Slates Public Hearing Nov. 8

Council Moves Toward OK of High Rise Buildings

The day of high rise apartments and business buildings is fast approaching in the City of Plymouth. Matter of fact it is much closer than most think and members of the City Commission Monday moved it a step closer to realization by passing to first reading an amendment to the zoning ordinance.

The amendment will allow five story apartments and is the initial step towards approving such a proposed structure on S. Main as planned by Patrick Finlan.

At the same time, the Commission passed a resolution to first reading which would approve rezoning of lots on S. Main (centered around the former residence of Carl Shear) from Commercial to Modified Professional Residential that would permit the high rise apartments.

The amendments as proposed reads in part:

"The height limitation herein specified may be increased on parcels of one acre or greater, not to exceed five stories or 60 feet in height, whichever is greater."

Further, it provides for a lot area of not less than 1,500 square feet per each family—a provision that may give Finlan a bit of trouble since his plans call for 1,350 square feet. However, there was an indication the Commission may take steps to lower the requirements to 1,300 feet so that he can go ahead with his plans.

"I realize that many in Plymouth will oppose high rise structures," said Mayor Pro-tem James Jabara, acting as commission chairman in the absence of Mayor James Houk. "But when it becomes apparent that the city will realize five or more times the taxes from a structure of this type compared to a two-story commercial building of a single family dwelling, then one just has to favor it."

The matter will come up for a public hearing on Nov. 8 when those residents who are against any high rise buildings are expected to be on hand to voice their opposition.

The proposed amendments to the zoning ordinance were approved by the City's Planning Commission in a meeting last week.

City Manager Richard Blodgett was instructed to take any action he feels necessary on five recommendations from the Chamber of Commerce for correction of the parking problem in the Central Downtown Business section lot.

The recommendations, received in a letter from Chairman Hugh Jarvis, included:

1. That a stop sign be erected over the alley behind D & C and Kresge's as a safety measure for pedestrians and cars.
2. That a yellow line be painted on the alley around the perimeter of the Central Parking lot a reasonable distance from buildings as an interim safety measure for persons stepping out into the alley from the rear entrances of the buildings—the idea being that the yellow line would keep cars and trucks from hugging the alley next to the buildings so closely.
3. That a police officer be placed on South Harvey Street during rush hours to direct traffic as an interim measure to ease the bottle neck situation at the Central parking lot entrances.
4. That the Department of Public Works handle the ordering of rubbish containers from J & H (Stan. Denski) for firms who have indicated interest in purchase or rental.
5. That a list of City Ordinance pertaining to operations of

Plymouth Township Trustees Slate Talks on Public Safety Director

Although a final decision appears to be in the distant future, the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees and the Fire Administration Board are starting talks about the possibility of a Public Safety Director.

The subject has been mentioned before, especially after it became apparent the township is in for a tremendous population growth within the next few years.

However, it never did get out of the talking stage until two weeks ago when the Trustees sat down with Supervisor John McEwen with the express purpose of discussing a Public Safety Director among other items.

McEwen brought up the subject at the Township Board meeting and after discussion, it was decided to go into the matter further at a special meeting on Oct. 26.

During the discussion, McEwen posed the question of whether the Trustees should consider a Public Safety Director or a Public Service Director who would be in charge of the Department of Public Works and other departments as the expected growth took place.

In his letter to the Trustees, McEwen noted:

"In the meeting with the Administration Board, it was favorably discussed that perhaps the classification of Director of Public Safety would be too narrow at this time and possibly could be broadened to the classification of Director of Public Services.

"This classification would broaden the scope of the position as to alleviate the possible congestion of work and confusion in the anticipated forthcoming building and activity boom within the Township.

"The classification of Director of Public Services, in addition to Fire and Police Administration, could include: supervision and maintenance of water and sewer lines, supervision and direction of mechanical and electrical trade codes (building inspector excepted)."

The Board agreed with the contents of the letter and approved the Oct. 26 meeting.

McEwen also brought the matter of division of election precincts to the attention of the Trustees.

The Township growth has been such that it must set up additional precincts in order to meet the State Election Laws.

With that in mind, McEwen told the Trustees that Clerk

C. Veach Sparks will start the task of dividing election precincts in the Lake Pointe Village area and in the eastern section of Township immediately after the Nov. 2 election.

The Board authorized Sparks

to contact Waring and Johnson, planning consultants, to determine their costs of making such a study and recommendation for division of the precincts.

In other actions, the Trustees:

Pam McAllister Crowned Queen for Homecoming

There was all of the pomp and ceremony that goes with the crowning of a queen—and the usual tears from the one selected by the Student Body—in the annual homecoming celebration of Plymouth High.

The lucky senior was Pam McAllister, a member of the varsity cheerleading squad, and the popular choice of the student body in an election conducted Friday afternoon.

The results weren't announced until the halftime ceremonies when Mayor Mary Theeke, with all of the flair of a judge at the Motion Picture Academy pageant, calmly asked for the envelope and read the name "And the 1965 queen is . . . Pam McAllister."

The band blared. The 1964 Queen Judy Olds, a freshman at Western Michigan University, stepped into the limelight to place the crown on her successor and then pinned the ribbon bearing the words "Queen" on Pam.

Within a few minutes the new Queen had received the Royal Robe, used especially for the occasion, had the traditional waltz with Drum Major Tom Webber, made her bows to the crowd, was escorted around the field in the senior float drawn by a huge group of seniors and then came back to her seat in the center of the field.

It was a colorful homecoming celebration, brightened considerably by the new lighting system that made everything almost as light as during the day—it certainly enabled photographers to take better pictures than in past years.

The band, under the direction of James Griffith, was better than at any previous homecoming. All in all it was one of the best celebrations ever held at Plymouth High, starting with a parade through the downtown business section and followed by the traditional bonfire near the edge of the athletic field.

On the gridiron things were a bit different. Coach John McFall knew his Rocks were in for a rough evening long before the time of the kickoff. He knew as many as three weeks ago that Trenton would be one of the toughest games on the schedule.

The fact was brought home even more when one of the metropolitan newspapers rated Trenton fourth in the state.

Trenton had perhaps the best team that will show on the Plymouth field this year. It has two of the fastest backs this writer has seen on a high school team in some time, a tricky quarterback and plenty of weight in a veteran line.

Sure, the score was 52-0. But then, one must take into consideration that this was a great Trenton team. It isn't any disgrace to lose to one of the state's best—even though many of the returning graduates would probably disagree with this.

This writer has watched some of the greatest high school teams

A QUEEN is crowned and standing before the huge homecoming game crowd at Plymouth High's athletic field is Senior Pam McAllister, who was officially named as 1965 homecoming queen during halftime ceremonies. Pam is a member of the varsity cheerleading squad among other activities.

PCF Reaches 11% At Initial Report

The Plymouth Community Fund drive is off to an excellent start with $9,405 or approximately 11 per cent in the fill at the initial report meeting after only four days of work.

That was the report of division leaders at last Friday's initial report meeting at the Hillside Inn at which General Chairman John Kamego, district manager for Michigan Bell, reviewed the status and plans of the various divisions.

"The report looks good for the first four days," said Kamego. "But it's only a drop in the bucket compared with the work ahead in attaining the goal of $86,083. It's the work of the next two weeks that will determine whether this year's drive will go over the top or not."

"This is our most ambitious goal in history but I am sure that Plymouth will meet this challenge just as it has on so many other occasions. We on the campaign team know that residents of Plymouth want to keep the Community Fund as an individual effort for this community and that they won't relax a moment until the goal is attained."

The initial report showed $1,380 from the business division, $3,875 from the industrial corporate gifts units and $4,050 from employe contributions under the industrial division along with $100 from the professional division.

The second report meeting is scheduled for Thursday at the Hillside Inn at which time Kamego hopes to have a partial report from the women's residential division under the direction of Mrs. Leona Schomberger.

"All divisions reported 'all systems go' and we hope to have a much more favorable report at Thursday's meeting," said Kamego. "We asked division leaders to stress the need for disposing of all assignments as quickly as possible. We hope to have a fairly definite idea of the progress even though the reports from the Industrial division probably won't be complete until the night of the victory dinner."

Plymouth's Red Feather drive is an independent campaign administered in Plymouth by Plymouth volunteers. Not a penny is used for administrative costs. This year there are 12 local agencies participating in the drive in addition to 22

18 Students Rate 3.5 At Plymouth

A total of 18 students in Plymouth High have achieved marks of 3.5 or better for the first two years of study, according to an announcement by Assistant Principal John Hoben of the Counseling and Guidance Department.

The tabulation was made at the end of the junior year and doesn't reflect grades for any of the 18 during the current senior year.

The group, listed alphabetically, includes: Jon Adams, Mary Jo Arnold, Charles Catlett, Tom Chandler, Jack Dean, Mary Fink, Ralph Heid, Sue Hulce and Rowena Innes.

Rotary Honors Sid Strong On His 82nd Birthday

It wasn't exactly a "This Is Your Life" program but members of the Plymouth Rotary Club made Sid Strong's 82nd birthday one that he won't forget in a long time—neither will his charming wife.

For the first time since the Broadcaster, the weekly bulletin of the club, was started, none was sent to the home of the Strong's. It wasn't mailed for the simple reason that it had the news that last week's meeting was to honor the Strong's.

Rather it was presented to Sid by hand from Frank Henderson, who served as master of ceremonies for the program.

It started with the usual luncheon, this time in the new Mayflower Meeting House. The Strong's had seats at the front table and must have wondered why until they noticed two of their daughters and one of their sons seated with their husbands and wives at a nearby table.

It must have dawned on them then that this was a special day for Sid and that's what it turned out to be.

Henderson told of the background of Sid, who came to Plymouth in 1920 and has been here ever since, still maintaining his interest in community affairs even though at the age of 82.

Frank told of how Sid became a charter member of the Rotary Club in 1924 and has been active ever since. He introduced son Allen and daughters Mrs. mJean Taylor and Mrs. J. Rus-

ROYAL ROBE is placed on the shoulders of Homecoming Queen Pam McAllister as Judy Olds, 1964 queen, who had just placed the crown on Pam's head, looks on. Judy, a freshman at Western Michigan, made a special trip to Plymouth to be on hand for the coronation ceremonies.

BPW Hear Speech By PCF Chief

John Kamego, district manager for Michigan Bell and general campaign manager of the Plymouth Community Fund drive, was the principal speaker for 65 members of the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club at the Hillside Inn.

Kamego stressed the "benefits to our community" in his talk in which he told the community should do everything possible to make sure the community remains independent of the United Foundation.

He asked the club and members to back the drive to the limit and for everything possible to try and send it over the top again.

Community Fund Board members in attendance included Treasurer Betty Korte and Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, the Plymouth Township treasurer.

Driver Licenses Available

Drivers licenses will be issued at Plymouth Township Hall by Sheriff Pete Buback's officers on Wednesday, Oct. 20 and Oct. 27.

Supervisor John McEwen indicated he has been notified that starting with Nov. 5, licenses will be issued on Fridays until further notice.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED:

Easter Seal Society Aids 522 in Suburbs

Ivan R. McFaul, Lincoln Park, was re-elected president of the Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County at the annual meeting of the Society at the Easter Seal Center Oct. 11. Also re-elected were William Semp-liner, Plymouth, first vice-president; T. F. Kuckelman, Belleville, second vice-president; and Alfred H. Huss, Dearborn, treasurer.

Board members re-elected for two year terms are: Mrs. Louis Hawkins, Taylor; Edward F. Miller, Flat Rock; Edward L. Millis, Wayne; Elsmere V. Pearson, Redford Township; Eugene Perecki, Romulus; Otis Radford, Allen Park; Clive Summers and Mrs. Mary Zudick, both of Dearborn.

New Board members are: Neil S. Banks, Inkster; George Hammond, Ecorse; Carl Licht, River Rouge; Joseph Pennefather, Nankin Township and Charles A. Smith, Northville.

The Society served 299 crippled children and 223 physically handicapped adults during the fiscal year Sept. 1, 1964 through Aug. 31, 1965. Services offered to individuals one by one, and to individuals in groups included information and referral; transportation to hospitals and clinics; loans of special equipment; purchase of orthopedic shoes and appliances; special planning and consultation; help with fees for diagnostic medical examinations or therapy; and year-round classes and clubs for teen agers and adults, in addition to a summer Day Camp for crippled children.

Individuals are served regardless of the cause of the physical disability. About one third of the children were cerebral palsied, with 70 other diagnoses included in the group. Fifty-four diagnoses appear among the adults served.

Other districts reporting gains of more than 6 percent were Birmingham, Farmington, Lamphere, Novi, and West Bloomfield.

School Age Lists Up In Oakland

For the fifth year in a row the number of school age children in Oakland County has jumped while the number of pre-school children has declined.

In the May census 30 school districts counted 82,087 pre-school children and 256,107 between the ages of five and 19. Last year's figures were 83,179 under the age of five and 245,128 of school age. Every year since 1960, when the pre-school total peaked at 91,124, this age group has become smaller.

The 10,079 gain in number of school-age children is slightly under the 11,223 increase of 1964, but higher than the preceding four years when there was an average annual increase of 8,000 children.

New elementary schools recently built and under construction can be accounted for brief study of the bunching of age groups.

There are more eight-year-olds, 20,115 of them, than any other age group. Seven-year-olds are next, with 19,781 now placed in second and third classes. Ranking next in numbers were 19,292 six-year-olds, 19,091 nine-year-olds, and 19,118 ten-year-olds.

Other districts reporting gains of more than 6 percent were Birmingham, Farmington, Lamphere, Novi, and West Bloomfield.

Firm Bids $5.4 Million For OCC Job

A bid of $5,416,000 by the J. A. Utley Company of Royal Oak was the lowest received by the Oakland Community College Board of Trustees for the first phase construction of the Orchard Ridge campus. George Mosher, OCC Board Chairman, announced.

The bid was made on the basis of construction of seven structures, six of which were earmarked for instruction with the seventh to house boiler and refrigeration facilities. The first phase project is slated for completion in summer, 1967.

Club Views Slides of West

The 60 Plus Club of the First Methodist Church held its regular monthly meeting Oct. 11 with 59 members present. While the ladies sewed cancer pads during the meeting, the men wrapped bandages for hospital use.

Rev. Hugh White showed the group slides of the Grand Canyon and the western states taken by his son. A short business meeting followed the pot luck dinner.

