Pick Ziel As Man of The Year

Named man of the year on his 35th birthday, Plymouth C.P.A. Harvey L. Ziel of the Post, Smythe, Lutz and Ziel accounting firm, expressed appreciation at being singled out for the honor at the annual Plymouth JayCee D.S.A. award banquet.

Ziel was cited at the annual affair held at Hillside Inn Monday evening and attended by Junior Chamber Members and their bosses. He was selected from a field of six candidates.

The distinguished service award is given out by the Junior Chamber to a young man each year. Qualifications include participation in community activities, leadership, personal and business progress and all around contribution to the community.

Ziel, who came to Plymouth in 1954, is originally from Flint. Monday evening was his birthday and he would have been ineligible for consideration after this year.

A graduate of Cleary College in 1951, Ziel was noted as an outstanding student during his time there. He is a director of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce, treasurer of Plymouth's Industrial Development Corporation and a member of the Plymouth Community School District citizens' advisory committee.

A director of Plymouth's YMCA, Ziel is active in "Y" Indian Guide activities.

Announcement of Ziel's selection for the D.S.A. award came on the heels of several awards within the club. Spoke awards, citations to first-year members who have distinguished

Twp. Attorney Resigns After Heated Session

A heated discussion between members of the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees and their legal advisor resulted in the resignation of Earl Demel as Plymouth Township Attorney. Demel announced his resignation on Wednesday, Jan. 13. He has been township attorney for 23 years.

Waiting until the end of the regular meeting on Tuesday evening, Jan. 12, after the Board had decided that payment for three legal opinions should come from water and sewer bonds, Attorney Demel asked for the attitude of the Board on legal fees. He said: "I can't afford to support the township until the bonds are sold. That could be two years."

"More and more of my time is being spent on township work," he said, "and I don't intend to wait for payment of straight legal matters when I have incurred expenses. This board now owes me $2,500 to $3,000 in easement work alone."

Trustee Dick Lauterbach stated that he would like an itemized statement from the attorney's office concerning such items as "phone conference, $10" and "legal research." He felt, he said, that $10 for a phone call was a little out of line. Trustee Ralph Garber added that the fee for a half day in court seemed rather steep, too.

INTERJECTING that he had only talked to the attorney about six times during the past few months, Clerk John McEwen added that perhaps the whole Board should have something to say about the attorney's instructions. At this point Supervisor Roy Lindsay fired back.

"I don't need special permission to call the attorney," he said. "I don't think the attorney overcharges, and I'm tired of the picayune attitude of this Board toward the legal

Smoke Problem Still Up in the Air

Plymouth Township's smoke abatement problems are still "up in the air" based on communications received last week from Evans Products Co. and the Chevrolet Spring and Bumper plant, on Eckles Rd.

At the regular meeting of the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees meeting on Jan. 12 a communication from Evans Products Co. was read by Supervisor Roy Lindsay stating that one of the furnaces has been converted to gas, but it will be Spring before a second furnace is converted.

Until then, weather conditions will play a large part in the smoke problem.

"Same old reply," declared Mrs. Fred Davids, of Plymouth Rd. "But," she added, "we have some good news about this problem."

David's then read parts of a letter addressed to his wife which acknowledged letters she had sent to General Motors President John F. Gordon and S. E. Knudsen, General Manager of the Chevrolet Division.

A MAJOR modernization and expansion program at the Livonia Chevrolet Spring and Bumper Plant being considered includes the moving and modernizing of the incinerator and making additions to the powerhouse, according to the letter, signed by John L. Cutler, Public Relations Office, G.M.C.

General Motors promised to "reduce to the utmost" air pollution at the plant.

CentriSpray Corp., on Schoolcraft Rd., is also converting to gas, according to Mr. and Mrs. Davids.

Will Board Accept Demel's Resignation?

Is Township Attorney Earl Demel's resignation really final? That seemed to be the question in local circles as The Plymouth Mail went to press this week.

Demel, after more than 20 years as legal counsel for Plymouth Township, submitted his letter of resignation to Township Supervisor Roy R. Lindsay last week.

The letter followed a Board of Trustees meeting in which Demel was questioned about legal fees.

Speaking on Monday of this week, Supervisor Lindsay said he had Demel's letter of resignation. But he said a meeting was scheduled for later this week between the attorney and Township Trustees. Another board member, asked about Demel's intention to resign, said:

"WHAT IF we refuse to accept his resignation?"

Contacted Tuesday morning, Demel held to his original announcement. He said in

Dems, GOP Set District Meetings

District conventions for both Republican and Democratic local organizations have been set for next week at Plymouth Junior High Schools, according to party spokesmen.

Democrats will meet at Junior High East on Wednesday, Jan. 27 at 8 p.m. and Republicans will gather at Junior High West on Thursday, Jan. 28 at 7:30 p.m.

Both groups will select delegates and alternates for their respective state conventions.

Mrs. Roy Jacobus, district chairman of the Plymouth G.O.P. organization, said all Republican precinct delegates are expected to be on hand for the Thursday district convention.

Republicans have 11 precinct delegates in the City of Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Northville Township. The G.O.P. state convention will be held at Lansing's Civic Center on Saturday, Feb. 20.

THURSDAY'S meeting in Plymouth will include election of Republican organization vice chairman, secretary, treasurer and an 11-member operating committee for the district. Mrs. Jacobus said all interested persons are invited.

Wayne II Democratic chairman Thomas Healy said the final draft of a proposed constitution for the Wayne II Democratic organization is expected to be voted upon at the district convention on Wednesday at Junior High East.

He said constitution and by-laws committee chairman, Richard McGlinn reported on the draft of the proposed document at a general Democratic membership meeting held Monday evening in the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union Building at 56 S. Harvey St.

Local Democrats also heard two candidates for nomination in the 14th Senatorial District in the special election set for Feb. 15. Hopefuls Elsie Gillmore and Edward McNamara, both of Livonia, were present at the meeting.

They are running for the Democratic nomination in the special election to fill the INTRODUCED BY past president Smith, left, was Kroger Company personnel consultant Robert Stargel, right. Stargel spoke to Jay-Cees and their bosses on the topic, "Young Men Can Change the World." He concentrated on the field of human relations as they relate to race relations.

Speaker Urges Active Human Relations Role

A charge to take an active part in changing the world was issued to JayCees and their guests by Kroger Company personnel consultant Robert Stargel at Monday evening's D.S.A. banquet at Hillside Inn.

Stargel concentrated his remarks on human relations as they relate to race relations. Failure to act, he told his audience, may create a vacuum into which others will step.

"The most important issue, I feel," he said, "is that each of us must decide what part we can or we will take in helping to bring about changes."

Stargel said he chose his topic because, as a Negro, he lives and works in it daily.

"What can you do?" he asked and, answering his own question, urged young men and women to be interpreters.

History, he said, tells us that a social lag always arises between new concepts and their implementation. The new concept he referred to was the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 decision banning racial discrimination.

"I THINK you can help bridge the gap by interpreting," Stargel commented. "It will take time."

"It isn't just a matter of you accepting the Negro, it's

50 YEARS:

Final Plans are Set for Kiwanis Anniversary

With final plans made for the appearance of popular radio personality "Bud" Guest, Plymouth Kiwanians set about hammering out details for their Golden Anniversary celebration this Saturday evening, Jan. 23.

The party will be held in Lofy's Sky-Line Room at 7 p.m. and will commemorate the 50th anniversary of the founding of Kiwanis International in Detroit.

Appearing with Guest will be Harry Young, the only living founder of Kiwanis International. Guest will speak on the subject, "The Sunny Side of the Street."

Other guests will include Plymouth Mayor Richard H. Wernette, Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy R. Lindsay, Superintendent of Schools, Russell Isbister, and presidents of all service club organizations in The Plymouth Community — together with their wives.

In addition, presidents of the Key Club of Plymouth High School and the Circle K Club of Schoolcraft Community College and their dates will attend. The two school clubs are sponsored by Plymouth Kiwanis.

BOTH LINDSAY and Wernette will be given promise notes for community service to be performed by the Plymouth club in honor of the international organization's golden anniversary.

THIS IS "Bud" Guest, well-known radio personality, who will appear at Plymouth Kiwanis Club's 50th anniversary celebration on Saturday. Guest will speak on the subject, "The Sunny Side of the Street."

Dubbed "Blank Checks for Service" by Kiwanians, the certificates pledge service of the club to the community. The presentation will be made by Kiwanis President Marvin Terry.

Young, the only Kiwanis founder still living, was born in Red Cloud, Nebraska, the son of a pioneer family. His father died when he was nine years old, leaving his mother with three boys, one older and one younger than Harry.

At the age of 15, he was apprenticed to a tailor. He worked as an apprentice for two years, then became a journeyman — on his own — and traveled from coast to coast in carrying out his trade.

