Robert Utter Seeks Re-Election to Board

Robert Utter, vice president of the Plymouth Community School Board, whose term of office expires on the last day of June, will seek re-election to a four-year term.

Amherst Court in Plymouth Township, announced his candidacy Monday when he took out nominating petitions at the school administration office on Lilley Road.

"I had thought earlier of calling it quits when my term expired," Utter said, "but after thinking the matter over and realizing the challenges the Board faces in the coming years, I decided I wanted to be on hand to help face those problems if the voters so decree."

"Thus, I have taken out nominating petitions and will seek re-election in the election on June 14."

The deadline for filing petitions is Saturday, May 15, at 4 p.m. The final date for voters to register for the school election is Monday, May 17, at 5 p.m.

Utter is the first to take out a petition for school board although there are unsubstantiated rumors that William Nelson, who gained prominence as chairman of the Michigan Week program a year ago, and Wendell

Smith, who resides in the Lake Pointe subdivision and is one of the leading lights of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, may enter the race before the deadline.

Other members of the School Board are: President Gerald Fischer, Secretary Mrs. Esther Hulsing, Treasurer Robert Soth and Trustees John McLaren and Ernest Henry.

Merchants Slate Talks On Rubbish

After griping about rubbish disposal and collection and snow removal around the Central Parking Lot area for months, members of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, retail division, have finally decided to do something constructive about it.

Chairman Don Zander, manager of Fisher's Shoes, has called a meeting with city officials for Thursday (April 29) at noon in the Round Table Club to iron out the misunderstandings and difficulties.

The Retail Committee has arranged a session with Acting City Manager Ken Fisher and Supt. Joseph Bida of the Department of Public Works, and heads of businesses bordering the Central parking lot, to discuss a plan or system for a satisfactory method of dealing with the problem.

Details concerning the city's responsibilities and those of the businessmen will be clarified so that all will have a definite idea of what each will do.

The City doesn't collect rubbish or garbage but contracts it to a private firm which has made an agreement for three pickups weekly in the Central parking lot. However, there has been a great deal of misunderstanding over the responsibilities of the businessmen as to the number of pickups and the number of containers and packages allowed each week.

These are items that will be clarified at Thursday's meeting.

Hockey Assoc. Honors Teams In Banquet

The Plymouth Hockey Association will pay tribute to players and coaches of teams that participated during the winter, in the annual banquet Sunday evening at 5 p.m. in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall on S. Mill Street.

President James McKindies indicates a representative of the Detroit Red Wing organization will be the principal speaker. Red Wing officials indicated the speaker would probably be Alex Delvecchio or Jimmy Peters or George Gee.

More than 175 parents and players will attend the affair which officially concludes activities for the 1964-5 campaign.

Canton Group Protests Dam Break, Flood

Canton Township residents, in the area of Ann Arbor and Napier Roads, are more than a bit disturbed over the break in a dam, on the land of the 10-Mile Road Land Co., in the Plymouth Township side of that intersection, that threatened to flood their homes.

The wave of water from the five-acre lake, which had been built on the site, threatened homes, almost covered Ann Arbor Road and washed out entrances to homes on the Canton Township side, the group protested to the planning commission at last week's meeting.

happy to listen to the complaints so that members would have the information available for future activities of the land company.

Paul Boat, representing the 10-Mile Land Co., appeared before the Commission more than once last summer to request rezoning for the various types of construction planned for the huge site.

He informed the Board then that his company would not go ahead with plans for the lake, according to statements from Commission members, and the first news they had of the installation was when the dam break and flood were reported.

BOOKS, BOOKS and more books are displayed by Mrs. Margaret Larson (left), 1455 W. Ann Arbor Trail, and Mrs. Howard Bloom, 11749 Turkey Run, co-chairmen of the annual sale conducted by the Plymouth branch of the AAUW. More than 2,000 books will go on sale Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 29, 30 and May 1, at the A&P store on Arbor Road.

The Association uses the entire profits to finance fellowships for higher education for women and scholarships to Schoolcraft College. The sale will coincide with the store hours.

Twp. Plan Board Okays Postiff Estate Hearing

The Plymouth Township planning commission didn't say "yes", neither did it say "no" to the latest proposal of Thomas Notebaert, acting as representative of Rose Hill Builders for the proposed development of the Postiff site for apartments, duplex and single residences.

Notebaert, who has appeared before the board no less than four times with proposals for use of the acreage, offered the newest plan at last week's meeting and secured permission for a public hearing at the May meeting.

Notebaert's revised plans included 116 apartment units, 14 duplexes and 65 dwellings with two roads for entrance and exits.

After considerable discussion, the Commission, upon the recommendation of Planner W.

C. Johnson, recommended the apartments be trimmed to 110 units and the single dwellings boosted to a total of 70.

The proposed subdivision, on the Postiff estate which is south of Ann Arbor Road and west of Lilley Road, will be presented in the revised design for the public hearing.

Four in Area Win Chrysler Scholarships

Four Livonia-Farmington area residents have won scholarship awards from the Chrysler Corporation Fund. They were among 150 high school seniors who are children of Chrysler employees to share a total of $88,600 in awards.

Local recipients were:
Barbara J. Barr, 34980 Wadsworth, Livonia, a Franklin High student who will major in education at Mt. Holyoke College;
John W. Bennett, 14249 Ingram, Livonia, a Bentley High student who will study law at the University of Michigan;

Janice E. Hennicken, 17542 Pershing, Livonia, a Bentley student, who will major in education at Hope College; and James M. Gleeson, 28742 Ravenwood, Farmington Twp., a North Farmington High student who will major in mathematics at the University of Michigan.

The Chrysler Corporation scholarship program is the largest of its kind in the United States. Scholarship winners were selected by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation on the basis of scholastic ability, leadership, and good citizenship. The scholarships range from $250 to $1,500 per academic year, depending on the student's need, for each of four years' study at a college or university of the student's choice. In addition, privately-endowed schools will receive $250 yearly from the Chrysler Corporation Fund for each scholarship winner.

Of the 150 scholarship winners, 94 are boys and 56 are girls. Their career choices cover over 30 different areas, with most, 36, planning to enter teaching or an allied educational profession.
Engineering is the second highest career preference, with 29 scholarship winners indicating that curriculum. Medicine and medical technology will attract 18 of the students.

The Chrysler scholarship winners come from 15 different states, with Michigan predominating with 97 recipients. Fourteen scholarship students are from Indiana and nine from the state of New York.

Senior Citizens Set Activity In Plymouth

The senior citizens of Plymouth will hold an open house program on Thursday, May 13 from 1 to 3 p.m. in the Masonic Hall. All citizens of the community are welcome, especially those contemplating becoming members.

The annual May Senior Citizens Day celebration of the Detroit Recreation Department is scheduled for Tuesday, May 4 in the Light Guard Armory on Eight Mile Road in Detroit. It will be held from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and the program includes card playing, dancing and other activities.

The luncheon will be $1.75. Those desiring to make reservations should call Linda Myers at 584-5590 by May 4.

Mrs. Gertrude Redmond, of the Detroit Visiting Nurses Association, explained the services available, especially to the aged, at the April 22 meeting.

The three Upon sisters, of Plymouth, presented guitar and vocal selections.
Mrs. Harry Mumby and her committee served a birthday cake and jello.

Members of the club were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Wilfred Robinson on April 16 just three days after his return from a winter vacation in Arizona.

Promoted to PFC
Stephen Robbins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Robbins of 14416 Beech Daly Rd., Redford Township, was recently promoted to Private First Class at the Roosevelt Military Academy at Aledo, Illinois. Robbins is a junior at Roosevelt.

HOPELESSLY LOST
It's proven fact that people who beat around the bush take the long road to nowhere.

East Junior Orchestra, Band Cited

The Rocket band and the Easternaires, from Plymouth's Junior High East, received Division II, excellent ratings in the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association's state festival at Warren on Saturday.

The band played "His Honor" march by Henry Fillmore; "Reinzi" excerpts from the opera by Richard Wagner, one of the required numbers in the Class AA competition for junior high bands, and the "Lustspiel" overture by Keler-Bela.

The Easternaires orchestra played the Mozart Fantasy arranged by Weaver; the "Rondo" from the nightmusic of Mozart; and the required Class AA junior high orchestra number "Divertiments" by Joseph Haydn.

Laurence Livingston is the director of both groups.
The judging panel included: Dr. William Revelli, Larry Teal, and Glenn Smith, all from the University of Michigan, and Edwyn Hames of Hillsdale.

500 Attend Rain-Hampered College Dedication Services

COLLEGE KEY is turned over to Board Chairman Harold Fischer by Mrs. Esther Hulsing, of Plymouth Board of Education, and one of the planners of the college.

ROBED MEMBERS of the Schoolcraft College faculty led the solemn procession to seats in the center of the Library for the formal dedication ceremonies. All were togged out in caps and gowns with their college colors around the necks of the robes.

Although day long showers put a damper on the festivities, more than 500 attended the formal dedication ceremonies for Schoolcraft College Sunday in the college library.

Everything had been arranged for a colorful, outdoor ceremony with more than 2,000 seats set up in the mall and the portable bandshell—borrowed from the City of Plymouth—ready to take care of the members of the official party and the college choir.

Then came the rains and college officials hurriedly made arrangements to shift the program indoors to the library where seating was limited to slightly more than 500. Luckily, the rain held down the attendance and the library took care of the crowd although there were quite a few standees in the rear of the auditorium.

It was an impressive, even though simple, service that found Mrs. Esther Hulsing, of Plymouth, secretary of the Plymouth Board of Education and a prime booster of the college from the days when it was in the talking stage, turning over the keys to the college doorways to Board Chairman Harold Fischer, also of Plymouth. The services opened with a processional march in which the cap and gown clothed faculty marched to their seats.

Fischer, in turn, presented the key to College President Dr. Eric Bradner who accepted it on behalf of the administration, the faculty and the students of Schoolcraft College.

In making her presentation, Mrs. Hulsing told the audience "representing the citizens who have created this college from the five school districts of Clarenceville, Garden City, Livonia, Northville and Plymouth, I present to you this college which is dedicated to the education and training of its citizens."

Dr. Ferris Crawford, Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction, Department of Higher Education and Certification, told of the problems faced by the small group that started the ball rolling for the college back in 1958.

"In the first place there wasn't any legislation setting up a community college district," he said. "And this group had to have laws passed before they could form a community college district. They succeeded in this and they have succeeded in every other venture since."

"The first vote for a community college failed but these workers didn't give up, they started right away to get support for a second vote and secured the approval of voters in four districts—Livonia, Garden City, Plymouth and Clarenceville. Later Northville was added to the college district."

Dr. Crawford had praise for the College Board that appointed Dr. Bradner as president and joined with him in the selection of his top aides.

"Schoolcraft College opened to the largest initial enrollment of any new college in Michigan," Dr. Crawford pointed out. "It sought state accreditation in its first year even though starting from scratch and succeeded in getting it."

"Now it is in the process of applying for North Central accreditation and I feel that also will come in the proper time.

This college was started on the policy of keeping the front doors open for anyone seeking higher education regardless of the level of study—this means dropouts and those who have failed to receive high school diplomas.

"It has geared its operation to take care of the modern day needs in all fields and I see a great future for Schoolcraft in the years to come."

The invocation was given by John Brinn, Dean of Instruction, and words of declaration were given by Miss Lois Waterman, Dean of Student Affairs.

The Schoolcraft College Choir, under the direction of Wayne Dunlap, sang an anthem of dedication specially written for the ceremonies by Knight Vernon.

Business Manager Kenneth Lindner gave the intercession for divine guidance and the College Choir closed the program singing the new College Hymn. It was followed by the academic recessional in which the faculty, Board of Trustees and Administration marched out of the hall.

MORE THAN 500 jammed into the Schoolcraft College Library for the ceremonies. This shows a section of the throng with the faculty, in caps and gowns, seated in the front.

THE NEW MATH The Math Explosion Hits Our Schools

Demands to change the teaching of mathematics were brought to a head when the new uses of mathematics were spectacularly accelerated by the electronic computer. But any climax of this magnitude points to a number of incidents which set the stage for the "big" act. The first of these was a report by the 1894 Committee of Ten on Secondary School Subjects which calls for "radical changes in the teaching of mathematics." This recommendation was echoed by reports of national committees, associations, commissions, study groups, etc. in 1900, 1923, 1940, 1944, 1945, and 1947. But it was only when the new uses of mathematics became so numerous and important that they could no longer be ignored that a major change began to take place.

New Programs Emerge
 At the University of Illinois Professor Max Beberman supported by the Carnegie Foundation headed a study to reorganize secondary school mathematics. The U.S. Government appropriated millions of dollars to the National Science Foundation (NSF) to develop courses reflecting the new mathematics and to train teachers to teach them. The University of Maryland and Ball State University also began to assemble such courses. This upsurge in activity began in the middle fifties, was well under way when the first satellite was launched by the Russians, and received a tremendous impetus from that launching. Still other groups have joined the NSF and Professor Beberman in the production of several completely revamped courses K-12. Oddly, the activity began at the secondary level and finished at the lower levels, so that the lower elementary materials represent the least amount of developmental effort and trial while the seventh grade materials have benefited from the most extensive use and evaluation. Commercial texts which represent the latest thinking in mathematics education are now being sold.

Over 30,000 of the nation's 100,000 secondary mathematics teachers have attended training institutes sponsored by the NSF to prepare to teach this new mathematics. Still other secondary teachers have state, local, college, and industry sponsored training sessions. But there still remains a large backlog of secondary teachers to be trained. In elementary schools, where teachers do not specialize in subject matter areas, fewer have been to training institutes and the number involved is much larger. For example, in Livonia there are approximately 100 secondary mathematics teachers while there are over 500 elementary teachers who teach mathematics. Certainly in this area local training programs will be needed to help update the background of teachers.

How Well Do Students Do?
 Standardized testing programs have indicated that students learn as many skills from the new programs as they did from the old. These students are expected to excel in the application of concepts, but this is not yet supported by studies. A small study at the University of Kansas indicates that students who learned their mathematics through the new courses do significantly better in the calculus taught there. And there have been other such straws which also tend to support this. The National Longitudinal Study of Mathematical Abilities, a five-year NSF supported study covering more than 100,000 students, is designed to learn more about the development of students in mathematics. But its findings will not be ready for three years.

 In the meantime, the "new" programs will continue to follow the evolutionary process which must be followed by any productive new ideas. Many parallels between the development of the new mathematics and jet powered aircraft can be drawn. Jets were not always in the favored position which they now occupy. Before they could arrive there, new airframes had to be designed, pilots had to be retrained, and new control devices developed. And the mathematics educator who indicates that the new mathematics is not here to stay is comparable to the 1948 pilot who held that jets were a passing fancy. The mathematics teacher who tries the new mathematics and advocates a return to the traditional is a rare bird.

What About Parents Helping Their Children
 Parents are encouraged to study the new mathematics with their children, but not to steer them towards "shortcuts." Students are required to think more for themselves when they use the new mathematics. And they amaze their teachers with the power of their thinking. Memorization of techniques may be easier and faster at the time, but it will not lead them to the mathematics they will study later. So help your son or daughter to think his way through his work—that's what his teacher would do—but don't do his thinking for him—or give him shortcuts which eliminate the necessity for thinking, and chances are good that you'll be giving him a real lift.

School Systems Face "Changeover" Problem
 Even with these new programs written and available in commercial texts, each school system needs to examine its own staff and program to determine what it needs to do to make the change. This must be done with the least possible interruption of program for students.

NEXT WEEK: Livonia Secondary Schools Complete the Changeover.

Urges Safety In Livonia

Many learned and intelligent safety-conscious people have expounded on, and hammered about, death and destruction on the highways of this nation, says Lt. Harold Wilson of the Livonia Police Traffic Bureau.

"We motorists read with alarm, the national death rate and millions of dollars caused by accidents each day, month, and year. Yet we accept accidents as a way of life."

"Here in Livonia our accident rate is and has been increasing steadily since our birth. April 1 is the first quarter of 1965 and as we now have completed three months of unsafe driving, let us review the frightening facts."

"Let us prepare a score board since some drivers consider driving a sport."

	1965	1964
Deaths	2	7
No. of Injuries	478	294
No. of Accidents	904	637
Per cent of Increase:	41

"Our death rate is considerably lower, but the total accident rate is ridiculously high."

"The cause of accidents are numerous, and we can only reduce the rate by practicing good driving habits, and by increasing our courteous driving habits."

"During the next three months don't talk about safety, but practice it. Support your Livonia Police Department, and your numerous Civic Organizations. Our accidents can and must be reduced!"

Livonia Mall Executives Go To Convention

Robert Poris, General Manager of Livonia Mall, is attending the annual convention of the International Council of Shopping Centers in New York beginning May 2.

Poris, accompanied by Developer Jack Sherkman, will join with nearly 1,500 other shopping center developers, owners, managers, chain store real estate executives, mortgage lenders and other shopping center professionals at the convention, which has been organized as a "University of Shopping Centers."

Special seminars will cover professional shopping center management, a plan analysis of a proposed shopping center project, chain and department store recommendations to developers, architectural design of vertical shopping centers, and mortgage refinancing.

Members of the Council, which provides a wide range of services for the shopping center industry, come from all parts of the United States, Canada and a number of countries overseas.

Teeners Learn Charm In Crowley's Course

Teenagers are an enigma to many people, but to Emily Murphy who teaches a charm course at Crowley's Livonia Mall Store they are tremendous.

The Crowley six-week course is just about completed and the teacher says that "I have never seen kids work so hard."

Thirty-five teenagers from Plymouth, Livonia, Redford Township, Farmington and Northville are attending the sessions.

They learn:

- Basic good grooming;
- Exercise and diet;
- The correct posture — which includes how to walk and what to do with those hands; and
- A general knowledge and background in poise.

Miss Murphy says that it has even carried over into the teen-

Now, We Have Two Phone Numbers For Want Ads

Having trouble getting a call through to the Observer Newspaper's classified advertising department?

Well, those days are over for a while at least.

Due to the recent expansion and the tremendous growth of the classified advertising, the Observer has found it necessary to add an additional line for those desiring to place ads.

Just as we added twins to the Observer chain a month ago with the expansion into Garden City and Nankin Township, we now have twins in the classified advertising department — geared to give our patrons quick and better service.

There are two lines available — GA 2-0900 and now GR 6-7025 — and ad takers on both are ready to help you with any classified ads you desire to place.

Patrons, residing in the Redford Township, Plymouth, Garden City and Nankin Township areas, are urged to use the GA 2-0900 exchange. Those in the Livonia and Farmington area are urged to dial GR 6-7025.

Ford Shows Models At Livonia Mall

Ford Motor Co. moved into the Livonia Mall Shopping Center this week with an exhibit of its 1965 Mustang, Thunderbird and Ford cars, plus mobile camping units for the families thinking ahead to outdoor days this summer.

Marion Young, president of the Livonia Mall Merchants Association, said the exhibit will be at the Mall, located at Middlebelt and Seven Mile Rd., through Saturday (May 1).

Highlighting the display is the original prototype of the sensational Mustang, as first conceived by its designers. Arrayed beside it are the 1965 Mustang and a prototype from which Ford engineers will develop future models.

The camping units demonstrate an imaginative combination of truck and van bodies with built-in and attached living accommodations.

Seton Guild Benefit Set

The Annual Spring Fashion Show and Luncheon sponsored by the Seton Guild of the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Home for Children in Farmington will be held at the beautiful newly decorated Detroit Golf Club on Thursday, April 29.

A Hospitality hour at 11:30 a.m. will precede the luncheon to be served at 12:30 p.m. followed by the Fashion Show presented by B. Siegel Company featuring Spring and Summer's newest fashions. The commentator will be Mary Morgan.

The proceeds from the party will go towards the purchase of a new school bus for the children of the home which is operated by the Sisters of Charity. Sister Mary Magdalene informed the Guild the bus is badly needed to help transport the children to and from the schools they attend. There are over 100 children of school age at the home.

Mrs. Peter Rizzo, Guild President extends a very cordial invitation to members and guests to this "Gay April Party."

Mrs. John Malpeli, Jr. is Chairman and Mrs. Burnett Reamer is Co-Chairman. They are assisted by Mrs. Leo Weber, Mrs. Mathew McDonald, Mrs. Jerry Flanigan, Mrs. Richard Brewczynski, Mrs. William Gilmore, Mrs. Joseph Wolski, Mrs. Faye Baldwin, Mrs. Frank Gagnier, Mrs. Joseph Bommarito, Mrs. John Gates, Mrs. Leo Timma, Mrs. Louis Rossi, Mrs. Helmut Rieke and Mrs. Robert Amberg.

PRIDE OF HER TEACHERS, Nancy Ann Bender, a petite 18-year-old senior, daughter of Mr. and Mr. Clem Bender of Lenore, Redford Township.

Local Teenager One Of Nine National Winners

Nancy Ann Bender, a petite 18-year-old senior at Henry Ford High School was handed her most glamorous graduation gift two months early today.

S. D. Ward, District Manager for the 11 Montgomery Ward stores in Southeastern Michigan, announced that Nancy has been selected as one of the nine national winners in the company's Wendy Ward Pacesetter Board contest for 1965.

From thousands of entrants throughout the United States, Miss Bender and eight other young ladies from as many corners of the nation won the "Pacesetter" award for their outstanding fashion ability displayed in entries demanding best taste in wardrobe coordination. The five outfits Miss Bender submitted comprise only one of her many prizes.

Among others will be a week's stay in New York with her mother, late in May, plus the honor of becoming a member of the Wendy Ward National Pacesetter Board. As such she will meet regularly with Montgomery Ward's top fashion merchandisers to advise them on fashions and fashion trends in this area. If the nation had a "Miss Petite" contest, Nancy would be well qualified to wear the crown. She's a "size seven" who makes many of her own clothes, likes to cook, follows most all sports, already has had considerable experience as a model—but who still thinks, "I'd like to be a policewoman." To that her mother says, "Well, you know teen-agers. Last month she was talking about becoming a nurse."

