

Plymouth Voters Approve School Millage by 3-2

The Plymouth Community School system will have an additional 3.25 mills for operating funds during the next three years.

That was the decision of voters Monday when they approved the tax increase by a margin of 1,268 to 823 in the unofficial tabulation.

The 3-2 edge was the result of a concerted effort on the part of School Board members, the administration, teachers and leaders of the various Parent-

Teacher Organizations. All have been working for passage of the levy since the Board first made its plans known some six weeks ago.

"We are happy that voters of the Plymouth School district approved the request for the 3.25 additional mills for operating," said Board President Gerald Fischer and Supt. Russell Isbister at a special Board meeting called to tabulate the returns.

"We tried to get across the message of the need for the additional funds to the voters and we are happy to see that they have agreed with us—their actions can be taken as a vote of confidence in the Board for which we all are appreciative."

The two precincts in the City of Plymouth, at the senior high school and Starkweather School, gave the proposal a commanding majority. It passed by a margin of 14 votes at Gallimore School and by 37 at the Plymouth Township Hall.

The complete unofficial tabulation:

	Yes	No
Precinct 1	424	263
Precinct 2	237	223
Precinct 3	165	128
Precinct 4	442	209
Totals	1268	823

Roy Lindsay

School Bd., City Mourn Roy Lindsay

On behalf of the city officials and our personnel, I wish to extend to Mrs. Lindsay our sympathy and condolences. Roy Lindsay has been a leader in this community for many years.

His unselfish service as supervisor of Plymouth Township for the past 12 years, his chairmanship of the State organization of township officials and his prominent role on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors are illustrations of his devotion to duty.

His guidance of the township government during the past years of rapid growth will be sorely missed. This entire community has suffered a loss by Roy's death.

RICHARD H. WERNETTE
 Mayor

Members of the Board of Education and the Staff of the Plymouth Community School District join the Community in mourning the loss of Roy Lindsay.

Sincere and willing in service and uncompromising in truth, Roy became a symbol of integrity in public office. His knowledge and dedication to good government carried him into leadership on the local, county and state levels. He believed "that schools and the means of education should forever be encouraged" and used his personal influence as well as that of his office in the support of schools.

Motivated by high moral and spiritual values and an intense love of the community, Roy fought consistently and determinedly all forces which he thought would bring moral decay.

In the hearts and minds of the people whom he served so faithfully the memory of Roy Lindsay is now enshrined.

Respectfully,
GERALD J. FISCHER,
 President

Isbister Heads Cancer Crusade In Plymouth

School Supt. Russell Isbister, crusade chairman for the Western Wayne County unit of the Michigan Cancer Foundation, will be an honored guest at the kickoff luncheon in the Veterans Memorial Building in Detroit on Wednesday, April 7.

As crusade chairman, Isbister will have an active part in the month long education program. Highlighting this year's crusade will be a neighbor-to-neighbor distribution of informational literature, scheduling of programs before parent organizations, a promotion to encourage people to quit smoking and Mayors' cancer check up night on April 21 at the Cancer Center.

Death Takes Supervisor Lindsay at 73

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon for Plymouth Township's Chief in the Schrader Funeral Home in charge of Ted R. Hermans with burial in Rural Hill Cemetery in Northville—ending a political career that started 11 years ago and carried the Township through some of its most turbulent years.

Roy Lindsay, 73, of 11000 McClumpha Road, who had guided the Township as supervisor for five two-year terms and into a sixth that was scheduled to start on April 10, died peacefully in his sleep Saturday morning.

The body was discovered by his wife shortly after 8 a.m. She placed a call for the Fire Department and an ambulance but the family physician, who arrived within minutes, said Roy had passed away some three or four hours earlier.

Lindsay was appointed to the Supervisor's post by the late Charles Rathburn to fill the remaining year of his term and then was elected six straight times. At 73, he was considered the dean of supervisors in Michigan and two years ago served as president of the Michigan Township Supervisors' Association.

Lindsay had been ailing for more than a year although he would never admit that he was not up to par. He had been at the Township Hall only a day or so before his demise and was making plans to attend the annual budget meeting this week.

Hundreds visited the Schrader Funeral Home over the weekend to pay final respects to the man who was a friend and counselor to every resident of the Township. Flags at the city and township buildings and all schools in the Plymouth Community School District were at half-mast in a silent tribute.

Plymouth GOP Endorses Four

Incumbents James Houk and Robert Smith along with George Hudson and James McKeon have the endorsement of the Plymouth Republican Party in the City Commission election next Monday, April 5.

Support was voted in a special meeting a week ago on the basis of a study of the City Commission minutes for the last two years, record of service to the community and positions taken by the candidates in the Town Hall meeting on such issues as future growth of the city and township, relationship between the two government units, water problem, downtown shopping areas, human relations, senior citizen housing and youth activities.

The Republicans used the following criteria for evaluating the candidates:

1. Education, formal and special type training.
2. Experience.
3. Service to the community through organizations, projects, etc.
4. Desire and interest in serving as an elected official.

The GOP issued a brief summary of the major qualifications of the four receiving its support. In alphabetical order:

JAMES HOUK—Currently serving as Mayor Pro-Tem, he has served the city for some time and favors an orderly growth of the city. Also interested in the improvement of city and township relationship.

ROBERT SMITH—Principal of Junior High West, and is currently serving on the commission. Has a special interest in the problems of youth, a sincere desire to help Plymouth continue to be a fine community.

GEORGE HUDSON—Has shown much interest in commission work as he has attended meetings regularly for the last three years. Member of the City Planning Board. Has a frank sincere approach to problems and a real desire to serve.

JAMES MCKEON—A civil engineer with a broad background ship," he said on more than one occasion. "Any actions that I take are what I consider best for my constituents and for the betterment of the Township."

This was his philosophy up to the time of his death and one of the big reasons why he was so bitter against approval of additional apartment projects in the Township.

Beyer Doesn't Want Re-Election

The Municipal Judgeship lies between City Attorney Edward Dragulis, who recently won a circuit court declaratory suit declaring him eligible to be a candidate, and J. Rusling Cutler. Dragulis led a three-man race in the primaries by a margin of more than 3-1 and is the favorite to win the post. He will fill the shoes of Judge Harry Deyo on January 1 when Deyo retires because of the state's 70-year age limit.

There are seven candidates bidding for the four vacancies on the City Commission, including three incumbents although Commissioner Robert Beyer practically reduced that figure to two when he indicated Tuesday that he did not want reelection.

The field of seven includes: Commissioners Beyer, James Houk and Robert Smith along with George Hudson, James McKeon, Arthur Shepard and Eldon Martin.

The startling action of Beyer, who told a gathering at the Kiwanis Club meeting Tuesday, that he had lost his enthusiasm for the position and did not want to be re-elected, shocked veteran political observers in the city.

Twp. Trustees Wonder What To Do Next

The Plymouth Township Board of Trustees is awaiting an opinion from the Prosecuting Attorney on steps that must be taken to fill the vacancy created by the death of Supervisor Roy Lindsay.

The Trustees were expected to name Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes as acting supervisor until such time as the opinion is received. She is the senior member of the board.

It is believed that a special election will be ordered perhaps within a period of 60 days.

The Township Board will meet later in the week in a special session to take whatever action is ordered.

Meanwhile, the Township Planning Commission cancelled a special meeting scheduled for Tuesday night as a tribute to Lindsay.

City Electors to Choose Judge, 4 Commissioners

Plymouth voters go to the polls next Monday to select four members of the City Commission and a Municipal Judge with the outlook that less than 20 per cent of these registered will turnout.

"I am not being pressured by business or for family reasons," Beyer said, "Neither do I have any differences with the Commission but I feel in my own heart that I have lost the desire and enthusiasm I had when first elected four years ago.

"Therefore, I feel that I shouldn't be re-elected and hope the voters in the City of Plymouth concur in my feelings. I know this sounds strange at this time practically on the eve of the election but I have felt this way almost from the moment I signed the petition.

Joins With Opera Players Symphony Ends Season Sunday

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra will ring down the curtain on its 19th season Saturday night when it joins with the Turnau Opera Players of New York in the presentation of "La Boheme" by Puccini.

The concert, sixth and last of the season for the Symphony, is slated for 8:15 p.m. in the Plymouth High School auditorium. It is open free to the public but officers warn that there will not be baby sitting services for this event.

"La Boheme" is the story of struggling young artists of the Latin Quarter in Paris during the 1830s. Much of the text is based on the experience of Puccini as a music student.

Consisting of six young singers, a stage manager and a music director, the Turnau Players have staged more than 350 performances of 40 operas and have given premieres of five contemporary works.

In addition to a busy itinerary which takes them to all sections of the country, the company has resident seasons in Sarasota, Fla. and Woodstock, N.Y. This is their sixth national tour.

The Players last appeared with the Plymouth Symphony in April, 1964 in a performance of the "Barber of Seville."

All of the performances are in English and are full-scale presentations with sets, costumes and appropriate scenery.

Lindsay was born Feb. 24, 1892, in Ontario, Canada, a son of Lyman and Emma Eaton Ly-

Observer Endorses 4 in Field

The Observer recommends four candidates for the attention of voters of the City of Plymouth in Monday's City Commission election. The recommendations are based on observations and study of the candidates over a period of time.

Ordinarily, the Observer would recommend both James Houk and Robert Beyer for reelection but the latter has indicated that he doesn't care to be re-elected. Thus the Observer recommends only one of the present incumbents—Houk.

For the other vacancies, the Observer recommends George Hudson, who on more than one occasion has demonstrated that he is an individual who will do his own thinking, not be pressured and is interested in city government and city affairs.

Recommended for your consideration for the remaining two posts are James McKeon, an executive at the DSI and leader among the community's young business and industrial leaders, and Eldon Martin, a resident of Plymouth since 1928, graduate of Plymouth High and currently a section supervisor for Ford Motor Co.

These fellowships have been named in the memory of Mrs. Mildred Levering and Mrs. Anne Nicol, both of whom had been Fellowship Chairmen for the Plymouth Branch.

Five hundred dollars or more must be presented in order that the fellowship be "named."

Forum to Hear Talk on Civil Rights Work

"What is the state government doing in achieving civil rights and what is its role in this field?"

The answers to these questions will be heard by those attending the monthly meeting of the businessmen's forum of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce Thursday noon at the Hillside Inn.

Mrs. Rita Scott, director of Education for the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, will discuss "The role of state government in achieving civil rights."

Because of the critical situation of the civil rights issue at the moment in several sections of the nation, the businessmen's forum committee, headed by Dr. Ray Barber, felt it was a logical time for such a program. Mrs. Scott is expected to tell what the State Commission on Civil Rights is doing towards the development and promotion of programs in the areas of employment, public accommodations and public schools.

Chairman Dr. Barber made arrangements for Mrs. Scott's appearance after hearing Lt. Gov. William Milliken at the Forum's March meeting.

At that time, Milliken said, "We must find in this state new jobs at the rate of 90,000 to 100,000 per year and that growth requires a new level of cooperation between labor, business, management and government — continued support of secondary and higher education, and an absolute end to all forms of discrimination."

Mrs. Scott will attempt to tell what the state is doing for answer to all of the problems mentioned by Milliken.

leased figures as of last Friday which showed a total of $2,963.56 contributed by Livonians and $845.12 contributed by Redford Township residents.

The Livonia figures included $2,191.56 in the mail and $772 in response to special letters. In Redford Township, $450.12 was sent in to mail requests for contributions and $395 came back in special letters.

Plymouth residents have contributed a total of $1,650 thus far, including $546.50 in mailed-in contributions, $1,083.50 in response to special letters and $20 in canister donations.

725 Register At College For Classes

More than 725 applications, for freshmen entering Schoolcraft College next fall, have been received by college officials. With the return of the present student body, the total day enrollment will probably reach 1,500.

Residents of the college district, which includes Livonia, Garden City, Clarenceville, Plymouth and Northville, who plan to make applications are advised it must be done immediately.

College officials warn that residents are given priority only until May 1, a date set by agreement of the College administration and high school principals from the district.

A large evening enrollment is anticipated. Residents employed during the day who wish to attend night college should contact the Office of Student Affairs and arrange for an evening appointment.

The counseling office is open Monday through Thursday evenings from 6 to 8 p.m. Those desiring additional information are urged to call 591-6400 and ask for the office of Student Affairs.

"GOP Fails to Campaign on Issues"

In his final public statement before the election next Monday, Democratic candidate for the State Senate, Edward H. McNamara, charged his opponent with being "unconcerned with the needs of the people of the 14th District."

"For the first twelve weeks of this campaign my opponent has been almost mute in public statements in the press on the issues of importance to the voters of this 14th Senatorial District," McNamara charged.

"But suddenly my opponent has finally taken a positive stand on an issue: He has called for the elimination of the toll on the Mackinac Bridge."

"This is an admirable issue, but of little importance in this campaign. Wiping out those tolls doesn't begin to answer the needs of the people of this District," McNamara stated.

"Even if it were financially feasible, and it isn't, it does nothing toward payment of teachers' salaries. Nor will it build more classrooms. Nor will it improve our rutted out roads, or expand our traffic safety program."

