Picks Jabara as Mayor Pro-Tem

Council Names Houk Mayor

James Houk, prominent Plymouth shoe merchant and senior member of the City Commission in service, Monday was elected Mayor and James Jabara, co-owner of the Plymouth Tank Co., named Mayor Pro Tem by fellow commissioners.

Houk, who was sworn in for his second four-year term a week ago, succeeds Richard Wernette, who ended eight consecutive years of service and thus, under the charter, wasn't eligible to run for a third term as a Commissioner.

Jabara is in his third year of his first four-year term with the Council. Houk had served as Mayor Pro Tem for the past two years and it was generally considered certain that he would be the choice of the Commission for the Mayor's post. The Commissioners made their choice in a caucus late last week when it became apparent that only four would be on hand for the all-important initial meeting of the new Council. George Lawton, Robert Smith and George Hudson indicated at last week's special session — called for the swearing in of the newly elected members — that they had plans for Easter vacation trips.

Thus, the group met and unanimously selected Houk and Jabara and instructed Commissioner Arch Vallier to make a motion nominating the pair and recommending a unanimous ballot be cast. Vallier's motion was seconded by James McKeon and the election took place as ordered. Then with the election out of the way, the four Commissioners settled down to the business at hand on the agenda and went on with the regular meeting.

Vallier gave the Commissioners something to think about when he requested a complete financial report of the Urban Renewal project on Mill Street up to this time.

He told the group that there is a possibility of other Urban Renewal projects but that he would like a complete report on the progress of the present one before even thinking of additional ones.

Donald Bidwell, 1465 Ross, was appointed to the zoning board of appeals to fill the unexpired term of Frank Beach. The term expires on December 1, 1965.

The Commissioners agreed to hold a hearing and adopt the budget at the May 17 meeting. Acting City Manager Kenneth Fisher promised to have the proposed budget in the hands of all before the end of the week.

A special hearing on the proposed street improvement projects will be held on April 26 at 9 p.m.

The Commissioners agreed to meet with the Plymouth Township Board on May 13 to determine what arrangements can be made to transfer water patrons in the Plymouth Colony subdivision in the Township water system.

Residents of the area petitioned for the change earlier and the City Commission agreed with the understanding that the final arrangements be made with the Plymouth Township Board.

The Commission will meet with the planning board on May 5 to discuss the future of the firm of Villean and Leeman as planning consultants.

Permission was granted to Passage Gayde Post of the American Legion and Mayflower Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars to conduct the annual Buddy Poppy sale on Thursday, May 20 with Friday, May 21 as the rain out date.

The Commission gave first reading to a proposed Drive-In Restaurant ordinance that will be discussed fully when all members are present.

PLYMOUTH'S Easter parade took place Sunday afternoon in the rear of the high school when the Jaycees entertained more than 800 kiddies in the annual Easter egg hunt. These parents (above) had to coax their daughter to participate but look at the big smile (below) when she quickly picked up two of the packages of candy. The Jaycees had more than 1,100 bags of candy and cartons of chocolate eggs ready for the rush of the kids, who cleaned up every single one within nine minutes.

Evans Picks New Head of Research

William K. MacCurdy, formerly Senior Research Engineer with the Stanford Research Institute, Menlo Park, Calif., has joined the Transportation Equipment Division of Evans Products Company, Plymouth, Michigan, as Chief Engineer—Research.

The announcement was made by J. P. Moorhead, the Division's Director of Engineering and Patents, who said that MacCurdy would be responsible for the development of criteria and concepts for new railroad cars and damage-prevention equipment.

MacCurdy is a graduate of Alma College and of the University of Michigan.

He was employed at Stanford University from 1947 to 1950 as an instructor in Engineering Mechanics and from 1950 to 1952 at Westinghouse Electric Corporation, Sunnyvale, Calif., as a Design Engineer.

In 1952 MacCurdy joined the staff of Stanford Research Institute. Here he was engaged primarily in mechanical development work.

Three Considered For Vacancy

Township Board Studies Supervisor Appointment

With a deadlock existing between the old guard and the comparative newcomer trio, the matter of selecting a supervisor for Plymouth Township to succeed the late Roy Lindsay is just as far away today as it was a week ago when the Board learned it had the right to make an appointment.

The same opinion was received from the Wayne County Prosecutor's office and from the Michigan Township Association. Each agreed that the selection of a successor rested in the hands of the Board. However, no action was taken on the matter in last week's meeting and as of Monday afternoon there was no indication when the Board would call a special meeting.

Although all members have been reluctant to discuss the matter, it appears as if several names have been tossed into the hopper and all will be considered before a definite move is made.

Two years ago when John McEwen was appointed clerk to fill the vacancy created by the death of Fred Miller, the indication was that he had been selected for that post and as a possible successor to the aged Lindsay who wasn't in the best of health even then.

It was thought that McEwen would be the logical choice for the post as soon as the Board learned whether it could appoint or whether an election would be required to fill the vacancy.

There still is a strong indication that McEwen will get the job although there are at least two others who are being considered, if available.

The names of Capt. Fred Davids, of the Michigan State Police, and Frank Millington, who plans to retire from an executive position at Cadillac Motors in the near future, have been heard.

Davids, a longtime resident of the Township, is being considered for the position of State Superintendent of the State Police. Should he get that job, then he would automatically be removed as a candidate. However, should he be passed by, then he could become a prime candidate since he is eligible for retirement.

Millington, former Township Highway commissioner, has been a leader in several of the Township civic organizations. It is known that he would be receptive to an appointment to the Board either as supervisor or as a Trustee.

Meanwhile, Board members are studying the situation from all angles and it is thought that a meeting will be held in the near future to resolve the deadlock.

As matters stand, Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes and Trustees Lou Norman and C. Veach Sparks comprise the old guard with Clerk McEwen and Trustees Ralph Garber and Dick Lauterbach on the comparatively newcomer group.

It is very evident that an appointment must be made soon since several matters that must be signed by the Supervisor and the Clerk are stymied by lack of signatures.

That's why it appears the Board will have to take a stand rather quickly whether members want to or not—the Township can't operate too much longer without a Chief.

TAKING OATH of office are the recently elected members of the Plymouth City Commission. The group includes: (from left) Robert Smith, James Houk, James McKeon and George Hudson. Then, with the swearing-in ceremonies finished, the Commissioners went into a caucus and elected Houk as Mayor and Commissioner James Jabara as Mayor Pro Tem.

Township Rejects Suggestion for Consolidation Talks

With a charter already in the hands of the Governor for a proposed City of Plymouth Heights and a vote scheduled on the document by midsummer of 1966, the Plymouth Township Board doesn't feel it has a right to sit down with any groups for a discussion of consolidation of the Township and City of Plymouth into one governmental unit.

That was the decision reached in last week's meeting in answer to a letter from Sam Hudson, a Township resident, who suggested that the City and Township appoint committees to present the pros and cons of consolidation to the citizens.

"I don't think we should enter into any kind of discussions until the matter of the charter and the vote on the proposed City of Plymouth Heights is decided," opined Trustee Ralph Garber.

"The eastern part of the Township is actually in the City of Plymouth Heights as such. Therefore, I don't feel this Board has any right to discuss consolidation of governmental units at this time. There may be a time for such talks in the future but not until after the vote on the charter."

Other members of the Board concurred in Garber's thinking and voted unanimously to inform Hudson of their decision.

Start Spraying, Warn Residents To Move Cars

City of Plymouth residents were warned Monday by Department of Public Works Supt. Joseph Bida that spraying of trees for the Dutch Elm disease is under way and cars should be removed from the streets until the work is completed.

"Workers start spraying at 4 a.m. when weather conditions are right," Bida said. "We will spray only those trees that can be reached from the streets."

"Cars should be removed from the streets during this period since the spray will leave marks on cars. Crews are starting the job from the north end and working south but as of this moment we can't announce a schedule—the wind can't be more than four miles per hour and we can't determine when the wind will be right."

Taxpayer Raps Road Conditions

Ray Kimball, who resides on N. Territorial at the corner of Dunn Court, was told by the Plymouth Township Board that members appreciate the fact that the roadway in Dunn Court isn't kept up but they are powerless to do anything about it.

The road is under the jurisdiction of the Wayne County Road Commission and complaints must be filed with that body.

The Trustees informed Kimball that they would be happy to refer a letter to the Road Commission telling it of the complaint but that they couldn't act officially.

Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes told Kimball the property owners have the right to petition the Road Commission for a public hearing on the matter and can ask for a black or hard top covering.

This would have to be paid for by the property owners over a period of five years.

Kimball complained that residents of the area are getting very little for the tax dollar and requested action at once.

The Trustees explained that the Board by law is allowed only one mill for operations and that the majority of the tax money goes to the school district.

"Maintenance of the public roads is the problem of the Road Commission," said Moderator Dick Lauterbach. "We would like to say we could help but we can't do a thing in this matter."

To Lure Industry Water Expansion Gets Approval of Township Bd.

With thoughts of industrial expansion paramount in their thinking, the Plymouth Township Board has approved extension of a water main along the west side of Sheldon Road from Five Mile to the C&O Railroad, west adjacent to the tracks, underneath the rails at Ridgewood and then south to the new mains on North Territorial Road.

The Detroit Water Board, through General Manager Gerald Remus, informed the Board that it will run a main through the City of Northville and south along Sheldon Road to a point 220 feet south of Five Mile Road where it can be picked up by the Township.

"We have a wonderful opportunity for industry in that agriculture land north of Western Electric," said Clerk John McEwen. "Water has been one of the chief drawbacks for development of the acreage and we all feel this will lead to the greatest industrial boom in the Township history."

In other actions, the Trustees: Tabled action on the request of the Plymouth Colony subdivision for water until a Supervisor is appointed. The Board did agree to meet with the Plymouth City Commission to discuss the transfer of the water service in the area from the City to the Township.

Tabled a request from the Calvary Baptist Church for permission for a temporary hookup with the Township sanitary sewer until a determination is made of action by Canton Township.

Tabled action on the rezoning of the Robert Willoughby property until a new supervisor is appointed.

Approved a building permit for Heritage Apartments, slated for construction at the intersection of Sheldon and North Territorial Roads, on the basis of plans submitted. Heritage officials asked permission to maintain. (Continued on Page 18A)

Seeks Oldest Business

Herald Hamill, president of the Plymouth Historical Society and chairman of Heritage Day during Michigan Week, is looking for the oldest individually owned business in the community.

Hamill believes there are some businesses that have been in continuous service for more than 75 years—but he isn't sure and would appreciate tips from oldtimers in the community.

If you have any ideas, mail them to President Herald Hamill, Plymouth Historical Society, on Main Street.

Colorful Ceremonies to Highlight College Dedication

Residents of the Schoolcraft College district, which includes Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Clarenceville and Northville will receive their first taste of college tradition Sunday when the administrative, Board of Trustees and faculty participate in the colorful, formal dedicatory ceremonies slated to start at 3 p.m.

It will be a history making occasion, marking the culmination of more than seven years of work, effort and achievement by the Northwest Wayne County Community College district in establishing its first college campus.

Every citizen in the college community is invited to attend the ceremonies which will open with the solemn procession of faculty in full regalia. The colorful academic hood each faculty member wears will signify his or her degree and the university from which they were graduated.

The ceremonies will be held in the spacious and beautiful open court in front of the administration building on the campus at W. Seven Mile and Haggerty Roads in Livonia.

The audience will take an active role in the formal rituals to emphasize the close and necessary relationship between the college and the community.

Kenneth L. Hulsing, of Plymouth, who worked for the establishment of the College, will represent citizens of the district and present the college key to Harold Fischer, chairman of the Board of Trustees. Fischer in turn will present the key to Dr. Eric Bradner, President of the College.

As a tribute to the foresight and cooperation of all citizens, an original composition "Fanfare and Dedication," will be performed for the first time by Schoolcraft College music students and guest musicians.

Vernon Knight, of Plymouth, was commissioned to compose the dedicatory anthem especially for the occasion as a fitting symbol to honor the citizens of the college district.

A college hymn, composed by Ralph Kelley and Wayne Dunlap, members of the college, will be sung by the faculty choir.

Dr. Ferris Crawford, Assistant State Superintendent for

General Education Services in Michigan, will deliver the principal address, "The Birth and Growth of a Community College."

Among those in attendance will be representatives of the State Government, officials from each of the participating cities and administrators and faculty from the various school districts.

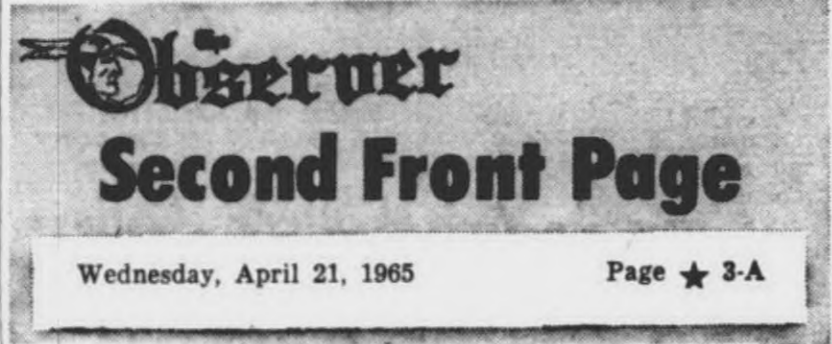

The college campus parking facilities have space for more than 2,000 cars. Main entrances to the parking lot are located on both Haggerty and Seven Mile Roads.

Following the ceremonies, the public is invited to make a tour of the building, grounds and classrooms. A special dedicatory booklet to commemorate the first year of operation will be distributed as a gift moment to each person present.

The booklet carries the complete history of the college, the significance of its names and pictures of the Board of Trustees, administration, faculty and the curricula and educational programs offered.

In case of inclement weather, the ceremonies will be held in the Library.

THE NEW MATH Modern Math —A Puzzler?

(Editor's note: "Modern Math" is a term heard more frequently in suburbia's classrooms. Most school districts in this area today employ at least part of the new mathematics in some parts of their curriculum.)

(To give OBSERVER readers a first-hand report of the exciting changes taking place in math classrooms, Charles Zoet and William Kumbier, mathematics consultants for the Livonia Public Schools, have prepared a three-part series of articles. The first appears below.)

WHAT IS IT?

Just what is modern about mathematics? It seems that what my son is doing in mathematics is very much like what I did. He is still adding, subtracting, multiplying, and dividing, but there are all of these ridiculous restrictions as to how he may or may not do it and these strange number bases. It appears that the object is to confuse him and his parent.

Bewildered parents everywhere have been questioning the new mathematics. But give these parents a little background in it and they have become the most ardent supporters of this movement to improve the teaching of mathematics.

Actually today's students will be doing most of the mathematics that their parents did and more. But it will be arranged so that students will come from their exercises with an understanding that will carry into future applications.

There are fewer separate situations with a new bag of tricks for solving each of them.

$$5x^2 - 45 \\ 5x(6+3) = 5x6 + 5x3 = 30 + 15 \\ 5x(8-1) = 5x8 + 5x(-1) = 40 - 5$$

This set of exercises is typical of those likely to be found in a modern mathematics program. The fact that any number may be broken down (distributed) in this manner when being multiplied by another number is one of the basic ideas (axioms) used in all work with numbers. The box below shows the development of this idea in grades 3-12.

Table with 2 columns: Grade Level and Sample Problem. Shows mathematical exercises for grades 3 through 12, illustrating the concept of breaking down numbers for multiplication.

Does the idea seem too simple to be important? Mathematics educators are claiming that nearly all of the basic ideas (axioms) about numbers are as simple as this and can be taught early in school. Incidentally, lack of understanding of the basic idea we've illustrated has been a major stumbling block to high school seniors and college freshmen taking mathematics.

BASIC IDEAS—AXIOMS

The fact that all work with numbers depends on a small number of such "axioms" is the foundation on which modern mathematics which people who are not specialists use or study is work with numbers in some form. Even geometry, which seems non-numerical, is closely related to the study of numbers, and uses the same axioms. Nearly everyone can learn early in their mathematics training the "axioms" which they need. By constantly re-using and expanding on these ideas they will have formed a solid base for the mathematics in areas which are not so closely related to the use of numbers (i.e. logic, topology) simply need to learn and develop a different set of basic ideas (axioms).

By becoming more adept at using familiar axioms will strengthen their ability to use those which are not so natural and we can expect an increase in the number and quality of mathematicians.

HOW NEW?

How new is the "new" mathematics? Until the early 1800's mathematicians used mathematics which closely resembled that taught in most school until the very recent years. Then Gauss, Galois and others became intrigued with the idea that these were underlying concepts connecting all previously learned mathematics.

They quickly recognized these concepts and began to look at what happened if these ideas were changed. The result of this study was the birth of a number of new kinds of mathematics—exciting new geometries, topology, probability, and others—all of which at that time were only of academic interest to professional mathematicians.

"Necessity," the mother of invention took over. The growth of industry and an increase of scientific experiments drew on these "academic" areas for some very practical applications. The coming of the electronic computer accelerated this movement.

"Necessity" took the form of the introduction of mathematics into new and, often, bizarre fields—designing very complicated circuits (as for automatic pilots), determining the characteristic of large samples (as a boatload of ammunition), predicting outcomes (as weather, life insurance, or elections), making choices between several apparently good alternatives (as determining where to store automobile parts to service a large region), determining what had happened in an experiment when the only evidence is presented by instruments which do not (none does) give exact readings (as in engine tests, or rocket launchings)—all of these and a thousand others have placed stress on using these once "academic" ideas.

WHAT TO TEACH?

The explosion in number and types of applications of mathematics led to serious questions about whether the mathematics being taught in schools would prepare students to participate in the explosively new uses of mathematics.

NEXT WEEK—The Mathematics Explosion Hits Education.

5,500 Kids Join Hunt

Some 3,420 colored eggs and 16,420 pieces of candy were "hunted down" by approximately 5,500 youngsters Saturday in the Annual Easter Egg Hunt, sponsored by the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation and the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Food markets contributing eggs were Country Style, EZ Food Market, Fidler's, Walter Farfen, Elias Brothers, L & L Market, Quik-Stop Foods, West Pointe, Food Fair, Kroger and A & P.

Phil Pavlic, Jaycee Chairman of the event, was assisted by his group and Jaycette Auxiliary, who provided Sue Sobolewski, Jane Skaryd, Colleen Vincent and Patricia Fleming as Easter Bunnies at the hunt sites located adjacent to Whitman School, Roosevelt and Botsford Schools.

Assisting in the coloring of eggs were girl scout leaders, Mrs. Chudy, Mrs. Staley, Mrs. Palareto and Cub Scout leader Bob Brown.

Salinger's Book Receives OK At School Board Meeting

J. D. Salinger's controversial novel Catcher in the Rye will stay on the supplementary reading list for high school advance placement English classes in the Livonia School System.

That's what the Board of Education decided upon following a formal complaint lodged by Thomas A. Daoust of 17711 Fairfield, Livonia, charging that book "constitutes the teaching of a religious position — Atheism" and that it "degrades the sanctity of sex, making it appear sordid and arouses puritan interest."

The Board voted to keep the title on the reading list by a vote of six to nothing with one abstention and one member out of the country on business at its meeting last week.

Voting in favor of maintaining the status quo were: Steve Polgar, A. Edward Katz, Lonnie Brashear, William Craft and Strela Schreiber. Joseph A. Milko abstained from voting and Board President Robert Cain is in Japan on business and was unable to attend the session.

The resolution, which was introduced by Dr. Katz, expresses a vote of confidence in the staff's selection of books and commends the "excellent job" done by the committee. Board Trustee William Craft seconded the resolution.

Milko stated that he was abstaining from the motion because he was interested in seeing how the book was presented in the classroom.

"Drugs when prescribed by a physician can help the human body, but used in the wrong manner drugs can also ruin the body. It's the same with books. I am not taking any stand on this one way or the other," he continued. "Things can be said for both sides."

He told the Observer after the meeting he didn't think it proper for the Board to start approving each book. "We approved a policy," Milko asserted, "and once the Board starts to review each individual book it is stepping out of line."

Pat Daoust, who helped her husband form the League for the Protection of Parental Authority, to deal with this matter and the question of psychological testing in the schools, stated after the meeting that petitions would be the next step. She said that the League had 217 names on file of people agreeing with the objection to Catcher.

Daoust told the Observer following the organizational meeting of the League that the petitions would probably go to Governor Romney's office.

Parents and students jammed the Board room and overflowed into the hallway to hear a report on the novel from "The Committee on Book Criticism."

