

Lorenz announces Mayflower expansion plans . . .

NEW OWNER OF The Mayflower Hotel, Ralph Lorenz, looks over an architect's drawing of proposed motel units, planned for construction behind the Mayflower Meeting House, east of South Main St. Lorenz, operator of the hotel since 1939, purchased the real estate and remaining interest in The Mayflower Friday. The motel would be constructed on downtown land which Lorenz owns.

Ambitious plans for construction of motel units in the downtown area were announced Friday by Ralph J. Lorenz, new owner of The Mayflower Hotel.

Lorenz also announced that the present hotel would undergo exterior remodeling early next year. He unveiled his plans simultaneously with the word that his bid to purchase the hotel real estate and business had been accepted by stockholders.

The motel units are expected to be built behind the recently refurbished Mayflower Meeting House on the east side of South Main St. on property that Lorenz has been acquiring in recent years.

The hotel owner noted that the proposed move was prompted because of increased demand for transient lodging facilities in the area and because the present hotel no longer adequately fulfills that need.

the hotel is located, Lorenz said, has become noisy and is no longer good for temporary lodgers. He said he hoped to gradually switch the hotel to permanent residents and move overnight accommodations across the street into the proposed motel units.

Other plans for the present building, constructed in 1927 as a community hotel, include installation of an automatic elevator and changes in the lobby, Lorenz said.

Lorenz pledged that The Mayflower would remain a family operation. Presently he is actively assisted by his son Staton, a graduate of Cornell University's Hotel School.

Over the years, virtually every member of the family has helped. Recently, when Lorenz acquired and remodeled the former Odd-fellows Hall into the Mayflower Meeting House, all of his five sons helped to get it ready

Chamber eyes full-time director

A full-time Chamber of Commerce manager and a weekend leadership conference were two key proposals presented to the Chamber Board of Directors Tuesday morning as part of a far-reaching program for the coming year.

Chamber President Carl Pursell unveiled the ambitious program, jammed with activity and innovation, for board approval.

Key points in the Chamber's 1966 "Blueprint for Progress" include chamber representation at City Commission and Township Board meetings and backing for formation of a downtown parking authority.

Pursell told the Board that one of the goals of the Finance Committee is to prepare for a full-time manager. A raise of basic Chamber dues would be needed to cover the additional cost.

Chamber Vice President John Kamego of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. noted that industry had expressed support for a full-time manager. He said industrial members want to become re-identified with the Chamber.

Houk and McEwen headline JayCee consolidation forum

An independent, outside survey on Plymouth City-Township consolidation was called for Monday night by Mayor James C. Houk at a forum meeting sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

But Supervisor John D. McEwen of Plymouth Township said he favored a governmental unit that embraced all of northwestern Wayne County.

The two governmental leaders appeared before a JayCee meeting, moderated by Plymouth Twp. Planning Commissioner and Attorney Maurice Breen, a member of the club.

PCF tops goal with $86,315.34

The Plymouth Community Fund has gone over its goal.

Drive chairman John Kamego said Friday that recent reports from Chevrolet Spring and Bumper on payroll deductions had put the drive over its goal of $86,083.

Kamego said the total was now $86,315.34, with more to come in.

The report bears out the cautious optimism expressed at the Fund Drive victory dinner in early November.

At that time Kamego and Fund president Frank Palmer said they could only report $81,871, with much of that total still in doubt.

The sole remaining community hotel in the State of Michigan passed into private ownership Friday afternoon when stockholders of Plymouth's Mayflower Hotel voted by a 91 per cent margin to sell to Ralph J. Lorenz, manager of the hotel since 1939.

Lorenz needed only 75 per cent approval of the stockholders to purchase the real estate and business. The sale price was not announced.

According to state law the firm will liquidate and funds will be disbursed to stockholders.

Transition of ownership to Lorenz and his family marked the climax of a story that began here in 1926 when community leaders saw a need and began a movement to build a hotel.

