

Wants Municipal Court Cloud Cleared

Draugelis Asks Court To Decide Eligibility

Inasmuch as his critics, including those who have written anonymous, unsigned letters, refuse to stand up and be counted as wanting to make a court case to determine definitely whether City Attorney Edward Draugelis is or is not eligible to run for Municipal Judge, Draugelis took matters into his own hands

Tuesday morning when he filed action in Circuit Court seeking a court ruling. Actually Draugelis filed suit against City Clerk Richard

Shafer, who also is head of the Election Board, seeking a declaratory judgment from the Circuit Court as to whether the state statutes or the City Charter determines his eligibility. Draugelis, who headed the three-man race primary election three weeks ago, with a commanding lead over second place J. Rusling Cutler and third place Clifford Manwaring feels now and has felt from the beginning that he was eligible under the provisions of a state statute passed in 1954. This provides only that a candidate to be eligible must be a qualified registered voter and a member of the Michigan Bar Association. The Plymouth City Charter provides that a candidate must have five years of residence in the city, be a qualified voter and a member of the Bar Association of Michigan.

Draugelis, after careful research and after receiving legal opinions from several members of the law profession, feels the state statute takes precedence over the City Charter—especially since the wording indicates exactly that.

He also has two court rulings to back his contentions, each similar to the situation here and in each the judge ruled the candidate was eligible under the provisions of the state law.

However, shortly before the primary—a few days before the actual voting, an underhanded campaign was started to discredit Draugelis on the grounds he wasn't eligible.

An anonymous letter, in which the writer very carefully eliminated his name and letter head, was sent to the community newspapers indicating the writer was "concerned" about the situation.

Neither Manwaring nor Cutler entered into the controversy. Each had sat down with Draugelis at the time of filing, heard his story and each indicated he would not question the eligibility.

Neither has to this moment and Cutler, who will face Draugelis in the election on April 5 if Ed is declared qualified, indicated two weeks ago that he had no intentions of challenging the eligibility at any time.

Determined to have the cloud removed, even though an adverse decision will rule him out of the race and automatically make Cutler the new Municipal Judge, Draugelis asked his partner, John Ashton, to defend him in the declaratory action.

William Sempliner, prominent Plymouth attorney, has agreed to serve as counsel for City Clerk Shafer since Draugelis, even though City Attorney, was ruled out by filing the action.

In his action, Draugelis through Ashton is asking the Circuit Court to declare whether

Who's Afraid of A Big Snow? Certainly Not Plymouth Area

After three days of digging out of the worst snowstorm since 1932, the Plymouth community was back to normal Monday with schools, industrial plants and businesses reopening.

City of Plymouth Department of Public Works, business places were operating on a near normal basis Friday with all main highway arteries inside the city clear.

different in the Township where the Wayne County Road Commission has charge of the roads and was unable to do much more than to clear the main roads by late Friday afternoon. As a result most residents in that area west of Sheldon Road were trying to dig out of their homes Saturday afternoon and many were still snowed out as late as Sunday noon.

The snowfall started late Wednesday night and by Thursday morning at daybreak the entire lower half of Michigan was in the throes of the most vicious blizzard since 1932 with all roads blocked with the snowfall that dropped as much as 12 inches.

Drifts as high as five to eight feet high made it difficult for road crews to clear many of the main highways and the job was made more difficult by the many cars that had been abandoned during the night along the roads by owners who found they couldn't move any farther.

It was apparent early Thursday morning that the entire area was more or less at a standstill as far as flow of traffic was concerned.

Schools were ordered closed for the remainder of the week, plants shut down and workers notified via radio and any other means of communication available not to report back to work until 12:01 a.m. Monday.

The Plymouth Hall opened for business Thursday with most of the staff on hand but closed at noon when it became apparent that no business would be transacted — many a Township resident appeared up to that time.

With transportation out of the question due to the blocked highways and roads, Supt. Russell Isbister closed Plymouth schools for the remainder of the week and the Lutheran and Catholic schools followed suit.

Plymouth's downtown streets were passable due to work of the DPW but few brave souls risked the blustering winds and snow to visit any of the stores or business institutions. Meanwhile, both the City of Plymouth and the Plymouth Township Fire Departments called in additional men for all

THIS SHOWS how traffic was jammed near the Burroughs plant on Plymouth Road Thursday afternoon when the storm was at its height. It took hours for the Wayne County Road Commission and the Plymouth DPW to make the highway passable.

GRADERS AND LOADERS of this type helped the Plymouth Department of Works clear City streets in record time during last week's heavy snowfall and blizzard. Crews are shown removing snow from the downtown parking lot Saturday morning.

Plans Review of Building Code

Council Names Ken Fisher Assistant City Manager

Acting in rapid fire order in a meeting that took less than two hours, Plymouth's City Commission boosted Kenneth Fisher into the new title and assignment of Assistant City Manager with the duties of Director of Public Safety; purchased a new grader for the Department of Public Works at a cost of $23,190 and made plans to review the building code with the thought of tightening fire hazard restrictions.

In addition, the Council approved Mayor Richard Wernette's appointment of DPW Supt. Joseph Bida to the Fall Festival Committee and William Nelson as Michigan Week chairman for the third straight year.

The new classification of Fisher came as no surprise since the popular Director of Public Safety, who has been serving as acting City Manager, apparently reminded the Commissioners earlier that he was handling two jobs at the moment with no increase in pay.

Fisher has been acting City Manager since Albert Glassford left in mid-December to take a similar post at Albion. All during that time Fisher has retained his normal duties of Director of Public Safety.

The new classification, which probably calls for a pay increase even though no such action was taken Monday, apparently was discussed and an agreement reached at a committee of the whole meeting a week earlier.

Need for the new grader was brought to the attention of the Council two weeks ago when

30-DAY SUSPENSION ENDS

Fire Capt. Barney Maas Rejoins Township Dept.

Plymouth Township Fire Captain Barney Maas won't forget the date of Thursday, Feb. 25 for a while.

That was when his 30-day suspension ended and he took over command of the fire department—it also was the day of the worst snowstorm in the area for more than 30 years.

"We called in additional volunteers for the nights of Thursday and Friday at both the No. 1 and No. 2 stations," commented Barney, "Fortunately we didn't run into any emergencies nor fires but we were prepared in case we were needed."

"For 10 years we have had

Good Counsel Coach's Wife Dies at 27

Stricken by a pulmonary embolism within hours after the birth of her fifth child, Mrs. Marjorie Crissey, 27, of 195 Garland, Plymouth, died within minutes Friday afternoon in St. Mary Hospital.

She was the wife of Fred Crissey, popular coach and teacher at Our Lady of Good Counsel School.

Mrs. Crissey was taken to the hospital late Thursday night, during the blizzard and heavy snowstorm, by the Plymouth Fire Department when no other vehicle could make it through the snow and drifts. She was in fine spirits during the ride which took more than an hour due to the conditions.

She became a mother for the fifth time Friday morning and was making a normal recovery when stricken by embolism. Mrs. Crissey had resided in Plymouth for two years, moving here from Detroit with her husband. She was a member of

Swim Club Slates Two Meetings

Organizers and officials of the Colony Swim Club will hold two information meetings in opposite sections of the Plymouth Township for the benefit of any persons interested in becoming charter members.

The first get-together is scheduled for Monday, March 8, in Farrand School at 8 p.m. when plans for the private swim club, which will be located on a Canton Township site, will be explained.

The second session will be held on Thursday, March 11, in the multi-purpose room at Junior High West starting at 8 p.m.

The Heroes of Big Storm? Pour Praises on DPW Crews

Other communities in Western Wayne County were still digging out of last week's history-making snowstorm on Monday but not the City of Plymouth—thanks to the untiring work of Department of Public Works Supt. Joseph Bida and a seven-man crew, who toiled as many as 40 hours without a break, the main arteries in the City were clear Friday morning, most of the sidestreets by Friday night-fall and traffic was moving normally in all sections by Saturday noon.

Early Friday evening the Michigan State Police reported "motorists and pedestrians can move without trouble of any sort inside the city limits of Plymouth but don't go outside... the story is entirely different there."

That was the tale of eight tired, weary DPW workers Friday night when they finally went home for the first sleep since 5 a.m. Thursday morning.

The real heroes of Plymouth's successful fight to overcome the ravages of the worst snowstorm since 1932 are the eight workers from the DPW who deserve credit for work far beyond the normal call of duty.

It was in the wee hours of Thursday morning that Supt. Bida received the call that told him the roads were completely blocked from the heaviest snow in years which was rapidly nearing blizzard proportions.

He immediately placed calls for all members of the DPW to report for work as soon as they could get to the yards on Junction Ave.

Work arrived at the yards at 5 a.m. Ken Vogras, Arlie Bagwell, Melvin Behling and Clyde Kintner were there within minutes and all immediately started moving

U-M Program Director To Address Rotarians

Donald Morris, manager of special programs at the University of Michigan, will address the Plymouth Rotary Club Friday when he discusses "The Report from Ann Arbor." The Rotarians meet each Friday at noon in the Mayflower Hotel.

Last week's meeting at which Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay was slated to discuss the growth and future of the township was postponed to a later date due to the weather conditions. Many Rotarians were snowed in with little chance of attending and officers voted the first postponement in the memory of the oldest member.

Morris, a former member of the editorial and sports staff of the defunct Detroit Times,

PHS Seniors Eligible For GM Awards

Members of the 1965 graduating class at Plymouth High School are eligible to apply for nearly 400 four-year scholarships offered by General Motors at 200 colleges and universities participating in the GM Scholarship plan.

Any secondary school senior or graduate who is a citizen of the United States is eligible for consideration. The initial awards are made to entering Freshmen and may be renewed through the normal four undergraduate years for those with satisfactory records. There is no restriction on course of study or career.

Stipends range from an honorary award of $200 to a maximum of $2,000 per year, depending on demonstrated need.

The participating institutions include 125 private and 77 public colleges and universities in 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

Participating institutions have full discretion in the awarding

Chris Rowland Heads Plymouth De Molay Group

Christopher Rowland was installed Master Councilor of the Plymouth Chapter, Order of the De Molay, in the 28th semi-annual installation ceremonies in the Plymouth Masonic Temple.

The installing officer was Dad Harold Koch, Grand Almoher of the International Supreme Council, executive officer in the Jurisdiction of Michigan. The entire State Elective Line was present, including officers from Battle Creek, East Lansing, Owosso, Flint, Detroit, Dearborn, Farmington, Redford and Wayne.

In addition, Miss Edith Myers, Grand Worthy Advisor of the Grand Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls in Michigan, was in attendance.

The Plymouth chapter was presented with a $100 check

250 to Hear Lt. Governor Thursday

More than 250 Plymouthites are expected to jam into Lofy's Skyline Room Thursday night at 7 p.m. to hear Lieut. Governor William Milliken discuss "Michigan Progress" during which he is expected to touch on all recent legislation before the State Legislature and make predictions on things to come in the state government.

The dinner and program is sponsored by the Business Men's Forum of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and is the long night meeting planned by the group during the year.

Milliken, who has been serving as Gov. George Romney's emissary to meetings throughout the state to get the feel of what people are thinking, probably knows more about Michigan's outlook than any single individual in government today.

He has been on the banquet circuit ever since the first of the year to present Romney's proposed program to groups in all parts of the state.

Milliken is also expected to give an insight on legislative issues coming up this year that may affect the Plymouth business and industrial community. Reservations are being accepted at the Chamber of Commerce officers until noon Thursday and Chairman Dr. Ray Barber believes the total will be up around 300 before the final tally.

City Attorney Edward Draugelis, who did such an excellent job as master of ceremonies at the farewell dinner for City Manager Albert Glassford, will serve as toastmaster.

Here's Text of Ballot on Parks

Here is the text of the resolution passed by Livonia's City Council which places the $4.4 million bonding proposition for purchase of new park land on the April 5 ballot.

The proposition which will actually appear on the ballot is in bold face type.

Residents have until March 8 to register for the special vote.

WHEREAS, the City Council recognizes that by reason of the continued development and growth of the City of Livonia, so that the land area of the City is rapidly being used and acquired for residential, commercial and industrial purposes, it has become necessary for the public health, welfare and safety of the citizens of the City, that available lands suited for public park and recreational purposes be acquired and developed for such use; and

WHEREAS, the Department of Recreation has developed general maps and plans indicating lands suited and available for public park and recreation purposes, and the manner they could be used and developed for such purposes; and

WHEREAS, the estimated cost of acquiring and developing lands for such purposes that are presently needed and desirable is determined to be Four Million Four Hundred Thousand ($4,400,000.00) Dollars; and

WHEREAS, it will be necessary to borrow the sum of not to exceed Four Million Four Hundred Thousand ($4,400,000.00) Dollars to pay the cost thereof;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. The City Council deems it necessary to borrow the sum of not to exceed Four Million Four Hundred Thousand ($4,400,000.00) Dollars and issue general obligation bonds of the City therefor, for the purpose of paying the cost of acquiring lands for public park and recreational purposes, and improving, developing and providing necessary facilities for recreational use of said lands.
2. The City Council determines the period of usefulness of said public park and recreational facilities to be not less than fifty (50) years.

3. At a special city election to be held at the same time and in conjunction with the Wayne County Special Election to be held in the City of Livonia on Monday, April 5, 1965 between the hours of 7:00 o'clock a.m. and 8:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, there be submitted to vote of the qualified electors of said City the said proposition of borrowing the said sum.

4. The proposition to be submitted at said election shall be stated on the voting machines and ballots in substantially the following form:

RECREATIONAL BONDING PROPOSITION

Shall the City of Livonia, County of Wayne, Michigan, borrow the sum of not exceeding Four Million Four Hundred Thousand ($4,400,000.00) Dollars, and issue its general obligation bonds therefor for the purpose of acquiring lands for public park and recreational purposes, and improving, developing and providing necessary facilities for recreational use of said lands?

5. The City Clerk will receive registrations of electors qualified to vote at said election who are not already properly registered, until Monday, March 8, 1965, on which said day the City Clerk will be at his office from 8:00 o'clock a.m. until 8:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, to receive registration of electors qualified to vote at said election.

6. The City Clerk shall cause Notice of Registration of said election to be published and posted in manner required by law.

7. The City Clerk shall cause notice of said Special City Election to be published and posted in manner required by law.

Only those qualified and registered electors who have property in the City assessed for taxes, or the lawful husband or wife of such persons, are qualified to vote on the above bonding proposition.

Freedom Award Charged With Drunk Driving, Loses License

A Redford Township man, charged with driving under the influence of liquor, has lost his driver's license, while 13 other residents of Livonia, Farmington, Redford Township and Plymouth have been hit with suspensions of driving privileges for "undesirable driving records."

Franklin Lester Hasse of 11639 Marion, Redford, had his license suspended under the state financial responsibility law following the charge of driving under influence of liquor, the Secretary of State's office reports.

Others hit with license suspensions, all on a charge of "undesirable driving records," included:

Richard Edward Jacobs, 18156 Deering, Livonia; Corey John Koper, 15120 Garden, Livonia; William Jesse Lynch, 15883 Centralia, Redford Township.

Chris Kania, son of Mr. and Mrs. Casimer J. Kania, 9014 Rockland, received the honors. He was the only Cub Scout winner in the entire Metropolitan Detroit Area Council, the largest in the U. S.

Chris entered the competition last summer through Cub Scout Pack 579 by writing an essay. Over 36,000 other Scouts across the country similarly entered the competition.

Ten years old, Chris attends St. Robert Bellarmine School.

Farmington High Singers In 'Festival of Music'

The Farmington High School Falconaires are one of several scheduled groups to perform in the "Festival of Music" March 27 at North Farmington High School. The program, presented by the Kiwanis Club of Kendallwood, is the first planned annual program of its kind.

The Falconaires, a mixed vocal ensemble of 18 members was organized some 15 years ago. At that time the group was under the direction of Mr. Warren Henderson.

The Falconaires served then as they do now, singing for community groups and at concerts. They have participated in district music festivals for several years where, almost without exception, they have received superior ratings.

In 1958 at the invitation of Kiwanis International and through the support of the Kiwanis Club of Farmington, many other service clubs, and the citizens of Farmington, the group traveled to Dallas, Texas, where it entertained at the Kiwanis International Convention before some 15,000 people.

William Feucht, the group's present director, came to Farmington in the fall of 1954. He took up direction of the Falconaires at that time. A 1953 graduate of Ottawa University, Ottawa, Kansas, Feucht majored in music education.

After receiving his B.A. degree, he furthered his training at the University of Michigan. Since then, he has worked in the Farmington School System. Feucht has directed several mass student and civic activities including Schubert's Mass in G and other renowned works. Besides directing the Falconaires, he has organized The 12 Tones, a group of 12 talented girls who entertain locally.

Feucht and the Falconaires come to the "Festival of Music" offering as their part in the program: "Say It With Music," by Irving Berlin; "Good News," by Dawson, and "My Fair Lady," by Lerner and Lowe.

Nazi's Trial Off

Farmington Nazi Russ Roberts has had his day in court put off, from March 6 to March 13. On that date, he will appear before Farmington Municipal Judge Sylvester Pheny, on a charge of criminal libel. The charge stems from his alleged attempt to employ a young man to distribute Nazi literature.

VETERAN-LANSING JUSTICE of the Peace George Hutter made an eloquent plea for public support for the establishment of a Court in this state which will serve the same purpose as the present Justice of the Peace Court. This latter has been abolished by the new constitution. The type of court Hutter has in mind would be "local, practical, and informal." He was speaking at the recent Farmington Shrine Club. Next to him, from left to right, are the Club's Treasurer Harold Webb, and its Secretary, William Walker.

Approve Sewer Fight Results

Farmington Township's Park Hill Subdivision can expect a sewer line in the near future. The estimated $110,200 project was approved without dissent at a Township Board meeting January 18.

The 10" line will cost each homeowner approximately $1,670.

FARRELL ROBERTS, REPUBLICAN candidate for State Senate from the 14th District, greets Elly Peterson, first woman GOP State Chairman, at a meeting in Farmington last week.

Mrs. Ellie Peterson Visits Farmington on State Tour

Ellie Peterson was in rare form when she addressed the county committee of the 19th District of the Republican party Wednesday evening, February 24 at Farrell Roberts Headquarters on Grand River in Farmington.

The 19th Legislative District is being reorganized and this was an unpublicized meeting of the committee officers. This year Ellie had the unprecedented honor of being elected chairman of the State Central Committee. This is the first time that a woman chairman has been elected in any state by the Republican party.

Ellie plans to tour each of the 19 Districts and speak to the committee members in a plan to better coordinate the program of the Republican party.

With a weight loss of pounds and pounds since her last appearance here in October, and her silver hair distinctively coiffed, she presented a modish figure in her smart black suit. As usual, she pitched right into the main issues and kept her audience on their toes.

"I am not here to preach unity," she stated, "because the Republican Party has unity. What I am here to say is that we should all let bygones be bygones and take personalities out of the Republican Party. Let only the issues at stake be the things to be considered."

Another act which she cautioned against was looking too far into the future. "Let's not think of future victories, let's think of winning now," she stated.

She then briefly outlined several progressive plans to be followed to prevent unqualified people winning offices through sheer apathy on the part of the voters.

Farrell Roberts and his wife came from a Council Dinner in Livonia to greet Ellie. Phyllis Roberts looked as pert as if she had been resting all week instead of doing what she had actually been doing—accompanying Roberts on a time-killing schedule.

Also in the audience were Isabel Haynes, Margaret Downs, Ruth Davenport, Tom and Marlene Nolan, Dick Raisin (from Republican Headquarters at Oakland County), Dan Murphy, Jim O'Neill, Mrs. Orville Foster, Marion Donnelly, Dolores Kary, Mary Dumont, and Chuck Stevenson.

Ellie was on a split-second time schedule but was her usual gracious self in posing for pictures for the newspapers, and in greeting her old friends.

Ravitz, Connor to Address Community Goals Conference

A "who's who" list of experts on planning and community development will head the list of speakers at the Conference on Needs and Goals for Livonia planned for Saturday, March 27, at Franklin High School.

The list of guest speakers was announced this week by the Livonia Chamber of Commerce.

Heading off the program will be Mel Ravitz, member of the Detroit Common Council, and professor of sociology at Wayne State University. Ravitz will deliver the keynote address, following introductory remarks and welcome greetings from Phillip O. Tanguay, Livonia Chamber of Commerce manager, and Mayor Harvey W. Moeke.

James P. Thomas, president of the Chamber, will present conference objectives.

Two general topics will be discussed in the morning — Government Goals and Social-Cultural Goals. The first will be led by Edward Connor, member of Detroit's Common Council and Vice-Chairman of the Supervisor's Inter-County Committee. The Rev. C. Kilmeyer Meyers, Suffragan Bishop for the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan, will lead the second.

Small discussion meetings will follow the morning presentations, and at 12:45 a luncheon meeting will be held, with Paul M. Reid, Executive Director of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission, as guest speaker.

Afternoon sessions will include a meeting on Economic Goals, led by George B. Catlin, Director of Area Development for Detroit Edison Company, and one on Physical Goals, led by Gerald E. Crane, of Crane and Gorvic, Architects and Planners.

Afternoon discussion meetings starting at 2:30 will be followed by adjournment about 4 p.m.

In a letter to interested residents, sent with the program, the Chamber described the Conference this week thus:

"The purpose of this Conference is to identify the future 'needs' and to suggest goals for the development of Livonia.

"The Conference is not intended to consider current problems — except as they relate to the longer term consideration — which would require an 'action program.' Rather, it is intended that this Conference serve as the starting point for continued examination in depth of the overall considerations which should guide the development of specific programs to meet these needs and goals.

"As indicated by the attached program, four major areas of consideration have been defined: Economic, Government, Physical and Social-Cultural. There will be brief talks on these four areas followed by simultaneous discussions of two topics in the morning and two in the afternoon, so that it will be possible for everyone attending the Conference to actively participate in the discussion of two topics. It is hoped that in the discussion meeting, the citizens of our community will express their ideas and concepts of Livonia's 'needs and goals.'

"The short introductory talks by well qualified speakers have been scheduled so that all persons attending the Conference can become familiar with basic concepts in each of the areas being considered.

"Arrangements will be made to supply each person attending the Conference with a summary of the discussions. It is recognized that the 'needs and goals' of a city like Livonia cannot be defined in one day, but it is hoped that the Conference will serve as the basis for further consideration of each area by members of the community."

UNDER EOA PROGRAM

Schoolcraft Receives $17,983 Federal Grant

Congressman Billie S. Farnum Monday announced that a $17,983 federal grant has been made to Schoolcraft College that will permit several students to continue their education.

The grant, under the work-study program of the Economic Opportunity Act, provides for part-time employment of students who otherwise might not be able to remain in college.

College jobs may involve food service, clerical tasks and the like. Off-campus jobs may involve tutoring, recreational leadership, community services and similar activities.

"I am most happy that this educational institutional will be to help so many students," said Congressman Farnum in Washington as he announced the grant. "Among many reasons is the fact that I received similar help under the old Civilian Conservation Act as a jobless high school graduate in the depths of the great depression of the 30s."

Livonia Hairdresser Wins Styling Contest

Honors were won recently by a Livonia hairdresser, Richard Janard, in a high fashion evening hairstyling contest sponsored recently by the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

Richard emerged from the national competition with a fifth place trophy at the North American Beauty and Fashion Show conducted at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel February 14-16.

He has collected three other trophies in the past two years in competition ranging from fantasy hair styles to salon styles.

Rotary Club Marks 60th Anniversary

The 60th anniversary of the founding of Rotary, the pioneer service club, was marked last week by the Rotary Club of Livonia.

It commemorated the occasion by renewing its pledge to work for the betterment of the community.

Tish Markley, president of the Rotary Club of Livonia, in announcing the club's anniversary meeting, said, "The local Rotary club joins a world-wide celebration planned by more than 11,800 Rotary clubs and 500,000 Rotarians in 127 countries. The occasion will be marked by men of diverse languages, religions, and political beliefs, but with a common bond in the Rotary ideal of serving others."

The first meeting of the world's first Rotary club was held on February 23, 1905, in Chicago. It brought together the founder, Paul Harris, a lawyer, with three of his business acquaintances: a mining engineer, a merchant tailor, and a coal dealer. In the early days of Rotary, it was agreed that only one representative from each business or profession in the community would be admitted, a principle of membership that continues today.

Mayflower Hotel Wins NRA Award

The Mayflower Hotel of Plymouth was named among the 20 outstanding entries in the Best Promotional Program Contest sponsored by the National Restaurant Association.

Stanton D. Lorenz, of The Mayflower, will receive a citation for merchandising ideas which help make dining out a colorful and pleasant experience at the National Restaurant Convention May 24-27 in Chicago's McCormick Place.

The 20 outstanding entries in the contest will be on display at the convention which will be attended by 55,000 food service operators. Thirty-three states were represented among the entrants.

WSU Dean Honored By Missouri College

The dean of Wayne State University's Monteith College has been named a Distinguished Alumnus of the University of Missouri.

Dr. Woodburn O. Ross, 1022 Kensington, Grosse Pointe, was awarded a Citation of Merit by the College of Arts and Sciences and the Alumni Association of the University for his scholarly work, and for his part in the establishment and administration of Monteith College, one of Wayne State's newest academic units.

Oakland's Tirrell For Revising State Taxes

"Revision of the state's tax structure is a 'must' if community colleges are to meet the tremendously increased pressures of post high-school youth in need of advanced education," Dr. John E. Tirrell, President of Oakland Community College, declared today.

Dr. Tirrell addressed a statewide "Legislative Workshop" sponsored by the American Association of University Women, in Lansing. Members of the legislature and the new State Board of Education were guests at the luncheon session where Dr. Tirrell spoke.

Twenty-two state communities have expressed their confidence in the community college by voting local tax funds

Hadassah Games Night To Be Held At Roma

Mrs. Nathan Aneta, president of the Livonia Hadassah announces that her organization will present its third annual games night at Roma Hall, 27777 Schoolcraft, Thursday, March 10, increased to 30.5% in 1964.

Donations will be $1.50 per person. All monies will go to charity. For ticket information call Mrs. Donald Schwartz, at GA 7-7465.

for the construction and operation of the two-year schools, Dr. Tirrell said.

He stated that these communities are prepared to match, with local funds, a state appropriation of $13 million for new construction. In addition, he pointed out, they believe that the assistance from state funds for operations should be raised to $300 per full-time equated student.

