School Bells Sound Next Week for 8,000 in Area

Those long, restful vacation days are certainly a short summer this year—will end for a vast 8,000 Plymouth Community youngsters in slightly more than a week when school bells will sound and the daily call of studies begin.

Pupils in the Plymouth Community School district and at our Lady of Good Counsel schools have just a week to do all of the things they had planned for the summer and yet didn't quite get around to doing.

Classes open on a full-time basis for the public and parochial schools on Thursday, Sept. 9.

The anticipated enrollment for the public schools is the largest in history with more than 7,000 expected in classes with the possibility that the total will go above that figure by the time things settle down.

Our Lady of Good Counsel will have the same enrollment as at the end of the last school term—a total of 790.

That's as many as we can handle," says Mother Christine, principal of the school. "We can adequately take care of 790 and then all others must attend the public schools or make arrangements for classes at other parochial schools in the area."

Mother Christine indicated the school has a waiting list of almost 400—a list that grows annually since the school hasn't been able to add to its current facilities.

"We are building a church at the moment," Mother Christine pointed out. "When that is complete, then perhaps we'll be able to sit down and discuss additional school facilities."

The 7,000 anticipated enrollment for the community school district allows for an increase of slightly more than 10 per cent over the 6,301 attending classes at the end of the past school year.

It could be a low figure since the registration at the start of the school year was 6,192 and climbed to 6,301 during the next nine months.

Supt. Russell Isbister and Assistant Supt. in charge of Business Melvin Blunk have made a close study of the situation over the summer and believe the projected 10 per cent increase will be fairly close.

"However, the Township and areas of Canton Township have had a rapid growth over the summer and there is a possibility that we are a bit conservative," said Isbister.

The projection is for an enrollment of 1,340 at the senior high, the largest ever, that compares with 1,273 at the close of the school year.

Junior High West is expected to have 1,055 sixth and seventh graders, contrasted to 943 in June.

Junior High East is looking forward to 1,035 eighth and ninth graders, an increase of 133 over last year's 902.

The projected enrollment for all elementary schools and the totals at the end of the last school year are as follows:

Allen	600	501
Bird	590	530
Farrand	720	663
Gallimore	450	420
Smith	570	564
Starkweather	450	437
Truesdell	90	68

Part of this year's increase will be due to the inclusion of the recently annexed Geer and Salem Stone areas of Washenaw County. The annexation has been approved by the Washenaw County Board and the State Board of Education but final approval rests in an election in each of the districts in the next two weeks.

Activities at Our Lady of Good Counsel School will start Wednesday with a pre-orientation and registration program for new students or any others who wish to confer with school officials. Each must be accompanied by parents.

Registrations will be accepted between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3 p.m., according to Mother Christine.

ALL HANDS BUSY as members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club hold a dry run in preparation for the annual fall pancake dinner that will feature the Saturday, Sept. 11 program of the traditional Fall Festival. The Kiwanians hope to serve more than 1,500 diners during the 12-hour period from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. Shown practicing their skill at mixing the batter and preparing the coffee are (from left) Ralph Carter, William Lyons, President Marvin Terry, General Chairman Don Zander, Merritt Crumie, Pancake Festival Chairman Robert Utter and Head Batter Mixer Frank Terry.

School Board Shocked; Jenkins Asks for Hike

Robert Jenkins, freshman member of the Plymouth Community School Board who has been on the Board meetings since the late Hues Long was in the Senate, a firm believer in making himself heard almost to the point of a filibuster, shocked Board members Monday night at a special meeting when he made a motion to increase the proposed tax rate for the 1965-66 school term from 26.95 mills to 27.95.

The purpose of the meeting was to establish a tax rate for the district and also break it down into the various divisions for which the millage will be used.

It was more or less taken for granted that the tax rate would remain the same—26.95—but Jenkins, who has shown considerable displeasure over the fact that a multi-purpose room isn't included in plans for the new elementary school on Five Mile Road near Haggerty, wasn't taking anything for granted.

After a lengthy plea for the Board to use its power to give the youngsters of the community the best and finest educational facilities, he made the motion that the tax rate be increased by a mill.

It died for lack of a second and Jenkins promptly came back with another motion that a mill be taken from the proposed 1965 mills for operating and allotted to the 80 mills for building and site and the additional mill be used to assure a multi-purpose room at elementary school No. 7.

This motion also died for lack of a second.

Then the Board approved the 26.95 tax rate and decided to delay a decision on the various divisions until a later date.

Based on the elementary school No. 7 are expected some time in October at which time the Board will have some better idea of what the costs will be.

Jenkins disagreed with the Board's thinking in its future building plans, pointing out that he thought the situation was becoming more acute now and that now was the time to start looking around for sites for elementary school No. 9 and high school No. 2.