Madonna College Plans Cornerstone Laying Ceremonies Sunday

Observer

Program Pays Tribute and Farewell to Mother Mary Laudine

Madonna College will take another forward step in its expansion program with the blessing and laying of the cornerstone in the new $5 million residence hall and academic buildings on Sunday Oct. 24 at 2 p.m.

The cornerstone rites will be performed by Msgr. Joseph Rybinski, of SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, Orchard Lake with the assistance of Leon O. Kennedy, Head of department of theology and philosophy at Madonna.

Dr. Dewey F. Barich, president of the Detroit Institute of Technology, will be the speaker. Invocation will be given by Msgr. Thomas Jobs, pastor of Our Lady of Refuge Parish, Orchard Lake.

Thomas Bosco, Madonna advisory board member, will take the occasion to pay tribute to Mother Mary Laudine, CSSF, provincial superior of the Detroit Province of the Felician Sisters who will be leaving Oct. 26 for Rome to take up her new duties as vicar general of the worldwide order.

Chairman of the day is Edward Connor, Detroit Councilman. Congressman Billie Farnum will be among the guests at the ceremony. Farnum will present the college with an American flag that flew over the National Capitol.

The cornerstone ceremony is a symbolic one. It is held to emphasize the need of stability, firmness, cohesion to promote the progress of a project. The stone and buildings are blessed to indicate the need of the supporting hand of God in the effective fruition of a work begun.

As a memento of its growth, important documents related to the project, are sealed into the stone, and are not to be removed for 25 years.

The articles to be placed in the Madonna cornerstone are: copies of the documents of incorporation, affiliation, accreditation; relics of saints under whose protection the college has been placed; photos of presidents who have served the college; copies of initial catalogs, magazines, papers published by the institution; newspaper articles recounting events of growth and development.

The prayers recited at the time of the ceremony are perhaps most expressive of the significance of the rite.

The college chorus will grace the ceremonies with several choral selections.

Following the ceremony, a reception and tea to honor Mother Laudine will be held in the college dining hall. The faculty and students will then conduct tours of the college buildings and grounds.

Visitors will have an opportunity to inspect the residence halls, student center, and academic buildings, all designed by Robert V. Svoboda and Architects, and completed in 1965. All buildings are of brick and white stone trim with outside floor divisions of spandrel glass.

The student center houses the reception room, decorated in Danish Modern, spacious window-encased dining halls, a modern kitchen, lounges for recreation and social activities, and a commons room featuring a circular snack bar. Attractive features of the area are the roof covered patio and upper and lower terraces, designed for viewing and recreation.

Residence halls include girls dormitories, faculty residence and a guest and home management house. The three floors of double and single rooms, sectioned into the south, east, and west wings, accommodate 250 students in private and double rooms.

All residence halls have kitchenettes, lounges, laundry rooms. The faculty residence has a chapel, a dinette, a printing room, and a faculty conference room. The home management house is modern in every detail and attractively furnished. It is a practice home for students majoring in home economics and can be used as a guest house for visiting lecturers.

The academic building which can accommodate 1,000 students is south of the residence halls and separated from these by a small artificial lake. The administrative, academic, and activity areas, relatively independent units, are linked by an elevated academic classroom-seminar-office structure which integrates the various departments of the college into a unified complex.

Salutary features of this brick and stone building are:

- 100,000 volume library housed in a two-story north-west wing;
- 260 seat amphitheatre lecture hall in the central wing;
- Flexible classrooms;
- Education department with curriculum library, audio-visual rooms, demonstration room;
- Art department with studios for ceramics and sculpture, painting and drawing, design and lettering, crafts, and a faculty studio;
- Language department with record rooms and language laboratory;
- Science rooms with labs, refrigerator rooms, animal rooms;
- Music department with audio-booths, practice rooms, and studios;

●Journalism department with a reporting room, staff area, office, processing room for photography;

●Home economics department with textile, foods, and clothing labs.

Further expansion plans include an auditorium, a gymnasium with a swimming pool, and a college chapel.

Plymouth Jr. Symphony Needs String Players

The Plymouth Junior Symphony Orchestra finds itself drastically in need of string players, according to Director Michael Endres. He points out the orchestra is short of all string players, particularly those playing viola.

The orchestra practices each Saturday morning from 9:30 to 11 in the band room at Plymouth High School and Endres urges all youngsters interested in joining to report with their parents.

"The situation is such that unless we sign up additional string players in the next few weeks, we may be forced to drop the orchestra for this year," said Endres. "We just don't have enough players in that category. We need as many as we can get quickly so that they can start practicing within a week."

SISTER DANATHA, Madonna College president, examines the articles that will be sealed in the cornerstone in the official ceremonies next Sunday afternoon.

LYI Plans Annual Meeting on Nov. 9

Herb Ford, president of Livonia Youth Inc. announced the annual Board of Directors meeting will be on Tuesday, Nov. 9 at 8 p.m. in the offices of the Parks and Recreation Department, 14305 Farmington Road.

This meeting will bring to a close the most successful season for LYI.

Co-sponsoring, the seven week teen center programs this summer with the Livonia and Clarenceville Boards of Education and the Parks and Recreation Department, LYI had a total participation of 24,727 at five centers. They were Franklin, Bentley, and Clarenceville High Schools and Emerson and Clarenceville Junior High. Total membership was 2559 teens and 2031 guests.

The largest participation was at Bentley and Franklin where up to 800 youngsters turned out for various activities at these centers.

Preliminary plans call for new centers to be opened at the Stevenson High School and two more Junior Highs.

All board members are urged to attend this meeting.

Madonna College 'Caps' Its First Nurses

Twenty-two student-nurses were accepted officially into the Nursing School at Madonna College in a capping ceremony on Oct. 10 on the college terrace.

Director of the Department of Nursing, Sister M. Calasantia, capped the sophomores and thus accepted them formally into the nursing profession. The ceremony terminates the period of orientation and the first phase of basic training.

Greetings to the students and guests were extended by Sister M. Danatha, president of the college. Judith Gleba, president of the Madonna College Student Nurses Club presented a congratulatory message; Sally Plamondon, representative of the Greater Detroit Nurses Association also addressed the audience with comments on the values of the nursing profession.

Nineteen junior students in nursing received their first blue stripe at the capping ceremony to indicate that they have completed their basic training and have begun clinical experiences in the medical and surgical areas. Eight senior students were given their second stripe as a mark of the highest level of achievement: they are in their last phase of baccalaureate training for nurses, that of contacts with affiliated training centers in Michigan, such as Veterans Hospital, Wayne County General Hospital, and Northville State Hospital.

The Nursing School at Madonna College is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It is approved by the Michigan Board of Nursing and other national professional and academic groups. On September 24 the college received an encouraging recommendation for full accreditation by the National League of Nursing when its first class graduates. The training program together with a baccalaureate degree prepares the graduate nurse for the practice of professional nursing in community health agencies and qualifies her for admission to advanced programs in nursing. The graduate is also qualified to write for registration in Michigan.

CAPPING OF SOPHOMORE students nurses at Madonna was a milestone for the college. Calasantia, Director of Nursing; Rita Radziulowski, Director of Nursing Services; Jane Anderson, Sandra Peters and Anita Johnston.

Dunning Park Chapel In Redford Setting For Kenyon-Thompson Rites

Pavanne Kenyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kenyon and Allan Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Thompson, both of Garden City, were united in marriage by Rev. James Wallace at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 27. The candlelight double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 250 guests at Dunning Park Chapel in Redford Township.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white mums and glads and tall white tapers. Sulette Keitt of Dearborn Heights, read a poem which had been written many years ago by the bride's uncle, Frederick M. Granger of Chicago. The name of the poem was, "A Sonnet to My Dear."

The bride, escorted down the candle-lit aisle by her father, was beautifully gowned in a floor-length dress of silk taffeta and chantilly lace. Her dress featured a fitted lace bodice with a sabrina neckline and long tapering sleeves. Her colonial skirt and train of taffeta were edged in lace.

Her headpiece was fashioned of tiny seed pearls and small flowers disappearing into a shoulder length veil of iridescent white net. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Amy Kenyon, sister of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid and wore a floor-length turquoise sheath dress with an empire waist and matching veil and shoes.

Mrs. Aaron Sanberg, close friend of the bride, was matron of honor.

Bridesmaids were Barbara Vanderstek, Dearborn, Carol Hessler, Dearborn, and Mrs. Ron Hatlan, Garden City.

The bridal attendants were attired in floor length sheath gowns of turquoise silk organza and lace with an empire waist. They wore matching blossom headpieces veiled with illusion.

The matron of honor carried a colonial bouquet of mums and white carnations. The bridesmaids' colonial bouquets matched their gowns.

Laurie Thompson, sister of the groom, was also dressed in a turquoise floor length dress and carried a tiny basket of rosebuds. Laurie is four years old.

Terry Thompson, brother of the groom, was best man.

Frederick Kenyon, brother of the bride; Roy Link, Ron Hatlan, and Kevin Thompson, brother of the groom were ushers.

A buffet reception was held in the ballroom of the Garden City Moose Lodge, following the ceremony. The guests danced to the music of the Blue Notes.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and parts of Canada Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will be at home at 6319 Helen St., Garden City.

The rehearsal party was hosted by the groom's parents at their home on Aug. 25.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Garden City High School. Allan is an employee of the Mooney Process Equipment Co. and is attending college at the Lawrence Institute of Technology. Pavanne is an employee of Garden City at the new City Hall.

PICTURE TALK by Les Wilson

GREETINGS!

In just about 60 days the postman is going to be groaning under bundles of Christmas mail. A lot of it will be greeting cards. If you do things in your family the way we do in mine, you'll be putting your cards on display... taped to walls or mirrors or stuck up some way so everyone can enjoy them.

Pretty as they are, though, very few of them stand out and even fewer of them have a quality of uniqueness that really sets them apart. The few that do classify as "unique" will be photo greetings.

So... if you want your Christmas greetings to be different from all others, why not plan this year to send photo greetings... made from a snapshot you took yourself; your children, your home, your vacation. Almost any subject is appropriate when it evokes shared memories and pleasures.

Why not look through your file of snapshots? Perhaps you shot a few rolls of color film last Christmas or of wintertime activities. Most any of these would fit the occasion. And if they don't, there's still plenty of time to set up some shots, using simple props to suggest the holiday season.

If you're at a loss for ideas, drop in and look over some of the designs and literature we have on the subject. We'll help you come up with something you like. And we'll make the cards for you. Try us!

Session at Capitol

Almost 50 local officials and business leaders accepted United States Representative Weston E. Vivian's invitation to attend his Second District Community Development Conference, in Washington on Oct. 18 and 19.

This includes seven Mayors, eight Township Supervisors and Trustees, and almost a dozen City Councilmen and Commissioners, plus a number of other City, County and Township officials and employees.

Congressman Vivian arranged a program for a number of wives who are accompanying their husbands to Washington. On Monday afternoon, the ladies had tea with Mrs. Esther Peterson, Special Assistant to the President for Consumer Affairs, at Mrs. Peterson's Executive Office Building Suite.

The Conference began on Monday, with a special session for Monroe County officials, on the provisions of the new Economic Development Act, programs under which are available only to Monroe County.

At noon on Monday, Ambassador Douglas MacArthur, Assistant Secretary of State, briefed the conferees and their wives, on international affairs.

In the afternoon, the Conference met with representatives of the Housing and Home Finance Administration, the Bureau of Public Roads, and the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, U.S. Department of the Interior.

Tuesday morning, while the ladies were being conducted on a special V.I.P. tour of the White House, the conference presented officials of the Office of Economic Opportunity and the Department of Agriculture, discussing ways in which local government can participate in Federal programs under their respective jurisdiction.

The Secretary of Agriculture, the Honorable Orville L. Freeman, introduced his Department's programs.

At lunch on Tuesday the Conference heard the Honorable W. Willard Wirtz, Secretary of Labor, discuss the developing federal-local relationship, and what implications this development can have for local officials and businessmen.

Tuesday afternoon, the Conference heard representatives of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, including the Honorable Wilbur J. Cohen, of Ann Arbor the Undersecretary, discuss programs in hospital construction, nursing home assistance, water and air pollution control and water treatment facilities construction assistance.

They also heard a presentation on the role of the Small Business Administration, by ALFRED L. DEUSCH, president of American Savings & Loan Association, looks over fast-disappearing rare Morgan silver dollars which are being given to savers who open accounts of $200 or more or add that much to present accounts. "We're afraid we are going to run out," said Deusch, who said the association started with 20,000 of the hard-to-get silver cartwheels.

$20,000 VANISHES IN HURRY

Amer. Saving Wonders Where Dollars Go

A couple of weeks ago there were some 20,000 rare Morgan silver dollars in bags in the vaults of American Savings & Loan Association at 800 Woodward, Detroit. But the pile is vanishing—and how!

That was when the association started giving away these coveted coins to persons opening savings accounts of $200 or more or adding at least that amount to their present savings accounts.

From the start of the give-away, according to Alfred L. Deusch, president of American, the main office and the 11 branches of the association in the metropolitan area have done a brisk business in silver cartwheels.

While the exact number of new savings accounts opened since early in October is a secret, Deusch said there had been some days when more than 200 new accounts were opened and rare silver dollars given to those signing up for a little saving.

Dates on the coins run from 1881 through 1887. They were released by the U.S. Treasury in Washington about a year ago and most of them quickly found their way into the hands of collectors and others who realize the present and potential value of silver dollars that are so scarce that thousands of numismatists across the country are trying to lay hands on them, in singles and in lots.

As many as 2,000 showed up in a single day at the height of the "run" when the treasury discovered the pile of silver in vaults where it had been placed many years ago and all but forgotten.

One dealer is said to have offered $40,000 for a bag of the precious Morgan dollars which had been minted in 1879.

Deusch said that families are opening separate accounts for husband and wife and in some cases other members of the family, in order to get as many of the scarce silver dollars as they can while the getting is good.

Another advantage of owning one or more of the Morgans, said Deusch, is that the silver content of them is much more than it will ever be again in this country. The government recently announced that it was putting much more base metal into all its silver money, including the dollars minted from now on.

One family, opening an account at an American branch, indicated that there was a plan the head of the house dreamed up which would make possible a $200 savings account for nine grandchildren, and, in addition, a rare and shiny silver cartwheel for each grandchild whose name will be on the American savings passbook.

