

Supervisor Issues Order After DeHoCo Incident

Township Fire Chief Draws Thirty-Day Suspension

Capt. Barney Maas, chief executive officer of the Plymouth Township Fire Department, will have 30 days to think over his actions at Detroit House of Correction on Jan. 22.

Maas was suspended for 30 days without pay by Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay for "conduct unbecoming by an officer of the Plymouth Township Fire Department while off duty" effective Tuesday, Jan. 26.

Contacted at Dial Trucking Co., on Haggerty Road, where he will work during his 30-day suspension, Maas refused to comment on the incident other than to admit that there had been a verbal altercation at DeHoCo on the night of the truck fire.

From the information available, it was learned that Capt. Maas, who was off duty at the time, learned of the DeHoCo fire via the fire department short wave radio.

He immediately started from his home for DeHoCo to assist in fighting the fire and while enroute contacted the Township Hall to learn how many trucks had been sent to DeHoCo.

That was when he learned that the Township hadn't been contacted at all but the call had been sent to the City of Plymouth and Northville for assistance.

By the time the equipment arrived, the DeHoCo unit had doused the fire.

However, according to the meager reports, Maas reportedly demanded an explanation of why Plymouth Township hadn't been called.

Apparently he became involved in a discussion with William Johnson, deputy superintendent of DeHoCo, and other officials with the result that a letter of complaint with full details was sent to Supervisor Lindsay the following day.

Supervisor Lindsay reported proper action had been taken under Civil Service Act 78 in a special meeting a week ago.

It wasn't until later in the week that the news leaked out of the 30-day suspension.

Civil Service Act 78 provides for an appeal to the Supervisor's action within 10 days after notification of the suspension but there is no indication that Maas plans such an appeal to the three-man Civil Service Board.

The Board includes: Chairman Warren Worth, Secretary Gene Overholt and James Garber.

The suspension of Maas is the first such action in the Plymouth Community.

Veteran police officers and firemen in the City and Township couldn't recall any such action ever having been taken in the past.

Plan Presentation to School Board Monday

Parents Seek Answers to Farrand Problems

Parents in the Lake Pointe subdivision, disappointed because of the failure of the Plymouth School Board to have the seven-room addition to Farrand School ready for use by Feb. 15 as promised, plan to go before the Board next Monday with an eight-point program aimed to eliminate such problems in the future.

The parents, called together for a meeting to jointly discuss the problems facing their children at Farrand School, don't care to be called irate, militant or belligerent.

"We are just disappointed that the School Board hasn't been able to get the Farrand School addition ready as announced," said Alex Howell, who was named spokesman for the group.

"We had high hopes that the present policy of having three fifth grade classes together at one time in the school gym, gym classes in the hall and generally overcrowded facilities would be changed.

"But it is apparent that our children won't be using the new facilities at all this school year. The opening date has been moved from Feb. 1 to Feb. 15 to March 15 to April 15 and now we understand that it has been set for May 1.

"That means our children will not have the use of the seven rooms this year. That's why we decided to call a meeting of the parents in the Farrand school district to see if there wasn't some way that we could help ease these problems and also offer our help to the school board in some of its future activities—such as a request of the voters for additional millage."

Howell said there were some things the parents thought should be brought to the attention of the Board to see if changes couldn't be made in another year.

"We are a bit disturbed by the 5-2-2-3 system now used in the Plymouth School system," he pointed out. "When many of us moved to Lake Pointe we were assured that there wasn't any intention of shifting the sixth graders to other schools."

"Well, the answer to that is that our sixth graders have been going to classes in the junior highs for the past three years with no immediate relief in sight. We can't find any school system anywhere that is using a system of having five grades in the elementary schools, sixth and seventh in a junior high, eighth and ninth in another junior high and the upper three grades in the high school.

"We kind of feel that it's about time Plymouth reverted back to the traditional 6-3-3 system and put the sixth graders back where they belong. This involves some doing by the Board and we want to do (Continued on Page 14-A)

Calhoun Site Poses Headache To Commission

Plymouth's City Commission isn't sure that it will permit the Leo Calhoun Ford Agency to locate in the Industrial Park on Plymouth Road should land there become available.

GOP Picks Mrs. Jacobus As Chairman

Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobus was elected chairman of the Republican Party for the Second Congressional District of Wayne County at the annual district convention in Junior High West.

Other officers of the District Party are: Robert Tripp, vice president; Mrs. Elsie Price, secretary; and Paul Dwyer, treasurer.

Six delegates were named to the State Convention in Lansing on Feb. 20, including: Dwyer, Mrs. Jacobus, Fred Harrison, Betty Hoffman, Kenneth Hulsing and Tripp. The convention also picked six alternates.

The convention passed a resolution commending Arthur Elliott, Jr., outgoing Republican state chairman, for his efforts in behalf of the party during his term in office.

The district, which encompasses the city and township of Plymouth and Northville township, will meet Wednesday (Feb. 3) at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth Credit Union building at the corner of S. Harvey and Maple.

Theresa Covington Kim McLachlan Win DAR Essay Contest

Theresa Covington, from Our Lady of Good Counsel School, and Kim McLachlan, of Junior High West, have been named winners of the Plymouth and Northville D.A.R. essay contest.

The contest, open to the students in the public and parochial schools of the area, was on the subject of "Historical Trailways."

The winner will receive a historical book as a prize for their efforts.

This became apparent in Monday's meeting when Commissioners appeared divided on whether they would vote for rezoning of Industrial Park land for a commercial establishment.

Commissioners James Houk and Arch Vallier appeared to favor Calhoun since they indicated they doubted whether small plants were bringing in the tax base the commission hoped for.

"I feel we should make a lengthy study of this," said Vallier. "There is considerable doubt in my mind that small plants are the answer. I checked the tax rolls recently and found two of the small plants in the Industrial Park were paying less taxes than some of the larger stores in the downtown business section."

"Perhaps we should think of allowing Leo Calhoun in the Industrial Park if land is available. Certainly a commercial business that employs 60 people and constructs a building large enough for a good tax base is better than a small plant with 15 workers and a much smaller tax."

The big rub in the situation is that the only land available in the Park is under option to Wheel Truening. There is a chance the company may give (Continued on Page 14-A)

Medicare Topic of C-C Forum

"Medicare" will be discussed by Dr. Ruben Shapiro, diplomat on the Board of the American Chest Physicians and Surgeons, before the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce businessmen's forum Thursday noon in the Hillside Inn.

Dr. Shapiro will discuss Medicare from the viewpoint of a private physician rather than from the institutional angle.

He is a chest surgeon practicing in Detroit and has had considerable experience with medical insurance and medical care.

Lt. Governor William Milliken will address the forum in the March meeting slated for Thursday, March 4 at Lofy's. It will be the only night meeting of the year for the forum and Chairman Dr. Ralph Barber and his committee are making plans for an attendance of at least 300.

The program will be open to all desiring to attend and Barber and his committee hope to make it a husband-wife affair—and the year's biggest attendance at a Forum meeting.

Florida Bound are Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Fisher, of 416 N. Evergreen, who are shown smiling at the thought of going to the Detroit Tiger spring training camp in Lakeland, Fla. Fritz is rated as one of the most promising young southpaw hurlers on the Bengal training roster. They are due in Lakeland by Feb. 15—and can hardly wait to get out of the cold, wintry blasts of the northland.

Fritz Fischer Eyes Starting Post Florida, Tigers, Training Camp Welcome News to Plymouth Pair

With ice covered roads making driving hazardous, the thermometer dropping down to near zero and Old Man Winter at his absolute worst, small wonder that Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Fisher, who call Plymouth their home, are gazing at the calendar daily and wondering why Feb. 15 doesn't roll around quickly.

That's when Fritz, a former star southpaw pitcher for the University of Michigan, and his wife, the former Allison Scott of 416 N. Evergreen, are scheduled to arrive in Lakeland, Fla. for the start of spring training.

That's the day the Detroit Tigers start early workouts and the day that Fritz hopes will start him on the road to a regular assignment as a starter for the Bengals when the American League season opens in April. Allison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Scott, a graduate of Plymouth High School and of the University of Michigan. It was there she met Fritz, who hails from Adrian, and their collegiate romance blossomed into marriage in December, 1963.

Since then, Mrs. Fisher taught a year in the Farmington School system but rejected a contract this year so that she could accompany her husband to the warmer climes of the Florida west coast.

For Fritz, who has been working out daily at the University, this is the year of reckoning. The former Adrian High ace, who won 25 and lost none in three years there and then went to Michigan where he had a 23-9 record, was sidelined for part of the 1964 season with an ailing arm.

The 6'1", 180-pound lefthander has no illusions. He very calmly admits that he has to make the grade in the majors this year or face a rather bleak future in baseball.

"My arm hasn't bothered me a bit in the winter workouts at the University," he smiles. "I feel that I have the ability to make the Tigers' pitching staff and become a major leaguer. I believe the club management (Continued on Page 14-A)

Mayor, Supervisor Discuss Plymouth 'Rights' Problems

"Inasmuch as a considerable number of Negroes are employed at the various state and county institutions surrounding Plymouth, it is reasonable to believe that the community eventually will have an influx of Negroes," said Mayor Richard Wernette as he addressed members of the Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity on the topic of "Human Rights Problems in Plymouth."

The meeting, in which Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay joined with Wernette in discussing the problem, was held in the senior high auditorium.

It was the second of a series of four planned by the Assembly. The third is slated for Feb. 11 when Plymouth Director of Public Safety and acting City Manager Kenneth Fisher and Wayne County Sheriff Inspector Daniel Martin discuss "Law Enforcement: The Human Element." "I hope when the first Negro family does move into the community that Plymouth people will react reasonably," said Mayor Wernette.

He cited the example of a Negro teacher moving to Southfield where the Human Relations Commission canvassed the area and allayed fears of white neighbors prior to the move.

"As a result there was no antagonism," Mayor Wernette said. "This was in direct contrast to much-publicized incident in Dearborn which developed out of a rumored move-in of a Negro family. Official negligence there resulted in mob hysteria and some property damage."

The Mayor mentioned some isolated incidents in which Negroes had been shown hostility in Plymouth. In one, a family had been cursed and told to get out of town; in another, a man had a pop bottle thrown at his car and in a third, a little Negro boy was knocked to the ground in an unprovoked attack by an older Plymouth youth.

"These are minor incidents," said Mayor Wernette, "but they are manifestations of how some people feel. I believe the prime reason Negroes have not moved to the city is that they fear the abuse (Continued on Page 14-A)

Milan Frank Honored By Firemen

Milan Frank, 142 Rose, has called it quits as a member of the Plymouth Volunteer Fire Department after 27 years of service.

Milan, an employe of Burroughs Corp., turned in his resignation to Assistant Fire Chief George Schoeneman two weeks ago and was honored guest at a retirement party last week when more than 20 of his fellow firemen paid tribute to their longtime associate.

Chief Schoeneman presented Milan with a retirement badge from the Firemen's Association as the highspot of the evening.

Monday night, the City Commission passed a resolution honoring Milan for his years of service to the community.

Chief Schoeneman urges any resident of the city desiring to join the volunteer fire department to call at his office in the City Hall for an application blank.

He wishes to build a backlog of applicants and also seeks to fill the current vacancies in the ranks.

Tropical Fish Catching on as Area's Newest Hobby

Did you ever see a fish 'walk'? Or spit? Or how about even 'kiss'?

For thousands of suburban residents in Livonia, Redford Township, Farmington and Plymouth, the experience is nothing new.

These local residents are part of the growing number of collectors of tropical fish, which is fast sweeping through the suburban communities as one of the newest and fastest-growing hobbies.

And the 'walking', 'kissing' and 'spitting' fish are only part of the strange species of water life that they're collecting from all over the world. Tropical fish collectors — including everybody who has a couple of goldfish floating in a glass vase to those residents like Walt Maurus of Livonia with 25 to 30 tanks of betta fish — number almost one-third of suburban families.

"The hobby is catching on so quickly, that stores in this area have more business than they can handle," Mac Duberstein, owner of Livonia's Neptune Aquarium, states. The opening of a new store, 7 Seas, in Farmington, recently brings to three the number in the local communities. Waterland Aquariums is the third store.

Tropical fish are caught in warm waters throughout the world and shipped to a central hatchery in New York, from where they're flown in special styrofoam containers to dealers in this area and other parts of the United States.

From here, they go to the collectors.

Ruth Alevedo, 31543 Summers, Livonia, is one such collector. Ruth's specialty is the breeding of albino guppies. Another local resident, Shan Shuble, is also nationally-known in tropical fish circles, for his guppies. Gerald Gazda of Livonia, Observer staff photographer, breeds the strange glowing fish called neon tetras. Only six people in the U.S. have bred them on a large scale, and Jerry is aiming to match their records. Where does the interest begin in this hobby of breeding, collecting and watching the strange creatures?

Much of his business, reports Duberstein, is in outfitting aquariums in new schools. Almost every school science teacher has an aquarium in his classroom and the study of marine life is widespread in secondary school science classes.

And tropical fish collecting, report hobbyists, is a pastime in which they seldom lose interest. They can specialize in collecting live bearers, egg layers, in aquarium plants and in decorations. The hobby is an aid to relaxation, they report, and even hospitals are using aquariums to 'calm patients,' its reported.

There are more than 5,000 species for collectors to choose from, and they're priced from five cents to $30 a pair, for some of the more exotic varieties.

And, although much of the fascination comes from watching strange species like Siamese fighting fish, shipped here direct from the Orient, fish have their practical side too.

One of the most popular newcomers is the small version of the man-eating flesh-eating piranha. "We use them as garbage disposals," report the suburban fanciers.

School Halts Peddling of Anti-UN Tracts

An alleged attempt to disrupt plans for a competitive examination on the United Nations was described by the principal of Clarenceville High School on Thursday before a meeting of the Board of Education.

David McDonald told the Board that he had requested three women from outside the school district to stop distributing anti-UN tracts to students on school property.

He said the three were giving pupils, as they left the school last Thursday, sheets labeled, "The UN is the Devil's Playground." They were published, school officials said, by a group called the "Southern Conservative, Inc."

McDonald said one of the ladies had called a teacher at the school who had organized a competitive exam on the UN which was publicized in the press asking to talk to him about it. The examination, McDonald added, had the approval of the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

When he spoke to the three ladies, he discovered that one of them was the person who had requested the appointment. "They started asking me if I were a 'good American' or a 'good Christian' and if I therefore could believe in the UN," he added.

"I told them it didn't matter if I was a good Christian, a good Jew, or a good Mohammedan, that I was still a good American who supported the United Nations."

At this point, he said, the conversation became somewhat heated and he discovered that none of the ladies lived in the Clarenceville School District.

They discussed the exam with the teacher and left.

Board members said they supported McDonald's action, and reaffirmed school policy that only approved contests like those OK'd by the NASSP would be used in Clarenceville schools.

Human Relations News For The Suburbs

By EUGENE DUSTON, Member, Executive Board, Redford Assembly for Human Relations

GETTYSBURG, Pa.: Nov. 19, 1863—"... our fathers brought forth on this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that ALL MEN ARE CREATED EQUAL."

In February, as we honor the birth of an outstanding President, let us not forget these words—a short, clear statement of the true meaning of America, spoken by a northern backwoods lawyer who rose to greatness.

Fourscore and seven years before this speech, given on a Pennsylvania battlefield, another American, a Southern aristocrat, had written: "We hold these truths to be self-evident. That all men are created equal. That they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights—life, liberty... pursuit of happiness."

Our history, from 1776 to 1863, 1863 to 1965 has been an attempt to secure the unalienable rights.

One right supercedes all others — and as this right is guaranteed universally, all others will follow. I agree with former President Eisenhower that with the right to vote guaranteed and insured to all citizens everywhere, Americans can, through equality at the polling place, achieve equality everywhere.

As a teacher of American history, I think that the fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution and its enforcement, voter registration drives and removal of barriers to voting become the most important elements in the drive toward equal rights.

There is yet another aspect to the drive to secure rights.

In our free-democratic society, we may disagree on how to secure them; we may argue that in securing the right of one, we take away that of another; we may debate whether it is the role of government to determine what equal rights are and how they should be insured; we are divided as to what level of government should have primary concern in the area of equal rights. In the United States it is right and just that we disagree on methods and roles.

But, if we truly understand the history of our country, if we truly respect and strive to uphold the basic ideals of America, we cannot disagree on goals. All men are created equal, all men are endowed with certain inalienable rights, all men should be guaranteed equal opportunity, all citizens have the right to participate in decisions affecting society (especially through the right to vote).

If we accept these goals, we can proceed, as Lincoln outlined: "With firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work."

Two Area Youths Die in Auto Crash

Mark Nippa, 17, of 15450 Edington, Livonia, and Robert Charlet, 23, of 14008 Inkster,

Redford Township, died Saturday morning, Jan. 30, as the result of an auto accident, that took place in Farmington Township, in the early hours of the morning.

Roger Redinger, 18, of 15575 Brookfield, Livonia, the driver of the car, was charged with involuntary manslaughter, by Farmington Justice of the Peace Allen Ingle, Monday. He stood mute. Redinger, and a fourth rider in the car, John Allen Frankiewicz, of 15950 Stanford, Livonia, received severe facial wounds.

Heading south on Farmington Rd., at 10 Mile Rd., the car apparently went out of control, just north of 10 Mile Rd., after failing to negotiate an "S Curve," crashed through the guard rail, and over the hill.

That particular curve has been especially dangerous in the past. But, according to Farmington Township Police, the Township made it considerably straighter and safer several years ago. It had to purchase some private property in order to do so.

Township Police were called to the scene at 2:27 a.m. Charlet was dead on arrival at Botsford Hospital, in Farmington. Nippa died there at 7:50 a.m.

Counter to the general run of auto fatalities, the two dead men were seated in the back seat.

The front of the car—a 1964 Chevrolet Sports Coupe — was practically undamaged (the front window pane was not even shattered). But the left side of the car, was severed off, and the left-rear wheel was also dislocated.

SERVICES FOR Mark, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nippa, were conducted Wednesday in St. Maurice Catholic Church in charge of Rev. Fr. Kane. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

He was a student at Bentley High School and was born Nov. 19, 1947 in Detroit.

Surviving are: his parents; his grandmothers, Mrs. Sophia Goodrich and Mrs. Hilma Nippa; a brother, Patrick; and a sister, Marsha Ann, both at home.