"Nor will it give tax relief to our older people and property owners. Nor will it expand our in-patient and out-patient mental health facilities. Nor will it help induce business investment and expansion in our community," McNamara asserted.

"Obviously, my opponent is not in the same tradition as the Republican gentleman, who won this seat in last November's election. Paul Chandler was not afraid to speak out on the issues. He always conducted a highly issue-oriented campaign."

"However, the present Republican candidate seems reluctant to state for publication what his convictions are," McNamara charged.

"My opponent boasts authorship of the Community Health Bill. But what he fails to mention is that up to now it has accomplished little. That Bill has been criticized by both Dr. John J. Hanlon, Detroit and Wayne County Health Commissioner, and Representative Charles F. Rapp."

"In fact, the Bill is a complete retreat from the concept of State responsibility for the care and treatment of the mentally and emotionally ill. It shifts the burden of financing on to local county government, which is already suffering from insufficient revenues."

"I support amendments which will increase the State's contribution and remove the ceilings on State financial participation in mental health programs, which will eliminate a most unfair means test, which will expand county boards of health, and which will place mental health workers under civil service."

Judge Regrets Freeing Nazi

You Can't Libel A Race of People

We are a nation of laws and not of men. That maxim was reaffirmed in the case of the state vs. Russ Roberts. The fat and aging Farmington Nazi was found not guilty of "group libel," because under our laws, as interpreted by Farmington Municipal Judge Sylvester J. Pheny, it is impossible to libel an entire race—in this instance the Negroes.

According to the law governing libel: "Any person who shall falsely and maliciously . . . accuse, attribute, or impute to another the commission of any crime, felony or misdemeanor, or any infamous or degrading act . . . shall be guilty of a misdemeanor."

It was the word "another" that was the subject of contention at the trial on Friday, March 24. Roberts' lawyer, Farmington Justice of the Peace Allen Ingle, supported by Maurice Kelman and Charles Quick, of the American Civil Liberties Union conceded that "another" can mean more than one person. It can mean a number of people, but these people must be specific and identifiable, and there must be the possibility of pecuniary damages. Ingle said for example that if you libeled the entire American Legion, it would not be libel, but if you libeled the Farmington chapter of the Legion you might make it stick.

Judge Pheny accepted this argument. But he did so with regret. When Roberts meekly thanked him, the Judge reacted angrily. He said he thought the law was inadequate, and that it should be broad enough to cover Nazi-style hate mongering.

Judge Ingle had accepted the case at practically the last minute, when it appeared that Roberts might not be able to obtain counsel.

Along with Ingle and the American Civil Liberties Union, Roberts had the moral support of three young American Nazis, sent from national headquarters in Arlington, Va.

Thirty-two-year-old Storm Trooper Allen Vincent resembles a not-very-bright side-street pool hustler. Nineteen-year-old Storm Trooper Bobby Pace was grim and sullen looking.

But Capt. John Patler, the spokesman for the delegation, is another cup of worms. He is dark, intense, and highly articulate. He grew up in Harlem, where he says he participated in street fights against Negroes. He did not finish high school, but spent three years with the Marines at Camp Lejeune.

Now, at 27, he is editor of the group's official magazine "Storm Trooper." He is polite, and soft spoken, and addresses reporters as "Sir."

By the standards of his movement, he is probably a moderate. He says the American Nazis do not hate all Jews or Negroes. He feels the ACLU was acting in sincerity, when it sent two of its lawyers to argue against the libel charge. And he sees nothing ironic about the fact that the two ACLU men were a Jew and a Negro.

"Financial Reform Is Top Issue"

Farrell Roberts, Republican candidate for the 14th District Senate seat is completing a "gruelling" campaign schedule covering all of the Livonia, Plymouth, Northville and Oakland County area. He has met with government officials, school personnel, civic associations, service clubs, business leaders, hospital staff and citizens. "We feel confident, said Roberts, that we have presented the issues squarely before the public and feel that standing firm on these issues will bring us a victory next Monday."

Roberts, having served as a suburban senator for four years and another four years in the House, believes that "the most important issue before the people is fiscal reform." In addition to serving as one of Governor George Romney's legislative advisors, Roberts has supported a "balanced and reasonable budget under both the Swainson and Romney administrations," he said.

"I support a basic flat rate tax and not the graduated income tax which is endorsed by my opponent. The people of the 14th District are heavily taxed now and a graduated income tax would place an additional unfair burden on them," stated Roberts. My opponent by supporting the graduated tax is saying in effect, let's 'soak the suburbs.'" Both Roberts and the Governor are opposed to the graduated income tax.

William Milliken, Lt. Governor, stated that "Farrell Roberts is one of the most important tacticians and statisticians in the state. His knowledge of law and the ability to get other legislators to work together for Michigan is vital to our state."

THE MERRY MEN of Arlington, Va., to make sure that justice was done in the libel case of Farmington Hitlerite Russ Roberts. Seated in back of them are (left to right) Russ Roberts, Mrs. Roberts, and a friend, John M. Keating who says he is from Detroit.

9-Year-Old Asks Aid, Seeks Dog

Nine-year-old Richard Massengill, a student at Allen School in Plymouth, needs a helping hand from any residents in the school area who saw a large black and white dog bite him on the wrist last Thursday.

Richard needs help as soon as possible. He already has started taking the dreaded rabies shots on the advice of his family physician. However, should the dog be found and discovered free of disease, then the chances are that the shots would be stopped.

Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Massengill, 42580 Joy Road. The parents and the youngster would appreciate any information. If you saw the biting incident or have an idea who owns the large black and white dog or its whereabouts, telephone 453-1014. The Massengills are interested in getting the information as soon as possible.

Flexible Home Rule Law Needed Senators Learn in Nankin Twp.

A great need for county home rule was expressed Monday morning by 10 persons, ranging from township officials to a representative of six metropolitan counties who appeared at the Nankin Township Hall where a hearing was being held on a bill now under consideration by the Michigan Senate.

Edward Connor, chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, said he was "impressed with the unanimity" that was shown by the group.

Fifty persons were on hand for the 2½-hour session, with Senator Terry L. Trout of the 13th District presiding as chairman of the Committee on Municipalities.

Opinions on the bill were expressed by Mrs. Edward L. Cushman, chairman of the County Home Rule Committee of the League of Women Voters in Wayne County; Gerard Coleman, executive director of the Supervisors' Inter-County Committee; Willis Hall, executive vice-president of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce; and Al Barbour, representing the AFL-CIO.

Other speakers were John King, non-partisan 15-member chairman of the Oakland County Home Rule Study Council; Mel Ravitz, Detroit City councilman; Mrs. James Atkinson, Oakland County League of Women Voters; Richard Sanderson, representing the Oakland County Republican Party; Louis A. Toth, Van Buren Township Supervisor, and Thomas H. Brown, Nankin Township Treasurer. Flexibility of a home rule law was stressed by many of the speakers.

Ravitz, Barbour and Connor referred to the present operation of counties as being "archaic, unwieldy, and cumbersome."

In referring to Wayne County, Ravitz said, "There is such an elaborate maze of organization, I doubt if any one man in the county understands it."

Various speakers delved into the questions of partisan election of both charter commissions and the county legislative body and also whether the "supervisors" should be chosen by district or at large. Selection by party and district seemed to be favored by most of those present.

Hall and other speakers expressed the need for quick action.

"If the Supreme Court upholds the Kent County decision of one man, one vote, we will have real chaos in county government," Hall declared.

It was agreed that one of the provisions of the bill under consideration, SB 112, was in need of clarification. This is the provision dealing with the possible consolidation of elected offices. Connor said a revision would be made and submitted at the next public hearing, April 12 in Lansing.

The present language of the bill provides for "the partisan election of a sheriff, a prosecuting attorney, a county clerk, a treasurer, a register of deeds and a drain commissioner, and for the combining of any 2 or more of the foregoing offices into one office as the same may be authorized by law."

Twp. Trustees Honor Memory of Lindsay

As we stand in silent tribute to the memory of Roy R. Lindsay, or just "Roy" as he preferred to be called by his friends and conferees, we glimpse the passing of an era that is dear to those amongst us who have our family roots planted deep in local lore.

For Roy was born 73 years ago on February 24, 1892, was raised in the village of Northville, and lived in this locale, including Ann Arbor and Detroit, until he moved to Plymouth Township in 1938, 27 years ago.

Roy Lindsay was elected to the Plymouth Township Board of Review and took office on March 4, 1953. He was appointed Township Supervisor on June 8, 1953, and was overwhelmingly elected to that position for six consecutive elections.

Roy is credited in large measure with the orderly and rapid progress made in Plymouth Township over the past eleven years, because of his untiring selfless devotion to civic duty and dedication to the civic betterment of his fellow man and of his community.

He received the French Croix de Guerre for his services during World War I and was an active member of the Benton Parkway Barracks, Post 267, World War I veterans. He was one of the original realtors who organized the Western Wayne County Board of Realtors and was the first President of that organization.

As a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, he served on the Ways and Means, Sewer and Water, Wayne County General Hospital, Wayne County Training School, Legislative and Civil Service Committees. He was also very active in the Michigan Townships Association and was a Past President of that organization.

Locally he was a member of the Christian Science Church, an active member of the United Northwestern Realty Association, Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and the State Association of Supervisors.

Roy Lindsay's extensive background in governmental service has enhanced our community by helping to create a pleasant, safe and convenient living environment for its residents.

To perpetuate the memory of Roy R. Lindsay and his many years of faithful service as Township Supervisor which benefited the citizenry of Plymouth Township:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, this 30th day of March, 1965, by the Board of Trustees of Plymouth Township that this resolution be spread at length upon the minutes of this day's proceedings and, as further expression of our sympathy, that a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution be transmitted to his devoted wife.

John D. McEwen, Clerk; Elizabeth Holmes, Treasurer; Louis J. Norman, Trustee; C. Veach Sparks, Trustee; Ralph Garber, Trustee, and Dick Lauterbach, Trustee.

Stationed in Germany Army PFC James R. Rodman, 18, whose wife, Connie, lives at 1542 Nantucket, Plymouth, was assigned to the 75th Artillery in Germany, March 16. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Rodman, 312 Blunk St., he attended Plymouth High School.

250 Attend OES Program For Hadley

More than 250 friends and members attended a dinner honoring Fred Hadley, Wayne County vice president, in the Masonic Temple with a reception following that attracted more than 250.

Members of Hadley's family, past appointive Grand Officers, Wayne and Oakland County Association officers, present Matrons and Patrons, Matrons and Patrons of Hadley's year and past Matrons and Patrons of the Plymouth chapter were introduced by Worthy Matron Margaret Bunyeta and Worthy Patron Claude Hammers.

Following the reception, the degree team of Pontiac Chapter 228 gave an interesting exemplification of the degrees as they were given in 1867.

The Order of the Eastern Star will meet Tuesday, April 6 in the Masonic Temple. Members are urged to attend.

The OES has set April 27 as the date for the annual spring luncheon and card party. Tickets are available and reservations may be made with Chairman Alta Mai Jones at 453-3656.

Community Band Has Sunday Date

The Plymouth Community band will present its spring concert Sunday (April 4) at 4 p.m. in the senior high school auditorium.

Director James Griffith, who also serves as director of the Plymouth High School band, has selected an outstanding program which ranges from Bach and Haydn to the modern "American Overture" by Joseph Jenkins.

James O'Day and Richard Sorenson will be the featured soloists for the afternoon. O'Day will play the Von Weber "Concertine" for clarinet and Sorenson will be accompanied by the band in Haydn's "Concerto for Trumpet."

Highlight of the band's performance will be the Tschickowsky Symphony No. 4 "Finale."

The band has openings for adult instrumental musicians, particularly in the woodwind section. Residents interested in joining are urged to attend the Wednesday night rehearsals (8 to 10 p.m.) at the senior high school.

For additional information, call Director Griffith at 453-1416 or at Plymouth senior high school.

MAKING PLANS for the pancake-breakfast Sunday morning, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the K of C Hall on Fair Street, are five members of Girl Scout Troop 260. The troop is under the leadership of Mary Lou Grimshaw, a teacher at Our Lady of Good Counsel School, and sponsored by the Plymouth Rotary-Anns. Proceeds will be used to finance a trip to Washington, D.C. The quintet includes: (from left) Marcia Young, Dianne Chermide, Rita Kiefer, Cheryl Szyniszewski and Susan Davies.

Plymouth Hi News

By CAROL OTWELL

Congratulations are in order to the members of the cast of "An Enemy of the People," the second all-school play presented last week in the high school auditorium.

The cast plus all the production committees did a fine job.

Senior Ellen Heid has been chosen by the Student Council to act as this year's Election Board chairman. The election process will begin on April 8, with home room meetings to elect representatives to the Election Board.

These students, who are ineligible for office, will take suggestions for all-school and class offices.

On April 12, a joint nominating board meeting will be held to draw up the slate for the all-school offices. On April 13, the sophomore class board will draw up their slate and on April 14, the junior class board will have their meeting.