CONTACT OFFICE NOW:

Social Security Extended to More Elderly People

The Detroit northwest social security office has been open from 4:30 to 8:30 p.m. each Wednesday evening since October 6. This will be the practice for the next several months, for the added convenience of residents of the area, Sam F. Test, social security district manager, said today. These evening hours are in addition to the regular 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. schedule of office hours, Monday through Friday.

Test pointed out that it is important for many people to get in touch with the district office to take advantage of the health insurance and other provisions of the 1965 amendments to the social security program. Although most people are able to visit the office during the day, many find it impossible to do so because of employment or home responsibilities.

The following people should get in touch with the social security office Test said: People who are now 65 or older but who are not entitled to social security benefits.

Some of these people are eligible for benefits but have not applied for them because they are still working full time. Test emphasized that it is desirable for these people to apply now to establish their social security benefit rights and to qualify for the hospital insurance protection that begins in July, 1966. He emphasized that no one can lose by applying for benefits as soon as he reaches 65 (those who retire between 62 and 65 may receive cash benefits but in a permanently reduced amount. They are not eligible for hospital insurance until they reach 65).

Many of the people 72 or older are not now getting benefits because they (or their husband) had not worked enough under Social Security to qualify. Many of these people will now be eligible for cash benefits because the law reduces the amount of work required for most people 72 or older.

DISPLAYING WINES that will be used in the wine testing and gourmet dinner Friday night in the Mayflower Meeting House is Stanton Lorenz, assistant manager of the Mayflower Hotel and one of the proponents of the idea of having wine tasting dinners. The French Consul, stationed in Detroit, will be one of the honored guests.

In Mayflower Meeting House
Honor French Consul
At Gourmet Party

More than 400 suburban gastronomes will gather for an evening of wine tasting and gourmet food savoring in Plymouth at the Mayflower Meeting House on Friday, October 22, at 8 o'clock as Ralph and Stanton Lorenz pay tribute to Monsieur Jean Le Direach, consul general of France.

Among the French vintages to be tasted and tested will be 1964 Julianas Beaujolais, a 1962 Pouilly Fuisse white burgundy, a 1961 Chateau Roumieu Barsac Sauternes, a 1964 Beaujolais Blanc, 1961 Chateau Monconseil Lateour, a 1964 Travel Rose from the Rhone Valley, and New York State champagne and "cold duck." The 1964 selections will be available exclusively through the wine shop.

Wine connoisseurs and experts will be on hand to call attention to such nuances of the vintages as its bouquet, color, body, aroma, dryness, acidity, and other qualities.

"France has 1,400,000 wine growers," Stator Lorenz points out, "and, with the help of such wine knowledgeable masters as Alexis Lichine, we have tried to bring the finest vintages from all areas of France to our guests this Friday."

Many of the wines have come to the Port of Detroit via the seaway and according to Ralph Lorenz, "have rested in the cool Mayflower cellars just long enough to quiet them, down after their extensive sea voyage."

Decorating and preparing the extensive hors d'oeuvre chaud and froid buffet table will be ice carvings created by the Round Table Club Chef de Cuisine William Wright who is also in charge of decorating, in the French tradition, the trout, salmon, hams, turkeys, lobsters, king crabs, Spanish shrimp, and other gastronomic delights for both eye and palate.

Among the cold canapes will be eggs, tartar sandwiches, caviar, anchovies, and items heretofore experienced only by the well-traveled.

Oysters Casino, crab meat Lorenzo, breast of western hens, cheese puffs, and other creations will be found among the hot canapes.

The hors d'oeuvres table will be filled with clams, baby Japanese shrimp, stuffed celery, marinated mushrooms, crab fingers, and other imported domestic delicacies.

Invitations for the affair have been issued to suburban civic and cultural leaders, to the Round Table Club, to Mayflower Champagne Dinner patrons, to participants at previous wine tastings, and to members of local gourmet classes.

The Mayflower Meeting House which is in the heart of Plymouth at 455 S. Main Street was recently opened to take care of large banquets and parties which could not be conveniently accommodated in the Mayflower Hotel, which is across the street from the Meeting House.

Rotarians Honor Sid Strong

ling Cutler. Then came the honors. Carl Caplin, immediate past president of Rotary, presented a bouquet of roses to the couple. Mayor James Houk read a proclamation praising Sid for his long years of services to the city and the community.

City Manager Richard Blodgett told how Sid was Plymouth's first city manager and that he was the designer of the city flag and seal.

Herald Hamill, longtime member of Rotary and longtime friendly rival of Sid in the engineering world, reminisced and told many humorous stories of his associations with Strong.

Kenneth Hulsing, long associated with Sid in Scouting, told how Strong influenced a father of three daughters to get interested in Boy Scout activities.

"Never regretted a minute of the work," said Hulsing. "But I'm still a still amazed that he was able to talk me into getting into Scouting."

Hulsing told how Sid became a Scout leader in Sault Ste. Marie in 1915, just five years after Scouting was introduced in the United States, and has been active ever since.

Strong was the first Scoutmaster of a troop in Plymouth in 1928, served with District 7 in the early '30s and is still busy with the Scouts of the Sunset District as it is now designated.

"He is now on the most important committee in Scouting in Wayne County," said Hulsing.

ing. "He has made greater contributions to the movement over the years than any other single individual in this area."

"There is a time when we gather around to hear the story of a man's life when he is there before us in body but the spirit is gone," said Henderson. "I would like to have Sid Strong hear from us today the things that normally aren't said until persons are gone."

Then he picked up parts of the funeral services of a great church and reflected that these are the words often spoken too late but in this case were being related to the individual in person.

"That's how we all feel of you, Sid," he closed. "We want you to know that today and we hope you have many other birthdays in the years to come."

The fellow who succeeds does not pass the buck—he just passes all his competition.

Local Men Strike It Rich

John Strohmer of Livonia, Warren Hansen and Orson Atchinson of Northville were among many local men who "struck gold" in their closets last week.

Yes, "struck gold" in their closets!

They found that their old outdated suits were worth 8 to 12 dollars during Lapham's "trade-in" days.

Between now and October 23 Lapham's are offering $8 to $12 on any suit toward the purchase of one of these great suits — Kuppenheimer, Botany 500, Andover, Clippercraft.

Lapham's are also giving a generous trade-in allowance on your old ties, too!

These four great names give customers a price range in smartly-styled suits ranging from $55 to $125.

In addition to receiving money for their old suits, customers at Lapham's are given immediate and expert tailoring for their new suits.

Approved a request from Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes for two additional telephones in her department which also includes the water department.

for applications for rezoning changes. He indicated that meetings of the Planning Commission are costing the Township $180 for each session and that a great part of this cost should be borne by those requesting the changes, which involve public hearings, special meetings, legal opinions, etc. He asked Clerk Sparks to make a study and report costs of such applications in surrounding areas.

Made request to the Fire-Administration Board for a report of the activities of John Leneghan as personnel advisor and training co-ordinator. He has held that position for the past six months.

City Gets Grant To Continue Its Plan Program

Congressman Weston E. Vivian announced from Washington that Plymouth will receive a Federal grant for approximately two-thirds of an additional total of $9,962 which the city will spend for comprehensive planning under the Urban Planning Assistance Program administered by the Urban Renewal Administration.

The Federal grant will finance additional planning work, including: preparation of a Comprehensive Development Plan, including plans for major land use, thoroughfares and community facilities; preparation of a capital improvements program; and preparation of zoning ordinances and subdivision regulations.

Received a report from consulting engineers Johnson and Anderson that a new engineer has been assigned to handle the City of Plymouth account. There was some disagreement by the commissioners over alleged mistakes by the previous engineer assigned to the account.

Authorized the City Manager to make a study of a proposed increase in inspection fees for subdivisions and report back with recommendations.

Authorized the City Manager to take bids for fencing around the new city reservoir. The Commission also approved dedication ceremonies on Sunday, Nov. 7.

Accepted recommendations from the City Manager in regard to the Police Chief situation for study. Blodgett earlier recommended that the assistant police and fire chiefs be boosted to the rank of chief and the position of Director of Public Safety be abolished with present Director Kenneth Fisher receiving the title of Administrative Aide to the City Manager.

However, a problem arose over the elevation of Assistant Chief Loren Johnson who refused the promotion on the grounds that it would involve moving from his beautiful Township home to the city as required by City Charter. Johnson indicated he was satisfied with his present position and preferred to remain in that capacity.

Blodgett's recommendations will be studied by the Commission and reviewed by the members in a committee of the whole meeting scheduled at the call of Mayor Houk when he returns from Washington.

Authorized the City Manager to draw up a new agreement with an operator and Salem Township for the refuse dump. He also was asked to study possible revisions of the ordinance so that charges could be made for excessive dumping by business firms or citizens.

Authorized the City Manager to take bids on the old ladder fire truck which had been declared obsolete with the purchase of an aerial truck earlier.

Your Chamber In Action

You Can Help

Development of the non-residential tax base in the community has, since 1958, been a primary objective of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce.

The Chamber, home of the Industrial Development Corporation, the Plymouth area Planning Commission and the Economic Development Committee, feels that we will have better schools and more community services with a sound balance between residential and non-residential tax base.

If you, as a citizen of the community, know of a business or industry contemplating a move, won't you let the Chamber know. It could provide additional new workers and increased payroll for our area. Does it surprise you to know that this is the way almost every new industry has come to Plymouth? Adding business and industry is much easier than increasing taxes.

in the land perform—the great Massillon High teams under the equally great Paul Brown when he put together a string of 52 straight victories.

Teams that played Massillon then took 52-0 beatings and came back to play excellent ball against remaining foes.

This is high school football that is being played at Plymouth. These aren't pros, these are boys playing their hearts out because they like the game. Sure they didn't like to take a 52-0 licking anymore than the coaches and the fans liked to see it.

But, lest we forget, these are still high school boys, trying to do their best and when they meet the best (as they did against Trenton) most anything can happen and it did this time.

Better days are ahead for the Rocks. They could come right back and it could be in this week's game.

We are proud of the way the team performed. They were still fighting at the end. What more can one expect. Buck Up Rocks. There will be other homecomings in the future and they will be happy ones. This was Trenton's year just as Plymouth had it's big year two seasons back.

C&O File Application to Create 26,400 Mile System

WASHINGTON—The Norfolk and Western and Chesapeake and Ohio Railways have filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission a joint application to merge and create a 26,400-mile system that they said "plainly promises a true competitive balance in the East" with the proposed Pennsylvania-New York Central system and "offers a realistic approach for resolving what is probably the most troublesome problem involving the railroad industry today."

That problem, the N&W-C&O said in the application signed by Herman H. Pevler, president of N&W, and Gregory S. DeVine, president of C&O, is "finding a means of preserving the viability of independent or financially weak Eastern lines in the face of changing rail patterns."

The applicants said they are willing to accept an ICC condition to approval of their merger that they take into their system, through subsidiaries and under specified terms, Erie Lackawanna, Delaware and Hudson, Boston and Maine, Reading and Central Railroad of New Jersey, "Erie Lackawanna, Boston and Maine, Reading and Jersey Central have incurred very substantial losses for several years . . ." the N&W-C&O state. "While the other line involved, Delaware and Hudson, has reported a net profit in recent years, it cannot hope to survive the competition of the proposed Pennsylvania-New York Central system, according to this Commission."

The application notes that the East is served at present by four major railroad systems—the N&W, with 18.3 per cent of the gross revenues, the C&O-Baltimore and Ohio, with 26.4 per cent, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, with 31.2 per cent and the New York Central Railroad Company, with 24.1 per cent. But the ICC has before it an application of the Pennsylvania-New York Central to merge.

Final arguments in the Penn-Central case are scheduled October 20. Approval of their application would create a system of 23,271 miles of road, with gross revenues of $1,806,000,000 and total assets of $6,041,000,000.

"This proposed Pennsylvania-New York Central system (including the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company) would have about 57 per cent of total gross revenues against only 25.4 per cent for C&O and 17.6 per cent for N&W," the applicants assert.

The merger of the N&W-C&O, with the inclusion of the five other railroads, would create a system with gross revenues of $1,822,000,000 and total assets of $5,900,000,000.

Of the cities having a population (1960) of 50,000 or more in the 23 states, the District of Columbia and two Canadian provinces which would be served by the proposed Pennsylvania-New York Central combine and 117 would be situated on the lines of the unified N&W and C&O system.

The N&W-C&O application observes:

"Applicants propose a two-party plan which plainly promises a true competitive balance in the East since the two systems will have almost exactly equal gross revenues and almost exactly equal total assets."

The N&W and C&O say their unification will produce a sounder and stronger railroad system capable of providing effective competition, thus improving job opportunities and job security for the employees of the two lines, and especially for employees carriers proposed to be included.

The applicants assert the merger "will be entirely consistent with the public interest, as it will make possible the achievement of substantially improved service to the public, increased efficiency, better car supply and dynamic competition both within the railroad industry and intermode. In addition, significant savings in overall expenses can be achieved."

The Erie Lackawanna, Delaware and Hudson and Boston and Maine have recently filed petitions with the ICC asking to be included in the present N&W system. The filing of the N&W-C&O application was made necessary by the fact that the N&W must reply to the ICC on the petitions of the Erie Lackawanna, Delaware and Hudson and Boston and Maine.

IN REDFORD TOWNSHIP

Challenge At The Ballot Box

A hasty glance at the election ballots which face Redford Township residents during the next four months is enough to send the average citizen off to a dark corner, shuddering and muttering "What's the use?" to himself.

For the old adage about death and taxes is about to be underscored again. Most Township residents will get three millage requests from now to March 1; half the community will get four.

And, like it or not, every one of these requests is essential if the community is to have minimal police and fire protection, basic school services and adequate recreational facilities. Those voters who will take more than a hasty glance, who will study each proposition on its own merits, cannot help but come to this conclusion.

For one thing, the package of tax requests, when viewed against recent Township financial developments, is not as much as might be first glimpsed. Take the first batch of requests, coming up Nov. 2. Police and fire protection, now at substandard levels, will seek 1.5 mills; recreation, a tiny one-third mill. Total tax increase on the average Township home—$7.60 a year, or 12 cents a week.

But the cost is not going to be even that high. For one thing, the Township lighting assessment will drop this year $1.20 on the average home. And if increased fire department equipment is voted, the Township's insurance premiums will drop $120,000 a year according to Lansing authorities, about $5.50 on most homes.

