

Four Seek School Board Post

See Light Vote in Monday Election

Plymouth electors will go to the polls Monday to select one member for the Plymouth Community School District Board of Education, one at-large Trustee and a Plymouth representative on the Schoolcraft College

Board but from all indications the total vote will probably not hit more than 12 per cent. That was the prediction of those close to the situation who feel there is a decided lack of interest in the election even though it could be one of the most important in several years. With school problems mounting in the Plymouth Community due to the population outburst, the next four years could be the most trying ever, especially as far as finances are concerned. But even with that outlook, there has been little interest shown and meetings for the candidates have been few and far between. Harold Fischer, longtime member and the only president of the Schoolcraft College Board, is assured of reelection to a six-year term since he has no opposition.

But the same isn't true for Incumbent Sam Hudson, finishing an appointment to an unexpired term, who faces a stiff battle from Livonian Mrs. Rosina Raymond for the at-large post with a six-year term. (Details of this race on Page 3.) There are four candidates for the lone vacancy on the School Board with incumbent Robert Utter as the choice to succeed himself to the four-year term.

Utter, vice president of the Board for the past three years, is ending his first four-year term, and indicated he would return because the "next four years offers a real challenge and I want to be around to help solve the problems."

He is opposed by Mrs. Dorothy Jean Smith, of 1158 S. Main, who ran a year ago and finished behind Mrs. Esther Hulsing and Gerald Fischer when they were reelected; Roger Smithling, 42478 Schoolcraft, a former teacher at Plymouth High, and Robert Jenkins, of 525 S. Sheldon Road, who served part of one unexpired term on the Livonia Board of Education prior to moving to Plymouth.

Following is information on each of the candidates.

Robert Jenkins

Robert Jenkins, of 525 S. Sheldon Road, has been a resident of Plymouth since moving here from Livonia, where he served as a member of the school board, filling an unexpired term.

Jenkins is director of Management Personnel Training for the Ford Motor Co. in the Lincoln-Mercury building and a professor of Management in the evening school at Henry Ford Community College.

He received a Bachelor's degree from Denison University in 1948, a Master's from Ohio State in 1948 and a Doctorate from Ohio State in 1951. He was a teaching assistant at Ohio State in the Economics Department for three years, assistant Director of Research for the Ohio State Tax and Revenue Study Commission for a year and assistant director of Research for the Ohio Education Association before joining Ford in 1952.

Jenkins spent three years in the Air Force as a Commissioned Officer during World War II.

He and his wife, Peggy, are the parents of four girls: twins, Debby and Cilla, who attend Plymouth High; Robin, a seventh grader at Junior High (Continued on Page 17A)

Warn Dog Owners Keep Pets at Home

Dog owners in Plymouth Township Monday were warned by Clerk C. Veach Sparks to keep their pets at home or under a leash when out for a walk.

"We have had numerous complaints about dogs running loose," said Sparks. "They are tearing up yards, doing damage to lawns and in many instances have been turned out loose at night and allowed to prowl until morning."

Sparks urged all dogowners to follow the rules of the Township Ordinance which provides that dogs must be confined to yards and be on leash when taken for walks.

"If the complaints continue, we will have to turn them over to the dog warden," said Sparks. "And that will involve additional costs to the owners. If all follow the ordinance, we won't have any complaints or trouble."

Tim Graves Receives Commission, Degree At Air Force Academy

Timothy J. Graves of Plymouth, was commissioned an Air Force second lieutenant and received his bachelor of science degree at graduation ceremonies at the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Lt. Graves, son of Mrs. Jo A. Graves, Sr., of 346 Auburn, Plymouth, will be assigned to Reese AFB, Tex., for pilot training.

A graduate of Plymouth High School, he received special recognition at the academy for his academic and military achievement by being named to the superintendent's merit list four times.

Approves Maple Street Paving

Council Names Ken Way Finance Officer

It took one of the longest meetings of the year but the Plymouth City Commission finally settled down from long-winded talks to action Monday and took two important actions that may bring reverberations in future meetings.

It has long been known that the Commission has been toying with the idea of appointing either an accountant or a finance director to ease the work load of City Clerk Richard Shafer.

They took the action in surprising fashion when City Treasurer Kenneth Way was appointed to the new classification of Finance Officer with complete control over the operations of the City Treasurer's and City Clerk's office.

The appointment becomes effective at once and Way stepped into his new role Tuesday.

The action came after a recommendation from Acting City Manager Kenneth Fisher, who was following the orders of the Commission from previous committee-of-the-whole gatherings.

Way will have charge of all the financial and accounting operations of the two departments and Shafer will continue with his multiple duties as clerk, head of the election board, secretary of the Housing Authority and the numerous other posts he holds as City Clerk.

Then in a second surprising move, the Commission approved paving of Maple Street from S. Harvey to McKinley despite receiving petitions from many property owners on Maple Street opposing the project.

Commissioner Arch Vallier argued long and loud against the action but his words went for naught when the Commissioners voted 6-1 in favor of the paving.

The Council also approved the taking of bids for street improvements and set a hearing on the special assessment rolls for June 21 at 8 p.m. in the Council chambers as part of the regular meeting.

Approved for bids were the following street improvements:

- W. Ann Arbor Trail, Hamilton to S. Main, bituminous recap.
- Penniman Ave., Sheldon Road to S. Harvey, bituminous recap.
- Forest Ave., Wing Street to Ann Arbor Trail, bituminous recap.
- Church Street, Penniman

Ave. to S. Main, bituminous recap.
Farmer Street, Starkweather to C&O Railroad, bituminous recap.

Wing Street, S. Main to S. Harvey, bituminous recap.

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER
In search of truth and a commitment to tell it as part of my job, there are times when this business is lonesome and sad. As the eyes of the community week after week, it is important to take a stand, inform the public, and reveal some of the inside-inside. In an effort to do this last week I criticized State Representative Jim Tierney (D), of Garden City, who represents Plymouth, for approving a pay raise of $5,000 annually for legislators. I carefully checked the roll call vote of those who voted against the pay raise and since Representative Tierney's name was not present assumed he voted for it. He was at the bedside of his wife who was ill; he was absent and did not cast a vote. In fact, Representative Tierney stated to his fellow legislators in Lansing when he did return, he was not in favor of this pay raise at all. The main criticism from The Observer was in the legislators blithely approving this increase without first fulfilling their obligation of improving Michigan's tax income picture.

In Plymouth next Monday, June 14 there are 10,000 citizens eligible to vote. At the last school election only 895 voted. A very poor showing for so important a post as school board member.

To maintain the high level of education that Plymouth has established we would urge the support of incumbent Robert Utter, running for his second term.

Although there are other qualified candidates in the race for this one vacant seat, to return a qualified incumbent to his post, is practical.

School business is so complex that a member really hits his stride of efficiency during his second term of office. It will benefit the district economically to have this more experienced school board member elected.

Harold Fischer is running unopposed as incumbent for Schoolcraft Community College Board representing Plymouth. He is an able candidate and has proved an effective board member.

It is not a healthy idea, however, for a community not to produce more than one candidate for any office. There is experience to be gleaned by being a candidate and certainly it is educational.

It is hoped in future elections other citizens will be willing to share in the responsibility of representing their community on this important board.

For the Community College district-at-large candidacy there are two able candidates, Sam Hudson from Plymouth, an intelligent businessman, well respected and active in this community and Rosina Raymond from Livonia who has always been dedicated to the community college idea from its inception.

Remember get to the polls and vote MONDAY, JUNE 14 and vote for the candidate of YOUR choice—but remember our choice is based on a year around observation, not just a few campaign promises and speeches.

Workshop Backers Ask Aid from Community

A plea for financial backing for the proposed Community Opportunity Center, a retarded sheltered workshop, was made to members of the Plymouth Businessmen's Forum by Robert Clogg in the monthly meeting at the Hillside Inn.

Clogg, of Livonia, who is head of the group sponsoring the workshop for young adult retarded, pointed out that a workshop, such as his group proposes, is really a business and a place where one can work for a living.

The Center has the attention of residents from Livonia, Plymouth and Northville. The sponsors have been meeting for the past several months and have the backing of the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce in the project.

"We need a workshop, such as the one now in operation in Wayne," said Clogg. "An operation under controlled conditions with an understanding director.

"We have 181,000 residents in the area and excellent school systems, but there are many who need help before they can go out in the world and hold down a job. It is these that we hope to be able to reach and turn them into persons who can partially or wholly make their own way.

"We know there are many who can't properly adjust but

NAMED assistant principal at Junior High East is Ray Borzi, who has served as a teacher and counselor at both junior highs for the past four years. His appointment was announced Monday by Supt. Russell Isbister. Borzi is a graduate of Michigan State and received his master's degree from Eastern Michigan University. He had years of experience in industry before entering teaching profession, serving with Timken Axle, Fabricon and Ward Baking Co. in personnel work. Borzi will assume his new duties in the fall.

Thomas Tops Plymouth Symphony

James Thomas, district manager for Consumers Power, is the new president of the Plymouth Symphony Society which already is making plans for the 20th season starting in October.

Thomas was elected at the final meeting of the Symphony Board at the home of David Wood.

Other officers are: Vice President Robert Siscock, Secretary Mrs. Walter Beglinger and Treasurer David Wood. New board members are: Mrs. Beglinger, Mrs. Roger Zerby and William Birge.

Thomas will fill two vacancies on the Board in the near future. Conductor Wayne Dunlap announced that next year's program will include six free concerts with the first tentatively slated for Saturday, Oct. 16.

Dunlap also announced that a special committee will be appointed to help celebrate the 20th season.

DEADLINE IS JUNE 15

Girls!! Jaycees Need 12 Beauty Queen Entrants

With the deadline for entries only a week away — Tuesday, June 15 — Staton Lorenz, chairman of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Miss Plymouth pageant, Monday indicated there are still 12 vacancies in the desired list of 20 candidates for the 1965 Miss Plymouth crown.

The successor to 1964 Queen Krisan Fluckey will be among the 20 nominees and she will fare much better than her predecessor. Among other things, the Jaycees have put up a $400 scholarship among the list of prizes.

In addition, Miss Plymouth of 1965 automatically qualifies for the annual Miss Michigan Pageant, generally held in Muskegon in late July.

Miss Fluckey is one of the entrants this year — first from Plymouth in years—and the Jaycees are backing her to the hilt in an effort to boost her into the Miss Michigan throne. Lorenz, who is doing everything possible to make the 1965 Miss Plymouth Pageant the best ever, believes there are many more than 12 beauties in the community available for the contest.

That's why he urges all girls interested to file their entries with him at his office in the Mayflower Hotel.

"We purposely limited the field to 20 entrants," he said. "It makes the judging easier and we believe there are 20 or more girls in the community who should compete for the beauty crown. We hope we have the complete 20 by the end of the week and then we'll stack up our queen against any from the entire state."

Girls aspiring to the title of Miss Plymouth must meet the following requirements, which differ from past years in that each candidate must be a resident of Plymouth for six months

Baccalaureate Service Opens Senior Week Activities at PHS

The biggest week of the year, and just about the biggest of their lives to this time, opens Sunday for the 414 members of the 1965 graduating class of Plymouth High School when the traditional baccalaureate service will be held in the school gym at 8 p.m.

Chandler, Mary Arnold, Ed Wendover, Pat Hart, John Shin, Arlene Schelling, William Way and Girls State Chairman Mrs. Gilbert Williams. The delegates will attend the 10-day conventions later in the month with the girls meeting in Ann Arbor and the Boys in East Lansing on the campuses of the University of Michigan and Michigan State University.

The commencement is slated for Thursday night at 8 p.m. on the football field, if weather permits, or in the school gym, if the weather is unfavorable. The exercises will be followed by an all-night party for seniors and their dates at the Ann Arbor Y.M.C.A. beginning at 10 p.m., sponsored by the Plymouth "Y" parents.

Rev. Ned Castner, of the First Presbyterian Church, will deliver the sermon.

The baccalaureate service will open with a prelude by Fred Nelson followed by the processional march "Pomp and Circumstance." The invocation will be given by Rev. John Walaskay of the Plymouth Assembly of God Church.

The benediction will be led by Rev. John Miller, former pastor of the Epiphany Lutheran Church who left that pulpit to accept a pastorate as a camp director and chaplain. It will be his final service in Plymouth before accepting his new assignment.

Marshall Pease, vice president of Detroit Edison, will be the principal speaker for the commencement.

The program will open with the traditional processional march in which members of the class will parade to seats while the Plymouth High band, under the direction of James Griffith, plays the "processional march."

Rev. Peter Beckwith, of St. John's Episcopal Church, will give the invocation.

FREDERICK DAVIDS

Plymouth's Fred Davids Heads State Police

It's now official. Frederick Davids, better known to Plymouth Township residents as Captain Davids, is the new head of the 1,500-man Michigan State Police force.

Davids, who has been a regular attendant at Plymouth Township Board meetings for the past 10 years during which time he and his wife, Kathleen, have been fighting air pollution from the Evans Products and Burroughs plants, was appointed Commissioner of the State Police last week by Governor George Romney.

The appointment came as a surprise to none, since it was rumored from the moment Commissioner Joseph Childs announced his retirement, that Davids was one of the top candidates for the post.

It was this promotion that kept Davids from entering the picture as a candidate for the Plymouth Township Supervisor's vacancy after the death of Roy Lindsay in February.

Some members of the Board of Trustees thought Davids would make a likely successor for that post or for the Clerk's position in case Township Clerk

John McEwen was elevated, as anticipated, to the Supervisor's chair.

However, Davids let it be known that he wasn't anticipating any moves until after Gov. Romney had filled

Childs' shoes. When the appointment was delayed longer than anticipated, the Township Board acted and named McEwen supervisor and turned the clerk's duties over to Trustee C. Veach Sparks.

Davids will take over his new duties as soon as he is confirmed by the State Senate.

But he already has the gold badge that goes with the job. It was turned over to him by Gov. Romney at the time of the appointment and retiring commissioner Childs immediately congratulated his successor.

Davids and Childs have been friends since 1937-8 when they were troopers at the East Lansing post and patrolled together in the same car. The appointment was made by Romney after interviewing commanders of all eight Michigan State Police districts, most of whom reportedly recommended Davids.

Davids was born at Hope in Midland County, Feb. 5, 1914, one of eight children of a rural mailman.

He worked as a lineman for a 200-subscriber telephone system owned by his family and later as a gas station attendant. The latter job paid 200 per cent more than the $60 a month he got as a trooper when he started with the State Police.

His salary as commissioner will be $20,000 annually. Davids does not smoke and accepts a drink reluctantly, usually setting it down half full at the end of the evening.

Except, that is, for one period from 1951 to 1954 when as the first head of the State Police rackets squad, he often grew a beard and rubbed elbows with hoodlums and narcotic addicts.

This established him as a versatile sleuth. Later, he won recognition as an administrator, receiving many tributes from suburban police officials for aiding them in behind-the-scenes operation.

Davids indicated he has no plans for any drastic changes in the State Police operation.

"We have built and kept a reputation for efficient, courteous service to the public and my only goal is to maintain it, not improve it," he said.

Sam Hudson vs. Mrs. Raymond

Two Seek At-Large College Board Post

It will be Plymouth versus Livonia in the race for the at-large vacancy on the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees in Monday's election, the only campaign that involves all five communities in the college district.

Sam Hudson, of 44951 N. Territorial Road, Plymouth, is the incumbent, filling the unexpired term of Charles Kirkpatrick, who resigned when he moved out of the college district.

He will be opposed by Mrs. Rosina Raymond, 15906 Oak Drive, Livonia, who is making her first bid for a post on the college board.

Hudson is advertising and public relations director for the Plymouth plant of Evans Products Co.

Mrs. Raymond is a secondary school teacher in the Livonia School system and a homemaker.

Both Hudson and Mrs. Raymond have been workers on the college since the early days when residents of the various communities banded in a joint effort to get the project across.

Each has been active since in all college activities and it was this interest that brought Hudson the appointment to fill the unexpired term little more than a year ago.

Following are the qualifications of each from a questionnaire sent out by the Livonia League of Women Voters.

ROSINA RAYMOND, 53; 15906 Oak Drive; homemaker and secondary teacher, Livonia Public Schools; B.A., Wayne State Univ.; working on M.A., Wayne State; formerly adult education teacher; employed in Aluminum and Paper Industry; past P.T.A. secretary and president; Citizenship Committee.

Livonia Education Assoc.; member, Womens' International League and Wayne State Alumni Assoc.; training and experience has been both academic and practical.

I will take the Masters in Teaching College Speech at Wayne State U. in Sept. '65. Have also conducted extensive research in field of television in education. This knowledge should be an aid in development of Michigan Education Broadcasting Assoc., of which Schoolcraft College is a major part.

I have attained a thorough understanding of the financial structure and problems of the college, as well as its academic goals, through participation in Schoolcraft's development since its inception, including work with original Citizens Education and Action Committee, Speakers Bureau, and co-chairman of Citizens Committee for the College Millage.

1. Two-year transfer programs, associate degree programs, and one and two-year technical programs are expected to be included in curricula. In addition, Schoolcraft should provide day and evening vocational and cultural courses for job retraining and advancement or enrichment — all leading to fuller economic and cultural lives for interested persons.

2. I offer my experience in industry, and as an educator, which made me aware of economic and cultural needs of youth and adults; also extensive research into use of television as a teaching media, continuous interest in the college, and knowledge of the bonding, millage and grant structure.

Member of Board of Directors, Junior Achievement; member of committee for Establishment of Materials Management Center, Wayne State Univ. Member of Schoolcraft Community College Board of Trustees since Oct. '64; member of original Citizens' Committee to establish Schoolcraft Community College. Continuing education right up to present time has kept me in touch with problems of college instruction; knowledge of public needs and desires obtained in public relations work, and in many civic activities.

