CURTAIN GOING UP . . .

By WALLY ROBERTS
The Livonia Show Train has chugged and puffed its final mile for another year. Burt Woodward, the head engineer, is busy at work in the roundhouse repairing the "train" for its run on track 29 next season. All the Livonians and their friends from near and far that boarded the Show Train enjoyed themselves and are anxiously looking for the timetable marked 1965.

Every member of the Livonia-Redford Theater Guild must have gone to their respective synagogues, churches, and temples and said a prayer, a novena, or had a short meditative moment to commune with the "Man upstairs." No rain fell on the outdoor production. How lucky can you be? Saturday night your reporter caught the show. He had an occasion to be in Plymouth. It was raining buckets. The minute I came to Middlebelt and Schoolcraft the rain stopped as if by magic. I'm sure it was divine intervention for a group of the nicest folks that I know.

As the audience waited for the Livonia-Redford thespians to start the show, nature put on a beautiful overture. The sky crackled with lightning, rumbled with thunder and generally made everyone quite apprehensive. Was the show going to go on? Troupers like the Livonia-Redford Theater Guild elected to go on even in the face of threatening weather.

The bright, brilliant opening of the chorus and dancers doing songs relating to trains such as "Chattanooga Choo Choo" and "On the Atchinson and Topeka and the Santa Fe," soon wiped away any fear of the storm. The show was on. It moved quickly under the able leadership of Vic Slapnick, a most personable M.C. Too bad they didn't write some lively material for his many appearances at the mike. The phrase "On With the Show Train" began to take on the same dull, deadly sound of the click-click of the train as it speeds over the rails.

Karen McAllister came out and warbled beautifully. She did her two numbers and bounced off. The "Take Back Your Mink" number with Babe Azar doing the show was equally as good as Gigi Gaggini who did the number when the Guild did the show a couple of seasons ago. The addition of "black light" during the number drew "oooh's and ah's" from the audience. The shapely chorines worked the male members of the audience up to the whistle stage. The Detroit Race Course grandstand echoed with shouts of approval after this fast-stepping number. Incidentally, B. J. Scholtz can be credited with directing the dancing.

As old Wally has indicated the Show Train variety show was going at express speed when suddenly someone forgot to throw some coals in the boiler. The train began to lose steam. The "Old Man River" number, a sad attempt at comedy, bombed out. "Simple System," a song from "Bells Are Ringing," puzzled the audience. Ace Azar tried his level best but the audience sat in stony silence. Someone should have told producer Bob Brown and Ed Guest that taking numbers out of musicals doesn't always work. You have to know the story sometimes to appreciate the number.

The Riverside Flyers were only fair. To bolster their act they brought on a two year old to do their final trick. Shades of Eddie Foy and his seven kids. The variety show came back to life with the dance number from "Destry Rides Again." Those delicious, gorgeous chorus gals woke all the men and even a few women.

The "Brotherhood of Man" number from "How To Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" as sung by Eric Smith was a show-stopper for old Wally. Most of the audience had not seen the show and again they were wondering where in the world the number came from. Gwen Weibel, a torchy blues singer, had a fine voice and could belt a number, but she insisted on staying on too long. Two numbers and she would have brought the pace of the show back. The folk singers had "stay-on-itis" also. A close look at the format of the famed Ed Sullivan Show might have been in order.

A dance number from "West Side Story" brought the Show Train to a grinding halt. The "Dr. Kronkite" sketch was another loss. Pat Kenny did what he could, but Smith and Dale have had a "laugh" copyright on this sketch for years. Ed Guest did what he could. He tried to be loud, boisterous, and slapstick, but the gags were too familiar.

What about suggestions for next year's variety show? Take the time to contact a celebrity or two. Jimmy Durante, Phil Silvers, or Bob Hope could have worked the "Dr. Kronkite" sketch and the audience would have died laughing. Their comic reputation works for them. I know their salary demands are high, but at the Canadian Exposition when they put on the grandstand show with Jimmy, they draw 25,000. I'm willing to bet you'd fill the grandstand if you took time to sign a top name star.

and exit so it lets the performers out right on the stage. Dumping them off below the stage is too amateurish. If Show Train is going to be a big operation, let's do it right. I feel the 1964 edition was a worthwhile start. Of course, old Wally has a hundred other suggestions. As the weeks go by, I'll think of them and throw them into the column. Who knows, some of them may take root and bloom next season.

In Airborne Exercise

Daniel R. Guy, fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mrs. Helen Guy, 14829 Merriman, Livonia, recently participated aboard the Navy guided missile cruiser USS Providence in a combined sea-assault and airborne combat training exercise called "Litgas" under the direction of the South-East Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) in the Philippines.

"Litgas," meaning "saved" or "rescued" in the Philippine language, was sponsored by the United States and hosted by the Republic of the Philippines.

Children's Parade Highlights Day in Rosedale Gardens

It was a beautiful day in Livonia for the 28th annual Fourth of July celebration sponsored by residents of Rosedale Gardens and Rosedale Meadows subdivisions. Mayor Harvey Moelke, State Board of Education member James O'Neil, and representatives from the judiciary and clergy and other officials joined the celebration.

