TWO MAJOR landmarks in the City of Plymouth were removed from the local scene last week as workmen dismantled both the old Daisy water tower, located at the Distribution Services, Inc. plant, and the black water tower located next to the former King Plant. Above, right, a huge crane lifts the top off the Daisy tower after a workman had cut it away with an acetylene torch. Left, the wood-covered center pipe caught fire Wednesday as sparks from a workman's torch ignited it as he worked to dismantle the King tower. Plymouth firemen were on standby status Tuesday and Wednesday at both sites.

Daisy Water Tank Removed Tuesday

Erased from the Plymouth skyline to make way for progress, two of the city's major landmarks fell before the cutting torches of dismantling crews last week in separate projects conducted on Tuesday and Wednesday.

A familiar silver water tower, the name DAISSY painted on its side in tall black letters, was hoisted from its moorings Tuesday morning and lowered to the ground as representatives of Distribution Services, Inc. looked on. On Wednesday the black tower next to the old King plant was dismantled.

The Daisy tower was the last outward reminder of an industrial organization that grew from 19th century beginnings here in the City of Plymouth and moved in the late 1950's to Rogers, Arkansas.

W. C. SCOTT, president of Distribution Services, Inc., said removal of the tower marked another step in the over-all renovation program that D.S.I. is carrying out at the old Daisy plant.

The tower, which several years ago supplied water for the fire prevention system at Daisy, has recently stood unused. In recent years the tower and supports have become time-worn and rusted and D.S.I. officials decided removal was in order.

Through modernization of the fire prevention system at the plant, the tank was no longer needed for pressure.

IN ADDITION to the tank, several unused dust collectors and blowers were removed at the same time. Concerning the operations, Scott commented:

"This activity will help to clean up the lines of the plant and enhance the beauty of the community."

D.S.I., which moved to Plymouth and the old Daisy plant three years ago, has long range renovation plans for the facilities. Many of these improvements have taken place within the plant recently.

to modernize the site and make it an enjoyable place to work and an asset to Plymouth, contributing both beauty and financial stability.

RECENT other improvements inside the plant include expansion of data processing equipment to allow for future growth and permit expansion of D.S.I.'s computer.

As part of the computer expansion plan, two new IBM 1311 disc storage components were installed in the computer last week. They will pave the way for the most flexible and up-to-date equipment available.

Extensive changes have also been made in the second floor area of the plant recently, Scott noted. Included are new executive offices and a completely remodeled production area for the clerical staff.

D.S.I.'s future, Scott said, depends on both property improvement and the improvement of personnel facilities and equipment.

JayCees Unwrap Retail Survey at Noon Meet

At a meeting of community leaders held this afternoon in the Mayflower Hotel's Round Table Club, Plymouth JayCees took the wraps off the results of their retail development survey, kicked off January 28 with the co-operation of The Plymouth Mail. The long-awaited survey includes replies from 190 city residents and 120 from Plymouth Township. Included are replies from 20 sales personnel, 90 housewives, 15 teachers, 15 governmental employees, 10 professionals, 10 craftsmen, five accountants, 15 public relations workers, 10 white collar workers and 70 blue collar workers. An additional number are unclassified.

The large proportion of the persons replying were married with families ranging from no children to six. A tabulation of some of the results appears below.

Participants in the survey named 40 local retail establishments as the best local stores, in their opinion. Voters ranged from (Continued on Page 6)

Township Hall Packed For Stormy Hearing

Following what may have been the stormiest public hearing held so far this year in the Plymouth Community, Plymouth Township Planning Commissioners took action on the long-pending requests of Stewart Oldford and Sons, to re-zone land located at the northwest corner of Ann Arbor and Sheldon Road.

The commission denied the Oldford firm's request to rezone a 323 by 272 foot portion of the land fronting on Sheldon Road and abutting Parkland Subdivision.

But they approved the request to rezone the 323 by 825 foot southern portion of the property at the corner of Ann Arbor and Sheldon Road, paving the way for the firm to build multiple family dwellings.

The northern part of the property will continue to be zoned for single family residential construction. The commissioner's action on the two Oldford proposals came after a lengthy, hotly-worded public hearing attended by more than 125 persons — many of whom appeared to protest rezoning approximately 45 acres of land located at the northeast corner of Joy and Beck Roads.

THE J. A. R. Corporation of Detroit had requested the rezoning from R-1-E, country estates district, to R-1-S, suburban residential district. R-1-E, zoning limits lots to a minimum of one acre in size, while R-1-S drops the requirement to lots of one third acre.

If approved, the rezoning would drop two categories, skipping R-1-H requiring lots of one half acre.

In a lengthy statement of his position, Samuel Stoller, representing the development firm, said he had spent a year and a half working with township engineer Herald Hamill and builder-developers Stewart Oldford and Sons, builders of Woodlore Subdivision to the north of the proposed area.

"In a situation like this, you just don't go in haphazard," Stoller said. He claimed lots in the area would range as high as 95 feet in width.

Stoller said economic considerations forced him to conclude that it would be impossible to go ahead on a one half acre lot basis. Because of this, he noted, the request for 90-foot lots be submitted.

"WE DIDN'T come out here with the idea of antagonizing anyone," Stoller commented. "We feel the application is in the best interest of all concerned."

The crowd appeared at the hearing following insertion of a full-page advertisement in last week's Plymouth Mail urging denial of the request and the mailing of letters, carrying essentially the same message, to area residents.

Planning commission chairman Irving Rozian, appearing a few minutes late at the meeting, withdrew a large envelope from his briefcase and placed it on the table with the comment:

"I thought we might need a gavel tonight."

First of the property owners to testify was E. D. Mogul of 9355 Beck Road who said he was primarily concerned with the economy of the entire Plymouth Community.

Mogul cited a long list of communities which he said had become "ghost towns" because they downgraded and permitted lower cost housing. In contrast, he pointed to another area which he said had refused to compromise.

"LOOK AT Birmingham (Mich.)," he said. "Ten years ago it was just an average community. But residents stuck to their guns and Birmingham is still thriving."

- (1) To submit a list of all city property for sale to the secretary of the brokers group;
- (2) To establish and adhere to a definite sales price for the property;

NO TAX INCREASE:

Bonding Approval For College Sought

Because trustees of Schoolcraft College have discovered that an additional $2,800,000 in funds can be raised with no increase in taxes to district residents, a special election has been called for Monday, June 8, the date of the annual election of the school districts comprising the college district.

The resolution calling for the election was passed unanimously by Schoolcraft trustees at their regular meeting held last Wednesday.

The funds would raise the capacity of the college from 1,800 when it opens this fall to an estimated 4,000 students. Schoolcraft President Dr. Eric Bradner said the additional money would make possible the construction of a student center, a technical building, another classroom building and a physical education plant.

Here's how the additional money has become available: IN JUNE, 1962, electors of the college district voted one mill or, at that time, $500,000 for the college. The board of trustees secured permission to bond for $2,225,000 using one half mill or $250,000, whichever was smaller.

Since that time, according to Bradner and Chairman of the Board Harold Fischer of Plymouth, the State equalized valuation of the district has risen from $500,000,000 to $600,000,000.

This increase has been brought about by natural gain and by the addition of Northville to the Northwest Wayne County Community College District. THEREFORE, one half mill would now amount to at least $50,000 to $75,000 more — a minimum of $300,000 total. The increase is enough to bond for an additional $1,250,000 with no increase in taxes.

When electors go to the polls in June they will find this question on the ballot: "Shall Northwest Wayne County Community College District, Counties of Wayne, Washtenaw and Oakland, Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed $1,250,000 and issue its bonds therefor for the purpose of site improvement and to erect, furnish and equip additional Community College Buildings?" The money secured by bonding would be supplemented by State aid for building funds, Federal higher education funds and Federal vocational funds. The State and Federal monies, when added to the $1,250,000, would amount to approximately $2,800,000.

Unveil $1,046,387 Proposed Budget Set Public Hearings on Byron Street Closing

A record 1964-65 budget, amounting to $1,046,387 including water supply and sewage disposal system funds, was unveiled Monday evening at a city commission meeting.

A public hearing on the fiscal plan has been set for Monday, April 27 at 7:30 p.m. The new budget, according to Glassford's message to city fathers, sets forth in much greater detail the estimate of all anticipated expenditures and income.