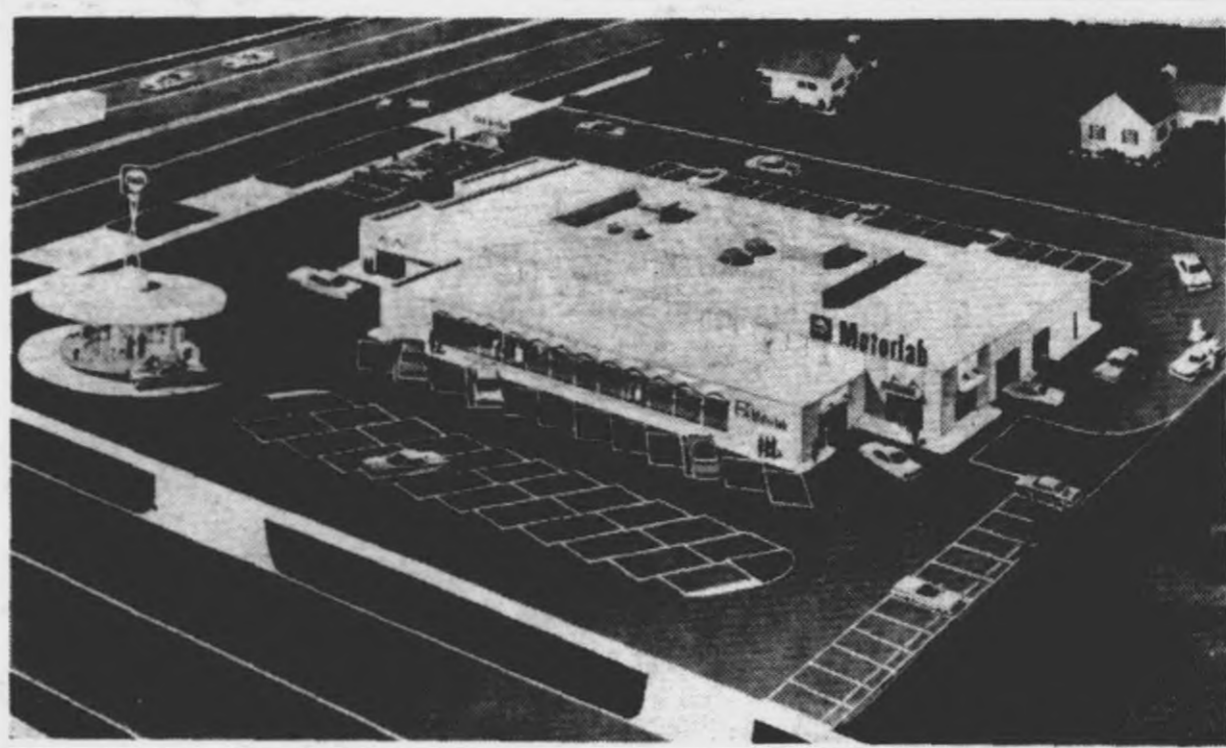

1. Continue to make higher education available to all interested and capable of doing the work. Continue two-year concept, technical instruction, evening classes. Continue to make education available to those who cannot afford to attend 4-year college. Continue transfer programs for those who desire to go on to a 4-year college.

2. The way I have been contributing since appointed to Board, Oct. '64: By making available my professional skills obtained in 30 years in industry managing large budgets, and in communications. I support completion of building plan, encourage growth of the college, assist effort to get accreditation by North Central Association.

THE ARCHITECT'S DRAWING of the first Shell Motorlab, which is opening in Redford Township, shows the diagnostic lane in the front part of the main building, behind which are the lounge, consultation booths and merchandise concourse. The car wash entrance is near the center of the building. At the rear are the service and repair bays and the quality control bay. The main gasoline sales unit, with its unusual circular structure easily accessible from both streets, stands alone to the left.

UNIQUE ONE-STOP CENTER

New Shell Motorlab Opens At Redford Township Site

The first Shell Motorlab in the nation, a unique one-stop automotive service center, is opening in Redford Township, at the corner of Joy and Beech-Daly Roads.

By combining scientifically developed diagnostic procedures, specially trained personnel and the latest electrical equipment, the Motorlab enables motorists to take care of all of the needs for their cars at a fair price with unequalled reliability and convenience.

The Motorlab will be under the management of Walter Skoglund, who has been with Shell for 20 years, assisted by Service Manager George Bente, with 30 years experience, Merchandise Manager Robert Tomlinson, with 12 and a half years in that field; and Auto Wash Manager James Kelly, who has handled auto washes and been in retail sales for the past 14 years.

The Motorlab is the only automotive service center combining in one place a production-line type of diagnostic lane in which cars are scientifically tested and analyzed from bumper to bumper, repair and service bays, a quality control bay, an automatic car wash, consultation booths, customer lounge, a shopping mall selling accessories and gasoline sales units.

Shell put two years of research and planning into developing this concept of an automotive service center. It expects this to be the prototype of many Motorlabs across the land.

Research and the application of the scientific method of the laboratory are continuing essential parts of the Motorlab operation. A duplicate diagnostic bay has been built adjoining Shell's Research Laboratories at Wood River, Ill.

These research engineers and technicians develop improved procedures and conduct special training programs for Motorlab personnel.

Costing over $750,000 and employing over 70 persons, the Shell Motorlab occupies a two acre site on the corner of Joy and Beech-Daly roads in Redford Township.

Shell has designed the Motorlab to have special appeal for women since they are often responsible for having service and repair work done on the family car.

The layout is bright, clean and comfortable. While waiting for their cars customers may browse in the well-stocked shopping mall or relax in a pleasant lounge area. Or they may watch diagnostic lane and car-wash operations through observation windows. The diagnosticians give a complete explanation of the test results in the private consultation booths.

Shell dealers within an approximate five-mile radius of the site act as pickup and delivery stations for Motorlab, receiving a commission on all work referred to the Motorlab.

Backing up its reliability claim the Shell Motorlab gives a written guarantee on all its service and repair work performed on the basis of diagnostic lane tests and recommendations.

The 130-foot long diagnostic lane is the heart of the Shell Motorlab. It contains over $50,000 worth of dynamometers, oscilloscopes and other special equipment for testing engines, electrical systems, wheel alignment, brakes, transmissions, and drive-lines. Each vehicle moves through five test positions, undergoing over 120 tests and inspections.

The whole procedure takes some 50 minutes and gives the diagnosticians more information about the car and its condition than anyone has ever known before.

Then the diagnostician who actually conducted the tests gives the customer a complete evaluation of his findings. Malfunctions are explained in detail. Satisfactory performances are also pointed out. Even future trouble can be spotted, and the customer is alerted.

The diagnostician also makes recommendations, with cost and time commitments, for the indicated repairs. The customer has the choice of having repairs done on the spot, at competitive prices and with a written guarantee, or of taking the work elsewhere, knowing just what needs to be done.

A motorist who wants a specific thing done may go directly to the service and repair bays.

College OKs Pacts for New Center

Contracts for the new $756,751 Campus Center building on the Schoolcraft College campus were awarded in last week's meeting of the Board of Trustees with the general contract going to the J. V. Moriarty Co., on its low bid of $413,500.

The mechanical contract went to Benjamin Muskovitz Contracting Co. for $243,951 and the electrical contract to the Jones-Sherman Electrical Contracting Co. for $99,300.

Business Manager Kenneth Linder reported seven bids for the general contract, eight for the mechanical and five for the electrical.

The Board approved the low offerings in each case, pending review by the Architectural firm of Eberle M. Smith, Associates, Inc.

The building is to be completed 315 days from the time of filing a letter of intent with the Trustees planning to have it ready for use by September, 1966.

The building will include study areas, bookstore, radio and television studios, publications office and food facilities.

Bids for the new Vocational Technical building will be opened June 17. The technical center will be erected at an approximate cost of $900,000 and is being designed by Livonia Architects Ralls-Hamill-Becker.

Redford Police Nab Livonian - Drunk Driving

GM Conducts Daily Tours At Tech Center

General Motors will conduct daily guided tours of its Technical Center in Michigan, beginning June 6, and continuing through September 6. A major tourist attraction, the Tech Center—just north of Detroit—was visited last summer by more than 7,000 persons from 49 states and 51 foreign countries.

Located in suburban Warren, 14 miles from downtown Detroit, the Technical Center has been described as one of the modern wonders of American architecture. Its clean-lined buildings, in a campus-like setting, house the General Motors Engineering, Research, Styling and Manufacturing Development Staffs.

Dedicated in 1956, the Tech Center comprises 28 buildings ranged on three sides of a man-made lake. The tour of the grounds, which requires approximately 30 minutes, includes explanations of the purpose of each of the principal buildings and descriptions of the activities being conducted in them.

Visitors are asked to register at the Technical Center's main entrance on Mound Road, just north of 12-Mile Road. They will then take air-conditioned station wagons on a tour of the 330-acre Center accompanied by specially trained guides.

There is no charge for the tours which will be conducted from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday, and from 12 noon to 6 p.m. on Sundays.

Betsy Belle Stowe Weds John L. Eadie

Betsy Belle Stowe was married June 6 to John Ladd Eadie. The bride's father, the Rev. Clayton H. Stowe, performed the double ring ceremony at the Addison (Michigan) United Congregational Church.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Clayton H. Stowe of Addison, while the bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Eadie of Livonia.

The new Mrs. Eadie wore a floor length dress of white silk organza over taffeta with a cathedral train. The bodice was trimmed with Venice lace and had a Peter Pan collar and elbow length sleeves. A hand woven mantilla covered the bride's head.

She carried a cascade arrangement of three white cymbidium orchids with stephanotis, ivy and streamers.

Mrs. Alan Drago, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were: Mrs. Lawrence Bechler; Katherine Ballard; and Joan Brown. They wore light blue, floor-length gowns and carried gladiolus bouquets. The bridesmaids carried pink flowers, while the matron of honor's bouquet contained yellow flowers.

R. Frank Eadie served as his brother's best man. Seating the guests were: Thomas Eadie; Peter Jones; and Leonard Weinstein.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors.

Following a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will reside in Ann Arbor.

MRS. WILLIAM F. LANCASTER of Lancaster School of Expression in Farmington and her latest graduation class who received their diplomas May 23 at Forest Hill Missionary Church on 12 Mile Road. (l-r) Gerald Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Clixby; Charlene Daryl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Evert;

Graduates Latest Class at 84

BY JERRY WENDT

One of the most remarkable women in Farmington is Mrs. Margaret Slifer-Lancaster. Founder of the Lancaster School of Speech in September, 1903, Mrs. Lancaster is still graduating classes at an age when most women would have been long retired.

Mrs. Lancaster celebrated her 84th birthday this Easter and on May 23 she graduated another class. With a long and distinguished background like hers, coupled with a genuine love of her work, it is easy to see, why to Mrs. Lancaster, retirement is simply a word in the dictionary.

Mrs. Lancaster began her studies at the age of 14. She was born at Bunker Hill, Illinois, and her first teacher was the Episcopal minister's wife who had taught in the schools of Los Angeles. At 16, she had a class of eight, and as the minister and his wife moved away, she studied under a State's attorney, who lived in her home town. He happened to be an avid fan of De Wolfe Hopper whom he considered to have the most perfect diction in America. He persuaded De Wolfe to make his famous recording of "Casey at the Bat" which has been a bible for all speech students ever since. (Editors note—this recording is still played on Today—and is still used for speech study).

Mrs. Lancaster continued giving lessons, and public recitals, and helped earn money for her college education. She also attended a private military academy in her hometown where they accepted local day students. She had instruction from the president, who was a minister and public speaker. It was here she met the man who seven years later became her husband.

Next she attended Marion Normal College and School of Law and Expression at Marion, Ind., where she graduated and post-graduated. She was made assistant teacher of speech and orthography and received her Bachelors Degree in Oratory at this college.

Since then she has taught in grade and high schools in Illinois and six years in Texas. Also, in the home of Ursuline Sisters, at St. Patrick's Parochial grade school at Alton, Illinois, where she had students from many surrounding towns.

The Lancasters moved to Farmington 21 years ago and during that time a goodly number of persons received lessons at the Lancaster School of Speech.

Her most noted graduate was Robert Pershing Wadlow of Alton, known as the "Biggest Man in the World." He weighed 491 pounds and attained a height of eight feet, 3 inches.

Her graduation exercises are always a milestone in her pupils lives. Friends are invited to attend, and booklets with the school flower on the cover are given to commemorate the event. The School Motto is "Entertain to Educate" and the School Flower is the Red Rose for the "House of Lancaster."

She has not been entirely career minded as she has had a close-knit family life. She and her husband will celebrate 60 years of married life on August 1. They have one son, Richard, who lives at 33353 West Nine Mile Rd. in Farmington and a foster daughter, Mrs. Pat Hanlon who lives in Alton, Illinois. Life has been good to the "Rose Lady" (as Mrs. Lancaster is fondly called because she grows so many pretty roses.)

At 84 she is looking forward to a new season and another year of happy married life. Who could ask for more?

GREATEST THING since safety pins are a new little gimmick on the market called "ice balls." They are just as simple as their name.

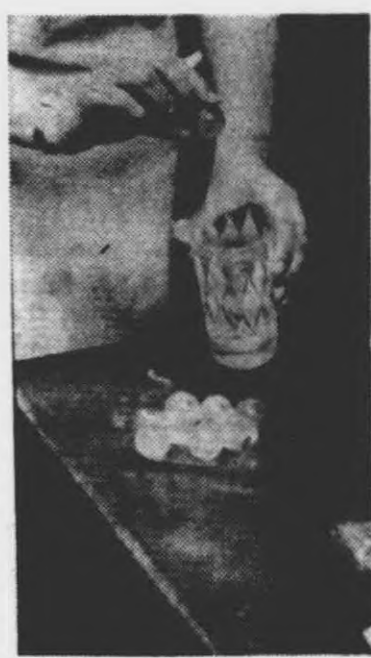

They are round, colorful plastic balls filled with some kind of liquid-freeze liquid. They are to be kept in the freezer and used just as you would ice cubes.

The beauty of this "ice balls," however, is they will not dilute drinks, are reusable, and may even be used in milk—kids love 'em.

Drinks are chilled in seconds and the "ice balls" may be used over and over. They last indefinitely.

Another happy thing about this item is they are being sold by a Boy Scout troop. The proceeds from their sale is going toward a trip this summer to Camp Wilderness.

To order these gay little party items "ice balls" call John Tripp, 427-3809, 30001 MacIntyre, Livonia. He will see a set of 12 or more is delivered promptly to you. The "ice balls" sell for one dollar per box and will make you the talk of your block with a feather in your hostess hat.

Fairlane Estate Open For Antique Show

BY JERRY WENDT
 Significant of how times have changed is the accessibility of Henry Ford's Fairlane estate in Dearborn to the public. In my fathers' day, for instance, it was a place of mystery, off limits to the average citizen. Today, students and those who seek culture roam the halls of the estate and the grounds, almost at will. You drive down a long winding road lined with budding trees, past now empty stations where armed guards used to insure the privacy of the occupants. Mile after mile of green lands and gardens stretch before you. There is a vast stillness and feeling of desertion everywhere. Suddenly the road turns and you see Fairlane, before you. A forbidding looking exterior of grey stone, its turrets and ballisters are covered with ivy. Built in imitation of an Italian villa, its gorgeous gardens can be viewed from the stone porches that surround the entire house.

You climb the lichen covered steps and find yourself in the central hall of the house. A myriad of ghostly figures come to greet you. Which was the real Henry Ford? Was he a tyrant who kept the philanthropic ideas of the gentle Edsel in check? Did he know how Harry Bennett kept the Ford Empire under a steel fist? Or was he a dreamer, so absorbed in his plans that he didn't realize the true state of affairs? Was the family anti-social or were they quiet people with no taste for fame and who were determined to lead a contented family life?

The house would seem to bear out the latter legend. It is dedicated to family living and speaks of cozy evenings with giant fireplaces, nooks for quiet family dining and everywhere Clara Ford's great love of flowers. There are no indications of a pretentious life. There are no wine cellars, no ball rooms, no elaborate chandeliers at Fairlane. There are 14 fireplaces and eight bedrooms. The most outstanding feature of the mansion is its gorgeous carvings in wood and marble. It begins with the staircase, in the central hall, hand-carved of beautiful wood. The fireplaces in the drawing rooms are of white chisled marble. Bedrooms, game-rooms, all have their share.

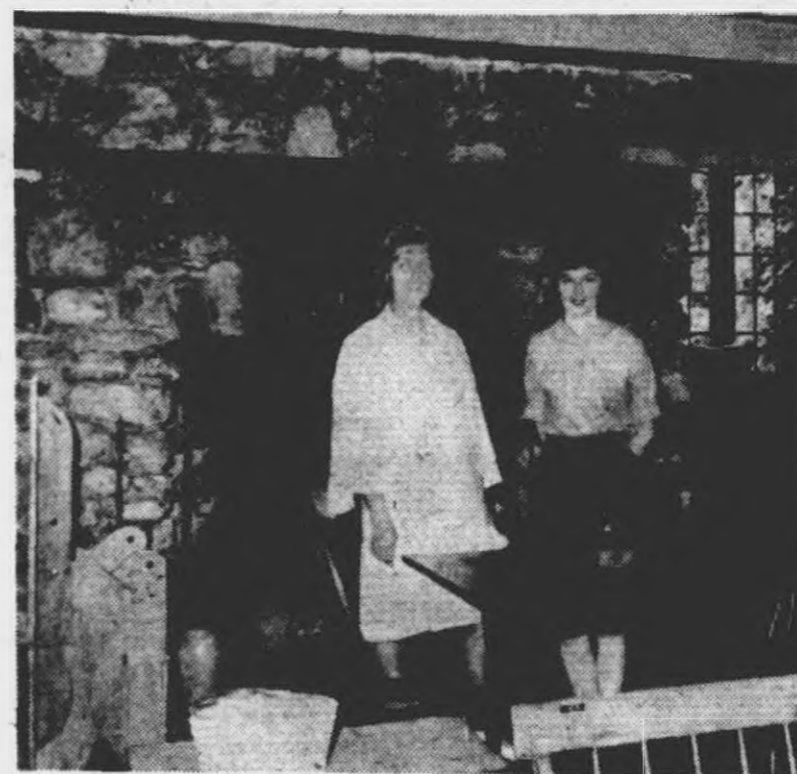

On the first floor, there is a library, drawing room, music room, dining room with a dining alcove. There is also a bowling alley, billiard room and swimming pool, now enclosed. The second floor is of comfortable bedrooms and dressing rooms. One of the bedrooms was always set aside for the use of Thomas Edison, a great family friend.

The master bedroom had an outside porch for breakfasting on a sunny day. There were the quarters of the beloved son, Edsel. A man of whom no one ever spoke an ugly word, no matter what their feelings about the Ford Empire.

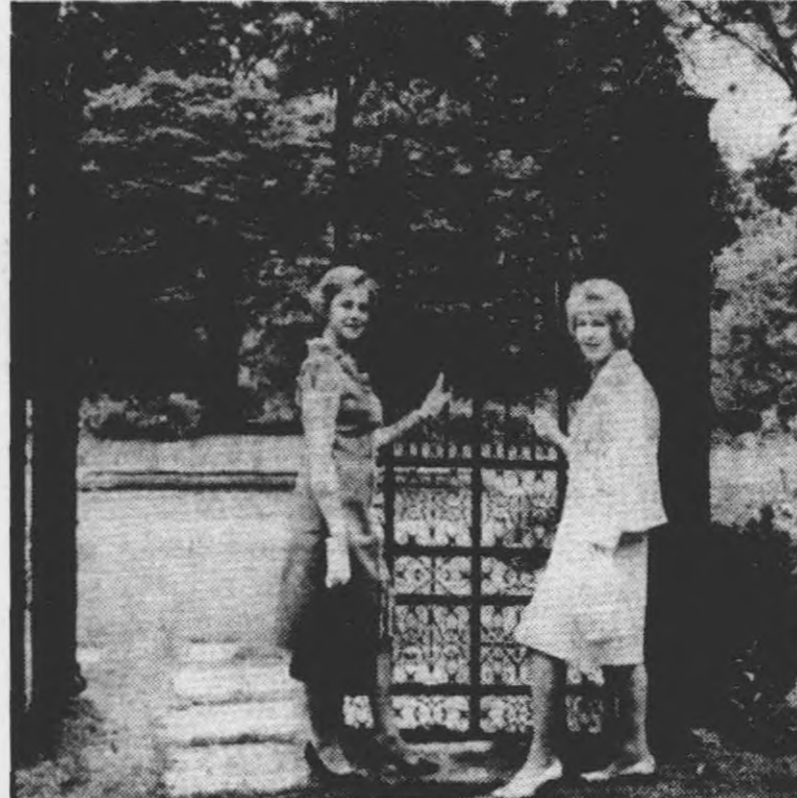

There were special dressing rooms and closets. One closet, especially for draperies, had an enormous, thick, door of solid copper.