The Rosedale Gardens Civic Association was represented by its president, Dave Cameron, and the Women's Club was represented by Adell Bielaczky, president. Jim Leslie was general chairman of the event.

One of the day's outstanding events was the children's costume parade and winners included Katie Balmer, Peggy Comeau, the Otis and Raszy children, the Taormina family, Richard Walt, Jim and John Price, Mike Naimola, David Clark, Charles Harris and Carl Napolitana. Mayor Moelke presented the winning awards. Judges were J. B. Folsom, a charter member of the Civic Association; Mrs. Shirley Hulet, representing the Livonia-Redford Theater Guild; and Webb Cooper, Director of the Livonia Office of Civil Defense. James O'Neil conducted the flag raising ceremony, asking all present to reflect on the true meaning of Independence Day.

A series of games for children and adults was conducted by Pete Kinyon. Dr. Brooker umpired a men's baseball game, and Glen Snyder and Clyde Crosslin won the horseshoe contest.

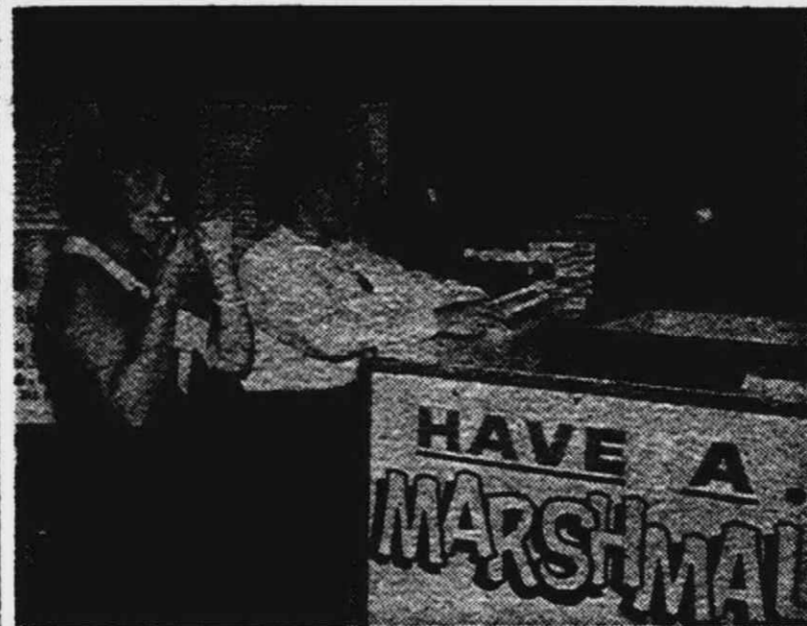

First place winners in the games were Susie Brownell, David Hunt, Mark Gorman, Mary Sue Leslie, David Germain, Douglas Lloyd, Virginia Philippo, Katy Palmer, Glen Van Skiver, Mike Kobiata.

Shannon Causley, Judy Peters, Christine Folsom, Denny Hopkins, Donna Lord, Sue McCassery, Daryl Day, Pat Marsh and Carol Archutowski.

Adult games were won by Chuck Gamber, Charlene Gamber, Diane Barr and Jim and Kay Leslie.

Several hundred people were entertained at a hootenanny by two groups. Bobbie Reid, Shirley Hulet and Dorothy Hendrie accompanied by Ralph Reid on the washtub was one group, and the Jaycee-3, Ralph Mossman, Eric Cormack and Don Harris, was another group.

The evening was climaxed by a fireworks display in Whitman Park.

TOASTING MARSHMALLOWS OVER an oil flame was one of the scores of commercial exhibits at the Show Train exposition in Livonia last week. Janet and Mike Stover, 13301 Inkster, did the toasting and Katie Deutch, Livonia teacher, did the tasting.

Pony League Tournament Scheduled

Pony League, District 4, Area Tournament will be July 21-22. Redford Township American vs. Southfield Woods Dad's. The games will be played at Hamtramck Pony Field. The first game is scheduled for Tuesday, July 21st, at 5:00 p.m. The second game on Wednesday, July 22nd, at 2:00 p.m. If a third game is necessary, game will be played on Wednesday, July 22nd at 4:30 p.m.

File Entries Now For State Fair

Exhibitors should submit entries early as possible this year for the Michigan State Fair which will run from Friday, Aug. 28, through Labor Day, Sept. 7.

That's the advice of Charles Figy of Morenci, chairman of the Michigan State Fair Authority, who said all indications point to a record number of livestock, agricultural and home arts entries.

Here are the entry deadlines: July 31, Home Arts; Aug. 7, Livestock, Horses and Agriculture; and Aug. 14, Junior Show.

Home arts exhibits will be in the new building which should be completed except for the auditorium area.

Livestock judging and horse shows again will occupy the Coliseum day and night for the entire State Fair.

And again this year barn

State Senate Seat Sought By McCarthy

James McCarthy, a supervisor at the Michigan Bell Telephone Co., has announced his intention to run for the 14th District State Senate seat on the Democratic ticket.

