To Fill Vacancy Created by Chandler Death

12 Candidates Enter Race for State Senate Post

Twelve candidates have entered the race for the 14th District State Senate seat left vacant by the death of Senator-elect Paul M. Chandler last month. Six Democrats and six Republicans had filed for a spot on the ballot in the special Feb. 15 primary by the 4 p.m. deadline last Monday. Winners in each party primary will face each other at a final election scheduled for Monday, April 5. Seeking the Republican nomination are:

● Farrell Roberts, 2486 Lafayette Drive, Pontiac, a former State Senator.
● Allen C. Ingle, 29320 Grand River, Farmington, a justice-of-the-peace in Farmington Township.
● Fitzhugh Prescott, 32235 Loomis, a Farmington fertilizer salesman.

● Thomas J. McHugh, 1485 Benvenue, Mayor pro-tem of the city of Sylvan Lake;
● Paul A. Kern of Orchard Lake, a part-time radio broadcaster; and ● George T. Ames, 41008 Morningside, Novi. On the Democratic side of the ballot will be:

● John H. Burke, 31811 Stamen Circle, a Farmington attorney and law partner of Ingle, one of the GOP candidates;
● Edward McNamara, 17278 Dolores, Livonia, a Livonia City Councilman;

● James McCarthy, 8950 Louisiana, Livonia, a supervisor for Michigan Bell Telephone Co.;
● Paul Livingston of West Bloomfield Township, an attorney;
● Leo Meagher of Farmington Township, a real estate executive and former candidate for State Senate; and
● Elsie Gilmore, 30415 Puritan, Livonia, former chairman of the Wayne County Democratic Committee.

The election will pit several political veterans and former candidates against each other. Three of the 12—two Republicans and one Democrat—were unsuccessful candidates last fall when Chandler, a former State Representative and Publisher of The Observer Newspapers was elected to the Senate. (Continued on Page 15B)

PHS Night School Has Openings

There are still openings for students in the night high school for credit program at Plymouth High under the supervision of the Plymouth School Board and the adult education department.

That was the announcement Monday by Director Herbert Woolweaver who urged all students desiring to acquire credits towards graduation to register at once. He emphasized that there is no charge.

The night high school courses are geared for high school dropouts and Woolweaver indicated there are openings in practically every class.

Students interested are asked to call Woolweaver at the adult education in the high school—453-3100 — for additional information.

Woolweaver announced openings in the swim instruction classes which will begin on Jan. 16. The courses are for youngsters from the first grade and up. There are openings in the 9:15 a.m. and 10 a.m. groups. The classes will extend for eight weeks.

Women interested in the yoga instructions at the Library and Gallimore School may enroll for the Wednesday classes. The groups meet at the Library at 10:30 a.m. and at Gallimore School at 5 p.m. The latter class is aimed towards business girls who wish to participate in this type of exercise.

Practically all classes in the adult education winter program started this week but there are still vacancies in most.

Those desiring information are urged to call Woolweaver and his office for details.

March of Dimes Campaign Gets Underway in Plymouth

Plymouth's annual March of Dimes fund raising campaign started this week when members of Girl Scout Troop 287, under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Way, distributed more than 200 canisters to businesses and industrial plants in the community.

The month long drive, which reaches its climax with the traditional Mother's March on Jan. 26, continued through January. A year ago the campaign netted $2,700 in the area with the Mothers' March contributing $2,222. These amounts do not include any funds sent directly to the Detroit headquarters by donors.

Leaders of the 1965 campaign are: Co-Chairmen Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Witwer, Mothers' March Chairman Mrs. Roger Corey and Co-Chairmen of Publicity Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Berridge. Berridge, who was stricken by polio in 1958 and still needs crutches for walking, has been active in the annual campaign for the past five years.

Scout Mary Ellen Bloom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bloom, 11749 Turkey Run, served as chairman in charge of distribution and pickup of the canisters.

With the tremendous advances in polio research and the development of the vaccines in recent years, the March of Dimes monies are being used in research in the birth defects area.

Fund officials point out that half of the beds in children's hospitals in America are occupied by birth defect husband, Earnest, 496 Irvin, co-chairman of publicity; and Debby Broderick, 199 Arthur. Debby and Mary Ellen are members of Girl Scout Troop 267 at Plymouth High, which distributed more than 200 canisters to all business places in the community.

victims and that some 250,000 birth defect infants are born annually in the United States. The March of Dimes currently is financing 50 birth defect treatment and research centers in the United States and recently made a grant of $56,012 to the University of Michigan. The organization has turned more than $397 million to treatment of those suffering from birth defects, arthritis and polio.

It invested more than $85 million in the research program that produced the Salk and Sabin polio vaccines in addition to a number of other accomplishments.

Becomes Penn Theater Owner Margaret Wilson Writes Plymouth Success Story

Margaret Wilson, who started as a candy counter salesgirl at the Penn Theater in April, 1945, became sole owner on Jan. 1 when she bought out the partnership of Mrs. Harry Lush of Plymouth, acquiring the building and the business.

Miss Wilson had served as manager of the theater since January 1950 when Owner Harry Lush moved to California. Lush built the Penn Theater in Dec., 1941 when he also operated the P&A Theaters in Plymouth and Northville.

He turned the operation of the Penn over to Miss Wilson in 1950 when he took off for the West Coast and leased the other theaters at the same time, placing Margaret in charge of all three operations.

She served as general manager until November 1954 when Lush gave up the P&A and Northville theaters. She remained as general manager until Mr. Lush died when she became a full partner with Mrs. Lush.

This Margaret has written Plymouth's newest success story—from candy seller in 1945 when she took her first job to owner in the comparatively short time of 20 years.

Marv Terry Accepts Gavel as Kiwanis Club President

Marvin Terry, a longtime Kiwanian and a former member of the Plymouth City Commission, was formally installed as president of the Kiwanis Club Tuesday in the annual ceremonies at Arbor-Lil.

Terry, who served as first vice president last year, received the gavel from retiring president Dr. Gerry Fitch. Marv has been a leader in club activities and was chairman of the club's Pancake Festival for several years, retiring from that post a year ago due to his additional duties as vice president.

In the final meeting of 1964, held a week previous to the installation ceremonies, the Kiwanians heard ex-president Walt Gempertine report on his activities as lieutenant-governor of District 6.

pressed his appreciation for the opportunity he had during the past year to be of special service to the community.

Plymouth Gets Approval on Housing for Elderly

Although construction is still some time away, Plymouth has been assured of a 60-unit low rent project for the elderly.

This was the word passed along to the City Commission Monday night by City Clerk Richard Shafer, who also serves as the Plymouth Housing Director.

Shafer received word a few days ago from the Public Housing Administration that it has approved a program reservation for the 60 unit project.

However, the Plymouth Housing Commission quickly pointed out that this does not mean immediate construction but is merely a program reservation.

Shafer indicated that numerous preliminary steps have yet to be taken. The first of these is to make application for a preliminary loan upon receipt of forms from the PHA. He feels it may be another 12 months before any construction can be contemplated.

With the approval of 60 units, it appears as if Plymouth will have a substantial waiting list of applicants.

The Housing Commission made a survey of voter files which showed Plymouth has 970 senior citizens eligible for the project. Questionnaires were sent out to all elderly citizens last March and the Commission has the names of 100 persons on file indicating an interest in senior housing.

However, the commission believes there are many eligible persons who have not made applications but will be interested if the project gets off the ground and construction begins.

The City Commission learned Monday that Gay Blade Corporation, which is seeking land for an ice skating arena in the Urban Renewal project on Mill Street, is moving along rapidly and hopes to have the building available for use come next September.

Vern Schlawske, president of the Corporation, presented preliminary plans for consideration of the Council. He told members that his group will report its financing by March 15 and hopes to have construction underway by April 1.

Plans for the arena call for a seating capacity of 3,400 and a rink that will have ample space for hockey and skating.

Mayor Richard Wernette reported receipt of a check for $250 from the Red Wing Alumni Association to aid the development of hockey in the community. With the approval of the Commission, Wernette turned the check over to the Plymouth Hockey Association. Funds for the gifts to various hockey associations in the area come from the annual Old-timers-Red Wings game which will be played on Jan. 25 at Olympia Stadium.

In other actions, the Commission:

Approved a building permit for Our Lady of Good Counsel's new church with the understanding that the church meet all requirements in its new parking lot. The city ordinance provides for one parking space for each four persons in the congregation at any single Mass. Granted an extension to April 1 for Garwall Investment Co. to get rid of the nuisance created by a building at 705 S. Main Street. Asked City Engineer Stan Bease to prepare preliminary (Continued on Page 15B)

DIDN'T LAST LONG, but Lina Ribeiro (right), of Sao Paulo, Brazil, enjoyed every minute of the snow when she arrived New Year's Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Calleja, 209 Irvin, Plymouth, for a seven-months stay under the foreign exchange student program. The Callejas had a big time showing their visitor some of their Christmas gifts. Shown are (from left) Josephine, a student at Schoolcraft College; Mary Jane and Mr. and Mrs. Calleja.

Gal From Brazil Finally Sees Snow

Lina Ribeiro, 17, of Sao Paulo, Brazil, won't forget Jan. 1, 1965 for a long time.

It was on that day that Lina, a foreign exchange student under the Youth for Understanding program sponsored by the Michigan Council of Churches, arrived in Ann Arbor and then saw snow for the first time in her life.

Lina, and her sister, Helena, 16, left Brazil via air on Dec. 30 and arrived in New York City the following day. Around midnight, a busload of exchange students left for Ann Arbor where they were to be picked up by their foster parents for the next seven months.

None of the group had ever come across snow before and they didn't on the long trip until they reached the city limits of Ann Arbor when the flaky stuff began to fall.

Before the end of the day, there was an accumulation of more than three inches. The visitors reveled in the cold, white flakes and all called it the "most beautiful sight" they had ever seen.

For Lina it was even more exciting since she was met in Ann Arbor by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Calleja, 209 Irvin St., Plymouth and taken to their home where she will be a guest for the next seven months while attending Plymouth High School.

Her sister was picked up by a couple from Pontiac where she will attend high school as a junior for the seven month period.

At the Callejas, Lina will have the company of Josephine, a student at Schoolcraft College, and Mary Jane, who is a beautician.

Although she finished the "Brazilian equivalent of high school" early in December, Lina will attend Plymouth High to get a better understanding of life in the United States.

She was picked for the trip to this country because she has a command of the English language along with three others.

She is the third oldest of a family of seven including: Luiza, 21; Victor, 19; Lina, 17; Helena, 16; Mariana, 14; Jorge, 12; and Roberto, 5.

Sao Paulo, one of the major cities in Brazil, has a population of more than three million and is located inland from Rio de Janeiro.

Unlike the schools in the United States, Brazilians attend classes nine months a year but have December through February off for the summer vacations.

In the high schools, the students have July off in addition to the other three months.

Strange enough, Lina excels in skiing—the water variety—and volleyball in addition to her studies. However, the Calleja girls had plans to take her skiing—on the snow—as soon as there is enough snow to warrant going to one of the resorts.

Other than that, Lina was busy this week making acquaintances at Plymouth High and gradually settling down to classes in a strange but wonderful place.

Plym. Senior Citizens Open New Year Jan. 7

The Senior Citizens of Plymouth will begin the New Year with their first meeting on Thursday, Jan. 7 in the Masonic Temple.

Mr. and Mrs. George Pook will serve as host and hostess for the month of January. Chairman is Irene McCartney with her committee of Irene Cook, Florence Gould, Maude Hardy, Lucille Keefer, Ada Leaverton and Ada Rowling.

Plymouth Man Killed In Fall

William Ferrell, 37, of 137 Caster Ave., Plymouth, was fatally injured when he fell 10-foot while working with a construction crew on the new River District Hospital in St. Clair.

Ferrell was helping assemble one-ton concrete beams when several broke loose and he fell to the ground. He was pronounced dead on arrival at a nearby hospital.

The body was removed to the Schradler Funeral Home in Plymouth from where it was shipped to Columbus, Ga., where funeral services were held Sunday. Burial was in Girard Cemetery in Phenix City, Ala.

Mr. Ferrell was born April 7, 1927 in Phenix City, Ala., a son of Charles and Annie Harris Ferrell.

Surviving are: two sisters, Mrs. Frances Upton of Phenix City and Mary Ann Jones of St. Louis, Mo.; two brothers, Charles of Phenix City and Harris of Columbus, Ga.

C of C Forum To Hear of C&O Problem

"The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad" will be the subject of a talk by City Commissioner Arch Vallier before members of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce businessmen's forum Thursday at noon in the Hillside Inn.

With all of the controversy surrounding the C&O in recent weeks, due to its announced plans to drop two passenger trains and the action of the Plymouth City Commission in amending its ordinance in regard to trains blocking crossing, the meeting promises to be one of the liveliest sponsored by the forum in several weeks.

Vallier was one of the leaders in the movement to put more teeth in the city's ordinance and recently took a firm stand against the railroad's plans to abandon two of the Detroit-Grand Rapids trains, both of which stop in Plymouth. Vallier is expected to touch on the C&O passenger train service, freight rates and to discuss much sought viaducts.

Expect 150,000 to View New Cars

Detroit Auto Show Opens 9-Day Run Saturday

The expected 150,000 visitors to the 49th annual Detroit Auto Show Saturday, January 9, through Sunday, January 17, will have an opportunity to compare in comfort the 250 various 1965 models, with 15 domestic manufacturers plus 10 imports represented.

The show will be staged all under one roof and will cover seven acres. Site is the convenient Detroit Artillery Armory, West Eight Mile near Northland, less than a mile from the John Lodge Freeway and only two miles from Woodward.

The show will be open from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. each day. The convenient parking lot can accommodate 7,000 autos. Parking fee is 25 cents. Show admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for children under 12, with a special 25-cent fee for children through high school age between the hours of 11 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, January 11-15.

Public interest in the 1965 cars is extremely high, auto industry sources report, because of the sweeping changes in both styling and engineering.

On hand with new cars representative of their complete 1965 lines will be these domestic makers: Chevrolet, Ford, Plymouth, Lincoln, Mercury, Dodge, Pontiac, Buick, Oldsmobile, Cadillac, Chrysler, Imperial, Rambler, Checker and Jeep.

Import makes which will be seen include Triumph, English Ford, Sunbeam, Hillman, Opel, Saab, Rolls Royce, Jaguar, Austin Healey and MG.

Three truck makers, Chevrolet, Dodge and Ford also will have displays.

Besides the glittering array of new models, there will be a host of special cars. These include the $310,000 Presidential Lincoln used by Presidents Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy; an Imperial with 24-carat gold appointments; the Plymouth Convertible which will be the 1965 Indianapolis Speedway pace car; a brand new 1965½ Buick model, the Skylark Gran Sport; and a Pontiac GTO convertible trimmed inside with Tiger fur.

Special cutaway engineering exhibits will appeal to the men while the women will be intrigued by the exhibits of trims and special accessories.

Entertainers will be on hand and so will pretty girls, including the current Miss America, Vonda Kay Van Dyke, who will appear January 12 and 13.

Auto show chairman for the seventh time is Harold C. Johns. The show is sponsored by the Detroit Auto Dealers Association which has 235 dealers in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Your Child's Homework

By DUMONT F. HIXSON, JR.

Theme writing is the constant nemesis of students at all levels. Moreover parents frequently lack confidence in their ability to help their child with essay assignments. If no structuring of the assignment is provided by the teacher, the following check list can be utilized with some success by both the parent and the child. At the same time it should be realized that no formula or check list is completely adequate.

1. Is each word in the title properly capitalized?
2. Has the writer allowed sufficient margin space?
3. Does the essay have an effective opening sentence? Is the opening sentence one that will catch the reader's attention?
4. Is the thesis clearly formulated? Does each paragraph substantiate this thesis?

5. Does the essay avoid run-on sentences, the most common error of the young writer?
6. Is the essay logical? Does it avoid fallacies of reasoning? Does it avoid overgeneralizations?
7. Does the writer avoid using ambiguous words like thing?
8. Does the essay have an effective middle and end?
9. Will the ending startle the reader so that he will want to think more about the subject?
10. Has the writer read the theme aloud, listening for sentence rhythm?
11. Does the essay contain groups of words for which one word can be substituted?
12. Does the essay contain effective similes and metaphors?
13. Has each doubtful spelling word been checked with the dictionary?
14. Is each topic sentence substantiated by facts, examples, arguments, or incidents?
15. Does the essay avoid shifts in tense, and shifts in person?
16. Does each pronoun have an unmistakable antecedent?
17. Has the writer written at least two drafts? One draft won't do the job.

Redford Plant Offers New Aid to Firms

A new service, introduced state-wide, will benefit manufacturing plants in the Redford area, according to A. A. Doherty, manager of Detroit Ball Bearing Co., Redford Twp. branch at 25345 Plymouth Rd.

In answer to a problem that has long plagued both bearing manufacturers and users, Detroit Ball Bearing Company developed this program to aid customers in obtaining replacement bearings of the proper class precision for servicing machine tool spindles. The measurements on these bearings are often held as close as 75 one millionths of an inch.

A plant survey is conducted by the local D.B.B. representative under the plan. He affixes identification to machines with the precision information clearly indicated, then arranges for the specific bearings to be stocked and immediately available for customers, either in the nearest D.B.B. warehouse, or in the customer's own stock.

Ward's Names Gasperowich To Top Post

S. D. Ward, Detroit District General Manager, Montgomery Ward & Company announced the appointment of F. J. Gasperowich as Merchandise Manager of Children's clothes, home fabrics and Women's foundations.

Gasperowich has spent nearly 25 years in the retail industry. He was first employed by Sears Roebuck & Company where his 16 years of service included merchandising and assistant store manager assignments.

Later he served in the same capacities at Simpson, Sears Ltd., a Canadian subsidiary of Sears Roebuck & Company. After seven years in Canada, Gasperowich joined Montgomery Ward & Company as Merchandise Manager in Skokie, Ill. Making the move to Detroit with Gasperowich is his family which includes three children. They are: Linda, aged 13; Richard, 9; and James, 4 years old.

Form Permanent Citizens' Group After Final Plane to Appalachia

By DAVE ELSILA
The third and final plane load of relief to Appalachia winged southward from Selfridge Field Tuesday, carrying more than five tons of food, clothing and toys donated by suburban residents to families in eastern Kentucky.

which propelled the three C-119 flying boxcars laden with 25,000 pounds of supplies to impoverished areas of Appalachia hasn't stopped.
Even as the last of the supplies was being distributed in the backwoods mountain areas surrounding Whitesburg, Kentucky, citizens in the suburban area of Detroit were meeting to organize a permanent "Relief for Social Disaster" committee. The group is a civilian service unit of the Salvation Army.

Aboard Tuesday's final plane was Al Malan, Livonia junior high school teacher whose response to a TV show last month on the poverty of Appalachia mushroomed into an areawide drive to gather supplies for impoverished residents. Malan, who was accompanied by three Detroit TV newsmen, Dave Elsilila of The Observer, and Brian Costal of WERB, spent two days in the Appalachian region reporting on the distribution of goods.

"I had the privilege of personally seeing the children and adults who received the generous gifts. I saw the smiles of happiness, felt the handshakes of gratitude and viewed the glint of hope in their eyes," Malan wrote.
Distribution of the goods from the three Detroit plane-loads took place in Letcher County, Kentucky. Newsmen met with Capt. Ellwood Delaney of the Salvation Army in Bristol, Tenn., closest place where an aircraft could land, a 4½-hour drive over twisted mountain roads from Whitesburg, in Letcher County.