Always, there is the gorgeous view from every window. Green lawns and flowers sweep in an emerald cascade to the banks of the Rouge River where the weeping willow trees dip their branches in the water.

Fairlane will at last be open to the public. Think what a thrill for your out of town guests to visit this mansion, hitherto only open to the celebrated. We'll inform you of four times later.

IN A PERFECT SETTING antique exhibitors were able to display their treasures at Fairlane, the former Henry Ford estate at the Rotary Antique Show sponsored by the Dearborn Rotary club last week-end. Fairlane is now the U of M Dearborn Campus and the grounds and home are used for worthwhile projects. Val Lorion (above), of Farmington, visits fellow antique collector Jean Arlen of Northville. Among Mrs. Arlen's items at the show was the Windsor table and chairs with an authentic coffee grinder. Mrs. Arlen had her display in the billiard room of Fairlane. She enjoyed the motto above the fireplace "He who chops his own wood warms himself twice."

KATHY ZISKA AND VAL LORION of Farmington admire the huge wrought iron gate entrance to one of the many gardens at Fairlane. Val Lorion, president of the Questers, had an exhibit of her own at the Fairlane show last weekend.

MRS. JO ELAND was installed as president of Keeler Mothers Club by Jean Henegar, outgoing president, at the club's annual potluck on June 2. Other officers installed were Millie Montgomery, vice-president; Eleanor Simula, treasurer; Marge Benedetti, recording secretary, and Barbara Keppen, corresponding secretary.

LYI Plans Centers at Senior, Junior Highs for Summer

The Livonia Youth Incorporated, a non-profit organization, organized in 1962 to aid the Teen-Agers of Livonia, announced this week that the three centers will open for summer activities beginning June 28.

Co-sponsoring this activity with the L.Y.I. are the Livonia Parks and Recreation Department, Livonia Board of Education, and the Clarenceville Board of Education.

The Senior High Centers will be at Franklin, Bentley, and Clarenceville High Schools and will be open on Mondays and Wednesdays from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. and on Fridays from 7 p.m. to 11 p.m. The program will run for seven weeks and will close on August 13.

So successful were these teen centers last summer when 1,500 Senior High School boys and girls registered, and 14,000 visits were made to these centers that the board of directors feel that 1965 will be a banner year.

The same directors who headed the centers last year will again be in charge. These include Ralph Temby, Clarenceville, Rod Place, Franklin and Ralph Webster, Bentley.

Clarenceville Junior High and Emerson Junior High will be the scene of Livonia Youth, Incorporated Junior High Teen Centers this summer.

Enthusied with the response of the Senior High students to the three teen centers opened last summer at Bentley, Franklin, and Clarenceville High School, the Board of Directors of L.Y.I. will experiment with two Junior High teen centers beginning June 28 through August 13.

The centers will be opened on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Boys and girls attending any Junior High School in Livonia, whether public or parochial, will be eligible to become a member of L.Y.I. and pay a registration fee of $1.

Accountants Set Tax Course

Southeastern Chapter of the Independent Accountants Association of Michigan will conduct their fourth annual crash tax course at the McGregor Memorial, on Wayne State Campus.

The purpose of this course is to prepare candidates for the Treasury Card Examination given by Internal Revenue on Sept. 23 and 24.

Classes will be held from 9 a.m. to 12 noon starting July 10, with eight scheduled sessions as follows: July 10, 17, 24; August 7, 14, 21, 28, and Sept. 11.

Edward Mieduch, CPA and attorney will again conduct this course, which is open to non-members as well as members of the IAAM, who will sit for the Treasury Card Examination or who feel the need for a review and up-dating on tax accounting and law. Questions of the previous three years examinations will be reviewed.

Sample tests will be given after each session to condition the candidates for the forthcoming Internal Revenue Examination. Additional coaching will be available to candidates where needed.

Two sessions, July 24 and August 14 will be devoted entirely to the troublesome partnership problems. Accountants wishing to attend only these two sessions may do so.

Students will be accepted in order of registration. For further information call Jean Yott, Secretary at 961-7489 or 897-4147, or Wilber D. Chord, 427-6900.

Sisterhood Players Set Production

"It Started With Eve" will be presented by the Temple Beth Am Sisterhood Players on June 16 at the Cohn Building in Livonia.

The production will be presented at the combined meeting and membership tea of the Sisterhood. Starting time is 8:45 p.m.

This is the last meeting of the season and members are urged to bring friends and relatives who may be interested in membership next year.

Prior to the entertainment a brief business meeting will be held. Officers for the coming year will be elected.

Boy Scouts Plan Family Programs

Organizations that are already using part of the program of the Boy Scouts of America will be encouraged to establish the Whole Scout Family, according to Read Jenkins, president of the Detroit Area Council.

This special attention to institutional partners is part of "The Program of Emphasis for Youth", 1965-67.

"The Scout program provides training experiences to develop citizenship, physical fitness, and character in boys 8 through 17," Jenkins said. "Each part of the program is designed to meet the needs and interest of boys in various age groups, and we hope a boy may have a continuing relationship to the chartered institution and its objectives and at the same time benefit from a continuing Scout Program."

Jenkins explained that the chartered institutions provide the meeting places, unit leadership, and administrative direction to operate their own Scout units.

One hundred fifty-five organizations in the council area, which includes all of Wayne County and the southern half of Oakland and Macomb Counties, now have at least one Cub Scout pack, Boy Scout troop, and Explorer post to qualify for the Whole Scout Family title.

Area Man Wins 5 Minute Spree in Supermarket

A Redford Township man won a "five minute shopping spree" and residents of Farmington, Livonia and Garden City received gift certificates in a recent contest sponsored by a soft drink firm in this area.

John R. Armstrong, 8888 Dale, Redford Township, spent five minutes filling up a grocery cart and was permitted to keep all the foodstuffs he could take in the allotted time.

Gift certificate winners were the Holly Family, 22042 W. Brandon, Farmington; Joseph Lusko, 18453 Deering, Livonia; and Mrs. D. Sabaugh, 30430 Barton, Garden City.

28350 FIVE MILE ROAD between Inkster and Middlebelt GA 7-8278

WHERE'S YOUR DRIVING LICENSE, LADY? — Shoppers at Livonia Mall caught this by-play when Patrolman Patrick Williams stopped secretary Jeanne Thieda who was riding a Kysor Jet scooter inside the huge indoor shopping center. The electric scooter, powered by batteries, has been cruising the center's Mall at a sedate 8 m.p.h., in an evaluation test for its manufacturer and the distributor, The Shute Company of Livonia. Engineers estimate that the vehicle will make a big dent in the 6,000 miles that Livonia Mall maintenance personnel walk yearly to serve the huge, 760,000 square foot, indoor shopping center.

'Jet' Scooter Gets Tryout in Livonia

The jet-age came to shopping centers this week with the first shopping center trials of the new Kysor Jet at Livonia Mall Shopping Center, Middlebelt at Seven Mile Road.

It arrived in the form of an electric scooter, designed by Kysor Industrial Corporation of Cadillac, Michigan, to shave thousands of walking miles off yearly totals run up by shopping center security patrolmen and maintenance people.

At the huge Livonia Mall, management people estimate that their personnel walk some 6,000 miles a year in covering the fully enclosed, 760,000 square foot, shopping center with its 40 stores and services.

Robert Poris, general manager of Livonia Mall, said, "This trial is simply to estimate the efficiency of such a machine in our particular situation. So far, it's easy on the feet and very simple to operate."

Richard Shute, president of the Shute Company, distributors of the Kysor Jet in eastern Michigan, said that prior employment of the scooter has been extensive in large industrial and commercial warehouses, office buildings and government installations.

"The biggest customers in the country," said Shute, "are the huge office buildings in Washington, D.C."

Hospitals are also employing them, he said, to improve communications and patient care.

Shoppers at the Mall have been intrigued — and have even asked to buy — the scooter-shaped vehicle which accommodates one stand-up rider and moves along on rubber wheels at speeds up to 8 miles per hour.

The Kysor Jet is powered by a 12 volt battery. Shute estimates battery life at an average of eight operating-hours after

Franklin Busy With Senior Activities

By JAN BONNER

Television has McHale and his incompetent Navy; Franklin has Mr. Rice and his crew of craftsmen.

The 14-foot sailboat that the Industrial Arts department has been constructing is nearing completion.

Mr. Rice, industrial arts instructor, made this comment about the project, "It's been a very interesting experience and has motivated the class like no other project has for me. It's given the students initiative and was well worth the effort."

A lot of time and effort was put in by the boys in working on the boat. The boys disliked the job of applying fiberglass and resin and having to sand the boat constantly. The vessel has a red hull and white sail.

The boat will be sold to a boy in the shop class. If some student from the shop class does not buy the boat, it will be sold to anyone at Franklin who wants to buy it.

June 17 marks the big day for the graduating class of '65 at Franklin High.

The Seniors of '65 are the first class to complete three full years at Franklin. The climax to these three years of work,

Thursday evening in the gymnasium. At this time the graduates will receive their diplomas.

Dr. Alvin Loving from the University of Michigan will be giving the major address at the ceremonies.

The commencement exercises will begin at 7:30 p.m. Each graduate will receive three tickets permitting parents and relatives to attend. Only persons possessing tickets will be admitted into the gym. Anyone, however, may watch in the Lecture Theater on closed circuit television.

Baccalaureate for the Franklin High School Class of 1965 will be held Sunday, June 13, at 7 p.m. in the gymnasium. A non-denominational religious service, baccalaureate is on a strictly voluntary basis. The speaker for the service will be the Reverend Richard Dunkleberger, Minister of the Rosedale Gardens United Presbyterian Church.

Amos I, Franklin's creative-arts magazine arrived Wednesday, June 2. Advanced orders were taken for Amos and when the magazine made its debut it was completely sold out. Club members are now seeking contributions for Amos II.

Seniors will be taking their final exams today and tomorrow, June 9 and 10. Friday, June 11, Seniors do not come to school. Underclassmen will take their exams on June 14, 15 and 16. During these days, Seniors will be involved in marching practice.

A dream just came true for Ford and Louise Reich...they bought a boat this spring. Ford has been a customer of ours for 35 years and we've some idea how long he's been longing for that boat. Now it's theirs but the pleasure is partly ours. We floated the loan that floated the boat the Reichs had their eye on. If you've been dreaming about that special boat, motor or trailer, come to us for helpful financing or ask your dealer to handle it with us for you. After all, we like making dreams come true.

Survey To Help Establish Curriculum at New Community College

What will be the curriculum basis at Wayne County's new Community College?

More than 250 businesses and industries in the 38 school districts in the new College district are busy filling out a four-page community college questionnaire.

Survey data will be used by the Program Needs Committee of the College Citizens' Participatory Study Committee as a basis for the recommended curriculum of the proposed college.

By this week, the surveys are scheduled to be returned to Study Director Dr. Robert Keene, Redford Township, of the Wayne Co. Intermediate School District.

Besides Redford Union and South Redford School Districts, others participating in The Observer's circulation area include all school districts not now affiliated with Schoolcraft Community College.

The business-industry survey is the final study-questionnaire in a series of three done by the community college study committee to determine the curricula that could be offered in a local commuter type college for 38 school districts in the Detroit metropolitan area.

Members of the June, 1965 graduating class, almost 30,000 in the public and parochial schools, were first queried as to their future educational and vocational plans. A mail survey of the 1963 public and parochial school graduates added another 22,000 pertinent comments by post-high school youth as to what they would want educationally and vocationally in the proposed community college curriculum.

Since the curricula offered at a community college is vital to the economic and social well being of our county, much time and effort by citizen members of the Program Needs Committee has been spent in discovering the interest and needs of the youth in the area as well as the business-industrial firms.

Data furnished by the three surveys involving some 50,000 individuals will assist the committee in the formulation of recommended programs that will be followed in the Wayne County community college district.

Four committees (Program Needs, Site and Housing, Finance and Publicity) are preparing reports for a final general session on June 24 at Riverside High School in Dearborn Heights. These final reports will contain the citizens' recommendations to be given to the Wayne County Intermediate Board of Education in the following areas:

- a) Potential college enrollments
- b) Number of campuses and types of facilities needed
- c) The finances required to support the community college district
- d) The curricula that should be offered, based on the demands of the youth, adults, business and industry. Midsummer has been set for the final report of the community college study by the Wayne County Citizens' Participatory Study Committee. After completion of the study, an application will be made to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for his approval to hold an election to establish a community college.

PICTURE TALK by Les Wilson

NO NONSENSE

A couple of years ago when I was talking with a friend of mine in his camera store, a heavy-set man came in and interrupted us. "You got a such-and-such camera?" he asked. My friend said he did. "How much you get for it?" the fellow asked. My friend told him. "Isn't that pretty high?" "No," said my friend, "that's a fair price." "I can get it for fifteen bucks less at Fesewahuco's," the fellow said. "OK," my friend said, "that's the place for you to go." "I did," the guy said quickly, "but they're all out of them." My friend thought a minute, then he said, "Well, if I were all out of them, I'd sell you one for twenty bucks less!"

There's a lot of sense in nonsense. People are often fooled by prices. I believe you get what you pay for. And I think that sooner or later, the price-wise shoppers learn it too.

This is the season when weddings, graduations, and Father's Day make cameras popular gifts. Cameras have special meaning to the bride or graduate. Snapshots help remember the wedding trip. Or record the good times with college friends.

We have a complete stock of the latest cameras, projectors, photo aids, including the KODAK INSTAMATIC Cameras. We can match the enjoyment of pictures to the person you have in mind, at the price you have in mind. We deal in more than hardware—we sell satisfaction. We want you to become a customer, a long-lasting, well-served, happy-with-your-picture-taking kind of customer.

DISCOVERED WATER!

The news that an ample supply of water had been discovered on the proposed site of the Plymouth Colony Swim Club was cause for celebration among the club members. The way it was discovered makes one of the best stories of this space-age year of 1965.

During the spring months three wells had been drilled. The first was dry and the other two revealed just a little water. The best scientific and geological planning had gone into the exact position of these wells. Soil samples had been analyzed.

In desperation, board members Robert Jenkins and Mrs. John Pulker called on Mrs. A. B. Hersh and her son, Kenneth. The Hersh farmland borders the Swim Club property on the east and the north. They asked Mrs. Hersh for access privileges to water under her land. She suggested that before they give up they should have someone go over the property and look for water. They needed a "douser." (Webster's dictionary describes a dousing rod as one which divines water or ore.)

The hero of the story is Martin Strasen of Ball Street. When called upon for assistance, Strasen, a retired civil engineer, went over the ground with his dousing rod. He found one vein of water, then another, and marked the spot where the two veins crossed. The well-driller shifted his equipment, drilled a hole and there it was — all the water they needed!

At a meeting of the Swim Club board last Friday evening it was suggested that their project be called "Peach Branch Pool" in honor of Stasen's divining rod. Someone said, "I think he used an apple branch." Whatever he used — it worked.

ALLEGRO POTLUCK PICNIC

With a menu that included Marion Sober's Cheese Potatoes, Phyllis Kelley's oven-fried chicken (dipped in cream of chicken soup then in a sage crumb poultry stuffing imported from England), meat loaves, potato salads, vegetable casseroles, relishes, a delightful array of desserts topped off by Blanche Becker's Swedish coffee — it just had to be a good party.

The hosts were Dr. and Mrs. John Pulker. The guests were members of the Symphony League's Allegro group and their husbands.

Seated at one table were Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Lent, Mr. and Mrs. Craig Bowly, Mr. and son, Dr. and Mrs. James Knowles, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Harger Green and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Firestone.

QUIET MORNING

A hurried trip uptown last Thursday morning during the "hold" on the countdown of the Gemini Four blast-off revealed deserted streets and stores; not a soul was out doing yard work. Was told that it was like that for each space flight. The only other event that slows business down to almost a standstill is the Michigan-Michigan State football game.

County Picks Chief Psychiatrist, Harrison Heads Selection Board

The post of a permanent full-time psychiatrist-director for the Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board has been filled. Dr. Robert E. Walden, Superintendent of Lakin State Hospital, Lakin, West Virginia, will assume the position on July 19th at an annual salary of $27,500. Dr. Walden is 45 years of age.

Paul N. Averill, board chairman, said, "It has been a long and hard search for the right person to fill this pioneer program role. Of the dozens of applicants that were considered for the position, we feel that Dr. Walden is just the person we have been looking for, that he is eminently qualified based upon his professional training and experience. In addition we feel greatly honored that he decided to come with us in the light of the many offers that he was currently considering, several of which were right here in the State of Michigan."

As director, Dr. Walden will administer the program and staff according to Board policy and supervise all community mental health services, including the recently opened adult psychiatric outpatient clinic at Pontiac General Hospital. He is certified by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, a state requirement for this position. In addition he will be eligible for certification in hospital administration before assuming his post in July.

In giving his reason for affiliating himself with the Oakland County Community Mental Health Services Board, Dr. Walden said, "the most striking aspect of the Oakland County program is the amount of work and study already done by the Board. They have accomplished much in terms of understanding concepts of mental health and the clear identification and relationship of staff positions. When you know exactly what your job is, you can do it better."

As first director of a pioneer community mental health care program in Michigan, Dr. Walden will guide a historical change from the old to the new—a transition with which he is familiar because of his experience as superintendent at Lakin State Hospital for the past three years and in other earlier positions.

Before the Lakin post, Dr. Walden was a psychiatrist for two years at Pittsburgh Veteran's Administration Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pa. He took his residency in psychiatry from 1957 to 1960 at Brockton Veteran's Administration Hospital and Boston Veteran's Administration Hospital in Massachusetts.

A native of Boston, Dr. Walden received his medical degree in 1945 at Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tenn., after service in the U.S. Army. He was associated with Kansas City General Hospital for the two following years and then went into private practice in Coffeyville, Kansas, until 1950.

He then became acting clinical director at Taft State Hospital, Taft, Oklahoma, for two years. Later he served in the U.S. Air Force, during which time he was base psychiatrist in Wichita, Kansas, and senior medical officer of the Armed Forces Training Station, Ft. Wayne, Detroit.

Dr. Walden attended Northeastern University, Boston, and received his undergraduate degree from Lincoln University, Chester County, Pa. He and his wife, Ethel, have five children: Kenneth, age 21; Roberta, age 13; Robert E., Jr., age 10; Mark, age seven; and Mary, age three.