Plymouth to say good-bye to Rev. Castner

"Plymouth has been very meaningful to us as a family and the people have been most cooperative and receptive to my work in the church," states the Rev. Edward Castner whose resignation as associate pastor of the First Presbyterian Church was approved last Sunday at a special congregational meeting.

He added, "It has been a stimulating six years and we regret leaving, but (Continued on Page 3)

You can't get there from here

"Now let's see. You take Mill Street, which when you reach Ann Arbor Road, becomes Lilley Rd. Or, to go through town, take Plymouth Rd., which downtown is Main St. Turn right on Ann Arbor Trail and keep on going until you hit Ann Arbor Rd."

Confused?

Many newcomers, and even old timers are by road names in the Plymouth Community, and one man has decided to do something about it.

Harlan Hickerson, 9595 Gold Arbor Rd., has circulated a petition with 54 signatures, many of them well known community leaders, urging setting right the various confusing names of streets and roads.

He brought the matter before the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning, and the Plymouth Township Board Tuesday night. He is expected also to present his ideas to the Plymouth City Commission.

He proposes:

- The change of Ann Arbor Rd. to Plymouth Rd., because of the confusion with Ann Arbor Trail.
- The change of Plymouth Rd. to Burroughs Rd.
- The change of Mill St. to Lilley Rd.
- The change of Main St. to Mayflower Ave. to add to the colonial touch in Plymouth.

The other main portion of Hickerson's plan calls for re-vamping of the numbering system, which he also feels needs modernizing.

Hickerson's petition reads: "To bring an end to the confusion caused by the similarity of the names of two streets, Ann Arbor Road and Ann Arbor Trail, in the community of Plymouth and southwest corner (Continued on Page 2)

FRIDAY'S FIGURES pushed the total beyond what Kamego and Palmer were able to forecast Nov. 10.

"The goal has been reached," Kamego said. "We're there and anything else is gravy. There is no way to estimate what more is coming."

Kamego said there may be between $4,000 and $5,000 more coming, with about 10 industrial plants still unreported.

"I'm just elated over the good news," Kamego said. I want to thank all the division chairmen, team captains and workers who labored so long on this drive. Nothing could have been done without them, and what we did with them is just fantastic," he said.

The drive began in early October with some concern on the part of PCF officials, who last year failed to make (Continued on Page 3)

THE FOLLOWING week the site at the corner of South Main St. and Ann Arbor Trail was selected — on property then owned by Paul J. Wiedman and the Pennsylvania firm recommended construction of a 50-room semi-fire-proof building.

On August 20, the campaign was kicked off with a sales force of 130 local men and The Plymouth Mail noted: "The next few weeks will decide whether or not Plymouth will have a modern hotel. This . . . effort is strictly a community proposition."

Snow shovel

The Plymouth Community YMCA has launched "Operation Snowshovel" to aid beleaguered residents in their fight against the white stuff.

The YMCA Youth Employment Bureau has a list of nearly 50 youths who will shovel snow. They live in all areas of the community, but can be transported elsewhere in many cases.

They all attend school, so they would be available sometime after 3 p.m.

YMCA officials said the amount of work should determine the pay.

Names and more information can be had by calling Mrs. Eugene Crosby at 453-2904.

Vandalize church in painting spree

Four 12-year-old boys were being implicated in the spray painting vandalism of two Plymouth churches Saturday night by City of Plymouth police Monday.

Police said they know who the youths are, and that conferences were being set up with their parents. The four attend Junior High West.

Their names are not being withheld by police, but will not be published because of their youthful age.

POLICE said the boys painted obscenities on the walls of the new Our Lady of Good Counsel building sometime after 8 p.m. Saturday. Also, paint was sprayed on the walls of the Christian Science Church, and the St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church school bus.

SQUEEZE INN TO HELP CAUSE:

It was a soggy day in Plymouth for Goodfellows

Plymouth Goodfellows hope Roy's Squeeze Inn at 1108 S. Main street will be packed with Christmas shoppers next Thursday, all of them hungry.

In a special Christmas gift to the Goodfellows, Roy Tillman, owner of the drive-in, is giving the day's receipts from Dec. 16, Thursday, to the Goodfellow fund for the needy.

