Local Clergyman Asks Action Here On 'Racial Justice'

Unusual and fervent, a plea for residents of this area to do something about facing the problem of "racial justice" was heard from the pulpit of the First United Presbyterian Church, in the all-white City of Plymouth.

Rev. Edward W. Castner, associate minister of the Plymouth church, said that "no longer in Plymouth can we utter, 'Let sleeping dogs lie' . . . no longer can we say no Negroes want to live here, and that it is not a problem for us."

"What with the numerous state and county institutions surrounding Plymouth with Negro employment, and, with professional Negroes who have expressed interest in living here and who have tried to live here, we cannot look the other way."

"Moreover, we now have the executive orders that new housing financed by federal funds, must be sold without discrimination. Still, as Christians our reason for acting ought not to be merely one of prudence. Rather, our actions ought to arise out of a new sense of urgency to practice what we believe—to seek to right what long have been grievous wrongs.

" . . . the core of the racial situation lies in the all-white residential communities that circle our cities. It is exactly in those communities where there is the loudest talk about freedom and the most shouting about communism, that the very fundamentals of our constitutional system and our Biblical faith are most vigorously violated."

During the course of a 50-minute sermon, Rev. Castner made specific suggestions for action by residents of all-white suburban areas, and he discussed some "assumptions" about Negroes which he said should be challenged.

"First of all, one of the best things we can do is to become informed, to get the facts. There are a great many false assumptions and stereotyped images, existing in our minds and in the minds of our friends, that must be challenged by the facts. And very often we find ourselves in a position where this can and needs to be done. For, the subject of racial integration is a very frequent topic of conversation in the home, at parties, at work and in our various clubs."

"Consider some of the assumptions which ought to be challenged, such as property values always go down when Negroes move in. There are many studies which can be cited as evidence that this is false. Perhaps the most extensive study is one conducted by a Dr. Laurenti of the University of California. During a five-year period he analyzed 10,000 home sales on the east and west coasts. All white areas were carefully matched in every important price-determining respect with racially mixed districts of up to 60 percent non-white population. Sales data were collected from the period well before entry of non-white families and continuing over several years of mixed occupancy. In 40 percent of the comparisons there was no change in the property value. In 45 percent of the comparisons the property values increased and did so from five percent to 26 percent higher. In 15 percent of the comparisons, the values went down. But very often in these cases it was not because of the Negro, but rather it was due to white panic selling and giving in to unscrupulous black buyers. Thus, for 85 percent of the cases studied

City Hall Bids Total $459,440

The Municipal Building Authority knows now that the new Plymouth City Hall will cost quite a bit more than the $417,095 estimated by the architectural firm of Wheeler and Becker.

Bids for the new construction were opened Friday afternoon by members of the MBA in conjunction with representatives of the City Commission and Paul Schneider, Housing and Home Finance Agency representative from Detroit, and totalled slightly more than 10 per cent higher than the estimates.

On the basis of the bids submitted the construction costs, without taking into consideration the various alternatives which would lower the figure considerably, totals $459,440.

Low bid for the architectural trades was submitted by the Burger Construction Co. of Plymouth, with an offering of $318,000. Nelson Plumbing and Heating Service of Dearborn was low in the mechanical trades with a bid of $89,600. Shaw Electric of Livonia has the low offering in the electrical trades with its bid of $51,840.

MBA Chairman Harold Guenther has ordered a complete study of all low bids with alternatives by the Authority this week and hopes to be able to present a recommendation to the City Commission within another week or 10 days.

"We are perfectly happy with the bids," he said. "We anticipated that they might go as much as 10 per cent over the estimates after learning of what had happened on construction bids for other public and school buildings in the area in the past several months."

"However, the members of the Municipal Building Authority will study every phase of every bid and hold informal discussions with members of the City Commission before making our recommendation to the Council."

The city received a matching grant of $255,000 from the federal government through the HHFA offices. However, it must bear the entire cost for any amounts over the $510,000.

The MB must start construction or break ground by Sept. 29 but Guenther feels the matter will be ironed out to the satisfaction of all long before that deadline so that work can be started on schedule.

The bids for all three phases were as follows:

Festival Draws Record Crowds

Flushed with the tremendous success of the greatest Fall Festival in history, leaders of the various civic and service clubs plan a meeting in the near future to evaluate the entire four-day program and make plans for an even bigger and better Festival in 1964.

There isn't any question about the success of the 1963 affair which attracted more than 25,000 visitors to the community during the four days, according to figures released by Public Safety Director Kenneth Fisher.

The crowds began to pour into the downtown business section and the Kellogg Park activities Thursday afternoon and the climax came Sunday with the Rotary Club's chicken barbeque which attracted more than 15,000 during the course of the afternoon and early evening.

This year's Festival was turned into a community wide affair and the community backed every single one of the events to the hilt. Nary a one of the many programs was a financial flop, all finishing in the black.

The Lions Club ice cream and melon social Thursday afternoon and evening drew some 1,250 customers.

The Plymouth Jaycees focused their attention to the fish fry on Friday starting at noon and before the supply of fish ran out, they had a total of more than 1,500 diners.

The Kiwanis Club staged its second pancake festival of the year Saturday and fed more than 2,000, according to Chairman Marv Terry, for the greatest "feed" of its kind ever held in the area.

The Kiwanians had slightly more than 900, an all-time record to the time, for its spring Festival and even the most optimistic was surprised by the turnout Saturday.

But the biggest day of all was yet to come. That was Sunday when the Rotarians presented their traditional barbeque chicken and corn-on-the-cob dinner.

The lines began to form at noon and by 2:30 p.m., more than 4,000 diners had been served. The rush continued on into the early evening and when the final tally was made by Chairman Edward Sawusch, it added up to 9,050.

It was almost twice as many as the 5,500 served a year ago and the Rotarians have set their sights on 12,500 for 1964.

"This was our greatest achievement," said Sawusch. "We had help from all of the other service clubs in addition to all of our members, many of whom were on hand early in the morning and were still there at 8 in the evening."

"We wish to thank everyone who co-operated to make this year's Festival such a success and especially Margaret Wilson and James Thornton who

Water Line Ok'd

The Plymouth City Commission has approved a request from the Burrough's Plymouth Employees Credit Union to tie in a two-inch water line to the existing six-inch main along Plymouth Road east of Haggerty Road.

Plymouth Board Approves Lease For Hough School

The Plymouth School Board approved a lease for use of facilities at the abandoned Hough School, Warren and Haggerty Roads, to the Plymouth Co-Operative Children's Nursery Monday.

The lease is subject to approval of the school by the State Nursery Association after an inspection by the Child Welfare Association and the State Fire Inspector.

Acting on a recommendation of Business Manager Melvin Blunk, the Board voted unanimously to give the Nursery group one year lease for a rental of $30 per month. The lease and rental is to be reviewed at the end of the year before a new one is granted.

The Plymouth Children's Nursery agrees to provide proper maintenance, care of the building and grounds, assumes responsibility for placing the heating and plumbing in operating condition, will guarantee payment of all utility and fuel bills, take out liability insurance and will be responsible for the initial cleaning and regular cleaning of the building.

The Board made plans to attend a joint meeting with the Plymouth Education Association and representatives of the various school buildings next Monday night, starting at 6:30 p.m. in the Junior High East.

President Gerald Fischer announced plans for a meeting of the curriculum committee on Sept. 30 to review the curriculum in regard to the Youth Employment Service and the vocational training program.

School Supt. Russell Isbister called attention to the meeting of the Plymouth Community Forum on Wednesday, Sept. 18 to continue discussion of what the future holds for the Plymouth Community and its future needs.

The forum will be open to the general public and Isbister urges and invites all interested to attend. The meeting will start at 8 p.m.

Dog Figures Herb's Leg Good As Tree

Recreation Director Herb Woolweaver is about ready to call it quits as far as handling the annual pet show at the Fall Festival is concerned.

And it all stems from the fact that one of the pet dogs decided Herb's leg looked like a tree.

Herb was busy directing the boys and girls to the registration booth when he suddenly felt something wet and warm on his leg.

Yep.

Plan To Offer 3 Credit Courses at Night School

Three high school credit courses will be offered at Plymouth Senior High School when classes start on Sept. 30. That was the announcement Monday by Co-Ordinator Mike Hoben who indicated courses will be offered in Occupational English, Occupational Shop and Business Training.

The third class was added last week due to the unusual number of registrations received by Hoben, who also is serving as a director of the Young Adult Employment Bureau sponsored by the YMCA, with offices in the Plymouth Credit Union building on S. Harvey.

The courses will consist of: Occupational English—20 hours of business English, 20 hours of speech, and 24 hours of oral expression and spelling.

Occupational shop—20 hours of welding, 20 hours of basic math and 24 hours of electrical repair.

Business training—20 hours of typing, beginning or advanced; 20 hours of business machines; and 24 hours of office procedure.

The Business Training course and the occupational shop will be taught on Monday and Tuesday nights from 7 to 9 p.m. for the first 10 weeks and from 7 to 10 p.m. for the final four weeks.

