Where Did He Spend 14 Hours Before Vicious Killing?

Police Trace Activities Of Murdered Gary Smock

SMART MARCHING Plymouth VFW Mayflower Post 6695 color guard showed off their new uniforms for the first time as they led the procession past Kellogg Park.

COLOR GUARD of American Legion Passage-Gayde Post added color to the parade as the Legionnaires and members of the Auxiliary joined in carrying the various flags.

Where was Livonia church leader and Plymouth school-teacher Gary Smock, of 485 Ann. Plymouth, during the period from Friday at 6 p.m. until the time of his murder estimated by police as 8 a.m. Saturday?

Was he being held by the person or persons who killed him and forced to drive around Kalamazoo streets?

Did he pick up one or two hitchhikers who later shot him through the back of the head after trussing him in ropes and then placing the body in the trunk of his late-model car?

State Police and officers of Calhoun County are seeking the answers to these questions. They believe they'll be able to trace down the murderer or murderers when they have the answers.

They are also checking the record of the science and mathematics teacher at Plymouth's Junior High West to learn if he had ever been involved in anything that would have resulted in an arrest.

While police in Plymouth, Battle Creek and Kalamazoo are working on the bizarre case of the slaying of the meek, church-loving, home-loving teacher, his family was going ahead with burial plans.

The body was removed to the Schrader Funeral Home in Plymouth. Services were conducted Wednesday afternoon in

Jaycees Get Permission To Use Industrial Park

After considerable search with disappointing results, the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce has finally found a spot to hold the annual Fourth of July celebration — in the City's Industrial Park on Plymouth Road.

A delegation from the Jaycees, headed by President Wendell Smith and President-elect Joseph Fletcher, Monday made application for use of the site and quickly received an affirmative answer from the City Commission.

Earlier the Jaycees had tentatively rejected the site as too small. But then they discovered that Burroughs, Evans and the Plymouth Community school system didn't want a carnival on their grounds. Thus, the only alternative was to use the Industrial Park even though it is a very temporary site and probably won't be available come another year. The Jaycees were looking for a site that could be used annually, just as the one on S. Mill Street had been available for so many years. The idea was to get Plymouthites adjusted to going to one place and thus build up patronage.

Now the only thing solved is that the Jaycees have a site this year and will have to start looking around almost at once for some place to go in another year.

The Commission gave the Jaycees permission to use the Industrial Park for the period from Wednesday, July 1 through Saturday, July 4, after receiving a promise of adequate police protection and a guarantee of a cleanup the day after the carnival leaves.

The Plymouth Observer, through a communication from Publisher Paul Chandler, informed the Commission that it had met all legal requirements and is soliciting consideration for using it as a medium for publication of legal advertisements and other notices coming from the City Hall.

Commissioner Robert Smith made a motion that the matter be tabled until a committee of the whole meeting next Monday when the Commission will hear from both the Plymouth Observer and the Plymouth Mail representatives. It passed by a unanimous vote.

The letter from Chandler follows:

"This is to solicit your consideration for using the Plymouth Observer as a medium for publication for legal advertisements and other notices where you wish to have information conveyed to a maximum number of citizens quickly and economically.

The Observer is now qualified legally in every respect to publish such notices and advertisements. Our newspaper

3,000 View Memorial Day Parade

Plymouth's veterans of the wars didn't forget their mates who fell in battle — they were out in large numbers for the largest Memorial Day parade in several years that attracted more than 3,000 along the line of march.

The weather was perfect, the bands were in line form, the marchers were ready and everything went off as scheduled almost to the minute as Plymouth paid tribute to its war heroes.

The day's activities started early in the morning at 9:30 in the traditional memorial services at the bridge where the Navy Mothers Club of Plymouth #381 honored its dead sons.

It was assisted by the VFW Mayflower Post 6695 color guard and state championship drill team along with the VFW Auxiliary and members of the American Legion and its Auxiliary.

Commander Leona Schomberger opened the program with an introduction by Rev. Baylis who gave a short prayer. Erma McLean presented a reading and Mrs. Alma Bridge read the names of boys who have passed on.

Mrs. Rebecca Erdelyi and Mrs. Joan Sackett cast wreaths into the water from the bridge followed by a salvo of three shots from the VFW Drill team firing squad.

Bugler Harry Krumm played taps to close the ceremony. Then all marched to the start of the procession through the downtown business section with the line of march forming at Theodore and Main Streets.

It was a colorful parade led by Plymouth's three survivors of the Spanish-American War, H. M. Dobson, C. Herbert Goyer and Thomas Gray followed by Grand Marshal James McKindies accompanied by the principal speaker, Carl Cederberg, prominent Detroit newscaster.

Three carloads of World War I veterans followed and then came the Mayflower Post color guard, nattily attired in brand new uniforms, the VFW drill team and the smart-marching

Hulsing, Fischer Favored to Keep Posts In Election

With an anticipated turnout of less than 10 per cent of the more than 10,000 registered electors in the school district, Plymouth Community voters will go to the polls Monday to elect two members of the Board of Education.

Ask OK for College Bond Sale

Voters in the Schoolcraft College district, which includes Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Clarenceville and Northville, will be asked to approve a bonding proposal giving the Board of Trustees authority to sell an additional $1,250,000 in bonds.

The proposition will be on the ballot with the school board election Monday and is one of the most important issues proposed by the College Board to date.

The proposal will not increase the present tax levy of one mill by as much as one penny.

It merely gives the Board an opportunity to seek matching funds from the state and federal governments to finance construction and to speed up the building of the new campus at the intersection of Haggerty and Seven Mile Roads.

When the College was organized in 1961, the state-equalized valuation of the district was close to $500 million. The present state-equalized valuation is $600 million.

This gain in valuation came through the addition of Northville School District and because of the natural economic growth within the district.

Because of this increase, the one-mill tax which brought in approximately $500,000 in taxes originally now yields $600,000. When the original bond issue of $2,435,000 was passed, $250,000 or one-half mill, whichever was smaller, was projected to repay the bond issue.

But at the moment, a half mill brings in $300,000, a difference of $50,000 annually which might be used for the financing of additional funds. It is the use of these funds

Judging from the interest shown to date—only three filed—incumbents President Gerald Fischer and Secretary Esther Hulsing are expected to be re-elected for four-year terms.

The third candidate, Mrs. Dorothy Smith, 1158 S. Main, is a newcomer to politics and, barring an unprecedented upset, isn't expected to press either of the incumbents.

Mrs. Hulsing, who resides at 1010 Church Street, with her husband, Kenneth, is seeking her fourth consecutive term. She has served two three-year stints and one of four for 10 years, making her the dean of the Board.

During her long years of service, Mrs. Hulsing has twice been vice president, one year treasurer and is ending four consecutive years as secretary.

She is the mother of three daughters, all of whom attended Plymouth Schools and were graduated from Plymouth High School.

The trio includes: Mrs. William Johnson of Newton Center, Mass.; Susan, a June graduate of Wellesley; and Mary, a sophomore at the same college.

She has resided in Plymouth for 22 years and has been a leader in bettering the curriculum, vocational education programs and in the building and site-fund type

FACTS and OPINIONS

by Paul Chandler

It will come as a surprise to many Plymouth school voters Monday when they encounter a proposal for enlarged borrowing power for the new Schoolcraft Community College district.

The proposal has been discussed in The Observer several times, but it just hasn't picked up much public notice.

New matching funds recently have been made available from Lansing and Washington, a sort of windfall for our local college, and the Schoolcraft Board and Staff has been on its toes and has moved quickly to take advantage of the funds.

No increase in millage is sought, or involved. Taxes will NOT change if the borrowing authority is granted Monday.

"YES" is the correct vote on the college proposal. And the usual warning to Plymouth voters. School elections here in the past have been "stolen" by small organized groups who maneuvered while regular independent voters stayed at home.

Vote Monday! Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

When the handsome, imposing new City Hall ceremonies were held in Plymouth last week, the thought crossed the mind during one of the speeches that the Councilmen of Livonia and the Trustees of Redford, not to mention the Mayor and Supervisor, should have been required to be present in the audience.

Now HERE is a City Hall! It is large, substantial, awe-inspiring . . . rising above all other architecture in the City of Plymouth, save for some of the schools and churches . . . a central place of attention and the seat of authority in a cohesive community.

It would have been right for the decision makers of neighboring Livonia and Redford Township to be forced to compare the image in their minds with the "dwarf, rectangular little boxes" which represent the breadth and height of government buildings in these communities. It is possible to drive past the "civic centers" and never realize you've even done it.

The point here is the great importance of that mysterious, spiritual thing known as "community pride" and the relative lack of consequence of spending extra dollars to do a job right, rather than doing it halfway, or almost-all-the-way-but-not-quite.

We would summon the thought that it is the ultimate responsibility of the officials in the suburbs (and particularly is this addressed to Livonia; it's probably too late in filled-in Redford) to BUILD COMMUNITIES, places which will last and be judged for generations

Plymouth Area Moves to New State House District

The redistricting plans approved by the Supreme Court for new State Senate and new State House districts in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties will have quite an impact on Plymouth and surrounding sections.

For the first time in history, Plymouth will not vote for the same candidate for State Representative as does Livonia and Redford Township.

Thus, Rep. Paul Chandler, publisher of the Observer Newspapers, who now serves in the state legislature for the three areas, will run in Livonia only.

The Supreme Court-approved districting plan has Livonia and Redford Township as separate districts, each electing its own representative.

Plymouth has moved into a new 108th district that includes: Plymouth and Belleville, that part of Northville within Wayne County and the townships of Northville, Plymouth, Canton, Van Buren, Sumpter, Huron and Romulus.

