

Issues 55 Permits in March

Building Boom Strikes Township

There isn't any question that Plymouth Township is growing by leaps and bounds—Building Inspector Matt McLellan turned figures over to Supervisor Roy Lindsay to prove it.

McLellan said the month of March show he issued 46 permits for single family residents with an estimated value of $531,118 and for three new industries with a value of $27,868. All told he issued a total of 55 permits for the month, one of the largest months in Township history, with a total value of $558,986. McLellan indicated most of the housing permits were in the Salem Square development which is expected to total as many as 170 homes by September—all of which the builder believes will be occupied. To date, the builders have secured more than 80 permits for the development and report every permit is for a home that had been sold. Salem Square is located in the shadow of Allen School near the intersection of Ann Arbor and Haggerty Roads. Additional permits are expected in the near future when the planning commission stamps its approval on proposed apartments in the rear of the Plymouth Bowl, for another project adjoining the Greenspan development on Wilcox Road and various other proposed multi-dwelling buildings. Perhaps the most controversial is that involving rezoning of land at the intersection of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads for construction of an apartment by Stewart Oldford and Sons. The planning commission held hearings on two petitions from Oldford on two parcels of the plat but a final decision (Continued on Page 24)

Mayor Urges Participation In Polio Drive

Citizens of Plymouth and their families are urged by Mayor Richard Wernette to participate in the oral polio vaccine immunization drive on Sundays, April 19 and June 14, in a proclamation issued Monday.

Mayor Wernette urges all citizens and their families to get their polio vaccine on sugar cubes on each of the two days during which the Medical Associations of Wayne, Macomb and Oakland Counties hope to give the cubes to more than three and a half million persons.

WHEREAS, Poliomyelitis, since time immemorial, has been a scourge to our citizens, particularly children and youth; and WHEREAS, the new type of oral polio vaccine is an effective weapon against outbreaks of this disease and

WHEREAS, the physicians of this area in cooperation with other civic-minded groups are conducting a mass polio immunization program and are donating their services to make this oral vaccine available to our citizens, age one year and older at schools in this area.

NOW, THEREFORE I, Richard H. Wernette, Mayor of Plymouth do hereby designate Sunday, April 19, and Sunday, June 14 as "ANTI-POLIO SUGAR CUBE DAYS" and I urge all citizens and their entire families to go both days and get their oral polio vaccine on sugar cubes, regardless of previous polio shots, and thus help stamp out this terrible disease.

City, Township Join Drive For Registrations

With a school election scheduled for June 6 and state and national polls coming up in late summer and November, Plymouth City Clerk Richard Shafer and Township Clerk John McEwen are co-operating in a month-long campaign during April aimed at giving area electors a chance to register well in advance of deadline.

Michigan's laws provide that a voter must be registered 30 days before an election to be eligible.

"But," point out McEwen and Shafer, "the election dates haven't been determined yet and won't be until the state Legislature reaches a decision on the reapportionment mandate handed down by the Supreme Court."

The two clerks, who also serve as director of elections in their respective communities, plan to keep their offices open on Saturdays throughout April to accept registrations.

"We know that many residents of the Plymouth community have been stricken from the poll books for failure to vote," they said. "We hope to give all a chance to register well in advance of the deadline and thus avoid a last-minute rush."

McEwen and Shafer have had experience with long lines waiting to register during the final few days and hope the Saturday office hours will eliminate most of that rush.

Shafer and Deputy Clerk Margo Robson will keep the city offices open from 8 a.m. to noon each Saturday during April and McEwen and Deputy Clerk Mrs. Janice Birkelbaw will be available during the same hours in the Township Hall.

McEwen said the Township had 4,029 registered voters prior (Continued on Page 24)

School Board Petitions Due By May 9

Petitions nominating candidates for the June 6 election to fill two posts on the Plymouth District school board must be filed no later than 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 9, in the administration offices on S. Mill Street.

That was the announcement of School Supt. Russell Isbister Monday in announcing dates and deadlines for the poll to name two members to four-year terms.

Expected to file for re-election well in advance of the deadline are incumbents President Gerald Fischer and Secretary Mrs. Esther Hulsing.

Each unofficially started the campaign for re-election two weeks ago when they appeared at a meeting of the Junior High West PTSA to explain reasons for all sixth graders attending classes at the junior high next fall.

Twp. Fireman Quits After Scant 2 Months

Arthur Lenaghan, who was appointed to the Plymouth Township Fire Department on Jan. 25 as Fire Fighter, resigned effective April 1 and started to work that same day as a member of the Ann Arbor Fire Department.

Lenaghan's resignation was accepted by Supervisor Roy Lindsay, duly reported to the Township Civil Service Commission which took action last Tuesday to fill the vacancy. Chairman Warren Worth, as spokesman for the Commission, certified James E. Gignac, 42140 Parkhurst, eligible for the post pending a physical examination, required by state law.

Gignac was second in the competitive examinations in January when Lenaghan topped the list to gain the appointment to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Capt. Paul Albright.

Worth informed Lindsay that the Commission was recommending Gignac for a provisional appointment, pending outcome of the physical. Lenaghan reportedly went to Ann Arbor for a much higher starting salary and better fringe benefits.

Rep. Chandler Still in Hospital

Lansing — A report from Dr. Jerome Cordes today indicated Paul M. Chandler, publisher of The Observer newspapers, would have to remain in Sparrow Hospital in Lansing another 10 days.

He is again recuperating satisfactorily after suffering a setback Friday which indicated he should remain hospitalized longer than previously announced.

Also Representative for the 21st District, Chandler wishes to express gratitude for the many messages and get-well wishes that he has received from the people in his district, which includes Redford Township, Livonia and Plymouth.

Rights Assembly To Show Movies of 'Levittown'

"Crisis in Levittown," a movie which explores both sides of the integrated housing issue, will be presented to the Plymouth community Monday evening, April 13, at 8 in St. Peter's Lutheran Church.

An open examination of the issues will be held following the film. Richard McGinn, chairman of the Housing Committee of the Plymouth Community Human Relations Assembly, will moderate the discussion. There is no admission charge and everyone in the Plymouth community is urged to attend.

Plymouth Commission Ends Stalemate; Approves Open Housing Covenant

After a week's delay, Plymouth's City Commission Monday reconsidered its stalemate vote on the Open House Covenant, recommended by the Human Relations Commission, and passed a revised version by an unanimous vote.

Voting in favor of the amended version were Mayor Richard Wernette and Commissioners George Lawton, Arch Vallier, James Jabara and Robert Smith, Commissioners James Houk and Robert Beyer were excused for other commitments.

The biggest obstacle in the Council's thinking a week ago was the wording of the covenant, which was presented by the Human Relations Assembly to the Human Relations Commission and then recommended to the Council.

A stalemate developed a week ago by a 3-3 vote when several Commissioners objected to the word "welcome" in the covenant.

The watered-down version which received the unanimous vote Monday eliminated the word "welcome" by substituting the entire final sentence of the original covenant.

That sentence read, "Therefore, we pledge this governing body to welcome to our city any responsible person of whatever race, religion or national origin; and we will work with him to build, improve and maintain a community which is good for all."

The complete covenant approved by the Council reads as follows:

"We believe that the inalienable rights designated in the Bill of Rights should be assured to all Americans; that all persons in America should be entitled to equal opportunities in education, housing and occupation without restrictions based on race, religion or national origin.

"It is important for all persons who believe this to support each other and the legally constituted authorities in keeping such restrictions from our community. While these rights and opportunities are assured by our new Michigan Constitution as administered by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, to be meaningful they must have the earnest and enduring support of the citizenry.

"Therefore, if any responsible person of whatever race, religion or national origin moves to this community, we pledge that this governing body will work with him to build, improve and maintain a community which is good for all."

The Commission approved awarding a contract to Burger Construction Co. of Plymouth for construction of the new addition to the city garage on a bid of $12,250. The only other bidder was Biltum Construction, of Farmington, with a total of $15,981.

Dr. John Robison, 884 Penniman, won the right to purchase the city-owned Cooper property at 896 Penniman on a bid of $23,000. He plans to use the home for housing at the moment but indicated it would be converted into a business site at some later date.

Chamber Adds 21 Members

A curt warning that "Plymouth will have to grow out of its complacent attitude because of the economy surrounding the community," was given to more than 125 members and prospective members of the Chamber of Commerce at the membership and recognition luncheon by Harold Guenther, former Mayor, past president of the Chamber and the Rotary Club and one of the city's prime boosters for industrial expansion.

