New Teacher Brings Back String Music In Schools

With the opening program of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra's 20th season just three weeks away on Sunday, Oct. 17, Michael Endres, string music teacher for the Plymouth School system, picked out this as the proper time to announce plans for resumption of the Plymouth Junior Symphony for youths in grades seven through 10.

Endres has revived the teaching of string music in the school system after an absence of two years and hopes to have some of the youngsters play with the Junior Symphony before the end of the concert season.

At the moment he is working with sixth and seventh graders at Junior High West and the task is difficult due to the two-year lapse.

His plans for the Junior Symphony include using youngsters from any area community but the wind section will be exclusively for youths from the Plymouth School system.

The Junior Symphony program has the backing of the Plymouth Symphony Society and Endres hopes to be able to show some results of his work before the end of the year.

He has called for all youths interested in the Junior Symphony to report to the band room at the senior high on Saturday, Oct. 2, where practice will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. Weekly sessions will be held on Saturdays for the remainder of the school year.

Endres, a native of Detroit, received his early schooling in Milford where he had his first experience with instrumental music, taking private lessons on the violin. Since the school had no orchestra, Michael changed to trombone and played with the school band. Later he shifted to tuba and received a scholarship to Interlochen with the all-

Remus will also touch on the water pollution problem that has been so troublesome to Detroit in recent months.

Manager to Make Report Monday

City Council Speeds Up Survey Of Pay Increases For Employees

Faced with the fact that it is losing police officers and workers in the Department of Public Works to private industry because of higher wages, the Plymouth City Commission is expected to approve recommendations for salary increases at its regular meeting next Monday.

Details of the proposed offers to city employees were discussed at a committee-of-the-whole meeting Monday night and an additional session is tentatively slated for later in the week.

Earlier, the Commission had promised action on the matter of salary increases by September 1 but additional time was needed by new City Manager Richard Blodgett to study the entire matter, discuss the situation with department heads and finally go over the budget with the Commission before settling down to a thorough review before making his recommendations.

During his six-week study, Blodgett has received full support of the department heads but rumblings have been heard from employees over the delay—especially in the Police Department where the salary schedule is far below that of adjoining communities.

The matter of salaries for police and firemen is bothering most governmental bodies in the area and Plymouth isn't an exception.

Livonia is in the midst of a squabble between the police department and City Council over wage increases with the result that resignations have taken a heavy toll in the police ranks.

In Plymouth, the recent resignation of Calvin Brown, a veteran of 13 years on the Police Department who has been acting in the capacity of communications officer due to health reasons, brought attention to the fact that he was the third patrolman with long service to leave within the past seven or eight months. Brown turned in his resignation to go to Hillside Inn as a bartender where his pay is greater than that of a public servant.

Earlier, Patrolmen Robert Coburn and Ralph Owings, each with eight years service, quit to accept better paying jobs in private industry. A check of the Plymouth pay scale compared to that of Wayne, for example, shows that Wayne's starting salary is $6,550 contrasted to $5,330 in Plymouth with a ceiling of $7,700. Evans Receives New Order For 100 Freight Cars

Already headed for the greatest backlog of orders in history, Evans Products Company's Transportation Equipment division in Plymouth has received a freight car order for an additional 100 cars from Missouri Pacific Railroad.

That was the announcement Monday by Vice President and General Manager James J. Conway who told how the $2 million order boosted the division's business for the year to a record high of $21.6 million.

The new order came close on the heels of an announcement by Conway of orders for 800 cars totaling $15 million, with deliveries to start in the first quarter of 1966. The most recent order from MoPac is tentatively slated for delivery in the second quarter of next year.

MoPac's order calls for 100 60-foot box cars. Each will be equipped with Evans' DFB damage-prevention bulkshead and Hydra-Cushion shock-absorbing underframes. The cars will be built and the damage-prevention devices installed at the Plymouth plant.

The MoPac order closely follows that of 500 freight cars from Union Pacific Railroad.

In addition to manufacturing railroad freight cars, Evans' Transportation Equipment Division produces rail and truck damage-prevention equipment, and manufactures a variety of automotive equipment and material handling and shipping containers in plants in Plymouth, Grand Rapids and Gagetown in Michigan and in Annapolis, Md.

Conway also announced that the Plymouth plant is exhibiting a new type of freight car and a device recently approved by the Bureau of Explosives for shipping explosives and ammunition piggyback. The presentation is at the Brush street station of Grand Trunk Western under the sponsorship of the Railroad Community Service Committee of Detroit and started last Friday.

The new railroad car, designed and built by Evans, uses an entirely new concept for shipping coiled steel without damage. It is equipped with a permanently attached hood which opens like a clamshell. When fully opened this integral cover is confined within the normal car width and permits plenty of clearance for loading and unloading of the coils of steel.

When closed, the hood tightly seals to protect the coiled steel from the elements. The hood is easily opened by one man.

The car handles coils ranging from 30 inches to 84 inches in diameter. Its capacity is 50 per cent greater than that of any other car. (Continued on Page 16-A)

PLYMOUTH HIGH'S new drum major and majorettes showed off for the home folks for the first time in Friday's home opener against Farmington and put on quite a display leading the marching band through intricate maneuvers. The group includes: (from left) Tammy Talmadge, a sixth grader from Junior High West; Janey McCully, Betsy Maurer, strutting Tom Webber, Jean O'Donnell and Jill Dunlap.

Jr. High East Slates Open House for Parents

Junior High East will give parents an opportunity to visit the school and confer with teachers of their sons and daughters in the annual Open House program Tuesday, Oct. 5, starting at 7:45 p.m.

A short business meeting by the new Parent Council under the direction of President Arthur Shepard will open the activities in the school gym.

The evening has been organized so that parents will be able to go through the daily classroom schedule of their children. The only change will be in the time allowed for each class—time won't permit that parents will have as much time with the teachers as the teachers have daily with the students.

The program has received high praise from parents in the past, since it enables them to receive a better understanding of what the children receive from Junior High East.

All parents of students attending Junior High East are urged to attend and participate. Remember the program is scheduled for next Tuesday evening at 7:45 p.m.

We Are Moving To New Office On S. Main

We are on the move — a move into brighter, more accessible quarters on the edge of the downtown business section for the convenience of all of our patrons.

Yes, we are moving to 590 S. Main Street, a few doors south of the Chamber of Commerce offices and a half-block south of the Mayflower Hotel. Our phone numbers will remain the same, GL 3-0038 and GL 3-0039.

After a year in the offices in the rear of the First Federal Savings and Loan building, President and Publisher Mrs. Myra Chandler and General Manager Milton Smith decided a move into a more accessible and better location was desirable.

Thus, following a long search of the downtown business section, Mrs. Chandler and Smith decided the location at the corner of Maple and S. Main was the best from all standpoints.

It places the Observer office where it can be clearly seen from any spot on Main from the City Hall south to the Food Fair supermarket.

It has ample parking space on the opposite corner on the site owned by the Mayflower Hotel and our Landlord, Ralph Lorenz. It is near the new Mayflower Meeting House, which is destined to be the center of social and civic activities. It provides an exposure to the public that was missing in the secluded quarters in the First Federal building.

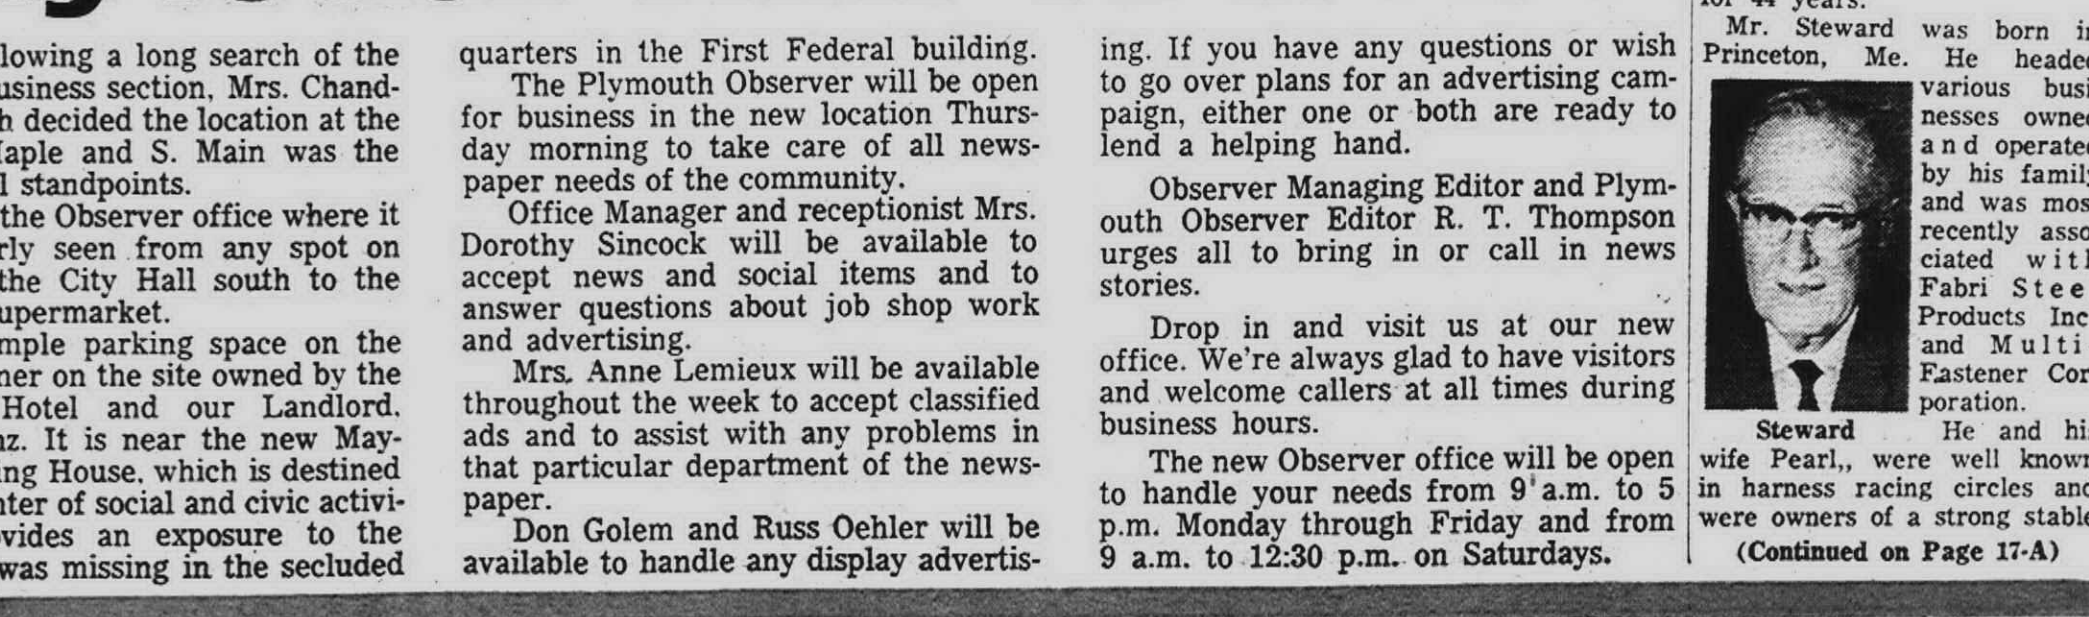

The Plymouth Observer will be open for business in the new location Thursday morning to take care of all newspaper needs of the community.

Office Manager and receptionist Mrs. Dorothy Sincock will be available to accept news and social items and to answer questions about job shop work and advertising.

Mrs. Anne Lemieux will be available throughout the week to accept classified ads and to assist with any problems in that particular department of the newspaper.

Don Golem and Russ Oehler will be available to handle any display advertising.

Suburban School Trustees Confer on Current Problems

Suburban school board delegates who attended the Michigan Association of School Boards convention in Cobo Hall recently were engulfed in searching probes of some of the most serious problems education has faced in many years.

Attending a state parley, held in association with the Michigan Association of School Administrators, were school trustees from Farmington, Livonia, Plymouth, Garden City, Nankin Mills, Redford Union, Clarenceville, and other suburban boards.

Mrs. Strela Schreiber, delegate from Livonia, pointed out that the Association has in the past realistically faced the issues confronting Michigan education and has provided leadership to boards in all 83 counties by helping them meet the growing demands of society in general and their communities in particular.

"The American school board is a community-based democratic institution which many less fortunate countries around the world do not have," delegate Schreiber said. "There are many influences in motion today which hope to neutralize the authority of the locally elected community leaders, charged by law, with the responsibility of providing and guiding the education of their children."

Mrs. Geraldine Joiner, a PTA leader and a Livonia trustee concerned with the establishment of sound school board policies expressed the Livonia board's concern over the lack of local involvement in many Federally financed programs which have been recently initiated.

"Many suburban educators and trustees are greatly concerned over recent State and Federal legislation which tends to limit local authority and control and make elected representatives of the people mere rubber stamp approvers of Washington whims and wishes," Mrs. Joiner asserted.

Dr. A. Edward Katz, board secretary, listed some of the matters of special interest to suburban residents which the convention approved. Passed were resolutions to:

• Influence assessing offices and the state legislature to adopt a code of uniformity in assessing tangible property for tax purposes.

• Oppose legislation which would make it possible for citizens to subtract from their public school tax levies the amount they pay in tuition to non-public schools.

• Request the legislature to provide reimbursement for driver education up to $40 per pupil.

• Encourage the national school boards association to become directly involved in the development of federal educational programs.

• Push for further development and greater support of the neighborhood youth corps idea for both in-school and out-of-school young men and women.

• Mrs. Schreiber said that one of the most hotly deliberated resolutions to come on the floor, that of supporting legislation to extend state aid for pre-kindergarten programs, was defeated.

Livonia trustee, Lonnie H. Brashear, who is chairman of the board committee concerned with community and employee relations problems, stressed the need for building better understanding between trustees and school employees and between boards and the taxpayers in each district.

Livonia superintendent Benton Yates rounded out his responsibilities as past president of MASA at a Thursday evening banquet at which Michigan Congressman Gerald R. Ford, Jr. spoke on "Education... Whose Responsibility?"

YMCA Opens Livonia Office

The YMCA has taken another step toward opening a branch in Livonia by opening a new office at 12330 Middlebelt Rd.

Guiding the new development for the Livonia 'Y' is A. Charles Wise, extension director for the YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit. Wise, with 13 years experience in the YMCA, has spent most of his time in de-centralizing programs and the development of new operations. During the last two years, he has worked in Farmington, developing a new 'Y' there.

According to Wise, "The coming months will bring a new dimension to the service of families in Livonia by the YMCA. As indicated by local citizens, a concentration of time will be spent in development of the Indian Guide program, which features primarily the companionship of fathers and sons six to nine years old."

Wise said he was developing a committee of local citizens that can act in the name of the YMCA, and said most policies and directions for program development will be handled by the local 'Y' Committee.

Any questions concerning the new development can be directed to Wise at 261-0370 or by writing to him at P. O. Box 112, Livonia. He will also speak to interested groups on the development of the 'Y'.

The Michigan State track team set five varsity records and tied another in 1965.

Livonia Mall To Welcome New 'Twins'

The "twins" are at the Livonia Mall and will open officially on Wednesday, Oct. 13—that's when the doors will swing open to the new and unusual twin-theaters, Cinema I and II.

It marks the first twin deluxe theater operation in the suburban Northwest Detroit area. It will be under the supervision of one of the nation's leading theater management companies—General Cinema Corporation of Boston.

Originally a father and son operation, conceived and projected to prominence by the late Phillip Smith and now headed by his son, Richard, it was for years known and operated as the Smith Amusement Company.

It established an enviable record in many sections of the land for progressive innovations in the field of motion picture entertainment.

The "twins" are located on the west side of the huge Livonia Mall, near the entrance to Crowley's, and are designed to take care of all customers—from nine months to 90, with the best and latest movies.

Separate units permit the showing of different pictures in each auditorium which are joined by a single lobby.

The late Phillip Smith, under the identification of the Smith Amusement Co., was the first to successfully operate drive-in theaters in the United States. He introduced them in 10 different states as early as 1935.

His first in Michigan was the East Side Drive-In in Harper Woods. It was followed by the West Side Drive-In in Oak Park which is still operated by the General Cinema Corp.

The first California style restaurants also were opened in the Detroit area known as Richards' Drive-In and the Ami-Jo Doughnut shops.

The Smiths were responsible to a great extent for the present pattern of drive-in theater operation. It was their plan of providing free playgrounds for children that aided in the tremendous growth of the outdoor theaters.

More recently, under the direction of Richard Smith, emphasis has been placed on the creation of new and modern in-floor theaters to serve patrons in areas surrounding large shopping centers.

The first such operation was started in 1950 in the Framingham area of Boston. It became the talk of the industry and has set the pattern for dozens such theaters that have been opened and are operating successfully.

These theaters offer the finest in screen entertainment to the public in the atmosphere of informality and with the accessibility found in a shopping center.

General Cinema Corp., the foremost sponsors of the new and novel "twin" theaters has several in operation at the moment and 25 scheduled for completion by the end of 1965.

Immediate public acceptance of those now in operation, assures that many more will be built in the near future.

Patron comment and suggestion is an important guide to the decisions on which plans for future expansion are made. Frequent surveys of patrons attending theaters operated by the Corporation keep the management alert to the desires of customers.

Such surveys will be made in the new Livonia operation and the types of pictures presented will be determined by the thoughts of the patrons.

Richard Kline, Detroit division manager for General Cinema, announced that Don Hooten will be manager of the new Livonia operation with Mike Wilson as his assistant.

The new "twin" will be open daily with continuous showings starting at noon.

Piggins Cites Ex-Bar Owner

Former Nankin bar owner Bernard "Benny" Ratkos, free under a $1,000 bond, awaits trial Oct. 13 on charges of violating Grand Jury secrecy rules.

One-man Grand Juror Edward S. Piggins, now in his fourth week of investigating charges of large scale traffic ticket fixing in the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, cited Ratkos who stood mute upon arraignment Friday before Recorder's Court Judge Vincent J. Brennan.

Bentley Slates Choir Concert

"The hills are alive with the sound of music..." as will be the Bentley High School auditorium as the members of the Concert Choir, alone, in pairs, and in groups, file onto the stage at the onset of their annual Variety Show. "Tonight," as this year's show is titled, will be a presentation of the Choir, in a different light.

On Saturday, October 2, the Choir will present a variety show compiled of the diversified talents of the 97-member Choir. Certain members will perform musically and others will present comic situations and skits. Included in the show will be a former Choir member, returning as guest soloist, Miss Louise Sager, a freshman at Eastern Michigan University majoring in music, who will perform "Without a Song." For the special occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry J. Smith, the director and his wife, will perform an unusual arrangement on double pianos.

Following these numbers, the entire Choir will assemble for the second performance of the year. The choir will be presenting a new look and a new sound to the stage to sing such numbers as "Today," a rock 'n' roll version of history, and an arrangement of "The Sound of Music," their theme song for the '65-'66 concert season.