The new district for State Senate finds Plymouth in the 29th senatorial district including: Cities of Livonia, Plymouth, Wayne and Belleville, and that part of Northville lying in Wayne County, and the townships of Redford, Northville, Plymouth, Canton, Nankin (including part of the village of Inkster), Van Buren and Sumpter.

Thus when election time rolls around next fall, Rep. Chandler will be running for office in the 100th district—Livonia.

Open for grabs are the representative posts in the 99th district—Redford Township and the 108th as listed above.

The 108th district places Plymouth in an area where the Republican-strong community will have to buck predominantly Democratic areas. Especially is this true of Belleville, Nankin Township, Sumpter, Van Buren and Romulus.

Although it is a bit early to make predictions since the Supreme Court decision was made late last week, it is believed that Plymouth City Commissioner Archie Vallier, who is also the city's supervisor on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, may seek election as state representative.

It is known that Vallier has expressed this opinion more than once in the past two years and that he has ambitions of becoming a state representative.

However, he wouldn't run against Chandler. Now that the door is wide open, it is thought he will be one of the first to file.

Police Action Averts Riot As Man Fires Into Picnickers

Quick work by troopers from the Redford State Police Post and the Plymouth Police Department averted a possible riot in Hines Park Saturday night near the intersection of Hines and Haggerty Roads.

Arrested and facing a charge of assault with intent to kill are: William H. McIntosh, 25, of 41830 Five Mile Road, Plymouth, and Marion D. Young, 22, 30651 Hazelwood, Wayne.

An 18-year-old Plymouth girl, who accompanied the pair when they fired shotgun blasts into a crowded picnic area, was held as a material witness but not charged.

McIntosh and Young, who reportedly were involved in a drinking spree, went to the picnic area early in the afternoon and ordered the picnickers to leave with threats of coming back armed.

State Police troopers believe the trio went back to their drinking spot and then returned in a small truck in early evening.

McIntosh, wielding a shotgun, threatened the picnickers a second time, according to police reports, and then fired several blasts of pellets into the crowd, wounding three persons.

Troopers, ordered into the area by Capt. Fred Davids, district State Police head who works out of the Redford Post, because of the earlier threats were on the scene within minutes.

The truck, carrying the trio was halted a short distance away for a traffic violation and about the same time troopers and Plymouth Police arrived to make the arrest.

The trio was taken to the Plymouth Police Station and held until Monday morning for investigation.

Then on the recommendation of Assistant Prosecutor John Mowatt, the troopers filed charges of assault with intent to kill.

McIntosh, a parolee from Jackson prison according to state police who has a lengthy police record, was ordered held without bond when arraigned before the Justice of the Peace Ralph Foote in Canton Township.

Young, who also has a lengthy record of minor offenses according to state police, was ordered held on $1,000 bond.

"We won't condone any violence in the park system," said Capt. Davids. "We have ordered our men to make arrests immediately and the same orders have been issued by Sheriff Peter Buback to the Road Patrol.

"This could have been a bad situation but fortunately we were able to get it under control quickly. However, we wish to warn all that any such harassment and threats to picnickers will meet with severe action.

"The mere fact that we have charged these men with assault with intent to kill is some indication of how we regard this incident. The State Police and other policing units have orders to crack down and that's what we intend to do."

Franklin High Passes Out Honors

Introduction of Valedictorian George Lahti and Salutatorian Sheryl Soroka climaxed the presentation of academic honors at the Second Annual Honors Convocation at Franklin High School last Wednesday, May 27. Assistant Superintendent Rolland H. Upton announced this pair of top-rated students, following the granting of department awards for academic achievement.

Both George and Sheryl will attend Michigan State University next year, where he will pursue the study of electrical engineering and she will start to prepare for a career in secondary education. Each is a scholarship winner. George's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lahti, of 9091 Danzig Avenue; Sheryl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Soroka, of 30565 Westfield Avenue.

Department chairmen presented other academic honors to students whose classroom records have been extremely outstanding. Rosedale Presbyterian Church Of Livonia Holds Dedication

Honored Guests Lead Services During Week

Rev. Dr. Richard C. Dunkelberger, senior pastor of Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church announces a full week of Dedication Services denoting the completion of their new facilities beginning Wednesday, June 3. The public is welcome to share in the dedication services planned.

Friday, June 5, 8:00 p.m. SERVICE OF DEDICATION OF THE ORGAN

The church is proud to have Mr. Gordon Young as guest organist and conductor for this evening's service. Mr. Young is well known to Presbyterians as the Director of Music at First Presbyterian Church in Detroit. In addition he is generally recognized as one of the most brilliant organist-choirmasters of our time. He has nearly 100 published works to his credit. His anthems and organ works are performed weekly in churches from coast to coast and his name is known and respected wherever fine church music is admired. At the service of dedication he will play a recital which includes several of his own compositions. There will also be three anthems composed and conducted by Mr. Young and sung by the Adult Choir of the church. Participating as a guest pastor from a sister church in this service will be the Rev. William Whitledge, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia.

Saturday, June 6, 2 to 4 p.m. COMMUNITY OPEN HOUSE

At this Open House Mr. James Marshall will again be at the organ with charter members on hand to greet all visitors.

Sunday, June 7, 4 p.m. A SERVICE OF DEDICATION OF THE NEW SANCTUARY

The guests for this service will include: The Rev. Dr. Wanner H. Brunelle, Moderator of the Presbyterian Synod of Michigan and Pastor of the Allen Park Presbyterian Church in Allen Park; The Rev. Walter J. Teeuwissen, Jr., Moderator of the Presbytery of Detroit and Pastor of Drayton Plains Community Church in Drayton Plains, Mich.; The Rev. Dr. Henry J. Walch, Pastor of Plymouth Presbyterian Church in Plymouth, Mich.; Mr. Earl Confer, architect and designer of Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church; and The Hon. Harvey Moelke, Mayor of the City of Livonia.

Rosedale Gardens United Presbyterian Church began in 1928 with 18 charter members and a sanctuary that would seat 200 people. Through the years as the congregation began to grow the old sanctuary could not provide adequate seating for all the worshippers. In 1963 contracts were signed for a new building, consisting of a new sanctuary with seating for over 600 and a fellowship hall and kitchen. Ground was broken for the new building on Palm Sunday, April 7, 1963, and construction began the next day. Now a year later the congregation of 1,531 members is pleased to announce the completion of their facilities.

Wednesday, June 3, 7:30 p.m. COMMUNION SERVICE

At this special service 40 youths of the present Catechism Class will be received into the membership of the church. The guest speaker for the evening will be the Rev. Robert D. Swanson, D.D., president of Alma College, the Presbyterian College in the State of Michigan. Dr. Swanson was born in Sioux City, Iowa. He graduated from Park College, Parkville, Mo., with a Bachelor of Arts degree in History in 1937. After study at the University of Iowa, he returned to Park College as Director of Physical Education for one year. In 1941, he graduated from McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago, and in 1950 received the Doctor of Divinity degree from James Milliken University. Following his graduation from McCormick Seminary, Dr. Swanson became pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Tulsa, Okla., distinguishing himself there as an outstanding minister. Dr. Swanson served as a Chaplain in the Pacific Theater in the United States Navy during World War II. In 1946, he became Dean of Students and Assistant Professor of Homiletics at McCormick Theological Seminary. In 1949, he was elected Vice President. It was from this latter post that he came to Alma College as President on Sept. 1, 1956. Also as a guest for this evening will be the Rev. Thomas Kirkman, Pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Royal Oak, Mich.

Thursday, June 4, 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. COMMUNITY OPEN HOUSE

All members, friends and people of the community are invited to attend this Open House, to take a close look at the new facilities. This will also be an opportunity to hear the new Rodgers Organ. This is a three-manual electronic organ with unusually fine tone and a great variety of stops. So that all will have an opportunity to hear the organ played in an informal atmosphere, James Marshall will be demonstrating the various stops and families of sound that this organ can produce. All are encouraged to go into the chancel to see the console during the open house. An informal tea will also be held with charter members present to welcome visitors.

TRINITY CHURCH of the Brethren, when a new building program is completed, will soon take on this appearance.

Trinity Church Expands Redford Twp. Building

Members of Trinity Church of the Brethren, 27350 West Chicago at Inkster Road, in Redford Township, have decided to construct additional church facilities on the present site to better serve the community and the congregation. The new construction will consist of a permanent sanctuary and will permit the present sanctuary to serve as Sunday School classrooms.

The congregation has experienced exceptional growth in the past three years and is in urgent need of additional facilities to adequately serve its membership. The congregation, which was organized in early 1951, proposes to offer church building bonds in the total sum of $135,000 to members and friends to finance the new construction required. A Bond Subscription Committee, with Mr. Dennis Butler, 9547 Crosley Avenue, as Chairman of the laymen, is now offering these 6% Interest Bonds for investment.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following: "To grasp the reality and order of being in its Science, you must begin by reckoning God as the divine Principle of all that really is" (p. 275).

To Women It May Concern

By MYBA COX

There are four women I know who could get together for lunch and never run out of conversation. I doubt if they even know each other very well—but it wouldn't take an introduction to keep their conversation going—they would talk school business.

Three are incumbents running for election in separate districts and the fourth—out of the same ilk—is not up for re-election. She is Anna-Marie Vollick, of Redford U. District.

The other three are Esther Hulsing, who has served for 10 years on the Plymouth Board of Education; Streisa Schreiber, serving her second term on the Livonia Board of Education; and Jeanne Leonard, running for the first time—having filled a vacancy by appointment by the Board of Education in South Redford Township.

I wonder if Redford Township, Livonia and Plymouth citizens appreciate how important it is they have this calibre of educated and intelligent woman willing to serve them as school board members. It is one of the gravest, most responsible jobs in the community. It is the area where most of the tax dollars are spent.

