Township Trustees Nix Plan Board Zoning Action

Robert Wedler, builder and developer who has been trying to get zoning approval for a proposed shopping center at the intersection of Ann Arbor and Haggerty Roads, learned to his dismay that he'll have to wait until next July or August before he can request the desired C-1 zoning.

Township Attorney Earl Demel that it could by its own volition initiate action for a change in zoning even though it had denied a previous request.

when the Trustees took issue with the Commission for approving the request after a denial.

Trustee Gene Overholt pointed out that the minutes of the Planning Commission showed the original request for C-2 zoning had been denied and that for C-1 approved. He indicated that he felt this was contrary to the zoning ordinance which provided a year's wait before a second request could be made.

"I feel this Board has no other recourse than to deny the C-1 request," Overholt said.

"This Board has received a written opinion that it couldn't supercede a denial. I don't understand how the planning commission can act thusly."

Trustee Dick Lauterbach said it was intimated to him that the planning commission took its action to "get rid of a hot potato and turn the matter over to the Township Board for disposal."

The action to deny was made by Overholt and supported by Lauterbach. In a poll of the Board, all voted for the denial with the exception of Trustee Ralph Garber, who is also a member of the Planning Commission.

Meanwhile, Wedler will have to wait out the year's time before he can make a new rezoning request and his plans for a shopping center will have to remain in abeyance until he successfully passes that hurdle.

IN LENGTHY MEETING

Council Acts on Water, Senior Housing Program

Plymouth's City Commission finally gave an insight into its thinking of sites for the proposed Senior Citizens Housing project Monday in one of the longest meetings in more than a year. It developed into a review of practically everything the Commission had considered for the past year and wound up with scheduling of two public hearings, a directive to the Housing Commission to consider three sites in addition to the Wilcox property, the appointment of a new City Clerk, a movement to reopen talks with the Detroit Water Board, a new contract for operation of the Salem Refuse dump, a resolution to advertise for bids on the land formerly occupied by the Church Street water tower, a proposal to seek permission to eliminate the sharp corner at the intersection of Ann Arbor Trail and Mill Street, a directive to the Urban Renewal Director to get information as to future plans of plants that bought land in the urban renewal project on Mill Street, and appointment of Rev. David Strang to the Human Relations Commission as one of the city's representatives.

What appeared to be a harmless agenda that would be resolved in short order turned into one of the greatest "hot air" sessions in Commission history—with a great deal of discussion.

On a motion of Commissioner George Lawton, Council directed the Housing Commission to consider sites in North Town, that area bounded by Food Fair store, Deer and Main streets and the city playground in the rear of the Christian Science Church as possible locations of the Senior Citizens Housing project.

The braised beef will be marinated in wine made of Paw Paw grapes. Apples for the Waldorf salad are being donated by the Foreman Orchards in Northville; the cottage cheese by Cloverdale Dairy in Plymouth; cherries for the cherry pie from Traverse City, home of Lt. Governor William Milliken.

Tickets for the affair are available from any member of the Plymouth-Northville Republican Party or from Mrs. Jacobus at 453-5543 or from Ticket Chairman Edward Johanson at 453-0895.

Elly Peterson Heads Lincoln Day Banquet

Mrs. Elly Peterson, state chairman of the Republican Party, will be the principal speaker at the first annual Lincoln Day banquet sponsored by the Plymouth-Northville Republican Party on Feb. 10 in the Mayflower Meeting House.

That was the announcement of Banquet Chairman Mrs. Betty Jacobus who indicated Mrs.

Plymouthite Has Part in Tax Program

It was just a year ago that Joseph Haefner, 1062 Hartough, Plymouth, a correction officer at Detroit House of Correction, fired a blistering letter to Congressman Wes Vivian complaining about the method of collecting withholding tax.

Haefner had just received the sad news from his income tax accountant that he still owed a sizable sum even though both he and his wife took no deductions for dependents.

"Why can't the government set up a graduated scale of withholding so that taxpayers won't have to make large additional payments each year," Haefner wrote to the Congressman.

Shortly thereafter, Haefner received a letter from Vivian indicating that the complaint had been turned over to the Treasury Department. Then within a reasonable period came a communication from the Treasury Department to the effect that a graduated scale was being studied.

Twp. Water System Shows Big Growth in Nine Years

The Plymouth Township water system has grown from 30 customers with 1.7 miles of mains in 1957 to 1,509 customers with 45.1 miles of mains, pumping 133 million gallons annually with a yearly pumpage of 139,000 gallons per patron in 1965.

This was the report of Township Engineer Herald Hamill, who has charge of the system reports, to Township Clerk Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, who is directly in charge of the water system.

Before the end of 1965, the total customers had climbed to an all-time high of 1,509 with a rapid increase expected in early 1966. The growth is seen from those subdivisions that will now have water with the extension of the mains along North Territorial Road.

The maximum day in 1965 was June 28 when 1,620,000 gallons were pumped. The maximum week was between June 28 and July 3 when 8,225,000 gallons were used.

Pick Wendell Smith For 'Man of the Year'

Wendell Smith, past president of the Plymouth Jaycees and one of the leading factors in the tremendous growth of the organization in the past two years, was named 1965 "Man of the Year" Monday in the annual Bosses dinner at Hillside Inn.

Smith received the Jaycees' "Distinguished Service Award" and automatically becomes eligible for the Michigan "Man of the Year" competition and for the contest for the top 10 young men of the year sponsored by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce.

He joins James Garber, George Lawton, James Jabara and Harvey Ziel in the select group of "Men of the Year" picked by the Plymouth Jaycees in the past six years.

Smith's rise in the local, State and National Jaycee picture began in 1964 when the chapter won the Giessenbier award for the most outstanding in Michigan and Wendell was acclaimed as the outstanding local president to receive the 1964 State Presidential award.

During the past year, he was named a National Director and served as chairman of the powerful Ways and Means committee of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce as well as public relations chairman for the Michigan organization.

He was honored as "Boss of the Year" last fall by the Southfield Business and Professional Women's Club.

A graduate of Michigan State University where he received a bachelor's degree in Economics and Mathematics, Smith also has a master's degree from Cornell University in Food Distribution.

He has been employed by the Kroger Stores since 1955, advancing from a meat merchandising trainee to division industrial engineer—a promotion he received a few months back.

Smith has been active in Plymouth community and service affairs ever since he moved into the Lake Pointe subdivision.

He served as chairman of the School Finance Study Committee; president and chairman of the Sheltered Workshop for adult retarded; vice chairman of the 1965 Michigan Week program; member of the Board of Directors of the Fall Festival; and a member of the Citizens' Committee to evaluate a civic center and auditorium.

He and his wife Margeth are the parents of three children, Mrs. Smith is one of the leaders in the Plymouth Jaycees activities.

Dr. Donald Starr, member of the Advisory staff of Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Co., was the principal speaker at the Bosses Dinner which was in charge of Jaycee President Cal

Strom as chairman. Then with the "Man of the Year" presentation, Jaycee members will turn their attention to the events listed for the remainder of the week in the celebration of National Junior Chamber of Commerce week.

The second highspot of the week comes Friday morning in a breakfast meeting at 7 a.m. in the Mayflower Hotel when principals of the 10 schools in the Plymouth system plus Administrators will meet with Jaycee officials to pick the "Outstanding Young Educator" of the Community. This is a new award started this year by the Chapter and recommendations were received from the principals and administrators.

$50,000 FOR 149 CUSTOMERS

Township Board Wonders If It Can Buy City Mains

Plymouth Township trustees have learned that the City of Plymouth wants $50,000 for water mains and lines to 149 customers in Township subdivisions who have indicated they would prefer to be served by the Township, with City of Detroit water, than with the City of Plymouth.

This came out of a talk between City Manager Richard Blodgett and Township Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, who also has charge of the Township water system.

The City Commission has been pondering the situation ever since residents of the Plymouth Colony subdivision, off N. Sheldon Road, petitioned the City for a change to Township water several months ago.

Mrs. Holmes requested the Board to pass a resolution asking legal opinion if it can buy customers.

Mrs. Holmes also asked the Board to get answers to the following questions:

- 1—Can other Township customers be required to pay for such a purchase?
2—Should the Township pay for water lines deeded to the City by developers and builders and help pay for bonded indebtedness for the entire city?

Blodgett told Mrs. Holmes that the city contends all customers should pay a pro-rated share of the indebtedness incurred at a time when they were customers of the City.

The Township treasurer told the Trustees she felt they should have legal opinions on all of the questions before they take any action on the matter. She pointed out that an alternate would be for the Township to put in its own lines in all of the subdivisions in question.

The matter was tabled pending receipt of the opinions.

Name Colorado Man City Clerk

Eugene Slider, 45, of Edgewater, Colorado, is the new City of Plymouth City Clerk.

The City Commission Monday unanimously approved his appointment as the successor to Richard Shafer upon recommendation of City Manager Richard Blodgett. Shafer resigned in October to accept a position as assistant finance director in Palm Springs, Calif.

Slider, who retired from the United States Army in 1959 with the rank of Chief Warrant Officer after 20 years service, has had considerable experience in all phases of city government, especially in the field of accounting and as a comptroller. He was the choice of the Commission after interviewing five candidates, including three from Michigan, one from Florida and Slider.

He had served as city clerk at Edgewater for the past four years. Edgewater is a suburb of Denver and has a population of more than 5,500.

Previous experience in city government was in Aurora, Colorado, a city of 70,000, where he spent a year in 1961 and for two years as deputy city clerk in Ann Arbor.

Slider was with the city government in Ann Arbor at the same time that Blodgett was an assistant to the City Manager there.

Slider has had considerable experience in the area. He was with the Army in Ann Arbor for eight years, from 1946 to 1951 and from 1956 to 1959.

He is married and the father of three children. He expects to assume his new duties in mid-February and will move his family here as soon as he finds a home.

Planning Board, Trustees Plan Joint Meeting

The Plymouth Township Board and the Planning Commission will hold a joint meeting next Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Township Hall to discuss and accept the new 701 program for an orderly development of the Township.

Supervisor John McEwen announced the meeting Monday following a resumption of the recessed public hearing on the program Saturday morning and afternoon.

With five members of the Commission, the acting Township Attorney and a public stenographer on hand, the hearing developed into a lengthy sitting session.

Only five residents appeared before the Commission in the three-hour morning session and Chairman Irvin Rozian finally called a halt at the noon break.

PRESS BREAK DELAYS OUR DELIVERY

The Observer Newspapers Group Management is sorry that delivery of your newspaper this week was delayed, but an unfortunate break in the press at the Post Printing Company, which prints all editions of the Observer, forced a six hour delay.

We are sorry that we have inconvenienced you but hope you will bear with us this instance. The Post Printing Management did everything possible to get the press run off as scheduled but the break caused considerable damage to one press unit and brought mechanical problems that couldn't be resolved in a short time.

'Y' Names New Youth Director

Tony Monte, of 649 S. Harvey, who was graduated from Plymouth High in 1958 and is now attending Eastern Michigan University, has been named youth director of the Plymouth Y.M.C.A.

The appointment was announced by "Y" President George Lawton who indicated Monte would serve part-time during the winter and spring while attending classes and then would be fulltime during the summer months.

Monte and his wife, the former Joan Ralston, were graduates of the same class at Plymouth High. They are the parents of a son, Dean, 4. Mrs. Monte, who was graduated from Eastern Michigan in 1962, is a teacher in the Wayne School system.

Monte will devote most of his efforts to the hard core dropouts of Plymouth High, junior high activities and as director of the new Young Adults program currently being organized by the "Y" for those between the ages of 19 and 25.

Announcement of the Monte appointment was one of the features of the "Y" celebration of National Y.M.C.A. Week, Jan. 16 through Jan. 22.

Spartan Nears Pact

Unless an unforeseen obstacle develops in the next few days, final details for the purchase of the Buneya property on Haggerty Road near Joy Road by Spartan Stores, of Grand Rapids, for construction of a huge warehouse, will be ironed next week in a meeting of the owners and Spartan officials.

That was the announcement of Harold Fischer, director of the Plymouth Regional Planning Authority, Monday following a meeting with Plymouth Township, Wayne County Road Commission, Chamber of Commerce and Spartan officials Friday.

The Road Commission had placed a minor block on the deal when it insisted on a $2,500 road bond for use of the Class B Haggerty Road for Class "A" purposes. The bond is a must by the Road Commission as insurance that any damages to the road will be covered by the bond.

In the meeting, attended by Oscar Gunderson, an assistant County Highway Engineer, and Otto Pommerening, Engineer of Highway Maintenance, it was brought out that the Commission could not deviate from its policy of requiring a road bond.

The Township Board had a legal opinion from its acting Township attorney that it could not post the bond. Spartan officials, who already have agreed to a 27-foot easement to the Road Commission along the front of the property, opined that it didn't feel obligated.

The matter was resolved when Fischer indicated the bond would be posted by the end of the week.

That set the stage for the final signing and Spartan officials said they would pick up the option on the property early next week.

School Board Okays Nankin Housing

The Wayne Board of Education has voted not to object to a housing project on Palmer between Edwin and John Hix Rds. in Nankin Township.

The Board reviewed site plans submitted by Hy Simon to the Nankin Planning Commission for preliminary approval for the proposed Phillip Judson Garden-West Subdivision.

Wayne Supt. of Schools Dr. Clarence Hinchey stated an elementary school site is needed which would be common to Phillip Judson Gardens-West, Carillon Village Sub. and Surrey Heights Sub.

Hinchey also noted that an egress should be provided from the southwest corner of the subdivision to Palmer Rd. This is necessitated by a 1,200 capacity junior high schedules for completion by Sept., 1967, immediately south of Palmer to the west.

"Since this subdivision is landlocked to some extent," says Hinchey, "there will be a problem with sidewalks for school children."

Hinchey also suggested increasing the width of lots to help provide a diversification of types of housing in the area.

Amy Recounts Many Varied Scout Doings

BY AMY CHARRON 474-0713

Another year has started and I hope you all find it filled with good things coming your way.

This columnist ended the year with a car accident. The car will never be the same and yours truly is still sore.

A New Year's card bought the sad news that Phil Sills of 23854 Beacon Drive, Farmington, has been hospitalized in Sinai Hospital following a heart attack.

Phil and his wife, Faye, have been so active helping the retarded children at the Plymouth State Home. Each year Phil has played Santa at the home and Faye has spent many hours at a table at the Farmington Savings and Loan Building to raise money for the children's Christmas presents.

In addition, both of the Sills spent a long day and evening trimming the trees at the Home and hiding candy for the children to find.

While Phil is in the hospital Faye is staying with her daughter, Marion Parel, in Huntington Woods.

Cappy Goltra tells us that her son is seriously ill also and will be out of school for an indefinite time.

Cathleen Callahan became a Brownie of Troop 127 at her very own "Brownie Land Magic Forest Fantasy" on Jan. 3.

On Dec. 22 the Brownies of Troops 127 and 527 went to the Kendallview Convalescent Home to sing Christmas Carols. They sang a total of 15 carols, which were appreciated very much by the residents of Kendallview. These ladies have been the service project of the troops for the past three years.

On Feb. 14 the members of Troop 527 will visit the Wonder Baking Company. Troop 127 visited John Glicks Pottery Studio in Farmington Jan. 10.

The Christmas Party for Troop 127 was given by Mrs. John Haller on Rose Hill with Mrs. Robert Roe and Mrs. Don ald Thomas assisting.

Scribe Paula Charron of Junior Troop 1936 reports that on Dec. 14 the girls held a surprise birthday party for their leader, Mrs. Russell Cleveland. The cake was decorated by Mrs. John Whitmore. Mrs. David Robertson and Mrs. John Hileman helped with the gifts.

Present at the surprise party were: Mrs. Hileman, troop treasurer; Paula Charron, scribe; and Patrol leaders Donna Koss, Debra Burkeen, Heide Brown and Gail Jackson. Plans were made for the members to vote on the remaining activities for the year and a Court of Honor so that plans could be made. A rededication ceremony is scheduled for Jan. 18 with each patrol participating.

Earning "Toymakers Badge" by making toys, gift wrapping and delivering them to the Farmington Goodfellows are the members of Junior Troop 365. The leaders of this troop are Mrs. Marlow Larson and Mrs. Allen Carruthers.

There was a good turnout at the trimming of the Christmas tree in front of the Farmington City Hall. Following the annual event the girls walked to the Downtown Center and sang Christmas carols under the direction of Senior Troop Leader Mrs. Bridget Reagan.

Remember your "Promise in Action." Get them filled out and return them to the Scout office. There will be publicity on these projects and I hope to hear from you.

Senior Troop 258 is collecting old eyeglasses for people who are not able to provide their own. The glasses should be turned into Mrs. Bridget Reagan.

My Brownies make good use of old Christmas card catalogues so if you have any on hand I would appreciate receiving them.

I am not receiving news from most of you so get your scribes on the ball. There are many troops in the three neighborhoods and I can't tell about activities I don't hear about. Come on Scouts, give me news.

War on Poverty Explained to Dems

The War on Poverty was described as a self-help program aimed at taking people off the welfare rolls and placing them into productive jobs at last week's meeting of the Farmington Democratic Club.

The workings of the Economic program in Oakland County and the Farmington area was discussed at the meeting by Dr. Edward McIrvine and Luther Flanagan. Mrs. Richard Ruitter described the Head Start program sponsored last summer by the Farmington School system.

Dr. McIrvine is a member of the Oakland County Economic Opportunity Committee. He emphasized that the program is not welfare but an attempt to give individuals the training they need to become a productive part of society.

He said the program involves several aspects of breaking the poverty cycle including job training, keeping students in schools, aid to small business and residents of rural areas. He had high praise for the Head Start program which gives pre-school training to children from economically deprived areas. Dr. McIrvine said the younger you get a person into the program the less money you have to spend on them.

Flanagan, assistant director of Oakland County's community action centers, said the whole key to the program is "that a person must do something to gain any benefits." It's not a giveaway program." He stressed that the program is geared to working with existing public and private agencies.

Wants Answers to Three Questions

Livonia Councilman Raps College Millage Increase

The Livonia City Council and especially Councilman Edward McNamara feel the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees is taking advantage of a situation by assessing taxpayers an additional half-mill for bonded indebtedness without a vote of the people.

