

Board Denial of Bills Foments Action

Demel Resigns Township Post After 24 Years

After serving Plymouth Township as attorney and legal advisor for 24 years, Earl Demel, prominent lawyer and longtime Township resident, has called it quits.

Irrked by failure of the Board of Trustees to approve bills, presented for payment in December and January, for immediate payment, Demel last week asked for a clarification of the Board's stand on legal fees in the regular January meeting and then turned in his resignation on the following day.

The veteran lawyer has been pondering such action for more than a month—ever since the Board refused to okay immediate payment of a bill for the first time since he was appointed township attorney 24 years ago.

He was advised by friends to ride out the difficulties but when the Board reiterated its December action and refused to approve immediate payment of a January bill — then he had enough.

Demel's bills have been under fire from Trustee Dick Lauter-back since last August. At each meeting, starting with August, Lauterbach has questioned the legal bills and asked for a report from Clerk John McEwen as to the amount still remaining of the budgeted $5,500.

Demel was ailing for more than eight months—from November 1963 through June 1964 — and the first bill for services in 1964 was presented in August.

Prior to that time the Trustees had hired William Brahear of Livonia to handle a threatened suit against Evans Products Co. for violation on another case.

Demel, who was much perturbed when the Trustees voted to continue their December action and not pay his January bill of $289 until bonds for the 1965 water and sewer projects were sold, asked for a stand on the situation just before the meeting was about to adjourn.

"It doesn't set too well with me," he said, "When this Board denies a check for $289, I don't feel that I should have to wait since I have been working on Saturdays and weekdays on Township problems and have a rather large overhead in maintaining an office.

"I can't afford to finance the Township when I have an overhead of more than $1,000 a month that has to be paid."

Demel pointed out that the Board had given him permission for condemnation action and this would involve a cost of about $50 in fees for each.

This is the first time in the 24 years I have served the Township as attorney that the Trustees have ever stepped in and failed to approve immediate payment of a bill," Demel said.

Jaycees Name Ziel 'Man of Year'

Harvey Ziel, well-known Plymouth accountant, member of the firm of Post, Smythe, Lutz and Zeil and active in Y.M.C.A. and Chamber of Commerce projects, received the 1964 Distinguished Service award of the Plymouth Jaycees and was honored as "Man of the Year" at the annual dinner Monday in the Hillside Inn.

Ziel received the coveted award from Jaycee President Joseph Fletcher. The presentation was the highlight of the dinner which officially opens the week long celebration of National Junior Chamber of Commerce week.

Principal speaker was Robert Stargel, of Cincinnati, personnel consultant of the Kroger Company's general office. Stargel talked on "Young Man Can Change the World."

But the big event of the evening was the surprised presentation to Ziel who was selected by the award committee after a lengthy study of three outstanding nominees.

Ziel won out over Wendell Smith, immediate past president of the Jaycees; and Carl Pursell, popular downtown bus-nessman who has been outstanding in work of the senior Chamber of Commerce for the past year.

Thus Ziel joins a select list of past winners that includes: James Garber, 1960; George Lawton, 1963 and James Jbara in 1964.

The award is conferred for achievements, leadership and service to the community during the calendar year of 1964. It is for direct, outstanding service and has no relationship to Jaycee membership.

It is limited to young men 35 years of age or younger. However, if the nominee reaches his 36th birthday before Dec. 31, he is still eligible if the activities for which he is cited were performed when he was 35.

Ziel has been active in the "Y" Indian Guide program and was one of the leaders in raising funds through bond sales for the DSI expansion program as part of his work with the Chamber of Commerce Industrial Development committee.

He is treasurer of the Chamber and the IDC, a member of the First Methodist Church, where he is a member of the finance commission and assistant financial secretary.

Ziel is a native of Flint and was graduated from Flint Northern High and from Cleary College in Ypsilanti. He has resided in Plymouth since 1951.

He and his wife, Patricia, and two children, Jeff, 8, and Jan, 3, reside at 11139 Southworth.

NINE DEGREE WEATHER didn't cool off these women shoppers who lined up early in front of Cassidy's for the annual winter clearance sale. More than 50 braved the chilly blasts to get first chance at some of the unusual bargains.

Leo Calhoun Asks Commission For Site in Park

The move may not be made in the next few months but Plymouth's City Commission learned Monday night that Ford dealer Leo Calhoun has found his present quarters on Main St. too small and is looking around for a new and larger site.

Matter of fact, Calhoun asked the commission to sell him a site in the Industrial Park on Plymouth Rd.—only to learn that the land isn't available and there isn't a five-acre spot available in a suitable location.

since he bought the agency almost three years ago.

"We are thinking of a building that will cost between $300,000 and $400,000," Calhoun said. "At the moment we have 45 employees and would increase it to 60 if permitted to move into the Industrial Park."

Calhoun could not comment on his future plans after learning the land was not available immediately if at all.

The site Calhoun was seeking is that under option by Wheel Trueing Corp. The option extends through next June and the commission can't make any steps in any direction until it is told what Wheel Trueing intends to do with the land.

Meanwhile, Calhoun told the commission his business has increased more than 300 per cent in the comparatively short time in other actions, the Commission:

Voted to eliminate penalties for late payment of taxes from Feb. 15 to Feb. 28 at which time the collection is turned over to the County Treasurer.

Approved additional radio equipment for the Fire and DPW at a cost of $2,488.

Set a hearing on the proposed paving of Hartsough St. for Feb. 1 at 8 p.m.

Legislature Honors Chandler

The Michigan State House of Representatives and Senate unanimously passed the following concurrent resolution on its first day of business last Wednesday:

WHEREAS, The Honorable Paul M. Chandler, 45, of Livonia, Mich., died unexpectedly on Saturday, December 12, 1964, at his home; and Approved appointment of George Lawton to the Plymouth Police Youth Club for a term to expire on June 30, 1965.

Set a hearing on Feb. 15 at 8 p.m. on the proposed rezoning of lots 3 through 8 in the Maple Croft Subdivision from R-1 to R-2 for the purpose of developing the lots with multiple family units.

WHEREAS, Rep. Paul M. Chandler, publisher of a group of suburban newspapers was first elected to the State House of Representatives in 1962 and was elected in 1964 to the State Senate to begin his first term in January of this year; and Approved reappointment of Robert Gillis to the Board of Electrical Engineers for a term to expire Jan. 15, 1966.

Approved appointment of Curtis Publishing Co. as circulation manager for the Township Fire Department Administrative Board were appointed by Supervisor Roy Lindsay after a two-month search for qualified candidates. His recommendations were approved by the Board of Trustees.

WHEREAS, As a native of Sault Ste. Marie, Representative Chandler was a graduate of the University of Michigan in 1941 and was formerly associated with the Associated Press in Detroit, Battle Creek and Ann Arbor, Mich., and in 1954 was a member of the Detroit News Sports Department; and

Two members of the Plymouth City Commission and two from the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees have been appointed to the community swimming pool and recreation center study committee.

The appointments were made in accordance with an agreement reached in a joint meeting of city, township and school board officials. Each agreed to name two to the committee.

WHEREAS, Rep. Paul M. Chandler served with distinction during World War II as Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy and won the Bronze Star, now therefore be it Named to terms expiring in 1966 were Melville Tryper, 41240 E. Ann Arbor Trail, a superintendent for Chevrolet Motor division of General Motors, and Lynn Bartlett, of 44425 Governor Bradford, area circulation manager for Curtis Publishing Co.

Appointed to terms ending in 1968 were: Richard Wagar, 12072 Hines Court, a school teacher at Riverside High School in Dearborn Heights, and Hilding Olson, 41215 Bruce, a member of the University of Michigan faculty.

RESOLVED by the House of Representatives (Senate concurring), that the members of the Michigan Legislature express their deep sorrow and regret upon the death of the Honorable Paul M. Chandler and offer their deep sympathy upon his untimely passing and pay tribute to his memory as a greatly esteemed and highly respected colleague and as a very able public servant, publisher and honored citizen of the State.

Picked to serve for a term expiring in 1970 was Clayton

Kiwanians to Celebrate 50th Year of Founding

Bud Guest, popular commentator from radio station WJR and son of the late famed poet, Edgar Guest, will discuss "The Sunny Side of the Street" Saturday when the Plymouth Kiwanis Club celebrates the 50th anniversary of the founding of Kiwanis International.

"The Sunny Side of the Street" is the billing given Guest's daily program.

The Plymouth club, which will celebrate its 40th anniversary in October, has invited Harry Young, the only living founder of the organization, to attend the celebration which will be held in Lofy's Skyline Room.

Other guests will include: Mayor, Richard Wernette, Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay, School Supt. Russell Isbister, presidents of all service clubs in the community along with the presidents of the Plymouth High Key Club and Schoolcraft College's Circle K Club. The latter two clubs are sponsored by the Plymouth Kiwanis Club.

More than 250 are expected for the affair which is expected to bring Kiwanians from clubs throughout the district in addition to a full turnout of the Plymouth group.

Bud Guest

President Marv Terry, who was recently installed, will preside.

The Kiwanis Club was formed in Detroit on Jan. 21, 1915 and now comprises more than 4,000 clubs and more than 260,000 members in all parts of the world.

Township Finally Names 5-Man Fire Adm. Board

Members of the Plymouth Township Fire Department Administrative Board were appointed by Supervisor Roy Lindsay after a two-month search for qualified candidates. His recommendations were approved by the Board of Trustees.

Township Planning Commission who has long been active in township affairs.

In other actions, the trustees: Approved a request from James Lawrie, 895 Ann Arbor Rd., for an SDD liquor license (package store) in accordance with a request from the State Liquor Control Commission asking for approval or denial.

Two members of the Plymouth City Commission and two from the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees have been appointed to the community swimming pool and recreation center study committee.

The appointments were made in accordance with an agreement reached in a joint meeting of city, township and school board officials. Each agreed to name two to the committee.

Supervisor Louis Stein, of Canton Township, also has been requested to name two from his board.

Named by Plymouth Mayor Richard Wernette were: Commissioners Robert Beyer and James Jabara.

Appointed by Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay were: Trustees Louis Norman and Dick Lauterbach.

City, Township Pick 2 for Pool Study

Approved a complaint from Jerome O'Neill, 14637 Robinwood, in which he brought attention of the board to a 50 per cent increase in charges for rubbish collection by L&M Co. O'Neill pointed out that the rates were $12 annually in 1964 but were boosted to $18 in 1965.

Inasmuch as the garbage collection services are by private contract with the individual homeowners, the board could only take the matter under advisement and study.

Accepted with regrets the resignation of Bruce Kolač, 9303 Rocker, from the Planning Commission due to increased personal responsibilities and business pressures.

'Great Decisions' Program Set for Four Suburb Areas

For the eleventh successive year, residents of Livonia, Redford Township, Farmington and Plymouth can become personally involved in the most pressing problems of the world when the Great Decisions program starts in the suburbs in February. Great Decisions is an annual discussion program with citizens meeting informally in their own communities to discuss eight key foreign policy topics of critical importance to the United States.

Groups are already forming in this area, and anyone who wishes to gather from five to 15 interested persons together may form an informal group. At Livonia's Carl Sandburg Library, discussion groups will begin Tuesday, Feb. 2, and will continue each Tuesday from 8 to 10 p.m.

Kits to help organize Great Decisions groups are available at the Redford Township Library, Norborne and Elsinore, Redford Township; and the Plymouth Public Library, Main St., Plymouth. More than 1,000 communities throughout the nation are taking part in the project. The series was started in 1955 by the Foreign Policy Association, a non-partisan educational agency. It has won widespread support by educators, civic leaders and clergymen. The chairman of the honorary committee sponsoring the program for Southeastern

Michigan is Walker L. Ciesler, chairman of the board of the Detroit Edison Company. Study material for the discussions comes from a non-partisan fact booklet published by the Foreign Policy Association. This year's topics are particularly conducive to lively discussion. They are: RED CHINA — Menace or Paper Tiger?; GERMANY — Key to Europe?; TRADE, FOOD AND DOLLARS — What Policy for the U.S.?; SOUTH AFRICA — Threat to

Peace?; week of February 28; EASTERN EUROPE — End of the Satellite Era?; week of March 7; THE UN AT TWENTY — Asset or Liability?; week of March 14; VIETNAM — Is Victory Possible?; week of March 21, and THE POPULATION BOOM — Can It Be Controlled?; week of March 28. Both radio station WDET-FM and television channel 56 will broadcast Great Decisions programs throughout the eight-week period. Starting February 10 each Tuesday at 3:15 p.m. WDET-FM will present a special program repeated the following day at 8:30 p.m. Each Wednesday WTVS, Channel 56 will broadcast at 7 p.m., repeating each program the following day at 8 p.m. Those participating in the Great Decisions series have the added satisfaction of knowing that the conclusions their group reaches will help formulate national policy. This is made possible by eight opinion ballots contained in each kit. The League of Women Voters of Detroit has agreed to act as the clearing house for ballots in this area.

THE DEBUTANTES from left, Diane Abray, Jan McClelan, Corinne Helco and Lynn Hawkins are just four of the 300 teen-agers who have joined forces to present an evening of entertainment a month in hospitals and rest homes throughout the Metropolitan De-

Teens Combine Talent; Entertain in Hospitals

300 of Metropolitan Detroit's talented teen-agers are combining their forces to present a series of shows in hospitals throughout the Metropolitan Detroit area. The project is an outgrowth of the Talented Teen Search conducted recently by the nation-wide Wendy Ward charm course at Montgomery Wards.

The first hospital to be visited is the Plymouth State Home and Training School in February. Second on the agenda is the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Dearborn. "All of the teens," says Barbara Loren, who is in charge of project, "are trained and have backgrounds in their fields.

The show is really a professional undertaking. "This project," she continues, "should help to convince people that the greatest majority of today's teenagers don't deserve the reputation of black jackets and motor-cycle boots." The 300-man company was culled from the 20,000 entries in the "Talented Teen" contest. Entries came from throughout Southeastern Michigan and the final auditions were held at the Ward store in Livonia's Wonderland shopping center.

Wards Gives Promotion To Stanley Hart

S. D. Ward, District General Manager, Montgomery Ward & Company, announced the appointment of Stanley Hart, formerly Merchandise Manager of the Montgomery Ward store at Livonia, to the position of Metro District Fashion Merchandise Manager.

Hart joined the Ward organization in 1957 and has served as Assistant Department Stanley Hart Manager, Department Manager, Sales Promotion Manager, Operating Manager and Merchandise Manager in many of the Detroit area Ward stores. He was graduated from Wayne State University with a degree in Management, is the father of three children and resides in Livonia. He has been active in many civic groups including Junior Achievement, Lions, Chamber of Commerce and Livonia's Temple Beth Am Association.

In addition to supervising the Fashion Departments, Hart will also supervise the famous Wendy Ward charm program which originated in Livonia and has since spread across the nation. Youhass of Livonia, is a member of the 66-piece Ithaca College Orchestra which officially opened the auditorium in the new Music Building with a public concert. The Orchestra, composed of students enrolled in the School of Music, is conducted by Don Wells of the faculty. Youhass is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Youhass, 9729 Middlebelt Rd.

Slate Free Dental X-Rays for Suburban Youngsters

To help combat what it terms a trend towards parental neglect of children's teeth, the Detroit District Dental Society is sponsoring free dental X-rays for youngsters during National Children's Dental Health Week, February 7-13. According to the DDDS, early dental care not only prevents tooth decay — America's number one killer of good dental health—but helps to avoid conditions which lead to crooked teeth, faulty bite and even major dental disorders. Dr. Henry J. Herpel, president of the Detroit District Dental Society says that regular visits to the dentist during the years from three to 12 assure that "baby" teeth are shed at the right time and permanent teeth are properly aligned.

The free dental X-rays are being arranged with the six year old to the teenager in mind. Under the direction of Dr. Donald Berner of 14302 Winston, Redford Township, who is this year's chairman of Children's Dental Health Week activities in Detroit, five X-ray stations will be located in the greater Detroit area at Northland, Eastland and Wonderland Shopping Centers. "By locating at these busy shopping areas, we hope to be able to perform dental X-rays for thousands of Detroit youngsters," he said. "The X-rays will be forwarded to family dentists or neighborhood dentists for review. If any remedial action is required, the dentist can talk to the parents about suggested corrective measures," Dr. Berner said. Only children accompanied by a parent or guardian will be eligible for the free X-ray treatment. No charge will be requested by the Detroit District Dental Society. Dr. Berner said that if this year's free dental X-ray treatments are enthusiastically accepted by the public, the society may look into similar programs next year.

Millage, Bond Proposals:

Two Ballot Issues to Face Clarenceville Voters on March 29

A millage increase and a bond issue will face voters in the Clarenceville School District on March 29 when they go to the polls in a special election.

The Board of Education voted unanimously Thursday to ask voters to approve a four-mill tax increase — two of which may not have to be levied—and a $3.5 million limitation bond issue.

The Board's proposition for millage would boost by five per cent the amount of money behind each child in the district's budget.

"The tax valuation in back of each pupil has dropped about $1,000 in the last three years," school officials explained. "We have found ourselves facing problems in meeting the increased costs of operation and to provide the expanded program desired by the people."

The district faces a $40,000 deficit in disbursements over receipts this year.

School officials will put a four-mill proposition on the ballot, keeping their fingers crossed that only two of the four will have to be levied.

"It's conceivable," they explained, that the district could lose two mills which has been levied this year as a result of changes in interpretation and effect of the state laws.

"The Clarenceville School District feels it imperative that we be protected so that the two mills can be levied should an adverse ruling be received from any state agency or unit of government." A decision on the new interpretation by the State Allocation Board is expected later this year.

The other two mills will add some $52,000 in annual revenue to the district. "This is the minimum we can go for now—it's almost an absolute must," Board member Ray Chaiken told Thursday's meeting.

The millage increase is proposed for a five-year period.

Board members agreed that the $3.5 million bond issue—which will meet the district's total building needs—will not all be bonded at one time.