Even more I wonder how many appreciate the personal sacrifices involved on the part of the four women. Just for fun, imagine if you—right this minute—would announce to your cozy group an intention of putting your name on a ballot where all could see and judge—not just "YOURSELF" or those you make peanut butter sandwiches for or your own cronies—but any old stranger who couldn't care less.

I read somewhere a true hero or heroine is the person who leaves his family in the morning and exposes himself to the world—an exaggeration perhaps—but when you take running for public office, maybe not. It can get mighty lonely and frightening on that limb sometimes.

Now that YOU are a school board candidate—better not dash to the store in slacks, sneakers and curlers—Mrs. School Board member must have more decorum and dignity than that. Mustn't take sides in local disputes not involving school matters—might involve the school. Mustn't be seen lunching with a friend at the local funnery—might be completely misunderstood. Must encourage children to get better marks—and pray they won't get involved in anything unpleasant (after all, a school board member's kids live in a glass house)—and so does the mate—and for that matter the glass house had better be up to snuff. I mean no paint peeling or anything like that.

Don't say absurd. It happened right here in River City—I mean South Redford Township. A school board member was "talked about" because there was paint peeling on the eaves. Incredible, but true.

Have you changed your mind? No? Well, then don't forget the meetings—every week at least once—and some of the lovely people that attend (some really are), but then there are those who come in with a glint in their eye—and a set to their jaw and they intend "to get to the bottom of this and find out exactly what is going on and you just better have the answer—and be right smart about it, too."

Now, now, temper—remember you can't call them THAT—you are a School Board Member.

Anyway, I think it's a tough job and we had better appreciate four women who serve so well—with such dignity—and I hope they never see this. They might change their mind.

PATRICIA STRAKER

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Straker of Hees Ave., Livonia, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Frances, to Arthur W. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nelson, Maxwell Ave., Plymouth. Miss Straker graduated from Bentley High School in 1961 and her fiancé is a graduate of Plymouth High School. The couple will be married in August.

SANDRA COON, former Redford Township resident and daughter of Mrs. Hazel Coon, participated in a Carnegie Hall recital May 1. She played two piano selections of the romantic period. Sandra is a student at Columbia University in New York.

Mary Zammitt Will Marry

Mary Elizabeth Zammitt will become the bride of Joseph A. Lang in an August 22 ceremony. Miss Zammitt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Zammitt, Winston Ave., Redford Twp. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Lang of Sandusky, Ohio. The couple are graduate students at the University of Detroit.

Listening Post Picks Three Series Speakers

"A varied and fascinating slate of speakers has been selected for the 1964-1965 Listening Post Lecture Series." Mrs. John Haas of Plymouth, program committee chairman for the area branch of the American Association of University Women, has announced.

Wesley H. Maurer, chairman of the Department of Journalism at the University of Michigan, will discuss "The Meaning of the Conflicts of Our Time" on Oct. 21. His talk deals with political, social and economic changes.

Charles A. Blessing, director of the Detroit City Planning Commission and a member of the American Institutes of Architects and Planners, will discuss "Comprehensive City Planning and Development" on January 28.

On March 2, the series will be concluded with a presentation on "Romanticism and Impressionism: Tradition or Revolution" by Ernst and Evelyn Scheyer. Mr. Scheyer is professor of Art History and Humanities at Wayne State University and his wife, a pianist, will demonstrate the type and mood of the period he discusses.

Lectures will be held in the Plymouth High School auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Tickets for

Plan For 2nd 'Operation Sugar Cubes' In Tri-County Area June 14

Metropolitan Detroit's second V-Day will be Sunday, June 14. That's when Operation Sugar Cube is expected to go off smoothly and efficiently for the second time.

The "V" is for vaccine—antipoli vaccine which will be fed on sugar cubes to 2½ million or more persons in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties.

The first dose of vaccine was administered to the 2½ million in April. The second dose is essential for full protection against dread poliomyelitis.

Plans for the second feeding are going forward rapidly. Essentially, they are the same as those for the April feeding, with most of the feeding sites in schools throughout the three counties.

School personnel—teachers, principals, supervisory employees, maintenance employees—again will play a major role in the feeding. Dr. Norman Drachler, assistant superintendent of Detroit schools, has met with principals and others to complete the plans for the school participation in V-Day.

The campaign is sponsored by the medical societies of the three counties. Both medical and osteopathic physicians, nurses, pharmacists, and thousands in addition to school personnel are donating their time and effort to make it as big a success as the first V-Day.

Dr. Francis P. Rhoades, Wayne County Medical Society drive chairman, stressed the need for

Thurston High Will Honor 100 Top Students

More than 100 awards covering almost every aspect of high school endeavor will be given to achievers at Thurston High School's annual Honors Day, Friday, June 5.

Thirty-two senior scholarships will also be recognized at the assembly sponsored by the National Honor Society.

Master of ceremonies will be Principal Frank Block with the Valedictory and salutatory medals will be presented to the two top members of the graduating class by M. D. Roe, superintendent.

Included in the program are 30 scholastic art awards, 17 debate certificates, as well as numerous forensic and thespian dose from a private physician the required eight weeks later. Drive personnel were quite pleased with the way the first feeding went in April. To

Livonia Teacher Home Recovering From Crash

Mrs. Florence Lathers, 732 Ann Street, Plymouth, a teacher at Cleveland School in Livonia, is recovering from injuries received in an auto accident near Bay City 10 days ago.

Mrs. Lathers, who has taught fourth grade at Cleveland for the past 12 years, has returned to her home but isn't expected to resume her teaching for the remainder of the school term.

In Wayne County, a sixth vaccine supply depot has been added. In addition, a new central headquarters has been set up, in a warehouse at First and Howard donated by R. L. Polk & Co. In April, the headquarters were on several floors at the Wayne County Medical Society office. The new quarters are all on one floor.

Another change will be the stationing of a volunteer supply transport officer at each Wayne County feeding station. His job will be to stand by with an automobile so that the site has adequate vaccine and other supplies on hand at all times. As in April, there will be 443 feeding stations in Wayne County, 91 in Oakland and 96 in Macomb.

A donation of 50 cents per dose is requested, but no one will be turned away for lack of funds.

Co-chairmen of the Oakland County drive are Dr. Robert Bookmyer and Dr. Worth W. Henderson. In Macomb County, Dr. Gerald Morris is chairman.

Murder

The Riverside Park Church of God in charge of Rev. J. Clifford Thor and Rev. E. E. Berry.

Burial was in Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Smock, who had taught in the Plymouth School system for the past two years, was born Feb. 3, 1934, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Smock.

He was a member of the Riverside Park Church of God in Livonia on Newburgh Road where he was organist and one of the leaders in the young people's activities. He was president of the Michigan State Youth Fellowship of the Church of God and the Plymouth Education Association.

Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Thelma Smock; two daughters, Cynthia and Deanna Lyn; his parents and a brother, Carl of Northfield, O.

Smock's disappearance was reported by his wife from the home of her parents in Allegan where they had gone Thursday night to spend the weekend.

Smock left Friday morning for Battle Creek where he was making arrangements for the 1965 state convention of the State Youth Fellowship.

He called his wife from Kalamazoo at 6 p.m. Friday and that was the last time he was known to be alive. At that time he informed Mrs. Smock that he had been delayed and probably wouldn't arrive in Allegan in time for dinner.

She became alarmed when he didn't show by midnight and called the Calhoun County Sheriff's Department to report him missing, and to inquire about any accidents.

The Sheriff's Department told her that missing persons reports had to be delayed for 24 hours and requested she make the report Saturday evening.

The body was found Saturday after 5 p.m. when troopers from the State Police Post at Paw Paw towed the car to the post garage and opened the trunk.

Smock's hands had been tied behind the back with a clothesline and an autopsy revealed that he had been shot through the back of the head with a .22 caliber bullet.

Smock and his late model sedan were last seen at midnight Friday. An attendant at a gas station on W. Michigan Ave. in Kalamazoo said Smock's credit card was used to fill the car's tank with 16.7 gallons of gas.

State Police Detective Sgt. Karl Lutz said the gas tank of Smock's car was eight gallons short of full when the car was found at Stadium Drive and US-131. He said this meant the car covered about 120 miles between the gas station and where the car was found.

Smock was robbed of approximately $8 — his wife Thelma said this is about all he was carrying — a cheap wristwatch and his shoes.

One station attendant said Smock was accompanied by another man when he stopped to fill his gas tank. The car was found about 1 1/2 miles from the station.

Pick Fletcher

Joseph Fletcher, a member for three years and a sales representative for a Chicago chemical firm, is the new president of the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Joe was elected by the 80-member club a week ago and will succeed Wendell Smith, one of the brightest and most dynamic presidents in several years. The installation will take place later.

Other members of the Jaycees' official family named at the same time are: Howard Oldford, internal vice president; John Murawski, external vice president; Ron Coosia, third vice president; Bill Terry secretary; and Bob Wilson, Treasurer.

New members of the Board include: Maurice Breen, Dr. Gary Hall, Norm Fitzpatrick, and Harry Reitman. Carl Strom and Dick Anderson are holdovers.

OPERATION CLEANUP has the attention of these 4-H Club members of the Cherry Hill Club as they work on clearing the ancient Kenyon Cemetery on Ridge Road for Memorial Day. More than 40 members mowed grass, cut down weeds and generally cleaned up the cemetery. Shown wheeling mowers and

Cherry Hill 4-H Youngsters Take Care Of Forgotten

"Others may have forgotten but we feel that it's the least we can do to make it look as if someone cares—we haven't forgotten." That was the expression of Mrs. Roy Schultz, 7854 Lilley Road, Plymouth, as she led a group of 4-H Club members from the Cherry Hill Club in a cleanup operation at the ancient Kenyon Cemetery, corner of Ridge and Gayde Roads in Canton Township.