Delaney, who is in charge of distribution of the relief goods, described the conditions to The Observer.
"Many of the people in this area have been out of work for more than 2½ years," he said. "The coal mines have been declining in number for the past decade. Most of the residents know no other trade, and when the mines shut down, there's nothing left for them."
"Transportation facilities are so bad, there are no other industries that want to locate in the area."
Flying over the eastern Kentucky hill country bears out Delaney's remarks. For mile upon mile, airborne passengers can catch glimpses of small, isolated communities with only dirt tracks or unpaved roads connecting them with the rest of society.

worked under the direction of Major Harold Robins of Louisville. According to Major Robins, the Salvationists had intended to leave last week but after receiving the additional third plane load of clothing gifts from this area they decided to stay another two weeks. After that the citizens committee which was chartered by the Salvation Army as a permanent Salvation Army Citizens Coordinating Committee will take over. They cover all of Letcher county.
It will be weeks before the distribution is completed. Every effort is being made to reach the most remote areas. Some of these are from 20 to 30 miles through the Cumberland mountains that surround Whitesburg. Much of the area is inaccessible and can only be reached on foot or horseback.

CHECKING THE CARGO manifest before last Tuesday's final flight to Appalachia are Livonia schoolteacher Al Malan and his wife, Betty, (right), at Selfridge Air Force Base. With the couple are Salvation Army representative George Duncan; Col. Gari King, commander of the 403rd Troop Carrier Wing; and radio newsmen Brian Costal.

BOARDING THE C-119 flying boxcar destined for Appalachia with five tons of food, clothing and toys aboard — much of it contributed by Livonians — are Major Michael McLeod, Livonia teacher Al Malan, Capt. Ralph Skinner, and newsmen Dave Elsilila (Observer) and Brian Costal (WERB).

JAMMED INTO EVERY available place in the plane, boxes of shoes, toys and clothing for Appalachia are checked by Joel Larson and Wilfred Ripley, loadmasters aboard the C-119 flying boxcar that delivered the relief shipment to Bristol, Tenn. Aboard a previous flight was Sy Levine, teacher at Riley Junior High School in Livonia, and an Air Force reserve member.

"I met one family," continued Delaney, "which included only an elderly, widowed mother and her son, 40, who was mentally retarded. There was no way for them to earn a living and their home, their living conditions were beyond description." He said that the Salvation Army had had to close down its mission in Whitesburg because of the poverty and lack of local support.

The distributions took place in Letcher county around Whitesburg. They were made personally to individual families as far back as twenty miles in the mountain "hollers."
According to Thomas E. Gish,

Records Fall During Election

A good many records fell by the wayside during the recent general election the official vote tally proved out.
President Johnson, in sweeping to an overwhelming victory in Michigan, lost a mere three counties to Senator Goldwater — Missaukee, Ottawa, and Sanilac.
One would have to go back to find a referendum proposal defeated as soundly as was the so-called "Massachusetts Ballot" proposal. Michigan's voters turned the proposal down in every one of the 83 counties in running up a nearly two-to-one vote against it.
The defeat by all counties of a referendum proposal was the first since 1929 when all units turned down a proposal to impose a specific tax on the sale of cigarettes. There have been only 11 state-wide referendum votes in Michigan's history.
Governor George Romney's overwhelming victory over his Democratic opponent Neil Staebler by 382,913 votes was the largest victory by a Michigan governor since Fred Green won a decisive 556,633-vote victory over William Comstock back in 1928.
Secretary of State James M. Hare... who has been leading the state ticket in recent years... ran up an 803,317-vote victory over Republican challenger Allison Green, and this is a record for a candidate for state office.

Aliens Asked To Register

The District Director Walter A. Sahli of the Immigration and Naturalization Service stated that the annual alien address report program usually causes a sharp rise in the number of applications for naturalization.
The law requires all aliens in the United States, with few exceptions, to report their addresses each January. Throughout the United States, almost thirty percent more applications for naturalization are received during the months of January, February and March than are received during other months. Mr. Sahli attributes this sudden rise to the Alien Address Report Program.

Romney to Address School Administrators

Plans were completed this week for the winter conference of the Michigan Association of School Administrators which will be held January 13 and 14 in Hotel Partland, Grand Rapids. Livonia Superintendent Benton Yates, President of the MASA, today announced that Governor George Romney would be the principal speaker at the luncheon on Wednesday, January 13.
"We are pleased that the Governor can join us on this occasion," Yates said. "This is a year when the cooperation of the chief executive, the Legislature, and school administrators should result in a meaningful State-wide plan and program which will benefit school children in every county of Michigan."
Dr. Lynn Bartlett, whose office recently proposed a comprehensive $90,000,000 educational program for Michigan will speak at the fourth general session of MASA at 1:30 on Thursday, January 14.
The MASA has almost 800 members and associate members in all 83 counties of Michigan. Previous presidents from the southeastern Michigan metropolitan area have been William A. Shunck, now superintendent of the Wayne County Intermediate School District; James C. Covert of Royal Oak, Russell Isbister of Plymouth, and Paul H. Emerick of Ypsilanti. Yates was elected to the office last year. He will preside at the winter conference in Grand Rapids next week and will head the Michigan group at the Atlantic City conference in February.

Jaycees Over Top In Fund Drive For Pool

By BEBE LINDHOUT
The Jaycees led the way into the new year with their highly successful Candlelight Ball. Funds raised by the dance pushed over the top the Jaycees' campaign to raise $10,000 for the purpose of building an outdoor swimming pool for the retarded children at the Plymouth State Home and Training School.

The Candlelight Ball program is a joint project, entered into by Jaycees from 11 nearby communities including Plymouth, Livonia and Redford Township. Livonia is well represented; both in the group of volunteers helping to raise funds and in the many who have contributed to the campaign. Among those organizations in Livonia who have pledged $100 or more are: the Senior Citizens, Rotary, Ann's, the Lamplighter Lions, Civitan Club, Optimists, Alpha Xi Delta, as well as groups more directly related to Jaycees and the retarded children's groups.

To the 600 guests attending the dance, 1965 seemed brighter by far as master of ceremonies Jerry Neracher introduced Dr. Robert I. Jaslow, medical superintendent of PSH.
Dr. Jaslow offered his most sincere thanks to the Jaycees and all of the many, many participants and contributors to the Candlelight Ball Program.
Speaking on behalf of his entire staff — and most importantly, for the children — he said their anticipation and excitement at the prospect of a pool, and the countless hours of fun that lie ahead for them, are the result of a community's interest and concern.
In talking with several Jaycees earlier Dr. Jaslow had explained, "Swimming is a sport enjoyed by all children and especially the retarded. Waterplay is an important method of getting these youngsters to relax and 'open up.' In addition, because of our newness, we desperately need additional recreational facilities for our youngsters and opportunities to keep them out of doors."
Highly pleased with the financial support received thus far, Ralph Mossman and Pat Dugan, co-chairman for the dance, said they hope to continue to add to the fund. "With sufficient monies over $10,000 we will be able to add spray type wading pools for the tots and expand the deck area and toilet facilities," they said.

Holden, Pettit Named to Staff at Evans Plant

Harry W. Pettit, formerly Manager of Product Engineering of American Car & Foundry Division of ACF Industries at St. Charles, Mo., and John Holden, formerly Senior Design Engineer for B. F. Goodrich Company at Akron, O., have been appointed Railway Car Project Engineers with Evans' Transportation Equipment Division in Plymouth.

Pettit received his engineering degree at Purdue University after a period of military service with the United States Marine Corps. In addition to his work at ACF, Pettit was associated in engineering assignments at Burns & Rowe, Inc., Ellicott Machine Company, E. I. Dupont and American Can Company, all in Baltimore.
Holden was responsible for design of rail cars and highway trailers at B. F. Goodrich Company. He has also been with American Car & Foundry Company at St. Charles, Mo.; the Pullman Company of Michigan City, Ind.; General American Transportation Corporation in Chicago; Union Tank Car Company; and Chicago Railway Equipment Company.
Evans Products Company's Transportation Equipment Division, a leading producer of railroad damage-prevention equipment, announced its entry into the car-building field early this year.
It recently completed construction of a new plant in Plymouth for the purpose of building specialty freight cars and upgrading existing equipment.
A company spokesman said that while the new plant has

Penelope Beireis Weds Lowell Miller at Double-Ring Ceremony

Penelope Louis Beireis was united in holy marriage to Lowell Alan Miller of the United States Air Force at an afternoon double ring ceremony Dec. 27 at the Christ Lutheran Church.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Beireis of Redford Township and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Miller of Forest, Ohio. Rev. Beireis is pastor of Redford Township's Christ Lutheran Church.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. During the ceremony Pastor Beireis was assisted by the Rev. Robert L.

Wietelmann, Assistant District President of the Michigan District of the American Lutheran Church.

The new Mrs. Miller wore a full length velvet gown with a finger tip veil. Her sister, Melissa Beireis, was maid of honor in royal blue velvet.

Mary Slates, the bride's college roommate, was a bridesmaid. She wore a navy blue velvet gown. The flower girl, Susan Corwin, wore powder blue velvet.

Gerald L. Wilhelm of Columbiana, Ohio was best man. Ushers were fraternity brothers of the bridegroom from

Luncheon To Follow Town Hall Speaker

Livonia Town Hall this month! Wednesday, Jan. 20 Willem L. Oltmans, Dutch journalist will speak at the Terrace Theater at 10:30 a.m.

Town Hall members and their guests are asked to call for luncheon reservations, Mrs. Jean Neilson, GA 1-3286. Following the lecture, luncheon will be served at Western Golf and Country Club, Kinloch in Redford Township.

Tickets for the Oltmans lecture will go on sale at the Terrace Theater box office at 9:15 a.m. the day of the lecture for $2.50. The ticket for the remaining two lectures would be $4.00. Rita Dor will be the last speaker.

Willem Oltmans has the nickname of "the flying Dutchman." He is consistently traveling to the hot spots around the globe in order to cover in person history in the making. In fact, when he appears before the Livonia Town Hall Series, it will be fresh from a trip to Communist China.

Netherlands—born and Yale-educated, young Oltmans has covered the major news events of the past decade working for United Press International and various Dutch, European and Asian news periodicals. He has a l s o broadcast his incisive analyses of the news both here and abroad.

Latest Shoe Styles Found At Alberts' In Livonia Mall

If it's new in shoes you can find it at Alberts' in the Livonia Mall.

Since the Albert Stores do not ordinarily feature a shoe salon, the Livonia Mall store boasts this added feature and has taken a great interest in being a leader in the area for style and quality.

For spring Manager Danny Modreski claims m'lady will be seeking delightful pastel shades, in pink, yellows, greens, not so much in patent leather, but in luster kid, and in a new texture, "baby gauge," which is an imitation lizard.

Fair Step, Natural Poise, Petite Deb, Hush Puppies, U.S. Kids are a few of the trade names. Sport and "flats," dress shoes and casuals are available in a variety of styles and complete line of A sizes, including the quad, and shoes for tiny as well as long feet.

Evening shoes are particularly featured. Gold, black peau de soie, glitter cloth are some of the more high styled fashions available.

If you want something new and different in the shoe line visit Albert's Shoe Salon in the Livonia Mall.

Soroptimists To Hear Mental Health Expert

The Livonia Soroptimists will hear Esther L. Middlewood, Chief of the Education Section of Michigan Department of Mental Health. Their dinner meeting will be Jan. 14th at Livonia Knights on Seven Mile in Livonia. Guests are welcome to attend.

Miss Middlewood has a tremendous foundation in her field. She did her undergraduate work at U. of M., where she received her M.A. degree. Currently she is working on her doctorate at Michigan State University.

She began her career as a secondary teacher of sociology and mental hygiene. She later became the director of counseling services in the Benton Harbor Public Schools. She took training as a student psychiatric social worker at the Kalamazoo Child Guidance Clinic and upon completion of her training assumed the duties as psychiatric social worker for the Muskegon Child Guidance Clinic.

In 1947, she became a mental health education consultant for the Michigan Department of Mental Health and one year later was promoted to the position she now holds.

Miss Middlewood now serves on the Board of Directors of several State agencies, the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries, the Michigan Child Study Association, the Michigan Council on Family Relations, and others. She is also on the Editorial Board of "Offspring" magazine; and is a member of the Board of Directors of the National Council on Family Relations, the International Liaison Committee of the International Union of Family Organizations, Parent Cooperative Preschools International and the Mental Health Film Board.

Esther L. Middlewood

In addition to her leadership in community education work, Miss Middlewood has written many articles for popular and professional medical and nursing magazines. She is currently listed in Who's Who Among American Women and has recently had her biography presented in the International Dictionary of Biographies for Contemporary Achievement.

Clothes For Indian Families Requested By Farmingtonites

A Farmington family is gathering clothes for needy Indian families in remote areas near Lake Winnipeg in Manitoba, Canada.

This is a harsh land. In the winter the temperature often drops to 35 or more below zero, and howling snowstorms rage against it. In summer, rain storms, often daily, lash across Lake Winnipeg, which is about the size of Lake Erie. In the warm months the swampy northern ground generates clouds of mosquitos.

The clothes collected will be distributed to the Indians by a non-denominational missionary, Maynard A. Howe of 1712 Abel St., St. Paul, Minnesota. Mr. Howe is acquainted with the Indians' poverty through years of traveling among them on his "Gospel Boat." With few and primitive roads, transportation in this region is mainly by air or water. Visitors to the Indian Reservations have been known to give the clothes off their backs to the Indians when they see their lack of clothing.

Childrens clothes are most needed, although adult sizes are also welcome. People with clothes to share may drop them off at 23648 Beacon Drive, Belaire Subdivision, Farmington. Pick-ups can be arranged for those unable to deliver by calling 476-4360.

Rosedale Garden Club Slates Program

The Rosedale Gardens Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will meet Tuesday, Jan. 12 at 1 p.m. in the Rosedale Garden Club House at 9611 Hubbard Ave.

The program will be on conservation and a motion picture "Metropolitan Birds" will be shown. Guest speaker for the meeting will be William F. Hopkins, Chief Naturalist.

Mrs. T. Gaitens will be Tea Hostess for the afternoon. The public is invited.

Alpha Xi Delta Alumnae To Meet

The Jan. 12 meeting of Alpha Xi Delta alumnae from this area will be a workshop to prepare for the card party planned for Feb. 9. This card party is the money-raising project for local philanthropies of the group. Mrs. Dwight Lewis, 23646 Rockford, Dearborn will be the hostess and acceptances may be phoned to the co-hostesses, Mrs. Donald Boyd, GA 1-4676, or Mrs. M. S. Johnson, 646-5114.

HATS AND NOISEMAKERS were seen everywhere at the New Year's Eve celebration at the Knights of Columbus Hall on Middlebelt. The party was sponsored by St. Francis Council 4401. Host Nick Day dashing in his Spanish sombrero greeted guests as they arrived. (l-r) Mr. and Mrs. Nick Day and Mr. and Mrs. William Braur all of Farmington. A sumptuous buffet was high point of the evening. Chairman of the party was David V. Yates and Co-Chairman Nick Wyles, also the past Grand Knight.

Red Cross Class Offered In Livonia

Evening Red Cross home nursing classes in "Care of the Sick and Injured" will begin Wednesday, Jan. 13.

Instructions will be held during evening hours 7 to 9 each Wednesday for six weeks at the Northwest Regional Office located at Five Mile and Merriman Roads, Livonia.

Specially trained Red Cross home nursing instructors will be on hand to give free, on the spot training in the care of illness in the home as well as training in case of disaster.

For further information regarding enrollment, call the Northwest Office, telephone 422-2787. High school students are also eligible for this training if accompanied by an adult taking the course.

Parson-Redinger Vows Exchanged

Wedding vows were exchanged Saturday, Jan. 2 between Marge Redinger and Richard Guy Parsons at the Lola Valley Methodist Church in Redford Township. Reverend Richard Glass officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Redinger of Livonia and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ella Cranson and the late Paul Parsons.

A white peau de soire floor-length gown was chosen by the bride for her wedding. She carried a bible with red roses. Her only attendant, Claudia Baidas of Livonia, was gowned in rose-red chiffon and carried a bouquet of roses.

Attending the groom was Thomas Meisch of Illinois.

Parents greeted guests immediately following the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. Redinger chose a green and gold brocade, street-length dress for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Cranson a beige brocade. Following a short motor trip

Mr. Parsons will return to Waco, Texas where he is a Flight Engineer in the United States Air Force. His bride, a graduate of Bentley High School and Clearly College will resume her work as Medical Secretary at St. Mary Hospital for the present time.

Card Night Planned

The first general meeting of 1965 of the Livonia Chapter of B'nai B'rith will be a Mah Jongg and cardnight on Jan. 13. Prizes will be given to the winner at each table. For further information about this "evening of fun" contact Natalie Epstein at GR 4-4085 or Gail Dater at GA 1-6516.

Dear Mrs. Jane,
"Don't wait until it is too late."
Now is the time for you and hubby to take home dance lessons from... Pat and Jim Long.

RINGING OUT THE old year and welcoming the new at the Elks Temple are (l-r) Mr. and Mrs. Orland Wysong of Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wysong of Farmington. At the stroke of midnight enormous bundles of multi-colored balloons were lowered from the rafters of the Elks Temple where they had served as decoration during the evening. Guests were present from Plymouth, Livonia and Farmington. Honor guest was Exalted Ruler James Ockerman of Pontiac and his petite blonde wife, Betty, who is also Recording Secretary of the Vivians.

WELCOMING FRIENDS from their former neighborhood in Detroit was on the agenda New Year's Eve for Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor of Plymouth. Many Plymouthites enjoyed house parties to welcome in 1965. Mrs. Taylor (above) was particularly pleased to do so as it is the first holiday in their Cape Cod home on Maple Tree Drive. The Taylors are not new to Plymouth, however, as Mr. Taylor has been in the real estate business for years in this area. Both have served as past presidents, Mr. Taylor of the Rotary and Mrs. Taylor of the Rotary Anns.

Livonia Nursery Schedules Class

The Livonia Cooperative Nursery School is accepting applications for a new integrated group for four-year-olds. The class will begin in January if total enrollment is obtained by Jan. 15.

For information on this class or other groups for three and four-year-olds contact the Nursery president, Mrs. William Kennedy, 427-4730.

The nursery school is a cooperative one with parents sharing the responsibilities and work load. A business meeting is held each month which usually includes a program or speaker that is of special interest to the parents.

Flank Steak Recipe

When it comes to eating, there are countless ways to please a man. Captivate work-weary husbands with dinners that are relaxed and remembered.

A busy-cook's secret is using convenience foods for easy-to-achieve meals. Canned beef gravy has become a pantry shelf favorite.

Eyes will open and palates will tingle when you serve Barbecued Flank Steak. Thick, meaty flank steak is slowly simmered in a perfectly seasoned sauce of canned beef gravy, chili sauce, and mustard.

This delightfully different dish will be especially appreciated on cold, bleak days. Complete the menu with buttered green beans, Waldorf salad, and mocha chiffon cake for dessert. Plenty of hot coffee is a must!

BARBECUED FLANK STEAK

- | | |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| 1 flank steak (about 1½ pounds) | 1 medium onion, sliced |
| 2 tablespoons flour | 1 can (10¼ ounces) beef gravy |
| ½ teaspoon salt | ½ cup chili sauce |
| Dash pepper | ¼ teaspoon dry mustard |
| 2 tablespoons shortening | 1 tablespoon chopped parsley |
| 1 clove garlic, minced | |

Score both sides of steak by making shallow diagonal cuts about ¾-inch apart. With meat hammer, or edge of heavy saucer, pound in flour seasoned with salt and pepper. In skillet, brown steak on both sides in shortening. Add garlic and onion. Combine gravy, chili sauce, and mustard; pour over meat. Cover; cook over low heat for 2 hours. Spoon sauce over steak now and then. Sprinkle with chopped parsley just before serving. (If desired, remove cover during last 20 minutes to thicken gravy.) Makes 6 servings.

NOTE: If electric skillet is used: Brown meat at 400 degrees F.; then lower to 210 degrees F. and cook, covered, about 2 hours.

