STUDYING MAP of Liberia are Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Van Ornum, who take off next week for an eight-week medical and teaching missionary stay in Africa. Their bags are packed and only their pet dog will remain in Plymouth since their son, David, will also make the trip.

Van Ornums Off For Africa and Missionary Work

Perhaps it's because he is the son of a minister and missionary work is in his blood, then again perhaps it's because he has interest in doing his bit to aid the illiterate, underprivileged in the small nation of Liberia in South Africa—but regardless the next eight weeks are going to be anything but a soft life for Dr. A. E. Van Ornum, his wife, Betty, and son, David, of 1348 Maple St.

Dr. Van Ornum, prominent Plymouth dentist, is turning his office over to Dr. Charles Syers, of Ann Arbor, who will meet all of Van's appointments for the next two months while Van becomes a medical missionary in Liberia. Mrs. Van Ornum and David will devote the same eight weeks to teaching in the community of Tappi, located some 140 miles from Monrovia.

Band Opens Concerts On Friday

The resounding tunes of famous marches and the sweet melodies of "Beautiful Colorado" will echo and re-echo through Kellogg Park Friday night when the Plymouth Community Band opens its fifth annual series of summer concerts at 8 p.m.

The weekly programs will continue for seven sessions with the finale carded on August 6. Director James Griffith has arranged an excellent selection for opening night including classical overtures and popular tunes.

Don Burleson, outstanding Plymouth High musician, will have the solo role in the opening concert when he plays the Euphonium in "Beautiful Colorado" accompanied by the band.

Griffith also issued a plea to the area to bring their own lawn chairs since the seating capacity in Kellogg Park is limited to the park benches which generally fall far short of taking care of the crowds.

Griffith also issued a plea for all musicians in the area who play band instruments to join the group. The band holds rehearsals each Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. in the band room at Plymouth High School.

The concerts are sponsored by the Plymouth Credit Union.

They will leave New York City via Pan-American on June 29 and fly directly to Roberts Fields in Liberia near Monrovia. After a stopover in Monrovia for a few days, they will take a short flight to the village of Tappi where Mrs. Van Ornum and David will have teaching assignments for the entire period.

Dr. Van Ornum will set up a dental clinic there for a month during which he will treat other missionaries from the area as well as natives. It will be a central clinic for the entire area.

After three weeks to a month there, Van will fly to Yila where he will set up another central dental clinic to take care of the missionaries and natives in that section.

He is taking all of his dental supplies along with him. Much of the cost of the supplies is being borne by Dr. Van Ornum although he has received financial aid from church groups and individuals who learned of his mission.

Then in mid-August, the Van Ornums will have their only modern pleasure of the entire (Continued on Page 14A)

Council Plans Action to Solve Controversial Taxicab Problem

Plymouth's much-cussed and discussed taxi services will have the attention of members of the City Commission Monday in a special meeting after hearing Acting City Manager Kenneth Fisher tell of communications from two groups seeking permits for the city.

Two weeks ago, the Council asked City Attorney Edward Draugelis to draw up a suggested amendment to the Taxi ordinance which would tighten up restrictions and which the Commissioners hope will bring better service.

Taxi service, or rather the lack of it, judging from the many complaints heaped on Council, has been a hot subject for the better part of two years and the Commissioners would prefer to settle it once and for all and get it off their necks.

Checker Cab, which changed hands some time ago, started the discussion this time by asking for eight permits in a communication to Fisher. He turned the matter over to the Council where several members told of complaints they have been receiving of long waits, failure to keep appointments and generally the poorest kind of service.

Then Monday afternoon, Fisher received another communication from John Florence requesting four taxi permits.

Monday night, Draugelis presented his recommendations for a tighter code but later thought the matter over a second time and requested the problem should be turned over to the Department of Public Safety to draw up a standard code which can be incorporated into an amended ordinance.

Thus, with Draugelis' suggestion and two applications for permits, the Commissioners decided to have representatives of both groups appear before the Council Monday to tell of their plans and then decide who should receive permits, how many and what restrictions will be placed on the license holders.

Simkins Builders, who are constructing apartments on Ford Street, requested permission to put a culvert across Tonguish Creek at the Shangri Villa instead of the bridge promised when the Council approved plans for the project.

Although Johnson and Anderson, the city's consulting engineers, indicated they felt the culvert would take care of any flow of water, the Commissioners decided they would like to have another chat with the builders.

As one pointed out, "the builders came in and sold the project on the basis of a beautiful bridge which it now turns out will become a culvert. It's about time we discussed this matter and learned what had brought the change of heart, especially since the bridge was stressed so much in the earlier talks."

The request for a culvert was referred to the City Attorney for recommendation and the Commissioners in turn requested the builder to appear before them next week and explain the reasons for no bridge.

Ralph Lorenz, manager of the Mayflower Hotel who is busy with remodeling and redecorating of a huge ballroom in the building across the street from the hotel in S. Main, appeared before the Commission to request widening of Main Street from Maple to Ann Arbor Trail to alleviate a parking situation that will develop when he opens the new quarters in late August. "We have to have a wider street," he told the Council, "Persons getting out of cars in front of the new dining hall would be in danger of getting struck by passing vehicles. We plan to have facilities to take care of between 400 and 500 when the project is completed but we'll need some assistance to make it feasible." After hearing Lorenz, the Commission asked Acting City Manager Fisher to prepare plans and specifications and to get estimated costs of a 44-foot strip from Maple to Ann Arbor Trail on S. Main and to have the report ready by next Monday's special meeting.

Prior to the start of the regular meeting, Mayor James Houk presented beautiful plaques to former Mayor Richard Wernette and former Commissioner Robert Beyer in appreciation of their years of (Continued on Page 14A)

160 Attend Assembly of Rotarians

More than 160 Rotarians from the 43 clubs in Rotary International District 640, which covers the Detroit area, attended a district assembly at Junior High East Saturday to which members of the Plymouth Club were hosts.

It was the first time a combined District Assembly had been held in Plymouth and it attracted Rotarians from Canada as well as every club in District 640.

Incoming District Governor Perry Richwine, of Plymouth, was in charge of the meeting with Robert Beyer, past president of the Plymouth Club, assisting him as chairman.

The meeting was devoted to lectures and training classes for all incoming 1965-6 Rotary Club (Continued on Page 14A)

Planning Commission Sets Hearing on Calhoun Site

With support of a letter from R. F. McNulty, district sales manager of Ford Motor Co., indicating the site proposed by Leo Calhoun for his new agency is a preferred location recommended during the company's recent Metropolitan Detroit Survey and thus highly acceptable by Ford, the Plymouth Township planning commission approved a public hearing on July 21 on rezoning the 13 acres from single resident to commercial.

McNulty's letter reads as follows:

"This letter is in regard to our conversation of May 17 in which we discussed the property located west of the bowling alley across the street from Whitman and Barnes. It is my understanding that the property has 750 foot frontage on Plymouth Road and contains approximately 13 acres.

"I would like to point out to you that this location is a preferred location recommended during our recent Metropolitan Detroit Survey completed in October 1964 and would be acceptable to Ford Motor Co."

With this assurance, members of the Planning Board voted unanimously for the public hearing.

Lists Four Big Events

Although the four-day Plymouth Fall Festival is still some months away, Sept. 9 through Sept. 12, the Festival Board has completed arrangements for the four major events scheduled for each of the four days.

Heading the Festival is the traditional Rotary Club chicken barbecue on Sunday, Sept. 12—the event which started the Festival several years ago and which annually attracts more than 15,000 persons to the community for the final day.

The Business and Professional Women's Club has the honor of opening the celebration this year with a unique "German night" on Thursday, Sept. 9. Food for the evening will be served by members of the club which plans on an old-fashioned German menu with entertainment and music by a bonafide German band.

The Lions Club will stage its old-fashioned melon and ice cream social on Friday, Sept. 10 in Kellogg Park, starting at 4:30 p.m. and continuing until 10 p.m.

Observer Gets Praise For A Job Well Done

A thanks for the fine cooperation of the community in making the recent Michigan Week celebration such a success has been made by General Chairman William Nelson in a personal letter to the managing editor of the Plymouth Observer.

The letter follows:

"Thank you and the Plymouth Observer for your complete, thorough and inspired coverage of Plymouth's 1965 Michigan Week celebration.

"As you know, virtually every segment of the Plymouth community participated in this voluntary celebration of Michigan Week. The Plymouth Observer's splendid reporting added significantly to the success of the week.

"I would publicly like to express my appreciation to the individuals on the Michigan Week committee. Many relative newcomers to the community joined with longer-term residents in hard committee work which insured the success of the week. Seldom has a chairman been blessed with such outstanding individual help.

"Your coverage of their efforts was in keeping with their work, and, I suspect, typical of your constructive concern for the Plymouth community."

Editor's note: Thank you very much for your fine letter but we feel that a great deal of the success for Michigan Week was due to the excellent leadership just as it has been during the past two years with William Nelson at the helm.

Fight Looms At Bowling Lane Hearing

Robert Wedler, spokesman for the partnership of Oscar Himschoot and himself in a proposed shopping center at the intersection of Haggerty and Ann Arbor Roads to be built around a bowling establishment with a bar, learned that the project faces quite a bit of resentment when up for a public hearing on the question of rezoning.

The Township Planning Commission scheduled a public hearing for July 21 after a lengthy session during which Wedler indicated he had nibbles from a large super market chain and a bank for parcels in the five-acre site.

He mentioned Food Fair as being interested in the project but refused to name the bank reportedly favorable to locating a branch in the center if it received approval of the various boards.

Wedler, who told the Township Board of Trustees earlier that he and his partner were interested in construction of a bowling establishment only if they were able to secure the lone liquor license available, apparently has had a change of heart. He told the Commission he was interested in getting approval for the shopping center and that a liquor permit would not have any bearing on their plans.

"A liquor license is desirable for a bowling establishment," he said, "But in this instance we would have to say that lack of one would force us to change our plans."

In his earlier discussion with the Trustees, Wedler was much more emphatic, indicating that he and his partner would have to consider sites in Taylor and Troy if they were unable to get the liquor permit. This was after Supervisor John McEwen had informed him that the Trustees had a large list of applications on file and that his name would have to go on that list with very slight prospects of getting the permit.

Planning Consultant W. C. Johnson was asked if the shopping center fit into the Master Plan for the Township and indicated that it did and that approval would help make up for the loss of C-2 land that will go with the construction of the new expressway.

Wedler then went on to explain his plans for the project, stating it would include a bowling establishment, bank, super market and several other businesses including a bar, if all requests were approved.

There was an indication the Commission was going to accept the proposal for study and order a public hearing at the July 21 meeting.

Then came the fireworks. Ned Stirton, 9335 Marilyn, presented petitions bearing the names of 150 residents of the area stating they were opposed to rezoning for a bowling alley and a bar.

Chairman Irving Rosian read a letter from Frank Millington, head of the Plymouth Township Homeowners Association, asking the Board to reject the license permit for a bowling alley and bar and to hold it for (Continued on Page 14A)

Radio Listeners Follow Search for Bitten Boy

A 12 year old boy from Farmington Township held the gripped attention of perhaps thousands of Detroit-area music fans Friday night.

Listeners to late evening disc jockeys were in on the running account of a search for the youth, Scott Daggett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Daggett, of 34106 Northwich, by the United States Coast Guard.

Scott had been bitten on one finger of his right hand by a stray dog, on Wednesday June 16, at the World's Fair Marina. The Daggetts had docked their 32-foot cabin cruiser there during a stay in New York. The Farmington Township family headed for home on the following day.

The New York Dept. of Health found out about the dog bite incident on Friday, and feared that the dog might be rabid. Rabies is a disease that attacks the central nervous system. It is almost always fatal if left untreated until it reaches the brain. The closer the initial bite is to the brain the quicker the disease reaches the fatal point. In this case with the bite in the victim's hand, it was difficult to project how long it would take for the disease to become dangerous—if the dog happened to be rabid.

Obviously, the Health Dept. thought there was a need for urgency. It notified the Coast Guard, which preceded to ring off the whole Hudson Valley. The strategy was to make contact with the cruiser before it could get out into Lake Erie, where it would be far more difficult to locate.

The Coast Guard used cutters and helicopters. And newscasters, hopeful that the Daggetts might be listening to the radio, urged them to pull into the nearest port and get their son to a doctor.

Adding to the drama, the original Coast Guard message was garbled, and said the dog definitely was rabid.

The cruiser was finally docked at Fishkill, New York. In the meantime, the dog was also caught, and it is now being determined whether it has the disease.

In order to qualify for the list the students earned at least a B average during the second semester.

Star Cutter Deadlocked

No end is in sight in the protracted Star Cutter strike, now in its sixth week. According to John Ellis, President of UAW Local 985, which is representing the workers:

"The morale of the workers is high. They're determined to bring the strike to a fair conclusion. We are available for a meeting when the company wants to meet."

To this, Company Vice President Glenn E. Johnston replies: "Meetings were broken off at the suggestion of the mediators, with the understanding that the next meeting would be held at the call of the mediators. The company stands ready to attend any such meeting."

Star Cutter, which is located at 34500 Grand River, in Farmington Township, is the originator of, and one of the nation's largest manufacturers of the underground hob. A hob is a tool for the cutting of gears.

The mediators were appointed by the State and Federal Governments, through the mutual consent of labor and management to put their differences to arbitration.

A Bit of Trout Fishing Nets $675 for Scholars

Among the dollars for scholars contributions given the Citizens for Livonia Scholarships, Inc., this week are some with a slightly "finny" feel to their texture.

Those contributions come from Trout—more than 600 Rainbows and Browns—who raised $675 for the college scholarship program in their "fun-raising" activities at Livonia Mall Shopping Center earlier this month (June 10, 11 and 12).

In thousands of dimes, from 6,750 anglers, the trout piled up $675.00 for the merchants of the enclosed mall center at Middlebelt and West Seven Mile Road to hand over to the scholarship group.

Arthur Jenkins, Livonia Postmaster and president of the Citizens for Livonia Scholarships, Inc., accepted a check for the full amount of the contribution Monday from Marion Young, president of the Livonia Mall Merchants Association.

Jenkins thanked the merchants for undertaking the novel fund-raising approach of charging a dime to each would-be angler who wanted to catch a trout during the three day

Livonia Mall Opens Arts, Craft Program

A summer-long arts and crafts program opened at Livonia Mall Shopping Center this week and will continue through August in the Community Room of the enclosed-mall shopping center located at Middlebelt and West Seven Mile Road.

Boys and girls from 5 to 10 years of age are active in the program from 1 to 4 p.m., Mondays through Fridays.

Sponsored by the Livonia Mall Merchants Association, the Arts and Crafts program is under the direction of Susan Coats, who formerly served in a similar capacity with the Parks and Recreation Department of the City of Livonia.

A fee of 25 cents per day is charged each child to help defray the actual operating costs of the supervised activities program.

Boys and girls do not have to be pre-registered for the course; they can attend each day's program as they wish during operating hours.

Edison Sponsors Women's Forums at Livonia Mall

Detroit Edison continues its series of open Women's Forums at Livonia Mall Shopping Center, Middlebelt and West Seven Mile Road, with programs scheduled in the enclosed-mall's Community Auditorium.

The next three programs announced for the continuing series are to be held at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday mornings:

- June 29 — "Patio Party Cooking."
- July 6 — "Fashions and Fabrics."
- July 13 — "Setting a Gourmet Table."

The programs, put on by members of Edison's Electric Living Division, are chock-full of timely tips to make Summer living and home entertaining more enjoyable—and easier!

There is no admission charge for any of the sessions. The series is sponsored by the Livonia Mall Merchants Association.

Thieves Get $20

Thieves shattered a rear window to gain entrance, rifled three desks and broke into a cash box, stealing $20. That was the report to Livonia Police by Walter Pachota, manager of the Best Block Co., 30901 Five Mile Road.

promotion at the shopping center.

"It was an easy way to give people a lot of fun and do a worthwhile community service at the same time," Jenkins said, "and it has resulted in the biggest single contribution the scholarship fund has received this year."

Ferency in Farmington Praises Legislature

The school aid bill passed by the Democratic legislative majority provides for substantial assistance to low tax base school districts like Farmington, Michigan Democratic State Chairman Zolton A. Ferency told the second annual dinner of the Farmington Democratic Club.

Ferency pointed out to the audience of nearly 100 that a feature of the bill is the tremendous shot in the arm it gives to school districts where the tax valuation behind each pupil is below the statewide average of $13,500. The figure for the Farmington school district is below $10,000.

Ferency devoted most of his speech to praising the record of the Legislature so far for having made considerable progress in many areas beside the school aid bill. He listed these gains as follows:

Increased aid to higher education institutions including the area of scholarship aid.

Increased state aid for community mental health centers and joining of the interstate compact on mental health.

Tax relief for senior citizens in the area of real estate taxes.

The best workmen's compensation bill in the entire western world, which includes for the first time the right of workers to obtain rehabilitation service.

Uniform milk and meat inspection legislation.

Considerable improvement of the voter registration laws.

Passage for the first time of a school program for the children of migrant workers. Registering and licensing of crew leaders and migrant farm camps.

He said that with the exception of the school aid bill these improvements have taken place without necessitating the spending of much money.

Ferency noted that in other areas "we're not making the progress we should be making until we're ready as taxpayers and citizens to face up to our responsibility." He said this means finding new revenue.

The Democratic leader pointed out that despite increased spending of more than $250 million during three years of the Romney administration the Republicans have come up with only one additional source of new revenue—the 2 per cent increase in the take at the race tracks and that was split with the track operators.

Ferency was introduced by Democratic Club Chairman Aldo Vagnozzi, who recalled that both had started out in politics as Young Democrats in Wayne County. Dinner chairman was Harold Shpiece. He was assisted by Harry Zuchlinski and Mrs. Marianne MacIlvanine.