The Board announced the half-mill levy a week ago, effective Sept. 15, after receiving a verbal opinion from its attorney in Lansing that it could take such action without a vote under the provisions of the new Constitution and Public Act 188. The opinion stated that the college came under the charter provision of the new Constitution and as such could legally levy millage to cover the bonded indebtedness without a vote. The action was taken to provide an additional $300,000 for operating. The one-mill levy approved by voters four years ago provided that the monies be used for operating and the payment of the bonded indebtedness. "I fail to see where Schoolcraft College has the right to levy millage without a vote of the people," stormed McNamara in last week's Council meeting, indicating he had first learned of the action in a story in the Observer Newspapers.

"I believe this is a rather strange way for the Board to break the news to the areas in the college district. I think it's about time we should inquire into the matter and find by what authority such an action is possible or to determine whether it is legal."

He asked the Council to pass a resolution requesting the City Attorney to get the answers to three questions. He asked: (1) To determine under what authority the community college can levy millage without a vote;

(2) If there a limitation to the amount the college board can levy and if so what is it; (3) What actions can be taken under law to require the Community College Board to submit millage request to the vote of the people?

"I don't think that any governmental or school unit should have the right to levy millage without a vote of the people," said McNamara in explaining his stand. "I feel we should make a test case of this and learn once and for all if the College Board can take this action under the terms of the new Constitution, state statutes or what have you.

"This is a matter that involves every taxpayer in the college district and could conceivably develop into a situation where the taxes could go up and up without the voter having any voice. I don't believe this was the intent of any provision of the new Constitution and neither do I feel that any Public Act will support such actions."

After listening to McNamara, the Council voted approval of the resolution and instructed the City Attorney to get the answers to the questions as soon as possible.

Meanwhile, college officials were silent on McNamara's attack.

It is known that the Trustees anticipated a test case on the matter and more or less felt that such an action as that of McNamara's would go far in clearing their vote to assess the millage.

Drivers Lose Licenses
Two Livonia residents have had their drivers licenses suspended and another revoked by Secretary of State James Hare.

Having licenses suspended for an unsatisfactory driving record are: Howard L. Hanks, 23, 32580 Six Mile, and George E. Manosky, of 15028 Lyons.

The operator's license of Lawrence M. VanMeter, 26, of 30496 Hathaway, was revoked due to an unsatisfactory driving record.

NO QUESTION about the popularity of the annual Antique Show in the Livonia Mall. This scene was typical of the attention the antiques received during the three-day run. There were antiques of all sizes and prizes and plenty of customers to buy them.

SUNDAY IN HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM

Plymouth Symphony Plans Family Concert

The string section of the Ferndale High School orchestra will join with the Plymouth Symphony for the annual family concert Sunday (Jan. 23) at 4 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

That was the announcement from Conductor Wayne Dunlap who also indicated the Family Concert will be used to bolster the record library at Dunning-Hough Library. Each person attending is asked to bring at least one record, oldtimers please, to be added to the Library.

Dunlap emphasizes that a record is a requirement of admission, no charge is made for any of the Symphony performances.

The addition of the strings from Ferndale High, under the supervision of Kenneth Sanford, will give the Symphony a total of 110 strings for the concert.

Narrator Henry Austin, who won plaudits of all who attended the performance in 1961 when he assisted with "Jonathon and the Gingery Snare," will be back for a repeat in one of the highspots of the afternoon program.

The concert was arranged with the family in mind and promises to be one of the most unusual ever conducted by Dunlap.

The program: Brandenburg Concerto No. 3. First movement by Bach.

Fantasy on a theme of Thomas Tallis by Vaughan Williams. Members of the Ferndale High string section will join in this number.

Madonna to Seek State Assistance

"Madonna College is beginning a drive for state assistance to private higher education," says Sister Mary Danatha, president of the college.

Madonna College is one of the private institutions of higher learning who have met to outline a two point program as an interim step in allowing private colleges to assist in handling massive enrollment increases which are expected to double by 1975.

The first of the two programs includes a tuition grant plan similar to those underway in New York and Wisconsin in which the state makes a tuition grant to any student who attends a college that charges over $400 tuition. The maximum grant to any student is $500.

The second program proposed by private college presidents was a legislative appropriation to the Michigan Higher Education Facilities Commission making matching funds available for construction purposes.

Under such a plan, college facilities used for secular instruction could be financed through state and federal funds on both state supported and private college campuses. A bill to that effect was introduced by Senator Joseph S. Mack, and is expected to reach a vote during the 1966 legislative session.

The passing of a bill of this kind would lessen the gap which exists in tuition costs of state and private colleges. It would also allow maximum freedom of choice to students in selecting their college. Filling private colleges would lessen the enrollment load of public institutions.

Richard D. Kuhn, Pontiac Republican, announced today his candidacy for the office of United States Congress from the 19th District. Kuhn is a practicing attorney and businessman in Pontiac; he is a graduate of Michigan State University with a degree in Political Science, and the Detroit College of Law with an LL.B. degree.

Kuhn was the Republican nominee for Congress from the 19th District in 1964, and represented Oakland County's 1st Legislative District at the Constitutional Convention. He served on the Education Committee, the Committee on Legislative Powers and was chairman of the subcommittee on the legislature.

Kuhn said, "This nation is in economic chaos, mainly because of the ever-increasing socialistic pressures, which have been so detrimental to our finances." The "Great Society" is just a lot of "hog-wash". The "War on Poverty" is nothing more than a way of buying political votes. Kuhn stressed that he would fight to restore the free enterprise system which has made this country so great. He said, "The main issues of the campaign would be the War in Viet Nam and racing socialism in America."

Kuhn promises a vigorous campaign based on the issues and record of Mr. Farnum. Kuhn, age 36, is married and has three children and lives at 205 Gateway Drive, Waterford Township.

Piggins Wraps Up Grand Jury

Grand Juror Edward S. Piggins is expected to conclude his investigation and make recommendations today (Wednesday) on charges of ticket-fixing practices by Wayne County Sheriff deputies in Nankin Township.

So far the only recommendations released by Judge Piggins are the removal petitions against Nankin Justices Michael Bradley and George Perry.

Bradley was scheduled to appear in Oakland County Circuit Court Monday to answer charges made in Piggins' removal petition, but the hearing was postponed for a week.

Although Piggins has not made any formal statements since the removal petitions, he is expected to issue six indictments.

The only other action taken by Piggins was to cite a witness for contempt.

Piggins was appointed by Gov. George Romney to conduct a grand jury investigation following a disclosure by five patrolmen of tickets being fixed for money.

At first charges were denied but after further investigation Chief Road Patrol Inspector Dan Martin and Road Patrol Sgt. Paul Paciorek were suspended.

Hundreds of fixed tickets were delivered to Piggins by Paciorek, many of which contained the signatures of Paciorek and Martin.

Sheriff Peter Buback has denied knowing anything about ticket-fixing practices in his department.

Dalmatians in Spotlight at Livonia Mall

Those fire buffs with the black spots and wet noses take over the indoor mall of Livonia Mall Shopping Center on Saturday, Jan. 22.

The occasion will be a Show and Obedience Trial staged by members of the Dalmatian Club.

Some 30 Dalmatians, once the favored mascot of America's old-fashioned fire engine companies, will be taking part in the show from 1 to 5 p.m., near the theater section of the climate-controlled shopping center, which is located at Middlebelt and Seven Mile Road.

"This is an unusual and very interesting event. In fact, it's the first of its kind ever staged in the Livonia Mall, and we hope dog fanciers from all areas will come see these unique canines perform," remarked Jerry Silberman, president of the Livonia Mall Merchants' Association.

Ladies — if you can make toast, you can make wonderful movies!

May sound a little silly, but it's the truth. How do you make toast? You drop in the bread, plug the toaster in, and that's all. How do you make movies today? You drop a KODAK Movie Cartridge into a new KODAK INSTAMATIC Movie Camera, press the button, and you're making movies!

Once the camera's loaded, you're always ready for any action that comes along, because battery power drives the film. You never have to stop and wind. Or stop to flip the film over at the halfway point. You can shoot the full 50 feet—non-stop if you wish.

And wait till you see the results. They're the best home movies you've ever put on a screen. Brighter, sharper, more colorful. That's because the new Super 8 film format gives you 50% bigger images on the film. And, of course, bigger images on the film mean better movies on your screen.

Come see us soon. We have three new KODAK INSTAMATIC Movie Cameras to show you. All beauties. And starting from as little as $46.50. Choose any one of them—suddenly you're a movie-maker.

Mother Mary Alexander, CSSF Receives New Appointment From Felician Sisters

Mother Mary Alexander, CSSF, has been appointed as the provincial superior of the Michigan-Ohio-Indiana province of the Felician Sisters for a period of six years.

The announcement of the new provincial council of the Felicians was made on Jan. 16 by Mother Alexander, general superior, who had arrived from Rome for that purpose.

Other council members who will make up the governing body of the Felicians of the Livonia province are: Sister Mary Dominic, Sister Mary Theresilla, Sister Mary Hugolina, and Sister Mary Angelis. They will be responsible for the policy making, the appointments, the spiritual and material welfare of the entire province which will number nearly 700 sisters.

At the Jan. 16 meeting, the general superior also announced the formation of a new vice-province which will serve the Saginaw, Grand Rapids, and Marquette diocese. The vice provincial of the new group is Mother Mary Assumpta, CSSF. She will be aided in her task by Sister Mary Bonifilia and Sister Mary Amadeus.

The home for the vice-province will be located in Bay County on Delta Rr. and near Delta college in the Bay City-Midland-Saginaw area. The reason for the creation of the new province is that the Livonia group of Felician sisters has grown to a size makes it unwieldy to provide the kind of administration the sisters need.

His Excellency, Bishop S. Woznicki and the Saginaw diocese Consultors voted the Felician Sisters a grant of $35,000 to meet the down payment on a parcel of land for the new province.

MRS. AND MR. HARRY MENSCH beam happily like the newlyweds they are. Mrs. Mensch became a bride a few hours after bringing released from St. Mary Hospital.

Wedding Bells Ring Out For Senior Citizens

The idea that Senior Citizens sit around and reminisce, or otherwise engage in sedentary pursuits has long been dissipated. They bowl, golf, travel, and do loads of interesting and active things.

Recently, two couples in the Pioneer Group of the Senior Citizens Group of Livonia have proved that romance is still very much a part of life.

In October of this year, William Henderson took a former friend, Betty, for his bride. They had met for the first time in 1918, then Mrs. Henderson went to live in Scotland. She came to the states to visit for a year, and they renewed acquaintance.

Then she returned to Scotland, but not for long. They were married in Riverview Church and then took up residence at 15068 Arden. They both love to fish, swim, and visit with friends. They have no time for hobbies, they explained laughingly, they are too busy.

Harry Mensch had known Marie Flynn for about 18 years. They had planned to be married, then Marie had a siege in St. Mary Hospital. They decided not to postpone the wedding, were married the day she got out! A honeymoon in Naples, Fla. followed during which they both enjoyed fishing. They are now in residence at 11202 Wayne Rd., Livonia.

Set Plans for Mothers' March In Plymouth

More than 200 Plymouth Community mothers will join some 22,000 in Wayne County for the Mothers' March of Dimes on Feb. 1.

That was the announcement of Plymouth Mothers' March Chairman, Mrs. Roger Corey, after attending a reception and tea for Actress Jane Wyatt in downtown Detroit with more than 800 Wayne County March of Dimes leaders.

Mrs. Corey was accompanied by her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Witwer, co-chairmen of the Plymouth Community campaign.

Other area workers attending the affair were: Mrs. L. E. Curak, Mrs. Ronald Wood, Mrs. E. R. McClure, Mrs. Jerry Baker and Mrs. James Canady.

The Plymouth group has a goal of more than $3,000 for the Mothers' March and hopes to raise more than $4,000 during the month long March of Dimes campaign.

Ice Capades Opens March 1

The all-new Ice Capades of 1966 is on its way to Detroit, opening a 13-day engagement at Olympia Stadium on March 1.

Renowned for costuming, choreography and stars, the Ice Capades surpasses itself with its production numbers.

The show opens with a night in Old Vienna at the "Waltz Rouge," featuring Peter Voss and Janet Runn. There's a whimsical visit to "Alice in Wonderland," with the March Hare, Tweedledum and Tweedledee, Cheshire Cat and the Deck of Cards. Alice is portrayed by the Swedish champion, Ann-Margaret Frei.

Rounding out the first act is "Hohoholo Moku-puni" (all around the islands). Soloists are two-time world champion Aja Zanova, Japanese champion Sashi Kuchiki and Romayne and Steele.

The entire second act pays tribute to the fabulous "World of Entertainment," with segments devoted to the Broadway stage, television, motion pictures, opera, the ballet and the circus.

In the cast are Tommy Litz, Lynn Finnegan, Hans Letter, Joe Jackson, Jr., and his fall-apart bicycle, comedy artists LaBreeque and Bussey and Spanky the Chimp with trainer Dave Pitts.

Othello Comes to Aria

The program offers ski instruction and an opportunity to ski for three hours on the slopes of Mount Holly once a week for five weeks. Adults within the family are encouraged to participate and act as sponsors at no cost to them.

Three ski clubs are being formed for boys and girls 10 to 18 years of age. The clubs will begin operating as soon as there is sufficient snow on the slopes. The clubs meet on Wednesday and Friday from 4:15 to 9:15 p.m. and on Saturday from 7:30 a.m. to noon.

A registration fee of $2.50 for Y members and $7.50 for non-Y members will enroll them in this special program and reserve them a place in the club. A total of 40 persons per club will be taken. Participants may also expect to pay an additional fee which will include transportation to Mount Holly and area tow. Equipment can be rented for nominal fee if the participant does not have his own.

Madonna Slates Teaching Course In Doctrines Beginning Feb. 1

Madonna College is offering a course in Methods of Teaching Confraternity Classes of Christian Doctrine. It will begin Tuesday, Feb. 1, from 7:15 to 8:15 p.m. and will continue once a week for a period of nine weeks.

Registration will be taken at the first class meeting. No college credit will be given and there is no charge for the instructions.

Many students and lay people are asked by the parish priest or the church board to give instructions to young children in Christian Doctrine. They are familiar with the content they are to teach, but without a background of the how to present this material to different age groups, the job of teaching may become a chore.

Plymouth Chapter Holds Teen Night At State Home

The service group of the Beta Sigma Phi under the chairmanship of Jayna Eckler and Margie Thrasher held another of its successful teen parties on Thursday evening at the State Home.

"The Disciples" rendered their swing music and the young people at the State Home proved their rhythm could match that of any teenager.

Looking forward to the event for a week ahead of time, the enthusiastic group was filled with excitement on the arrival of the women's service club who came prepared with an abundance of food, soft drinks. Some of the husbands of the group joined the young people dancing.

President Betty Lamphear was in attendance. Other members attending were Ellen Murdock, Kay Arnold, Irene Szczodrowski, Sandy Lemmon, Gerry Mogridge, Betty Colden, and Barb Bobier. Teen agers getting in the swing and helping were Gail Wilcox, Janice and Jennifer Jones, Alice Wellman, Cheryl and Patty Harris, Chris Bonsel, Debbie Chaney, Cathy Hicks, Marsha Unger, John Bowden and Claude Colden. Husbands Al Murdock and Ted Thrasher also lent assistance.

Experience is a thing that keeps right on going up in price.

More and More Kids Cause Schools to Bulge

Unusual growth in the number of students pouring into Livonia's public schools each year has caused school officials to start reaching for their aspirin bottles as they wonder how to pay for increased education costs.

Enrollments have risen by about 3,000 students a year for the past three years and are expected to continue at the same rate for the next three years.

School Supt. Benton Yates advised recently that the number of students attending classes in the fall of 1963 was 24,935, in 1964 it was 27,760 and this fall his staff has counted 30,200 heads.

Looking into his crystal ball and other methods of forecasting Yates has come up with a projection showing a student body of 33,360 next fall, 36,200 the following year (1967) and starting the autumn of 1968 a grand total of 39,425.

Injecting education into this burgeoning younger set from Livonia City and north Nankin Township will require quite a bundle of cash.

In an attempt to come to grips with the problem, school board members started to sharpen their pencils last month to make sure their budget would cover their costs.

Yates had this to say in a written report to the board: "It appears from the careful study and recommendations of our staff committees that, additional mills will be necessary to finance the on-going program including necessary changes."

Congressman Reports

Vivian Tells of Education Act

By Congressman Wes Vivian

In the eight weeks that I have spent in Michigan since the end of the First Session of Congress, I have found a great deal of interest among the many constituents with whom I have talked, in the provisions of the Higher Education Act. For this reason, I should like to discuss this new law with you in this column.

Briefly, these are the provisions of Public Law 89-329, the Higher Education Act of 1965:

Title I: Authorizes Federal matching grants to the states to provide community service programs dealing primarily with urban and suburban problems, to be offered through public and non-profit colleges and universities. This is a program which parallels the various agriculture extension services now provided for rural areas.

Title II: Provides funds for the improvement of library services of colleges and universities. Includes funds for training of librarians, and encourages regional development of library systems.

Title III: Provides funds to raise the academic quality of smaller, "developing" institutions. Funds for two-year, and B.A.-granting institutions. Funds for "national teaching fellowships" to graduate students and junior faculty members who, at the request of a developing institution, would teach there for up to two years.

Title IV: Student Assistance. Authorizes Federal "educational opportunity grants" to institutions of higher education, for students in great financial need. Each scholarship not to exceed either $800 or half the amount of assistance provided the student by the college or by a state or private scholarship program, not including income from work-study programs. Michigan's share of the Title IV funds is proportionate to its share of students, nationally, who are attending college. The program is to be administered by the individual college or university.

It also strengthens and enlarges the student loan program, and makes provisions for subsidizing the interest cost of loans, while students are still in school.

Title V: Authorizes a National Teacher Corps. (The Congress failed, however to provide funds to operate the Corps. Action to correct this deficiency is expected to be considered in 1966.) Teacher Corps would provide experienced teachers and teacher-interns, upon request of local school districts, to teach at schools with concentrations of children from low-income families. Funds, when allocated, will be apportioned to states in proportion to the relative number of children from low-income families. Teachers would be under control of the local boards, who would assign them, and determine what they should teach, and whether their employment should be continued. It also authorizes special teacher fellowships, for studies leading to advanced degrees other than Ph.D.

Other titles of the Act provide for Federal assistance in the form of grants, to improve teaching facilities of institutions of higher education; additional grants for college buildings; and a reduction in the maximum interest rate for loans for construction of academic facilities to three per cent.