Paul N. Averill, in announcing this appointment, expressed his appreciation for the tireless efforts of the Administration and Staffing Committee headed by Gerald Harrison. "It took many months of searching and interviewing to find the professional leadership which would assure Oakland County of having the strongest Mental Health program in the State of Michigan and hopefully the nation: His committee is to be congratulated," stated Mr. Averill.

Retiring Professor Has Exciting Life

Prof. Soderquist is 70. He graduated from the University of Minnesota, and served in the Coastal Artillery, in World War II.

In 1925, he and his wife Bertha went to Luzon, in the Philippines. They stayed five years. Mrs. Soderquist taught English during this entire period. Prof. Soderquist taught English for the first two years, and then became Superintendent of Education for one of the provinces on the island. The Soderquists have two adopted children; Daniel, 24, and Martha, 20. Daniel is an Airman 1/Class, working in the field of computer maintenance. Martha was adopted by the couple, in 1939, during a visit to Norway.

Soderquist came to Wayne State in 1937. He has been there ever since—with time out for World War II, and a sabbatical leave.

During World War II, he served as a Naval Lieutenant, in Command of the V-12 Program at Missouri State University.

He took his sabbatical in 1959, at the University of Southern California. Daughter Martha had been a child actress at the Will-O-Way Play House. She predicted she would be "discovered" during her stay on the coast. Her parents bet against it.

Martha now has a stage name—Marta Kristen. She has appeared in Disney's "Savage Sam," and American-International's "Beach Blanket Bingo." And she has been in about 14 network television shows.

The Soderquist sabbatical also produced a book, "The Person In Education." Published by Charles Merrill, it is a study of the impact of existentialism in education.

The Soderquists have lived in Farmington since 1950, and have been active in PTA there.

Mrs. Soderquist taught for six years at Farmington's Bond School.

At noon, the visiting lawyers gathered for a luncheon which had been arranged by Congressman Ford. Short talks were given by John Bailey, Democratic National Chairman, and

Commission Will Survey City Youth

The Garden City Youth Commission has announced a new program that will be undertaken by the commission to study youth activities in the community. Teenage programs will be the main point in the original survey.

The Youth Commission chairman requested help from many agencies in the community. "We will need the assistance of the school administrators, churches, Little League, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, as well as the YMCA and YWCA," he said.

The commission received requests from time to time from local groups to assist in one way or another with activities for children and up until now they have not been able to list every regular planned program that is available in the community.

Jones has asked commission member Larry Henkel to head the sub-committee responsible for gathering information for this report. Other committee members include the Rev. Clem Parr, Pat Dempsey and Darrel Stevens.

Completion of the report on teenage activities will be able to show at a glance just what is available and where, and also it may point out areas that have too much or too little support.

Time to Apply for Service Academies

Congressman William D. Ford (Democrat-15th District) has announced that June 15 will be the deadline for youths in his district to apply for Service Academy appointments in 1966.

Forms and information may be obtained by writing to Congressman Ford at the House Office Building, Washington, D.C. Appointments will be available for each of the five academies: Army, Navy, Air Force, Merchant Marine and Coast Guard.

Applicants must be at least 17, but not more than 22 by July 1, 1966, to qualify for appointment next year. They must be single, be United States citizens, and be residents of the Fifteenth Congressional District.

All youths seeking appointments will be asked to take a basic civil service test in Detroit and will have to pass a physical examination, which will be given at Selfridge Air Force Base.

Results of these tests, along with academic records and extra-curricular activities will help determine which applicants will be nominated.

Congressman Ford emphasized, however, that all nominees will have to pass competitive tests established by the Academies before they can be admitted.

Those who are chosen will be notified next December or January, and the successful applicants will enter their respective academies in the early summer of 1966.

In just one week, the 414 members of the class of '65 will be gathering for the last time at Plymouth High School.

At 8 p.m., Thursday night, June 17, the seniors will walk across the stage to receive diplomas, marking the end of 12 years of study.

The PHS band, under the direction of James Griffith, will play the Processional as the graduates march in and Rev. Peter Beckwith from St. John's Episcopal Church will give the invocation.

Addressing the graduating class will be Marshall Pease, vice-president of the Detroit Edison Company.

In charge of the presentation of the class will be Principal Carvel Bentley, Keith Baughman, and Philip Johnson, while awarding the diplomas will be John McLaren, trustee of the Board of Education and Melvin Blunk, assistant superintendent of schools.

Weather permitting, graduation will be held on the PHS football field. In the case of bad weather, admission to the gymnasium will be by ticket only, each senior receiving four tickets.

The Baccalaureate service will be held at 8 p.m. on Sunday, June 13 in the PHS gym. The program for Baccalaureate: Prelude, Fred Nelson; Processional, "Pomp and Circumstance"; Invocation, Rev. John Walaskay, Pastor of the Plymouth Assembly of God; Anthem, Fred Nelson.

The sermon will be given by Rev. Ned Castner of the First Presbyterian Church, and the Benediction by Rev. John Miller, Pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Epiphany of Plymouth.

The Plymouth City Panhellenic Association is planning a program and tea for all senior girls and their mothers on Tuesday afternoon, June 15 at 1:30 p.m. at St. John's Episcopal Church on Sheldon Road.

SENIOR BILL NELSON has recently been honored by the Engineering Society of Detroit

Named to Corporal
Marine Lance Corporal Michael J. Rapp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Rapp, 29601 Hathaway, Livonia, was promoted to his present rank while serving with the 1st Battalion of the 5th Marine Regiment, an infantry regiment within the 1st Marine Division at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

National band conductors will meet at The University of Michigan July 19-23.

as the outstanding "engineering" student of the graduating class of PHS.

Bill received the Engineering Society of Detroit High School Honor Award, at a banquet honoring the winners of the greater Detroit high schools, on June 7 in Detroit.

WELL, SINCE THIS is my last article, I would like to take this opportunity to thank all you people who have so kindly struggled through my first (and sometimes feeble) attempts at "real" newspaper writing.

For me — it was a great experience and a lot of fun. After a short and probably hot summer, I'll be back at the books, but this time at Western Michigan University—probably do a little newspaper writing up there too. Bye, and thanks again.

Mary Ann Sincovec, a junior at PHS, has been named editor of the 1966 yearbook, Plythean. The announcement was made by Larry Ordowski who will be leaving the faculty of PHS this year to teach at Schoolcraft College.

Robert Ingram, a member of the PHS faculty for the past 30 years will be "graduating" with the class of '65.

A related math and sketch teacher, Ingram has announced his retirement and looks forward to a vacation trip to his cottage in Northern Michigan — but we hate to see him go.

Another one we hate to see go is Mrs. Jane Watts, physical education teacher and Water Waves advisor. She is retiring to Motherhood.

Four Eye School Board Post

He is a member of the First Presbyterian Church where he is past chairman of the Board of Deacons. He is a past president and director of the Plymouth Symphony Society; past president of the Livonia School Board advisory committee and former chairman of the finance and budget committee of the PTA Executive Board in Livonia.

Jenkins is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and of the American Economic Association.

Mrs. Dorothy J. Smith
Mrs. Dorothy Jean Smith, of 1158 S. Main, was born, raised and educated in Plymouth. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Richwine and was born on Ann Street when the family resided there.

She is one of the Plymouthites who can say they went to only one school building in Plymouth for elementary, junior high and high school. That's when students took all studies at the Central building, not Plymouth High School from which she was graduated in 1947.

Mrs. Smith attended Nazareth College and Western Michigan University before taking a position with her grandmother, Mrs. Florence Parrott, in her insurance business.

She is a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, where she is active in the Girl Pioneers and will become a Caravan Counselor of the group next fall. She was a member of the citizen's advisory committee on finance which studied the financial structure of the Plymouth School system last fall and winter and made the recommendations that resulted in the request for operating millage in March.

Mrs. Smith has been a regular attendant at School Board meetings and was an unsuccessful candidate a year ago when Mrs. Esther Hulsing and Gerald Fischer were re-elected.

She is married to Harland Smith, longtime employe of Dean Saxton, and they are the parents of two children: Margaret, 13, a student at Junior High East and Bernice, 3.

Roger Smithling
Roger Smithling, 36, of 42478 Schoolcraft, is a former teacher in the Plymouth School system, leaving three years ago to take a position with Ford

Motor Co. in the personnel division.

Smithling, past president, secretary and treasurer of the Plymouth Optimist Club, taught a year at Whitmore Lake and then seven years at Plymouth High as a Science and World History instructor.

He is a native of Decorah, Iowa but his family moved to Ferndale when he was young and he received his elementary and high school education there. He was a football and track letterman at Lincoln High in Ferndale.

Smithling took his collegiate work at Eastern Michigan University where he received a Bachelor's degree in education and a Master's in Educational Administration.

He and his wife Mary Jane are the parents of four children: Mark, 11; Brian, 9; Diane, 7; and Maren, 5.

He is a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church and served three years in the Coast Guard during World War II.

Robert Utter
Robert Utter, of 17827 Amherst Court, is the incumbent member of the Plymouth School Board and seeking election to his second four-year term.

He is manager of airport passenger services for American Airlines at Metro Airport and has been an employe of the company for more than 25 years. Matter of fact, Bob began as a limousine driver for American 25 years ago and has advanced through the ranks since to his present position.

He is a native of Detroit and Birmingham, attending Cranbrook School and receiving a Bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan in 1938. He is a member of St. John's Episcopal Church, second vice president of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club and was chairman of the highly successful spring pancake festival.

Bob has served as chairman of the important Employee Relations committee of the school board for the past three years, has been vice president for three years and is a member of the building, facilities and finance committees.

He and his wife, Elizabeth, have been married for 24 years and are the parents of three children: Susan, a graduate of Plymouth High, who is married to Don Harper of Plymouth and currently is teaching in Lansing; Barbara, also a graduate of PHS who is a second year student in the College of Nursing at the University of Michigan; and Judy, who will be a sophomore at PHS next fall.

Seniors

Continued from Page 1) to the audience and the Board of Education by Principal Carvel Bentley and Class Sponsors Keith Baughman and Philip Johnson. The diplomas will be awarded by Assistant Supt. Melvin Blunk and Board Member John McLaren.

Immediately following the commencement, the seniors and their dates will go to Ann Arbor for the graduation party. All facilities of the Ann Arbor "Y" have been made available including the gym, swimming pool and two rooms for dances.

The group will have its choice of rock 'n roll in one of the rooms and for any dances of its choice in the other.

The party is under the supervision of Gregg Dean of the Y.M.C.A. and Rev. Hugh White, of the Methodist Church, aided by parents of the seniors.

However, it will be a senior party and the parents will have little to do except to furnish food for the midnight snack and for the breakfast.

The rules, which will be enforced by the chaperones, are that all must register as they enter and none will be allowed to return if they leave the party.

Tells of Workshop

Continued from Page 1) training and supervision and it is that group we hope to get into the sheltered workshop."

Clogg emphasized that no community can start a sheltered workshop alone and that was why the Plymouth Jaycees joined with residents from Livonia, Redford, Plymouth and Northville in this project.

"Our preliminary check shows there are a total of 26 young people in the area who can use help," Clogg said, "This includes five from Plymouth, 10 from Livonia, eight in Redford and three in Northville."

"Here we have 20 people looking for something to do. Wayne has 24 in its workshop and a waiting list of more than 110, many of whom are from the area we are talking about." Clogg said that Community Opportunity Center will be incorporated by the state and has a tentative target of Sept 1 to start operation.

"With a group of 55 people from the four communities joining in the work we feel we will be able to meet that target provided we are able to get co-operation from industry and business," he said.

"We have a director in mind and are looking for a site as close to the center of the area as possible. We feel this center should be of interest to all since mental retardation belongs to all races, knows no bounds and background means nothing."

"Therefore we are asking the communities for contributions initially. We can't get any grants and with the expenses ahead, we must have money to

School and Democracy

(Ed Note: The following guest editorial is written by an 18-year-old Redford Township girl, Janice Armour.)

"When you get to High School you are supposed to be grown up and mature enough to take care of yourself". This is a common statement of high school teachers. This is a reasonable statement, or request, depending on slight differences in tone, wording or inflection. Though it is unreasonable, I shall begin at the beginning.

At five years of age a child is rudely booted out of a secure nest and into society. The child is placed in a line and told to march. He is not allowed to get out of line or even march differently than the rest of the children. If he does, he is accused of being uncontrollable and immature. He is regimented and completely controlled. He has to learn to write and isn't even sure of why or coordinated enough to do so if he knew why.

When he gets to first grade they introduce him to the number-aid. They throw all sorts of ways of combining numbers at him fast and furiously. They give them numbers of which they have no comprehension. He is entirely confused and crushed by his lack of knowledge. Some children are ruined and some rebel. Some, however, do survive.

By the time the first graders reach the second grade, they and the number aid are getting along pretty well. They can add millions but still don't understand what a million is. They can't, usually, add without it. I don't mean to just pick on the number aid. Spelling also upsets children. First they are given easy words and then the words get harder. This is good, but then comes the time when all good things must end. They start over. Not only do they get little words, they get words like "I," "a" and "me." Many children become disgusted and stop trying since their interest is made to lag by the re-teaching of already learned material. They won't work because they see no point since they already know it.

In the third grade they can use the number aid very deftly or are completely confused and dumb on the subject. Now that they learn or refused to learn this, they go peacefully into the fourth grade.

Now they are told throughout the fourth, fifth and sixth grades that they must learn to do without the number aid. So they begin again. This is an entirely new way of doing things. Perhaps it is easier to learn arithmetic facts after doing the number aid than it is to begin right off in the first grade. I don't know, but I do know that a sudden change in their way of life upsets many children.

The school is a 'dictatorship.' Children are forbidden to speak in the cafeteria. Their lunch kits are checked for anything remaining in them. It is forbidden to carry anything out in the kit. The child can't take something back home to eat later. If he does not eat it, he must throw it away.

When he gets to Junior High, the work is hard. He tries. He is still controlled. Now they don't check his lunch kit and he is allowed to talk for awhile. Towards the end of the period, however, talking is again forbidden. They are released table by table depending on the cleanliness of the table and surrounding area. Threats are still used and they try to control by fear. In nine years of dictatorship, some have rebelled and they are delinquents.

Suddenly the Junior High graduate is thrust into High School. All his life is changed. He has a whole hour to eat and roam the school without restraint. Freedom is thrust upon them with the words: "You're in High School now and able to take care of yourselves." After years and years of domination, he is expected to be mature and to govern himself. If he lives within walking distance he is thrown out without the usual admonition to go home; he doesn't even have to leave the school. All of a sudden all the decisions that have before been made for him, he is expected to make for himself.

Now comes the question, "Why can't they act like adults?" Why? Because they aren't adults. Most or all of the independence has been driven out of them. The ones that have independence finally rise and shine, if they haven't grown up hating too strongly to even accept a "new" kind of School. Before they were the naughty behavior problems. The ones who thought they were alright have to change their whole outlook and way of life.

The comparison is this. Take any adult and put him in a society he is used to. He is happy and contented. His fashion is dictated by his fellow man. He buys his food from the store and goes to work and comes home from work. Now transplant him into the woods and tell him to live. Here is more freedom than he has ever had before in his life. He is confused; he doesn't know what to do. Maybe he'll adapt, maybe he won't. This is the same with a child. He is trained to one way of life and the other comes too fast. Like the adult he may adapt and he may not. Children are more easily adapted to a change in the way of doing things and the change isn't so radical as the aforesaid, so many more children adapt to freedom than adults would adapt to a new society. If he doesn't adapt he is condemned and called immature. His parents are condemned. It isn't his fault; it isn't his parents' fault. The number aid was not taught to those now in High School, but the control was there. No one can change from one way of life to another because someone says change. You want more out of youth than you could do yourself. I do not find fault with the present high school system but with the system of the previous nine years. Take away the complete control and our youth will be better off. Parents will be happier, and teachers will be able to teach without domination.

This is called a free country, and it is. But many forget that children are citizens too. Can't they be given freedom too? Why are children different? Teachers and many adults preach democracy and practice a dictatorship. Decide for yourself. Should it be this way?

Allen Rosenfeld

Backs Taddonio

Editor: Should any governing body such as in Lansing, Washington or the Livonia School Board, have people on it that all think the same way? No! This is not the idea of the "American way." We should be governed by a representation of ideas from all the community, not just one segment of it. Isn't this why we have a party system (Democrats and Republicans) they help balance each other.

It appears we have mostly educators and yes-men on our school board now. This may be fine, but don't we need some business heads too, who can think for themselves?

I believe Dominick Taddonio has a fine balance of education and business sense and is honestly sincere. He is nobody's puppet, who would really be an asset on the Livonia School Board.
MRS. R. LAMB

She Likes Incumbents

Editor: As one person interested in the best education we can give our children, I wish to bring to the attention of South Redford voters, the June 14 School Board election.

Douglas Mueller and Richard Haight, present board members, are seeking the two positions. These men have shown leadership at a time when budgets had to be cut.

Even on a limited budget, I feel these gentlemen will help carry on the fine programs our children have enjoyed in the past.

Thurston has many hundreds of graduates that have already proved our system to be a good one. Let's keep it that way!

In the interest of continuing a fine educational system I urge support for Douglas Mueller and Richard Haight on June 14.
CHARLOTTE MILLINGTON

Editorial "Shocking"

Editor: As a member of a family whose lives have been dedicated to the teaching profession, I found your cynicism in a recent editorial shocking and brought my adrenalin to the writing level.

If you sincerely believe a desire for security to be the motivation for choosing teaching then you must feel the call to medicine, law, or heaven help us, even the ministry to be economically motivated.

You feel that one who decides to teach must decide on a way of life. How true.

One must never drive an expensive car or go to expensive places. One must dress well, but not too well. One's children must be perfection itself and always the teacher must be above suspicion like Caesar's wife.

It seems strange that one who didn't choose to make the economic sacrifice of education can outearn a teacher, yet when the teacher asks merely for a school board to negotiate the cry of "union tactics" is raised by that same person.

If communities like Livonia were concerned with the most important aspect of education they would undertake a national recruiting campaign to hire and pay the best teachers in the United States and forget their beautiful showpieces like Franklin High.
MRS. C. STURDLY

Freedom of Press

Editor: Re: freedom of speech and expression in newspapers.

I think Oliver Wendell Holmes summed it up quite well when he said: "Freedom of expression is fine, but it does not include running into a crowded theater and yelling 'Fire!' That is a crime!"

When a newspaper editor thinks it is his duty to report on controversial issues, he should do so with an objective view and without sensationalizing facts.

I, as a student at Thurston High School, see bigotry and prejudice every day.

I also happen to know that most of these students never worked or walked side by side with a Negro. If they had, they would be much better as individuals.
JACQUELINE A. CROSS

A Fine Editorial

Editor: Thank you for the fine editorial about the Livonia Police Department in the Observer.

I guess we all feel that wherever we turn we face taxes and tax increases. But we must think before we vent our resentment (over rising costs) on the city in which we live. Most of us have invested much of our savings and 20 to 30 years of our future earnings property in this city. If we don't support it by taxes, we are literally throwing our money away.