Three Local Areas Study Poverty Plan

Representatives of three western Wayne County communities will meet tonight (Wednesday) to discuss joint plans for setting up a Community Action Program under the Office of Economic Opportunity's anti-poverty efforts.

Al Forbes of Redford Township, David Jones of Livonia and a representative of Nankin Township will meet in the Redford Township Hall. They are expected, according to Redford Twp. Supervisor Jack McDonald, to draft plans for a regional survey to determine needs and draft a program.

The meeting comes on the heels of an exchange between McDonald, who is also chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, and Mayor Jerome Cavanagh of Detroit over the destination of federal funds for Wayne County's poverty program.

McDonald said, referring to Cavanagh last Wednesday, those with greater political in-

Fisher Body Honors 2,600 for Service

Nearly 2,600 employees at the Fisher Body plant in Livonia will be honored beginning Monday for their length of service, it was announced by Paul D. Pender, plant manager.

"We are proud that these employees being recognized for their loyal service of five years or more represent approximately 65 per cent of our normal employment," Pender said. "It is gratifying that so many of our people selected us as their employer for so many years and we want them to know that we appreciate it."

Pender pointed out that although the Fisher plant has been located in Livonia only ten years, 2,370 people will be receiving awards for five and ten years service. In all, 1,250 men and 1,328 women will receive length of service awards. Their combined service totals almost 25,000 years.

The awards, consisting of various styles of jewelry containing the Fisher Coach emblem, will be presented over the next eight weeks. Those employees having 40, 35 and 30 years of service will receive their awards this week.

Pender said that three employees will be receiving the 40-year award, 11 the 35-year award, and 37 the 30-year.

The employee with the longest service at the plant is Clarence (Sparky) Elliott, 7931 Mead, Dearborn. He started with the Ternestedt Division of General Motors as an office boy 43 years ago.

He came to the Livonia Fisher Body plant in 1954 where he was made superintendent of production control, the position which he holds at the present time.

Honors for the longest service among hourly-rate employees will be shared by two ladies, Ann Blovet of Auburn Heights, and Minnie Weaver of Clarkston. Both were employed on the same day 39 years ago at Fisher Body in Pontiac.

Anna has spent most of her time on assembly operations while Minnie has been engaged in sewing operations. Both worked on bomb fins during World War II, and both came to the Livonia plant in 1957.

Because the plant is devoted to the cutting and sewing of upholstery for General Motors cars, over half of its employees are women. It is not unusual, then, that 25 married couples will receive service awards.

Employees having 20, 15, 10 and 5 years service will receive their awards during daily ceremonies conducted at the plant from Oct. 4 through Oct. 19.

During the next two months, nearly 70,000 employees in Fisher plants across the nation will receive awards for their length of service, making the program what is believed to be the largest in industrial history.

Banquet Will Honor Farnum

U.S. Congressman Billie S. Farnum will be honored at a district-wide dinner on Friday, Nov. 5, at Roma Hall in Livonia.

Tickets are available locally from Don Nicholson, GA 7-0191.

fore Recorder's Court Judge Vincent J. Brennan.

The warrant, signed by Piggins, charges that Ratkos Wednesday "did disregard and/or failed to keep secret his testimony (of Tuesday) and did... utter information involved in this Grand Jury inquiry, and did make comment on testimony or evidence pertaining to this inquiry."

If found guilty of the high misdemeanor, Ratkos could receive up to one year in prison and a fine of $1,000.

Ratkos, 60, recently returned from a two-month trip to Poland and was summoned to appear before Piggins.

He is the former owner of a bar at 6921 North Wayne Road, just south of Warren, now the Westland Bar, but then known as the Ben R Lounge.

Ratkos resides at 5975 North Wayne Road.

The bar has been named by the "Big Five" deputies, who touched off the probe, as a "depot for fixing" under Ratko's ownership.

Nankin Justice Michael J. Bradley's two aides, Mrs. Lorraine Billings, his legal secretary, and Mrs. Delores Czaplewski, his court clerk, also appeared before Piggins on Friday.

The judge expects to be in Cleveland until Friday, attending a Masonic convention, but said his staff of investigators and attorneys would continue to interview witnesses.

He announced that he could return at any time he is needed to take testimony.

Franklin High Parents to Get Orientation

Parents of Franklin High School 10th graders will have their own "orientation" program on Wednesday evening, Oct. 6.

They are invited to attend a special Open House at Franklin which will feature an abbreviated class schedule designed to enable parents to visit each of their child's classes for about 10 minutes. During this time, the classroom teachers will outline course objectives and procedures. Because of the brevity of the class periods, there will be no opportunity for parents to consult teachers concerning individual problems at this time.

In addition to the schedule of classes, the agenda includes a period of time early in the evening when visitors may tour Franklin High School to acquaint themselves with the facilities.

At 8 p.m., visitors will meet in the Lecture Theater for brief introductory remarks concerning sophomores and their problems. The schedule of classes will follow this introduction. After classes, a refreshment period in the school cafeteria will give parents and school personnel an opportunity for informal conversation.

Plymouth High Slates Senior-Parent Sessions

It is never too soon for members of the Plymouth High senior class to start making plans for college if they hope to continue their education—at least that's the thought of Assistant Principal John M. Hoben and members of his counseling staff.

They have made arrangements for senior conferences on Oct. 4 and Nov. 24 and urge parents to attend with their senior.

The following items will be covered at the conferences:

future plans, credits for graduation, review of test scores, other tests necessary for scholarships, college entrance, other plans, armed service opportunities, work or career information, scholarships, colleges, business schools, technical schools and others.

All college applications should be presented to the Guidance Office at the high school before Nov. 25. Each student must present three applications for processing at the same time.

All applications will be processed after Nov. 25 but seniors and parents are urged to check the college deadlines carefully.

The following dates should be recorded carefully by all interested:

October 7—Albion College Representative, 9 a.m. in Guidance Office—Michigan Math Prize Competition registration deadline.

October 21—College Night, Clarenceville. Representatives from 50 universities and colleges will answer questions.

October 23—PSAT (Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test). Particularly recommended for students who hope to continue their education beyond high school. Gives students a better understanding of their capabilities and shortcomings. Practice is important for those who may need to take further tests for scholarships and college admissions. Fee, $1.25. Booklet given when signing up for the test in the Guidance Office.

November 13—ACT (American College Testing). The American College Testing (ACT) program is an admissions, scholarship, guidance, and placement test battery designed to provide helpful information and service to colleges, high schools, the student, at a time when it will be most useful. Test will be offered five times during the year. First testing date Nov. 13, deadline for registration, Oct. 16. Test required by Central Michigan University and 900 other colleges in other Mid-western states.

November 19—N.R.O.T.C. Deadline for scholarship applications.

November 20—Michigan Higher Education Authority (Required for a state of Michigan Scholarship)

November 30—Deadline for Michigan State University Confidential Statement.

December 1—Ford Scholarship deadline.

December 4—CEEB (College Entrance Examination Boards). Schools requiring this test are U of M, Eastern Michigan University, Albion College, Kalamazoo College, Alma College, General Motors Institute, and many out of state schools. First testing date Dec. 4; deadline for registration, Nov. 6. Test given in Plymouth on Dec. 4 and May 7.

December 15—Michigan State University Scholarship Deadline.

December 17—University of Michigan Scholarship Deadline.

Senior Citizens Enjoy 'Skip'

Senior Citizens of Livonia will hold their next business meeting Oct. 6 at noon. Members are asked to bring their own sandwich and coffee will be served. Meeting will be at St. Andrews Church, Hubbard Road between Five and Six Mile Roads.

"Skip" Rosenthal, City Librarian came to the Senior Citizens meeting with his banjo and sang songs, and was so well received, members are urging a return engagement.

Members of the Livonia Senior Citizens helped at the Annual Patient's Fair at Northville State Hospital.

"YES, YES, I'll buy the ticket." If the luncheon chairman for the Livonia Town Hall series, Mrs. Harold Neilson, and Mrs. Thomas Blacklock, Town Hall president, were jesting or not they convinced Lester Anders, Director of Athletics at Stevenson High School, it was to be a wonderful program. Actually Mr. Anders will be responsible for technical arrangement at the Terrace Theatre on Wednesdays when Marguerite Higgins, Robert Q. Lewis, Dr. Albert Burke and Willie Snow Ethridge will appear for their lecture.

The first program starts on October 20 at 10:30 a.m. A season ticket costs $8, and may be obtained by calling Mrs. Douglas Thomas at GA. 1-7842. Reservations for the celebrity luncheon to be held at Livonia Knights Inn, 29703 Seven Mile Road, following each lecture must be made separately by calling Mrs. Harold Neilson, GA. 1-3286.

Proceeds from the Livonia Town Hall Series go to support the American Field Service program for this area.

Gail Swoveland, D. Jensen Wed

Wedding vows were exchanged between Gail Lynn Swoveland of Wayne and David L. Jensen of Plymouth on Aug. 28 at a 5 p.m. service in the Warrendale United Brethren Church.

Mr. and Mrs. George Swoveland of Wayne are the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Jensen the parents of the groom.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by Reverend Bishop, with Carol Owenshire playing the organ, accompanying Barbara Schneider singing "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride wore a silk organza gown fashioned in the A-line style with a fingertip veil. She carried a white bible with roses. Her only accessory was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

Mrs. Damon Shields was matron of honor in an aqua floor length empire gown with over skirt. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift from the bride, and carried a bouquet of carnations and yellow roses.

Judy Stottlemeyer was bridesmaid along with two junior bridesmaids, Terri Swoveland, the bride's sister, and Joy Mitchell, cousin of the bride, both in yellow floor length gowns, empire fashioned with an over skirt. Their bouquets were of yellow carnations.

Flower girl was Kim Swoveland, cousin of the bride, gowned identically to the bridesmaids in style and light blue in shade. She carried a basket of rose petals and roses.

David Williams was best man with Danny Wood, Paul Jensen, brother of the groom, Bob Swoveland, nephew of the bride, seating guests.

A reception was held for 250 guests in the Church Hall with the Women's Missionary Association of Warrendale United Brethren serving.

Following a trip across the Straits to Illinois and Wisconsin the newlyweds will be at home in Wayne.

The bride is a graduate of Wayne Memorial High School and the groom from Plymouth High School.

Plymouth Panhellenic Plans Winter Schedule

The Plymouth City Panhellenic Association will begin its new season Monday, Oct. 4, at 12:30 p.m. with a sandwich luncheon at the home of Mrs. Felix Hobeisel, 698 S. Evergreen.

The Association meets four times yearly in October, January, March and May.

Its purpose is to further interest in many kinds of social services, civic affairs, and philanthropic fields, and to further acquaint the upcoming college-bound girls with procedures necessary for joining a sorority. Each year the association gives a scholarship to an outstanding Plymouth senior high school girl who has shown qualities of leadership and scholarship to the school and community, and is planning to go to college. A tea is held in June for all senior high school girls and their mothers to acquaint them with college sorority life.

All sorority alumnae in the Plymouth area are welcome to come and join the group. Reservations should be made by Oct. 1, to Mrs. Kenneth Koza, 453-1577, Mrs. G. W. Broome, 453-6599, or Mrs. Frederick Foust, 453-2220.

HANDKNITS will again be the highlight of the Plymouth Sororist Club at 8 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 7, in the Mayflower Meeting Room. The $2.50 admission includes light refreshments. The fashion collection of beautiful handknit garments, including sweaters, cardigans, coats, suits, dresses, also elegant evening and daytime dresses and stoles, is under the guidance of Evelyn Arthey of The Wool Shop. Many club members are modeling. For reservations call Evelyn Arthey, 453-9135, Lorena Hubbs, 453-6420, Roberta Steele, 453-5470. The above are delighting in some of the items (l-r) Ann Sharrard, Evelyn Arthey and Nan Stewart.

Pancake Supper For Support of Exchange Student

The Clarenceville Chapter of the American Field Service invites everyone to a pancake supper on Thursday, Sept. 30 at the Botsford School on Lathers north of 7 Mile from 5-7:30 p.m. Tickets are $1; 60c for children 12 and under. They may be purchased at the door or from any chapter member. For information call Mrs. Joyce Wilson, phone GR 4-7798.

The money raised from this project and others throughout the year will help send one of our students overseas next summer and bring a student here to study at Clarenceville High School for the school year of 1966-67.

This past summer Jerry Litwin of Weyer in Livonia spent two months in Holland. The Louis Schmidt family is at the present time host to Geraldine Van Der Bijl from South Africa.

Madonna Gets Accreditation for Nurses

"On Sept. 24, the National League of Nursing granted reasonable assurance of accreditation to the baccalaureate program in nursing at Madonna College," announced President Sister M. Danutha and Director of the Nursing Program Sister Mary Calasantia.

The accreditation will make available to the nursing students at Madonna College all government grants that are currently being issued in the field of health and particularly moneys assigned for nursing students in the form of grants and loans.

A telegram informing the college of the assurance was sent to the president by Mary F. Quarmly, assistant director of the National League for Nursing. This confirmation is an indication that the National League considers the Program for Nurses good and drawn up in a direction which will qualify it for full accreditation after the school graduates its first class.

Currently 80 students are enrolled in the Madonna College Department of Nursing. The program leads to bachelor's degree which prepares the nurses for the practice of Professional Nursing in community health agencies and qualifies them for admission to advanced programs in nursing.

Livonian Authors Business Books

Richard L. Evans, 33125 Barkley Avenue, Livonia, has written and published two books, one on selling and one on sales management.

Evans, who is assistant vice president—director of management and manpower development for a national life insurance company spent several years in preparing the text for the books.

"Sales Cents" is filled with ideas and definite plans and programs for successful selling (whether of life insurance or anything). "If Management Will Build the Men, the Men Will Build the Business" includes 33 pages of ideas, experience and specific techniques in sales management.

Evans has been in sales and sales management for 14 years. He now is responsible for directing and recruiting, training and development of all sales personnel for an insurance company, with headquarters in Detroit. His books are being used in his sales development course.

D. P. W. News, Notes

By SUPT. JOSEPH BIDA
Plymouth Dept. Public Works
The leaves are falling but the Department of Public Works will not start pickups until more than 50 per cent of the leaves are on the ground. It will be appreciated if homeowners would not place the leaves in the street.

They should be placed only between the curb and the sidewalk for pickup. Placing leaves in the street causes flooding in case of rain and a resultant hazardous driving condition.

DPW workers were busy last week removing a tree stump from the parking lot at Elizabeth and Ann Arbor Trail and hauling it to the dump. The tree had been cut down by the Health Tree Service.

The lot has been graded to the new sidewalk and improved to add additional parking space.

Sweeping was completed throughout the city and in the downtown business section. Three funerals were handled at Riverside Cemetery and the grass mowed in several sections.

Work is continuing at the Salem refuse site. Crews are getting it cleaned and ready so when a new operator takes over he will start with a proper method of running a sanitary land fill. The former operator had to retire due to ill health.

A broken water service was repaired on Bradner Road. It was snapped by a contractor putting in a new sanitary sewer.

City parks and playgrounds and the City Hall area were mowed and shrubs cleared of debris. Gravel was hauled into the following streets: McKinley, Linden, Coolidge. Workmen will prime and seal the streets within two weeks.

Traffic signs were repaired and replaced at various locations. The sanitary sewer main was pumped out north of the City Hall. Work continued in the clearing of the Urban Renewal project on S. Mill Street.

Vivian Picks 3 Paintings At Festival

Early this year, U. S. Rep. Weston E. Vivian (Mich., 2nd District) offered to artists back home an opportunity to display paintings and other works of art in his office in Washington.

Widespread interest in this project has produced an unusually attractive Congressional office—and, occasionally, has resulted in a sale.

Recently sold was a painting by a Lenawee County artist, Mrs. Evalyn Onstead, who studied at one time with Ralph Kelley, of Plymouth.

Congressman Vivian, who co-sponsored the recently passed legislation to establish a National Foundation on the Arts and Humanities, visited the exhibit of the Three Cities Art Club at Kellogg Park during this year's Plymouth Fall Festival. There he had an opportunity to select three works by Plymouth area artists for display in his Washington Office.

The works selected are a landscape by Franklin York of 38401 Belliveau; a painting entitled "Big Town, U.S.A." by Mrs. Doe Wood of 14067 Bainbridge, Livonia; and a woodcut entitled "Evening Landscape" by Mrs. Jessie Hudson of 44951 North Territorial.

Training Graduate

Airman 3/C, George C. Luckwald, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Luckwald, 9035 Iowa, Livonia, has been graduated from the technical training course for U.S. Air Force aircraft mechanics at Sheppard AFB, Tex. The airman is a graduate of Bentley High School.

MRS. AND MRS. THOMAS J. KNIGHT, 21319 Collingham, Farmington, joined the Detroit Race Course's popular VIF (Very Important Fan) club. Mr. and Mrs. Knight were the guests of President Shaffer at a VIF luncheon. They are shown here with William C. McKay (left), Executive Vice President of the DRC.

Extension Club Plans Tea As Season Opener

Plymouth, Northville and Belleville Extension Club women will host prospective members with a tea Thursday (Sept. 30) in the clubroom of the Plymouth Credit Union from 1 to 3 p.m.

This year's extension program will offer lessons on household storage; the better use of what you have; clothing, be your own designer, a consumer's panel; world affairs; personal improvement; family finances and many other items.

The purpose of the Home Economics Study Group is to educate today's woman to improve herself, family and community by providing her with the latest information about consumer buying, management and personal and family relationships.

Specific areas to be covered include: foods and nutrition, clothing and textiles, home management and family finances, home furnishings and housing, child development and family life and public affairs.

New study groups will be formed at this meeting. Anyone interested in the program should plan to attend the tea or contact District 2 representatives Mrs. Homer Benoit, 453-6314 or Mrs. Maxwell Allen, 453-2621.

Redford Republicans Buy Full House For "Never Too Late"

The Republican Party of Redford Township has bought the entire house of the Village Players (Chestnut at Hunter Blvd.) Birmingham, for Oct. 8, a Friday evening. The performance is "Never Too Late" with curtain time at 9 p.m.

Governor Romney and Elly Peterson have been invited to be guests of the club. This is the opening night of the season. Refreshments are included in the price of the ticket. Tickets are three dollars.

"Never Too Late" one of the top comedies of the Broadway season enjoyed a delightful year-long run and is still running in New York, off-Broadway.

For more information or reservations call Redford Township Republican Club President Eldon Funk, or Marion Donaldson, Al Forbes, Larry Fitzgerald or Dorothy Reynolds, KE 1-3542 or 342-5900.

Woman Of Wayne To Hear Floyd Starr

Floyd Starr, founder and director of the Starr Commonwealth for Boys, will be guest speaker at the year's first meeting of the Farmington-Livonia Women of Wayne Alumni Club.

The meeting will be held Tuesday, Oct. 5, at 7:30 p.m. at the Carl Sandburg Library on Seven Mile Road near Middlebelt in Livonia. A short business session conducted by Mrs. R. Dewey Hansen of Livonia, 1965-66 president, will precede Starr's talk.

