

Off to White House to Invite LBJ to Plymouth

Not discouraged by a letter of refusal, and still hoping to convince the White House that President Lyndon B. Johnson should visit Plymouth for cornerstone laying ceremonies at the New City Hall May 22, Michigan Week Chairman William J. Nelson flew to Washington Monday.

Armed with Plymouth Mail photographs of the new building, Nelson said he planned several stops in the nation's Capitol city.

Former press secretary for U.S. Senator Philip A. Hart, he was expected to contact Hart, Representative Martha Griffiths, and other key government personnel with personal invitations from the City of Plymouth for the event.

The prime reason for Nelson's trip is to attend the 11th Annual Highway Safety Conference, being held this week in Washington.

BASED ON information received this week by The Mail Plymouth's chances of getting the President to come here seem to be improving. He is scheduled to appear at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor on Friday morning.

That evening, the chief executive is expected to be in Detroit.

Available information indicates no definite plans for the time between Johnson's Ann Arbor appointment and his appearance in Detroit.

With Plymouth's new city hall financed in part by Federal funds, Nelson said he hopes the President will be interested in attending the cornerstone laying ceremonies.

Nelson detailed his plans at a Monday morning meeting of Michigan Week committee chairmen held at the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce. The chairmen outlined these plans for Michigan Week, May 17-23.

SPIRITUAL Day chairman Rev. Edward Castner of Plymouth's First Presbyterian Church said city churches will observe Michigan Week separately. The community's ministerial association declined to sponsor a neighborhood-wide sunrise service.

Government Day Chairman Albert Glassford said Monday, May 18 will be highlighted by the visit of Clawson Mayor Lavern

Anderson. Included in the day's agenda will be a businessmen's luncheon and an evening dinner.

On Hospitality Day, Tuesday, Nelson said an effort is underway to get members of a local ham radio club to contact out of state police, bearing the message of Michigan Week. Also discussed was the possibility of having local police stop an out of town car. The occupants would be treated to dinner at a local restaurant. Hospitality Day chairman Robert Stremich was unable to be present at the meeting.

City Commissioner George Lawton, Livelihood Day chairman, said the day's activities would center around a luncheon or dinner for representatives from the Plymouth Community's four new industries. Township officials are expected to work closely with Lawton on the program.

EDUCATION Day chairman Russell Isbister told other committee representatives that community schools will emphasize Michigan and its "Water Wonderland" theme in music, history and geography classes.

Heritage Day chairman Sidney Strong pointed out that even if President Johnson cannot be present, cornerstone laying ceremonies should have wide popular appeal. Scheduled for 2 p.m. the ceremonies will include the high school band and boy scout color guard. Afternoon activities also include the annual tea at the Dunning-Hough Library, sponsored by the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter, D.A.R.

Society museum will be open throughout Heritage Day. Youth Day chairman John M. (Mike) Hoben suggested a project where youth could contribute to the community. Youngsters are expected to turn out and lend a hand in painting the Plymouth Historical Society's museum building. Paint will be furnished by the city.

Michigan Week vice-chairman Wendell Smith said Plymouth Jaycees would time their annual teen-age "road-eo" and junior tennis program to coincide with youth day activities.

"GEE, FELLAS, what'll we do?" Five-year-old Brad Van Newkirk, left, of 1251 Sheridan Ave. and two of his pals, Peter Gadebusch, 8, of 1211 Sheridan Ave. and his brother Kirk, 10, right, are trying to figure something to keep themselves busy. The playground behind the Christian Science Church and near their homes has no equipment for them to use.

Kids for Playfield Requests

What to do, what to do? That might be what more than a few Plymouth youngsters ask themselves when they go out to play on one of the city's playgrounds — areas that are largely devoid of equipment.

Oh, there's lots of room for big guys to throw a baseball in the summer and football in the fall; but there's little or nothing at many sites to interest the little shavers when they wander out to play.

But the little kids have a friend. One of the top items on City Manager Albert Glassford's list in the proposed city budget is a requested appropriation of $1,600 for playground equipment to be erected at seven sites throughout the city.

Planning Authority Representatives Appointed by Two Townships, City

Long awaited and much discussed, the Plymouth Community's Joint Planning Authority this week started to take shape as representatives from each of the three participating communities were named and a pre-organizational meeting was set for Thursday, May 7 at the Plymouth Township Hall at 7:30 p.m.

The supervisors of both Plymouth and Canton Townships and the mayor of the City of Plymouth each appointed three men to serve with the planning group.

Named from Canton Township by Supervisor Louis

Stein were Phil Dingelday, Canton Township treasurer; Richard Palmer, Canton Township farmer and building contractor; Thomas A. Alexsy.

PICKED by Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay were Township Trustee C. Veach Sparks; John Welscher, traffic manager at the Chevrolet Spring and Bumper plant; and Deputy County Treasurer of Wayne County Clark Finley.

City representatives, named by Mayor Richard H. Wernette, are City Commissioner George Lawton; ex-mayor and prominent businessman Harold Guenther; and charter Industrial Development Corporation Director and former president of Plymouth Stamping Co. Clarence E. Moore.

The planning authority whose mission will be to increase the non-residential tax base in the Plymouth Community, recently was made possible when the participating governments voted funds for its operation.

EXPECTED to contribute $5,000 each are the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township. Canton Township has voted $2,500 toward the operation of the planning group. Additional funds, office space and secretarial help will be provided by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce as requested by the authority.

The authority becomes reality without financial participation on the part of the Plymouth Community

School District. School board members, while endorsing the concept of the planning group, refused to pledge financial support — based on a ruling by school board attorney William Sempliner.

The question of school district participation went to Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley late last year for an opinion and Kelley ruled that the school district could legally take part. But board members stuck by their original decision.

Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister, long active in support of the authority and its goals, is expected to act as temporary chairman at the first meeting of the group Thursday evening.

Rotarians Hear "State of the City" Address

Complete responsibility for leadership in the local civil rights field was assumed by Mayor Richard H. Wernette in an outspoken "State of the City" address delivered to Plymouth Rotarians Friday.

Wernette told Rotarians he set up the Plymouth Community Relations Commission in co-operation with the supervisors of Canton and Plymouth Townships following a conference with Governor Romney and Attorney General Frank Kelley.