Three Buxom Belles Feted

The semi-annual awards party was held at Kenwood Restaurant & Lounge, Thursday, Dec. 10, honoring three members of the Redford Figurines chapter of Buxom Belles, International, who have reached their weight goals.

The honorees were Mrs. Lorraine Hodge, 11704 Stout, Detroit who lost 26 lbs., reaching Hall of Fame status, Mrs. Shirley Valotton, 9560 Wormer, Redford Township, who lost 18 lbs., reaching Permanent Bantam status, and Mrs. Lynn Schulte, 32943 Martin, Livonia, who lost 15 lbs., reaching Bantam Queen status.

Mrs. Mary Gene Bourlier, 12634 Glenfield, Detroit, the founder of Buxom Belles, International, crowned the three ladies queens and presented them with their statuettes, tiaras, and gifts of money.

Anyone interested in joining the group, whose aim is to lose weight and keep off, may receive information about the chapter by calling either chapter president, Mrs. Millie Mayer, at 846-0026, or Mrs. Mary B. Schultz at KE 5-5793.

AFS Student Guest at Alpha Phi Meeting

Janet Foot, an American Field Service exchange student from New Zealand, will be a special guest at the Jan. 11 meeting of the Dearborn Alumnae of Alpha Phi.

While attending high school in Dearborn, Miss Foot is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunlap of Dearborn. She will bring pictures of New Zealand and books on Maori life when she visits the Alpha Phis.

The meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. B. Strang, 24915 Fairmont Road, Dearborn at 8 p.m. The Dearborn chapter of Alpha includes the Livonia and Plymouth area as well as Dearborn.

Local Alpha Phi alumnae interested in attending should contact Mrs. Strang at LO 1-5562 or Mrs. L. P. Truesdell at GL 3-0632 by Jan. 10.

PARTY LADY Mrs. Buckenizer, with Robbie F., neighbor children Robbie Fournier, Gary Sijos, Kelly Fournier, Lisa Cook, Kathie Stevens, and Sandra Lesnick.

Small Friends Bid Goodbye To Party Lady

Ever since the Walter Buckenizers moved to Farmington Township, life has been a series of pleasant events for the children who live near them. The Buckenizers love children, and Irene Buckenizer's years as teacher of first grade at the Burbank school before her retirement have given her a wonderful knowledge of children. Their own son lives in Laguna Beach, Calif., so their nephew Gary Sijos of Grosse Pointe Woods has been a frequent and welcome house-guest. Along with birthdays, holidays and other events there were special parties that made everyone think of Mrs. Buckenizer as the "party lady." An Easter egg hunt took place every year on the rolling green lawn with myriad chocolate chickens, eggs, and bunnies carefully concealed and prizes for everyone. One of the favorites was a real Japanese tea party. The hostess wore a real Japanese kimono to serve the tea and cookies. The children sat cross-legged on cushions and listened intently as their hostess explained the customs of the far-off land to them. However, the Buckenizers are moving to Laguna Beach, Calif. this month to be near their son. They decided to leave on a gay note and gave a farewell party which had all the things the children had come to love. The bright scarlet felt tablecloth with the gay sequins sewn on it was for Christmas, the birthday cake, alight with candles was for all the combined birthdays. Nephew Gary was a house-guest and helped with all the games. At the conclusion, each guest was handed a small envelope, which when opened, contained the date of the Buckenizer's birthday. This was so the children would remember them on their birthdays and send them a note telling them of all the events which had transpired since their leaving.

With beautiful memories of pleasant times like this, how could such neighbors ever be forgotten?

Amy Charron Is Hospitalized

Girl Scout reporter for the Farmington area, Amy Charron, is presently hospitalized in Martin Place Hospital, 19535 Schoolcraft, Detroit 27, Room 227B.

She is presently in oxygen with a serious case of pneumonia. Perhaps the many friends Mrs. Charron has made through her faithfulness in reporting Scouting news would care to take time to send her a card wishing her well and back at her typewriter to tell what is going on in the world of Scouting.

The Three Cities Art Club will hold their ANNUAL JURIED ART EXHIBIT at the Northland Shopping Center Dome

IRENE WOOD

Kaye Diann Haase was married to Edmond Cyril Cole Dec. 5 at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. William F. Whittleage.

A reception followed in the church social hall.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Wilbert G. Haase of Puritan Ave. and the late Mr. Haase. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Robert Weeks of Lincoln Park and Grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mauk of Livonia.

The new Mrs. Cole wore a floor-length heirloom gown of white Italian brocade with a chapel train. A tiny brocade pillow held her fingertip-length veil. The gown and veil were worn by the bride's maternal aunt, Mrs. William Schneider, Jr., twenty years ago.

In keeping with the Christmas season the bride carried a bouquet of red poinsettias and white baby-chrysanthemums, fashioned after her mother's bridal bouquet.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Alan G. Hering, sister of the bride, wore a floor length gown of Christmas green brocade and carried a white muff with red poinsettias.

David Jetton served as best man. Cyril Spencer, uncle of the bridegroom, and his son, Lee, seated the guests.

The newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Tacoma, Washington, where they will make their home while Mr. Cole is stationed at Fort Lewis with the U.S. Army.

Both are 1961 graduates of Bentley High School. The bride is also a graduate of the Victor Comptometer School in Detroit.

Can He Meet The Challenge?

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

Do not pray for easy lives. Pray to be stronger Men!
Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers. Pray for powers equal to your tasks.

These words were underlined in one of Paul's favorite and oft-referred-to books.

While down for the count I did a lot of reading, trying to find an answer to the pain and emptiness that comes from losing a loved one in death. There isn't a letter written, a place marked in a book, a scribbled note that doesn't indicate that the eye of Paul Chandler was on the future of these communities with faith in their growth; that he hoped for accomplishments for educational legislation, toward assisting the communities which he served. I took the above quotation as my own private message.

The many, many letters received from all over the state of Michigan indicate that people were aware of Paul's dedication to serve, his honesty and personal integrity. This is comforting.

There is no doubt, if we listen hard enough, we can find those who do not mourn the silence of Paul Chandler and his column Facts and Opinions. You know them, the politician with more ambition than qualifications, the character assassin, the business wheeler-dealer—against whom Paul stood guard.

After nine years of being pounded over the head with the importance and public trust of being a forthright and honest journalist, there are several among us who are dedicated disciples of Paul's philosophy.

The style will not be as effective but the message will remain loud and clear.
God rocked the boat, but we ain't down yet!

The most important event looming in the future to me is the election to replace Paul Chandler in the 14th Senatorial District.

Edward McNamara, Livonia Councilman, has filed as a candidate on the Democratic ticket. This is probably the first time in Edward McNamara's political history that he has committed himself so decisively. This is indicated by his popularity. No public official, to be effective, can be so beloved.

But Ed has the qualifications to become a statesman once he learns the importance of commitment. He has the background, ability and brains.

On the Republican ticket Farrell Roberts from Oakland County has filed and is considered one of the "young turks" or enlightened Republicans—is a Romney supporter, a liberal — and in one case in the Senate where he previously served, stood up for eight hours to be recognized by the opponents of a bill he was sponsoring. One opposing him claims to be a protest candidate because he resents "a handful of men" picking a candidate. Five Republican party leaders from Wayne and Oakland County committed themselves to Robert's election. This is not "a handful of men." They are Republican Party officials, informed, responsible men of the community with an obligation to fulfill. In their opinion he was the most highly qualified person on the scene.

Had my husband lived into this new year he would have been overjoyed by the great athletic triumph of his alma mater, the University of Michigan. On New Year's Day, our football team won the Rose Bowl. On the following day, the U of M basketball team went to the finals in the Holiday Festival Tournament at Madison Square Garden, and remained one of the top teams of the nation.

Paul knew that in sports, ability is what counts — not race, creed, or religion. His beloved alma mater has proved that.

The All-American star of Michigan's football team, Bob Timberlake, is a candidate for the Presbyterian ministry. The All-American star of Michigan's basketball team, Cazzie Russell, is a Negro.

THE BEST OF PAUL CHANDLER

Death of a President

(Editor's Note: This column appeared in November, 1963, following the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.)

"Silence that dreadful bell!" shouts one of Shakespeare's characters in a tragic play.

And that is the mood of this somber observer today... silence it if we can, for the bell tolls, we fear, for thee and me.

America has been going to Hell for a long time; slowly by some standards, but surely. Hate is in the engine room, stoking our fires, churning and energizing the scarlet ship of national scandal.

The plastic shapes of our people, capable of so much else noble and better, for years have been changing into craven forms, barren of humane thoughts, void of love, numbed by hate and sensuality and self-indulgence.

America has been losing its soul, the only thing that elevates men toward Heaven and away from Hell.

In offering these thoughts today, I am thinking of our own particular suburban audience — of Livonia, Plymouth, Nankin, Northville, Canton, Redford. It isn't some distant "them" who are guilty, it is us; the problem isn't abstract, it is personal to thee and me.

There is Hate in the suburbs, more intense in some ways than it can be found anywhere else in America.

There is debauchery in our suburban towns, more pronounced in some ways than anywhere else in Michigan.

There are strange and broken, snarling and snapping, horror-filled homes in our suburban areas, in greater numbers possibly than any comparable geographic place in our State.

Our suburban homes are jammed with children—half the population in school, or younger—growing up with no better goal or objective than the futile attempt to accumulate the maximum amount of material goods, and then to spend these "riches" in sensual perversiveness.

To an uncommon degree, suburbanites particularly live among hate peddlers, get-rich-quick guys, hedonists, fascists, and intellectual cheats.

There was a paragraph in Justice Warren's remarks over President Kennedy's bier which brought into mind so many local politicians and an infamous local tabloid newspaper:

"Is it too much hope," asked Warren, "that the martyrdom of our beloved President might even soften the hearts of those who would themselves recoil from assassination but who do not shrink from spreading the venom which kindles thought of it in others?"

From our experience here, we sadly would have to give Justice Warren an opinion, "alas, it is too much to hope... these are hard people."

We have among us some who use Hate, dividing neighbor against neighbor, for no greater reason than cheap, short-term political advantage, or even less important commercial purposes.

Hate killed President Kennedy, and Hate compounded the murder two more times within 48 hours.

Death and murder are the inevitable, ultimate mate destiny of Hate, for the total objective is to remove one's subject of hatred.

If there is resistance, murder is valid by the credo of Hate. And Hate, sufficiently refined, removes all formal fear, even as does love.

Hence, murder, assassination, violence.

In the lifetime of most of us, the gunning-down of John F. Kennedy created a sense of loss, of void, of confusion unequalled heretofore.

It is our theory that this was felt so keenly because so many feel so weak, so confused, so guilty and so misdirected... with a sense of despair and fear within, we have placed uncommon trust in the President, the "father" of our country.

We do not regard it as coincidental that the man who was our President and the man who is our Governor each have a strong measure of philosophy in their make-up. They appear motivated by ideals, by theology, by a sense that man's destiny can be mapped in intangible thought and that the road to peace and happiness is of spirit, rather than material.

A majority of the voters thought they detected these qualities in Kennedy and Romney and sent them to high office. America is starved for idealists; politics produces precious few; but the people do sense the need and elevate them when they can be found.

For this reason, Facts and Opinions regards the President's death with exceeding alarm. At this dangerous hour, with our national morals so cancerous and our purpose so confused, we needed Kennedy like never before. As a nation, we are operating in extremely close quarters.

To have his life taken by a sneering young man, still in his 20's and without a career; and to have in turn a sadistic Chicago hoodlum, good buddy and confidante of the police and the journalists, get his gun into the act thereafter; is all too typical of American society as it exists today. And to have the murder televised "live" into most living rooms is incredulous.

If God is seeking to warn Americans as to where they are headed, and doing it in a way that mortals here could understand, he could have chosen no more effective communication means. It is almost as if His hands were upon the millions of television dials.

What now?

There is one course, to scramble back to the original national purposes; to serve humanity everywhere; to correct injustice where we find it; to direct our gaze outward rather than inward.

In the emergency of the hour, the words of President Lincoln serve well, when he urges to proceed...

"With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."

READERS SPEAK UP:

'Grateful for Observer'

Dear Myra and Members of The Observer Staff:

I am deeply saddened by the death of Paul Chandler. He was a responsible journalist, dedicated to the noble purposes of reporting facts in a well-written and factually accurate manner and analyzing news so that his readers could make intelligent decisions concerning issues, people and events.

In Paul Chandler's political career as a State Representative, he unselfishly committed himself to the interests of Redford Township and made the needs of our community known to the State Legislature. His untimely death cut short a political career destined for greatness.

Paul Chandler was a gifted and talented person, which was proved by the esteem in which he was held by his fellow newspapermen. Paraphrasing Doc Greene of The Detroit News, Paul Chandler would observe a situation with another newspaperman and then write the story of that event in a more descriptive and penetrating manner than his fellow newspaperman.

I have regularly read The Redford Observer since 1958, when I became a resident of Redford Township. The Redford Observer, under the direction of Paul Chandler, established certain standards of journalistic excellence. These standards are:

- 1) A style of writing wherein readers could clearly distinguish between fact and opinion.
- 2) Printing in The Redford Observer, the letters and opinions of readers who dissented or disagreed with the newspaper coverage or opinions of The Redford Observer.
- 3) An honest attempt to probe into and understand the meaning of issues and events.

In short, The Redford Observer has effectuated a policy of intellectual honesty in its approach and means of disseminating news.

Grief-stricken as you and the staff of the Redford Observer are by Paul Chandler's death, I am, together with most citizens of Redford Township, grateful that The Redford Observer shall be continued in accordance with the standards of journalistic excellence established by Paul Chandler.

KENNETH E. PRATHER

Resolution

This being the time for resolutions, I have made the following resolution for 1965:

I resolve to continue taking the "Redford Observer" weekly, since I feel that it presents the local news in an unbiased way and in its editorials is not afraid to stand up for high principles; that it strives to build up civic pride rather than to stir up dissension, discrimination and hatred. As so many other readers I feel a personal loss at the untimely passing of Paul Chandler and have been greatly moved by the tasteful reminders of his journalistic ability and his sincere feelings towards his fellow human beings.

I feel that the editor of the other Township newspaper could also make a New Year resolution—that he remove from the head of his newspaper the statement concerning his non-affiliation with political organizations and gambling interests. The person to whom this was obviously pointed is no longer with us. But, more important, I prefer to know with what and whom a man (and a newspaper) is affiliated. It is more important to know what a man believes than what he does not believe in. It is easier (and seems more popular these days) to be "anti" than "pro"—to destroy rather than to build. As long as the newspaper carries such a banner I do not intend to purchase, or even read it, and I shall do my best to persuade all with whom I come in contact to do the same. There is enough hatred in the world now—I do not intend to be a means of spreading it.

COPERNICUS.

Jaycee Tribute

Editor:

Through the years the name of Paul Chandler has meant many things to many people. To the Redford Jaycees it has meant a friend who could be called upon to support issues that needed support... a friend that could be called upon to help when help was needed. It is with deep regret and sorrow that we pay homage and respect to one of the leaders in our community in his passing.

from this world. As stated in the creed of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce "... earth's great treasure lies in human personality." Paul Chandler was one of "earth's great treasures" and we shall all miss him.

Sincerely,

GERALD J. MARKOWICH
Secretary
FOR THE ENTIRE MEMBERSHIP OF THE REDFORD JAYCEES.

Yule Appreciation

Editor:

Please share with your readers our kindest appreciation for the responses to our Christmas appeal in behalf of our forgotten patients. The interest on the part of individuals in your community certainly was widespread and genuine. Clubs and groups which regularly sponsor parties on wards of our hospital added the spirit and decorations of Christmas so effectively into the December activity. Carolers, and those planning special programs let all of us know that Christmas truly is a season for sharing.

AN ODE TO THE TRASH MAN
I'm a little trash can, my owner keeps me clean
Until the trash man visits me my posture is serene.
Observing all the city rules I sit upon my stand
And when I'm full I patiently await a helping hand.

Then suddenly the scene is changed by methods very crude
A truck pulls up beside me with occupants so rude.
They grab me from my pedestal and beat me on the ground
And toss my cap into the wind by neighbors to be found.

They beat me when I'm emptied upon a truck of steel
They spin and roll me in the dirt, you'd think I were a wheel.
And when they tire of this sport, and my face is full of dirt
They toss me on my little perch or up against the fence.

The way I see it in my book, I'm subject to foul play
When you don't follow your own rules which you so strictly lay
If my owner keeps me neat and takes good care of me
Why don't you reciprocate and we'll all be happy.

Taxpayer and Trash can buy. er.

Yesterday's Headlines

20 YEARS AGO

"Destroy Voided Food Stamps" was the chief headline of the January 3, 1945, Livonian, reminding readers of wartime rationing while the U.S. was still engaged in World War II. The other front page article urged citizens to take good care of their autos and to keep them running for another year to prevent a transportation crisis.

15 YEARS AGO

Headlines from the January 6, 1950, Livonian reported that the Seven Mile-Farmington area would soon have a postal substation. Several articles on the front page were concerned with the upcoming incorporation election for Livonia to be held Feb. 6.

10 YEARS AGO

The first Livonian of 1955 told of a City Council investigation into municipal affairs and the conduct of all departments, officers and offices of the city. Other front page news included a police report showing traffic deaths down and crime up in Livonia during 1954.

5 YEARS AGO

"Old Ashcroft-Livonia Drain Refunds to Start Arriving About February 1" was the cheerful headline that greeted readers of the Jan. 7, 1960, Redford Observer. Another front page story stated that a Redford man claimed his name had been forged to a petition which charged that building inspector John Trevas was working for his own company on Township time.

BULLETINS FROM BENTLEY

by Sue Dowell and Marcia Wilson

SUSAN

MARCIA

Bentley High School can be proud of its fine extra-curricular activity program. An all-school letter is a very high honor to receive from Bentley and this can be gotten by joining some of the many extra-curricular clubs from all different areas of the school.

The following is a list of some of the major student activities offered at Bentley:

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE
The American Field Service raises money to support the foreign exchange program and does everything possible to make the foreign students who are attending Bentley feel at home during his or her stay in Livonia. During the spring of each year this organization sponsors an AFS Ugly Man Contest, an AFS Movie-Dance and an AFS Car Wash.

ATHLETICS
Bentley's athletic program includes varsity competition in the Suburban Six League and tournaments in the following sports: Baseball, track, football, swimming, wrestling, tennis, golf and cross country. Excelling in any one of these sports, entitles students to an athletic letter, another very important honor to receive from Bentley.

MODERN DANCE
Modern Dance activities include two groups, the Drum organization and the Modern Dance Club.

In this Modern Dance club girls in groups learn dance techniques, and work and participate in the dance concert. From this group students are selected to participate in the Drum and Sandal Club, which puts on the annual "Drum and Sandal" Modern Dance Show. This year the performance will be held on two nights, Feb. 25 and 27.

SILVER SWANS
The Silver Swans in a club made up of girls to promote swimming as a sport and to develop aquatic skill, rhythm and showmanship. Members for this club are selected through a swimming examination stressing efficiency in the basic swimming skills. Girls in this club will work all year to get together the final "Silver Swans Swim Show." This year the show will be held May 13, 14, and 15.

PUBLICATIONS
"Parnassus" is the all school magazine of Bentley. Through the publishing of this literary work Parnassus provides a method for showing the creative talents of Bentley students in various departments such as art, essay, poetry, short story, etc. "Echo" is the widely publicized newspaper of Bentley. Staff members write, edit and organize this paper. In addition to this, they write news releases for community publications.

"Pioneer" is the Bentley year-book which contains a record of the school year in pictures and writing. Included are pictures of all students, faculty and activities.

CHEERLEADING
There are two cheerleading squads at Bentley, varsity and reserve. Upon becoming a cheerleader girls are able to receive the cheerleading letter which acknowledges cheerleading achievement.