In addition to the report they heard:

A restatement of the objections from Daoust;

A statement by Superintendent of Schools Benton Yates; and Comments on the book from each of the seven members of the Board that were present. They also heard the pros and cons of the book from the audience.

The Committee, which was headed by Viola K. Fitch, coordinator of library services, set three objectives for itself:

To find answers to certain questions relating to Board policy and staff procedures;

To examine the book in question, and the evaluative criticisms of this title as expressed by local staff members and authoritative outside sources; and

To apply the facts, judgments and authoritative opinions available in an assessment of the validity of the complaint received by the Board.

Under the section of the 32-page report entitled Application of the Facts, Judgments and Authoritative Opinions in an Assessment of the Validity of the Complaint Received by the Board, the Committee states:

"Procedures used in the selection of The Catcher in the Rye... have been in accord with Board of Education policies and generally approved practices.

Such selections have been based on the collective professional judgments of teachers and librarians. This selection has involved weighing the maturity of the students, as well as the content and potential effect of the book itself.

"The proposition that this book constitutes the teaching of a religious position — Atheism — is lacking in any factual basis in the opinion of the Committee.

"The contention that the expression of 200 'goddams' and a similar number of 'Chrissakes' appear in this novel, and for this reason the book should not be used for teaching in a twelfth grade English class does not deserve serious consideration. The book must be appraised in its entirety and not by judging isolated words or passages.

"A total reading of this book makes the reader fully aware of the fact that Holden Caulfield's innermost feelings on sexual matters are highly moral.

"The Committee feels that it is important to have young people read current, realistic literature which has been selected for the educational benefits anticipated by teachers and librarians. There is a maximum probability of realizing the values in such literature when its study is guided by professional educators. Attempts to isolate youth from life about them is a forlorn hope and an unacceptable alternative."

Under the "conclusions" the report noted that "of all the alternatives for the selection of books and other learning materials, the best remains that of placing the responsibility in the hands of the most competent teachers and librarians that a community can afford to employ.

"Along with this responsibility," the report continues, "is the expectation that the professional staff will keep parents and administration informed, to the end that parents may participate in making decisions about material which is to be read by their own children, and which may be in conflict with their fundamental philosophies and values."

Schoolcraft To Enroll For Summer

Schoolcraft College will enroll students for the summer sessions during the first week of classes, May 3-6, according to Dell Reed, Director of the Evening College.

Reed indicated that openings remain in classes in accounting, art, business, including data processing, salesmanship, shorthand, typing and law, drafting and design technology.

Students, who have not previously enrolled, may register for these classes even though they have not yet completed application for admission. The application can be completed at the first class session.

Students, who have completed counseling tests at the college, may enroll in all classes for which they qualify including English, mathematics and all other academic courses.

Students are requested to come prepared to complete all details of registration the first night of class, and should report directly to the room in which the class is to be held.

The first summer session ends June 26 with the second opening June 28 for eight weeks.

Reed anticipates as many as 600 will attend the summer sessions.

Eagles Slate Area Meeting

Members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles from throughout Southeastern Michigan are planning to gather in Redford Township April 24 and 25 for a two-day Conference.

Twenty-six areas will join in the program, which will start with a business meeting Saturday night, and continue with a social meeting, a drill team parade and other activities Sunday.

Jack McDonald, Redford Township Supervisor, will greet the delegates.

Local Eagles lodge is located at 24401 Five Mile and meetings are set for there and for the Lola Valley Masonic Temple.

2 Area Postmasters At Chicago Conference

Acting Postmasters William Donner of Garden City and James Grater of Plymouth were among 13 from the State of Michigan who recently attended Phase 1 of the Postmasters' Orientation Training for new postmasters in Chicago.

Donner and Grater spent three days in the Windy City at the regional headquarters receiving first hand information details of their jobs.

The Orientation and Training program for new postmasters is part of Postmaster General John Gronouski's course to help all postal employees get a better understanding of their position.

Also attending the program were 13 acting postmasters from Illinois. The class met and discussed operation, personnel, accounting and transportation problems with staff members of the regional office.

The course also included a tour of the vast Chicago Post office, largest mail handling facility in the world.

New Law Aimed at C&O's Sudden Halt in Local Train

LANSING—The C and O Livonia and Plymouth, as Railroad, which has a route through Redford Township, well as all other inter-state lines, will be forced to get permission from the state Public Service Commission before discontinuing trains in the future.

So reads a new law, signed by Gov. George Romney last week following its overwhelming passage in the state legislature.

Strong impetus for the bill came after the C and O cancelled, on minutes' notice, its daily afternoon service from Grand Rapids and Lansing to Plymouth and Detroit.

About 250 schoolchildren—including two classes of Redford Township youngsters—were left stranded in Lansing by the action. The C and O said this week that it had ordered the swift cancellation because of fear that the Legislature would act to approve the law freezing schedules. It said that the afternoon train, along with one other daytime run, had been losing money at the rate of $140,000 a year.

Adult passengers were given bus tickets to make the trip to Detroit after the swift cancellation, and schoolchildren were placed aboard a special train.

Gov. Romney, in commenting on the new law, said, "Under the circumstances, I think this is a necessary piece of legislation. Certainly a public service of that type should not be discontinued as suddenly as was the case and without full consideration of the public as well as the private effect."

Livonia, F'ton, World War 1 Vets Plan Future Activities

James R. Reeves, 29335 Jacqueline, Livonia, Commander of the Farmington Barracks, Veterans of World War One, was invited to the past and present officers at his home on Thursday, April 15.

The gathering was to plan future social activities for this group of war veterans whose average age is 70 years.

An invitation was extended to all World War One veterans to join in the social and service welfare work being carried on. Roi P. Mathieu of 14393 Yale Ave., Livonia, is a Past Commander and now serving as Adjutant.

The Farmington Barracks was formed in 1958 and serves all of Farmington and Livonia. Meetings are held the second Thursday of every month. For further information, Commander Reeves can be reached at GA 5-7593 and Adjutant Mathieu at GA 5-0585.

The Veterans of World War One is a national organization with more than 250,000 members. More than 8,000 live in Michigan with their headquarters in Lansing. Meetings in Farmington are in the American Legion Home on Grand River Avenue.

PICTURE TALK by Les Wilson

TRAVELING?

I can tell by the kinds of pictures my customers are bringing in for processing that traveling has been a widespread activity recently. And a travel agent friend tells me his busiest days are just starting. One thing he told me that came as no big surprise is how many people now take trips abroad... to Europe and other places that once only the wealthy could afford. There sure are more opportunities than ever for taking pictures.

If you are planning such a trip, you'll be wanting to take along a camera that's a born traveler... one that takes up little room, is simple to use, and takes great pictures. And isn't too expensive. The new KODAK INSTAMATIC 500 Camera is just the ticket for travelers.

It loads instantly with film in handy drop-in KODAPAK Cartridges. It has zone focusing so you don't have to measure distance to subject, a great convenience for the hurry-up kind of shooting a traveler often does. It has five shutter speeds so you can get sharp pictures of moving objects such as boats or planes. And an electric eye takes all the doubt out of exposure times or lens openings. A pointer in the viewfinder tells you when the lens is set correctly for the existing light. Of course, this camera has a great many other features introduced by the KODAK INSTAMATIC Camera line... little things that make picture-taking more fun and more rewarding. Since these are among my own favorite cameras, I'd really enjoy showing them to you. Especially the "500" I've been talking about.

Seek Aid for Tornado Victims

Aid for victims of the tornadoes which struck several parts of Michigan last week is being sought by several local residents.

Furniture—of any kind—for victims of the Branch County tornado is being sought for relatives of local residents. Information is available at 426-6748. Residents of Branch Co. will send a truck to the western Wayne County area to pick up donations.

And, to aid a family on social security which supplemented its income with a small print shop, used printing equipment is being sought. The Coldwater couple lost its entire shop, with only a small amount of insurance. Information on such donations should be telephoned to The Observer's editorial department, GA 2-3160.

Wayne State Plans Courses at Thurston

In response to local demand, Wayne State University's Applied Management and Technology Center will offer two courses in the Redford Township area at Thurston High in a special compact term during the months of May and June.

Taught by specialists from business, education and industry, the courses include electronic data processing, foremanship, supervision, mathematics, salesmanship, psychology, management and business English.

The courses scheduled for Thurston High are: "Supervision and Development of Personnel," on Wednesday evenings in charge of Barry Brown, superintendent of personnel, warehouses and delivery for the J. L. Hudson Company; and "Practical Job Psychology" on Thursday evenings in charge of Peter Ulbrich, supervisor of educational personnel research for Cadillac Division of General Motors.

Classes start the week of May 3 and will meet once a week for nine weeks from 7 to 9:40 p.m. Registrations begin April 26 and the tuition is $38 per course.

For additional information and class schedules, contact the Center at 640 Temple, Detroit, or call 831-7695 or 831-1775.

List Series of Concerts For Students

Elementary grade students in Plymouth's public and parochial schools will be treated to Detroit Adventure's "Excursions in Music" concerts on Tuesday and Wednesday, April 27 and 28 under the auspices of the Plymouth Symphony Society.

A woodwind trio, from the Detroit Symphony, including Arno Mariotti, oboe; Paul Schaller, clarinet; and Charles Sirard, bassoon, will furnish the entertainment for concerts:

The entertainment will be for students in grades 4 and 5 at the elementary schools and grades 5 and 6 at Junior High West.

The concerts will last from 30 to 45 minutes. The schedule for the two days:

Tuesday, April 27 — Smith School at 10 a.m. followed by concerts at Junior High West and Farrand schools in the afternoon.

Wednesday, April 28—Gallimore at 10 a.m. followed by afternoon concerts at Allen and Bird Schools.

Students from Our Lady of Good Counsel and St. Peter's Lutheran will attend at Bird School and those from Starkweather will go to Gallimore school.

Golden Rooster Loses Its Gold

Architects Start First Plans on 3 C'ville School Additions

Architects have been asked to prepare preliminary plans for three new building projects in the Clarencville School District, following the success of a bond and millage issue.

Building plans will get underway at Edgewood Elementary and the Junior and Senior High Schools.

At Edgewood, five additional classrooms, a conference room and an enlarged multi-purpose room are on the drawing boards. The Junior High School's second floor will be completed by the addition of nine regular classrooms, a music area for the band and choir and more storage space in the gymnasium.

At the Senior High School, a two-story wing will be added at the South end of the building. This will include 10 regular classrooms, a language area, a commercial area, two audio-visual classrooms, a special education room, more counseling facilities, an auditorium, and improvements to the library and cafeteria.

Architects chosen are Dolner, Rollason and Rokicki, Architects and Engineers, Inc. A number of personnel changes were approved by the Board of Education at its last meeting. A leave of absence was granted to Jacqueline Henderson. Leaves of absence were terminated by Board resolution for Stuart Johnson, Claire Richmond, Janice Bergstrom and Constance Sisch. Jacqueline Davies will resign at the end of this year.

The Board will study needs to improve existing conditions at parking lots at the district's schools.

College Calls Meeting of FHS Seniors

Franklin High seniors, who plan to enter Schoolcraft College in the fall, are urged to attend a meeting on April 28 at 8 p.m. at the school. Information will be given by College Administrators concerning the college program.

Applicants who attend will receive a copy of the newly issued college catalog.

Dean Lois Waterman stresses the importance of high school seniors attending the meeting since the general orientation session will give the background for individual counseling meetings to follow.

College counselors will be at Franklin on May 24 through May 28 to enroll students in their respective courses. Those not presently attending high school but planning to attend Schoolcraft will be given individual counseling dates beginning early in June.

Torch Drive Names Area Directors

The Western Wayne Planning Division of United Community Services, at its annual dinner elected Charles E. Barnett, Redford Township, as Vice-chairman to serve with Mrs. John (Delora) Yori, Chairman, of Garden City.

The appointment of the following new members to the Board was announced by Dexter Ware, Chairman of the UCS General Planning Committee.

Appointed for one year terms were: Philip Dingley, Canton Township; Ted Kuckelman, Nankin Township and Belleville; and O. E. McDanold, Dearborn Heights.

For two year terms: Gerald Fincke, Nankin Township; Mrs. John M. LaRue, Livonia; and Milton Pollock, Redford Township.

For three year terms: William Faust, Nankin Township; Mrs. Myrtle Morgan, Inkster; Mrs. Peter Stevens, Livonia; and John F. Stubenvoll, Northville.

Suburban Gourmets Graduate

"It was an experience all of us will long remember. It was the gastronomic event of the suburban season."

This was an evaluation of the epicurian "graduation exercise" for students of a gourmet foods and wine course held at the Mayflower Hotel last week.

Among the Livonia participants were Steve and Nancy Polgar of 15755 Southampton, Paul and Marie Miller of 30512 Jeanine, Dorothy and Robert Greene of 18150 Fairfield, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Buck of 9975 Flamingo, Mr. and Mrs. William Atkinson of 14700 Ingram, Deloris Moore of 37739 Seven Mile Road, Thelma Jaste of 19024 Blue Skies, and many other vintage-curious residents of Garden City, Plymouth, Farmington, Redford, Nankin Township and Detroit.

The banquet marked the completion of a series of gourmet food and wine evenings which have been attended by some 40 suburban residents who wished to "broaden their cultural and gastronomic horizons" by studying the relationships between wines and foods, the geographical areas from which wines come, the proper serving techniques, the folk lore, the varieties of grapes used, and related subjects.

The evening began in the wine cellar with a cocktail hour featuring Burgundy colored Kalt Ente and a golden Pierre Perignon champagne from New York State. Colorful and tasty hot and cold hors d'oeuvres and assorted canapes were bountifully served by culinary experts from the Mayflower staff.

At the formal dinner, held in the main dining hall, a New York state Widmer light sherry was served with an earthen pot of fresh turtle soup.

The fish course was Rocky Mountain brook trout, bonne

STEVE AND NANCY POLGAR enjoying pre-banquet hors d'oeuvres and Kalte Ente in the Mayflower Hotel wine cellar. The "gourmet dinner with vintage of the world" climaxed a series of evenings in which suburban gastronomes learned about wine lore, vineyards, viticulture, and the wines of Europe and America from continental experts and local enthusiasts.

femme, with a 1961 Dordogne Blanc de Blanc Leparon.

The fowl course consisted of baked petit breast of chicken with forcemeat stuffing au Cognac. With this was served Est, Est, Est a semi-dry white Moscattello wine from Italy.

A salad of hearts of palm on Kentucky limestone lettuce with a creamy continental chefs dressing was served.

The meat course, served with a Chateau Monconseil-Le-Tour, was file of beef Bordelaise with sliced champignons, freshly ground black pepper, and marquis potatoes.

The dessert, a Mayflower creation was mellow rainbow served with a 1961 Chateau Roumire Barsac.

Among the wine experts on hand were gastronomical master-of-ceremonies Staton Lorenz, a graduate of restaurant and hotel management at Cornell, Vienna backgrounded Ralph Lorenz, the "gemuetlich" proprietor of the Mayflower, John and Larry Leone, a father and son team regarded as top experts on German, French, and Italian vintages, Carlos Garrisi, who has traveled extensively in European and American wine areas, and other professional and amateur wine connoisseurs.

Paul Lutzeier, coordinator of the wine course, said that many of the students had developed unusually fine perception in evaluating vintages.

Of the wines served, Nancy Polgar said that she particularly liked the Chateau Roumieu. "This sauterne has a delicate body and aroma and had many flavor nuances." She said, "It reminded me of a Hungarian Tokay. It was not only smooth but had taste overtones which reminded one of apricots and fresh cut peaches."

Anne Lutzeier, of 7271 Plymouth Road, selected the light sherry from the New York Finger Lakes area as her favorite.

"It's aged for six years in the open, on the roofs of the Widmer winery in western New York," she said. "When our family visited the Finger Lakes last year we saw them stored there but didn't know that the summer heat and the winter cold helped to improve the flavor."

Steve Polgar was especially pleased with the red wine served with the beef course. It was dry and fully matured. Staton Lorenz had told the group how he had selected and bought up most of this Chateau wine several years ago within hours after shipment was landed at the Port of Detroit.

Bill Atkinson and his recent bride Janet, took home one empty bottle of each of the many vintages tasted "for our glass collection" they said. Many of the suburbanites plan to build small wine cellars in their basements. Members of the "class" plan to get together during the summer months to compare notes, sip wine, and exchange gourmet recipes.

Bob Wall, Plymouth resident and educator who started with the gastronomical group last fall, pointed out that appreciation of fine food and compatible drinks is growing in the suburbs.

"Yes, indeed," said "student" Deloris Moore, "we all hope we flunk the "course" so that we can take it again next September."

LUNCHING LADIES enjoyed Spring inside Franklin Community Church at the Hill and Dale Garden Club's third annual luncheon and fashion show even though there was a gale of snowflakes outside. "Bird On The Wing", title of the afternoon was carried out in theme in table decorations. Newbill-Abner Exchange Vows Wedding vows were exchanged between Linda Kay Newbill and Charles R. Abner, U. S. Army, Saturday, March 20, at the Church of Christ, Plymouth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Newbill of Plymouth and the groom is the son of Mrs. Edna Abner of Vada, Ky. and the late Charles Abner.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in Chantilly lace over satin, with a sabrina neckline, accented with seed pearls. The floor length gown was fashioned with a chapel train. Her veil was attached to a satin crown covered with pearls. Her cascade bouquet was made up of white orchids and roses.

The aunt of the groom, Mrs. Carl Stamper, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of light blue peau de sole.

Bridesmaids were Linda Paschal, Belinda Pate and Patty Aspenwall of Plymouth and Jeanette Abner, sister of the groom of Vada, Ky. They wore identical floor-length gowns of blue peau de sole with matching head dress.

The best man, uncle of the groom, was Carl Stamper. Ushers were Ron McMullen, Larry Oldham, Don Stamper, cousin of the groom and Kenneth Newbill, brother of the bride, all of Plymouth.

Flower girl and ring bearer, cousin of the groom, was Lola Bradley and Mark Stamper of Plymouth.

The mother of the bride chose an ice blue crepe and lace dress with blue and white accessories. Her corsage was pink roses.

The mother of the groom chose a blue lace dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were pink roses.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents were hosts to the reception in the church basement.

The bride chose a Navy blue, three-piece suit and matching accessories, for the wedding trip. The newlyweds have gone to Kentucky and then will be stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas. The new Mrs. Abner graduated from Plymouth High School in 1963. Her groom is a 1962 graduate of Beattyville High, Kentucky. He entered service after graduation.

To Women It May Concern

By Louise Kuder

Every once and again the basket on the woman's desk marked "misc." overflows to the floor and then it is time to share it with you.

An eye-catcher on the top this week is the wonderful idea of Project "Operation Tree." Sister Raynald, President of Madonna College, was delighted to accept a gift of 300 trees donated to the college campus by Allen Harlan from his estate, 3535 North Adams Road, north of East Maple Road in Birmingham.

In conjunction with Arbor Day friends, relatives, citizens are invited to go to Harlans, (bring along a shovel, water bucket and some burlap), dig up a small tree and plant it at Madonna College. The trees can be dedicated to anyone you wish. Operation Tree is scheduled for anytime between April 24 and May 1. It will not only enhance the beauty of the college campus, but will be a living memorial to a loved one — or perhaps in honor of the youngest child in the family.

There appears to be on the scene a couple of men dedicated to making the life of ladies a happier one. Dr. Francis Rhoades is one. If his idea works ladies clubs will be casting Dr. Rhoades' image in gold statues in the park. He has come up with a pill, which presently is being tested by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration that "can preserve the femininity of females past 40." Older women can regain or keep many of the appearances and feelings of youth by taking a programmed daily series of pills.

Dr. Rhoades told about a 70-year-old widow who took the pills — and by golly it wasn't long before she looked much younger with a sparkle in her eye and a skip in her gait. The doctor said they wouldn't cost more than 10 cents a day and there was increasing evidence they would help prevent cancer. Hope they put on an extra crew and work night and day — some of us could use the skip in our gait.

Senator Edward J. Robinson of Redford Township introduced a bill in the State Senate last week to ban detergents from Michigan that produce so much suds they clog sewers and spoil Michigan's water supply.

If his bill passes after Dec. 31 it will be unlawful to sell in Michigan any of these washday products that leave mountains of suds long after the washing is done, dried, ironed and put away. "We don't want the Detroit River or other rivers or streams in Michigan turned into a cloud of suds," so said the Senator. No longer do we soak ladies — we must get out the board and scrub.

And then there are those around who figured out ways to worry us.

Someone took the time to figure exactly how much the little bundle in bunting is going to cost you and your husband until the time he is 18.