Guenther was the principal speaker at the affair in Lofy's Arbor-Lill for the express purpose of acquainting newcomers to Plymouth and the community's thinking and also to acquire additional members for the Chamber.

The campaign, headed by Carl Pursell, appears well on the way to reaching the goal of 30 new members with a total of 21 (Continued on Page 24)

Township Budget Up $3,720 Over '63 Allotments

Plymouth Township will operate on a budget of $187,570 for the 1964-5 fiscal year, an increase of $3,720 over the $183,850 budgeted for 1963-4.

That was the decision of the seven-member board after a lengthy discussion and several meetings on the budget proposed by Supervisor Roy Lindsay after recommendations from Clerk John McEwen and Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes.

The Board estimates receipts for the new year will total $187,570 and are budgeted to the final penny.

Clerk McEwen, in recommending adoption of the budget, told the Board the "budget is in balance for the new fiscal year with the receipts equaling the expenses."

McEwen's proposed budget shows estimated receipts from the following sources: property taxes and interest, $75,825; state shared taxes, $70,200; permits and licenses, $19,645; other revenues and fees, $1,900; and an unappropriated surplus of $20,000.

On the other side of the ledger, the Board approved pay increases for the salaried personnel ranging from $400 to $500 (this includes all but elected officials), votes to pay the Civil Service Board $10 per diem with a maximum of $100 and the same for the new Board of Canvassers.

The Trustees boosted the allowance for the Planning Commission from $3,250 to $4,200 with the expectation that the commission will be called upon for numerous meetings in the new year.

Approval was given for hiring an additional clerk in McEwen's office to relieve some of the pressure from the number-

Symphony Ends Season With Opera

The 100-piece Plymouth Symphony Orchestra will join with the famed Turnau Opera Players, from New York City, in presenting the opera "Barber of Seville" Sunday evening at 8:15 in the Plymouth High auditorium. It is the windup of the Orchestra's 18th season.

This is the only night concert of the year for the Plymouth Symphony and there is no admission charge. Members of the Symphony Association stress that there will not be baby sitting service for this performance.

With Wayne Dunlap conducting, the Orchestra joins with the nationally known opera company in presenting one of the most famous of all operas.

The Turnau Opera Players carry a cast of six young singers, a stage manager and musical director.

This gem of 19th Century comic opera will be sung in a New English adaptation which faithfully produces the vigor of the Italian libretto.

Exchange Students From Area to Join in Big Spring Festival

Foreign exchange students and American Field Service workers from Redford Township, Livonia and Plymouth will join in a spring festival Saturday, April 18.

Flags of all nations will fly at the entrance to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, site of the annual event, sponsored by the AFS Metropolitan Detroit chapter.

This year the festival will be called "Hands Across the Sea," expressing the philosophy of the American Field Service International exchange-student program in working toward greater understanding between the nations of the world.

The program of events strikes a nice balance between student entertainment and a wide variety of booths sponsored by the different AFS communities.

The students will present showings of slides of foreign countries, will have panel discussions on topics of current interest, will provide exhibits of unusual objects from their countries and will put on a talent show of singing, dancing and playing musical instruments.

The booths will include imported gifts which have been gathered together by AFS students and interested friends from all parts of Europe, Asia, and Mexico.

There will also be "Foods from Distant Lands" specializing in imported cheeses; a grab bag type of booth called "Pick a Pretty Package;" gay and whimsical spring hats and veils; individual and artistic arrangements of artificial flowers, candles and lovely porcelain figures created by the well-known interior decorator, Loraine Voss; flower arrangements by Michigan florists will be for sale; home baked goods; hand-made sweaters and many more interesting booths ranging from foreign dolls to knitting loom demonstrations.

All this and more will be available to the public from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and tea will be served during the afternoon. Luncheon will also be available. Mrs. George Romney will speak at 3 p.m.

Tickets may be purchased from any local high school and from Board Members.

The festival is the annual fund-raising event of the Michigan Chapter of the American Field Service, and proceeds from it are to be used in increasing the number of foreign students coming to study in the United States for their senior year of high school.

Mrs. Vincent G. Mundy of Redford Township will sponsor a festival booth featuring gloves, foreign dolls and beach accessories, while Mrs. Robert Jones of Livonia is in charge of decorations for the festival.

MRS. CHARLES BLACKWELL

Sandra Elsila Wed at Lola Park Altar

A candlelight service at Lola Park Lutheran Church in Redford Township March 28 united in marriage Sandra Sylvia Elsila, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Elsila, 15186 Sumner, Redford Township, and Charles Blackwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Blackwell, 9178 Inks-ter Rd., Redford Township.

Rev. Edward Zell, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony before an altar bedecked with yellow chrysanthemums and pink carnations. Musical selections included the "Wedding Song" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a white floor-length taffeta gown with lace bodice. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and pink sweetheart roses on her grandmother's dress.

Sandra Heien, dressed in a light turquoise taffeta and chiffon dress and carrying pink sweetheart roses and pink carnations, was the bride's maid of honor.

Carla Paulson and Margaret Paulson, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses similar to the maid of honor's.

Donald Spiller assisted the groom as best man. William Blackwell, brother of the groom, and David Elsila, brother of the bride, ushered guests.

The bride's mother chose a dress of pink lace for the occasion, while the mother of the groom was dressed in a blue two-piece suit.

A reception for 300 guests at Roma Hall in Livonia followed the ceremony. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wickstrom and Carla Mik-kola of Calumet, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Taipalus of Lake Worth, Florida; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Soames of Akron, Ohio; and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nye, of Kankakee, Ill.

The bride chose a red knit suit for her going-away outfit, and the couple honeymooned in Niagara Falls, New York City and Washington, D. C.

The groom is a graduate of Thurston High School in Redford Township and the bride graduated from Redford Union High School. She attends Highland Park Junior College. The new Mrs. Blackwell was the first person to be christened at the then-new Lola Park Church, in 1945 by the Rev. Zell.

The couple is making their home in Detroit.

MARILYN LUDWIG

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ludwig of 15551 Woodring, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter Marilyn to David Peterson, son of the Ralph Petersons of 9629 Cranston, also of Livonia. Marilyn is a junior at Michigan State University and Dave is also a junior at Western Michigan University. Both are Bentley graduates.

To Women It May Concern

By MYRA COX

The trouble is, so often, we think of special experiences happening to somebody else—someplace else . . . like winning a million or a mink . . . or like those before and after beauty pictures.

Lately we haven't run into any million, or a mink winners . . . but before our very eyes we did see a butterfly (mama type) emerge from a cocoon.

Vera Croft lives among us. She is 42 years old and has eight children. The oldest is 19. For 24 years she has looked after her home, husband and children and doesn't begrudge a minute of it.

But she did forget about herself. She hadn't changed her hair style since 1940 or her make-up, or for that matter her style of clothes.

It took a chance remark of one of her own about another child's mother and a chance ad in the newspaper that sent her to seek help. She was smart enough to know she needed it.

Now comes the commercial. Except, to me, it really isn't a commercial. These two friends of mine are really miracle workers—and although they get paid, like so many that give service, their basic purpose is to help others, rather than make themselves rich.

Loretta Weller and Barbara Loren of Livonia have families of their own, but they also have a joint step-child—Wendy Ward. They started with a germ of an idea which we have talked about from time to time.

With perseverance through managers and floor walkers (now called coordinators) they assisted Montgomery Wards in establishing the Wendy Ward Charm Course nation-wide, which was really for teenagers.

They have done much for "unrattling" the teenager of today. They still have a little way to go.

The "pygmalion" in them couldn't pass up Vera when she came to them for help. A charm course for mama? Why not?

They put her through—and I mean fast.

Vera . . . before

Vera . . . after

Fortunately her figure was pretty good. A few exercises and her excess five pounds were gone and her posture was improved which took off 15 years.

Tumbling over each other with words . . . "her hair was completely re-done, cut, shaped and the bright orange-red eliminated (do-it-yourself coloring is out, out—no commercial, just fact). We supervised a professional hair coloring which came out a rich auburn color. Next, her hair was cut short in a simple style to show off her face and features which were attractive, in fact lovely. We framed it with a soft bang, brushed over her forehead.

