Junior Highs Put Stress on Cigarette Carriers

Rules and regulations against smoking and even the carrying of cigarettes aren't exactly new for junior high students in the Plymouth Community school system.

As a matter of fact, an educational program, stressing the dangers of smoking and a code forbidding puffing a fag or carrying them, has been in effect for the past seven years.

That was the report of Principal William Harding, administrative head of the system's two junior high schools, in telling of some of the steps taken by school officials at that grade level to check smoking.

Harding was asked about corrective measures and existing rules and regulations following the School Board's action of two weeks ago in which members urged more stringent enforcement by members of the teaching staffs.

"We issue each student a copy of the rules and regulations in regard to smoking, tardiness, and fighting, at the start of the school year," explained Principal Harding.

"Those who have been under our supervision for a year or more are well aware of the rules, the new students are brought up to date as quickly as possible and within a reasonably short time, all know that we have rules and that they are going to be enforced."

Harding pointed out that the first rule on the books is that against smoking.

It reads, "There is to be no smoking of nor carrying of cigarettes within the junior high buildings, on school grounds, or in view of the school by any student attending the Plymouth junior high."

Attached is a footnote which relates, "In view of school reflects on the reputation of the school and hence can be forbidden." Harding (Continued on Page 7)

FACTS and OPINIONS

by Paul Chandler

While most residents of the area realize there is a continuing serious attempt by some suburban officials to stop the Detroit income tax from being levied against non-residents, few realize to what reaches the effort has gone.

This week the Legislature in Lansing will be asked to ponder a unique "petition for redress." This harkens to the third paragraph of the State Constitution (the statement appears in both the old and new documents) which says:

"The people have the right peaceably to assemble, to consult for the common good, to instruct their representatives, and to petition the government for redress of grievances."

A group of legislators is asking the Legislature to provide redress from State officials who refuse to accept petitions with some 250,000 signatures. These petitions ask that the voters be permitted to decide whether a city can levy an income tax upon those who live elsewhere.

The process of asking "redress of grievance" possibly never has been attempted in the history of the State... the reaction to the request in Lansing will be interesting as a matter of political science, if nothing else.

The signed petitions have been refused acceptance thus far for a variety of stated reasons, among them that some of the signatures were gathered too much prior to the opening of the legislative session... an objection full of ham and pretense.

In addition to the "redress" effort, there is a new batch of plain, ordinary bills which would ban income tax against non-residents. They generally follow the pattern of the former "Bowman bill" which passed both Houses but was vetoed by Governor Swainson.

Rep. Bowman, representing a suburban area in the northeast metropolitan section, won as a State Senator the next year. This fall he's going to shoot for U.S. Congress.

During the course of our regular visit this week to the barber shop, we conducted some obvious research on the vital subject at hand—the Beatle hair-do. Would THIS keep the barbers' shears flying for weeks to come, now that THEY are here? Is a Beatle haircut difficult? Will it be expensive? How many of our rugged youth are walking around with them already?

"A Beatle haircut is a mass of overgrown hair, with bangs," our man responded. "It lends itself ideally to do-it-yourself, since the bangs are the only place the scissors touch. Except for the bangs, the style might have been known as 'Neanderthal' or 'Flintstone'."

Hence, my barber, at least, doesn't expect much action on a professional level in line of a Beatle hairstyle panic. In any event, there is time—because it will take considerable days to allow the locks to grow sufficiently so they will resemble an upside-down-dish of matted string. So far, we've only heard of one reported case of a youth in this area walking around, Beatle style, but the future prospect is much less cheerful.

Beatle wigs are available on the open market, and that might be the trend. My barber man couldn't care less.

Observer Newspapers are delivered to homes containing some 140,000 people, a substantial territory all outside the Detroit limits. About half the total population in this area consists of youth of school age or younger.

Yet through this whole area there isn't today: (a) a single artificial ice rink; (b) a single outdoor community swimming pool. The problem with ice for skating has been a little worse than usual this winter, but it's always a distress, year after year.

Let it be hoped that no residents of the area—mainly Livonia, Plymouth, Redford and Nankin—delude themselves into believing the recreation needs of youth are cared for adequately here.

St. John Organist To Perform With Boston Symphony

Robert Town, organist and director of choirs for St. John's Episcopal Church in Plymouth, will perform on the Boston Symphony Hall organ concert series Sunday in Boston.

Town was the winner of the Boston Symphony Orchestra's 1963 Young Artists' competition.

He holds a Bachelor of Music degree from the Eastman School of Music and a Master's Degree from Syracuse University. His organ study has been with David Craighead and Arthur Poister.

At the moment, Town is studying for a Doctor's degree of Musical Arts at the University of Michigan where he is a student of Prof. Marilyn Mason Brown. He also is a member of the piano faculty at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti.

Town has scheduled a recital at Christ Episcopal Church in Dearborn on April 20, sponsored by the Detroit chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Twp. Plan Board Faces New Rezoning Scrap

Although anticipating one of the hottest sessions in several years due to opposition from residents in the area, the Plymouth Township Planning Commission plans to hold a second meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 19 at 8 p.m. on the proposed zoning change of land on Sheldon Road north of Ann Arbor Road.

The matter was presented to the Commission in its January meeting and tabled after more than 50 Park Lane subdivision property owners jammed the hall to voice opposition.

Stewart Oldford and Sons have requested the zoning change from single dwelling residence to multiple dwelling for the purpose of constructing apartment buildings.

The site is almost across the street from the Crestwood Apartments located inside the Plymouth city limits.

The Park Lane residents, most of whom reside on Clare Boulevard or adjoining streets, will have support from the Community Improvement Association of Plymouth Township this time along with that of taxpayers from the area surrounding St. John's Episcopal Church.

The Community Improvement Association objects to the rezoning on the basis of setting a precedence of spot zoning. Members of the group feel the Planning Board should give the same zoning to an entire area rather than spot zone a particular site within a district.

The Commission also plans a hearing on an ordinance to amend Ordinance 14. The hearing will propose to amend the definition of a street, dwelling locations and permits required under the zoning ordinance.

The Commission is headed by Irving Rozian with Tivador Balogh as vice chairman and Arthur Haeske, secretary.

Board Gives Top Priority To Grade School Additions

Although problems of adequate classroom space crop up almost as fast as the Board acts to solve them, the Plymouth School Board Monday decided to follow its time schedule and give top priority to additions to Farrand and Allen schools under their new Building and Site fund plan.

The Board approved a six-room addition to Farrand and a four-room expansion for Allen with a Feb. 1965 target date for opening, some time ago.

Monday, after considerable discussion, members decided to hike the Farrand expansion to a kindergarten and six rooms and that at Allen to library facilities and four rooms with the same anticipated opening.

They had hardly approved these arrangements when School Supt. Russell Isbister and Assistant Supt. Melvin Blunk informed them of plans for a 150-home development in the Allen School district that may bring another space problem there within a year and a half.

It was the unanimous opinion that the planned addition will be the last for the Farrand School since the site won't take any additional rooms.

And that poses the problem of securing space for another projected elementary school in the area in a not too distant future and a site for an anticipated need for a second senior high in the Canton Township section.

The Board plans to move in the direction of sites as soon as it is completely aware of the monies needed for the expansion programs.

made conducted tours of the large Western Electric distribution center on N. Sheldon Road. More than 80 members of the women's club were guests of the management for luncheon and tours.

Plymouth Nears JA Fund Goal

Livonia and Plymouth are well on their way to achieving the goals in the 1964 Junior Achievement fund-raising campaign to finance operations of the various companies in the two districts.

That was the report of Livonia Chairman John Vella of Consumers Power and Plymouth Chairman Elmer Hedlund of Western Electric at the initial report meeting of the area JA at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in downtown Detroit.

The two branches are part of the Southeastern Michigan division which has a goal of $275,000. Livonia, which shares in the contributions to the division, has its sights set on raising $3,400 and Plymouth is seeking $4,500.

Vella reported Livonia had reached 35.6 percent of its total with donations of $1,210.

Hedlund indicated Plymouth is over the halfway point with 52.2 percent on contributions of $2,349.

The final division reports will be made at a dinner meeting at the Statler on Feb. 20.

Vella has named chairmen of two local teams to aid in the campaign. Dr. R. D. Young is chairman of the medical solicitations and Lonnie Brashear, who also is a member of the Livonia School Board, is in charge of the professional solicitations.

Plymouth Newcomers Learn First Hand Of Western Electric

Just what takes place in the Western Electric plant on N. Sheldon Road, Michigan's distributing center for the manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell system?

Members of the seven-year-old, all-woman Plymouth Newcomers Club went home with tall stories and their eyes almost popping out of their heads after a luncheon and tour of the facilities last week as guests of General Manager Arnold Johanson and members of his executive staff. Now they know what goes on at the big plant.

The Newcomers made 84 reservations for the unusual program and all 84, including 22 recent arrivals to the Plymouth community, were on hand.

Matter of fact, after personally conducted tours of the plant during which they were made well aware of the Western Electric story, the newcomers unanimously recommended the tour for other groups so that they too could be told of what Western Electric is doing.

The Plymouth distribution center is one of 32 in the company throughout the country. The principal job is to furnish all items needed by the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and the Long Lines division of American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Western stocks 9,400 items regularly for use by the two companies and countless other items are shipped direct to more than 30,000 suppliers in the United States.

The biggest job of the Plymouth plant is reconditioning used telephone sets. By cleaning and polishing, replacing worn and defective parts, some 40,000 phones are returned to service each month.