Nancy is a graduate of the nationwide Wendy Ward Charm Course that originated in Detroit in 1961. "Nancy was the 'star' of her Wendy Ward class," said Barbara Loren, co-founder with Loretta Welles, of the nationwide class. "Nancy's selection brings great honor to all Detroit area Wendy Ward Graduates" concluded Barbara.

Nancy is the youngest of the four children of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Bender, 19503 Lenore, in the vicinity of Telegraph and Seven Mile Roads. Her father is a tool and die maker and, like Mrs. Bender, reflects modest but sincere pride in his daughter's triumph. However, finishing first isn't completely new to Nancy. The brown-eyed, brown-haired beauty was chosen queen of the Midwest Photo Show at Cobo Hall last fall, and new vistas in the world of fashion and design now have loomed as the possible turning point of her life.

During their New York visit, Nancy and Mrs. Bender will be Montgomery Ward's guest at several of the outstanding Broadway hits of the season, and also will be honored at restaurant parties, the World's Fair, and several other fetes. The round-trip flight will be made aboard an American Airline Astrojet.

District Manager Ward had high praise for Miss Bender. "This competition is designed to draw out the sense of good taste and high degree of sophistication possessed by our sound-thinking young people," he said. "Nancy Ann Bender exemplifies the finest qualities that we are seeking, and we are immeasurably happy that one of the nine national winners is a young lady from Detroit."

"The 'drop-outs' may get the front page, but students like Nancy don't need that kind of notoriety, for they are the nation's future. This young lady and many thousands like her.

Named to Sorority
Miss Barbara Klenk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Klenk, 32900 Vermont, Livonia, has recently been elected to Gamma Delta Alpha, senior women's honorary society, at Alma College.

Members are chosen from the top 35% of the women in the junior class although membership is also based on service and leadership as well.

whether they won or lost, are to be complimented. Montgomery Ward seeks to do just that."

Girl Scout Troop Visits Hospital

Junior Girl Scout Troop 761 in the North Farmington Neighborhood has completed work on their service project with a trip to the Occupational Therapy Unit of the Pontiac State Hospital last week.

During the month of March, the girls made gay posters of Easter egg trees and bunnies and styrofoam bunnies to be used as decorations in the wards of the hospital. Material which was donated to the troop was cut by the girls into tote bags and then given to the patients for them to complete. The girls also collected items such as empty detergent bottles, old nylon hose, old jewelry, and various articles which filled a need for therapy.

Troop 761 meets at the Highmeadow School in Farmington Township.

The troop members are: Kathy Beauchamp, Vicki Bice, Paige Davis, Maryke DeLange, Felicitas Engelbrecht, Sue Gordon, Claudia Hollis, Debbie Hughes, Sandra Klem, Myda Korkigian, Laurel Lang, Nancy Marten, Janice Roller, Frances Sanders, Jan Schlesinger, Patricia Scott, Ann Skillman, Debbie Stratford, Amy Sweigard, Debbie Todd, Debbie Tomchak, Mary Van Dusen, and Judy Zink. Mrs. David Hughes is leader of the troop, and Mrs. Frank Tomchak, Mrs. Frank Klem, and Mrs. Melvin Todd, Co-Leaders.

MRS. PATRICK KELLY (center) assigns tickets to Mrs. Alfred Halevan (left) and Mrs. Norbert Quigg (right) for the Annual Spring Dance Party sponsored by the Cub Scout Mothers of Pack 781 from Our Lady of Good Counsel in Plymouth. The dance will be held at the Western Wayne County Conservation Association on Napier Rd. April 30. All den Mothers will have tickets which are priced at $2 per person.

Sharron Margaret Mienk Marries Gary W. Nelson

Sharron Margaret Mienk and Gary William Nelson were united in marriage April 24 at the Faith Lutheran Church in Livonia. Pastor Ronald Starenko performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Mienk of Redford Township. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nelson, Jr., of Redford Township. Given in marriage by her father, the new Mrs. Nelson wore a silk organza and lace gown with a satin tiered skirt. She chose an elbow length veil and carried white sweetheart roses and stephanotis with an ivory cascade on a white Bible. Christine Koenig served as matron of honor. She wore a gown with an emerald green chiffon top with an empire line and an off-white skirt. The bridesmaids, Betty Baudle, and Marilyn Hobart, wore similar dresses. They carried crescent white carnations. Gregory Gordon Nelson served as his brother's best man. Richard Trqonski and Vaughn Letenvei seated the guests. Seven-year-old Lawrence Frederick Mienk served as ring bearer while the flower girl was Lori Nelson. She wore a floor length dress of off-white with emerald green trim. A reception for 200 followed the wedding at the church. For the honeymoon trip to Lake Placid, New York, the bride chose a going away outfit of pink wool.

The new Mrs. Nelson is a graduate of Redford Union High School, while her husband is a graduate of Thurston High School.

X=PLEASURE

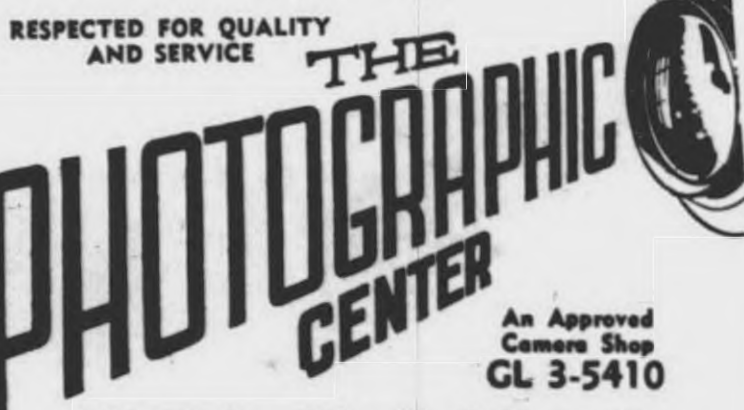

When the lights go out and you hear the faint hum of the slide projector's coding fan, you're ready for the special pleasure only pictures can provide. And your pleasure is even greater when the pictures are your own and you are showing them to friends for the first time.

Today, just about everyone can enjoy the pleasure of taking and showing color slides. KODAK INSTAMATIC Cameras have made the taking part both simple and inexpensive. The new Kodak X-type films have made it possible for you to enjoy your pictures more because colors are so true to life. You see, these new films have built-in safeguards that protect you against over- and under-exposure. The experts call it latitude.

Each of these films: KODACHROME-X, KODAK EKTACHROME-X (and KODACOLOR-X, too), has the same speed or sensitivity. Each can be used under the same conditions so that you don't need to worry about which type is in your camera. There are no complicated tables or camera settings to study and check out for each exposure. Best of all, the colors you get are bright and beautiful . . . a pleasure to see when projected big as life, or bigger. If you haven't tried these new cameras and films, you should. Come on in and let me show you how to give your picture-taking a lift.

"Plymouth's Exclusive Camera Shop Since 1945"

882 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth
OPEN EVENINGS TILL 9 P.M.

PLUM HOLLOW housed a capacity crowd of GOP women last Thursday for the Farmington Republican Women's luncheon. Nora Blixit was guest speaker on the subject "Is Lyndon Johnson a Lobbyist?" She recommended, above all else, for voters to familiarize themselves with contents of bills up for passage and keep current with their progress, stating their opinions through their representatives in Washington. She termed Presi-

Prizes Await Suburban Mother

A lovely mink stole and several other prizes will be awarded to the person chosen as the Suburban Mother-of-the-Year by Wonderland Center, according to an announcement by Ernie Epps, promotion director for the 57-store shoppers' complex at Plymouth Road and Middlebelt.

In addition, the winner will be given the use of a new Ford for the family's summer vacation, Epps reported. Other honors include dinner for the family at a Livonia restaurant, a "night on the town" at a Windsor night club, and an evening at the Wolverine Race Track.

The contest is open to any mother residing in the Northwestern Suburban Area.

Any mother, aunt, grandmother or mother-in-law is eligible. To register a contestant, friends or relatives must send a letter listing the reasons why their candidates are most-deserving of the title. All entries must be limited to 25 words or less.

A recent, inexpensive snapshot must accompany each entry and all entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, May 6.

Letters should be mailed to: "Suburban Mother-of-the-Year" Wonderland Center, 29859 Plymouth Road Livonia, Michigan

The contest is jointly sponsored by Wonderland Center, Bill Brown Sales, Inc., Radio station WERB, Wolverine Raceway and Taylor's Towne House.

Saturday, May 8, will be a big day for youngsters at Wonderland, Livonia's 57-store center at Plymouth and Middlebelt.

To aid children shop for Mother's Day gifts, the Center has arranged free transportation to and from Wonderland, providing that the requests for free rides are made by the children's parents.

As an extra surprise, Wonderland will take Polaroid snapshots of the first 1,000 children who arrive at the Center on Saturday morning, May 8. The photo-taking event will start at 9:30. The children will be photographed against a giant "Mother's Day" card being erected in the center of the mall.

Most Wonderland merchants will feature specially-priced gift items from 9:30 to 11 a.m. on May 8.

The youngsters will be picked up at their homes in fully-insured 1965 Ford sedans and brought to the Center. Transportation home will be furnished until 9 p.m. No child can be transported without parental consent. Parents will be permitted to accompany their children.

To obtain transportation, parents should call GA 5-2900 after 9 a.m. Saturday, May 8.

Newlyweds To Live In Farmington

Miss Linda Roxanne Gould, daughter of Mr. Don B. Gould of 20030 Purlingbrook, Livonia and Charles Raymond Page were united in marriage at 7:30 p.m. on March 6, at Forest Hills Church-Twelve Mile Rd. The Rev. O. M. Bell assisted by Rev. William Balmer performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of candle light. Pew candles were used and the altar was decorated with candles, white bows and white carnations and glads. The organist was Mrs. William Balmer and Mrs. William Smith rendered vocal selections of "Oh Perfect Love" and the "Wedding Prayer".

The bridegroom and his best man, Alton Page of Livonia are the sons of Mrs. Jewel Page and the late Mr. Page.

The former Miss Gould was given in marriage by her father, wore a beau de soie and lace semi sheath gown ending in a detachable chapel train. The slim bodice was cut to a bateau neckline and three quarter length sleeves with seed pearl and lace inserts. A pearl and crystal tier held her silk French illusion three tier bouffant veil. The bride's bouquet of white carnations and rose buds was in colonial design with trailing ivy.

Livonia Town Hall Series Announced For 1965-66 Season

A journalist and entertainer, a TV commentator, and an author will appear in next years' Livonia Town Hall series.

Highlighting the second season of the series are:
● Pulitzer prize-winning foreign correspondent Marguerite Higgins will speak on "The World Is My Beat," Oct. 20.
● Robert Q. Lewis, well known on the straw hat circuit, and more recently to the movie fans for his appearance in "Good Neighbor Sam" who will discuss "Through My Horn Rims" on Nov. 17;
● Nationally syndicated TV commentator Dr. Albert Burke, whose show "Probe—With Dr. Albert Burke," covers a wide variety of international and domestic issues on Jan. 19 on the topic "Education for What?"; and

● Willie Snow Ethridge, author of such books as "This Little Pig Stayed Home," "Russian Duet," "There's

Troy, N.Y. He broadcast news flashes on Pearl Harbor for two hours until the rest of the station staff could return to the studio. Following the war, he did radio shows, night club engagements, legitimate theater on the straw hat circuit, and finally invaded Hollywood in 1964 to co-star with Jack Lemon in "Good Neighbor Sam."

When Dr. Albert Burke began broadcasting on a single, independent TV station in New York the response was fantastic. Within a few months his show,

"A Way of Thinking," was carried by some 60 TV stations throughout the country. His syndicated series now receives an average of 5,000 letters per week.

Mrs. Ethridge is the wife of Mark Ethridge, editor of Newsday, the mother of four children and grandmother of 12. Her books are drawn from her own personal experiences and travels with her husband.

Proceeds from the Town Hall Series in Livonia goes to the American Field Service sponsoring foreign exchange students to Livonia.

Western Opens Spring Season With Dance

Members of Western Golf and Country Club officially welcomed the Spring season with the traditional Opening Spring Dinner Dance on Saturday, April 24, at the club at 14600 Kinloch Drive.

Advance reservations indicated a record attendance of more than 150 guests as members and their guests got the club social off to a fast start for 1965.

The largest single group for the dance was the Gene Merollis party of 40 people, salesmen and staff personnel from the Merollis Chevrolet, Inc., of Garden City.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Callender of 13422 Coyle, Detroit, were the General Chairmen of the event that included cocktails, dinner, and dancing to the music of Mack Pitt and his Orchestra.

Social Chairman for the Western Golf and Country Club are Mr. and Mrs. Art Stolkey of 26426 Graham Rd., Detroit. Tom Richards, 4024 Blackthorne, Birmingham, is president of WGCC for 1965.

AFS Student Was Speaker

Bjorn Bachman, AFS exchange student from Stockholm, was speaker at the April meeting of the Livonia Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association. Bachman discussed life in Sweden and answered questions from the floor.

Hostesses were: Mrs. Fred Antil, Mrs. M. Reed Coleman, Mrs. William Buhl and Mrs. John Van Lier.

Goodwill Fashions To Be Modeled

Goodwill Industries of Greater Detroit, always on the lookout for something new and different in the best ways to serve the women of the community, has come up with a brand new feature: a Spring fashion show presenting one-of-a-kind costumes from its regular stock of reconditioned materials.

This will be the first time for Goodwill Industries to put on a modern fashion show. You must see it to believe it!

Make your plans now to attend the show, which will be held on Tuesday, May 4, at 12:15 p.m. in the Goodwill store, 6522 Brush.

It will highlight Detroit Goodwill's celebration of national Goodwill Week, May 2-8, when special programs are featured throughout the nation to publicize Goodwill Industries' service to handicapped men and women.

OPEN HOUSE

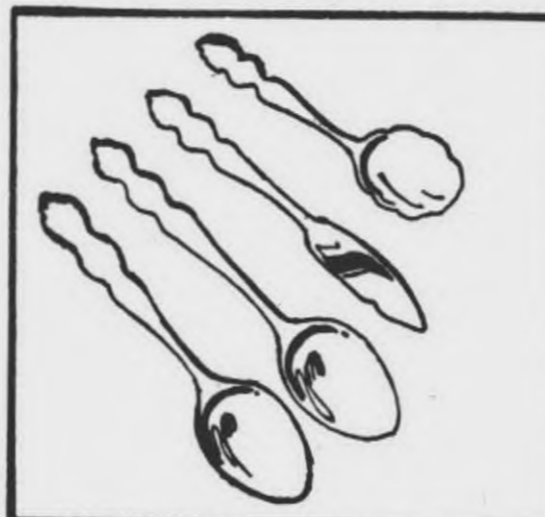

Don't forget the spring Open House at the Plymouth Children's Nursery on May 3, 8 p.m. The former Hough School at Warren and Haggerty Rds. is the location of the Nursery and they are accepting new applications for enrollment of 3-5 year old children in the Plymouth Community. The new President, Mrs. James Dysinger and the outgoing President, Mrs. John Jacobs, will both be on hand to welcome you.

In one year, the newsprint consumed by newspapers in American cities and communities would make a continuous ribbon of paper fifteen inches wide and more than 105 million miles long.

Student Council, Class Elections Scheduled by Bentley Students

By SUE DOWELL
April showers will bring more than May flowers to Bentley. The month of May will be full of politicking. This is because Student Council and Class Council elections will soon take place.

Council. On April 15, homerooms elected Student Council representatives. Now that the council has its members it is time to elect the four officers of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer. Students who wish to run for one of these offices must have had at least one year of being on a council. He or she can be a Junior or Senior of next year. Since there is always one exception to the rule, there is one to running for Student Council. A student who plans on running for president must be a Senior during his year in office. Any pupil carrying below a 2.03 average during his high school career is not eligible for a position on any part of the student government.

Petitioning for Student Council officers began April 26, but must be turned in no later than tomorrow. Posters may be set up on May 3. If a primary election is needed it will take place on May 4. The day following primary elections, defeated candidates must remove their posters from the school. On that same day, May 5, a meeting for finalists will take place to discuss the election assembly. This assembly will take place May 6, with the final election on May 7, in the Junior Lobby.

Elections for Steering Committee will take place on May 7, also. Steering Committee is Student Council that meets every day, and becomes a year around class for its members. All homeroom representatives are eligible for the Steering Committee, which is composed of five Student Council homeroom representatives from each class, the officers, and the foreign exchange student. The members of this committee will be determined by having each class select, at the same time the Student Council officers are elected, five Student Council representatives out of the total number that represent their class.

If an individual is running for an office and would like to be on the Steering Committee if he loses the election he must be placed on both ballots. If he does win the election also then the student with the next highest vote will take his place.

Class Council officer elections will be next in store. The Senior Class officer elections will be first with the Junior election following. The Class Councils represent each individual class. There is a class council for each grade level. Petitioning for the Seniors will begin on May 3, and will be turned in on May 6. Posters will be put up on May 10, with primary elections the next day if they are needed. The meeting for the finalists will be held on May 12, and primary candidates who were defeated must take down their posters. The Election Assembly will take place on May 13 and the election on the following day, May 14.

Don Murch Enters School Board Race

A Livonia attorney who has served as President of the School Board Advisory Committee this week threw his hat in the ring for one of two vacancies on the Board of Education. Donald Murch, 33, of 18558 Westmore, announced he will seek election on June 14. Murch holds B. A. and LL.B. degrees from Wayne State University and is a member of the State Bar of Michigan and the Detroit Bar Ass'n. Father of three children, he has lived in Livonia for 5½ years. He is a trustee of the Livonia Citizens for Better Human Relations.

Murch resigned as president of the Advisory Committee to make the School Board race. While a member, he was chairman of the subcommittee on school finances.

Murch said in a statement announcing his candidacy: "It is apparent to many of us who have been involved in school activities, and who have worked with the Livonia School Board and administration, that we are presently beginning a critical period in the history of the Livonia School District. The Livonia School District is one of the fastest growing districts in the state, and the Livonia citizens have worked rather hard, and in many instances have given a considerable amount of time, effort and taxes in order to maintain quality education in Livonia.

"Yet, despite our efforts, we have found it difficult to maintain that excellence in education that is so necessary in our community, state and our country today.

"One of the major considerations of the people who have moved to Livonia was the fact that their children could be assured a good education. We realize that those children who are able and who want to attend college must be able to compete with some of the best students in the country, and we realize that our young people who will be unable to attend college will find it difficult to obtain employment unless the skills and knowledge they obtain through high school are adequate and acceptable to the business community.

"More importantly, we realize that the mere teaching of the three R's is insufficient today. Many areas of special education are required; for example, a child who has a particular problem with speech or reading, but who is otherwise quite bright, will be unable to master even the three R's. This child will be a potential drop-out, and could well become a greater burden to our community than it would be to provide him with adequate education in the first place.

"A school district of our size requires competent people on its School Board. The Livonia School District is like a large business with over $42 million in assets and an operating budget in the neighborhood of $15 million."

Anti-Poverty Fight Comes to Western Wayne County Communities

Edgar M. Wahlberg, Planning Director, has announced that the location of the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity will be in the Terrace Building, Elioise.

The Office is a planning and coordinating agency for the Wayne County communities in the war on poverty. All community groups interested in developing project proposals to assist the disadvantaged, the poor, to help themselves were urged by Wahlberg to contact the office at 722-2410.

Projects to help school districts special helping programs for disadvantaged children, to operate a pre-school nursery program in Inkster, to enrich school experiences for children in ten south Wayne County School Districts, and to give work-experiences and training toward employment for out-of-school youths in Hamtramck, River Rouge and Ecorse, have received the approval of the Wayne County Citizens' Advisory Committee, Wahlberg stated.

Action is expected in a work-experience project for Wyandotte shortly.

Other projects are being developed by the Dearborn District No. 8 school system; Taylor Township; United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit; the Southeast Dearborn Community Council; Highland Park; Redford Township; Wayne; Romulus; Huron, and others.

The Planning Office is establishing relationships with the many departments which attempt to meet the needs of the poor although often handicapped by budgets that do not permit them to do as much as may be needed.

"We want to work together to help people to help themselves," said Wahlberg. "The VISTA (Volunteers in Service to America), the Job Corps, the Small Business loan, and the Neighborhood Corps programs, can all play an important part in helping people lift themselves out of hopelessness and despair. Poverty of money, poverty of health, poverty of spirit are all our enemies. We have the means, if we choose to use them, of eliminating poverty," Wahlberg added.

The Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity was authorized by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors' Committee, chaired by Roy A. Berger, River Rouge, in December. Ed Connor of Detroit, then chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, guided the application through to a successful conclusion earlier this year.

Jack McDonald, Redford Township Supervisor, recently elected chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, has encouraged Wahlberg and his staff to "foster programs which will have lasting values."

Cancer Films Slated Friday at Terrace

Familiar Hollywood and television faces will be seen in three life-saving films to be shown to the public free of charge from 1:30 to 3 p.m., Friday, May 7, at the Terrace Theatre, Plymouth and Middlebelt Roads, Livonia.

The presentation is sponsored by the American Cancer Society as part of its 1965 Crusade, and the theatres, which have volunteered their facilities for community education.

This showing will premiere the newest smoking film "Who, Me?" which presents the two-sided danger of cigarettes. "Time and Two Women" emphasizes the curability of uterine cancer by dramatizing the case histories of two women, one of whom was saved because of early detection and treatment.

The third film, "The Million Club," shows the hopeful side of cancer and the 1.3 million Americans who have been cured of the disease. A physician will be present to answer questions.

