

Panel to examine church role

"The Church in the Community," a panel discussion by clergy and lay people, will be moderated by Russell Isbister, Superintendent of Schools in Plymouth.

Tickets are available for the second annual Inter-Faith dinner and discussion from each of the ticket chairmen in the participating churches. There will be no tickets sold at the door. Held at Lofty's, the dinner will begin at 7 p.m. this Friday.

The panel is composed of the Rev. Ron Phelps, Wayne County Training School Chaplain, the Rev. Alfred Renaud, Assistant Pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, Judge Thomas J. Foley, Sanford Burr, Dean of Academic Affairs at Southfield High School, and John Herb, American Community Mutual Insurance executive.

Some of the subjects expected to be covered during the evening will be the apparent increase in juvenile problems, the youth with "nothing to do," the competition in society, the failure of the church to communicate meaningfully, the need for church involvement in the practical life of the community and many others.

Reservations should be made immediately since last year's dinner drew over 400 persons.

City names Eugene Slider as new clerk

A twenty-year service veteran and experienced city administrator was named as the

Eugene S. Slider

City of Plymouth's Clerk Monday night.

The Commission approved City Manager Richard Blodgett's appointment of Eugene S. Slider, 45, to replace acting City Clerk Margo Robson, who has held the post since Richard Shafer resigned last fall to go to California.

Slider, who is married and

Name Wendell Smith JC Man of the Year

At ceremonies held Monday evening, Wendell E. Smith was named Plymouth's Outstanding Young Man of the year by the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce.

See Ad. P. A-7 and The Plymouth Pilgrim, P. A-3

Smith was given the honor at the JayCee annual Distinguished Service Award Banquet held at the Hillside Inn. He was selected by a panel of judges made up of community leaders, other service club members and JayCees.

Junior Chamber chapters are normally reluctant to see the DSA award go to a member of their own club; and the Plymouth group is no exception.

BUT SMITH'S record of achievements over the past few years and during the past year, in particular, left no doubt that he was the leading candidate in a group submitted by over 200 local organizations.

The 32-year-old Division Industrial Engineer for The Kroger Co. was given an engraved plaque just before the keynote speaker, Dr. Donald Starr of the Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company, addressed the JayCees and their bosses.

Preceding the presentation, Terry W. West received the first Plymouth JayCee Sound Citizen award ever given. West, of National Bank of Detroit's

Plymouth office, was cited for his outstanding community activity during the past year.

An employee of The Kroger Co. since 1955, Smith has progressed from the position of meat merchandising trainee through co-manager, relief store manager, checker trainee — Jr. Engineering Assistant, a management development assignment at Cornell University, and Industrial Engineer to his present job of Division Industrial Engineer.

Prior to his joining the nationwide food chain, Smith was employed by A & P and worked at various times as a deckhand, postman, production line worker, truck unloader, janitor and bartender.

He was an all-weather interceptor pilot in the U. S. Air Force.

Smith's educational background includes a B.A. degree in economics and mathematics from Michigan State University and an M.S. degree in marketing and economics, food distribution, from Cornell University.

DURING HIS time at Michigan State he was named an outstanding graduate in 1955 — one of the top 55 students as selected by alumni. He was a fraternity president of Phi Kappa Tau, served on the Inter Fraternity Board of Directors, and was President of the President's Association.

In the Air Force, Smith was named a Distinguished Military Graduate, finished second in his pilot graduating class and piloted F-28, T-34, T-33, F-86 and T-104 aircraft.

His community activities in Plymouth include Past Chairman of the Plymouth Community School District Finance Study Committee, President of the Sheltered Workshop for the Adult Retarded for the past two years, 1964 vice chairman of Michigan Week, 1964-65 member of the Plymouth Community Fall Festival Board of Directors, and 1964-65 member of the Citizens' Committee to evaluate a Civic Center and Auditorium.

As a Plymouth JayCee, Smith served as treasurer in 1962-63; was a state Vice President in 1963; served as Plymouth Chapter President in 1964 and, last year, served as chairman of the State JayCee Ways and Means Public Relations committees.

He currently serves as a Michigan JayCee National Director.

THE DSA award is the second outstanding honor accorded the young Plymouthite in the past year. In 1965, he was named the "Boss of the Year" by the Birmingham, Mich. Businessmen (Continued on Page 8)

DETROIT WATER?

To review renewal project, sites for senior housing

Old headaches plagued the City Commission Monday night as the City fathers tackled urban renewal, the site of the senior citizens home, parking, and Detroit water questions.

At a 3½ hour regular meeting of the commission Monday night, they agreed to take action on:

Urban renewal — Commissioner Arch Vallier asked for a report on Bathey Manufacturing's plans for the Mill St. urban renewal land they purchased.