'Brotherhood' Is Burdick's Topic

Circuit Judge Benjamin D. Burdick will be the principal speaker on "Brotherhood" at the Master Mason Degree Dinner of the Wyandotte Lodge No. 170, F & A.M., on Monday, Feb. 8, at 6:30 p.m., at the Masonic Temple, 81 Chestnut Street, Wyandotte. Mr. Myers will chair the meeting.

Sees Community College In Every Area of State

A prediction that every county and every area in Michigan will have a community college within the next 10 years was made to the Michigan Council of Community College Administrators by Dr. Ferris Crawford, assistant superintendent of Public Instruction, at the annual meeting in Lansing.

Presidents and board chairman from each of the state's 22 community college districts attended the one-day session in the Jack Tar Hotel.

"The last year has seen 21 per cent of the enrollment in higher education in community colleges," said Dr. Crawford. "It saw the organization of four new colleges, making a total of 22 in the state."

"More than that there are two additional districts approved by electors and six more districts are studying proposals for community colleges."

"I predict that within another 10 years, we will see community colleges in every section of the state."

Dean James Browning, Council president from Port Huron Community College, told of the rise of the community colleges from one in 1914 in Grand Rapids to the 22 in operation today.

"We have a total of 47,503 students enrolled in our community colleges," he said. "This total will climb to 60,000 in another year and the sky is the limit from then on since colleges are springing up in communities throughout the state."

"The community college gives all desiring a chance for higher education and more and more communities are realizing this and taking steps to organize college districts."

"Our council is planning to ask the current state legislature for $12 million to match the amount now held by community colleges so that we can expand as rapidly as possible to take care of demands for more and more education."

Browning, told of the new eight-man community college board, created by the new State Constitution, which is expected to be named in the near future.

The highspot of the program was the presentation of a distinguished service award to Dr. Max Smith, of Michigan State University, who has been cooperating with community colleges throughout the state in helping solve problems.

The presentation was made by Stanley Van Lare, director of the Alpena Community College.

Schoolcraft College was represented by President Dr. Eric Bradner and Board Chairman

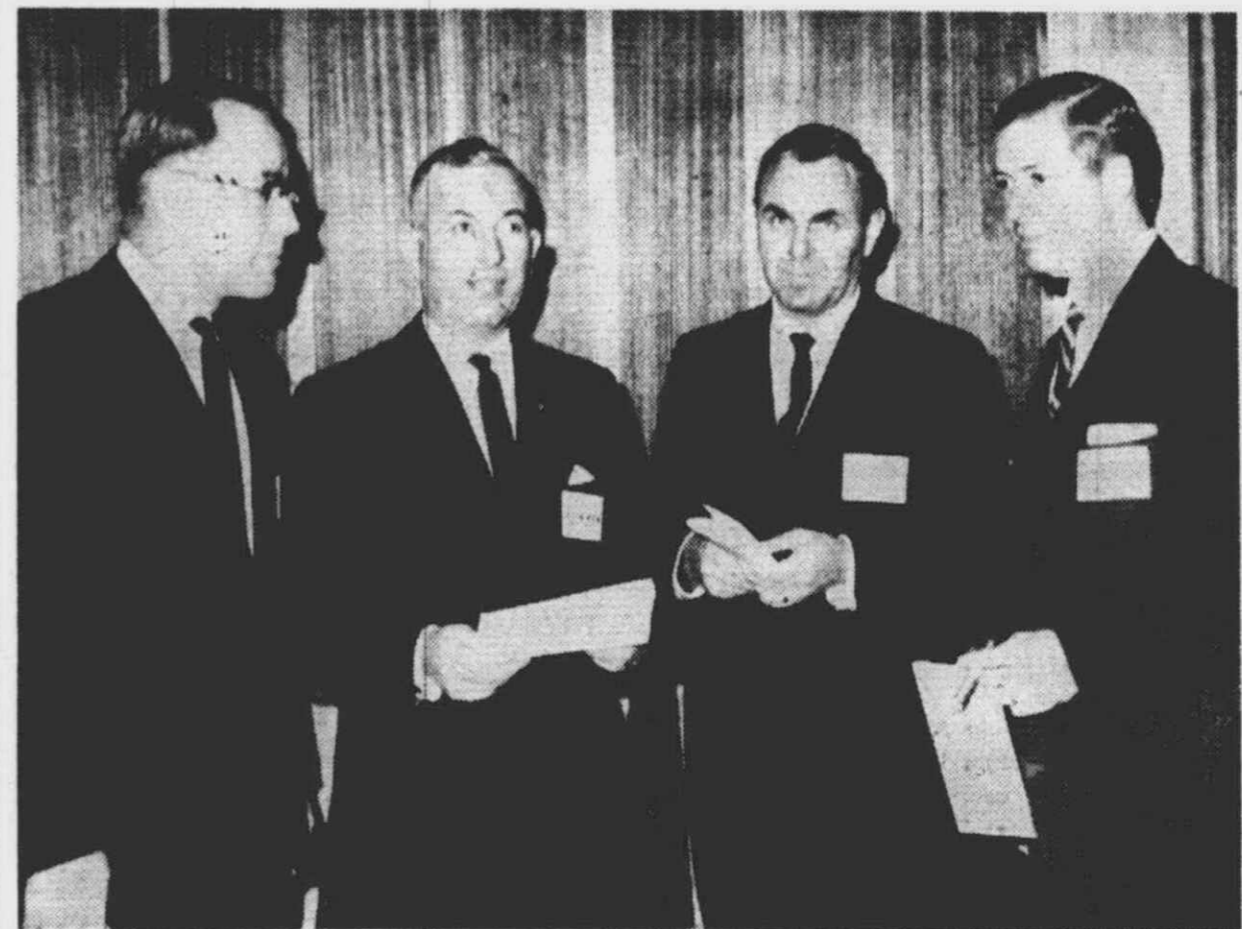

Harold Fischer. Oakland Community College, which has selected a site in Farmington Township for one of its three branches, was represented by President John Tirrell and Board Chairman George Mosher.

Members of the Michigan Council are:

Jackson County Community

College, Muskegon Community College, Schoolcraft College, Port Huron Junior College, Monroe County Community College, Delta College, Flint Community Junior College, Grand Rapids Junior College, Ingham County Community College, Cass County Community College, Highland Park College, Lake Michigan College, Henry

Farmington Man Slain By Buddy

A friendship which turned sour, and ended in murder in Detroit, last week, had its beginning in the Livonia-Farmington area.

The confessed murderer, Charles Acker, is a former Livonia resident. Bruce Salow, who was slain, is from Farmington. Both men have been living in Detroit, recently. Salow was 25, at the time of his death. Acker is also 25.

Farmington Police say they regarded the two young men as problems, when they lived in this area. One officer recalls that six or seven years ago Acker was in trouble for auto theft, and Salow for liquor violations.

According to the Detroit Police Dept., Acker shot Salow through the head with a .45 calibre bullet, apparently after the latter refused to let him use his car. Salow was murdered in his own apartment, at 361 Selden, at 3 p.m., on Jan. 25.

About an hour later, Acker called the homicide bureau, from a bar at 19341 Van Dyke, and admitted the shooting. Sgt. Alfred Pare came to the bar, and arrested him.

Acker lives at 19324 Havana, Detroit. A witness to the argument between him and Salow was Salow's room-mate, 38 year old John Ciesielski. The body was discovered by a maid, shortly after 3 p.m.

Officer William Berning, of the Farmington Police Dept., went to the home of Salow's parents, to get them to identify his body. But they were not home.

vanWestrenen Comptroller In Tecumseh

Appointment of Frans W. vanWestrenen as comptroller of the Fisher Body plant near Tecumseh, Mich., was announced by Thomas Clevon, divisional comptroller of Fisher Body and assistant treasurer of General Motors.

vanWestrenen will be transferred to the Tecumseh operation from the Fisher Body upholstery trim plant in Livonia, where he has been general supervisor of cost accounting since June 1963.

A graduate of South High School in Grand Rapids, vanWestrenen attended Grand Rapids Junior College where he studied Business Administration. He received over two years of specialized training in accounting at LaSalle Extension and the Davenport McLachlan Institute.

He started his Fisher Body career in 1937 as a payroll auditor at the Grand Rapids No. 1 plant. Promotions through senior clerk, cost accountant, assistant general supervisor, junior analyst and senior accountant led to his transfer in 1952 to the Grand Rapids No. 2 plant where he was appointed general supervisor of cost accounting.

The Grand Rapids No. 2 plant produces automobile body upholstery and its operations are similar to those to be performed at Tecumseh.

THE DEATH CAR — out of control — crashed through the guard rail at this point on Farmington Rd. and 10 Mile Rd. The skid marks are visible, in this picture.

THIS SIGN STANDS two-tenths of a mile from the curve at Farmington Rd. and Ten Mile Rd. It is the only sign warning of the curve. Beyond it, the hill rises and the road curves.

Singers Have Chance With College Chorus

With two major appearances slated for the second semester, Wayne Dunlap, Director of Music at Schoolcraft College, Monday urged all interested to join the college's community chorus.

He pointed out that arrangements have been made for the chorus to perform the Faure Requiem on an Easter program and for an appearance with the Plymouth Symphony at its annual pop concert.

The chorus will sing either Brahms Liebeslieder Waltz or the Polovtsian Dance of Borodin.

However, Dunlap emphasized that programs of this nature require regular attendance at the weekly Wednesday rehearsals.

Since auditorium facilities are not available on the college campus, the Drama Club received permission from hospital authorities to use the facilities there for rehearsals and agreed to stage three performances there.

The cast includes: Barbara Junk, Detroit, as Edith; Bonnie Boatman, Garden City, as Ruth; Fred Bailey, Garden City, Charles; Allan Aisen, Livonia, Doctor Bradman; Beverly Spiejak, Livonia, Mrs. Bradman; Sally Kandah, Livonia, Madame Arcati; and Kathleen Gallagher, Northville, Elvira.

The play is under the direction of Robert Stenger with Michael O'Toole in charge of technical production and Rose Abbruzzese handling publicity and tickets.

Notaries Increase

LANSING — Commissions for notaries public climbed to a new high in Michigan during 1964 when a record 21,749 were issued through the office of the Secretary of State.

This brings Michigan to a total of more than 80,000 notaries, a far-cry from the handful of persons who held such offices back in 1805, when the first notaries commissions were issued in Michigan.

The 1964 record erases the previous high of 21,565, established only last year.

Report from Washington: A CONGRESSMAN'S WORKBOOK

By BILLIE S. FARNUM
19th District Representative

The No. 1 job of a Congressman is to help make laws. But he also offers many services to residents of his district. Let the following letter from a corporal in Korea . . . illustrate one service:

DEAR CONGRESSMAN FARNUM: I desire to discuss a very urgent matter with you. I returned to my previous place of service, Pan Mun Jom, to get married. But my commanding officer opposes my marriage. My excellent service record was given no consideration. One of my friends put in his papers long after I did and now he is a married man. Your assistance will be greatly appreciated. (signed) CORPORAL L.M.H.

I replied in part: "I have asked the proper military authorities for a report. You will hear from me shortly." A few days later in the same mail I got two letters — one from a brigadier general in Korea and the other from the soldier, now an ex-corporal:

DEAR CONGRESSMAN FARNUM: I received my 'Pre-Marital Papers' and am now married. I was also promoted the same day. My wife and I thank you for all you've done for us. (signed) SERGEANT L.M.H.

I should let it go at that — let it be assumed that I waved a magic wand and forced the Army to do my bidding. But, fortunately for our democracy, no Congressman has any such power. It may help others with problems to know just what a Congressman can do.

He can do this: See that anyone in his district gets a fair hearing — a fair deal — if he thinks he has been unfairly dealt with by a Federal Agency. But that's all he can do. He can't get any special favors. Or any special advantages. Just fairness and fair treatment.

In the case of the corporal who became a sergeant, his commanding officer gave an unfair ruling — maybe because he got out of the wrong side of the bed one morning. That can happen to almost anyone. But the officer stuck to his unfair ruling — until one of HIS superior officers . . . probably the brigadier general who wrote to me about the case . . . demanded reasons for the ban on marriage. The general found the reasons weren't valid one. He also found that the corporal's record was good enough to rate promotion as a wedding present.

Now, what if the corporal had been in the wrong? In that case, what would he have gained by writing his Congressman? The answer: A hearing to make sure that he actually was in the wrong. He'd get no other benefit.

Anyone with a problem involving relationships with the Federal Government who lives in the 19th district (Pontiac, western Oakland County, Livonia, Redford Twp. etc.) can contact me by writing to: Congressman Billie S. Farnum, House Office Building, Washington 25, D.C."

AAUW LISTENING POST

Detroit City Planning Director Charles Blessing had an unexpected assistant at his lecture here last Thursday night. Clay Weathers, an area resident who had been his professor over 30 years ago at the University of Colorado, came to hear his former student and helped with the slide projector.

AAUW member, Mrs. Richard Fritz introduced Blessing who shared with the audience his appreciation of civilization's great old cities and his plans for great new ones.

City planning is not new. He cited old Peking as one of the most beautifully planned cities in the world. He spoke of the loving attention to grace, dignity, detail and beauty that went into the building of Athens, Rome, Venice, Granada, Vienna and the Tivoli Gardens of Copenhagen. Because cities are planned for their people and attuned to them the symbols of the ages must not be overlooked. "The city belongs to everyone and her children should grow up in the midst of history."

The great modern city can be a thing of beauty. The emerging form and shape of a new city uses nature as its model. The skyscrapers are mountains of the city. Mr. Blessing's slides of Monument Valley clearly illustrated this comparison.

He pointed out that, slums go hand and hand with an absence of nature and stressed that there cannot be a great city, town or village without respect for its natural setting. He used rapidly-growing Sao Paulo as an example of cities that "drift into perpetual sameness" and "the nonsense of non-relation."

"Detroit," he said, "is a rugged city that has the makings of greatness." Mr. Blessing has had an active part in bringing about many changes in the old city. The new Medical Center, the Wayne State University Complex, the Elmwood and Lafayette Projects, and, hopefully, the International Village are the results of the master plan for a beautiful metropolis.

The lecture closed with a question and answer period. Most of the audience remained for informal conversation with the guest speaker while refreshments were served by Mrs. Wendell E. Smith, Mrs. David C. Schlick and Mrs. Mark O. Wehmer.

ROTARY ANNS

Mrs. Russell Isbister was program chairman of the successful Slide Review at the Rotary Anns last meeting. Newly-appointed chairmen of the club's Easter Lily sale are Mrs. Warren Blackburn and Mrs. Carl Hopkins.

REBEKAHS

The local Rebekah Lodge had a busy weekend. Thirty-five members travelled by chartered bus to Kalamazoo on Friday where District No. 7 installed officers. Their bus left here at four in the afternoon and returned to Plymouth about two-thirty Saturday morning. That evening they were in Tecumseh for installation of officers.

A date to circle on your calendar—Feb. 13—another of the Rebekah's popular roast beef dinners will be served.

City Tax Collected Dip to 46.5 Per Cent

Tax collections in the city of Plymouth are lagging behind previous years with only 46.5 per cent in the till at the end of January. That was the report of City Treasurer Kenneth Way. Way indicated a total of $1,183,168 had flowed through his office. He blamed the dip to the deadline extension this year from mid-January to the end of February.

Present plans call for four performances during the morning and afternoon of an original stage adaptation of the famous French fairy tale. The play will be presented at 10 and 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 and 3 p.m.

The set construction is under the direction of Mrs. John Anderson. Mrs. Robert Messerly, and Mrs. John Hopkins. Costume designing will be handled by Mrs. Thomas Devereaux and Mrs. John Campbell.

Mrs. William Upton is ticket chairman and Mrs. George Spaniel is stage manager.

Efforts of all members of the AAUW are combined annually to present live drama to the children of Plymouth, Northville and Livonia area.

The cast will include: Mrs. Richard Fritz, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Devereaux, Mrs. Jack Maas, Mrs. William Fronk, Mrs. Richard Doherty, Mrs. James Knowles, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. David Van Hine.

The University of Detroit was founded in 1877 as Detroit College. 1965 marks its 88th year of service to the City, the State, and the Nation.

Jacks and Jills and Ills and Pills

Jack and Jill were taken ill
And needed medication.
Jack made for a discount store,
But Jill scorned the temptation.
"I demand an expert's hand;
The pharmacy's where I go.
They have the skill to tend each ill
From flu to impetigo.
Poor Jack will find when buying blind
That luck 'most always fails him.
There's no one there to know or care
About what hurts or ails him."

We're with Jill, one hundred per cent. The pennies that might be saved on medicines bought at a supermarket or discount house aren't worth the risk. An ailment that requires any treatment at all deserves the safe and sure treatment that's advised by an expert, who knows drugs and takes a personal interest in the well-being of his customers. Buying a medicine blindly off a bargain counter might save Jack... but it could hurt Jack.

Harris Funeral Home Additions To Double Size Of Facilities

Two of the four new chapels are already in use in the west suburban Harris funeral home, 15451 Farmington Road at Five Mile Road, Livonia, in the extensive remodeling and rebuilding program which began in August 1964.

The work which will more than double the size of the family service area, is expected to be completed in March.

The appearance of the entire front of the 90-foot wide structure is being beautified. The addition of a Colonial style entrance, with columns and apex making an eye-appealing break in the roofline, was designed to add dignity and a touch of old-fashioned friendliness.

The four new chapels are being constructed through an interesting combination of use of existing space and a new building added at the rear of the present structure.

The two new chapels now completed of the four being constructed can be converted, when necessary, into one large chapel measuring 24'x56'. Adjacent to the new chapel is a separate and spacious family room, with private entrance to assure complete privacy.

Lighting, sound, heating, air-conditioning and other controls for the chapels have been developed to provide a comfortable and proper atmosphere for all visitors.

David Whitney, resident manager of the Harris Livonia funeral home, said: "We've planned the re-modeling so that it interferes as little as possible with our service to the families of this community. We expect all work, remodeling, rebuilding, redecorating and refurbishing to be completed in March."

PLENTY OF SPACE for all visitors Livonia. The expansion program has in this enlarged room at the Harris Funeral Home on Farmington Road in more than doubled the facilities.

Livonia Inspector Named to Board of New Ass'n.

A new organization — tentatively called the Inspectors Institute of Michigan — has been formed in Livonia, with membership composed solely of city inspectors of heating, air conditioning, and refrigeration.

The new group has laid plans for a program of upgrading the professional skills of its membership, and said its ultimate aim is the improvement of all systems in its area.