As with a number of Acts passed by the 89th Congress, this year, the Higher Education Act is "landmark legislation." It breaks entirely new ground, in providing Federal scholarships for colleges to provide assistance to students from especially needy families. Such "landmark legislation" bears with it the responsibility for close and continuing review of the new programs.

I believe that with the passage of the Higher Education Act of 1965, the people of the United States have at last begun to take seriously our commitment to the principal that no one who is qualified ought to be prevented from receiving the education which he or she may beneficially use, because of limited personal financial resources. The benefits of continuing education, both to the individual and to our whole society, are too great to allow them to be lost to individuals who cannot afford them.

VFW Auxiliary Elects Two New Officers

Mayflower Post 6695, Auxiliary of the VFW, elected two new officers to fill vacancies created by recent resignations. Ann Smith was named senior vice president, replacing Norma Fletcher, and Shirley Kubik took over as junior vice president in place of Dolores Olsaver.

Members viewed a film on cancer at the January meeting from the Jackson Memorial Laboratory in Bar Harbor, Maine on the subject of "Cancer Aid and Research."

The Plymouth cancer center is in need of plastic material. Any Auxiliary member with cleaning bags is asked to take them to the center or call Marian Skoglund, 427-9491.

The Auxiliary extends get well wishes to Alice Bushey, Bernice Kopenski and Lou Archer and belated wishes to Rosemary Lyke, Barbara Nash, Joe Wilhelm and John Dunlap.

DL1694 Is Lucky License For R. Liska

Robert Liska, of Pontiac, was the first beneficiary of Wonderland's "free license plates" promotion. Liska purchased license plate number DL 1694 and promptly received $10.10 as full refund of his license fee.

Presenting the rebate was Lou Segel, treasurer, and Nate Trixax, president of the Wonderland Merchants' Council. A free set of plates is awarded every Tuesday at the center's temporary auto license office, located in the civic room at Wonderland.

Livonia Man Is Promoted

Rex D. Ettinger, manager of the home improvement loan department at Wayne Federal Savings and Loan Association, was promoted this past week to assistant vice president, according to A.G. Marriott, Jr., association president.

Ettinger lives at 28854 Richland, Livonia. He attended both Wayne State University and the University of Detroit.

He is treasurer of the Wayne Junior Chamber of Commerce, and is a member of the Kiwanis Club of Wayne.

CHECKING THE FIRST copy of their new "Nankin Teen Express"—an offset newspaper—are publishers Ken Bjornak, 14, left, and Jim Kerr, 13. The two hope to provide a "voice" for teenagers in Nankin Township.

Easter Seal Society Needs Volunteers to Address Envelopes

The Easter Seal Society of Western Wayne County is ready to welcome any number of volunteers interested in addressing envelopes for the 1966 Easter Seal Appeal which runs from March 1 - April 10.

Mrs. Jane Devereaux, Executive Secretary, points out that the preparation of the mail appeal offers opportunities for many clerical volunteer workers.

"Persons interested in either typing or hand-addressing are needed," she said. "Some people welcome the opportunity to come to the Center to work with other volunteers, and at the same time to see a part of the service program in operation. Others who cannot be away from their homes for a day or half a day prefer to pick up the material at the Center and work at home."

The local appeal finances year-round classes and clubs for crippled children, teenagers and adults; information and referral services to help individuals to find and to use effective special services which exist in the community; an equipment loan closet and as-

'Wholesale' Means Item To Be Resold

(This is a public service article explaining in general terms a provision of Michigan law. Individuals who wish to determine the effect of any law upon their private legal affairs should consult a private attorney.)

How many times have you found various merchants using the word "wholesale" in their advertising? More often than not, it is probably being used correctly.

Unfortunately, however, the word "wholesale" has been subjected to abuse by a few unethical merchants.

Michigan's legislature in a 1941 act found improper and misleading the use of the word "wholesale" when used to indicate that a seller of a product is something other than a retailer of such product.

The legislature gave the following reasons for this conclusion:

"Consumers are misled into believing they are buying goods at a substantial discount from regular retail prices, when in fact they are not; trade is diverted from established retail outlets offering various customer services (such as free deliveries, exchange privileges, and credit facilities) . . . to establishments not offering equal services but selling at substantially the same price, to the detriment of the consumer, who is deprived of the benefit of such services without receiving compensating advantages . . ."

The Michigan statute makes it an unlawful trade practice for any seller to claim he sells at wholesale unless the sale is made to purchase for resale and is not subject to the provisions of the sales tax law.

Therefore, the two elements of a "wholesale" transaction are, (1) the buyer will resell the product and (2) no sales tax need be paid on the transaction.

Furthermore, the statute prohibits any form of advertising (catalogs, exhibits, price tags, etc.) "quoting prices in excess of the prices at which such goods, wares, or merchandise are regularly or customarily sold at retail . . . so as to imply falsely that the goods, wares or merchandise are offered for sale at a reduction from an indicated regular price."

As the wise consumer knows, you do not get something for nothing, and this includes so-called "wholesale" or "bargain prices."

By price checking the same merchandise with reputable merchants you may find that the "retail" price is the least expensive in the long run.

Computers Will Automate Study at U-M by 1975

ANN ARBOR—The year 1975 may see better than a thousand automated study carrels (booths) in the libraries and classroom buildings of The University of Michigan, according to Stanford C. Erickson, director of the Center for Research in Learning and Teaching.

"We are now developing the prototype of automated study carrels at the Center," says Erickson.

The chief new equipment will be something like an electric typewriter, linked to a computer storage and retrieval system, says Erickson. Computer technology already exists to search for bibliographic references.

Special equipment is becoming available that will enable the student to receive photostatic copies of particular pages of articles and books that have been prepared for computer presentation.

"It should be emphasized that in these carrels the student can do everything he now does—read a book, write a paper, or daydream," says Erickson.

The student will use the computer as a master teaching machine and will be able to study whatever subject matter the teacher has entered into this complex and versatile system.

In addition to the typewriter, the student can use a tape recorder for earphone presentations, readings of musical compositions, readings of poetry and recordings of lectures. The tape recorder can also carry the instructor's commentary synchronized with a slide or filmstrip projector.

The automated carrels will probably include some variation of the 8 mm movie projector and viewer.

"These new devices are cartridge loaded (no film threading) and allow the student considerable flexibility in his study of the filmed material," Erickson says.

"Furthermore, and this is particularly important, the student retains control. That is, he can stop, reverse or skip ahead in calling up the taped or filmed information according to his own informational needs and ability to learn."

To gain the "hardware" is not enough, he warns. The experienced teacher must take the time to transpose information from books, journals, lecture notes, and research reports into a form appropriate for self-sufficient study by the individual.

Erickson emphasized that faculty participation would seem to be the best guarantee to deter the misplaced use of automation.

"Some teachers object to automation and the impersonality it appears, at first glance, to bring to education," he notes. "The Center will, however, continue to encourage the greater use of technological aids for instruction in the firm belief that their proper use is an excellent means of supporting long-range improvements in college teaching, including closer relations between student and teacher."

Plymouth Township Waives Tax Penalty

Approving a request of Township Clerk Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, the Plymouth Township Board passed a resolution waiving the penalty of four per cent on taxes paid between Feb. 15 and March 1.

The Township has a right to collect the penalty until March 1 when the tax duplicates are turned over to the Wayne County Treasurer for collection.

The resolution gives Township residents until March 1 to pay taxes without penalty. Then payments will have to be made in the City-County building with the penalty attached.

In other actions, the Board: Gave final approval to the hardback plats of Beacon Hill subdivision on recommendation of Township Engineer Herald Hamill.

Authorized Hamill to draw plans, secure permit and necessary right of way for a proposed sewer line on Haggerty Road from Ann Arbor to Joy Road. Hamill estimated the cost at $68,783.

Approved the Township swimming pool ordinance.

Tabled plans for sewer construction on Schoolcraft Road for additional study.

Approved repairs on the Fire Department tanker at a cost of $2,629.

Approved extension of time until March 1 to Don Gargaro Co. on the sewer line along North Territorial Road on recommendation of Hamill.

Tabled a request from the Western Wayne County Conservation Club for transfer of its club liquor permit from 35501 Joy Road in Nankin Township to 6700 Napier Road.

Approved a recommendation of Hamill to accept sewers in Arbor Village No. 4 for tapping purposes after minor corrections are made by the developer.

Legion Post To Host AAUW Group

American Legion Passage Gayde Post and Auxiliary 391 will host members of the American Association of University Women Saturday in the 1966 resumption of the "Why Are We" programs.

The affair opens with a buffet dinner at 8:30 in the Legion Home on N. Sheldon Road and follows with the program at 7:30 p.m. Unit President Mae Hoelscher announced that Plymouth had won an award for being the first in the 17th District to reach its membership quota. The Redford-Detroit Unit was second.

The Auxiliary Unit will meet Wednesday (tonight) at 8 p.m. with a session of the executive committee slated for 7 p.m. by President Mae Hoelscher.

The Auxiliary plans to join in a movement to recruit nurses according to Mrs. Melva Gardner, chairman of the Education and Scholarship committee. Members of the Auxiliary plan to start a campaign to (1) encourage young men and women to consider nursing as a profession and to circulate and inform prospects of the scholarships and aid available to them; (2) assist in improving salaries and fringe benefits; (3) encourage non-active registered nurses to return to work even on a part-time basis; (4) encourage qualified registered nurses to consider a two-year tour of duty in the military services and to investigate the Military Nurses Corps to determine where they can best serve those who are serving our country.

Elks Club Manager Dies At 39

Stricken with an apparent heart attack while sitting with friends during the Saturday night dance at the Plymouth Elks Club, on Ann Arbor Road, Robert Bingley, 39, club manager, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia.

Bingley, who resides at 120 W. Cady in Northville, had just sat down at the table when he suddenly slumped to the floor. An unidentified Nankin fireman rushed over to try mouth to mouth resuscitation while an emergency call was sent to the nearby Plymouth Township fire department.

The Township firefighters arrived within minutes with oxygen and other equipment and kept it on the stricken man all the way to the Livonia hospital. However, doctors examined him as soon as the rescue truck arrived and quickly pronounced him dead on arrival.

He had served as club manager for the past year. Bingley was a member of Plymouth Elks Lodge 1780 and of Knights of Pythias Lodge 238 of Plymouth. He was born in Plymouth, Dec. 19, 1926 and resided there until 1949 when he moved to Northville.

Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Jean Bingley; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bingley of Burlington, Mich.; three sons, Robert of Detroit; Ricky of Northville and Charles Harrison of Plymouth; and one brother, William of Northville.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday in the Schrader Funeral Home in charge of Rev. Henry Walch with burial in Woodmere Cemetery in Detroit. The Elks Lodge held its sorrow service Tuesday evening.

Services were conducted in the Schrader Funeral Home in charge of Rev. Henry Walch with burial in the Reading, Mich. cemetery.

Miss Butts had taught in Plymouth since 1948, coming here from Hillsdale College where she was Dean of Women. She had been a teacher and counselor for 33 years with experience in Northville, Lansing and Plymouth. She was a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and received a Master's degree from the University of Michigan.

She was a member of the Plymouth, Michigan and National Education Associations. Surviving are: a sister, Mrs. Hubertena Brophy of Brampton, Ontario; two brothers, Mac of Detroit and Stewart of Ann Arbor and three nephews.

DPW News And Notes

By JOSEPH BIDA, SUPT. During the past week the department finished work on the broken eight inch sanitary sewer, that was blocked, on N. Harvey Street between Blanche and Farmer Streets. There were three funerals at the Riverside Cemetery. The removal of yule decorations has been completed and everything has been stored for another year. Grading was done around the Public Works Department Yard in preparation for a new fence to be placed around City Property at the North end of Arthur Street. Goldsmith Street from Arthur to Lena Streets will be closed off, per instructions from the City Commission. A broken 10-inch water main at Northville Road, back of the Cass Benton Comfort Station, was repaired and a 10" gate

City Firemen Get Two Calls

City of Plymouth firemen handled two minor blazes last week according to a report from Chief George Schoenneman.

A heater in a construction trailer caused minor damage to equipment owned by the D. D. Davis Construction Co., of Youngstown, O., which is handling the work on the new addition to Packaging Corporation on N. Sheldon. The report shows the pipe cracked near the ceiling causing a fire that did damage to the walls. Fire of an undetermined nature in the garage of the James Winterhalter home, 1400 Ross, caused slight damage. The report shows the blaze started in a cardboard box containing combustible materials. It was almost extinguished by Winterhalter by the time the department arrived.

I might add that some of the work in Public Works is behind due to the fact that we are very short of employees. There are only six men in the department at the present time and we are short five men. So as soon as we can hire some men things will be straightened out. We thank the public for their cooperation in the past.

Study Shows Community College Hope for Jobless Grads.

ANN ARBOR—The frustration of being denied admission to college and at the same time being ill-prepared to enter the world of work is one which thousands of "middle level" high school graduates are experiencing today," says Norman C. Harris, University of Michigan professor of technical education.

"In many states these youth have no resources but to remain unemployed, join the armed forces, or gradually infiltrate the labor force through part-time, pick-up jobs," says Harris.

He points out that in many Michigan communities, however, such youth have a much more acceptable alternative—further education at the local community college.

"Some of this 'middle group' may eventually move on to a four-year college and a baccalaureate degree. But most of them are best suited to community college occupational education programs.

"Tuition is low at Michigan's community college, most high school graduates are acceptable for entrance, and community colleges are rapidly increasing in numbers so that soon the youth of most areas of the state will have ready access to post-high school occupational education," Harris says.

He cites three troublesome factors in this otherwise favorable picture:

- 1) Most of these youth have little if any real understanding of the career opportunities available to them in the semi-professional and technical occupations;
- 2) Most of these youth are not adequately prepared to enroll in and succeed with college-level technical studies;
- 3) Many youth (perhaps a third of the graduates of Michigan high schools each year) even though they complete a college-prep curriculum with a C average or less, still think of themselves as baccalaureate degree aspirants. With their parents as willing accomplices, they insist on enrolling in university-parallel curriculum in community colleges even when all the facts (high school grades, standardized test scores) indicate that an associate degree objective would be a far wiser choice.

Harris points out that sociological pressures—lack of interest in non-professional jobs and with technological developments. thus trapped in the middle of a 'squeeze play' between these two contending forces," he says. The escape from the trap will involve two major moves:

1. Widespread dissemination of information about middle manpower job opportunities—
2. Re-structuring of the high school courses and counseling service so that it becomes possible for the student to see that there are other concepts of community college education and training than the traditional baccalaureate degree program.

State Police Add Architect To Fire Staff

The State Police fire marshal division at East Lansing headquarters has added a civilian architectural engineer to its staff to help cope with the volume of work related to fire safety in school construction, Det. Capt. Glenroy M. Walker, chief of the division reported.

The new division employee is Henry G. Becker, 44, of Lansing. He was graduated from the University of Detroit in 1948 and his college training included a year at Michigan State University. He is a Navy veteran of World War II.

Capt. Walker said Becker's position is one of two made necessary by 1962 legislation which requires the fire marshal division to review and process plans and specifications for fire safety in schools.

The second position is expected to be filled when a roster of eligible candidates is completed by the State Civil Service.

Other than clerical personnel, Becker is the first civilian to be employed by the State Police in fire marshal division work since the division was transferred from the State Insurance Department in 1939.

The other licenses have been granted in Indiana, Maine, Alabama, Minnesota, and Louisiana since last November.

Applications for licensing are now pending in 24 additional states, Owens said, as part of the company's scheduled expansion program.

Library Says Thanks

Gentlemen: The Board of Trustees of the Farmington District Library is happy to make public acknowledgement of the many fine gifts which were made to our library during the past year. These gifts are deeply appreciated not only by the members of the Board but by the entire community of Farmington which benefits from the thoughtfulness of these civic-minded individuals and organizations. The donors of these gifts usually request that the funds be used for the purchase of books—and new books and publications are constantly needed to keep our collections up-to-date. Among the local organizations in this group of contributors are the Farmington

Branch, American Association of University Women; Town Club; Women of Kendallwood Farms; Farmington Jaycees Auxiliary; Alta Loma Home-owners Association; Quaker-town Questers, and the fine gift of $958.86 received from the Farmington Valley Saddle Club. Many substantial memorial gifts have also been received from individuals in the community. The Trustees also wish to acknowledge with deep appreciation, the continued contribution of a monthly floral arrangement for the library by the Farmington Garden Club, and the interest and support of Farmington Friends of the Library. MARY F. ALLISON Secretary Board of Trustees

Northville Hospital Expresses Thanks

Editor: As we enter the New Year, we should like that you share with your readers our kindest appreciation for their thoughtfulness during the recent Christmas Season. Your readers' responses to our appeal letter, in behalf of our forgotten patients, were generous and most helpful. Clubs and groups which regularly sponsor parties on the wards of our hospital planned extras in treats and programs which added greatly to the Season's meaning. And carolers and special hospital-wide programs told all of us that Christmas is Christendom's season of sharing. LOUIS J. SCOTT Northville State Hospital here, like so many others do, and promise myself it will never happen to you or your children when you grow up. Thank you very much Brian McCarthy. Cpl. Chuck P.S. I'm from Marquette, Mich., Brian. MRS. JACK MCCARTHY Livonia

Critical of Hospital

Editor: I am not a member of St. Michael's Church, but if possible would like to become a member of their Christian Family Movement. If I had expressed their beliefs myself I could not have done so more eloquently and at the same time more simply and sincerely. So at least in spirit add my name to the list of these true Christian Americans. Likewise bravo to Myra Chandler for her answer to Mrs. Palmer, but only up to her defense of St. Mary Hospital. I'm afraid it is Mrs. Chandler who is misinforming. If St. Mary is known as the "slaughter house" it is because it has been well earned. If you will check confidentially with the Livonia Fire Department Rescue Squad who they recommend Redford for emergency services. May I add to Mrs. Palmer's charge that they do not receive suicides and alcoholics that they have been known to refuse to treat minors not accompanied by their parents. One incident I witnessed myself of a young man accompanied by his 21 year old brother, who was suffering from a severe and painful cut standing there bleeding while the clerk was trying to locate their mother who was working and having difficulty doing so. All the while this young man's brother was protesting and offering to accept any responsibility they might feel was necessary. I do not know if the mother was finally reached or if this young man received treatment. Another incident I have personal knowledge of was of a small child accompanied by his grandmother who they told could only be examined if the mother or father were present. So they were turned away. Let us hear St. Mary Hospital in defense of their emergency room policies. May I also remind Mrs. Chandler and St. Mary that there is a vast difference between an inadequate staff and an unqualified and indifferent one. VIVIAN M. LAZAR, Livonia