FUTURE NURSES
Future Nurses Club is open to all girls who are interested in becoming acquainted with the qualifications and duties involved in a nursing career. It is a service organization with no money-making projects. The members are expected to take part in the service projects chosen by the club, which may include volunteer work in a hospital or convalescent home, assisting the school nurse in the high school clinic, etc. Field trips to nursing schools in hospitals and colleges are included in the year's program.

Other clubs at Bentley include the Biology Club, Camera Club, Chess Club, Debate Club, Earth Science Club, Forensics Club, French Club, Future Business Leaders of America Club, Future Teachers Club, Girls Athletic Association, Latin Club, Math Club, Model United Nations Club, Spanish Club, Spirit Club, Varsity Club and Young Moderns Club.

Bentley's doors again reopened after Christmas vacation for the 13th time in Bentley's history. Not only did students return to books, teachers, papers and studying, but to these extra-curricular clubs, which make high school days the most interesting and varied days of all.

Red Cross Care Class Is Scheduled

Evening Red Cross home nursing classes in "Care of the Sick and Injured" will begin Wednesday, January 13. Instructions will be held during evening hours 7 to 9 each Wednesday for six weeks at the Northwest Office, telephone 422-2787. High school students are also eligible for this training if accompanied by an adult taking the course.

Clarenceville School News

Graduation and prom time are drawing near and because the Junior class honors the graduates by providing the money for the banquet and Prom, they are busy with their first project.

Thornton Wilder's play—"Our Town" will be presented by the Junior Class in January. The class feels fortunate in having Miss Streit and Mrs. Sharp as directors and appreciate their help and advice. Students will be given a sneak preview soon.

The cast of characters are: George, Paul Westberg; Emily, Debbie Shoop; Dr. Gibbs, Richard Davis; Mrs. Gibbs, Linda Sunday; Mr. Webb, Richard Udman; Mrs. Webb, Barbara Harden; Stage Manager, Jeff Waldman; Stage Director, Sue Fell; Joe Crowell, Ray Parker; Howie Newsome, Donald Buell; Rebecca, Susan Randall; Simon Stimson, Allen Rauschert; Mrs. Soames, Beverly Slyzulk; Sid Crowell, Tim Whyte; Sam Craig, David Wojoticiwz; and Joe Stoddard, Tracy Black.

The C. H. S. debate affirmative team, Daryl Howell and Linda Sunday, lost to Bloomfield Hills, Milford and forfeited to Brighton's negative team. The forfeit was because of a team members illness.

The negative team, John Head and Warren Berger, lost to the affirmative teams of Clarkston, Brighton, and Milford.

Observe around you! The Clarenceville High cheer leaders have new uniforms for the basketball season. The four Seniors, Betty Nichols, Sharon Noricks, Pat Pyle, and Barbara Stolliker, have white V-neck sweaters and contrasting red skirts with white panels.

The two Juniors, Beverly Slyzulk and Alice Warren, have opposite matching outfits: red V-neck sweaters and white skirts with red panels.

Redford Union Panther Tracks

by PAM ZIEMNIAK

On December 23, the Student Council held the Christmas Dance in the gym at Redford Union. Admission fee was one unwrapped toy per person. The toys collected were delivered to an orphanage to make a joyous Christmas for needy children. Mr. Tewmeyer, a teacher at Redford Union, acted as Santa Claus from 9 to 10 p.m. Couples who visited him received candy cakes. Music for dancing was provided by popular records, Punch and a variety of cookies were served.

The magazine sale is completed and over $1,600 of magazine subscriptions has been sold. A pizza party was awarded to the classes that sold $100 or more in magazine subscriptions. The winning classes were under Mrs. Reva Glenn, Mrs.

Joan MacKenzie, and Miss Ruth Schettenhelm. The funds will go to the band, vocal music department, and A.F.S.

Redford Union would like to give a warm welcome to Mr. Tewmeyer, who has just returned after a long recovery from an operation. Also the student Council would like to thank him for posing as Santa Claus at the Christmas dance.

On December 22, an assembly was held in which exchange students were presented with Christmas gifts.

Cissi, the exchange student from Sweden, received a skirt, two sweaters, and an album.

Venus, the exchange student from Greece, received a skirt, sweater, and a shell top.

Tollio, the exchange student from Chile, received a shirt, slacks, and a parka.

Gry from Norway is spending her vacation in the United States with her aunt. She received a camera, which made her very happy because she left hers in Norway.

On December 23, 45 members of the Future Teachers Club visited Mrs. Billings' special education class at Keeler Elementary School. The 15 children each received a gift and Christmas stockings. Cupcakes and cookies were served while several of the members presented their own skit to the children.

Two new clubs have been organized. The Physics Club is under the supervision of Mr. Quigley, and the Opera Club is sponsored by Mrs. Grill.

Day Near When Women Can Repair Own Appliances

Is the day near when women will repair their own major kitchen appliances — washing machine, dish washer, dryer? It is possible, admits appliance engineer John C. Martin, who says we get closer to that goal as manufacturers continue to reduce need for the servicing of machines.

Service men may not melt as ice men did when refrigeration replaced the ice box, but they certainly have less to do.

Along those lines Martin illustrated by showing the newest advance in agitator-type washing machines—a unit minus pulleys, belts, crank case, oil pump.

The whole idea of liquid lubrication has been a problem from a service standpoint, he said.

WOMEN ARE superior to men in assembling precision parts, and as a matter of fact they are a lot cleverer about products than most engineers give them credit for.

"So I guess they could do repairs. Some of them do now. I gave up long ago trying to design products the way I thought they ought to be.

"We design them the way they tell us to," he explains. One helpful gizmo used by service men in the last three years has been a small instrument analysis box that plugs into the washing machine and registers the exact trouble on light indicators.

"That way the service man doesn't need to take the machine apart to find a small problem. He can fix it right in the house, he says.

WOMEN ARE eager for innovations in the home, but they are unaware that technological achievements take time.

"We never revolutionize, we evolutionize. This new roller-drive washing machine motor has been tested for six years.

"There will be some wonderful things in the future—and they are being tested now. But it takes time."

For example, the dishwasher patent is 107 years old. Imagine how useful it could have been in the 19th Century for over-worked mothers.

But how could we have had dishwashers when people were pumping water from wells?

Besides proper plumbing special detergents had to be evolved. There were 11 manufacturers of dishwashers in 1926, Martin points out, but even they weren't snapped up—maids worked cheap.

Freezers had to wait until the distribution and shipment of frozen foods could be worked out.

ELECTRONIC cooking has been around for some time, but it requires different recipes, different methods of processing foods, and so forth.

"Many people get so enthused about the broad picture of something, wondering why it isn't made.

"But you can't run ahead of your support, the other things needed to make it sell.

"Manufacturers can't experiment with consumers.

"They must move ahead with assurance to maintain their reputation." Martin is assistant chief engineer of Frigidaire.

Playroom Developed From Patio

Is your house short a playroom?

Take a look at the possibility for winter enjoyment that your screened-in patio offers.

Most patios fall into the "useless space" category during cold winter weather. The cost of making this space over into an outdoor playroom can be considerably less than finishing an attic or basement.

Converting a screened-in patio into a playroom involves replacing the screen panels with glass panels and adding heat.

The sturdy aluminum patio cover will keep out winter wind, rain and snow just as it fended off the sun during the summer.

Sufficient warmth may usually be obtained without having to alter the home's heating system.

Electric or gas heaters now on the market can do an excellent job of keeping the playroom comfortable.

Winter sun provides a lot more warmth than people realize, even on the coldest day.

Although the job of the patio cover is to provide shade during the summer, in most northern locations it will permit the rays of the winter sun, which hit at a considerably lower angle, to enter and warm the patio.

Window Treatment Gives Room A Lift

Framing an old-fashioned window with radiator below it, are banks of fruitwood shutters by Joanna Western, with fabric, cane or metal mesh inserts concealing storage units. A window shade laminated with a glamorous fabric in melon and lemon yellow floral pattern has scalloped and fringed trim, with matching cornice called a "Topper."

Designer Richard Himmel

A.I.D. brought his talents to solve this usual problem window, making it a music center and a focal point of decorating with the fruitwood shutter panels and smart new inserts.

Here are ideas galore to intrigue the owner of an old-fashioned apartment or home, with former waste space around an ugly radiator under a stock window. By flanking the window in fruitwood shutters with contrasting inserts of yellow linen, and by using cane inserts across lower part of window, with metal mesh inserts in front of radiator which permit heat to circulate, the window becomes decorative and useful.

Storage units were carefully planned, with upper cabinets for television on right and record storage on left. Below the open bookshelves are spaces for record player on left and radio FM stereo on right. In the large cabinets below are twin stereo speakers.

The shade at the window is laminated with a handsome stylized floral fabric which is repeated on the crisscross stool. The lemon yellow of shade and linen inserts is echoed in the yellow textured carpeting. With ideas and design elements, a stock window over a radiator can be transformed into an area of high style, including entertainment center and enjoyment for friends and family.

Heat With Oil? It's Convenient

Many oil companies offer "keep full" service for homes with oil-fired furnaces today. Under this arrangement, the oil tank is filled automatically on a regular basis.

In areas where this service is not available, however, the homeowner must check the oil supply himself and reorder when needed. Oil tanks usually have gauges for this purpose, points out American Furnace Company.

If the gauge sticks, jar it loose by rapping the side of the tank nearby.

New Marble Wall Finish Is Popular

Marble chips are being "shot from guns" in a new wall finishing process. Called marblecrete, the new concept has become popular in the United States, Australia and Germany.

In the new process plasterers use rock guns to fire colored or white chips into the final coat of white portland cement stucco.

Often a clear glaze is then applied to the wall. This makes the wall easy to wash with plain water.

Weatherproof and never needing paint, marblecrete has been used for schools, stores, houses, churches, apartment buildings and factories.

Besides marble, the "shot from guns" process has been used with quartz, glass and ordinary pebbles.

Outdoor Faucets Stop Inconvenience

Many older homes are short of outdoor faucets. This deficiency makes it necessary to drag long lengths of hose to various parts of the lawn and garden for sprinkling. Usually because of the inconvenience involved, not all areas get the water they require.

Call a reputable plumbing contractor for an estimate on the installation of additional faucets.

Questions On Hydronics Answered

Thinking about modernizing your house? If you are, you'll probably have some questions about home heating and cooling.

To answer these, and other questions, the National Better Heating-Cooling Council, information center of the hydronic (hot water) heating and cooling industry here, offers a guide designed for the housewife titled, "Remodel Your Home With Hydronics."

The 16-page color booklet explains why hydronics is especially suitable for modernization in older houses, with diagrams showing how finger-size tubing is easily "snaked" through wall spaces or through old ducts and pipes for a neater, completely concealed installation.

One section of the booklet illustrates the optional extras that a homeowner can have with hydronics, including zone heating, snow melting, swimming pool heating, and greenhouse heating. Also illustrated are a variety of methods for summer cooling.

The booklet may be obtained by sending 10 cents to the National Better Heating-Cooling Council, 250 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10017.

PICTURE TALK

by Les Wilson

TO START THE YEAR RIGHT

Just as soon as you can, do us both a favor by bringing in the rolls of film you shot over the holidays. Half-finished rolls are no fun in your camera. You enjoy your pictures more when you see them closer to the time you snapped them. And we can do the best possible job of finishing your pictures when we get them soon after exposure... especially if they're in color.

And while we're on the subject of finishing your pictures, let me remind you that holiday snapshots are likely to include several that your friends and relatives would like. Enlarged, they make wonderful gifts. With our special equipment, we can make color enlargements at very reasonable cost. An 8"x10" enlargement, ready for framing, costs only $3.00.

If you shoot color slides on 35mm film or with any of the KODAK INSTAMATIC Cameras, don't forget that color prints can be made from KODACHROME or EKTACHROME slides to double your picture enjoyment.

One final suggestion. In case you aren't partial to enlargements as gifts for friends and relatives, how about getting several sets of duplicate slides or duplicate prints of your favorite holiday pictures... especially those that include people who shared your holiday fun.

Remember now... empty your camera and bring us your exposed film.

Bathhouse Popular

Home swimming pools are increasingly popular in summer. The degree of comfort and enjoyment from backyard bathing can be greatly increased by various simple means.

Some people like to sun themselves between dips while others prefer the shade. In either instance, a wood deck will come in handy because of its high insulation value.

One use, suggested by the Southern Pine Association, is for walkway and sunning surface around the pool. The wood does not reflect heat and you can absorb the sun's rays in comparative comfort.

A second use is for roof covering of a poolside patio. Wood decking two inches thick. The insulation this represents shields bathers effectively and prevents penetration by heat into shaded areas.

As a roof for a poolside patio, it is supported by horizontal beams attached to widely spaced posts. Roofing materials are applied to the top of the simple structure. Spaces between posts can be glassed in, if desired, and the enclosed area air conditioned. Because of its high strength and natural beauty, Southern pine lumber is well adapted to the system.

With the deck walkway and sunning surface, the lumber is constantly exposed to the elements and also close to the ground.

In such instances, the lumber should be pressure treated with chemical preservatives. It is thus immunized against insect attack and severe exposure.

If there is room for one, it is nice to have a backyard bathhouse where swimmers may change when entering or leaving the pool. With this device, the house floors are not tracked by wet feet. Such a facility can be readily constructed by competent handymen with standard items of lumber available from retail dealers.

Galvanized Steel Cans For Garbage Storage Will Get Rid of Rats

People living in crowded areas of the city can do their part in waging war against mice and rats by storing all garbage in covered galvanized steel cans.

Rodents are unable to penetrate these containers in search of food.

Without this source of food, they die of starvation.

Get the Right Size

Heating equipment for any given house can be oversized, as well as undersized. Maximum comfort and minimum operating cost, your furnace should be matched precisely to your house and your family's living habits by a qualified heating contractor.

DPW News and Notes

By Supt. Joseph Bida
PLYMOUTH DEPT. PUBLIC WORKS

The Department of Public Works would like to thank Plymouth residents for their patience during the rusty and no water period.

The contractor last week started cutting off and plugging all the old four-inch mains. However, workers found many of the old four-inch valves did not hold and they had to close down other valves until the water eventually was shut off. This meant many customers were without water.

The work should be completed this week. In the meantime, we hope all patrons will continue to be patient in this trying situation.

DPW crews were busy the past week flushing sanitary sewers and cleaning manholes. All city streets were cold patched. Due to the warm spell, some of the streets began to heave and tons of cold patch was needed. In addition, we had to use eight tons of salt to take care of icy streets.

A new catch basin was installed on York Street south of the railroad tracks. Work was done on Byron Street west of S. Harvey. Water taps were put in on Joy Street between Fairground and Virginia because of the cut off of an old four-inch main.

The mausoleum was cleaned and two funerals handled at Riverside Cemetery. The downtown area was cleaned and swept and refuse and papers were picked up in Kellogg Park.

A 15-inch storm sewer tap was installed on Plymouth Road for a new industry.

The DPW wishes to take this time to wish each and all a happy and prosperous New Year for 1965.

Livonia PTAs Slate Action On Legislation

Legislation which may or may not be enacted during the forthcoming session of the State Legislature has the interest of many Livonians. The next few months will no doubt bring many changes, as well as new laws to Michigan, and the Livonia Council of P.T.A. has already begun its plans to meet the problems and issues of the 1965 legislative session, particularly those which will have a direct effect on education.

The Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers will conduct a statewide workshop on Saturday, January 16, at its headquarters building, 1011 N. Washington Street, Lansing, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The agenda will include:

Consideration of potential legislation to be introduced in the coming legislative session;

Discussion of the working tools of legislation chairman and their use; and Problems of communication from and to the State legislative committee and the response of the legislative chairman to other committees.

Jerrie Joyner, Legislative Chairman for the Livonia Council, reported that all local P.T.A.'s have received a copy of the agenda, and a number of local persons will participate in the workshop.

Even the fellow who is a chronic kicker can sometimes win if he kicks toward the goal.

The Moral Age

Can anyone recall a Christmas long ago when your brand new Autograph Album was passed around for the first time?

An aunt would write, "Your future lies before you. Like a sheet of driven snow, Be careful how you tread on it. For every step will show."

The first line of Grandmother's contribution escapes me, but it went on—

"—your actions be guided by love, When life's long journey has ended, May we meet in Heaven above."

A frivolous cousin might insert, "In the pantry of your heart, Consider me a lemon tart,"—but on the whole you were admonished to get on the straight and narrow and stay there.

And the old readers. Everything had a moral, from the Little Red Hen through Aesop's Fables with liberal sprinklings of love of Home, Country and Nature thrown in for good measure. Snatches of old pieces of memory work come back, "All that you do, do with your might,

Things done by halves, are never done right."

"Go to the ant, thou sluggard Consider his ways and be wise" Maybe because its a brand new year and inventory time—a time of stock-taking, but, how did we turn out, this moral generation?

We fought a war — and dropped the bomb. We picked up the pieces with hopes in the United Nations. We have seen our children grow up in an age of prosperity and tried to share it with the world. We dreamed up the Peace Corps and yearn for the Great Society but are a little hazy as to how it will come about.

How did we turn out?

Cause for Celebration

Mr. Schurmway Rollins of Liberty Street flew to Rutherfordton, North Carolina the day after Christmas. He visited until after New Years with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rollins and joined in the celebration of their 66th wedding anniversary. Both parents are in good health; the father is 93 and the mother 85.

Holiday Open House

Jane Vallier, home from Smith College for the holidays, entertained former classmates of the P.H.S. class of '64 at an Open House last Saturday evening.

New Years Eve Parties

There were several large New Years Eve parties in the community.

Don Gray was general chairman of the successful knights of Columbus party. 248 guests greeted the New Year at the K of C Hall on Fair Street. There was a band for dancing and supper was served at midnight.

Members of the Elks Club enjoyed their annual affair. About 450 turned out for the smorgasbord and danced to the music of Tommy Hilton's Band. It was a full house at the VFW party. Larry Livingston's band supplied the music for dancing to about 215 guests. Mr. and Mrs. William Cadest were in charge of the festivities.

The Edmond Watson's of Dunn Court and the Ralph Biebesheimer of Wayne were New Year's Eve guests of the Tom Russell's in Belleville. On Saturday evening, the Watsons entertained the following guests at cards: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Ebersole, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kleinschmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rinehart and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Merithew of Northville. Back to School

Nadine Criger has returned to Michigan State University after spending Christmas vacation with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Criger of Arthur Street.

Julie Lent returned to Michigan State on Monday after spending the holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lent of Hartsoogh.

Dr. and Mrs. William Herbold flew back on Sunday from a delightful holiday in Florida and Jamaica. They visited Kirk Thrun of Plymouth at his new hotel Sans Souci in Ochro Rios in Jamaica. They also spent a few days with their daughter Mrs. Stafford Davis who flew from Illinois to be with them.

The women are: In the area bordered by Five and Eight Mile Roads and Inkster and Farmington Roads, Mrs. Rae Pearlman (GR 4-4317) and Mrs. Phyllis Grant (GR 4-2311) are chairmen.

Farmington and Haggerty Roads and Five and Eight Mile Roads are the borders for area chairmen Mrs. Myra Chandler (GA 7-5368) and Mrs. Jacqueline Johnson (GA 7-7354).

Mrs. Liz Mielciewicz (GA 7-4416) and Mrs. Betty Meyers (GA 7-2314) are the area chairmen for the territory bordered by Joy and Five Mile Roads and Farmington and Haggerty Roads.

In the area bordered by Joy and Five Mile Roads and Inkster and Farmington Roads the March will be headed by Mrs. Phyllis Rottman (GA 1-5042) and Mrs. Sue Trish (GA 1-3618).

Any women interested in working on the Mothers' March should contact their area chairman or Mrs. Fox at GR 4-1372. Workers and captains in all areas are still needed and as many women as possible are urged to participate in the Mothers' March.

