Plymouth Schools Open Sept. 5 . . . See Page 17

Have Fun Kids—'S' Day Near

Time is running out for Johnny, Susie, Tommy and Debby—the summer vacation is just about over and the sound of school bells will be heard throughout the Plymouth Community starting Thursday, Sept. 5.

and mothers have a chance to relax again after the long summer recess.

Plymouth School Supt. Russell Isbister is looking forward to the largest opening day attendance in history, some 300 more than a year ago. The official figures won't be available until the final Friday of September in accordance with state law.

Isbister has called the school principals and teachers together for the annual pre-school conference on Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 3 and 4. It's a tougher course for the teachers, preparing them to greet students who have been on the loose since last June.

The bus schedules will be practically the same as a year ago. Transportation Supt. Robert Houghton urges parents to have their children at the bus stops in plenty of time. He anticipates that the schedule will be justified by Monday so that parents and students will have a definite idea when to meet the bus.

There won't be any delay in getting things into full swing—the Plymouth School Board has ordered a full day of classes on Thursday and that will be the program for the entire school year.

Isbister has announced the daily schedule for classes in all schools from kindergarten to the 12th grade. The schedule includes:

Kindergarten—morning session, 8:45 a.m.-11:30 a.m.; afternoon session, 12:35 p.m.-2:20 p.m.

Early Elementary School—8:45 a.m. to 3:20 p.m.

Later Elementary School—8:45 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Junior High West—schedule for sixth and seventh graders, 8:00 a.m. to 2:50 p.m.

Junior High East—8:00 a.m. to 2:50 p.m.

Senior High—8:00 a.m. to 2:45 p.m.

The two-room addition to Farrand School will be ready for use with the opening of classes to take care of the anticipated attendance of 510.

Assistant Supt. Melvin Blunk, who has charge of the business affairs and management of the system, has projected the following totals for the opening day enrollment at the various schools:

Blunk sees: Senior High, 1,160; Junior High West, 870; Junior High East, 570; Smith, 550; Farrand, 510; Bird, 540; Allen, 435; Gallimore, 425; Starkweather, 440; and Truesdell, 80.

Blunk reports progress on the addition to the Junior High West, which has a target date of September 1964, but which he anticipates will be available for use for the start of the second semester.

Meanwhile, youngsters throughout the community are having their last taste of the summer fun. It will last for just one week more, then come the studies and the long winter.

College Board Returns $5,117

Supplier Gives Version Of Brick Bids

Return of securities worth $5,177 to a brick contractor was ordered by the Schoolcraft Community College Board of Trustees, even as the contractor submitted a new letter outlining, he said, a series of dealings with College officials over the past 15 months.

Sam Burtman, 31512 Myrna, Livonia, owner of the Century Brick Company of Detroit, bid on the bricks for the new Schoolcraft Community College, but the general contractor (Schurrer Construction Company) awarded it to another firm, Stevens Brick Company.

In the 15 months prior to the contract awarding, Burtman and his wife had given the college $500 and $1,000 to be used for a student loan fund, plus securities valued at $5,117, earmarked to help build a campus bell tower.

Burtman also said he had promised verbally to give any profits from the brick job to the college to enrich the loan fund. (The brick job will total about $20,000, of which about $3,000 should be "profit.")

After the contract went elsewhere, the Burtmans wrote asking that the college return the $5,117 in stocks. Last Wednesday the Board voted to return the stocks, the vote being 5 to 1, with Harold Fischer dissenting and Mrs. Jane Moechle absent.

FACTS and OPINIONS

by Paul Chandler

On Page One today is another story about the awarding of a brick contract in connection with the building of Schoolcraft College. This is the second story on the subject. On August 14, we ran the first account, in which a brick contractor was reported as asking for the return of a $5,000 gift in stocks to the College because he felt the Board of Trustees was guilty of a breach of good faith in not seeing that he did get the brick work.

It is one of the intriguing narratives of the summer in these parts. Facts and Opinions is not inclined to permit the matter to quietly pass away—or at least, we believe the public should know more detail before it does.

From having talked to the President of the College, and subsequently to the brick contractor, and with other information produced by Board members themselves, we have come to these conclusions:

1. When there was a chance to secure an option on the land needed for the college site, the president of the college (Eric Bradner) and board member Harold Fischer went to Sam Burtman, the brick man, and asked him if he would want to advance the $1,000 needed for the option. (The College had no cash of its own at the time.)

2. Burtman ultimately replied by providing the $1,000 and further told the Board that after the option money was repaid, they could use the $1,000 to place into a student loan fund. He earlier voluntarily had donated $500 for the same purpose.

3. One of the first discussions about Burtman providing the $1,000 for the option occurred when Bradner and a board member visited him in his home and asked if he would make the advance.

4. When these discussions were over, Burtman (rightly or wrongly) believed he would ultimately be the recipient of the brick contract.

5. Burtman and his wife, who have given similar gifts to other schools, voluntarily gave securities worth $5,000 to Schoolcraft College to be used to help build a bell tower. These gifts were not solicited, and they were made after the $1,000 land option maneuver.

6. Nine months later, Burtman was asked to mail his bid on the brick work. The request was made by telephone from the general contractor, and a bid was submitted by mail that night, June 28, 1963.

7. On July 23, 1963, Burtman wrote a second offer. This cut the June price by $1 per thousand and the delivery time from seven weeks to three weeks.

8. Bid No. 2 made the terms the same as the lowest bid received, and the same those which received the contract. In his letter covering the lower second bid, Burtman referred to, "confirming my conversation with you today, regarding our earlier quotation, the brick will cost . . . etc." The implication is clear that he wrote the second and lower bid after receiving a phone call from the contractor.

9. When the brick contract went elsewhere, Burtman angrily asked the College to return the $5,000 in securities he had donated for a bell tower. He contended that the College Board "if it wanted to" could have seen that he got the contract, by insisting that the contractor give it to him.

Board OKs Classes At Night

The Plymouth School Board gave the green light to plans for a night school vocational program aimed to prepare young adults for jobs and to help them improve themselves so that they can hold jobs.

More than that the Board granted permission for credit towards high school diplomas for work taught by members of the teaching staff.

Plans for the night school will be drawn up by a committee headed by Mike Hoben, who will assist in setting up the program through his activities as job counselor for the young adult employment service of the Y.M.C.A., with a target date of Sept. 30 for a starting time.

At the same time the Board approved a plan where Hoben will be relieved of two high school classes daily to continue his work as co-ordinator of the employment service.

Supt. Russell Isbister told the Board that a movement is underway for the Y.M.C.A. to continue financing the program as it has done during the summer, and a refund will be made to the School Board to compensate for Hoben's time.

Under the plan, Hoben will continue his teaching and counseling duties at the senior high school in the morning, take two hours off in the afternoon for the employment service and then return to the school at 2:45 p.m. to take charge of the varsity football team.

The personable football mentor will be able to devote all time in the afternoon to the "Y" chores once the football season ends.

The School Board decided to give the plan a one year trial and then evaluate it at the end of the school year before making a decision on the future.

Advertisers Deadline for Labor Day

For next week's Observer newspaper, the deadline for all advertising—both classified want ads and general retail display—is Saturday (Aug. 31) at 5 p.m.

Labor Day on the subsequent Monday is the reason. Our offices will be closed Labor Day and instead we'll be working as a full crew as late on Saturday as necessary.

The Observer next week will appear at its usual time, in your home on Wednesday afternoon.

School opens next week and it's an important one for advertisers. We'll be working overtime to process their announcements.

Ann Arbor Man Gets Clerk Job

Richard Shafer, 44, of Ann Arbor, chief accountant of Radio Station WPAG for the past eight years, will take over the duties of City Clerk of Plymouth on Tuesday, Sept. 3.

That was the announcement of City Manager Albert Glassford Monday after a careful check of the results of the written and oral examinations of the more than 64 candidates for the job. Shafer ranked high in the written tests and was one of the top three in the final choice of the oral examination committee.

He succeeds Joseph Near, who resigned in early July to take a position as assistant manager and assistant treasurer of the Plymouth Community Credit Union. Near will step into his new post on the same day that Shafer takes over at the City Hall.

"After a careful study of the reports of these in charge of the written and oral examinations, we finally chose Shafer for the job," explained Glassford.

Thus the soft-spoken Ann Arbor resident, who by terms of the city charter must establish residence in the city within 90 days, will do the many hats vacated by Near.

As City Clerk, Shafer is chairman of the election commission and director of elections, registrar of vital statistics, custodian of the city seal, recording clerk of all city boards, issues and has the power to revoke all city licenses, has charge of billing and recording finances of the Water Dept., to mention a few of his assignments.

The new city clerk is a native of Hillsdale, was graduated from the high school

Plymouth Makes Plans For Greatest Festival

Sparked by one of the greatest community wide efforts in history, Plymouth is making final preparations for its greatest Fall Festival program, one that will include four fun-packed days, that is expected to bring thousands into the community on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 5, 6 and 7 and more than 12,000 for the grand finale on Sunday, Sept. 8 when the Rotary Club stages its traditional barbeque chicken dinner.

Just mention any kind of entertainment and you'll find it listed on one of the four days and nights.

To add a bit of zest to the events, between 250 and 400 trailers from the Wally Byam Trailer Club will move into the athletic field at the Junior High East starting Thursday and be on hand for the entire Fall Festival.

The Trailer Club agreed to hold its annual fall meeting in Plymouth this year in conjunction with the Fall Festival upon the invitation of Harold Shirey, of Plymouth who is one of the leaders of the organization.

Since each of the trailers will have at least two occupants, the meeting will bring between 450 and 500 of the club members to Plymouth. They are expected to boost the business economy quite a bit during the final three days of nights of the festival.

Based on the theme of "turn back the clock" to the turn of the century, practically all of Plymouth stores will be decorated for that period and more than 500 antiques will be on exhibition in the various show windows.

There'll be stage coach rides, cider and donuts, music from a calliope from the Detroit Edison Co., bake sales, soft drinks available and numerous other items in addition to the regular daily program.

The Festival officially opens Wednesday when the Lions Club will sponsor a melon and ice cream social. The Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce will have the spotlight on Thursday with a fish fry followed by one of the pancake festivals of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club on Saturday, Sept. 7.

