Paul M. Chandler, Founder

Mrs. Shriver to Speak at Observer Exchange-Student Dinner

Mrs. Sargent Shriver, wife of the Peace Corps director and sister of the late President John F. Kennedy, will be the guest of honor at The Observer Newspapers' annual dinner honoring foreign exchange students in western Wayne and Oakland Counties.

The dinner will be held the week after Thanksgiving, on Thursday, Dec. 2, in the Mayflower Room of Plymouth's Mayflower Hotel. All foreign exchange students now studying in Livonia, Redford Township, Plymouth, Farmington, Garden City and Nankin, their American 'parents' and teenage 'brothers and sisters' will be invited to attend. Local American Field Service and Youth for Understanding program chairmen will also be guests.

Mrs. Shriver, the former Eunice Kennedy, will be introduced by U.S. Congressman Weston Vivian, who represents Michigan's Second Congressional District. Observer Publisher Mrs. Myra Chandler is in charge of arrangements, and Observer staff members, along with Paul Lutzeier, community relations director for Livonia Public Schools, are assisting.

The dinner is the second such event sponsored by The Observer Newspapers. The first was held during Brotherhood Week last February.

The idea for such an event was originally conceived by The Observer's late publisher, former State Rep. Paul Chandler. The newspaper staff carried out his plans following his death, and Mrs. George Romney was the guest speaker.

Again this year, chefs at the Mayflower will recreate the original Thanksgiving Feast of America's first Pilgrims for the dinner—everything from Hot Spiced Cider and Pumpkin Soup to Roast Turkey and Goose.

Township Told of Plans for Warehouse

First fruits born of the efforts of the Plymouth Area Planning Commission may constitute a sizable harvest in the near future, Township trustees learned last week.

Appearing at the regular Township board meeting last Tuesday, Harold Fischer, recently appointed as director of the Area Planning Commission, revealed that a large grocery wholesaler serving independent retailers has signed a purchase agreement to locate a warehouse on Haggerty Rd., south of Ann Arbor Rd.

Fischer was on hand to expedite numerous matters that will clear the way.

Fischer asked the Township board to indicate its willingness to extend 1,100 feet of sanitary sewer to serve the proposed warehouse, and to communicate with the Wayne County Road Commission regarding the possibility of having the present Haggerty Rd. weight restrictions waived so that transport trucks could use the road.

He also asked for assurance the present zoning of the 32-acre parcel would not conflict with the intended warehousing use of the property.

Board members agreed that the Township would be willing to extend the sanitary sewer, with the cost of this expansion ultimately to be borne by the users of the facility. Construction costs would be offset by future connection fees, Water Dept. head Elizabeth Holmes explained.

The board told Fischer that there is no apparent zoning conflict, and that the communication with the road commission over waiving roadway weight restrictions would be attended to promptly.

Property on which the warehouse would stand is owned by the Bunyea family. Fischer said the purchase agreement—first tentative step in securing the deal—had been signed only a day earlier.

The balance of the Township Board meeting was strictly routine.

The matter of final approval to rezone 44 acres of land on the northeast corner of Joy Road and Beck Road from country estates (1-acre homesites) to country homes (half-acre sites) came before the board and was met with further opposition from residents who live in that vicinity.

Owen McKenny, an officer of the Western Homeowner's Improvement Association, which had strongly opposed the rezoning during a Township Planning Commission public hearing, appeared at the Board meeting to protest the action.

He asked the Township Board to reverse the planning commission's recommendation to grant the rezoning request. The Board passed in favor of the planning commission's recommendation.

The 44-acre plot is owned by J.A.R. Corp. and has created considerable controversy in the past 15 months.

Reservoir Officially Turned Over to City

Plymouth's new water reservoir was officially accepted by city officials and placed into use Sunday in dedication ceremonies at the site on Beck Road at which Felix Anderson, head of the consulting engineering firm of Johnson and Anderson, formally turned over the keys to the reservoir and facilities to Mayor James Houk.

More than 100 attended the program which was handled by former Mayor Richard Wernette acting as toastmaster.

The invocation was given by Rev. Edward Castner of the First Presbyterian Church and the benediction by Rev. Fr. Alfred Renaud of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church.

First steps towards construction of the reservoir were taken by the City Commission in 1961 when it ordered a complete study of the existing water system. A major consideration was the availability of water for the foreseeable future. Extensive testing at the Six Mile site showed quantities sufficient to meet Plymouth's needs through the year 2000.

The new ground level reservoir was designed for either a ground water source or for water provided by the City of Detroit.

Besides periodic maintenance, little now remains to be done except for the following water considerations:

- 1—When shall the City construct one additional well at the Six Mile field.
- 2—Shall the City build adequate water treatment facilities to remove iron and reduce hardness.
- 3—Shall the City continue with its well fields or purchase water from an outside source. Only the future will bring the answers to the three considerations which some City Commission at some point will have to provide.

John Mohler

Mohler Is Soloist for Symphony

John Mohler, assistant professor in the school of Music at the University of Michigan and a regular member of the Symphony, will be the featured soloist at the second concert of the 1965-6 season of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra Sunday afternoon at 4 in the Plymouth High auditorium.

The orchestra will be under the direction of Conductor Wayne Dunlap.

Mohler will play the Concerto for Clarinet and Orchestra, K-622, by Mozart. The program will open with Prokofiev's Classic Symphony and close with Symphony No. 4 in G major by Mohler with Suzanne Lecroix, mezzo soprano, featured.

Mohler has toured the country with the U.S. Marine Band. As a student at the University of Michigan in 1954, he was solo clarinetist of the U. of M. Symphony Band and the Symphony Orchestra and held a teaching fellowship in the University school of music.

After earning his master's degree, Mohler went to Drake University as woodwind instructor and solo clarinetist of the Des Moines Symphony. He returned in 1962 to the U. of M. School of Music as assistant professor. He is a regular member of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra.

No Funds For Snow Removal

City residents can look forward to plenty of snow-shoveling exercise this winter, according to the word from Mayor James Houk.

At Monday night's commission meeting, Houk reported that there are no provisions in the budget this year to permit city snow removal from residential walks.

In previous years, the city has used its snow-removal equipment to clear residential walks. DPW Chief Joe Bida told Houk that the Fulkerson Snow-Removal Co. will canvass the city on a door-to-door basis, seeking residents who wish help in snow-removal.

The commission Monday evening set a public hearing at 8 p.m., Monday, Dec. 20, in order to hear citizens' opinions regarding a proposed plan to vacate part or all of Byron St. in front of builder Thomas Cape's Bryn Mawr apartments.

Wilcox Says He'll Fight Move to Take His Land

Jack Wilcox, a lifetime resident of Plymouth who resides at 676 Penniman Ave., isn't the least bit happy that the Plymouth Housing Commission has selected his property as the most logical site for the proposed Senior Citizens apartments.

Matter of fact, Jack plans to fight the selection all the way through the courts even though threatened with a condemnation action.

Wilcox made his stand known to business, civic and industrial leaders Monday when he circulated a letter explaining his position.

Wilcox, who is a captain in the Naval Reserve, says he wasn't even aware that his two-acre site, located opposite Kellogg Park on Penniman, was even being considered.

"The first indication I had that the Wilcox property was being considered for the Senior Citizens apartments came in late August when I received a letter from Richard Shafer, then City Clerk and director of the Housing Authority, stating that the Commission had selected the site as the most logical," Wilcox said. "The letter also requested permission to appraise the property and to make a thorough inspection.

"I granted both requests but didn't have any idea that the property could be taken away from me by 'eminent domain' as threatened by city officials. I have long had visions of constructing a high rise apartment on the land, if and when zoning was available. I took this matter up with the City Commission as many as 12 years ago and I can't see any reason why I shouldn't be allowed to go ahead with these plans when

Council Takes A New Look at Parking Ban

City Commissioners Monday night started second-guessing themselves over the pending new traffic ordinance to ban on-street parking from 2 a.m. to 6 a.m., and referred the proposed Finlan high-rise apartment building on Main St. back to the planning commission for study.

Already partly along the road to official status, the traffic ordinance stirred a measure of discussion when it came up for its second and third readings.

"This ordinance," remarked Commissioner George Hudson, "is going to make a pretty big change in our little town."

Commissioner Robert Smith indicated he had received negative reaction to the proposed law, and called for a delay in the final approval to allow the public further time to voice its opinion.

Crux of the matter is the provision which will forbid the parking of any vehicle on any street in the city between 2 and 6 a.m. The ordinance gives the police department authority to remove such illegally parked vehicles. The owner of the vehicle will then be required to pay $10 towing charges and $2 per day storage costs.

Commissioners maintain that present street-side parking obstructs snow-removal and street-sweeping.

DPW Supt. Joe Bida informed commissioners that between 200 and 300 cars are parked at curb-side during the night. He said that 20 signs alerting motorists to the ordinance will be required, at a cost of about $35 apiece. He said the majority of the signs will be placed around the outskirts of the city.

Mrs. Richard Fritz, a resident, spoke out against the proposed ordinance. She said she owns two multiple dwellings in the city, adding that the ordinance will work a hardship on her tenants.

Commissioners, after debating the case, agreed to approve the second reading of the ordinance and form a special study committee to determine the ground rules for enforcing the ordinance should it pass.

The committee will also at (Continued on Page 9-A)

Plymouth Rotarians to Participate in "Foundation" Week

The Plymouth Rotary Club will join more than 12,000 other Rotary clubs in 128 countries and geographical regions in participating in this week's world-wide observance on "The Rotary Foundation Week," Nov. 14-20, according to club president Arnold Johanson.

"The idea of this special week is to focus attention on the objective of the Foundation: to promote understanding and friendly relations between peoples of different nations through tangible and effective projects," he said. "This year the Foundation has provided nearly $1 million dollars for support of its program, including the recent expansion of activities.

"These new activities, to be carried on in addition to the already well-established Rotary Fellowships program, include grants for study teams of young business and professional men to be exchanged between Rotary districts in different countries, awards to young men to enable them to take technical training in other countries, and consideration of financial support for new experimental projects to further international understanding."

First awards have already been made for 34 Rotary districts to exchange study teams over a two-year period. The initial grants under the technical training programs are scheduled for 1966.

Jumpy Residents Call Police Without Hesitation

Jumpy residents of Western Wayne County are calling their police departments the moment screen door squeak, the window rattles, or the cat knocks over a milk carton on the back porch, while the search for a supposed sex fiend continues in Nankin Township. Women in the area have locked their doors tightly and won't let anyone in without positive identification while sheriff's deputies have stepped up their area patrols.

Words of caution and ways to thwart any would-be molester have been issued by county and police officials.

Inspector Richard Novak of the sheriff's department said this week that women would probably be more adept with an aerosol hair spray dispenser than with a gun. "It really stings," he noted. "Since the area became alarmed over seven recent attacks on women, telephones have not stopped jangling. Detectives in the sheriff's office have checked out over 260 tips reported since the hysteria set in.

In Garden City, adjacent to Nankin Township, Lt. Al Lavigne said Tuesday, "We're getting lots of calls that we don't normally get. Ordinary noises that wouldn't bother people, cause them to jump for their phones."

Tonight at the Nankin Town Hall, the Nankin Citizens Forum has called a public meeting to discuss police protection in the township.

Although a number of suspects have been questioned, police have not yet come up with the person who can be identified as a "giggling blond male in his late twenties."

Police arrested a 17-year-old youth Sunday they said had apparently tried to frighten two elderly women in a supermarket parking lot at Wayne and Beverly Roads in Nankin Township.

He was reprimanded by John A. Mowatt, chief of the prosecutor's out-county office, after being held overnight and was then released.

C'ville Federation Won't Contest CEA In Bargaining Vote

The Clarenceville Federation of Teachers announced Monday that it would not contest the Clarenceville Education Association in an election to determine the sole bargaining agent for Clarenceville teachers.

In a statement the CFT said that while the CEA has had nearly a hundred percent membership for many years they have not effectively represented the teachers.

However, the newly formed CFT continued, we did feel that there was adequate time for the teachers to evaluate the merits of the Federation. The leaders of the CFT will take the position that they will permit the CEA to negotiate for the teachers with a "wait and see attitude."

A new Rambler will be given away to one lucky visitor to the Detroit Auto Show, which is slated for November 27 - December 5 in Cobo Hall.

IN LIVONIA MALL SHOOT

Kids Get Chance To Bag A Turkey

You can brush off your Dan'l Boone cap, brush up on stories of the Wilderness and get ready—if you are 12 years of age or under—to bring home the Thanksgiving Turkey.

You won't have to go out into the forest primeval, though, not in this modern age: The "forest" is on the Mall of the Livonia Mall Shopping Center at Middlebelt and Seven Mile Rd., and the turkeys will be bow and arrow targets set up Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19 and 20.

From 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday and from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, the Livonia Mall Merchants Association is going to award 10-pound turkeys to boys and girls who score bulls-eyes in the shopping center's first annual Turkey Shoot.

Six targets will be set up in the climate-controlled Mall near the large fountain located at Entrance B-C.

A Pilgrim boy and Pilgrim girl will help the children use the bows and each contestant will be allowed to let fly three suction-tipped arrows at a target.

Each youngster scoring a bulls-eye will receive a letter good for one free turkey, weight up to 10 pounds, from Food Fair or Packers, the two supermarkets at the Livonia Mall.

Pancake Supper

The Clarenceville Athletic Boosters Club will hold a pancake supper Monday, Dec. 6, in the high school cafeteria, 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. All the pancakes you can eat will be featured with a donation of $1 for adults and 60 cents for children under 12.

Madonna Offers Art Classes for Jr. High Pupils

Classes for the group of young people who will enroll for a course in ceramics for eight weeks will open on Nov. 22 and will last from 4 to 5:50 p.m. on consecutive Mondays.

Registration will be held on Saturday, Nov. 20 from 1 to 3 p.m. Students will be accepted at the recommendation of their teachers or an indication of some ability in the art media. No fee will be charged for instruction. Materials fee is $8.

For further information write or call Sister M. Angeline, 425-8000.

Schmidt's Resignation Accepted

The resignation of Louis Schmidt, Superintendent of Clarenceville Schools, was accepted by the members of the Board of Education Nov. 11.

In acting on the resignation, originally tendered in a letter last month, the Board adopted this resolution:

"Whereas, the superintendent has served this district ably for the last eighteen years; and

"Whereas, the entire community is deeply indebted to the superintendent for the loyalty he has shown and the hard work he has done; and

"Whereas, the Board of Education regrets losing Mr. L. E. Schmidt;

"It is hereby resolved to regretfully accept the superintendent's resignation effective September 1, 1966 and to gratefully thank him for his many years of devoted service."

Schmidt told The Observer that although offered positions in a private college, in the field of administration in another metropolitan school district, and in sales, he has not made any commitment. "At this time," he said, "I have not come to any definite decision as to just what I will endeavor to do after Sept. 1, 1966."

See 250,000 Attending Auto Show

The Detroit Auto Dealers Association is gearing for the biggest production in its history in observance of the Detroit Auto Show's 50th anniversary—Nov. 27 through Dec. 5.

Approximately 250,000 visitors are expected to see the new 1966 models as the show moves to mammoth Cobo Hall for the first time. Attendance at the 1965 model show was 150,000 in the Detroit Artillery Armory where it was held in recent years.

This year's dates are the earliest for any Detroit dealer show since 1958.

The show will occupy the entire main floor of Cobo Hall where visitors will be able to see and compare in comfort all of the new domestic cars, as well as the imports, under one big roof.

The National Automobile Shows of 1960 and 1962 were the only ones previously held in Cobo Hall. Success of these shows contributed to the DADA's decision to move this year.

New chairman of the Detroit Auto Show is Harry Tennyson. Boyce Tope, DADA executive vice president, is show manager for the ninth year.

Observer Appoints Two New Editors

Two new appointments in The Observer Newspapers' editorial department have been announced by Mrs. Myra Chandler, publisher.

Sue Shaughnessy will assume the duties of editor of the Farmington Observer.

Miss Shaughnessy, 26, holds a Ph.B. degree from the University of Detroit, where she majored in English. A long-time resident of Livonia, she graduated from Ladywood High School in 1956. She has done graduate work in history at the University of Detroit and New York University.

Miss Shaughnessy moves to the Farmington editor's desk after more than a year's experience on The Observer staff. She has served as church editor, entertainment page editor and has covered and reported Board of Education news in Livonia and South Redford.

Prior to coming to work for The Observer in 1964, she had spent three years on the publicity staff of the University of Detroit and two years as assistant director of public relations for the National Coffee Association in New York.

She lives with her parents in Livonia.

Miss Shaughnessy will replace Allen Rosenfeld in the editorial position. Rosenfeld has joined the staff of the daily Pontiac Press as a business-labor reporter after more than a year on the Observer staff.

In the other appointment, Mrs. Chandler announced that Mrs. Jerry Wendt of Farmington has assumed the duties of Women's Editor.

Mrs. Wendt will cover social news in all six communities served by The Observer. She has been an employee of The Observer for the past year, working as Farmington social columnist, as a feature writer and in the newspapers' classified department.

A resident of nine years in Farmington, Mrs. Wendt came to The Observer following six years of employment in the Farmington Township Hall and prior to that, as a staff writer for the Detroit News. She attended Valparaiso University in Indiana.

Mrs. Wendt and her husband, John, live in Farmington Township. Americans spent almost 300 million days sick in bed last year because of acute respiratory diseases. Christmas Seals fight TB and other respiratory diseases.