Unless such assistance is available, Dr. Tirrell warned, thousands of young people will be denied advanced education because of the lack of adequate physical facilities or because they will be unable to pay the cost of the increased tuitions which would result—or both.

Dr. Tirrell pointed to four factors accounting for the tremendous increase of students seeking admission to community colleges:

1. "World War II Babies" now reaching college age.
 2. The increased percentage of youth seeking post high-school education. (For Michigan 9.8% of 18-24 year-olds in 1940 increased to 30.5% in 1964).
 3. The knowledge explosion demanding more study in every field.
 4. Occupational demands that will require some post high-school training for more than 50% of the nation's labor force.
- During the decade from 1955 to 1965 community colleges in the state have increased from 12 to 22. Since the legislature passed new enabling legislation last June, community colleges have been created on a county-wide basis in Oakland, Monroe, Cass and Washtenaw. Also, Dr. Tirrell stated, colleges which were formerly parts of one local school district in Muskegon, Benton Harbor, Jackson and Lansing have moved to larger districts, again usually on a county basis.

Paul Herig Paintings On Exhibit At Plymouth Library

The Three Cities Art Club is exhibiting the works of the late Paul Herig in the Plymouth Public Library through April 24.

Herig, a former member of the club and the Belleville Artist's Guild, spent eight years as a designer and artist for Photo-Chrome Corporation in Detroit and was a general lithographer for 27 years. He also was owner of Herig's Nursery in Belleville.

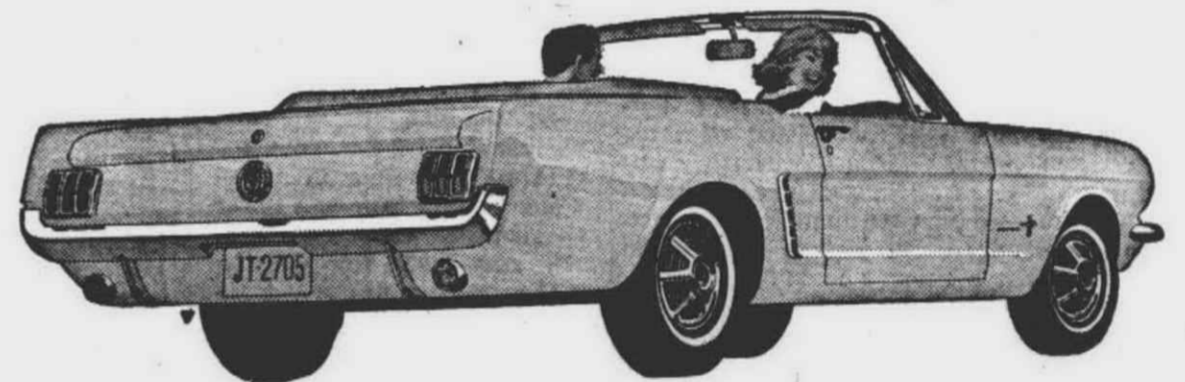

Some of his paintings were shown in exhibits of the Michigan Artist and Scarab Club, and in Northville, Livonia, Ann Arbor and Belleville.

RESIDENTS from surrounding local communities flocked to the grand opening of Dun Rovin Club House dining room on Haggerty Road in Northville. Former neighbors of manager of the Club House, Dr. Richard Kenzie (formerly of Redford Township), were the above party Aldrick Bellaire, Trustee of Redford Township; H. A. Alvers, Mrs.

Bellaire (standing), Mrs. Alvers and Mrs. H. Kupkowski. Other guests attending the opening were Mr. and Mrs. James Feeny, Hope Ave.; Mr. and Mrs. George Hamel, Marlon, Redford Township; Mr. and Mrs. Regard Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Acton and a party of 12. The Club House is open both for dinners and luncheons.

shifts to have help available if emergencies arose.

Capt. Barney Maas ordered in four men at each of the two stations in the Township and Assistant Chief George Schoeneman had four additional men report to the downtown and northside stations in the City.

And it was well that they did for each had an emergency when the storm was at its height.

The Township firemen had a call to 9208 Oakview where Elvin Cunningham had an apparent seizure while changing tires on his car. The fire-fighters had to battle their way through the snow to the home of Dr. Lee Feldkamp whom they took to the Cunningham residence and then transported him safely home after administering treatment.

The City firemen were called to help out the Township on an emergency call to 40350 Schoolcraft where a person was reported ailing and required transportation to a hospital. The call was answered with the rescue truck but when the firemen answered, the patient had already been moved by members of the family — a long battle against snow covered roads for nothing.

But the story was a bit different late Thursday night when a call came from the Garling subdivision to move an expectant mother to St. Mary Hospital. Despite the condition of the roads, the trip was made without incident even though the rescue truck more than once had to plow through huge drifts.

Other emergencies found the firemen called to twice help ambulances that were mired in the heavy snow.

The community began to work out of the deadlocked conditions Friday afternoon when every available grader and scraper in the area was busy at the various parking lots.

The Plymouth School Board ordered scrapers to clear the lots at each of the schools and the task was complete by Saturday evening — as a result classes resumed at all community schools Monday on a normal basis.

The Wayne County Road Commission had all of the main roads in the Township cleared by Saturday morning and then began the job of opening up the side roads. Most were ready for use by Sunday afternoon.

In the meantime, the Plymouth DPW had the city operating as if there had never been a storm — all streets were dry and only huge piles of snows in Kellogg Park and at various open intersections remained to remind one of the chilling experience.

Schrader Funeral Home handled three funerals during the latter part of the week and then held the bodies or placed them in a mausoleum until the graves could be opened in Riverside Cemetery.

Then came the high temperatures of Sunday and Monday and the snow was vanishing almost as quickly as it had arrived.

Plymouth Hi News

By CAROL OTWELL

Surprisingly enough, New York City is still standing after the invasion of the 28 members of the International Relations class and their chaperons and advisors. The group left for their five day stay in the big city on Tuesday, February 23, and returned Sunday night, February 28.

While in New York, their primary concern was to take tours and have briefing at the United Nations building, but their spare time was spent seeking Broadway shows such as: "How to Succeed in Business without Really Trying," "The Greatest Show Ever Told," or "High Spirits."

Side trips were also taken to Radio City Music Hall and other spots of interest in the city.

Members of the class have been hard at work all year raising money for the trip and their efforts were finally rewarded.

RECOVERY INCORPORATED, an organization which strives to help the emotionally disturbed cure themselves, gave panel discussions in the high school library on Thursday, February 18, for PHS students to observe.

Six adults, who had at one time been subject to mental disorder, participated in the discussion which consisted of three parts. First, a short history was given of Recovery Incorporated and then the members conducted session just as they would in a regular meeting.

Following the discussion, questions were answered for the students.

The six panelists presented their program every hour for a new group of students. Responsible for the program was sociology teacher, Donald Chimbley.

Supt. Bida reported the DPW grader had finally gone to pieces. He made a check of costs to rebuild the old machine but the early estimate was prohibitive and the Commission asked him to check into prices of new equipment.

After considerable discussion, during which Commissioner Arch Vallier told his colleagues he had checked the matter thoroughly and discovered it would be cheaper in the long run to buy new, the Commission passed a resolution authorizing Bida to buy the new equipment.

It was Vallier who brought up the question of a review of the building code after viewing the fire at the Crestwood Apartments a week ago Saturday.

At that time, Vallier let it be known that he thought the Plymouth code was weak and allowed minimums that actually created fire hazards in many instances.

"I realize these builders are following the code," said Vallier, "But I think it's about time this commission made a review of the code to see if there aren't spots that need strengthening. It's time we began to think of the protection of our citizens rather than allowing construction that just meets the minimums and that's all."

Vallier questioned the propriety of issuing a building permit to Simkins Builders who are planning an apartment building on Ford Street near the intersection of Byron and running parallel to Ann Arbor Road in the rear of the Detroit Underpinning property.

It was brought out that Simkins had applied for a permit on Feb. 24 but refused to accept it when Building Inspector Charles Thompson and the Acting City Manager reportedly included a provision that the builder must follow the new Michigan regulations which become effective in Plymouth on March 9.

After a lengthy discussion, climaxed by an opinion from City Attorney Edward Draugelis that the City couldn't force a builder to accept a permit on Feb. 24 that included requirements not effective until March 9, the Commission approved issuance of a permit but planned to make a request of the contractor that he follow the requirements of the state regulations. The Commission will act as a whole in making the request.

In other actions, the Commission:

Approved purchase of two new Police cars from Leo Calhoun Ford on a low bid of $879, including a trade-in, for a Ford Four-Door, and a bid of $1,189, including a trade-in, for a Ford Custom four-door. The approval was recommended by the Acting City Manager.

Approved participation in the annual Mayors Exchange Day on Monday, May 17 as one of the traditional features of Michigan Week.

Approved a plan submitted by the Municipal Building Authority for public participation in landscaping City Hall.

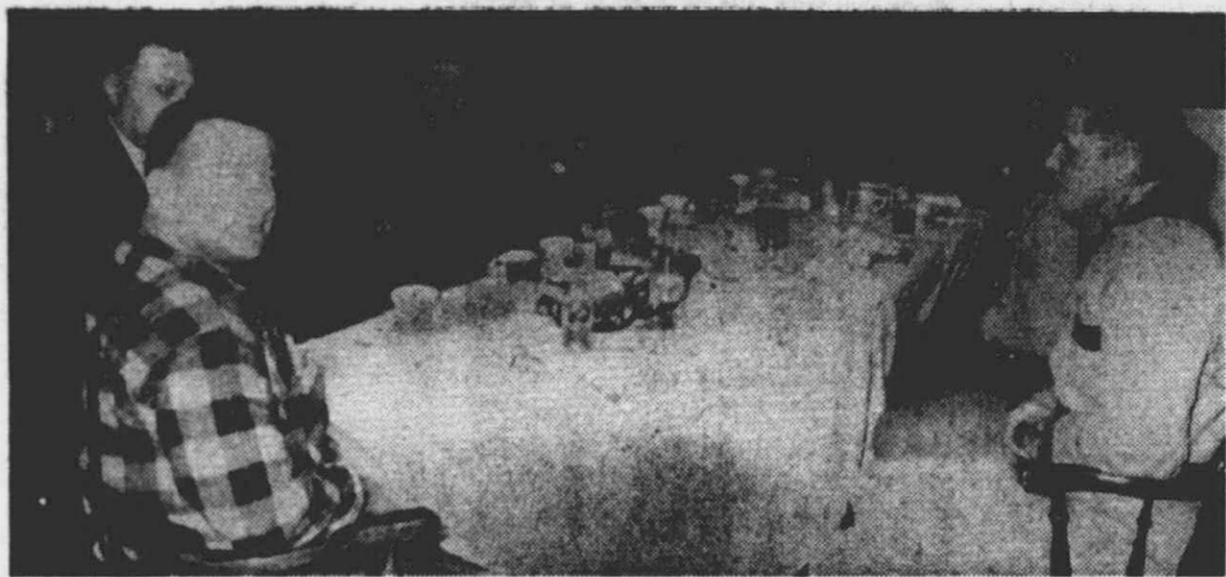

Approved plans to landscape the Historical Society building adjacent to the City Hall parking area.

Passed a resolution commending the Department of Public Works for the fine work in clearing the City of snow during last week's blizzard and heavy snowfall.

Received and filed letters from J. L. Hudson and Nat Sibbold praising the DPW for its fine work during the snowstorm and in the cleanup operations.

Tabled a proposal to furnish water for a 500-home development in Northville Township pending further study. The matter will be brought out for discussion again at a special meeting next Monday night.

Aluminum reflectors placed around the base of corn plants to increase the amount of light raised yields 22 bushels per acre, a research group recently reported.

THANKS FOR FINE JOB is given to tired workers from the Plymouth Department of Public Works by Manager Ralph Lorenz of the Mayflower Hotel. Lorenz invited the crew to be his guests in the Loft at the plush Round Table Club. The rules provide that all diners must wear coats and ties but all went by the boards this time as Lorenz ordered the workers to have anything they wanted. "It's our appreciation for an excellent job," he told Supt. Joseph Bida who is shown at the front of the table with Lorenz at the left.

For practically every one, that was the last time he was to have a chance for a break until late Friday afternoon or early that evening.

Foreman Howard Roddenberg, George Graham and Herb Canada, who had to drive some distance, finally made it to the DPW yards by 8 a.m. None of the trio was to rest until at least 36 hours later.

Realizing that his equipment wasn't capable of handling a situation such as that confronting him, Bida made calls to friends in the equipment leasing business and made arrangements to rent two graders and two loaders from the Michigan Tractor, Miller Equipment and Allied Concrete companies.

In addition he hired Walter Leininger, of Canton Center Road, to bring his small grader and stay on the job as long as needed.

Then started the task of clearing the main streets of snow that had drifted as high as five feet in the Symar Subdivision and on Liberty Street.

Three times crews had to be sent on emergency missions — once to McKinley where an ambulance was stranded and again to Haggerty Road where a second ambulance found the going too much.

Bida sent a man to one of the equipment firms to drive back one of the pieces of rented equipment. The trip normally takes slightly more than two hours. But with snow, drifts and abandoned cars blocking the path, the driver didn't arrive for six hours from the time he drove the machine out of the equipment firm's yard at Lyndon and Schaefer in northwest Detroit.

Once the equipment was on the scene, the DPW workers settled down to the task of moving the snow from the streets. Truck load after truck load was quickly dumped in the center of Kellogg Park where the piles reached as high as 20 feet into the air.

At the same time, street after street was gradually cleared until traffic could move around the city. All through Thursday afternoon and night, into Friday morning and into the afternoon and early evening, the workers continued, gradually winning the fight.

Then with most streets clear, Bida called a halt at 8 p.m. Friday and ordered all hands back for work at 5 a.m.

All were on the scene and resumed the struggle Saturday, winding up shortly after noon when the job of clearing all snow from the Central Parking lot was completed.

For those Plymouthites who found driving excellent on Saturday with only minor difficulties Friday evening, this work schedule tells the story.

Bida—5 a.m. Thursday to 8 p.m. Friday.

Vogras—5 a.m. Thursday to noon Friday.

Bagwell—5 a.m. Thursday to 7 p.m. Friday.

Kitner—5 a.m. Thursday to 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Behling—5 a.m. Thursday to 5:30 p.m. Friday.

Roddenberg—8 a.m. Thursday to 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Canada—8 a.m. Thursday to 4:30 p.m. Friday.

Graham—8 a.m. Thursday to 4:30 p.m. Friday.

These are the real heroes of the snow—the men who gave their all so that the City of Plymouth could get back to normal as quickly as possible.

Mayor Richard Wernette and City Commissioner Arch Vallier made a tour of the situation with Bida Friday evening and personally congratulated each member of the Department for the tremendous job.

er the eligibility is determined by the state statutes or by the City Charter.

Shaffer automatically becomes the defendant since the decision to place Draugelis' name on the ballot or leave it off, is his after the court makes its ruling.

"I just couldn't go into this election any further with this cloud hanging over the matter," said Draugelis, "I determined some time ago to take this action but had to get an indication from the Attorney General whether he was or was not going to enter into the case.

"I learned Monday that he had no intention of entering into this situation and I immediately made plans to file the court action. The Circuit Court judge's ruling will determine whether I am qualified or not. Regardless which way the decision goes, I'll feel much better about everything once the cloud is removed."

Draugelis and Ashton hope to have the matter before a Circuit Court within 10 days so that a decision will be available well in advance of the election.

Hats off to Joe Bida and his department for the tremendous job they did in cleaning up after the storm. Doubt if any other community in the area fared as well.

Sure was a surprise, Friday morning, after finally getting out of the driveway, to go up town and see the streets all cleared and cars parked at the curbs.

In Ethiopia Catherine Catlett is teaching ninth grade English. Her pupils range in age from 16 to 20 years. They are almost all boys.

Kitty is a Peace Corps volunteer. Her school is in Asmara, northern Ethiopia, not far from the Red Sea. She has been over there since September of last year and she loves it.

Asmara was occupied by the Italians before World War II and is more modern than the Ethiopian capital — it even has sidewalks. Although it is near the equator the mountains moderate the climate, making it similar to that in California. There is a U.S. Army Communications base there.

Kitty made a tape — describing Queen Elizabeth and Prince Phillip's visit to Asmara — it is on its way now. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Catlett of South Main Street, look forward to her weekly letters. Chuck Catlett, a junior at Plymouth High School has been instrumental in getting pen pals from Mr. Batika's English Class for his sister's students.

She told of an interesting Christmas — a deformed tree decorated with tin can lids.

Surely the enthusiasm of youth is the Peace Corps' greatest asset.

T.V. It has been interesting to see some Plymouthites appearing on the new Sports Channel. Saw Mike Hoben refereeing a basketball game. Runner Jerry Steele and Tony Hunt were in a recent M.S.U. track meet.

According to Janet Graham who returned last week from an 18-day tour of Europe, the most popular television show in Denmark is the Danny Kaye Show with Gunsmoke running a close second. The government-owned station is on the air every evening from 8 until 10.

Attention Bob Batchelder, John Conn, and all true fans of The Rogues! — Are you going to sit idly by and let them drop the show?

To Hawaii Mrs. Robert Jenkins of Sheldon Road left for California just the day before the big storm. She went on to Hawaii where she is visiting her sister.

Overheard "The only ones in our subdivision who made it out to the store on Thursday were the ones who ran out of cigarettes."

The American Association of University Women's staging of the play Cinderella was so successful that a repeat performance will be held on March 5, at 8 P.M. in the Plymouth High School auditorium.

Admission price 35 cents. For reservations call Mrs. John Tighe at 453-7320 or Mrs. William Upton at 453-8734.

Most colleges also require personal interviews. Applications should be made directly to the participating colleges and not to General Motors. Interested students should arrange interviews with their high school counselors for complete details.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Parents of Deaf Form Organization

A new group for parents and teachers of deaf children of Livonia, Garden City, and Redford Township has recently been organized.

Judge John M. Dillon of Redford Township donated his time to help with legal work of the group.

One of the most important aims of the new organization is to educate the public in an effort to eliminate the stigma of "deaf and dumb" so often attached to the deaf. Deaf children can be educated through the teaching of lipreading, speech, and the use of residual hearing. They can with proper training take their place in a hearing world.

Another aim is to bring a closer relationship between the home and the school so that parents and teachers may cooperate intelligently in the training of the deaf child.

The group is trying to raise funds for a summer program in speech training. The lack of continued speech training during the summer months causes many deaf children to regress in speech. Further information about the summer program and about the "Help Us Hear" group can be obtained by calling KE 5-1158 or GA 2-4409, Silver Grazyway, GA 2-4409.

See You There!

Staman Pinner will meet at the home of Gladys Hart on Thursday, March 4 at 9 a.m. Please bring any white material you may have, supply is very short. Stitchers will meet at the home of Margaret Wheeler on Monday, March 8 at 8 p.m. Members are asked to bring something for the White Elephant sale which will be held at this meeting.

Recovery's concept of "acting yourself into correct thinking" may be observed by attending the regular meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Plymouth High School. Training in Self Help Technique for good mental health will be demonstrated, the public is invited.

The 60 Plus Club will hold their regular monthly meeting on Monday March 8th at the First Methodist Church. A Pot Luck dinner will be served at 12 o'clock. Bring a dish to pass and your own table service. All members working on the Club's projects will report at 10 a.m.

The Plymouth Grange is sorry to have postponed the Rummage Sale scheduled for Feb. 27th, until March 6th Saturday. Dr. Ralph Pino will be the guest speaker on March 4th at 8 p.m. at the regular meeting as planned but the pot luck dinner on the same date will be cancelled.

The Country Fair at the Longacre School in Farmington has been postponed from last Saturday (Feb. 27) to this Saturday (March 6) because of the snow. As was announced in last week's Observer the Fair will be held in the afternoon and will feature 10 cent games and prizes for children.

"GiGi" will be presented by the Theatre Guild of Livonia Redford on March 5 and 6 at the Redford Union High School Auditorium. Originally scheduled for last weekend the production is also a victim of "old man weather."

The Farmington Business and Professional Women are planning a Membership Tea on March 8. Each business and professional firm in the community are invited to be represented at the tea.

The Redford Township Jayettes will hold a White Elephant Sale at the Manufacturers National Bank on Five Mile on March 8 at 7:30 p.m. Auctioneers will be Lee Nowak and Art Rockall. Jewelry, household items, kitchen goods, toys and games, knick knacks and garden tools are some of the items that will be sold.

A musical "Salute to the Romneys" in the form of the world premiere of the Frank Loesser musical comedy "Pleasure and Palaces" is slated for March 10 at Detroit's Fisher Theater, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Republican Party.

Commander of U.S.S. Skate to Speak in Northville Thursday

Captain James Calvert of the United States Navy will speak at the Northville Town Hall series on March 4. His talk is entitled "Surface at the Pole." Captain Calvert, who commanded the U.S.S. Skate on its voyage under the Arctic icecap, now holds down the European and NATO desk of the Navy Department at the Pentagon. He is the author of "Surface at the Pole," the story of his modern exploration of one of the earth's last frontiers.

The captain is an Annapolis graduate and a submarine veteran of World War II, when he was twice awarded the Silver Star and the Bronze Star. For his achievements on the Skate, he was twice awarded the Legion of Merit, and the submarine was honored with the only two Navy Unit Commendations ever given in peacetime. He commanded Submarine Division 102, which includes all of the Atlantic Fleet nuclear submarines, before assuming his present position.

Tickets may be purchased at the door of the P. & A. Theatre in Northville preceding Captain Calvert's talk. A celebrity luncheon at the Meadowbrook Country Club will follow.

Foreign Exchange Student to Speak to Sisterhood
The Sisterhood of Temple Beth Am is presenting as guest speaker for the March 8 meeting a young lady from the Far East who is a Foreign Exchange Student at Wayne State University. The meeting will begin at 8:45 p.m., at the Cohn Building, 31840 Seven Mile Road, Livonia.

Keeler Mothers to Hear Morrel Clute March 10

Dr. Morrel Clute, Professor of Educational Psychology at Wayne, will be speaker at Keeler Mothers Club at 8 p.m. March 10 in the school gym. Dr. Clute will discuss "How Kids Explore Their World."

Jean Henegar, president, will ask the nominating committee to present the slate of officers for next year. Nominations from the floor will be accepted and nominations will then be closed. Election of officers will be at the April meeting.

DAR Meeting Slated March 8

Three Flags Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will hold its monthly luncheon meeting March 8 at the home of Mrs. Charles Shaw in Farmington. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Harmon Tanner and Mrs. John Stromer.

Mrs. Stephen Droege, librarian at the Farmington Public Library, will give a book review. Plans will also be discussed for the forthcoming 65th State Conference of DAR slated for the Statler Hilton Hotel March 17 through March 19.

Program on Herbs Next for Plymouth

Dunning-Hough Library will be the gathering place for the Women of the Plymouth Branch of National Farm and Garden Association on March 8th at 1 p.m. when Dr. Howard Ross will be guest speaker. "Granny Herbs and the Witch Doctor" will be his topic. This is a return engagement because of his great appeal to the group on his last visit. Dr. Howard Ross is affiliated with the St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor. His great interest in gardening and art have come about from his world travels. Dr. Ross's hobby has brought about much pleasure to friends and people of the area as well as himself.

Shopping Around . . . with Penny Wyze

MADE TO suit is what the Mellie Ann Shoppe says — and proof is above. Harriet Hopson is in a blue-green lace made for her coloring and her figure.

Put A Chez-Soi In Your Life!

From the time she opened her door for business in November, Mellie Ann Originals has done a brisk business.

And, although it is off the beaten path, those who have "discovered" Mellie Ann have worn that path to her door.

Here is really a "find" for the small size, large size, the lady that is built like a pear or tent (as many of us are).

Mellie Ann employs a full time artist who sketches fashions for your approval. From these sketches the seamstresses at Mellie Ann make the garment after m'lady has selected her material.

Sketches by Harriet Hopson for Mellie Ann are made up from an actual or mental picture a customer has of a dress, gown, or outfit.

The courtier does not only deal in clothes. She has a complete line of high-styled costume jewelry. Or how about a hat made just for you to match a special ensemble? Then there is lingerie, bridal gowns, and gowns for attendants.

A Mellie Ann exclusive is the Chez-soi, (pronounced shay-sha) which is in her line of "at home attire." It is a fingertip tailored jacket with satin, contrasting or matching trousers.

Want to match your home decor, your husband's eyes, your French poodle — any combination of color may be used. Most of Mellie Ann's swatches come from New York, although many are imports.

Mellie Ann doesn't restrict fashion to just the ladies, either. She has several men customers and does men's jackets, also.

To show some of her fashions she has employed professional models and has had shows around the community. Her next show will be Saturday, March 20, at 12:30 at Pyrrhos Restaurant on Telegraph near Six Mile Road.

The designing room, work rooms and Mellie Ann Originals' office are located at 32401 Eight Mile (at Hubbard) in Livonia, suite S-2. Call 474-5887 for more interesting information.

TEA FOR NEW STUDENTS
The Faculty Women's Club of the U. of M. Dearborn campus assisted at the vice-president's reception and tea, on Sunday, Feb. 21, at Fair Lane.

The guests were new students on the Dearborn campus and their families and friends. The program included a welcoming address by Dr. William E. Stirton, university vice-president and director of the Dearborn campus, introduction of the faculty, tours of Fair Lane, and refreshments. Mrs. Charles Wesley of 11071 Clements Circle, W. Livonia is a member of this group.

Madam President

Jean Lee

"One of the first things I did when we moved to Farmington 14 years ago," recalls Jean Lee, "was to join the Town Club."

Pert, vivacious, Mrs. N. Donald Lee once lived and worked in Pontiac. When she married and moved to Farmington, she continued to work. She and her husband were later transferred from Pontiac to Livonia. They now both work at the Fisher Body Division on Plymouth Rd.

Her husband's family are long-time Farmington people; Don's father was postmaster for many years and his mother a teacher and later the school principal in Farmington.

Besides her husband, Jean has two boys in her family — Larry and Ron.

"When the boys were small," she says, "I was active in more clubs than I am now. I find that as they grow older I'm needed more at home."

Jean was interested in politics, too. She has been a delegate to the Democratic State Convention, was vice-chairman of the Oakland County Democratic Committee, and in the 1957 election she ran on the Democratic slate for the office of treasurer of Farmington Township—losing by only 163 votes. A "political dinner" in the Lee household means a casserole Jean has prepared beforehand that her family can slip into the oven.