It is in keeping with the Goodfellow's motto of "no child without a Christmas."

"This is Roy Tillman's main charitable contribution," said Paul Sanders, Goodfellow treasurer last week. "He has a feeling for kids, and doesn't think they should be penalized because of their surroundings. I think he feels that he has always had a good Christmas, and would like to see all children have the same."

The Goodfellows netted $1805.24 for their day's work last Saturday.

They braved wind and pouring rain to sell their Goodfellow editions of the Plymouth Mail.

Martin Schomberger was the star salesman according to Sanders.

"THE SALE was only average; the rain did hurt us, Sanders said.

The money collected in the drive will be used for Christmas toys, dinners and clothing for Plymouth's needy families.

Chairmen for the drive were thanked for the efforts last week by Goodfellow president Paul R. Cook.

er of Livonia, we the undersigned home-owners and residents request the following names be changed.

"Since Michigan State Highway No. 14 (M-14) already has the name of "Plymouth Road" from Grand River Ave. in Detroit to the "Y" in Livonia and from Napier Road to Main St. in Ann Arbor City, we request that part in Plymouth Township and the corner of Livonia be renamed "Plymouth Road" so that all of M-14 will have one name "Plymouth Road" from down in Detroit to downtown Ann Arbor. This will completely eliminate the confusion by eliminating one of the two names.

"Since the City of Plymouth is trying to create an "Early American" or "Colonial" image, we request that Main St. be renamed "Mayflower Ave." all the way from Joy Rd. in Plymouth Township to Mill St. in Plymouth.

"We request that the county road in Plymouth Township and the southwest corner of Livonia now called "Plymouth Road" be renamed "Burroughs Road."

"To end the confusion caused by the street numbering system in the City of Plymouth, we request the adoption of the Detroit Edison System now in use in Detroit and the rest of Wayne County."

Hickerson said in a letter to the various governmental agencies that many people agreed that confusion existed and that a change was needed, but that they disagreed with various specific proposals.

Hickerson said last week he would be glad to meet with any group to help further the program, and that he felt very enthusiastic about the change.

Tea

The second annual graduates' tea with a Christmas music program is slated for Tuesday, Dec. 21 at Plymouth High School.

The Christmas program featuring music by the band, choir and orchestra will be held from 2 until 2:30 in the auditorium with the tea slated for 2:45 to 4 p.m.

The entire 1965 class of 414 members has been invited. According to principal Carvel Bentley, this is the time when PHS graduates get together with their former teachers and renew student friendships.

Santa forgets to stuff Dad's stocking...

For some odd reason it seems to be traditional.

Dad, poor Dad, of all people. Well now, that's easily remedied. Just stop for a moment at Carl Caplin's.

He has shoehorns, ties, colognes, clothes brushes, games galore... other little intriguers that should absolutely flabbergast Dad when he takes a second glance at his stocking on Christmas.

After all... he and Santa have a benevolent lot in common.

Herrick's wed 25 years

Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Herrick of Northville Rd. were honored Sunday, Dec. 5, on their 25th Wedding Anniversary at an open house given by their daughter, Mrs. Judith Calhoun of Wilmington, Ill. and son, Nicholas Herrick of Kalamazoo.

The 80 guests attending were treated to a musical detailing the courtship and marriage of the honored couple written especially for them and sung by their pastor, the Rev. Donald Williams of the First Baptist church.

The couple received many gifts and fond wishes from their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Herrick were married in the First Baptist church, Plymouth, and have lived here 19 years.

BPW plan Christmas party Dec. 20

The annual Christmas Party of the Business and Professional Women's Club is planned for their regular meeting night, Dec. 20, at Hillside Inn.

The executive board is in charge of the meeting and is keeping the program a surprise to the members. The board did say that home made door prizes will be awarded.

Instead of exchanging gifts the members decided to donate $1.00 each for gifts to be sent to the West Trail Nursing Home, the BPW National Foundation, and Project Hope. Those who do not plan to attend the meeting are expected to send their $1.00 to Loretta McGhee at the National Bank of Detroit.