In 1905 he came to Detroit, and in 1909 he established his own custom tailoring business — an occupation which he still pursues.

Young and a small group of Detroit businessmen met in that city on Jan. 21, 1915 to organize the first Kiwanis club.

The Plymouth club itself will be 40 years old this year. Its 108 members are now part of an international organization which numbers over 5,000 clubs and 260,000 members.

In a Nutshell...

★ About 25 Plymouth sixth grade students were sent home last week from their scheduled week-long campout at the Proud Lake Recreation area when a flu epidemic occurred. A false rumor had been circulating that students were sent home with attacks of ptomaine poisoning, according to Commissioner George Lawton at Monday's City Commission meeting.

★ Damage was estimated at $500 to house and contents after a recent fire at the James Jimmerson home at 448 Sunset St., according to Assistant Fire Chief George Schoenemann. Schoenemann said Mrs. Jimmerson forgot a pot on the kitchen stove and grease ignited, the flames spreading to cupboards over the stove. Firemen extinguished the blaze with extinguishers. Schoenemann said the house sustained smoke damage.

★ Appointment of the City National Bank as special administrator, with powers of general, of the Marguerite M. Vollbrecht estate was made recently by Judge of Probate Thomas C. Murphy. Judge Murphy acted on a petition submitted by Plymouth attorney Earl Demel, on behalf of relatives of Mrs. Vollbrecht. The previous order allowing the will to probate and appointing two men, including Dearborn attorney James Thomson, as executors was vacated and set aside about a month ago by Judge Ernest Boehm, upon Demel's petition for failure to comply with the statute requiring notification of heirs at law and parties of interest. A will contest is pending. An estimate of the estate, termed "conservative" by Demel, lists $600,000 in personality and $150,000 in realty. Mrs. Vollbrecht died last year in her home on Ann Arbor Trail in Plymouth.

★ A frequent visitor to Crown Zellerbach Corporation's Gaylord Container Division plant at 11333 General Drive, J. F. Ronan, has been appointed general manager of the central region of the division. Ronan succeeds E. J. Spiegel, Jr., who has resigned his position to join another corrugated box manufacturer. The announcement was made by E. A. Mitchell, general manager of the division and corporate vice president.

In addition Stout has taught at Ithaca College, Chicago School of Music, Kansas City Conservatory of Music and the New England Music Camp.

Sunday he will demonstrate the French horn and other related instruments.

THE PROGRAM will include "Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra," a combination of narration and music, giving listener an introduction to various orchestra instruments: "March Joyeuse" by Chabrier; "Symphony No. 45, Farewell," last movement by

Mother's March Set for Next Tuesday Night

The annual Mothers' March to benefit the March of Dimes is slated for Tuesday, Jan. 26, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the city of Plymouth. In Plymouth township and in areas where there are no sidewalks or street lights, the women will march during daylight hours.

Householders are urged to have their porches lit for the marchers. Each worker may be identified by the official name tag which he will wear and by the Mothers' March envelopes.

Area chairmen for the 1965 drive are: Mrs. George Bauer, Mrs. Howard Town, Mrs. Malcolm Pierce, Mrs. Gesalc Tobey, Mrs. Grace Wheeler, Mrs. L. E. Curok, and Mrs. Robert Diekmann.

Other chairmen are Mrs. James McAllister, Mrs. Donald Gray, Mrs. James Irwin, Mrs. John Guttler, Mrs. Louis Truesdell, Mrs. Virgil Haws, Mrs. Dolly Young, Mrs. Anthony Anason, Mrs. Arden Sackett and Mrs. Martin Schomberger.

REZONING OF the northwest corner of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads will be requested by Plymouth builder-developer Stewart Oldford and Sons, to build this proposed 40,000 square-foot shopping center. Rezoning of a 502 by 323.67 foot parcel (about three and three quarter acres) from R-1-S to C-2 will be asked. If the shopping center is approved, Oldford said, parking would be provided for 238 cars. The northern 270 feet of the property, abutting Park Lane Estates subdivision, would remain zoned for single family dwellings and will probably be developed for single-family home sites, Oldford said.

Flipping the Coin About Camping

By Jacquie Town

In a recent issue of The Plymouth Mail, there appeared a letter to the editor regarding a camping program initiated 13 years ago by Plymouth Community Schools.

As another parent who has had experience with the camping program, I would like to use this space to "flip the coin." It is not my intention to take issue with the writer, but rather to present some facts obtained through my own contact with his school function.

The opinions I offer are solely my own.

First, the camping program is not mandatory for every child. If a parent prefers not to send the child, arrangements will be made for him to join other classes in order that his studies will not be interrupted.

However, 95 per cent of the total classes each year do attend the camp, which seems to indicate a favorable response to the program.

During the school year, students are exposed to lectures preparing them for camping. These discussions pertain to health and hygiene and are integrated into the science and health program. Rather than taking time away from these subjects, I feel that every child, whether attending camp or not, benefits from the classroom lectures.

Each dormitory at the campsite is fully heated, and very few children come home with illnesses. According to attendance records, absence from school is no greater than any other period in the year, after the children return from camp.

My only objection to the program is the food.

Upon my son's return, I heard for weeks what wonderful cooks they had at camp. Although my ego suffered, I was pleased to note that the meals were well balanced and nourishing. A typical camp menu consists of pancakes and bacon or sausage for breakfast, a hot dish and sandwich for lunch, and Swiss steak for dinner.

Counselors are more than adequate with one to every ten children, far better than in the classroom. There are also nurses available for emergencies such as cut fingers.

Children that attend the camp have the opportunity to observe first hand what they have only read in textbooks. We, as parents, often forget that mathematics can be pretty dull when only theory is presented. I must admit that most of the math I learned as a student doesn't get much of a workout now. I use it to figure budgets, income tax, and measure for wallpaper and curtains.

In the same manner, at camp, the kids learn that Math is not a necessary evil. Through the charting of maps and distances, they can see it has a practical application and affects everyday living.

Learning correct pronunciation of plant and wildlife terms helps them see the importance of English and Spelling. Geography is also involved as they learn they won't see a Tiger in Michigan; the climate isn't suitable for its existence.

There are many advantages to the camp program.

True, the child in the sixth grade may be irresponsible in many ways, but I strongly feel that camping is an excellent way to help him accept responsibility, without Mother to depend on and pick up after him.

Also, for some children, this is the only camping experience they will enjoy. No child has ever been refused because of finances, thanks to Plymouth Community service clubs.

A child's education must be a well rounded one, and that includes supervised activities as well as the three R's. The question is simply: What do we consider the education of our children?

The answer is a personal one for each parent.

I want my children to use every advantage available to them, not only in school and at home, but in church and youth clubs as well.

If the teachings overlap, at least I'm assured that they are gaining everything possible from a community that has a lot to offer.

Their physical well being, their attitudes, and their knowledge are products of all groups combined.

STUDYING for her second semester classes is Mrs. James Wright, of 4161 Greenbriar Ln., the only student at Schoolcraft College, according to Dean Lois Waterman, who earned all A's in her Fall studies. Mrs. Wright, 29-years-old, is the mother of four children ranging from 11 to four-years-old.

Mother of Four Earns Straight A's at Schoolcraft

The only student to earn a four point or all A average at Schoolcraft College during the school's opening term was 29-year-old Mrs. James Wright of 4161 Greenbriar Ln., the mother of four children, according to Dean of Student Affairs Lois Waterman.

Planning to earn her degree in journalism, she said, Mrs. Wright carried 14 credit hours last semester. Her courses included English composition, geology, Spanish and political science.

Five weeks of pneumonia complicated last semester's activity for her, she said. The Wright's four children are Mike, 11, Paul, 9, Nancy, 6, and Kevin, 4.

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

A very moist and tasty cake, "Graham Cracker Cake," was suggested this week by Mrs. Peter Aubrey, of 939 Penniman Ave.

Mother of five children, ranging in age from nine months to 11 years, Mrs. Aubrey is a 1945 graduate of Plymouth High School. She is the former Jean Ann Livernois, daughter of Mrs. Jacob Livernois, now of Livonia. The Aubreys moved into their home on Penniman Ave. from Livonia at the end of April, she said.

Mrs. Aubrey belongs to Our Lady of Good Counsel Rosary Society, Christian Family

Movement, Plymouth Association for Retarded Children and St. Mary Hospital Guild. She also does volunteer work at the Hospital for the Work.

In addition to her club work, Mrs. Aubrey said she likes to read and play golf although she doesn't have a lot of time for either.

The cake recipe, she said, is one she got from her mother a number of years ago and one they both make. She added both men and women seem to like the recipe.

GRAHAM CRACKER CAKE

1/2 C. margarine
1 C. sugar
2 eggs, separated
1 C. milk
2 dozen graham crackers
2 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
1 C. finely chopped nuts
1 tsp. vanilla
Cream oleo and sugar. Beat egg yolks until light and add to oleo, and sugar; then add milk.