"All my outside activities — working, volunteering, politicking, would be impossible without the help of Don's mother," Jean says. "She's always taken care of the boys when I can't be here."

Jean says she likes working — thinks it's good for her. She says she notices that when she's home on vacation she doesn't get nearly as much accomplished. She feels her family is happier on a schedule, too. "I think the boys take pride in my doing things outside our home," she adds.

Although Jean has cut down on her outside interests, she has continued her membership in the Town Club and this year became its president. "Even though you work, I feel you should do something for charity," she says.

St. Mary Hospital Aided By Neighbors

Sister Mary Columbine of St. Mary Hospital, the Sister Staff, and Miss Rita Radzialowski, director of nursing service, say that Livonia and the surrounding communities can be assured of efficient operation of their community hospital should a disaster strike.

Last Thursday's snow storm gave ample proof of this. The people of our suburban areas, and the public employees came through with flying colors—especially the police force. Sister Mary Columbine asserted that without the police of Livonia, Farmington, Nankin Township and Bloomfield Hills, the patients at the hospital would have been without professional help. The police—with personal sacrifice—brought in physicians, nurses, technologists and other essential personnel, which made possible good patient care to the many critically ill patients at the hospital. The hospital had 98 per cent occupancy.

Braise Veal

Veal chops and steaks, unlike lamb chops and beef steaks, should be braised for top flavor. They should be browned in a little hot fat, then cooked in a covered pan with a small amount of liquid—water, bouillon, fruit, vegetable juice or tomato sauce—until the meat is easily pierced with a fork.

The hospital administration is most appreciative of the sacrifices the St. Mary Hospital personnel made. Many worked 16-hour shifts.

Private citizens like the three fathers who waited for their wives to deliver and Mr. Charles Bousquet who battled the storm to bring his wife to work, stayed in to help in the laundry, the dietary department, housekeeping department—extricating linen, washing dishes, mopping floors, etc. The Department of Public Works of Livonia and Mr. Ray DeMaestri of Farmington, cleared a path for ambulances which made it possible for the ambulance crews to reach the hospital with emergency patients.

Madonna College student nurses and student volunteers of other divisions volunteered 15 hours of uninterrupted service.

Sister Mary Columbine made the statement that this experience has convinced the hospital staff that we can count on the people of the community to see us through in any disaster. She extends her personal and the hospital staff's most sincere appreciation to Mayor Moelke, the city officials of the City of Livonia, the Public Works Department, the Police Department, the Livonia and surrounding communities, to the private citizens and the hospital personnel for their cooperation and much needed help.

Kendallarks Help Senior Citizens Celebrate 3rd Anniversary

The Kendallarks will present an hour long program tuned to the likes of the Farmington Senior Citizens on March 11. At this time the Senior Citizens celebrate their third anniversary with a dinner party. The Kendallarks will do a request of some old favorites and new show tunes. The choral numbers of this performance will be under the direction of their capable director Mr. George Assemaney and accompanied by Beverly Morski.

berta Button, Eleanor Catherman, Grace Coffman, Joyce Gregory, Joan Harriman, Joye McCort, Margaret Marlowe, Mary Martin, Beverly Morski, Grace Nye, Betty O'Connor, Marion Cral, Mary Sheward, Marion Spense, Avis Terrill & Dolly Williams. These members also perform in choral work with Helen Bower, Nicky Clark, Donna Eddy, Connie Harp, Sue McCallum, Rosie McGowan, Donita MacClan and Faye Williams.

In addition the soloists, trio, quartette, comedy and dance ensembles are rehearsing for their part in the variety acts, which are part of this program. Members participating in the variety acts are Marlowe Belanger, Al-

Hunt On Again For "Kitchen Queen"

Entries are now being accepted for the fourth annual Detroit Edison Company cook-off to select the "Queen of the Kitchen" among women who work.

Electrical appliances will be awarded to 10 finalists.

The grand prize is a new deluxe range. The "Queen" will have her choice of six models from nationally known manufacturers.

The contest is open to any girl or woman working full time who lives in Southeastern Michigan.

Each is invited to submit a recipe for a one-dish meal that can be cooked in an hour or less. The recipe should be sent to Electric Living, 2000 Second, Detroit, Michigan 48226, or to the local Edison office.

Deadline for entries is midnight, Friday, March 5.

Each entry must include name, address, telephone number and occupation. The contestant must be able to compete in the cook-off which will be held in Edison's Electric Living Kitchen in Detroit on Thursday, March 25.

Professional home economists and cooks and employees of Detroit Edison and members of their immediate families are not eligible.

Home economic experts from newspapers, radio and television will serve as judges and select the ten most interesting and promising entries.

The 10 finalists will be announced Monday, March 22, and will compete in the cook-off for the top prizes three days later.

The finalists will be guests at the gala Salute to Women Who Work Week banquet at Cobo Hall on March 23.

Marion Ryan, director of the Electric Living Department at Edison, said the recipes of the finalists will be published in a handsome booklet again this year for general distribution free of charge.

Finalists in previous "Queen of the Kitchen" contests from this area are Maryann Klein, Hamlin Court, Farmington, finalists in 1962; Mrs. Donald Mann, Lyndon Avenue, Redford Township, finalist, 1964; Mrs. Helen Stojack, Fenton, Redford Township, finalist in 1963.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cox

Cox-Konczal Repeat Vows

Wedding vows were exchanged between Judith Konczal and William Cox in a nuptial Mass on Saturday, Feb. 27, in St. Maurice Catholic Church, Livonia. Father Thomas Cain officiated over the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Konczal of South Hampton, Livonia, and the groom, the son of Mrs. Myra Chandler and the late William F. Cox.

The petite dark-haired bride chose a tissue taffeta floor-length gown with a fashioned over-skirt. The bodice of her gown was encrusted with lace and seed pearls. A matching Juliet crown of seed pearls held in place her bouffant veil.

Her only attendant, Mrs. Robert Pierson wore a floor-length gown of ivory crepe with an avocado green velvet bodice.

The best man, a roommate of the groom's from Ferris State University, Big Rapids, was David Cickoy.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents hosted a luncheon at Hillside Inn in Plymouth for 130 relatives and close friends.

The newlyweds returned to the campus where they have an apartment until the groom's graduation this fall.

The new Mrs. Cox graduated from Ladywood High School and attended University of Detroit. Her groom was graduated from Thurston High School in Redford Township before entering Ferris.

Symposium On Drop-Outs Held By Whitman PTA

A symposium of the problem of Drop-outs will be held Tuesday, March 9th at 8 p.m. at Whitman Jr. High School.

This is a problem that we, as parents and citizens, must grapple with. What stimulates youngsters to seek an education? What signs, and at what age are danger signals evident? How do we communicate to them the undesirability of discontinuing education at too low a level? What educational help is available after dropping out?

These are some of the concepts that will be explored by the group. There will be three parents to question a panel of school administrators. We will have Mr. Kirksey, principal of Grant Elementary School, Mr. J. McDonald, ass't. principal of Whitman Jr. High School, Mr. G. McAdam, 10th grade principal of Franklin High School and Mr. J. Anderson, director of adult education.

Questions from the floor will be considered.

March is also the month for election of P.T.A. officers for the coming year. The following slate has been prepared for your consideration.

President, Mrs. John Burgess; first vice president, Mrs. Winthrop Sears; second vice president, Mr. Harry Talley; third vice president, Mrs. Richard Woodworth; recording secretary, Mrs. Charles Reeber; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Murray; Treasurer, Mrs. Glen Day; Historian, Mrs. Stanley Salem; council delegates, Mr. and Mrs. Justen Jones.

JIM BROOKS of Livonia Florist was quite a busy person the past few days. Jim was on the Michigan State Florist's Association Board of Retail Business Management and Chairman of the ticket sales for the Livonia Chamber of Commerce Annual Dinner held at Roma Hall on Wed., Feb. 24th. He is also serving as Team Captain for the annual Junior Achievement Drive. Now Jim hopes to get a few days rest before he starts into the Easter business.

Livonia Health Guild Notes 20th Birthday

The 20th anniversary of the Livonia Health Guild will be celebrated at the next meeting on March 11, at 12:30 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to anyone interested in the health of the citizens of Livonia to attend this, as well as all other luncheons that are held at St. Pauls Lutheran Church, corner of Five Mile and Farmington Roads. The speaker's topic will be made by Mrs. Lynch, GA 1-7685, by March 8.

The following are a list of Past Presidents who will be honored: Mrs. Robert Snodgrass, 1945-47; Mrs. Russell Wendt, 1947-49; Mrs. Homer Coolman, 1949-51; Mrs. Joseph Blaharski, 1951-53; Mrs. Ned Lingemann, 1953-55; Mrs. Walter Gregory, 1955-57; Mrs. Anthony Kreger, 1957-59; Mrs. Ward McCain, 1959-61; Mrs. Robert Blanchard, 1961-63; Mrs. Lawrence DeWitt, 1963-65.

Livonia Councilmen Talk To B&PW Club

The regular meeting of the Livonia Business and Professional Womens Club will be held on Tuesday, March 9 at Garrett's Suburban Chop House at 6:30 p.m.

The Legislation Committee is in charge of the program and will have two Livonia Councilmen as guest speakers. The topic of discussion will be "Some Current Legislative Issues in the City of Livonia."

All women are welcome to attend the meeting by making reservations before noon on Saturday, March 6. Reservations may be made by calling Sarah Smith, GR. 4-5557 or Madeline Leedom, GR. 4-9280.

The smallest city in the U.S. with a daily newspaper is Burlington, Kansas, with a 1960 population of 2,113.

JOANNE CAROL KING

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. King of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Joanne Carol, to Michael D. Samonek. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Samonek of Livonia. The bride-elect has attended the University of Michigan. Her fiancé, a naval cadet, is currently attending U. of M. A September wedding is planned.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Perkins, 31746 Perth Avenue, Livonia have announced the engagement of their daughter, Sharon to James T. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith of Avon Lake, Ohio.

Miss Perkins, a 1964 graduate of Bentley High School, is presently employed at the General Finance Corporation.

Her fiancé is employed at the Jones & Laughlin Steel Co. in Cleveland, Ohio. He was a 1961 graduate of Avon Lake High School.

May 15, 1965 has been set for the wedding.

Co-Op Nursery Lists Fashion Show, April 2

Livonia Co-Operative Nursery plans an April 2 fashion show at Lofy's in Plymouth. Plans were discussed at the March meeting of the Nursery Group in the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church.

Frieda Harrington, professor of art education at Wayne State University, was guest speaker. Prof. Harrington teaches art to future elementary school teachers. The title of her speech was "A Creative Approach to Toys." She not only lectured, but also demonstrated toy making to the group.

During the business meeting the annual fashion show was discussed. This is the only money making project of the Nursery and the profits are used to provide new equipment.

The fashion show April 2 will feature spring fashions by Zueback's Suburban — modeled by the Livonia Nursery Mothers. Tickets are $3 each with baby sitting available at 60 cents a child at the nursery. Ticket chairman is Denise Cushing, GA. 7-1171.

Rosedale Garden Club to Meet

The Rosedale Gardens Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will meet March 9 at 1 p.m. at the Rosedale Gardens Club House.

"Mr. Grow It All" from the S. S. Kresge's stores, known as Mr. Gerald Baker in real life will speak on "Garden Glory." There will be a plant exchange among members at the meeting. Mrs. F. Angers will be the "Tea Hostess."

PTA NOTES

JOHN MARSHALL

On Monday, March 8, at 8:00 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room, the John Marshall School P.T.A. will present an interesting program to parents at their General Assembly Meeting.

The Livonia Citizens for Livonia Parks and Recreation will present a speaker who will explain the proposal which will authorize the City of Livonia to acquire lands for additional park sites which will appear on the April 5th ballot. Also, an interesting film will be shown.

Election of officers for 1965 and 1966 is also on the agenda. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

GRANDVIEW

A report on the learning-to-read research program will be the highlight of the March 8 meeting.

Currently, at Grandview three methods of learning to read are being studied in the first grade classrooms. The PTA has invited the three teachers participating in this research program to give Grandview and Clarenceville parents a progress report.

Mrs. Ruth House will report on the Initial Teaching alphabet method, Miss Lynda Aldrich will report on the Basal Reader method, and Miss Katherine Wolfarth will report on the Language Expression method.

Kimberly Dances

More than 200 persons attended the Kimberly Oaks Civic Ass'n. Mardi Gras Dance held Feb. 26 at Knights of Columbus Hall on Schoolcraft and Eckles Roads. The Continentals furnished music.

CONGRATULATIONS for their golden wedding anniversary are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Marcel Riverson, 30989 Robert Drive, Livonia. They renewed their vows at Mass and communion with their family at St. Cunegunda Church in Detroit, where Mr. Gawronski belongs to the Holy Name Society and Mrs. Gawronski belongs to the Altar Sodality. The couple was married on February 13, 1915, in St. John Conte Roman Catholic Church, in Winniper, Manitoba. Mr. Gawronski retired from Ford Motor Company in January, 1961, after 39 years of service. They were honored at a dinner given by their sons Norman and Edward at the home of Norman Gawronski, 30371 Avon Court, Garden City, on Valentine Day. Present were their eight grandchildren and close friends. Mayor Moelke of Livonia, has sent them a congratulatory message on this special occasion.

Livonia Teen-Ager Holds Eleven Beauty Titles

(Editor's Note: Livonian Larry M. Bobrowski is currently studying journalism at Michigan State University. As a class assignment he was required to write a feature story for his local newspaper. The following is the feature he submitted. It concerns another Livonian, Cheryl Madaras, who is also a Beauty Queen.)

Baby Care Class At NW Red Cross

Free Red Cross "Mother and Baby Care" classes for expectant parents will be taught at the Northwest Regional Office, American Red Cross at 31228 Five Mile Road in Livonia.

These classes, dwelling on the importance of prenatal care and techniques in the care of the newborn infant are taught by graduate registered nurses. These six-week classes will be held on two different nights for the convenience of those interested. The first series begins on Wednesday, March 10 and the second six-week course is scheduled for Tuesday, March 16. Both classes are taught between the evening hours of 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. For further information telephone 422-2782.

Cheryl is one of three children of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Madaras of 32444 Lyndon, Livonia. She has a brother, Terry, 19, and a sister, Vicki, 12.

Presently reigning as Miss Michigan State Fair, Miss Madaras was crowned with the title by Governor Romney last September.

Other titles that she has held include: Miss Downtown Detroit; Miss Detroit Piston; and Michigan representative for "Seventeen" magazine. Cheryl attributes the beginning of her success to her parents for sending her to a modeling and finishing school when she was in the seventh grade. She said, "I was a clumsy child and my parents sent me there to improve my grace and poise."

She is presently modeling for Bobbie Brooks Inc. and had an opportunity to model at the Crystal Palace at the New York World's Fair this past summer.

Cheryl, who followed in her mother's footsteps as a model, said: "Modeling has given me self-confidence, a different type of education, an opportunity to travel, and gain poise."

The first time she modeled was with her mother when she was four years old. They modeled mother and daughter clothes.

She plans to attend Michigan State University in the Fall and major in Juvenile Law.

Cheryl made her debutante appearance Saturday, Feb. 6, at the "White Rose Ball" sponsored by the Hungarian Arts Club. She was brought out by Christine Eileen Shawl and Ralph Lane Ritter, Jr. were married Jan. 30 at St. Priscilla Roman Catholic Church in Livonia. Fr. Frank Cushing performed the ceremony.

Shawl-Ritter Marriage Jan. 30 at St. Priscilla

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Shawl of Livonia. The bride-groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lane Ritter, Sr. of Grand Rapids.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of silk tulle with an A-line skirt. The gown had a cascade train and she carried a cascade of white roses, ivy, and Stephanotis.

Judith Shawl, who served as maid of honor, wore a blue length two tone gown of blue velvet and light blue peau de soie. The bridesmaids, Donna Cogo of Livonia and Merrie Riddell of Ann Arbor, wore similar gowns.

Richard C. Ritter of Grand Rapids served as best man. Seating the guests were: Kenneth J. Phoeg of Rockford, Mich.; Donald L. Snider of Livonia; and David G. DeVries of Lake Villa, Ill.

Following a reception in Roma Hall, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in the Bahamas. They will reside in Ann Arbor.

The new Mrs. Ritter is a nurse at St. Joseph Hospital in Protests Taxes — All of 'em

Editor:
So our honorable mayor is objecting to getting a violation from the police department and protesting it, well here is one citizen who is protesting just about everything, especially the taxes.
So this year my taxes were increased, my income tax was reduced, so therefore I have to pay it all back to the government anyway, plus more, and you want to increase our taxes again, well I am against any Parks issue or anything that will increase my taxes. How far can the Council or the Mayor go. If you decrease General Motors and Ford taxes, how about the little people who pay your salaries. There are many things that I would like to see improved before you start planning parks, and then you don't even know where the parks will be.
Dear Mr. Mayor, take a ride down Newburgh Road and see if you can stand the holes and bumps, or drive down Five Mile Road and hit one of those holes in the road. Anyone for a broken wheel?

The bite out of my taxes that hurt the most was the school tax and college tax, now it isn't even getting the money it was promised by the government. No sir, no more raises for me, I've had it.

Since when do we need such fancy and spread-out schools. We don't, and there is nothing wrong with a two-story sturdy built school. Our children have been pampered long enough with fancy things, and I agree that it's the parents' fault. If it was up to me, no child would be allowed to drive to school, there is transportation provided for the children and if you live within walking distance, walk. I used to walk and I can still run a few circles around some of our teenagers. Put into effect a curfew law and stick to it. There is no good reason why we shouldn't have one. Crack down on our children and mean it. Just because everyone's doing it, why do we have to go along and let our children talk us into letting them do it.

Another gripe, banged up garbage cans. We pay for this service, and what service, garbage half emptied, cans thrown all over and lids spread far and wide. Two weeks ago, one of my cans was missing, last week, both were missing, now two new ones were purchased and so last night, lids thrown all over and cans with a dent in them already.

Also, Mr. Mayor, can't you spare the paint to paint the lines in the middle of the roads or how about the sides? I believe this to be a necessity. And speaking of roads and traffic, Mr. Mayor, why don't you let the light at Levan and Schoolcraft go all the time instead of just for the convenience of the Ford workers. Other people use that road in the morning and you could stand a left turn signal at Plymouth and Levan Roads. It shouldn't take 10 to 15 minutes on some mornings to get through there.

These are just a few of the things that have been on my mind for a long time and I wanted to tell someone about. People laugh at you when you say something, but the time has come to do some acting and I would be very pleased to talk to someone who would really listen and maybe try and do something for us average citizens.

When I called the tax department about the taxes on my house, he said that the house was reappraised. How? They drove by it. Now is this the way that things are done? I ask you. Maybe you can pass this letter on to someone or somebody who would like to come and talk with me or I would be willing to say what I think to some of these men who run our city. What do you think? I'm tired of the old runaround.

An Angry Citizen,
Mrs. Maurice E. Robinson,

Students and UN
Editor:
This letter was sent to the Clarenceville Board of Education and we would appreciate it if a copy could be included in your paper.

Gentlemen:
The Livonia League of Women Voters wishes to commend your support of Principal David McDonald in his decision to allow the Clarenceville High School students to participate in a competitive examination on the U.N.

The National League of Women Voters has long supported the aims, policies and goals of the U.N., and believes that American ideals and principles are emulated by the United Nations. Through the workings of this world organization there is hope of peace, understanding, justice and equality among all people.

It is important that our young people study and learn about the United Nations, its functions, its politics and its achievements. With such knowledge, tomorrow's leaders will objectively support U.N. attributes, criticize U.N. failures and strive for "a more perfect union" of nations.

Mis-statements

Editor:
In reading Dr. Allen's Council Comments in the January 20th Observer, I was struck by the amount of mis-information that could be placed in two columns.

To label as "Brainwashing" the legitimate reporting of local school news is, an example of far-out thinking and certainly belittles the intelligence of the reading public.

The statement that "in the last few years God has been thrown out of the classrooms and sex substituted," without one bit of clarification leaves it as a very emotion packed statement.

Emotion however, is no substitute for facts or intelligent thinking. If Dr. Allen has facts related to that statement he should bring them to the public's attention and not just depend on a John Birch quote.

Dr. Allen suggests dropping that part of our school district that lies outside of Livonia and says that this is legally possible. If he would check the law he would see that this is not legally possible and certainly not very desirable. I cannot conceive of how Dr. Allen can decide that children living in a certain part of our school district are not entitled to the same quality education he would seek for his children.

A simple phone call to our board of education would have saved him the embarrassment of at least two of his mis-statements. Our schools do indeed have written policy and a complete list of all textbooks used in Livonia is available to any interested citizen.

It's not very likely that Dr. Allen would conclude that because a person has been to a dentist he is an expert on dental health. He apparently concludes however, that because he has been to school he is an expert on education.

The schools of Livonia along with many other outstanding school systems in our country are doing an excellent job of educating our youth and they are doing it in the face of the ramblings of those who would destroy the American Way of Education to further their own far right objectives.

CONCERNED.

Censorship
Editor:
Myra Chandler's recent editorial on parental censorship struck a grateful chord in me. This type of article has been long overdue. Parents say they love their children, yet they are too rushed to take that minute to ask them exactly what show they are going to see and what it is about.
So next time you wrap up the garbage, don't use that part of the paper where the movie ratings are listed without having read them first.

Bentley Senior Nominated for Naval Academy

Congressman Billie S. Farnum announced the appointment of Stephen Woodard, 17, 15685 Oporto, Livonia, as principal nominee for an opening at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

Woodard, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Woodard, was born November 17, 1947, in Bangor, Maine. He is a senior at Bentley High in Livonia.

Woodard has been active in the Cub Scouts and the Boy Scouts, achieving the rank of Eagle Scout, the high school marching band, high school concert band, a private dance-band and he also had a paper route.

Aids in Celebration

Seaman Jim E. Carver, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barrs, 14745 Auburndale, Livonia, helped celebrate the 23rd anniversary of the Navy's Amphibious Force, while serving aboard the dock landing ship USS Ashland.

Roberts Is 'Insincere' on Tax Reform—McNamara

Edward H. McNamara, Democratic candidate for the State Senate, this week charged his opponent with being "insincere" in his intent to support fiscal reform this year.
McNamara pointed out that his opponent first voted for a fiscal reform bill in 1962, but then voted for its reconsideration, and finally offered the tabling motion that killed it.
"Another inconsistency in my opponent's position," McNamara continued, "is his claim that he is a leader of the Republican party. Last year the Republican party refused to enact fiscal reform. If my opponent is a leader of his party, he must share in this failure. He must be judged on his past performances."

"Fiscal reform cannot be postponed until next year, when it would be buried in the politics of an election year. If we wait until 1967, it may then be too late, according to many economists."

"If we do not find new tax sources soon, and reduce the present inequities in our tax structure, we will find ourselves back in the same financial dilemma we were in a few years ago," McNamara stated.

McNamara noted that the Republican party is "lukewarm" on tax reform, "as witnessed by the resolution adopted at their recent state convention. My party and I have taken a positive stand on the need for tax reform now, even if it means the enactment of unpopular taxes."

ELECTRIC HOME HEATING

NOW SOLD AND INSTALLED IN THIS AREA by DETROIT EDISON

Here's important news! Especially if you're wondering how best to replace a tired out, old heating system. Or if you have a newly added room to heat. Or a room that's always been chilly.
All you have to do is phone or stop at your Edison Office. One of our Electric Heating Specialists will gladly call on you. He'll give you an estimate on the cost to install electric heat. He will recommend a system best suited to your needs. Then, if you'd like, he'll arrange for installation and financing. You'll get all the exclusive benefits of flameless electric heat PLUS the same prompt and considerate service you've come to expect from Detroit Edison.

HOW ABOUT ELECTRIC HEAT OPERATING COSTS?

Electric heat costs more than other types of home heating. But you will be surprised at how little more when you consider how much you gain in comfort and convenience.

And there's an All-Electric Domestic Rate which can reduce all your electrical operating costs, including those for electric heat. Yes, when your home is heated electrically throughout and when the major appliances you have are all electric, you qualify for a lower electrical rate.

Remember, if you'd like to know more about electric heat and the All Electric Rate, just stop or call your Edison office. It costs nothing to get the facts!

P.S. Recent downward rate adjustments can make supplemental electric heating lower in cost too. Supplemental electric heat's just the thing for cold corners and always-chilly rooms.

Conformity and Lack of It The Problem... What's the Answer?

THE GREASES . . . good grades be damned, let's find some action, something different—a new thrill.

There is something going on today that is called the "greases vs. frats" and to the uninformed, it sounds like some kind of disease. There have been accounts of this malady in a leading Detroit paper; a popular radio station is staging a contest between the two sides, and not only is this lowering the standards of the radio, but it is insulting to the intelligence of anyone who listens to this drivel.

Perhaps "greases vs. frats" is a disease, a disease of the worst kind. The type of disease that rots and corrodes any normal mind.

The real question that is being asked isn't which is better, the "frats" or the "greases", but why is there the need for this classification? Are we such an insecure generation that we merely turn our mother's apron strings into a Madras blouse or skinny pants?

"Frats" and "greases" have more in common than they would like to admit. Both groups have never found their "me"; they cannot be themselves because they do not know who they are; so they must identify with a group, whether it be the "frats" or the "greases".

THE FRATS . . . Conformists too, follow the leader—the social leader, that is.

Both groups are strongly against whoever is not "in" or will not conform to the standards set by individual groups. The people that form these groups are not capable of being different because of a lack of self-confidence and they resent anyone that is.

But what happens to the people that, no matter how hard they are hammered at, do not fit into the pegholes? What about the people that don't want all Madras in India or a year's supply of eye shadow? These people that are different or individuals are cruelly herded into one group and labeled by society's cowards as "weirdos".

Now we have three groups: frats, greases, and weirdos. The first two groups are entered voluntarily, but the third group is a sad, sad story. The third label is thrown on someone carelessly, simply because that person does not comply to the "rules". Because someone does not have the "right" clothes he isn't fit to exist in today's status-cluttered world.

Upon registration at a high school, every student should not only list the general data, but he should also name the group ("frats" or "greases") that he is affiliated with. If he chooses not to comply with this law of the high school social ladder, he should have his forehead immediately branded "weirdo".

This way there won't be anyone left to remind us of some abstract called individuality; because everyone will be branded or classified into one group. The quality of the group will not matter; the fact that there is a group for everyone will.