Farmington

HIGHMEADOW
Open House at Highmeadow School on Nov. 9 was a resounding success. The halls were bustling with parents being towed along by children anxious to show off their class rooms. A Book Fair was held in the library and the audio visual equipment was on display. A sixth grade class created a world of modern math in an attempt to educate Mom and Dad into this mysterious world. The entrance to the fourth grade was through a large rocket ship which filled the doorway. Many families were so interested that they traveled from room to room to see all the displays.

Interrupting class room visiting, Principal Freedman invited parents to the gym to hear an address given by H. Neal, trustee, and M. VanAmejde, Assistant Superintendent of Instruction for the Farmington Board of Education. The millage proposals were outlined and the importance of their passage stressed.

An item of interest to Highmeadow parents was the disclosure that a 40 acre parcel of land on 12 Mile across from Rollerest has been acquired for a new high school.

A plea was made from a parent, requesting the Board of Education to use their influence in obtaining a traffic light at 13 Mile and Middlebelt. A loud spontaneous burst of applause displayed the feelings of the audience on this safety problem. Mr. VanAmejde said that he is aware of the existing safety hazard but that the Board of Education is limited in its power to influence the Oakland County Road Commission. There are several other dangerous corners that they are also concerned about and a letter is now in the hands of the Oakland County Road Commission with a plea for traffic lights at these intersections.

The children were entertained with movies during the meeting and Open House continued immediately after its conclusion. The Highmeadow band displayed their talents by playing three numbers for an appreciative audience.

The next PTA meeting is Tuesday, Dec. 7.

Hill and Dale Teaches Tots

Members of the Hill and Dale Garden Therapy Group whose purpose is to bring some constructive fun and pleasure to approximately 127 children in the Special Education classes by instructing them in various handicrafts will visit four different public schools Nov. 17.

The 25 members who work directly with the children all donate almost all of the materials used in the various projects. A Thanksgiving centerpiece will be the project this week. The centerpieces will be made on a base, which has been previously cut in the shape of an artist's palette, from styrofoam. This will hold an appropriate scene with "trees" made from different sizes of pine cones. Tiny sprays of bittersweet will peek out from behind rocks. There will even be lollipop "trees" that the children will know what to do with after the holiday; and a turkey that the children will make from a peanut, some construction paper, and glue.

Mrs. Earl Johnson, the Garden Therapy Group's Chairman is also the Chairman of the Thanksgiving project.

Golfers Turn Milliners

Members of the Kendallinks Golf League ended the season on a gay note Oct. 19 with a carry hat day at Dun Rovin Country Club. The beautiful Indian Summer weather brought 17 members out of the woodwork and out onto the fairways. Following a morning of golf was a luncheon and short business meeting.

Officers elected for the 1966 season are: Mary Burton, president; Mimi Shepperly, secretary; Rita Huntoon, treasurer; Mary Lou Coza, rules; Mary Briolat, advisor and Joan Gallagher, publicity. Trophy winners of the match play tournament were: flight A—Pat Brown, flight B—Nancy Lustig, flight C—Etta Novak. Betty Walker was the most improved golfer on the ringer score sheet. Dorothy Moore won a prize for the tallest and kookiest hat. Most original creation won by Be Hamilton and prettiest hat by Helen Kirtland.

Even though the weather forbids golf, the league is planning a luncheon for January to renew old friendships and start plans rolling for a new season of golfing.

Ann Marlene Ridings Married in Livonia

A double ring candlelight ceremony at St. Matthews Church, Livonia, was the setting for the Oct. 2 marriage of Ann Marlene Ridings to Joseph William Sutschek. Rev. John Grenfell officiated at the ceremony. Parents of the newlyweds are Mrs. and Mrs. Verchow Ridings of Farmington and Mrs. Joseph W. Sutschek and the late Mr. Sutschek of Long Island, New York. The bride chose a floor length gown of traditional bridal satin with a scalloped neckline, long sleeves and a chapel train. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy. Barbara Cutter was the maid of honor, while Pat Wellis and Heidi Matthias were bridesmaids. They wore floor length empire styled gowns with moss green long sleeved velvet bodices and vanilla crepe skirts. Their flowers were bronze mums. Bonnie Keller was the flower girl. Her gown was empire styled with a white velvet bodice and a floor length white taffeta skirt. She carried a white basket with an arrangement of bronze mums accented with moss ribbons. Robert Cordry served as best man, while Ben Ridings and Joseph Keller seated the guests. Billy Hirth was the ring bearer. A buffet reception dinner was held at Idyl Wyld Golf Club immediately following the ceremony. Out of town guests came from New York, Ohio, Indiana and Upper Michigan. Following the reception the newlyweds left on a honeymoon in the Pacono Mountains. Upon their return they will reside in Farmington. The bride, a graduate of Farmington High School and Michigan State University, is presently teaching home economics at Farmington High School.

The trip had many high-lights, the Louvre, Petty Palace in France, the ski-lifts in Switzerland. In Italy she saw the Vatican and witnessed the college of Cardinals marching into the cathedral to begin a council session. Also outstanding was the reunion with a pen pal at Deventer, Holland which was arranged thru the Dutch Council. Livonia Begins New Youth String Orchestra For Area

Garden Club Holds Christmas Workshop Monday

The Christmas spirit is in the air at the Log Cabin-in-the-Park, Merriman and Cherry Hill Club members. A Christmas workshop is scheduled for Monday, November 22 at 8:00 p.m. After the meeting, refreshments will be served by the hosts of the Month, Mrs. Stuart McPherson. The public is welcome to attend and share ideas too.

Third Youth Group Sponsored by Society

Again the Livonia Youth Symphony Society has stepped ahead in the world of musical education of our young people by establishing a new string orchestra for students who are in their beginning years of musical experience. Livonia is one of the very few cities in Michigan that will have three youth orchestras.

The Youth Symphony (the advanced orchestra) comprised of college and high school students, the Junior Orchestra (the intermediate orchestra) made up of junior high students, and our new String Orchestra, whose members will be from the fifth through seventh grades, will offer the opportunity for participation at all levels of musical accomplishment.

The purposes of the new orchestra are many. The most important of these would include the following: to act as an introduction to symphonic arrangements, to present the opportunity for individual guidance in orchestral work, to complement the school music program, and to provide a challenging situation for those young people who have a natural tendency to progress quite rapidly.

The new String Orchestra will rehearse on Saturday mornings at Bentley High School. Any interested string students (violin, viola, cello or string bass) who are in fifth through seventh grades may obtain an audition for this group by calling MRS. H. REDINGER, GA 1-8236 or MRS. R. BUDD, GA 1-1139. Placement in any of the orchestras is determined by the musical ability of the individual student.

Show Fashions

Wards-Wonderland held a gala fashion show Nov. 10. Five top designers whose names are world-famous not only presented their fashions but held personal consultations afterward and assisted the customers with their fashion problems.

"This is the first time such outstanding leaders in the fashion world have been together to talk informally with so many representative customers," Wards explained.

Designers who appeared were, Philippe Heim (Paris); Simonetta (Paris) Alberto Fabiani (Rome), Clodagh O'Kennedy (Dublin) and Melba Hobson (New York).

The designers in conjunction with Rita Perna, Wards national fashion coordinator presented fashion shows at 7:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m.

Featured in each show were on-stage appearances by each designer plus the original designs and exclusive seasonal and festive holiday creations each has made for Wards.

Oakland Benefit Draws Crowd

Celebrities and socialites studded the audience which filled every seat in Ford Auditorium Friday night for the world premiere of Walt Disney's hilarious technicolor film "That Darn Cat" presented by the Women's Committee of Camp Oakland. Funds raised benefit the camp, now in its 13th year, which provides not only a summer camping program, but a permanent year-round home for boys and girls who need special care and understanding because of disruptive conditions in their personal lives.

Mrs. Ben D. Mills, Chairman; Mrs. William B. Calhoun, Jr., ticket chairman; and Mrs. R. T. Coughlin, publicity chairman; could all take well deserved bows for a beautifully functioning evening's entertainment.

Prior to the showing of the movie, J.P. McCarthy introduced the celebrities seated in the audience. Taking a bow were Al Kaline, Chuck Davey, Leon Hart, Carla Rogers, Wayne Walker, Ted Lindsay, George Pierrot, and Miss Teen-Age Detroit.

Also present were two glamorous TV Celebrities, Mary Morgan of CKLW, and Pat Morris, of WXYZ.

After J. P. McCarthy had introduced the star of the evening, Hayley Mills, she was escorted to her seat by two of the children from Camp Oakland, who were from the group seated in the audience.

"That Darn Cat" proved a delightful choice for a family benefit. The movie is extremely funny, well acted, and noteworthy for outstanding performances by Roddy McDowell, Elsa Lanchester, William Demarest, in addition to Miss Mills, of course.

After the performance Mr.

and Mrs. Ben D. Mills (no relation to Hayley) and the star greeted guests backstage at a champagne reception.

PICTURE TALK by Les Wilson

A LITTLE OF YOU

The days seem to have vanished when people would spend countless precious hours making useful articles to give their loved ones at Christmas. Such gifts as hand-knitted mittens, scarves and sweaters, or hand-carved buttons and ornaments. Yet it is still possible to remember your favorite people at Christmas with something only you could give them... photo greetings.

There's still time for us to make some of these lovely cards for you in your choice of several special designs. So why not sit down this evening and look through your favorite snapshots and choose one or more that would please the people on your very special Christmas list.

Pictures of the children are especially appropriate, even in settings that suggest summer activities rather than Christmas or winter. Snapshots of your home make good subjects, too... especially interior shots that reveal the warmth and personality of a happy home.

If you can't seem to find an existing negative, we can always work from an existing print and make you a new negative. If there's no suitable picture at all, come in and look over our sample book for ideas, and then make some simple setups for a new picture. We've got booklets that show how easy this is, using such props as colored ribbon, Christmas ornaments, bits of greenery and, of course, your family.

But, time is short. It will soon be time to mail your cards. You'll almost have to get your order in within the next few days. How about it? Can we count on you to send photo greetings this year?

The parents of the bride and groom-to-be are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoff and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Herman.

Four-Year-Old Boy Dies in Blazing House

A two-story house on Livonia's far southwest side went up in flames Monday afternoon, and a four-year-old boy trapped inside perished in the blaze.

Billy Matylich, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Matylich, died in the fire after his two sisters and police and firemen were unable to reach him in a locked bedroom as the house burned to the ground.

"The house was enveloped in flames when I arrived shortly after receiving a call," Livonia Police Sergeant William R. Collins said. "I broke in the back door and yelled for the boy, after his sisters told me he was still inside, but we were unable to get to him."

Billy's 12-year-old sister, Cheryl, and Brenda, 16, first noticed smoke coming out of their parents' bedroom, in which Billy had locked himself to watch television and, according to firemen, probably play with matches. With a neighbor girl, Pam Burroughs, they broke down the door, but the heat was so intense that they were unable to enter the bedroom.

The girls rushed outside as the fire spread, stopped a neighbor Mrs. Leila Paff, who called the fire department, and, in hysterics, called for help from other neighbors, including John Head, who joined the girls in trying to rescue Billy.

By the time firemen arrived at the house at 37541 Grantland, near Newburgh and Plymouth Roads, most of the inside of the house was gutted by flames. They found the body of Billy near a closet in the parents' bedroom.

Mrs. Matylich, a clerk at the Bi-Lo Supermarket in Sheldon Center, was contacted and driven home. She was placed under heavy sedatives after becoming hysterical at the scene of the fire. Mr. Matylich, a carpenter who was in Pontiac, could not be reached until late Monday to be told the news. The Matylichs are being housed by neighbors.

Oak Haven Trailer Court, appeared before the board to seek restraint against the Western Wayne Conservation Club's target range. A stray bullet recently sliced through a trailer at Oak Haven and Smith said he believed it had come from the nearby target range. The Township Board tabled the request pending receipt of a State Police investigation report of the incident.

The Louis J. Detorre Construction Co. was granted permission to extend 1,450 feet of sanitary sewer south along Ridge Road to serve the proposed Plymouth Hills Trailer Court, which will provide space for about 180 trailers when it is completed. The Detorre Co. will bear all costs for the sewer extension, including engineering, construction and inspection.

The board approved a recommendation from planning consultants Waring & Johnson that a study be undertaken to re-district the Township's voting precincts from its present four districts to as many as seven.

Cost of the study will be about $350. Ultimately, when precinct re-districting takes place, the Township will need to purchase additional voting machines (two for each new precinct) and expand its voting day staff in order to man the new precincts.

A request from Plymouth Tank & Fabricating Co., located on Joy Rd. in Canton Township, to connect to Plymouth Township's sewer now under construction along Joy Rd. was tabled pending consultation with Canton authorities.

An item involving an estimated $3,000 renovation of the Township's 1,000-gal. tanker fire truck was referred to the Fire Administrative Board for study and recommendation.

The board also approved: —Payment of a $5,000 allocation to the Plymouth Area Planning Commission, representing the Township's share in support of the organization.

tempt to decide how special permits in hardship cases will be issued to car-owners who, due to lack of space, must still park at curb-side.

Commissioner George Lawton, City Manager Richard Blodgett, Police Chief Kenneth Fisher and Bida were named to the study committee.

The City commission will hear the report of the study group before considering the third—and final—reading of the proposed ordinance.

Residents opposing the matter may contact City Manager Blodgett or appear at the next regular meeting of the Commission on Dec. 6.

Patrick Finlan's proposed high-rise apartment building, a sticky problem for commissioners in recent weeks, was handed back to the city's planning commission.

Commissioner Lawton recommended the item be referred to members of the planning commission with instructions that special study be given to the minimum size of each apartment in the building and to the number of parking spaces necessary per apartment unit.

Finlan proposes a five-story apartment house on the east side of Main St. between Food Fair and the Bentley Clinic. He said it would consist of 39 dwelling units, varying between two and three-bedroom size. Rent would be "over $200" a month, Finlan explained. The project would cost over $500,000 to build, he said.

Bone of contention is the restriction of the present zoning ordinance. It limits the height of an apartment building to 35 feet, requires at least 2,500 square feet of living space per unit, and one and one-half spaces for parking for each dwelling unit within the building.

Finlan has asked the commission to reduce the space-per-apartment to 1,300 feet. The first attempt by the commission to amend the present zoning was to reduce it to a 1,500 square foot minimum. That died when the whole matter was directed back to the planning commission.

In other business, the commission:

Learned from City Manager Blodgett that new cars delivered to Leo Calhoun Ford would henceforth be unloaded at D.S.I. on Hamilton St., thus alleviating traffic congestion in front of the dealership on Main St.

Authorized Blodgett to take bids on the installation of fences around the Old Baptist Cemetery at the east end of Pearl St. and around the enlarged DPW yard on Junction.

Endorsed a proposal by Blodgett to hire a Schoolcraft College student to work parttime as a clerk in the DPW at an estimated total cost of $850 for eight months.

Was told by Blodgett that the Mill St. Urban Renewal project was about 40 per cent completed and that the federal government had authorized change orders in the amount of $3,971.

Rejected a bid of $2,000 for a city-owned 50-foot by 130-foot lot on East Ann Arbor Trail, next to Snyder's Furniture.

Confirmed the re-appointment by Mayor James Houk, of George Bauer, Carroll Porter and Ezra Rountrou to the city planning commission.

Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America in Plymouth, has secured a license to do business in the states of Indiana and Maine. Chairman of the Board E. Keith Owens, announced.

The licenses, granted by Indiana's Commissioner of Insurance, Joseph G. Wood and Maine Commissioner George Mahoney marks the company's steps in its scheduled expansion program. This program, Owens stated, includes applications for licensing now pending in 27 additional states, with 12 other applications now being prepared.

The 18-month-old company currently operates 13 regional offices throughout the state of Michigan, with a total amount of business written approximately $150 million. YMCA Offers 16 Services to Livonians, Now Looks for Way to Expand

Young Men Concerned with Action.

Officially, that's not what the initials YMCA stand for, but in Livonia it could very well be a second definition.

Currently, prospects for a new YMCA development in Livonia are being explored by a citizens' committee which is holding a series of meetings to determine community needs. The new development could include Livonia's own 'Y' building and additional programs.

The committee, which was organized through the aid of A. Charles Wise, YMCA extension director, met again Tuesday to discuss the city's needs. Members have contributed many hours of time thus far to get the program off the ground.

Already there are 16 regular programs conducted for residents of Livonia by the 'Y'.

These include weekend camping trips and workshops in leadership development for the Y Indian Guides, a father-and-son program and for Y Indian Princesses, a mother and daughter program.

Hi-Y Clubs for high school boys and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs for High School girls are sponsored by the 'Y' and include regular programs on Youth in Government, Youth in Industry, Model UN Assembly, UN Study Trip, Leadership Development Camps, Youth Conferences, Athletic Leagues and participation in a World Youth Conference in Oslo, Norway.

Family camping programs include both Y Camp Ohiesya in Holly and Y Camp Nissokone in Oscoda.

Resident camping for boys and girls is available at both the camps.

Family swimming programs are sponsored every Friday night at Redford High School and Saturday gym-and-swim programs for boys and girls are also sponsored. Other services now available to Livonians include:

Backyard swimming pool instruction for adults and for youths 6 to 16; day camping for boys and girls 6 to 12; canoe tripping for youths 12 to 17 and fathers and sons; judo instruction for youths 8 to 18 and for men and women; ski instruction for families; volleyball for men, including as well, physical conditioning and badminton; and gymnastics for boys and girls.