Many of the tombstones cover graves that are more than 100 years old—the oldest group of more than 30 youngsters could find dated back to 1802.

There are veterans of the Civil War, men who fought in the Revolutionary War, pioneers of the early days of Plymouth and Canton Townships.

And most of the graves were neglected with tall grass, weeds and small trees growing all over the place and turning what once was a neat countryside cemetery into a miniature wilderness.

Here and there graves showed care and attention from those that hadn't forgotten but for the most part it was a wild growth with headstones sticking up here and there.

That's the way it looked last Friday morning before the Cherry Hill 4-Hers, guided by sponsors Mrs. Schultz, Mrs. Howard Moyer and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hauk, started the task of cleaning up.

They appeared on the scene with about 25 rotary mowers, borrowed and loaned for the occasion, sickles, scythes and anything else that could cut down weeds and grass and started the job of getting the graves neat and clean again by nightfall.

These were boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 16 and they took great delight in the work, especially when the chaperones worked along side of them.

A hay wagon mowed around the cemetery, hauling the weeds and grass into a secluded corner where all was burned.

Then came the call to lunch—the kind that all kids like regardless of age — hot dogs and coke.

It was a big day for a great bunch of youngsters who haven't forgotten—the club has decided to make the cleanup project a twice-a-year thing.

The youngsters will gather again in the fall and then repeat next spring before Memorial Day so that the heroes of the wars of 100 years and more ago will also have their moment of glory.

There's nothing prettier than an ancient cemetery with its headstones all erect and the plots cleared of weeds and high grass. That's why Kenyon Cemetery is a show place these days—thanks to a group of 4-H Club members from the Cherry Hill section.

C-C Forum To Hear Discussion Of Water

Plymouth City Commission Arch Vallier, who is bitterly opposed to signing a contract with the Detroit Water Board for service to the city, will explain his stand in the Chamber of Commerce's second Businessmen's Forum luncheon Thursday at the Hillsdale Inn.

Vallier has insisted that no contract be signed until such time as it is economically feasible and a suitable rate is assured.

Vallier, who also is the Plymouth Supervisor on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, had told the Commission more than once that it would be at the mercy of the Detroit Water Board once a contract is signed.

Recent developments in Redford Township have proved his point. Officials there are fighting a 40 per cent rate hike at the moment.

Vallier is expected to touch on the Redford Township situation during his talk and in the question-and-answer period that follows.

"There are at least four reasons why The Observer warrants your consideration:

(1) Our price is $1 per column inch, which makes it less expensive than what you are now paying for less service.

(2) Our circulation covers every single home in Plymouth and Plymouth Township, whereas today your newspaper advertising reaches about 50 percent of the homes in the Plymouth area, and much of it is carried beyond the boundaries of the Plymouth Community School District.

(3) We compress our legal advertising into the smallest possible space, the aim being to do the job as economically as possible for the advertiser. Enclosed are samples of the space consumed for similar advertising in Observer newspapers and the Plymouth Mail.

(4) Our newspaper is produced in the most modern newspaper printing plant in the state of Michigan, and our work is typographically attractive and eye-catching.

'Curtain Going Up'

By Wally Roberts

What is so rare as a day in June when you have a desk overflowing with notes of about a hundred theatrical events. Best idea is to tilt the Venetian blinds to their zero position and make believe it is the dead of winter. No picnics for old Wally until the drama desk is clear.

Well, "The Time of the Cuckoo" has flown back into its coop. The Livonia-Redford Players are busy rehearsing for the gigantic musical revue to be presented July 8-12 at the Livonia Show Train. As they have so ably demonstrated in the past, their efforts in this newest venture are certain to have the same fine, professional qualities.

In "Time of the Cuckoo" the versatile talents of Shirley Hulet saved the day. The Players Guild elected to use the Shirley Booth version of this Arthur Laurents play about a lonely, lovely woman in romantic Italy. On Broadway even the wonderful Shirley could do little to save the earlier mawkish version written by Mr. Laurents. The show remained a failure until Jack Ragotzy who operates a very successful summer theater in the Battle Creek area took the show and revised it considerably. Jack gave the entire play a new outlook by having the lonely woman become sexually involved with the Italian lover. By heightening the intimacy angle of the play each succeeding scene took on more significance and provided powerful motivation for the event-tortured tourist.

Tony Mattar, Charles Noel, and Shirley Otis provided excellent professional support for Shirley Hulet's exacting lead role. As Leona indicates toward the end of the show that everything in Italy is "Multa bella" (most beautiful for our non-pizza eating readers) so "Time of the Cuckoo" was as it displayed the fine efforts of the entire group in the areas of stage lighting, scenery, costumes, and publicity. As I indicated earlier the Livonia-Redford Players are not sitting idly back enjoying their summer in an old rocking chair. No sir, they are busy these evenings preparing for the arrival of the Livonia Show Train on Track 29, Middlebelt and Schoolcraft. If you'd like to join them, dial KE 7-8109 and indicate you are ready to go to work.

A couple of weeks ago old Wally announced the beginning of the American Drama Festival to be held at Greenfield Village in the Henry Ford Museum Theater. Two plays ("Our American Cousin" and "Metamora") will be staged in authentic fashion for five weeks at the Museum Theater in repertory. Audition dates were announced. The typesetter jiggled the wrong key and the June 4 date came off the machine as June 24. By June 24 the casting will be complete and the directors will prepare for rehearsals. Associate Producer Bob Wall would like old Wally to correct the mistake and stress the June 4 date as the final casting date from 2 to 5 p.m. in the Museum Theater. Remember, it's June 4!

Bob Wall reports that already over 110 anxious thespians have already read for the many parts available. Many of the Wayne State Classical Theater players have been over to the auditions. Charles Noel, Paul Wheeler, Pat Dorrian, Ina Rae Stanton, and a host of others from the Livonia, Plymouth community drama groups have read for the directors. Final decisions on the professional company for the American Drama Festival will be made during the next two weeks.

In mentioning Festivals of one variety or another recently old Wally did miss a most important one in Cleveland—the Great Lakes Shakespeare Festival. Six plays by the Bard are presented there every year. As far as Festivals go, this is the largest number to be presented in repertory for any one summer season. This brave venture is under the direction of Mr. Arthur Lithgow. During the winter season, Mr. Lithgow is Executive Director of McCarter Theater of Princeton University. In recent years they have been noted for their daring experiments in the fields of theater.

The Great Lakes Shakespeare Festival is based in a suburb of Cleveland—Lakewood. From Detroit it is only a matter of a little over two hours away by the Ohio Expressway. Excellent accommodations may be obtained at either the Lakewood Manor Hotel or the Lakeshore Hotel which is but a block or two away from the Lakewood Civic Auditorium.

The Festival employs an all-equity company of actors from New York. The list of plays being presented this year include: "The Taming of the Shrew," "Hamlet," "Much Ado About Nothing," "Henry VI," "Richard III," "Antony and Cleopatra." You can be on their mailing list by dropping a card to Great Lakes Shakespeare Festival, Lakewood Civic Auditorium, Franklin Blvd. and Bunts Rd., Lakewood 7, Ohio. The Festival opens on June 30 and continues through Labor Day.

What is so rare as a day in June when you have a desk overflowing with notes of about a hundred theatrical events. Best idea is to tilt the Venetian blinds to their zero position and make believe it is the dead of winter. No picnics for old Wally until the drama desk is clear.

Well, "The Time of the Cuckoo" has flown back into its coop. The Livonia-Redford Players are busy rehearsing for the gigantic musical revue to be presented July 8-12 at the Livonia Show Train. As they have so ably demonstrated in the past, their efforts in this newest venture are certain to have the same fine, professional qualities.

In "Time of the Cuckoo" the versatile talents of Shirley Hulet saved the day. The Players Guild elected to use the Shirley Booth version of this Arthur Laurents play about a lonely, lovely woman in romantic Italy. On Broadway even the wonderful Shirley could do little to save the earlier mawkish version written by Mr. Laurents. The show remained a failure until Jack Ragotzy who operates a very successful summer theater in the Battle Creek area took the show and revised it considerably. Jack gave the entire play a new outlook by having the lonely woman become sexually involved with the Italian lover. By heightening the intimacy angle of the play each succeeding scene took on more significance and provided powerful motivation for the event-tortured tourist.

A CONGRATULATORY CARD and an autographed picture from the desk of President Lyndon Johnson made Mr. and Mrs. Roy Manson, 19205 Farmington Road, Livonia, the happiest couple in the area Sunday when they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Manson wrote a note to the President a month ago telling him of the big event—and she was much surprised and elated when the card and picture arrived via special delivery late last week.

Otherwise it was a rather quiet day for the elderly Livonia couple who went out with friends for dinner and then returned to their home in late afternoon.

It was just 50 years ago on May 31, 1914, in Nashville, Tenn., that Roy Manson took Carey Lee Burgess for his bride. They moved to Detroit in 1919 and then shifted to Livonia 21 years ago.

Mr. Manson is a retired mechanic for Otis Elevator Co.

Canadians Help With Show Train

Some of the first out-of-town units to participate in the extravagant Livonia Show Train Parade on July 5 have been represented by John K. Francis, Show Train Parade Chairman.

"From Windsor, Canada," stated Mr. Francis, "will come an all-nations float, one of the most colorful ever to be seen in this area." The float is sponsored by Windsor Ethnic Groups and will feature young people dressed in a myriad of colorful national costumes. The float promises to be not only an extremely colorful segment of the Show Train Parade, it is expected to be one of the largest—62 feet in length.

Other units from Canada will include the band of Branch 84, Canadian Legion from Lemington, Ontario, the Yoeman of Sherwood and the South Windsor Lions Club.

will treat the eyes and ears of spectators. The "Tameltes," a young people's drill and musical team dressed in colorful Irish costume.