Also included are statements of bonded or other indebtedness, schedules of proposed expenditures and anticipated receipts for special assessment bond funds, water fund, sanitary sewer fund, parking fund, cemetery fund, equipment fund and for urban renewal activities.

Merit pay increases are reflected in the new budget. But Glassford pointed out that the cost of living has increased in the Detroit area by one and a half per cent in the past year, and said a study of Plymouth's position in relation to other communities indicates that some adjustments should be made in pay scales.

Also included in the budget are capital outlay items including removal of the building owned by the city and occupied by Agnew Jewelry, paving of East Ann Arbor Trail and a portion of West Ann Arbor Trail and playground equipment for city play areas.

The building occupied by the jewelry store would be demolished to provide a walkway and covered steps from Main Street to the parklot.

TAX RATE under the new plan would remain the same as this year: $14.65 per $1,000 assessed valuation. Recommended are changes in water meter equipment to outside locations in order to save time in reading. The general fund budget includes the following recommended appropriations, totalling $762,387:

Personal services, $299,336; contractual services, $207,817; commodities, $36,622; other charges, $124,812; and capital outlay, $93,900. The breakdown by departments would be:

Administration, $111,179; buildings and structures, $49,054; Public Safety, $184,785; Public Works, $187,817; Sanitation and Waste, $36,780; Parks and Recreation, $52,387; Debt retirement, $39,217 and other departments and miscellaneous, $101,168.

Receipts are expected to exactly balance the budget.

THE $185,000 water supply system budget would include $28,802 for personal services; $50,557 for contractual services; $11,550 for commodities; $61,681 for other charges and $32,410 for capital outlay. Departmental breakdown for the water budget would be:

Administration, $130,643; Pumping, $28,878; Mains maintenance, $8,110; Services maintenance, $8,689 and Hydrant maintenance, $1,870. Water supply revenue is expected to balance the budget.

The proposed $99,000 in sewage disposal system revenues would be spent as follows, allowing for a surplus of $5,445:

Personal services, $8,950; contractual services, $30,782; Commodities, $1,075; other charges, $42,759; and capital outlay, $9,989.

The departmental breakdown includes Administration, $80,590; Pumping $715 and Trunk and lateral, $12,250. The sewage budget amounts to $93,555.

The proposed budget reflects an increase of $187,994 over last year's total of $858,393.

Figures released Monday indicate the City will finish the current fiscal year with a surplus of $61,951.21 in its general fund. General fund expenditures are expected to be $43,663.77 below the 1963-64 budget.

At Monday evening's City Commission meeting, commissioners set a public hearing on the possible closing of Byron St. approved water improvement plans, approved the laying of a pipeline by Buckeye Pipe Line Company on city property and accepted a memorial plaque from the Ex-Servicemen's Club.

Commissioner Arch Vallier moved and the commission approved unanimously a motion to set a public hearing for May 25 at 7:30 p.m. on the possible closing of Byron St. from S. Harvey St. to its western terminus.

The planning commission had recommended abandoning Byron St., contingent upon the receipt, by the commission, of a petition containing the signatures of property owners affected.

THOMAS Cape, owner of several lots on the street asked the city to close the street and at the meeting said he would build a private street. Cape has built apartments on his property.

Plans for the water improvements for the city of Plymouth were approved by the City Commissioners with the reservation that Commissioners James Jbara and Vallier check them carefully and O.K. them.

Wayne Morrison, representing Johnson and Anderson, Engineering, reported to the commissioners that the plans had already been set to Chicago to the district Federal Housing and Home Finance office, but that they needed the formal approval of the commission.

The commissioners approved a motion made by Vallier that Buckeye Pipe Line be permitted to lay its pipe 20 feet from the cemetery line and the city accept a one dollar a foot fee from the company for permanent easement rights. Only Commissioner James Houk voted against the motion.

PREVIOUSLY the commissioners had thought that the pipeline could be placed along the cemetery boundary, but it was discovered that it might interfere with graves and with a line of oak trees bordering the cemetery.

The Ex-Servicemen's Club of Plymouth offered its memorial plaque, listing the Plymouth men who died in World War I, to the city to be placed in the new City Hall, and city commissioners accepted the gift.

The commissioners also voted to refer the gift to the Building Authority with instructions that it contact the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars for a plaque honoring the men who died in World War II.

IN OTHER action at Monday's meeting the commissioners asked City Manager Albert Glassford for a complete report to be made later this week, on the possibility of including the Stahl Manufacturing Plant in the Mill St. Urban Renewal project.

Glassford reported that the owner was willing to sell the plant to the city, the urban renewal has given verbal approval to such a project and there is a party interested in purchasing the land after the building is demolished.

James VanGieson, of Dura-Tainer Corporation, which is now located at 350 S. Mill St., said that his company either has to acquire more property around its present site or move to a new location. He said they would like to purchase 1/2 acre of land on Mill St. in addition to the 1.9 acres of land at the Stahl Manufacturing Plant.

The commission authorized Glassford to start widening Harvey St. at Ann Arbor Tr. in order to provide a left turn lane. The widening will extend 93 feet from the corner and will be 5 feet deep. The cost must not, according to the commission's motion, exceed $1500.

A RESOLUTION was passed by the commission to re-submit the figure of $135,550 for the construction of a two million gallon water reservoir to the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency which is helping Plymouth pay for the reservoir.

Plymouth engineers have said, according to Public Works Superintendent Joseph Bida, that this figure would permit the changing of the controls to the Six Mile Rd. station from Beck Rd., station to the Mill St. station to be used as a secondary source. The commission previously submitted the figure of more than $119,000 for the job, but were given a chance to reconsider.

Glassford reported that the old telephone system presently in use at City Hall would be transferred to the new building, at least temporarily, and that the terms of the members of the Citizen's Advisory Committee, which is an inactive part of the urban renewal program, are about to run out and some consideration should be given to appointing new members, or renewing present members terms so that Plymouth is not handicapped in the future in trying to obtain funds for more urban renewal.

Can you imagine pouring turpentine on an open cut? This was the favorite way to prevent lockjaw some years ago. Naturally, we wouldn't think of doing this now. But then, we're lucky. We have tetanus toxoids and antitoxins. Thanks to medical science, lockjaw need no longer be a killer... previously, death occurred in 90% of the cases. Children, because of their affinity for cuts, sometimes pick up the tetanus germ. So, if there are young children in your family, be sure to ask your physician about preventive tetanus shots. SURVEYING THE site at groundbreaking ceremonies held last Wednesday for the new plant of Thermax Corp., moving here from Livonia, are (left to right) Ben Milt of 1199 Sheldon Rd., president of the corporation; chief engineer Reuben Aho of Redford; plant manager Earl Opliger of Wayne and city commissioner George Lawton of Plymouth. Lawton, as a member of the city's Industrial Development Corporation, worked with Thermax officials in planning their move here.

Building Starts at New Factory Site

At ceremonies held in the City of Plymouth's industrial park last Wednesday noon, ground was broken for the construction of a 6,000 square-foot plant to house Thermax Corporation, moving here from its present location in Livonia.

Present for the ground breaking were Thermax President Ben Milt of 1199 Sheldon Road, plant manager Earl Opliger of Wayne, chief engineer Reuben Aho of Redford, and city commissioner George Lawton.

Set Class for Umpires Here

Men interested in umpiring softball or baseball games should attend the Suburban Umpires Association's meetings, each Wednesday, according to Earl G. Gray, supervisor of the Plymouth softball league.

The meetings will be held at Plymouth High School, room 111, from 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. and is free.

For further information call Gray at GL 3-0477.

The building, of cement block constructed with a brick front, is expected to be ready for occupancy in 90 days. Erection of the building is being handled by Master-Plan Construction Co. of Detroit.

WHEN THE plant opens, Milt said, the firm will take on about 20 additional employees. The Livonia plant will be maintained for the present time.

Concerning the future, Milt said Thermax has expansion plans mapped out. He said metal fabricating interests which the firm maintains in Detroit may be moved to the Plymouth area. The move, he said, would mean doubling present capacity.

Since its organization four years ago, Thermax has been located at its present site at 12811 Farmington Rd., Livonia. In the past two years it has doubled in size, a pace that Milt hopes to maintain in the future.