Livonia residents with ideas on what purpose a Livonia Y could serve may contact Wise, the extension director, at the development office in Livonia, located in the old Elm School building on Middlebelt at the C and O railroad tracks.

New Railroad Clubs Organize

Model railroad enthusiasts in western Wayne and Oakland counties have been invited to participate in a new group, the Great Lakes Central Railroad Club.

The new club will be the home of "The Motor City and Western" and will provide an outlet for all persons from 13 to 80 who are interested in HO gauge railroading, according to Ralph W. Irwin.

Temporary headquarters for the new group is at 35188 Hazelwood in Wayne, where work is currently in progress on a layout. The club meets every Thursday at 8 p.m. Persons interested in the hobby are requested to contact either George Young, 425-1413, or Bill Irwin, 427-9091, for additional information.

Ski Classes Scheduled

William Owens of the Hugo Bohm Ski School will conduct indoor and outdoor ski classes for adults at the Northwest Branch YWCA, beginning Dec. 2 at 8:30 p.m.

Owens is a certified ski instructor and will conduct the first two classes at the Northwest YWCA, 25940 Grand River Avenue in Redford Township. The outdoor classes will meet at the Alpine and Pine Knob ski areas. The fee for the classes includes instruction, equipment and tow fees. Additional information is available by calling the Northwest YWCA at KE 7-8500. Pre-registration is necessary.

Judo Classes Set for Women

Women who are interested in developing the skill of Self Defense will be interested in this training session. Tom Tripp, a black belt from the Detroit Judo Club, will be the instructor. The session will be held twice weekly for five sessions at the Northwestern Y.M.C.A. from 10 to 11 a.m. or 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays.

The session begins November 29. Call KE 3-3700 for further information.

Cooley Grads Plan Reunion

A call for 1956 graduates of Cooley High School in Detroit has gone out in preparation for the ten-year reunion planned for next year on April 30, 1966.

With almost 700 members, the class list is not yet complete, reports Mrs. Max Saunders (formerly Diane Loney) of Livonia. Any graduates of that year should contact her at 14888 Country Club Drive, Livonia, or telephone her at GA 7-7446.

Four Agents Honored

Four Livonia men were guests at a dinner given in honor of an insurance agency's outstanding accomplishments in a recently completed national sales contest. The local men are A. Emerson Coates, 15678 Sussex; Leroy R. Peplin, 14538 Country Club Dr.; Allen D. Simonson, 14413 Stonehouse, and Ray E. Wickman, 9256 Virginia.

Holiday Call to Overseas Servicemen Offered by Telephone Union in Area

"Hi, Mom!"
At least 10 families in the Observer Newspapers' circulation area will be hearing these words spoken by their sons or daughters stationed overseas with United States Armed Forces during the holiday season.

In cooperation with USO, Local 4015 of the Communications Workers of America (AFL-CIO) is sponsoring free overseas telephone calls in the union's ninth annual "Hi Mom" program. Local 4015 includes members in the communications industry who live in Livonia, Redford Township, Farmington, Plymouth, Nankin Township and Garden City.

Gerald Greer, the president of Local 4015, said anyone with a son or daughter stationed overseas is eligible to receive one of the free calls.
To be eligible, the person wanting to call overseas should write in 25 words or less his or her reasons for wanting to make the call.

LINDA HECK OF LIVONIA, a graduate of Bentley High School, (center), sells a share of stock to C. W. Truxell, general manager of Detroit Diesel Engine Division in JADDA, a Junior Achievement Company in Livonia. Linda's company sells calling card holders and desk pad sets, and both products are currently in the running for best product of the year awards among JA firms. Also on hand for the event were JADDA's five adult advisors, all from Detroit Diesel. From left: J. Blaine, B. Willson, C. W. Truxell, Linda Heck, D. Leisen, C. Hansen and D. Ewers.

Farmington 'Boulevard' Gets Nod

The plan to make Farmington Rd. a boulevard through Livonia has met with "initial favorable reaction" by the Wayne County Road Commission.
That's the report of city officials who met with Commission members last week to discuss the idea of a four-lane separated highway.
Mayor Harvey Moelke, who attended the meeting with Councilmen Ed McNamara, John Dooley, Edward Milligan, Peter Ventura and Charles Pinto, said the Road Commission emphasized that if the boulevard idea caused any additional cost over the straight, undivided four-lane route, the city would have to bear it.

AT TERRACE
Cincinnati Kid Is Good, Entertaining

By SUE SHAUGHNESSY
 A few years back Paul Newman and Jackie Gleason made a hit with an excellent film "The Hustler" about billiards or pool. Martin Ransohoff has tried the same format in "The Cincinnati Kid" only the game is five card stud poker which is currently showing at the Terrace Theatre in Livonia.
 Starring Steve McQueen and Edward G. Robinson, the film is no "Hustler," but still provides good entertainment with excellent acting.
 Comparisons between the two films may not be fair, but are inevitable. Stud poker is probably better understood by the average public than pool.
 However, in poker there is no click as the balls roll slowly across the table and the angle shots are neither so close nor so effective in The Kid as in Hustler.
 A refreshing twist to the Kid is the end of the film. For here, unlike the victorious (for a time) Paul Newman, Steve McQueen need just one session with "The Man" (Edward G.) to have his come uppance.
 One advantage the Ransohoff production has though is the tightness of the script. The story is concerned primarily with one long marathon poker game and the setting is always New Orleans.
 "The Hustler" on the other hand, concerned the rise and fall of the challenger Paul Newman and the scenes were spread in several different cities.
 If nothing else the film is worth seeing for the opening scene where Ransohoff sets the stage and the place through the portrayal of a negro funeral and its jazz band.
 As an added treat the Terrace management has, with Montgomery Wards, set up a poker table with five hands—all but one face up. The idea is to guess The Cincinnati Kid's hand and win the poker table, cards and chips. The contest, which is open until Nov. 23, can also be entered at the sporting goods department of Montgomery Wards at Wonderland.

Wizard of Oz Comes Saturday

"The Wizard of Oz" will be presented on Saturday, Nov. 20, at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. in the Franklin High School auditorium, Livonia, by the Reed Marionettes under the sponsorship of the Children's Entertainment Guild.
 For over 15 years the Reed Company has been building and presenting favorite classic stories with marionettes. They claim an advantage in a one-third life size production since they are able to fill the stage with volumes of scenery, characters, lighting and magical effects as well as try experimental ideas that would be impossible with a life size traveling show.
 In the "Wizard of Oz" the audience will watch as a howling Kansas cyclone whisks a farm house off to "the Land of Oz"; they will see the Wizard sailing up in a balloon; as well as an eleven piece band that crosses the stage to a march played on their instruments.
 All of the beloved characters—the Scarecrow, the Cowardly Lion, The Tin Woodsman, Dorothy and Toto, the Wizard, and the Wicked Witch of the West—will be seen in their beloved adventures against background paintings that measure up to 14 feet in length.
 Marionettes and scenery one-third life size are used to give a "close up" view for most of the play, but a duplicate cast of characters one-fourth life size is employed occasionally to add perspective and make large scenic effects possible.
 The show is recommended as entertainment for adults as well as children. Tickets are on sale at either Livonia library, from any Guild member, or contact Ticket Chairman: Mrs. James McCann, GA 2-5227; or Mrs. Christopher Sieh, 425-7489.

Stephen Names Recital Nov. 19

 This will be the artist's only appearance in the area, the performance presented under sponsorship of the Edgar M. Leventritt Foundation.
 The program will include Bach's Partita No. 1 in B flat major, Beethoven's Sonata in C minor, Copland's Piano Variations (1930), and Chopin's Six Etudes.
 Single tickets are available at Oakland University, 338-7211.

Nov. 26 is much more than merely the day after Thanksgiving. If you haven't been informed yet, you will soon be bombarded with the fact that Nov. 26 is "National Sinatra Day." In the most extensive and all-encompassing promotional endeavor ever undertaken on behalf of a recording artist, Reprise records (Frank's label) has literally swamped both radio and TV outlets across the United States.

Both NBC and CBS have scheduled programs to commemorate the entertainer's 50th birthday and his 25th anniversary as a recording artist. More than 3000 radio stations across the United States have agreed to join in the unique tribute to the even more unique entertainer.

In Detroit for example, WXYZ will be giving away more than 200 of Sinatra's albums in a huge contest. Naturally, you will be hearing the sound of Sinatra on practically all radio stations.

Two new albums are being released by Reprise, "My Kind of Broadway" and "Sinatra: A Man and His Music." The latter LP is a two-record set containing highlights of the fantastic career of the "Chairman of the Board." The title was taken from the NBC-TV special which is a one man show with orchestral backing from Gordon Jenkins and Nelson Riddle. It can be seen here on channel 4, Nov. 24.

CBS-TV had scheduled "Sinatra An American Original" their CBS News report, hosted by Walter Cronkite. The show was presented last night. Sinatra however objected to the show before its presentation because it covered subjects other than his entertainment career. CBS ignored his objections however and aired the program as scheduled.

In his career with Reprise records (he had been with Capitol for years previously) Sinatra has sold $21 million worth of singles and albums in the U.S. alone.

Marc Avery, WXYZ's morning man of music has undertaken a worth-while project. He is asking listeners to send in trading stamps of any kind, in any amount. The stamps will then be turned over to the Kiwanis Clubs in the Detroit area to be converted into gifts and necessities for the many needy children supported by Kiwanis members. If you have any stamps to donate, send them to KIDS, WXYZ radio, Detroit 48219.

Detroit's Golden World records has been pleasantly surprised recently. The label had a nation-wide hit with a record called "Hungry for Love" which was an instrumental by the San Remo Golden Strings who were in reality members of the Detroit Symphony.

It seems now however, that amateur and professional songwriters from all over the United States have been submitting lyrics for the song. Shelley Haimis, the labels general manager said that literally hundreds of suggestions had come in and that the company was busy reviewing them for the possible recording of a vocal version of the song.

Designated at the Community Theatre Association of Michigan's show of the month, the Nov. 27 performance will be followed by a theatre dinner party at the Bonnie Brook Country Club. The public is welcome to attend the event and reservations may be made before Nov. 22 by contacting Jerry Pember at KE 7-8109.

"WORLD PREMIERE WEEK" was proclaimed in Livonia by Mayor Harvey Moelke when stars of "The War Lord" came to town last Wednesday for the film's first showing. Presenting the proclamation is Mayor Moelke (left) to actor Charlton Heston, Miss Schoolcraft College, Mary Donnelly, and Nick George, owner of the Mai-Kai Theater, where the film premiered.

Host of Stars at World Premiere

By JERRY WENDT

Fans who attended the world premiere of "The War Lord" starring Charlton Heston Wednesday night, witnessed a premiere in the grand tradition. All the trappings were there, autograph seekers, beauty queens, bands playing and officials on hand to witness the event.

The stars pulled up to the Mai-Kai, in limousines, and stepped out in the glare of arc lights that were piercing the skies for blocks. Fans who crammed the lobby of the theatre, cried out as they caught sight of their favorites. Henry Wilcoxon, Rosemary Forsyth and Guy Stockwell preceded the star, Charlton Heston. Despite a back-breaking schedule, they all appeared relaxed and in good humor.

Before the movie, they made personal appearances on the stage. Livonia Mayor Harvey Moelke presented Charlton Heston with an official proclamation declaring this to be World Premiere week. Mary Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mac J. Donnelly of 550 Sunset, Plymouth who was selected as Miss Schoolcraft College, also made an appearance on stage, greeting the stars.

Nick George, genial theatre owner was on hand along with Bud Leaman, and Jo Busic of the Nick George Theatres. Proof of the actors tremendous popularity was that guards had to be stationed at the stage doors to ward off autograph seekers.

Heston displayed his ability to capture the audience and make it part of the movie. In "The War Lord" he plays a Norman knight who becomes the ruler of a small village on the shores of the North Sea. He is intrigued by a beautiful peasant girl and falls in love with her with such blind passion that he can think of nothing else in spite of the fact that she is promised to a childhood sweetheart. To add to his troubles, his village is under constant threat from a hostile army of raiders intent on pillaging the territory he rules.

Suspense is added when Heston claims the lord's right of Miss Forsyth's (the peasant girl) favors on her wedding night. The resulting furor leads to some exciting battle scenes as the intended groom takes umbrage at Heston's tactics and forms an alliance with his warring enemies, the Frisians.

The movie is aided by an above average supporting cast. Maurice Evans as the village priest is excellent, and so is Richard Boone in the role of Bors, Heston's protector since childhood. Rosemary Forsyth is a beautiful temptress, quite capable of leading a man astray. The greatest surprise of the evening is Guy Stockwell's performance as Draco, Heston's brother.

Glimpsed in the lobby, Stockwell appeared to be the typical Hollywood leading man, young and handsome. But his portrayal was superb. He lent conviction to his scenes as the arrogant and worldly Drago and was more than a match for Heston in their scenes together.

All in all, the movie, was like the premiere in the grand tradition of spectaculars.

This comedy by Kurtz Gordon and Robert Emmett will be staged Feb. 11-12 at the John Glenn High School.

Director Bill Irwin, 8551 Terri in Nankin, has called open tryouts at 8 p.m. Nov. 22, at the Nankin Mills Elementary school on Hubbard and Ann Arbor Trail.

Any interested persons, 21 and over, are invited to read during the tryouts. Fans of "Bewitched" should be especially interested as this popular TV show was derived from "The Broom and the Groom."

Second U. of D. Production Set

The second University of Detroit Theatre production of the season, Jean Giraudoux' "Tiger at the Gates," premieres Friday (Nov. 19) at 8:30 p.m. in the U. of D. Theater, located on the third floor of the McNichols campus library.

The French contemporary classic, subtitled "The Trojan War Shall Not Take Place," studies some basic problems of humanity through legendary Greek heroes and heroines. "Tiger at the Gates" received the Critics Circle Award and has been judged "an allegorical drama of depth and grandeur" by the New York Journal American.

It will play at the University of Detroit Theatre for three consecutive weekends, through Dec. 5.

Tickets for "Tiger at the Gates" are available for group theater parties. For ticket information call 342-1000.

Royal Ballet in Town

Wally Roberts GOING UP 'CURTAIN'

The FM radio at my side blares out the inane lyrics of a popular ditty about "life being a carefree dream . . . no need to have a care in the world." This rose-colored view of life might be the more appropriate way to approach our skirmish-torn globe. To try and focus your attention in more realistic terms on the various trouble spots of the world could drive some of us to the funny farm.

The current production at Wayne State's Bonstelle Theater "The Physicists," has this bitter-sweet approach to man's existence and the way he has bungled along to make such an imperfect world. Friedrich Duerrenmatt, the Swiss playwright, has a great deal to say in "The Physicist" about man's need for individual responsibility.

Ironically, the play's setting is in a madhouse. A good share of the time in "The Physicists" Duerrenmatt tells us that world is in a horrible state, but this is no accident since man has created the atom bomb, started the wars, and is trapped by his own blind adherence to out-moded religious symbols.

Surprisingly enough, the philosophical passages in Wayne State's production of "The Physicists" scored artistically while the plot sessions were dismal failures. Too often when the play veered to the expository side the acting became flat and tiresome.

Director Richard P. Brown staged the production briskly. His movement patterns kept the show buzzing along and gave the actors every opportunity to be much better than they actually were.

Gerald Bamman, a newcomer to the Bonstelle, as Herbert Beutler, gave the best performance of the evening. Michael Bradley in the lead role of Mobius was a disappointment. He never rose to the emotional heights necessary to make us feel the desperation of his situation. Mobius is Duerrenmatt's symbol for Everyman. Quite important that this character be capable of imparting our pent-up frustrations, acquired in our "insane" world.

"The Physicists" despite its undergraduate unevenness, contain many exciting moments and make you wonder about Duerrenmatt's assertion that if science doesn't wait for philosophy to catch up we will all end up in a truly uninhabitable world.

Karen Cutler deserves special mention for her excellent portrayal of Doktor van Zahnd, the owner of the madhouse. Designer Russ Smith as always gave the actors a set that immediately projects the sense of erudition, vastness, and shattered

Visit to Michigan Colleges Is a Successful Experiment

The Rev. Thomas Estes, associate minister of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia, recently made a tour of Michigan Colleges to meet with college students from St. Paul's who are away from home.

He's "delighted" with the success of what the church termed "something of an experiment" and is anxious to pack his suitcase and be off again.

A total of 27 students were actually contacted in nine Michigan colleges and universities during the tour.

"A great deal of cigarette and coffee diplomacy" was the order of the trip he says. Rev. Estes said that reactions of the students, all of whom are members of St. Paul's were varied from:

Carillon Dedication Thanksgiving

Dedication ceremonies are being planned for the "Coronation Carillon" to be installed at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 25, 10 a.m.

This announcement was made by the Rev. Carl E. Mehl, who said that the bells are a gift presented to the church by a combination of memorial donors.

The "Coronation Carillon" is built by Schulmerich Carillons, Inc., of Sellersville, Pa. The instrument consists of 25 bells whose tones are reproduced electronically and amplified 100,000 times so that they can be heard over a radius of one-half mile.

The instrument will be programmed to strike the hour from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily. The bells will be silent over night.