But that's only part of the story. The plant also rehabili-

Arthur Lenaghan Gets Appointment To Twp. Fire Dept.

Arthur Lenaghan, who has been serving as a temporary appointment to the Plymouth Township Fire Department, was given a permanent assignment by Supervisor Roy Lindsay last week.

Lindsay made the appointment after receipt of a list of four eligibles from the Township Civil Service Commission, which conducted an examination for Fire Fighter I classification earlier.

The Commission certified Lenaghan, James Gignac, John La Grow and Louis Schomberger as eligible for appointment until Jan. 25, 1966.

Lenaghan passed the competitive exam with the highest grade.

Salvation Army Plans To Celebrate 35th Anniversary

The Plymouth Salvation Army will celebrate its 35th anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 16 at the Citadel on Fairground St. It was on Feb. 16, 1929 that Cadet Captain and Mrs. Frank Wright opened the Corps in Plymouth.

Services will include the Sunday School Rally at 10 a.m. and the morning service at 11 a.m. with Major (Ret.) Edna Anderson, of Detroit, as the speaker.

The anniversary and homecoming service will be held at 3 p.m. when Mrs. Adjutant Frank Wright will speak. Other former officers will speak and the Brightmoor Songsters from the Detroit Brightmoor Corps will furnish music.

The evening service at 7 p.m. will have as its speaker C. C. Briggs, manager of the Men's Social Service Center in Detroit.

PRESIDENT'S TROPHY, for most outstanding achievements by an agency in the United States, is presented to Fabe Mirto (left), of Plymouth, by Vice President C. W. Faulkner, of Lincoln Nebr., of the Woodmen Accident and Life Insurance Company. Mirto's Plymouth agency won the award over the company's 55 branches in all sections of the nation.

'Rags To Riches' In 12 Years; That's Story Of Fabe Mirto

From a brand new agency starting from scratch in 1951, the Fabe Mirto Agency of the Woodmen Accident and Life Insurance Co., 1005 W. Ann Arbor Trail, climbed to the top in the intervening 12-year span and won the coveted President's Trophy for 1963 as the company's No. 1 agency of 55 throughout the nation.

Township Collections Hit 9.2 Pct.

Plymouth Township's tax collection has passed the 96-percent mark to date with the deadline for payment without penalty set for Feb. 29. That was the announcement of Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes as she revealed collection figures to date.

The Township has collected a total of $1,401,251 for the School district; $404,036 for Wayne County; $235,927 for the Township government; and $59,306 for the College district.

Mrs. Holmes anticipates a collection of more than 98 per cent of the total roll of $2,180,182 by the Feb. 29 deadline.

Mirto received the trophy, presented on the basis of production, quality of business and new manpower objectives, from Vice President C. W. Faulkner in a dinner at Weber's in Ann Arbor. Faulkner was acting for President E. J. Faulkner and made a trip from the company's headquarters in Lincoln, Neb., for the ceremonies.

More than 25 agents and their wives from the 10 Southeastern Michigan counties, serviced out of the Mirto office, attended the program. Mirto's staff includes eight district managers and three agents with headquarters at the Plymouth office.

The Plymouth office was fifth in size in the nation for Woodmen. Mirto opened the Woodmen office in Sept. 1951 and has been the big factor in the tremendous growth and rise since.

He and his wife, Edith, and sons, Gary and Bruce, reside at 185 Blunk Street.

Even Audience Joins Fun At 'The Drunkard'

The audience will get into the swing of the stage production by joining in a community sing prior to the rise of the curtain for the opening scenes of "The Drunkard" Thursday, Friday and Saturday in the Plymouth High School auditorium.

The drama, 49th production of the Plymouth Theater Guild, is based on the period of the '90s and the community sing will have that same theme.

House Committee Chairman Elvira French has transformed the auditorium into a supper club for the three nights with tables, chairs and refreshments for all in the audience.

Choice seats are still available at Melody House in Plymouth for the Thursday night performance but the ticket committee reports the Friday and Saturday showings are practically sell-outs.

If you're interested in viewing this unusual stage production, then call Melody House now for the few tickets available for the final two nights or for a wider choice on Thursday.

Kiwanians Learn Cost Of Crashes

Auto accidents in 1963 cost insurance companies millions of dollars which were paid by policy holders' premiums and are reflected in increased insurance premiums.

This was put across to members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club by G. H. Valrance, a well-known area insurance agent, in the weekly meeting at Loty's Arbor-Lili.

Valrance told Kiwanians that a recent survey in Washington County showed that the use of seat belts could reduce injuries in accidents up to 49 per cent. He pointed out that automobile manufacturers will install seat belts as standard equipment on new cars beginning in 1965.

Kiwanis Treasurer Roland Lutz reported the club contributed $415 to the Forney Clement Foundation for retarded youngsters during 1963. The Foundation operates out of Ann Arbor.

A trophy, aimed at creating better fellowship between clubs through visits, was presented to the Plymouth Club by George Burr.

The trophy, known as "Mr. Auk," will be used by the inter-club committees of the area when making exchange visits. Four Plymouth Kiwanians will start it on a journey throughout the district when they visit the South Lyon group next Monday.

The rules provide that it must be passed on to another club the following week and rotated in such a fashion that no single club has possession more than three times in a calendar year.

In the mail this week came an invitation from the Michigan Water Color Society to submit paintings to their 18th annual Water Color Exhibition to be held at the Detroit Artists Market April 1 through the 18th. Dates for submitting paintings are February 24 to 29 before 5 p.m. at the Artists Market, 1452 Randolph. Work should be unframed, without glass but with at least a 2" mat and backed by double thick board. The maximum size is 36"x36". There are prizes and awards and the chance of selling your painting. For non-members of the water-color society it costs $5.00 per painting with no more than two acceptable. It would be nice to crack this show sometime, but this is a hard thing to do. There is formidable competition in this area, from professors at the various nearby universities, but hope springs eternal.

The Left Bank Gallery, 325 Stevens Street in Flint, is featuring the pottery of Plymouth resident Roy Anderson. Also shown is creative photography by Jack Newman, and water-colors by Anna Marie Rado.

The Forsythe Gallery, 201 Nickels Arcade, Ann Arbor will exhibit the latest of William Lewis' Civil War Series. He has now arrived at "The Last Year of the Civil War" with paintings and drawings in his own inimitable style. If

Local Senior Scouts To Travel Nationally

Six Senior Girl Scouts of the Metropolitan Detroit Council have been selected by Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. to attend special national events in the summer of 1964, according to Mrs. William E. Wilson, Council president. Five Senior Scouts will travel to different parts of the country for "All-States Encampments" and one to a conference on the campus of Cazenovia College, Cazenovia, New York.

Diane Galia, 17390 Brady, Redford Township, will attend the college campus conference, the first of its kind sponsored by the national Girl Scout organization. Purpose of the conference is to help Senior Scouts understand our cultural heritage of values in the arts, the home, and the out-of-doors and to become aware of changes that have occurred. Each Scout will be assigned to a workshop on one of these three major subjects to be emphasized at the conference. The program will also include general sessions, discussion groups, special events, and field trips. Diane will join several hundred other Senior Scouts from the 50 states at the Cazenovia campus conference and expects to be assigned to a workshop in the arts, one of her major interests in Girl Scouting.

Three Senior Scouts from the Metropolitan Detroit Council were selected as alternates to the Cazenovia campus conference. They are Sue McLuckie, 621

Higbie Place South, Grosse Pointe Woods; Yvonne Moore, 14566 Littlefield, Detroit; and Nancy Valle, 19211 Poinciana, Redford Township.

Senior Scouts selected for the All-States encampments are: Karen Bolz, 14017 Crosley, Redford Township, to Elizabeton, Tenn.; Helen Bourgoin, 1060 Crawford, Detroit, to Carnation, Wash.; Kathleen Budesky, 14910 Lesure, Detroit, to Conowingo, Md.; Norma Kiefer, 14848 Greenbrier, Plymouth, to Twin Lakes, Mich., and Barbara Lane, 14886 Monte Vista, Detroit, to Redwood City, Calif.

Between 100 and 128 campers, representing 50 states, will camp at each of the All-States encampments for two-week periods during June, July, and August. Sites used for the All-States encampments are owned by Girl Scout Councils in each area.

Each Senior Scout will be assigned a project to prepare her to return to her home Council and teach troop leaders camping skills such as outdoor activities for Scouts from 7 to 17 years of age, preparation for camping with their troops, planning a day camping program, and setting up a campsite for troop use.

During the summer of 1963 three Senior Scouts attended All-States encampments in Maryland, Michigan, and Tennessee. The Scouts, Barbara Brown, of Allen Park, and Judy Haggerty and Charleen Nelson, of Detroit, are at present teaching camping skills to troop leaders in the Detroit area.

Do You Know What The Independent Order Of Odd Fellows Stand For?

(Second in a series highlighting a club or organization in the Plymouth community.)

This benevolent and fraternal order, which in many ways is like Free-masonry, was founded in England in the early 18th century. Its purpose was for the mutual relief and benefit of its members.

Draws who joined in 1916 and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagenschutz who joined in 1917.

At their joint installation on Saturday, Jan. 11 these Odd Fellows were installed as officers: Perry Krumm, noble grand; William Roach, vice grand; Stillman Warner, recording secretary; Fred Wagenschutz, financial secretary and treasurer; Harry Hunter and Roger Bordine, supporters to the noble grand; Wilford Bunyca, supporter to the vice grand; Donald Drews, conductor; Walter Wolfrom, warden; Earl Gray, chaplain; and Clifton Howe, guardian.

