Sidewalk Sale Goes On In Rain

It rained a bit, then settled down to a light drizzle but it didn't dampen the spirits of bargain seekers at Plymouth's annual Sidewalk Sale. The two-day event was one of the most successful for the business community in some time. Winners of prizes offered by the Retail Merchants Division were: $50 savings bond to Mrs. Nile Gladstone, 9315 Brookline, Plymouth; $25 bond, Esther Asta, 9723 Houghton, Livonia; and third prize to Paul Goralski, 26601 W. Warren, Dearborn Township.

UMBRELLAS and plastic head coverings appeared like magic when rain fell during the morning hours of Friday's opening day of the annual Plymouth Sidewalk Sale. But the shower didn't stop bargain seekers as this picture shows, at the Davis-Lent store.

SALESGIRLS displaying colorful garters and loud slips kept customers humming on the street in front of Cassidy's—and there were just as many members of the male side looking on as there were of the feminine group making purchases.

SHADES OF THE '90s were displayed in front of Willoughby's by these salesmen attired in bathing suits of that era and straw hats. They were busy covering the merchandise with plastic covers here just as the rains started.

City Commissioners Delay Decision On Construction Of New Reservoir

Plymouth's City Commission isn't ready for a decision on construction of the proposed reservoir at Beck and Six Mile Roads. At least that was the indication Monday night when the matter was tabled pending a committee-of-the-whole session in two weeks, or sometime following the regular meeting on Aug. 19.

The tabling action was by 4-3 vote after Commissioner Arch Vallier placed the matter before the Council in a brief statement during which he expressed a feeling the body was ducking an obligation to industry and to citizens of the community.

"The water situation in Plymouth is serious," he said. "We all know the tower on Church Street is obsolete and in danger of collapsing at any time. If that happens, we will have a horrible problem with pressure in the entire north end.

"More than that we have had two recommendations, from highly regarded engineering firms, urging construction of the reservoir. I feel we should follow these recommendations and therefore I move that the Commission approve and proceed with construction of the reservoir at once as recommended by our consulting engineers, Johnson and Anderson Inc."

Commissioner James Houk indicated he was in accord with the recommendation but felt that none of the group was quite sure what it actually entailed.

Vallier's motion failed for lack of a second and Commissioner James Jabara made a motion to table the matter for discussion at a committee of the whole session in two weeks. Jabara, George Lawton, Robert Smith and Robert Beyer voted in favor and Mayor Richard Wernette and Commissioners Houk and Vallier cast "No" ballots.

A great deal of the indecision is due to the fact that several members of the Board are thinking in terms of Detroit water and want all information about the value of a reservoir and its importance if the City should move into a contract with the Detroit Water Board.

Phil Hampton, representative of J&A, made a report to the Commission on the proposed water improvement program with particular regard to the purchase of Detroit water. The Council had requested such a report several weeks ago.

Hampton reported that the proposed Beck Road tank site is ideal for the present water supply, but that the existing 16" line is too small for ultimate use in 1980 for peak hour and would require an "in line" booster pump to maintain desirable pressure.

J&A made two alternate solutions:

1—Utilize the Beck Road tank site but connect to the Detroit system at Sheldon Road and Goldsmith Ave., thus providing additional pressure. This would allow reservoir filling at pressures between 60 and 70 pounds. A disadvantage of this method is that the tank acts as reserve only, and while it will reduce pressure surges in town, they will not be eliminated.

2—Erect an elevated storage tank at Five Mile and Sheldon Roads, approximately 90 feet to overflow, through which all water entering the City of Plymouth must flow. This tank could be smaller than the one in method (1) since there will be fewer limitations on rate of filling and withdrawal, and is not governed as much by existing well capacities.

The report goes on to indicate that when final plans are ordered, full consideration of economics, site etc. for either of the methods should be reviewed with the City of Detroit so that Plymouth can be sure of a rate reduction from $1.46 for peak hour to $1.21 for peak day.

Prior to the discussion, City Manager Albert Glassford read letters from William Scott, of DSI, and Edward Sawusch, of Anchor Coupling, in which each recommended the city go forward with plans for the reservoir as a means of answering the water needs now and in the future.

In other actions, the Commission:

Approved the appointment of Joseph Near, former city clerk, to the Municipal Building Authority.

Named Jabara and City Attorney Edward Drauzelis as official representatives at the annual Michigan Municipal League annual meeting on Mackinac Island, Sept. 5 to 7.

Approved participation in the Chamber of Commerce water survey to be conducted by the University of Michigan in which the City's share of cost is $166. A provision was added, if the report includes the plans of the Detroit Water Board for the area, Plymouth Township and the C of C are sharing the cost of the survey.

Approved closing of the City Hall offices on Monday evenings except on occasions when tax bills are due and for election registrations.

Approved hiring of L. I. Stramm, of Wayne, as a consultant to aid Glassford in handling the details of the Urban Renewal program.

Referred a request from the Michigan Liquor Control Commission for a resolution approving or disapproving the application of the Plymouth Council K of C for a club liquor permit, to the Public Service Department for further study. The Commission also indicated it will listen to interested citizens on the subject at the Aug. 19 meeting.

Passed a resolution closing off part of Dodge Street for the construction of new City Hall.

Approved the following appointments by Mayor Wernette: Clifford Smith, Ernest Henry, Ken Fisher, Mary Terry, Roland Lutz, and Glassford to the Police Youth Club Board; Ernest Henry to the Planning Commission and Harry Mumby to the Cemetery Board.

Teachers To Meet Sept. 3

Beware Kids! School Nears

There's a warning in the news this week for all youngsters in the Plymouth Community—it's later than you think and the summer vacation is rapidly drawing to a close.

So take a tip, enjoy every minute from now on, the word is out, plans already have been made for the first meeting of teachers, principals and school administrative staff.

Supt. Russell Isbister Monday announced plans for the annual pre-school conference in the gymnasium at the Junior High East on Tuesday, Sept. 3 — classes officially get underway two days later.

The conference is held prior to the start of classes to give principals a chance to meet their new teachers, the new teachers to get acquainted with others in the school system and the administration an opportunity to discuss plans for the school year.

Dr. Roger Leatherman, of Eastern Michigan University, will be the principal speaker and will discuss "Teaching in the Space Age."

The conference will open at 9 a.m. with a coffee klatch and get acquainted period. The program officially starts at 9:30 a.m. with greetings from Isbister, Robert Utter, vice president of the school board; and John Herb, president of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce.

Principals of all schools will formally present the new members of their teaching staffs.

The principals are: Carvel Bentley, senior high school; William Harding, Junior high; Donald Alexander, Gallimore; Gerald Elston, Farrand; Ruth Eriksson, Smith; Mildred Field, Starkweather; Earl Gibson, Bird; and Donald Rank, Allen.

Germaine Ludwig, music teacher, will lead the assembly in group singing and John Howe, president of the Plymouth Education Association, will give a preview of the PEA activities.

The Board of Education will host a luncheon and the afternoon will be devoted to staff meetings.

Wednesday, Sept. 4 will be devoted to conferences and discussion of work schedules by principals at the various schools with their staffs. A reception will be held at 3:30 p.m. in the Mayflower Hotel for the new teachers.

And then—vacation is over for classes start on Thursday, Sept. 5 with a full day session.

As mentioned before, it's later than you think.

Job Program In Plymouth Hits Target

Although originally set up to aid young adults in the Plymouth community between the ages of 16 and 25, the Young Adult Employment Service sponsored by the Y.M.C.A. has widened its scope to include registrants between 15 and 59 and reports unusual success during the first month of operation.

Thanks to the free newspaper ads in the Observer Newspapers, the Bureau has been able to place almost half of the 200 registrants in the first four weeks, reports Director Mike Hoben.