Class caucuses will be held on April 26, at which the students will be given a copy of their proposed slate. Nominations can then be added from the floor and a primary election will be held to reduce the slate to two candidates for each office.

Voters will register on April 15 and the deadline for petitions is April 30. Campaign week will run from May 3-7 with the final election taking place on May 11. The annual Inaugural Assembly is scheduled for May 18.

PLYMOUTH HIGH was the host school for the Annual Suburban Six Student Council Conference which took place Tuesday. All student council representatives and exchange students were invited to attend.

The main program was the Leadership Training clinic with Dr. Lawrence, the director of the Leadership Training Clinic at Hillsdale College, as the guest speaker.

Mayor John Hannula presided over the joint council which had as one of its duties the election of one of the members to represent the league at the national meeting which will be held at Lexington, Kentucky.

The conference ended with a splash party in the high school pool.

MEMBERS OF both the vocal and instrumental department at PHS recently won high honors in their respective music festivals.

The choir, directed by Fred Nelson, received a first division rating at the District Choir and Glee Club Festival held at Plymouth High.

In Marshall, at the Annual State Solo and Ensemble Festival, first division ratings were awarded to Cornelia Delaney, flute solo; Don Burleson, euphonium solo; David McGuire, oboe solo; Ed Jones, tenor saxophone solo; and Norm Fisher, cello solo.

Ensemble members receiving first division ratings were Valerie McMullen, John Demott and Mark Williams in a French horn trio; Becky Lyons, Cornelia Delaney, Marsha McCall, and Laura Raalub in a flute quartet; and Mike Ross, Dianna Fry, Margaret Rudloff, Georgann Kippola, Cindy Erdelyi, Jerry Goodman, Nancy Miller and Jeff Lightfoot in a clarinet choir.

Second division ratings of excellent were given to Dianna Fry and Mike Ross for a clarinet duet; Robin Wideman, Robert VanMeter, Pat Ross, Norm Fisher, in a string quartet; and Jane Palmer, Joann Thom, Pat Ross, and Helen Gottschalk in a string quartet.

Livonia Youth, Inc.

Madam President

Mrs. Patrick (Joan) Duggan

A wife, mother, nurse, and teacher, Joan Duggan has the talent, time and ambition to be President of the Jaycettes, Livonia's active and successful service organization.

Joan is a vivacious, intelligent, charming young woman with an infectious smile and laughter. A light-haired brunette, with blue eyes, she is a petite size nine. Her face is a happy reflection of the serenity and purpose of her life.

"My first career is home and children," says Joan, but many evenings, after the children are in bed, are spent in rewarding and satisfying volunteer work.

As President of the Jaycettes this volunteer work is based on guiding the many activities of the club. The Poison Prevention Clinic, the Baby Sitting Clinic, and helping with the children at the Plymouth State Home are major interests of the Jaycettes.

But Joan doesn't forget the thousands of eggs her members dye for the annual Easter egg roll or helping the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Jaycees, install seat belts. "Our primary reason for existence is assistance to the Jaycees and we help the men in all projects," Joan emphasized.

How did Joan get started in these activities? Her husband was the major reason. Married to Patrick Duggan, an attorney, she found the only way to see her busy husband was to join him. Last year as president of the Livonia Jaycees he was always gone. Once Joan had joined the Jaycettes she found the members so compatible and the auxiliary so impressive, she enthusiastically became interested for these reasons.

She has found time to enjoy her four children, Michael, 6½, Danny, 5, James, 3½, and newcomer Robert Allen who was one month old on March 23.

Joan was born in Cleveland, Ohio, attended Lourdes Academy, and took her nurses' training at Good Samaritan Hospital in Cincinnati. It was in Cincinnati that she met her husband who was attending Xavier. Since he was from Detroit, they returned to Michigan and lived on the east and northwest sides. Livonia became their home about two years ago even though Pat had been commuting for several years. "Livonia is home now," says Joan. "The people are so friendly and I am happy here."

Her hobbies include gardening, decorating, knitting and reading. To knit a dress had always been an ambition so Joan started on what she told her husband would be a six months' project. Six weeks later her dress was finished, the only sound in the house had been the constant click, clicking of the needles. Won't they ever stop?" asked Pat.

Reading she reserves for when she is in the hospital with another baby and the arrival of Robert Allen also allowed her to catch up on much delayed reading.

This many faceted woman taught Red Cross mother and child courses and is presently Treasurer of the Altar Society of St. Aidan church.

She says that volunteer work and an interest in the community are a responsibility of each mother who wants to instill an awareness of the world in her children. To accomplish this she doesn't "let George do" the necessary tasks but keeps working to improve her community.

People moving into Livonia and joining the Jaycettes will have an opportunity to meet people their own age, to meet a friendly group, and to find something of interest in the diverse activities offered by her club says Joan. The membership requirements are two: a husband who belongs to the Livonia Junior Chamber of Commerce and an age between 21 and 35.

It will be interesting to see where Joan's interests and talents will be focused in the community once she is a "popped pullet" that is, once she is over 35 and no longer a major force in the Jaycettes.

Symphony Society Gets Gift from Mall Merchants

The Livonia Mall Merchants Association presented the Livonia Youth Symphony Society Inc. with a gift of a check for $100, at a special concert at the Livonia Mall Shopping Center Thursday night. The presentation was made by Avrom Schulzinger representing the Livonia Mall Merchants Association to Les Core, First Vice-President of the Society.

Both orchestras maintained by the Society participated in the special performance, free to the public, arranged by the Livonia Mall Merchants Association as a community service to promote cultural activities in Livonia. The program consisted of four lively and well accepted numbers.

Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra with Lester Farkas, conducted two and the Junior Orchestra of Livonia under the baton of Robert Randall, conducted two.

The donation to the Livonia Youth Symphony Society, Inc. was the first of its kind by the Association said a spokesman for the Merchants' Association and was not contributed from any fund set aside for such purposes. Rather, it was a special voluntary contribution from each Merchants' Association member.

The general reaction of the merchants was enthusiastic.

One comment was "It was a wonderful symphony concert. Everyone is satisfied. I had no idea we had such groups of young musicians in Livonia. I believe many others heard them for the first time."

Mrs. Redinger, President of the Symphony Society, expressed the appreciation of the Society for the opportunity to perform at the Mall as well as for the gift. "We want to thank each merchant who gave up time, space and money to bring something of benefit to the community," she said.

The Livonia Youth Symphony Society Inc., organized in 1957, sponsors both the Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra, an orchestra for talented young musicians of high school and college age, and the Junior Orchestra of Livonia, for those of junior high level who show musical promise. Interested applicants may call Mrs. Redinger, GA 1-8236.

"Project Hope" Gets Boost From Livonia Women

One woman's compassion and desire to help has snow-balled into a large project card party to be held at Bentley High School on Wednesday, April 28.

Mrs. Walter J. Andrews, Bentley Avenue, Livonia heard a radio broadcast two years ago asking for assistance for the traveling hospital ship "Project Hope". She answered the call by planning a card party in her home. Even before the plans were completed other members of her subdivision in Lyndon-Meadows answered her call.

As a final outcome the "Project Hope" card party two years ago outgrew the home and was held at Merriboyl Lanes meeting room. It was also too small for the response.

This year Mrs. Andrews, assisted by her neighbors and friends, and encouraged by the "Project Hope" office, plans to hold the benefit card party at Bentley High School.

Mrs. Andrews, along with many other men and women have been inspired by the wonderful film on "Project Hope" which shows how the crop of nurses and doctors give their time, board this ship and are gone from their homes and families traveling around to countries less fortunate than the United States. They treat the poor of the back countries, through South America and many ports of call that are off the beaten track, fighting, not with guns, or words, or pamphlets, but instead with tools of their trade—medicine and skill to fight disease and misery. In a world of "what's in it for me", Mrs. Andrews stands out like a shining star as well as those who assist her.

Tickets may be purchased at the door at the night of the card party or be had by calling Mrs. Andrews or Mrs. Robert C. Smith 427-0614.

There will be door prizes and refreshments at $1.50 per person. Men as well as women are invited to attend.

Last year's performance "A Time To Live and A Time To Die" was excellent and this is just an example of what you can expect to see. "The Circus" is in the form of a narrated drama under the direction of Miss Judith A. Rohm, speech director of North Farmington.

The cast includes four ringmasters, 12 clowns, 14 animals, 16 character performances, and eight solo pantomimes. Included in the program are interpretative readings by the ringmasters, choreography by the clowns, creative dramatics by the animals, conflict acting by the characters, and record pantomimes by the solos. 85 students will be used in the performances.

Costumes are lively and creative. The sets are basically symbolic and suggestive. "The Circus" will present real entertainment to all who attend.

This will give students a chance to investigate specialized schools and career opportunities that they may care to look into the future.

The event is co-sponsored by Farmington High School, North Farmington High School, and Walled Lake High School. Students are invited to attend. So far 25 schools and industries have accepted invitations to attend.

"My Fair Lady" is the theme for the Junior Class' annual J-Hop to be held April 3, in North Farmington's gymnasium from 9 till 12 p.m. The dress is semi-formal and the dance is opened to everyone. They participated in the 8th Detroit Archdiocesan Choral Festival, for the first time, at Rosary High School, on March 28. Their musical selections were "The Christ Theme" and "Holiday for Strings." The Choraltones were directed by Sister Stephen Marie and Adrienne Niles was the accompanist.

Rehearsals for the junior play, "Harvey," have been going well and another FHS success is predicted. The play is being directed by Mr. Banta and Doreen Bordeau (student director). Mrs. Bilinsky is in charge of all the committees.

"Harvey," by Mary Chase, is the comical story of a man named Elwood who claims to see and talk to a 6½-foot rabbit. Several people, thinking Elwood has completely lost his marbles, attempt to have Elwood put into an institution, and that's where the fun begins.

Edison Plans 5-Year Study of Growth Patterns in Area

The Detroit Edison Company is undertaking a five-year program of planning research to identify future growth patterns and potentials in Detroit and throughout Southwestern Michigan.

educational needs of Southwestern Michigan, Wayne State will be providing a public service in this study of the growth and potential of the region by offering a research laboratory for the use of industry, commerce, government officials and private investment.

The results of the study will provide a breakdown in ages and characteristics of the population in the year 2000. The study will give all segments of the community an imaginative sweep and scope upon which to determine what the growth will mean to this area by the year 2000.

The company serves more than 4 1/2 million people in Southeastern Michigan, and recognizes that the problems of its services area are interrelated with those of the growth of the city, the expansion of utility networks and residential neighborhoods and industrial plants.

In view of the magnitude of the problems and the great need for guided growth, Edison, in cooperation with Wayne State University, has retained the services of Doxiadis Associates, Inc., of Washington D.C., and the Athens Technological Institute.

Dr. Constantinos Doxiadis has achieved worldwide recognition as an engineer-architect-thinker-planner. His organization has directed major projects for the United Nations and individual countries in urban renewal, midtown redevelopment, community housing and comprehensive regional planning, including the design of new suburbs and cities.

The project, because of its nature, scope and objectives, is divided into three separate parts.

The first phase has been concerned with the collection of existing data and analysis of existing data. This phase began last November and is expected to be concluded by the end of this month.

The second phase will extend over the next nine months and from it will evolve methodical and procedural studies.

The third and final phase will involve the development concepts and utility growth planning; it will commence in 1966 and be carried on through 1970.

The immediate objective of the Planning Inventory studies is to identify regional growth opportunities and problems, evaluate them, and make practical recommendations for their coordinated development.

Walker L. Cisler, chairman of the board of Edison said, "The study is a scientific approach toward identifying, measuring and pinpointing the directions of pressures in this region which will cause urbanization to develop in certain patterns. These pressures are inevitable forces which are building in intensity as time goes on."

"This is a new concept or approach to the interpretation of a region's problems and future growth," he said. "We hope that much of our work will be valuable to the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission in its development of a land use plan. We, in turn, will rely heavily on studies carried out by Regional Plan, Detroit City Planning Commission and many other agencies in the region and state. We are most grateful for the enthusiastic cooperation we have already received."

Cisler said, "We must all come to realize that our growth in the past bears no resemblance to the growth that we can expect in the future. For example, some studies show that, by the year 2000, the population of Southeastern Michigan will double to over 9 million people."

"Some experts even think that this prediction is conservative. In other words, we will add as many people in just 35 years as were added during over 200 years of Detroit development. Such development will truly bring about a completely different set of conditions."

Dr. Clarence B. Hilberry, president of Wayne State University, believes the university has a responsibility to act as a catalyst in this type of planning research.

As a major institution located in the focal point of a 23-county area and serving the

Farmington's New Library

The proposed new library in Farmington means that Farmington students, all grades, preschoolers, and adults — especially our increasing number of retirees — will have standard library service paid by local taxpayers and to be used by our own residents.

Trustees of the District Library have studied this situation carefully and evaluated Farmington's needs. It is their responsibility to interpret these needs for the area they serve; to endeavor to keep up to standards; and to be aware of how similar needs are met by our neighbors.