American Cancer Society crusaders distributed film tickets as part of their house to house educational and fund-raising campaign. It is not necessary to have one of these tickets as all members of the community are invited to attend and there is no charge for admission.

Table Tennis Meet To Open Thursday at Riley Junior

Who'll be the new city table tennis champions of Livonia? That's the query as the Department of Parks and Recreation in conjunction with its table tennis club conducts the annual city tournament.

Singles and doubles events (which includes women) will be held on Thursday, April 29 beginning at 7 p.m., Senior Men's (40 and over) and Women's singles and mixed doubles beginning at 7 p.m. on May 4.

All matches will be held at Riley Junior High School, with an entry fee of 50 cents per event. Gym shoes and dark blouses or shirts are required. Call the Department of Parks and Recreation for an entry blank or for further information.

Wahlberg stated that Charles A. Hill, Jr., has been selected as Deputy Planning Director. Metropolitan Detroit has assigned Richard Kirchner and George Corcoran to Wahlberg's staff on a parttime basis. Ver-non J. Ducaas of the Wayne County Board of Auditors is on loan as financial and administrative specialist. Mrs. Harri-ett Sawyer, of Dearborn, is office manager.

DAV 'Queens' Must Submit Photos Soon

May 1 is the deadline for candidates who wish to compete for the title of "queen" of the annual Disabled American Veterans forget-me-not drive to be held in Garden City May 21 and 22.

The young lady chosen—who must be between the ages of five and 10—will be crowned by Mayor Edwin J. Freeh on May 22 at the Civic Center.

She will also receive a $25 savings bond from DAV Chapter 123. The two runners-up will receive $5 each.

The dates of the drive were originally announced as May 14 and 15 but have been changed to coincide with the Little League Parade.

Contestants are advised they must submit photos to Norm Ladd, 31770 Donnelly, and that they must be five years of age on or before May 1 and not over 10 by the same date.

Ladd said pictures must be those prepared by a professional photographer or from school — snapshots and color photos are not acceptable.

Central Michigan University sophomore pitching prospect Gary Taylor was the Most Valuable Player on last year's freshman team.

Banker To Give Talk On 'Government Day'

Charles S. Ricker, assistant vice-president of the National Bank of Detroit, will be the guest speaker at Garden City's special Michigan Week program on May 17.

The banquet will be held in conjunction with "Our Government" and will include the annual mayor's exchange program.

Garden City's visiting mayor will be Dr. Bruno Wisney, mayor of the City of New Baltimore.

Ricker, Blue Bonnet Hall on Ford Road.

Charles Ricker has been in charge of the business and banking analysis department of the National Bank of Detroit since establishment of the department in 1960.

A graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Ricker served with the U.S. Air Force in World War II.

He is a member of the American Institute for Economic Research, the National Association of Business Economists and the American Economic Association.

Garden City's chairman of Michigan Week, Gary Wilson, indicated that 250 persons are expected to attend the special banquet on Mayor's Exchange Day. A joint Garden City service club luncheon is expected to be held on May 17 in honor of the visiting mayor.

Mrs. Lorraine Fabry and Mrs. Jean Oldenburg are handling the arrangements for a special program for the wives of the New Baltimore officials who will be visiting. Transportation is being handled by Councilman Edward Feast.

James Jones is in charge of communications and other publicity, while Joseph Gardynik and John Slaughter are coordinating arrangements.

Robert Noe is supervising liaison with the city in all the arrangements.

Scholarships To Be Subject

Rep. Vincent J. Pettipren of Nankin, chairman of the House Committee on Colleges and Universities, today announced that a public hearing will be held on two scholarship bills currently under consideration by his committee.

According to Pettipren, the hearing was called "to enable representatives from both private and public colleges and universities to present their views on two pieces of key legislation which directly affect the welfare of future Michigan students."

House Bills 2206 and 2760 will be opened up to public discussion at the hearing to be held May 6 in the Supreme Court Chambers (State Capitol Building—Lansing) at 8 p.m.

H.B. 2206 would open up the present scholarship program to include community college graduates and existing students in Michigan colleges and universities.

H.B. 2760 is designed to supplement the present scholarship program by providing incentive awards to high school juniors from financially needy families who demonstrate the desire and capability for pursuing a higher education. The proposed appropriation for this legislation is $500,000.

Jr. Hi Students Will Tour Bentley

By SHEILA GRIMES

On May 18 or 19, the ninth grade students from Nankin Mills Junior High and two Livonia junior high schools will tour Bentley High School.

In charge of the trip will be Mr. Buller and Mr. Walker. The student orientation program will include the tour of the school, slides, a musical program and a presentation of student life at Bentley.

A variety show was recently held for the faculty and student body in the NM gym. Many acts included: "The Botulism Players" (Sherry Bromley, Donna Hildebrand, Gloria Masters, Penny Davis, Holly Heslop).

Bonnie Jones did a tap dance and sang to the accompaniment of Gaye Gregory. Gaye also played for Missy Walsh who did the Charleston.

Linda Watson and Debbie Valuet joined voices in a duet titled "Blue Navy".

Jim Rawley did an act as "Dear Flakey" and a "Swami." "Dear Flakey" was the answer to some questions which was received by hilarious answers.

"Swami" was the act of doing hypnotism.

"The Beatmakers" (Connie Carlson, Diane Wolf, Dolly Frakes, Gail Cunningham and Joyce Cunningham) played current pop music . . . and . . . "The What" group (players the same as "The Botulism Players" plus Pat Knowles), did a music pantomime.

Mr. Ide's second and sixth hour English classes went to see Cinerama's new release "The Greatest Story Ever Told." Also accompanying the trip were Mr. Medlyn and Mr. Saunders.

Bentley High invited NM Physical Education teacher Mrs. Weber and ten girls from her classes to play basketball.

The ten girls who attended were: Cindy Allen, Diane Watson, Karen Bennett, Nancy Pierce, Linda Comini, Madeline Korpus, Linda Fletcher, Marilyn Callejo, Susan Leidholdt.

Four other junior highs were also invited to attend. They all played a "Round-Robin" Tournament.

The main purpose of the game was not just to play basketball, but to become acquainted with the girls and the school.

On April 14, twelve girls from the ninth grade gym class were invited to a gymnastic demonstration, which they observed and participated.

On Wednesday April 14, the "Champions of Champions" bowling results were NM and Glenn Jr. Highs as winners.

Rights Group Hears of Fitzgerald Program

Members of the Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity heard the story of the Fitzgerald Community Council last week when it opened a spring lecture series at Plymouth High auditorium.

Three members of the community, Mrs. Ethel Garrett, Mrs. Myrlin Washington and Mrs. Doris Grozner, formed a panel to discuss the inter-racial nature of the area and how residents banded together to solve problems.

Fitzgerald is the Detroit area between Fenkell and McNichols and Wyoming and Livernois. It includes more than 4,500 homes and the Council lists 200 members headed by President Cecil Erbaugh.

The panel members told of panic selling of property in the neighborhood when the first Negro family moved there in 1959. They told how realtors played on the fears and prejudices of residents who believed property values would inevitably decline with the Negroes moving in.

Because of these tactics, the non-profit Fitzgerald Community Housing Service was established in 1964. It aimed to bring the interested parties together and available homes were listed with the service as advertised in community papers.

The second of the lectures will be presented on Tuesday, May 4 in the Plymouth High auditorium with Bert Levy, director of Community Services for the Michigan Civil Rights Commission, discussing civil rights problems in various Michigan communities.

NEWCOMERS LUNCH

Plymouth Newcomers Club will meet Thursday, May 6, at Thunderbird Inn, at a 12:30 luncheon with hospitality hour starting at 11:30. Mr. Peter Ford, director of Interior Decorations for Robinson Furniture store, will speak. Make your reservations by calling (A-M) Mrs. Howard Lloyd 453-5444 or (N-Z) Mrs. Thomas Hopson 453-7967. Cancellations to Mrs. Don Bosker 453-5125.

VACATION FOR MOST but not for the recently elected varsity cheerleading squad of Plymouth High who took advantage of the week off from studies to start work on formations for next fall at the football games. The group includes: (from left) Carol Engstrom, Pam McAllister, Donna Cook, Ruthie Fetner and Jo Ann Skeba. Only vacationing Sheri Tietz was missing.

Rotarians to Hear Marketing Consultant

Fred Kaiser, former president in charge of sales for the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co. and now a marketing consultant, will discuss "People Buy and People Sell" in an address before the Plymouth Rotary Club Friday noon in the Mayflower Hotel.

Kaiser will tell of customer relations and the image the public has of business and corporations. He will be introduced by Lauren Schleh.

CIRCLE HONORARY

Marcia Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Randall of Burroughs Avenue, has been nominated to the exclusive Circle Honorary at Michigan State University. Less than one percent of the women on campus are accorded this honor which is based on citizenship, character and scholastic achievement.

Marcia, a senior this year, recently wrote, directed and narrated a skit about "Manners for the Young Man" for a dorm presentation. It was such a hit that it was taped for a television showing over a Lansing channel on May 10.

VISIT NASSAU

Mr. and Mrs. Craig Bowlby of Lakeside Drive returned Saturday from Daytona, Florida where they had been vacationing for four weeks. Highlight of their stay in the southland was a cruise to Nassau aboard the S.S. Yarmouth.

NINE-FOOT GYPSIES

Stepped-up activity in George Hudson's basement on Burroughs as the Pop Concert date draws nigh. Betty Hudson is decorations chairman for the event and her fine artistic hand is responsible for the nine-foot gypsy figures that you will see behind the orchestra next Saturday night.

Mrs. Tom Kelly has been constructing a gay yellow gypsy wagon. Other projects include fortune tellers and 120 hand-dipped wine bottles that should add just the right touch to the red and white checked table cloths.

The Hudsons were in Massachusetts for Easter where they visited George's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudson.

CONVENTION TIME

Local delegates to the 43rd annual AAUW State Meeting in Grand Rapids were Mrs. George Spaniel, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Mrs. James Knowles, Mrs. John Moehle, Mrs. John Hopkins, Mrs. Mary Ellen Knopf all of Plymouth and Mrs. Stanley Webber of Livonia.

The theme this year was the "Fourth Dimension and the Powerful Idea." Topics under discussion were "The Law and the Citizen," "Education as an Antidote to Poverty" and "Red China."

Delegates were particularly impressed by former Detroit Councilman William Patrick, a brilliant speaker, who is now general counsel for the General Electric Corporation. Mr. Patrick examined the new field of pre-elementary school training as one vital facet of the nationwide urban redevelopment program in his topic "Education for the Privileged".

CONGRATULATIONS

To Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Gates of Herald Street. Their new son, Robert Franklin arrived at St. Josephs Hospital on April 7.

Pop Concert

Mrs. Byron Becker is chairman of the committee from the Allegro group in charge of the concert.

Other committee members are:

Tickets and reservations, Mrs. John Pulker, Chairman, Mrs. Howard Hill and Mrs. Fred Foust; tables, Mrs. Wendell Lent, chairman, Mrs. James Ross and Mrs. Lester Ily; publicity, Mrs. James Jabara, chairman, Mrs. Thomas Powell and Mrs. James Knowles.

Decorations, Mrs. George Hudson, chairman, Mrs. James Thomas, Mrs. Donald Graham and Mrs. T. J. Kelly; refreshments, Mrs. Charles Childs, chairman, Mrs. Larry Becker, Mrs. Dorothy Finney, Mrs. Eugene Firestone, Mrs. F. H. Green, Mrs. Emerson Robinson, Mrs. J. C. Bowlby and Mrs. Philip Tormohlen.

Twp. Planning Board Ok's Postiff Estate Hearing

Trail and Beck Road from R-1-E (country estates) to R-1-H (country homes), will have to wait for percolation tests before the commission takes action.

Township Planner Johnson recommended the request for rezoning be denied because of the 45-foot drop in elevation and the fact that no sewers are available at this time in that area.

Several residents of the area appeared at the public hearing to express opinions against the rezoning with two indicating they had no objections to the change.

Fritz told the Board he planned on building homes in the $25,000 to $30,000 class with the thought he would have space for nine lots on half-acre sites and only seven if more land was required.

The Commission voted to table the request pending additional study and a report on percolation tests.

After a public hearing on the proposed Ann Arbor subdivision, located on the eastern boundary of the Township north of Ann Arbor Trail, the Commission approved preliminary plat plans. The developer presented preliminary plans for 191 lots at the site.

Building Inspector Matt McLellan was instructed to issue a building permit to Aage Bjarnesee after a property which hearing on the matter which consists of two acres on Ann Arbor Road, on the south side, between Joy and Ridge Roads.

Five Plymouth Bands Perform in 'Parade'

More than 400 youthful musicians from Plymouth elementary, junior highs and senior high will perform in the annual "Parade of Bands" Thursday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth High gym.

that will assemble on the gym floor for an evening of martial music.

The all-city Fifth Grade band, under the direction of James Griffith will open the evening with "Brownie March," "Little Brown Jug," and "This Old Man."

Junior High West, represented by both sixth and seventh grade bands under the baton of Laurence Livingston, will have the attention next on the program.

The sixth graders will present "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "Camptown Races," and "Stars and Stripes."

The seventh graders will follow with "Overture Eroica," "Westward Ho," and "Footlifter March."

The Junior High East Rocket Band, also under the direction of Livingston, will participate in "His Honor," "Selections from My Fair Lady," and "Tocatta for Band."

To complete the evening's activities, the senior high concert band under the direction of Griffith, will present "Song of the Vagabonds," excerpts from the "Mazoni Requiem" by Verdi and "A Kingdom Trio Folk Song Overture."

The public is invited to attend the program which is free of charge.

Canton

Township officials are checking to learn if Boatman and his associates secured permission from the State Conservation Commission for the dam. The latest word was that there is no record of such permit being issued.

However, even while the group was before the Planning Board protesting the dam break, it was reported that crews were busy rebuilding the dam.

The Canton Township group was advised to report the incident to the Board there and also to appear before the Plymouth Township Board to make its complaints known.

EXTRAVAGANCE

The modern day version of happiness appears to be doing things we can't afford.

SYMPHONY HISTORY has the attention of Plymouth Symphony Society President Arthur Haeske, Mrs. Norma Cassidy (standing), a longtime backer of the orchestra, and Mrs. Thomas Bateman, who was a member of one of the Symphony's early Boards.

Symphony Society Sets Membership Campaign Monday

Her son, Dr. William Bateman, a graduate of Plymouth High and of the University of Michigan Medical School, was one of the early members of the orchestra. He played clarinet with the first group.

Musicians come from all parts of Wayne and Washington to participate with the orchestra and many have been with it since the opening program.

Fred Beitner, well-known Plymouth jeweler, has played violin at practically every program during the 19 years.

Other Plymouth members of the orchestra are: Mrs. Marjorie McKenzie, 780 S. Evergreen; Mrs. Julie McGuire, 1481 Palmer; Mrs. Joyce Lee, 6000 Napier Road; Mrs. Jean Braun, 11179 Terry; Mrs. Marcia Woolweaver, 660 N. Sheldon.

Mrs. Louise Bradley, 41980 Brentwood; Mrs. Betsy Batsakis, 697 Karmada; Edith Durand, 480 N. Evergreen; Arthur Haeske, 625 Parkview Drive; Knight Vernon, Plimth Place Apartments; Wilfred Watson, 1170 W. Maple; and William Beitner, 443 N. Harvey.

In addition several high school students have joined in the concerts including: Linda Boon, Jane Palmer, Roberta Van Meter, Joanne Thom, Robin Wideman, Andy Wisniewski and Norman Fischer.

Thus, the Plymouth Symphony is not a musical group made up of outsiders, it is a community project and should have the backing of the entire community.

That's what workers will emphasize during the next week's drive in which they hope to go over the top in their efforts for $15,000 or more.

Township Firemen Aid in Two Fires

Firefighters from Plymouth Township aided Northville Township and City of Livonia departments in fighting two fires Saturday afternoon.

The Township trucks answered a call for help from Northville Township in fighting a blaze that destroyed the old Whipple Mansion on Eight Mile Road.

They had finished work there when a call came in from Livonia for a house fire on Eight Mile Road at Newburg where an abandoned convalescent home burned to the ground.

Mayor Houk To Visit Union City

Mayor James Houk, who was elected to that post a week ago by members of the Plymouth City Commission, will travel to Union City, near Coldwater, for the annual Mayor Exchange Day program that features the annual Michigan Week celebration throughout the state.

That was the announcement by City Treasurer Kenneth Day, chairman of Government Day on Monday, May 17, after receiving assurance of Mayor Houk that he would participate in the exchange. Plymouth originally was scheduled to exchange Mayors with Saugatuck but the small resort city in the western part of the state informed Michigan Week officials that it did not care to participate.

Way was notified last week of the switch to Union City and made arrangements for the exchange after the confirmation from Houk.

Mayor Houk will travel to Union City early on the morning of May 17 and Mayor Pro-Tem James Jabara will act as official host to the visiting Mayor from that city.

Other events slated for the day include an official welcome at 10 a.m., luncheon and then a tour of the city's industrial plants. The Commission will honor the visitors with a dinner in the evening and then invite the Union City Mayor to serve as acting chairman for the opening of the Commission meeting that night.

William Nelson, chairman of Plymouth's Michigan Week celebration, indicated his chairman for each day are busy working on plans for gala events each day of the week.

Rev. Peter Schweitzer is planning a special religious service in the community on Spiritual Foundations Day on Sunday, May 16.

Government Day, under the guidance of Chairman Way, is scheduled for Monday, May 17.

Chairman John Wiltse has several thoughts for Hospitality Day on Tuesday, May 18 and hopes to have his program complete before the end of another week.

James Thomas, chairman of Livelihood Day, on Wednesday, May 19, is working with the area's industries for special announcements as the feature of that day's program.

William Harding, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of secondary schools, has an unusual program slated for Education Day, Thursday, May 20 which he expects to announce soon.

Herald Hamill, president of the Plymouth Historical Society and chairman of Heritage Day, Friday, May 21, is looking for the oldest, continuously operated business in the community. Hamill plans to honor that business as the highlight of his day's activities.

The Plymouth Junior Baseball program will get underway on Saturday, May 15 with a parade and the colorful ceremonies and Chairman Joe Gates has designated this program as the feature of his Youth's Day program.

Plymouth Optimists Sight Record Circus Ticket Sales

Aiming at a near record attendance for the two performances of the Mills Brothers Circus on Wednesday, May 12, members of the Plymouth Optimist Club, sponsors of the program, will make a door-to-door ticket selling campaign on Saturday, May 1, and Saturday, May 8.

Packaging Corp. Shows Gains in Sales and Earnings

Packaging Corporation of America, Evanston, Ill., has registered gains in both sales and earnings for the nine months ended March 31. The corporation has a plant in Plymouth. Sales were $113,514,780 compared to $107,946,124 for the same nine-month period last year. Earnings were $5,091,128, equal to $1.31 per share, compared to earnings of $4,472,208, or $1.15 per share for the nine months of the prior fiscal year.

That was the announcement of General Chairman Robert Tripp as he told how advanced sale tickets are available at reduced rates from those that will be charged at the gate on May 12. The circus will be presented on the Burroughs Corp. property at the corner of Haggerty and Schoolcraft Roads.

The 1965 edition of the Mills Bros. Circus features an international array of stars including aerialists, acrobats, clowns, contortionists, jugglers, tumblers, wire-walkers, high pole artists, an all-girl aerial ballet and an Arabian Nights opening parade.

The Optimists will use all profits for its various youth projects which include scholarships, playground equipment, backing athletic teams, etc.

The committee members are: General Chairman Tripp; ticket sales, W. Scott; school coordinator, Herb Woolweaver; city and township coordinator, R. Merriam; advertising solicitation, J.

Close; cleanup, R. Smithling, and project treasurer, M. Bertram.

Plymouth GOP Urges Voters to Press for Defeat of Medicare

Following a meeting last Thursday evening of the 15-man advisory board of the Plymouth Republican Club, residents of this area are being urged to send telegrams to their Congressmen urging defeat of the proposed Medicare bill.

Senate Hearings on the proposed legislation were scheduled to begin Tuesday, April 25.

The re-activated Plymouth Republican Club urged citizens to wire their Congressmen immediately advising defeat of the Medicare bill and adoption of one of the alternate bills, such as Eldericare.

Interested residents who desire a dditional information should call Ed Johanson at GL 3-0895.

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

Apathy is the deadliest enemy of the columnist — big time, small time, daily or weekly. There is always the fear no one gives a tinker's damn, no one is listening.

When the malady hits, the victim either writes a "way out" column, turns to drink, or leaves town — sometimes all three.

Ever since Doc Green, daily columnist for The Detroit News, has been 32 years old I've been his fan — read him through his many moods; even bought his book — and what's more, read it.

You have to feel a certain amount of possessive protectiveness when you have watched someone THAT many years — but now I'm afraid a knuckle rap is in order for my paper hero.

For the past week Doc, in his column, has hurt the image of the car dealers considerably. It probably wouldn't have meant as much to me as a reader-writer — but I happened to really know someone in the business. I'm well acquainted with Gene Merollis of Merollis Chevrolet. I know him, his wife and about his business. It has been a father down to sons type of business, built up through the years and they are proud of it. They should be.

There are other such father-to-son combinations in this business, because in order to succeed there is a lot to know. You just don't open up a store — there are many facets to the entire operation.

Unfortunately Doc cast aspersions where none were justified.

Unfortunately too, anyone who has ever paid $298 for a car and gotten one worth $298 will agree with Doc. After all they really wanted a car worth $4,000. One of the sad facts of life.

Like the old mother-in-law joke, there was a time, as my friend Mr. Merollis says, after the war there was a shortage of cars, and people, and there were plenty of transients in the business.

The dealers themselves realized this and made their own rules, formed their own association, Automobile Dealers Association, to name one. They weeded out the undesirables.