These officers were installed in the Rebekah Lodge: Hazel Roach, noble grand; Hazel Norgrove, vice grand; Mabel Hunter, recording secretary; Evelyn Stanible, financial secretary; Minnie Ray, treasurer; Imogene Carter, chaplain; Dorothy Fulton, Jr. past noble grand; Roma Krumm and Dorothy Finney, supporters to the noble grand; Irene Broegman and Mae Prieskorn, supporters to the vice grand; Edna Gray, conductor; Lucille Granger, warden; Violet Garrison and Doris Dickerson, guardians.

The rites, passwords, and grips of the Odd Fellows are characteristic of all secret societies. From 1830 to 1944 the society paid out more than $250,000,000 in relief funds. This does not include life insurance. Among the best known symbols of the society are the three links, representing friendship, love and truth.

The Tonquish Lodge No. 32 was chartered in Plymouth in 1849. Among its better known members at the turn of the century were Phil Markham, Edward Hough and Charles Bennett.

The Daughters of Rebekah is a branch of American Odd Fellowship. It was organized by Schuyler Colfax, vice president of the United States during Grant's first term of office. At one time it was necessary for a woman to be related to an Odd Fellow to join a Rebekah Lodge. However, that restriction was lifted some 25 years ago. Many Odd Fellows are members of the Rebekah lodges, too.

The Plymouth Rebekah Lodge No. 182 was organized in July, 1891. A fire in 1893 destroyed many of their records, and their meetings were stopped until 1902 when their charter was resuscitated. Oldest active members are Mrs. Lydia

Livonia Couple Exchange Vows

Susan Jean Ketcham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert N. Ketcham of Ann Arbor Trail, Livonia, and Joel Alan Hickey were united in marriage by the Rev. William Nelson at Emmanuel Baptist church before 125 friends and relatives on Saturday, Dec. 21. Mr. Hickey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Martin of Perrin Drive, Livonia.

For the afternoon ceremony, the bride chose an olive green mohair Chanel suit with golden olive silk blouse and matching veiled cut velvet hat. She carried a Colonial bouquet of ivory roses. She was given in marriage by her father at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Sandra Chobot, the maid of honor, wore a cranberry mohair suit with matching hat, and a corsage of pink carnations and holly pinned to her black clutch purse. Organist was Bernard Schreck.

Assisting as best man was Hans Neurath. Ushers were Richard Acker of Coleman and Mark Ketcham, brother of the bride. In addition to traditional Christmas decorations, the church was trimmed with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and gladioli, flanked by branched candelabra tied with greens, centered by a white prie dieu. The altar tapers were lighted by Janice Martin, the bridegroom's sister, and Matthew Ketcham, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother selected a navy mohair suit dress with feathered pillbox hat in lighter blue. Mrs. Martin's dress was bright aqua silk with matching small hat.

At the reception held at the bride's parents' home, Miss Pamela Posey and Miss Nancy Pitts presided at the tea table.

After a short honeymoon, the couple returned to Livonia for Christmas. They are now at home in Houghton at 107 West Montezuma avenue. Both are graduates of Bentley High school and will resume their studies at Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

Ford Searches Colleges for 1,000 Graduates to Fill Posts

Ford Motor Company will seek nearly 1,000 college and university graduates in 1964 for placement in the company's college graduate program.

Edwin D. O'Leary, Ford vice-president — Personnel and Organization, said Ford representatives expect more than 8,400 interviews on 134 campuses throughout the nation before the end of March.

O'Leary said the recruiters would seek graduates to fill specific personnel requests from various Ford components. He said positions now open include 378 in engineering, research and manufacturing; 214 in sales and marketing; 205 in finance; 40 in purchasing and traffic; 53 in industrial relations, and 61 in other areas. During 1963, the company initially sought 921 graduates, but by year end had enrolled 1,080 in its college graduate program. Ford's program normally includes a series of work assignments over a two-year period to provide training and experience. The spring schedule will take Ford recruiters to the campuses of six Michigan schools. Interviews are scheduled in the state during February at Western Michigan University (Kalamazoo), University of Michigan, Michigan Technological University (Houghton), and the University of Detroit. March interviews are scheduled at the University of Michigan, Eastern Michigan University (Ypsilanti) and Wayne State University. Ford recruiters previously conducted interviews at Michigan State University and Oakland University.

Band Director, Coach's Son Hospitalized

Plymouth High band director James Griffith became the newest member of the faculty's hospital list last week when he checked into St. Mary Hospital for treatment and an operation that will keep him away from school duties for two or more weeks.

Griffith had to miss the annual midwinter band and chorus concert Friday evening.

He checked into the hospital just a day or so after Adult Education and Recreation Director Herb Woolweaver left following a serious operation. Woolweaver expects to be back in his office within a few days.

At the same time, John Hoben, son of football coach and Mrs. John Hoben, was rushed to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor for treatment of complications following a tonsil operation.

Johnny underwent the operation two weeks ago but has had to return to the hospital twice since due to complications. Coach Hoben reports the youngster in excellent shape now after his latest relapse.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoben had to take Johnny to Ann Arbor early Wednesday morning when he became seriously ill. His condition was regarded as critical for more than 24 hours.

Junior Highs Rough On Cigaret Carriers

Continued from Page 1 • quickly explained that this power is granted by state law. Then the students are warned of the three-phase corrective measures taken by the junior high principal and his two assistants. The three measures include:

A—When a student is found to be breaking the rules on smoking for the first time, his or her parents will be notified. The student will be counseled at the office concerning the violation.

B—On the second violation, the student will be sent home for a period of three days and the parents must visit the school to discuss the violation.

C—On the third violation, the student will be suspended for the remainder of the school semester.

However, there is one exception and it involves a stiff sentence for the student caught. The exception is that any student caught smoking in the building will be suspended immediately.

"We feel that smoking at junior high level has dropped in the past seven years," Harding said. "There isn't any question but that students in our age group are smoking but our figures show about 25 of the 1,600 are found guilty of violating rule A; we have 10 suspensions each year for a second violation and only two expulsions in seven years."

Harding and the junior high teaching staff term the problem of carrying as the most important. They are constantly on the alert for the carriers and on occasion have checked lockers to confiscate cigarettes.

"We feel a carrier can become a buddy of all by passing out forbidden smokes to as many as 16 or 17 classmates," Harding emphasized. "Thus we can do more to curb smoking by nailing a carrier than we can by detecting two or three in the act."

Harding said four boys are involved in smoking incidents

Down River Plant Makes Three Changes In Top Personnel

The Down River Packaging Corporation of Wayne announces the following appointments:

Fred Wells has joined the company as Accounting and Production Control Manager. Wells was formerly associated with the Union Bag-Camp Paper Corporation of Monroe.

John Cysin has been appointed Sales Representative for corrugated products. Cysin was previously with Mead Container Corporation of Flint.

Walter Kuptz has been appointed a Special Representative reporting to Executive Vice President Howard Miller.

to every one girl but the lone girl can pose a bigger problem than the four boys.

"We have learned that most of the boys smoke because they are flaunting authority and getting a kick from it but few have become habitual smokers at the junior high age. But," he warned, "The story is different with a girl who generally has acquired the habit and gives us a major problem. The boys we can deal with and most quickly give up smoking, but the lone girl generally won't or can't give up."

The veteran junior high principal was loud in his praise of the cooperation received from parents when smoking incidents are brought to their attention.

Most help in every way possible and do everything they can to help school officials straighten out their sons and daughters.

"Rarely do we run into a parent who isn't genuinely appalled to think their son or daughter has started smoking at the junior high age," he said.

Harding recommends a planned program of education in the elementary grades to supplement the program now being carried out in the 7th, 8th and 9th grades.

He feels this should be part of the instructional program rather than the assembly type of education since the ratio is only 30-1 in the classroom contrasted to as many as 1,200 in an assembly.

"We realize we have a problem," he said. "One that is even more acute since the report from the Federal Public Health department. We have been taking steps to curb smoking for the past seven years, and feel it has been effective."

"With an educational program starting in the elementary grades with the stress on the dangers of smoking in the junior high and high school levels, we honestly believe there will be a marked improvement in the months ahead in the second semester."

The Newcomers were shown teletypewriters working at 60 words per minute as do most of the machines at newspaper offices, some at 110 words per minute, and were then given a demonstration of the data processing machine feeding its remarkable 1,050 words per minute.

Winter Ignores Our Longer Days, Says U-M Expert

ANN ARBOR—Old Man Winter will probably remain unmoved by the lengthening of daylight this month, University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh says.

The old saying, "As the days lengthen, the cold strengthens," is particularly appropriate during January. The rate of earth's heating has not yet overtaken its rate of cooling. It will in early February, Professor Losh notes.

Since the winter solstice (Dec. 22, 1963) the days are steadily growing longer until, by the end of January, there will have been about 60 minutes increase over the short days of December, explains the Michigan astronomer.

By DOROTHY FINNEY
GL 3-6160

Jesse Tritten, Master of the Plymouth Grange, announced that a rummage sale will be held in the Grange Hall on Union St. March 6 and 7. All usable discards will be welcomed.

Proceeds of the sale will be used for charitable projects and for further improvements on the Grange Hall.

and membership dues.