We must have faith in our schools, police and city employees and show our faith by backing them, giving them a reasonable budget upon which to operate. For a very small yearly tax increase we can protect our homes, children and help our city grow strong and beautiful.
Without our financial support

(which would cost us very little) serious neighborhood disintegration can take place very rapidly. It isn't fair—as thinking people will realize—to vent our resentment of taxes upon the city employees who work to protect us.

Certainly our police are entitled to a living wage. They must have human dignity in order to protect our dignity. They should not have to leave the police force to show the citizenry that they need a living wage. It is up to us, the citizens, to share our well-being with them. If we try to hoard a few petty tax dollars, we are the ones who will suffer without dedicated police to serve us.

I was pleased with your editorial. There should be many more of the same. Let's get out and fight to get and keep a fine police force and a pleasant place to live.
ALICE WEINBERG

Amateur and Hobby

Editor: I would like to offer a few corrections to an article appearing in the Observer of Plymouth.

The article referred to the State Police and the use of Citizen's Band radio as amateur and also as hobby radio.

Amateur radio requires considerable study and a test by FCC personnel, with exception of the novice license. This license is a "hobby" type license.

Using the citizens band radio for "hobby" purposes is strictly prohibited by Federal regulation.

The action, in conjunction with the State Police, has been in effect for many months among the automobile manufacturers and is known as "H.E.L.P." — "Highway Emergency Locating Plan."

I have been an amateur radio operator for over 30 years and when you used citizens band radio as amateur, I had to defend my amateur license and all it encompassed. Among amateurs, CB stands for "Children's Band," but since the new regulations have gone into effect this year, the CB radio has more closely approached its purpose.

Among the amateur radio ranks you can find: Art Godfrey, Gen. LeMay, Tex Bencke and his wife, Pee Wee Hunt, Barry Goldwater, and many, many more people in the public eye.

Also there are doctors, lawyers, teachers — people of all professions and also plain Joes and Janes in amateur radio — all doing their best in the advancement of radio and service to their community.
A. O. MICHELIS (W8NIT)

Supports Fred Bailey

Editor: The forthcoming election to select a member of the community to serve on Clarenceville School Board deserves plenty of our consideration.

We have already authorized the board to issue bonds to complete the district building plans. Now we need to select a board member to help invest the money wisely and well to accomplish the building program.

There is one candidate with experiences as a board member and as a contractor. We are fortunate to have such a qualified person with enough interest in the community to run for election.

Fred Bailey is a candidate who can serve our school district well.
F. W. SHOOP
Clarenceville Voter

Blame Parents

Editor: Vandalism isn't really the teenagers' fault. It's the parents' fault. If the parents don't have enough sense to keep their kids home then the parents should be punished, not their kids. If the kids don't want to listen to their parents then let them get into trouble. They should be put in jail and kept there for a couple of days. But if their parents are the type that don't care what their kids do, then the parents and the kids should be punished. Parents are supposed to be responsible for, and take care of their kids.

If Farmington had things for kids to do such as a public swimming pool or a teen club, they would be wrecked by some of the kids.

But who is it that lets them do this? Who lets them do anything they want to? THEIR PARENTS! No matter what, it's all going to lead back to one thing. It's the parent's fault.
CAROLYN BEEDICT,
Farmington.

McNamara for Murch

Editor: The Livonia Public Schools are today a gigantic business concerned with the education of over 30,000 children and the expenditure of $15,000,000 annually.

With the arrival of thousands of additional school children each year, the system will become increasingly complex and it has become essential to elect to the School Board persons of high calibre, educational attainments, and intimate knowledge of school operation.

I was delighted to learn that Donald Murch is a candidate for trustee of the Livonia School Board because his background is well suited to this important position in our community. For several years he has been associated with the School Board Advisory Committee, most recently as chairman, and thus has worked in depth on a number of problems confronting the system. This, coupled with frequent attendance at school board meetings and P.T.A. activity, has given him a good grasp of a complicated subject.

Don Murch is an attorney with degrees in economics and law from Wayne State University and an articulate spokesman for the cause of quality education.

I urge a vote for Donald Murch on Monday, June 14th.

Livonia Councilman

Thoughtful Kids

Editor: We hear so much today about the decay of American youth: what do you think of this?

In September, 1964, just as school was getting under way, 11-year-old Joannie Rose, a fifth-grader at Johnson School fell ill with what was later diagnosed as a terminal illness. She could never return to school.

Neighbors, friends, classmates, pitched in to help Joannie and her family. A school bake-sale was held and proceeds were used to purchase a television and personal items for the friend her classmates couldn't see.

During the long months of hospitalization and confinement that followed, cards and letters came to Joannie, again from children who knew her — and from those who didn't.

Joannie Rose died Sunday, May 30, 1965. The next day local children collected the gifts from neighbors. About 30 children attended the last rites said for their friend and former classmate.

Michigan Week A Success In Redford

Editor: Now that "Redford Township Michigan Week" has come and gone for another year, I find my vocabulary is completely inadequate to actually say all the things I have in my heart for the wonderful cooperation you gave to help make "Redford Township Michigan Week" the huge success that it was.

It is individuals like you who are not afraid to give their talents, time and money, that always make these community projects a success.

I only know how to say "Thank you much" for all you did for me and for all the rest of the great people who made up the Redford Township Michigan Week Committee.

On behalf of myself and the Chamber of Commerce, we extend our most sincere thanks.
E. D. HAZELTON
Redford Township Michigan Week Chairman

Hail To RU Seniors

Editor: Since so much adverse criticism is being directed at teenagers, I feel compelled to speak out in behalf of the Seniors from Redford Union High School who went on the Washington trip, I, as a chaperon of the group of over 200 students, feel I am in a position to offer an opinion.

I was thoroughly pleased with the attitude and conduct of these students throughout the five day excursion. Due to the crowded conditions, we spent much of our precious time standing in lines and in some instances, had to forego entirely what was on the agenda. In spite of this, they were cheerful, patient and orderly. Their appearance and behavior were outstanding wherever we went. I believe that the home, the community and the school should be complimented and that we should all be very proud of these young people.

Keep Down Taxes

Editor: "Mr. No" who are you trying to kid? Houses are a liability. If education costs are $465 x 4 kids — equal — $1,860 for one year — I sure don't pay that in taxes a year.

More houses mean higher taxes — so it's more parks for me
ROSE FINEGAN

Parks Are Cheaper

Editor: Can I afford it now? Answer... A heck of a lot better now with parks than later for the expense that goes with all those kids who would move in. It's me for parks and lower taxes.

Yesterday's Headlines

25 YEARS AGO In the LIVONIAN for June 12, 1940, it was reported that Supervisor Jesse Ziegler and Clerk Harry S. Wolfe were negotiating with Detroit officials for the purpose of extending city water mains into Livonia township. If the bargaining is successful, township bonds will be sold to raise the needed $200,000.

20 YEARS AGO Even in the 1940's it was evident that Livonia's schools were on the move. In the LIVONIAN of June 13, 1945, it was reported that in the coming school year a new special teacher would be in service and that instrumental music would be offered in the schools.

15 YEARS AGO The LIVONIAN for June 9, 1950, reported that in the coming week Bentley High School would have its first graduates. The ninety-five seniors presented a pageant entitled "Make Way For Brotherhood."

10 YEARS AGO It was reported in the June 9, 1955, LIVONIAN that next week they would go to the polls to elect two school board trustees. The candidates are Ward McCain, Herbert Nelson, Lonnie Brashear and Rosina Raymond.

Human Relations Groups Unite

A County-wide organization has just been formed to provide coordinating service for the existing local human relations councils and civil rights groups in the County of Oakland. The NAACP and the Urban League are among the groups that have agreed to unite within it.

The new group is under able leadership. John Millhone, Chief Editorial Writer of the Detroit Free Press, has been named interim chairman. Clarence Barnes, Executive Secretary of the Pontiac Urban League, has been named interim vice chairman.

It will attempt to minimize conflicts within the various groups, and will provide information of mutual interest to them.

As an example of how this dissemination of information will benefit the individual groups, Millhone compared the covenant card campaign in two of the cities in the area. (A covenant card is one which if signed indicates that the signer will sell his house to anyone, regardless of race, creed or religion.) "Oak Park conducted an extremely successful covenant card campaign. Farmington's was a bust. This new group will provide information to Farmington's and to other human relations groups, from Oak Park, showing what made their campaign a success."

One of the first things planned by the group is a survey of all political subdivisions in the County, showing the existing status of minority groups in housing, employment, and education.

This new group can do no harm to the cause of civil rights. It may do much good. The Wayne County Human Relations Councils might find it worthwhile to make a similar unity move.

The hopes and best wishes of this paper, of course, go out to the Oakland County Human Relations Council, in the fine cause to which it is dedicated.

Livonia Teacher Wins Medal

For distinguished promotion of the finest citizenship ideals and practices among the hundreds of students her teaching career has affected, Mrs. Sarah Kanter Dick of 31561 Bridge, Garden City, has received the Valley Forge Freedom Foundation Teachers Medal.

Superintendent of Schools Benton Yates presented Mrs. Dick with the medal, one of the highest awards open to deserving Americans, during the Honors Convocation at Franklin High School, June 2.

Mrs. Dick is a teacher and chairman of the Social Studies Department at Franklin. During a decade and a half in education, she has worked with students representing a wide range of physical and mental abilities from kindergarten through college levels.

Her selection was made by an elite committee representing the Freedom Foundation of the Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is chairman of the Foundation, which includes dozens of distinguished Americans in its membership. Mrs. Dick was nominated by co-workers.

Cited in the nomination were a number of areas which reveal her devotion to citizenship. In the classroom she incorporates it as part of the teaching-learning situation not only in factual material but in student behavior. Her classes and those of others, as well as innumerable community groups, have their programs illuminated by carefully selected slide pictures compiled by Mrs. Dick and her husband in their extensive world travels.

United States have been accepted by the United States Information Service for use all over the world. The Dicks themselves have shown pictures, lectured, and answered questions about the American way of life in many places on their itineraries, when they have served as good-will ambassadors for their own country.

A different application of "citizenship" came last year when the Dicks questioned a court procedure which they felt violated their constitutional rights. As a result of that experience they are still working to promote corrective legislation.

Mrs. Dick's husband, Richard, teaches in the Dearborn Public Schools. The couple resides in Garden City.

Plymouth DPW News

By SUPT. JOSEPH BIDA
Plymouth Dept. Public Works

Considerable time was spent mowing and taking care of tasks at the Riverside Cemetery and the Mausoleum was re-cleaned. During the Memorial weekend one private Mausoleum was broken into and the windows were broken in another. Several monuments were tipped over by vandals.

All unpaved streets were cold patched throughout the city.

All parks and playgrounds were mowed and playground equipment was put out and repaired if necessary. Also some park benches that needed repair were painted.

A sanitary sewer was dug up at 1321 Linden. The speaker's platform, that was used in Kellogg Park on Memorial Day, was taken down and stored for use at another time.

A fire hydrant was repaired on Karmada Street back of the High School. Catch basins were cleaned and unplugged through the city.

Work was started on tearing down the comfort station located in the Central Parking Lot. Water was disconnected and equipment was removed.

Fire hydrants were flushed in the Masserman Springdale Subdivision to relieve the rusty water condition that was created when the builder shut the water off to repair a broken line in a new subdivision adjoining this subdivision.

The department worked overtime last Thursday evening when the Aqua Pure Water Company was chlorinating a new water line for the Park Lane Homes on Ford Street and broke a 6" water valve.

This caused citizens located on the north side of Ann Arbor Road from the Detroit Underpinning Company to S. Main Street to be temporarily without water, without notice. This was repaired within a short time by the Department of Public Works.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Danielson celebrate Golden Anniversary.

It's 50th Anniversary For Plymouth Couple

A courtship that started more than 50 years ago and ended in marriage for a young Ohio couple will have its 50th anniversary Sunday in Plymouth's Masonic Temple when Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Danielson, 15801 Haggerty Road, Plymouth, celebrate their Golden Wedding in an Open House from 2 to 5 p.m.

It was 50 years ago that young Danielson worked in a bank in Youngstown, O., just a few miles from her hometown of Girard, O., and it wasn't long thereafter that Lee Danielson and Mary Crowley became man and wife in the home of the Methodist minister in Girard.

And it has been a happy 50 years which saw Lee take a position with the Youngstown Pressed Steel plant, then transfer to the Trumbull Steel Co. in Warren, O., and stay with that firm as it changed names to Republic Iron and Steel Co. and finally Republic Steel Corp.

It was more than 40 years ago that the Danielsons moved to Detroit when he was transferred to the Motor City as a claims agent and to handle contracts. He was still on that job when he retired 10 years ago.

Detroit became a bit crowded for the Danielsons as many as 22 years ago when they purchased the home on Haggerty Road where they have resided since.

Lee is a life member of the Plymouth Rock Blue Lodge Chapter and Consistory and of the Plymouth OES.

Sunday's open house is being put on by their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Danielson of Ann Arbor where he is a member of the University of Michigan faculty.

The post will hold its business meeting on June 16, with annual reports and election of officers.

On June 18, the Post and Auxiliary will host the 17th District Memorial services and annual meeting in the Veterans Memorial Home on Main Street.

Members of the Plymouth Lions Club will be guests at the "Why Are We" banquet and program on Saturday, June 19.

Sympathy of every Auxiliary member goes to Evalynn Gardner upon the recent death of her husband, Hugh Gardner.

At the Redford Township Chamber of Commerce luncheon on Industrial Day of Michigan Week, President of the Tri-City Optimist Club, James Drew, presented Elmer D. Hazelton, Chairman of the Redford Township Boy's Club Advisory Board, a check earmarked to send boys to the Boy's Club summer camp.

In thanking Mr. Drew, Hazelton said, "Now is the time for all others who wish to send a boy to camp to send in their checks to him at 17250 Gaylord so that reservations may be made through the Boy's Club."

A check from Joe Felleger, a member of the Tri-City Optimist Club, was also received for a boy to go to camp.

A Congressman's Workbook

By BILLIE S. FARNUM
Congressman, 19th District

WASHINGTON—Ever think of thick, hearty, piping-hot bean soup—made with Navy beans from Michigan's Thumb district—as a tasty hot-weather dish?

It is a favorite luncheon item here, where the summer temperatures soar to extremes unknown in Michigan. In fact, it gets so hot in Washington that diplomats assigned here are given "hardship" pay by their governments.

Yet even many of these diplomats enjoy a steaming bowl of Michigan bean soup on a steaming day.

The soup—which to be legal must be made from "No. 1 White Michigan Beans"—is the only food served by express order of a Speaker of the House of Representatives in all House restaurants, cafeterias, lunchrooms and carry-out stations.

The late Speaker Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois issued the order over 50 years ago, on a hot day in 1904. No House of Representative chef since has dared to disregard it. "I want it on the menu every day," Cannon thundered when someone forgot to make it. No Speaker since has cancelled the order.

Although the famous bean soup has been widely publicized over the years, a surprising number of visitors to my office and the offices of other Michigan Congressmen have never heard of it.

One of the souvenirs most prized by them is a copy of the recipe—reduced to a portion designed to serve six persons. You start with two pounds of dry beans.

The chef says you cover them with cold water and soak overnight. You drain the beans in the morning, re-cover them with water and add a smoked ham hock. You simmer this slowly for about four hours . . . until the beans "are cooked tender" . . . and then add salt and pepper to taste.

There's a final important point: Just before serving, you should "bruise" the beans with a large spoon—enough to "cloud" the soup.

The House of Representatives chef tells me that in summer the demand falls off to about half of the cold-weather rate—but the famous soup still has to be made by the barrel. Hundreds of Congressmen and Congressional employees order the soup for lunch every single day, the year around.

Of course, Michigan visitors (who always get a warm welcome at my office in the building named for the late Speaker—122 Cannon House Office Building) almost always sample the soup. And, women usually say: "Delicious! How can I get the recipe?"

Why am I writing about soup? Because I'm just a bit weary, and thought of that famous soup is refreshing. I had planned to report on the hearings that my committee, Appropriations, held on financing the Department of Labor, Education and Welfare, and Related Government Agencies.

The hearings took weeks and weeks. We listened to over 300 experts tell why they needed more money to step up education, to improve health, to make this a better nation generally.

One of the largest lake trout ever caught anywhere was landed at Grand Haven in 1864. It weighed 88 pounds.

How Does the Karmann Ghia Owner Feel About His Car?

We asked a doctor and his wife, who bought their Ghia from Greene Motors. This is what they said:

"We just love it! At first we'd quarrel about which of us would drive it—leaving the other with the big, old car. Now we agree that the one with the longest errand gets it."

One errand was in Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. C. says she literally floated on the expressway at 60 miles per hour. (Dr. C. cruises up to 75 m.p.h.) Averaged 32 miles per gallon of gasoline.

"This is the first car I've ever driven of which I feel I have complete control. It's a superb piece of machinery—responds instantly."

"Our Ghia is a cherished part of the family. We named it 'The Little Brown Jug' because, when the cork is pulled, the teenagers pour out! You'd be surprised how many we can carry."

"We believe we're typical Ghia owners—delighted!"

Franklin Cops Baseball Tourney

It was Franklin High all the way in the first annual Livonia Invitational high school baseball tournament.

The South-side Livonians capped their season last Saturday night by blanking Redford Union, 8-0, at Ford Field to become the initial winner in what is certain to become one of the outstanding schoolboy diamond tournaments in Michigan.

While more than 1,000 fans, including scouts from 12 major league teams, watched, Franklin charged to a 3-0 lead in the first inning and remained in command the rest of the way in a true battle of champions.

Franklin had entered the meet fresh from repeating as kings in the Northwest Suburban League. Redford Union copped the undisputed Suburban Six League crown in 1965 after sharing the pennant with Trenton a year ago.

Saturday night's win was the seventeenth in a row for Franklin following losses to Dearborn and Dearborn Edsel Ford in its first two games of the season. Both of the setbacks came in extra-inning games.

Ken Bratherton, a senior left-hander whose work attracted the eyes of many of the scouts, flipped a four-batter against Redford Union to post his seventh victory without a loss for the campaign. In the past two years, Bratherton won 12 and lost one against prep rivals.

Rick Fisher, the ace of the Redford Union staff, deserved a better fate against Franklin in his heralded headon duel with Bratherton.

Miscues paved the way for all the Franklin runs.

But as Losing Coach Bob Atkins declared: "You can't win, if you don't score any runs."

To Franklin as champs went two beautiful trophies. The first cup will remain the permanent property of the school; the second will go to the winning team until one school wins it three times.

Redford Union also was awarded a trophy for reaching the finals in the tourney sponsored jointly by Livonia Recreation Department, the Livonia Optimist Club and the Observer Newspaper.

Tom Genova Jr., chairman of the Livonia Recreation Commission, was on deck after the game to make the trophy presentations as a representative for Livonia Mayor Harvey Moeke, who was out of the city.

Franklin cashed three runs in the first inning, one in the fifth and four more in the seventh. Here's the way the story went:

Sam Antonazzo led off with a single, but he made a wide turn of first and was retired thanks to some alert work by RU catcher Harry Kendrick who slipped in behind the runner and made the tag.