"We have more than 200 names on file and more coming in every day for interviews," said Hoben. "We are pleased to report that we have placed 95 of our enrollees at 83 different plants, firms and individual homes."

What is even more pleasing is the fact that more than 50 per cent of the jobs are of a permanent nature and have gone a long way in solving difficult situations for the registrant.

Hoben is a bit disturbed at the slow response to the vocational survey in which area plants and businesses were asked to participate in a job training program. Under this plan, the job seeker would be trained on the job for a period of time and then the employer and Hoben would make a final finding as to his or her suitability for the work.

Job registrations have been received from the Plymouth community as well as from many former Plymouth residents in other sections including: Northville, Wayne, Inkster, Warren, Kalamazoo, Ypsilanti Ann Arbor, Detroit and one from as far away as Michigan City, Ind.

Hoben indicated the greatest opportunities have been in the field of food services, domestic help and clerical work but that several jobs are still hanging fire such as bus drivers, camp counselors, manager of a restaurant and others of a similar nature.

The heaviest registration is in the 20- to 25-year group — this was the one the Y.M.C.A. committee was hoping to reach since there was an indication of a critical problem in that segment in the community.

"We are open every day of the week at our offices in the basement of the Credit Union building," he pointed out. "We have made progress in the past month but we're still only scratching the surface."

"We urge all in the 16- to 25-year group to come in and register and take advantage of the opportunity to better understand one's self and his or her possibilities and limitations through tests and vocational counseling."

List Donors For Fourth Fireworks

Those from the community who were amazed at the tremendous fireworks display on July 4 may offer thanks to the members of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce who contributed $662 to the cost of the program.

Those making contributions included: Detroit Edison, Western Electric, Arthur Haar Accountant, Plymouth Bowl, American Hospital Medical Benefit Association, Schrader Funeral Home, Whitman & Barnes, Plymouth Stamping Co., Cloverdale Farm Dairy, Harold Curtis Insurance.

West Brothers Motors Inc., Plymouth Drawn Steel Corp., Plymouth Gauge and Tool Co., Detroit Mutual Insurance Co., Fisher-Wingard-Fortney Agency, Plymouth Township, City of Plymouth, Rotary Club, Walter Ash Service, Burroughs Corporation.

Penniman Market, Detroit Bank and Trust Co., National Bank of Detroit, Dr. Elmore Carney, Ellis' Restaurant, First Federal Savings and Loan, Gaffield Studios, M. Powell & Son, Cassidy's, Hillside Inn, Box Bar, Consumers Power, Arrow-smith Electric Co., and Dickerson's Market.

Fisher on Vacation

Plymouth's Public Safety Director Kenneth Fisher is off on his annual two weeks vacation. Assistant Chief Loren Johnson will have charge of the police department during his absence.

SHOES OF ALL SIZES and descriptions brought out bargain hunters in large numbers and kept the cash register ringing a merry tune at Fisher's Shoes.

Arrest 2 Plymouth Youths After Fight At Drive-In

Three 19-year-old youths, two from Plymouth and the third from Livonia, were arrested by Livonia Police following a fist fight at 32222 Plymouth Road, a drive-in restaurant in Livonia.

Patrol officers on a routine check noticed a gang of teenagers gathered in the parking lot and discovered they were watching the fist encounter.

The officers stepped in and broke up the scrap, arresting Robert Bonga, 18110 Alois, Livonia, and Richard Jowsey, 38595 Joy Road, Plymouth, on charges of engaging in a fight and disturbance in a public place, according to police reports.

William Signoralli, 15012 Robinwood, Plymouth, allegedly defied the officers when ordered to leave. He was taken into custody on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and interfering with an officer in discharge of his duty, the reports show.

Willoughby On Mend

Robert Willoughby, owner of Willoughby's Shoe Store, 332 Main St., Plymouth, is recovering from a bout with pneumonia in St. Mary Hospital. He expects to be back on the job by Sept. 1.

STRIKING UP a martial tune during last Friday's band concert in Kellogg Park are members of the Plymouth Community band who are using the new $9,000 portable bandstand. The musicians are well protected by the covered stand which is large enough for 70 bandmen. That's Director Jim Griffith supervising the group. The final concert is slated Friday and then the band will take time off to prepare for the annual concert at the Plymouth Fall Festival on Sunday, Sept. 8.

Livonia Playgrounds To Display Skills In Wonderland

"Good Old Summer Time" fun will be on display at the Wonderland Civic Room through Saturday, Aug. 10. Featured attraction will be 25 "Playgrounds of Tomorrow."

A product of the imaginations and constructive abilities of over 9,000 children who participated in this year's Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation summer playground program, the display will include other arts and crafts projects from each of the playgrounds.

Following one central theme throughout the eight-week summer session—the 1963 project for the children is their conception of a model playground. Playground activities during the summer program revolved around the theme, "In the Good Old Summer Time."

In construction of the "ideal" playground, the children are using such materials as clay, pipe cleaners, sponges, wood, paints, etc. The finished product is an exact miniature of the "dream playground" from each area, reproduced on a 4' x 8' piece of plywood.

One playground is constructing a recreation center on the moon.

Children from most of the areas include a swimming pool and activities building in their model play center. Some have included merry-go-rounds, a small zoo, a large amphitheater, castles, tunnels, horses, trains, and other objects of delight to the youngsters.

Projects from each of the areas will be judged at 7 p.m. Thursday, Aug. 8 at the Wonderland Civic Room. Trophies will be awarded to the grand prize winner and to the best display from each of the four playground districts.

The display will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. through Saturday. A program of talent from the playgrounds will be held during the judging period. Magician Larry Thompson will perform in addition to a ventriloquist act by Karen Lucas and several baton acts and puppet shows.

Acting superintendent of parks and recreation, William Zirblis, will be in charge of the program and judging ceremonies. Judging entries will be President of the City Council, Sydney Bagnall; Chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, Thomas A. Genova, and Ernest Epps of the Wonderland Merchants Council.

Two Livonians Get New Posts At Chevrolet

Two Livonia residents have been named to new posts in Chevrolet's North Central Regional sales office.

D. H. Raab, 14125 Westmore, has been assigned duties as regional claims administrator, and Graham M. Yuill, 14761 Country Club Dr., has been named claims adjuster. Both men will be headquartered in Detroit.

Raab has been with Chevrolet since 1954, joining the company in Buffalo, N.Y., as an inspector. He served as claims adjuster, service representative, resident school instructor and zone claims administrator before his latest move.

Yuill also comes to his new job from Buffalo, where he served as an inspector. He has been with Chevrolet since November, 1960.

DPW News And Notes In Plymouth

By SUPT. JOSEPH BIDA

Mowing of grass and weeds on vacant properties is almost completed. Workers were busy cleaning catch basins in the southwest section of the city. Mowing continued at the Riverside cemetery and in the city parks and playgrounds.

A representative of the Michigan Department of Agriculture with aid from the Department of Public Works will start checking and tagging Elm trees this week. If a red tag is placed on a tree, it means that it should be removed within 10 days.

The Martin Striping Co., under the supervision of the DPW is completing street marking.

Work on the Urban Renewal project is progressing satisfactorily and only two buildings remain to be demolished. Both will be razed as soon as the occupants vacate.

A new utility body truck was delivered to the department last week and is in service.

Tom Jones, an employe of the department since October, 1920, has left for his new job as superintendent of maintenance at Arbor Springs. All members of the DPW wish him luck on his new post.

It has been observed by DPW workers that residents are dumping debris and grass cuttings into Tonquish Creek, a county drain, in the area of the Symar and Maplecroft subdivisions.