"WE'VE HAD an excellent growth rate," he noted, "and have formed a strong organization financially." The Thermax payroll has increased substantially since the

Term Polio Drive "Well Done" Here

A total of 14,565 Plymouth Community residents turned out last Sunday to sample polio vaccine-flavored sugar cubes at six distribution stations in elementary schools, according to figures released Monday by Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister.

Isbister termed the drive extremely well done, estimating that 70 per cent of the local population participated in the program.

"This is the Plymouth Community at its highest level of cooperation," Isbister noted, "united in a common effort." He issued a statement of commendation to all individuals and participating groups who volunteered their services.

INCLUDED were elementary school principals, secretaries and maintenance men; doctors; pharmacists; nurses; Red Cross volunteers; policemen; firemen; boy scouts; bank employees; news media, and parent-teacher volunteers.

A survey of the student body of Junior High School West Monday morning disclosed that 445 students out of 565 checked had eaten the sugar cubes — about 80 per cent.

Bird school led in the number of persons processed with 3,629. Other stations were Allen, 1,997; Farrand, 2,354; Gallimore, 2,479; Smith, 2,311; and Starkweather, 1,795.

HEALTH officer Lee E. Feldkamp, M.D. said he thought the campaign was "most successful." He noted that local doctors, both D.O.'s and M.D.'s offered to participate 100 per cent.

Dr. Feldkamp said no real problems were experienced, though the program involved some shifting around of supplies.

Rubbish Pickup Back to Normal

Rubbish pickup schedules will go back to normal in Plymouth effective the week of April 27, according to information released this week by Superintendent of Public Works Joseph Bida.

Bida said regular alley pickups will be resumed after that date and it will be no longer necessary to take rubbish to the curbside for collection.

Pickup dates will remain the same. Bida said his department has received several inquiries about the return to the normal schedule.

The change is being made sooner than anticipated because alleys are dry and in good condition due to a less than normal amount of frost and spring rain.

Bida issued a statement of thanks to local residents for their co-operation during the changeover.

4-Day Trip to Washington For Local Patroller

A safety patroller from Our Lady of Good Counsel School in Plymouth will go on a four-day trip to Washington, D.C., as Automobile Club of Michigan's guest at the AAA National Safety Patrol Rally Thursday, May 7. He is Douglas Pounce, 13, of 280 Bourroughs St.

This is the 28th consecutive year that a group of Michigan youngsters has been taken to Washington on the expense-paid trip as a reward for spending an average of 180 hours yearly on street corners in all kinds of weather protecting their classmates.

Most of the 130 boys and girls from 101 Michigan communities chosen to make the trip will converge on Detroit by bus, originating from Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo and Bay City.

The three buses from these points will join a Detroit bus at the Veterans Memorial Building the afternoon of May 7 in a caravan to the nation's capitol.

Patrollers will spend May 8 and 9 seeing the sights of Washington and will be returned to their homes by Sunday, May 10. They will participate in Washington's largest annual parade down Constitution Avenue Saturday with 26,000 patrollers from all over the nation.

Rotarians Win Bowling Trophy

One of the six bowling teams, made up of Plymouth Rotarians, returned from the Michigan State Rotary Bowling Tournament Sunday at Alma, with a trophy for the highest three games bowled on their squad. There were six squads in the tournament, each made up of 24 teams.

On the winning team were Warren Bradburn, captain, Frank Mocerl, Carl Hopkins, Howard Green and Loren Gould.

Other team captains from the Plymouth Rotary Club were Robert Waldecker, Wesley McAtee, Earl West, Charles Finlan and James Taylor.

Insurance Firm Ends Record Capitalization

A new multi-million dollar Michigan corporation was born today with the announcement that the Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of Plymouth, Mich., had completed its stock sale with a subscription of more than $8,728,000, according to a statement issued by E. Keith Owens, chairman of the board of the new company.

The stock subscription represents investments by more than 9,000 Michigan people from every corner of the state whose enthusiasm for the idea of the insurance company pushed the lid off the original goal of $6,000,000 in public money and increased the initial capitalization by an additional $2,728,000.

The $8,728,000 stock subscription gives Alexander Hamilton one of the largest initial capitalizations of any company of its kind in the nation's history.

In its stock sale plan the company limited the number of shares which any one investor could hold. Owens pointed out that this was done to provide the company with the broadest possible base of public ownership.

Registration Drive Ends

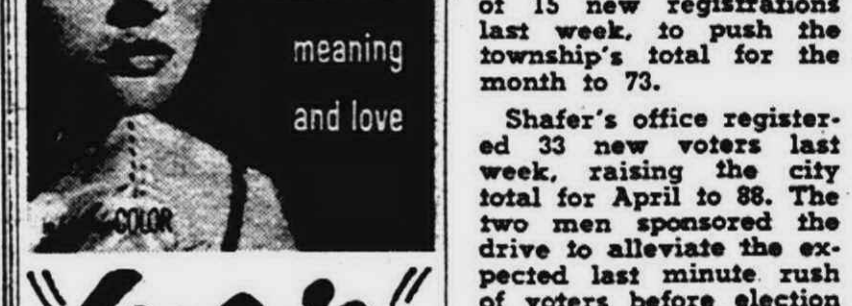

This Saturday, April 25 will mark the final stages of the joint voter registration program being sponsored by the clerks of the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

City clerk Richard Shafer has been maintaining Saturday office hours from 8 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays to handle voters responding to the plea for early registration.

Township clerk John D. McEwen keeps Saturday office hours regularly. McEwen reported a total of 15 new registrations last week, to push the township's total for the month to 73.

Shafer's office registered 33 new voters last week, raising the city total for April to 88. The two men sponsored the drive to alleviate the expected last minute rush of voters before election time.

Township Hall Packed for Stormy Hearing

"jolt" in 1965 when the West-land Shopping Center opens.

"Our future is based on the standards we maintain," he said. "Ten years from now, if we downgrade, I wouldn't give you a plugged nickel for this community."

Harold Niemi of 47566 Joy Road submitted a petition bearing 42 signatures and requested denial of the petition.

Charles Kenny of 8909 Beck Road said, if approved, the rezoning would be the lowest category anywhere west of Canton Center.

"It would open up the whole area for rezoning," he said.

STOLLER pointed to other developments in the township on smaller lots and said he didn't think it was fair to say his plans would create a tax burden on local residents.

Stoller said, Oldford, a pioneer in the area, had no objection to his proposal. Stoller's comment drew a wave of laughter from the audience.

Another Beck Road resident, W. E. Reaves, said the pioneers were the first people who built west of Beck Road.

"Mr. Oldford was no pioneer," he commented. "We let Mr. Oldford in. We like Mr. Oldford's subdivision," he continued, "he is a good builder, but he is in it for profit."

A resident of Oldford's Woodlore Subdivision, Owen McKenny of 9320 Ivanhoe Dr., said he could find no one in favor of the proposal.

"We don't feel we owe Mr. Oldford a thing," he said. "You knew what that property would cost to subdivide when you bought it."

A man who identified himself as William Christley said he would cancel plans to build in the area if rezoning were approved.

Mrs. Alice Smith of 9125 Beck Road said she was opposed to the request.

"WHY SHOULD we permit small lots when we're trying to get away from the city," she said. "Let's not make the same mistake twice."

When chairman Rozian asked commission members for opinions on the question, their comments were often broken by remarks from the audience.

"Louder, Austin," someone called when commissioner Austin Stecker said he thought property owners had made their feelings quite apparent.

Commissioner Arthur Haeske said the request appeared to be spot zoning to him. "That's all I have to say," he said.

"That's a mouthful!" someone in the audience commented.

Commissioner C. Veatch Sparks told those in attendance he thought they would all be speculators if they had the money. He said he wished persons would refrain from interrupting when another held the floor.

OTHER commissioners said they felt half acre lots were probably a practical minimum in the area. Chairman Rozian said no decision would be made at the meeting. Action will probably be forthcoming at the next regular meeting scheduled for May 20, he said.

A second petition, bearing the names of 79 protesting residents was submitted at the meeting.

Several area residents appeared to protest the rezoning of land at the southwest corner of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads from single family residential to commercial.

George M. Rubin requested the change for the purpose of erecting a shopping center at the site. He said interest has been expressed by prospective tenants in a closed, air-conditioned mall arrangement.

