

Is Plymouth Nearing Contract For Detroit Water?

Must Resolve Two Major Obstacles

Although still far from an agreement, the City of Plymouth appears to be closer to a contract with the Detroit Water Board for water service to the city than at any previous time during the two-year long discussions.

That was the opinion of Commissioner George Lawton, chairman of the Water Committee, following a lengthy meeting with Gerald Remus, general manager of the Detroit Water system, and members of his Board last week.

The session was arranged by Plymouth Mayor Richard Wernet and Remus, following an exchange of letters, and was held in the Water Board building in downtown Detroit. Plymouth was represented by Mayor Wernet, City Manager Albert Glassford, DPW Supt. Joseph Bida and the members of the Commission's water committee including: Lawton, Arch Vallier, Robert Smith and James Jabara. For the first time, the two groups sat across the bargaining table and in orderly fashion discussed differences between the contract offered by Plymouth and that proposed by the Detroit Water Board.

At the conclusion, Lawton, as spokesman for the Plymouth water committee, issued a statement saying "If we can iron out the basis on which rates may be increased or decreased, and if we are able to arrive at a mutually satisfactory rate, we should be in a position to complete the negotiation of a water contract with the City of Detroit that would be beneficial to the community."

Lawton agreed that considerable progress had been made at the meeting but emphasized that there were the two major stumbling blocks that he felt could be resolved with additional study and in future meetings.

Previous meetings between groups from Plymouth and the Water Board reportedly were marked by outbursts and showings of temper but this time it was all talk in a calm manner—thus there was a meeting of minds in several areas and ar-

Skip Ottwell, 1464 W. Ann Arbor Trail, and Coach Dennis Hanks, 249 Amelia, of the Blackhawks in the Juvenile Division; Capt. John Gilles, 399 Adams, and Coach Vern Schilawski, 1420 Woodland, of the T-Birds, winners of the Bantam League crown. The Hawks went through the season unbeaten but lost in the semifinals of the Michigan Lower Peninsula Outdoor tourney to Dearborn, 2-1. The team won 13 and had two ties. The T-Birds won 13, tied two, and lost nine, capturing the championship with three straight triumphs in the playoffs. Both teams are made up of players from the Plymouth community.

Board Told High School Needs Wing, 3 Teachers

Expressing an opinion that the Plymouth School is not furnishing high school students the same educational opportunities offered in neighboring communities, the vocational education committee made a strong recommendation for construction of an additional 10-room vocational educational wing to the senior high school and addition of at least three teachers to the staff.

The recommendations came in a progress report joint meeting of the committee and the School Board in the high school library.

Teachers from the occupational training, industrial arts and homemaking education divisions made the same report to the Board that they made to the committee two weeks earlier.

Paul Malboeuf, member of the committee named by Board President Gerald Fischer to study needs of vocational education and to make a complete report with recommendations, expressed the feeling of the group when he said:

"We wish to be placed on record as recommending that the vocational education expansion program at Plymouth senior high go on as scheduled and that the proposed addition to the present facilities be completed no later than September, 1965."

Malboeuf explained that he had heard rumors that the Board was considering scuttling the senior high expansion in favor of elementary school additions.

He was quickly assured by Fischer that the Board has no such intentions and the first items on the agenda of the new building and site program were additions to Farrand and Allen elementary schools and the high school expansion.

However, Fischer noted that the wing asked by the high school staff involved a cost of more than $450,000 whereas the Board's present thinking was

Hope Has Perfect 3 For 3

Hope College recorded a perfect three for three score with the Plymouth School Board when three members of the June 1964 graduating class made applications for teaching assignments in the Plymouth system and all were accepted.

The three coeds drove down from Holland in one car for the interview with Supt. Russell Isbister, made such an impression that he marked them for contracts and received approval from the Board Monday night.

The trio includes: Karen Cushman, a graduate of Port Huron High School; Nancy Herbig, from Grand Rapids Lee High School; and Sharon Tein, who was graduated from Martin (Mich.) High School. Each will receive a B.A. degree from Hope College in June.

The Board approved contracts for the three, accepted resignations of three teachers and granted a year's leave of absence to Betsy Gibson, geography and English teacher at Junior High West.

Upon recommendation of Supt. Isbister, the Board gave permission to Otis McGuire, eighth grade math-science teacher at Junior High East, to attend the annual convention of the National Science Teachers' Association in Chicago on March 20 through March 24.

The Board accepted with regret the resignations of Wayne Dunlap, Director of Music, to accept a similar position at Schoolcraft College; Mrs. Margaret Bromley, French teacher at the senior high; and Barbara Feret, second grade teacher at Farrand School.

Miss Feret plans to return to university studies in the fall to work towards a Master's Degree.

Carl Caplin Named New President of Plymouth Rotarians

Carl Caplin, prominent clothing store owner, is the new president of the Plymouth Rotary Club and will be installed formally to succeed Robert Beyer in July.

Other officers include: Vice President Arnold Johanson; Secretary Frank Allison; and Treasurer Clifford Tait.

Chairmen Named for Mich. Week

Plymouth's 1964 Michigan Week committee chairmen were announced Monday by Chairman William J. Nelson.

Serving in administrative capacities will be Fran Booth, Executive Secretary; Arthur Hackett, Promotion Director; Tommy Thompson and Dave Wylie, Co-Chairmen of publicity. Chairman of individual days are as follows:

- Spiritual Foundation Day (Sunday, May 17) Rev. Edward Castner;
- Our Government Day (Monday, May 18) Richard Shaffer;
- Hospitality Day (Tuesday, May 19) Robert Stremich;
- Our Livelihood Day (Wednesday, May 20) George Lawton;
- Education Day (Thursday, May 21) Russell Isbister;
- Our Heritage Day (Friday, May 22) Sydney Strong;
- Our Youth Day (Saturday, May 23) John Hoben and John McFall.

"I feel extremely fortunate to have the services of such outstanding people," Nelson said.

The first committee meeting will be held in the Mayflower Hotel (in the Mayflower Room) at 8 a.m. Thursday, March 26.

Michigan Week, this year, is scheduled for May 17-23. The theme is "Michigan... Great In Resources and Opportunities."

School Board OKs Birmingham Firm For New Projects

The Plymouth School Board Monday named the architectural firm of O'Dell, Hewlett and Luckenbach Associates of Birmingham to handle the building program under the new five-year Building and Site fund approved by voters in November.

President Gerald Fischer indicated the Board and the facilities committee had screened more than 25 applicants for the projects. The Birmingham firm was selected because it seemed best suited for the needs of the school district.

"We hope to have the architects start work on some of the proposed projects shortly," said Fischer. "The Board plans to make a determination of what the elementary school expansion will include and then have everything ready so that we can advertise for bids and award contracts as soon after July 1 as possible."

The Board can't borrow against the new B&S fund until that date.

Fischer also revealed that the Board is thinking of constructing two additional elementary schools during the five-year program.

This came in answer to a query by a parent in the audience at Monday's meeting who specifically wanted to know when parents could expect to have their sixth graders back in elementary schools "where they belong."

"The Board hasn't any idea where the two schools will be built," he said. "We haven't secured sites and don't know yet where the needs will be but we definitely have two elementary schools in the planning for this five-year building and site program."

The mother also objected to having 10-year-old sixth graders travel on the same bus with much older ninth graders and even high school students.

However, Fischer and Supt. Russell Isbister indicated this was a matter of scheduling that couldn't be readily resolved but that the 1964 planning to have the sixth and seventh graders at Junior High West and the eighth and ninth at Junior High East should place the youngsters of basically the same age group under the same roof.

Asst. Supt. Melvin Blunk reported tax collections near 90 per cent for the district. He pointed out that the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township are on schedule but Canton Township is lagging slightly.

Blunk reported all budget classifications in excellent condition at this time with the exception of maintenance, which will probably go $5,500 to $6,500 over budget.

Blunk blamed the Dutch Elm disease for part of the trouble, indicating that the maintenance department had to remove several trees on state orders and had several more to go. None of this expense was included in the budget.

Fischer reiterated that the Board is faced with financial problems in operations but hoped the state would provide some relief in passing a new bill that would give the district an additional $20 per student.

He and Supt. Isbister will explain the Board's planning for the junior high schools in a meeting of the Parent Teachers Association at Junior High West on Monday, March 23.

Donna Hoffman Top Ranking PHS Senior

Donna Hoffman is the top ranking scholar in Plymouth High's 1964 graduating class with a 3.83 scholastic average, according to rankings released by the school counseling department.

Donna, editor of the school yearbook, has received a full tuition scholarship to Adrian College where she plans on majoring in French and German.

In second place is Carole Loesch with a 3.82 mark. She will enter Wooster College in Ohio next fall on an $800 scholarship. Carole plans to major in literature and foreign language with a minor in religion.

The others in the top 10 and the colleges they plan to attend are: Tom Wimsatt, 3.80, John Hopkins; Bill Silvis, 3.70, University of Michigan; Denise Hochlowski, 3.65, Eastern Michigan University; Richard Malboeuf, 3.65, University of Michigan.

Jane Vallier, 3.60, either University of Michigan or one of the seven Sister Colleges in the East; Chris Cutler, 3.56, Eastern Michigan University; Sue Robinson, 3.55, University of Michigan.

Beth Hedrick, 3.54, Michigan Tech; John Park, 3.54, Michigan State University; and Sue Williams, 3.54, University of Michigan.

Junior League Registrations Start Saturday

Registration for the Plymouth Community Junior Baseball League will be accepted Saturday, March 14, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the American Legion Hall on Sheldon Road. Other dates are March 21 and April 4.

Final plans to handle the registrations of boys between the ages of 8 and 12 were made in a meeting of league officials last Saturday in the Credit Union clubrooms.

President Joseph Bida in relating registration plans indicated all boys not previously registered must present a birth certificate and a T-shirt.

Boys already registered with the league must register and receive new numbers for their T-shirts. All youngsters must have permission slips signed by parents or guardians at the time of registration.

Bida indicated the Class B teams will play league games on the diamonds at Riverside Park under the supervision of league officials and competent coaches and managers.

Bida warned all youngsters that they must be accompanied by parents or guardians when filing for registration.

FACTS and OPINIONS
by Paul Chandler

Our suburban areas have a peculiarly large stake in a measure that will come to a showdown before the legislature up in Lansing this week.

It's the resolution, which, if approved by the people (it would have to go to a state-wide ballot after passing the House and Senate), would "freeze" the existing legislative districts along exactly the same boundaries which existed in 1962.

The motive cited for this proposed amendment to the constitution is that the courts have paralyzed all plans for laying out new districts, according to the new population figures and the 1963 constitutional rules.

With chaos flourishing, it is argued that unless some emergency action is taken quickly, "there might not even be any elections in 1964" for the House and Senate seats.

Time is running short to get the electoral process under way. Normal deadlines would be for candidates to file in June and run in an August primary, and for the survivors to hold a final election in November. Because of the new districts, additional time would be consumed in setting down new precinct boundaries, a particularly tough job in large metropolitan areas.

One possibility is that the whole bundle of 110 representatives and 34 senators might have to run "at large." This would mean voters throughout the state would choose from a list of hundreds of names, and the top 110 would win (for the House) and another top 34 would win (in the Senate). It would be a field day for "name" candidates. Voters would look at a ballot the size of a tennis court, hunting and pecking for familiar-sounding names.

