NEW OWNER OF The Mayflower Hotel, Ralph Lorenz, looks over an architect's drawing of proposed motel units, planned for construction behind the Mayflower Meeting House, east of South Main St. Lorenz, operator of the hotel since 1939, purchased the real estate and remaining interest in The Mayflower Friday. The motel would be constructed on downtown land which Lorenz owns.

Ambitious plans for construction of motel units in the downtown area were announced Friday by Ralph J. Lorenz, new owner of The Mayflower Hotel.

Lorenz also announced that the present hotel would undergo exterior remodeling early next year. He unveiled his plans simultaneously with the word that his bid to purchase the hotel real estate and business had been accepted by stockholders.

The motel units are expected to be built behind the recently refurbished Mayflower Meeting House on the east side of South Main St. on property that Lorenz has been acquiring in recent years.

The hotel owner noted that the proposed move was prompted because of increased demand for transient lodging facilities in the area and because the present hotel no longer adequately fulfills that need.

the hotel is located, Lorenz said, has become noisy and is no longer good for temporary lodgers. He said he hoped to gradually switch the hotel to permanent residents and move overnight accommodations across the street into the proposed motel units.

Other plans for the present building, constructed in 1927 as a community hotel, include installation of an automatic elevator and changes in the lobby, Lorenz said.

Lorenz pledged that The Mayflower would remain a family operation. Presently he is actively assisted by his son Staton, a graduate of Cornell University's Hotel School.

Over the years, virtually every member of the family has helped. Recently, when Lorenz acquired and remodeled the former Odd-fellows Hall into the Mayflower Meeting House, all of his five sons helped to get it ready.

Chamber eyes full-time director

A full-time Chamber of Commerce manager and a weekend leadership conference were two key proposals presented to the Chamber Board of Directors Tuesday morning as part of a far-reaching program for the coming year.

Chamber President Carl Pursell unveiled the ambitious program, jammed with activity and innovation, for board approval.

Key points in the Chamber's 1966 "Blueprint for Progress" include chamber representation at City Commission and Township Board meetings and backing for formation of a downtown parking authority.

Pursell told the Board that one of the goals of the Finance Committee is to prepare for a full-time manager. A raise of basic Chamber dues would be needed to cover the additional cost.

Chamber Vice President John Kamego of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. noted that industry had expressed support for a full-time manager. He said industrial members want to become re-identified with the Chamber.

members and guests and $5.50 for wives.

The two-day leadership conference would be held for the purpose of getting community leaders away where they could discuss problems and map plans for effective community action on them.

It would probably begin Saturday afternoon and end sometime Sunday. One possible site for such a conference would be the Hillsdale College Leadership Development Center in Hillsdale, Michigan.

Other items covered at the Tuesday meeting included a presentation on street name changes proposed by Harlan Hickerson, a discussion of the proposed Finlan Apartment Project on South Main St. and detailed presentation of the 10-point Blueprint for Progress.

Plymouth to say good-bye to Rev. Castner

"Plymouth has been very meaningful to us as a family and the people have been most cooperative and receptive to my work in the church," states the Rev. Edward Castner whose resignation as associate pastor of the First Presbyterian Church was approved last Sunday at a special congregational meeting.

He added, "It has been a stimulating six years and we regret leaving, but (Continued on Page 3)

Houk and McEwen headline JayCee consolidation forum

An independent, outside survey on Plymouth City-Township consolidation was called for Monday night by Mayor James C. Houk at a forum meeting sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

But Supervisor John D. McEwen of Plymouth Township said he favored a governmental unit that embraced all of northwestern Wayne County.

The two governmental leaders appeared before a JayCee meeting, moderated by Plymouth Twp. Planning Commissioner and Attorney Maurice Breen, a member of the club.

The purpose of the session was to see if enough interest would be generated for the Junior Chamber to sponsor a public forum on consolidation.

Both the mayor and the supervisor referred to a 1961 study by the Citizens' Research Council on the proposed incorporation of the City of Plymouth Heights. McEwen is de-facto Mayor of the proposed city.

Houk reviewed the events of years past and noted that changes had prompted a different look at the situation. He detailed things which had contributed to Plymouth's reputation and noted some of the old problems which had created city-township friction. In some of the situations, Houk said, the city could be criticized.

Years ago, he noted, the township wanted to join the city, but the then-larger municipality spurned the idea. Later, the city attempted to annex choice pieces of township property.

"People on both sides got very bitter," Houk pointed out. Commenting on some of the hurdles that might stand in the way of consolidation, Houk made these points:

- (1) Planning. While some people might criticize the planning consultants for both governmental units, they are bound—by the Federal 701 program—to come up with a complete plan for each community, including governmental and cultural center areas, the mayor said.
- (2) Water. Houk pointed to the city's adequate supply but admitted that hardness presented a problem. He said the new system, including (Continued on Page 8)

PCF tops goal with $86,315.34

The Plymouth Community Fund has gone over its goal. Drive chairman John Kamego said Friday that recent reports from Chevrolet Spring and Bumper on payroll deductions had put the drive over its goal of $86,083.

Kamego said the total was now $86,315.34, with more to come in.

The report bears out the cautious optimism expressed at the Fund Drive victory dinner in early November.

At that time Kamego and Fund president Frank Palmer said they could only report $81,871, with much of that still in doubt.

FRIDAY'S FIGURES pushed the total beyond what Kamego and Palmer were able to forecast Nov. 10.

"The goal has been reached," Kamego said. "We're there and anything else is gravy. There is no way to estimate what more is coming."

Kamego said there may be between $4,000 and $5,000 more coming, with about 10 industrial plants still unreported.

"I'm just elated over the good news," Kamego said. I want to thank all the division chairmen, team captains and workers who labored so long on this drive. Nothing could have been done without them, and what we did with them is just fantastic," he said.

The drive began in early October with some concern on the part of PCF officials, who last year failed to make (Continued on Page 3)

You can't get there from here

"Now let's see. You take Mill Street, which when you reach Ann Arbor Road, becomes Lilley Rd. Or, to go through town, take Plymouth Rd., which downtown is Main St. Turn right on Ann Arbor Trail and keep on going until you hit Ann Arbor Rd."

Confused? Many newcomers, and even old timers are by road names in the Plymouth Community, and one man has decided to do something about it.

Harlan Hickerson, 9595 Gold Arbor Rd., has circulated a petition with 54 signatures, many of them well known community leaders, urging setting right the various confusing names of streets and roads.

He brought the matter before the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning, and the Plymouth Township Board Tuesday night. He is expected also to present his ideas to the Plymouth City Commission.

He proposes:

- The change of Ann Arbor Rd. to Plymouth Rd., because of the confusion with Ann Arbor Trail.
- The change of Plymouth Rd. to Burroughs Rd.
- The change of Mill St. to Lilley Rd.
- The change of Main St. to the Mayflower Ave. to add to the colonial touch in Plymouth.

The other main portion of Hickerson's plan calls for a re-vamping of the numbering system, which he also feels needs modernizing.