The second millage request comes Dec. 14—for South Redford school voters — when the Board of Education will ask five mills for operating expenses. Restoration of bus service, language programs, library book purchases and other academic programs all hinge on the outcome of this vote.

Despite the division in the ranks of the community, critics and supporters of the Board alike know what is at stake. Their vote Dec. 14 will let the Board know exactly what kind of program they want.

Finally, March 1, voters will get the county-wide Community College issue before them, coupled with what probably will be a request for 1.25 mills. The rising number of high school graduates who need a close-to-home place for study dictates a "yes" vote here, too, despite the disappointment shared in the denial of a vote on affiliation with Schoolcraft College.

The danger is real today that some, or all, of these necessary tax increases may be killed because of shortsightedness on the part of some voters. The immediate task for all concerned citizens is to plunge into the campaigns today and insure that the first test is passed on Nov. 2.

The ratio of one one-man patrol car for each 17,000 residents, the low salaries which have driven away both police and firemen and the rotting light poles at our sports facilities need immediate and lasting remedies. "Yes" votes can do the trick.

As a sidelight on the shortsightedness of a small handful of citizens, The Observer refers to the comments of some south end residents this week. Apparently upset over the thorough job done by police in keeping violence from erupting when an interracial couple moved in last week, these residents are threatening a "no" vote in some perverted sense of revenge.

They apparently resent the police patrols which discouraged trouble in the affected neighborhood.

To blame police for doing their job is ridiculous reasoning. Redford Township's small police force did an excellent job and should be commended for helping to keep the violence that has flared in other suburbs from erupting here. If anything, the police force deserves a strong vote of confidence Nov. 2.

THE READER SPEAKS UP:

Children Are The Losers

Editor: I was going to stay out of "to bus or not to bus" until the battlers ate each other up. However, since once more the debris will be left to the children, decided to send a few messages.

Message to interested citizens . . . parochial or public . . . when and if a child is hurt physically or intellectually forget about blaming school boards, state boards, Dems, cops, yellow journalism, etc. Place the blame squarely where it belongs — upon the conscience of public and parochial parents who stayed home on election day or went out not once, not twice, but thrice to mark an X indicating NO (millage). It is a choice they had a right to make and a right to live with.

Not once, but twice, the same thing happened on a Schoolcraft College vote. So, if the other community college passes, don't cry, just pay up . . . again, there was a choice.

Message to the parochial parent who wrote he helped educate "Interested Citizens'" public school darlings. Why not, he is a member of the public, no? Besides, he had no choice there . . . it is a law that public schools be maintained by the public. However, he can take small comfort in the following facts . . . ALL public school children are not Protestant . . . ALL parochial school children are NOT darlings. They are ALL children, though, and it is up to honorable adults to support the best interest of them ALL.

Cheers,
JUST ME

Halloween Festivities

Editor: Since Hallowe'en falls on Sunday this year the question arises whether the usual celebration will be on Sunday evening or on Saturday evening. The answer to this question cannot be settled by the usual methods because the celebration is a universal matter with no legal application.

Research has showed that the last time Hallowe'en came on Sunday (1954) begging and other celebrations were done by most people on Saturday evening in the Detroit area. How this was accomplished is not clear from the facts at hand. This letter is written to receive reaction from you from your readers on when this celebration should occur. It is written because as a churchman it is my responsibility to plan a program on that evening. The success of this venture and the cost of putting it on depends on the response of the members with small children.

Through public discussion now perhaps a consensus could settle the question of the day of celebration and alert traffic officials to the most crucial time for youngsters on the street.

'Fine Public Schools'

Editor: I have to answer Mrs. Mullen's letter of last week when she was very unfair to the taxpayers of Redford Township. She said we should supply her children buses or police to help them cross Telegraph Rd. to go to a private school.

Now she knows that we taxpayers have supplied her children very wonderful schools on her side of Telegraph with safety and convenience a pleasure. All she has to do is enroll them. Let's stop hearing these parochial cries her help. They are not alone in paying school taxes. Oh, yes! We have very fine public schools to mention a few — Michigan State, Michigan, Wayne, etc.

Observing the Scene . . .

By MYRA CHANDLER

Last week the Governor of our state held a conference to promote natural beauty in Michigan. A steering committee is presently preparing a report on the recommendations of the 650 citizens who attended. A follow-up program of action is intended after the report.

The goal is to make Michigan the best-groomed state in the nation.

In looking over the reports on the conference I was delighted that it hit on the litter problem, water pollution, air pollution, and scenery pollution. All worthwhile.

There is one pollution they did not discuss that seems important to the general scene — it is what might be called architectural pollution. Namely the blanketing of suburbia, ruining almost every corner, with poorly constructed, horrible looking gasoline stations.

True, Taj Mahals they cannot be, but do we have to have so many, and do they have to look like Dogpatch?

In Livonia, where they still have considerable undeveloped land, the planning commission has taken a stand against a gas station on every corner. There is no questioning the need, but four corners, four gas stations is too much.

Redford Township is an example of this over-saturation. Particularly is it unfortunate on the main artery of the Township, Five Mile and Beech-Daly Road. The Township fathers have tried to make an interesting approach to Township Hall and a civic center — one surrounded by gas stations.

More thought should go into planning the stations architecturally. There are standard things to do such as careful landscaping with flowers, green lawns, shrubbery, better maintenance including fresh paint, cleanliness and an over-all neatness.

But more than this.

Traveling through New York State this past week I noticed several stations built as a part of a complex of stores — and the most interesting repeated in several areas was a semi-circle of stores, in brick. The end of the semi-circle, near the corner was a gas station. It really caused me to do a double-take — It was neat, attractive, part of the community of stores and added, not subtracted from the business community.

In New York State local planning commissioners have a drive on to approve only gas stations that are designed to blend in with the surrounding architecture.

If you think this is over-emphasis, perhaps it is because your area is routine to you. The eye-sore does stand out to the newcomers and strangers to your community. Cross over the border and take a drive around any strange suburban area and you will get the impression of what your home town looks like on the approach.

Let's hurry and take an interest in areas that are not built up and begin packaging our gasoline more attractively. Let's keep the suburban look.

Second Class Citizens?

Editor: Regarding Alfred D. Young's article in The Observer concerning "Civic Association Month," why isn't there a civic association representing the residents west of Hubbard and north of Five Mile? Is there any possibility there will ever be a civic organization to represent these property owners or are the civic associations listed primarily for the new homes in the subdivision?

NEW RESIDENT,
OLDER HOMER
Livonia

Because of An Easement . . .

An easement, which is slightly more than a path leading from the rear of Farrand School to the adjoining street, is the direct cause of an uproar that may result in the Plymouth Community School District Board of Education making a complete change in its policy in regard to transportation.

The Board has had a policy of not transporting youngsters within a distance of a mile from the school unless in hazardous traffic areas. It will transport those in grades K through five who reside beyond the mile ranges but within a mile and a half.

The distance of a mile and a half has been set by the State and no state aid is given for transportation of students residing within that limits.

All of which brings us back to the situation in Plymouth where the School Board found itself facing a group of irate parents residing in the Five Mile and Schoolcraft Road areas of the Farrand School district.

These parents were livid in their anger against the school board not transporting youngsters in the third, fourth and fifth grades who had been given bus service a year ago.

They pointed out that their youngsters had to walk along the shoulders of Five Mile and Schoolcraft Roads with their backs to traffic because there aren't any sidewalks and neither was there bus transportation under the rules of the School Board.

They told of the dangers involved and reminded the Board and administration of two youngsters who had been struck by cars along each of the roads in recent years.

They wanted to know why they weren't notified earlier of the change in the plans for transportation — most of the parents didn't receive word of the change until the Wednesday of the week before the opening of classes.

They wanted to know why the letters telling of the changes didn't have the complete statement of the school board policy. (A school clerk erred in typing the letters and left out one of the big factors of the policy and the omission wasn't noticed until the letters were in the mail.)

The answers finally came from a harassed administration and a School Board which was trying to solve a rather embarrassing situation.

Finally, the parents were told that the easement made a difference in the bus travel, that a measurement of the closest route via the easement placed most of the youngsters under the mile limit.

It was the easement that apparently made the difference. It meant the differences between the youngsters in the third, fourth and fifth grades riding as they had a year ago and walking.

It made quite a difference in the temperaments of the parents who paled at the thought of their children walking along Five Mile Road with traffic at their back.

It has stirred up action that will probably bring a lot of changes in the township within a reasonably short time. Perhaps, if nothing else, it has made people aware of the fact that there aren't sidewalks for the youngsters to walk on. They have to walk on the shoulders of the roads.

We somehow feel that the School Board could relax things a bit this time. It seems a bit strange that a mere easement could cause such trouble. It seems like a very picayunish reason for the administration and the Board to act as they have.

Somehow, we feel that inasmuch as these youngsters did have transportation a year ago that they should have it this year. We can't agree that it would be a change in policy, it would be just carrying on without any thought of the pesky easement.

The Board will act on this matter Monday in a special meeting. We hope they will bear in mind the trouble a little easement has caused.

Bible Truths To Be Topic

Roger MacKenzie, of East Point, Ga., will be the featured speaker at a Gospel Meeting on the "Truths of the Bible" at the Church of Christ in Livonia. The meeting will be conducted daily Oct. 24 through Oct. 31.

Sunday services are at 10:50 a.m. and 7 p.m., while the Monday through Saturday services are at 7:30 p.m.

A native of Lloydminster, Saskatchewan, MacKenzie graduated from David Lipscomb College in 1950. He has been preaching for the church in East Point for the past five years.

Article Scrutinizes Worth of Revivals

Every fall, revival or evangelism services are conducted in many of the "fundamentalist" churches in the area.

Why? Obviously such programs entail an expenditure of both time and money. Do they fill a need or accomplish a purpose?

The answer to the last question could be debated endlessly. However, a recent issue of "The Memorial Messenger" published by the Memorial Church of Christ in Redford Township contains a "selected" passage entitled "Do We Need A Revival?"

"Yes!" In fact, "Yes," three times over," states the article. Three basic points are listed in support of its conclusion. They are:

- Backsliders need to be reclaimed.
- Sinners need to be converted.

- The whole church needs an increase of faith, knowledge, grace, zeal and good works.

"Just consider those people you know right now who fit into one or more of the groups and you will be shocked to realize just how important this revival really is," concludes the article.

Vice-President's Livonia Visit Is Open to All

Thousands of suburban residents will pour into a site on Six Mile Rd. west of Farmington Rd. early Friday morning to hear Vice-President Hubert H. Humphrey.

In Livonia for the dedication ceremonies of the new Adlai Stevenson High School and to kick off the city's 20th anniversary celebration of the United Nations, Humphrey is expected to make a major foreign policy address.

The Livonia Board of Education has invited residents of Farmington, Redford Township, Garden City, Nankin Township, Plymouth and other nearby communities to join Livonians at the public ceremonies. On hand will be Congressman Billie S. Farnum, state senators and representatives and local officials.

The ceremonies are scheduled to begin at 9 a.m. sharp, shortly after the touchdown of Humphrey's helicopter, which will arrive here from Metropolitan Airport.

Spanish Visitors Impressed With American 'Mobility'

Three industrialists from Spain wound up a five-week tour of the U.S. and Canada with a visit to Livonia last week before winging their way across the Atlantic for home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. de Rotaache and Mr. E. Andres were the guests of J. A. Ditzhazy, a local manufacturing engineer for the Kelvinator Corp. Both Andres and de Rotaache are affiliated with the firm's Spanish subsidiary. Andres as a chemist and de Rotaache as an engineer.

"We're impressed by your way of living, the mobility and education of the persons with whom we've come in contact," the visitors said. "Supermarkets, the methods of housekeeping . . . these I found most interesting," said Mrs. de Rotaache.

All three pointed out that Spain is rapidly developing its industrial capacity. "Our standard of living is rising, and in the past five years, Madrid has grown extremely fast, much of its growth based on U.S. development and investment.

"We hope to enter the common market in Europe," they added.

All three saw changes in the political system in Spain — "the young people are developing political know-how, not leaving things up to the old Fascist politicians any more," they said. And they were optimistic about future development of better relations between the U.S. and Spain.

Ditzhazy, who lives in Farmington Twp., frequently guides foreign visitors through this area as part of his job.

Traffic Specialist

Airman James G. Pyhtila, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice J. Pyhtila, 11072 Sunset, Livonia, has been selected for training at Keesler AFB, Miss., as an Air Force air traffic specialist. The airman is a 1962 graduate of Redford High School.

Conference Termed Huge Success

Colleges Meet at Schoolcraft

Officials of the Michigan Association of Junior and Community Colleges reported that the 31st annual conference of the Association was an unqualified success. More than 900 administrators, Board members, and faculty members from 24 Junior and Community Colleges attended the Conference on the Schoolcraft College Campus.

The theme was "Cybernetics and the Community college"; and leaders of the 25 sectional meetings were unanimous in their reports that this theme provoked lively and valuable discussions.

At the same time, Dr. George L. Hall, Director of the Midwest Community College Leadership Program, and the Reverend Dr. Charles E. Morton, a member of the State Board of Education, spoke briefly to the Community College administrators of the state and led in a discussion of the effects of cybernetics on community college goals and objectives.

The final session was held in Roma Hall where Robert Theobald of the Center for Study of Democratic Institutions, New York City, was the principal speaker.

Theobald discussed the subject, "New Technologies and Institutional Changes." He said that the most revolutionary change in the world today is that man is achieving the power he has sought for so long—the power to control his environment.

He stated that the three main factors of this power are unlimited energy sources, sufficient resources of brain power, and the computer. He reminded that whereas there were one thousand computers in 1950, there are 26,000 in the United States in 1965. He outlined the spectacular drive of the nation toward unlimited productive power and claimed that there are sufficient resources in the nation already to abolish poverty if we really want to do it.

Theobald declared there is a mismatch between our present institutional and value structures and the reality of the world in which we are living. He gave as an example the assumption that we should provide decent incomes only to people who can hold jobs.

MAKING FINAL ARRANGEMENTS for the annual smorgasbord served by the Pilgrim Shrine 55 in the Plymouth Masonic Hall are: (from left) Mrs. Effie MacDougall, General Chairman Mrs. Edith Hill, Mrs. Elizabeth Stewart, Ticket Chairman Mrs. Evelyn Brocklehurst and Bazaar Chairman Mrs. Florence Conery. The big affair is slated for Saturday, Oct. 30 and reservations may be made by calling the ticket chairman at 453-6490.