These figures are computed on the basis you have an average child—genius-types are a trifle higher. The sum total of the junior or jane for the modest income family is $12,000; for the well-off family $20,000 — the posh family off-spring wasn't computed.

- Being born, including doctor and hospital: $200-$600.
- Minor illnesses: $1,000. Double or triple that amount if surgery or braces are needed.
- Food (including occasional meals for friends): $10,000; $500 less for girls.
- Clothing: $2,500; higher for a girl.

Add the costs of "incidentals": haircuts, permanents, toys, entertainment, vacations, music and/or dancing lessons, Sunday school, etc.

How many children did you say you plan to have?

See You There!

The books range from five cents to one dollar with a variety of topics covered; children's stores, school subjects, fiction, etc.

Assisting Mrs. Barbara Summerlee chairman as her committee are auxiliary members Mrs. Nancy Hawley, Mrs. Margaret Salmeto, Mrs. Judy Nester, Mrs. Pat Pasterz, Mrs. Dotty Buckley, Mrs. Beth Hawes, Mrs. Jody Schauder and Joan Jeter. Mrs. Pat Geimer is director in charge.

NEW ADDITION AT MONROES

Triplets were born April 12 to Raymond and Roberta Monroe, W. Six Mile, Livonia. Mrs. Monroe returned to her home on Monday with Kevin Paul and Karen Joyce doing well, however, the third triplet, Keith Allen, died during the week. The Monroes have two other girls one boy, 11, 10, 6. Papa Monroe is planning on adding on to their home.

Industries Show Confidence in Michigan With Expansion Progress

LANSING — Expenditures of $16,359,000 for new plant facilities were announced by Michigan companies during the first quarter of this year, B. M. Conboy, director of the Michigan Economic Expansion Department, announces. The 1964 total for new plant facilities by Michigan firms was $1.6 billion.

"While the first quarter report indicates expansion of facilities by Michigan firms is moving along at a record rate, it is still too early to forecast what the total for the full year 1965 will be," Conboy said.

"Last year's total included a very large amount by General Motors to be spread over a three-year period. However, the first quarter does indicate our economy is still very strong and moving along at a very satisfactory rate."

Manufacturing firms announced $237,909,000 of the first quarter expansions; utilities, $285,425,000; and non-manufacturing companies $93,025,000.

A familiar pattern holds true in the expansion of Michigan companies. Most of the growth is coming from firms already established in Michigan. Move-ins account for a small part of the overall growth total.

"This barometer shows industries are doing well in Michigan, confident of their future here and are not hesitating to commit their expansion funds to Michigan locations," Conboy said.

The Michigan Economic Expansion Department long has recognized that emphasis to promote more industry should be concentrated on companies already doing business in the State. However, the department works closely with companies outside Michigan planning to expand.

Two unusually interesting move-ins of this type were announced in the first quarter. Beech-Nut Life Savers, Inc., will build a $10 million plant at Holland and employ 350 people. American Playground Device Company, of Anderson, Indiana, will move its entire operations from Anderson, Ind., to Nahma, the former lumber town on Lake Michigan, bringing 200 more jobs to the Upper Peninsula.

Significantly, no move-outs were recorded in the first quarter.

The Economic Expansion Department movement of industry report for the first quarter, which includes move-ins, expansions within and without the State, was 90 per cent favorable, up slightly from the 1964 full year rate. This is another favorable indicator for the Michigan economy.

There were 48 expansions by Michigan companies at present locations, five at other locations in the State, five new starts and one reopening.

Among the major expansions announced by Michigan industries in the first quarter, were: Chrysler Corporation, $187 million.

Michigan Bell Telephone Co., $122 million.

KVP Sutherland Paper Company, Kalamazoo, $25 million over next five years.

Kaydon Engineering Corporation, Muskegon, $2.5 million.

Consumers Power Company, $92 million.

DeVlieg Machine Company, Royal Oak, $700,000.

Peet Packing Company, Chesaning, $500,000.

Sealed Power Company, St.

Non-Teachers Get Pay Raise

The Farmington Board of Education approved the 1965-66 salary schedules with additional benefits for all non-teaching personnel at their meeting Monday evening.

The secretarial staff will receive an across-the-board improvement with minimum and maximums in each classification up $200. The annual increment which is part of the existing salary schedule has been raised from $200 to $250.

Jobs on the maintenance staff will change from three categories to two in the coming school year. This change in structure was arrived at through agreement of the union, school administration and school board. All maintenance men will be classified whether skilled or semi-skilled with salary minimums and maximums up for both classes.

Operational staff improvements and increments include $250 raises at both minimum and maximum levels for custodians and heads of buildings. Salaried janitors will receive a $250 improvement with the annual increment of $200 unchanged. Hourly janitors will get slight minimum and maximum salary raise per hour.

Transportation staff improvement is 10 cents an hour. Cafeteria personnel are paid out of the revenue from lunches served to the children. To keep the lunches at the lowest possible price and to encourage the highest participation in the lunch program, this staff has requested a minimum improvement of five cents an hour with the maximum raised to a sixth year. First year employees will receive $1.35 with a maximum at $1.65 at the sixth year.

Johns, $2.75 million.

Steelcase, Inc., Grand Rapids, $1.1 million.

Anderson Tank & Mfg. Co., Flint, which bought a building in Holly where it will employ 150-200 people. (Capital expenditure not announced.)

Lear Jet Corporation's Stereo division will start operations in Detroit with 300 employees, expected to be increased to 500 in the near future. (Capital expenditure not announced.)

3 Garden Clubs Hold 25th Anniversary Lunch Shopping Around—with Penny Wyse

By JERRY WENDT

Three Garden clubs, Plymouth, Northville and Rosedale Gardens held their 25th Anniversary luncheon at Lofy's Arbor Lill, Tuesday, April 13.

Over 240 smartly dressed members of the Tri-Club lunched at tables attractively decorated with tulip plants (later given as table prizes). Each individual place was marked with a paper wooden shoe, lace trimmed, on which members wrote their names.

The menu featured such delicacies as breast of chicken, rice milanese, and lemon tarts.

Mrs. Henry Borman and Mrs. Frank Hokenson ably performed their duties in introducing the speakers.

Mrs. William Ullenbruch gave an unusually interesting program. She is a member of the Michigan Division of the Farm and Garden Clubs and spent a month in Europe. Holland was one of her favorite visits.

Members of the Tri-Club vicariously lived her memorable trip as she illustrated her talk with colored slides. She showed pictures of her hosts' and their homes, the festivals and the streets and canals of Holland.

Mrs. Ullenbruch had requested an authentic Holland costume and at the close of her trip, her hostess presented her with an outfit which is still worn in some parts of Holland today. She appeared in this outfit, and everyone in the audience wanted to examine it more closely. So stiffly starched was the cap that it appeared to be made of plastic.

Mrs. Ullenbruch is past president of the Michigan Division of the Farm and Garden Clubs.

The Rosedale Garden Branch acted as hostess of the luncheon, making the arrangements of the day with Mrs. Harry Borman acting chairman and Mrs. Frank Hokenson mistress of ceremonies.

GUEST SPEAKER, Mrs. William Ullenbruch in her Dutch costume is admired by Mrs. Carson Johnston, Livonia; and Mrs. Pat Kimahan, Redford Township.

TRI-CLUB luncheon guests looking like Spring gardens themselves are (l-r) Mrs. Henry Lentz, Plymouth; (standing), Mrs. Edwin Spicer, Livonia; and Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Plymouth.

"Shopping Around" this week we found some good advice for the little lady of the house who also must do the handy man chores.

No, we didn't find any ways to get the man of the house to assume the responsibility—just a way to make the chores of grass cutting, for example, a whole lot easier.

In fact, this will be a good excuse to get out into the yard for a good tan this summer on the pretense of working—because it really isn't work at all—it's fun.

The answer is a TORO FLYMO—which is a power lawn mower that floats on air! I know, it sounds incredible—but it is true. The Flymo has no wheels! It hovers like a hummingbird while its 19-inch blade lifts the grass up straight and clips it cleanly with never a skip or a scalp.

It is absolutely safe—and it is amazingly lightweight with complete maneuverability. Perfect for slopes or terraces or any terrain where trees, fences or other obstacles are a problem.

You have to see it to believe it—and you can at Burton Hollow Hardware and Livonia Hardware in Livonia.

Ancestors Of Revolutionary War Veterans Hold Dinner

The Plymouth Corners Society of The Children of The American Revolution whose members live in Plymouth, Northville, Livonia, Farmington, and Birmingham held a dinner meeting this week at the home of Mrs. Frederick Campbell, Beck Road, Plymouth.

The group had Fred Ayers, State President, from Battle Creek, as their honored guest who formally installed the new officers for the 1965-1966 season. They are Larry Carlson, president; Barbara Doyle, vice-president; Mimi Merwin, secretary; Susan Benson, treasurer; and Mark Saunders, chaplain. Also present at the meeting was Mrs. George Merwin, senior state president.

The theme for the evening was American Music and each member present contributed a short talk about our national anthem, Stephen Foster, patriotic songs, and famous old favorite American songs which are loved and sung by people of America and the world.

The highlight of the evening was a full length color sound movie about the life of Stephen Foster obtained by Mrs. Robert Willoughby, a member of their sponsoring chapter, Sarah Ann Cochrane, Daughters of The American Revolution.

This group of children is under the guidance of Mrs. T. H. Benson, Sr., president, Morningstar Drive, Livonia, and assisted by Mrs. Eugene Entz, Beck Road, Northville. Anyone interested in obtaining information regarding membership may call either of the above women who will be happy to advise them. Anyone who has a Revolutionary ancestor is eligible.

Culmination of a Dream

Seven years ago a group of citizens from Redford Township, Livonia, Clarenceville, Garden City and Plymouth sat down to discuss the possibility of a community college for the area.

Seven years later, the culmination of that dream will come on the campus of Schoolcraft College, W. Seven Mile and Haggerty Roads in Livonia, when formal dedication ceremonies will be held to signal the end of the first year of operation and to give residents of the college district an opportunity to visit the facilities as they exist today.

The dedication is scheduled for Sunday afternoon at 3 in the colorful mall in front of the Administration building. Should weather interfere, then the program will move into the Library where it will be limited to an audience of around 500.

In the early planning, there were such names as Ward McCain of Livonia, Kenneth Hulsing of Plymouth, Clark Oldenberg of Garden City, Harold Fischer of Plymouth, Erwin Brown of Livonia to mention a few who aided in the preliminary work.

The Bureau of School Services at the University of Michigan assisted educators and citizens in establishing the plans for the Northwest Wayne County Community College.

It became a reality in 1961 when voters in Livonia, Plymouth, Clarenceville and Garden City voted approval and okayed a one mill levy. Redford Township faded out of the picture then and even a later vote failed to get the necessary majority.

In June, 1963, Northville electors approved the college and became the fifth community behind the project.

Even before the first building was completed on the campus, the Board decided on the name of Henry Rowe Schoolcraft for the college. He had a great influence on this section of Michigan during the 19th Century as an explorer, Indian agent, author, regent of the University of Michigan and as a scholar.

Then with a college approved and finances assured by vote of the electors in the five communities, the Board announced a definite purpose. The goal is to provide career programs for students not going on to four-year colleges; to provide transfer programs for those who wish to go on to four-year colleges; to provide a technical institute for the community; to provide both day and evening opportunities for youth and adults and to co-operate with school systems and civic groups in bringing a wide variety of educational opportunities to the area.

Three permanent buildings were completed by August of 1964 when the college went into its first year of operation with an overall enrollment of more than 1,800. This is expected to go as high as 3,000 next school year when a second year of classes will be added.

Although it is just completing its first college year, Schoolcraft already has state accreditation and is looking forward to accreditation by the North Central Association within a reasonable time. The NCA already has had some of its personnel visit the campus.

Recently, the College received a federal grant of almost a half-million dollars for the construction of a new technical building on the basis of matching funds and the Board is looking at plans now for a new Campus Center that will be available for the start of the 1966-67 college year.

On the drawing board are plans for a new Liberal Arts building which will be under construction as soon as matching funds are made available by the State of Michigan.

And when these buildings are completed, Schoolcraft will be in a position to take care of as many as 5,000 to 6,000 students with an ultimate goal of more than 10,000 in the years to come.

This is your college. This is your chance to see what your dollars have brought. It behooves all to go out to the Schoolcraft College campus for the traditional ceremonies that will mark the formal dedication of a college that could reach an astronomical enrollment within a matter of five to eight more years.

Principle Right, Tactics Wrong

The Dominican friar who has formed the basis for a goodly portion of philosophy and theology, Thomas Aquinas, has defined truth as "the conformity of the intellect to reality."

In sounds simple, but unfortunately it just isn't.

A case in point has been the recent controversy on "Catcher in the Rye" being on a supplementary reading list at Bentley High School.

On the one hand are the teachers and staff members of the Schools who contend that it is right and proper that "Catcher" be used as supplementary reading material.

On the other hand are the parents, led by Thomas A. Daoust, who contend that this book will corrupt the youth and that this is an infringement upon parental rights and responsibilities.

In fact Daoust believes so strongly in this point that he and a group of parents, have organized "The League for the Protection of Parental Authority."

These parents have a legitimate point about parental rights, responsibilities and duties and it is refreshing to see a group of people defend and protect their rights. However, their methods in this case leave something to be desired.

No complaint was made either to the teacher, the principal at Bentley, or the Superintendent's office about the use of the book. They simply turned up at a Board meeting one night and demanded to be heard. This action is somewhat similar to trying a court case beginning at the Supreme Court level.

On the other hand the specifications laid down by the Schools that every parent should receive a reading list should be strictly enforced. The statement in the report presented to the Board of Education that "A Syllabus or outline for the class in Advanced Placement English for the entire year is sometimes sent home with every student" is more than a little disturbing.

Why aren't such lists always sent home? Why doesn't the Board recognize the parents' rights and responsibilities and make this an iron-clad rule? If the excuse is that the students don't bother to give the lists to their parents why not mail them directly? Surely this is just as important as the report cards which are mailed to the parents?

The Board upheld the use of the book as it felt that this was the will of the majority of the people.

This is a wise decision because in the overall "perspective" of the book it is discernible that the author is making a point through the objectionable passages.

This is the crux of the issue—whether or not the author, J. D. Salinger includes the words "Goddam" and "For Christake" 200 times plus the other objectionable passages to make a point or was merely to increase sales. It is the opinion of most reviewers (but not all) and most educators (but not all) that Salinger is saying something in this manner.

SUE SHAUGHNESSY

Has the Time Come?

There is nothing so powerful as an idea whose time has come.

This eternal verity, as much as anything else, accounts for the civil rights revolution that is presently reshaping this land.

Happily, the voting rights bill, which Congress is about to pass, should soon wipe out the remaining vestiges of discrimination, and thus bring the revolution to a close.

Where then will go the crusading American spirit that has successfully won great victories for abolition, women's suffrage, organized labor, and civil rights—along with the brief lark of prohibition.

American progressives are now turning their attention to the pockets of poverty that remain in our society.

Less perceptible, but we would think undeniable, is the increasing attention being paid to the impoverished condition of our standards of government.

It has become clear that, unless these standards are raised, we can never hope to achieve anything approaching a great society.

As it is now, conflict-of-interest is the rule rather than the exception at all levels of government.

To say that this is solely the fault of venal politicians is to completely misunderstand the realities of politics. Cliche though it is, it is none the less true that people usually get about as good government as they deserve.

Politicians are generally men of higher integrity than their non-political brethren. But the pressure on them in this day of big government is in varying degrees tremendous.

Human nature being what it is, only laws can protect the public interest.

At present, even the most blatant conflict-of-interest is seldom illegal.

In the Legislature of the State of Illinois, a freshman Representative, and scion of a distinguished family, Adlai Stevenson, III, has turned his attention to this cancerous problem. He has created legislation that, if passed, will specifically define conflict-of-interest, and will make it a penal offense for both legislators and lobbyists.

Picking up this theme, Rep. John Bennett, of Redford Township, has introduced a similar bill. It would create an ethics board within the State Legislature. Violations of the Board's rules by the legislators, would constitute a felony.

The immediate future of this bill, we would guess, is not bright. Nor is it likely to increase its author's popularity in the House.

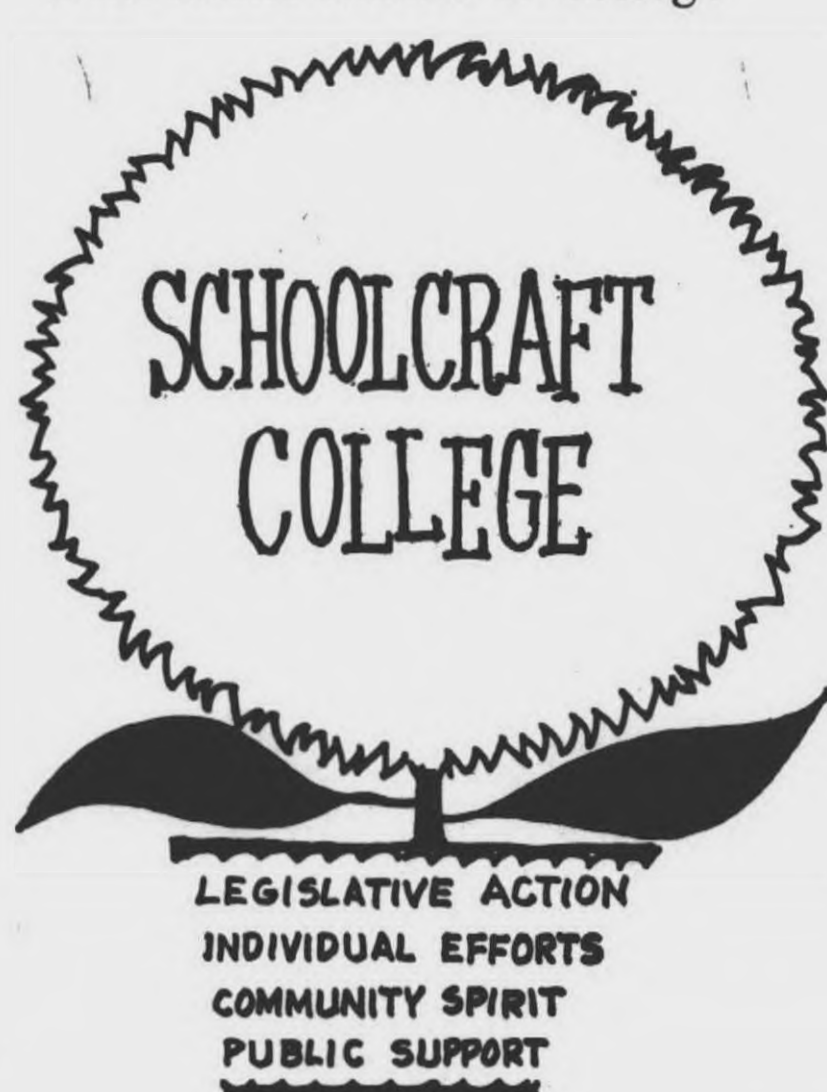

But Rep. Bennett's courageous act deserves the support of his constituency, and of the public at large.

Such legislation is long overdue—and not merely for state representatives.

The time for higher public standards may not have come yet. But it surely will come. And when it does, Representatives Stevenson and Bennett will have been said to have helped it along.

Teamwork Makes a College

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

The invitation reads simply: "The Board of Trustees, Faculty and Administration of Schoolcraft College request the pleasure of your presence at the Dedication of the Campus, Sunday, April 25, 1965, 3 p.m., 18600 Haggerty Road, Livonia, Michigan."

It is not an elaborate invitation and it does not truly reflect the dedication and desire of those who fought so hard for the idea of the college to serve this area.

I don't suppose there is any way an invitation could.

There are those of us who remember, however. Of course there were many, many people involved in the planning stages, on the committees, in the election campaigns.

But way back 10 years ago—three years before they had the meeting of the five-community district to discuss the college—there were those who were talking it up, Ray Kenyon of Garden City, Bob Keene of Redford Union, and Tom Kirby of South Redford.

Three others, all of whom have since died, fanned the idea to keep it alive—my husband, Paul Chandler; Claude Snarey; and Ward McCain.

I remember the night when Ward insisted on attending a meeting that was important to the college location—and his friends had to carry him into the meeting, so important was it to him to cast his vote. A few weeks after that he died. It must seem really strange to those who don't even go to the polls to vote at all.

Claude Snarey spent many an hour poring over maps, figures, surveys and the like—proving the need, talking to others, visiting successful accredited colleges. A lot of extra energy on his part. Paul, too, put aside personal time to devote himself to writing, prodding others with stories and releases on the community college idea.