The carillon can be played from a special keyboard located at the organ console, allowing for the presentation of hymns broadcast to the community at special times.

Sunday's Lesson Will Consider Soul and Body

What is the relationship between God and man? How does it help us overcome sin and disease? These are some of the questions to be explored at Christian Science churches throughout the world this Sunday. The subject is "Soul and Body."

Golden Text: "Glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's" (1 Corinthians).

Explanatory passages in the Bible Lesson will include these lines from the Christian Science textbook: "The divine Mind maintains all identities, from a blade of grass to a star, as distinct and eternal."

The questions are: What are God's identities? What is Soul? . . . The understanding of his spiritual individuality makes man more real, more formidable in truth, and enables him to conquer sin, disease, and death."

104 Garden City Teachers Establish Long Tenure

At least ten years of teaching experience has been recorded by 104 teachers in the Garden City School District, school officials announced this week.

Out of 515 teachers, exclusive of administrators, two hundred forty-five of these teachers have either the bachelor of arts or science degree, while 132 have earned fifteen semester hours beyond the basic degree.

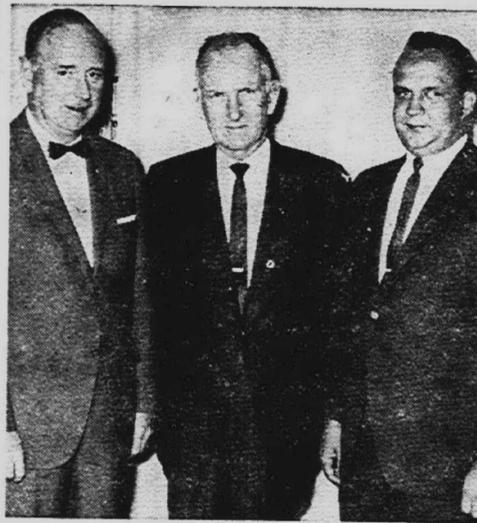

There are 108 teachers with the master degree, thirteen have 15 semester hours beyond the masters and 15 have earned 30 hours above the masters.

One teacher recently qualified for the Educational Specialist degree.

Sixty-three teachers are in their first full year of teaching.

Garden City has an 11-step salary schedule and by contrast 40 teachers are on the eleventh step of the salary schedule.

Without regard to half-year changes in experience, the total staff is distributed over the salary schedule as follows: 0 to 1 year's experience, 119 teachers; 2 to 3 years' experience, 100 teachers; 4 to 6 years' experience, 81 teachers; 7 to 9 years' experience, 111 teachers; and 10 to 11 or more years' experience, 104 teachers.

THE PENRICKTON CENTER, which provides a program for blind children in the metropolitan area who need specialized instruction, marks its 10th birthday this month. It provides training diagnosis and counseling for children, three through 10, and their parents, to give children a chance for guidance and placement. Above, new president David Littler, original board member James Wigginton and director Donald Cardinal are shown at the 10th annual board meeting. The center is located in Taylor.

Church Bazaar To Last 3 Days

St. David's Episcopal Church Women of Garden City will hold their annual Christmas Bazaar at the church, 27500 Marquette near Inkster Road, on Nov. 18, 19, and 20.

The hours are Thursday, 2 to 6 p.m.; Friday, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.; and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The gourmet and bake shop is featuring fruit cake, marzipan, Canadian cheddar cheese, homemade jams and jellies plus cakes, pies and cookies.

The children-only shop has nothing over $1 and all purchases are to be wrapped for the small fry at no extra charge. There is also a game room and prizes galore to keep the little ones busy while mother shops.

The Christmas shop has the usual and the unusual in holiday decor.

Mittens, aprons and things both pretty and practical are featured in the handicraft shop. Bibles, prayer books, pins, crosses, bracelets and booklets of a religious nature are available in the religious shop.

There's also a junket (bargain) shop of nearly new items at a very reasonable price.

FOR OUT-COUNTY AREA:

Young Urges Branch of Friend-of-the-Court

State Representative Richard A. Young, D., of North Nankin and South Livonia, has launched an active campaign to have a branch office of the Friend of the Court established in this populous out-county area.

"The Wayne sheriff has an office at Eloise and a comparable service by the Friend of the Court established in this by the people of our communities," Representative Young said.

"Our residents, frequently women with children, are now required to make the long trek to downtown Detroit to voice complaints which often concern delinquent support checks. Investigations of temporary alimony and final reports all center in Detroit.

"Out-county citizens constitute a large proportion of the total work load of the Friend of the Court and in my opinion, complaints and investigations could be handled more expeditiously by establishing an office in the area to be serviced."

Representative Young said that the population of western Wayne County exceeds a million people and added that "it would appear that these people deserve an area office to service these social problems."

"A branch office would permit court personnel to maintain a closer association with the people requiring services," Representative Young continued. "It would shorten the miles of travel now required and our out-county members of the Board of Supervisors would have a better understanding as to the operation of effective county government."

Representative Young has advised various departments and officials of his proposal, including the supervisors in western Wayne County; the County Board of Auditors; Hazen E. Kunz, Friend of the Court; Circuit Judge Carl M. Weideman, Representative William Boos, D., of Saginaw, chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives, and Rep. William R. Copeland, D., of Wyandotte.

Scared Girl Injured When Shot Gun Fires

Kathy Scheland, 9, of 392 Farmer, Plymouth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scheland, lost part of her left thumb and was wounded in the right knee when a .16 gauge shotgun accidentally discharged last Thursday.

Kathy is the latest victim of fear gripping Western Wayne County suburbs as a result of the series of attempted rapes and slaying of women in the Nankin Township area.

Kathy and her sisters, Alece, 14, and Marilyn, 7, were home from school because of a teachers' conference.

Alece thought she saw the shadow of a man outside, and later thought she heard the back door knob turn. She got her father's shotgun and told her sisters to sit with her on the living room sofa.

While the frightened girls huddled on the davenport, one nudged the gun and it went off, striking Kathy. She was rushed to St. Mary Hospital in Livonia where her condition is regarded as good.

Socially Speaking Around Plymouth

GL 3-0038
Call to report social events in your family, neighborhood)

HOOTENANNY FOR the teens at the Plymouth State Home this past week was sponsored by Beta Sigma Phi. Their husbands and their own teens also enjoyed the fun night for the young people. A live band, the "Diciples", from Northville gave with some of their best music. So successful was the evening that a repeat performance is now in order and the Beta Sigma Phis have decided to take this teen group as their special project.

TEENS ARE IN the limelight this week—the Plymouth High School J Hop a delightful affair. The young people enjoyed it a successful social event of the Junior Year. Preceding the party many open houses were held where the young people in their finery followed the pattern of adults and graciously accepted the delicacies and hospitality of their hosts.

The Arch Valliers of Penniman Avenue opened their home for the occasion with Mary Vallier and Brian Foust hosting the affair; the Robert Emersons of Palmer with Jane and Toni Dacon doing the honors; also the Gordon Chapins of Lakewood Drive with Clark and Karen Upton receiving guests.

Still in Plymouth, and very much a part, are the Jenkins twins; Priscilla wearing lavender velvet with Dave Sibbold and Debbie with Brian Smith chose white. Janet Covington, with Darryl Dusbiber, tripped the light fantastic in a velvet brocade sheath. All smiles were Laura Belle Hoglund and Pete Bender and Judy Motzkus with Ted Johnson who along with all the rest proved that teens of today are not much different than teens of yesterday.

ROTARY ANNS are asked to circle their calendars for Nov. 29 when the group will meet at the Hillside Inn at 12:15 for lunch. Guest Speaker will be Florence Dinsler from Livonia who is a graphologist and will entertain the group with her hand writing studies.

LOOKING FORWARD to a

Christmas program with one of their favorites, Mrs. Myrilla Schrader, is the Lakepointe Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association on Nov. 18 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Roy Pedersen of 42264 Hamill Lane will be hostess to the group and guests are welcome.

KAREN UPTON who recently was accepted in the Michigan Youth Chorale group entertained for the 60 Plus Club at the First Methodist Church at their regular meeting. Sixty-three members were present. Karen, who played her guitar and sang folk songs, delighted the group.

THE MAYFLOWER Garden Club will meet Nov. 18 at the home of Mrs. Steven Turk, 9383 Morrison with a coffee at 9 a.m. The group will then proceed to Davidsburg, Michigan for a demonstration of candle making at the Beelite Candle Factory. Lunch and a business meeting will follow at the Davidsburg Inn.

RECEPTION honoring newcomers to the Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ Chapel will be held on Nov. 19 and will feature the controversial film "The Parable from the World Fair exhibit. New members being honored are the Lawrence Venaska family from Lake Pointe, the Clemons Kromer from Woodlore, the Neino Telins from West Plymouth Twp. and the Edsel Laitinen from Salem Square.

PLYMOUTH Historical Society met at the Plymouth Credit Union and honored Plymouth's oldest man, Clarence Stevens who turned 100 years young and was given honors by Karl Starkweather and presented with a cake. The Presbyterian Church will also honor this centenarian on Nov. 23 at 7:45 with dessert. Anyone wishing to pay respect may do so.

MRS. ESTHER POWELL hosted a gay luncheon for some of the Observer staff at Hucks Thursday. Mrs. Powell was chairman of the drive for funds for the driver on their route who recently suffered a tragic accident. The drive was very successful and this was Mrs. Powell's way of saying thank you for the papers' help.

LADIES DAY BRIDGE is one of the most successful events at the Plymouth Round Table and last Monday's party had every table filled. Assisting Mrs. Lorenz with the decorating were Mrs. Scott Harris, Mrs. Ramsey Wardop, Mrs. John Temple, and Mrs. Sam Slikfin.

Wilcox to Fight

"Regardless of whether the Housing Commission takes condemnation action or not, I'm prepared to fight this matter all the way through the courts. I can't see any reason why I shouldn't be allowed to take advantage of the location and the availability of the land for a private development."

Wilcox's letter to citizens of Plymouth reads as follows: "The Mayor and the Plymouth Housing Commission propose to locate a federally financed, low-income Senior Citizens' Home in the center of town on commercially zoned properties facing Kellogg Park. The properties in question are the current location of two apartment houses owned and operated by Jack Wilcox of this city."

"Since the properties include his home and business and since he has also had plans of long standing for modern high rise developments, Mr. Wilcox does not wish to sell and the city has indicated its intention to take his property away from him through the legal process of eminent domain."

"The Commission argues that his location is ideal since old people will be able to walk easily to stores and churches. Many other locations meet these requirements however, and are available at much lower cost to the taxpayers. Most are quickly available without costly legal battles."

"Most businessmen in the city feel that the location of a low-income Senior Citizens' Home in the commercial area would have a depressing effect on our developing downtown business districts. With strict income limitations for eligible residents there would be less commercial activity than with other groups who might occupy the site."

"Mr. Wilcox has had long range plans for the commercial and residential development of his properties which could not progress until local high rise limitations are removed. It is understood that plans include middle income apartments costing over a million dollars. Buildings of this type in the downtown area will produce taxes for the City of Plymouth."

"A city operated low-income Senior Citizens' Home would remove this prime property from the tax rolls and increase the cost of government for remaining property owners. It is understood that there would be

UNICEF Yule Cards Sale Slated at PO

United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF) Christmas greeting cards will be offered for sale in the lobby of the Plymouth post office, Acting Postmaster John A. Mulligan announced.

Members of the Plymouth-Northville chapter of the United States Committee for UNICEF will be stationed in the post office lobby Friday and Saturday, Nov. 19 and 20.

In authorizing the lobby sales at the discretion of the postmaster, Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien said, "Since its inception in 1946, UNICEF has helped millions of children to a better, fuller, healthier life. Through a part of the United Nations, the organization is financed only through voluntary contributions such as the annual greeting card campaign."

"Proceeds from one box of cards can provide the vaccine to protect 50 children against tuberculosis. Two boxes will furnish 80 children with a glass of milk for an entire week. Five boxes will buy enough penicillin to cure 50 children of yaws."

"There is no question in my mind that the sale of UNICEF cards in post office lobbies will materially better the lot of the needy, often helpless youngsters throughout the world."

Postmaster Mulligan said that there would be no interference with regular postal activities and that there would be no ac-

A Lesson To Be Learned

A schoolteacher — perhaps in an attempt to sharpen a point during class discussion, perhaps in a moment of imprudence — touches the edge of an old draft classification card with a match.

The piece of paper doesn't flare. But from the teacher's action fans a flame of fear and hysteria in parts of his community. The onus of "draft dodger" and "draft card burner" falls around him, and he is suspended from his duties by the superintendent who, at the same time, publicly states that he "doesn't know all the facts."

It is unfortunate that in our generally dynamic society there are still many people who live under the eternal cloud of fear of what "others" may think of some action.

In South Redford last week it was the fear of popular disfavor and what the area's sensationalist tabloid might say that conditioned the response of the authorities. A millage election four weeks away was an added catalyst.

A few minutes spent with the teacher and his students, some quiet investigation to track down the rumors, and the use of that time-honored principle of "innocent until proven guilty" would have settled the matter. The rumors could have been halted; and the flames of hysteria quickly dampened.

In this particular case it is too late. But this was neither the first, nor will it be the last time that teachers are accused falsely of committing some breach of responsibility. As long as there are elements of the extreme about, as there are in South Redford, it will occur again. Next time, perhaps, a lesson in how to handle the situation will have been learned.

What of the act itself? Did the teacher use poor judgement in illustrating his point in the manner he chose?

To make this judgement from outside the context of the classroom is impossible. It can only be judged by his students: if it helped them understand the topic better, if it was a valid technique. If it confused them, or meant nothing to them, then it was a poor choice. But we, on the outside, can not sit in judgement. That must come from his students.

We do know one thing: that his students, and the students at Thurston, have probably learned more about the viciousness of rumor-spreading, about the "innocent until proven guilty" principle, and about the lack of wisdom in making quick conclusions from this one incident than from a year of classroom study.

THE READER SPEAKS UP:

Vietnam Debate Goes on

Communist Threat

Certainly we should stay in Viet Nam! I can't understand why anyone should be against any policy or action which is anti-Communist. In his "Masters of Deceit" J. Edgar Hoover wrote: "Communism is the major menace of our time. Today it threatens the very existence of our Western Civilization. It is insane to think that we can negotiate or arbitrate with the Communists, let alone negotiate the rights of others who are less fortunate than ourselves. The only thing the Communists fear and respect is brute force and power. Historically, the experience of other nations that have "tried" Communism is that Communism was their last experiment."

I object to the tendency of some who berate or ridicule their fellow citizens who are working on the Communist problem. They do not criticize their fellow citizens who are doing nothing to solve any of our problems. Why must they single out for condemnation the anti-Communists? Why are they so intensely unconcerned about the Communist problem? In his article in "The Trust", Reverend Cletus Healy, S.J. wrote, "Ignore the Communists' methods if you will, but do not do so in the name of Christianity. Admire, but do not do so in the name of Christianity. Admire their achievements if you will, but do not do so in the name of progress — certainly not civilized progress. Join in the Communist-inspired crusade against the anti-Communists if you will, but do not do so in the name of reason."

The poor have always taken to communism very reluctantly. It is not in the slums, but on the university campuses that communism has been received most cordially. This is not because communism appeals to the intellectual; it appeals to the intellectually lost! Its appeal is not where the poverty is material, but where it is intellectual.

In his philosophical writings in 1927, Mao Tse Tung wrote "the liberals will be the first to be eliminated (when we take over) because they simply can't be trusted. We have much more respect for and fear those who are dedicated to their cause." Just remember this simple equation: Propaganda plus subversion and infiltration and plus encirclement equal capture!

Join your noble President and the noble cause of our great nation to roll back the creeping menace of communism. We can not sit back and expect it to wither away. Only through a concerted effort, dedicated purpose and the help of God, we can and we will destroy this satanic philosophy for all time!

Be Objective-Vietnam

On Nov. 3 you published an editorial by Bill Gail supporting a right to demonstrate against the U.S. policy in Vietnam. Along with Webster, I wish to take exception to Bill Gail's definition of a patriot as "one who acts in a manner he thinks best advances the interests of his country". On this basis, J. P. Jones, Alvin York, and Colin Kelly would share the platform with George Rockwell, Judith Coplon, and Lee Oswald.

Patriotism is love of country, for better or worse, and a patriot zealously supports its authority and its interests over and above his own. The front-line soldier may well be a patriot but the teacher who burns his draft card in a classroom is close to the opposite of a patriot. With this in mind, it is sad that the only response to Bill Gail's editorial was Gilbert Sterling's "thanks".

Mr. Sterling's letter, as published in your Nov. 10 issue, called for public discussion of the administration's policy in Vietnam. But he himself seems preoccupied with only one side

Instead of only praying for peace let's also practice it even if it means retreating in Viet Nam as an act of mercy for both sides.

Such a retreat would be honorable because we do have the means to end the war quickly with nuclear weapons which are not being used and we also have a United Nations whose responsibility is to end all wars.

Why sacrifice American youth only in a prolonged war with no practical solution in sight or even any signs of help from our former "allies"?

Let the United Nations do whatever is the right thing to do, and not America alone.

Stake in Vietnam

We are a family of six and we have two married girls living in Nankin Twp. and Canton Twp. Our oldest son, Henry, enlisted in the Army first, but did not pass tests, then was told to go the Navy, where he is now.