Then comes the grand finale—the barbeque dinner followed by the spectacular "Pageant of Drums" at the Senior High Athletic Field at 6 p.m.

On each of the days and evenings there's a different list of special events, found listed on the complete program elsewhere on this page.

Five Flee Flames In Hough Park Fire

Five persons, including two teenagers and three children under the age of nine, were routed from the blazing home of James O'Day, 1325 Park Place, shortly after midnight Sunday.

All escaped without injury although Plymouth firemen battled flames for more than four hours before finally getting it under control.

In the house at the time the fire broke out were the three O'Day children, Peggy, 8; Betsy, 8; and Timmy, 4; along with their cousins, Barbara, 17, and Lynn Bender, 16, of 908 Penniman. The Benders were staying with the children overnight while the parents were in Pittsburgh.

The flames destroyed the roof and attic for damage estimated at more than $10,000 to the home in the exclusive Hough Park subdivision.

The blaze was discovered by Marilyn Engstrom, 1381 Elm

Street, and Tony Hunt, 104 Holbrook, who had just driven into the drive at the Engstrom home when they noticed the flames.

Hunt raced to the door of the O'Day home and after considerable hammering, a wakened Barbara, who came down, opened the door and sounded the alarm to the four other sleeping youngsters.

Timmy partially fell down the stairs and was carried out by Hunt while the others raced out in their night clothes.

Meanwhile, Miss Engstrom went next door to the home of Gerald H. O'Day, 1317 Park Place, aroused Horndrop, who called the fire department.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Day had left in the morning for Pittsburgh where they were taking Mrs. O'Day's mother after a vacation in Plymouth. They returned Monday morning to get the bad news of the fire and the happy word that none had been injured.

'Pageant Of Drums' Will Add Zest To Fall Festival Menu

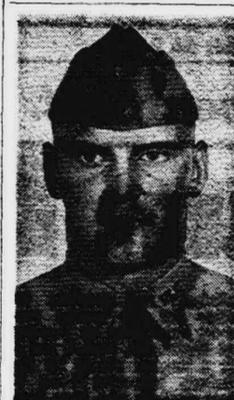

There'll be more than precision marching and martial music to the "Pageant of Drums," one of the feature of Plymouth's Fall Festival, which will be staged by the VFW May- flower Post 6695 on the senior high athletic field Sunday, Sept. 8 from 6 to 8 p.m.

That's the promise of Co-chairmen Hal Young and Ray Donal who believe the pageant is one of the most spectacular events of its kind ever presented in this section of the state.

The VFW has contracted for the appearance of five drum and bugle corps and two drill teams, totaling more than 345 persons, and all state and national champions.

Participating are: Madison Heights Marauders; Sarnia, Ontario Marching Angels, a group of teenaged girls with an average age of 14; Coldwater Blue Angels; Grand Rapids Green Hornets; Wyandotte Royal Lancers, all junior drum and bugle corps; and the Pontiac Rae-Vans and Romulus Civil Air Patrol, championship drill units.

The Marching Angels features popular melodies including such tunes as "I Married An Angel," "Beautiful Doll," "Little Girl," "Hello Everybody Hello." In addition, they have a singing group that presents chorus numbers and several solos during the course of the program.

MARINE Peter J. Boroday, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Boroday of 29519 Mark Lane, Livonia, is a recent graduate of Junior Platoon Leaders Class at the Marine Corps Schools, Quantico, Va., a course conducted for future Marine officers. He will return to college this fall to resume studies.

Bentley High Alumni Seeks Fund Donations

The Bentley High School Alumni Association announced its Alumni Fund officially at its general meeting on Aug. 17.

The fund is built by donations of $1.00 or more from Bentley graduates to help in the printing and mailing expenses of the "Alumni Album." There are over 1600 alumni living in Livonia, with many others all over the world who keep in touch with each other via the "Album." "It is unfortunate," according to George Calder, president, "that we may fold up without financial help."

A Harvest Festival, including hayrides, hootenanny, and dance, is in the planning stage for Association members on October 12, the Saturday following Homecoming. The festival will be held at O'Harra's Farm in Novi. Mary Lou (Passmore) O'Harra graduated in the class of '52. All Alumni are urged to attend this activity. "The charge will be nominal and it will be a good time to show interest in our association," is the opinion of the board of directors.

Donations can be sent to Alumni Associations, 15100 Hubbard Road, Livonia, Michigan, making sure to state name and class year.

St. Michael Aide Unhurt In Air Crash

Fr. Robert Reckinger, 38, an assistant pastor at St. Michael's Church, 11441 Hubbard, Livonia, was slightly injured when a private plane crashed near Marietta, O.

Fr. Reckinger told police he attempted to crash-land the plane in a field after it developed motor trouble.

He and Robert Connelly, 45, of Marine City, were enroute to Detroit after a vacation in Norfolk, Va.

Kiwanians Told Story Of Plymouth School Finances

The financial structure and story of operations of the Plymouth School District were explained in detail to members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club in its meeting at Lofty's Arbor-Lil.

The story was told by Supt. Russell Isbister and Board Vice President Robert Utter and Ernest Henry, the latter two are Kiwanians.

Utter told the group the tax rate of the School District included $15.90 per thousand dollars of state equalized valuation for operations, $2.80 for the 1955 bond issue and $5 for the building and site fund.

He indicated the Board spent $2,462,000 for operations in 1962 and transferred $77,000 to the reserve account. The 1963 budget totals $2,663,000.

Henry explained the differences in the educational system today contrasted with that of 30 years ago, telling of the future needs. He indicated the school system has increased from 15 square miles to more than 45 and needs are growing daily.

The community tax base must be increased to meet these additional needs," he told the Kiwanians. "The Industrial Development Corporation is one of the most important factors in our efforts to meet these needs." Isbister stated that its board members duty—Utter and Henry are members—to figure ways of getting the money for the school system and that he and his staff must prepare the budget to spend the funds most wisely.

"Plymouth will have 5,600 students enrolled this fall," he said, "These will be in all categories, the willing and unwilling, the bright and the dull. With such a wide variety of students, your school system is called upon to provide a curriculum suitable to the needs of all in attendance. "This presents a challenge we are preparing to meet. We must continually replace our equipment and textbooks. For example a map of Africa that was accurate in 1945 would not be usable today. Our teachers need constant training in new methods and techniques which we strive to attain at all times." The Plymouth Kiwanis Club has invited other service clubs and the Chamber of Commerce to an interclub meeting at Lofty's on Oct. 1.

DPW News And Notes In Plymouth

By SUPT. JOSEPH BIDA
A new water main was installed on the north end of Blunk Ave. north of Junction during the week. The City Water Department and Department of Public Works wish to thank residents in the area for being so considerate during the work.

Streets were swept in the business area and in the northwest section. Routine work was carried on at the cemetery and in the city parks and playgrounds.

A catch basin was rebuilt on N. Evergreen, a sanitary sewer service repaired and a sanitary sewer tap installed on S. Harvey and Byron.

Evans Stock Hike Approved

Shareholders of Evans Products Company approved a proposal to amend the Certificate of Incorporation of the company to increase its authorized number of shares of common stock from 2,000,000 shares to 4,000,000 shares, and to authorize 500,000 shares of a new class of Preferred Stock having no par value.

The action was taken at a special meeting of stockholders held at the offices of the company in Plymouth.

The company said it does not have any intention of issuing any common or preferred shares at this time, but that it desires leeway to permit it to financing or other proposal take advantage of any which might in the future require more capital stock than was previously authorized.

White Mums Grace Altar at Wurfel-Hawker Rites

Wedding ceremonies were held August 17 for Diane Wurfel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wurfel, 8507 Hubbard Ave., Livonia, and Lynn Hawker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Hawker, 34091 Burton Lane, Livonia.

The evening ceremony took place at Timothy Lutheran Church with Pastor Glenn Wegmeyer officiating. A floral arrangement of white mums, glads and carnations and candelabras decorated the church altar. Soloist Preston Staines sang the "Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride chose a gown of white silk peau de sole that featured a bodice fashioned with sabrina neckline and elbow sleeves trimmed with Alencon lace. The back was designed with walleau panels with the same kind of lace. A pillbox of Alencon lace and French illusion veil was worn by the bride and she carried a crescent bouquet of stephanotis and ivy with touches of velvet ribbon.

Holly Trick was maid of honor and she wore a light green silk shantung street-length jacket dress with matching accessories. She carried extreme crescents of variegated foliage accented by rosettes of camelia leaves.

Maureen Soave, Annette Hawker and Louise Wurfel were bridesmaids and wore gowns similar to the maid of honor's.

Larry Hawker was best man and ushers were Arthur Wurfel, Bruce Stenman and Richard Wooden.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her mother wore a light blue silk sheath with matching accessories and the mother of the groom wore a blue sheath with matching accessories.

A reception for 250 guests was held in Wayne Ford Civic Hall. Following a honeymoon trip to northern Michigan and Canada, the couple will make their home in Ypsilanti, where the bride studies at Eastern Michigan University. She attended the University of Michigan and the groom is a graduate of Central Michigan University.

Engaged

ROXANNE J. SMITH

Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Smith of Plymouth have announced the engagement of their daughter, Roxanne, to R. Wayne Sparkman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Sparkman, also of Plymouth. Both the prospective bride and groom will return this fall as seniors to the University of Michigan, where Roxanne is a member of Chi Omega sorority and Mr. Sparkman is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. Wayne is a returning letterman to the U. of M. varsity football team, on which he plays fullback.

Fall Fashions, Hair Styles to be Shown

St. Bernardine of Siena, Confraternity of Christian Mothers, will hold its annual fall fashion show on Wednesday, Sept. 11, at 8 p.m. in the social hall, 31463 Ann Arbor Trail at Merriam.

New fall fashions for ladies will be shown by Betty's of Cherry Hill Plaza. The latest styles for children will be demonstrated by Bambi's of Sheldon Shopping Center. Not only will clothes be shown but hair styles will be combed out on stage by Morey's of Inkster & Schoolcraft. Makeup will be supplied by Avon Products. Highlighting the evening will be Miss Laurena Prengle, noted Free Press Fashion writer, who will talk on coming fall fashions. Price of admission, with door prizes and refreshments included, is $1.50.

