Committee will continue to work, in their respective ways, for the best in education for the citizens of South Redford School District.

Tigers Offer 20 Films For Groups

Latest addition to the Tigers' free film library is an instructional movie entitled "Strike Three" which will appeal to fans and players of all ages and experience.

Produced by Lew Fonseca, director of the major leagues' film bureau, the new 20-minute reel in sound and color features the leading pitchers of the American and National Leagues with first-hand instructions on proper pitching techniques.

The film and others in the Tigers' library may be borrowed without charge for free showings. Information may be obtained from: Public Relations Department, Tiger Stadium, Detroit 16, Michigan.

The Tigers' lending library of films now includes 20 titles. Currently the most popular is "A Tiger Wins His Stripes," depicting the scouting, signing and development of a prospect into a star.

Others include 'Big Leagues Baseball for Little Leaguers,' featuring Tiger players in instructors' roles; 'Batter Up,' with major league hitting stars as instructors; the 1962 World Series; and a variety of instructional and entertaining movies.