In forming this organization they realized they would always be judged by the public by their weakest, and were interested in upgrading themselves. They did it too.

Don't misunderstand — there are still the "fast-buck" guys in the business — but any customer who is not himself trying to cheat can spot them. Rarely are they suburban. In the suburbs you learn to live and know your neighbors — business and otherwise. The "floaters" just don't make out. The gimmick ideas Doc talked about are abhorred by these suburban dealers — and considered something for the kooks in the business. A reputable dealer would no more use a bugged show room than Doc would wretch on a bet.

My boy better stick to horse writing, betting, and riding for that matter.

For He's a Jolly Good Fellow

THE READER SPEAKS UP:

Fight Vandalism

Editor:
I have, just recently, through an assembly at Farmington Junior High School, been introduced to the problem of vandalism. I feel it could be prevented by having more recreational facilities for students.

Much of the vandalism is blamed on kids that gather on the streets. They do this looking for something to do or out of sheer boredom. A lot of this boredom could be cured if they had some type of recreational facilities. The facilities could include a number of things. A few of these are a public pool, a teen club or some kind of skating rink.

Some people, here in Farmington, feel that these types of facilities should not be necessary; that parents should be able to bring up their own kids, without having to tax other people of the community. Perhaps parents should be able to bring up their own children, but obviously many aren't. Besides, the building of these facilities would not be that much more expensive than the taxes paid for vandalism, and they would be much more worthwhile.

However, if money is a large problem, I'm sure that many students, along with their parents, would be willing to hold some fund-raising activities to help pay for the recreational facilities.

Sincerely,
ROBERT KING

Open Letter to Mayor Harvey Moelke Livonia

Now that the Parks election is over, and since I have not had a response to my previous letter regarding the poor condition of many of our present park facilities, the need for follow-up arises. You have had ample time to respond. However, instead of answering the issue and problem, you chose to completely ignore it and attack me personally in your weekly Mayor's column.

You tried to make it appear that it was because of our political differences that this letter was written. You didn't fool many people, as my letter was very clear to the effect that these differences existed and still exist for that matter.

It is the issue that is important to the people of Livonia, not our political differences. Obviously, the poor condition of some of our parks is a sore spot, and characteristically you reacted just as I thought you would.

When you find yourself in trouble on a problem, rather than to admit that the problem exists and take corrective measures to eliminate it, you instead choose to keep it a problem by denying it or avoiding it, and then diverting the people's attention by assailing the veracity of the individual bringing the problem to your attention.

None of us are perfect and certainly it is not necessarily your fault that these conditions came about. Common sense, however, dictates that the only answer is to do something about these conditions because it will be your fault and your responsibility if you allow these conditions to continue to exist.

You were vitally interested in our parks system when it involved acquiring more land. I sincerely hope now that this interest continues toward the direction of cleaning up some of the swamp land and other dangerous hazards that exist in some of the areas that we refer to loosely as "Parks."

Mr. Mayor, many people, along with myself, are awaiting an intelligent response.

I fully realize that I am risking further assassination of my character, but I could care less, as the risk is worth it. Furthermore, I can assure you that this will not prevent me from continuing to pursue the issue until such time as proper action is taken.

RAY BARBER
Livonia

P.S. Mayor Moelke has anyone ever told you that your weekly column resembles that of Ann Landers?

R. Barber

Why Not our Schools?

Editor:
We appreciated receiving our Livonia Civic Guide through the mail recently but can anyone explain why the Clarenceville School District was omitted? We have some very fine schools in our district and are quite proud of the job they are doing. Granted they are not only in Livonia, but are in effect a fine example of several different communities cooperating together.

I noted that the Clarenceville Optimist Club and Clarenceville Methodist Church were included and if our district was omitted strictly because of location then at least two of the elementary schools and our Junior and Senior High schools should have been included.

No, I'm not a Board member, just a parent with a child in one of the Clarenceville Schools and I think the members of the Board, etc., should at least be recognized for the good job they are doing.

L. D.

Let's Free 'em All!

Editor:
Why should car owners in Plymouth, Farmington, Livonia, and other parts of Michigan pick up the total tab for buying and freeing Big Mac?

All bridges and tunnels which are part of the interstate and international freeway network should be toll-free. That goes for the Ambassador Bridge, the Detroit-Windsor tunnel, the Blue Water, the Soo International, and Big Mac.

We in the Great Lakes State, advantaged by our great waterways and disadvantaged by the barriers caused by our peninsular situation, should be the first to understand, and demand, that Federal freeway funds be used to connect one part of an international system with another.

Since all who buy gasoline and other products which are taxed for this purpose contribute to the highway fund, there is no good reason why Michigan auto owners should pick up the full tab for freeing Big Mac. There are many of our good neighbors in Ohio, Indiana, and other midwestern states who cross the Straits more often than does the average Detroit area motorist.

Those of us in suburbia, who will be living alongside a freeway which will lead directly to the Ambassador Bridge, should be especially interested in toll-free access to Canada. It would help the growth of Livonia and adjacent suburban areas as an international distribution and manufacturing complex, ready to top the Ontario market as it grows and as Canadian-American trade barriers are eliminated.

Michigan Senators and Congressmen must, in time, consider such legislation. Why not now? If Michigan's gateways to Ontario or, if you will, Canada's gateways to the United States are made a true part of our freeway system, we will all profit, directly or indirectly, from expedited trade and accelerated tourism. It merits study, discussion, and action.

Yours For Freeways
PAUL LUTZEIER

In Defense of Librarian

Free speech is one of the most cherished American possessions. When someone, namely high school student, Larry Adcock, abuses that right, to make derogatory remarks about one of the dedicated women in our community, I rise to protest.

Mrs. Stephen Droege, our Farmington librarian, has done an outstanding service to all readers in the Farmington area. She has the most terrific memory of anyone I have ever known. Her sense of devotion, above and beyond the call of duty, extends to calling at 8:15 on a Saturday evening with a suggestion for reference material.

If Mrs. Droege refused you a reference book, she was only co-operating with your teachers, who are trying to get you youngsters to do some original thinking. If everyone in Farmington were as helpful to his neighbors as Mildred Droege, we would live in Utopia.

Sincerely,
Patricia O. King
Farmington

Editor: Larry Adcock's complaint was with the "directive," not the Librarian, whom we agree is an asset to the community.

This weekend I had an opportunity to read your Editorial which appeared on Feb. 17th captioned "Mr. Roberts and the Law." I want to commend you for a very effective exposition of the civil liberties concerns in the Roberts matter.

I believe the Editorial is worthy of reproduction in the Civil Liberties Newsletter for ACLU of Michigan. Possibly you might be able to influence the editor of that journal to carry it.

Consolidation's in the Air

Spring is in the air, at least there has been a touch of spring, on several occasions, and with it comes whimsical thoughts that perhaps it's about time for several of the communities within the Observer Newspapers Inc. circulation area to think of consolidation.

These kinds of thoughts have been expressed before in Redford Township, where the community has three school districts within one township; in Plymouth where the city and township are hearing rumbles of consolidation; and in Clarenceville where a school district is in three communities and two counties.

Officials in the three areas have heard the rumors of consolidation more than once in the past and it's about time they began to think of doing something about situations that are gradually becoming intolerable.

There isn't any question but that consolidation poses major problems in all three cases. But by the same token, there isn't any reason why the matter can't be studied, discussed and brought to the attention of the voters.

For example, consolidation became a major topic in the Plymouth community after Sam Hudson, public relations director of Evans Products and a member of the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees, wrote letters to the Township Board and the City Commission asking as a citizen that both groups consider naming committees to study consolidation and make a report of the pros and cons to the electorate.

The City immediately indicated it would be willing to sit down with the Township at any time to go into the matter. However, the Township Board had a different idea and informed Hudson that the Township already was involved in a proposed City of Plymouth Heights and didn't feel it had a right to enter such discussions at this time.

There is a feeling in the Township that talks on consolidation are a bit premature and that all action should be delayed until water and sewer lines have been installed in the western section and the water mains come down Sheldon Road and across a proposed industrial park just north of Western Electric.

Perhaps the Trustees are right in their thinking — but we don't agree. It is our feeling that Hudson asked only for a discussion of consolidation and a study to present the pros and cons to the voters so that they could see what such a move would involve.

There are problems in consolidation but we can't see why a study couldn't be placed in the hands of an unbiased committee for answers. It would be our recommendation that the City and Township consider looking around the confines of their respective areas for citizens who do not have closed minds on the subject.

In other words, get some new blood on such a committee, forget those who have irons in the fire and who have served on similar committees in the past — the Township Trustees and the City Commissioners might be surprised at what such a group would recommend.

The situation in Redford Township is even more intolerable than that of Plymouth.

There isn't any reason in this world why a community of 87,000 (which Redford Township claims), should have two separate school systems with separate administrations, bus lines, administrative offices and numerous other expensive duplicated items.

As in Plymouth, consolidation presents a great many problems, not the least of which is a difference of approximately $11 per thousand in the school taxes of the two districts with Redford Union on the high end.

We realize that consolidation could come only after a majority vote of the electors of the two districts — something that isn't apt to occur in the foreseeable future but at least it's worth talking about.

Again, we suggest that the two School Boards should consider naming a representative committee from the two districts to go over the problems of consolidation and present the pros and cons to the voters.

The facts of bonded indebtedness, financial structure of each district, operation costs, amount that could be saved by having one school district and all other salient figures would have to be made available for the study.

And the School Boards should look around for different faces, new names and fresh approaches when making appointments to the committee. Forget about those who have axes to grind, those who have been on committees in the past — a different view might possibly bring a different recommendation, one that could be used in resolving a pesky question that must be solved before the operation costs mount to astronomical figures.

Third and last on the list is the matter of the Clarenceville School district, part of which is in Livonia, Redford and Farmington Townships and thus in Wayne and Oakland Counties.

Why wouldn't it be logical for the district to be abandoned and become parts of the natural school systems? For example, Livonia in Livonia, Redford Township in Redford Township and Farmington Township in that section.

At least it's something to think about. Here again, there are problems of indebtedness and the numerous other questions that would have to be answered.

But how much better it would be to have the students in the larger school systems than in the hodge-podge setup as now exists — three communities and in two counties, unbelievable in this day and age, but there it is.

R. T. T.

A Last Hurrah

Voters, in a free society, can be wrong. But not consistently so. That would seem to be the best measure of the political career of Robert B. Lindbert, who earlier this month ended his career as Mayor of the City of Farmington.

Mr. Lindbert was appointed to the Farmington Council in 1953, to fill an unexpired term. In April of that year, his fellow Councilmen elected him Mayor — by a unanimous vote. He was re-elected in April, 1957 — again unanimously. And he was re-elected for a third time, in April, 1961 — though this time there was a dissenting vote.

That term came to an end this April, and the Mayor announced he would have to close out his career. The press of business would not permit him the time for government work.

The reaction of the Council and of the community, was one of regret. It seems clear that he could have continued at the job indefinitely.

This newspaper observed only the closing chapter of his mayoralty career. But certain things about it were unmistakable.

He is a man of unflappable politeness. On the Council he was a steady man, who calmly took each issue as it came before him. He never berated a subordinate, or sought to discredit anyone who brought a matter to the Council.

He was in short a statesman. The Observer wishes him all the best in his future affairs. We also hope that he will continue to contribute his wisdom and experience to his community. We know many will seek it.

To the City of Farmington, he will always be Mr. Mayor.

ALLEN ROSENFIELD

Governor's Message

At the time you read this I will be in Europe with 50 of our State's outstanding businessmen. We are making a market study tour of seven countries in 1965. All of this being done in line with our 1965 Michigan Week Theme, "Michigan — Dynamic in World Progress." We are also being accompanied by Secretary of State James Hare as well as the majority leadership of both houses of our state legislature.

Many of us felt that much could be gained from such a trip both by way of expanding markets in Europe for Michigan products as well as increasing the distribution in Michigan of European products. It is always better for businessmen to make personal contact with their overseas counterparts. Many have indicated interest in joint venture opportunities, licensing agreements and European presentation. Each of the businessmen is paying his own way.

Industrialists, financial specialists, retailers, business educators, resort leaders, research experts and agricultural leaders comprise the group and they come from such cities as Alpena in the northeast to St. Joseph in the southwest, and from Gormfask in the upper peninsula to Sturgis near the Indiana border.

They represent such large firms as Whirlpool, S. S. Kresge, and Wolverine Shoe and Tanning Co., as well as such smaller and lesser known firms as Jack Brown Produce of Sparta and Stahl Bros. Company of Belding.

There are also a variety of products and services represented aboard the flight to Europe. There is the aircar made by Air Cars, Inc., of Traverse City, the Test Chambers made by Thermocon of Holland, the beans marketed by Michigan Bean Co. of Saginaw, garnet hangers made by Cleaners Hanger Co. of Saginaw and concrete block machines manufactured by the Besser Company of Alpena.

While in Europe I will be speaking to several groups and organizations regarding trade and other economic matters. Some of the groups include the American Chamber of Commerce for Italy in Milan, the American Club of Paris, the American Chamber of Commerce and the Association Belgo-Americaine in Brussels, and the Institute of Directors in London.

Additional details of our tour include two days in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, for participation in the Tulip Festival and a meeting with Queen Juliana as well as many of the business leaders.

We are spending at least two days in Germany at the Hanover Fair, a gigantic German trade exhibit which this year is expected to attract millions of visitors from more than 100 countries to view an estimated 5,900 exhibits by manufacturing concerns in 29 countries. I will participate in the opening ceremonies of the Fair with West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, West Germany's Walter Hallstein, head of the Common Market commission and ambassadors from all participating nations.

The three days after the fair are available to businessmen to travel and meet with their European counterparts. Several different itineraries are available, depending on the particular interests of the individual.

The three final days will be given over to information sessions with foreign businessmen and officials of the Common Market at Brussels, Belgium and with the British Manufacturers' Association at London.

I look forward to reporting to you of our experiences upon our return.

Shot Slam Wins For Falcons

A slam in the shot put helped Farmington High squeeze out a 56 1/2-52 1/2 victory over Pontiac Northern in a dual track meet.

Fritz Simons, Bill Crane and Dave Brown finished one-two-three in the order listed in the shot put with Simons firing the iron ball 43 feet.

Gary Lockwood with victories in the 100 and 220-yard dashes accounted for Farmington's only double triumph. He was timed in 10.2 and 23.1 seconds, respectively. He also anchored Farmington's winning 880-yard relay.

Ron Short soared 11 feet, six inches to take the pole vault while Gary Schultz copped the half-mile to account for Farmington's other individual victories.

Here's how Farmington entries placed:

SHOT PUT: 1—Fritz Simons, 2—Bill Crane, 3—Dave Brown. Distance: 43 feet.

BROAD JUMP: 3—John Grimes.

HIGH HURDLES: 2—Grimes. Tie for Third, Bob Charles.

POLE VAULT: 1—Ron Short. Height: 11 feet, 6 inches.

880-YARD RELAY: 1—Farmington (Grimes, Mike Ellis, Simons, Gary Lockwood). Time: 1:41.

MILE: 2—Bob Donovan, 3—John Harvey.

100-YARD DASH: 1—Lockwood, 2—Mike Ellis. Time: 10.2 seconds.

220-YARD DASH: 1—Lockwood, 2—Ellis. Time: 23.1 seconds.

440-YARD RUN: 1—Gary Schultz. Time: 53.1 seconds.

880-YARD RUN: 2—Chip Terry.

HIGH HURDLES: 2—Ken Hawkins, 3—George Habicht.

MILE RELAY: 2—Farmington (Grimes, Terry, Randy Taggart, Schultz).

Raiders Place in Rice Relays

North Farmington high's track team scored 10 points last Saturday in the Brother Rice invitational track meet.

The N. F. sprint medley relay team comprised of Steve Duhe, Bob Linderman, Larry August and Bruce Whetter finished second in its competition.

North Farmington's four-mile relay team of Jim Rowe, Rex Norg, Doug Woods and Andy Lawing came through with a third place.

The mile relay entry of Duhe, Jim Ware, Woods and Whetter finished fourth while in the pole vault relay, North Farmington's trio of Jeff Morelle, Brian Swanton and Mike Beninger took a fifth.

West Loses, 2-1, To Cherry Hill

Garden City West's baseball team suffered a 3-1 defeat at the hands of Cherry Hill last Wednesday.

Brilliant pitching by Rick Young, Cherry Hill's ace, was too much for West. He fanned 17 and allowed only four hits—two by Gary Slade and one each by George Domanski and Fred Simpson.

The only West run was scored by Gary Garonski who walked, stole second and came home on an error.

Raiders Swamp Foe in Tennis

North Farmington blanked Walled Lake, 7-0, in a tennis meet last Friday.

The North Farmington singles quartet of Dick Strong, Skip Moore, Rick Oglesby and Larry Pederson lost a total of only two games. Both Moore and Oglesby won by 6-0, 6-0 scores.

In doubles Tom Czubick and Ken Phair triumphed, 6-0, 6-4; Dan McCort and Dave McCaig triumphed, 6-0, 7-5, and Steve Cluff and Mike Ortwine won, 6-0, 6-1.

Red Cross Has Annual Meeting

On Thursday, April 8, 1965, the Northwest Regional Office was the scene of the Annual Meetings of the Livonia and Plymouth Branches of the Detroit Chapter, American Red Cross.

Officers for the coming year remain unchanged in Plymouth, however, new officers for Livonia are: Mrs. Olson Hensley, Chairman, Mrs. Richard Cook, Co-Chairman and Mrs. Edwin Selfe, Secretary.

Following the business meetings an Awards Tea was held for all volunteers in the region. Those honored were: Mesdames L. Couzens, E. Edel, R. E. Blanchard, M. B. Brillhart, R. Barber, and H. Atwood.

18-YEAR-OLD VOTE, BRIDGE TOLLS;

Here's A Chance To Tell Your Views To State Representatives

Lower the voting age to 18? Slash the toll on the Mackinac Bridge? These are two of the controversial issues facing the Michigan State Legislature, and Lansing representatives of local residents are anxious to find out how people 'back home' view these, and other, proposed laws.

State Representative John Bennett (D-Redford Township) drew up the following questionnaire to poll his constituents, and The Observer received his permission to reproduce the questions for the guidance of all the representatives from the area.

Observer readers may check their answers to these questions, add their names and addresses if they wish, and mail them to the following state representatives, depending on where they live:

Redford Township—John Bennett, House of Representatives, Lansing.

Livonia (except for the area south of the C and O Railroad between Merriman and Middlebelt)—Marvin Stempien, House of Representatives, Lansing.

Garden City, Western Nankin Township and Plymouth — James Tierney, House of Representatives, Lansing.

Eastern Nankin Township and Livonia south of the C and O Railroad between Merriman and Middlebelt—Richard A. Young, House of Representatives, Lansing.

Farmington and Farmington Twp. — Ray A. Baker, State House of Representative, Lansing.

School Census Set May 10-31

Eight Clarenceville census enumerators will visit every home in the Clarenceville School District between May 10 and May 31. State Law requires that an annual school census be taken during this period each year.

The purpose of a state school census is to determine the number of children in each age group from birth to 20 years of age as a basis for planning physical, instructional and financial needs and as a means for distribution of State aid monies.

This year, in addition to the data called for in previous years, there is additional information requested by the Federal Government as well as the State Government. This will be used in setting up programs for adult education, vocational rehabilitation and pre-school children.

Odd Fellows Celebrate Founding

Clarenceville Lodge No. 427 of the Odd Fellows will commemorate the 146 anniversary of the founding of the organization in North America on May 1 at a dinner at Eddie Palls Supper Club in Detroit.

This week is Odd Fellows Week in the State of Michigan according to a proclamation signed by Governor Romney. Monday was designated as Odd Fellows Day.

The proclamation reads in part: "The Independent Order of Odd Fellows endeavors to elevate the character of man through the systematic teaching of the basic principles of Friendship, Brotherly Love and Truth."

Members of the Clarenceville Lodge meet every Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Hall on Inkster north of Eight Mile. Past Grand Russ Robitaille has returned to the Lodge and has been appointed Degree Captain.

For information about the Odd Fellows and the Lodge contact either James A. Nicholas at 474-0753 or Russ Robitaille at 476-8693.

Spiritual Requirement

The spiritual requirements for release from guilt and suffering will be examined at Christian Science church services this Sunday. Subject of the Bible Lesson is "Everlasting Punishment." Included in the Scriptural passages to be presented are these verses from Ezekiel: "Make you a new heart and a new spirit... For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord God: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye."

Consumers' Executive Tells of Huge Expansion Plans

A formidable expansion program, involving expenditures of almost $400,000 for every working day for the next five years, was announced Monday by Robert P. Briggs, Executive Vice President of Consumers Power Company, at a regional meeting of shareholders in Royal Oak. Briggs said a substantial portion of this expansion would occur in the Company's South Oakland, West Wayne, Macomb and Pontiac Divisions. He recalled that Macomb County, alone, is expected to show a population increase of 65 per cent in the decade from 1960 to 1970, while an increase of 31 per cent is forecast for Oakland in the same period. The suburban portion of Wayne County also is continuing a record rate of growth. Demands for natural gas have increased so rapidly in these four divisions, Briggs said, that Consumers Power will have to spend approximately $19 million this year, alone, in expanding services in its South Oakland, West Wayne, Macomb and Macomb and Pontiac Divisions. Among major projects is a large service center now nearing completion near Warren, to serve customers in the Macomb Division. Important expansion also is under way in the St. Clair Gas Field. In all, said Briggs, Consumers Power expects to invest at least $500 million in the five-year period 1965-1969 to meet anticipated demands for electricity and natural gas in 66 of the 68 counties of Michigan's lower peninsula. Consumers Power now serves 668,000 customers with gas, and 932,000 customers with electricity, a total of 1.6 million customers.