Bulman Co-op Takes Nursery Applications. The Bulman Co-operative Nursery is continuing to take applications for three and four year old children for its fall term. The nursery meets at 25940 Grand River Ave. near Beech-Daly Rd. in Redford Township and further information is available from Mrs. Neal Crowley, 421-3733.

FAMILY REUNION WAS held by the Wall and Gawley families last week and in attendance were five generations. Among the 66 persons attending were, left to right, Mrs. Altha Wall, Mrs. Ruble Gawley Piowski, Mrs. Margaret Singleton, Mrs. Joann Trask holding Heidi Marie, Mr. Danial W. Stewart holding Danial Miles.

Five Generations Attend Reunion Celebration Here

Five generations were present at a Wall-Gawley family reunion, held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Piowski, 18501 Laurel Ave., Livonia.

All girls, the representatives of the five generations were among 66 people who attended the reunion.

A pot luck dinner was enjoyed by Mrs. Altha Wall, St. Louis; Mrs. Margaret Singleton and her family, Highland Park; Mr. and Mrs. Max Gawley and their son, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Elone Gawley and their family, Livonia; Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Gawley and their family, Detroit; and their son, Detroit; and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Trask and their daughter, Detroit.

Guests of the family were Mr. Adam Hamilton, White Lake; Mrs. Mary Sugamoto, Detroit; and Mr. Al Brankovan, Detroit.

LADIES WHO ARE planning the St. Mary Hospital Guild annual dinner-dance are, left to right: Mrs. Fredrick Swarz, Livonia; Mrs. Joseph Drost, Livonia; Mrs. Gerald Gondek, Plymouth; Mrs. Lewis Oswald, Farmington, dance chairman; Mrs. Cleve Masson, Redford Township; Mrs. Ronald Scott, Livonia; and Mrs. Peter Kuchan, Redford Township.

Guild Plans Dinner Dance

Ladies who belong to the St. Mary Hospital Guild attended a kick-off luncheon at the Hillside Inn last week to make plans for the group's annual dinner dance.

This year, the affair will be held October 12 at Roma Hall of Livonia. Schoolcraft at Inkster Rds. Music will be provided by the Paul Maceri Orchestra and intermission entertainment will be provided by "The Mademoiselles."

Tickets for the event are $10 a couple.

Livonian To Teach Real Estate Course

Dr. Otto Hedges, 30320 W. Six Mile Road, Livonia, real estate and business law professor at the University of Detroit, will conduct one of five real estate courses being offered by the University starting Sept. 9.

Dr. Hedges will teach "Business Law of Real Estate," covering classification of property, estates in land, land contracts, deeds, land descriptions, leases, mortgages and adverse possession.

Redford Twp. Lady Hits Europe Bullseye New Service Offered To Area Blind

A graduate of Redford Union High School and a former resident of Redford Township was named winner in the Ladies' European Skeet Championship held this summer in Germany.

News came from Karlsruhe, Germany, that Betty Bates, wife of Sergeant Murray Bates, was declared Class C 20 gauge champion and 12 gauge third place winner. She was also a member of the five-member team runner-up champions. Teamed with her husband, she won a husband-and-wife championship.

Teams from seven nations competed in the event. Mrs. Bates and her husband are stationed with the 10th Special Forces Group at Bad Toelz, Germany.

MRS. BETTY BATES

The Blind Service Center of Metropolitan Detroit announces the inauguration of a new service for the convenience of blind people in the tri-county area.

This new feature of the agency's program consists of providing any blind person, free of charge, with a standard white cane delivered on request by mail. The cane provided is the conventional white with red tip, made of wood.

Raymond J. Wuenschel, the Executive Director, states "This service will enable the blind person to receive this essential equipment within approximately two days of the request."

For further details, call the Blind Service Center at TRinity 5-1000, or write to the agency at 7338 Woodward Ave., Detroit 2.

Oldest Antique Show To Open in Redford For Three-Day Run

An antique show in which the show itself can also lay claim to antiquity will be held daily, Sept. 6, 5, and 7, at Carpenter's Hall, 22521 Grand River. The Redford-Detroit Show will be held daily from noon to 10 p.m. and is in its 51st semiannual presentation, thus recognized as the oldest show in the state.

Many of the 26 exhibitors, representing 5 states, have displayed at the show in past years and have many friends among those who regularly attend, according to show sponsors.

Every item exhibited is for sale. Exhibits consist of small pieces of furniture, European china and French porcelains, early American glass and old paintings. Primitives of wood, tin, pewter and brass are shown. Stamps, coins, guns, toys and country store items will be on display.

Fair For Youth

A special Fair for Youth will be incorporated within the Michigan State Fair, which opens Aug. 23 and runs through Sept. 2. The Teen-Age Fair will include 300 special events, from spaceships to teen fashions.

Country Fair Planned by Good Counsel Church

Our Lady of Good Counsel Church of Plymouth will stage its annual Old Fashioned Country Fair in the school recreation room on Sunday, Sept. 29.

Arrangements for the affair, which met with tremendous enthusiasm a year ago, are in the hands of a committee headed by Harvey Plas assisted by Pat Hiram and Mrs. Doherty, with decorations in charge of Mrs. Rosalie Bales.

Present plans call for a family style dinner, continental sidewalk cafe, bake sale, gift shops and games of various kinds.

Other chairmen are: Mrs. Catherine Holland, Mrs. Ann Schlick, Mrs. Kay Devereaux.

Beginning with Sabbath Services on August 30, Temple Beth Am will conduct all of its func-

Mrs. Stephanie Miller, Mrs. Edna Stephenson, Mrs. Cora Davies, Mrs. Anna Eicher, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Heid, Mrs. Marty Murawski, Mrs. Nora Donovan, Mrs. Marge Di Ponio, and Mrs. Joann Voytas.

Temple Beth Am to Hold Services

Worship services, meetings of the Temple and its affiliates, and Hebrew classes will all be centralized in this Building.

Sunday School classes will continue to be held at the Coolidge School in Livonia.

'Christ Jesus' Is Lesson Topic

A Bible Lesson on "Christ Jesus" will be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Golden Text: "God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this: "Jesus is the name of the man who, more than all other men, has presented Christ, the true idea of God, healing the sick and the sinning and destroying the power of death" (p. 473).

Southfield Church Expands Bible School

The Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian between Beech and Inkster, north of Eight Mile has plans for an advance in its Bible school this fall. Meeting at 9:45 each Sunday, the Bible school offers graded instruction for children and young people and has four graded classes for adults. Here adults can take instruction in basic Bible doctrines, Bible survey, advanced Bible doctrines and Christian witnessing, "affording a good foundation for Christian faith and living," according to the pastor. Three nurseries are maintained in the Bible School and bus transportation is provided for all who desire it.

Mr. James Sager, superintendent of the Bible School, has been formulating plans with the Executive Committee during the summer weeks and announces a teacher and officer pep session for Tuesday, September 3, with a dinner meeting and special speakers.

Promotion day will be moved up to September 8 this year in order to move the pupils who have graduated in public school into their new department in Bible School. Graduates from each department receive diplomas including seals for faithful attendance, Bible memory work and scholastic work. Bible are presented to the graduates of the Primary Department.

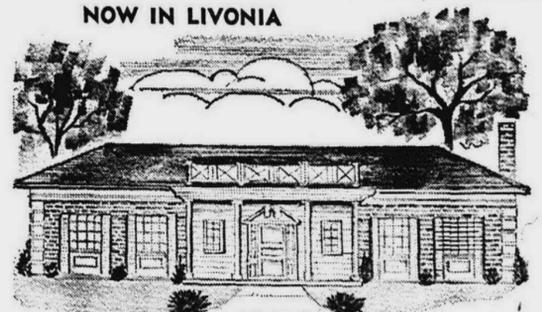

Rally Day will be September 15 with a target theme. Everybody in the Bible School will be encouraged to call on others and invite them to attend. It is hoped the target will exceed 1,000 calls.

In addition to the Bible School, the youth program of the church includes a Choir Club system, by which all departments from the primary up are organized into choirs which meet separately, during the week for rehearsal, devotional and recreational activities and sing in the church services on Sunday. These clubs will resume the first week of September.

More than 60 young people from the church attended Camp Michawana this summer.

The Temple Beth Am Religious School will re-open on Sunday, September 15. Both the Sunday School and the Hebrew School are open only to the children of Temple members.

Tickets Available for Jewish High Holiday Services

Tickets continue to be available for the High Holiday services of the Livonia Jewish Congregation. Services, to be conducted by Dr. Sylvan Ginsburgh and Cantor Henry J. Blank, will be held Sept. 18, 19 and 20 for Rosh Hashanah, and Sept. 27 and 28 for Yom Kippur. Information is available by calling GA 7-2633, GR 4-5649, or GR 4-0747.

Bob Kitts Gets Top Sales Job At Miller Dodge

Robert Kitts, 32027 Maine, Livonia, has been named sales manager of the new and used car operation of G. E. Miller Dodge Sales and Service, 127 Hutton St., in Northville. The promotion was announced by owner George Miller.

Kitts, former retail food advertising manager for the defunct Detroit Times, has been associated with several dealerships in the area. A veteran of World War II as a member of the Marines, Kitts attended Michigan State University after his discharge.

He and his wife, Janet, are the parents of two children, Robert Lee, 16, and Candy, 14.

Miller and members of his staff will attend a special preview of the 1964 Dodge cars and trucks on Aug. 29 in Detroit. The group will include: Miller, Kitts, Jack Gray, Robert Shierlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Hansen and Mrs. Miller.

The Sunday School, which will again be conducted at the Coolidge School in Livonia, consists of classes from Pre-Kindergarten through Confirmation. "Here Judaism is taught as a living, meaningful part of the everyday lives of the children, growing up in a modern environment, without sacrificing traditional warmth," according to the Temple's Teachers. From the age of three years, eight months to sixteen, the children are taught Jewish history, customs and ceremonies, Bible study, the Jewish community, modern Israel, and the ethics of Jewish lives. Folk dance, arts and crafts, music, dramatics and visual aids are also taught.