"My feeling is that we should vote for the total package—then stipulate that we'd bond that portion only immediately needed," Chaiken told the Board, which agreed.

Approximately $1.25 million is needed for current projects, Superintendent L. E. Schmidt estimated. Among projects under consideration are an auditorium, additions to present school buildings and site improvement.

In other business—

- The Board voted, 6-1, to underwrite the cost of cleaning band uniforms for members of the Clarenceville High School band;

- Resignations were accepted from Constance Zilch, Botsford first grade teacher; Hattie Burt, Edgewood Second grade; and Alvin Klumpp, high school history.

- New teachers hired include

Jacqueline M. Flowers, elementary art; Susan Smith, elementary physical education; Marlene Francis, Botsford first grade; Dorothy Sandler, Botsford kindergarten; M. Elaine Jacobs, elementary librarian; and Dorothy L. Bennett, high school English.

Farnum Wins Appropriations Committee Seat

Billie S. Farnum's reputation as Michigan's "Watchdog of the Tax Dollar" has won him an honor rare for a freshman Congressman—a seat on the powerful Appropriations Committee of the House of Representatives.

Farnum represents Michigan's new 19th district, which includes Farmington, Livonia and Redford Township.

As Michigan's Auditor-General, Democrat Farnum had uncovered mismanagement and loose practices in government throughout the state. His final investigation of National Guard accounting practices attracted national attention.

Rep. Martha W. Griffiths, members of the House Ways and Means Committee, led other Michigan Democrats in a concerted drive to see that Farnum got a chance in Washington to continue his drive to tighten up on government spending practices.

The Appropriations Committee reviews all recommendations for expenditures of tax money made by other committees. His new post thus gives Farnum a chance to take a last slice off the "fat" in any expenditure voted by Congress.

"It is a great honor to have had the unanimous support of the Michigan group for such an important post," Farnum said, "My hope is that I will prove worthy of the faith put in me."

Congressman Farnum began his "watchdog" chore in 1951 when, as a Michigan State Fair commissioner, he helped introduce economies that made money available for what was called "rejuvenation" of the fair.

Appointment as Assistant Secretary of State for Michigan followed. He was promoted to Deputy Secretary of State in 1957.

He was appointed in 1961, as State Auditor General, to fill a vacancy. Election to the post followed in 1962.

'Long Life' Seen for Townships

If Executive Director of Michigan Townships Association Joseph A. Parisi, Jr., has anything to say about it, Plymouth, Farmington and Redford Townships have a long life ahead of them.

Parisi, who says his life is devoted to fighting for the survival of the township system, said in an address before the association last week that "a strong, centralized government runs a greater risk of collapse than does a diffused government, with diffused powers, at the local level."

Although, says Parisi, townships face annexation or incorporation constantly, since 1953 only 12 townships have been lost in Michigan. There are currently 1,254 in the state.

Parisi cited several problems of townships, including equal representation, fiscal and administrative restrictions, highway accidents (70 per cent of the highways and freeways in the state are in the townships, according to the director), zoning and planning. However, he feels that the Townships Association and other backers are solving these problems and the future is bright for the local governments.

Four Injured in 4-Car Crash on Plymouth Rd.

A 19-year-old Plymouth youth faces a charge of failure to yield to through traffic and a Livonia mother and three children narrowly escaped death in a spectacular three-car and truck-trailer collision Saturday on Plymouth Rd. near Wayne Rd. in Livonia.

Livonia police reports show that James Tye, 19, of 412 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, allegedly drove out of a parking lot into westbound traffic, striking a car operated by Mrs. Rosalie Duty, 23, of 34800 Standish.

Mrs. Duty's auto spun into a truck-trailer driven by Howard Kelley, of Oxford, Mich., in the eastbound lane, then swerved into a west-

Plymouth Mom Tops Schoolcraft Scholars

A petite Plymouth Township mother of four has the unique distinction of becoming the first Schoolcraft College student to receive a perfect 'A' rating for 14 hours of study in the day and evening courses.

Mrs. Marilyn Wright, 41611 Greenbriar Lane, was the only member of the student body to receive all A's in the college's opening semester, according to the first Dean's Honor Roll released by Dean of Students Miss Lois Waterman.

Mrs. Wright was graduated from Miss Newman's School in 1951, attended Michigan State University for one semester and then dropped out to marry James Wright, now art director for the advertising agency of Page, Winchester and Connelly in Birmingham.

During the intervening 13 years she was busy with household duties and handling her family which now includes four children: Mike, 11; Paul, 9; Nancy, 6; and Kevin, 4.

However, when she discovered Schoolcraft College was opening practically in the backyard of her home in the Lake Pointe Subdivision, she decided to go back to college in quest of the much-desired degree.

Of course, it was with the full cooperation of her husband, who now complains (with a big smile) of his dishpan hands but takes great pride in his wife's scholastic record to date.

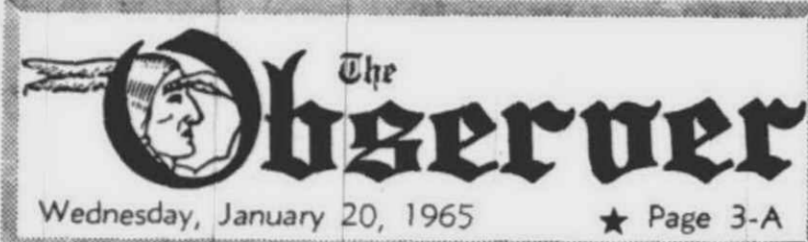

Mrs. Wright took one day and three night courses in the first semester and plans to continue that kind of a program for the semester now in operation.

She has ambitions of finishing the two years at Schoolcraft and then transferring to the University of Michigan to major in journalism with the eventual thought of devoting her spare time to creative writing.

Pressed for reasons for her amazing scholarship rating, Mrs. Wright answered, "I guess you'd have to say that being matured has a great deal to do with it. When I study now, I can sit down and concentrate even though the youngsters make a bit of noise."

"I don't think this would have been possible a few years ago," she smiled, "then the slightest noise would have bothered me. But now I'm a mother of four with an ambition and I hope to achieve it."

Others making the Dean's List included: Mrs. Evelyn Raven, 32644 Sheridan, Garden City, with a 3.769 average; Geraldine Shults, 19435 Angling Road, Livonia, 3.5; Mrs. Kathleen Stone, 21231 Ontago, Farmington, 3.786; John Thompson, 36406 Joanne, Livonia, 3.571; Ulla Wiberger, 14764 Country Club, Livonia, 3.647; and Robert Sallan, 7347 Kubis, Garden City, 3.538.

Symphony Eyes Top Crowd for Family Concert

With the traditional family concert slated for Sunday, the largest crowd of the season is expected for the fourth offering of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra in the senior high auditorium, at 4 p.m.

State Jaycee Heads Meet At Schoolcraft

Top Junior Chamber of Commerce chapter and state officers will attend an all-day Jaycee Motivational Institute starting at 9 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 23 at Schoolcraft Community College, according to Joseph Fletcher, Plymouth Jaycee president.

More than 150 Jaycee officers from this portion of the state will attend the institute at Schoolcraft College, hosted by the Plymouth Junior Chamber chapter.

Other institutes will be held simultaneously at Delta Community College in University Center and at Hope College in Holland, Fletcher added.

Dr. Richard Schmuck, Assistant Professor of Psychology and Lecturer in Education at the University of Michigan, will serve as institute leader.

The family concert is geared for the young folks and Conductor Wayne Dunlap believes this year's presentation will be one of the best in the Symphony's 19 years.

Dunlap urges all planning to attend to arrive early—perhaps by 3:30 p.m. if possible—since he anticipates an overflow audience.

Invitations have been extended to more than 35 schools in the area, asking officials to urge their pupils to attend.

Louis Stout, associate professor of French Horn at the University of Michigan and a member of the Symphony, will demonstrate the French Horn and many other related instruments as the highspot of the afternoon.

Stout has played first horn for the New Orleans Symphony, Kansas City Philharmonic, Radio City Music Hall Orchestra and the Chicago Symphony. He has had teaching assignments at Ithaca College, Chicago School of Music, Kansas City Conservatory of Music and the New England Music Camp.

The concert will feature Hayden's Symphony No. 45 "Farewell" in which the musicians gradually leave the stage until only two violinists and the conductor remain as the final notes are played.

The remainder of the program: Chabrier's "March Joyeuse," Britten's "Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra," and Grieg's "Peer Gynt Suite No. 1."

Britten's "Young Guide to Music" is a combination of narration and music which gives the listener an introduction to the various instruments of the orchestra.

All concerts are open to the public without charge and baby sitting services are available.

Dems, GOP Set County Conventions

Democrats and Republicans in the Wayne County part of the 19th District will hold their county conventions next week in Livonia.

Precinct delegates of the Democratic Party will meet Wednesday, Jan. 27, at 8:30 p.m. in the banquet room of the Compton Village Motor Inn, 28500 Schoolcraft.

On the following night, Republican Party delegates will meet in the auditorium of Bentley High School, Five Mile at Hubbard.

Both conventions will act to elect delegates to state party conventions. The Democrats will meet next month in Grand Rapids and the Republican Party will meet in Lansing.

The communities covered by the 19th Congressional District, Wayne County portion, include Livonia, Redford Township and a portion of Northville.

Four Livonia Officers Join Stork Club

Four Livonia police officers Monday received certificates as members of the Livonia Police Stork Club—membership is limited to those officers who are called upon to deliver babies on an emergency basis.

The quartet includes: Patrolman David Mansfield, who played the part of stork on July 26 when he assisted in the delivery of a baby girl; Patrolmen Frederick Benson and Thomas Wilson and Sergeant Robert Mitchell, who had a part in the delivery of a baby boy on Sunday, Jan. 17.

The certificates were presented by Chief James Jordan.

THE MICHIGAN CORPORATION and Securities Commission has approved the establishment of a cooperative association to further educational television and radio in the western metropolitan area. The group, which already includes Schoolcraft College and representatives of the Livonia, Clarenceville, Garden City, Northville, and Plymouth school districts, will be known as the Michigan Education Broadcasting Association. Here, signing the incorporation papers is Mrs. Esther R. Husling of Plymouth as (l. to r.) Dr. Eric Bradner of Schoolcraft, Harold W. Keivit of the Clarenceville District, and Alex Baskin of Livonia look on.

Livonia Boy Is Entering Med. School

ANN ARBOR—Douglas Miller Stetson, 20, of 31809 West Chicago, in Livonia, plans to enroll in the University of Michigan Medical School in September, 1965.

Stetson, a June, 1962 graduate of Bentley High School, is presently attending the University of Michigan. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stetson.

The U-M Medical School expects to admit about 200 persons next fall at its Medical Center in Ann Arbor. Of these, about 170 will be Michigan residents and 30 will come from out-of-state. The U-M annually accepts one of the largest entering medical classes of any school in the nation.

Successful students entering in the fall of 1965 will receive their M.D. degree in 1969.

Set Match At Clarenceville

On Jan. 30 at 7:30 p.m. the Clarenceville High School sophomore class will present a basketball doubleheader, featuring the "Harlem Comedy Kings" vs. the Livonia All Stars in one match and the Schoolcraft Jr. College vs. Michigan Lutheran College in a second game.

Tickets will be on sale at the door for the game. Student tickets are $1 and adult tickets are $1.50.

Rights Group Told Of Growth Problems

Mrs. Ruth Eckstein, Welfare Consultant from Ann Arbor, opened the winter lecture series sponsored by the Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity with some interesting facts and figures concerning the Plymouth Community when she spoke on the subject "Profile of Plymouth: Implications for Human Relations."

In 1962, Mrs. Eckstein did a study of Plymouth for the Community Fund, using statistics from the 1960 census. At that time the population of the community was about 20,000, comprising 10,300 in Plymouth Township and 9,750 in the city. It would seem that the township has outstripped the city, but this is not entirely true, since about 1,000 of the 10,300 are persons living in institutions within the 16 square mile area that makes up the township. About one-third of the population increase in Plymouth has been in young persons between the ages of 5 and 20. Nationwide figures show that the teenage population will continue to increase at this rate until about 1974, and there is no reason to believe that Plymouth will deviate from this.

Add to this the fact that 20 per cent of Plymouth families have an annual income of less than $5,000.

It is the area of counseling non-college-bound high school graduates, that Mrs. Eckstein is now working. While she works with the youth of Ann Arbor, the facts could very well apply to young people anywhere.

Mrs. Eckstein has learned that an employer who will hire a high school graduate is most likely to do so as soon after graduation as possible, having found that the longer a person has been away from the routine of regular hours, the less dependable he is apt to become.

Thus, if a youngster hasn't found employment within six months of graduation, his chances become increasingly slim. Just as success breeds success, failure often seems to become a habit, and in such cases the first consideration often is to help the young person rebuild his self-image.

Since the cream of high school students are usually college-bound, it stands to reason that high school counselors are pre-occupied with them. In addition to this, many of the vocational tests are geared for the student who is planning to go to college.

The more one realizes these facts, the more one should realize that it is up to society to take over and help the individual for whom college is not in the picture. Helping them find part-time employment while they seek additional training, sponsoring them, and simply giving them verbal encouragement, are some of the ways in which these young people can be helped.

The second lecture of the series will be on Thursday, Jan. 28, when Plymouth Mayor Richard Wernette and Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay will discuss "Human Rights Problems in Plymouth."

The meeting place is the Plymouth High School annex auditorium at 8:30 p.m., with the public invited at no admission charge.

A MUSICAL INTRODUCTION

Highlight of Sunday's Symphony concert for the children will be Britten's "Young People's Guide to the Orchestra". This work which combines narration and music, introduces the instruments of the orchestra. Something new, or rather someone new has been added to the violin section. That bright red hair belongs to Soren Broge, an exchange student from Sweden who is appearing with the orchestra for the first time.

JR. HIGH DANCE

Last Friday evening it was our pleasure to help chaperone the Junior High East dance—a thoroughly enjoyable experience.

General chairmen Mr. and Mrs. John Conn were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Notebart, Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Faust and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoepflich. Enjoyed the music—supplied by two local groups, 11th grader Carmen Enochs with his Impalas and Ed Jones with his Metros. Ed, who is a 10th grader, switched from guitar to saxophone with professional ease. And parents, your eighth- and ninth graders were well-behaved, an attractive group of young people.

Members of the teaching staff who assisted at the dance were Mr. Pearson, Mr. Brown, Mrs. Leach, Mrs. Morgan, Mr. MacGuire and Mr. Dikman.

LET IT SNOW

It was a wonderful weekend for the winter enthusiasts. Wilcox Lake and the frog pond had their share of local skaters.

The James Jabaras, William Leonards, Robert Beyers, James Garbers, Hurd DeMerritts, and the Robert Petersens, all members of the Plymouth Ski Club went to Caberfee for a weekend on the slopes. They saw the David Johnson family of Cadillac who have done a lot of skiing this winter. Sixty-three skiers enjoyed the High School Club's trip to Gramplan. They left Friday after school and returned the same evening.

Dr. and Mrs. John Robison of Penniman Ave. and family spent the weekend at Hidden Valley skiing with Janet Covington as their guest.

DPW News and Notes

By SUPT. JOSEPH BIDA
PLYMOUTH DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS

The coming of the near-zero weather found Department of Public Works crews flooding skating ponds at Hamilton, Joel, Auburn, Burroughs and Sutherland playgrounds.

The ponds are located at: Joy and Harding, Joel and Sheridan, Auburn and Junction, Burroughs and Coolidge and Sutherland and Forest.

The DPW would appreciate more cooperation from the skaters. They have been guilty of breaking up the ice and also of throwing heavy objects on the newly frozen ponds.

The City spent more than $150 getting the ponds ready for use and these kinds of acts not only create problems but also involve expenditure of additional monies.

The DPW asks parents to encourage their children to keep off the ponds until the surface is ready for skating. When skaters break through the ice, they leave ragged edges and a child falling could suffer serious cuts and bruises.

The DPW had numerous calls about the ponds prior to the cold wave. It is interesting to note that up to Jan. 13, the temperatures had been a total of 78 degrees above normal, making it impossible to do anything about the ponds.

All streets in the city have been cold patched for the second time. All Christmas trees, that were on the curbs, have been picked up and burned in the vacant lot adjoining the DPW garage.

Repairs were made on traffic control signs. The department cut wood for the Hough-Dunning Library fireplace and delivered it during the week.

The water meters at the well fields show that 13,390 gallons was pumped for consumption through the city's mains. The department read 730 meters, and repaired and changed six.

Six stop boxes were located. Fire hydrants were removed at Amelia; Holbrook and Liberty, Starkweather and Farmer, Spring and Davis, York and Pearl and at Main and Wing Streets. These were facilities used on the old mains but replaced by new with the water system improvements.

The streets were salted Wednesday when snow started to fall with reports of three or four inches in the way. However, the predictions didn't come true and only eight tons were required to clear the streets.

Barrels were placed on Fralick and on Penniman at the walkways for the purpose of collecting rubbish in the downtown business section.

Recovery Inc. Panel Tells Of Activities

A panel was presented Sunday by Recovery, Inc. before the senior Westminster Fellowship Youth Group, at the First Presbyterian Church.

Recovery, Inc. is a national organization devoted to the prevention of relapses in former mental patients and chronicity in nervous patients.

The panel was conducted by Mrs. Kay Donegan, acting area leader for southeastern Michigan. The meeting consisted of a brief history, a discussion by Recovery members and a period for questions and answers.

Through a demonstration of this kind, the organization not only explains its systematic method of self-help, but also demonstrates the method in action. Recovery, Inc. will present panels before any interested group, upon request.

The Plymouth group meets every Wednesday at 8 p.m. in room 111 at the high school.

Anyone interested in learning more about Recovery is invited to attend and observe.

Township Water Dept. Grows 30 Customers in 1957 To 1,266 in 1964

Plymouth Township pumped 147 million gallons of water through its water system during 1964 according to figures released by Engineer Herald Hamill to Township Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, who has charge of the Sewer and Water Department.