It is possible organized Detroit democrats could pick the entire legislature in an "at large" situation.

As an alternative to "chaos" on the one hand or "at-large voting" on the other, the "freeze" program has been suggested. It has support from those legislators, Republican and Democrats alike, who see a chance to hang on to their jobs if the district boundaries do not shift this year.

To those of us in the suburbs, the "freeze" plan should be unattractive. Because of our huge population growth since the 1950 census, our area is just about the most under-represented region in the whole of Michigan, if not America.

Where today in northwest Wayne County there is one state representative, there should be three, with Redford Twp. and Livonia each having one of its own. We have one state senator today; there should be two.

To "freeze" the legislative pattern for two or four

School Bands To Perform In 'Parade'

Bands from the various schools in the Plymouth Community School district will display their skills in an unusual "Parade of Bands" Saturday, March 14 in the high school auditorium, at 7:30 p.m.

The program is open to the public and gives parents and school district residents a chance to see the instrumental music pupils perform.

The purpose is to acquaint those in the school district with the various instrumental programs in the schools," said Wayne Dunlap, Director of Music.

The program will highlight special numbers by the Plymouth High band, under the direction of James Griffith; high school orchestra, under the supervision of Lana Nail; junior high Rocket Band and orchestra, directed by Laurence Livingston; and the all-city Sixth Grade band, handled by Dunlap.

Red Cross Seeks Out Area Volunteers For Its Services

By tradition March is Red Cross month throughout the United States. Because the Detroit Chapter is a Torch Drive agency and due to the fact that it derives monies from the Plymouth Community Fund Drive, it is not necessary to conduct a campaign in Wayne County.

However, the Detroit Chapter does need your help as a volunteer, particularly in Garden City, Livonia, Northville, Plymouth and Redford Township. This is an opportunity to perform a much needed volunteer community service.

Typical of the needs for volunteers is in the canteen service. Canteeners serve coffee and donuts at local bloodmobile visits and at the chapter headquarters.

Anyone interested in additional information about this type of service may contact any of the following community canteen chairmen:

Garden City, Mrs. Arthur Gribben, LO 1-0463; Livonia, Mrs. Fred Bush, GR 4-5357; Northville, Mrs. Jesse Boyd, FI 9-3093; Plymouth, Mrs. C. C. Wiltzie, GL 3-4592; and Redford Township, Mrs. C. R. Hobbs, KE 2-0163.

There is an acute need for motor services drivers particularly in the Plymouth and Northville areas. Trained drivers transport the many items necessary in the conduct of Red Cross services to the community. For further details about this service contact the Northwest Regional Motor Service Chairman, Mrs. Donald Crain, 11424 Ingram, Livonia or call GA 2-1754.

Blood program aides also are needed to work as assistants to the professional staff in collecting blood at collection sites in the various communities as well as the chapter.

Registered nurses, interested in volunteer work, may want to aid in this service. For information, call the northwest regional office at 422-2787 or contact the local blood program chairman.

In Garden City, Mrs. Harry Campbell, GA 1-4390; Livonia, Mrs. Harold Rolen, GA 1-6665; Northville, Mrs. Harry Crofts, FI 9-0165; and in Redford Township, Mrs. Walter Russell, KE 3-3788.

All volunteers are trained by competent Red Cross instructors before they assume their positions. If interest warrants this training will be conducted in the regional office at 33539 Plymouth Road in Livonia.

Ply. AAUW Gives $600 for Fellowship Fund

The Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women announces the presentation of $600 to the AAUW National Fellowships Fund for 1964.

This is the largest gift the local branch has been able to make since its founding in 1952. In 1963 and 1962, $500 grants were sent to the National Fund, and smaller amounts were sent in previous years.

Branch contributions sent to the National Fellowships Fund are combined and fellowships are granted to deserving American women for studies beyond the P.H.D. in this country or abroad. The National AAUW also has fellowship programs for women of other countries to study in the United States or elsewhere.

Mrs. F. H. Armstrong of Plymouth, Branch Fellowships Chairman, explained that the Plymouth Branch has chosen to send its gifts to the Fund which is granted to American women only, as yet.

Money for fellowship gifts is raised by several Branch projects which are well supported by the communities of Plymouth, Northville, and Livonia. The Listening Post Lecture Series, the spring Used Book Sale, and the sale of Calendars contribute all profits to this fund.

Students participating on the panel will be Sue Arsenault, Dianne Legendre, David Millarch, and Jim Sitwa.

Socially Speaking

In and Around Plymouth Town

By Dorothy Finney GL 3-6160

DID YOU KNOW THAT... the street sale of Easter lilies in Plymouth for the Society of Crippled Children and Adults is one of the projects of the Plymouth Rotary Anns?

The actual selling, which in the past has been done by local Girl Scout troops, this year will be done by both Girl and Boy Scouts. The sale is scheduled for Friday, March 20 from 4 to 8 p.m. and Saturday, March 21 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"The scouts will meet at the Credit Union Building and be driven by the Rotary Anns to their posts. They will work in two-hour shifts, returning to the Credit Union where they will be served refreshments," stated Mrs. Kal Jabara, chairman of the campaign. Assisting her as co-chairman is Mrs. Warren Bradburn.

Mrs. Jabara said the proceeds from the sale of the Easter lilies, which are made by handicapped persons, will remain in Western Wayne county to be used in the work at the Clinic in Inkster.

REUNIONS AND REUNIONS

It's been fun talking to the chairmen of two of the PHS class reunions scheduled for next summer.

The class of '54, with Mrs. George Hunter (Betty Bowden) and Mrs. Brian Kidston (Margaret Burr), as co-chairmen of the reunion, has set June 27 as the date. They are particularly interested in learning the addresses of some of their classmates.

The list is printed on the women's page of the Observer so that it will reach every home in the Plymouth community and Livonia school district.

Mrs. Richard Palmer (Joan Cavell) would like to have any members of the class of '49 who are interested in helping plan their 15th reunion attend a meeting on Monday, March 16. Please call Joan at GL 3-5231 for information as to time and place.

NOW IS THE TIME

for citizens in the Plymouth community to hear a discussion of a question which must involve the area in the near future. It is that of integrated housing.

The Plymouth Community Human Relations Assembly has been presenting a series of lectures on "Understanding Through Education". The fourth will be Thursday, March 12 at 8 p.m. in the Senior High Annex Auditorium. Irving J. Rubin, president of the Bagley Com-

Is City Near Detroit Water Pact?

Remus, as spokesman for the Water Board, explained to the Plymouth delegation that the Detroit contract follows a more or less standard pattern with some variations due to elevation, distance from supply point and expenditures for extending mains to communities for service.

Lawton and Mayor Wernet gave Plymouth's stand and the reasons why the Commission felt there should be some variations in the Plymouth contract with that of other communities. Some of the points were turned over to the engineers of the two groups for study and the legal questions were referred to the counsels for additional work.

Meanwhile, the Detroit Water Board already is busy with extension of its water mains in this general area. It is working on expansion of the lines down Eight Mile Road, through Center street in the City of Northville and along Sheldon Road to a point near Five-Mile Road. Plymouth Township's Board of Trustees announced a month ago plans to extend their water and sewer systems into the western section of the township. The Township is a customer of the Detroit system and the expansions planned by the Detroit Board would dovetail into the Township plans, making a complete circuit of Detroit water around the Township.

Bell Payroll Is $2,373,149 In Plymouth

Michigan Bell Monday reported it paid wages of $2,373,149 to its 413 employees who worked in Plymouth during 1963.

Hazen J. Wilson, manager here, said the company's entire wage bill of $146,616,779 for its 21,692 employees throughout the state set an all-time record.

In addition to Michigan Bell's payroll, the Western Electric Company, manufacturing and supply arm of the Bell System, paid $8.8 million to its 1,300 employees who worked in Michigan, and AT&T's Long Lines department paid $3.4 million to its 520 employees in the state.

The men and women of Michigan Bell, the state's fourth largest non-government employer, and of the other two Bell System units who live in more than 400 Michigan communities received total wages of $158.8 million.

Areas in which Michigan Bell's 1963 payroll topped the five-million-dollar mark include Detroit, Flint, Grand Rapids, Saginaw and Southfield.

Other areas which passed the one-million-dollar mark were Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Bay City, Benton Harbor, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Livonia, Mt. Clemens, Pontiac, Port Huron, Roseville, Royal Oak, Traverse City, Wayne and Wyandotte.

Jim Curzi, a sophomore on Michigan State's 1964 gymnastics team, won seven titles as a prep in the 1962 Western Pennsylvania state championships.

School Board Told Vocational Ed Lags

Principal Carvel Bentley and Phillip Johnson, head of the occupational training program, stressed the need of an additional typing room with 15 new electric typewriters for the business education department. The 15 machines have an estimated cost of $3,800.

They also recommended an additional practice room for typing and shorthand students who wish to improve their skills. Johnson, a teacher in business education in addition to his occupational training duties, urged replacement of some of the key driven calculators.

In discussing the occupational training program, he pointed out that 105 students are enrolled in the co-op program and he has charge of all. He emphasized the need for adding a second coordinator and outlined a proposed daily program for each.

Johnson told the Board the co-op program consists of three divisions including: retailing occupations training, office occupations training and trade and industrial occupations training.

He told of the responsibilities involved and explained that two men could widen the scope of training to the point where it would involve an additional 20 to 30 students within a year.

William Campbell served as spokesman for the Industrial Arts department and told the Board that an inadequacy of space and facilities allotted to the department has existed for several years.

"In fact," his report read, "We have reported this on two previous occasions: (1) when we were contemplating a new high school; (2) At the Industrial Arts curriculum review."

"We are again making a plea for updating the quality and the amount of equipment, as well as a dire need for adequate space, to offer Industrial Arts students the skills and technical know-how upon graduation."

The department recommended a two-story, nine-room wing to the high school to be ready for occupancy by September 1965.

The recommendations included: machine shop, 45x116'; welding shop, 45x100'; power mechanics and hydraulics, 45x45'; general lab, 45x90'; electrical lab, 45x105'; two drafting rooms, 25x95'; related subject room, 25x45'; and auto mechanics, 45x110'.

Mrs. Merle Atchinson served as the representative of the Homemaking department, and made strong plea for an additional teacher, new equipment and additional classes in food service and homemaking.

She pointed out that the classes had been reduced when the ninth graders moved to the junior highs and that all had been held to an absolute minimum since.

Summarized, the recommendations included: three additional teachers, a new wing consisting of more than 38,000 square feet with an estimated cost of $450,000; additional equipment and various sundry items.

The School Board asked Committee Chairman Ernest Henry to have his group determine a priority of the requests. Henry named Bentley, Johnson, Williams and Mrs. Atchinson to study the report and list the priorities.

The committee plans additional meetings and hopes to be able to make a final report and recommendations to the Board by mid-May.

A Michigan State 28-game football winning streak ended when the Spartans lost to Purdue 6-0 in 1952 as a former Michigan Stater, Dan Pobjewski, scored the Boilermakers' only touchdown.