"Hebrew School attendance is encouraged for both the boys and girls of Temple affiliates—either of Beth Am or of other Reform congregations in the Detroit area," the teachers continued. This year begins the Temple's affiliation with the United Hebrew Schools of Metropolitan Detroit. The twice weekly classes will be held at the Cohn Building on West Seven Mile Road in Livonia and will be conducted by the Staff of the United Hebrew School under the supervision of Rabbi Jessel of Temple Beth Am. A minimum of three years of study are required, for Bar Mitzvah or Bat Mitzvah and it is suggested that children be enrolled at the age of nine, teachers stated.

Children may be registered at the Maly and Samuel Cohn Building, 31840 West Seven Mile Road, on the following dates: Sunday, September 8, 10 a.m. to noon; Thursday, September 12, 7 to 9 p.m.; Sunday, September 15, 9:30 a.m. at the Coolidge School.

For additional information concerning membership or Religious School enrollment, interested persons may contact Mr. Manuel P. Sheldon, GR 6-2011.

Former Jaycee President Takes Udylite Post

E. J. Campbell, 777 Adams Street, Plymouth, a past president of the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce, has joined the Electrical Division of the Udylite Corporation as a specialist of rectifiers and controls.

Campbell was Michigan sales manager for the National Electrical Division of H. K. Porter Co. and formerly with Harlan Electric Co., Campbell Electrical Contractors and Graybar Electric.

He holds an electrical license as both a journeyman and a contractor. As a planning engineer, estimator and installer, he has completed major electrical jobs for both the Federal government and private industry.

He is a former state Jaycee vice president, was active in promoting the Michigan Constitutional Convention and is a past president of the Plymouth Town Hall Committee.

He and his wife Betty reside at the Adams address with their four children.

Evicted Mom Seeks Home For Nine

Evicted from her home by court order after the new owner indicated he wanted possession as soon as possible, Mrs. Rose Tarrow, 194 Holbrook, is staying with Plymouth friends while looking for new quarters for herself and eight children.

Mrs. Tarrow, long a client of the Wayne County Welfare Dept., was ousted and her belongings placed in the street by a Livonia constable upon eviction orders of Municipal Judge Harry Deyo.

The eviction was asked by Attorney George Schmeman, 147 S. Main, who also operates the Salem Realty Co., after the multi-dwelling had been sold to an unidentified Plymouth resident who specified it must be vacated by Sept. 1.

The new owner told Schmeman he wanted to remodel and redecorate the home so that he could move into the apartment on one side and rent that on the other for income.

Mrs. Tarrow was notified of the action as long ago as June, according to reports, but couldn't find any homeowner in the Plymouth area who would rent to a family of nine.

She was shocked when the final eviction took place but is in the process of looking around again.

The Welfare Department indicated it has an allowance of $75 per month for rent but that the problem of finding a home is up to the client.

Thus if you know anyone with a home big enough to take care of a mother and eight children that is available for rent, please contact Mrs. Tarrow. She's been busy daily making the rounds but has had few nibbles.

Meanwhile, some of her children are staying with a brother in Plymouth, where the furniture is stored, and Mrs. Tarrow and the others are with friends.

Her husband? Well, there is a non-support warrant out for his arrest, if and when police find him. He hasn't been available for a long time and they have been looking for him just as long.

Make Books For Blind

Delta Gamma Alumnae of the Farmington Association will resume its regular meetings for the 1963-64 term on Monday, September 9, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Boyesen, 14169 Harrison, Livonia.

Presiding at the meetings this year will be the newly elected president, Mrs. Thomas Holland, of Plymouth. New program and directory books will be distributed among the members. These have been made during the summer by Mrs. William Gravius, of Farmington, the new program chairman. The new program of activities for the year will be discussed; it includes a trip to the Penickton Nursery for Visually Handicapped Children, the group's annual talent auction, and other events.

A project this year will again be making Touch and Feel Nursery Rhyme books for the blind children at Adams School in Livonia. These will be worked on during the first meeting.

Observer Drama Critic Describes Midwest's New Theater Center

By WALLY ROBERTS

For years the American and English theater centers have been New York City and London. Actors gravitated to these two metropolitan centers as though some immutable law, similar to Newton's, bound them inexorably. Tourists made it a point always to take in a show on Broadway. New York and London were the traditional theatrical meccas for audiences as well as professional actor aspirants.

An intrepid band of Minnesotans, Dr. Tyrone Guthrie, Doug Campbell, and two New Yorkers (Peter Zeisler and Oliver Rea) have changed the traditional picture with the opening of the Midwest's finest and first repertory theater in Minneapolis. In 1959, the organization of such a Minnesota Theater Company was but a dream. During the following three years, Dr. Guthrie and some financially influential people in Minneapolis breathed life into this dream. By May 6 of this year a $2 million theater stood ready for an audience of 1500 appreciate people.

Several cities were considered for the establishment of a first rate professional company. Detroit, Milwaukee, and San Francisco were on the list. Minneapolis, hiding sedately behind its lovely lakes and parks, let the other cities get the initial jump on them. A fat check for a half-million dollars from H. C. Walker Foundation made up for lost time. Before the Minnesotans knew what was happening Mr. Zeisler, Mr. Rea, and Dr. Guthrie decided that the city of lakes and the land of the sky-blue water was the perfect place for this new, exciting adventure in fine entertainment.

What type of plays will the Minnesota Theater Company be performing?

The first season is representative of the type of repertory you will find at the Tyrone Guthrie Theater. Important plays from Greek drama to modern works with classic potential form the criteria for play selection. Moliere's "The Miser," Shakespeare's "Hamlet," Chekhov's "Three Sisters," and Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman" are the 1963 classical quartet of theatrical masterpieces.

Great works of dramatic art are always a challenge to produce, act, or direct. Through the years the classic dramas have stood the test of time. Their messages have a universal ring to them. If properly presented, an audience goes home provoked into examining his own "reason for being." Or better yet it stimulates the viewer to finally do some belated thinking about forming a more adequate, efficient philosophy of life.

The Tyrone Guthrie theater will provide a provocative setting for such classical repertory. Its maximum flexibility gives the actors and directors every opportunity for thrilling, meaningful presentations. Basically, the Guthrie theater has the arena style. The stage is pushed out into the audience. A back wall has been retained for the actors to play against.

Given a semi-circular house and a stage that juts out into the audience Dr. Guthrie and his able assistant Douglas Campbell move the actors and the play along in a more realistic motivated manner. Proscenium style or the box-like effect of the usual stage makes many crosses and bits of stage business appear as too artificial.

The closeness of the actors to the audience (52 feet is the farthest) builds an emphatic bridge not possible in a large theater. Your rapport with the play, takes on a personal quality so necessary in the thorough enjoyment of any three-dimensional form of entertainment. You are not looking in through the "fourth wall" as in the usual theater. At the Guthrie theater your emotions move with those of the actors on the stage. Truly, living entertainment of the highest caliber.

With the emphasis on acting Dr. Guthrie carefully selected a top company of thirty-five actors from all over the nation, Canada, Australia, and England. To be in the presence of Dr. Guthrie, perhaps the most able director of all times, actors and actresses would gladly come for a mere pittance. His fame as a director throughout the English-speaking world is unmatched.

Hume Cronyn, Jessica Tandy, George Grizzard, Rita Gam, and Zoe Caldwell were selected by Sir Tyrone Guthrie as his featured leads for the first season. After viewing three of the four plays ("Miser," "Three Sisters," and "Salesman") your reporter is convinced that a finer quintet couldn't be found. To top this first season's five featured players in other years will be a Herculean task. Incidentally, Sir Tyrone will be back for two more years before shoving off to start another regional center somewhere in the United States. His three year contract guarantees the finest in classical repertory until 1966 . . . at Minneapolis.

If you still have a week's vacation left or if you are going on a long Labor Day vacation anywhere in the Wisconsin or Illinois vicinity, include the Tyrone Guthrie theater on your entertainment list. Minneapolis is not as far away as you might think. The new expressways whizz you over to Chicago before you can say triple "A" and the toll roads around Chicago make the once-fearful city invisible. Wisconsin has freeways as we do. Presently the expressways are completed to the Wisconsin Dells. You can make it to the Twin Cities by starting early and driving a safe, steady speed to the land of a thousand lakes . . . all in one day.

INFECTIOUS BOYISH GRIN belies the serious nature of the Arthur Miller play, "Death of the Salesman" now playing in repertory at Minneapolis. Lee Richardson as Biff has the difficult job of portraying a dual role: a youthful, carefree boyish Biff and the older, wiser world-weary Biff. "Death of a Salesman," directed by Douglas Campbell, investigates the ageless problem of what society's pressures do to all of us. The Minnesota Theater Company will select one modern American play each year for each classical repertory season.

AUSTERE MASHA looks longingly toward Moscow. Her dreams and desires give Chekhov's "Three Sisters" an absorbing universal theme. Rita Gam essays the role in Minnesota with a competence seldom found even today on Broadway. "THREE SISTERS," directed by Tyrone Guthrie, will play in repertory through Sept. 22 at Minneapolis.

EDITOR:
I have been following the many articles published in your newspaper, and have just finished reading your Facts and Opinions column regarding the location of the proposed Schoolcraft Road Expressway. The decision our council makes regarding the expressway location is going to help determine Livonia's future role in serving Southeastern Michigan.

It is not necessary to rattle on with old cliches or chew over old rags. The past is behind us, let us look to our future.

We have a natural industrial backbone in our railroad. Let us use this to our advantage and to its fullest potential.

The decision should not be influenced by personality differences, pressure groups, politics, etc. The problem is too important for such immature or nearsighted reactions.

Planning wise, we can control, limit and service this highly industrial corridor. Let's provide industry with the additional 150 feet and show industry that we want and appreciate their consideration in locating plants in our city.

Those that worked so hard to get the Velvet Peanut Butter Co. to locate in Livonia should be commended. This is a most beautiful addition to our city and industrial corridor. This building could well be the stepping stone to our own industrial park. Let's not stymie something which will be beautiful and profitable to our city.

Yours for a Better and Beautiful City,
Joseph L. Fleisher A.I.A.

Editor:
While the canine and feline still occupy the headlines, I feel compelled to add to the discussion.

When additional revenue is desired for school operation, we are shown figures to prove the increase in school enrollment. Now the word is that we need another Inspector because the City is larger. Has the thought ever occurred to anyone that addition and the process of reproduction is not limited to the human?

Have we figures to show the increase in the number of existing animals in our city? No doubt, this increase has been brought on by newcomers with pets and the careless attitude of SOME animal-owners with little or no regard for anyone including themselves.