Reporting on the state of Consumers Power Company, Briggs told the assembled shareholders: "The state of your Company is good. We believe it will remain good. This is a growing Company serving a growing and prosperous area." Total operating revenues of Consumers Power were $376,400,000 in 1964, Briggs said, adding that the Company expected annual revenues to top $400,000,000 within the next 12 months.

Last year, the Company spent $71,500,000 to expand its facilities, and in 1965 the total will be about $100,000,000. Briggs said Consumers Power's long-range construction program includes plans for another large electric generating unit. Tentatively scheduled for service in 1970, this unit probably will be twice the size of the largest Consumers Power generating units now operating in Michigan.

Whether it will utilize nuclear energy to generate steam for electric power production, or whether it will derive its heat from coal, has not yet been determined. Research at the Company's Big Rock Point nuclear plant, near Charlevoix, indicates that nuclear energy now may be competitive with coal in large generating plants in certain areas. A final decision, however, awaits the outcome of detailed studies.

875 Attend Annual Youth Pin Banquet

More than 875 parents and their offspring, who competed in the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation Youth Bowling League, attended the annual banquet last Thursday night in Roma Hall when trophies were presented to the winners of the various divisions.

George Bashara, manager of Wonderland Lanes, had the role of master of ceremonies and introduced Lois McAllister of Livonia Lanes, Margaret Coleman of Wonderland, Alice Carr of Cloverland Lanes and Doris Malthy of Merri-Bowl.

The quartet, aided by Assistant Supt. William Zirblis, of the DPR, handled all details of the leagues at their respective establishments.

Each presented awards to the winners assisted by Mayor Harvey Moelke, Council President Rudolf Kleinert, Thomas Genova, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission; DPR Supt. John Dufour, W.W. Edgar, state bowling co-ordinator; and Jerry Coplin, field representative of the Bowling Proprietors Association.

Cloverland bowlers won the rolloff in the Prep division and Merri-Bowl keglers won in the Teen division.

Teams receiving awards were:

PREP DIVISION (12 years old and under) — LIVONIA LANES, Charles Hamilton, Marie Zuk, Kurt Barnes, Gary Shaffer, Craig Kling, Kevin Duggan, Jeff Johnson, Jim Mauzy, Reed Johnson, Karen Martin, Larry Taylor, Bill Jones, Dick Sumnerly and Scott McNeil.

CLOVERLAND — Mike Ruff, Charles Capudean, John See, Dennis Lyday and Tom See.

MERRI-BOWL — Don Parks, Brad Cook, Kathy Castleberry, Craig Hampton, Tom Isaac.

WONDERLAND — Scott Henderson, Jim Miller, Kent Steinko, Keith and Kevin Gratton.

TEEN DIVISION (over 12 years of age) — MERRI-BOWL — Terry Hall, Gary Richards, Jeff Klass, Duane Marina and Larry Herman.

LIVONIA LANES — Tom Cellerito, Dan Ryscamp, Chuck Schmitz, Jim Gazarek, John Lutzel.

WONDERLAND — Gary Hel-esek, Greg Houston, Rick Vickstrom, Lamont Monat, and Bob Jones.

Livonia Teachers to Seek Ideas in Other Schools

Within the next four weeks, Franklin High School teachers will visit other schools in Michigan and Illinois to view facilities and organizational systems to bring observations back to FHS.

Holland High School, known for its flexible scheduling plan, was visited on Tuesday, April 13 by Bill Farlow, Director of Instructional Materials; James Carey, Mathematics Chairman; Bob Kauffman, Art Chairman; Bernard Rowan, English teacher; Bob Visser, Foreign Language Chairman; and John D. Wright, 11th grade assistant principal.

Chosen for its "non-graded" method of class organization, Garber High School in Essexville, Michigan, will be visited by faculty council members on Tuesday, April 27. Participating in that excursion will be Juanita Bilinsky, English teacher, Ken Bourgon, Director of Student Activities; J. Jiskra, Home Economics department Chairman; Leon Martin, Industrial Education department Chairman; and John D. Wright, 11th grade assistant principal.

Because of its unique system of team teaching and individualized student instruction, Ridgewood High School in Norridge, Illinois, will be visited on Wednesday and Thursday, May 5 and 6 by Sarah Dick, Social Studies department chairman; Laurel Holan, Business Education department chairman; Bill Lively, Science department chairman; George Manuel, English department chairman; Roy Montambeau, Director of Research and Curriculum Evaluation; Jack R. Comstock, 12th grade assistant principal; David D. Amerman, Principal of Franklin High School; Jay Formsa, Principal of the new section 9 high school; Donald Friedrichs, Principal of Bentley High School; and Paul Johnson, Assistant Superintendent in Charge of Instruction.

TROJAN 'LOVES' HOLLY

Blanks Foe 3rd Time

Danny Freels of Clarenceville High would like to pitch against Holly every time he goes to the mound.

In 1964, Freels beat Holly twice on shutouts. In one of the games, he turned in a no-hitter.

Last week, Freels went against Holly again—and you're right; he hurled another shutout, winning by a 4-0 score as he allowed only two hits and fanned five.

After Clarenceville picked up an unearned run in the fourth inning, the Trojans tallied three times in the sixth on successive doubles by Mike Nye, Freels and Mike Luka along with a single by Tim Spencer.

Freels also returned to the pitching hill 72 hours later against Clarkston and appeared headed for his second victory of the week.

He held a 6-0 lead after five innings and was on the brink of a no-hitter. Then the roof fell in.

Clarkston drove across seven runs on six hits and two errors in the sixth inning and squeezed out a 7-6 victory.

Clarenceville finished the game with nine hits—two each by Nye, Freels, Joe Niestroy and Jim Sliwa. Neal accounted for the other safety.

The Trojans also suffered a 2-1 loss to Northville during last week's busy schedule.

Pitcher Gale Armstrong of Clarenceville deserved a better fate. He allowed only two hits and fanned seven. Both of the Northville runs were unearned. Niestroy singled across Nye, who had reached first on a walk, with Clarenceville's only run of the game.

Shift Big Help
Changing Jeff Waldman from running the 440-yard race to the shorter (100 and 220-yard dashes) has paid off well for Coach Ralph Temby and his Clarenceville High track team.

Waldman had a perfect time of matters last week as Clarenceville beat Brighton, 76-32, and West Bloomfield, 68-41, in Wayne-Oakland League dual meets.

The junior sprinter won both the 100 and 220 in each meet. He also ran a leg on the winning Clarenceville 880-yard relay teams in each meet.

Clarenceville took eight events against Brighton and scored nine "firsts" in the meet with West Bloomfield.

Observing Sports

... and we must confess that Frankie Jr. has a long way to go to match his daddy. In singing, that is.

We always have thought, along with others, that the lights of Times Square in New York have no equal. It's not so.

A visit to downtown Las Vegas... to a two-block stretch along the main street leaves you astounded to say the least.

It's there that such places as the Mint, the Nevada Club and the Las Vegas Casino lure thousands every night. These gambling "institutions" lack the plushness of the casinos at the Sands or Dunes or Riviera or Sahara.

Nor do they attract the ladies and gentlemen with the big money.

But you must fight your way to a slot machine or a 21-table. And they have big signs announcing that there is jackpot winner every 27 or 30 seconds.

They aren't exaggerating either. The payoffs are frequent. Except when you happen to be throwing in the nickels.

Within an hour's ride of Las Vegas, you look down at Boulder Dam, one of the wonders of this world.

You get goose pimples standing atop this mighty structure which has brought water and power to the southwestern part of our country.

Part of the dam stands in Nevada. The rest in Arizona.

Jack Winer, once a star photographer for the late Detroit Times and now chief snapper for a paper in Las Vegas, shows us around the Dam.

You're very grateful to Winer for bringing you to the Dam, despite the fact the temperature is up in the 80's.

The next evening, you are talking with Alex Hannum, the great coach of the San Francisco Warriors. Around you are members of the United States and Russian touring basketball teams.

The coach of the Russians steps up to sound our Hannum for advice. An interpreter is required because the coach speaks very little English.

Hannum introduces the coach to this writer. "Don't I know you from somewhere?" The Russian asks. "We met in New York five or six years ago. You weren't as fat or as gray then."

His remarks astonish us. We don't ever remember meeting this particular Russian.

The lights of Las Vegas keep glistening. And our vacation time speeds by in a hurry.

It's 3:45 in the morning when we slip a nickel into the slot machine at the airport.

As usual, nothing happens.

We then board a United Jet that takes less than three hours to land in Chicago. After an hour's wait, we hop aboard an American Airliner and in less than 50 minutes we're back where we had started—Detroit's Metro Airport.

Our pockets were lighter than we started. But the memories of a week at Las Vegas never will die.

Bentley Drops Two To Hurons

Somewhere there has to be a happy medium for his Bentley High baseball team.

So feels Coach Marty Kluzik after last Friday's opening action which saw Bentley drop both ends of a doubleheader at Port Huron. The scores were 3-0 and 6-2.

In the opener, Bentley used what the coach called "our strongest defensive unit."

The result: "We fielded great, but couldn't do anything offensively."

Bentley was limited to one hit—a single by Mike Dodson in the sixth inning.

In the second game, the coach put in his "hitters." But this contingent lacks for defensive skills.

Three unearned runs in the fourth inning put Port Huron in the driver's seat for keeps.

A single by John Plumley, an error and a single by Chuck Mellas had given Bentley an early 1-0 lead. In the seventh, Bentley notched its other run on a single by Ray Watson and a double by Plumley.

Harvey Jaksch pitched well enough in the opener to win most games for Bentley. In the second game, Jack Hordianivk started and fanned seven in the first three innings—including the side both in the second and third.

But he ran into trouble in the fourth and gave way to Hank Schoenbeck who finished up in fine style.

Franklin Rally Subdues Wayne

After dropping its first two games, Franklin high's baseball team finally came through with a victory last Friday by gaining a 5-3 win over Wayne High.

A three-run uprising in the seventh inning broke a 2-2 tie and paved the way for the Livonians to triumph.

Tom Cannon, the winning pitcher who hurled to all but the game's last man, started the winning rally with a single. After Sam Antonazzo walked and Paul Hartge was safe on an error, Bernie Carbo dropped a hit to right and Roger Frayer slammed a single.

Franklin had scored its first run in the initial inning when Steve Dipper walked, Antonazzo singled and Hartge was safe on a fielder's choice. Gary Burkett's single, a stolen base and a single by Neal Thomas accounted for Franklin's second run.

Cannon gave way to Ken Bratherton, who retired the final man in the seventh inning, after Wayne staged a flurry in the closing inning.

Earlier in the week, Franklin blew a 3-1 lead and finally lost to Dearborn, 4-3 in eight innings. Errors helped Dearborn to get even and then push over the winning runs on a pair of singles and a walk.

Ford Worker Gets First Ace At Idyl Wyld

Mickey Hamilton, of Dearborn Heights, a member of the Ford Fosters Golf League, has the honor of scoring the first hole-in-one of the season at the Idyl Wyld course.

Mickey, who has been golfing for only seven years, ace'd the No. 13, 127-yard hole with a nine-iron while recording a 41.

His high, arching shot landed four feet from the pin, took two short hops and plopped into the cup. And Idyl Wyld Owner-Manager Don Patterson immediately gave him a dozen balls in recognition of the feat.

The ace was witnessed by Ronald Thornton, Gil Angrove and John Chelenyak.

Falcons, Raiders Fall To R.U.

Redford Union high appeared ready this week to start a bid for another Suburban Six League baseball championship. Coach Bob Atkins' Townshippers, who shared last year's loop crown, came through with a pair of impressive wins last week in beating North Farmington, 6-1, and then rallying for ten Farmington, 12-3.

The sweep against the two Farmington schools upped Redford Union's record to three wins against a single loss in pre-league action.

Rick Fisher turned in a fine pitching performance for RU in the game against North Farmington. He fanned eight and walked one. An error and a triple by Dale Chamberlain netted North Farmington its only run.

Redford Union tied the score when Jim Birberick walked in the fourth. Larry Dennis then ran for Birberick and negotiated the rest of the way on a stolen base, error and passed ball.

A single by Curt DeLoye, a triple by Jim Johnston and a squeeze bunt made it 3-1 for RU and the Townshippers added to their command thanks to walks and miscues by North Farmington.

Charles Viane started for North Farmington and Bill Oldershaw worked from the fourth inning on.

The bats of Harry Kendrick, Russ Pulyu and Cary DeLoye helped Redford Union to bounce back with five runs in both the sixth and seventh frames to belt Farmington.

Kendrick, clobbered a homer and triple, Pulyu a double and triple and DeLoye a single and triple as Dick Barryman pitched the route for the victors. Barryman was touched for seven hits, walked three and fanned seven.

Farmington had gone into a 3-2 lead when the big Redford Union bats finally exploded to turn the game into a runaway.

A single by Fred London started the fireworks for RU in the sixth. Kendrick then unloaded a triple. After Ernie Bourassa walked, Cary DeLoye lashed his triple. Birberick followed with a walk, Barryman singled and Curt DeLoye also singled to make the score 7-3.

In the seventh inning, Larry Dennis singled, Pulyu doubled and Kendrick tripled for two more runs. Errors then helped RU to add three more runs in the inning.

North Farmington also played and lost to Walled Lake, 3-1, in its second game last week.

The losers jumped into a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Jack Anderson singled, took second on a sacrifice and came home on a single by Bill Bowles.

But North Farmington was held to only two singles — by Viane and John Kraft — the rest of the way. Viane hurled for the losers, who now have a record of two setbacks in as many starts.

Mike Shaner, giant senior end of last fall's Thurston High football team, has received an athletic scholarship to Indiana University and will enroll there in the fall. Mike, who resides at 9345 San Jose in Redford Township, is 6'3" tall and weighs 205 pounds. Mike is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shaner.

Fans 19 Rivals In 6 Innings

Here's one for the records: Dave Bourassa, who pitches for the Redford Union High School reserve baseball team, fanned 19 batters in a six-inning effort against North Farmington last Wednesday.

Bourassa had a perfect game going until he was forced to leave the mound in the seventh inning with an injury.

In the second inning, he had to fan four batters, because on the third strike to one batter, the ball got away from the RU catcher.

Not only was Bourassa the pitching hero, he also was the hitting star for the winners with a homer and single and three runs-batted-in.

Tell the truth. Did you know right off that it was just a Volkswagen Campmobile? Or did you think it was really a place to live? It's an easy mistake to make, because the VW Campmobile is actually more like a house than a car. There are curtains and screens on the windows, wood panelling on the insulated walls, and wall-to-wall covering on the floor. (All standard equipment.) Two adults and two kids can sleep in it, eat in it, wash in it and keep their clothes and food in it. And if the old scenery gets dreary, just fold the optional tent and find some new scenery. Of course, it isn't a house. It's a Volkswagen. With all the things that make a Volkswagen a Volkswagen. But lots of people go on making the same mistake. We keep saying it's a Campmobile. And they keep saying it's a place to live.

Parish Preps Pitch No-Hit Wins

Take a bow—Miles Kearney of Our Lady of Sorrows and Rick Collins of St. Agatha. The two young men turned in no-hit pitching victories last week as their schools began competition for title honors in the Northwest Division of the Catholic League. Collins flipped his no-hitter in blanking Pontiac St. Michael, 4-0. Kearney missed a shutout, but nonetheless held his opposition hitless in a 6-1 verdict over St. Fredericks. Both St. Michael and St. Fredericks are Pontiac schools. Collins struck out eight, walked six and hit two batters. He was in a serious jam only once walking the bases loaded in the third inning.

Then Collins about-faced and struck out the next three batters. St. Agatha didn't do much with the bat either — making only two hits.

However, both of the St. Agatha belts were run-producers. Mike Roemer drilled a homer after Collins and Jerry Kaminski had walked. Then Pat Murphy singled in Greg Brower, who had reached first on a walk and stolen second.

Miles Kearney

Kearney lost his shutout when he hit two batters and walked another in the fourth. A passed ball admitted the lone run for St. Fredericks.

The veteran Kearney struck out 13 batters and walked seven. Our Lady of Sorrows scored three runs in the fourth inning and sewed up matters with three more in the fifth.

A double by Bob Urbain, a triple by Jim McGrath and single by Bill Morgan highlighted the fourth-inning bombardment.

In the fifth Urbain slugged a homer, Jerry Turner singled and Tom Webster homered to simplify Kearney's victory.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

After a week in Las Vegas, one finds it difficult to settle back down to the "quietness" that prevails around the Detroit area.

Our duties with the Detroit Pistons have taken us during recent months to places like New York, Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Cleveland, etc.

But none of these spots can hold a candle to Las Vegas.

From the instant you step off your TWA jet, you find Las Vegas a different place. Within a few strides of your entry into the terminal building stand the slot machines to immediately tempt your pocketbook.

You can't resist two fast nickels while you wait for your luggage. Your initial success is no better than what is to come in the week ahead. You keep popping in the nickels . . . far more than you get back.

Three minutes after you leave the airport, your car turns onto Las Vegas' famed strip.

First there is the famed Tropicana Hotel. Then come the Dunes . . . the Sands . . . the Riviera . . . the Desert Inn . . . the Flamingo . . . and the last spot is the Sahara where you and your wife are to spend a week.

In our travels with the Pistons we have visited many plush hotels. The formats of hotels in New York or Boston or St. Louis are about the same. You generally step directly into the lobby with plenty of chairs and couches around to relax — if you wish.

When you enter the Sahara . . . or the Sands . . . or any of the others in Las Vegas . . . you move directly into what they refer to — in dignified terms — as THE CASINO. The casino is nothing more than a plush gambling room.

Slot machines by the hundreds rattle away in every Casino. You can use nickels (in downtown Vegas even pennies), dimes, quarters and 50-cent pieces.

There even are some dollar "slots" available . . . but to work these you must receive special silver dollars from the cashiers. If you win . . . the casino operators promptly reclaim your silver pieces in favor of paper money. Government orders we're told.

Black-jack tables help to fill each casino. So do dice and roulette tables.

The gambling aspect of Las Vegas naturally lures a great number to the Nevada desert community.

But there are other reasons why our week's vacation in Las Vegas had to be the most enjoyable we can recall. Showtime in Las Vegas stands head and shoulders above anything offered anywhere else in the world.

During our week in Vegas, we "caught" such celebrities as Robert Goulet, Dinah Shore, Shelly Berman, Shecky Green, the Tommy Dorsey orchestra, Lisa Kirk and Don Rickles. We passed up Eddie Fisher only because we had seen his act not too long ago at the Elmwood over in Windsor.

We brushed elbows with Betty Grable, still as beautiful as ever; with Tommy Sands and Nancy Sinatra Sands who looked very much in love although three days later they announced they're going to be divorced.

They were there to listen to Frank Sinatra Jr. sing

Wolverine Sets 9 Records In First Seven Nights

Off to the greatest start in Michigan harness racing annals, Wolverine Raceway saw nine records shattered in the first full week of its 55-night meeting on the heels of a tremendous weekend that found 10,263 bettors pouring a high $569,045 through the machines Saturday night to contribute to an all-time record weekend total of $1,051,817.

Matter of fact, the total handle for the six nights was an astonishing $2,669,354, bettering the previous mark of $2,356,623 set in the first week of June a year ago.

Despite a chilly night, during which the mercury did nothing but drop during the course of the evening, Saturday's crowd and handle ranked with the best ever and combined to give Wolverine its first million dollar weekend.

Wolverine officials indicated prior to the start of the meeting that they were looking forward to the biggest and best campaign in history.

Thus the record making started as early as Monday when an all-time Monday high of 6,474 wagered $441,655—also a high for a week night. Then more marks went into oblivion of Wednesday when 6,249 sent $417,840 through the machines.

That led up to the weekend when officials had some idea of what was coming on Friday with a gathering of 7,257 wagering $482,772.

When 10,263 turned out Saturday, they envisioned the first $600,000 night in Michigan but the chilly weather took its toll.

Most surprising of all to members of the Wolverine official family was the $443,923 average for the six nights, compared to the previous high of $392,770 set in the period of June 1 through 6 in 1964.

Two oldtimers, both longtime favorites with area fans, made their Wolverine debuts Saturday and one, Bill Rainbow, an 11-year-old, managed to hang on in the stretch for a victory after seeing a five-length lead dwindle to a mere head.

The other, Cold Sunday, an 11-year-old from the Everett Hammell stable in Pinckney, sparked in his debut but faltered in the closing strides to lose a thriller to Lewis Hanover in one of the best races of the early season.

Cold Sunday, who likes to break fast from the gate, zoomed to the front this time even though making his first start and appeared to have the victory in the bag when he had a length edge 100 yards from the wire.

But he started to veer out and Lewis Hanover, piloted by Jack Sherren, found an opening along the rail and showed a tremendous burst of speed to win by a long neck.

Chief's Boy, the seven-year-old from the Hoyle Eivens' stable of Tulare, Calif., rolled off his seventh straight victory on Friday, coming out of the No. 4 hole at the top of the stretch to win by a length.

The aged campaigner, who started his racing career in Michigan as a two-year-old, hasn't tasted defeat since March 5 when he started his string at Bay Meadows in California.

He made it two at Phoenix Park in Arizona, won three straight at the recent Northville Downs meeting and now boasts two wins in as many outings at Wolverine.

STUDYING STEEL CONSTRUCTION overhead are Bill Bettendorf, director of parking for the Detroit Race Course, and Building Supt. Dave Schaarsmith (right) as they look at the framework of the new $2.5 million clubhouse. Present plans call for the project to be completed by mid-July, well in advance of the August opening of the DRC's 84-day meeting.

Thurston Star Sets Record

A new school record by Don Bristol in the half mile featured a pair of track victories for Thurston High School last week. Bristol was clocked in 1:58 to clip two-tenths of a second off the former Thurston varsity standard.