Soldier Replies

Editor: My nine-year old son Brian received the following letter in response to Christmas cards sent to service men in Vietnam by Larry Miller's fourth grade class at Hull school. Hi Brian: Do you remember that Christmas card you made for a soldier in Vietnam? I hope you don't mind that it came to a marine. I would like to thank you very much. You made my Christmas a lot brighter. We were on an observation post for Christmas, but we cut down a tree and decorated it. We didn't have a star or an angel for the top, but we did have your card. We cut snowflakes out of white paper, just like you did in school. We used the tin candy wrappers from our C-rations for tinsel. We also had some red, green and gold flares were used for bulbs. Yes, Brian, we are all hoping just like our fathers did that you young boys will never have to be away from home like we are now. But it's worth it Brian. Boys and girls like you, all your mothers and fathers make it so. I look at the boys and girls your doorstep, let them in? I think not. You know what you would do. Join the armed service of your country. Then come back and tell us that you were glad you could help those faraway countries. Because by helping them, you helped us keep our land of the "Free and the home of the Brave." And those that don't come back have already protected us that were left. Remember, they have gone to a greater glory than we could ever receive here on this earth. So you fellows that are tearing up your draft cards and molesting women, for nothing better to do, get in the Military Service of your Country. Go fighting as one of the good guys, not the bad ones. Because it seems that each generation has to protect the next generation coming up. And the bad always has to come first before the good takes over and wins, always. And I don't mean cowboys and indians. —Just a Mom

In Kimberly's Defense

Editor: Will you please allow me equal space in your newspaper to defend and uphold the integrity and honor of "Kimberly Oaks residents?" You were very, very unfair, in my opinion in giving one side of the story, regarding the re-zoning of a parcel of land, from residential to commercial. Apparently, your version of the story came from someone in attendance at the Dec. 13 Council hearing regarding this change. This is a perfect example of the press reporting what they want to report... not the facts. This is how women conduct small talk over the back yard fences—this is how men tell their "hero" stories in a bar. But when you give out for public consumption honestly—Myra—we've got to change our method of operation! You stated that the City Planning Commission made a four month study on the question of re-zoning this parcel. Also Myra, the Council Chairman went out of his way to thank the gathering (one of the largest) and to especially commend them for their good behavior! But of course, he might be playing politics when he displays common decency and courtesy! JOHN HATIKA, Kimberly Oaks Resident Livonia

Ed: Note: "That a certain owner wanted to make a 'killing' on his property by having it re-zoned to commercial from residential because, although handsome profit by selling it for residential purposes"—let me clarify this statement—the owner of the property is a widow, without employment or other income—she has received a meager income from her property and is not a promoter in any sense of the word—also the four-months planning commission study showed the property would not lend itself to residential homes of the calibre matching the surrounding area. The decision by the planning commission to vote C-2 instead of R-1 was based strictly on what is good for the city."

public transportation is convenient, practical, and economical, and also necessary. I am now a resident of Livonia and I speak as a college student. Public transportation is necessary. Sometimes I find it necessary to run an errand, to attend some cultural event outside the campus, or I just want to enjoy a few hours of shopping and observing. This is impossible and frustrating without any means of getting about. It is also an inconvenience on others to depend on them. Please help us in bringing this problem to the attention of the public, especially the city council. By doing so, you will be aiding not only the college students but other adults of the Livonia area. PAMELA WOJTASZEK Madonna College

Observing the Scene...

By MYRA CHANDLER

Monday the voters of Livonia spoke loud and clear to the school administration and board members. They overwhelmingly turned down the nine mills for operating 9,943 to 2,887 and the bond issue to build a fourth high school 8,302 to 4,453. A mandate of the taxpayers: "No more schools and tighten up the system."

South Redford faced three such defeats before they received approval of their millage. Many economies were instituted before enough parents became aroused and voted the necessary money for the district.

Because this vote was so clear it would seem people are more orientated to installment plan living as opposed to saving and then buying. Perhaps the Livonia school administrators and board members should not project three years on their operating millage and just ask for an increase to see them through the next year and make their payments as needed instead of the sinking fund method.

It is my hope and prayer Livonia citizens will not raise a hue and cry when city planners present new ideas, new industries and businesses for the City. That they will realize since they don't want the burden of paying for schools by themselves, they must accept the help of industry; must encourage these large tax bases as neighbors rather than fight them.

Approval of parks is another way to hold down extensive building, which bring more children, which need more schools. This issue will again be on the ballot in Livonia April 4.

To be analytical (not bitter, whose bitter?) City planning is one of the most important functions of a City.

Livonia has the best City Planner in Don Hull in seven states and a staff to match. He has some plans that could make Livonia one of the most attractive and not expensive places in Michigan to live. Citizens of Livonia must cooperate. He can't do it alone. He needs statesmen-like City Councilmen, and interested, imaginative citizens.

Redford Township had a good planner 14 years ago. He made a Master Plan for the City — I remember because I served on a citizens' committee that had the opportunity to see some of his work. It was beautiful — you could see for yourself if you would care to poke around it in the Town Hall basement where it was stashed.

If you travel through Redford Township you can see none of his plan was implemented because the township government at that time had more expedient politicians than dedicated public servants; interested more in themselves than their community. Their names and faces have long since faded but their lack of vision is there for all to see. Yes, it's too late to do much with Five Mile and Beech in Redford Township.

But Livonia, Plymouth, Farmington and Nankin Township have beautiful land needed for city planning and good government to implement it.

Ironically enough the real beauty spots and areas Redford Township may point to with pride are their schools. Thurston High in South Redford and Redford Union High and their fine junior high schools in both districts.

Redford Township has some beautiful church buildings, too, supported by some attractive subdivisions where it is obvious there are active civic associations.

But when you've said that, there is not much more to be said. The business district has very little to offer, no off-street parking program, inadequate park and recreational facilities, no civic center. There is one lovely library and citizens have been working for 10 years on another — everything has come a little short and a little late — and all because in the planning stage there weren't enough who cared about the community's future generations.

Willing LCBHR Ready To Serve

Editor: I would like to comment on the statement Mayor Harvey W. Moelke made to the press and was printed in the Detroit News dated Thursday, Jan. 13, 1966, Section 3 as follows: "The only applicants we have had so far are members of the Livonia Commission for Better Human Relations (LCBHR)." "I have nothing against them but I think the Human Relations Commission membership should be made up of people with middle-of-the-road views." "The members of the LCBHR have their own viewpoint on human relations."

I want to make sure the membership of the commission is unbiased and objective."

Mr. Mayor, if you were to select a commission to deal with the problem of the blind, I am sure it would be natural for you to look to the Lion's Club for competent, concerned and informed people.

Mr. Mayor, when a citizen has concern for a community problem and joins with others to seek solutions, does he or she become a biased and prejudiced person.

LLOYD HUGHES, LIVONIA.

In Appreciation

Editor: I would like to take this opportunity to thank you, on behalf of the Nankin Firefighters Association, for the manner in which your publication has helped to make our community an informed community, and in particular, for the support it has given us on our recent Millage Election Victory. Bill Gail, your Editor in Nankin, has not only helped us time and time again, but had the formidable courage to continually support us after two defeats at the hand of the voters in the April and September Elections.

Each time our proposition went before the people, Gail helped, not only by editorial support, but gave a good deal of publicity to other functions of our department to keep the Firefighters fresh in everyone's mind. Such publicity as our Firefighters Ball, and the plight from our Association to the people of Nankin was given page one, and assuredly well taken by the readers of the Nankin Observer.

It is gratifying indeed, to have people of such caliber in your employ doing this type of public service for the people of Nankin, making it a wonderful addition to our community.

All so often, the public is quick to condemn, but slow-witted to praise.

Thank you again for a most important contribution for our evergrowing community with an evergrowing news media.

JOSEPH F. BENYO, SEC. TREAS., NANKIN FIREFIGHTERS ASSN.

Police Deserve More

Editor:

Lately you have been swamped with letters from firemen and their spouses in regards to the differential between the wages of a fireman and a policeman. From all the crying that is being done you would think these men would quit. This will never happen as they know when they've got a good deal. When the time arrives, which will be never, that they do as much work as the policemen then they can expect equal pay. Firemen excel as pinocchio players, food gorgers, horse-shoe artists, car wash specialists, and television viewers. Now a few of the facts in relation to firemen and policemen and not the fabrications as dreamed up by your previous writers:

1. Fire service as we know it is basically a standby service. When an alarm is received, which is seldom, the average time answering and handling it is 30 minutes.

2. Police service is an action service and the entire tour of duty is spent providing the community with police service. Firemen actually work four hours during their tour of duty and this is mostly spent doing household chores.

3. Police departments make six times as many emergency runs as fire departments.

4. Firemen have over three times the opportunity for promotion that policemen have.

5. Fire departments have four times as many personnel working jobs as police departments. Matter of fact the majority of firemen only use their jobs on a parttime basis. Their on 24 hrs., off 24 hrs., on 24 hrs., off 24 hrs., on 24 hrs., off 24 hrs., gives them a great advantage for outside work.

6. Firemen spend no off duty time in court as do policemen.

7. Firemen are on duty slightly over 9 days each month, whereas policemen work almost 22 days each month.

8. Firemen are off duty 255 days per year, policemen are off duty 128 days per year.

The police profession perform a unique type of service which deserves a pay scale independent of other forms of city employment. Firemen have been reducing their weekly work schedule and loading their profession with supervisory positions, they have gained an extremely unfair advantage over the police. Firemen have used every political weapon available to frustrate the efforts of the police to make the needed adjustments. In conclusion it only stands to reason, seeing as the police do more work than firemen, they should get more pay.

Jaycees — Men On The Go

This week is a special week.

Promotion people, through various means, have been having weeks designated to honor all kinds of things during the past few years. Some of these designations are worthy of notice and merit and some not.

We are currently in the observance of National Jaycee Week. The Jaycees are worthy of considerable notice.

In the area two fairly recent examples of Jaycee projects come to mind. One is the Plymouth group's support and sponsorship of the Community Opportunity Center for Handicapped workers. The other is the community attitude survey the results of which have just been released by the Farmington Jaycees.

Another project which the Farmington Jaycees are just beginning in the community is its annual directory...listing—listing local merchants, business and professional men. This handy guide, will, when completed, be distributed to every home in both the City of Farmington and Farmington Township.

There is something about the Jaycees. They keep popping up in all spots. The Jaycees are active in the Goodfellow Drive each year. They are found in the leadership of the civic associations. In fact, it often seems that every time one turns around there is a Jaycee member.

In short Jaycee membership is composed of men on the go. What's that saying about "If you want something done..."?

The Observer takes this opportunity along with the rest of the nation to tip our hats to the Jaycees and their past, present and continuing contributions to the life and good of the world around us.

A&P Next to Us

Uber's Drug Store in Brighton, between Farmington and Lansing, advertises its location as A&P Next to Us.

This is the spunk everybody likes to see! The little guy who stands up with his chest out and says, "Look at me!" The Little Tailor who can kill seven with one blow, the David who declareth, "Bring on Goliath!"

Why doesn't Redford Township stick out its chest and declare to the world: Detroit Next to Us.

But, no! The Chamber of Commerce has decided Mother Detroit's skirts are needed for the success of its businesses and that to acquire a postal designation would require the Township to go it alone.

It should! There is a wonderful feeling in being able to sever the umbilical cord and stand up with your head high to declare "My address is Such-an-Such Street, Redford Township."

Where is the township's civic pride? This is a good time for citizens to assert themselves. If the residents want to be swallowed up by Detroit, well and good, but if they want to now declare that they have a place in the sun, then they should do so.

Think a little bit about Detroit, Next to Us. BILL GAIL

Time For Peace Pow-Wow

With all of the talk about orderly growth and expansion of the Plymouth Community, we feel strongly that it's about time for the city and township fathers to start thinking of working together to achieve this orderly expansion.

Incidents of the past week lead us to believe that there is a power move on, whether in the Township or the City is irrelevant, but the facts remain that there seems to be a small group hidden somewhere in the picture that is determined to make the growth and expansion anything but orderly.

There appears to be an element lurking beneath the surface that is doing everything it can to cause dissension between members of the City Commission and members of the Plymouth Township Board and bring a state of chaos.

Whether this element is successful or not depends entirely on level-headed thinking by both governmental units.

Certainly nothing can be accomplished by name calling, by making snide remarks that are carried back to members of the two bodies and by pointing to weaknesses among the various individual commissioners and trustees.

And this has been going on. As attested to by who attended last week's meeting of the Township Board where one member was much disturbed over remarks made at a public hearing.

There is still a feeling between the City and Township over the abortive annexation proceedings of several years ago. There is still a great deal of distrust between the two groups.

Certainly this feeling can't be resolved by small talk. It's time that Plymouth begins to talk big for it is going to become big in the not too distant future. But that orderly growth and expansion won't be orderly if the present tactics continue.

Both the City and the Township have problems that can be ironed out with mutual understanding and by sitting around a conference table and talking about how each can do its part.

There is the question of consolidation of the City and Township that is being posed more and more by responsible citizens in each community. There is the constant problem of the proposed City of Plymouth Heights that could become a reality and remove all thoughts of consolidation unless the present ill-feelings are removed.

Just to bring City of Plymouth residents up to date, the matter of a City of Plymouth Heights will go before voters in the Township within a reasonable period of time for the third time. It could conceivably pass since the Township is in the admirable position of having plenty of land for expansion where the city has only one way to go, tear down and build up.

Should Plymouth Township become the City of Plymouth Heights, then the City of Plymouth would find itself in the position of being a city completely surrounded by a city.

As we stated earlier, it's about time that residents of the area begin to think and in terms of a bigger and better consolidated city before the situation of a city surrounded by a city becomes a reality instead of a nightmare.

Respect Teaches Respect

Recently a 12-year-old girl was injured at the Farmington skating rink while engaged in the innocent and legitimate pastime of using the sliding facilities in the play area.

Cause of the injury — which required five stitches — was evidently a rock thrown by someone at the top of the hill.

Why do such things happen? It defies logic. Farmington City Manager John Dinan told The Observer that no full time supervision was supplied by the City and that this was left up to the parents and general public. Dinan estimated that the cost of such supervision would run about $50 a day.

The first thing that pops into one's mind when hearing of such incidents is the sad tale of the parks in New York City. In that metropolis no sane person — male or female — ventures into the park facilities after dark.

We can't believe that the local problem is so serious. However, last week's incident may be a symptom of things to come. It is certainly a symptom of society.

Parents can't be every place all the time. Police patrols have the same problem. Nor should either have to be. Responsible citizens don't throw rocks at people just as they don't speed in the streets or do a multitude of other things which seem to be becoming more and more frequent.

Another disturbing event is the increasing numbers of minors who have been arrested by the Farmington police in recent weeks for possession of alcoholic beverages.

Why such disregard for law and order and the rights of others? Frankly we don't know. We could dust off our soapbox and preach about the breakdown of the moral fiber of family and community life in society, but that won't solve the problem.

Maybe the only thing that will solve the dilemma is an individual boot strap operation by each and every one of us. The place to start might be a close re-examination of our own attitudes and actions.

In any event the unfortunate incident at the Farmington skating rink will not simply be solved by the City hiring additional personnel or by extra police cars in the area. It will be solved by all of us—in our own actions and in instilling in the children a basic respect for the authority of law and the rights of other individuals.

New York Moves To Nankin, Salon Becomes Poodle's Heaven

Complete poodle service is now available to area residents at La Continental Poodle Salon, 35946 Ford Rd., Garden City.

Mrs. Nancy Warner, 5972 Lindville, Wayne, is the owner and operator of the salon which she believes is the only licensed salon for poodles in Wayne County.

rated with French Provincial furniture conveys an image of warmth aimed towards those concerned with the welfare of man's best friend.

BATHED, scrubbed and fluff dried, this poodle is getting a trim from Bonnie Williams at the newly opened La Continental Poodle Salon in Nankin Township.

Mrs. Warner has recruited Bonnie Williams from New York to handle the grooming. Miss Williams has had nine years of grooming experience and helped design the grooming room at La Continental.

When a poodle is received for grooming it is bathed, fluffed, dried, nails cleaned and polished, and clipped. The fluff-drying process straightens out the hair with hot air so the groomer can cut the dog's coat more evenly.

Mrs. Warner advises that dogs should not be fed before grooming and adds that a brushing prior to grooming makes a world of difference in the end result.

Prices for grooming run from $8 to $60 and about 60 different styles are available. After being open for only one week, Mrs. Warner already has a customer list above 400 persons.

"We aim to turn out nothing but the best," Mrs. Warner remarks, "Our work is completely guaranteed and we assume total responsibility of the dog while he is here."

The salon will also trace pedigrees and has an outlet to buy poodles for anyone in the market. They also bore dogs, and have a complete line of dog supplies. Another service offered is the boarding of dogs at a reasonable price while the owner is away.

Although La Continental specializes in grooming poodles, they will accept other makes of dogs brought in.

Candy Sale Scheduled

The Farmington area Campfire Girls will visit houses in the area next week to sell candy. Funds raised by the sale will go toward supporting the group campership program, finance improvements at the day camp, and help maintain the Campfire Girl's camp in Oakland County. Estimates place the number of Campfire Girls in the community at approximately 150.

Marine Pvt. Alan L. Tinker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Tinker, 33422 Florence, Garden City, has graduated from Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

MR. AND MRS. DAN PILARSKI, 32525 Merritt are pictured taking an old fashioned buggy Drive, Garden City, honeymooning at "Birchwood around Birchwood. Pilariski is in the wood in the Poconos," located in Pennsylvania, Marines.

To Host Opera

"The Overture to Opera V" including scenes from "Faust" and three other operas will be performed at the Bentley High School in Livonia on Monday, March 1 at 8 p.m.

The production will be performed by local singers under the direction of Dr. David Di Chiera, assistant dean for the Performing Arts at Oakland University.

In addition to presenting the opera vignettes the program will include an educational explanation of Dr. Di Chiera.

"Overture" is the major activity of the Education Committee of the Detroit Grand Opera Association. A total of 19 performances will be presented in the metropolitan area.

All Eligible For Musical

By Pat St. Antoine West High Reporter

"Where's Charley," the Garden City High School East all-school musical will be presented Wed., (Jan. 26) and Sat. (Jan. 29) in West High School auditorium at 8 p.m.