"Next, it the make-up; we reshaped her eyebrows, redid her lipline. Added two shades of make-up instead of one. The first a little darker to eliminate a few of her freckles, then a lighter shade over. We also showed her the proper use of Erace, which does as it says; it erases those lines which are inevitable and helps cover those circles that we get from worrying about the kids. We applied a light green shadow, which did wonders for her beautiful hazel eyes she never knew she had. We used a coral color lipstick and told her to throw away all the reds she has always worn. Her eyelashes were darkened with a brown mascara (she always wore black and applied it like a clown going to a masquerade). We showed her how to apply eye-liner in a light brown shade that is obvious only to herself and it did a world of wonder for her eyes.

"And we taught her to coordinate her wardrobe, to wear the right colors for her. She loves jewelry. It was great for the jewelry stores, but for her it was terrible. We told her never to wear more than three pieces at any one time and stick to either gold or silver—never mix—and rhinestones and crystals—only after 5 p.m. dressy affairs.

"We were elated with the reaction. Mrs. Croft . . . oh, completely woman-like she's been crying ever since, she is so thrilled. And her husband is in love all over again."

Lutheran Teachers to Confer

The Dearborn and Livonia circuits of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod will hold their annual Sunday School Teachers Workshop on Sunday, April 19, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Farmington. Professor - Pastor Paul G. Meyer of Concordia Lutheran College, Ann Arbor, will be the keynote on the theme, "Presenting the Gospel Through Our Sunday School Lessons."

Special features of this workshop include: the speaker; 11 sectional groups in which to apply the theme in the next two Sunday's lessons; and a social period for refreshments. The Michigan District Evangelism Board will also explain this year's program for the Sunday Schools.

Pastor Meyer is currently completing work on a Ph.D. Degree at University of Pittsburgh. For 23 years he served four congregations in the Eastern District, from 1940 to 1963. Since 1963, he has been Professor of Religion at Concordia Lutheran Junior College, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

There are over 500 Sunday School workers in the 15 congregations of these two circuits. The combined enrollment is over 4,500 pupils.

Among local churches participating in the conference are: Hosanna-Tabor, Redford Township; St. Matthew's, Garden City; and All Saints, Faith and Holy Trinity, all of Livonia.

Missionary to Lecture at Wesleyan

Ruth Hayward, R.N., a Wesleyan Methodist missionary nurse and educator in Sierra Leone, West Africa, will speak to the Plymouth Wesleyan Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Church parsonage, 42513 Five Mile Road.

She is on furlough after having served a three-year term in West Africa and is engaged in deputation work among the churches of the denomination.

Miss Hayward has been the principal of Clarke Memorial Girls' School in Kamabai, Sierra Leone, one of the older educational institutions of the Wesleyan Mission there with an enrollment of about 400 students.

Rev. C. R. Nichols, pastor of the church, invites the public to attend.

in Plymouth. St. Genevieve in Livonia will be starting this vastly expanding program in September, 1964. The basis of the program is for the parish to hold Sunday School for four- and five-year-olds while their parents attend mass.

Founder of the program is Mrs. Charles Pilon, of Allen Park, slender and busy young mother of five, author of the program's two "textbooks" and a convert to Catholicism.

Familiar with Protestant Sunday school, Mrs. Pilon found herself disturbed during mass at St. Frances Cabrini by the necessity of keeping disinterested youngsters quiet while trying to follow the service herself.

"I saw other mothers having the same problem," she recalled, "and I wished I could take all the pre-schoolers somewhere and read them stories so that both the mothers and little ones would benefit."

The Pillons mentioned the matter at a local Christian Family Movement meeting and found instant interest. When no appropriate material for such Sunday school classes could be found, Mrs. Pilon went to Marygrove College for guidance in writing teacher manuals for each age.

Two summer classes were tried first. Enrollment was immediately oversubscribed and classes have continued on a September to June basis since, with neighboring parishes becoming interested.

Sunday school teachers are laymen and women who guide a class of 20 to 25 youngsters with the help of one assistant while parents attend mass.

Mrs. Pilon, whose five children range in age from one to 13, spends several hours each day on the preschool program as does her husband, employed in the public relations department of an automotive company.

Conferences at Plymouth Church

The Plymouth Church of Christ, 9301 Sheldon Road, is host for the second consecutive year for the annual spring series of lectures and classes conducted by West Suburban Churches of Christ. Ira North is the featured speaker April 13-16. The over-all theme is "The Church on the March." Meetings are daily from 10:10-4:45 a.m. and 7:30-9 p.m.

Churches participating in this year's series are Ann Arbor, Chelsea, Garden City, Livonia, Plymouth, Redford, Wayne and Ypsilanti. The public is welcome to attend.

North will speak at 10 a.m. on "The Church on the March Through Christian Consecration." The evening subjects are "The Church on the March Through the Bible School" and "The Church on the March Through Christian Service."

Some 11 classes are planned for children ages 0-11 (sixth grade) throughout the evening period. Junior and Senior High School students will be in separate classes the first half of the night session and in the auditorium with the adults the last half. Capable, experienced teachers will fill all these positions. Films and other audiovisual aids will be used. The nursery will be open and attended for all meetings.

This series has enjoyed a steady growth each year. Last year, also conducted in Plymouth, a high of 756 was reached on the final night. Even more are expected to attend this year's program.

North was born in Lawrenceburg, Tennessee in 1922. He graduated from David Lipscomb College in 1941, received his B.A. degree from Abilene Christian College in 1943, the M.A. degree from the University of Illinois in 1945, the Ph.D. degree from Louisiana State University in 1953. He served for many years as Professor of Speech and Bible at David Lipscomb College in Nashville. Since 1952 he has served as minister of the Madison Church of Christ, Madison, Tennessee. The Madison church holds the record for Sunday school attendance among churches of Christ (record attendance 3,002).

He serves on the staff of the Gospel Advocate, 20th Century Christian, and Minister's Monthly. He is the author of the book, "You Can March for the Master" published in 1958.

Rumplestiltskin Due at Franklin and Thurston

"Rumplestiltskin" and teen company will cast their magic spell again for the small fry in the Livonia-Redford area. Saturday, April 11, at the Franklin High School. Show times are 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Under the direction of Mrs. Milton Secor, teacher and counselor at Thurston High School, the Junior Division of the Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild brings to life the children's story of a poor miller's daughter who, with the help of "Rumplestiltskin", intrigues the King, when they spin straw into gold. The King then takes the miller's daughter for his Queen.

"Rumplestiltskin" demands his reward too, by payment of their first child, unless the Queen can guess his name.

Women's Chorus to Give Annual Spring Concert

Plans are well under way for the fourth annual Spring Concert which the Livonia Women's Chorus will present May 9 at the Bentley High School auditorium.

Several members of the group, which is sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, are trying out for solos and specialty numbers.

Mrs. Jacqueline Mepians, director of the chorus, has announced that the program will include a collection of folk numbers, styled in the Kingston Trio manner, a classical selection by Debussy, and several songs from the Broadway Musical, "Flower Drum Song," by Rodgers and Hammerstein.

Program planning chairman, Starr Laughlin, has been working with her committee, consisting of Lois Penrod, Naomi Brudi, Jackie Hardy, Elsie Schewepe, and Shirley Foor.

Co-chairmen of Scene Design and Construction, LaVerne Genaw and Rosebud Zick, will be hammering and painting with their committee: Gloria Dukatz, Barbara Grattopp, Connie Young, Elsie Schewepe and Carol Bockelman.

Joann Geschwender and Gloria Dekatz are helping their costume chairman, Eleanor Smith. Naomi Brudi is ticket chairman and Dorothy Lowry is doing the choreography for the production.

Senior Citizens to Hold Party

John Dufour was guest speaker at the April 1 meeting of Livonia's Senior Citizens, and plans for coming months were discussed.

A potluck luncheon and birthday party for the month of April is scheduled today at 12:30 p.m. Phil Tanguay, Chamber of Commerce representative, will give an illustrated talk on the Show Train.

Cards and games continue to highlight members' day at the drop-in center, Plymouth Rd., every Tuesday at noon. Coffee is served.

Mable Schutt works with ladies making cancer pads every third and fourth Wednesday of each month.

At the May 6 meeting the Bentley High school group will entertain club members. Refreshments will be served by hostess Ruth Owens and her committee.

'Curtain Going Up'

By Wally Roberts

Tennessee Williams has gained an international reputation for his vicious vivisection and analysis of the feminine mind. In "Glass Menagerie" the persistent nagging of the mother, Amanda, reveals a weakness found too often, "Summer and Smoke," the current Williams' attraction at the Bonstelle Theater, takes a deep look at a love-sick spinster.