Mrs. William Bournias of Marilyn St., chairman of the Benefit Fashion Show at the Raleigh House in Detroit on February 13, has had acceptance from these personalities: Mary Beck, Detroit City Council; Mrs. Neil Staehler, and Edythe Fern Melrose, the "Lady of Charm" on channel 7, WXYZ.

The show is sponsored by the P.T.A. of the Sts. Constantine and Helen Greek Orthodox Church, Detroit.

THE PLYMOUTH Children's Nursery will host the delegates of the Huron Valley Council of Cooperative Nurseries at the annual monthly meeting on February 12 at 1:30 p.m. in Hough School, Warren and Haggerty Roads.

The Council is composed of members from the neighboring nurseries of Ann Arbor, Chelsea, Bedford, Monroe, Manchester, Saline, South Lyon, and Plymouth.

The agenda includes a report on the state survey now being taken of all nurseries in Michigan. It will include information on forming new nurseries and administering them and will be distributed throughout the state.

There will also be a report on a project in the making to organize a nursery school in Tanganyika, Africa. A tea will be held in Ann Arbor to finance this project.

Coffee and cookies will be served.

VACATIONS

CAPT. AND MRS. Charles Wheaton, of Gov. Bradford Rd., returned recently from a vacation spent in Bermuda. They stayed at the Elbow Beach Surf Club on the south side of the island, and spent much of their time riding motor bikes about the island.

This was Charlie's first trip to Bermuda and his wife Barb's third. She had gone there in 1961 and again in 1962 when she showed their International Champion Welmaraner, Captain Wheaton's Conair, at the Bermuda Dog Show.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Finney, of Marilyn St. are spending a week's vacation in the Bahamas. They left last Saturday morning for Miami and from there flew to Nassau. Both Capt. Wheaton and Larry are pilots with the United Airlines.

THE PLYMOUTH Birthday Ladies' party at the Northville State Hospital on January 28 was one of the most heart-warming affairs I've ever attended.

Most of the 95 women patients from N Building who attended seemed to be delighted with the games, contests, prizes, gifts and refreshments.

I was amazed at the patient who played the piano for the dance contests. She played from memory any type of music—Hawaiian for the hula contest, rock-and-roll for the twist contest, and a medley of old songs while the refreshments were being served.

And incidentally, a large number of prizes are needed each month since every participant receives a prize. So if any of our readers have perfume or cosmetics that don't fit their personalities, they would make gifts and prizes. Costume jewelry, books, handkerchieves and scarves are also needed.

Mrs. June Wells, club president, makes a round of several Plymouth stores each month for items which can be used as prizes. The work of the club is carried on through donations further study of the needs at Gallimore School before making a decision on an addition there. At the moment, it is planned to add at least two classrooms but this may be increased if the study shows the problem is more acute than the Board believes at this time.

Final action on the Allen School expansion will be delayed until the March meeting pending additional study during which the Board plans to check into the new housing project slated for the area.

The Board approved two change orders on the second phase of Junior High West at a total cost of $663.

President Gerald Fischer called an executive meeting for Saturday, Feb. 22 at 9 a.m. at which the Board will scan applications for Architects and make a selection to handle the proposed building projects.

Fischer, Isbister and Board Member Robert Utter will leave Saturday morning for Atlantic City to attend the five-day session of the American Association of School Administrators. The national convention is scheduled from Feb. 15 through 19.

In other actions, the Board: Approved a policy for classified personnel on recommendation of Employs Relations Chairman Utter.

Passed a resolution agreeing to co-operate and assist Schoolcraft College in its efforts to establish a Vocational Institute. The Institute would serve as a vocational training center for all residents of the area, regardless of age or whether they are high school graduates or not.

GLUING JOINTS

Simplify job of assembling glued joints with dowels which fit into holes in each piece, by first crimping dowels lengthwise by squeezing lightly between serrated jaws of pliers. Toothmarks around perimeter of dowels will make them easier to insert.

Seek Robber Who Really Changes Coins

Plymouth police are seeking a robber who's more than a novice in his knowledge of a coin changing machine operation.

The thief broke into the Forest Laundromat, 585 Forest, and drained the coin changing machine of more than $15 in dimes. Police believe he discovered a way of tripping the coin release with a long wire.

It was the second time in three weeks the machine had been emptied.

Three Shoplifters Get $50 Fines in Plymouth

Three female shoplifters were fined $50, received suspended sentences of 40 days in Detroit House of Correction and placed on six-months probation, when found guilty by Plymouth Municipal Judge Harry Deyo.

The trio was arrested by Plymouth police on charges of shoplifting in the Kroger store. Deyo ordered the six-months probation with the provision that anyone guilty of violation will automatically be ordered into court and sentenced to the 40 days in DeHoCo.

Seven Area Schools Enroll In State Forensic Tourney

Seven area high schools are among the record 873 enrolled in the spring program of the Michigan High School Forensic Association, according to State Manager William Gilsdorf.

The seven include: Franklin and Ladywood in Livonia; Thurston and Redford Union in Redford

Township; Clarenceville, Garden City and Plymouth. The Michigan program, one of the largest in the United States with 9,000 participants in more than 2,400 individual speech contests last year, is headquartered at the University Bureau of School Services in Ann Arbor. Spring forensic activities begin with local contests between schools on March 1 through March 15. First and second place winners in the local level, in each of 10 events, will proceed to district competition between March 23 and April 11. Final regional contests between the various district winners will be held between April 20 and May 9. Spring events include: oratory, declamation, interpretative reading, narrative and humorous reading, extempore speaking, dramatic monologue and idialogue, lyric poetry and radio news commentary. First-place district winners will receive engraved desk dictionaries, certificates are awarded to regional winners and the University of Michigan awards wall plaques to regional winning schools.

Plymouth Gets Story Of 'Revolt'

Dr. Albert MacQueen, speaking to the Plymouth Community Human Relations Assembly on "The Negro Revolt," pointed out that the desire to revolt has long been present, but the will to revolt has not because society has been so oppressive. He emphasized that what society is now witnessing is not the revolt of the middle-class Negroes but a movement of Negroes of all levels.

Dr. MacQueen, Associate Professor of Sociology at University of Michigan, was the first in a series of speakers presented by the Assembly.

This movement has, in turn, sparked a new feeling of pride in the Negroes themselves and has generated a new restraint, as demonstrated in the non-violent boycotts," he said. "Still remaining is a suspicion of Whites, a fear that the current movement will be thwarted by 'tokenism.'"

In reviewing the leadership of the Negro revolt, Dr. MacQueen cited the NAACP, which was founded about 1909, and the Urban League, both of which have their following among the middle-class "elite."

The masses of Negroes were not greatly involved until the 1954 Supreme Court decision. The rise in the educational level of the Negro led to the student boycotts and sit-ins starting in 1956 which aroused the Negroes of every class to the present accelerated pace of demonstrations.

Dr. MacQueen also pointed out that the Negro workingman has not had any real representation any place and it is this which has led to the rise of such groups as the Freedom Now party and the Black Muslims. He emphasized the need for the major political parties to recognize what he called "a grass-roots discontent."

"The Negro revolt has led to three ideas of human equality in America today," Dr. MacQueen pointed out. "Basically, the idea is still accepted that some people are more equal than others, which, when applied to the Negro, makes him feel he must prove himself equal."

"It is also felt every man should have the same opportunities to express his talents and make his achievements. Yet again, there is a kind of reverse discrimination: that because Negroes have been restrained for so long they should be more than equal now, a very prevalent idea today."

"This latter idea leads to a scramble to employ Negroes in positions of equality thus benefiting the educated, skilled, middle class and leaving the masses relatively untouched, still facing poverty and unemployment."

The problem today is not just a racial problem, but the problem of the poor in an extremely affluent society, whether they are Negro, Puerto Rican, Mexican, migratory worker or just poor white. Nor is it any loner a Southern problem, because the problems of the South move North as the proportion of Negroes in Northern cities grows. This is, in turn, not just a racial problem but an urban problem."

FOR THE SECOND of its five lectures on Understanding Through Education, the Plymouth Community Human Relations Assembly will present Dr. Leonard W. Moss on Thursday, Feb. 13, at 8 p.m. The topic for this discussion meeting is "The Nature of Prejudice." The lectures are being held in the Senior High School Annex Auditorium and are open to the public.

Pope Paul In The Holy Land Via Film At Mai Kai

The visit of Pope Paul in the Holy Land from the start by air in Rome to his return with preliminary scenes of each stop to enable the devotee to linger along the way then to accompany him may be done by film being shown exclusively at the Mai Kai Theatre starting this Wednesday.

The film accompanies the Pope as he walks through crowds and amid acclaim from followers of all religions. The film, in color, is the best witness to this famous pilgrimage of the age.

CHARLES BOUSQUET, 10529 Laurel, has a dual role in forthcoming "Drunkard" production (February 13-15). Off-stage, Charlie handles all shutter-bugging activities as the Plymouth Theater Guild's official photographer. On-stage, Mr. Bousquet will be serving the demon rum to Edward Middleton in his role as Nick, the Bartender.

'Drunkard' Opens in Plymouth Tomorrow

"The Drunkard" or "The Fallen Saved" weaves into bone-dry Plymouth on Thursday, February 13 for three days. Formerly a startling temperance drama replete with abstinence pledges and ministers in attendance, "The Drunkard" has been revived from time to time in more modern guise.