Then after Paul Hartge fanned, Roger Frayer was safe on an error for what should have been the third out. Bennie Carbo walked. Then Mike Stahurski lined a single to left-center and two runs scored when the ball got past the RU outfielder. Neal Thomas followed with a single to make it 3-0.

Fisher stilled down and was in no further trouble until the fifth when his defense again failed.

This time Antonazzo led off by being safe on a wild throw, which enabled him to wind up on second. On Paul Hartge's liner to first, the throw trying to double Antonazzo was wide, and Sam went to third from where he scored when Kendrick's pickoff peg sailed into left field.

A series of miscues marred the seventh inning and helped Franklin count its final four runs.

Antonazzo opened the inning with a single. Frayer also singled with one gone. Then Carbo bounced to second and the shortstop muffed the throw. Stahurski walked, Thomas got a lift on an error, and Gary Birkett singled. (Continued on Next Sports Pg.)

TO THE CHAMPS—Franklin High baseball team gets trophy after winning the first annual Livonia Recreation Commission, makes presentation to Franklin Coach John Hartzig as team members watch.

Raiders Win Over Falcons

North Farmington blanked Farmington, 4-0, in the battle for the Farmington prep baseball title.

Chuck Viane, the strongman of the North Farmington pitching staff, turned in a brilliant three-hit shutout as he struck out 14 rivals and didn't allow a single walk.

Only one Farmington man, John Winder who tripled with two out in the fourth inning, was able to get to third base in the game.

Winder, the losing pitcher, was touched for eight hits with Viane and Bill Oldershaw each slapping out two safeties for the victors.

Viane rapped a single and a double while Oldershaw bagged a single and homer.

The first North Farmington run came without the benefit of a hit in the first inning. Kim DeCourcy walked, went to second on a sacrifice, to third on a passed ball and scored on John Kraft's grounder.

Oldershaw's homer came in the second inning with Viane aboard after a walk. That made the score 3-0.

In the fourth, a single by Kraft and double by Viane ended the scoring.

Loser Winder struck out eight men.

Farmington had a good chance in the second when Mike Perry was hit by a pitch and Bob Lee singled. Then in the fourth Winder unloaded his triple.

The only other Farmington hit was a single off the bat of Carl Misch in the initial inning.

The score by innings: Farmington 000 000 0-3 2 N. Farmington 120 100 0-4 8 0

Winder and Searly, Viane and Kraft.

Faye Reinardy Wins A Flight In Golf Loop

The following were winners at the first meeting of the Women's Golf League, sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation, at Idyl Wyld golf course.

Flight A-Faye Reinardy, flight prize; Theresa Courtney, low score 47.

Flight B-Marilyn Carrothers, flight prize; Audrey Herrmann, low score 58.

Flight C-Florence Goodlesky, flight prize; Shirley Liddecoat, low score 65.

Flight D-Edna Learned, flight prize; Grace Gleaton, low score 70.

Flight E-Joyce McClain, flight prize; Doreen Holmes and Aline LaVier tied for low score 81.

THERE WAS A TROPHY, too, for runnerup Redford Union in the tournament. Recreation Commissioner Tom Genova Jr., presents award to RU Coach Bob Atkins.

Bentley Thinlads Triumph

The orchids went to Don Lare when Bentley high picked its most valuable track athlete for 1965.

The announcement was made after Bentley finished the season by beating Franklin, 68-41, in their annual battle for the Livonia city title.

Lare, who also reigned as Bentley's decathlon champ, was a versatile young man.

In Bentley's final meet, he won the low hurdles to pace a sweep for Bentley. He also was second in the pole vault and ran on the victorious Bentley 880-yard relay team.

Honors from an individual standpoint were well split up in the meet. Nobody won more than one event.

Franklin managed to win three individual events, plus the mile relay.

Here are the complete results:

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

The thought stirs chills within us. It certainly can't be that long . . . nor could we already be that old.

But it's a fact. Here we are wrapping up our thirty-fifth year of chronicling schoolboy sports in the Greater Detroit area.

Running into Ed Hayes at the Broadcaster's weekly luncheon the other afternoon somehow started our memory book flowing.

We were just an eighth grader in junior high—they called 'em intermediate schools in those days—when we bumped into Hayes, then the scholastic sports-writer for the now deceased Detroit Times. Hayes was covering prep hockey at Olympia stadium.

Not long afterward we trekked down to the Times office, hopeful of running into Hayes and seeing if he could provide us with a free pass to see the Tigers play. Eddie wasn't there that day, but the late Bud Shaver asked what we wanted.

"Sure, here's a pass. Have a good time."

From that day on our visits to the Times became more frequent. We got a chance to write a paragraph or two about old Hutchins winning in a soccer game. The story appeared as written . . . and a career had become.

From Hutchins we went on to Detroit Northern and served as the Times' correspondent when we attended the tenth grade. But when illness struck in the family of the late Vic Packman, we started to write about all the Detroit Public School League teams. From one para-

$1,400 Top Prize Goes to Winner of Pin Tourney

Although the entry fell short of the 1,000 total required to assure a top prize of $2,500, the team of Eileen and Morris Fackler, of 30518 Sheridan, Garden City, will receive $1,400 for their 1388 score that topped the third annual Observer Newspapers Merri-Bowl Lanes mixed doubles tournament.

That was the announcement of Tournament Director Mac Goldman as he listed the prizes for the top 20 duos and indicated the complete prize list will be available in another week.

The tournament guaranteed a top award of $1,000 with a provision that it could go as high as $2,500 if the entries totaled 1,000 or more.

"We fell a bit short of the 1,000," said Goldman, "but the 974 is the largest in the three years and we feel sure that we can guarantee a $2,500 first prize in another year. After checking the entries and the amount available in the prize pot, we boosted the top award to $1,400; second prize to $700 and third to $400. We will have the complete prize list in the mail early next week and the names of all winners will be announced in next week's Observer Newspapers."

The $1,400 first prize is a boost of $400 from the guaranteed $1,000. Second is $200 more than the guaranteed $500 and third is up $50 from the guaranteed $350.

The complete list of the top 10 prize winners:

Eileen and Morris Fackler, Garden City, 1388—$1,400; Helen Shablis and Tom Mratsich, of Detroit, 1346—$700; Cleo and Richard Walters, Dearborn, 1332—$400; Mildred Serman and James Thomas, Detroit, 1319—$125; Ann Amth and Bob Livernois, Dearborn, 1318—$75; Shirley Kothe, Taylor and Roger Brandon, Detroit, 1317—$60; Joanne and Patrick Smythe, Warren, 1314—$50; Dorothy and Jack Harrison, Livonia, 1308—$40; and Mary Nagy, Detroit, and Terry Bradley, Detroit, 1300—$32.50; Dorothy and Roy Stewart, Wyandotte, 1300—$32.50.

Prep Stars To March In Graduation Parades

Graduation bells ring for thousands of high school students within the next two weeks.

The list of those who'll receive diplomas includes hundreds of young men who during the last three and four years not only started in the classroom, but they also made names for themselves as athletes.

The Observer Newspapers here with salutes many of the graduating senior sports stars, who distinguished themselves in more than one activity as they gathered in multiple letters as part of their rewards.

Needless to say, these were just some of the young men who thrilled thousands of fans who turned out to watch football, basketball, baseball, tracks, wrestling, swimming, golf, tennis, gymnastics and cross country.

It took something extra to compete on varsity and reserve teams. Athletes get no reprieves from attending classes or from school work.

Practice never is easy. There's also the matter of keeping in shape. That's something a boy must do the year around.

Athletes often have to sacrifice their outside activities . . . like dates and dancing.

Of the 12 schools "covered" by the Observer newspapers, only Garden City West will escape graduate losses. That's because West will not have its first twelfth grade until the 1965-66 school year.

Here are the standouts who'll be graduating:

FARMINGTON

Three-sport great Dick Johnston leads the seniors. He won three letters each in football and baseball and two in wrestling. Roy Leach (football and baseball) is leaving. So are Terry Nielsen and Carl Misch, who performed in the same two sports.

Bill Crane, a two-year man in football and a track standout, has wrapped up his prep career, along with Gary Lockwood and Gary Schulz, both of whom won honors in cross country and track.

OUR LADY OF SORROWS

Mike Bars, a great in football, basketball and track, will say his "good-byes" and head on to the University of Notre Dame. Miles Kearney, a three-sport ace in football, basketball and baseball, also is set to receive his diploma.

Other seniors: Dennis Connolly (football and track), Jim Brennan football and track, Dick Corte (football, wrestling and track), Tony Stencil (football and baseball), Dave Sutton (football and golf), Brian Benner (basketball and baseball) and Jerry Wroblewski (football and wrestling).

THURSTON
Jerry Stostack has ended a spectacular high school sports career. He stood out on football, wrestling and track and will next be heard from, athletically speaking, at Michigan State University.

Rick Stefani also distinguished himself in three sports—football, track and basketball. Another three-sport giant was Terry Rothwell, who went from football to basketball to baseball.

Pete Marsalese (football and wrestling), John Page (football and basketball), Don Bristol (cross country and track), Mike Shaner, football and track, and Mike McCreevey (wrestling), also have completed their prep-sports days.

ST. AGATHA
Rick Collins, a ten-letter winner with four in baseball, three in basketball, has finished his high school days.

Mike Roemer and Jim Roose, who also won all-league honors, in two or more sports, await graduations along with Phil Davidson (football and basketball), Ron Zimmerman (football and basketball) and Gregory Peck, the great football back. Peck is set to enter Northern Michigan in the fall.

NORTH FARMINGTON

Graduation hits hard at North Farmington with the No. 1 man on the list being Andy Lawing, who was proclaimed the winner of the Raider Cup, annually presented to the senior who excels both in scholarship and athletics, along with citizenship.

Andy leaves North Farmington with 12 letters. He won four each in football, basketball and track.

Others, who will parade in the same graduating line with Lawing:

Observing Sports

graph, our stories grew to ten an 12 'graphs . . . and sometimes much longer.

Often there were big headlines and frequently we had several stories in a single day's issue.

Time marched on . . . and it was off to Michigan State. There we wrote about the Spartans and continued to "cover" the state prep beat, although our efforts originated in Lansing, instead of Detroit.

From Michigan State it was back to Detroit and a fulltime job with the Times . . . an assignment interrupted only when World War II carried us off to places like Abilene, Texas; Coffeyville, Kansas; London, England, and Paris, France.

The war ended and it was back to Detroit and The Times and the prep beat. When the Times died, we were able to continue writing about the schoolboys here on the Observer newspapers and after three decades and five years our enthusiasm remains as high as ever.

The school boy sports scene has—and hasn't changed—in those 35 years.

The facilities with which the preps are blessed these days are a far cry from what we remember back in the '30's. Few schools then had decent gyms. There were no lighted fields for football.

The equipment made available to athletes was bulky compared to the present materials. Nor were they as safe.

Schools hired fewer coaches . . . and the coaches themselves probably weren't as learned as the mentors are today. The coaching schools in the '30's were far and few between.

The prep athlete of the '30's wasn't as robust or as tall as his modern counterpart.

If a high school basketball team boasted one six-footer, the coach jumped with joy. The center who stood 6-3 was a rare creature in the '30's. Today of course, few prep centers stand under 6-5.

The 200-pounders in football were on the short side, too, in the '30's.

Unquestionably, modern food, medicine, etc., have had a great deal to do in making all of us bigger and we trust, stronger.

Notwithstanding these physical differences, the preps of the '30's and '60's match up in many ways. The kids in the earlier era had the same eagerness to play—and study.

School rivalries were just as intense. The athletes aspired then—as now—to make all-city, all-league, all-state and earn scholarships to colleges.

The prep coach continues to be a workhorse, devoting extra hours as he acts as a teacher, father and even a "doctor."

Oh, yes, back in the '30's the coeds cheered and shrieked, but we'll have to confess that to these "aging" eyes, the girls of today are a far more attractive sight to behold. There's something about the dresses and the hairdos of the '60's which put to shame the styles of 35 years ago.

In looking back, the preps of the '30's weren't as coddled by their parents as the teenagers are today.

We legged it to school on our own feet, not via a car or bus.

The distractions away from school were far less in the '30's. Few teenagers drove their own autos. Television didn't exist.

But we did have Eastwood Park and Glenn Miller!

The first staging of the Livonia Invitational baseball tournament proved a smash success.

All nine teams which competed went away happy with the chance afforded them to play. That even held true for the losers.

The tourney will expand in 1966. Both Garden City East and West will be invited and it is expected that St. Agatha will be able to arrange its schedule so that the Parish school can enter.

Many people rate bouquets for making the meet a success.

People like Les Anders and Al Roscoe, along with Tommy Thompson and John Dufour. Orchids to all the coaches and to the players.

A special salute, of course, goes in the direction of Champion Franklin High and to runnerup Redford Union.

The calibre of baseball played by area teams also deserves a nod. It's pretty good, our baseball, judging by the number of major league scouts who showed up game after game . . . and in particular last Saturday night.

Franklin

Redford Union was unable to put together a major threat until the seventh inning.

Ernie Bourassa singled in the second but was forced. Jim Johnston walked with two out in the third. Kendrick started the fourth with a single, but made little progress.

It was the same for Randy Maltby, who walked to open the fifth.

In the sixth Kendrick singled with one out, but the next two men fanned as Bratherton ran his strikeout total to nine for the game.

RU's best chance came in the seventh. Cary DeLoye singled leading off. After Maltby flew to center, Fisher was safe on an error and Rick Birberick walked to fill the bases.

Then Bratherton forced Johnston to rap into a game-ended double play.

Third-place honors into the tourney went to Plymouth, which won a 2-1 thriller over Clarenceville in a ten-inning duel.

A walk to Bob Gotro, followed by Marlin Sutton's triple knocked in the winning run after Sutton's catching predecessor, Stribley, had homered in the sixth inning to bring his team even.

An error putting Fred Neil aboard and a single by Tim Spencer helped to give Clarenceville its lone run in the third inning.

The victory went to John Daniels, who worked the final seven inning and allowed only one hit.

Gail Armstrong worked for Clarenceville until the seventh when Jim Shiwa came in and finished up.

Plymouth was held to four hits, Clarenceville three.

The line scores of Saturday's games:

Franklin 300 010 4-8 7 3
RU 000 000 0-0 4 5
Bratherton and Stahurski, Fisher and Kendrick.
Plymouth 000 001 000 1-2 4 2
Clarenceville 001 000 000 0-1 3 2

Higgs, Daniels and Stribley, Sutton; Armstrong, Skiwa and Neil.

Now for what happened in Friday's semi-finals:

Registers No-Hitter

Rick Barryman, senior right-hander, came within one walk of a perfect game as Redford Union blanked Clarenceville, 6-0, in one of the semifinals.

Barryman set down the first 17 men in order until pinch-hitter Mike Luka received a base on balls in the sixth inning with two gone.

Then Barryman, who has finished every game he has started this season, got the next four men to wind up with a no-hit gem.

He struck out 11 Clarenceville batters and received perfect support from his mates in the field.

Redford Union jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the first inning against Clarenceville ace Danny Freels. Singles by Jimmy Johnston, Cary DeLoye and Rick Fisher did the damage. The latter's blow knocked in the two tallies.

In the third inning, DeLoye singled and all hands were safe when Russ Pulju's sacrifice bunt was muffed. Ernie Bourassa and Harry Kendrick followed with singles to up the Redford Union lead to 4-0.

In the fourth Barryman himself started a two-run rally when he was safe on a fielder's choice. After Jim Birberick and Johnston were walked to load the bases, Pulju came through with a single to knock over Barryman and Birberick to finish the game's scoring.

Rocks Blanked

A 7-0 win over Plymouth High not only ran Franklin high's victory streak to 16 in a row, but put the Livonians in the finals of the Prep Invitational.

Tom Cannon and Larry Rozsas combined to hold the Rocks to just one hit in the game limited to 4½ innings under tourney rules when play is suspended

Sandlot Leagues Expand

Class D baseball for high school-aged boys will be bigger than ever in the Greater Livonia area this season.

Two eight-team leagues were to have begun action Tuesday with games scheduled for each Tuesday and Thursday until August.

In between times — on Wednesdays and Fridays—six of the teams will take part in the Livonia division of the Detroit Free Press' state-wide teenage baseball program.

"We're delighted by the interest this summer," said Al Roscoe of Livonia's Recreation department who will guide the program.

Here's how the two Class D leagues are set up:

AMERICAN — North Redford, Wayne Monarchs, Livonia Elks, Livonia Giants, Plymouth Optimists, South Dearborn No. 1, Northville and Inkster.

NATIONAL — South Redford, Livonia Bisons, Livonia DRC, Wayne Red Sox, North Nankin, Plymouth Elks, South Dearborn No. 2, North Dearborn Heights.

In the Free Press loop, Livonia DRC and Livonia Giants will match pitches with South Redford, Wayne Red Sox, South Dearborn and North Dearborn.

Roscoe explains how the Class D honors will be settled this year.

"The two divisional winners will qualify directly for the state Connie Mack tourney," said Roscoe.

"Then we will have the other teams in each division playoff with the two winners then facing in a best-of-three series. The winner of the playoff series will go into the Michigan Recreation Association meet, the loser in the Intercities."

As for the Free Press program, the Livonia area champion will qualify directly to the state finals at Ann Arbor in early August.

The state winner will go directly to the Nationals in Johnstown, Pa., instead of first having to play the Detroit champ for the overall Michigan crown.

Perry Deakin again is in charge of the Free Press program for the state, with Roscoe supervising the Livonia area.

"We'll play Class D and Free Press games four nights a week under the lights at Ford Field on Farmington Road," Roscoe said. "We think the fans will appreciate this fine brand of amateur baseball in which many of the top high school and college players will perform."

Wednesday's Free Press schedule will pit the Red Sox against the Livonia Giants at 6:15 p.m. at Ford Field with South Redford meeting North Dearborn under the lights at 8:30. DRC will face South Dearborn at Perrin Field at 6 p.m.

In Friday's games, the Giants faces South Dearborn at 6:15 and Red Sox take on Redford at 8:30 at Ford Field while DRC engages North Dearborn at Perrin Field at 6 p.m.

Ford Field lists the DRC vs. Bisons at 6:15 and Giants vs. Elks at 8:30. South Redford will meet North Nankin at Nankin Mills, the Plymouth Optimists at Wayne and the Red Sox against the Plymouth Elks at Riverside Park.

Sorrows' Coach To Drop Track

Bud Webster has announced Our Lady of Sorrows high school will have a new track coach next year.

Webster will continue to direct the Sorrows' football team, but isn't decided who will take over in track. The other coaching positions will remain unchanged, according to Webster.

ed before the full seven innings when one team is in front by seven or more runs.

Cannon, who worked four innings and struck out six, yielded the lone Plymouth hit to Jim Lake. Russzas whiffed two of the three men he faced.

Franklin scored in the first inning when Sam Antonazzo was safe on an error. He stole second and third and counted on a wildthrow.