The Women of Wayne club is open to all women in the area who are graduates of Wayne State University or have taken any courses there. It draws members from Plymouth, Northville, Redford and Southfield as well as Farmington and Livonia.

Its program includes several meetings each year in this area and participation in city-wide events on the new and growing Wayne State campus. The club each year sponsors a performance of the Farmington Players to raise money for its service project of aiding needy Farmington families and for the WSU alumni scholarship fund.

Women interested in the program are cordially invited to attend the Oct. 5 program, or for further information on the group may be obtained from Mrs. Hansen, telephone 421-6018, or membership chairman Mrs. Cameron Lodge of Plymouth, GL 3-6318.

'Verses of Companionship'

(Editor's note: The following review of "Along The Highway" is from David McLellan, a poet who lives in Farmington.)

By DAVID McLELLAN
The book "Along The Highway," by Clara M. Gekill tells me of a quiet gravel road in the country, at the turn of the century. Her verse appears to have become her companion rather than her exultation. The tenets of the church appear to have been embraced to assure an orderly life. Fearing for the morals of the young has been an exercise that only explains our lack of daring. In fact she is not very fond of life; reincarnation has no appeal. Being a farmer's daughter was not shameful, but did she love it? I do not know.

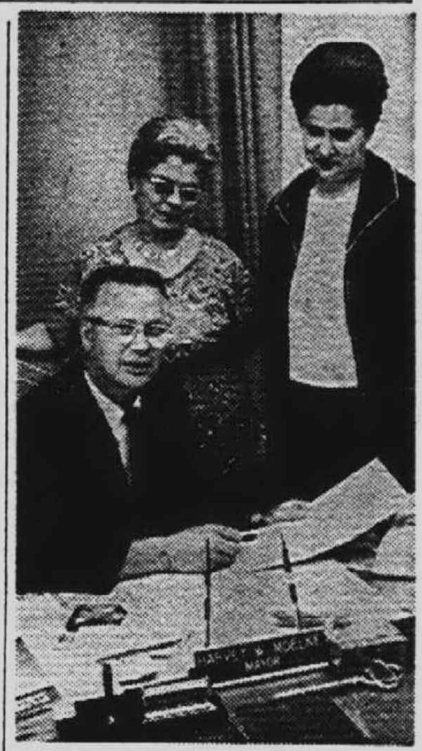

BARBARA WRIGHT is the newly elected Worthy Advisor of Plymouth Assembly #33 Order of the Rainbow Girls. She will be installed Sept. 27 at the Masonic Temple in Plymouth. Ed Hayes became senior patrol leader and Larry Deamud became assistant senior patrol leader. Jim Roshirt became an instructor.

PICTURE TALK by Les Wilson

BOXED SUNSHINE

I'm talking about the kind of sunshine you see for indoor pictures. And, believe me, Kodak has wrapped it all up, sunshine plus camera, in the neatest package you've ever seen. Flashcube photography.

Take the new KODAK INSTAMATIC 104 Camera, for instance. For indoor pictures, here's all you do. Just drop in the film cartridge, pop on a new flashcube and start shooting. Shoot four flash pictures in a row without changing bulbs. Shoot as fast as you can click the shutter and advance the film, and never lose a flash picture opportunity! After each shot, the flashcube rotates automatically to set you up for the next picture. Take four flash pictures in a row, then toss away the flashcube. Pop on another and you're ready to go again.

Along with instant loading and pop-on flash, there are other reasons why you'll like the "104." The lens is factory-focused. A flick of your thumb, and the quick-action lever advances the film, positions the next frame, keeps track of exposures, and a "104" flashcube rotates before film is advanced. The shutter automatically shifts to flash speed when you pop on the flashcube.

You can walk out with a new KODAK INSTAMATIC 104 Camera, wrist strap, film, batteries and flashcube for only $17.95. And that should put a little more sunshine in your life.

Charge Plymouth Man Collided With 8 Cars

Thanks to the alertness of Cab Driver Kenneth Jayska, 21105 Osmus, Livonia, police were able to nab Claude Ryan, Jr., of 1199 Sheldon Road, Plymouth, after he allegedly ran away from his car following an injury accident.

Livonia Police reports show that Ryan collided with a car on Plymouth Road near Arden, causing injuries to two occupants, then he apparently became frightened and collided with eight other cars in two other accidents before he finally stopped, jumped out of the car and raced down Plymouth Road.

Jayska, a driver for Checker Cab, was driving by in the same direction, saw Ryan take off and sped after him. Jayska finally caught him a block and a half away, ordered him into the cab and returned him to the scene of the accident awaiting police.

When Police arrived a few moments later, they discovered Ryan had been involved in three accidents, with eight vehicles and two injuries.

The two injured were rushed to St. Mary Hospital where they were released after examination.

Meanwhile, Ryan faces charges of leaving the scene of an injury accident while Livonia Police are busy trying to piece together a complete detailed report of the incident.

Unit Back In Action

The precision marching color guard of Mayflower Post 6695, VFW, is back in business again. There was a time when it appeared as if the Post had lost the colorful unit which had thrilled thousands of Plymouth residents during the past several years during the Memorial Day and Fourth of July parades.

Now the gang including: Eddie Olson, Ray Danol, Mel Krumm, Duane Johnson, Bill Kramen, Bill Fletcher, Bob Smith and Hal Young will carry the colors of the Post in the annual Torchlight Parade Saturday night in London, Ontario.

The Color Guard has brought back top trophies in the past and members hope they repeat again.

The Post's membership is gathering steam with more than 25 per cent paid up but more are needed—line up now and give the Post that boost it needs.

Chuck Bulson is back in the fold.

Evans

The Evans car is equipped with a Hydra-Cushion shock-absorbing underframe with patented cross members which brace the steel coils, preventing them from shifting in transit.

The permanently attached hood is marked improvement over currently used removable hoods which require special handling and frequent repair and maintenance.

In addition to the new coil steel car, Evans also has on display an 89-foot flat car bearing a truck-trailer and a van-container equipped with Evans bracing equipment recently approved by the Bureau of Explosives, American Association of Railroads for trailer-on-flat-car and container-on-the-flat-car shipment of explosives, ammunition and other dangerous articles.

The device also has been approved by the U.S. Army and the U.S. Navy for shipment of ammunition and explosives.

Evans' equipment consists of a series of belt rails affixed to each side of a truck-trailer or van-container, plus a number of movable crossmembers which lock into the belt rails, bracing the lading to prevent it from shifting and from damage.

The crossmembers, in addition to serving a bracing function, permit double decking which, in many cases, doubles the payload.

Council Speeds Pay Study

140 in Wayne compared to $6,214 here.

This is one of the inequities that have been brought to the attention of the Commission and one that City Manager Blodgett hopes to resolve.

Whether the Commission will be able to meet the scale of nearby cities is something that will have to be determined after a study of the budget and the funds available.

It is this problem that has had the attention of Blodgett and members of the Commission's finance committee for several weeks. The answer is expected next Monday.

In the meantime, DPW Supt. Joseph Bida faces a similar problem. Three of his most experienced workers have left the department in recent weeks for better paying jobs in industry.

And several others have informed Bida that adjustments will have to be made and made quickly or other resignations can be expected in the near future.

Meanwhile, the Commission learned that its test of the downtown parking lot resulted in considerable criticism—from irate citizens.

The lot was closed Monday morning from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. while DPW workers presumably swept and cleared it of debris. Actually, it was a test of who was parking there in the mornings and also to discover if employees, of the various businesses surrounding the lot, couldn't find other places for their cars. DPW Supt. Bida reported four cars in the lot when workers first closed it off, two were guests at the Mayflower Hotel and the other two left within a short time.

Then came the complaints from employees, who had been warned well in advance of the tests that the lot would be closed for the two-hour period.

The test was requested by merchants in the area who complained the lot was being filled by employees who parked all day and left little space for shoppers.

However, it could be that the test may have rebounded since many of the indignant employees found other parking spots but indicated they could find other places to do their shopping in the future.

Now the Commission is faced with the problem again of what to do about the downtown lot. Merchants want employees to park elsewhere and the employees are just as insistent that they prefer to park close to their place of employment.

It's a real shocker and one that will require the judgment of a Solomon—perhaps there are enough Solomons on the Commission to provide an answer. The next few weeks should be interesting.

Why We Belong . . .

We belong to The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce because,—

One,—it furthers our service to people in the area, answering business questions, protecting buyers from the unscrupulous, referring prospects to the proper businesses and professions, and generally promoting the image of a good business community. It does so in a much deeper and more thorough way than we can hope to do on our own. It fulfills our wish about the good treatment of customers.

Two,—the Chamber serves as the "clearing house" for newcomers as they are becoming oriented to the Plymouth community.

Three,—it serves directly in attracting future customers for us.

Therefore: we contribute both in money and in time to its continuation.

The award presented annually, is based on leadership, scholarship, membership, activities, finances, chapter management, chapter honors and recommendations from college officials. In 1963 and 1964 the Alma chapter received honorable mention.

The chapter is located at 313 Philadelphia Ave., and was founded in 1957. During the 1964-65 academic year the chapter had 75 members.

Resumes String Music

He taught elementary strings in seven schools in the Farmington system last year and then responded to the change to resume the string program in Plymouth.

Right now he's busy with his sixth graders at West Junior, orchestra for seventh graders there and teaching elementary vocal music at Starkweather School. And now he's most enthusiastic over the prospects of starting the Plymouth Junior Symphony Orchestra but realizes he'll have to have help from adjoining communities to build up the string section—two years lapse in Plymouth has hurt. However, Michael feels it's a challenge and he's the kind of a guy that accepts one with a zest.

A Study In Contrasts

With plenty of noise, but far less reason, a group of vocal South Redford residents has descended on its Board of Education once again in recent weeks.

Its target, this time, is the Board's decision to cut school bus service to conform to state limitations of 1 1/2 miles.

Its leaders are, for the most part, citizens who have evidenced little prior interest in the public schools, and some of its followers include political groups anxious for a few votes.

It stands in sharp contrast to another group of parents who are also dissatisfied with School Board cuts, but who are involved in a constructive and creative activity to overcome their dissatisfaction. These are the parents, clustered around the Junior Athletic Association, who are collecting $10,000 in donations to restore the school district's junior high and reserve athletic programs, cut when the School Board fixed its 1965-66 budget.

Both groups are an outgrowth of last spring's millage defeat in South Redford. Put them side by side, and you have a classic example of the opposite ways in which citizens can react to a crisis.

Because of the millage loss, the Board of Education found itself with $161,000 less to spend this year than last. To balance the budget, the Board voted to provide bus transportation for students who lived 1 1/2 miles or more from school. This is the distance for which the state of Michigan will reimburse the school district, and it is the same distance standard in school districts throughout the state. The Board eliminated junior high and reserve sports, cut the teaching supplies budget in less than half, eliminated purchase of new library books, the health service and the elementary language program.

A Memory Of Judge Phoney

The news of the death of Sylvester J. Phoney, on Tuesday, Sept. 23, brought to mind a date earlier this year — March 24 — when Judge Phoney proved himself a considerable man under difficult conditions.

It was on that date that he heard the case of the state versus Russell Roberts, a resident of Farmington and a self-confessed Nazi — on charges of criminal libel.

Roberts had induced a young man to distribute leaflets virulently attacking the Negro race.

The case had attracted considerable attention and representatives of the daily press and television were on hand, as well as a self-styled truth squad from American Nazi Headquarters in Arlington, Va.

It was a mixed-up morality play — with attorney Allen Ingle, and the American Civil Liberties Union trying to keep the Nazi out of jail.

They argued that the laws of libel were not intended to protect entire races of whole groups of people; that to do so would be a dangerous precedent against freedom of expression.

The Judge showed no emotion during the

By slashing and cutting and scrimping, the Board achieved a balanced budget. But, then, the fireworks began.

Cries of "recall" came from those people who "couldn't understand" why the Board had to slash bus service, but who had no evident interest in library books or language programs. The negative reaction reached a climax Wednesday when 300 persons jammed a school auditorium to heatedly debate the issue.

But while tempo was building on the negative side, a small group of parents was working quietly to prepare a plan for athletic improvement. They organized the "South Redford Boosters Club," met with the School Board, and started a citizens' campaign to collect $10,000 to re-instate the programs.

How are the two approaches faring? The answer is gratifying. Despite loud claims of "3,000 signatures against the Board's bus policies," the negativists came up with barely one-third of that amount at Wednesday's session. On the other hand, the quiet financial drive has netted several thousand dollars already, and a volunteer work group has been busy painting bleachers at Thurston's athletic field.

The lesson is clear: those who limit their dissatisfaction to griping and carping gain little; those with civic spirit have everything to gain.

Out of this has come two concrete developments:

The continued progress of Redford Township in moving away from the negative-abloid-extremist consciousness that enveloped it in darkness and disinterest for years, and the realization of many Township residents that they must put their money where their mouths are and support their schools at the next S. Redford millage election.

Poor Taste In Politics

The Observer is not naive enough to write that all politicians are altruistic public servants who spend all their waking hours thinking of ways to improve their community.

But we do know that, by and large, our local cities and townships are run by dedicated men and women who strive for honest, effective rule.

That's why it's disappointing and disconcerting to come face-to-face with a cluster of poor performances once in a while. That is what has happened this past week, and to this we call the attention of our readers:

• IN LIVONIA members of the City Council decline to permit voters a chance to ballot on the issue of revising the city charter. A one-vote margin defeats the proposal, with the nay-sayers claiming it would be better to revise the charter on a point-by-point basis rather than by general revision. They may be right. But it doesn't negate the point that this yes-or-no decision should rest ultimately with the voters at the ballot box. The Council should not have kept this right of the ballot from the citizens.

• IN REDFORD TOWNSHIP, Supervisor Jack McDonald, a candidate for Congress next year, explodes into the headlines with an attack on the federal poverty program, claiming that outcounty regions are being bypassed in favor of Detroit. But one can't forget his earlier lack of forcefulness in pushing a Community Action Program for Redford Township, where an independent citizen grass-roots study found that

2,000 persons needed assistance. McDonald, in fact, quashed the committee's request for anti-poverty aid from Washington at the same time that local right-wingers protested the plan.

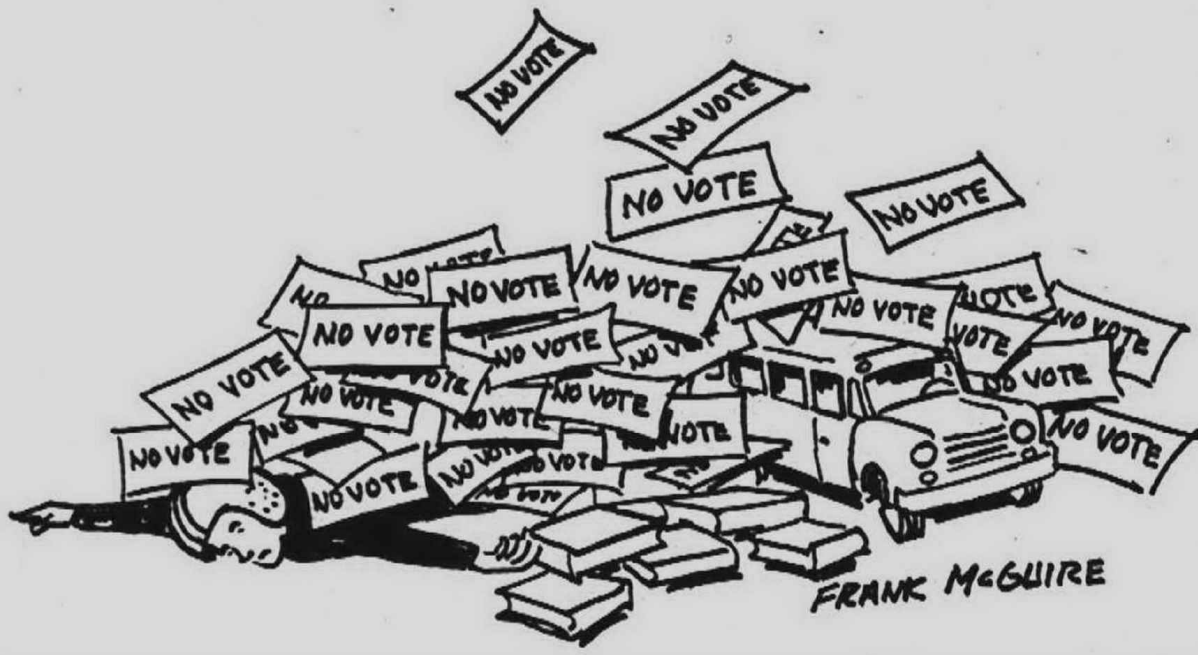

Again, IN LIVONIA, the Board of Education, after having had two years to correct itself, continues to force teachers to join one or the other teachers' organizations in order to be paid hospitalization insurance. If a teacher wants to be independent and unaffiliated, the Board won't pay him what it pays the teachers who belong... well, that's the cost of non-conformity today and there are a few teachers who are feeling the pinch.

And, back to REDFORD TOWNSHIP, where the Democratic Party (or those who claim to represent it) gets mighty undemocratic in its actions. It's here that 10 of 22 members of the Party's executive board sign a resolution condemning the "inhuman" Board of Education for limiting school bus service to the state regulated 1 1/2 miles for which the schools are paid. We don't recall the Democrats fighting for the millage issue last spring which would have corrected the situation. That, of course, was unpopular with voters. And it's also here, that a party officer rises at a closed meeting, dramatically pulls out a ten-year-old document, and implies that one of his political opponents "took the Fifth." Remember a fellow named Joe McCarthy? "I have in my hands a list..."

As we said, we're glad these weeks come only once in a while.

THE NAYS HAVE IT

THE READER SPEAKS UP:

'Fair Play' for S.R. Schools

Editor: I'm wondering after reading the front page article in this week's Observer (about the bus situation in South Redford) just why Mr. Giordano is so incensed about lack of busses when his children attend parochial school. Last year was the first year South Redford bussed the parochial school children. How did his children get to school before that? Did he pay for a parochial school bus? If so, why does he expect the School Board to bus his children free when there are not adequate funds. He says nothing about the fact that the foreign language, art, music, library, etc., have also been cut.

I would also like to know why he thinks so much money is being wasted when South Redford has one of the best school systems (which is shown by the excellent rating our children make in their achievement tests) and they still operate on a smaller budget than Redford Union, Livonia, Dearborn Heights and Farmington, just to name a few.

The School Board reviewed the situation before cutting anything. I agree that it is better for a child to walk and get some exercise and build up a little immunity to the elements (I did, my parents did and we're still here) than to cut their scholastic standards by fewer teachers and overcrowded classrooms.

It has been said time and again how much softer each generation is getting. President Kennedy asked for a better physical education program to build up the children. Is this why we are going to drive them up to the door of the school so they can go inside and get some exercise? Or should we be willing to pay the few extra dollars a year in taxes not only to insure our children RIDING home on the bus but also carrying home some knowledge in their heads.