The Occupational English course will be taught Wednesday and Thursday nights during the same hours.

Hoben received the approval of Supt. Russell Isbister to grant credit towards a high school diploma on the basis of a half credit per course per semester. Matching credit will be given for hours where work and courses are related.

This makes it possible for a student at the night school to earn a maximum of six credit hours per year.

The tuition costs will be $15 per semester, however, Hoben is quick to point out that where cost is a prohibitive factor, the prospective student is

Plymouth Completes School Staff

The Plymouth school district teaching staff was completed Monday with approval of contracts for three teachers by the Board of Education upon recommendation of Supt. Russell Isbister.

The three started teaching chores with the opening of the fall term last week but approval of the contracts had to be withheld until an official meeting of the Board.

The trio includes: Mrs. Mary Downing, who taught last year in the Los Angeles area, as second grade instructor at Starkweather School; Mrs. Ethel Perkins, from the Ann Arbor system and a former member of the Plymouth staff, to first grade at Gallimore and Gerald Ramsey, who was at Wayne for the past four years, to business education at the senior high school.

Pat Sheehan, 7, of Deer Street, enjoyed the ice cream and melon at the Lions' Club social. He even went after the full sized cake at his left.

Near; and Architect By Becker. They were much satisfied with the offerings for the three phases even though the total was 10 per cent over the architect's estimate.

'Super' Phone Service Starts; Hearing Held On FI Charge

Michigan Bell Telephone Company today announced the start of "Super Extended Area Service," following approval of the new rate plan by the Michigan Public Service Commission.

Unique in the United States, the new "SEAS" service offers to telephone users in Livonia, Plymouth, Northville and Farmington, service whereby they can call a large portion of the metropolitan area, including downtown Detroit, without toll or message units, regardless of the time length of the call.

Meanwhile in Lansing last week a formal hearing was held before the Public Service Commission, preliminary to Michigan Bell eliminating the Fieldbrook (Northville) exchange within Livonia, and placing all present FI customers in the Livonia exchange. State Rep. Paul Chandler presented to the Commission petitions from many home-owners residing in the northwest section of the City, requesting they be moved to the Livonia exchange. This will eliminate toll and message unit charges on many phone calls into Detroit zones.

Michigan Bell representatives formally requested the change, too, and no opponents to it appeared at the hearing.

"The Public Service Commission should rule favorably on the petition within two weeks," said Rep. Chandler. "And those now in the Northville exchange will have Livonia service available no later than Dec. 31, 1963. It will take a couple of months for the phone company to make the mechanical changes."

"The new 'Super Extended Area Service' was devised by

Board Reports Home Sales In Area Soar To Record High

Sales of residential property multi-listed by members of the Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors reached an all-time peak last month, president Richard H. Funk, disclosed today.

Not only were last month's dollar sales the highest in UNRA's history, Funk explained, but the number of individual house-sale transactions for the month reached a new peak. House sales for August totaled 526, compared with the previous record high of 496 individual transactions in July, 1962. The ratio of sales to listings was also the highest in more than five years, he revealed. "We are definitely in an upswing in sales of residential properties throughout the western Wayne and western Oakland county areas," Funk declared. Of the houses sold through UNRA's multi-listing system last month, 245—or 47 percent of the total—were in the $10,500-to-$15,000 price range; 128 total—sold for less than $10,500; while 144 houses—or 29 percent of the total—sold for more than $15,000, Funk reported.

House sales during August, 1963 totaled $7,206,378, highest for any month in the 43 years since the multi-list was founded, Funk said. The August sales figures were released by the United Northwestern Realty Association, multi-listing system of the combined board.

Dow Named Regional Chevy Head

Appointment of Robert B. Dow as regional manager in charge of Chevrolet Motor Division's manufacturing plants at Livonia, and in Ohio and Indiana was announced by Edward H. Kelley, general manufacturing manager in charge of Chevrolet's 34 plants.

In his new position, Dow has charge of Chevrolet's Spring and Bumper plant at Livonia; the division's Powerglide Automatic Transmission and Pressed Metal plants at Cleveland; the Chevrolet Powerglide Automatic Transmission plant at Toledo; the division's Manual Transmission plant at Muncie, Ind., and the Chevrolet Truck Body and Stamping plant at Indianapolis, Ind.

The plants currently employ more than 18,000 persons.

Dow began his career with Chevrolet in 1927 as a time study clerk at the Flint Pressed Metal plant. In 1939 he became die room division superintendent and later that year was named a general foreman. Two years later he was appointed divisional superintendent of production at the plant, and in 1941 he was elevated to plant superintendent.

In 1953 Dow was named general superintendent of production at the Chevrolet-Flint V8 Engine plant. Two years later he became operations manager of the division's Frame and Stamping plant at Flint and in 1958 he was appointed manager of the Livonia Spring and Bumper plant. He has been manager of manufacturing research and development at Central Office since 1959.

Michigan Bell after a series of formal complaints were pressed by Rep. Chandler, Mayor Moelke and others about the high cost of phone bills in Plymouth, Livonia and nearby suburban areas.

The new "flat rate" SEAS service is being offered initially only in the northwest portion of Wayne County, but already requests for the same thing have been coming to Michigan Bell from all other portions of the metropolitan sector. Bell spokesmen say it is being offered here "on a trial basis to determine customer acceptance."

The flat rate is slightly higher than the present single-party telephone flat rate, but it eliminates most toll and message unit costs.

"For anyone whose phone bill today runs more than $8 a month, exclusive of any long distance calling, the new plan will be a substantial money-saver.—In the cases of residents and businesses who are forced to call regularly into Detroit, the savings could run into hundreds of dollars a year," said Chandler.

"The service is optional. Those who are satisfied with their present phone arrangement can keep it exactly as it is now."

Under the new plan, businessmen will pay a flat rate for their service, plus 4.2 cents for each call into Detroit. The 4.2 cents is a flat figure, regardless of length of call. Today business subscribers pay either toll charges or multi-message units for these calls.

5 Plymouth Women Plan Exhibition

Pamela Schultz will have exhibits of original designs in crewel embroidery.

The affair is being staged for patrons of the studio. Guests will be welcomed and guided through the exhibits by instructors Johnnie Crosby, John Groot, Mary Littrell and Marion Sober.

Northville Twp. Seeks Water From Plymouth City Mains

The City of Plymouth will be asked by Northville Township to furnish water for the "drywell" Bradner-Five Mile Road residents, provided arrangements are made for satisfactory rates.

That was the decision of the Northville Township Board in its meeting last week. A delegation from the Township Board appeared before the Plymouth City Commission to explain the need for water in the areas and to explore the possibility of a suitable rate.

The Board gave Supervisor R. D. Merriam permission to proceed with plans to purchase water from Plymouth and to start planning of the system to serve the southeast section.

In the earlier meeting, Plymouth's Council assured the Township delegation that it could and would supply water from its main along Northville Road.

The Township must construct its line from Northville Road along Five Mile to Bradner. The system will continue along Bradner to Franklin and will include the entire Plymouth Gardens subdivision overlooking Phoenix Lake.

The City officials assured Merriam that it would study a rate for the area but indicated it would be lower because the Township will service its own lines, read meters and secure the water through a master meter. Sale of the water will be directly to the Township, not to the individual property owners.

The water main will be sufficient to serve 500 homes in the future. It will be limited to 20 homes at the start in Plymouth Gardens.

The project will be financed through special assessment with the cost charged back to the property owners.

Northville Township turned down two other possible sources. Detroit water through the Plymouth Township lines was ruled out because the supply was limited to 25 to 30 homes, with no guarantee of pressure.

A proposal by the City of Detroit to provide water through an existing line which now serves Wayne County Training School was turned down because of too many 'ifs'.

Now the Township Board is awaiting information from the Plymouth Commission as to the rate that will have to be paid. That is expected to be forthcoming before the end of the week.

Figures Show Why Kiwanians Dragged

Plymouth's Kiwanians had their busiest day in history Saturday and every single worker went home happy, tired and willing to allow the Rotarians to sweat out the anticipated 10,000 hungry for chicken dinners Sunday.

There was a big reason for the Kiwanians' fatigue and Chairman Marv Terry explained it in few words.

The Kiwanians served 10,000 pancakes to more than 2,000 in a 12-hour period.

The pancake eaters disposed of 540 pounds of sausage, 600 half-pints of milk, 30 pounds of butter, 38 gallons of maple syrup and 310 pounds of pancake flour.

Just to make things even, Marv reports the Caravaners at the Junior High East purchased the wrong kind of flour for their traditional pancake feed on Sunday morning and came scurrying to him for help

—he sold them all of the flour left over, just enough for their needs.

served as co-chairmen of the entire Festival and did a wonderful job in making it the greatest ever."

The closing event was the colorful Pageant of Drums, presented by the Plymouth Veterans of Foreign Wars on the senior High athletic field, which drew an audience of more than 1,500.

And the downtown businessmen had a surge of prosperity during the final three days of the week, most reporting sales were up considerably.

The Junior High East athletic field was jammed with the more than 250 Airstream trailers from the Wally Byam Caravaners who held their final Michigan rally of the year in Plymouth for the Fall Festival.