A representative from a shopping center development firm, accompanying Rubin, said the center would include a drug store, a supermarket, ladies' men's and children's clothing and shoe stores and a woman's furnishing store. He said the supermarket would probably occupy 12,000 to 14,000 square feet and the drug store 6,000 to 8,000.

APPEARING to protest the proposal were Carlton Lewis of Sheldon Road, John Van Hoy of Sheldon Road, Fred Rogers of Clare Blvd., David Alandt and Scott Wilson.

In other action at the meeting a letter from planning consultants Waring and Johnson was forwarded to the Ten Mile Lakes Building Company requesting detailed information on construction, maintenance and ownership of the 120-acre lake the firm proposed to build in the township.

Preliminary platting was accepted for processing for Cambridge Village No. 1, submitted by Suburban Living, Inc. Developer Sanford Ward told commissioners the State Highway Department has marked the route of the proposed I-275 freeway on his plat, opening the way for him to complete his plans.

The proposal of Colony Swim Club, Inc. to build a swimming pool at the corner of Beck Road and Ann Arbor Trail is apparently dead. Told by planning commissioners that the township planning consultant is of the opinion that the move would require C-2 zoning, Paul Malboeuf, representing the club, said the club would not proceed if rezoning is required.

A legal opinion on the matter is still expected from township attorney Earl Demel.

The commission authorized the building inspector to issue zoning permits to David Powell, developers of Crest Park Apartments. Powell agreed to comply with R-2-A Garden Apartment requirements.

Pre-application information was accepted on a petition to establish an eight-lot subdivision to be located in the sectional triangle of Ann Arbor and Joy Roads.

Michigan State was the first land-grant college to admit women (1870).

The oldest cemetery in the United States is located seven miles west of the Soo. The University of Michigan was originally chartered in 1817.

VICE-PRESIDENT of Western Auto Supply Company, R. Hackett, presents a 10-year service plaque to Alvin "Rip" Collins, of the Plymouth Western Auto store, on Penniman Ave. The Plymouth store was opened in February 1954, Collins said, but he is planning a ten years' celebration for later this month. Collins has lived in Plymouth almost all of his life; prior to the Western Auto store he was affiliated with a Firestone garage for 21 years.

NAMED as outstanding features of local stores were quality of merchandise and friendly, courteous service. Residents cited ease of access, good service, lack of crushing crowds and a personal touch as other outstanding factors.

Lack of selection was the most frequently voiced criticism.

More than 270 persons said they read advertising of local stores on a weekly basis. Asked what type of store they would bring to Plymouth, residents cast the most votes for well-known, name, retail chains and discount department stores. One chain store led with a record tally of 71 votes. Participants cast 70 votes for a discount department store.

Replies indicated that parking is adequate during normal shopping days, but during peak periods in the downtown area parking was termed fair by 86 persons and poor by 140.

MORE than 200 persons said a large department store is needed in downtown Plymouth and said such a store would increase their shopping activity at existing local stores.

They indicated that existing businesses are not doing enough to stimulate business. Prices were termed too high in Plymouth by 187 persons. An additional 118 said local prices were comparable or fair.

The report, compiled by JayCee vice president Joseph Fletcher, was presented at the afternoon meeting by club president Wendell Smith.

(3.) To establish a definite commission for the sale of such property; and (4.) To have local real estate people appraise property for sale to determine sale price.

Speaking for the realtors, Joseph L. Hudson, said that the real estate men are making a request for the listing of city property for sale because they would like to be a stronger part of the community.

He also said that the realtors are merely asking for the opportunity to sell land, but are not putting the city under obligation to them. The city would still maintain the right to lower its price if the situation warranted it.

The usual commission of the sale of unimproved property (no buildings on the land) is 10% on the first $5000 and then 5% on the rest.

Hudson also stated that while the city in the past has paid appraisers to come into Plymouth to appraise the land to determine the sale price the appraisers turn around and call local real estate men to do the work.

Four flags have flown over Michigan - French, English, Spanish and American.

Burroughs Planning Action Against Smoke

Relief appears to be in sight for Plymouth Township residents who have been complaining about air pollution from local industrial plants.

That's what Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay told those present at last Tuesday's Township Board meeting, held at the Township Hall.

Lindsay read a letter from Township Attorney Earl Demel that said Burroughs Corporation intends to spend approximately $150,000 for smoke abatement equipment at their Plymouth Road plant.

IN ANSWER to a question from township resident Fred Davids, Lindsay said there appears to be a positive commitment from Burroughs to take steps to alleviate the smoke problem.

David's wife has been circulating petitions protesting smoke conditions in the township and alleging that Burroughs, Evans Products Co., and two scrap yards are the chief violators.

Lindsay said legal action appears in the offing against Evans Products.

In other action at the Tuesday meeting, township trustees heard a letter from

ATTENDS MEETING
Otis F. McGuire, math and science teacher at Junior High School East, represented the Plymouth Community Schools at the National Science Teachers Association convention in Chicago, March 20-24. The theme of this year's convention was "The Scientific Enterprise and the Educative Process." At the convention McGuire viewed an exposition of science teaching materials, displays of teacher-devised demonstrations, a curriculum materials center and filmstrips, in addition to hearing men speak on various topics.

Kenower, MacArthur and Co., saying that Wayne County officials have determined that the return of excess bonding to the township is not proper.

THE BOARD unanimously approved a motion to extend the bonding program for the township sewer and water program to 30 years. Originally the bonding had been set for 20 years.

The board granted approval of sanitary water and sewer plans for Arbor Village No. 3, approved plans for the township 1964 water program and saw partial plans for the 1964 sewer program.

Township clerk John D. McEwen was instructed to give notice that the township must decline, with regret, an invitation to join the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce.

Board members said State law specifically prohibits the township from spending public funds for membership.

They pointed out that both township supervisor Lindsay and trustee Ralph Garber are members of the Chamber.

THE BOARD was told that its request for Plymouth signs to be placed at proper exits along the I-96 freeway had been forwarded to the Lansing offices of the State Highway Department.

Fashion Designer Sarmi Tells How To Look "Elegant"

Simplicity, proper fit and complementary colors are the primary components for achieving the "elegant and graceful look" according to Sarmi Ferdinando Sarmi, internationally famous fashion designer, who was the concluding speaker of the 1963-64 Northville Town Hall Series last Thursday.

Clothes need not be expensive to be elegant, but they must fit properly, according to the Italian nobleman by birth, who operates his own Seventh Avenue shop in New York. The cheapest dress, properly fitted, will outshine an ill-fitted expensive dress, he said.

Further tips offered by the designer of the 1960 Coty American Fashion Critics Award and the coveted 1961 Neiman-Marcus Award included:

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

MRS. MARSHALL NORTH, of 1200 Maple Ave., is putting a batch of her family's favorite cookies, "Grandma's Sour Cream Cookies," on a rack to cool. She says her family has had the recipe for a number of years.

A recipe for making "Grandma's Sour Cream Cookies" was given to The Plymouth Mail this week by guest cook, Mrs. Marshall F. North, of 1200 Maple Ave.

Mrs. North recently finished her term as president of the Woman's Club. She is also chairman of the organizing committee for Family Service and is on the church board at the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. North says she enjoys playing bridge and sewing. She makes clothes for her two daughters, occasionally, and for neighborhood children.

The North's oldest daughter, Carole Anne, is planning her wedding for June 13, her parents' 27th wedding anniversary. Miss North is teaching in Midland.

The North's other daughter, Nancy, is a college freshman.

The North family has lived in Plymouth for 10 years.

The recipe for "Grandma's Sour Cream Cookies": Mrs. North says, has been in her family for years and is a favorite of her daughters. The original recipe called for lard and old country sour cream rather than shortening and commercial cream. Mrs. North says that she also figured the exact amount of flour to add rather than adding it to the proper consistency.

- GRANDMA'S SOUR CREAM COOKIES
- 2 C. sugar
 - 1 C. shortening
 - 1 C. sour cream
 - 1 egg
 - 2 tsp. lemon extract
 - 1 Tbl. Baking powder
 - 1 Tbl. Baking soda
 - 1/4 tsp. salt
 - 1/2 C. flour
- Mix sugar, shortening, sour cream, egg and lemon. Add dry ingredients. Pat out to 1/4 inch and cut with a large round cookie cutter. On top of each put either a sprinkle of sugar, raisin or nut. Bake at 350 degrees until a light tan. Do not overbake. May be stored in freezer.