Sin And Our Young People

Your article on the controversy surrounding the use of Catcher in the Rye in Livonia's schools may have done a good many Catholics like myself a disservice in that the only negative review quoted was from a Catholic periodical. I feel compelled to call to your attention the fact that numerous Catholic periodicals, including America, (January 26, 1963) have given this book favorable reviews.

I would like to quote from an article in the Catholic Library Association Newsletter, Fall, 1963, written by Rev. Edward F. Kennedy, CSSR, entitled "Children's Books Are Not Enough."

"Today, with the paperback explosion and the weakening of parental authority, it is becoming more and more a question of teenagers reading in an underground furtive fashion with only their peers to help them evaluate a book, or reading with guidance and assistance from mature and wise teachers. The question, then, is not whether or not books such as Catcher in the Rye, The Lord of the Flies, The Power and the Glory or similar ones will be read by our young people, but rather whether or not they will be read with our guidance and help.

Our high schools must give our students an authentic experience. Pride and Prejudice and Typhoon are good novels and can still be taught, but if they are the only visions of life in literature presented to our students, the students may well decide that our schools and their actual lives have nothing in common. There must be some immediacy in the literature we take with them so that they can identify themselves with the characters, feel for them, learn from them. Otherwise the English class instead of providing new insight and understanding of themselves and of their world will only reflect a divorce between the classroom and the social and political realities of life. And as a result they never become readers of good literature.

We must admit, too, that the actual experience of most teenagers today is wider than that of our generation. Yet despite the apparent sophistication of the generation we find that often their worldly wise impressions are shallow. By discussing a teenager like Holden Caulfield who despite his vocabulary and his man-about-town line is lonely, frightened, worried about others and compassionate towards them, they learn of their own need to grow in maturity if they are to face the problems of life.

Sometimes the whole philosophy of life enshrined in a novel is different from or in direct opposition to our own. But this is true of the world in which our students live. By gaining this vicarious experience of their world, they gain insights, understanding and above all, compassion about the world in which they live. Atheists, moral deviates, alcoholics, racists, are people, people of their world and perhaps, sooner than we might think, will be people of their experience. Whether or not they turn from these fellow humans in self-righteous condemnation or have compassion for them may largely depend on the vicarious experience they have gained from reading worthwhile, mature novels."

If a parent wished to keep his son or daughter completely unaware of the depravity of human nature, he would have to deny him access to the Bible, to many of the classics including Shakespeare, Homer and Chaucer, to the daily newspaper, the weekly news magazines, and many of the women's magazines as well. If such a situation is possible and all reference to sin is kept from a young person until he graduates from high school—what a shock awaits him! Is this person sheltered from the realities of life from infancy prepared to face the world as it really is?

In many instances the use of so-called four-letter words is vulgar rather than immoral. A mature person should be able to see beyond the four-letter words in Catcher in the Rye to Holden's essential goodness and feel sympathy for him. Speaking as a teacher, a librarian, and a concerned parent, I should have been happy had my own 17-year-old son been a member of the class in question.

Oakland Republicans Show Way

The recent issue of the Farmington area YMCA Newsletter carries the following quotation from the late Supreme Court Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes: "Rancor and bigotry, racial animosities and intolerances are the deadly enemies of true democracy, more dangerous than any external force because they undermine the very foundations of democratic effort."

This elementary truth is gaining growing acceptance. The Republican Party of Oakland County, this week, will hold a well planned, top level, human relations workshop, to which it has invited all human relations councils, religious groups, civic associations, political organizations and the general public.

The Republicans are to be heartily commended for this forward step. Civil rights is a moral issue, not a political one. But it is most appropriate for the party of Lincoln to be concerned with it.

Winter Wonderland? READER SPEAKS UP: Answering Dr. Allen

Editor:
 Livonia Councilman Allen is doing a great disservice to this community, for his statements in the February 17, 1965 issue of the Observer are reprehensible.

He has declared his intentions "to war with the school system for the City's share of the taxes . . ." and in so doing he has launched an offensive that may very well destroy one of the finest school systems in the state. Allen's irresponsible statements attacked tax payers who have willingly approved school spending year after year to keep up with unusual population growth and rising costs. In effect, he has hit out at every PTA, civic association and citizen group that has spent so much time and energy studying school needs and requesting even greater expenditures, not for selfish or political reasons, but to maintain quality education in Livonia.

Those of us who have taken sufficient interest in our school system to obtain the facts about school needs, to follow budget requests, and to work for the passage of bond issues, know and understand that quality education is not cheap. We also know, that copies of school budgets are available to anyone who asks, and that yearly audits are published in the local newspaper for all interested persons to read.

Councilman Allen complains about school expenditures from 1954 to date, but he fails, neglects, or purposely refuses to enumerate the amazing value we have received for the dollars we have spent during the last ten years.

In the 1954-1955 school year we had 5,625 pupils in the school district, and today we have 27,830 pupils. Since 1954, we have built (or are building) 22 elementary schools, 6 junior high schools, and 2 high schools. It should be noted that our 2 new high schools have been cited as model examples of excellent structures constructed at an unusually reasonable cost. Our school district now employs 2100 people, utilizes 69 buses to transport 10,000 children back and forth to school each day and has assets totaling $42,000,000.

In my opinion, the citizens of Livonia should be commended for their interest in quality education and for their willingness to provide 27,830 children with the training they deserve.

Yours truly,
 DONALD H. MURCH

About Dr. Allen!
 Editor:
 The article in last week's paper referring to Mayor Moelke's criticism of our city council's manner of disposing of their obligation in regard to Federal aid as part of the anti-poverty program may have some food for thought.

If Dr. Allen was appointed by a legislative body (Livonia City Council) and as a part of this body with his views concerning such a program already known by the other members, I would like to know how broad a view the other citizens in the community will be granted. I, indeed, agree with Mayor Moelke that this duty as it was carried out by the representatives of our community was a big farce.

From personal observation of the way Dr. Allen has raced his cars down residential streets where there are children playing, I question his own personal feelings and reasons for feeling that the City of Livonia couldn't use Federal funds for poverty cases or doesn't he realize that there are thoughtless and careless children living in Livonia as well as poor people.

Laws were made for all people and Federal funds are granted to all communities in which there are needy cases.

Thank you for your consideration—now let's hear our city representatives' and Dr. Allen's reply or was this another disposition of obligation in haste.

Some Answers Please
 Editor:
 Look before you leap in parks!

When the parks issue came up, I thought it was great. Spend to save, I thought, but as more facts came forth, I took a second look and here is what I found:

First and most important: Since when did I ever give anyone a large amount of money when I didn't know what I was buying?

How can we save on later taxes if most of the proposed land could never have had homes on it anyway? The Quarry and Tarabusi Drain land, for example. How will this prevent the need of additional schools in a crowded neighborhood. This land will still cost us top dollar even though it is useless as is.

How long will we have this on our taxes and will the four million completely develop these parks, or will we have that proposal up for vote in a couple of years?

Take a look at the park nearest you. Is it littered, under water, patrolled, have uncut weeds or grass? Ours is what they call underdeveloped, no funds we are told. So all we have is constant blow-sand, trash and high weed. Who is foolish enough to think 1200 acres will be so much better?

We have many close recreation areas now. We aren't like Dearborn, surrounded by Metroplex. West and North we have Hines Park, miles of it; Kensington Recreational area, Pinckney Recreational area, Island Lake Recreational area, and many, many lakes. Yes, we have to get in our cars to go, but you also will have to get in the car to go to the outskirts of Livonia for most of the proposed park. If you ask about a park in your overcrowded area, as I did, you will be told "So Sorry, Too Late. The builders have got all the open land. So, instead, they buy useless land, pay top dollar and all the lots

Observing the Scene . . .

By MYRA CHANDLER

Why does it take death to drive home a point? Is this the only force we respect?

- A child killed at a street corner to get a needed traffic light?
- A family wiped out at a railroad crossing to get adequate crossing guards?
- A fireman crippled for life to scrap antiquated equipment?
- A sick boy hanging by his neck for five hours in a jail cell to point up the lack of proper facilities?

Part of the trouble perhaps is the fact that we all moved to our ticky-tacky houses in the suburbs with the same idea. LOW TAXES — but we want all the same services we left behind in the City—all, and better, if you please.

Thus, facilities lag behind—and in the case of juveniles, far, far behind.

For a long time I have been an admirer of Judge James Lincoln and sympathized with his plight of having to discipline kids and observed his discipline not followed through properly. He has long sounded the alarm for more juvenile counseling, rehabilitation, segregation of disciplinary cases.

On Feb. 18 a mentally disturbed 15-year-old named Dieter Michael Woitas hung himself in the Livonia jail. Two days later Judge Lincoln delivered a withering "J'accuse" against the Livonia Police Department for its handling of the case. The Department's image was badly damaged by the attack. Judge Lincoln did so, I believe, to arouse public interest in the plight of such troubled kids.

Maybe in his mind the end (if he succeeded in rousing the apathetic public) would justify the means.

On the other, and more serious, hand, when law officers start name calling among themselves, they dilute their entire image. None benefit—not even the kid, because he is dead.

The Livonia police were guilty on two counts. They accommodated the aunt of the boy who was in the next jail cell. She visited the boys and brought them food. Also the Livonia police thought they could avoid an unnecessary trip downtown to the juvenile home as the Illinois police were supposedly on their way. Both errors in judgment, but not dishonest ones.

There is no doubt the story could have turned out differently. The tables could have been turned. The policeman could have been clobbered on the head by the poor sick boy and died. The boy apparently had this in his thoughts.

It is easy for armchair policemen to look upon the police as incompetent morons. — But just for a moment, Walter Mitty, imagine yourself answering a police call. "Get to the bank—armed robber"—or an accident call where you must literally dig some people out of a back seat of a car. Not for you? Well, somebody has to do it—and believe me the pay is not that good.

If we have honest men on our force; as citizens, I think, we are obligated to stand behind them—they are entitled to HONEST mistakes.

By the same standard, a dishonest policeman should be made to walk the plank—no matter who he knows. When police betray the public trust they must be an example—and swish—leave the scene . . .

Who, Not What, Is Difference
 Editor:
 Serious students of journalism certainly do deplore sensationalism in the press.

It is not a question of whether a story presents a total picture of a man. But whether the story presented is a one-sided picture of a sordid, totally out of context picture of a depraved man.

The Kinsey Report of which you spoke was a good example. To print such a report for the elite group for whom it might be beneficial makes the report news. To present it to the general public solely because it deals with sex, for the sake of sex alone, is sensationalism.

A human interest story evokes the emotions; sensationalism aims primarily at the passions.

To deal mainly with human interest stories is to be mediocre; to traffic in sensationalism is to be substandard. Sensationalism does not so much reflect the society as it reflects the attitude of the publisher who has the final decision of what his paper will contain.

The question is what kind of newspaper does society want, and what kind should it receive.

His Own Words
 Editor:
 I would like to point out to Councilman Daniel Allen that what he referred to, in last week's Observer, as an attack on him, was his own words, taken from his February 10th Councilman Comments column, and used by me with the appropriate quotation marks.

Every word of my letter, except the first dozen words or so, lifted verbatim from his article.

Therefore, his vituperation was uncalled for, and I believe that I am entitled to a public apology.

Yours very truly,
 SHERIDAN V. HOLZMAN

Beware of Rumors
 Editor:
 Last week one of our elected city officials gave an excellent bit of advice to all. He said, "in all reading, discern between the hatchet men, the character assassinator, and the constructive critic."

But, he forgot to mention the most important of all—beware of the rumor monger.

Of course I know why he didn't give this bit of advice; he was openly spreading two rumors. I wonder how many he spreads secretly?

Picture Talk by Les Wilson

QUICK AS QUICK

Not long ago, one of my customers dropped in to tell me how much he enjoyed the KODAK Electric 8 Automatic camera he'd bought from me. Not wanting to miss an opportunity to learn something worthwhile, I asked him to tell me what he liked most about it. "I got a movie camera in the first place," he said, "so I could take pictures of the baby to send to my father and mother. They live so far away, they don't get much chance to see him.

"Well," he went on, "you know how hard it is to get a baby to do something cute for you. Just about the time you're ready to give up, he does something. And that's just the time your camera needs winding or you've finished a roll of film. That doesn't happen with this camera. You never have to wind it and loading a fresh cartridge takes only a second or two."

So . . . if you want a camera that's quick as quick to use, try one of these KODAK Electric 8 Automatic Cameras. Not only is it ready in an instant, but just about everything on it is automatic. An electric eye sets the lens opening for existing light. And the lens is pre-focused at the factory.

If you've never seen this camera, come in and let me show it to you. With winter offering so many picture-taking opportunities, you'll enjoy it right from the start for shooting scenes of the kids coasting, family skiing excursions, even a backyard bird-feeding station with lots of ornithological activity. And come Spring, you and the camera will both be ready at the drop of a cartridge to shoot anything that moves.

299 Michigan Companies Showed Confidence in Future During 1964

LANSING—Capital expenditures of $1.6 billion were announced by Michigan industries during 1964, indicating industrial confidence in the future of the State, the Michigan Economic Expansion Council said in presenting its 1964 report of the Michigan Department of Economic Expansion to Governor George Romney and the State Legislature.

The report, reviewed by the Council at its annual meeting, shows 299 Michigan companies announced expansion plans last year.

Donald F. Valley, Detroit, the Council chairman, said the expansion programs announced by General Motors, Ford and Chrysler in 1964 exceeded $1 billion to be spread over the next three years, indicating a continuing growth of industry and jobs for this period.

B. B. Conboy, executive director of the Department, said the wide base of industry covered by the $600 million expansions announced by companies other than the auto makers, reflects a broad attitude of confidence in Michigan's industrial atmosphere which will be a major factor in encouraging diversified industrial growth of the State.

Many of these expanding companies use Michigan's natural resources, which means additional income for citizens in the agricultural, mineral, wood, chemical and construction industries, he pointed out.

Conboy estimated 125,000 new Michigan jobs will result from the expansions announced in 1964. 50,000 jobs will be directly in the companies involved, with 75,000 additional jobs created in service and ancillary areas.

Attraction of new industry is a very competitive business among the various states, Conboy pointed out, but favorable legislation in Michigan, plus availability of skilled labor and practical and well-developed plant sites have helped Michigan to maintain its position as a leading industrial state.

"Industries requiring technically-trained personnel have been predominant in our growth," he continued, "which means our college graduates will find more opportunities at home in the years ahead."

"In the foreseeable future, our auto industry will continue to be the major influence on Michigan's economy, but with the national 'baby boom' coming to age, our ability to attract industrial growth, development of nationally recognized research facilities and diversity of industry are extremely favorable influences.

"State and local governments, business and citizens must continue to plan for industrial cycles, but the economic future of Michigan seems clear and bright."

The Department's industrial development program last year placed special emphasis on attracting additional research and development. Thirteen, two-man teams composed of Department representatives and private citizens, made presentations of Michigan's research advantages to 38 electronic companies located throughout the country.

As a result, several good prospects for future Michigan research installations have been developed. A similar drive has been aimed at chemical companies.

AT THE END OF 1964, the Department was working with 38 companies interested in starting new plants in Michigan.

The Department also is working with Michigan communities and over 100 local industrial development corporations throughout the State to assist them in getting properly organized to develop new industry.

Most of the $750,000 made available by the Legislature for research programs to develop new products and to aid economic growth has been allotted to Michigan universities and colleges for 13 projects approved by the Legislature and the Governor.

For the first time in several years, promotional activity to focus attention on Michigan's advantages for business and industry was carried on by the Department in 1964, the report said. The Legislature appropriated $60,000 for this purpose and the money is being spent in cooperative programs with Michigan companies.

This total program has developed several times the amount of advertising and promotion money which the State is spending. Advertising space in national and State newspapers, trade magazines, and on billboards, plus radio and television time, and direct mail are being utilized in the program.

The Department cooperated in development of the Michigan Day program on May 18, which resulted in a vast amount of free publicity for Michigan for an expenditure of less than $15,000 which the Legislature authorized for this purpose.

Department liaison with a number of federal agencies has produced considerable funds, information and guidance which is proving valuable in promoting State growth and this active participation of the national government in State improvement projects can be expected to increase in the future, the report said, and as a result the Department expects liaison will require a greater amount of work as programs expand.

Ten Mile PTA Stages Banquet

Nearly 500 turned out to enjoy the recent pancake supper which was sponsored by the 10 Mile PTA. The supper replaced the regular February meeting.

The room having the highest parent membership went to Mrs. Galloway's fifth grade. Ice cream was served to the children on Feb. 11, as a prize for their effort in getting their parents to join PTA.

The PTA council is sponsoring flouride treatments again this year. The hygienist will be at 10 Mile School starting on March 10 and will continue through March 24.

Lunch is furnished to the volunteer help. Mrs. Glenna Perkins, 10 Mile PTA Health Chairman, is in charge. If you wish to help please contact her at 474-2433.

The next regular meeting of the 10 Mile PTA will be held March 15. A spring concert is being planned.

NEW DUPLICATE BRIDGE CLUB
There is a new Duplicate Bridge Club in this area which has a game each Sunday evening at 7:30. The game is conducted by Margaret Hayes, and is held at 9111 Dixie, near W. Chicago, Redford Township. Contract bridge players who have never yet tried duplicate are welcome. For more information, call KE 5-1838.

LEADERS of the newly formed Farmington Citizens League, John Hatfield (left), and Harris Berger, discuss their future plans. The group, says Hatfield, "will continue to develop and present accurate and essential information to the voters, on all issues. We believe that a non-partisan group is in the best position to act in this capacity."

New Group Will Meet in Farmington

A general meeting for the newly formed parent-teacher-student group at East Junior High School has been set for March 8 at 8 p.m. at the school. A slate of officers will be presented by a nominating committee composed of Mrs. Fred Ehlers, Roy Danley and Mrs. Samuel Braunstein. In addition a constitution and by-laws will be presented for approval.

Radio personality Elliot Fields, called man of a million voices at WJR, will be guest speaker. Fields also is the voice behind some of the Flintstones. The parent-teacher group at East Junior High is unique in that students will be a part of it. At some meetings they will be invited to attend with their parents. At other meetings, representatives from the student body rather than all students will be invited.

At the coming general meeting all East Junior High students may attend, but they must be accompanied by an adult. Also, parents of sixth graders who will be attending the school next year are invited.

Town Club To Hear Lecture on Women's Problems

Dr. Wallace F. Watt will be the guest speaker at Town Club of Farmington's March meeting, on Thursday, March 4, at 8 p.m., in the First Farmington Savings and Loan Building. Dr. Watt of the Michigan State Department of Health, will speak on "Problems of the Mature Woman." He has been a speaker for Town Club in the past.

The time is drawing near for "Unrendez-Vous Parisien" (a date in Paris). This is the theme for the annual card party to be held this year on April 1 at the North Farmington High School. Tickets may be obtained from any Town Club member or by calling Mrs. C. Sheer, 476-4006 or Mrs. W. Gagnon, GR. 4-3572.

Kites All Sold Out While Blizzard Rages Through Livonia

At the height of the blizzard on Thursday the Livonia Train Center, 33601 Plymouth Road, sold out of kites — 63 of them to be exact. The company had advertised in this paper on the day before, "kites, 5c each, as many as you want." Thursday, a hardy representative of a Church Committee came into the store, and asked for all the kites they had.

Cub Scout Banquet Attracts 150

More than 150 Cub Scouts and their families attended the first annual Pack 168 Blue and Gold Banquet at Ten Mile School. Highlight of the program was a special firelight ceremony led by Gene Chase of Pack 175. Ten boys who were welcomed into Pack 168 during the ceremony and received their Bobcat pins were: assistant Denner Larry Simone, Robert Witt, William Eveleth, Steve Koinis, David Donovan, Robert Boston, Thomas Boston, Gary Hartman, Christopher Holton and Henry Burns.

Awards given during the ceremony were Silver Arrow, Durk Moore, Peter Koinis, Craig Bevan; Bear badge and Silver Arrow, Larry Thompson; Bear badge, Silver and Gold Arrows, assistant Denner stripe, Ron Maniewski; Bear badge, Carl Brodie; Wolf badge and Gold Arrow, Larry Kurtz; Lion badge, Gold Arrows, Karl Emmert, and Denner Stipes, James Eveleth, Curtis DeMarco and Steve Whaley.

An Indian war-bonnet, donated by the Don Lord family, was used for the first time in the ceremony. A flag stand has also been donated by Cub Scout Gary Teschke and his mother. An American adventure story pageant was presented by three dens. Using tableaux and narrators, the boys related the history of famous "trailblazers" from the explorers to modern scientists, pointing up the role Cub Scouts can take in America's future. Thirty-three boys now belong to the Pack. Next pack meeting will be on the regular night, Friday, March 15 at 7:30 p.m. in Ten Mile School.

Recommended Book

Editor:
Recently one of the writers for your newspaper wrote, "I resolve to finish one book before I start another." When I first read this I thought she meant finish writing one book before she begins another and I chuckled to myself thinking, "There's someone else like me. I wonder how many there are of us that have had this desire to write and have never completed the book even in our own minds."

I thought I should start the new year off by throwing away the pages and pages of the book I'd started last year. Then I'd have an extra drawer. Before I did this I re-read the article and decided the person was referring to reading a book.

I gave this a lot of thought and couldn't remember when I'd last read a complete book. I excused myself by saying, "The more I read the more I want to write and the more I want to write the crazier people think I am."

After I'd added I'm too dumb to read anything worth reading, I went ahead and got dressed and went to one of those famous New Year's Eve parties, and I danced like I was a teenager and I kissed all the other guys at midnight like I was enjoying every minute of it when truthfully I kept hoping I didn't end up with a sore throat or something worse.

Shortly after midnight I looked around me, and saw this person hugging that person's wife and I felt sick inside and made a firm decision to exit for home.

All the next day I kept thinking of the article I'd read, and of some of Mr. Chandler's "Facts and Opinions." I found myself wishing I'd made it a point to meet Mr. Chandler in person before it was too late. I had liked and admired his style of writing, how he just seemed to say what he felt right out. He had a set of values and seemed to work at keeping them.

Then for some reason I made up my mind to read a book from cover to cover. As I looked on my bookshelves, I first saw the Bible, all covered in dust, proverbs for daily living, rows of college books, encyclopedias, dictionaries, and dozens of Dr. Seuss.

Some of the books were too simple, others too much, for me, then, just as I was about to give up the whole idea, I saw the worn cover of "Stars in My Crown" by J. David Brown. I'd remembered buying the book for my son during some community book sale.

I took the book and read all night. After I finished the last page I felt for the first time in years that life can be beautiful and worth living.

I read again from the book: "Some writers can look at poverty and see only the wretched details. They forget that poor people can also be happy. They examine love and see it as something of the flesh. They go out of their way to show that a man in love can be an animal."

They seem to forget that true love can be the dearest, cleanest emotion that man has—it's the emotion that sets him apart from the animals roving the jungle. If you write, never forget that life can be sweet as it is bitter.

On the last page I read, "Just because you pray, son," he said, "that doesn't mean you don't have to keep your hind end down."

I'm of the opinion that "Stars in My Crown" is a book young and old will enjoy—and it's a fact. It's packed with good practical advice for everyday living. May I thank the person that wrote, "I resolve to finish one book before I start another." Had she not written that statement I could not have read it and may have missed reading one of the nicest books that I think I'll ever read.

A PLYMOUTH READER

Editor:
We are pleasantly surprised at the smooth way in which your newspaper continued through your recent period of tragic loss and subsequent re-organization. It speaks well for the planning of its late publisher, and for the efforts of the very capable people with whom he surrounded himself in his life's project. We are happy, too, that Myra Chandler is back at the typewriter—we are looking forward to reading her editorials in the future editions.

We lost another good friend with the tragic death of Howard J. Lock, as the result of an automobile accident, on Christmas Eve. Although his home was in Farmington, he was, until two years ago, a resident of Redford Township. Just the night before his death we watched the late T.V. movie, "Mountain Road," starring James Stewart, which portrayed the action in World War II which won Howard his medal. A true hero, and a gentle man, he was a hero, too, to many Little Leaguers whom he had coached and managed for five years. He was a generous man, in the finest sense of the word—since it was always of himself, of his time of his talents which he gave to all with whom he came in contact. With his death, as with the death of all good men, each of us dies a little, and the pain is another reminder that we are merely mortals.

We wish the Township Board success in its newly proposed Youth Training Plan and hope that it will bring the support it merits. We hope, too with George Maskin, that it will arouse the desire of more parents to take part in, and to extend, the recreational activities for the boys of the community who are approaching the critical years of the late teens and early manhood.

Best wishes for success to our first Redford Township Representative in Lansing, John Bennett, and to his capable and likeable successor as Township Treasurer, Ed Kennedy. And to all, a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year.

Clean Up Parks

Open Letter to Mayor Moelke:

Although I find myself basically in favor of acquiring land for additional park sites, I feel it is necessary to correspond on the pitiful job your administration has done on maintaining our present park facilities.

I call to your attention the park site located on Lyndon and Hubbard Roads. Last Saturday I had an occasion to visit this park with my children only to find that it would be safer to let them play in traffic, then to allow them to use this park.

Broken bottles, tree stumps, and a swamp covered a good portion of this area. As a result, this park is not only dangerous, but a complete waste. Answer me this, who is responsible to see that these conditions do not exist?

I call to your attention the many other poorly maintained facilities throughout this city. During the last few years, many of us participated in the baseball program sponsored by the Parks and Recreation, at which time we had an occasion to play on the various ball fields throughout the city. You would not believe the condition of these "fields," they would more closely resemble battlefields than ball fields, loaded with chuck holes, in some cases a foot deep, broken glass and sharp objects strewn all over the diamond. Finally after several injuries, we wised up and along with our baseball equipment, we brought shovels and rakes.

Surely you must agree, that here again you and your administration have failed, particularly under the direction of your political pal, that is heading this very important commission. You have yet to prove your sincere interest, and more important, you have yet to prove your sincere interest, and more important, your capabilities in maintaining what we have, before you start talking about the future.

Mr. Moelke, let not our political differences cloud this important issue, take tour. It behooves you as Mayor to appoint capable people who can get the job done. It behooves you as Mayor to see that our present facilities are safe and properly maintained. You have failed, yet you are asking the voters to provide large sums of money, and to entrust the future planning of this important matter to an administration that has proven that they cannot get the job done. Yet, these are the same people that are supposed to guide our future program? What is the real reason?

I will be anxiously awaiting your reply, no excuses please, just an answer.