PHS Band Receives 7th Superior Rating

For the seventh straight year, the Plymouth High band, under the direction of James Griffith, has received a superior rating in the District 12 band and orchestra festival.

The high ranking qualified Plymouth for the annual state festival at Lansing on Saturday, April 18.

Of the 15 Class "AA" bands competing in the district meet at Livonia's Franklin High, only six received a superior rating from the four-judge panel that included: William Fitch, Eastern Michigan University; Merrell Sherburn, Michigan State; Daniel Kyser, Western Michigan; and Karl Schlabbach, Benton Harbor Community College.

The six were: Plymouth, Ann Arbor, Belleville, Garden City, Grosse Pointe and Dearborn.

Six divisions received second division ratings of excellent, including: Trenton, Livonia Bentley, Livonia Franklin, Highland Park, Wayne and Ypsilanti.

Two were awarded third division rankings of average. They were Thurston and Taylor Center.

The Plymouth musicians played: "Colossus of Columbia," a march by Alexander; "Peter Schmolli," overture by Von Weber, a requirement in the competition; and "Finale," Symphony No. 1 in G Minor by Kalinnikov.

Wayne Offers Scholarships For Nursing

Two Katherine Tuck Fund scholarships of $2,000 each will be awarded on a competitive basis to registered nurses who are admissible to the general nursing program of Wayne State University's College of Nursing.

Registered nurses up to 40 years of age are eligible to apply. Deadline for application is April 17.

Scholarships will cover the cost of tuition, room and board for six quarters of full-time study. Assistance in obtaining financial aid for the final three quarters of the program will be given as needed.

Facts And Opinions

more years would be to lock-in the lack of representation being suffered by the suburbs... and leave us still dangling somewhere between the downtown Detroit legislators and the upstate legislators, neither of whom understand or care much about problems which are peculiarly suburban.

As state representative from this district, I shall vote "no" against the "freeze" idea, despite the fact that most of my party colleagues are for it and though the alternative might be so-called "chaos" or "at-large" balloting.

I do not believe it is proper to give a cent even indirectly to the lack of representation which our areas are suffering in terms of their population.

In the 16 months I've been in Lansing, every effort has been made to let it be known that the suburbs have a large stake in this state; that they are a key political force in elections; and they insist on being heard. We've made headway. But I want some help, and our voters are entitled to it.

Oldsters Answer Housing Board Questionnaires

Questionnaires from Plymouth's senior citizens, showing interest in the proposed housing for elderly, are pouring into the offices of the Housing Commission, according to President Kenneth Fisher.

"We have had numerous forms returned to us in the past week," said Fisher, "but we urge all senior citizens of Plymouth to fill out the questionnaires and send them back as soon as possible."

Meanwhile, the Commission, accompanied by representatives of the architectural consultants and City Manager Albert Glassford, Housing Director Richard Shafer and City Commissioners Robert Smith and James Jabara visited the Townsend Towers project in Dearborn Monday.

Housing Commissioners making the visit included: Fisher, William Nelson, Robert Weber and Stewart Oldford, Jr.

Adjuvare Club of Plymouth -- Part 2

By DOROTHY FINNEY (One of a series highlighting a club or organization in the Plymouth Community).

The newly organized Adjuvare Club, who held their first meeting today, is dedicated to raising funds for equipment at Our Lady of Providence School at 16115 Beck Rd.

This school, which opened in 1957, is one of four in the United States for retarded girls whose operation is carried on by the Daughters of St. Mary of Providence. The order was founded in Italy in 1881 by Father Aloysius Guanella and Sister Marcellina Bosatta and has since carried on its mission of charity in Italy, Switzerland and the United States.

The first school for mentally deficient girls was opened in Rome in 1907. In Father Guanella's plan for the afflicted, no degree of handicap was to be excluded. All were to be cared for, but in congenial groups with proper physical accommodations.

In 1912 Father Guanella began preparations to open kindergartens and Institutes in the United States. The following year the first band of his Sisters, the Daughters of St. Mary of Providence, arrived in this country where they opened Santa Maria Addolorata in Chicago. This Institute came to the aid of the needy immigrant, helping him to adjust to a new life with the new ideals and ideas of America.

Since then the Sisters have opened schools for handicapped girls in Chicago, Barrington, Ill., Elverson, Pa. and our Lady of Good Providence on Beck Rd.

Father Guanella urged the Sisters to "make these children feel at home". The aim of the Sisters is as simple as that: to create a world where the handicapped girl will be able to feel at home, as she can never feel in the world of usual people; where she can make friends;

Dawn, Jackie, and Mrs. Sally Pearson, a lay teacher at the school, watch the antics of Bobo, a tawny-haired Peruvian rag-mop (guinea pig).

'SEE YOU THERE'

A critique of members' paintings by Livonia artist and teacher Marvin Beerbohn will highlight the March 13 meeting of the Livonia Artists' Club at the home of Lillian Carroll, 34475 Six Mile. The group plans to change pictures at the Carl Sandburg Library display this month.

A "spring fling" luncheon will be held Saturday, April 4, at the Copper Door Restaurant, 8701 Inkster Rd., by the St. Damian Church Altar Sodality group. Fashions will be shown by the Zueback Suburban Store and door prizes will be awarded, according to Maryann Fox, chairman, and Fran Mulkiten, co-chairman. Frank Capocchia, Char Newstead, Jo Nael, Eleanor Buckley, Ann Wittwer, Phil Cray and Gladys Murray are committee members for the luncheon, scheduled for 12:30 p.m.

Plymouth Theatre Guild invites thespians to attend their total-casting of "The Matchmakers" on March 11, 12, 13 at Plymouth High School. The play will be May 7, 8, 9. All community actors from all communities invited.

Wed In Heirloom Gown

Marilee Gordon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Gordon of 16983 Centralia, became the bride of Milton John Nieuwsma at 8 p.m. on Feb. 1, at Redford Presbyterian Church. The service was performed by Milton's father, the Rev. John Nieuwsma, who resides with his wife and family in Morrison, Illinois.

The bride wore her mother's gown of ivory satin with cathedral train. Her shoulder length illusion veil fell from a satin pillbox hat. She carried a crescent of gardenias and stephanotis.

Linda Hudson, maid of honor, wore a floor length aqua satin gown, featuring a raised Directorate waistline, and matching pillbox. Identical outfits in peacock were worn by bridesmaids Barbara Campbell, Mrs. Richard Bochy, Judy Glixby, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Roger Garvelink, sister of the groom. Lisa Kapp, of Alma, Mich., was the flower girl, attired in aqua blazette. The bridesmaids carried satin muffs to which were attached sprays of currant clusters and velvet ribbon streamers.

Mark Nieuwsma was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Roger Garvelink, Jack Alexander of Holland, and Mark and Jim Gordon, brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gordon wore a red velvet empire dress and Mrs. Nieuwsma chose a royal blue shantung suit. The reception followed in the church hall.

Marilee is a graduate of Redford Union schools and Alma College, where she affiliated with Kappa Iota. At present she is teaching in the Lincoln Park school system. Mr. Nieuwsma attended Hope College and is now on the public relations staff at Wayne State University. Out of town guests were the Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Potter, grandparents of the groom, from Holland, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Borr, Kalamazoo, Mich. and Mrs. Jack Kniper, Chicago, The James Knowlton family from Whitehall, Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Kapp, Miss Ann Heron, Midland, and the Morris Baker family, Toledo. From Grand Rapids came the Henry Huber family, the Don Posthumus, and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Leese. Miss Janis Johnston, Alpena, attended.

To Women It May Concern

By MYRA COX

Did you ever feel like re-dedicating yourself to a cause? I mean you get in some sort of a complacent rut where you don't want controversy, or complaints, or for that matter, hardly conversation unless it is pleasant—real pleasant—and agrees with your own point of view—

And then one stormy Wednesday night, by invitation you attend a meeting with three buddies. Lo, there goes the complacency.

In this case the meeting was the all day conference on "The Dialogue," a National conference of Christians and Jews. The key-note speakers in the evening were Most Reverend William G. Connare, Bishop of Greensburg and Rabbi Morris Adler.

Bishop Connare was interesting and polite, but that Rabbi Adler really woke me up.

He said people should take "wake me up pills"—they must stop taking these "I don't give a damn pills"—tensions don't come from differences—but from lack of understanding of differences.

By all means differences in race, religion, IN POLITICS, should not be hidden; they should be talked about—discussed. A man must be respected for his difference.

He made the point of people with differences sitting around a room and smiling at each other was an utter waste of time.

They should discuss their differences, develop understanding, respect and tolerance, each allowed to have their own opinion. He stressed not to be afraid of difference of opinion—not to scream out against it—but rather to learn about another's opinions, express your own, and both be smarter for knowing. Oh, if we could all have this wisdom and not have to be priests, rabbis—just homemakers, secretaries, teachers, etc. The list is longer than there is paper.

Dialogue is dedicated to the honest confrontation between men of differing opinions in the search for understanding.

Now, that brings me back to my own dedication that so often I am hesitant in speaking out, because in this world of "togetherness" we live in—it is not popular.

I sincerely believe in the philosophy of "Objectivism"—and this night following the inspiration of being exposed to Dialogue I would debate it with Adlai Stevenson and Billy Graham, both of whom I consider the most articulate men living today. (Tomorrow I probably wouldn't be so brave and might just want to take on the fellows in the print shop or fellow workers.)

"Objectivism" is Ayn Rand's philosophy as depicted in many of her books, none so aptly as "Atlas Shrugged."

Though it briefly, it holds that since reason is man's basic tool of survival, rationality is his highest virtue. To use his mind, to perceive reality and to act accordingly is man's moral imperative. Man exists for his own sake, that the pursuit of his own happiness is his highest moral purpose, that he must not sacrifice himself to others, nor sacrifice others to himself. The worst, most depraved type of human being is the man without a purpose and work and achievement are the highest goals of life. (This "his" also applies to the "her".)

Objectivism covers everything—love, religion, politics. As yet I personally am only in the first steps of learning, and believe me, it unfolds slowly.

For instance, dwell on this for a minute and you will see the magnitude of this new modern-day philosophy.

Government has only one proper function: the protection of individual rights. Government's task is to serve as a policeman who protects men from the use of force. Taxes should be voluntary, like everything else for the proper governmental services which people do need and therefore should be willing to pay for—as they pay for insurance. Post offices (I've always said this), streets, roads, and above all, schools, should all be privately owned and privately run. The separation of state and economics. Government should be concerned only with those issues which involve the use of force, nothing more. This means the police, armed services (but a voluntary army—not draft), law courts to settle disputes. Everything else should be privately run and would be much better run. It would halt this Uncle (Govt.) will pay for it—Uncle will do it—Uncle will give it to you—Uncle will think for you.

Shocked? Wait until you mull over the beliefs of Objectivism concerning morality, sex, rearing of children—well, as I say, I'm only in kindergarten.

MRS. KENNETH F. KANE

Gay-Kane Rites Are Solemnized at St. Brigid's

Phyllis L. Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gray, 18883 Maplewood, Livonia, became the bride of Kenneth F. Kane in a double-ring ceremony at St. Brigid's Church in Detroit.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kavinsky, 14296 Indiana, Detroit.

A soloist sang the Ave Maria and The Lord's Prayer.