Alma, the preacher's daughter, serves as the target for Williams' philosophical remarks about love and marriage. Jann Rose and John Cahill as the main participants in this sometimes sweet, sometimes sour drama of life as it really is portray their roles with dignity and determination. Miss Rose establishes her character with all its fluttering of hands, catching of breath, and vocal trills to a perfect in Act I. Excessive pausing to build character, already established, slowed the second act and made the play seem longer than it really is.

"Summer and Smoke" is always a challenge to any group. Four changes of scenery, a fireworks display, hundreds of light cues, turn-of-the-century costuming, and second-rate Williams constitute some of these barriers and presented a professional production in each department.

The costuming fairly took your breath away. Nellie's dresses were so chic that I'd vote for those long sweeping skirts for 1965. Make-up was perfect. George Wright, without make-up looking younger than his 21 years, but after dishing and dabbings he looked every inch the cantankerous, aging Doctor. And George's acting was a brilliant contribution to the success of the show.

The fireworks display was so realistic that it brought forth "oh's" and "ah's" from the audience. The mood lighting was a "Summer and Smoke" the necessary hazy aura.

"Summer and Smoke" at Wayne State University's Bonstelle Playhouse on Woodward avenue (April 9, 10, 11, and a Sunday matinee at 2:30 p.m.) on your "must" list. Old Wally recommends seeing this seldom-produced Tennessee Williams' play.

"Glass Menagerie" of which we spoke earlier has been playing in repertory at the University of Detroit's theater atop the campus library, Six Mile and Livernois. "King John," the exciting Shakespearean historical drama, shares the bill. This coming weekend on Friday and Sunday evenings "Glass Menagerie" will be performed for the final two times. "King John" finishes out the U. of D. schedule of spring repertory on April 17, 18, and 19.

The Ann Arbor Drama Season gets underway at an earlier date than usual—April 21. Adding to the Tennessee Williams murky atmosphere, Mr. Ted Huesel, the managing director has indicated that if he can sign Peggy Wood, he will open with "Glass Menagerie." He is also trying to ink Hermione Gingold to a contract for "Oh, Dad, Poor Dad" for the first week in May.

Two dramatic events occurred last week in Ann Arbor. The "Stop The World" company seen earlier in Detroit played a one night stand at Hill Auditorium. Five thousand people thrilled to Ken Nelson and Joan Eastman. Let's hope the University of Michigan Professional Theater Program can bring Broadway such as "Stop The World" again next season.

On a twin bill at the Lydia Mendelssohn was a production of "The Tiger" and a woe-filled rendition of "Shanakin," a student original drama. Adrienne Harris and Paul Carlson played "The Tiger," a two-character, hour-long commentary on the ills of society with reckless abandon. Old Wally thoroughly enjoyed this presentation.

For University Theater it was "tops." "Shanakin" was another matter. Barb Sittig, Alma Henderson, and Deborah Packer struggled courageously with an original drama that turned into a farce. Marc Zagoren's "Shanakin" reminded me of "Glass Menagerie" done Koshier style. Add bits of "Rainmaker" which treats the idea of an ugly girl being convinced that she is internally beautiful and you have a brief picture of the dramatic shenanigans in "Shanakin" that misfired.

The Billboard

Fisher Theatre — "LITTLE ME." Fast-moving musical comedy... a real Caesar salad of laughs with Virginia Martin thrown in for the sauce. Remains in town for three more weeks.

Vanguard Theatre — "THE FIREBUGS." Avant-garde comedy about the complicity of mankind. Opens April 8 for a four-week run.

Campus Theatre — "THE SILENCE." Bergman movie that has caused such a stir since it treats the subject of sex so clinically. Opens on April 9 for a two-week run.

Franklin High Auditorium — "RUMPLESTILTSKIN." Two performances of delightful children's play, 11 a.m. and 1 p.m., 35 cents.

Dog Show Set Sunday

Area Groups Help To Assure Success Of Polio Immunization Drive

Area groups are pitching in to boost the metropolitan Detroit polio immunization campaign which hits its first climax on Sunday, April 19 when some 3½ million persons in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties will have their first feeding of anti-polio sugar cubes at more than 900 stations in the tri-county area.

The mass immunization against paralytic polio drive is sponsored by the Medical Associations of the three counties with the full co-operation of the various Nurses, Pharmacists and Osteopathic Associations and the assistance of Civil Defense, public and parochial school officials and the various police units in the communities.

Physicians, both medical and osteopathic, pharmacists, and all the various organizations in the three counties, are primarily interested in seeing to the success of the campaign. All are donating their time and efforts toward the goal.

Only Plymouth has finalized plans in this area but school officials in Livonia, Redford Township, Farmington, Clarenceville and Nankin Township are expected to have a complete list of stations available in another week.

Most of the immunization stations will be set up in schools. Teachers, superintendents and maintenance workers are co-operating as well as members of the various PTA organizations.

In Oakland and Wayne Counties, Sheriff and Highway Department cars will be used in many cases for vaccine delivery.

Area banks have agreed to have tellers on hand at the various stations to pick up the monies paid and transport all to the banks for safekeeping.

The Civil Defense organizations will handle the communications with telephones and ham radio operators. They'll see to it that each immunization station keeps an adequate supply of vaccine on hand and will handle all emergency calls.

School Supt. Benton Yates will handle the campaign in Livonia in conjunction with Dr. Louis Heideman.

Dr. Heideman will have charge of the physicians, osteopaths, nurses and pharmacists working on the two days and Yates will secure volunteers from the school system, PTA organizations and the ODC to handle the lay part of the work.

Yates has plans to use 22 elementary schools and Riley Junior High. He decided to use the facilities of Riley instead of an elementary school in the area because of the greater parking lot and the accessibility of the building. Yates and Dr. Heideman will have the complete list of schools available for next week's edition. The immunization will take place between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. on each of the Sundays. In Plymouth, School Supt. Russell Isbister and City Health Commissioner Dr. Lee Feldkamp will have charge of the program which will run from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. on April 19. Immunization stations will be set up at each of the Plymouth school system elementary schools including: Allen, Bird, Gallimore, Smith, Starkweather and Farrand. Feldkamp will have charge of securing volunteers from the various professional groups and Isbister will secure help of school teachers, PTA groups, Boy Scouts and the ODC. The massive effort will be in vain, health officials stress, unless the private citizen co-operates by taking his anti-polio sugar cubes twice—April 19 and again on June 14—and seeing to it that every member of his family over the age of one does the same. A donation of 50 cents is asked for each feeding, but officials emphasize that no one will be turned away for lack of funds.

Township 'Trade Fair' Is Set for Michigan Week

The second meeting of Redford Township's Michigan Week Committee was held March 28 and committee chairmen were named to coordinate the community's observance of the May 17-23 annual event.

According to Karl Gmeiner, Michigan Committee chairman, the event will open with a "Spiritual Foundation Day" on Sunday, May 17, when churches will be asked to compile their individual histories and insert them in their bulletins.

Mrs. Jessie Potter, "Government Day" chairman for Monday, May 18, will arrange open houses at the Township Hall, police, fire stations and library and for a special registration of voters.

Students from local high schools will "take over" Township government on that day. Service clubs will meet Tuesday, May 19, to observe "Hospitality Day" with special guests at each meeting to include community political, religious and social leaders.

A trade and industry fair will be held on Commerce and Industry Day, Wednesday, May 20, with selection of Redford Township's "products of the year" for state competition as the day's highlight.

School open houses will be a part of "Education Day" on Thursday, May 21, according to chairman Eugene Duston.

Expect 10,000 For State's Earliest Inaugural

Wolverine Eyes Biggest Opening Friday

With the earliest opening in Michigan history, Wolverine Harness Raceway, which operates at the Detroit Race Course, is looking forward to the largest first-night attendance and handle in history on Friday night when the pacers and trotters strut their stuff over the half-mile strip.

Wolverine's biggest opening was in 1960 when a crowd of 8,463 wagered $357,476. Both marks are expected to fade this time out.

It is Wolverine's first spring meeting since 1957—that was one of the track's most successful from all standpoints—and one of the big reasons for the optimistic outlook of President Frederick Van Lennep and Vice President and General Manager Orlov Owen.