"Instead of spreading up the present program so that it will be completed in three years instead of five," he said, "I feel the need for a high school is coming up much faster than expected and that some action should be taken towards a site now."

Board President Gerald Fischer explained that the plans have been set for the next two years and the financing wasn't flexible enough to make major changes now.

Balked in his motion for an additional mill, Jenkins then suggested that the Board consider building an elementary school with eight rooms and a multi-purpose room instead of 12 rooms without, with the

AT FOUR-DAY FALL FESTIVAL

You Will Find Pancakes, Knackwurst and Chicken

Take 300 pounds of flour, 48 pounds of syrup, 25 pounds of butter and 475 pounds of sausage—mix well, add 90 hard working Kiwanians, and you have a very tasty and successful pancake breakfast. That's what visitors will find at the Plymouth Fall Festival Saturday, Sept. 11.

Starting at 7 a.m. and continuing until 7 p.m., the Plymouth Kiwanis Club will be serving pancakes and sausage to an estimated crowd of over 1,500. As in past years, this event will be held in the Masonic Temple.

Over the years, the Kiwanis Club has contributed much to the Plymouth Community. These contributions have been made possible by activities such as the pancake breakfast. A contribution possible only through the efforts of Kiwanis members who will be flipping thousands of pancakes.

In fact, Saturday is a day filled with activities for all ages. In the morning, while the pancakes flip in a never-ending stream in the Masonic Temple, children will be parading their pets in the central parking lot. Sponsored by the Optimist Club, the pet show will attract every conceivable type of pet.

After the last pancake has been flipped, Kelllogg Park will echo to the sound of the caller as people enjoy an old-fashioned square dance beginning at 8 p.m.

To take care of the appetites created by square dancing, the Junior Chamber of Commerce will operate a chuck wagon featuring hamburgers.

Opening Thursday evening, Sept. 9, and running through Sunday, Sept. 12, this year's festival will include many unusual and interesting activities.

Among these will be an "Old Fashioned Garden" Show put on by the Plymouth branch of the National Farm & Garden Club. Featuring a wide array

Plymouth Teens Learn Europe Isn't Different

Teenagers in Europe aren't much different from those in the United States with the exception that few bother to attend church.

That was the impression of four Plymouth teenagers who returned a week ago from various sections of Europe where they spent the summer visiting families there under the Youth for Understanding program.

The quartet included: Steve Ott, 17, of 1440 Linden; Rhea Fluckey, 1380 Sheridan; Katie Wall, 12305 Beck Road, and Lynn Niles, 399 Pacific.

All admitted they had a "ball" but each also admitted that it was nice to be home again in familiar surroundings.

Steve spent the summer in the small German village of Siersdorf near Julich; Rhea was in a small Danish village of Over-Jerstal, some 300 miles west of Copenhagen; Katie was in the large Swedish city of Halmstad, with a population of more than 100,000, located in the southern part of Denmark; and Lynn was in Lubek, Germany, a thriving industrial city of 300,000 near the huge port of Hamburg.

Strange enough, although it was summer and vacation time for the Plymouthites, they were nice to be home again in familiar surroundings.

And there was one thing that amazed all four, Europeans generally are considered very religious and they are in their daily life. But few take time to attend church on Sundays, regardless of whether Catholic or Protestant.

"I was in a community that was 95 percent Catholic," said Steve. "Naturally I was interested in attending Church every Sunday, just as I do in Plymouth."

"I was much surprised to learn that most of the people in the community attended church only at Easter and Christmas. My adopted brother did attend church while I was there but he informed me that it wasn't a habit with him."

Steve celebrated a birthday while in Germany and was the

AS FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT
Demure South African Miss
Guest of C'ville School Boss

The home of Clarenceville School Superintendent Louis Schmidt, at 20405 S Ontago, Livonia, is a happy one these days. It has a new addition — a bright, charming young foreign exchange student from Hermanus, South Africa. Her name is Geraldine van der Bijl, and she arrived on Aug. 10.

The Schmidts have already taken her on two camping trips; one to the Thumb and one to Interlochen.

On Sunday, Sept. 12, Mrs. Oma Mette, Chapter President of the Clarenceville Chapter of the American Field Service is holding a tea in her honor. It will be held at Mrs. Mette's home at 19960 Weyher, in Livonia between 2 p.m. and 5 p.m.

The South Africa which Miss van der Bijl described to the Observer is one much like this country. Controversial things were left for another conversation.

Her father, Hendrik van der Bijl died in 1948. He was National Director of War Supplies in World War II. He once worked for American Telephone and Telegraph in this country.

Her brother is a student at the University of Capetown. Her sister Barbara was an exchange student in Crescent City, Calif.

Though she will be a senior at Clarenceville High, she is a college student at home. This is possible because our winters are South Africa's summers, and she is in Clarenceville on her vacation.