He turned in his effort as Thurston trimmed Wayne John Glenn High, 85-24, in a dual meet after Thurston had scored 61 points to 45 for Walled Lake and 30 for Redford Union in a triangular meet.

Bristol also won the high jump in the meet against Glenn, placed third in the broad jump and ran on the victorious mile relay team.

In the meet with Walled Lake Bristol captured the quarter mile, placed second in the high jump and third in the broad jump and also ran on the winning mile relay team.

Jerry Szostack continued his winning way for Thurston in the shot put. He won both meets.

Jack Shepherd, Redford Union's ace miler, showed the way against Walled Lake and Thurston and then came back with an easy win against Highland Park, which was snowed under by Redford Union, 72-37, in a dual meet.

Here's how the Thurston and Redford Union thinclads placed in last week's meets:

Bowlers!! Only Four Weeks Remain in Doubles Tourney

With four weekends remaining in the third annual Observer-Merri-Bowl mixed doubles tournament, the tempo is expected to pick up with a record number of entrants making a pitch for the No. 1 spot now held by the Detroit duo of James Stewart and Mildred Sherman.

The Detroiters fired a big 1319 count on the third weekend of the tournament and have been waiting anxiously since to see if any team can better it.

Tournament Manager Mac Goldman anticipates full squads for the remaining eight dates and urges all bowlers planning on entering to make reservations as soon as possible.

"With only four weekends remaining, choice times and dates will be taken rapidly," he pointed out. "We do have some times available for Saturdays and Sundays during the remaining weeks but we also have many bowlers who have indicated they will enter and are waiting for the last minute to see what score they have to beat."

The tournament is scheduled to end with the 10 p.m. squad on Sunday, May 23 after which Goldman and his staff will start the task of checking and rechecking all scores for possible errors before announcing the final prize list.

At the moment, the Stewart-Sherman duo has a grip on first place with a two pin margin

Records Set At Sorrows

Two new varsity records were set by Our Lady of Sorrows last Friday during a double dual meet against Ypsilanti St. John and Ann Arbor St. Thomas.

Jim Brennan threw the shot put 44 feet, 8 inches to eclipse the former school mark of 43 feet, 10 inches made by Jim Marzoni in 1963.

In the half-mile relay, John Allen, Bill Hinbern, Dennis Connolly and Rick Korte combined for a 1:41.1 clocking to smash the record the same foursome had set at 1:42.6 a week before.

Connolly also tied the Sorrows record of 10.7 in the 10-yard dash.

Sorrows was beaten in both meets. St. Johns outscored the Farmington parochial team, 86-23 while St. Thomas came through with a 73-36 conquest.

Pruning Requires Proper Tools

An amateur is known by the tools he uses—or, rather, those he doesn't use.

In few instances is this more apparent than in pruning. An ordinary saw is no tool for cutting off a dead or dying tree

On the lawn WITH LARRY LAWRENCE

"I can spend only $5 on my lawn. How should I spend it?" If someone were to ask that question how would you answer it? Seed? Fertilizer? Weed control?

When you consider how important a lawn is in making a house into a home, five dollars is a pitiful sum. You can't clean a living room rug for that.

Nevertheless I should have no hesitation in urging him—or her—to splurge it all on a long lasting, protein building fertilizer such as Scotts Turf Builder. There are good reasons.

Every study shows that the average lawn is undernourished, if not starving, most of the time. Grass that is kept cut to make a lawn must be fed regularly and fertilizer is always the basic need.

What's more, when you feed a lawn you are encouraging each individual grass plant to grow and multiply and thus thicken the turf. This in turn lessens the need for seed and weed controls.

So my advice would be to spend the whole $5 on fertilizer and to start agitating right away for more money next time around.

New Low Cost Crabgrass Killer Now Available

The lawns . . . and pocket-books of many homeowners will benefit this spring from the discovery of a new crab grass killing chemical called benefin.

Benefin is included in Greenfield Pre-emergence Crab Grass Killer, a new product. Although the homeowner's cost for this new product is less per bag than other brand name crab grass killers, it is guaranteed to control crab grass when applied in accordance with label directions.

Benefin was developed by scientists at the Greenfield Laboratories of Eli Lilly and Company, where it was demonstrated to be 95 to 100 per cent effective in killing crab grass, foxtail, goosegrass and barnyard grass as they sprout from seed.

One application of Greenfield Pre-emergence Crab Grass Killer in March, April or anytime before crab grass germinates leaves a penetrating layer of benefin in the soil that can control crab grass and other grassy weeds for the entire season.

Mortgage Demands

The demand for new-home mortgages insured by the Federal Housing Administration is greater in California than in any other state.

New York leads in the number of FHA property improvement loans.

over the team of Patrick and Joanne Smythe of Warren, who collected a 1317 on the fifth weekend.

A Flint duo of Ray and Dorothy Stewart are entrenched in third place with 1300—only three scores of 1300 or better have been recorded to date.

There were two changes in the standings over the past weekend, finding Leta Seymore and James Owens, of Detroit, landing in fifth place with a 1296 total.

Miss Seymore, a 140-average bowler, had games of 143, 157 and 182 for a 482 count and Owens, who packs a 170 average in his league activities, came through with 202, 210 and 213 for 625.

They picked up 189 pins handicap to give them the 1296, one pin short of the fourth place held by Richard McBride and Mazel Thurman of Flint.

Tom and Mary Ries, of Ferndale, moved into 12th place in the standings with a 1268.

Tom, a 144 average bowler, had counts of 162, 195 and 150 for 507 and his wife chipped in with 154, 180 and 211 for 545. She has a 143 average.

They received 216 pins handicap that boosted their total to the 1268 and the 12th place ranking.

The entry fee for the tournament is $10 per couple and bowlers may enter as many as three times provided they have a different partner in each appearance.

Dates remaining on the schedule are: Saturdays, May 1, 8, 15 and 22 and Sundays, May 2, 9, 16 and 23.

Those desiring additional information may call Goldman or Assistant Tournament Director Doris Malthy at the Merri-Bowl Lanes.

Prune Shrubs Now; Avoid Problems in Future

Does your shrubbery dwarf your home, hide your windows and block your drives and walks? Ornamental shrubs, which should make a home more appealing, can easily turn against the homeowner.

A little annual pruning will help solve these problems. When pruning is neglected for several years it may be necessary to remove the plants or to prune them near ground level and start developing a new shrub from sprout growth.

Annual pruning properly will help in improving health and vigor of plants and in training them to the desired shape, size and density. Dead canes should be removed to encourage growth of new shoots. Thinning and pruning back will aid bud development and lateral growth to develop dense shapely shrubs.

These simple rules for pruning: Spring flowering shrubs should be pruned soon after flowering. This permits a full summer's growth of wood to produce blooms the next season. Plants that bloom in the summer or fall should be pruned in the late fall, winter or early spring.

Don't neglect small evergreens, yews, arbutoviae and junipers. They will grow ragged and unattractive if not trimmed. An over-all light shearing in the spring or early summer will help these plants grow more shapely.

To learn more about shrubs, their care and planting, plan to attend the free Lawn and Garden Fair at the Michigan State Fairgrounds, May 1.

Paneled Doors Will Dress Up Suburbia's Plain Houses

If you find yourself at odds with the plain face of so many of the homes built today, don't despair. There are things you can do to improve the situation, and inexpensively.

For example, consider the importance of doors—the front door, back door, bathroom doors.

If doors are handsome paneled doors, the entire house will profit, inside and out. Often installation of interestingly designed doors is all that's needed to transform a plain-jane house to a Cinderella.

Paneled doors are available in a variety of traditional and contemporary designs in first-class woods like ponderosa pine.

A trip to the local building supply dealer's yard will give you a good idea of the supply and variety of doors that come in standard sizes, ready to hang.

It's Time to Change Rooms

Is there a room in your home or apartment that qualifies as a "housewife's nightmare" or a "decorator's disaster?"

Chances are there may be at least one room that is too narrow, too dark, too low, too high, too small, too bright or too uninteresting for much to be done with it visually.

Yet, says a home furnishings specialist, you can add a lot of interest to just such a room without spending a small fortune. You might do the following:

- Instead of covering only the area of a single small window with a venetian, have a custom aluminum venetian built to cover the entire wall. Artificial lighting behind the venetian can create a variety of interesting blind patterns as you adjust the blinds.
- If your problem is too many windows in a small room, consider using the new continental venetians as window treatments. These have louvers only 1 1/4 inches wide and give the windows a less massive, more airy look.
- Such devices as patterned wallpaper, shoji screens, or a wall full of pegboard or fiberboard mosaics can also create eye-catching attention. Another technique is to group a mass of paintings or prints on one wall rather than distributing them over all four walls.
- In a small room, group furniture in one corner (couch, bookcases, tables etc.) and use a single color of carpeting or linoleum to make the rest of the room seem larger.
- Add interest by using a color or design throughout the room. For example, if you use red stripes or flowers on walls, carry out the same color or motif on couch covers or bedspread.

But often, as the suburban owner prospers, he also succeeds in creating new kinds of noises.

For obvious reasons, home owners seek comparative quiet after a day's work in the city. With the pace at which many of them work, they need to rest in a quieter atmosphere," says a sound-conditioning specialist.

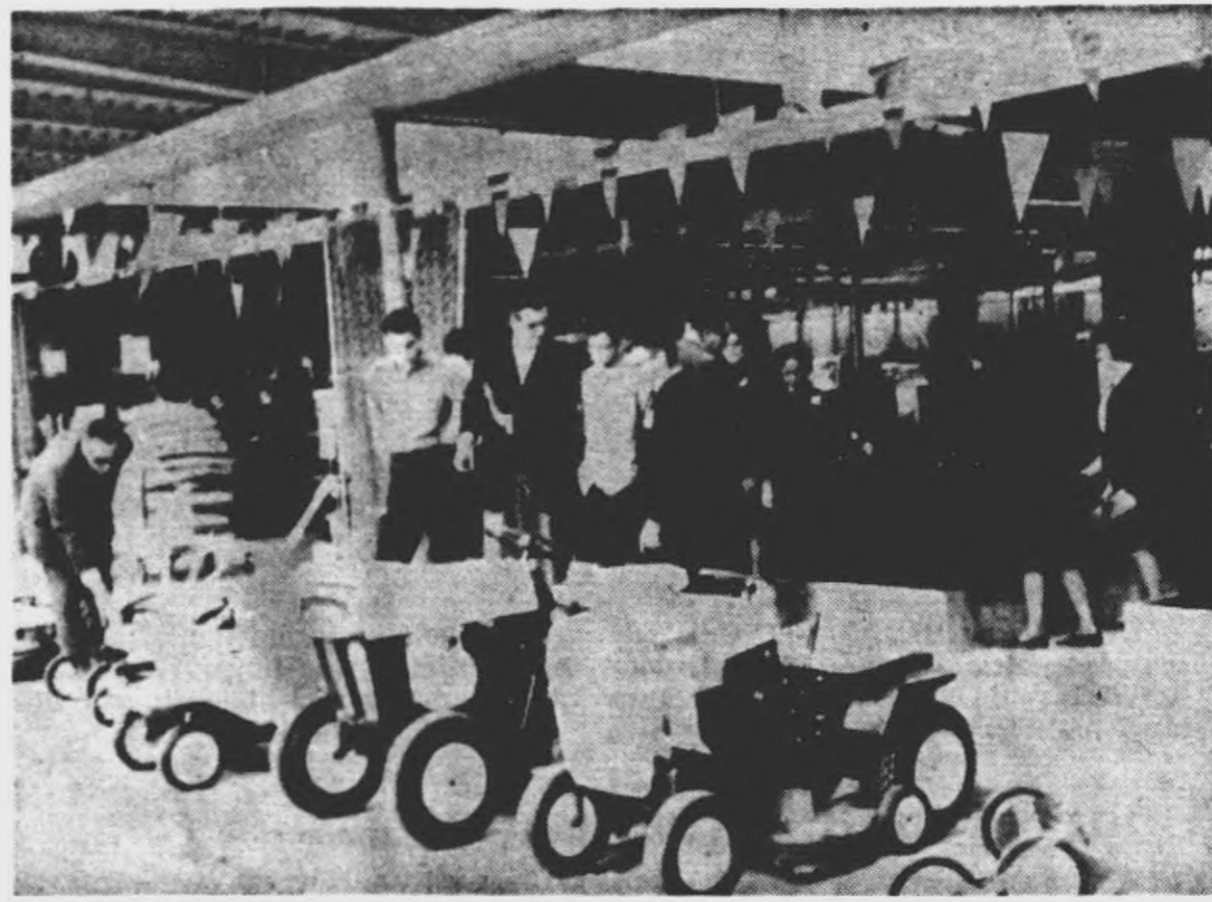

But often, as the suburban owner prospers, he also succeeds in creating new kinds of noises.

For example, his power lawnmower can be heard rattling across suburbia on Saturday afternoons. Power-driven tools in the home workshop, the outboard motor with which he tinkers in the garage and sundry other motors and engines add to a leisure time cacophony.

There are also noises inside the home that shatter hoped-for silence. The whir of an electric dishwasher, the drone of an automatic can opener, a clothes washers' thumping and the hum of a dryer, all result from conveniences designed to make living more pleasant.

THERE ARE TWO things a home owner can do. He can shun everything that makes noises, or he can attempt to control the volume.

Many a home owner has found that while he cannot stop the noises, he can muffle volume by softening sound-reflection surfaces inside a house. Instal-

NO QUESTION but that spring has arrived. This is the scene at the Garden-Patio department of Livonia Sears where buyers sought seeds, moviers, plants and flowers and kept the sales force busy throughout the week end. The same scene was repeated at all garden stores and departments in the area.

'Quiet Atmosphere' Called Chief Virtue of Suburbia

Population shifts of the past 15 years have been toward the suburbs and quiet relaxation, away from urban clutter and clamor.

For obvious reasons, home owners seek comparative quiet after a day's work in the city. With the pace at which many of them work, they need to rest in a quieter atmosphere," says a sound-conditioning specialist.

But often, as the suburban owner prospers, he also succeeds in creating new kinds of noises.

For example, his power lawnmower can be heard rattling across suburbia on Saturday afternoons. Power-driven tools in the home workshop, the outboard motor with which he tinkers in the garage and sundry other motors and engines add to a leisure time cacophony.

There are also noises inside the home that shatter hoped-for silence. The whir of an electric dishwasher, the drone of an automatic can opener, a clothes washers' thumping and the hum of a dryer, all result from conveniences designed to make living more pleasant.

THERE ARE TWO things a home owner can do. He can shun everything that makes noises, or he can attempt to control the volume.

Many a home owner has found that while he cannot stop the noises, he can muffle volume by softening sound-reflection surfaces inside a house. Installation of fiberboard acoustical ceiling tile can reduce 70 per cent of the excess sound striking it.

Many rooms are naturally noisier than others in the average household. The kitchen, for example, is generally the room most housewives want sound-conditioned first. Family recreation rooms, TV rooms and bedrooms generally follow in preference.

Acoustical ceiling tile, produced in a wide variety of decorative patterns, can reduce a room's noise. Other sound-soothing suggestions include:

Use carpeting to silence floor noise. Stair treads covered with carpeting or padding also help. Throw rugs in a child's room will soften many sharp sounds.

Hang draperies in either side of a large picture window. A flat surface, such as the picture window bounces harsh sounds directly back into a room. Draped draperies will help muffle these sounds.

Keep all household appliances lubricated, holding their operating sounds to a minimum. Also make certain all appliances are leveled to eliminate vibration sounds.

Tone telephone and door bells to the lowest level that will not impair their effectiveness.

Install rubber door stops, pneumatic stops on storm and screen doors and install weather stripping on outside doors.

Aluminum Siding Will Nip Termites

Bad news for termites, rodents and other house pests is the growing use of aluminum siding in home remodeling and new home construction.

The metal siding acts as a termite sheath for the entire house from the foundation up to the roof. The siding is that creepie buffer against pests and those that attack the house through the air.

Aluminum siding is most effective as a deterrent when a home is relatively new and before termites have had a chance to embed themselves in wooden members.

While most persons have aluminum siding installed for other reasons—such as elimination of periodic repainting, ease of maintenance or insulation—its anti-termite qualities certainly should be considered for newer homes.

Further information on aluminum siding is available in a new booklet. For a copy, write to Lok-On Booklet, Alcan Aluminum Corporation, 111 W. 50 St., New York, N. Y. 10030.

Injury Benches Pole Vault Ace

A tough blow has beset Marvin Hamel, star Garden City East pole vaulter.

Rated as one of Michigan's top vaulters, Hamel suffered a broken right ankle in practice last week and isn't expected to compete again this season.

The injury came after Hamel had set a new record of 13 feet, two inches, in winning at the Huron Relays and then a victory the following week in the MSU Relays at East Lansing.

Coach Bill Wilson of Garden City East now is hopeful that Jesse Talbot and Dick Dechert can pick up the slack in the pole vault. Both have been doing better than 12 feet in meets this season.

East split in two meets last week. After trimming Lowrey, 88-21, the Garden City team was nipped by a matter of inches when Lutheran West took the final mile relay to gain a 56-53.

Yarie Eide was the big man for East against Lowrey. He won the broad jump and both dashes and also ran on the winning half-mile relay.

Eide came back with victories again in the dashes and broad jump against Lutheran West. In this meet, East's half-mile relay team placed second.

Here's how East thincads placed in the two meets

- East 88, Lowrey 21
- High Jump: 1—Paul Martini, 2—Dick Dechert, 3—Bill Willis. Height: 5 feet, 4 inches.
- Broad Jump: 1—Yarie Eide, 2—Joe Montes, 3—Mike Sparkman. Distance: 19 feet, 10 inches.
- Shot Put: 2—Jerry Fletcher, 3—Tom Berard.
- Pole Vault: 1—Jesse Talbot, 2—Dick Dechert. Height: 10 feet.
- 100-Yard Dash: 1—Eide, 2—Walton Bailey. Time: 10.1 seconds.
- 220-Yard Dash: 1—Eide, 2—Bailey. Time: 22.2 seconds.
- 880-Yard Run: 1—Tom Murto, 2—Dave Stranges. Time: 2:07.
- Mile: 2—Jerry Fletcher, 3—Jerry Lewis. Time: 16.2 seconds.
- Low Hurdles: 1—Martini, 2—Lewis. Time: 22.2 seconds.
- High Hurdles: 1—Garden City (Murto, Stranges, Willis, Dechert). Time: 3:16.5.
- 880-Yard Relay: 1—Garden City (Eide, Bailey, Willis, Lewis). Time: 1:16.5.
- Lutheran West 56, Garden City East 53
- High Jump: 1—Martini, 3—Dechert. Height: 5 feet, 10 inches.
- Pole Vault: 2—Talbot, 3—Dechert.
- Broad Jump: 1—Eide. Distance: 19 feet, 8 inches.
- Shot Put: 2—Paddock, 3—Berard.
- 100-Yard Dash: 1—Eide, 2—Bailey. Time: 10.8 seconds.
- 220-Yard Dash: 1—Eide, 3—Bailey. Time: 21.9 seconds.
- 880-Yard: 1—Murto, 2—Stranges. Time: 2:04.
- Mile: 3—Fletcher.
- Mile Relay: 2—Garden City.
- Half Mile Relay: 2—Garden City.
- High Hurdles: 1—Martini, 3—Lewis. Time: 15.6 seconds.
- Low Hurdles: 2—Martini.

West Loses Third Time In Track

Garden City West's high school track team suffered its third loss in four meets last Thursday in losing to Riversville, 64-44.

The Garden City thincads won five events—mile (Bill Shunk), the pole vault (Charles Sullivan), high jump (Mike Taft), high hurdles (Bob Worthy) and low hurdles (Bill Murphy).

Here's how West entries placed:

POLE VAULT: 1—Charles Sullivan. Height: 11 feet.

HIGH JUMP: 1—Mike Taft, 2—Bill Murphy. Height: 5 feet, 6 inches.

BROAD JUMP: 2—Taft, 3—Murphy.

MILE RELAY: 2—West (Bill Shunk, Sullivan, Taft, Mike Smith).

880-YARD RELAY: 2—West (Jim Hopkins, Murphy, Rich Wolf, Don Shannon).

100-YARD DASH: 2—Shannon.

220-YARD DASH: 2—Shannon.

440-YARD: 3—Wolf.

880-YARD: 2—Smith.

MILE: 1—Shunk. Time: 4:40.8.

HIGH HURDLES: 1—Bob Worthy, 3—Ron Robertson. Time: 18.6 seconds.

LOW HURDLES: 1—Murphy, 2—Worthy.

Camping on Au Sable

The Jr. High Group of the YMCA went on a camping trip on the Au Sable River during the Easter vacation. The trip included canoeing, fishing and helping clear some wooded area.

Tom Workman acted as supervisor assisted by John Burger, Tom Diddelwell, Dave Cosgrove, Dave Tidwell, and Jim Lake. The boys are planning another of this type of trip for May.

They may be blessings in disguise, but often have a hard time proving their identity.

For Kitchen Use

Office Corner Gets Needed Recognition

Hoping to remodel your kitchen? If so, it's a good idea to include a compact office corner to accommodate the "business" of running a home.

Designers recognize that a woman needs to keep all of her work in one place. So, they have developed a series of home office designs to incorporate into remodeled kitchens.

The office units are designed to help you organize and simplify such tasks as paying bills, keeping track of charge accounts and maintaining tax records.

The units are all built with standard kitchen cabinets. Therefore, they are both inexpensive and easy to install — and the finish is that of finest furniture.

One, a desk built into the back of an island base cabinet can serve as a divider between the kitchen and another room. The desk itself includes a base cabinet with drawers and a 1 1/2-inch thick top. A pigeon-hole unit fits under the extended countertop adjoining base unit.