Oakland County Democratic Chairman George Googasian praised the work of the Farmington Democratic Club in brief remarks to the dinner guests.

22 Area Youngsters In Madonna Course

Twenty-two elementary students from Livonia and Redford Township are among the 32 gifted pupils who will attend a Fine Arts Workshop July 6 to 30 at Madonna College.

Students from the following schools will attend: St. Michael and St. Genevieve in Livonia; St. Valentine in Redford Township; St. Mel and Divine Child, Dearborn; and St. Christine and Christ the King in Detroit.

The participants enrolled were recommended by their teachers on the basis of scholastic records and creative ability as evidenced in the regular classroom performance.

The objective of the course is twofold: to discover and encourage creativity and to offer guidance in developing a love for the fine arts.

During the course, the children will compose their own

Break Ground Friday for New Schoolcraft Vocational Center

Industrial, civic, educational and business leaders from all five communities in the Schoolcraft College district as well as from Lansing and Detroit will participate in the ground breaking ceremonies for the new million dollar Vocational-Technical building Friday afternoon at 3 p.m.

The new structure will be in the largest vocational facility to be built in Michigan with Federal assistance for vocational education.

Schoolcraft received the Federal grant several months ago and the architectural firm of Ralls, Hamill and Becker, of Livonia, has been working overtime on the designs and plans in order to meet the deadline.

Dr. Eric Bradner, college president, and Harold Fischer, chairman of the College Board of Trustees, feel the new Vocational-Technical building is one of the most important on the campus since the first buildings were placed in use last September.

Invitations have been sent to all industries in the area and to educational leaders at the local, state and national level and Dr. Bradner believes the ground breaking will be the largest thus far on the campus.

The public is also invited to participate.

Speakers will include: Fischer, Dr. Robert Wingate, Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction for Vocational Education from Lansing; and Thomas Brennan, president of the State Board of Education.

Invitations have been sent to all members of the State Board as well as to the newly appointed members of the Michigan Community College Advisory Committee.

The Vocational-Technical building, designed with the assistance of James Dotseth, Dean of Technical Education, will include facilities for drafting, automotive technology, welding, electronics, fluid, manufacturing processes and data processing.

It also will house rooms for nursing education in both the practical and associate degree nursing programs and will provide space for classrooms and offices.

The ground breaking will be the second in two weeks. The first shovelful of dirt for the new Campus Center building was turned a week ago by Chairman Fischer with Dean of Students Lois

Waterman assisting.

The Campus Center building has been a dream of Miss Waterman ever since work on the first college building was started. She accompanied the architects on a trip to the West Coast during the winter when a study was made of several community colleges in California.

Many of the ideas incorporated in the Campus Center by the architects were made upon recommendations of Miss Waterman.

Under present plans, each of the new buildings will be available for use by the start of the 1966-'67 college term at which time the enrollment is expected to be double that of today.

State OKs C'ville Loan

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, Chairman of the Municipal Finance Commission announced today that the Commission approved $100,000 of Tax Anticipation Notes to be issued by the Clarenceville School District, Oakland and Wayne Counties. Kelley said, "The proceeds will be used for operating purposes. These notes are to be dated June 1, 1965, are to be due March 1, 1966, and will carry a maximum interest rate of 4%."

Navy Man Promoted

Alvey R. Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Pifer, 1926 Floral, Livonia, has earned the rating of "third class petty officer." He is currently serving aboard the U.S.S. Yosemite (A.D. 19) and is stationed in Newport, R.I.

Livonia DPR Will Open Summer Program Tues.

With the theme of "Set Your Sights on Summer," the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation will open its summer program on Tuesday, June 29 for eight full weeks.

Recreation Director John Dufour has called a meeting of all playground directors and play leaders for next Monday at Emerson School to go over plans for the summer and all 26 playfields will be opened the following day.

The playground schedule, which calls for supervision five days a week from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30, includes the following schools: Botsford, Cleveland, Coolidge, Garfield, Grandview, Grant, Hull, Harrison, Jackson, Jefferson, Johnson, Lincoln, Madison, Marshall, McKinley, Roosevelt, Rosedale, Stark, Taft, Tyler, Washington, Webster, Wilson, Wilcox and Pierson.

The playfield at Adams school will be opened from 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and at Hoover from 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The summer program includes all types of activities. The list: arts and crafts, puppetry and dramatics, baton twirling, group games, movies, storytelling, music, athletics, tournaments, table games, trips and special events.

Information in regard to all programs is available at the various playgrounds.

Special summer events include: fireworks on July 4 at the Detroit Race Course, air show, junior olympics at Metropolitan Beach, skateboard, bike and hitting contests at Wonderland Shopping Center, square dancing and an art crafts contest at Livonia Mall.

Parents are urged to aid in the program by volunteering their services for instructing classes, transportation and saving magazines and newspapers for the drives to be held at each playground.

BATON HANDLING has the attention of Livonia Director of Parks and Recreation John Dufour as he and his Assistant William Zerblis (left) discuss the opening of the summer recreation program with three play leaders. The trio includes: Jeanne Kofahl, Washington School (third from left), Jennifer Jahr, baton twirling instructor for all playfields, and Aaron Engel, Harrison School. All 26 playfields will open for the eight-week summer program next Tuesday morning.

MRS. GERALD B. FISCHER

Long-Fischer Ceremony
June 12 in Pennsylvania

St. Matthew Lutheran Church in York, Pennsylvania, was the scene of the June 12 wedding of Catherine Louise Long and Gerald Buckley Fischer.

The Rev. Gordon E. Folkemer and the Rev. Russell M. Long performed the double ring ceremony. Rev. Long is a brother of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Long of York, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Fischer of Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown of silk organza with Alencon lace trim around the scoop neckline. The skirt was accented with a self band in a bow with streamers flowing into the train. An ivory illusion veil was draped from a garland of Swiss pearlized petals and a cluster of roses. She carried orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Russell M. Long was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. Mrs. Charles J. Long, another sister-in-law and Mrs. Ralph C. Ziegler, Jr., cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids.

All wore long silk linen sheaths in two shades of pink and matching headpieces. They carried roses and pink marguerites.

Martha Fischer served as flower girl. She carried a basket of pink marguerites, roses and gypsophila.

Kenneth Fischer served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were: Norman Fischer, Thomas Spierling, Thomas Ewell and David Brand.

Charles J. Long, brother of the bride, performed a trumpet solo.

Following a reception at the Hotel Yorktowne the couple left for a trip to the Virgin Islands. They will reside in Plymouth this summer.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Plymouth High School and the College of Wooster (Ohio). In the fall he will enter the Yale Divinity School. He has received a Rockefeller Brothers Theological Fellowship.

The new Mrs. Fischer is a graduate of the College of Wooster.

To Women It May Concern

By LOUISE KUDER

There isn't one—but there should be—a special citation for four brave souls who would take twenty-two 10-11 year old girls through four days of community living in a Girl Scout Camp (primitive, yet!)

It's one thing to buy six dozen boxes of Girl Scout peanut butter cookies—but it's quite another thing to stay at the place financed by the proceeds of these cookies—and particularly if the mothers just happen to be over 40.

I mean like how many 40-year-old mothers, or for that matter 11-year-old girls, have blazed a trail with a jack-knife, pumped water for cooking, drinking, washing, etc.—and sawed wood for both warmth and cooking?

No switches or flushes, lovely kerosene lamps, 26 bunks and a path—and all under the heading of fun.

The first night after the hot dog and bean supper that was accomplished in organized confusion that took approximately two hours the healthy 22 did not exactly settle down in their sleeping bags for slumberland. At 4 a.m. the diehards of the giggle group still were fighting the good fight of keeping the nerve ends of the "leaders" titillating.

Next bright and sunny day after griddle cakes and bacon, a morning constitutional and a home-made pizza lunch several of the hearty were actually sleepy and wanted to get in a little bunk time.

The mothers, with a gleam, vetoed the idea and instead arranged for a good two-mile hike. By campfire and nightfall all was absolutely dead silent by 10 p.m.

Perhaps the most delightful part of the experience was the response to the challenge of actually having to think about existence.

The daily routine things we take for granted, heat, light, warmth—all creature comforts—they became a challenge to be met in cooperation with each other.

I'm not too sure but what it wasn't good for the mothers too.

It made us all admire our pioneer ancestors. You can expose young minds all you want through books and stories, but an actual experience such as this is most meaningful. Although pumping water was quite a lark, nevertheless it sunk into all of us to appreciate a drink of water.

Another area of miracle was the fact that 22 Girl Scout knives, four hatchets and one saw were all in action without an accident which is enough to make any first-aiders say thank-you in her nightly prayers.

Receiving the mythical Girl Scout Mother Meritorious Award will be Grace Smith, Doris Kirkman, Jan Portland.

MRS. WILLIAM S. GRAHAM, JR.

Bonnie Stanley Weds William Graham, Jr.

Bonnie Ruth Stanley married William S. Graham, Jr., on June 12 at the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth. Dr. Henry Welch performed the candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lester Stanley of Delmar, N.Y., while her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Graham, Sr. of Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her father, the new Mrs. Graham wore a street length white chiffon gown with a shoulder length veil. She carried a cascade of baby white carnations with a white orchid in the center.

The maid of honor, Valerie Crawley of England and Toronto, wore a pink gown trimmed in white lace. She carried a cascade of pink and white carnations.

David Carmine of Plymouth served as best man, while Allan Davis of Attica, N.Y. seated the guests.

A reception was held following the ceremony at Lofy's for 60 guests. Guests from Chicago, New York City, Ohio, and Anchorage, Alaska were present.

Following a honeymoon in Southern Michigan the newlyweds will reside in Plymouth.

The bride is a senior at Hillsdale College where she is a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Her husband just graduated from Hillsdale with a degree in business management.

School Workshop Is Enlarged

Fifteen additional suburban teachers will have an opportunity to sign up for the Opportunity Resources Workshop this summer according to Workshop Director Corlan D. Bovee.

Already teachers from a dozen school systems have announced their interest in working on special projects concerning the business, cultural, industrial, and governmental activities in their communities.

The four-week course will begin on Monday, June 28. Further information can be obtained by phoning Mr. Bovee at GA 2-1200.

MRS. RALPH DAVID NELSON

West-Nelson Rites Held in Plymouth

The First Methodist Church of Plymouth was the setting for the June 12 marriage of Martha Jane West to Ralph David Nelson. Rev. Hugh White and Rev. Melbourne I. Johnson performed the candlelight service.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. West of Plymouth are the parents of the bride, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Nelson of Milford, Iowa.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of Chantilly lace over net and taffeta. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Nancy North of Plymouth served as maid of honor. Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Herbert Wallace, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore floor length shell pink rayon taffeta with brocade jackets. The headpieces were circlets of matching brocade. They carried cascades of pink sweetheart roses.

Laura Brown, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She carried a miniature nosegay of pink roses. Michael Wallace, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer.

Larry Winkler served as best man. Ushers seating the guests were: William West, Jerry Johnson, Philip West and Daniel West.

A reception for 225 followed the ceremony in the church parlors.

The bride is a graduate of Colorado State College, while her husband is a graduate of Augustana College in Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

Martin-Luethold Vows Exchanged

Elizabeth Luethold became the bride of Dennis Jay Martin Saturday in St. Johns Church, Fenton, Michigan. The bride wore an empire gown of peau de soie with an A-line skirt appliqued with imported French lace. The chapel train was attached by a cabbage rose. Her bouffant imported illusion veil fell from pearl and crystal orange blossoms.

The former Miss Luethold is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meinrad R. Luethold of Fenton, Michigan. Mr. Martin is the son of Mrs. Lillian Martin of Dearborn and Mr. Donald F. Martin of Quail Hollow Drive, Farmington, Michigan.

The bride's cousin, Hedwig Schall of Cincinnati, Ohio, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Heln Griggs of Arlington, Virginia; Margaret Sassaman of Charlotte, Michigan, and Marion Boiko of Garfield, New Jersey.

To compliment the lines of the bridal gown, they wore forest green linen empire gowns appliqued with bright pink roses. Their headpieces were roses and green silk leaves. They carried baskets of pink flowers accented with ivy.

The only man who really strikes it lucky is the one who strikes out for himself.

Worship in Song Set for Sunday

Orchard Methodist Church, Farmington, will be the scene of an annual Worship Service in Song on Sunday, June 27.

The four choirs of 100 voices will sing anthems individually and in combination. The theme "O Come and Sing Unto the Lord" as taken from the Book of Psalms, will be sung by the Chapel Choir. Soloists will be Mrs. Victor Palmer; Mrs. Ted Daly; Richard Beckwith; Mrs. William Newlin; Jack Marti; and Ted Daly.

The closing anthem will be "Battle Hymn of the Republic" sung by the combined choirs. This number consists of a quartet composed of Mrs. George Britton, Mrs. William Newlin, John Roberts, and Myron Schiller.

Mrs. William Greene, Music Director of Orchard Church, will direct the program, with Miss Janet Greene accompanying on the organ.

21 Confirmed on June 13

Sunday, June 13, 21 youths were confirmed in the Holy Faith as they made their promise at God's Altar at Christ Lutheran Church. These youth attended Catechetical Instruction every Saturday morning for the two-year period. Pastor C. Beireis read the Rite of Confirmation. The church was full to overflowing as relatives and friends, God Parents and members worshipped at the 11 a.m. service.

This is the fifth class to be confirmed in the short history of Christ Lutheran Church. The Church began services in its present building in 1960 and recently added a new Educational Unit which was dedicated last May 23. Two classes were confirmed while the congregation was beginning in Thurston High School, before the church building was erected on Wormer avenue, just west of Telegraph Road. The Pastor C. Beireis, founder of the congregation, holds instruction for youth each year from September thru June.

Alexis Solomos, internationally known Greek actor and director who will be the first resident artistic director of the Ypsilanti Greek Theatre, will teach a dramatic art seminar at Eastern Michigan University beginning in the fall semester.

During the second semester an internship program in which students will work with the director has been planned.

Solomos, 46, a native of Athens, attended the Law University of Athens, studied at the Modern School of Social Research. He was artistic director of the Cherry Lane Theatre and at the Provincetown Playhouse of New York. He has also been a professor of drama at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in London and at the Dramatic School of the Greek National Theatre in Athens, and director of theatrical broadcasts of the National Institute of Broadcasting in Athens.

6 Represent City Teachers at Convention

Eureka Heights school, in Taylor, was the site of the Spring meeting of the Michigan Education Association's Department of Classroom Teachers. Livonia was represented with 16 delegates among 125 attending.

During the business meeting, Elsie Stewart (Reading Center), was named State Director of Area II of the DCT.

In addition, Elsie will head the Livonia Education Ass'n delegation to the National Education Ass'n. Convention in New York City. Other delegates are Warren Knopslder (Tyler), Marv Liberson (Division of Instruction), Eldon Price (Whitman), Lucille Smith (Reading Center), and Roger Stephon (Garfield).

The Farmington Township Hall at 31555 Eleven Mile Rd. was completed in 1963. It houses the township offices and the police department.

Busy Season Set in Buckingham Court Battle Looming

A bicycle parade in July will kick off this season's social calendar for members of Livonia's Buckingham Village Civic Association.

President Fred Hotchkiss announced that a pot luck picnic will be held in August, and in September, the Association will host a day at the races for members. There will be a fall dance in October, a Children's Christmas Party in December, and a Fashion Show next February. The social season will conclude with next April's Spring Dance.

Officials Will Elect Trustee

Three nominations were made Monday night to fill a vacancy on the Nankin Township Board.

The election will probably take place at the next meeting, which has been set for Tuesday, July 6, because the regular meeting night falls on July 5, a holiday.

Nominated were Robert Nelson, 35, chairman of the Water Board, employed by Consumers Power; George M. Weitzel, 33, publicity director for Unistrut Corp. in Wayne, and chairman of the Planning Commission; and Henry Lundquist, 35, employed by a trucking concern in Nankin Township.

Ends Training

Marine Private Ross C. Eby, son of Mrs. Nancy C. Eby of 15417 Deering, Livonia, completed four weeks of individual combat training June 8 with the 2nd Infantry Training Regiment, Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The 20-day course included over 200 hours of rigorous instruction in small unit tactics, night combat, firing weapons under simulated combat conditions and other subjects related to the Marine Infantryman.

School Calendar Set for '65-'66

According to policies adopted by the Livonia Board of Education in March, 1963, the calendar for 1965-66 is set.

Returning teachers will report for a pre-school conference on September 7, the day following Labor Day.

Christmas vacation will be observed from the close of school on Wednesday, December 22 and will reconvene on January 3, 1966.

Spring vacation will be from noon on Good Friday, through the following week.

School will close on June 17, 1966.

Look, No Tires

Tire thieves stole four tires and wheels from two new cars in the lot at the west side of the Bill Brown Ford building at 32222 Plymouth Road according to Livonia Police reports.

The tires were removed from the right side of the cars and the thieves jacked up the vehicles and then placed blocks after removing the wheels. The loss was estimated at $165.

Camp Fire Girls News

As the summer season gets underway, there is a number of events which will be of interest to area Camp Fire Girls.

Next Sunday, June 27, there will be an Open House at Camp Wathana from 2 to 4 p.m. Parents of Camp Fire Girls, and any others who are interested in an inexpensive and delightful camping experience for their daughters are welcome to visit this beautiful camp with its 245 acres of woods, fields and lakes and cozy rustic cabins. Fees are only $45 for Camp Fire members and $51 for non-members for ten wonderful days of camping.

On Friday, June 25, there will be the annual Bob-Lo Boat Trip.

Junior High and Horizon Club girls will participate in the International Freedom Festival by presenting a Freedom Salute, together with Canadian Girls in Training, at 6:45 p.m. Thursday evening, July 1, in Cobo Hall.