In the second inning Franklin cashed three runs. Mike Stahurski beat out an infield hit. Neal Thomas and Ron Ross walked to load the bases.

Antonazzo lashed a single to knock in two runs and the third tally registered when Paul Hartge bounced out.

In the third, walks to Stahurski and Thomas and a single by Ross loaded the bases. One run counted when Cannon was safe on a fielder's choice.

Antonazzo walked to fill the bases. Then Hartge singled and Gary Birkett walked to complete the Franklin run production for the evening.

Thurston Golfers 1st In Tourney

Thurston high's golf team carried off low honors in the annual Northwest Suburban League medal tournament at Burroughs Golf Club near Brighton.

Despite a 333 total, two less than runnerup Birmingham Groves, Thurston still had to settle for second place in the overall competition for the league crown in which dual meets also figured.

Groves took the title with 8½ points to Thurston's 8¼. North Farmington and Franklin tied for third place.

John Jakubik shot an 80 to pace Thurston at Burroughs. Dave Liblanc fired an 82, Al Bass 84 and John Schultz 87.

Individual honors went to Franklin's Dave Bivins with a 75.

North Farmington and Franklin each totalled 342 shots in the meet.

Season for East 9 Ends with 2 Wins

The baseball season ended on a happy note for Garden City East high school.

Although failing to repeat as Mid-Wayne League champs, East wrapped up the season in third place, just behind co-champs, Inkster and Riverview.

A slow start ruined East's chances of finishing on top. But on the final day of the season, East whipped Taylor Center in a doubleheader, 8-4 and 10-1.

Fine relief pitching by Norm Vasquez produced the victory in the opener while Joe Pomykacz turned in a two-hitter and fanned nine in the nightcap.

With the score in the first game tied at 3-3, East broke loose with four runs in the third inning. Walks by Ron Goutlet and Dave Ventura and a single by Pomykacz jammed the bases. Bill Mood unloaded a double to chase in three mates and then Mood came home when Stan Wieckowski singled.

In the fourth a homer by Don Chute finished the scoring for East and the eight runs proved more than enough for Vasquez. Ventura and Shute each had two hits for the winners. So did Mark Simpson.

Pomykacz was on the verge of a no-hit verdict until he was touched for a single in the sixth inning of the second game. The other Taylor safety came in the seventh.

As in the first game, East forged across four runs in the third inning.

Wieckowski started with a single. After Simpson sacrificed, Chute, Goutlet, Ventura and Pomykacz all unloaded singles.

East added four more runs in the fourth inning. Al Kamiencki started this bombardment with a single. Simpson singled, Chute doubled, Goutlet singled, Ventura singled and Pomykacz doubled before the final out was made.

BRET HANOVER, the spectacular, unbeaten three-year-old Adios colt, is all alone as he crosses the finish line for his 28th straight victory while winning the Matron Stake at Wolverine Raceway. Bret won't soon be forgotten by track officials—he cost them $10,358 in a minus pool.

The Bret Costs Track $10,358 In Minus Pool

Bret Hanover, the three-year-old Adios colt, showed Detroit and Livonia area harness racing fans why he's the "wonder horse" of 1965 by rolling to his 28th straight victory at Wolverine Raceway Thursday in the $21,343 Matron Stake.

The triumph enabled Bret to tie the modern record for consecutive victories set by Torpid in 1957.

It will be a long time before fans will forget the three-year-old who looks like he's too tired to pace in the parade to the post and then becomes the fastest and best pacer in the business once the race starts.

Wolverine Raceway officials probably never will forget Bret—he attracted 6,560 who wagered an all-time high of $85,465 on the race. This included $16,545 to win and $68,920 to place. Of that Bret had $11,802 to win and $62,284 to place with the result the track had to shell out $10,358 for the largest minus pool in Michigan history.

Then with Bret, the Grand Circuit and the HTA out of the way, Wolverine officials are preparing for the renewal of the Motor City Pace Thursday that is expected to have as many as 13 starters—which will require two eliminations heats after which the top five finishers in each will come back for the championship finale.

Bret Hanover didn't waste any time with his field of five challengers, taking the lead on the first turn and staying there all the way. He turned the first half in 1:03.1 and then toured the final lap in a quick 59.3 seconds. He wound up six lengths in front of second place Adican in 2:02.2, fastest mile of the meeting of time that time.

Argo Kid and Dartmouth staged a thrilling duel in Friday's HTA trot for four-year-olds with the former having the most in the stretch to win by a length in 2:02.1.

Argo Kid, from the Ohio Valley farm in Hamilton, O., and Dartmouth, who carries the colors of Castleton Farm staged a head and head duel for the first three-quarters of the mile before the latter, making his first start of the year, tired.

Speedy Rodney was moving fastest of all in the stretch, but broke gait just as he reached the leaders and had to be content with a third place finish.

The Big Bear, a two-year-old Gene Abbe Colt, became the first Michigan owned and bred to win the $16,325 Geers Stake when he held off the belated challenge of Bueno Tiempo, from the R. D. Ricketts stable of Houston, Texas, to win by a neck in 2:09.03.

The Big Bear, owned by Jack Stahl of Detroit and driven by Wally McMurray, closed fast in the stretch to take the lead after going the overland route in the final half and just did have enough to hold off Bueno Tiempo, to win the 31st renewal of the historic Grand Circuit stake.

Egyptian Candor, a three-year-old Star's Pride colt from the Stan Dancer barn, turned his first 1965 start into an easy victory in the $24,998 Matron Stake for three-year-old trotters.

With Dancer in the sulky, Candor trotted to the lead from the starting gate and never slowed down once in the entire mile, winning in 2:06.3 over a good track.

Suspension, a Florian colt owned by A. D. Knapp of Jackson, Mich., finished second and Intent Way, the Kimberly Kid speedster from the George Sholty stable, was third.

Carlisle, a two-year-old Hickory Pride colt from the Billy Haughton barn, trotted to an easy winner in the $13,150 Tompkins Memorial trot that was one of the features of Grand Circuit week.

With Haughton driving, Carlisle was held in the fourth spot for the first half and then scooted past the leading Argo Leo to open up three lengths and went under the wire with a length and a half to spare over the same horse.

Carlisle won in 2:10.2 with Del Cameron's Bonus Boy taking second when Argo Kid disqualified and moved back to third for a lapped-on break at the wire.

Breaking loose for his best driving performance of the year, Joe Marsh Jr., the youthful Findlay, O., reinsman who won the 1964 driving championship at Wolverine Raceway, thrilled a crowd of 9,961 Saturday when he had four winners and just missed getting a fifth.

The handle was $540,773 as Wolverine maintained its record making and boosted its nightly average to an all-time high of $433,430 for the 43 nights, an increase of 8.9 per cent over the $379,900 for the same period a year ago.

Wolverine has handled $18,637,492 this far.

Attendance is up 7.3 per cent over 1964 with a nightly average of 6,589 and a total of 283,317 for the 43 nights.

Marsh started his streak in the opening race when he guided Grand Ripple Might ($3.60) to an easy victory and started a daily double worth $9, lowest of the meeting.

He came back with Monticello ($6.80) in the $6,000 Open Pace in the time of 2:02, fastest of the meeting and then had Amosson's Elsie ($8.40) and Chico Wilson ($15.60).

Marsh just missed making it five for the night when Mike's Mahlon was nipped in the finale by Diamond Lew in 2:04.2.

It was the finest performance of a driver for the meeting and boosted Marsh into a tie with Chris Boring for the most wins with a total of 26.

Festival of Shevuot Observed in Synagogues

The Jewish festival of Shevuot, also known as the Feast of Weeks or Pentecost, was commemorated last Sunday in services at both the Temple Beth Am and the Livonia Jewish Congregation.

Shevuot is celebrated for one day by Reform Jews and those living in Israel, and for two days by Orthodox and Conservative Jews.

One of the most colorful holidays of the Jewish calendar, Shevuot marks the handing down of the Ten Commandments to Moses on Mount Sinai. In Biblical times, the holiday was an agricultural festival, celebrating both the wheat harvest and the appearance of the first fruits following the spring planting.

The term Pentecost is used because the festival is observed on the fiftieth day following the first day of Passover.

The most significant aspect of Shevuot is that it is the Festival of Revelation, denoting the time when Israel entered into an eternal covenant with God at Mount Sinai. The freedom which the Israelites had gained on Passover would have been meaningless, had it not been nourished by the divine law which they received.

It is this law, which has since been the basis of all law for Israel, and the moral code of the western world.

Shevuot is also associated with the Book of Ruth, with its rural setting and story of a woman who voluntarily converted to the Jewish faith.

Ruth's decision to adopt the faith of her husband was phrased in words that have become historic. She told her husband's mother, Naomi:

"Whither thou goest, I will go; Where thou lodgest, I will lodge; Thy people shall be my people And Thy God, my God."

This biblical tale is read during the synagogue service celebrating the day.

The festival enjoys even additional importance, since it marks the time of religious dedication for boys and girls who have completed their elementary religious education.

The Confirmation Service, which takes place at the conclusion of the tenth grade of Religious School, has been incorporated as part of the Shevuot Festival Service.

Thus at the Temple Beth Am Shevuot Service Rabbi David Jessel confirmed two students of the Religious School, Naomi Seedberg and Douglas Rosen-garten. No students were confirmed at the Livonia Jewish Congregation.

It was in Germany in 1831 that the ceremony of Confirmation originated among Jews. When first introduced by Reform Jewish leaders into America, it was bitterly contested. Now, however, the ceremony is observed by Orthodox and Conservative congregations as well as Reform Jews.

Confirmation Class

On Sunday June 6, the following young people were confirmed at Timothy Lutheran Church, Livonia: Patricia Blackney; Sherry Bromley; Larry Frazier; Patricia Keller; Susan Koppen; Marsha Lucas; David Manchester; Margaret Peters; Linda Schaller; Pamela Schilling; Linda Stephens; Beth Wietmann; Susan Wilson.

BREAKING GROUND for the new $400,000 church and educational unit of Calvary Baptist Church is Rev. P. J. Clifford, who is shown turning the first shovelfull of dirt. The new church will be erected on a 9½ acre site at 43065 Joy Road in Plymouth. Members of the Building Committee watch Rev. Clifford and include (from left) Chairman Ralph Alloway, Ray Flanagan, DeLoey Kelly, William Hogg Sr., Melbourne Sattler, Jack Stout, Floyd Fisher Sr. and Kenneth Evans, Sr. The target date for completion is January 1966. The new facilities will have a capacity of 700 at church services and 1,000 for Sunday School.

WSU Student To Describe Life in Congo

John Felix Koli, a Wayne State University student from Lisale, Congo, will speak at the Newburg Methodist Church on June 10 at 8 p.m.

He is president of the African Students Union of Detroit, chairman of United Nations Week at Wayne, and editor of the Michigan Newsletter of the Federation of International Students.

In addition to teaching French at the Northwest School of Music, he has put on programs about life in the Congo at the Children's Museum.

Koli will speak about religion in the Congo, the historical and cultural background of his country and show slides of native Africa.

Elwyn Slocum, the leader, and the speaker, Glenn Wadlington, were members of the 1964 team. Members of the singing quartette are: Edward LaDrew; David Reid; Stephen Hutchison; and Ronald Heinlen.

The community is invited to the service. North Farmington Baptist Church is located on West 13 Mile Rd.

Pentecost Feast

Pentecost or Whitsunday is observed by Christians on the seventh Sunday after Easter or 50 days following the feast of Christ's Resurrection.

The feast, which commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit on the 12 apostles, in all probability originates to some extent in the ancient Hebrew holiday of Shevuot according to Rabbi David Jessel of Temple Beth Am.

Scripture relates that the apostles lost their fear following the descent of the Holy Ghost and became true "soldiers" of Christ. They went out and preached to all men instead of hiding behind "locked doors."

Christians believe that Confirmation gives one the grace to become "a soldier of Christ." Note the many confirmations in the area during this period of time.

To Attend Meeting

The Rev. W. F. Whittlede, pastor of St. Paul's United Presbyterian Church in Livonia, will attend the 131st meeting of the Synod of Michigan, The United Presbyterian Church in the U. S. Art Institute Summer Workshop Opens July 6

A summer art workshop for young people under the sponsorship of the Detroit Institute of Arts will be held July 6 through August 13 at the Farmington Senior High School. Enrollment is now open.

The classes, which are under the direction of the Institute's Education Department, are open to students in grades one through 12.

The Farmington classes will meet on Tuesday and Wednesdays with grades one and two meeting Tuesday from 10 to 11:30 a.m. and grades three and four meeting from 1 to 2:30 p.m. on Tuesday.

Wednesday morning from 10 a.m. to 12 noon students in the fifth and sixth grades will meet. Grades seven to 12 will meet Wednesday afternoons from 1 to 3 p.m.

Guided by instructors who are actively involved in the arts, students will be encouraged to work in a variety of materials for a wide range of expression. Paint, clay, paper collage, chalk and experimental materials are employed in workshop sessions.

To stimulate development of good design and color, instructors will introduce the students to original works of art through slides and reproductions.

Prompt enrollment and payment of the nominal materials fee is recommended, because class size is limited and the popularity of classes increases with each session.

A descriptive brochure and information on the Art Workshops for Young People may be obtained from the Education Department, Detroit Institute of Arts, 831-0360.

LOCAL MUSIC MAN, right, Jon Smith, son of "Music Man," gives a music lesson in the of James Smith of 33648 Cindy, Garden City. "think system." as Professor Harold Hill in the Livonia Public School's summer workshop musical production to Mark Burke, son of Carl Burke, of 11035 Auburndale, Livonia.

Livonia Slates Summer Musical

"Music Man" will become Livonia's first all-city musical this summer when Livonia Public Schools offers its first summer dramatics workshop.

Sponsored by two Franklin High teachers, David Hirvela, member of the English department and speech teacher, and Roy Ernst, band and orchestra director, the musical will feature some 78 students from the Livonia High Schools and Junior High Schools.

Auditions were conducted in May for membership in the workshop and parts in the cast of the play. The production of "Music Man" will be the main purpose of the workshop. Offering the nearest thing to a summer theater for novice performers, there will be no tests, no grades, and no books.

"Music Man" will star Jon Smith, son of James Smith, of 33648 Cindy, Garden City, a student at Franklin, as Harold Hill, the male lead.

The play is the story of a "con-man" salesman who convinces people of River City that they have problems. His trick is to sell band instruments and uniforms, and then leave town when they arrive.

Performances will be given on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, July 29-31, and Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, August 5-7. Rehearsals will be conducted during the workshop from June 21 to August 6, from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

Memorable songs from the play are "76 Trombones," "Till There Was You," and "Lida Rose."

Social Whirl Hits Western Golf Club

It's Invitational Week at Western Golf and Country Club, and a busy schedule of activities, dances, stag dinners, and parties are on tap for members and guests.

The annual golf tournament, with 96 top amateur teams competing for prizes in six flights, will occupy the spot light for four days, Thursday through Sunday, June 10-13, but there are plenty of other activities for non-golfers.

On Thursday night, June 10, the traditional Invitational Dance will feature the music of the Billy May Band and all contestants, wives, and guests are invited for cocktails, dinner, and dancing. An attendance of approximately 300 is anticipated.

Friday night is 'Stag Night,' with Manager George Georgeon of Western planning a gigantic outdoor Lobster Cook-out with New England delicacies flown in specially for the affair. All tournament contestants are guests of the club for this particular gourmet's party.

On Saturday night, an informal dinner-dance, with music furnished by the Clark Williams Trio, will wind up the social activities for the big Invitational weekend. Again, all contestants, members, and guests are invited.

With the tournament finals set for Sunday afternoon, and the official awarding of prizes immediately after the matches, the weekend winds up as the golfers head to their homes around the state and to even more distant points.

Chairman for the Invitational Week is Ted Panaretos, and his committee is composed of Bud Stevens and Gene Acey. Panaretos is one of the defending champions in the tournament, having teamed with Mike Jiaros of Chicago to win the Championship Flight honors in 1964.

Teachers at Art Workshop

Fifty teachers from South Redford public schools are attending an art workshop this week at Fisher School.

A free educational service provided by Binney & Smith Inc., manufacturers of school art supplies, the workshop is being conducted by Mrs. Betty Ohlrogge Dabbs, who has taught extensively and holds a master's degree from Indiana University.

The teachers will devote 15 hours of their own time learning about modern creative art education and some of its materials and tools. They will "learn by doing"—the theme of the workshop. Rolling up their sleeves, they will try out the techniques presented by Mrs. Dabbs.

These techniques will include some of the uses of crayons, water colors, poster paints, finger paints, colored chalks, and modeling clay. Simple craft techniques will also be shown, giving teachers an opportunity to work with paper, paste and other materials to gain three-dimensional effects. All of the art workshop activities will be experiences which the teachers can relate to their own classroom teaching.

School officials responsible for the workshop arrangements, in addition to Superintendent Roe, include elementary art supervisor Joyce McDaniel, Mr. Chester Wachowski, and Mrs. Florence A. Stoltz.

"Art Unique" Show Slated This Weekend

"Art Unique" is the theme of the first art show to be held at the Westland Art Studio and sponsored by Mrs. Eleanor Miller, a well known art teacher in the area.

The show, which is free to the public, is scheduled June 11 through 13 from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. The Westland Art Studio is located on West Six Mile Rd. west of Telegraph.

The show is Unique, as it is designed to please all tastes in art. The works of at least 75 of Mrs. Miller's pupils, done in oils, pastels and charcoals will be on display and for sale along with the works of prominent guest artists.

Weather permitting, it will be both an out-door and in-door exhibit. Several artists will be painting out-doors to give the public an idea of different painting styles and techniques.

Betty Baldwin is coordinator of the show.

An original oil painting by Eleanor Miller will be awarded to one person attending the show. Mrs. Miller is known to many in the area for her landscape paintings.

Recent work done by Mrs. Miller can be seen at Fair Lane in Dearborn.

Franklin Auto Mechanics In Competition

Franklin High School will enter a team in the Detroit Plymouth Trouble Shooting contest, it was announced today by William Jennins, industrial education teacher.

The contest, which will be held Tuesday, June 8 at Henry Ford Community College, is expected to attract teams from 35 schools in this area. They will be competing for valuable prizes and trophies. The top award to the winning team will be an all-expense trip to Detroit as guests of Chrysler-Plymouth Division of Chrysler Motors Corporation to compete in the 1965 National Finals June 21, 22 and 23. There, the local winners will compete against the outstanding young auto mechanics in the nation for more prizes, which include $16,700 in scholarships with which the students can continue their technical training.

A distinctive kind of competition, the Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest is a program rewarding the speed and skill with which students, competing in teams of two against other teams, locate, diagnose and repair a series of mechanical malfunctions deliberately concealed under the hood of a new car. Malfunctions are identical in all the contest cars.

The school's entry will be sponsored by B. J. Ratigan C-P, Inc.

'CURTAIN GOING UP'

The dying art of showmanship is being given a real "kick in the pants" locally by the Livonia counterpart of Mr. Joe Levine zesty Bill Marcus, manager at the Terrace Theater.