The high day came on July 19 when 1.2 million was pumped in a 24-hour period. The second high day was on June 29 with a total of 1,135,000 gallons.

The Township construction was completed and use of Detroit water started on Oct. 10, 1961.

Hamill made a chart for the year 1957 through 1964 which showed the Township had 30 customers in 1957 with 1.7 miles of mains and pumped 1.2 million gallons.

This compares to 1,266 customers in 1964 with 31.3 miles of mains and a total of 147 million gallons.

In 1959, a forecast was made which indicated 1,150 customers and total gallonage of 107 million by the end of the third year and with an anticipated 1,450 customers and sales of 136 million gallons at the end of the fourth year.

The comparison figures:

Year	Customers	Miles of Mains	Pumpage Million Gals.
1957	30	1.7	1.2
1958	107	2.5	8.63
1959	247	3.3	20.90
1960	258	3.6	29.54
1961	391	22.1	61.75
1962	539	25.0	84.34
1963	829	28.9	109.32

Legionnaires Will Host Boy Scouts

Sidney Strong, field commissioner for the Boy Scouts and the first Scouter in this area to receive the coveted Silver Beaver for outstanding contributions to the movement, will be the principal speaker Saturday when Passage-Gayde American Legion Post hosts Boy Scouts and leaders from the Plymouth community.

The program is a continuation of the "What Are We?" series sponsored by the Legionnaires.

Strong, known as "Mr. Plymouth" because of his years of work in the community as a civic, service and city government leader, has been active in Scouting since 1915.

He served as a Scoutmaster from 1922 to 1936 when he became District Commissioner. In 1939 he was appointed a Field Commissioner and still holds that post.

He is a merit badge counselor, member of the Detroit area council executive committee and the special council camping committee.

Speaking for the Legion will be Past Department Commander Oscar Hammond of Northville. He was the first committeeman from the 17th district in 1951 and served as State Vice Commander before being elected Commander in 1963-64.

The Plymouth Rotary Club will be guests of the Legionnaires for the February "Why Are We?" program.

Ronan Is Named Head of Zellerbach Central Region

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—J. F. Ronan has been appointed general manager of the central region of Crown Zellerbach Corporation's Gaylord Container Division.

BULLETINS FROM BENTLEY

by Sue Dowell and Marcia Wilson

The evening of January 30 will be a very eventful one for the juniors of Bentley. This day has been set aside for their annual Junior Prom. The theme this year is "Moonlight And Roses" and the decorations will be set up to show a vivid and colorful arrangement. An enormous crystal ball that throws off colored lights will adorn the gym. Gaily colored roses spread around will also be added to make the evening unforgettable.

"We expect this to be the best Junior Prom ever held," says Bob Mundy, president of the Junior Class. He along with the chairmen of the dance, Judy Shoenburg and Diane Matthews have been working to make the prom a big success. The sponsor of the dance is Mrs. DeGeorgio.

Jack Gerard and his five-piece band will supply the musical entertainment. Refreshments of punch and cookies will be available for everyone to enjoy.

Tickets went on sale January 18 and are priced at $3. The Junior Prom will last from 9 p.m. to 12 and all who come are usually dressed in semi-formal apparel.

Everybody feels good when they do something for those who need help. During this week of January 18 students of Bentley are conducting a Peanut Drive for the March of Dimes. Certain students have been occupying their time by collecting money during their lunch hour and handing out bags of peanuts as a thank you for the contribution.

On Saturday, January 23 Bentley and Franklin students will collect donations and give out peanuts at Wonderland Shopping Center. They will also give people who shop around the Inkster and Schoolcraft area a chance to give to the March of Dimes. So if you like peanuts and have to go shopping, why not kill two birds with one stone and shop at Wonderland, and get yourself some peanuts by donating to the March of Dimes.

Georganne McFall and Kathy Fortman are chairmen of the drive. They hope, as Bentley students do, that the Peanut Drive will help unfortunate children to be cured of their sickness.

Bentley's concert choir has been really on the move lately. Recently they have recorded their record, which will go on sale in the near future. The record will be available in stereo and monaural. Some of the songs on the record which have been sung in the fall and winter are King of Kings, Carol of the Drums, Do You Hear What I Hear, and The Road Not Taken.

The concert choir has also been on the radio. They appeared on WERB for one hour and were accompanied by the Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra, during the grand finale.

If it is possible the concert choir would like to go on tour down south. They would like to visit Nashville, Tennessee. If this trip is at all possible, around fifty students will be going on tour. The concert choir will tour Michigan if the trip to the South has to be forgotten.

Bentley has added a new club to all of its many ones, and the new entry is a Folk Singing Club. To join the folk singing club you need no talent, and the will to sing. Between 50 and 60 students take time every Tuesday in room 212 to learn and sing various folk songs. As of now there has not been an election of officers but Deanne Dumas and Susan Eggers have been responsible for getting the club started. The purpose of the folksinging going on around Bentley is to have a very casual club where there are no penalties for not coming to meetings but a welcome invitation for anyone who feels like singing. Not only do students sing but they discuss and bring out the meaning of the songs they sing. Boys who play the guitar are Pete Bengal, John Moore, Jeff Souleien, and Sandy Rice. The two boys who occupy their time playing the banjo are Paul Ryder and Ed Kuusinen.

Bentley's library has been operating smoothly. Students have asked Mr. Pate if it were at all possible to have the library open at night. The matter was looked into and a poll was taken to see how many students were in favor of this new proposal. It turned out that 60% of the students would like to have the library usable at night. If Mr. Pate can get the library for us at night, simple but strict rules will be enforced. A student who enters the library must show his or her identification card. No one who enters the library may leave unless they plan to go home. Once a student leaves the library for any reason no readmittance will be allowed. Any disorderly conduct will result in a suspension from the library for a certain amount of time.

An exchange day with Ladywood will be held in the near future. For those who are not acquainted with the term exchange day, it is a day set aside for about seven or eight students from Bentley to visit one school, while students from that school visit Bentley. On this upcoming occasion the exchange day with Ladywood will be to see how an all-girl school compares to a coed school.

During the school year other schools will carry on an exchange day with Bentley to compare the likes and differences between the schools.

Bentley students have received a thank-you letter from Mr. Wolfe, president of the Goodfellows, in regard to the well-done job that students from Bentley did in this year's canned food drive. The students are proud of the 12,927 cans they donated to the less fortunate people of Livonia.

In correcting the mistakes made in last week's paper I would like to say that final exams will be on January 25, 26, and 27. The senior faculty game will be held on January 27.

On Monday, Jan. 11, the photographers were at Redford Union taking pictures of clubs, athletic groups, and other extracurricular activities for the school annual, Blue and Gold. The Blue and Gold staff has been working hard on the yearbook for the past few months hoping to put out their best yearbook ever.

The staff consists of Florence Gale, Editor-in-Chief; Tom Szymke, Advertisements; Sandy Williams, Business Manager; Judy Littleton, Activities; Peggy Neal, Seniors; Lorna Brunet, Faculty and Underclassmen; Bethann Cox (senior); Sharon Mashigan, Kathy McCallum, and Cindy Woodward (juniors). The sponsor is Mrs. Grill.

January 8 found the R. U.'s negative debate team victorious over Thurston.

Parents followed the classes of their son or daughter on January 12. P.T.A. Open House was held for the parents of sophomore students. Coffee, tea, and cookies were served to the parents after the classes were over. Student Council members acted as guides for the parents.

Pom poms are being sold during lunch hours for 15 cents each by members of the Pep Club. The sale will last through out basketball season.

Congratulations to the five students who made the All "A" honor roll. They are M. McLean, S. McKevely, B. Nordstrom, A. Southart, and C. William.

Senior that made the "B" honor roll are P. Bergamo, B. Carr, L. Chapple, B. Cox, S. Crane, R. Derderian, S. Diskin,

TALKING ABOUT THURSTON

By Joanne Van Wye

"Let's try this part again" is Miss Jackson's comment to the cast as the rehearsals for the Senior Play get under way. To be featured in a "typical American situation," 13 boys and six girls were chosen for the cast of the Senior Play, "Take Her, She's Mine." The play is a two-act comedy about the adventures of a girl who is sent to the East to attend an all-girl school. When she comes home for a visit, her parents are shocked at the changes in her and find some of them quite hard to accept. Her adventures at college are sure to bring a lot of laughs.

The lead role of Molly will be played by Karen Letkeman. This will be Karen's first experience on a Thurston stage. Karen has been the class recording secretary for the past three years and this year she was a princess in the Homecoming Court. Everyone is anxious to see Karen in her debut on Feb. 11, 12, and 13. Other members of the cast include: principal, Tom Miller; Frank, Jim Aubrey; Ann, Connie Ward; Liz, Jackie Pinch; airline clerk, Bill Kolomjac; Adele, Joan Kitzmiller; Sarah, Sandra Blanchard; Don, Bud Safford; first freshman, Jose (Thurston's exchange student from Brazil); second freshman, Gary Mutch; Richard Gluck, Mark Walters; Alfred Greffinger, Al Jones; Alex, Don Bone; Mr. Whitmeyer, Alan Hanselman; Linda, Lynn Clancy; Clancy, Dave Spikes; Prof. Heibets, Howard Kesner; Emmet, Ron Borean, Junior Jim Parker, is the student director. Some of the members of the cast are old timers on Thurston's stage. While many others like Karen, will be making their debut when the curtains go up for the premier of "Take Her, She's Mine" on Feb. 11.

For a time it looked like the end of Thurston's Varsity Club because of the lack of a sponsor, but then all of Thurston's athletic coaches got together and decided they would sponsor the club. The club's officers are Rich Stefani, Pete Marsalese, and Gary Mutch. All boys with a varsity letter are eligible to join by going through the initiations. The boys meet during the lunch hour. They have decided to order Thurston jerseys for the members to work out in and "loaf" around in.

Thurston's chess team is composed of five hard working boys. These boys are Ed Schoaps, Richard Staff, Larry Mead, Lou Perrish and Scott Metzger. Mr. Thomson heads the team. The boys play in a league with 12 other schools and right now they are in fourth place. The other schools in the league include U. of D., Redford, Fordson, Cody, Farmington, Henry Ford, Madison Heights, Cooley, Hazel Park, Royal Oak, Dunder and Garden City. Larry Mead is leading in individual team points.

The French Club celebrated the "Fete des rois" or holiday of kings last Friday. All of the members brought a 25¢ gift. For refreshments cupcakes were served. Whoever got the cupcake with a nut in it got the little gifts. This person then drew the name of another classmate who she had to share the gifts with. The two lucky people were Cindy Stice and Ruth Ann Albus. In the near future the club is planning to have a splash party and a sleigh ride.

Last Thursday a group of girls from Thurston proved that boys aren't the only ones that can win athletic recognition. These girls were invited to participate in a volleyball tournament at Redford Union with three other schools. They won seven out of nine games and beat Redford Union girls in the semi-finals. Congratulations go to Kathy Durand, Janis Berber, Paulette Sostak, Laura Granger, Liz Zivonqv, Jennifer Johns, Joan Koepel, Eileen Juszyk and Barb Clark.

Juniors on the "B" honor roll are B. Anderson, K. Austin, R. Bauer, V. Bohler, N. Bozek, J. Brown, T. Brown, C. Butterworth, K. Cheesebro, G. Curran, K. DeGuara, R. Garlit, L. Gauthier, D. Gordon, J. Gordon, A. Gray, S. Hazen, R. Hartman, I. Holden, N. Jones, J. Junke, J. Karl, J. Katapol, G. Kelly, L. Kinney, M. Locks, G. Lukos, D. Mach, M. Manini, A. Maul, J. McAlpine, T. McLain, C. McWain, T. Millman, P. Novitsky, D. O'Day, C. Palmer, J. Pennington, J. Pike, M. Raymo, and A. Schelling.

Sophomores are L. Aldrich, T. Anthony, B. Baxter, P. Bezaire, L. Bluhm, P. Bracken, C. Calora, P. Clancy, B. Cooney, K. Davis, G. Downer, D. Druding, U. Eland, P. Hennes, G. Heseltine, M. Jaffray, C. Jeter, J. Johnson, S. Kippas, C. Kroon, M. Lindman, B. Livorine, E. Madzia, J. Makolin, J. McClure, D. Miller, L. Nelson, E. Neilson, L. Owen, M. Parr, M. Paull, J. Payne, R. Pearce, J. Popescu, J. Robison, L. Rolston, G. Rowe, K. Sattavara, E. Scheunski, D. Smith, L. Smith, P. Span, D. Stalo, M. Strow, L. Summers, J. Thinel, J. Thompson, A. Westerland, and R. Whitbeck.

The guidance office at PHS has announced a new plan that will be put into effect regarding class scheduling.

Beginning with the class of '66 all class schedules will be programmed through the use of an IBM computer. The ninth, 10th and 11th graders will have their counseling periods in groups of 10 and each one will be given a list of available classes. After the students have selected their courses for the next year, they will be entered on an IBM card.

Then in August, after all the cards are completed, head counselor, John Hoben will take the cards to the IBM center in Cleveland, O. There, in 17 seconds, the tedious job of class scheduling will be completed.

The need for such a method came from the rapidly increasing number of students at PHS. The new system will reduce the amount of clerical help needed in the guidance office.

JUNIOR PARENT Conferences took place January 13-18. At these conferences, the parents met in groups of 30 or 40 and discussed with the counselors, over coffee, any questions or problems they had.

Underclassmen counseling will begin on February 1 and continue through March 1. Each student will meet to set up a class schedule for next year and discuss any problems.

THE PLYMOUTH High Chapter of Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists, is in the process of selecting new members. They must be juniors or seniors who meet the requirements set by the Pilgrim Prints and the Plythean staff. Some of the requirements are: you must have a B average, have done outstanding work on one of the school publications, and be recommended by the advisor of one of the publications.

New members are inaugurated at a special evening meeting held in the spring. Each member will receive a gold pin and a subscription to the national Quill and Scroll magazine.

Pep Club members will act as hosts and hostesses at the teen center, "The Chip", on February 13, for the Valentine's Dance. Recently the Teen Center acquired a new pool table, shuffle board set and dart boards.

MOST STUDENTS at PHS will probably be doing some cramming over the weekend as exams will be given next week.

On Wednesday, January 27, the afternoon for the first three periods will be given in the morning. The afternoon will be free.

Then on Thursday morning, January 28, the afternoon period exams will be given and the students will have Thursday afternoon and Friday off.

A NEW TEACHER, Mrs. Ethylene Hazelwood, has been added to the faculty at PHS. She is replacing Miss Gleason in the business administration department.

Mrs. Hazelwood attended Eastern Michigan University and the University of Michigan and was graduated with a bachelor of science degree in business education. She is a resident of Ann Arbor.

Franklin Pupils At Co-op Session

For the first time, Franklin High School delegates have participated in state-level meetings of the Michigan Co-op Congress.

Representing the local school in the Co-operative Clubs of Michigan Delegate Congress at Battle Creek last Thursday and Friday, January 15 and 16, were Senior Cheryl Sowders and Junior Vicki Phipps. They were accompanied by Mr. Terry Inford, a Franklin Business Education instructor and co-sponsor of the Franklin Co-op Club. This group comprises 45 volunteer members from among the 100 students currently enrolled in the school's Co-operative Occupational Training Program.

Convention meetings, which took place at the M.E.A. Camp at St. Mary's Lake, concerned such topics as employer-employee relationships, problems of working with the public, and possibilities for effective local club activities. An election of officers for the state organization featured Friday evening's program. Politics was followed by dancing and skating on St. Mary's Lake.

Mr. David R. McKay, co-sponsor of the Franklin group, joined the rest of the Franklin delegation for Friday evening and Saturday meetings.

Go To Hi Y Meeting

About 1,500 high school students, from across the country, will meet at St. Olaf College, in Minnesota, in early July, for the National Assembly of the Hi Y. It will last a week. A limited number of students will be taken from Michigan.

OBSERVER SPEAKS UP

Censorship Dynamite

F. Alden Shaw, former Head Master of Detroit Country Day School, was in Farmington on Jan. 6, to participate in the first meeting of that city's Community Forum. Dr. Shaw is a distinguished educator, an old-school gentleman of unquestioned goodwill. But The Observer must take exception to his defense of censorship.

The practice of censorship has an unhappy history. There have always seemed to be good reasons for it. But all too often, it has proved an instrument of irresponsible repression and vigilantism.

It is strong and unreliable medicine, and should be taken only in the most extreme cases.

Shaw's specific concern is with the "harmful effects" of the "increasing" distribution of pornographic literature.

He may well be right that this type of writing is on the increase. Unquestionably, pornographic literature is undesirable for our children. But there are those in our society who regard Shakespeare's works as pornographic. And once we have set the machinery of censorship, who is to decide whom the censors will be.

Erwin Ellman, of the American Civil Liberties Union, who debated Dr. Shaw, made the point that there is a price to pay for freedom. Democracy is a dangerous form of government.

The danger may come in the form of switch blades in our streets. It may come in the form of hate mongering on our air waves. Yes, and it may come in the form of pornography on our book shelves.

Just how great is the harmfulness of pornography? Psychologist Thomas Hughes, also speaking at the Farmington Community Forum, said there is no established correlation between pornography and anti-social behavior.

This is precisely the position the famous conservative philosopher Prof. Sidney Hook took in the New York Times Book Review recently. And Prof. David Wineman of Wayne State University's Dept. of Social Work said the same thing to the Farmington Ministerial Association recently.

None of these learned men emphatically denies that pornography is bad for young people. They simply say that they don't know whether it is or not.

But the harmfulness of censorship was established centuries ago.

As a solution to this dilemma, the Observer suggests that the parents of our community take a far greater interest in the intellectual development of their children, and try to guide it into wholesome directions.