Another is a desk unit built into a kitchen cabinet wall. One side is a 30-inch base cabinet with three drawers. The other side is supported by a planter box. In this case, the pigeon-hole unit extends the entire width of the desk, and above it is a cork bulletin board.

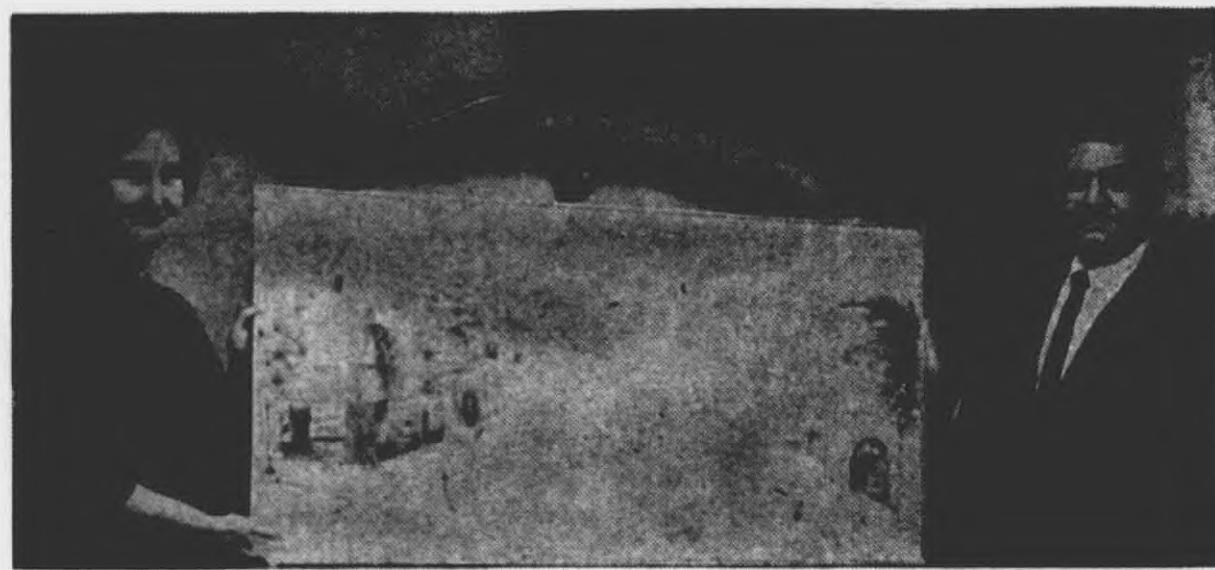

Still another has combined the desk with a kitchen cabinet for storage. The desk base has three drawers, and there are five drawers in the 36-inch kitchen unit. Decorative paneling is used over the desk.

Sponge Dance

A "sponge dance" is scheduled for Senior High students at Redford Township's Thurston High School Friday, April 30, sponsored by the Student Council.

ORIGINAL OIL PAINTING is presented to Mrs. Margaret Abbott, 9602 Cavell, Livonia, by Lou Segal, representing Wonderland Center, as winner of a contest held in conjunction with a recent art exhibit at the huge, 57-store shoppers' complex at Middlebelt and Plymouth Roads in Livonia.

Underground Wires Boost Lot Values

Valuable "View" lots, in the opinion of progressive real estate operators, may be worth 20 per cent more when the view is not cluttered up with criss-crossing overhead utility poles and wires, says the American Association of Nurserymen, which adds that "overhead wires and poles are going underground at an increasingly rapid rate as communities become more conscious of their ugliness and hazard."

Forward-thinking utilities are taking the lead in the movement to place wires underground, the association states. The costs per lot for undergrounding have dropped in the past decade from $1,000 to around $100 as techniques and materials have been improved.

Underground wiring has many advantages. The wires do not fall, nor are they knocked down in storms, while motorists do not run into poles which are close to traffic lanes and are a contributing factor in thousands of motor injuries and fatalities annually.

It is expected that in five years most new utility installations will be underground and heavy inroads will be made on existing overhead wires, thus enabling property owners uncluttered views of the landscape.

Local Realtors Join In Forum

More than 1,000 real estate leaders from Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, Washtenaw, and Wayne counties will converge on Detroit's Cobo Hall on Tuesday, May 25 for the area's second annual Realtor Forum.

Sponsored by the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Real Estate Boards, the forum will provide an eye-popping look at metropolitan Detroit's current economic status and anticipated future growth, according to Gerald J. Lawson, general chairman. Lawson, a vice-president of Hannan Real Estate Exchange, Inc., Detroit, and a resident of Orchard Lake, is a past-president of the Michigan Real Estate Association.

This year's Realtor Forum will constitute the climax to the local observance of Realtor Week, which is being celebrated nationally from May 23 through May 29. Starting with breakfast at 8 a.m. and lasting until shortly before noon, the forum will feature spot reports on real-estate market conditions throughout the five-county area and will include detailed blueprints by nationally known authorities of what metropolitan Detroit is expected to be like in 1975 and 2000, Lawson said.

"This will be the second time in history that real estate brokers and salesmen generally from the entire five-county area have come together in such a gathering," Lawson said. "Our first Realtor Forum, held last year, was a smash success. We confidently expect this year's meeting to be even more productive."

Approximately one out of every ten licensed real-estate brokers in Michigan is a Realtor, dedicated to increasing home-ownership and raising the standards of the real estate profession. Of the 2,100 Realtors in Michigan, 800 live and work in metropolitan Detroit. Eleven Realtor boards within the five-county area make up the Metropolitan Detroit Council of Real Estate Boards. Harold A. Meisinger, Royal Oak Realtor and past-president of the Michigan Real Estate Association, is chairman of the Council.

Members of the forum committee, in addition to Lawson, include Gordon Williamson, president of the Gordon Williamson Co., Detroit, Dearborn, Farmington and Birmingham — speakers; Michael J. Pope, East Detroit Realtor — programs; Fred E. Sheldon, Sales Manager of Berridge and Morrison, Royal Oak Realtors — tickets; Cecil A. Mobley, Wyandotte Realtor — minute man reports; and James B. Grant, president of the H. M. Seldon Co., Detroit — reception.

Pope, Sheldon, and Mobley are past presidents respectively of the Macomb County, North Woodward and Down River boards; Williamson and Grant are past presidents of the Detroit Real Estate Board.

St. Agatha Students Prepare for 'The Sound of Music' Show by Mary Lou Mangold St. Agatha students returned to school Monday, April 26, for seven more weeks of studying. During the holiday, one group reported to school in the morning ready for work—the cast of The Sound of Music. With less than a month until the performance—May 12 and 13—the principals are practicing more often and more intensely.

On Wednesday, April 14, they were visited by Alice Broder, who is assisting in the direction of the play. Miss Broder met the cast and gave each one hints on how to portray the character he is portraying.

Five seniors were notified during the past week that they had been awarded college scholarships. Juliana Brown, Teresa Gillis, and Bob Hughes received scholarships from the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority, Bob Alter from the Michigan Vocational Rehabilitation Society, and Cynthia Meisner from Michigan State University.

The amounts, which range from $150 to $800 are determined by the financial situation of each family.

The Junior Sodality and Young Christian Students sponsored an Easter project last week to help needy families in Detroit's poorer sections. The canned food drive had a different twist this time. It was first announced by Sodality Spiritual Director, Father Varty, at morning Mass.

Clever posters and witty announcements reminded the students to "sacrifice a coke for a can." Each homeroom was informed of the family it was to assist. On Wednesday, donations were collected, and representatives from each class took the baskets to the altar during the Offertory of the Mass, when the bread and wine are also offered.

This was to commemorate a custom of the early Christians, who offered food to be given to the poor. Classroom representatives were: Rick Collins, Phil Davison, Ruth Brown, John Marshall, Patrick Anway, Paul Perko, Dan Hanlon, and Donna Kovarik.

Sodality and Y.C.S. donated money for Easter hams, and also distributed the baskets.

An unexpected, but extremely generous donation was added to the collection. An anonymous person, who heard of the drive through Father Varty's announcement, contributed 500 pairs of shoes to the collection.

BEFORE EASTER vacation started, the yearbook staff completed the 1965 SAGA and sent the book to be printed. The SAGA will be ready for distribution late in May.

The girl's softball team started practice this week. Under the coaching of Mrs. Edward Belletini and her assistants, Mrs. Paul Walker and Ursula Voeckel, the team is trying for a better season than they had the last few years.

The first league game is on April 28, with St. Mary's of Redford, home. On May 6 they play Rosary High School, away; May 16 St. Mary's of Redford, away; May 19 Benedictine, Home; May 26, Rosary, home. Team captain is senior Fran Nadolny; co-captain is Linda Ogle, sophomore.

$3,000 Grant Award To Livonia Director

"She has an outrageous strength for so tiny a woman."

That's how one actress described Mrs. Evelyn MacQueen of Livonia qualities as a director. It might very well be true.

The petite (5'2") Livonian has just received a Horace H. Rackham pre-doctoral grant at the University of Michigan. The grant, one of 30 awarded at U. of M., provides $3,000 plus tuition over the next year for doctoral study.

This year she received the Trueblood Grant and the State of Michigan Scholarship for Graduate Study.

Needless to say Mrs. MacQueen will use the grant to further her work toward a Ph.D. in Theatre.

She is currently on leave from her position as assistant professor of theatre and director of the University of Detroit Repertory Theatre.

A graduate of U. of D. and Wayne State University, she began her studies at U. of M. during the summer of 1964. She hopes to have her work there completed by the summer of 1966.

She joined the U. of D. faculty as an instructor and assistant director of theatre in 1958. In 1962 Mrs. MacQueen was named assistant professor and director of the Repertory Theatre.

Alice Broder, who provided the description of Mrs. MacQueen's qualities as a director, served as assistant director for the U. of D. production of "School for Husbands." This was Mrs. MacQueen's first U. of D. production.

Miss Broder also appeared in "at least five" of the major productions directed by Mrs. MacQueen at the U. of D. Theatre.

She said that Mrs. MacQueen has "perseverance" as a director. If Evelyn knows that an actor is capable of giving a certain kind of performance she goes after it until she gets it. She just won't give up."

Miss Broder said that the director "pushes herself so much that the actors go right along with her."

Some of the shows Mrs. MacQueen has directed at U. of D. include Shakespeare's "King Lear," and "King John." Shaw's "Major Barbara" and "Arms and the Man" and O'Neill's "A Touch of the Poet."

She and her husband, Don, have one daughter, Patricia, 8.

Duplicate Winners
At the weekly duplicate Bridge held at the Plymouth Bridge Club on Friday, April 23, the following were winners:

NORTH-SOUTH 1. E. S. Ther Scheppele & Freda Rutherford; 2. Mary Wiltse & Erna Wiltse; 3. Liz & W. R. Augustine.
EAST-WEST 1. Irene & Jim McCormick; 2. Ruth & John Quinn; 3. Lillian Stern & Judie Horwitz.

Junior Founders Schedule Program

A new and promising program of social and cultural activities of interest to young married and single Detroit-area individuals is offered by the recently organized Junior Council of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts.

Purpose of the Junior Council is to interest Founders Society members, between the ages of 21 and 40, in a variety of activities as a means of increasing enthusiasm and appreciation of the museum's value to the community.

Members currently enrolled in the Junior Council will be invited to an evening program May 7 at the museum. Cocktails and dinner, with Willis F. Woods, museum director, speaking on highlights of The Detroit Institute of Arts will be followed by an art treasure hunt to test guests' knowledge of the museum's collection.

Future programs will include a guided tour of the forthcoming Friends of Modern Art show at the Museum, "40 Key Artists of the Mid-20th Century" (tentatively scheduled for May 20).

Other prospective events are tours of private collections, lectures and seminars by museum staff officers, Founders Society officers and arts commission members for the City of Detroit, a "Family Day," a junior version of the treasure hunt for children of members, and an Art Institute Festival.

History Society Staging Dinner
The Farmington Historical Society will hold its annual year's end dinner on May 19, at the Salem Church. Dinner will consist of chicken with dressing, mashed potatoes, salad, rolls, peach cobbler, and beverage. The cost of admission is $2.25.

Reservations should be made by the Friday preceding the dinner. To do so, call Mrs. Dorothy Bush, at GR 6-2307. Guests should try to be there between 6:15 and 6:30 p.m. Dinner will be served at 6:30. The speaker will be Charles Meyers of the Algonquin Club. He will discuss Indian lore, and how it relates to the Farmington scene. He has spent considerable time with the Indians of Northern Michigan.

In addition to Franklin and Thurston, Birmingham Groves, John Glenn, North Farmington, and Oak Park are included in the Association.

Of the 300 entries in the show at Thurston, 10 individual works were chosen from each school to be part of the traveling exhibit.

Painting, sculpture, modern "pop" art, and photographs were some of the works exhibited.

Each student in the show received a certificate of participation.

May Day Fair Slated
May Day will be marked with a school fair in Livonia from 2 to 6 p.m. at Botsford School, 19515 Lathers.

Games, pony rides and refreshments will be featured and there will be prizes awarded, including an 11-inch portable TV, a two-wheel deluxe bicycle, an electric blanket and a camera.

Persons interested in helping man booths at the fair have been asked to contact Pete Petersson, KE 5-9079.

Wally Roberts GOING UP 'CURTAIN'

The old adage "those than can't teach"—was trampled soundly into oblivion by talented Dave Hirvela, competent director of dramatics, actor, and creative teacher of English. Dave hangs his academic chapeau at Franklin High school. For the nonce he is appearing nightly in the Ann Arbor Civic Players production of a frothy, yet delightful piece of French comic confectionery known as "Shot in the Dark."

Actor Hirvela plays a frustrated lawyer trying to pin a murder rap on the right party. Underneath all the tom-foolery of the evening exists still another important message: does money, social standing in the community rule so heavily against the lower class parlor maid that the verdict will be a ruling of the "Have's vs. the have-not's."

The consummate skill of director Bob McKee never lets the underlying social theme of the play get too serious. Bob moves his people beautifully, makes his climatic points in telling fashion, and seldom misses an opportunity for a piece of business that adds to the general hilarity. McKee has worked as a director in the Toledo area and old Wally hopes that after he receives his Master's Degree in June we will see more of him in the Detroit area. Every member of the "Shot in the Dark" cast deserve accolades for aiming so accurately at the target and hitting dead center.

Michael Bott, though young in years, garnered his share of laughs. Barb Simpson and Manning limned their roles with the ease of professionals. In fact, Barbara Manning came out to the ranks of character actors to give us one of the happiest, zaniest ingenue portrayals of the season. She was a joy to behold and her rendition of the lines made the evening memorable.

Beverly Pooley, normally a Professor of the U of M Law School, seldom leaves his staid ivy-covered halls to prance about on the stage even though in jolly old England he did in fact tread the boards with the Cambridge Players. Six years ago he appeared in "Major Barbara" and stole the show.

Pooley had a more difficult time filching scenes in "Dark" although he did neatly wrap up Act II with his exciting acting of the insatiable millionaire. He leered, grinned, and reacted superbly with a rubbery set of facial gestures that bespoke volumes. However, Dave Hirvela played toe-toe with him and it was the actor's battle of the century. Who's won? Why the audience, of course. When you get two actors vying in this fashion, the play clicks and becomes a living, breathing entity.

Next big project for tireless Dave Hirvela is a Musical Comedy Workshop to be offered through the Livonia Summer school. Dave will be working with Roy Ernest, the creative musical director who did wonders with the students in "Bye, Bye Birdie."

Roy and Dave have informed me regarding the following places and dates which will be important to all interested students of all ages who wish to apply for the Musical Comedy workshop.

The dates and places are as follows: May 5 (Franklin H.S.), May 7 (Bentley), May 10 (Bryant and Whitman Jr. H.S.), May 11 (Riley and Whittier), May 12 (Frost and Emerson), May 13 (Nankin Mills Jr. High). Since these dates are on school days I would rather imagine the audition meetings will be after school at each of the locations.

The workshop will start June 21 and close the first week in August. The lively musical, "The Music Man" will be given as the "graduation" summer production. Fee for this interesting summer school class will be a mere $5.

Let's not forget the Redford Suburban League's annual musical comedy, "Hillzapoppin'." April 30 is the opening date. Old Wally will attend as he has done in other years. Harriet Fernandez's clever dance routines, the songs and general enthusiasm of the performers makes for an enjoyable evening in the theater. Besides all this your donation goes to a worthy cause.

Be sure to put "Hillzapoppin'" on your weekend entertainment list. Incidentally, there is a late 10 p.m. Saturday show for those of you that like a unique late evening attraction.

"In White America" makes a return visit to this area on Sunday, May 2. You will recall that I spoke highly of this group's ability and its message earlier. By all means if your entertainment calendar is not too crowded, try to get down to the Ford Auditorium for this dramatic, provocative event.

THE BILLBOARD
Fisher Theater "BAREFOOT IN THE PARK" A million laughs... and all of them surprisingly clean. A refreshing change. Will be in town through May 8.

Game Theater "THE DEADLY GAME" My assistants indicate this show needs more work. If you'd like to chance it... remember it's a deep, thoughtful piece. Run five more weeks. "IN WHITE AMERICA" Best dramatic offering of the week. The concluding episode will tear your heart out. Provides a good message for all of us even though it has to go a bit over-board at times. Plays one night only on Sunday, May 2. Tickets may be obtained at the Observer offices in Livonia.

Hilberly Classic Theater "TAMING OF THE SHREW" Still providing the Detroit area with some excellent classical repertory. Call 833-3151 for ticket and play information.

Redford Union High School "HILLZ-APOPPIN'" Original musical comedy with your local friends singing, dancing, and having a wonderful time. Opens April 30 for a four performance run. Special Saturday night 10 p.m. pre-midnight "wild" performance.

WSU Players Set Livonia Date
The Wayne State University Players will come to Livonia May 22 to entertain the youngsters with its production of "Jack and the Beanstalk."

Sponsored by the Children's Entertainment Guild, two performances will be staged at 1 and 3 p.m. in the auditorium at Bentley High School. Tickets will be available at the Plymouth Rd. Branch of the Library and the Carl Sandburg Library or from members of the Guild.

Barbara Hills is chairman of the planning committee for the performances with Lillian McCann (GA 2-5227) and Ruby Sieh (GA 2-6869) handling the tickets.

Dianne Marie Wilkie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Wilkie of 14018 Salem, Redford Township, is among the University of Detroit coeds pledging the U. of D. chapter of Theta Phi Alpha, national social sorority.

Miss Wilkie, a freshman history major in the College of Arts and Sciences, was graduated from Rosary High School in 1964. She is also currently serving as President of Theta Phi Alpha's 1964-65 pledge class at the University.

Theta Phi Alpha was founded for the purpose of advancing the interests of college women in religious, social, and educational matters. Membership is open to all coeds who have completed one semester at the U. of D., and who are in good scholastic standing.

Ettinger Appearing On Nationwide TV And In Magazines

Robert C. W. Ettinger, author of the controversial book, "The Prospect of Immortality," is continuing the excitement which this extraordinary book has created. The May issue of Esquire Magazine, to be on sale next week, features "New Hope for the Dead," a do-it-yourself article by Mr. Ettinger. The May issue of Science and Mechanics also presents a discussion of these ideas.

He will also be a guest for the second time on the Mike Douglas Show, Friday, April 30, at 9:00 a.m., on Channel 2.

Interest in practical and commercial facilities is apparently stirring in several parts of the country, and Ettinger will not return to teaching duties at Highland Park College in the fall in order to devote full time to the project.

FROM THE BALLET

Dame Alicia Markova, director of the Metropolitan Opera Co. is a world famed ballerina. She retired as a performer in 1963 after nearly 40 years of acclaim on five continents. The title of Dame was conferred on her two years ago by Queen Elizabeth of England. This is the highest honor to be accorded a woman in the British Isles. Dame Alicia has been called "not only the best living ballet dancer, but probably the greatest who ever lived. She began dancing at eight to correct a foot condition. Dame Alicia has started more ballet companies than any other ballerina, was the first ballerina to be on television, the first prima ballerina of the Royal Ballet, the first English prima ballerina ever, and the first English dancer to star in a full evening ballet. Her interpretations of leading roles in classical and contemporary ballet such as "Giselle," "Swan Lake," and "Sleeping Beauty" encompass every type of ballet characterization.

Suburban League Show Opens Friday at RU High

Odmark to Solo at Franklin High

Ronald Odmark of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra will perform the Corelli oboe concerto with the Franklin High School Symphonic Band this Friday, April 30.

The annual "Spring Concert" will begin at 8:30 p.m. Mr. Odmark has a wide professional background in radio, television, recording and opera in addition to his symphony experience. He is well known for his chamber music activities with the Detroit Arts Woodwind Quintet.

A brass ensemble including Paul Barringer, Nancy Davis, Curtis Nixon, Jim Fisher, Bob Blackwell and Terry Jones will also be featured. The ensemble is one of several Franklin ensembles that received a first division rating at the state festival.

The Symphonic Band and Varsity Band will perform "Roman Carnival Overture" by Berlioz, "Spiritual" by Reed, "Chant and Jubilo" by McBeth and other selections.

"HILLZAPOPPIN" is ready to roll for four performances in three evenings this weekend. Two of the leads, from left, Joan Morrison and Harold Mango, pinpoint a musical number with rehearsal pianist Jeanette Pinch. The original show presented by the Redford Suburban League Theatre Guild features dozens of Redford residents. Proceeds from the show, which will be performed in the Redford Union High School Auditorium, will go to the retarded children programs of the League.

Some like it action-packed, loaded with song and a clever original plot.

These playgoers will find all ingredients in "Hillzapoppin," to be presented at 8 p.m. Friday, 7:30 and 10 p.m. Saturday and at 7 p.m. Sunday in Redford Union high school.