C.A.R. Elects New Officers

The Plymouth Corners Society of The Children of The American Revolution under the leadership of Senior President, Mrs. T. H. Benson of Livonia, held a dinner meeting this past Tuesday at the home of Frank and Rick Martin of Northville.

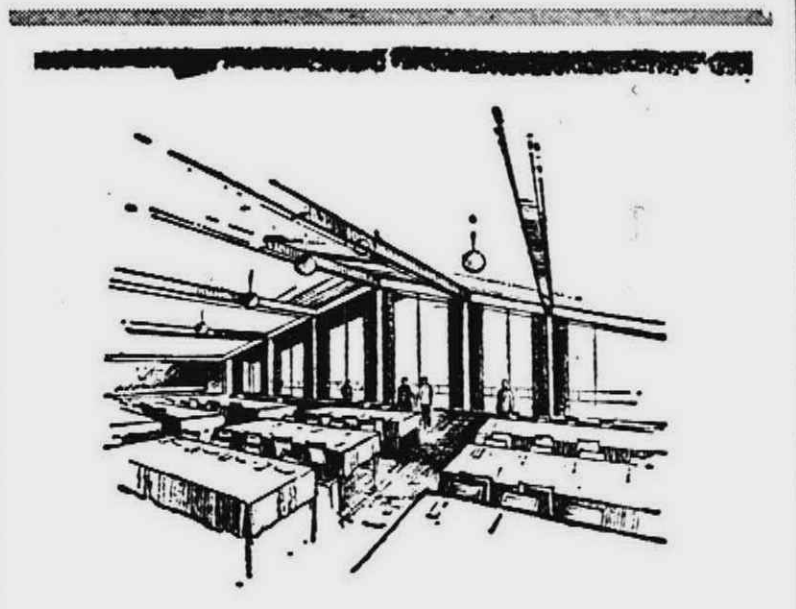

The annual election of officers was held: Susan Entz, Northville, president; Joy Kadey, Northville, vice-president; Barbara Doyle, Farmington, treasurer; Betsy Benson, Livonia, secretary; and Susan Benson, Livonia, chaplain. Mrs. George Merwin, senior state president, formally installed the new officers for their 1964-1965 term.

Robbe Moore of Birmingham gave a very interesting talk and showed a complete display of Indian fighting and hunting equipment.

Each member present gave a three minute talk about his or her contribution towards conservation for the present day, i. e., using water without needless waste, cleaning yards, planting new trees, feeding birds, and many up-to-date methods of saving our valuable resources.

At the state conference in Saginaw last month the Plymouth Corners Society was given the highest award for having the most new members of any society in Michigan. There are twelve other societies throughout the state.

They also received the Gold Ribbon Award, fifth year in a row for their active work during Patriotic Education Week. This society is very faithful to the National C.A.R. Theme "Rededication to God and Country." The next meeting is a barbecue at the home of Mrs. Eugene Entz.

Fashion Designer Sarmi Tells How To Look "Elegant"

Simplicity, proper fit and complimentary colors are the primary components for achieving the "elegant and simple look" according to Sarmi, internationally famous fashion designer, who was the concluding speaker of the 1963-64 Northville Town Hall series last Thursday.

She stressed that it need not be expensive to be elegant, but they must fit properly, according to the Italian nobleman by birth, who operates his own Seventh Avenue shop in New York. The cheapest dress, properly fitted, will outshine an ill-fitted expensive dress, she said.

Further tips offered by the president of the 1960 Coty American Fashion Critics Award and the coveted 1961 Norman-Marcus Award included:

The bodice of the dress, frosted with Alencon lace flowers, had a crescent-curved decolletage and brief shoulder covering sleeves. The sheath-skirt was embroidered with Alencon lace and banded at the hem with guipure lace. An appliqued narrow tiered panel accented the back skirt which was topped with a removable chapel length train. Her headpiece was a lace circlet with seed pearls and a back French bow, with a tiered veil of silk illusion.

The bride carried a triangular shaped bouquet of ivy and cymbidium orchids. Maid of honor for her sister was Barbara C. Utter, Judith C. Utter, another sister of the bride, Mary Louise Harper, sister of the groom, Judith Lyons, of Armada, and Marcia W. Randall, of Plymouth, were bridesmaids.

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

MRS. MARSHALL NORTH, of 1200 Maple Ave., is putting a batch of her family's favorite cookies, "Grandma's Sour Cream Cookies," on a rack to cool. She says her family has had the recipe for a number of years.

A recipe for making "Grandma's Sour Cream Cookies" was given to The Plymouth Mail this week by guest cook, Mrs. Marshall F. North, of 1200 Maple Ave.

Mrs. North recently finished her term as president of the Woman's Club. She is also chairman of the organizing committee for Family Service and is on the church board at the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. North says she enjoys playing bridge and sewing. She makes clothes for her two daughters, occasionally, and for neighborhood children.

The North's oldest daughter, Carole Anne, is planning her wedding for June 13, her parents 27th wedding anniversary. Miss North is teaching in Midland.

The North's other daughter, Nancy, is a college freshman. She makes clothes for her two daughters, occasionally, and for neighborhood children.

The recipe for "Grandma's Sour Cream Cookies," Mrs. North says, has been in her family for years and is a favorite of her daughters. The original recipe called for lard and old country sour cream rather than shortening and commercial cream. Mrs. North says that she also figured the exact amount of flour to add rather than adding it to the proper consistency.

- GRANDMA'S SOUR CREAM COOKIES
- 2 C. sugar
 - 1 C. shortening
 - 1 C. sour cream
 - 1 egg
 - 2 tsp. lemon extract
 - 1 Tbl. Baking powder
 - 1 Tbl. Baking soda
 - 1/4 tsp. salt
 - 4 1/2 C. flour
- Mix sugar, shortening, sour cream, egg and lemon. Add dry ingredients. Pat out to 1/4 inch and cut with a large round cookie cutter. On top of each put either a sprinkle of sugar, raisin or nut. Bake at 350 degrees until a light tan. Do not overbake. May be stored in freezer.

C.A.R. Elects New Officers

The Plymouth Corners Society of The Children of the American Revolution under the leadership of Senior President, Mrs. T. H. Benson of Livonia, held a dinner meeting this past Tuesday at the home of Frank and Rick Martin of Northville.

The annual election of officers was held: Susan Entz, Northville, president; Joy Kadey, Northville, vice-president; Barbara Doyle, Farmington, treasurer; Betsy Benson, Livonia, secretary; and Susan Benson, Livonia, chaplain. Mrs. George Merwin, senior state president, formally installed the new officers for their 1964-1965 term.

Robb Moore of Birmingham gave a very interesting talk and showed a complete display of Indian fighting and hunting equipment.

Each member present gave a three minute talk about his or her contribution towards conservation for the present day, i. e., using water without needless waste, cleaning yards, planting new trees, feeding birds, and many up-to-date methods of saving our valuable resources.

At the state conference in Saginaw last month the Plymouth Corners Society was given the highest award for having the most new members of any society in Michigan. There are twelve other societies throughout the state.

They also received the Gold Ribbon Award, fifth year in a row for their active work during the Patriotic Education Week. This society is very faithful to the National C.A.R. Theme "Rededication to God and Country." The next meeting is a barbecue at the home of Mrs. Eugene Entz.

Rock Nine Wins, Loses Pre-League Games

Sports IN AND AROUND PLYMOUTH

Playing in non-league competition, Plymouth's varsity nine took a high-scoring game last Tuesday at Dearborn. Hasten and bobbled their way to a 4-3 defeat Wednesday when they hosted the Walled Lake team.

On Tuesday, the Rocks came out on the long end of a score that resembled a gridiron tally more than baseball as they downed Hasten 15-11.

The outcome was never in doubt after Plymouth's seven-run first inning, except when high winds propelled long fly balls into home runs and triples.

FOLLOWING the Rocks' big opening frame, Dearborn bounced back in the bottom half with six runs, closing the margin to one.

Plymouth pounded out 15 runs on seven hits and five errors, while Dearborn collected 11 on 11 hits and two errors.

Sophomore Steve Stribly was the leading hitter for the Rocks, hammering a home run, a triple and a single to knock in five runs. John Daniel collected three hits in five trips to the plate and Bob Goetz, Harold Kusiel, Cal Luibrand and Jerry Kisabeth collected two.