For further information, call the Camp Fire Office, 833-2870.

20 Presbyterian Youths Take on a Work Project

A group of 20 youths, from the Westminster Fellowship at the First Presbyterian Church in Plymouth, will get a taste of life in a blighted area and a chance to live and work with folks in that economic level this week in Baltimore, Md.

Headed by Rev. Edward Castner, the group will stay at the Knox Presbyterian Community Center in Baltimore from where they will work on the inner-city community center and gain an understanding of the problems of such a project.

in the heart of a blight area which has the highest crime rate of any section in the city. The neighborhood, which once was predominately white, is now 90 per cent negro.

For the Plymouthites it will be mostly work, with some pleasure, as they install a new sidewalk, paint the building and plant grass and landscape the ground.

At the same time, they will be working hand and hand with youth from the Center in an integrated program that is expected to bring a better understanding for both groups.

The Plymouth project came as a result of an appeal from the Center director for help in cleaning, repairing and painting the large building. There are not funds for a custodian and the Director made an appeal to groups throughout the East and Midwest for assistance. Plymouth was one of those that answered.

More than 20,000 persons participate in the activities of the Center annually. Special concentration is placed upon trying to keep the youth of the neighborhood interested in participation and to offer friendship and understanding.

Many of those who go to the Center are youths with police records or have spent some time in detention homes. The director reports that a great number of this group soon began to feel wanted and that they "belong."

Part of the work of the Plymouth group will be to sit down with some of these youths and go over the problems of Baltimore with those of a much smaller community such as Plymouth.

The group left in four station wagons in charge of the following adults: Rev. Castner, Mrs. Wilbert Ackerman, Kenneth Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. James Eatmon, and Miss Doris Yocom.

Mrs. Eatmon is serving as nurse with Mrs. Ackerman as head chef and Eatmon as treasurer.

The young people making the trip for the work are: Peter Ackerman, Charles Catlett, Ed McKelvey, Jim Nelson, John Stadler, David Sibbold, Tom Webber, Dick Eolffram, Steve Hulce and Cornelia Delaney.

Mary Martha Eatmon, Debbie Jenkins, Priscilla Jenkins, Jane Palmer, Janet Silvis, Candi Muehlbauer, Kay Perish, Sue Niemi, Gilla Rynning and Jill Dunlop.

Board OKs Zoning For Postiff Project

Rose Hill Builders, who have been seeking approval of a development on the Postiff estate near the intersection of Ann Arbor and Lilley Roads, gained an important victory last Wednesday when the Planning Commission approved rezoning of two parts of the acreage from R-1 to R-2A for apartments and from R-1 to R-2 for the construction of duplex homes.

cal transition between the light industrial along Ann Arbor Road and the single family zone south of the proposed requested change. It is our recommendation that the proposed changes be given favorable recommendation."

Rose Hill plans five 16-unit and two 10-unit buildings; 10 duplexes with two and three bedrooms and 12 single dwellings in the $15,000 to $20,000 class at the extreme south end of the site.

There were some complaints about the use of Rocker Street for entrance into the development, but Notebaert pointed out that the builders felt there would not be any more traffic from the area than from any other section of the Township which has homes along a street leading into a main thoroughfare.

Russell Ash, member of the Planning Board, pointed out that the new layout did a good many things to clear up previous problems and then made a motion for the rezoning which was supported by Tivador Balogh and received unanimous vote from the commission.

The Fred Greenspan Building Co. received favorable action on a request for permits to erect six more apartment buildings at its Lake Pointe development.

Vice President Joseph Staub represented the company in the absence of Greenspan who has been hospitalized following an operation.

After a brief discussion, the Board authorized the building inspector to issue the permits. The six additional buildings will give Greenspan a total of 11 for the development with a total of 176 apartments.

EMU Speaker Dunn Steel Hosts 15 Division Heads

Donald Hall, poet and associate professor of English at the University of Michigan, will open the thirteenth annual Book Fair at Eastern Michigan University with an address, "The Poet Makes A Poem."

He will speak at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, July 15, in Quirk Theatre on the university campus. The lecture is a feature of the Book Fair held each July at EMU. Attended by representatives of the nation's leading publishing firms, the two-day fair annually attracts several thousand educators, librarians and book lovers to the colorful displays in Roosevelt School on campus.

Fourteen top executives and division managers of plants in the Townsend and Textron Inc. companies attended a semi-annual meeting last week at the Dunn Steel division plant of Townsend in Plymouth.

The three-day meeting headquartered in Dearborn Inn, but Thursday was devoted to sessions and a tour of Dunn Steel.

Those attending were: L. T. Hickey, group executive of Textron Inc.; F. R. Dickenson, Townsend president; P. E. Horst, vice president and secretary-treasurer of Townsend; H. C. Kornman, vice president and general manager of Engineered Fasteners division.

Others: W. A. Hipple, vice president and general manager of Brainard Rivet; E. B. Buser, vice president and general manager of Cherry Rivet division; G. D. Thomas, vice president and general manager of Boots Aircraft Nut division; G. A. Bentley, vice president and general manager of Fabricated Products division; E. R. Cross, vice president and general manager of Tubular Rivet and Stud division; A. P. Dawson, president and general manager of Parmenter and Bullock Manufacturing Co. Ltd.; J. G. Spruhan, vice president and general manager of Dunn Steel division, and G. L. Bond, Jr., president of Bond and Starr Inc.

Plymouth Church Sets Home Services

A great home celebration service will mark more than 25 years of existence for the Church of the Nazarene in Plymouth on June 27.

Services for the day will begin at the 9:45 a.m. Sunday school and continue throughout the day. Included on the program are: the 10:45 a.m. morning worship; a sacred concert at 2:30 p.m. and an hour of evangelism at 7 p.m.

Special speakers will be: Rev. Robert North, former pastor of the church from 1933 to 1947; Rev. W. Welton, pastor from 1947 to 1952; and special guest Dr. E. W. Martin, district superintendent of the Eastern Michigan District.

Ray Williams is in charge of all music for the observance which will feature a band and an adult choir.

The public is invited to all the services.

License Appeals Continue Climb

LANSING — Driver License appeal requests by Michigan drivers continued to climb over 1964 totals with May totals showing a slight increase over the same month a year ago.

Hearings for the first five months of 1965 totaled 3,592, as opposed to 2,726 through May of last year.

Volunteer Inspections Important, Hare Says

LANSING — With the legislative death knell sounding over a state-wide motor vehicle inspection program, the chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission has urged Michigan's motorists to "participate in the volunteer auto inspection programs being held in many communities of the State."

Secretary of State James M. Hare, chairman of the commission for the past 11 years, termed volunteer inspection as "a rather limited substitute for a mandatory program, but important nevertheless to our total safety effort in Michigan."

Hare listed four favorable aspects of the volunteer program: (1) "checks out defects in some cars whose conscientious owners then get them back into good driving condition; (2) it spotlights the importance of vehicle safety and safe driving; (3) it gets community-minded groups and organizations interested in the whole traffic safety program; and (4) it keeps the public eye on vehicle inspection as an integral part of the Michigan's traffic safety program."

He said the chief problem with the volunteer inspection programs are that persons "driving cars in poor shape are seldom the ones to take advantage of them. Usually, it's people with cars in good shape who come in and have them inspected."

Hare said that although Michigan's highway death rates were down from last year's horrible holocaust, that he was still very much concerned over the entire safety picture.

"Sure our fatalities are down . . . and I'm not sure they'll stay there during the good driving season," Hare said, "but personal injury and property damage accidents continue to mount."

"The need for a concerned safety effort based on a combination of needed safety legislation plus public-consciousness of the problem is greater than ever in Michigan," Hare asserted.

Central Michigan University pole-vaulter Joe Neihardt (Traverse City) set a school record of 14-4 1/2 in his specialty at the Michigan Federation Open Meet on Jan. 30.

John Guettler Goes To Car Wash Talks

John Guettler, of 1182 Dewey, Plymouth, who has a self-serve car wash under construction at 450 Ann Arbor Road, recently attended a two-day orientation seminar at the home office of the Wishy Washy Car Wash Manufacturers International in Nashville, Tenn.

The meeting was for national and international sales representatives and operators of the new car wash.

Guettler has been appointed Michigan representative for the company.

November 11th—Veterans' Day
Nov. 25th Thurs.—Thanksgiving
December 7th—Pearl Harbor Day
December 25th—Christmas Day

We believe every home in town should fly the flag on national holidays. We also believe more homes would fly the flag if more people knew where to get one. Failure to fly the flag, it has been found, is not due to any lack of patriotism on the part of Americans who love Old Glory as much today as Americans did when the Spirit of '76 was first born. Because of this we make this fine flag set available as a public service at our cost. The set is top quality through and through. It meets every standard the government sets for a flag of this type. In addition, the stripes are double stitched, a hallmark of flag quality usually found only at higher prices. We include with the big 3x5-foot flag . . . all the equipment necessary for rigging according to the rules of flag etiquette. These flags are available to all . . . with no other requirement than that you pay our basic cost . . . and fly one on your home on holidays. Fly the flag on important national holidays to come . . . and especially on the Birthday of American Independence July 4th. The stars and stripes on your home show the world that the Spirit of '76 is as warm in American hearts today as it was at its birth on the first 4th of July . . . nearly 200 years gone by.

Others named at the annual election are: Mrs. Phyllis Hower, first vice president; Mrs. Emma Williams, second vice president; Mrs. Mary Birtles, secretary; Mrs. Sharon Chain, treasurer; Mrs. Gertrude Simonetti, historian; Mrs. Janette Thomas, chaplain; Mrs. Mary Stein, sergeant-at-arms; and board members, Mrs. Betty Richter, Mrs. Joy Tornow and Mrs. Rosina Wells.

Mrs. Hoelscher and Mrs. Drake were named delegates to attend the district meeting and the annual state convention. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Kinghorn are the alternates.

Robert Hower is the new Post commander, succeeding Gilbert Williams. Named to serve with Hower are: Vern Overmyer, senior vice commander; Robert Richter, junior vice commander; Fred Johnson, adjutant; Roy Smith, finance officer; Joe Grawjowski, chaplain; Jim Stein, historian; Ray Birtles, sergeant-at-arms; executive committee, Williams and Ralph Buttermore.

Hower and Johnson were appointed delegates to the state convention and district meetings with Vern Miller and Charles Ryder as alternates.

The joint installation ceremonies will take place on Sunday, July 11 at 2 p.m. in the Post Home on Sheldon Road.

Get well wishes are extended to Marilyn Larabee who was recently in St. Mary Hospital and to Vito Simonetti who is recovering from a recent illness.

Announce Entry Deadlines for '65 State Fair

Michigan State Fair officials have issued the first call for entries in the annual exposition Friday, August 27 through Monday (Labor Day) September 6.

Here are the entry deadlines: July 30, Home Arts; and August 6, Livestock, horses and agriculture.

Charley Figy of Morenci, the chairman of the Michigan State Fair Authority, urged the early submission of entries. He said a record number again were expected this year.

The premium book—the handbook of information for all exhibitors—again will be issued in three sections: livestock and agriculture, horse shows and home arts.

New exhibitors should indicate which section is desired when requesting premium books and entry forms from the Michigan State Fair, Detroit, 48203.

The premium books will reach former exhibitors by mail the first week in July, according to Walter Goodman, State Fair manager.

List Winners In Plymouth Duplicate Bridge

The following were winners of the weekly duplicate bridge competition sponsored by the Plymouth Bridge Club in the Colonial Professional building, 729 W. Ann Arbor Trail:

NORTH-SOUTH: Ike and Vic Sarason; Sue Fuller and Stella Fitzpatrick; and Art Bruckert and Charles Wieder.

EAST-WEST: Richard and Isabelle Muttschall, Jan and Al Greenblatt, and John Kunkle and Ed Wright.

For additional information regarding the activities of the Club, call Director Bill Tullis at GA 2-7848.

Employers to Open New Office July 15 In Northwest Section

Employers Temporary Service Inc. will open a branch office at 27320 Grand River near Inker Road on or about July 15 according to company officials.

Established in 1948 to supply shop help on a rental basis to businesses with fluctuating staff requirements, Employers has grown to where it now employs 500 fulltime workers to supply the temporary need of customers.

The move to open a Northwest industrial area branch came out of the rapidly growing demand for workers. The firm feels it can be of service to many plants in the Northwest section by adding to their directly hired staff with Employers' men and women on a rental basis in cases of emergency and short run peaks.

Livonian Promoted

Gordon Riewe, of 17414 Sunset Ave., Livonia, has been promoted to sales engineer in the Detroit area for Alkon Products Co. of Hawthorne, N.J. He formerly was with the Ford Motor Co., where he spent four years in the purchasing department for prototype vehicles.

Van Ornum

summer. That's when they start the plane trip back to the United States and Plymouth.

They'll board a plane in Monrovia and fly to Nigeria for a few days, then to Cairo for a short visit and tour, on to Athens, Rome, Madrid and Lisbon before leaving non-stop for New York City on the final leg of their trip homeward.

They hope to be back in Plymouth by August 26 and Dr. Van will resume his practice a few days later in modern surroundings and with the best equipment for the first time since mid-June.

"We have always wanted to visit Africa and see just how life and conditions are there," said Dr. Van Ornum in discussing the trip. "My wife, son and I jumped at this chance. It means giving up a lot of things for the two months but we'll receive a great deal of satisfaction from the work we'll be able to do."

"Then, we have been thinking of visiting Egypt, Greece and Rome for some time and thus we can kill two birds with one trip." And then Van and Mrs. Van Ornum began to look over some of the clothing they'll take along for a long stay in a hot, humid climate. For Van it will be T-shirts and shorts all of the time.

The well-wishes of their hundreds of Plymouth friends go with the area's first medical and teaching missionaries.

Fight

a motel of the Holiday Inn type that would add a great deal to the community in lieu of the new expressway.

"You are in the driver's seat," wrote Millington, "We hope you will remain in that position and keep this license for a better use. Don't give up the driver's seat."

Two or three others spoke up against the proposal, telling of the nearby school (Allen School) and the new subdivision (Salem Square which is being developed across Ann Arbor Road from the proposed site.

Then, the Commission approved a public hearing on the matter for July 21—and there were threats from the audience that "you better hire a hall for this one, there won't be enough room for all of the complainers in this small hall."

Which means that Wedler and his associates are in for a hot evening on July 21—much hotter than the temperatures will be at that time and they should be plenty high in late July.

Isbister High With $900:

School Board OKs Salary Increases

Pay boosts for workers in the Plymouth Community School system were approved by the Board of Education in the final meeting of the fiscal year.

The hikes ranged from 4.4 to 12.4 cents per hour for custodial employees to $900 for Superintendent Russell Isbister and Assistant Supt. Business Manager Melvin Blunk.

Isbister's salary was raised from $18,200 to $19,100 and Blunk's from $12,750 to $13,650.

Assistant Supt. William Harding, who has charge of secondary education, received a hike of $800 from $12,750 to $13,550.

All increases are effective with the new contracts.

Approved raises include:
From 4.4 to 12.4 cents per hour raises for custodial employees.

From seven to 12 cents per hour for secretarial employees.
A $6,400 salary for the director of transportation, a $300 increase; and several raises for mechanics and bus drivers, the drivers moving to a top of $2.65 an hour.

Seven and five cents per hour raises for cafeteria employees; the top being a $2.29 maximum per hour for managers.

A raise from $.75 to $.90 for co-op students under 18, and raise from $1 to $1.15 for co-op students over 18.

A $300 increase for building and grounds supervisors, from $10,200 to $10,500.

Also involved was an increase in fringe benefits, and time and a half for over time.

Administrative personnel annual salaries were also raised:

Elementary school principal from $1,800 to $1,900 above scale the first year, to a top of $2,600 above teachers' scale for the fourth year.

Assistant principals, a first year $750 above scale, a second year $950 above scale and a third year $1,100 above scale.

Junior high principal salaries were upped from $10,600 to $11,400 and $11,300 to $11,850.

Senior high assistant principals, the fourth year, $1,800 to $1,900 above scale.

The high school principal from $12,600 to $13,300, the assistant superintendent-secondary education from $12,750 to $13,550, and the assistant superintendent-business from $12,750 to $13,650.

Superintendent of schools from $18,200 to $19,100.

Calhoun

outh to the larger site on Plymouth Road in Plymouth Township, Calhoun told the commission he planned on constructing a building with an area of 38,000 square feet—an addition of 3,000 feet from the structure first mentioned to the Township Board of Trustees.

"We feel we will need the additional space," he told the Plan Board. "We also plan to have five acres of hardtop paving and expect to have a staff of between 75 and 100 when at the peak."

Earlier, Calhoun had mentioned a peak of 90 but indicated the expanded plans would also result in a larger force, a larger payroll and a much bigger impact on the economic picture of the community.

Although he still has to have approval from the public hearing and favorable action from the Planning Commission and the Township Board, Calhoun hopes to be able to start construction by fall with the thought of opening the new quarters within another year—provided he receives all of the approvals necessary from the various Boards.

Matter of fact, indications point to quite a development in the immediate area.

The Planning Commission approved that plan for the the Herman Apartments, slated for construction directly behind the Plymouth Bowl, which in turn is adjacent to the property sought by Calhoun.

Building Inspector Matt McLellan was authorized to issue a building permit for the apartments. The plans for three buildings with 16 units each and a fourth with eight units for a total of 56 apartments. The developer showed plans calling for parking facilities for 120 cars.

The commission also approved rezoning of 8.5 acres at the southwest corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Beck Road, owned by Richard Fritz, from R-1-E to R-1-H and ordered the amended percolating test reports sent to the Wayne County Co-Ordinating Committee for study and action.