THE BEST OF PAUL CHANDLER

Lowering The Legal Age

(Editor's Note: A bill which would grant 18-year-olds the right to vote was re-introduced in the Michigan State Legislature last week. It was just a year ago that State Representative Paul Chandler and Harry DeMaso originated such a bill in the State House. A project close to Paul Chandler's heart, the lowering of the age limit for legal responsibilities was discussed in his "Facts and Opinions" column of Jan. 30, 1963.)

In the course of pursuing the duties and privileges of a State Representative, we introduced a bill last weekend for the consideration of the chamber and the public at large, which would require youths to attain the age of 18 before receiving a solo automobile driver's license. (It's 16 today.)

The proposal has strong arguments within its own merits, but there was something additional in mind.

Facts and Opinions contends that the much-publicized teen-agers in our midst deserve consistency and intellectual honesty from their adults . . . and the same from all laws which rest on the Michigan books.

They don't get it today. For purposes of the law, a teen-ager today cannot smoke or drink until he is 21. He is not regarded as qualified to exercise his vote until he is 21.

He can drive a car when he is 16. Or be married when he is 16 (for girls) or 18.

And it has been ruled entirely reasonable that he shall offer his services (and his life, if need be) to the armed forces when he is 18. Nor is it the same from State to State, within the same nation. In some states (and the youngsters know it, and talk about it), it is entirely legal to drink at 18.

In the two youngest States in the Union, Alaska and Hawaii, they could vote at 19 and 20. In two others, down south, they could vote at 18. Few states indulge in the pretense of a "no smoking" law. It's an ancient Michigan statute and is the laughing stock of students, teachers and parents alike. Thousands of our local youngsters smoke before they are 21 and are in "violation" of a law with every puff. Enforcement is impossible as a practical matter.

Out of all this we believe, could come a logical pattern. To convince our teen-agers that their adults are fair, consistent and honest, there should be a standardized age where "maturity" begins. Eighteen years is a justifiable plateau.

At 18 should come the privileges of maturity, along with the responsibilities — and the latter are many, we hasten to assure the young ladies and gentlemen.

One of the most compelling arguments for the higher driver age is that when 16 or 17 year olds are arrested, they go into Juvenile Court. Not until they are 18 are they processed in adult courts.

The change in the age of a driver's license would be a first step toward standardizing at 18. Lowering of the voting age and the drinking age and elimination of the smoking law all will receive attention here later.

As to the specific of not driving until 18— Our proposal in Lansing would still permit teenagers to drive at a younger age, if an adult or guardian is in the car. There would be no change in the high school driver training program.

Upon attaining the 18th birthday, the license would permit going out alone, without adults in the car.

Some 65 percent of all juvenile arrests today in this area involve the automobile in one way or another. Car thefts, car stripping, speeding, rowdiness at Drive-Ins, gang fights, collisions — all come from operation of the automobile. There have been violent fatal accidents in recent months.

None are necessary. Cars are prohibited at the University of Michigan, for instance, where the students are 18 to 22, but are allowed throughout the metropolitan suburbs, for 16 and 17 year olds.

Much of the pressure for a change in the law has come from parents who are torn by the agony of worry at night, yet don't know how (or prefer not) to resist the pressures put on them by their youngsters and teen society. A State law would provide a basis for the parents denying the request for a car, or use thereof, until their sons and daughters were 18 and, older and wiser.

We regard it as a badly-needed law change within itself—but, to return to the original thesis—it should be only a part of setting the general age of "maturity" at 18, being consistent about it, and letting our youngsters know we're fair and honest with them.

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

Like a boyfriend meeting the family for the first time, candidates when campaigning for public office are on their best behavior.

Their ideas are crisp as their shirts. "Yes," they are for better education, tax relief for senior citizens, mental health. "No," they are against higher taxes, deficit spending. How do they vote? And those brochures — pearly-tooth, shiny kids; sweet-smiling wife; happy doggie — complete with many promises for a happy new world.

Once the candidate is elected, the brochures have long since lain in the trash, the majority of voters forget about him, the way he votes on issues and how he carries out his campaign ideas and dreams.

Not so with the newspapers. It is our business to watch and record the elected official's action, reaction, or lack of same, all the dreary year long.

This is why Paul felt the newspaper, based on the day to day observance of the performance of the elected official, should play a strong part in recommending qualified candidates to the public — who only read the campaign material (often written by a committee) and see a polished version. Many a Mr. Hyde campaign, only to be a Dr. Jekyll once elected. Very few candidates running for an office, even for the first time, are unknown to the fourth estate.

Course, I'll grant you, there are differences among news media. Some use every release that crosses the desk without even removing their feet from same — but there are others that are on the move and have eyes and ears at every meeting, every week — and there is another breed of cats that just pick up their competitors' paper, rewrite it slightly and save themselves a staff.

This writer's interest in the State Legislature is particularly keen this year. Having heard all of the campaign speeches at least three times, the performance and recorded vote shall be noted and reported in both the House and the Senate from representatives serving Plymouth, Livonia, Redford Township and Farmington. Personally I can't see why it shouldn't be a good year for the voters. I think Governor Romney and the lawmakers are beautifully bound together by an amazing set of circumstances.

For one thing we have really a comparatively conservative group of new Democrats in the legislature — serving with a liberal Republican Governor. It has been reversed since 1938.

For this reason, although the Dems have cried fiscal reform for these many years as the minority party, I doubt if they are so inclined now. Gov. Romney had his neck nicked, not only by some in his own party, but by Democrats who wouldn't do anything to make him look good, even if it meant the tax reform they worked for all those years, therefore he probably won't push it until he is sure of solid support.

Of course most of the anti-Romney Republicans have either been goldwatered or reapportioned out of office — and with the Dems as the new majority party, working to prove their statesmanship (to be re-elected) — it should be a productive year.

Statesmanship won't be too difficult in the Senate because the majority leader, Ray Dzendzel, is a statesman — more so all the time.

But in the House, the majority leader Joe Kowalski is a politician in the morning, in the afternoon, at lunch and on the floor. He is a scrapper just for the love of it; he has a sharp wit and a tongue to match.

You won't see gentlemanly, mild-mannered Republican from Farmington, Ray Baker, go to the mat with him.

John Bennett, (D) from Redford Township, is of course a freshman. Majority leader Kowalski would chew him up before breakfast.

And then there is James Tierney, representing Plymouth — of course his having been shot as the Mayor of Garden City will be good training for him when the fireworks begin in the House this year. Marvin Stempien from Livonia couldn't possibly get the stars out of his eyes in time to get into the fray in the first session.

I expect to see the suburbanites caught in the middle of a crossfire between the U. P. legislators and the city men. It is the first time people have been counted instead of cows — and the city legislators have been waiting a long time to have the numbers on their side so that they could put through legislation that would benefit factory people and the aged.

There are approximately 2500 bills being prepared by the Legislative Service Bureau.

I have asked that the ones Paul submitted be sent to me; so that I can give them to the man who wins his seat for consideration.

Paul put so many hours of research into them that I have a strong desire to keep them alive — particularly those having to do with education.

The Education Committee was tops on Paul's priority list. I was glad to see one of the representatives from these communities make it — Marvin Stempien is on this committee. He will be serving on the Judiciary Committee along with Ray Baker — who used to chair it when the Republicans were the majority party. John Bennett will be able to use his experience as Township Treasurer on the general taxation committee to which he was appointed.

We'll keep in touch.

Retired Couple Protests

Editor: On Jan. 8 we received a bulletin from Clarenceville Public Schools. We live in Livonia, but pay taxes for schools out of our $125 per month social security check, to put on dinners every 2331 individual meals! Who are these served to? Not us taxpayers who can't even afford a turkey when the taxes come in December.

The article in the Clarenceville newsletter describes the amounts of food required as 52 turkeys, 450 pounds of potatoes, 195 dozen rolls, 84 pounds of butter, 390 pumpkin pies and 400 half-pints of milk. And who but those receiving good salaries eat all of this, while we who even get more taxes saddled on again this past month don't?

It's too bad so many selfish people today think nothing about others who foot their bills and they are always crying for more pay. If they would only stop to think what real hardships it costs those who have so little coming in to live on, pay taxes, gas, light and other expenses with no discounts or free meals, maybe they would choke on food served in these cafeterias, cut out this annual meal expense, and stop asking for more and more money. Not one of them needs food like that. Folks that have no children have to pay for it too. Why are meals served in schools? Most children carry their lunches anyway.

Why can't we be in the Livonia School District, where charity begins at home? Maybe then we could have turkey.

Voices from Home

Editor: Now that the Christmas rush of Voices from Home recordings is over and we are into the new year may I take this opportunity to thank you for all of the publicity your newspaper gave us to help make the 1964 program a success.

As you may, or may not, know this is a year round project and we invite families of servicemen and the Peace Corps to make a recording for a birthday, religious holiday, such as Easter, or a wedding anniversary. We shall start our Easter recordings in March during the Lenten season here at the Detroit Chapter and Regional Offices.

This year we invited the Foreign High School Exchange students and the 1,000 Foreign College students in the Detroit area to come in and make a record for their families, sort of a reverse switch, and we are

PICTURE TALK

NIFTY . . . AND A BARGAIN

We got to thinking recently about all the different cameras we carry in stock and which one of them represents the best all-around bargain for the person who just wants to take snapshots of things he enjoys, yet are good enough so that he needn't be ashamed of admitting that he took them. . . well-framed, sharp, correctly exposed. One camera that stands out from all the rest is the new KODAK INSTAMATIC 150 that sells for less than $30.00.

In addition to all the regular features of INSTAMATIC Cameras (instant loading with KODAK Cartridges, built-in pop-up flash holder, to name just two) this one includes the same automatic film advance found on a much more expensive INSTAMATIC Camera model.

With one winding the powerful spring motor advances all the film in a cartridge, shot by shot. You can shoot a dozen pictures in a dozen seconds, if you wish. Great for catching children off guard to capture those elusive pictures you prize so highly. What contributes to making this a bargain is the fact that the price includes a handsome carrying case, when you buy the complete outfit (camera, film, bulbs, batteries and "how to" booklet). In fact, this is the only outfit I can think of that does include a carrying case at no extra cost. It'll be glad to demonstrate this attractive camera outfit value any time.

Botsford General, 202-Room New Hospital, Dedicated in Farmington

Mrs. George Romney Speaks At Dedication

By Jerry Wendt

Twenty years ago Dr. Allen Zieger, operating a 20 bed hospital dreamed of a brand-new perfectly equipped hospital, which would set a high standard of service for the community in which it was built.

Saturday, Jan. 16, that dream came true for Dr. Zieger when the first lady of Michigan, Mrs. George Romney, dedicated the new Botsford General (Osteopathic) Hospital in Farmington Township. Botsford General contains 202 rooms and is staffed with 139 physicians and 170 employees.

Everything transpired to make the dedication day a memorable one. The weather was crisp and clear, the Board of Directors (wearing white carnations) performed the duties of host smoothly and the program went off without a flaw.

Mrs. Romney arrived, looking like a flower in her wisteria-pink knit suit, flecked with royal blue, and was ushered into Dr. Zieger's private office where a group had gathered to welcome her. Mr. and Mrs. Delos Hamlin (Chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, and Board member of Botsford General), former Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner and Mrs. Van Wagoner, Mr. Ronald C. Seeley (Board of Directors), Mr.

Seymour Cantor (Hospital Administrator) and Dr. Zieger and Mrs. Zieger (Dr. Eurline Cole in private life) were part of the group. Dr. Zieger's office, furnished in the same striking modern decor which prevails throughout the hospital, has a glass wall which looks out upon an enclosed courtyard containing gardens and sculptures. His coffee table is an authentic conversation piece.

MRS. GEORGE ROMNEY was delighted with the gift of a Steuben glass elephant paperweight she received for her part in the dedication ceremony of Botsford Hospital in Farmington on Saturday.

A model of the hospital and grounds has been enclosed in a glass coffee table frame.

A corsage of American beauty roses was presented to Mrs. Romney and the other women in the party, and then the group proceeded to the sunlit lobby where baskets of flowers surrounded the area where the program was to be presented.

Flanked by cameras, and spotlights, Delos Hamlin was the first to speak. He welcomed the guests and introduced Dr. Robert M. Frehse, executive director of the Detroit Round Table of Catholics, Jews and Protestants.

Dr. Frehse performed the invocation. Jacques Cousin, Former Executive Director Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council, now Executive Associate, United Foundations, introduced the speaker for the day. He presented Mrs. George Romney, saying, "Here is one of the most attractive and respected women in America today."

She is also a completely vital human being. Never once referring to her written notes, she keeps her audience hanging on her words by her keen interest in her surroundings and in the company. She paid tribute to the beauty of the hospital by saying, "It cost no more to have good taste". She said this quote was the first thing that came into her mind when she stepped through the door.

Her pertinent speech dealt with the fact that besides power and security, a community must have character. This is nowhere more clearly expressed than in the attitude of the community toward the welfare of the ill. One certainly cannot enjoy the abundant life without good health. A hospital should do more than alleviate pain, it should put purpose and strength into a patient's recovery. She then paid tribute to Dr. Zieger by saying, "Although we have been accused of being a 'cut flower civilization,' without ideals or roots, when we see a dream of community service come into existence as this hospital, we know we are still a nation of idealists."

Members of the benefit committee of the Plymouth Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Isabel Bates, of Betty Hill Drive, to work on gifts and plans for the annual program staged by new members.

The group has planned a luncheon-bridge, fashion show at the Elks Club, on Ann Arbor Road, on Feb. 22 at noon. The Fashion show will be presented by Zubach's.

Chairman of the benefit committee is Mrs. Betty McCully and the Woman's Club advisor is Mrs. Dorothy Becker.

Other members of the committee are: Mrs. Bates, Mrs. Mary Ellen Kenyon, Mrs. Thelma Heim, Mrs. Bonnie Coons, Mrs. Jo Illy, Mrs. Virginia Duke, Mrs. Jane Olen and Mrs. Doris White.

Tickets for the benefit may be obtained by calling Ticket Chairman Mrs. Olen at 453-8782 or Mrs. Kenyon at 453-2411.

Project Hope Explained to Kappa Deltas

Kappa Deltas of the Northwest Suburban Alumnae group heard about Project Hope at their meeting Jan. 18. The monthly program was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Proehl, 17405 Peshing, Livonia. Assisting the hostess was club president, Mrs. Donald Greenbury.

Guest speaker was Dr. Kaufman, who has served on the famous hospital. He told about the concept of Project Hope and explained about the work the hospital does with the aid of a movie.

The next meeting of the Kappa Deltas' will be Feb. 15. For more information call Mrs. Donald Greenbury, 476-5655 or Mrs. John Dawe, 422-2244.

French-Oja Wedding Dec. 29 in California

Mr. & Mrs. Richard Oja

Jolene Rene French and Richard Wayne Oja were united in a double ring ceremony Dec. 29 at St. John's Lutheran Church in El Segundo, California.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Philip Gehlar and step-daughter of the Rev. Philip Gehlar, who performed the ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lempi Oja of Livonia.

The new Mrs. Oja wore a gown of white lucia velvet fashioned with an empire bodice, accented with muted crystal and pearl embroidery with embroidery repeated on the puffed sleeves. A removable aisle-width train highlighted the floor-length princess A-line skirt. Her eight-tier elbow length veil was of imported lace. She carried a bouquet of red poinsettias with pine.

Alarice Simpson, a cousin of the bride from Kansas City, Missouri, served as Maid of Honor while Esther Schroeder of Inglewood, Calif. was the attendant. The flower girl was the bride's sister Amy Rene Gehlar.

Len Bobier served as best man while Duane Deckert and LeRoy Engel seated the guests.

Both the bride-groom and his best man are 1952 graduates of Bentley High School. Mr. Oja is a graduate of Michigan State University and is currently employed by Parker Aircraft Co. in Los Angeles as a contract administrator.

Following a honeymoon in Hawaii the newlyweds will reside in El Segundo, California.

C.A.R. Talk

22.6 Million Tourists Traveled by Car to Vacation in States

LANSING — The State Highway Department has estimated that 22.6 million tourists traveling by automobile took vacation trips in Michigan in 1964.

The estimate is part of a study of tourists using Highway Department Travel Information Centers, plus interviews with tourists at selected highway locations.

The study indicates that Michigan is already into the $900 million annual tourist spending bracket on the basis of automobile traveling tourist spending alone.

The estimate does not take into account the expenditures of tourists who enter or move about the State by airplane, bus or train transportation.

The report shows that the Travel Information Centers operated by the Highway Department served more than 365,000 tourists in 1964, up 33 per cent over 1963. Approximately two million pieces of tourist literature from public agencies and private businesses were distributed at the Travel Centers.

Permanent Centers are located at Ironwood, Menominee, Mackinaw City, Monroe and New Buffalo, and bids are being taken to construct Centers at Sault Ste. Marie, Port Huron and Clare. Temporary facilities were operated at the latter three locations during the tourist season.

The study also showed that: 1. Michigan is a great vacation state for children. About one-fifth of the tourists surveyed were children under 18 years of age, but in June, July and August, the percentage of children increases to one-third.

2. Michigan scenery is a major tourist attraction. The single most mentioned influence which caused the visitor to stay longer than he or she planned was "beautiful scenery," and "local attractions" and "friendliness of local people" were second and third.

3. Michigan attracts a significant number of tourists in the upper income bracket. A family income of more than $10,000 a year was reported by 33.5 per cent of the tourist parties using Travel Information Centers.

4. Tourists often come back again. Of the visitors from other states using Travel Information Centers, 66 per cent said they had vacationed in Michigan before.

The Highway Department has been working closely with the tourist research study underway at Central Michigan University.

The data from the department roadside interviews and the economic data reported by tourists themselves on questionnaires are being turned over to the University for further analysis as part of the Central Michigan University study.

The study of the tourists using the facilities confirms that Michigan is one of the nation's outstanding tourist states, that there is four-season tourist traffic and that the State is close to the $1 billion tourist spending mark.

More than 400,000 individual tourists are expected to be serviced at the Travel Information Centers in 1965.

Ultimate plans call for further expansion of Travel Information Centers along the major traffic corridors of the Ohio and Indiana borders.