All are warned that this causes a health problem and a disagreeable odor on humid days. The DPW is taking this means of warning all not to dump anything into the drain—if caught, the Department will file complaints against the offenders.

Parents are asked to order their children to refrain from building dams across the creek. This backs up the water and is a prime breeding place for mosquitos.

Carnations Decorate Altar at Callahan Rites

Mrs. James C. Callahan

Newburg Methodist Church was the scene of the June 15 marriage of Nancy Louise Callahan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Callahan of Walled Lake, to Graham Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bennett, 10633 Stark Rd., Livonia.

Rev. Paul Greer officiated at the 7 p.m. ceremonies, performed before 250 guests. Baskets of white carnations, stephanotis, peonies, roses and gladioli decorated the altar, on each side of which were candelabra and altar flowers of carnations and roses.

The bride chose a floor length gown, chapel train, white bridal lace over satin gown with long pointed sleeves made by the bride. A headpiece made of bridal lace and pearls covered with silk tulle for the veil was worn and the bride carried white roses and stephanotis with streamers made of satin with stephanotis at ends. She also wore a diamond pendant, given her by the groom at the rehearsal dinner.

Joyce Roberts was maid of honor and wore a blue waltz length gown with scoop neckline, cap sleeves made of chiffon over satin, and an empire waist made of satin. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Helen Quinton who wore a similar pastel yellow gown, and Donna Bennett, sister of the groom, who wore pastel pink. The girls wore matching headpieces and shoes, white gloves and pearls. Their bouquets of carnations matched their gowns.

Flower girl was Connie Lee Bryant, of Tucson, Ariz., who wore a pink chiffon dress trimmed with white lace and a headpiece made of bridal lace from the bride's gown and pearls covered with pink nylon tulle. The five-year-old flower girl carried a basket of pink rosebuds. Ron Williams was the groom's best man, and ushers were Eric Nyman, Danny Callahan and Jack Callahan. Ring bearer was Joey Callahan, cousin of the bride, who carried a white pillow made of white satin covered with lace from the bridal gown.

A reception for guests from Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Canada was held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise shantung sheath dress with white accessories and yellow roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige organza brocade dress with beige accessories. She carried yellow roses.

For her going-away outfit, the bride wore a navy blue crepe sheath dress, with white accessories and a corsage of white roses. The couple spent a week-long honeymoon at Mt. Airy Lodge in the Pocono Mountains of Pennsylvania. They are now residing at 31000 S. Wixom Rd. in Wixom.

The bride graduated from Walled Lake High School in 1958 and attended Pontiac Business Institute. The groom graduated from Bentley High School, Livonia, and attended Michigan College of Mining and Technology. They are both employed at the Ex-Cell-O Corp. Research Center in Walled Lake.

Jeanne Erickson

Redford Township Parents Await Daughter's Return

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Erickson, residents of Redford Township, are awaiting the return of their daughter, Jeanne, due to land August 21 after spending her junior college year at the University of Munich, Germany.

"Our letters from her have been filled with excitement," Mrs. Erickson said, "and her slides have been exhilarating as well as educational."

"One of the many advantages of student life abroad is the strong emphasis on culture in the form of concerts, ballets and opera," she stated. "Having been a member of the Livonia Youth Symphony for years, Jeanne's strong appreciation for fine music took her to Vienna's finest Opera Houses during her Christmas holidays. She also visited Berchtesgaden, Zurich and Bavaria."

Continued Mrs. Erickson, "Her descriptions of the serene quaintness of Bavaria with its flowered balconies, cobbled streets, the turreted castles crowning jagged cliffs, the Alpine cable climb to the summit of the Zugspitz at 10,000 feet were all breathtakingly beautiful and beyond description."

Marriage Problem Top List

A 52-year-old woman who had twice attempted suicide, called one of the eight Torch Drive Family Service agencies in the Detroit area asking to see someone immediately.

A young couple with four children, convinced their marriage was faltering, came to the agency together for help.

A Kentucky housewife, fleeing from her estranged husband, came to the agency out of fear for herself and her children.

A couple in their early twenties and parents of a year-old daughter, came to the office in near panic because they thought their marriage was falling apart.

A 61-year-old man and his 53-year-old wife came to the agency for help in making a decision on committing their 18-year-old retarded son to an institution.

Another couple, married 40 years and childless, were referred by their attorney.

A pretty unmarried teenager, four months pregnant, accompanied by her parents, came to the agency for advice.

Problems of aging, of juvenile misbehavior, of illegitimacy, of mental illness, all throw a strain on the family ties. But the major problem which brings people to Family Service agencies remains that of fear of family breakdown.

During the past year, 349 Livonia families and individuals were served by Torch Drive Family Service agencies. Of these, 183 sought help from Family Service of Metropolitan Detroit, one from Catholic Social Service of Oakland County, 102 from Catholic Social Service of Wayne County, and 63 from Jewish Family and Children's Service.

Family Service of Metropolitan Detroit, in an effort to meet the increased demand for service in Livonia, recently opened a district office at 15223 Farmington.

During the past year, 127 and individuals sought help from Torch Drive family service agencies. Of these, 109 called on Family Service of Metropolitan Detroit, four on Catholic Social Services of Oakland County, 13 on Catholic Social Services of Wayne County, and one on Jewish Family and Children's Service.

Some of the people who appeal to Family Service for help are referred to other community resources at once, or some solution to their problem becomes apparent after one visit. Some come back time after time, and then leave with their problems still unsolved. All, however, are helped to a clearer view of their situation.

Family Services are offered to the community by the Torch Drive in the belief that strong family life produces feelings of worth and dignity in the individual, and determines his capacity for achievement.

"We believe that family breakdown is a threat and a costly burden to the entire community, regardless of when and where it occurs," a Family Service agency stated recently. "Such breakdown knows no economic, social, racial, or religious boundaries. We believe that professional counseling service should be known and available to all families."

Three Day Antique Market To Lure Women to Plymouth

A three-day display of antiques will be held next month in Plymouth as part of that community's Fall Festival, the Plymouth Symphony Women's League announced this week.

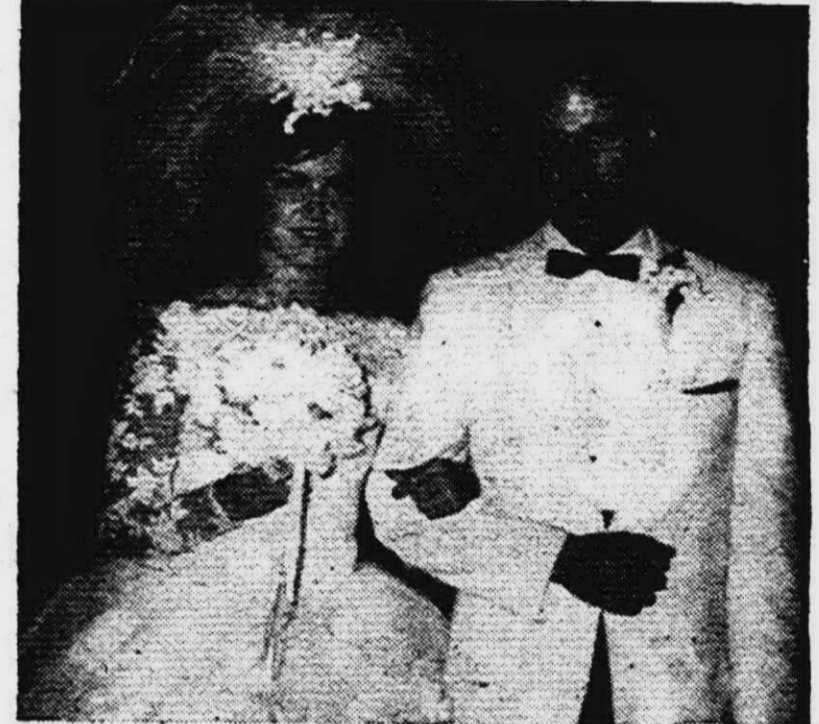

The League, which is sponsoring the Display, will use the Plymouth Grange Hall and Community Center Building on Union Street for the event. Displays will be set up by 23 antique dealers from a radius of 30 miles. A variety of antiques, from old postal cards to colored American furniture, will be shown. European and American china, stoneware, jewelry, jars, coins, cans, clocks and guns will also be displayed.