Plans for construction of a self-serve auto wash, directly behind the McAllister Brothers service station and store on Northville Road, were approved. The project did not require rezoning and thus only approval of the plans. The McAllisters expect to start work immediately.

Council

service on the Board. Both retired from the Commission on April 1.

In other actions, the Commission:
Approved the appointment of Ron Coosaia to the Planning Commission to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Marshall North.

Approved the reappointment of John Blickenstaff to the Cemetery Board of Trustees.
Approved a bid from Cadillac Asphalt Paving Co. and Thompson-McCully for $126,633.50 for the street improvements program. This was much lower than the estimates which ranged from $150,000 to $175,000.

Approved a contribution of $100 to the Chamber of Commerce to help defray the costs of the July 4 fireworks display.

Referred back to the City Manager a request from Tom Cape for improvements and paving of the roadway at 1365 McKinley south of Byron Street pending additional information.

Heard a report that the new 701 contract for planning has been presented by consultants Vilcan and Leman.

Rotary

offices—all will take office officially on July 1.

Inasmuch as Rotary is celebrating its 60th year of service, the assembly was most important to all in setting up objectives for the coming fiscal year.

A. Robert Davidson, District Governor from Windsor, gave the welcoming address and introduced the Incoming Governor as well as the Incoming Governor for adjoining district 638.

Richwine gave a short talk in which he told of the "Purpose of the Assembly" after which the various officers gathered in separate rooms for meetings and lectures on their duties and assignments for 1965-6.

An excellent buffet lunch broke the day into two sessions and was followed by additional instruction classes during the afternoon before the adjournment at 4 p.m.

Wayne Dunlap, from the Plymouth Club, was in charge of the entertainment and music and the buffet was served by Rotarian Loren Goodale of Plymouth.

The Hanging Gardens of Babylon were as much a labor of love as the Taj Mahal. Nebuchadnezzar is said to have built the gardens for his wife about 600 B. C. because she missed her homeland of hills and trees.

Dr. Barber Installed As Lions Prexy

Saturday, June 12, marked an important annual event for the Plymouth Lions Club. The Club held its annual installation of officers party at Lofy's.

The 1965-66 officers and directors of the Club were installed by visiting guest Lions Bob Ball, Past Deputy District Governor of the Ann Arbor Lions Club.

Outgoing President D. Phil Tormohlen, was awarded a plaque for his fine leadership to the club during the past year.

Lion Phil awarded the President's gavel to President-Elect Ray Barber, who will hold the reign during the next year. Lion President Ray is supported by Vice-Presidents Fred Eisenlord, Marv VanHeest and John Dodge.

In a brief talk, President-Elect Ray outlined the goals he has set for the Club, two of which have specific bearing on the Plymouth Community; first a specific long-range community project, to be selected from several under consideration, and second the striving for more inter-service club unity, understanding and cooperation.

becoming famous in this section of the state for its pancakes and sausages, will have a pancake menu throughout Saturday, Sept. 11 in the Masonic Temple.

On the same evening, a square dance will be held in the Kellogg Park area, with the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsoring a chuckwagon.

Then comes the granddaddy of the Festival events on Sunday in what the Board believes will be the greatest four-day celebration in Plymouth history.

Men with great confidence tend to build confidence in others.

MEMO TO POSTMASTERS: WHY?

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

At supper the other evening a member of a local public school staff made the statement that he did not know the name of the person to whom he gave a vote for state representative — he "always automatically pulled the lever of the donkey" and had never and would never vote for a Republican — "there wasn't one worth voting for."

After the first flash of red, I mused this educator's attitude over in great puzzlement and it answered a question for me I have asked over and over, ever since I first viewed the infamous Nuremberg Trials via the movie of the same name.

I saw the stirring documented film again on TV Sunday night and asked myself how this could happen — how could human beings allow men, women and children to be methodically killed in acts, not of war, which is horrible enough, but of political aggression. How could Hitler ever have been?

Now I understand. It had nothing to do with being German at all. There could be an American Hitler. Easy. When a person dedicated to education can make this statement in all sincerity, that he is so disciplined and unthinking that he neither reads nor cares for whom he votes, that he just pulls a lever with a picture on top — then we must thank God we haven't got a Hitler in this country.

No matter what your party, Republican or Democrat, voting blind for a symbol is dangerous.

There is a tremendous message in the final scenes of the Nuremberg Trials when we realize all those sentenced to life in prison for the atrocities to the Jewish people by the Germans, are now free in the world. The message of the replacement of justice by expediency is a difficult one to understand.

There is too much expediency in the world. We sacrifice our principles daily. And, as the point was made in the picture in the final scene, it is not the end result for which we must apologize BUT for the very first time we don't speak up a little bit, correct an impression, stand for what we believe loud and clear. The first time, on the first principle.

Our memories may be jogged again next week when we have the opportunity to see the film opening at the Mai Kai in Livonia, "Von Ryan's Express", based on the book by David Westheimer.

The story is based on his own experience in the war. He was a member, in fact the radio operator on the B-24 bomber of which David Westheimer was the navigator. The picture is dedicated to their pilot Larry Kennedy.

After four months and 28 raids their plane was shot down over Naples on Dec. 18, 1942.

For 28 months Al Barnes and Westheimer and the rest of the crew (four were killed) were prisoners of war. Eleven months in Italy and 18 months in Germany.

The picture deals with the experiences of their being moved as prisoners from Italy to Germany. Frank Sinatra stars in the picture and there are others.

For those who shared similar experiences, now in their 40's, the faces on the screen might seem like their own — reliving the horrors. To those much younger it is hoped the message is driven home that it could all happen again.

Particularly if we don't know who and what we vote for, but just pull a lever with a picture on top.

Thanks from Mr. Milko

Editor: I am extremely grateful to all my loyal friends who devoted so much of their time and energy toward my campaign for reelection to the Livonia Board of Education. I have honestly performed my commitments made to the taxpayers while in office to promote the best education for our children. I take this opportunity to thank all who voted for me. My congratulations to the winners Mrs. Joiner and Mr. Tadonno. In keeping with the policy of a beautiful Livonia, all signs bearing my name will be removed by the time this letter is published. Stimulated Thinking Forum A Success

On Thursday, June 10, the Farmington Community Forum held its last debate of the season. The subject was Vietnam, and the debaters were Rabbi Sherwin Wine, and Wayne State University History Professor John Weiss.

This finale was quite typical of the whole series. The subject was timely. The debaters were not unaccustomed to controversy. The audience was large and involved.

The sponsors of the Forum promised to bring the world of ideas into the community. They succeeded in doing so. This was a good thing. They also succeeded in bringing a lot of controversy to the community, and this was equally good.

Life in suburbia is too often a case of the bland leading the bland. What the Forum did was to open a bedroom window onto the turbulent sea that is the real world of today.

The Farmington Forum was not only an artistic but a financial success—The Universalist-Unitarian Church, of Farmington, which sponsored it, ended up with almost $100 profit. This is pretty convincing testimony to the fact that suburbanites have a real hunger for intellectual give-and-take.

Congratulations are in order to Wanda Pusey, Rev. Robert Eddy, and Clara Vincent, all of whom worked hard and very imaginatively to make the project a success, and to the congregation of the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington, which gave them solid backing.

This newspaper hopes the series will be back in the fall.

ALLEN ROSENFELD

A Negro 'Speaks Up' on Teacher Issue

Editor: It is with pleasure to address you this letter — and yet I wish not only you, but all the readers of the OBSERVER to give ear.

Please permit me, first, to say that I read each issue of The Observer to my profit and pleasure. I feel that it performs a valuable service to Metropolitan Detroit and ultimately to our nation.

As a Negro—father of five children (all of whom are in an integrated public school)—husband of a wife who is a teacher in the Detroit public schools and who holds a Masters' degree in Mathematics—a former president of a PTA in which there were both Negro and white teachers—the product of both segregated and non-segregated schools—a veteran of two wars—and a lover of my country, I feel that it becomes my duty to make known my sentiments and to offer some correction with regard to the ludicrous statements put forth under the signature of Eleanor G. Rennan ("For Discrimination," The Observer, June, 1965).

I must admit that the article aroused sharp repugnancy in me. Had not E. G. Rennan informed us of her former residence (Redford), I would have sworn she is Negro because of her supposedly deep insight into the wishes of Negro parents. Of course, E. G. Rennan's statements expose her innocence about Negro desires and teachers.

The first statement of misinformation that I'd like to briefly correct is that "most Negroes prefer to have white teachers for their children." Negro parents, like all concerned parents, would prefer the best teachers for their children whether they be white or Negro. Negro parents are interested in quality of teaching, not color of teachers.

The second contradictory statement to which I'd like to respond is that "Negro teachers are not considered as well-qualified as white teachers. Livonia can get the best teachers, (Negroes implied), for all who can leave Detroit schools are getting out." Surely E. G. Rennan is intelligent enough to realize that there are dedicated, talented teachers as well as mediocre teachers of both races. If she doesn't realize this, I question her education.

In regard to the employment of Negro teachers in Livonia, let it be known that the school board of Livonia has not only a policy of non-discriminatory hiring practices but also an affirmative plan of action to put the policy into effect. It is transferring its policy from a cold abstract theory to a living, breathing active plan.

If E. G. Rennan thinks that Negro teachers are anxious to leave Detroit, I'd like to suggest that she should become acquainted with present efforts in Grosse Pointe, Allen Park, and certain other suburban communities to recruit Negro teachers. She will learn that it is a difficult task, and Negro teachers are not anxious to leave Detroit.

I should now like to comment on a more important issue. It is encouraging to me, an American, to know that there are tongues in Redford which have spoken for implementation of a school board policy which tends to generous thoughts, generous words, and generous deeds. It is encouraging to see the ardor for freedom, justice, and equality of opportunity catching and spreading in Redford and throughout Metropolitan Detroit.

What kind of teachers do I prefer for my children? The kind of teachers who signed the petition presented to the board of education in South Redford, assuming that they are well trained—and I have no reason to believe otherwise. I believe these are the best kind of people, white or Negro, for the teaching profession because they are apparently more concerned about making a contribution to young people, the community, and our country than they are about self aggrandizement or maintaining the status quo.

Changing conditions, not teachers, make new issues. The principles upon which democracy rests are as everlasting as the hills, but they must be applied to new conditions as they arise. Conditions have arisen, and a few have acted to meet those conditions.

Now, whether Redford will employ a Negro teacher or not, I know not, and I predict not. But this I think I know—the times are auspicious, and increasingly there are people of goodwill in every community. I sincerely feel there are many more people in Redford, both teachers and non teachers, who wish not to avoid meeting the issues of our time, but prefer to meet them in a way that will redound to Redford's credit.

The Reader Speaks Up:

Citizens Do Want Laws Obeyed

Editor: Bravo! Your editorial opposing Mr. Hollman's "charity" bingo games was a well-stated echo of my sentiments. At a time when allowing oneself to become upset over a matter of principle is often considered "strange" or foolish (for it could lead to that terrible thing, INVOLVEMENT!) it is a pleasure to see someone truly and publicly indignant!

It would seem, that if in truth, it is solely the County Prosecutor's responsibility to interpret and enforce the state gambling laws, and if he chooses to ignore the situation completely, the City must have some method of recourse. Possibly enforcing or initiating a City ordinance that might make Livonia less attractive to "operators" of questionable character.

I would hate to think that exploitation of retarded children and senior citizens for personal gain, and flagrant manipulation of our laws would not cause considerable indignation throughout our city.

The majority of Livonia's citizens certainly are not "sweet old ladies" or apathetic citizens, who support Mr. Hollman's "charitable" enterprises. Or am I naive and foolish?

GEORGIA MOSSMAN Livonia

To Livonia Voters

Editor: May I congratulate Mr. Sam Hudson and his supporters for winning the at-large seat, and may I also thank the 4,964 people who showed their confidence in me by pulling the lever or marking the paper ballot opposite my name. Hopefully you are publishing the precinct-by-precinct vote in both college races so that people can evaluate how the voting went. I wish to express my profound gratitude to the many people who tried to bring our message to the people and worked so hard in my behalf. I'm sorry, folks, that we didn't win; but I don't feel defeated. It was a "fun" campaign with many gratifying aspects. I made many new friends, and I hope, few enemies. You, my supporters, put up a very good fight. Consider, we needed only 280 more votes to reach that magical 50% plus one! (No sour grapes intended here.)

When Dr. Bradner phoned after I filed to tell me my nomination notice inadvertently read six years instead of the actual four (a clerical error) he told me I would have a fight on my hands. As it turned out, he was right. He wondered too, how I came by my decision to run for the at-large seat instead of the one for Livonia—did I "flip a coin"?

Hardly, and since I love Livonia dearly (this has been my home for 15 years and I expect it to be for the rest of my life) I will now direct my remarks to my fellow Livonians. I owe them an explanation about my candidacy and the REAL ISSUES. I did have nominating petitions out for both the Livonia seat and the at-large while I was "observing the scene" before I filed. When on the last filing day, I observed there were five well-qualified candidates for the Livonia seat and no contestant for the unexpired term of Charles Kirkpatrick, the Livonian who resigned last year, I decided to try to return this seat to Livonia. I have no regrets because this seemed to be the right thing to do and "this above all, to thine own self be true."

There are many questions that arise as one wonders why Livonia didn't get out and vote heavier—about 17% of the registered voters in the school district voted on the at-large seat.

Did the paper do a job of explaining to the people the real issue, the one of REPRESENTATION? In their effort to stay "neutral" did they sell the people of Livonia short? How many knew that when Mr. Kirkpatrick resigned last summer the board, by a vote of four to two, put Mr. Hudson in his place last October—hence the advantage word of incumbent?

That there apparently was no one from Livonia who "would serve or qualify"? That this action gave Plymouth School District with its 25,000 population three seats on an eight-member board, as opposed to the two seats representing Livonia's nearly 90,000 people? That Garden City with its 39,000 people remained with Clarenceville with its 5,000?

That Northville, with its approximate population of 8,000 automatically has a seat as does Hardly the one man one vote ideal here. Do the people know that Ed. Milligan of Livonia was the chairman of that initial Citizen Education and Action Committee that established the college district and no mention was made of him at the dedication? That Mrs. Hulsing of the Plymouth Board of Education who was on the Study Committee, represented the citizens at the dedication? Picaune? Perhaps. But it points up further the domination of one small community.

Do the people of Livonia know who wanted the expressway to go East of Haggerty so that for all practical purposes our college would be in Northville—with Livonia footing the bills? We have over two-thirds of the state equalized valuation in the college district—pay more taxes than the four other school districts put together and have only two representatives out of eight on the college board!

Fellow citizens WAKE UP! We were a sleeping giant, anesthetized by clever maneuvers and our own apathy. Now let's join our mayor and the city council in opposing the State Highway Commission in their attempts to build the expressway East of Haggerty.

Let's KNOW what goes on at college board meetings even if we have to spend some money for printing. For those who doubtless will accuse me of being political, remember the ace in that game was played last October (smaller ones were played before) and Plymouth still holds most of the trumps. ROSINA RAYMOND.

Editors Note: Several of Mrs. Raymond's points are very well taken.

Campaign Chest?

Editor: I live in Farmington and I do enjoy bingo games as a pastime. Occasionally, I go to a bingo game sponsored by a church even though it is not of my faith.

I am opposed to any single person or self-appointed group running a bingo game, because it is breaking the existing law. Believe me, there is plenty of money made every night by those sponsoring a game — I know this for a fact. I worked on a committee that ran one at the lodge I used to belong to and it was fantastic how much money was made nightly.

With the lodge, as with the church, the money is really used for a good cause, either for financing items for the church school or church itself, or as in the case of a lodge, for carrying on the work of service they do in their community. All fine activities.

I don't want to think I am financing Mr. Hollman's running for office in the next election which is what I believe happens to part of his nightly income.

From An Educator

Editor: We wish to thank The Observer for your consistent and intelligent coverage of the Redford Union news and, particularly, our recent 17.5 mill renewal campaign. The prominent analysis of this proposal on the front page of your paper helped immensely in communication with the voters in our district.

Yesterday's Headlines

25 Years Ago It was reported in the June 26, 1940 Livonian that the Red Cross in this area was looking for volunteer women to help knit, sew, and work for needy people all over America. Another front page article reported that out of 20,000 tax descriptions on record for that year only six pieces of property were asked to be rechecked.

20 Years Ago The Livonian for June 27, 1945, reported that plans were being made for the building of a new firehouse after the war was over. This new house would be built at the corner of Plymouth and Merriman Roads and would cost approximately $6,000.

15 Years Ago To show how the Livonia Police Force has grown, here is a report of the department as it was in 1950 (taken from the June 23, 1950 Livonia). On the staff there were three policemen, a chief, one radio-equipped patrol car and a yearly budget of $12,500.

10 Years Ago The Livonian for June 23, 1955, reported that starting this week Livonia's recreation program will begin a full slate of activities for kids of all ages. Some planned activities are tennis tournaments, swimming meets, baseball games, and many, many others.

5 Years Ago "Do You Want Vote On City?" was the headline of the June 23, 1960 Redford Observer. This question was asked of the people of Redford in a special poll that the Observer was running. It asked the people whether or not they would be in favor of having Redford Township incorporating as a city.

1 Year Ago The Plymouth Observer of June 24, 1964 reported that the city is still recovering from the worst storm in many years. The storm carried rain, hail and winds up to 75 miles an hour right through the heart of the city before it moved to Livonia, Redford, and Farmington. KERRY GUENTHER

Editor: I learned today through friends in Livonia that the election of recent date resulted in positive forces for better education in the Livonia Schools.

As a former employee of the school district and a reasonably long-time resident I could not be more pleased to have this kind of information. While I have physically separated from the area I will continue to look with interest at what happens in both the schools and the community.