Aliens Have Two Weeks to Register

The United States Immigration and Naturalization Service reminded all aliens in Michigan today that only two weeks remain in which non-citizens must file their annual address reports as required by law.

Mr. Sahli pointed out that address report forms are available at the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service office and at all Post Offices for the convenience of non-citizens required to report their addresses to the Government each January under a provision of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952.

District Director Walter A. Sahli said the only non-citizens not required to report their addresses are persons in diplomatic status, foreign representatives of certain international organizations, and persons admitted temporarily as agricultural laborers.

Mr. Sahli stated, "It is hoped that all persons subject to this law will go to the nearest Immigration and Naturalization Service office or Post Office and fill out an address report form before the January 31st deadline to avoid possible serious penalties."

The Immigration official said that approximately 50,000 aliens in Michigan filed reports during the first two weeks of the January reporting period, which is well above the same period for 1964.

The Farmington Branch of the American Association of University Women will welcome the public to its general meeting Wednesday, Jan. 20, 8:00 p.m., in the Cafeteria of the East Farmington Junior High School, 25500 Middlebelt.

William P. Malm, Associate Professor of Music Literature at the University of Michigan, will speak on "Japanese Music." He is the author of two books, "Japanese Music and Musical Instruments," 1959, and "Nagato: The Heart of Kabuki Music," 1962.

Professor Malm received the degree of Bachelor of Music in 1949, and Master of Music in 1950, both from Northwestern University. In 1959 he received a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of California, Los Angeles.

From 1955 to 1957, Professor Malm was a Ford Foundation Fellow in Tokyo, Japan, returning again for the academic year 1963-64 on a grant from the American Council of Learned Societies and the University of Michigan. Among other academic honors, Professor Malm has received the Monograph Prize in Humanities from the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 1960. He is a member of Pi Kappa Lambda, American Musicology Society, Society for Ethnomusicology, and Association for Asian Studies.

Mrs. David Mills, Program Chairman, will introduce the speaker. After the program and refreshments, a business meeting for members will be conducted by Mrs. T. F. Lapinski, President.

Serving on the committee for this meeting are Mrs. Martin Gluckstein, chairman, Mrs. Donald Nichols, Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. F. P. McCaskill, Miss Sylvia Marginean, Mrs. Edward Mahaney and Mrs. A. M. Leach. Hostesses will be Mrs. George Nahstoll and Mrs. David Mills.

Gail F. Findlay

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Findlay of Folkstone Court, Farmington, announce the engagement of their daughter, Gail, to Michael Don Anderson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Anderson of Kingsford, Michigan. An early Spring wedding is planned. The bride-to-be graduated from Farmington High School. She and her fiancé are presently enrolled in Western Michigan University. The groom-to-be is studying hospital administration.

Camp Fire Girls To Organize

Plans for the organization of a Camp Fire Girls group in Plymouth will be discussed in a meeting Monday, Jan. 25 in the library of Junior High West starting at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Jane Joslin and two directors of the Detroit Area Council will attend to tell of the purpose of goals of the Camp Fire Girls and to show movies of some of the activities.

There will be a Leaders Training Course on two mornings in February with baby-sitters provided for pre-schoolers.

Mothers interested in working with Camp Fire Girls but unable to attend the meeting are requested to call Mrs. William Touhey at 453-5115.

Mrs. Touhey emphasizes that there is a need for women to serve as leaders, co-leaders and for men as well as women act as sponsors and co-sponsors.

Farmington Methodist Women To Hear Mrs. W.J. Norris

The Woman's Society of Christian Service at First Methodist Church, Grand River Avenue at Warner Street, have scheduled their January General Meeting for Tuesday, Jan. 26. The 12 o'clock luncheon will be served by members of the Dorcas Circle. Advance reservations are important and should be made with Mrs. George Bar-rons, Chairman at GR 6-5191 or with Mrs. Meredith on Sunday morning.

Theme for the month is "A New Age Opens New Doors." Mrs. Harold Humble will conduct the devotions and Mrs. Richard Truitt is the soloist.

Following a brief business meeting the ladies will welcome Mrs. Wilton J. Norris, President of the Detroit District Woman's Society of Christian Service. In keeping with the theme for the month, she has chosen the topic, "A New Purpose for a New Age."

The Detroit District of the Methodist Church encompasses over 80 churches in Detroit and its immediate environs. Mrs. Norris comes from the neighboring community of Berkeley where she is a member of the First Methodist Church.

As the mother of two teenagers she has been active in her local church and in the Girl Scouts of Southern Oakland County. Among Methodist women she has the distinction of serving as Chairman of the Official Board of her local church — a position usually occupied by men.

The Nursery for pre-schoolers will be open as usual with an adult attendant in charge.

Ardetta Bissey

The engagement of Ardetta Bissey, daughter of Mrs. Leonard John Bissey and the late Mr. Bissey of Livonia, was announced by her mother to Harris Hastings Steiner during the Christmas holidays. Mr. Steiner is the son of Mrs. Rene Steiner and the late Mr. Steiner of Fresno, Calif.

Miss Bissey is a graduate of Bentley High School and received her B.A. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan. She is currently a teacher-counselor in San Diego, Calif.

Mr. Steiner is a graduate of University of California and is presently employed as a computer systems analyst with Logicon, Inc. Their wedding will be held in LaJolla, Calif., on Feb. 20.

Dr. Tom Dooley's Brother To Talk To Kendallwood

The monthly meeting of the Women of Kendallwood Farms will be called to order at 8 p.m. Tuesday evening, Jan. 26, by President Mrs. Ralph Harris in the social hall of St. Fabian's Church. The featured speaker for the evening will be author and lecturer, Malcolm W. Dooley, director of the Dr. Thomas A. Dooley Foundation. His topic will be "Dr. Tom Dooley — The Challenge and the Example." Due to the great interest in the speaker and his subject, a cordial invitation has been extended to the husbands of members to attend this meeting.

Malcolm Dooley is the younger brother of the man who became a legend in his time. Dr. Tom Dooley was "Thanh Mo America" to the sick and starving people in Laos and "The Splendid American" to all those who watched his battle to complete a mission of mercy before cancer took his life in 1961 when he was only 34 years old.

Demel Resigns

 "I want this matter thrashed out in an open meeting and that's why I'm pressing for a clarification of the Board's stand at this time."
 Lauterbach, who started the entire debate by questioning the January bill, was the first to enter the discussion.
 "I have a definite feeling that one or two minute phone calls to members of the Board at a cost of $10 are much too high," Lauterbach said.
 "We have received bills for legal research and it is my feeling that we should have detailed itemized statements of the work and research involved."

 Clerk McEwen backed Lauterbach's stand on telephone calls indicating "I feel the Board should have some idea of what the calls are and for what purpose."
 Supervisor Lindsay told the Trustees that he thought it was in the power of the Supervisor to call whenever he saw fit on Township business.
 "I don't intend to check every time a call is made. I don't think I should try to remember there are too much picayunish going on here," he stated.
 "If the Board wants to discharge the attorney, then members should come out in the open and take that action. This nipping and naffing should be halted now."
 "We paid Brashear and Brashear more than $1,000 on the Evans Product case without any questions. If Mr. Demel had presented the same bill, there would have been a lot of nipping."
 Lindsay told the Board that attorney fees are going to grow as the Township grows and the Trustees should recognize this. He added that things aren't the same now as they were in 1950.
 McEwen suggested that the Township turn some of the cases over to the constable for action, and pointed out that "if fees for legal services go as high as $10,000 to $12,000, then we should consider hiring a fulltime attorney just as is down in the county building."
 Commissioner Ralph Garber, who was chief assistant in the County Prosecutor's office for 27 years, indicated "I feel the charges of a $125 a day in court are high. The state only pays $100."
 Demel answered that all of his charges were well within the minimums suggested by the Michigan Bar Association.
 After considerable discussion pro and con, Lindsay called an executive session in his office to discuss the matter.
 The meeting took more than 45 minutes and apparently solved nothing.
 Demel was a bit grim when the Board assembled to adjourn within minutes. The next day he drove to the Township Hall and handed a letter to Lindsay — it contained his resignation.

Elks Club Celebrates New Addition

The grand opening celebration of the Plymouth Elks attracted capacity crowds Friday and Saturday as members officially dedicated the third addition to the club quarters in little more than 10 years.
 The $100,000 addition, designed by James St. Cyr and Associates of Livonia, made the Elks Club, located at 41700 Ann Arbor Rd., one of the largest in the area.
 It was just 15 years ago that a small dedicated group pooled their resources and did much of the construction themselves to erect the original 40-by-80-foot block building.

Since that time the Plymouth Lodge has grown to a membership of 1,288 and can be classified as one of the fastest growing fraternal organizations in the Michigan State Elks Association.
 Visitors from numerous area lodges and state officials were on hand for the grand opening. Exalted Ruler W. Arthur Roberts, of Livonia, heads the lodge.

 Airman 1/C William H. Clixby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Clixby, 2524 Canton Center Road, Plymouth, has been awarded the U.S. Air Force Air Medal at Lockbourne AFB, Ohio. Airman Clixby, an aircraft loadmaster, received the medal for meritorious achievement in aerial flight over Viet Nam.

GOP Delegates Plan Meeting in Plymouth

...the second of a series...
LINDY BERRY SAYS:

"Ghost Brand" appliances — a growing threat to the American consumer

Does the name of that television set, refrigerator, washer or other appliance you're buying identify a real manufacturer? Or is it just a "Ghost Brand," a name or private label conjured up by the store? Historically "Ghost Brands" have sometimes been used on products of doubtful value. But now some retailers are using them to destroy your freedom of choice when you buy to create selling monopolies... generally to give you less and less for your appliance dollar.

YOUR CHOICE VS. THE STORE'S CHOICE

For years the American consumer could go into almost any retail appliance outlet and select from a wide range of makes. Many appliance dealers still do business this simple, honest way. They offer a selection of trusted brands — and leave the final selection to you.

Today there is another kind of retail appliance outlet — the kind that severely limits your choice. These retail stores feature their own private brands to the virtual exclusion of everything else. You don't see the name of the manufacturer on the appliance they sell.

THE CONSUMER WINS WITH BRAND NAME COMPETITION

Brand name manufacturers compete with each other to give you the greatest possible value. Their engineers and research people are constantly developing new features, improving construction, thereby giving you more for your money. So when you see such trusted names as: General Electric, Westinghouse, Philco, Admiral, Zenith, Maytag, RCA-Victor, Magnavox, Tappan, Toastmaster, Frigidaire, Norge, Motorola, Hotpoint, Speed Queen, RCA Whirlpool, Sunbeam, Carrier, Amana, Kelvinator — to name a few — you can buy in full confidence. You know they are reliable, responsible manufacturers that are proud of their names and stand behind their products.

It's like buying an automobile, no matter what the advertised model name is — the brand name is on the car because they want the consumer to know where to go for service, and incidentally, they are proud of their product.

PUTTING A PREMIUM ON LOWER QUALITY

The "Ghost Brand" retailers say to the manufacturers: If you will supply your appliance to us at a cut price, we won't buy advertised brands from others and we will give you all of our business. This is hard to resist. The manufacturer cuts his price — but to do so, he may get the retailer's permission to cut quality too. Since there is nothing that can't be made a little worse and therefore cheaper, the "Ghost Brand" manufacturer is thereby tempted to sacrifice quality and eliminate features.

After all, these manufacturers aren't required to put their own names and brands on this "bargain" merchandise. But the "ghost stores" know that people won't buy completely unbranded merchandise. So what do these retailers do? They concoct their own brands. Pleasant sounding names are picked out of the air and the merchandise is given the retailer's private label — or "Ghost Brand."

THE END OF FREE CHOICE

When you deal with a store featuring private or "Ghost Brand," you have precious little choice — because usually the "Ghost Brand" is the only one offered. Take it or leave it!

There's nothing illegal about "Ghost Brands." There's no law to protect you from being taken in by a cut-price "bargain" that is not as good as a brand name. And we doubt very much if a law could be passed that would be effective. It's up to you — the American consumer — to protect yourself when you buy an appliance. Insist on merchandise that carries the name of the manufacturer, one whom you know and can trust. Refuse to accept a "Ghost Brand," even at a lower cost.

An appliance is only a bargain when you get the quality that makes it a VALUE.

Bentley Bids to Tie For First in League

A pileup—three teams—atop the Suburban Six League basketball standings is in the making this week.

As matters presently stand, Allen Park leads the pack with a 4-0 record. Then come Bentley and Trenton, tied at 3-1.

If Bentley can win at Allen Park Friday evening, while Trenton triumphs at Redford Union, the three-way deadlock will have developed for the king's throne.

Bentley should be ready for its big invasion of Allen Park and, perhaps, the most crucial game of the season for the Livonians in their bid to repeat as league champs.

A defeat at Allen Park virtually would kill off the Bentley chances of taking the top slot again.

Bentley struck back last Friday evening for a 71-65 verdict over arch-rival Redford Union.

A change in offensive patterns, plus some adept shooting from the free-throw line, pulled Bentley out in front for keeps against the Townshippers.

Redford Union had pulled ahead, 18-15, at the end of the first quarter and reached the halfway mark with a 36-33 lead, thanks to fine shooting by Mike McCrea.

ON STILTS? Al Maibach (55) of Redford Union gives the impression he's standing on somebody—maybe even Bentley's Fred Matevia (with ball). Maibach actually had leaped in hopes of beating Matevia to a rebound.

Showdown Near For Sorrows

Jot down the date of Friday, Feb. 5.

That'll be showdown night in the Northwest Division of the Catholic League.

Farmington's Our Lady of Sorrows and Orchard Lake St. Mary's are due for a head-on meeting that evening and the divisional title figures to ride on the outcome.

At the moment, St. Mary's stands on top with a 6-1 record while Sorrows has won seven and lost two.

Sorrows kicked away a golden opportunity to being sitting on top of the world when nipped by St. Mary's, 63-61, last Tuesday evening.

Anytime a team loses by so close a margin, it's heartbreaking. But this time, it was doubly heartbreaking for the Farmington team.

Maybe even triply heartbreaking.

Sorrows had fought St. Mary's right down to the wire. With 30 seconds left in the game, the brilliant Brian Benner of Sorrows knocked in a long shot to put his team in front, 61-60.

St. Mary's stormed back up court and tried a shot. It missed.

Sorrows rebounded and with time running out . . . some 20 seconds now . . . it looked like all the Farmington team had to do was stall.

But in the excitement, a St. Mary's player stole the ball away from the Sorrows team.

The result was an easy layup and now St. Mary's was in front, 62-61.

Sorrows still had a chance. But a last-moment shot went astray, a St. Mary's man rebounded and was quickly fouled.

The needless charity now was good and the gun went off a second later.

"It was sure a rough one to lose after we had played so well," declared Sorrows Coach Bob Morris.

Orchard Lake had led, 30-25, after one half and held a 44-43 edge after three periods. In the final period, Sorrows was never able to forge more than a two-point edge.

Brian Benner paced Sorrows with 11 baskets and five free throws for 27 points. Miles Kearney scored 14 points, Mike Bars 11, Tim Doyle six, and Mark Benner three.

Losses such as this one some-

MIKE BARS of Our Lady of Sorrows tipping in a basket against Orchard Lake St. Mary's. The Lakers won game to hang on to first place.

times affect a team the next time out. But not Sorrows.

Last Friday night the Farmington parish forces ran over Our Lady of the Lakes, 101-77, to set a new Sorrows record for points fashioned in one game.

Brian Benner also did some record-breaking, too. He bagged 15 baskets and 11 out of 11 free throws for 41, which also established a new Sorrows mark for an individual performer.

The game actually was no runaway for a half. Sorrows gained a 19-16 edge after one period and reached a half-time with only a 39-35 edge.

From then on, it was strictly one-sided. In the third period, Sorrows scored 29 to the Lakers' 19 points. In the fourth period, the totals were 33-23.

Kearney followed Brian Benner with nine baskets and one free throw for 19 points. Mark Benner had 16, Doyle 12, Mike Bars 11 and Bob Urbain two for the rampaging victors who were to meet St. Fredericks of Pontiac Tuesday and then collide with St. Agatha on Friday night.

The Sorrows reserves lost both to Orchard Lake St. Mary's and to Our Lady of the Lakes.

But in the third period, Bentley Coach George Fefles altered his offense. He went to more weaves in hopes it would spring a few more men open for easy jobs.

The hoped-for materialized. In addition, the Livonians hit better than most pro teams from the charity stripe with 25 out of 31 successes to Redford Union's 17 for 30.

Two free ones by Gary Faulks at 3:53 of the third period enabled Bentley to go ahead, 43-41, and the Livonians never trailed the rest of the way.

By the three-quarter mark it was 53-49 for Bentley, but Redford Union was by no means through.

Orval Newton led an RU comeback which brought RU to within a point (64-63) of Bentley with about two minutes left in the game.

However, a pair of free throws by Bill Swift and a basket by Nick Bonder quickly eased the pressure for Bentley and the Livonians went on to gain their ultimate victory by six points.

Fred Matevia and Faulks were the scoring heroes in the last half for Bentley. Matevia had 10 points in the third period while Faulks made seven free throws.

Newton caged five hoops in the second half to keep Redford Union in contention.

Bonder with 18 points and Matevia with 16 paced the Bentley attack. Newton had 19 for individual game honors.

Bentley's reserves had no trouble roaring to a 65-30 victory. Mike Formana notched three baskets and eight free throws for 14 points to top the winners. Greg Coleman was a close second with six baskets for 12 points.

R. Union Clobbers Franklin

The one-two punch of Al Maibach and Mike McCrea brought Redford Union high school basketball team a 68-58 win over Franklin in a non-leaguer Saturday night.

Maibach struck for 22 points and McCrea 21 as Redford Union took early command and never trailed by fewer than 10 points in the second half.

Eight of Maibach's points came in the first period when McCrea chimed in with six to shoot R. U. into a 19-11 edge. By halftime it was 42-29 for the Townshippers despite the fact Franklin had notched 14 out of 15 from the charity line before the intermission.