Roll graham crackers, add baking powder, salt and nuts and add to first mixture. Add vanilla and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites.

Bake in nine inch square greased pan at 350 degrees for 45 minutes to one hour.

PINEAPPLE TOPPING

1 small can crushed pineapple
1/2 C. sugar
1/4 C. water (approximately)
1 tsp. corn starch (approximately) whipping cream

Combine pineapple, sugar, and water and bring to a boil. Boil 10 minutes and thicken with corn starch. Apply topping to cake while it is still warm. Add whipping cream, if desired, before serving.

CUTTING her "Graham Cracker Cake" for her children's lunch, is Mrs. Peter Aubrey, of 939 Penniman Ave. The cake, made from one of her mother's recipes, is very moist, she said.

City Names Jabara, Beyer to Recreation Site Committee

Commissioners James Jabara, and Robert Beyer were appointed to the Recreation Site committee as representatives of the City of Plymouth by Mayor Richard Wermette at the regular meeting of the City Commission on Monday evening, Jan. 18.

The two men, together with Plymouth Township and school district representatives, will seek ways and means of securing and financing a recreation site, including a community swimming pool.

The Mayor also made two other appointments at the relatively short meeting. Commissioner George Lawton was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Plymouth Police Youth Club. Robert Gilles was reappointed to the Board of Electrical Examiners for the term which expires Jan. 15, 1966.

A HEARING was set for Feb. 1 at 8 p.m. on the necessity of paving Hartsough St. from Roosevelt St. to Symar Subdivision. Property holders are invited to attend the hearing.

Campfire Girls were given permission to sell candy in the downtown section of Plymouth on Feb. 6.

Another hearing was slated for Feb. 15 at 8 p.m. to consider the rezoning of lots 3 through 8 in the Maple Croft subdivision.

After a brief discussion, commissioners approved a recommendation from City Treasurer Kenneth E. Way to waive tax penalties until Feb. 28.

Leo Calhoun, local Ford dealer, submitted a request to purchase acreage in the Industrial Park on Plymouth Rd. for a new sales building. He was regretfully informed by the Mayor that this property is under option until June, 1965. In other business the City Commission:

- Approved transfer of funds for additional radio equipment for the Fire Department and D.P.W.
- Agreed to check into complaints about the taxi service in Plymouth.
- Explained that the $7.50 fee for the Junior Basketball League can be set aside for any boy who cannot pay the fee.
- Referred to the City Clerk a question on appraisal of city property.
- Referred to the zoning commission a request by Thomas Cape, builder, for rezoning property at Byron and McKinley St.

NEW PRESIDENT of the Plymouth Registered Nurses, Organized under Civil Defense, Mrs. Laurence Campbell was selected at their meeting Jan. 11. Mrs. C. C. Sterner was elected secretary. All graduate nurses active or inactive living in the Plymouth School District are urged to attend the meetings. The group will meet again in March. Africa and Me Christmas Wasn't the Same in Sierra Leone

By Lon Dickerson

When a person spends Christmas in a foreign culture for the first time, it can result in a sharp break with familiar traditions. Such was Christmas for me in Sierra Leone.

One of the things I missed most was the snow. Instead, I sweltered from the heat. The dry season should have begun in early November, but at Christmas time it was already eight weeks late. Consequently we had rain off and on during the week.

The harmattans started about a week before Christmas which is the normal time for it to begin. This is a period of about two months in which the winds reverse themselves and bring hot, dry air from the Sahara Desert to the country. You don't notice the sand, but the mountains are veiled in a foglike haze which is actually dust. The sun also takes on a wierd appearance and is so bright, it is almost impossible to look at.

The evenings are unusually cool, but the days are extremely hot especially around midday. The effect of the rainy season and the harmattans mysteriously joining together was further heightened by a full eclipse of the moon a few days before Christmas.

Within this setting there was a general lack of Christmas decorations. Some of the stores put up a few trimmings, and some of the homes had a cedar Christmas tree, displays of cards they had received, and crape paper hanging in the living room according to English custom. But it wasn't at all like home.

Santa Claus could be seen in some of the stores. He had a deep tan and had lost considerable weight since I last saw him a year ago. The children thoroughly enjoyed him, but unfortunately on Christmas Eve he was only able to visit the small number of homes whose children have wealthy parents. Despite his presence in the stores the familiar bustling crowds of Christmas shoppers were missing.

Along with these things the spirit of Christmas had somehow gotten itself twisted around. So instead of extending seasons greetings, the people would ask me for their Christmas meaning gifts. It was quite distressing especially since I had never seen many of them before.

Christmas was also a period of joy. The first of three school terms ended about a week before Christmas and the new one doesn't start until mid-January. So instead of doing homework the children went around singing Christmas carols every night.

The Peace Corps teachers meanwhile gathered in Freetown for a conference. Free time was taken over by a large number of parties given by the American embassy, Peace Corps administrators, and African friends. Instead of last minute shopping and wrapping gifts, all the volunteers relaxed and shared with one another the experiences they had encountered since last seeing each other.

On Christmas Day I had two dinners. The first one was the traditional Sierra Leonean dinner of jollof rice at the home of an African friend. The second one was a traditional turkey dinner in English fashion at the home of an English friend.

Three distinct cultures brought together to celebrate the birth of the infant Jesus from which we learned the meaning of love. Nothing could be more appropriate to the true Christmas spirit no matter what the setting.

Now, before I end this article, may I extend to everyone in Plymouth best wishes for the new year. And, to those people who took time from their busy schedules to share their Christmas joy with me through cards and letters, goes my heartfelt thanks and appreciation.

Cagers Drop Falcons In Overtime After Scaring AP

In overtime at Farmington, Saturday Plymouth put the finishing touches on a fantastic week-end of basketball with a 56-53 win over Farmington.

Trailing by 15 points (20-5) at the beginning of the second period, Plymouth closed in at half-time 28-20.

Midway in the third period, the Rocks tied it up 31-31 and went ahead for the first time 37-36 late in the period on two free throws by Jim Lake.

At the beginning of the final period the Rocks were in front 41-37. They stayed ahead through most of the fourth period, but Farmington tied the score with 45 seconds left.

Rick Jones then was fouled and he sunk a free throw to send Plymouth ahead 52-51.

Farmington was unable to score when they got the ball and with one minute and 17 seconds left Gary Grady was fouled and sunk two free throws to send Plymouth ahead 54-51.

Farmington came right back and, with 65 seconds left, scored a field goal to trail by only one point 54-53. Play sawed back and forth and with 20 seconds left Jones added another foul shot to give Plymouth a 55-53 lead.

WHEN LAKE added a foul shot with only eight seconds left it was all over for Farmington, and the Rocks had finally shaken the bad luck that has plagued them most of the season.

On Friday, the Rocks gave powerful Allen Park the battle of the season before bowing 69-65 in the final half minute.

Coach Ketterer's team, entering the game with an 0-3 Suburban Six record, set unbeaten Allen Park on its collective ears in the first quarter as the Rocks surged to a 29-20 first quarter lead despite the antics of Ron Howle who tossed in 14 points in that period for Allen Park.

Howle, who had scored 46 points the preceding week, ended up the night with 33 field goal and four fouls, plus some excellent dribbling in a last minute stall.

Plymouth had put considerable pressure on the visitors. And none was better than Jim Lake, who played his best game of the season with rugged, aggressive rebound after rebound. The rest of the team also contributed fantastic hustle.

THE ROCKS were playing without the services of Charles Masten and Dave

Hollingsworth, but their healthy teammates really put on a performance. Jim Lake finished with 20 points and Dave Tidwell was right behind with 19. Don Stamper, getting into shape after an early season illness, added nine points and provided some outcourt shooting strength.

Plymouth trailed at half-time 39-36 and slid behind 45-36 and 50-42 midway in the third period. Allen Park was never able to relax, however.

The Rocks climbed back to within one point 50-49 late in the quarter and at the beginning of the final session it was 56-51 Allen Park.

Jim Lake brought the Rocks to within one point again 57-56 early in the quarter and from there it was a see-saw battle to the finish with the underdog Rocks never giving up.

RICK JONES put Plymouth ahead 51-49 with a field goal that dropped in with only 25 seconds left.

Farmington's Mike Wilson momentarily saved the Falcons with a game-tying basket with four seconds left on the clock. The horn sounded before either team could get going again and the score at the end of regulation play was tied 51-51.

Plymouth's Jim Lake got the overtime tip off and tapped it to Gary Grady who held the ball for most of the first minute of the three-minute overtime.

THE LOOK OF VICTORY — shows in the manner of Plymouth players leaving the bench, applauding the Rocks 56-53 overtime win over Farmington last Saturday. In the left center is Rock basketball coach Charles Ketterer. The win was a satisfying conclusion to a week-end of good basketball in which Plymouth almost nipped powerful Allen Park on Friday before the thrilling win at Farmington.