At the preliminary meeting, representatives of 50 cities were present.

"The Institute will be run by and for the city inspectors," according to Tony A. Sher, executive secretary of the Detroit Better Heating & Cooling Bureau, which is assisting in its formation.

As part of its educational program the Institute will use materials supplied by the Bureau, manuals published by the National Warm Air Heating & Air Conditioning Association. These cover such topics as heating and cooling load calculations, distribution systems selection, warm air perimeter heating.

Speaking at the meeting, Herb Gilkey, technical director of NWAHACA, said the formation of the Institute was an "auspicious" sign for better systems installations.

"In any large metropolitan area, there is a multiplicity of codes, ordinances, and interpretations of these laws, and a forum such as the Institute will do much to establish a line of communication between your various cities," he said.

Temporary chairman at the first meeting was John Kaiser, representing the City of Livonia. It is expected that officers will be elected at the next meeting, set for the end of December.

PROTECTORS for Mothers Marchers, the Auxiliary Police Unit of Livonia show up year after year to assist on March of Dimes night. This cold January night was no exception. They picked up money from the ladies and patrolled the streets as "marchers" were out collecting for the March of Dimes for continuing the program of fighting birth defects. (Front row, l-r) Sgt. Austin Ault, Sgt. Leo Barretta, Chief John Wood, Sgt. Donald Schlossberg, Sgt. Dave Wilson. (Back row, l-r) Officers Stan Kubik, Sgt. Gustor Eschels, Lt. Walter Shellhorn, Sgt. Peter Sergeiko, Lt. Farnum to Speak Thursday at McNamara's Testimonial Congressman Billie S. Farnum will be the guest speaker at the Edward H. McNamara Testimonial Dinner on Thursday, February 4, the Dinner Ticket Committee announced yesterday.

This will be the Congressman's first public appearance since he officially assumed his Washington duties, which include membership on the important Appropriations Committee. The dinner will start at 7 p.m. at the Livonia Knights Inn, 29703 7 Mile Road in Livonia.

"Tickets for the occasion are going quickly," a spokesman for the Committee said yesterday. "People are coming from all over. They want to both honor Ed McNamara and hear Billie Farnum tell about the Washington scene."

McNamara is a candidate for the Michigan Senate in a special election scheduled for April 5. His record includes the Dearborn Township School Board, the Livonia City Council, the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, the United Community Services, and other civic activities.

Tickets for the McNamara Testimonial Dinner can be obtained from the Ticket Committee at 29200 Five Mile Road near Middlebelt in Livonia, 425-9210.

The Observer WOMEN

Madame President

Mrs. John Van Lier

By BIBE LINDHOUT

What is it that pushes, or pulls, "just plain housewives" to go beyond the confines of their home and family, to assume the added responsibilities of actively participating in the vast vaguely defined field which carries the unassuming name of "volunteer work." How do they reconcile having the demands of their family oftentimes go unanswered because mother's busy volunteering?

We propose to ask the presidents of many different organizations for answers to these and other like questions in this series entitled Madame President.

Until 1955 Mrs. John Van Lier did not do much socializing. She worked full time in a business office and after work and housework there just wasn't much room left on the schedule for "clubbing."

And so, when her husband suggested that she'd worked long enough, and wasn't it time she stayed home?, Hattie found a great big 40-hour hole in her week.

"It was so used to being busy. And after a year of sitting home I thought I'd go out of my mind," she says.

In 1955 she started to work with the newly formed Y-Teens at Riley Junior High School.

Her interest in gardening soon led her to Livonia's Farm and Garden Club and a friend made there, Mrs. Clayton Burns, introduced her to the City Woman's Club.

Hattie and her husband moved to Livonia in 1936. When they bought the house at 15604 Farmington Road it was the first house north of Five Mile, whereas now office buildings and homes line both sides of the road. The challenge of taming the wilderness immediately around them developed their interest in gardening. They still consider it one of their favorite hobbies.

Hattie also likes to dry and preserve flowers and foliage—making pictures and plaques with them. "I am interested, too, in conserving wooded areas and the wild flowers of Michigan," she says.

It is easy to see how she can combine a president's hat with her hobby. Hattie was first elected president of the Garden Club in 1960 but poor health forced her to resign. She was elected to that post again this year.

The activities of the Woman's Club are more in the area of service. Here Hattie is serving her second year as president. "Each year we have one big project," she says. "We have a card party to raise money and then buy a gift for some group—we think this is nicer than just donating money."

Gifts in past years have included a ceramics kiln and supplies for retarded children at Elm School, a special bassinets for St. Mary Hospital, a tape recording unit for Livonia's emotionally disturbed children. Hattie also spends one day a week working at the Well-Baby Clinic at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church and is a member of the Wayne County Health Guild.

Her reasons for all these varied outside interests are the same. "I enjoy being with people and meeting new people," she says. "There is so much we can learn from each other."

As president, Hattie makes a point of calling on new members in her clubs. "Many new members are newcomers," she adds, "I think they join these clubs to get acquainted, and it's part of my job to make them feel welcome."

Los Cabelleros Meet
The Los Cabelleros 4-H Club has held its latest meeting, with Vice President Linda Stelter presiding. Janice Priebe acted as both Secretary and Treasurer, with Carole Andrews, the Treasurer, absent.

Wedding Gowns Of All Ages Modeled

Wedding gowns of the past and fashions for your springtime future will be shown at the Keeler Mothers Club Fashion Show at 8 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 25, in the school gym.

The spring fashions are from Zueback's Suburban. They will be described by Mrs. Richard Freund, fashion coordinator for the store. The theme of the show will be "My Fair Lady." The bridal gowns represent years from the 1890's through the 1950's. They will be modeled to a background of wedding music sung by the Melody Moms Quartet. The singers are Betty Scheck, Nancy Conley, Millie Montgomery and Florence MacDougall. Eleanor Manini will play piano accompaniments for the entire show.

All the models will be members of Mothers Club and teachers of Keeler School. Hair styles will be Mr. Ronald.

Tickets for the affair must be purchased by Feb. 15. They can be bought in the school office or from Diane Mienk for $1.75 each. No tickets will be sold after Feb. 15.

A Maurice salad luncheon and dessert will be served by members of the Future Teachers Club and other students from Redford Union High School. Door prizes will be given.

Making arrangements for the affair are Pat Judd and Ann Weyer, co-chairmen; Jean Hengar, Mothers Club president, and Mrs. Mienk, tickets.

Watchko-O'Bryan Marriage January 9

Marlene Helen Watchko and Dr. Roger L. O'Bryan were married Jan. 9 at St. Theodore Roman Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Watchko of Livonia and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Bryan of Detroit.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length Paris Couturier Design gown of peau de soie with a Victorian neckline. Her veil was floor length and the bride carried a bouquet of white roses in a cluster of white carnations with streaming ivy.

Elizabeth Watchko, the bride's sister who served as maid of honor, wore a floor length deep blue velvet gown with a round neck and A-line skirt. She carried pink roses on white muffs with streams of ivy. A pillbox hat finished the ensemble.

The bridesmaids, Joyce Watchko, Jan Rae Schollenberger and Mary Lou Johnson, wore the same gowns. However, two of the bridesmaids' dresses were in deep purple.

Tom O'Bryan, the bridegroom's brother, served as best man. Seating the guests were: Ronald O'Bryan, Richard O'Bryan, Donald Watchko, Michael Watchko, Dr. R. Barnes and Robert Lennis.

Following a reception for 300 at the Knights of Columbus Hall, the newlyweds left for a wedding trip to Puerto Rico.

The new Mrs. O'Bryan chose a pale yellow wool suit with winter white accessories as her traveling outfit.

The bride is a graduate of Central Michigan University and is currently attending graduate school at the University of Michigan. Her husband is a graduate of the Kirksville College of Osteopathy and Surgery.

The newlyweds will live in Deckerville, Mich.

Girl Scout Notes

Junior Troop 1088 from the Whitman Neighborhood was one of the many troops in attendance at the recent Girl Scout Symphony. Both the music by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and dancing by the Detroit City Ballet were much enjoyed by everyone. A recent week-end spent at Kensington provided the girls with the opportunity to learn many out-door skills and crafts.

Moving over to the Jackson Neighborhood we find that Junior Troop had fun at the roller rink. It was the first time on skates for many of the girls and they all had fun even though it wasn't their feet that hurt when they were done.

Cadette Troop 2249 of Cooper Neighborhood has crossed the bridge to the Cadette Program with an intriguing rededication ceremony attended by the parents of the girls. The spectators thoroughly enjoyed the program, troop movies, ceremony, and refreshments.

Pop tunes have temporarily been replaced by classical music for Girl Scout Troop 958 of Memorial Neighborhood. These Junior Scouts have been studying the compositions of the masters for the last three meetings as a requirement toward the Junior Musical Badge.

Highlight of the music appreciation portion of the badge was a trip Jan. 24 to see the Plymouth Symphony perform at Plymouth High School, under the direction of Wayne R. Dunlap.

After the concert the girls were invited backstage to interview the conductor and musicians and examine the various instruments of the orchestra.

Mrs. Carl Kiessel, who is a committee mother for the troop and coordinator for the Musician Badge is busy preparing the girls for their own recital in March.

"The girls are learning to play the song flute and are practicing for a concert before their sister troops and parents," Mrs. Kiessel said. "The highlight of the program will be some original songs composed by the girls. We hope that they will be able to appreciate all types of music at the completion of the badge."

Camp Fire Girls Area Activities

COORDINATED BY
MRS ROBERT KULL
474-8481

On Sunday, Feb. 7th the Oakland County Camp Fire Girls will hold an open house at Camp Wathana near Holly, Michigan. All Camp Fire Girls, Blue Birds and their families are invited for the day. This offers a fine opportunity to explore the camp facilities. Outdoor activities will include skiing, sledding and ice skating. Families are asked to bring their own equipment and sack lunches, if desired. Hot chocolate will be served. Cost of the outing is 50 cents per car.

It is hoped reservations will be made with Camp Fire leaders by Friday, Feb. 5th. However, all Oakland County Camp Fire families who can attend will be welcome.

MERRY BLUE BIRDS

Our leader, Mrs. Gruenwald, and her assistant, Mrs. Greenbury, took us to skate on a pond in Old Homestead. It was one of the coldest days of the year. Our sponsor, Mrs. Tuschak, and Mrs. Greenbury enjoyed skating very much. Afterwards we had hot chocolate at Gail Gruenwald's house with cookies Louise Malatesta had brought. At our last meeting we made paper bag faces and pretended to be selling candy so we would learn how to do it correctly for the Camp Fire Candy Sale.

NA-KON-TAN-YA

Na-kon-tan-ya is working on honors needed to become a Wood Gather. We have learned how to fold the American flag correctly. We also made our symbolgram for Na-kon-tan-ya. We made it out of red, green and yellow felt. We chose symbols which best suit its meaning and put them together. We will sew these on our ceremonial jackets.

The four oldest members (Debbie Carless, JoAnn Craig, Paula Gruenwald and Mary Jo Ross) taught the new Camp Fire Girls (Sheila Anderson, Norma Preston, Anne Stevens and Barbara Weldon) the Wood Gatherers Desire, the Camp Girls Law and helped them to choose their Indian Names.

We learned a new song and Barbara Weldon served punch and cookies. Scribe, Paula Gruenwald.

WI-NO-TA

We had a skating party which was lots of fun even though our toes got cold. We are looking forward to our camping trip on Jan. 30th, and are having fun planning it. We have committees working on menus, games and other activities. Mrs. Martello, our Leader, and Mrs. Hendries, our co-leader, make our meetings happy and interesting. Scribe, Susie Thiers.

O-KI-HI

Today we put together symbolgrams showing what our own names mean. These are Indian symbols made of different colors of felt. By putting them together we have a symbolgram which is entirely our own.

We talked about a party and decided that these people will be in charge: Treats, Carol Anderson and Linda Nelle; Games, Monica Waite, Patty Wilson and Mary Cindric. Cups for candy will be made by Janice Trausch, Maria Steiger and Denise Schenkel. Scribe, Linda Nelle.

Livonia Pioneer Girls Have Silver Anniversary

The Silver Anniversary of Pioneer Girls was celebrated here this week by a local chapter of the organization at Trinity Baptist Church of Livonia.

Sparkling the special pot luck dinner and awards presentation meeting was the arrival of an authentic covered wagon, symbolic of this international girls club organization which was started 25 years ago with a single chapter.

Since Livonia Trinity's parent church in Detroit holds charter number two, the local celebration had special significance for the more than 50 girls and parents who attended.

Ranks and badges were awarded to the following "Colonists" from Livonia and Redford Township: Nancy Mean, Audrey Buchanan, Sue Thiessen, Barbara Bowyer, Debbie Budd, Diane Sears, Donna Spencer, Diana Hobbs, Emily Sears and Janet Ryder.

The scale model covered wagon parked in front of the church was thoroughly inspected by the junior high age girls. It is an exact replica of the pioneers' overland homes, but it travels atop a special trailer during its year-long odyssey throughout the nation.

Red Cross Needs Help

"Spring recruitment for Detroit Chapter Red Cross Volunteers is underway with openings for at least 300 new workers," stated Mrs. Robert Busy, Chairman of Volunteer Recruitment.

"Both men and women are needed for service to our metropolitan Detroit area. A typical request has come from Carmel Hall for Hospital Volunteers to serve the needs of many elderly people. Special requests for men to volunteer this year have come from the City Psychiatric Area, now located at Herman Kiefer Hospital and from Veterans Hospital in Dearborn," she continued.

The varied activities of Red Cross provide many openings for anyone who has six hours of extra weekly time for volunteer service. A Hospital Volunteer spends time visiting with patients or writing their letters, or may be assigned to the Cerebral Palsy Center or the Rehabilitation Institute, for example.

In Service to the Military Family, the Red Cross Volunteer becomes a liaison between the government, the serviceman overseas and his family at home. Blood Program Volunteers help register donors as well as escorting them to the Canteen. Transportation service may entail driving other volunteers to Bloodmobiles on location.

Basic Red Cross orientation and training are afforded each new volunteer before he or she enters into her designated field of service. For further information call the Office of Volunteers at WO 1-3900.

Students Married in St. Paul

Miss Winifred Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Clark, 26575 Middlebelt Road, Farmington, and Jon Douglas Lusk, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert C. Lusk of Detroit, were united in marriage at 7 p.m., on Dec. 19 at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia.

Rev. Dr. William Whitledge performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of candlelight, holly, white poinsettias, and pine. The organist was Mrs. Katherine Rainey, and Mrs. Marge Rutter rendered vocal selections of "O Promise Me" and the Wedding Prayer.

The former Miss Moore, given in marriage by her stepfather, wore a floor length gown of bridal satin with an Alencon lace bodice embroidered with crystals and seed pearls. The skirt, with a front panel of matching lace, swept to a cathedral train in the back. A crown of seed pearls secured the silk illusion veiling. The bride's bouquet was a spray of phalanopsis orchids, holly, and white pine.

The maid of honor, Miss Judi Dusold of New York City, former roommate of the bride at the University of Michigan, was attired in a long gown of gold peau de soie with a bell shaped skirt. Her headdress was of silk illusion veiling, fastened by a velvet rose in matching gold and embroidered with tiny seed pearls.

The bridesmaids, in identical attire, were Miss Sandy Walters of Farmington, and Miss Lee Clark, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids carried like bouquets of golden garnet miniature roses with cratan leaves. Miss Allison Atherton, a former class-mate of the bride at the University of Michigan, was unable to participate in the wedding at the last minute due to the untimely death of her father.

The bridegroom chose as his best man Buck Lawson of Cheboygan, his roommate at the University of Michigan. Ushers were Dave Lusk, brother of the groom, in the service and stationed in Key West, Florida; Les Patterson of Detroit; Charles Royer, cousin of the groom, and Dick Shadell of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Clark, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding a beige satin sheath with an overcoat of floral printed beige silk chiffon. Her accessories were of matching beige satin, and her corsage a green and brown cyperium orchid. Mrs. Lusk, mother of the groom, wore a jacketed sheath of eggshell crepe overlaid with lace, and matching accessories. Her flowers, a green and brown cyperium orchid to match that of Mrs. Clark, completed her ensemble.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the social hall of the church. A buffet of punch and open-faced sandwiches was set for the guests, the table centered by a floral piece of white and gold mums accented by sprigs of pine and holly.

The bride has spent one year at the University of Michigan, and two at Central University. Currently she is attending Eastern, in Ypsilanti, where she is majoring in special education.

The groom, a student in the school of engineering at the University of Michigan, spent three years in the armed forces prior to beginning his college education. The couple has taken an apartment near their respective campuses, and are continuing their education.

Judge Lincoln Addresses RSL

The regular monthly meeting of the Redford Suburban League will be held Feb. 10 at the Kenwood Lounge. The Social Hour begins at 11:30 a.m., luncheon served at 12:30 p.m.

Janet Robertson, program chairman for the month, has arranged an interesting program. Judge Lincoln will be the guest speaker.

The League will welcome four new members this month: Verne Kemper, Barbara Moore, Charlotte Reis, Shirley Tomlinson and Lauretta Jackson.

The winners of Share the Wealth last month were Jeanette Long and Bernice Mutch, Bunny Lloyd and Shirley Hay. The attractive centerpiece was won by Marion Feeny.

Guests are welcome at this meeting. For reservations call Mary McDonald, KE 8-2821.

Even more interesting is the inside of the shop — stocked from ceiling to floor with bath and boudoir accessories.

"Fill your personal world with beauty" is the motto of the shop—and the type of merchandise found within would be enough to delight any age of homemaker.

All manner of shower sets, towels of rainbow hue and various sizes; myriad botique items; clever wrought iron and brass towel holders (some dainty hands), delicate china night lights are available for home-lift or gift.

Imports from Italy offer unique soap holders, glasses, and ceramic accessories. Hand painted bath and boudoir sets are a delight to the interior decorator in you. In fact you may bring in your own color scheme, have the set (which includes waste basket) painted to match.

But the real conversation piece—which is really new on the market are the Casbah Beads. No woman will be able to resist them (unless you are completely the tailored type)—and most men will be secretly fascinated by them.

They come in sets of 12 in shades of shocking pink, Bristol Blue, Verdian Green. They hang from your shower hooks down each peat—also each bead is knotted separately so they may be cut anywhere. They are used in New York, N.Y. as window curtains—and in some cases as room dividers. Oh, are they elegant—guaranteed to make you feel like Scheherazade as you step from your shower.