Hazel Park had the previous earliest harness racing opening a year ago when it started the season on April 11—Wolverine betters that by one night, April 10 for the first of its 50-night campaign.

Getting ready for such an early start hasn't been the easiest task what with the weatherman ordering everything but the kind of temperatures needed to get a track in proper shape.

There was still snow on the ground—three inches of the stuff last Friday, just a week ahead of opening—but Track Supt. George Rose and his crew accepted the challenge and expect to have the strip in tip top shape for the opening card. Only 200 horses were bedded down last Sunday but the influx of stables began on Monday and by Tuesday night the barn area was a regular beehive of action with practically all of the 1200 stalls occupied. Racing Secretary Bill Connors arrived Saturday and immediately began work on the condition book for the first two weeks and especially for the first two nights which loom as two of the most important business wise, of the entire season. Judging from the interest in the Hazel Park opening a year ago and that shown in the Toledo thoroughbred opening last Saturday, Wolverine officials are looking forward to more than 10,000 and a handle approaching the half-million dollar mark.

Practically all of the standouts from last fall's meeting will be back again along with several new powerful outfits from the east and far west.

Perhaps the biggest and best of all will be that of Joe Marsh, Jr., of Findlay, O., long rated as one of the best of the young driver-trainers in the Midwest.

Joe made a strong bid for driving championships at area and Chicagoland tracks last year and word from Findlay is that this year's stable is just about the best he has ever had.

Marsh checked in with a string of 49, including the speedy Butch Harmony, and a staff of 28 grooms and assistant trainers. It was the largest stable on the grounds.

Wally McMurray, the lanky Livonian who generally has a better than average stable, took 28 stalls for his string with the expectation that he'll add more within a few days when he receives the John Langford pacers from Chatham, Ontario.

Other top drivers, who asked for and received stall space, include: Doug Ackerman, fresh from California successes; Mac McQuarrie, Harold Fisher, Jack Williams, Jr., also from California; Ken Carnal, the Merriamans, Ray Shine, Don Hall, Don McMurray, Del Pletcher, Jack Richards, Cecil Strock, and Don Roberts with the brilliant Red Robin, Ted and Jack Aldrich with the Saunders Mills stable and Pat Bellows, in from Pompano Park in Florida, with nine including those from the Hillbrook Farm owned by Norm Mealy of Birmingham.

Connors is looking forward to a terrific opening-night program headed by the Inaugural Pace that is expected to include such speedsters as Ace of Spades, Fort Knox, Spring Romance, Peachadon, Butch Harmony, Cliff Abbe, Jeffrey Western and Chief Armbr.

Meanwhile, Wolverine officials are making plans for the first of eight mink-stole-night programs next Tuesday, also the first of the Ladies Night events to which all ladies are admitted free.

Some lucky gal will walk out of the plant with a mink stole draped over her shoulders after the contest slated to take place in front of the grandstand after the 10th race.

Veterans Bolster St. Agatha

Coach Dave Brazil is working with an all-veteran team as St. Agatha high prepares to start the Catholic League baseball drive on April 17.

But, while St. Agatha is "loaded," so are Orchard Lake St. Mary's, Royal Oak St. Mary's and Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, the three teams which finished ahead of St. Agatha in 1963 when the Townshippers won five and lost five.

"According to the word I get, the other three teams lost a total of three men between them," says Brazil. "This means we should have one terrific race in our division this spring."

Brazil has Rick Collins and Bob Krupanski back as his No. 1 and 2 pitchers, respectively. Mike Roemer again will do the catching.

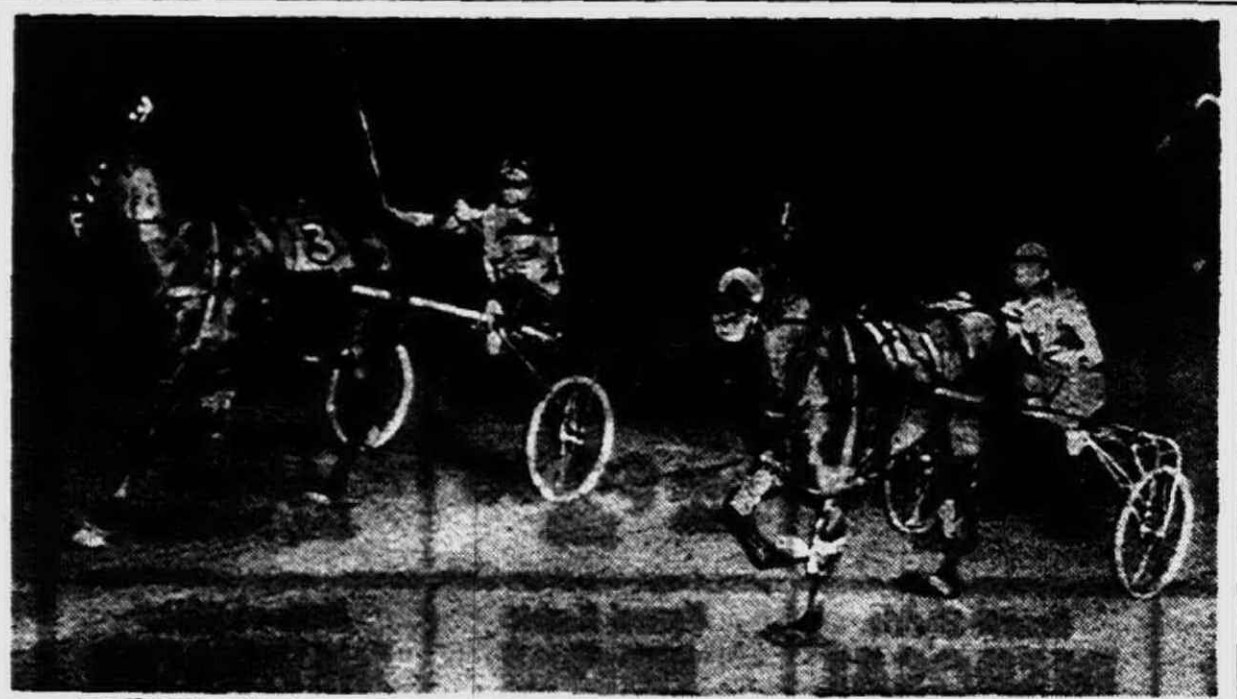

Mike Steen (third), Jim Rooser (short stop) and Claude Inch (second) are set in the infield. Chuck Roemer and Pat Murphy are contesting for the first base honors.

In the outfield, five candidates are waxing a fight. They are Tom Anthony, Matt Wroblewski, Tom Rigley, Gregg Brauer and Dan Derby.

Warn Employers to Submit SS Reports

Employers are required to submit their social security reports for the first quarter of 1964 on wages paid employees during January, February, and March 1964, by April 30, 1964. These reports should be submitted to your Internal Revenue office.

THEY'RE OFF starting Friday at Wolverine Raceway when the pacers and trotters open a 50-night meeting on the Detroit Race Course track for the state's earliest opening in history. Scenes like this will be commonplace when the area's richest harness racing meet swings into the thick of things. The program will include 10 races nightly with the post at 8:30 p.m.

Weather, RU Coach Slow Thurston '9'

Between the weather and an illness to Coach Bob Leggatt, the Thurston High school baseball team conditioning program is slightly behind schedule this spring.

But Leggatt now is back on the job and girding his charges for their opener against Redford Union on April 17. Rebuilding is the order of the day for Leggatt. Graduation has cost him most of the regulars from his 1963 team.

The returnees are led by Arnold Helwig, Thurston's top pitcher in '63 with a 1.40 earned run average. This will mark Helwig's third season on the Thurston varsity under Leggatt and the fifth straight year he has hurled for the same coach.

Helwig and Leggatt teamed up in junior high for two years before coming to Thurston together.

Lou Banwert at first base and Rick Harlow in the outfield comprise the only other returning regulars.

Jim Sproul, an eleventh grader who pitched some a year ago, figures to help considerably this season. So does Al Bush, who missed the '63 campaign because of ankle injury suffered in basketball.

Now a senior, Bush has a strong arm and should fashion some wins for Thurston this season.

Dave Woloch, up from the reserves, has the inside track at second base, while Don Svenson, a utility man in '63, heads the third base crew.

Shortstop remains a major question mark.