McCarthy, 28, will seek the Democratic nomination in the

JAMES MCCARTHY

Sept. 1 primary. He is 29 years old and lives at 8950 Louisa with his wife, Marilyn, and four children.

McCarthy said he "is running against the record of the present Republican State Representative, who is going to run for the Senate seat." He added, "The confused Democrats who voted Republican in Livonia in the last election have had in this confusion in Lansing and are going to unite strongly with other faithful Democrats to regain both the Senate and the House seats."

MRS. E. J. SHOLTZ was the choreographer who directed the dancing chorus at Livonia's first Show Train production, arranged by the Livonia-Redford Theater Guild, which ran for a five-day performance last week.

Modified Pitch a Success For Teams in Livonia

Slo-pitch has become the sport of the hour in many communities. Not in Livonia. What's known as modified pitch is thriving again in Livonia's recreation program for adult teams. And there are 46 such teams operating this spring.

In slo-pitch, the pitcher is permitted to lob the ball plateward and he must arc the ball so that it travels between three and 10 feet off the ground in its arc to the plate.

Slo-pitch rules also bar the players from stealing bases or bunting.

In Livonia's modified pitching, the hurlers are allowed to zip the ball with a little more speed. However, the "whip-pitch" is out and so is the windmill windup.

The teams are permitted to bunt and steal bases.

"We feel we have a much more interesting game," says Al Roscoe, who is in charge of athletics for the Livonia Recreation department.

"Each year we give the team managers a chance to vote for modified or slo-pitch, and as you can see, the modified pitching remains with us."

Roscoe explains that in slo-pitch the defense can set itself because it doesn't have to worry about bunts or steals.

"Also, they really don't need a catcher in slo-pitch," adds Roscoe. "All the slo-pitch catcher does is retrieve the ball for the pitcher and once in a while makes a tag at the plate.

"But in our game, the catcher must keep on his toes. He has plays to make, just as the catcher does in baseball."

Scores in modified pitching also are lower than in slo-pitch.

"All in all, we have a little more scientific game than what's offered in slo-pitch," says Roscoe. "Our fellows just don't hit the ball. We have some defense, too."

Action in Livonia is carried on in four leagues. There are two Church Leagues, one Limited (all but three players must be 28 or over) and the other Unlimited (where any age is okay).

In Class D again there is a Limited and Unlimited category.

Roscoe also points out that the "old guard" of champs is having its troubles this season.

For example, in Class D Limited, Cadet Cleaners recently slugged down perennial champ Teleschak Trucking, which hadn't lost in four years. Showerman's Party Store heads "D" Unlimited with '63 champ Mid-Seven down the line in fourth.

Christ the King and Rosedale Presbyterian have dislodged St. Andrew at the top of the Church Limited category, while St. Paul and St. Matthews are fighting for the Church Unlimited top. Reorganized Church, last year's Church Unlimited king, has moved into Class D.

An overall Livonia city champ will be decided within a few weeks with the two Church winners meeting in a best-of-three series as will the two Class D loop leaders. The two survivors then will square off for the right to represent Livonia in the state tournament.

Many of the Livonia modified-pitch games are being played under the lights at Ford Field on Farmington Road.

If there is a "drawback" to modified-pitch games, they are 15 to 20 minutes slower than slo-pitch affairs, which compli-

Booming Livonia Bats Rip Foe

The booming bats of Livonia's Class A baseball team erupted again last Saturday.

The result was a 15-1 romp over Willow Run for the Livonians who now have scored more than 10 runs in each of their six games.

Saturday's win gave Livonia a 5-1 record for the season and the club will be shooting for first place next Sunday against South Lyon at Henry Ford Field in Livonia at 8 p.m. On Saturday, Livonia will take on Ypsilanti at Riverside Field at 5:30 p.m.

A 10-run sixth-inning turned the complexion of matters in the game with Willow Run.

Don Just started matters when he reached base on an error. Dennis Boufford followed with a single and when Don Phillipi singled, Livonia had two runs.

Hugh Leavell and Bill Booth walked to jam the bases. Ron Helliier was safe on an error and Steve Powers walked. Steve Gray batted in a pair of runs with a hit.

Just was safe on an error for the second time in the inning. Then Jack Osborne and Manager Jerry Stockwell followed with singles to wrap up the wild frame.

Gray, Boufford and Phillipi each wound up with two hits in the game as the winners picked up 12 safeties. Gray's efforts also included four runs.

DEAR FRIENDS: God in his infinite wisdom called in our midst our beloved son Douglas. Others who have had this experience know the sadness in our hearts. So we would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks to everyone who was so kind, and did so much to help us at this trying time. Very, very special thanks to our many wonderful neighbors who did so much, and to all for the beautiful flowers. Thank you Hammond-Haas Funeral Home for the understanding & kindness shown us and to Mr. Emil Stromlack for his wonderful message. Truly we must say there are lots of good people and it is a time like this that you find how many friends you really have. May God bless each and everyone of you. Your kindness will be forever remembered in our hearts. Thank you.