The Sporting Thing

By Bill Nelson

Plymouth sports fortunes for the past 17 years have swelled and ebbed with an ex-Navy officer who today finds himself again on "convoy" duty. John F. Sandmann now is steering a Rock athletic department through the shoals of a rough losing season.

But the Plymouth school system now has taken a firm fix on the sports stars and given Sandmann the go ahead with a new course that should get the Rocks safely through.

The announcement this week that Plymouth is joining in a new junior high school athletic league, will, over a period of time, set the Rocks sailing back to the kind of performance that for years have made them the most feared sports school in the Suburban Six League.

People this year have been asking "What's happened to Plymouth sports?" For the most part they have the same coaches that have produced excellent athletic teams over the years. Yet loss after loss ensues.

The students, although an occasional outstanding youngster may make a difference, are by and large a similar group to past champions.

What often makes a decisive difference is the junior high program. And for the past several years, Plymouth has been operating a much more limited program in the sense of game competition than other school systems in the Suburban Six League.

This writer feels that we are now beginning to reap the results of that policy and that the new league will do much to correct this situation. But, it won't happen overnight.

The new parent-inspired community junior basketball league (which starts youngsters at eight years old) is sure to help that sport also.

The new league will find Plymouth competing in basketball, baseball, football and track beginning with the fall 1965 season against junior high teams in Farmington (3), Redford Union (2) and Thurston (2). When Junior High West becomes an 8th and 9th grade school, it too will compete in this league. Later on swimming might be added.

Sandmann, who has guided Plymouth into the new junior high endeavor, together with Junior High-East Principal Carl Taylor and Assistant Superintendent of Schools Bill Harding, has been Plymouth's athletic director for 15 years.

Sandmann came to Plymouth in 1948 and was reserve football and basketball coach and head baseball coach. Two years later he was named director and recently has been coaching golf and cross-country.

He graduated from Colgate University in Hamilton, New York in 1943 with a bachelors degree in Petroleum Geology. At Colgate, he played football (end), baseball (outfield) and basketball (guard). He was a co-captain of the Colgate basketball team.

During these days he had two professional try-outs with the Brooklyn Dodgers. Sandmann was born and raised in Brooklyn, and still has a trace of eastern seaboard in his voice.

In '43, '44, '45, he was an executive officer on a subchaser ("I don't know yet if we were chasing them or they were chasing us," he says) operating in the South Pacific. It wasn't exactly a guided-tour cruise.

Sandmann was in on Saipan, Okinawa, Guam, Iwo Jima and Philippine action and "running escort" for convoys to the Marshalls and the Marianas among others.

The loved and famous writer, Ernie Pyle, was aboard Sandmann's chaser just prior to his death. Sandmann came out of the Navy a Lieutenant and went to Ann Arbor where he did graduate work in Geology before picking up a Masters Degree in Education in 1948.

A quiet, well spoken man, Sandmann seems to have a secret on physical conditioning. He looks as trim and in shape today as any young navy officer.

He goes about his work the same way. The junior high program was typical. No complaints or talk, just a new program that is sure to help Plymouth sports. And when all was ready, he talked about it.

"I'm very pleased about it," was his comment. And so can Plymouth sports be that John Sandmann, his wife, Barbara, and daughter Lynn, 13, are anchored in Plymouth.

Announce New Jr. High League

Beginning next fall, Plymouth Junior high athletes will compete in a new Junior High League, which should eventually place Plymouth back on a competitive level with other Suburban Six League schools.

The development means that Plymouth's total sports program is sure to improve. It will increase the number of 8th grade football games between schools from the present three to a total of six.

It will increase the number of ninth grade games between schools from the present five to a new total of six. In basketball, which has particularly suffered in comparison with other Suburban Six League junior programs, ninth graders will continue to play the authorized limit of ten games, but eighth graders will move up from five to ten games, or double the present game competition.

Perhaps, it had begun to tell. Last week saw Plymouth swimmers lose their fourth in a row and the basketball team is still looking for its first Suburban Six League win after four league games. The football team had its first losing season in ten years last fall.

This action by the school system "can't help but upgrade our entire program," Sandmann added.

ALLEN PARK STAR — Ron Howle (13) dribbles towards Plymouth's John Daniels (14) in a game last Friday at Plymouth High School. Howle scored 33 points as Allen Park won in the last minute 69-65. The preceding week against another team Howle scored 46 points.

AP Sinks Swimmers

Plymouth swimmers suffered another dunking, this one at Allen Park, last week, 60-44. It was the Parkers' first win against Plymouth since 1957.

Only Don Norman (in the 100 yard breaststroke) and Dick Berry (in the 100 yard freestyle) were able to win first for Plymouth.

Berry was second in the 200 yard freestyle and teammate Dan Decker was third. Al Saxton was second in the 50 yard freestyle and Geoff Burke was third. Jeff Hoffman placed second in the 200 yard individual medley.

Both relay teams finished second. Swimming for Plymouth in the 200 medley were John Skinner, Norman Tim Wernette and Russ Crosby, while Burke, Haarbauer, Crosby and David Cook combined in the 200 yard freestyle.

JOHN HERTER dove to second place and Jeff Haarbauer was second in the 100 yard butterfly. In the 100 yard freestyle, won by Berry, Al Saxton was third. Hoffman

Frosh Lose 1st

Previously unbeaten, Plymouth's freshman basketball team suffered its first defeat of the season 31-29 last Friday in a low scoring game at Northville.

The Rocks had run their winning string to three previous to this loss and the victory streak included an opening 42-38 win over Northville on the Plymouth court.

The Frosh do not play this week, but will get back in action next week against Wayne Adams Jr. High.

WITH THREE seconds left, they had the ball out of bounds at midcourt and a quick pass and shot, which rolled around the rim and spun out ended the game as the buzzer went off.

Jeff Adams led Plymouth with five field goals and two free throws for 12 points, while Jay Hayes contributed four field goals for eight points.

2 Loses For JVs

Plymouth's Junior Varsity basketball team was beaten twice last week-end. At Farmington the JVs took a 56-49 loss and trailed most of the way. At the beginning of the final period the Rocks were behind by 14 points 46-32.

In losing 55-46 to Allen Park, the Rocks JVs were outscored by the Parkers who turned in a potent 25-point first quarter to go in front 25-10. Plymouth trailed 33-17 at the half and 42-31 at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

Bill Way and Nate Luibrand tied for Rock scoring honors in this game with 10 points each.

LEAPING LAKE — gets another tip for Plymouth. Here against Allen Park Jim Lake (50) wins a center jump, while Gary Grady (22) awaits a chance to go. The Rocks lost to Allen Park, Suburban Six League leaders, but not before giving the powerful Parkers the scare of their lives, 69-65.

Squirts And Royals Both Ice Victories

In Plymouth Hockey Association play last week only the Royals of the Midget League survived against Dearborn Heights teams.

The Royals won 3-1 on goals by John Gilles, Tony Daykin and Dave and Dave Prochaska. Plymouth Squirts (under 10 years old) were the only other team that recorded a victory with a 4-0 shutout over Garden City on Thursday.

Wyatt Gates scored two goals for the Squirts and Tom Hindman and Dennis Adair added one each.

People, Unlike Cheese, Don't Improve with Age

By Mike Ross

ST. PETERSBURG, FLA.

"Sun City" of Florida's west coast, where palm trees sway in the warm breezes, the Gulf laps at powder soft beaches, the sun bakes the asphalt, and the nation's senior citizens flock every winter.

Like swallows returning to Capistrano, these people answer the call of a magnificent climate. Because of their extensive trade, more public and private utilities and facilities have been constructed for oldsters' use than almost anywhere else in the world. Their money keeps the city alive and prosperous.

Certainly, the funeral homes never run out of business.

But, like Capistrano (those poor motorists with big windshields), St. Pete has its problems too, though not in quite the same vein. Speak about "social difficulty" to someone in or around Plymouth and the thought that immediately flashes through their mind is "TEEN-AGER!"

The exact opposite is true down here.

A favorite pastime of senior citizens is going to an expensive motel and staring in the windows at guests. Or, when they get bored (or shot at) they'll stroll into the lobby and over to a display table. On it will be six or seven boxes with expensive brochures, with a sign above saying "Take One." So they do — one box here and another there.

Once they've taken all they can possibly cram into purses, shirts, pockets, etc. (and that etc. covers quite a list of places to stuff things), they waddle out to the nearest trash can and dispose of as much as $50 worth of brochures. They do the same thing with matchbooks. The number they dispose of every year, if placed end to end, would probably form a freeway to the moon. A further nicety of theirs is jamming a restaurant or popular diner from 11 p.m. to 2 a.m. and beyond. Their conduct, language, and appearance are detestable, deplorable, and sickening.