Parade Chairman, John Francis promises further reports on the make-up of western suburbia's own parade in Livonia to be held at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, July 5 in connection with the Livonia Show Train Festival. The parade will start at Sheldon Center, march East down Plymouth and North up Middlebelt to the Show Train grounds at the Detroit Race Course.

Theatre Guild In On "Show Train" Act

Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild has taken on the "acting" part of Livonia Show Train for 1964, July 8-12. For every ticket it sells, the Guild receives a percentage—and the money it makes will be used for a Community Theatre building.

Tickets may be purchased from the Guild through The Observer newspaper office, 33050 Five Mile Road, Dunns Pharmacy, 32139 Plymouth or by going to Wonderland Saturday, June 20 or 27 and meet some of the theatre group members in costume. They will have a booth on the mall near Kresge's from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Be at the Detroit Race Course on time to welcome the 1964 "Show Train" and all its performers, coming to you directly from many wonderful performances on the stages of your community theatres.

Performances will be each evening at 9 p.m. on the baggage platform of the train station directly in front of the huge grandstand with seating accommodations for 17,000 people. The afternoon performance at 3 p.m. will be a variety show of many kinds of local talent.

Aside from the stage entertainment there will be a carnival—parking will be free—and admission to the exposition area is also free. The booths in the exposition area displaying many different items will be under cover in the Race Track Building just below the grandstand seats. Booths are available to all organizations — if you are interested in obtaining space contact Mr. Phil Tanguay at GA 7-2122 or Vern Foster at GR 4-3333.

Other officers are: Bob Gotts, vice president; Sam Stearn, secretary; and Sid Waters, treasurer.

The club, which was commended for its participation in "Operation Sugar Cube" in April, is making plans for the second phases of the polio campaign on Sunday, June 14.

Delivery of the polio vaccine to schools which exhaust their supply in Northville, Livonia and Plymouth area is part of the task.

On completion of Plymouth's new city hall, the club's radio station will be transferred to new quarters. Consideration of the antenna system is being handled by Larry Hansz and Howard Town. Liaison between city officials and the club is under the direction of Dr. Ralph Barber.

Kick Off Music Drive

The first phase of the Redford Township Music Society's "Membership 500" campaign will begin when the Music Society kicks off its business membership drive Monday evening, June 8.

The initial step toward a goal of 500 members for the 1964-65 season will be a meeting of the Music Society's membership committee at the home of Mrs. William T. Avery, who is vice-president and membership chairman.

Plans will be made to contact every business in Redford Township to support the cause of good music. Businesses will be invited to become members with subscriptions of $5.00 to $20.00 or patrons with subscriptions of $25.00 to $50.00.

The Music Society is seeking a membership of more than double last season's roster in the current "Membership 500" campaign, which will include family memberships as well as business subscriptions.

During the 1963-64 season the Redford Township Music Society supported the Redford Civic Symphony Orchestra of 57 musicians.

The orchestra was presented in four concerts with John Gajec conducting. Featured during the season were Mr. Gajec, oboe soloist; the General Motors Chorus at the Christmas Concert; a chorus of more than 700 junior high students and 15-year-old Wanda Huswirth, local cellist, at the Family Concert, and Inge Eccles, soprano; and Thomas Gamble, tenor, soloists at the Anniversary Concert.

Music scholarships of $100 each were presented to Wayne Benson, Marcia Harris, and Thomas Mose, graduating seniors from high schools in Redford Township who will enter college to major in music next fall.

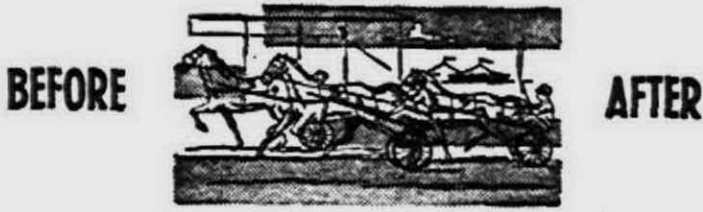

Assisting Mrs. Avery on the membership committee will be Walter Butler, Music Society president, Mrs. Frank Copeland, Mrs. Paul John, Mrs. H. J. Kabanian, Mrs. Frederick Lawrence, Mrs. Rhys Lewis, Mrs. Lloyd Locks, Mrs. Gordon Muir, Mrs. Clayton Nordstrom, Mrs. Thomas Philippart, Mrs. Gerald Reid, Miss Carol Serra, Mrs. Robert Shively, Mrs. Darwin Smith, Mrs. Roy Sterling, and Mrs. Joseph Supanich.

Facts and Opinions

ahead. How well this job is done will constitute the final judgement of the work of the councilmen and trustees. Whether they were able to slick-talk the voters into another term in office is a matter of little consequence, in a historic sense.

Somehow right here we are compelled to think of a new administration building opened last autumn by the Livonia Board of Education; it is the operating headquarters of one of the largest school districts in the State of Michigan.

The building sits back unnoticed off Farmington road, plain and square, but there's another facet . . . This building never has had a dedication, a public "open house," or even a passle of publicity. The reason, we've been advised in confidence, is that the Board feared bringing the taxpayers into the act; they were wary that such a headquarters would be regarded as "extravagance" in one way or another and that it might place in peril a future ballot millage request.

All of this is leading into a review of a book which was one of several fascinating volumes brought to The Editor by benefactors while he wrestled with the long recent hours in the hospital.

It's written by an angry architect (Peter Blake) and called "God's Own Junkyard." He blasts away at the design of suburbs, at the mixing of the beautiful and the ugly in the inner cities, at billboards; at the lack of imagination in residential living areas; and, yes, at the failure of public officials to recognize the need for Symbolic Buildings in a balanced, interesting community; and at planning commissions and politicians.

Excerpts from "God's Own Junkyard":
"No people has inherited a more naturally beautiful land than we . . . the only trouble is that we are about to turn this beautiful inheritance into the biggest slum on the face of the earth . . . the mess that is man-made America.

" . . . our suburbs are interminable wastelands dotted with millions of monotonous little houses on monotonous little lots and criss-crossed by highways lined with billboards, jazzed-up diners, used-car lots, drive-in movies, beflagged gas stations and garish motels . . .

" . . . as for the preservation of man-made improvements, it is almost non-existent; ever, when a building—whether handsome or indifferent—has ceased to be a 'money-maker', down it comes to make way for a super-market or bowling alley . . .

" . . . in our land we have just about empowered a branch of government (FHA) to specify the size and shape of the typical American suburban master bedroom (in which all Americans are thus created equal); to specify the size and shape of the typical family room (in which all American tots crawl around equal); to specify the size, shape and style of every suburban house; and we have empowered the FHA to specify the width, length, curvature or straightness, surface, presence-or-absence of trees, sidewalks, poles, of every single suburban street (on which all American teenagers play equal—at considerable peril).

MORE ON SUBURBIA

" . . . suburbia has more space, more greenery, more modern kitchens, more gadgets, than Urbia. But all of this, and much more, could have been achieved in infinitely better ways." (The author urges some high-rise apartments on narrow lots, attached together, with small, private patios; easy to maintain . . . the surplus land then could be pooled for great common playgrounds, parks or gardens).

"Studies in Philadelphia and Connecticut showed that taxes levied on apartments produced an annual surplus of close to $35 per unit which applied just to the cost of maintaining public schools . . . the reason is obvious: high-rise apartments tend to attract young families without children, older families whose children have grown up, and people living alone . . . it makes eminently good economic sense for Suburbia to encourage a mixture of building types . . .

" . . . as for symbolic buildings, what do we see in Suburbia? It is true there probably are some churches along the nearest highway. But while the churches of our early New England towns and villages were tall enough to be visible from almost everywhere, the sprawl of today's Suburbia has pushed the churches so far out that their spires are no longer visible farther than a block away. The Howard Johnson spire, more often than not, is more visible . . . one of the important functions of a tall building in any community is to serve as a point of reference, to permit people to find their way about without trouble . . .

"The meaning of all this is two-fold: first, we do not seem to possess the sort of common faiths that shaped cities like Florence (whose only tall buildings were symbols of religion and of government); and, second, one reason we are not so committed is that nobody living in Suburbia is conscious of the physical symbols of democratic government—the one faith we do CLAIM to hold in common . . .

"We find ourselves with 50 million suburbanites most of whom are totally disinterested in local government, refuse to participate in it, and frequently don't even know what community (if that is the word) they belong to."

The concluding words are not The Editor's, but those of Peter Blake, angry architect and author of "God's Own Junkyard"

"The only local issue that arouses any degree of passion is taxes—and that one tends to generate more furore than constructive illumination . . .

" . . . just about the ONLY factor that determines the shape of the American city today is UNREGULATED PRIVATE PROFIT; profit from speculation with land, profit from manipulating land and buildings, and profit from the actual construction and subsequent lease or sale of buildings . . .

" . . . our planning commissions generally bend for everyone with political connections, and permit variances . . .

" . . . our elected officials think of little beyond taxes and their chances at the next election."

Mich. Week Impact Felt on East Coast

The impact of Plymouth's Michigan Week celebration is being felt in numerous sections of the east and along the Atlantic Seaboard judging from the replies from the more than 3,000 balloons released by children in the elementary schools.

School Supt. Russell Isbister indicated that cards have been returned from more than 400 persons in Canada and northern United States.

of her students picked up a balloon with the note requesting a reply.

Cards have been returned from as far east as Bowie, Md., 17 miles east of Washington, D.C.; Cass, W. Va.; and numerous points in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, New York and Maryland.

Burroughs Corporation, which supplied the balloons, will present a transistor radio to the student in each of the seven elementary schools receiving a return card from the greatest distance.

It's A Great Finish For Redford Union

Baseballers Co-Kings Thanks To Plymouth

The old coach (Mike Hoben) gave one of his proteges (Bob Atkins) a big assist last Thursday.