The bride wore a floor-length silk organza-over-taffeta gown with a crystal and seed pearl headpiece with bouffant veil, and carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of fiji mums.

Matron of Honor was Mrs. Beverly Ferris, the bride's sister. Her bridesmaids were sister Nancy and sister-in-law Nancy Kane. They wore raspberry sherbet-colored gowns of silk organza and lace, with matching accessories, and carried mint-green fiji mums. The groom's brother, Richard, served as best man, with ushers Wayne Gray, another brother, and Ross Sutherland seating the guests.

Mrs. Gray was dressed in a steel-blue gown of peau de soie with Alencon lace. The groom's mother wore a moss-green silk organza sheath with embroidered jacket.

A reception followed in the evening at Roma Hall in Livonia, for 200 guests including those from California, Grand Rapids, and Lansing. The couple planned a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, New York City.

The new Mrs. Kane is a graduate of Bentley High School. Mr. Kane is a Wayne State University graduate. The couple presently resides in Livonia.

Invitation to Open Meeting of "Recovery"

Any Wednesday evening at 8:30 p.m. a group of people meet at Our Lady of Good Counsel School in Plymouth to help each other and themselves.

The organization is called Recovery, Inc. Members demonstrate their experiences by panel discussion, read from Dr. Abraham A. Low, (their founder) and a professor of Psychiatry and Neurology at U. of Illinois Medical School. They also, as they will next Wednesday night, listen to taped lectures by Dr. Low personally.

Dr. Low's Book is "Mental Health Through Will Training."

In this book, and in the other Recovery literature and recordings by Dr. Low, are found countless explanations of nervous relations, their effect upon the individual, and the self-help techniques the individual can use to help himself practice self-leadership, Second, attendance at panel meetings. At these meetings, panel help as explained by Dr. Low in his book. Third (the application by each individual of self-help principles, carefully developed by Dr. Low, in his or her daily life.

Thus, the self-help method is learned through study of the book, then put into practice by members in their daily lives, and their application of the method made more effective through the help of the weekly panel discussions.

Recovery is a self-help method of after-care. It in no way supplants the physician. No diagnosis or treatment, or advice or counseling, are offered. The patient is expected to follow the authority of his doctor or other professional. However, it is not necessary to have been hospitalized or under the care of a psychiatrist in order to take part in Recovery meetings.

Meetings are conducted by a Recovery leader. All leaders are patients or former patients who have been thoroughly trained in the self-help method. Reauthorization for leadership is required annually from the National Board of Directors.

If you are interested in finding out more about the Recovery self-help method, information can be obtained at the local Recovery meetings.

Junior Orchestra Performs March 22

The Livonia Youth Symphony Society will usher in "Spring, 1964" with its second concert of the season, a performance of the Junior Orchestra of Livonia, 4 p.m. Sunday, March 22 at Bentley High Auditorium.

Featured guest artists on the musical program will be the Sisti Trio, Detroit Symphony Orchestra musicians led by 27-year-old Livonian, first violinist Clark Sisti.

The 61-piece Junior Orchestra, the younger of two youth orchestras sponsored by Livonia's symphony society, is conducted by Robert Randall.

This year the Junior Orchestra grew from a string orchestra to a full orchestra. The young musicians are from Livonia and neighboring communities—Garden City, Wayne, Dearborn, Detroit, and as far as New Boston.

The Sisti Trio is an offshoot of the Sisti Quartet, the Detroit-area string ensemble formerly known as the "Raven String Quartet" which gave three seasons of concerts at the Raven Art Gallery to high cultural acclaim. The Trio itself recently appeared at the Retort in Detroit and has given a concert for the Bohemian Club.

A Detroit Symphony member for two years, violist for the Trio is Darrel Barnes, a 21-year-old music student of Wayne State University. Cellist is Mario DiFiore, who was first cellist with the Orlando Florida Symphony Orchestra before joining the Detroit Symphony in 1960.

Tickets for the concert are $1.50 for adults. There is no admission charge for students. Following the coming concert, the Junior Orchestra of Livonia and the Youth Symphony Orchestra will begin rehearsals for concerts during the annual "Youth Symphony Week", May 17-24.

Twenty-nine members of the Junior Orchestra earned high ratings at the annual solo and ensemble festival held recently at Willow Run.

Participants included: Livonians Mary Beth Frisch, Andrea Vadori, Rick Taylor, Scot Whitling, Carlee Stewner, Randy Fotiu, Betsy Hoffmann, Beth Shirley, Judy Hebbard, Marge Rabonovitch, Amy Otis, Maura Taormina, Nancy Kushigian, Jane Baumgarten, Mike LaRue and Floyd Fisher; Dawn Carne, Carmela Nosakowski, Sharon Brodi and Phyllis Ferkel from South Redford; Bruce Buddenburg, Mike Kirby, Pat Kordie, Betty Curry and Dana Judycki from Garden City; Detroiters Nancy Amato; Linda Nichols from New Boston.

EDGAR A. (Bud) GUEST will be the guest of the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association at its dinner meeting Thursday, March 12 at 6:45. Bringing "the sunny side of the street" to the Rosedale Club House is planned as a fun evening by the Civic Association. "The Best of Guest" will give many of his radio fans a first hand chance to see the man that daily brightens their day.

Test 38 Scholars

Thirty-eight students from Clarenceville High School took the 1964 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test. Principal David McDowell announced. The test was administered Tuesday morning.

The qualifying test was a three-hour examination of educational development. The test is the first step in the 10th annual competition for four-year Merit Scholarships provided by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and by sponsoring corporations, foundations, colleges, associations, unions, trusts, and individuals.

The number of scholarships awarded in any year depends the extent of sponsor participation. In 1963, 1,528 were awarded; 951 were provided by 179 sponsors and 577 by the Merit Corporation. There are 4,118 Merit Scholars attending 425 colleges in the current academic year.

The test scores of students who are examined in March will be reported to their schools before May 15. The scores are used by the counselors in many high schools to help students make decisions about college attendance and field of study.

Many students who do not expect to win a scholarship take the test in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses in the areas measured by the test.

Each Semifinalist will be asked to take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance will become finalists in the Merit Program. Winners of Merit Scholarships will be sent to finals.

LIVONIA'S IRISH prepared for the big St. Patrick's Day celebration by presenting Mayor Moelke with shamrocks direct from the shores of Erin. Participating in the presentation were: (from left) Joan O'Brien, Rev. Fr. Patrick Murphy, chaplain of the Irish Society of Livonia; Queen Kathleen McLaughlin, James O'Neil, Gov. Romney's representative on Irish activities in Wayne County; Chairman Maureen Gillies, Maureen Roach, Helen Sheehan, Vickie Sullivan, Eleanor O'Leary, Kathleen Roach and Rose Francis. Livonia's Irish Society will have a float representing the city in Detroit's mammoth St. Patrick's Day parade. Just to keep it legal, Father Murphy renamed Mayor Moelke, Harvey Mulcahey as in I-R-I-S-H.

For 'Matchmakers' By Plymouth Guild

CASTING CALL: for "The Matchmakers" to be on March 11, 12, 13 at Plymouth High School.

Produced by the Plymouth Theatre Guild, it will hit the boards May 7, 8, 9 with Ray Maidment directing. This most delightful Thornton Wilder comedy is currently the most successful Broadway production of the season in "Hello Dolly". The cast calls for a total of nine men and seven women. The Plymouth Theatre Guild were tentatively slated to do an original by local drama critic Bob Wall, "Money Who Needs It". Because it harpooned school board members (any similarity to actual person is coincidental) Plymouth Theatre Guild officers were told by the powers-that-be they could not use the school if they produced this play.

THEY WANT to make this year the best memorial parade Redford Township citizens have ever seen. All civic associations, service, clubs, fraternal groups and other clubs are asked to participate this year with a car or float. The next meeting to send a representative from your organization will be at the Fraternal Order Eagle Aerie, 24401 Five Mile Road, Redford Township at 8 p.m. on Thursday, March 12. President of the Redford Township Day Authority Don W. Eighthy is asking for 100 per cent to "get into the parade." (L. to r.) George Duvall, co-chairman of Awards Committee; Alice Valle, Awards Committee chairman; Elmer D. Hazelton, Public Relations chairman, are looking forward to Sunday, May 31, the date of the parade.

THS Enters Speech 'Preliminaries'

This week, Thurston High School will hold the preliminaries and finals of the annual spring Forensic (Speech) contests sponsored by the University of Michigan and the Michigan High School Forensic Association.

Thurston's forensic director, Eugene Duston, announced a record turnout of fifty participants in the five contests. The program follows: Wednesday—Preliminaries in declamation, oratory, extemporaneous speaking; Thursday—preliminaries in humorous reading, interpretative reading; Friday—finals in all five contests. They will be held in the school's Little Auditorium.

First and second place winners in each contest will compete against League schools for district honors in April. The district winners go on to regional competition.

Thurston, long a power in area speaking contests, looks forward to success in the district and regional competition according to Duston.

The four alumnae groups of the Metropolitan Detroit area will attend the March 17 performance at the Fisher Theater. The tickets, at $4.85 each, can be ordered by sending a check to Mrs. R. F. Whitworth, 16822 Warwick, Detroit 19, Michigan. Checks should be made payable to: Alumnae of Alpha Phi. ### 'Curtain Going Up'

By Wally Roberts

"The Contrast" at the Vanguard is a living misnomer. Creditors have been hounding the management of the Vanguard for $40,000 of bills. What most of us gentlemen that sit on the aisle thought was now the Vanguard will provide a long-needed popular success. A contrast from the usual artistic avant-garde type of presentation was long overdue.

Old Wally had read "The Contrast" and enjoyed his literary perusal. When the Vanguard announced the signing of Michael Ellis to do the directing, it was my fond hope that the production would be staged in glorious fashion. Mr. Ellis has established reputation for an outstanding summer theater in New Hope, Pennsylvania.

But as old Wally indicated with the opening sentence, "The Contrast" opened and "came a cropper". Other expressions might be coined, but basically the situation is a sorry one at the Vanguard. As is any old-time melodrama you wait anxiously for someone to arrive in the last act to save the heroine and let virtue be triumphant. Not so with the Vanguard.

William Feaster and John Gregory struggle valiantly through a pallid production of what could be a rip-roaring drawing room comedy of the 18th Century. "School for Scandal" is a contemporary dramatic piece of the period. Many fine productions of this play have been made. It's my feeling that with the right director and quite competent actors "The Contrast" could be great fun.

Mr. Robert Bates, a new addition to the Vanguard resident company, shows great promise. He performs his part with authority and under more imaginative direction could have developed more versatility. The lack of action on the stage can be chalked up to the director. Throughout the evening the sterile static positioning planned by the director began to wear on the audience. The excessive bowing of the actors might have been a part of the authentic style, but eventually the style stilted the forward progress of the script.

"The Contrast" needs some Guthrie-type movement. You can't place two actors in one spot as though they were going to take root there. Such might have been the original style of George Washington's time, but our jet-propelled audiences can't adjust to such formal minuet-like movement.