Amazingly enough all of this glamour may be purchased for $12.98 a set and are available in the most elegant of Bath and Boudoir Shoppes, Sharrad's, 942 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth.

Woman's Image Discussed By Madonna Head

The changing image of the American woman, her place in modern society, her new opportunities, new insights, the identity given to her was the theme of a talk to be given by Sister Mary Raynelda, president of Madonna College on February 2, at St. Damian Parish.

I'm Proud
(Editor's Note: Submitted by Livonia resident Bud Nusly, 27476 Whitcomb, Livonia, this article won a prize in Grit, the national farm and small-town newsweekly. He was awarded a $10 prize.)

I'm proud of my town for doing something about the needs of unemployed teen-agers.

The project was launched by the Livonia Commission on Children and Youth. It developed into a program with a full-time paid director and four part-time assistants in the Youth Employment Service.

Nearly 8,000 jobs—from one-time lawn mowings or baby-sitting jobs to full-time, permanent positions in industry—have been provided. The response from the teen-agers themselves was notable. Nearly 2,700 registered for full-time or part-time employment.

And all this in only 18 months!
Members of the commission are Miriam F. King, chairman; Jane A. Lamb, Rodney C. Linton, Helen A. Taddonio, the Rev. Jay Coulton, Louis J. Schmidt, and Benton Yates. The work is supported by the municipal government, headed by Mayor H. W. Moelke.

PICTURE TALK

by Les Wilson

HAS BAG . . . WILL TRAVEL

When you see the compact new KODAK INSTAMATIC 500 Camera in its new pouch-like carrying case, you immediately think of traveling with it. And I can't think of a better traveling companion than this camera.

In case you don't know much about KODAK INSTAMATIC Cameras, they represent a new idea in picture-taking that has literally started millions of people taking more pictures, better and more easily, than ever before. Even people owning expensive photographic equipment have seen that it also makes sense to own and use a KODAK INSTAMATIC Camera. The "500" is a unique INSTAMATIC Camera. In addition to the instant loading and instant readiness characteristic of this type of camera, it has an ultra-fast lens that lets you focus right down to 2 1/2 feet. The special COMPUR shutter can stop action down to 1/500th of a second. The electric-eye control not only gives you automatic control of exposure but it also provides for manual modification of a full stop up or down. The lens barrel retracts when the camera isn't in use so that it can be carried in purse or pocket and not take up much more room than a couple of packs of cigarettes. The pouch case of soft, black simulated leather closes with a zipper along two sides for easy handling.

There's so much more to be said about this camera that it takes a personal demonstration. Why not come in and see for yourself?

Plymouth Hi News

By CAROL OTWELL

One semester down and one to go. That's how it stands this week at PHS as the students and faculty begin the second semester of the 1964-65 school year.

The sophomores thought the first semester would never end, the seniors are wondering how the first half of their last year passed so fast, and the juniors are just glad it's over.

LAST MONDAY was the due date for the essays written in competition for the National Sororist Federation scholarship.

Fifteen seniors at Plymouth High are competing with 15 seniors from Northville High for the district contest. The winner will receive a $75 bond and a free dinner for himself and his parents. His essay will then be sent to national competition. The second and third place winners will each receive a $25 bond and a dinner for themselves and their parents.

The district winners will compete for the national prize which is a $2,500 scholarship to the school of his or her choice.

The topic this year is, "My Responsibilities as a Citizen in the Home, Community, and the World." The national winner will not be announced until June.

MEMBERS of Charlie Ketterer's Varsity basketball team are acting as referees for the Plymouth Community Junior Basketball League. The junior leaguers play on Saturdays at the Junior High West.

THE DATE has been set for the annual Quill and Scroll inauguration on Thursday night, March 18. Parents of the members of the high school faculty will be invited to the inauguration.

Officers of the club and old members will install the new members. Arrangements for a speaker have not been made as yet.

Old and new members of Quill and Scroll sold refreshments at the basketball game against Bentley last Friday as a money making project.

SANDY OLIN, a junior at Plymouth High, was recently installed as Worthy Advisor of the Plymouth Chapter of the Rainbow Girls. This is the highest honor that can be bestowed on a member of the local chapter.

Retiring as Worthy Advisor was Sandy's sister, Sharon Olin, a senior at PHS. The installation took place on Monday, Jan. 25, in the Masonic Temple.

SENIORS Sue Niemi and Gilla Rynning, our exchange student from Sweden, were the guests of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Plymouth on Jan. 18.

The girls gave an informal talk on life in Sweden at the dinner-meeting in Hillside Inn. Sue, who visited Sweden last summer, told of her experiences in that country and Gilla talked about her impressions of the United States and the American people.

Sue and Gilla will also be participating in Farmington

High School's program honoring Brotherhood Week, February 1-5.

Sue, along with the other PHS students who lived abroad last summer, will spend one day this week as guests of the Farmington High Exchange Club.

Thursday, Gilla and Lina Ribeiro from Brazil will go to Farmington and stay with FHS students until Saturday. High school students from all the surrounding schools and their exchange students will be participating in the program.

DPW News and Notes

By DPW Supt. Joseph Bida (News and notes of the Plymouth Department of Public Works are being handled by members of the department during the time that Supt. Bida is confined in St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor. Supt. Bida hopes to be back on the job within two weeks to a month.)

Department of Public Works crews were busy during the past week salting streets, cleaning sidewalks and parking lots of the accumulation of ice, snow, sleet and from the heavy rain of a week ago.

More than 300 tons of salt were dumped on the streets and the cost of labor, material and equipment was more than $4,000 for the job.

The department handled two funerals at Riverside Cemetery and devoted considerable time to clearing out limbs that fell during the sleet storm.

All main streets were cold patched to the best of the DPW ability considering the snow and ice. Catch basins were cleaned and a storm sewer dug on S. Mill Street near Amelia.

Any residents of the city needing sand or salt for their walks may have same by calling at the DPW yards at 950 Arthur Street between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. Please bring your own container.

Some alley pickups of garbage and refuse were not made last week due to the icy condition of the alleys. If you were missed, please place the garbage on the curb and it will be picked up. If there are any problems with this service, please call 453-1556.

Chrysler Begins Work on Plymouth Sales Building

New building activity in Plymouth Township had its traditional dip during January when Building Inspector Matt McClellan issued only three permits.

However, one was for the new Chrysler Corp. show and sales room at the southwest corner of Ann Arbor and Lilley Roads.

The building, which will house a Chrysler auto sales agency, has an estimated valuation of $127,500. Work started Monday on the 81x194 structure which has a target date of early summer.

Declares Dividend

Packaging Corporation of America has declared a quarterly dividend of 22½ cents per share payable April 10, 1965 to stockholders of record March 19, 1965.

ANYONE FOR BASKETBALL? That's what City Attorney Edward Draugelis asked members of his team of 10-12-year-olds during a practice session of the Plymouth Community Junior Basketball League at Junior High West. Draugelis, who played high school and college basketball in the Grand Rapids

Parents

The movement in Lake Pointe started a week ago when 800 letters were distributed house to house telling of the proposed meeting which was held last Thursday.

More than 35 attended—not a large representation—but enough to name a platform committee to draw up proposals for presentation to the Board and to name Howell as the official and only spokesman for the group.

The parents have secured the No. 1 spot on next Monday's Board agenda and plans have been made by the school administration to move the meeting to Junior High East if there is a large enough delegation to warrant it.

The original letter sent to parents asked the following questions:

Are you aware: 1—Sixth graders who belong in elementary schools now attend classes at Junior High West.

2—87 children and three teachers in the fifth grade at Farrand School use the gymnasium for a classroom.

3—Because the gym is in use, all grades have their gym classes in the hallway outside the overcrowded fourth grade rooms.

4—Only one-half of the gym is available for cafeteria purposes. With the increased number of students, the seating facilities are insufficient for all children who desire to eat lunch at school.

5—The fourth grade is divided 42-41-20 in rooms equipped for 30-30-15, until the new addition is available these rooms must accept all incoming fourth graders.

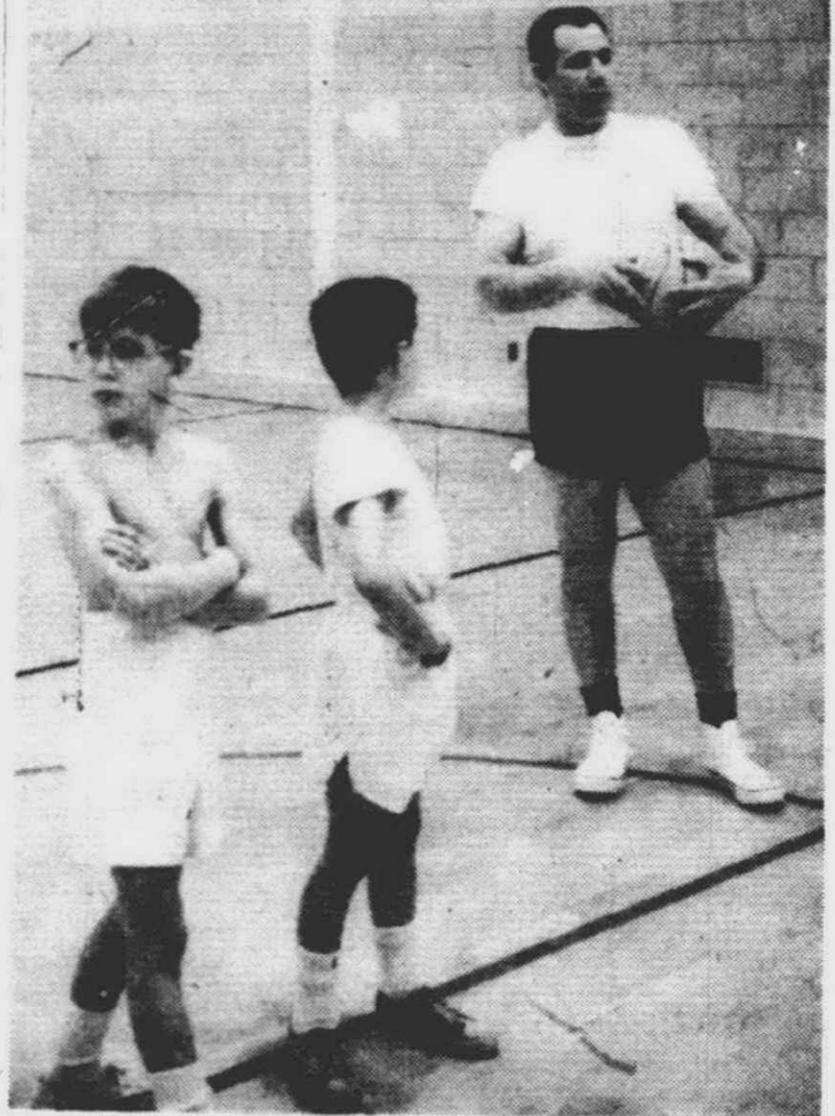

6—No clinic facilities are available for sick or injured children who would require a cot.

7—The principal no longer has office space for private conversations with students, teachers or parents.

The list of parents, who started the movement and who are named on the letter are:

Mr. and Mrs. Derald McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Childs, Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Howell, Mr. and Mrs. John Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Maher, Mr. and Mrs. James McAllister, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sigmon, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Visser, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Zalma, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Zerby.

Mayor, Lindsay

"The major fear of many white residents is that low income Negroes will bring in relatives to share their homes, thus violating zoning regulations and depressing the area."

"However, we have that same problem today in the City of Plymouth with low income white residents. We have many instances in the city where two or three families are crowded into single family dwellings."

Lindsay told the audience that he looks for no troubles if and when Negroes move into the township.

"In my 16 years as a real estate agent, I have always instructed my sales people to treat all customers with equality," Lindsay stated, "I believe that practically every realtor in the area has followed the same approach."

A realtor in the audience said he agreed with Lindsay but pointed out that if the deed-holder gave him instructions not to sell to Negroes, he had no other recourse than to comply or give up the sale.

Kenneth Way Attends Assessors' Meeting

Kenneth Way, Plymouth's city treasurer and assessor, left Tuesday morning for Iron Mountain to attend the third and last of a series of schools for assessors.

Way, president of the Michigan Assessor's Association, will participate in the school for assessors in the Upper Peninsula. Classes will be held on Wednesday and Thursday.

Florida, Tigers, Training Camp Welcome News to Plymouth Pair

"Only time will provide the answer. The management has asked me to report for the two weeks of early training and I'm anxious to get down to Lakeland and start throwing hard."

"I haven't had a twinge at any time in workouts thus far. I hope everything stays that way for there's nothing I'd like more than to become a major league pitcher."

That's how Fritz, tall and slender, feels about it. He has the same confidence in his ability today that he had during his collegiate days when he led Michigan to the Big 10 and NCAA championships in 1962.

That was the year that Michigan met Hosei University of Japan in a three-game world collegiate series in Hawaii and won three of the five-game series.

Fritz won two of Michigan's five games during the NCAA championship tournament and was voted most valuable player. He pitched and won two of the games in Hawaii and received similar honors there.

Then at the end of his collegiate career, he signed up with the Detroit Tigers—achieving a goal he had dreamed of as a high school player in Adrian.

He reported to the Tigers training camp a year ago and was with the club for the first month of the major league season. Then he was sent to Knoxville where he could get more work and had a 9-3 record there before transferring to Syracuse.

While at Knoxville, he was selected as a member of the league all-star team.

Fritz had a 2-2 mark at Syracuse and was pitching well one night when suddenly there was a twitch in his pitching arm and his hurling was over for the season. It was found later he had a chip in the elbow.

That has since been corrected and now Fritz starts a new season with a new outlook and, he hopes, an arm that is just as good as ever.

Time will furnish the answer but in the meantime, the neighbors of the Scotts, who have taken a liking to the soft-spoken Fritz, are wishing him and Allison the best of luck.

All would like to go down to Tiger Stadium this summer, join Allison in the stands and watch their favorite southpaw win. Fritz and his wife hope this is the story of the 1965 season.

But at the moment, both are anxiously watching the calendar and are marking time for the day they start for Lakeland, warmer weather and a new life.

(Continued from Page 1) up the option; but meanwhile, the Commissioners will have to sit tight until they are told of the decision.

Commissioner George Lawton, a prime backer of the Industrial Park, the industry questioned the wisdom of allowing a commercial firm to locate there. He appeared satisfied when it was brought out that the land, is available, would be thrown open for bids. Lawton told the Commission there was a possibility that backers of a motel could be interested.

Calhoun, who has indicated he will move out of his present quarters on S. Main, told the Commission, earlier that he is thinking in terms of a site of seven or more acres. He also told the Council that he hopes to be in his new site, wherever it may be, by the end of the summer.

Commissioner Robert Beyer was appointed acting mayor for the next two weeks during which time Mayor Richard Wernette and Mayor Pro Tem James Houk will be out of town on vacations in Florida.

After a half-hour public hearing, during which several residents in the area expressed feelings against the paving of Hartsough from Roosevelt to the Symar subdivision, the Council voted to table the matter pending additional information on costs.

Completes AF Course

Airman 2/C Everett H. Klein, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Klein, 8147 Ravine Drive, Plymouth, has graduated from the technical training course for U. S. Air Force nuclear weapons specialists at Lawry AFB, Colo.

OH, THOSE SUBURBAN ROADS!

Observing the Scene

Parents! It's Up to You...

By MYRA CHANDLER

A couple of weeks ago we had an editorial entitled 'Censorship is Dynamite', indicating, of course, that censorship is as dangerous as dynamite. And so it is in the hands of the wrong people. But dynamite is also a most useful item — in the right hands. In order to build, the use of dynamite is frequently needed first.

Censorship, in the opinion of this writer, should be in the hands of parents for their own children.

The Post Office said sales of smutty books and magazines through the mail is on the increase — and the newest craze to hit newsstands is the nudist publications. Pornography can be attacked through the U.S. Post Office.

But, better still, if parents would boycott the smutty book, for themselves as well as their offspring, those making a living off them would go another route. They do not publish this type of thing just for the maladjusted market in our world. No, this is big business, and apparently it is on the rise.

The answer is not 'citizens for decent literature committees' — it's not committees at all. No, the answer is in families for decent literature — mothers and fathers, setting an example of good reading habits and personally taking the time to not only look at what their child is reading, but actually see it. There is a difference, you know.

One Redford Township mother was cleaning out her son's closet and decided to discard some of his hot-rod magazines! Among them she found some shockingly smutty magazines. The mother was aghast and followed it through right to the company publishing the trash. She found they had gotten her son's name from a list they purchased from a hot-rod magazine. The Post Office advises parents to watch the mails and report any such magazines being sent to youth in their home.

No parent would remain apathetic if their child killed someone with a gun. No parent remains indifferent if their son or daughter is killed by driving when drunk. It certainly happens, all too frequently.

But take it back a step — many, many parents allow their children to watch one shoot-up movie after another on television — in fact encourages them to do so. And all too many parents allow the small drink in the home, or the two-punch bowl party.

The number of children from 10 on up, sent or taken to see "adult only" movies shocked one manager of a local theatre.

In fact he said when Tom Jones ran in his movie house he stood outside and kept repeating it was an "adult only" movie. More parents than not, looked at him like he was some kind of nut — and pretty soon this is how he felt, and so he discontinued doing this.

One father brought his daughters to an early show, came in to buy some cigarettes and saw that "Sex and the Single Girl" was the movie. The father bawled the manager out for having such a movie at the theatre — but he left his girls there to see it anyway.

An all time low rating was given "Kiss Me Stupid" by the 'Legion of Decency'. Parent-Teacher magazine and a good friend of mine who felt like taking a bath with "White Tornado" after viewing it.

Yet she felt the majority of the audience was made up of dating teen-agers and it made her heart sick.

With the sweater girl being replaced by the bikini girl and the word love by the word sex, we parents must put the brakes on now. No need to go to a meeting — in fact if we parents would go to less meetings we would have more time, to not only read ourselves, but supervise what our kids are reading as well as viewnig.

A Tribute to Dedication

Twenty-five years is a sizeable span in a man's life. Tomorrow evening the citizens of South Redford School District will formally recognize twenty-five years of dedication and service to the cause of good education in South Redford.

Just 26 years ago last September, South Redford Superintendent of Schools, Merlin D. Roe, came to work in the district. He assumed a teaching position at the Fisher School. So, in reality, the grateful citizens of the district are saying "thanks" for more than a quarter of a century of service.