He said the two men said it was better if preparations were made on the local level to combat possible racial turbulence.

"I hope the first Negro family to move to Plymouth moves in my block," Wernette said. Then, he noted, he could not be accused of failing to practice his own teachings.

IN OTHER areas of city government, Wernette expressed satisfaction with the reservoir construction and water improvement programs currently in the city. He said the city is advertising for bids on the projects.

The mayor said the City of Plymouth is indebted to Congresswoman Martha Griffiths for the role she has played in securing Federal funds for the city.

The water projects, the urban renewal program and Plymouth's new City Hall are all financed, in part, by government monies.

Plans are well underway, he told Rotarians, for a grant the city expects to receive for the construction of housing for the aged. The city's housing commission has toured Dearborn's Townsend Towers project and is confident that a similar unit can be built here.

Dave Sutherland Breaks Back In Fall at College

Confined to St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor is 19-year-old David Sutherland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sutherland of 8175 Ridge Road. A freakish accident on the second story fire escape at his fraternity house, Theta Chi, at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant where he was a student, resulted in a fall to the ground which resulted in a broken back.

After undergoing surgery Thursday morning in Ann Arbor, according to his parents, doctors say he is progressing as well as can be expected but will probably be confined to the hospital for several weeks in traction.

Witnesses to the accident say a guard railing on the side of the fire escape broke (Continued on Page 6)

Candidates for School Board Still Not Known

The Plymouth Community School District board of education candidate situation remained clouded this week as Board President Gerald J. Fischer of 505 McKinley St., up for re-election, declared himself neither in nor out of the picture and possibly five petitions had been taken out of the school district offices for circulation by Monday.

School officials said they had no idea who was circulating the nominating petitions as next Saturday's deadline drew nearer.

Fischer, contacted by The Plymouth Mail Saturday, said he had not yet reached a decision.

"I am very anxious to find qualified candidates for the board who would become available so I could have a year or two of release," he commented.

FISCHER said heavy responsibilities at Ford Motor Company where he serves in an executive capacity, church work and other plans have rendered him undecided about running.

"I have a very strong interest in the programs of the schools," he said. "I am not ruling myself out, but I am not committing myself to definitely be a candidate."

He noted that he was interested in seeing a highly qualified slate of candidates run for the two vacancies and was working on that now.

The other opening on the board will come when the term of Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing expires. Mrs. Hulsing announced her decision not to (Continued on Page 6)

★ Plymouth merchants will band together for their annual Midnight Madness promotion next Wednesday, May 13. Stores will remain open until midnight. Beginning this week, numbered coupons which may be good for a silver dollar or a $100 Savings Bond will be passed out at participating stores. Numbers to be posted in the stores may qualify coupon holders for a free silver dollar. The other half of the coupon, retained by the store, will go into the hopper for an 11 p.m. drawing in Kellogg Park for a $100 U.S. Savings Bond.

★ A correction was issued this week by Postmaster George Timpona to the story carried in last week's Plymouth Mail about a change in the parcel post delivery schedule. Beginning on Wednesday, May 6, Timpona said, no parcel post deliveries will be made on Wednesdays. A previous announcement indicated, incorrectly, that deliveries would be made on Wednesdays only.

★ Summing up its 1964 campaign, the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County reported this week that Plymouth had contributed a total of $2,737.34 as of May 1. The amount included $950 in mail contributions, $1,128 from special letters and $659.34 from lily sales. The amount compares with a final 1963 figure of $3,029.10.

T.C.I. Given 30 Days To Meet Requirements

A local industry was given 30 days by city commissioners to meet safety requirements or face the possibility of a shutdown in action taken at Monday evening's city commission meeting at the City Hall.

A representative from the firm, Transport Containers, Inc., told the city's governing body his company had been trying to meet the city's requirements.

Vice President and Secretary of the corporation Frank Norton testified after Public Safety Director Kenneth Fisher said T.C.I. had failed to meet a May 1 deadline for bringing its facilities at 498 Farmer St. up to par.

BECAUSE of the large number of employees involved, commissioners said they were reluctant to force the firm to close. Norton said the company employs 35 to 90 workers, depending on seasonal demand.

He said the problems go back a year when T.C.I. began operation with almost no capital. The company doesn't have enough to purchase the plant building from Plymouth Tube Co., the owner.

T.C.I. has been renting the site on a month-to-month basis. He promised that the company would do everything possible to meet city requirements.

Pointing out that T.C.I. has cleaned up the premises and taken some safety precautions, Norton said plans call for protection of electrical wires as required by the city.

LONG RANGE plans, he said, call for purchase of the building by the first of next year, further expansion and razing of a portion of the present plant.

Commissioners voted to give local realtors a 5 percent commission on sales of city property and promised to provide them with a list of properties for sale with asking prices.

The motion, made by Commissioner George Lawton and unanimously approved, would require realtors to register their leads with the city.

In other action at the meeting, commissioners tabled a proposal from the Sechler-Bidwell Corporation to dedicate a 10-foot strip of property running along Coolidge Avenue for street right-of-way purposes.

The development firm had asked to be relieved from liability for future curb and gutter assessments at the site in return for the dedication.

Commissioners accepted an offer from the Passage-Gayde American Legion Post to donate five per cent of Memorial Day carnival proceeds to the city's mobile bandstand fund.

THEY tabled a request from the post to hold the carnival on the Wheel Trueing property adjacent to the city cemetery, claiming the carnival would interfere with Memorial Day ceremonies at the cemetery.

Tabled for further information was an offer from Continental-Fremont Co. of Fremont, O. to dismantle both of the city's water tanks for their scrap value. Further information on the offer will be sought.

Approved was the transfer of a liquor license to the new owner of a party store located at 614 S. Main St.

A $9,000 sanitary sewer project was approved for an outlet at Tonquish Creek and M-14 and installation of a new sewer eastward toward Mill St.

Clawson Mayor To be Here on Exchange Day

Lavern Anderson

Plymouth's mayor for a day, Monday, May 18 will be of Clawson, Mayor Richard H. Wernette of Plymouth will travel to Clawson as acting mayor as part of Michigan Week festivities.

Anderson, who was elected as Clawson's mayor in April of 1963, received a Ford Citizen of the Year award from Ford Motor Company Thursday. He received the towncrier's bell, symbol of the award, as a citizen who has performed outstanding service in community activities.