Teacher Hurt in Accident

A 23-year-old teacher, Sally Marie Evans, was badly hurt when the car she was driving struck a dump truck driven by Leonard Shadowens, on Farmington at the intersection of Shiawassee. Shadowens was hurt but not as severely. Miss Evans was heading west on Grand River. Shadowens was going in the opposite direction on the same street.

According to the Farmington Police report, Miss Evans failed to yield the right of way.

Be optimistic, but don't expect everybody to be logical.

Livonia GM Tradesman Boosts Suggestions to $2000 Awards

A Livonia skilled tradesman boosted his "suggestion box" cash awards beyond the $2,000 mark last week, when the Hydramatic division of General Motors awarded him $750 for a suggestion to reduce repair costs on shot blasting machines. The lucky employee is Isadore A. Tomczyk, 9911 Hubbard. He has been employed by the firm for 30 years. His latest suggestion involved the installation of special magnesium wear plates in the roof lining of a shot blasting machine, substantially reducing repair costs and simplifying the repair process, according to GM officials.

Tomczyk has two children—a married daughter in Arizona and a son studying at Michigan State.

Name Karrer Works Chief At Diesel

The appointment of Charles J. Karrer as works manager at Detroit Diesel Engine Division of General Motors, was announced by C. W. Truxell, general manager of the division. Karrer replaces T. L. Pais, who died suddenly on Sept. 24.

Karrer joined Detroit Diesel as a General Motors Institute student in 1941. His tenure at Detroit Diesel was interrupted for almost three years during World War II while he was on duty with the U. S. Air Corps.

In 1949 he graduated from General Motors Institute and received a Bachelor's Degree in Industrial Engineering. He later received a Master's Degree in Industrial Management from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

After completing his studies at GMI, he joined the manufacturing department as a junior process engineer. He was made assistant Master Mechanic in 1957, and was promoted to Master Mechanic in 1960, a position which he held until his present advancement.

Warn Seniors of Deadline For Exams

High school seniors in the 14th Senatorial District wishing to apply for a state scholarship through the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority are reminded that the registration deadline is Oct. 31, according to State Senator Farrell E. Roberts of Pontiac.

Roberts noted that there are nearly 6,000 scholarships available for the 1966-67 academic year "but it is unfortunate that so many students who could qualify do not because they are unaware of these scholarships established by the Michigan Legislature.

In alerting eligible high school seniors, Senator Roberts stated that students may—

(a) Secure a State of Michigan Competitive Scholarship registration form from their own high school;

(b) Mail the registration form and $1.50 fee, with self-addressed envelope by Oct. 31, as defined in the registration instructions;

(c) Take the State Competitive Scholarship examination on Saturday, Nov. 20 at 8 a.m. at the assigned center.

Roberts stated that high school offices should have the necessary details available—but if not, students may write the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority, 700 Prudden Building in Lansing.

Falcons Stun East Detroit

Who's Farmington? Look!

"Who's Farmington High?" So went the chant around East Detroit High last week. After all, East Detroit had won four straight in football to rank fifth or sixth in the state Class A polls, depending on which rating system you read.

Now Farmington was just a so-so team. Certainly not in East Detroit's class. "Why should Farmington bother to show up," some hollered around East Detroit as they prepared to make the trek across town to face the Falcons last Friday afternoon. Farmington obviously didn't read the East Detroit press clippings. By the time the Saturday papers hit the street, the stories deal with one of the major upsets of the season—Farmington beating East Detroit by a 21-7 score.

What does a coach of such an underdog team say when it's all over? "I'm shocked: I can't believe it... but this is wonderful," declared Farmington's Dick Tyler.

He then added: "Our kids were just magnificent. We played them off their feet in the first half and held on to win with no problems in the second half."

Tyler added that his Falcons "were up for East Detroit... we made no mistakes and no fumbles."

He's hoping Farmington can produce the same kind or even better game this Friday against Walled Lake.

Walled Lake, another state power, is 2-0 in the Inter Lakes League, Farmington 1-1.

A Laker win means an outright title. If Farmington can triumph, the teams would share the flag.

Farmington bounced away to a flying start in the first quarter after a 50-yard drive ended with a 14-yard field goal try failing.

Ray Lardie had churned for 18 and 24 yards to help Farmington on the advance. Mike Wilson also assisted on two short passes to Ron Short.

Farmington wasted no time getting back the ball. Joe Cranston picked off an East Detroit pass on the latter team's 30 and scooted to the two from where Johnson barged in.

Wilson rifled two touchdown passes before the half was over to put the Farmington lead to 19-0. First there was a 26-yarder to Dan Klawender after Johnston and Lardie had combined for some neat runs.

A recovered fumble set up the third Farmington TD. The Falcons got the ball on the East Detroit 35 and in short order Wilson unloaded 13-yard, six-point strike to Jerry Tinkle. Johnston added the point.

East Detroit put on a long drive in the third period to register its only touchdown, but in the fourth period Farmington marched from its own 20 to the East Detroit seven on runs by Johnson, Short and Fritz Simons.

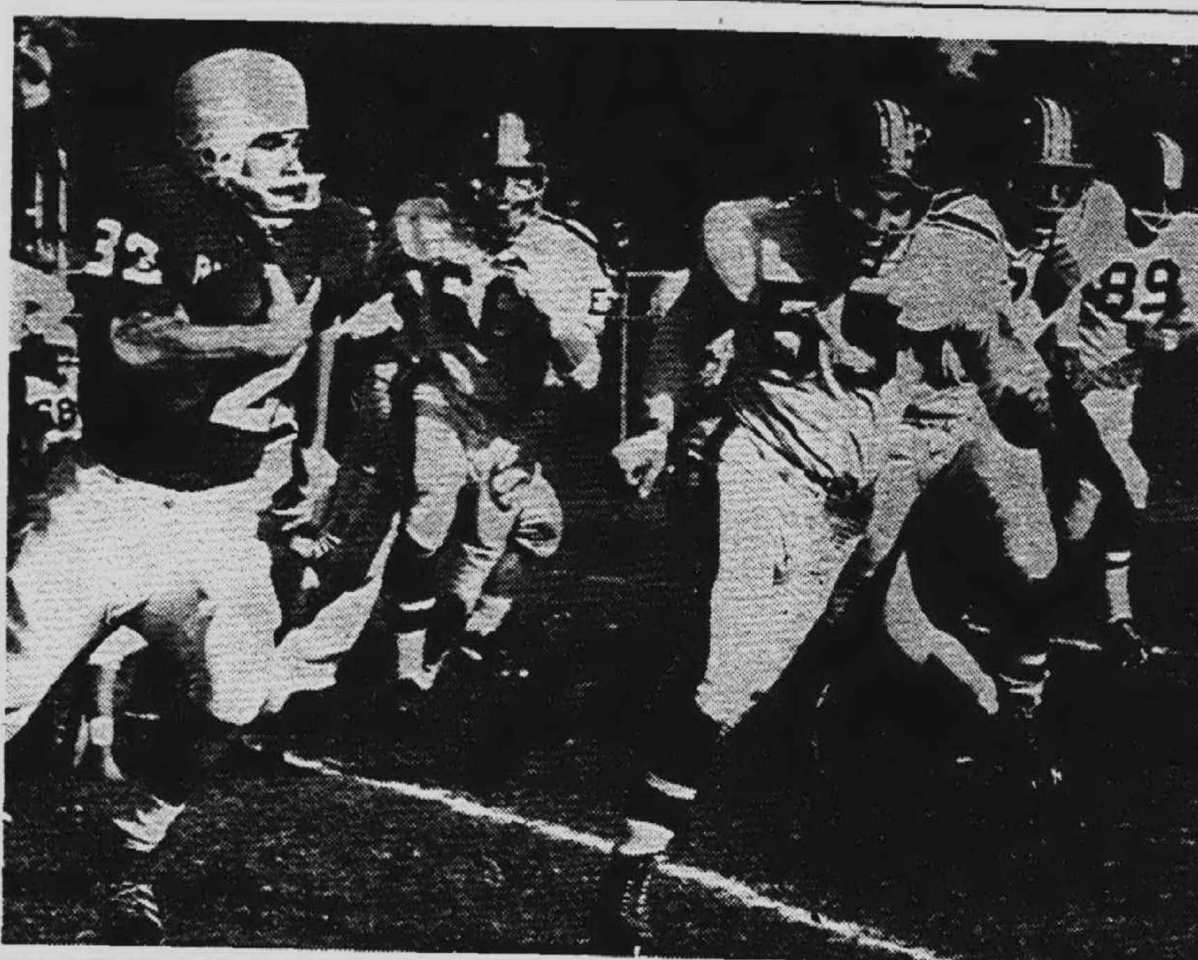

After the Falcons were stopped, they pushed East Detroit backward and finally added two points on a safety. Johnson was the workhorse for Farmington with 92 yards in 23 carries as his mates totaled 140 yards on the ground.

Wilson clicked on four of his 12 passes—two for touchdowns—58 yards.

East Detroit's powerhouse picked up just 145 yards rushing and 78 on the ground, but much of the production came where it didn't hurt Farmington.

Until Friday, East Detroit had not yielded a touchdown.

It's pretty certain that around East Detroit this week they know all about Farmington.

HALFBACK RAY LARDIE (32), of Farmington High, finds a wave of East Detroit tacklers coming his way as he tries to skirt end. Moving in on the Farmington speedster are: Dave Thomas (66), Center Harold Sharpin, Tackle Guilio Catalo (77) and End Chuck Kirby (89). The Falcons handed East Detroit its first defeat in a decided upset in last Friday's homecoming game at Farmington.

Perfect Records At Stake

Something must give Friday night.

It'll be Bentley vs. Trenton in a battle of unbeaten-untied at Trenton with:

1—The Suburban Six League championship riding on the outcome.

2—A high state ranking at stake.

Both teams will take the field with identical 5-0 records.

The winner will be assured no less than a share of the conference crown which Bentley and Trenton divided in 1964.

Bentley's big job will be to try and cage Eric Federico, the crack Trenton back who romped for three touchdowns last Friday in Trenton's 52-0 rout of Plymouth.

The Livonians meantime were pressed to beat Belleville, 19-13.

Bentley Coach Larry Joiner wasn't looking past Belleville at Trenton. But, perhaps, his proteges were.

However, Bentley delivered when the chips were down... and that's what counts in sports, or anything else.

Two recovered fumbles started Bentley off in high gear and to a pair of touchdowns.

The first Belleville bobble followed a poor snap from center on fourth down. The miscue gave Bentley the ball on the Belleville 14.

Bob Elmsner of Bentley promptly smashed to the Belleville two from where Bill Woods carried into the land of sunshine.

Minutes later, Elmsner flopped on another Belleville fumble—this one on the Belleville 45. Two plays moved Bentley some 20 yards before Greg Coleman drilled up the middle for 25 and the touchdown.

That's the way matters stood at half time... with Bentley leading, 12-0.

Belleville rallied in the third period the running of Jack Wilkens. His team drove for 58 yards and Wilkens carried on 10 of the 12 plays before he went the final yard for the TD.

This effort put Belleville in the thick of contention until Coleman unloaded a 32-yard scoring pass to Woods to put the game out of reach.

An intercepted pass in the closing minutes paved the way for Randy Hall to score Belleville's second touchdown.

Then with Belleville in charge of the ball, Brian Lucas came up with an intercepted pass for Bentley to end the west suburbanites' last hopes to pull the game out.

Belleville outruled Bentley, 160 to 118 yards. In passing,

MIKE KNIGHT (42), of John Glenn, comes up fast to tackle Franklin's G. Liest (88) after Franklin rolled past Glenn in its first homecoming game on its home field. Carl Lutinen (85) tries to block out Knight but misses the assignment.

UNDER ACCIDENT CLAIMS LAW

Franklin Downs Glenn

The test of a good team is ability to come from behind. That Franklin did last Saturday in beating John Glenn, 19-14, to make the most of homecoming and the first football game—varsity style—to be played on the Livonia school's new grid stadium.

Glenn had gone ahead early and held a 7-0 half time lead after an intercepted pass and runback and brought the Wayne team to the Franklin nine.

From there, Caudill of Glenn took a couple of slams and went over from the two.

Then Glenn had another good chance, only to be stopped on the Franklin one. This goal line stand apparently spurred Franklin into a stirring effort in the second half.

Running and passing to perfection, Franklin put together a long march which finally brought a touchdown when Carl Lutinen made a sensational diving catch in the end zone of a three-yard pass by Gary Birkett.

In the sustained march, Larry Naifeh and Gary Junk did most of the ball-carrying while Birkett twice hit Al Jose on neat passes.

A brilliant 50-yard pass play from Birkett to Jose set up the second touchdown of the game for Franklin.

Jose hauled in a "look-in" from Birkett some ten yards behind the line and then sprinted away from the Glenn defenders before he finally was dragged down on the Glenn ten.

A play later, Steve Dippert went around end for the touchdown, going eight yards.

Franklin put on another march—this one of some 60 yards—to bag what proved the game's deciding touchdown. Junk, Naifeh and Gary Rogalski pounded away for good yardage and Birkett hit Jose for a good gain to put the ball on the Glenn ten from where Naifeh charged over.

A Franklin fumble helped Glenn to count again with Holland scoring from the two.

The bright spot for Franklin was Birkett's quarterbacking and passing.

"He gave us our best passing of the year," said coach Bob Bentley.

The victory gave Franklin's defending Northwest League champs a 2-1 record in their bid to repeat. But they're still a game behind North Farmington (3-0) and Franklin lost against the Raiders.

West Scores 1st Victory

The losing famine has ended for Garden City West high's football team.

After dropping four in a row, West arose to scalp previously once-beaten Schafer, 18-14, last Friday and spoil the homecoming celebration for the Southgate school.

The secret to winning as far as West coach Harold Burkholder was concerned came in the way his team handled the ball.

Heretofore, fumbles had hurt West badly. This time the Garden City team didn't make a miscue.

Important, too, was the fact that West didn't buckle in the early moments of action when Schafer struck on a quick touchdown pass to Len Hughes.

"The way things had gone in other games, it wouldn't have shocked me had the kids lost heart," said Burkholder.

But West was determined in this one. After Schafer scored, the Garden City team began a drive which paid off with Bo Ardell taking a pitch and going across for the touchdown from 23 yards out.

Ardell, Mike Raft and Benjie Schoemaker had taken turns in moving West some 70 yards.