You're undoubtedly wondering why in the world I should be so concerned with a problem that is 1400 miles from Plymouth.

The reason is for comparison's sake. In Plymouth, as approximately 80 per cent of the country, it is teenagers that are massed together.

It is for us that restaurants, driveways, and meeting places are designed, and, of course, the main clientele of these places is made up of young people. But, according to psychologists, trouble is born in a crowd, and when a group of teens get together and carouse a bit, it's always "Those teenagers."

It's as if every other age group is above similar actions. Middle-aged folks like to remain aloof; they carouse at bars or at home. But teens can't get into bars and "senior citizens" usually don't go into them.

So they raise cane elsewhere. The older folks in the north that are around only a few people of comparable age, criticize teen actions vehemently.

But, the instant they come into an environment dominated by their age group, the situation changes. What they do is suddenly all right while, in essence, it is as rude and destructive as many of the pranks my age group pull.

I doubt very much if this situation will change.

It has always been the prerogative of man to be less inhibited in the presence of his own kind. For a specific group to stand off and exclude themselves from this pattern, is pure folly and the height of hypocrisy.

At any rate, in the Florida sun, it seems that all that's old is not necessarily good.

JayCees Set Motivational Conference

More than 150 Jaycee officers from chapters in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Washtenaw and Monroe counties are expected to attend the second annual Michigan JayCee Motivational Institute starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 23 at Schoolcraft Community College, and hosted by the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Joseph Fletcher, Plymouth Jaycees president, said the all-day Institute will be aimed as "motivation of decision making and organizational problem solving."

Dr. Richard Schmuck, Assistant Professor of Psychology and Lecturer in Education at the University of Michigan, will serve as Institute leader, according to Fletcher.

Other Jaycees Institutes will be held simultaneously at Hope College in Holland and at Delta Community College in University Center.

Fletcher said information attained at the Institute in the area of "organization problem solving" will be made available to the U.S. Jaycees Information Center at Tulsa, Okla., Jaycee national headquarters.

A happy touch of Hawaii can be part of your next party... formal or informal... when you serve these tasty Teriyaki Kabobs. Refreshing pineapple chunks are arranged with beef that has been marinated in a flavorful sauce, then broiled. The olive is an exceptionally good companion to pineapple, and adds just the right amount of saltiness to the appetizers.

Teriyaki Kabobs
1 pound top round or sirloin steak, 3/4" thick, cut into 2 1/2" cubes
1 1/2 cups drained pineapple chunks (No. 211 or 13 1/2 oz. cans)
1/4 cup pineapple syrup
1/4 cup soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon each ground ginger and sugar
1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
25 small stuffed green olives

Drain pineapple chunks and reserve syrup. Combine pineapple cubes and let stand for one hour at room temperature. When ready to cook, drain the meat. Thread a cube of meat and a pineapple chunk on a skewer or bamboo stick. Broil 3 inches from heat for 5 minutes; turn and broil 5 minutes more. Add a stuffed green olive after broiling. Serve immediately, or serve in a chafing dish to keep Kabobs hot. (Olive is added after broiling to prevent shriveling.)

Twp. Water Pumpage Far Over Estimate

The total number of gallons of water pumped in Plymouth Township for the 1964 calendar year exceeded the 1959 forecasted figure by 40 million gallons.

The total amounted to 177,000,000 gallons for 1,266 customers according to a report prepared by Township Engineer Herald Hamill. The forecast made in 1959 indicated there would be 1,150 customers with water sales of 107 million gallons at the end of the third year after completing the system.

The forecast predicted 1,450 customers and sales of 136 million gallons by the end of the fourth year.

The water system was completed and use of Detroit water started Oct. 10, 1961.

Part of the money raised will be used for books to be sent to the University Center, Okinawa, a Harvard-educated executive said, learn early the meaning of "place."

"Place," he said, "means where you are born, where you can eat, where you can sleep, where you can work, where you can go to school and, yes gentlemen, where you can go to church."

"You can teach people in Plymouth," he continued, "the meaning of Democracy. You can help by pointing out to them the cost of doing nothing." Stargel said there was a need for more services like guidance counseling.

"You have to help people to understand, to motivate themselves," he said.

"I RELATED these remarks mainly to the Negro," Stargel concluded, "because I am a Negro myself, because I've worked in this area, because I've heard you people were enlightened."

But, he explained, his comments were not limited solely to the Negro. They could apply equally as well to poor, Appalachian, white migrants.

Stargel fielded questions from the floor at the conclusion of his address.

vacancy created by the December death of Republican Senator-elect Paul M. Chandler.

At the Monday meeting, Healy announced his nomination to resign his post as chairman of the Democratic organization. He pointed out that he had been serving in an interim period between establishment of the new Second District by reapportionment and the time it comes into being as a full-fledged organization with constitution and by-laws.

He suggested that all board members and officers, serving in an interim capacity, do the same. Officers present at the Monday meeting voiced agreement.

A nominating committee was appointed to make recommendations to delegates at the district meeting on Wednesday. Healy said he would not be a candidate for chairman.

"We know that any instruction to the attorney can come directly from the supervisor when he sees fit. However, I feel the attorney's statement of charges should be itemized and qualified."

Emphasizing that he has no objection to his charges for legal fees being questioned, Demel said, "No other client of mine asks for this. I have always charged the minimum fee to the township."

After it was suggested that perhaps the answer would be a full time attorney, Demel declared, "If the township cannot afford my services — all well and good."

THE STORMY

discussion continued until Supervisor Lindsay abruptly called a recess and asked board members to adjourn to another room. A half hour later the board reconvened and adjourned the regular meeting without further elaboration on the topic.

Braggs, Blues, Badman Ballads

Local folk musicians will be featured on Feb. 12 and 13 when the Plymouth Theatre Guild presents "California to the New York Island, being a pocketful of Brags, Blues, Badman Ballads, Love Songs, Okie Laments and Children's Catechisms by Woody Guthrie. Woven into a Script suitable for a Concert, Clambake, Hootenanny or Community Sing by Millard Lampell."

Others have described the show as "a cantata for folk singers." But producer-director Jim Blackman (GL 3-3780) just says:

"This will be good listening; and there are numbers in it for the audience to join in and sing along too. Save one of our dates for an evening of fun, for a good cause."

The Theatre Guild plans two performances for the public, the first on Friday, Feb. 12 in the Northville State Hospital auditorium on Seven Mile Road, with part of the proceeds going to the hospital's patient benefit fund.

The second will be on the following night, Saturday, Feb. 13, in the Plymouth High School auditorium, with part of that evening's proceeds going to the Plymouth State Children's Home for their swimming pool fund.

Both performances are scheduled for 8 p.m. Tickets are $1.50 each (or $1 for students). For further ticket information, contact Jerry French at 464-1599, or write to him at 14163 Blue Skies Drive, Livonia.

Calvary Baptist Sets Youth Rally

The next regular meeting of Plymouth Grange will be held Thursday, Jan. 21, at 8 p.m. The program, presented by Michigan Bell Telephone Company, will start at 9 p.m. The topic will be "Communications and National Defense," and will feature an open wire to Colorado.

Plymouth Grange was host to Washtenaw-Wayne-Pomona Grange Tuesday, Jan. 12. A talk, accompanied by slides, was given by Andrew Campbell of Pittsfield-Union Grange, Ann Arbor. Last Fall Brother Andy enjoyed a six weeks educational exchange tour to Egypt, sponsored by Farmers and World Affairs.

American Legion Auxiliary

Voice of the American Legion Auxiliary will join that of the American Legion in urging action by Congress in a number of fields, Mrs. Gertrude Simonetti, Legislative Chairman of Passage-Gayde Unit No. 391 has announced. The Auxiliary will seek to gain understanding and support for the Legion's legislative recommendations from American women.

A number of measures will be considered by Congress at this session in which the American Legion Auxiliary women are keenly interested. We are urging a Constitutional amendment to permit voluntary prayers and Bible readings in public schools. We are opposing any changes in the present immigration laws which would increase the number of immigrants entering the United States. We would like to see the Social Security laws amended to continue payments to children continuing in school through age 21.

For the sick and disabled veterans we are urging appropriation of adequate funds to maintain the highest quality of medical care and to develop the nursing care program. We also want an improved program for disability compensation and the rights of veterans in Federal employment protected.

For the security of free America in this disturbed world we are asking that a military establishment second to none be maintained, and that the civil defense program be improved and expanded.

We will oppose any proposed treaty which will weaken the position of the United States in the Panama Canal Zone, or any more to reduce the sovereignty of the United States.

Virginia Overmyer, Child Welfare Chairman reported that on January 9, the sixth and 17th Districts played hosts to the children at the American Legion Home at Otter Lake. The December and January birthdays were celebrated together.

Mrs. Seeling, child welfare chairman in the sixth District helped with entertainment, gifts, prizes and refreshments. The entertainment consisted of music and dancing.