FARRELL E. ROBERTS, Candidate for the 14th District Senatorial seat pledges to carry Michigan forward and support Governor Romney's program if elected next Monday to the post vacated by the death of Paul M. Chandler last December. Governor George Romney attended a banquet in Robert's honor and urged the 800 GOP members present to return Roberts to the Senate post saying "There wasn't a more consistent contributor to the Michigan record of progress than Farrell Roberts. I need Farrell Roberts in Lansing, and more like him."

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER The Observer urges your support for Farrell E. Roberts, Republican, on April 5 to fill the vacancy in the 14th district senatorial district, for an important reason. He is an experienced legislator having served as state Senator for Oakland County from 1960-64.

Both Roberts and McNamara have shown integrity on the campaign trail despite the urgings of a few of their seconders. They have preferred to campaign on issues rather than personal attacks. There is a very definite difference, however, and it is important.

Number one—Governor Romney has proven himself to be an able leader for Michigan. We need him now—and he needs men like Roberts, of his own party, to back him up.

Another point: our form of government is based on a system of checks and balances. In the State Senate, as it now stands the odds are 23 Democrats to 14 Republicans.

If the Democrats choose not to be statesmanlike in their approach they can run roughshod over the Governor's entire program to the detriment of the State—if it is politically expedient to do so.

Expediency is not just a quality of Democrats—there are expedient politicians to be found in both camps. Nevertheless, as a CHECK against this Democratic BALANCE, the Governor must have effective veto power.

After all, in the final accounting, he is responsible to the people. To have the veto power on which he can depend is a safety measure.

Every bill passed by the legislators is presented to the Governor for his signature, before it becomes law. He has 14 days from the time he receives it, either to sign it and file it with the Secretary of State, thus having the bill become law, or if he does not approve, returning it to either the House or Senate with his objections, in other words vetoing the bill.

Governor Romney, in order to sustain his veto, must be supported by over one-third of the legislators. This is very close and every vote counts. The Democrats are the Majority Party in both the House and the Senate. Let us always keep the safety measure we have built in our system and give the Governor strong veto power. Electing Farrell Roberts to the Senate on Monday, April 5, will strengthen this safety valve.

Congratulations to Plymouth and Clarenceville parents for passing their school bond and millage issues on Monday night.

And then there is Redford Township. South Redford School District failed with its millage by 898 votes. Last year the millage increase proposition went down in flames by 238 votes.

Why aren't the majority of parents in South Redford interested in supplying their children with a good educational system? Consistently failing to support their School Board, they have shown lack of faith not only in their board, but in their superintendent and their teachers as well.

The seeds of hate have been planted deep in this community by the MacGriff tabloid. It will take years of fresh faces and fresh air to get rid of them—and it will not be done by chairmen of school committees continuing to bow, scrape, wheedle and cajole. If this same effort, plus the hours spent discussing the subject in committee, had been spent contacting new school voters, who knows, maybe even in South Redford Township another 898 faithful could have been found to add to the 2,182 that showed up to support their schools.

Oh well, another time.

Fluoridation—A Dentist's Eye View

Because fluoridation is still a pertinent issue within the area of this paper's circulation, and because some misinformation on this subject is being distributed, the Observer has solicited the opinion of Dr. Arthur Schiff, a practicing Redford Dentist, and a Major in the Army Dental Corps. His statement on the subject follows: "Mrs. Jones, your child's teeth are so badly decayed that they are non-restorable. The implications of this statement of a dentist to a parent regarding a youngster's dental health are tragic."

Kingston, N.Y.—wherein Newburgh consumed fluoridated water and Kingston non-fluoridated water—reveal that the youngsters of Newburgh enjoyed 60 to 65 per cent less decay than their neighboring children in Kingston. "This is a classical study, where the youngsters of both cities have been examined by dentists as well as specialists encompassing virtually every specialty in medicine and with the exception of the wide variation shown in the incidence of dental decay between the children of Newburgh and Kingston, the general health and growth of all the children measured statistically was the same."

THE READER SPEAKS UP: Livonia Parks Chairman Gives Answers To Critics

Editor: Any election, such as that to be held on April 5, has its final flurry of activity, but for the vested interests which oppose the Parks Bonding Proposal, flurry has apparently turned to panic. I refer to the UNSIGNED ad which appeared in the last issue of the Observer and which urges the people to "get all the facts" and then proceeds to distort them by a final effort to cloud the issues, state half-truths, and cast innuendos. No doubt a similar ad will appear in your issue of March 31.

FRS Not Anti-Business Editor: There has been considerable discussion in public and in the newspapers by private individuals with regard to the FRS Team which is sponsoring Henry Forrest, Robert Rogers and Ernest Sauter for the Farmington City Council. The purpose of this letter is to explain the organization and origination of the FRS Team.

qualified men be elected to our city government. R. L. Smith, N. Graves, C. Cline, R. Sherpita, W. C. Platko, G. G. Lindsay, F. C. Murtland, W. A. Nelson, H. Perry, E. Vahratian, C. F. Hoehner. For Lecture Hall Editor: I am happy to answer the letter of L. Kluber in your columns. The letter-writer tried to make two points.

Blind Veteran Aided by Busy Suburban Women

While making a routine visit to the Dearborn Veterans' Hospital on March 1st, the Hospital Committee of the Farmington VFW Auxiliary Post No. 4033 represented by Mrs. Gerry Johnson, Mrs. Willa Dean Oumedian and Mrs. Evelyn Rouse, visited Wing C8 and contacted 70 patients. In Room 427, they met a Mr. Solmom whose predicament was brought to their attention by Mr. R. C. Mitchell, another patient in the same room.

Mr. Bernat, Director of Volunteers, took a personal interest in the matter and set the proper wheels in motion. As a result, Mr. Solmom received all his money, his VA benefits and was sent on his way to his relatives. The Hospital Committee left Mr. Solmom enough money to take care of his immediate needs since he had arrived in Detroit with only a dime in his pocket! March 8th, the Hospital Committee represented by Mrs. Gerry Johnson, Mrs. Kathryn Pershing, Mrs. Willa Dean Oumedian, Mrs. Fran Kutschke and Mrs. Evelyn Rouse visited Wings C8 and B7 and contacted 200 patients. They were given the following letter thanking them for their efforts in assisting Mr. Solmom.

1. The opponents of parks AGREE that we need parks—to wit, "Few will deny that some provisions should be made for systematic development of recreational areas for Livonia citizens". 2. There ARE NOT NOW and WILL NOT BE taxes available for park land. If we want park land and want to keep taxes down, we MUST make money available NOW through bonding.

3. DON'T BE MISLED by terms like "hungry real estate speculators". More than likely we should be concerned about "land hungry BUILDERS" who would four homes to the acre on 60 and 70-foot lots and then run and leave the rest of the bills to the taxpayers, like educating 10,000 more children and providing police and fire-protection for 4,800 more homes. I suggest you consider the question, "WHY ISN'T THE AD SIGNED?"

With regard to the second point, I have consistently and strongly supported Council action which would remove politics from consideration in the awarding of liquor licenses. EDWARD H. McNAMARA Paul Chandler Missed Editor: Fairly new to Michigan, your paper under the late Mr. Chandler was a joy to read. Less so today. I'm voting for the Park Proposition and am furious that you actually take money for an unsigned political ad. "Paid Political Ad" indeed! Paid by whom?

League of Women Voters' Guide for April 5 Election

Polls Open 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

This report was prepared as a public information service by the League of Women Voters of Livonia. The LWV is a national volunteer, non-partisan organization established in 1920 to encourage citizen participation in government. It never supports or opposes any political party or candidate. The League does support or oppose issues after careful study without regard to the stand of any party. To keep Voters Guides completely impartial LEAGUE STANDS ON ISSUES ARE NEVER INCLUDED IN THE GUIDES.

Information was gathered from questionnaires sent to each candidate before the Primary Election in February. The biographical questionnaire included a question concerning training and experience the candidates had which would qualify them for office.

STATE SENATOR

(Including Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Farmington and a portion of Western Oakland County.)

Term: 2 years.

Salary: $10,000 per year plus $2,500 expense, plus mileage.

Question Asked Candidates:

The candidates were asked to limit their replies to 100 words.

1. What do you consider the chief issues facing Michigan today and how should they be resolved?

Roberts

FARRELL E. ROBERTS: 42; 2486 LaFay, Pontiac; Attorney; U.S. Naval Academy, BS; U. of Mich. Law School LLB, Previously State Senate, 1960-64; State House of Representatives, 1956-60; U. of Mich. Law School Bd. of Visitors, State Bar Comm. on Court Administration, Elks, Kiwanis, Amvets—I served as State Senator from 1960-64, as Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary and as Vice Chairman of three committees; Taxation, Labor and Elections. I was also Chairman of the Joint Legislative Judiciary Committee to implement the new State Constitution. I sponsored many bills including the Community Mental Health Act and Appellate Court Law.

1. Over the next two years we must seek to maintain a workable cooperation between the Governor and the Legislature.

2. Fiscal reform is needed in order to overhaul our outmoded tax structure.

3. We must continue to implement the Community Mental Health Act, so that our mentally disturbed can procure rapid and intensive treatment close to their home environment.

4. A state departmental reorganization act, a county home rule act, and an inferior court act should be passed during this term.

5. We must continue to meet our higher education needs and to expand our community college facilities.

McNamara

EDWARD H. McNAMARA: 38; 17278 Dolores, Livonia; Manager at Mich. Bell Tele. Co.; Ph. B. U. of Detroit; Rotary Club of Monroe; Pres. Liv. Meadows Homeowners Assoc.; Vice Pres. Livonia City Council—My major in college was in Political Science. In addition, I have served as a school bd. member in Drbn. Twp. for 5½ years (Pres. 2 yrs.) and as a Councilman (3 yrs.) This education and experience has given me an excellent understanding of the needs of the schools and local governments.

1. Tax reform—relief to property taxpayers, homestead exemptions to senior citizens and a more dependable revenue base to schools. I believe these can be accomplished by enacting a modified form of the Swainson-Romney fiscal reform plan.

I also believe expansion of the community college program, expanded mental health facilities and improvement in the Workmans Compensation Law are necessary.

CIRCUIT COURT JUDGE

Term: 6 years.

Salary: $27,500 per year.

There is no contest for this office. John B. Swainson is unopposed.

Recreational Bonding Proposition

"Shall the City of Livonia, County of Wayne, Michigan, borrow the sum of not exceeding Four Million Four Hundred Thousand ($4,400,000) dollars, and issue its general obligation bonds therefor for the purpose of acquiring lands for public park and recreational purposes, and improving, developing and providing necessary facilities for recreational use of said lands."

EXPLANATION

Only property owners in the City of Livonia are eligible to vote on this issue. The proposal received a 56.3% "Yes" vote in the November election. However, Michigan State Law requires approval by 60% of the electorate.

The proceeds of this bond issue would purchase approximately 1,200 acres throughout the city to be used for park sites, some of them equipped with artificial ice rinks, neighborhood-type swimming pools, tennis courts, playground equipment, and athletic fields.

Specific park sites have been recommended by the Parks and Recreation Commission. However, the final decision as to the sites rests with the City Council.

Livonia currently owns 307 acres of park land. 132 of these areas constitute the municipal golf course.

The cost to the taxpayer would be 71 cents per $1,000 of assessed valuation. On a home assessed at $8,500, representing a market price of approximately $22,000, the tax would be about $6 a year.

Federal funds up to 30% for sites will be available if the bond issue passes. This federal grant would free $1,320,000 of the bonding funds for site development including swimming pools, skating rinks, etc.

It is the intent of the Parks and Recreation Commission to charge a nominal fee for the use of the facilities to offset the operation and maintenance cost.

THOSE IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSAL SAY

1. We could be paying $55.25 per year for school and city services instead of $6.00 for parks if the proposed park sites are subdivided. Very few homes in Livonia pay enough taxes to cover essential services. The 1,200 subdivided acres mean 4,800 homes and 19,200 new residents, including 9,600 children. School and city services for these homes would cost each taxpayer considerably more than buying and maintaining parks.

Livonia's desirability as a place in which to live depends on wise use of its remaining resources. Open space land results in better city planning, less density of population and increased value of existing homes. Taking land off the market is one of the few ways citizens may control population density.

3. Available land is fast disappearing and cost increasing. Some of the land designated on the master plan has been sold because of lack of city funds to purchase land. At our present rate of development, Livonia will be completely built up in 10 to 12 years. Land is being bought and sub-divided daily. If we don't act now there will be no desirable recreation land remaining.

4. Recreational facilities for almost 33,000 school-age children are a must for our community. Such facilities should be conveniently located and designed for various types of organized activity.

5. 90,000 Livonians now have only 307 acres of park lands to enjoy. This is about 1/3 of the acreage recommended by the National Recreation Assn. What will our community be like with 200,000 ultimate population unless we buy land while it's available?

6. Financing parks by bonding means that future citizens would pay their share of benefits derived since it would take 30 years to pay off the bonds and thus lessen the burden on current taxpayers.

7. Parks will appeal to industry—industry creates jobs. Experience shows that industry is attracted to well-planned surroundings and cities where planning consider aesthetics, conservation and tax-control.