Karen Lent

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell J. Lent of Plymouth announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen, to Robert C. Peltz. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peltz of East Detroit. The bride elect is a graduate of Michigan State University where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority. Her fiancé graduated from Western Michigan University and is now working on his master's degree at California State College, Los Angeles. His fraternity is Delta Upsilon. The couple plan an August wedding.

PTA NOTES

Tyler School

A workshop in Modern Math will be conducted at Tyler School on Jan. 12, 19 and 26 from 8 to 10 p.m. under the auspices of the Parent Teacher Association. Mr. William Kumbler, Livonia Public Schools Coordinator of Mathematics and Science for the Elementary Curriculum, will conduct this series to acquaint interested parents with the new approach to mathematics instruction as it is presented in the classroom. This workshop is offered in response to requests from parents who will pay a fee of 50c per person for the entire series to cover the cost of workmanship materials and duplicating costs. All adults in the Tyler School attendance area are welcome.

Grandview PTA

Monday, Jan. 11, meeting at 8 p.m. will be highlighted by a speech by Dr. L. G. Hornsby, a specialist in child psychiatry. "No, the Forgotten Word" will be his subject. Dr. Hornsby feels that the inability of parents to set stronger limits is a serious problem in our modern culture. He will discuss some common behavior problems with us and answer questions from the audience.

John Marshall PTA

The executive board of the John Marshall P.T.A. felt that many parents had questions they would like to ask the principal, Michael Mikula, regarding the instructional and operational policies of the school and school system. Consequently, the Jan. 11 General Assembly P.T.A. meeting at 8 p.m. will be a "Meet the Press" sort of meeting. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

Madison

On Jan. 12 at 7:50 p.m., Madison PTA will present a program featuring four Exchange Students. Eduardo Rodrigues, from Brazil and Dorothea Mavrides from Cyprus will speak about differences between our country and theirs.

Two Livonia students who have recently returned from overseas will give their comments on the countries they visited. Marilyn Schuldt, from Bentley, who visited Australia and Jacquelyn Trick, representing Franklin and just arrived from Norway, will give the American view of the countries they visited.

Rosedale Club

To Hear Naturalist Bill Hopkins, chief naturalist for the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Rosedale Gardens Garden Club in the Civic Building in Livonia on Tuesday, Jan. 12, at 1 p.m. Hopkins will present a film entitled "Metropolitan Birds."

The Authority is a five-county park and parkway agency serving Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne counties. One of its key attractions is the Nature Center at Kensington Metropolitan Park near Millford. Among the eight parks of the authority are Metropolitan Beach on Lake St. Clair near Mt. Clemens and the Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville.

City Employees Boost UF Contributions

"I am happy to report that this year's United Foundation Drive among Livonia city employees showed a definite increase and interest over last year," Mayor Harvey Moelke reports. The 1963 drive among City employees netted $1,484.40 for United Foundation, while this year's drive netted $2,593.20, an increase of $1,108.80.

Livonia Author

Sister Mary Lauriana, C.S.S.F., Ph.D., co-ordinator of teacher education at Livonia's Madonna College, is the author of "Ten Commandments of Good Handwriting" in the December, 1964, issue of ELEMENTARY ENGLISH magazine.

CURTAIN TIME

Rehearsal time for New Year's resolutions is over—now comes the real test.

League of Women Voters Plan Meetings for January

An invitation to Plymouth women to join the League of Women Voters of Livonia has been extended by Mrs. Myron Singer, Livonia League President.

The League of Women Voters is a non-partisan volunteer organization. All women citizens, 21 years of age and over, are eligible to become members, according to Mrs. Singer.

Any interested Plymouth resident may attend one of the January unit meetings of the Livonia League, she said. Further information may be obtained by calling the membership chairman, Mrs. William Taylor, at GA. 2-0933, or Mrs. Bruce Woodbury, 453-4558.

Public Welfare is the subject of January unit meetings, with emphasis on the public assistance, aspect and on the dual system of relief in Michigan.

The Tuesday, Jan. 12, meeting will be held at 12:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard McGeorge, 15650 Norwich, Livonia, while the Wednesday, Jan. 13, meeting is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Solomon Bienenfeld, 29623 Trancrest, Livonia.

On Wednesday, Jan. 20, the meeting will be held at 12:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Franklin Curtis, 30503 Jeanine.

Livonia. The Thursday, Jan. 21, meeting is to be held at 8:15 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ray Tremepohl, 8339 Henry Ruff, Garden City.

Songs for Goodfellows

The holiday spirit of goodwill reached Livonia youngsters during the Christmas season. Proof of this?

Debbie Schafer, Cheryl Ennis, Darlene Garde and Charlene Garde, all 11-years-olds and students at Daniel Webster School in Livonia's Castle Garden formed a singing group and went house-to-house in Castle Gardens subdivision.

They collected $6 and, in turn, donated the money to the Livonia Goodfellows.

"HUGE CLEARANCE THRUOUT GRAHAM'S"

Redford Township Jaycees Protest National Political Referendum

A national referendum among members of the Junior Chambers of Commerce of America on the issue of Medicare is the target of criticism by Redford Township Jaycee President L. H. Wilking in the latest issue of the Redford Jaycees' Newsletter.

Writing to Jaycee members, Wilking says, "Our organization resents being forced to take political sides on any issue." He urges that Redford Jaycees make this view known to the organization's national officers.

Redford's organization, along with Jaycee chapters throughout the U.S., is being asked to vote on a so-called "Declaration of External Policy Opposing Medicare (Socialized Medicine)." The resolution states "Such legislation would be another step toward socialism and would jeopardize our free enterprise system which has made steady progress in extending and improving voluntary hospital insurance coverage of the aged under commercial programs."

Said Wilking in his letter of opposition to the referendum: "It has been the policy of our chapter to resist taking sides on issues that have a clear political line drawn. Based on all and any information available to me on House Bill 3920, now pending before the Congress of the United States, or any similar legislation that may be introduced, a clear and distinct political line has been drawn."

"I, as your president, am faced with the responsibility of bringing this resolution before you for a vote, even though I feel it clearly violates our chapter policy of resisting political issues. The reason this must come before our organization is apparent, when it is recognized that we are a member of the USJCC and will be included in whatever resultant action taken by the members of USJCC."

"I have no intention of swaying any members judgment, as a private citizen, on the pending legislation, but I object to our chapter being faced with the dilemma of voting on a clearly political issue."

"I know that members of our group has personal convictions that support the proposed resolution, but I feel that the Jaycees' job is complete when public awareness of a situation is obtained. I am certain individuals will take me to task for the stand I have taken, but I firmly believe that if the Junior Chamber of Commerce is to continue prospering, it cannot afford to become a young men's political group of any kind. Certainly some will say that this is a national issue that must be faced, and I agree, but once the issue is out in the open, let us Jaycees act as private citizens, not as a group for or against."

"As a point of clarification, this resolution requires 1/6 of all chapters to vote with at least 1/6 of these having in excess of 30 members. As an example: if there were 5,400 chapters, 900 would have to cast a vote with at least 150 chapters having more than 30 members, with a majority of 45 of this mix voting for or against."

THEATER PARTY FOR more than 700 Livonia safety patrol boys was held last week at the Terrace Theater. It was sponsored by the Livonia Police Officers Association as a public service to reward the elementary students who daily serve as crossing guards for the city's school children.

Adult Education Class Slated for Do-It-Yourselfers

The South Redford Adult Education School is coming to the aid of do-it-yourselfers who have lacked confidence and are faint-at-heart.

In fact, according to Director Martin Brosnan, the school conspired with Santa Claus to make certain that those tools left under the Christmas tree would actually get used and not be mere decorations in the basement workshop.

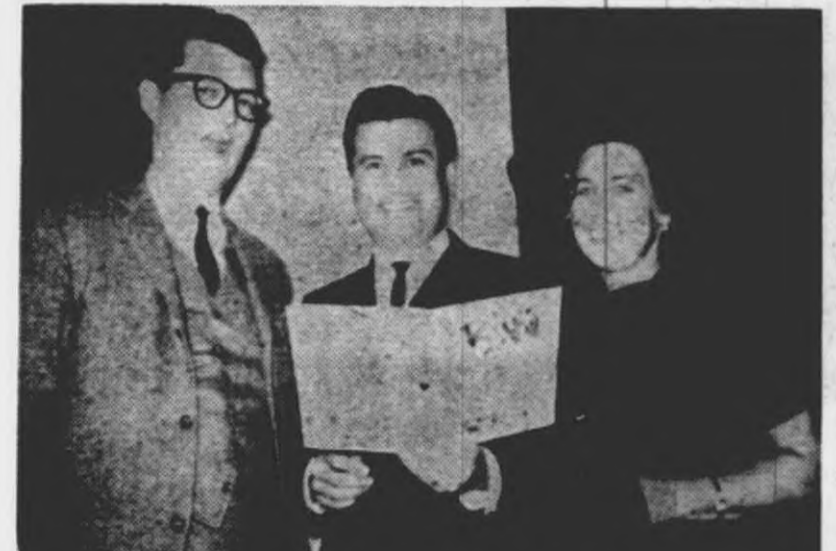

Indeed, the new curriculum went so far as to demolish the double standard for do-it-yourselfers which has put most of the pressure on the males to use tools for the welfare of the household. Women are invited to subscribe to their right to be creative with tools on a par with their husbands, particularly if the husband is a bit reluctant to work anyway.

New is a class in general shop for adults with a special invitation to the ladies. The course description says: "Develop hobbies to help occupy your leisure time or beautify your home surroundings. Activities will include wood-working, furniture construction, refinishing, wood carving, etc."

Registration for the second semester (Jan. 25 to April 15) takes place from Jan. 18 to Jan. 21. Most classes continue for 12 weeks and enrollment can be by mail if applications accompanied by a check are received before Jan. 21. Registration hours at Thurston High School, 26255 Schoolcraft Rd., where classes are held, will be from 7 to 9 p.m.

Courses traditionally offered will be continued in seven areas plus special interest courses.

The curriculum is divided into business and commercial; general academic; drama and fine arts; health, safety and driver education; practical arts, crafts, and vocations, and recreational skill.

Roe Defends Teacher, Academic Freedom in Statement on Charges

The office of Superintendent M. D. Roe this week issued a commentary on the study of the charges made against a Thurston teacher. The statement follows the official action of the Board of Education last week in declaring by resolution that the charges were without foundation.

Commenting on the study made by the Board of Education and school administration, Roe asserted "The role of the teacher in our democratic society is of primary importance to the success of that society and the welfare of its members. Therefore, any fundamental assumption that a teacher is delinquent in carrying out her professional obligations has implications which must be weighed in terms of basic concepts underlying our democratic way of life."

"The Administration is fully aware that cherished American freedoms carry both privileges and responsibilities. Academic freedom, of course, is a special concern of education. Because of our commitment to academic freedom, we believed, despite the seriousness of the charges made against her, that Mrs. Lewis was protected by our traditional right to be assumed innocent until found otherwise and should continue in her position."

"Help in reviewing the rights and responsibilities of a teacher was obtained through direct consultation with the Michigan Education Association, the National Education Association, and highly qualified legal counsel. The best professional statements on this subject, and long recognized teacher codes of ethics were also studied."

"Against these standards, developed over many decades of experience, the Board found after careful study of the facts that the classroom practices and comments of Mrs. Lewis were professionally acceptable."

"It is recognized that students must be given complete opportunity to learn about our cultural heritage. We are also aware, under this heritage, that indoctrination has no place in the American classroom. We believe with the National Education Association that it is the professional duty of the teacher to present diverse points of view so students can learn to think for themselves. It is likewise accepted that it is vital for students to learn the true importance to democracy of free discussion and development of the ability to make decisions after hearing varied sides of an issue. Free inquiry remains basic to preservation of our liberties. "Mrs. Lewis, the evidence shows, was fulfilling her professional role as a teacher."

Ford Enjoys Biggest Year in History in '64

Henry Ford II said that Ford Motor Company will close 1964 by posting records for sales of cars and trucks in the United States, as well as throughout the free world. The chairman of the board of the company reported that Ford and Lincoln-Mercury in the U.S. will deliver more than 2,100,000 new cars during 1964—highest in the company's 61-year history and topping the old record of 2,040,000 set in 1955. The record car sales this year will be nine per cent higher than the 1,928,000 passenger cars sold in 1963.

Ford said that, outside of the U.S., Ford and its affiliates should record retail sales of more than 1,300,000 cars and trucks, surpassing last year's all time high by well over 100,000.

"Record sales of more than 410,000 new Ford trucks in the U.S. reflect the continuing demand for commercial vehicles and will exceed last year's record total of 390,000 by at least five per cent," Ford said.

With the establishment of both U.S. car and truck sales records in 1964, retail deliveries of the company's cars and trucks combined also will set a record of more than 2,500,000 units—well above the 2,353,000 delivered in the previous banner year of 1955.

Final figures for the fourth quarter of 1964 are expected to show that Ford Motor Company and its dealers in the U.S. also set a quarterly car sales record.

October through December sales of the company's passenger cars should exceed 570,000—compared with the old record of 564,000 in the second quarter of 1964 and with 543,500 in the same quarter a year ago. The record fourth quarter will be achieved despite a two-week strike which cut the company's production by 115,000 cars.

In his year-end statement, Ford said the strength of the economy and of automobile demand suggests that industry sales records of 8.1 million cars, including imports, and 1.4 million trucks to be set in 1964 "will soon topple."

"In fact, we believe that car sales next year may well be as high as 8.7 million," he said. "We also believe that truck sales will equal or exceed the 1964 mark."

Ford noted that "the demand for automobiles in the U.S. has been rising for more than three years, and shows no signs of tapering off. On the contrary, it has become even stronger since the introduction of the 1965 models."

He stated that Ford Motor Company is planning to build more cars and trucks in the U.S. in the first quarter of 1965 than in any quarter in history.

Teen Talent Auditions Starts Saturday

Auditions for the 1965 Talented Teens Europe Tour troupe will start this month, according to George F. Koehnke, president of the Talented Teen Foundation which sponsors the project. The Foundation, a non-profit organization, is recruiting teenagers for the third annual 3-week goodwill Europe tour of seven countries where they will do shows and concerts for students and American military stationed abroad.

Detroit area auditions will be held Saturday, Jan. 9, at 2 p.m. in Fairlane Motel, 21430 Michigan Ave., Dearborn. Other auditions will be scheduled at a later date. The Talented Teen Europe troupe will leave O'Hare Airport, Chicago on August 2 and fly on a BOAC jet direct to London, England, and then travel by deluxe motor coach to seven countries. Twelve special sight seeing trips are scheduled to Europe's famous spots of culture. The troupe chaperoned by George F. Koehnke and his wife, along with a staff of teachers and parents will be coached by professionals.

Students and adults will pay the same cost, $783.00 for a 3-week tour, which includes demipension plan meals, plane fare, motor coach, hotels, hotel tips and English-speaking guides. Anyone who would like more information should write Talented Teens, Itasca, Ill.

Bank Hikes Interest Rate

The National Bank of Detroit announced today that it will begin paying four per cent interest on all savings accounts effective January 1, 1965.

Bank officials said interest on all savings accounts will be compounded and paid quarterly. No minimum deposit will be required.

The new, higher interest rate will be paid automatically on all National Bank of Detroit regular and investment savings accounts, benefiting more than 350,000 NBD depositors.

Accounts opened by January 10 will earn a full month's interest at the 4 per cent rate, NBD officials said.

Accounts opened during an interest quarter will earn interest for each calendar month, payable at the end of the next interest quarter.

The increase from 3.5 to 4 per cent was made possible by a ruling of the Federal Reserve Board last month.

BENTLEY WINDS UP IN THIRD PLACE:

R.U. Cagers Bow to Southfield in Meet

SURPRISE, SURPRISE AND ALMOST A SURPRISE AGAIN!

So it went last week for Redford Union high's basketball team in the annual Holiday tournament which started at R. U. and Farmington and wound up at R. U.

The dopesters favored Southfield and Bentley to fight it out for the crown. Nobody gave Redford Union much of a chance.

But when the championship game was played, there was R. U. giving Southfield all that the Bluejays could want before Southfield came out on top, 63-59, to take home the major crown.

Bentley, meantime, had to settle for the third-place trophy after winning the meet opener, then losing in an upset to Redford Union, 63-60, before winning the final night from Farmington, 64-53.

"I was very proud of my boys," declared Coach Mike Karhu of R. U.

"We have a small team, you know," he said, "but our kids kept battling all the way. We had to fight back, too, and we did in all of our games. Southfield just had a little too much for us and came out a winner."

Here's the game-by-game story of how the area teams fared in the tournament:

SOUTHFIELD 63, R.U. 57

The Townshippers resorted to a combination zone-man-to-man defense and it worked well in holding down Ray Schlaff and Rick Coleman, the Southfield aces who between them had been averaging 45 points per game.

Harry Kendrick was a giant on defense for RU as he held

Coleman to six points. Schlaff, on the other hand, made 18.

It was a ding-dong battle all the way. Southfield led, 16-11, at the end of the first quarter, 31-27, at half time, 48-47, after three periods.

The lead changed hands no less than nine times and R.U. was in contention until the final 30 seconds when with Southfield leading, 60-57, a three-pointer, wrapped up the game.

Three straight baskets by Ted Simmons in the final period had put Southfield in front after R.U. had gone on top by a point.

Mike McCrea was the scoring ace, as he had been all during the meet, for R.U. He notched 12 baskets and five free throws for 29 points. Kendrick scored eight points and so did Orin Newton.

R.U. 63, BENTLEY 60

This was a typical struggle between the two arch rivals in the Suburban Six League.

Bentley went in front early. R. U. bounced back to hold command, 30-29, at halftime. In the third period, R. U. regained an eight-point margin, but Bentley pulled even again.

It was see-saw in the final period until McCrea got hot for R. U. He looped in five baskets in the closing moments as he helped R. U. roar from behind to take the lead for keeps.

Al Masbach, Newton and McCrea all had 14 points for the winners. Fred Matevia was the top Bentley scorer for 21 points.

R.U. 68, WALLED LAKE 52

Not only the third period was Redford Union able to pull away into a comfortable command.

The Townshippers had grabbed a 19-9 command at the end of the first period and reached halftime with a 34-25 edge. In the third quarter, however, R. U. outscored Walled Lake, 17-9, and the issue never was in doubt the rest of the way.

Balanced scoring by McCrea (18 points), Lee Bjerke (16) and Newton (16) highlighted the R. U. offensive attack.

BENTLEY 63, BERKLEY 53

Bob Elsner's brilliant play shot Bentley in front in the tourney. Elsner grabbed off 23 points with nine baskets and five free throws.

Berkley battled Bentley on even terms during the first half. At the intermission, the Livonians clung to a 30-29 advantage.

But in the third period, Bentley outscored Berkley, 17-12, and in the fourth it was 16 points for Bentley to 12 for Berkley.

Nick Bonder trailed Elsner with 11 points while Tim Dull caged nine in helping to pace the victors' strong assault.

BENTLEY 64, FARMINGTON 53

In the battle for third-place honors, Bentley bounced in front, 18-13, after one period and held a 36-29 halftime edge.

But Farmington managed to tie the count at 40-40 before Bentley put on a closing surge to finish on the long end of the score.

Free-throw shooting made the big difference. From the floor, Farmington had a 21-30 edge in baskets. However, when it came to charity tosses, Bentley hit on 14 out of 24 to 14 for 25 by Farmington.

Matevia with eight baskets and four free throws for 20 points topped the winners. Then came Elsner with 2-6-10. Tim Dull had nine points, Gary Faucett eight, Bonder seven, Ken Bayman six and Terry Livermore two.

In addition to strong scoring, Bentley did a fine job of holding down John Olanders and Roy Leach, two of the Farmington stars. Olander was held to seven points and Leach to five.