Union Street will be decorated to "enhance the mood of an old Antique sale," according to League officers. "There will be more than enough free parking," they said, "and everyone who comes is bound to find some treasure that he will want to take home with him." Admission to the show will be fifty cents and refreshments will be available. Proceeds will help support the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. Ray Hulce is general chairman and other committee members are: Mrs. Wilson Augustine, dealers; Mrs. Thomas Adams, refreshments; Mrs. K. L. Van Antwerp; Mrs. Robert Jenkins, properties; Mrs. John Moehele, publicity; Mrs. Carl Schultze; Mrs. David D. Wood, decorations; Mrs. Margaret Hough; and Mrs. Donald Whitesell.

The antique show will be part of the festival, a three-day event which will include a fish fry on Friday, a pancake supper on Saturday and a traditional chicken barbecue on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald B. Hatlen

Lois Peddle, Ron Hatlen Married at St. Paul's

An evening ceremony on July 13 united Lois Ann Peddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peddle, 15040 Harrison, Livonia, in marriage to Ronald B. Hatlen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Korry A. Hatlen, 31903 Rush, Garden City. St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Livonia, was the scene of the 7:30 p.m. ceremony and Rev. Thomas Estes officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a gown of chantilly lace over satin bodice with a skirt of nylon organza, chantilly lace appliques and a chapel train. It featured a sabbina neckline and chapel point sleeves and she wore a white mum floral headpiece with a short bouffant veil. Maid of honor was Christine Thorden, who wore a pale pink satin gown with white lace covered bodice and bell-shaped skirt. She wore a pink floral headpiece and carried pink mums. Bridesmaids, who were dressed like the maid of honor, were Anita Warner, Sue Dragos and Linda Knight.

Alan Thompson was best man and guests were seated by Jack Davis, Terry Hatlen and Norm Varga.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk linen sheath with lace covered bodice for the occasion and the mother of the groom chose a beige silk linen sheath covered with lace and a matching jacket.

A reception at Ford Road Hall was held for 200 guests after the ceremony. Following a three-week motor trip to California, the couple has taken up residence at 6855 Hubbard Rd. in Garden City.

The bride attended Eastern Michigan University and the groom attends Henry Ford Community College.

Folk Singers, Belleville Band to Entertain in Plymouth

There'll be tunes for every music lover in the Plymouth Community in the final band concert of the summer series by the Plymouth Community Band Friday in Kellogg Park. The program starts at 8 p.m.

Director James Griffith has arranged a program of nothing but the finest music, with the Belleville summer high school band combining with local musicians to add volume to the affair.

Director James Griffith joined with Belleville last week and now Belleville is reciprocating by making a visit here.

Incidentally, Griffith has lengthened the concert so that the finale will be one all in attendance will long remember.

The Solemn trio, a folk singing group from Redford Township that follows the style of the Kingston trio, will make a return appearance. The public address system wasn't working in their previous program and Griffith in-visited the group back. The trio consists of Larry Johnston as leader, John Greenberg and Paul Sando.

Incidentally, the concert will give the Belleville musicians their first glimpse of the $9,000 portable bandstand that is being used for the Kellogg Park programs. It was purchased by donations from civic and service clubs and matching funds from the City of Plymouth. The summer concerts and all activities of the Plymouth Community Band have been made possible through the sponsorship of the Plymouth Community Credit Union.

Along Realty Row

Meet Bill Jennings, whose 20 years of pioneering in the real estate business in Livonia, Detroit, Dearborn, Allen Park and Nankin Township have resulted in his going into the real estate business for himself some years ago.

Bill, known as Jennings Real Estate, also has an insurance business and both offices are located at 28085 Plymouth Road, in Livonia. He was born in Toronto, Ontario, is 47-years-old, and comes from a family of industrialists. He and his family reside on Rougeway Drive, in Livonia.

A large part of his success in listing homes is the result of the number of houses he sold to people over the years and, as their families grew or expanded, they remembered the man who took the time to show them enough houses until they themselves bought from him.

He played hockey for the Detroit Red Wings and Boston Bruins. At one time, he held the world record for having scored three goals in 57 seconds. He is a member of the Detroit Red Wing Alumni, an organization designed to sponsor the promotion of amateur hockey in Detroit and the metropolitan area.

He is also a member of the United Northwestern Realty Association and the Wayne County Board of Realtors.

His favorite sports are fishing, duck hunting (in Canada and the Detroit River) and just plain hunting. He is fond of good hunting dogs, particularly weimaraners, and owns two.

Bill prefers to be informal and most everyone who talks to him calls him just plain "Bill." One of his favorite mottoes in the real estate business has been and still is, "Your Neighbor Bought From Us" and, indeed, he did!

Plymouth Kiwanis View '500' Race In Color Movies

The Plymouth Kiwanis Club was treated to color films of the Indianapolis 500 race through the courtesy of the Mobil Oil Co. The movies included views of the trials, the marching band, the pre-race parade and shots of the pit crews preparing a car for the long grind—and then the race itself.

Norm Lofy presented the club with a new podium in a rich walnut finish. It was accepted by President Walter Gempelme with thanks from all Kiwanians.

Guests included: Matt Fortney, Dick Warga, Harold Fisher Jr., and Roger Corey.

'Curtain Going Up'

By Wally Roberts

"Here's Love," the new Meridith Willson musical comedy, shot several brand-new theatrical arrows from its tender quiver last week and capacity audiences at the Fisher Theater offered their sympathetic hearts for targets. Mr. Willson, a competent cupid, used many penetrating arrows, but old Wally feels two important darts went disastrously wide of the mark, giving "Here's Love" a losing score.

First, let's look at the target and count up the definite, direct hits. The dialogue or book scored high. And why shouldn't it. Mr. Valentine Davies' original story has a charm and appeal recognized earlier when it provided the movie industry with an Academy Award under the title of "Miracle on 34th Street."

Acting is superb. Janis Paige was never better. Craig Stevens handles himself with assurance and convinces us that he will win the girl. The comics: Fred Gwynne, Paul Reed, Dave Doyle, and Cliff Hall fracture the audience with even the mildest lines. Each of these funnymen have sharpened their parts to perfection.

Beautiful sets swing in and out of the action. William and Jean Eckhart are to be complimented for giving a former movie such fluidity on the stage. It's not easy. Every one of the Fisher's 60 stage battens were used to mount this complicated production. Eight extra lighting boards were brought in to provide extra lighting.

Well, the bull's eye seems to be crowded with artistic arrows. Oh, yes, let's not forget Peter Howard's dance arrangements. The opening number where the Thanksgiving parade is choreographed and staged so cleverly by Michael Kidd stuns you with its brilliance. The toy ballet in act 1 again proves that "Here's Love" has some mighty effective dancing.

But, in spite of all these plus marks, Mr. Willson and "Here's Love" missed the mark with two most important arrows. Dart number one: what happened to all the melodic music that characterized "The Music Man" and "Unsinkable Molly Brown"? None of the tunes in "Here's Love" have whistle quality. You leave the theater without a melody lingering on to remember the show by. As poor a production as "No Strings" was, you still had the title song to hum and "The Strangest Sounds You Ever Heard" to whistle as you rode home.