Schafer was looking for another pitch-out in the second quarter, but Ardell fooled 'em. Instead, he found Taft out in the open and hit him with a 42-yard scoring pass to make the score 12-7 for West at halftime.

Each side sparked defensively in the third period, which produced no scoring.

Came the fourth period and West cashed another six-pointer. A 19-yard gallop by Ardell set up Shoemaker to run across the goal line from the four.

With two minutes left in the game, West had a kick blocked and Schafer turned it into a touchdown.

But, by now West had the decision locked up.

Schafer's vaunted passing attack made little headway against West. The losers tried 26 attempts and wound up with net gain of 38 yards through the air.

West totaled 284 yards rushing and 54 on the ground. Schafer made 149 yards rushing.

"The kids have been playing well," concluded West coach Burkholder. "Remember, we have been losing to some tough clubs. They really had this one coming."

Northville's Steve Juday Makes Spartans Click

EAST LANSING—Michigan State's football team, a pre-season choice to finish well down the Big Ten pack, is the only conference club with an unblemished record after five games, and the person most responsible for the Spartans' quick start is senior quarterback and co-captain Steve Juday, of Northville.

Juday's value isn't measurable in passing percentages or rushing statistics. It lies in his complete repertoire of quarterback skills—calling plays, ball handling, passing, scrambling for yardage himself, and team leadership.

The first "three-year" quarterback the Spartans have produced since the early 1950's, Juday is known as a heady ballplayer. The 163,219 fans who saw the poised Northville athlete direct his team to a 2-7 decision over arch-rival Michigan can attest to his field generalship.

His exhibition included a perfectly placed pass to end Jim Proebstle on Michigan's one-foot line to set up State's first touchdown. He took it across himself one play later. It also featured a scrambled field goal attempt that saw him recover a high pass from center, elude four Wolverines and hit half-back Clint Jones with a perfect pass on the 12-yard line to set up the field goal that put the Spartans ahead to stay.

Juday's greatness was predicted when he was still a freshman by Coach Duffy Daugherty. He said Steve already knew more about the Michigan State offense without benefit of yet stepping on the field than some Spartan signal callers did when they graduated.

When a reporter after the Michigan game asked Duffy about the plays he'd called in the game, the smiling Irishman said that, with very few exceptions, it was Juday who ran the Spartan offense.

With the biggest games of his career yet ahead of him, Steve twice. Saturday's contest will go a long way in determining the conference champions this season.

Spearheading the Purdue effort this fall has been quarterback Bob Griese, a junior who's following in the tradition of Ron DiGravio and Len Dawson. In a brilliant sophomore season last year he compiled 1,081 yards total offense. The Spartan secondary will remember him as the youngster who connected on seven of 10 pass attempts against State last fall.

All-America end Bob Hadrick is Griese's favorite target and senior Gordon Teter and Randy Minniear lead the Boilermaker running attack. End Harold Wells, tackle Jim Garcia and linebacker Bill Howard are the big names in the Purdue defensive picture.

The Spartans continue to feature the running of Bob Apisa, Clinton Jones and Dwight Lee along with the potent passing of Steve Juday to end Gene Washington and Jones.

Vic Heyliger Named Puck Team Coach

ANN ARBOR—Vic Heyliger, former University of Michigan hockey coach, now living in Colorado Springs, has been named as coach of the United States National hockey team.

Heyliger will train the squad in Minneapolis for the 1965-66 season for the 1966 World Championships in Yugoslavia in March.

M Cagers Have Three Big Gaps

ANN ARBOR—Michigan's defending Big Ten basketball champions opened practice for the 1965-66 season in Yost Field House last week.

While the Wolverines, spearheaded by Cazzie Russell, two-year All-American, and Capt. Oliver Darden, are expected to be strong again, three of last year's regulars will be missing for the coming campaign.

Graduated is Bill Buntin, twice All-District NCAA center and three-time All-Big Ten pivot man, along with Larry Tregoning, forward, and George Pomey, who teamed with Russell in the back court.

Chief returnees among lettermen besides Russell and Darden, are Jim Myers, 6-8, 210, senior forward; Craig Dill, 6-10, 205, center; John Thompson, 6-0, 170, guard; John Clawson, 6-4, 200, guard or forward; Dan Brown, 6-5, 210, guard; Dennis Bankey, 6-1, 175, guard and Van Tilton, 6-3, 190, forward.

Dill, the tall Saginaw junior, understudied Buntin last year and will be favored at center. Myers, a senior, could be Tregoning's successor, while Russell's running mate could be Thompson, Brown, Bankey or Clawson.

In coming sophomores will find the going difficult, with Jim Pitts, a 6-3, 175-pound guard from Detroit's Northwestern high school, as the man most likely to succeed.

Last year Russell broke his own Michigan single-season scoring mark by counting 692 points in 27 games. Two years ago he scored 870 for a 24.8 mark as compared to 25.6 last season as the Wolverines won the Big Ten title and gained runner-up honors to UCLA in the NCAA finals in Portland, Ore.

Raiders Surge on To 5th Victory

There's no checking North Farmington high school's football charge to succeed Franklin as Northwest League champions.

The Raiders of Coach Ron Holland could sew up a title share this Saturday when they host Thurston with the kickoff at 2 p.m.

North Farmington will go forth with a spotless record—five straight wins—against Thurston. Three of the North Farmington triumphs have come in league play, the most recent a 34-7 scalping of Birmingham Groves last Friday night.

The brilliance of Bill Oldershaw at quarterback has had a lot to do with the success of North Farmington this season. Running and passing, Oldershaw borders on the spectacular.

Consider what Oldershaw did against Groves:

- 1—He had a hand in four of the Raiders' touchdowns:

- 2—He hit on eight of 19 passes for 155 yards.
- 3—As a runner Oldershaw picked up 91 yards.
- 4—His grand total of yardage for the game was 246 yards.

The 17-year-old, six-footer began the scoring with an 11-yard run to cap a long march which started when North Farmington received the opening kickoff.

Before his TD run, Oldershaw had reeled off a 40-yard gallop. Grey Wysinski and Larry August also gained some ground in the movement.

Bengt Hansen, the exchange student from Sweden, booted his first of four conversions.

Groves retaliated with a Raffert to Cosmi pass to tie the score at 7-7 in the second period.

The deadlock didn't stand long—just long enough for Oldershaw to unwind a great pass to August, who hauled the ball in and was off to the races. The play covered 55 yards.

It was Oldershaw around left end for 15 yards to make it 20-0 for North Farmington.

Then the NF quarterback dropped back and slipped a nine-yard, scoring toss to Rick Schultz to up the North Farmington lead to 27-7.

Perhaps one of the game's most exciting runs came near the finish and was credited to one of North Farmington's defensive players, Roger Schmanek.

He picked off a Groves' pass on his own 45 and zoomed 55 yards down the sidelines for the touchdown.

North Farmington fashioned nine first downs to two for the losers. In total yardage, NF garnered 306 to 232 for Groves.

After Thurston, only Oak Park will remain in North Farmington's path to an undisputed league title.

R. Union Swamped on Defense

How to have the offense and the defense click at the same time!

Coach John Rogers of Redford Union high's football team would like the answer.

Rogers was happy with the way the RU attack improved against Allen Park last Friday night.

But, oh, the RU defense.

The net result: Allen Park triumphed by a 32-18 score.

Yet, you wouldn't have guessed RU could have lost, by looking at the first downs fashioned in the game. The Townshippers ran up 17 to just seven for the Parkers.

Yardage wise, Allen Park made 297 to Redford Union's 253.

"We just let them slip away for too many long runs," moaned Rogers after the game.

It all started for the Parkers on the third game of the play. They had received the kickoff and moved for a couple yards.

Then John Jenkins drove over tackle and roared for 62 yards. The Parkers led, 7-0.

Minutes later, another gallop carried the Parkers to the RU one from where Jenkins pushed in for the marker.

Redford Union stormed back to start the second quarter. Rod Ferguson broke away on a six-yarder and it looked for a moment like the Townshippers were ready to do something.

But the kickoff went to Bill Szoszek on the Parker 15. He ran up the middle, did a fancy step or two... and there he was all by himself with RU men chasing him.

He wasn't caught and the Parkers had improved their lead to 19-0.

Once more, RU bounced back. This time on a 19-yard pass from Glen Davis to Mark Ross to make the score stand 19-12 at halftime.

The lone score in the third period came on an 18-yard run by Szoszek.

Earlier in the fourth, Ross struck paydirt for RU on a seven-yard run and the score stood at 28-18.

But before the final buzzer, Jim Paling of Allen Park picked off a RU pass and scooted 65 yards to put the game out of reach.

Now it's RU vs. Plymouth this Friday night. Both teams are struggling record wise, but this won't mean a thing in a game between such arch rivals.

LaFond's 3 TD's Win for Seniors

It may require a cage to check Cliff LaFond, Our Lady of Sorrows' great halfback.

He has become the finest runner in the school's grid history. So says Bud Webster, a man who should know.

Webster coaches at Sorrows and has for a long time.

A week ago, LaFond scampered for 177 yards.

Last Sunday he outdid himself as Sorrows struck from a 13-0 deficit to beat Nativity.

All LaFond did was:

- 1—Pick up 285 yards in 23 carries, which is an average of 12.6 yards.
- 2—Score all three Sorrows' touchdowns.
- 3—Add one extra point.

It was a wide-open game. Sorrows rushed for 418 yards and picked up 69 more passing.

Nativity garnered 195 yards on the ground and 211 more through the air.

But Sorrows was able to adjust, defensively, in the second half, to hold back Nativity.

Two long bombs had put Nativity in front, 13-0, in the first quarter. Mike Vitale tossed 55 yards to Jerry Sommers for the first score and then hit the same Sommers on a 35-yard TD toss. Vitale clicked for one conversion.

Sorrows fought back with one touchdown in the second period and won it with two more scores in the fourth.

With LaFond and Dave Hickey pounding away, Sorrows pushed to the Nativity five from where LaFond went through on a dive for the TD.

After a scoreless third period, Bob Urban intercepted a pass for Sorrows and returned it 14 yards to the Nativity 34. Two plays later, LaFond took a swing pass from Jim McGrath and scooted for a touchdown.

A penalty nullified the extra point on the first try, but then Jim Barnes went over from the eight to put Sorrows on top, 14-13.

Late in the game, a great Nativity punt stopped dead on the Sorrows eight. On the next play, LaFond ripped through—going 92 yards to put the game out of reach. Again Barnes ran the point.

This Sunday, it's St. Rita at Sorrows.

Thurston Romps, Now For Battle

It'll be do or die for Thurston high school's football team this Saturday against North Farmington.

The Townshippers must come forth with a victory over the Raiders to keep alive their bid for a title in the Northwest Suburban League.

Once beaten in the loop, Thurston should be ready for Saturday's clash at North Farmington.

Turning loose a brilliant all-around effort, Thurston swarmed over Oak Park by a 27-0 score last Saturday.

"This was a dandy," said Coach Bill McDonald. "I think if we play like this, we can get the job done against North Farmington."

At the moment, North Farmington stands 5-0 with a 3-0 record in the league.

Paul Santangelo turned in the "hat trick" in pacing Thurston to its conquest against Oak Park.

The fleet junior halfback screamed for three touchdowns. First he went 30 yards to count.

Next came a 24-yard dash into paydirt.

Finally, Santangelo turned loose on a 16-yard gallop that landed him in the end zone.

Oak Park had its problems with Thurston's crackerjack pass defense which picked off five passes.

One of the interceptions was Reggie Barringer who turned the grab into the afternoon's most spectacular scoring dash.

Barringer threaded his way for 70 yards to the goal line. A half dozen times, he had to work his way free from would-be tacklers.

Dan Harris' fine toe accounted for three of the four Thurston conversions.

No Groans From East

No coach sings with joy after his team has been scalped by a 42-0 score.

But Bill Wilson wasn't crying last Friday night when he left the gridiron following Garden City East's drubbing against Riverview.

"We knew that Riverview had much too much for us," declared Wilson.

"After all, they have an all-veteran team... just about everybody back from last year's Mid-Wayne League champions.

"We were hard hit by graduation. (Only two of East's first 24 returned).

"We're playing mostly sophomores. Heck, we'll have veterans to throw against their new guys next year."

For Riverview, its win over East extended an unbeaten-untied record to five. East has managed only one triumph thus far.

There were some bright spots for Garden City East.

Marvin Martin continued his great two-way play. He went all the way on offense and defense.

Steve Fugban, East's young quarterback, also showed he'll be ready to run things full time next year.

He ran 35 yards to the Riverview two and then went over for his team's only touchdown.

It'll be homecoming for Garden City East this Friday night against Robichaud.

Wilson thinks his boys can come through with a big surprise.

St. Agatha 'Lucky' to Tie, 13-13

St. Agatha high's football team made the most of two breaks Sunday.

The results: a 13-13 standoff against Ypsilanti St. John's.

But Coach John Trellay of St. Agatha had to admit his team was lucky.

"They pushed us around pretty good," he said. "Yet, we easily could have beaten them, and then were fortunate that we didn't lose it."

Here's what happened:

St. John's moved with the opening kickoff to the St. Agatha four. Then followed a fumble which was picked by Larry Rigley.

He didn't stop running until 96 yards later and a touchdown.

A Mike Walznick to John Manocko passed added the point.

Not much later, St. John's fumbled again. This time around midfield.

Walznick quickly fired a scoring pass to San Sweeney, a sophomore, to make it 13-0 for St. Agatha at half time.

The score remained that way until the last period when a St. Agatha fumble on its 30 led to St. John's first touchdown. The try was good and the Townshippers clung to the lead, 13-7.

St. Agatha had the ball with two minutes to go on its own 25. It was just a matter of running out the clock.

But on a rollout, the ball was bobbed. St. John's linebacker made the pickoff and ran for the touchdown.

This tied the score at 13-13.

St. John still could win it by converting. But St. Agatha ganged up the runner and was able to walk off the field with a tie.

Neither will Trenton's coach.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

If you're a football bug, may we suggest an interesting weekend trip.

Why not skip down I-75 to Toledo, turn eastward on the Ohio Turnpike, follow it to the Canton exit and pull your buggy up to the entrance of Pro Football's Hall of Fame?

You'll find the time and money consumed more than worth your while.