South Africa has no television. After seeing it for the first time at the Schmidt home, she feels she is missing nothing.

Our comic strips are popular in her country though and so are our folk singers — Joan Baez, Harry Belafonte, and Peter, Paul and Mary for instance.

But essentially, she says, the culture of her country is attuned to Holland and England. She speaks with a lovely English accent herself.

She is especially interested in the theatre and in broadcasting and many of her favorite stars are British—Peter Sellers, Rex Harrison, and Alex Guinness.

One of her major talents is not music though. Her roommate for the year, 17-year-old Betty Schmidt, on the other hand, is a talented musician.

She is a senior at Clarenceville High, a member of the high school band, and was a member of the chorus in the past year. She is a member of the Pep Club, which cheers on the Clarenceville football teams.

Betty and Geraldine expect to have a happy year complementing each other's talents and interests.

2 Livonia Educators

Livonia School Supt. Benton Yates and Carl Bovee, who resides at 14405 Westmore Drive, Livonia, are among the outstanding educators and teachers in Michigan who will be honored at the annual Teachers' Day ceremonies at the Michigan State Fair on Friday, Sept. 3.

Teachers' Day traditionally is one of the highspots of the Fair which opened its 10-day run last Friday and will extend through Labor Day, Sept. 6.

Yates and Bovee were selected by the Michigan Education Association for honors at the annual program. Yates is a past president of the Michigan Association of School Administrators and Bovee is president of the Michigan Association of Elementary School Principals.

Awards for significant contributions to education will go to Dr. Lynn Bartlett, former Superintendent of Public Instruction; Dr. Clarence Hilberry, who recently retired as President of Wayne State University; and Charles Stewart Mott of Flint, the famous philanthropist and civic leader.

In addition teachers from all sections of the state will be honored for their contributions to education. All educators will be admitted free to the Fairgrounds until 3 p.m. on Teachers' Day.

Dr. Bartlett now assistant secretary of defense for education with headquarters in Washington D.C. was Michigan Superintendent of Public Instruction from 1957 to 1965 when the new state constitution abolished the elective office.

He now runs a world wide school system for dependents of military personnel stationed in 28 countries.

After receiving Bachelor's, Master's and Doctor's degrees from the University of Michigan Dr. Bartlett served as an administrator in the Grosse Pointe school system. He was elected to the state post in 1957 and reelected in 1959 and 1963.

Dr. Hilberry retired this year as president of Wayne State University and now is a special consultant to the Ford Foundation in New York.

He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Oberlin College and took his doctorate at the University of Chicago. Dr. Hilberry joined the Wayne faculty in 1930 was named chairman of the English Department in 1939 and dean of administration in 1945. He took over as president in 1952.

Mott, the famous Flint philanthropist and civic leader, made a fortune as a General Motors executive and has devoted much of life to using that fortune to help the people of Michigan.

He established the Mott Foundation to support religious, educational, health, and recreational activities. Through it, he has given Flint millions for its community college, school system, hospitals and other civic endeavors. He has long encouraged the schools to serve the community as a whole.

Teachers' Day ceremonies will be held for the first time this year in the new Community Arts Auditorium on the Fairgrounds.

Famed Hunter

At Green Motor

Tony Dauksza, outdoorsman, fisherman, hunter, and lecturer, will show some of his famous color films of outdoor life Thursday, (Sept. 2) at 7:30 p.m. in the showroom of Green Motors, 34501 Plymouth Road in Livonia.

Refreshments will be served and there will be a display of campmobile and camping equipment.

Dauksza, who spends several months each year in Alaska, considers himself "almost a sourdough", having hunted and fished nearly all parts of the State including the Alaska Peninsula, Kema Peninsula, Kodiak Island, McKinley Range, Wrangell Range and the Polar Region as well as Canada's Yukon Territory.

He has show black, brown and polar bear, giant moose, caribou, dall sheep, mountain goat, deer and numerous small game animals and birds.

The color pictures taken by Dauksza are reported to be among the best filmed in that region and have attracted capacity crowds wherever presented.

The showing is open to the general public and all interested are urged to attend.

State Jumps Into Ticket-Fixing Investigation

Investigation into the ticket-fixing scandal in the Wayne County Sheriff's Department broadened this week as government officials attempt to unravel the tangled web.

Three unnamed Nankin Township residents were summoned to the Wayne County Prosecutor's office Monday to be questioned on their roles in the affair.

Assistant Prosecutor John J. McConnell said their names had appeared a number of times during the investigation.

tion, started after four deputies and a former deputy issued charges of ticket fixing in the department.

A bipartisan legislative probe will get under way next week, headed by Senator George S. Fitzgerald (D., Grosse Pointe Park), to study general problems of ticket handling, prompted by the current situation.