Winner of the 1963 "Man of the Year" award presented by the Clawson Lions Club, Anderson has served the community for 17 years. Prior to being elected Clawson's chief executive officer, Anderson served on the city council for six years and on the city planning commission for six years.

They tabled a request from the post to hold the carnival on the Wheel Trueing property adjacent to the city cemetery, claiming the carnival would interfere with Memorial Day ceremonies at the cemetery.

CITY MANAGER Albert Glassford was authorized to make a trip to Chicago next week to confer with officials of the Home Housing and Finance Administration of the U.S. Government about the city's urban renewal project.

Commissioners were told that the city manager will request a 30-day extension of the time limit on the city's reservoir and water improvement program. The extension would allow for additional time to advertise for bids and work out other details.

Transfer of $175 from unappropriated reserves was authorized for the purchase of new police uniforms for a recently hired patrolman.

Also authorized was installation of an eight-inch sanitary sewer under the sewer bond ordinance. $5,093 will be drawn from the government bond account to cover the cost.

At a special meeting next Monday, commissioners will hold a public hearing on the proposed budget for the coming fiscal year.

Appearing at the meeting was Plymouth realtor George Scherman who expressed interest in purchasing all or part of the property left when the old city hall is razed for the purpose of erecting a new building. His present building would be demolished, Scherman said.

Three-Ring Circus Opens Here Saturday

A good, old-fashioned, three-ring circus will come to town this Saturday, May 9. The league will sponsor the 25th annual edition of the Junior Baseball League, according to League President Joseph Bida.

ing forward to large turn-outs. The league will sponsor the 25th annual edition of the Junior Baseball League, according to League President Joseph Bida.

Noting that the Junior Baseball League derives heaviest proceeds from the sale of advance tickets, Bida urged all planning to attend the circus to purchase tickets now at Davis and Lent, Duke's Clip Joint or Mert's Service Station.

"THERE IS something about a really big circus with its enormous tent, its be-spangled performers, lumbering elephants, prancing horses and its clowns, that is traditionally a welcome form of entertainment," he said.

"To put our campaign over the top, we are going to conduct a house-to-house ticket sale on the week of May 4," Bida continued.

"When a member comes to your home we sincerely hope that you will buy your circus tickets from him. Remember, if you wait until circus day to buy your tickets, you will pay more and we will receive a much smaller percentage."

The 1964 version of Mills Brothers Circus features an international array of circus stars including aerialists, acrobats, clowns, contortionists, jugglers, tumblers, wire-walkers, high pole artists, an all-girl aerial ballet and an Arabian Nights opening spectacle.

Animal presentations include the ever popular liberty horses, a mixed group of camels, llamas and pony, educated chimpanzees, plus the world famous Mills Bros. elephant ballet.

Special reduced rate tickets are available from all Plymouth Community Junior Baseball League members.

MISS BURMA, the world's most famous elephant and queen of the Mills Bros. Three Ring Circus, is coming to Plymouth for afternoon and evening performances under the big top on Saturday, May 9. The circus is being sponsored here by the Plymouth Community Junior Baseball League to help raise money for its activities. Members have advance tickets, at special reduced prices, on sale now.

Plymouth Elks Play in National Bowling Meet

More than 200 Plymouth Elks and their wives, representing more than 20 bowling teams from Plymouth Lodge 1780 traveled to Cincinnati, O., over the weekend for the two-day Elks' National Bowling Tournament.

Results of the tourney have not yet been released. Local Elks, representing Plymouth's 2,000-member lodge, bowled nine games in doubles, singles and team events.

They left here by car and train Friday evening. At least two made the trip by private aircraft. Accommodations awaited the Plymouth group at a motel on the outskirts of the Ohio city. The group returned to Plymouth Sunday afternoon.

With the national tournament behind them, the lodge set Sunday, May 24, as the date of the second annual Plymouth Elks Blind Mixed Doubles Tournament to be held at the Plymouth Bowl, 40475 Plymouth Road at Haggerty.

Finlan Sells Pilgrim Hills Subdivision

Sale of the remaining 57 lots in his 91-lot, 144-acre Pilgrim Hills Subdivision was announced Monday by Patrick J. Finlan, Plymouth realtor and developer.

Buyer of the remaining properties at the Warren and Napier Road site was Thomas A. Alexsy of 8039 Ridge Road. The purchase price was undisclosed. Finlan said he had retained his own personal lot in the subdivision.

"In the near future," he explained, "I will be building and moving out to Pilgrim Hills."

About 25 homes in the $30,000 to $80,000 price range now occupy lots in the subdivision. Alexsy, a leading builder in Dearborn and owner of Plymouth Auto Wash, plans to erect one or two model homes immediately.

Expected to be completed in 60 to 90 days, the models will provide a base from which Alexsy will sell other homes in Pilgrim Hills. Alexsy said the new homes will fall in the $25,000 to $40,000 price range.

FLUSHING HYDRANTS

Fire hydrants are being flushed in the City of Plymouth each Wednesday, Thursday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 12 midnight, according to Superintendent of Public Works Joseph Bida. The flushing program will continue until further notice.

"I plan to pull an Explorer Camper Trailer, a Plymouth product, on a vacation trip this summer," says a motorist. "What kind of insurance do I need to protect me in the event I am responsible for an accident?"

You'd be surprised to learn that, so far as liability insurance you're talking about - is concerned, you probably don't need any additional insurance for the trailer.

Some trailers are designed primarily for commercial use. They are not covered automatically under auto insurance policies.

If you are pulling a house trailer, chances are that additional insurance is needed. It's best to consult with us if you have any doubts.

"With summer coming I am planning to buy a new car and want to have it equipped with air conditioning. Will I have to pay additional insurance premiums?" No. In past years many car owners paid an additional charge but this practice has been discontinued.

Allen School Second Graders Send Dimes to Project Concern

After reading in their newspaper, "Scholastic News Ranger," about Project Concern, a floating hospital serving the people in Hong Kong, China and run by an American doctor, the children in Mrs. Catherine Anderson's second grade class collected their dimes and sent them to Dr. Jim Turpin, the founder of Project Concern.