The kids love the new Neptune Aquarium store at 28431 Southfield at 12 Mile Rd., Lathrup. Opened just last week the kids have been visiting the store every day to examine the 250 different kinds of tropical fish on hand.

A complete selection is also available at the two year "old" Neptune Aquarium at 27488 Schoolcraft at Inkster.

Mac Duberstein, owner of the shops, is always happy to show and explain the different species in stock and to explain about the establishment's specialty of decorating aquariums.

Installation and service of aquariums is also a specialty. Hours of both stores are 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday and 12 to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

"Hello There" says the Myna Bird to everyone entering Pets 'n' Particulars located at 22830 Maconey across from the Farmington Plaza in Farmington. Donna Bebeau, co-manager of the new shop, holds one of the puppies for sale.

The store has a variety of pets—birds (including finches), lizards, turtles, tortoises, rabbits and, of course, cats and dogs.

In addition the shop stocks pet food, books on how to train and care for animals, and all kinds of pet equipment. Facilities are also offered for bird boarding and pet grooming.

Miss Bebeau and Carolyn Ward bring more than 10 years experience to the business. The store is located next to Dr. John Richardson's office.

St. Agatha Seniors Hosted at Breakfast Prior to Graduation

By MARY LOU MANGOLD

The freshman class hosted a breakfast for the Seniors on Thursday, June 3. The luncheon, decorated with pastel ribbons, favors and flowers, was the scene for a sumptuous meal of sausages, French toast, and coffee.

On Friday, while underclassmen began their final examinations, the Seniors spent a strenuous day of horseback riding. Stiff as they were, the graduates showed up the next day to take the Sisters for a tour of Greenfield Village.

Baccalaureate Sunday morning, seniors donned white or green caps and gowns to march down the aisle at 8:30 a.m. Mass. Afterwards they enjoyed a breakfast arranged by their mothers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Funke, parents of Michael Funke, one of the graduates.

That evening, the class attended a weenie-roast at Ann Drolshagen's home followed by a swimming party hosted by Denise Beausoleil.

Seniors reported to school Monday and Tuesday mornings to practice for Rose and Torch ceremonies and for graduation exercises. At noon, on Tuesday, they enjoyed a chili lunch at the home of Ronald Zimmerman.

Wednesday evening was Senior class night. Attended by all juniors, seniors, and parents, it opened with the reading of the class history, composed by Judith Paganini and Karen Mrazik.

Frances Nadolny presented the valedictory address, followed by salutatorian Cynthia Meisner.

MR. WEGENER presented the Optimist Award to Daniel Lilley, the boy chosen by the faculty as the outstanding citizen. Father Reid and master of ceremonies Philip Davison awarded the medals to other outstanding seniors.

Among those presented were: American Legion awards—Jill Lindsay and Philip Davison; Valedictorian Award (for the student with the highest academic average throughout high school) — Frances Nadolny; Salutatorian (student with the second highest average) — Cynthia Meisner; Drama Awards (for performance in The Sound of Music)—Judith Paganini and Daniel Lilley.

Service Award — Robert Schrock; Co-operation Award—Robert Alter; Leadership Award—Jill Lindsay; Home-maker's Award — Patricia Brown; Sodality Award—Marilyn Gaffka; Yearbook Co-editors — Juliana Brown and Frances Nadolny; Michigan State Journalism Award — Juliana Brown and Fran Nadolny.

National Honor Society: Judith Paganini; Teresa Gillis; Marilyn Gaffka; Frances Nadolny; Juliana Brown; Daniel Lilley; Patricia Brown; and Jill Lindsay; Genesain Interpretive Awards — Juliana Brown; Parish Scholarship — Teresa Gillis; Women's Club Scholarship—Frances Nadolny.

Class president James Rose then presented Father Reid with a gift for the school. After a few remarks by Father Reid the students adjourned for the symbolic Rose and Torch Ceremony.

Seniors, attired in caps and gowns, marched into the darkened gym carrying lighted torches, followed by juniors bearing red roses. Passing the flame to the underclassmen signified the new position of leadership and responsibility which the juniors will now hold. As they received the rose, Seniors were sent forth into the world. The ceremony closed with Benediction in church.

Honor Students Feted at Thurston

By JOANN VAN WYE

The underclassmen looked on enviously as the Seniors, dressed in their caps and gowns for the first time, filed into the gym for the Honors Day Assembly on June 11. On this day recognition was given to Thurston's outstanding students. Mr. Frank Block served as the master of ceremonies at Honors Day. After a band interlude, Mr. Roe presented the Valedictory and Salutatory medals to Karen Bolz and Joan Krejci. Recognition was also given to the National Merit Semi-Finalist, Don Bone, and to Sue Dean, Kris Hornyak, Joan Krejci, and Connie Ward, who received letters of commendation.

Next on the program was the presentation of departmental awards. The art award was given to Georgia McKee. Scholastic art certificates were received by Al Bass, Jim Blazo, Janet Bowman, Linda Buckland, Bob Cieslak, Bob Davidson, Debbie Manning, Sue Moore, Annette Patchett, Emily Reid (2), Ed Szymanski, Sue Teryniak, and Bruce Zielinski. The scholastic art key awards went to Jim Blazo, Harriet Jirik, Debbie Manning, Paul Szoke, and Larry Turk. Larry Turk also received the scholastic art blue ribbon.

Due to her outstanding achievements in home economics Pat Hoag was awarded the departmental award. The chorus awards went to Jean Donaldson, Pam McLean, and Jackie Pinch and Mike Bernhardt received the band award. The National School Orchestra Association Award was given to Bill Stanis. Dan King, this year's drum major, received the Sousa Band Award.

The commercial department selected Leslye Carr and Diana Stewart to receive the Business awards. Bill Donnan and Richard Sammut received the retailing co-op awards. The business education awards went to Sandra Buc on and Carolyn Obenour. Receiving the trade and Industrial awards were Bob Allard and Chuck Gillette.

Receiving recognition for their achievements in the field of journalism were Jim Donahue, Julie Heinz, Sally Kuryla, Jim Sproul, and Joann Van Wye. Julie and Joann, the managing editors of the Eagle Outlook, also received the Michigan Press Association Award. The yearbook certificates of merit were presented to Judy Klocko, Sally Kuryla, and Judy Nowicki.

The outstanding achievement award in English was awarded to Karen Bolz. Christine Franzen received the American Association of Teachers of French Award. French 5 awards were awarded to Karen Bolz, Donna Glowacki, Sandy Johnson, and Judy Klocko. The French 4 award went to Linda Smith and Joan Krejci received the French III award. The German Honorary Award was given to Mike Bernhardt and Gloria Hilt.

Cherry Nicholson was selected to receive the Russian Award. Judy Nowicki and Mike Wallace received the Latin Honorary Award.

Because of her outstanding achievement in mathematics, Marie Mavis was presented with the departmental award. The Mathematics Prize Competition Certificates of Merit were presented to Tom Miller, David Raymond and Bob Wardrop. The chemistry award was given to Daryl LaBumbard and Larry Mead received the physics award.

Connie Ward, an active member of the debate team, presented Thurston with a plaque for Excellence that the debaters had received from U of M. The District Honor Plaque for superior achievement was presented to Thurston by Linda Goodwin. Connie Ward was chosen as the most valuable debater and presented with the Catherine Keys Memorial Trophy. The Spring Forensics keys and certificates were given to Dorothy Harvey and Jackie Pinch for oratory; Tim Werdell and Pat Wood for declamation, Diane Hoover and Kathy Lenk for extemporaneous, Gordon Keevis and Luana Konvalinka for humorous reading and Lynn Clancy and Sharon Pulice for interpretive reading. District first place honors were received by Tim Werdell and Lynn Clancy.

Coach Lyle Bennett's Central Michigan University track coaching dual meet record now stands at 50-36 for 19 seasons at the helm.

Pancakes — 75 Seniors Eat 'em Up

Last Wednesday 75 seniors from Franklin High School "invaded" Uncle John's Pancake House at 10001 Telegraph Rd. Their project was to "bust" the establishment and eat them out of pancakes (all you can eat for 49 cents).

Seven young men consumed a 53 inch high stack of pancakes or if laid end to end a row of pancakes about 106 feet in length.

For the more prosaic the record-breaking total was 212 pancakes.

The new champs are: Dave Gamber, 11310 Auburndale; Roger Frayer, 9847 Flamingo; Bud Weber, 9964 Clements Circle; Perry Copeland, 11360 Clements Circle; Steve Kaiser, 8814 Farmington; Dave Kuczynski, 9605 Fairfield; Mike Stock, 8825 Nevada; and Bill Mauzy, 32210 West Chicago.

Manager Ray Pearce told the Observer that "a good time was had by all and wouldn't it be nice if more young people could enjoy themselves like this."

Where did the boys learn about Uncle John's and its bargains? Through an ad in the Observer, of course.

NEW OFFICERS of the Redford Township Jayettes are, from left: (front row) Mrs. Roy Jurva, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Herndon, vice president; Mrs. Don Jeter, president; and Mrs. John Krathwohl, secretary. Directors of the JC auxiliary in the back row are, from left: Mrs. Cliff Storey; Mrs. Hawley; Mrs. Bob Walker; Mrs. Jim Mitchell; and Mrs. Bill Gunn. The new officers were installed at a recent banquet.

Tip To Baseball Players 'Stay Home'

"Stay close to home . . . you have nothing to gain by going downtown."
The advice from Louis D'Annunzio, crack scout for the Detroit Tigers and one of the most popular and well-liked men in his profession.
D'Annunzio's remarks were directed at Greater Livonia area baseball players . . . boys from Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Union, Farmington and Garden City.

"It's silly for boys 17 and 18 to think that they have a better chance to play baseball and gain recognition if they spend their summers in Detroit," continued D'Annunzio.

"The Connie Mack and Detroit Free Press Leagues operated around Livonia have to be two of the best in the state. Show me leagues where they have better managers than fellows like Al Turner, Bob Atkins, John Hartsig and all the rest."

D'Annunzio paused for a few seconds.
"Why we think so much of the league out around Livonia, we have scouts there most every time the boys of high school age play."

"That's how we first looked at Rick Clark (an ex-star at Redford Union and for Atkins' summer Redford Township team which plays in the Livonia League)."

"Rick now is something like 6-2 for our Jamestown (N.Y.) farm club. He sure looks like a comer. Maybe in two or three years he'll be up with the Tigers. He hurled a neat five-hitter the other night."

D'Annunzio was high up in the third deck at Tiger Stadium as he talked.
Many of his boys have made it to Tiger Stadium, the most notable of whom happens to be an "enemy," —Milt Pappas of the Baltimore Orioles. D'Annunzio was scouting for the Orioles when he literally stole Pappas away from the Tigers.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin
After that happened, the Tigers made certain such a business never would happen again. They induced D'Annunzio to join the Detroit fold.

D'Annunzio had more to say for suburban youngsters.

"These boys don't seem to realize that by coming to Detroit in the summer they're being exploited by some of the sandlot managers."

"All boys should realize that wherever they play, the distance between bases is the same. The same goes for the distance between home plate and the pitcher's mound. And there is no difference in the bats or the baseballs."

D'Annunzio also had high praise for John Dufour, who runs the Recreation program in Livonia, and Al Roscoe, who directs the athletic leagues.

"I have seen a lot of baseball programs in my time," he explained. "You might miss out on a fine product in your area. Under the old system, we had a better chance of landing such a boy."

"Dufour and Roscoe have matters well organized. The lighted field on Farmington Road is a dandy. When a scout shows up to watch a game, he's treated in royal style."

"The folks out that way should appreciate the sandlot baseball being offered them. And the boys themselves should forget that they'll encounter better conditions elsewhere."

D'Annunzio minces no words that the Tigers would have liked to have landed Franklin High's Bernie Carbo in the recent draft.

"That's one of the hitches in the new draft system," he explained. "You might miss out on a fine product in your area. Under the old system, we had a better chance of landing such a boy."

D'Annunzio didn't say so, but over the past decade the Tigers have missed some standouts from their own backyard—stars like Pappas, Dick Radatz, Ron Perranowski, Tom Tresh, Leon Wagner, Lennie Green, etc.

But one boy D'Annunzio did help get for the Tigers is Willie Horton, the brightest young face to hit the club in a long time. Louie also had a great deal to do with Detroit signing Catcher Bill Freehan and Joe Sparna.

Whether baseball retains the new draft remains to be seen, according to D'Annunzio.

"I'd have to say everything will depend on whether the draft succeeds in doing away with the big bonus money paid in advance. If the clubs still have to dish out a lot of money, they very well might ditch the draft in a year or two."

In the meantime, D'Annunzio won't change his scouting pattern. When he spots a bright, young performer, he'll personally work with the boy . . . hoping perhaps, that the Tigers might be fortunate to draft the young man some day in the future.

"You'll be seeing me around Livonia a lot this summer," D'Annunzio concluded.

"With two fine games every night, and some dandy players out there, we'd be silly if we didn't pay regular visits to Ford Field."

Scouts, representing other big league clubs, chorus almost identical remarks.

The fact that something like 12 major league ivory hunters, including some big wheels, showed up for the Livonia Invitational prep final between Franklin and Redford Union further attests to the calibre of baseball being played around here this summer.

So why go elsewhere?

SETS PACE IN FREE PRESS LEAGUE:

Trip at Stake For Redford Team

A trip to Zanesville, Ohio, for a July 4-5 tripleheader stands on the horizon for the Redford Township entry in the Greater Livonia-Detroit Free Press baseball league.

The team, which paces the league as of June 30, will win the right to play at Zanesville. At the moment, the "loaded"

Township team paces the circuit with an unbeaten record.

Manager Al Turner has assembled an all-star array of Township talent for play in the Free Press league—competition in which ultimately could lead to the state title and the right to represent Michigan in the All America Boys tournament in Johnstown, Pa., in late August.

Greats from Redford Union, Thurston and St. Agatha highs make up for the Township team.

Many of the players were acclaimed in 1964 and 1965 on the Observer Newspapers' All-Area baseball team.

The Township pitching staff lists three standout southpaws in Rick Fisher (Redford Union), Arnie Helwig (Thurston) and Mike McCrum (Thurston) along with righthanders Tom Tanner and Jim Sproul (Thurston) and Rick Collins (St. Agatha).

Tanner is fresh from a try-out with the New York Yankees who signed him a year ago to a bonus which assures Tom his college education at Hillsdale.

Others on the Township team include All-area choices like Harry Kendrick (Redford Union), catcher; Dave Woloch (Redford Union), second base; Lou Banwert, (Thurston and Eastern Michigan), first base; Rick Harlow (Thurston and Michigan State), outfielder, and Terry Rothwell and Reg Barringer (both Thurston), outfielders.

In their lone Free Press action last week, Redford scored an easy 5-1 win over the Livonia Giants behind some great pitching of Helwig.

He struck out 17, walked five and allowed three hits.

Pete Hembrough, hurling for the Livonians, deserved a better fate.

Unl. the sixth inning he had allowed only one hit—a homer by Harlow.

But in the sixth the Township belters connected for four hits along with a walk to notch four runs. Banwert began matters with a double. Barringer and Gary Kneek singled. After Woloch walked, Rich Harlow singled.

Under the revised Free Press League schedule, games will be played every Wednesday, Friday and Sunday evenings at Henry Ford Field on Farmington road. In addition to Livonia and Redford two teams from Dearborn Heights and one from Wayne form the loop.

In this Wednesday's action, North Dearborn meets South Dearborn at 6:15 with Redford meeting the Wayne Red Sox at 8:30. On Friday, South Dearborn plays Redford at 6:15 and Livonia takes on North Dearborn at 8:30. There'll be a twin bill Sunday when Redford plays Livonia at 6:15 and Wayne meeting South Dearborn at 8:30.

Bentley Grad In No-Hitter

Homecoming was sweet for Larry Sladak.

After leaving Bentley High a year ago, Sladak enrolled at Western Michigan University for the 1964-65 school year.

He returned to the sports wars locally last week pitching for the DRC team of Livonia in the Connie Mack League.

Sladak got the call to face the Plymouth Elks and he promptly responded by pitching a 2-0, no-hit masterpiece. He struck out 12 and walked three.

The ex-Bentley star had a job to best Phil Troutman, star moundsman at Plymouth High this past season.

Troutman permitted only three hits and served a third strike to eight batters.

An error in the first inning helped DRC to get on the scoreboard quickly with an unearned run. The other DRC rally came in the sixth inning when Mike Dodson doubled and Jack Horbaniuk singled.

Other Connie Mack action last week saw:
N. REDFORD 5, LIVONIA ELKS 1.

Dick Barryman and Dave Bourassa teamed up to allow three hits between them. The former was touched for a pair of safeties, one of them by Tom Labo knocking in the lone Elks' run.

Barryman fanned seven to Bourassa's six.

The Townshipers scored two runs in the first inning as Harry Kendrick, Leland Bjerke and Ernie Bourassa delivered hits. Barryman's hit drove in the third run in the second inning.

After an error netted North Redford a tally in the fourth, Bjerke and Bourassa came through with base knocks in the fifth to finish up the scoring.

LIVONIA ELKS 4, INKSTER 3.

Five straight singles in the fifth inning netted two runs and helped the Elks pull out a triumph.

Fred Davies started the bombardment. Then Mike Moersch, Ray Mack, Dick Scanlon and Tom Labo followed suit.

In the first inning, Davies socked across Moersch and Steve Atkinson with the Elks' first two runs.

LIVONIA GIANTS 10, OPTIMISTS 0.
Ron Kapanke coasted along with a three-hitter and fanned five while Bruce Berger provided the Giants, who are made up of several stars from this past season's Franklin High championship team, with their big offensive power.

Berger delivered a two-run double in the first inning and then came through with another double that cleaned the bases in the third. Kapanke helped his own cause with a two-run double in the third.