As a member of the Citizens' Site and Housing Committee, I was acquainted with the many man-hours put in by citizens serving on all committees. Each committee was assigned to work with professional people—and no detail was too small to be overlooked in the planning.

Because of the determination of so many to make Schoolcraft the fine college it is today—and because we knew it would be so, those of us who cared anything at all about Redford Township were sorely disappointed when residents of both school districts turned it down at the polls twice.

Particularly, since those against it deliberately influenced many voters with distortions and lies—such as "the college is a scheme by Livonia politicians to build their cultural center at Five Mile and Farmington," or that it "would cost $40 million a year," or that "it would be strictly a vocational school." All lies.

Ironically enough, even if every person in Redford Township votes "no" next fall, they will still be taken into a giant Wayne County Community College District. All areas in the outer city (which include Redford Union and South Redford School District) that are not in Schoolcraft College District, must bear the expense of building at least six community colleges—mainly vocational— at a cost estimated up to $40 MILLION A YEAR!

Schoolcraft costs, as Redford was told and retold seven years ago, $1.8 million a year— one-eighth less—and they will not have nearly as much in common with the proposed college as with Schoolcraft.

In Redford Union where the school tax rate is the highest of any of the surrounding districts (36.30 mills) it could really be a terrible burden to the taxpayer.

In South Redford the tax rate is 22.10, but still many higher income bracket people dream of a son or daughter in an academic course rather than in a vocational one.

Look around you and see what those who told you to vote "no" before are saying about this one.

Those of you who are interested in questioning a little further may contact your representative to the network of colleges to cover you and Detroit. In South Redford there is Richard Guregian, Finance Committee; Mrs. Victory Manker, Publicity; Gene Simescu, Curriculum; and Emil Alberti, Site and Housing.

And in Redford Union there is Milton Pollock—the only representative—and the administrators are not sure just what committee he is attending. They are not too enthusiastic about being a part of this and are much concerned—and so they should be.

Urgent Call for Scout Leaders Sounded

(This is an open letter to all mothers, fathers and anyone who likes to work with girls. This is a call for volunteers for Girl Scouts.)

Editor:

Some of the present Girl Scout leaders are quitting and some will "fly up" with the girls. Thus, there is a desperate need for new leaders. In addition to leaders, Scouts need the following: assistant leaders, camp crafters, first aiders, committee mothers, day camp help, helpers for crafts, nature study and even sponsors for the various troops.

What is needed, however, are Troop Leaders. My Brownie Leaders will fly up to Juniors in June. Therefore, seventy Brownies and Juniors are now waiting for troops and leaders.

Girl Scouting isn't just a passing fancy. Today there are twenty-two-and-a-half-million Girl Scouts. This is a world wide movement for girls between the ages of seven to seventeen.

Leaders believe that to be a Girl Scout is an important part of growing up.

Personally I gain so very much from working with the girls. Any leader wonders how she is doing with the girls. I received my answer when I became ill and missed so many troop meetings.

The many cards, special letters, pictures and even phone calls I received provided the answer. When I returned to the troop the girls' happy smiles and "I'm glad your back" quieted any lingering doubts.

As so many other mothers I first went into Scouting so that my daughter Paula would have a troop. I have been more than repaid for the hours that I spent in training and plan to stay on as a Brownie Leader.

Training is offered for prospective leaders. This runs one day a week over a four-week period or a total of 16 hours. On the last day all the time is spent outdoors. You cook your own meal over a campfire. On this day you receive a card saying that your training is completed and that you are ready for your own troop of girls.

Girl Scout office for the Farmington area is Southern Oakland Girl Scouts Inc., 1202 Catalpa Drive in Royal Oak. The neighborhood chairman is Mrs. Leonard Stidwell at 474-4565. She's the gal to call about the training course and to be put in touch with the troop organizer in your area.

We need help now in order to be ready for the fall term. I hope that this letter helps to find some new leaders. Call the Girl Scout office for further information or call me and I will try to help put you in touch with the proper person.

FRS Statement

Editor:

As one of the last official acts of the FRS Group before dissolving on April 5th, it was decided to send this letter to the City of Farmington explaining our feelings on the outcome of the recent election.

We sincerely wish the best to all the councilmen, newly elected, re-elected and the incumbents.

In our estimation, this has been one of the most active campaigns in Farmington's recent history. As a result of this campaign, there are more private citizens taking an interest in the city's affairs, and it is our sincere hope that they will continue to do so. If they do, we are sure that they will be there as a constant reminder to the present councilmen, and, in this manner, will prompt these gentlemen to act to the best of their abilities.

It is our feeling that the FRS Team was victorious because its primary objective was to alert the people of Farmington to the fact that an improvement is needed in the city government. The fact that a total of 2,371 votes was cast for the FRS Team substantiates this feeling. The individuals who were a part of the former FRS Group will continue their active participation in civic affairs and will watch to see if the new council members will carry out their tasks as they have indicated.

On behalf of all the FRS campaigners, let us say that everyone in Farmington should benefit by better government because of the FRS Team.

CARL F. HOEHNER,
Public Relations Chairman
FRS Campaigners,
Farmington.

Questions Library

Editor:

I just recently attempted to use a reference book at the Farmington Public Library and was refused by the librarian, Mrs. Mildred Droege. The reason I could not use the book, she informed me, was because I was a high school student and that the high school teachers had requested that their students not be given the service of using this particular book.

The book was a masterplots reference volume, for which purpose I was going to compare my idea of the plot of Virginia Woolf's Jacob's Room to that of the scholarly version. My motive for using the masterplots was an honest one, but I do certainly know of "students" who abuse this helpful reference by copying verbatim for their papers.

A public library's function, however, is not to cater to some certain group's idea of who should be allowed to read a book, but rather to provide the service that taxpayers and taxpayers' children need and request. This is my concept of the purpose of a public library. Perhaps another understanding I formerly held about our public library was that another of its purposes was to aid the student.

Granted, some "students" have taken advantage of the heretofore availability of the masterplots series, but is it the position of Farmington's public library to decide who shall be admitted access to certain books and who should not be? The Farmington Public Library has, though, taken this position, and to me, it indicates either that Farmington Public Library is merely an extension of the school-administered Farmington Senior High Library, or that the community of Farmington is so "one-horse" that the requests of a few can still govern the service of a public institution for thousands.

Let's Cover Trash

Editor:

We are residents of Nankin Township. Last November we were informed that all rubbish, trash, etc. should be placed in containers with lids. Failure to comply would result in issuance of a citation.

We have done our best to comply. However, some of our neighbors are still putting out overflowing, uncovered containers. In many cases this is done the night before collection day. As a result papers and trash fly around the neighborhood all night. Why is this being allowed in a so-called "nice neighborhood"? We are tired of picking up other people's trash from our lawn and yard.

Want More Than Old

Concerning the letter signed by "A Disgusted Citizen" in the Observer, March 24, (signed by "seven Livonia citizens, all in one block"—Ed. Note):

We who live in Hearststone are simply being accused of trying to advance with the times. We are not satisfied with "the good-old days" like apparently so many of our "old Brentwood" neighbors are.

A Responsible Citizen (with children not attending the school affected by the side-walk decision).

You could be thinking - - -

Here's Greene Motors in the Volkswagen business and why don't we ever see their story about the classic bug?

Here it is:

You absolutely can't find a way to travel by automobile more efficiently and economically than in a VW.

You can go to New York City for less than $7.00 for gasoline and no oil change or lubrication.

You can go to San Francisco for $30.00 worth of gasoline and about $7.00 for oil change and lube.

Or you can go to work and back, remembering to buy gas, maybe, once a week.

It might be dangerous to give away any more VW secrets all at once.

The service at Greene Motors is as good as the car—you know.

St. Agatha Action:

St. Agatha Pupils in Speaking Contest

By MARY LOU MANGOLD
District eliminations for the Michigan High School Forensics Association, sponsored by the University of Michigan Bureau of School Services, were held on Wednesday, April 7, at St. Gabriel's High School in Detroit. St. Agatha, which belongs to District 2, Region 3, sent nine students to represent the school in the eliminations.

Freshmen Patrick Timmons and William Schmaus entered the non-original-oratory category. Pat's selection was "Don't Blame Me" and Bill's was "Time Will Tell."

Ruth Brown and Catherine Hendricks, both juniors, presented original orations. Ruth presented her views on the United Nations and Cathy's subject was "Is This Public Opinion?"
Sophomore Edward Gillis represented the school in the extemporaneous speech contest. His topic was "Communism in Asia and Africa."

Humorous readings were presented by sophomore Anne Wegener and freshman Christine Olinzock. Anne presented a cutting from "The Waltz"; Chris' selection was "The Proposal." In the interpretive reading category, each competitor chose five selections with a related theme or background. Senior Juliana Brown's selections were cuttings from Gone With The Wind, Profiles in Courage—"Edmund D. Ross," Diary of Anne Frank, To Kill A Mockingbird, and Snow Goose. Junior Susan Behrend chose cuttings from The People, Yes, A Tale of Two Cities, John Brown's Body, Snow Goose, and Profiles in Courage.

Judges were Sister Avile, I.H.M., from Marygrove College, Mr. Thomas Usher, of University of Detroit, and Mr. Poppas of Wayne State University.

St. Agatha's competed with students from St. Gabriel's and St. Cyril's High Schools, both of Detroit.

Even though this is the first year that St. Agatha's has participated in this event, the school can boast four winners. Ruth Brown placed first and Cathy Hendricks placed second in original oratory; Ed Gillis, first in extemporaneous speaking, and Julie Brown second in interpretive reading. First and second place winners will compete in the regional eliminations, to be held at Wayne State University at the end of April.

At 4 p.m. on Sunday, April 11, a holy half hour sponsored by Father O'Leary and the Young Christian Students, was held in church. In attendance were Y.C.S. members, Socialists and members of the Young Catholic Mission Crusaders. After the holy half hour, the boys in the Y.C.S. were treated to a hot dog lunch.

FACTS FROM FRANKLIN:

Franklin Band Is Tops!

By JAN BONNER
On Saturday, April 10, Franklin High School Band was awarded all "ones" and a plaque at the State Band Festivals for its excellent performance. Each member of the band also received a medal.

Under the direction of Roy Ernst, the band played three numbers in the competition: "Gallant Seventh March" by Sousa; "Prelude and Fugue in F Minor" by Houston Bright; and "Finale to the 5th Symphony" by Shostakovich. "Prelude and Fugue in F Minor" was a required number and therefore performed by all the bands.

The high ratings at festivals makes Franklin one of the top ten bands in Michigan.

Franklin High will present its annual Spring Concert, under the direction of William Hall, on May 27 and 28.

The program will start off on the serious side, with the Bel Canto Choir singing "Brazilian Psalm" by Jean Berger, "Ave Verum Corpus" and "O Magnify the Lord". Then the Madrigals will sing "Fire Fire, My Heart", "Fair Phyllis, I Saw Sitting All Alone", "April is in My Mistress' Face" and "Adieu Sweet Amerillis". Following the Madrigals, the Franklin Choral will sing "Ave Marie", "Cheribum Song", "With a Voice of Singing", and "O Song Unto the Lord".

The latter portion of the program will be devoted to lighter pieces. The Bel Canto Choir will be singing "Bouree" by Bach, "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair," "Sit Down Servant," and "Soon I Will Be Done."

The concert will begin at 8 p.m. in the Lecture Theater. Admission price to the concert is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Carl Territo, Youth Chairman for the Detroit area observance of Michigan Week Youth Day, is inviting representatives of all public and parochial high schools to join in this observance keyed to focusing schools attention on the positive achievements of youth.

Carl, a recent graduate of Pershing High School, represents the Youth Action Commission on Children and Youth on the Michigan Youth Day Committee. Other youth from the area who are serving with Carl include Charles Larson, Barbara Lane, Edwin Pomnitz, Douglas Landers, Cathie Hendricks, Katherine Kagawa, and Howard Woods.

According to preliminary plans, Youth Day will start with a parade leaving Woodward and Jefferson Avenues at 10 a.m. and proceeding to Belle Isle. School bands, floats and marching units will be viewed by spectators.

Following the parade, there will be a picnic on Belle Isle, an opening ceremony featuring a speaker admired by youth, and an hour of athletic events, displays and exhibits, and finally a closing hootenanny at which ribbons indicating the day's achievements will be given.

Thurston hosted the Second Annual Arts Competition on March 31. Schools from the districts of Redford, Livonia, Northville and Garden City sent entries to the competition. There were 275 exhibits entered in one of the eleven divisions which included architectural drawing, electrical, graphic arts, machine shop, mechanical drawing, architectural models, pattern making, plastics, wood and wrought metal. The contest is sponsored by The Detroit News and the Michigan Industrial Education Association.

Thurston winners were: first place, Dick Sanders, and third place, Joe Toth, in architectural models; first place, Jim Paller, second place, Larry Hart, and third place, Steve Pinneo in architectural drawings; third place Don Simonelli in mechanical drawing; second place Jerry Smahay and Joe Niemi, third place Larry Wick in mechanical drawing; second place Greg Hernden, third place Dennis Schneider in furniture making, and first place Walt Carothers and second place Bob Sedlemeyer in wood burning. The winning projects are now being sent to Grand Rapids to compete in the state competition.

N.F'ton Students Eye Jobs

By DONNA HUG

On Wednesday, April 7, Vocational Night was held at Walled Lake at 7 p.m. This year's program attracted many parents and students.

Most of the Colleges and Universities from Michigan and many from out of state had representatives to give information and answer questions on their respective colleges.

THE ALL-SCHOOL PLAY, "The Miracle Worker," was presented April 9 and 10. It proved to be a great success as the bleachers were filled on Friday and Saturday night. Last year's play was a big success and this year's performance proved to be as well if not better.

The cast members are as talented as they come, but that's only one reason for the tremendous success of "The Miracle Worker." It can be said that the past eight weeks of rehearsals have not been in vain. Now that the cast has performed they are ready to be praised.

Miss Sulewski, the director of the play, should also be praised and congratulated for all the time and effort she has added to make this play the success it was.

THE LAST PAYMENT for the Senior trip was due on April 12. The Senior Trip Club had decided on a time and a place during past meetings. The club had voted and chosen a dude ranch over the boat trip by last year's class. The Ranch selected is the Gay El Rancho in Gaylord.

Among the ranch's facilities are a lake, an indoor pool, nightly dances with bands, water skiing, boating, horseback riding, and various other indoor and outdoor activities.

The trip is to begin on Sunday, May 30 and continue through Tuesday, June 1. The cost will be approximately $40 and the club will charter busses for transportation.

On Monday, April 1, there was a Parents Association Board meeting at 8 p.m. Senior Week has been postponed to a later date.

On Wednesday morning, April 14 at 7:30 a.m. orders for class rings were taken. A $5 deposit was needed.

Also on Wednesday petitions for class officers were picked up. On Thursday, April 22, petitions are due. Candidates will be announced on Friday, April 23, and campaigns will begin on Monday, April 26.

Easter Vacation began Friday, April 16 through Wednesday, April 21.

"Call Me Madam" rehearsals are underway. Final selections for the lead roles have been completed. Senior Paulette Poladian won the lead role of Miss Sally Adams; Cosmo, the Prime Minister of Lichtenburg will be portrayed by Mark Memke, another senior. Kenneth Gibson, will be played by senior Tom Madigan.

Princess Maria of Lichtenburg is played by sophomore, Ava Atler. "Call Me Madam," in cooperation with the vocal, instrumental, and art departments at North Farmington is to be scheduled in May 21 and May 22.

TALKING ABOUT THURSTON:

Thurston Hosts Art Show

By JOANN VAN WYE

Thurston had the honor of holding the initial league art show this year. All of the schools in the Northwest Suburban Athletic Association participated in the art show. Each school in the league sent 50 entries to Thurston to be placed on display. From the 50 entries the 10 most outstanding ones from each school were selected to be placed on a traveling show. The traveling art show is going to be sent to the other five schools in the league for display.

On May 17, Redford Township is going to be placed in the hands of a few students. The Redford Township government has set this date for the annual Student Government Day. The students who are elected to the various offices will have an opportunity to see how their township operates and learn a little bit about the responsibilities and duties that accompany some of the township offices. The Student township officers are selected from Redford Union and Thurston.

This year Thurston students will have an opportunity to run for the offices of treasurer, clerk, justice of the peace, and two trustees. The Student Council is thinking about letting anyone who wants to run for the various offices rather than restricting certain positions to each of the classes. The petitions for the offices are going to be due the first week of May and an assembly is going to be held the next week. At the assembly all the candidates will be introduced to the student body and then they will give a short speech. The elections are going to be held the same week of the assembly. The Student Council is attempting to have voting machines brought to the schools for the students' use. All students are urged to run for an office because it is a wonderful experience.

During the second week of May a film will be shown to the student body on smoking. The purpose of the film is to show students the dangers of smoking and discourage them from doing so.

Every day is payday for the man who enjoys his chosen work.

Horse Racing Opens Monday at Hazel Park

The thoroughbreds will come pounding back to Michigan Monday, April 26, as the longest running race season in the history of the state opens at the Hazel Park Race Track.

The thoroughbreds will hold forth at the suburban Detroit oval for an 84-day meeting which will end Saturday, July 31. On Monday, August 2, the ponies will shift to the Detroit Race Course and do it all over again.

Hazel Park officials are confident that their 84-day meeting will be their finest. They have reasons for the optimism: their purse distribution will be a record $2,750,000.

Included among the major events of the meeting will be stakes, handicaps and allowance races that will be worth a glittering $650,000. In addition to the regular Saturday features, the stakes program will include 24 midweek events that will be worth a total of $140,000.

The Michigan Derby will be a $50,000 added event this year. The Hazel Park Handicap has been upped to $30,000 and the Freshman Derby to $20,000. There will be three $25,000 races—The Twin Double, Decoration Day and Fourth of July handicaps.

The track will also offer the Twin Double, a feature which has created considerable interest across the country. Post time will be 3:30 P.M. on weekdays and 2 P.M. on Saturdays.

Real Trespassers

Lawrence Aubert, 35217 Five Mile Road, Livonia, found it doesn't pay to post "no trespassing" signs around his property. Aubert had nine such signs posted and then discovered Saturday someone had stolen all.

SAFETY DIRECTOR of the Year award is presented to James Piach of Plymouth (second from the left) by Yvonne Ickes, Miss Safety Council. Looking on are: Gerry Montgomery, executive director of the sponsoring Greater Detroit Safety Council, and Jack Radcliff (right), president of the Safety Council, and supervisor of Industrial Safety for Ford Motor Co.

Plymouth High Junior Wins JA Safety Award

James Piach, a junior at Plymouth High and son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Piach, 15576 Fry Road, Plymouth, has been selected Junior Achievement safety director of the year in southeastern Michigan. The contest was sponsored by the Greater Detroit Safety Council.

Jim competed against 393 other teenage safety directors of Junior Achievement companies and won an expense paid trip to Indiana University and the National Junior Achievement conference in August.

He will compete there for the national title and a college scholarship. Terry Metajewski, of Detroit, last year's JA safety director went on to win the national championship.

Jim attends the Plymouth JA Business Center on W. Ann Arbor Trail one evening weekly for two hours and is safety director for Plyco, a company sponsored by Michigan Bell. Plyco manufactures and sells grocery memo pads.

The 393 JA safety directors competed against each other on a written exam prepared by the Greater Detroit Safety Council. The 10 semifinalists were luncheon guests of the Council at the Economic Club of Detroit meeting a week ago. They were interviewed there and the field narrowed down to the five finalists.

The finalists were invited to the Council headquarters in Detroit for further testing by a panel of five judges from which Jim emerged as the champion. Gerry Montgomery, executive director of the Safety Council, said "It is quite reassuring to observe first hand how conscious of the importance of everyday safety these teenagers are. We conduct this contest every year and when we see the results like Jim Piach and Terry Metajewski, we have no trouble in deciding it was time and money well spent."

Met Park System Opens Golf Course at Kensington Site

David O. Laidlaw, park superintendent at Kensington Metropolitan Park southeast of Brighton, announced that its 18-hole, 6,400 yard Par 72 golf course opened on April 17.

Hours of operation are from 8 a.m. to dusk daily, with earlier opening times on Saturday, Sunday and holidays and extended hours later in the season.

Golfers must provide their own equipment, however, golf bag carts are available for rent at the Control Building, for 50 cents per cart. Food service is available at the Control Building as well as rest rooms. Nearby is a 114-car parking lot.