Glen Knock, a reserve from '63, tops the catching contingent. In the outfield, Jerry Rock, Tim Sianski and Mike Bernhart have impressed thus far. It's also expected that Bush, Sproul and Helwig will see outfield service when not pitching. Fortunately for Thurston, the team's league season doesn't begin until late April. "We'll need all the time we can get to work ourselves into shape for the league race," says Leggatt.

Another plus factor for Thurston is that virtually all of the players have performed in the Township's summer baseball program over the years. Many of the boys have played as many as 40-50 games in a single summer.

Trojans Place 2nd In Relays

Two entries from Clarenceville high school placed in the Class B division of the first annual Michigan State relays at East Lansing last Friday night.

Dave Graves was fourth in the high hurdles while Jimmy Donnelly took a fifth in the broad jump.

Sophomore Larry Buccheit came through with a fine effort as he placed sixth in his heat in the mile.

Although Clarenceville's two relays didn't score any points, Coach Ralph Temby was satisfied with their showings.

Donnelly, Gearhart, Graves and Jim Bedson ran well in the 800-yard relay while Jeff Waldmer, Doug Waack, Gearhart and Bedson turned in a noteworthy effort in the mile relay.

The outdoor season was to open this Wednesday for Clarenceville with Clarkston and Brighton supplying the opposition on the Middlebelt Road oval.

Clarenceville will host Franklin Friday and Dearborn-Haston next Wednesday.

N. Redford Busy With Little League Plans

Plans for the North Redford Township Little League are rapidly nearing completion according to President Ron Linford.

National League managers and coaches have been selected with a few exceptions and Linford expects to have all named by mid-April.

The sponsorship committee, headed by Jim Sorrentino, has started the campaign to secure sponsors for all teams, and funds to operate the league during the summer.

Farmington Pair Misses By Nine In Pin Tourney

Doris and Don Allen, of Livonia, maintained their grip on first place in the standings of the second annual Observer-Merri-Bowl mixed doubles tournament but they had a tight squeeze over the weekend when a Farmington duo did everything but better the 1329 score.

Matter of fact, the team of E. and C. Brooks appeared headed for the top spot until the final frames when they faltered slightly and had to be content with a 1320 count. That left them nine pins short of the Allens.

The standings took quite a beating over the past weekend with two scores in the 1300 totals and additional changes farther down the list.

The East Detroit couple of S. Kunkel and J. Graham made a bold bid for the leadership but fell 25 pins short, winding up with a 1364 that was good enough for fourth place.

A tie for the final place among the top 10 developed when the duo of M. Zborian and M. Nadarana wound up with a total of 1258, knotting the team of Sophie Abraham and John Sattler.

Interest in the tournament has picked up considerably during the past two weeks and Manager Mac Goldman believes it will be one of the most successful staged in the area in several years.

The meet has an estimated top prize of $2,500 and that has been the big attraction. Word of the rich pot has spread throughout all parts of eastern and southern Michigan as well as Northwestern Ohio and Goldman has received requests for reservations for full squads from many of the distant points.

Teams from as far north as Saginaw and as far south as Toledo have competed to date.

The meet has the estimated prize of $2,500 for first place, $1,500 for second and $750 for third. The list is based on a total entry of 1,000 teams.

Firing continues on weekends for the next six weeks and bowlers are urged to file entries quickly in order to secure prime dates and times.

Squads start at 11 a.m. on each Saturday and Sunday and continue through 11 p.m.

Dates remaining are: Saturday, April 11, 18 and 25; May 2, 9, and 16; Sundays—April 12, 19 and 26; May 3, 10 and 17.

Tony Glasco, former Clarenceville high school star, has been named football captain for next fall at the University of Iowa. Tony played end for the Hawks last season.

Plymouth Lists Tryouts for Jr. Baseball

Tryouts for the Plymouth Community Junior Baseball League get underway Saturday at 1 p.m. when all youngsters, who have registered, are requested to report at the high school and junior high East.

President Joseph Bida announced that the American League tryouts will be held at the senior high and the National League on the junior high athletic field.

Bida stated that boys who did not have tee shirts numbered must bring shirts along to get numbers.

Additional tryouts will be held on the same fields on Saturday, April 18 at 1 p.m. and Tuesday, April 21 at 5 p.m.

Seek Answer to Winterkill of Grass

EAST LANSING—Golf course owners tell you to replace those divots—but they get a lot more worried if you can't even take a divot in the first place.

Such has been the case in Michigan, particularly in the Detroit area, where fairways have suffered severe winterkill in the spring of the past two years. The grasses came out of the winter green and healthy but soon turned brown and died.

Fortunately, winterkill will not be much of a problem this year, but turfmen are still wary of the damage it can cause.

Most of the injury occurs on annual bluegrass fairways that are cut short and well watered, according to James Beard, Michigan State University turfgrass specialist.

"There just isn't an adequate root system to replenish the water supply lost through transpiration by the plant," he explains. "Current studies indicate that root damage is caused by the freeze-thaw processes—when we have warm weather in mid-winter and spring. But this may not be the only answer."

Golf course operators have speculated that ice sheets or a build-up of carbon dioxide under the ice was responsible for killing up to 90 per cent of their fairway grasses. These ideas were seriously questioned, however, after Beard made some recent tests.

He tried simulating nearly every possible winter condition—including flooding, freezing, ice layers and snow—to see what kills the bentgrass and bluegrass which commonly appear on fairways. Results showed that during 90 days of these tests, there was no significant winter injury by oxygen suffocation, toxic accumulations or damage to cell roots.

Beard now plans to run longer tests with different combinations of environmental conditions to determine exactly what causes winterkill and to possibly find controls for it.

DO-IT-YOURSELF

If you are a golfer and dislike investing spare time in lawn care, why not plan a beautiful wooden deck which can cover a generous part of the yard? You can build this simply or elaborately. You don't have to mow a wood deck.

On the lawn

WITH LARRY LAWRENCE

People often ask me about those numbers that you see on all bags of fertilizer. What do they mean? And is it true that if two bags have the same numbers they must therefore be the same and ought to cost the same?

I usually answer these questions with another one that goes like this. If you knew that your next automobile was a 100-6-4 (100 hp-6 cylinders-4 wheels) is that all you would want to know about it? Should three 100-6-4 cars cost the same, though one was a Rolls, one a truck and one a jallopy?

The truth is that those numbers are only a partial indication of quantity and no indication of quality whatsoever. They don't tell you a single thing about the performance.

I've seen homeowners buy fertilizers that should be used only for making hay on farms. Yet they have exactly the same numbers on the bag as, say, Scotts Turf Builder, which is a long lasting product made only for lawns. It's no wonder that those in the trade often refer to these figures as "the numbers game." That's just about what they are.

Area Accountants

To Hear Editor

Dr. Dwayne Orton, Editor of Think Magazine will address the Detroit Chapter of the National Association of Accountants at its dinner meeting in the Pick-Fort Shelby Hotel, 5:45 p.m., Thursday, April 16. His subject will be "The Interdependence of Business and Education."

KEYS TO A NEW Dodge convertible are presented to Mrs. Elvira Egeland, 15454 Golfview, Livonia, by Ed Green, Fleet manager of Forest Dodge Inc., shortly before she leaves for St. Petersburg, Fla., to compete in the Mrs. America contest. Mrs. Egeland was crowned Mrs. Michigan in competition in Detroit and is seeking the national crown in the judging which extends through April 12. She is the wife of Duane Egeland, chief engineer of the Wayne County Department of Public Works, and mother of two children.

Now Is Time To Stop Problems With Crabgrass

Now is the time to make sure that crab grass does not become a problem this year in your lawn. Pre-emergence crabgrass killers should be applied before April 15 for the best results. Crabgrass germinates around mid-April.

All pre-emergence killers destroy seedling as it germinates and will do the same to any grass seed which is sown within 60 days of the application of these materials. Seeding should not be necessary for most lawns.

If the competition of the crabgrass is removed and the lawn fertilized existing grass will spread making it unnecessary to seed. In any case, re-seeding must be postponed until early fall. Make sure that operations such as fertilization and raking are completed before applying crabgrass killers.

If you miss the April 15 date for crabgrass control, by all means apply pre-emergence killers anyway through April. Later applications reduce the effectiveness of the material.

But since crabgrass keeps on germinating for better than a month, a late application is better than having to apply a post emergence killer during the summer months.

Many chemical companies are making double and triple action materials which in addition to controlling crabgrass contain materials which kill troublesome lawn insects and fertilize at the same time.