As the result of charges, brought by the "Big Five" as the deputies were known when they were on patrol duty in Nankin Township, and admissions of ticket adjusting by Sgt. Paul Paciorek and Inspector Dan D. Martin, the two officers have been suspended for one month by Sheriff Peter L.

While traffic violators and others are being questioned by the prosecutor's staff, Gov. George Romney and Attorney General Frank J. Kelley have been keeping an eye on this area.

Kelley expected to decide Monday afternoon whether a one-man grand jury would be called or not.

Investigators have turned one dismissed ticket which has caused them to raise their eyebrows. It was issued to James R. Stasky, 28 of 32563 Mason Court, Nankin Township, Dec. 29, 1962 alleging Stasky was driving while drunk.

McConnell said conflicting answers were obtained from Stasky, his attorney, Evan Callanan of Garden City, Inspector Martin, Paciorek, and State Representative Edward H. Mahalak who was a Romulus Justice of the Peace to whom the ticket was referred.

Loss of the Big Five has been deplored by Nankin Township's Stanley Swiatkowski, chairman of the Public Safety Commission for the last three years, who claims that law enforcement in the township has been less effective since the men were transferred to the County Jail in Detroit last October.

The township has a contract with the sheriff's department for 12 deputies at a cost of $128,000.

Members of the big five are Lewis E. Huddleston, serving as spokesman for the group; his brother, James; Robert L. Huddleston, Johnnie F. Talley and Gene T. Baker who has now resigned.

Martin's admission that he had ordered tickets fixed on four occasions was made Aug. 24 after five hours of questioning by the prosecutor's staff, McConnell said.

The assistant prosecutor said Martin told them he received tickets on four occasions that were picked up by deputies from the UAW Local 182 Hall on Plymouth Road in Livonia in exchange for the sale of benefit tickets.

Martin said he delivered them to Paciorek with instructions to take them to a justice of the peace for adjustment.

Coney Island Moves West to Livonia Mall

There's good news for those who love Coney Island sandwiches—they are moving west from downtown Detroit and now are available in the new Coney Island restaurant in the Livonia Mall directly across from the Mall entrance to Crowley's.

The delicious Coney Islands—described by those who don't know better as "hot dogs with everything on"—are unique to the Livonia-Redford-Farmington area since they have been confined to establishments operated by brothers on Lafayette Ave. in the downtown business section.

Last year more than 104,000 Coney Island hot dogs were eaten in the three emporiums on the north side of Lafayette, west of Griswold. Up to now the Lafayette Coney Island, the State Coney Island and the American Coney Island have constituted the hot dog citadel of the midwest.

That is up to now when a nephew of the Keros brothers, owners and originators of the coney islands, decided to open his own establishment in the Livonia Mall.

George Keros 27, one of seven brothers, four in the United States and three still in Greece with their mother, arrived in this country only five years ago to his uncles, Gust and George, who own the downtown coney island eateries.

He spent a year at the University of Windsor, learning more about the habits and customs of North America, and also getting pointers in the operation of a coney island.

Then, with the aid of brothers Tony and Van, he struck out for himself and opened the new Coney Island in the Livonia Mall which he modestly predicts will have even more success than those operated by his uncles.

It was back in 1900 that Gust Keros, an immigrant from Greece, gave up his business as operator of a shoeshine shop and turned in his shoe polish for chili sauce and called the establishment the American Coney Island.

Business thrived and in 1929, a brother, William, opened the Lafayette Coney Island next door.

Two stores proved twice as profitable as one, so the brothers opened the State Coney Island next to the Lafayette Coney Island. There appears to be no law of diminishing returns in the coney island field.

It was from that beginning that George, the youthful owner of the new Coney Island and son of the third of the Keros brothers who preferred to stay on the farm in Greece, finally succumbed to the urge to come to the United States and learn the business.

In the five years he has been here, he picked up enough knowledge that his uncles wished him well in the new venture and urged him to expand the fame of the Coney Island.

During the time he was learning—five years—George brought brothers, Gus, Tony and Van to the United States. Van is now taking theological training in Boston. Tony is a student at Detroit Institute of Technology and Van will enter Wayne State this fall for an engineering course.

Meanwhile, both are helping Brother George during the summer months and will assist on the weekends.

George has this description of a coney island. It starts as a long, lean frankfurter nestled in a long, light bun. Onto it is poured a dipper of chili—hot, oily, brown in color.

With a quick swipe, a trail of chopped onion is then deposited on the soggy mass.

Thus, a routine hot dog has been transformed into a juicy Coney Island.

Oakland County Workers Organize Under New Law

The American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, AF of L, which is attempting to represent the building inspectors of Farmington Township has just added significantly to its numerical strength.