Following a tour of duty in the U.S. Navy during World War II, the young school-teacher returned to the small school district. This time, however, he assumed the duties of principal of the Fisher School.

Then, approximately 18 years ago, the easy-going gentleman moved from coping with the problems of one school to wrestling with the multi-problems of an entire District.

The fact that he won the match is exemplified in the growth of the District: from four elementary schools, to 12 schools on the elementary, junior and senior high levels. During those 18 years the school age population of the District has gone from 1,800 students to 8,500. In other words, South Redford Schools is now a four and a half million dollar "business" annually.

Schools are not bricks and mortar, however. Neither are they comprised of statistics. Schools are rather ideas.

A good education is achieved by the exposure of the student to ideas. Bricks and mortar help to convey ideas, but they do not make up the substance of the educational process.

On this intangible level the South Redford School District has grown in the comprehensive programs at all levels of the District. Libraries in each school, language programs in the elementary schools, providing leadership in each school which is easily accessible to all students are only a partial listing.

It is a tribute to the citizens of the South Redford School District that they realize the two sides of the "business" of education. For it is because of this realization that they have grouped together to honor the man who has done so much to balance and integrate the two-sided prong of the "business" of education.

'READER SPEAKS UP': 'Guilty of Half-Truths'

Editor:

I wish to take this opportunity to answer the insinuations and half-truths put forth by Dr. Daniel C. Allen in the "Livonia Council Comments" column which appeared in your newspaper January 20, 1965. In my opinion, Dr. Allen is guilty of the "propaganda", "brainwashing", and forcing public opinion of which he accuses your newspaper and the Livonia Board of Education.

When Dr. Allen cited the headlines and articles which appeared in your newspaper during the months of November and December regarding schools, he failed to make mention of the fact that in each case, the article pertained to one particular school area, not five separate problems. Anyone who has been following these articles would know they pertain to the Cooper School area, and if Dr. Allen has any doubts about the justification of the parents' "demands", or the need for a new school, I would be happy to personally take Dr. Allen on a tour of Cooper School.

Furthermore, Dr. Allen insinuates that the Nankin area of the Livonia School District is responsible for much of the increase in school taxes. True, our children do cost money to educate, but the esteemed councilman neglected to point out that we, too, pay our share of the taxes. While the Nankin portion of the district makes up about 12% of the school population, we pay approximately 12% of the school tax.

True, the North Nankin residents have recognized the importance of supporting the schools, and the need for adequate funds with which to operate a progressive, expanding system. However, I would like to remind Dr. Allen that a majority of Nankin residents approved the last school bond issue, and not one cent of this money was spent in Nankin, but on schools within the Livonia city limits. The education of children, whether they live north or south of Joy Road will continue to be our major concern.

In conclusion, I ask this councilman not to place all the blame of increased taxes on the schools, or on Nankin, but recognize that this is a young, expanding suburban area undergoing tremendous growing pains. We can only hope to resolve these problems by cooperation between city, township and school administrations, and HONEST communication with the residents involved. The recent meetings held by the school board with Livonia and Nankin officials is a step in the right direction.

Sincerely,
CONSTANCE HIERTA

Questions for Assessor

Editor:

Would you please print the following letter in your newspaper, so that more tax payers of Livonia can see just what is going on as far as taxes are concerned, and the reason for it according to our assessor.

The Original of this letter was mailed to our City Assessor. Thank you for printing it. City Assessor Milton Holly 33001 Five Mile Road Livonia, Michigan.

Dear Sir: In reading my copy of the Livonian Observer, dated December 23, 1964, you made the statement that TAX BILLS GO OUT; and that $40-$50 average hike in taxes, on account of the reduction of $4 million reduction in property taxes that was allowed the General Motors Corp., yet this corporation reports of making billions of dollars in 1964. It could not pay its fair share of their property taxes in Livonia.

Your statement of $40 to $50 is not correct as far as my property taxes are concerned for 1964. The following is my increases of property taxes for 1964, according to my tax bill received. You also make statements to new homes and old homes, but you do not define an old home and a new home.

My home was built in 1947 and to date it is assessed at $7,441. Is this what you call a new home? My school taxes have increased this year $94.51 over last year's taxes, and I received nothing for it. My taxes on my house have increased this year $129.31. Is this still your idea of a new home and your reductions which you speak about in the Livonian Observer of December 23, 1964?

Why do you fabricate such falsehoods and lies about our taxes when it's not the truth?

Yet you, and Mayor Moelke, and our City Clerk were very much opposed during the re-assessment by the county, according to my records and don't forget that I have a picture that you have taken at one of the meetings which were held in the County Building. Yes, it makes a difference as to who gets the reductions of taxes, such as yourself, and Mayor Moelke.

Students Pay

In the January 20 issue of the Farmington Observer, I read a letter, regarding the Clarenceville Public Schools lunch program, written and signed by "A taxpayer who wants no charity."

He states that he pays taxes to the school, to put on dinners serving 2331 meals. Insinuating that the meals are paid for by the taxpayers.

This is most misleading, and not true. Now for the truth, and on record.

The lunches are not free, but are sold to the students, teachers, and other school officials who wish to buy. The prices charged are high enough to cover cost of all food stuffs used, all labor involved, and replacement of some items of equipment used in the cafeteria and kitchen.

Therefore, the Clarenceville School lunch program is self supporting and not an item of expense to the taxpayer.

William G. Lawrason
Former member of the Clarenceville School Board

'Disgusted, Revolted'

Editor:

It was with great concern and much disgust that I read two items in the January 20 edition of your paper. The first of these was the suggestion by Mayor Moelke that the Nankin section of our school district be arbitrarily severed from the geographical area of Livonia. To one who supported a "green" mayoralty candidate, it poses second thoughts that his punitiveness should be so evident.

Most people are aware that Moelke was the strongest fighter to incorporate the newly-lucrative tax base of the Westland area. Now, "Since we can't have their money, they can go fly a kite," is apparently his immature thinking.

It is recognized that there is a rationale that others, such as "Councilman" Allen, have put forth which will be welcomed with open arms by the money-hungry thoughtless in order to establish an educational Appalachia south of our city. "Livonia is a good system, why let those of lower means enjoy it," appears to be their theme. It should be recognized that this same "Appalachia" is willing to pay as high a tax rate as the "upper crust" north of Joy Road in order to get a good education for their children.

Then, about our "good" Councilman Allen: is he going to take out his feelings against the governmental agencies by punitively lashing out against the one agency that has to come to the people for every penny of operation? Does he wish to insure a poorer education for children just because he is "mad" at the state and federal governments for their irresponsibility in taxation methods? This is about as rational as a parent telling his own child that he can't have something he wishes because grandfather is a brute, and then says to the child "I'll show you that he can't tell me what to do."

This leaves me with the fear that we have selected some officials to direct our municipal affairs who are as short-sighted as any possibly can be.

Here's to Livonia—whether we love our children or not.

Respectfully yours,
ONE WHO SUFFERS FROM REVULSION

P.S. I am a resident of Livonia for more than five years, and live considerably north of Joy Road. However, being connected with the educational profession for some thirteen years, I speak not from total ignorance.

Truth About Textbooks

Editor:

A recent edition of your newspaper contained a lengthy commentary on a variety of subjects. Many of the statements could be challenged; however, I will confine my remarks to the question "Why isn't there available a complete list of textbooks used in our school systems so that interested parents might have an overall picture of the type of education their child will get?"

Parents of high school students received a complete printed list of textbooks by subject, author and cost prior to the opening of school last fall. Additional copies undoubtedly are available for the asking.

During the Junior High School parent visitation night each teacher reviewed the subject matter being taught. The books themselves are brought home regularly. The same format was used when our children attended elementary school.

Anyone who reads your paper (not just the headlines) and puts forth a little effort to take advantage of the numerous opportunities afforded all citizens will surely become more knowledgeable. Availability of information is one thing—taking advantage of it is something else. That is our responsibility.

Sincerely,
MRS. RICHARD JOYNER
Livonia

Who's Glib?

Editor:

Mrs. Chandler's column of January 27 illustrates the smug self-satisfied thinking I find repugnant in an important newspaper.

In the last part of the column, she castigates a Town Hall speaker for being "glib... on many serious subjects." This man thought America "stupid for always betting on the wrong horse." She then went on to extol the virtues of the United States: "WE work for freedom everywhere. We cannot stand to see any man go to bed cold, hungry or wet or sick..." She contrasts us with France: "scheming, crafty and selfish." Very patriotic.

But a few paragraphs above, in arguing against County Home Rule, Mrs. Chandler tells us how she really feels. In an outburst she acknowledges may be "self-preserving, selfish, Ayn Randism or any other name." She states that "suburbia does not want to take over Detroit's welfare problem... er... program." NOW who is being "glib on a serious subject," Mrs. Chandler? Where is the compassion that does not allow us to see any man hungry, cold or sick? Who is scheming, crafty and selfish?

Which shall it be, Mrs. Chandler—Ayn Randism or compassion?

Martin Magid
Good point. Hamener writes in observing "suburbia's" attitude in this case, not formulating it.

Library Censorship Kiss of Death

Farmington area citizens will soon be asked to approve additional millage, to build a new library branch at 12 Mile Rd., east of Farmington Rd.

There is presently only one library in Farmington, that at the southern flank of the community. Anyone who has visited it, in the early evening, knows that it is enthusiastically patronized by students, and is already overcrowded. A branch of Oakland Community College will open in Farmington Township in the fall, and will have to draw on our library facility.

A new library branch is clearly needed. But what is perhaps even more urgently needed is a new intellectual climate — not just in Farmington but in all the suburban areas of the nation.

The pressures of conformity and anti-intellectualism are threatening the very vitality of suburbia's libraries.

People who seldom read anything are banding together to dictate what other people ought not to read.

Many of these are decent citizens—not Birchite vigilantes. But they are not literary critics. They are not in the main stream of intellectual thought. And they ought not to be telling other people what to read.

A week does not pass without the Farmington Library receiving at least one call demanding that "Catcher in the Rye" be taken from the shelves. How these people would react if they discovered a genuinely controversial book on the shelves is frightening to contemplate.

And one wonders how Oakland Community college could teach a course in contemporary literature without "Catcher in the Rye" and other books of its calibre available.

The Farmington Area Library has not given in to this "Know-Nothing" nonsense. Other libraries can make the same proud statement. But the pressure appears to be mounting.

As Adlai Stevenson observed: "the way of the egghead is hard."

The Great Society... Another Point of View

Is the Great Orgy to be a sample of what to expect under the Great Society?

There was a splendid sample on the eve of the inauguration of the President and Vice-President — a sample that would have brought blushes to the inhabitants of historic Sodom and Gomorrah!

According to the report of an Associated Press correspondent and eye witness of the doings — "High brow, middle and low, the 'Great Society' was jumping from fugues to fruges. Whiskey flowed like campaign promises. The mink which flowed through the hotel lobbies would make Miami look like a poor farm."

"The Texas Society had an intimate bash for 2,000 at the Statler. They had 18 bars and enough bourbon to keep the Alamo still holding out."

"By dawn today the Young Democrats were Old Democrats and the Great Society had a great hangover."

Is this the Society that is going to set an example to the rest of the world. God help us all.

Crime Lives In Suburbia Too

Many, who have moved to the suburbs, have done so because of the rising crime rate in the cities. Statistical studies support the view that lawlessness is growing in the metropolitan areas of the nation.

Many experts on urban affairs, however, question the pertinence of these statistics. The apparent crime rise, they feel, is actually the result of the growing number of calls, which police are receiving from the public; and of the growing efficiency of the police in handling the calls.

The annual report of the Farmington Police Force, released last week, supports this view.

It shows that larcenies rose from 147 in 1963 to 372 in 1964; that auto thefts rose from 238 in 1963 to 357 in 1964; that drunk driving rose from 17 in 1963 to 80 in 1964; that malicious destruction of property rose from 24 in 1963 to 152 in 1964; that reports of sexual deviation rose from 143 in 1963 to 310 in 1964.

These are the statistics, as compiled, with admirable candor by the Farmington City Police Dept. But the picture they paint of a city suddenly gone lawless is not at all accurate.

What the statistics actually mean is that the Farmington Police Dept.—employing the latest law enforcement techniques—posted an outstanding record of apprehending law-breakers.

When we in the suburbs begin to feel smugly superior to our city cousins we would do well to recall the Farmington crime figures —and the reasons for them.

Head of J. L. Hudson's Westland Store Named

Promotion of John W. Harms to the new position of vice-president and manager of branch stores was announced this week by Joseph L. Hudson junior, president of the J. L. Hudson Company.

Hudson also announced the promotion of Robert E. Sturwald from manager, branch budget stores, to assistant manager and superintendent of Hudson's new Westland store now under construction at Warren and Wayne roads, Nankin Township.

Harms, who joined the J. L. Hudson staff in 1947 as a research assistant, has been manager of the company's Eastland store since August, 1959. He assumed his new post February 1 and will become responsible for directing the management of all Hudson's branch stores. Harms is a native of Bridgeport, Connecticut, and earned a bachelor of science degree at the University of Oregon. Sturwald has been with the Hudson organization since 1937, when he started his career in the stock room. He became an assistant buyer and then a buyer in Hudson's downtown base-ment store, and in 1948 was advanced to assistant divisional merchandise manager in base-ment-store ready-to-wear.

In 1957, Sturwald was appointed base-ment-store merchandise manager of Hudson's Eastland, and a year later was chosen to manage Hudson's base-ment store in the Lincoln Park Plaza. When the Hudson company inaugurated its budget-store division in 1960, Sturwald was placed in charge of branch budget units.

In his new assignment, which becomes effective immediately, Sturwald will help prepare for the opening of the new Westland store, which is scheduled for late next summer.

In the final analysis it's the results that count—not big plans or broken promises.

Arrow Auto-Wash to Open With 10-Day Celebration

Television and radio sets will be awarded the winners of contests during the Grand Opening of the ultra-modern Arrow Auto Wash, located at the corner of Grand River and Orchard Lake Roads in Farmington.

The grand opening starts Thursday, Feb. 4 and continues through Saturday, Feb. 13.

During that time, Arrow will offer a first prize of a color television set, a second prize of a portable television set and 25 transistor radios, for winners of contests to be held on the final day of the opening celebration.

In addition, the auto wash will have gifts for all customers during the 10-day celebration.

Arrow actually opened its doors for business on Dec. 20 but L. B. Greenbury, owner of the auto wash, delayed the grand opening until he had secured a competent working crew. He also streamlined the operation during the period to assure all customers of a thoroughly clean car.

"We have the newest and best equipment available today," Greenbury said, "We have incorporated every possible safety feature and have employed a chemist to analyze our soaps, detergents and waxes. In addition, we have made every possible effort to eliminate any interference with street traffic on Grand River and Orchard Lake Roads."

Arrow is affiliated with Standard Oil and prices of car washes are reduced according to the volume of gas purchased at the adjoining pumps.

"With a full crew, we have the capacity of handling more than 100 cars per hour," Greenbury pointed out, "We normally will employ 30 to 40 men daily. Even then we anticipate no problems with street traffic since we have a large stacking area for cars."

Cars may enter the auto wash from either Orchard Lake or Grand River. Drivers stop first at the gas pumps and then drive to the rear of the property where employees take the car.

The car goes through 20 cleaning operations. First it is steamed, floor mats taken out and scrubbed and the inside vacuumed. Then it passes through large air doors which maintains constant temperature and humidity control in the building.

Next, the vehicle passes through a power wash which features a high power spray to loosen grime and mud. Automatic wheel washers move in to steam-clean the wheels.

As the car leaves the wheel washers, large brushes spread a detergent along the side and top. Then it goes through the sudser which dispenses a special detergent for the final wash. This detergent is spread by a six-man crew using hand brushes and scrub to insure real cleaning.

Two stand in pits to get lower chrome and rocker panels, two clean the upper area and windows and two the front and back, including the grill and bumpers.

The car then moves through a final power rinse, is sprayed with jet wax and finally passes through two blowers which spread and set the wax and finally dry it.

In the meantime, two men are inside the car cleaning the windows, the dash and the rear window deck and a crew of wipers finish the exterior.

The auto wash is under the management of Wayne Nowels, Zory Sarkisian and Patricia Traynor.

Buzzer Basket Defeats Falcons

A heart-breaking defeat came to Farmington's high's basketball team last Friday night. After leading Waterford most of the way, Farmington yielded to a pressing defense in the final quarter and then lost out on a last-second shot by a 74-72 score.

Farmington had gone into the final period with a 60-49 margin and appeared headed for an easy triumph.

But when Waterford turned to a pressing defense, it was Farmington which got the jitters. Some bad passes and some missed charity throws hurt badly.

With 1:15 left in the game, a basket by Rick Ziem brought Farmington even at 72-72.

Farmington got the ball and missed. Waterford regained possession with 55 seconds to go.

Then after a time out, the Waterford team stalled until five seconds remained. Dave Farris took a shot, only to miss.

However, Mike Freeland, a 5-8 guard, was "Johnny-on-the-spot" for Waterford. He snared the rebound and let loose a 12-foot jumper.

The ball was in the air when the gun sounded.

Swish it went . . . through the hoop . . . and Waterford led for the only time in the game.

But it was the time that counted the most.

Ziem and Dave Farris had 18 points each for the winners, while John Olander caged 27 to pace Farmington, Mike Wilson was next with 19.

Farmington jumped ahead by a 17-14 score in the first period and reached the halftime break with a 36-34 edge.

Then came a fine third-period effort by Farmington with Olander, Roy Leach and Wilson leading the way to shoot Coach Jack Quiggle's team in front by 11 points entering the closing quarter.

It was then that the roof fell in on Farmington.

"I guess we'll have to work a lot now on what to do when the other team presses us," said Quiggle.

The reserve score was just as close. Farmington again lost . . . by a 49-47 count. Fritz Simmons tallied 13 points for the losers.

The Farmington varsity box score:

Player	G	F	P
John Olander	10	7	27
Roy Leach	3	7	13
Mike Ames	0	1	1
Terry Taggart	1	0	2
Mike Wilson	9	1	19

Franklin Victor In Wrestling

The first two men scored victories via falls and set the pattern for Franklin High's wrestling team to trounce Oak Park, 31-14, in a non-league meet last Thursday.

Mike Townsend (135 pounds), Dennis Frazer (148) and Lynn Hildenbrand also won their matches for Franklin by winning their rivals.