The all-school musical play means the entire school participates, teachers and students. Some of the teachers are Albert Boshma, Ray Carlson, Ralph Davis, Pietro Di Giorgio, Kathleen Gallagher, Colombi Haukula, John Hird, and Barbara Kent.

Others are Francisco Lemus, Othmar Lenze, Geraldine Schmid, Marilyn Snow, Frank Wilson, and Betty Motley.

Fred Bear is the Bear of Bear Archery, and his bow and arrow business is one of the legends of modern industry. We began doing business with him in 1933, when he was starting out in Detroit. We still take care of his banking and trust needs with the cooperation of the Grayling State Bank. He moved his plant to Grayling in 1947. We do a good deal of business by telephone and about once or twice a year he drops in on us in Detroit. Come April, he'll be off for Alaska to hunt the polar bear. With bow and arrow, of course. We like to think that our careful attention to his banking affairs is one of the reasons he can enjoy his business so successfully.

Stock Plan Doubles In 5 Years

Assets in the 1961 class of Ford Motor Company's Savings and Stock Investment Program for Salaried Employees had a total market value of about $33.5 million at the end of 1965.

Of the total, about $13.8 million in Ford Motor Company Common Stock, U.S. Government bonds and cash has been mailed to 12,195 Ford employees who elected to have their assets distributed to them. Approximately 2,900 will become Ford Motor Company shareholders for the first time.

Another 13,570 members who had accounts in the maturing class elected to leave their assets, valued at about $19.7 million, in the trust under the program. They can elect at any time to withdraw assets purchased with their own contributions in the 1961 or previously matured classes.

Total assets of the class result from contributions of $16,088,000 by members of the class during 1961, related contributions by the company, dividends on Ford Motor Company Common Stock, and appreciation in the value of the stock and government bonds in which trust fund assets have been invested.

The 1961 class is the sixth to mature under the program, which began February 1, 1956. Classes formed before 1960 matured five years after their close, while classes formed in 1960 and in years since mature four years after their close.

The assets mailed by the program trustee, Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, included 215,590 shares of Ford Common Stock, government bonds valued at $1,627,000, and $597,000 in cash.

Urge Parents to Check Child's Hearing, Vision

Bad eyesight plagues one out of every five children in the United States. And one child in every 25 has hearing trouble.

Either of these difficulties could interfere with your child's success at school or with his social adjustment, says a new leaflet from the American Medical Association.

If you recognize the clues, defective vision is easy to spot. Your child may blink frequently, rub his eyes, squint, frown or balk at doing close work.

Hearing troubles, too, show up in habits. Your child may cock his head to one side, misunderstand or ignore instructions, speak too softly or too loudly, or act inattentive and restless—all because he cannot understand the sounds around him.

If you are concerned about your child's vision or hearing, check with your family physician. After an examination, he may refer you to a physician who specializes in vision or hearing problems.

An ophthalmologist is a physician who specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of eye disease. He may use drugs, prescribe glasses and perform eye surgery. An ophthalmologist can tell when failing eyesight is related just to the lens system of the eye and when it has been caused by injury, disease or possible poisoning.

An otologist is also a medical doctor. He is trained to detect the type and extent of hearing loss and to decide if medical or surgical treatment is needed. The otologist can determine by a variety of tests whether loss of hearing is due to nerve damage or to an interference with the transmission of sound waves to the hearing organ.

He may find that a child who is hard of hearing can be helped by something as simple as removing wax from the ears. In more serious conditions, a hearing aid or one of several operations may be recommended by the otologist.

It is highly important to your child's growth and development to be constantly alert to signs of defective vision or hearing, and to seek medical attention promptly.

Ford Announces Plans for Auto Safety Center in Dearborn

Henry Ford II has detailed Ford Motor Company's plans for the industry's first Automotive Safety Center. He said the Center is part of a program to double the company's investment in automotive safety research.

The Ford board chairman said construction will begin next spring on a two-story, 40,000-square-foot building in Dearborn, which will be devoted exclusively to safety research and testing.

Until the new building is completed, vehicle safety engineers and technicians will continue to utilize existing facilities at the company's Research and Engineering Center.

The Ford Automotive Safety Center, plans for which were announced last spring, will house engineering offices, laboratories, testing equipment and an auditorium seating 200. The building will be located at the western end of the company's Dearborn Proving Ground on Village Road.

"This new facility will be our nerve center for automotive safety," Mr. Ford said. "As the world's first centralized, fully equipped laboratory for this type of safety research, it will enable us to apply a 'total systems approach' to all aspects of vehicle safety.

"We believe that placing all of our safety research and testing operations under one roof and under centralized, on-the-spot management, will enable us to achieve maximum progress in vehicle safety research in a minimum of time."

Colver R. Briggs, Ford Motor Company automotive safety director, said technical facilities and personnel at the center "will provide us with the most effective means of generating, interpreting and distributing safety information to engineers who design our cars."

"Our dynamics laboratory will contain an impact sled and other devices which can reliably reproduce conditions experienced in highway collisions at speeds of up to 50 miles per hour," he said.

"While the instrumented collision research conducted in the laboratory is not a replacement for our outdoor crash tests on the Dearborn Proving ground, the impact sled will be equally important to us in the evaluation of future automotive designs."

Briggs said the dynamics laboratory will provide facilities for intensive research on materials and structures in used car interiors to minimize potential injury to occupants in crashes. It also will be used to test occupant-restraining systems.

Physical and psychological characteristics will be studied in a "human factors" laboratory.

"Human factors specialists are increasingly involved in designing cars that are simple and effortless to control," Briggs said.

He added that researchers in human factors also will study the relation of human dimensions to "workspace design" "matching the abilities of the driver to the operating features of the car."

Another section of the center will feature a ride simulator, which enables the engineer to measure ride characteristics of a vehicle in the laboratory and evaluate such effects as human fatigue under various road conditions.

The center's auditorium, according to Briggs, will be used for seminars by worldwide authorities in the fields of medicine, education, government, engineering and research concerned with vehicle safety.

Avoid GOP Fog — Phil Hart Warns

Michigan Senator Philip Hart urged 100 Democrats "not to let the Republicans fog up the issues with their argument that the two-party system is in danger" Saturday morning in Farmington Township.

Hart keynoted a day-long training institute sponsored by the 19th Congressional District Democratic Organization and held at East Junior High School.

Top Democratic officials in attendance included Congressman Billie S. Farnum, Zolton A. Ferency, Democratic State Chairman, Neil Staehler, Democratic National Committee, Miss Adelaide Hart, Democratic State vice-chairman; Stuart Hertzberg, Democratic State treasurer; State Senator Carl O'Brien, and State Representatives John Bennett and Frank Crawley.

Aldo Vagnozzi, chairman of the Farmington Democratic Club, served as chairman of the publicity workshop while Allen Rosenfeld, former editor of The Farmington Observer, served as a panelist.

Farnum declared that the Republicans have advertised they are going to spend $500,000 to carry the 19th District in 1966.

"If money could win elections none of us in the Democratic party would be in office. I don't care how much money they've got to spend, we're going to enlist the support of the people to keep this a Democratic district," he declared.

Woodcroft Rejects Detroit Water Plan

Plans to provide Detroit water facilities to the Woodcroft Subdivision in Farmington Township were dropped following a public hearing last week when more than 20 percent of the landowners declared themselves opposed to the proposal.

The Township Board had set a public hearing after receiving a letter from the subdivision association requesting that steps be taken to bring in the Detroit water facilities.

Wayne School Posts Filled

The appointment of Walter Henke as director of secondary education for the Wayne Community School District has resulted in the naming of an acting principal for Franklin Jr. High and an assistant principal for Marshall Jr. High.

Replacing Henke as principal at Franklin is William Pearson, former Marshall assistant principal. Pearson will receive a salary of $10,530.

Pearson received his bachelor's degree from Bowling Green University in 1951 and masters from Wayne State University six years later. He is married and has three children.

Replacing Pearson at Marshall is Norman H. Logan, former instrumental instructor at Franklin. As assistant principal intern, Logan will not receive a raise during the balance of the school year.

Logan received his bachelor's degree from Eastern Michigan University in 1955 and masters from the same institution in 1963. His salary was set at $8,800.

Road Building Sultans Shouldn't Be Allowed To Dim Our Colleges

Well, I see by the papers that the State Highway Department has done it again.

It is not enough that this state agency has left families stranded on islands of mud in constructing the Fisher Freeway in the Downriver district and is ready to virtually erase the community of Pleasant Ridge from the map with the route chosen for Highway I-96, it is now about to isolate a college when there is a crying need for education.

To make matters worse, it is a college in our own community—Schoolcraft College—and it is high time that we raised our voices in protest of the dictatorial policies of the road building sultans.

If the Highway Department goes through with its plan to follow the route of Haggerty Road and cut a wide swath through the Schoolcraft campus it will bring about one of the most tragic episodes in the history of Livonia.

It would be bad enough just to cut off the front of the campus and eliminate two parking lots, but it also would leave the school without an entrance from the highway and no service roads to alleviate the situation.

In truth, it would isolate the school, retard its growth, and the large sums of taxpayers money used to erect the buildings now in use and those in the process of construction would, in a great measure, be wasted.

To add to the tragedy is the fact that the officials of Schoolcraft College heeded the advice of the Highway Department when the present buildings were erected close to Haggerty Road. It was the plan at that time to cut a slice from the east side of the campus... and leave that bit of Livonia on which the college is built as an island unto itself.

The plans for this section of what will be known as the Jeffries Freeway—or an arm of I-96—are not something new. They have been in the process of being developed for more than a decade. So, there seems to be no valid reason why such institutions as Schoolcraft College, Hawthorne Center and the Northville Hospital should have been allowed to be built in their present locations when the road builders knew that, sooner or later, they would be in the path of a freeway.

As I read of the precarious position in which the officials of Schoolcraft College now find themselves I recalled an evening more than a decade ago when the state highway department officials met with the fledgling Livonia Chamber of Commerce to discuss plans for the future of our young city.

It so happened that I was the Secretary of the Chamber at the time and was one of the spokesmen.

During the course of the evening I asked:

"When are you fellows going to do something about Plymouth Road? When can we expect you to institute the same type of improvement program on this side of Ann Arbor as you have on the other side?"

One of their number very nonchalantly answered:

"Never. There are too many hills and curves in Plymouth Road.

"Why should we go to all of that expense when you have a road here that is better adapted to a good program?"

"If you mean Schoolcraft," I answered, "It doesn't start anywhere and doesn't go any place."

He just smiled and countered, "It could."

It was then that I learned of the plan to eventually make a freeway of Schoolcraft. Mind you, that was more than a decade ago. And the plan then was on the highway program.

If the state had announced these plans at that time we would not have had the struggle in city government over which side of Schoolcraft should be used to make the freeway possible. And it is within reason to believe that the present buildings—Schoolcraft College, Hawthorne Center and the Northville Hospital would not have been built in their present location.

It has been said from time to time that an early announcement of highway plans makes it more difficult to obtain the right of way at reasonable costs.

This may be so. But which is more expensive to the taxpayer—higher cost of the original right of way or the cost of such institution as Schoolcraft College that are virtually sabotaged in later years.

In the present case it is evident that somewhere along the line someone made a poor decision. Either that, or the lines of communications with the State Highway Department will have to be improved.

Schoolcraft College is one of the real jewels in the community and nothing should be allowed to dim its lustre.

Not even the dictatorial policy of the State Highway Department Sultan's.

Bentley 'Sits on Top of World'

Sing out at Bentley: "We're sitting on top of the world. . . ."

And Bentley is — in basketball.

Coach George Fefles' forces won their showdown with unbeaten Trenton, 65-57, last Friday night to:

- 1—Run their Suburban Six League record to four victories without a loss.
- 2—Take over undisputed possession of first place in the league as Trenton dropped into second, tied with Redford Union at 3-1.
- 3—Swell their current winning streak to five straight.
- 4—Hit their overall season's record to nine wins, one loss.

"Credit this victory to the defense," said Fefles as he celebrated with his players.

Fefles noted that Trenton ace Dave Fisher maintained his average by getting 26 points. "But we kept their other scorers down. That did the trick," explained Fefles.

The Bentley coach also expressed enthusiasm over the sound brand of play turned in by his warriors.

"We ran well, shot well, rebounded well . . . did everything the way a coach likes to see his team operate," added Fefles who is watching Bentley get off to one of its best starts in the school's history.

Bentley charged to a 16-10, first-period lead against Trenton as Fred Matevia and Bob Elsner led the surge with five and six points, respectively.

In the second period, Gary Faulkes notched eight points and Matevia six more to enable Bentley to increase its lead to 34-21 at halftime.

Trenton put on the pressure in the late stages, but Faulkes came through with four key free throws to hold off the downward surge and enable Bentley to come out on top.

Matevia scored 18 points with seven baskets and four free throws to lead Bentley. Faulkes struck for 16 points on four hoops and eight charities. Elsner with three baskets and seven free throws finishes with 13 points.

Nick Bonder scored seven points, Mike McCauley five, Larry Grimm four and Ken Bowman two for the high-flying Livonians.

The Bentley reserves also took the measure of Trenton, winning by a 52-47 score. Jim Doyle topped the winners with 15, followed by 12 for Gary Haughsbay and eight for Ken Bollin.

This Friday night finds Bentley at Redford Union in another clutch struggle that ends the first half of the league title chase.

How Bentley scored:

	B	F	P
Matevia	7	4	18
Bonder	3	1	7
Elsner	3	7	13
Faulkes	4	8	16
McCauley	2	1	5
Bowman	1	0	2
Grimm	2	0	4
Totals	22	21	65
Trenton	16	11	57
Trenton	10	11	33

GETTING READY TO FIRE is Bentley's Fred Matevia (44) as he scores in the 65-57 victory over Trenton during the showdown battle for the league lead. That's Trenton's Eric Cederico (33) and Rico Richel (41) trying to close in on the Bentley star.

GOING UP for a shot despite the efforts of Nick Fiorini (11), of Groves, to block the ball, is Franklin High's Carl Gulbranson (44). He scored but his team faltered in the closing minutes to lose 70-63.

Groves Clips Franklin To Seize League Lead

The "big" one escaped Livonia Franklin high's basketball team.

In a showdown, a battle of the unbeaten in the Northwest Suburban League, Franklin wound up a 70-63 loser to Birmingham Groves last Friday night.

The net result: Franklin now must play catch up in the title chase.

Groves stands 4-0 in the conference and 9-0 overall. As for Franklin, the Livonians have a mark of 3-1 in the league.

Ineffective shooting and fouls led to the downfall of Franklin; also a slow start.

Groves got off to a 12-9 edge in the first period as each side made three baskets. But Groves netted six free throws, three more than Franklin.

With Al Jose, Paul Katosh and Carl Gulbranson leading the surge, Franklin charged ahead by a point late in the second period.

But a hoop by Al Harris just before the buzzer shoved Groves in front, 32-31, at the intermission. Groves never trailed the rest of the way.

Just as the third period began, Groves struck with a whirl, upped its lead to 10 points and held command the rest of the way.

Dale Lee, the spark of the Franklin machine in previous games, picked up four personal fouls in the first half and was held out of action in the early part of the second half as Groves pulled in front by a handsome margin.

Lee finally was reinserted in the game . . . and lasted for a four minutes before fouling out. While he was on the court, Franklin was able to cut the Groves' advantage to five points, but the Birmingham team had just a little too much at the end.

As for the shooting by Franklin, the team had been hitting around 47 percent in other games.

This time Franklin clicked for 43 percent in the first half, but slipped to 37 in the second.

Paul Katosh had 18 points for Franklin, getting eight baskets and two free throws. Next was Jose with 16 points. Bill Bauer hit for ten and Gulbranson seven, Lee, generally a double-figure scorer, came through with 11 points.

Whitman clicked for 26 points for the winners on 11 baskets and four free throws. Mike Rafferty was next with 19 and Fred Love scored 11.

Franklin took the reserve tilt 64-42, as Chris Wendrick clicked for 21 points on ten baskets and one free throw.

OBSERVING SPORTS

By George Maskin

HERE 'N THERE IN THIS WIDE WORLD OF SPORTS —

It was a thrill watching Maurice Stokes wheeled out onto the basketball floor between halves of the National Basketball Association's All-Star game in Cincinnati.

We hadn't seen Stokes in eight years . . . the last time on the Saturday in Detroit as he played with the Cincinnati Royals against the Detroit Pistons in a playoff game.

That evening, as the Royals flew home, Stokes was stricken by a mysterious ailment. He never has played another basketball game. He lost his ability to walk, to talk, to take care of himself.

But, thanks to some wonderful people, like Jack Twyman, the veteran star of the Royals, Stokes has made progress in the long fight back. He now can talk — a little. He can't walk.

The doctors say that he'll win most of the battle. When, they're not certain.

The Stokes' story has to be one which gives all of us heart — for sooner or later, most of us encounter a sad moment in life.

There wasn't much to this year's All-Star game. It was over in a hurry. The sports writers and sportscasters really had no most valuable player to select.

But they had a convertible to give to somebody, so virtually all agreed upon Adrian Smith of the Cincinnati Royals.

He certainly was the most popular player in the game. He's a well-liked guy who made it from a high school in Kentucky, which had only 12 seniors, through junior college, to All-America fame at the University of Kentucky, to stardom on the U.S. Olympic team and finally into a great in the pro cage wars.

Another heartening story, to say the least!

Falcons Victors in TV Game

The television cameras flashed across on Farmington's basketball team Friday evening.

The Falcons didn't get scared. They went on to rout Walled Lake, 86-62, and the score was the same when the game was replayed on Channel 50 the next afternoon.

It was Farmington all the way as coach Jack Quiggle brought their record to 1-1 for the campaign in Interlakes Conference action.

Farmington took a 21-14 edge after one quarter and held command by a 44-32 bulge at halftime. Then to top off the evening, Farmington outscored Walled Lake, 27-16, in the closing period.

The gratifying part of the victory for Quiggle was the work of Al Kilikka and Fritz Simons, a pair of juniors. Both came through with excellent efforts.

While Kilikka scored nine points and Simons just four, they made it possible for Farmington to control the boards.

"The two kids showed exceptional poise throughout the game," said Quiggle.

Mike Wilson and Greg Dorow provided the big scoring punch for Farmington. Wilson notched 29 points with 12 baskets and five free throws. Dorow hit for nine hoops and three free throws for 21 points.

Mike Ames had eight points, Steve Moore nine and George Habicht six to round out the scoring for the winners who next Friday night host Pontiac Northern and then on Saturday travel to Plymouth.