Hickerson's petition reads: "To bring an end to the confusion caused by the similarity of the names of two streets, Ann Arbor Road and Ann Arbor Trail, in the community of Plymouth and southwest corners (Continued on Page 2)

In a nutshell

The Plymouth Township hearing on the 701 master plan will be re-convened Jan. 10, 1966, giving the planning committee and the Township Board time to study the transcript of the hearing. Planning chairman Irving Breen said that his group would meet and discuss the plan.

Several Plymouth residents are planning to form a short-term committee to help under-age youths, by calling 453-3165, or 453-3774, Brian Leonard, Joe Benness and Steve Benness are the names of the club.

The Plymouth Chamber will sponsor a street sale of Christmas candy on Friday, this Christmas, at the major of the blind and the president of the club.

Army staff Christmas Dec. 15-16 will be open to the public.

Vandalize church in painting spree

Four 12-year-old boys were being implicated in the spray painting, vandalism of two Plymouth churches Saturday night by City of Plymouth police Monday.

Police said they know who the youths are, and that conferences were being set up with their parents. The four attend Junior High West.

Their names are not being withheld by police, but will not be published because of their youthful age.

Police chief Loren Johnson said the case was solved about mid-morning Monday. Johnson pointed out that all four were not involved in all three of the incidents; some were involved in one and not another, he said.

"These are not problem kids," Johnson said Monday. "They are kids from responsible homes. I don't think they could tell you today why they did it."

Johnson indicated that punishment for the offense as yet hadn't been set.

SQUEEZE INN TO HELP CAUSE:

It was a soggy day in Plymouth for Goodfellows

Plymouth Goodfellows hope Roy's Squeeze Inn at 1108 S. Main street will be packed with Christmas shoppers next Thursday, all of them hungry.

In a special Christmas gift to the Goodfellows, Roy Tillman, owner of the drive-in, is giving the day's receipts from Dec. 16, Thursday, to the Goodfellow fund for the needy.

It is in keeping with the Goodfellow's motto of "no child without a Christmas."

"This is Roy Tillman's main charitable contribution," said Paul Sanders, Goodfellow treasurer last week. "He has a feeling for kids, and doesn't think they should be penalized because of their surroundings. I think he feels that he has always had a good Christmas, and would like to see all children have the same."

The Goodfellows netted $1805.24 for their day's work last Saturday.

They braved wind and pouring rain to sell their Goodfellow editions of the Plymouth Mail.

Martin Schomberger was the star salesman according to Sanders.

"THE SALE was only average; the rain did hurt us, Sanders said.

The money collected in the drive will be used for Christmas toys, dinners and clothing for Plymouth's needy families. Chairmen of the drive were thanked for the efforts last week by Goodfellow president Paul R. Cook.

er of Livonia, we the undersigned home-owners and residents request the following names be changed.

"Since Michigan State Highway No. 14 (M-14) already has the name of "Plymouth Road" from Grand River Ave. in Detroit to the "Y" in Livonia and from Napier Road to Main St. in Ann Arbor City, we request that part in Plymouth Township and the corner of Livonia be renamed "Plymouth Road" so that all of M-14 will have one name "Plymouth Road" from down in Detroit to downtown Ann Arbor. This will completely eliminate the confusion by eliminating one of the two names.

"Since the City of Plymouth is trying to create an "Early American" or "Colonial" image, we request that Main St. be renamed "Mayflower Ave." all the way from Joy Rd. in Plymouth Township to Mill St. in Plymouth.

"We request that the county road in Plymouth Township and the southwest corner of Livonia now called "Plymouth Road" be renamed "Burroughs Road."

"To end the confusion caused by the street numbering system in the City of Plymouth, we request the adoption of the Detroit Edison System now in use in Detroit and the rest of Wayne County."

Hickerson said in a letter to the various governmental agencies that many people agreed that confusion existed and that a change was needed, but that they disagreed with various specific proposals.

Hickerson said last week he would be glad to meet with any group to help further the program, and that he felt very enthusiastic about the change.

Follow Isbister's lead on consolidation

As 1965 draws to a close, one single outstanding issue still looms large before all the leaders of The Plymouth Community — the relationships between the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

This issue remains the most talked about community problem, the most discussed local question.

The problem has brought tempers to boil for decades, and it has only been during the past few months that government leaders from both the Township and the City have begun to take a look at mutual problems.

There has been talk of a 'thaw' in the years-old chill between the two governments. Several events in last months bear this out.

In May, Plymouth Kiwanis sponsored a panel with members of both governments talking on issues.

The Plymouth Area Planning Commission moved into the second year of existence with the appointment of a full-time director. Harold Fischer, long time Township resident, has been at work collecting data on commercial and industrial development for the area.

Township trustee Richard Lauterbach completed work on a Township police study, urging talks with the City on a joint police authority.

An auditorium committee made up of residents of the entire community came up with recommendations for an auditorium.

Township resident Sam Hudson suggested a study of the combination of the City and the Township, which the Township Board declined.

Then last week, another series of moves in the 'thaw' took place after the Township unveiled their 701 master plan. The plan proposed retention of the City of Plymouth as the natural center of the community, but, at the same time, proposed a Township Center on land located along N. Territorial Rd.

For at least one prominent Plymouth resident the proposed center caused considerable alarm — so much in fact that it prompted him to issue a statement on the entire matter of City-Township relations.

Russell Isbister, one of the most highly respected individuals in the community, and Plymouth's superintendent of schools, officially opposed the center, and charged that it had been planned without taking into consideration either the City of Plymouth or other areas in the The Plymouth Community, namely Canton Township.

In his statement Isbister urged deletion of the Township Center from the plans, and also asked consideration of the concept of a united Plymouth Community.

"The one part of the report which causes me great concern and about which I must register disagreement at this time is the Township Center described on pages D-41 and 42 and exhibited on plate D-41-13. I am one who believes that some day, and hopefully it will not be too far in the future, the governments of this community will be consolidated into one unit for the purpose of promoting the general welfare of all the people."

Isbister said he felt the entire Plymouth Community should be involved in the planning of such a center.

The entrance of a man of Isbister's stature into the community-wide issue marks a new turn of events in the City-Township issue.

It is hoped many more men will follow Isbister's lead.

Hopefully it would be the seven men that sit on the City Commission, and the six men and one woman that sit on the Township Board.

And certainly, if not them, other men like Isbister.

No significant planning can be done until co-operation and communication between the governments in The Plymouth Community improve.

Both the Township and the City, and their neighbor to the south, Canton Township, need to sit down and discuss the concept of a united Plymouth Community.

No growth of The Plymouth Community can take place until many more people follow Isbister's lead and state publicly what they have discussed over the coffee tables for years.

LETTERS:

Clarifies position on consolidation

12/9/65

Dear Editor,

I would like to make my position clear regarding last week's public hearing held by the Plymouth Township on the 701 program and the subject "CONSOLIDATION," as stated by your article last week.

In my verbal statement to the Township Planning Commission, I had indicated that I did not favor "Consolidation" or that I do favor "Consolidation." I personally do not have the facts before me to make that kind of judgment.