We visited the Shrine last Wednesday when the Pistons invaded Canton where they scalped Wilt Chamberlain and the Philadelphia 76ers. We hadn't realized that the basketball arena was along side the football stadium (where the Lions lost to Washington in an exhibition), which in turn is along side the Hall of Fame building.

So we lured Morrie Moorawnick and Bill Rodgers and hopped the 100-yard route in almost nothing.

It was just a shame that we had only 45 minutes at our disposal. To fully digest what the Shrine has to offer requires three or four hours.

To us the most thrilling of all the presentations were those honoring the great Earl (Dutch) Clark. That's because we have known the Dutchman for something like 20 years and frequently bump into him around the University of Detroit.

Dutch is enshrined at the Hall of Fame. His plaque stands with names like Cal Hubbard, Bronco Nagurski, Bob Waterfield, and many others.

You see the famed "No. 7" uniform that Clark wore when he was with the Lions. There, too, are his helmet, his jacket, his shoes.

There are films of the Lions in action in some of their most memorable moments and they have tapes of famed broadcasters from NBA cities recalling big moments of the past. You can listen to Van Patrick, Bob Reynolds, Don Kremer and Bruce Martyn heralding former feats of the Lions.

As you walk around the encircled shrine, you are amazed over the changes that have come in football equipment in 25 years. The football itself has been slimmed down from its once soccer-size to make it possible for passing to become the integral part of the game it now is.

The old helmet resembles the winter hats our little kids wear. There was no such item as a face guard.

The Shrine has its own library jammed with every book on football there is.

And there are thousands.

There is a special theater where movies recap the championship games of years gone by.

One thing which disturbed us, however. No referees are saluted in the Shrine.

Somehow, we feel that the men in the striped shirts have played just as important a role as the players and the owners in putting across pro football. Or for that matter, any sport.

Maybe the Shrine should herald men like Ron Gibbs or Charley Berry, two of the best with whistle the game of football ever has seen. Gibbs has quit working actively on the gridirons proper. He now sits in the press boxes and supervises the NFL arbiters.

But when we saw him a few weeks ago in Springfield, Ill., he looked fit enough to be able to keep pace with the modern gridiron warriors.

The admission to the Shrine is a buck for adults, less for youngsters.

You can stay as long as you wish.

They tell me that the fall is the best time to see the building. The crowds aren't as great. You aren't pushed in seeing what's to be seen.

The ride itself to Canton is comparatively a short one. Our bus took about four hours. By private car, you can make it in 3 1/2 hours. It's virtually all expressway.

The football shrine offers just another reason why we Americans should choose someplace within our own confines when looking for a place to visit.

Some day we want to get over to Cooperstown, N.Y., where Baseball's Hall of Fame is located... and still another "must" for us is Springfield, Mass., the new home of basketball's Hall of Fame.

Pacers to Open On Thursday In Windsor

Over 500 standardbreds, most of them familiar to racing fans of the Detroit and Windsor vicinity, are stabled, poised and ready to open the initial meeting of Windsor Raceway, Thursday evening.

In addition to those now occupying Windsor's barns, Racing Secretary Joe De Frank will also have at his disposal another 150 head that will be quartered on nearby farms and "commute" to the track.

A portion of the regulars scheduled to compete during the 51 night stand through Dec. 18 include Ray Gauthier and a dozen of his string from Hazel Park, Fred Goudreau with another 12 from the East Side Detroit oval, Wally MacIllmurray (12), Warren MacIllmurray (4), Mac McQuarrie (12), James and Tom Merriman (16) and Howard Niles (10).

Heading the Wally MacIllmurray contingent will be the consistently popular mare, Imperial Gal, and the four-year-old Yellow Bird.

The minus 51 yards rushing to which Michigan State held Michigan in 1965 set a defensive record for the Spartans in that department in Big Ten competition.

DRC Has Tight Race for Jockey, Trainer Honors

A tight battle for jockey honors; a belated bid by Jack Van Berg to retain his title as the top trainer; a prize contest for fans and eight major stakes vie for attention as the 84-day Detroit Race Course meeting moves into its final three weeks.

An old timer and a promising youngster are engaged in the duel for riding honors. They are 44-year old Robert L. Baird, who has been a headliner at the DRC since the Livonia track opened in 1950 and James P. Bowlds, an 18-year old apprentice.

Bowlds had a 10-victory margin over Baird and appeared to be well on his way to the riding title when he received a five-day suspension from the Stewards.

During Bowlds enforced absence Baird was in top form and won nine races. As a consequence when the youthful Bowlds resumed riding his advantage was cut to one victory.

Now, through the stretch run of the meeting the pair seem certain to remain in a tight battle. No other rival is in a position to threaten them.

A year ago, Apprentice Glynn Bernis and Danny Gargan tied for riding honors with 56 victories each. Bowlds and Baird have already topped that figure.

Van Berg, whose father, the

For the second straight year, the DRC is sponsoring a $1,000 Shopping Spree at Wonderland Center, Middlebelt and Plymouth Roads, as a salute to its merchant neighbors on the Center's Sixth Birthday Celebration.

Coupons for the Shopping Spree can be obtained at Wonderland. The drawing for the big prize will be held at the DRC on Wednesday, October 27. On that day, The Wonderland Center Purse will feature the day's racing card.

The first of the eight major stakes remaining to be contested will be raced Saturday when the $7,500 Sophomore is scheduled. It is a test at a mile and one-sixteenth for three-year-olds.

Rocks Blasted In 52-0 Defeat

It's just a long, long year... What else can John McFall say? He took over as head football coach at Plymouth when the campaign began.

Now with the year better than half over, Plymouth still is to show a win. The Rocks have lost four and tied one.

Last Friday was a night the Rocks would just as soon forget.

They knew they were up against a power in Trenton.

But Plymouth never figured the game would end up the way it did—Trenton winning by a 52-0 score.

It was one of the most lopsided contests ever involving a Plymouth team.

Trenton rolled to 165 yards in the first half and added 243 more in the second.

For Plymouth, the net yardage figure stood at a feeble 22 yards.

There was little McFall or any of his assistants could say. The unbeaten-untied downriver forces who this Friday face Bentley for the Suburban Six League title scored two touchdowns in each period.

Trenton scored on the ground and through the air.

First it was Keith Patterson who intercepted a pass and scooted 30 yards for a touchdown.

Then followed a 60-yard drive with the great Eric Federico, a cinch for all-state honors, going the last six.

It was Federico again in the second from the one to cap a 45-yard movement. Lance Scheffer made it 26-0 at halftime with a 21-yard dash after Trenton had started back on its own 60.

Federico fashioned his third TD in the third period, going in from the 19 after Trenton again had moved from its own 40. The sixth touchdown came on a neat 33-yard pass from Carl Lutz to Jay White.

Lutz barged over from the one and flipped a 30-yard touchdown pass to White to rap up the scoring in the final period.

Still left for Plymouth are Redford Union, Allen Park and Walled Lake. Not one classifies as a soft touch.

Always Remove Old Adhesive To Reglue Veneered Pieces

When the veneer of a table top or other piece of furniture comes loose, it can be successfully glued back to its base only if the old adhesive is removed. Sometimes it is easier said than done. It is especially difficult if the veneer is only slightly lifted from the surface and there is no apparent way to scrape off the old glue.

A method sometimes recommended is to steam the veneer with a hot iron after first wetting the left-over cement.

It may be that an expert can perform this task without damaging the veneer. Don't try it.

There are any one of half a dozen reasons why it may cause trouble, entirely aside from the fact that it won't even work unless the glue is water-solvent. The safest procedure is to lift the veneer very carefully to the point where there is some resistance.

Push a putty knife spatula into the opening and scrape gently.

If there still appears to be some hardened glue there, place sandpaper between the veneer and base and rub it back and forth as best you can, using the flat part of the putty knife to assist you.

If the opening is very narrow, it may take you a while to get results, but this is better than failing to make a good repair.

Use a tiny artist's brush, typewriter brush or something similar to clean out the area, then apply new glue with a wire or anything that will get between the veneer and the base. Place a cloth over the top of the repair and pile on books until the glue sets.

Just how long this will be depends on the type of glue used, so read the label on the container to determine the setting time.

For safety's sake, allow even longer than is recommended. Regluing the loose veneer may be part of an over-all finishing job.

In that event, removal of the old finish is best done before tacking the veneer. But putting on the new finish should come later.

Perhaps a week should elapse between the veneer regluing and the application of the finishing material.

This is especially important if any rubbing is to be done, otherwise you risk the chance of disturbing the bond between the veneer and the base in the spot which was repaired.

When the entire veneer top of a table is in very bad condition, and a repair appears useless, remember that there are various materials that can be used for a new surface, among them plastic laminate.

Even if you have neither the tools nor skill necessary to cut the laminate properly, you can get it cut to order at a lumber yard.

PO Department Acts To End Rust Problem

WASHINGTON, D.C. — According to an announcement by the United States Post Office, the Department now has "rust on the run" and expects to "save more than one million dollars a year in vehicle maintenance through a new rust-proofing process."

In the last year, 14,000 postal vehicles have been sprayed with a rust-inhibiting petroleum. The rust-preventive material is sprayed through holes drilled in the hidden panel areas. It is in these areas where salt, moisture, and acids collect to cause rust and corrosion.

"The anti-rust compound prevents corrosion from occurring and should keep a vehicle nearly rust free for a minimum of four years," R. A. Wedin, the Post Office Department's Chief of Vehicles Branch told the National Petroleum Refiners Association Convention at the Roosevelt Hotel in New York recently.

Wedin said that two-thirds of the 47,000 vehicle postal fleet is located in areas of the country where rust and corrosion is a major problem. Approximately 40 per cent of the body repairs for these vehicles is attributable to rust. He estimated a first year potential savings at $234,000.

"The greatest expenditure must be made during the first year," Wedin said. "After that, our savings should run over a million dollars annually." Ziebart, an international automobile and truck body rust-proofing organization — with dealerships extending from Puerto Rico, the Eastern Seaboard, Canada, the Midwest, all the way to Hawaii — possesses one of the few rustproofing sealants approved by the Post Office Department. In addition, Ziebart has the only patented spray tools available which can do the job properly to the required engineering specifications.

Corrosion does its highest damage in the north where salt is used on slick roads, and in the coastal regions where there is a high salt content in the air, Wedin said. The new process also stops further rust in older vehicles.

Fall Brings
Added Fire Hazards

Fire is still a very real threat around the home, even in this day of fireproof building materials and extensive fire prevention programs.

This is especially true in the fall, when dry leaves, grass, and other foliage add to the threat.

If you haven't already, now is the time to take stock of the fire safety practices at your house. This list of tips might suggest ways to help you prevent fires or fight them, if they get started.—Don't burn leaves or other refuse in an open fire when other ways are available.

If possible, burn these dry materials in a perforated galvanized steel rubbish burner with a close-fitting cover. That way, gusty autumn winds won't blow sparks and burning embers around.

If you do start an open fire, make arrangements ahead of time to control it.

—One good "stitch in time" is to fill several galvanized steel pails with water or sand before you strike the first match. With this precaution, you can douse a fire before it gets away from you.

—Store gasoline, turpentine, kerosene, cleaners, and other flammable fluids in leak-proof metal containers, away from sources of heat or sparks.

You'll want to drain the power mower after the last grass cutting this fall. Use a galvanized steel fuel can to store the gas. Do the same with the cleaners and solvents you'll be using for fall painting and tool cleanup.

—Give the basement, garage, and other areas where refuse is apt to collect good fall cleaning—and make a resolution to keep them clean.

Discard or burn old newspapers, rags, and other trash which might cause a fire. Home workshops, with their accumulations of scrap lumber, sawdust, and other flammable materials, also should be cleaned. By keeping a galvanized steel trash can handy, you can store the waste safely until it can be hauled out.

Follow 5-Step
Fire Prevention
Home Program

Here are five steps the homeowner can take to help prevent a fire from starting in and around the house:

1. Dispose of trash and rubbish regularly. Don't let it accumulate around the house. Store in fire-safe galvanized steel containers until it is picked up by refuse collectors.
2. Keep attic, basement and closets free of old clothing, curtains, drapes, lamp shades, mattresses, newspapers and old magazines.
3. Don't empty ashtrays until the contents are completely cold. Use ashtrays which are large and deep enough to keep burning cigarettes from falling out onto the floor.
4. Have your heating and cooking equipment checked periodically. Chimneys also should be checked to be sure they are not clogged.
5. Store all paints, thinners and solvents in tightly closed metal cans, away from any heat source.

Marlite PegBoard is available in 4'x8' panels. This plastic-finished paneling, which comes in many colors and patterns, is ideal for doors, feature panels, room dividers, closet lining, and many other uses.

Here Are Tips On Safe Way
To Store Gasoline and Oil

Accidents involving the storage and handling of fuel could be eliminated if all gasoline and oil were stored in fire-safe fuel cans instead of glass bottles or other substitute containers, safety officials agree.

Galvanized steel fuel cans should have tight-fitting caps and convenient pouring spouts to facilitate handling by any member of the family. The caps on these rust-resistant fuel cans lock in dangerous fumes that present a fire hazard.

The pouring spout should come into contact with the tank when handling gasoline. This serves to ground the spout and prevents the formation of static electricity, which could ignite the fuel.

A small spark from a cigarette or match is enough to ignite gasoline. Adults should adhere to strict safety procedures when handling gasoline not only to prevent a deadly fire, but to set a good example for children.

Fire and safety officials emphasize that gasoline and oil present no safety hazard if stored in steel fuel cans and handled properly.

FOR EFFICIENT KITCHEN

Three Steps Lead Way To Well-Planned Layout

Planning a kitchen is one of the most complex chores involved in designing a home...

Three primary steps are:

necessary in successful kitchen planning.

1) Choose suitable space standards. Determine the amount of storage, counter and activity area that will be required.

2) Plan the location and arrangement of the kitchen in relation to the rest of the house.

3) Plan for efficient operation. Select the location and relationships of appliances and cabinets.

Few Rules Help One Get Most from Food Freezing

There's more to freezing food than keeping it safe for consumption.

In a modern refrigerator-freezer, properly frozen food should be as appetizing, flavorful and high in nutritive value as when it was stored away.

or become discolored by the heat and steam in the kitchen area.

Plastic-finished Marlite paneling is becoming increasingly popular for use in kitchens.

Marlite is available at most local lumber dealers and can be installed by the home handyman over old or new walls, solid or furred.