Proper lawn maintenance practices also will discourage crabgrass. Thick turf tends to discourage the germination of crabgrass seed. Regular fertilization and mowing height of 2-2½" all help to encourage the growth of bluegrasses.

Bent Grass Lawns Require Long Hours Of Tedious Care

"Michigan lawns should usually be based on bluegrass, fine-leaved red fescues or a combination of the two," according to Carter Harrison, Michigan State University crop scientist.

"If bentgrass is included in the mixture, folks should make sure that it is of the Highland or Colonial variety and not the creeping types used on golf courses. When the creeping bentgrasses are used, they tend to make patches in the lawn which are hard to manage and keep under control."

Harrison explains that bentgrass lawns perform best when mowed twice a week at three-fourths to one inch. They should be fertilized regularly and watered whenever the soil begins to dry out.

"Bentgrass lawns should only be considered if you want to spend a lot of time working on your lawn," comments Harrison.

Start Your Garden Early

You can reap the most benefit from your garden by starting it early, reports Stan Ries, Michigan State University horticulturist.

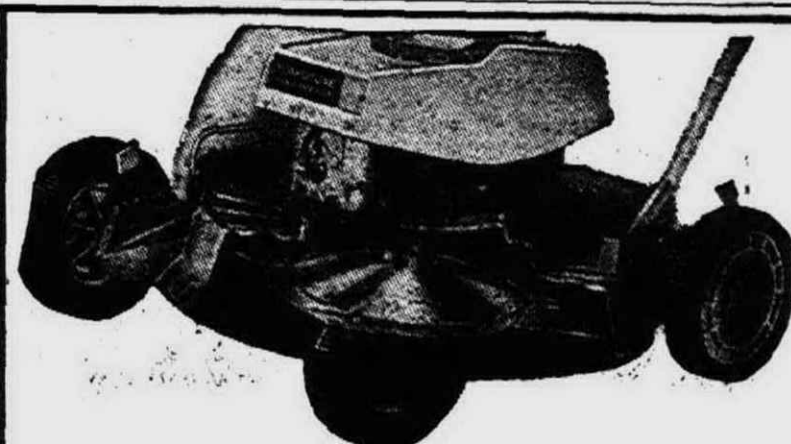

"Plant peas, onion plants, lettuce, carrots, beets, and spinach early in April," he advises. "Then, about April 15, try planting some North Star sweet corn and perhaps even a few snap beans."

"The most you will lose is the seed, and you might have sweet corn and beans by the fourth of July."

Salutes Franklin Library

Dominating the cover of a recent edition of School Librarian is a mosaic photograph of the combination of utility and beauty found too rarely in public school library design."

Supplementing the cover display is a verbal tribute to the architectural achievement represented by Franklin's library and instructional materials center. Author and photographer, John Rowell, who is also editor of the magazine, explains that Franklin's library is the exception rather than the rule in present-day public school materials centers.

"We are featuring this library as an excellent example of its kind and also to illustrate a problem," he writes. "Too many new and proposed facilities reflect the 'storeroom' approach to planning: rectangular boxes lined with shelving—or worse, rectangular GLASS boxes with no room for shelving."

Editor Rowell calls for imagination similar to Franklin's to be applied in the future to planning of library centers for other public school buildings so that such distinctive designs will become commonplace rather than "front cover" material.

Franklin's circular library center looks its part, the "hub" of the school. It is located at the convergence of six main corridors; its fluted skylight affords unusual design as well as natural light; its brick walls provide both textural variety and a strong, fireproof anchor for shelving; free-standing stacks, increasing the library's potential space to 19,000 volumes, are placed at right angles to the outer perimeter, dividing the large library room into smaller areas.

Mar-proof, satin-finished "walnut" tables, chairs, counters, and shelving comprise basic furniture, which is complemented by several arrangements of bright-colored lounge chairs.

A four-panel mosaic, depicting aspects of Ben Franklin's life, distinguishes the wall area opposite the check-out desk. These panels were designed and inlaid by Franklin students in art classes and were installed when the building was completed. Bulletin boards, book and magazine displays, paintings and other art objects, and plants and seasonal flowers all add their special touches to the gracious atmosphere of the room.

In addition to reading-room facilities, approximately 25 per cent of the outer circle is separated into areas for special activities: a library office and a work room; an instructional materials office and a storage room for school-owned sets of books, projectors, record players, records; and two conference rooms for the use of students and faculty.

Sharing magazine honors with the library-instructional materials center is Mrs. Rachel M. Hilbert, Franklin's senior librarian, who has been a part of the planning of this center since the earliest concept of the "new school" began to take place.

Author Rowell was once part of the Livonia school system, too. He served as a librarian here for four years beginning in 1955, before planning the State Library in Lansing as a secondary school library consultant. In 1963 he became director of school libraries for the State of Pennsylvania, Department of Curriculum Coordination.

Red Cedar Easy To Put Together

One of the easiest home improvement projects for Dad is lining a closet with aromatic red cedar. This is an ideal week-end project, and it provides a moth-repellent storage space for less than it would cost to replace a coat ruined by moths.

The whole project can be done in several hours because the pieces of red cedar are nailed right over the walls, ceiling and floor. Tongue and groove edges and sides simplify the fitting of the pieces. Joints need not occur over studs, since the tongue and groove design forms a strong "weird."

Simply start at the bottom of one wall, in a corner, and work across the wall to the other corner. Use the same technique to reach succeeding rows until you complete the entire wall.

No finishing is necessary, which is a welcome note for the busy handyman. Paint or varnish would tend to seal in the cedar's natural fragrance, which drives away moths.

Aromatic red-cedar-closet lining comes in pre-packaged bundles, which are easy to handle. Local lumber dealers special cedar shelving and stock this material, as well as molding.

Hardwood Wall Paneling Popular

Hardwood wall paneling is no longer a luxury for the rich.

It is within reach of every home owner who wants to improve or redecorate his home.

Sales records indicate that American home builders, home owners and do-it-yourselfers bought enough hardwood paneling in 1963 to build a 1,000-foot high fence completely around the state of Texas.

Industry representatives cite three main reasons for the popularity of wood panels as an interior finish: rotary-cut veneers have brought the price down within reach of a huge market; factory finishing processes have developed to remove practically all the worry of getting the proper seal and surface on the panels, and imports of plywood, primarily from the Far East, have added pleasing varieties at low cost.

Home owners have always wanted paneling, says Harvey Creech, vice president of E. L. Bruce Co., large building materials firm, but couldn't afford it until recent years. The only paneling available before the war was in the form of solid wood, chosen from expensive logs and out of reach of the average bread winner. Installation costs were also a major item in those days.

Today plywood panels come from the factory in 4'x8' sheets, finished and waxed and ready for immediate installation. The home owner can also get factory-finished wood trim to complete the paneling job. Unless he has two left hands and 10 thumbs, he should be able to do a satisfactory job and do it reasonably fast.

Earlier, The Better For Starting Lawn

"The earlier, the better" — that's the best time to start a brand new lawn in the spring, according to James Beard, Michigan State University, turfgrass researcher.

"Although August is considered to be the best bet for establishment of a lawn, some folks may decide on the second choice — namely, late March or early April. By planting when the soil temperature gets just above 40 degrees, the seed gets a chance to get established before broadleaved weeds and crabgrass get started."

Beard offers the following suggestions for sodding or seeding a new lawn:

—If you're planning a lawn on a new homestead, remember to stockpile the topsoil prior to excavation. Remove all debris from the area after construction is completed. Break up compacted areas. Prepare the final contours.

—Ensure proper drainage. Tilling may be necessary on heavy (clay) soils.

—Spread the topsoil and allow it to settle. A rain will assist in settling.

—Work 1 to 2 pounds of actual nitrogen, phosphorus and potassium per 1,000 sq. ft. into the upper 2 inches of the seedbed with light discing or raking. Also, add lime if soil is very acid (pH of 5.0 or lower).

—Roll, then prepare a final seedbed by hand raking. Take plenty of care with this chore, since any undesirable bumps, lumps or contours will remain in your lawn if not removed. Up to this point, all preparation procedures apply to both seeding and sodding.

—Seed or sod adapted grasses. Seed companies or your local county extension office can give you a list of recommended varieties.

—If seeding (instead of sodding), drill or broadcast the seed... then rake it lightly into the upper one-quarter inch of the seedbed.