The Plymouth Theater Guild has not yielded to the temptation of modernizing such a genuine classic of the American stage. Director Bob Wall has staged the production in the authentic style of the 1850's. Scene designer Ray Maidment, Jr. has followed through with colorful backdrops, set pieces, and rococo wings. The Plymouth High stage has been transformed to a vivid, exciting reproduction of P. T. Barnum's Museum of 1844.

"The Drunkard" boasts of a cast of hundreds. The following Livonia-Plymouth-Redford folks are strutting and fretting their hour upon the stage: John Bensmiller, Eliska Cowan, C. V. Sparks, Charles Bousquet, Jerry French, George Spelvin, Arthur Azar, Jeannine Schultz, Jake Rumpf, Helen King, Louise Byrd, Darrell Scheans, Tommy Walker, Art Schultz, Philipp Ashton, Richard Brown, Jacob Rummel, Ken McLeod, Joan Walker, John Augustine, Kathy Cowan, Jan Bensmiller, Kathy Moore, A. J. Schultz, Sam Evans.

Augmenting the large, competent cast will be additional personnel in the music diversion department. The Weavers, ever-popular dance team from Miss Harriet's studios, will be headlining the dance department. Barber-shoppers are coming in from Ypsilanti to provide melodious atmosphere. Tom Shea and his Silver Dollar Ragtime Rangers will play honky-tonk tunes to keep the audience in a music hall mood.

Tables and chairs replace the usual rows as the guests at "The Drunkard" can sip Beer and Ale (root and ginger variety) at all performances as they watch the show. Community singing led by Louise Byrd and Dorothy Smith give the audience a chance to warm up their vocal cords for the inevitable cheering of the hero and the prolonged hissing of the villain.

"ACE" AZAR practices his lecherous leer for the dastardly deed he performs in the wretched garter midway in the classic melodrama, "The Drunkard."

LOUISE BYRD does a few arpeggios in preparation for her musical specialty number as the Bowery Nightingale. Louise has the role of Lucy in "The Drunkard" when she is not out front warbling with the Silver Dollar Ragtime Rangers. The Drunkard opens on February 13 for three tremendous performances at the Plymouth High Auditorium. Performances start at 8:15 nightly. Advance tickets are available at the Melody House.

'Curtain Going Up'

The Livonia-Redford Theater Guild's "Come Blow Your Horn" touted its arias as sweetly as the notes that Al Hirt blows so expertly. Capacity audiences chortled, guffawed, and generally had a riotous time watching the antics of Alan Baker and his family.

Jim Coburn as the wolfish Alan tossed his lines out with the ease of a gourmet chef concocting an exquisite salad. Jim's experience with The Guild was evident throughout the evening as he highlighted one laugh line after another.

Director Guest showed great taste in his selection of costumes, set design, and building each scene to its proper climax. At times his stage patterns had a bit too much sameness. Old Wally felt the corner of that wonderful davenport was going to be worn down to a nubbin if a character sat on it one more time. A lack of movement in the climactic scenes often robbed the actors of their full effectiveness.

Paul Wheeler gave new dimensions to the role of Buddy Baker. His hesitant, reluctant approach to life during the first two acts was perfect. His metamorphic change to a lovable sex-hungry lad in Act III properly brought down the house. His red jacket stopped the show as did the fine delivery of the gag line by Mr. Coburn.

Jeanette Burke and Margaret Stephenson, newcomers to the Guild stage, made their debut in fine fashion. We hope to see more of them in subsequent shows. Bill Barish gave his usual brilliant comic performance as the harassed father. Bill seldom missed an opportunity to snare a laugh. One item did bother me. The mother used a Jewish accent, but Bill seemed to have his accent only occasionally.

Was he taking voice lessons to remove the Jewish accent? I've always preferred my "Come Blow Your Horn" slightly on the Kosher side. If you will recall when Fred Clark played this self-same role at the Fisher a couple of years ago, I complained about the lack of this N.Y. identification.

The Livonia-Redford Theater Guild's "Come Blow Your Horn" added another comic jewel to its 10-year record of having a consistent series of smash hits. Old Wally may have found a few minor faults, but who can argue with an audience that leaves the theater as rosy and happy as the patrons did last week? Too bad the show couldn't be repeated for another weekend. I'm sure all Livonia would want to see and enjoy such a professional production.

The set design and actual construction deserves a glowing comment all by itself. Mr. Bob Brown and his hard-working crew members (Charles McGone, Don Brozo, Howard James, Don De Bastos, Jack Pember, Ed Martin, Ralph Davies, Don Warren, Priscilla Stoloff, Bob Zaratzian, Floyd Saley, and Louise De Vito) are to be doubly commended for providing such a beautiful, authentic set. Almost seemed too bad that such a stunning set had to be struck.

Old Wally bumped into Gwen DeBastos. Gwen was eager to remind me that the Bake Sale was coming up on Saturday in Wards at Wonderland. The Guild is doing its best to raise money for a building to build their sets. Forget those calories and drop over to Wards for a yummy pie or a lip-smackin' cake.

According to director Mrs. C. H. Heiney, Jr., the play is recommended for children between the ages of five and 12. Colorful scenery is promised and, according to Mrs. Heiney, "Kay Devereaux, as the witch, will thrill children with her appearance and fine interpretation of the role."

Other cast members include Margaret Smith as Hansel, Jean Knowles as Gretel, Gloria Heino as Father, Marion Maas as Stepmother, Irene Truesdell as the Forest Fairy, Shirley McKeon as Black Cat, Faye Weber as Trudy and Jean Frunk as the Story Book Lady.

REPORT from LANSING

By PAUL CHANDLER
State Representative

LANSING—Every legislator here has been receiving large volumes of mail this session from the school teachers of Michigan.

Two proposals loom large with the teachers. One would require the State of Michigan to find, and appropriate, a huge new amount of money and "pay up" on the public school employees retirement system. A second teacher-sponsored plan would make "teacher tenure" compulsory within every school district in Michigan.

If there is controversy about the Retirement problem, it is in how to find the money. If the State were to attempt, in one swoop, to "catch up" on the actuarial requirements, $400 million would be needed, plus another $35 million for the current year's share.

It's impossible and unthinkable to hope that the taxpayers would be willing to cough up that kind of money overnight. So the plan most likely to succeed at the moment is Governor Romney's recommendation for an additional $18.7 million to the retirement system. The total appropriation is expected to be about $60 million.

The teachers pay about 23 per cent of the obligation of the retirement system. The State's share is 77 percent. The teachers are up to date—they've paid in $143 million. But the State has paid-in only $86 million of $489 million.

Some teacher group leaders have attempted to make the issue one of fright, and there actually are school employees who think they might not be able to collect their pension when they retire.

This emphatically is not the case. The full faith and credit of the State of Michigan lies behind the pensions. The pensions have priority over other expenditures.

In the past, Michigan has been using current appropriations to pay pension benefits to retirees and has always had a working balance on hand for benefits to be paid within the immediate next few years, plus available funds for administration of the system. This is similar to the practice used by the federal government with respect to Social Security.

The new Constitution provides that "financial benefits arising for each fiscal year shall be funded during that year and such funding shall not be used for financing unfunded accrued liabilities." In other words, it insists that we remain current with this fund from this date forward. Any arrearage will have to come out of the general fund.

This whole thing is a heavy new problem in State finance. There are other pension funds not fully "funded".

You're going to hear a lot more about this subject, and the talk will be in big dollar numbers.

Teachers will get their pensions. I will work for every piece of legislation that helps us get started making up the old technical deficit of the fund.

TEACHER TENURE is controversial because there is political philosophy involved.

Explained most simply, "tenure" is a sort of civil service protection system for teachers. They can appeal attempts to discharge them from the job or to reduce them in salary or rank.

At the present time Teacher Tenure is optional upon school boards, but it remains a local matter. Most of the districts in our area voluntarily have adopted tenure but some have not. Northville is one of the latter, and my mail from there has been unusually brisk.

Tenure in any form creates argument because it reduces the freedom in hiring and firing and adjusting personnel within the school system.

BELLEVILLE HELPS BY JOLTING ALLEN PARK

Bentley Wins; Shares 1st

The sun shines again at Bentley High School . . . as far as basketball is concerned.

With an assist from Belleville, Bentley again has bounced back into a tie for first place in the Suburban Six League standings.

The Livonians scored a 76-67 triumph over Trenton last Friday night while Belleville

Franklin Clubbed By 61-41

There's continued frustration for Coach Bob Bentley and his Franklin high school basketball team.

The South Livonians bowed again last Friday, when trimmed by North Farmington, 61-41, in a Northwest Suburban League game.

The game was over in the first period when North Farmington ran up a 20-7 lead, thanks to a series of turnovers (bad passes, travelling, etc.) on the part of the Franklin team.

By halftime it was 39-18 for North Farmington and it made no difference that Franklin outscored its rival in the final two periods.

Sam Antonazzo tossed in 13 points for the losers, while John McDonald had 23 for the winners.

The Franklin reserves also lost, bowing by a 62-40 count. Bob Kelly had 10 for Franklin.

The home games are scheduled for Franklin this week. League-leading Thurston serves up the opposition Friday night with Plymouth the rival on Saturday evening.

Franklin Play Is Feb. 20, 21

"Life with Father," the dramatic production presented by the 1964 class of Franklin High School, will be performed Feb. 20 and Feb. 21 instead of Feb. 12 and 13, as published in the Observer. Time for the production at 8 p.m. and place is Franklin's lecture hall.

spilled Allen Park. The net result: Bentley and Allen Park are tied for first place with 5-2 records while Redford Union is close behind with a 4-3 mark.