Seventy-six large cans filled with candies were donated to Mr. Seeling for prizes, and also smaller bags of assorted candies. The 17th District donated $15.00 toward the party. Dozens of homemade cookies, ice cream, pop and frost-bites were served. The final touch was a beautifully decorated birthday cake for each birthday child. These were also donated by the sixth District.

There were six members from the 17th District, two legionnaires and three Auxiliary members from the Plymouth Post and Unit, and a Legionnaire from the Livonia Post.

There are 73 children at the Billet now as compared to 66 in September 1964. The Administration Building has sunny bedrooms, a library where the children study and do their homework. There is a large recreation room equipped with two television sets and tables and chairs, sofas. There is a large sewing room with sewing machines, an ironing board, and large table for cutting material. Sewing lessons are given to the children. The new arrivals are housed at the Administration Building until they become adjusted to their new surroundings.

The 17th District Auxiliary meeting was honored Friday evening by the visit of our Department Historian, Jane Schultz. She urged all Unit Historians to make a history book and enter it in the Department Contest.

Just a reminder of the Unit meeting Wednesday, Jan. 20 at 8 p.m. at the Passage-Gayde Post Home.

PLYMOUTH HIGH NOTES

By Sharon Olin

Finals are literally "just around the corner" and the schedule for this semester will be Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 25-26 students will attend school all day. On Wednesday, second and third hour exams will be given during their hours and students will be dismissed at 11 a.m. Thursday, the fourth, fifth, and sixth hour exams will be given during the regular first, second, and third hour classes and students will be dismissed at 11 a.m. until the following Monday morning.

Second semester will find two new classes added to the present curriculum. These classes are a one semester geography class taught by Mr. Joel Carr and a personal typing class taught by Mrs. Florence Slocum.

It's time again for the Water Waves, PHS's girls swim club to start getting their "show on the road." Interpretation of school subjects is the basis of this year's show and senior Sue Mettetal has been chosen to swim the solo, which deals with pity as portrayed in art.

Juniors Kay Zoet and Laura Raaflaub will represent PHS in connection with a psychology in a duet, while seniors Sue and Carol Ottwell will portray the language department, also swimming a duet.

The trio will deal with music and is composed of Sue Ward '65, Brenda Mackie '66, and Pat Fehlig '65.

Other numbers to be seen in the water show, which will be given in the spring, are: Vikings; government; Brotherhood; patterns in nature; geography; German folk songs; astronomy; Hydra constellation; biology; frogs; physical education; Swedish gymnastics; industrial arts; machines parts; Pilgrims of Plymouth and the finale Trojan horse. The swim club is directed by Mrs. Jane Waits, physical education teacher.

PHS will host this year's annual Suburban Six League Student Council Conference. Ten students will represent each of the six schools in the league in the all-day meeting. To promote closer ties between schools is the main purpose of the conference, which also gives additional training in leadership techniques.

Dave Jordan '65 was elected president of the band after a general election by Mr. James Griffith's class recently. Nancy Derr '65 was elected vice president, while Marsha McCall '65 is serving as secretary. Becky Lyons '65 was chosen as student conductor after she proved her ability to conduct the band during tryouts.

"The Chip" PHS's new Youth Center on Union Street, will have a Valentine Dance February 13. The dance will be sponsored by the Pep Club. As of now, "The Chip" has acquired a new pool table, a shuffle-board set and dart boards. Other items for recreation are being planned for the near future.

Well, the seniors have done it again! The class of '65 obtained their goal of $9,000, which was set for this year's Christmas card sales. The profit of $4,500 will be used for the Senior Banquet, prom, mixer, caps and gown, and will also pay for the seniors year book, "The Plythean," and the school newspaper, "Pilgrim Prints." Don Stampfer '65 was chairman of the card sales, while Gail Kennedy '65 assisted as co-chairman. Seniors Cindy Lacy, Janet Lyke, and Tom Price assisted by helping distribute the cards.

Quill and Scroll, a national honorary journalism society, is selecting new members at Plymouth. Any student wishing to join must be at least a junior, rank in the upper third of the class in general scholastic standing, have done superior work in some phase of journalistic school publication and have advisor recommendation.

The officers of this year's Quill and Scroll are Carol Ottwell '65, president; Sue Ward '65, vice president; and Eileen Scheppele '65, secretary and treasurer. The initiation of new members will be held in the spring at which time each new member will receive a gold Quill and Scroll pin and a years subscription to the Quill and Scroll magazine.

Beginning with the class of 1966, all student class schedules will be programmed by means of an IBM computer in Cleveland, Ohio, where in seventeen seconds class schedules will be completed. The guidance department has also tried a new system for scheduling students for next year. Junior parent conferences took place last week with parents meeting with counselors in groups of 30 or 40. They discussed problems or questions they had. From Feb. 1 to about March 1, individual conferences for students in grades 9-11 will begin.

Junior High West News and Notes

By Barb Hulce and Dave Aluia

Jr. High West is really buzzing. Most parents are somewhat puzzled with the new modern math, but little by little the seventh graders are catching on. Mr. Birk's classes are using a new math book called "Mathematics Through Discovery." It is the most advanced of all the seventh grade math books.

Our swimming team last week defeated Belleville 49 to 34 at Belleville. Our team combines with East's Junior high team. Randy Bowsman and Eddie Jewkes were on the four man free style relay team to take first place. Randy Bowsman was third in the 50 yard butterfly. The next meet will be here against Thurston.

Mr. Sypniewski's classes are awaiting a reply from their Korean counterparts. They have written them telling something about themselves and giving them membership cards for the People to People program. They also sent them information about the city of Plymouth.

Our creative writers have finished their stories for the first and second graders. They have such titles as, "Herbert Joins the Wacs," "Homer the Friendly Dinosaur," "Adventures in Slitz-entwart," and "The Lonely Island."

Models of Pearl Harbor, the Taj Mahal, a Chinese Village, Mt. Fuji and flags of the Far Eastern countries plus other individual projects fill B-207. Moms, soon your daughters will be able to take over the cooking. They are learning to cook in home economics. This past week they made blueberry muffins.

Mr. Eller's class is becoming playwrights. They've taken stories from their books and rewritten them in play form. After this, they have chosen the people to play the parts and presented them. Teacher is a composer: Mr. Vernon's composition "Sound Structures" was presented last Saturday on WUOM FM radio.

The girls in the gym classes saw a gymnastic demonstration put on by Eastern Michigan gymnasts on Monday. Our second mixer for the seventh grade was held last Friday after school.

The first Catholic paper in the United States was founded by Father Gabriel Richard in Michigan in 1809, and in 1823 he was elected to represent the Michigan territory in the House of Representatives, the only Catholic priest who has ever served in Congress.

THE ARCHITECT'S DRAWING shows Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church now under construction at the corner of Penniman Ave. and Arthur St. The church is expected to be ready for use in about 18 months and will seat 1200 persons, according to the Rev. Father Francis C. Byrne, pastor. The white brick structure will face Pen-

Cherry Pie - Always A Winner

Grooms have been wooed and contests have been won with a perfectly baked cherry pie. One of the secrets of perfection is a filling of just the right consistency. For this purpose it is wise to choose a thickener such as quick-cooking tapioca so that the filling will be not too thick and not too thin. Succulent and cherry bright, such a pie is always a winner.

Cherry Crisscross Pie

2 cans (1 lb. each) water-packed pitted red sour cherries
4 teaspoons quick-cooking tapioca
1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt

6 drops red food coloring
1/4 teaspoon almond extract (optional)
Pastry for two-crust 9-inch pie
1 tablespoon butter

* Made from a mix or favorite recipe.

Drain cherries, reserving 1/2 cup of the juice. Thoroughly mix tapioca, sugar, salt, cherries, measured juice, food coloring, and extract. Let stand about 15 minutes. Roll half of the pastry 1/4 inch thick; line a 9-inch pie pan and trim pastry at edge of rim. Roll remaining pastry 1/4 inch thick; cut into 1/2-inch strips. Fill pie shell with cherry mixture. Dot with butter. Moisten edge of bottom crust. Adjust pastry strips in lattice across top of pie. Press ends to edge of bottom crust. Flute edge. Bake at 425° for 50 minutes, or until crust is golden brown and pie filling bubbles near center.

Meaningful interaction time

Having, some months ago, gone on record in favor of a recreation area for The Plymouth Community, we were gratified at results of the joint meeting held recently between Plymouth Township, City of Plymouth and Plymouth School District officials at Plymouth's City Hall.

This week and last, City and Township officials began to implement recommendations of the joint session by appointing representatives to serve on a committee.

Lest the group be restricted to too narrow an area at the beginning, we would suggest that they be called the recreation site committee rather than a swimming pool committee.

For if one thing was apparent at the joint meeting, it was the consensus that a full-fledged recreation area was needed.

However, another, less tangible outgrowth of the session interests us more.