Over in Ann Arbor where "The Child Buyer" opened last week the stage was filled with motion. Marcella Cisney did what she could to give this courtroom drama a whirlwind pacing. Her script surprisingly enough was not as strong as the dated post-Revolutionary script at the Vanguard. Paul Shyre's adaptation of the controversial novel, "The Child Buyer" utilized all the tricks of the trade. Big problem is though you have to have something to say. "The Child Buyer" ridicules our present system of education and indicates that a new, more scientific approach might help us solve the miracle of life and unfold all the secrets of divine law and order. The new order of education hopes to find some way "out of this world". They don't specify whether it's the moon, Mars or Venus. The implication is clearly that we bridge the gap between man's mortal and immortal being and discover Heaven.

For theatrical excitement where can one turn? Old Wally strongly advises a return to the true master of all theatrics: William Shakespeare. The Wayne State Classical Theater premiered its final of four plays in the current repertory sequence of four of the Bard's works, "Anthony and Cleopatra" normally one of more difficult of Shakespeare's plays to perform came off with vivid eality on the Hilberry Classic stage. Wednesday through Sunday evenings the Wayne State Classical Theater players perform. A Saturday matinee at 2:30 p.m. is an ideal time if you'd like to take the high school members of your family. Call the Box office for reservations: 833-5151.

THE HILLBOARD (Week of March 11-13)
 Fisher Theater: "NEVER TOO LATE"
 Bill Bendix in hilarious comedy about a blessed event arriving late in the marital adventures of an elderly couple. Road company barely adequate for theatrically-wise Detroiters. Holds for two more weeks

Campus Theater: "THE L-SHAPED ROOM" Leslie Caron in her Academy Award nomination picture. "THE SPORTING LIFE" follows for a week's play. Another Academy Award nominee in this film, "TOM JONES" the other British picture with 7 Academy Award nominations is playing at the Michigan Theater and the Trans Lux Krim in Detroit. Hollywood definitely taking a back-seat in the movie Award business this year.

Wolverine Stables Theater: "DAYS OF BEBE FINSERWALD" Avant-gare comedy by the Stables Coffeehouse Theater group. Still an enjoyable evening out at the intimate theater atop the Hawaiian Room Bar at the Hotel Wolverine... Pierre Le Marre directs.

Intern Teaching Program Studied by School Boards

The five School Boards within the confines of the Schoolcraft College district are studying a co-operative teacher training program sponsored jointly by Schoolcraft and Michigan State University officials.

Matter of fact the proposed Elementary Intern Program has been approved by the Livonia Board, is under discussion in Plymouth and will be presented to the Clarenceville, Northville and Garden City Boards for approval in meetings later this month.

The proposed program is sponsored by the College of Education at Michigan State University with the co-operation of Schoolcraft College educators and the backing of the five school boards.

The program would enable intern teachers at Michigan State to work with the co-operating centers during the winter and spring terms of the junior year.

Students elected would have a C plus scholastic average or better to qualify for the program.

Then in the senior year, the students would be sent to the various co-operating centers—in this case five school districts—in teams of five interns and a consultant.

Each team would serve one district. The interns would be paid $3,500 for the school year by the local district and the supervisors would have an average of $7,500.

The teaching interns will follow the same housing plans used by MSU in off-campus student teaching for years. They will rent an apartment or room with cooking facilities and share this with another student.

Admission requirements for the program are the same as for any other undergraduate student in Education with one exception.

DPW News And Notes In Plymouth

By SUPT. JOSEPH BIDA
Plymouth D.P.W.

The past week found the Department of Public Works crews busy making tests of Six Mile Well Field and aquifer, also, moving a 10 inch water main on Northville Road north of C & O R.R. The public works handled five funerals the past week.

Notices were issued to all citizens who have alley refuse pick up telling them to have their refuse and garbage put out to the curb during the spring thaw, and until further notice.

One catch basin was repaired at Liberty and Davis. Man hours were spent on cleaning and painting playground equipment.

Some people call us about chlorine in the water. At this time we would like to talk about why we do put chlorine in the water.

The State Board of Health requires that the city put chlorine in the water to protect the public health. The chlorine is in all Municipal Water Supplies to take care of any bacteria that may appear in raw water. The disinfectant which is almost universally used is chlorine.

When we sample water we take samples from various locations, also, at each well and we have a man who is in charge of treatment. He sends samples to the State Board of Health bi-weekly. The plant operator also takes residue tests throughout the system and in this manner we can tell if the chlorine is being distributed properly.

This is fed with Wallace and Tiernan proportioner by the methods of two pounds of chlorine to one million pounds of water. We try to keep the residual of .05 to 1 part per million at a house tap.

Bentley Roars To Dist. Crown

Hail again to Livonia Bentley's champs!

On the heels of repeating as Suburban Six League basketball kings, the Bentley cagers last Saturday night added the state district Class A crown to their list of achievements.

This, too, was a repeat for Bentley, giving Coach George Fefles a perfect record in his two years as head man at the Five Mile Road School.

Twice his cagers have taken the league and twice the district.

Now it's the regionals which engulf Bentley's cagers and they're in the competition at the Eastern Michigan University Fieldhouse in Ypsilanti.

For the regionals, Bentley has drawn Adrian High at 9 p.m. Thursday. The other half of the Class A draw will pit Lansing Sexton, the No. 1 rated team in the state, against Fordson, at 7 p.m. Thursday.

The two winners will collide for the regional final Saturday night and the right to advance into next Wednesday's quarter-finals at a location to be announced later.

Fefles had to be proud—and he was—of the showings turned in by Bentley in the district held at Franklin high.

Bentley enjoyed a first-round bye, swinging into initial action on Friday against strong Inkster Robichaud. But this was an easy evening for Bentley. Final score: Bentley 71, Robichaud 56.

Less than 24 hours later, Bentley was back on the same court, this time against a much taller Garden City quintet. The outcome was a little closer, but still it was Bentley which reigned at the final buzzer by a 65-54 score.

Although Garden City fielded a front line of players standing 6-5, 6-4 and 6-5, Bentley pounded the boards with considerable might and turned in a very impressive defensive performance.

Coach Fefles had his charges working a pressing defense throughout and it worked to proficiency. Garden City fell back by six points (20-14) after the first quarter, lagged, 41-30, at the half and was on the short end of a 53-41 count after three quarters.

"Our kids played inspired basketball," declared Fefles after the district title had been won.

"This was team effort. We had three men (Mike O'Hara, Bill Bollin and Fred Matevia) who helped us command the boards. We shot really well in the first half, but cooled off in the second half.

"Our defense was outstanding. The kids never let up and we caused Garden City all kinds of trouble throughout the night's play."

The scoring of Bollin and Bob Morgan helped shoot Bentley to its 11-point lead in the first half. Bollin drilled in nine baskets for 18 points while Morgan collected 10 points in the first 16 minutes.

During the action before the intermission, Bentley caged 17 of its 33 shots for an amazing 51 per cent. After the halftime break, the Livonians could collect only nine of 27 shots for 33 per cent.

Bollin ran into foul trouble in the second half, and saw little action thereafter. He finished with 21 points and 12 rebounds. Morgan had 12 for the game. So did Matevia, who also nailed 10 rebounds.

O'Hara posted eight points and took rebounding honors with 13. Jim Storm scored seven points and Larry Remer five to round out the game's production for Bentley.

Thus Bentley now has capped seven district titles over the years, a record few schools in the state can match.

Remer and Matevia were the big scoring guns for Bentley in the game with Robichaud. Each caged 19 points as Bentley led all the way. The score was 41-23 at half time.

Bollin and Tim Doll also hit in double figures with 12 and 10 points, respectively.

Morgan finished with six, Storm five and O'Hara four.

DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP trophy is presented to Bentley High's Co-Captains Jim Storm (left) and Bill Bollin by Livonia High School Athletic Director Les Anders following the 65-54 victory over Garden City in the finals on the Franklin High court. The triumph sent Bentley into the regional tournament at Eastern Michigan University this week.

Poor Shooting Hurts Thurston

The idea in basketball is to fire the ball through the hoop.

Thurston High School's cagers met with little success in this all-vital department last Friday night and as the result the South Townshipers were knocked off by Farmington, 66-55, in their first—and only—action in the state Class A district tournament at North Farmington.

After firing the shots home with regularity during the regular season which saw Thurston wind up as co-champs with North Farmington in the Northwest League, Coach Mike Pasternak's forces managed to strike gold on only nine of their first 30 attempts against Farmington.

The feeble marksmanship caused Thurston to fall behind, 21-14, by the end of the first quarter and 38-27 at halftime. The rest of the way Thurston played Farmington even... but it was too late.

Thurston did manage to close within six points of Farmington in the third period. However, the victors spurred again and rebuilt a 11-point bulge at the finish.

Farmington kept Thurston at bay with a 1-2-2 zone defense.

"We had worked well against such a defense before, but maybe it was the excitement of the state tournament which hurt our boys," declared Pasternak.

John Page paced the losers with eight baskets and seven free throws for 23 points. Jerry Samuelian and Paul Lawson each fired in 14 points. Samuelian caged seven baskets while Lawson meshed three hoops and eight charities.

Lou Banwert with two points and Bob Venegoni and Rich Stefani with one each rounded out the Thurston scoring.

Despite Thurston's short stay in the meet, the season ended on a very successful note for the school's cagers.

Thurston enjoyed an overall 12-5 record for the campaign compared to a 2-14 mark the previous winter. In addition, Thurston came up with co-champs in its league after resting on the bottom 12 months earlier.

Thurston did manage to close within six points of Farmington

BENTLEY'S Fred Matevia (45) tips in a rebound for two points despite a battle for the ball from Dearborn Robichaud's Si McKinnie (51). Matevia helped Bentley move into the district finals at Franklin High with a 71-56 victory.

Last-Second Shot Nips Redford Union

Call it "a once in a million shot."

Whatever it was, the effort struck pay dirt and led to the elimination of Redford Union high's basketball team in a heartbreaking finish in the state Class A district tournament at North Farmington.

Words hardly can describe how the Townshipers wound up on the short end of a 69-67 score against Walled Lake.

With five minutes to go, Coach Milo Karhu's band from the north end of the Township were moving along with a 64-59 lead.

But Walled Lake came roaring back. Finally with three minutes to go, Walled Lake tied the score at 67-67.

Redford Union quickly lost possession of the ball and Walled Lake went into a stall with 2:58 showing on the clock.

"We figured with our good defense that we could get the ball back," said Karhu later. "We didn't want to foul them, of course. Then, too, we did not think they could hang on to the ball for so long a period without making a mistake which would benefit us."

The seconds ticked off... There were 90 seconds left... and no change in score.

Now the clock showed 60 seconds... 50... 35... 25... 15... Still nothing happened.

The Lakers made a few passes... and Redford Union stayed away...

"We couldn't risk at this stage to foul," added Karhu.

At the 10-second mark, the Lakers seemed to get panicky. They didn't know what to do with the ball... or to whom it was supposed to go for the last shot.

"Shoot... shoot..." screamed the Laker fans.

With three seconds to go, the ball was tossed over to Ray Hughes. He stood 25 feet from the hoop and certainly in far from good position.

Hughes had no other choice, but to let the ball go.

"He threw it like a baseball pitcher," described Karhu later. "Of course, as one must finally realize by now... the ball went SWISH."