Sam Antonazzo ripped the cords for 18 points to top the losers.

In the reserve game, Franklin overpowered Redford Union, 62-37.

The varsity game box score:

Parkers Subdue Plymouth

Allen Park high's front-running basketball team in the Suburban Six League knew it was in a game against Plymouth in the Rock's gym last Friday night.

The Parkers had to fight right down to the last buzzer before gaining a 69-65 verdict over the Rocks.

Neither team was able to enjoy much of a command at any time as the score changed hands in the early going. Allen Park went ahead late in the second period and Plymouth continually pressed to within a couple points of the opposition.

Coach Charles Ketterer of Plymouth expressed high satisfaction with his team's showing, declaring:

"Our boys worked very hard."

With Jim Lake scoring 11 points, Plymouth pushed ahead, 23-20 at the end of the first period. John Hannula added five points and Dave Tidwell (Continued on Page 3-B)

Raiders Rip Groves Wrestlers

North Farmington high's wrestling team made it 2-0 in Northwest Suburban League action Friday night by routing Birmingham Groves, 34-14, after losing to Royal Oak Dundero, 22-19, in a non-leaguer.

The North Farmington record now stands at 5-1 for the season.

The North Farmington results vs. Dundero: 95 pounds—Rick Gunderlock lost.

102—Dennis Vartanian, lost on default after being injured.

112—Dan Vartanian, won on decision.

120—Mark Campbell, won on decision.

127—Greg Raymond, won on decision.

133—Lance Oak, lost on decision.

138—Terry Geha, lost on decision.

145—Terry Shabach, won on decision.

154—Ray Roberts, lost on decision.

165—Dick Allen, lost on decision.

175—Craig Wycinski, won on decision.

Heavyweight—Mike Coles, won on decision.

Gunderlock, Raymond, Oak, Roberts and Coles all scored pins in the meet against Groves. It marked the fourth time this season that Coles had pinned his foe. He gained two decisions in his other two meets.

Jim Dragon (103 pounds), Dan Vartanian and Sharbach fashioned North Farmington victories on decisions. Campbell, Geha, Allen and Wycinski suffered defeats.

Rocks Beat Farmington

Charities Decisive At Finish

Coach Charles Ketterer had to be proud of his Plymouth high basketball team Saturday night.

Down by 15 points after one quarter, the Rocks struck back to beat Farmington, 56-53 in an overtime, non-leaguer battle in the Farmington gym.

Paced by Mike Wilson, John Olander and Roy Leach, Farmington took its wide command in the first period as Plymouth was held to two baskets and one free throw.

Matters began to reverse themselves in the second period. The Rocks outscored Farmington, 15-8.

It was pretty much the same way in the third period. With Jim Lake pacing Plymouth, the Rocks moved in front, 41-37, after three quarters.

Farmington, however, fought back in the final period. Some eight seconds remained when Wilson sunk the shot that forced the action into an overtime.

In the extra period, Plymouth did all its scoring at the free throw line. Gary Grady made three charities and Lake two. The Farmington overtime production was restricted to just one hoop . . . by Wilson.

Lake finished with 14 points for the winners, while Grady had 13 and Dave Tidwell 11. Wilson with 15 paced the losers. Leach had 12 and Olander 11.

Farmington's reserves triumphed, 56-49, with Ames making 12 points and Klika and Wirtz 11 each. Joe Luibrand notched 12 for Plymouth.

LOSE TO LAKERS

Between a bad start and poor rebounding, Farmington high's basketball team proved an easy foe for Walled Lake last Friday night in the Interlakes Conference.

Farmington managed only six points on two baskets and two free throws in the first period and had to settle for just 12 points in the second period.

The slow beginning dropped Farmington eight points behind at half time and Walled Lake went on to score a 56-44 victory.

As for rebounding, Coach Jack Quigley's team managed only 11 for the entire game at both ends of the court.

Sophomore Greg Dorow tossed in 13 points on four baskets and five free throws to top Farmington. Roy Leach was next with five baskets and two charities for 12 points.

John Olander scored 10, Mike Wilson eight and Steve Moore one for the losers.

Transferred in A.F.

Douglas Dix, son of Harley T. Dix, of 18529 Westmore, Livonia, has completed his basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. Dix has been transferred to Sheppard Air Force Base, also in Texas. He is being given specialist training in aircraft maintenance.

College Swimmer Big Star

Dave Zabell, a former Bentley high star, covered himself with honors for Schoolcraft College's swimming team last Friday evening.

Zabell won three events against the Wayne University Junior Varsity, which emerged as the overall meet winner, 62-30.

Zabell sped to victories in the 100-yard free style, the 200-yard free style and the 500-yard free style races.

Bill Patterson accounted for the only other win for Schoolcraft, which this Saturday night will entertain Grand Rapids Junior College and Oakland University in a triangular meet at Franklin high at 7:30 p.m.

Schoolcraft's basketball team, meantime, was run off the floor at Port Huron Junior College. The final score was 127-57 in favor of the hosts.

At one stage of the first half, Schoolcraft was outscored, 34-4. At halftime, the score showed Port Huron in the lead, 66-19.

Jerry Kisabeth accounted for more than half of the Schoolcraft points as he finished with 32.

The Schoolcraft eagles were to meet Detroit Business University Tuesday night at Plymouth high and then face Lake Michigan College from Benton Harbor Saturday night at Plymouth high.

So far, Schoolcraft is yet to register its first win in basketball.

St. Agatha Set To Play Again

After enjoying 11 days of rest, St. Agatha high's basketball team resumed action last night at Orchard Lake St. Mary's. St. Agatha also has a Friday night game booked at Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows.

The regular season ends next week for the Catholic League teams.

OBSERVER SPORTS

By George Maskin

PUTTING ONE WORD AFTER ANOTHER — Bumped into Livonia's Red Herbert the other evening at the Piston's game.

Ray once pitched for the Detroit Tigers and more recently worked for the Chicago White Sox. Next season will find Ray on the staff of the Philadelphia Phillies, the team which blew the National League pennant last fall in the final week.

Herbert is looking forward to his "Trek" to the other league.

"I think I still have a few years of major league pitching left in my arm," declared Herbert.

A change in loops can help, Herbert knows. Maybe his thoughts turn to Jim Bunning, who had some tough days with the Detroit Tigers until they swapped him to the Phillies in 1964. All of sports is familiar with the Bunning story with the Phils — at least until that fatal, closing week.

Herbert has one regret about leaving the American League. "When I was with the Chisox and before that Kansas City, I was always able to get home three or four times during the season," declared Herbert. "That'll be out now with the Phillies."

ENTHUSIASM CONTINUES

to grow hereabouts in high school wrestling.

Both Farmington senior high schools sponsor mat teams. So do Redford Union, Clarenceville, Thurston, Bentley and Franklin.

The "beauty" of wrestling is that the smaller boy, physically speaking, who otherwise probably wouldn't find a spot for himself in varsity competition in football or basketball or baseball, is able to vie against a rival of similar stature.

Prep wrestling, if you didn't know is nothing like the so-called sport of wrestling that one sees on television or in places like Cobo Arena or Olympia.

The schoolboys divert to the scientific aspects of the sports. The dirty stuff is out. So is the acting . . . and some other phases of the professional promotion like "building up" a new favorite who can lure in the fans.

We might recommend that Bruce Martyn and Ray Lane, the men who handle the sports on new Channel 50, consider some high school wrestling matches as part of their future programming.

Hockey Game To Benefit City Players

In a move to help amateur hockey teams in the metropolitan area, the Detroit Red Wing Alumni Association is donating the proceeds of its annual old timers game to municipalities which have an active hockey program.

Under the leadership of the Livonia Hockey Association and co-sponsored by the Parks and Recreation Department, Livonia teams in all eight classifications are presently playing their games on the Garden City rink in the Westland League.

Livonia's share of the proceeds of this old timers game, which will be held this year at Olympia on January 25, was presented to Mayor Moelke and the officers of the Livonia Hockey Association last week.

N. Farmington Cagers Split Weekend Tilts

The payoff is the final score. It makes no difference that you lead in basketball at the end of the first quarter, the second period and third stanza. So it went last Friday night for North Farmington against Birmingham Groves. North Farmington held command at every milestone but the final one . . . where the scoreboard showed Groves with a total of 68 points to the North Farmington's 63. As long as North Farmington ran and kept its fouling to a minimum, all was fine for Coach Dick Wilson.

After one quarter, North Farmington was on top by a 13-12 margin. The lead expanded to 31-25 at halftime. In the third period, North Farmington held command by as many as ten points, but Groves rallied to slice the differential to 42-41 at the three-quarter juncture.

In the closing eight minutes, Groves roared ahead in a hurry, thanks to some fancy shooting by Dennis Rafferty and North Farmington was unable to catch up. The 13-mile road crew did get as close as one point twice.

Rick Lorenz and Rick Schultz carried the offensive load for North Farmington. Lorenz drilled in 11 baskets and eight free throws for 30 points to eclipse the North Farmington school mark of 26 Schultz had set the week before.

Schultz had 16 points against Groves, making 11 of them in the first half. A couple of steals, along with excessive fouling hurt North Farmington in the second half. The "North" cagers had committed only seven personals in the first half. Their output of fouls doubled after the intermission.

Rafferty wound up with 31 points for the night. He was particularly hot in the last quarter when he bagged 12 points.

The defeat knocked North Farmington out of a share of first place in the Northwest Suburban League. But there still is plenty of time to catch up, especially since North Farmington is only a game off the pace.

In addition to Lorenz and Schultz, John McDonald scored nine points, Ron Watson five and Larry August three for the losers. The North Farmington reserves also were beaten, falling by a 43-38 count.

Fast Start Helps
A red-hot first period Saturday night paved the way for North Farmington high to down Clarenceville, 74-64, in a non-league basketball battle. The Farmington cagers took a 24-14 edge at the end of the first frame as Ron Schultz led the way with 10 of his 24 points.

The margin, compiled in the early going, held up the rest of the way for North Farmington. Clarenceville, down by as many as 18 points in the second period, sliced the gap to 40-35 at halftime and trailed by six points after three quarters.

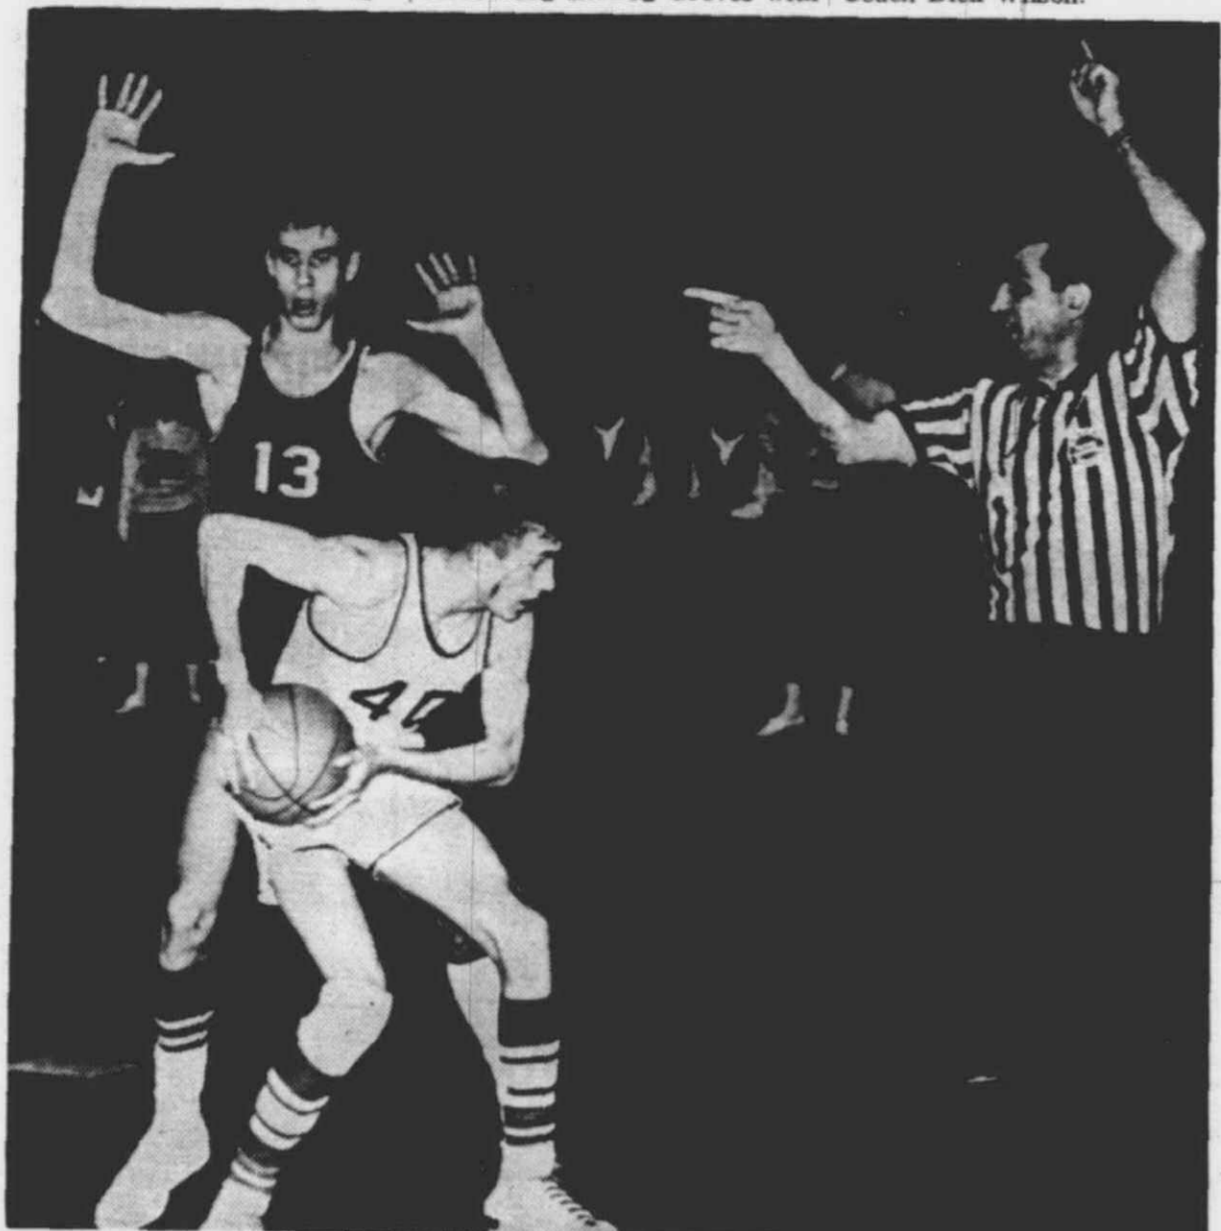

Danny Freels was the big gun for Clarenceville. He notched eight baskets and 11 free throws for 27 points. He tallied eight points in the second period to help Clarenceville move back into contention.

The Clarenceville reserves topped North Farmington, 45-42, with Jim Amick scoring 20 points for the victors. Jim Rulapaugh had 16 for the losers.

The varsity box score:

N. Farmington		Clarenceville
B	F	B	F
McDonald	3 9	Freels	8 11 27
Norton	1 3	Spencer	3 1 7
Schultz	11 24	Hawkins	0 6 6
Schmehre	1 0	R. Ray	2 1 5
Watson	4 1	L. Ray	1 4 6
Bowls	2 0	Nye	1 3 5
Lorenz	3 9	Neil	3 2 8
Oldershaw	3 0
August	2 2	TOTALS	18 28 64
TOTALS	30 14 74

Halftime: N. Farmington 40, Clarenceville 35.

WHERE'S THE FOUL? John McDonald (13) of North Farmington stands "innocently" behind Danny Freels (40) of Clarenceville. McDonald had bumped Freels a moment before the picture was taken.

Thurston Comeback Nets Tie for Lead

Are roaring starts necessary to win in basketball—or other sports?

Coach Mike Pasternak of Thurston High School would have to say "NO."

His cagers today are sharing the lead in the Northwest Suburban League with a 3-1 record and the story of Thurston's recent successes of late has followed the same pattern:

"A slow start and a happy finish."

Take last Friday night's 63-49 verdict over Franklin. Thurston fell behind, 13-11, after one quarter. The Townshippers found it almost impossible to contain the sharp-shooting of Franklin's Sam Anatonazzo who pumped in six baskets during the first eight minutes of action.

Thus of the 13 points Franklin scored, Antonazzo made 12 by himself.

Came the second period, Pasternak changed around his defense. He went from a man-to-man to a zone press.

The tide of the game quickly changed and Thurston never was headed the rest of the way.

How come Pasternak didn't start with a press-zone defense? "We never do," said the likable Thurston coach. "I like the man-to-man in the first quarter because it helps to loosen up our players. Naturally, I'm satisfied as long as we stay relatively close to our opponents."

After his first period bombardment, Antonazzo was able to make only four more points the rest of the way.

John Hartsig, the Franklin coach, lamented:

"We always seem to die against a zone defense. We can't shoot from the outside to loosen up the other team's defense."

John Page and Gary Knock took over for Thurston in the second period and hit eight and six points, respectively, to lift their team into a 29-20 halftime command. Franklin made only three baskets and one free throw in the second period.

By the end of the third period, Thurston had a 44-32 bulge and the outcome never was in doubt the rest of the way.

Page wound up as the game's high scorer with 19 points on six baskets and seven free throws. Terry Rothwell was next for the winners with 43-11. Reg Barringar had 4-2-10 and Rick Stefani 4-1-9. For Franklin, it was Antonazzo with 16 points, all on baskets for high honors.

The Thurston reserves came out 60-49 victors as Bob Wardrop led the way with nine baskets and four free throws for 22 points. Carl Gulbranson notched 13 for the Franklin reserves.

Thurston's varsity win over Franklin followed a 77-67 romp against Cherry Hill in a non-leaguer.