The final three runs for the Giants were produced in the seventh inning with Paul Dedler drilling them across when

Why can't you buy the Karmann Ghia from a Karmann Ghia dealer?
Because the Karmann Ghia is really a Volkswagen. The Ghia's chassis, transmission and engine are all Volkswagen. So are the small gas bills. And the extra tire wear. And the excellent traction. Even parts and service are in that nice, inexpensive Volkswagen tradition.
Of course, compared to a VW, the Ghia has bigger bucket seats, sportier upholstery, an electric clock, even a defroster for the rear window. And then there's that beautiful body. With its noble Roman nose and graceful curves.
(We take the time to hand-weld and hand-shape and hand-smooth the body.)
But even though the Ghia doesn't get the mass production treatment, and even though it has a fancy body, it's still a Volkswagen at heart.
We wouldn't sell it to you if it wasn't.

RISKS TITLE IN 18th DISTRICT:

Farmington Legion Team Booms

Operating a restaurant on Grand River Ave. in Farmington doesn't give Wally Christensen much free time.

His establishment is open seven days a week . . . upwards of 12 hours each day.

But Christensen does find some spare moments during the summer to guide Farmington's Groves-Walker Post team in the 18th District of the American Legion baseball program.

This is Christensen's fourth year as the pilot. After the team placed fourth and third in the first two seasons, Groves-Walker hauled off the district title last year.

This summer finds the Farmington team off and running again with victories in three of its first four games.

Christensen draws his players from all of Farmington's high schools with games played on the Our Lady of Sorrows diamond.

In addition to Farmington, teams from Waterford, Walled Lake, Milford, Southfield, Berkley and Troy make up the Legion's 18th District.

In play last week, Farmington divided a doubleheader with Waterford, winning 10-1 before losing by a 4-1 score. Then Farmington rebounded to blank Milford, 5-0.

Rick Krumm scattered four hits, fanned 15 and didn't issue a walk in Farmington's romp over Waterford.

Carl Misch paced the Farmington assault with three hits—a homer, triple and single—in as many trips to the plate and three runs knocked in. Dick Johnston and Miles Kearney each picked up two hits.

The game was airtight, tied at 1-1 until Farmington exploded with nine runs in the fifth inning.

A single by Misch started the party. Mike Perry and Barry Aeneda beat out infield hits to jam the bases. Kearney socked over two runs with a double. After Johnston walked, Bill Bowles singled and Chuck Viane doubled before the first Farmington out of the inning was registered.

Misch's second hit of the inning—a triple—chased in two more runs and then Perry squeezed home Misch to end the uprising.

A grand slam homer off Steve Page made it possible for Waterford to win in the nightcap as Misch again rapped out three hits in three trips to the plate to give him six-for-six for the day.

A single by Misch and triple by Perry accounted for the lone Farmington run.

Viane, the ace of North Farmington high's pitching staff this past spring, turned in the shut-out job against Milford. Viane allowed only two hits, fanned 13 and enjoyed perfect control. He didn't issue a walk.

Farmington scored first when Aeneda walked and Johnston tripled in the initial inning. A walk to Bowles and a hit by Perry made it 2-0 in the second. Singles by Krumm and Aeneda hiked the Farmington lead to 3-0 in the sixth.

A single by Viane, a triple by Miles Kearney and a single by Bowles rapped up the scoring in the sixth.

Farmington will be home Wednesday against Berkley, Friday against Southfield and Sunday against Troy. The week-day action starts at 6 p.m., the Sunday doubleheader against Troy at 2 p.m.

Musicians, Athletes Win Acclaim at Thurston

The annual athletic and band awards assembly held June 8 at Thurston High School in front of the football stadium was marked by speeches, band playing, and distribution of a variety of honors to those who had achieved in each sport.

Ohioan Wins Motorcycle Crown at DRC

Ronnie Rall captured the 10-mile Great Lakes Motorcycle racing championship Sunday, before a crowd of 10,382 at the Detroit Race Course.

The 26-year-old rider, from Mansfield, Ohio, was clocked in 10:06 as he paced a field of the eight fastest qualifiers in the feature event on the 13-race program.

Defending champion Bennie Bowden, of Kalamazoo, finished second. Tom Heil, of Dayton, Ohio, was third and George Bartle, of Detroit, fourth.

Out-of-state motorcyclists dominated the program by winning the three rider division titles.

Rall, who piloted a Harley-Davidson motorcycle, also captured first place in the expert division finals.

Dan Welty, of Deer Creek, Ill., was the amateur winner, while Dennis Bullock, of Mansfield, Ohio, was tops in the novice division.

The annual championship event drew 71 riders from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Ontario.

Monday, July 5, the $10,000 Windsor Handicap for three year olds at a mile and a sixteenth.

Monday, July 5, the $25,000 added July Fourth Handicap for three year olds and up at a mile and a sixteenth.

The July Fourth Handicap is one of the richest races of the year in Michigan, and it is sure to draw a first-rate field. In the Hazel Park meeting, only the $50,000 added Michigan Derby and the $30,000 Hazel Park Handicap on closing day, July 31, exceed the July Fourth classic in value.

Central Michigan University's 10-game 1965 football schedule includes its 13th appearance in Saginaw's Red Feather Game, slated for Sept. 11.

SETS 19 RECORDS

Wolverine Closes Record Meeting

With a crowd of 10,569 on hand, Wolverine Raceway Saturday rang down the curtain on the most successful harness racing meeting in Michigan history with wagering and attendance at an all-time high.

Saturday's throng poured $573,432 through the parimutual machines, giving the track an all-time Michigan high night average of $427,572. This is an increase of 11.4 per cent over the previous high of $381,455 set in 1964 at Wolverine.

Wolverine handled a total of $23,516,479 compared to $19,072,242 a year ago. More than that it became the first harness track in Michigan ever to handle a million dollars on each weekend of a meeting. It had two million dollar weekends a year ago for the previous record in that department.

Saturday's attendance boosted the season total to 361,455, an all-time high and compares with 318,389 for 50 nights in 1964. The nightly average attendance was 6,572, up 3.3 per cent over the 6,361 last year.

All told Wolverine bettered 19 records in the 55 nights, most of which were set a year ago. The only standard to stand up was the record shattering crowd of 13,186 on opening night a year ago—all others went by the boards.

Knox Pride, the great three-year-old Knox Hanover colt owned by Frank Erb of Adrian, registered his seventh victory in eight starts in the $2,500 Michigan colt stake for three-year-old pacers in the sixth and last of the week long series.

Knox Pride, handled by Chris Boring, was third for the first half-mile while General Knox set the pace. He moved to second on the outside at the three-quarters pole and then roared home to win by a length over the fast closing Peppy Relco in 2:04.4.

Elmer Conrad's eight-year-old Craig Creed was much the best in the $6,000 Au Revoir Pace, moving in front in the stretch and then withstanding the challenge of Bobby Axland and Livonia Boy in the closing strides to win by a length in 2:02.

Bill G, a six-year-old Florican gelding driven by Don McIlmurray, won the featured $3,000 trot and completed the season's largest twin double in which one holder of a ticket on the combination of 1-6-7-2 collected $32,046.00. The twin double pool also was an all-time high of $36,483.

Central Michigan University's single-season home run is eight set by Lee Goulet in 1963.

'A' Loop Dropped For '65

The Livonia Recreation Department has dropped its Class A baseball league for 1965.

The circuit, which in the past few years has boasted teams from Livonia, Northville, South Lyon and Willow Run, found itself with only defending champion Livonia ready to go again when entries for the '65 season were solicited.

"It just seems that in the other communities, the adult baseball players preferred to play sit-slop or softball," said Al Roscoe, director of athletics for Livonia's recreation department.

Roscoe declared the Livonia team would play an informal schedule this season with Jerry Stockwell again the manager.

"We'll arrange some games with top teams from Detroit, Pontiac, Dearborn and other cities," Roscoe declared.

Livonia had won the "A" title the last two years.

Rovers Lead Colt League

Colt League baseball last week belonged to the hitters with some rather sizeable run totals being recorded.

Some of the 15-year-old slug-gers up from last year's Pony League teams that did so well, are battling like veterans.

The Standings:

Table with 2 columns: Team Name, W, L. Rovers: 3, 1; Rangers: 3, 2; Rockets: 2, 2; Rustics: 1, 4.

TELEVISION SET is awarded Driver Robert Stansell, of Mason, by John Carlsruhler, area distributor, while Wolverine Raceway Promotional Director Dick Wilson (right) looks on. Stansell won the driving championship with a 418 winning percentage with a record of 17 wins, eight seconds and 15 thirds in 64 starts. Chris Boring, of Adrian, was second with a 389 average followed by Joe Marsh Jr., of Findlay, O., with 349.

Garden City Captures Four Out of Five in Connie Mack Play

Garden City's Connie Mack baseball team is moving in high gear.

After five games, the Garden City team under Manager Chet Buczek, had won four with only one setback.

Garden City held a 2-0 lead in the fifth inning against Ypsilanti. Then two miscues helped Ypsilanti to cash five unearned runs.

In action last week, Garden City whipped Belleville, 14-4; lost to Ypsilanti, 5-4, and then romped over Ann Arbor, 9-1.

Paul Kightlinger from Garden City East high school fashioned both of the victories.

He coasted against Belleville and then held Ann Arbor to three hits while fanning 10.

Steve Wiecekowski lashed three hits, one a triple, to pace the Garden City win over Belleville. Ford Simpson collected a pair of hits while Norm Vasquez socked a 415-foot homer.

Kightlinger aided his own cause with a double. Ken Cartier had two hits for Garden City.

Six runs on one hit in the seventh inning made matters easy for Garden City at Ann Arbor. Five walks and an error marked the festivities for Garden City along with a double by Don Barbus.

Earlier Don Dweles had knocked in two runs in the fourth with a single.

The Garden City team bounced back in the seventh when Dick Saylor drove in two runs and legged it all the way to third with one out. But Saylor was left stranded as he waited to jog home with the tying run.

Big Outdoor Art Show Set For Farmington

The Farmington Senior High School parking area on Shiawassee will be transformed into an outdoor art gallery on Sunday, June 27 from 1-7 p.m. Over thirty artists from the Farmington area will be exhibiting their art works in this open air exhibit and sale.

The artists are predominantly non-professional people who do their art work for leisure time activity although many of them exhibit and sell paintings throughout the year. There will be oil paintings, water colors, ink sketches, wood plaques, and contact paper collages on exhibit.

The artists themselves will be on hand throughout the show period to answer questions about the pieces on display. The following artists will be participating: A. Nichols, S. Genson, L. White, B. Fons, J. Burger, R. Koope, R. R. Reimer, J. Watt, J. Gere, J. Dembeck, M. Robertson, G. Hyde, T. Walker, R. Larkin, B. Glassmire, L. Carroll, R. Simmons, B. Schroll, J. Tesch, P. Grenier, K. Conley, G. Morrison, M. Grabowski, M. Gorham, M. Frankel, D. Gasior, R. Ewald, M. Tuthill, R. Stevenson, V. Tinson, and A. Lind. Several others are also tentatively planning to exhibit.

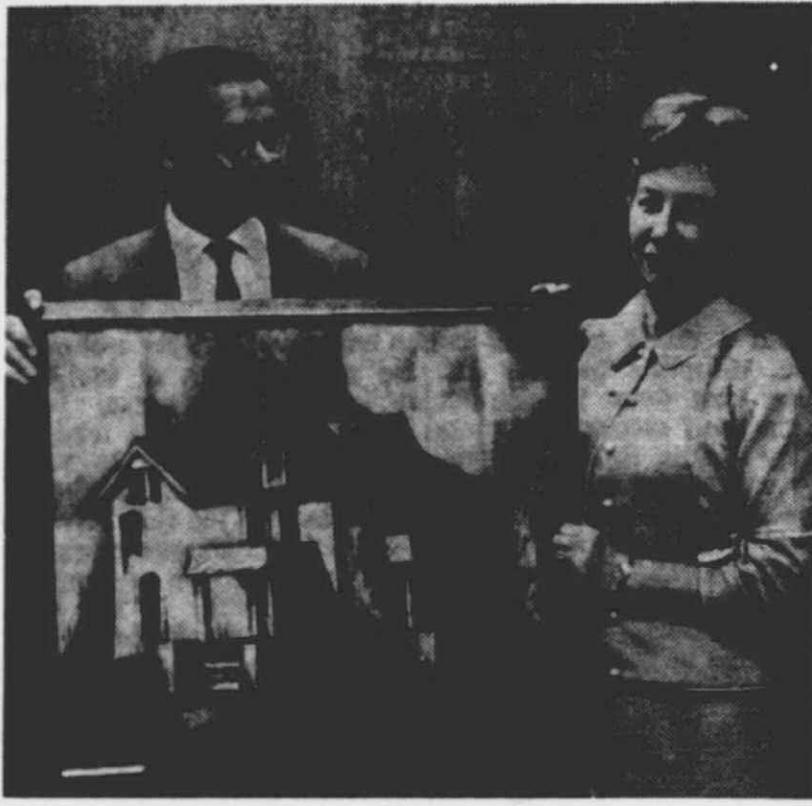

Alice Nichols, chairman, is hopeful that area residents will take advantage of the opportunity to view the work of these artists in the casual atmosphere of an outdoor show.

If the weather is unsuitable on the 27 the show will be held Sunday, July 11 during the same hours.

B'nai B'rith Sets Games Nite

A "night of games" will be held Monday, June 28, under the auspices of the Livonia Chapter of B'nai B'rith.

The event is scheduled for the Mayfair at 19151 Schaefer, near Seven Mile. Free refreshments will be served and there will be prizes. Further information is available from Natalie Epstein, GR 4-4085; Thelma Goren, KE 4-8412, or Connie Wise, GR 6-1034.

PICKING UP some pointers for the Seventh Annual Art Exhibit of Farmington is Stanley Hench of Livonia, from Marjorie Becker, judge of the show. Hench, an art resource teacher for the Livonia Public Schools, is co-chairman of the exhibit. Mrs. Becker is the coordinator of art education in the Livonia elementary schools.

Marjorie Becker Named Judge for Art Exhibit

Mrs. Marjorie Becker, coordinator of art education in the Livonia elementary schools, has been named judge of the Seventh Annual Art Exhibit of Farmington.

The show will be at the Universalist-Unitarian Church of Farmington July 11 through 17.

Mrs. Becker, who has been with the Livonia School's Art department for 14 years, says that in judging an art exhibit she looks for "the freshness of approach" and the "use of the artist's imagination in whatever the medium."

An artist in her own right, one of Mrs. Becker's paintings of the Plymouth Symphony is currently hanging in the Plymouth Library. She is also a past winner of the Michigan Week Women Painter's Competition in Detroit.

Her work also has been exhibited at an invitational affair at the State Fair and she is a past president of the Three Cities Art Club.

Mrs. Becker holds a bachelor of education degree from Eastern Michigan University and a master's in art education from Wayne State University. She has also done graduate work at the University of Michigan.

Artists may enter two works. Prizes to top exhibits will be awarded. Artists from throughout the metropolitan area are invited to enter paintings, drawings, graphics, sculpture, jewelry and ceramics in the show.

Hours for the exhibit will be from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. July 11 and 7 to 9 p.m. July 12 through 17.

Mrs. Arthur Pusey, Farmington artist, and Stanley Hench of Livonia are in charge of the show. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Pusey at GR 4-5099.

BOB HOPE'S 50th film is "I'll Take Sweden," is now showing at the Algiers Drive-In and The State Theater in Wayne. Co-starred with the veteran comedian is Tuesday Weld, Frankie Avalon, Dina Merrill and Jeremy Slate. For the technicolor comedy with music Hope journeys to the land of blondes, bathhouses and bikinis.

Art Institute Sets Summer Schedule

Effective July 1, visiting hours at The Detroit Institute of Arts will be as follows: Tuesday through Sunday, from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The Museum is closed on Mondays and holidays. This summer schedule will be in effect during the months of July and August.

The Museum is air-conditioned, and food and beverage service is available in the Continental Cafe located in the ground-floor Kreuze Court from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

Vicki Shimko Leads Women Golfers on 52

Vicki Shimko had low score in the A flight of the Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation Golf League at Idyl Wyld golf course. Miss Shimko fired a 52. Fay Reinhardt was the prize winner in the flight.

Other flight winners: B. Mary Carthy, 56; prize, Doris Bevin; C—Grace Koza, 61; prize, Estelle Wagonschutz; D—Opal Nutt, 64; prize, Margaret Moore and also a winner for a birdie on the third hole; E—Doreen Holmes, 76; prize, Jane Shaw.

Buddy Morrow to Give Concert at Wonderland

The first in a summer series of "big band" concerts at Wonderland Center will be launched Friday, June 25, with the appearance of Buddy Morrow and his "Night Train" orchestra.

Morrow, whose musical group is known throughout the country, headlines a parade of "big name" bands which are scheduled for concerts during June, July, August and September at the 57-store center in Livonia.

The 15-piece group will present a two-hour jazz concert beginning at 5:15. The performance will take place in the mall, near Robinson Furniture. There is no admission charge.

Organized in 1951, the Morrow orchestra is in great demand for college dances and proms, television and radio performances. Their recordings of "Night Train," "One Mint Julep," and "I Don't Know," and their albums, "Golden Trombone," "Tribute To A Sentimental Gentleman," and "Night Train Goes to Hollywood" have been high on the best-seller lists.

Dianne Blake, 19-year-old Livonia roller-skating champion, will make a personal appearance at the center June 29.

Miss Blake, winner of the state's Senior Ladies' singles championship, will demonstrate roller-skating techniques that have gained for her national recognition.

Miss Blake's roller skating exhibition is scheduled for 6:30, Tuesday, June 29, in the Wonderland Mall.