"Love, Come Take Me Again," the love ballad, comes at the end of the show and could very well be cut since it doesn't register. "Look, Little Girl" has possibilities. "Here's Love," the title song, has lyrics that are too complicated to be popular. "My State" a comedy patter song almost stops the show, but it still has not any lasting qualities. "She Hadda Go Back" reminds me of Mr. Willson's highly successful song in "Music Man" called "Trouble." At least, he changed the words.

Mr. Willson will have to get busy and put at least a half-dozen new songs in "Here's Love" before it will be a big success. Any man that has written such gems as "76 Trombones," "Lida Rose," "Till There Was You," "I'm Not Down Yet," "Gary, Indiana," and "It's Beginning To Look A Lot Like Christmas" certainly must have a few more melodies left in his bag of tunes.

Most serious error of all in Mr. Willson's usually unerring aim to score another smash on that elusive Broadway target was in the casting of the major roles. Craig Stevens can act, but he can't sing. Janis Paige seems to have lost the voice she once had for her splendid work in "Pajama Game." Has she done something to those lovely vocal pipes? Laurence Naismith makes a perfect Santa, but he can't sing either.

AS CIVIL AIR PATROL cadets look on, Redford Township Lieut. Cal Richards is awarded a special citation at ceremonies last Sunday afternoon at Mettetal Airport. Richards, who lives at 17204 Five Points, was given $200 worth of flying time by the Cadets.

Cite Township Man for Service by CAP

For "work performed beyond the call of duty," a Redford Township Civil Air Patrol volunteer was given a special citation and awarded $200 worth of flying time at ceremonies last Sunday.

Cal Richards, of 17204 Five Points, who serves as a lieutenant in the CAP, was given the awards. Richards lives in the Township with his wife, Marlene, and two children, a son, Lance, 12, and a daughter, Lorraine, 11. Richards completely rebuilt a Stinson aircraft belonging to the CAP group, membership in which covers the Detroit and suburban area between Woodward and Ford Rd. and Davison to the Plymouth city limits. He has been a CAP member for three years and belongs to squadron number four.

Membership in the regular CAP is open to teenagers from 13 to 18 and meetings are held each week. The members work as plane spotters and are trained in civil defense work.

Bud Bashara

Funeral services for Bud Bashara, 65, 21795 Outer Drive, Dearborn, were conducted Monday in the Howe-Peterson Funeral Home with burial in Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Bashara was the father of George and Ted Bashara, owners of the Wonderland Lanes, 28455 Plymouth Road, Livonia. He died Friday in Oakwood Hospital.

A native of Fort Wayne, Ind., he came to Detroit 50 years ago. He worked for Badalament Inc. for 38 years and had retired as general manager last month.

Mr. Bashara was a member of Syria Lodge No. 566, F&AM and the Cedars of Lebanon Lodge, Order of the Eastern Star.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Alice Bashara; two sons, George and Ted; a daughter, Mrs. George Ansara; three brothers, Michael, Louis and Victor; two sisters, Mrs. George Rozoog and Mrs. Charles Hanna; and nine grandchildren.

Harry Schrader

Funeral services for Harry Schrader, 66, 18775 Merriman Road, Livonia, were conducted July 29 in the Manns-Ferguson Funeral Home, 17000 Middlebelt Road, and in St. Michael's Catholic Church. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mr. Schrader died July 25 in St. Mary Hospital of a heart attack. He was born June 4, 1897 in Illinois, a son of Fred and Anna Schmidt Schrader. He was a construction worker for the City of Livonia.

Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Clara Schrader; two sons, Harry and Vern at home; a son Ronald and a daughter, Mrs. Jacquelyn Urhammer of Oregon; two sisters, two brothers and 12 grandchildren.

Marion E. Pitcher

Funeral services were held Saturday for Marion Elizabeth Pitcher, 66, 9347 Florida, Livonia, who died Thursday, July 25 at her home.

The Rev. Robert Davis pronounced the service at Harry G. Will Funeral Home. Interment was at Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Pitcher is survived by her husband, Byron; her mother, Mrs. James Rose; a daughter, Mrs. John Griffore; a sister, Mrs. Francis Pattison; and by five grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Sylvester Sokolowski

After a three months illness, Sylvester Sokolowski, 70, died in St. Mary Hospital on July 26. The funeral was held Monday at Harry J. Will Funeral Home, the Rev. R. L. Morrell officiating, and interment is at Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Sokolowski was born in Poland and resided at 672 Coplin, Detroit. His wife, Victoria, survives, as does a son, Armand, and a sister, Mrs. Mathilda Weiter of France.

Mrs. Anna Bradley

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Bradley, 65, 16245 Southampton, Livonia, were conducted Aug. 1 in the Manns-Ferguson Funeral Home in charge of Rev. Jay Coulton. Burial was in Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Bradley died July 29 in St. Mary Hospital following a short illness. She was born March 26, 1898 in Detroit, a daughter of George and Ann Smith Powrie.

Surviving are: a son, Joseph and two grandchildren.

Plymouth Steer Sale Nets $1,706

The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce fund raising committee reports net receipts of $1,256 from the recent Black Angus steer contest. The committee sold $1,706 in tickets.

The steer was presented to Maurice Ferguson, of Powell Road, Plymouth, on July 4 as one of the features of the annual celebration sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Shoe Merchant Robert Wiloughby was high in sales with a total of $652. The committee offers thanks to George Lawton, Wendell Lent, James Houk and Harvey Ziel for their tremendous ticket selling campaign all of the Fourth at the carnival on the Mill Street fairgrounds site.

Redford 'Ponies' Beaten in Finals

It's never a happy occasion when a team loses... especially in a championship game. But everyone, who either was connected or cheered for the Redford Township Americans in the Pony League district tournament at Hamtramck over the weekend, had to be proud of the way the 14-15-year-olds from hereabouts performed.

To start with, the Americans had lost to Taylor Northeast by an 8-7 score in the very first game of the two loss and out competition.

That meant the Americans had to battle with their backs to the wall. And that they did.

They started the comeback trail by knocking out the Redford Nationals, 7-0. Then the Townshipers put out Taylor Northeastern, 4-0.

That put Redford's Americans into the finals against high-powered Hamtramck. And the Americans responded with their third straight shutout victory—by a 4-0 count.

The district finale came up last Sunday. For five innings, it was Redford on top, 2-0. But Hamtramck broke loose with four runs in the sixth and went on to take the game, 4-2, and earn the right to play in this week's state tournament at Hamtramck.

Those who watched the Districts will talk for weeks, and maybe longer, about the individual play of two of the Redford Americans.

First there was Vic Pilar who set a record by pitching 15 consecutive scoreless innings in tournament play before being tagged for a homer in the sixth inning Saturday.

Then there was Dan Harris, the Redford catcher, who knocked out five homers, a double and three singles to emerge the hitting star of the tournament.

In last Sunday's battle, Redford jumped ahead in the second inning when Reg Barringer singled in the second inning and came around on a pair of errors.

A walk to Bob Holmes, followed by two more miscues, helped Redford make it 2-0, in the fifth.

Came the sixth inning and John Krczykowski drilled a homer off Pilar to end the latter's brilliant chain of brilliant scoreless frames. At this juncture, Pilar was replaced on the mound by Jim Kaminski when Pilar reported his arm had turned sore.

Hamtramck jumped off on Kaminski, putting together a single, two doubles, an error, wild pitch and fielder's choice for three more runs.

Once ahead Krczykowski, who pitched brilliantly for Hamtramck, held off Redford the rest of the way. He allowed only three hits in the game—two by Barringer—and fanned 12. Pilar whiffed eight in the five full frames he worked.