Over 95,300 golfers have used the course since it was dedicated in May of 1961, with over 30,700 in 1964, 29,400 in 1963, 21,500 in 1962 and 13,700 in 1961.

Sent to Germany

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
by
DETROIT EDISON

An electric water heater is for the people who don't like to run out of hot water. We're so sure you'll like one, we guarantee your satisfaction—for a whole year! What do we mean by satisfaction? Simply this: If you don't get all the hot water you want, when you want it, you get all your money back, including any you may have spent on installation. And it doesn't matter where you bought your electric water heater. The Edison guarantee still applies. No strings attached. Fair enough?

EDISON

P.S. Average-size families with electric water heaters pay only $3.88 a month—a standard rate—for their hot water. How much are you paying?

DAV Slates Insurance Meeting

Disabled veterans, interested in securing additional information in regard to the recent changes in the National Service Life Insurance, are urged to attend a meeting sponsored by Chapter 113, Disabled American Veterans at the Memorial Home, 25544 Five Mile Road in Redford Township, on Tuesday, April 27 at 8 p.m.

Marvin Walker, DAV Field Service Officer for Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties, will explain the new law and answer all questions.

The law, signed by President Johnson recently, provided that disabled veterans can buy NSLI in a new form. Present holders of the insurance may change to modified life.

Eligible to buy NSLI are those who saw military service from Oct. 7, 1940 to Jan. 1, 1957.

Any veteran, who has disability which has been or can be found to be service connected by the Veterans Administration, and has no insurable non-service disabilities, is eligible.

Meeting to Eye Church Colleges

Sister Mary Raynelda, president of Madonna College in Livonia, will participate in a Conference on Church-Affiliated Higher Education Meeting, sponsored by the Danforth Foundation. The meeting will be held in Chicago, April 23, beginning at 9:30 a.m. and adjourning at 4 p.m. The Danforth Foundation has conducted a three-year study of church-affiliated higher education. This report will be the basis for the discussion at the conference. Each participant received a copy of the preliminary report and was asked to read it carefully in advance.

The purpose of the study is to make an assessment of the present position of the approximately 800 institutions associated with religious bodies and to suggest ways in which they can become stronger in the years ahead.

A series of conferences is being arranged throughout the United States to which representatives of the colleges in each region are invited; the expenses of the participants are to be borne by the Foundation.

Livonia DPR Slates Meet In Table Tennis

The annual table tennis tournament to determine Livonia city champions will be held with the following schools: Tuesday, April 27, 6:30 p.m., Boys and Girls Singles; Thursday, April 29, 7:00 p.m., men's singles and doubles, and on Tuesday, May 4, 7 p.m., Senior men, women's singles and mixed doubles.

All tournament play will be at Riley Junior High School, with contestants required to wear gym shoes. Entry fee for each event will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for contestants under 17 years of age.

Contestants may register on the date of the tourney or may contact the Department of Parks and Recreation, GA 1-2000, ext. 291 for an entry blank.

Madonna Head to Defend 'Dual' Education System

Sister Mary Raynelda, CSSF, president of Livonia's Madonna College, will be one of the three panelists to speak before the State Citizens for Educational Freedom at a convention to be held in Owosso on April 24.

Sister Raynelda will address herself to the following aspects of higher education:

- The importance of having a dual system of higher education in the state.
- Problems arising from the decline of percentage enrollment in private education.
- The importance of including private education when planning financial assistance to higher education on state and federal level.

Westbrook Plans Pancake Supper

The Westbrook PTA will hold a pancake supper to which the public is invited, on April 29. It will take place from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., on that day, at the Westbrook School, 21120 Osmus in Farmington.

Admission is $1. Children, 12 years old and under, can get in for 60 cents.

Admission entitles you to all the pancakes you can eat. In addition your ticket may win for you a valuable prize. You need not be there to win.

Tickets are available at the door.

Evans Products Acquires New Freezer Box Division

Evans Products Company has acquired the Freezer Box Division of Annapolis Yacht Yards, Inc., it was announced jointly by James J. Conway, Vice President and General Manager of Evans' Transportation Equipment Division in Plymouth, and N. Erik Almen, President of Annapolis Yacht Yards, Inc.

The Freezer Box Division, whose 60,000-square foot plant and offices are located in Annapolis, Md.; engineers, manufacturers, and distributes sectional insulated rooms and prefabricated warehouses used for temperature-control purposes.

The panelized structures, usable in temperatures ranging from minus 100 degrees to plus 250 degrees, are sold to frozen food processors, producers of dairy products, supermarkets, restaurants, governmental agencies, and other users of refrigerated structures.

Conway said that the operation would continue under present local management and personnel. Almen, as General Manager with headquarters at 1700 West Street Extended, Annapolis, Md., will report to W. C. Finkenstaedt, Assistant Division Manager — Automotive and Industrial.

Annapolis Yacht Yards, Inc. has been in business since 1937. Initially it was a yacht yard, building and repairing large yachts, including PT boats in World War II. In 1947 the yacht construction facilities of the yard were sold, and Almen, one of the partners in the original company, became owner of the Freezer Box Division.

The panelized structures made by the Division are sold nationally, and there have been many foreign installations. Each modular panel, sold under the trade name "Aluma Bond," is composed of a metal-faced exterior with an insulating core joined by a unique gasketing and locking arrangement.

In the manufacture of these panels, Annapolis Yacht has used a metal-clad plywood called "Plymet" which is made at Evans' Grand Rapids plant. It also has been a large user of Evans fir plywood produced at Evans' West Coast plants.

Conway said the refrigerated panel structure field is a growth field, and has interesting potential. This new business is a logical complement to the products made by Evans' Transportation Equipment Division such as environmental control including heating and conditioning, insulated panels, and other laminated structures.

License Returned

Eugene J. Keiffer of Plymouth has had his driver's license returned to him, following a 30-day suspension. He is now serving in the Armed Forces.

The fellow who sits down and hopes for the best can be counted out as hopeless.

Home Owners Form New Civic Group

More than 70 homeowners in the southwest area of Plymouth Township and the northwest section of Canton Township, bounded by Ann Arbor, Canton Center, Ford and Napier Roads, have banded together to form the Western Homeowners' Improvement Association.

The new group organized in a meeting in Gallimore School at which Joe Mogle was elected president. Other officers are: Henry Breneman, vice president; Charles Kenny, vice president; Owen McKenny, secretary; and Ray Hulce, treasurer.

The Board of Directors includes: Clem Kromer, Tom Alexsy, Gerald Proskoy, Orin Harmon, Cliff McClumpha, Matthew Fortney, Frank White, Harold Niemi and Roger Ketchman.

Membership information is available by contacting any of the officers or directors or by calling 453-5469.

Plymouth Hi News

By CAROL OTWELL

Special congratulations are extended to James Griffith and the Plymouth High School band for their excellent performance at the state band and orchestra festival held in Ypsilanti on April 10.

For the first time since the creation of the band, it received straight "1" ratings of excellent. The faculty and student body at PHS certainly have a band they can be proud of.

Carol

ple, Janet Blunk, Sharon Olin, Margaret Rudloff, Pat Hart, and Charlie Hinderliter.

THOMAS LECKIE was elected president of the PHS Hi-Y club for the 1965-66 school year recently.

Jamie Lent was named vice-president, and Margy Cogger and Livia Way will serve as secretary and treasurer respectively.

Ruth Whitmore will act as chaplain and Gary VanBuren will serve as sergeant-at-arms.

This summer, members of the club will attend a leadership development camp located on Torch Lake in northern Michigan. The Club will also send a representative to the nationwide Hi-Y assembly to be held at St. Olaf College in Minnesota from July 1-6.

NORM FISCHER, a sophomore at PHS, was recently chosen to be the narrator of this year's water show, "Our Aqua Mater."

Norm will portray a typical male student at PHS who is talking to a friend on the telephone. In this way he will introduce the numbers which center around a theme of school life.

The water show will be presented May 6, 7, and 8 at the high school pool. Tickets for all three dates are now available.

FRED BEITNER, one of the original members of the Plymouth Symphony, demonstrates his skill with the violin to Conductor Wayne Dunlap. Both are busy with plans for the annual membership campaign of the Plymouth Symphony Society which starts the first week in May and has a goal of 1,500 members.

(Continued from Page 1) William Thomford, of the Southern Pacific Company, were jointly awarded George R. Henderson medals by the Franklin Institute for achievements "in the field of railway impact control and associated car design, with resulting benefits in reducing lading and rolling stock damage."

This was in connection with research work done at Stanford Research Institute for Southern Pacific Company which resulted in the Hydra-Cushion Underframe. Moorhead indicated that Mr. MacCurdy's research work would involve initially the Hydra-Cushion device. On completion of Hydra-Cushion projects, MacCurdy will work on other established products and new concepts.

Bell Wins Suit For Tower

Michigan Bell has permission to continue construction of its micro-wave tower after an affirmative decision from Circuit Court Judge James Canham in a suit filed by Plymouth Township homeowner Ossie Hinote.

DPW News and Notes

By Supt. Joseph Bida
Plymouth Dept. Public Works
Last week a group of Boy Scouts were taken on a tour of the city-owned well fields at Six Mile and Beck Road and told about the operations of the pumps and all other equipment in connection with the operation of the city water supply.

Two funerals were conducted at Riverside Cemetery and the grounds are being cleaned with the regular spring cleaning.

A six-inch sanitary sewer tap was installed at 865 Penniman Avenue and the main sanitary sewer was unplugged on Fralick Avenue from S. Harvey to Main Streets.

Approximately 950 feet of sanitary sewer main was rodded. Sweeping was done throughout the city both in residential and business sections. The parking lots were graded and the streets were cold patched all over the city.

Various traffic signs were repaired as a result of damage from the high winds. A one-inch water tap was installed at 395 W. Ann Arbor Trail and the cyclone fencing removed from around the Urban Renewal Projects. It is being stored at the Public Works Yards.

Several new pieces of play equipment are being assembled for the playgrounds and will be put out at the play areas as soon as weather permits.

Our department is starting to spray the city owned trees for Dutch Elm Disease. This spraying takes place during the early hours of the morning starting approximately at four o'clock on mornings when there is little or no wind.

This will continue until all of the city has been covered. Automobiles should not be parked under Elm trees during this spraying.

Approved appointments of Engineer Herald Hamill, Auditor Markham and Planning Consultants Waring and Johnson.

Tabled until the May meeting a request from Stark Realty, a resolution from the Board for permission to divide lots 2 and 3 of the Applecrest subdivision, Micol Drive at Ann Arbor Trail, into five parts.

Approved the National Bank of Detroit and the new branch of the Michigan Bank as depositories for the 1965-6 fiscal year.

Judge Canham affirmed that the micro-wave tower is a public utility substitution and as such did not violate the ordinance.

He ruled that it doesn't constitute a nuisance as such in denying the temporary injunction and granting Michigan Bell's motion for summary judgment.

The suit was filed against the Plymouth Township planning commission and Building Inspector Matthew McLellan.

Township Attorney Earl Dezel defended the commission and McLellan in the action.

Suburbs' Easter Seal Drive Raises $40,000

With Easter Sunday marking the climax of the annual Easter Seal Appeal on behalf of crippled children and adults, a total of $40,025.57 has been contributed by residents of Western Wayne County.

And residents of Livonia, Garden City, Nankin Township, Redford Township and Plymouth are in the forefront of those who have given generously. From Garden City, a total of $1,628 has been contributed. Livonians have donated $4,712.83. A total of $2,946.79 has come from Plymouth residents. And Redford Townships have contributed $2,752.02 to the drive. In the Wayne-Nankin Township area,

$8,762.62 has been raised. John J. Butler, General chairman of the 1965 Easter Seal Campaign, in commenting on the report, expressed his appreciation for the efforts of the local sponsoring groups, all of those who have helped in the many phases of the fund raising effort as well as to those who have made contributions. "While fund-raising efforts are concentrated during the Easter season, the needs of crippled children and adults go on throughout the year," Butler pointed out. "This means that gifts are welcome at any time, and that those who have not yet sent a contribution may still do so to help reach the goal of $45,000 for our Western

Wayne County service area. In some communities, the cost of mailing to everyone may have led to a restricted mailing list. Anyone who did not receive a mail appeal may send a contribution to the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County at P.O. Box No. 101, Inkster, or place it in one of the canisters still in banks or stores. Funds raised locally finance the Easter Seal Center near Middlebelt and Michigan; an information and referral service; the purchase of equipment for loan such as wheelchairs; a summer Day Camp for crippled children; classes and clubs for physically handicapped children and adults and other special services which no other agency provides. 500 crippled children and adults called on

Nine Area Students Receive Scholarships

Nine students who either live in this area or whose parents work at the Livonia plant of Ford Motor Co. achieved an academic milestone last Sunday by winning Ford Motor Co. Fund four-year college scholarships. They are among 70 high school seniors in 13 states who won in a competition of nearly 1,500 candidates.

Notified by Benson Ford, president of the Fund, that they had won, were:

- Donald L. Bone, 25709 Deborah, Redford Township, a Thurston High student whose father, Joseph, works in the Engine and Foundry Division at Ford's Dearborn plant;

- Bethann M. Cox, 19299 Garfield, Redford Township, a Redford Union High pupil, whose father, Mark, is employed at Ford's Tractor Plant in Highland Park;

- Alan D. Trethewey, 31238 Brown, Garden City, a student at Garden City High, whose father, Harold, works at Dearborn's Research and Engineering Center;

- Lynn M. Maki, 19706 Purlingbrook, Livonia, a Clarenceville High student, whose father, Thomas, is employed at the Ford Assembly Plant in Wixom;

- Susan M. Rybka, 42106 Ford Rd., Plymouth, a student at Plymouth High School whose father, Walter, is employed at Ford's Metal Stamping Division in Dearborn; and

- These students whose fathers are employed at the Ford Livonia Plant; Walter J. Rygiel, Terence Berggren, and William D. McAllister.

Scholarship winners will meet in Dearborn June 27-29 for a formal awards conference.

The Ford Fund scholarships pay full tuition and a major portion of living expenses. Recipients are selected on the basis of school records, College Entrance Examination Board's scholastic aptitude test scores, and other potentialities for success in college and post-college life. Winners may choose any approved college or university in the continental United States.

Privately endowed schools receive from the Ford Fund a $500 cost-of-education grant for each year a scholarship winner is in attendance.

More than 1,000 Ford Fund scholarships have been awarded since the program began in 1951. At present, 253 winners from 27 states and the District of Columbia are attending 95 colleges and universities.

North Central Gives OK to Franklin Hi

G. Sutherland Hayden, Chairman of the Michigan State Committee, North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, has announced that Franklin High School has again been placed on the list of secondary schools approved for the 1964-65 school year by the Association. The action was taken at the annual meeting of the Association in Chicago, March 29-April 1.

Of the 312 Michigan member schools, 116 were fully accredited such as Franklin. The remaining 184 schools were advised or warned for one or more violations of the accreditation criteria.

Schools which are warned must correct the violation within a reasonable time limit or be dropped from the Association.

Accreditation by the Association assures the community that the quality of staff, program, and facilities is at a level sufficiently high enough to compare favorably with high schools throughout the nineteen state areas served by the North Central Association.

Offers Camping Class

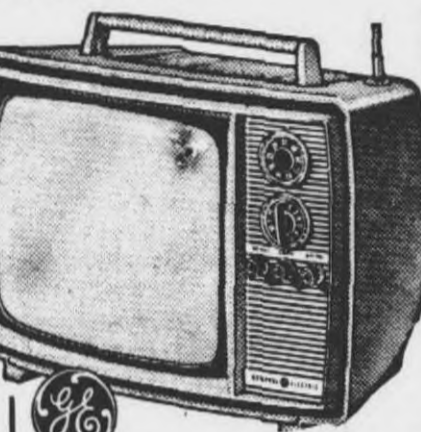

Beginning Thursday, April 22, and continuing for six weeks, a Family Camping Workshop will be conducted at the Farmington Area YMCA. The sessions are from 7:30 to 9 p.m., and will include: how to family camp, equipment, menu-planning and cooking, crafts, games, water safety, and sharing slides of trips.

A YMCA membership is required for the course. Call the Y today to register. The number is 474-3232.

10,968 Welcome Trotters to Wolverine

An unseasonable early morning snowstorm followed by showers that continued until late afternoon failed to dampen the ardor of Detroit area harness racing fans for their favorite sport — a near record gathering of 10,968 welcomed the pacers and trotters back to Wolverine Raceway Saturday for the opening of a 55-night meeting that ends on Saturday, June 20.

The combination of a Saturday opening, first in Michigan history, the introduction of the fabulous Twin Double and the end of the Lenten season sent the handle soaring to an astronomical $566,191, just $6,000 short of the all-time record of $572,709 set at Wolverine a year ago on opening night. As early as 7:30 p.m., traffic was backed up on Schoolcraft from the track entrance to Telegraph Road and even though post on the first race was delayed 30 minutes there were several hundred who missed viewing the opener.

Wolverine officials realized they were in for a big night the moment they opened the daily double windows. Long lines formed immediately and many were still awaiting a chance to get a ticket when the windows closed.

Although the weatherman ordered out rain, snow and a rather chilly night, patrons were treated to excellent racing even though the track was exceptionally heavy and deep.

However, it was a far cry from conditions of a year ago when Wolverine battled the elements and a knee-deep track for four weeks before finally getting a strip suitable for good racing.

Last fall, President Frederick Van Lennep and Vice President and General Manager Orlov Owen ordered the entire racing strip covered with a layer of asphalt to protect it from the elements. This didn't solve the problem entirely, due to the capricious spring weather in this area, but it did provide a track the drivers thought was 100 per cent better than that of 1964.

Honor of winning the first race went to Dorabelle, a five-year-old mare owned and driven by Jack Gemmill of Grand Rapids. Dorabelle took the overland route in the final half-mile and just did have enough to outlast My Brown Derby in the stretch. The time was 2:32.3, which isn't anything to brag about but the crowd cheered the pacers all the way as first one and then another took the lead at various times.

Coupled with Marlin Castle ($18.60), the daily double paid $86.20.

Then the interest shifted to the Twin Double, where betters try to pick the winners of the fifth, sixth, eighth and ninth race. Only three did and they received a whooping $7,712.80 for their efforts.

The winning combination was 1-5-3-5 and the big payoff came when Victoria Lind, a five-year-old mare who had won only once in 19 previous starts, had the most in the stretch in the gummy going and just did win by a nose over Monticello.

Post time for the first race is 8:30 p.m. nightly and the twin double wagering is on the fifth, sixth, eighth and ninth races.

BIG PAYOFF on opening night Twin Double at Wolverine Raceway is made possible by Victoria Lind (5), a five-year-old mare, shown winning her first race in three 1965 starts. The mare, handled by Paul Jensen, got up in the final strides to nip Monticello (7) and Knight Sentry (1) for a Twin payoff of $7,712 to three ticket holders.

RU, Rocks Triumph On One-Hit Gems

Rick Fisher was the big show for Redford Union high's baseball team last Wednesday.

Besides turning in a neat one-hit pitching performance, Fisher knocked out a pair of hits and drove across two runs as Redford Union posted a 5-1 win over Berkley.

On the mound Fisher fanned 11 and walked three. The lone safety off him came in the first inning when Berkley put together a walk, error and single for its lone run.

Redford Union cashed four runs in the second inning when Jim Birbeau walked and George Little and Cary DeLoye singled to load the bases.

A sacrifice fly by DeLoye's brother, Curt, admitted one run. Then Fisher knocked in two with a single and Jim Johnston followed with a triple.

The final RU tally came in the sixth when Little walked and came home all the way from first on Fred Londo's hit-and-run single.

Rocks Win, 6-1
Plymouth high's baseball team also came through with a one-hit victory in beating Northville, 6-1. However, Dave Troutman and John Daniel shared the pitching for the Rocks.

Troutman worked the first four frames and Daniel finished up, permitting the lone safety in the fifth when Northville notched its run.

A walk to Curt Irish and a triple by Mark Sutton gave Plymouth its first run in the third inning. Then in the fifth, with the score tied at 1-1, a single by Terry Cosgrove, walks to Bob Gotro and Sutton and three errors helped Plymouth count five times.

The game served as the only tuneup for the Rocks before they open their Suburban Six League title chase next Monday.

Trojans Collapse
The Clarenceville high baseball team couldn't stand prosperity against Milford.

The Trojans built up a 5-0 lead and appeared to have matters all locked up as Danny Freels hurled hitless ball until the fifth.

Then Freels, who had six in the first four frames, walked three and gave up his first hit as Milford notched four runs in the fifth.