RAY BARBER, Livonia.

P.S: In the interim, please see that something is done about the hazards existing in some of our parks at the present time, don't wait for some child to suffer serious injury before someone takes this matter seriously. The people are entitled to this service, and it is your responsibility to see that they get it.

No Road

Editor:
I have read the article about the poor children who live in Heartstone. It seems they haven't a paved sidewalk to walk on to go to school.

They should be glad this is their only problem. Our school just got running water this year. You think you need a sidewalk, well we need a road. Yes, I said a road for our children to walk on. Once and a while they grade a spot which fills with water with no ditch to carry it off and call this a road. Two hundred and fifty nine property owners complained about this. The answer was not enough tax dollars to pay for it. We all pay taxes to the same people. Why should you have a sidewalk before we have a road for our children to walk on? Don't complain, because your children did not go eight years without running water and a good road for the school bus and children to use.

This school I might add is in the Clarenceville District and I am a Livonia resident. So you see I pay the same tax you do.

So don't cry—there are some worse off than these poor children.

A WESTBROOK MOTHER.

Sick Country?

At long last I have received a copy of the "Observer" containing the editorial, "Censorship Dynamite." First I want to express appreciation for the courtesy with which the article was written; I will try to conduct the dialogue in the same spirit for you were very kind to me personally.

You raise so many questions that a volume could be written in reply, so I will limit my answers to two items:

Premise (1)—"It (censorship) is strong and unreliable medicine, and should be taken only in the most extreme cases."

Answer—We have a crisis, and I am enclosing figures. In addition there are reported to be 1,000,000 cases of abortion each year in the United States, a large part of which are by wives who are cheating. It is also reported that there are 15,000,000 homosexuals. A group of University of California students have asked that marijuana and contraceptives be sold at the University cooperative store.

Premise (2)—"There is no established correlation between pornography and anti-social behavior."

Answer — The doctors of Sweden, Great Britain and New York disagree. So does J. Edgar Hoover and a long list of psychologists I can furnish. I have tried to be a stimulating teacher on the premise that there is a reaction; the editor who writes a stimulating editorial hoping for a reaction, (he is likewise one in this case), likewise the minister in the pulpit, yet we are told that stimulation in the extremely sensitive of sex produces no reaction. Dr. Eadie of the Department of Contagious Diseases, Wayne County Medical Board, disagrees vehemently.

Mr. Rosenfeld, let's face it, we are a sick country.

POLICE ACTION IS DEFENDED:

Judge's Comments on Death of Youth Draw Angry Replies in Livonia

Livonia officials slapped back this week at criticism that police officers wrongly handled the case involving a teenage boy who killed himself while jailed here Feb. 17.

In a report handed to City Council yesterday, Joel LaBo, Public Safety Director, said he saw "no necessity for disciplinary action to any member of the Livonia Police Department" in connection with the controversial case.

The youth—a 15-year-old German boy from Illinois—had stolen a car and driven with a 16-year-old companion to Livonia. The two were picked up by police here Feb. 15 and held, pending a promised trip to Illinois by police to come here to pick them up. The police didn't arrive, and on Feb. 17 — two nights later—the boy was found strangled by a scarf in his cell, a suicide victim.

The incident brought in rapid succession—

● A sharp attack on the Livonia Police for violation of law in not sending the youths to juvenile court and for providing an atmosphere "conducive to suicide," this from Wayne County Juvenile Court Judge James Lincoln;

● An immediate rejoinder from City Council members, one of whom termed Judge Lincoln a "vulture"; and equally harsh statements from other city officials;

● A statement by the aunt of the 16-year-old clarifying statements attributed to her in the daily press; and

● A report on the entire incident from LaBo to the City Council, given Councilmen Tuesday.

Lincoln's critical statement, issued three days after the tragedy, a accused Livonia police of a "direct violation of the law" for holding the youths 38 hours. He said, "Upon arrest juveniles must be brought to the Juvenile Court forthwith . . . the Livonia Police, by their action, became law violators themselves. Although the number of law violators within the jail cells in Livonia were few, nevertheless the number of law violators in policemen's uniforms not locked in cells, but within the jail, were more numerous. One distinction between the two classes of law violators was that those in Policemen's uniforms were also violating their oath to uphold the law."

Lincoln added: "The conditions under which the boys were held in the Livonia jail tend to produce psychosis in teenage children and therefore constituted an invitation to suicide."

LaBo, meanwhile, in his report to Council, said that Lake Villa Police told Livonia Police they would come immediately to Livonia to pick up the youths.

"It seemed wiser," he added "to allow the Illinois people to pick them up than to take them downtown with a good chance that they would be refused admittance to the Juvenile Detention Home. . . . Once that decision was made the events moved forward. The Illinois Police did not show up as promised. They were called repeatedly and continued to assure us that they were on their way. They finally arrived almost 24 hours after the boy had been found dead. Judge Lincoln should start his questions in that direction."

LaBo, and Police Chief James Jordan, cited examples of what they termed crowded conditions at the Wayne County Youth Home, to explain why they made their decision to keep the youths in jail here. "A recent case in point is that of a mentally retarded teenage juvenile who had been raped and was to be placed in the home. She was refused admittance all day because she was from Oakland County. Our Policewoman had spent a fruitless day that ended in the abandonment of the prisoner in the lobby of the Juvenile Detention Home. This was not to be condoned and note was made that it was not to happen again. The law says, 'They shall be remanded forthwith'. The fact is, 'take a few when there is room.'"

The aunt of the surviving youth, meanwhile, told an Observer reporter that she had not notified Livonia Police about the youths here.

When the two showed up at her home with the stolen car, she urged them to call their Illinois home. They did. Parents there, then notified Lake Villa Police, who, in turn, called Livonia police and asked them to apprehend the youths.

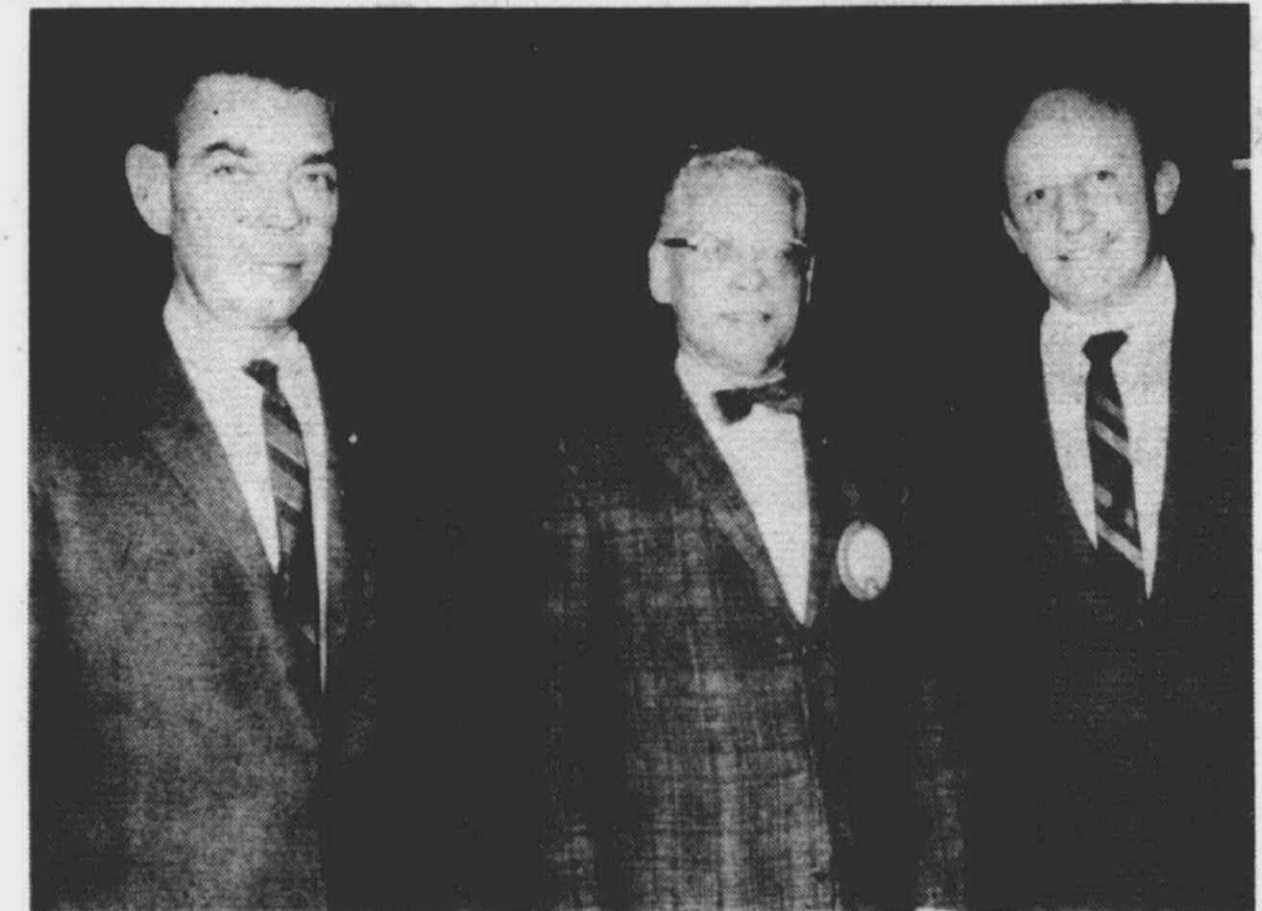

The aunt also said she had not requested them to be kept in the Livonia jail, as erroneously reported in some press accounts last week.

Judge Lincoln's accusations came under some fire at the City Council meeting Wednesday, and discussion there preceded a request for a "full report" from LaBo. "I can't help but resent the vultures who gleefully descended on Livonia, namely Judge Lincoln," said Councilman John Daugherty, "who seems to grab hold of this incident for advancement of his political future. This type of incident is one to be deplored, not exploited."

Councilmen John Dooley, supported by Edward McNamara, moved for a complete investigation and report, a motion which passed unanimously. Councilman Peter Ventura held out for an investigation by an "outside agency."

Mayor Moelke criticized Judge Lincoln for not communicating with the City until two days after issuing his statement.

SQUARING OFF for the opening debate of a series that will take them to all parts of the State Senatorial district before the April 5 election are the rival candidates. That's Farrell Roberts (left), of West Bloomfield Hills, and Edward McNamara (right), from Livonia, who are seeking the post left vacant by the death of Paul Chandler last December. They're with President Marvin Terry, of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club, where they started the series last week.

Detroit Club Honors Trio From PHS

Three Plymouth High students were among 10 from the area invited to attend the Detroit Economic Club luncheon Monday at which Arthur Watson, chairman IBM World Trade Corporation; senior vice president of International Business Machines Corporation and past president of the Economic Club of New York, was the speaker of the day.

Watson discussed "The Challenges of American Business Success Abroad."

Each week the Detroit Economic Club invites 10 male Junior Achievers to attend the Monday luncheon. These young men are guests of a representative of a local business or industry.

It is only through the students Junior Achievement affiliation that the opportunity is presented the schoolboy businessmen.

Senior Citizens Of Plymouth

For the third year in succession, the coveted crown of "Queen of Hearts" at the Annual Valentine Dance given by Ypsilanti Senior Citizens in Ypsilanti on February 17 was drawn by a Plymouth Senior Citizen.

Those so honored were Florence Gould for 1965, with Emma Ladzeik in 1964 and Irene McCartney in 1963.

The Junior High String Orchestra, directed by Lawrence Livingston, entertained 112 members on February 18 with several beautiful musical selections. Their appearance was enhanced by smartly tailored white shirts, small black ties and tangerine colored skirts and trousers.

The Pot Luck on February 25 was cancelled due to the severe snowstorm.

Members are grateful to Stewart Dodge, manager of the Plymouth Art Theatre, for being host on March 1 and 2 for the double feature "Sweethearts" and "The Student Prince."

The chartered bus leaves on Saturday, March 6, at 3:30 p.m. from the Masonic Temple for those having Ice Capade reservations.

Host and Hostess for March are Mr. and Mrs. Forest McDonald with Chairman Agnes Rollins and her committee: Grace Buley, Betty Clum, Maud Cushing, Fay Davis and Nellie Hitt.

A business meeting will be Thursday, March 4.

Twp. Firemen Receive Five Radio Monitors

The Plymouth Township fire department now has a total of 23 portable radio monitors for use by regulars and volunteers.

Capt. Barney Maas received five new transistors over the week end and reports that all but one member now has a unit. Purchase of the five units was approved by the Township Board of Trustees earlier after a request from Capt. Maas.

Plymouthite Named To Dean's List

Donn Kevin Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Kelly, 1103 Penniman, Plymouth, has been named to the Dean's List at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N.Y., for outstanding academic achievement during the past term.

To be named to the list a student must have maintained a 3.0 (B) average or better during the semester. The highest average a student may attain is 4.0 (A).

Plymouth High students who attended were: Fred Higgs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Higgs, 755 Beck Road; Jim Pratt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pratt, 15473 Fry; and Dale Theeke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theeke, 650 N. Evergreen.

Fred is a member of Upoab, a Junior Achievement company; Jim and Dale are representatives of Plyco.

The trio along with five students from Franklin High in Livonia and two from Northville High were guests of John Clason, personnel manager of Campbell-Ewald Co.

Dee Wernette Takes Courses in Germany

YELLOW SPRINGS, O.—Dee Richard Wernette, son of Mayor and Mrs. Richard Wernette of Plymouth is studying at the University of Tubingen in Germany this year under the Antioch Education Abroad program.

Wernette, a four-year student majoring in philosophy and religion, is one of 131 Antioch students enrolled in Universities in Europe, Asia and Latin America. Before entering the German University, Wernette studied at a Goethe Institute and worked in Germany.

Since coming to Antioch in 1961, Wernette has worked at Clear Lake Camp in Dowling, Mich.; D&K Manufacturing Company in Chicago; Department of Health, Education and Welfare Neurological and Sensory Services in Washington D.C., and at Frontier College in Toronto.

He will return to the campus for the fall quarter.

Plymouth JCs Start Carnegie Course on Wed.

The public demonstration of the Plymouth Jaycee Club sponsored Dale Carnegie Course last Wednesday attracted a crowd of more than 80 to Junior High West, according to General Chairman Terry West.

West introduced the Dale Carnegie representative who told the audience how it could benefit by learning how to speak effectively before groups or individuals, how to express ideas properly, how to increase their enthusiasm and human relations, thus enabling a happier life.

Applications were accepted for the class which is tentatively slated to start on Wednesday (March 3) at 7:30 p.m. in the Junior High West multi-purpose room.

Guests are invited to attend. West indicated they will be under no obligation whatsoever.

Dr. Leo Speer Heads Local Ticket Sales

Dr. Leo Speer, 9400 S. Main, Plymouth, has accepted appointment as Wayne II County Chairman of ticket sales for the 1965 Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner of the Democratic Party. The dinner will be held in Detroit on Saturday, May 1, in Cobo Hall.

A prominent national personality will be the featured speaker according to Sylvia Hart, general chairman. It will mark the first time the dinner has been held in Cobo Hall.

Reservations may be made by calling Dr. Speer at 453-8080 or Vice Chairman Harvey Kahalas at 453-3452.

AAUW Hosts 200 from State Home for "Cinderella"

Two hundred children were guests of the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women at a special performance of "Cinderella" presented on Friday evening, February 26 at the Plymouth High School auditorium.

The guests of honor were from the Plymouth State Home, the Wayne County Training School and Our Lady of Providence for Girls.

After the final curtain the boys and girls were invited to come to the stage and meet Cinderella and the other members of the cast including an understanding fairy godmother and a magic broom.

On the following day, Saturday, February 27, there were four performances, 10, 11:30, 1:30 and 3 for the children of the Plymouth, Northville and Livonia area.

For the first time in the five years that the AAUW has been presenting live drama for children, the cast and crew and castle will travel to Ann Arbor where two performances will be given at Tappan Junior High School.

List Winners in Plymouth Bridge Play

Plymouth Dems Hear Talk By Wes Vivian

Congressman Wes Vivian, of Ann Arbor, was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Second Congressional District Democrats in the Plymouth High School auditorium. Others in attendance included: State Representatives James Tierney and Marvin Stempien, Plymouth Mayor Richard Wernette and State Senatorial candidate Edward McNamara.

Congressman Vivian reported on a few of the measures before the House including Medicare, Space Flights, the "War on Poverty" and Education measures.

He asked all members of organizations of the Wayne II area to contact him or his office in Ann Arbor or Washington on any problems they would like explained. Especially in the field of Equal Economic Opportunities or Education.

His addresses are: Room 118, Cannon (Old) House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20525 and Lamp Post Plaza, Room 107, 2378 East Stadium Boulevard, Ann Arbor with telephone 761-0491.

Rep. Tierney Available For Questions

State Representative James Tierney, of Garden City, who represents the Plymouth community in Lansing, would like any person in the 36th District to feel free to contact him on any issues before the House.

Tierney, who is vice chairman of the committee on Economic Development, chairman of the subcommittee on Transportation and a member of the committees on Education, Towns and Counties and the State Library, will welcome calls or visits from constituents at his home 5663 Argola, Garden City — GA 1-5166 — any weekend when he is home from Lansing.

He indicated he is available to speak to any group in his district which is interested in the activities of the State Legislature.

Blizzard Costs Set at $5,114

THE BIG BLIZZARD and snow storm of 1965 will cost the City of Plymouth an estimated $5,114 for labor, snow removing equipment, rental and salt, according to a report by DPW Supt. Joseph Bida to the City Commission Monday.

Bida estimated the cost of labor of $1,565, with a total of 336 man hours in the three-day period from Thursday through Saturday. Other expenses include: equipment, $1,174; rental, $1,160; and salt, $1,215.

GOP Plans Workshop In Human Relations

A workshop on Human Relations will be held on Saturday, March 6th, at the Bloomfield Hills High School, 4200 Andover, Bloomfield Hills.

The workshop will be in session from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., with registration from 12:30 to 1:30. Admission is free and all churches, schools, political groups, human relations groups, and civic groups as well as the general public are invited to attend.

The theme of the workshop is "Oakland County Faces the Future" and participants will discuss issues, problems and steps to be taken in Oakland County in the field of Human Relations.

Factual information will be provided by John Feikens, Co-Chairman, Michigan Civil Rights Commission, who will also give the keynote address. Feikens was appointed to his position by Governor Romney in August of 1963. Feikens was State Chairman of the Republican Party from 1953 to 1957 and was Eisenhower's campaign chairman for Michigan in 1952.

The presiding Chairman of the workshop will be Homer Case, Bloomfield Twp. Supervisor and Chairman of the Oakland County Human Rights Council. Welcoming remarks will be made by Arthur Saltzman of Franklin. Saltzman is a Vice-Chairman of the Oakland County Republican Party and a member of the Oakland County Human Relations Council. He is past Chairman of the Oakland County GOP Human Relations Committee.

Following this, a report on the activities of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission will be given by Dr. Burton Gordin, Executive Director of the Commission. Then will come a question and answer period.

After this, specific problems of human relations in Oakland County will be discussed with remarks by Clarence Barnes, Director of the Pontiac Urban League. Henry Reid, Director of Area Service Association of South Oakland County will present a report of the Association's activities.

A summation of the entire days findings will be given by Dr. Robert Frehse, Director of the Detroit Roundtable of Catholics, Jews and Protestants. Dr. Frehse is well-known for his many community activities and his work in the Human Relations field.

Livonia Youth Gets Nod for West Point

Congressman Billie S. Farnum has announced the appointment of Philip Lloyd Howell, 18, of 11970 Newburg Road, Livonia, as first alternate nominee for an opening at the United States Military Academy at West Point.

Howell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Howell. He was born February 27, 1947 in Highland Park. He is a senior in Franklin High School.

In extra-curricular activities Howell is a hiking and swimming enthusiast, has been in math and science seminars, the Historical Society and the Model United Nations.

His awards include the Honors Convocation and the Citizenship Award.

"WORK HORSE" WASHER

This low priced Speed Queen has the same mechanical construction as the highest priced models. You can buy it with complete confidence. Dependability is built in. For example:

① TRANSMISSION All gears are machine cut steel—not fibre or nylon. This means many extra years of service.

② BALL BEARINGS The supporting shaft that spins the tub has ball bearings top and bottom—not sleeve bearings.

③ FLUID DRIVE Assures a smooth, easy pick-up of spin cycle. No shock—no strain. Like the transmission in your car.

'Mr. MSU' Court Includes Livonian

By JOEL HIGGINS

Stephen A. Powers, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton W. Powers of 31542 Summers St., has been named one of five finalists in the Mr. Michigan State University contest.

Powers was chosen as one of the five from a field of 50 contestants. Each contestant was nominated by a living unit, either dormitory or fraternity on the basis of performance at the University.

A junior at MSU, Powers graduated from Livonia Bentley High School in 1962, where he was president of the Concert Choir, captain of the football and baseball teams, and president of the Region 2 Student Council for all of Southern Michigan.

Although he played on the freshman baseball team, Powers' primary field of interest at Mich. State has been Student Government and activities. He has served as chairman for All-University Student Government Public Relations, Water Carnival Public Relations, and J-Hop, and has been appointed General Chairman of Homecoming Week-end for 1965.

Powers was recently elected president of his social fraternity, Delta Tau Delta, and is also a member of Blue Key, a national honorary for Jr. and Sr. men.

A Social Science-Pre-Law major at MSU, Powers works during the summer as the Ass't. Athletic Supervisor for Parks and Recreation in Livonia. He plans to enter public relations work upon graduation from MSU.

N. F'ton Senior OK for Academy

Congressman Billie S. Farnum announced the appointment of David Clapper, 17, of 32640 Wayburn West, Farmington, as first alternate nominee for an opening at the United States Naval Academy.

Clapper is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Clapper, Jr. He is a senior at North Farmington High School.

Lincoln-Mercury Sales Show 8 Per Cent Gain

Lincoln-Mercury Division sold a record number of cars, 10,556, in the mid-February period, a gain of eight per cent from the same period last year.

The total, based on preliminary figures, included Mercury sales of 4,988, up 49 per cent from the second ten-day period of February last year. Comet sales of 4,425 were second only to the record set last year for the period. Total Mercury sales of 9,413, including both Mercury and Comet, also were a record number for the period. Lincoln Continental sales of 1,143 were 19 per cent ahead of the comparable period last year, and the best since 1957.

BATTLE AT FIVE DIFFERENT CENTERS:

Area Cagers in State Tourney Play

The March Madness is on! From the Ohio-Indiana border on the south to the far reaches of the Upper Peninsula, from Lakes St. Clair and Huron on the East to Lake Michigan on the west, thousands of high school basketball fans are screaming wildly this week.

The reason: Michigan's annual state prep cage tournament is underway. This week it's the district phase with games being played at 124 different locations, including five in the Greater Livonia area.

The survivors will move on to next week's regionals to be played in 23 gyms.

By the end of next week, eight games will remain in each of the four classes — A, B, C and D. They'll go on to the quarterfinals to be played on Wednesday, March 17.

The semifinals on March 19 will be staged in the Greater Lansing area and the finals, as usual, will take place in Michigan State's Jenison Field House on Saturday, March 20.

If you don't have a ticket for the finals, it's too late. The three final sessions already are sellouts.

Area teams are contesting in five of the district locations. Action began on Monday at Farmington high when Farmington squared off with North Farmington for the right to meet Redford Union Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Thurston hooked up with Walled Lake Tuesday evening and the winner will go on to the district final Friday evening to play against Farmington, North Farmington or Redford Union. Tipoff time for the final in the district Friday is set for 7:30 p.m.

There was also Class B action Monday at Clarenceville where the host school was pitted against Garden City. The district field at Clarenceville also included Lutheran West, Northville, Riverside and Haston with the final slated for Saturday at 8 p.m.

Franklin high's palatial gym also is the center of a Class A district.

The Franklin play began on Tuesday with Garden City engaging Franklin for the right to face Robichaud on Thursday in the semifinals.

Bentley, the favored for the district flag, faces Inkster

Wednesday at 7 and the victor advances into the finals.

Plymouth high has drawn Belleville Thursday at 8:30 p.m. in the first round of the Class A district at Eastern Michigan University Thursday night. Wayne and Ypsilanti were to meet in the first game at Ypsilanti.

The two winners will go against each other Saturday in the district final.

In the Class C district at Detroit's U. of D. High school, it'll be St. Agatha vs. Our Lady of Sorrows in a renewal of their rivalry Wednesday at 7 p.m.

This will mark the third meeting of the season between the two teams. Sorrows won both previous starts.

Such strong teams as St. Theresa, St. Francis de Sales, St. Gregory and St. Cecilia round out the field at U. of D. high.

The winners from the districts at Franklin, Eastern Michigan, Farmington and also Clarkston all will be paired in next week's regional at Franklin.

The Clarenceville "B" district king advances to the regional at Northville to join champs from Mason, Lansing, Fenton and Pontiac. The "C" champ from U. of D. will go into the regionals at Harper Woods-Bishop Gallagher.

SHARE FLAG WITH GROVES:

N. Farmington Co-Kings

Franklin Tough on Groves '5'

Franklin tried his best . . . but couldn't make it possible for North Farmington high to take the Northwest Suburban League basketball title outright.

Going into the final week of the regular campaign North Farmington had sewed up at least a flag share.

If Franklin could down Birmingham Groves, the outright crown would belong to North Farmington.

Franklin and Groves were to have met Friday night. But the snow dictated otherwise.

So the teams collided on Saturday night in the Groves gym with the hosts eking out a 70-67 triumph.

As a result Groves matched North Farmington's league record of eight wins and two losses. It marked the second straight year Coach Dick Wilson's North Farmington cagers had wound up as co-kings.

In 1963-64 North Farmington split the laurels with Thurston. Franklin, playing a fine all-around game, held a 16-15 lead over Groves after one period. But in the second stanza, Groves opened up a 10-point command, as star forward Dennis Rafferty knocked in three baskets and six free throws for 12 points.

But Franklin wasn't conceding anything.

Led by Ray Porter, who came off the bench late in the third period, Franklin cut the differential to 50-44 after three periods. Then when Porter drilled in four shots in the fourth period, Franklin went ahead at 53-52 and later at 59-58 on a hoop by Al Jose.

But Groves came back and finally required two free throws with 30 seconds left to sew up the contest.

Tom Cannon had 13 points to pace the losers while Al Jose and Paul Katosh each scored 12 for Franklin and Porter notched 10.