The group was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shirey, of Plymouth, a past president, and members attended all of the activities of the Festival.

THE DROPOUT

Educators view high school dropouts as a tragic waste of manpower. Once a potential mechanic, salesman, or secretary who could have been making a comfortable living, the dropout becomes a growing part of the labor force competing for the unskilled and semi-skilled jobs which offer an unstable income and uncertain employment.

Approximately one million teen-agers drop out of school each year for a number of reasons, ranging from personal financial needs to a dislike of school. The squandering of their talents on low-paying jobs gives them a false, temporary feeling of financial security. It is a pity that so many of them soon join the ranks of the unemployed when the demand for untrained labor decreases because of lay-offs or technological changes. Too late and too frequently dropouts realize their limited education is a handicap when their salaries show no appreciable increase over the years, while the educated worker passes him by in a career and financial sense.

President John F. Kennedy's Committee on Youth Employment, an out-growth of the President's concern for the dropout, points out that a solution to the dropout dilemma is the responsibility and obligation of every citizen.

This is one of a series of education features published as a public service in cooperation with the Michigan Press Association, the Michigan Education Association and this newspaper.

Along Realty Row

Loren 'Bud' Gould, a lifelong resident of Plymouth, manages to keep busy in all phases of community activities but his principal interest is in Gould Home Inc., builders and real estate developers.

Bud is president of the company which at the moment is developing and building 53 homes in the Arbor Croft subdivision. All are of the popular colonial design that Plymouthites like so well.

But that's only part of the chores of the Plymouth High School graduate who also attended Henry Ford Trade School. He was one of the leaders in the promotion of the Fall Festival which ended its most successful four-day run Sunday with the famous Rotary Club barbecue chicken outdoor dinner.

He's a member of the Rotary Club, Plymouth Rock Lodge, Suburban Shrine Club, a member of Moslem Shrine and is active in the church work of the First Methodist Church.

He loves to ski in the winter, swim in the summer and fish all year round.

Bud resides at 13925 Ridgewood Drive with his wife, Lorraine, and three sons, Gary, 17; Bruce, 13; and Terry, 11.

MRS. RALPH MARK KAUFER

To Live On U. of M. Campus

Constance Paul became the bride of Ralph Mark Kaufer Aug. 31. Rabbi Fram officiated at the wedding ceremony at the Rainbow Terrace. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Paul of 16331 Inkster, Livonia, are the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kaufer of 13110 Columbia, Redford Township, are the groom's parents.

Judy, Sandy and Marylou Paul assisted their sister as bridesmaids. Mrs. Gretchen Paul was matron of honor. Stu Shyck was best man, with James Paul and Alan and David Kaufer seating guests.

A full-length sheath of organza over taffeta was chosen by the bride for her wedding. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Garden Room of the Rainbow Terrace. Sam Barnett's band provided music for dancing.

The young couple will live at the University Apartments on campus at U of M.

The bride is a Bentley High graduate and is a registered nurse on staff at the U of M Hospital. Her groom is presently attending U of M. He was graduated from Thurston High School.

Guidance Clinic Announces Staff

David Hoptman has been hired as supervisor of the staff of the Northwestern Child Guidance Clinic which will be open after Sept. 15, according to the president, Mrs. Crispin Hammond of Northville. Mr. Hoptman is a psychiatric social worker and comes to the clinic from Boys Republic where he was employed as co-clinic director of the Republic. Previous to that time he was executive secretary for the Macomb County Society for Crippled Children. He has had wide experience with children and families in both residential treatment situations and orthopedically handicapped situations. He has also done field work at Pontiac State Hospital and Children's Center.

Mr. Hoptman was born in Detroit and is a product of Detroit schools having been a graduate of Central High School. He received a B.A. degree in sociology and a M.S. degree in Social Work from Wayne State University. "We feel that Mr. Hoptman is eminently qualified to serve as a nucleus for the kind of professional service we hope to bring to these communities," Mrs. Hammond said in making this announcement.

During the summer a personnel committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clyde Hamlin sifted applications for the professional and clerical positions. Mrs. Helen Peltier was hired as secretary for the clinic and will commence her duties on Sept. 16. Mrs. Hamlin anticipates that a second professional person will shortly be added to the staff.

The clinic has rented space from the Wayne County Health Dept. and will be housed in several rooms at the Health Dept. Parents who wish to make inquiries regarding the clinic should call TE 1-5535.

WSU Taking Applications For First Women's Dorm

Applications for admission to Wayne State University's first dormitory—the Helen Newberry Joy Residence for Women—are now being accepted by the University housing office.

Officials expect the dormitory to be ready for occupancy in the fall. The structure represents the initial step in Wayne's plan to house 3,000 students on the campus by 1975.

Up to this time, all student housing on campus was provided in buildings originally designed for other uses.

The three-story structure, to house 252 women, is named in memory of Mrs. Helen Newberry Joy, a leader in the cultural, philanthropic and civic life of Detroit. She died in 1958.

"COME BLOW YOUR HORN"

To Women It May Concern

By MYRA COX

According to the English press it looks as though Redford Suburban League member Vera Payor is about to start a branch of the organization over there. Mrs. Payor has only been living in England for a short time with her children and husband, who was transferred there with Ford's. She, with some other American women held a Ball and raised 170 pounds ($500) to benefit FFH—Freedom From Hunger Campaign. She is attempting now to introduce an American "morning coffee" as a way of raising funds for their selected charities.

In the true spirit of RSL Mrs. Payor was able to cross over any barriers of difference in social customs—and as noted in their paper—"introduce something from America besides the usual juke boxes, jeans and jive and bring some of the better aspects of the American way of life correcting the picture held in British minds."

Good show Vera, Good show! Along with "juke boxes, jeans and jive flowing across"—there is still plenty of American cash also "flowing" across—but I don't want to be cynical—and for sure some of the Ambassadors often undo all the good will our American aid is supposed to create. Vera Payor has made a fine ex-officio ambassador in England, interested enough in their country to work and raise funds for their cause.

Breaking down the barriers in a different field I checked with Mrs. Helen Ditzhazy who was newly appointed as Assistant Principal at Thurston High School. Usually at this administrative level a man has the job.

Mrs. Ditzhazy assuming her duties for the first time this Fall term will be the disciplinarian for the girls, is responsible for over-seeing the social program, public relations with parents relative to problem students, responsible for teachers in the areas of language, art, music, commercial subjects, some homemaking, the book store, student government. There are other duties too.

She has her masters degree and is presently working on her Ph.D. More important she has that spark of assurance that transforms an educated woman into a wise one — thus allowing her to get to the top in her profession.

Lola Waterman, Dean of Student Affairs at Schoolcraft Community College, has this in common with Mrs. Ditzhazy. Miss Waterman says when a woman controls her emotions, becomes objective, learns to take criticism objectively and not personally, with ability she can take her place in a man's world any time, any job.

Sage words — and apparently living by them, she is fulfilling a job usually held by a man.

All of the admission details, testing activities, publications come under her jurisdiction. Plus the important counseling of students. Mrs. Waterman is about to get her Doctorate — and comes to this community from Delta College.

She is presently working on the selection of counselors for the College and preparing all the endless details necessary to register students for the 1964 first Fall term.

Applications are being accepted this Fall. It is anticipated the college will open its doors with over 800 students and another thousand on a part-time basis.

Mrs. Waterman has been studying the problems of other community colleges, ironing out difficulties before the doors are even open and although the Schoolcraft College building isn't ready, there is no doubt in my mind Miss Waterman could be ready immediately — and with professional results.

Olympia Event Tickets Now Available In Area

Livonia is one of 12 cities outside Detroit designated today as the site of a local ticket outlet of the Detroit Red Wings hockey team and Olympia Stadium.

Under a plan announced jointly by Red Wing General Manager Sid Abel and local travel agent Kurt Thrun, persons living and working in the Livonia area will be able to purchase tickets for all Olympia events at the Travel Centre, 1049 South Main Street, Plymouth, Mich.

Abel said the service is designed as a convenience to persons who find it difficult to purchase tickets directly from Olympia. It is the first time in Olympia's history that tickets have been sold outside Detroit.

According to Mr. Thrun, the Travel Centre will not handle Olympia tickets firsthand. Instead, customer orders will be phoned by the travel agency directly to Olympia and box office personnel at the Stadium immediately will place the requested number of tickets into a special envelope marked with the customer's name.

As a result, customers have the advantage of reserving good seats in advance of an event with assurance that the tickets will be held until the customer arrives at Olympia.

In addition to Red Wing games, Mr. Thrun said customers may purchase tickets through the Travel Centre for any other event held at Olympia, including ice shows, circuses, wrestling and basketball.

The Travel Centre is the only travel agency in the Plymouth area authorized to supply this service to Olympia customers.

First event will be Don Ameche's International Showtime Circus Sept. 25-29. Tickets are half-price for children.