He has a cousin in the Army in Vietnam. Lee Detrick graduated from Wayne Memorial High, now has special rating. He wrote and encouraged our son to join. We as a family are happy he has. Those who serve help to keep our freedom and help other nations to live a good way of life.

We read every day of the misdeeds of the people that do not understand or have not seen or looked for the good that will come from our Government's activity in helping other's less happy to bring about what will have to be done. We must give our life to keep our human behavior clean, productive heart, minds and souls free from aggression.

Thanks to Kiwanians

This is to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to the Livonia Kiwanis Club for their sponsorship of a series of travelogue films, the first of which was presented last Sunday evening at Franklin High School.

Our families thoroughly enjoyed "travelling" in such an inexpensive and interesting way, and we highly recommend that other Livonia families and their friends will plan to attend the future programs. They will be spending a pleasant evening as well as providing educational entertainment for their children.

The Kiwanis Club is to be complimented on their endeavor and we hope Livonia residents will support and encourage them by their attendance in order that this travelogue series will become an annual event for our City.

Each week, The Observer receives a number of letters for "The Reader Speaks Up" which are unsigned. Many are provocative, meaningful and worth publishing. Unfortunately, we cannot publish letters which do not bear the writer's name and address. Upon request, we will withhold names from publication, and will maintain them in complete confidence. of the issue. Most of us share his compassion for the innocent victims of U.S. military errors. Why doesn't he discuss the indiscriminate murder of civilians and military alike by Saigon terrorists, the systematic annihilation of village leaders by the Viet Cong, and other atrocities? How can there be free self-determination under these pressures?

It is up to us as citizens to support our national policy in the eyes of the world. If we have honest doubts that this policy is in the national interest these should be expressed to our representatives in the Federal Government. By all means let us sit down and discuss the issues objectively, but let us not confuse emotional, prejudiced demonstrations with patriotism.

Retreat For Mercy

There's a new song out with the words "time to live, time to die, time to kill, time to heal, etc." which to me are impressive because I've had "time to live" to be able to remember World War I, and II, and Korea, and now Viet Nam.

There was never any "time to heal." Before the wounds of one generation could heal, the wounds of another were opened, and nothing was ever solved, improved, or proven except that there was no such thing as a war to end wars.

The only hope for mankind is peaceful coexistence and the only kind of war that can be won is a war fought with understandable words that can reach the minds of others.

The Value Of An Education

(Too often we think of only the adult world having full appreciation of education, its value and benefit. We frequently say to others and to ourselves, "Why, oh why, is youth wasted on the young?" To prove us wrong we herewith reprint two prize-winning essays written by Mrs. Joan Hayskar's Grade 9 at Plymouth Junior High-East. Read on and see how wrong we can be about youth not understanding "The Value of Education.")—Myra Chandler.

The value of an education cannot be stated in one simple sentence. It is a very deep and complicated subject which needs much thoughtfulness and consideration.

Education is understanding. It is the understanding of ourselves and others. We are discovering things everyday; who we are, how we tick, and why people behave the way they do. This is the only way we will ever get anything out of life.

Education is knowledge. It is learning why man behaves the way he does to man, and why the earth is round. It is learning why we want to reach the moon, and why we split atoms by the use of electrons. The more we learn, the more we know there is to learn. Man will never stop learning, no matter what he does.

Education is belief that through education we can achieve the aims we want such as our goals and occupations. We also learn to believe in our country and its leaders, and to believe in God by our church education.

Education is love. Through education we learn that no war was ever successful for anyone. We have learned that peace can only be kept by love. We must educate, and keep on educating people in the golden rule.

Education is peace. It is through education that we have learned to get along with others and cope with their problems.

Education is fear that if we don't keep learning people will never understand the problems that arise now, in this generation, or the future.

Education is life itself. This world isn't just a machine, but it was created by minds and learning. Man has only raised himself over the beasts because he has wanted to learn and make this country a better place to live.

CHRIS TAYLOR
PLYMOUTH

During the prehistoric eras the human race was barely above the animal stage. The language consisted of a few vague grunts and close-knit family groups were the primitive beginnings of civilization. No education was needed then, but now in our growing complex society an education is a requisite for successful living.

The high-paying occupations are becoming more complex and specialized. To keep pace with competition, a person needs a superior education. Presumably an employer would select a college graduate over one who had just completed high school because he understandably desires the qualified individual for that position.

Often the employee is urged, or finds it necessary, to return to school for information concerning improvements that might assist him on the job. This usually precedes advancement and a higher salary.

Furthermore acquiring a sufficient education is a debt a person owes himself. The world's great literature is only a mass of indecipherable words and phrases to an illiterate person, but the same classic novels and poetry could be a rewarding experience to an educated man. Educated people are able to enjoy life more because they have intellectual interests, a well rounded personality, and don't have to feel inferior. If a man with an education has a problem, he is more apt to solve it instead of suppressing it.

The inclination is in the direction of more specialized occupations requiring a more comprehensive background education.

If you desire to be a productive member of tomorrow's society, you must be thoroughly educated. Democracy and illiteracy cannot co-exist.

To have a free, equal and democratic country, people must be highly educated or they will succumb to communist domination.

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

"You aren't a teacher; therefore, you can't know how concerned a conscientious one is about fighting apathy in class, to get a point across."

True, I can't speak as a teacher, but I can speak as a parent. And I look with a jaundiced eye on demonstrations to the degree of immaturity as displayed by the Thurston High classroom teacher last week, burning his expired classification card.

Teaching right from wrong is important. Demonstrating the wrong is stupid. There are a lot of ways to teach people the right from wrong way of crossing the street other than by being hit by a car.

While on the subject of demonstrations, the blackout in New York last week tripped something in the memory as if it had happened before. Sort of a warning. "Electrical disturbance" indeed.

In Ayn Rand's book, "Atlas Shrugged," New York was also pitched into darkness. It was the final result of less work by responsible men; the cessation of men of talent to exist; an alarming number of contented, apathetic men who depended more and more on directives from government to feed them, clothe them, house them — and eventually think for them. Finally, there wasn't anyone around that cared anymore when the wire snapped, the transmitter broke, the power was gone. True, the book exaggerates for emphasis, but the number of comparisons are amazing.

For those of you still interested in thinking for yourself, there are a couple of things happening in Lansing you can do something about.

Important to our suburban areas is Senate Bill 536, which passed the Senate and is now STALLED in the House Ways and Means Committee.

It is a bill to provide financial relief for areas incurring extraordinary population increases since the census (this includes all of us). This bill is to provide for the determination of eligibility of any city, village or township, by resolution of its governing body, to contract with the Federal Bureau of Census for a special population census. The cost of such special census would be borne by each city, village or township which elects to exercise the authority.

The last census was 1960 — the next would be 1970. If they could have one in Livonia this year, do you know what the additional income would mean to that City alone? From the State Highway funds (not sales tax or anything else) it would amount to $260,000.

There is something we can do. Our representatives are now home from Lansing, supposedly with their ear to the ground trying to find out the wishes and interests of the voters. Write, call or wire your State Representative and encourage him to get this Bill passed. The Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee where the Bill could "rest in peace forever" is Inar Erlanson.

Another activity in Lansing to be concerned about, particularly if you are interested in becoming a candidate, is the decision handed down by the Michigan Supreme Court that reopened the legislative apportionment question.

The high court directed the State Apportionment Commission to draw up another legislative districting plan. A local district involved in gerrymandering that made legislators turn pale last election may get back into its home area if it hollers. Solidarity House, thinking the area included the residence of the State Representative (at that time Paul M. Chandler (R)) would not now object because the State Representative in Livonia now is Marvin Stempien (D). The small chunk out of the map was restricted in the Democratic area of Dearborn — where they reasoned Republican Paul M. Chandler could not be elected.

As that chapter was written, however, Solidarity House records proved to be sloppy because Representative Chandler had moved from the southern border of Livonia to the northwest portion of the city.

Those in the orphaned precinct area could now get some action with pen and phone if they would like to rejoin their own Representative District. Write to your Representative.

Police Service Is Late

Ladies, whenever you have the least bit of trouble with your car, feel free to call the Garden City Police. They would be more than happy to run out, and if they don't, raise — you know what.

I personally thought the police had more important things to do than look after cars.

TALKING ABOUT THURSTON:

Dick Touchette Named Thurston's 'Mr. Spirit'

By LYNN BARNETT
Thurston's cheerleaders held a "Mr. Spirit" contest last week. The eight finalists were: Mark Bristol, Bob Crawford, Dan Harris, Gary Knock, Chuck Nole, John Roughley, Jan Russell, and Dick Touchette. During the week canisters bearing the eight finalists names were passed around among the student body. Anyone wishing to vote contributed a penny, nickel, or dime. The amount of $90.12 was collected. The money will go towards cheerleaders camp in the summer. Dick Touchette was voted "Mr. Spirit." He will be given a small remembrance this week.

"The Great Big Doorstep" by Frances Goodrick and Albert Hackett took place Nov. 11, 12, and 13 in Thurston's Little Auditorium. It was sponsored by Thespian Troup 2303 and directed by Mr. William Moore, Speech teacher at Thurston. The cast: Evvie Crochet, Jana Deremo; Topal Crochet, Elaine Slapik; Elma Crochet, Leigh Plossard; Fleece Crochet, Sue Provost; Arthur Crochet, Tim Werdel; Mrs. Crochet, Pat Buchanan; Md. Tobin, Chris Ely; Commodore, Mark Gualdoni; Mrs. Dupre, Joy Kind; Tavo Delacroix, Bob McRae; Dewey Crochet, Bob Palmer; and Mrs. Beaumont Crochet, played by Nanci Greenberg, gave a play enjoyed by all.

Nov. 11 Thurston's Junior Varsity met Redford Union under the lights for the last game of the season. Winning the toss, Thurston took the ball to Redford Union's 36 yard line where their drive was stopped by a combination of penalties. From then on it was a see-saw battle until late in the first quarter when Redford Union blocked a Thurston punt in Eagle territory and four plays later took it in for the score. In the second half Redford Union scored again and at the end of the half it was 0-12. At the start of the second half Redford Union took the ball but was stopped by Eagle defense. Then Thurston took the ball and in two plays drove it into the end zone only to have it called back on a penalty. This seemed to turn the tide against Thurston. Thurston suffered another letdown by having their star end, Rick Wagner, leave the game with a broken finger. No further scoring took place until the third quarter when Bob Bryant scored the first touchdown. Thurston put forth a violent effort but only in vain as the score ended 12-7.

The American Field Service Canister Drive took place Saturday, November 13, from 9-2 p.m. This event climaxed Amer-

ST. AGATHA ACCENTS:

Susan Behrend Chosen 'Student of The Month'

By Mary Lou Mangold
Student of the Month for November is Susan Behrend. Sue, a senior, is presently the Student Council Secretary, co-captain of the cheerleading squad, an active Sodalist, and a member of the National Honor Society, Redford Union Science Seminar, Varsity Club, and Forensic Club. She stands second in a class of 70.

After graduation, Susie plans to attend the Michigan Technological University of the University of Michigan and become a medical technologist.

Sue was elected by her fellow students because of her leadership ability, school service, friendliness, and personality. In short, Sue characterizes the "all-around American Catholic girl."

Physics teacher, Richard Elliott, attended a meeting of the Redford Union Science Seminar on Monday evening in order to confer with Seminar co-ordinator, Joseph Liutink of Redford Union High School, about the project that the physics class is undertaking.

Also at the Seminar meeting—which consisted of films dealing with nuclear structure, the topic under discussion in the physics class this week—were senior members Christopher Berger, Susan Behrend, and Mary Lou Mangold, and guests Denise Allgeyer, James Sherman, Michael Wlezniak, and Timothy Hughes.

The physics class chose officers and appointed committees to direct the project soon to be undertaken. Chairman is Christopher Berger, corresponding secretary, Sue Behrend; recording secretary, Mary Lou Mangold.

Equipment committees are composed of Gerald Kaminski, Daniel Pavlet, Daniel Gillis, Kenneth Krupansky, John Marshall, and Janice Dickinson. Janet Nadolny, Robert Gartner, and Joseph Wlezniak make up the finance committee. Gregory Brower, and Mary Lou Mangold, the research team, and Patricia Clinto, Mary Cooney, and Sharon Brazil will assist in correspondence. The nature of the project has not yet been released.

Last June, the present sophomores, juniors, and seniors elected their class officers for this year. The freshmen, who are now without most of their officers, recently elected Ronald Blackmore their Student Council representative.

The Varsity Club is collecting books or trading stamps with which to obtain prizes for the Varsity Club Card Party scheduled after Christmas.

Pep Clubbers Plan Hayride

by Margaret Rudloff
Those students interested in college scholarships or a free trip to Washington, D.C., or just $50 take heed.

The Mayflower Post 6695, Veterans of Foreign Wars and its Ladies Auxiliary are helping to sponsor the 19th annual Voice of Democracy Contest.

All 10th, 11th, and 12th grade Plymouth High School students are invited to enter this contest by writing a script on the theme, "Democracy: What It Means to Me." A script that can be read aloud in five minutes or less.

National prizes include five college scholarships and a free trip to Washington D.C.

Locally the Mayflower Post is giving a $50 Savings Bond for Plymouth's first place winner and a $25 Savings Bond for the second place winner.

See John Hoben in the Guidance Office for details. Contest deadline is December 1.

We would like to extend a hearty congratulations to senior Jim Piach who was selected the 1965 Junior Achievement Safety Director of the year. A member of the Plyco Company, Jim represented J. A. of Southeastern Michigan at the National Junior Achievement Conference at Indiana University during August.

This Friday will be a mixture of hay and laughter as the Pep Club holds its hayride. Club President, Carol Wheeler announced that plans have been made for a party to be held at the Chip soon.

Just a reminder... Now that all P.H.S. students have their I.D. cards be sure to have them with you during school hours and be able to present them at all school functions.

Congratulations to the Junior Class for turning the gym into a "Wonderland" and making their J-Hop the success it was.

LADYWOOD LORE:

Students Rehearse for Drama Festival

BY MARGO MURPHY

Ladywood's Drama Club is now preparing for the annual Genesian Festival, to be held on Nov. 21 at Dominican High in Detroit. This year the Drama Club chose the one act play "White Queen, Red Queen" by T. B. Morris. "White Queen, Red Queen" is a play with a magnificent historical background. It is built around the tangle of feminine intrigues that surrounded the throne of England in 1531. The Drama Club hopes to present the play to the school during the Talent Show in December, or during the One Act Plays.

The senior class will sponsor the annual Jig 'n Jamboree on Nov. 19 and 21. The dance will be on Friday and the fair consisting of novelty games, prizes, and a roast beef dinner will be held Sunday from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The first quarter report cards were sent home Friday, November 12. The Parent-Teacher conferences were held on Monday, November 15. All the students had a free day because of the conferences.

The juniors, sophomores, freshmen had their pictures taken on Nov. 5, for use in the yearbook.

A survey is being taken by the "Future Homemakers of America Club," a newly organized club at Ladywood. The purpose of this survey is to promote eating a better breakfast, since November is "Eat a Good Breakfast Month."

Bentley High Students Enthusiastic About Play

By SUSAN DOWELL
Not only was the "Time Out For Ginger" but also a lot of time spent on applause for the entertainers in this year's Senior Play. Yes, "Time Out For Ginger," the senior play enacted this year, was a big hit. On Nov. 12 and 13 the evenings of the two performances in the auditorium at Bentley were packed.

fect for her part as the understanding mother. Her quick replies to her husband, when he so often begged her to stay home with him instead of going to see one of her daughters perform, were followed by laughter.

helped as student director. The job of student manager was fulfilled by Norma Ditar.

AT WONDERLAND BEGINNING NOVEMBER 26

The play was mainly about a young girl who thought that men and women should be equally qualified to do any sort of thing. Anne Friedrichs became "Ginger" for a few hours and took the part of that girl who believed in equality among girls and boys. She believed this so strongly that she decided to go out for the high school football team. The thing that amazed everyone was that she made the team. Although Ginger's boyfriend was against this there was nothing much Tommy (Roger Dean) could do.

Yearbooks are still on sale! Students who are interested in buying one of these worthwhile books can do so until Nov. 22. The yearbook is a treasure that Bentley pupils can keep to remind them of the days that were so much fun. All students planning to graduate from Bentley should plan on purchasing the yearbook.

The Parnasus club is now in the process of getting stories and poetry for this year's magazine. Any works that students feel are good enough to enter the Parnasus should do so as soon as possible.

Two of the funniest comedians in the show played the parts of Ginger's parents. Mike Degutis, an excited father with his funny hat and raccoon coat had people sore from laughing so hard. Sally Bowser was per-

175 Attend Annual Mason-K of C Dinner

More than 175 attended Plymouth's unusual Mason-Knights of Columbus banquet at the K of C Hall at which John Gilles, Jr., district deputy of the K of C, served as toastmaster. Headlining the program was William Bannon, superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction, who spoke on juvenile delinquency. James Popp, Worshipful Master of Plymouth Rock Lodge, and Cass Fleszar, Grand Knight of the Plymouth K of C, gave short talks. The invocation and closing prayer were given by Rev. Henry Walch. Frank Ross, Past Grand Knight, was general chairman of the dinner with Dr. Thomas Klucka and Dr. Robert Hindman as co-chairmen of the program. The unusual program started in 1950 and has been revived annually with the exception of the years when the building of the K of C Hall halted it temporarily.