Winning hurler Fred Higgs replaced Rock starter Curt Irish after the first inning. Sophomore Randy Williams handled the pitching chores for the last two innings.

THE FOUR unearned runs allowed in the first two innings in Wednesday's game with Walled Lake proved enough to torpedo the Rocks and send them to a 4-3 defeat.

Following a Walled Lake single in the first, a comedy of Rock errors allowed three unearned rallies. They included a right field error, a dropped ball by the catcher after a Walled Lake swinger fanned and a walk. A single scored one run and a misjudged fly ball let in two more.

In the second, a base on balls, a fielder's choice, a single and an error by the second baseman on a relay scored the winning run for the opposition.

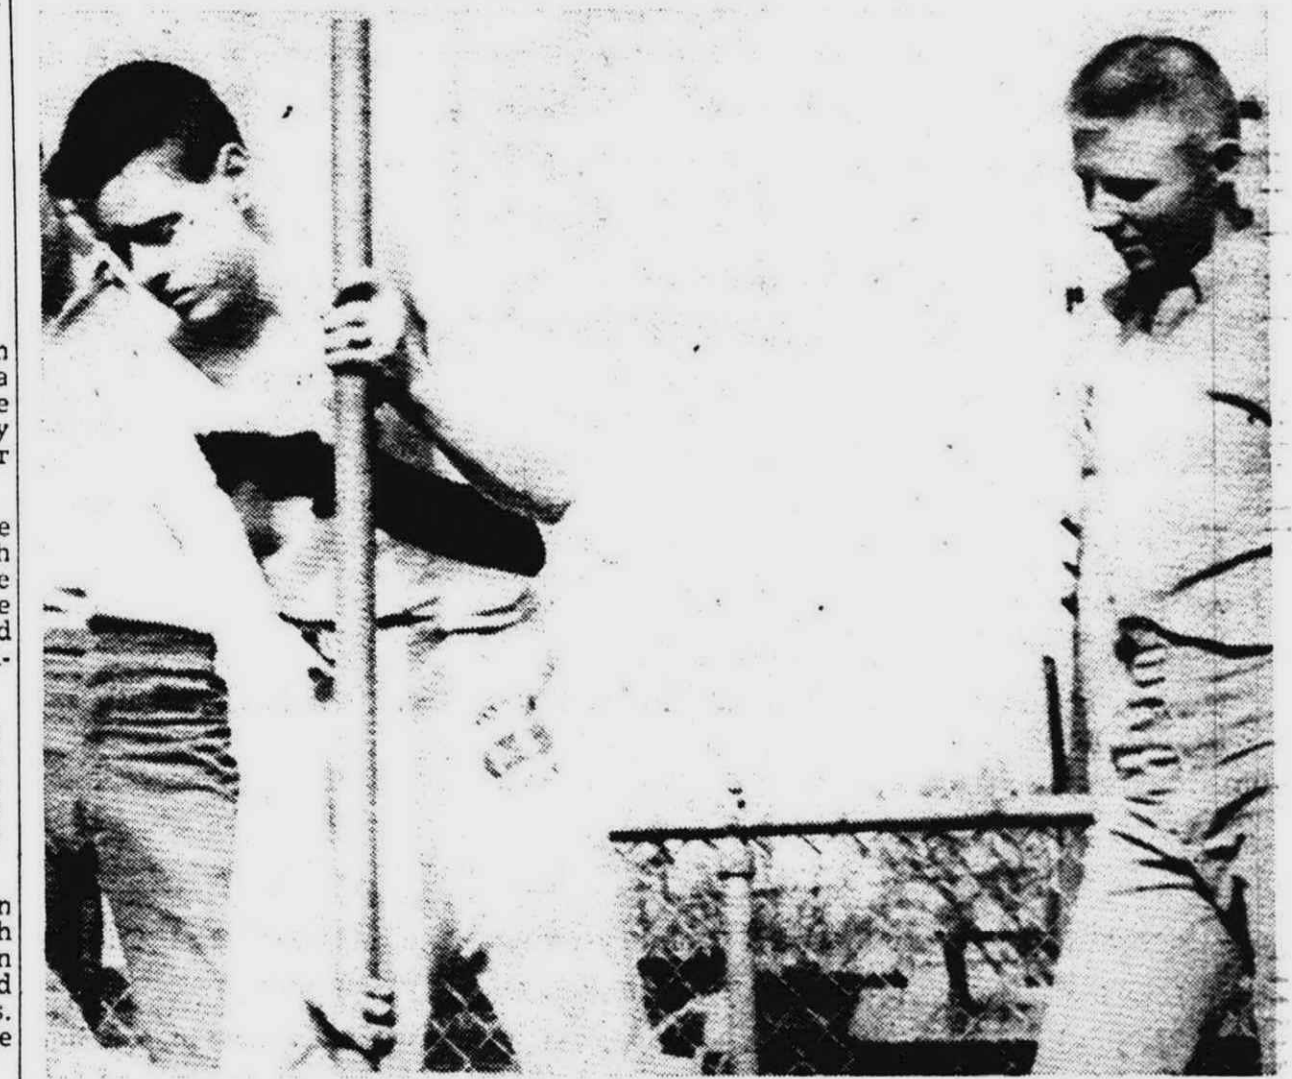

HELD HITLESS for the first five innings, Plymouth got only three balls out of the infield during the game. The Rocks' three hits were shared by Jerry Kisabeth, Cal Luibrand and Terry Clark.

Plymouth finished with three runs on three hits and five errors. Walled Lake collected four runs on seven hits and committed three errors.

Walled Lake starter John Thomas was relieved with two outs in the seventh. John Daniel and Curt Irish shared the hurling for the Rocks. Daniel was charged with the loss.

On Monday afternoon the Rocks hosted Livonia-Franklin in the first league encounter of the season. They will travel to Northville for a game on Wednesday.

Anatomy of a Pole Vault

THE STEPS TO victory in the pole vault event were caught by a Plymouth Mail photographer last Friday as junior vaulter Grant Fischer vaulted to first place in the meet with Livonia-Bentley with a jump of 10 feet. Here, Fischer, left, adjusts the standard before he jumps as another student looks on.

Visiting Bentley Takes Friday's Track Meet

Competing in unseasonably warm weather and under cloudless spring skies Friday afternoon, Plymouth's trackmen went down before visiting Livonia-Bentley by a score of 57-52, even though they took firsts in seven of the 13 events.

The Rocks took first places in the broad jump, pole vault, the mile, high hurdles, 880, 440 and the mile relay. Livonia grabbed top slot laurels in the high jump, shot put, the 880 relay, the 100-yard dash, the 220 and the 180-yard low hurdles.

In high jump competition, Livonia swept all three places, winning with a height of five feet, eight inches. A toss of 47 feet, nine and a quarter inches was good enough to give the visitors the shot put event as they again took all three positions.

FIRST showing by Plymouth came in the board jump as Gary Grady leaped 18 feet, 10 and a half inches to place first. Livonia placed second and third.

In pole vaulting, the Rocks' Grant Fischer soared 10 feet into the air to grab top honors while the Livonia men took the next two positions.

While the 880 relay went to the visitors, Rock cindermen placed first and second in the mile with Frank Dorset winning in 5:07 and Mike Bentley coming in second.

HIGH hurdles went to the Plymouthites as Dan Johnson took the event in 37.1 seconds with a Livonia runner placing second and teammate Jim Scharmen running third.

The 880 was swept by the Rocks as Steve Ward ran first in 2:12.4. John Bates placed second and Jim Eder came in third.

In the 440, Livonia took second and third behind Plymouth's John Bowsman who finished in 54.8 seconds. The visitors ran away with the 100-yard dash in 10.8 seconds as Rock Dennis Tonkovich placed second and another Livonia runner came in third.

THE 180 low hurdles saw Livonia sweep to victory in 21.8 seconds, with Plymouthite Dan Johnson second and a Livonia runner third.

The guests took the 220 in 24 seconds flat, Tonkovich placed second and another visiting runner took third.

Mile relay runners for Plymouth copped the event for the Rocks in 3:44.6. Running were Dave Agnew, Steve Ward, Gary Grady and John Bowsman.

Coach Keith Bowman said he felt his men made a better showing than in last week's meet with Belleville. He continued to predict good things from the young squad.