The class members pasted their dimes on cardboard and sent them directly to Dr. Turpin in Hong Kong with a letter explaining how they heard about the project and their desire to help.

In a return letter, Dr. Turpin expressed his thanks to the class and said: "It makes me very very happy to realize that boys and girls in America care about the boys and girls in a part of the world that is so far away."

"We will use your money to buy medicine for some of them. . . Also we give them milk and a cracker that tastes like a graham cracker but has many vitamins in it," Dr. Turpin explained in his letter.

Project Concern is supported entirely by donations, Mrs. Anderson explained. At the hospital the people of Hong Kong receive free medicine and checkups and are taught good health habits.

Clubs Clash

Tops on the calendars of a number of Plymouthites tomorrow (Wednesday) will be the annual Plymouth Rotary-Kiwanis Bowling Tournament, scheduled for 7 p.m. at the Plymouth Bowl.

Nearly 200 club members are expected to be present for the annual event, pitting the Plymouth Community's two largest service clubs against each other.

The losing group will buy dinner for the winners. If they lose, Kiwanians are expected to entertain Rotary members at Lofy's. At last Friday's meeting a Rotarian suggested, in jest, that the club fete Kiwanians at a local hamburger stand in the event of defeat.

A Pen Stroke Made the Difference

Canada-United States Goodwill Week, April 26-May 2, marks the 147th anniversary of the Rush-Bagot Agreement—a simple guarantee of peaceful commerce between two nations, cancellable by either one on thirty days written notice.

Symbolic of barriers between nations is the wall across Berlin, part of the iron curtain that stretches for 2,000 barbed wire miles between East and West (from the Baltic Sea on the north to the Black Sea on the south).

In dramatic contrast: the Canada-U.S. border. Of it, President Lyndon Johnson said, "On that border we have no soldiers. We have no weapons. We have only long and enduring friends." Thirty-three Kiwanis Peace Markers stand along this border—the only sentinels for 3,000 miles. Truly, a pen stroke made the difference.

Forest Avenue Winners Listed

Crowds of shoppers took advantage of sunny skies after several days of rain last Friday evening to participate in the special Forest Avenue promotion which was held in correlation with the grand opening of the new discount department store, Consumers Center.

Eight of the 12 stores on Forest Ave. actively participated in the promotion, published exclusively in The Plymouth Mail, which drew shoppers from Ann Arbor, Inker, Dearborn, Livonia, and Wayne, in addition to Plymouth.

In addition to keeping their doors open until 10 p.m., each of the participating stores had coupons for shoppers to fill out for drawing of prizes. Original plans for blocking off the street were cancelled because of the excessive over-flow of traffic which would have resulted in traffic tie-ups throughout the city. This change in plans also necessitated the cancellation of the planned use of trees, to be furnished by Saxtons, down the middle of the street.

Wandering minstrels supplied music for the occasion. Playing the accordion were Jack Reudlaff, of 41008 Green-Briar Ln., and Mike Osowski, of Livonia, students of Jerry's Accordion Studio. Winners of the drawing and prizes won are listed below.

Told that there might be a possibility that city fathers would vote funds for a slide, a sandbox and a mountain climber for the play field, the pair had one comment: "Oh boy!" Karen's father, Daniel, seemed in favor of the idea too. Pointing to an area south of his home, Fowler noted that it was largely undeveloped when he and his family moved in. Now the block is filled with homes — homes that are largely filled with children.

At The Joel St. playground behind the Christian Science Church, 10-year-old Kirk Gadebusch of 1211 Sheridan Ave. was poking in Tonguish Creek with a stick. Sure, he said, he'd like to see some stuff to play on put up. As he talked, his brother Peter, 8, and five-year-old Brad Van Newkirk of 1251 Sheridan Ave. walked up. Brad sported a beautiful shiner. "He got hit by a baseball bat," Peter explained. The trio seemed little impressed when they were told that the commission would have to approve the request for playground apparatus. But they all agreed that getting it would be nice.

REQUESTED for the site is a baseball backstop, a basketball backboard and net and a picnic table and waste can. Other areas under consideration for equipment include: Caster and Mill Street—two basketball boards and nets, mountain climber and a sandbox; Burroughs playground: a basketball board, a mountain climber and a swing set; Sutherland playground: a baseball backstop and a basketball net.

Auburn at Junction Street: tetherball and loop-o-ball games and a picnic table and waste can and Elm, between McKinley St. and Sheldon Road: tetherball and loop-o-ball games.

Commissioners will hold the required public hearing on the proposed budget next Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the City Hall.

Heart Attack Puts Garber In Hospital

Former Wayne County Prosecutor Ralph Garber is confined to St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor where he is undergoing a series of tests to determine the seriousness of a heart attack he suffered last week.

Ralph Garber

Garber, of 46225 N. Territorial Road, is a member of the Plymouth Township Board. He will be confined to St. Joseph for several days, according to members of his family.

FIRST TRAINS
On October 24, 1867, the Detroit and Howe Railroad asked to come through Plymouth. The first trains over what is now the Detroit-Grand Rapids Division of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway were run in 1871.

Representatives of Plymouth Heritage Apartments told commissioners they plan to build 128 one-bedroom units and a number of two-bedroom units at the site. The buildings would follow the Plymouth Community's colonial design.

A hearing on the preliminary plat for the Forshew Subdivision, located in the triangle formed by Ann Arbor and Joy Roads, will be held on Wednesday, May 20. The request of Wilfred

Township Planners Get Economic Study

Progress on a preliminary economic study and report, submitted to the Plymouth Township Planning Commission at a special meeting last Wednesday evening in the township hall, was approved and the completed portion of the report was recommended to be formally drawn up.

The economic study is part of an intensive two-year program designed to show virtually every facet of life in the township. Being compiled by township planning consultants Waring and Johnson, the report is financed in part by Federal funds through the State of Michigan.

In other action at the Wednesday meeting, planners accepted for public hearing on June 17 a request to rezone property located on N. Territorial Road, just west of Sheldon Road from R-1-S, suburban residential district, to R-2-A, garden apartments and P-O, professional and office.

DEPARTURE of Fischer and Mrs. Hulsing would deprive the board of two of its most active and articulate members. Mrs. Hulsing has chaired the curriculum review subcommittee, devoted to investigating and recommending changes in school curricula throughout the system.