8. Parks—pieces of ground and equipment — do not make juvenile delinquents. It is unfair to deprive the many of the wholesome benefits of these facilities because of their misuse by a few.

THOSE OPPOSED TO THE PROPOSAL SAY

1. The bond issue will increase taxes and taxes in Livonia are already high.

2. There are other methods of obtaining park land, e.g. buying land as it is needed, a little at a time. Builders sometimes donate land to the city. Under the provisions set up in State Act 285, known as the Planning Commission Act, the City's Master Zoning Plan has already earmarked adequate sites for future parks. As our population grows and the need for recreational areas increase these lands will be acquired and they will be developed within the limitations of available taxes. If we buy these lands now—many years before we are ready to develop them we'll be paying thousands of dollars for needless interest.

3. There are enough county and state parks and large school yards available in this area to serve our needs. Some subdivisions have their own swimming pools.

4. Some citizens do not want to own homes near parks because they believe that possible vandalism and excessive noise is prevalent and irritating and they fear it would depreciate the value of their property.

5. Livonia should not depend on federal aid to provide for its local needs.

6. The existing park sites in Livonia are not adequately developed or maintained or protected. Why buy more land until proper care can be taken of what we do have?

7. The taxpayers are being asked to purchase land without knowing for certain where these park sites will be located. Some people question the desirability of some of the proposed sites. (Why buy a pig-in-a-poke.) It is felt that the cost of developing some of the proposed sites will be prohibitive.

8. Land values in Livonia are not sky rocketing but rather are stabilizing. It is no longer the attractive area it was to builders because of the higher zoning restrictions.

ELECTRIC HOME HEATING

NOW SOLD AND INSTALLED IN WESTERN WAYNE COUNTY by DETROIT EDISON

Here's important news! Especially if you're wondering how best to replace a tired out, old heating system. Or if you have a newly added room to heat. Or a room that's always been chilly.

All you have to do is phone or stop at your Edison Office. One of our Electric Heating Specialists will gladly call on you. He'll give you an estimate on the cost to install electric heat. He will recommend a system best suited to your needs. Then, if you'd like, he'll arrange for installation and financing. You'll get all the exclusive benefits of flameless electric heat PLUS the same prompt and considerate service you've come to expect from Detroit Edison.

HOW ABOUT ELECTRIC HEAT OPERATING COSTS?

Electric heat costs more than other types of home heating. But you will be surprised at how little more when you consider how much you gain in comfort and convenience.

And there's an All-Electric Domestic Rate which can reduce all your electrical operating costs, including those for electric heat. Yes, when your home is heated electrically throughout and when the major appliances you have are all electric, you qualify for a lower electrical rate.

Remember, if you'd like to know more about electric heat and the All Electric Rate, just stop or call your Edison office. It costs nothing to get the facts!

P.S. Recent downward rate adjustments can make supplemental electric heating lower in cost too. Supplemental electric heat's just the thing for cold corners and always-chilly rooms.

Observer Writer Reports on Historic Alabama March

By DAVE ELSILA
MONTGOMERY, ALA.—
"We're going to love the hell out of Alabama."

The words — uttered just a few hours before — resounded through the minds of 78 Michiganders stranded in the Montgomery, Ala., airport early last Friday.

The news had just come to them of the murder, by a night-rider's bullet, of a fellow citizen, Mrs. Viola Liuzzo, of Detroit.

The killing had taken place just 25 miles away, down U.S. 90, the highway which runs in front of the airport; the same highway along which 300 civil rights marchers had walked a day earlier on the Selma-to-Montgomery 50 mile trek.

"We're going to love the hell out of Alabama."
The simple, pointed phrase had been spoken at the conclusion of the historic March by a young Negro minister who stood defiantly in front of the white facade of Alabama's State Capitol.

A Confederate flag waved in the breeze from the capitol dome above his head as he, and a dozen other civil rights leaders, addressed the huge throng of demonstrators.

But the flag—and the crudely-stitched Rebel emblems on the uniforms of the police — might as well not have been there.

For if this March had proved nothing else, it showed that the 'Cradle of the Confederacy' had been irreparably cracked by this magnificent demonstration for human rights. Thousands of Americans, all witnesses for democracy, had streamed into Alabama.

"We're going to love the hell out of Alabama."

The phrase, which the crowd had cheered earlier, came back in the silence of the airport. To many, it was the only balm for their sorrow. They said it again, in another form, when they sang "We Shall Overcome" at memorial services back in Michigan after a 17-hour wait until a replacement came for their disabled airplane.

To this reporter and the other Michiganders, Thursday's march, which we joined for the last four miles, had proved that the solid rock of segregation in Alabama and the deep South was cracking.

The March appeared to mark the beginning of the end of the white supremacy code of the South, and like the legendary hole in the dike, the crack was growing and not even the jabbing fingers of men like Wallace could keep the wall from crumbling.

What made this demonstration the turning point in the civil rights movement in the South?

Very simply, it was the people. The march was supported by those who feel the brunt of segregation in the South, the Negroes, and neither threats nor promises kept them from taking part. For the first time, they were joined by a generous sprinkling of white southerners.

But Southerners were not the only marchers. Americans came from as far away as Hawaii to the west, Maine to the east, from Oregon, from the Virgin Islands. Not because they were "outside agitators" who wanted to cause trouble, but because they were Americans who wanted to make right a part of their land in which the American Dream had failed to materialize.

It was a combination of these two forces—the Southern victims of segregation and a cross-section of the rest of America that made the March a genuine and irreversible turning point in the history of the South. To those steeped in the traditions of Montgomery and Alabama, the sight of tens of thousands of civil rights demonstrators marching through the streets of that city must have been an impossible sight. The average white citizen was utterly bewildered to note that the largest parade ever to be held in his city had turned out to be a civil rights march.

The picture of the marchers, as they streamed for hours through the streets of Montgomery, was a living testimonial to the forces of love and non-violence which lead the civil rights movement and an indication of its newly achieved broadness in American society.

Young and old, the marchers were of both sexes and of many professions. Roman Catholic nuns, in their starched black-and-white habits marched hand-in-hand with Negro civil rights workers. A delegation of 40 U.S. historians was there; there were lawyers, schoolteachers, factory workers, students, and housewives.

It took an extra dose of courage for white southerners to participate. There was a delegation from the University of Texas and another from SMU in Texas. There were even some white Alabamans, identifying themselves as natives of Huntsville and even of Selma.

Among the marchers was a 70-year-old Negro sharecropper. Wearing a patch on the seat of his pants and an ancient pair of shoes, he marched all four miles with us, having come from Selma for the occasion. "This is the largest crowd I've ever seen," he said. "I know we are going to get our freedom."

Or, put another way, "We're going to love the hell out of Alabama."

Snow, Cold Retard Prep Athletes

"By the looks of things . . . we may never get outdoors."
This was a typical comment registered this past week by one of the many coaches in the Greater Livonia areas as they try to prepare their respective high school teams for the spring ahead.
There are no less than 16 varsity baseball teams . . . almost as many track, golf and tennis teams . . . all waiting to go . . . on the high school level.

Most of the schools also have their reserve teams and all the junior highs have at least a baseball team hopeful of performing.

But, spring has come . . . and all the coaches (and everybody else) can spot on the ground is snow.
Some of the track teams have had a chance to do a little in the way of competition. Thurston and Farmington went to the Huron Re-lays last Saturday and two or three others are going to Michigan State this Saturday.
These are indoor carnivals . . . and the outdoor seasons for most of the area teams are supposed to open next week.
Athletic Directors like Howard Kraft at Redford Union, John Sandmann at Plymouth and Les Anders looked at the fine schedules they have prepared for their various teams.

"I suppose we'll have to cancel some of the events booked for early April," lamented Kraft. "It's a shame . . . this weather . . . But what can you do?"
Nothing, of course.
The coaches and their charges are doing the best possible under the conditions.
Baseball teams are drilling in gyms. There's mostly throwing the ball around. It's difficult to bat on wooden floors and how can you go through any fielding action?
Track coaches work in the gyms, too, when the base-ballers are through. Some of the thinclad mentors utilize long hallways in the school proper to have their forces run the hurdles and the dashes.

A few brave shot putters have gone outdoors and tossed the iron ball around in six to seven inches of snow.
Tennis players and coaches have to wait for the gyms to clear.
The golfers practice with plastic balls.
So, it's gone.
Unless the weather takes a turn for the better, it could be many teams won't do anything outdoors until after Easter vacation ends around April 26.

BASKETBALL is the topic of a discussion between this trio as they sat at the speakers' table for the first annual banquet of the Plymouth Community Junior Basketball League at the Elks Club. Announce Pairings for Baseball Meet Pairings for the First Annual Livonia Invitational High School Baseball tournament to be held at Livonia's Ford Field in May have been announced by Les Anders, the meet's director.

Twelve schools will vie in the meet which is being sponsored by the Livonia Optimist Club, the Livonia Recreation Department and the Observer Newspapers.

Clarenceville will square off against Bentley in the meet's initial game on Saturday, May 15.
The winner of this game then will face Our Lady of Sorrows at 7 p.m. on Friday, May 21. The 9 p.m. game on May 21 will bring together Redford Union and Thurston.
The May 22 action will pit North Farmington against Franklin at 7 p.m. and Farmington vs. Plymouth at 9 p.m.
Semifinals will be staged at 7 and 9 p.m. on May 23 with the championship game on Saturday, May 29.

This, of course, means that there can be "no pickups" — just for the tourney.
Other rules outlined by the tourney committee, which is composed of John Dufour, George Williams, Tommy Thompson and Anders, include:

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

Pull out all the superlatives and you still won't find enough to describe the performance turned in by the Detroit Red Wings in their drive to the 1964-65 National Hockey League championship.
This was the team that the experts called "too old and too young" . . . the team few thought would even make the NHL playoffs.
There were laughs and giggles back in October when Manager-Coach Sid Abel pulled the surprise of the sports season by announcing that Ted Lindsay was coming out of a retirement after a four-year absence from the pro hockey wars.
President Clarence Campbell of the NHL reportedly minced no words when informed Lindsay would play again. Others agreed.
Fortunately, at the time for the Wings, the Detroit News and Free Press weren't operating. Otherwise, the Wings management probably would have been chewed apart in the local press.
The radio and TV sportscasters did take their pokes at Abel and Co.

That was in October. Now it's April — or it will be Thursday — and very appropriately on this April Fool's day, the team that followed them all starts in its quest for the Stanley Cup against the Chicago Black Hawks.
The community has gone wild about the Wings. It's been eight years since Detroit — and when we say Detroit that goes for the entire community — has enjoyed a sports champ on the pro level.
The Wings go blazing into the cup round. The "old" guys like Gordie Howe, Lindsay, Alex Delvecchio, Norm Ullman and Bill Gadsby operate on the ice with the same brilliance they did 10 years ago.
Howe remains the most amazing player — in any sport. He's still the Spark of the Wings, the way we see the club. He's the leader.
Lindsay, we should have noted earlier, scored 15 goals in his comeback. Ullman, Delvecchio, Gadsby all had banner years. Great years.
Crozier has made Detroit forget about Sawchuk.

When it comes to slipping out some orchids, Al Roscoe of Livonia's Recreation department was on the phone asking if we could say a few nice words about all who had a part in the success this past winter of Livonia's recreation basketball program.
"We had 90 teams" said Roscoe. "The teams ranged from youngsters 13 and under up to adults."
"The programs moved along with no trouble in all of the divisions. Not enough in the way of thanks can be expressed for the men who worked with the kids, in particular."
Livonia's Junior Football League also drew the praises of Roscoe.
"The Football League foots the bills for the 27 minor teams (boys 13 and under) who play basketball in Livonia. John Hubert is assigned by the Football League as its basketball commissioner. He turned in a tremendous job this past season."
Roscoe added that there were many teachers in the Livonia school system who stayed late each day or came back in the evenings to help with the kids basketball activities.

Besides the minor-division teams, there were 12 for seventh graders, 12 for eighth graders, 19 for high school students, seven for those at Schoolcraft College, nine for Class B men's and eight for Class A men.
Roscoe didn't limit his conversation just to basketball.
"We're finishing up our men's volleyball program this Wednesday night at Franklin High School," Roscoe rambled on.
"We had eight teams in our 'A' division and 12 in our 'B'. We've had a big upset in Class A. The perennial champion St. Andrews team was dethroned in the regular-season race and has been knocked out of the playoffs. It will be Colonial Lounge vs. the Franklin Teachers for the title in Class A."
"And in Class B, the Cliffhangers are going to play for the title Wednesday night. They're a bunch of school teachers and principals from Livonia."
In his next breath, Roscoe was talking about baseball.
"Despite all the snow on the ground at this time of the year, we have found an upsurge in interest in both our baseball and softball programs."
"We get calls every day from managers and sponsors, who want to enter a team. I think that the lights we have at Ford Field (for baseball and softball) have had a lot to do with the greater interest in the two sports."
It's to be noted that the lights will burn every night at the Farmington Road sports grounds. Roscoe and John Dufour, who bosses Livonia's recreation department, are planning a variety of extra events to start with the area high school tournament in mid-May.
Incidentally, we have a note from Mr. Dufour reminding us that the meetings for Livonia umpires have started at Bentley High School.
The expansion of the baseball and softball programs means one thing: Livonia will need more umpires this summer. You may not like sports officials — the kind who blow whistles and call guys out whom you think are safe — but you can't play a game without an ump or a referee.
From experience, we can say that sports officiating has its bright side. If nothing else, it helps a guy keep young.