De we want to send our children to school to learn something and progress or should we pay for busses instead of good teachers and send our children to school to have a baby sitter?

No, I'm not a member of the Board of Education, nor am I on the School Board. I'm just an interested housewife and mother who took the time to check into these issues so I could go and vote with an open mind and I felt compelled to write in the interest of fair play.

INTERESTED CITIZEN

Anti-Redford GOP

Editor: Just recently we were able to obtain a copy of the Redford Township Water Department's annual audit report for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1965. We came across some figures we thought the public would be interested in.

The Redford Township Water Department buys our water from the Water Department of the City of Detroit. There has been no increase in the price charged Redford Township for this water. The Redford Township Water Department paid only $124.24 more for water in the year ending March 31, 1965, than in the previous year. This $124.24 worth of water was parlayed into an increased cost to the water users in Redford Township totaling $162,401.62! This represents the increase in water rates, sewage disposal rates, increased penalties and increased interest received on this money! The statement of operating capital for the same period showed a balance of $1,159,371.87!

The Township Board has spent $310,000 of Water Department funds to purchase the so-called Maxitrol Property and at the September 7, 1965 Township Board meeting, the Board's own Bond Counsel stated that the Water Department still has a cash surplus of at least $285,000!

This prompted the Supervisor to tell the Board, "We may want to see if we can cut water rates soon." This is the same man who said that if this writer, who campaigned against him and advocated a water rate reduction were elected, the Water Department would go bankrupt.

We are not going to let the Republican members of the Township Board forget the foul, vicious attack they and their Party conducted against us when we repeatedly stated that a huge cash surplus existed in the Water Department.

We believe that the time has come in Redford Township when those in political life will have to be counted by their public statements. Such out and out lies and false accusations cannot be tolerated as being part of a political campaign.

Since these people have lied or by their silence, condoned these lies for purely political reasons, it can only be assumed they will do anything to perpetuate themselves in office and it is left to conjecture to assume what else they might do to gain the same end.

NATE BANKS Redford Township

Anti-Mayor Moelke

OPEN LETTER TO LIVONIA COUNCIL PRESIDENT:

Due to the continued resignations of able Police Officers from our Police Department, and due to the complete inability of the Mayor and his Public Safety Director, to resolve this most serious problem, a Citizens Committee has been organized for the sole purpose of conducting a complete and accurate study to determine the real facts that are prompting these resignations.

Apparently the Mayor and his friends prefer to play politics and offer excuses, rather than to accept their responsibilities, as such we as citizens can, and will no longer sit idly by, and allow this deplorable condition to worsen.

The crime and accident rates in Livonia are alarmingly on the increase, while the effectiveness of the law and safety enforcement has decreased to the extent that a state of emergency exists. Every family and business in Livonia is affected, and it is felt that more than ample time has been allowed our city administrators to exercise their responsibilities, which they have repeatedly failed to do.

As you are aware, the number of resignations have reached 19. This means that Livonia is operating 19 men short of the required number to give minimum protection to this city. We have reason to believe that these resignations will continue unless immediate interest is taken, and that the true facts are learned, studied and reported, so that proper action can follow.

We, as citizens, must accept this responsibility. This committee shall endeavor to compile all pertinent facts and information pertaining to this problem, and then issue a complete report, to the Council hopefully within the next 30-days.

We respectfully request the assistance of the City Council. Through our mutual efforts, perhaps the solution will be found, and only then can this crisis take its place as one of the most severe blots in this city's history.

RAYMOND J. BARBER JOSEPH W. DROST Livonia

For Civic Associations

Editor: In order to clear the minds of certain Redford Township servants at Town Hall, who have the mistaken impression the Redford Township Council of Civic Associations as well as the civic associations should keep their noses out of Town Hall affairs, we would like to inform these servants that these organizations represent the homeowners and residents of Redford Township.

Part of the tax monies paid by these homeowners pay the servants we have at Town Hall for services performed for the public. The day these organizations cease to have anything to say concerning Twp. Affairs, it will most certainly be a very sorry day indeed!

These organizations are listed in the files of the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission. The purposes of these organizations are also listed there.

If anyone is interested in knowing what these purposes are, please contact either The Council of Civic Associations or South Redford Township Civic Association. We would be remiss, if we did not mention that these organizations HAVE THE WELFARE OF ALL REDFORD TOWNSHIP uppermost in thought in presentations before Town Hall, when matters concerning the populace are discussed. All work is voluntary, and without pay!! WE FEEL IT VERY MUCH OUR BUSINESS AS TO WHAT IS GOING ON AT TOWN HALL, WHETHER OUR PUBLIC SERVANTS AGREE WITH US OR NOT, IS A QUESTION TO PONDER OVER!!

On Redford Taxes

Editor: First let me say I thoroughly enjoy The Observer, especially the "letters to the editor." I do feel not enough readers are taking advantage of the opportunity to voice their opinions in your column which I am going to do.

In the past few weeks I have read many articles in the Observer on the raising of taxes for one thing or another.

Now don't misunderstand me, I enjoy (ahem) paying my taxes as much as the next person. I wonder how many Redford Township homeowners really know that we are paying 74 a thousand assessed valuation, the highest rate of any surrounding areas, and truthfully we are not getting much in return. There are many dirt roads, water filled ditches, etc.

As for the millage raise for the fire and police department, let me say this, I've been under the impression it also takes water to put out fires. Well, let us have a few warm days and the water pressure drops so low you couldn't put out a bar-b-que unless they are planning to use the extra men to blow out the fires.

As for the Police Department, if our force is as understaffed as they claim, how come they can spare a patrol car to park on a side street in the Puritan, Inkster area and watch for someone to go through a stop street. Seems to me there should be more important things to look for. If anyone is curious, "No, I didn't get a ticket." Should it happen and should there be only two votes against the millage raise on election day, rest assured they will be from this homeowner. My motto is, "It isn't how much money you have, it's how wisely you spend what you do have."

Editor: South Redford parents who are demanding bus transportation "or else" remind me of children crying for their own way no matter who or what else is involved.

Surely there are essentials to education (text books, equipment, health services, etc.) which deserve prior consideration. Rather than succumb to emotional pressure groups the School Board should compile a priority schedule of services to be restored when, if, and as money is available. Ideally, it should be compiled in a meeting of cool, analytical judgement, giving greatest consideration to those things which will affect the greatest number of students in their quest for education.

After all, "education" is the business of the schools, not transportation, food services, etc.

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

Getting acquainted with strangers gives a person an opportunity to become reacquainted with himself and with what he or she believes. This is true for people in all professions — including journalism. Being a newcomer to a community gives a journalist an opportunity to re-evaluate what his paper stands for... and against.

To further explain: the publisher of "The Observer of Garden City" was called to discuss the apparent harassment of the Garden City School Board by our Editor in that city.

It was an amiable discussion. The Board members who were present proved that the school district is in capable — indeed above average — hands. They are conscientious, articulate and dedicated. What more can you ask of a public official?

The details aren't important. The results are. The aim of the school board of any community is to promote the best for the kids of the school district. An important factor is keeping the teachers of the district top grade, in the right atmosphere, and of good morals; also to communicate with the parents of the district so there is understanding, and thus support for important decisions involving policy and bond issues.

The Garden City School Board and The Observer agree on these points.

The role of the newspaper in a community is to be its conscience, to reflect the activity of the governmental bodies — and to keep the public informed. A community with confidence in its community newspaper knows it has elected honest officials — otherwise its newspaper would let it know. Because a good newspaper digs out the facts. Its reporters dig out the facts because they ask questions — a good newspaper asks all kinds of questions and keeps informed.

A good newspaper rocks the boat. The issue in Garden City was over the newspaper's right to know teachers' salaries and administrative salaries.

As far as this newspaper is concerned we think we and the public have a right to know this.

We do agree teachers' personnel files and students' files must be kept the concern of the individual and his superiors — we do agree to "executive sessions" where the press, thus the public, is excluded, when morals charges are involved — when teachers' files are being discussed relative to selecting a choice for advancement or for discussing purchase of land. We do, however, frown on "executive sessions" for general discussions, particularly of budget, change of policy, school programs or books.

The Garden City School Board agreed to give careful study to its policy and issue a statement. The matter of asking question of the interest that The Observer has displayed, just hadn't come up before.

Communications enter into the picture. Superintendent O'Leary has devoted all of his life to the Garden City School District. He has done a magnificent job that only a dedicated man can do. He has carried his schools through 25 years of building, growing and keeping pace with the students. He isn't apathetic either. No one denies the job he has done. He has been a fighting superintendent and has the reputation for getting the job done. Unfortunately he has a short fuse and to disagree with him makes you wrong. His Board knows this — and so does Dr. O'Leary, really. With his record, when a newspaper is dedicated to keeping the public informed, it will only increase the respect of the community, reduce his enemies, and gain even more support.

Enemies of education are enemies of this newspaper. A cloak of secrecy over school activities does not assuage enemies of a school system — it only encourages them and gives them an issue. Those who only want the right to know will in turn, support. We have seen it happen.

The DRC Story

HOW RACE HORSES GET THOSE FANCY NAMES

I Have Named A Thousand Babies . . . baby horses, that is . . . during my years in thoroughbred racing.

It is a fascinating part of the Sport. Every day when I go over the Detroit Race Course program, I find it a delight to check the names of the horses and to think of the stories or the possible reasons behind the choice of their names.

How do you name a race horse? Well, it isn't as easy as you might think. The Jockey Club, which is the governing body of racing in the United States, exercises strict supervision over the choice of the names. All names must be submitted to The Jockey Club, and approved by it, before they can be used.

Names are limited to 16 letters and not more than three words. No name used in the previous 15 years can be duplicated. Names of famous horses of the past, trade names or anything hinting of advertising are not permitted. A horse can be named for a living person only if his written consent is filed.

I think over recent years Alfred Gwynn Vanderbilt has exercised greater originality, coupled with a pixish humor, than most owners.

Vanderbilt's brilliant Native Dancer was by Polynesian-Geisha. He caused many a chuckle, and a few Jockey Club blushes, with Social Outcast, a star who took part in our 1954 Michigan Mile. Social Outcast was by Shut Out-Pansy.

Sometimes there can be humorous political connotations to thoroughbred names. Isidor Bieber had a succession of fine foals from the mare, Maaja, and in order, he named them: Russian Valor, Russian Action, Empty

Noose, Appease Not and Champion Liar.

I once knew a cantankerous old Kentucky owner who hated to have women hunch players bet on his horses because they liked their names. So he deliberately gave his color-bearers unattractive names like Ugly Mary and Losing Clon.

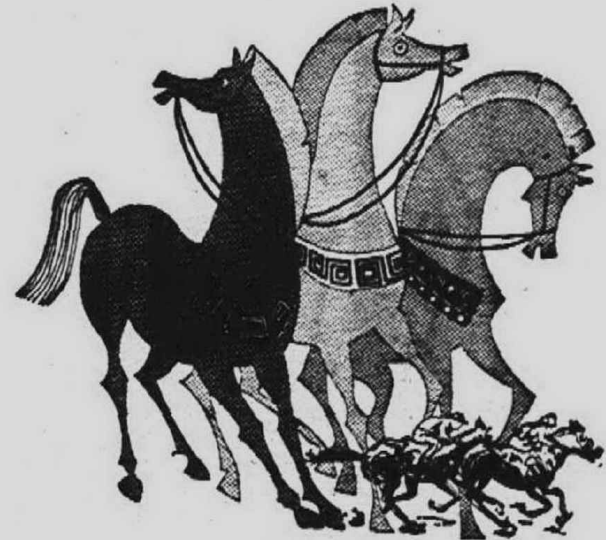

In years past, when the late Col. E. R. Bradley was the Master of the famed Idle Hour Farm, all his horses had names beginning with the letter "B" . . . Behave Yourself, Bubbling Over, Burgoon King, Broker's Tip, Bimelech.

James Edwards, owner of the Audley Farm, who raced with us last season, has a horse named Bag of Ice. He selected it to commemorate the purchase of a sizeable number of uncut diamonds from a famed movie star.

The next time you come to the Detroit Race Course, and I hope it will be soon, spend a few minutes studying the names of the horses racing that day. You will find it just another of the little things which will add to your Racing Pleasure.

Our new Clubhouse is one of the Show-places of Sports. We invite you to visit the beautiful "Winner's Circle" dining terrace; the colorful old world tavern, "Ye Olde Tired Horse Pub"; the gay French Quarter Lounge, or just take a leisurely stroll about the Clubhouse and view the 30 exciting thoroughbred paintings in the DRC's Corridor Of The Stars by Fay Moore.

Wonderland Telecast

Wonderland Center, and other aspects of suburbia, will be featured Sunday on a national telecast, according to Ernie Epps, promotion director for the center.

The program, which can be seen locally on WWJ-TV, (Channel 4) features segments of Wonderland's bathing beauty and skate-board contests, Epps said.

An NBC camera crew filmed the pageant last July.

The colorcast, one of a series of "America the Beautiful" programs sponsored by Floral Telegraphic Delivery, describes urban and suburban living. In addition to Wonderland, several other Detroit suburban areas will be shown on the telecast.

Schoolcraft To Sponsor Unusual Concert Series

Another first will be inaugurated on the Schoolcraft College campus on Oct. 14 when the first of a series of daytime concerts will be presented in the college library at 11 a.m.

The concerts are designed primarily for students and will attempt to give a broad perspective of musical styles, performance mediums and trends in modern music. The program will be presented on Thursday mornings at 11 a.m. primarily for students although arrangements are being made to accommodate a limited number of guests residing in the college district.

Music students in the high schools in the district are urged to attend when possible.

The Oct. 14 presentation will feature the Puerto Rican String Quartet. All members of the group are natives of Puerto Rico and are making their first tour of the States.

The Nov. 18 concert will highlight two members of the Schoolcraft College faculty in a recital. Mrs. Leslie Eitzen has done considerable singing in the area and has been a soloist with the Plymouth Symphony. Allen Shaffer is a graduate of Oberlin and Syracuse Universities and is working on his Doctorate at the University of Michigan. He is organist and choir director of the First Methodist Church in Garden City.

The remainder of the concert series includes:

Ann Arbor Recorder Society, Dec. 9, in a program of early Christmas music, performing on the recorder and other instruments of the 16th and 17th centuries.

University of Michigan Trombone Choir, Jan. 10, 1966.

Lecture-demonstration by Dr. Edward Chudacoff, of the School of Music at the University of Michigan on Feb. 17, on the topic of "New Music."

Mrs. Emily Mutter Austin, generally considered the best known woman violinist in this area, on March 17. She was the first woman member of the Detroit Symphony, is concertmaster of the Plymouth Symphony and has been soloist with the Symphony on numerous occasions.

University of Michigan Baroque Trio, April 7. The trio, all members of the music faculty at the University, are: Nelson Hauenstein, flute; Florian Mueller, oboist; John Flowers, harpsichord; and in certain parts of the program, Dr. Clyde Thompson, bass.

The Baroque Trio has made numerous concert appearances around the state, playing the music of the Baroque period (1600-1750).

15 Classmates In 1907 Hold Reunion In 1965

More than 50 years ago, a group of barefoot youngsters and girls in a long sweeping dresses of that period attended a one-room school, known then as Old Rough and Ready School in Livonia Township to the School Board.

It is still Stark School even though the building on Stark Road in Livonia bears only slight resemblance to that of yesteryears. It has grown from a building that had 17 pupils in the eight grades then to one with several hundred at the moment!

And in the days when the barefoot youngsters attended, only occasionally did a horse and buggy drive by the school while in the distance could be heard the rumble of the interurban street car system.

Those were the days when a trip to downtown Detroit was a big event and involved a full day. It was up early in the morning to start the trip and then the arrival back home late in the evening with goodies for all of the kiddies!

Why are all of these being brought to mind? The same memories were revived and recalled recently when 15 members of that class of 17 so many years ago, met recently for a reunion in Plymouth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Law on East Ann Arbor Trail. They had attended Stark School in the period from 1901 to 1907 and even the teacher, 94-year old Mrs. Jehmima Bridge Minock was in attendance.

Another teacher of that period, Mrs. Hazel Raymp Krumm, is still alive, but was unable to attend due to illness.

The group came from Union Lake, Whitmore Lake, Brighton, Royal Oak, Plymouth, Livonia and Garden City and with their wives and husbands made up a party of more than 40.

All joined in a pot luck dinner but the biggest part of the day was devoted to reminiscing of the days back when and talking over classes then with Mrs. Minock.

Civil Defense Marks Fifteenth Birthday

Livonia's Civil Defense organization is marking its 15th birthday this month by charting a seven-point program for future city activities.

Created in Sept. 1950 as the Office of Civil Defense, today's CD organization includes Director W. A. Cooper, a deputy director, and 96 other full and part time personnel.

It's stated purpose: "To preserve and protect the public peace and health and the safety of persons and property in time of national, local or natural disasters and to provide training and supervision of all Civil Defense forces."

During the past 15 years, the CD organization has helped meet this objective by training 162 persons in annual self-help medical classes. Director Cooper has attended a staff college for CD management at training headquarters in Battle Creek, and seven members of the Police Dept., who received training as radiological monitoring instructors, have trained, in turn, 73 other city personnel in this field.

Today's Civil Defense includes 90 auxiliary police, two of which are policewomen, and boasts a current training class of 19. Deputy Chief of Auxiliary Police John S. Wood and Vernon DeBusk, Captain, head this training program. Other staff personnel include Robert Davis, deputy CD director; Harrison Mercer, his assistant; Francis Davey, chief of auxiliary police; John Wood, deputy chief; Vernon DeBusk, senior captain; Ken Kampan and Elmer Schmidt, captains; and Lucille Zelen, secretary.

Auxiliary police perform duties in time of disaster or in extraordinary emergencies and assist with traffic and crowd control at schools, church and civic events.

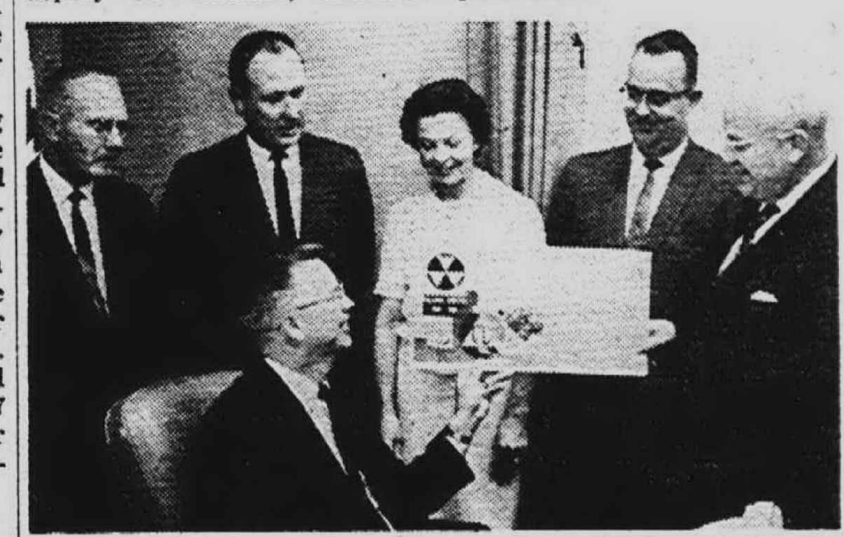

By June 1 this year, they had put in 1,756 man-hours of service to the community.