Mike Wilson was high for the losers with six baskets and six free throws for 18 points. Greg Dorow had seven points, Steve Moore five, Don Miracle and George Grimalda four each and Ron Cleveland two apiece.

FARMINGTON 74, WAYNE 69

A fast start carried Farmington to a 23-11 lead after one quarter, but Wayne bounced back and finally tied Farmington with about three minutes left in the game.

Then Wilson took over with Leach and between them they drilled in eight quick points to wrap up matters for Farmington.

Olander was the big star for the victors with 11 baskets and seven free throws for 29 points. Leach was close behind, hitting on nine hoops and three charities for 21 points. Wilson wound up with nine points.

SOUTHFIELD 83, FARMINGTON 69

After Southfield roared ahead early, Farmington put on a spurt to tie the score at 42-42. But the Southfield team dominated the rest of the way as the Bluejays outscored Farmington, 41-27, in the final 14 minutes.

Olander with eight baskets and five free throws headed the Farmington cause with 21 points. Leach had 17 on seven hoops and three foul tosses. Wilson was next with five hoops and five charities for 15 points.

FANCY JUGGLER—Rick Smigielski of Southfield does some fancy work as Leland Bjerke (behind) of Redford Union watches in holiday-tourney finals. Southfield triumphed to take the title.

WRESTLING ACT—Gary Faulke (33) of Bentley watches as teammate Tim Dull fights Harry Kendrick of Redford for a loose ball in holiday tourney game. Redford Union won game.

WHAT, NO FOUL? Roy Leach (42) of Farmington is held by Wayne's Gary Matches as they go for free ball. No foul was called on the play.

OBSERVER SPORTS

By George Maskin

The year of 1964 is dead . . . or is it? Well, not for the adults who still have a financial matter (income tax) to settle up with Uncle Samuel and the City of Detroit and for those of us who now must fork out for all the gifts purchased during the Christmas period.

It also dawned on us that before we wipe out '64 from a sports standpoint, we might reflect for a few moments on the top stories as (1) they pertained to the area served by the Observer newspapers and (2) the entire state of Michigan.

Hereabouts, three events stood out above all others:

- 1—The unbeaten, untied football season enjoyed at Franklin High school in Livonia.
- 2—The victory in the hurdles by Farmington's Rex Cawley in the 1964 Olympics at Tokyo.
- 3—The two state championships and two state records to give him a grand total of six titles and six state marks chalked by Thurston high swimmer Ken Wiebeck, presently a freshman at the University of Michigan.

To us the stories rate in prominence in the fashion listed above.

We're not in any way trying to discount the fetes turned in by Cawley or Wiebeck, but neither's achievement came as too much of a surprise.

Cawley had left the American shores for Tokyo rated as the world's premier hurdler. When he got to Japan, he did nothing to detract from his status.

As for Wiebeck, he had entered his senior year at Thurston with the unmatched record of having already won four state crowns and cracked four records—two each as a sophomore and as a junior. The experts generally agreed that Wiebeck could have won four state crowns and maybe five, if the state prep rules didn't restrict a natator to just two events.

But when it came to Franklin high . . . not too many could envision a perfect campaign for the young southside school in Livonia.

After all, this was just Franklin's third year of competition. History dictates that it takes a school five years—maybe a decade or more—to establish itself athletically. Franklin did in just three seasons.

Besides the perfect mark of nine consecutive wins, Franklin took the league title and also the city crown.

There was another noteworthy item for Franklin. The team had entered the year with a new coach in Bob Bentley, who in the past had been identified with basketball powers in the Livonia school system—especially at Bentley high.

Bentley (the coach) could have remained as Franklin's basketball mentor. But he wanted to take a crack at football, because, as he said: "it offered a challenge to me."

Bob Bentley certainly proved a point . . . to himself and to the community.

Other major sports stories in the Observer area centered around:

1—The lighting of a baseball and softball diamond in Livonia, something the area had not known in the past.

2—The retiring of three crackerjack football coaches—Jack Hudnut (who left teaching entirely at Franklin for other work), Mike Hoben, who was promoted to an administrative job at Plymouth and Gordon Young, who was assigned new duties at Thurston.

3—The unbeaten (tied once) football season for St. Agatha, an historical chapter for the Redford Union parochial school. The almost flawless record enabled Coach Dave Brazil and his team to share the divisional title in the Catholic League.

4—The vast improvement in the calibre of sandlot baseball in the area for boys 18-19. Just how "good" the teams were was reflected in the increased attention paid to the area by the various major league scouts, headed by the great Louis D'Annunzio of the Tigers, who years ago signed Milt Pappas for the Baltimore Orioles.

Now to turn to the top stories of the year on a statewide basis:

1—The Detroit Lions coaching mess. It started with the firing of three assistant coaches. Then it was announced that two more aides would go . . . meaning that George Wilson would have to start all over in building a staff. The next day, Wilson himself told the Lions he "had enough" and so now Owner Bill Ford must find himself a new chief coach and a new group of assistants. Some major trades also are a cinch before the 1965 season dawns.

2—The Detroit Pistons' changes in command. First the hiring of Don Wattrick, a veteran broadcaster of great renown as executive manager and then the ousting of Charley Wolf as coach and the surprise selection of Dave DeBusschere as the playing-coach.

3—The University of Michigan athletic story: In football, Michigan won the Big Ten and the Rose Bowl; in basketball, the Wolverines ended the 1963-64 season by taking the Big Ten and going to the finals of the NCAA. They started off '64-65 by scoring a dramatic victory over Wichita in the battle of one-two teams

50 Boys Register For Cage League

Success of the Plymouth Community Junior Basketball program seems assured as more than 50 youngsters between the ages of 8 and 12 registered Saturday morning at Junior High West.

A second registration program has been scheduled for next Saturday (Jan. 9) at Junior High West from 9 to 11 a.m. when an additional 100 are expected to enroll.

Handling the registrations are: John Van Wagoner, Howard Oldford and Joseph Bida, superintendent of the Plymouth

Department of Public Works and president of the Plymouth Junior Baseball program.

Tryouts, to determine whether the youngster goes into the major or minor league, will be held Saturday morning and afternoon. The boys will be placed on teams and efforts will be made to start league play on the Junior High West court on Saturday, Jan. 16.

The proposed league has generated considerable interest among parents and boys in all sections of the community. There were all sizes and ages represented in the initial registration.

Parents had to accompany the boys to sign the necessary papers.

Perhaps the most interesting was big Howard Dunlap, who towers 6'4" and packs a bit more weight than when he played in high school back in the late '30s.

Howard brought son Joe, a 4'9" nine-year-old and during the course of the conversation told of the days when he was a member of an outstanding high school team at Alveton, O. The team went to the state class "B" tournament three years running.

Naturally, Papa believes his youngster, who shows signs of stretching out well over six feet, may develop. At least he is a firm believer in the junior basketball program and even offered his services as a part-time coach.

He's just one of many fathers who feel the same about their sons and believe the training in the league will help develop an outstanding basketball program in Plymouth in the not too distant future.

Boys, between the ages of 8 and 12, who are interested in playing should register next Saturday. The cost is only $7.50 per boy and only $4 for the second member of any family.

Major League Record
Don Demeter of the Detroit Tigers set a major league record for most consecutive games without an error by an outfielder in 1964. Demeter, who began his streak Sept. 3, 1962, extended his perfect fielding to 228 games, breaking the record of 205 errorless games set by Tony Gonzales of the Phillies.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON—That's the ambition of Howard Dunlap, 751 Auburn (holding basketball), as nine-year-old Joe Dunlap registers for the Plymouth Junior Basketball League. Dad, who towers 6'4", was a star for Alveton, O. high school a few years back and feels his son will be a tall one by the time he enrolls at Plymouth High. Howard Oldford (right) and John Van Wagoner (left), members of the league's executive committee, smile approval as Secretary Joe Bida fills out the registration blank.

Thurston Is Winner; Then Loses 2 Games

One victory, two defeats, for the varsity!

Two victories, one defeat for the reserves!

So it went for Thurston high's basketball entries last week in the River Rouge invitational holiday tournaments.

The varsity started in fast fashion, winning over Northville by a 63-53 score.

But in the next round, Thurston had to do battle with perennial State Class B champ River Rouge and the game was strictly a runaway—for Rouge, that is. Final score: Rouge 87, Thurston 43.

In the final action for the Thurston varsity, the Townshippers wound up on the short end against Monroe, 60-51, as Rouge swept on to win the crown, as everybody expected.

Game by game, here was the story for the Thurston Varsity:

NORTHVILLE
Northville went in front early by a 14-8 score. Then with John Page leading a second-period uprising as he personally scored 10 points, Thurston came back to lead by a 28-21 count at halftime.

The rest of the way it was all

Thurston with Page topping all scorers at the end with 17 points on six baskets and five charities. Rick Stefani and Gary Knock each tossed in 13 points for the victors.

RIVER ROUGE
The day of the game, a story had appeared in the Detroit Free Press. The theme of the article centered around the fact Rouge wasn't the power of other years.

Well, Rouge showed Hal Schram, who authorized the story, and Thurston a few things.

In the first period, Rouge outscored Thurston, 25-12. By halftime it was 44-23 for Rouge.

"The only bright spot for us," said Coach Mike Pasternak of Thurston, "was the fact we scored the game's first basket and went ahead early by a 2-0 score."

Page again led Thurston, this time with 16 points. Stefani followed with eight and Terry Rothwell with seven.

MONROE
Monroe did a fine job in throttling Page. They held Thurston's high scorer to just seven points in booming along to a victory for the third-place trophy.

Knock caged 11 points, Rothwell nine, Fred Koester eight and Stefani six for Thurston which now resumes its regular schedule against John Glenn this Friday at home and then at Cherry Hill Saturday night.

The Thurston reserves, paced by Reg Barringer, came home with the third-place trophy and at the same time Barringer won himself a promotion to the varsity with his fine shooting.

The second stringers began their tourney action by crushing Northville, 83-56, as Barringer tossed in 16 points.

In their next game, Thurston lost a heartbreaker to the River Rouge reserves (the ultimate meet winners), 70-69. Rouge turned two last-minute interceptions into baskets to win the game.

Barringer shared scoring honors with Bob Wardrop as each bagged 16 points.

In the tourney finals, Barringer was the big hero for Thurston as he pumped in 24 points to pace a 62-45 triumph over Monroe.

Livonia DPR Opens Gyms For Programs

The quest for gyms for Livonia youngsters and adults is sometimes difficult. The Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation will ease the problem with the opening of various neighborhood centers beginning the week of January 11.

Boys 12, 13 and 14 years are invited to attend the center nearest their home from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. and boys and men may attend from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Activities will include basketball and volleyball with the following schedule: Mondays at Washington, beginning January 19, and Webster; Tuesday at Adams; Wednesday at Botsford and Johnson; Thursday at Marshall, Rosedale and Lincoln; and Fridays at Cleveland and Wilson.

Cobb's Latest Record
As a result of recent research, Ty Cobb, former Detroit Tiger player and manager, was found to have driven in a total of 1,954 runs with figures for 1905 and 1906, previously lacking, discovered. The new, complete total places him ahead of Stan Musial and third behind Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig in RBI.

Pistons Give Lift to LIT, DIT Quintets

The Lawrence Tech vs. Detroit Tech basketball game at Cobo Arena Thursday night, January 14, will be fought for more than victory — thanks to Fred Zollner, owner of the Detroit Pistons.

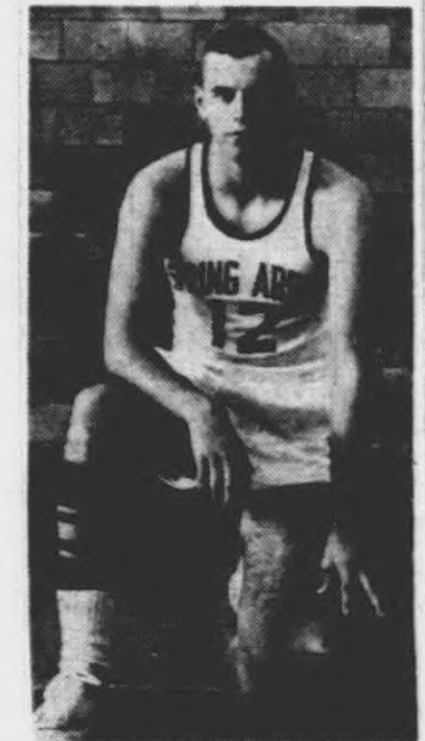

1. He will donate a large trophy to the winning team.

2. Members of the winning team will get individual medals.

3. Half of the money spent by Lawrence Tech fans to see the game and the Pistons-Lakers contest which follows, will be refunded for the proposed Don Ridler Memorial Field House on the Lawrence Tech campus.

Detroit Tech also will enjoy the same type of refund arrangement for its own uses.

Fans should have quite an evening since at 6:15 p.m. Detroit Tech will be seeking revenge for an early season defeat by Lawrence Tech, 78 to 74, and then at 8 p.m. they'll see the Los Angeles super basketball stars Jerry West and Elgin Baylor battling with our Pistons.

GOING GREAT: Roland Kent, former Bentley high star, now is the top scorer and rebounder on the Spring Arbor College team this winter. He is averaging almost 20 points per game.

Tigers Plan Five Games For Ladies

The Detroit Tigers announce five Ladies Days for 1965, including two especially scheduled to mark the close of the school year.

One of the special dates is Thursday, June 17, soon after the close of parochial schools in Detroit, and another Thursday, June 24, a day after the close of public schools. Both are expected to be attractive to the Tigers' feminine fans, since they can be turned into family days. Boys under 14, as well as girls and women, will be admitted for 50 cents.

The other Ladies Days will be May 29, July 19 and August 12.

Six Saturday afternoon games have again been set aside for Retirees Days, when senior citizens will be admitted for 50 cents. Any identification indicating retirement will be accepted.

32 Games in 31 Days; That's Olympia Card

Thirty-two games in the first 31 days of the New Year will make Olympia hockey headquarters for the month of January.

A total of 15 different hockey dates are listed on the month's schedule, including eight triple-headers and a double-header. Highlighting the January program is the second-annual Old Timers Game Jan. 25, pitting Red Wing stars of the past against the current Detroit team.

Second-half of this twin bill will be a junior hockey contest between the Red Wings' Hamilton (Ont.) farm club and Detroit's Metro League All-Stars.

Metro League teams also will play seven triple-headers at Olympia during January. The fourth-annual Mayor's Tournament of high school hockey (three games) is set for Jan. 10.

The Red Wings have six home dates this month—two each against Boston, and Chicago and one each against New York and Toronto.

The first Chicago date Jan. 9 is a Saturday matinee and the second Jan. 30 is a Saturday night contest, both rare occurrences on the Olympia hockey calendar.

Farmington YMCA Offers Ski Lessons

Starting Jan. 8, the Farmington YMCA will be giving skiing lessons every Friday, from 7 to 11 p.m. The lessons, consisting of two hours of skiing and an hour of instruction, will take place at Mt. Brighton.

The cost of lessons is $25 per family ($10 for each individual) with a special rate on lifts and equipment. It is suggested that people bring their own ski tackles, though they can be furnished.

For those who wish, a special ski weekend is planned at Thunder Mountain, at the close of the course. Registration is taking place at the Y.

Play in Tournament

Danny and Dennis Vartanian, of Farmington, recently participated in the DeMolay Table Tennis Championship, in Kalamazoo. They competed together in the doubles, and Danny was runnerup in the singles.

DID YOU KNOW . . . Star Terry Dischinger of the Detroit Pistons is making plans to enter engineering graduate school at Purdue University during the summer session. Dischinger earned All-American and All Big Ten honors during his three years on the Purdue varsity.

Observing Sports

at Cobo Arena and then staging a fantastic rally to beat Princeton in New York, before losing to St. John's.

4—The comeback of Ted Lindsay with the Detroit Red Wings. When Manager Sid Abel announced Lindsay would play again after being away from the National Hockey League for four years, there were a lot of laughs. "Just a publicity story," many were heard to say. But the Wings have been right in the thick of matters all season and the same experts, who frowned at the Lindsay comeback, now hail his play as being one of the major reasons why the Wings stand where they do.

5—The innovation of the "twin double" at the Detroit Race Course and the smashing of all records—for attendance, for wagering—for everything else. And, there were a few folks who went home with a bundle of loot, just because they knew how to pick the right horses in four different races.

6—The dropping of football at the University of Detroit. There had been rumors over the years, but nobody figured the Titans would make the move. But they did.

7—The failure of Detroit to get the 1968 Olympics . . . thus eliminating for at least 12 years the chances of the area to obtain the Games.

8—The struggle of the Tigers who barely made the first division after most of the know-it-alls had picked the team to give the New York Yankees a run for the American League pennant.

9—River Rouge's continued domination of the State's Class B basketball wars.

10—The victory by Peaches Bartkowicz of Hamtramck in the finals of the Junior Wimbledon tennis tournament—the highest honor ever to come to a Michigan player in a major net meet.

As the new year now moves forward in full force, we'd like to welcome aboard TV Station WKBD, which will come in on Channel 50. If you have a new TV or a special converter, you're all set to get Channel 50. Otherwise, we suggest you hurry and get one.

The new station is due to start this weekend . . . no later than Saturday.

You can see Red Wing hockey, basketball, tennis, golf, and what have you.

Bruce Martyn, a top sports announcer for many years, has been appointed as Channel 50's sports director. We have seen the program schedule of the new station. If you love sports, you'll see all you want and then some.

We have nothing to do with TV sales, but if you don't want an argument at home, may we suggest you make certain that you have an extra set around—to avoid any clashes between husband and wife . . . or Pop and the kids!

Once more—A Happy, Happy New Year.

Shakespeare Will Dominate Area Stages January 14

In Farmington:

An Evening With Shakespeare Presented by Players

"An Evening With Shakespeare" will be presented Jan. 14 at the Farmington Junior High School Gymnasium by the Farmington Players.

This is the annual Clinton Wilbur Lecture sponsored by the Farmington Friends of the Library. Admission to the program, which will begin at 8 p.m., is 50 cents.

A variety of dramatic types have been chosen by the Farmington Players in an attempt to show the genius and universality of Shakespeare's works. Selections have been made from Shakespeare's thirty-seven plays and more than 150 sonnets.

The program includes some of the famous soliloquies and will be highlighted by the Players' creation of "Shakespeare's Ladies."

Outstanding female characters of Shakespeare's comedies, tragedies and histories will be presented in this segment. Such notable as Desdemona, Portia, Lady Macbeth and Katherine of Taming of the Shrew will be portrayed.

An additional section of the program is entitled "Shakespeare Says." This will illustrate how the words and phrases of Shakespeare are commonplace in modern English.

Bob Schafer, president of the Farmington Friends of the Library, will introduce the Farmington Players after presenting a short review of the Friends' activities.

Plans for future expansion of library facilities in the area will be discussed.

"This particular program should have good audience appeal," commented Donald Nichols, Players Program Chairman. "There have been many performances and presentations celebrating the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's birth and this is Farmington's contribution."

"Shakespeare lovers, students of literature, and all who enjoy dramatic performances will find an evening's entertainment on this occasion," he added.

In Livonia:

Performances Of Shrew Set

The Performing Arts Company of Michigan State University will visit the area Jan. 14 with its production of William Shakespeare's comedy "The Taming of the Shrew."

Sponsored by the Theatre Guild of Livonia-Redford two performances are scheduled at 2:45 p.m. and 8 p.m. at Franklin High School.

Tickets may be obtained by contacting Diane Williamson at GA 2-4921 or any Guild member. They are priced at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students.

Library Program Topic Slated

The library program in South Redford Schools will be the feature of the monthly staff report to the Board of Education at the Jan. 13 meeting at Shear Elementary School.

The report will take the form of a panel discussion by Librarians Florence Jordan, Helen Kazanowski, and Alma Schlotterbeck. Audience discussion will follow and all district librarians will be present to participate and answer questions about individual school library practices.