Reservations for the dinner meeting must be made by Dec. 18 to Daisy Proctor, 453-5045, or Nora Horn, 453-4825.

Schoolcraft choir presents Christmas program Dec. 16

The Schoolcraft College Choir will present a special Christmas sampler on Thursday morning, Dec. 16, at 11 o'clock in the college library.

The first portion of the program will be a sampling of music from the Baroque period and will include a performance of Bach's Cantata, "Unto Us a Child is Born." Soloists in this work will be Karen Esch of Plymouth, Gary McGettrick of Livonia, and William Sweet of Livonia. All are students at Schoolcraft College.

The second portion of the program will be devoted to little-known Christmas carols from around the world, including Jesus Ahatonia, an Indian carol, supposedly the first pieces of music to be written down on the North American Continent.

The conductor will be Wayne Dunlap, and accompanist, Allen Shaffer.

Although this program is primarily for students at the college, a limited number of friends from outside the school can be admitted. There is no admission charge.

Pat Reynolds admits she was wrong!

(She was sure electric dryers were more expensive. Then we showed her these money-saving facts.)

- 1 Gas dryers cost a couple of pennies less per load to operate; we'd be the first to admit it. But with electric dryers you still come out ahead. Read on.
 - 2 Electric dryers cost less to buy. Model for model, prices run about $20 to $40 lower than gas dryers.
 - 3 And now, for a limited time, this lower price includes installation and wiring, if needed, when you buy from one of the many dealers participating in this special sales event.
 - 4 Electric dryers cost nothing for electrical repairs or labor. Gas dryers! Well, you can get a manufacturer's repair service policy—but it will cost you up to $120 over the first five years of operation alone. Of course, if your dryer is electric, Edison comes out, repairs electric operating parts, and leaves without leaving you a bill! (It's the only no-charge dryer repair service offered by a utility company in this area.)
- Add up ALL the costs and you'll see what Pat Reynolds saw—electric dryers actually cost less to own. EDISON

Cocoa-date cake freezes well

A moist cake with a deliciously different flavor is suggested this week by Mrs. Robert Meek of Beech St. who says her Cocoa-Date Cake freezes well and would be good for a holiday party.

Mrs. Meek received this recipe from an aunt, and she says it is simple to make. The cocoa and cinnamon combination gives it a special flavor.

Residents of Plymouth for eight years, the Meeks have five children, Judy, 1; Diane, 3; Randy, 5; Karen, 7; and Jeff, 12.

Mrs. Meek says she enjoys sewing and cooking. Dr. and Mrs. Meek are members of the Plymouth Dance Club.

Her recipe would also make a nice gift.

Stakias leads Rocks to 65-51 win with 23 points

No one would want to count the errors in Plymouth's 65-51 rout of the Belleville Tigers Friday night.

It would be a prodigious task. But new head basketball coach Richard Bearup was satisfied with the resounding win, and the performance of his new found star forward, Mike Stakias, who for the third time in as many games led all scorers.

Stakias hit for 23 points, 12 of them in a hot-shooting first quarter that saw the Rocks take a commanding lead, 22-9. Stakias, only a sophomore, has proved to be the key in Bearup's new offense, despite his first-game jitters and lack of varsity experience.

GUARD RICK JONES, one of last year's mainstays, hit his stride, scoring 12 points and helping the Rocks break a bothersome full-court press the Tigers insisted on keeping up throughout the game.

The press bothered Plymouth, notably in the second quarter with back court men Ron Lowe and Bob McCall having trouble bringing the ball upcourt.

Belleville, suffering from a lack of shooting talent, could hit only 13 buckets. But they topped the Rocks at the charity line, hitting 25 out of 40.

Dennis Van Allen of the Tigers scored 11 points, but fouled out in the fourth quarter. Jim Turner hit for 12 for Belleville.

Much of the game time was spent at the free throw line—a result of sloppy play on both sides. Plymouth shot a poor 15 out of 34 via the free throw line.