Kaminski was the hero of the Redford 4-0 victory against Hamtramck two days earlier.

He came in to pitch in the second inning and fanned 10 and allowed only two hits during the rest of the game.

A single by Barringer and double by Barry Sinescu gave Redford a 1-0 lead in the first inning. In the third, a walk to Kaminski, an error on which Paul Santangelo reached base and a Harris double made it 3-0. Santangelo walked in the seventh, took second on a passed ball and scored Redford's final run when Sinescu singled.

Pilar went all the way, allowing four hits and fanning 13 in the Americans' 4-0 blanking of Taylor Northeast. Santangelo's double and Barringer's single netted the Americans their run.

Kaminski made it 2-0 on a single, sacrifice and error. Singles by Sinescu, Harris, Joe Strucel and Kaminski added to the Americans run total in the sixth.

The hitting of Harris and the pitching of Marty Ingessulian highlighted the Americans 7-0 whipping of the Redford Nationals.

Harris drilled a pair of homers while Ingessulian held the Nationals to two hits. Santangelo also clouted a homer for the winners.

The Americans had fought back from a 7-5 deficit to tie Taylor Northeast at 7-7 in the tournament's initial game. A single by Strucel, a walk to Kaminski and a single by Jim Mutch knotted the score in the sixth inning.

But Craig Tulik homered for Northeast and there went the ball game.

The Americans actually had jumped into an early 5-0 lead with Pilar hurling the first three frames and not allowing a hit. After he was taken out for future action, the roof fell in on the Americans.

The Redford Nationals dropped their first game to eventual champion Hamtramck, 12-4. Glen Davis socked a homer and double for the losers, while Mark Ross drilled a pair of singles.

Top Pacers Tangle In Wolverine Stakes

The Grand Circuit, the major league of harness racing, concludes five nights of stakes tonight and Thursday at Wolverine Harness Raceway—it operates at the Detroit Race Course—including the $13,775 Geers for two-year-old pacers and the $20,575 Matron for three-year-old pacers.

The Geers headlines tonight's program and finds Knoxon, the brilliant Michigan-bred colt, facing his stiffest opposition of the year against some of the youthful bearcats of the Roaring Grand.

Knoxon, who started the season with five straight victories and then tailed off a bit by finishing second in four of his next five starts, is generally considered the greatest of the state's homebred juveniles.

But just how he'll react against the best from the East and South is something else that will be determined Wednesday (tonight).

Matched against the youngster are such toughies as Lancelot Hanover, McMac, Race Time, Ripping Good, Mighty Sampson, Beppi and Battle Station.

Thursday night, the three-year-old pacers step into the spotlight in the rich Matron, one of the stepping stones to the Brown Jug Classic in September in Delaware, O.

This year's renewal drew a field of five of the fastest competitors among the eligibles and from all indications the race may be one of the best of the season.

The five starters include: Meadow Russ from Del Miller's stable; George Sholtz's Delightful Time, Del Insko's James B. Hanover, Byron Kuth's Parker Time and K. D. Owens' fast-stepping Diamond Sam.

Grading Gals Cop Playoffs

Pass the orchids to Commercial Grading, the new women's softball champs of Livonia.

After losing the first game of the best-of-three series to Michigan Bell, 14-8, Commercial bounced back to score five runs in the final inning to take game No. 2, 8-7, and then grab the deciding and final encounter in a rout, 18-1.

Mary Ellen Kenkowski's double knocked in the tying and winning runs in Commercial's 8-7 win. Georgette Fawcette, the mother of a 2½-year-old daughter, pitched for the winners.

Georgette also was the pitching hero in the playoff game. She employs a windmill motion which makes her delivery hard to hit.

Mary Owen, a 16-year-old student at Bentley High School, slugged off four hits and scored four runs to lead Commercial. The shortstop play of Kathy Cazaban also stood out in the victory.

The victory qualified Commercial Grading for the state Class C tournament at Coldwater over the Labor Day weekend.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

Looking for some place nice to go some evening? We'd like to suggest you visit the harness races over at the Detroit Race track.

To our way of thinking you can't top the entertainment and other treats in store for you and your wife (or vice versa) when you travel over to Schoolcraft and Middlebelt Roads.

For one thing, there's nothing like watching the horses race under the stars. It's exciting every step of the way.

Then, too, the facilities, offered at the Detroit Race Course where the Wolverine Raceway folks take over to operate the trotting season rank among the finest in the country.

It's particularly pleasant to enjoy dinner out at the DRC. Somehow you don't exactly mind when one of your favorite selections goes astray and you wind up minus a couple of dollars.

The Wolverine race officials are bringing in some of the greatest trotters and pacers in the country. The owners of the stars have every reason to want to bring their pride and joys to the DRC. A record purse fund has been set up for the current meeting.

Already this week several of the trotting greats have seen action at the DRC and more will show their stuff during the remainder of the week.

On subsequent days and nights during August and September, the Wolverine officials will offer a constant parade of thrilling attractions for those who visit the track.

The only thing the folks can't assure you at the Wolverine is a winning selection. That's where your talents and luck must enter the picture.

So, may we suggest you hike over to Schoolcraft and Middlebelt. You're bound to enjoy yourselves... even if your pocket book might cry a little.

Speaking of racing, we'd like to pass along our salutes to our ex-boss, Eddie Hayes, who will be stepping down next week as the state's racing commissioner.

Hayes has done a terrific job, but he was a political appointment of our late democratic administration and the present Republican governor naturally wanted his own man in there.

It's a shame, as we said before, that politics have to enter the sports scene. But that's the way it goes... and Michigan horse racing has lost a fine man in Eddie Hayes.

Mentioning Hayes also brings up the name of Vic Packman, who passed away last Friday at the young age of 52.

No two men had more to do with this typewriter puncher entering the newspaper business than Hayes and Packman. Hayes gave us our first "break" on the old Detroit Times and it was under Packman that we did our first high school and sandlot baseball reporting.

Vic was a solid newspaperman. In his later years with the Times and more recently with the Detroit News, Vic handled the makeup and editing of the women's pages. He'd sit day after day among a flock of women to do a stellar job.

Death came unexpectedly. He was stricken at his desk and the knife of a surgeon could do him no good. They found a cancer in his brain.

LOSES ON DAY HE SIGNS Tom Tanner Now a N.Y. Yankee

Friday, Aug. 2 was both a happy and unhappy day for Tom Tanner, a recent graduate of Thurston High School.

In the morning Tanner signed a professional baseball contract with the New York Yankees. He'll get some money and also he's assured a college education.

In the afternoon, Tanner pitched for the Livonia Detroit Race Course team on a loan from Redford Champion in the district Connie Mack tournament final against Dearborn. Tom pitched well enough, but DRC couldn't help him and the game ended in a 4-0 win for Dearborn.

Since Dearborn had beaten DRC 4-2, on Thursday, the double triumph enabled Dearborn to advance into the state Mack tourney and ended the season for the DRC club.

Tanner was rapped for nine hits, while DRC was held to only three safeties.

In the Thursday game, DRC was outhit, 13-4. Bill Booth was the losing pitcher. Dave Woloch doubled in Jim Glenn for DRC's first run and Steve Powers rapped a double to admit Glenn with the second and final DRC tally.

'E' Title Captured By Flyers

Thanks to a 4-3 victory over the Tigers, the Phillippi Flyers qualified to represent Livonia in the Class E district baseball tournament starting Monday at Pontiac.

Managed by Lionel Burkett, the Flyers showed over the deciding run in the seventh inning when Gary Burkett (the manager's son) singled home Larry Ruzsas, who had walked, and moved to second on another pass to Paul Hartge.