Curtain Going Up by Wally Roberts

Ten performances and one thousand people later the Plymouth Theater Guild actors ended the stirring saga of the old West, packed up their props and limped off home. "Don't Harm the Schoolmarm, Harmin, You Varmint" had everyone at the Fall Festival and hissing and booing in true melodrama style. The audience had as much fun as the actors at this wild Guild presentation in the Wilcox Garden Theater.

C. V. Sparks as Hoss Cartwright twisted and turned his way into the hearts of the audience. Roberta Seelhoff proved that after her straight dramatic role in "The Mousetrap" that she could play farce with as much competence. Her other two roles during the day in "Champ or Chump" and "The First Born" continued to show her versatility. In fact, many of the Guild actors faced with repertory for the first time acquitted themselves handsily.

Linda Sue Wall, long a favorite in Plymouth productions, played her final part for the Guild since she will be leaving for Michigan State College next week. Her hammy grimaces and loud verbal blasts gave the part of Jezebel Jenkins extra depth. Jim Blackman, long time veteran actor with the Guild, limed his role with his special finesse.

Every melodrama has the virtuous mother or aunt. Joanna Mueller, 31161 Lyndon, put her heart and soul into one of the funniest death scenes seen in these parts. Mrs. Mueller has only recently joined the Guild. Several years ago she trod the boards in Berlin and the surrounding countryside for some nine years playing the classics. Her memorable performance as the distraught woman in "First Born" will be repeated at the first Plymouth Theater Guild meeting this Monday night at 8 p.m. The September 16 meeting will be held in the Veterans Memorial Building, next to the High School.

Having the Plymouth Theater Guild meetings in a new location goes along with the "different" look indicated by the new board of directors; the 1964 season is going to contain many new, exciting features. In the near future the board should be able to make some additional announcements regarding the establishment of a permanent playhouse home. A Guild committee is in the process of preparing plans.

Guild Board of Director member Richard Brown is discovering how busy life can be if one volunteers for a stage manager's job. Dick handled all the props, costumes, stage settings, and sound effects for the three plays performed at the Fall Festival. Little did he realize that bouncing around in the back of a truck late at night was written into his contract, hauling a few hundred chairs, and other items too numerous to mention. Yes, the life of a backstage worker is a hectic, but rewarding task.

Out front the ticket sellers Kathleen Dodds, Mary Kelly, and Pat Cederberg picked up a touch of sunburn while handling all that cool, green money drifting into the box office. Over in Kellogg Park Jerry French, Kathy Moore, Mary Ann Nichols, and Merle Heft struggled over a swirling cotton candy machine all day Sunday. The Plymouth Theater Guild members were brimming over with community spirit last week and assisted in making the Fall Festival one of the greatest that Plymouth has ever had.

Next Monday night in the Veteran's Memorial Building, north of the High School, the Guild has its first meeting of the new season. Come and meet some of the members. Hear about the exciting year ahead. Bring a friend . . . or for that matter bring two friends. You don't need to act to be in the Guild. Backstage workers are more than welcome.

Before I leave the Fall Festival, old Wally must pay tribute to two of the Guild's veterans: Effie Kuisel and Russ Wallace. Effie, presently President of the Guild, did a couple of monologues on the free stage for the crowd at the festival. Russ came down to the Wilcox Garden Theater, set up all his gear to show slides of his recent Alaskan trip. Since the sun was so bright, Russ didn't get a chance to show them until the last show at about seven p.m. He waited patiently, taking pictures of the melodrama. It's this type of dedication and patience that we admire in our Guild members.

Had a phone call from our peripatetic Paul Wheeler of Livonia, Philly, and he it appears that Paul is moving off for Washington, D.C. and off Broadway. Paul as you recall appeared in "The Mousetrap," the Guild's spring smash. Paul will be playing a role in "Purdie Victorious." He informs me that he now has a full-fledged Actor's Equity card. In other words, Paul has joined the Actor's union. In show biz you travel fast. One day you are carting scenery, the next they are pinning that star on your door. Good luck Paul. Only we hope you take time off to come over this way to do another part for The Plymouth Theater Guild. Bob Wall, Guild director, informs me that he will pay Equity prices.

Ground breaking ceremonies for the new Medical and Nursing Care Center for Presbyterian Village will be held Sunday, Sept. 15, at 3:30 p.m., at the Village, it was announced today by Herbert D. Hunter, President of the Board of Directors.

Presbyterian Village is one of the nation's pioneer residence projects for senior citizens. It is located at West Six Mile and Garfield Roads in Redford Township.

The new structure, designed by Smith, Hinchman & Grylls Associates, Inc., architects and engineers for the entire Presbyterian Village project, will cost $400,000 and is scheduled for completion in late summer, 1964.

Initially designed for 32 beds the structure will be expandable by an additional 32 beds to create a 64-bed total installation which will be completed in the future.

The project will include semi-private rooms, with each room appointed for an individual outside view; a large physiotherapy department; a dining room which will be convertible to an occupational therapy area; laboratory and a clinic office for outpatients.

Unique features of this facility in senior citizen housing projects will include the presence of a staff physician and nursing personnel, the laboratory and facility for a future X-ray department.

The building has been designed to blend in architectural harmony with the Village's present structures and environs.

There will be an open house tea and touring of the building. The public is invited.

New Pastor Welcomed

The Rev. Wayne E. Boyd, the new pastor for the Faith Congregational Church of Nankin Township, preached his first sermon last Sunday. A reception followed the service at which the minister and his wife, Toni, and their two children, Deborah, 7, and Timmy, 2, were welcomed.

Mr. Boyd moved to the area last week and has been loaned the parsonage of the Nativity Church of the United Church of Christ at 30389 West Chicago, Livonia, while the parsonage of Faith Congregational Church at 34090 Cowan Road, Livonia, is being rebuilt.

Mr. Boyd's phone number is GA 5-5997. He would welcome calls from anyone interested in joining in the fellowship of the church.

Charter Night For Christian Businessmen's Group Sept. 16

The Charter banquet of the West Wayne County Christian Business Men's Committee will be held Mon., Sept. 16, at 7 p.m. in Lofly's Arbor-Lill main dining room, Plymouth.

Theo McCully, successful businessman, for many years General Manager of The Carpenter Baking Company, Milwaukee, and at present Executive Secretary of Christian Business Men's Committee International will be the guest speaker of the evening. He will also present the charter to the newly organized committee.

He is the father of Edward McCully, one of the five missionaries martyred in the jungle of Ecuador by Acaua Acau Indians. The question has been asked many times "Why would five brilliant and outstanding men who naturally speaking, had the world at their feet, leave the comforts of the United States and go into this dark jungle?" There is only one answer. It is found in Holy Scripture, 2nd Corinthians 5: "For the Love of Christ constraineth us".

From the five fallen grains of wheat that have fallen into the ground to die have sprung forth the fruit of the spirit, which has reached and touched the hearts of many of the once savage tribe of Acau Indians in God's own appointed way.

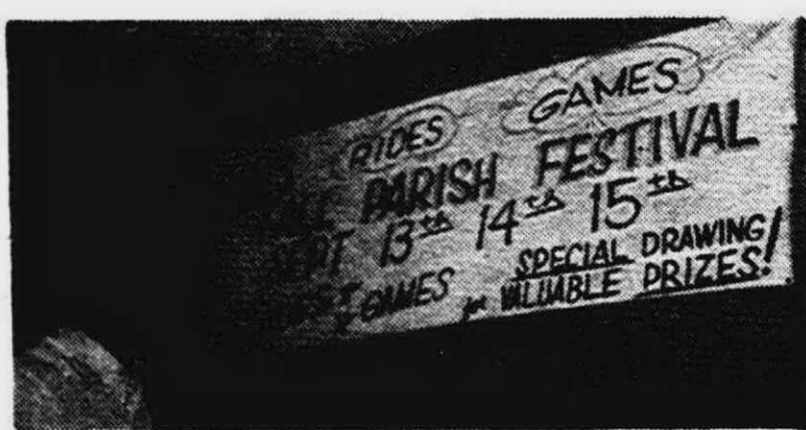

For reservations and information call KE 4-8260, Mr. Napolitano.

Evangelist Billy Walker To Speak at Bethany

Evangelist Billy Walker, dynamic speaker from Southgate, Mich., will be holding a series of meetings in the Bethany Baptist Church, 34541 Five Mile, Livonia, Mich. The services begin Sunday, Sept. 22, and continue to Sunday, Sept. 29. The meetings begin at 1 a.m. on Sunday and 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Having conducted successful crusades in some of the largest churches in the State of Michigan, Evangelist Billy Walker comes to us with a wealth of experience. Though only 24 years of age he has spoken to over a million people in his crusades and rallies. After a crusade in the First Baptist Church of Pontiac, where over 100 decisions for Christ were recorded, Dr. Savage, the pastor, had this to say concerning our speaker: "Billy Walker is supremely qualified in his knowledge of the Bible. His literacy ability is superb, his physical appearance is beyond criticism. His passion for souls is very manifest."

Plymouth Clergyman Makes Plea For Action On 'Racial Justice'

the property values either went up or remained stable.