What's ahead?

Civil Defense plans seven immediate programs, including:

- An accelerated shelter program to supplement the approved shelters presently located at Madonna College and St. Mary Hospital.
- A continuous training program in medical self-help.
- A shelter management training program at the staff college for the assistant deputy director and an auxiliary policeman.
- Formation of a mounted division of the auxiliary police.
- Inclusion within the auxiliary department of a radiological monitor and shelter manager.
- A test alert for school children.
- A test alert for city departments.

N. Farmington Too Explosive

North Farmington high school has to boast one of the most explosive football teams in the area this fall.

The Raiders will "murder you" on the ground and in the air.

With Graig Wysinsky to pound away at rival lines and Bill Oldershaw to lead the overhead assault, North Farmington has pulverized Clarenceville and Kettering in its first two games.

Kettering got the jump on North Farmington last Saturday afternoon, by turning a first-period blocked punt into a 6-0 lead.

But North Farmington quickly rebounded and once in front, never trailed the rest of the way.

Oldershaw struck with the first bomb when he cut loose on a 35-yard pass to Chuck Viane who took the ball on the run and outdistanced his nearest rivals with no trouble.

Bengt Hanson, the lend-lease student from Sweden, then came in to boot his first of three conversions and make the score 7-6 in favor of North Farmington.

Shortly afterward, Oldershaw took the ball on a bootleg and ran across from 13 yards out and with Hanson's conversion, North Farmington's lead swelled to 14-6.

Only 13 seconds remained in the first half when Wysinsky bounced off tackle at his own 43. He did some fancy side-stepping and scooted 57 yards for a touchdown. Hanson followed with another kick and North Farmington reached the intermission with a 21-6 command.

The final North Farmington touchdown came on another exciting Oldershaw strike. This time he rifled to Gary Acitelli who went 37 yards into the end zone.

Oldershaw finished the game with seven conversions in 14 attempts for 140 yards. Wysinsky piled up almost 100 yards with his fleet footwork.

The North Farmington defense was paced by Bob Babbish, a standout all afternoon. Tackles Pete Dolan and Pete Fairfield were outstanding while in the secondary Larry August, playing football for the first time, intercepted two Kettering passes.

North Farmington opens its league Northwest League campaign Saturday at Franklin.

Stevenson Beaten In Grid Debut

Livonia's new Stevenson high school made its athletic debut last Thursday, but it was not a winning one.

Stevenson lost in football to North Farmington's reserve team, 20-0. The new Livonia school has only tenth graders at the moment.

Coach John Reardon was pleased with the defensive work of his Stevenson team. He singled out Guard Chuck Sobczak and Tackle Carl Holmer.

Randy Johns, a quarterback, showed to advantage in his first chance to lead a varsity machine.

Livonia Golfers Fail In State Rec Meet

The Livonia Department of Parks and Recreation women's golf team failed to place in the Recreation Association of Michigan Golf tournament Saturday at the Swartz Creek course in Flint. Jackson won the event with Pontiac second and Dearborn Heights third.

Participating for Livonia were: Madeline Dembo, Betty Matul, Audrey Herrman, Sonia Judge and Jessie Enterline.

Wayne State University freshman football center Jack Seitzinger was born in Munich, Germany.

Franklin Trips RU

Junk and Naifeh Lead the Way

The combination of Gary Junk and Larry Naifeh on offense and a stalwart defense led by Center Mike Stachurski brought Franklin high school a 12-6 football victory over Redford Union last Saturday.

It was Franklin's first win after an opening loss to Hamtramck while Redford Union now stands 1-1 as both teams prepare to launch their league championship bids this week.

Redford Union will host Trenton, Suburban Six League co-kings in 1964 with Bentley, on Friday night. Franklin, Northwest Suburban League titlists in '64, host North Farmington Saturday afternoon in its loop opener.

Junk and Naifeh took turns in gaining 156 yards between them and also had a hand in both the Franklin touchdowns.

The first Franklin score came on a seven-yard pass from Junk to Naifeh after a march from midfield in which Junk and Naifeh had lugged the ball on the ground.

The tally enabled Franklin to reach halftime with a 6-0 lead.

In the third period, Franklin turned a Redford Union fumble into what proved the deciding touchdown. The Livonians took over on the RU 40 and two plays later, Junk broke loose on a 35-yarder to the end zone.

Redford Union was by no means through. With Mike Morgan and Glen Davis leading a 60 yard drive, the Townshippers drove to the Franklin 1-foot line from where Davis cracked across on the fourth down.

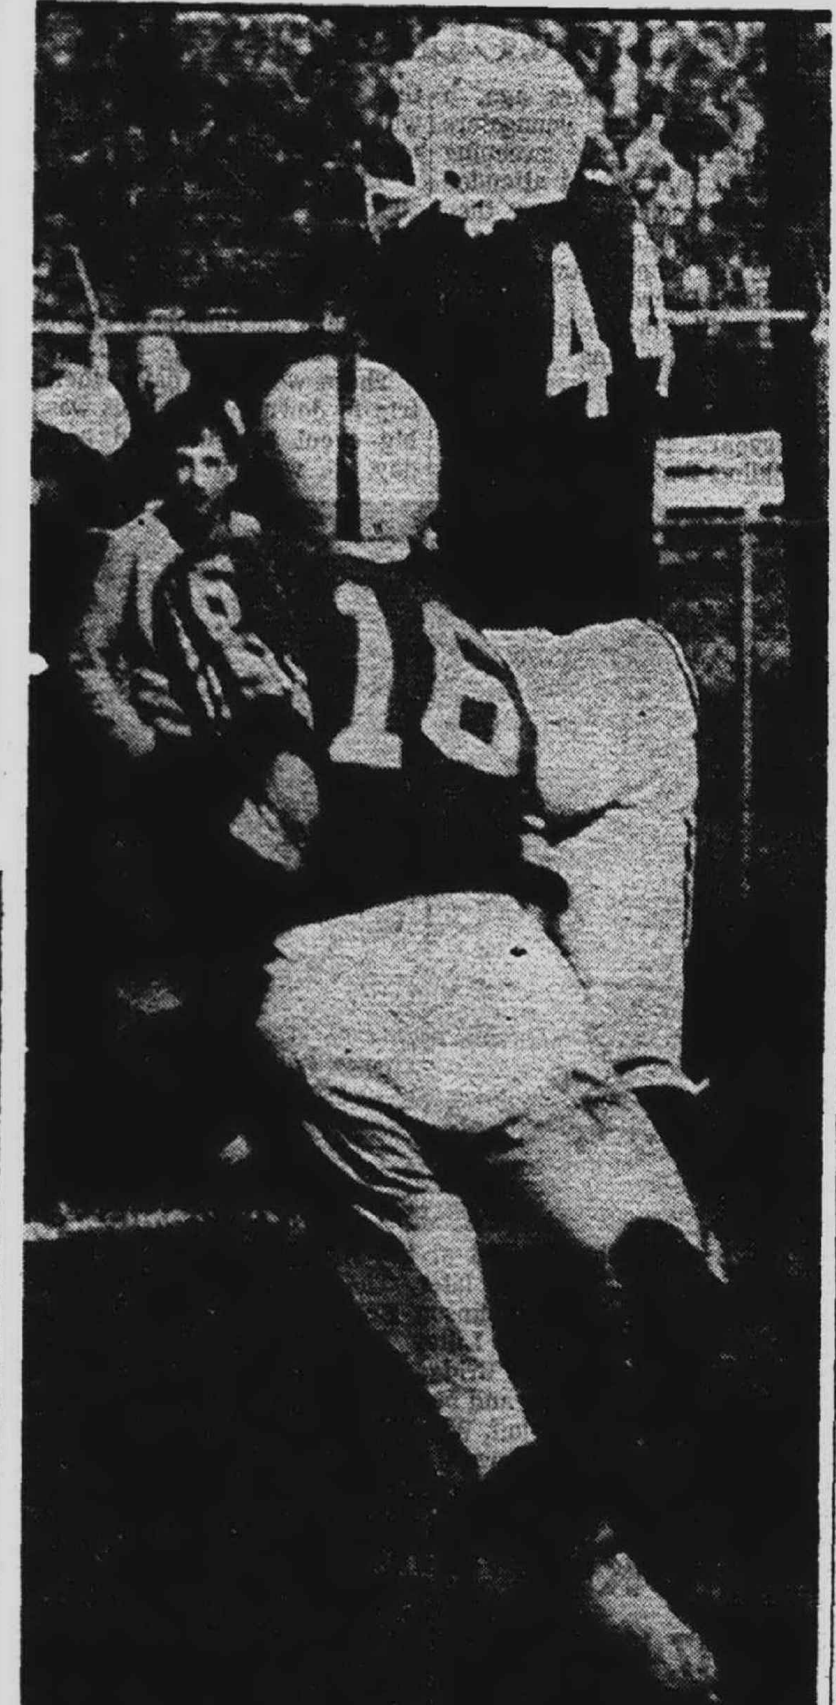

Franklin had turned back Redford Union three times after RU had gained a first down on the Franklin 3.

In the closing minutes of the game, Redford Union staged a march that had the earmarks of at least netting a tie.

But Bill Bauer of Franklin arose to intercept a pass on the Franklin 25 and kill RU's bid to catch up or possibly win.

Stachurski had help from Gary Birkett, in leading the Franklin defense. Bill Bauer and Frank Leib, offensive guards for Franklin, stood out as they turned in some nifty blocking.

Statistically, the teams were even in first downs, each with 12. Franklin had a 229-180 yard edge in total offense.

GOALWARD BOUND is Franklin's Larry Naifeh (44) as he grabs a pass and eludes Redford Union's Glen Davis (16) in this sideline action at the traditional battle of neighborhood rivals Saturday on the Bentley High field. Franklin nipped RU, 12 to 6.

Football Booming At Glenn

The football fortunes at Wayne's John Glenn high are on the upswing.

Coach Bob Lusk, who once played for the Detroit Lions, is smiling after watching Glenn beat Garden City West and Harper Woods in Glenn's first two games.

"But our big ones start this Friday," said Lusk.

That's when Glenn meets Thurston, also unbeaten, in the opening game of the Northwest Suburban League schedule.

Glenn showed a versatile offense in running over Harper Woods, 28-0, last Saturday night.

The Wayne team totalled 356 yards with 260 coming on the ground.

In Ron Kuban, Glenn boasts one of the area's finest runners. He powered his way for 99 yards in 21 attempts against the Woods after he picked up 156 yards in the first Glenn game against Garden City West.

Dick Drury also is an excellent runner. He scored twice against the Woods as he carried four times for 60 yards.

Mike Knight circled end for 10 yards on Glenn's first touchdown of the evening. Then it was Drury on a slant off tackle for 20 yards and his first TD. Later Drury broke up the middle for 38 yards and a score.

Jack Holland rifled a 19-yard pass to Len Wells to wrap up the Glenn scoring.

Holland officially completed only two passes. But he had four other aerial successes nullified by 15-yard penalties.

Ron Gaines, Jim Glovac, Gary Kerr and Knight shared honors in the defensive department for Glenn.

Trojans Feast on Brighton

If only Clarenceville high school's football team could play Brighton all the time.

The Trojans have managed three victories in the last three campaigns. All have come against Brighton.

In 1963, Clarenceville ended a long losing string by beating Brighton in the season's finale.

In 1964, the lone Clarenceville triumph in eight games was scored over Brighton.

Last Friday evening, Clarenceville turned back Brighton by a 20-13 count to bounce off on the right foot in its bid for Wayne-Oakland League honors.

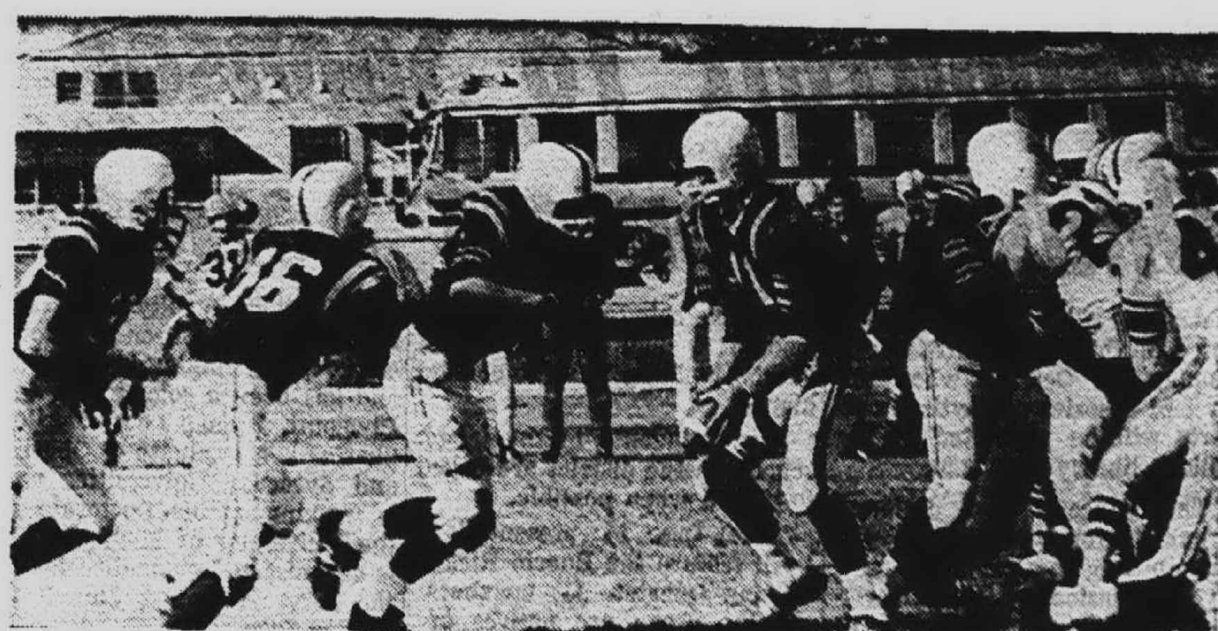

It had to be a doubly gratifying occasion for Ralph Temby, the Clarenceville coach, and his players.

Just a week before, the Trojans had been run over badly by North Farmington in the season's opener.

"I sure was happy to see the way our kids bounced back," said Temby. "After what happened to us in the North Farmington game, I was afraid the kids might stay down . . . and never recuperate."

"But, they showed me a lot in the fight and hustle and all-

SMOOTH WORKING Thurston High backfield Thurston remained unbeaten with a 27-0 victory ready for a wide sweep against Highland Park in the Eagles' home opener Saturday. counter.

West Loss Difficult To Figure

Football games . . . in fact, any sports contest . . . produce strange results.

Take the Kennedy high football victory over Garden City West by a 19-6 score last Friday afternoon.

"I can't see how we won," said Coach Bob Slater of Kennedy.

"I can't see how we lost," said Coach Harold Burkholder of Garden City West.

"Look how they scored," moaned Burkholder.

"First they are helped by a penalty when we had them stopped," added the coach.

"Then, it's a fumble, and finally they set it up by turning one of their own blocked kicks into a big gain and ultimately a touchdown."

And, what about West? "Well, we have a 60-yard scoring run knocked out by a penalty. Another time we march to their 15 . . . and we get set back again by a penalty."

"I guess," added Burkholder, "that their coach was right when he told me: 'You must have played a little harder before this game.'"

Kennedy's first TD resulted when a penalty gave the Taylor team another chance after West had made a great goal line stand some 30 inches from the final stripe. The ball was placed a foot away from the TD marker . . . and Kennedy couldn't miss on this occasion.

Bo Ardell then came back to tie the game at 6-6 with a dazzling 55-yard run for a touchdown. The score remained that way through the end of the first half.

In the third period, the troubles began for West once more. West fumbled on its own 15.

The ball was covered by Kennedy.

In four plays, Kennedy had broken the tie and taken a 13-6 lead.

Then came the great run by Ardell which was killed by the penalty.

With three minutes left in the game, Kennedy went into punt formation.

The kick hit a Kennedy player in the back . . . bounced into the hands of another Kennedy player who streaked off and wasn't tackled until he reached the West two-yard line.

"It had to be the craziest play you'll ever see in a football game," said West's Burkholder afterward.

But it was all that Kennedy needed to drive across its final and clinching touchdown.

RIPS HIGHLAND PARK:

Thurston Sticks To The Ground

Who needs the forward pass? Certainly Thurston High's football team didn't last Saturday afternoon in making it two straight in the young season by blanking Highland Park, 27-0.

The Townshippers tried one pass. It was intercepted.

But with Reggie Barringer and Paul Santangelo leading a solid running game, and the Thurston defense coming up with another fine effort, Coach Bill McDonald's forces dominated from start to finish.

Now comes the business of trying for honors in the Northwest Suburban League and Thurston must square off Friday night against a John Glenn team which also holds a 2-0 record thus far.

There was little waste of motion or time as far as Thurston was concerned against Highland Park.

The Parkers kicked off at the outset and Mike McCrumm returned the ball to the Thurston 40. Barringer slanted for seven and Santangelo for nine.

On the next play Santangelo broke into the clear off tackle and dashed for a touchdown. Just 1:45 had elapsed on the clock.

Before the second period was over Thurston counted again. After a recovered fumble gave Thurston the ball on the Parkers' 30, Barringer and Santangelo alternated until Barringer slipped through from 14 yards out and went in for the TD.

Doug Hay covered a Parker fumble on the Parker 11 to set up the third Thurston touchdown. This resulted on a quarterback sneak by Barry Simescu to make it 20-0 at the half. Just before the intermission, the Thurston defense arose to stop Highland Park on the 1-foot line.

A muffed punt attempt resulted in Thurston gaining the ball deep in the Highland Park end in the fourth period and Santangelo finished the scoring by going in from a yard out.

Coach McDonald's winners totalled 265 yards in the game while Highland Park made 66 on the ground and clicked only once in 15 pass attempts for 15 yards.

The football was a greasy one in the game. Thurston fumbled six times and lost the ball five. Highland Park committed six bobbles, all of which wound up in the hands of a Thurston player.

Dan Harris sparked the Thurston defense in addition to booting three conversions. Dave Kirby and Jim McEwen also were stalwarts on defense for the victors.

Barringer gained 94 yards, Santangelo 80 for Thurston.

3 Victories For Bentley Harrier Team

Bentley High's cross country team swept to three victories last week, winning once by a perfect score.

The Livonians tallied 29 points to Dearborn's 40 and Fordson's 70 in a triangular meet, then followed with 27 points to Edsel Ford's 38 and Fordson's 71 in another triangular.

The perfect effort came in a 15-50 win over Allen Park. Fred Edwards, Andy Foley, Jim Kondeck, Tom McGhie and Bill Berkett finished in the first five positions for Bentley.