This week the Rocks will take on Trenton as Coach Dick Bearup's reserves travel there Thursday and the varsity meets there on Friday.

Detroit's WWJ was the first radio station in America to carry regular daily programs.

Michigan leads the nation in number of 4-H clubs, with well over 5,000.

AFTER adjustments were satisfactory, young Fischer walked to the starting position, doffed his sweat pants and waited for the wind to die down.

WITH A LULL in the warm (80-degree) spring winds, Fischer, a look of determination engraved on his features, charged in for his leap.

UP, UP AND over. Fischer, his pole still standing behind the bar, soared into the air for a successful vault and dropped onto the bags of foam rubber on the other side. Visiting Livonia finished second and third in the pole vault, behind Fischer.

THE CAMERA catches Rock shot putter Dave Sackett as he whirls around to let go of the shot in last Friday's track meet with Livonia-Bentley. Livonia took all three places in the shot put, winning with a toss of 47 feet, nine and a quarter inches.

THIS MIXED string of crappie, white and largemouth bass was picked up recently at Table Rock Lake in Missouri by Plymouthite Ron Wahn, left, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wahn of 620 Ross St., during a journey to Rogers, Ark. He and his brother-in-law, Orin Ribar, son of Steve Ribar of Canton Center Road, racked up the string during a fishing expedition. Wahn, his wife and year-old daughter, made the trip to visit his sister, Mrs. Patt (Wahn) Ribar of Rogers, Ark.

Swimmer Cited at Banquet

Honor came to Plymouth swimmer Dick Gretzinger Tuesday evening when he was cited for his part in the 400-yard freestyle relay team that swept the gold medal in the Big Ten Championship meet held at Minnesota early in March. Gretzinger and his teammates were recognized at the annual Michigan State Swimming banquet held at a Jackson restaurant Tuesday evening. He and three other M.S.U. swimmers racked up a time of 3:43.9 in the Big Ten meet. Gretzinger was also awarded a trophy for swimming 15 laps of the 200-yard butterfly with a five-second rest between laps and averaging a time of 2:12.8 for each 200-yard lap. He was also named as a probable selection for the 11th American Collegiate Swimming Team for 1964 in three events. They are: The 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:02.9; the 400-yard individual medley with a time of 4:29.2 and the 400-yard freestyle relay.

Riverside Estates

By Florence Stephenson — 453-8918

Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Foster, of Lindsay Dr., took their son, Chris, to dinner at Hillside Inn last Wednesday to celebrate his birthday. They were accompanied by their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Young and their sons Andrew and Jeffrey.

During Easter vacation Richard Wagar had Doug Moore as a house guest. Doug is from Redford Township, where Richard moved from. On Saturday three other friends from the old neighborhood joined them and they all spent the day in the park playing tennis. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wagar, of Hines Ct. Also a short time ago the Wagar family attended "Our Town", a play put on by the students of Riverside High, in Dearborn Heights.

V.F.W. AUXILIARY NEWS

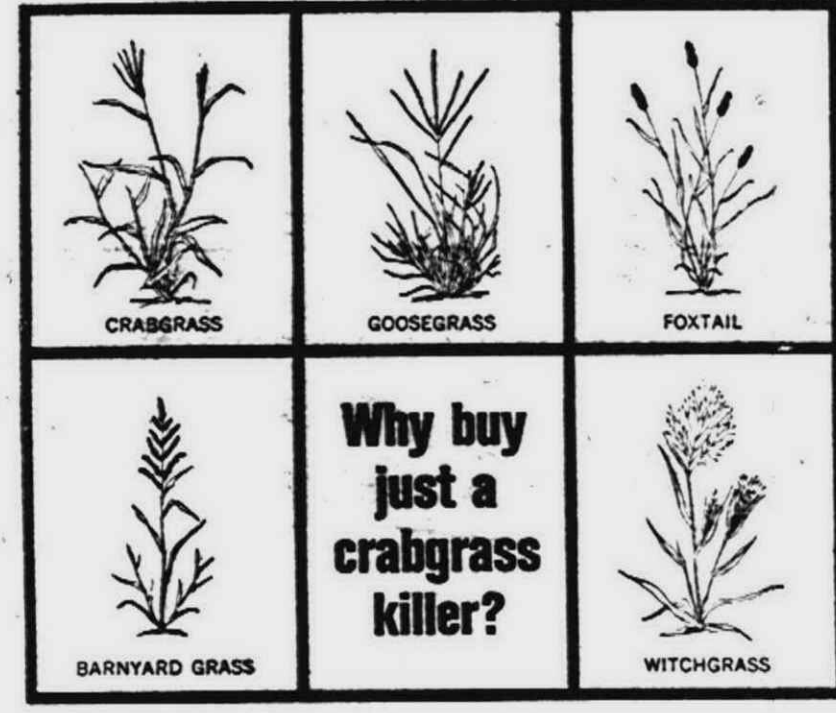

The Mayflower Post and Auxiliary extend their sympathy to Jim McKindies and his family upon the death of his father.

We will be having our rummage sale Wednesday, April 22, 3 a.m.-8 p.m. Be sure to come out and look around. Everyone is welcome, and we will have many types of things for sale.

The men will hold their elections at their next meeting, so let's have a good group of members out. Remember that the officers elected are the responsibility of all members and it is up to them to vote.

The trip to the V.A. Hospital is still planned for April 29th. The drill team is going out to entertain the men. For more details contact Delores Shaw.

Lake Pointe News

By Margaret Murawski — GL 3-0106

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bales have just returned from a long weekend at the Castle Harbor Hotel in Bermuda. They flew down last Thursday and returned this Monday looking nicely tanned.

Several of the Lake Pointe teenagers have been busy practicing for the Plymouth High School Water Show, Liquid Legends which will be presented April 30, May 1, and May 2. Cindy Hagmayer will be featured in a number called "Eight Little Indians." Beth Miller is going to be in an act which has a theme adapted from the Arabian Nights. Pam Wyman and Margaret Rudloff are going to be depicting cowboys while doing their aquatic stunts.

Mrs. Richard Doherty was the chairman of a very successful card party at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church. The morning of the event found all the members of the original decorating committee sick, so Mrs. Robert Laffey and Mrs. Edward Bales pitched in and decorated the church basement with flowers and gaily trimmed bird houses. People from Lake Pointe who were there were the Ralph Heids who joined the Donald Davies at a table. Seen playing euchre were the Lawrence Schendels and the Richard Baileys. Member Utter, Chairman of the Employee Relations Committee, reported that Member Schultheiss of the Committee and he had exploratory talks on the subject of wages, salaries and fringe benefits during the month separately with Mr. Howe and Mr. Hoben of the Plymouth Education Association and Mr. Ross of the Maintenance Union.

President Fischer, Chairman of the Finance Committee, interpreted the monthly Budget Report as expressed concern about the failure of the State to assume a larger share of support for operating funds next year may force the Board to seek additional operating millage at the local level. He did note, however, that this decision will be deferred until the local tax base has been determined and next year's preliminary budget had been analyzed.

Asst. Supt. Blunk informed the Board of a possible over run of from $5,500 to $6,500 in the maintenance budget by the end of the current school year. He stated that a number of expenses, including tree removal, were not anticipated at the time of budget preparation.

Member Soth, Chairman of the Facilities Committee, reported that the Committee had screened twenty applications from Architectural Firms, interviewed eight of the Firms and had prepared a recommendation.

On the basis of this recommendation it was moved by Member Soth and seconded by Member Hulsing that the Board of Education enter into a contract with O'Dell, Hewlett & Luckenbach Associates for the architectural services on the next phases of the school building program with the condition that the contract will be terminated at the end of one year if the services are unsatisfactory.

Ayes: Members Fischer, Henry, Hulsing, Schultheiss, Soth and Utter. Nays: Member Henry.

The motion was carried.

Member Henry, Chairman of the Joint Committee on Vocational Education, commented on the Report prepared by the professional staff on the space utilization as well as the needs for additional space and staff in the Vocational Department at Plymouth High School. He noted that the Joint Committee will have the final recommendations prepared for the Board which will include a priority list indicating the parts of the program which should have first consideration.