The Franklin results:

- 95 pounds—Ernie Mark, pinned rival.

Rocks Rally to Stun Bentley Cagers

Jim Lake—the toast of Plymouth High School! Why not? It was Jim and his scoring which paved the way for the Rocks to register a stunning 50-47 upset victory over Bentley in the Plymouth gym last Friday night.

All Lake did was to score 11 of his team's 12 points in the final period as the Rocks rallied from a 40-38 deficit to overtake their arch-rivals from Livonia.

For Bentley, the defeat knocked the Livonians out of a share of first place with Trenton.

This means that Trenton now holds forth on top with a 5-1 record. Bentley and Allen Park share second place with 4-2 records with four games left to go in league play.

OBSERVING SPORTS

When you bounce around like we have with the Detroit Pistons of late—to New York five times in a month . . . to Philadelphia . . . Boston . . . St. Louis . . . Cleveland . . . Toledo . . . Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne . . . you're bound to run across some strange occurrences.

That we did the other day in New York City in the hotel across the street from Madison Square Garden, the famed indoor sports palace.

When, with other members of the Pistons contingent, we reached the hotel, we found it surrounded by screeching young ladies . . . who were the ages of those who attend Bentley or Plymouth or maybe North Farmington high schools.

We have to hope and pray, however, that the gals in these parts don't act the way the young ladies did in New York.

They (the New York lassies) were screaming and swooning. They were crashing the entrances of the hotel, only to be thrown out.

IT SO HAPPENS that the Pistons weren't the only celebrities stopping at the hotel.

Cassius Clay, the world's heavyweight boxing champion was there, too, but the gals couldn't have cared less.

Their main target was to try and brush up and touch one of the Animals.

Now, you all certainly must know who the Animals are! Another version of the Beatles from England. So I'm told.

They were in New York and the U.S. for some appearances—most notable of which was the Ed Sullivan show.

We didn't see them on TV. But we did come down the elevator with a couple of them and when we stepped into the lobby . . . the gals outside started to roar and frankly we got a strange feeling . . .

Could these girls be entranced by what they saw in us?

Of course, not.

There was one of the Animals right behind us.

The same thing happened to Pistons Executive Manager Don Watrick. Don's 54 . . . and didn't realize that an Animal was a fellow passenger on an elevator.

When the gals let loose, Don was astonished. He was disappointed to discover the girls weren't interested in him . . . That it was an Animal that had lured these New York misses to skip school and stand in deep snow.

AS FOR US . . . we couldn't find, that having breakfast within a couple feet of the Animals was any more exciting than it is back home when Cracker (our dog) usually provides the only morning company for us.

We'd have to shoot our sons if they permitted their hair to grow the way the Animals do.

But, in case there is a coed at Franklin or Clarenceville or Sorrows who would like to know a little more about the Animals, they struck us as a pretty quiet lot as they munched away at their scrambled eggs, bacon, etc.

None of the quartet had much to say. When the hotel manager introduced us to one (of the Animals), the Animal was pleasant and readily signed an autograph for our daughter, Julie.

We talked a little about London, since we had spent about two years there during World War II as a reporter for the Stars and Stripes, the Army newspaper.

"Things have changed in London," the Animal said. "You wouldn't recognize Fleet St. (where the newspaper was published). New buildings are up everywhere."

The Animal told us he was delighted with the reception the group has received in the United States.

The mob outside was nothing new. The gals in London acted the same way.

Certainly, we had to think that if the Animals were to come to Livonia or Redford Township or Plymouth or Farmington, our girls would stay cool and calm and collected.

Or was that just wishful thinking on our part? Oh, yes, we were excited to get all the autographs. We thought that daughter Julie would rush the piece of paper to school and show it around.

She didn't.

Franklin Fouls Net Park Win

The strategy worked . . . but the fouls backfired.

The net result was a 54-40 loss for Franklin against Oak Park last Friday night in their Northwest Suburban League basketball battle.

Coach John Hartsig wanted to slow down the Oak Park team, which shares the league lead with Birmingham Groves.

For the first half, Franklin succeeded and at the halftime intermission the score read, 23-20, in favor of the Livonians.

During those first 16 minutes of action, Franklin had stopped Oak Park's vaunted attack and limited the northsiders to just four baskets.

"But we were getting ourselves into foul trouble," lamented Hartsig later.

With Hartsig forced to use two of his regulars sparingly to start the third period, Oak Park was able to get his fast-breaking offense going.

Once Oak Park set matters into motion, the team was tough to contain.

The third period resulted in the Parkers outscoring Franklin, 17-7. In the final period, the scoring differential was 17-10.

Sam Antonazzo topped the losers, but he was able to garner only four baskets and one free throw for nine points.

Paul Katosh was next with eight points, hitting three hoops and two free throws.

In the reserve game, Franklin enjoyed far greater success, winning by a 52-24 count as Carl Gulbranson scored 16 and Steve Atkinson 10.

The Franklin scoring:

Player	G	F	P
Tom Cannon	3	0	6
Ray Porter	2	3	6
Dale Lee	2	1	5
Al Jose	0	1	1
Sam Antonazzo	4	1	9

R. U. Victors In a Thriller

There was no chance to relax last Friday night as Redford Union squeezed to a 69-66 basketball victory over Belleville.

It was ding-down all the way and it took a buzzer shot by Orin Newton to give Redford Union more than just a one-point margin at the finish.

Belleville had fought back from a nine-point deficit (53-44) after the third period to make matters hot for Coach Milo Karhu's Townshippers.

However, Redford Union never relinquished the lead in the closing stages.

Belleville went ahead, 16-15, after the first quarter but by halftime it was 35-31 for Redford Union.

In the first half, three players accounted for all of the Redford Union scoring. Lee Bjerke had six points in the first period and eight in the second. Mike McCrea four in the first and 10 in the second . . . and Al Maebach . . . five in the first and two in the second.

It was Bjerke's outside shooting over the Belleville zone which helped tremendously and McCrea's eight successes in nine free throws in the first half.

In the third period, Redford Union outscored Belleville, 18-13, with McCrea adding eight points, Maebach five and Newton four to lead the way.

When Belleville started to get close in the last period, Newton delivered six points and Baumgartner and Maebach came through with some key shots from the free-throw line.

McCrea was the hero point-wise for Redford Union. He notched 25 in the game on seven baskets and 11 for 13 from the foul line.

Bjerke had 15, Maebach 13 and Newton 10 to finish in double figures.

The RU reserves lost in a squeaker, falling by a 47-45 score. Charles Livernois tallied 16 for RU's second stringers.

The RU varsity box score:

Player	G	F	P
Mike McCrea	7	11	25
Lee Bjerke	7	0	14
Al Maebach	5	3	13
Orin Newton	5	0	10

2nd Period Lapse Hurts St. Agatha

A bad second period led to the downfall of St. Agatha's high's basketball team last Friday night.

After outscoring St. Frederick, 20-19, in the first period, St. Agatha was outshot, 21-9, in the second and never was able to get close the rest of the way.

The final score read: St. Frederick 72, St. Agatha 56.

Mike Roemer notched 19 points for the losers while Pat Murphy scored 12, Rick Collins 10, Dan Lilley nine, Mike Daniels four and Dan Pavlat two.

The St. Agatha reserves also lost, bowing by a 51-43 score as Terry Phillips and Pat Timmons each tallied 11 points for the Townshippers.

The regular season ends this Friday night for St. Agatha as Royal Oak St. Mary's invades the Township.

The Townshippers then will have almost three weeks to prepare for the start of the state tournament.

Raiders' Comeback Subdues Thurston

Staying power is necessary in almost anything... especially in sports.

North Farmington had it Friday night and as a result gained a 68-59 win over Thurston in what had to be a crucial basketball battle for both teams in their respective bids for North-west Suburban League honors.

The triumph gave North Farmington a 4-2 record in the league, just one game off the pace being set by co-front runners Oak Park and Birmingham Groves, each of whom has won five and lost one.

Thurston is now 3-3. "I guess we'll have to play the role of spoilers from here on in," said Coach Mike Pasternak when the game was over.

Pasternak had no alibis in trying to explain why his team, which led, 48-45, after three quarters, was outscored by a 23-11 margin in the final period of play. "It's all very simple," said Pasternak.

"Each team took 14 shots in the last quarter. Theirs went in... at least eight of them did. That's fine shooting. We only made five. You can't win with that kind of shooting."

Rick Schultz and Rick Lorenz paced the fine comeback by North Farmington with seven and six points, respectively.

In addition, they were joined by John McDonald by giving North Farmington control of the boards when it counted the most.

North Farmington took an early 16-13 lead in the game, but Thurston bounced back to take a 33-32 edge by half time.

In the third period, North Farmington fell behind by three points, but then had "it" in the closing eight minutes.

Schultz was the winners' top scorer with 24 points as he scored nine baskets and six free throws. Lorenz notched nine baskets for 18 points and McDonald tossed in seven from the floor for 14.

Overall honors in the game went to John Page, the Thurston star, with 26 points on 12 baskets and two free throws. Coach Dick Wilson of North Farmington was proud of the way his team finished.

"The kids never lost their poise," said Wilson. "Now we're still in the race and we have a shot at both Oak Park (this Friday night) and Groves in the weeks ahead. Those two teams also have to face each other head-on."

"We could still take the honors. You never know."

The complete box score:

McDonald	7	14	12	2	26	2	4
Schultz	9	24	12	0	4	0	0

North Farmington	16	13	23	68

DRIVING IN for a basket goes Ron Watson of North Farmington. Two Thurston players charged into Watson on the play. He was awarded a free throw and made it. North Farmington won.

Trojans Fall To Milford 5

Playing "catchup" in sports is tough to do.

Clarenceville high's basketball team found it last Friday night in losing to Milford, 69-53.

Before Clarenceville knew what was happening, Milford had run up a 15-0 lead.

At the end of the first period, Milford was in front, 21-10.

During the first eight-minute span, Milford notched eight of 16 shots for 50 percent. Clarenceville had to settle for just four successes in 12 tries.

The rest of the way the game was "tight." But the damage had been inflicted.

Coach Bob McKillop of Clarenceville wondered if perhaps a breakdown in the bus carrying the team to the game might have had something to do with the results.

"We were up for the game, but when the original bus was delayed because of brake trouble, it might have taken something out of us as we stood around and had to wait," said McKillop.

The team had suffered a similar experience the week before.

Only Chris Hawkins with 11 points and Danny Freels with 10 scored in double figures for the losers.

The Clarenceville reserves also were drubbed, losing by an 86-48.

The Clarenceville varsity box score:

Franklin won nine of the events from Garden City West in posting the one-sided win.

Against Wayne, the meet went down to the final event—the 200-yard free style relay. Wayne came through in front in the race to gain his one-point conquest.

Brevik also won the individual medley, but had to settle for a third place in the backstroke against Wayne.

It's a FIRST: Bentley Natators Conquer Plymouth

Bentley high's swimming team scored a "double first" last Friday night.

Coach Larry Joiner's forces won their first meet of the season in beating Plymouth, 55-50.

It also marked the FIRST time a Bentley team ever had downed the Rocks—in swimming.

Dennis Rogissart and Jerry Young shared honors for Bentley in the victory.

Rogissart, a sophomore, won the individual medley and then came back four races later to take the backstroke.

Young triumphed in both the long free style events, the 200 and 400 yard.

Sprinter Dick Berry starred for Plymouth. After winning the 50-yard free style, Berry came back to anchor the Rocks' winning free style relay quartet.

Observing Sports

As we looked around, we spotted some of America's foremost sportsmen.

There was Yogi Berra, who managed the Yankees last year and now will be with the Mets... and Joe Louis, the ex-world's heavyweight king... and Clay... and basketballers like Wilt Chamberlain, Dave DeBusschere, Jerry West and Elgin Baylor.

Nobody swooned at these celebrities. A few, who recognized them in their civilian attire, said hello... or waved a hand.

At the evening's finish... after the Pistons had won and were rushing from the Garden to catch a plane back to Detroit, we took a last glimpse at the hotel across the street.

What most of them didn't know was that the Animals already had packed up... slipped out of a back door... headed for the airport and the six-hour flight back to London.

"Young Tom Edison" Slated for February

More than 12,000 elementary school students from Detroit and suburban schools will journey to The Detroit Institute of Arts the week of Feb. 15-19 to see a live stage production of the musical play "Young Tom Edison." Witnessed last year by the same number of students, this is the third stage production made available to metropolitan area youngsters by the Theatre Arts Department of the Museum.

The play dramatizes episodes in the life of Edison while he lived in Port Huron, Michigan as a young man. Produced by Harnick-Adams of New York, the play is on a limited tour of the middle west.

Previously, the plays have been available only through Detroit Public Schools and metropolitan area parochial schools but this year attendance is open to students from suburban area schools. Students attending are usually from the fourth through sixth grades and are brought

The club will meet at the Livonia Knights Inn. Fellowship hour will be from 6:30 to 7:30 with dinner served at 7:30 p.m.

Reservations may be made by mailing a $4 per dinner check to Dave Cooper at 9199 Roseland, Livonia.

"TWO ON A GUILLOTINE" opens Feb. 3 at State Wayne, Dearborn, Penn. and Terrace Theatres, the Dearborn and Algiers Drive Ins. Starring Connie Stevens in a dual role as the wife of the "World's Greatest Illusionist", Cesar Romero, and also as his daughter, the film features Dean Jones as the young reporter who falls in love with Miss Stevens.

Two Area Residents Will Perform at WSU

INTERLOCHEN, Mich.—The 100-member, teenage symphonic orchestra of the Interlochen Arts Academy will appear at Wayne State University Sunday (Feb. 7) night in its second appearance of a four-city concert tour of southern Michigan.

The performance, scheduled for 8:15 p.m. at WSU's Community Arts Auditorium, will include some of the major works of Haydn, Debussy, Hindemith, Wagner and Rimsky-Korsakov. The concert is open to the public.

The musicians, who range from 13 to 18 years old and have been called by one Philadelphia critic "as self-disciplined and confident in performance as any mature professional orchestra," open their tour Sunday afternoon at the University of Michigan, will appear at Eastern Michigan University Monday afternoon and in Grand Rapids Tuesday.

The academy, an outgrowth of the summertime National Music Camp, is in its third year as the first boarding high school in the country for youth talented in music, art, drama or dance. Coupled with these subjects is intensive instruction in a full range of academic subjects.

Sunday's concert will have two conductors, one the founder and president of both the camp and academy, Dr. Joseph E. Maddy, and the other the orchestra's regular conductor, Dr. Thor Johnson, academy director and conductor of the Chicago Little Symphony.

Sunday's program will include Franz Joseph Haydn's "Symphony No. 83 in G Minor," called "La Poule," or "The Hen," because of a clucking sound of an oboe in one movement.

Area members of the orchestra include: Jan Hopkins, 16, violin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Hopkins, 25253 Donald, and Linda Stark, 17, violin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Stark, 20175 Northrop.

In 1926, the Rev. John P. McNichols, S.J., University of Detroit president, purchased 64 acres of "swampland" at Six Mile and Livernois. Today this tract, plus additional acreage, comprises the main campus of the University of Detroit.

CURTAIN GOING UP

By WALLY ROBERTS

Chekhov's bucolic slice of realistic country life in "Uncle Vanya" is a far cry from the suburban frantic antics found in "Three Men on a Horse." No one will deny this premise. However, if one elects to do as difficult an acting experience as "Uncle Vanya" you must have talented people available.

Old Wally visited two university theaters this week. The U of M players in Ann Arbor made a valiant attempt to persuade audiences that "Uncle Vanya," the first U of M production of a full length Chekhov play, had great merit. As Director Burgwin states in his program note: "Although a father of realism and the writer of plays for which naturalistic acting was created, Chekhov is, for the English speaking theater of today, a problem in style as subtle and complex as the older classical dramatists."

Of the eight actors only one individual soloed this intricate problem of style. Tom Manning as Mikhaill Astrov, the Doctor, played his role with sensitivity and a superb sense of understanding. Chekhov's survey of society rang true and clear through Mr. Manning's solid grasp of all the tiny nuances and shadings of meaning so carefully built into the demanding Chekhovian drama. Kathleen Thompson as Sofia, the jilted young lady limned her role beautifully. At times, she slipped into some shoddy moments, but on the whole her portrayal was quite acceptable.

Director Burgwin did what he could to establish atmosphere. The Russian songs, the dim lighting, the Cossack-type curtain call—all added to the Slavic influence. In fact, I half expected to see a Samovar in the lobby for tea at intermission. The Moscow Art Theatre's manner by which an actor works from within cannot be brushed on from a can labeled "Acting Paint." Actors have to live, experience and generally have great maturity in the theater before they are able to handle a Chekhov play.

The University of Michigan players group, however, deserves an accolade for getting their feet wet with a full-length Russian play. "The Cherry Orchard" or "The Three Sisters" might be an ideal choice for next season. By the way, Zelma Welsfeld's costumes were superb and did much to give the actors visual support.

As I indicated earlier, the suburban hanky-panky found in "Three Men on a Horse" seemed several light years away from "Uncle Vanya." John Cecil Holm and George Abbott would be honored to be mentioned in the same column with Anton Chekhov. Abbott gained theatrical fame as one of Broadway's ace directors of farce. Mr. Holm is a reputable actor. Between the two of them they fashioned a top farce in "Three Men on a Horse."

Audiences at the Bonstelle Theater went home without any philosophic messages as you might after "Uncle Vanya." Smiles wreathed the faces of the happy throng as they ducked out into the sub-zero weather. In fact, the warmth and happiness generated in the theater spilled outside and I'll swear it warmed up the air for at least two blocks.

Thirty years ago "Three Men on a Horse" rocked Broadway in true comic fashion. Last week the Bonstelle Theater's rafters shook with solid laughter. Philip Piro gesticulated and grimaced so genuinely as though Erwin's problem were his own. Guffaws tumbled one upon the other. David Berg, his extremely mobile face and exaggerated actions, almost wrenched a few scenes away from the piliated Piro. Without a doubt Piro led the way. His timing, pacing, and sly verbal twists to the lines had all the earmarks of the professional actor in complete charge.

Rachel Dann, Robert Granfeldt, Karen Cutler, William Zeschin, Sam Blue, and John Buck formed a supporting cast that many a Broadway star would have loved to have had. They performed their smaller roles magnificently, adding to the evening's hilarity. Consistently, they built a scene to show-stopping proportions. The entire cast in this marvelous production of "Three Men on a Horse" deserve a standing ovation.