I did say, however, that when two or more governmental units began to plan and take action on a type of service or public building that indicates obvious duplication, then I suggest that the interested citizens of these communities sit down TOGETHER and discuss the problem on a mature basis seeking the facts and arriving at a reasonable decision.

IN THE Township, for example, the police problem will be of increasing concern simply because of the projected growth rate. The question now becomes can one police organization serve two communities more efficiently and economically than two organizations? A civic auditorium is another example.

Our first goal, it seems to me, should be to seek the facts. We should have faith in ourselves to be able to arrive at reasonable answers. This is simply just "Good Government."

I would like to point out at this time, that the elected officials of each community should not serve on this so-called "Blue Ribbon" committee.

By virtue of their elected positions they would or could have a prejudiced view. For the most part our officials are capable officials. This committee could be appointed by them and maybe asking the University of Michigan to act as a "go between," and also provide additional research.

Or the committee could be sponsored jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and the Plymouth Jaycees; or, even, the two newspapers. There are many avenues of approach, and there are many questions to be answered.

Let's get to work. Sincerely, Carl Pursell

Hotel sold

heavy promotional campaign was conducted with the Chamber of Commerce and other groups urging people to buy stock in full-page newspaper advertisements.

On September 24, 1926, the successful sale of $209,000 worth of six per cent preferred stock was announced after a sales effort that lasted only a half day. The record established was equalled by only one other community in the United States at that time.

In December, 1926, the name "The Mayflower" was officially chosen for the new hotel, winning out over other suggestions including "Indian Trail Hotel," "Park View Hotel," "Puritan Hotel," and "Pilgrim Hotel."

The following April, in 1927, building contracts were awarded and ground was broken on Monday, April 25.

PCF goal

But at each turn, reports ran ahead of what was expected on the basis of the 1964 drive. The final report was confusing, in that over $26,000 was reported as an estimate on industrial employee payroll deductions. Under new automatic accounting procedures, several weeks were needed to determine exact figures.

TWO NEW divisions helped the cause this year.

Divisions geared to employees of the governmental unit and one aimed at the professional people were formed.

Also, substantial increases were reported from Plymouth merchants and businessmen.

FORMAL opening ceremonies for the new building were held on Wednesday and Thursday, November 9 and 10 and operation was taken over by Grenoble Hotels, Inc., a nationwide hotel operation firm.

Gala open house and reception ceremonies marked the opening and a special Mayflower edition of The Plymouth Mail was published.

Lorenz became manager-operator of The Mayflower in 1939 and has run the hotel as a family operation since that time. Asked to comment on notable achievements during his 26-year tenure as manager, Lorenz pointed to the hotel's success.

"We have been able, with certain handicaps," he said, "to stay competitively alive in business and still maintain the hotel as a community center." Lorenz noted the state and national publicity which the hotel has gained and the reputation it has established.

His plans, he said, call for maintenance of the hotel operation as a family project.

Rev. Castner

there is much work to be done in my new church."

The popular young minister has accepted the post of pastor at the 850 member Presbyterian church in Peekskill, N.Y. Rev. Castner, h's wife and son will leave on Jan. 3. Until then, however, he will continue his duties at the Plymouth church.

A farewell reception has been planned for the Castners at the church on Wednesday, Dec. 29.

There is a deeper, more interesting story behind this week's page one coverage of The Mayflower Hotel sale and owner Ralph J. Lorenz's plans for expansion.

It's a tale that by today's standards might be considered corny or unlikely; and it's part of The Mayflower saga that Ralph repeatedly urged me to soft-pedal.

I refer to his part in the development and ultimate success of an institution that began as a community project and was directed and guided to its present position of statewide prominence through the tenacious efforts of Lorenz and his family.

For all practical purposes, Ralph's story began 44 years ago in 1921 when, at the age of 11, he came here from Austria as a World War I refugee.

He entered school here and his first job was picking tomatoes at the site of Stop & Shop supermarket on Forest Avenue.

Following his high school graduation, Ralph Lorenz worked his way through Michigan State Normal College, now Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti. When I say worked, I mean he washed dishes and cooked and labored his way to the position of assistant manager of the student union building.

It was there that he met his wife, Mabel, the woman who has meant so much to The Mayflower operation in terms of decor and taste and a feminine touch that's been indispensable over the years.

During these years, operations of The Mayflower Hotel has become a genuine family project. All six Lorenz children, at one time or another, have had a hand in helping their dad mold the outstanding success that most of us now take for granted.

Two of the sons, Staton the eldest and his brother Kirk, are now an integral part of the Mayflower operation. Staton at 25 is a graduate of the Cornell University hotel school. Kirk, 19, was, in large measure, responsible for overseeing the revamping of the time-worn ex-Oddfellows Hall into the modern-day monument that is now the Mayflower Meeting House.

The other children including Sheila, 23, whose wedding marked the official debut of the Meeting House; Richard, a 17-year-old senior at Plymouth High School; Scott, 9; and little Randy, 7, all pitched in and helped to make the new meeting room a thing of beauty and—there's that word again—taste.

And they did it in the face of a backbreaking schedule.

Last Friday, the story of Ralph Lorenz and his family sort of reached a climax when the 55-year-old hotel manager bid for and purchased the real estate and interest of the hotel stockholders.

"The real story," Ralph told me, "is about the efforts of the men who organized this project in 1926." And he recited a list of names that was the Who's Who of Plymouth in the Twenties.

Few of them are still living. Carl Shear was retired from his Buick dealership and lives in Ann Arbor. Paul Wiedman, former Ford dealer, passed on earlier this year.

E. A. Allison, whose son Frank still operates the Chevrolet dealership he ran for so many years, is perhaps the only man of the original group still in Plymouth.

I spent part of Sunday leafing through musty smelling bound volumes of The Plymouth Mail of the middle part of that era we are wont to refer to as the Roaring Twenties.

And it became quite evident that something has passed from our lives since that time. Maybe it went after a bitter man named Sinclair Lewis castigated the small town businessman and his outlook so thoroughly that it became passe to work for the good of a small community.

But it certainly wasn't passe back then. As Lorenz himself pointed out the other day, a small nucleus of local leaders framed and charted much of the community's course and direction at a small, round coffee table that later produced the Round Table Club, adjacent to the Hotel.

Just a handful of them, including those mentioned above, provided the impetus that saw a small community raise over $209,000 to build a hotel.

Ha, you say, what's so hard about raising $209,000? Well, remember, it was raised when a dollar was a dollar.

And it was raised not in a week, nor a month, nor a year. Two Hundred and Nine Thousand bucks, count 'em, were raised in half a day!

Match that record.

I guess what I'm saying is this. Plymouth ain't quite what it used to be.

And it should. Right now, we should forget about charges of Babbity and midwestern provincialism and the onus of being considered corny.

This community needs action like the kind it produced in the Twenties, and it needs it more now than it did then.