Three conference games remain for all teams. The next two weeks easily could decide matters.

Thus Friday night finds Bentley home to Redford Union. Then on Feb. 21, it'll be Allen Park vs. Bentley in the Parker's gym.

A second package of joy for Bentley is the fact that the cast has come off the foot of 6-6 star center Bill Bollin fractured earlier in the season.

It's possible that Bollin might play against Redford Union Friday night. More probable, he'll return to action in the Allen Park encounter.

Balanced scoring made it possible for Bentley to turn back Trenton.

The two teams fought on even terms for one half. Bentley held only a 32-31 edged at the intermission.

With Matevia scoring eight of his points and Storm contributing seven, Bentley outscored Trenton, 21 to 12 in the third period and the outcome was decided.

Bentley had to fight over foul trouble which cost them the services of one starter and saw four more playing with four personals at the end.

At the same time, Bentley prospered well on its own from the free-throw line. Storm made eight charities, Morgan seven, Matevia five, O'Hara four and Keamer and Doll three each.

Bob Swift and Nick Bonder provided most of the scoring punch as the Bentley reserves rolled to a 53-44 win.

Just as in the varsity tilt, a big third-period broke the proceedings apart. At halftime, Bentley led, 21-19. By the end of the third period the score was 38-29 for Bentley.

Swift made 19 points, Bonder 16 for the evening.

R.U. Bests Plymouth, Flag Hopes Revived

"If we can just win this Friday night . . ."

Coach Milo Karhu of Redford Union's basketball team was talking.

His team now is back in the thick of contention for honors in the Suburban Six League title race.

By beating Plymouth, 65-60, last Friday night, RU boosted its conference record to four wins and three losses, just one game behind Bentley and Allen Park, the co-front runners.

This Friday sees RU playing at Bentley.

"It has to be our BIG game," declared Karhu. "If we win, we're still in business . . . for the title. A loss, of course, would just about knock us out."

The Townshippers had their problems beating the hustling Plymouth Rocks last Friday in the RU gym.

Try as they did, RU couldn't beat down their nearby rivals.

For example, after the first quarter, the RU team appeared to be sitting pretty. The score read: RU 23, Plymouth 13.

But by the time the half had rolled around, the Rocks had rebounded to close the differential to two points (38-36).

Then in the third period, RU struck again. This time the Township gang opened up a 54-45 advantage.

With just eight minutes left to go, RU certainly was in the driver's seat! At least, one would have thought so.

Plymouth players had different ideas. With Gary Grady and Dick Egloff leading the way, the Rocks again put on the pressure and with two minutes left to go, Plymouth had tied the score at 60-60.

Redford Union again retaliated with what was the payoff blow. Tom DeWitt meshed a basket and then added a free throw. Gary DeRoche followed up with two more charities to end the scoring for the evening.

DeWitt was the big gun for RU. He not only scored 21 points, but he also pulled down 25 rebounds, to come within three of the school record.

Clyde Ziegler tallied 14, DeRoche, 12, Ben Malbach, eight, Robby Masson, five, Al Malbach, two and Harry Kendrick, two. DeRoche notched eight of his points with four straight baskets from the outside in the third period when Plymouth went into a zone defense.

Plymouth had four players score in double figures. Egloff led with 16, followed by Grady with 14 and Doug Sutherland and Cal Luibrand with 12 each. John Daniel, Jerry Kisabeth and Bill Nelson contributed two points apiece.

Nelson did a fine job on the boards for the Rocks, especially in the late stages when they came roaring back to knot the score.

Identical Finish Clips Thurston in Thriller

The same story two nights in a row!

On Friday evening, Tom DeWitt broke a tie with a basket and free throw to bring Redford Union High School's basketball team home a winner after Plymouth had rallied to tie the score in the closing moments.

Twenty-four hours later, DeWitt again was the man of the hour for RU—this time against Thurston in the battle for Township championship.

Thurston, fighting back from as much as an 11-point deficit in the third quarter, had tied RU at 64-64 and then at 71-71. With 45 seconds to go, DeWitt dumped in a basket, then seconds later he added a charity and RU held on to post a 74-71 duel in its only regular-season meeting with its southside rival.

It marked only the third time Thurston had lost in 13 games this winter. Not one of the setbacks has been by more than four points.

RU had jumped away to a 30-23 halftime lead, then extended the differential to 11 in the third period before Paul Lawson and Jerry Samuelian started to lead Thurston on a comeback trail.

After three quarters, RU was in front, 50-47. Then came the deadlock until DeWitt produced his three biggest points of the night in a 25-point out-pur.

Lawson scored 12 points and Samuelian six in the final quarter for Thurston. The former finished with 24, Samuelian with 16.

Clyde Ziegler and Ben Malbach both counted 17 for RU, Robby Masson, 11, Al Malbach, two, and Gary DeRoche, one. Bob Venegoni had 12, John Page, 10, and Tom Elston, two to round out the Thurston point production.

If the game was decided in any one department, it had to be free throws.

RU hit on 20 of 28 charities, while Thurston could make only 11 for 29.

The Thurston reserves took the measure of RU's second-stringers, 57-49, as Jerry Knoch scored 18 and Randy Samuelson, 17. Bob Morin's 17 led RU.

Thurston returns to Northwest League action Friday night at Franklin and the Townshippers will be favored to retain their league lead.

Break Stag Line For First Time At Capuchin Dinner

One can sense the family influence on the Capuchin Charity Guild baseball dinner.

The stag line has been broken for the 23rd annual Capuchin dinner, which will be held May 7 in the main ballroom of Cobo Hall. Women and girls will be among the guests for the first time.

"We already have 500 reservations," said the Rev. Quentin Heinrichs, head of the sponsoring Capuchin Charity Guild.

A capacity turnout of 2,000 is expected for the dinner which will feature Manager Chuck Drensen and all the Detroit Tiger players.

OBSERVER SPORTS

By George Maskin

One wonders, why with all the talk about physical fitness, why the coeds of our high schools are being discriminated against—athletically speaking. It isn't so in other communities.

Take the city of Baltimore, in the fair state of Maryland. When we were there the other week with the Detroit Pistons, the preliminary attraction that evening was a girls' basketball game involving two of the town's high schools.

It was quite an event—the battle of the girls. More than 1,000 came from each school to cheer their favorites on. The shooting of the gals rivaled that of several of the professional players who later took aim at the same baskets.

From those with whom we talked, we learned that school girl basketball and in other sports, is big time stuff in Baltimore and other eastern cities.

So why not around this neck of the woods?

NOT TOO MANY years ago, Jean Hoxie, the great coach of tennis stars at Hamtramck, sought to have one of her coeds perform on the high school varsity. This would have meant that the young lady would have to oppose males from other teams.

Mrs. Hoxie told one and all that this particular girl was good enough to beat all the boys on the Hamtramck varsity. So, Mrs. Hoxie felt, that gal should play for and represent her school.

However, the State Association said nothing doing. The girls can't go against the boys.

Which reminds us with a call recently made to John McFall, the swimming coach at Plymouth. The phone in the school pool was answered by a coed.

She explained that Mr. McFall wasn't around and that she would give him the message.

We wondered whether this particular girl was a swimmer and she said she was.

"Are you on any team?" we asked.

"No, we can't swim on a team here at the school," came the answer, "even though some of his girls think we could outswim a few of the boys on the varsity."

If we had our way, the girls would be permitted to field varsity teams in such sports as swimming, tennis, golf, bowling, field hockey, basketball and softball. And the gals would compete on an inter-school basis the same as the boys do.

What's more, we'd have a third game on each basketball program. In addition to the varsity and reserve boys teams performing, the gals from the two competing schools would contest in what could be billed as a second varsity contest.

Extending the interscholastic program to include the girls wouldn't cost that much extra. We think that the girls could lure enough fans to help foot some of the expenses.

Stand up all you gals and let's hear your side on the subject!

UNDERSTAND that there are still a flock of candidates being considered for the open football-coaching job at Thurston High School.

We put the question to retiring coach Gordie Young, who stays on as the school's athletic director: "Well, we have six, eight, ten, 14 . . . at least 18 men we're considering. It'll probably be a while yet before we decide on the one man for the post."

Team Play Nets Clarenceville Win

The ultimate in a coach's life is to produce "a team victory."

By this, the mentor means a win in which all of his charges make an equal contribution instead of just banking on the services of one or two to carry the load.

Such was the triumph Clarenceville High posted over Milford, 63-51, in a Wayne-Oakland League game last Friday night.

The win evened Clarenceville's overall record at 6-6, its league mark at 5-5.

"All the boys worked to make this victory possible," said Coach Jim Leary.

"We had to do it without Ray Rood, one of our starters, who was out with an injury. But the other boys picked up the slack, especially Chris Hawkins who replaced Rood."

Clarenceville had to rally from a 28-26 halftime deficit. The North Livonians caught

$2,500 Top Prize Draws Entries To Mixed Doubles

Although many bowlers are waiting for choice dates later in the meet, entries are coming in for the second annual Observer Newspapers mixed doubles tournament from all sections of lower Michigan with scattered entries from the Toledo area, according to Tournament Manager Mac Goldman.

Firing is slated to start on Saturday, Feb. 22 when the first bowlers take the lanes at Merri-Bowl, 30950 Five Mile Road in Livonia; Goldman is looking forward to full squads.

Matter of fact, he boosted the estimated top prize for this year's event to $2,500, based on 1,000 entries, with a second prize of $1,500 and third of $750.