In addition to his duties as president of the school board, Fischer has headed up the board's highly important finance committee which reviews the school district's monthly budget performance, prepares and recommends upcoming budgets for the year and formulates long-term plans.

He has championed the district's building and site-siting financing program, pointing out that adherence to it has saved Plymouth schools more than $600,000 in interest charges — the cost of a new elementary school.

Deadline for submission of nominating petitions is this Saturday, May 9.

Junior High West News and Notes

By Barbara Boer and Tim Robinson

On Friday, May 8, the seventh graders of Jr. High West will not have school. Their teachers will go to Ann Arbor for a meeting sponsored by the M.E.A. for teachers of the secondary grades.

Machines Built In Plymouth Survive Quake

Machines and electronic systems built at Burroughs Corporation's Plymouth plant were hauled out of the rubble of wrecked buildings in Anchorage, Alaska, after the devastating earthquake and needed only the restoration of power to return to work, it has been reported to corporation headquarters in Detroit.

The first bank computer installation in Alaska, a B251 system at the First National Bank of Anchorage, required only a few seconds to replace a malfunctioning packaged component to function perfectly.

"Friday's business balanced out to the penny," reported William Weeks, bank cashier. Seven other Burroughs machines in the same bank were slammed around the room in the quake but went back into operation as soon as power was turned on.

THE BUILDING occupied by First Federal Savings & Loan was completely destroyed but five Burroughs Sensimatic accounting machines pulled out of the rubble went back to work after a cleaning.

Two cycle billing machines removed from the J. C. Penny store wreckage also were found to be in working condition. At the badly-damaged Bank of Alaska, six Sensimatics checked out showing no damage.

Several Burroughs machines at Valdez and Kodiak were completely destroyed by the tidal wave. Burroughs field engineers flew out to these communities with replacement machines within several days to return record keeping to normal.

On May 8, while the seventh graders are absent, there will be sixth grade orientation meetings in the multi-purpose room. It will acquaint the sixth graders with next year's curriculum. The grade schools are being notified as to when their sixth graders should be here. Transportation will be provided.

The faculty of Jr. High West was very pleased with the turnout at the recent Spring Concert. The band, string group, chorus, and girl's Glee Club each gave a performance at the program.

Sixth grade boys from Jr. High West are welcome to join the boys baseball team as well as the seventh graders. Mr. Drudge supervises the program. It meets on Monday and Thursday.

County's Phoenix Yard Shop Produces All County, Township Road Markers

Ever wonder how those signs that read one speed limit during daylight hours and another at night work? Or where the signs are made? Or who services them?

The answers to all those questions can be found just a short distance north of Plymouth on Northville Road, in an unimposing brick building perched on the hillside across from Phoenix Lake.

That's where a crew of as many as 54 men, including three Plymouthites, work in the Phoenix Yard Sign Shop of the Wayne County Road Commission. The Plymouth Community residents employed at the shop all work on road crews out of the building.

Road. They are part of a production and maintenance of 10,000 road signs yearly, ranging in size from 12 by 18 inches to nine and a half by 26 feet.

In addition the shop is responsible for painting nearly 3,000 miles of center and lane line markers on state and county highways.

The Shop services an area of 722 square miles, produces and maintains all Wayne County road signs, some signs for the State and signs and markers for 12 townships including Plymouth.

In a joint interview last week, Highway District Supervisor Walter Doktor and Sign Shop Supervisor Russell Nixon, both of Livonia, outlined some of the work the shop performs.

THEY INCLUDE Lee Sowle of 258 Joy in Plymouth, Vincent Simonetti of 9210 Ball and Grover Place of 42000 Joy

ORDERS for one or two signs of a kind are hand painted at the shop. Here, painter Jerome Yelinek of Livonia hand letters a sign. Yelinek said he can finish a sign with 6-inch letters in about 15 minutes.

HOLDING a sheet of reflectorized stock used to produce speed limit markers is sign shop employee Edward Mosher of Dearborn Heights. Mosher is preparing to place the sheet in the silk screen machine for printing.

WITH THE material in the machine, Mosher moves the paint applying mechanism across the surface. The silk screening process has replaced the time-consuming, laborious process of painting the signs by hand.

MOSHER'S co-worker, Salvadore Ienna of Dearborn Heights removes the finished product from the machine. Working at top speed, the two men can produce as many as 100 speed limit signs in a half-hour period of time.

into consideration that signs are more than signs," he commented. "They must conform to statutes and laws and are erected for the protection of both drivers and vehicles."

Before a sign can be put up, he said, it must receive approval from the State Police Commissioner, the traffic engineer of the community in which it will be placed, the local law enforcement agency and the traffic engineer of the State Highway Department.

AS A PRIME example, Doktor pointed to a battered Stop sign in the community in which it will be placed, the local law enforcement agency and the traffic engineer of the State Highway Department.

The nighttime speed limit is painted on in white paint, Nixon explained, which appears black against the reflectorized material when a headlight beam hits it at night.

Most of the department's signs are produced by the silk screen process which has largely replaced hand painting. Others are turned out by sealing reflectorized "Scotchlite" material onto a wood or aluminum backing.

Special requests for one or two signs are filled by hand painting, he said. On the main floor of the building, men work on production of silk screen and "Scotchlite" signs.