VFW Urges Cards for Vietnam Men

There is an excellent opportunity for everyone to bring a bit of cheer and an expression of moral support to the men on the front lines in Vietnam. Simply take a Christmas card—write a little personal note of good wishes and encouragement—include your name and address—and mail it unsealed to MAIL CALL VIETNAM, Box 450, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

They will then be sent to the boys who are in the thick of action. This is a chance to bring home a little nearer to many fellows, and to show them we support them in this endeavor.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home, at Eaton Rapids, is totally sponsored by all posts and auxiliaries in the United States. Michigan has three cottages there.

The home is for widows and orphans or needy children of veterans. Widows may stay at the home until all of their children reach the age of 18.

National Home Chairman, Loreta Olson, reminds us that: An auxiliary and as individuals we buy National Home Christmas Seals, send money to the children graduating from high school, send money for their Christmas and New Year's eve parties, stock the pantry of our three cottages with extra canned goods, and buy different furnishings—as-needed—for each cottage. These furnishings run from lamps and tables to pianos.

On Sunday, Dec. 5, from 2 to 5 p.m. is Gift Shop "Open House" in the auditorium at the VA hospital in Ann Arbor. Both Post and Unit members are invited to attend. Gift Shop days are Monday, Dec. 6 and Tuesday, Dec. 7.

Rights Group To Vote on Scholarship

The Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity will meet Wednesday, Nov. 17 at which time the proposed Scholarship program will be presented for vote of the membership.

The intention of the scholarship fund is to send a Negro student to Schoolcraft Community College each year. Selections will be made from the Detroit area, based on the individual's financial need. Members of the Assembly's school committee will be on hand to outline the plan. Fifty dollars of the estimated $1,000 necessary to set up the fund has already been received from the Plymouth Ministerial Association.

The meeting will be held in Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Epiphany, 41390 Five Mile Rd., just north of Lake Pointe Village.

Legion Auxiliary Aids Patients at Maybury

Rehabilitation Chairman Fern Burleson announced that American Legion Passage-Gayde Unit 391 sent apples, oranges, cookies and cigars for over 90 patients at Maybury for Veterans Day. Members from the Plymouth Post, Fred Johnson and Jim Stein helped distribute the items. Other units in the 17th District also contributed to this happy occasion.

Mrs. Burleson also stated that preparations have started for the Christmas project—the Gift Shop in the VA hospitals. A Christmas shopping project is underway by the women of the American Legion Auxiliary throughout the country in behalf of disabled war veterans.

Gifts will be distributed through approximately 200 Christmas gift shops operated in hospitals of the Veterans Administration and other hospitals where veterans are under care.

Plans for the gift shops are now being finalized by state organizations of the Auxiliary. Passage-Gayde Unit 391 has completed its shopping list which consists of clothes, dolls and toys. There are no cash registers in the Auxiliary gift shops. Everything is free for the sick and disabled veterans, including gift wrapping and mailing to their homes.

Workers and gifts for the VA hospital in Ann Arbor are supplied by the 2nd and 17th Districts. Any Unit member wishing to donate one of these days by helping the veterans in the gift shop, contact Rehabilitation Chairman Fern Burleson.

Unit members of Passage-Gayde Auxiliary will have their business meeting Wednesday, Nov. 17 at 8 p.m. in the Post

Home. A reminder of the 17th District meeting on Friday, Nov. 19, at 8 p.m. in the Veterans Community Center on Main Street in Plymouth. A luncheon will follow, but will be served at the Passage-Gayde Post Home. Plan to attend the gala New Year's Eve celebration at the Passage-Gayde Post Home. Dancing music from 10 p.m.-4 a.m. supplied by the Suburbanites. Door prizes, luncheon, set-ups furnished—lug your jug. For tickets contact Entertainment Chairman Robert Richter or Post Home.

Spartans Face Irish In Windup

East Lansing — The football eyes of the nation will be focused on South Bend Saturday when Michigan State tests Notre Dame in a game that could mean the national championship to the winner.

Michigan State owned an 9-0 record after Saturday's game with Indiana and the Irish are 7-0-1. Saturday's contest will be the season finale for the Spartans, while the Irish will have Miami (Fla.) remaining.

It will be a battle of two great running teams with equally tough defensive units. The Spartans also can offer the passing combination of Steve Juday and Gene Washington. Bill Zloch, the Irish quarterback, is a proven passer.

Coach Ara Parseghian has three steady ground-gainers in halfbacks Nick Eddy and Boll Wolski and fullback Larry Conjar. They will challenge a Michigan State defense that has allowed only 50.4 yards per game rushing and held Michigan, Ohio State and Iowa to a combined total of minus 79 yards on the ground.

The Spartan running attack is paced by halfback Clinton Jones and fullback Bob Apisa. Each had scored nine touchdowns prior to yesterday's action. Jones had netted 638 yards and Apisa 614, and each averaged better than five yards per carry.

FARMINGTON HIGH NEWS:

Farmington Students to Visit 'Old World'

By MADGE HILDEBRANDT

Exotic foods and foreign goods comprise part of the Old World Market held at the International Institute in downtown Detroit. The market opens Nov. 18 and closes Nov. 21.

Farmington Senior High students will make their annual trip to the Old World Market Friday, Nov. 19. Members of the French, Latin, and Spanish, and Exchange clubs will load school buses immediately after the close of school and leave about 2:45 p.m. The students expect to return between 7:00 and 7:30 p.m.

Among the market's many attractions are representatives from several European and Asiatic countries. There are displays of some of the countries' products, which are for sale, plus foods such as Turkish espresso and Danish pastry.

Plans are underway for the construction of a concession stand at Clarence Bell Football Field. The FHS architectural drawing classes are designing the stand, which will probably be used for sales of tickets and refreshments and the storage of sports equipment. When the plans are completed, they will be presented to the Farmington Board of Education for approval.

The Trip Club was organized for the express purpose of selecting the destination of the senior trip and collecting money for the journey. Wednesday, Nov. 10, the senior class voted on three possible trips. The result was a boat trip to Mackinac Island from May 27 through May 29. The extra cost has not been determined, but it will be approximately $50.

Students from Our Lady of Sorrows High School visited FHS Monday, Nov. 15. The visit was part of a series of exchange days planned by the Student Council for the purpose of observing the councils and classes of various area high schools. Tuesday, Nov. 9, the FHS representatives journeyed to OLS on the first exchange. Visits will probably be made to Bentley High, Southfield High, and North Farmington Senior High.

The FHS Student Council has contributed $25 to the Farmington Education Association Scholarship Fund in memory of Joseph Manzi, former chemistry and physics teacher at FHS.

Picked for AF Course

Airman Paul M. Reece, son of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar E. Reece, 14119 Bainbridge, Livonia, has been selected for training at Sheppard AFB, Tex., as an Air Force aircraft maintenance specialist. The airman, who attended Bentley High School, recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

THE SIZE AND enthusiasm of the crowd and the quality of the art are apparent in this picture of the Farmington Artists Club show. The fall show was recently held at First Farmington Savings and Loan. First Prize went to Eileen Schenkel for her "Lobster in Abstract." Second Prize went to Doreen Ozker for "Standing Nude." Annetta Lind's "Victoriana" took Third Prize. "A Goodly Child" by Allie Wilson, and "Abstract 2" by Irene Szczeniowski received Honorable Mentions. Farmington Mayor W. V. Brotherton and Township Supervisor Curt Hall were among the guests.

Cooperative Extension Service Lists Programs

JANUARY — "Personal Improvement" an evening or daytime lesson presented by a John Powers School Representative. FEBRUARY — "Husband & Wife Relationships", geared to different levels of age groups. "New Convenience Foods". MARCH — "Clothing Construction Techniques." APRIL — "A Family Finance Series", Insurance terms explained by a qualified insurance teacher also there will be a talk by a Michigan State University expert on handling family finances.

MAY — "Foods and History of Michigan."

"Homemaker's Banquet", a county member dinner and husband's are invited.

Anyone in the Plymouth, Northville, Bellville and surrounding areas is welcome to join. Afternoon and evening groups are now meeting.

Civic Federation Eyes Vandalism, Traffic Problem

The Federation of Livonia Civic Associations held its regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 9 at the Police Building.

Malicious mischief and traffic problems were discussed at length. Vandalism, sometimes accompanied by malicious mischief, is present in varying degrees throughout the city, the Federation was told.

The Rosedale Gardens Civic Association, in the area bounded by Plymouth, Joy, Farmington and Merriman Roads, is affected by crimes of theft, violence and malicious mischief equally as much as other neighborhoods, and is concerned to the extent of making a survey of all its residents, it was announced.

Traffic Problems (particularly in the Franklin High School area and other nearby schools) are pertinent to this area and are included in the survey. This type of information is valuable to the Police Department, in that it comes from those directly affected by these problems.

Mischief ranges from the throwing of eggs at homes to the throwing of bricks through windows and windshields. The use of pressurized paint spray cans has become a menace in the defacing of buildings and traffic signs.

The Proposed Development Policies for 1965-1970 Growth of the city of Livonia was discussed. Members were urged to keep informed and to participate in the Citizens Advisory Committee with an eye to the future of Livonia.

The ever popular—or unpopular—matter of lack of Police protection in the city, especially at night, was subject to some discussion. It was noted that all larcenies and cases of vandalism should be reported to the local police. Also, preventive measures should be taken by citizens in providing adequate lighting in and about their homes.

The next regular meeting of Livonia Civic Associations is scheduled for Tuesday, Dec. 14 at 8 p.m. in room B-1 of the Livonia Police Building. Interested citizens of Livonia are welcome to attend.

Sorrow's Grade School Team Wins Title

On Sunday, Nov. 7, Our Lady of Sorrows Grade School Gunners ended one of their best seasons in recent years with a 27-1 victory over Our Lady of Refuge of Orchard Lake to win the Suburban League championship.

Posting a 5-0-2 league record, and a 7-0-2 overall record, the Gunners were one of the strongest teams in recent C.Y.O. football history. The Gunners averaged over 300 yards on the ground per game.

What's so super about it:

1. It stays stain-free long after the others turn into stained steel blades.
2. It has none of the tiny, hard chunks in the steel that can mar the smoothness of your shave.
3. It has a thinner, glob-free coating along the edge. Again, a more comfortable (and closer) shave.

North Farmington Closes Season With Perfect Record

A bowl bid for North Farmington.

Not this year. School officials frown on post-season competition (John K. Cotton says).

We'll never know how the Raiders might have fared against Battle Creek Central, the Associated Press leader; or Bay City Central, the Free Press kingpin.

What we do know is that the North Farmington football program has grown into manhood—at the tender age of five years.

The school may match, but can never exceed, the finest record in this novice's young history.

A 14-0 victory over rival Farmington Saturday culminated a perfect season of nine straight wins.

A Northwest Suburban League title in the trophy case. A city championship on the mantle. Or a two-city championship if you want to count Denby's triumph over Redford on Saturday.

In case memories are short, the Raiders annihilated the East Side Detroit Public School kings last week.

One can almost believe that Christmas comes in November this year.

A special accolade is reserved for Ron Holland, the Raiders' Svengali.

The 29-year-old football coach from Ionia bettered a record in each of four coaching years at North Farmington. From a 6-3 mark the first two years, he improved a 7-1-1 record last year to a 9-0 standing the past season, adding up to a scintillating 28-7-1.

The school's biggest previous football moment came last week against Denby. Holland's players were "sky-high" for THAT game.

But Denby wasn't the final name on the North Farmington slate.

A traditional battle with Farmington still loomed as a threat to an unspoiled campaign.

The coach's chore is to prepare his kids for all games, and the Falcons were a dangerous foe, much better than a 3-5 record seemed to indicate.

One slip could send the Raiders tumbling from their high perch. Farmington would be happy to provide a banana peel for the Raiders' cleats.

No worry.

Holland was up to the task. No letdown here, thank you.

The pride that comes from a clash with Farmington was instilled in every Raider player, right from the game's opening minute.

North Farmington took the kickoff on its own 13-yard line and marched 87 yards for a touchdown. Quarterback Bill Oldershaw plunged the final three yards.

In the second period, halfback Larry August pedaled 31 yards for another touchdown to close out the game's scoring. Bengt Hanson booted both extra points with perfection.

Bengt Hanson? A soccer star from Stockholm discovered by the coach that paid off in spades. If you will pardon the pun, Holland and Sweden make a perfect match.

Oldershaw on rollouts and fullback Craig Wycinsky divided the major portion of 185 yards accumulated by the groundminded Raiders, but the complete line shared the plaudits of the coach on defense.

Holland had kind words for all in stopping Farmington on the Raider 13 in the second stanza and again inches short of a first down on the seven in the final period after a lost fumble.

The Falcons have yet to taste the sweetest of victory in the series. The North Farmington reserves won 21-7 in 1961 and the varsity ran up 7-0 and 18-6 wins the following two years. Last year's struggle ended in a scoreless deadlock.

Pride, though, is often helped from the stands and North Farmington didn't trail in the battle of the bleachers either.

A parade of 120 cars decorated in brown and gold bunting with appropriate signs, brought 1,800 North Farmington ticket sales to the Farmington field.

It was a sunny day on the field, but an extremely wet finish—for the North Farmington coaches who were escorted to a shower, fully clothed after the game by reveling Raider players, celebrating the conclusion of a banner year.

That cleaning bill will come awfully cheap at the price.

NORTH FARMINGTON'S Craig Wycinsky runs into the arms of Farmington's Ray Lardie after breaking through the line during the annual battle between the traditional city rivals.

Franklin Bows Over Hapless Wayne High, 46-0

Practice makes perfect. And how!

Franklin football coach Bob Bentley put in heavy practice sessions the past week on short "look-in" passes up the middle.

Wayne, Franklin's Saturday opponent, usually plays an eight and nine-man line and Bentley figured to combat the Zebra strategy with quick lob passes.

Bentley figured "real good."

Franklin closed out another successful season by riddling Wayne's secondary with five touchdown aeriels in a 46-0 rout to bring plenty of joy to the Joy Road partisans.

The win, Franklin's sixth in nine games, gave Bentley a two-year record of 15 wins against three losses.

And two of the losses were heart breakers to unbeaten teams—a 7-6 defeat by Bentley and a 14-7 decision to North Farmington, with the winning touchdown coming on the last play of the game.

The patriots exploited Wayne's weakness before the spectators had settled in their seats.

Franklin won the toss and returned the kickoff to its own 30-yard line. On the first play, quarterback Gary Birkett lofted the pigskin just over the line.

SIGNS WOLOCH: Turner Selected as Tiger Scout

Orchids are in order for Al Turner and Dave Woloch of Redford Township baseball fame.

Turner, who has managed Little League, Colt League, Connie Mack and Free Press teams in the Township, has been named to the scouting staff of the Detroit Tigers.

The announcement was made by Don Lund, who heads the Tigers' minor league system, and Eddie Katalinas, the team's chief scout.

Turner's job will be to pay strict attention to the amateur baseball played in the Greater Livonia Area—at Henry Ford Field in Livonia, in the Township, in Wayne, Farmington, Plymouth, Nankin and in other adjacent areas.

In hiring Turner, the Tigers proved beyond doubt what many sandlot enthusiasts have known for a long time: the area's baseball ranks among the best in the state.

Last season, the Tigers were able to delegate veteran scout Louis D'Annunzio to games in the area.

"But, Lou wasn't able to spend as much time there as he should have," said Katalinas. "That's why we have appointed Turner."

Turner wasted little time in plucking an area standout and signing him to a Tiger contract.

The player is Dave Woloch, who graduated a year ago from Thurston high and attended

Henry Ford Community College last fall.

Woloch, who bats left and plays second base, hit over .400 in three seasons of playing on Redford Township's Connie Mack and Free Press League teams.

Woloch was picked on Free Press all-star teams three years straight. He also had the distinction of socking three balls over the fence and into the river in championship contests in the Free Press tournament at Michigan State University in East Lansing.

Woloch has been assigned to the Tigers' Class A farm at Daytona Beach in the Florida State League.

Turner, meantime, stated he probably will do some managing again this summer.

"I plan to handle a Redford Township Free Press League team again," said Turner. "I may also have something to do with our Southend Connie Mack team. It depends on whether I can get some help."

Bob Atkins of Redford Union will continue to direct the Township's Northland Connie Mack team.

Thurston Falls in Final Game

Lose by a point . . . lose 'em by 20 points . . . they all hurt.

In the case of Thurston High's 1965 football team, the final record shows four wins, four defeats and one tie.

But Coach Bill McDonald's forces never were beaten badly.

The worst margin of setback was nine points.

Last Friday night, it was 7-0 against Thurston at Hamtramck.

McDonald was unhappy. He thought the officiating didn't help the Townshippers.

But, there was a bright spot. Twenty-six players will return to Thurston's gridders next fall.

"We had a young team this year," declared McDonald. "Some of our own mistakes hurt. I'm sure that we'll be a much different—and better club in 1966."

The game at Hamtramck was played in two halves—as all games are—but each team dominated in one half.

Hamtramck held sway in the first two quarters scoring in the initial four minutes when L. J. Carpenter capped a 73-yard rush by jumping in from the ten.

Thurston saw little of the ball in the first half. Hamtramck had it for 45 plays to 15 for the South Townshippers.

Came the second half, Thurston dominated. The only difficulty: Thurston couldn't score.