Hilberry Names First Resident Playwright

Announcement of the first Playwright-in-Residence for the Hilberry Classic Theatre was made June 12 by Professor Leonard Leone, director of the Wayne State University Theatre.

Alexander Panas, graduate student from Miami, Florida (and a member of the acting company at the Hilberry Theatre, has been selected to receive the first fellowship for a recent playwright.

This fellowship will permit Panas to devote his full time during the 1965-66 academic year to the writing of a play which is scheduled to be produced in the spring.

Alexander Panas, now working toward a Ph. D. degree in the theatre, joined Wayne State University's Classic Repertory Company mid-way through its first season, replacing an actor who had to leave because of illness. Originally selected for the first year's company, he had been unable to report in the fall because of unfinished writing commitments on a film, "Honeymoon of Horrors," which opened in New York City this past May. He finished the Hilberry's first season as Antony in "Antony and Cleopatra," returning this year to play major roles in four of the five productions, including the title role in "Macbeth."

In addition to a long list of credits as a director and actor, including an appearance last summer in "Electra" at the New York Shakespeare Festival in Central Park, Panas has devoted a great portion of his theatrical efforts to writing.

He has finished five full-length plays, one full-length musical, over seventeen one-act or short plays, two children's plays, two full-length motion pictures, and four tele-

Horse-Pulling Contests on State Fair Card

The return of the popular horse-pulling contests and other changes in the agricultural exhibit plans are announced for this year's Michigan State Fair, Friday, August 27 through Monday, September 6 (Labor Day).

Both light and heavy horses will be competing in the contests, which have been absent from the State Fair for 12 years.

Robert Zeeb, of Bath, State Fair Authority member who is chairman of the premium exhibits committee, predicts a record number of agriculture entries this year.

In addition to horse-pulling, the changes listed by Robert McLachlan, agriculture exhibits director, are:

Junior livestock judging contests are added, with Future Farmers of America and 4-H Club members participating in 12 classes judging beef cattle, sheep and swine.

A class for best display of vegetables has been added.

A class for most unusual vegetable (but not overgrown or misshapen) has been added.

Several technical changes have been made, covering such points as quality of hay sold to exhibitors, rules in the dairy cattle department, and changes in premiums awarded.

Deadline for entries of livestock, horses and agriculture is August 6.

Summer Hours Set at Greenfield

Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village went on full summer schedule for all activities June 15.

The Museum and Village will be open every day from 9 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Summer visitors to the Village can dine in the century old setting of the Clinton Inn, located on the Village Green. Museum visitors can lunch in either the Garden Room or the Museum Coffee Shop.

Special attractions in the village for children and adults include cruises on the sternwheel steamboat Suwanee, pony cart rides and Model T rides. Visitors may also purchase carriage tours of the Village.

Special events during the summer include the Muzzle Loaders Festival, June 26-27, "Let Freedom Ring" program on July 4, Classic Car Rally, July 10, and the national rally of the Model A Restorer's Club, Aug. 6-8.

The American Drama Festival will present three 19th century plays starting July 9 and continuing through Sept. 6 in the Henry Ford Museum

Theater. Performances are held nightly except Tuesdays, and a matinee is presented on Saturday afternoon.

The plays are Anna Cora Mowatt Ritchie's "fashion" or "Life in New York" (1845), Benjamin E. Wolf's "The Almighty Dollar" (1875), and James Nelson Baker's "Superstition" (1824). All three plays are presented in an authentic historical manner to preserve the atmosphere and color of the times.

Life is made up of habits—make church-going one of them.

GOING UP 'CURTAIN'

Six hundred lucky students were invited to see "Dad Takes a Rest Cure" at the Redford Union High School auditorium earlier during this merry month of June. With Father's Day (June 20) celebrations still keen in our memory the happy events of this farcical one act play ring joyfully at this late date.

You'll never see "Dad Takes a Rest Cure" at the Fisher Theater, but, believe me, the cast was as competent as many old Wally has seen at Detroit's top theater. This fluffy bit of theatrical nonsense was staged at the Redford Union High School by the students of Drama Coach Robert Gregory.

The students not only staged the drama, but did all the thousand and one jobs that accompany any dramatic production.

More than 20 students were in complete charge. Mr. Gregory sat back with his grade book and merely jotted down grades. "Dad Takes a Rest Cure" was the drama class final examination!

Old Wally was overwhelmed by the professional polish of the production. I'm afraid if Mr. Gregory had asked me to help him with that grade book, a solid row of "A's" would have been the result.

It would be unfair to mention any of the students individually for they all worked as a cooperative group to stage this examination play that brought wave upon wave of laughter from the two audiences.

"Dad Takes a Rest Cure" was an interesting, provocative, and most unique form of examination. A long deep bow is due Mr. Robert Gregory for utilizing such an effective form of evaluation.

Incidentally, Mr. Gregory will be active later this summer with the Dearborn Summer Players as their director. He will be doing "Anything Goes," a wild, wacky musical comedy.

Speaking of Dads and Father's Day reminds me that I was quite pleased with your generous response to the Terrace Theater Father's Day contest. The time was short but you came through beautifully.

Mr. Ray Komar of Ypsilanti, Michigan was nominated as the youngest father; Mr. George Harris of Livonia won the prize for the most children; and Mr. Albert Walter (87 years old) of Plymouth was the winner as the oldest father.

Each winner received a handful of Red Dot cigars, a ten dollar certificate for merchandise at the Washington Clothiers in Detroit; a tie from The Tie Rak, Sheraton Hotel, Detroit; and a three month's courtesy Terrace Theater pass for the entire family.

Let me warn everyone that "Cat Ballou" is coming to the Northwest Theater. I had the opportunity to sneak preview this picture the other evening and it is hilarious. Don't know when I have enjoyed a picture more. Stubby Kaye and Nat King Cole (his last picture before his tragic death) provided the musical background. That fact alone would be reason enough to see this satirical version of the old West.

Nothing in this Western goes according to Zane Grey. Every cliché is shot full of holes and new laughs emerge. Lee Marvin should get an Academy Award for his dual portrayal in this silly saga of Katherine Ballou and her clumsy cohorts. Put this film down on your "must see" entertainment list. It's a true laugh riot.

On Attack Squadron
Airman C. C. Baughman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Baughman, 11785 Camden Road, Livonia, is serving with Attack Squadron 25 at the Naval Air Station, Lemoore, Calif.

FRANK SINATRA's busy schedule has forced him to adopt a rule of never walking or riding when he can fly. This device was used to the utmost during the filming of "Von Ryan's Express" currently showing at the Mai Kai Theatre. During the four months on location in Italy, Sinatra commuted between his villa in Via Appia Antica to his location sites by helicopter.

Within the boundaries of Farmington Township are two incorporated villages, Woodcreek Farms and Quakertown.

THE BILLBOARD
Fisher Theater — "AN EVENING WITH BELAFONTE." Opened June 21 for a two-week run.

Masque Theater — "REBEL WITHOUT A CAUSE." Plays through July 17.
Unstable Theater — "MRS. DALRYMPLE HAS A LOVER." Plays through July 10.
Lydia Mendelsohn Theater — "THREE PENNY OPERA." Bertolt Brecht's masterful musical. The plaintive song "Mack the Knife" is in this show. Opens on June 30 for a four-day run.

Dear Hap:
The growth of the Penthouse is a tribute to the tremendous impact of your newspapers in this area.

When I purchased an interest in the Pen-Mar (soon to be re-named the Penthouse) it was a pleasure to meet and work with you and your representatives in setting up what proved to be a most successful advertising and promotional campaign.

Every month since I have been here there has been a decided increase in business and I have made many wonderful new friends. In fact, our recent successful policy of dancing seven nights a week and the response to our being open Sundays have again proved the value of the Observer Newspapers.

Now I am the sole owner of the Penthouse and am very pleased to announce that we are still experiencing continuous growth.

Naturally, our advertising and promotional efforts will continue in your fine newspapers. The 2,400 plus luncheons that we served for 40¢ during the Observer's 25th Anniversary was ample proof of the tremendous impact of your newspapers.

It is evident to me that the use of the Observer Newspapers is one of the most important ingredients in making up a successful retail operation in your large circulation area!

Successfully yours,

Four Catholic Priests Named to Area Posts

In changes of appointments announced last week by the Detroit Archdiocesan Chancery Office Ladywood High School, Schoolcraft College, Our Lady of Sorrows in Farmington and St. Robert Bellarmine Parish in Redford Township were all affected.

Fr. Kean D. Cronin was named chaplain at Ladywood High School and the Newman Apostolate at Schoolcraft College campuses throughout the country as an organization for students of the Catholic faith.

Fr. Thomas W. Bissonnette, a newly ordained priest, was named assistant pastor at Our Lady of Sorrows in Farmington.

St. Robert Bellarmine's received two new assistant pastors, Fr. Thomas R. Bodalski and Fr. Charles B. Sonnenfeld.

Fr. Leo Thomas Lulko, the first graduate of St. Valentine's School in Redford Township to be ordained a few weeks ago, was assigned to St. Florian's parish in Hamtramck.

'Areas of Agreement' Cited By Christian Scientists

The Christian Science Board of Directors today urged its church members to find the "areas of agreement" which exist with other denominations—"rather than think of ourselves as entirely different or exclusive."

From the church's earliest beginnings, said the Directors, it has been deeply involved in "the search for the real source of unity."

The message was presented before several thousand members at the annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, last Monday.

Local congregations of The First Church of Christ, Scientist are: the Fourth and Eighth Churches in Detroit; the First Church in Plymouth; the First Church in Farmington; and the First Church in Garden City.

"On the basis of its spiritual-ity Christian Science has much in common with other denominations," the message noted.

"To every honest adherent of any God-centered faith sincerely working to uplift and unify the human race, we offer our fellowship and support . . .

"Today we are confronted with one of history's deepest, most divisive social upheavals," the Directors continued.

"Marking this upheaval is the churning drive of the individual to find the real meaning of life and to establish this legitimate place and identity in an increasingly complex and impersonal society.

"Social and governmental organizations as such do not make the necessary connection with the individual or enable him to meet his real needs. Helpful and important as these efforts are, they are not enough. They do not get at the root of the trouble," said the Directors.

The working basis of Christian Science, the message stated, is that "the understanding of God as divine Love, all-inclusive Spirit, is the one force that can truly hold men together in understanding and harmony."

Jesus "was never exclusive," the message noted; "he preached world evangelism . . . His life of love drew the multitudes to him and established the basis for Christianity—the religion of love, the religion capable of uniting all peoples of all times."

The annual election of a new church president by the Directors was also announced at the meeting. Mrs. Frances S. Wells, C.S.B., of San Antonio, Texas, took over as presiding officer from the retiring president, Edward Froderman of Chicago, Ill. Both of them also hold positions on the Board of Trustees of The Christian Science Publishing Society.

In reports to the meeting by the managers of various church departments, it was disclosed that the number of Christian Science branch churches had reached the 3,300 mark with recent additions in Argentina, The Netherlands, New Zealand, and, for the first time, in Guatemala and Korea.

"Honored at Adrian." Bruce Middleton, 13320 Stark, Livonia, was among the 179 Adrian College graduates receiving degrees at the 120th commencement exercises at Adrian College. Dr. John Hannah, president of Michigan State University, was the principal speaker.

Local Man Attended Convention

Mr. and Mrs. John Badalutz, 45085 Mayo Court, Northville, recently attended the three-day convention of Jehovah's Witnesses in Ypsilanti.

Badalutz, who serves as assistant presiding minister in the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, reported that more than a thousand persons heard Mr. J. W. Filson, District Supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses, deliver the convention highlight lecture, "The Moral Breakdown, What Can Be Done About It?"

Filson said that "Moral breakdown" does not imply anarchy; it may co-exist with respected government. But there is a widespread tendency to disregard conservative standards of behavior and follow instead what is popular even in reckless defiance of the law."

"The three-day meet featured lectures, skits and staged dramatizations," Badalutz explained, "designed to improve the individual ability of Witnesses to teach the Bible as they engage in their regular home visitation work in their neighborhoods."

Fr. Richard is a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia. He is the immediate past president of the St. Paul's Men's Council and has taught in the church school.

Expenses for the trip are being underwritten by Richard, St. Pauls, local chapters of United Presbyterian Men in the metropolitan area and by the Committees of Presbytery.

The team will leave New York June 25 and return August 27.

Livonian To Visit East Africa This Summer

Forty-one year old Chet Richard of Livonia is a man who takes his Christian duties seriously.

This summer Richard, of 31140 Westfield, Livonia, will leave his wife, Marianne, and three children, Christopher, Craig, and Carol Anne, and spend two months meeting and talking with residents of East Africa.

"Person to person communication is important especially in Africa which is growing so tremendously. The various news media are fine," Richard comments, "but in reading since I was selected I have the impression that Africans' views are distorted. Contact from layman to layman is best."

Richard, a teacher in the Wayne Schools, told about how he attended an area conference of the Men's Council of the Presbyterian Church last March in Pittsburgh. At that conference the work of a group of Presbyterian laymen last summer in Gabon was described.

"One of the things that was brought out that really started me thinking," he said, "was the fact that Africans were surprised to find American negroes as members of the group working in Gabon."

Richard is one of 12 United Presbyterian Laymen that will form part of an interracial team fostering African goodwill and works in Africa.

He will visit East Africa with five other laymen. Three other teachers, a carpenter and the executive secretary of the Los Angeles YWCA will make up the team.

Six other Presbyterian laymen will visit West Africa and participate in a work project in the Cameroons.

Richard's group will visit Egypt, Sudan, Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika, North and South Rhodesia, Congo Republic, Republic of the Congo, Gabon, Cameroons, Nigeria and Ghana.

They will spend two weeks on a work project in Kenya and participate in visitations with African churchmen in the other countries.

Both groups will meet for a six-day African American laymen's conference at the Mindolo Ecumenical Foundation in Kitwa, Zambia.

The project is co-sponsored by the National Council of United Presbyterian Men and the Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations of the United Presbyterian Church

USA in cooperation with Operation Crossroads Africa.

Operation Crossroads is an inter-racial, inter-denomination work-camp, friendship and aid program sending 300 or more American college students to Africa each summer.

Richard left last weekend for New York where he is attending a four-day briefing session which included such topics as:

- What is the role of a layman in his church and how can African laymen assist American laymen;
- How can the African Church and its laymen minister to American Christians in Africa;
- What are the ways American laymen can help African laymen who visit the United States;
- How does the church prepare its laity to more effectively express their Christian faith outside the church; and
- What preparation is needed and given to prepare laymen to be better representatives of the faith in the nations of the world.

Richard is a member of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia. He is the immediate past president of the St. Paul's Men's Council and has taught in the church school.

Expenses for the trip are being underwritten by Richard, St. Pauls, local chapters of United Presbyterian Men in the metropolitan area and by the Committees of Presbytery.

The team will leave New York June 25 and return August 27.

Day of Prayer Set

June 29 has been declared the annual day of prayer for the Daughters of Isabella in the Archdiocese of Detroit. Mass will be celebrated in observance of the day by the state chaplain at St. Dennis Church in Royal Oak. All members are urged to observe the day.

DPW News

By SUPT. JOSEPH BIDA
Plymouth Dept. Public Works

The past week found crews from the Department of Public Works busy patching various streets also working the ground around shrubs and bushes in the parks and the grass was mowed at all parks. The department handled three funerals and grass was mowed out at Riverside Cemetery and graves that have sunk were filled and seeded.

The grass at the Beck Road well field was mowed; also the Six Mile Well Field. Water taps were installed at 618 Kellogg and 105 S. Evergreen. Also, a six inch sanitary sewer tap was installed at 105 S. Evergreen.

Chloride was put on Coolidge for dust control. A sanitary sewer was dug up at 974 Penniman. Test holes were dug up at Church and Penniman to determine what the condition of the ground was under the pavement. Condition was found to be O.K.

I might add at this time that the reservoir is coming along very well. The roof was put on this past week and work is progressing nicely.

The City will be receiving bids on street work to be done this summer and streets that will be done are as follows:

Wing, Main to S. Harvey; Penniman, S. Harvey to Sheldon; S. Harvey, Ann Arbor Trail to Ann Arbor Road; Maple, Deer to Hamilton; Farmer, Railroad to Starkweather; Church, Penniman to Adams; Union, S. Main to Penniman; Ann Arbor Trail, Main to point of Kellogg Park; and Forest, Wing to Ann Arbor Trail.

These streets will be repaved with asphalt.

VFW Auxiliary Picks Delegates To Convention

The Auxiliary of VFW Mayflower Post 6695 selected three delegates to represent the unit at the national convention in Chicago in August. The trio includes: Dolly Bouterse, Loretta Young and Winnifred Cadaret.

Alternates named include: Norma Fletcher, Geraldine Olson and Eileen Williams.

The Post will hold its annual chicken-egg on July 4 in the Post Home on Mill Street.

Mary Jones is still confined in St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Jessie Hudson Lists Graduate Show of Art Work at EMU

Mrs. Jessie Hudson, Plymouth High art teacher, will present a graduate show of paintings, drawings and prints in the Ford Hall Gallery at Eastern Michigan University this week as one of the final prerequisites for her work on a Masters Degree. The exhibit will be on display daily from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Should her work be acceptable to the examiners, Mrs. Hudson will receive her Master's Degree in Fine Arts in the August commencement services. The paintings emphasize landscapes in oil, casein and acrylic polymer paint. The prints are wood and linoleum cuts and silk screen serigraphs. Mosaics, a specialty of Mrs. Hudson, use such materials as glass and ceramic tile, wood and nails.