Displays will be provided by Librarians Jan Landsberg, Gail Eshelman, and Joan Duryee.

Oil Painting Class Will Be Taught by Livonian

Emphasizing programs of creativity in the new YMCA Informal Education Classes, Oil Painting has been added with Mr. Marvin Beerbohm as the instructor.

Mr. Beerbohm attended Art School at the Society of Arts and Crafts in Detroit and also studied painting as a pupil of the late Samuel Halpert and the late John Carroll.

He has a background in teaching painting as well as free-lance work. He has designed and executed murals which were commissioned by the Public Buildings Administration, Treasury Department in Washington, D.C.

Mr. Beerbohm also designed the stain glass windows for Sinai Hospital in Detroit, and painted a series of pictures for the Harlan Electric Company. Recently he finished a mural for the Harlan Elementary School in Bloomfield Hills.

A Livonia resident, Mr. Beerbohm is married and has one child.

The class meets once a week for ten weeks and the cost is $15 plus a YMCA Membership fee. Those who are interested in more information, or to register for this class please call the Farmington Area YMCA at 474-3282.

David Rubinoff Slates Two School Concerts

The distinguished violinist David Rubinoff will give two concerts at Farmington Junior High School on Jan. 15. He will play a matinee for students and faculty. The students will include some from lower grade and parochial schools and some from outlying districts. He will also give an evening concert.

The program will include "Warsaw Concerto," "Polonaise," "Rhapsody in Blue," "Intermezzo," "Clair de Lune," "Fiddlin' the Fiddle" and "Don't Fence Me In."

Tickets are available at the Welsby's House of Music in the Downtown Farmington Center. The programs are sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Farmington.

13th Autorama To Feature Unique Autos

The nation's most unique automobiles, designed and built by internationally known hot rod custom car competitors, will be seen in the spectacular 13th annual Autorama at Cobo Hall in downtown Detroit for three days starting Friday, Jan. 22.

Cars will include entries from Paul Curtis of Roseville, Bill Haboush II of St. Clair Shores, Al Bergler of East Detroit, Don Damske of Garden City, John Farris and Jerry Gurwin of west side Detroit; Kent Hazelwood of Trenton, Al Maynard of Grosse Pointe and Don Pacitti of Dearborn.

An added feature, open to single girls 18 to 25 years of age, is the "Miss Autorama" contest. Entries — picture, name, measurements, address and telephone number — should be sent to Promotions, Inc., 19717 East Nine Mile, St. Clair Shores, before Jan. 15.

Ski Trip Planned By Farmington YMCA

An Easter Ski Trip April 16 to 25, is planned by the Farmington YMCA at the Loveland Pass, Colorado.

Fee for the trip is $175 which must be paid by Easter. Registration blanks may be obtained from the Y at 474-3282.

RALPH MALÝ, president of Burton Hollow Civic Association, put up one of the many wreaths that will decorate the entranceways to the subdivision, which last year won an award in the "Livonia Beautiful" contest.

Fisher Cubs Hold Party for Christmas Holidays

Cub Scout Pack 547 met in the Fisher School gym on Dec. 22 for the Christmas Party festivities. The opening flag ceremony was performed by Den 6 in a smart military manner. Five new Bobcats were inducted and will be added to the Frontier Poster at Fisher School. These boys are John Kirkpatrick, William Ried, Lee Clemens, William Komarski and Robert Morrison. Cubmaster John Sheffield and Awards man Howard Crawford presented the following achievement awards: Kevin Kopriva-Denner Stripe; Mark Smith-Bear Badge; Walter Lyzohub-silver arrow under Wolf; Keith Armour, David Montes and Jay Obsniuk — recruiter emblems. Den Chiefs Jim Jenkins, Doug Shreve and Bill Harbridge received Service Awards and One Year Stars for services rendered to the Cub Pack.

Edward Elyatt, Neighborhood Commissioner, presented the 1964 Pack Charter to Mrs. Obsniuk who represented the Fisher School PTA. Elyatt, Mrs. Obsniuk and Chairman Slyver were the judges for the Inspection and decided that Den 14 had earned the Inspection Award.

There was group singing of Christmas songs led by Slyver with Fred Miller from Plymouth rendering expert piano accompaniment. Other entertainment for the evening was violin music by Rickey Sheffield and a home-made movie by the Den Chiefs who wrote the script, took the parts and filmed the movie themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Twoork were present from the Caro Hospital and acted as representatives to receive the gifts from the Cubs, candy from the Webelos, used toys and the Christmas tree from the Pack. They took these presents back to the children at Caro for the Cub Pack and in its name. Giving good will is taught to Cub Scouts. The evening was a success with an attendance of many Cubs, friends, relatives and 62 parents with the Webelo Den winning the Attendance Award. Den 3 closed the meeting with the singing of Silent Night. Refreshments were served.

Wayne State University Board of Governors has approved a proposal to the federal government for the establishment of a Job Corps Training Center directed by the University.

Action by the Board followed a request from the federal government for the University to consider initiating a training center because of its strategic location in the center of a major metropolitan area.

Purpose of the center, planned under the "Economic Opportunity Act of 1964," would be to increase the employability of young men and women aged 16 through 22 by providing them with vocational training and useful work experience.

Wayne State proposes to set up a "total community" in the Detroit area to train youth for jobs essential to the community, and for positions in government, industry and commerce.

The Theatre Guild of Livonia-Redford has issued a casting call for the non-musical version of "Gigi." Readings will be held Jan. 12 and 13 at the Newburgh Church Hall, Ann Arbor Trail and Newburgh Road, beginning at 8 p.m. This production of the Guild will be presented Feb. 27 and 28.

Debaters Still Batting 500 At Thurston

In the tossing of words from the debate rostrum, Thurston High School is still maintaining its .500 average at mid-season with Melvindale, Oak Park, Walled Lake, Birmingham Groves, Hamtramck, and Madison Heights still to be encountered.

Thurston Coach Eugene Duston has utilized 17 of his 20 member debate squad in inter-school competition that has added up for the second successive year to one of the toughest schedules in the southeastern Michigan debate circuit for high schoolers.

Single victories have been recorded by the Blue and White over North Farmington, Livonia Franklin, Wayne's John Glenn, Southfield, Allen Park and a double victory at Kennedy. Before the Christmas recess the Eagle talkers divide two debates with Allen Park.

The following Eagle word-jousting have participated in one or more inter-school debates: Varsity affirmative — Linda Goodwin, Kathy Keys; varsity negative — Connie Ward, Louis Fiorentino.

In junior varsity competition the affirmative has been upheld by Vivian Follick, Cheryl Gray, Brad Liddell, Tom Sansone, Delora Saylor, Carol Ingesoul, and Pat Wood. Talking for the negative have been Dorothy Harvey, Maxine Burger, Mark Goudoni, Penny Balowski, Beth Pack, and Karin Fagan.

Also in varsity debates have been Dorothy Harvey and Vivian Follick and Cheryl Gray.

Segovia To Solo With Symphony

World famous guitarist Andres Segovia will be soloist with The Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 p.m. on Thursday, Jan. 7 and Saturday, Jan. 9, at Ford Auditorium. Sixteen Ehrlich will conduct.

Segovia will perform Castelnuovo-Tedesco's Concerto for Guitar and Orchestra, a work being given its Detroit premiere at these concerts. The orchestral portions of the program will include Creston's Invocation and Dance, also being played for the first time in Detroit, and Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 5 in E minor.

There are a few seats yet available for these concerts at the Ford Auditorium Box Office or at Grinnell's.

Alirio Diaz to Solo At Founders Concert

One of today's great classic guitarists, Alirio Diaz, will appear in the Founders Society Concert Series at The Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium on Friday, Jan. 15, at 8:30 p.m.

Venezuelan-born Diaz was a brilliant pupil of Andres Segovia in advanced courses at the Academia Musicale Chigiana in Siena, Italy. Since 1955, he has been assistant professor to the master guitarist in these same courses. During the concert season, Diaz tours the United States and Europe.

Diaz is renowned for his interpretations of the great classical masters—Bach and Scarlatti in particular, but his programming also includes Latin-American and folk music, as well as compositions by contemporary composers.

Tickets are available at the World Adventure Series Ticket office in The Detroit Institute of Arts and at Grinnell's in downtown Detroit.

German Films At Institute

"Romanze in Moll" will be the first in a series of German films presented by The Detroit Institute of Arts beginning Tuesday, Jan. 12, at 8 p.m. in the museum auditorium.

A limited number of tickets are available without charge from the Museum Shop and the Theatre Arts Dept. of the museum. Ticket holders will be admitted to the auditorium after 7:30 p.m. After 8 p.m., individuals without tickets will be admitted. Children under 16 years will not be admitted unless accompanied by an adult.

"Outward Bound" To Be Shown Sunday

"Outward Bound," a 1930 film starring Leslie Howard will be shown at the Henry Ford Museum theater on Sunday, Jan. 10.

A young and promising actor by the name of Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., is cast in the supporting role. "Outward Bound" is a screen version of Sutton Vane's dramatic fantasy about people on a voyage who slowly come to realize that they are dead and are soon to meet their eternal destiny. Sunday only performances are at 2 and 4 p.m.

Starting on Friday, Jan. 15, and running through Feb. 7, Greenfield Village will feature its thirteenth annual Sports Cars in Review exhibit in the Henry Ford Museum. Daily showings of an outstanding film on auto racing will be featured in the Museum theater.

"Desire," starring Marlene Dietrich and Gary Cooper, will be shown on Feb. 14. Lillian and Dorothy Gish are featured on Feb. 21 in "Orphans of the Storm," and the Marx Brothers comedy, "Duck Soup," will be shown on Feb. 28. The Famous Early Movie Series films are included in the regular admission to the Henry Ford Museum.

Cranbrook Swaps Art With U of M

The Cranbrook Academy of Art and the University of Michigan have announced their first exchange art exhibition.

Cranbrook's Art Galleries will present a collection of 35 contemporary paintings and sculptures from the University of Michigan from Jan. 12 through Feb. 7.

At the same time the University of Michigan's Museum of Art, will have on view a similar collection from Cranbrook.

Among the artists represented in Cranbrook's University of Michigan show are David Smith, Alberto Giacometti, Joseph Albers, Angelo Ippolito, Gabor Peterdi, Theodoros Stamos, Mark Tobey, Karen Appel and Pierre Soulages.

Among the pieces that Cranbrook is sending to Ann Arbor are Henry Moore's "Reclining Figure" and Ernst Barlach's "Man Drawing a Sword."

The Cranbrook Galleries are open Tuesday through Friday from 2 to 5 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday from 1 to 5 p.m. except major holidays.

Rumpelstiltskin Opens

Northville Players' Guild, Inc. opens its season with "Rumpelstiltskin" on Jan. 16. The Players will do this production for any PTA, church group or other organization which will assume the responsibility for ticket sales and publicity. For further information about the fee-splitting arrangements for such a program contact Mrs. James Ross of Northville.

Magician to Perform At Children's Show

The first in a series of programs planned for children of the community, sponsored by the Children's Entertainment Guild, will be Mr. Roy Kissel. A magician, Kissel is well known in the Detroit area.

Two performances will be held on Saturday, January 30, at 1 and 2:30 p.m. at Riley Junior High School, Henry Ruff and Five Mile Road. Tickets are 35 cents for children, and 50 cents for adults and may be obtained at either the South Livonia branch or the Carl Sandburg Library, or by calling Ruby Sieh, GA 2-6869, or Lillian McCann, GA 2-5227.

The Guild, a non-profit group for several years has provided diversified programs appealing to children. According to Mrs. Marilyn Rosenthal, chairman, the second program in the '65 series will be the Wayne State Players who have been engaged for two performances of Jack and the Beanstalk on Saturday, May 22.

Auto Show Displays
The colorful displays at the 49th annual Detroit Auto Show will point up not only the top-flight styling of the 1965 cars but the new safety and engineering features built into the new models. The Auto Show, Jan. 9-17, will be held in the Detroit Artillery Armory, West Eight Mile near Northland.

CURTAIN GOING UP

By WALLY ROBERTS

Before we get too far into our new year, let's take a quick look at the 1964 movie season. What were the top films? How many were products of Hollywood? How many came from other countries?

As in other years old Wally has deplored the majority of celluloid products that emanate from the cautious cauldrons of Hollywood U.S.A. 1964 saw the usual mine run of pathetic westerns, tongue-in-cheek sex farces, and frantic on-the-studio-lot adventure films.

One of these days Hollywood will get smart and sell all their standard sets and large studios to the TV folk. Happy day when the movie moguls will go exclusively on location to do their productions. If other countries do it, why do we have so much standardization in the Hollywood product? Are they trying to reflect our constant striving for conformity?

The top films of the year were "My Fair Lady," "Mary Poppins," "The Servant," "Dr. Strangelove," "Woman in the Dunes," "A Hard Day's Night," "That Man From Rio," "One Potato, Two Potato," "The Americanization of Emily," and "Marriage — Italian Style." Checking the list, you'll find two British entries, a Japanese, Italian, French, four from Hollywood, and one from the New York studios, (One Potato, Two Potato).

Both "Mary Poppins" and "My Fair Lady" are playing downtown Detroit and will be out to the neighborhood theaters by spring time. "Emily" has already had its run. Watch for the other shows in the many art theaters. The P and A theater in Plymouth and the Campus theater in Ann Arbor will be booking the foreign films. Watch for them and see if you agree on their selection as the top ten.

Personally, I would have liked "Seduced and Abandoned" added to the list. This Italian film captivated me. The portrayal of an irate Italian father trying to protect his good name in a small village spoke volumes about our American mores. Although "Seduced" was a comic drama of social customs in Sicily, the comparative values of our own small towns or communities came through most lucidly.

"The Organizer," an exciting, compassionate and humorous drama of the early labor movement in Italy with Marcello Mastroianni as the agitator was another Italian film that should have been on the list ten.

Of course, the lid is being pried off as far as sex in films is concerned. Our Puritan backgrounds, allowing sadism and violence to proliferate on our TV and theater screens, have quite rigidly resisted the rearing of that ugly phenomena known as "sex." Lately, with the advent of art films and the cheaper, more crass "nudies," Hollywood has been dishing out liberal portions of films that dip into the steamy world of sex in the raw.

The bedroom scene in "The Americanization of Emily" is a good example. Five years ago this scene would have ended on the cutting room floor. "Curt and the Single Girl" has Tony Curtis as a smutmonger for STOP magazine. He wants to expose Natalie Wood (Dr. Brown in the flick), working title of his article is "Does She or Doesn't She?" "The Pleasure Seekers," was advertised as "where do the good girls go when they want to be bad." So it goes. Hollywood is definitely getting desperate when it has to stoop to such commercialization of sex.

Most of the better foreign films do not attempt to titillate audiences when it comes to the more earthy side of life. They come right out, forthrightly, no sly digs or snide for them. Here is life the way it is lived. Audiences are treated as mature individuals, not adde-pated adolescents. In short, Hollywood has yet to raise the level of their standards and produce films for adults. Let Walt Disney produce the family pictures and yards of celluloid "Bambi" pictures.

Old Wally would like to see a brave theater owner in the area take the top ten films indicated in this column and play them festival-fashion. In other words, you could see the top ten over a period of say three weeks. Might be a good summer-time attraction to bolster the sagging box office.

So much for my yearly diatribe on the state of motion pictures. Who knows maybe movies will get better by 1970.

As an art form there is no more potent force than a movie done with consummate skill. "David and Lisa" comes to mind as I close this session on movies. Now there was a flick done inexpensively, on location, using experienced (but no stars) actors that had all the impact of a beautiful poem. It was an emotional catharsis.

I'll be back with news about Broadway next week. The new Albee play opened during the holidays. "Tiny Alice." The critics are still puzzled a week after the opening. Mr. Albee's recondite dialogue and theme has them guessing. Well, you can't win them all.

THE BILLBOARD
Fisher Theater—"THE SKY IS FALLING" Gertrude Berg continues to garner more than her share of laughs in this quiet, happy domestic comedy. Plays two more weeks.
Masque Theater—"CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF" Livonia - Redford group attending on Jan. 9. Why not join the group and make it an all Livonia night. Ace Azar's Act II still tops. Continues until Jan. 30.
U of D Repertory Theater—"ANTIGONE" and "SCHOOL FOR WIVES." Final performance for "Antigone" on Jan. 8. "School for Wives" can be seen for last time on either Jan. 8 or 10.
Hilberry Classic Theater—"MACBETH" opens 6-play repertory seasons on Jan. 6 followed by "RAMING OF THE SHEW." Shakespeare's time — honored farce comedy, on Jan. 13.

U of D Plays Close This Weekend

The current engagement at the University of Detroit Repertory Theatre of School for Wives and "Antigone" will close this weekend.

Moliere's comedy, "School for Wives," will be given its final performances Friday and Saturday, Jan. 8 and 10. The Greek tragedy, "Antigone," in a new adaptation by Jean Anouilh, will close Saturday, Jan. 9.

Performances begin at 8:30 p.m. sharp in the McNichols Campus Library. Reservations may be made by telephoning 342-1000, ext. 207.

The fellow who's inclined to lead a fast life should drop his anchor before it's too late.

Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra's Third Annual Pops Concert This Saturday; Residents Perform

The third annual pops concert of the Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra will be Jan. 9 at 8 p.m. in the Franklin High School Auditorium. Les Farkas is conductor of the Orchestra.

This year the Bentley High School Concert Choir under the direction of Jerry Smith will be featured on the program.

The Youth Symphony program consists of six numbers: The Colonel Bogey's March by Wilbur; A Trumpeter's Lullaby by Anderson with a solo by Ira Hershens; Hoe-down from Rodeo by Aaron Copland with piano accompaniment by Tim Kelly; and West Side Story by Leonard Bernstein with guest harpist, Mary Alice Malaski. The final number is a Fantasy based on America the Beautiful by Ward Bates and Whitney and performed by the combined orchestra and choir.

Jerry Smith conducts the number, America the Beautiful, and Dan King, student conductor of the Youth Symphony, will conduct Sambarina.

The Concert Choir's program also includes the spiritual, Jordan Roll; Shalom from the Ju-sical Milk and Honey; themes from the two films: How the West was Won and King of Kings; Sit Down You're Rockin' the Boat; and a novelty on the folksong Mr. Frog.

The Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra has been performing concerts since the spring of 1958. In 1959 the Junior Orchestra of Livonia was founded. On Jan. 27 the Junior Orchestra, conducted by Robert Randall, will play at a Pot Luck dinner at the Bentley High School cafeteria in Livonia. They will have a formal concert in March.

Livonia and Redford Township youth who are members of the Orchestra follow:

Hand Puppet Show Slated

Featuring hand puppets at their very best, George Latshaw's "Show and Tell," will be given three performances in The Detroit Institute of Arts auditorium at 10 a.m., 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 16. Latshaw is recognized as one of the most creative artists in puppetry today. Theatre-trained at the University of North Carolina and Yale Drama School, he was called to Hollywood to manipulate the puppet "Carrot Top" in the film "Lili." He has also been associated with Burr Tillstrom, creator of "Kukla, Fran and Ollie."

Tickets are 50 each for children and adults; 35 cents in groups of 10 or more, and to Founders Society members. Tickets may be purchased at Grinnell's downtown, Marwil's Northland and the Museum Shop at The Detroit Institute of Arts. Mail orders accompanied by stamped, self-addressed envelope will be filled by the Museum's Theatre Arts Department.

For the six shows scheduled January through July. The Detroit Puppet Theatre is offering a season ticket at $2.50. The Detroit Puppet Theatre presentations at The Detroit Institute of Arts are made possible through a grant by The Detroit News.

Coin Club Will Meet At Adams

The Riverside Coin Club is starting out the new year with a new meeting place in Livonia. The new location is the Adams School, 28201 Lyndon Avenue, between Inkster and Middlebelt Roads.