Before Redford Union could get its hands on the ball again, the game was over.

Redford had fought back against the Lakers after the latter had built an early 19-9 lead. By halftime, RU was in front, 35-34, and then went into the final period, clinging to a 55-54 advantage.

Tom DeWitt with 23 points and 12 rebounds led the RU cause. Ben Malbach scored 18 and Brother Al 10. Clyde Ziegler fouled in eight, Gary DeRoche four and Robby Mason four.

With the defeat, RU closed out the 1963-64 campaign with a record of 12 victories and six setbacks.

REDFORD Union's Tom DeWitt (arms outstretched) battles Walled Lake's John Thomas for a rebound while Ben Malbach (34), of R.U., and Rick Trudeau (25) get ready to move in on the action. The shot was taken in Redford's stunning 69-67 last second loss to the Lakers in the "A" tournament at North Farmington High's gym.

Rocks Lose In Tourney

A strong finish paid off for Garden City high school's basketball team against Plymouth in the state Class A district tournament at Franklin last Wednesday.

The Rocks, coached by Charles Ketterer, had come back from trailing 24-22 at halftime to pull even with Garden City with two minutes left in the game.

In the final 120 seconds, however, Garden City came through with the BIG shots and came out a 64-58 victor in as thrilling a district game the area saw last week.

Garden City had taken a 15-11 lead at the end of the first quarter. By halftime, it was 24-22.

The two teams played on even terms in the third quarter. Each side scored 21 points. That still left Garden City on top by two, going into the final eight minutes.

The Rocks, fighters all season long and fresh from an upset win over Bentley's Suburban Six League champs in the final game of the regular season, put on another stirring comeback. But they just didn't have enough to outlast the team from Garden City.

Cal Lubbrand, Plymouth's star all season, again turned in a fine effort. This time he scored 14 points.

Gary Grady and Jerry Kisabeth also hit in double figures for the Rocks. Grady nailed 13 and Kisabeth 10.

Bill Nelson followed with seven, Dick Egloff six, Doug Hollingsworth with four and Doug Sutherland and John Hanula with two each.

For Garden City, Gary Bowman and Pete Kitzman were the two giants in the scoring department. Each tossed in 19 points.

Garden City totaled 23 baskets to 22 for Plymouth—further evidence of just how evenly matched the two teams were.

OBSERVER SPORTS

By George Maskin

If you get a chance, wander over to the University of Michigan this weekend.

This will be your last chance to watch Ken Wiebeck as a high school swimmer.

The Thurston high will be wrapping up one of the most brilliant careers in Michigan prep swimming history in the Class A meet at Ann Arbor.

He'll be shooting to accomplish what no other prep has achieved in our state before—win two state titles in each of his sophomore, junior and senior years, and set a new state record with each victory.

The prep scene won't be quite the same hereabouts with Wiebeck gone. Nor will the weekly state prep ratings which he has dominated now for three years.

The future for this young man naturally is extremely bright, barring the unforeseen.

He's a cinch to bid for a place on this year's United States Olympic team. Then will come college for Ken. He hasn't said yet where he will go... but, as stated here before, Wiebeck can go any place he wishes. Dozens of schools are after him.

Our hat goes off to this demon of the waters. Whether he wins or loses at Ann Arbor this Saturday really will make no difference.

He's still A GREAT ONE.

It's been a long winter... or so it seems... as we've trooped about with our Detroit Pistons, starting in Caseville, Mich., in early October and finishing up down in Marion, Ind., last Thursday.

In between, there were stops in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Baltimore and St. Louis, not to forget Cleveland, Fort Wayne, Toledo, Lansing and Traverse City.

What, of course, made the winter so long was the fact the team wasn't winning.

It doesn't take too many victories to sweeten the pie and make life all the more cheerful.

As the saying goes, there's always "next year"... to which the coaches at Franklin, Plymouth, Clarenceville, Thurston and the other area high schools can say: "Amen."

To the mother of the Franklin high wrestler who blitzed our mail:

We try our darndest to cover the sports scene completely. Unless all coaches cooperate, we sometimes miss the boat here and there along the line.

Did you know that it costs something like $9 to carry the load for each boy who plays baseball in the Redford Township Junior Athletic Association's summer program?

Figure in the cost of equipment, the umpires, transportation and insurance... the bill is an expensive one.

We mention this because the RTJAA and other similar groups in Livonia and Plymouth shortly will be staging fund-raising campaigns.

Your help will be most appreciated—especially by the kids!

Livonia DPR Hosts Area Cage Meet

The Livonia Parks and Recreation Department will host the 1964 Inter-City Recreation basketball tournament for teams, 18, 17 and 16 years of age with the first round starting Monday, March 16.

Two games are scheduled at Bentley High School with Highland Park meeting Royal Oak at 7 p.m.; and Dearborn tangling with Trenton at 8 p.m.; at Franklin. Detroit will meet Pontiac at 7 p.m.; Wyandotte faces Livonia at 8 p.m., and River Rouge meets Dearborn Heights at 9 p.m.

Hamtramck, East Detroit, and Roseville drew first round byes.

Second and third rounds of play will be held at Franklin and Everson Junior High on March 17 and 18, with the championship game scheduled at Franklin on March 19 at 7 p.m.

Opening rounds of Inter-City Tournament Competition in other league classification will see Clair's Service, Livonia's Class B champion, meeting Southfield at Laskey Center in Detroit at 8 p.m. on March 16.

Livonia's fifteen-year-old champions will meet Trenton at Woodworth School in Dearborn on March 16 and Livonia's thirteen-year-old champions will face Dearborn at Hrenon High School on March 16.

Fans desiring information about the games are asked to contact the Parks and Recreation Department—GA 1-2000.

Trojans Fall to S. Lyons

The brilliance of Dave Graves wasn't enough for Clarenceville High school's basketball team in the state Class B district tournament at Pontiac.

Graves, who was an unanimous choice on the Wayne-Oakland League's all-star team, came through with a 17-point scoring effort and 21 rebounds, but Clarenceville succumbed to South Lyon, 50-45, in the first round of action.

An injury to Gary Alder in the first half hurt Clarenceville. He hurt his knee and was forced to remain inactive after the intermission.

"The loss of Alder reduced our scoring and rebounding punch," declared Coach Jim Leary.

Alder wound up the night with only five points, well under his average.

South Lyon jumped in front, 9-7, at the end of the first quarter and held a 21-17 halftime edge. In the third period, South Lyon went in front by eight.

Clarenceville struck back, closing the gap to four with five minutes to go in the fourth stanza. But the North Livonians couldn't slice the differential any more.

Danny Freels with 12 points, Ray Roof five, Chris Hawkins and Gary Gearhart four each and Larry Ray with one completed the scoring for Clarenceville.

Coach Leary expressed satisfaction with the Clarenceville cage showing during 1963-54.

"We won eight out of 17 for the winter," said the coach. "That was quite an improvement because a year ago the school scored only two victories in basketball."

"The kids worked hard, they hustled and they weren't outclassed too often, despite the fact many of our opponents are Class A teams."

St. Agatha No Match For Rival

It was over in a hurry for St. Agatha high's basketball team.

The Townshipers drew St. Cyril of Detroit in the first round of the district Class C tournament at Hamtramck.

By the end of the first quarter, St. Agatha trailed, 18-9. Halftime came and saw St. Agatha on the short end of a 41-22 count.

And, so it went...

St. Cyril had too much all around power for St. Agatha. In particular, St. Agatha couldn't stop Dan Przybylo who tossed in 30 points to pace the victors.

Mike Steen carried off scoring honors for St. Agatha with six baskets and five free throws for 17 points. Claude Inch and Dan Lilly each meshed ten.

Matt Wroblewski scored seven, Mike Roemer four, Pat Murphy three and Dick Collins two to round out the St. Agatha scoring.

And, so it went...

St. Cyril had too much all around power for St. Agatha. In particular, St. Agatha couldn't stop Dan Przybylo who tossed in 30 points to pace the victors.

Mike Steen carried off scoring honors for St. Agatha with six baskets and five free throws for 17 points. Claude Inch and Dan Lilly each meshed ten.

Matt Wroblewski scored seven, Mike Roemer four, Pat Murphy three and Dick Collins two to round out the St. Agatha scoring.

EMU Names Bill Lewis Swim Coach

William C. Lewis, a former Mid-American Conference diving champion, has been named by the Eastern Michigan University Board of Regents as the varsity swimming coach. The appointment marks Eastern Michigan's first entry into intercollegiate swim competition.

Lewis received his B.S. and his M.S. from Miami University (Ohio) where he was the conference diving champion in the one and three meter events for three seasons during the early 1950s.

After graduation from Miami, Lewis became the freshman and assistant varsity swim coach at the school. From here he joined the Air Force where he coached the swim team at Kessler Air Base, Biloxi, Miss. He was also the diver for the Air Force in the Far East Games from 1958-61.

Lewis will have teaching duties along with his coaching chores.

OUTSTRETCHED ARMS everywhere as Thurston's Gerry Samuelian (23) and Farmington High cagers reach for a rebound in the district tournament at North Farmington. Thurston had a cold night and fell by the wayside, 64-55.

Thurston 13th In Mat Meet

Thurston high school's wrestling team placed 13th in last weekend's state Class A meet at Ann Arbor.

Jim Todd at 95 pounds and Pete Marsalese at 145 pounds paced the Thurston team. Todd finished third in his weight bracket, winning four matches before losing.

Charles Moore of Franklin High was the only other area matman to place among the leaders. Moore carried off fourth-place honors in the 154-pound competition.

Franklin Drubbed at Home

The home court advantage did Franklin high school's basketball team no good in the district Class A tournament last week.

Going against Inkster Robichaud on the Franklin court, the South Livonians literally were bombed. The final score was 71-43 for Robichaud.

Robichaud, annually one of the area's Class A powers, stormed in front, 21-10, by the end of the first quarter.

Franklin battled Robichaud virtually even in the second period. The visitors added 16 points to Franklin's 15.

But in the third period, Robichaud exploded again, outscoring Franklin, 19-7, and the rest was a foregone conclusion.

Sam Antonazzo tossed in 12 points to pace Franklin. Larry Duffield had 10 and Roger Frayer nine.

Then came Al Jose with five, Bernie Carbo with two and Bill Bauer and Steve Karnish with one each.

Guttering Is Key to Long House Life

Maintaining a healthy roof drainage system is important in assuring long life throughout the house.

Lack of proper gutters and downspouts often results in damage to the structure, stripping on the sides of the house, erosion of the ground around the house, with water infiltration through basement walls, says the Roof Drainage Manufacturers institute.

Pronounced leaks are danger signals. Always examine the eaves under the roof after the rain.

If you find wet spots or discoloration, leaking water that has worked along the framing and through the walls, discolored siding, or tiny streaks of sunlight on rafters or basement, there must be a leak somewhere, and it should be found and fixed.

Clean out all gutter debris at least semi-annually. At the same time, check for corrosion and spots where the paint is flaking off. Remove dirt and paint with a wire brush and apply metal primer to affected area, inside gutters.

Paint a matching or contrasting coat on the outside.