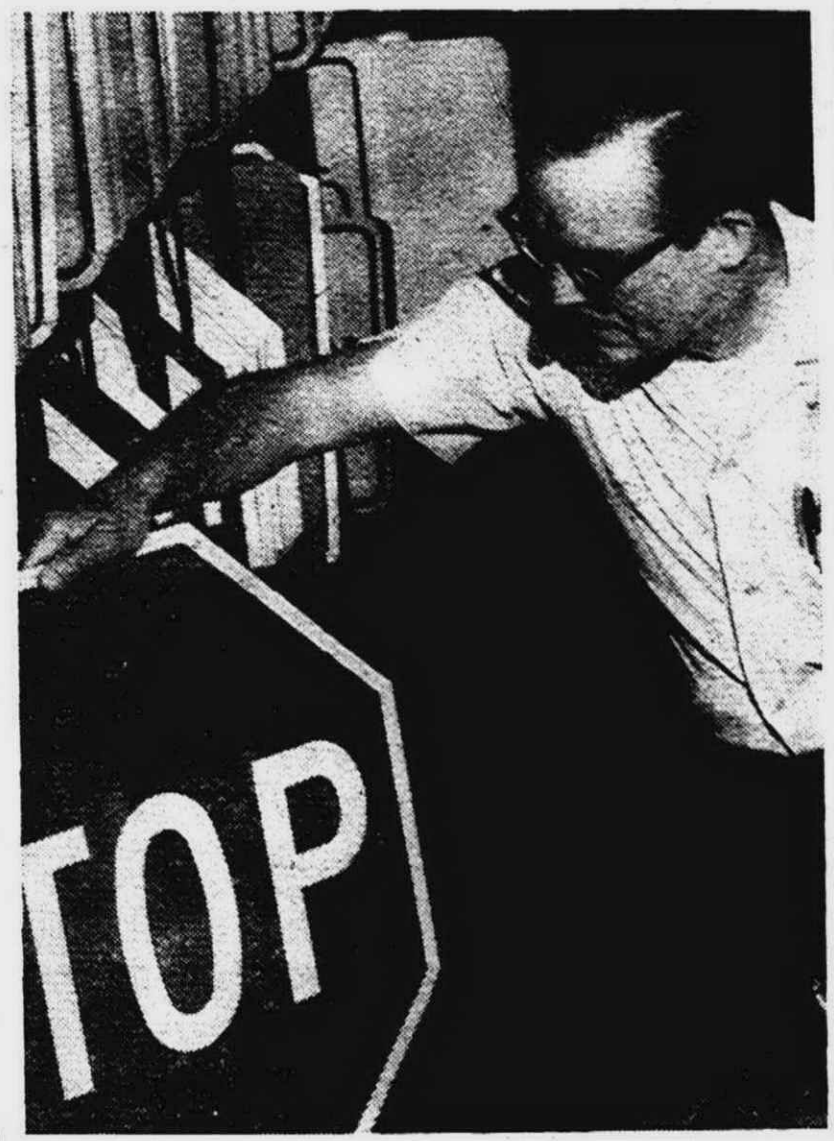

THE LOWER level of the shop includes a spray paint shop where sign material is primer coated. The primer is sprayed and baked on to the aluminum sign material. "Scotchlite" signs are sealed with a special, sprayed-on clear coating. Varnish or lacquer, Nixon explained, would kill the light reflecting qualities of the "Scotchlite."

The reflectorized material is applied to wooden or aluminum backing by a special machine using both pressure and heat.

They will be cheaper than the older, rubber type

At present, shop employees are working on a scale model of the largest sign they have ever been called upon to produce. Measuring 20 by 40 feet, the huge sign is expected to be erected adjacent to Detroit Metropolitan Airport. It will announce expansion of terminal facilities at the site.

But its large size doesn't seem to faze Nixon and his crew. They're just waiting for approval from road commissioners so they can get started.

SIGN SHOP supervisor Russell Nixon looks at one of the hundreds of sign types kept in stock at the Phoenix Yard Sign Shop of the Wayne County Road Commission. The shop is located on Northville Road, across from Phoenix Lake.

Two Killed in Friday Accident

Two Plymouth workers were killed and another injured in an automobile accident, Friday evening, west of Clinton on U.S. 12.

Dead on arrival at Herrick Memorial Hospital were Ferris Leon Owens, 23, of Nankin Township and Charles Harold Upchurch, 21, of Plymouth, according to State Police. Owens worked for EZ Sew Enterprises and Upchurch worked at Bathey Manufacturing.

School Census Starts May 9

School census takers will begin operations in Plymouth May 9 through May 31 to collect data on all children under 20 years old.

The purpose of the state school census is to determine the number of children in each age group, from birth to twenty years of age. Results will be used as an index to the possible service to be given by the schools and the extent of the requirements under compulsory education laws. The results of the census will also be used in planning physical, instructional and financial needs.

Census enumerators will be Mrs. Elmira Banta, Mrs. Esther Foreman, Mrs. Olive Olson, Miss Pauline Pomeroy, Miss Joyce Rafe, Mrs. Esther Sprengel and Mrs. Dorothy Widmaier.

In fair condition with two broken legs at Ridgewood Hospital, Ypsilanti, is Eugene Labombarber, 25, of Inkster. He was treated at Herrick and then transferred to Ridgewood. Labombarber is employed at EZ Sew.

The accident occurred about 6:22 p.m. about 18 miles from Tecumseh, in the Irish Hills area. The car, apparently going at a high rate of speed and heading west, failed to make a curve, knocked down four guard posts and wrapped itself around a tree, police said.

Owens body has been taken to Troy, Tenn., and Upchurch's body was transferred to Rutherford, Tenn.

Local Author Seeks Publisher

A Plymouth mother of three children has authored two children's stories and is writing a third. Mrs. Glenn Aldrich, of Irvin St., presently is trying to find a publisher for her books.

A sister of Mrs. Aldrich, who teaches in Arkansas, first encouraged her to write children's stories, she said. Her latest story, "The Birthday Gift," with illustrations by Mrs. Roy Bennett, of Irvin St., has been read in several elementary school classes at Starkweather School. Mrs. Aldrich says it is available for others to read.

"Selfish Little Robin," her first story, was read to elementary school children who enjoyed it, according to Mrs. Aldrich, but the children wanted pictures to go with the story. Mrs. Bennett, the mother of four children, now does the illustrations for the stories.

The ideas for the stories come from the family's home life and each is supposed to have a moral to teach her children a lesson. Mrs. Aldrich explained. The stories are written for children in the kindergarten through fourth grade, she says.

Mrs. Aldrich and Mrs. Bennett are presently working on a third story, "The Little Rose that Cried."

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

MEASURING flour to make "shortbread," a traditional Scottish recipe, is Mrs. Glenn Kennedy, 680 Provincetown Ln., a native of Scotland.

A traditional Scottish recipe for shortbread is given to The Plymouth Mail this week, by guest cook Mrs. Glenn Kennedy, 680 Provincetown Ln.

Mrs. Kennedy is a native of Scotland and two of her sisters still live there. The Kennedys moved to Plymouth about six months ago from Wayne.