Franklin finished the regular season with only two wins for 16 games. But the South Livonia

Michigan Matmen To Seek Third Straight Conference Title

ANN ARBOR — While Michigan will be seeking its third straight conference crown at the Big Ten wrestling championships here, March 5-6, they will face a spirited dispute from Michigan State, Minnesota and Northwestern, the way the dopsters figure it.

Wallop Kettering In Final

The regular season ended on a happy note for North Farmington high's basketball team. Not only did the Raiders share the Northwest League title with Birmingham Groves, but they took the measure of Kettering, 60-54, Saturday night to wind up with a record of 12 wins in 15 starts.

A strong start helped North Farmington to jump in front, 22-18, by the end of the first period. The team stayed on top the rest of the way.

Rick Schultz notched 10 points, Rick Lorenz eight and John McDonald the other four points for North Farmington in the initial period.

The Raiders reached halftime with a 34-31 edge and picked up three more points to their lead in the third period.

Lorenz and Schultz again packed most of the firepower for the winners with 22 and 17 points, respectively. Jim Newberry topped the Kettering team with 21 points.

The North Farmington reserves also won their final game as they triumphed by a 71-48 score.

Trojans Shine In Last Loss

Although beaten by West Bloomfield, 58-51, Saturday night in its final game on the regular season, Clarenceville high's basketball team turned in a fine effort all the way.

After falling behind, 17-8, at the end of the first period, Clarenceville bounced back to trail by only a 37-36 count after three quarters.

But the loss of Danny Freels and Tim Spencer on fouls hurt Clarenceville's cause in the closing period, despite the fact the North Livonians managed to crawl within a point (48-49) with three minutes left to go.

Then three straight baskets put the game out of reach for West Bloomfield.

Free throws made the difference. West Bloomfield hit on 20 of 28 shots, including nine straight in the first quarter.

Clarenceville hit 19 from the charity line in 33 tries.

The Clarenceville reserves came through with a 44-42 victory as Dave Wilson hit on a shot, with 15 seconds left. He also topped the winners with 20 points.

The varsity box score for Clarenceville:

Falcons Stopped by Roseville

Farmington High dropped its final basketball game of the regular season last Saturday night, losing to Roseville by a 72-67 score.

Roseville led all the way, although Farmington pulled within a point of a tie with 1½ minutes left to go.

John Olander scored 18 points for the losers, Mike Ames 14 and George Habicht 13.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

The coaching ranks of our area is losing another of its "oldtimers."

Charley Ketterer is stepping out as basketball mentor at Plymouth high school . . . thus winding up a coaching career with the Rocks which began back in 1951.

Ketterer plans to remain in the Plymouth School system. He's on the faculty of the junior high.

His retirement means that Plymouth will go into the 1965-66 school year with new head coaches both in football and basketball.

Mike Hoben parted company with the gridders at the close of the '64 campaign because of his added duties in connection with administrative post at the high school. John McFall was named to succeed Hoben.

Who'll take Ketterer's place remains to be decided. It's reported that John Bearup, the reserve cage coach and Ketterer's assistant, will rate high consideration from the school officials.

There's an interesting "twist" to the departure of Hoben and Ketterer in the same school year as Plymouth coaches.

The pair first had met during World War II when both were in the V-12 program at the University of Michigan. Almost a decade later, they ran into each other at a sports clinic.

Ketterer told Hoben, who then was coaching at Cheboygan High, that he (Ketterer) was going to step out as Plymouth high's grid coach. He told Hoben where to write, if Hoben was interested.

Of course, Hoben wanted the job . . . and, as we all know, he eventually got it and turned in a tremendous job.

This reporter first knew of Ketterer when he was a star athlete at Detroit's Northwestern high school. Ketterer then went on to star in basketball and baseball at the University of Michigan.

His teammates at the U. of M. included Dave Strack, the Tigers' farm boss; Bump Elliott, who coaches Michigan's footballers, and Pete Elliott, who fills the same job at the University of Illinois.

Ketterer made his coaching debut at Northville high in September, 1948. He assisted with the Northville high footballers. In the winter, he was head man in basketball, and then assisted with baseball in the spring.

After a year at Northville, Ketterer returned to Michigan to study for his master's degree. From there he went to River Rouge high, succeeding the great Buck Weeber as the Panthers' football coach.

Ketterer joined the Plymouth staff as football and baseball coach in 1951. He filled the roles for four years, then turned his attention to guiding the varsity basketball team for two seasons.

Thereafter, Ketterer dropped out of the Plymouth coaching picture until four years ago when he came back as basketball coach.

His football achievements included three championship teams, including two which were unbeaten, at Plymouth. He never had a titlist in basketball.

Ketterer was a strict disciplinarian. They tell the story that when he gathered his basketballers for a practice . . . and if 3 o'clock was the starting time for the drill . . . he shut the doors and wouldn't permit a tardy player in — unless the young man had a very good reason.

Ketterer has been a success in more ways than as a teacher and coach. He also operates an insurance business, which does well for him and his associates.

THIS 'N THAT: Doc Friederichs, the Bentley high principal, wasn't the least bit worried by last week's snow blizzard. An adept skier, the Bentley bossman glided his way to school and had no problems as other members of the staff fought their way down Five Mile Road in their cars.

Speaking of Bentley and Livonia, we hear that there may be some changes in the top-level athletic posts when City's new high school opens in the fall.

A flock of orchids to Bob Callihan and his University of Detroit basketball team, which will play in the National Invitational tournament in New York starting next week. There weren't many who gave the Titans a ghost of a chance to rank among the nation's leaders when the season began back in December.

Just a reminder to you youngsters who'd like an official basketball and for FREE. You can pick one up by purchasing a $3 ticket and attending next Saturday's Pistons-New York game at Cobo Arena.

Thurston Bowler and Dad Top Father-son Tournament

Paul Moldoban, 17-year-old Thurston High student averaged better than 200 for three games Saturday night as he and his dad combined for the Class B Regular Lead in the Detroit News Father & Son bowling tournament at Satellite Bowl.

Paul carries a 164 average, but shot above his mark as he totaled 602 for the series. His father, George Maloban, added 529 for an actual total of 1131.

They received a 156-in spot for a 1287 total.

Thurston Takes Second in Swim

Quality over quantity.

So went the story for Thurston high's swimming team in the Warren-Fitzgerald invitational last Saturday night.

Coach Joe Mracna took only nine individuals to the meet, but Thurston wound up in second place with 65 points as Birmingham Groves won with 75 points.

Fitzgerald was third with 80 points, followed by Pontiac Northern with 53 and Southfield with 24.

Thurston came through with four winners.

The school's two relay dual medley quartet came through in the fine time of 1:47.4 with Bill Barringer, Gordon Niles, Ron Smith and Jeff Lach forming the contingent.

Bill Zeeb took the 400-yard free style in 4:17.4 while Gordon Niles copped the 100-yard breast stroke in 1:06.8 to set a new varsity record for Thurston. The old mark of 1:07.3 was set two years ago by Bruce Kordenbroch.

Dennis Long was fifth in the breast stroke.

In the 200-yard free style, Bog Lloyd, Rick Korden, Smith and Lach teamed up to win in 1:35.

Zeeb also took a second in the 200-yard free style. Lloyd was third in the 40-yard free, Barringer second in the individual medley, Rick Massoll second in the diving and Chris Hudson fourth in the 100-yard free style.

Farmington Pulls Upset Over North Farmington

State tournament time in Michigan is a new season for the 800 high school teams which compete. Past form during the long-regular campaign means nothing. Teams are not seeded, based on whether they won or lost in the full schedule.

Everybody begins from scratch with an open draw. So it was for Farmington high's cagers Monday evening when they squared off against North Farmington in the opening round of the Class A district meet at Farmington.

North Farmington shaped up as the favorite, but when the final score was posted, it was Coach Jack Quiggle's Farmington contingent which held the upper hand, 70-63, and thus qualified to continue in the March Madness.

The North Farmington team, on the other hand, went to the sidelines — its season finished after sharing the Northwest League title.

Typical of most head-on duels between the Farmington schools, the teams battled to the final wire before Farmington gained the edge.

North had led, 12-11, at the end of the first period. The teams matched points — 19 each in the second period and 21 apiece in the third.

The difference was the fourth period. With Roy Leach and John Olander each pumping in seven points, Farmington outscored North, 19-11, in the last eight minutes.

Quiggle credited a pressing defense which helped to produce several intercepted passes in the final period as the deciding factor.

"After what we had been through in regular play, it was great that the kids could come up with a big one in the tourney," added Quiggle.

Olander paced the victors with 11 baskets and four free throws for 26 points. Leach was next with 12, seven of them in the last period. Rick Schultz and John McDonald tallied 20 and 18 respectively, for North Farmington. The box score: FARMINGTON — Habicht 4-1-9; Leach 4-4-12; Ames 4-3-11; Olander 11-4-26; Wilson 2-5-9; Milarc 1-1-3.

LIVONIA EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION

The Teachers Speak

BY LYNN C. GILMORE
Executive Secretary

"American junior-high school exerts great pressure on youngsters at a time when they are least equipped to deal with them."

That is the opinion of Psychiatrist Sidney Berman, as expressed in the NEA Journal. Dr. Berman feels that the whole idea of junior high goes counter to what is known about child growth and development.

Boys and girls in junior high school are entering adolescence. Their bodies are undergoing massive changes. Their thinking processes are fragmented, their behavior is disorganized, and they are less disciplined than they have been in the past or will be in the future. So says Dr. Berman.

The junior high school is set up for experimentation and exploration; yet, boys and girls are in need of stability at that age.

Dr. Berman suggests that the outmoded 1 through 8 grade pattern had the virtue of providing a stable environment for 11 to 14 year olds. Youngsters in the midst of finding out who they are shouldn't have the additional burden of finding out where they are, he believes.

Fortunately, teachers generally recognize when a boy or girl is under too much pressure. When the teacher finds such a problem, he can often talk with the youngster and, with the help of parents, work to lessen the stress.

Thurston Matmen Regional Champions

Thurston high's wrestling team came up with a great prize last Monday night.

The South Townshipers beat out 15 other schools to take the regional mat title with 79 points to 72 for runnerup Royal Oak Kimball.

It marked the first time an area school ever had attained such an honor in prep wrestling.

What's more, Thurston qualified six men for the state meet Friday and Saturday at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

A victory by Heavyweight Jerry Sostak over favored Bob Irwin of Kimball in the night's final match brought Thurston and Coach Jim Knotts the regional crown.

Irwin has squared off against Sostak with an unbeaten record.

Sostak was the third Thurston entry to take an individual title. Earlier, Mike McCrevey at 133 pounds and Randy Ault at 138 had carried off crowns.

This trio along with David Belknap, third in the 103-pound class; Paul Christie, second at 127 pounds, and Pete Marsalese, third at 145, earned the coveted trip to Michigan State for the state tourney proper.

Dennis Celano was fourth for Thurston at 112 pounds and Jim Blaza fourth at 165 pounds.

Four Take Titles
Four area wrestlers took individual titles in the regional meet at Pontiac.

The victors were Ron Mortenson of Farmington at 103 pounds; Ron Szudejko of Bentley at 127, Jim Johnston of Farmington at 154 and Rich Larsen of Bentley at 180.

Pontiac Central won the title with 68 points, followed by Walled Lake with 61, Berkley 57, Kettering 50, Farmington 48, Bentley 47, North Farmington 24 and Franklin 17.

Czech Skate Champ Stars In Ice Show

A beautiful two-time world figure skating champion from Czechoslovakia headlines the 100-member cast of Ice Capades at Olympia now through March 14.

Aja Zanova, of Prague, one of the world's most gifted female skaters, is the featured soloist in two exciting production numbers, "All of Us" and "Bolero."

Miss Zanova, who began competitive skating at the age of six, holds an impressive array of titles in addition to her double world crowns.

She captured six national championships in Czechoslovakia, one European title and holds an International Gold Medal, the most coveted award in figure skating.

While defending her world championship in London, Miss Zanova defected to the free world. She first went to Canada and then came to the United States where she later became a citizen.

Miss Zanova, an accomplished performer in several winter sports (her mother was a skiing champion), is in charge of ballet training classes given to members of the Ice Capades cast while on tour.

Trojans Fall In District

Clarenceville high's basketball team, only a low-time winner during the regular season, gave Garden City West more than it bargained for Monday night in the opener of the Class B district tournament at Clarenceville.

For three quarters, Clarenceville held command, but Garden City came on strong in the closing period to win, 60-57.

Coach John McKillop of Clarenceville was disappointed. "We sure came close," he said. "The kids had one coming."

Clarenceville sprung ahead, 14-9, after one quarter, stood tied at 27-27 at halftime and then forged back in front, 45-42 at the three-quarter mark.

Garden City went into a press in the last period and forced Clarenceville into a series of bad passes.

In addition, 11 missed free throws didn't help the Clarenceville cause.

Ron Ray had 16 points and Danny Fefles 15 for the losers.

Wolverines To Open Spring Drills March 10

ANN ARBOR — Michigan's 1965 football squad will get away to its earliest spring practice start in history when Coach Bump Elliott calls his Big Ten and Rose Bowl champions together on Ferry Field, March 10.

The session will continue for 30 days, through April 10, date of the annual spring game. Drills will be daily Monday through Thursday, weather permitting, with Fridays off, and Saturdays set for scrimmage sessions. The shift was necessitated by the university's new semester system which will move graduation up to May 1.

Elliott will have a solid nucleus of 22 lettermen returning from last season but top personnel will graduate in several spots to pose problems, particularly at the ends, guards and quarterback positions.

Seven of the 11 men from the 1964 offensive unit must be replaced along with four from the defensive outfit.

Livonian Cast

Ronald Tallman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bev Tallman of 9970 Fremont, Livonia, appeared as Owl in the Albion College players production of "Winnie the Pooh" last weekend. Tallman is a senior at Albion. The production was sponsored by the Albion branch of the American Association of University Women.

Too Much Show for Prep Play

The snow that fell will forget. It played havoc with high school sports in the area.

Cancelled were all of the final dual swimming meet for area teams.

Cancelled, too, were a flock of basketball games—Plymouth-Belleville, Redford Union-Trenton, Bentley-Allen Park, North Farmington-Farmington, Thurston-Redford Union, etc.

Because of state rules permitting no games to be made up once the state tournament begins, there'll be no chance to make up any of the snowed-out contests.

St. Agatha High's basketball team dropped a 64-46 decision to St. James in a non-league game last Wednesday.

Livonia Skier Wins Giant Slalom Contest In Quebec Competition

Mrs. Joyce Brandemihl, 14293 Yale, Livonia, won a first place award in the intermediate giant slalom ski competition at Montremblat, Quebec, during a six-day vacation at the well known winter resort.

Mrs. Brandemihl, who had been skiing for two years, entered the competition as a representative of the Villa Bellevue School and resort and turned in an amazing performance to win over more experienced and skilled entrants.

EFFICIENCY
A man can't miss if he considers every day the start of a new year, and sees to it that every hour does its part.

LOOKING OVER the bar and decorations at their recently acquired cocktail lounge and eating place at 30325 W. Six Mile Road are Ray and Lucille Garrett. Garretts' Suburban House celebrated its grand opening Monday and Tuesday and will feature Mary Tudor at the organ on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Garrett's Suburban House Features Lone Pine Room

Shades of the past, when the Lone Pine Riding Stables, 30325 W. Six Mile Road in Livonia, was the pride of the Northwest Detroit suburban area, are being recalled with the announcement by Ray and Lucille Garrett of the opening of the new Lone Pine Room at the popular cocktail lounge and restaurant.

The Garretts took over the operation of the spot and celebrated their grand opening on Monday and Tuesday with a bargain 50 cent dinner that attracted more than 400 on each evening.

For the Garretts, the operation of a night club and cocktail lounge is a new venture.

She has been a local real estate commercial broker for the past several years. Ray recently left Burroughs Corporation after 15 years in the quality control department.

But the chance to take over the operation of a popular eating place was too much for the Garretts and they bought the place in November and just now have completed interior decorations they believe will make it more colorful and popular than ever.

Mrs. Garrett, who was a regular at the Lone Pine Stables, when it was the only riding establishment in the area, was instrumental in opening the new and colorful Lone Pine room.

It will have the same decor as in the late 40s when the Lone

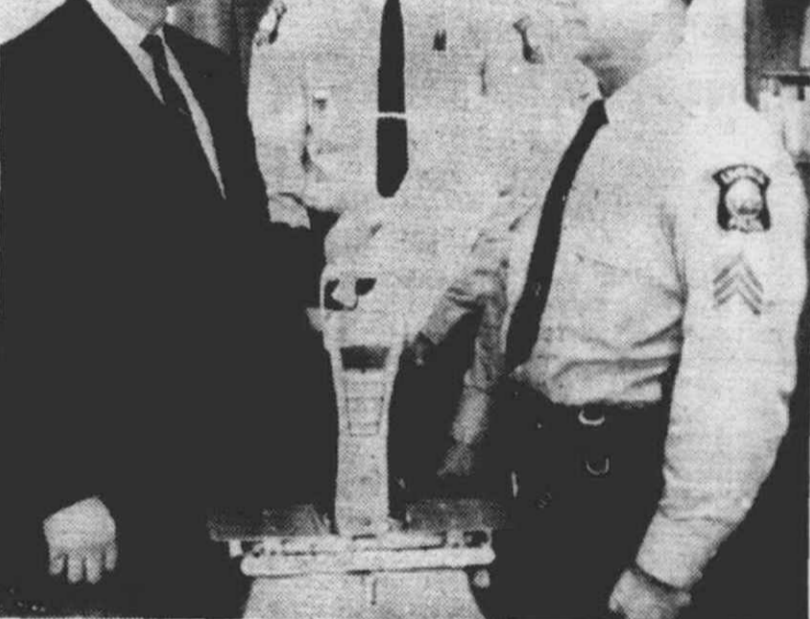

Pine Tavern was noted for its fine meals on the huge porch that surrounded the original home on the site.

The house, which was erected by the Livrance family around the turn of the Century, has been a landmark in the area ever since. The present structure bears light resemblance to that of 1900 but actually it is the same building remodeled.

The Lone Pine room will feature chicken in the basket—a favorite with patrons—tables covered with checkered ging-ham clothes and a room decorated in the style when the Tavern first opened to the public.

Garretts is well known to Livonia clubs since practically everyone of the major organizations meet there weekly or monthly.

Dale James, who also has been at the place for the past nine years, is the No. 1 chef, handling all meals in his inimitable style.

OFFICIAL RECOGNITION of Weights and Measures week, which is currently being celebrated nationally, is given by Livonia Mayor Harvey Moelke as he inspects the scales used by Sgt. Robert Baumgartner (right) and Patrolman Laurence Hopps. The two handle the weights and measures detail at the Livonia Police Department.

Livonian Promoted to Lieutenant

Melvin Wasserman, 2982 Curtis Rd., Livonia, lost his sergeant's stripes at this week's meeting of his Army Reserve unit, the 206th Command Information Detachment (Radio Station).

The stripes were quickly replaced by second lieutenant's bars, pinned on by the 206's commander, Major Jack Wimer, and Wasserman's wife Marlene, in a brief ceremony at the Ann Arbor Army Reserve Center.

Lieutenant Wasserman had applied for a direct commission when he entered the 206th two years ago, in the rank of staff sergeant. While waiting for the required examination by a board of officers and completing the required studies, he had received a promotion to sergeant first class. Those were the stripes he wore until this week.

Wasserman has been employed for the past two years as a music instructor at River Rouge High School. Much of his career has been in radio and television work, paralleling his Army Reserve duties.

In his new Army Reserve rank, he will serve as the 206th's program director. The unit is equipped to provide a range of programming similar to that of a civilian station, if mobilized.

He and his wife have two children, aged two and one-and-a-half years. He holds BS and MA degrees from Wayne University, granted in 1958 and 1964.

Dining Areas? Two Enough If You Build in Versatility

How many dining areas does the average home need? Surprisingly, the answer is only two. And even more surprisingly, the average family home has at least three — a breakfast bar, a family room eating area, and a living room dining ell.

Top home designers point out that providing eating areas throughout the house wastes space — and that the average family can scarcely afford wasted space.

Ideally, there should be a breakfast nook which is large enough to accommodate the entire family for sit-down meals. A bar is no substitute, say these knowledgeable designers, since it's uncomfortable, unattractive, and promotes both poor manners and bad eating habits.

In addition to the breakfast nook, the home needs a good, separate dining room.

If properly designed, this dining room will work as well for pleasant, relaxed family meals on a daily basis as for formal dining.

The key to its versatility lies in the shell. Walls should be rich and textured but neutral. Wood paneling, especially a golden toned wood like western hemlock or ponderosa pine, is perfect for the purpose.

The floor should boast a good rug that works as a background color for both best china and casual dinnerware. A tweed that combines many shades of a basic color group is often the answer and will work to a neutral. There's no need to resort to the appalling blandness of beige or gray.

The dining set must also be versatile, but again definite character is often the key to success. A fine old mahogany table might be just the thing combined with ladder back, rush seat chairs.

This sort of setting can dress up to candlelight and silver or dress down to gay pottery and brightly colored place mats.

To make the dining room functional for everyday use, built-in china closets should be included. These work best when built into the wall adjoining the kitchen.

Upper cabinets then can have doors on either side to permit loading from the kitchen and unloading directly to the dining room table. Base cabinets can be designed with pull-out trays for linens and flat silver.

The installation might also include a pass-through serving counter.

For top appearance, build the china storage unit to match the paneled walls.

Here Are Tips About Oak Floors

Proper installation is the key to the superior performance which home buyers have a right to expect from oak floors, the National Oak Flooring Manufacturers' Association declares.

Anyone building a home would do well to cultivate a speaking acquaintance with approved practices, the observance of which helps assure floor beauty and lasting satisfaction.

HERE ARE a few pointers from the association:

1. Oak flooring should be laid only after all plaster work has dried. Preferably, too, all other construction should be finished, plumbing installed and painting completed before finish flooring is installed.

2. The flooring should be delivered about five days before installation. The house should be heated to a temperature of about 70 degrees, with the flooring piled loosely in the building.

3. If delivery occurs during wet weather, the flooring should be covered with tarpaulin or otherwise protected from dampness.

When proper procedures are followed, expansion and subsequent contraction are minimized. That's due to the fact that the flooring, scientifically kiln dried at the mill, adjusts before installation to the normal atmosphere of the house. Therefore there is little danger of cracks developing.

Put A 'Ceiling' On Old Cracks In Bathrooms

Cracked, peeling bathroom ceilings are an eyesore to any homeowner, but especially to one who has recently completed a remodeling job. Heat and moisture from the tub-shower area cause this aggravating condition.

Many homeowners are taking steps to eliminate this problem in the future by installing plastic-surfaced hardboard blocks.

The blocks, which come in colors and patterns, can be damp-wiped clean. They are factory-treated to withstand high heat and humidity conditions, and never require painting or refinishing.

Easy to handle, the 16" square blocks can be put up right over old, cracked ceilings. Tongue-and-groove edges simplify installation. Wallboard adhesive is used to secure a strong bond.

Plastic-surfaced hardboard also comes in four-foot panels and 16" x 8" planks for use on wall areas.

Plan Now For Bar, Powder Room

Start the year on the right foot by improving your basement recreation room.

An available free plan shows how to build a bar and powder room on opposite sides of a common plumbing wall.

This idea is economical because both facilities make use of the same plumbing lines.

If space is at a premium, this plan is just what you're looking for. The bar even folds back against the wall when not in use.

It can be locked shut so that the children can not use it as a plaything during the day.

EASY MAINTENANCE is assured in both the bar and powder room areas.

A variety of pleasant colors, woodgrains and patterns is used to create a modern decor.

Local lumber dealers carry this material, which can be damp-wiped clean. This durable paneling, which will withstand hard wear, never needs painting or refinishing.

To obtain a copy of the free plan, write Handyman Plans, P. O. Box 250, Dover, Ohio, 44622. Ask for Plan No. 1011 for the Bar-Powder room.

Paneling Book Gives Wall Tips

Discriminating people agree that nothing can beat the rich elegance or the individuality of a wall paneled in solid lumber.

But what kind of paneling should a person choose? Douglas fir, western hemlock, ponderosa western red cedar, Engelmann spruce, or another of the distinctive western species?

Should it be a butt-joint tongue-and-groove wall, or would a pattern be preferable? Is a knotty grade more interesting than a clear grade; would rough-sawn or saw-textured panel boards be better than smooth surfaced lumber?

What will the paneling look like if it's finished clear? Can it be color tinted or stained a natural wood shade?

These questions are answered pictorially in a handsome, 16-page booklet just published by the Western Wood Products Association. The new booklet contains 24 full color photographs showing the 12 western wood species in various applications.

Country Styling Helps Bedroom

Here's how to introduce the warm, intimate country look into a bedroom.

Begin with walls paneled in flat grain western hemlock, installing the boards horizontally and finishing them clear.

Next choose a hooked rug or braid rug, waxing exposed wood flooring till it glows.

Then dig through attic treasure troves for one or two good antique dressers or commodes, restoring them for modern day use.

If you should be lucky enough to discover a patchwork quilt, use it as a throw on the bed and let your color scheme for rug and curtains revolve around the main colors of the quilt.

Garden Hose Can Cure "Ice Dam" in Gutters

Home owners with snow piled on their rooftops can prevent possible damage to wallpaper and other interior decorations with a few hours of easy weekend work, according to a noted roofing authority.

All that is needed to prevent possible staining of ceilings and wallpaper is a summer garden hose that will reach to a source of warm water.

collected in gutters can be washed away with a hose and warm water, thus preventing the formation of "ice dams."

Many roof leaks are caused by inadequate insulation and ventilation that permit "ice dams" on eaves to melt from below, resulting in damage to exterior siding, paint and interior walls and ceilings.

The formation of the ice dams at the eaves does not, in itself, cause the damage. But when the sheet of ice has backed up a foot or so above the eaves, heat from the attic space can cause melting on the underside of the ice.

THE WATER THUS produced can't escape to the gutters because of the ice dams, and it, plus the water from the melting snow on the roof above, may flow back underneath the shingles and down through the roof sheathing onto the ceilings, walls and roof overhang below.

The hose generally can be connected to the hot water faucet of the laundry tub, and if it can safely be handled from the roof — or from the attic window — the snow can be washed down the drain.

When finished, be certain no standing water remains in the gutter.

Guttering Is Key to Long House Life

Maintaining a healthy roof drainage system is important in assuring long life throughout the house.