The longest unbeaten string in Wayne State University football history is 11 games, stretching from the fifth game of the 1920 season to first game of 1922 season and including three ties.

UNBEATEN TEAMS MEET FRIDAY

Bentley In for Speedy Test

The best right off the bat? It could be as far as the 1965 title race is concerned in the Suburban Six League's football wars. For this Friday night, the flag chase begins and the featured attraction matches Bentley and Allen Park, both with spotless records thus far in the infant season. Bentley, co-loop champs in 1964 with Trenton, had turned back the challenges by Farmington and Dearborn in non-league tests. Dearborn fell to the Livonians by a 12-6 score last Friday night in Bentley's home debut. Allen Park also is 2-0 downing Melvindale and Lincoln Park. "This could be the big one," says Coach Larry Joiner of Bentley. "If we can win it... well, we'll have cleared a mighty rough assignment." Joiner feels his Bentley charges are ready for the league chase. "We have played well in our first two games," said the coach, "concerning that we have had to rebuild most of our team." Winning from Dearborn wasn't easy. Bentley had to wait until the third period before breaking a scoreless deadlock. Mike McCauley started the Livonians in business by re-

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

Whether you liked or disliked Al Rosco isn't important.

Nor does it matter whether you lauded or jeered the way he did things.

What counts is the job Al Rosco did as head of the Livonia Recreation Department's athletic program. And a JOB Rosco performed until the other week when he announced his resignation.

Rosco's decision creates a void for more than just Livonia. More than any one man we know, Al worked to jell the entire community as attested by the fact he united Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Township and Nankin in baseball and other competition.

And, at the hour of his taking leave of the recreation offices, he told us he already had completed plans to bring Garden City into the area's combined program next spring and that there was a good chance he could do the same as far as Farmington was concerned.

Rosco had a lot to do with the Greater Livonia high school baseball tourney last spring, a meet which involved nine of the 12 schools then "covered" on these Observer sports pages. He was talking about bringing Garden City East and West into the picture for 1966, along with Livonia's new Stevenson High and St. Agatha, which missed out in '65.

Al knew no such word as "relaxation." Be it in football, or basketball, or swimming, or baseball, he kept on the constant jump. Rosco loved to stage tournaments in Livonia... and he did.

He made certain that the lighted baseball and softball fields on Farmington Road never knew an idle night, unless the weather interfered.

Often, he got himself too involved. He had managers and coaches complaining. Their teams were caught in schedule jams. But Al had a knack for working out matters.

The highest praise that came Rosco's way were uttered not too many weeks ago by Louis D'Annunzio, the very excellent scout for the Detroit Tigers.

"Rosco's efforts have made baseball out in this area as good as you'll find anyplace else in Michigan," declared D'Annunzio while attending a doubleheader at Ford Field.

The pressures on Rosco were great. From time to time internal problems popped out in the Recreation Department. Some dealt with local politics, which never should have crept into an athletic picture.

But we don't think that these incidents had anything to do with Rosco leaving the recreation department. There's just so much any man can do... and do right.

By profession, Rosco is a school principal in nearby Southfield. The hours on such a job are long.

He's also got a fine family and when you try to work two or three jobs... well we found out during recent weeks... that there's no time for your wife or children or to visit your mom or anybody else.

We're certain that the athletic program will continue to grow and thrive in the community... thanks to the groundwork that Al Rosco had laid.

BOUNCING AROUND: Basketball comes early to Detroit this fall. May we suggest next Monday evening's big NBA pre-season twin bill at Cobo Arena. The Pistons meet Cincinnati, while Baltimore goes against New York. Proceeds will be turned over to the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association's scholarship fund. You can get your tickets at Hudson's Northland or Westland, or directly from the Pistons at Cobo Arena. See you there.

The Tigers close the job Sunday on what has been both a disappointing and successful season. Success came in that the Tigers beat out the Yankees for the first time in years and that they attracted upwards of a million fans. Unfortunately, the Tigers again are finishing the season... far back in the games-behind column.

They tell us that both Norm Ullman and Alex Delvecchio of the Red Wings will be living in Livonia this winter. Add Bob Bruce, Dennis McLain, Ray Herbert and Walker... this has become quite a sports fraternity.

Have you noticed the number of high schools around the area which seem to be doing very well in the crowd department although playing their games in the afternoon? And how about a salute to Plymouth for erecting new lights at the high school gridiron!

Farmington Hands Rocks 2nd Loss

Farmington High's football team has climbed aboard the victory bandwagon.

But Plymouth is still looking for win No. 1. The two rivals — each with new coaches — met last Friday night and Farmington emerged with a 14-2 victory.

Naturally pleased was Coach Dick Tyler, who took command of Farmington in August when John Hayes left to take a college assignment. Farmington had lost to Bentley the week before.

John McFall, the new mentor at Plymouth, meantime had to wonder what his team has to do to win one. Plymouth was routed by Northville the first time out.

"We just can't manage a decent break," lamented McFall. The big blow to Plymouth against Farmington had to be when Tom Elias took off from the Farmington 12. He appeared to have a certain touchdown.

But just before he reached the goal line, he fumbled. The ball scooted out of the end zone and went for a touchback. Farmington took possession on its 20.

"We all thought Elias had hit the goal line. That would have made it a touchdown," said McFall.

"But the official was right there, and we can't complain, I guess."

An alert pass defense helped Farmington, the Falcons picked off six Plymouth aeriels. A couple of fumbles also figured in the favor of Farmington.

Farmington negotiated 62 yards running and added another 109 yards through the air as Mike Wilson clicked on 10 of his 18 attempts.

Plymouth moved for 141 yards rushing, but lost 50 of them because of penalties. In the air, Plymouth totalled only 34 yards with five successes in 16 attempts.

A Wilson to Ron Cleveland pass helped to set Farmington in motion for its first touchdown after a fumble recovery on the Plymouth 30.

The toss to Cleveland ate up some 20 yards and was followed by a seven-yard run by Wayne Johnston for the initial Farmington score.

Ray Lardie scooted 27 yards to pave the way for Ron Short to buck across from the 2 for the second Farmington TD.

Plymouth avoided a shutout when Passer Wilson of Farmington was called intentionally for grounding an aerial while standing in the end zone. The Rocks were awarded two points via a safety.

The Rocks had pushed Farmington back to its own one yard line.

Farmington opens its Inter-lakes League season this Friday against Waterford while Plymouth begins its Suburban Six League campaign against Belleville.

ROLLS TO 44-12 VICTORY:

ST. Agatha Goes Wild

St. Agatha high's football team should be in a happy mood to celebrate homecoming next Sunday afternoon against St. Hedwig.

The Townshippers staged one of their biggest scoring parties in a long time last Saturday night in crushing Immaculate Conception at Hamtramck, 44-12.

Seven times St. Agatha runners sprinted into the land of pay and thrice it was Dennis McKenna who carried the ball across the finale stripe.

Here's how the scoring went for St. Agatha.

FIRST QUARTER

1—Dennis McKenna took a handoff from Mike Wleznjak and scooted 60 yards on a sensational run. A. Wleznjak to McKenna pass brought the con-

SECOND QUARTER

3—McKenna scores again. This time he went over from the 2.

THIRD QUARTER

4—Sophomore Castiglione rushes 39 yards to cash in on a touchdown.

5—It's Panway to make it 32-6 for St. Agatha on a plunge from a yard out.

FOURTH QUARTER

6—Another TD for Castiglione, whose brother once starred for St. Agatha, setting all kinds of scoring records.

7—McKenna winds it for St. Agatha, going across from 6 yards out.

Both the Immaculate Conception touchdowns were scored by Quarterback Bill Stasyk, one on a 60-yard dash, the other time on a 13-yarder.

St. Agatha now has a 1-1 record in Catholic League play.

Sorrows Is Easy Victor

Sensational passing by Jim McGrath, coupled with some excellent running by Cliff LaFond and Dave Hickey, enabled Our Lady of Sorrows to beat St. Francis de Sales, 28-7, in a Catholic League football game last Sunday.

McGrath flipped 14 passes and clicked on nine—three of them for touchdowns—as his arm netted Sorrows 155 yards.

Meantime, LaFond and Hickey ran for all but 15 of the 165 yards. Sorrows gathered in on the ground in scoring its first victory on an opening day loss to Orchard Lake St. Mary's.

McGrath struck twice to Jerry Turner for touchdowns in the first quarter. The first toss went 25 yards, the second for 20.

Then McGrath rifled a 40-yarder to Bob Urbain to help Sorrows gain a 21-6 lead at half-time as LaFond added a pair of extra points and Hickey scored the other conversion on bucks through the line.

LaFond registered the final praise from Coach Bud Webster.

"It was magnificent the way our fellows bounced back from their loss a week ago," said the Coach.

"With this kind of an all-around offense, and if we continue to get the same brand of defensive play, we should be rough the rest of the way.

"McGrath was brilliant not only as a passer, but the way he directed our attack and called the plays. He sure mixed up our offense."

Defensively, Jim Kranson, Mike Blouin and Steve Cuen were heralded by the coach.

Sorrows takes to the road this Sunday afternoon to play at Ferndale St. James.

Trojans

Chris Hawkins was the big man in the attack for Clarenceville as the Trojans took an early lead, and later fought off a comeback by Brighton that pulled the upstaters to within a tie in the third period.

Hawkins scored two of the three Clarenceville touchdowns and had a big part in the other.

He reeled off a total of 126 yards in 11 carries. That averages 9.2 yards per crack.

It was Hawkins who streaked 60 yards to set up the first Clarenceville encounter. The Trojans had started on their own 30 and thanks to Hawkins it was easy for Quarterback Dave Wilson finally to sneak across for the touchdown.

Mike Nye's conversion made it 7-0.

Clarenceville then remained scoreless until the third period when Hawkins ran across from the 12. This time Nye ran over the extra point, after booting the first one.

Hawkins settled for seven yards and his closing touchdown of the game after Brighton had moved to within a 14-13 deadlock.

A 12-yard pass and 10-yard run produced the two touchdowns for Brighton.

Overall, Clarenceville piled up 282 yards... 220 on the ground and 62 via passing.

"The defense for the Trojans was great tonight," said Temby.

Would he single out one or more standouts?

"No, they all were tremendous."

This Friday, Clarenceville plays at Northville in a night encounter starting at 8 o'clock.

West Loses

Ardell totalled 139 yards by official count. He lost another 70 or so via penalties.

"We played well," concluded Coach Burkholder. "I honestly had to be proud of our showing. But you'll never know by looking at the scoreboard how well our men did perform."

Franklin Harriers Win In 2 Meets

Led by Dan Ryan, Franklin High's cross country team scored a pair of victories last week.

Ryan, beaten only once this season in four starts led the way as Franklin downed Monroe and Dearborn in a triangular meet. Franklin scored 25 points, Monroe 32 and Dearborn 77. Franklin's Rick Hanson was second.

Ryan ran first and Ted Gozdziak second in Franklin's 22-35 win over North Farmington. North was third and Murphy fourth for the losers.

As a sophomore in 1952, Wayne State's Dick Lisabeth had four passes intercepted by Bradley's defense; two years later, he came back and grabbed off four Washington University (St. Louis) passes in a 27-0 victory.

The growing use of ELECTRIC HEAT IN SCHOOL BUILDINGS has made a lot of people curious—

here are the FACTS

GROSSE ILE HIGH SCHOOL, in southwest Wayne County, another fine, new total electric school.

AKRON-FAIRGROVE HIGH SCHOOL, Tuscola County, will be as modern as tomorrow—a total electric school.

Before we even begin to talk about the superiority of electric heat, let's look an old bugaboo straight in the eye... it costs too much.

It simply isn't so!

Something can only cost too much in comparison with something similar. In this case, it's the operating cost of an electric heat system vs. the operating cost of some other kind of heating system.

Operating Cost Is More Than Just Fuel Cost

Perhaps operating cost should really be thought of as cost of ownership. In this broader context, there are a number of building construction, building equipment, annual repair and maintenance and annual labor costs which are affected by choice of heating systems.

Among the building construction and equipment costs which are altered or eliminated, according to choice of heating system, are these:

Building Item Required	Electric Heat	Fuel Fired System
Boiler room	No	Yes
Smokestack	No	Yes
Fuel storage	No	Usually
Steam or hot water piping	No	Yes
Pipe trenches	No	Yes
Boiler and controls	No	Yes
Boiler water pump(s)	No	Yes
Boiler water treating system	No	Yes

To keep this set of comparisons absolutely fair, the insulation of an electrically heated school must be better than the applications which are now acceptable in most school buildings.

It would pay to have topnotch insulation in EVERY school—pay off in heating economy and in student-teacher comfort, both winter and summer. But since it is not yet in widespread demand in all school plants, this may be an item of increased cost in an electrically heated building. The additional cost, however, when related to total construction cost, is insignificant.

Expansion Costs

In a constantly growing area like southeast Michigan, new school buildings invariably are increased in size—very often, more than once in their careers. Always a major item of cost when classrooms or other facilities are added is complete replacement of a too-small boiler or addition of boiler units.

Even when a foresighted school administration—anticipating building enlargement—installs an over-capacity boiler to begin with, school funds are tied up in the too big boiler and its auxiliary equipment. This non-productive use of money may be a burden for several years.

School building expansion, when the heating system's electric, is never a problem or an undue expense. All that's required is electrical distribution from the transformer to the newly added school plant—a normal cost of expansion which would apply regardless of type of heating system.

Annually Recurring Costs

There is another class of ownership costs which needs consideration when comparing electric heat to other types of heating systems for a school. These are the various expenses which recur, most of them on an annual basis.

Typical Recurrent Costs	Electric Heat	Fuel Fired System
Boiler maintenance	No	Yes
Boiler inspection fee	No	Yes
Boiler insurance	No	Yes
Boiler attendant(s)—labor	No	Yes
Ash disposal	No	Usually

Another recurrent cost which is sizable enough to help make the difference in heating systems is the amount of interest paid on the money which is borrowed to build a school.

An electrically heated school will be less costly to design and build because you are not buying a boiler with all its auxiliary equipment. No money goes for a boiler room, smokestack or a steam or hot water distribution system. So it follows—a less costly school, less money to borrow, less interest to pay on the borrowed money.

Electric Heat—Low Cost Comfort For Children And Teachers

The Superintendent of Schools of a school district in northern Ohio recently prepared a two-year comparative analysis* of heating operational costs for four of the schools under his supervision. It was a painstaking and detailed comparison, taking into account these major factors: fuel cost, heating labor cost, auxiliary fuel, auxiliary power, ash disposal, heating system maintenance.

Two of the schools have coal-fired boilers, one has a gas-fired boiler and one is completely heated electrically. Quoting from the report, "... the cost (for heating the electrically heated school) during the 1962-63 school year was 5¢ per square foot less than at the other three buildings... For the 1963-64 year, the savings was 12.9¢ per square foot."

In subsequent years, the savings should be closer to the 12.9¢ per square foot figure than to the 5¢ figure. This is a conclusion drawn from the following facts.

In 1962-63, the electrically heated school was a new structure. Some of the heating cost for it went to drying out concrete, masonry and plaster. This is an extraordinary expense not to be repeated.

Also, in February 1964, the utility serving the electrically heated school reduced its rate for electric power from 1.6¢ to 1.5¢ per kilowatt-hour.

And, finally, by 1963-64, the staff at the electrically heated school were better able to control electric power consumption.

One condition which helped establish the greater per-square-foot savings in 1963-64 may not always hold true. The weather during the '63-'64 heating season was slightly warmer than it was in '62-'63.

*Copies of this analysis will be made available to qualified inquirers on request.

Electrically Heated Schools In Southeast Michigan

1958 was the first year of record for electrically heated schools in the area which Detroit Edison serves. In that year, there were 26 classrooms completely heated in this modern way. Now, in early 1965, there are 12 total electric schools having 220 classrooms in the area.

In number of electrically heated classrooms, this is more than an eight-fold increase in seven years. Several more school and college buildings which will be all-electric, including heating, are now under construction within the area.

More For The Money

These are the features of electric heat which appealed most to the school administrators who wrote the analysis quoted above. Only slightly edited for brevity, this is essentially the language of that objective report.

Safety—Electric heat is highly automated. A minimum of human attention and judgment is all that's required in its operation. By so reducing the human element, a maximum of safety is achieved. Nor is electric heat complicated by auxiliary or satellite systems of any kind.

Simplicity—The absence of complex mechanisms makes it easier for building custodians to concentrate on their prime function—keeping a building and its equipment clean. Boiler room attendants are not a requirement.

Dependability—Electric heat reduces the possibility of building freeze-ups; eliminates boiler breakdowns during unattended hours.

When there's a boiler failure, the whole school must close down. If an electric heating unit fails, only the one room involved need be closed.

Flexibility—Electric heating equipment can be used just in the room or rooms where heat is required, completely independent of and without affecting any other part of the heating system. On a cool but sunny autumn day, for example, the heat may be on in rooms on the shady side of a school, off in rooms on the sunny side of the building.

Unscheduled, off-hours use of a school-room—even with the briefest advance notice—creates no heating problem. Electric heat reacts quickly and, again, there can be selective, one-room-only use.

Cleanliness—Since there is no combustion, electric heat does not create smoke, soot or ashes to add to cleaning chores.

Efficiency—With electric heat, there are no long, laborious heating up or cooling down cycles. The equipment is ready to furnish heat at the moment of need and there is no wasteful heat carryover when the equipment is shut down.

Warm weather benefits—With more efficient and effective building insulation, a school will be cooler and more comfortable in warm weather—a decided advantage to students and teachers.

Air conditioning is also simplified and made more economical since the electrical wiring installed for the heating system can also energize air conditioners.

Through the taxes it pays, Detroit Edison is one of the largest supporters of schools in the state. In this role, we are as concerned and interested as you are in seeing that our educational system operates as efficiently and economically as possible. It is our sincere belief that electric heat, when evaluated with an objective and open mind, will show itself to have the economy and efficiency we all want in our schools.

EDISON CUTS ELECTRIC RATE FOR TOTAL ELECTRIC SCHOOLS

Detroit Edison has just voluntarily reduced the electric service charge to schools in its service area which are all electric, including the heating. School administrators, school board members, architects and consulting engineers are invited to inquire at any Edison office concerning the details of this downward rate adjustment.

Little Guy Shines for G. C. West

Soaking wet, Mike Sparkman hardly weighs 135 pounds. But this young sophomore has emerged as one of the rays of sunshine in Garden City East's football hopes for a successful record in 1965.

So far, Garden City West has played twice—and lost each time. Last Friday it was by a 28-0 score against Willow Run.

"Am I discouraged?"
Coach Bill Wilson of East was asked.

"Not really. I have said that this would be a year of rebuilding. I figured we would take a few bumps.

"However, with a kid around like Sparkman, we might start to score victories sooner than some of us might have expected."

Sparkman had a fine night against Willow Run. He scampered for 140 yards.

He almost broke away for scores three or four times.

Offensively, Garden City East had some impressive figures... 285 yards in total offense.