Summer Play Big Aid To R. Union Mentor

For Bob Atkins of Redford Union high school, baseball is not just a spring sport. When the school recesses in June for vacation, neither Atkins or his players forget about baseball. They keep right on going in the summer-long program for Class D and Free Press League teams with most of the action taking place at Livonia's Ford Field.

Atkins has found that the added baseball has helped to pay off for him at Redford Union.
A year ago, Redford Union shared the Suburban Six League title with Trenton and Atkins feels that his Townshippers will be in the thick of the 1965 chase (if the snow permits one), although Atkins picks Trenton and Belleville as the teams to beat.
Redford Union will start the '65 season with a strong battery.
Harry Kendrick, an all-league catcher in '64, is back. He's one of the RU co-captains.
Besides being very able behind the plate, Kendrick is a strong hitter. In 40 games last season, both in high school and sandlot play, Kendrick socked the ball at better than a .300 mark.
In the pitching department, Dick Barryman is back to head the corps.
Barryman was outstanding in '64. His combined prep-sandlot record was 12 wins against three losses. He turned in an earned run average of 1.4.
Rick Fisher, 5-3 a year ago, also has returned, along with Ernie Bourassa, who played third in high school, and pitched fine relief ball in the summer. The latter fashioned an 0.63 ERA on the sandlots.
The losses of Robby Mason and Clyde Ziegler in the infield will hurt RU.
But Cary DeLoye is back at first, Bourassa can play third when not hurling and George Little and Jim Bieberick give indications they'll do okay at second base and shortstop, respectively.
In the outfield, Jim Johnston is the lone RU returnee. But Russ Pulyu and Curt DeLoye, Cary's brother, played for Coach Atkins during the summer, and should be ready to jump into regular, varsity jobs.

Franklin Favored To Keep Crown

From near bottom to the top. It could be that way for John Hartsig, a member of the coaching staff at Franklin high school.
During the recent basketball season, Hartsig's cagers struggled and barely beat out newcomer John Glenn from Wayne for last spot in the Northwest Suburban League.
With little time off, Hartsig now has switched to guiding Franklin in baseball.
The diamond story sparkles for Hartsig. A year ago Franklin copped the league championship, beating out Thurston in an exciting dual.
Franklin again shapes up as the team to beat for the pennant.
The graduation losses have been slight. Catcher Bill Black and Pitcher Pete Hembros are gone from the '64 winners. They'll be missed.
But Tom Cannon and Ken Bratherton are back to lead the Franklin mound corps. Those, who remember, still talk about the no-hitters the two flingers turned in a year ago . . . when Franklin posted an 8-0 record in the league and an overall mark of 15 victories against only two defeats.
Franklin has a solid infield. There's Neil Thomas at first, Paul Biedler at second, Bernie Carbo at short and Paul Hartsig at third. All are veterans.
Behind them are Gary Burkett and Ron Ross, who can work in at almost any spot in the inner defense.
In the outfield, Sluggo Sam Antonazzo leads the way. Then, too, there is Roger Frayer, who missed much of the prep schedule a year ago because of an injury, but was a star in the summer sandlot program around Livonia.

Bruce Berger and Mike Stahurski are two others who figure in the plans of Hartsig who hails the Livonia sandlot baseball activities for helping to bring Franklin a strong team. (Continued on Page 3-B)

Schoolcraft Will Honor Sports Teams

The first Schoolcraft College winter sports award banquet will be held on Tuesday, April 6 at 6:30 p.m. in the clubrooms of the Plymouth Elks Club, on Ann Arbor Road.
Varsity letters will be awarded to the first basketball and swimming teams sponsored by Schoolcraft. Athletic Director and Coach Marv Gans has made arrangements for one of the Olympic swimmers from the University of Michigan to give the principal address.
The varsity and junior varsity letter winners in basketball are: varsity, Gerald Allen, Rick Davis, Robert Geist, Tom Janulis, Gerald Kisabeth, Cal Luibrand and Scott McIntyre; junior varsity, Robert Ekonen, Jeff Houtaling, Harold Kuisel, Leonard Nordstrom and Keith Watson.
Those receiving awards in swimming include: varsity, Dave Zabell, Dennis Macy, George Collins, Nick Sihon, Tom Skinner, Bill Patterson and Bill Baker; junior varsity, Bill Johns and Dennis Umerlik.

Barryman was outstanding in '64. His combined prep-sandlot record was 12 wins against three losses. He turned in an earned run average of 1.4.
Rick Fisher, 5-3 a year ago, also has returned, along with Ernie Bourassa, who played third in high school, and pitched fine relief ball in the summer. The latter fashioned an 0.63 ERA on the sandlots.

Two Errors Cost Flint Duo Lead in Mixed Doubles Tourney

But for a split in the second frame and a miss in the fourth, the lead in the third annual Observer Newspapers-Merri-Bowl mixed doubles tournament could well have changed hands—as it stands the 1319 rolled by the Detroit duo of James Thomas and Mildred Sherman on March 7 is still the one bowlers are shooting at.

Trojans Vie In Relays

There hasn't been too much to cheer about — athletically — around Clarenceville high school these past few months.

But with the track season at hand, Coach Ralph Temby sees his Trojans as one of the top contenders for honors in the Wayne-Oakland League.

Before Clarenceville embarks on the bid for league honors, the team will send a delegation to Michigan State University this Friday for the Class B section of the Spartans relay carnival.

Entries from Farmington and Redford Union are slated to vie in the Class A section of the MSU relays on Saturday.

"We've lost Dave Graves and Jim Donnelly from last year's team," says Temby, "but we have some solid boys back, especially in the longer races."

The Buchheit brothers, Gary and Larry, should make a tough duo in the mile. Ray Wehner, a freshman, also looks like he'll do some point-winning in the mile.

School record-holder Les Swartz heads the half-milers at Clarenceville. His mates will include Fred Welton and Milt Smith.

Welton, who cracked the Clarenceville 440-yard record a year ago when he was timed in 53.4 seconds, is a versatile young man. Besides the "440" and "880," he also is a capable pole vaulter.

Chris Hawkins, Ray Parker and Jimmy Bedson give Clarenceville strength in the dashes. Bedson, Ron and Larry, Ray and Tom Harbourne comprise the hurdlers working out of Clarenceville's varsity jobs.

In the field events, Jim Prisk and Tom Nelson head the shot putters.

Doug Waack and Welton return in the pole vault, along with Bob Feeley, Jim Amick, Ron Ray and Harbourne lead the high jumpers with Harbourne, Ron Rau, Bedson and Parker also doing well so far in the broad jump.

What the Trojans now need is a chance to shift outdoors.

Farmington to Start Registration of Boys for Summer Baseball

Registrations for boys, between the ages of 8 and 16 who wish to participate in the T-Ball, Little League, Pony and Colt Leagues in Farmington, will take place on the next two Saturdays, April 3 and 10.

Applications will be available between the hours of 9 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. at Farmington Junior High on Thomas Street in Farmington's Downtown business area.

Boys, who did not participate in the program last year, must present a birth certificate. Donations are $7 per boy or $10 per family. Parents must sign the application card giving the boy permission to play before his registration is accepted.

Thurman, of Flint, gave the leaders a few anxious moments a week ago when they appeared well on their way towards the top spot only to have McBride run into the two snags in the final game. As a result they had to be content with a 1297, 22 pins behind the leaders.

Miss Thurman, a 146 average bowler, upheld her end by firing a 541 actual series with game of 179, 183 and 179.

McBride bettered his 170 average in all three games but ran afoul of trouble in the two frames and that proved fatal to his team's chances. It wasn't that he didn't have a good series but he couldn't maintain the big 233 he had in the middle, winding up with a 174 in the finale for a 582 total.

He started with 175 in the opener and then hit a hot streak that found him spilling the pins for a five-bagger along with a double in the second game for a 233.

The team had an actual score of 1123 and the 174 pin handicap upped the total to 1297.

Another Flint team, Catherine Thompson and Matt Garrett, rolling on the same squad, made a gallant bid for the lead but fell flat in the third game after totaling 894 in the first two. They wound up with 1239 which placed them in the fourth spot in the standings. They needed a 426 in the finale and only picked up 399.

Miss Thompson, who carries a 162 average, had actual games of 160, 223 and 165 for a 548.

Garrett, with a 172 average, started with 198, came back with a big 221, winding up with six strikes, and then dropped to 188 in the windup for an actual count of 607.

They picked up a handicap of 46 pins per game, giving Miss Thompson a gross total of 617 and Garrett a 676 for the 1293 score.

Carol and Robert Major, of Dearborn, found the alleys to their liking and moved into sixth place with 1281 as the latter turned in the highest single game of the weekend with a 241.

Both started with four in a row, had a spare, added three more, strikes and then spared out for the 241, contrasted to his league average of 159. However, he couldn't continue the

Falcons' Interest Sets Mark

The snow and cold not withstanding, baseball interest is up at Farmington high school.

Coach Steve Branz reports a contingent of more than 60, the largest in the school's history, has been working indoors—all hopeful of getting outside.

With only four members from last year's squad returning, Branz has a job facing him. And he admits that trying to decide on who can do what is complicated by practices restricted to a gym.

Baseball never was designed to be played indoors.

The veterans, who head the Farmington squad, are Carl Misch at third base; Dick Johnston, catcher; Terry Nielson, shortstop and Mike Perry, an infielder-outfielder.

Misch also is able to pitch and probably will get a few calls to stroll to the mound.

Johnston was all-conference in 1964 when he was also picked as the No. 2 catcher in Oakland County.

Perry figures to be used mostly in the outfield whenever the '65 season begins because of the shortage of flycatchers.

The pitching comprises the big headache for Branz. Frank Meller, Wayne Johnston, a brother of Dick, and Jerry Tinkle lead the staff—at the moment. None boasts too much in the way of previous schoolboy experience.

Tom Donoghue, a crackerjack photographer, also is bidding for a pitching job. Donoghue may wind up in the outfield, though.

Dana Kittridge and Glen Lindsay are fighting it out at second base, Chris Norton looks like a strong bet in the outfield and Mike Searly is around to back up Dick Johnston in the catching.

However, until the weather gives Branz a chance to take his forces outside, the baseball question marks at Farmington will remain on the gigantic side.

CHAMPIONS of the Livonia Department of Recreation Class 'A' basketball league, the Rollie Barrett quintet added the regional crown of the Recreation Association of Michigan to its list of laurels and then dropped the opening game of the state tournament in Wyoming, Mich., to Dearborn, 95-80. It was in the regional finals the team showed its merit, coming from 20 points behind at the half to beat Southfield in overtime, 78-73. The team includes: (left to right, seated) Vas Badalov, Wayne Aaron, Mike Butka, John Matt and Otis Manning; (standing) Dick Moseley, Moe Waddell, Bob Kedzo, Capt. Art Wendt and Bill Burgan. Missing for the picture was Joe Emery.

New Plymouth Coach Seeks To Fill Gaps

Bryan Boring must build almost from the start in his introduction as baseball coach at Plymouth High School.

Boring, who has taken over from Mike Hoben, now an assistant principal at Plymouth, finds himself shy on experienced talent as he works his charges indoors.

There are some bright spots, however.

Pitchers Dave Troutman, John Daniel and Fred Higgs (a lefty) all are experienced. Kurt Irish at second base is a dandy. So is Captain Bob Gotro at short.

That's where the veteran talent ends. Ron White at first and Terry Cosgrove and Jim Lake in the outfield are Jayvee graduates who should be the 1965 Plymouth varsity.

The catching is a real headache. Marlin Sutton, a transfer student from deep in the heart of Texas, and Jim Arnold, a JV backstop in '64 look like the best of the lot. Who'll play third base? Who'll play the outfield?

These are aggravating questions as long as Boring must restrict his team to indoor practices.

The Rocks finished 5-5 in the Suburban Six League last season.

The spring sports schedules for Plymouth high school varsity teams have been announced. The cards follow:

Franklin Is Favored

"These kids have been playing ball under organized conditions since they were in the seventh and eighth grades," says Hartsig. "They sure have a great deal of interest in baseball."

Meanwhile, over at Thurston, which had to settle for second place behind Franklin last year in the league while coming up with a tremendous 15-3 overall mark, Coach Bob Leggett has his work cut out.

Graduation has stripped Thurston of just about everybody from the 1964 powerhouse.

The only two regulars back are Jim Sproul, who'll lead the pitching staff, and Terry Rothwell, who has been moved back of the plate to handle the catching.

Sproul is a question mark because of a dislocated shoulder he suffered a year ago while playing in the outfield.