Thurston put on one march from 15 to 30 to the Cosmos' six. Paul Santangelo, Bill Miller and Reg Barringer did some fine running in the advance.

Barry Simescu hit on a couple nice passes.

But Thurston stalled with the scoring line in sight.

The Townshippers had the ball in most of the second half. Hamtramck was limited to only 22 yards in total offense after the intermission.

However, the game had been decided—on that romp by Carpenter before the first period was five minutes old.

Watchmaker Will Star at Swim Meet

When the athletes, judges, referees and fans meet Saturday at Bentley High for the AAU Swim Meet none of them will see Gaston Villier, but Villier will be the star timer there.

He will be represented by 16 jeyeled-action, 1/10 second, split-second Bulova sports timers, valued at $350 each—to be used by judges and referees who have received them on loan from Beitner Jewelry of Plymouth.

Last year, Villier says, he personally checked the second-splitting accuracy of 14,563 timers used at 880 amateur sports events of all types—from Olympic trials to regattas.

As soon as the event is concluded, Beitner Jewelry says, the Bulova Timers will be immediately returned to Villier for another prompt checkup and check-out for split-second accuracy.

Only those timers personally checked and synchronized by Villier with electronic and other professional watchmaker's equipment are loaned for use at sports events, he emphasizes.

Bentley Fete Set Wednesday

An informal dinner honoring the unbeaten-untied Bentley high football team this Wednesday in the school cafeteria.

Bentley swept through its schedule with an 8-0 record to take the undisputed Suburban Six League title and wind up among the top ten in the state in the Detroit Free Press Class A ratings.

CLOSES WITH VICTORY: Happy End at Glenn

When a team improves, there can be no complaints.

So went the 1965 football story at Wayne's John Glenn high school.

A year ago, when Glenn fielded its first grid machine, the school wound up with a record showing three victories against six losses.

The 1965 campaign closed last Friday—and Glenn flashed a happy record of five wins, three losses and one tie.

What added to the Glenn achievements was a final night victory over Gibraltar Carlson by a 33-6 score.

"It's great to bow out a winner," said Coach Bob Lusk. "It makes the memories during the long winter months so much more satisfying."

Glenn dominated the proceedings all the way against Carlson.

It was 13-0 after one quarter, 26-0 at half and 33-0 before Carlson finally notched a touchdown in the fading moments of the game.

Dick Dry, Ron Kuban and John Woods led the way for Glenn against Carlson.

Drury started the scoring by slamming 22 yards over left tackle in the initial quarter.

Kuban, who was voted a spot on the Northwest Suburban League all stars, also found the slot at left tackle to his liking. He went through it for nine yards and another TD.

Gary Kerr's conversion made it 13-0 before the first quarter was over.

A short, six-yard pass from Jack Holland to Drury fattened the Glenn lead to 19-0.

Then it was Kuban again on a 10-yard dash with Kerr converting to send Glenn to the dressing room at halftime with a fat, 26-0 command.

The curtain dropped on a brilliant football campaign last Friday night for Chris Hawkins, a Clarenceville high school back.

Chris ran for 75 yards against Crestwood high to bring his season's yardage total to 1235, something few prep ever achieve in three campaigns of varsity play, much the less one season.

But Hawkins hardly was in a cheerful mood as the game finished.

Clarenceville was on the short end of a 20-13 score.

What's more, the Trojans closed the schedule with just two victories in nine games.

It was a slight improvement over some of the recent seasons for Clarenceville. There were some in which the school didn't win a game, or maybe just once.

Clarenceville picked up 194 yards against Crestwood. In Woods hit pay dirt in the fourth quarter and it was a great moment for this youngster. Although a regular left halfback all season, Woods hadn't scored a touchdown in any of the previous action.

Mike McMabkian followed up with a pass to Wood for the extra point.

A pass brought the Carlson team its touchdown in the game's fading moments.

Glenn will lose 18 players before the next season arrives. Lusk, who once played for the Detroit Lions, will have 17 returns.

West Clips East for GC Title

As Johnny Carson says, happiness comes in many ways. For Garden City West's high school football team an entire season was made Friday night when West prevailed over East, 13-6, in the inaugural grid battle between the two Garden City Public high schools.

At stake, in addition to the city title, was a brand new trophy being made available by the Chamber of Commerce. For both teams, the season has been a rough one — in the victory column. West had won twice before Friday. So had East.

This meant that the city game carried something extra. It actually wasn't as close as the score would indicate. East didn't score until after time had run out in the fourth period.

Coach Harold Burkholder of West naturally was elated. His greatest raves were for the West defense.

"These are the kids who won this game," he said. "We had a good offense going in the first half, but the offense sputtered the rest of the way."

There were praises, too, by Burkholder for the losers. "East gave us a tremendous battle," said Burkholder. "They never quit."

The game started on an electrifying note. West's Bo Ardell took the kickoff and ran something like 100 yards for what appeared a touchdown. But the referee said "no soap."

The official claimed that Ardell had caught the ball and stepped back into the end zone. Under high school rules this made the ball dead and gave West possession out on its own 20.

It didn't take West too long to score however. With Mike Taft and Bennie Shoemaker in charge of a driving, ground game, West marched for 65 yards.

Finally with the ball on the East two, Taft smashed for the touchdown. In the second period, a spectacular 72-yard run by Quarterback Chuck Dobbs made the score, 12-0, for West. Dobbs took the ball around end on a keeper play and zoomed all the way.

Mike Alexander booted the conversion for what was West's 13th and final point of the night.

Just before half time, West engineered another drive that carried to the East one-yard line.

It was second down, but West fumbled the ball away—as it did four other times in the game — and a great scoring chance went out the window.

No scoring took place in the third period and neither team put on much of a threat until East finally got going in the fading moments of the game.

With 40 seconds left, East started from the West 40. A pair of long runs by Dick Saylor and Mike Sparkman brought East to about the half-yard line.

On the next play, East was stopped, but West was found guilty of a foul. Although time had expired, the game couldn't end with the defense making a penalty.

So East had one more chance and Saylor drove in. The victory gave West a final record of three triumphs against six losses.

Coach Dick Wilson went predominantly with juniors and sophomores throughout 1965. He'll be stacked with veterans comes the next campaign.

CLOSING IN on Garden City West's Benny Rick Blood (24), Steve Fugabon (12) and N. Shoemaker as he tries to sweep wide around Gardner (30) during the traditional intercity battle between the two rivals.

VICTORY SPOILS: Robert L. Baird, the Detroit Race Course's leading jockey, and Jack Van Berg, top trainer during the 1965 meeting, receive beautiful trophies symbolic of their victories from Vice President Paul R. Ryder. It was Baird's third DRC riding championship and the second straight season Van Berg has been the leading trainer.

DRC Closes Year With New Records

The longest thoroughbred racing season in Michigan's history also was the most successful. The 84-day meeting of the Detroit Race Course closed on a record note. A crowd of 21,947 fans turned out for the big closing day program and wagered $1,746,252. It was the second highest wagering total in the history of the Livonia track. The figure was topped only by the Labor Day mutuel handle this year when 26,662 fans wagered $1,751,939. For its 84-day run, the DRC attracted an all-time high of 977,422 fans for a daily average of 11,636.

The total mutuel play was $70,483,041 for a daily average of $839,083. This contrasted with a daily average handle of $779,890 in 1964 and a daily average of $588,676 in 1963. In commenting on the record-breaking season, Dale Shaffer, President of the DRC said: "This has been a memorable year for the Detroit Race Course and for thoroughbred racing in Michigan. I am proud of the amazing strides Michigan racing has made in recent seasons. It is my hope it will continue to gain in public acceptance and prestige."

Shaffer pointed out the DRC management had expressed its confidence in the future of racing in the metropolitan Detroit area with its $3,000,000 construction and modernization program this season. The closing of the meeting was highlighted by the amazing riding of the veteran Robert L. Baird to win the jockey championship. The 44-year-old star pulled away in the final week to beat 18-year-old James P. Bowlds for the title. Baird rolled up 70 victories to 64 for Bowlds. For the second straight year, Jack Van Berg took the trainer's title. Jack, who trained the large string owned by his father, Marion H. Van Berg, took the crown with 44 victories.

Stevenson a Winner in First Campaign

Football season No. 1 has ended on a happy and successful note for Livonia's new Stevenson high school. Under the coaching of John Reardon, Stevenson won six and lost one. The setback occurred in Stevenson's first game.

In its initial schedule, Stevenson played six reserve foes and one varsity rival.

"We progressed real well," said Reardon after Stevenson had rallied to down the John Glenn reserves last Thursday evening in an 18-14 score at Bentley high.

"What I liked was the fact that these kids were hard workers. They never cried or complained. When we called a Saturday practice, they were there."

The fact Stevenson did so well its first year should not be taken to mean the school will run wild again in 1966.

"Remember, we are going to be playing all varsity rivals," said Reardon. "We'll be up against North Farmington and Walled Lake—all powers on the gridiron."

"But, we're off on the right foot. That's the most important thing."

Stevenson will not lose a player from its 36-man squad via graduation. A player or two may move, or decide not to play.

Livonia Tankers Win 12 Awards

The Bulldog Aquatic Club of Livonia, in its second AAU meet of the season, took 12 awards in a field of 35 events at Hazel Park on Nov. 7. The Age-Group Swimming Meet drew 1100 entries from 21 Michigan Clubs. Medals were awarded for first, second, and third places, and ribbons for fourth, fifth and sixth. BAC winners were:

- Girls 10 and Under 50 yard Breaststroke: 3rd—Susan Marshall, 42.6.
- Boys 10 and Under 50 yard Breaststroke: 1st, Tommy Duprey, 40.5; 3rd, Stephen Ankerston, 42.0.
- Boys 13-14 100 yard Breaststroke: 1st, Bob Jepson, 1:12.
- Girls 15-17 100 yard Breaststroke: 5th, Wendy Simmons.
- Boys 10 and Under 50 yard Freestyle: 1st, Tommy Duprey, 29.5.
- Boys 13-14 50 yard Freestyle: 3rd, Dan Schreiber, 25.1; 5th, Bob Jepson, 26.5.
- Girls 15-17 50 yard Freestyle: 3rd, Diane Rogissart, 28.0.
- Boys 15-17 400 yard Freestyle: 1st, Dennis Rogissart, 4:21.6.
- Boys 13-14 100 yard Backstroke: 3rd, Dan Schreiber, 1:10.0.
- Boys 13-14 200 yard Individual Medley: 3rd, Bob Jepson, 2:30.7; 4th, Dan Schreiber, 2:31.6.
- Boys 11-12 100 yard Butterfly: 6th, Steve Grant, 1:23.9.
- Girls 15-17 100 yard Butterfly: 2nd, Diane Rogissart, 1:13.9.

Dan Keith led the way in beating the Glenn reserves. He scored twice, including the winning touchdown on a seven-yard run with just under two minutes to go after Stevenson had staged a 60-yard march.

Glenn, down 0-6 after Keith had scored on a four-yarder in the first period, bounced ahead 14-6. Then an electrifying 65-yard pass play from Tim Parker to Craig London put Stevenson back into the game.

Some six minutes remained in the fourth period when Stevenson took over on the Stevenson 40. With Keith and Paul Pender alternating as ball carriers, the Stevenson team roared down field until Keith barged for the winning score.

Livonia to Host AAU Swim Meet

The Bulldog Aquatic Club, in its third year of existence, will host its second annual AAU Swim Meet at the Bentley High School Pool on Nov. 20. The Meet will start at 9 a.m. and spectators are welcome.

Trojans Star

A pass from Dave Wilson to Mike Nye for 28 yards netted Clarenceville its first touchdown and enabled the Trojans to lag, 14-7, at halftime.

Crestwood scored again to start the third period and Hawkins closed out the scoring when he slipped in from three yards out.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

We've said it before and we repeat: What makes this job of reporting so interesting is the people you meet. People like: J. WALTER KENNEDY: He's the president of the National Basketball Association. What a diversified career Kennedy has known. You remember him first as a publicity man for the University of Notre Dame. Later, he'd drop around plugging the Harlem Globetrotters and he had a lot to do with Little League baseball on a national scale. He served as the mayor of Stamford, Conn., and now he runs the greatest basketball players in the world. Success hasn't changed Kennedy. He doesn't even anger us when we jump down his throat when we disagree with some of his very capable referees.

BILL McDONALD: He's the Thurston High football coach and like so many of his brother mentors he never faults openly his players — win or lose. He may utter some rough remarks behind the scenes, but when he talks with the press, "Mac" is quick to declare: "Our kids played very well. Sure, they lost, but don't blame our boys." Maybe it was the breaks, maybe the officiating, maybe a lot of other things. But you could never get McDonald to alibi.

JACK ADAMS: Mr. Hockey in these parts for more years than he or a lot of other folks care to remember. Adams' big interest today is the Central Hockey League, to which the Red Wings, Montreal, Toronto, etc., send their best young players. "It's great working with such young men," says Adams. "I get a thrill every time one makes it up to the National Hockey League."

DUFFY DAUGHTERTY: He needs no introduction, we're sure. The bossman of Michigan State's footballers appears a cinch to be voted the "coach-of-the-year." How many rated his Spartans as a major threat this season? But, look where they are today . . . getting ready for the trip to the roses. Duffy hasn't changed. When the going was tough at MSU, you seldom heard him complain. He'd always manage a smile. The smiles now come much easier.

(Speaking of Michigan State, it's ridiculous that the Spartans' game with Notre Dame won't be on television Saturday. It all goes to show how stupid some people can be. Here's the game-of-the-week, maybe the game-of-the-year. But there's no TV because of a ridiculous ruling that no team can appear more than twice in a single season. Notre Dame already has made two appearances.)

DAVE DEBUSSCHERE: The youthful, playing coach of the Detroit Pistons could be crying the way things have gone for him this year. The losses of Terry Dischinger and Reggie Harding . . . the death of Don Wattrick . . . the defeats his team has suffered in the late stages after holding sizable leads in the early going. Like the McDonalds and Daughtertys, DeBusschere isn't the criticizing type. When Dave does bark, it's usually about a player named DeBusschere.

AL ACKERMAN: You see him on Channel 4 and you hear him on WWJ radio. Al has brought to his radio station one of the top sports programs in the country. Nightly from 8 until 11:30, except on Saturdays and Sundays and when the Red Wings play, Al does a running report on sports. He talks about everything in the way of athletics . . . from the pros to the kids. It's been our privilege to join Al with regular reports on the Pistons. Check in with Al some evening. You won't be sorry.

DAN RYAN. Here's a name that hasn't made the headlines too frequently in this newspaper. We apologize. Dan ran cross country for Franklin High School. He had a great season. So did his team in winning the league title. Dan also placed eighth in the state meet. Unfortunately for Dan, for Redford Union's Jack Shepherd and the other prep cross country men, very few folks showed much interest in their accomplishments. The harriers attract few, if any spectators. They run truly for their schools and themselves. And, it's no snap, galloping two miles on a chilly, raining day when all you have on are some gym trunks and a T-shirt to keep you warm. So, a salute to Dan, for a job so well done.

LARRY JOINER: Bentley's unbeaten-untied football coach who put together a power when not too many expected that the Livonians would even make a serious challenge for the Suburban Six League championship.

LaFond's 3 Tallies Lead Way

Cliff LaFond's running again was the highlight as Our Lady of Sorrows' high school football team ended its 1965 season on a winning note Sunday by scalping Ann Arbor St. Thomas, 35-0.

LaFond, a junior scampered for three touchdowns and 186 yards to up his final year's total to 13 touchdowns and a grand 1,470 yards—one of the best marks achieved by any prep gridgers in the state.

In addition to his 13 TD's, LaFond tallied 14 extra points to give him a total of 92 points for the campaign.

His efforts on the ground against St. Thomas came in 16 carries, which means that he averaged 11.5 yards per carry.

Franklin Harriers In Easy Victory

Franklin High's cross country team romped over Bentley, 22-35, in its final dual meet of the season.

Dan Ryan was clocked in 10 minutes, 18 seconds, to pace the winning school. He was trailed over the finish line by Fred Edwards of Bentley, Rick Hansen of Franklin took third. Franklin finished the season with an 8-1 record. The team also capped the Northwest Suburban League title.

How to Repair Battery Bells

QUESTION: The bell on our front door works with two dry cell batteries.

A few months ago, the bell didn't work. After I bought new batteries, it worked again.

This time it didn't last more than two weeks. Once more I replaced the batteries and once more it was okay.

Now the bell is out of order again. Can you tell me what is wrong and how to fix it?

ANSWER: It appears likely that there is a short circuit in the bell wiring.

This results when two pieces of uninsulated wiring touch and thus take the power out of the batteries very quickly.

You can attempt to trace the short circuit with a tester available at an inexpensive price in a hardware store or simply re-place the wiring.

The latter is done by attaching new wires to the old and fishing them through the wall.

Before you do this, however, be sure that this time it isn't the bell button that is at fault.

Remove the push button and see if the two wires are connected properly.

If they are, short circuit the two terminals with the blade of a screwdriver or knife. If the bell rings, then the push button needs replacing.

Should there be no sound, check the batteries.

Connect a wire to one terminal or one battery and touch it to the other.

If there is a spark, the battery is good.

When both batteries are working, and the push button is operating, then you know something is wrong with the wiring.