Passing and rebounding was raggedy-andy throughout the whole game, with the Rocks having considerable trouble with the high-speed, aggressive work of the Tigers.

Stakias, Rock scoring leader, got considerable help from center Jim Scharmen before he, too, fouled out. Scharmen hit for 7 points, and dominated the backboards. He was replaced by John Ellison, who, in the fourth quarter, helped hold off any Tiger rally with key rebounds and 6 points.

CHUCK CATLETT also fouled out after playing most of the game at his forward spot.

Plymouth led 22-9 at the end of the first quarter, 35-21 at the half and 51-40 at the end of the third quarter as the Tigers narrowed the lead to 11 points.

The Belleville victory was the first of the infant season.

Last weekend, in back to back games, Plymouth lost in overtime to Walled Lake, 77-75, and then, the next day, 55-46 at the hands of Fordson.

This Friday, the Rocks will face Bentley, a team being touted to win the Suburban Six. It will be a strong test for Bearup and his cagers—all of whom are new faces except Jones.

Belleville dunks Rock swimmers 62-43 in close home meet

Belleville used to be one of the easy marks for Plymouth swimmers, but not so this year as a strong Tiger team topped Plymouth 62-43 in a close meet.

Last year John McFall's swimmers beat Belleville 59-46 as the Rocks went through one of their worst seasons.

Plymouth won the 200 yard medley relay with a 1:55 time in an extremely close opening event; Belleville's time posted at 1:55.72. The Rock team was composed of Ron Wittoff, Pat Brady, John Skinner and Biff Leonard.

Jim Nelson and Bill Wolfe finished third and fourth in the 200 yard freestyle event, just .05 seconds off-pace. Al Saxton won a second in the 50 yd. freestyle, while Pat McCord took a second in the 200 yard individual medley; McCord was only .03 seconds off the pace.

RICK LORENZ continued his winning way, scoring 55 points and taking a first in the diving event; Jim Larson took a second with 44.8 points.

Saxton and Mike Malboeuf took a third and fourth in the 100 yard butterfly event.

McCord managed a second in the 100 yard freestyle; Wittoff swam first in the 100 yard backstroke and Skinner third, in the same event.

Wolfe swam second in the 400 yard freestyle and Leonard grabbed a second in the 100 yard breaststroke.

The Rocks ran well behind in the last event, the 400 yard freestyle relay.

The swimmers faced Fordson Tuesday night, and will travel to Bentley Friday.

JayCee consolidation Schools apply for poverty funds

(Continued from Page 1) the recently completed reservoir, upped pressure 10 pounds, causing ancient pipes and mains to burst. Detroit water, with its 30 pounds of additional pressure, would have wreaked havoc, he said. "Eventually," he said, "the city will probably be using City of Detroit water."

(3) Liquor. The mayor noted that the City, which does not permit sale of liquor by the glass, is surrounded by businesses in the township which serve liquor. This question would have to be solved, he said.

(4) Form of government. The City of Plymouth presently has a strong city manager form of government. This could prove an obstacle, the mayor noted, to persons who prefer a strong mayoralty.

(5) Differential in assessment procedures. Houk pointed to a new law, Public Act 409, passed last year, which requires that all property shall be assessed at 50 per cent of true market value.

As advantages to consolidation, Mayor Houk noted the savings to the community which might be realized by combining certain services—including fire and police protection.

He pointed to the community's vulnerability under the present forms of government and cited the tremendous wave of growth sweeping in from the Detroit metropolitan area to the east.

"I fear that one of these days we're going to have no voice at all, if we don't band together," he said.

The mayor said, as a businessman, he is constantly aware of the problem of the community as a whole—even to the point that he must take care as a city commissioner to vote in the interest of the voters of the City.

"If it were for the good of the community," he said, "as an individual, I would be willing to step down and step aside."

Supervisor McEwen, following the mayor to the rostrum, told the JayCees he came to the meeting under the assumption that the proposed incorporation of Plymouth Township as the City of Plymouth Heights would be the topic.

"I REALLY haven't found out what The Plymouth Community is," he said. "I see it in the paper each week but I don't know what it is."