Clarenceville maintained a 5-4 lead until the seventh when Milford cashed its final three markers.

Clarenceville scored two runs in the third inning and added three in the fourth.

Here's Chance To Join Men's Golf League

All men interested in playing in the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation Men's Golf League are invited to attend an organizational meeting 9:30 p.m. on Thursday, April 22 in the Recreation Office, 14305 Farmington Road.

League play will be held on Mondays beginning on April 26 with tee-off time from 4 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Green Fees will be $1.75.

Golfers Silenced

Bad weather forced Franklin high's golfers to cancel three meets last week. The Livonians were to have met Thurston, Bentley and Garden City West.

Former Wayne State golf stars Don Curyla and Jim McGaffin were high finishers in the Presidents Athletic Conference tournament for three years.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

Baseball has set in. The Tigers are back home . . . the high school and college teams are in action . . . the Little Leaguers and other sandlotters are getting set to go.

In addition, there'll be more television than ever, baseball speaking, in these parts. Not only are the Tigers doing some 40 games on TV, but there's the weekly game of the week from the American Broadcasting Co. (Channel 7) each Saturday, plus Yankee games on Channel 11 on many week-ends . . . plus the barrage of prep, college and sandlot contests to be carried on Channel 50.

All of which makes this the ideal time to delve for a few minutes on some of the pertinent rules of baseball. Too many . . . and that goes for players, coaches, managers and fans . . . aren't too hept on the playing rules. The net result is that these folks needlessly excite themselves and strain their hearts.

If they knew what the rules were, they could save a flock of arguments with umpires.

Not that the umpires always are right. They boot 'em, too. We'll never forget the time when we were umpiring an American Legion game shortly after the end of World War II.

We hadn't worked too many games at that time . . . and a situation arose where one of the managers didn't announce either to the umpire or scorer that he had inserted a pinch-hitter into the game.

The opposing pilot screamed his way to the plate umpire:

"That guy hasn't reported. He's out."

The rookie umpire jerked off his mask, walked to the scorer and inquired:

"Did the batter report?"

"No," came the reply.

"Okay," yelled the umpire, "the batter is out."

Nobody questioned the ruling. Yet, the manager of the player, who had been called out for not reporting, legitimately could have lodged a protest. And, he'd have won the protest. The Ump was dead wrong.

Speaking of protests, they're in order only when a man-in-blue fumbles a rule, such as in the situation outlined above.

You can't protest a ball or strike decision . . . or a fair ball or foul ball call . . . or when a runner is safe or out.

There's no redress when an ump says a catch is legal or illegal.

Such verdicts come under the category of judgment rulings. The rule book specifically says: "Nobody can protest judgment decisions."

So, if you're manager or coach, or a parent of a Little Leaguer, there's no sense popping from the bench or the stands and telling the umpire:

"We're protesting. We'll get your job . . . We'll do a lot of things."

If the umpire has any backing, from his league or association, you're wasting your time making any squawks about judgment calls.

You'll never win. The umpire has to be right, even if he's wrong.

To keep your blood pressure from leaping unnecessarily, here are a few noteworthy items to keep in mind when watching a baseball game:

1—No run or runs can score any time the third out of the inning results from a direct force play or through the failure of the batter-runner to reach first base safely. (In this connection, consider the following play: (Continued on Next Page)

Franklin One Point Nips East

Track Coach Bill Wilson of Garden City East High School says he's not going to try and figure out any more meets in advance.

Wilson tried his hand at prognosticating before last Wednesday's meet with Dearborn. He came up with the forecast:

"We'll win or lose by one point."

One point separated the teams at the finish. But East didn't win. The score was 55-54 for Dearborn.

Despite the chilly weather, the meet produced some outstanding performances topped by a pair of new East school records by Yarle Elide.

Elide accounted for the first mark with a leap of 21 feet, 5 inches, to top the former school standard by three inches.

Elide then came back with a record dash at 220 yards. He was clocked in 21.9 seconds as he won. The old East mark was 22 seconds flat, set two years ago.

Elide also won the 100-yard dash in 10.8 seconds and finished a fine afternoon by anchoring the second-place East 880-yard relay team.

Dearborn's Bob Martin emerged as one of the state's leading hurriers by winning the high in 14.8 seconds and the low in 19.4 seconds, both exceptional times.

Here's how East entries placed:

Pole Vault: 1—Marvin Mamel, 2—Dick Decker, 3—Joel Taubot. Height: 13 feet.

Broad Jump: 1—Yarle Elide, 2—Joe Montes. Distance: 21 feet, 5 inches. (New school record. Old Mark, 21 feet, 2 inches).

Shot Put: 1—Dennis Paddock, 2—Tom Berard. Distance: 45 feet.

High Jump: 1—Paul Martini. Height: 5 feet, 11 inches.

100-yard Dash: 1—Elide, 2—Winston Bailey. Time: 10.8 seconds.

200-yard Dash: 1—Elide, 2—Bailey. Time: 21.9 seconds. (New school record. Old record was 22 seconds by Russ Cobane in 1963).

380-yard: 2—Tom Murto, 3—Dave Strange.

100-yard Low Hurdles: 2—Martini. 120-yard High Hurdles: 2—Martini. 880-yard Relay: 2—East (Mike Sparkman, Danny Ewels, Bill Willis, Elide).

100-yard Dash: 2—East (Will Fletcher, Dennis DeBurton, Dick Decker, Larry Cuppy).

Deadheat Marks Franklin Victory In Track Meet

A dead heat in the 180-yard low hurdles featured the dual track meet between Franklin and Garden City West high schools.

Franklin's Jeff Yoshikawa and West's Bill Murphy hit the finish line together in 22.4 seconds. The judges went into a long consultation and finally decided the race was a tie—something which doesn't happen too often in track meets.

Franklin had little trouble winning the meet by a score of 73-46. It was the South Livonians' second victory in as many starts this spring.

Yoshikawa also won the high jump with a leap of 5 feet, 4 inches as Franklin copped all but three events.

One of the other highlights of the meet was Larry Naifeh's winning toss for Franklin of 46 feet, 9 3/4 inches. Considering the infancy of the season, Naifeh has a good chance of hitting 50 feet before the campaign ends.

A sweep in the 440-yard run helped Franklin in its one-sided conquest. Tom Lee, Mike Stock and Bill Gomez finished in the order listed for the Franklin team.

The complete results of the meet:

Shot Put: 1—Larry Naifeh (F), 2—Fred Sievert (F), 3—Chuck Dobbs (West). Distance: 46 feet, 9 3/4 inches.

Long Jump: 1—Jack Pelon (F), 2—Mike Taft (West), 3—Ron Lannoye (F). Distance—19 feet, 6 1/2 inches.

High Jump: 1—Jeff Yoshikawa (F), 2—Gregg Arnold (F), 3—Taft (W). Height: 5 feet, 4 inches.

Pole Vault: 1—Sullivan (W), 2—Thorp (W), 3—Madince (W). Height: 10 feet, 6 inches.

880-yard relay: 1—Franklin (Mark Clapper, Pelon, Bob Weber, Bill Gomez), 2—West. Time: 1:40.3.

100-yard Dash: 1—Clapper (F), 2—Dan Shannon (W), 3—Fodor (W). Time—10.7 seconds.

180-yard Low Hurdles: Tie between Yoshikawa (F) and Bill Murphy (W). 3—Pelon (F). Time: 22.4 seconds.

220-yard Dash: 1—Shannon (W), 2—Clapper (F), 3—Gary Her (F). Time: 25.3 seconds.

100-yard Dash: 1—Franklin (Lee, Shannon, Ryan, Stock), 2—West. Time: 3:46.

100-yard Dash: 2—Hawkins. Mile Relay: 1—Clarenceville (Ralph Renz, Jim Stearns, Welton, Larry Martin). Time: 3:41.8.

440-yard run: 1—Jeff Waldman, 3—Larry Martin. Time: 5:34 seconds. (New school record; old mark was 5:38 set by Waldman in 1964).

100-yard Dash: 2—Chris Hawkins. 180-yard Low Hurdles: 2—Jim Bedson.

220-yard Dash: 1—Shannon (W), 2—Clapper (F), 3—Gary Her (F). Time: 25.3 seconds.

Mile Relay: 1—Franklin (Lee, Shannon, Ryan, Stock), 2—West. Time: 3:46.

440-yard run: 1—Jeff Waldman, 3—Larry Martin. Time: 5:34 seconds. (New school record; old mark was 5:38 set by Waldman in 1964).

100-yard Dash: 2—Chris Hawkins. 180-yard Low Hurdles: 2—Jim Bedson.

220-yard Dash: 1—Shannon (W), 2—Clapper (F), 3—Gary Her (F). Time: 25.3 seconds.

Mile Relay: 1—Franklin (Lee, Shannon, Ryan, Stock), 2—West. Time: 3:46.

440-yard run: 1—Jeff Waldman, 3—Larry Martin. Time: 5:34 seconds. (New school record; old mark was 5:38 set by Waldman in 1964).

Riverview Cracks Victory Streak of Garden City East

All good things have to end sooner or later. So it was last Wednesday when Garden City East's string of 17 consecutive regular-season victories was blasted by Riverview, 15-2.

"Whoever thought that when we lost, we would drop one like this," moaned Coach John Kulazenska of East after the game was over.

East never had a chance. Two homers in the first inning gave Riverview a 3-0 lead. In the second inning, Riverview batters clubbed two more circuits and the rout was on.

A homer by Dave Ventura netted East its first run in the fourth inning. Ron Goulet singled Don Chute across with East's other run in the fifth.

The defeat came less than 24 hours after East had ripped Dearborn Haston, 8-1, behind the fine, two-hit pitching of Norm Vasquez. Neither of the Haston runs was earned off Vasquez, who scattered seven hits.

East went scoreless until the fourth inning when a sacrifice fly by Goulet and a hit by Ventura made it 2-0. In the fifth, Bill Mood's single drove in two more runs.

Then in the sixth, East scored four times with Joe Pomykacz cleaning the bases with a double and then scoring himself when Chute was safe on an error.

New York Yankee star Roger Maris played American Legion baseball in 1949 at Fargo, N.D. under Leon Lande, now head baseball coach at Wayne State University.

Pat Brady's winning toss of 47 feet, 8 3/4 inches constituted another feature for the Rocks.

Here's how Plymouth entries placed:

Broad Jump: 2—Dan Johnson. High Jump: 2—Johnson, 3—Jim Scharnen.

Pole Vault: 1—Bill Clyde, 2—Grant Fisher. Height: 9 feet, 6 inches.

Shot Put: 1—Pat Brady. Distance: 47 feet, 8 3/4 inches.

Mile: 2—Howard Stuedeman, 3—Frank Dorset. 120-yard High Hurdles: 1—Johnson, 2—Scharmen. Time: 17.2 seconds.

440-yard Run: 3—Dave Tirlam, 3—Gary Grady.

100-yard Dash: 2—Bill Kane, 3—Dennis Tonkovich.

180-yard Low Hurdles: 1—Johnson, 2—Fisher. Time: 23.2 seconds.

DRC Reviews Expansion, Names New Director

The appointment of a new Director and a comprehensive review of the $2,500,000 expansion program highlighted the annual meeting of the Board of Directors and stockholders of the Detroit Race Course Wednesday (April 21). Named to the Board of Directors was Dr. Robert C.

Bennett, who has been prominent in Detroit's civic, cultural, professional and athletic activities for many years. In announcing the election of Dr. Bennett, DRC President Shaffer said: "I am delighted to have Dr. Bennett join the other outstanding men on our Board of Directors. Through the years, they have contributed heavily to the progress of thoroughbred racing in Michigan and to the success of the Detroit Race Course." Shaffer said Dr. Bennett's broad scope of activities and his deep interest in sports made his addition to the Board of Directors a significant one.

"It always has been our aim to have our Board of Directors one which would be truly representative of the community," Shaffer said. We strive for a cross section of interests."

Dr. Bennett is Chief of Staff at Kirwood General Hospital; Chief Medical Examiner of the Michigan State Athletic Board of Control; a member of the Executive Board of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and a Board member of the Detroit Civic League.

The Board of Directors, who approved the construction of the new clubhouse at a special meeting last October 19, had their first opportunity to inspect the progress which has been made.

Shaffer pointed out the structural steel work has been completed and that now the electrical, plumbing, masonry and interior work will be able to proceed with greater speed.

"From the outset it was our intention to make the new clubhouse one of the finest in the United States," Shaffer said. "That has been, and will continue to be, our incentive as we move toward completion."

In addition to the new clubhouse, the DRC expansion program includes a completely refurbished grandstand area, new close-in parking lots and a new entrance from Inkster Road which will speed the flow of traffic.

The Detroit Race Course's 1965 meeting will be for 84 days, opening August 2 and continuing through November 6. Shaffer, William C. McKay, Executive Vice President; Paul R. Ryder, Vice President-operations; and Don W. Gardner, Secretary, were re-elected.

Thurston Falls To Powerhouse In Track Meet

The next state Class A high school track champion? It could be Roseville high, winner of the Huron Relays and co-champs in the Spartan Relays.

The East siders showed strong Thurston just how strong they are in scoring a 68-41 win in a dual meet last Tuesday.

Thurston managed victories in five of the events, but Roseville had too much all-around depth for Coach Bob Lake's Thurston contingent.

Al Phillips, the Thurston ace, remained unbeaten in the broad jump as he sailed 21 feet, 7 inches. Teammate Don Bristol was third in the event.

Phillips made it a double by taking the high jump with a fine leap of five feet, 10 inches. Rick Stefani also recorded a "double" for Thurston as he took both the hurdles. Stefani stepped the 120-yard high in 16.2 seconds and covered the 180 yard lows in 21.2 seconds.

Thurston's only other conquest came in the mile where Bob Grim paced the field in 4:41.

Here's how the Thurston team placed against Roseville:

Shot Put: 2—Jerry Szostack. Broad Jump: 1—Al Phillips, 3—Don Bristol. Time: 21 feet, 7 1/2 inches. High Jump: 1—Phillips. Height: 5 feet, 10 inches. Pole Vault: 3—Jim McEwen. Mile: 1—Bob Grim, 3—Jim Touchette. Time: 4:41.

120-yard High Hurdles: 1—Rick Stefani, 2—Leonard Cyr. Time: 16.2 seconds. 880-yard Run: 3—Ralph Stanifer, 440-yard: 2—Bristol, 3—Tom Adamson.

150-yard Low Hurdles: 1—Stefani, 3—Cyr. Time: 21.2 seconds. 220-yard Dash: 3—Charles Noble. Mile Relay: 2—Thurston. 880-yard Relay: 2—Thurston.

Matmen in Bitter Feud At Olympia

Wilbur Snyder and Gene Kiniski will renew their bitter feud Saturday (April 24) when they meet in a main event wrestling match at Olympia.

Snyder, former U.S. heavyweight champion, and Kiniski, a pro-football star with the Edmonton Eskimos, staged a wild brawl March 26 with Snyder winning the only fall but Kiniski taking the bout.

The strange twist occurred when Kiniski attacked Snyder during the rest period between falls and tossed him out of the ring. Snyder's leg was badly injured and he could not continue.

Since wrestlers cannot be disqualified between falls, Kiniski was declared the winner when Snyder limped to the dressing room.

The rematch will be a one-fall affair with a 60-minute time limit.

In the other half of a double main event, Dick the Bruiser will put his world heavyweight title on the line against former champion Golden Moose Cholak, a huge 350-pounder, out-weighs the Bruiser by about 100 pounds and is expected to give the champion his roughest title defense.

Thurston Wins In Opener

The baseball season opened on a happy note for Thurston high school.

Although Coach Bob Leggett's squad was reduced to only two veterans because of graduation losses, Thurston was able to nip Cherry Hill, 4-3, in its initial encounter.

Jim Sproul and Terry Rothwell, the lone carryovers, played a major role in the victory.

Sproul pitched the route, gave up six hits and fanned 12. He didn't walk a batter.

He had to work over some shaky support in several instances and then had to put down a Cherry Hill rally in the sixth inning.

Two errors led to Cherry Hill's first run in the second inning. Then Thurston came back to score three times when Rob Symanski singled and Reg Barringer doubled him across. Sproul singled Barringer to third and both men counted on a double by Rothwell.

The fourth Thurston run came when John Page singled, was forced at second by Mike Bernhardt and Symanski came through with another hit.

Cherry Hill tallied twice in the sixth before Sproul put out the fire. He retired the side in order in the final inning.

R.U. Routs Trenton

Paced by double winners Alan Maibach and Eric Vargo and a brilliant performance by sophomore Jack Shepard in the mile run, Redford Union's trackmen opened its activities in the Suburban Six League dual meet competition with a onesided 83-26 victory over Trenton on the RU track.

Maibach won the high jump with a leap of 5' 7" and the 120-yard high hurdles in :16.6 while Vargo swept the dashes with a clocking of :10.6 in the 100 and :24.2 in the 220. Vargo also anchored the winning half-mile relay team to a 1:40.4 victory.

Shepard, who shows promise of becoming the best miler in RU history, upset defending league champion John Daniel with a surprising time of 4:37 over the heavy track. The Panthers made a sweep in the long jump where Terry Shirkey, Glenn Davis and John Koenig finished 1-2-3 and also in the pole vault where Ted Gillespie, Jim Parnin and Bob Lagana took the first three places. Shirkey leaped 19' 7" and Gillespie cleared 10' 6".

RU won 11 of the 13 events, losing only the shot put and the low hurdles. Other winners were: Mike McCrea in the 440 with a time of :56.2 and Steve Crane in the 880 with 2:09.3.

The Panthers clash in a triangular meet at Walled Lake on Tuesday with Thurston as the third team and then travel to Highland Park for a dual meet on Thursday afternoon.

Rocks Lose Net Meets, Each by 4-3

Plymouth High's tennis team suffered a pair of 4-3 defeats last week.

First it was to Ann Arbor and then to Trenton.

All three Rock victories against Ann Arbor came in the doubles competition. Rick Jones teamed with Bob Waters, Clark Raven joined Jim Bruff and Tim Wernette played with Gary Fuelder to beat their opponents.

In the Trenton match, Plymouth's No. 1 singles' player, Dave Tidwell, triumphed as did the Jones-Waters and Raven-Bruff doubles pairs.

Sprints Cost Bentley Loss

Lack of sprinters cost Bentley high school a 60-49 defeat at the hands of Inkster Robichaud in a dual track meet.

The Livonians drew a blank in both the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes. In each race, Robichaud placed one-two-three. In addition, Bentley had to settle for a second in the 880-yard relay in which each man goes 220-yards. A second in the relays results in no points in dual meets.

"Failing to score in three events just killed us," said Bentley Coach Ron Fedraw. Dan Lare carried off individual honors for Bentley. He won the long (broad) jump with a leap of 20 feet, came back to take the pole vault with an 11-foot effort. Lare also ran third in the low hurdles and the second leg of the 880-yard relay team.

Jim Gregg of Bentley finished in a tie for second in the high jump and then came back to win the pole vault. Phil Balla in the 880-yard run and Doug Thomas in the low hurdles accounted for other individual wins for Bentley, whose mile relay team also came through on top.

Observing Sports

Bases full, one out. Batter drills fair shot on the ground into right field. Runner from third easily scores. So does man who was on second. But runner from first is flagged trying to make it three runs. In the meantime, batter-runner has reached third, but defensive team makes a play back to first base and umpire calls batter-runner out for failing to touch the initial sack. How many runs score? None. Re-read what we said in the paragraph above.)

2—If a fielder throws his glove—and hits—a fair hit ball, the batter-runner automatically is entitled to three bases. He can make it to the plate on his own risk.

3—When there are runners on first and second or the bases are loaded with less than two out, the infield fly rule prevails. Should a batter pop one up, which an infielder can catch with reasonable effort, the batter automatically is out. The other runners don't have to advance. If they do, they're on their own. (It's possible a pop can be ruled an "infield fly" even if it is caught by an outfielder.)

4—The regulation which requires a manager to change pitchers the second time he makes a trip to the mound exists in the American League only. There is no such rule in high school, or Little League play or sandlot action. However, in many amateur circuits a variation of the American League rule has been adopted. Usually, a pitcher is through, if a manager makes a second visit in the SAME INNING to the mound.

5—Until the starting lineups have been turned over to the umpire, the home team has the right to call off a game because of weather or other reasons. Once a pitch has been delivered, the umps alone can curtail the proceedings.

6—Whether it's a nine-inning or seven-inning game, it's not official until 4 1/2 innings have been played (with the home team in front), or five full innings have completed with the visitors on top. At Tiger Stadium, you can't cash a rain check once five innings have been finished, even if the score is tied.