When inspecting gutters, take a stiff brush along on the first climb. It will help you dislodge debris. Look for places where gutters may have ripped loose, for opened seams, corroded or rusted sections. Be sure no water stands in the gutters.

When you make necessary drainage repairs or replacements, there's one essential rule to follow: don't mix metals. A galvanic action is set up in metals in the presence of water, and the metal lowest on the "galvanic scale" breaks down rapidly.

Use of a very low-cost material for gutter hangers, with a more attractive material for downspouts, will only lead to new problems soon.

Wallpapers Help Add or Subtract To Appearance Of Rooms

Room too small or too large? Use wallpaper to help you create a look that seems to add or subtract space.

An airy, light paper seems to add an amazing amount of space in a small room. The scale of the design isn't the important part of this eye-deceiver—a fairly large motif will look fine if it is widely spaced on a light background.

Another good way to add a spacious feeling is to cover one wall with a scenic mural. There are country meadows, seascapes, views of the Orient, quaint pastoral scenes of ancient Greece, Colonial villages with tree-lined streets—an elegant variety to give focus to any room in the home.

To pull the room down in size, choose darker colors in a close, all-over design for the walls, and a deeper tone for the ceiling.

GOOD GRIP

When gripping tubes, rods or other round shapes in a vise, tightening by first wrapping the preventing damage from excessive round piece with thick pads of steel wool.

Landscaping Key To Attractiveness

PROPERTY LOOKS pretty as a picture when it's properly landscaped for adequate shade, privacy and beauty from any angle.

What do people think when they see your home, either in passing, or in visiting it? Often the home may be judged by neighbors and friends on the basis of its landscaping and the pleasing effect landscaping imparts to the property. The value and saleability of a home depends to considerable extent on the first impression of the property as a whole, with good landscaping enhancing the value.

Primary points for good landscaping include excellence of design, according to the American Association of Nurserymen. A well-designed planting takes advantage of the topography of the site to create a beautiful picture from any vantage point—on the street side, in the rear yard, on the terrace, or looking at the side borders of the property.

It capitalizes on good views and screens off unsightly vistas. It ties the house to the ground in such a way that it delights the eye, as living plants, sun, earth and sky and house become part of one composition.

Adequate shade should be provided at the time of day you want it and exactly where you want it. Flowers and foliage, roses and perennials are placed for enjoyment in just looking, or so the blooms can be cut to brighten up the indoors.

Proper landscaping today takes into consideration garden or outdoor living that has become increasingly popular in the past few years. The garden living area is planned with both outdoor entertainment and recreational features.

Privacy of course is necessary, and this can be provided either by hedges or informal groupings of plants. Sometimes just one or two evergreen or flowering shrubs, or trees, will create the desired effect.

For those who enjoy fresh fruits, and who doesn't, there can be fruit-bearing trees, small fruits like strawberries, raspberries, or asparagus and rhubarb.

Beauti-Pleat Opens Branch In Plymouth

American Beauti-Pleat Co. of California has opened an Eastern Michigan branch in Plymouth with the official announcement that the store at 545 S. Main is now open for business.

The branch will handle the company's drapery hardware and will be known as Beauti-Pleat of Eastern Michigan. It will serve as a distribution point for the entire state.

Robert Perryman, owner of the new company, indicated the products of the 11-year-old firm are familiar in other parts of the United States but new to this area.

The pleating method used by Beauti-Pleat is a steel spring pleater which allows any fabric to hang in even pleats without bunching and without the use of crinoline stiffening.

In addition to wholesale distributing, the Plymouth branch will have a retail outlet at the same location, carrying a complete line of drapery fabrics with seven displays showing Beauti-Pleat installations.

PREVENT PEELING

Don't paint protected exteriors or siding or trim until accumulated dust and dirt is removed. Wipe surface down with detergent or solvent. If glossy, dull with sandpaper. This will prevent peeling.

Rocks Capture 8th Swim Title; Thurston Second

Call it a monopoly that Plymouth High School holds in Suburban Six League swimming circles.

Nine years — eight loop championships!

That's the record Coach John McFall and his Rocks have fashioned in the waterways of the circuit.

The Rocks added to their laurels Friday and Saturday as they again outclassed their other five rivals. While Plymouth scored 127½ points, runnerup Trenton was a distant second with 88½. Then came Bentley, Redford Union, Allen Park and Belleville with far lesser totals.

By taking the league meet, Plymouth was crowned as the circuit's dual-meet kings. During the regular season, Plymouth and Trenton had posted identical records, each losing once.

But the overall championship meet was no contest. It was Plymouth all the way.

The Rocks fattened up by taking both the relays. Their other firsts came when Jim Beglinger won the individual medley, Dick Barry the 100-yard free style and Dan Olsen the back stroke.

Ten places counted in the scoring. Here's the story, race by race, of how the tankers from Plymouth, Redford Union and Bentley fared:

MEDLEY RELAY: 1—Plymouth (Olsen, Agnew, Malboeuf, Drennan). 2—Redford Union (Douglas, Truesdell, Rice, Faris). 3—Bentley (Thompson, Payton, Evans, Young). Time: 1:50.1.

TEURSTON'S RUNNERUP

The individual honors went to Thurston.

But the team prize landed at Birmingham Groves.

So went the Northwest Suburban League's annual swimming finals last Friday and Saturday.

Groves beat out Thurston, 132½-129½, for first-place laurels. Fitzgerald was third with 99 points. Pontiac Northern, Southfield, Madison and Franklin rounded out the scoring.

Ken Wiebeck and Pat Duthie each swam to a pair of victories for Thurston. Both men set two league records.

Jim Girard also came home a

Doctor 'Speaks Up'

What Alcohol Has Done to Youth Today

THE GRANGE and THE CONSERVATION OF OUR NATURAL RESOURCES (Including Health)

(The following is a summary of a speech given by Dr. Ralph Pino before the members of the Plymouth Grange last Thursday. Dr. Pino, who is a Grange member, is currently on the Governor's Commission for Mental Health in Michigan.)

The influence of the Grange in the conservation of our national resources such as soil, water, and forests, is historical. Organized in 1867 it has fought not only for the preservation of these resources, but also for the best interests of the nation when social and economic justice has been compromised by powerful interests. So today in our colleges and universities credit is given to the Grange for the power it has yielded in bringing to pass many of our protective national laws which we now take for granted.

The physical and mental health of our young people is of vital importance to our country. And yet nearly 50% of young men 18 years of age are reported to be disqualified for military service.

From the physical and mental health standpoint our largest disease syndrome is caused by alcohol. It affects the brain first, and gradually the rest of the body so that at the present rate one child out of every seven and one-half children will become either chronic alcoholics or acute problem drinkers. Alcohol is a habit-forming narcotic, and yet it is claimed conservatively that two-thirds of our children in high school begin drinking and that 75% of adults drink.

It isn't strange that juvenile and adult delinquency are on the increase, and that 50% of the population of our penal institutions are alcoholic.

Forty million persons of our country are burdened by having a chronic alcoholic or problem drinker in the family, consequently broken homes, poverty, pain, and suicide continue to go up from this cause.

Being habit-forming, alcoholism propagates itself, but in contradistinction, under preventive medicine polio is becoming gradually under control, so that today there are less than twenty new cases in the United States daily, while Alcoholism is vigorously and increasingly propagated to over one thousand new cases daily.

Alcohol when taken into the stomach is absorbed almost at once into the blood stream and reaches the frontal area of the brain "the supreme court of the mind," that has to do with judgment first so that 50% of the 40,000 deaths on our highways are due to alcohol, and for each death one hundred, or over two million per year, are maimed and injured from alcohol.

High school children apparently drink beer mainly, and it takes only a moderate amount to affect their judgment, so births out of wedlock, and venereal disease are getting entirely out of control as reported by the United States Public Health Service. Within a few miles of this auditorium last year one high school sent home 42 girls, and another 30, because of pregnancy, and so it continues over the United States.

While the liquor interests, newspapers, magazines, books, radio, and television (most athletic programs), restaurants, bars, and super markets press for more sales everywhere.

One of the most effective propagating gadgets is to the point that Alcoholism is a disease which a person is born with. And that those who enjoy alcohol should not be prevented from the pleasure because some become chronic alcoholics and problem drinkers. But the people are waking up. The cause of Alcoholism is Alcohol. The slavery to this narcotic is greater in numbers, many times over, than the extent of slavery in this country one hundred years ago.

The American Medical Association states that Alcoholism affects every citizen in the United States sociologically, psychologically, and economically.

Alcohol in the United States costs more than does education. Financially education in America is in a very critical condition.

Education is the answer to Alcoholism as it is in the smoking problem. Those who propagate these narcotics do not want brain damage and the disaster that goes with it to be brought to their families for someone's financial profit.

Medical slides were shown to illustrate brain anatomy and physiology—the organ of the mind, the seat of learning, and of human behavior. The brain is an electrical instrument, each cell an electric battery. Young people should be taught to appreciate that the brain is their most important "natural resource", and not want to injure it by alcohol.

Spiritual "Substance" Service Topic

Spiritual "Substance" will be the subject at all Christian Science church services next Sunday.

Responsive Reading will include this passage from II Corinthians (4:18): "We look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Related readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following: "As God is substance and man is the divine image and likeness, man should wish for, and in reality has, only the substance of good, the substance of Spirit, not matter" (p. 301).

The Rev. Robert Wietelmann, Assistant to the President of The Michigan District, and the Rev. C. A. Larson, Regional Director of American Missions of The American Lutheran Church will be in charge of the meeting, assisted by the Rev. Arnold H. Jahr, who has been called by The Commission of American Missions to serve as the first Pastor of this congregation.

Although Worship Services and Sunday School sessions were begun only six months ago, the congregation in this brief period of time has already grown to include almost 50 families, and is serving 172 persons.

An Interim Committee composed of Fred Beyer, Donald Erickson, Ted Fredricksen, Gerald Grosh, Dale Hohman, Robert Merrill, Cliff Neynaber, Wilbur Orns, Roy Peplin, Ronald Prieskorn, Robert Radzwin and Matthew Sherock has laid the groundwork for the official organization of the congregation.

The congregation already has a well organized Sunday School with an enrollment of over 80, Junior and Senior Chorus, a Church Women's organization, and will be organizing a Youth group March 15.

Readers "Speak-Up"

Editor:
For several days an off-hand remark in "Facts and Opinions" has disturbed this writer. The gibberish with which you laughed about the "battle of the signs" in your column of February 12 does not seem consistent with your column of November 27 on the seeds of hatred brewing in suburbia.

Certainly wanton destruction of property and signs which disagree with your feelings or those of your parents are hatreds being planted in the new generation. How does one explain to his elementary grade child that he must be sure to guard 24 hours a day a sign or anything else on his property? It is not so amazing that what began as a "battle of the signs" degenerated into nasty threatening phone calls. It also developed into another form of harassment by the use of wrong identification in phone conversations.

The cry of those in government at all levels and the press is for greater participation by the citizens. Actions that went on during this recent primary campaign have many neophytes wondering if it is worth it. Most of us fear damage to our property under normal circumstances. Why invite it by standing up and being counted and trying to influence others on the issues of the day?