Settings by Russ Smith were unique and gave the play a delightful tongue-in-cheek spirit. By playing the show on huge wagon stages, the shifting of scenes was done in the twinkling of an eyelash, quite necessary for a comedy of this airy nature. Yes, the Wayne State Players can be quite proud of their revival of this classic farce of the '30's. Let's hope they do another one next season.

"HILLZAPOPPIN" production plans become more crystalized as additional personnel are added to the Redford Suburban League Theatre Guild's task force. The original musical play will be presented April 30, May 1 and 2 at the Redford Union High School. Chairman of properties Edna Hugger, left, is shown noting a comic script setting for Joan Morrison, hospitality chairman, Doris Weber, League president, and Maggie Gardner, secretary of the Guild.

Pat Flowers to Appear At Farmington's Danish Inn

Patrons attending the Danish Inn are certainly not conscious of any change. The tasteful beige and gold decor is still the same; likewise the outstanding service and fine food. Even genial Dick Bensek is still there to greet guests and cater to their needs.

Yet, there has been a change. The Danish Inn, 32305 Grand River in Farmington, is now owned by Farmington Inn, Inc.

However, the new owners assure all that all the things that have made the Danish Inn the smart supper club so popular with everyone will remain the same.

The cocktail lounge is separated from the main dining room by an openwork gold grille. An enormous fireplace and modern paintings provide a feeling of warmth and charm. The food is choice and besides luncheon there are complete dinners and the kitchen will now remain open to serve "after theatre" late snacks and sandwiches.

Dick Bensek, the manager, has been with the Danish Inn since December, 1961. Dick re-received his basic training and knowledge of restaurant operations working with his brother at The Casbah.

He frequently puts in an 18-hour day. "Sometimes I have a light day," he smiles, "then I only put in 12 hours." A staff of 22 people assist Dick and manage to keep things running with smoothness and efficiency.

There has been a change, though, in the entertainment. Pat Flowers, celebrated piano artist and night club entertainer, will be at the piano bar nightly Tuesday through Saturday. Many people will remember the Fabulous Pat, from his long engagement at Bakers Lounge. For years he has been one of the most popular entertainers in the Detroit area.

The specialty of the house? That, too, will be the same, according to Dick Bensek. "Good food and drink, excellently served, in friendly surroundings."

THOSE CALLOWAYS, the Walt Disney feature production, will open Feb. 5 at the Mai Kai Theatre in Livonia. Brian Keith (shown above), Vera Miles, Brandon de Wilde, Walter Brennan and Ed Wynn bring to life the backwoods Calloway family, and the small town folks in Swiftwater, Vt.

Farmington High Band Slaters Concert
 The Farmington High School concert band will present "La Cabaret," their annual winter band concert, on Feb. 19, at 8 p.m., in the High School gymnasium.

The band is under the direction of Robert H. Zimmerman, High School band director.

There will be two soloists featured at this year's concert. Senior Baritone Roger Cripps will play "Beautiful Colorado," accompanied by the full band and John Gordon, a French horn player, will play the "Third Horn Concerto." This solo will be accompanied by piano.

Livonian To Appear in Comedy

Rosemary Sutton of Livonia will appear in the Wayne Civic Players production of Hart and Kaufman comedy "You Can't Take It With You" Feb. 19, 20, 26 and 27.

President of the Wayne Civic Players, she will appear as the Mother, Penny, who is a playwright for eight years because a typewriter was delivered to her by mistake.

The mother of three children, Mrs. Sutton is also a registered nurse and works full time in a doctor's office. She is a charter member of the Wayne Players and directed "The Desk Set."

ROSEMARY SUTTON

The comedy, which will be presented in the John Glenn High School Auditorium in Wayne, concerns a family presided over by a grandpa, and a house where everyone does as he likes with no questions asked.

Performances begin at 8:30 p.m. and ticket information may be obtained by calling Bud Ribble at 721-7776.

Dark at Top of Stairs

"The Dark at the Top of the Stairs," William Inge's drama, will be presented by Center Theatre on Saturdays and Sundays, Feb. 13 and 14, 20 and 21, at 8:30, at the Jewish Community Center, Meyers at Curtis. Tickets are available at the Center and at Wayne State University.

Classic Theatre Adds Two Plays to Repertory

Leaving Shakespeare for the first time, the Hilberry Classic Theatre launches two plays on Wednesday at 8:30, one by Sophocles and one by Moliere. The foremost Greek Classic tragedy, "Oedipus Rex," will be followed by Moliere's first comedy success, "The Ridiculous Young Ladies," a one-act which was first performed as an afterpiece to a seventeenth-century classic tragedy.

Leading roles in the Moliere farce are played by Tom Darvall, John Criner, Norma Simpson and Marjorie Jean Lerstrom. Direction is by Robert T. Hazzard.

The title role in "Oedipus Rex" is played by James Barton Hill, who appeared last year as Shakespeare's Cassius, Touchstone and Tyball, and has been seen this season as Gremio in "The Taming of the Shrew."

The double bill is being performed Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings this week at 8:30. "Taming of the Shrew" is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 and Friday evening at 8:30, with "Macbeth" playing Saturday afternoon at 2:30. The full repertory will be in performance when Brecht's "Galileo" is added Feb. 17. All four productions alternate weekly through June 12.

Lecturer Discusses Source of Health

A person's beliefs about God "have a marked effect on happiness and health," a Christian Science lecturer said Jan. 31. Mankind's ills can be traced primarily to cramped beliefs and "harsh concepts of God," he said. And Christian healing comes by "yielding the mind to a true sense of His love."

GEITH A. PLIMMER

Pamphlet Describes Power of Love

"I let the transforming power of God's love change darkness into light and I know the way." The above prayer comes from a pamphlet distributed by Livonia's Unity of West Suburbia. The pamphlet, entitled "Prayer Guides The Power of Love" states: "The most important part of prayer is the attitude in which you approach prayer. Expect to have a powerful experience of God's love and you will have it. Do not look upon your prayer time as merely thinking about love. You are actually going to experience and express divine love." "Divine love is the healer of all disease. Forgiveness, which is love in action, is the sure remedy for every ill that afflicts mankind. Every person in the world needs your love and blessings, but you more than anyone else benefit from laying hold of and expressing forgiving love. This is the way of freedom and release—the binding thoughts are loosed, the tense muscles are relaxed, the taut emotions are quieted."

Members Elected Church Council

Recently elected to three terms on the Church Council at Livonia's Holy Cross Evangelical Lutheran Church were: Dennis Fitzsimons, Wilford Gallinat, Lloyd Hillestad, and Peter Loren. on an international tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Speaking here at the invitation of First Church of Christ, Scientist, Plymouth, he told the audience that real "health and happiness derive their vitality direct from divine sources."

This source, declared Mr. Plimmer, is the one indicated by Jesus when he said "there is none good but one, that is, God" (Matt. 19:17). A man "can learn to keep himself morally sound and physically well solely by knowing God aright," the lecturer said. "Every Christian knows from the Bible that Christ's Christianity can undoubtedly heal him of sin and sickness." Such healing requires deep, spiritual communion with God, he emphasized.

Heat Your Home Electrically From Compact Furnace in Closet

Compact electric furnaces which can heat the entire home or apartment from a space as small as a closet have been introduced by American Furnace Company, St. Louis.

Designed for apartments and homes with 800 to 3,000 square feet of living space, the new chimneyless furnaces also are recommended for multiple installation in larger homes where zoned systems are desired.

Largest of the 10 models in the new UL-approved series requires only about five square feet of floor space, the smallest only three square feet. The furnaces can be installed in closets, utility rooms, basements, or other convenient locations.

Now You Can See What Is Cooking

Most gas ranges now have a 40-watt heat-resistant light bulb in the oven that allows you to see how baking is progressing without sliding out racks or removing pans.

The light switch is located on the control panel. Should the bulb burn out, take care to replace it with a bulb of the same type.

2 Rooms In One

Large room for two children can be subdivided handsomely with a study desk divider, which provides writing space on either side and bookshelving in the center, rising from desk top to ceiling.

Douglas fir can be used for divider, finished with tough, clear lacquer to take hard use from kids.

money by eliminating the need for a chimney.

The new AFCCO units employ the familiar forced air principle of residential heating. As the thermostat calls for heat, the furnace blower moves pre-filtered air over a series of safe nickel-chrome wire elements. The air is warmed by the elements, then circulated through ducts and registers to all areas of the home.

Stainless Steel Used In Sink

A unique new type of bar sink with three removable containers for bottles or ice and a maple cutting board has been introduced for home use.

The attractive stainless steel sink which comes with a hot and cold gooseneck faucet as well as removable basket strainer in the drain is designed for use in home bars as well as dens, playrooms, patios and service pantries. Compact in size with an overall size of 25 by 14 inches and a 10 by 12 inch sink, the sink features self rim for easy installation.

The containers are 5½ inches deep, designed with a rim to prevent water from running down, and are easily lifted out for washing. The cutting board fits over one of the containers. The new deluxe bar sink retails under $70 complete with faucets and all its accessories is made in a sparkling high polish mirror finish with no-weld fabrication of 20-gauge stainless steel.

It has sound deadener applied to the underside to minimize dish clatter.

Conversion to whole-house air conditioning is simple and economical. The same blower, ducts and registers which operate in winter will provide cool, filtered air in summer.

Four of the new electric furnace models actually are combination heating and air conditioning units. They have built-in cooling coils which provide whole-house cooling during hot weather.

Other models can be combined with any properly sized AFCCO cooling unit at the time of original installation or anytime later.

In addition to heating and cooling, the units are also designed to accept the company's electronic air filters to complete a compact and highly-efficient all-electric comfort system. These filters will eliminate up to 90 per cent of the airborne dust, dirt, pollen, and other irritants circulating through the home.

The modern-styled furnace cabinets are of double-wall heavy gauge steel construction, enameled in a two-tone neutral color.

Coordinate Colors In Home Decorations

Floor color can be the key to your home's decorating scheme. In the kitchen, for example, the color of the floor can be coordinated with color of counter tops and back-splashes, and in some instances with appliances and built-ins.

Such color schemes are especially easy to obtain with ceramic tile, which comes in more than 250 decorator colors and serves superbly both on floors and counter tops.

Aluminum Siding Checks Damage From Hail Storms

Hail storm damage to property can be a problem, but it's not the universal menace some people believe it to be. This, at least, is the conclusion reached by the Aluminum Siding Association as a result of studies made.

For one thing, hail is only prevalent in certain parts of the country. Substantial areas of the United States have no hail damage problems at all. Another fact lessening the problem is that hail is the unusual result of various climatic conditions occurring at just the right time to create this odd phenomenon. As such, hail storms have a very limited season.

Finally, where hail storms do occur, most often the size of the stones and/or the velocity of the winds at the time are such that property damage is negligible.

For example, a two year study of hail storm damage by the University of Illinois indicated that 94 per cent of all hail storms in central Illinois produced stones one-half inch or less in size. Only 2 per cent were of the size and velocity to be capable of causing serious damage.

In a survey made among owners of aluminum sided homes in the eastern portion of the United States, only 1.5 per cent reported significant hail damage and this was aesthetic damage—slight indentations in an otherwise solid finish that are rarely noticeable except in close examination. There was never a failure in the product itself, either in the metal or the finish.

Despite such statistics, the Aluminum Siding Association and its members continually strive to combat the problem.

They feel that their product's protective properties are less affected by hail than other more vulnerable building materials. They maintain that while large, wind-driven hail stones may only dent aluminum siding (causing it to lose none of its reflective or insulating properties) such stones can split or break other sidewalls.

Should hail stones dent aluminum siding, natural expansion under summer heat will tend to smooth out minor dents. In the rare exception where the stone creates extremely large dents, repair or replacement of single damaged panels is relatively simple and inexpensive.

Aluminum sidings now being produced further minimize hail damage. This product with backerboard is more dent-resistant because it forms a cushion behind the metal that acts as a buffer. The product is also produced with a new embossed texture and the overall stippled surface helps make hail stone dents unnoticeable.

Modernize Your Home; Get More on Trade-in

The wise thing to do in trading your old car for a new one is to have the car polished, the chrome cleaned and the engine tuned up. This assures you top trade-in value toward the purchase of a new car.

This same principle applies to your house if you are in the market for a new home and where builders offer such a trade-in program.

Modernizing the old home—instead not only makes it more marketable, but it often enables you to command more money for the house than the money you've put into it in doing it up.

It's surprising how little annoyances to the prospective buyer may deter a sale. A leaky faucet, a crack in the foundation, an inoperable electric outlet often ruins the sale.

Contrarily, a healthy home with all parts working "A-Okay", where the rooms are freshly painted and where the exterior sidewalls might have such chore- and money-saving protection as aluminum siding, becomes an extremely saleable product.

House trade-ins are becoming more and more popular throughout the country. It is advantageous to both the homeowner and the builder.

The builder relieves the owner of the "timing" problem; that is, of selling his home at exactly the right time so that the homeowner can move into his new home without paying the mortgage on both. It further eliminates the homeowner's problem of finding a buyer.

The builder benefits by making new home purchasing much more conducive. If the builder also has a modernization department, he profits from both the sale of the new home and from the face lifting operation of the old one.

Discount Noise Fear From Rain

Fears that aluminum siding may increase the noise level in a home can be discounted.

Aluminum siding is not noisy during an ordinary rain storm. Furthermore, expansion noises due to too tight nailing of the siding have been eliminated by a new lock on method of installation.

Previously, the nailing of the siding panels to the wall surface could give rise to noises caused by expansion and contraction of the metal. New methods use locking devices into which the siding panels are inserted.

No nailing is needed, and as a result the panels are given room to expand and contract without binding.

Other details on the new installation method are available in a free booklet. For a copy write to "Lock-On Booklet," care of Bridgeport Brass Company, Bridgeport 2, Conn.

Even Stroke Aids Painter

Never overburden a brush when you dip it into a paint can.

Apply paint from the end of the brush, not the sides. Learn how to use a smooth, back and forth stroke that works the paint into the surface.

Air Conditioning Less Expensive

Residential air conditioning systems today cost about one-third of what they did a few years ago.

In view of the generally upward trend of living costs, this seems hard to believe.

The cost of air conditioning a new house can be included in the mortgage. Round-the-calendar comfort need add only a few dollars to the monthly payments. And, it greatly increases the resale value of the house.

HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW NAMED

Deanna Hill Staley has been named Clarenceville's 1965 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She scored highest in a written homemaking examination taken by senior girls December 1, and she is now eligible for state and national honors.

Test papers of all school Homemakers of Tomorrow in the state are currently being judged. The state's highest-ranking girl will receive a $1,500 scholarship from General Mills, Inc., sponsor of the annual Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow, and the state runner-up will be awarded a $500 educational grant. In addition, the school of the State Homemaker of Tomorrow winner will receive a complete set of the Encyclopedia Britannica, from Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc.

Later this spring, the State Homemaker of Tomorrow, together with a school advisor, will join first-place winners and advisors from each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia in a tour of Colonial Williamsburg, Virginia; Washington, D. C., and New York City. Climax of the week-long tour will be the naming of the Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. She will be chosen on the basis of original test score and personal observation and interviews during the tour, she will receive an increase in her scholarship to $5,000. Second, third, and fourth-place winners in the nation will have their grants raised to $4,000, $3,000, and $2,000, respectively.

The Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow was initiated by General Mills in 1954 to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. Including this year's record enrollment of more than 14,000 high schools, the total number of participants during the program's 11-year history stands at four million.

On March 2, students will be taking a United Nations test. The students will be given a study kit in which to study from and also the United Nations Charter that is available in the school library.

The National prize is a $800 scholarship or to travel Europe. The runner-up will receive a $400 scholarship or travel the United States.

The following people have signed up for the test: 9th grade — Art Maki, Richard Stern, Joel Siegal, Charles Water, Cindy Van Zant, Neil Fellander, Lois D'Orazio, Alan Olli, Sonja Sorna, Mary Ann Aldridge, Bernie Kent, Marcia Mutnick, Jerry Graff, Dave Steffes, Esther Rolnitzky, Gary Respecki, Linda Oddy, Sharon Lynn, Ellen Beerholm, Greg Matkovich, John Howe, Janet Hankins, Larry Tougas, Bob Toro and Gary Serlin.

10th grade — Donna Telin, Sandra Thomas, Georgia Massey, Tom Bulmer, Linda Johns, Donna Howell, Russell Urey, Donna Lally, Heather Macintosh, Rhoda Weiss, Penny Smart, Pam Schmidt, Naomi Seedberg, Eve Kansik, Richard Ayotte, Lynn Sands, H'nora Larkin, Rick Davis, Mike Wacker, and Marcia Harrington.

11th grade — Debbie Shoop, Larry Morse, Dave Opperman, Suzie Fell, Karen Doyle, Tom Maki, Lynn Fouts, Daryl Howell, Sue Randall, Tom Lebovic, and Barbara Harden.

12th grade — Ron Latimer, Cam Nelson, Betty Nichols, Sharon Noricks, Margaret Paulson, Sharon Rudman, Terry Rogers, Gary Grant, Dan Crosby, Lynn Maki, Laurie Kent, Dianne Spink, JoAnne Doyle, Judy Woodward, Eleanor Hall, Joan Armstrong, Joe Neistroy, Dennis Opperman, Ruth Peters, Pam Steinman, and Les Swartz.

The All-League Band Concert will be held at Clarenceville High School on Wednesday, February 3, at 8 p.m. in the high school gym.

There will be 91 students from the league schools participating, including the following nine from Clarenceville who made All-League Band, Debbie Shoop, Betty Schmidt, Marilyn St. James, Rhoda Weiss, Bernard Kent, Tim Whyte, Richard Bailey, Dennis Golf, and Dennis Ashley.

Selections that will be played are as follows: "America," "Festival Prelude," "Lady of Spain," "Sound of Music," "Dixie," "Second Suite in F," "Purple Pageant," and "Cowboy Rapsody."

LADYWOOD LORE

By Mary Rzeznik

Frances Baker, senior, has been named the 1965 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. She scored highest in a written homemaking examination taken by the seniors Dec. 1. Frances is now eligible for state and national honors.

The state's highest ranking girl will receive a $1500 scholarship from General Mills.

Janet Bell, also a senior, has been awarded a $400 scholarship the U of D where she plans to major in history. Throughout her four years at Ladywood, Janet has been most active. At present she heads the school's Model United Nations. She will lead the Argentina delegation at the MUN general assembly at U of D in April. Besides her "history interests," Janet is also engaged as a yearbook editor for this year's book.