We need to get off our tails. We need to form a united front against the kind of growth that would swallow us up and eradicate the individuality and atmosphere that has set Plymouth apart from the rest of the so-called "metropolitan area."

Ralph Lorenz, his modest protestations to the contrary, has given a graphic demonstration of what one man can do alone.

Think of what The Plymouth Community could become, given 100 men with a similar amount of drive and dedication.

And think of what it may become if the pace is not stepped up.

Schoolcraft choir presents

Christmas program Dec. 16

The Schoolcraft College Choir will present a special Christmas sampler on Thursday morning, Dec. 16, at 11 o'clock in the college library.

The first portion of the program will be a sampling of music from the Baroque period and will include a performance of Bach's Cantata, "Unto Us a Child is Born." Soloists in this work will be Karen Each of Plymouth, Gary McGettrick of Livonia, and William Sweet of Livonia. All are students at Schoolcraft College.

The second portion of the program will be devoted to little-known Christmas carols from around the world, including Jesus Ahatonia, an Indian carol, supposedly the first pieces of music to be written down on the North American Continent.

The conductor will be Wayne Dunlap, and accompanist, Allen Shaffer.

Although this program is primarily for students at the college, a limited number of friends from outside the school can be admitted. There is no admission charge.

IDEA FOR TREE

In the "something different" department, why not use a gay petticoat to replace cotton at the base of your Christmas tree this year?

This "petticoat" can be made quickly with felt and pinking shears. Cut hole in the middle of the felt and slash from outer edge to fit around the tree. Scallop with pinking shears and decorate.

When needles begin to fall from the tree, it is a simple matter to remove the petticoat and dump them.

Pat Reynolds admits she was wrong!

(She was sure electric dryers were more expensive. Then we showed her these money-saving facts.)

- 1 Gas dryers cost a couple of pennies less per load to operate; we'd be the first to admit it. But with electric dryers you still come out ahead. Read on.
- 2 Electric dryers cost less to buy. Model for model, prices run about $20 to $40 lower than gas dryers.
- 3 And now, for a limited time, this lower price includes installation and wiring, if needed, when you buy from one of the many dealers participating in this special sales event.
- 4 Electric dryers cost nothing for electrical repairs or labor. Gas dryers? Well, you can get a manufacturer's repair service policy—but it will cost you up to $120 over the first five years of operation alone. Of course, if your dryer is electric, Edison comes out, repairs electric operating parts, and leaves without leaving you a bill! (It's the only no-charge dryer repair service offered by a utility company in this area.)

Add up ALL the costs and you'll see what Pat Reynolds saw—electric dryers actually cost less to own. EDISON

Cocoa-date cake freezes well

A moist cake with a deliciously different flavor is suggested this week by Mrs. Robert Meek of Beech St. who says her Cocoa-Date Cake freezes well and would be good for a holiday party.

Mrs. Meek received this recipe from an aunt, and she says it is simple to make. The cocoa and cinnamon combination gives it a special flavor.

Residents of Plymouth for eight years, the Meeks have five children, Judy, 1; Diane, 3; Randy, 5; Karen, 7; and Jeff, 12.

Mrs. Meek says she enjoys sewing and cooking. Dr. and Mrs. Meek are members of the Plymouth Dance Club.

Her recipe would also make a nice gift.

COCOA-DATE CAKE

Step 1

Take 1 C. chopped nuts, 1 C. chopped dates or raisins. Place in bowl with 1 tsp. soda. Pour 1 C. boiling water over this and let stand.

Step 2

Sift together 1 1/2 C. flour, 1/2 tsp. salt, 1 C. sugar, 2 tsp. cocoa, 1 tsp. cinnamon

Step 3

Beat well 1 egg and 3/4 C. vegetable oil until slightly thick. Combine parts 1 and 2 with this mixture.

Bake in slow oven, 350 degrees. For loaf size cake bake 55 to 60 minutes.

GOOD GIFTS

The housewife who thinks she has run out of gift ideas may be missing a bet, right in her own kitchen or pantry.

Most any family would welcome gifts of delicious home cooked foods.

Relish, pickles, preserves, jellies or just canned fruits and vegetables, wrapped in attractive packaging materials and topped with a ribbon, berries or artificial decorations — isn't there a family on your list who would enjoy such a gift?

Stakias leads Rocks to 65-51 win with 23 points

No one would want to count the errors in Plymouth's 65-51 rout of the Belleville Tigers Friday night.

It would be a prodigious task. But new head basketball coach Richard Bearup was satisfied with the resounding win, and the performance of his new found star forward, Mike Stakias, who for the third time in as many games led all scorers.

Stakias hit for 23 points, 12 of them in a hot-shooting first quarter that saw the Rocks take a commanding lead, 22-9. Stakias, only a sophomore, has proved to be the key in Bearup's new offense, despite his first-game jitters and lack of varsity experience.

GUARD RICK JONES, one of last year's mainstays, hit his stride, scoring 12 points and helping the Rocks break a bothersome full-court press the Tigers insisted on keeping up throughout the game.

The press bothered Plymouth, notably in the second quarter with back court men Ron Lowe and Bob McCall having trouble bringing the ball upcourt.

Belleville, suffering from a lack of shooting talent, could hit only 13 buckets. But they topped the Rocks at the charity line, hitting 25 out of 40.

Dennis Van Allen of the Tigers scored 11 points, but fouled out in the fourth quarter. Jim Turner hit for 12 for Belleville.

Much of the game time was spent at the free throw line—a result of sloppy play on both sides. Plymouth shot a poor 15 out of 34 via the free throw line.

Passing and rebounding was raggedy-andy throughout the whole game, with the Rocks having considerable trouble with the high-speed, aggressive work of the Tigers.

Stakias, Rock scoring leader, got considerable help from center Jim Scharmen before he, too, fouled out. Scharmen hit for 7 points, and dominated the backboards. He was replaced by John Ellison, who, in the fourth quarter, helped hold off any Tiger rally with key rebounds and 6 points.

CHUCK CATLETT also fouled out after playing most of the game at his forward spot.

Plymouth led 22-9 at the end of the first quarter, 35-21 at the half and 51-40 at the end of the third quarter as the Tigers narrowed the lead to 11 points.

The Belleville victory was the first of the infant season.

Last weekend, in back to back games, Plymouth lost in overtime to Walled Lake, 77-75, and then, the next day, 55-46 at the hands of Fordson.

This Friday, the Rocks will face Bentley, a team being touted to win the Suburban Six. It will be a strong test for Bearup and his cagers—all of whom are new faces except Jones.

Belleville dunks Rock swimmers 62-43 in close home meet

Belleville used to be one of the easy marks for Plymouth swimmers, but not so this year as a strong Tiger team topped Plymouth 62-43 in a close meet.

Last year John McFall's swimmers beat Belleville 59-46 as the Rocks went through one of their worst seasons.

Plymouth won the 200 yard medley relay with a 1:55 time in an extremely close opening event; Belleville's time posted at 1:55.72. The Rock team was composed of Ron Wittoff, Pat Brady, John Skinner and Biff Leonard.