If Sproul proves he's fit to hurl, he'll bring some smiles to Coach Leggett.

Both Sproul and Rothwell are strong hitters, who have socked the ball at better than a .300 clip in their past prep campaigns.

John Page, who was hurt late in the basketball season when he turned an ankle, shapes up as the No. 2 pitcher on the Thurston staff.

Reserves up to the varsity this season include Jim Claus at second base, Reg Barringer, an outfielder; Bob Szymanski and Ed Walsh at shortstop and Mike Turner and Barry Simescu who are fighting for the job at first base.

Bob Holmes and Mike Bernhardt are two prime candidates to win outfield jobs.

The bad weather hasn't helped Leggett to solve many of the problems confronting him.

Thurston Jumpers Triumph

Thurston high's track delegation made some headlines last Saturday night in the Huron Relays carnival at Ypsilanti.

In the first major meet of the 1965 prep track season, Coach Bob Lake's delegation came up a winner in the broad jump relay and with a third in the two-mile relay.

Overall, Thurston posted 13 points as Roseville took the title with 38 points. Flint Central was next with 32 points.

Birmingham Seaholm had 19, Ypsilanti Central 16 and Lansing Eastern 14 before Thurston checked in with its 13.

The big Thurston story came in the broad jump in which Don Bristol and Al Phillips teamed up to win for the South Redford Township prepers.

Bristol, who like other prepers had no chance to work outdoors, soared 20 feet, 4 inches — a very outstanding performance for so early in the season. Phillips wasn't far behind with a jump of 19 feet 11½ inches.

In the two-mile relay, Thurston came through with a third behind East Lansing and Lansing Sexton.

Stop Scum; Use Water Softener

Homeowners living in hard water areas—85 per cent of the country, to be exact—may think they have licked the problem of sticky, clinging soap curds in the wash by using a synthetic detergent incorporating some type of water softening agent.

Actually, this is no more than a token solution to the problem. The detergent used may do a good job of tying up the water hardness during the wash cycle in the automatic clothes washer—fine. So far, so good. But when the wash water drains out, to be replaced by the hard, unprotected rinse-water, there is nothing to prevent a fresh deposit of water hardness scum, dulling the appearance of freshly laundered articles.

The only effective way to eliminate the hard water problem once and for all is to install modern home water softening equipment. Many municipalities partially soften water, sometimes down to about 5 grains of hardness. However, since water of 3 or more grains is considered hard, there still is need for home equipment.

Hard water, responsible for the familiar ring in the bathtub, film on freshly-washed glassware and silverware, rough and reddened hands, and dingy-looking washes, is more than an inconvenience.

Triple Pantry
 Need a pantry in the kitchen? Try a triple tier of shelves built into a closet for canned goods. The first tier goes on the inside of double closet doors. The second tier is built on swinging shelves hinged to a center pole inside the closet. The third tier of shelves is permanently installed against the closet's back wall. Use sturdy Douglas fir lumber for shelving and door.

THIS HANDY one-room apartment was the "gosh-awful" looking garage shown at left. It now is a pleasant home for a relative who had been living alone. In the attached apartment, she is close to the family but independent, too. Chief ingredients in this remarkable transformation were handsome wood-grained wall paneling, acoustical ceiling and vinyl tile floor. Pre-finished Masonite Royalcote paneling in rich-looking Tawny Walnut pattern offered as background for the furnishings. Requiring only occasional damp wiping to maintain, the paneling was installed over furring mounted to the cinder block garage walls. Ten other Royalcote woodgrains are available at building supply yards.

Planned Landscaping Adds to Property Value

Landscaping increases the salability of the property and adds to its permanent value.

Banks, and other mortgage lenders, increasingly are including costs of landscaping in the original mortgage. Planned landscaping for permanent values helps to provide many advantages not readily apparent, such as control of soil erosion, better drainage, and conservation of water.

Land values are usually higher when lakes and ponds are nearby to encourage recreation. Landscaping can provide for micro-climate control through the planting of proper trees in proper locations to provide beauty, serve as windbreaks, for shade and other purposes on the home property.

Utilities can be placed underground for better appearance of the development. Beauty of the property and comfortable outdoor living are prime considerations in landscaping according to consumer surveys.

The American Association of Nurserymen has worked out a standard for home landscaping which shows the elements entering into such landscaping as follows:

1. Design and composition, including good taste and maintenance.

2. Plants and related materials.

3. Installation.

Installation requires molding and shaping of the land, soil stability and livability of property, planned planting at the proper depths according to sound horticultural practices and many other similar requirements. This helps to maintain values in future years.

Design includes the proper scale and proportion as it relates to placing and spacing of trees and shrubs for beauty, shade, garden living, climate control and other aspects of desirable landscaping.

In general, landscaping can be planned for low maintenance, to last many years. In some cases contracts can be drawn up for maintenance of the whole development over a stated period of years.

staffs and are capable of supplying such plans.

By building both house and land for better living, a development is a much more desirable place in which to live immediately and in the future. The investment is more sound for everyone.

Good Price Range
 You should expect to pay at least 4 per cent of the cost of your home for a good warm air heating system. If the figure is more than eight per cent, you might be paying too much.

No Decay
 Incense cedar lumber is exceptionally resistant to decay and is classed as one of the top woods for its paint-holding qualities and ability to endure adverse weather conditions.

AT ST. PAUL'S

'Christ in the Concrete City' Set for Production

"Christ in the Concrete City," a play with a cast of six, will be presented at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church April 4 at 7:30 p.m. The performance will be staged in the sanctuary of the church.

The play is described as an "attempt to portray the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, not only as something that really happened in history... but more than this, and much more important, it deals with something that happens now. In the lives of each one of us... The Son of God is crucified... Both by us and for us."

The east is drawn from the Presbians of Redford Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Calvin W. Didier, minister of the Redford Church, will make the introduction. Rev. Didier said that the uniqueness of the play is that it is presented without props, scenery or staging. During the course of the performance the cast will change characters several times, he explained.

"It is truly a dramatized sermon of that which is the very heart of the Christian faith," Rev. Didier stated. Appearing in the cast are: Paul Coffman, Arthur Maus, Donald G. Capp, Charles Livingstone, Connie Ernst, and Harriet Livingstone. The public is invited to attend. St. Paul's is located at 27475 Five Mile Rd., Livonia.

ARNOLD H. EXO

main theme of the lecture will be how the power of God is available in this age.

Mr. Exo is currently on tour of the North American continent as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. He left a successful career in sales and advertising work some years ago to take up the full time practice of Christian Science. He was a Wartime Minister to the armed services during World War II, and has since become an authorized teacher of the religion.

The title of his lecture is, "How Christian Science Reveals God's Healing Power."

Congratulations to Harry J. Will Funeral Homes... a Member of The Order of the Golden Rule

Each year, thousands upon thousands of families throughout this country and the world are queried regarding the services rendered by members of the Order of the Golden Rule. One of these, received last year from a family served by The Harry J. Will Funeral Home — one of our Detroit-area members — is so outstanding that the highest award the Order can bestow upon a member has been presented to the Will Funeral Home staff. The awarding of the Order's Bronze Plaque to Will Funeral Home is further proof that our member continues to offer "Service measured not by gold... but by the Golden Rule." Truly, we can think of no finer way for man to serve his fellows.

McCullers' Play Set To Open at WSU

Opening Friday (April 2) at the Bonstelle Theatre is "The Member of the Wedding," Carson McCullers' prize-winning play about loneliness and men's needs to reach each other. The Wayne State University Theatre production will be presented April 2 and 3, and Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 8 through 10 at 8:30, with a Sunday matinee April 11 at 2:30.

The play was first presented on Broadway in 1950, playing a long run and winning the Critics' Circle Award as the best play of the year. It is the story of the growth of Frankie, an adolescent girl searching desperately for a "We." But all the characters, including her most frequent companions, Berenice and little John Henry, also seem separated and suspended, reinforcing the portrait of loneliness.

The Wayne cast features Linda Ybarro as Frankie, Burnelle Avery as Berenice and David Merrill as John Henry. Also in the cast are Gail Bilko, Alleen Campbell, Council Cargle, Jack Delcomyn, Joan Glueckman, Joyce Kinonen, Robert Reid, Richard O. White, and William R. Wiltshire.

The production is directed and designed by Russell Smith, with costumes by Janice Snodgrass.

Tickets are available at the Wayne State University Ticket Office, available at TE 3-1400, ext. 265, and at Grinnell's in downtown Detroit.

Kendallarks See Full Week Ahead

Two appearances are scheduled for the Kendallarks during the next week. The women's choir, under the direction of George Assemany, will present concerts on both April 5 and 7.

On April 5 the group will provide the entertainment for the Ford Hospital graduating and alumni nurses in the Ford Hospital Auditorium. This is a return engagement for the Kendallarks as they sang several years ago for the alumni nurses.

'Little Foxes' Production Set in Farmington

The Farmington Players will present five performances of the tense and sinister drama "The Little Foxes" beginning May 7. All the performances will be at the Players Barn Theatre on 12 Mile Rd. in Farmington Township.

Written by U. S. dramatist Lillian Hellman, the play is the story of the cruelty, greed and grasping ambition of a hate-filled Southern household of 1900.

Called one of the most finely wrought dramas ever written by an American, the horror story holds keen audience interest in its feeling of impending tragedy.

The cunning and vicious Regina, Ben and Oscar—the Hubbard clan—enter into an agreement with a rich Northern investor to build a cotton mill. As the play unfolds, all four connive with great slyness to profit each at the other's expense.

Villainy of the three "foxes" stops at nothing. From the moment the curtain rises on the first act, tension begins to mount and moves swiftly and surely to a shattering conclusion.

Aldersgate Methodist Sets Concert

The Albion College Symphonic Band will perform at the Aldersgate Methodist Church on Beechdale in Redford Township at 8 p.m. April 5.

The band, conducted by Robert A. Riesling of the Albion music faculty, is currently conducting its spring concert tour throughout Michigan and Illinois.

The 42-piece group will present a program of 11 selections, focusing primarily on the music of contemporary composers.

Included on the band's program will be "Suite for Concert Band" by Gerald Kechley, "Divertimento for Band, Opus 42" by Vincent Persichetti, "Symphonic Songs for Band" by Robert Russell Bennett, "Folk Song Suite" by Ralph Vaughn Williams, "Night Soliloquy" by Kent Kennan, "Chant and Jubilo" by Francis McBeth, "Molly on the Shore" by Percy Grainger, "We All Believe in One God" by Johann Sebastian Bach (arrangement by Gillette), "Brighton Beach" by William Latham, "Three Joyous Marches" by Ernst Krenek and "Danzon" by Leonard Bernstein. Carol McCormick, Albion sophomore from Elkhart, Ind., will be flute soloist in the "Night Soliloquy" number.

IN A REHEARSAL POSE for comedy, members of the Redford Suburban League Theatre Guild prepare for a parody to "Put on a Happy Face" in the upcoming production "Hillzapoppin." Featuring a cast of 60 Redford Township residents, the production will play April 30, May 1 and 2 at the Redford Union High School auditorium. Pictured in the front row, from left, are Jean Sansone, Ruby Furr, Petrine Hamilton and Shirley Tomlinson. The men are Harold Mango, Ed Martin, Don Park and James Hamilton.

Seminarists to Present Spanish Morality Play

The Great Theater of the World, a Spanish Morality Play, will be presented by the students and faculty of Sacred Heart Seminary throughout the week of April 2 through April 11.

Staging of the production will utilize both ancient and modern dramatic techniques. The plot, based on a theme by Calderon de la Barca, reflects the tale of life and the importance for men of playing their roles in accordance with the will of God.

James Foote, head of Dramatic Arts at Mercy College, will direct the play.

As in the past, the major portion of the proceeds will be distributed to various charitable organizations, the remainder being used by the seminarists for their own apostolic projects as well as improvements in the facilities of the Seminary itself.

The schedule of performances is at 8:15 p.m. April 2, 3, 4, 9, 10 and 11. Matinees are also scheduled at 2 p.m. on April 4 and 11. For information contact the ticket office at the Sacred Heart Seminary.

Russia Is Milton Mayer's Speech Topic

The talk will begin at 8 p.m. at the Universalist-Unitarian Church. A question and answer period will follow.

Tickets may be purchased at The Book Corner and the Farmington Savings and Loan Association or by calling the Church at GR 4-7272.

Mayer, currently Scholar in Residence at Amherst College, is touring under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee. He is the winner of the George Polk Memorial Award and The Benjamin Franklin Citation for Journalism.

Eighty suburban gastronomes will gather together next Monday at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth for an epicurean evening replete with gourmet foods and bon vivant vintages.

The banquet will mark the culmination of a series of gourmet foods and wine evenings which 40 suburban wives and husbands have been enjoying during the past two months.

The dinner, which will be a leisurely affair lasting 3½ hours, will start at 7 p.m. in the Miles Standish room of the Mayflower with New York State champagne cocktails and hot hors d'oeuvre and canapes.