As a result Redford Union High wound up as co-champs with Trenton for the Suburban Six League baseball title. Each team had a record of seven wins and three losses in the loop's action. There'll be no playoff to settle the deadlock.

It was at Cheboygan High some years back, that Hoben coached and Atkins played under him. Little did either realize then, that the day would come when they'd be rival mentors in the same league—Toben coaching baseball at Plymouth High and Atkins the diamond sport at Redford Union.

Last Thursday, on the final day of league action, Trenton held a one-game lead over RU in the standings as Trenton invaded Plymouth and RU remained at home to host Belleville.

Another win would mean an outright title for Trenton, regardless of what RU might do. Hoben knew what the score was and recalled the "old days" at Cheboygan. So, perhaps, he gave his charges an extra pep talk.

Whatever Hoben had to say, it worked wonders both for Plymouth and RU. The Rocks came from behind with a three-run rally in the eighth inning to gain a 5-4 verdict and with RU beating Belleville, 6-4, the tie for the title in the final standings resulted.

Meantime, the win gave Plymouth a 5-5 final record in the league and a tie for third place after some shaky going in the early weeks of the season.

Trenton had broken a 2-2 tie in the top of the eighth by counting twice on a walk, two singles and an error with two out.

But Plymouth stormed back when with one out, Dick Egloff singled. Cal Luibrand also singled. Up came Harold Kuisel who responded with a terrific triple to send in the tying runs. Moments later Kuisel scored the winning run on an error.

John Daniel, working in relief of Dave Troutman, was the winning pitcher. Trenton had tallied in a hurry when Bruce Patterson drilled the game's first pitch for a homer. Plymouth tied the score on an error, walk, sacrifice and single by Terry Clark. A single, stolen base and sacrifice brought Trenton even in the sixth inning.

Redford Union also did its scoring in the first two innings against Belleville, tallying three times in each frame. A walk to Robby Masson, an error on which Harry Kendrick was safe and singles by Craig Turnipseed and Rick Clark provided the markers in the first inning.

In the second frame, Kirk DeLoye singled, Masson walked, Clyde Ziegler singled and Kendrick singled to make it 6-1 for RU.

Meantime, Clark held Belleville to a single hit (a triple) but wildness (six walks) and errors enabled Belleville to count its four runs.

RU's win over Belleville followed on the heels of a 10-7 setback suffered at the hands of Bentley. It was Bentley's only win of the season in league action.

RU had jumped to an early 5-0 lead with Ernie Bourassa knocking in three runs of the runs with a single and homer.

But Bentley responded with a three-run uprising in the third and five-run explosion in the fourth to take an 8-5 lead. And the Livonians never trailed the rest of the way.

Singles by Ed Knight, Roger Jones and Perry Poor, along with a fielder's choice gave Bentley its first three tallies. Then in the fourth, a triple by John Harrison, singles by Plumley, Don White and Bob Morgan and a walk to Jones pushed the five markers.

RU rallied with single runs in the fifth (Bourassa singled home Kendrick who had tripled) and in the sixth when Kendrick doubled home Masson, but Bentley added two runs in the sixth to put the game out of reach. A walk to Plumley, a triple by Jones and an interference by the catcher gave Bentley its final tallies.

Morgan emerged as the winning pitcher for Bentley.

After upsetting RU, Bentley lost its eighth league game by a 4-1 count to Allen Park. Poor's triple and Plumley's single netted Bentley's only run. Larry Sladak scattered five hits in a losing cause.

Before beating Trenton, Plymouth downed Belleville, 5-2, as Daniel sparkled in relief and also with the bat. He delivered a two-run double as the Rocks came from behind in the closing stages. Singles by Jerry Kisabeth and Kuisel, also featured the Rock's comeback.

OBSERVER SPORTS

By George Maskin

PUTTING ONE WORD AFTER ANOTHER — And what's all the talk that one of Livonia's top referees and umpires has been booted out by the Recreation Commission because he allegedly made some kind of a political remark?

We have said it before — and we repeat — there's no place in sports for politics. Certainly, we don't care to get into politics on this sports page.

However, good officials to handle kids' games are hard to come by and the recreation czars might find better and more timely matters to worry about than whether the gent in question might have suggested that somebody voted for this guy or that guy.

The rumors also have it, a few others may be hurt before this current squabble is over.

The biggest losers, of course, eventually will be the boys and girls and others who are supposed to benefit from Livonia's recreation program.

KEN WIEBECK, the greatest high school swimmer to hit the Michigan scene in many a day, has decided to enter the University of Michigan in the fall. Kenny will be graduated from Thurston High School next week after writing a record that may stand for years to come in our State.

Wiebeck, as a sophomore, won two State Class A titles and set records in each event. He did the same thing as a junior . . . and repeated as a senior.

Six straight crowns . . . six straight State records! Add the numerous victories he fashioned in dual, triangular and invitational meets! And all the school and meet records he set!

Kenny also has earned All-America honors in the prep ranks. Ralph Deets, of Redford Union High, who compiles the All-America ratings hereabouts, has announced that Wiebeck gained All-American acclaim in no less than four different individual events this past season. He also helped Thurston's medley relay receive national distinction.

Wiebeck posted the fifth best time of any prep swimmer in our land in the backstroke. He was No. 7 in the 50-yard freestyle, eighth in the individual medley and 12th in the 100-yard freestyle.

With Jim Veeder, Pat Duthie and Oscar Amberg, Wiebeck helped Thurston's medley relay swim the 13th best time turned in across the United States.

The name of Wiebeck will be heard from — in a big way — at the University of Michigan.

HAVE YOU NOTICED that Livonia's Bob Bruce is one of the top pitchers in the National League? Bob is blazing along with the surprising Houston Coits.

He's developed into a stellar moundman after running into numerous problems in his earlier days as a major leaguer. He broke in with the Detroit Tigers, but never could cut the mustard here. The Tigers couldn't be blamed for letting Bruce go.

But as the old story goes in life: "You never can tell."

Don't miss the Claude Snarey relays this Saturday at Bentley. They figure to be an exciting event.

Motorcycle Stars Duel Sunday at DRC Track

Bates Molyneux, three-time Michigan motorcycle racing champion from Livonia, will be gunning for the one title that has eluded him when he competes for the Great Lakes Championship Sunday, June 7, at the Detroit Race Course.

Molyneux, who finished third in last year's big race on the half-mile track at DRC, heads a list of more than 100 riders who are out to dethrone defending champion Bart Markel, of Flint. Molyneux hails from Livonia.

Competitors will include the top riders from Michigan, Indiana, Ohio, Wisconsin, Illinois and Ontario.

Workouts will begin at 10 a.m., with time trials starting at noon. The first of 10 thrilling races is slated for 2 p.m. Only the 10 fastest qualifiers will start in the 10-mile race for the Great Lakes crown.

There also will be heat races and a final event in each of three rider classes — expert, amateur and novice — with riders competing for more than $2,500 in prize money and trophies.

Besides Molyneux and Markel, other top entries from Michigan include Sandy Freeman, Jerry Ashcroft and Harold Hammond, of Detroit; Al Gaskill, of Warren; Dave Ludwig, of Clarkston; Roger Bates, of Lansing; George Salo, of Roseville; and Larry Stone, of Farmington.

Parking on the huge DRC lot is free. Children, under 12 and accompanied by a parent, will be admitted free of charge.

Trackmen Set Mark In Sweep To Title

The members of Redford Union High School's track team decided not to wait until August to give their coach, John Mackenzie, a wedding gift.

They took care of the matter in grand style last Tuesday and Wednesday by capturing the Suburban Six League championship at Belleville.

In taking the honors, Redford Union piled up a record number of points—99. The old high was 94. Bentley trailed far behind with 53, with Belleville scoring 47, Plymouth 23, Trenton 12 and Allen Park 6.

It also marked:

1.—The first time RU had taken the crown since 1959.

2.—The first winner Mackenzie had produced in his four years as the school's varsity track mentor.

3.—The culmination of a perfect year against league foes. In dual meets, RU had won five without a setback.

Redford Union stalwarts cracked three league records and set four school marks in their romp to the loop crown.

Eric Bargo was the team's high-point man. He won both the 100 and 220-yard dashes and also ran a leg on the victorious 880-yard relay team. In both the sprints, Bargo set new school standards. He was clocked in 10.1 seconds in the century, two-tenths under the former record, then came back with a 22.6 second time in the 220, one-tenth under the old mark.

Bargo also shared with three teammates the setting of new school- and league records in the 880-yard relay. The quartet's time was 1:32.8, compared to the previous record of 1:33.

Dennis Tierney continued his brilliant efforts in the 440-yard freestyle (13-14) and first in 50-yard backstroke; Shirley Fox sixth in 50-yard freestyle; Jay Schreiber, first in 50-yard freestyle (15-17); Madeline Rogissart, second in 100-yard freestyle (15-17); with Kim Chaffee sixth; and Wendy Simmons, third in 100-yard backstroke (15-17).

2,500 Start Ball Action

Ball . . . strikes . . . single . . . homer . . . out . . . safe . . . It's baseball time again for some 2,500 Livonia youngsters.

The Recreation Department's vast program was swung into action this week with a record number of teams in action.

At Roscoe, who's in charge of athletics for the Recreation Department, announced that 137 teams comprised of boys under 13 years of age will be performing in Livonia this summer.

In addition there will be another 20 teams, comprised of boys 13-14.

In the 15-year-old plus age bracket, Livonia will join hands with neighboring communities to form one of the strongest teen-age leagues in the state.

The older teams will play in two leagues — the Detroit Free Press and Connie Mack.