"Another assumption which must be challenged is that when one Negro family moves in, a flood of them follow. First of all, most Negro leaders do not want this. Secondly, it need not happen if home owners do not panic. Thirdly, experience has shown that often-times where houses are opened to the Negro in suburban communities, there are few takers. Actually, this is a sad comment. In Bergen County, New Jersey, some 70 homes were made available to Negroes and yet only three buyers came forth. Part of the Negro's hesitancy, it seems, stems from his fear of hostility in the new residential area, something upon which we want to comment a little later.

"Another assumption is that when a Negro moves in, he never keeps up his property. Many studies can be cited to refute this. Actually, before a colored family can afford to buy a home in an all-white community, and before they desire to make such a move, they usually have achieved a level of education and aspiration such that they have just as much interest in keeping up their property as anyone else. Often their very reason for moving is to find a nice place which they can keep up and in which they can take pride.

"Still another assumption is that legislation on open housing is an invasion of private property rights. But private property rights have long been invaded for the sake of the public interest, and history shows that the public interest has invariably won out in the courts—the area of public health is but one example. Surely the freedom for all men to live where they desire is foundational to the public interest.

"Finally, there are many misconceptions about the nature of the Negro person, gross generalizations that are easy to disprove, yet which still keep popping up in conversations—for example, that innately the Negro is less educable, less intelligent than the white; that innately most Negroes are sexually promiscuous, socially irresponsible and inclined to violence. Such misconceptions just don't stand up in any objective study.

"What then shall we do? Consider next what can be done in the life of our church itself. One very important thing would be to seek ways to provide wholesome and genuine fellowship with Negroes within our various church organizations. Let's face it, genuine fears do exist in the hearts of many people. And the only way some of these invisible barriers of apprehension and distrust can be broken down is by increased contact and communication between the races.

In one sense, it is to be regretted that our children grow up in a segregated community and do not receive the broadening of understanding that comes through contact with other races. Thus, when our youth go off to college, all too often they are not prepared for the interracial fellowship and dormitory living which does exist at most colleges now.

"Let us then invite Negro Presbyterian members from Calvary or St. John's or Trumbull Churches to a joint meeting of the Women's Association. Let us invite a Negro youth group to our fellowship and welcome a return visit to their group. Exchanges could also be arranged for church school classes from an integrated church. Perhaps a group from an integrated congregation could worship with us Sunday morning and then come to a coffee hour. Or perhaps we could have a joint family night with an integrated church. Whatever we do, let it not be contrived or done artificially or mechanically, but let it be done with meaning, so that through Christian fellowship there can come understanding, sharing of common concerns, and the overcoming of real fears.

"We can make known our willingness to welcome a member of a minority group as a guest in our home, or as a neighbor, or into our school system, or alongside us at work. For even a few people to make this willingness known, for even a handful of concerned persons to speak out strongly and clearly, this can make a profound difference in a community. Think what some 1,300 Presbyterians living in and around Plymouth might do.

"Also, we can show our approval of the establishment of a council on human relations in Plymouth and give to it our wholehearted support. Over the years we have seen a fine community spirit in this town. Most recently this has been expressed in a concerted effort to bring in new industry and to raise the tax base. Our service clubs have put a great deal of time into various projects to make Plymouth a better and more interesting place in which to live. The time has now come for all civic-minded citizens to join hands in tackling this very fundamental moral question of extending equal rights and equal opportunities to the Negro.

"Particularly in this matter of open housing it is crucially important that a large segment of our citizenry take a positive stand on this. For it may be asking too much of one real estate operator to handle a transaction involving a Negro, all by himself. What is really needed is evidence that a sizeable group of people is willing to support and stand behind such a transaction. What is really needed is persons who are willing to form voluntary neighborhood associations which would work to prevent panic selling and which would seek to overcome hostility.

"Some here might want to join one of the responsible and long-standing organizations that is in the thick of the effort for racial justice, such as the Urban League, or the NAACP.

"We can write our congressmen and support the effort for broad civil rights legislation on a state and national level. We can write letters to the editor, expressing our concern. If we are in a position in a business to influence a decision on fair employment practices, we can make our Christian concern known. If we work in an establishment which serves the public we can work to see that equal treatment, equal courtesy, equal service, is provided the Negro.

"Consider finally something we can all do as Christian persons wherever we are. We can do what perhaps needs doing more than anything else, we can seek to overcome hostility with love; we can practice Christ's ministry of reconciliation. For I think that we are all aware that there is a great deal of latent as well as visible hostility involved in this whole question before us. Recent incidents on the streets of Plymouth suggest that there is real hostility here, for us to overcome.

"And it is much easier to cry bigot, than to speak the truth in love. It is much easier to fight fire with fire, than to pursue the harder path of persuasion and example. Yet whether or not Plymouth accepts integration with peace or with panic, will depend to a great degree on how much hostility is overcome by love . . . on how much reconciliation is carried on by Christians."

Readers 'Speak Up' About Dropouts

Editor: School "dropouts" and more "laws" for the people to make more jobs for "26 million youngsters who will be looking for work in 1963." When will the lawmakers ever learn, that what the children want is an example to emulate? Work, like knowledge must be shared.

However, if the lawyers don't respect the very laws that are enacted to make everyone work "steady," how in the name of "Heaven" do you think these 26 million adolescents will react when they find out that nearly all the years spent in school were wasted in learning "subjects" that the "Copyright owners" had already sold to the highest bidder, who has the right to withhold these "text-books" from the public market until the price is right?

Having made his profit, he will donate or give at cost to the schools something that has become ready for "public-domain."

Having been a manufacturer of doors and windows for 34 years I know what I'm talking about. A high school graduate who applies for a job with only experience of "manual training in wood-working" hasn't got much of a chance. More "bills and more laws" is not what we want, what is needed is teachers and leaders who will speak and write the truth, and not withhold "it" until the price is right. How can a student have job experience when everything that he's taught is "second-hand?" Our profit system is a "tight" one for finding work. It does not and will not welcome unskilled labor.

If the manufacturers can't afford to "teach" new help, then who will? Moonlighting has never been popular. It should be used to improve economic conditions, but not abused by teachers and professors stealing jobs that belong to "dropouts" who are confused by too many man-made laws. Let us not condemn our delinquents, rather by example respect the laws or amend them with the help of our children.

Fred Antil

Editor: Being a laboring man, I was deeply concerned over the lack of a Labor Day celebration this year . . . It is a sign of disinterest on the part of labor leaders, and general disunity among the rank and file. Moreover, there is a lack of public sympathy and respect. This condition is deplorable in a democracy such as ours.

With unemployment at peak high, labor should be marching for creation of more employment. Government officials should be praising labor for the greatest productivity rate of four and one-half percent, which is at least one percent higher than anticipated by President Kennedy.

Although labor should be holding one of its greatest parades, for some strange reason, there was no leadership to guide them . . . and no parade.

President Walter Reuther of the UAW-CIO, concentrated all his efforts in the Civil Rights marches for Negroes in Detroit and Washington, apparently was all pooped-out when the traditional celebration march was to be held on Labor Day.

Reuther had the time, money and energy to get to Washington to make a dramatic speech in behalf of the Negro segment of our population. However, would it not be more logical to represent all segments of labor walking along side in unity in the traditional Labor Day parade?

Unless there is a civil rights program equally for all segments of our population, it may eventually turn out to be the ending of our beloved democracy. God bless America now—not later when it may be too late.

By CJZ
Plymouth

Editor: I have just read the August 28 issue of The Plymouth Observer and am overwhelmed by the coincidence of a "lifelong Michigianian" with the same initials as mine residing in the same town as I am. I do not wish to have the views of that writer mistaken as mine and, hence, I am forced to indicate that I disagree with "C.J.Z."

Negroes and other minority groups have long known that when they seek employment in a position covered by Civil Service their application will be treated equally with that of others. Consequently the number of applicants from minority groups for such jobs is out of proportion with the numbers from these groups residing in a given area. Hence, the number employed is also out of proportion. This has not occurred, as implied by "C.J.Z.", because of preferential treatment to the negro.

I find that I must also take issue with the other arguments presented by "C.J.Z.", phrases such as "the dignity of the individual" and "Bill of Rights" are meaningful only when applied to all—not merely to the chosen ones. Our country, states, and communities are facing some very difficult problems as the rights of the negroes are established on a real, workable basis. We are each faced with taking our own stand on whether we believe in freedom and equality for all. Arrived at conscientiously this decision is not an easy one. It confronts each of us with the question of whether we are ready to back our stated ideals with our worldly goods if necessary. Or, when the chips are down, do we really endorse such ideas as the "super-race."

I do not endorse discrimination against whites any more than I do discrimination against negroes. But I believe that we may find that a race which has just discovered itself may be more vigorous than one which has been taking itself for granted. Perhaps in our failure to recognize the dignity of the negro we have failed to recognize the dignity of our own race as well. As I understand it recognition of the worth of the individual is in danger whenever one reserves the right to select those who have worth.

Sincerely
Charles J. Zoet

Prep Gridders Start Action This Weekend

It's football time again for high school teams in Livonia, Plymouth and Redford Township.