The seeds of hatred are planted. Those who said they opposed hate mongering after the recent national tragedy point to newspaper ads and signs and phone calls in Dallas. These were contributing factors to bring on the national feeling of guilt. Look at the similarity in what has happened in Livonia during this primary.

It is true that personal animosity should not be confused with hatred. It is also true that character assassination does muddy the water. The responsibility of the candidate to the community is to try to exercise control over his supporters. Issues should be discussed and performance should be measured; but innuendo, falsehood, threats and destruction have no place in a campaign.

The fashion of the day is not to discuss issues, but to discuss personalities. "Agree with me or I will call you names" has become the slogan. Not all of us can take this sort of treatment. Therefore, we sit back, complain and say, "Politics (whether government, church, PTA or any other organization) is nasty business, we want no part of it."

Because this attitude does nothing but make us sheep, this writer will continue to participate where he can. He will continue to speak out on the issues, and will try never to promote hatred of persons or groups because they disagree with him. If each of us searches his heart and remembers the divine commandments on "Love", we can conquer hatred. But we can only conquer it with concern for the others' welfare and happiness as well as our own. Let us stop confusing hatred with dislike, and love (or concern) with like.

SINCERELY,
CHARLES H. KAY

(If somehow we gave the impression of "laughing" at the destruction of signs on private property, it was unintended, believe us. It is a serious, defiant crime. The Observer, like the Reader, is extremely discouraged by the personal hatred in the 1964 Livonia election and the eagerness to attack personalities rather than issues.—The Editor.)

Editor:

This taxpayer is "sticking his neck out" to urge the voters of Our Town to give serious consideration to the issues and the personalities involved in this especially important election on April 6. I say "especially important" for a good reason; the issues are "integrity" and "economics".

The City of Livonia has reached a "plateau" where it is now up to the voters to decide whether we will continue to grow at a gradual, controlled pace, allowing time to improve our public services and city government, consistent with our ability to pay for these improvements; or whether we will again embark upon a wild exploitation of our few remaining acres, a practice that was characteristic of our first 10 years as a city (1951 thru 1961).

It was "builders' buddy" type of government that created our population explosion, which is the SOLE cause of our burdensome school taxes. How else can you figure it?

There seems to be general agreement among ALL of the candidates now that "Open Space Planning" IS THE THING. Two years ago, Mayor Moelke, then a candidate, as now, ran on a platform of many constructive points that were hinged on or related to "Open Space Planning" or "Low Density Zoning".

After two years of some progress in this direction, in spite of "Obstructionist" tactics by our Council, it seems suddenly to dawn on the former mayor and former councilmen and incumbent councilmen seeking reelection that this is indeed a good thing! But, the record of their past actions belies their present words.

Editor:
I would like this published concerning the area some are calling slums of Livonia. How many have stopped to investigate the situation thoroughly? The majority of families on the streets of Camden, Howler and Hartel are widows and are up in age, but most of them do cleaning, ironing and many other tasks to try to keep their homes. No widow can pay payments as high as they are on a new home.

I am sure they would like a new home. Their homes may look bad on the outside, a condition which they would like improved. But it takes money to do these things, and most have to make their money go as far as possible. They are like babies. If they have something that someone wants they can get it very easily. It seems that they are doing just that. The industry will not help these people—it will just put some of them out of a home altogether. Everyone in this area, I am sure, is very deeply hurt every time it is called a slum. None of these people is related to me, but remember, they are citizens of Livonia and are taxpayers, too. They are always at the polls to help support what is right, but they are really getting poor support for themselves if this bill is passed.

Why are so many people without interest in a wonderful organization, the P.T.A.? We hear but I just don't get anything out of it. I would like to ask, "What do you put into it?" We all know we must give to get. I would like to encourage parents to look at a P.T.A. meeting as a place to meet with the teachers of your child, people that will live a big impression on him in life. Any interested parent would want to know the parents of the other students and there is no better place than at a P.T.A. meeting. If you don't approve of the way it is run, join up and help run it better. Don't just complain at home. Whenever there is a money-making project, support it. A certain amount of money is needed just to keep the organization going but unnecessary necessities that will enrich the school experience of every child: things that Many of our citizens are justifiably alarmed at the prospect of many multi-dwelling buildings being built in a hurry in Our Town. This is legally possible now because of indiscriminate "Spot Zoning" changes allowed by our Council, against the recommendation of our Planning Commission, and over the Mayor's veto. The Mayor recommended a Master Zoning Plan to the council that would effectively stop indiscriminate spot zoning, but the Council will not act on it. Why?

Do you think that the current flurry of hearings on multiple dwellings by the Planning Commission and the Council has anything to do with the current election? The way I see it, if the Moelke Slate should win, much of the damage will have been done before a NEW Council can put a stop to it. . . UNLESS PERHAPS, EVERYONE OF YOU TALKS OR WRITES TO YOUR COUNCILMEN RIGHT NOW. If the Brashear Slate should win, Mayor Moelke will be blamed for the "terrible Thing".

I'm sure that every taxpayer-voter in Our Town has had an opportunity to hear or read Mr. Moelke's Platform. Every item can be documented. What are you, as a voter, going to do about it?

I'm going to vote for Harvey Moelke. Ad Bacon, Dr. Dan Allen, John Ward and Arlene McKeon. Won't you join me?

J. R. Miquelon

Editor:
I just finished reading "Facts and Opinions" for March 4. I want to state what an inspiring and informative article it was for the voter who is interested in nothing more than good, clean, honest government for our community, state and country. It is reassuring for me as a voter to know we are so ably represented by a man who daringly voices his "Facts and Opinions."

I know, Mr. Editor, because last election time I was present and happened to be a witness to a demonstrator who smashed your camera and you held your head up and behaved like a gentleman when various facts and opinions were being drawn to incorrect conclusions.

I do not care one way or another if this letter winds up in print. However, I just wanted to know one voter's "opinion". I do hope our citizens will support our present mayor, who is also an able, honest public servant.

the school budget does not allow. Ask yourself these questions, "Was I so enthusiastic about going to school as my child?" If the answer is "No" perhaps it is because there was no P.T.A.

When you attend your next meeting remember to talk to a stranger and you will not be strangers any longer. You might be shy but the other person might be a wee bit more shy. We all have so much in common and the wanting is love of children and greatest the best for them. And active P.T.A.

Woman's Editor:

Thank you for the nice article about Gaylor Hauser (To Women It May Concern Feb. 26). I have been trying to say the same thing that he is talking about for five years around here, but I think I had better wait until I am 70 years old before your paper can give me the same story!

By the way—we carry all his products, the Swiss Kriss, Spike, etc., and also his cosmetics, etc., and books.

In his many years of work with young people in the New York area, Dr. Code Martin has found that about 70% of all delinquents had low blood sugar. This was a result of eating too many sweet foods all their lives of course, especially when the sweet was eaten with a meal containing protein.

If you can, keep this in mind—that in about about 15 years from now everybody that condition eating the way they do out of a supermarket as of today, will be either diabetic, hyperglycemic, or have hyperinsulinism. All from unbalanced pancreatic glands.

The number of suicides will increase percentage-wise and our spanking new mental institutions will be breaking at the seams!

Look at the cluster of automobiles around drinking establishments—increasing in size year after year—alcohol is pure carbohydrate!

When the body can no longer utilize protein it goes to carbohydrates. When people suddenly began to crave sweets they

Remember that no one is getting paid for being active in this organization, and the same can be said for scouting organizations. People, think!

A little personal story. The students wanted to exchange gifts for Christmas but the teacher noticed just before the party several students did not or could not bring one. She rushed out and bought the extra presents and each child was happy.

Was she teaching the three R's? No. But I am sure she was the richer for it.

Rights Group Told Of Integrated Schools

The public school system offers the first opportunity for the Negro child to see himself in a democratic setting and provides the community the opportunity to indicate to him that he is acceptable, stated Charles Wells recently in speaking to the Plymouth Community Human Relations Assembly about the educational opportunities for Negroes.

Wells is Chairman of the Education Committee of the NAACP, Detroit chapter, and a member of its Board of Directors.

Wells told the Assembly the public school system demonstrates to the Negro child that if he does his best he can achieve those things he justly earns. This increased motivation occurs to the greatest extent in desegregated schools rather than all-Negro schools.

In speaking of segregated schools, Wells indicated that society develops reasons for isolating one segment of the community from another segment (such as mental or physical illness). Society then develops attitudes and rationalizations toward those who are isolated (such as correctional institutions).

He said the same is true when society isolates people because it does not wish to associate with them. Then it is difficult to be objective about them; one cannot be objective until he is concerned. This concern applies also to education: in areas of the South where communities were most reluctant to provide educational facilities for the Negro, existed the poorest (white) school system.

Wells pointed out that society must ask itself how any child growing up in a community, having insufficient contact with the majority of that community, can then be expected to make adequate decisions about that community. Distortions are very easy to assume where there is no communication between people.

"In this day of specialized skills, the Negro who accepts the idea that he is not equal to his white brother will not have a job," Wells said. "He will assume a position of depend-

Nankin Dems Hit Lesinski's Rights Vote

The action of Representative John Lesinski (Democrat - 16th District) in voting against the administration's Civil Rights Bill has been condemned by a group of local Democrats.

Members of the Nankin Democrats for Democratic Action organization, in voting to condemn Lesinski's action, followed similar moves by the Democratic State Central Committee and the 16th District Democratic Party.

The Nankin group will meet March 15 at 2 p.m. at 8270 Perrin Drive where Nankin Supervisor William Faust will speak on the proposed city of Westland. Visitors are welcome, according to the group's president, William B. Hanford, Jr.

Clarenceville Board Feted by Homemakers

The high school homemaking department, under the direction this year of Mrs. Virginia Mansfield and Mary Ann Bush, entertained the Clarenceville Board of Education at a dinner on February 27. The instructional staff members were assisted by pupils and student teachers of the homemaking department.

After the dinner, members of the Board spent some time viewing the progress of the gymnasium addition to the senior high school.

C'ville Board Plans Twice Month Meets

The Clarenceville Board of Education plans study sessions on the first and third Thursday of each month to become more conversant with the many aspects of the school district.

Board members passed a resolution recently setting up the twice-monthly study meetings.

Then they listed items proposed for study and discussion in the special sessions. The items included: Procedures followed in the developing of an annual budget, 1964-65 funds, and the implications and possibilities for budget revision.

Provisions for the revision of the policies and procedures. Revision of classifications as they affect non-instructional personnel.

Transportation, the new state act, and potential needs of the school district. Financial needs of the school district with certain operating millage expiring within the next two years and future bonding and operating millage needs.

Broadening of the curriculum in an endeavor to deter certain pupils from dropping out of school.

Boarding of the co-operative program which has been operating for approximately one year. Possible increase in provisions for educational TV, in the various schools. A pilot program has been in effect at the Westbrook Elementary School.

A study of procedures and the recently approved policy of the Board of Education relative to the selection of text books.

Study of a program for gifted pupils. Study of the in-service training program now in effect in the school district.

An evaluation and study of the curriculum (a number of changes were made including addition of courses as a result of a three to four year study by members of the staff, Board of Education, and citizens of the community).

The place of competitive athletics in the over all school program.

A study of the responsibilities of the administration and other members of the staff, and the inter-relationship as they affect these responsibilities.