The Free Press circuit, which will commence action next Wednesday under the arcs at Ford Field, will be comprised of eight teams. Livonia will have four entries — the Giants, Detroit Race Course, Elks and Bisons. There'll be one team each from North and South Redford Township, Plymouth and the Wayne-Forge League.

These eight teams will join seven others in Connie Mack League play. The Mack circuit will include teams from Livonia, Redford Township, Plymouth, Wayne, Nankin Township and Northville.

Livonia will have one team in the Class A league to be sponsored by the Recreation Department for adult players. Two teams from Ypsilanti and one each from South Lyons and Wayne currently round out the "A" loop.

Roscoe said that a sixth team is being sought for the loop.

According to present plans the Class A teams will use the Ford lights on Sundays and Mondays. The Mack teams will take over on Tuesday and Thursday evenings while the Free Press action will be spotlighted on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights.

The Free Press loop will run as a rival to the circuit the morning newspaper has run in Detroit for the last three years.

In the competition, held statewide, a team is selected to represent Michigan in the national tournament held each year in Pennsylvania.

Special all-stars also are selected from the program and given a chance to play at Tiger Stadium. A year ago, a team under the direction of Redford Township's Al Turner won the all-star tilt at the Tigers' ball yard.

With the local league in action, it is expected that area prep stars who heretofore have gone to Detroit to play during the summer now will stay closer to home and take advantage of the new lighted setup on Farmington Road.

Special all-stars also are selected from the program and given a chance to play at Tiger Stadium. A year ago, a team under the direction of Redford Township's Al Turner won the all-star tilt at the Tigers' ball yard.

With the local league in action, it is expected that area prep stars who heretofore have gone to Detroit to play during the summer now will stay closer to home and take advantage of the new lighted setup on Farmington Road.

Thurston Trackmen Cop 7th

A happy and successful spring ends this Saturday for Thurston High School's track team when the South Townshippers compete in the Claude Snarey relays at Bentley.

Thurston closed its dual meet action last week by rolling over Franklin, 94-15, after taking the Northwest Suburban League title the previous week and then scoring well in the state regionals.

Over-all, Coach Bob Lake's forces posted a 7-1 record, bowing only in dual action to Birmingham Seaholm's strong team.

One new Thurston school record was set in the meet against Franklin. The Thurston 880-yard relay was clocked in 1:31.7 as Bob (Skip) Klinkert, Gary Barringer, Steve Dolan and Randy Bogus carried the mail. Bogus ran the anchor leg in a blazing 22.3 seconds.

Thurston performers also piled up four new field records at Franklin. The relay time accounted for one mark.

Sophomore sensation Al Phillips went 20 feet, 9 inches, for a new field standard in the broad jump; Keith Reed was timed in 2:01 for a mark in the 880-yard run and the mile relay of Don Bristol, Reed, Paul Lawson and Mike Pakula sped to the final record at 3:30.5.

Doug Waack (pole vault) and Dave Graves (high jump) gave Clarenceville a pair of firsts in the field events. Jim Donnelly was second in both the broad jump and high jump.

Gary Bucheit and Darrell Howell of Clarenceville ran one-two, respectively in the mile. Graves won the high hurdles to account for the Trojans' only other triumph.

Franklin Baseball Team Boasts Spotless Record

"What a wonderful feeling!" That's the song they're singing around Franklin High School as the students join in saluting their baseball team which reigns as the 1964 Northwest Suburban League champs.

Two more victories last week gave Franklin an unblemished mark of 8-0 in conference play and an over-all record of 13 wins against two defeats for the season.

"It was a great year for us," said Charley Zoet, the Franklin coach.

And, one couldn't blame Zoet for thinking about next year. Most of his players will be returning.

Franklin had to fight from behind to best Groves, 5-3, for the title clincher. Then followed a cakewalk over Oak Park, as Franklin slugged out a 13-0 victory.

In the battle with Groves, Franklin trailed, 3-1, going into the top of the seventh inning.

One was gone when Sam Antonazzo singled and Bernie Carbo followed suit. Dick Schirmer hit to the shortstop and two runs scored on a wild throw. Schirmer then moved around to third and scored on Neal Thomas' squeeze-bunt single. Thomas in turn came across when Bill Black was safe on an error.

Tom Cannon picked up the victory in relief, working the final two innings after replacing Pete Hembrough.

Sparkling pitching by Ken Bratherton and a grand slam homer by Thomas highlighted the Franklin rout against Oak Park.

Only two men reached base against Bratherton—the first on a double in the second inning and the other on an error in the seventh.

It marked his second consecutive shutout victory, during which period he has allowed only one hit.

In addition to Thomas' blow, Jim Glynn shared prominently in Franklin's offensive bombardment. In the third inning Glynn singled over two runs. Then Glynn pulled a Maurie Willis as he stole second, third and home in quick succession.

Livonian Gets Hole-in-One After 35 Years

It took 35 years to turn the trick, but Richard Duncan, 9915 Cranston, Livonia, an employee of the Burroughs Corporation at the Plymouth plant, finally made a hole-in-one.

Playing on a par-three course near Bedford, Pa. recently, while on vacation, Duncan used a nine iron on a 105-yard hole. The ball went high in the air, hit the edge of the green, bounced once and rolled into the cup while an amazed Duncan and his wife, Edna, watched.

"I've been playing for 35 years," he said. "This has to be my greatest golfing thrill."

The Duncans were playing in a threesome with Bill Siefert, of Flint, and it was Bill who was the most excited of all. That's according to Duncan, who reported the ace and was still excited then — four days later.

Clarenceville high's track team placed second to Lutheran West while West Bloomfield was third in a triangular meet last Wednesday.

The victors scored 59 points to Clarenceville's 47. West Bloomfield had 30.

Les Swartz set a new Clarenceville record with a 2:06.5 clocking in the half mile, although he had to settle for second place. The old mark was 2:07.

The Reader "Speaks-Up" With View On School Elections

Dear Everyone: Wasn't it Martin Luther who said "I must make my stand... God help me... Amen." Me, too. My stand on the "Free Election in South Redford Township... honest, good, a second chance, a gift to the children. The State can question it. MacGriff can, the Birchers, the South Redford Civic (?) Association, the MacDonalds, the Donald Ducks, the Leftists, the Rightists, the Republicans, the Democrats, F.B.I., anyone... and it will REMAIN exactly what it was... honest, good, a gift from decent citizens to decent children.

My stand on Thomas J. Kirby... with his departure, the ending of an era... an era it will be up to the young parents to keep safe. A man too honest to be loved by the "haters," a man who has done more than anyone will ever again be called upon to do for the future of education in this township. Some misguided tabloid writer said "he doesn't think enough of his job to run again... good riddance." JOB? It was never a job and still is not a JOB to be a member of the school board... it is a giving, giving, giving, of one's time, intelligence, dedication. Some men drink, some sit, some play golf, some garden, some write, some play darts, some play the field... with Thomas J. Kirby, it was schools, schools, education, the needs of each child... bright, dull, slow, fast... a better future for all of them, therefore, a better future for our community, our state, our country, and our world. God is my witness to that... can't get a better one.

My stand on the picketing of MacGriff Publications... honest orable adults SHOULD be able to care for the needs of minors. However, no matter how he screams "FOUL," "NO LEARN-EE NO SPEAKEE," "They are taught 'WHAT NOT HOW' to thing"... the fact remains that in that very same publication were listed 68 National Honor Society members; an article about the 19 yr. old who wrote his own "musical"; a list of honors in art, music, forensics, and academics... all given to members of the same school where children, according to him, are taught "WHAT, not HOW"... speaks for itself.

My stand on the John Birchers and cohorts who tear down every constructive effort toward better education, yet, still aspire to the school board... same stand I take on the events of November 22nd; same stand I take upon the men of God (?), men of politics; men of business, men of journalism, who look away when a question of morality and decency comes up... and hope the whole thing will just disappear... same stand I take on a Governor who stands OUTSIDE an institution of higher learning and bars the way to two young Americans who happen to be darker of skin than he is... was not spoken of the soul... same stand... UGH! UGH! UGH!

My stand on "Freedom of the Press"... a blessed thing... just like freedom of the people, freedom of education, freedom of worship... but NEVER TO BE CONFUSED WITH THE BREAKING OF GOD'S LAW "THOU SHALT NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS AGAINST THY NEIGHBOR."

MY STAND ON THE COMING ELECTION... LEONARD, HOCK, MUELLER, AND LEWIS... GOOD AND HONEST... FINE BACKGROUND... TOGETHER, THEY WILL HELP TO MAKE UP FOR THE LOSS OF KIRBY... And, I am NOT A Kirby-ite... no, no one's ITE... just my own... making my stand... God help me... and He WILL... (always has)... JUST ME...

Editor: We, as citizens and conscientious voters, will join thousands of Livonia residents at the polls on Monday, June 8 to choose two candidates for the Livonia School Board. Realizing the importance of this election and the need for the best qualified and most capable to serve in these positions, urge the re-election of Strela Schreiber and the election of A. Edward Katz.

MIRIAM and IRVING KING
Editor: We who have signed this letter have worked for divergent goals and candidates, local, state and national, in the past. We are Republicans and Democrats, members of different churches and faiths, workers for different factions in city politics.

Despite our past disagreements about many issues, we do agree that members of the school board should be people who are qualified by virtue of their intelligence, experience, and dedication to the ideals of public education. We feel that Dr. A. Edward Katz is a person who can represent the interest of all of us in the best possible education for our children.

We, therefore, urge our friends and colleagues of all parties, factions and faiths to join us next Monday in voting for Dr. A. Edward Katz for member of the Livonia School Board.