This list makes the tournament one of the most attractive in the entire area and is expected to attract keglars from all lanes within 60 miles of Livonia.

The tournament has an entry fee of $10, is a handicap affair with 70 per cent of a 400 scratch and an entrant may bowl more than once provided he or she changes partners each time.

All bowlers must have sanctioned cards with either the ABC or the WIBC. Rules of the two governing bodies of bowling will apply in all instances not specifically covered in the tourney rules.

Goldman especially warns all entrants that any bowler who falsifies his average forfeits all rights to any prize money. Prizes will be paid when averages of all winners have been verified.

The tournament will open on Saturday, Feb. 22 and continue on weekends through Sunday, May 17. Entries will be accepted until noon of the final day. However, Manager Goldman warns all bowlers to file entries now in order to get choice times and dates.

The tourney dates are:

  - March 7, 14, 21 and 28.
  - April 4, 11, 18 and 25.

Paneling a Must In Most Homes

Once upon a time wood paneling meant an early American setting or an expensive book-lined den. Today, paneling is used in homes of every price range and in every room in the house.

Modern furnishings especially require a setting or sufficient warmth to give rooms a softened air, but one that doesn't conflict with the decorative scheme. Warm tones, rich and expressive woods are ideal for the paneling of modern rooms.

News in the use of wood in modern home decoration is the urgency in the use of color which can be obtained by blending finishes with the wood surface. Blues, greens—even golds—can provide beautiful wall effects and may be applied to Western Pine region woods with excellent results.

Lumber responds beautifully to stains and clear or pigmented finishes that allow the grain and knots to show through. Thus, the lumber may be left with its natural tone, or even when color is added with a wipe-on, brush-off finish, the wood will display its qualities of beauty and interest. It also may be painted, but then the beauty of the wood is hidden.

The size of a room and style of furniture determines the type of paneling installation. An air of spaciousness is produced by use of boards 10 or 12 inches wide for paneling. Narrower widths emphasize the direction of line, as well as lending a textural and subtly-patterned effect to the wall.

In a modern living room where a formal but comfortable atmosphere is indicated, use 6-inch widths of paneling with simple V-joints and a light finish to blend with any colors selected for furnishings, giving a sense of wholeness and harmony.

The fine patina of waxed paneling will complement a soft drapery fabric to great advantage, yet dramatize a loosely hand-woven material.

The billion-dollar year was revealed Monday in the annual mortgage summary released by Lawyers Title Insurance Co.

The summary, compiled by Lawyers Title as a service to the community, showed there

Local Democrats Hear McGovern Call for Moves Toward Peace

Developing an economic capacity to make changes from "unnecessary military production" to "civilian uses" was called "one of the most serious challenges facing the U.S. today" by Senator George McGovern (D-S. Dakota) before an audience of 400 local Democrats Saturday.

Senator McGovern shared the platform with state and local officials at the 17th District Democratic Party's annual banquet at Roma Hall in Livonia. Residents of Redford Township, Plymouth, Livonia and other nearby areas were in attendance.

Striking out at Republican presidential contender Barry Goldwater's call for increased arms expenditures, McGovern said, "Eighty per cent of our federal budget is devoted to military and military-related purposes. Senator Goldwater wants to increase the very programs that take 80 per cent of our budget and at the same time he calls for economy in government."

Added McGovern, "I believe in strong military defense. However, I am suggesting that we do not contemplate lightly the possibility of using nuclear weapons to settle our problems. Any man who advocates using only military means of settling differences with other nations is not competent to lead our nation."

Stating that the U.S. must move in the "direction of peace," McGovern said, "The status of the United States is measured not by arms alone, but by the vigor of its economy and by the useful employment of our people. 'I think one of the most serious challenges to our nation today is, when world conditions permit it, to develop capacity to make economic changes from unnecessary military production to civilian use.' 'The nuclear test ban,' he said, 'will go down in history as one of the most enduring monuments to President Kennedy and his quest for world peace.' He called on Democrats to support strong programs for education, tax reduction, civil rights and manpower training. 'We want to make our party the party of hope, progress and peace,' he concluded.

Saturday's banquet was called the most successful in the district's history by party officials. Lieutenant-Governor T. John Lesinski, State Senator Raymond Dzendzel, Democratic National Committeewoman Millie Jeffries and other party officials were among honored guests.

What Will It Cost? Here's Sample Gauge

When you have settled on what you want to do to improve your home, next step is to determine costs. This can best be done by getting estimates from local dealers and contractors.

As a gauge to costs, however, the National Established Repair Service and Improvement Contractors Association offers the following examples:

The installed price of one square of 235-pound asphalt shingle roofing varies from $20 and $30 in most parts of the South and certain sections of the Midwest to between $25 and $40 in western Massachusetts and between $30 and $45 in New York state.

One square of uninsulated aluminum siding, installed, is priced at between $65 and $90 in the South, $65 and $95 in New York state, $70 to $90 in the Midwest and $80 to $90 in New England.

The installed price of one tilt-type 3-track aluminum window varies from $20 to $30 in the South, to between $20 and $25 in the Midwest, $15 to $25 in New York state and from $12 to $20 in the Massachusetts area.

Ways To Gain More Space

Need more space? Just put the walls to work! Here's how: Cover old walls with wood-grained hardboard panels, two feet wide, separated vertically by steel lockstrips which hold the panels securely. The strips serve also to support desks, dressing counters, cabinets, magazine and book racks, and many other objects.

Panel, lockstrips and wall accessories for a wall 12 feet long and eight feet high cost at retail approximately 70 dollars. Additional items needed are furring strips and nails.

Doors, Too

When remodeling an older room with wood paneling, try salvaging the old doors by facing them with the same paneling as the walls.

Ventilation

If your attic is not ventilated properly, you may get condensation, and the simplest cure is to install small louvers to let air circulate.

Air Conditioned

To create a perfect air conditioned fence with privacy, arrange fence boards so that alternate ones are on opposite sides of the framing. Best plan is to use eight-inch-wide boards.

Acoustics

For best acoustics in a large room which has a plastered ceiling, some architects apply an acoustical finish of 1x2-inch cedar or west coast hemlock slats spaced half inch apart over the entire ceiling.

CUTTING CORNERS

When cutting two pieces of molding for a mitered point in corners, make each piece a little longer than necessary, then overlap them where they will meet in the corner. Hold rigidly together, forming a right angle, and saw through both pieces for a snug fit.

EASY TO UP-DATE

Wood-sided walls simplify the problem of keeping a house up-to-date. They may be altered, adjusted or added to. Spaces in the typical wood wall are accessible for changes in wiring, plumbing, heating.

Hardly Begun, Urban Renewal Program Halted

Urban renewal appears to have been put to sleep in Livonia by the City Council.

In response to a letter, the Councilmen last week passed a resolution declaring: "... the Council takes this means to advise that by its action in declining to hire an urban renewal director it has found no present requirement for urban renewal..."

The letter had come from Mrs. Olson Hensley, 11531 Cavell. She charged that a member of the planning commission had indicated that her neighborhood (in section 36) was "slum" and scheduled for redevelopment.

Actually, the city planners had embarked on the phases of a study to chart sub-standard housing in Livonia. Areas in the extreme southeast and northeast portions of the city, and near Plymouth and Middlebelt, had been designated as possible sites for urban renewal projects.

Under "urban renewal" federal funds are provided to clear out decaying housing areas, provide the community rebuilds, paying a fair price to the old owners and finding them housing.

Wayne, Mich. and Plymouth, Mich., are two neighboring communities which have extensive, and impressive, urban renewal projects underway.

Improvements Add Value

The home that is well maintained and periodically improved often brings a much higher resale price than the owner's total investment.

Often, a home improvement project undertaken to add comfort, beauty or convenience an unexpected bonus in the provides the homeowner with form of financial gain.

High Siding

Wood siding should be at least six inches above exposed earth on the exterior of a structure. This insures long wear of siding.

New Church Uses Split-Level Plan

The new Presbyterian Church for northwest Livonia which begins services this Sunday, Feb. 16th, will employ a schedule not previously tried in this area. Sometimes referred to as the "split-level" schedule, the arrangement involves all ages in worship, learning and fellowship from 10 a.m. until 11:30 a.m.

Infants and toddlers are cared for in the nursery during this entire period, and four and five year olds in the kindergarten class. All others gather for worship at 10 a.m. At 10:20 the primary and junior age children are dismissed from the corporate worship for a full hour of Church School.

all ages with the least confusion for families on Sunday morning.

The neighboring Presbyterian churches are supplying the new work with a trained staff of Church School teachers for the eight weeks. The Faith and Life curriculum will be used in all departments. Temporary meeting place for Worship Services and the Church School is the Lincoln Elementary School, 15745 Ashurst.

Sr. Raynela Given Women's Award

Sister M. Raynela, president of Madonna College, was presented an award by the Women's Advertising Club of Detroit at a luncheon held January 30 at the Veteran's Memorial building.

The honor was bestowed in recognition for the work done in the field of higher learning and the unusual discernment for the future education of Detroit's women.

Presentations were made by The Honorable Jerome P. Cavanaugh, mayor of Detroit.

Among recipients were the following: John J. Danhof, president of Detroit College of Law; Dr. Dewey F. Barich, president of Detroit Institute of Technology; Dr. E. George Lawrence, president of Lawrence Institute of Technology; Sister Mary Emil, IHM, president of Marygrove College; Sister Mary Lucille, RSM, president of Mercy College; Rev. Laurence V. Britt, SJ, president of the University of Detroit; and Dr. Clarence B. Hilberry, president of Wayne State University.