Page again was the big gun, hitting on nine baskets and 10 free throws for 28 points. Gary Knock followed with 12.

Here's the Thurston-Franklin varsity box score:

Franklin		Thurston
B	F	B	F
Cannon	1 0	Page	6 7 19
Antonazzo	8 0	Hay	0 1 1
Jose	1 1	Samelson	1 2 4
Bee	4 4	Koester	0 1 1
Porter	3 4	Stefani	4 1 9
Heisek	1 0	Schulte	0 2 2
Katosh	1 0	Barringar	4 2 10
Brathton	1 0	Knock	3 0 6
Totals	20 9 49	Rothwell	4 3 11
		TOTALS	22 19 63

Halftime Score: Thurston 29, Franklin 20.

Thurston Wrestlers Triumph

The strong Thurston high wrestling team triumphed over Franklin, 36-8, last Thursday evening to bring its season's record to five wins against two defeats.

One of the surprises of the meet was the victory scored by Randy Ault of Thurston, who bested Franklin star Dennis Frazier in the 145-pound division.

Two other Thurston grapplers won via falls. Dennis Celenie tossed Darroll Knox at 120 pounds while Heavyweight Jerry Szostak finished the meet by pinning Lynn Hilderbrand.

Franklin's Fred Shepherd also came through with a pin, as he beat Paul Liddell at 103 pounds.

- The meet's other results:
- 95 pounds — Doug Belknap (T) decisioned Ernie Mark.
  - 112 — Dave Belknap decisioned Earl Sickles.
  - 127 — Mike Eufis (T) decisioned Jack Carpenter.
  - 135 — Randy Locky (F) decisioned Mark Holden.
  - 138 — Mike McGrievy (T) decisioned Miek Townsend.
  - 154 — Pete Marsalese (T) decisioned Larry Vaughn.
  - 165 — Jim Blazo (T) decisioned Larry Epskamp.
  - 180 — Mike Murphy won by default.

SURPRISED! That's the way Randy Samuelson of Thurston appears during game with Franklin. Thurston won to remain in tie for first place.

Plymouth Defeated

In the second period, the Parkers outscored Plymouth, 11-2.

Falcons Tie In Wrestling

Farmington high's wrestling team battled Roseville to a 22-22 draw last Thursday night.

Here's the story of what the Farmington entries did:

- 95 pounds — Gary Tudball lost on decision.
- 103 — Art Woehler, pinned.
- 112 — Ron Mortenson, won on decision.
- 120 — Don Wright, lost on decision.
- 127 — Dan Heuer, won on decision.
- 133 — Tom Hughes, won on decision.
- 138 — Dennis Eakin, lost.
- 145 — Rick Levy, lost on decision.
- 154 — Tom Ugrin, pinned by foe.
- 165 — Bob Helvey, won on decision.
- 180 — Don Kuffell, won on decision.
- Heavyweight — Dan Klowner, lost on decision.

Allen Park held a 17-15 edge in scoring in the third period, while Plymouth scored 14 points to the Parkers' 13 in the closing chapter.

Lake with 20 points on seven baskets and six free throws for 20 points topped Plymouth. Tidwell was next with eight hoops and three charities for 19 points.

Don Stammer had 3-3-9, Hannula 2-3-7, John Daniels 2-0-4, Gary Grady 1-1-3 and Rick Jones 1-1-3 for the Rocks.

Guard Ron Howell was the big gun for the winners. He notched 12 baskets and nine free throws for 33 points, despite the fact he didn't play in the third period because he had suffered four personal fouls in the first half.

Howell returned to haunt Plymouth in the last period as he drilled in 10 points to keep the Rocks from catching up.

The Plymouth reserves managed only 17 points in the first half, then came back strong after the intermission. But their spurt wasn't enough and they fell to Allen Park, 55-46.

Bill Way and Nate Lubbrand each notched 10 points for the losing Plymouth reserves.

Observing Sports

It's really something to have an all-sport TV station to serve those of us who love our athletics.

More and more Channel 50 is going for "live" events, but its haste in putting on taped replays of games staged shortly before air time certainly brings considerable excitement to the viewer, especially when he hasn't heard what the final score of the game was.

So, again, we suggest . . . get yourself hooked up for Channel 50. And we add, we have no interests in any business connected with converters or brand new TV's.

CONGRATULATIONS to Harry Gilmer, the new coach of the Detroit Lions.

We've never met the gentleman, but fellows like Livonia's Ben Dunn (who covers the Lions for the Detroit News) tells us that Gilmer is a very capable mentor who should do a fine job for the Lions.

Of course, the club has some problems. What pro team doesn't?

PAUL PREUSS, another Livonian who writes sports for the Detroit News, reminds us about the big ski meet for preps his paper will be staging a week from Saturday and Sunday.

Here's a sport that really has taken over in the state of Michigan — for gals and gents of all ages.

It used to be that you had to travel long distances and many hours to find a spot where you could ski.

Now there are several swank operations — like Pine Knob and one in the Brighton area — which you can reach via the expressway system from our area in an hour or less.

It makes no difference nowadays whether it snows a great deal. Automatic snow-making machines are part of the equipment at every ski area.

In fact, one ski friend of ours told us: "Some times it hurts when it snows too much. It makes the going very tough."

If you are interested in the News meet, check in with Paul at 222-2260.

Sisters of St. Joseph Celebrate Diamond Jubilee

The Sisters of Saint Joseph, which furnishes the teaching Sisters for Our Lady of Good Counsel School in Plymouth, will celebrate the diamond jubilee of the founding of the Order on Jan. 27 with a 7:30 Mass followed by a reception at the church hall.

Headed by Mother Christine, school principal, seven members of the Order are teaching at Our Lady of Good Counsel. All received their training at Nazareth College in Kalamazoo.

It was 75 years ago that 11 nuns of the order arrived in Kalamazoo as volunteers to staff the new Borgess Hospital at the urging of Msgr. Francis A. O'Brien, then pastor of Kalamazoo's St. Augustine Church.

But the mere passage of time is not the reason for the pride of Nazareth. The Sisters are pausing instead to take note of their accomplishments.

Today 808 professed Sisters of St. Joseph are at work in the Roman Catholic archdioceses of Detroit and Chicago and the dioceses of Lansing, Grand Rapids and Saginaw.

At the Motherhouse on Gull Road near Kalamazoo are 46 novices and 22 postulants in training for their contributions in teaching, nursing and social work. And 29 Juniors await their reception of the habit.

Operated by the nuns are Nazareth College, founded by them in 1924; Barbour Hall, a boarding school for boys on the Nazareth campus, established in 1902 and 70 other schools and institutions, including the new O'Brien High School, organized last spring by merger of Nazareth Academy and Kalamazoo St. Augustine High School.

A total of 64 parochial schools in Michigan and Chicago have SSJ faculties, but in addition there are summer vacation schools, including one for children of migrant workers at Alma and St. Louis, Mich.

Two accredited schools of Nursing, two homes for dependent children (St. Francis Home in Detroit and St. Vincent Home in Lansing) and a licensed child placing agency, the St. Agnes Foundling Home at Borgess Hospital, are SSJ responsibilities.

Borgess is but one of six hospitals staffed by the Sisters of St. Joseph. Others are St. John in Detroit; St. Joseph, Flint; Lee Memorial, Dowagiac; Mercy in Monroe; and Tawas in Tawas City.

A yearly average of 50,000 patients are treated in the hospitals. The nuns serve as anesthetists, laboratory technicians, dietitians and pharmacologists. Sister nurses wear a white habit while those in teaching and administration wear the black.

Three sisters of St. Joseph opened a new mission in Nasca, Peru last summer.

Although the number of sisters has grown and their potential along with it, the purpose of the order has not changed since it was created 314 years ago.

The congregation was founded on Oct. 15, 1650 in LePuy, France for the "Christian education of the young and the direction of charitable works such as hospitals, orphanages and homes for the poor and aged."

The SSJ adopted the costume of black robes and white gumps for the style of dress of French widows of the 17th century.

With the French Revolution, sisters were exiles, imprisoned and guillotined. Survivors later rebuilt their community in Lyons, then went in 1834 to St. Louis, Mo. and hence to Watertown, N.Y. and from there to Kalamazoo 75 years ago.

There are 30 SSJ motherhouses in the United States with total membership of 16,500 nuns. Nazareth and the motherhouses are independent of each other.

In addition to the celebration in Plymouth, the Sisters of Saint Joseph will present a jubilee concert Sunday at 3 p.m. in Ford Auditorium in downtown Detroit.

The 80-voice Sister chorus, from Nazareth, will present the concert to which all are invited as personal guests of the Sisters of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church and school.

Herbert C. Fach, a lifetime member of Bethany Lutheran Church, who has long been active in many phases of church work, is the "Lutheran Layman of the Year," an honor bestowed annually by the Lutheran Luncheon Club of Detroit.

Presentation of the traditional plaque designating Mr. Fach as "Lutheran Layman of the Year" and other tributes for his services to the church will be made at a testimonial dinner Wednesday, Feb. 3, at 7 p.m. at the Harmonie Club, 267 E. Grand River. Tickets are available through the Lutheran Center, 2932 Gratiot, Detroit 7, Mich.

During his years of active membership at the Bethany Lutheran Church, Mr. Fach has served the church and its organizations in various capacities, including that of chairman of the congregation.

Economic Week

Church and Economic Life Week has been set for Jan. 17 through 23 by the National Council of Churches. Sponsored by the Department of the Church and Economic Life of the Council, the observance "emphasizes the Christian's responsibility for building the principles of his faith into this economic relations and decisions."

Theme of this year's observance is "Up From Poverty—Through a Steady Job at a Living Wage and Other Economic Opportunities."

Speaking at the morning service, Mr. Rice's topic will be "More Spiritual Drive in the Mission Program." Topic for his talk at the evening service is "Realizing Our Potential."

His appearance will be the highlight of all the regularly scheduled services during January. These services have been planned to implement the theme "More Spiritual Drive in '65."

The Livonia church has included in its 1965-66 budget plans for the full time support of a missionary activities.

The public is invited to attend the services.

Lee Willoughby of Plymouth (right) and Edward Gloor help unpack food to feed 1,000 delegates during a recent three-day meeting of Jehovah's witnesses in Dundee.

Lee Willoughby, 273 W. Liberty, Plymouth, volunteered to staff one of the 21 departments which made for the efficient operation of the Watchtower sponsored Bible forum in Dundee, January 8 thru 10. He managed the purchasing department which bought all the food and supplies required to feed and care for the more than 1,000 delegates during the three-day meet.

The assembly program included lectures, animated demonstrations and symposiums all conveying the theme, "Speaking the Word of God with Boldness." Several speakers described to the audience their personal experiences which had required of them boldness in defense of their faith.

Saturday's activity saw 26 new Witnesses baptized to demonstrate their dedication to God and their desire to put his will first in their lives. This followed a talk on dedication and baptism by district minister, J. W. Filson. Saturday evening featured a two-hour showing of the color film, "Proclaiming Everlasting Good News Around the World." This gave the audience a comprehensive view of the work of Jehovah's Witnesses world wide, as well as graphically proving the influence of ancient religion upon the modern in both Christian and non-Christian countries.

The highlight of the meet was the widely advertised lecture by Mr. Filson, "Our Divided World — It Here to Stay?" He discussed the causes of world divisions which appear to many to be permanent.

"The kingdom of Christ will be one government for all mankind," said Filson. "It will bring an end to political, religious and economic divisions, will usher in a new era and will rule in justice and righteousness," he declared.

The delegates, comprising Michigan Circuit 8, returned home with much practical information which is applicable to their local ministry.

Evangelist Slated To Speak in Livonia

Ira Y. Rice, Jr., a noted Far East Evangelist will be guest speaker at the Jan. 24 services at the Church of Christ, 15431 Merriman Rd., Livonia.

A missionary in Malaysia since 1955, Mr. Rice is on a visit to the United States with his family. He will tour the country before returning to Singapore to resume work. Mr. Rice hopes to be able to enter Communist China on his return.

Mr. Rice is presently editor and publisher of "Singapore-Far East Newsletter" and "Good News of the Churches of Christ in the East." He has written several books, including "We CAN Evangelize the World."

Speaking at the morning service, Mr. Rice's topic will be "More Spiritual Drive in the Mission Program." Topic for his talk at the evening service is "Realizing Our Potential."

His appearance will be the highlight of all the regularly scheduled services during January. These services have been planned to implement the theme "More Spiritual Drive in '65."

The public is invited to attend the services.

Dr. Fiers Is Guest Speaker

According to plans announced today, the Rev. Dr. A. Dale Fiers will be the featured guest speaker at the Annual Meeting of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches. He will be heard during the Ecumenical Worship Service at 8 p.m.

This, the 46th annual session, will convene on Friday, Jan. 22, at St. Johns Episcopal Church, Woodward and 11 Mile Rd., in Royal Oak, Michigan.

Officers of the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Churches and representatives from local churches will convene for the annual business meeting at 4:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m., followed by a brief, dramatic report of the Council's activities. The general public is invited to attend the Ecumenical Worship Service in the church sanctuary at 8 p.m. At this service, the annual Layman of the Year Award will be presented to a layman in recognition of dedicated commitment to the church and community.

The public is invited to the ecumenical worship service at 8:00 p.m., and to the 6:30 dinner.

What Is Truth?

The age-old question of "What is truth?" is given a fresh exploration in Christian Science churches this Sunday. The Bible lesson is on "Truth," and the Golden Text is from Psalms 86:11: "Teach me thy way, O Lord; I will walk in thy truth."

Because of the exquisite beauty found in each of the four Harris Funeral Homes and the excellent type of service rendered, some people may assume that funeral costs are high.

The fact is that Harris Funerals cost no more than ordinary funerals.

Thousands of families we have served can testify to this statement of fact.

Film Mafioso Is a Delight

By ALLEN ROSEFELD

Mafioso is a delight. The highly rated Italian film is now making its first Detroit showing at the Varsity Cinema, Livonia and McNichols Rd.

Like The Organizer and Seduced and Abandoned, the other two outstanding Italian films of the past year, Mafioso is serious-comedy. But unlike them it is extremely fast paced. Indeed, it moves at about the speed of a Billy Wilder film.

And, though its plot and dialogue achieve a high intellectual level, its humor is broad, and often slapstick. It is also often hilarious.

The non-hero of the film is a decent family man caught up in the machinations of the international Mafia. According to the film, the Mafia occupies an honored place in Sicilian life. The Mafia is portrayed as having a deep-rooted, highly complex, often honored place in Sicilian life.

FOUR YEAR OLD Shari Stempien buys a ticket to the Jan. 30 performance of the Magician, Roy Kessel, at Riley Junior High from Wilma Wagner, chairman of the event. Shari's sisters, Chris, 6, (far left) and Lynne, 8, and Jon Johnson are waiting to purchase their tickets.

The program is sponsored by the Childrens Entertainment Guild in co-operation with the Livonia Public Library. Tickets to the show, which will be from 1 to 2:30 p.m., may be purchased at any Livonia Library or from any member of the Guild.

CURTAIN GOING UP

By WALLY ROBERTS

The big musical hit, "110 IN THE SHADE" starring Jeanne Carson, Biff McGuire and John Carter, pranced into the Fisher Theater on Monday night. "110 In The Shade" comes direct to the Fisher after a year on Broadway.

Beautiful Jeanne Carson plays a western plain Jane who thinks no one will marry her, even though the two male leads (Biff McGuire and John Carter) battle for the chance. All this tumbledown-like love-making gives her a chance to sing such character - suiting songs as "Raunchy", a near show-stopper, and "Old Maid". The contrasting personalities of Carter, solemn and formal, and McGuire, sparkling and infectious give the show real impetus.

In the large supporting cast, Will Geer as the rancher father securely steadies every crisis. Incidentally, Will leaves the cast of "110" right after the Detroit engagement to work on an original play over in Ann Arbor. Mr. Geer, if you will recall, was with the APA "rep" company for a couple of seasons. He was my favorite while trotting the boards in the Lydia Mendelsohn. His fine work in "Midsummer's Night Dream" still sticks in my memory most vividly.

"Three Men On a Horse" opens on Friday of this week in Detroit almost thirty years to the day when it originally opened in New York. Old Wally saw the show in 1936 while living in Chicago. A road company of the show came through and gave an excellent performance. Through the years this classic farce has been one of my all-time favorites. Not too many community groups attempt the play since it does have a number of difficult set changes.

Director Robert Hazzard will have little to worry about in the technical end of the production since the Wayne State Bonstelle theater is known for its outstanding backstage work. A set change or two at the Bonstelle is done with the snap of the fingers by efficient stage crews ably trained by Russ Smith and his cohorts.

The Wayne cast for "Three Men On a Horse" looks like a sure winner. Phil Piro, last seen as the comic Prince Dauntless, has the choice part of Erwin. I predict he will be great. Jann Rose (winner of the Bonstelle Acting Award) has a leading role to further bolster what appears to be very a very strong cast.

Finally found time to catch a flick at the Campus theater in Ann Arbor. "Marriage—Italian Style" was showing. I laughed, chuckled, chortled, and even brushed a tear or two away quickly. Victorio De Sica directed and what a marvelous job he did. You must see this to once again realize how far behind we are in the art of moviemaking. A short entitled "The Stringbean" was on the same bill. Edwin Sechan created this simple story of an old woman, lonely and living in one room with her sewing machine. She plants a bean seed, tends it, waters it, transplants it in the park, and reaps the harvest so she has more beans to start the cycle again. Sounds simple, doesn't it? No dialogue in the film. A clever combination of black and white color give the short ten minute film real artistic values. Once again a foreign import.

Visited the Mai Kai last week. Bud Lehman, the Mai Kai's jovial manager, had asked me to come over to his sneak preview of "Those Calloways", an upcoming Disney wild-life feature. Bud tells me that he will be showing the film locally starting the first week in February. Watch for it. Has some terrific scenery, beautiful shots of the Canadian geese, and one man's effort to do something about providing a wild-life sanctuary for the geese.