The Supervisor said he came to this area in 1955 from the City of Detroit with no intention of getting into politics. But he said he attended a meeting with the late supervisor, Roy R. Lindsay, and heard city officials state that a new subdivision could not get Plymouth city water without annexing itself to the city.

That, McEwen said, provided the impetus for him to enter the local political scene. Referring to township government, he made this claim:

"We have the best form of government that ever came down the pike." The supervisor said Township government involves the lowest cost to the people. Concerning assessment in the township, he said, "Some (property) is under assessed, but some is over assessed, so it equals out."

McEwen said the only service mentioned in the five-year-old research report which the township is not providing is police protection. But he said a township safety director may be added in the future.

The supervisor said he'd never had a complaint from a constituent about police protection in the township.

In a question and answer session afterward, McEwen was asked if he thought it was good government to form a city around the City of Plymouth.

"I don't think it would be," he said. "We should consider Northville, Northville Township, the City of Plymouth and Canton Township."

"A SMALL area such as the City of Plymouth Heights would not be advisable," McEwen emphasized his belief that a wider area should be taken into consideration when JayCee Dr. Gary Hall, a dentist, complained about police service.

"I want to be the first constituent to complain of police service," he said. Hall said his office is located next to the "Township Sheriff's headquarters—Bohl's Drive In," and one time he placed a call and got no response. Another time, he said, it took 27 minutes to get a sheriff's car there.

"What do you think of the idea of police departments together?" Hall asked.

"We don't have a police department," McEwen answered. But he noted that any consideration of the question of joint police protection should include not only the City of Plymouth, but also Northville and Northville Township.

In answer to another question, the supervisor admitted that township government would not last in the face of burgeoning population and expansion. But he urged the group present to define The Plymouth Community before urging consolidation.

"It should include the northwestern section of Wayne County," he said, "not just a school district."

Mayor Houk noted that it was hard for officials close to a situation to make assessments. As the township grows, he said, it must provide services and change its form of government.

The mayor said he felt an independent research project should be conducted on the subject of consolidation.

remedial reading and math.

4. A diagnostic team with reading specialists and a psychiatrist.

The programs are being written by Assistant Superintendent William Harding.

TWO of them show a certain imaginative or inventive nature on the part of the local schools, Harding told the Board at their regular meeting Monday night.

The two he cited were the diagnostic team plan and the outdoor education program, with camping involved.

A special review committee composed of Isbister, Harding, Miss Ann Jung, Reynald Borzi, Sister Christine, Mildred Field, Mrs. Bertha Green, Rev. Ernest Hammer, Wendell Hough, Esther Hulsing, Grace Jarvis, Mrs. Jean Wernette, Arnold Pykas, Richard Scharf, Mrs. G. Spaniel and Mrs. John Demott.

Harding reported on the program, and noted that plans were still tentative, with final approval still resting in Lansing.

In other matters the Board:

- Approved the trip to the United Nations for the PHS comparative government class and the international relations class. The students will be gone the last week in February.

- Discussed, and agreed to seek architect's opinions on a shelter for washing buses; a savings in bus bodies is expected to result if salt can be washed off on a daily basis.

- Approved a lease for storage rights for gas, requested by Consumers Power Company. The gas will be stored under School District property, deep under the earth, with an annual rental of $25 a year being paid, and a down payment of about $1200 being paid this week.

- Recognized the Plymouth Educational Secretary's as the bargaining unit for the school's secretaries, and this complied with new state laws.

Employees of National Bank of Detroit have a special Christmas project — toys, pajamas, undershirts and candy for the children at Maybury Sanatorium. Tom Larson, left, Pat Cari, Judy Phillips and Dorothy Thomas work on the project, which NBD employees have sponsored for the past seven years. Not pictured but helping with the project was Valerie Bowling.

Plymouth Goodfellows braved a soaking rain last Saturday to sell their Christmas edition of The Plymouth Mail so that no child would be without a Christmas. Erroy H. Merchant, above, sold his papers on the Mayflower Hotel corner, despite the downpour.