Jim Nelson and Bill Wolfe finished third and fourth in the 200 yard freestyle event, just .05 seconds off-pace.

Al Saxton won a second in the 50 yd. freestyle, while Pat McCord took a second in the 200 yard individual medley; McCord was only .03 seconds off the pace.

Trenton dominates relays

Trenton swimmers dominated the Suburban relays at Plymouth High School Saturday, scoring 80 points to win.

The relays are sponsored by Plymouth and Redford Union, on alternate years, with many schools from the area participating.

Edsel Ford swam second and Allen Park third. Plymouth swam ninth in a field of 12.

Plymouth placed fourth in the finals of the 400 yard freestyle relay with a team of Al Saxton, Pat Brady, Pat McCord and Bill Wolfe posting a 3:43.0 time.

A TEAM of John Skinner, John Norman and Ron Wittoff Bill Wolfe, John Norman and Ron Wittoff took a third in the 200 yard backstroke event with a 1:55.6 mark.

The Rock team in the 200 yard medley relay was disqualified after they had swum at a 1:50.4, good enough for first place.

But judges ruled that the eager swimmers had jumped back in the pool, thus disqualifying themselves, and they were placed fifth.

The loss of 12 points hurt Plymouth's position in the meet, which could have been fifth with the first place in the 200 yard m'edley.

Plymouth JV swimmers opened their season last week under coach Tom Workman, and dropped a close contest to Belleville, 55-50 as two swimmers were disqualified.

The Rocks took the 200 yard medley relay behind the swimming of Don Goerlie, Ed Sanocki, Pat Gallagher and Rod Ready.

Bob Wellman and Dave

Malik swam second and fourth in the 200 yard freestyle.

Bruce Gould took a third place and D. J. Catton a second in the 50 yard freestyle. Gould also swam second in the 100 yard freestyle.

ROCK SWIMMERS disqualified in the 200 yd. medley and the 400 yard freestyle.

John Norman won the 200 yard medley event, and John Larson took top honors in the diving event.

Goerlie swam first in the 100 yard backstroke, with Dave Derr taking a second place. Wellman took a second in the 100 yard butterfly.

Gallager won a first in the 100 yard breaststroke as teammate Ed Sanocki won a third.

JV cagers dump Tigers in first half splurge

Plymouth's JV basketball squad stopped Belleville's JV's cold Friday, outscoring them 25-10 in the first half, and then holding on for a 44-33 win.

It was the second straight win for Pat Montigano's cagers who outscored the Tigers 16-6 in the first quarter, 9-4 in the second, then fell a little behind in the third and fourth quarters.

Belleville managed 13 in the third quarter, Plymouth only 8; the scoring was nearly even in the last quarter, with the Rocks netting 11, Belleville 10. Jim Ruby led the younger Rocks with 18 for the game—8 of which came in the first quarter. Mike Kubik added to the cause with 11, Jeff Adams hit for 4, Bob Resch for 6, Jim Norris for 5.

CITY OF PLYMOUTH Notice of Application for Senior Citizens Tax Relief

During the month of January 1966, applications will be received by the City Assessor at 201 S. Main St. for those taxpayers who are eligible for relief under the Senior Citizens Homestead Tax Exemption Act.

Eligibility requirements for all applicants:

- Must be 65 years old or over
- Must have been a resident of Michigan for at least the past 7 years
- Gross income including that of spouse should not exceed $5,000 during 1965
- Total market value of all property owned in the State of Michigan should not exceed $20,000

These application forms will be available at the City Assessor's Office beginning January 4, 1966. Any person now living in the city who is interested in receiving one of these forms may call 453-1234, Ext. 43, in advance to have their name put on the mailing list.

It is suggested that anyone over 65 who has applied for a veteran's homestead exemption in the past or who has a major loss in vision might wish to consider this form of tax relief instead if they meet the requirements. Under the Senior Citizens Exemption, the State will pay a greater share of the tax than through the Veterans or Blind Person's Exemption.

JayCee consolidation Schools apply for poverty funds

(Continued from Page 1) The recently completed reservoir, upped pressure 10 pounds, causing a n e i c t pipes and mains to burst. Detroit water, with its 30 pounds of additional pressure, would have wreaked havoc, he said. "Eventually," he said, "the city will probably be using City of Detroit water."

(3) Liquor. The mayor noted that the City, which does not permit sale of liquor by the glass, is surrounded by businesses in the township which serve liquor. This question would have to be solved, he said.

(4) Form of government. The City of Plymouth presently has a strong city manager form of government. This could prove an obstacle, the mayor noted, to persons who prefer a strong mayorality.

(5) Differential in assessment procedures. Houk pointed to a new law, Public Act 409, passed last year, which requires that all property shall be assessed at 50 per cent of true market value.

As advantages to consolidation, Mayor Houk noted the savings to the community which might be realized by combining certain services—including fire and police protection.

He pointed to the community's vulnerability under the present forms of government and cited the tremendous wave of growth sweeping in from the Detroit metropolitan area to the east.

"I fear that one of these days we're going to have no voice at all, if we don't band together," he said.

The mayor said, as a businessman, he is constantly aware of the problem of the community as a whole—even to the point that he must take care as a city commissioner to vote in the interest of the voters of the City.

"If it were for the good of the community," he said, "as an individual, I would be willing to step down and step aside."

Supervisor McEwen, following the mayor to the rostrum, told the JayCees he came to the meeting under the assumption that the proposed incorporation of Plymouth Township as the City of Plymouth Heights would be the topic.

"I REALLY haven't found out what The Plymouth Community is," he said. "I see it in the paper each week but I don't know what it is."

The Supervisor said he came to this area in 1955 from the City of Detroit with no intention of getting into politics. But he said he attended a meeting with the late supervisor, Roy R. Lindsay, and heard city officials state that a new subdivision could not get Plymouth city water without annexing itself to the city.

That, McEwen said, provided the impetus for him to enter the local political scene. Referring to township government, he made this claim:

"We have the best form of government that ever came down the pike." The supervisor said Township government involves the lowest cost to the people. Concerning assessment in the township, he said, "Some (property) is under assessed, but some is over assessed, so it equals out."

McEwen said the only service mentioned in the five-year-old research report which the township is not providing is police protection. But he said a township safety director may be added in the future.

The supervisor said he'd never had a complaint from a constituent about police protection in the township.

In a question and answer session afterward, McEwen was asked if he thought it was good government to form a city around the City of Plymouth.

"I don't think it would be," he said. "We should consider Northville, Northville Township, the City of Plymouth and Canton Township."

"A SMALL area such as the City of Plymouth Heights would not be advisable," McEwen emphasized his belief that a wider area should be taken into consideration when JayCee Dr. Gary Hall, a dentist, complained about police service.

"I want to be the first constituent to complain of police service," he said. Hall said his office is located next to the "Township Sheriff's headquarters—Bohl's Drive In," and one time he placed a call and got no response. Another time, he said, it took 27 minutes to get a sheriff's car there.

"What do you think of the idea of police departments together?" Hall asked.