Ron Kapanko allowed four hits and fanned 10 for the winners as he outduelled Gene Almno and Ken Bratherton.

The Flyers scored their first three runs in the fourth inning on two walks and singles by Burkett and Paul Deedler.

Dodgers, Indians Are Season's Champs in Redford Twp. League

The Redford Township Junior Athletic Association held its annual picnic Saturday, Aug. 3, at Perrin Field on Edward Hines Parkway. Highlights of the day were the three division championship baseball games between the Pennant Winners of the Fisher, Beech and Phoenix Leagues.

In the first game of the day, the Fisher Farm Dodgers defeated the Beech Farm Twins in overtime, 2-1. Don Murdock of the Twins and Kevin Keenan of the Dodgers hooked up in a tight pitching duel. In the seventh inning, the Dodgers scored the winning run on walks from the Twins' relief pitcher.

Jeff Barringer of the Phoenix Indians and "Butch" Heib of the Fisher Pirates each pitched one-hitters and Barringer fanned 15 men as the Indians won the ball game 2-1. The Indians opened the scoring in the second inning when Mark Shimp doubled, went to third on a fielder's choice and scored on a wild throw. The Pirates tied it up in the third, when Scott Clemens walked and came

130 Amputees To Compete In U.S. Meet At Western

Western Golf and Country Club will host one of the nation's most unusual tournaments when more than 130 of golf's most devoted players compete in the 15th annual National Amputee tourney starting Thursday morning.

All of the contestants are men who have lost a limb or part of one but who have continued to play golf.

Tom Cremer, the defending champion, averaged 80 in winning a year ago in Dallas. But President John McClelland, of Livonia, who heads the Michigan Amputee Golf Association indicated the champion two years ago was four strokes under par.

The tournament begins Thursday and runs through Saturday with 54 holes of medal play. There is no admission charge for any of the days and the general public is invited.

The Western course is located on Beech-Daly and Kinloch Roads in Redford Township.

Despite their handicaps, most of the golfers will be required to walk around the course. There will be a special mobile unit made up of golfers who require golf carts.

The tourney opens with a qualifying round Thursday from which the 20 low scores and ties constitute the championship flight. The field will be pared to 12 in the championship bracket after the second round.

This year's renewal marks the second time the tournament has been staged in Detroit. The 1954 event was held at the Red Run course in Royal Oak.

Play for all three days will start at 7:30 a.m.

DRC '9' Captures 'A' Title

Pass the bouquets to Livonia's Detroit Race Course Asenior baseball team.

The DRC nine, under the leadership of Cliff Nippa, hauled in the Livonia Recreation Class A title last Sunday by spanking South Lyon, 12-2, in the first half of a double-header.

The victory was DRC's ninth in a row after it had dropped the first two encounters of the season.

It made no difference that DRC fell to South Lyons, 12-9, in the second half of Sunday's twinbill.

By taking the 'A' title, DRC qualified to play in a district tournament at Ann Arbor later this month for the right to advance to the state tournament at Battle Creek over the Labor Day weekend.

The state winner then goes on to the national meet, which also will be held in Battle Creek.

Ron Hellier coasted along on a seven hitter as he fanned six South Lyons batters in the championship game.

Elks Set To Enter Tourney

The Plymouth Elks will be counting upon the pitching of Jim Edwards and Dave Troutman to carry them home a winner to qualify for play in the state recreation Class D baseball tournament which starts next Monday.

Edwards had an 8-1 record during the season for the Elks while Troutman posted a 5-3 mark.

In the hitting department, the Elks will look to the bats of Tom Lockwood, Jerry Kisabeth, Terry Clark, Bob Gotro and Tom Von Glahn.

In tuning up for the tourney, the Elks played twice last week and lost both as they rounded out their regular season schedule. Wayne Monarchs beat the Elks, 8-7, and then it was Redford DAV over the Elks by a 7-0 score.

GROWING GRASS on a football field—an unusual accomplishment? That's what happened at the Redford Union field behind Lola Valley Junior High School this summer. Maintenance man Jake Custer (left) and Assistant Superintendent Paul Shoemaker (right) examine the healthy turf, grown after a systematic program to kill the weeds which had been attacking healthy grass and already representatives of a dozen nearby school districts have come to see how they did it. Result of the successful operation will be a solid, dust-repelling grid-iron when the Panthers begin their regular season this fall.

Four Township Youths Attend U-D Workshop

Completing recent University of Detroit workshops for editors of high school publications were four Redford residents.

Robert Bewdelow, assistant editor of the Catholic Central High "Spectrum", attended the newspaper editors' workshop. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bewdelow of 17639 Lenore.

Editors of the Thurston High annual, the "Vita", who attended the yearbook editors' workshop included Editor-in-chief Linda L. Bucon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bucon of 13130 Nathaline; Co-Editor Sally Kuryla, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Kuryla of 12821 Sioux; and Assistant Editor Judith A. Klocho, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Klocho of 14241 Garfield.

More than 150 high school students were on the University of Detroit campus the past two weeks enrolled in newspaper or yearbook workshops conducted by the Detroit Student Press Association, a unit of the U. of D. Journalism department. The students, who are in their junior and senior years, will be editors of their high school publications in the coming year. The newspaper workshop trained the future editors in the principles of reporting, news writing, editing, layout, and the mechanics of production.

Livonia Library Stocks 1962's 'Notable Books'

Announcement of 54 "Notable Books of 1962"—outstanding books published during the past year particularly worthy of the attention of American adult readers—has been received by the Carl Sandburg Library, according to Librarian Skip Rosenthal. The list was compiled by the Notable Books Council of the American Library Association.

"The books were selected for their contribution to literature and general knowledge—sincerity of presentation, perception of present day problems, and values of literary excellence and informational validity," explained Muriel Fuller, president of ALA's Adult Services Division, and Dorothy Nicodemus, chairman of the Notable Books Council.

The selection includes 10 fiction titles, the highest number in recent years. The Notable Books were chosen from a total of 570 nominations sent in by librarians in 39 libraries representing all parts of the country.

Books included are the following:

Gabriela, Clove and Cinnamon, Amado; Life and Energy, Asimov; A Man for All Seasons, Bolt; Tale for the Mirror, Calisher; Embattled Critic, Canaday; Silent Spring, Carson; King Rat, Clavell; Letters from the Earth, Clemens; Seven Plays of the Modern Theatre, Clurman; The Origin of Races, Coon; The Nature of Communism, Daniels; Of Time, Work, and Leisure, DeGrazia; The World of Ice, Dyson; Henry James, Vol. 2 & 3, Edel; The Reivers, Faulkner; In the Clearing, Frost; The Other America, Harrington; About Prints, Hayter; Being and Time, Heidegger; The Fox in the Attic, Hughes; The Tangled Bank, Hyman; Contemporaries, Kazin; The Artist's Voice, Kuh; The Council, Reform, and Revolution, Kung; Arms and Arms Control, Lefever; Let My People Go, Luthuli; Against the American Grain, Macdonald.

Latin America Between the Eagle and the Bear, Madariaga; The Senses of Animals & Men, Milne; Pale Fire, Nabokov; Ship of Fools, Porter; Morte d'Urban, Powers; A Long and Happy Life, Price; London Perceived, Pritchett; New Frontiers of Christianity, Raughley; Renoir, My Father, Renoir; The Culturally Deprived Child, Riessman; Eero Saarinen on His Work, Saarinen; Our Amish Neighbors, Schreiber; The Slave, Singer; John Adams, 2 vols., Smith; Wolf Willow, Stegner; Gomillion Versus Lightfoot, Taper; Form and Space, Trier; The Guns of August, Tuchman; Scott Fitzgerald, Turnbull; The Rich Nations & the Poor Nations, Ward; God, Man and the Thinker, Wells; The Points of My Compass, White; Letters, Wilde; One Man's Freedom, Williams; George, Williams; Patriotic Gore, Wilson; Pearl Harbor, Wohlsetter.