In the first election held in the state of Michigan, under the new act amending the Hutchinson Act, all of the hourly-rated employees of the Oakland County Road Commission—excluding supervisory and casual labor who were not permitted to vote—decided to join the above mentioned union.

Affected are 279 employees. They voted: 162 for; 103 against; 13 non-voters; 1 abstained.

Similar steps are underway throughout the state. And a number of unions are expected to compete for the newly organizable civil servants.

IN REORGANIZATION: Put Education First — Nankin Supervisor

"Feelings between Livonia and Nankin Township should not enter in the decision of the future of the Nankin Mills School District," said Nankin Supervisor Thomas H. Brown, speaking Monday night to the Wayne School Board and others interested in the reorganization study being made by an 18-member committee.

"The right proposition will get the children educated in the right way," he added.

Some 30 persons were present for the two-hour meeting in Wayne which was the third of four the Wayne County Intermediate Committee has conducted with the four school boards involved.

The final meeting was scheduled for last night (Tuesday) with the Garden City board.

One member of the Nankin Mills board, James Collins, ruled out Garden City.

"It is unanimous that we prefer not to go there," he said. "We look on Wayne and Livonia as both offering excellent educational opportunities."

Representatives were present from the four districts and the intermediate committee.

Nankin Mills School Board Secretary David Gooze said that feeling is divided in his district as to the method of division. "My preference is to see the district go as a whole," he said.

Wayne school trustee Robert Reichard said that in his opinion the people would like to have the district split.

Dominick A. Taddonio, Livonia trustee, commented that there is no consensus in Livonia on annexing Nankin Mills.

A discussion of assessed valuation and the method of distributing assets ensued after Wayne Board President Warren Sperlin declared he felt the "press may have undersold the Nankin Mills District's assets."

Gooze added that Nankin Mills residents pay the highest millage (.378) of any school district in the state.

Golfers Tee Off at Meadowbrook

Did you ever try to hit a golf ball while standing on an inflated innertube? Worse yet, did you ever attempt the above while dressed in a nutty costume?

No matter how way out this might sound it's now been done! Golfers are often classed as a strange breed of animals. After all chasing a little white ball around the grass — getting up early in the morning, standing in line, and then —

Oh well, last Friday the real dedicated lady golfers of the area, teed off in the Ladies Fun Day Tournament at Meadowbrook. The enthusiasts were dressed in "nutty" costumes and stood on inflated innertubes to tee off.

Fortunately for the course as well as the members, the entire tournament consisted of four holes of play.

Toni Mericka of Farmington Township, chaired the affair which included lunch, the awarding of prizes and home style entertainment.

HAKI-LAU, Cleopatra and the Roaring 20's all made their appearance at Meadowbrook. Dorothy Rovin, Mary Hilton and Peg Grimm tote up their scores.

Local Women Finish Course

Graduation exercises will be held for 52 students of the Ann Arbor Practical Nurse Education Center on Sept. 2 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Ann Arbor High School.

Mae Edna Doyle, R. N., program director, will greet the graduates on behalf of the Ann Arbor Board of Education and certificates will be presented by Rudolph Silverstone, director of vocational education.

Area residents receiving certificates will be: Daniece Dice, Mrs. Vivian Fox, Mrs. Gloria Kimberlin, Mrs. Patricia Kuban, Mrs. Betty Morrison, and Mrs. Patricia Pennington, all of Wayne; Mrs. Joan McPherson of Garden City; and Judith Selinsky of Livonia.

Jack Elzay, superintendent of the Ann Arbor Public Schools, will be the graduation speaker.

THE FOUR STOOGES—Curly, Moe, Little Moe Hughes, Pat Targett, Toni Radgowski, and Larry are really North-villians Kathy Carol Wegeng.

Miss Braasch Married Aug. 14

Cynthia Ellen Braasch and Thomas A. Wagster were married at Our Lady of Loretto Roman Catholic Church on Aug. 14. The Rev. Fr. John A. Blaska performed the ceremony and officiated at the nuptial mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon J. Braasch of Redford Township, while Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wagster of Detroit are the parents of the bridegroom.

For her marriage the new Mrs. Wagster wore a white peau de soie gown with an alencon lace bodice and cathedral train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and phoelaenopsis orchids. Marilyn Malburg was the maid of honor, Patricia Braasch and Andrea Riche were the bridesmaids. They were all gowned in floor length empire, dresses of pale pink crepe and lace bodices. They carried American Beauty roses.

Ronald Melaragni was the best man. Gregory Braasch and Richard Beaudett seated the guests.

A wedding breakfast for 60 guests followed the ceremony at Palombo's. A reception for 250 was held later at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Redford Township.

Following a honeymoon in New Orleans, the newlyweds will reside in Warren.