Opening games for five of the prep elevens are slated for Friday. Clarenceville starts Saturday. The seventh team—St. Agatha, gets going on Sunday afternoon.

Here's the inaugural schedule: FRIDAY Bentley at Farmington, 3:30 p.m. Riverside at Redford Union, 8 p.m.

Franklin at Madison, 8 p.m. Thurston at Southfield, 8 p.m. Plymouth at Northville 8 p.m. SATURDAY Clarenceville at North Farmington.

SUNDAY St. Agatha at Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, 2:30 p.m.

For Clarenceville, Bentley and Franklin the story of 1963 will surround itself with trying to win at least one game. A year ago each of the three varsities drew a blank in the victory column.

Redford Union goes into the season hopeful of matching or bettering its 1962 accomplishment when the North Townshippers shared the Suburban Six League championship.

At Plymouth the hopes are high that the Rocks may haul away the golden honors.

Thurston, which finished strong in '62 will now be shooting for honors in a new league—the Northwestern Suburban—in which Franklin is another member.

Redford Union, like Thurston, has suffered heavily at quarterback. Replacing Chuck Shelton, a brilliant passer, won't be easy.

Harry Kendrick and Richard Barryman have waged a duel for the post and the indications are they'll wind up sharing the assignment during the early going.

Big Gene Hamlin, 6-4, at center; John Snider and Rick Hoover at the guards and Fullback Craig Turnipseed form the nucleus around whom Coach Rodgers is building. Other veterans include Carl Spamer, Mike Strock, Mike Caplia, Jim Buck and Fred White.

At Clarenceville, where coach Temby says: "We have no place to go but up," the prep gridgers should have a better backfield with Monroe Ashley, a speedster, leading the way. Jim Bedson, Gary Gearhart (the QB), Ray Parker and Greg Fuller all have had past experience.

The line presents problems where only Dave Graves, Ted Gladfelter and John Jordan are returnees from last year's starters. George Keene, a 295-pound junior center, gives Clarenceville the weightiest players in the area.

Notwithstanding the losses of such fine personnel as Jim Ayers, Mark Schultheiss, Dick Schryer and Hugh Sarah, the picture appears fairly bright at Plymouth. In some quarters the word has gone out that the Rocks are the team to beat for the league title.

The Rocks have three fine running backs returning in Dave Agnew, Roger Tony and Gary Grady. Terry Cosgrove will handle the quarterbacking.

There are veterans for all of the line slots led by End Terry Clark and Dick Egloff; Tackles Kevin Huntington and Dave Sackett and Guards Hal Smith and Sanford Black.

St. Agatha, the "baby" from an enrollment standpoint in the Northwest Division in the Catholic League, would appear to have its work cut out. The Parochial squad is shy on returning veterans, especially in the line.

There's only one new coach on the job in the seven area schools. Ralph Temby has taken command at Clarenceville.

Larry Joiner starts his second season at Bentley as does Jack Hudnut at Franklin. Mike Hoben continues to coach Plymouth. It's still John Rodgers at Redford Union and Gordon Young at Thurston. Dave Brazil will coach again at St. Agatha.

Thurston, winner of its last four games in 1962 (starts out in '63 at Southfield minus such stalwarts as quarterback Keith Spicer, Fullback Jack Pilsrski and Backs Marty Suchik and Tom Tanner.

The return of John Bennett and Lou Banwert, two hefty tackles; Jerry Szostak, a 216-pounder at guard and Garry Nida, a 195-pounder at center, helps bring some cheer to Coach Young as do Pete Marsalese at fullback and halfbacks Harry Samborski and Tom Klinkert.

A great deal of the Thurston hopes will rest on how well Paul Lawson does as Spicer's replacement at quarterback. There are nine lettermen, some fine newcomers from the reserves and a "more spirited attitude" at Bentley.

Coach Joine will field an all-veteran backfield of Bill Montroy, Bud Farquhar, Dennis Lopez and David Jacobson. Brent Eggleston, Rich Larson, John Olson, Rich Jackson, Bill Bollin and Harry Foor constitute a veteran contingent of Bentley linemen.

Coach Hudnut at Franklin has an all-veteran team returning. That's because the new south-side Livonia school doesn't graduate its first class until next June.

Bill Black, Ken Bratherton, Bob Wiggins, Bob Varty, Len Buckingham are just a few of the returnees at Franklin on whom Hudnut is counting to help start the school on the way to the first of many hundreds of victories which are certain to come.

The St. Agatha bright spot rests in the backfield. Quarterbacks Mike Steen and Rick Collins; Halfbacks Craig Pegg, Tom AuBuchon, Bob Krupanski and Phil Sutter and Fullbacks Mike Edwards and Tom Van Kucken are all experienced.

But the line will be green and on the small side. Tackle Phil Davidson and Ron Zimmerman, a center, carry the only beef. They scale 175 pounds each. The other forwards range from 155 pounds downward.

Wolverine Hosts Greatest Trotter

The greatest three nights of harness racing and standardbred spectacles ever offered in the Detroit area.

That's the proud claim of Wolverine Harness Raceway's official family, starting with Thursday's $19,500 Brown Jug Trial and hitting the climax Saturday night when Speedy Scot, the greatest of all three-year-old trotters, performs for the home folks in an exhibition mile.

Racing Secretary Bill Connors has done his best and believes the programs for the three nights, especially that for Thursday and Saturday, will present all of the track's top pacers and trotters.

There's a $3,000 Invitational trot on tap Friday and a $3,000 Invitational Pace headed by the spectacular Mike Pick dividing top billing with the nation's three-year-old champion trotter.

The Jug Trial attracted a field of seven but there isn't any question in the minds of those close to the three-year-old picture that the starters represent the fastest and best with the possible exception of Overtrick, who skipped the Trial to compete in a rich event at Yonkers Raceway.

Wolverine has shown fans the ultimate winner of the Jug in each of the past two years. It was Henry T. Adios in 1961 and he later became one of the great pacers of all-time. A year ago, Leigh Hanover was in the Trial field but had to be content to finish second in both heats to Adora's Dream, a mud-loving sophomore. Then Leigh went to Delaware and swept the Jug crown in convincing style.

The big question is whether Wolverine will have its third champion in the Trial in as many years. The railbirds believe it has in the speedy Canadian star, Country Don, who holds two victories over Overtrick although he has been beaten three times by the prevailing Little Brown Jug favorite.

Country Don is the fastest three-year-old ever to compete in the Wolverine stake. The son of Adios Boy has a mark of 1:57.4, a string of nine in a row and a victory over Overtrick last Saturday night in 2:01.2.

But he isn't the only one in the seven starters with a claim to fame. Max Hanover, the entry from the Billy Haughton stable, is the only other pacer to beat Overtrick this year, turning the trick at Philadelphia's Liberty Bell oval earlier in the summer.

Then there's Harry's Laura, the only damsel in the crowd, who has a mark of 2:01.2 and shows four victories in her last six starts. Don't count her out of the picture.

Joe O'Brien's Hondo Hanover has had only two starts but was clocked in 1:59.4 and 1:58.4. That shows he's ready.

Michigan's three-year-old king, Adios Gale, appears to be in a bit deep but who knows, the stiffer the competition, the better he may be.

The other starters are: Del Miller's Tarport Doug and Little Ol Gene, a speedy Ohioan who has been making shambles of his competition in the Buckeye state and may be the dark horse here.

Kids To Hold Candy Drive For Football

The Little Football League of Livonia is getting ready for the season's opening games in the All American Little Football League, Inc.

Livonia will have five area representatives in the Greater Detroit circuit, which is comprised of 27 entries from 18 different sectors, ranging from St. Clair Shores to Riverview.

In Little Football, each area fields a freshman, junior varsity and varsity team. All of which means Livonia actually will have 15 different teams in action.

Numerically speaking, there'll be approximately 475 boys, ranging in ages from nine through 12.

Boys on varsity teams must be 11 and 12 years of age except for any ten-year-old who scales more than 90 pounds. The maximum in the varsity class is 120 pounds, the minimum 85.

In the JR bracket, no 11-year-old may weigh over 90 pounds. Boys nine and ten must scale at least 65 and not more than 105 pounds.

The Freshman division is open to boys nine and ten weighing from 65 to 105 pounds.

In Livonia, the five area teams will be known as the Blue Jays, Cards, Eagles, Falcons and Hawks.

Each started drill last week in preparation for opening games carded for the weekend of Sept. 21-22. All home games by the Livonia teams will be played on Sundays.

On the opening schedule, the Blue Jays host the Melvindale Indians, while Cards play at Riverview Pirates, the Eagles at Garden City Hornets, the Falcons at Wyandotte Indians and the Hawks at Nankin Jets.

Before the curtain raisers, the Little Footballers have some other very important business on tap starting this Saturday when they will conduct their annual candy sale to help raise the money to keep the league going.

"It requires a fair bundle of dollars to outfit these boys from head to toe," declared Robert Abernathy, a member of the Livonia Association. Incidentally, Jesse Edwards of Livonia is vice-president of the Greater Detroit League proper.

The Little Football Association works in conjunction with Al Roscoe and Livonia's Recreation Department. The Association provides the equipment, coaches and officials. The Recreation department makes sure the fields are ready, etc.