Reservations for the above books may be made by calling the library.

The Livonia Libraries are open as follows: Monday through Thursday, 12-8; Friday, 9-5; South Branch, 33720 Plymouth Road, GA 7-1990; Carl Sandburg Branch, 30100 W. Seven Mile Rd., 476-0700.

Named Head Of Van Firm

William L. Dore, Jr., who lives at 14422 Sarasota, Redford Township, has been elected president of the O. H. Frisbie Moving & Storage Co., a nationally operating firm.

At the same time Thomas E. Dorst was elected vice president.

Dore, 39, joined Frisbie in 1957 as operations manager. The previous nine years were spent with the Ford Motor Co. in traffic operations, the last four as traffic manager of the parts and service operations of what was then the Mercury Division.

He moved up to vice president of the Frisbie company in 1960, in charge of operations for the nationally operating moving firm.

Dore graduated from the College of Advanced Traffic in Detroit and received his traffic certificate from the Wayne State University School of Business Administration. He has served as instructor at the College of Advanced Traffic and is now teaching evening courses in traffic and transportation subjects at Henry Ford College.

'Spirit' Is Topic of Christian Science

A Bible Lesson on "Spirit" is liberty. One of the references from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be this: "Man is tributary to God, Spirit, and to nothing else. God's being is infinity, freedom, harmony, and boundless bliss. Where the Lord is that Spirit; and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" (p. 481).

Livonia Pastor Attends Ecumenical Conference

Two area delegates are among several hundred Protestant leaders who attended the 1963 Ecumenical Evangelism Conference which wound up its activities last Saturday in Green Lake, Wisconsin. Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Schalkhauser, 14246 Arcola, attended. Rev. Schalkhauser is the assistant director of Evangelism for the American Lutheran Church, with headquarters in Minneapolis. Two Livonia churches are members of this denomination: Timothy Lutheran Church at Wayne Rd. and Ann Arbor Trail, and the new Ascension Lutheran Church on Five Mile and Yale, of which Rev. Arnold Jahr is pastor. The conference sponsored in cooperation with the Central Department of Evangelism, National Council of Churches of Christ. Leadership was provided by outstanding authorities whose names and books are known throughout Protestantism. Dr. James E. Sellers, professor of Theology and Christian Ethics at Vanderbilt University, and author of The Outsider and the Word of God, was a platform speaker each evening. Vesper leader, Dr. Jitso Morikawa, is Secretary of Evangelism and Executive Director of the American Baptist Jubilee Advance. Dr. Morikawa is also author of Pastors for a Servant People. Rev. Paul Stagg, Program Director of the Division of Evangelism, was the leader of the morning watch each day of the conference. The closing address on Friday, August 2, was given by Bishop E. R. Wickham of Middleton, England, author of Church and People in an Industrial City. Conference seminar leaders included Dr. Colin Williams, formerly of Melbourne, Australia and now the Executive Director of the Department of Evangelism, National Council of Churches of Christ; Dr. Culbert G. Rutenber, professor at Andover Newton Theological School and author of The Reconciling Gospel; Dr. Chester H. Jump, Jr., secretary for American Baptist cooperative work in Africa and author of Coming, Ready or Not; Dr. Richard Shaull, professor at Princeton

Jewish Sunday School Will Offer Six Classes

Registration for Sunday School at the Livonia Jewish Congregation will be held Sunday, Aug. 18, and Sunday, Aug. 25, from 10 a.m. to noon at the Shul Building, 32070 W. Seven Mile at Osmun in Livonia. Classes to be offered for the 1963-64 semester include: nursery (for three-year-olds), pre-school; kindergarten; first grade; second grade; and third grade. The first three levels will meet every Sunday from 9:30 to 11 a.m. and the second three from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Children will be placed according to their public school grades. Further information is available from Mrs. Tom Salmons, GA 7-1167.

Local Student To Take Vows At Holy Cross

A former resident of this area will receive the habit in the Congregation of Holy Cross at Sacred Heart Novitiate, Jordan, Minnesota, on the Feast of the Assumption, August 15. He is Robert B. McGrath.

McGrath is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard P. McGrath, 1212 Cribb, Apt. No. 102, Toledo 12, Ohio. He attended St. Michael's grade school, Livonia, Michigan, Catholic Central High School, Detroit, and the University of Detroit where he was graduated in 1961. He taught at Catholic Central, Detroit for a year and then joined the Holy Cross Fathers at Notre Dame last fall. His father is Credit Manager of Northwestern Lumber Supply Inc.

On his arrival at Sacred Heart Novitiate in Jordan, he will find himself a member of a class of some 40 novices from all parts of the country. There they will undertake a year's intensive study and practice of the principles of the religious life, meditation, self-denial, the vows, the particular rules and customs of the community they are joining, the Holy Cross Fathers. At the end of the year they will pronounce their first temporary vows of poverty, chastity and obedience and will return to Moreau Seminary, Notre Dame, Indiana, where the candidates for the priesthood will complete their college education at the University. Candidates for the Holy Cross Lay Brotherhood will also return to Notre Dame where they will be assigned to help the work of the priests in offices or in manual occupations such as carpentry, painting, cooking, maintenance, etc. The Holy Cross Fathers maintain midwest headquarters at Notre Dame.

Obituary CLARENCE ANGELO

Redford Township area residents mourned the passing of a well-known local real estate broker and builder this week. Clarence Angelo, 44, died Aug. 3, in Rogers City, Michigan. Born Nov. 11, 1918, the final day of World War I, Angelo attended the University of Detroit and served in Europe during the Second World War.

He was married in 1941 to Edith Angelo and resided at 26311 Hope in Redford Township. He was a member of St. Valentine Church and the Redford Lions Club. He had one daughter, Carol, and is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Arnold Gurrieri, Rose Harr, and Mrs. James Storer, and two brothers, Louis and William.

Funeral arrangements were handled by Hammond-Haas Funeral Home and services were held Aug. 6 at St. Valentine Church. Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

'The Reader Speaks Up'

Editor: I could very well be a neighbor of "Unhappy Voter's Wife." My neighbor has a houseful of children, bills and a very over-worked husband. He works two jobs and still they only have just enough to make ends meet, and from what I understand, he is one of the highest paid city workers. They drive an old car and all the furniture in their home has been given to them. My husband, who is a factory worker, and has no particular trade, brings home more money in one week than the man brings home in two, working for the city. So when I heard that the Council and Mayor were contemplating taking away their sick days, as a taxpayer and friend, I was furious. Granted city workers do have more paid sick days than say, factory workers, but the size of their pay checks makes up the difference. What do the Council and Mayor plan to do to make up for what they are taking away from these men? Give everyone a raise in pay? If something isn't done we in Livonia will soon find ourselves without any city workers and who then is going to do all the dirty work that makes our city clean and sanitary? No man wants to work hard all his life and in retiring have nothing to show for it.

What I can't understand is: Why the DPW workers and their union don't stand up and fight for their rights instead of sitting back and taking these abuses. Are they all afraid to speak up for fear of losing their jobs? Because if this is so, what type of city government do we have?

Another Unhappy Voter

Editor: Your readers might be interested to know that Representative August Johansen of Michigan sent President Kennedy the following telegram—Quote—"We must end the harassment, which this government has carried on, of liberty-loving anti-Castro forces in Cuba, and in other lands. While we cannot violate international law, we must recognize that these exiles and rebels represent the real voice of Cuba, and should not be constantly handicapped by our immigration and justice department authorities.