Quiggle is hopeful that Tim Patrick will be back in action for his weekend's pair. He's been idled by sore knees.

RU Wins for Hurt Guard

"This was for Randy . . ."

That's the way the Redford Union high basketball team felt after beating Plymouth, 64-49, last Friday night to remain the surprise team of the Suburban Six League.

It was RU's third win in four conference games while Plymouth has a 1-3 mark.

But, to get back to Randy.

He's Randy Maltby, the fine guard of the RU team who a week before had starred in the victory over Allen Park. Maltby also is the captain-elect of the 1966 RU baseball squad.

In practice last Thursday, Maltby hurt his knee. It was serious enough to force doctors to operate on Monday. This means Maltby is through for the basketball season.

He may not be able to play baseball, either.

His cage mates came out like tigers against Plymouth, scoring 21 points to the Rocks' 11 in the first period. By halftime it was 44-28 for RU.

RU clicked on half of its shots—16 for 32—in the first half with Lee Bjerke leading the way with eight hoops for 16 points. Ron Bauer followed with 12 (three baskets and six charities) and Bill Arnold tossed in nine during the first two quarters.

Plymouth staged a rally in the third quarter and with Mike Stakas, the fine sophomore, pacing the way with seven points, cut the differential to six points. Bob McCall chipped in with four points and Rick Jones three.

But RU recovered, engineered three steals and quickly pulled ahead again by ten points.

In the final period, the scoring slowed down as Redford made only 11 to seven for the Rocks, who were held to just three baskets.

"You have to be impressed with the way our kids keep improving," said RU coach Milo Karhu.

Bjerke wound up as the game's top scorer with 23 points while Bauer had 16 and Arnold 13 for the winners. Stakas turned in another brilliant effort for the losers, meshing 21 points on nine baskets and three free throws.

Plymouth took the reserve contest with ease, 56-35, as Jim Ruby tossed in 12 points.

Sorrows' Squad Bested in Two Tilts

It wasn't a happy week for the Our Lady of Sorrows basketball team.

First there was a heartbreaking 63-62 loss to St. James. Then Sorrows fell to St. Francis de Sales, 68-60.

Against St. James, the Farmington cagers jumped off to an early 12-4 lead. But St. James rallied to go ahead by nine in the third period.

Sorrows still wasn't through. With Tim Doyle pacing a late surge, Sorrows came back to take a 59-58 edge with two minutes to go.

A three-point play shoved St. James back in front, 61-59, but only until another basket by Doyle knotted the score at 61-61.

Here St. James clicked for a basket and two free throws and it was enough to win, despite a last-second basket by Sorrows' Jerry Turner.

Doyle topped the losers along with Turner. Each had 22 points.

St. Francis de Sales moved to a 34-28 halftime command against Sorrows and the Farmington team's hopes weren't helped in the third period when the team was held to just seven points.

Fouls didn't help Sorrows either. The team was called for 23 personals, 12 more than the winners.

Mark Bemer shot in 28 of the winners' points.

In the reserve play, Sorrows lost to St. James, 53-45, with Bill Verge and Mike Briolat each counting ten for the losers. Sorrows' reserves rebounded to whip St. Francis, 41-34, as Dennis Perry and Mike Barnes each scored eight.

St. Benedict invades Sorrows' gym this Friday night.

Stevenson Snaps Cage Loss String

Stevenson high's basketball team is back on the victory trail.

After losing four straight, Stevenson beat the Wayne high reserves, 63-52, as Jim Olson led the way with 24 points and Bob Bender tossed in 19.

Wayne led, 13-8, after one period, before Stevenson took a 24-20 halftime bulge. The Stevenson lead remained at four points through the third period. Then the Livonians cut loose to put the game out of reach.

The losers made only one free throw in the entire game. That's right—one charity.

In fact, Franklin had only a total of five chances from the charity line, which probably set another mark.

RU tossed a zone defense against Franklin and the Livonians had their problems shooting, although they made 23 baskets to 24 for RU. The Townshippers had more good fortune with free throws making 12 out of 17.

The game was fairly close for three periods. But Redford Union broke loose with a 25-14 uprising in the last period to turn the game into a romp. Doug Mach had 17 points to top the winner. Carl Gulbranson led the losers with 11.

Franklin's reserves won, 54-50, as Chris Wendrick and Bill Hellstein each scored 10 points for the victors. Charles Fifield had 18 for the losers.

Thurston Hits 90's Again

It's "90 or no count" for Thurston high school's basketball team in Northwest League warfare this season.

The Townshipers have hit the 90 figure in three of their four loop tilts. They have won each.

When they scored a "feeble" 64 against Groves, the league leader, Thurston wound up a loser.

Last Friday night it was Thurston by a 94-85 count in one of the wildest scoring prep games of the season in Michigan.

It followed on the heels of Thurston's 95-82 decision over Oak Park. Previously, Thurston had started its league schedule with 92 points against John Glenn.

"As long as we keep shooting em in, we're in good shape," said, coach Mike Pasternak of Thurston.

"Imagine a team making 85 points and losing," groaned Dick Wilson, the North Farmington coach.

Both teams couldn't miss, it seemed. Thurston clicked on 47 percent of its shots, North Farmington on 44.

The game never was too close. Thurston jumped in front, 21-15, after one quarter. In the second stanza, Thurston outscored North Farmington, 33-20, and by the four-minute mark of the last period, the Townshipers held sway by some 18 points.

North Farmington came back with a flurry late in the game to reduce the margin to nine points.

Randy Samelson and Bob Wardrop produced the big one-two punch for the winners, scoring 25 and 24 points, respectively. Gary Knock also had a fine night for the winners with 18 while Reg Barringer hit in twin figures with 12.

Rick Schultz was the big marksman for North Farmington. He heaved 11 free throws plus two free throws, for 24 points.

Bill Oldershaw, the North Farmington football star, was next with 14 points.

Thurston's reserves also won, 58-46, to end the unbeaten ways of North Farmington's second unit. The latter team hadn't lost this season.

Don Kopec tossed in 17 and Rick Knock 16 for the winners, but North Farmington could take heart in that Knock will be moving to the North Farmington school district next fall just in time to help the NF varsity.

Jack Feller's 15 led the North Farmington reserves.

GO FRANKLIN GO is the plea of these cheerleaders during the game between Franklin and Groves. But the home team didn't have enough this time and took a 70-63 lacing as Groves moved into the top spot in the league standings.

Injuries Costly to West Team

Coach Cal Krupa is hopeful his Garden City West high school basketball team will be at full shape this Friday night when Cherry Hill invades West.

Sprained ankles kept Gary Slade on the sidelines last Friday night at the same time limited the efforts of Bo Ardell as West suffered a 68-52 drubbing at the hand of Riverside.

The setback left West with a 3-3 record in the Tri Rivers League and an overall standing of 3-4.

A bad second period hurt West in the Riverside game. After trailing, 16-19, at the close of the initial eight minutes, West was outscored, 22-8, in the second period.

West rebounded to within a 59-52 tie in the third period but the early departure of Bill Johnston on a four didn't help the East cause.

Johnston scored 13 points and grabbed 15 rebounds while in action. Gary Robinson, another youngster for West, hauled in 13 rebounds as he and Johnston between them nailed half the West rebounds.

Ford Simpson had 12 points for West.

The game was a close one in the field goal department. Riverside tossed in 24 from the field, just one more than West. But at the charity line, it was 20 for 39 for Riverside compared to six for 17 for the losers.

Riverside also took the reserve contest by a score of 54-48.

Observing Sports

"Right now we're able to get in a couple games a week in Garden City," the gent adds. "We have had little chance to practice the way the weather has been until the last week.

"We used to go to Windsor, Chatham, Ann Arbor . . . anywhere we could find to practice. Sometimes, we'd work out at 4 in the morning. It'd cost us $35 per hour.

"But we found we couldn't afford it. So we cut down the number of teams."

The future?

"Well, it's up to the people in Livonia. Maybe we can talk them into getting us an artificial ice rink." Those, who have read this column, know that we have pleaded for just such a facility. From what we understand, the chances are very slim.

Very slim!

Talk about your problems. Over at Schoolcraft College, ineligibilities wrecked the basketball team. Something like 10 players didn't make it with the books after the first semester.

Only one regular survived the examination period which explains why Schoolcraft isn't winning on the hardwoods.

Nor does it help that Schoolcraft must play where it can. And practice where it can — sometimes at early morning hours.

It'll be THE day when Schoolcraft makes available for all students athletic facilities on the campus proper. Until that day comes, Schoolcraft's chances of making too much athletic headway are slight.

Rebounds Too Much For Glenn

Rebounding is the name of the game . . . they say in basketball.

Oak Park High's cagers commanded the boards with the result the Parkers breezed past John Glenn, 86-75, in a Northwest Suburban League game.

The loss was the fourth in a row for Glenn in the league while Oak Park finally was managing to hit the victory column.

Three players accounted for 70 of the Oak Park points. Jeff Adkins scored 27, Walt Williams 22 and Ed Holloman 21.

However, individual honors in the game went to Glenn's Mike Mahakian with 26 points on 11 baskets and four free throws.

Len Wells (13), Len Anderson (12) and Tom Stafford (11) also hit in double figures for the Glenn team which plays at unbeaten Groves this Friday night in a league tussle and then tries its fortunes at Flat Rock Saturday night.

Nelson Ellison with five points, Joe Walker four, Jerry Right three and Norm Logan one rounded out the Glenn scoring.

Oak Park's reserves piled up an 80-75 conquest over Glenn.

Trojans Drop 6th in League

Clarenceville High School's basketball team "won" one battle, but lost where it counted against West Bloomfield last Friday night.

Throughout the season, Clarenceville had its troubles by committing too many personal fouls.

In the West Bloomfield encounter, the Trojans were guilty of fewer fouls than its rival.

But Clarenceville couldn't find the range, either from the field or the charity line. As a result, West Bloomfield fashioned a 54-48 win for its fifth in six Wayne-Oakland League tilts.

Clarenceville is still to win in six loop struggles.

The faulty shooting really killed Clarenceville. Take the second period in which West Bloomfield out scored the Trojans, 16-7, to pull away to a safe lead.

Clarenceville made only three of 15 basket attempts and muffed on five free throw tries. Overall in the game, the Trojans failed on 12 of 20 charities.

West Bloomfield led, 16-14, after one quarter and 32-21 at halftime. Clarenceville had a 10-9 advantage in the third period and held sway, 17-13, in the fourth period. But it was too late.

Only Chris Hawkins scored in double figures for Clarenceville, collecting 19 points on nine baskets and one free throw.

Dave Wilson was next with six points while Ron Ray had five, and Fred Neal, Chris Watkins and John McClorey four each.

Ted LaPratte had 17 and Tim Moller 16 for high-flying West Bloomfield.

Clarenceville's reserves pulled out a 57-46 win with Bob Duman tossing in 25 points.

Tigers Plan 3 Big Days For Kids

A youngster could get a good start toward a baseball outfit at no cost by visiting Tiger Stadium in 1966.

Bat, ball and cap—they all can be his or hers, without charge, as the Tigers stage their third annual Free Bat Day on Sunday, May 29; their second Free Ball Day on Sunday, July 3; and their first Free Cap Day on Sunday, August 7.

The bats, balls and caps will be given away on the dates listed, with the compliments of the Tigers, to each boy or girl 14 or under entering the stadium on a full paid admission—whether it is box seat, reserved, general admission or bleacher.

All three dates will be attractive for the fans, with the Tigers playing the California Angels on Free Bat Day, the Kansas City Athletics on Free Ball Day and the Boston Red Sox on Free Cap Day.

Just to make it easier, tickets for all three events can be purchased at one time in advance by mail. Orders should be addressed to: Ticket Department, Tiger Stadium, Detroit, 48216, indicating the number and price of tickets desired for each event.

U-M Cagers Face Battle From Gophers

Ann Arbor — with three straight conference victories under their belts, Michigan's basketball team faces a major hurdle in defense of its Big Ten title Saturday when it entertains the powerful Gophers from Minnesota.

The Wolverines have dumped Ohio State, Indiana and Northwestern in that order with All-American Cazzie Russell providing the big spark against NU when he dumped in 39 points.

Michigan battles Minnesota at home and then travels to Wisconsin on Jan. 29 to round out the January competition. Currently the Wolverines are 9-4 overall and 3-0 in the conference.

Russell, generally rated as the greatest of all U-M cagers, is leading the offense with an average of more than 30 points per game. He had 32 against Ohio State, 27 in the Indiana game and 39 at Evanston.

Second to Cazzie is Forward John Clawson with a 14.7 average in the 13 games.

Tom Janaulis, the only veteran to survive the battle of the books at Schoolcraft, had 14 points against Ford and 16 against Kellogg.

Schoolcraft was to invade Delta College this Tuesday and next Tuesday will engage Grand Rapids at Plymouth High, one of the many "home" gyms Schoolcraft uses.

Wally Roberts GOING UP 'CURTAIN'

Man's relationship to his ultimate destiny and whether or not the "hereafter" really contains life after death are examined in a mind-stretching drama entitled "Tiny Alice." The William Ball production of the provocative Edward Albee play had its midwest premiere at the Lydia Mendelsohn Theater in Ann Arbor last week.

"Tiny Alice" was presented by the University of Michigan Professional Theater Program under the direction of Robert C. Schmitzer. Schmitzer is to be highly complimented for arranging for the visit of the American Conservatory Theater. Old Wally is looking forward to all the productions that this highly talented group will be presenting in Ann Arbor for the next four weeks.

During its entire Broadway run, "Tiny Alice" stirred far more controversy than the civil rights movement and the Viet Nam War put together. And rightly so. You don't question or critically examine man's relationship to his Jehovah, his Lord, or his God.

Not too many playwrights have been brave enough to spend an entire evening stating their deep-felt convictions about the Church, false illusions needed to suffer the minute of life, the closeness of religious ecstasy and sexual hysteria, and man's need to create a God in his own image to be comfortable enough to worship.

"Tiny Alice" does not offer anything in the way of a solution. Albee tears down and never offers anything constructive. Old Wally is waiting for the day that Albee must see some good in man's dependence on faith, hope, and charity.

William Ball's production of "Tiny Alice" is miles apart from the Broadway version. On Broadway Alan Schneider directed the show as a mysterious drawing room comedy along the lines of T. S. Eliot's "The Cocktail Party". In Ann Arbor, Ball's directorial concept of "Tiny Alice" accurately matches the savagery of the dialogue.

Director Ball keeps the action swirling about the stage to parallel the fierce intensity and emotional nature of the play's subject matter under discussion.

The American Conservatory Theater actors for the most part are professional members of Actors Equity. These talented professionals are with American Conservatory Theater group to expand their artistic horizons. Under a truly magnificent director such as Ball such creative horizons will be reached.

Paul Shenar as Julian, the lay brother who is so confused and mixed-up about life, shows great power and promise. His long, difficult role is given great depth and understanding.

Anthony Teague (last seen at the Fisher in "110 in the Shade") gave the role of Butler new dimensions. His precise, deft manner of interpretation and movement added real excitement to this "thinking man's play." Ray Reinhardt, Harry Frazier, DeAnn Mears complete a brilliant cast.

THOSE MAGNIFICENT MEN in Their Flying Machines starts a fifth week at the Livonia Cinema Theatre today. Stuart Whitman, Srah Miles, Terry Thomas and Red Skelton star in the comedy.

Classes for Teenagers Underway at YWCA

The Teenage Department of the Northwest YWCA will be offering skill, classes in Life Saving, Ballet and Skiing in the Winter Term beginning Jan. 15.

Junior and Senior Life Saving classes will be offered for boys and girls over 12 years of age by the Northwest Branch YWCA beginning Jan. 15 for a 10 week term.

Ski Instruction Classes for Teens will start Wednesday, Jan. 19, at 7 p.m., and will be open to adventurous guys and gals from 13 thru 17 years of age. A certified Ski Instructor will teach the four sessions, two to be held indoors at the YWCA Branch building and the last two at Pine Knob Ski area.

Ballet and Creative Dance will be offered for junior and teenage girls at the Branch building. Mrs. Agnes Prentice will be the instructor. Mrs. Prentice is well known in the Detroit dance world, being a member of the Cecchetti Council of America, the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing, London, England, The Scottish Official Board of Highland Dancers and she has her own School of Dance.

Creative Dance for girls six thru 12 will be held on Thursday afternoons from 4 to 5 p.m. This is a ten week term. This class is designed to help teach the youngster to move more freely and rhythmically and to learn to express an idea in movement.

Further information on these programs may be obtained by calling Northwest YWCA at KE 7-8500.

Comedy Opens

The two act musical comedy "Where's Charley" will be presented Jan. 26 through Jan. 29 at the Garden City High School all-school production. Curtain time is 8 p.m. at the West High School.

Appearing in leading roles are Marjorie Bridge and Diana Munch. The story features graduation week at Oxford University and when Charley's aunt doesn't arrive to chaperone his parties, the fun begins.

Movies are better than ever—thanks to television. ABC has announced a new $10.5 million dollar deal with seven Arts production. The package which will start in September contains 24 to 30 top-flight features from 20th Century and it includes "Can Can", "The Young Lions", "Move Over Darling", "Take Her She's Mine" and other recent vintage footage.

Meanwhile, CBS which currently has the top-rated feature film show on TV, the Thursday Night Movie, is expanding next year and adding the CBS Friday Night Movie. "I Spy" has finally been sold to Japanese TV after meeting some resistance by Japanese TV executives. Much of the series was shot in Japan but that's what caused the resistance. It seems that there is much local apprehension of American productions representing Japan. Many have turned out offensive or ridiculous as far as Japanese sentiments are concerned.

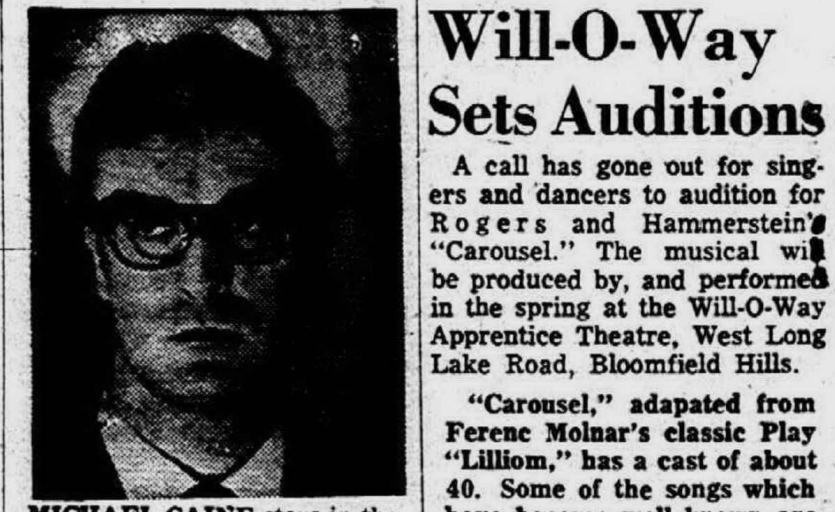

Several of the "I Sky" shows had to be edited and altered before the series was sold to the Nippon Network which feeds Japans TV sets. 007 — James Bond may meet with tremendous success against the Reds in Ian Fleming's books but the film version has run into a snag.