Each time the Cards, for example, play, there are three contests—the freshman first, then the JV and finally the varsity. Most of the rules are identical with those followed by the high schools.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

Let's take our hats off to three young men — one each from Livonia, Plymouth and Redford Township. Their names are Dick Schryer, who hails from Plymouth ... Barry Marion of Livonia and Keith Spicer of Redford Township.

The play of this trio of teenagers helped the Detroit Citizens team capture the National Junior baseball championship. Citizens took the crown by sweeping a doubleheader by scores of 14-6 and 10-7 from Pittsburgh on the final night of action.

Schryer, one of the all-time greats at Plymouth High before his graduation in June and now enrolled at the University of Michigan, was voted the most valuable player in the tournament.

He played every inning of Citizen's eight games. The team won seven and lost one. What's more, Dick drilled out 11 hits in 28 times at bat. He scored six runs, drove in six, collected three homers and a double, stolen three bases and wound up with an amazing .393 average.

In the final two games, he knocked out a pair of hits in each to have a great say in the easy wins posted by the Citizens team.

Marion distinguished himself as Citizen's third baseman. He fielded flawlessly and in addition picked up six hits in 29 at bats for a .207 average.

Spicer appeared in a utility role for the national champions. He socked out two hits in seven appearances to the plate. But one of his blows was a grand slam homer against Baltimore to help turn the game into a rout.

Back in the days when the Packard Motor car was being made, the company had an advertising slogan which ran: "Ask the man who owns one."

If you were to ask any of our state's sports writers who was "the nicest guy they knew in their profession," they would have said without hesitation — Sam Greene.

At least, that's what they would have said until last Thursday when Mr. Greene fell asleep for always as his radio was tuned to the Tigers as they were beating the Boston Red Sox.

It was never our privilege to work with Sam Green. Most of the time we found ourselves working against him ... on a rival newspaper.

But no member of an enemy paper ever considered Sam Green an opponent. He was like a father to every man who pounded a typewriter in favor of sports.

The sports fraternity will miss Sam Greene, who joins such illustrious Detroit sports writing greats of the past as H. G. Salsinger, Bud Shaver, Bob Murphy, Frank MacDonell, Leo Macdonell, Charley Ward and M. F. Drukenbrod in that world above where we're told man only knows peace and every team always wins.

Baker's 37, Kimbls 41 Cop Titles

Pass the orchids to Tom Baker and Ken Kimble, the new boys golf champions of Livonia. Baker shot a 37 to take the Class A honors while Ken Kimble's net score of 41 took the Class B prize at the Idyl Wyld golf course.

Steve Kazner and Mike Hudak tied for second place honors in Class A with 39s. Then came Bob Huddleston with 42, Gary Rapp 43, Pat Brady 44, Paul Hebda 46 and Aly Ciesiak 47.

In the Class B competition, Jim Brown and Tim Hebda tied for second place, each with a net of 44. Ken Kossick came in third with a 46. John Weissmuller and Dave Peale followed with 50s.

There's No Place Like Your Home For Well-Planned Outdoor Living

Since World War II, more and more families have been proving that there's no place like home for outdoor living!

What started with Saturday night cook-outs at a back-yard grill has progressed to the point where today, many people don't have to go any further than their own property to enjoy favorite sports or a swim.

The modern concept of total development of property has led to today's practice of utilizing the entire back-yard space to meet specific needs of every member of the family.

In order to make maximum use of outdoor areas, it is important to first assess the family needs and the functions each area is to fulfill. Ideally, a back-yard is broken up into "living" and game areas.

In planning outdoor projects, careful consideration should be given to existing landscaping and sun and wind exposure.

Outdoor 'Living Room'
Many families have extended their "living room" outdoors by means of decks, terraces, patios and porches of flagstone, concrete, tile or wood. These sunning, dining and entertaining areas may be enclosed and protected by screening or fencing. Ideally, the barbecue pit should be located nearby.

Today's back-yard is also a recreation "room" where the family keeps fit by having fun. Although each outdoor game has its own requirements as to space, with a little thought play areas for several sports can be included on the home property.

Careful planning can turn a concrete patio or driveway into a family sports area with a shuffleboard court, a basketball hoop and deck tennis provisions.

Grassy areas of the back-yard are ideal for volley-ball, deck tennis, badminton, croquet, golf putting, etc.

When many families feel like a swim, they head for their own back-yard instead of the nearest lake or shore area. The swimming pool, once a luxury for a privileged few, is now priced within reach of the average homeowner.

For the family without a conventional swimming pool, there are plastic wading pools, many of them large enough to permit adults, as well as youngsters, to keep cool in warmer weather.

Children's Haven
Although the back-yard has become a play area for adults, children have not been forgotten. Many yards have areas enclosed with built-in "baby-sitter" fences for complete protection from neighborhood hazards.

Youngsters play on outdoor "kiddie gyms," slides, swings, and sand boxes made of modern "safety-first" materials in imaginative shapes and colors.

Families can enjoy outdoor living more with "indoor" conveniences. Modern lawn furniture is as good-looking and comfortable as it is durable. Back-yard lighting arrangements extend game-time and permit evening use of outdoor living "rooms."

Today's home-owner relies on portable planters to keep his back-yard as pretty as it is practical. Plant boxes and tubs mounted on casters or dollies are easily moved and maintained, and are colorful additions to terraces, patios and sun decks. Even small trees and shrubs will thrive in terrace tubs.

Circle Sept. 17 For "Y" Open House

The Northwest YWCA, 25940 Grand River, is inviting the general public, members and friends to attend an Open House on Tuesday, Sept. 17, at the Branch building. The day will open with a coffee hour at 9:30 a.m. for women interested in Ladies Day Out. Many of the instructors will be present and there will be an opportunity to meet them and ask questions regarding their courses. At 10:30 a.m. Carol Duval of WWJ-TV will be presented and she will give "Conversation With Carol."

From 5-7 p.m., a Pancake Supper will be served to which all members of the family are invited. Following the supper there will be demonstrations of the Saturday Recreation Program in the patio.

At 7:30 p.m., Louis Cook, drama critic for the Detroit Free Press, will present a "Preview of the Sound of Music" which the Northwest and Oakland Branches are sponsoring on Oct. 7 at the Fisher Theatre. Mr. Cook will give a commentary on what to look and listen for in that performance. There will be no admission to his talk.

From 8-9 p.m. there will be a record hop for teenagers in the patio of the building. Registration for fall activities will also be open during the open house hours.

Too often men fail because they turn down real opportunities and hang on to a long-shot.

ROGER CORE

The English Speaking Union has awarded a scholarship to Roger Core who will be one of 30 boys attending school in England during the 1963-64 year. Roger, who resides with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Leslie Core at 11021 Cranston, Livonia, graduated from Cranbrook in June. He will set sail on the Queen Elizabeth, Sept. 11th and will attend Wellington School which is situated two hundred miles east of London.

As an organization, the English-Speaking Union is similar to the American Field Service, but it entails only relations between the two English speaking countries. The program was re-established in 1947 after a respite of nearly thirty years, and it now involves thirty schools from England and an equal amount from the United States.

BRITISH LABOR PARTY leader Harold Wilson would like to see the number of troops in Central Europe reduced. "In the process, we would for the first time achieve a serious prospect of German reunification by democratic means," Wilson told

Social Scientists Refute Negro Inferiority Claims

Four leading scientists in a symposium published this week by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith refute claims of "innate mental differences" between Negroes and whites and declare there is no significant relationship between race and intelligence. Their analysis challenges recent efforts by advocates of segregation to find scientific support for branding Negroes a race intellectually inferior to whites.

The panelists in the symposium are Silvan S. Tompkins, prof. of psychology at Princeton Univ.; Ralph H. Turner, chairman of the dept. of sociology and anthropology at Univ. of California, Los Angeles; Prof. Sherwood L. Washburn, former chairman of the anthropology dept. at the Univ. of California, Berkeley; and Dr. Henry C. Dyer, vice-pres. of the Educational Testing Service in Princeton, N.J.

Dr. Melvin M. Tumin, prof. of sociology at Princeton Univ. is editor of the analysis published under the title Race and Intelligence. It includes a report, The Study of Race, made by Prof. Washburn before the trial scientific evidence. It criticized Dr. Shuey, a psychologist, for relying upon two "unscientific devices," indiscriminately lumping together studies that incorporate efforts to control environment with studies that do not, and accepting as conclusive the residue of differences in IQ which remained after "crude and approximate" corrections were made to compensate for environment.

Mr. Putnam's work, the panel said, based its argument upon Dr. Shuey's findings and upon the comparative history of civilizations "from the perspective of just one of them," the superiority of which "he takes for granted."

Mr. Putnam, a former airlines executive and now an author, has published various articles and speeches on the general thesis that Negroes are genetically and biologically inferior. His book has been hailed by segregation leaders including Gov. Ross Barnett and has been distributed in American Anthropological Assn. of which he is past president.