Mrs. Heilmann raised a question in regard to how long the 6th grade students will be assigned to the junior high schools. President Fischer and Supt. Isbister pointed out that in the new five-year program provisions are made for two new elementary schools as well as additions to present elementary schools. When these facilities are available and all the space in the junior high schools is needed for grades 7, 8 and 9 the 6th grade students will again be assigned to the elementary schools. During this interim period a quality program will be maintained by assigning grades 6 and 7 to the Junior High School - West and grades 8 and 9 to the Junior High School - East.

Mr. Peterson inquired about the purchase of school sites for future schools. It was noted that the School District owns only two such sites.

It was moved by Member Henry and seconded by Member Hulsing that approval be given to the Cooperative Teacher Training Program between Schoolcraft College, Michigan State University and the Plymouth Community School District.

Jet-smooth Luxury Chevrolet makes roads feel as smooth as the maps they're printed on Run your finger over a map and find yourself a place to go. That's a preview of how it feels to get there in a Chevrolet.

We've put what we think is the best suspension system in its class under this great highway performer. A big husky coil spring at each wheel and double-action shock absorbers to soak up bumps. Over 700 sound deadeners throughout the chassis and that spacious Body by Fisher to blot out noise from road and wind.

There's a lot of other Jet-smooth luxury, too. FOR THE GREAT HIGHWAY PERFORMERS

Wide seats with foam-cushioning front and rear. Luxurious wall-to-wall deep-twist carpeting (this year it comes with even the lowest priced Biscaynes). A choice of seven great engines, all precision-balanced for smoother running, with four smooth-shifting transmissions to match. Everything that makes Chevrolet the great highway performer it is.

So get out those road maps. And wherever you go, get off to a good start—during Trade 'N' Travel Time at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Respectfully submitted,
 Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary
 Board of Education

Presents THE PEST OF THE WEEK

Scale Insects, Aphids, and Mites: These sucking pests plague ornamentals and fruit trees the year round. They suck the sap of the plant and may kill fairly large limbs if left unchecked. They can be effectively controlled at this time of the year with a dormant spray. Spraying now with oil will eliminate much of the need for spraying during the growing season with other materials.

CONTROL: Apply a Dormant Oil spray before the buds open. Mix at the rate of one cup/gallon of water. Coat all limb surfaces well. Avoid the use of oils on Maples, Beech, Hickory, Walnut, Butternut and all evergreens. Spray only when the temperature is above 40° F. and the material will have the opportunity to dry before freezing temperatures occur. Do not use other insecticides or fungicides at the same time as many are not compatible with the oil sprays.

Chips from the ROCK

The boom in our business section is one more visual evidence of the growth that is fast encompassing this entire area. Consider, if you will, that in the span of two or three weeks we have been favored with the following additions to our business community. First, we announced the complete enlargement and remodelization of the Cloverdale Farms Dairy by owner Herman Bakhaus which is now proceeding on schedule.

Another Forest avenue addition is the opening of Consumers Center, a well rounded discount store, which will bring much needed traffic to our downtown area. People have found favor with discount operations and it is a fact that they do attract traffic. It might also be noted that this traffic also helps other businesses in the area and that experience has proven that the more people who can be lured to these stores also spend money in other attractive merchandising establishments while they are in the vicinity.

Over on Penniman avenue the opening of Outlet, Inc., a new concept in furniture merchandising, is also doing much to improve traffic on that street. The new store, according to owner Nelson Schrader, will feature sales on trade-in furniture, garnered from his two quality stores in Northville and Plymouth and supplied also by other furniture dealers, shop worn merchandise, slightly damaged items and a full line of discount furniture as well.

The Trading Post on Main street also will provide a new concept in the merchandising of sporting goods and cash and carry lumber items. A patio, outdoor display area will feature boats, camp trailers, summer furniture, in fact almost everything for "fun in the sun," so to speak.

Interestingly enough the Trading Post will feature camp trailers and boats which are made in Plymouth and the sales staff will consist mainly of personnel recruited on a part-time basis from our teaching fraternity. This is a unified sales venture combining the products of two local industries and sporting goods from Davis and Lent, which will be moved to this area, along with the lumber items which are already on the spot.

Then, of course, there are those other things to come, most already in the drawing boards and soon to be announced, such as a major enlargement and remodeling of one of our local industries, a new manufacturing concern, a Chinese restaurant, another discount center on our outskirts, a luxury motel and even the possibility of a major, nationally-known industry securing a site here for a multi-million dollar manufacturing plant.

It all goes to prove that the future for the whole Plymouth area is extremely bright and it certainly justifies the faith and confidence so many local leaders have had in their continuing efforts to make this an even better place to live.

When you contemplate the beauty of our new City Hall, the tremendous expansion taking place in the Township, the attractive new homes and multiple dwellings springing up around us along with these new businesses, how can anyone have any doubt about what the future holds for the area?

Public Hearings Require Cooperation

Last Wednesday evening, a crowd of more than 125 persons literally jammed the Plymouth Township Hall for a public hearing on a request to rezone roughly 45 acres at the northeast corner of Joy and Beck Roads from R-1-E, country estates district, to R-1-S, suburban residential district.

Obviously, a number of the people present came in response to a full page advertisement carried in the pages of last week's Plymouth Mail, urging that the request be denied.

There were certain aspects of the meeting that disturbed us.

• Samuel Stoller, representing the J.A.R. Corporation — a development firm, was frequently interrupted by comments from the audience as he attempted to present his side of the question.

• And members of the planning commission had their remarks broken by wisecracks and interjections from would-be humorists.

• Citizens, appearing to protest the request for rezoning, were also interrupted as they testified and attempted to present their viewpoint for the consideration of the planning commission.

Finally, township trustee and planning commission member C. Veach Sparks, apparently irked by impromptu remarks from the audience, said he'd be a lot happier if people would refrain from interfering when others have the floor.

One thing becomes apparent. As sewer and water lines are extended into the western portion of the township, more and more rezoning hearings will be held and, quite probably, increasingly larger numbers of property owners will be affected.

Naturally, re-classification of property that might affect values of surrounding land is a highly emotional subject. Owners, in many cases, are going to be upset and disturbed; and they have a right to be heard — fully and completely.

But they DO NOT have the right to interfere and interrupt either when the opposite side presents its case or when planning commissioners discuss the merits of the question. Often, the younger generation is criticized for discourtesy and lack of manners.

We'd hate to point to the department of some of the adults at Wednesday night's meeting as an example for youngsters to follow. Fortunately, planning commission chairman Irving Rozian and his associates did a capable job of keeping things in hand and they should be congratulated.

But, in the future, The Plymouth Mail hopes residents attending public hearings will make their job a bit easier. Being a planning commissioner is a thankless job; it deserves a full measure of co-operation.

Librarian Must Know Less and Less About More and More, Kiwanis Told

A specialist knows more and more about less and less, but a librarian needs to know less and less about more and more, according to Mrs. Warren Worth, guest speaker at Tuesday's Kiwanis Club meeting and librarian in charge of the Dunning-Hough Library in Plymouth.

While 30,000 books and magazines can be found in our library in an endless variety of interests and reference subjects, through years of use book damage has been very slight, Mrs. Worth told Kiwanis. The Dunning-Hough branch is part of the Wayne County System, which operates the library, and books are available from any other library in the system and the State Library in Lansing.

Another advantage to belonging to the county system is the savings through cooperative purchase of books and supplies.

The 40-year-old Dunning-Hough Library, given for the use and enjoyment of Plymouth's citizens, began when the Dunning family donated the lot on S. Main St. along with a frame house.

Eventually the Hough family provided for the razing of the old house and construction of the present two story colonial building. Mrs. Worth said the library is located in a very fine community with excellent support from local governmental agencies.

Two of the most important facilities noticed by prospective industry in any area are schools and public libraries. Our local library circulation has decreased somewhat with the opening of libraries in Livonia and the increase of facilities by our public schools.

Even with increased facilities, there are still about 50 million Americans who are out of reach of a library. Our community is most fortunate, especially for those who take advantage of its bounty, she said.

Kiwanian John Wallace was reported ill with the measles. Guests for the meeting and program were James Whalen of Nassau, New York, Harold Langworthy of Wayne, and John Alley of South Lyon.

Walter Gemperline will conduct the Spring Divisional meeting beginning at 3 p.m. on April 28. May 5 Program Chairman Bill Sempliner will present Circuit Court Judge Ben Burdick. On May 6, the Rotarians and the Kiwanians will have a bowling match at the Plymouth Bowl.