But Willow Run piled up almost 500 yards by booming through East's line for 385 yards and gaining the rest through the air.

"We'll have to tighten up our defense," added Wilson. "But don't forget. Willow Run has one of the strongest teams around the area. They'll gain against almost any team.

The game was by no means lopsided.

Willow Run went ahead, 14-0, in the first half.

In the third period, East marched to the Willow Run 15 where the drive was stopped.

"This was the key situation for us," said Wilson later.

"Had we scored, we'd have been right back in there."

Bill Holly tallied twice for the winners, and John Hicks and Paul Jones once each.

Mark Shalakis, Marv Martin and Dennis Devlin all drew the praises of their coach for their fine work in the East lineup.

Now it's the start of the Mid-Wayne League campaign for East with Inkster the first rival this Friday.

"We still could fool some people," says Wilson.

VICTORY REWARD—Pretty Glennadean Campbell gives her husband, Ronnie, a kiss in the winner's circle at the Detroit Race Course after he scored the 1,000th victory of his riding career.

Campbell Finally Wins No. 1,000

The first winner had a prophetic name.

On May 18, 1959 at Ascot Park (Ohio), a 17-year-old Michigan farm boy entered the winner's circle for the first time.

Ronald James Campbell was on Had A Reward.

Now... six years and 6,000 mounts later... Campbell has reached another key point of his career. When he piloted Clui to Victory at the Detroit Race Course, it was the 1,000th victory of his career.

The 23-year-old Campbell was born and spent his boyhood on his father's farm at Fremont, Mich.

"I started riding when I was nine years old in county fair races around in Michigan, Ohio and Illinois," Campbell recalls. "When I was 16, I went to work for Byron Wise on his farm at Watervliet. Then the next year he started me riding."

Ronnie spent his first three years as a jockey under contract to Wise.

Campbell gained top recognition for the first time during the 1960 DRC meeting when he was third in the jockey's standing back of Jack Fieselman and Johnny Burton. He was third again in 1961, but then the next two sessions he was the top rider at the DRC.

The five-foot-three, 110-pound Campbell doesn't think jockeys get the credit due them in comparison with other athletes.

"Few people realize how rugged and strenuous it is to ride a horse," Ronnie says. "You could take the finest conditioned miler off a top college track team or an outstanding college or professional football player, put him on a horse and let him ride in a race and he wouldn't be able to catch his breath for the next hour. I mean it. Race riding is very demanding."

It is because of the physical demands, Campbell usually rides only nine months a year.

For the first time in his career, Ronnie will campaign in Florida this winter.

"I am going to ride the Tropical Park meeting," he says. "Bob Holthus will have the first call on me."

Campbell doesn't have any difficulty in selecting the best horse he has ridden in his career.

"It would be Decidedly, which I rode for Trainer Horatio Luro in the 1963 Michigan Mile," Campbell says.

Campbell finished second with Decidedly as Crimson Satan won and set a track record.

Campbell is married and has a year-old daughter, Kara.

"No, Kara wasn't named after a horse named that, but my wife, Glennadean, always bets on the horse anyway."

Spartans Eye Duel With Illini

EAST LANSING—Some familiar faces will be in the Illinois lineup when the Illini and Michigan State clash Oct. 2 in Spartan Stadium. They belong to Jim Grabowski, Fred Custardo, Don Hansen and Sam Price.

The four Illini have been regulars in the last two MSU-Illinois encounters. They were games the Spartans entered with a purpose. Two years ago the incentive was a Big Ten Championship and a Rose Bowl trip. Last fall there was vengeance to be had.

Both times the Spartans were shut out. In fact in the last 18 minutes of football competition between the two schools, State has scored only once.

Illinois came to Spartan Stadium with the backfield that carried it to a successful 6-3 season last year and a national ranking of 16th.

Full back Jim Grabowski's credentials include All-Big Ten and All-America honors, a pick as most valuable player in the 1964 Rose Bowl, and a place in the Big Ten record book for most yards gained rushing in a single game—239 yards against Wisconsin last year.

Kickoff Saturday will be at 1:30 p.m.

Construction of New Matthaei Building On Target at WSU

Construction of the new Frederick C. Matthaei Physical Education and Recreation Building at Wayne State University is proceeding on schedule, according to Gilbert Dodge, WSU's director of capital programs.

The foundation for the 416x225 foot structure is now completed and construction above the ground will begin this month, Dodge said. Cement for the Olympic size swimming and diving pools has also been poured.

Ground was broken for the $2.2 million facility last June and the building is expected to be open for use by the winter quarter of 1966. It is located on WSU's new "west campus" southwest of the John Lodge-Edsel Ford interchange.

Tigers Promote "Doc" Fenkell To New Post

Appointment of Neal K. (Doc) Fenkell as operations and sales manager of the Detroit Tiger Television Network was announced Monday by John E. Fetzer, owner and president of the Tigers. Fenkell resides on Ivanhoe in the Woodlore subdivision in Plymouth.

Fenkell has been traffic director of the club-operated network this season, in addition to filling the duties of director of group ticket sales and special events.

He will devote his entire time to television duties in the future, Fetzer said. His offices will be at Tiger Stadium.

The Tigers this year inaugurated a new television policy under which the club retained the rights, produced the baseball telecasts and sold the advertising on a spot basis.

Fenkell, who formerly was public relations director of the Tigers and later the manager of the club's speakers bureau, is a graduate of Hillsdale College with previous experience in the advertising and automotive fields.

TO ATTEND DANCE Sen. Philip S. Hart Coming Here Friday

Senator Philip S. Hart (D-Mich.) along with Congressman William D. Ford (D-15th) and Detroit's Mayor Cavanagh will attend a dance in Livonia this Friday night being given by the "Mighty 15th" District Democratic Club.

Dance Chairman Gene Salvatore of Garden City announced their attendance and said today, "This gala dance, besides being the biggest event in Wayne County will provide a rare opportunity to dance to 'big band' music."

The Glenn Miller Orchestra under the direction of Ray McKinley will provide music for the occasion which will be held at Roma Hall on Schoolcraft Road.

Many people have the idea that the only good sermon is one that makes them feel good.

Keep Indoor Plants Moist

Here's a question for the indoor gardener: What is the most common mistake you can make in caring for the ordinary house plant?

The answer, as you may have already guessed, has something to do with watering. However, and this may come as a surprise, the problem is that home-makers water their plants too often rather than the other way round. The experts say a plant that's constantly moist is not enjoying a healthy environment.

"A plant in the home should have as nearly as possible the same environment it would have in nature," says Lamar Little, head of horticulture activities for one of the world's largest retailers of garden plants and supplies. In its natural environment a plant ordinarily gets a deluge from a good rainfall but then goes through a dry period before the next rain." Little points out.

The plant should be treated very much the same way in the home, he says.

Don't go fetch the watering can every time the plant feels dry. Instead, select a regular day for watering each week, then water generously and patiently, letting the plant soak up as much water as it will hold at any one time.

Little says the only exceptions to the once-a-week watering plan should be those plants which get full sun most of the day, those that are exposed to drafts, and blooming plants, such as the African violet.

These will require more frequent watering.

Cool Shade For Torrid Homeowners

Most warm homeowners like to head for the backyard in search of the cool shade during summer months.

This year many will be enjoying an outdoor quarry tiled terrace.

Quarry tile or ceramic mosaic tile is ideal for terraces because they are some of the most durable materials nature has given mankind.

They're waterproof, stain-proof and will dry clean within minutes after a hosing.

Highland Bent Produced in Northwest Area

One of the most widely used Colonial bentgrasses is Highland, carefully produced in a single section of Oregon.

Special pains are taken to see that the seed sent East is free of harmful weeds or contaminants.

In cool, moist locations bentgrass grows luxuriantly. Soils there often contain volunteer bentgrass, started years ago when pedigree seed was not available.

Some of this bent grass is of the mat-forming, creeping type, which makes a contrasting colony in bluegrass-fine fescue lawns.

Tests by the Lawn Institute suggest that Highland is not much this sort of threat. Even where constantly watered, it has not aggressively invaded bluegrass.

Use Shortening Can For Paint Storage

Don't discard those empty coffee and shortening cans.

They make ideal trinket cans for children's rooms when painted with bright, shiny enamel.

They're also handy paint buckets.

Clean can thoroughly before using or painting.

Pattern of Angles Adds To Wood Deck

It takes only a little imagination to weave drama into a wood deck's design.

For example, an ordinary rectangle can come alive if the edge is built in a broad sawtooth, with the sawtooth pattern emphasized by laying deck boards to follow the angles, mitering ends.

Superior woods for deck construction are Douglas fir and white fir. Both can be installed without finish to weather naturally.

Follow These Tips When Buying Heater

Stepping into a steaming bath is comforting. But when you buy an undersized, "economy" model water heater and it goes to pieces, you end up in another kind of hot water.

Every homeowner should consider five factors before buying a water heater.

First, consider capacity. The undersize water heater, pushed beyond capacity, wears out rapidly. Inside surfaces corrode because they are over-exposed to dissolved oxygen.

To determine the proper capacity water heater for your home, consider the number of bathrooms, water-using appliances, and people. Then consult a reliable plumbing contractor. He will be able to calculate the proper water heater to fill your needs.

Next, consider using two water heaters. It is sometimes advisable to install one water heater to serve bathrooms at one end of the house and another to serve the kitchen-utility-laundry room on the other end.

For safety's sake, make sure the heater you purchase has temperature and pressure relief valves. These valves automatically reduce both pressure and temperature to keep them from exceeding safe limits.

Care of the water heater is a must. For example, draining a few quarts of water from the tank periodically removes heat-reducing sediment. This will help the heater work better, last longer.

Remember, too, that the flame should be whitish blue. Any other color indicates the need for adjustment.

A noisy flame also needs adjustment. And soot in the burner compartment indicates low efficiency and the need for professional help.

Finally, have the water heater installed by a competent plumbing contractor who will start it properly and keep it that way.

Freshen Woodwork

Want to freshen up tired woodwork? Try a color treatment. Thin flat paint in the desired color to wiping consistency and apply with a cheese-cloth pad to give a glazed effect. Then finish with a coat of clear plastic varnish in a "hand rubbed" finish to give a soft sheen to the wood.

FRAM POWER HUMIDIFIERS COMFORT

never goes out-of-style...

Temperature and humidity affect your comfort. One is as important as the other. A FRAM Power Humidifier will control the humidity in your home — automatically, economically, efficiently. It will restore healthful moisture to furnace-dried air.

Smart Homeowner Knows When to Call in a Pro

If you're an average homeowner, chances are you've been faced many times with the question of whether to hire a contractor for that modernization project or to tackle it yourself. The answer is that some jobs are worth undertaking on a do-it-yourself basis, while others are best left to a professional. A recent Census Bureau report showed that contractors account for 69 percent of the money spent for residential repairs and modernization, indicating that do-it-yourselfers are choosing their jobs carefully. Here are a few typical exterior home improvement projects, with comments as to their suitability as do-it-yourself projects.

Dubbs Opens New 220-Home Sub In Canton Twp.

The newest addition to the rapidly growing Plymouth School district — the 220-home Dubbs subdivision between Hix Road and Haggerty Road in Canton Township — will display three of its 10 models starting Sunday at 8720 Holly Drive at the corner of Joy Road.

The Dubbs subdivision will have three, four and five-bedroom homes in the price range of $15,990 to $19,600 according to President Harry H. Dubbs and Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer Ellis Brownstein.

Dubbs Construction Co. specializes in community developments and housing projects and was one of the first Urban Renewal builders in Michigan. It has had projects in Saginaw, Jackson, Lincoln Park and several other sections in the state.

The homes offer cedarized bedroom closets, colored bathroom fixtures, garbage disposal, copper plumbing, oak flooring, formica counter tops, separate vestibule, oversize windows, California ceiling in a full bath, furniture finished cabinets, gas heat, large outdoor patio, outdoor gas lamp and many other unusual features. The models range from Lady Linda Colonial with four bedrooms and a one-car garage; Williamsburg Ranch with three bedrooms and two-car attached garage; the Leslie with three bedrooms, large kitchen and dining area; the Hollywood Ranch with three bedrooms, bath and a half, two-car garage and extra large living area. Dubbs stamps this as a planned community with paved streets, city water and sewers, gas and electric service. It is convenient to schools, churches and shopping.

All Women Seek Space For Storage

What does every woman want more of in a home? Storage space. No matter how much storage area is available in most homes, it never seems to be enough. If you're planning a move to a new home soon, or even if you'll be staying in your present home for the rest of your life, make it more attractive and practical with the easy and inexpensive addition of closets lined with aromatic red cedar. The fragrant aroma is delightful to humans, but it drives away moths.

Cedar-lined closets can be installed over a weekend. The process is so simple that even an inexperienced handyman can turn out a highly professional-looking job.

If the idea sounds like a good one, but you think there isn't enough room anywhere in your home, look around! Consider building in storage behind doors, in dead corners, beside and below windows, in the hallway, across solid end walls or between rooms as dividers.

Cedar lining, besides being inexpensive and easy to install, requires a minimum of maintenance. In fact, all that's necessary to keep it in tip-top shape is an occasional dusting.

The lining is available in pre-packaged bundles at local lumber dealers everywhere. Complete instructions are included in every package.

Labor Cost Higher For Heavy Shingles

It costs little more in labor to use heavy-weight fire-resistant shingles than it does to use standard-weight ones when re-roofing, according to roofing authorities.

Aside from offering greater safety and protection, heavy-weight shingles will generally last twice as long as standard-weight ones.

Cape Cod

A good fence for a Cape Cod home is the horizontal siding style. It's built with bevel siding boards applied horizontally to 4x4 posts spaced six to eight feet apart. The siding boards can be nailed on just one side or on both. Western red cedar posts and siding will give top results.

Linen Chest Will Assist Housewife

Any average-sized closet without "wings" can be converted into a linen depository with provisions for a pull-out clothes hamper and other storage.

A free plan was designed for a space 24" deep and a door opening 34" by 80". If your space is larger or smaller, the plan dimensions can be altered to fit.

An important feature is the numerous thin, pull-out drawers that enable the homemaker to classify her linens. She avoids high stacks that make removal of items difficult and cause wrinkling.

Drawer bottoms are splinter-free, grainless pressed wood, perforated panels give the hamper ventilation.

Designed by Masonite Corporation, the "space-saving linen closet" plan provides a list of materials and easy-to-follow directions for the conversion.

The plan shows how to get 99 per cent utilization of closet space in an organized system which is a boon to the homemaker. For a copy of free plan AE-207, write a postcard to the Home Service Bureau, Box B, Chicago, Ill. 60690.

Adjustable Louvers

Want a patio screen that you can open or close according to privacy and ventilation needs? An adjustable louver fence will do it. Adjustable louvers are installed with a dowel or a pin through top and bottom edge and extending into the rails. Length of the louver is one inch less than the space between top and bottom rails to permit lifting and turning the louver by hand.

Paper and Paneling

Wallpaper and solid board wall paneling make a good team for Early American interiors. Boards, however, should be vertical grain and knot-free to combine most effectively with patterned paper.

Dearborn Guild Opens With 'Never Too Late'

"Never Too Late," the Broadway smash comedy hit of two seasons, will open the Players Guild of Dearborn's 38th year of producing plays.

Last year two road companies of "Never Too Late" kept the nation roaring with laughter. This past summer straw hat theaters across the land played this hilarious version of a late-blooming matron's date with the stork, almost continuously. Now the community theaters will be invaded by "Never Too Late."

The Players Guild of Dearborn secured the rights for

"Never Too Late" last spring on the very day it was released. Consequently the Dearborn thespians can proudly proclaim a community theater "first" for this two hour session of laughs.

"Never Too Late" opens Oct. 1 for a two weekend run. The Oct. 3 performance is already sold out. Tickets can be obtained by calling LO 3-3791.

Writer's Conference Slated at Oakland

Sixty published authors will lead round-table discussions on 60 facets of the craftsmanship of creative writing at the fourth annual Writers' Conference to be held at Oakland University Saturday, Oct. 16, from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The Conference is sponsored by the Division of Continuing Education and the professional Detroit Women Writers' Club.

"The Craft of the Teen Age Novel," "Article Ideas from an Editor's Viewpoint," "What's Going on in the World of Poetry," "The Existential Novel," "Spare Time Article Writing" and "Humor: Be Funny for Money," are but a few of the round-table topics to be discussed respectively by authors Elizabeth Howard, Robert Martin Hodesh, Gertrude White, Joyce Carol Oates, Edgar Logan, and Peggy Cameron King.

Henriette Simpson Arnow, author of "Hunter's Horn" and "The Dollmaker," will lead a round-table on "The Traditional Novel: Is There Still A Place for it?" At another round-table period she will appear on a panel with Sylvia Cooper, author of "Self Made Man, Thunderstone."

and three other novels, to hold a conversation on "A Writer's Methods."

Each participant in the Writer Conference will have opportunity to select four round-tables during the all-day sessions. Round-tables are scheduled at each of four periods for published and aspiring writers of poetry, short stories, articles, books, juvenile works, and drama. There is also a choice of two round-tables at each period on editors and markets.

A new feature of this year's Writers' Conference is The Poets Corridor. On this Corridor in the Oakland Center, where the Conference is being held, writers of poetry will be able to choose from three events at each period. These events will be a lecture by a poet, a discussion by another poet of his own poems, work methods and work sheets with a consultant poet in the room to discuss magazines to which to submit poetry.

The third event is a demonstration workshop in light or lyric verse at which verse submitted in advance by conference registrants will be criticized, analyzed and admired by such professional poets as Elinor K. Rose, Aileen Fitzpatrick, Margaret Secrist, and Leila Pepper.

The subject of interviewing will be dealt with in several ways. A demonstration of the live interview will be given by a panel comprised of Doris Dickson, freelance radio broadcaster for CBC, Myrtle Labbitt who was with CKLW for 27 years, and Jean Pitrone, freelance article writer.

Jean Duran of the Detroit Free Press will touch upon interviewing in her round-table on the human interest feature and S. L. A. Marshall, author of nine books including "Pork Chop Hill," has titled his round-table "The Interview and How It Builds into a Book."

Other features of the Writers' Conference will be a display of marketing aids and magazines interested in free-lance material; a display of Michigan Books by the State Library of Michigan; a book sale and a manuscript criticism service.

Reservations for the Conference are being accepted now by the Division of Continuing Education, Oakland University, 338-7211, Ext. 2176.

JOYFUL PAT KULL of Farmington leads her glum stage husband, Howard Hastedt, out of an infant wear shop after ordering all the necessary items for their forthcoming blessed event. Pat portrays a late-blooming matron who is expecting an addition to the family after 30 years of married life in the Dearborn Players Guild production of "Never Too Late." Six performances of the comedy are scheduled starting Oct. 1. Reservations may be made by calling LO 3-3791.

Maori Series To Open Series

The Maori Dancers will bring the sights and sounds of native New Zealand to the University of Detroit, Sunday, Oct. 3. Appearing at 8:30 p.m., along with the National Band of New Zealand, they will appear in the new memorial Building Auditorium to open the Town and Gown Celebrity Series.