7—If a batter interferes with the catcher while a man is trying to steal home, the runner coming in from third is called out if there were less than two outs when the play began. If there were two outs when the pitch was delivered, the batter is called out. In short, the worst penalty is inflicted in such situations.

8—If a runner leaves a base too soon on a fly ball, or bats out of turn, or misses a base, it's up to the defensive team to call the umpire's attention to such an infraction and make a proper appeal play. The umpire can't say a word until such an appeal has been made.

9—When making an appeal, teams should be cautioned that if time has been called, the only way for an appeal to be legal is for the ball to be placed on the mound by the pitcher. He then can step off the mound and fire to the base in question. If no timeout has been called, the ball may be thrown directly to the base.

10—Yes, it is possible for one umpire to overrule another. Usually, they won't.

11—In high school games, a batter may be called out if he comes to the plate without a helmet or protector in his cap. However, most umpires generally call timeout and order the player to get on a protector.

12—If a batter slams the ball off the pitching rubber and the ball rolls across the foul line between the plate and first, or the plate and third . . . it is A FOUL BALL.

13—When a grounder strikes an infielder between bases, the runner is automatically out. The batter is credited with a single and no other runners may advance, unless they must to permit the batter-runner to reach first.

14—In high school and sandlot games, the ground rules usually vary, but according to the official baseball rules, if there is a runner on second and the batter hits to the shortstop, the runner from second may score if the shortstop tosses the ball into the stands. This holds true, even if the runner hasn't left second.

15—A fair-hit ball which bounces over any fence restricts the batter to TWO BASES.

There are more rules which we might fire out, but for the moment, study the above and remember them at any ball game you see.

Glenn Upsets G. C. West In Opener

Garden City West High baseballers opened the season on a sad note with a 2-1 loss to John Glenn High of Nankin Township, largely because of mental lapses.

Garden City took a 1-0 lead in the third when Pitcher Bob Ardell walked, stole second, went to third on an infield out and tallied on a passed ball. But that was the last scoring opportunity for West who's bats were stilled by Glenn's Bob Nelson for three scattered hits.

Glenn knotted the count in the sixth when a cutoff play went awry. With runners on first and third, both Glenn players started to advance on a strikeout but the relay from the West High second baseman back to the plate was too late to cut off the score.

Then in the seventh, Glenn pushed across the winning run on a pair of walks and a single. West used four hurlers in the losing effort. The Garden City coach decided to test as many players as possible regardless of the outcome and his plan succeeded in every place but the final score. His quartet of hurlers wielded only three hits but wildness cost the victory.

Prepare Your Basement For Rains in Spring

Spring rains are coming and you can't stop them — but you can keep them from deluging your basement. Here are a couple of timely tips to help you "cellar condition."

Positive protection against flooded basements is more essential today than ever before because of the possibility of damage to motors on oil burners, automatic laundry equipment, etc.

The widespread use of basements for recreation rooms and hobby areas also emphasizes the need for this protection.

Installing a sump pump, sometimes called a cellar drainer, is recommended as a most effective means. This device is installed in a sump or pit at some convenient spot in the basement. When the water in the sump reaches a pre-determined danger level, a float valve starts the pump automatically, emptying all of the water then accumulated in the pit.

Sump pumps are made in various sizes to meet different load requirements. In areas where sewers are inadequate to quickly dispose of storm water, a sump pump is particularly recommended.

Also available as a means of protecting basements against the reverse flow of sewage during heavy rain storms is an automatically operated back-water valve which closes when the sewer backs up.

The valve also is equipped with a manual control as an additional safeguard if the automatic check valve should fail to operate. The installation of a back-water valve is a must in basements that have a water closet (toilet) installed.

Correct installation under the supervision of a qualified plumbing contractor is essential for efficient operation and protection of health.

Sagging and binding doors are sometimes caused by loose hinge screws.

If they won't retighten, plug the holes with wood filler and, when it hardens, replace the screws, using new ones if the heads of the old ones are damaged.

Take Few Tips From Builders When Selling

If you are moving and have a house to sell, take a tip from professional builders. Here are some of the things they do to a "trade-in" house in order to sell it at a profit:

- Paint the walls, inside and out. Use light colors. They make a house look bigger.

- If the buyer wants a dark color, you can tell him how easy it is to apply a dark color on top of a light one.

- If you paint in a dark color and he wants a light one, he'll realize he has a more difficult and expensive job.

- Don't be so free in painting ceilings. Most people don't look up. You probably can save money here.

- Paint inside closets. This is one of the places women like to check. If closets are freshly painted, prospective buyers will give you credit for attention to detail.

- If the old roof is worn-looking, reroof before you put the house on the market. Pick a fresh, modern color. Asphalt shingles are readily available and adapt themselves to irregular old surfaces.

You can have them put on top of most old materials inexpensively. Buyers recognize the prime importance of roofing to shelter.

- If you can boast, "I've just put on a fire-resistant, heavy-weight asphalt shingle roof guaranteed up to 25 years," buyers will be relieved of a couple of their main concerns.

- Pull out ratty-looking shrubs, particularly the ones close to the house.

- Attractive new plants do not need to cost much. If they are thriving, healthy plants, the prospect will feel he doesn't need to worry about replacement.

- If the living room flooring is worn, either sand it down and refinish it or cover it with an inexpensive grade of wall-to-wall carpet.

- The latter may be the better choice. It not only hides defects, it adds a plus-value. Pick a neutral color.

- If the kitchen range is old, put in a moderately priced new one.

- Put on new kitchen cabinet knobs and new door knobs.

- Put a new medicine chest in the bathroom.

Understandably, people are fussy about their hairbrushes and combs, toothbrushes, medicines, and other similar, personal belongings.

Medicine cabinets cost little and come in standard sizes. A new one will fit exactly into the space of the old one.

According to the manufacturer, the new method creates an air space between the home and the siding. The air space acts as a blanket against the transference of both heat and cold.

No Drainboards? Who Needs 'Em?

The old-fashioned drainboard on each side of the sink is being phased out of the modern kitchen.

One reason: the widespread use of the automatic dishwasher.

Countertops on each side of the sink, however, should still be surfaced with a waterproof material such as ceramic tile.

Thus, the surface can be both functional and colorful, since real ceramic tile is now available in more than 250 colors.

PREVENTS CRABGRASS

New Agrico pre-emergence Crabgrass control

You can seed with it

Most crabgrass killers radically reduce the germination of grass seed. New Agrico pre-emergence Crabgrass Control was scientifically developed to solve this Spring problem. It's so highly selective, you apply it the same day you seed with no worry about affecting germination of your desirable seed. You'll like the rite-weight 25-lb bag that treats 5000 sq. ft. of newly-seeded lawn, or 2500 sq. ft. of established lawn. You'll like the rite-price, too. Only $6.95.

When you buy your grass seed, get a bag of new Agrico pre-emergence Crabgrass Control. It's the effective Spring crabgrass product. Remember—2 out of 3 professional turfmen buy and use Agrico.

Turf, Trees Need Added Nutrients

Don't forget the shade trees when fertilizing your yard this spring. Many home owners fail to realize that little of the fertilizer applied on the lawn reaches the roots of shade trees. The turf receives most of these nutrients before they can reach the tree roots.

Use one pound of well-balanced fertilizer (10-10-10) for each one inch of trunk diameter four feet above the ground. Older trees more than six inches in diameter should get three pounds per inch of diameter. However, the amount of fertilizer should be decreased accordingly when part of the soil is covered by sidewalks.

Soak the soil thoroughly under the tree for two hours before fertilizing. Make imaginary circles surrounding the tree two feet apart until the circles extend just beyond the spread of the branches of the tree.

With a heavy bar, make holes about 24 inches apart in each of the circles. The holes should be about 18 inches deep. Using a small frozen fruit juice can, put about one-half can of fertilizer in each hole.

Keep adding fertilizer until it is used up and evenly divided. Water again and leave the holes open to allow air to penetrate down to the roots after fertilizing.

A specially designed hollow rod, which can be attached to the end of a garden hose, can be used instead of the bar for making the holes. It penetrates easily and uses special fertilizer cartridges which are dissolved by the water flowing through the hose.

Home owners should let the local garden store, nursery or landscape nurseryman help in selecting the proper fertilizer. Many tree experts and landscape nurserymen also have specialized machinery to quickly complete the tree fertilization if you are not the "do-it-yourself" type.

WRIST WATCHES are presented to James Davis (center), a division manager of the Carpet Department of Livonia Sears, and Salesman George Gazel by Sales Supt. Stan Bezaire (left) for outstanding sales performance. Gazel was the top salesman of the month, even going out on the day of the big snow in February to measure and take an order from a customer.

New Prills Give Grass Nitrogen

Feeding your lawn is like breathing. You can't store up enough this spring to last all summer. Fine lawn grasses need to be fed their nitrogen in measured amounts, slowly and continuously, to grow green and stay bright.

This presents a problem for the homeowner. He has little to gain by dumping a year's supply of fertilizer on his lawn all in one backbreaking weekend... yet scarcely is cheered by the prospect of backing out his spreader every evening.

Fortunately, this dilemma is solved successfully with a product called Greenfield Measured-Release Lawn Food, manufactured by Elanco Products Company, Indianapolis. This lawn food contains "prills"—little grass beads smaller than BB shots.

These beads contain nitrogen, wrapped in a porous coating which slowly lets in moisture. The moisture dissolves the enclosed nitrogen and carries it back out through the pores again—slowly and evenly over a period of weeks.

To lawn-conscious homeowners who understand how grass grows, nitrogen prills make sense. Nitrogen is the primary element that makes grass green. Each little grass plant stores the nitrogen it needs in its leaf blades. Each time the grass is mowed... CLIP... part of this stored nitrogen falls away, right when the grass plant needs nitrogen most for new top growth!

A properly fed lawn, receiving a steady supply of nitrogen from prills, stays green through many mowings.

Feeding by prill offers other advantages. There is no wild burst of growth at application time and no burned spots from localized over-fertilization. It's economical, too, since it saves and puts to work a lot of nitrogen which might otherwise leach wastefully away at the first rain.

Burton Hollow Hdwe. Plans Gala Opening

Don Miller, who started the slogan "You Buy It, We'll Apply It Free"—Fertilizer Plan while manager of the Brady Hardware Store on Plymouth Road, plans to carry it on while holding a grand opening celebration at his new store, the Burton Hollow Hardware, 17162 Farmington Road — intersection of Farmington and Six Mile Roads.

After six years at Brady, Don decided to go out on his own and found the prime location on Farmington Road for his new hardware store. There he will continue the policy he started at Brady.

"We'll continue to apply fertilizer if you buy it," he smiled. "This program worked wonders at Brady and I'm sure it will have the same sort of response at Burton Hollow. We hope to sell more than 10,000 bags of fertilizer in our new store."

Don, a graduate of Central High in Detroit and Michigan State University, where he received a degree in Business Administration, had been in the hardware business for 10 years. He followed in the footsteps of his father, who has had hardware stores most of his life.

Although he originally planned on some other type of business, Don finally selected hardware because its many facets intrigued him and he had a keep desire to help people solve their lawn, shrub and around-the-house problems.

A longtime advocate of advertising in the Observer Newspaper, Miller twice won the Toro Co. awards for the best promotion and top sales as the most outstanding independent dealer in the United States.

"It was only through the impact of Observer advertising that I was able to win this award for two consecutive years," he points out. "I was able to beat out some of the largest department stores in this area."

Through the same medium, he was tabbed as the top independent dealer in Michigan by Wonder Gro Fertilizer Co. in Lansing.

For the grand opening,

Burton Hollow Hdwe. Plans Gala Opening

slated for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Miller is offering a prize of a complete lawn program for 1965. The store will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Sunday.

Free soil tests will be available during the three days. He urges all residents of the area to bring in samples of their soil and it will be analyzed free of charge.

Don and his wife, Marylyne, are the parents of three children including two sons, Barry and Terry, and a daughter, Lisa.

On the lawn WITH LARRY LAWRENCE

Is a spreader really necessary for putting on lawn fertilizer? I am occasionally asked this question and the truthful answer is "No." Just as fingers were made before forks, seed and fertilizer were thrown by hand long before spreaders were invented.

However, a spreader offers many advantages. In the case of fertilizer it is likely to save you money since hand application is usually wasteful and when it comes to weed controls where complete and accurate coverage is important, a spreader is practically essential.

One of the frequent complaints against spreaders is that if they are not properly cared for they are likely to rust, particularly at the bottom of the hopper.

To overcome this, I see that Scott's new spreaders now have a new microcrystalline bonded finish and are guaranteed to last twice as long as any spreader you may have ever owned in the past.

Some people trade in their old spreaders every few years. This makes sense, particularly when most dealers will give you a good allowance on your old spreader, no matter what condition it is in.

The best alibi in the world is one a man never has to make.

Once Upon A Mattress To Open April 30 at FHS

The largest theatrical undertaking of Farmington Senior High is presently under rehearsal with opening night slightly more than a week away.

April 30, and the following night, May 1, will mark the climax of a grueling practice schedule and much "behind-the-scenes" work for the Broadway musical, "Once Upon A Mattress."

William Feucht, the producer, and FHS vocal music instructor, made the comment recently that "all is going according to schedule; maybe a little ahead of schedule." Costumes have been made, songs and lines are learned, the orchestra is ready, staging and lighting are set, and all that remains now, except for those last rehearsals, is opening night.

Community reaction to the upcoming production of "Once Upon A Mattress" has been so favorable that the second night's performance, May 1, is almost totally sold out. Originally, only the May 1 presentation was scheduled, but because of increasing demands for tickets, arrangements were made for the April 30 performance.

The director for the musical, Lee S. Peel, FHS English and journalism instructor, describes the play as a "delightful farce, full of not-too-original, but terribly funny lines."

The cast principals include Sophomore Ruth Clifton, as Queen Aggravaine; Senior Chris McKelvey, as Princess Winifred the Weebegone; Larry Adeock, a senior, as Prince Dauntless the Drab; Sophomore Craig Anderson as King Sextimus the Silent; and Seniors Terry Taggart and Joyce Ray as Sir Harry and Lady Larken. The additional chorus members and supporting characters bring the cast number to approximately 30.

The tickets may be purchased from Welsby's House of Music, downtown Farmington; or they may be obtained from any cast member, or by calling Farmington High School; and they may be purchased at the door. The performances will be held at the Farmington Junior High auditorium, and will begin promptly at 8 p.m.

Dale Carnegie Set to Meet Once a Week

Dale Carnegie Class No. 561 which graduated from the Carnegie course in effective public speaking in Farmington on Jan. 27, 1965, held its first Alumni meeting, recently at the First Farmington Savings & Loan Bank.

Fourteen graduates were present: Donald T. Brann, James Day, David D. Edmonds, William Gladden, Louis Karol (Pres.), Gerald Krause, Lawson Musser, Sylvia W. Nelson, Oris L. O'Daniel, Kenneth I. Pendleton, James A. Pieuch (V. Pres.), Adolf Schiller, Carlton A. Troutaud and Charlene Wiska.

Also present were two of the Graduate Assistants who had been so helpful and inspiring to the members of the class during the course: Judson C. Goltz and William G. Shenk.

The class agreed to meet one Wednesday a month to continue their public speaking exercises.

The next meeting of the group will be held on Wednesday, April 28, at 8 p.m., at the First Farmington Savings & Loan. Mr. Pieuch offered to bring impromptu speech topics to this meeting. A representative of the Dale Carnegie Alumni Association has been invited to present information at the next meeting about the Alumni Association and about how to start a chapter, etc.

RUBINOFF AND HIS VIOLIN are coming to Bentley High School at 8:15 p.m. on May 3. Proceeds will go to the American Field Service. The Livonia Rotary is sponsoring the concert. Tickets may be obtained from any Rotarian or at the Hammell Music Store on Middlebelt in Livonia. Dave Rubynoff is a well-known violinist who plays a $100,000 Stradivarius.

Paintings Will Be Shown at Marygrove College

Marygrove College students, faculty members and alumnae will view, for the first time, one of the few public recognitions of Madame Cadillac's arrival in Detroit—the city her husband founded in 1701.

Anyone associated with Marygrove over the past many years immediately became aware of this pioneer woman because of the name of the first residence hall on the campus—Madame Cadillac Hall—and a statue of her in its foyer which leads to the campus dining rooms.

Interest in this early settler will be heightened during the week of April 23-30 when an original oil painting titled "Madame Cadillac Arrives at Detroit" will be on view together with 10 other canvases depicting the history of Michigan.

This exhibit will coincide with the Marygrove homecoming weekend scheduled for April 23-25 at which time hundreds of alumnae, many accompanied by their husbands and children, will return to their college campus.

The 11 paintings, which the general public is invited to see, will be exhibited in Alumnae Hall in the Madame Cadillac residence building, during the afternoon and early evening hours.

Folk Art Exhibited at Museum

A special exhibit of American folk art paintings are being displayed now through April 25 at the Henry Ford Museum.

A group of 37 outstanding pieces are included in this showing, drawn from the Museum and Village collection. These early American paintings are a part of the group that are hung in some of the historic American homes at Greenfield Village or in the decorative arts galleries of the Museum.

The collection ranges from an 1800 period portrait of George Washington, used as a sign for Pratt Tavern in Massachusetts, to memorial pictures and religious scenes. The Washington portrait was a gift from Edsel Ford to his father in the 1930's.

The largest painting in the exhibit is a Liberty portrait, done in the period between 1875 and 1900. This picture is painted on an ordinary window shade and is 7 feet in length.

The American folk art paintings are in the special exhibition section of the Henry Ford Museum. This special cultural feature is included in the regular Museum admission charge. The regular hours are from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. on weekdays, and from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Luncheon Will Honor Civic Leaders

A civic luncheon to mark Industrial Day will be held during Redford Township's celebration of Michigan Week on May 19.

The Chamber of Commerce will host the luncheon at the Kenwood Restaurant and Lounge and members of all service clubs and community organizations have been invited to attend. Woodward Smith, Vice-President of Central Michigan University, and state-wide chairman of Michigan Week, will speak.

Mrs. Rocchi To Solo April 25

Internationally renowned pianist, Eleanor Lipkin Rocchi, will be guest soloist with The Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra on April 25, at Community Arts Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Nathan Gordon conducts. Mrs. Rocchi, a former Detroit resident, is well known to Detroit audiences for her appearance with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Recently returned from Europe, her successful concert tour included Italy, Germany, Switzerland, Austria and England.

"Jack and Beanstalk"

Thanks to the recent sell-out from the play "Jack and the Beanstalk", plus contributions from local PTA's, the Farmington Area PTA Council Scholarship Committee will be able to increase its awards this year to four.

The man who is found to be big enough to shoulder responsibility will be hunted out.

Clar'nceville Sets Finian's Rainbow Production

"Finian's Rainbow" is slated for production by Clarenceville High School May 7 and 8 at the Junior High auditorium.

Satire and fantasy are the two main elements of the story which revolves around Finian McLonergan and his daughter, Sharon, who come from Glocca Morra to Missitucky, USA. They bring with them a crock of gold, stolen from Og, a leprechaun, and all sorts of complications develop.

Some of the hit tunes of the show are: "How Are Things in Glocca Morra?", "Old Devil Moon," "Look to the Rainbow," and "When I'm Not Near the Girl I Love."

Farmington Sets 'Rumpelstiltskin' Performance

Two performances of "Rumpelstiltskin" are scheduled for April 24 at the Farmington Junior High School. Curtain time is 3:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

The Northville Players production is being sponsored by the Farmington Senior High School Exchange and the Can I Help You Clubs.

The first performance is geared to the younger set while the second performance is designed as an evening of family entertainment.

Proceeds will be partially used to aid students from Farmington High School who will travel abroad during the summer. Tickets may be purchased from any Exchange or CIHU Club member or by calling the Farmington Senior High School.

Hearthstone Elects Civic Assn. Officers

Ed May, 20170 Maplewood, Livonia, has been re-elected president of the Hearthstone Home Owner's Association. Secretary is Mrs. Mildred Yates. Treasurer is Mrs. Diane Brennan.

Brubeck-Ellington Set Dual Concert

A double concert featuring one of America's foremost composer-bandleaders, Duke Ellington, and the world-renowned jazz personality, Dave Brubeck, will highlight the University of Detroit Spring Carnival Friday, April 30. The performance will be at 8:30 p.m. in the U. of D. Memorial Building.