Lack of proper gutters and downspouts often results in damage to the structure, stripings on the sides of the house, erosion of the ground around the house, with water infiltration through basement walls, says the Roof Drainage Manufacturers Institute.

Pronounced leaks are danger signals. Always examine the eaves under the roof after the rain.

If you find wet spots or discoloration, leaking water that has worked along the framing and through the walls, discolored siding, or tiny streaks of sunlight on rafters or walls in unfinished attics or basement, there must be a leak somewhere, and it should be found and fixed.

Lumber Cost Is Low for A New House

How much lumber goes into building a house? The U.S. Labor Department reports that lumber and lumber products make up 40% of the materials used in home construction — but that they account for only 19 per cent of the total construction price.

The construction dollar for a single family dwelling is divided up this way, according to the report: 48 per cent for materials, supplies and equipment; 22 per cent for wages to on-site workers; and 30 per cent for overhead, such as administrative off-site salaries, expenses for sales office and yard operations, profits, and related items.

That means the materials that go into a home are still the best buy and that the high-quality western lumber and other wood products used for the house framing, flooring, roofing, cabinetwork, paneling, trim, window sash and moldings are still a real bargain, taking only 19 cents out of every dollar paid for a home.

Clean out all gutter debris at least semi-annually. At the same time, check for corrosion and spots where paint is flaking off. Remove dirt and paint with a wire brush and apply metal primer to affected area, inside gutters.

Paint a matching or contrasting coat on the outside.

When inspecting gutters, take a stiff brush along on the first climb. It will help you dislodge debris. Look for places where gutters may have ripped loose, for opened seams, corroded or rusted sections. Be sure no water stands in the gutters.

When you make necessary drainage repairs or replacements, there's one essential rule to follow: don't mix metals. A galvanic action is set up in metals in the presence of water, and the metal lowest on the "galvanic scale" breaks down rapidly.

Use of a very low-cost material for unseen gutters, with a more attractive material for downspouts, will only lead to new problems soon.

Architecture Teacher Predicts World City

ANN ARBOR—There is good reason for thinking that a universal city—a merging of big metropolitan areas to cover the earth's surface—is not too far off in the future, according to C. Theodore Larson, University of Michigan professor of architecture.

"World population, now approximately three billion, is expected to reach 6,280 millions by the year 2000. If present growth rates continue, it will take less than 35 years for the population to double once again," Larson notes in an article published in the October issue of Traffic Quarterly.

for regional recreation. The notion that a city must have any kind of boundary, physical or otherwise is an outmoded vestige of medievalism," says Larson.

"IMAGINATIVE TOWN" planners are asking, should suburbanization stop with megalopolis? Isn't there a still larger unit of urban growth just ahead, one which takes in the whole of each continent? And if this comes to pass, won't the entire earth eventually then become a single integrated urban entity? Larson asked.

"The goal of a single integrated urban community eventually embracing the entire earth's surface implies a wide range of coordination in urban planning," the educator notes. "Working contacts must be established with counterparts in other countries, and even other continents, if the urban developments in any single locality are to be planned within a sufficiently broad frame of socio-economic understanding."

"IF TRAFFIC" conditions in the urban centers are considered bad today, just think what they will be like when there are six or seven times more people in the world!

"The important point," Larson continued, "is that a century is a very short span in the life of a city or any other urban unit. Today is not a bit too early to start planning for what will be needed a hundred years from now."

"A clue to the future form of the expanding city is contained in the fact that, with the industrialization of agriculture and the emergence of big metropolitan areas, the old distinction between town and country has become lost. It is no longer possible to tell where one settled community ends and another begins."

"As towns merge into one conurbation, farm lands shrink and surplus areas are turned into golf courses or industrial research parks or open spaces

E.M.U. "Devil's Disciple" Opens Today in Quirk Theater

George Bernard Shaw's "The Devil's Disciple" is the play, is set for performances Wednesday, March 3 through Sunday, March 7 at 8 p.m. in Quirk Theatre, Ypsilanti.

Shaw is at his wittiest in "The Devil's Disciple," hurling insults at the patriots of the American Revolution and their staunch British opponents with equal candor and equally total demolition.

Bill Moore of Plymouth will appear as Rev. Anderson. Moore has appeared in Plymouth Theatre Guild productions.

As may be recalled from the fine film version starring Kirk Douglas, Burt Lancaster and Sir Laurence Olivier, the play packs together a stageful of delightfully Shavian characters engaged in a wide array of skirmishes of wit, of love, and of the Revolutionary War. Shaw himself called the play "a masterpiece of perverse paradox and scintillating satire."

The Quirk box office is open weekdays from 12:45 to 4:30 p.m. Reserved seats are $1.25.

Two Residents To Dance

Two area residents will appear in the sixth annual Indoor Games at Detroit's St. Andrew's Hall. The Games, under the sponsorship of the Detroit Highland Dancing Society, will be March 7.

Those residents participating are: Jacqueline Kennedy of 680 Provincetown Lane, Plymouth, and Leigh Ann Colombo of 9180 Centralia, Redford Township.

The participants, who will be competing for medals and trophies, will dance the Highland Fling, Sword Dance, Seann Triubhas, Irish Jig and Sailor's Hornpipe.

Admission to the Game is $1 for adults and 25 cents for children.

Ladywood High Slates 'One With the Flame'

Joan the maiden, the warrior and the saint is the featured theme of the drama "One with the Flame" which will be presented at Ladywood High School March 6, 7 and 8.

Curtain time for the evening performance is 7:30 p.m. The Saturday and Sunday matinees will begin at 2:30 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door for $1.25.

The setting is the Cathedral of Paris, where the Inquisitor's Court has reassembled to weigh the conflict between the peasant women of a small French town and the women of the Court. The bone of contention is Joan of Arc's excommunication from the church before her death 24 years prior to the stage scene.

The peasant women have drawn up a petition which is the cause of the posthumous trial of Joan.

Flashback scenes portray Joan the maiden, the warrior and the saint as she "chooses the Fire which frees her soul."

Chris Fox stars in the role of Joan. Ladywood freshman Tammy Rairigh portrays Isabelle, Joan's mother, and Ron Carmona, a senior at Catholic Central High School, appears as the Inquisitor.

Other members of the cast are Ladywood seniors: Therese Nadon, Diane Ditri, Cathy Dornes, Joan Werger, Francis Baker, Kathy McManamon, Nancy Jablonski, Cheryl Donald, Janice Kasperak, Linda Eller and Janet Bazner. Ladywood juniors appearing are: Cathy Begnoche, Bonnie Spino and Sylvia Smyrka. Sophomores in the cast include: Agnes Powloski, Marion Feurtach, Anita Westerstrom, Peggy Assemany, Charlene Fox, Linda Poremba, Val McMurry, Pat Tomchuck and Madia Maria.

Catholic Central High School students who play the male roles are: senior David Chandler; juniors Jim Malecki and Joe McElligott; sophomores Sean Francis and Jim Heidelberg; and freshman Barry Galdes.

Concert Slated At St. Matthews

A musical concert by Mrs. Lawrence Slade, soprano soloist, and Arthur E. Pipok, organist, will be held on March 2 at 3:15 p.m. at St. Matthews Church, 29475 W. Six Mile Rd., Livonia.

Selections will include both secular and religious music.

This is one of a series of musical programs sponsored by the Chancel Choir of St. Matthews to raise money for new choir robes. A free-will offering will be taken.

Livonia Engineer Speaks Before SAE Convention

Carl E. Burke, of 11035 Auburndale, Livonia, was one of the speakers at the recent Society of Automotive Engineers convention at Cobo Hall.

Burke, Chief Development Engineer at American Motors Corporation, gave a speech in a presentation entitled "The American Motors Disc Brake".

Disc brakes were used on U.S. automobiles as early as the 1930's and have become standard equipment on most small European-made cars. Until recently, though, several problems made disc brakes impractical for the heavier American cars.

Burke covered disc brakes from their background in history to the introduction of Bendix disc brakes on American Motors cars this year.

DiETING? Check Livonia Library

The "slim garment" is in style these days, according to recent books at the Livonia Public Library.

There's no reason for anyone to be worried about getting into a spring wardrobe. All that is necessary is to read some of the sensible ideas in the library's books on diet and weight control and exercise a little will power. Librarian Skip Rosenthal commented. A good number of people are doing just that, and books on diet and nutrition are in constant demand.

Numerous other books on diet and weight control are available at the library. Some of the titles include "Reduce and Stay Reduced," by Norman Jolliffe; "How to Keep Slender and Fit After 30," by Bonnie Prudden; "Live Longer and Better," by Robert Peale, and the "Better Homes and Gardens Diet Book."

Low-calorie cookery, frequently requested, is covered in Helen Belinkie's "The Gourmet in the Low-Calorie Kitchen."

Exercise as a means of keeping slim is covered in "Debbie Drake's Easy Way to a Perfect Figure and Glowing Health," by Debbie Drake; "The Jack LaLanne Way to Vibrant Good Health," by Jack LaLanne, and "Be Fit as a Marine," by William Rankin.

A number of excellent books on nutrition are also available. They include Frederick Stare's "Eating for Good Health," Roger Williams' "Nutrition in a Nutshell," and Ancel Keys' "Eat Well and Stay Well."

In addition, the library has numerous special diet cook books for persons on low fat or sugar diets, high protein, or other special diets.

The South Branch is located at 33720 Plymouth Road, GA 7-1990 and the Sandburg Branch is at 30100 W. Seven Mile Road, 476-0700. Hours open: Monday through Thursday, 12-9; Friday and Saturday, 9-5.

Banquet Honors Columbian KC

All Saints Columbian Squires, #1359 of Taylor, held its Fourth Annual Anniversary Banquet Saturday in the All Saints Knights of Columbus Hall, 5841 Telegraph.

The invocation and address was given by Father Cunningham of Sacred Heart Seminary, Detroit. The introduction was given by Dale F. Gudeth, Chief Counsellor for the Squires and then turned over to Robert Stelini who served as toastmaster for the evening.

Anthony R. LaFramboise, Grand Knight for All Saints Knights of Columbus, presented awards to Paul Paquette and Ronald Maniaci for their outstanding work in the Squires. Stelini received a Class "A" award from LaFramboise for the Squires. James R. Herbert, Past Chief Counsellor, presented the award for Squire-of-the-Year to Lary D. Gudeth.

Movies of basketball and baseball were commented by Giles Ziolkowski and Jerry Dziedzic.

All of the Squires met with their counsellors, Norman Ziolkowski, Keith Perkins, Dale Gudeth, Hugh Perkins and Daniel Sweeney, for a corporate communion at St. Alfred's Church for 8:30 Mass.

Mrs. Verna Malek of Allen Park won the 21" Philco colored television set awarded by the Squires.

Dr. Marburger Speaks to PTA

Township resident Dr. Carl Marburger, of 17430 Denby, was the featured speaker at the Annual Founders Day Banquet of the Redford Union High School Parent Teachers Association on Tuesday, Feb. 2.

Dr. Marburger, who is Executive Administrative Assistant of the Detroit Public Schools in charge of Special Projects, spoke on the educational problems of the deprived "inner city," illustrating his remarks with the excellent film which he helped to produce — "Children Without."

Honored guests were five past presidents of the RU PTA: Mrs. Grace Toth, Mrs. Jessie Potter, Mr. Jerry Tomecek, Mr. Elmsner Pearson, and Mrs. Irene Naleway.

Following the dinner, which was well attended by parents and RU staff members, President Joe Baumgartner presented Board President John Raeside, who in turn introduced Redford Union's newly appointed principal for the next school year, William R. Fleming. Joe Pfister, PTA father vice-president and program chairman, presented Dr. Marburger.

Redford Twp. GOP Plans Theater Trip

Redford Township Republicans will take over the Village Players Theater in Birmingham for the performance of "Shot in the Dark."

Curtain time is 9 p.m. for the showing and cocktails and refreshments will be served. Tickets — at $3, including refreshments — are available by calling KE 2-1870.

The local party is also planning its annual spring ball for Friday, April 23 at Western Golf and Country Club. Tickets are $2 per person and will be on sale soon.

Fisher Cubs Schedule Blue and Gold Dinner

Cub Scout Pack 547 is sponsored by the George H. Fisher P.T.A. Meetings are held the last Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Fisher School Gym. The January Pack Meeting was opened with a Flag Ceremony performed by Den 8 under the direction of Den Chief Doug Shreve. Parents were instructed by observing a film on "Awards and Achievements," to better prepare them in assisting and enjoying scouting with their sons. The boys remained in the gym with Assistant Cubmaster Myles Armour and the Den Chiefs for Inspection. Inspection Award was won by Den 8. The Attendance Award was won by Den 2 as a result of parent attendance.

Cubmaster John Sheffield and Awardsman Howard Crawford presented awards to the following boys: Robert Babcock and Mark Schaner — Recruiter Badges; David Cooke — Silver Arrow under Wolf and Denner Stripe; Robert Robbins — Gold Arrow under Bear; Greg Garris — Wolf Badge, Gold and Silver Arrows under Wolf; Steven Crawford — Gold and 2 Silver Arrows under Wolf; Mark Smith — One Year Pin; Ricky Sheffield — Gold and Silver Arrows under Lion, and Webelos Badge; Curt Beadle — Silver Arrow under Bear; Carl Kroll — Assistant Denner Stripe; Frank Osikowicz — Lion Badge and Wolf and Recruiter Badge; and Brian Link attained the Arrow of Light Badge.

Committee Chairman William Siver then led the group on a Lion Hunt game which was followed by three very entertaining skits performed by Dens 2 and 6 and the Webelos.

Induction ceremonies were then held for Brian Milligan, James Stewart, Alexander Lyzohub and Rick Westphal to install them as Bobcats in the Pack. Cubmaster John Sheffield impressed the parents accompanying the boys with the object of scouting in bringing about a closer working relationship with their sons. The closing ceremony was performed by Den 6 under the direction and leadership of the Cubmaster.

Eleven couples from the Pack and one couple from the Troop from Fisher area will be attending the Scout Pot-Luck Dinner to be held at Cobo Hall on February 6.

The Pack Meeting for Feb. was held on Feb. 23, in the form of an annual Blue and Gold Dinner for Cub Scouts and the fathers to honor the Den Mothers who will be guests for dinner and the evening entertainment.

The Cubmaster instructed the boys on how they might respect Boy Scout Week Feb. 7-13 by showing Good-will and attending Church. The March Pack Meeting will be held in Fisher gym in the form of a Carnival with Midway, Booths, and clowns. Popcorn and balloons will be for sale. Public is welcome and invited to attend. For further information call KE 3-3638 or KE 1-6842.

Hollander To Appear in Detroit

Pianist Lorin Hollander will be soloist with The Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 on Thursday, March 4, and Saturday, March 6, at Ford Auditorium. Sixten Ehrling will conduct.

Hollander will perform Prokofiev's Concerto for Piano and Orchestra No. 5. The orchestral portions of the program include Sibelius' En Saga, Liszt's Les Preludes, and a world premiere performance of Flanagan's Narrative for Orchestra.

Tickets at all prices are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office and at all Grinnell's stores.

Spoon River in One Night Stand at U. of D. Sunday

The hit Broadway show "Spoon River" comes to the University of Detroit for a one night stand Sunday, (March 7). The play, part of the U. of D. "Town and Gown" Celebrity Series, will be presented at 8:30 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom on the McNichols Road campus.

The spirit of America, as masters felt and conveyed it, was open and optimistic, though he was well aware of how often the promise was betrayed. He appreciated the comedy and tragedy around him. The sinners and sinned against of Spoon River make amusing and touching company.

Called "a glowing theatrical experience" by the New York Times, "Spoon River" is the only non-musical production of the 1963-64 season to win unanimous rave reviews from the Broadway critics.

Based on Edgar Lee Masters' classic of American Literature "Spoon River Anthology," "Spoon River" presents a haunting, hilarious and heartwarming portrait of life in the American middle west at the turn of the century.

"Spoon River" was conceived, adapted and directed by Charles Aidman, Aidman, a veteran of Broadway, Hollywood, and television, also co-authored with Naomi Hirschhorn, the folksongs performed in "Spoon River."

Reproduced exactly as it was performed on the Broadway stage "Spoon River" will feature a cast of actors and folk singers including Carl Esser and Barbara Gilbert.

CURTAIN GOING UP

By WALLY ROBERTS

"Snow use talking about the weather. Those nasty flakes ganged up on all of us and left many a theatrical attraction realizing that the show doesn't always go on. The Livonia-Redford Players Guild cancelled their performances last week and will reschedule two performances of "GIGI" for this weekend (Friday and Saturday) at the Redford Union High School Auditorium. Tickets may be obtained at the door or by calling GA 2-8339 or KE 7-8109.

Guild president Jerry Pembler called and indicated that choice seats still are available. "GIGI" is a fast-moving comedy and will provide a full evening of chuckles for all who venture over to the Redford Union High School.

"Cinderella", next on the theatrical docket for the Livonia-Redford Players, has been getting buckets of exposure lately. TV's Channel 2 had an hour-long color version with Lesley Warren. The Plymouth AAUW Children's Theater division finished a five performance run of "Cinderella" and will be putting on a guest performance of the play in Ann Arbor this weekend.

No amount of exposure can dim this greatest of all fairy tales. The conflict between good and evil plus the underdog winning out has retained its charm from the first telling of the tale. No matter what your age might be you can enjoy "Cinderella".

Several of the adults that accompanied their children were seen showing immediate signs of approval of the action on the Plymouth High School stage at the AAUW's brilliant presentation of "Cinderella". The sets each year become more professional under the guiding hand of Nancy Messerly. Costumes were responsible. Dorothy Smith, Kay Devereaux and Ruth Campbell can take a deep bow for the hours spent behind the sewing machines.

Director Shirley McKeon did a yeoman's job in pulling together this fast-moving children's show. Her liberal use of the aisle in the audience to base some of her action was commendable.

I'm sure if the AACW will look at next year's production through more realistic spectacles the results will be twice as good. More action can be worked in if a boy or man is thrown into the production. Old Wally will have to admit though that Kay Devereaux's prat-fall in Act III was a show-stopper. More of this hearty action is needed to all Children's Theater productions. Be sure to see Eastern Michigan's "Tom Sawyer" on April 1, 2, or 3 and you will understand what I'm driving at.

"The Devil's Disciple" opens up at the Quirk Theater on Wednesday of this week and play through Sunday evening. If you have yet to see a play by George Bernard Shaw, start with this show. Shaw was light on philosophy and long on plot in this play. It will be interesting to see how Director George Bird solves the tough problem of five sets in this presentation.

Over the years old Wally has always wanted to add "Devil's Disciple" to his string of some 32 shows that he has directed. I've always felt that this Shaw piece could be done best with an open background and showing fragmentary sets in quickly. Well, we shall see what Mr. Bird does on Wednesday night.

One added note on "Disciple": if William Moore who will be playing Reverend Anderson seems to be in pain, he is. On the way to rehearsal last week he had an automobile accident. Result: one badly mangled auto, a broken ankle, and several cracked ribs. Rumor has it that fractured or not, Mr. Moore will limp through his role since as we said at the beginning of the column... the show must go on!

Aids in Kazoo Play
KALAMAZOO — Robert Staff, of Plymouth who will be playing for Kalamazoo College's forthcoming production of "Androcles and the Lion." Staff, a freshman, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stermer, 41339 Ivywood Lane, Plymouth.

WHO NOT WHAT is the question. Actually the whole mystery will be revealed for those that attend the Terrace Theatre Plymouth Road just east of Middlebelt this week to see the bill "36 Hours." Along with it will be a short made by a celebrity who lives in Farmington, Joe Clark, HBSS (hill-billy snaphooter) who stars in the buffalo "picture raid" entitled "Wyoming Snaphooter." Joe, a free lance photographer, has many pictures on front pages of leading magazines and has several books to his credit. A new edition of photographic poems will be published next month. His wife Bernice and son Junebug are also in the picture-taking business and all three travel around the world on assignments.

"Cinderella" Is Rescheduled Due to Weather Conditions

"Cinderella", the children's production by the Livonia-Redford Theatre Guild Juniors, has been subject to rescheduling because of last week's snow.

Family Night has been changed from March 5 at Redford Union High School to March 12 at the Thurston High School Little Theatre. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

The March 6 matinee performances will be rescheduled at a future date.

Following the Family Night production the play will follow the previously announced schedule of Saturday performances. These are:

March 13, Thurston High School, 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., 2 and 4 p.m.; March 20, Franklin High School, 11 a.m., 1 and 3 p.m.; April 10, Bentley High School, 11 a.m., 1 and 3 p.m.

BILLBOARD

(Week of March 3-10)
Fisher Theatre — "PLEASURES AND PALACES" — New musical prior to Broadway. Could have some good music since Frank Loesser is the tunesmith. Will open on Thursday, March 11 for a four-week run prior to Broadway.

Redford Union Auditorium — "GIGI" — Two performances scheduled this week as a result of heavy snow. Last week. Opens on Friday night, March 5; closes following night.

Musque Theatre — "LOSS OF ROSES" — William Inge play that is winning them at the Hotel Wolverine location. Detroit's answer to off-Broadway. Will run for 3 more weeks.

Hilbert Classic Theatre — "GALLILEO" — Repertory is complete with the addition of this marvelous Brecht play. K. Lye O'Dell does a magnificent job. Recommend all of the five plays. Call 831-5151 for tickets and information on which play is to be performed.

Quirk Theater — "THE DEVIL'S DISCIPLE" — W. G. B. Shaw play with zing and dash instead of yards of dialogue. Don't miss this one. Opens on Wednesday for a five day run.

University of Detroit Theatre — "J.B." and "MISSALLAINE" — Spring repertory opens on March 5 and 6. Will play for two months.

Bonstelle Theatre — "GIDEON" — Wayne State players announce final weekend for the famous Fyodor Dostoyevsky drama. Sunday matinee at 2:30 p.m. on March 7 is final performance.

Harmonica Club Meets

St. Peter's Announces New Schedule

A new schedule of two Sunday morning worship services will begin at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Plymouth on March 7. The services will be at 9 a.m. and 10:15 a.m. Sunday School will be at 9:15 a.m.

Holy Communion will be celebrated regularly at the 10:15 service on the first Sunday of the month and at the 8 a.m. service on the third Sunday.

The Foundation, a new organization, was incorporated Jan. 23, 1965. Its 13 member board of trustees includes: Neil Duff, Harry Tarpinian, M.D., Charles F. Shemway, Rev. Dean A. Farrott, Dr. Frederick Smith, Gordon A. Eddie, M.D., Florence M. Peterson, Norbert O. Anderson, M.D., Harold Larson, David W. Dyke, H. L. Wheeler, Dr. Forrest C. Stevenson, and Rev. Corder B. Eldridge.

Chairman of the Board Neil Duff outlined the organization's program for meeting "the challenge for emotional health from a distinctly Christian viewpoint."

The program is being launched in three areas: first, a research aim to study causes and solutions for problems of emotional health. Second, it has taken over the operation of the Detroit Christian Counseling Service,

Third of Congregation Signs Open Occupancy Covenant

One third of the congregation of more than 900 of Livonia's St. Paul's Presbyterian Church signed a covenant on open occupancy which was presented to it Feb. 14.

The Covenant is a part of an education program being conducted by the Church which began in August, 1964.

Rev. Thomas W. Estes, Associate Pastor of the Church, said that the program is being conducted by the Church and Society Committee of the Church Session.

The session is the governing body of the Church while the Church Society Committee is a standing committee of the governing organ.

Through personal involvement, through articles in the church newspaper and through small group programs the Committee has endeavored to carry on this educational program.

The offering of the Covenant for the congregation's signatures was made, according to Rev. Estes "to graphically demonstrate our concern for witnessing to one another our willingness to receive persons of other races, not only as our brothers in Christ, but as our neighbors."

"But why the Covenant for us? Why not some other expression of Christian concern?" asked the Rev. William F. Whitlege, minister of St. Paul's in a special Race Relations Sunday sermon.

"The reason is that housing is the modern key to racial understanding and peace. Until a person can move into a neighborhood, unnoticed because of his racial or religious or national origins, until he can move into a neighborhood as easily as you and I moved into our neighborhoods, there will be racial tension, bitterness and hate."

"Housing is the key because only when we accept people as neighbors do we really accept them," Rev. Whitlege continued. "Only when a person who can afford to buy and maintain a house in your block can buy that house without fear of reprisal, without fear of ostracism, without panic selling signs going up on every lawn—only when he is really welcomed can the ideals of the Sermon on the Mount (which you and I love to quote) and the ideals of Lincoln (whose words we have all memorized)—only then are those words more than words to each of us."

In his sermon entitled "A Covenant for a New Day," Rev. Whitlege urged the congregation to sign for two reasons: "For what it may do to you," and "for what it may do to the witness of this church."

Rev. Whitlege supported his first reason with the comment that "There is an inner strength and a determination that comes when you put your name to a piece of paper. The cards seem to say: I have committed myself to the standard; I will uphold the standard. This commitment helps one to grow."

He asserted that "We do not intend to publish, even within the church, the list of signers; this is not our goal. But to be able to say to the Church and to the world that a great percentage of our members have, in a written form, re-affirmed their vows to uphold the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God in our neighborhoods—not in far off Timbuktoo but here in our neighborhoods where we live (for this is where our religion must be lived)—this is our challenge."

The Covenant presented to the congregation states: "I, _____, of St. Paul's United Presbyterian Church do covenant with God as well as my fellow signers, that I will uphold the right of any person, regardless of race, who intends to be a good law abiding neighbor, to make his home in their neighborhood with a claim upon my friendship and Christian concern."

Rev. Estes said that "We anticipate even more signatures in the coming weeks and months. We are delighted with this new tone that has been set and hope that this will be a continuing witness to our church and community."

Widow of Slain Congo Missionary to Speak

The slaughter of missionary workers in Stanleyville, Congo, received much world-wide publicity last November. The Rev. Hector McMillan and his wife, Ione, had given twenty-three years of missionary service in Congo, working under the Un-evangelized Fields Mission; an interdenominational Mission Board. Fourteen U.W.M. missionaries and six children were slain during this November onslaught of the rebels in Stanleyville.

Mrs. Ione McMillan became a martyr's widow when her Canadian missionary husband was cut down by rebel bullets in Stanleyville, and her two oldest sons, Kenneth, seventeen, and Paul, sixteen, were wounded.