ROSEANN SCHROEDER.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Schroeder of Garden City announce the engagement of their daughter, Roseann Marie, to Charles Edward Friesner. He is the son of Mrs. Mary Friesner and the late Carl E. Friesner of Livonia. The bride elect is a 1964 graduate of Garden City High School, while her fiancé graduated from Clarenceville High School in 1963. A Nov. 27 wedding is planned.

Today's tip: Every woman over 20 should have an annual check-up that includes a Pap test. A recent study by a Canadian doctor covering a period of six years shows its value. The test uncovered 15 cases of cervical cancer in 723 patients undergoing examination. Thirteen of the cases were minor and easily treated. Two were pervasive, but even of these, on was satisfactorily treated. Want ads get quick results!

QUEEN OF HEARTS

The French Like Simple Meals

The thing to do, when you have the opportunity to travel, at home or abroad, is see the historical and geographical wonders of the world. And in Europe, of course, there are multiple monuments. They are indeed monumental, and not to be minimized.

On the other hand, the great cities of the world, no matter how ancient and venerable the buildings, are exciting because of the people that inhabit them today. The greatest privilege we had, in our travels, was the opportunity to be with the people who live in the countries we visited. I can't resist telling you about one of the special people in Paris.

I was on a cook's tour of my own, you might say, and I was interested in how the average French housewife feeds her family. Travel is broadening, they say, and I got broader, you know where. I was quite sure that the average Frenchman did not eat at home the way we were eating in the restaurants. If he did, he would surely be universally stout.

Again the United States Embassy came to my aid. They arranged for me to spend an afternoon in the home of a lovely French lady, Madame Vallet.

Madame Vallet is in her mid-forties, I think. She is a widow with several sons, a vital, vibrant, attractive woman who is an excellent cook. She speaks English quite well, and she enjoys meeting Americans. She is working on a cookbook called, she said, "Cooking, You Are My Friend." She was charming.

She lives in an apartment, as do most Parisians, and hers was very comfortable and appealing. Off the living room was a sun room with a stunning black and white tile floor, where lived a golden canary in a pagoda cage of wicker. This room led to an open porch overlooking a beautiful little courtyard garden, a surprise tucked back in, with no hint from the street. It was quiet and peaceful, and we had tea there, English-style, with toast and marmalade. I stayed much longer than I had intended, because she was so gracious, and I enjoyed myself so very much.

At home, she told me, the French eat very simply. The sturdy French bread, good homemade soup, boiled beef with vegetables in season, an occasional roast (beef, pork, or good French veal), excellent cheeses, fish poached or fried, and chicken fried or boiled, make up the staple menu.

There are also many varieties of fresh fruits and vegetables which come into Paris in great produce trucks from all over France every day during the growing season.

Because every meal is something of a ceremony, even in modest households, the housewife attempts to serve her food attractively, no matter how simple the fare. A considerable amount of time is spent every day in the process of feeding a family, beginning with the daily marketing. Many markets, however, sell countless kinds of meats and salads and pastries all ready to eat.

"The mother must have some things of her own to do," Mrs. Vallet said, "a thing of her own satisfaction, not of her duty. But she must have her heart in her house. Even if she works outside, the mother must be the heart of the home."

She went on to say that she feels that cooking can be creative, but it must be "of small difficulty also, of not too much trouble, no?" She has collected recipes, and devised her own, that are quick and simple while being appetizing, because, she explained, "Life, it is an excitement. In truth, one life is not enough." I love that lady.

"I will tell you of my secrets," she promised, and she proceeded to do so. The following recipe she had used the night before for a dinner party. It is quickly made and done ahead. Some of her ingredients are not available here, so with due apologies to my teacher, I took the liberty to revise it for us.

Mme. VALLEU'S SECRET HAM ROLLS
Mix together till very smooth:
1/2 pound of liver sausage
12 ounces cream cheese, softened
Thin with a little cream or milk to spreading consistency.

Stir in:
1/2 cup chopped walnut meats
1/2 cup seedless raisins, softened in boiling water and drained.
Spread a thin layer of the mixture over 12 slices of boiled ham. Roll up into neat rolls and chill. Serve on a platter garnished with grapes and nuts.

This makes a wonderful luncheon course, accompanied by her own endive salad. Or the rolls may be sliced into pin-wheels with a very sharp knife for a beautiful hors d'oeuvre.

ENDIVE SALAD
Trim and wash and dry:
1 medium bunch of endive
Add cut-up fresh fruits:
apples, bananas, grapes, walnuts . . .

"What you like, until you have sufficient for the people." Dress with mayonnaise mixed with lemon juice and a little salt.

"It is simplicity," said Mrs. Vallet, "and it is beauty. These things you must have, and flowers also. Then you have happiness in your guests."

Madame Vallet, you are my friend.