Most, if not all, of this area's residents, including elective officials, are willing to pay lip service to the vision of The Plymouth Community.

However, The Plymouth Mail is concerned that this concept go beyond the point of mere talk. We feel the time for meaningful interaction is fast approaching.

Admittedly, there were moves in the past on the part of the City of Plymouth to annex choice portions of Plymouth Township's land area. And there are still persons in both municipalities who are prone to regard the other with obvious suspicion.

We sincerely hope, at this point, that the past is simply that. The old power structure that controlled city government years ago has largely faded.

Their actions are water under the dam.

And it seems to us that the time is fast approaching when we must collectively put up or shut up about The Plymouth Community.

Our greatest hope is the possibility of hammering out workable, mutually trusting means of co-operation between the autonomous governmental entities that make up this area that we call The Plymouth Community.

We hope the efforts of the newly-appointed recreation site committee bear fruit, not only in the area of recreation, but in the greater field of closer and more complete relations between our local governments.

Crossing guards need help

A phone call from a reader last week pointed up the often thankless task that a group of Plymouthites have each day.

They are this community's school crossing guards.

They stand on corners in cold, sloppy, slushy, Winter weather and in the searing heat of early Fall. Asking for no credit, they simply go about their job of shepherding children safely across busy intersections.

But they need help — help in the form of more active parental co-operation. The story is perhaps best told in the words of a 13-year-old Plymouth girl, daughter of a crossing guard. She wrote:

"Although some parents are unaware of the fact, their elementary school children are safely helped across Plymouth's busy streets each day by interested parents . . .

"One of the crossing guard's hardest problems is gaining the confidence and respect of the children. Once won, however, the results can be interesting. A testimony to this fact is a recent event at the Spring-Mill Street crossing near Starkweather School.

"One of the guards was absent, and Mrs. Bennett of the Spring-Mill corner was trying to take charge of both corners and outrun the kindergarten and first grade students.

"Finally relieved at one of these corners by a Plymouth policeman, she took temporary guard over the Starkweather-Spring corner.

"Then first grader Brian Morgan, one of Mrs. Bennett's regular crossers, reached her usual corner. When the officer told him to cross the street, Brian refused.

"I can't cross until Mrs. Bennett tells me to cross," he informed the surprised patrolman. When the policeman told Brian that Mrs. Bennett had asked him to help the students, Brian, satisfied, crossed.

"Thus, although many Plymouthites are perhaps too busy to notice, their children are being protected by the faithful crossing guards, whom they completely trust, and by the Plymouth Police Department who is always ready to lend a helping hand. To all parents:

"Please co-operate by teaching your children to obey and respect all safety rules and their crossing guards."

The young lady is right. Please do co-operate.

City DPW Activities

By Joseph Bida, Sup't.

The past week, the Department of Public Works was busy flooding all skating ponds which are located at the following locations: Hamilton Playground, Joy and Harding; Joel Playground at Joel and Sheridan; Auburn Playground at Auburn and Junction; Burroughs Playground at Burroughs and Coolidge; Sutherland Playground at Sutherland and Forest at the cost of approximately $158.00. I might add that we would like a lot more cooperation from the youngsters because they not only break up the ice but throw objects onto the ice. This does not only help create a problem but also costs a great deal of money to do the ponds again. The parents should encourage the children to keep off the ponds until they are frozen. When the children go into the pond before it is sufficiently frozen they break up the ice and this causes jagged edges and if a child falls on this they can be hurt badly. Many people have called about skating ponds but it might be interesting to know that up to January 13, 1965 the temperature has been a total of 78 degrees above normal so it has been next to impossible to make skating ponds before this.

All the streets were cold patched for the second time by D.P.W. personnel during the past week. All Christmas trees, that were out, were picked up and hauled to the vacant lot adjoining the Public Works Garage where they, along with other trees that had been hauled in, were burned. The cost of picking up the trees was approximately $450.00. Repair work was done on traffic control signs. Wood was cut and hauled to the Dunning-Hough Library for burning in the fireplace.

During the week 13,390 gallons of water was pumped from the wells for consumption through our mains. 730 water meters were read and six meters were changed and repaired. Six stop boxes were located. Fire hydrants were removed at Amelia; Holbrook and Liberty; Starkweather and Farmer; Spring and Davis; York and Pearl and Main and Wing Streets.

These were hydrants that were on the old mains and are not used but have been replaced with new ones. The streets were salted on Wednesday when it started to snow and the weather report was for 2 to 3 inches of snow. However, the storm didn't really hit us here and even though the streets were slippery early in the day the accumulation of snow was very little. Approximately 8 tons of salt was used. Barrels were placed on Frack and on Pennington at the walkway for the purpose of rubbish collection in the downtown section.

The Grim Pilgrim

By DAVE WILEY

"We believe: . . . That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations; . . . And that service to humanity is the best work of life." — The JayCee Creed.

Random thoughts after the Monday evening Junior Chamber of Commerce Distinguished Service Award banquet (which shows that I'm getting lazy and putting off writing this as long as possible).

Sitting in an audience of predominantly young men at Hillside Inn last night, I listened to Robert Stargel, a personnel consultant from The Kroger Company.

Stargel is polished, urbane, a graduate of Harvard University and a true Ivy Leaguer.

He is also a Negro. Speaking on the topic, "Young Men Can Change the World," he called for action and noted that the vacuum created by doing nothing must inevitably be filled by others who will make changes in the world.

The food company executive devoted his remarks to human relations as they relate to race relations and, afterward, fielded questions from the floor.

He noted that, historically, social lag comes between introduction of a new concept and its implementation and called for young people to be interpreters.

The new concept to which he referred was the 1954 U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing racial discrimination.

"It isn't just a matter of you accepting the Negro," he said. "It's a matter of the Negro trusting and accepting you."

"Place," he said is something you live with all your life; and, to the Negro, place means: "Where you are born, where you can eat, where you can sleep, where you can work, where you can go to school and yes, gentlemen, where you can go to church."

KEEP THEM FAST

We hope your next prescription carries this "Label"

I was awfully darned uncomfortable. Having committed myself, in the past, to equality for all, I kept thinking how easy, in Plymouth, it is to do so.

How simple it is for us, who are removed from the question at hand, to pay lip service to a concept we aren't confronted with.

I am a natural-born cynic when it comes to the northern liberal's penchant for declaring himself in favor of racial equality.

And, frankly, it wears me a trifle to hear — in loud and unctuous tones — repeated protestations of fidelity to the cause of human rights.

My high school days were spent in Detroit, in the midst of a student population that was 70 per cent Polish-Catholic, 25 per cent Negro and five per cent White Anglo-Saxon Protestants, a minority group of which I was a part.

I don't think we gave a heck of a lot of thought to human relations. It was simply there and we lived it.

Running through my mind at the JayCee meeting, was the anecdote about Negro author James Baldwin. Appearing on a radio program, he received a telephone call from an intense young woman who asked: "Mr. Baldwin, what can I do to help?" And he replied:

"I don't know, 'baby. That's your problem."

The truth is there. Justifiably bitter, Baldwin threw the question where it belonged.

It IS our problem, baby. What's the answer? I wish I knew.

In my own heart, I question whether it can be found within organizations like the Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity.

Are they accomplishing anything, or are they merely salving their collective ego by being unduly interested in a problem which is not germane to them?

Do they really care? Do the JayCeese really care? And, for that matter, do I really care?

My personal answer is this. As editor of this newspaper, I hope — when a Negro family comes to The Plymouth Community — their arrival passes relatively unnoticed.

I want no Dearborn incidents in Plymouth. Neither would I care to see Negroes embarrassed by a fawning, artificial reception. When the time comes, as it inevitably must, they will have difficulty enough without feeling they are on public display.

When America is mature enough to accept its citizens with neither incidents of hate nor fanfares of spurious adulation, human relations will no longer be a problem. I hope Plymouth has the necessary maturity.

Tap Lauterbach, Norman For Recreation Committee

Two township representatives to the Community Recreation site committee, a new Fire Commission, and a replacement on the Board of Review were appointed by Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay at the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees on Tuesday, Jan. 12.

Plymouth Township's representatives on the newly formed recreation site committee will be Trustees Dick Lauterbach and Louis Norman. This committee is also expected to investigate the possibility of a recreation area for The Plymouth Community.

The new Fire Department Administrative Board includes Clayton Koch, 11826 Brownell, appointed for the six year term; Richard A. Wagar, 12102 Hines Ct., and Hilding G. Olson, 41215 Bruce St., for the four year term; and Melville Troyer, E. Ann Arbor Trail, and Lynn E. Bartlett, 4425 Gov. Bradford Rd., for the two year term.

Since the new State Constitution reads that the Township Supervisor is no longer automatically chairman of the Board of Review, Supervisor Lindsay named Walter M. Abate, 42599 Clemons Dr., to that position.