"We don't have a police de-

Disadvantaged children will be the subject of a four-part program undertaken jointly by the Plymouth Community Schools and the Federal government, under Title I of the 1965 National Elementary and Secondary Education Act. A possible $51,000 is involved.

Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister outlined the four part program which is currently being applied for in Lansing through the Michigan State Department of Education. The program includes:

1. Specialized teachers in math and reading.
2. In service program for those who teach the disadvantaged.
3. Outdoor education for summer, as an enrichment program with emphasis on partment," McEwen answered. But he noted that any consideration of the question of joint police protection should include not only the City of Plymouth, but also Northville and Northville Township.

In answer to another question, the supervisor admitted that township government would not last in the face of burgeoning population and expansion. But he urged the group present to define The Plymouth Community before urging consolidation.

"It should include the northwestern section of Wayne County," he said, "not just a school district."

Mayor Houk noted that it was hard for officials close to a situation to make assessments. As the township grows, he said, it must provide services and change its form of government.

The mayor said he felt an independent research project should be conducted on the subject of consolidation.

remedial reading and math.

4. A diagnostic team with reading specialists and a psychiatrist.

The programs are being written by Assistant Superintendent William Harding.

TWO of them show a certain imaginative or inventive nature on the part of the local schools, Harding told the Board at their regular meeting Monday night.

The two he cited were the diagnostic team plan and the outdoor education program, with camping involved.

A special review committee composed of Isbister, Harding, Miss Ann Jung, Reynald Borzi, Sister Christine, Mildred Field, Mrs. Bertha Green, Rev. Ernest Hammer, Wendell Hough, Esther Hulsing, Grace Jarvis, Mrs. Jean Wernette, Arnold Pylkas, Richard Scharf, Mrs. G. Spaniel and Mrs. John Demott.

Harding reported on the program, and noted that plans were still tentative, with final approval still resting in Lansing.

In other matters the Board:

- Approved the trip to the United Nations for the PHS comparative government class and the international relations class. The students will be gone the last week in February.

- Discussed, and agreed to seek architect's opinions on a shelter for washing buses; a savings in bus bodies is expected to result if salt can be washed off on a daily basis.

- Approved a lease for storage rights for gas, requested by Consumers Power Company. The gas will be stored under School District property, deep under the earth, with an annual rental of $25 a year being paid, and a down payment of about $1200 being paid this week.

- Recognized the Plymouth Educational Secretary's as the bargaining unit for the school's secretaries, and this complied with new state laws.

Stephen Hayman has a mailbox right outside his office. Most days, that's his daily trip to the bank. Time means money to him, as it does to any businessman, and so he takes advantage of every time-saving service we offer. Bank by mail. Night deposits. Drive in banking. Not to mention the telephone. Six months ago, he bought an apartment building. We financed it. That brought him in to see us. But most of the details of the transaction were taken care of on the phone. We provide many ways to make trips to the bank unnecessary. Stephen Hayman makes good use of them all. And the kind of prompt, personal service he gets, you can get.

Christmas in Plymouth means the annual Johnny Billington Clean Plate Club drawing for prizes at the Mayflower Hotel. Winners were, from left, Carol Timmons of Farmington, Doug Diponio, 8262 N. Territorial, Thomas Neu of Garden City, Steffan Duerr of Lovnia, Dave Van Wagener, 47048 Stonecrest Drive and Christine Abbott of Dearborn Heights.

Employees of National Bank of Detroit have a special Christmas project — toys, pajamas, undershirts and candy for the children at Maybury Sanatorium. Tom Larson, left, Pat Carl, Judy Phillips and Dorothy Thomas work on the project, which NBD employees have sponsored for the past seven years. Not pictured but helping with the project was Valerie Bowling.

Plymouth Goodfellows braved a soaking rain last Saturday to sell their Christmas edition of The Plymouth Mail so that no child would be without a Christmas. Erroy H. Merchant, above, sold his papers on the Mayflower Hotel corner, despite the downpour.

Edison tax expert retires

Charles D. Davis, assistant to the director of Detroit Edison's tax department, retired Dec. 1 after 42 years of company service.

Though a native of Denver, Colorado, Davis has lived in the Detroit area since early childhood. He graduated from Central High School and holds a bachelor of science degree from Michigan State University. He is a registered professional engineer.

Davis joined Detroit Edison's plant accounting department in 1923, shortly after graduation from Michigan State. He was appointed assistant to the company's director of taxes in August, 1960. He has been active in the National Association of Accountants, the Engineering Society of Detroit, and has served as chairman of the depreciation accounting committee of the Edison Electric Institute.

Davis is a member of the congregation of St. James

Methodist Church and has previously been active in the Strathmoor Methodist Church. He is also a Past Master and life member of Wolverine Lodge No. 484 F. & A.M., and is a past president and director of the Edison Employees Credit Union.

Until last August Mr. Davis and his wife, Marie, made their home at 14178 Grandmont Road, Detroit; since then, they have lived at 14155 Shadywood Drive in Plymouth.

Canton News by Jo Ann Grahl 482-8405

A correction on an item in the Dec. 1, Canton News: the number to call to donate old nylon stockings for stuffing toys for the Canton Goodfellows is HU 2-8555 (Mrs. Stanley Gill) instead of the previous one listed. An apology to the party of the other number for the inconvenience caused them is offered.

A potluck dinner will be held Dec. 18 by Plymouth Bridle Club 211. A collection will be taken and sent to its adopted girl in Thailand. The club is planning a skating party during Christmas vacation.

The various Circles of the Women's Society of Christian Service of Cherry Hill Methodist Church held Christmas parties at their December meetings. Mrs. Stanley West of Ridge Rd. was hostess for the Esther Circle Dec. 2. The Faith Circle met at the home of Mrs. Duane Bastian of Ypsilanti Dec. 7. Mrs. John Caroen of Cherry Hill Rd. was hostess for the Ruth Circle Dec. 8.

The Cherry Hill 4-H Club held its monthly business meeting and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. James Hartford Dec. 4. Sue Schultz gave a demonstration on measuring. Mrs. Hartford told the girls of the donation of a sewing machine to the club by Mrs. Lewis Witherby. Instead of a gift exchange, the girls brought gifts to be donated to the Canton Goodfellows. Sandra Schmidt provided the entertainment for the evening and the Junior leaders brought refreshments. The club is planning a skating party for Jan. 22.

Cub Scout Troop 298 of Plymouth held its monthly pack meeting Dec. 8. Bobcat pins were presented Ricky Schultz, Keith McKinney, Blair Simmons, Michael West, Michael McNulty, Billy Jarvis, and Richard Hawk. Randy Campbell received a Wolf badge and one silver arrow; Stephen Dunson received one gold arrow; and Peter Bowie received one gold and one silver arrow. Christmas caroling followed by a party is planned for Dec. 18.

The Western Wayne County 4-H Livestock Club met Dec. 6 at Cherry Hill School. The group decided to offer the use of the school to other 4-H clubs for meetings.

Earlier he served Bathey as an engineer, ass't production manager, estimator and plant superintendent.