After the latest celluloid smasher, "Thunderball", opened to capacity crowds in West Germany, East Germany moved quickly to ban Agent 007 as a "dangerous fascist influence."

embodying the wrong ideals of the western world" and are pleading with true-blue Reds to shun the screen smash. Meanwhile Bond and his bevy of beauties cry all the way to the vault as the film plays to record crowds around the world.

Sean Connery, who makes James Bond a screen reality may soon meet with competition from none other than — James Bond. United Artists, which produces the 007 films which star Connery does not have the rights to all of the books in the series. Ian Fleming sold rights to a few of the Bond books to another film production company. One of these, "Casino Royale" is currently being made in Europe with Peter Sellers, David Niven, and Ursula Andress in the cast. Peter Sellers as James Bond? Never happen.

The Rolling Stones may now be able to afford haircuts. They managed to take back to Britain a cool $2 million after their recent U.S. tour. And they still "can't get no satisfaction"?

MICHAEL CAINE stars in the suspense drama of international espionage "The Ipcress File" now showing at the P&A Theatre, Algiers Drive-In and State-Wayne.

To Appear in Concert Redford Township residents, Stuart Skog of 18249 Wakenden and William Watt of 25433 Southwick, will sing in the annual Winter Concert of the Men's Glee Club of Wayne State University Jan. 28 at Ford Auditorium. The free concert begins at 8:30 p.m.

A Tame 'Tempest' But Wild 'She Stoops'

By WALLY ROBERTS

A little praise does much to ease the pain of adverse criticism. For this reason old Wally will consider "She Stoops To Conquer" which opened after "The Tempest" as the first item on the critical agenda.

The Hilberry Classic Theatre has a real winner in Goldsmith's "She Stoops To Conquer." Director Robert Hazard has utilized the open stage of the Hilberry Classic to great advantage: his 18th century characters bounce, and be-sit themselves in ever-changing patterns; Hazard has caught the comic concept of Goldsmith's script; Oliver Goldsmith wrote the play in 1773 as a protest of all the unabashed sentimental bosh in print at the time and "Stoops" in 1966 still is a real rib-tickler.

"She Stoops To Conquer" swoops down on the audience in the person of Tony Lumpkin (Fred Cahall) from the opening moment and his frantic comic gyrations keep everyone in a hilarious state throughout the play. Cahall heads up an excellent cast of Hilberry veterans. Helen Scarlett and William Hezlep delineated their roles magnificently. Newcomer Pierrino Masciarino as Young Marlow was superb. Marilyn Petroff, Paul Stelarsky, Jeff Tamber, Ingrid Sonnichsen, and Ellen Varian are also new this year to the Classic theatre. They are welcome, versatile 1966 additions loaded with talent.

Don't miss this Classic presentation. It's loads of fun. "The Tempest" which premiered Jan. 12 officially opened the third Classic season. Director Leone's hurricane opening (it seemed the theater was going to split asunder) did little to set the pace for the Bard's more philosophical fantasy that followed.

Most of the actors seemed to be in a daze and moved and spoke like zombies. Shipwrecked they were, but did such listlessness need to persist throughout the entire play. Even Propere who owns the magical island on which they have landed seemed to be a stern, Moses-like pillar of human rectitude.

"The Tempest" can be loads of fun. It was the next-to-last play that Bill Shakespeare authored. He had a lot to say about the state of the world and man's relations to it. Some lovely lyrical poetry glides through "The Tempest."

Trinculo, Caliban, and Stephans provide this Classic production of "The Tempest" with rare moments of joy. Paul Stolarsky, Jeff Tamber, and David Meneghel give these Shakespearean characters spirit and life. While Albert Sanders playing an airy spirit pestures and poses so artificially that you'd like to get the ancient hook and drag him off screaming into the wings.

As I indicated earlier it was an unusual pair of offerings this week at the Hilberry Classic Theatre. "The Tempest" was a tame, only occasionally bright production; "She Stoops To Conquer" bent Wally's way and captured my hardened critic's heart.

Mission Church Pioneering Symbol

By Jerry Wendt

"All I needed was a sign on the top of the car saying 'Traveling Evangelist'" laughed the Rev. Carl A. Gundersen as he described his first Sunday at which he conducted the mission church. Along with the other duties, the minister of the mission church must transport all the impediments for the church service both to and from the place of worship.

That first Sunday, Rev. Gundersen found himself with his family and all the equipment in the station wagon, resembling the traveling evangelist of old who used to save souls in a scattered populace.

Rev. is representative of the ministers who are beginning mission churches here. As families come to the suburbs, they find the distance back to the former abodes too great and they want their own churches here to minister to their needs. Rev. Gundersen was called by the Presbytery of Detroit to organize a new church and began work in Livonia in November of 1963.

He has been very successful in his mission, and in interviewing him, it is easy to see why. Rev. Gundersen has a quality missing in some of the clergy, a delightful sense of humor. He cheerfully recounts his early struggles in establishing a mission church, and recounts some of the errors in judgment he made.

He estimates he must have rung 5,000 doorbells in three months. Although all the people he met were pleasant, there were surprises in store for him. He fell into the habit of labeling his prospects, and found that some of those he thought would be leaders were apathetic in actual contact and some of those who seemed cool at first, later turned out to be the most dynamic workers.

The Observer asked Rev. Gundersen what he thought was the reason for the success of the mission churches in the suburbs. "Suburbanites are pioneers in a sense," he said thoughtfully. A mission church has no old ties, no outmoded standards. They do not have to conform to the wishes and thoughts of a group of people who have priority rights in the church. They can explore new avenues of thought, take new directions."

"However," he admonished, "its weakness is also its strength. Sometimes the discussions are rather spirited, with everyone becoming rather strong minded about their opinions. Then the minister must become rather an arbitrator."

Discussions led to the naming of the church which will be St. Timothy.

It is impossible to talk to Rev. Gundersen without becoming enthused about the new church. His hard work and prayers have borne fruit, and after two years of meeting in other members homes, schools, etc., a new church will be built this year on Newburgh Rd. between Five and Six Mile Rds. in Livonia.

Rev. Gundersen will miss the meetings in the members homes. "It gave us a feeling of closeness and unity and I hope we will be able to keep," he said.

In addition to founding the mission church, he is president of the Ministerial Association in Livonia and vice-president of the Human Relations Group. Prior to his arrival in Livonia, he served as Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Providence, R.I., for six years.

He was moderator, during that period for the Presbytery of Providence and vice-president of the Rhode Island State Council of Churches in addition to many other responsibilities and committee chairmanships in the Presbytery, Synod and community at large. Rev. Gundersen has degrees from Wheaton College (A.B.), the University of Illinois (M.A.) and from Princeton Theological Seminary (B.D.).

Negro Life Is Topic

Arthur Reese, a representative of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, will speak at the Jan. 20 meeting of the Farmington Human Relations Council. The session will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the Trinity Episcopal Church.

ELBERT R. SLAUGHTER

Texas Christian Scientist Comes To Plymouth

"Who Shall Separate Us?" is the title of a Christian Science public lecture coming to Plymouth on Sunday, Jan. 30.

Elbert R. Slaughter, C.S., will be the speaker, under sponsorship of First Church of Christ, Scientist. His lecture is described as an exploration of the spiritual forces which unify men's lives, with each other and with God.

The event begins at 4 p.m. in the church edifice, 1100 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

Slaughter is from Dallas, Texas, and attended Southern Methodist University. Once a lumberman and vice president of a savings and loan association, he resigned from business in 1945 to devote full time to the Christian Science healing practice. He is currently on tour as a member of the Board of Lecturers of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

of the denomination governing bodies, the Rev. Carl Gundersen, new president of the Livonia Ministerial Association, will bring greetings to the congregation.

Father and Son Banquet Feb. 16 At Livonia Church

Nativity United Church of Christ, 9435 Henry Ruff Rd., Livonia, is having its first annual Father and Son Spaghetti Dinner, at 6:30 p.m., on Wednesday, Feb. 16.

Guest speaker will be a representative of the Detroit Tiger Baseball Club. Make reservations following the Worship Service on Sunday or by calling Mrs. E. Cann, GA 1-4921.

THE ST. JOHN BOSCO Altar Society has launched 1966 with Mrs. Frank Schank as new president. Mrs. Schank has asked the people of St. John Bosco to clean out their attics, garages and basements so that they might donate any broken toys, furniture or anything that can be repaired. The items are separated into groups then given to the Teen-agers, Senior Citizens, and Ladies Circles or just plain volunteers to put in working order and then they are taken to needy children's homes, institutions and mental homes. Seated (left to right): Mrs. David Markosky, Mrs. Daniel Cavuto and Mrs. William LaFerle. These ladies are members of Mary Queen of Peace Circle and have volunteered to help with this project.

Nature of God Subject In Christian Science Churches

The nature of God as "Truth" will be the subject of the service in all Christian Science churches this week. Scriptural readings will include the Psalmist's prayer: "Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me." Paralleling the Bible passages will be references from the denomination's textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including—"Let there be Light," is the perpetual demand of Truth and Love, changing chaos into order and discord into the music of the spheres." PRODUCING A PLAY is a family affair for members of St. Timothy's Church. Rehearsing for "The Faith Hawks" are members of the Arturs family of Livonia. Multiple Family Housing Seen As Trend in 1980

The era of the four-bedroom home on a large lot with lots of play space for the children is fading into the background. Michigan State University housing specialist predict that by 1980 most people will be living in medium and high rise apartment buildings in "high density" areas. Single family homes probably will be built only in rural and outer suburban areas.

Ultimately, even farm homesteads may be replaced by manufactured homes which can be assembled on the site. This will be necessary because local people are rapidly losing such skills and urban workers prefer not to go into the outlying areas.

These predictions are part of MSU's "Project 80," a futuristic look at Michigan's rural potential in 1980.

Rural areas will see another new source of housing as mobile homes continue to grow in popularity. Already, attractive rural trailer parks are becoming common. The specialists point out that mobile homes are often preferred by the retired, newlyweds, and married college students. Young couples and hired farm labor who want to live near the home farm also favor the versatile house trailer.

The rash of private pools will be halted, say the specialists. Public pools will be built in an effort to conserve water.

Where yards are large enough, there will be more landscape construction and maintenance. People with more money and more leisure time will take the opportunity to carry on "do-it-yourself" projects or to hire someone to do it for them.

New homes financed by the Farmer's Home Administration are the kind of homes rural families of low and moderate incomes want. Typically they are one-story, three-bedroom homes with 1,200 square feet of living space. The average cost in 1962 was about $11,000.

Little change is expected in the size of the existing farm housing supply in the next few years, but there may be a few shifts. Some city workers may move into the rural areas and take over some of the better housing vacated by present rural non-farm families who are expected to move back to the city for education, services and lower maintenance costs. There will also be a continuing out-migration of young people.

Rising incomes, especially at the lower end of the scale and the drive for better Negro housing will permit some of the sub-standard housing to be dropped.

However, even with the rising incomes there may not be much improvement in housing. New housing can be delayed and more money may mean that a new automobile and many other consumer goods get first priority.

Offer Tips on Care of Poinsettias

Now that you have received a poinsettia plant for Christmas how do you take care of it? When the leaves fall is there any way of keeping it until next year or should you just throw it away?

Answers to these questions and many others concerning the poinsettia are found in a new bulletin just made available at Michigan State University, according to Don Juchartz of the Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service.

"There are several things a homeowner can do to prolong the useful life of a beautiful poinsettia plant," Juchartz emphasizes. "Just realizing that the plant has been grown in a much more humid greenhouse than the average home gives a clue as to the amount of moisture a plant needs.

"The most common question we receive from homeowners about poinsettias concerns making the plant "bloom" again for next Christmas. This involves keeping the plant in the darkness every night from October until most of the color shows in December. All of these care procedures are spelled out in this new poinsettia bulletin.

If you are interested in receiving this new bulletin send your name, address and 10 cents in coin to the Bulletin Office, Agricultural Hall, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Mich., and ask for Extension Bulletin 511, "Poinsettias—Care and Handling."

Follow These Rules In Packing for Move

There are two ways to ease your packing chores in preparing for a household move:

(A) Turn the entire packing job over to the mover.

(B) Employ the same techniques used by the professional movers.

Of course, it's not always possible to order the complete packing services that major moving companies offer. Budget limitations may not permit it.

However, you will want to inquire about this service. Perhaps you can arrange to have the mover handle part of the packing, that of your dishes and other breakables. You will want to consider this particularly if the move is long-distance. It's worth it in terms of the time and worry it will save you.

If you are going to do all or some of your own packing, however, here are some suggestions from the packing experts of a leading mover of household goods:

1. Use sturdy boxes or cartons, preferably those with the tops intact.
2. Pack all containers as compactly as possible. Use plenty of shredded or crumpled newspaper to fill all voids and to prevent individual articles from shifting about in the container.
3. Place heaviest—not necessarily the largest—articles along the bottom of the box.
4. Try to group articles from the room in the same carton. Likewise with sets or pairs of articles, or parts of a single unit.
5. Distribute heavier articles among several cartons. Don't pack them all in the same box.
6. Limit the weight of each carton to about 50 pounds.
7. Label each packing carton as to contents. Close and seal the cartons and apply "fragile" stickers on cartons containing breakables.
8. Don't pack articles into dresser and furniture drawers. Articles normally stored in dresser drawers usually can be left intact for the move. However, don't add any weight. If in doubt whether a particular furniture piece should be emptied of its contents, consult the mover.

9. To make your packing easier, use a kitchen cart as a mobile packing table. Many of these carts are large enough to hold two medium size packing boxes, and have another shelf for storage of your packing materials.

Use of a mobile packing cart eliminates a lot of lifting. Boxes can be packed while resting on the cart, then rolled away to your "staging" area or wherever you're collecting the various cartons which are filled and ready to move.

10. Most important of all, do a little packing at a time over a long period of time. Don't try to do all the work in one day. Many seasonal items and seldom-used articles can be packed weeks in advance of a move.

By doing a little each day, leading up to the day of the move, you will avoid last-minute panic and the carelessness that goes with hurried packing.

Plate Glass Co. Opens Center in Livonia

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company has announced its new paint center at 33650 W. Five Mile Road has been open to the public since Monday, Jan. 10.

Erven O. Krasemann, recently-appointed manager, reported the paint center is stocked with wallpaper, painters' supplies and a complete line of interior and exterior paints for residential, commercial, industrial and contractor uses.

He said that custom color mixing enabling customers to blend accurately any one of over 1,000 modern decorator hues in seconds would be available here. A formal opening featuring special events is scheduled for a later date.

PPG's newest paint center is under the supervision of its district headquarters in Detroit. The Pittsburgh-based firm is a leading manufacturer and distributor of flat glass, fiber glass, chemical, paint and brush products.

Krasemann has been associated with PPG since joining the firm's Milwaukee paint division as a laboratory technician in 1952. He served in PPG's Detroit district headquarters as a painter-maintenance sales representative since 1957 until his recent appointment as paint center manager here.

A native of Milwaukee, Krasemann resides with his wife and two children at 42220 Brentwood Drive in Plymouth. He attended the Milwaukee branch of the University of Wisconsin where he studied music and he presently is a member of the Detroit Federation of Musicians.

Tells Why Remodeling Hikes Values

An increase in home remodeling has been forecast by Sanford R. Goodkin, market research analyst.

"Dollar for dollar, an older home, remodeled, may offer more square footage and more land under it," Goodkin said in a speech to builders. Some of his reasons:

Building costs are up. He said the builder is "fighting desperately to keep his own costs under $10 per square foot, even in the lower price ranges."

Homes Near Work

Money is plentiful for remodeling homes, and he pointed out in many cases it is easier on the family pocketbook to refinance the present home than buy a new one.

Also, designer-styled changes are now available from firms using better construction techniques.

Obviously, he added, many older homes are located nearer work, schools previously attended and established recreational facilities.

Additional reasons for remodeling an older home were advanced by John Concord, housing consultant to Masonite Corporation. He said:

Self-Help Saves

"The home owner can put in some of his own labor to save on remodeling. Much interior work can be done professionally by the amateur, using factory-finished paneling such as wood-grained Royalcote and Marbletone. Hardboard panels have excellent appearance, durability and low-maintenance.

"Even in room additions, the home craftsman can save by finishing the shell constructed by professional carpenters. Professional carpenters. Hardboard sidings are available prefinished or primed and they can be installed just as readily as interior panels."

All the wood in a house costs only 19c out of every dollar spent for construction, according to the U.S. Labor Department.

No-Shine Penter Shines After Polish

Times — and pewter — have changed! While antique pewter darkened because it contained lead, modern pewter — made without lead — is tarnish-resistant and never needs to be polished.

Whether its finish is bright, a soft satin sheen, or somewhere between these two extremes, pewter requires only washing with hot soap or detergent suds and hot rinse water followed by drying with a soft cloth.

Board Walls Adds To Resale Value

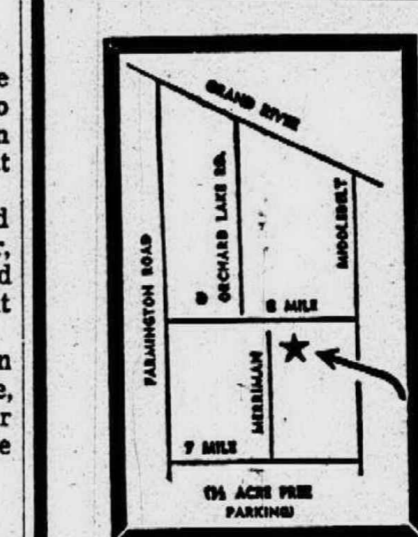

A paneled wall or two in the living room adds far more to the resale value of a home than the cost, realty salesmen point out.