The first meeting of the month is usually a business session that is followed by a coin auction. This takes place on the second Sunday of the month which is Jan. 10. Time is 2:30 p.m.

The second meeting will take place on the fourth Wednesday of the month at the same place and at 7:30 p.m. This is the regular swap session where members and guests bring in their coins for trading with others. An auction follows this period.

The last meeting of the club was the annual Christmas party. Members broke balloons to win prizes upon answering the hidden questions inside. First prize was won by Len Marzewski, who received a $5 gold piece.

Anyone interested in collecting coins is invited to attend the club meetings.

Sacrament's Demands Will Be Topic

The spiritual demands of "Sacrament" will be brought out in the communion service to be held this Sunday at all Christian Science branch churches and societies.

Bible verses to be considered include the "new commandment" given by Jesus: "as I have loved you, that ye also love one another" (John 13).

Related passages from the Christian Science textbook will speak of Jesus' complete obedience to God's will: "This is the new understanding of spiritual Love. It gives all for Christ, or Truth. It blesses its enemies, heals the sick, casts out error, raises the dead from the dead, and preaches the gospel to the poor, the meek in heart" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 33).

Mr. Philip Saint to Speak Jan. 7

Phil Saint, internationally known chalk-talk artist and musician, will present a program on Jan. 7, at 7:45 p.m.

Phil Saint

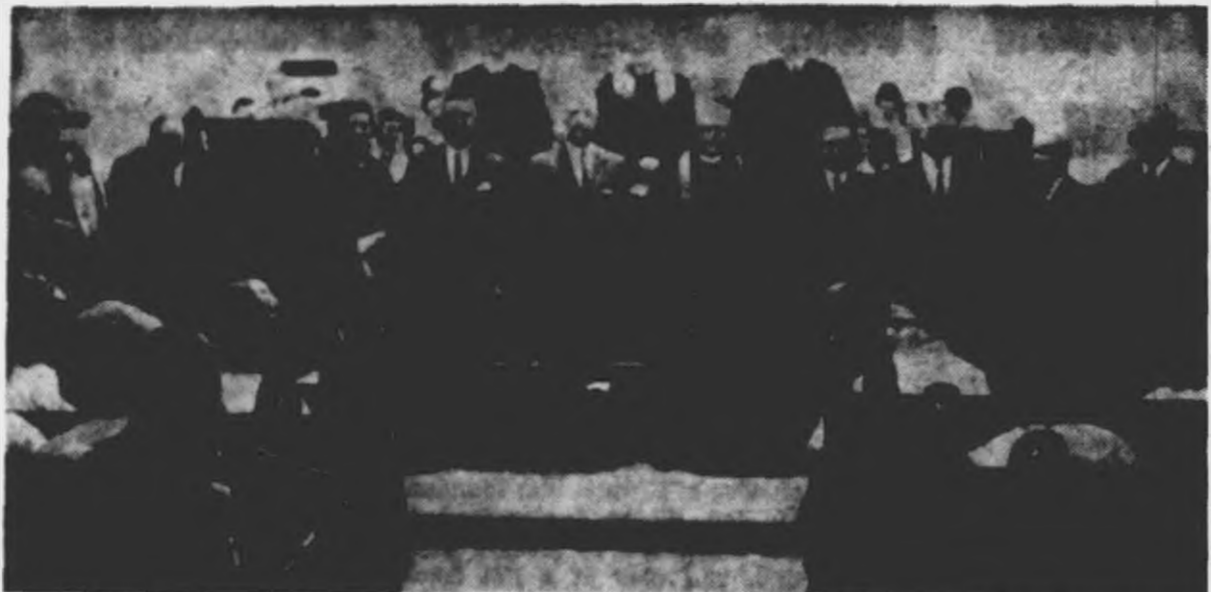

at the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indiana (between Beech and Inkster, north of 8 Mile).

Mr. Saint is the son of the famed stained window glass artist in the East. Although he is color blind he has demonstrated great skill in rapid chalk-talk drawing of beautiful pictures accompanied by vocal solos and dynamic preaching.

Christian Unity Week Slated

The National Council of Churches has designated the week of Jan. 18 to 25 as the "Week of Prayer for Christian Unity."

In explaining the meaning of the week the Council stated: "Sponsored in this country by the National Council and in churches throughout the world by the World Council of Churches' Commission on Faith and Order, this observance is increasingly becoming an occasion for inter-confessional Bible study, retreats and discussions.

"In some cities, conferences and meetings aimed at a deeper understanding of the ecumenical movement are held."

The sponsoring unit within the Council is the Department of Faith and Order.

Church Seeks Teen Clothing For Northville

In its continuing effort to supply needed items to the patients of Northville State Hospital, the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington has passed along the word that "there is a marked need for clothing that fits a teen-ager."

State clothing is made for children or adults and is ill-fitting on in-between teen-age statures.

"The boys would especially like levis and the girls any skirts, sweaters, or blouses that are in good condition. The state provides drab blue for men or garish cotton prints for women and many of these young people are very aware of their appearance."

"Some of them attend Northville Community High School." Those interested in helping, may call Barbara LeRue, at GA 1-1954.

Church Begins Adult Church Education Classes

Last Sunday the Trinity Church of the Brethren in Redford Township opened a three month series of adult education classes.

Pastor William Harold Garner, said that these classes were a part of the continuing Adult Church School Program which has been in existence for the past few years.

The classes, which will be offered Sunday mornings and Wednesday evenings, are divided into two major divisions. The first is an International Lesson Series which will study of gospel of Matthew. The second course is a systemic study of the Bible beginning with the Books of Genesis.

Pastor Garner estimates that more than 50 members of his congregation will take advantage of the series of classes.

Youth Class to Begin

The next session of the Farmington YMCA's Saturday youth program will begin Jan. 16.

It will last for an eight-week period. Cost of the leadership materials is $5.

Groups will consist of ten boys or ten girls per leader. Among the leaders are Sue Kirchner and King Cotton of Farmington High.

For further information, call Rose Berberian at the YMCA, 474-3232.

Human Relations Discussion Slated

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth Am is sponsoring a panel discussion on the human relations movement in Livonia on Jan. 11 at 8:45 p.m. at the Cohn Building, 31840 Seven Mile Road, Livonia.

Panel members are: Jack Pearson, Trustee of the Livonia Citizens for Better Human Relations, Mrs. Faith Gillespie, Publicity Director of the Organization; Donald Murch, a member of Livonia's School Board Advisory Committee; and Mrs. Marilyn Rosenthal, Treasurer of the Livonia group.

The panel will discuss the human relations movement in Livonia, its origins and its present and future activities. A question and answer period will follow the discussion. The organization's literature will be available.

Diabetic Camp Talk

A long standing project of the Universalist-Unitarian Women's Association is that of Diabetic Camps. Red stockings and baseball coin collectors for the Camps are familiar in the area. A short talk on the Camps will be made Jan. 24 beginning at 10 a.m. at Farmington's Universalist-Unitarian Church.

Persons interested in helping with this project are asked to call Barbara Larue at GA 1-1954.

Mission School Slated for Area

A six week School of Missions will be held Sunday evenings from 6 to 7:30 p.m. at Livonia's Emmanuel Baptist Church. The course begins Jan. 10 and will run through Feb. 14.

General theme of the sessions is "Our Churches Minister to the People of Detroit." Classes for all ages have been scheduled and will include guest speakers, films, discussions, and fellowship. At the closing session of the course a family spanish-style dinner will be served.

Great Decision Talks Begin at the YMCA

The "Great Decisions" discussion program — designed to acquaint citizens with the key phases of American foreign policy — will be conducted at the Farmington YMCA, for eight weeks, beginning Feb. 7.

The program will concern itself with eight key issues. A fact sheet kit will be provided, containing factual information, maps, charts, and discussion outlines.

If you are interested in the program, you can either start your own group (of from six to fifteen people), or you call the Y, at 474-3232, and enroll in one of the groups forming there.

Area Obituaries

FREDERICK HINES. Services for Mr. Hines, 70, of 11505 Beck Road, Plymouth, were conducted Monday in the Schrader Funeral Home in charge of Rev. Henry Walsh with entombment in Riverside Mausoleum.

Mr. Hines died of a heart attack while in Big Rapids and was a retired Detroit Police officer.

He was a member of the Retired Police Officers' Association and YW Police Post 1278 in Detroit, honorary member Metropolitan Square & Compass Club of Detroit, Polar Bear Association of Detroit, Westgate Lodge 529 of F&AM in Detroit, member of the past patron of OEN 466 of Detroit, member and director Plymouth High 12 Club, Plymouth Grange, past treasurer of the Plymouth Senior Citizens.

EUGENE C. SODERSTROM. Services were held in the Ted Sullivan Funeral Home for Mr. Soderstrom, 12662 Riverview, Detroit. Mr. Soderstrom was born in Sweden on January 23, 1897, the son of the late Sven and Dorothea Soderstrom. He died December 22 after suffering a stroke.

Surviving are: his wife, Josephine; one brother, John, of Ferndale; and four sisters and one brother in Sweden, Rev. C. W. Belrets, Pastor of Christ Lutheran Church, Acacia at Wormer officiated and interment was in Grandview Cemetery.

WILLIAM J. BARRY. Services for Mr. Barry, 39, of 1377 Beech St., Plymouth, were conducted Monday in St. John's Episcopal Church in charge of Rev. David Davies. Burial was in Woodland Cemetery in Jackson where graveside services were held. The body lay in state in the Schrader Funeral Home.

Mr. Barry died Dec. 31 at his home. He had resided in Plymouth since 1960, moving there from Valparaiso, Ind. He was a sales supervisor for S. E. Massengill Drug Co.

Mr. Barry was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church; Porter Lodge, F&AM of Valparaiso; Scottish Rite, Valley of Our Lady of God Council Church in Plymouth with burial in Parkview Memorial Cemetery in Livonia. The Rosary was recited Sunday night in the Schrader Funeral Home in Plymouth.

Mr. Van Tassel died Dec. 31 in Detroit Osteopathic Hospital. He was born Feb. 23, 1901 in Detroit, a son of Claude and Ella Foreman Van Tassel. He had resided in Livonia for the past 28 years and was employed as a chauffeur at St. John's Seminary.

Jehovah's Witnesses Slate Bible Instruction Period

Local area Jehovah's Witnesses will be converging in Dundee Jan. 8-10 for a 16 congregation Bible instruction period, said C. Carson Coonce, presiding minister of the Plymouth congregation.

"With violence everywhere increasing, with individual 'outside-the-law' retaliation against social injustices in homes, in communities and in whole nations because of religion, nationality or race, true Christians need to steer their activities away from this and in a direction pleasing to the Creator," said Mr. Coonce.

"Returning evil for evil is foolish and merely compounds the misery and makes the remedy more difficult to achieve," he continued. "The Bible principle of 'returning evil for evil to no one', and 'providing fine things in the sight of all men', must be upheld by Christians. We will learn much about proper conduct for Christians at this Bible convention," he declared.

The assembly theme, "Speak the Word of God with Boldness" will be carried in all the talks and instruction. Such subjects as, "How Youth Can Pay Attention", will be discussed by Robert Puster of Milan; "The Best Attention You Can Give", by Robert Buckley of Dundee; "Boldly Declare the Good News", by Edward E. Gloor of Hillsdale; "Be Liberal, Ready to Share", by Richard Krebs, Jr., of Tecumseh; "Maintain a Right Standing With God", by James W. Ely, circuit minister; and "Fortify Yourselves for Future Activity," by J. W. Fyson, New York.

The sessions will help the delegates to be a Christian influence in their respective communities.

There will be no meetings at the local Kingdom Hall Thursday through Sunday, Jan. 7-10.

Women To Meet

The first meeting of the Women's Fellowship of Mt. Hope Congregational Church in Livonia will be Jan. 7 at 12:30 p.m. in the conference room of the Manufacturer's National Bank.

"Write This Resolution Down And You'll Live Better in '65..."

Resolve To Use Observer Classified Ads All Through the Year.

"I may be kind of new around here—but remember, I've been waiting to make my entrance a long time . . . and there's one thing I've learned by watching a lot of smart folks through a lot of years. THE POWER OF OBSERVER CLASSIFIED ADS KNOWS NO SEASON. These fast-action little ads bring in the extra cash that lets you have more and do more all year long. Here's what I mean . . .

Right now's the time to sell things like skates, skis, fireplace equipment or heaters . . . because these items and others like them are what folks need now. —As Spring rolls around, look through your home again and turn the garden tools, porch furniture, swing sets you know your family won't be using into quick cash.—In Summer, Classified Ads easily find buyers for things like golf clubs, lawn furniture, air conditioners, boats and motors.—And, next Fall, desks, musical instruments, bikes and typewriters will all have cash buyers watching for your offer to appear in the Classified columns. And remember, things like furniture, appliances, good clothing, baby needs, TV sets, cameras and power tools are always in demand.

Starts '65 off right—right now! Make a list of the worthwhile things you no longer use or enjoy and dial GA 2-0900 for the courteous Ad Writer who's waiting to help you.

Don't miss out on the extra cash you should be enjoying. OBSERVER CLASSIFIED ADS are the fast, easy and inexpensive way to make every month of MY Year more profitable for you. Get started now—and you'll live better all through 1965."

NO TIME for Kees de Boer, of Arnheim, Holland, to think of Christmas away from home—he was guest of the Ralph Heids of 14417 Oxford in the Lake Pointe subdivision and their 11 children kept him busy from Christmas through New Year's Day. Kees is shown with nine of the youngsters (two were unavailable when the picture was snapped) and the group includes (front from left) Charles, 8; Tommy, 7; Johnny, 1; and Jimmy, 3; (rear from left): Dave, 13; Ann, 14; Nancy, 12; Kees, Mary, 9; and Ralph Jr., 16. Ralph, Jr. spent last summer visiting Kees' folks in Holland on the foreign exchange student program. Then, when Kees was sent to Erie, Mich. for his senior year in high school on the same program, the Heids invited him to spend Christmas with them. He did and had a wonderful time.

Plymouth GOP Meet Tonight To Organize

The Plymouth City and Township Republican Party will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union, corner of S. Harvey and Maple streets.

Farrell Roberts, of West Bloomfield Township in Oakland County, one of the candidates for the 14th District State Senate seat left vacant by the death of Observer Publisher Paul Chandler, will discuss his reasons for seeking the post.

The clubs will elect officers for 1965 and make tentative plans for development of effective working committees.

All Republicans in the community are urged to attend.

The 49th annual Detroit Auto Show Jan. 9 through Jan. 17 is expected to get new-car sales off to a booming start for 1965. The show will be held in the Detroit Artillery Armory, West Eight Mile near Northland.

City Workers Hold Yule Party

CITY OF PLYMOUTH employees are shown enjoying their traditional day before Christmas party in the Community Building. The event is for all city workers and retirees. For Municipal Judge Harry Deyo (in upper left) it was his final appearance at the party as Judge—he retires at the end of his present term in April.

Authorized DPW Supt. Joseph Bida to take bids for a utility body for a three-quarter ton pickup truck.

Award a contract to Schnelle Truck Equipment Co. of Detroit for a truck body and hoist on a bid of $1,004.

Passed an amendment to an ordinance zoning land on Byron near Ann Arbor Road for the Shangri Villa Apartments.

Approved reappointment of Fred Beltner to the Board of Review for a term expiring January 1968.

Approved appointment of Gordon Robinson to the Board of Electrical Examiners for a term to expire Jan. 15, 1966.

Authorized transfer of $2,500 from the unappropriated reserve to general fund audit for services of auditors.

Authorized transfer of $54,680 from budget contingency fund to equipment reserve fund.

ate seat. Chandler was one of only two GOP candidates to win election to the Senate from a Wayne County district.

McCarthy, one of the Democrats, was Chandler's opponent in the Nov. 3 final election. Both Kern and Prescott were GOP primary candidates, and Kern later ran a "sticker" candidacy in the final election.

McNamara, now serving his second term on the City Council in Livonia, was U. S. Congressman Billie Farnum's campaign manager in Livonia during the November campaign in which Farnum defeated Richard Kuhn for the new 19th District Congressional seat. John Burke, another Democratic candidate, was an opponent of Farnum's in last August's primary election for the Democratic nomination for Congress.

Farrell Roberts, a former State Senator from Oakland County, did not seek re-election in the new 14th District, running instead for Oakland County Court of Appeals, where he lost when the Democratic landslide hit the County in November. He held a reputation as a "moderate" during his Senate tenure and was allied with the "young Turk" Republicans against the GOP's old guard.

The 14th District seat includes Plymouth, Livonia, Northville Township in Wayne County, and Farmington, Farmington Township, West Bloomfield and other northwestern Oakland County communities as far west as Holly. About 100,000 persons cast ballots in the district in the November 3 final election.

Auto workers and their families will get a chance to compare their own products with those of the competition at the 49th annual Detroit Auto Show Jan. 9-17 in the Detroit Artillery Armory, West Eight Mile near Northland. All the new '65 cars, plus many foreign makes, will be on hand under one roof.

Plymouth Hi News

By CAROL OTWELL

Well, it was nice while it lasted. Christmas vacation, that is. But now it's back to studies for the faculty and students at PHS. Except for a lack of cold weather, ice, and snow, the vacation seemed to be enjoyed by most everyone.

Members of the Water Waves are directing full attention to the preparations for this year's water show.

The show does not have a title as yet but the theme will be centered around school subjects. It will be presented the second weekend in May.

Tryouts were held before Christmas for solo duet and trio numbers. To try out for one of these numbers, the girl, or girls, must prepare a synchronized number to music and then present it in competition with other contestants. Voting is by members of both the Water Wave and Ripple clubs.

Chosen to perform this year's solo from a field of five swimmers was senior Sue Mettetal. Mrs. Watts, club advisor, stated that the competition for the solo was far superior to that of any previous year.

Two duets were chosen for the show; one of juniors Laura Raafaub and Kaye Zoet and other consists of seniors Sue Niemi and Carol Otwell. There will be one trio and two of the members will be Pat Fehlig and Sue Ward.

After tryouts the members signed up for the remaining numbers which run from four to 16 girls.

Among the numbers will be a special act consisting of all the seniors in the club. The show will include boys from the Dolphin Club to perform the skits and diving exhibitions. The boys usually begin practices about three days before the show.

A few changes have taken place in the executive board of the GAA. Senior Sue Bassett has taken over the presidency since Judy Kisabeth moved out of town and Senior Diane Eckles is the new vice president.

Senior Judy Palmer was appointed in charge of the GAA scrapbook and senior Sharon Marshman was chosen as sports manager for basketball.

The swamp rats will get underway again with a home meet against Redford Union on January 7. Speaking of swamp rats, Plymouth's top swamp rat this year, Dick Berry, set a Dearborn pool record for the 50-yard freestyle.

Dick's time was 23.1 seconds and the former record was 23.4 seconds.

Smith School Cub Scouts Hold Derby

Cub Scout Pack 1536 held its annual Pinewood Derby at Smith School with each den competing for the championship.

Bill Neu won first place followed by Jay D. Brown in second and Bill Knopf third. The five den champions were: David Neu, Jeff Dixon, Craig Miller, Rick Davison and Dave Rathburn.

Starters for the Derby were Don Keeth and Dale Dauderman with Rudy Fox as judge. Cubmasters for the Derby Pack are Fred Rogers and John Schmidt.

Kiwanis

Besides preparing and mailing a weekly bulletin, Ernie keeps accurate minutes of meetings, answers correspondence, prepares a monthly report for Kiwanis International and maintains a roster of members and keeps a record of dues-paid.

Henry also serves as chief advisor for officers and the Board and also Parliamentarian on Kiwanis rules and by-laws.

The program for future meetings includes: President's night on Jan. 12; 50th anniversary party on Saturday, Jan. 23 in Detroit; and Robert Fouser as speaker on Jan. 26.