Retaining her Scottish heritage, the Kennedys' daughter, Jacqueline, takes Scottish dancing lessons and competes in competition throughout the United States and Canada dancing the Highland Fling, the Seann Triubhas, Sailors' Hornpipe, Sword Dance and Irish Jig. Mrs. Kennedy drives her daughter into Detroit weekly for lessons.

Knitting is one of Mrs. Kennedy's hobbies. She explained that she was taught to knit in school in Scotland, adding that Scottish people wear heavy handknit sweaters a lot, because their climate is colder than Plymouth's.

The Kennedys are active in a British-American Club.

Delta Gammas to Meet in Farmington

The last business meeting of the year of the Farmington Alumnae Association of Delta Gamma will be held at the home of Mrs. Orr Opt' Holt, in Farmington, on May 11, at 8 p.m.

The group will be making pictures of the alphabet (capital and lower case letters) and the numerals 0 through 9 by gluing yarn to paper. These pages will be placed in a Thermoform machine which will imprint these letters) and the numerals 0 sheets, making an embossed effect, so that the blind children at Adams School in Livonia may feel them and therefore learn how to write the alphabet.

During the month of March the Delta Gamma's raised $150 by giving small benefit parties in their homes. This money is going to be used to buy play equipment for the blind children at the Plymouth State Home and Training School.

The Annual June picnic of the Farmington D.G.'s and their husbands will be held on Sunday afternoon, June 7 at 5 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard A. Boysen, Livonia. The picnic will be catered again this year which insures good eating, but no great preparation or tiresome clean-up work.

Banker Marvin Criger has been especially efficient at balancing bank balances for many years but as for balancing a bicycle he's not so good. Proving our point is the fact that he is presently supporting a double arm fracture resulting from his inefficiency in this particular sport.

City manager Al Glassford is asking the City Commission for a measly $1,600 to purchase some badly needed playground equipment for our summer playgrounds.

A tour of some of these areas would indicate that if we are to provide badly needed equipment for our kiddies this summer this amount seems hardly enough.

One of the finest and safest services a community can provide for its youth is a well rounded summer playground program and, of course, this can't be done properly unless adequate equipment is available on these lots for the children to use.

It is our opinion that this request in the budget is a most necessary one and we hope our City fathers will promptly approve the same.

Plymouth was well represented at the Kentucky Derby last Friday. The three Rucker families of Jay, Bill and Joe were holding forth at their own Triple-R Farm where Derby week is a regular ritual with these horse lovers down in the Blue Grass State.

Betty Korte and our daughter also attended by joining the special C. & O. train which left Plymouth late Friday evening and returned here Sunday morning.

Interesting, if you are thinking about one of these excursions, is the fact that according to these two, the trip and arrangements were perfectly delightful and a very thrilling experience.

They told me the grounds were particularly beautiful and in reading a little booklet they brought home I learned that Churchill Downs operates five greenhouses and grows some 75,000 plants each year which are used for ground beautification.

Interesting, too, was the fact that the only hawkers covering the club house on Derby Day offered for sale only three items, balloons, popcorn and delicious Mint Juleps at a $1.25 which entitled you to also keep the very decorative Kentucky Derby Glass in which they were served.

My weekend reading included a most interesting story in the current McCall's magazine about Abandoned Children. Some of the facts revealed were startling, such as, "about three out of four white children abandoned eventually found homes but that only one out of every 20 Negro children were as fortunate."

Presently there are about a quarter of a million of these abandoned children in this country and the thought came to me that this might be an area for consideration by our Human Rights bodies where some unfortunate child might be favored with a badly needed home.

The opening of our new discount center on Forest avenue gave our business community a great shot-in-the-arm last weekend. Reports from most segments of our shopping area indicated that traffic increased greatly in their stores and that cash registers were ringing-up many extra dollars due to the drawing power of this new business asset. Anything that we can do to bring more people to Plymouth or keep our own shoppers home is bound to benefit our total business community.

Working in Grand Rapids is my friend and our local mortician Edwin A. Schrader who is being honored by being elevated to the presidency of the Michigan Funeral Directors Association in convention there this week.

Reader Lauds Junior High's L. Livingston

Dear Editor,

I just attended the "Spring Music Festival" put on at the Jr. High West, featuring the 7th grade Glee Club, Mixed Chorus, Strings and 7th Grade Band. I am really thrilled with the progress our children have made and the quality of music they played. In particular, the band. I am proud to have a child in the Jr. High Band and under the leadership of Mr. Laurence Livingston.

Plymouth should be very proud indeed to have such a teacher in our school. We are indebted to this man and should do all we can to keep him as our Jr. High Band Director. On the whole, Plymouth has a wonderful group of teachers and we are proud of all of them.

Under Mr. Livingston's leadership, these children have grown both in knowledge, capability and performance. They must be very proud to have him as an instructor, as he must be proud of their performance tonight.

We need more teachers, such as he, in our schools.

Sincerely,
Grace Brazeale

Plymouthites Should Do Something

Speaking at the fifth annual Ford Motor Company Community Service Awards Dinner Thursday evening at which four Plymouthites received good citizen plaques was Gerald R. Ford, of Grand Rapids, Michigan's Fifth Congressional District Representative.

Ford, a Republican, said some things worthy of notice here in Plymouth because his words were meant for people at the local level to hear and, hopefully, heed.

Decrying the results of a professional preference survey taken among young people, the Representative noted that last on a lengthy list of occupational preferences was the profession of politician. Politics, and politicians, he said, put the breath of life and the blood into an otherwise dead Constitution.

That Constitution, drafted in Philadelphia years ago, laid out responsibilities for state and local governmental units to the exclusion of the Federal Government, Ford said. He reiterated most of the traditional arguments against a large, unwieldy Federal bureaucracy and concluded by noting:

"A government big enough to give us everything we want, is big enough to take everything we have away." Earlier he had said:

"If the politics you read about are not to your liking, it's up to you to do something about it." Particularly pertinent to the Plymouth Community are Ford's remarks about doing something about it.

By the end of last week, with seven days remaining until deadline time, only one petition for school board candidacy had been taken out. Apparently few persons had, at that time, felt compelled "to do something about it." The Plymouth Mail firmly believes it's high time more persons at the city and township and county and state levels displayed interest in local political workings.