Solid wood paneling, finished to show natural grain and color, catches the eye instantly, and is sure to draw comments about its warmth and beauty.

Champagne-hued western hemlock or ponderosa pine, available in widths from four to 12 inches, are handsome choices.

Beautiful Breakfast

Add a touch of elegance to a tiny breakfast nook with wainscoting of V-joint ponderosa pine boards. Stain the pine with color to match kitchen counter-tops, or finish it with clear plastic lacquer.

TROUBLE ON TROUBLE. That's what workers for the Plymouth Department of Public Works are thinking these days. A crew is shown in knee deep mud and water repairing the most recent 10-inch water main break near the comfort station in Cass Benton Park. The huge hole shows how much work was involved in stopping the leak.

Long Night for Council

This is in addition to the Wilcox property on Penniman Avenue which appraisals are being taken to see what value would be placed on the land.
It was the first time that the Council actually came out in the open with some idea of its thoughts for the proposed high rise building.
Commissioners James Jabara and James McKeon indicated it was their recommendation that the discussion of water with the Detroit Water Board be placed on the agenda.

"I feel it is wise that we reappoint a committee to meet with the Detroit Water Board and see what can be accomplished towards an agreement since the completion of the new reservoir," he said.

McKeon wondered if the citizens of Plymouth are satisfied with the present water and with the costs since most everyone is using softeners.

"I feel we should have the City manager sit down with representatives of the Detroit Water Board and get its feelings," he said. "I would like to know whether the quality of our water is a problem or not."

Commissioner Arch Vallier, who has been an opponent of negotiations with Detroit for the past three years, reiterated his previous stand that a poll should be made of the water users on the question of Detroit water.

"I made a suggestion three years ago that we attach a ballot to each of the water bills and ask users to send it back to the Commission for study," Vallier said. "I still think it would be a good idea to get the opinion of the users and this is the best way to do it."

After considerable debate, Commissioner Lawton made a motion that a water study committee be appointed to study the situation and report back to the Council. He also included that no contacts be made with the City of Detroit until the Commission had an opportunity to review the situation. His motion received unanimous support from the Commissioners.

City Manager Richard Blodgett told the Commission that he had rescinded the contract with J & H Trucking for operation of the refuse site when he discovered evidence of unauthorized dumping.
He recommended a 90-day contract with Sheldon Hayes with the option of purchase and received approval from the Commission.

The matter of disposing of the water tower land on Church Street developed into another lengthy argument over disposal of the landlocked acreage.

Rev. Henry Walch headed a representation from the Presbyterian Church which is anxious to acquire the land as an addition to its parking lot.

Rev. Walch told how the church had voluntarily given up land on the Main Street side so that an alley would be available for the Gould Dry Cleaners.

"If the church hadn't done this and extended its fence to the end of its property, there wouldn't have been room for the alley. With that in mind we request the Commission to give us consideration in purchasing the water tower land as an addition to our present parking facilities."

On a motion by Commissioner Lawton, the Commission authorized the City Manager to order two appraisals taken on the property to determine a value and report back to the Council after which it will authorize Blodgett to advertise for bids.

Ralph Lorenz, owner of the Mayflower Hotel, made a verbal request for the Commission to consider vacating Maple Street from Main to Deer so that he could go forward with his plans for a motel in that vicinity.

Lorenz told the Commission that he owned eight of the nine properties involved.

The Commission ordered a public hearing on the request for Feb. 21 and also ordered a public hearing on the proposed amendment in regard to parking under the PR zoning.

On a recommendation of Commissioner Lawton, the Council directed Mayor James Houk to reactivate the Parking Committee with a request that it meet at least every two months.

Commissioner Vallier requested the Mayor to direct Engineer Stan Besse to make a study of all lots and list one on each sheet, telling whether it is city owned, city leased or individually owned with the terms of contract and prices paid for each.

"Y" Names

the guidance of Jay Leavenworth, chief of the Y-Indian Guide.

The Chip, a teen center in the old community building, is finally starting to take hold after a full year of operation. Jim Elias, a member of the Plymouth High football team last fall, is Chip president.

The complete "Y" board includes: President George Lawton; Eugene Crosby, first vice president; John Hoben, second vice president; Mrs. Sanford Burr, secretary; Mrs. H. L. DeMeritt, treasurer; and Kenneth Leader, Indian Guide representative.

Directors are: Gregory Dean, Jay Hanna, Mrs. Wendell Lent, Carl Schultheiss, David Wood, Donald Sutherland, Carroll Munshaw, Rev. Hugh White, Harold Guenther, Ray Hulce, Miss Ruth Eriksson, Mrs. H. Jensen and Kal Jabara.

Approve Street Lights Along Five Mile Road

The Plymouth Township Board has approved two additional street lights in the vicinity of Lake Pointe Village subdivision.

Acting on request of property owners in the area and on an inspection report of Clerk C. Veach Sparks, the Board approved street lights at Farmbrook and Five Mile and Thornbridge and Five Mile.

MAY REVISE SERVICE DIRECTOR PAY

Plymouth Twp. Still Minus Candidates for New Post

Plymouth Township's Trustees may have to revise their sights, especially the minimum salary figure, of $7,500, if they hope to fill the newly created post of Director of Public Services in the near future.

That was the general opinion of the seven-member board following an executive session a week ago in which it invited three leading law enforcement officers to appear before it for discussions of the requirements for the position and what each thought would be necessary for the job.

The trio included: Alvin Royal, retired Eorose police chief; Sgt. Michael Sibal, who recently retired from the State Police; and Plymouth Police Chief Kenneth Fisher.

Actually none was a candidate for the position but the Board felt there was a chance that a candidate could come from the trio.

Each explained his idea of what the Director of Public Services should do and what his powers should be.

Then Tuesday the Trustees learned that none was available. Royal and Sibal took positions elsewhere at a much higher starting salary. Fisher had appeared only on invitation. He still has more than a year to go before becoming eligible for retirement under the City of Plymouth plan and indicated he was happy with his present dual capacity of Police Chief and Administrative Aide to the City Manager.

After considerable discussion, the Trustees agreed that they should take action as quickly as possible but stressed the need of interviews with men acquainted with Fire Department procedures since that is the area the Director will take charge of immediately.

A special meeting will be called by Supervisor John McEwen as soon as all additional names are available for interviews.

State Police Commissioner Fredrick Davids, who resides in the Township, has been assisting the Board by furnishing the names of all State Police retirees he feels would adequately fill the position.

Inasmuch as the Director of Public Services also will have the task of enforcing the new Liquor Control Ordinance, the Board tabled action on approval until such time that it has filled the position, Township Clerk C. Veach Sparks was authorized to prepare the ordinance for publication.

400 to Attend Church Inter-Faith Program

More than 400 are expected to attend the second annual Inter-Faith dinner and panel discussion program, sponsored by the Plymouth Ministerial Association, Friday at 6:30 p.m. at Lofy's.

Matter of fact, the committee in charge, headed by Rev. Peter Schweitzer, has set a limit of 400 for the affair which was a tremendous success a year ago.

"We have printed only 400 tickets which are in the hands of the participating churches," said Rev. Schweitzer. "We anticipate that all will be sold and no tickets will be available at the door on the night of the program."

School Supt. Russell Isbister will serve as moderator for the panel which will discuss "The Church and the Community."

The panelists include: John Herb, Sanford Burr, Judge Thomas Foley, Rev. Alfred Renaud, of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church, and Rev. Ronald Phelps, of the Plymouth Training School.

Madonna College Lists Parliamentary Course

Madonna College will offer a non-credit course in Parliamentary Procedures starting Thursday, Feb. 3 from 7:15 to 8:15 p.m. for nine weeks.

Persons interested in becoming an active, articulate, positive member of a group or organization are urged to enroll. The course is aimed to make all familiar with the vocabulary and the methods of proper parliamentary procedures.

Additional information is available by calling Madonna College, 36600 Schoolcraft, Livonia, at 425-8000.

Seniors Compete For Scholarships

By Mary Lou Mangold
Recently, a number of seniors were notified that they had been chosen semifinals in the Competitive Scholarship Test of the Michigan Higher Education Assistance Authority.

They are: Susan Behrend, Gregory Brower, Ruth Brown, Patricia Clinton, Mary Cooney, Davidina Dow, Katherine Francis, Gerald Kaminski, Edward Kamm, Mary Lou Mangold, Eileen Rosemas, Ann Roemer, and Lynda Wilkerson.

The amount of the scholarship awards will be determined by financial need, as shown in the Parents' Confidential Form which each family is obliged to file. Several other students who took the test received letters which congratulated them on their achievement in the examination.

Friday, Jan. 7, was senior dress-up day. Girls were excused from wearing uniforms to school, and boys dressed in suits. The seniors attended Mass in green caps and gowns, reminding them and the underclassmen of how little time is left in this school year.

Already, seniors are making definite plans for their graduation. For instance, they recently chose and ordered commencement announcements—informal cards bearing the school seal and year on the front, the printed announcement inside.

After Mass on Friday, the seniors sold doughnuts, orange juice, and chocolate milk for breakfast. Proceeds from this and future sales will be used to defray the expenses of the senior retreat, to be held on Feb. 1-3 at Mount Mary Reparatrix Convent and at St. Paul's Montgomey.

The sophomore class is sponsoring an informal dance on Friday evening. All St. Agatha students—including freshmen—and the Catechism classes were invited.

The creative writing efforts of several students were entered in the Detroit News Scholastic Writing Contests. Senior Gregory Brower's formal essay, Mary Lou Mangold's poem, sophomore Deborah Voskuil's poem and freshman Jean Mangold's short story were submitted.

The Genesian Club sponsored a sloppy-joe lunch on Wednesday, Jan. 12. Sloppy-joes, cokes, and homemade cookies and cupcakes were offered. Proceeds will be used to finance the Genesian Interpretive Festival entries.

Tryouts for the Genesian Club sponsored one act play, Sorry, Wrong Number, were held at the club meeting on Tuesday after school. The cast will be announced later this week.

Voting for Student of the Month took place on Tuesday. Results will be announced next week.

All students who sold four dollars worth of yearbook ads were rewarded with a movie on Wednesday morning. This year's show was Cinnamon.

Bake Sale Raises Funds For Vietnam

By Lynn Barnett
Barbara Matthews' third hour common learnings held a bake sale in the cafeteria on Wednesday. The purpose was to raise money to purchase articles for men in Viet Nam.

EXCHANGE DAY with Birmingham Groves took place Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 12 and 13.

Thurston students who visited Birmingham High on Wednesday were: Rob Fheniger, Tom Fheniger, Karen Timmons, Beyza Untuna, and Sue Vedder.

Before Birmingham students left Thurston on Thursday, they had several comments to make: They liked the idea of an hour for lunch that Thurston students have, and the freedom they have to walk around and do what they want.

They thought it was great that seniors can go out for lunch. They were impressed by Thurston's advanced swimming and social dance classes, which they do not have at Birmingham.

Thurston's lenient dress code also surprised them.

Seniors began to realize the nearness of graduation on Wednesday, Jan. 12, when they were measured and paid for caps and gowns.

A spectator bus was provided for Thurston students to the basketball game against North Farmington, Friday, Jan. 14. After the game Thurston students were invited to attend Farmington's mixer.

Bentley Ski Club Sets Out For Slopes

By Sue Dowell

Bentley students aren't going to waste their time walking in a winter wonderland, but many of them are sure going to try the art of skiing.

Today, members of Bentley's Ski Club are on their way to their first ski trip of the season. The club consists of around 100 students who are very interested in skiing.

The program gave important information on ski apparel, skis, boots, and poles. Probably the most popular ski resort for students to attend is Mount Holly. That is where many of Bentley's students will slip, fall, and ski.

Anyone is welcome to join the Ski Club. There should be no worry about not having equipment because most of the ski resorts rent them out.

Tragedy Strikes! That is it will for those students who are not beginning to study for their final exams.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week will be the three days that students will take their semester tests. The exams allow for two hours in each class.

Students will take their exams in the following way: tests for first and second hours on Monday; tests for third and fourth hours on Tuesday; and tests for fifth and sixth hours on Wednesday.

Each test score counts toward one-fourth of a final grade. Meaning that the score could make a difference between a higher or lower grade. If this is any consolation, Thursday and Friday of next week there will be no school.

A reminder that there are only three more days to the Junior Prom. Tickets can still be purchased during lunch time for $3. There are great hopes for a big turn out, at such a great dance.

The Senior Faculty game will be held a week from today. Check next week's article for a roster of the players on the girls and boys team. Oh yes, and also a list of a good squad of cheerleaders.

Garden City Ticket Sales Are Spurred

By Karen Slobodnik
West High Reporter

Don't forget the Detroit Symphony Orchestra contest. There is quite a personal initiative involved with this contest. If a student sells three tickets, he will win a ticket to a splash party. If he sells six tickets, he will win a ticket to the upcoming East-West dance. Then if he sells ten tickets, he will receive a $2.00 ticket to the symphony.

The club or class that sells will be awarded their choice of the largest amount of tickets the concessions. The group with the largest amount of tickets sold per person will win the second concession.

West students welcome Mrs. Turshnik back to school after her lengthy stay in the hospital.

Student Government has in the planning stage a dance combining East-West students. This should be a very good chance to improve relationships between schools, and a wonderful evening together before graduation.

Seniors have ordered their caps and gowns. The gowns are charcoal and white.

The fashion show and card party sponsored by the West Athletic Boosters proved to be a huge success. Fashions were provided by Bette's Fashion Shop and the hair styles by GiGi Galore Beauty Salon.

Don't forget the victory dance after the West-Cherry Hill game. The game against Cherry Hill will be at home beginning at 6:30. The dance will be sponsored by Pep Club.

Tryouts for the school musical "The King and I" are being held in the vocal music room after school. There are still parts open and there is a great need for stage hands. Contact Mr. Ainslie or student directors; Jacki Durr and Dale Hardin. Results will be posted later.

Thursday, fourth hour exam at 8-8:50; fifth hour exam at 9-9:50; sixth hour exam at 10-11. Students go home at 11 a.m. No lunches served.

ALTHOUGH Christmas has come and gone, George Applegate, Diane Felt and Harold Burdon are receiving their Christmas bonus for selling the most Christmas cards.

George sold a total of $146.70 and will receive the $10 first prize. Diane sold a $144.45 for second prize of $5 and Harold sold $129.90 for the $2.50 third prize.

The seniors sold Christmas and all occasion cards, wrapping paper and ice balls, from Sept. through to the middle of December, reaching their goal of $6,000. Co-chairmen of the sale were Sue Hulce and Phyllis Barney.

Profits will supply participating seniors with a cap, gown and an annual and will also finance the Senior Prom, banquet and mixer.

Farmington Young Authors To Try Hands

By MADGE HILDEBRANDT

Several Farmington Senior High students have submitted entries to the annual Southeastern Scholastic Writing Awards Contest.

All the entries made by the high school were in the senior division which includes grades 10, 11, and 12. Students who graduate in June, 1965 or January or February, 1966 may also enter, provided their entries were written before graduation.

The literary works of FHS cover a variety of classifications. There were entries in the poetry division, plus two short stories and a few short short stories, a literary essay, a formal essay, and a sketch. There were also five entries in the journalism category. A prerequisite for entering this category is that all entries must have been published in the school paper.

Winners of a key award in the contest will receive a gold achievement key, a certificate, and a dictionary. If a person receives more than one key, he is also presented with a gift selected by the judges.

The sophomore class at FHS is setting a precedent. The class council is adopting a constitution, a procedure never attempted by earlier classes. The junior class has a set of By-Laws, but the sophomore class decided it needed something more definite to use if questions of order arose during the next two and one-half years that the Class of '68 will be at the high school.

The Sophomore Class Council, under the leadership of Marta Norman, is following through on a recommendation made by the Student Council much earlier in the school year. The class' constitution is being designed along the framework of the Student Council Constitution.

SECRETARY-WRITER PART TIME Somewhere west of Telegraph, there must be a gal with strong writing skills who would like a part-time job with a brand new advertising agency. Chances are the woman we're seeking has had advanced courses in English and/or Journalism although it may be that her only claim to writing fame was as editor of the school newspaper. She must be an accurate typist because most of the work will be secretarial but we would gladly trade speed on the typewriter for some ability to write a news release. There are some real advantages for a woman who doesn't want to work full time. She can name her own daytime hours (minimum of 15) and the salary is open. If you know such a person, ask her to call Mr. Klempner at 476-8480.

SECRETARY-WRITER PART TIME Somewhere west of Telegraph, there must be a gal with strong writing skills who would like a part-time job with a brand new advertising agency. Chances are the woman we're seeking has had advanced courses in English and/or Journalism although it may be that her only claim to writing fame was as editor of the school newspaper. She must be an accurate typist because most of the work will be secretarial but we would gladly trade speed on the typewriter for some ability to write a news release. There are some real advantages for a woman who doesn't want to work full time. She can name her own daytime hours (minimum of 15) and the salary is open. If you know such a person, ask her to call Mr. Klempner at 476-8480.

WHEN SELLING YOUR HOME Be Sure TO PRICE IT RIGHT!

ESPECIALLY IN TODAY'S HIGHLY COMPETITIVE MARKET. PRICING YOUR HOME IS A FUNDAMENTAL THAT REALTORS STRESS. THE VALUE OF YOUR HOUSE IS NOT WHAT YOU THINK IT IS, OR THE BUYER THINKS. IT IS DETERMINED CHIEFLY BY THE LOCATION, THE NEIGHBORHOOD AND THE CURRENT MARKET. SO FIRST, YOU MUST GET IN LINE WITH THE MARKET.

That means realistic appraisal. A Realtor can bring in his own "team" of salesmen who will individually price your home, and then reach a fair consensus. If you were to try to price your own home it is almost certain the price you would come up with would be above its market value. Once an overpriced home remains on the market for several months it becomes almost impossible to sell. Homeowners lose their enthusiasm, and prospects wonder what's wrong with the house.

Don't count too heavily on added improvements to determine the price. You may have added $10,000 in improvements to your $20,000 home, but if your neighborhood scale is only $20,000 it is unlikely you will find a buyer willing to spend $30,000.

Pricing and selling your home is not that simple and should be left to the professional, the Realtor. A Realtor will screen your prospects and give your house maximum exposure; he's familiar with market conditions, zoning and financing; and finally he's usually able to command enough more for your house to pay the commission and then some.

Remember, the typical buyer will expect you to knock off the commission for his benefit when you try to sell your home yourself.

Rely On A Realtor