—Roll to firm the seedbed. Follow this was an application of a mulch such as straw or peat moss. You may decide to put on a heavy mulch to get the seeding started, then remove part of it to prevent shading of the young grass.

—Apply water and keep moist until the seeding is established.

—After the first or second mowing, apply ½ pound of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet.

Following these practices should give you a nice, permanent lawn, says Beard, provided you get started on this project as soon as possible.

Building Boom Hits Township

was delayed pending additional study.
Now it appears as if the Commission will hand down a decision and recommendation for the Township Board at its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, April 15. The matter was tentatively scheduled for that date and is expected to head the agenda.

The Commission also is expected to hold hearings on additional requests for multi-dwelling units and receive a request from the Plymouth Community Swim Club for a change in zoning for its proposed site on Ann Arbor Trail and Beck Road.
Two weeks ago, the Planning Board approved a request from National Concrete Products Co. for permission to erect a building on the parcel of land it had purchased from Frank Arlen directly behind Township Hall.

Jack Cook, president of the company, indicated he had plans to erect a one-story, warehouse-type building with a total of 11,000 square feet of shop space and 1,100 feet for the office area.

Matter of fact, Cook has started work on the building and that posed problems for two other organizations.
The site is the old carnival ground, scene of the Junior Chamber of Commerce carnival and Fourth of July celebration and slated to be the site of the Mills Brothers Circus when it appears on May 9 under the auspices of the Plymouth Community Junior Baseball League.

President Joseph Bida was informed some time ago that the land wouldn't be available for the circus and shifted to a spot in the City of Plymouth's Industrial Park.
However, there isn't enough land available there for the Jaycees' program and that group of young men is busy scouring the area for a 20-acre spot.

Registration

to Dec. 1 but the total has dropped to 3,728 as of final day of March. Some 527 voters were purged in December.
Shafer indicated the City has a total of 4,284 voters now contrasted to 4,590 on December 31. A total of 453 lost voting rights.
The two clerks are aware that many voters have lost their eligibility since December and urge all who must register to do so during April and avoid long waits at later dates when the deadline nears.

Plymouth Does Feel Earthquake

Although most residents didn't feel anything, the effects of the disastrous Alaska earthquake were felt in the Plymouth area.
That was the report of Plymouth DPW Supt. Joseph Bida after receipt of a chart of the water usage for the month of March.
The chart shows that the level of the water dropped a foot at the time of the quake and then recovered to the normal level within an hour. The drop was from a 54.50 foot level to 53.53 at the exact time of the tremors.

Plymouth Kiwanians Hear NBD Official

Wilford C. Locke, of the National Bank of Detroit Trust Department, spoke to the members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club on the subject "Personal Trust."
"April is family affairs month," he said. "Each of us may want to review our financial affairs: stocks, bonds, insurance, bank accounts and real estate."
"A will should be drawn by a competent attorney. Everyone should have a will because each of us owns personal property such as boats, guns, furniture, etc., that is not jointly owned."
"Planning is important; people never plan to fail, but occasionally fail to plan. Anyone with an estate worth $60,000 or

Nursery School Accepting '65 Memberships

The Plymouth Children's Nursery has announced that memberships are now being accepted for the 1964-65 sessions. The nursery, located in Hough School, Warren and Haggerty Roads, is a cooperative nursery school for three to five-year-old children.
There are two class sessions, one on Monday, Wednesday, and Fridays; and the other on Tuesday and Thursday. Both run from 9:15 to 11:15 a.m. and are taught by trained college graduates.
A registration fee of $5 is required and there is a monthly tuition charge to cover operating costs. Classes open September 28 and run until May 28.
Registration blanks and further information may be obtained from Mrs. Fred Sigmon, GL 3-4458, or Mrs. John Jacobs, GL 3-1629.

Chamber Adds 21 Members

on the books following the luncheon.
Dr. A. E. Van Ornum was the master of ceremonies and called upon Rev. Donald Williams for the invocation and for short talks from C. of C. President Wendell Lent and Pursell.
"We must work together to create a favorable image of the entire Plymouth community," said Guenther. "This seems like only a natural thing to do; despite the fact that many of us like suburban living, we must face up to the fact that we have to act now to build up the industrial base here."
"We must create an image that applies to all businesses in the community, all industrial plants, all firms of any size. We have a wonderful community to accomplish this. It is of a size capable of handling any type of business. It is here but the question is what do you want to do with it?"
"The mere fact that one has been in business in Plymouth for 20 years is no reason to think that others don't have good ideas. It is up to all of us to use these ideas and create a bigger and better Plymouth. We'll all have to work together to accomplish it."

Approve Budget

ous meetings that the Township Clerk and his deputy, Mrs. Janice Birkelbaw, must attend as part of their duties.
The budget also contains a pay boost for the firemen to take care of the new schedule adopted by the Board prior to the budget hearings.
The schedule gave a $900 boost to Captain Barney Maas, who is now the executive officer in charge, and gave hikes to all other firefighters.
The boosts increased the allotment for the fire department from $58,075 to $59,410, a hike of $1,335. However, it must be pointed out that the Board eliminated the position of part-time fire chief by dropping that $2,500 item from the list.
The pay boosts for the salaried employees increased the appropriations for the legislative and executive account from $51,650 to $54,950, up $3,300.
Other increased appropriations were: professional services, $1,500; highways, $1,000; library, $1,025; Department of Public Works, $30; and debt service, $1,000.

String Quartet To Entertain Grade Schools

Elementary students from the Plymouth School system as well as Our Lady of Good Counsel and Lutheran Day School will have an opportunity to hear the famed string quartet from Detroit Adventure's Excursions in Music next Monday and Tuesday.
The quartet will play a series of six special programs in the area's eight elementary schools, according to Chairman Mrs. James Warren.
The series is being sponsored by the Plymouth Symphony Society in co-operation with the Plymouth Community School system and heads of the Lutheran and Parochial schools.
The programs will be limited to those in grades three through six.
Members of the string quartet, all from the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, are: Nathan Gordon, first violinist and coordinator of the Detroit Adventure's Excursions in Music; Gordon Staples, violinist and associated concertmaster; Edward Korkigian, violin-cellist; and Edward Kesner, principal second violin.

Employers Urged To Make IRS Reports

It's time for employers to submit quarterly reports to Internal Revenue Service, and to pay the social security tax on the earnings of their employees.
This report must be in the mail by April 31—otherwise the employer whose report is late is subject to a fine. So save yourself time and money by sending your report early.

harmonic structure. The setting is Seville in the 18th Century.
Since its premiere in Rome in 1816, audiences have delighted in the amorous pursuit of the beautiful Rosina by the Romantic Count Almaviva and his irascible rival, the decaying Dr. Bartolo.
And when these are joined by the ghoulish Don Basilio and others, the result is general mayhem. At the eye of the storm stands the extraordinary Figaro, master schemer and engaging realist, ever ready to create or resolve confusion at the clink of a coin.
Carl Cedarburg Heads Memorial Day Program
Carl Cedarburg, well-known newscaster and news director of WJBK-TV (Channel 2), will be the principal speaker at Plymouth's annual Memorial Day program in Kellogg Park.
Marshal James McKindles, of the Plymouth VFW, announced Cedarburg's acceptance of the invitation Monday. Additional plans for the parade and the program will be available within another two or three weeks.

Evans Products Co. has worked with Chevrolet and Ford to develop a new type of load bracing bulkhead for shipping automotive parts. The new bulkheads are massive in size in keeping with the mammoth proportions of the new Hy-Cube freight cars.
Evans is now installing these bulkheads at its Plymouth plant into 94 Southern Pacific Hy-Cube freight cars for use by Chevrolet.
The new bulkheads are 12'7" high and almost 9 ft. wide. Two are installed per car. They are movable and are designed to brace bulky automotive parts, loaded into individual racks.
Each bulkhead is equipped with locking pins at all four corners. Although huge in size, each bulkhead is so constructed and hung that it can be easily operated by one man by means of a single handle.
The Southern Pacific cars into which Evans is installing these bulkheads are 94'8" long from coupler to coupler—about twice as long as the average box car. The car stands about two feet taller than the normal car, being 17 feet above the top of the rail. Its 10,000 cubic feet capacity is twice as much as an ordinary 50 ft. freight car.
In addition to the load protection provided by the Evans' bulkheads, the new Hy-Cube cars are protected against impact by Hydra-Cushion Underframes.
Little white lies are only temporary alibis—they cover up for the present, but have no future.