Ace Azar will be a guest star in the musical comedy production by the Redford Suburban League Theatre Guild. Immediately afterward, Ace is Hollywood bound and will be under the supervision of his cousin, Danny Thomas. He is scheduled for appearances on the Joey Bishop, Dick Van Dyke and Thomas shows.

Hollywood bound-also are the script's Hill family from Redford Township when they inherit a movie studio. The trials and tribulations of the gift provide many humorous moments. Al Doherty headed the script committee under Theatre Guild chairman Mrs. Harold Mango. Kingsley Page is guest director, George Bashara, musical director; Harriet Fernandez, choreographer, and Mrs. Jack Pember, program chairman.

Others behind the scenes include Mrs. Robert Holland, tickets; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weber, scenery; Mrs. Harry Monarch, costumes; Mrs. Tony Sansone, choreography costuming; Mrs. Clarence Hugger, properties; Lloyd Dobbett, stage manager and Steve Young, construction. Ray Kolep will handle lights; Mrs. Al Bellatre, traffic; and Mrs. Robert Crawford, make-up.

On stage will be Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Martin, Don Park, Mrs. Tony Sansone, Harold Mango, Mrs. John Furr, Shirley Tomlinson, Karma Sibal, the Doug Sharicks, Robert Andersons, C. F. Gillards, Mrs. William Titus and the Victor Slapiks.

Also featured are John and Lynn Titus, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bart, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mutch, Mrs. George Lanry, the Jim Triolas, Mrs. Warren Coleman, Mrs. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morrison, the Jo Srokas, Mrs. Frank Rouen, Mrs. Clarence Hugger, Mr. and Mrs. James Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kramer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kuhnner, Mrs. Donald Bradley and the Richard Mannings.

Others are Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. Harry Monarch, the Ray Koleps, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Young, James Wollison, Louis Silagy, Mrs. Richard Mosteller, Mrs. Tomas McArthur, James Muir, Gene Simescu, Paul Coffman, John Sheldon, William Wagner, Robert Crawford, Jo Karr, Lloyd Dobbett, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Weber, Mrs. Charles Ladd, Delores Ryan, Shirley Bowman, Mrs. Carl Kegelmann, Mrs. Albert Langer, Dorthes Tata, Roger Lumley and John Kozlowski.

Tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Holland, KE 1-7421 or Mrs. Mango, KE 7-2649.

Proceeds from the performances aid retarded children programs of the League.

U-D Carnival Opens Friday With Duke Ellington

Sights and sounds of the Old West will greet visitors to the Annual University of Detroit Spring Carnival this weekend (April 30, May 1 & 2) on the McNichols Road Campus. The Old West theme will be carried throughout the large COLORFUL AND CONTROVERSIAL violinist David Rubinoff performed before an audience of Roosevelt School youngsters in Livonia last Thursday. Getting some tips on the famed master's instrument are, from left: Don Samhat, 10, 29676 Jacquelyn; Kathy Cornwall, 10, 30064 Bentley; Janice Weeman, 9, 14115 Middlebelt; and Bill Belcher, 9, 14169 Balmbridge. Rubinoff will visit Livonia next Monday. He will be at McKinley and Johnson Schools in the morning and at the Coolidge and Hoover Schools in the afternoon. At 6:15 p.m. he will perform at Bentley High School. Sponsored by the Livonia Rotary, proceeds from the concert will go to the American Field Service. Tickets for the concert may be obtained from any Rotarian.

'Sound of Music' Set at Mercy

The "Sound of Music" is heard in the land this season but nowhere more brightly than in the "live" production at Mercy College of Detroit.

The delightful Rodgers and Hammerstein musical will be presented at 8 p.m. May 6 through 9 in McAuley Auditorium on the campus at W. Outer Drive and Southfield. There will be a matinee at 2 p.m. May 8.

The show is directed by Albert Zolton of Mercy's Speech and Drama department with members of the Scandinavian Symphony under the baton of Marius Fosenkemper. Choreography is by Osvald Lemanis.

Lead roles will be played by Barbara Link, Paula Francis, Robert Blaty and Richard Kordos.

The Mercy Alumnae Association will have a scholarship benefit at the Friday evening performance. Benefit tickets are available in the area through Mary Lottier Nolan, 11347 Sunset Ave., Livonia, 422-5887.

Tickets are available also at Mercy, KE 1-7820 and Grinnell's downtown.

Franklin Water Ballet Slated for May 6-7

Are you ready to see Spring bloom?

On May 6, 7, and 8 the Franklin High School Aquatics will third in the season with their third annual water ballet show at 8 p.m. in Franklin's pool.

Called "Hits from Broadway," the synchronized water ballet will feature solos, duets, trios, 8 quartets and large group numbers swimming to selections from "Goldfinger," "Mary Poppins," "Gypsy," "Sound of Music," "Hawaii," and "Pink Panther."

Each number in the show has its own student director, who is responsible for both the land choreography and the water synchronization. Costumes will be student-designed.

Carolyn Benninger, advisor of the 26 member Aquatics swim club, has directed practices for two months. Pat Johnson, math teacher, is in charge of tickets, and Joyce Ridgway, physical education teacher, is supervisor of lighting. Kathy Dowling, physical education teacher and advisor to G.A.A., will be managing the decorations and providing the ushers for the program.

Tickets will be on sale during the last week of April and the first week of May.

Change in Cast

John Alexander will appear in the role of Kodanda in "The Last Savage," the opening performance of the Metropolitan Opera at Detroit's Masonic Temple May 24. Mr. Alexander will replace Arturo Sergi, originally announced for the role.

Farmingtonite To Tour Europe In Choral Group

David Stidwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Stidwell, of 29663 Longacre, in Farmington, is among 70 high school youths, who are working hard to prepare themselves for the European tour of the 1965 Michigan Youth Chorale.

They expect to visit Ireland, England, Germany, Scandinavia and Holland. They live in the homes of the communities in which they sing.

The man who is found to be big enough to shoulder responsibility will be hunted out.

Midway and its more than 50 games, rides, shows, and other attractions.

The Midway will be erected in the quadrangle just west of the U. of D. Memorial Building and will be open Friday (April 30) from 6 p.m. to 1 a.m., Saturday (May 1) from 1 p.m. to 1 a.m., and Sunday (May 2) from noon to 6 p.m.

Duke Ellington and Dave Brubeck, with their musical organizations, will headline the big Spring Carnival Concert starting at 8:30 p.m. Friday in the Memorial Building.

Redford Township Churches to Kick Off Michigan Week

Michigan Week in Redford Township opens on Sunday, May 16, with the traditional observance of Spiritual Foundations Day.

Reverend Richard Glass reports that plans for the day are moving forward here and in other religious organizations to participate with programs highlighting the part their own denomination and religion of all faiths has played in local and state history and progress.

Glass

Ringing of all church bells at noon has been suggested to herald the opening of Redford Township Michigan Week.

Clergymen have been asked to devote part of all of their sermons to the religious values that have contributed to the building of the community and the state.

In some communities joint services are held with all faiths participating, and in others there are exchanges of choirs, pastors and other church groups.

Churches have been urged to print facts on their own history in their bulletins and to give recognition to church leaders who have contributed to the advancement of the community and state in other fields. Churches are asked to make a special effort to invite newcomers in the community to join in the services.

Reverend Glass has a number of suggestions for church observance. They include: Special sermons, prayers and songs. Giving special attention to the history of individuals who were the church founders. Special social hours honoring pioneers and senior citizens of the church. A pilgrimage to some religious shrine or historic church in the area.

Other projects include Spiritual Foundations Day exhibits in public locations; radio and television programs, inter-faith pro-

Redford Twp., Livonia Students To Probe Anti-Poverty Program

Detroit's Wayne State University School of Social Work includes in its curriculum each year an event that is unique in the field of academic programming. This is the removal of its entire faculty and student body to a camp setting for two days where lectures and discussions are held on each (individually selected topic) which is current and pertinent to the field of social work.

This event, known as the "Student Faculty Institute," is held for the purpose of providing graduate social work students with an extra and valuable learning experience and providing a setting where students and faculty members participate together in discussions and recreational activities.

This year the Student Faculty Institute will be held on April 29 and 30 at Camp Tamarack in Ortonville, Michigan. The topic will center on the problems of the poor and the currently controversial Poverty Program.

Students from this area who will join the off-campus institute include Mrs. Phyllis Santo, Mrs. Joyce Wagner and Morris Odiorne of Redford Township; and Mrs. Marian Hibbard and Mrs. Judith Sheldon of Livonia.

Dr. Carl Marburger, Executive Assistant for Special Projects for the Detroit Board of Education, who is a Redford Township resident, will be one of the participants on a panel.

Msgr. Clement Korn, pastor of Most Holy Trinity Church, who is well known for his work in alleviating the problems of the impoverished in the Inner-City, will be the main speaker. Also, Dr. Charles Lebeau, known for his research concerning welfare recipients, will address the group. In addition, the program includes two panel discussions. Guest panelists taking part in these discussions are persons known for their work in the field of social welfare either as administrators or frontline workers.

SFI began in 1954 and has been an integral part of the two year social work curriculum ever since. This unique type of academic programming may be seen as one aspect of the WSU School of Social Work's "practice orientation" and of its strong emphasis on student participation in areas of concern to the social work profession.

Following the speakers and panel discussions, question-and-answer periods will be held, after which students and faculty will break up into smaller seminar-type groups to discuss the implications of what has been presented. This type of informal intellectual interaction of students and faculty is not only held to be a valid learning experience for members-to-be of the growing social work profession, but also serves to instill in them a capacity for creative thinking and a sense of responsibility for community leadership.

The Second Annual Family Canteen will be held at Pierce Junior High School in South Redford on Friday, April 30. This canteen will be the best ever as a big name, big time disc jockey will be featured—it will be Robin Seymour. Robin will have some of his TV guests with him on the show at Pierce and is looking forward to meeting his South Redford fans.

A local group, "The Uniques" will also perform. For the little ones there will be cartoons and movies and a separate area for them. The adults are not forgotten in the program—there will be a "rest area" for the parents with a snack bar, bake sale, coffee and piped-in Hi-Fi and chance to dance to some of the "melodies."

All profits will go toward the purpose of equipment at Pierce Junior High School. The Family Canteen is open to South Redford residents and their guests and will be held at Pierce Junior High School, 25605 Orangelawn, Friday, April 30th from 7:30 to 10:00 p.m. There will be a donation of 50 cents with pre-schoolers admitted free.

IT'S SPRING AGAIN. "SPRING." I did not think it would ever get here, did you! Spring is an ideal time to inspect homes from attic to cellar, getting rid of all those things that lead to fire, particularly accumulated waste and litter.

Cooperative efforts to give communities a thorough cleaning at least once a year were first undertaken many years ago. One of the first campaigns of record was undertaken 51 years ago by a Cleveland, Ohio, school teacher, Miss Bertha Chapman.

The first campaigns were a day long and devoted to ridding homes and yards of rubbish and waste that had accumulated during the winter months. Later campaigns with the same objectives were spread over a period of a week or longer. In recent years the movement has spread so rapidly that practically every city has a spring campaign, some during the effort in the fall, during Fire Prevention week. Many others make a continuing year-round campaign.

These campaigns do much more than promote Fire Safety. For instance, they help foster community spirit. Streets are cleaned, homes are beautified and repaired, and accumulated waste and rubbish, a major cause of fire, is disposed of.

This can also tie in with "Help Keep Livonia Clean" month which is coming up. This is clean up, paint up, fix-up week. Let's all really take an interest and do the job right.

Area Officials Get Checked For Cancer

Representatives of 17 communities including Redford Township and Livonia forgot differences of opinion and politics last week as, all clad in Johnny coats tied with a single tape at their neck, they met for a complete physical examination in the Cancer Detection Center, 4811 John R., Detroit.

The special Mayors' Night program was in observance of Cancer Control Month, and was sponsored by the Michigan Cancer Foundation, a Torch Drive service in Southeastern Michigan.

In addition to a regular cancer detection examination given daily at the Cancer Center, the mayors received cardiographs for detection of heart disease and serum tests for cholesterol content, services provided by the Michigan Heart Association by a special cooperative gesture toward the Foundation's annual fund drive.

Following the examination, the mayors were welcomed by board and staff members of the Michigan Cancer Foundation for light refreshments in the Cancer Center auditorium. Attending were: Gordon R. Bryant, Mayor of Huntington Woods; Robert W. Page, Mayor of Birmingham; George W. Kuhn, Mayor of Berkeley; Richard Oberschulte, President, Village of Franklin; Vincent J. McAvoy, Mayor of Troy; Wesley E. McAtee, Mayor of Wyom; Harvey W. Moelke, Mayor of Livonia; Clyde R. Evans, Mayor of Luna Pier; Robert E. Teifer, Mayor of Trenton; Charles Shumate, Mayor of Gibraltar and Hal Forbes, representative of Redford Township.

Hearing Set on Law Violation

A hearing has been set today by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission on charges that a local resident violated state liquor regulations.

Albert R. Talbot, 28760 Plymouth Rd., Livonia, was charged by Redford Township Police with delivering alcoholic beverages from an SDM license to a minor and accepting payment from him.

RU Aide Leads Data Conference

Paul Shoemaker, Redford Union Assistant Superintendent of Schools, presided over the first annual conference of the Michigan Association for Educational Data Systems, held this week in Ann Arbor under the co-sponsorship of the University of Michigan Extension Service. Shoemaker is the president of the newly organized association, which brings together data systems personnel from a wide variety of Michigan schools, colleges and universities.

With an ever-increasing list of educational institutions adding data processing to their programs, most area schools are active participants in the conference. Typical section meetings deal with such subjects as: Test Scoring and Analysis, Approaches to Student Scheduling, Business Applications, Pupil Accounting and Student Records, and Alternate Methods of Processing School System Payrolls.

A special tour of the University of Michigan Computing Center is scheduled, under the direction of Clemens Johnson, Associate Professor of Education and Research Associate of the Center.

Cadillac offers the only steering wheel in the industry that both tilts and telescopes for your individual comfort.

And this is only one of many important and exclusive engineering features you can expect to discover in the Standard of the World.

When you drive a Cadillac, you are sure to enjoy an extraordinary margin of engineering leadership. Cadillac performance, for example, is so smooth and quiet that a whisper can be heard at highway limits. Comfort Control, surely the most advanced air conditioning-heating system in any automobile, serves your personal needs with the simple setting of a dial. A triple braking system provides independently operated power brakes front and rear as well as a foot-operated parking brake that can function as a true emergency brake should the need arise. Your authorized Cadillac dealer is the one man to whom you should turn for advice about new or used Cadillacs. He invites you to discover the many reasons why Cadillac, regardless of model or year, is always regarded as the Standard of the World. Accept his invitation to drive the Cadillac car of your choice at your earliest convenience.

Catholics Schedule Fund Drive May 2-17

The twenty-third annual Roman Catholic Archdiocesan of Detroit Development Fund Campaign will be held in every parish in the Archdiocese from May 2 through May 17.

In the past twenty-three years, the Catholic population of the Archdiocese has almost doubled. More than one hundred new parishes and missions have been founded. Sites for these parishes were purchased well in advance, and at tremendous savings, through the ADF.

The need to train more and more young men for the priesthood has been met through the construction of the Cardinal Mooney Latin School at Sacred Heart Seminary for high school students, and through the building of St. John's Theological Seminary at Plymouth for advanced students.

The strengthening of family life through Catholic social services, instruction in their religion for young people who do not attend parochial schools, help for the aging and the chronically ill, assistance for the retarded and the handicapped, succor for the underprivileged and the deprived — all this has been made possible through the ADF.

'Crazy Christ' Is Sermon Topic

"That Crazy Christ" will be the title of the talk scheduled by Robert M. Eddy at the Wednesday night service at the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington.

The service, one in a series of 10, will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the church located at Warner and Thomas.

Refreshments and discussion will follow Mr. Eddy's talk, and all interested persons in the area are invited to attend.

Garden City Church Slates Choir Concert

MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Ill., will present its 68-member choir in a concert on Sunday, May 2, at the First Methodist Church, 6443 Merriam Road in Garden City.

The 1965 Spring Tour is sponsored by The Detroit MacMurray Alumnae Club. The public is invited.

The choir, under the direction of Dr. Henry E. Busche, also will give performances in Lansing and Calumet City, Ill., and in Dearborn and Royal Oak areas.

New Organ At Aldersgate Methodist

Dr. Marilyn Mason, Chairman of the Organ Department at The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, will play a dedicatory organ recital at Aldersgate Methodist Church, Sunday at 4 p.m.

Dr. Mason has been guest Professor at Columbia University, and also at Union Theological Seminary, where she received the Doctor of Sacred Music degree in 1954. She has been heard in recitals throughout North America and Europe, and was the first American woman to play in Westminster Abbey, when she represented the United States at the International Congress of Organists in 1957.

In the summer of 1960 she played four concerts at the Auditorio Nacional in Mexico City, the first woman organist to play in Latin America, and in the fall of 1963 she played in Spain at the International Congress of Organists. Because of her interest in contemporary music, she has commissioned numerous composers to write for the organ and has given many premiere performances.

Newburg Choir Concert May 1

"Spring Fantasy", a variety program, sponsored by the Chancel Choir at Newburg Methodist Church, will be held May 1 at 8 p.m. in the church basement.

Among the many featured acts on the program are talented dancers from the Plymouth School of Dance, under the direction of Mrs. Stamtitz; and many musical selections from the Girls Choir from Bentley High School.

Tickets may be purchased at the door. Proceeds from the show will be used to help in the purchase of a new piano for the Church Sanctuary.

Plymouth Baptist Churches Set Mission School May 2-7

Missionaries from over the world, engage in various types of mission work, will lead Wayne County Southern Baptist Churches in a School of Missions, May 2-7.

Twenty-eight of the forty churches and chapels in the county cooperating with the Greater Detroit Baptist Association and the Baptist State Convention of Michigan will participate in the school.

There will be four circuits in the county, each church in each circuit hearing foreign, home, and state missionaries. Some of the churches will study the grades series of Home Mission study books.

Three churches in the western circuit are located in Plymouth. They are Main Street, 9451 Main Street; Allen Heights, 11095 Haggerty Road, and Canton, 44205 Ford Road.

Foreign Missionaries who will speak in these churches are Rev. and Mrs. Walter Craighead, veteran missionaries to Roumania and Paraguay. They have worked with both the Slavic speaking as well as with the Roumanian and the Spanish speaking. Mrs. Craighead is a native of Albion, Michigan.

Home missionaries who will serve in these churches are Miss Merna Jean Hocum of New Orleans, Mrs. D. E. Strahan of Oklahoma, and Rev. John A. Cooper of Indiana.

Miss Hocum ministers in the Sellers Baptist Home and Adoption Center, the largest special ministry to unwed mothers in the Southern Baptist Convention. Mrs. Strahan works with her husband in a ministry among the Chiloco and Ponca Indians of Oklahoma. Rev. John Cooper is missionary to the deaf for the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The state missionaries serving in these churches will be Eugene Bragg of Livonia and Eldon Hale of Ishpeming. Rev. Bragg is the State Language Groups Missionary, directing the work in Michigan with the deaf, migrants and as well as the language groups. Rev. Hale directs the new Southern Baptist work in the Upper Peninsula serving as the area superintendent of missions.

Everyone is invited to come hear these missionaries as they speak in these Baptist churches of Plymouth.

Services will begin at 7 p.m. at the Main Street Baptist Church. Canton will start its services at 7:30 p.m.

Observer Classified Ads Mean Easier, Happier Living For You And The Family You Love

Now, if that seems like a pretty big order for some pretty small ads . . . just read on, and discover how amazingly easy it is to get your hands on the extra cash that means you'll have more of the things — and do more of the things that make day to day living a lot more fun.

Here's all you do . . . Just decide never to keep worthwhile things around your home one day after you discover they're no longer used or needed by your family. SELL THEM, while they still have maximum value, through fast-action Observer Classified Ads. It's the smart, profitable formula thousands of wise families put to work for them every day.

Why not take a look through your place today. Make a list of the things you find. Right now folks are looking for porch and yard furniture, outdoor play equipment, air conditioners, cameras, garden tools and much more. And, of course, things like furniture, appliances, musical instruments, rugs, drapes, children's outgrown furniture, clothing and toys are always in demand.

When you have your list, just dial GA 2-0900 for a friendly, helpful Ad-Visor. That's all there is to it!

So, don't wait. Put money-making Observer Classified Ads to work for you right away and prove to yourself that they truly do mean easier, happier living for you and the family you love.

HERE'S HOW CHRYSLER'S ENGINE AND DRIVE TRAIN WARRANTY CONTINUES TO PROTECT YOU. Chrysler Corporation warrants all of the following vital parts of this car for 50,000 miles or five years after delivery to the original purchaser, whichever comes first; during which time any such parts that prove defective in material and workmanship will be replaced or repaired at a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer's place of business without charge for such parts or labor: engine block, head and internal parts, transmission case and internal parts (excepting manual clutch, torque converter, drive shaft, universal joints, rear axle and differential, and rear wheel bearings). REQUIRED MAINTENANCE: The following maintenance services are required under the warranty — change engine oil every 3 months or 4,000 miles whichever comes first; replace oil filter every second oil change; clean carburetor air filter every 6 months and replace it every 2 years; and every 6 months furnish evidence of this required service to a Chrysler Motors Corporation Authorized Dealer and request him to certify receipt of such evidence and your car's mileage.

One of the best reasons for buying these shoes— is something you don't talk about.

That something is the price.

You pay a mere $5.99 for the black patents with side detailing, $6.99 for the one with the floating bow. At these prices, you don't expect the new rounded toe. But Thom McAn gives it to you.

Or the kind of black patent that won't spot or peel. But Thom McAn gives you that, too. So keep mum and nobody will ever guess how little you actually paid.

What's that? You love to tell people when you get a bargain? In that case, go ahead and tell. (You'll be doing us a favor.)

But most people won't believe you.