In accepting the resignation of Bruce Kolak from the Plymouth Township Planning Commission, Clerk John McEwen presented a resolution "recognizing the excellent services rendered" by Kolak. Kolak's resignation is due to "increased personal responsibilities and business pressures."

Salary increases were also on the agenda. On a motion by Trustee Ralph Garber a $500 increase in the salaries of the supervisor, clerk, and treasurer was approved. Supervisor Lindsay will now receive $9,300, Clerk McEwen, $8,800, and Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes, $8,300.

A MESSAGE To the Plymouth Community ...

Plymouth Kiwanis

Two of the best-known Plymouth Kiwanis projects have been construction of the Kiwanis Girl Scout Lodge on Plymouth Road, above, dedicated on Oct. 10, 1950, and the annual National Kids' Day Peanut Sale each September. In 1964, right, Kiwanians Don Zander and Bill Lyons — now first vice president — got each other started on the peanut sale. Current Plymouth fund raising projects, in addition to the peanut sale, include annual Spring and Fall Festival Pancake Festivals and a fruitcake sale during the holiday season. During the 40 years of its existence, Plymouth Kiwanis has taken pride in sponsoring many worthy and important projects. Among them are donation of the first musical instruments and uniforms for the Plymouth High School band, original sponsorship of summer recreation and Theater Guild programs and contribution of $1,000 for a fireplace in the new building of the Western Wayne County Society for Crippled Children and adults. Each year Plymouth Kiwanians have contributed more than $400 to the Forney W. Clement Foundation for hospitalized children at the University Hospital in Ann Arbor. Other activities include sponsoring 4-H Club activities, Boy Scout Troop 1531 — the oldest in Plymouth, and providing two yearly scholarships for Plymouth High School graduates attending Schoolcraft Community College. Plymouth Kiwanis work covers a host of activities, from sending local students to Girls' State in Ann Arbor and Boys' State in East Lansing, to foster parent-hood for a young Phillipino and provision for his needs and those of his family. Plymouth Kiwanians have enjoyed their contribution to Kiwanis International's first half century. Together, they look forward to another 50 years of building.

History of Kiwanis

Kiwanis International was born in Detroit, Mich. on Jan. 21, 1915. It now includes more than 5400 clubs and over 260,000 members in all parts of the world. A service organization, Kiwanis is made up of men in recognized lines of business having strong community interests and dedicated to youth and community service. The Plymouth club was organized on Oct. 12, 1925 at the Northside Riding Club on Six Mile Road. The Kiwanis Club of Ypsilanti was the sponsor. On charter night, Dec. 5, 1925, District Governor John Mustard of Battle Creek presented the local club its charter in the dining room of the Methodist Church. From an original membership of 38, Plymouth Kiwanis has grown to its present total of 108 members. Two charter members are still with the club, Ernest J. Allison and Fred Thomas. As we prepare for our own club's 40th anniversary in October, we pledge continued effort to contribute to the development of The Plymouth Community as a more pleasant and democratic place in which to live and raise families.

PLYMOUTH KIWANIS CLUB

National, Local Events Mark Anniversary

Thursday, January 21, marks the Golden Anniversary of the founding of Kiwanis International, according to Marvin Terry, President of the Kiwanis Club of Ypsilanti.

"A program of national, regional, and local events will highlight the Golden Anniversary year," he said.

Kiwanis International was organized in Detroit, Michigan, January 21, 1915. Less than a year later, the first Kiwanis club in Canada was organized in Hamilton, Ontario. Through the years, the service group has grown up simultaneously in the two big North American countries. In 1918 the first Kiwanis club was organized outside of the United States and Canada — Mexico.

Local Kiwanis History Goes Back 40 Years

As a service organization made up of men in recognized lines of business having strong community interests and dedicated to youth and community services, Kiwanis came into being in Detroit on Jan. 11, 1915. It now comprises more than 5,400 clubs and over 260,000 members in all parts of the world.

Ten years later, on Oct. 12, 1925, Plymouth Kiwanis met for the first time at the Northside Riding Club, on Six Mile Road. Sponsored by the Ypsilanti Kiwanis Club, Plymouth's charter was presented by District Governor John Mustard, of Battle Creek, on Dec. 5, 1925, in the dining room of the Methodist Church.

Beginning with a membership of 38 business and professional men, the local club has maintained a steady growth to the present 108 members. Two charter members remain with the club, Ernest J. Allison and Fred Thomas. The club also has 20 living past presidents.

Plymouth Kiwanis has become well known in the Michigan District of Kiwanis as having produced five Lieutenant Governors, Ernie Allison, Bud Schrader, Ernie Henry, Walt Gemperline and Bob Jolliffe.

THEY ALSO became the youngest sponsoring club when they sponsored the Wayne Kiwanis Club in 1926.

WE STICK TO OUR LASTS

There was a time when pharmacists often were called "Doc." Doubtless it was a complimentary gesture. Even in this late day, the pharmacist frequently is asked to diagnose and prescribe by his customers. But like the shoemaker, we pharmacists stick to our own lasts. We neither diagnose nor prescribe. These health team functions fall within the special province of physicians both by law and professional training. As a member of the health team, we are an intermediary, serving both the doctor and the patient. Our job is to compound your prescriptions carefully and promptly.

Who Is the Average Kiwanian?

Do you know who the "average Kiwanian" is? He is 46 years old and has two children whom he intends to send to college. He owns his own home and his automobile. He is a community leader, participating actively in many civic affairs. He is often a member of the city council, chairman of the community fund or director of the Red Cross. He may be a leader in Boy and Girl Scout activities and he is active in the work of his church.

Kiwanis Aids Hospitalized Children

At Ann Arbor's Medical Center at the University of Michigan an educational and recreational program sponsored totally by Kiwanis Clubs has brought a helping hand to hospitalized children since 1922. Plymouth Kiwanis donate more than $400 each year to the Forney W. Clement Foundation.

The project was started as a memorial to one of Michigan's outstanding Kiwanians who died in 1942. It supports equipment, operation, and supervision of a children's play area at the medical center.

More than 6,000 youngsters are served by this project each year.

Proclamation

WHEREAS January 21, 1965 is the Golden Anniversary of the founding of Kiwanis International, and, WHEREAS achievement of this milestone represents more than the completion of fifty calendar years, but is, in truth, the golden anniversary of community service, and, WHEREAS the men of Kiwanis have contributed unselfishly to the good of this community, and aided in their work by the citizens, I, therefore, call upon the citizens to join me in honoring the Kiwanians of The Plymouth Community, as those Kiwanians have honored us in countless ways throughout the years, and I declare this to be Kiwanis Golden Anniversary Week in Plymouth, urging each and every citizen to join me in wishing this organization of our fellow citizens a happy birthday and many more to come in the years that lie ahead.

Witness my hand and seal,
(Signed) Richard H. Wernette

Plymouth Kiwanis Serves Community in Many Ways

Service to Youth, Community and Nation — that is the purpose of Kiwanis. In preparing to celebrate the Golden Anniversary of Kiwanis International, the Plymouth Club may well be proud of its contributions and accomplishments.

In order to help finance their many local projects, Plymouth Kiwanis conducts several fund raising projects during the year. They have their well-known Pancake Breakfast in the Spring and again during the Fall Festival each year. In September they conduct a National Kids' Day Peanut Sale, and during the Christmas holidays they are out selling fruitcakes.

One of the biggest contributions of the Plymouth Kiwanis to the youth of the community is the Kiwanis Girl Scout Lodge on Plymouth Road. The local club invested more than $20,000 in the lodge which was dedicated on Oct. 10, 1950. The lodge is currently under the direction of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

They also sponsor Boy Scout Troop 1531, the oldest troop in Plymouth.

BESIDES providing two yearly scholarships for Plymouth High School graduates to Schoolcraft College, the club also sponsors PHS students to both Girls' State in Ann Arbor and Boys' State in East Lansing.

Currently, Plymouth Kiwanis is assisting in development of playgrounds for children housed at Plymouth State Home and School.

Among their other contributions is a $1,000 check for a fireplace in the new building of Western Wayne County Society for Crippled Children. Kiwanis also contributes to the Plymouth High School Music Camp Fun, the Plymouth Y.M.C.A., and Plymouth Junior Achievement.

In addition to the donation of a thermofax copy machine for the Dunning-Hough Library and a tape recorder with bird call tapes to the Nature Center in Hines Park, local Kiwanis also furnish hearing aids to individuals unable to afford them.

Another important Kiwanis project is their job as Foster Parents to a young Philippine boy. The club furnishes medicine, clothing and supplies and money for him and his family.

An original sponsor of the present summer recreational program and of the Plymouth Theatre Guild, the Plymouth Kiwanis also sponsor 4-H Club work in the Plymouth area. They also donated the first musical instruments and uniforms for the Plymouth High School Band.