It would seem that our Dog Pound could use additional help in an effort to enforce ordinances that already exist, namely the license and confinement ordinances. This would add no tax burden whatsoever. The additional revenue obtained by forced licensing and fines for CONTINUED OFFENDERS of existing laws would, I feel, produce sufficient revenue to add another man to the present force. Further, this would put the burden where it belongs—on the OWNERS of animals. Who are some folks in our city who feel that the law is not meant for them?

While Officer Mike Reed and his assistant Jack are doing a commendable job now, there does not seem to be ample time to check individuals for licenses and also spend time in court to see that justice is done to REPEATED OFFENDERS of the law.

Further, if the City is REALLY interested in solving the problem of running animals, it might consider increasing the price of animals sold from the pound. This will encourage a more selective type of purchaser—one interested enough in the animal itself to see that it is properly licensed, inoculated and also confined.

Rest assured, all complaints of violators DO NOT reach our Police Department for fear of making "bad neighbor." What is "good" about a person with no regard for his neighbors—he has already proven himself "bad."

If the present problem can't be solved, could we have an ordinance requiring the use of the bee-bee gun or sling shot on the IRRRESPONSIBLE OWNERS instead of on the animals as is now done in a few cases.

Law-abiding dog-owner

Students Welcomed By Head Of Schools

To the Students:

On Thursday, Sept. 5, 1963, the doors of the Plymouth Community Schools will swing open to the tune "Welcome Back to School."

To all of the 5,600 students who will enter those doors I extend to you my personal greetings. I know that each of you has a little different idea of what the school is and what it means to you.

I do hope, however, that all of you will see in your school an opportunity to gain an education and to develop your individual abilities and talents.

As you think about your school keep in mind that your parents and the other citizens of Plymouth Community and the State of Michigan have provided schools and the means of education so that your life, both today and tomorrow, will be a fuller one.

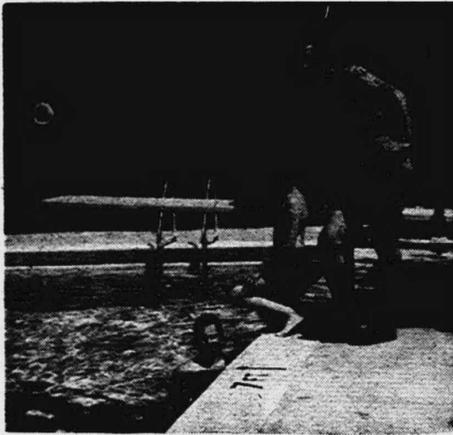

They have a big investment in you. The only possible return they can receive on this investment will be through you. When you acquire an education and become a useful, productive and law abiding citizen you will be making your repayment to them.

Remember the doors of the schools are swinging open for you. The teachers will be there to teach but the learning must be done by you.

How you approach learning will make a difference in the amount which you learn. Your attitude, habits of work, interest and determination have a direct bearing on how well you do in your studies.

May you make the most of your opportunity to acquire an education and may your school year be a pleasant and successful one. We will be pleased to have you back in school.

Respectfully yours,
Russell L. Isbister,
Superintendent of Schools

Madonna Receives Check For $900,000

Receipt of $900,000 check representing a federal loan, and start of the second phase of the $6 million expansion program, was announced this week by Sister M. Raynelda, CSSF, president of Madonna College.

The check was from the Housing and Home Finance Agency in Chicago and represents the loan for construction of the dormitory and cafeteria—each which is rapidly nearing completion.

The second phase of the giant building program already is underway. The overall planning is for construction of a 312,000 square foot complex on 49 acres of the college's 320-acre campus at the intersection of Schoolcraft and Levan Roads.

The first phase provides for a student dormitory to house 250, cafeteria with a capacity of 450, faculty residences and a guest house.

Present construction will add 200,000 square feet for academic facilities including an administration building, student activities area, 100,000-volume library, classrooms, faculty offices, science and home economic laboratories and music and art areas. The dormitories will be available for use this fall when the doors open to students on Sept. 16.

Madonna College, located at 36800 Schoolcraft has been in existence 16 years. It is a fully accredited, four-year liberal arts college, owned and operated by the Felician Sisters. It is open to all young women regardless of race, color or creed. Upon completion of the expansion program, the college will be geared for enrollment of up to 1,000 students.

Veterans Back at Franklin

It's never happened to him before . . . and probably never will happen to him again.

As Jack Hudnut, the football coach at Franklin High, surveys the scene this week in practice, he notes that graduation hasn't cost him a single member of his 1962 team.

That's because there were no seniors at Franklin last year and the school won't graduate its first class until next spring.

Hudnut has lost one fine player. Fullback Gene Yelinek has left school to enter the Navy.

Having all but one player back in one sense delights Hudnut.

"The kids know our system," he says, "and that has to help."

"Then, too, they all have worked together before and they also are experienced in the ways of varsity football competition."

But Hudnut isn't talking about a big season for his Franklin charges in '63.

"Remember we didn't win a game last year," he adds. "We had some glaring weak spots and we need help from some fine reserves if we're to do fairly well this fall."

Franklin will be embarking on its first bid for honors in the new Northwestern Suburban League which includes Thurston, Oak Park, Birmingham Groves and North Farmington in addition to the Southsiders from Livonia.

Hudnut has veteran talent at all positions. Which is to be expected.

He has four quarterbacks led by Bill Black and Dennis Wagner, who shared most of the work in '62. Sam Antonazzo has recovered from an injury and figures to help. So should Bernie Carbo, who was hurt in baseball during the summer.

At halfback, Ken Bratherton and Dick Schirmer lead the way. Jim Glynn, Jim Leamy, Dave Falzetti and reserves Dennis Frazier and Roger Frayer will give Franklin a fair amount of seasoned depth.

Ted Patrick and Larry Yonish are back to work at fullback.

Bob Varty, Len Buckingham, Neal Thomas (who was out with a broken ankle in '62), Tom Wittwer and Dave Young return at the ends. Bill Opland and Bob Taylor, up from the reserves, shape up as fine prospects.

The tackles find Bob Wiggins, Frank Henderson, Herb Wilson, Bob Platter and Doug Mackinor battling for jobs.

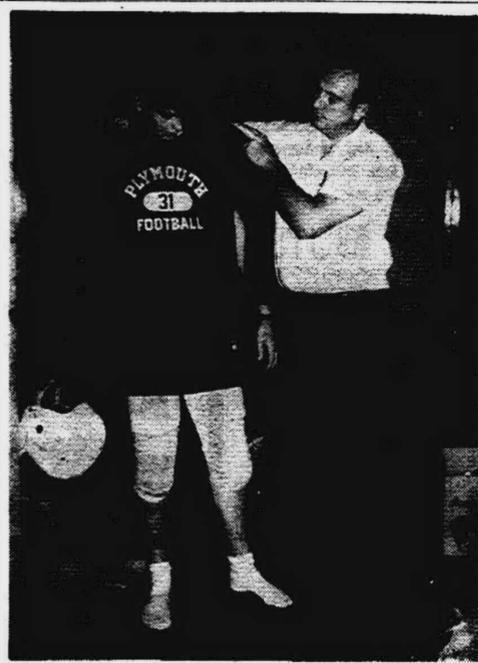

At the guards, Hudnut and his staff must decide between Joe Tremonti, Hugh Vaughn, Ron Eastep, Howard Franks, Lou Wallace and Dick Blair.

Three candidates top the center contingent. They are Larry Duffield, Terry Salisbury and Douglas Tykocki.

Franklin starts the season at Madison Heights two weeks from Friday night. Then will follow games with Berkley, Thurston, Jackson, Oak Park, North Farmington, Groves, Bentley and Wayne.

The game with Wayne, originally was to be played at Franklin. However, it has been rescheduled for Wayne to accommodate a request from Wayne officials, who otherwise would have found themselves with only three home games.

Hudnut will display his Franklin gridders this Saturday afternoon in their annual Red and Blue game.

CHECKING EQUIPMENT in an effort to get something to fit 6'7", 235-pound Terry Bevens, senior candidate for center, is Football Coach Mike Hoben of Plymouth High School. Terry took the largest helmet, the longest jersey, biggest hip pads and the widest shoulder pads.

'We'll Be Spoilers,' Says Plymouth Coach

"We'll be a young team . . . I don't think anybody can count us out of the title chase . . . we'll be spoilers . . ."

The man doing the talking was Mike Hoben, the football coach at Plymouth High School after his team had completed its first two rounds of practice.

"We'll have a young team," continued Hoben. "Nine of our lettermen a year ago were sophomores. Most of the kids we use this season still will have another campaign to go with us."

"We'll have a tough job replacing such boys as Jim Ayers, Mark Schulteis, Dick Schryer and Hugh Sarah. Ayers is going to Ferris, Schulteis to Iowa State, Schryer to Michigan and Sarah to Wyoming so Plymouth will be represented all around the country."

Plymouth will have some problems, says Hoben.

"We have nobody returning at center," the coach added. "Terry Cosgrove, our lone letter-winner back at quarterback, was not one of our regular a year ago. So a heavy load will rest on Terry's shoulders."

Checking his roster, Hoben notes that all three of last year's running backs have returned—Fullback Dave Agnew and halfbacks Robert Toby and Gary Grady.

The Rocks boast three veteran ends in Terry Clark, Dick Eglott and Bob Tomasec. Kevin Huntington, Dave Sackett and Charles Provov again are available for duty at the tackles.

The guard situation is bright for Plymouth with Hal Smith, Sanford Black, Terman Teege, Paul Densmore and Don Houk all on deck again.

The schedule facing the Rocks is by no means a softie. The opener sends Plymouth to arch-rival Northville. Then follows Farmington at home in the final prep before the Rocks embark on their Suburban Six-League grind.

On successive weeks, Plymouth faces Trenton, Redford Union, Allen Park, Belleville and Bentley in conference action. The season ends at Walled Lake in a non-leaguer.

It's Hoben's opinion that Redford Union and Allen Park will fight it out for the flag in '63, just as they did last season when they finished in a tie for the title.

"But watch out for Belleville . . ." says Hoben. "And don't count us out," concludes the veteran and popular Plymouth mentor.