A VISITING DIGNITARY

was the occasion for the above foursome to enjoy lunch and browsing the shops around Plymouth on Saturday afternoon. Etta Davidson, wife of Rotary's Immediate Past District Governor was in town with her husband from Windsor, Canada. While the Rotarians were attending the Rotary District Conference the ladies enjoyed lunch at the Round Table Club at the Mayflower and "did" Plymouth (l-r) Helynn Caplin, Etta Davidson, Mickie Beyer and Blanch Johanson.

SUMMER JOBS

Come vacation-time most of the High School and College set are looking forward to summer employment. Some of these summer jobs sound very interesting.

AT FOX HILLS

Several of the PHS June graduates will be working at Fox Hills Country Club. Kathy Smith and Donna Cook will be life-guards at the pool. Jeff Griswold and Jill Von Hofe are working at the Snack Bar.

TO NEW HAMPSHIRE

Susan Hudson leaves this week for Lake Winnepawaukee, N.H. Susie will work again this year at a family camp on Three Mile Island. Her family, the George Hudsons, will vacation there later this summer.

TO INTERLOCHEN

Another June graduate, David Troutman, son of the Harvey Troutmans of Carol Street, will spend two months at beautiful Interlochen. He will take their counselling course. Graduates of this course are awarded certificates which qualify them for counselling positions anywhere in the country — plus credits from the U of M.

GRASS LAKE

Adrian College student Judy Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harger Green, is a camp counsellor at the YWCA camp at Grass Lake.

LOCAL

Working as playground supervisors at the local school are Cindy Holly who attends The U of M and Ellen Elias and Pam Perkins, both home from Western Michigan University for the summer.

MSU student Julie Lent and Pam Barber (Allegheny) are working right here in Plymouth. Carol Loesch, who attends Alma College and Bonnieowitz from MSU have summer jobs at the Wonderland Shopping Center.

FROM SPAIN

Last word from Donn Kelly came from Spain. After a training cruise aboard a U.S. Navy submarine, Donn will tour Europe.

IN KOREA

Private Earl L. Gyde, a 1961 graduate of PHS, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gyde of Powell Rd. finished his training at

Mrs. Jacobus Protests Dem. Vivian's Action

Mrs. R. L. Jacobus, of 1396 Elm St., Wayne County Republican Second District Chairman, expressed "dismay" last week when word was received from Washington that Weston E. Vivian, Democratic Congressman from the Second Congressional District, voted June 9, as she termed it, "to increase the national debt from $324 billion to $328 billion."

"The four billion hike is the seventh such increase under the Democratic Kennedy-Johnson administration," said Mrs. Jacobus. "Such fiscal irresponsibility raises the deficit spending year after year and will mean more and more interest will have to be paid each year on our national debt."

Labeling the increase "another demonstration of the Democrats' irresponsible spending," Mrs. Jacobus stated that "the end result of this kind of legislation will make it mandatory for future generations to pay for our present, unnecessary benefits."

Plymouth 'Queens' Show Talents in July Pageant

Beautiful girls have been accepted as official entrants for the Miss Plymouth Pageant now an Official Miss America Pageant Preliminary. The 20 young lovelies, from the Plymouth community, got an opportunity to meet each other and a number of the Plymouth Jaycees and their wives at a Pre-pageant Dinner at the Mayflower Hotel Monday evening.

Krisan Fluckey, Miss Plymouth 1964, told of her experiences as reigning queen and how she benefited from the civic and social part one plays as queen.

The girls have varied talents. Jackey Lyn Maxey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Maxey, whose talent in singing, would like to attend the Grand Rapids Baptist Bible College and is sponsored by Anchor Coupling; Elizabeth Rankin, daughter of Mrs. Warren Smith, daughter of the piano and graduated Cum Laude from Michigan State University in 1965 and is sponsored by the Plymouth Observer.

Tabor, is sponsored by Beiter Jewelry.

Two more sponsors are anxiously awaiting girls as a result of last minute changes in summer jobs by two entries. The sponsors are Jade Room East and Leo Calhoun Ford.

The girls will display their talents and beauty in the Miss Plymouth pageant on Friday, July 2 in the Plymouth High gym.

Car Deaths on Upswing

There were 297 persons killed in summer weekend traffic accidents in Michigan last year, an average of 21.2 deaths for the fourteen 54-hour periods covered in a special study by the State Police safety and traffic bureau.

The average was almost two deaths higher than that of 19.4 for all 52 weekends of the year, lending statistical support to the need for greater care in summer driving when increased recreational and vacation-traveling adds to the potential for accidents.

The worst weekend period, not only for the summer but for all of last year, was from 6 p.m. July 3 to midnight July 5 with 36 deaths.

Two periods, June 12-14 and July 24-26, each had the second high summer weekend toll of 28.

Three summer weekends shared the low toll of 13—June 26-28, July 31-August 2 and August 28-30. In contrast, the year's lowest 54-hour weekend toll was six during November 20-22. The State police study showed the summer weekend deaths averaged one every two hours and 33 minutes. By comparison, the average for all weekends was a death every two hours and 47 minutes while the year's week days, Monday through Thursday, averaged a death every five hours and 22 minutes.

Livonia Educator Calls for Computer Training

"Computers should help determine the content of public school curricula for our space age students. The gathering of data about specific course information relative to student achievement and a better understanding of student behavior will provide improvement in future educational methods," stated Clare Ebersole, of Livonia, Wayne County's Educational Data Processing Consultant, at the 1965 Association of Educational Data Systems conference in Miami Beach, Fla. Education Consultant Ebersole was invited to speak at the Miami conference on the topic: "Curricula for Teaching Educational Data Processing in Colleges and Universities." Ebersole is also on the Board of Directors of the newly formed Michigan chapter of the Association for Educational Data Systems.

"The demands of society in our jet-space age have created the proper setting for curricula change in our schools that must be more rapid and advanced than our forefathers ever experienced. The ever expanding role of science and technology is evidence enough that mathematics and science are fast becoming required courses of study for an understanding citizenry.

"Since the 'electronic brain' is here to stay, it would seem that all teachers should have a course early in their training covering the basic fundamentals of educational data processing," Ebersole emphasized. Such technical items as unit record equipment, mark sensing, coding, flow charting, block diagramming, and introduction to computers were mentioned specifically in his talk. Teachers eager to keep pace with the knowledge explosion should avail themselves of such data processing courses. Colleges and universities in southeastern Michigan already offer many courses in data processing. Course offerings are in the area of business education, communication sciences, mathematics, and education.

Ebersole stressed the need for colleges to train and prepare individuals for the teaching of data processing not only at the college level, but also at the high school level. Every level, he feels, will be affected by the computer in the years to come.

Five Livonia Teachers Retire

As school closed for the summer for thousands of Livonia's boys and girls, it closed the professional careers of five Livonia educators.

In recent weeks, the school district and the Livonia Educators Ass'n. has recognized the over 175 years of accumulated teaching of these five educators.

Retirees this year are Rachel Hilbert (Franklin), Lucile Proctor (Wilcox), Eva Tillotson (Emerson), Alice Weaver (Monroe), and Jessie Wilson (Rosedale). These teachers have served as an inspiration not only to the children in their classes, but they have also served as the guiding light to the hundreds of new teachers who enter the profession each year. LEA executive secretary Lynn Gilmore said.

"All these teachers have been active in their professional association during their many years of service. One completes a year's service to the associations Representative Assembly with retirement.

"These teachers have completed a life's commitment to youth. They will be missed when schools open once more in September, but their dedication will be duplicated in the hundreds of other educators who return to the classroom along with the youth of Livonia."

Jaycees' Bar B Que Set For End Of July

The Farmington Jaycees, and their Auxiliary members will hold their annual Chicken Bar B Que, on Saturday, July 31. As in the past, it will be held in the Farmington City Park, at Powers Road and Shiawassee Avenue.

The Jaycees served some 800 diners last year, and expect that this year's Bar B Que may draw almost twice that figure. As in the past, there will be a Little League double-header and a band concert featuring the Farmington Schools Summer Orchestra, directed by Robert Zimmerman.

Youngsters Get Legion Awards

Jackolyn Rickard of 25874 Westmoreland and Douglas Lam of 28130 Westbrook were awarded the American Legion Certificate of School Award by the American Legion Post 10-346 at a general assembly at East Junior High on June 11. Both youngsters are 14. Miss Rickard will attend Farmington. Douglas will go to North Farmington.

Honor Students at Clarenceville Aid Scholarship

A $100 scholarship to Livonia's Citizens Scholarship Foundation (Dollars for Scholars) was given by the Clarenceville High School Chapter of the National Honor Society.

Composed of 24 juniors and seniors who have maintained at least a 3.0 average throughout high school and who have shown other qualities, such as leadership and good citizenship, the group carried out several fundraising projects to make the donation.

Barren Yard Can Become Beautiful

President Johnson's recent call for far-reaching programs to conserve and enhance our nation's beauty merits the active support of every American. Happily, this is a program to which anyone with a package of seeds, a spot of ground and a little perseverance can contribute.

Gardening has always been a part of the American way of life. Pioneer families carried seed as one of their most precious possessions on their long, slow journeys to a new life.

The World War II Victory garden, with its rows of corn, bean, carrots and tomato plants, was a national institution. Perhaps the commercial availability of vegetables and flowers has lulled our national energies away from the values and rewards of planting and growing beauty.

Americans are again being asked to get out the garden gloves and tools—but this time to turn bare and spare patches of ground into flowering oases of beauty.

Use Great Caution in Handling Poisons

Learn how to handle garden insecticide sprays safely, urge horticulturists. Make sure direction of spray is away from you. Wear protecting gloves, and don't keep spray cans in hot sun.

They can explode. Store away from children's curious hands. If any spray touches skin wash off immediately.

Growing flowers is a contribution everyone—city dwellers and farmers, young and old—can make to help beautify America.

A package of seed from the corner store can turn a barren yard into a brilliant splash of color, or hide blighted areas from the eyes of the passer-by.

New Delphiniums Resemble Shrubs

"Connecticut Yankees" bring a new concept for home gardeners. Joining King Arthur's Court, famous for Pacific Giants with their tall perennial floral spires, this new award winning champion is of bushy growth, only 2½ to 3 feet tall. And, Connecticut Yankees start blooming the first year from seed.

Bearing huge 2- to 2½-inch blooms on basebranching plants, by the second year they provide a shrub-like appearance with an airy mass of bloom. We counted 25 and more spikes with from 17 to 27 flowers each on second year plants in the trials, from three to 12 on first year plants.

The color range includes light, medium and dark blue, lilac, lavender and purple, infrequently a white. The masses of informal bloom are marvelous for bedding, borders and medium tall backgrounds. Long lasting cut flowers are on wiry, graceful stems for the loveliest casual flower arrangements.

This great achievement culminates many years of delphinium breeding by the world famous photographer, Col. Edward Steichen of Connecticut.

Here Are Tips on Proper Care and Selection of Rose Bushes

Michigan gardeners who plant roses around the home and in the garden for their big beautiful flowers and shiny green leaves should adopt a weekly watering plan, advise Michigan State University horticulture specialists.

If a plant lacks sufficient water for the full expansion of the cells making up the tissues, flowers will be small, leaves little, and the entire plant will appear stunted.

Weak spindly growth in roses is a good indicator that the plant is ill; and a cheap, refreshing drink of water may be just the cure needed.

A good watering "rule of thumb" is that roses should be watered thoroughly once a week unless one or more inches of rain have fallen within that period.

Place several fruit cans in the vicinity of your rose beds before turning on the sprinkler. When one-inch of water has accumulated in the cans, enough water has been applied.

Rose foliage that is wet at night invites mildew and black-spot. Make sure watering is done early enough in the day so the leaves have sufficient time to dry by nightfall.

Effective rose care and management is something for which every gardener strives.

However, many Michigan roses suffer from malnutrition—lack of adequate fertility in the soil. Fertilizer, the poor soil's doctor, contains nitrogen, potassium, and phosphorus. It makes plants greener, more vigorous, and highly productive.

Lack of one or more of these ingredients will make a rose bush weak and spindly, probably the primary cause of small blooms, light colored foliage, and poor vigor in mid-summer garden roses is an insufficient supply of nutrients.

Michigan State University horticulture specialists suggest two methods of fertilizer application in helping to restore fertility. The soil application method for roses should be made at infrequent intervals in June immediately after flowering and in late July.

Each application should consist of one handful of a "complete" fertilizer placed in a ring on the soil around each plant. It should be lightly scratched into the soil to prevent washing and then watered down.

A suitable fertilizer would be one having 5-10-10, 6-12-12, or similar analysis. Ideally it should also contain trace elements.

Fertilizer may also be applied dissolving one and one-half teaspoons of potassium nitrate in each gallon of made-up spray solution used for controlling insects and diseases.

This very light fertilizer application, made at weekly intervals to the tops of the plants, supplies nutrients at a steady rate equal to the rate at which the plant uses them. For this purpose, avoid the use of "complete" soluble fertilizers.

A multitude of varieties, colorful packages, and a wide range of prices all seem puzzling when buying a rose bush.

One of the most important considerations in the quality of the plant at purchase time. Buy rose bushes which have a healthy root system and three to five stems at least one-half inch in diameter.

Many gardeners like to try a few new bushes each year. Hybrid tea roses are the best for cutting, displaying or simply for pleasure and satisfaction. The Floribunda rose is often used for bedding as they have small flowers, grow in clusters and bloom from June until the end of the season.

Climbing roses are ideal for trellis, fence or ground cover.

To assure good quality, buy from a nursery or garden store that has a good reputation. You are most likely to get plants that are properly labeled, well stored and well packed.

Western red cedar lumber varies in color from nearly white to dark brown. Exciting wall can be designed with random color selection.

Board-Batten Styling Makes Home Distinctive

Board-and-batten styling — which originated as a purely functional design—is one way to give a distinctive look to the exterior of a home.

Originally, planks were nailed on a house vertically. The cracks left by the joints were covered by strips of wood. These strips—or battens—kept out the weather.

The design was the most popular in the West, particularly for ranch-style homes, but has been adapted to other styles, both contemporary and traditional, throughout the country.

Board-and-batten styling continues in popularity as a way to give a home a distinctive look, even though the functional reasons for the application have disappeared. Today the design is simulated through the use of sheets and battens.

A modern low-maintenance application, for example, would combine pre-finished 4-by-8-foot sheets of mineral fiber with battens of the same material.

The battens add a vertical design element which improves the looks of houses that are laid out horizontally, such as ranch houses. Vertical lines draw the eye upward, and make a house look taller.

Great design flexibility is possible by changing the size of the batten. Thin, narrow battens are the most popular. Interesting effects, however, can be created by using battens 1 by 3 inches, 2 by 2 inches or even 2 by 3 inches.

Check Texture For True Hue

After you've paid off the painter, do you wonder why the color of your house looks different from the color you selected?

It may be because you didn't consider the influence that texture has on color. If your exterior wall has a flat surface, it will reflect light evenly. But a surface that is grooved or lined deflects light and casts shadows, changing the shade of the color.

To be sure how color will look on the house, many home owners select a pre-finished siding like mineral fiber, which is available in a variety of colors and textures. This way they can compare flat-surfaced and striated finishes before they buy to get the appearance they want.

Want to Hike Home Value? Fix Wisely

Want to ready your home for quick sale? Then take a tip from real estate brokers, who say sensible improvements can hike your home's resale value and lead to an earlier sale.

The trick is to look at your home through the eyes of the prospective buyer before putting it on the market.

Are there leaky faucets, wall cracks, water stains or peeling paint? They are obvious defects and will make the prospect wonder if he is taking on a headache.

New washers, replastering, insulating of water pipes or a coat of paint may remedy these faults with little effort or cost.

Exterior improvements are highly important. If the house needs a new roof or an expensive paint job, the prospect may not even want to look inside.

On the other hand, if you can offer a buyer long-wearing and low-maintenance extras like heavyweight asphalt shingle roofing or mineral fiber siding, the value will rise accordingly.

Make the improvements realistically worthwhile for both you and the buyer. Although it's good salesmanship to have your house looking clean and tidy, it usually doesn't pay to redecorate inside. The buyer undoubtedly will have his own ideas about decorating which will differ from yours.

Convert Garage to Den and Get Bargain Space

Extra living space may be as close as your cluttered garage.

Even an area as small as a one-car garage can, with good planning, provide guest facilities, a laundry center, office space, or a combination of these. And since a garage can be enclosed with almost no structural changes, it is bonus space at a bargain price.

Richard Beatty, a designer and editor of House Beautiful's Special Publications, found enough space in a 10-by-20-foot garage to fit in office and sleeping quarters for two, a complete laundry, a full bathroom and a walk-in closet.

A factory-made stock window of ponderosa pine flanked by door-length wood shutters replaced the garage door.

Easy access, as well as plenty of light and air, was achieved by installing a wood sliding door, also of ponderosa pine and equipped with insulating glass in the back wall. The double-glass door also gave the room a view, in addition to year-round comfort.

Wise use of hanging shelves and cabinets, desk tops set on filing cabinets, and an open-out sofa bed, all placed along one wall, provided comfortable work or sleep space. Laundry appliances were fitted under a convenient work counter on the opposite wall.

Handsome stock wood louver door conceal a television and utility cabinets. They are also used in the doorway leading into the main part of the house as well as for the bathroom and closet doors.

Experts Recommend Lawn Seed Mixture

There is no single "perfect" lawngrass.

That is why experts generally recommended grass blends, especially of Kentucky bluegrass and fine fescue varieties.

We're in the Volkswagen business — that is the business of economical transportation. We get all kinds of cars as trade-ins. Fords, Chevies, Pontiacs as well as VWs. As they come in, each car is put through a rigid performance test. The ones that pass get the works. They're reconditioned, tuned, tightened-up, washed and polished (inside and out). The ones that fail never show up on our lot. Compare the prices of our domestic used cars. We can't afford to sell you anything but the best at the best price. After all, you'll be driving our reputation around with you.