If remodeling a kitchen or building a new, popular "second kitchen" is in your future plans, remember that proper planning is essential.

All three of these steps must be carefully coordinated to create a kitchen that is just what mom wants.

Another important aspect of kitchen planning is choosing durable and easy-to-maintain materials.

NIEMELA CONSTRUCTION COMPANY BUILDING? REMODELING? It will pay you to consider the more efficient methods...

"Got Cold Feet? There's Nothing Like A FIREPLACE from TOWN 'N' COUNTRY!"

To safeguard the original quality and freshness of food, freeze it as soon as possible.

The zero-degree temperature maintained in the freezer compartments in most of today's refrigerator-freezers is important for proper freezing.

Frozen food must also be protected from exposure to air which can cause drying out and flavor loss.

Although almost all food will stay safely and tastefully frozen for substantial periods of time, it is a good idea to know the recommended length of storage for different items.

New Marlite murals are popular for sprucing up bathroom walls. Their heat and moisture resistant qualities make them practical for bathroom installation.

Farmington Gardeners Win Macomb Honors

Four members of the Hill and Dale Garden Club of Farmington were invited to participate in the Roseville Garden Club Flower Show held at the Macomb Shopping Mall.

All four Hill and Dale members helped bring added honors to the club. Mrs. Edward Rosinski, the most consistent blue ribbon winner in the club, took top honors among all exhibitors.

Her arrangement in the "Statue of Liberty" won a blue ribbon and a Tri-Collar Award of Merit (for the highest point score of any arrangement in the artistic division of the show).

The trip to Roseville was very gratifying to the Hill and Dale Garden Club.

Architects Generally Save Buyers Money

Many persons consider an architect as a man who "draws plans" for a home. He does, but actually this is a minor part of his job.

Architects also contribute to home building efficiency by selecting contractors who offer reliability at a fair price.

Temperature and humidity affect your comfort. One is as important as the other. A FRAM Power Humidifier will control the humidity in your home.

Indoor-Outdoor Living With Backyard Patio

It's indoor-outdoor living the year around with a patio that extends from your rear picture window or wall.

You'll find your patio just as enjoyable during the winter months if you plan an artistic composition that creates an ever changing mural from November to March.

Cox suggests pacing out the area in your yard that is used for outdoor activities. It will probably be bigger than your living room.

Remember that the most beautiful home grounds are those that blend naturally with the surroundings. Take advantage of natural setting and native flowers and shrubs, Cox advises.

Cox suggests you study your family's way of living and develop your landscape plan around this pattern.

If you expect to use your patio frequently you will want a ground cover other than grass.

Remember that the most beautiful home grounds are those that blend naturally with the surroundings. Take advantage of natural setting and native flowers and shrubs, Cox advises.

Garden Clubs Join in Flower Show

District One of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan in conjunction with the Charles W. Warren Company presented "The Magic of Poetry" an exhibition of table settings and flower arrangements, including the Steuben collection, "Poetry in Crystal", on October 14, 15, 16.

The show has been an annual affair for 11 years and again was a lavish and beautiful display of flowers and fine crystal, china and silver.

A press reception was held Wednesday night and a tea for exhibitors and guests on Thursday.

Many women from the garden clubs in this area contributed garden club members acted as hostesses.

OLD YELLER, the Walt Disney film about a boy and his dog, is coming to the area. The Terrace Theatre in Livonia and the Penn Theatre in Plymouth have both scheduled showings of the film beginning Oct. 27. In conjunction with the film's engagement at The Terrace the management of that theatre and the Michigan Humane Society are sponsoring a "Win A Puppy Contest."

Kids—Win A Puppy Contest at Terrace

The Terrace Theater in conjunction with the Michigan Humane Society is sponsoring a "Win A Puppy Contest."

It's simple. Only two things are necessary.

The first according to the Humane Society is your parents' consent on winning a puppy.

Then answer this question in 25 words or less "Why should people be nice to puppies?" Mail your answer to the Terrace Theater at 30400 Plymouth Rd., Livonia. The contest ends Nov. 3.

In addition to winning the puppy of your choice, the child submitting the best answer will receive: six months supply of Gaines Dog Food; one year of medical and preventative care at the Cardno Animal Hospital in Garden City; plus a puppy bed, collar, leash, etc. from the AAA Bird and Pet Stores at Wonderland.

Many consolation prizes will also be awarded.

Representatives of the Michigan Humane Society will be at The Terrace Oct. 30 and 31 between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. They will provide dog registration tags to any resident who wishes to register his pet with the Humane Society.

In addition to this service, literature on the society will be available as well as some puppies from its downtown headquarters.

Farmington Players Announces Opening

"Ladies in Retirement" opens the Farmington Players 1965 season Nov. 5, 6 and 7 and Nov. 12 and 13.

The play is a murder-mystery and derives its title from the fact that Leonora Fiske, a retired chorus girl, is murdered by her housekeeper companion.

Written by Edward Percy and Reginald Denham, the play is set in the 1880's. The play doesn't make the audience guess who the criminal is, but lets it watch the murderer at work.

Dorothy Miller will appear as Ellen Creed, the murderer. The housekeeper's two balmy sisters will be portrayed by Joyce Fisk and Nancy Harrower.

Scarab Club Schedules Exhibition

All artists in Michigan are invited to submit entries for the Scarab Club's 22nd Annual Watercolor Exhibition on or before Nov. 5.

The exhibition will be hung in the Scarab Club Gallery, 217 Farnsworth, Detroit, from Nov. 12 through 29.

A jury will select the work to be included in the show and award a first prize of $100, a second prize of $75, third prize of $50, the Detroit Color Council Prize of $25, and three honorable mentions.

Artists may submit up to three paintings for judging. An entry fee—$3 for Scarab members, $4 for non-members—and an entry card must accompany the work they submit. Entry cards may be had by writing or calling the Scarab Club office.

Fairbanks Film Slated Sunday

Douglas Fairbanks' fantasy of the Arabian Nights, "The Thief of Bagdad," will be shown in the Famous Early Movie Series at Henry Ford Museum theatre, Sunday, Oct. 24. Sunday only showings will be at 2 and 4 p.m.

"The Thief of Bagdad," made in 1924, was hailed by the New York Herald Tribune as "totally unlike anything that ever has been done."

More cinema innovations and special scenic effects went into this production than any other up to that time.

As Ahmad, the thief, Fairbanks mischievously uses a magic rope and other tricks to further his well-meant petty larceny. But all is changed after he falls in love with Zobeida, daughter of the Caliph of Bagdad.

Outstanding oldtime movies are held every Sunday afternoon now through early Spring. The movies are included in the regular admission to Henry Ford Museum.

Wally Roberts GOING UP 'CURTAIN'

The flashing, dazzling lights of Broadway still have that magnetic pull. Old Wally went out East this past week and had to spend one day closing up the World's Fair; the other was spent haunting the hot pavements of dear old Manhattan.

Since I was staying at a hotel situated immediately in back of the Waldorf-Astoria on 49th St. it would have been quite convenient to have gone directly to the hotel and avoided Times Square. A strange force, much like the inherent drive that guides the lemmings in their yearly exodus to the sea and death, pushes me ever to Times Square. I had to see those millions of light-bulbs spelling out their garish messages.

Not only did I want to absorb the violent tawdry beauty of Times Square, but also the hypnotic spell of the Automat near the Paramount Theater was drawing me back ruthlessly to the bustle and barbaric boisterousness of Times Square. For 30 years now old Wally has had an abnormal love affair with those nickel nutrition dens in New York where tidbits of food lurk behind small plate glass doors. You drop nickels in the slot, twist a handle, and retrieve your food. Nowhere else can you serve yourself in such a wild manner.

Vending machines surround us locally with any number of gastronomical delights, but our clanking vending machines lack the built-in personality of the New York Automats. Besides it's not so much the method of obtaining the food as it is the people that frequent these New York establishments. They are always ready to start a conversation, contribute to a diatribe, or add an emotional touch to a good argument.

Times Square was ablaze with the usual advertising signs. And yet with all the brightness so evident in the evening needed none of this hoopla and hurrah. "The Decline and Fall of the Entire World as Seen Through the Eyes of COLE PORTER Recorded" featuring Kaye Ballard spun its magic web without a twenty-story mass of mazzda lamps.

Audiences attending this modest off-Broadway production have been doing the selling for Kaye and her talented company performing at the Square East Theater.

To even find the Square East Theater on 4th St. in Lower Manhattan is an adventure. It's right around the corner from New York University. Busy, eager students almost hide the marquee.

Miss Ballard can do no wrong as she cavorts and clownspontaneously through an evening of song and dance all to the tune of Cole Porter melodies. Her musical mayhem partners are Harold Lang, William Hickcy, Carmen Alvarez, and Elmarie Wendel. Kaye shares the spotlight with these talented folk in a most generous fashion. Her imitation of Sophie Tucker and other songsters is but one of the many show stoppers of the evening.

"Cole Porter Revisited" starts at 8:45 p.m. The first act break arrives quickly at 9:40. A twenty minute intermission to serve drinks at your table and then the show rockets briskly to a conclusion at 10:40 p.m. If only community theater would take a lesson from the off-Broadway producers. You don't have to keep an audience all night to make them happy.

'Critic's Choice' Opens Dearborn Civic Season

Dearborn Civic Theater's first production of the 1965-66 season will be "Critic's Choice", a three-act sophisticated comedy. This very amusing story involves a professional critic who finds himself in the uncomfortable position of having to review his wife's amateur play. "Critic's Choice", a recent Broadway success, was written by Ira Levin and directed by Otto Preminger. Henry Fonda starred in the Broadway production and Lucille Ball and Bob Hope were in the movie version.

Puppets Slate Performances at Institute

Magic and fantasy take over the Detroit Puppet Theatre Oct. 23, when the B. Gay Puppets present "Rumpelstiltskin" for three performances on the Auditorium stage of The Detroit Institute of Arts.

This will be the third annual appearance of the popular puppeteers from New Jersey. Bea Geller creates the puppets and Ann Cohen writes the scripts.

Both women perform the shows live, using recordings only for sound effects and music.

The B. Gay Puppets appear regularly at the Museum of the City of New York, as well as throughout the public school systems of New York and New Jersey. They are sponsored as a cultural enrichment feature of Project Head Start, of the national anti-poverty program. The Detroit Puppet Theatre is sponsored by the Theatre Arts Dept. of The Detroit Institute of Arts.

This imaginative production of "Rumpelstiltskin" will be presented at 10 a.m., 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Oct. 23, in The Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Mail requests for tickets should be addressed to Theatre Arts Dept., Detroit Institute of Arts, 5200 Woodward Ave., and accompanied by a self-addressed stamped envelope. Call Theatre Arts Dept. at 832-2730 for additional information.

Tiger Ace Is Musician

Tiger pitcher Denny McClain is a versatile guy. In addition to his pitching—a 17-4 record last year—he plays the Hammond Organ.

Beginning this weekend he will provide entertainment at the Country Lounge, 30250 Nine Mile Rd., just west of Middlebelt. McClain will appear Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays beginning at 8:30 p.m.

The McClains presently live in Royal Oak, but are moving into Livonia in the near future.

Concert Programs Announced

The Paul Taylor Dance Company, a modern dance group of international acclaim, will open the tenth anniversary season of the Founders Society Detroit Institute of Arts Concert Series on Oct. 22.

Edith J. Freeman, chairman of the series since its origin, has announced a season of distinguished and varied performances: on Nov. 5 Sergei Obratsov, master puppeteer, will appear in a program of songs, stories and demonstrations; Dec. 13 brings Vladimir Ashkenazy, Russian pianist, who made his U.S. debut in 1958; Jan. 14—the Juilliard String Quartet; Feb. 11—Nicanor Zabaleta, harpist; May 17—Solisti Veneti, 12-member string ensemble directed by Claudio Scimone, making his first American tour.

Season tickets for this regular Concert Series are available now at the Detroit Institute of Arts ticket office (ground floor of museum), all J. L. Hudson ticket service offices and Grinnell's downtown. Individual tickets will be available after Oct. 4.

In addition to the regular concert series, a special concert will be presented on Feb. 1 featuring the Krakow Choir and Orchestra. This event commemorates the Polish Millennium (1966-1966) and is arranged in cooperation with Detroit's Polish Millennium Committee.

The month of December will bring two extra concerts of unusual interest, according to Mrs. Freeman. On Dec. 4 the Christmas season will be heralded by the Michigan Consort of Voices, Viols and other historic instruments from the University of Michigan, presenting a medieval music-drama, "The Son of Getron," and a program of carols of the period. Performers will appear in authentic costume, and play instruments of the period.

On Dec. 17, to complement The Detroit Institute of Arts distinguished exhibition of "Art Treasures from Japan" and "Contemporary Japanese Art" (Dec. 9-Jan. 16), Dr. William Malm will present a program of Japanese music performed upon authentic instruments. Dr. Malm is associate professor of the School of Music at the University of Michigan.

Individual tickets for the Krakow Choir and Orchestra, the medieval and Japanese programs will be available at The Detroit Institute of Arts ticket office, J.L. Hudson's ticket service, Grinnell's downtown after Oct. 4.

Performances will be held in The Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium at 8:30 p.m. Additional information on all these events may be obtained by calling the museum's Theatre Arts office at 832-2730.

Center Theatre Announces Plays

Center Theatre, of the Jewish Community Center announces its 1965-66 season, which will include three major productions. On Nov. 6, 7, 11, 13 and 14 this community theater will present "Tevya and His Daughters," by Arnold Perl, based on a Shalom Alechem story. This warm hearted play, which inspired the musical "Fiddler on the Roof" will be directed by Beth-Sheva Lakin.

Arthur Miller's adaptation of "An Enemy of the People" by Henrik Ibsen will be produced on Feb. 19, 20, 26 and 27. This is considered one of Ibsen's finest plays and has a theme as timely today as when Ibsen had the courage to speak out against those in power who would suppress the truth. Robert McKee, Center Theatre's new Managing Director will direct this production.

"Ring Around the Moon," by Jean Anouilh and adapted by Christopher Fry will be the May production, with performance dates scheduled on the 7, 8, 14 and 15. This sophisticated comedy will be directed by Earl Matthews.

For season tickets call Beverly Moore at UN 4-9616.

Members of the club held a second annual treasure hunt, climaxed by a buffet supper and dancing Saturday. Planning the event were club members Bob and Ann Walker, Waite and Anne Schmidt and Doug and Lorette Oak.