"Peyton Place" comes back for a week's showing at the Mai Kai. Bud and I both agreed many people will want to see the original picture that started the TV series. Surprisingly enough I thought it was a fairly decent translation of the novel to the screen. Most times this is not done too accurately.

The Billboard Fisher Theater — "110 IN THE SHADE" Jeanne Carson and Biff McGuire featured in a musical version of "The Rainmaker". Pleasant songs and a good book make for an enjoyable evening at the Fisher. Will stay for four weeks.

Hilberly Classic Theater — "MAGBETH" and "TAMING OF THE SHREW". Two of Shakespeare's finest plays alternate Wednesday through Saturday. "Oedipus Rex" will be introduced to the repertory schedule on Feb. 3.

Marque Theater — "CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF". Closing weeks for this drama of greed and savage love. Performances at 8:30 Thursdays through Sunday. No matinees.

Campus Theater — "BERGMAN TRILOGY". Three of Ingmar Bergman's finest films: "Through a Glass Darkly", "Winter Light", "The Silence" will be shown nightly starting Feb. 21 for one week.

University of Michigan Players — "UNCLE VANYA". Seldom seen Chekov play to be presented for four day run starting Jan. 27.

Audience Surprised And Enchanted by "Shrew"

By SUE SHAUGHNESSY
The Michigan State University Performing Arts Company came to Livonia last week. They brought with them a fine production of the robust and rollicking Shakespearean comedy "The Taming of the Shrew."

Playing to a capacity audience in the Franklin High School Auditorium, the company fielded excellent performances by Fredric DeSantis (Petruchio), Chilton Cunningham (Katherine), Cathy Mann (Bianca), and B. James Alexander (Baptista, the unfortunate father of the shrew).

Fine supporting performances were turned in by Eberle Thomas as Grumio, Dean Kyburz as Tranio and Robert Rice as Christopher Sly.

An interesting part of the evening to this reviewer was the reaction of the many high school students in the audience. They were, in turn, enchanted, bored and shocked by the play.

The play, as is all of Shakespeare's work, is sometimes bawdy. Whether the teen-agers had been reading expurgated versions of Shakespeare or just not reading the playwright is unknown. It was obvious, however, from the assorted gasps of surprise and shock that this kind of treatment was the last thing they expected from "great literature."

The Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild which sponsored the performances is to be congratulated for undertaking such a community event.

Rubinoff Tour A Success

Friday, Jan. 14, 1965 will be remembered by more than six thousand Farmington area people as a date on which the artistic works of Antonio Stradivari and David Rubinoff combined themselves to make the violin a forever cherished and respected instrument. Playing his $100,000 Stradivarius violin, Mr. Rubinoff played before five Farmington area school assemblies, and an evening performance. In all, the artist received tumultuous applause, and a total of fourteen standing ovations for his heavy schedule of appearances.

The evening performance at the Farmington Junior High School on Thomas Street proved to be an evening of sheer musical beauty, as the artist and his assistant, Curt Wheelock, set up stereo-type amplifiers which brought the supreme Stradivarius tone to every ear in the auditorium.

Playing a program of great variety, Mr. Rubinoff, brought the amazing versatility of his instrument and himself as a performer to the eager ears of all in attendance. He piloted the moods and emotions of his listeners from humour to seriousness, and then to reminiscence, as he played the theme from his network radio program, "Give Me a Moment Please."

Plumbing System Outlast Home

Why have millions of Americans moved to suburban areas? Many say they wanted the elegance of city living closer to nature — and they've found a new and economical way to bring nature to their living rooms, and other rooms as well: quarried stone.

Because it is derived from nature, stone enables a home in the country to fit naturally into its environment. Stone is one of the few building materials that can give a home an unadorned appearance without looking drab.

The wide color range of sandstone, quartzite, granite, marble, limestone and slate and the extraordinary textures available—thanks to new methods of quarrying and cutting—are beauty factors of importance to the suburban homeowner. In addition, the rugged adaptability of these natural varieties of stone—both alone and in combination with other materials—is being demonstrated anew by today's architects.

Walls, fireplaces and floors of natural stone provide a dramatic counterbalance for the sleek, trim lines of modern furniture. Ruggedly handsome with a warm texture, stone adds an extra premium of luxury to any interior — and helps increase the resale value of the home as well.

And to make sure that you're using a quarried stone that will best suit your taste get free information about the different types and colors available from the Building Stone Institute, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York, N.Y.

STONE HAS BEEN used to good advantage in many suburban homes as a continuation of outdoor materials inside the house. For example, the outdoor flagstone walk leading up to the front door can be continued inside the foyer. Or the same stone can be used for the fireplace inside the house as is used for the chimney outside. If the hearth is flanked by a picture window, the effect can be quite striking.

Despite its rough and humble origin, stone can also assume an air of regal elegance, as in the case of marble. It is natural that many people associate marble with traditional forms of architecture because most of the classic examples of architectural beauty are marble structures. Yet, the pages of the leading home magazines are full of photographs of striking modern interiors that owe much of their glamor to marble.

To some, marble still seems to be a luxury of the very rich, as is the chauffeur or the gardener. But many suburban homeowners now realize that with new cutting techniques they can afford the loveliness of a marble floor, fireplace, wall or table, just as easily as they can afford wall-to-wall carpeting, or a TV set.

THINKING AGAIN in more rustic terms, stone is the most logical and appropriate of all landscaping materials.

Whether it is used as a retaining wall, patio floor, pathway, barbecue or any number of other possibilities, stone provides color, texture and pattern that are essential to every well-conceived garden design.

Suburbanites also include the durability and maintenance-free qualities of stone as further reasons for its wide popularity.

The ancient Egyptians used stones to house spirits . . . now modern Americans are using stone to bring spirit to their homes. How's that for progress?

BLEND MODERN building materials and plenty of imagination into your bathroom improvement project. This remodeled bath boasts several interesting ideas. The tub-shower recess, accented by a handsome Marlite Mural, is centered on the end wall. This 5' Ponta Roma accent panel, which also can be used over a vanity, now is available at local lumber dealers. Plenty of storage space was included at the right. The dressing bench, planter, and chiffon drapey add a luxurious touch at the left. Plastic-finished Marlite paneling provides a washable surface on all walls, as well as the ceiling. A new Travertine marble pattern on the end walls harmonizes with the distinctive decor.

Wood Panels Give Charm

It's astonishing how much charm and character can be added to a living room or bedroom simply by installing wood paneling on one or two walls.

Choose a naturally light-hued western lumber, such as western hemlock or larch, and finish it clear, without paint or stain. You'll have beautiful accent walls that your friends are sure to rave about.

By using lumber you will achieve a depth and solidity of appearance that is worth the small amount of extra work over that required for sheets. The job really is not difficult, taken step by step.

First, measure each wall to be paneled for length and height. Measure all openings, such as doors and windows, in square feet, so this can be subtracted from the surface footage you must cover.

Take these figures and your ideas to your retail lumberman. He'll help you estimate quantities.

If you have typical stud frame walls, don't forget furring strips, 1x4-inch pieces to be nailed horizontally to the studs. Three of these strips are usually enough for nailing the paneling, placed at top, bottom and midway.

And choose a small moulding, if you wish, for top and bottom. You can leave the tops of the boards without trim, but you'll have to be more careful when sawing for the top edge.

Some homeowners prefer to finish their lumber paneling before installing it, because the job is easier with the boards lying flat. This necessitates greater care during final installation, of course.

Don't spoil the job with improper finishing. First, sand each piece to satin smoothness. Apply sealer and let it dry thoroughly, then sand it smooth before applying the finish coat. Sand lightly between any additional coats.

To preserve the natural grain and light coloring of the wood, apply a transparent coating over the filler, such as clear resin or lacquer.

County Appraisers 'Polite,' Merriman Residents State

Two Livonia residents defended the behavior of appraisers for the Wayne County Road Commission, the target of criticism by other last week.

Mike Costello, 18845 Merriman Rd., and Wallace Hetherington, 18625 Merriman Rd., said the appraisers, who visited homes on the street in connection with a paving project, were "polite and competent."

Last week, some other residents claimed that the appraisers had come into their homes and acted rudely while checking property for the Merriman Rd. paving project.

"The appraisers called me two days before they came in and made an appointment," said Costello. "When they came, they were very polite."

Costello also said residents on Merriman who had signed petitions opposing the paving project had not taken the time to inform themselves. "There were no plans for a four-lane highway," he said. "The people who told them this were not correct. All that residents had to do was to call City Hall and find out."

Costello and Hetherington petitions favoring the project and said they collected 50 signatures in one hour. The other petition had contained more than 100 names opposed to the paving.

In any case, the paving project will be underway this spring, with two lanes of Merriman between Seven Mile and Schoolcraft being paved.

Industrial Ed. Pupils to Show Their Projects

Detroit area residents will have an opportunity to view the work of outstanding industrial education students at the third annual Detroit Regional Industrial Education Exhibit to open in the Detroit Historical Museum on March 5.

The exhibit will feature projects entered by students in grades 7 through 12 in public, private, or parochial schools in the greater Detroit region. The exhibit will be open free to the public at the Detroit Historical Museum daily except Mondays through March 28.

A total of 18 regional contests and exhibitions will precede the Michigan Industrial Education Awards state wide exhibit on April 8, 9 and 10 in Grand Rapids. The winning projects in the Detroit Regional will be among the entries at the state wide finals.

Two From Area Win Pool Award

Two Livonia and Farmington brothers, owners of the Paddock Pools, Inc., received the swimming pool industry's highest honor — a gold medal — Monday in Cleveland.

The presentation was made to Charles and William Robertson at the National Swimming Pool Institute convention. In excess of 1,500 installations located throughout the U.S., Canada, England and South America, were reviewed for excellence in design, construction and workmanship.

Check With Expert

One of the most important decisions you must make when planning a new home is the type of air distribution system it will have. Your heating contractor is the person best qualified to recommend a system which will provide the best results and still be compatible to the design and the floor plan of your home.

Livonia Junior Chamber Marks Its 40th Anniversary

This week, January 17 through 23, celebrates the founding of the Junior Chamber in 1915 at St. Louis, Missouri, when Harry Giessenbier saw a need for a young men's civic group and organized the first chapter, according to

Eric Cormack, Livonia Jaycee President. The movement spread so fast that in 1920 the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce was formed with 24 cities represented. Since then, the national membership has reached 241,000 with 5300 chapters. Michigan has 210 chapters with 8300 members. The purpose of this week, according to Cormack, is to focus attention on young men and the work they are doing and particularly on local Livonia Jaycees and their efforts.

The Livonia Jaycees was formed in 1953 with Dr. Paul Rosbott elected as its first president. Today's Jaycees number 43 men from all walks of life and include skilled and unskilled tradesmen, professional and business men whose common objectives are to promote civic improvement in the community and to develop leadership in young men.

Since their beginning here they have compiled a record of community improvement and service. 1964 was certainly no different. Some of the projects were the Seat Belt and Safety Clinic, the Junior Tennis Tournament, painting the Senior Citizens' Home, the Easter Egg Hunt, Dollars for Scholars Hootenanny, Teen Age Driving Rodeo, T. B. Clinic, the Christmas shopping tour for underprivileged children, Christmas party for the Livonia Retarded Children, Show Train, and the Primary Vote Tally.

woman's auxiliary, who also maintain an active program of community service unique to their own organization along with assisting the Jaycees. 1965 appears to be another ambitious year for the Livonia Jaycees, according to president Cormack. "Many new projects are being planned and investigated and to insure their success the Jaycees are looking for young men be-

CHECK FOR the Chip, Plymouth's teen youth center, is turned over to Mrs. Johnnie Crosby, head of the Y.M.C.A. Youth program, by Mrs. Garnet Trower, recording secretary of the Plymouth Soroptimist Club, while Mrs. Edith Merchant (right) second vice president looks on. The Chip, located in the city's community building, has been attracting as many as 75 teenagers after school and more than 130 for the Saturday night social programs.

Boy Scouts Make Plans For 55th Anniversary

Observance of the 55th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America is set for February 7-13, during Boy Scout Week, according to Edwin O. George, president of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. "The theme for the week-long celebration will be Strengthen America's Heritage," George said. "This theme was used during the summer of 1964 for a national program in cooperation with the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge. Because of the vital need for youth to be aware of their American heritage, the theme is being continued during the 1965 Boy Scout Week."

than Lincoln's birthday to recognize and contribute to our great American heritage. Units will be contacting neighborhood schools offering to conduct a special morning or evening ceremony, or to take part in a school assembly on that date. In some instances units will provide this kind of service for local community government officials.

Scouts, Explorers, and adult volunteer leaders. List Winners in Livonia Duplicate Bridge Meeting. At the regular meeting of the Duplicate Bridge Club, the following were winners: North-South — Joe Cooney and Ed Moorehead; Irv and Ann Hearnshen; Art and Peg Bruckert; Don Enderby and Bill Hellstein; Wayne Hatfield and Dick Goodwillie.

For the Plymouth State Home for Retarded Children, they had a bike round-up, gave playground equipment, and helped to raise $10,000 for a swimming pool with their recent Candlelight Ball sponsored by the District Six Jaycees.

PEOPLE to PEOPLE
Human Relations News For The Suburbs

By DONALD MURCH
Trustee, Livonia Citizens for Better Human Relations
If we think we live in a law abiding community, let's say so. If we are tolerant, well meaning people, why not declare it? If this city and community is prepared to accept all people who are looking for nice neighborhoods, good schools, civic-minded neighbors, green lawns and the other pleasures of suburban living, we should tell ourselves and our friends about it. Recent events and conversation lead me to believe that we know nothing about our own attitudes; certainly others do not know what kind of people we are.

real estate brokers? Would the owners of these homes sell to Negroes? Would the neighbors throw stones through the new-comer's windows? Would the Negro children have friends to play with? Would the Negro families receive threatening phone calls and be otherwise harassed, belittled or physically harmed? And, could the new-comers expect police and fire protection, garbage collection and other services from the city? Are Negroes welcome in Livonia, Farmington, Plymouth or other all white suburban areas?"

Highlights of the 55th anniversary program will include special religious services and presentations of religious awards on Scout Sabbath, February 5 and 6, and Scout Sunday, February 7. February 8 will be designated as Uniform Day and Scouts will take part in special school programs. The traditional rededication to the ideals of Scouting will be scheduled for 8:15 p.m. on February 8.

Here's Last Chance To Join Guitar, Bridge Classes. This week will be the last chance to join the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation bridge and folk guitar classes. Those interested may register by attending the classes, which have had one session. Beginning and intermediate bridge classes of the Goren method meet from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m. on Thursday at the Bentley High cafeteria. Fee for the 10-week course, which is instructed by Margaret Armstrong and Peg Fowler is $6 per person.

Along with these projects, many fund raisers were held to provide financial support. With all this work, they also had a complete social program for their members including dances, picnics, baseball, and volleyball along with their monthly social gatherings. Assisting the Jaycees in their endeavors are the Jayettes, a

At the regular meeting of the Livonia Citizens for Better Human Relations, Jan. 10, 1965, a panel of four from the Fitzgerald Community Council spoke about their mile-square community in northwest Detroit. Their neighborhood is an area bounded by Fenkel, Six Mile, Livernois and Meyers. Their neighborhood is integrated. Their property values have remained stable or have increased; church congregations and activities have flourished; crime-frequency has declined markedly; the people therein are beside themselves with pride and the good feeling of belonging and being a part of something worthwhile.

PROUDEST BOY at the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce Sports show last week was Richard de Bear, Jr., who was awarded the football autographed by members of the Detroit Lions. Terry Barr, star pass receiver of the Lions, was the speaker and made the presentation. That's Richard's dad standing with him as he holds the coveted prize.

The presentation by the Fitzgerald Panel was encouraging and optimistic; they appeared pleased to describe their activities, their successes, and the means by which they overcame adversities. However, during the discussion period that followed the presentation, someone asked "Why don't Negroes move to Livonia and its neighboring cities? After all, these cities offer excellent homes and schools, a civic-minded populace, fine churches, convenient shopping centers and diversified industries—why not?" The question was answered with other questions. "If Negro families tried to buy homes in these suburban communities, would they receive help from

Livonia K of C Reviews Past Years as Group Marks 10th Birthday

Livonia's Knights of Columbus, Fr. Daniel A. Lord Council, will celebrate its tenth anniversary on Saturday, Jan. 23, at the Knights' clubhouse on Schoolcraft Road.

Festivities will include a cocktail hour, dinner, and dancing. Guests from the state and local Knights of Columbus and Mayor Harvey Moelke will be in attendance. Awards for outstanding contributions to the good of the council will be presented to thirteen members. These are the twelve "Knights of the Month" and the "Knight of the Year."

On Jan. 23, 1955, the council was chartered, and on that day some 75 men were admitted to membership. Meetings during the first years were held at St. Michael's Church Hall on Hubbard Road. Later, in 1957, the council rented the American Legion hall on Newburgh Road for their meetings and other functions. During these years plans to build a building of their own were materializing. Five acres of land on Schoolcraft, just east of Eckles Road were purchased, and construction of the building was started in June of 1958.

Among their charitable responsibilities is Boysville, a home for boys with a problem. Boysville is located in Macon, Michigan, and is supported by the Knights of Columbus in the state of Michigan. The Livonia Knights in their efforts for Boysville have far exceeded their quota each year and have been among the top three councils in the state in contributions.

Through the combined efforts of the contractor and the membership the hall was finished only hours before a New Year's Eve celebration was scheduled to welcome in the new year of 1959. Grand opening celebrations took place in January of that year. Throughout the ensuing years additions and improvements were continuously made on the building. Membership also grew to the present of over 500 members.

Membership in the council covers a wide area, including, besides Livonia, Redford and Nankin Townships, and smaller percentages from Detroit, Garden City and other surrounding cities. Leadership of the council has been furnished by the first Grand Knight, Anthony Santich, 1955-56; Grand Knights