At the First Baptist Church of Farmington on Sunday, March 7th, Mrs. McMillan will be speaking at both services; the 10 o'clock morning worship and 7 p.m. evening service. She will tell in detail of the rebel attack on their Mission home where her husband became a martyr. Her six sons, aged 11 through 17, will accompany her to First Baptist of Farmington, where the Rev. Walter Ballagh is the pastor.

Mrs. McMillan and her sons returned to the States on Dec. 21, but there was serenity, not sadness, on the face of the 51 year old woman as she spoke of harrowing experiences. "I want the children to know it was a special privilege, not a catastrophe," said their courageous mother. "I am glad that the Lord chose Hector for His purpose."

In view of the widespread interest in the events which took place in Stanleyville last November, it may be that many in the community will desire to hear Mrs. McMillan's message. A warm and cordial invitation is extended to all to attend the services at First Baptist of Farmington next Sunday morning and evening.

Farmington Lenten Services Planned

Richard T. Markham, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Farmington, announces that pot-luck dinners will be held the church on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 p.m. during this Lenten Season.

The ladies of the Women's Society of Christian Service will supervise the dinners under the leadership of Mrs. Clifford Meredith. Anyone wishing to attend may contact Mrs. Meredith at GR 4-6592 or call the church office, GR 4-6573.

Nursery care will be provided by the Girl Scouts for all the Lenten Services and there will be entertainment for the younger children.

For the adults, the highlight of the evening services will be the guest speakers, who will attempt to bring inspiration to all those attending.

On Wednesday, March 10, the Rev. Lewis L. Redmond, minister at Cass Community Church in Detroit, will begin the series of these services, preaching a sermon, "They Worshiped Him."

All members and friends of First Methodist are invited to attend these services. The evening service will start at 7:15 p.m. Subsequent speakers will be announced.

Family Life Conference Slated in Livonia March 5-7

A Family Life Conference will be held March 5, 6, 7 at the West Point Church of Christ, 33200 W. 7 Mile Rd. in Livonia. Dr. Forest Stevenson, Executive Director of The Christian Foundation for Emotional Health will speak.

Dr. Norbert O. Anderson, a former medical missionary, now on the psychiatric staff of Wayne County General Hospital stated, "One of the things we hope to see evolve from the Christian Foundation for Emotional Health is a team concept on the part of physicians, pastors, lawyers, and educators, backed by business leaders and the Christian public. The need for this organization is long overdue."

Dr. Stevenson will speak at West Point Church of Christ at 7:30 p.m. each evening Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 5, 6, 7. He will speak at the 9:45 and 11 services on Sunday and will address teen-agers at 6:30 p.m. Sunday evening. The public is cordially invited. A discussion period will follow each service. The church is located at 33200 W. 7 Mile Rd. in Livonia.

REMINDER!

Just a reminder! The Observer's Church page is what is called an "early release page." Because of this the deadline for church news and pictures is 5 p.m. Friday preceding publication.

FRANKLIN FACTS

Juniors To Present "Harvey"

"Harvey" has been selected for this year's Junior play. It is the delightful story of a man who has visions of gigantic white rabbits. Instead of keeping his hallucinations to himself, he tells others all about the mysterious rabbit. He is promptly committed to an insane asylum by his sister. All in all it adds up to an evening of fun and laughter. Appearing in the play will be Bob Zink as Elwood P. Dowd, Kay Grismer as Veta Simmons, Becky Des Jardins as Myrtle Mae Simmons, Vicki Barton as Mrs. Chauvenet, Vicki Campeau as Miss Kelly, Glen Vandenasch as Mr. Wilson, Ed Flynn as Dr. Sanderson, Bob Wolverson as Dr. Chummy, Nancy Cofer as Betty Chummy, Doug Wright as Judge Gaffney, and Ed Kochanek as E. I. Lofgren. Script Assistant is Nora Surratt and Student director is Doreen Bordeaux. The play will be presented April 8 and 9 at 8 p.m.

A touch of Spain came to Franklin last week, on Tuesday, Feb. 23, when Senorita Amparra Navarro spoke to the International Relation classes. Senorita Navarro is an exchange teacher through the Fullbright Scholarship Foundation. Since her departure from Valencia, Spain, she has been living in Lansing. She is now touring the state and giving lectures to all who are interested in hearing about her country.

Students enthusiastically asked questions about the language, government, culture, and people of Spain. Senorita Navarro answered them with everything from missile bases to the cost of living statistics. When asked for her opinion of the United States she said that the people are very nice and friendly, very industrious and that we have a fine country. The only thing she did not like about the United States was that Americans are always in a hurry.

At the annual Choral Festival held at Wayne State University on February 20, Franklin received a "1," the highest rating given. The Madrigals sang "April Is in My Mistress' Face" and "Adieu, Sweet America."

Phyllis Barnhart will be reading poetry and Danielle Toby will be directing a choir which will be singing many French melodies. Jim Mayle will be doing the general narration.

TALKING ABOUT THURSTON:

Eighteen THS Art Students Honored

Preparations are being made for the annual Spring Forensics contest. Students in the speech department have been working hard on their speeches getting them ready for the local contest. Competition among Thurston students to decide who will participate in the district contest begins March 10. There are five divisions a student may enter and Thurston will send the top ones in each division to the finals.

The five categories are declamation, oratory, extemporaneous, humorous readings, and interpretation. Declamation is the memorization and the oral presentation of a speech written and delivered by another person originally. A humorous presentation is a form of oral reading. Any selection of literary value is acceptable. Students wanting to enter the oratory division have to write an original speech and deliver it by memory. Those who wish to enter the extemporaneous contest must be up-to-date on current news. An hour before the contest the participants are given the topic of their speech and they must prepare their delivery in this hour. Mr. Eugene Duston is in charge of the preparations for the contest. The top two in each division will represent Thurston in the regional contest on March 12 at Franklin High School.

On Feb. 19 and 20, five students from Thurston went up to Michigan State University. The students were Don Bone, Donna Glowacki, Marie Mavis, Gloria Hiltz and Joan Krejci. They took scholarship tests and had an opportunity to become familiar with the college during their stay. On Friday afternoon the students had group discussions with the professor who taught in the area they wished to study. Later in the evening they had a candlelight banquet and heard a speech from the Dean of the Honors College. The rest of the night they heard lectures. Saturday morning the students took the scholarship tests with about 800 other outstanding students mostly from Michigan. The same test was given a week earlier to approximately 800 other students.

The choruses that were at the Festivals were dictated on tone, intonation, diction, techniques, balance, musical effort and many other factors. Bases: Bob Kelley, Bill Roch, Bill Holmbrun; Altos: Joan Carter, Karen Horwath, Jan Demsky, Barbara Bar; Sopranos: Danielle Toby, Mary Moore, Bev Hartsell, Georgina Buttigeig, Linda Aubry; and Tenors: Fred Hertenstein, Gerry Chester, Bob Zink; compose the Madrigals. Featured soloists were Jan Demsky, Nancy Lentz, and Alexis Naimola. Mr. William Hall directed the Madrigals.

Franklin's Student Council will present an all-school variety show on Friday, March 26, at 7:30 p.m. The judges have been watching try-outs for the past week and are making their final decision. Tickets will be 50 cents for students and 75 cents for adults.

On February 24 and 25, FHS and Birmingham Groves participated in an exchange program. Last Wednesday, Franklin representatives visited Birmingham Groves High School. They were Mary Cleland, Sophomore; Mike Stachurski and Fred Sievert, Juniors; Pat Kiselewski, Steve Karnish and Janie Thompson, Seniors.

Franklin was invaded by Birmingham Groves on Thursday. Acting as hosts to Grove students were Karen Foley, Sophomore; Janis Rochette, Junior; Cheryl Beach, Kathy Dunham, Pat O'Neil and Randi Grunstad, Seniors. Students visited classrooms in different sections of the school building to learn all about Franklin.

Jokes, a fashion show, choral singing, poetry, two sketches, and a hootenanny will be combined in a program to be presented on March 5. This variety show will be sponsored by the French Club and will be viewed by French speaking students during 6th hour in the Lecture Theater.

The fashion show will be presented in four different scenes: a ski scene, a formal scene with evening dress, a pajama scene and school scene. There will be a different narrator for each one.

Phyllis Barnhart will be reading poetry and Danielle Toby will be directing a choir which will be singing many French melodies. Jim Mayle will be doing the general narration.

The MSU alumni are going to award 10 of these students with $6,000 scholarships to MSU.

The Class of '65 is working hard to have a senior trip to Gay El Rancho. Last Tuesday, Feb. 23, a meeting was held in the evening for the seniors interested in this class trip and their parents. A representative from the ranch was present to tell about it, show slides, and answer any questions. At the present time the dates of May 21, 22 and 23 are being held open for Thurston. The trip would cost the seniors about $32 and this includes their transportation, meals, room and all activities they wish to participate in during their stay. The activities available include horseback riding, water skiing, fishing, swimming, tennis, archery, canoeing, boating, water cycling, badminton, ping-pong, volleyball, bicycling, dancing and rifle shooting. During the evening the ranch arranges a hayride and bon fire for one night and an all night party for the other day unless the school desires some other activities. Gay El Rancho is located in Gaylord, Mich. on Dixon Lake. They have a large heated pool, recreation room, dining room, patio, sundeck and comfortable housing facilities. If the class can get 150 students to go the ranch will reserve all the rooms and facilities just for Thurston.

Eighteen art students from Thurston received awards in the annual High School Scholastic Art Contest. The students received recognition in the areas of oil and water color painting, photography, drawing and sculpture. Thurston's art department won more sculpture awards than any of the other 122 schools from Michigan that were competing. Thurston award winners were: Bruce Jeric, one gold key; Harriet Jenick, certificate; Janet Bowman, certificate; Emily Reed, two certificates; Sue Moore, certificate; Bob Davison, certificate. Sculpture awards went to: Larry Turk, gold key and blue ribbon. The blue ribbon award entry will now be sent to New York for national competition. Gold key sculpture winners were: Jim Blazo, Debbie Manning and Paul Soke. Certificate winners included: Al Bass, Jim Blazo, Linda Buckland, Sue Turniak and Ed Symanski.

BENTLEY BULLETINS

The whole show will be presented in French. The Spanish Club is planning a trip to a Latin-American restaurant to feast on tacos, enchiladas and tamales. The date of the dinner has not yet been decided.

Students Play Tin Can Ball

The taste of victory was sweet to junior-sophomore victors of the annual "Tin Can" basketball game. Since the juniors on the green team had been beaten by the seniors only three weeks ago, they were especially eager to defeat their white team opponents.

Players on the Senior-Freshman team were: Bob Alter, Tom Anthony (2 points), Frank Beale (4), Rick Collins (8), Phil Davison, Mike Funke, Mike Huhn (6), Al Kovarik (2), Bill Morgan, Greg Peck (4), Jim Roose (2), and Ron Zimmerman (3), (seniors); Dan Hanlon (4), Jim Howell, Joe Huhn (2), Turpin Smith, Will Stroud, Paul Turpin (4), and Rich Walsh (2), (freshmen).

Junior cheerleaders were Linda Steen, Sue Behrend, Janet Parent, and Karen Sklut. Seniors were Linda Cuncich, Pat Hope, Pam Greisser, and Ann Drolshagen. Junior cheerleaders were Linda Steen, Sue Behrend, Janet Parent, and Karen Sklut. Seniors were Linda Cuncich, Pat Hope, Pam Greisser, and Ann Drolshagen.

Junior cheerleaders were Linda Steen, Sue Behrend, Janet Parent, and Karen Sklut. Seniors were Linda Cuncich, Pat Hope, Pam Greisser, and Ann Drolshagen.

ON THURSDAY, February 11, three juniors attended "Youth Science Day," sponsored by the Engineering Society of Detroit.

Martin Arnold, Greg Brower, and Chris Berger were selected by principal Sister Gilmery, and science teacher, Sister Sybilla. They first visited the Bendix Research Lab in Southfield. Here they listened to talks by several leading scientists. They then toured the fluid state lab and electron tube lab.

The next stop was Greenfield Village, where they lunched at Lovett Hall. A highlight tour of the museum was next on the agenda. A speech by the president of the Engineering Society closed the day's activities.

RICHARD COLLINS was recently elected Student of the Month. Rick, a senior, has maintained an all-B average throughout his high school career. Active in sports, and in his fourth year of varsity football, he served as co-captain of the team.

As quarterback, he was chosen all-league this season. He has also been on the basketball squad for four years, and was all-city baseball player last year.

Rick was elected class vice-president this year. He is a member of the Young Christian Students, altar boys, and Varsity Club. He plans to attend Michigan State University on a baseball scholarship, and study commercial advertising.

TWENTY SOPHOMORES and juniors completed the classroom course in driver education on Friday, February 19. Last Monday, the first of several smaller groups began the behind-the-wheel class, which lasts three weeks.

A TWO DOLLAR balance is due by Friday, February 26, on all yearbooks ordered last January. The 1965 SAGA promises to be the biggest and best St. Agatha yearbook yet. Increase in enrollment and activities has necessitated an increase in size, and an additional eight pages to the previously 120 page book.

Under the guidance of Sister Jean Ellen, O.P., the staff works diligently and devotedly to meet the fast approaching deadline.

Co-editors Fran Nadolny and Julie Brown, layout editor Janet Nadolny, copy editor Mary Lou Mangold, advertising manager Lynda Wilkerson, and numerous assistants devote hours after school, study halls, and even Saturdays to the complex but enjoyable task of publishing a yearbook.

Make Plans For UN Program on April 7

Most people who take an interest in world affairs are familiar with the term United Nations. The United Nations is an assembly of delegations from various countries who discuss world happenings.

Many districts around Livonia have formed Model United Nations Clubs. These clubs mock the goings on at the United Nations. On February 24, Kirk Karhi, president of Model United Nations at Bentley, along with many other Bentley members held a session to discuss African and Asian unity. This assembly took place at Bentley and students representing delegations came to this meeting from schools all over Detroit.

Other representatives from Malaysia like Kenya, Somalia, Malagasy, Ceylon, and Indonesia indicated a desire to speak, and did so as they talked on a topic of importance about their country.

Anyone who wishes to sit in on one of the Model United Nations is invited to the next caucus at Bentley on April 7. During Easter vacation Plan United Nation members plan to spend a weekend at the University of Detroit. In this period of time a mock assembly of the world affairs will be held.

Bentley students who take an active part in these studying about world affairs are: Jim Joy, Bob Willsip, Dennis Cogswell, Phil Balla, Helene Kladyk, John Moore, Evelyn Hay, John Bennett, Barb Taylor, and Janet Goulston.

DONKEYS ARE stubborn but they can be a lot of good fun. On March 27 donkeys will be part of a basketball game played in Bentley's gym.

At about 8 p.m. students from Bentley and Clarenceville will play donkey-basketball against students from Franklin and Ledywood.

Tickets are priced at $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. Following the game there will be a sackpot held which will end promptly at 11:15 p.m.

MANY STUDENTS from Bentley will start the spring season out right when they attend a semi-formal dance on March 19.

This affair will take place in Bentley's gym, is known to students as the Spring Frolic, will last from 8:30 to 11:30. It gives the girls a chance to ask the boys this time.

The theme for this year's dance is, "Sunshine And Flowers." A Spring sweetheart will also be selected. Nominees for this position from any grade level should have their names dropped in black boxes. There are three of such boxes, one of which is in each grade office. Names can be submitted on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th of March.

Girls can purchase tickets for $1 starting March 15. The Bentley Dance Band will entertain. The dance is sponsored by the staff of Bentley's Echo newspaper.

JUST ABOUT EVERYONE likes to read magazines. Because of this many Bentley students have made up an interesting booklet for people to enjoy.

It is the Parnassus, and contains works of students in Bentley who wish to contribute their talented drawings, essays, short stories, poems, and any other similar ideas.

The magazine that will come out this year is expected to be full of good material. This is because students have greatly contributed their best writings and drawings.

Although the Parnassus is starting to be put together, students who wish to turn in extra articles should do so as soon as possible.

AS STUDENTS already know the school library is now open at night. The Student Council, along with William K. Pate, one of the head librarians, have worked hard to make this available for Bentley students.

The library is open from 2 until 9 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday. Bentley students who use the library are urged to follow rules and carry an I.D. card if they wish to enter.

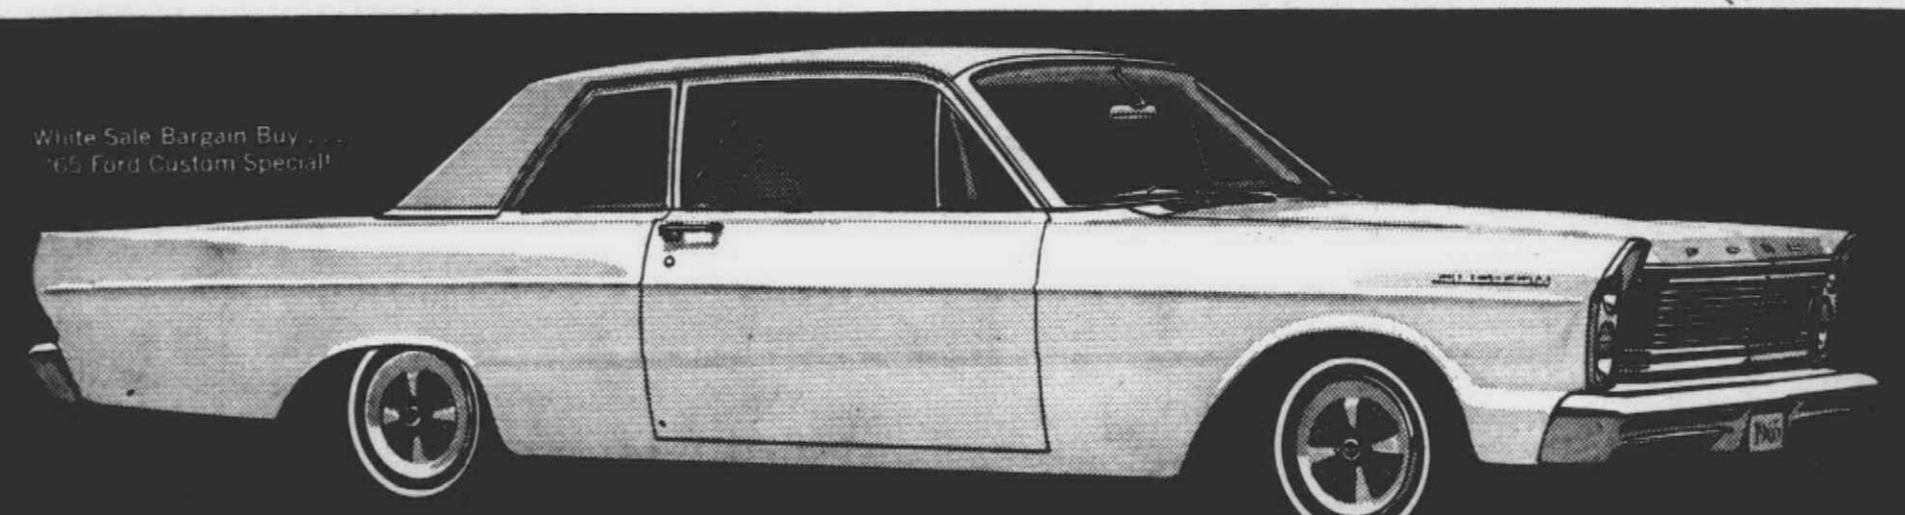

IT IS FUN to dance. It is also fun to watch others dance. In the near future the Drum and Sandal club, and the modern dance club will present its annual modern dance show.

There will be around 11 numbers full of color, imagination, and different ideas that will interest all who come and see the performances. The girls have worked hard to earn money for costumes.

The dancers are not the only ones who have been working hard to present a show. The members of the Silver Swans synchronized swim team have been swimming extra hours to music these days as they are preparing their annual show in May.

Music Comes To Forgotten Children

By Jerry Wendt

This is the golden age of cynicism. Ethics are mocked; scruples joked about; might makes right, etc. Yet, every now and then something occurs which restores our faith and makes us feel there is an existing force which guides and helps protect the innocent. Not long ago a chain of events began which resulted in blind and mentally handicapped children, for the first time being able to create and enjoy music.

Ron C. Martin, a former industrial designer for American Motors, not long ago opened up his own studio at 33300 Thomas Street, in the City of Farmington. The long hours spent in designing intricate motors, left him tense. One night, while thumbing through a magazine, unable to sleep, he saw a picture of a dulcimer, was intrigued by its classic shape. He built one, found that inasmuch as it only had one string, it could be played without any lessons. Shortly afterward, the Martins attended a family reunion in Denver. Ron brought along a second dulcimer. In record time, the whole family was playing and singing folk songs.

Upon his return, a woman with a 10-year-old blind son walked into his studio. She explained that her son was having difficulty mastering social skills because of his handicap. Ron Martin handed the boy the dulcimer, showed him the particular spot on the instrument where the music reverberates, and guided his hand to the string. In a few moments the boy had managed to strum out a tune. Needless to say, he walked out with the dulcimer. According to his mother's later report, it has changed his whole outlook on life.

The next sequence began when a couple with a 15-year-old mentally handicapped daughter visited him. A sweet girl, she was limited, because she had an attention span of only a minute. Ron Martin wasn't sure himself, just what the results would show. The girl, however responded immediately to the dulcimer and was overjoyed at finding something she could master.

After hearing of this incident and witnessing the results, the Special Education group has begun the use of the dulcimer in dealing with mentally handicapped children, in the South Redford School System.

The history of the dulcimer is fascinating. It is probably the oldest musical instrument. It is mentioned in the Bible, in the Songs of Solomon. It was then known as the Hammer Dulcimer. From there it became the instrument of the wandering minstrel, and went into medieval history as the lute. Its introduction into America was through the Pennsylvania Dutch. After the area in which they had settled had begun to produce the necessities, the Dutch people began to long for a few of the elements of gracious living they had left behind. They reproduced from memory their beloved German Hummel. This became our present day Dulcimer. Johnny Applesch carried these instruments in his pack through the Appalachian mountains. The dulcimer is strictly for the performers' enjoyment. Shaped not unlike a violin, it can be held on the lap. Different type melodies can be introduced merely by brushing a feather quill, or hammering with a light pencil.

Ron Martin finds his life has been considerably enriched through this instrument. He does not begrudge the time he gives willingly to demonstrate the use of his instrument among the ill and handicapped. He says, "You can not imagine what it is to see the face of a child who has lived in darkness, or the loneliness of having a mental handicap, light up when they at last realize that they are producing music through their own efforts."

"These children have been commercially neglected in the manufacture of toys. So many of them are geared for the average or bright child." (How many of us have tried in vain to assemble toys for so-called average children?)

But the possibilities of this instrument are limitless. We couldn't help but think of the VA hospitals where men are unable to leave their beds. This instrument requires no lessons and can be easily held, a great advantage.

Mr. Martin has used his own talent in designing an attractive booklet on our American Mountain Dulcimer, telling the history and giving instructions on how to play. Also an illustration of a simple mountain tune.

His studio abounds in story material, and you literally have to tear yourself away. Little "Johnnie" has come a long way since he used to sit in his classroom and watch the other children at activities he was excluded from. Now, thanks to the Special Education Group, and the kindness of his fellowmen, he is able to create objects of beauty and now able to create music. As we left we couldn't help but think of the old adage, "God moves in mysterious ways, his wonders to perform."

Wayne Co. Is Getting More Roads

LANSING—The State Highway Department announced that it will add lanes to 31 miles of I-75 in Monroe and Wayne Counties.

At the same time, the Highway Department will seek approval to add lanes on nearly 50 miles of I-75 between Flint and Bay City.

It will cost an estimated $10.2 million to add lanes to I-75 in Wayne and Monroe Counties, which was one of the first interstate highways built in Michigan.

Requests by the State Highway Department to add lanes on I-75 between Flint and Bay City have been turned down twice by the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads.

I-75 in Monroe County and between Flint and Bay City is presently overloaded during weekends in the summer months and traffic volumes during other times are greater than was originally anticipated.

'I'm Proud of Livonia'

(Editor's Note: Submitted by Livonia resident Bud Nusly, 27476 Whitcomb, Livonia, this article won a prize in Grit, the national farm and small-town newsweekly. He was awarded a $10 prize.)

I'm proud of my town for doing something about the needs of unemployed teen-agers.

The project was launched by the Livonia Commission on Children and Youth. It developed into a program with a full-time paid director and four part-time assistants in the Youth Employment Service.

Nearly 8,000 jobs—from one-time lawn mowings or baby-sitting jobs to full-time, permanent positions in industry—have been provided. The response from the teen-agers themselves was notable. Nearly 2,700 registered for full-time or part-time employment.

And all this in only 18 months!

Borman Dividend Up 28%

Borman Food Stores, Inc., consolidated net income for the twenty six weeks ended Dec. 26, 1964, was $1,741,000 after provision of $1,705,000 for federal income taxes and is equivalent to 72 cents per share on the 2,416,060 shares outstanding. This is a 28% increase over the $1,353,000 or 55 cents per share, earned during the comparable twenty six-week period in 1963 when there were 2,445,692 shares outstanding.

2-Million Vehicles Registered

LANSING — For the first time in its history, Michigan vehicle registration hit the 2-million mark with all categories of titles up over last year's previous high.
Secretary of State James M. Hare said that 2,012,673 titles in all categories were issued paralleling the "soaring automotive sales which also set new sales records in Michigan during 1964." The 1964 total was 126,000 higher than last year.

TREAT YOURSELF

Advertised Price won't tell the whole story. We don't claim that all of our cars can be bought with nothing down . . . nor do we claim seemingly high allowances and fantastic price cuts. But we do know our cars are fairly priced and in better condition than you can find elsewhere. Treat yourself to the facts and get the whole story — visit Cartown today.

YOU SAVE!

BECAUSE WE'RE LETTING YOU TELL US WHAT YOU'LL PAY!

THIS IS THE MGB THAT CAN BE YOURS

You need not race to enjoy the fruits of racing. The MGB is a pleasure to drive under any conditions. The 1798 cc engine develops 98 HP at 5400 rpm, cruises at 100 and has a top speed over 110 mph. Four-speed gear box, twin carbs, responsive rack and pinion steering, racing type disc brakes up front, 10-inch drums in the rear. Cockpit and bucket seats upholstered in English leather, roll-up windows, removable hard top and/or easy stowing convertible top, lockable trunk and room for a couple of kids in the back. Like to drive the new MGB? Stop in. There's one at our showroom now.