Duke Ellington's appearance at the U. of D. marks his second visit to the University campus. In 1951 he joined Ed Sullivan in a Spring Carnival Midway Show and played for the Carnival Ball. Ellington maintains an impressive list of composer and conductor accomplishments. As "creator of a new musical idiom," Duke Ellington became the first big bandleader to "invade" Carnegie Hall, in 1943. His "Harlem," a longer composition depicting the contemporary American Negro in tone impressions, was commissioned by the NBC Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Arturo Toscanini, and was later presented to the then-president Harry S. Truman in a White House ceremony.

Composer Ellington, who maintains that "There's no longhair music and no jazz music. There's just music," has also put his name on such successful compositions as "Don't Get Around Much Anymore," "Mood Indigo," "I'm Beginning to See the Light," and "Sophisticated Lady."

Dave Brubeck, "the symbol of progressive jazz," has gained international attention in recent years for his history-making world travels under the auspices of the U.S. State Department.

In the State Department Cultural Exchange Program, his work abroad has been acclaimed as the most successful as carrying the message of jazz to the far corners of the world, bridging language, cultural and racial differences, and creating communication between people of different cultures.

Ticket information on the Ellington-Brubeck Concert can be obtained by calling the U. of D. Memorial Building Box Office at DI 2-1029.

"Tiny Alice" Review Set

The Birmingham Temple will sponsor as its Spring Fund Raising Event, a Book Review by Rabbi Sherwin T. Wine.

It will deal with the book "Tiny Alice" by Edward Albee. The review is scheduled for Tuesday, April 27, at 8:30 p.m. It will be held at the John Kennedy School in Southfield. Tickets are available either at the door or by calling Ann Ackerman at LI 7-4908.

REHEARSAL PIANIST Betty Curtiss picks up the bridge for a solo sung by Johnny Titus in the musical "Hillzapoppin'." A cast of 60 Redford Suburban League Theatre Guild members and husbands will also contribute their talents to the April 30, May 1 and 2 performances in the Redford Union High School Auditorium.

Symphony Is Coming To Livonia Schools

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will give a special series of concerts to be presented between May 12 and June 5 at schools in the Detroit metropolitan area under the joint auspices of the Recording Industries (Music Performance) Trust Funds as recommended by the Detroit Federation of Musicians and The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Inc. This special series was given for the first time last spring. All the programs will be conducted by Valter Poole.

5. All these concerts will begin at 8:15 p.m. and are free to the public.

The Recording Industries (Music Performance) Trust Funds consist of contributions made by the producers of phonograph records, based on volume sales, and administered by an independent Trustee named by the manufacturers to pay for engagements of musicians on occasions that are free to the public.

GOING CURTAIN

"Barefoot In The Park" tippy-toed its way into the Fisher Theater last week. Before Act I was five minutes old, the solid laughter of the audience gave hilarious evidence of the joyful time to be had during the entire evening.

Director Mike Nichols has added speed, dash, and vitality to a script that at times tends to sag with gags. Author Neil Simon, a former radio-TV writer, is tempted occasionally to throw wild lines about the set as though he were still pounding the typewriter for Jerry Lewis.

Although Myrna Loy is getting top billing, the real stars of the road production are Joan Van Ark and Richard Benjamin. Myrna assumes the top billing by virtue of her past movie experience. She was a great comedienne in her day.

As the nosy mother-in-law in "Barefoot In The Park" she fields her lines well and contributes actively to the general horseplay going on. However, you never quite get over the feeling that William Powell would suddenly walk on-stage and toss her a comic line from her "Thin Man," Hollywood series.

Guess what I'm trying to say is that Myrna didn't really unbend enough to be an integrated part of the rough-and-tumble comedy that was swirling all about her. Perhaps Miss Loy has been away from the stage too long. Well, her rather formal acting of the part does in no way spoil the proceedings.

Sandor Szabo, the old gay blade upstairs, charms the mother-in-law, the audience, and adds to the general guffaw level. His gourmet cooking scene stopped the show. Yes, "Barefoot In The Park" is welcome relief after all the flops during the recent months at the Fisher. Seems good to hear the rafters ring with the sound of hearty laughter.

Neil Simon has two hit comedies now playing on Broadway. His "The Odd Couple" opened about a month ago. The critics raved as they did when "Barefoot" opened almost a year ago. Has Mr. Simon retired to count his many dollars? Not at all, he is busy writing "Slaughter on 10th Avenue," a comedy murder-mystery. It's encouraging to know that Mr. Simon is preparing more foolishness for the coming season.

You'll see a lot of "Barefoot" in the years to come as little theater groups will revel in the snappy dialogue that peppers the script.

Only one difficulty that I foresee is the skylight center stage. You need a high proscenium to give it the marvelous sweep built in by designer Oliver Smith. And two climaxes in the show depend on this window. However, I have great faith in community theater designers. Somehow or other they always come up with a reasonable adaptation of the Broadway original and the show has the same happy effect.

"Zorba, the Greek" is presently playing at the Studio 8 in Detroit and at the Campus

Theater in Ann Arbor. Take your choice as to the direction you wish to drive, but by all means go immediately to see the picture of the year. It tops "Never On Sunday," an earlier Greek Academy Award winner. "Zorba" was made as an English film, but all the foreign film techniques are presented and make this film a dazzler.

Anthony Quinn is wonderful. His zest for life comes through so vividly that you swear you are watching a stage production. This film, though done in black and white, drips with local colors of Crete. Every person in the picture supporting Mr. Quinn has star status in my book.

It's rare to see a picture that can evoke the responses from an audience as "Zorba the Greek" does. He is a man everyone loves. He has some of the scampish nature of Sakini who you met and loved in "Teahouse of the August Moon." His philosophy is rough and ready. I suspect most of us in the audience would like to embrace such a liberal view of life. Maybe that's what makes this picture so appealing.

The photography shimmers and glows. You must see it to appreciate the excellent composition, balance, and emphatic editing. "Zorba, the Greek" has cinematic sequences in it that you will be remembering for years. It's that type of picture. Les Crane during his short stay on the ABC Nightlife show raved about the picture after previewing it. Old Wally concurs with Mr. Crane — "Zorba, the Greek" is magnificent."

THE BILLBOARD (Week of April 21-28) FISHER THEATER — "BAREFOOT IN THE PARK." Dash to the box office and purchase tickets for this "Simon" purely fantastic comic classic. In town for three more weeks. CAMPUS THEATER — "ZORBA THE GREEK." Try not to miss this Academy Award winner. Will be at this Ann Arbor movie house until May 1. HILBERY CLASSIC THEATER — "MACBETH, TAMING OF THE SHREW, GALILEO, OEDIPUS REX." You have only seven weeks left to see one or all of these four fine classic plays. Call 833-5151 for tickets and performance dates. MASQUE THEATER — "THE DEADLY GAME." Not so exciting a presentation of a most talky play. Remains at the Hotel Wolverine location for another five weeks.

Tickets on Sale Here for Big Democratic Fete

The annual Democratic Party Jefferson-Jackson Day Dinner will be held on Saturday, May 1, in Cobo Hall, Detroit. A reception honoring Democratic officials will begin at 5:30 p.m., with the dinner scheduled to begin at 6:30 p.m.

Catholic Women Set Two Day Convention

The need for a personal commitment to the cause of Christianity will dominate the attention of delegates and guests to the 26th Annual Convention of the Detroit Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women April 28 and 29 at the Statler-Hilton Hotel in Detroit.

Area women who are serving on the committee for the convention are: Mrs. Peter Stevens, 33287 Myrna Ct., Livonia; luncheon chairman; Mrs. Charles McAllister, 28932 James, Garden City, chairman for patron listing in Deane Year Book and for deanery contact; Mrs. William Zager, 12860 Nathalie, Redford Township, Hostess Chairman for Western Wayne Deanery; Mrs. Rocco Paluzzi, 17315 Rouevay, Livonia, recorder for "We Neurotics" evening workshop; and Mrs. Patrick Brady, 32744 Lyndon, Livonia.

Mrs. Brady will present one of 10 "Programs in Action" at the annual meeting. She will relate how the St. Maurice Altar Society relates to the DACCW structure and programs, and how in a special way the Christmas Child Shower and the Holy Hour for married couples on Jan. 10 for the Feast of the Holy Family furthered the aims of the Council.

Sunday School Classes Move

The Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ Sunday School moves to the Allen Elementary School on Haggerty Rd. this Sunday.

Classes, which are offered for children from three years through teen ages, begin at 9:30 a.m. Permission was granted to the church by the Plymouth District Board of Education to use the building on Sunday mornings from 9 to 11 a.m. on April 12.

The use of the school for Christian Education purposes is temporary, according to the Rev. David F. Romberg, pastor of the church, as the congregation will erect a new Chapel and education building on Ann Arbor Rd. and McClumpha, west of Plymouth, within a year.

Formed just about a year ago, the congregation holds a service at 10:45 a.m. at a temporary chapel at 41233 Ann Arbor Trail.

Special novena services in honor of St. Anthony are being conducted weekly on Tuesday evenings by the Franciscan Fathers of Duns Scotus College, Southfield, Michigan. Services begin at eight p.m. every Tuesday, continuing through June 8.

Family Living Conference Set at Ward Memorial

Rev. and Mrs. Fred Renich, directors of Missionary Internship, Inc. of Farmington, will lead a conference on family living April 24 at the Ward Memorial Presbyterian Church in Livonia.

The conference will begin at 3:30 p.m. and feature lectures and discussion groups on meeting family problems and growing as parents and partners. A buffet supper will be served at 6 p.m. and the evening session will run from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Reservations for the supper may be made by calling Paul Gilbert at 476-1855. The community is invited to attend the Priest Joins Mediations in Farmington

On April 23 Rev. Edward Konopka of St. Colman's Roman Catholic Church in Farmington Township will join a group of Farmington teen agers at a Morning Meditation at the Antioch Lutheran Church in the Township.

The morning meditations are an outgrowth of teen agers' requests for such a service last September to Rev. Kaitreider, pastor of Antioch Lutheran. They were held each weekday from 7:50 to 8 a.m.

Presently participating in the meditations are: Pastor Carl Mehl, Pastor George Ramsey, Rev. William Holmes, Rev. Robert Sawyer and Rev. Kaitreider.

The ten minute, daily service, which is a cooperative effort on the part of Farmington church, is not designed to replace any existing religious service, but merely to meet the needs of the students.

Church and religious affiliated youth groups are an accepted and often time consuming part of church life. They are so accepted that the basic purpose and reason for such groups and for church sanction of these groups is often overshadowed and sometimes forgotten.

Two such youth groups are illustrative of the many such organizations. These are the Pioneer Girls for girls from the 3rd through 12th grades and the Christian Service Brigade for boys between the ages of 8 and 18.

The Pioneer Girls Programs are active in churches of more than 20 denominations in the U.S. and Canada and a few

Franciscan Day of Recollection Set for Boys

To give Detroit area boys and young men a close look at the life of a Franciscan Brother, a Day of Recollection is planned for Sunday, April 25 by the Brothers at Duns Scotus College.

Taking the form of a spiritual renewal, the day will offer three conferences led by Franciscan Priests and Brothers and participation Mass 1:15 at which Communion may be received.

Because they feel that their vocation is not very well understood, the Franciscan Brothers are inviting interested young Catholic men in the area to visit with them and learn something of the work and rewards that go with this way of life.

The Day of Recollection will start with registration at 12:30 p.m. and will include conference sessions, lunch, a motion picture, a tour of the college and close with a Scripture service.

All interested young men in the area, between the ages of 16 and 35 are invited to attend. Reservations may be made by calling Brother Miguel at 444-4388.

Brigade Derby Winners Named

The Christian Service Brigade No. 2297 of Westland Baptist Church of Livonia held its Pine-wood Derby Finals Thursday night, April 8. The Boys Stockade, ages 8-11, had held its finals Friday, April 2, with their four finalists meeting the Battalion's finalists, boys 12-18, to determine best overall winner.

Winners in the Stockade were: Barry Coughenour, first place and Best Workmanship Award; Jeff McGrath, second place and Most Original Design Award; Mike Mutch, third place; and Mike Sweetman, fourth place.

Battalion's winners were Dennis Mutch, first place and Best Car Award; Mark Watson, second place; Larry Palmer, third place and John Aitken, fourth place.

In the Runoff of the first four-place cars of both groups: first place Overall went to Barry Coughenour of the Stockade, who was undefeated in all the races. Mark Watson of Battalion won second place Overall; Jeff McGrath of Stockade, third place overall; Mike Sweetman, Stockade, fourth place Overall, and Dennis Mutch, Battalion, fifth place Overall.

Stockade took the Brigade honors in the First Annual Runoff with the Battalion Boys in what promises to be a big event in the yearly plans of both groups.

Missionary Rally Currently Underway

The seventh annual Detroit area missionary rally is currently being held at the Memorial Church of Christ in Redford Township. The rally began last night and will continue tonight and Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Andrew Patton, who has been working in Japan since January, 1948, will speak tonight. President of the Tokyo Bible Seminary for 10 years, Patton has been doing evangelistic work in the Tokyo area since 1959.

Speaking on Thursday will be Don Poorman, who has acquired an extensive knowledge of the country of Ghana.

Clifford Schaub spoke Tuesday evening. Schaub and his family were held as hostages in the Congo for almost a month last year. They were rescued from Stanleyville during the American-Belgian airlift.

Victory Over Death

The Christian's approach to final victory over death will be a central theme at all Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Probation After Death." One of the Bible selections to be read is from Galatians: "He that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting."

Serving As We Would Wish to be Served

Rev. Roland F. DeRenzio, Pastor of the Westland church, explained that all activity included in the Pioneer Girls program is purposeful "to demonstrate the fact that Christ can be exalted in every phase of a girl's life."

At Westland, the Pilgrim meet every Monday from 6:45 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.; and the Colonists meet every Tuesday from 6:45 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. There is no Explorers group under the church auspices at the present time.

For the boys the Christian Service Brigade serves very much the same purpose as the Pioneer Girls. The Brigade contains two age divisions, the Stockade (ages 8-11) and the Battalion (12-18) which are geared to meet the needs of boys for physical, mental, social and spiritual development.

The Brigade started as a single boys club in 1937 and was incorporated in 1940. Today the organization is growing steadily and reaching thousands of boys every week in local groups through the U.S., Canada, the Philippines and Costa Rica.

Brigade has no organic connection with any political, social or religious group, but is currently working with Churches of about 20 Evangelical Denominations.

Weekly meetings are held, preferably in the local church, which include an active Club program of games, contests, and achievement and is climaxed by a Gospel-centered story or talk by the leader.

There is a unique opportunity for personal counseling in this organization as the boys come individually to leaders in order to pass achievement tests.

At the Westland Baptist Church the Battalion meets from 6:45 to 8:30 p.m. on Thursdays and on Fridays from 6:45 to 8:30 p.m.

Film on Emotionally Disturbed Children Highlights Redford MAEDC Meeting

The Redford Chapter of the Michigan Association for Emotionally Disturbed Children had a film showing for its March meeting when the speaker was unable to attend.

The film, entitled "Who Cares About Jamie?", depicted the effect of adults on a child in a routine day of his life. Claire Davis from the Michigan office brought the new film to obtain the impressions of the group as to its value for purchase. Eight students were present from Marygrove College.

Discussion followed on the aims, goals and functions of MAEDC and its local chapters; and on legislation regarding disturbed children.

Legislation has made facilities available but can only be of benefit when utilized. Parents groups are needed to request these services and the Redford Chapter has requested class rooms for disturbed children in Redford.

South Redford and Redford Union Districts have agreed to make a study of the situation. State Aid is provided for this service of Special Education for disturbed children and costs much less than the placing in institutions, the children who are in need of this service.

A board meeting followed the general meeting. The decision was made to donate the MAEDC recommended book "No Language But A Cry" to the public libraries in Redford Township, Livonia and Farmington; also to donate two copies of the Suburban League Book "Binkie The Forgetful Clown" to the Methodist Children's Village for the younger children's cottages. Presentation of the books has been made.

The Redford Chapter is the only Chapter of MAEDC which is not connected with an institution or school but is dedicated to the service of parents with children in the public schools as well as the institutions. The Chapter is looking forward to enlarging the membership so as to have more contact with areas outside and around Redford Township including Detroit. Membership is $3 per year including both state and local dues, and may be mailed to the treasurer, Mrs. Beverly Kay, 16864 Sunderland, Detroit, 48219. Membership is not necessary to attend the meetings and the public is welcome.

The next meeting will take place on April 22 at 8 p.m. in Methodist Children's Village, 26645 W. Six Mile Road. The Speaker will be Ann Tentenny, Director of Nursing, Northville State Hospital, who will explain the children's school program.

Chapter officers attended the Northwestern Child Guidance Clinic Annual Meeting where speaker David Wineman spoke on "The Role of The School, The Clinic And The Home." Wineman recommended more conferences between these people to establish closer contact with more understanding. The Redford Chapter is able to give parents the help they need to achieve this type of understanding. Professionals and interested persons desiring to aid disturbed children are also important and welcome to the Chapter meetings. Refreshments will be served.

Human Relations News For The Suburbs

By ROBERT MILES EDDY
Farmington Human Relations Council

The tendency to see problems of human relations in terms of "we" and "they" seems to be growing. I keep hearing suburban residents talk about "them" moving in and what "we" should do. There are no solutions to our problems in these terms. Only as "we" discover that "they" are also people with virtues and vices, pains and pleasures, dedication and selfishness, wisdom and stupidity—just like "us"—only then will our insoluble inter-group problems become solvable problems of human relations.

But our suburban isolation makes it difficult. The legacy of job discrimination makes the percentage of Negro families able to afford suburban homes very small. According to our Michigan Constitution any Negro family who has the money can move to an all-white suburb. But how many of that affluent minority are willing to risk neighborhood favor? Not many, perhaps one in a hundred, so the chance of my area becoming integrated—except in token fashion—is pretty slim. "Good" some would say. I say, "Terrible," not so much out of concern for chocolate skinned children as out of concern for my own. I know that this racial isolation makes my children subject to a pernicious disease: prejudice. For no matter how much I talk to them of the virtues of integration, their "we" will be white. There just aren't any Negroes around to keep that unconscious assumption of whiteness from entering into their definition of "we."

Despite the proliferation of laws, center Detroit is becoming more solidly black each year. The suburbs are still overwhelmingly white. "They" are black; "we" are white. The center city melting pots, which amalgamated Poles, and Italians, Irish and Jews, Germans and Greeks into the exotic blend we call America, no longer exist. In their place boils a pressure cooker of frustration, every day fixating the alienation of 10% of America's citizenry from the other 90%. Pressure cookers explode if left to boil too long.

White America's dedication to Democracy and Judeo-Christian ethics has, so far, failed to create a large enough "we." Perhaps enlightened self interest will.

It is not enough for well meaning whites to say "we" won't throw stones if "they" move in. We must do everything in our power to make "them" part of "us." Many of my friends disagree, but I believe we must take positive action to bring more Negro families to our suburbs—not so much for "their" sake as for "our" own.

SALES PROMOTION "Man of the Year"

Doyle W. Lott, right, manager of truck advertising, sales promotion, training for Dodge, has been selected as 1964 "man of the year" by members of the Sales Promotion Executives Association, Detroit Chapter. He was honored for "outstanding promotional activity that materially aided the nationwide introduction of Dodge's compact trucks in 1964." Thomas H. Schultorpe, chapter president, and sales promotion manager of the Stroh Brewing Company, presented the award at a special March 18 dinner meeting in Detroit's Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel. Thomas H. Schultorpe, a Livonia resident, lives at 32923 Bobrich Court.

CHILDREN AT VOLNEY

Smith Elementary School presented "Magic Mary," their Spring Musical. From left: Marshall Austin (Burt); Gwenda Gerke (Mary Poppins); Wendy Stalo (Little Girl); Garry Bluhm (The Boy); and four little penguin-dancers—Lynda Eck, Linda Forsyth, Pamela Beach, and Rebby MacMillan. All Volney Smith second, fourth, and sixth graders participated, as well as members of the fifth and sixth grades special chorus. The musical was under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Snyder, music teacher at Volney Smith.

GREENE MOTORS

Come in and go for a test walk.

In a Volkswagen Station Wagon's 170 cubic feet you really have room to walk around. It carries 9 adults or untold numbers of youngsters. When you take out the middle seat you have plenty of room to carry almost a ton of very large cargo.

Standard equipment includes:

- 2 Tone Paint
- Seat Belts
- Overhead Ventilator
- Outside Rearview Mirror
- Electric Windshield Wiper
- Windshield Washer
- And a Heater, of course.

All this for only $2,462.59 plus tax and license. Or, perhaps you want to keep your payments lower—See our Used Wagons, prices from $995.