A native of Waltz, Michigan, Schurch attended Romeo Julius high school and Henry Ford College, Dearborn. In 1946, with the Army in Germany, Schurch was engaged in post-war re-construction projects.

Carrier of the week

George Hastings, Jr., 12, was one of the top Plymouth Mail carriers in a recent circulation contest as he obtained 25 new customers on his route.

His route covers Evergreen, Auburn, Junction, Sunset and Farmer Streets.

Young George is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hastings, 346 N. Evergreen. He has lived here all his life.

Attending the Our Lady of Good Counsel school (7th grade) and coin collecting occupy much of his time.

"I like sports, but I like basketball the best," says George. He plans to go to college, but is undecided on what he wants to be.

Music . . .

. . . lends itself to our lives in the most bountiful fashion. It can, within an instant, set the mood or alter the mood, depending upon the individual ear.

It is a voice alone, a personal thing — and there are few of us who could really live without it.

For this reason it is especially nice to have close access to the kind of music we want, when we want it. This is what makes Melody House so welcome in Plymouth, welcome to people like Mrs. Carol Guregian of 9200 Ann Arbor Road.

The nice thing about Melody House is that it's in the heart of town. It's close to the bank and the theatre and nearly all the other stores we shop almost every day. Miss Margaret Wilson, the proprietor makes sure, if something strikes the mood as only music can, that it's available.

Melody House has the largest selection of musical recordings in Plymouth; and a fine stock of equipment for the high fidelity aficionado.

It's a well-rounded, well conceived home for music lovers — stocked with particular care — because . . .

COLONIAL IN ATMOSPHERE but modern in all banking services tells the story of Michigan Bank's new building on the corner of Ann Arbor Rd. and Sheldon Rd. Bank President Geoffrey Reaume began welcoming customers in the new, walnut-wood paneled building recently, but notes that a grand opening will not be held until sometime in early January.

Michigan Bank moves into colonial home

Plymouth's Michigan Bank has a new home, located steps away from where its old white trailer stood on the southwest corner of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Rd.

Bank president Geoffrey C. Reaume told the Mail Monday that the new colonial structure was nearly complete, with electricians putting on final touches. "We'll hold a grand opening sometime after the first of the year. But we're open with full services right now."

The new building is constructed of red brick, with white trim. Inside a brass chandelier, dark walnut paneling, gold and white tile floors and soft lighting provide a colonial atmosphere.

Michigan Bank has parking for forty cars, has eight windows inside, and two drive-in windows.

THE BANK now offers a full line of services: checking accounts, loans, savings, safety deposit, and Saturday banking. Michigan Bank is open all day Saturday until 4:30.

Construction began on the bank several months ago. It marks the first business venture to locate on the two shopping center corners west of Sheldon Rd. at Ann Arbor Rd.

Former pastor's wife publishes book of verse

Formal presentation of "Road To Nowhere", a book of original verse and sketches, was made recently at the Ann Arbor Writer's Round Table by Marjory Todd Poole, author and member of the Round Table.

Mrs. Poole, wife of the Rev. Frederick G. Poole, former pastor of the Methodist Church in Plymouth, is well known in social work circles in Michigan and as a writer in social work fields.

One sketch in the book, "Thoughts During Intermission," was written from Mrs. Poole's experience in listening to the Plymouth Symphony and Chorus at "The Messiah" during the time of their residence here.

The collection of some fifty poems is built around a poem which appeared over forty years ago in a popular magazine. The poem under title of "The Road To Nowhere" had been sent to the author during a long illness and had been memorized by her.

Mrs. Poole makes no claim to being a studied poet, nor has she been able to give full time to writing; but along with her social work, the small volume has been written.

St. Johns sets nativity pageant

On Sunday, Dec. 19 at 6 p.m. a Nativity Pageant will be presented in St. John's Episcopal Church, 574 S. Sheldon Road, by the Senior Youth Group of the parish with the assistance of the Youth and Adult Choirs under the direction of Mr. Knight Vernon, the organist and choir director.

A couple of the parish and their baby son will represent Joseph and Mary and the Christ Child. The fact that a real baby is featured in the pageant has always aroused a great deal of interest on the part of the young and old.

All the members of the church school and any others who would like to participate will bring a gift offering to the manger during the pageant. This offering will be given to the Plymouth State Home to purchase any needed supplies for the children.

Following the pageant, the Church School teachers will present gifts to the members of their classes and light refreshments will be served in the parish hall.

The public are invited to attend.

Jr. Hi West sets holiday concert

Students and teachers of Plymouth Junior High West will present the annual Christmas Concert on Monday, Dec. 20 at 7:30 p.m. Parents and friends are invited to attend. The program this year is under the direction of student adviser Miss Betty Gibson. Many groups will be featured during the evening, including the 6th and 7th grade chorus, the All Star Band, Orchestra, and the Drama Club.

P. T. S. A. membership chairman Mrs. Ed Burrow and her committee will be stationed at various places in the building to accept membership dues. All parents who haven't joined the P. T. S. A. are urged to do so at this time. Our goal is 100% paid up membership by Jan. 1, 1966. Proceeds from the membership drive will be used to purchase some much needed equipment for the school.

How can I make my voice heard

Ever wonder how the people who run your local, state and national government got where they are?

Ever wonder just what taxes are all about? Ever wonder how you can become involved in some of the decisions of the community?

The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce is trying to answer some of these questions with a special Political Action Course — a course in practical politics.

The eight week course begins on Tuesday, January 18 at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Each meeting will begin at 8 p.m. and last one and one half hours. Discussion is completely non-partisan and representatives of both major parties will participate.

A nominal fee of $4 is being charged for the course, and includes a set of eight booklets and study materials.

ACCORDING to a Chamber of Commerce bulletin, the course will try to answer the question: How can you, as an individual, play a more effective role in controlling economic and social trends which, in our democracy, are determined by political action.

Information about the class can be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce office, or by calling Fran Booth, Chamber of Commerce co-ordinator at 453-1540.

Mrs. Booth said Monday that several people had signed up for the class, but that many more were needed. Spouses of any enrollees are welcome to attend free.

The topics to be discussed in the eight-week course: The individual and politics, political party organization, the political precinct, political campaigns, political clubs, the political leaders' problem, the political meeting, businessmen in politics.

Assembly approves scholarship

At a recent meeting the Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity approved the scholarship program of its School Committee.

An organization for the improvement of human relations, the Assembly is undertaking this project to send a Negro boy or girl from the Metropolitan area to Schoolcraft College for a period of two years.

The college will administer the fund and assist in the selection of a candidate based on need and merit. If possible, the student will live with a local family and commute with young people from Plymouth.

Private citizens, the Plymouth Ministerial Association, individual church groups and local industries are contributing toward the goal of $1,000 set to cover tuition, books, and fees.

IT IS hoped that the fund will be in use by the fall of 1966 and that it might grow into a continuing scholarship program.