Joe Levine, as you will recall, has been held in great esteem by Old Wally as his mentor. Levine, more than anyone, has been able to plan a masterful campaign for a film and create public desire in massive quantities.

Marcus arrived on the Livonia scene three months ago at the Terrace. Believe me, the place hasn't been the same since. And if the months ahead cast any prophetic shadow, you can safely wager the showmanship techniques will continue.

Bill called the other day to announce enthusiastically that James Bread from the Bond baking company was coming back by popular demand for a return engagement in his theater lobby. More lucky ladies will receive a free loaf of bread from this handsome, smiling radio-TV duplicate of James Bond. Kiddies will get badges and rings.

James Bread will be in front of his mountain of bread June 12 and 13 during the third week of the Bond blockbusters. Old Wally strongly advises you to see these two pictures even if you have a full bread-box at home.

Real, live monsters are coming to the stage of the Terrace on July 17-18. A contest for the "young in heart" will be announced in next week's Observer to discover if you would like to appear on stage with a live monster and do the "frug" or "twist" with them. It's obvious there appears to be no end to the exciting zany events coming to Livonia's liveliest, loveliest place of entertainment, the Terrace Theater.

Father's Day's June 20 is going to be a special day for all Terrace Theater male patrons that have said "I do" and presently the joyful noise of a family. Bill would like to honor these stalwart gentlemen. He will have a cigar for each Dad. In addition, he would like to find the youngest father, the OLDEST father, and THE FATHER WITH THE MOST CHILDREN. He has a list of valuable prizes waiting for fathers that win in each of these categories.

Father's Day (June 20) will be here quite quickly. For this reason, Mr. Marcus has asked Old Wally in the Observer office to handle the cards or letters that you will send to nominate fathers for these three honors: the YOUNGEST, OLDEST, AND MOST CHILDREN LIVING WITH THEIR FATHER.

Send your letter or card with the father's name, address, and phone number to Wally Roberts, Father Contest, Observer, 3305 Five Mile Rd., Livonia, Mich. If you'd like to give a few details as to why you think he should win, we would appreciate such information. You can take your letter into the Terrace Theater also if you

Meanwhile out at the legitimate theater ranch, the stage hands are getting restless. The Fisher theater has opened "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" . . . for a second visit. The production is still as melodic, bouncy, and satisfying as it was the first time around. Too bad it's only going to stay with us for two weeks.

Harry Belafonte, the next attraction, is crowding this Pulitzer Prize musical out of the usual four week booking time. Belafonte fans should be warned to purchase their tickets early. The Fisher really sells out when this gentleman makes an appearance.

Birmingham Girl Causes Accident In Farmington
Three people were taken to Beaumont Hospital, on Friday, May 21, after an accident in Farmington Township.

The accident occurred when a 16 year old Birmingham girl, traveling the wrong way on Northwestern at Stonewood drove into the right side of a car driven by a 46 year old Milford, Michigan man, Manuel Richard Hernandez.

Riding with the Birmingham girl was a 15 year old girl, also from Birmingham.

The driver, who is required to wear glasses while she is behind the wheel, says that when she discovered that she was going the wrong way in a one way lane, made a u-turn — right into the path of Hernandez's car which was headed northwest, in the proper lane.

Drama Festival Rehearsals Open

The American Drama Festival, which opened last summer at Greenfield Village presenting live theatrical productions, will begin rehearsals June 14 for its 1965 summer season.

The theatrical season will run from July 9 through Sept. 6.

Recreating many of the existing and historical moments of theater on the American scene, Greenfield Village's repertory group is under the direction of Ted Payne, a member of the education department staff.

In its first season, the Drama Festival presented an American drama on the plight of the Indian, "Metamora," and also "Our American Cousin." It was during a performance of the latter play that President Abraham Lincoln was assassinated 100 years ago.

Three plays are scheduled this summer in the Henry Ford Museum Theater.

"Fashion" is the first play of the trio. It is a comical satire aimed at the 19th century American aristocrat's efforts to keep up appearances.

"Superstition" is the second production and is one of the earliest American plays based upon Colonial history. It was first performed at the Chestnut Theater in Philadelphia on March 12, 1824.

A four act melodrama, "The Almighty Dollar," is the other play. It was first performed in 1875. Some 2,500 performances were given prior to the turn of the 20th century.

Reserved seats are available for the nine weeks of the festival which runs from July 9 through Sept. 6, every evening except Tuesday. There will be

Some Standard Colors Withstand Test of Time

"The tides of color popularity constantly rise and fall," according to one of America's leading color consultants. Faber Birren, president of American Color Trends, is a specialist on human reactions to color. He has authored 18 books on the subject. It is because of the changing tastes in color preference that Birren emphasizes the importance of selecting colors that will remain in style and be attractive for years to come. As consultant to many of the nation's leading corporations, he advocates modern color research techniques in selecting hues and tints for redecorating projects. Among the firms that have consulted with Birren on colors is Marsh Wall Products of Dover, O., manufacturer of Marlite wall paneling. Birren helped choose the modern colors for Marlite's 1965 line of paneling and claims that all the colors chosen "are tested and proved to meet today's changing preferences in design and decorating." Included in the colors chosen for Marlite are bright high gloss colors in the four foot wide panels; subdued pastels in the line of 16" x 8" plank. Marlite can be installed over old and new walls, solid or furred. Installation instructions are included in every package of the material, which is available at most local lumber dealers. This plastic-finished hardboard resists heat and moisture and will not dent. Colors last for years without fading or dulling. The washable paneling stays new looking for years. Redecorating problems are eliminated.

Color Tips To Follow In Home

Proper use of color and attention to some basic rules of furnishing can multiply your family's enjoyment of a new home. Here are a few tips on use of color, decorating and furnishing the interior of your modern home:

- Use one floor covering to tie together two closely related rooms in your home. Or, if you wish, use the same color if two types of floor covering are employed.
- Choose only those floor coverings that suit each situation in your home. It is wise to use more textured and darker carpets and rugs in rooms where they will get heaviest wear.
- In treating windows — especially large ones — be sure to blend your draperies with the outside of your home as well as with inner walls.
- If you want to make your ceiling appear higher, hang your draperies from the ceiling down. On the other hand, if you want to make the ceiling appear lower, use cornice boards, balances and similar horizontal lines to create that illusion.
- When you want to make a window seem wider in your home, hang the draperies on either side instead of over the window.
- Be sure to use only those drapery materials in keeping with the style of your room.
- When buying furniture, obtain only that which fits the scale of your room.
- Arrange pieces of furniture so they lend themselves to conversation groups. Don't place them so people pass between two sets of chairs, for example, or so you have to shout from one side of the room to the other.
- Along with that, place your furniture to permit easy circulation through the room. Don't break up natural passages.
- Also, provide a variety of bright colors and textures throughout your room to make it more interesting.
- After placing your furniture, make use of accessories, such as sconces, to help carry out the style of your home. Make yours individualistic.
- Pick up an accent color in the room with accessories and use plants to give your room a feeling of warmth.
- Finally, hang pictures so they form a unit with the furniture or within themselves.

OUTDOOR COOKERY'S a real pleasure when a chef's supplies are within easy reach. Here, fuel, starter fluid, dishes and utensils are stored in a locked compartment until cookout time. Then dishes and utensils are moved to the handy Peg-Board panel that's connected to the cabinet.

Ease Outdoor Cooking With Storage Center

Outdoor cooking can be easier and more fun this spring and summer with a simple, do-it-yourself barbecue center that the handyman can build for less than $15. The combination storage center and handy outdoor wall for hanging cooking utensils, stacks of dishes, cups and saucers and seasoning will add immeasurably to the pleasures of outdoor cookery. When not in use, the charcoal, starter fluid and other items may be stored, safe from the weather, in a closed unit connected with the framed Peg-Board wall. The entire barbecue center has stake-shaped legs for anchoring it in the turf during a cookout. Because of its light weight, the unit can be moved readily. It is 36" high and 60" long. Parts needed, available at lumber yards, include 12 four-foot lengths of 2x2-inch lumber, one 8-foot length of 1x2-inch lumber, a 2'x3' piece of Masonite 1/4" Peg-Board and one 4'x8' panel of Weatherall, a factory-primed exterior hardboard; fasteners, hardware, glue and paint. To give the job a professional appearance, a free plan offered by Masonite Corporation shows the Peg-Board inserted in grooves cut in the framing. Five of the 2x2s, with their ends s h a r p e n e d for stakes, serve as posts for the unit. Drawings and directions for making this handy storage device may be obtained by sending a post card to Masonite, Box B, Chicago, Ill. 60690, requesting free plan AE-394.

Flat Varnish Won't Shine

If you have coated a dresser, table, bookcase, or wooden chair with flat paint to match or contrast with a room's wall paint, the horizontal surface must be protected from dustfall and from the soiling that comes with handling. The customer services division of Armstrong Paints recommends covering such surfaces with a thin coat of a new, extremely hard polyurethane flat varnish. The flat variety will not shine like a gloss varnish, but both types will resist fruit acids, alkalis, household vinegar, alcohol, grease, oil, heat, cold, ammonia, soap, and detergents. They will wipe clean with a damp cloth. Because they are clear, the change or loss of color is imperceptible. Repeated washing of either latex or oil based flat paint would tend to erode the surface, an Armstrong spokesman pointed out. The polyurethane gloss varnish can be used on floors, marine hulls, decks, bar tops, and other wood surfaces on which an extremely durable shiny finish is desired. Both the gloss, and flat types act as their own sealer and no primer is required. They set dust-free in about 30 minutes.

Keep Water Off Hard Maple Floors

Never scrub a Northern hard maple floor with water. Properly finished at the time of installation, the maple floor can be kept clean with a soft brush, dry mop or cloth. If the floor is soiled or spot stained, rub with a mop or cloth slightly moistened with the penetrating seal you used in the original finish treatment. An old card table, marred by long use, cigaret burns and beverage stains, can be refinished inexpensively with a plastic-finished Marlite top.

- Aside from a lawn mower here are the basic tools you will need.
- Digging Tools— For digging you will need a spade, a spading fork and a hand trowel. Get a spade with a square blade about 12 inches long and 7 inches wide. One like this will weigh a little under 5 pounds. Use it for turning the ground, digging holes, digging out plants with deep roots and a variety of excavating jobs. A spading fork has four prongs instead of a single blade, is good for turning ground. It's a little easier to use than a spade in stony ground. Plants with shallow roots can be dug out with a fork. The hand trowel is a small tool, has a blade about 6 inches long. Use it for lifting or setting small plants.
- Cultivating Tools— The ordinary garden hoe is a must. It's surprising how many neophyte gardeners try to do without one. Use it for loosening soil around plants and chopping out weeds. Pronged cultivators are used for weeding and cultivating in stony ground. Later you may want to get a scuffle hoe. Its blade is wider but not as deep. Use it by dragging it back and forth across the soil without lifting it.
- Raking Tools— The stiff iron rake is for gardens, is used to break up the soil. Use it to pulverize or scratch up the earth wherever you are planting seed. It is also useful for picking up debris.
- Pruning Tools — Pruning shears come in two styles—with blades that cross over each other, as scissors do; and with a blade that cuts against an anvil blade. Both are good. A pruning knife with a curved handle is handy, will cut thin stems without tearing. Grass shears are used for trimming edges or lawns, the unruly strands of grass that you don't get with the mower. Get the kind that operates when you squeeze up and down on the handles—they're easier to use. These are the basic pruning tools. If you have hedges you will need hedge shears. A sickle is good for clearing out patches of high weeds. Among the miscellaneous items you will need are a garden hose, a sprinkler and nozzle for watering. For transplanting plants, soil and other heavy items, get a wheelbarrow or garden cart. Get one with rubber tires and one big enough to carry 3 or 4 cubic feet of material. Take care of your new tools. Hang them up. Keep them clean and dry.

On the lawn WITH LARRY LAWRENCE

Recently, in this column, I mentioned a friend of mine who had quack grass in his lawn but thought it was crabgrass. Since then, I've had a lot more questions about weeds because this is the height of the weed season. There are a number of places where you can get weeds identified: Your state agricultural extension service; the nearest agricultural college; even the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture itself. And many local dealers are very knowledgeable, too. Some even have on display a "Weed-O-Rama" that shows illuminated color photographs of most common lawn weeds. Probably the one place in the whole country that gets more queries than any other is Marysville, Ohio. That's the home of Scotts, the lawn people, and at this time of year I understand they get up to 1000 letters a week. Most of them with weeds inside!

Bathroom Can Create Big Problem

One of the principal causes of frayed tempers in the home is the family stampede to the single bathroom. By combining two powder rooms with a third enclosure for the ceramic tile bathtub-shower, either powder room becomes a full-fledged bath when used with the adjacent bathtub and shower. Where possible one of the powder rooms should serve the master bedroom, the second being entered from a common hallway to other bedrooms and living quarters.

Stop Crabgrass With Herbicide

When the forsythia blossoms begin to fade is a good time to apply pre-emergence herbicide crabgrass killers. In most parts of the country, one application should be sufficient for the season. Lawn seeding should be deferred for two months after application of crabgrass killers as a general rule, otherwise the amount of grass seed should be doubled to improve the survival percentage of desirable grass seedlings. An effective weed control for use with a large variety of nursery stock is Dacthal.

An occasional damp wiping keeps plastic-finished Marlite paneling spotless.

Wall Paneling Is Attractive In Kitchens

With all the steam and heat in the kitchen, it is difficult for home owners to find a wall covering that won't fade or dull. Some materials look old and messy after only a year's wear. There is on the market today, however, a washable wall paneling that is not only heat and moisture resistant, but one which also resists denting. This attractive paneling, called Marlite, has a specially treated plastic finish. It is available in a variety of modern colors and patterns as well as six luxurious woodgrains. This plastic-finished hardboard can be installed by the home handyman. Instructions are included in every package of the material, which is stocked by most lumber dealers. The durable paneling eliminates the need for future redecorating since it will look like new for years with just an occasional damp wiping. No other maintenance is required.

Gardener Confused by Variety of Fescues

When seeding the lawn this spring, don't confuse your fescues. One type is the coarse, bunchy, "tall fescue," with varietal monikers such as "Alta" or "Kentucky-31."

This grass makes tough, hardy clumps; it may be fit for some roadsides, but not the front lawn.

Much more attractive, and only a little less tenacious, are the attractive fine-leaved lawn fescues. The species is "Creeping Red," Festuca rubra. Any one of its improved varieties such as are grown for lawn seed in Oregon, is a worthy ingredient in a lawn seed mixture.

Varietal names include "Chewings," "Illahoe," "Penn-lawn" and "Rainier." All are excellent companions for Kentucky bluegrass, and are noted for persistence on poor or droughty soils and in the shade.

Everyone Has a Green Thumb Most Like Indoor Gardening

People everywhere — whether they have a garden or not — have a natural green thumb, a love of growing things, as evidenced by the growth in the number of indoor gardeners. In fact, indoor gardening is fast becoming the nation's number one hobby.

In other words, indoor gardening can mean a row of pots on the window sill, it can mean built-in planted boxes next to the glass walls of hall or living room. It can mean African violets on the bathroom window, orchids in the bedroom, or any number of plants under fluorescent lights in the cellar. It can mean a glassed-in porch or whole greenhouse of any size.

Whichever your category and degree of experience, there are many new plants you have not tried. It's fun to experiment with them and when you succeed, you really have something to brag about, to make you the envy of your neighbors and friends. Just a few of those you can try follow:

If you've grown the giant-flowered amaryllis and know how easy it is, you can go one step further and try the soft pink amaranth. It, too, grows from a bulb. While summer is its normal flowering time, it will bloom earlier or later, according to when it is planted. Plant one in a pot just a little larger than itself in width.

Leave most of the bulb out of the soil, water and set in a cool closet until well started. Eight or 10 weeks after flowering reduce the watering and let it rest (but not die down) for three to six months.

If you've grown the ever-present philodendrons, you can certainly make a success of their larger cousin, the Swiss cheese plant or monsteria with its interesting cut and holed leaves. Its culture is just the same. Give it any good potting soil, not too bright light and reasonable moisture.

Almost everyone has grown the old-fashioned rubber plant in days gone by. Just as easy is the wavy-leaved fiddle-leaved fig — the rubber plant is really a fig. It will grow almost anywhere with a minimum of care.

Very little care is needed to grow the bromeliads, cousins of the pineapple — you've seen them on tree trunks in flower shops, banks, etc.

A wad of moss to grow in, an occasional wetting, and water kept in the cups made by the leaves will keep most of them happy.

The gloriosa or climbing lily sold at most spring flower shows is not hard to grow and is really a spectacular, if there ever was one.

Plant it in a 6- to 8-inch pot, the budded end uppermost, water and treat like any other house plant, except that it is a 4-foot vine and needs something to twine its tendrils on.

Lastly, for those a little less experienced, you have, no doubt grown the paperwhite narcissi in pebbles and water. Now try Grand Soleil d'Or, a yellow one sold by most seed, garden or flower stores. It grows the same way and is almost as easy.

Home Owners Get Warning About Frauds in Work

Because of complaints against some home improvement salesmen, the Michigan State Police are warning property owners to first check the background of such canvassers before letting any contracts.

Providing some information on method of operation was a Saginaw County case involving spray painters investigated by the State Police.

In this instance the painters contacted an elderly client and were contracted to seal-coat the house roof for $100. The subjects then on two repeat visits advised the homeowner that the house had termites. Two treatments for these brought a charge of several thousand dollars.

The homeowner's eventual suspicion led to police investigation. The case was closed with restitution of the sums paid and charges of obtaining money under false pretenses were dropped.

To thwart chances of being similarly victimized, property owners should check itinerant sales and service contractors through a better business bureau or chamber of commerce.

A check also may be made with local police, though it is pointed out that contractors engaging in questionable services may depart the area before complaints are made.

In the Saginaw county case, the subjects set up an answering service office with which they checked by telephone for new orders or work estimates, not bothering with complaint calls which included quality or durability of work.

Itinerant operators usually come to Michigan in late spring and depart for southern areas in the fall. Vehicles used may be late model trucks and cars, the trucks carrying no identification or an easily removable decal type. Services offered include roof and barn and house painting, water proofing, and spraying for termites.

Should a warrant for their arrest in relation to their services be issued, the subjects on learning this may flee the state and leave equipment behind for others to bring, thus lessening chances of discovery and possible arrest in flight.

State Police investigation indicated that questionable operators prefer elderly persons as clients, though they will do work for others.

Elderly persons may be revisited on the pretext their property needs more work for which extra charges are made. In some cases the operators will leave a work area before a heavy rainstorm, apparently because paint or sealcoat quality is substandard.

New Fertilizer Can Be Spread As Pellets

A new concentrated fertilizer contains 35 per cent nitrogen (as well as 5 per cent phosphorus and 10 per cent potassium). It can be spread as pellets, or dissolves instantly for liquid application.

Kentucky bluegrass and fine fescues not to be injured by rates even five times as heavy as recommended.

Highland bentgrass, however, could be bleached temporarily at double rate (3 lbs. nitrogen per 1,000 sq. ft.).