Hobo Night Scheduled for Plymouth

The Plymouth Newcomers will gather at the home of the Bruce Goodsites on Penniman Ave., on Sept. 18 for a Hobo Night. Mrs. Donald Stacy will act as hobo hostess. Guests are asked to bring a clean coffee can and a spoon and report to the campsite at 7:30 p.m.

Prizes will be awarded for the best hobo. Avoid the bums rush and make your reservation by contacting (A-M) Mrs. Eugene Fisher at 453-7981 or (N-Z) Mrs. Jerome Lareau at 453-1113 by Sept. 15.

In the case of inclement weather the party will be rescheduled to Sept. 25.

MRS. ROBERT C. PELTZ

Karen Sue Lent Married August 7

Karen Sue Lent and Robert C. Peltz were married Aug. 7 at St. Veronica's Roman Catholic Church in East Detroit.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell J. Lent of Plymouth, while the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Peltz of East Detroit.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of embroidered organza with a bell type skirt and detachable train. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy with two white orchids in the center.

Mrs. Terry West, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length avocado green crepe gown with a matching lace jacket. Her flowers were yellow and white baby mums in a ball shape with yellow streamers.

Julie Lent, Bette Argo and Madeline Rebeschini were the bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to Mrs. West's. The bridesmaids' flowers were yellow baby mums in a ball shape. Russell Gramer was the best man, while Larry Galinski, Charles Soet, Terry West and James Lent seated the guests.

A reception for 250 guests from Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Wisconsin was held at the Eagle Hall in East Detroit. Following a honeymoon in Hawaii, the newlyweds will reside in San Gabriel, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of Michigan State University where she was affiliated with Chi Omega Sorority. Her husband, a member of Delta Upsilon Fraternity, graduated from Western Michigan University.

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM FOX

Honeymoon in Canada Follows Wedding

Geraldine Ann Krumm of Plymouth was united in marriage with William Edward Fox, Jr. of Dearborn on July 24 in St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Plymouth, in a five p.m. service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Krumm and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Fox, Sr.

A peau de soie gown trimmed in Alencon lace with cathedral train was chosen by the bride for her wedding. Her headpiece of Alencon lace with scattered pearl flowers held in place a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of white roses, stephanotis, orchids and ivy.

Marilynn Nesseth was the maid of honor with Jeannie Kay Krumm, sister of the bride, and Diane Bell, cousin of the bride, identically dressed in yellow empire floor-length gowns. They carried yellow daisies. Tammie Bell, another cousin, was flower girl in yellow.

Robert Kobielski was best man and Richard Dembrowski and Clayton Guenche seated the guests.

Guests from Plymouth, Livonia, Bay City, Canada and Dearborn attended a reception honoring the newlyweds at the VFW Hall in Plymouth.

South Redford Schools Start to Feel Cuts

By SUE SHAUGHNESSY
The cuts are beginning to be felt in South Redford.
During 1964 the voters of the South Redford School District refused to approve an additional four mills for operating expenses of the schools.
Last spring the District tried again. The proposal was defeated by a 3-1 margin and many observers cited the lack of cuts as a prime factor in the millage defeat.
(The Board of Education spent its surplus funds last year to maintain its educational program and as such relatively few economies were visible during the year.)

This year in order to balance the budget the Board has, among other things, cut back its available transportation; restricted school financed athletics to the senior high varsity squads; and sharply curtailed the use of the school buildings by community organizations.
Additional cuts have been made in the curriculum drastically reducing the educational program, but the three listed above will probably prove to be the most controversial and stir up the strongest public reaction.
A few weeks ago the Board voted to give its support to a community group, The South

Redford Schools' Booster Club, in its efforts to raise the funds necessary to continue varsity athletics at the junior high level and reserve sports at Thurston. (See related story on page 1.)
Last week the scouts—girl, cub and boy variety—were out in force with anguished howls about the new Board policy on community use of the school buildings. A small bit of static on the transportation program was also heard.
Under the new policy the schools will close at 4:30 p.m. and only for PTA meetings will the building be made available at no charge.

Charges for the use of the building range from $40 for the first three hours for the Thurston Gym to $5 for the first three hours for the use of a regular classroom.
Representatives from all three groups warned that such a policy would "sound the death knell" for scouting in the south end of the Township.
The girl scouts are forbidden to try to raise funds or pay for a meeting price under its charter and the boy and cub scout leaders told the Board that its current sources of revenue were already stretched to the limit.
Doug Mueller, Orlyn Lewis and Jeanne Leonard all sympathized with the representatives and pointed out that they had been engaged in scouting activities, but added that there was no way out of the dilemma.

The District must live within its income, they pointed out, and asked who was going to defray the cost of operating the school buildings if not the organizations using the facilities.
Following this decision of the Board, Stanley J. Lutz of 9062 Dale asked about the ruling for bus transportation in his area for students attending Mason Elementary School and the Pierce Junior High.