CELEBRATE BYZANTINE RITE

Ladywoodians participated in the Byzantine Rite Divine Liturgy this morning. For most of the students this was the answer to the Vatican Council's plea to know one another. Actually, the Byzantine Rite and the Latin Rite (the traditional Catholic Church) are handmaids. Teachings are the same, but some of the ceremonies attached to the sacred function differ.

One of the basic differences that the girls shared this morning was the reception of the Sacred Species (the Body and Blood of Christ) under two forms, bread and wine, while in the Latin rite Communion is received under only one form, the unleavened bread.

Celebrate at today's Mass was the Rev. Myron Hornyak of Sacred Heart Byzantine Church, Redford Twp.

CANDY DRIVE SUCCESS

The candy drive just completed was a success. The net proceeds resulted in the purchase of 500 new books. Top salesmen in the drive were freshmen Regina Neumaier, Janet Lawrence and Jan Marzonia. The freshmen were also the highest selling classrooms in the school.

Accents From St. Agatha Hi

By Mary Lou Mangold

Several members of the Sodality attended the Training School of Sodality Action at the University of Detroit last Saturday.

The program consisted of a welcome by Reverend Robert Borroughs, Archdiocesan Sodality Director, classroom workshops, circle discussions, addresses, and a closing speech by General Chairman of TSSA '65, Leonard Daley, a U. of D. student.

In the evening the Sodality enjoyed a Hootenanny and record hop. Of the 25 St. Agatha girls who attended, three were recommended as discussion leaders. There was also a program for moderators and spiritual directors, which Sister Charles Thomas, Sister John Edward, and Father Varty attended.

COMPETITION between juniors and seniors was sparked by the junior boys' challenge to their upperclassmen — a basketball game on Sunday, January 31.

The boys promised a spell-binding game and — for the winner — an original trophy, brainchild of the shop class.

Doffing their Roman collars for black and white striped referees' shirts were Fathers O'Leary and Varty. Juniors' coach, Sister Jean Ellen, advised the boys to "shoot, shoot, shoot" and assured her team that penalties against the juniors are prohibited.

Sister Grace Esther was coach for the seniors. THURSDAY NOON the junior Y.C.S. sponsored a sloppy Joe lunch. Besides being a well-earned switch from cold sandwiches, the project was a financial success, netting a profit of $32.

IN PREVIOUS years St. Agatha's has taken only a passing interest in the Genesee Festival, an interpretive reading competition.

With the advent of speech class, however, the school has become more concerned with the contest. In order to illustrate to the students the techniques required to be a winner in the Festival, St. Agatha's invited five Genesee participants from Rosary High School to demonstrate interpretive reading skills.

The girls were: Jeanne Znda (narrative poetry), Mary Ann McDonald (serious prose), Cheryl Leibold (dramatic interpretation), Sue LeGarde (lyric poetry), and Theresa Guywalski (Shakespeare). All five demonstrated a multiple reading.

THE WEEK of January 25 has long been dreaded by St. Agatha students, for with it came semester exams. Amid tensions and cramming, however, were brief reprieves — afternoons off, refreshments sold between tests by the Sophomore class, and the semester holiday, Friday.

Several weeks ago the Senior girls took the Betty Crocker Homemaker Test. The contestant that scored highest in the school was Patricia Brown.

Friday night at Our Lady of Sorrows High School in Farmington, many St. Agatha students attended a victory sock hop. However, it was a victory for Sorrows, because the dance was preceded by a basketball game in which both the St. Agatha junior varsity and varsity teams lost.

Thus they failed to recapture the symbol of inter- rivalry, a battered green and purple huddle which Sorrows has held since the basketball game in December. With only 26 more working days until the final deadline, editors and assistants of the Saga, St. Agatha's yearbook, are frantically snapping pictures and cropping proofs, revising copy and dashing off captions.

Witty posters, urging students to purchase the Saga, stared from every nook and cranny of our hallowed halls. Orders and deposits, flooding the staff until the final ordering day—Tuesday, January 19—encouraged them that their labor is not in vain.

FACTS FROM FRANKLIN

by Sue Lockwood

Franklin's second semester began Monday and it signified that half of the school year had already flown by. In preparation for next year's schedules, counselors will be calling all Sophomores and Juniors in for appointments this month. It would be a good idea if students began to think of the classes they want to take next year as long as they remember that they must have 13 credits to graduate; six of these units are required courses. One year of physical education, one semester of some kind of social study, one year of U. S. History, and three years of English are required if students want their diplomas.

Juniors who want to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test may still register in the eleventh grade counseling office, if they haven't yet; deadline for all registration is February 5 and $1.50 fee must accompany registration. The N.M.S.Q.T. will be given in Franklin High School on Saturday, March 13 at 8:30 a.m. Through this Merit Program other concerns than the National Merit Scholarship Corporation give out awards; business corporations, individuals, colleges, and the like will also award scholarship. Awards are given on the grounds of intellectual skill and merit, but each student's financial need will determine the amount the scholarship will be worth.

ATTENTION ALL GIRLS: Franklin's first Mardi Gras is only seventeen short days away and if you haven't asked that special boy yet, you better do so soon. The Mardi Gras, which is sponsored by the Journalism Department, is a costume-dress affair and it will be held from 8 to 11 p.m. on February 20. Music will be supplied by Ken and the Silvertones and tickets are going on sale at $1.50 per couple.

FHS plays John Glenn High School this Friday in the Franklin gymnasium and the French Club will be in charge of concessions. They will sponsor an hour dance after the game with French rock n' roll as well as American. The French Club is also sponsoring, later on in the year, a variety show presented by the French students.

After careful screening by faculty, students, and community representatives, three FHS students have been selected to travel abroad. The AFS is sponsoring the foreign exchange program where only Juniors are eligible to spend a school year or a summer in a different country. Students who were chosen to travel are Rod Edwards, Jean Miller, and Janis Rochette.

Seniors will have a chance to strike back, for three years of homework and final exams, at teachers February 22, when FHS's annual Senior-Faculty basketball game will be held. The ladies' game will begin at 7 p.m. and the men's will start a little later. May the best team, a little bit groans of wrenched backs and pulled muscles, win.

FARMINGTON HIGH NEWS

by Tom Donoghue

The worst is over for most FHS Seniors as high school exams, no longer exist for the Class of '65. Last week all sophomores, juniors and seniors sweated through the semester exams.

While sophs and juniors still look forward to the final exams the Seniors look forward to graduation and no exams.

FHS Senior Sandy Schulze is the winner of the 1965 D.A.R., Daughters of the American Revolution, Citizenship Award.

Sandy has been an extremely active student through the Farmington school system. Last year she was a member of the National Honor Society, and Wolverine Girl's State.

Her activities in high school have been the Art Club, Future Teachers of America, G.A.A., Exchange Club, President and Vice President of the French Club, yearbook typist, and Student Council Treasurer and typist.

Hats off to Sandy!

The FHS band and vocal groups recently traveled to Farmington and East Farmington Junior Highs for a promotion show.

The theme was USO. The main purpose was to encourage junior high students to enroll in the band and coral classes at the high school level.

Report cards were distributed Monday during the homeroom and students finally discovered that what they worried about over the weekend wasn't really anything.

AT THE LAST TARS (Teen-Age Republicans) meeting a constitution was approved, plans were made ready for a Lansing trip and a newspaper was established.

Plans were set for a trip to Lansing, sponsored by Rep.

Ray Baker, of Farmington, and assistant to the House minority leader, Steve Stockmeyer.

The TARS newspaper, "News and Comment", will be edited by Vice-Chairman T. Larry Adcock. The TARS next meeting will be February 15 in their new headquarters.

Last weekend, 45 FHS students and five advisors traveled to the slopes of Nub's Nob for three cold days of skiing. The group left Friday morning and arrived at the Lodge late in the afternoon.

The weekend was loaded with skiing, swimming, dancing and eating. Advisors accompanying the students were Mr. and Mrs. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Lenon and Mr. Taylor.

Livonia Pupil Enters Math Competition

East Lansing — Steve Crick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Crick, 16544 Merriman, has entered the Putnam Mathematics Competition for the 3rd consecutive year.

The Putnam Mathematics Competition is an examination taken by students from many colleges. The exams are scored on an individual student basis and the school or team score is figured by the total points of each student from that school.

Crick, in 1963 when he represented Michigan State University, was 5th individually out of a field of some 200 colleges.

This achievement made him eligible for the Putnam Scholarship which he accepted and upon graduation from MSU he will attend Harvard University where he plans on getting his Ph.D. in mathematics.

Crick has helped MSU to place high in the competition every year it has entered. In 1961 MSU was 1st, in 1962 it was 10th, and in 1963 MSU finished 1st again.

The exam is six hours long and consists of two three-hour parts, each part containing six questions. The contestants answer as many questions as they can. The year Crick was 5th, he answered seven of the questions.

The questions are of various types including analysis problems, geometry problems, functions, and differential equations.

The exams are taken in December so the results of this year's tests are not in yet. But Crick expects that MSU will finish in the top 10 again this year.

Crick is 20-years-old, a senior, and a math major.

Window Broken

Bandits broke into a shed at a construction project at Telegraph and the Rouge River and took $1,050 worth of equipment, including an air compressor.

BULLETINS FROM BENTLEY

by Sue Dowell and Marcia Wilson

Five or six tests in three days that cover half of a semester of school work can put strain and tension on the nerves of any student. To relieve Bentley students from this nervous tension the medicine prescribed was a night of relaxation and fun. Of course this evening was planned and took place at Bentley. The occasion was a basketball game and a sock hop which followed it.

The two games played highlighted an enjoyable evening. The first game consisted of a team of what vaguely looked like senior girls such as Sandy White, Diane Barnes, Carol Frances, Joan Barnes, Lyn Zimmerman, Denise Maskny, Diane Jones, Gilly Carmichael, and Mardi Winston. The teachers who really kept them hopping and scored a few more points than the girls were Miss Meyer, Miss Dayle, Mrs. Peard, Miss Ptak, and Miss Olson.

When the girls had finished their game, the senior boys and a choice male faculty played a good game of basketball. The referees were really kept on the ball for the game was full of excitement, from beginning to end. Teachers like Mr. Knipchild, Mr. Kremko, Mr. Edwards, Dr. (Fireball) Friedrichs, Mr. Bailey, Mr. Wilson, and Mr. Bradley helped the faculty team to victory. The senior boys who played against these teachers gave the men a not-so-easy time.

No basketball game is complete without its cheerleaders, no matter what the circumstances for everybody likes to cheer along. The two cheerleaders who led students in many new cheers were Mr. Webster and Mr. Smith. With their tremendous skills in leading cheers and unique ways of doing stunts, the crowd enjoyed a big laugh.

The seniors also needed cheerleaders and they were equipped with eight fine-tuned boys. These boys dressed in unusual but attention-getting outfits were full of surprises. Cheerleaders for the Senior-Faculty game were Dick Perkins, Fred Elwell, Ken Kox, John Plumley, Gary Grey, Phil Maynard, Mike Hickox, and Brian

The middle of March seems a long way away. But this is not so for members of the modern dance and Drum and Sandal clubs. Their annual show for this year is under way and a top notch performance is expected to turn out. The show is entitled, Drum and Sandal Presents, and will contain 11 different numbers. One jazz number will be performed and the four girls dancing will be Cheryl Cohen, Karen Thomas, Mardi Winston, and Beverly Betasso. Other numbers will be in forms of folk dancing, bowling, democracy, and many more. A take off on the Road Not Taken will also be acted out.

Before Christmas the girls had been doing dance exercises and had a candy apple drive for money to buy costumes and props. Now the two clubs are rehearsing for their big night.

The modern dance club meets on Tuesday and Thursdays. Drum and Sandal has its meetings every Tuesday and Friday. The teachers helping with the dancers are Miss Judy Gotthelf and Mrs. Peard.

Two Principals Survey Schools

Livonia's Bentley High School principal Dr. Donald Friedrichs and Plymouth High School principal Carvel M. Bentley served on a North Central Association accrediting team which surveyed Parkside High School in Jackson, Mich., Tuesday.

The North Central Association is a group which helps to maintain a high standard in education and to insure that high school students will get the fundamental background needed to continue their education in colleges and universities throughout the Great Lakes and Mid-western area.

New Alphabet 'On Trial' in Suburban Schools

Walk into a Clarenceville elementary classroom and you're apt to get an initial shock—in- stead of the 26-letter alphabet and the simple sentences most firstgraders would be learning, you'll see 44 strange characters.

They're part of the I.T.A. alphabet, invented by Sir James Pitman, who was in Clarenceville recently to observe teaching it. Each character has its own, never-changing, sound and one first-grade class is using it as a start toward reading.

Pitman estimated that 6,000,000 English-speaking children start to school each year and that a third of them would be doomed to stunted educational careers because of the difficulties inherent in the type William Caxton designed for the English language 500 years ago.

A grandson of Isaac Pitman, originator of shorthand, Sir James said, "When Caxton set up his press, it would have been a great thing if he had had some of my grandfather's ideas. But he didn't. He simply did not put in enough letters to render the sounds of English."

In devising the Initial Teaching Alphabet, now being tested in 12 Oakland County Schools, Sir James, working from his grandfather's foundations in phonetic symbols for English, used 44 letters. Each symbol has one, and only one value.

"You would never think of giving two any other value than duality," Pitman declared. "It can be written another way, the Roman II, but the value is still duality." He cited the "c" in "come" and "city" as a cause for confusion for the young reader. In I.T.A. "s" is used for the "c" sound exclusively and "c" always has a "k" sound. The letter "k" is retained to ease the jump for children into traditional orthography, but it has a single sound value.

In teaching children to read is traditional orthography, Pitman said we are violating the absolutely God-given gift human beings have of learning by repetition.

"The child uses this God-given gift in relating every bit of knowledge to every new situation," Pitman said. "But when he learns to pronounce 'over' and then adds other initial letters to make new words, such as 'hover', 'mover', 'lover' and 'rover', what he has learned is not reinforced but confounded."

Pitman has placed his copyright privileges on I.T.A. in the public domain on two conditions first, that his 44 character are used as is, and that spelling are used as is. This year 100,000 British children are learning via I.T.A. Seventeen British and five American publishers are now printing books in this alphabet. He deplored the efforts of Andrew Carnegie and Theodore Roosevelt to simplify American spellings.

"Look at the American 'honor' and the English 'honour,'" he said. "Why didn't they drop the 'h' instead of the 'u'. I'm all for change, but only for the right change. Let us all change together."

He cautioned the educators he met in both a teacher group and a gathering of principals and curriculum specialists not to think of I.T.A. as a panacea for all their problems in teaching reading.

The child who has brain damage, and the child from a poor linguistic environment cannot be expected to learn printed symbols any faster than they can learn oral symbols. He insisted, however, that his medium offers literacy to two million children each year who are overwhelmed with the clumsy mechanics of English spelling.

His introductory medium has made two break-throughs in recent months. One is in the area of teaching English as a second language, the second as a device for teaching adults who are functionally illiterate (reading below a fourth grade level). The British Army education system is studying its use to teach recruits who are reading below a fourth grade level; prison directors both in Great Britain and the United States have found one-third of their intake are non-readers. I.T.A. is being considered for use in the prisons in both countries.

"This medium has some psychological advantages for the adult non-reader," Pitman explained. "I.T.A. is sufficiently different from traditional orthography that the adult is willing to tackle it. He has failed repeatedly on the old system and he does not want to risk trying again. When he does learn to read, he now has a scapegoat—traditional orthography. He can blame something outside himself for his past failures."

"As for transferring to the traditional alphabet after learning I.T.A.," Pitman said, "the children have as little difficulty as you do in coping with my English accent. Adults have even less trouble."

Reaction to the I.T.A. has not reached the experimental class level yet in Livonia Schools, and officials there are taking a more cautious attitude to it.

Said Henry C. Heusner, Elementary Curriculum Co-ordinator: "The Livonia elementary schools are in the third year of what has been planned as a three-year study of the entire language arts, including reading. The numerous innovations in reading have been, and will continue to be, studied by the Reading Center staff, my office, and committees selected to work as a part of the overall study. At this time, the only reading program considered to be a significant innovation that we have chosen to try out in a field setting (six first grade classrooms) has been the Stern Structural Reading Series. Features of this program include a strong emphasis on discovery of language principles and patterns as well as picture and story content that appears to be especially appealing to young boys. Special innovations are picture keys, pre-blended sounds, type in color, and manuscript type face.

"We recognize, however, that I.T.A., along with several others, deserve our continued close attention. Last summer, we sent one of our reading teachers, Mrs. Elsie Stewart, to an I.T.A. conference. Mrs. June Slobodian, Coordinator of Reading Instruction, will be attending a two-day conference on I.T.A. in Ann Arbor next month.

"This year, we are making periodic visits to classrooms in Waterford Township that are using I.T.A. as a part of the Oakland County study which in turn is a part of an $800,000 research project sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education. I might say that our visits to date have been most interesting, although we feel that it is premature to recommend that even a small number of Livonia classrooms be used as a pilot center next year. We do observe that teachers' and pupils' interest is, by and large, very high and that many of the children seem to be able to sound out words quite successfully in I.T.A."

Several factors make early appraisals of doubtful validity, according to Warren Cutts, specialist for reading in the U.S. Office of Education, who wrote recently:

"We do not know as yet the long-range effect of I.T.A. on reading and spelling performance, and may not clearly see what effect (if any) it will have until pupils who have taken part in the experiment reach the fourth of fifth grade. It is entirely possible, although present evidence seems to indicate otherwise, that certain residual effects may later act as deterrents to fluent reading and accurate spelling. These possible effects need to be carefully weighed against the advantages claimed for early reading achievement.

"We do not know as yet the extent to which the enthusiasm of teachers and the glamour of an experimental situation lift pupils to higher reading achievement. We need to find out how well I.T.A. expedites learning after the initial enthusiasm and glamour have worn off. The 'Hawthorne effect' can never be completely eliminated in educational experiments, since teacher enthusiasm is an uncontrollable variable. Of course, the fact that most of the experimental teachers have become enthusiastic about I.T.A. may itself be considered a credit to the new system."

They're reconditioned, tuned-up, tightened-up, washed and polished (inside and out). The ones that fail never show up on our lot. We can't afford to sell you anything but the best at the best price. After all, you'll be driving our reputation around with you.