Hoben has announced that the Plymouth players will hold a preview scrimmage on Saturday evening, Sept. 7, going against Taylor and Thurston.

Postmaster Shines For Softball Champs

Helping to toss around the city's mail bags may explain why Livonia's Art Jenkins is an ace slow-pitch softball pitcher.

Thanks to his trusty arm, the St. Andrew's team captured the Livonia Church League crown by beating Reorganized Church in a best two-of-three game series.

The teams battled the full route. After St. Andrew's, which had won the regular-season Limited Division laurels, had taken the first game of the playoffs, 6-2, Reorganized bounced back to square matters with a 6-4 verdict.

But in the deciding game, it was St. Andrew's all the way by a 13-1 score over Reorganized, the Unlimited Division pacesetter during the long summer's campaign.

Jenkins worked in all three games for St. Andrew's. He helped his own cause in the final game by drilling a long triple.

In the playoff among runners in Church play, St. Priscilla topped Christ the King, 12-10, for the Limited Division flag, while St. Paul Presbyterian bested Trinity Church, 7-2, for the Unlimited flag.

Merrifowl Lanes won the Class D Unlimited crown and Coulters Boys took the Limited pennant.

Mik Plum, Detroit Lions quarterback threw 325 passes in 1962, more than seven times as many as the 1937 Lions passing leader, Bill Shepherd, who attempted 46 throughout the season.

Temby Coach At C'ville

It was our goof! Mike Hoben hasn't taken over as football coach at Clarencoville High. Hoben still is at Plymouth.

In command at Clarencoville is Ralph Temby, who was promoted from assistant to the head job replacing Lynn Nutter, now the school's full time athletic director.

Girls To Battle In State Play

Two of Livonia's girls softball teams are state-tourney this week.

The Commercial Grading team, led by Bob Bowen, will contest in the state Class C tourney which begins on Saturday at Coldwater.

Meantime, the Michigan Bell team of Livonia, under the guidance of Bob McKim, will head for Lansing and the Michigan Class D. tourney.

State's Top Fillies Clash at Wolverine

Detroit and Michigan harness racing fans will have an opportunity to see the state's fastest two and three-year-old pacing fillies in action Thursday and Friday at Wolverine Raceway in the first of the series of six $5,000 Colt Stakes.

Before the end of the six-stake series, all of Michigan's outstanding two and three-year-olds will have performed at the half-mile strip at the Detroit Race Course.

Wolverine annually sponsors the series which is limited to the top 10 in the season long point standings.

But the two filly events are different, the girls already have completed their colt stake chores and it will be the champion against the other nine contenders.

Thursday's two-year-old pace attracted a field of eight including Lady Evergreen, the 1963 champion who carries the colors of Dr. Donald Comers of Birmingham.

The fleet lassie won 10 of the events at the county fairs and rolled up a commanding total of 68 points to win the crown handily.

Her nearest rival is Howard

McAra's Cottonwood Mighty with five wins and 47 points and Doug Yerkey's Dinky Dew with 40 points on three firsts.

Others in the field are: Sun Dust, Loose Talk, Royal Swan, Gale Time and Stormy Weather.

Paul Linehan's Maid Adios is the leader in the three-year-old division with 43 points followed closely by C. M. Saunders' Lona Bay, with 40. Officials of the Michigan Harness Horsemen's Association are still checking the points in this division to make sure that Maid Adios is the champion.

Other top contenders are: Bill Eggers' Tess Lady with 38, Eleanor Leach's Nell Knox 31 and then follow Peachie Queen, Karry K. Armada Queen and Miss Rose Adios.

Livonia Dogs Receive Trophies

A 2½-year-old, 15-inch Beagle, owned by Clement M. Sigg's Shadyside Kennels of Livonia, took a best-in-show trophy at the Pontiac Kennel Club's all-breed dog show in Waterford August 18. Receiving the trophy was Ch. Perky's Ringmaster.

The dog had the prize all wrapped up because there weren't any other entries in his class. Another dog which won group honors and which had no opposition in his class was Ch. Ber-Neil's Jeepers Jackie, a French Bulldog owned by Ralph West, also of Livonia.

AF Presents Honor Award To Livonian

Capt. Jack K. Evert, of Livonia, now stationed in Los Angeles, has been decorated with the U.S. Air Force Commendation Medal for meritorious service.

Capt. Evert was awarded the medal for his outstanding performance in a program which built and successfully orbit tested a new concept to convert the sun's rays into electrical power for space vehicles.

He was graduated from Bentley High School in 1950. He received his B.S. in aeronautics from the Air Force Institute of Technology. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Evert, 11584 Cavell, Livonia.

'Holiday On Ice' Names Six Dates In Cobo Arena

Tickets go on sale Tuesday for the 19th edition of the Holiday on Ice, International Ice Spectacular, to be held in Detroit's Cobo Arena, Oct. 8 through Oct. 13.

Performances will be staged nightly along with matinees on Saturdays and Sundays. Children under 16 will be admitted to the Saturday matinee at half price.

Audience enthusiasm experience last season by the introduction of several foreign stars to Holiday's American company has encouraged Morris Chalfen, the revue's president, to initiate a "cultural exchange program" of his own among his several world-touring groups.

As a result, many skaters familiar to Americans, will be appearing abroad this winter while a host of foreign greats will be making their debuts in this country.

Leading the stars coming to the U.S. for the first time will be Hanna Eigel, the former European and International golf medalist and runnerup for world figure-skating honors. Mary and Jimmy Peacock, fun-making specialists from British and Continental revues; Hami Brown, a pantomime impressionist from Scotland; and Gene Thesfor and Swedish queen, Vivi-Anne Hulten, ballroom exhibitionist on ice, will thrill Americans for the first time.

The 19th Holiday program include six spectaculars. Featured will be a Ziegfeldian-like extravaganza, "Showtime on Broadway," "Barn Dance, U.S.A.," a saga of Western America in song and dance, "A Love Tale of Japan," and "The Enchanted Clock Shop."

Seats may be purchased at the main box office at Cobo Arena or at Grinnell's Downtown, Birmingham and Pontiac stores. Mail requests should be sent to Holiday on Ice, Cobo Arena, Detroit 26.

Honor Youths at 4-H Fair

A Livonia boy was chosen to represent this area at a Lansing championship 4-H show, and several other local youths were honored with prizes at the Belleville 4-H Fair August 13-16.

Chosen to enter the state competition with an electric radio project was Edward Chaudoin, 14, son of 4-H Go Getters Club leaders Mr. and Mrs. K. Chaudoin, 11860 Alois. The youth constructed a five-tube radio as his project.

Others who were honored at the fair included: Kathy Roshirt, 36713 Richland, who entered baking, sewing, canning and flower competitions; Kathy Eastlake, 36609 Ann Arbor Trail, baking; Carol Larsen, 38730 Angeline Circle, baking; Sharon Ann Garrison, 11309 Southworth, Plymouth, baking, sewing and handicrafts; Ronald Chaudoin, 11860 Alois, baking and leathercraft; Mike Townsend, 36028 Hees, baking and leathercraft; and Donald Deegenhardt, 11716 Jarvis, who took a first prize in cooking.

Still others were David Regan, 37580 Plymouth Rd., who entered entomology and cooking competitions; John Broderick, 11716 Jarvis, leathercraft; Al Jose, 31415 Arizona, foods.

Enroll Now For Touch Football

Interested in playing on one of Livonia's adult touch-football teams this fall?

You can register now by phoning the recreation department (GA 1-2000) or dropping a note to the office on Farmington Road.

According to Al Roscoe, who's in charge of athletics for the Livonia recreation department, indications are that the number of "touch" teams will swell from 10 to 16 for the 1964 season.

Senior Citizens Visit Canada

Last Wednesday, 73 members of the Livonia Senior Citizens Club took a bus trip to Port Huron and across the Blue Water Bridge to Canada. Lunch was eaten at the Village Inn in Sarnia. Another stop was made at Chatham and then the busses proceeded to Windsor. "Much singing and good fellowship were enjoyed by all," said Club President Florence Trevena, "and at 6:30 p.m. we arrived at the parking lot of St.

Andrews' Church, tired but very happy after a most wonderful trip." This year at the Michigan State Fair, a Senior Citizen award was instituted as an annual event. The Senior Citizens' Club of Livonia entered the name of Mr. William Ackerman as that of the member who had done outstanding service to others in our community. Mr. Ackerman is a nominee for this award which will be presented at the Michigan State Fair on Wednesday, June 28, at 11:15 a.m. Judges for this award are Mr. Gary Hansen, Director of the Michigan Commission on Aging; Mrs. Caddie Gerrie, of the Recreation Association of Michigan; and Mrs. Ralph Guiney, planning consultant for United Community Services to the Aged. "Our Club is both proud and happy to have received this honor through the services of our member, Mr. William Ackerman," said Mrs. Trevena.

Tax Collections Top Twp. Record

A record 96 per cent collection of 1962 taxes was reported this week by Redford Township Treasurer John Bennett. Of $8,182,044.30 levied, only $335,408.06 was returned delinquent to the Wayne County Treasurer. More than half of the $7,846,636.24 collected was paid at branches of Manufacturer's National Bank and the Detroit Bank and Trust Co., saving clerical expense at the Township Hall, Bennett added.

Area Leaders To Attend Scout Meet

More than 3,500 professional leaders of the Boy Scouts of America, including 10 from the Livonia-Redford area, will gather at the University of Illinois in Champaign, Ill., for the 12th National Training Conference, Aug. 29 through Sept. 4.

Every four years Scout Executives from all parts of the United States undergo an intensive period of training under the direction of the organization's national officials.

Attending from Livonia and Redford: Field Director Victor Brown, 19025 Edinborough; Northridge District Executive Donald Dickerson, 15356 Fenton; Assistant Scout Executive Walter McKenna, 16871 Fielding; Public Relations Director Ron Randall, 15367 Evergreen; Greenfield Assistant Executive Lawrence Smith, 9975 Lucerne, all of Redford; University District Executive James Gelwicks, Jr., 32911 Hees; Field Director Charles Gribble, 33353 Kentucky; Redford District Executive Edward Hall, 11341 Inkster, of Livonia; Redford Assistant Executive Director Richard Gregory, 3902 Mark Orr, Royal Oak; and Director of Camping James Merry, 18415 Fenton, of Redford.