THE FIRST PERMANENT sign to use the new Bank of the Commonwealth symbol was raised into position recently at the bank's new Warren-Evergreen office. The ten-foot-square, interior-lighted plexiglass sign is framed in stainless steel and weighs more than half a ton. The signs are being installed at the bank's three newest offices as part of a new program. The new symbol—a bold block C set within a larger block B—was designed to reflect strength and newness of thought in banking. From left, V. James Ford, vice president in charge of the retail banking division, Alphonse S. Pryjowski, Warren-Evergreen office manager, and Lee E. Morrison, assistant vice president for branch planning and properties, watch as the sign is raised.

Residents Eye Eight Mile Industrial Site

The North Central Livonia Civic Association will hold a meeting on November 29, at 8 p.m. at Tyler School south of Eight Mile on Hubbard.

The proposed plan for the Eight Mile Road Industrial area will be presented to the people who will be affected.

Don Hull, Planning Director, has notified Mr. Louis Feige Jr., president of the group, that he will attend the meeting along with Dan Andrew, Industrial Coordinator, and other representatives of both the Planning and Industrial Commission.

Latex Foam Saves Work

Housework is easier with a latex mattress.

You can vacuum boxsprings by simply folding the light, flexible mattress over since it is not rigid like an innerspring model.

And you save work because the latex mattresses never need turning, an especially important point with the popular supersize mattresses.

For Durable Floors

Douglas fir, larch and western hemlock are tough and durable woods that make excellent flooring.

Dishwasher Knocks Out Bacteria

Health-conscious mothers can expect automatic dishwashers to do a much better job of removing bacteria from the family dishes than washing by hand.

Research into the problem indicates that dishes washed in an automatic dishwasher will have a bacteria count well below the public health standard of 100, which means a dish is clean enough to be used safely in a public restaurant.

By comparison, hand-washed dishes have a much higher average bacteria count—several times higher, in fact, than the public health standard.

There are several reasons for this. Machine-washed dishes are subjected to much hotter water and stronger detergents than hand-washed dishes, which often retain a thin film of bacteria-breeding grease.

In addition, dishes washed by hand come in contact with bacteria-laden objects such as dish cloths, towels and racks which make bacteria removal more difficult. Machine-washed dishes do not.

Homes with built-in automatic dishwashers naturally have a higher re-sale value. However if you want to take your dishwasher with you when you move, there is a wide range of portable dishwashers on the market today, many of them with features similar to built-in models. Convertible portables, with front openings, can be installed permanently under a counter later, should you remodel.

Automatic dishwashers can be used for much more than just washing dishes. Hard-to-clean heavy cut glass, chandelier prisms, figurines, knickknacks, vases—even removable parts of the kitchen range—can be washed easily and safely in the dishwasher.

Most of the new automatic dishwasher models have a choice of cycles to suit almost every job, from doing fine crystal to pots and pans. Pre-rinse or pre-wash cycles let you keep a small load moist until you have accumulated a full load.

Remodeling Includes Many Advantages

Cleaning up a gingerbread-laden exterior or surfacing kitchen counters with ceramic tile is a measure that obviously makes a home a better place for living.

Besides this immediate result, remodeling also accomplishes several long-range goals: it increases the homeowner's equity and—if enough neighbors also improve their nests—it raises the general level of the entire neighborhood's value.

Goodyear to Open New Center Thursday

A modern, eight-bay auto service center will be formally opened in Redford Township Thursday, Nov. 18, by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company.

The center, featuring a wide range of automotive services plus an accessory and home appliance department, is located at Schoolcraft and Telegraph roads, in the Topps shopping center.

Earl Dalenberg, manager of the center, said it is the first in a group of four auto centers the world's largest tire company will build in the growing, new population centers around Detroit in the next 24 months.

Keep Fire-Safe Cans In Garage, Basement

Use metal receptacles exclusively for waste-paper storage around the house, fire safety experts suggest.

In basement and garage areas, fire officials recommend the use of the small galvanized steel cans equipped with close-fitting covers and convenient handles. These containers are especially useful for storage of flammable materials and can easily be carried outside for pickup by the refuse collectors.

Keeping the containers covered at all times is extremely important, particularly so in out-of-the-way places around the house, because should a fire start in a garage or basement, it might go unnoticed until it is too late to control. It's best to take the necessary precautions that will prevent a fire from starting.

Leak May Mean Roof's Worn Out

Once a roof shows definite signs of wear, don't put off replacing it until heavy rains or melting snow seep into the house and cause costly damage to walls, ceilings and furnishings.

Roofs tend to wear out uniformly, so that a repair job is rarely the answer. If there is a leak, the chances are you'll have others soon. Some leaks, in fact, are so hard to find that a damaged ceiling or wall is the first sign.

A new roof of heavyweight asphalt shingles applied over the original roofing will protect against the worst weather and will improve the appearance of the entire house.

Because they are heavier and thicker, these shingles can be expected to give long service. They are warranted, guaranteed

Inspect Contents for Weeds

A weed is said to be a plant out of place. All depends whether you want it or not! In the lawn those persistent, attractively thin-leaved lawn-grasses such as Kentucky bluegrass and fine fescues are much cherished.

In the flower bed you would hoe them out.

One of the historical curiosities about lawn seed is that the seed laws require listing of certain "weeds" on the box, but according to agricultural standards, the most unwanted and hardest-to-control pests in a lawn—are fully acceptable.

They don't have to be listed as weeds, and may actually be included in inexpensive blends among the "coarse kind" components.

So don't rely entirely upon such phrases as "weed free" in lawn seed advertising. Legally, this could be perfectly true, while at the same time the seed blend is full of haygrasses more troublesome than most weeds.

Of course it is best not to pay for weeds of any kinds. But beyond this, it is necessary to examine the lawn seed ingredient listing on the box to see that the mixture contains "fine-textured" types such as Kentucky bluegrass, fine fescue and bentgrass; not "coarse kind" field grasses or very much "crop."

Vermiculite Cure All for Soil

Many gardeners who take to the great indoors with their fall gardening efforts share the common mistake of using unmodified soil directly from the garden.

Whether light sandy or heavy clay, untreated garden soil will usually turn hard in potting because it lacks proper amounts of humus.

Small sacks of commercially prepared potting soil can be bought from garden supply stores if the gardener's efforts are limited.

If a good number of indoor plants are involved, however, it would serve the grower well to mix his own potting soil.

Using an ordinary dishpan, he can add equal parts of garden soil, peat moss, and horticultural vermiculite.

Increase proportions of peat and vermiculite if the soil is heavy.

If the soil is light, they suggest using two parts soil to one of peat and vermiculite.

Vermiculite serves the dual purpose of giving body to light sandy soil, at the same time breaking up and aerating heavy clay soils.

The importance of proper soil conditioning can never be over emphasized since the most essential growth for seedlings is root development.

Thus, in taking first things first properly conditioned soil is of far more importance than its fertility. In any case, fresh soil need not be fertilized for some time. And when using a good commercial fertilizer, the manufacturer's directions must be followed closely.

At no time should the gardener ever use more than the prescribed amount.

Give Girl's Room A Feminine Look

Looking for an unusual way to decorate a girl's bedroom? Here's one that combines attractive appearance with lush femininity. And what's more important to any young lady than femininity?

Marlite paneling has introduced a unique chintilly lace pattern that is as pretty as it is feminine. The chintilly pattern is available in rose, gold, green and beige.

Like all plastic-finished Marlite paneling the chintilly panels can be damp wiped clean. In fact, that's all that's ever necessary to keep them looking new for years. The material will blend with any decor chosen.

Marlite paneling is available at most local lumber dealers and can be installed by any home handyman by simply following the instructions included in every package of the material.

Lumber Leads

Despite the rise of other wood products, lumber still requires two-thirds of the timber harvested in the United States.

Nail to Studs

When attaching book shelves to a wall, be sure the supporting nails or screws are driven into wall studs. Locate studs by rapping on the wall; spaces between them sound hollow.

New Housing Act Is Boon to Veterans, Realtors Told

"The new Housing and Urban Development Act of 1965 will be a tremendous boon for service veterans," Dwight K. Hamborsky, Detroit director of the Federal Housing Administration, told the Western Wayne-Oakland County Board of Realtors. Hamborsky addressed members at their noon luncheon meeting at Cregar's Restaurant.

A veteran can now qualify for the new FHA program and pay as little as a $200 down payment for a house appraised up to $15,000, Hamborsky explained.

"Any veteran, who has had 90 days or more service, and has any discharge other than dishonorable, can now take advantage of this plan," he said. "This even includes veterans who were in the reserves," he added.

Hamborsky cited that under this law veterans can now also obtain an FHA-insured mortgage loan up to $30,000 for only 15 per cent down payment. Prior to this, a 25 per cent down payment was required.

"With the minimum down payments now required," said Hamborsky, "a great many more veterans will be aided by the FHA."

Hamborsky will be leaving his post as FHA director October 22 to go into private law practice.

Hot Water Boiler Heats Noiselessly

A basement without a heating plant? Why not?

Recent advances in equipment design have resulted in the manufacture of hydronic (hot water) boilers that effectively heat the house no matter where they're installed—in a carport, closet, attic, outdoor tool house, or even in the back yard.

Although today's compact boiler is often smaller even than many home clothes washers, it can heat a house that once needed a large, cumbersome heating plant.

Now, owners of homes without basements can place the hydronic boiler in the carport or garage and be able to enjoy the full benefits of a hydronic heating system—with its noiseless, even, floor-level heat.

Many summer bungalows built without basements are also being re-modeled into year-round homes.

The "heart" of this boiler is a tiny, silent pump which circulates heated water from the boiler through small, finger-size piping to room heating units.

The room units, usually baseboard heating panels, emit both types of heat essential for complete home comfort—sun-like radiant heat and convected heat to warm and gently circulate the air.

Shade Tree Is Hard To Find

Good shade trees are scarce this fall and may get much scarcer in the coming years if the pace at which they are being planted continues.

The demand for shade trees is unprecedented. Since it takes anywhere from two to ten years to grow trees in nurseries, depending on the size when marketed, stocks of trees cannot be replaced immediately when there is a heavy drain on the supplies, as there is at the present time.

Nurseries that normally are well-stocked with the best shade trees have row after row already sold.

Home owners get the "pick-of-the-crop" when planting shade trees in the fall, following summer growth.

Stocks of trees in containers are also available at many nurseries and these can be planted any time of the year.

While it is expected that shade tree prices will hold through fall and early spring, in all parts of the country there is a shortage.

Landscaping Raises Value Of A Home

While costs for landscaping sometimes run up to 15 per cent of the cost of a home, for as little as five per cent of home cost an adequate landscaping job can be professionally done.

This five per cent, it is said, should increase the resale value of the property for more than that amount.

The investment in landscaping will increase as the plants grow.

One of the advantages of landscaping is that it need not be done all at once if the home owner so desires.

With a good plan, it can be done piecemeal until completed. FHA Home Improvement loans available from banks allow up to $3,500 for landscaping.

Siding Reduces Time on Ladder

No need to teeter on a ladder at clean-up time if you have low maintenance mineral fiber siding on your house.

Because the siding is coated with a touch acrylic plastic, it is impervious to dirt.

Usually a simple washing down with a garden hose and a long-handled brush gets rid of accumulated dust and grime and restores the finish and baked-on color.

 ernment through individual "rehabilitation" loans is available, the report points out. Persons living in such homes can get assistance.

The report says:
 "The Urban Renewal Program now authorizes low interest loans to owners or tenants of homes or business property in urban renewal areas to finance rehabilitation required to make the property conform to code, or to carry out objectives of the urban renewal plan. Such a loan may only be made if the borrower is unable to secure the necessary funds from other sources, at reasonable terms and conditions. The interest rate may not exceed 3% and the maturity may not exceed 20 years or 3/4 of the remaining economic life of the structure after rehabilitation, whichever is less. A loan cannot exceed $10,000 for residential, or $50,000 in the case of business property. As an additional aid for the borrower, a loan on his house may refinance any existing indebtedness against the property in addition to financing its repair, if necessary to keep the total monthly payments on the indebtedness within the borrower's paying ability."

Urge Change in Terms of Office

 ed, and if there's a "yes" majority on the charter revision question, then these nine will sit down to rewrite the entire city charter.

To Moelke, this system is "unworkable" and "will take too long." Specific, point-by-point changes such as the three he's suggesting is the way to change the charter, he says.

What's behind his three latest proposals?

"It's very difficult to continually run for office, a fact of life for the Mayor, Clerk, Treasurer and most Councilmen," the Mayor said. "A four year term would permit any administration or legislative body not only to start new programs but to see them through to completion."

As it stands now, of the city's administrative officials, the Mayor, Clerk and Treasurer, run every two years. The Municipal Judge has a four-year term. The three top vote-getters on the City Council win four-year terms; the rest are given two-year terms.

Moelke says the longer terms are recommended by the Michigan Municipal League and the Citizens Research Council. He adds that the proposal to require resignation of political candidates would help eliminate conflicts of interest by public officials. He pushed for the third amendment by pointing out that a number of competent, well-qualified newcomers to Livonia are prevented from serving on city commissions because they haven't lived here two years.

 the city to be careful about where they displayed it and to govern the sale of cement or glue as best as they could.

"We've had their cooperation, but the problem still exists," Turner said a 14-year-old boy was brought to the station last week after Police picked him up in an empty field apparently "high" on the toxic fumes. The practice, he emphasized, damages not only the sinus and other sensitive membranes in nostrils, but can result in temporary loss of sight.

Mrs. Margaret Martin, a housewife who lives on Clements Circle south of Plymouth Rd., told The Observer this week that she had found 33 empty airplane cement tubes in a field behind her house, frequented by children of all ages.

Religious Holidays in The Schools

 among people who live side by side."

In Clarenceville, where the Board of Education met in a study session last winter, following some complaints about a religious film shown during the Christmas holidays, "We stress the things which bring people together and which promote tolerance," according to Board of Education President Samuel I. Prisk.

"There is no written policy in the district," he said, "but following last year's complaints, it was our decision that anything of a religious nature that might be controversial should be screened and approved by some school authority prior to its use."

"We don't want to completely eliminate religion from the schools, but we want to use the study of it in such a way that it will promote understanding. The secular, not the religious, aspects of Christmas, for example, are stressed."

What does the state attorney-general's opinion say?

"In regard to the recognition of religious holidays in the public schools, the following guidelines should be observed:

"(a) The emphasis on what unites rather than what divides will be an important factor in evaluating the propriety of any particular activity.

"(b) School recognition of religious holidays and teaching about their origins, as distinguished from any attempt towards indoctrination, is not prohibited.

"(c) The fact that a holiday is being celebrated does not alter the prohibition against religious instruction or ceremony.

"(d) Symbols of religious holidays may be permitted, as part of the over-all educational process, when utilized to promote understanding of their significance, but are prohibited when used as the focal point of religious indoctrination."

In Livonia schools, the responsibility has always been placed heavily on individual school principals for decisions in this area, but there has been an official "Religion and Holiday Observance Guide" distributed by the school district. It would seem to conform to Kelley's rules.

It says, in part:

"One of the primary purposes of American education is to help students gain knowledge and understanding and develop an awareness and appreciation of similarities and differences in beliefs, points-of-view, customs, traditions, and languages. In this regard, the school must also help students develop an awareness of religion as part of the culture. Students must learn how their community lives religiously, just as they learn how it lives economically and politically. Some religious holidays are traditionally a part of children's experience. These special days cannot be completely ignored in the administration of the school program. However, it shall be our practice that the pertinent knowledge about religions and their related holidays be stressed rather than religious doctrines and rituals."

 ing last Wednesday's Observer story about swastika paintings and similar acts in scattered parts of the city.

A spokesman for the Anti-Defamation League said his organization should have a statement of its findings in response to some complaints received from Livonians by next week. Outside of one telephoned report of some youths wearing swastika armbands in Wonderland Shopping Center, The Observer received no other examples of what could be interpreted as anti-Semitic behavior.

Juniors Begin Plans For Entering College

By PAT ST. ANTOINE
East High Reporter

Seniors at Garden City High School East aren't the only ones who are college-bound—conscious—the juniors in Palmer Kroh's counselling group are, too.

CLYDE A. LAMPMAN, 29825 Westfield, Livonia, will be installed as Excellent High Priest of the Schoolcraft Chapter No. 184 of the Royal Arch Mason on Nov. 27 at 7:30 p.m. A dance and reception will follow the installation.

Having already taken the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude test of the College Entrance Board for guidance and practice, juniors have been given a schedule of all "Necessary Events" for their college preparation activities.

In November juniors are reminded to register with their counselor for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test to be given in March.

Palmer Kroh has urged juniors to make vocational plans all year in light of the abilities, interests, and limitations. He suggests that they learn to study, use their ability, work hard, and read more.

College-bound activities should be continued during the summer, according to Palmer Kroh. If the College Board results have revealed a weak spot, students should plan a program of self-improvement.

The vocal music department has announced that the all-school musical comedy has been chosen to be "Where's Charley," based on the play "Charley's Aunt."

It is a comedy in two acts with music and lyrics. Glen Ellis, vocal music director, will hold tryouts today through Friday after school.

The varsity debate team defeated Inkster Nov. 5. East Debators were Terry Moore and Floyd Whitcher, affirmative side, also Sandy Hafener and Jerry Cox for the negative side.

Football pins with the slogan "Send West to Mars," containing miniature candy bars were sold last week by the varsity cheerleaders to promote spirit for the final game with intracity rival West High.