Leaflet tells of new SS deductions in January, '66

Employers in the Detroit-Northwest area have ordered more than 40,000 copies of the leaflet, "An Explanation of Your Social Security Deduction," to inform their employees about the increase in the social security tax rate scheduled to go into effect the beginning of the new year.

The leaflet points out that the social security contribution rate for employees and employers had been scheduled to rise from the 3% percent in effect from 1963 through 1965, to 4% per cent beginning January 1, 1966.

To help finance the changes in the law, enacted this summer, including a program of hospital insurance for the aged; a 7 percent increase in benefit payments; and other important improvements in the social security program, the contribution rate has been raised to 4.2 percent for 1966, instead of the previously scheduled 4% percent.

IN ADDITION, the amount of annual earnings subject to the tax and creditable toward social security benefits is raised from $4,800 to $6,600. Of the 4.2 percent tax rate, .35 percent (.35 cents out of each $100 of taxable wages) goes into the new Hospital Insurance Trust Fund, out of which hospital insurance benefits will be paid.

The Detroit-Northwest Social Security District Office is located at 18500 Grand River, Detroit. This office is open daily 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and until 8:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. It is also open until noon on Saturdays.

Junior High West News

By Lynne Tobin
Many seventh graders had fond memories of bridge building and log cutting, muck and mosquito land, and (of course) the Proud Lake monster, as four sixth grade rooms pulled out and headed for Proud Lake (the sixth grade camp) last week.

The rooms that left are Mr. Cavanaugh's, Mr. Herrington's, Mrs. Germain's, and some of the students in Miss Dickinson's room. They had a good time and learned many new and interesting things.

Our school Christmas project this year is collecting canned goods for the needy people of Plymouth. The project is not competitive. The cans will be collected from Monday to Friday noon this week. Please help someone have a Merry Christmas — help the canned goods drive.

This year's Christmas Farefare should be a real success. There will be lots of entertainment; the All Star Band, the 6th Grade Chorus, the Orchestra - Mr. Michael Endres; Drama Club, Choral Reading - Mr. Raymond Sypniewski; 7th Grade Chorus - Mr. Knight Vernon.

The Art Club has postponed the working on the glass and tile mosaics for the school until after Christmas, and has begun to ready our school for the coming holiday. Huge painted murals of joyous angels are covering the library windows. Soon decorations will be strung in the halls.

MISS HELEN Desjardins of Plymouth, a Chinese missionary for 33 years, was a guest at Jr. High West Dec. 3. Three sections of seventh graders enjoyed her talk on Chinese customs, schools, and art.

A TON OF DEER — part of the kill brought back to Plymouth for storage at B and N Refrigeration last week by a group of hunters were these mule deer from Colorado. The hunters reported bagging 22 deer, with each man limited to two each, hunter's choice. Pictured are left, Paul Livingston of Birmingham, Curley Collins of Walled Lake, and Robert Totten of Plymouth. Other hunters on the hunt in Colorado were Rick Sackett of Plymouth, Ron Shoebridge of Salem, Al Ringle of Walled Lake, Fred Monjo of Union Lake and Harry Deigel of St. Joseph. Ralph Foreman of Northville and Stan Edzik of Cass City also were in on the hunt. The deer were all bagged in an area near Grand Junction, Colorado, called Delta.

Here's how Explorer Posts are formed

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of articles on the Boy Scout Explorer program, a program that is in its infancy in The Plymouth Community.)

The Explorer Program is based upon the assumption that it is more difficult to get a doctor to go camping than it is to get him to share his knowledge about medicine.

The formula takes the top leaders in the community and uses them as resource people for Explorer units. The new Explorer program is based on a University of Michigan study that showed the Boy Scout program as it existed did not meet the varied interests of the restless and inquisitive group it served—young men.

THUS the pioneer Explorer post was organized in Orange County, California. The program allows a youth to select a group of Explorers who are "exploring" a vocational interest that appeals to him.

If a young man is interested in medicine, chemistry, aviation, atomic power, or anything else, Exploring will put that young man in touch with the right people, give him the right guidance, help him open doors to his future.

Don Allen, 42150 Lakeland Crt., Community Commissioner for the Boy Scouts, feels there is a need for more Exploring units in Plymouth.

Allen said recently that the pilot program in California produced outstanding results and it will do the same in the Plymouth Community if the public becomes aware of it.

The Explorer program is not a typical Boy Scout program. It is different in that:

Uniforms are optional; an Explorer post may "explore" a variety of interests, or each unit may concentrate on one particular interest, like say automotive mechanics, or law enforcement.

Commissioner Allen outlined how a post is formed.

(1) Help form a Council Explorer Committee with men of varied backgrounds. Enthusiasm, not Boy Scout experience, is the prime requisite.

(2) Survey the community and make a list of possible special interest groups.

(3) Arrange for sponsors, organize an advisory committee, and work to develop skeleton one-year program, after some review.

(4) Contact schools and churches, explain Exploring, and set a date for a meeting with boys interested in the program.

(5) Present the program to a group of boys, secure names of those interested, and recruit, selectively, an Explorer unit.

(6) The sponsor invites the young men who showed interest to join, through a letter mailed by the top man in the sponsoring organization.

(7) Last, set a meeting at which the top sponsor is present, a good speaker talks, organizational elections take place, and the post's goals and ideals are explained.

This brief outline of how posts have been formed, and how they have succeeded is based upon three key things: the help of the existing Boy Scout leadership, the help of the top civic-minded men in the community, and the interest of the educators.

TWO EXPLORER posts now exist in Plymouth: the VFW 862 Post headed by Grant Ridley, and the Rotary-sponsored Starkweather Post, headed by Ferris Mathias.

Allen feels there should be many more.

Exploring vocational interest of the teenage boy is the goal of the program. But the sound ideals that have gained Boy Scouts world-wide acclaim are still present: Faith in the American way of life and democratic values.

Allen said he needs several things to get the program moving:

Someone who will sponsor Explorer posts. As Scout leaders point out, there is a group of boys in the community who aspire to enter your business—if you can provide the chance;

The aid of the schools (which have indicated their willingness to help, Allen said);

Young men who want to "explore" a single vocation, or several, before they make a choice of their life's work.

With these things, and a little time, Allen feels he can organize several Plymouth Exploring units. Allen, like other Explorers across the country, feels that you cannot preach citizenship and ethics to high school age boys. But if you can give them the opportunity to rub elbows with the best men in the community—those who not only are successful, but are respected—you can challenge today's youth to rise up to the questions of his future, as well as his community's and his country's.

Leadership is not only the key problem but the key answer. That is what Don Allen is looking for right now. Last week, he urged anyone interested in starting an Explorer post, or taking part in the activities of one, to contact him either at 453-3385, or 322-5665.

She had lived in Plymouth since 1950 and was a member of the First Methodist Church and the Woman's Club of Plymouth.

Besides her husband, Lester, she is survived by her mother, Mrs. Marlin Reid of St. Petersburg, Fla.; a son, William J. of Plymouth and two brothers, Kermit Reid of Tarrytown, Md. and Edward Reid of Livonia.