Plymouth Teachers To Meet

The doors to schools in the Plymouth School District won't open for classes until Thursday, Sept. 5, but work begins for teachers on Tuesday, Sept. 3, in the traditional pre-school conference.

The affair, arranged by the school administration gives teachers a chance to renew friendships and to get acquainted with the 44 new members of the teaching staff. The conference will be held in the gymnasium of the Junior High East and starts at 9 a.m. with coffee and donuts. The program actually gets underway at 9:30 a.m. when greetings will be extended by Supt. Russell Isbister, School Board Vice President Robert Utter and Chamber of Commerce President John Herb.

Principals of the various schools will step to the podium and introduce the new members of their faculties followed by group singing under the supervision of Germaine Ludwig, music teacher for the elementary schools.

Dr. Roger Leatherman, of Eastern Michigan University, will deliver the principal address on the subject "Teaching in the Space Age."

John Howe, popular president of the Plymouth Education Association, will give a preview of the activities planned by the PEA during the school year. There'll be lunch at noon at the school and then the teachers will join with the principals of the various schools at the buildings for pre-school staff meetings.

The conferences will be resumed Wednesday with sessions from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. in each of the schools under the direction of the principals.

The two-day pre-school events will end with a reception for new teachers Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. at the Mayflower Hotel.

Plymouth Parolee Caught In Act Of Robbing Office

Nabbed by Plymouth Police while inside the building and in the act of robbing the Detroit Mutual Insurance Co., 333 Plymouth Road, William R. McCants, 39, 9075 Oakview, Plymouth Township, faces charges of breaking and entering at night time, according to police reports.

McCants, who was paroled from Jackson Prison on July 30, appeared before Livonia Judge Robert Lorion, serving in place of Plymouth Judge Harry Deyo. He stood mute, waived examination and was bound over to circuit court under $5,000 bond.

Mayor Urges All To Enjoy Fall Festival

Citizens in the Plymouth Community are urged to join in the fun and festivities of the annual Fall Festival by Mayor Richard Wernette in a proclamation designating Sept. 2 through Sept. 8 as Plymouth Community Fall Festival week.

The proclamation: "Whereas this Plymouth Community is planning its annual Fall Festival.

"Whereas the Fall Festival brings about a spontaneous effort on the part of business, industry, and residents in order to provide a memorable occasion each year.

"I do hereby proclaim that the week of Sept. 2 through Sept. 8 be designated as the Plymouth Community Fall Festival week and urge that every citizen of this Plymouth Community join in the fun and work to insure an enjoyable Festival for our friends and neighbors.

James Orvis Named President of Suburban Employers Association

James Orvis, director of industrial relations at Whitman and Barnes, is the new president of the Suburban Employers Association of Western Metropolitan Detroit.

Others named at the annual election include: Gordon Packard, head of the Plymouth branch of the Michigan Employment Security Commission, vice president; Charles Sizemore, of Western Electric, secretary; and Fred Linsell, of Burroughs Corp., treasurer.

Orvis, who resides in Farmington Township with his wife and two children, is a graduate of the University of Michigan. Prior to joining Whitman and Barnes, he was associated with Thompson Ramo Wooldridge and Pfeiffer Brewing.

He is a member of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, Industrial Relations Association of Detroit and the American Society of Training Directors.

Editor:

In regards to Facts and Opinions in the August 21st issue of the paper, frankly I think you are away off base. Nothing is as one-sided as the way you presented the Schoolcraft freeway case.

In other words, in your column you are saying that the whole council voted the way they did just to spite the Mayor. Oh come now.

Near the end of your column you called it "another council vs. Mayor hair pulling." I say if our elected Mayor, one man, cannot get along with the seven men elected to the council, we should rid ourselves of the one loose bolt in the machinery, rather than the seven who are doing their jobs.

Sincerely,
Miss W. C. Araman

I have lived in Livonia now for some time. There are several things which disturb me about the city, but two in particular are notable. They are: Handbills in postal boxes and door to door salesmen. Both are, or should be, a concern of the government of a responsible city because that government is in theory charged with the happiness and well being of the citizen.

First, handbills in postal boxes are illegal. They are in violation of federal law. They are unsolicited and unasked for. A citizen's duty is to report such offenses to the post office. Further, a citizen can make the moral decision to avoid patronizing a business which uses such tactics.

Door to door salesmen, peddlers, solicitors, what ever you choose to call them are a nuisance. There are cities which regulate them. There are laws which can be passed to restrict them. One might even hope that a wise city would eliminate unsolicited material entirely. I have heard of cities where ordinances are enforced which make this sort of thing rare. Where the problem is solved by a simple call to the police department.

Privacy can be obtained in our noisy, crowded world — if you have a citizenry that wants to work for it.

Sincerely,
David V. McQueen
Livonia

Recently, the residents of Harrison Road opposite the Wilson School Park were plagued with teen-age rowdism. Every night for about three weeks large gangs of teen-age boys and girls battered children's swings, carved picnic

Along Realty Row

Richard Funk, president of the United Northwestern Realty Association and Western Wayne County Board of Realtors, is associated with his brother, Thomas, in the Funk Realty Co. on Five Mile Road in Livonia. They have been active in real estate projects in the fast-growing city since 1952.

Funk, Funk was appraisal chairman for the Association for two years prior to being elected president. He serves as a lecturer for the University of Michigan real estate courses and has done extensive property evaluation appraisal for private business and local municipalities.

He served as chairman of the Realtors Advisory Committee of the Livonia Board of Tax Review in 1961 and currently is chairman of the Tax Review Board.

Funk, president of the Livonia Rotary Club, has been active on committees for the Livonia Board of Education and the Northwest Wayne County Community College now known as Schoolcraft College.

He and his wife Lucille have lived in Livonia for 10 years and reside with their four children, Pamela, Rick, Rob and Russ, at 15942 Norwich. He is a past president of the Coventry Gardens Improvement Association.

Funk has long been interested in championship cocker spaniels and developed many at his Lancaster Kennels until the press of the real estate business forced him to turn his attention in that direction.

However, he is a nationally recognized licensed judge of the American Kennel Club and officiates at shows from coast to coast. He loves to play golf and bowl and enjoys swimming.

Prior to entering the real estate field, he was with Termosted division of General Motors for five years as an accountant and spent nine years as general manager of the Great Lakes Theater Co. in Detroit.

Continuing interest has been shown by patrons both young and old, according to Mr. Rosenthal, in the group of life stories of great Americans related by President Kennedy in his "Profiles in Courage."

Among recently published biographies about outstanding Americans are "Sam Houston: American Giant," by M. K. Wisheart; and "Promises to Keep: The Life of Dr. Thomas Dooley," by Agnes Dooley.

In the field of science, the story of Albert Einstein has long been popular with students for book reports. A recent and most readable biography of Einstein is Peter Michelmore's "Einstein: Profile of the Man." Other scientist biographies in the library include both standard and recent lives of Darwin, Madame Curie, Johannes Kepler and many others.

Among the most popular subjects of biography and autobiography in recent years have been celebrities of the movie and theater world. Recently issued are Bette Davis' "The Lonely Life" and Joan Crawford's "A Portrait of Joan." Among the best-loved of all time in theater biographies and autobiographies are Moss Hart's "Act One," and Gene Fowler's "Good Night Sweet Prince," a biography of John Barrymore.

Figures of war are a continuing subject of biographical interest. Among the life stories of great generals are "General Omar Bradley's 'A Soldier's Story,'" and General Mark Clark's "Calculated Risk."

tables, broke soft drink bottles in the street, and shouted obscenities till the small hours of the morning.

In addition to this harassment, cars driven by these youths constantly exceeded the speed limit for a playground area thus endangering those youngsters who ventured to cross the street or played on the sidewalk in front of our homes during the day.

About two weeks ago, a group of youths became so loud and foul in their language that the police were called in to put an end to the gutter language and systematic destruction of the park facilities. The police immediately responded by sending traffic patrol cars and motorcycle patrolmen during the day and at irregular hours at night. Because of the constant patrolling by the police, the number of teen-age youths in the park diminished by 90 percent after the first week and the destruction of park facilities was reduced.

Although we still have 10 percent of the youths to cope with, we wish to express our gratitude to the officers of the Livonia Traffic Bureau. Thanks to their efforts the youngsters of Livonia can play in the park again (if they are careful not to fall on the broken glass) and the Harrison Road residents can sit on their front porches without listening to obscene language.

In addition to expressing our thanks to the Livonia Police, we would like to ask the parents of teen-age youngsters residing in the metropolitan area of Livonia, Redford the following question: Do you really know where your sons and daughters are at night? and more importantly, do you know what they do during these hours?

The Residents of
Harrison Road

Editor:

Being a life-long Michigander, I have been stunned by the outrageous consequences resulting from Civil Rights demonstrations. It is unbelievable that it should happen in a State that excelled in tolerating the Negroes and helping them to make progress.

When a minority of 11 percent Negroes hold almost 15 percent Federal jobs, and when Detroit's 28 percent Negroes hold 46 percent of government jobs, someone is wrong in saying that the Negroes are being discriminated. Furthermore, if our Negroes lived up to equal rights, they would not exceed their quota.

There has been much publicity showered upon rights of Negroes, but very little upon the evils it created. Apparently, our leaders just don't know human nature. Everybody wants the Negroes to get their civil rights, but nobody worries about the rights of the American Indian, the Mexican, the yellow race, or even the average white man.

Religious leaders and politicians have joined extremists in demanding quick subjugation to Negro demands on grounds they are impatient. Now, how about the rights of others? If this is a democracy, then let's all join in over-throwing the government. What, do I sound subversive? Well, why doesn't some one say that about the outrageous demands of the Colored organizations?

If anybody still thinks that Civil Rights will bring prosperity, freedom and happiness to America, he should know what is happening in Liberia, the Congo and other so-called independent nations.

Liberia is a Negro Republic in Africa, settled by freed American slaves, who colonized in 1822. In 1847, Liberia declared its independence from all except evil ideology. Although its Constitution warrants religious and civil freedoms, you just don't get it if you are a native or just a visitor. Just this year a brutal religious persecution took place in Gbarnga, Liberia, that could be compared to Nazi tyranny.