Principal advocates of the thesis of Negro intellectual inferiority attacked by the panelists are Dr. Audrey Shuey, author of The Testing of Negro Intelligence; Carlton Putnam, author of Race and Reason; Dr. Henry Garrett, professor emeritus of Columbia University and Dr. Wesley C. George, author of The Biology of the Race Problem, a report he was commissioned to write by the Governor of Alabama. These works have been widely used by advocates of segregation to justify their position.

The panel called the Shuey-Garrett-George-Putnam findings of Negro intellectual inferiority insupportable "by any substantial southern school districts for use in the public schools. In answer to questions based upon the Shuey-Garrett-George-Putnam works, the scientists made these observations:

—Behavior and achievement among Negroes vary with the community in which they live and are attributable primarily to the ways in which whites treat Negroes and the ways in which they react to this treatment.

—There are no tests of native intelligence; every response to the stimulus material in intelligence tests is a learned response.

—The only relatively exact method of identifying human beings between Negroes and whites are in any way relevant to the two groups' common participation in the affairs of our society or to the behavior of either group.

—Racism bars the opportunity to compete, not because a group cannot compete successfully, but because it can. If Negroes could not pass college examinations, it would not be necessary to have laws to keep them out.

Professor Washburn's special report, included in the new League publication, calls racism a "relic supported by no phase of modern science." The anthropologist said, "All men are adapted to learn language, to

McCue Named Bumper Plant Comptroller

Appointment of Donald W. McCue as resident comptroller of Chevrolet Motor Division's Spring & Bumper plant at Livonia was announced by Louis A. Bauer, divisional comptroller.

McCue, who has been resident comptroller at Chevrolet's Engineering Center at Warren, succeeds Earl W. Worman, who was named to the newly created position of financial analyst at Chevrolet Central Office in the General Motors Building.

McCue joined Chevrolet as an accountant at the division's Assembly plant at Janesville, Wis., in 1933. After holding several supervisory positions there, he became a traveling auditor in 1948, plant auditor at the division's Assembly plant at North Tarrytown, N.Y., in 1951, and returned to Janesville as assistant resident comptroller later that year. He was promoted to resident comptroller at the Engineering Center in 1961.

A native of Janesville, McCue is a graduate of Janesville High School and Notre Dame University. He and his wife have a daughter and two sons. The family resides at 3655 Paddington Rd., Birmingham.

Livonia Library Has Exhibition Of Old Novels

"Perennial Favorites," an exhibit of novels which have stood the test of time, was opened at the Livonia Public Library this week. Represented are the classics, prize-winners, notable novels, and other "best" books of yesterday and today.

"These novels, although many of them were published years ago, are still widely read and read," Skip Rosenthal, librarian, explained.

Many of the novels in the exhibit have become the classics of our time. They include Margaret Mitchell's "Gone With the Wind," Ernest Hemingway's "For Whom the Bell Tolls," Daphne Du Maurier's "Rebecca," Herman Wouk's "Caine Mutiny," Eric Remarque's "All Quiet on the Western Front," and Pearl Buck's "The Good Earth."

Novels used by the motion picture industry as the basis for films are well represented in the display. A few of these are "Of Human Bondage," by W. Somerset Maugham; "Wuthering Heights," by Emily Bronte; "Mutiny on the Bounty," by Nordhoff and Hall; "Moby Dick," by Herman Melville, and "20,000 Leagues Under the Sea," by Jules Verne.

Historical novels, always in demand, are plentiful among the time-tested books. Some of the novels depicting historical times in other countries are Pearl Buck's "Dragon Seed," Sir Walter Scott's "Ivanhoe," "Hemingway's "The Sun Also Rises," Remarque's "Arch of Triumph," and Shellabarger's "Prince of Foxes."

Adventure stories included range in type from the suspense-filled "Anthony Adverse," by Hervey Allen, to the simple adventure found in H. E. Bates' "Fair Stood the Wind for France." Others are Boyd's "Drums," Cooper's "The Deerslayer," Costain's "The Black Rose," Defoe's "Robinson Crusoe," and Haggard's "King Solomon's Mines."

Also numerous among the titles that have stood the test of time are war novels. They range in scene from Thornton Wilder's "The Idea of March" and Sienkiewicz's "Quo Vadis," set in ancient Rome, to Cooper's "The Last of the Mohicans" and Kenneth Robert's "Northwest Passage," which have the U.S. French and Indian War as a background. Other well-known stories of wars are Costain's "High Towers," Dumas' "The Queen's Necklace," and Crane's "Red Badge of Courage."

The Livonia Libraries are open as follows: Monday through Thursday, 12-9; Friday and Saturday, 9-5. South Branch, 33720 Plymouth Road, GA 7-1990; Carl Sandburg Branch, 30100 W. Seven Mile Rd., 475-0700.

Wayne Offers Courses To Aid Area Executives

Area residents whose work is in management, supervisory, scientific or technological fields are to be served this fall through six Wayne State University courses aimed at improvement in job performance.

The work center will be the Lee Thurston High School, 26255 Schoolcraft, and classes will begin during the week of Sept. 23.

The courses generally are taught by men from business and industry who not only have excellent backgrounds of formal education but also years of successful experience in the subject they will teach.

"Practical educational service that will help you keep abreast of rapidly changing times is the keynote of these offerings," said Dr. Spencer A. Larsen, of Wayne State, who is in charge of the curriculum. Dr. Larsen directs Wayne's Applied Management and Technology Center which has offered courses of this type to a rapidly growing group since 1952.

"Specifically, the Center's aim is to help on-the-job management, scientific and technical personnel develop their mental powers to the end that they become more creative, more productive, and more cooperative on the job," he says.

Counseling is offered by the Center's staff to aid enrollees in planning programs. Personnel and training departments of various plants in the area will also provide counsel as they work closely with the Center in providing this after-work-hours educational program.

Prospective first-time enrollees should call TEmple 1-7695 or TEmple 3-1400, Ext. 441 as soon as convenient to explain their interests and needs. Bulletins, class schedules and registration forms will be mailed promptly.

Registration, now in progress, may be handled either by mail or through a visit to the Center, 4801 Third Ave., Detroit.

The courses are as follows:

MacMillan, Marketing Consultant; Accelerated Reading & Comprehension, David M. Kurtz, Management Education Administrator, Chrysler Corporation; Warehouse Management, John G. Laura Koski

Laura Jean Koski was born August 12 to Ken and Della Koski, 11987 Tecumseh, Redford Township. The baby girl was born at New Grace Hospital and weighed 6 lb., 6½ oz.

State representative Paul Chandler was the first subscriber for SEAS, a new service of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company which will offer greatly expanded calling privileges into Detroit for telephone users here. Taking Rep. Chandler's service request is Mrs. Audrey Moore, of 33448 Rayburn, Livonia, a Michigan Bell commercial representative.

125 Volunteer Workers Sought At State School

A concerted effort to enlist the services of 125 new volunteers by October is being made by the Auxiliary at Plymouth State Home and Training School.

The first volunteer organization in the country to serve in a state institution for the mentally retarded, the Auxiliary is holding an informal coffee meeting Tuesday morning, Sept. 17, in the auditorium of the Administration Building on Sheldon Road, at Five Mile between Plymouth and Northville.

Beginning at 9:30 a.m., the two-hour orientation will include a general introduction to the field of mental retardation;

the State Home's philosophy, goals, and programs; the Auxiliary's variety of services and a tour of the facilities.

Elaborating on the importance of doubling the present membership, William Boyd, Community Relations Director in charge of the program, stated "a recently constructed resident building will soon increase the patient population by another 220 which will mean a total bed capacity exceeding 900.

With the present ratio of staff to patients being 1:12, many of the children compete with each other for attention. Additional volunteers will alleviate this feeling of loneliness which inhibits their development.

Any interested persons or groups in the metropolitan and suburban areas of Detroit are invited to attend. Contact the Community Relations Department (GL 3-1500) for further information.

Realtor Board To Offer Two Real Estate Courses

Two weekly courses in real estate will be offered this fall by the Western Wayne-Oakland Board of Realtors in cooperation with the extension service of the University of Michigan.

"Real Estate Business I," on Monday evenings from 7 to 9, beginning Sept. 16, will be conducted by Jack J. Jominy, executive vice-president of the Western Wayne-Oakland County board.

Intended for real estate salesmen and those planning to enter the real estate business, the course offers basic information on listing, selling, appraising, financing, advertising, deeds, mortgages, land contracts, abstracts, title insurance, commissions and other aspects of real estate practice.

"Real Estate Taxation," on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 10, beginning Sept. 17, will be supervised by Julian P. Curtis, C.P.A., of Touche, Ross, Bailey and Smart, Detroit, and will feature a number of prominent guest lecturers.

The course is designed to give advanced practitioners a fundamental and specialized knowledge of taxation as it applies to the real estate business.

The courses will be given at the Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors' offices, 11677 Beech-Daly Road, in Redford. Fee for "Real Estate Business I" is $40; the fee for "Real Estate Taxation" is $50.

Early registration is urged because of the limited number of students that can be accommodated. Applicants may enroll in person or by phoning the board's educational director at KE 1-6700.