The presentation by the Maori Dancers is as varied as their folklore—from the frenzied excitement to the "peruperu," or war dance, to the lilting romanticism of the melodic love songs. They perform the exotic rhythms, melodies, dances, chants, games and modern action songs that are part of the magnificent native heritage of New Zealand.

The National Band of New Zealand is under the direction of Norman Thorn. The Band's repertoire for the U. of D. appearance includes works by Verdi, Wagner, Grieg and Sousa.

Future events scheduled in the U. of D. Town and Gown Series include: The Orchestra San Pietro of Naples, Oct. 24; the dramatic presentation "In White America," Nov. 1; French singer Charles Aznavour; Nov. 13; Flamenco guitarist Carlos Montoya, Jan. 23; Louis Armstrong and his All Stars, Feb. 18; and Jean-Louis Destine and a company of Haitian Dancers, April 16.

Season tickets at reduced prices are now on sale at the University of Detroit ticket office. For further information call 342-1029.

U of D Sets Casting Call

Open casting for the second University of Detroit Theatre production, "Tiger At the Gates," will be held Thursday, Sept. 30 and Friday, Oct. 1 at 8 p.m.

"Members of the community, whether or not they are U. of D. graduates and students, are invited to try out for the roles in the show," said James Rodgers, acting director of the U. of D. Theatre.

"The production is not pre-cast," he explained, "and there are over 25 speaking roles to be cast." Final casting will be made following the readings by James Rodgers, director of the Giraudoux play.

Readings will be held in the U. of D. Theatre on the third floor of the McNichols Campus Library.

Non-students who are cast in the play, or who work with the Theatre will be invited to join Players Associates, the non-student arm of the U. of D. dramatic group headed by John Linahan.

Copies of "Tiger At the Gates" are probably available in most libraries, Rodgers said. However, interested actors may also obtain copies from the U. of D. Theatre. They may telephone 342-1000, ext. 207 for details.

La Scala Sets Area Performance

Performances have been scheduled for Oct. 20 and 21 at the State Theatre in Wayne and the Mai Kai Theatre in Livonia for the Warner Bros. presentation of the La Scala opera company production of Giacomo Puccini's "La Boheme."

Four performances are scheduled for the two days with two matinees beginning at 2 p.m. and two evening showings starting at 8 p.m.

Seats will not be reserved, but the number of seats sold for each performance will not exceed the capacity of the theatre. The Warner Bros. presentation of "La Boheme" is filmed in technicolor and is made possible through the perfection of sound recording equipment to the highest fidelity ever achieved.

The La Scala production is directed by Herbert von Karajan and Franco Zeffirelli. Marcel Escoffier designed the costumes. Gianni Raimondi, Mirella Freni, Adriana Martino and Rolando Panerai head the cast of singers.

The Warner Bros. Actual Performance Series will follow "La Boheme" with a similar presentation, in early 1968, of Sir Laurence Olivier in "Othello."

'CURTAIN UP' GOING

The University of Michigan Professional Theater Program returns for a fourth season Sept. 29 at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater on the Ann Arbor campus. The fourth fall season of plays is scheduled Sept. 29 to Nov. 14.

"You Can't Take It With You," long a favorite with community and high school groups, will kick off the season of three plays to a zany start. "The Wild Duck," a seldom-seen Ibsen classic, follows and a premier of Pulitzer Prize-winner Archibald MacLeish's latest work "Herakles" closes the season.

All three plays will be played in repertory during the eight-week season. Information about performance dates and season tickets can be obtained by dropping a card to the Professional Theater Program, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. Community theater activity in Wayne County gets underway with the Dearborn Players Guild opening of "Never Too Late" on Oct. 1 at their Playhouse, Outer Drive and Monroe. Curtain time is 8:45 p.m. on Friday and Saturdays, 7:30 p.m. on Sundays.

"Never Too Late" is a two hour laugh-fest and will be seen in many community theaters before long. Arthur Godfrey, William Bendix, Fred Clark, Paul Ford, and a host of other stage folk have played the enormously funny role of the wealthy lumber dealer who suddenly finds himself a father once again at an advanced stage of middle age.

At intermission time you will be able to visit the Dearborn Guild's clubhouse for a relaxing cup of coffee or Diet Pepsi. Director Bob Wall, most recently with the Plymouth Theater Guild, hopes a few Plymouthites will join him in the clubhouse and recall fond memories of the Plymouth productions.

Interesting note of authenticity in conjunction with "Never Too Late." As you remember a

George Peppard Stars

George Peppard, local Dearborn boy, can be seen in his new adventure action packed film, "The Great Spy Mission" co-starring lovely Sophia Loren, opening tonight at the Dearborn Drive-In Theatre.

It is the true life story of one man's suspenseful aim to track down and destroy Hitler's secret weapon in World War II.

Also on the same program, TV's Dr. Kildare, Richard Chamberlain stars in the new delightful comedy romance, "Joy In The Morning."

The theatre is open nightly and the show starts at dusk.

Masons to Meet

The final section of a Fall Royal Arch Festival will be held by Union Chapter No. 55, in the Northville Masonic Temple next Saturday. Both the Most Excellent and the Royal Arch Degrees will be conferred. Chapter will open at 5 p.m. followed by a 6:30 Ladies Night dinner.

MICHAEL DUNN, right, talks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of 32953 Grennada, Livonia, during a visit last weekend. Dunn appears in the film "Ship of Fools" which premieres in Detroit Oct. 6. He will also be seen over channel 2 this Friday in an episode on "Wild, Wild West."

Michael Dunn Visits Livonia

Michael Dunn is 30 years old and has several acting credits behind him, and his mother spent last Saturday morning ironing his shirts.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, of 32953 Grennada, Livonia, Dunn appears in the Columbia pictures release "Ship of Fools" which opens in the area Oct. 6.

He will also be seen this Friday on Wild, Wild West telecast at 7:30 p.m. over Channel 2.

Dunn, whose real name is Gary Neil Miller, spent Friday with his parents and caught a plane to Chicago Saturday morning to open a two-week engagement at Mr. Kelly's. While he talked to The Observer his mother ironed his shirts so that everything would be clean and fresh for his stay.

Dunn is a dwarf who is determined to make it on his own ability. He asks for no favors and is outspoken in his criticism of the "poor little man battling the world" approach to life.

A graduate of Redford High School in Detroit, Dunn attended the University of Michigan and was graduated from the University of Miami.

He started on the night club circuit immediately after graduation when he landed a job singing at Cliff Bell's.

In 1959 he moved to New York where he still makes his home. Dunn started out singing in Greenview Village night spots and then moved uptown. When he was cast in an off-Broadway play his acting career began.

Since that time his credits have included "The Ballad of the Sad Cafe," "Talking to You" and "Here Come the Clowns."

In "Ship of Fools" Dunn appears as Glocken, the sharp-eyed wise man who serves as the "Greek chorus" of the film.

His parents plan to travel to Chicago this weekend to take in Dunn's act at Mr. Kelly's and will be present at the Detroit premiere of the film Oct. 6. They have attended all his openings to date.

Miller is employed at Evans Products, while Dunn's mother is a sixth grade teacher at Wilson School in Livonia.

Two From Area Cast at U of D

Area residents Chris Fox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Fox of 15435 Levan, Livonia, and Kelly Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burke of 22716 Floral, Farmington, have been cast in the up-coming University of Detroit Theatre's production of "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You In The Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad."

The award-winning play, which was written by Arthur Kopit, is slated to open at the U. of D. Friday, Oct. 8.

Miss Fox, a freshmen speech and drama major at Madonna College, will be seen in the leading role of Rosalie, Burke, a sophomore Radio-TV major has been cast as a Vernon.

Winner of the Northern Rice Award for Off-Broadway Theatre, "Oh Dad, Poor Dad" is a "theatre of the absurd" play, telling the story of a possessive mother and her hate of the world.

The play will be repeated Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 9 and 10 and for the next two weekends in the U. of D. Theatre on the third floor of the McNichols Campus Library.

The production is under the direction of assistant U. of D. Theatre director Alan Jorgensen.

Combos Win Cash Awards

A group of guitar-strumming, drum-beating musicians is $100 richer today, having emerged victorious in Wonderland Center's second annual combo contest.

The cash award was captured by the Deltons, a teen-age quintet composed of boys from Detroit, Dearborn and Livonia.

Sharing the prize will be Wally Knebl, Greg Gentry, Tom Williams, Mike Opulsky and Garry Reese. The Deltons are managed by Larry Suiter.

The contest, staged recently at the big 57-store center at Plymouth Rd. and Middlebelt, attracted hundreds of teenagers. Eleven semi-finalists competed in the seven-hour "rock and roll" contest.

A $25 second place award went to The Shades, composed of George Saul, Livonia, Mark Snider, Livonia, Dean VanMeter, Livonia, Gary Cojei, Garden City, Rick Hardacre, Livonia.

John Greenberg, Larry Johnson, Ron Fitzsimmons and Bill Millard all of Redford Township, who call themselves the "Wanderers" nailed down third place.

The three winning groups will return to the center in October when Wonderland celebrates its sixth anniversary.

The DEW LINE

by John Dew

The new TV season is now underway. In a few months many of the new shows will have gone under. The ratings have taken on a new importance this year. Not only are the shows themselves concerned with their public acceptance, but also record companies have taken a special interest in the success of many new programs since they have found that a successful show with 40 million viewers often is a springboard to recording success too.

MGM has just signed David McCallum of the popular "Man From U.N.C.L.E." show. Patty Duke has had great record success recently, and even David Janssen of the "Fugitive" has signed a contract with Epic records.

Some other TV personalities you can see in weekly doses include: Jim Nabors, Dick Kallman of the new NBC series "Hank," Don Adams of "Get Smart," Bill Cosby in "I Spy," Dean Martin, the Smothers Brothers, Steve Lawrence, Robert Horton, Lorne Greene, Burl Ives, Richard Chamberlain, Andy Williams, Vince Edwards of "Ben Casey," Buddy Ebsen, Jimmy Dean, and even "Lurch" — Ted Cassidy. All have signed with one recording outfit or another.

The king of them all, meanwhile, Frank Sinatra, will star in a one hour special for NBC titled "Sinatra: The Man and his Music." It will feature Sinatra in a musical review of his 25-year career and airs Nov. 24 in color on Channel 4.

Dwight Hemion who directed the award-winning "My Name is Barbra" gets time off from his nightly "Nightlife" directing to helm Sinatra's show.

"After Hours with Ed McKenzie," WXYZ-TV's popular late-late conversation show, has been expanded from half an hour to one hour nightly.

On the air continuously since Oct. 8, 1962, the show is presented nightly, Monday through Thursday at 1:15 a.m. It will stay with the same informal format.

Speaking of WXYZ-TV, a new weather personality has been added to the 11 news report. The newcomer is Bruce Miller who is also production director of WXYZ radio.

Colored Sculpture Show Set

Cranbrook Academy of Art Galleries has selected as its first exhibition of the season "Colored Sculpture," a show being circulated throughout the country by the American Federation of Arts.

The exhibition of chromatic sculpture selected by Sidney Geist, noted sculptor and critic, will open on Oct. 5 and continue through Oct. 24.

Like so much that is "new," color has been present in sculpture for a long time. What is new is its pervasiveness, the enthusiasm with which it has been employed on all sides.

New, too, is the brashness, the insistence with which color is now used. Gently toned, antique or patinated surfaces are absent and instead color is frankly applied in full saturations.

The works of 20 artists are presented in the show. Some employ color in ways that have an ancient sanction and that demonstrate a permanence which contemporaneity does not deny. Others extract from color a new wit, a new accent or a new problem. In certain examples the very muteness of the color makes a point.

The Bloomfield Hills' Galleries hours are from 2 to 5 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays and from 1 to 5 p.m. on the weekends. There is an admission.

Wins Cash Award

Airman First Class Carl W. Mau Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Mau, 9231 Frederick Drive, Livonia, has been given a cash award at Goodfellow AFB, Tex., for his military improvement suggestion.

A graduate of Bentley High School, Airman Mau is married to the former Judith A. Westfall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Westfall of 33705 Grand River Ave., Farmington.

HAVING BORED her to the point where she obtained a Mexican divorce, and accidentally married another man, Frank Sinatra now tries to win back Deborah Kerr as his wife in this scene from "Marriage on the Rocks" now at the Mai Kai Theatre in Livonia.

'Fantasticks' Opens Quirk Theatre Season

The Eastern Michigan University Players will open the current drama season with "The Fantasticks," from Oct. 19-24, according to an announcement made by James W. Goussier, director of theatre.

Produced in association with the departments of music and physical education for women, the play is a musical comedy which is now going into its sixth year in New York as a solid off-Broadway hit.

"The Physicists," written by Swiss dramatist, Friedrich Duerrenmatt, presents a complicated plot filled with spies, counterespies, international intrigue and devious espionage. The melodrama builds to a climax which is unique in excitement and is importantly significant in its implications. This production will be given Jan. 12-16 in Quirk Theatre.

Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream," will be given by the Players March 23-27.

New St. Maurice's School Opens with Five Grades

MOTHER MIRIAM, principal of the newly opened St. Maurice's School in Livonia, greets three of school's 245 students. From left are, second grader Wally Kenzie, 6; and fifth grade students Peggy Kenzie, 10; and Mary Lou Rahmel, 10. St. Maurice's opened its $200,000 school this fall. It is staffed by the Oblate Sisters of Providence.

"I told my teacher of last year that my new classroom had five sides and she didn't believe me."

That's what one of the students of the newly opened St. Maurice's School in Livonia told the principal Mother Miriam. But it's true. The classrooms at St. Maurice's are octagonal shaped and do have five sides.

The nuns seem to like it. Mother Miriam says that with the 50 student classes in that shaped room one doesn't get the "closed in or crowded feeling" that is found in a traditional shaped classroom with 50 students.

The school, which was designed by Joseph St. Cyr & Associates and constructed by John Barrett, will house 400 students when grades one through eight are in operation.

A total of 245 students now attend in grades one through five and are taught by five members of the Oblate Sisters of Providence and one lay teacher.

Members of the parish board of education are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rahmel, Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Boehmer. The Rev. Thomas J. Cain is pastor of the parish.

Ground was broken for the school and convent in January 1965. The school was erected at a cost of $200,000 while the convent, which will house nine nuns, cost $92,000. George Pastor and Sons was the general contractor for the convent.

St. Maurice's parish when founded five years ago had about 250 families in the parish. Today it numbers approximately 750 families with 1,500 school age children.

Mother Miriam reports that more than 700 reported for the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program when it opened in the fall. The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program is the series of classes by which Catholics educate children attending public schools in the Catholic faith.

Occupying the convent with the nuns are three other beings. One, Dennis — "the nun rabbit" — arrived shortly after the nuns last August. He is called the nun rabbit because he has black fur with a ring of white fur at the neck. Thus he acquired the nickname — from the Oblate Sisters.

Two birds also have a place of honor in the house.

Teachers at St. Maurice's are: Mother Miriam, principal and fifth grade teacher; Sister Leonard, fourth grade; Sister Rosanna, third grade; Sister Bernarda, second grade; Sister Ernesta, first grade; and Mrs. Warren King, music. Additional grades and faculty will be added for the next three years to bring the school up to capacity enrollment.

A teaching order of 350 the Oblates were founded in 1829 in Baltimore. The general motherhouse of the order is in Baltimore and missions are operated in the southern Atlantic states; New Jersey; New York; Michigan; Chicago; St. Louis; and Costa Rica.

Oblate sisters staff the school of Our Lady of Victory parish in the Eight Mile Rd.-Wyoming area.

Dinner to Honor Elsie Johns, Oct. 7

The Rev. Elsie A. Johns, Minister of the Clarenceville Methodist Church, will be honored for her 25 years of service to the Clarenceville Methodist Church at a banquet in her honor on Thursday, Oct. 7, at the Statler-Hilton hotel in Detroit.

The banquet, which will be held in the Grand Ballroom, will begin at 6:30 p.m. Bishop Marshall R. Reed, will be the speaker and Dr. Everett K. Seymour, senior minister Royal Oak First, will serve as toastmaster.

When Miss Johns first came to this community in the western part of the Detroit metropolitan area she found a building with no heating plant, broken windows, no members, and no money.

In a July 12, 1963 News-week article the editors tell how she found a note on the pulpit which read, "This church has no members and no money. Here is the key."

During the first five weeks of her pastorate, no one showed up for Sunday Services.

Centennial Plans To Be Discussed at Dinner Meeting

Detroit-area Catholics will have an opportunity to hear first-hand the details of a planned Centennial of Our Mother of Perpetual Help at a dinner meeting, Sept. 30, at the Statler Hilton Hotel, Grand Circus Park at Washington Blvd., when Father John Schaefer, one of the founders of the Centennial program, will discuss plans for the observance in 1966.

Father Schaefer, a member of the Redemptorist Fathers who are sponsoring the Centennial, will relate the history of Our Mother of Perpetual Help — the ancient Byzantine painting which is the inspiration for the universally-observed Perpetual Help Novenas — and detail plans for the Centennial and the Redemptorist-sponsored "Journey of Fulfillment" travel program which will enable thousands of Catholics to tour Europe in 1966 and visit the shrine of the miraculous painting in Rome.

Open to Catholics and interested non-Catholics alike, the dinner meeting will be held at 6 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 30. Information on the meeting may be obtained by calling Miss Loretta Follard at 826-2842.

Missionary To Speak at Emmanuel

Rev. Noah Brannen, American Baptist missionary to Japan, will speak at the morning service Oct. 3 at the Emmanuel Baptist Church in Livonia.

His visit coincides with this year's World Fellowship Offering for missionary work. Japan is the field being spotlighted during 1965.

Rev. Brannen and his family have been in the States on a furlough during which Rev. Brannen has been doing language studies.

Draft Counselor Session Slated

The Metropolitan Detroit Fellowship of Reconciliation will conduct a draft counselor meeting on Sunday, Oct. 3, at 7 p.m. at Trinity Church of the Brethren, 27350 W. Chicago at Inkster Rd., Redford Township. The presentation will include an up-to-date draft picture, selective service classifications, and a film, "Alternatives," which shows alternative service projects.

Urged to attend are high school guidance counselors, draft counselors, ministers, church youth group leaders, parents, and youth approaching 18.

Warren Valley Marks 10 Years

The Warren Valley Baptist Church in Dearborn Heights will celebrate its 10th anniversary Sunday, Oct. 3.

A tree planting ceremony will open the ceremony, followed by the worship service. The Rev. Howard Haworth of the First Baptist Church of Dearborn will be the guest speaker. He will be assisted by the interim minister Rev. R. T. Pattie, chaplain of Detroit Receiving Hospital.

A dinner and program will follow the service with highlights of the first ten years of the church.

Mrs. Douglas Newell is chairman of the celebration assisted by Mrs. William Burgess, Mrs. Joseph McDonald and William Mathis.

People who try to hit all the high places land in the dump.