Brick Supplier Gives His Own Version

for having a laboratory building. When he quoted me the cost of same, which was more than I could afford, I questioned him about the Bell Tower, which is quite artistically designed. He told me that approximately $5,000 would pay for the transformer and the bell. I presented him with securities amounting to over $5,000 at the time of the ground breaking.

"Then it came to the selection of the face brick. The architect on this project selected one of the lines of brick which is sold by my company. The architect also selected samples similar in color and quality from a competitor.

"The successful building contractor contacted me on June 28, 1963, asking me to give him a quotation regarding the face brick.

"Century Brick's price as per brick samples submitted was $67 per thousand, plus $1.00 for palletizing which is optional to the contractor, not $74 as stated in the newspaper account.

"On July 23, I repeated the offer of $67 /M with the option of palletizing at no charge. Therefore, I wish to point out that my price was exactly the same as my competitor's.

"In view of the fact that I currently have existing scholarship money at Brandeis University and other educational institutions without any compensations or brick orders, I wish the readers of Observer Newspapers to know the true spirit of this gift and to realize that even if I had kept the full profit, which I had promised to add to the earlier donations, this profit would in no way equal the amount of the donation that I had already made.

"Respectfully yours,
"Sam Burtman,
"Sam Burtman Company"

The Burtmans appeared at last week's Board meeting to explain their reasons for requesting return of the $5,117.

During the course of their talks, it was brought out publicly that the College hadn't actually repaid a $1,000 loan made by Mrs. Burtman to secure an option for the land for the new campus.

The Board was ready to make the payment, members said, when Mrs. Burtman requested the money be placed into the Student Scholarship and Loan Fund of the college. She earlier had given $500 to the fund for a "Mollie Burtman Fund." The Burtmans didn't include this fund in their demands, requesting only return of the stock.

The Board action came after receipt of opinions from Legal Counsel Edward Draugelis who said that "(1) There is no legal duty on the part of the Board of Trustees to return the gift, and (2) Since the gift of the shares of stock is not tax revenue, these shares may be returned to the donor at the discretion of the Board of Trustees."

The Board received final plans for the library from the architectural firm of Eberly Smith and Associates, instructed Business Manager Kenneth Lindner to advertise for bids which will be due on Sept. 18 when the contracts will be let. The architects estimated the cost of the new library building at $400,000.

President Dr. Eric Bradner was given authority to search for and hire 10 instructors, the first of more than 50 faculty members needed by the time the college doors open in September 1964.

The Board was informed that the 1963 state equalized valuation of the Northwest Wayne County Community College district is $562,780,712. This is apportioned among the several counties in the district as follows: $548,872,707 for Wayne County; $12,728,484 for Oakland County; and $1,125,521 for Washtenaw County.

Facts, Opinions

10. Last week the Board voted to return the $5,000 in securities.

11. The College Board still holds the $500 gift and the $1,000 gift (used for the land option). Both are earmarked now for a student loan fund and Burtman has not asked that they be returned.

12. Any profit in the brick contract (about $3,000) would have been far less than the $6,500 Burtman had given the college in gifts.

Without going any further, Facts and Opinions would argue that the brick man has a right to feel betrayed. An implied promise, by men who represent the college, was not kept. The promise was implied when they asked him to provide the $1,000 for the land option, no matter what else was or was not said.

Secondly, the $1,000 should be returned, plus interest, along with the $5,000. If Burtman wants to re-submit the $1,000 for the student loan fund, then it could be accepted on the basis, and that alone.

Thirdly, the contract should have gone to Burtman (and still should, if that is possible) on the basis of his first (June) bid, even though it would cost $300 more for the bricks. The College and the public will more than get its money's worth, and there is a point of honor involved.

Fourthly, there should be an open hearing on the episode conducted by the Board of Trustees, with both sides present and testifying. As it stands, the public is out $5,000 in a private gift which was given to the College, and then withdrawn and action by our elected representatives is responsible for the $5,000 "loss."

New City Clerk

there, attended Spencer Business School in Schenectady, N.Y., took courses in accounting at the University of Michigan and has had years of experience in that field.

Shafer has been a leader in Y.M.C.A. activities in Ann Arbor, serving as district governor of the 'Y's' Men's Club of south central Michigan which includes 23 clubs and has been a member of the Ann Arbor Club for several years.

Prior to joining the staff at WPAG, he was a technical statistician for Chrysler at the Chelsea proving grounds, operated a combination gasoline station-store in Hillsdale and was a wholesale distributor of brass and copper fittings and equipment.

He has been active in programs of the Methodist Church and served as Sunday School superintendent for several years.

He and his wife, Marjory, and daughter, Karen Joy, 3, reside at 912 Sybil St. in Ann Arbor but will start looking for a home in Plymouth as soon as possible.

Although his appointment wasn't official until this week, Glassford introduced Shafer to the staff of the clerk's office and to department heads Friday and also to members of the Rotary Club at the weekly meeting in the Mayflower Hotel.

The new City Clerk will meet the City Commission for the first time in an official capacity at the first regular meeting in September on the same day he takes office.

Neither Glassford nor Shafer gave any indication as to his starting salary but it is believed to be in the neighborhood of $7,000.

Plymouth Fills 44 Vacancies

There'll be 44 new faces in the teaching staffs of Plymouth School district schools when the doors open for classes on Thursday, Sept. 5, according to Supt. Russell Isbister.

Isbister and the school board have filled 41 positions and three are still vacant but will be staffed by the time classes start.

The new teachers by schools and assignments are:

SENIOR HIGH
Richard Egner, business education; Phyllis Kelley, business education; Gerald Ramsey, business education; Brigitte Rauer, German-English; William Raisch, social studies; Carolyn Sam, Art Spanish; Warren VandenBosch, social studies; and Gerald Welch, English-social studies.

JUNIOR HIGH EAST
John Bacon, English-social studies; Janice Bridges-social studies; Sally DeRoo, sixth grade; Marie-Claire Hopkins, Spanish, return from leave of absence; and Carroll Nichols, sixth grade.

JUNIOR HIGH WEST
Erik Collins, sixth grade; Phyllis Irish, sixth grade; Edgar Kleinsmith, sixth grade; and Lauren Dennison, industrial arts, and Raymond Syniewski, English-social studies for both schools.

BIRD SCHOOL
Joan Liang, kindergarten (half-time), Derald McKinley, sixth grade, and Raymond O'Toole, sixth grade.

FARRAND SCHOOL
Barbara Feret, second grade; Irene Finkbeiner, third grade; Patricia Geister, kindergarten; Janet Lodge, first grade; Mary Matzen, kindergarten; Ella Ramsey, second grade; Mary Snitgen, fourth grade.

GALLIMORE SCHOOL
Lucy Craske, second grade; Lois Parker, first grade; Marlene VanderVelde, fifth grade; and one first grade teacher to be hired.

SMITH SCHOOL
Joan Engel, kindergarten; fifth grade; Judy Taggart, third grade; Mary VanderWoude, second grade; Sonja Windisch, first grade.

STARKWEATHER SCHOOL
Second and third grade teachers to be hired.

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS
Barry Campbell and Paul Cummings, physical education; Lana Nail, music education; Beverly Graham, art education.

Board

Supt. Isbister, Philip Johnson was appointed a fulltime occupational co-ordinator for the in-school youth program at the senior high. He replaces Urey Arnold who resigned in mid-July to accept the position of Superintendent of Richmond Schools.

The National Bank of Detroit, Plymouth branch, was awarded $550,000 in bonds for the operating fund on a bid of 1.82 per cent and the $475,000 issue for building and site sinking fund on a bid of 1.99 per cent.

The Board approved the appointment of William Nelson as a public relations counselor to handle the makeup and editorial work on the annual report brochure. Nelson was given a deadline of Oct. 1 to have the brochure ready for distribution.

The Board set a tax rate of 2.80 mills on the basis of the state equalization valuation.

In other actions, the Board approved:

A one-year leave of absence for Margaret Roberts, first grade teacher at Allen School.

Heard plans for the annual pre-school conference on Sept. 3.

Passed resolution accepting a check for $477 from the Band Parents Association to be used for transportation for the band to the National Music Camp.

Plans Progress For Book Fair

"Plans for the 12th Annual Jewish Book Fair are moving forward rapidly." Mrs. Arthur Gould, 10454 Ludlow, Huntington Woods, Book Fair chairman, announced this week. "The increasing interest in each year's Book Fair has encouraged the Jewish Community Center, sponsor of the fair, to extend this program from the original three day event to the present 18 day program."
 "Some 25 organizations will present a wide range of programs, including drama, music, art, lectures, educational workshops, Hebrew and Yiddish speakers, book reviews, and Contemporary Literature." Participating with Dr. Syrkin on the panel will be Rabbi Sherwin Wine of Windsor. "We see this 18 day period as a genuine cultural festival, high point in Jewish life and a real contribution to the Detroit community," said Mrs. Gould.
 Working with Mrs. Gould on the Book Fair Executive Committee are Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mrs. Milton Berry, Mrs. Morris Friedman, Mrs. Walter Hirschberg, Mrs. Miles Jaffe, Mrs. Louis G. Redstone, Mrs. Samuel Linden, and Mrs. Jack Alsdorfer.
 The 12th Annual Jewish Fair will be held at the Jewish Community Center, 18100 Meyers Road from Nov. 9 - 26.

Women's Division Institute during this period. This broadened participation is, we feel, a giant step forward in bringing the Book Fair to the entire Jewish community. Indeed the Book Fair Committee acts more and more in a coordinating capacity, providing and displaying the best possible selection of books by significant Jewish authors. We are presenting only one program, the opening event, on Sunday evening, November 10, when Dr. Marie Syrkin of Brandeis University will be the principal speaker in a symposium on "The Changing Image of the Jew in ROBERT SECORD, PRESIDENT of the Music Boosters of Franklin High School, accepts a check for $490.79 from Mrs. Olson Hensley, representing the Livonia Congress of Civic Affairs; Mr. Paul Hower, director of the Lamplighter Lions; and Mr. Max Johnson, secretary of Local 118, AFL-CIO Public Employees Union. The funds will help pay for uniforms for Franklin High School band, chorus and orchestra members. Other groups who wish to donate funds to this effort may call Mr. Secord, GA 1-5646, or Mrs. Hensley, GA 1-7095.