Science Topic

The importance of spiritual unity in marriage will be brought out at Christian Science church services this Sunday. The Bible Lesson on "Soul" will include the story of Isaac and Rebekah (Genesis 24), and also this passage from the Christian Science textbook: "Unselfish ambition, noble life-motives, and purity—these constituents of thought, mingling, constitute individually and collectively true happiness, strength, and permanence" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 58).

BOY SCOUTS

TROOP 795 GROWS

Boy Scout Troop 795, sponsored by the Jefferson Elementary School Parent-Teacher Association, reports a gain of 16 boys since school opened in September.

The troop meets every Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Jefferson School Multi-Purpose Room. The meeting this Thursday, Jan. 16, will include the troop's plans for the Sunset District Winter Rally to be held at the Garden City Park Sunday, Jan. 19.

Some of the other activities planned for the troop are a week-end in February at the D Bar A Scout Ranch, a hiking week-end on the Wilderness Trail near Holly, Mich., a week-end canoe trip on the Huron River and an overnight Bike Hike to the Pinckney Recreation Area.

Plymouth Family Attends Jehovah's Witness Session

The Wayne Thompson family, 41350 East Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, were in Tecumseh last week-end where they attended a Bible conference of Jehovah's Witnesses at the High School.

Mr. Thompson said that they were particularly impressed with the Friday evening program. It stressed the way in which families could apply Jesus' words, "Feed my little sheep," at home by arranging a family night, when the entire family could study the Bible together and discuss how they could progress as Christians.

Thompson also commented on the principal feature of the meet, a talk by District minister, J. W. Filson, on "The Bible Triumphs in a Scientific World."

Said Thompson, "The way in which Mr. Filson used scientific fact to demonstrate the accuracy of the Bible was most amazing. He said the Bible does not clash with science and presented many statistics to support his argument."

For instance in the area of mathematical probability, Mr. Filson asked his audience, "Is it probable that all the atoms of a blob of ink would by themselves move in the same direction to form lines and words on a page of paper? Is it probable that the Sunday edition of a large daily newspaper would have been formed by a chance collection of ink molecules? The mathematical probability of this happening," he declared, "is much more possible than the probability that life originated by chance." He stated further that direct creation by a Supreme intellect was the only possible answer to the origin of life.

When discussing the origin of man, Mr. Filson referred to leading evolutionists who state that man developed from a primitive form of life. "These," he said, "constantly seek to find links between various forms of life in the fossil record to prove their contention." Filson quoted the Encyclopedia Britannica, "There remain great blanks in the line of evidence which links the origin of modern man to extinct forms such as Anthropoid ape." He repeatedly used the Bible to prove man a direct creation of God and far more complex than any animal extant or extinct.

The contention that the languages of man started with mere grunts and groans and developed to the complex phonetics of today was also considered and Mr. Filson quoted the archaeologist, J. P. Free, "We see no reason to doubt the Biblical indication concerning the original unity of language or the implication that mankind had complicated speech from the beginning. No discovery ancient or modern has shown otherwise."

Mr. Filson used similar arguments on the time and place of man's origin, and the complexities in nature to bring his audience to one conclusion that the Bible is an inspired expression of the grand Creator and is completely corroborated by all branches of real science.

Mr. Thompson says he plans to apply the science arguments, as well as the many points and suggestions on teaching, in his daily Christian living and his regular ministerial activity.

Rocks Remain Tied For Swim Lead

It's still Plymouth and Trenton in a tie for first place in the Suburban Six League's swimming competition.

While the Rocks submerged Redford Union, 73-32, last Thursday night, Trenton took the measure of Bentley, 62-43.

Tom Blunk with victories in the 200-yard free style and in the 400-yard free style paced Plymouth past Redford Union.

Redford Union won only three events — Mike Caplia (diving), Tom Rice (butterfly) and Bob Truesdell (breast stroke). The speedy Truesdell was timed in 1:08.7, his best effort of the current season.

Bentley had to settle for only three first places against Trenton. Pete Rogissart copped the individual medley and Roger Omar the diving. Bentley's 200-yard relay team of Larry Sladek, Jim Sneath, Jerry Young and Charles Reisdorf also came home in front.

In this Thursday's action, as the regular dual-meet season speeds to an end, Bentley swims at Redford Union while Plymouth seeks to stay on top by winning at Allen Park. Trenton will hook up with Belleville in the third league meet.

Thurston Relays Set 4 Records

All America honors appear in store for Thurston High School's medley relay swimming team of Ken Wiebeck, Jim Vedder, Pat Duthie and Oscar Amberg.

The foursome was clocked in the swift time of 1:43.6 last Thursday as Thurston swamped Madison, 80-25, in a Northwest Suburban League meet in the Thurston pool.

This is what the quartet accomplished:

1—Set new varsity and pool records for Thurston.

2—Recorded the fastest time posted by any relay team in Michigan this season.

3—Turned in one of the top six clockings for the event this winter in the entire country.

"We're certain to rate All America for this achievement," declared Coach Joe Mracona.

The Thurston 200-yard free style relay team of Amberg, Bob Lloyd, Duthie and Wiebeck, also erased the school and pool records with a 1:32.8 effort, the third best time posted in Michigan.

By his contributions in the two relays, Wiebeck now is listed in seven different categories in the weekly Detroit News—statewide ratings.

He's No. 1 in the 200-yard individual medley, 100-yard butterfly, 100-yard back stroke and 100-yard free style.

Results of the Thurston-Madison meet with how Thurston tankers placed:

200-yard free: 1—Bill Zeeb, 2—Jeff Lach. Time: 2:03.

50-yard free: 2—Bob Lloyd, 2—Don Miller.

Individual Medley: 1—Bill Barringer, 3—Chris Hudson. Time: 2:21.

Diving: 1—Jim Schurr, 2—Rick Masola.

Butterfly: 1—Barringer, 2—Ron Smith. Time: 1:01.9.

100-yard free: 1—Lach, 2—Hudson. Time: 55.4 seconds.

St. Agatha Beaten In Final Game

The regular season has ended for St. Agatha high school's basketball team.

It wasn't much to rave about —two wins and seven losses in Catholic League play.

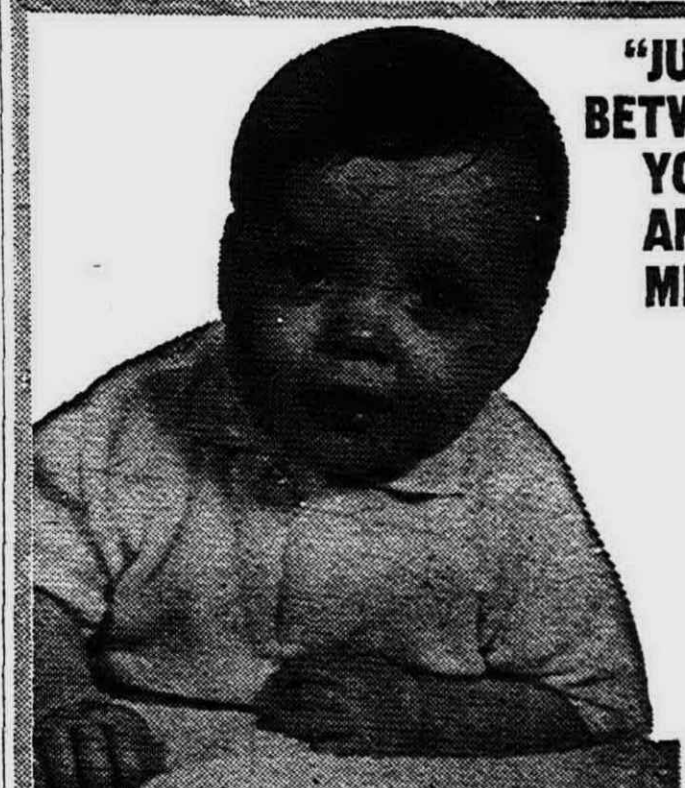

But there are hopes that St. Agatha still may salvage some glory out of the 1963-64 campaign in the state tournament which opens the first week of March.

St. Agatha has been known for strong showings in the tourney.

The Catholic League finale a week ago Tuesday saw St. Agatha blitzed by St. Michael, 77-61, despite an 18-point effort by Claude Inch. The victors took a 32-19 lead by halftime and coasted the rest of the way.

St. Agatha's reserves also closed on a losing note, falling by a 58-36 score. Mike Daniels pumped in 16 points for the losers.

Matmen Split at Thurston

The Thurston high wrestling team broke even in a pair of meets last week.

Coach Jim Knotts' grapplers trimmed Oak Park, 48-3, then lost for the first time in four years to powerful Garden City by a 23-17 score.

Here's how Thurston entries fared against Oak Park:

95 pounds—Jim Todd, by a pin. 102—Dave Belknap, decision.

112—Gary Cooper, lost decision. 120—John Provencal, decision.

127—Paul Christie by a pin. 132—Dave Woloch, decision.

135—Mike McGreevey, by a pin. 145—Dave Spikes, decision.

154—Pete Marsalese, decision. 175—Jerry Rock, decision.

180—Bud Safford, decision. Heavyweight—Jerry Storkak, by a pin.

In the Garden match, Christie (127), McGreevey (138), Spikes (145), Marsalese (154) and Szostak (heavyweight) engineered victories for Thurston. Marsalese pinned his victim.