He was told that students living more than one and a half miles from school would be provided with transportation, but no others.
His complaint is probably the first in a long series to come on the transportation cutbacks. Transportation is one of the items in a school program which always arouses the most heated feelings.
Last year the South Redford Board provided transportation for secondary students living one and a half miles from school; elementary students living one mile away and kindergarten pupils residing more than a half mile from class. In addition to this the safety factor was taken into consideration and transportation was provided for pupils living closer to the schools in some cases.

Still there was ire and this was something bandied about during the millage campaign last spring. The administration was finally forced to state that if the additional millage was approved the bus transportation would be restored to its 1963-64 level. (Previous planning in the District called for a revision of the 1963-64 schedule to arrive at something in between the existing program for the two years.)
At any rate, the new bus schedule will, in all probability, bring out the citizenry in full force.

But the cuts are beginning to be felt.
Even though the Board denies any thoughts of punishing the people and explains in black and white what funds were available and how it decided to use them, the observers who place the millage defeat at the lack of cuts should find out whether or not they are correct when the south end again goes to the voters for the additional four mills.
When that will be is not certain. However, informed sources say that the schools will be back to the voters during the coming school year.

Livonia Bar Association Marks World Law Day September 13

"World Law Day" will be observed Monday, Sept. 13, in Livonia through the efforts of the Livonia Bar Association and the City Council.
The special day, which will coincide with a conference in Washington on "World Peace through Law," was proclaimed last week by Council President Rudolf Kleinert, who also is Mayor Pro Tem during Mayor Harvey Moelke's absence from the city.
Kleinert's proclamation reads as follows:
PROCLAMATION
WHEREAS, the United Nations has designated 1965 as International Cooperative Year and international cooperation is essential to the achievement of a peaceful world order; and
WHEREAS, the basic foundation for the peaceful existence of mankind within nations and among nations is law rules and legal institutions; and

WHEREAS, such law rules enable men and nations to avoid conflict and such legal institutions provide forums for the peaceful resolution of such conflicts when they arise; and
WHEREAS, the expansion of the Rule of Law in the World Community requires universal agreement on principles, terminology, treaties and conventions, and such agreement requires public support for the promise and potential of a world ruled by law; and
WHEREAS, it is essential that the minds and hearts of men of good will of all nations be focused upon the necessity of world peace through law to avoid disaster and possibly human annihilation as a result of the ever-accelerating arms race;

NOW, THEREFORE, believing that cooperation to build a world legal system is among the most beneficial projects that can be advanced by International Cooperation Year and to further the great objectives thus noted for achieving world peace, I, Rudolf R. Kleinert, Mayor Pro Tem of the City of Livonia, do hereby proclaim September 13, 1965, as WORLD LAW DAY and call upon all public and private officials, members of the legal profession, citizens, and all men of good will to arrange appropriate observances and ceremonies in Courts, Schools and Universities, and other public places before private and public organizations where man's need of international law may be recognized.
If you expect to get ahead, look forward to the future.

THINK : DRIVE SAFETY : SAFELY

This Labor Day Weekend

MICHIGAN TRUCKING ASSOCIATION

HAPPY HOLIDAY!

Ironically, on Summer's happiest occasions (weekends and holidays), the tragic toll of highway accidents zooms to the highest totals! Traffic is congested. Driving strain increases. Millions of good, bad and indifferent drivers are on the road, speeding, cutting in, weaving, challenging traffic controls. These are the times above all, to drive with EXTRA care . . . keep your temper . . . watch the other driver and bring your family home ALIVE!

IF YOU'RE TRAVELING

Observe These Rules . . .

- Before starting . . . have your car checked! Blowouts, mechanical failures can cause death.
- Keep children and pets in the back seat where they can't distract the driver.
- Keep children and pets in the back seat where they can't distract the driver.
- Stop frequently for coffee and rest periods, don't get overtired!
- Don't drink and drive. Even "one for the road" can lead to accidents.
- Don't speed! Don't pass! Don't swing out of traffic lanes. Always yield the right-of-way.

IF YOU'RE SWIMMING, Boating or Fishing . . .

Observe These Rules . . .

- Swim before eating, never after.
- Don't swim alone. Use the buddy system.
- Be sure not to go into water for at least an hour after you've eaten.
- If you don't know how to swim well, stay in shallow water.
- Do not overload the boat, and make sure each one in the boat has a life-jacket.

SCHOOL OPENS!

- Drivers Kill More Children Than All Major Diseases!

Fall brings about increased traffic activity, that's why safety should be made a prime concern . . . especially in or about school zones. School yourself to be a safe driver . . . starting today!

OBEY ALL THE TRAFFIC SIGNS!

STOP! You Will, Will He?