An advance review of the menu, which is still being architected by the chefs in the hotel kitchen, shows that the turtle soup will be followed by Rocky Mountain brook trout, petite breast of poulet stuffed with cognac-marinated chicken livers, filet of beef with sliced champignons, a special salad surprise and an original Mayflower dessert of scooped out honeydew melon filled with out-of-season watermelon topped off with a special grape, inasmuch as the juice of grapes sets the mood for the entire affair.

Each course will feature an Italian, French, German, or American wine. To add to the leisurely pace, knowledgeable wine experts who specialize in the vineyards of the geographical areas represented will tell of the vintages being tasted and delineate the reasons why they are appreciated by wine connoisseurs throughout the world.

According to Staton Lorenz, the Mayflower foods manager and wine expert who has guided his suburban students through Bacchusville during the past weeks, the dinner, will be an "experience" and set a landmark for the 1965 gastronomical season.

Lorenz promises to select rare vintages from the hidden recesses of his personal wine cellar as a salute to his suburban guests who wish to learn more about wine lore, wine customs, and wine entertaining.

The son of the Mayflower's owner, hotelkeeper Ralph Lorenz, Staton has studied foods and wines at Cornell University in the Finger Lake wine area of New York State. He is a member of exclusive gastronomical societies, some of which date back to the time of Napoleon.

The idea for holding a series of meetings to taste and discuss wines grew out of a gourmet course taught by Robert Wall, of Plymouth, last winter. The food-lovers, who came from many suburban towns, signed up for a Livonia evening school course which toured German, Chinese, and other nationality restaurants throughout the metropolitan areas.

After a semester of this, the adult students knowing that they needed a great deal more information about wines, asked Robert Wall and Paul Lutzeier, who became wine-knowledgeable while on a seven years overseas cultural assignment after the war, to set up a series of wine tasting talks covering the vintages of Spain, Portugal, Germany, France, Italy, and the Ohio, New York, and California producing areas of the United States.

These talks, given by wine experts and coordinated by S. Lorenz, were held in Plymouth. Colored motion pictures of the Rhineland, the Finger Lakes, and other producing areas in Europe and the United States were also shown.

The banquet, set up as a "graduation exercise and final examination" for those who were involved in the wine tasting discussions, is limited to 80 persons. Other epicures, who may feel left out, may be able to arrange an invitation out of Innkeeper Lorenz. It's certainly worth a try, wouldn't you think?

U. of D. Annual Chorus Concert This Saturday

The University of Detroit Chorus, under the direction of Don Large, presents its second annual Spring Concert on Saturday, April 3, in the Student Union Ballroom at 8:30 p.m. The concert program will include classical, popular, and spiritual selections, and a number of traditional folk favorites.

The U. of D. Chorus is itself composed of several groups, such as the Singing Titans, the Male Glee Club, the Girls Glee Club, the Quintones, the Powder Puffs, and Velma and Her Escorts.

The eighty-five voice vocal ensemble of the U. of D. Chorus makes an average of fifty appearances on and off the U. of D. campus each year. Chorus Director Don Large, a past producer of the award-winning "Make Way for Youth" Chorus, has also composed musical scores for commercial and industrial films.

One of his original compositions, "I Saw Stars," will be featured at the Spring Concert this year.

GOING 'CURTAIN

"All the men in town are old women. They think of nothing but their families, never the community. Is it any wonder that the whole fabric of our civic community is founded on the pestiferous soil of falsehood? The mayor of our town is slow-witted and hide-bound in his prejudices."

Recognize any of these statements? They could be repeated and said in any and all political campaigns, civil rights movements, or any local struggle for freedom of expression.

Yet they were written years ago by Henrik Ibsen, Norway's prolific, provocative playwright.

Last week the Plymouth High School thespians produced one of Ibsen's most volatile plays, "An Enemy of the People." In the play Dr. Stockmann incurs the anger of the entire community when he discovers polluted water in the mineral baths that lures the tourist trade to the city. He wants to shut the baths down. The townspeople say "no" since it will hurt business. The majority of townspeople would rather suppress the truth and put their own personal interests ahead of the morally correct course of action.

"Enemy of the People" has always been one of old Wally's favorite plays. If done correctly the play can shoot the sparks that ignite long hours of discussion—My trusty assistants covered the play last week and reported that Phil Hruska as the Mayor—stole the show. Tom Donnelly, Larry Smithson, and Mary Arnold added vitality and dimension to this play about these real problems in our complex society of today.

A more up-to-date handling of the script by Director John Kontos might have filled the auditorium to overflowing. The Plymouth High School players have, in the past, always had capacity houses. The natural dynamism in this script could have been publicized and I'm certain folks would have been knocking down the doors to see this deeply emotional production.

Again as I indicated last week "publicity" seems to be a problem. What can be done to bring audiences in large numbers to live theater?

Posters, news releases, displays, and local announcements are all good. They are fine as far as they go. However, these flat two-dimensional communication devices do NOT go FAR ENOUGH.

If you're publicizing a show, you must extend your reach beyond your wildest dreams. No scheme is too bold, too far out. Joe Levine, the master showman of the flicks, took a genuine dog of a movie, "Her- culus," and parlayed it into a four million dollar bonanza through use of flamboyant methods.

Psychologically, what people know and understand, they support. Live theater, unfortunately, is not an experience with which all people have had intimate contact. They truly don't understand theater. Movies, TV, radio are common, everyday occurrences in their daily experience. The theater has been a reconquered area, a vague unknown quality in their entertainment life.

Your publicity committee must realize this fact. To be effective with theatrical publicity you must do all the com-

War Requiem Performance Set

Benjamin Britten's War Requiem will be presented by The Detroit Symphony Orchestra with The Rackham Symphonic Choir at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, April 1 and Saturday, April 3, at Ford Auditorium.

Sixteen Ehrling will conduct the performance, assisted by Valter Poole, conducting a special chamber orchestra, and Marilyn Jones, conducting The Festival Boys' Choir. Soloists include Elinor Ross, soprano, George Shirley, tenor, and Morley Meredith, baritone. Charles Hurd is acting director of the Rackham Symphonic Choir.

The massive work will be performed alone on the program, without intermission. The performance takes about one and a half hours.

Tickets at all prices are available at the Ford Auditorium Box Office and at Grinnell's.

mon, expected forms of publicity plus a bit more to overcome this deep-seated problem: lack of universal contact with theater.

A more dynamic approach is one answer. Put the personal touch to your "back" (a press agent's term for publicity). Staging a tantalizing scene from the production at a shopping center, in the school auditorium during the assembly period, or at a women's club meeting. You can always find a ten minute spot in a local organization's program while they are adding up how much their club is in the red.

How about having some cast members dressed up in costume strolling through a shopping center? Establish a portable box office and have it manned by some of the cast for short periods of time? The main idea is to establish in the minds of your potential audience members that this is a three-dimensional event. They will be seeing real, live people up on that stage.

Gimmicks galore in which people, carloads of them, are involved push the publicity campaign up and over the top. You can't get enough of them going. Naturally, you need personnel to carry out your ideas. Don't hatch any more than you can properly handle in a competent fashion.

In the future, if any local community groups should like any consultative help in this field, Old Wally is perfectly willing to discuss the matter at one of your meetings. There may be one or two philosophic points you might want to clear up.

Chamber Music Concerts Announced for Spring

The Third Annual Constantine Cultural Society Chamber Music Series was announced today. Gordon Staples, well known Detroit violinist and Associate Concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will return as Musical Director for the two concert series scheduled for Monday, April 12, and Sunday, May 9.

For the connoisseur of chamber music this promises to be a memorable occasion and, perhaps, the highlight of the spring season. Staples, who is also producer of the Flint and Grosse Pointe Summer Chamber Music Festivals, will bring to the stage two artists who need no introduction to Detroit audiences: cellist, Paul Oefsky and pianist, William Doppmann.

Oefsky, formerly First Cellist with the Detroit and Philadelphia Symphony Orchestras, is now Concertizing Artist with NCA in New York. Winner of many awards including the coveted Naumberg Award and the Michaels Memorial Music Award (the only cellist to have received this honor), Oefsky comes to Detroit fresh from a scintillating reception in Europe where he received standing ovations in such cities as Salzburg, Munich, and Amsterdam.

Doppmann, considered one of the most talented young pianists on the American scene, will be remembered here for his brilliant performances during the Grosse Pointe Chamber Music Festivals. Winner of the Naumberg, Leventritt, and Michaels Awards, Doppmann is currently Artist in Residence at the State University of Iowa.

Staples, a noted international performer, having appeared with numerous outstanding orchestras throughout the United States, Canada and South America, will combine with Doppmann in the first concert that will include works from Brahms (Sonata No. 2 in A Major, Opus 100), J. S. Bach (Allemande, Courante, Sarabande, Gigue, from the D Minor Partata), Paganini (Caprice No. 24), Samuel Barber (Sonata for piano, Opus 26), and Greig (Sonata No. 3 in C Minor, Opus 45).

The second concert brings together Oefsky, Doppmann and Staples in a program that includes Handel's Sonata No. 4 in D Major, Ravel's Trio in A Minor, Debussy's Sonata No. 1 in D Minor, and Mendelssohn's Trio No. 1 in D Minor, Opus 49.

The concerts are scheduled for 8:30 p.m. at the Sts. Constantine and Helen Educational and Cultural Center located on Oakman Boulevard at West Chicago.

Tickets are now available at Grinnell's Downtown, Detroit, or by calling KE 7-4793 for mail orders.

ROSE JEWELERS COLLECTED STAR DREAMS... TRANSFORMED THEM INTO BLUE-WHITE DIAMONDS* SET IN ARTCARVED MOUNTINGS TO CREATE...

Dream Diamond Rings

Blue-White star dreams brought into reality for a very special finger... "Hers". This is the much-to-be-loved Artcarved mounting. The swirling, 14 karat settings are elevated to release all of their captive diamond beauty. Our new Dream Diamonds are the proudest swans among the squat ducklings of ordinary rings. Diamonds daringly raised to the utmost freedom, utmost glory. Pure in form, light elegantly sculptured they express the aristocratic taste of our time. See our Rose collection of Dream Diamonds before you decide.

Prices on Blue-White diamonds range from $150.00 to $1,000.00
 depending upon weight and size of diamond.
 All models available in all price ranges.

*"Blue-White" diamonds as required by U.S. Federal Trade Commission appear blue or bluish in the north light or its equivalent.

Desert Dream — A flash of blue-white diamond brilliance in a sweeping 14 karat gold setting.

Surf Dream — Builds to a climax of blue-white diamond elegance in a magnificent 14 karat gold setting.

Diamonds enlarged to show beauty and detail of design.

Cathedral Dream — A classic blue-white diamond poem, slender, pure, impressively different, set in 14 karat gold.

Patrician Dream — Reflects the song of true love in a stunning blue-white diamond set in 14 karat gold.

Rapture Dream — A sculptured 14 karat setting captures a blue-white dream of a diamond.

Sale! 1.99 Fibreglas 36-in. tier curtains 1.67 pr.

New! Burlap look of wash and hang Fibreglas® glass. Matching valances... 1.19 ea.

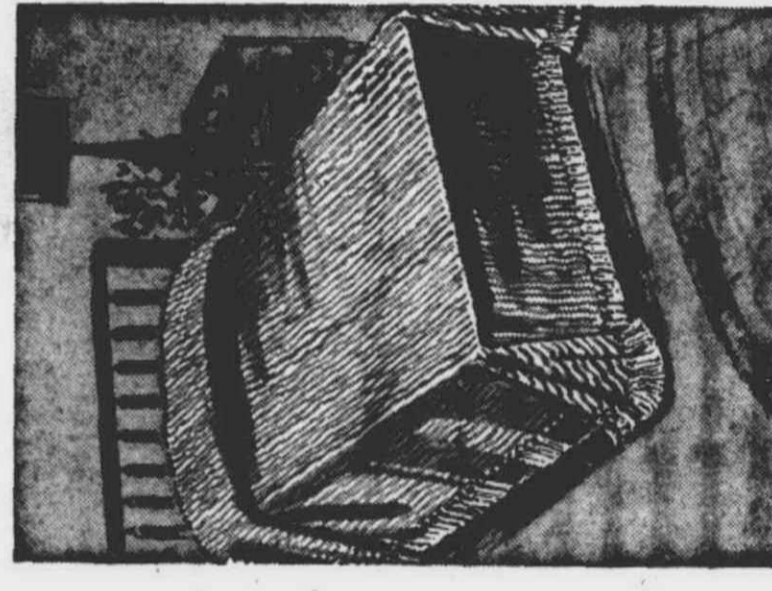

One of the best reasons for buying these shoes-- is something you don't talk about.

That something is the price. You pay a mere $5.99 for the boat pumps with the side detailing, $6.99 for the one with the floating bow. At these prices, you don't expect the new rounded toe. But Thom McAn gives it to you. Or the kind of calfskin that's soft like butter. But Thom McAn gives you that, too. So keep mum and nobody will ever guess how little you actually paid. What's that? You love to tell people when you get a bargain? In that case, go ahead and tell. (You'll be doing us a favor.) But most people won't believe you. Thom McAn