Dear Mr. Gillette: This letter is written in answer to the article which was addressed to the Office of the Mayor, City of Livonia, that appeared in The Observer on May 6, 1964, signed by you. I would like to call to your attention, perhaps you were not aware, the fact that this item was undergoing study back in January of 1964, by our Traffic Commission, at my request, and that the problem was resolved

Open Letter to Jack MacGriff: Perhaps this is an answer to the challenge hurled at Paul Chandler, Tom Kirby and Myra Cox from a quarter you would least expect. I have been a resident of South Redford Township for a year and a half. I am connected with no political party and have no axes to grind except for the causes of truth, decency and right. In fact, I am sorry to say, due to a transfer, we will be moving shortly, so you see I could not possibly have any motives except to state my opinion. In that year and a half I have followed the issues from both sides—yours and Mr. Chandler's. I do not know if his charges about "John Birchers" are true or even what a John Bircher is. But I do know I observed your consistently distorted and twisted slant on news until it compelled me to attend a few school board meetings to find out who was telling the truth.

I have three children in the South Redford School system, which incidentally, is the best system they have ever been enrolled in. I have watched with dismay as you have turned neighbor against neighbor, friend against friend and created such an aura of suspicion here in South Redford as to make it unhealthy to even live here. By distorting the facts and creating confusion you have helped defeat our necessary school millage proposals to your own purposes not once but twice. I have no way of knowing what you have against mankind but I believe if you had any humanitarian impulses whatsoever, as a newspaper editor should, you would be helping to educate our people to accept the changes which are long overdue in our ways of thinking instead of adding fuel to the fires of bigotry and prejudice as you have done. May God have mercy on your soul.

P.S. As I doubt if you would print my letter I am also sending a copy to the Editor of the Observer, in hopes it will inspire some of the other good citizens of our community to carry on what they believe is right. Your quote by Edmund Burke you printed on your editorial page is ironic as well as true!

Barbara Sumner
Inkster Road

Editor: First, I want to congratulate you on the recent court ruling in the suit which Mr. Brashear brought against you. My concern is that there be a thorough checking into the attitudes of the people who are running for the school board. There have been so many things of a disturbing nature going on in our schools that many of us are genuinely anxious that some personnel be on the school board who may be of a stronger way of thinking than those presently leading in making the decisions.

There were so many threats as to the cutbacks which would result if the last millage vote failed and now what is taking place? Teachers are still hopelessly overloaded with many more students than they should be attempting to teach, while school monies are being spent for more psychologists, more supervisors, more consultants, more administrators. It is so much more important to us that our children have adequate instruction than the school system be overloaded with this extra personnel.

Immediately after the vote had passed, a Public Relations man was hired. For what? It seems mostly to keep names and pictures of certain top school officials constantly in the news. It might be better for PR right at this time if some of these people were not so much in the public eye since the private lives of those who might have a direct influence on our teachers and our children are as important to us as their ability as school people.

LIGHTS GIVE POOLS DREAMY GLOW AND ADD HOURS OF FUN

A setting sun doesn't have to be the signal that the day's fun around the new back yard pool has ended. Up to 100 hours of nighttime pool-side enjoyment can be gained every month of the outdoor swimming season merely by providing the right kind of overhead and underwater lighting.

Post-mounted yard lanterns give a soft illumination to pool decks, patios and walkways. Mushroom lighting units—dome-shapes, mounted on stems—are increasingly popular.

Automatic controls that switch on the poolside lighting system at sunset allow the fun to go on without interruption. They also discourage prowlers if the family happens to be out for the evening.

Underwater lighting units are now being used almost as much for dramatic "glow" effects as for swimmer convenience. A glowing pool has much the same hypnotic, "dreamy" influence as a fireplace on those around it.

About two to four watts of illumination in the pool are recommended by most electric companies for each square foot of water surface. The average pool (16' x 32') thus would require sub-surface illumination of between 1,000 and 2,000 watts.

It's important, lighting experts agree, to "soften" light so that it does not glare in swimmers' eyes. Lighting that comes from more than one direction gives better visibility and more uniform illumination.

Don't try to install your own sub-surface lights unless you know what you're about. This is a job for a qualified electrical contractor.

Big Season for Portable Pools
Portable back yard swimming pools are more popular this year than ever before. Dealers expect to sell more than a million of them in a range of sizes from waders to kings. Users will get several million hours of fun.

Regular pool builders, experts in below-ground pool design and construction, are beginning to go into the above-ground pool business in the larger sizes, particularly when the project involves facilities for the filtering, chlorination, cleaning and draining of above-ground pools.

Although portable or above-ground pools vary in construction and type of materials, most are of relatively strong vinyl or other plastic, with framework of wood, heavy wire, or steel into which the water-holding liner is fitted.

Most portables are of the "fill-and-draw" type, especially the sizes built for tots and teens. Like the pools with water recirculation systems, these too require daily attention to sanitary procedures for clean, clear, comfortable water. PERCLOLON and other Penn-swim-line pool-care aids are easy to use and readily available.

FERTILIZATION OF ROSES

Effective rose care and management is something for which every Michigan gardener strives. Hearty yet delicately beautiful red, white, and yellow roses add the final touches to any flower garden scene.

However, many Michigan roses suffer from malnutrition—lack of adequate fertility in the soil. Fertilizer, the poor soil's doctor, contains nitrogen, potassium, and phosphorus. It makes plants greener, more vigorous, and highly productive.

Lack of one or more of these ingredients will make a rose bush weak and spindly. Probably the primary cause of small blooms, light colored foliage, and poor vigor in mid-summer garden roses is an insufficient supply of nutrients.

Michigan State University

Suggest Care With Garden Insect Control

Gunning down "outlaw" insects in the yard and garden with deadly spray mixtures is an effective pest control measure, but not always the answer to good shrub care.

Dr. Ray Janes, extension entomologist at Michigan State University, advises homeowners to critically analyze their insect problems before applying suppression techniques. "Small pests such as mites and aphids can be controlled," he says, "but many times the problem is more basic — the plant itself may not be functioning properly."

Janes points out that newly planted shrubs need an adjustment period. Green thumb gardeners often fail to recognize that poor handling, lack of adequate water and fertilizer, and mulching are important components in shrub care. "Too many Michigan families believe that they can adjust all their problems with a spray gun," he says.

Nevertheless, Janes says most shrubs need spraying or dusting during the growing season. Homeowners who dust plants should do so when the air is still and the foliage is covered with dew or moisture at the time of application.

All purpose spraying is generally begun in mid-May or early June. Although ornamental plants are rarely over-sprayed, directions on spray containers should be read closely. Don't spray after the spray has begun to run off the plant. Enough is enough.

Small insects such as aphids, scales, mites, and beetles can be effectively killed with a mixture of malathion, Lindane, and DDT, are other good materials.

Plant problems arise from a variety of reasons. Crowding and shading are two big factors. Many gardeners forget that a small shrub will grow outward as well as upward. Shrubs too close together rob each other of essential nutrients. These plants also need sunlight. When planted next to a house they get only a few hours of sun each day.

Winter injury is another common problem in Michigan. A winter with alternate freezing and thawing is hard on a plant. Folks who used adequate winter protection on shrubs last winter will probably have fewer problems this summer, says Janes.

He recommends that families decide on shrub varieties before buying. "Know something about shrubs and their insect problems," he says. "Some plants are more susceptible to insects than others. Climatic conditions often limit good shrub performance. Michigan has a great variety of flowering shrubs, each varying in height, flowers, and length of life."

Janes points out that plants don't live forever. Once a plant ceases to be functional, dispose of it and replace it with something you like. "It's possible to select plants with few insect problems," he says. "It's all up to the individual and what he wants."

horticulture specialists suggest two methods of fertilizer application in helping to restore fertility. The soil application method for roses should be made at infrequent intervals in June immediately after flowering and in late July. Each application should consist of one handful of a "complete" fertilizer placed in a ring on the soil around each plant. It should be lightly scratched into the soil to prevent washing and then watered down.

A suitable fertilizer would be one having 5-10-10, 6-12-12, or similar analysis. Ideally it should also contain trace elements.

cut a square corner with a riding mower?

YES, IF IT'S A BOLENS LAWN KEEPER

Ordinary riding mowers have four wheels on a one-piece frame. Turning requires a "wide sweep," or a series of "back-ups" to make square corners. Bolens new Lawn Keeper is a riding mower with a two-piece frame. And the frame does the turning! Turn the steering wheel and this one pivots within a 14 inch radius. Cuts grass forward of front wheels for smoother lawns. Engine and exhaust fumes to rear of operator... where they belong!

Experts Tell Why Chlorine Is Most-Used Pool Chemical

"Why chlorine?" (Yes, it sounds like a new Frankie Carle recording, but it's No. 1 on the hit parade of questions about pool purification.)

Experts will supply the answer. Let's start with Attmore E. Griffin, water treatment consultant, writing in Swimming Pool Age. Griffin says:

"The chemicals used in swimming pool water treatment can be generally classed as disinfectants, algicides, coagulants and conditioners (acid-alkali stabilizers).

"Disinfectants are agents which, when properly added to pool water, will kill the organisms present that may in some way cause skin infections or other body disorders.

"Of all the disinfectants available for this use... chlorine is the most widely used... it is easy to store and apply, is non-toxic to humans (in the amounts used for disinfection) and is approved for use by health authorities the world over.

"When properly used, chlorine... will not produce odors. It kills bacteria faster than any other agent. It gives water a sparkle difficult to surpass."

In connection with portable-type back yard pools that are enjoying increasing popularity, Dr. David E. Overton, Commissioner of the Suffolk County Department of Health, New York, issued this public caution not long ago:

"Small temporary fill-and-draw back yard swimming pools probably constitute the most hazardous type of bathing facility insofar as bacteriological contamination is concerned.

"These pools should be emptied and cleaned frequently. During their use, a chlorine residual should be maintained in the water at all times. Chlorine sanitizers are a cheap and effective method for the destruction of bacteria, and through their residual effect provide a lasting protection."