We grow increasingly weary of persons who grouse about big government and, almost simultaneously, disclaim any personal responsibility at the local level. For, unless hometown residents find time to devote to political activity, they have no one to blame but themselves if the Federal Government pre-empt the local unit and inserts itself further into the picture.

We hope this week brings some qualified candidates into the Plymouth Community School Board picture. We want to see Plymouthites "do something about it."

Wondering About "Wonderlust"

A letter was sent home recently with students from one of the Plymouth Community School District's elementary schools urging parents to keep an eye on their small fry since spring has arrived and "wonderlust" was afflicting the kids.

The note was apparently prompted by the temporary disappearance of a youngster who strayed from his appointed course lured by balmy temperatures and other factors that promote the far away look typical of the spring fever syndrome.

Michigan State Police this week issued a warning about child molesters whose activities seem to take a perennial upswing about this time of year and they, too, entreated the elder generation to stay alert to the whereabouts of their offspring.

All of which we wholeheartedly endorse. Loss of the bright presence of childhood in a home is a tragic and unwarranted price to pay for neglect.

We ask all Plymouth Community parents to see to it that they know where their children are, and when. And, in a less serious vein, we hope junior doesn't combine "wonderlust" with the elementary school's "wonderlust."

The combination could be thoroughly disconcerting.

Business Briefs

EARNINGS INCREASE

An increase of more than 17% in earnings for the first quarter of 1964 over the same period in 1963 by Associated Spring Corporation, has been reported by Lester Johns, general manager of the B-G-R division of the corporation. Net income per share for the quarter was 54 cents compared with 46 cents for the first quarter last year. A slight decline in sales volume was also noted.

The Plymouth Plant, on Plymouth Rd., is the headquarters of the B-G-R division; another plant in the division is located in Ann Arbor. Springs for the automotive industry are the primary product of the Plymouth plant.

INCOME, SALES UP

Net income from the Gaylord Container Division of Crown Zellerbach Corporation increased 9% for the first quarter of 1964 over that for the first quarter of 1963, reported by Joseph Tarantino, resident manager of the Plymouth division said. The net income of the parent company increased 33% for the first quarter compared with the 1963 period.

Earnings, second highest in company history for the period, were 71 cents a share compared with 53 cents a share for the first three months of 1963. Sales volume increased 8% above the 1963 period and reached a new first quarter record at $155,810,000.

Gaylord Container Division makes corrugated shipping containers for such diversified products as produce, automobile parts and furniture.

FORD INCOME UP 19%

Ford Motor Company's consolidated net income for the first quarter of 1964 increased 19% over that for the first quarter of 1963, Henry Ford II, chairman of the board and Arjay Miller, president, announced recently.

The increase was attributed largely to higher sales volume. Consolidated sales volume, from the United States plants and foreign subsidiaries, for the first quarter reached $2,415,600,000 for more than one million units including 5,458 Mustangs produced in March; this is 15% higher than for the first quarter of 1963.

Plans for the Farrand Flower and Ice Cream Festival are really moving along with Mrs. Floyd Peterson, Mrs. Donald Dugger, Mrs. John Stevens, and Mrs. Thomas Lembic working on the committee for the ice cream social which will be held on Friday evening, the twenty-second from 6:30-9:30. A cake sale has just been added as an extra attraction on Saturday morning, from ten to twelve. Mrs. Warren Dusibier and Mrs. Robert Hudson are working on the flower part of the festival which will also be on Friday and all day Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Mrs. Dusibier tells me that the lowers this year will be particularly nice and very reasonably priced with especially good buys on geraniums. Mrs. Charles Childs has the job of being in charge of the clean-up committee. All the chairmen are very grateful to all the people who have signed up to help.

Bowling stars in the Lake Pointe league this past week are Terry Pardikes who had a high singles score of 189, and Vernon Tietz whose high singles score was 210. In the high series Jackie Weirshemer took first place among the women with 453 and Bud Molnar was first among the men with 557. The bowlers will also be having a party to wind up their year this weekend at Lofys.

Rock Nine Struggles To 14-Inning Deadlock

Following a 5-4 defeat at the hands of Allen Park Tuesday, Plymouth's varsity nine kept the diamond occupied for more than four hours Friday as they struggled to a 14-inning 5-5 deadlock with visiting Redford Union. The game was called because of darkness.

start in the opening frame, R.U. knocked Rock starter Fred Higgs out and saw reliever John Daniel load the bases with a walk and give up a double that scored all three runners.

Scoring for Plymouth began in the fifth when the Rocks racked up four runs. It all started when Terry Clark walked. Gotro was safe on an error with one out and Dick Egloff doubled home a run and put runners on second and third with one down.

Rocks Tuesday as Allen Park scored five unearned runs on seven hits and one error to down Plymouth whose four runs came on five hits.

AN ERROR in the fifth and three more tallies for the visiting team. Inability of key players to come through in the clutch hurt the Rocks more than anything else. With a runner on third in the first, both Egloff and Luibrand went down swinging and then repeated their performances in the third inning with runners on second and third.

The Rocks committed three errors and three of their four runs were unearned. Troutman started for Plymouth, pitched four good innings, and gave way to relief hurler John Daniel in the fifth. Daniel was charged with the loss.

The Allen Park pitcher struck out 14 Plymouth batters. The Rocks got one of their runs in the third, two in the fourth and one in the seventh. Plymouth journeyed to Bentley for a game on Monday and will host Belleville Thursday.

Daniel lasted until the fifth when he gave up one run on two hits and a sacrifice. In the sixth, Dave Troutman came on and pitched six hit ball for nine innings until darkness finished the game.

Kuziel went out to the pitcher, and Kai Luibrand pounced on a double that scored two. Luibrand was trapped off base when Daniel hit to the short stop and Terry Cosgrove scored during the run-down.

R.U.'S ONLY run against Troutman came in the ninth as a walk, a fielder's choice, a sacrifice and a squeeze-play bunt forced the tally across. A threat was posed in the 14th, when Redford singled to center with a man on second, but the relay from Daniel to Bob Gotro and Gotro's bullet to Hal Kuziel at the plate nailed the runner as he tried to score.

LAST TALLY for the Rocks came when Kuziel was hit by a pitched ball in the ninth and, with two out, Luibrand hammered out his second double of the day to tie the score at 5-5.

Error - it is infected the another.