"What are their plans?" he asked. "I think it is a shame to tie up this land long." Commissioner George Hudson took issue with Vallier and commented:

"Right now we have another industry that may have to leave Plymouth because they don't have room to grow. An industry needs land to grow, so if Bathey is to grow right here in Plymouth, they need the land."

But Vallier didn't agree, and noted:

"Read the urban renewal rules; they specify that land can't be held too long on a speculative basis. I want to know what their plans are."

On other action, the City discussed the vacant land near the corner of Mill and Ann Arbor Trail, and determined to query county road officials on possible fixing of the corner for left turn purposes.

City Manager Richard Blodgett is expected to follow up the Commissioners' directives on this issue.

Senior housing — Sites for the senior housing project came before the commission again, and this

DENY WEDLER:

Pose questions on water transfer

The Plymouth Township board denied Robert Wedler's request for commercial rezoning on a corner of Haggerty and Ann Arbor Roads, thus reversing a decision made by the planning commission in November.

Their action came at the regular board meeting last Tuesday night, at which Wedler's request was voted down on the basis that the planning commission had overstepped its own rules.

Originally, Wedler had applied for a C-2 zoning — the more liberal commercial rezoning which permits bowling alleys and bars. With a denial of the request, Wedler was apparently informally told he could re-apply.

The commission hassled over the matter, then, to avoid any question on a statute that provides re-application for a zoning change on any parcel can be made only after a lapse of a year, de-time they agreed to look at three new ones.

The original site, located near Kellogg Park on Union St. and owned by Jack Wilcox, has been appraised and final word on that appraisal is to be presented soon.

However, the City fathers, worried about Wilcox's avowed intention to fight any move to get his property in court if necessary, prompted the commissioners to propose to the Housing Commission three other sites.

THOSE SITES were officially named Monday night as (1) the City owned land behind the Christian Science Church, (2) the North Village or Lowertown area, and (3) the Main St. and Ann Arbor Trail southeast quadrant.

Commissioner George Lawton charged that the Commission "got on a train and then didn't know where it was going."

The City voted 5-2 to recommend the three other sites to the housing commission, with Mayor James Houk and commissioner James Jabara voting "no." Jabara earlier commented on his opinion:

"We decided after three sites were presented to us which one to recommend to the Housing Commission."

"But we changed our mind, just like you change your mind," Vallier countered.

Lawton pointed out that no consideration had ever been given to the elimination of sites, and commissioner Robert Smith noted that at a recent joint meeting with the commission and the housing group the City had made it clear that other sites should be considered.

Houk at this point insisted that the matter was to be held until a final appraisal on the first site (Wilcox's) was in and recorded. Lawton did not agree:

"WHETHER or not there is an appraisal has nothing to do with it. We discussed other sites. What happened to them? I think I was originally opposed to the use of the prime Wilcox land for this purpose."

Subject of Water — The Detroit Water Board also drew considerable discussion from the commissioners, and a new committee will be appointed to reopen negotiations with the Detroit Water Supply Department.

Jabara opened comment: "I think it is wise at this time to re-open negotiations with the Detroit Water Board. I feel we should appoint a committee to meet with them to see what might be done in the future. We have a new reservoir erected — that may give us more independence, more ammunition."

The City also agreed to poll water customers on their likes and dislikes concerning Plymouth water.

Commissioner James McKeon suggested the poll be taken through the water bills.

Vallier agreed, but reserved some doubts about the whole subject. "It is really useless to get Remus (Gerald Remus, Detroit water head) to come to terms. We've talked to Detroit three times. I think there is a big problem in dealing with Detroit. Take the pollution of Lake Erie. Remus has stated

CRITICAL

Mark Walker, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Walker, 41276 Crabtree Court, was critically injured when he was hit by a car while waiting for a school bus on Five Mile Rd. early Tuesday. The accident happened at 7:32 a.m. at Five Mile and Marilyn.

Wayne County Road Patrol officers say the driver of the car, Thomas Olinger of Livonia, is not being held. Olinger told police the boy appeared before him suddenly, as if he got up from the street.

Young Walker was taken to St. Mary Hospital.

Sexy bandit

A sexy thief may be wandering the streets of Plymouth after a break-in last Wednesday morning at Graham's Suburban Casuals, 846 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

Blushing Plymouth Police said a window was smashed at the women's wear store between 7:30 and 9:55 a.m. Wednesday and the following items taken:

Three black brassieres, two black slips, two black slips, four or five pairs of black panties, one black garter belt, a dress and one female form, bronze in color. Loss was in excess of $60.

"If you see anyone dressed in all that stuff, that's the person," Police said.

Set annual family concert for Jan. 23

A selection of folk music will be one of the highlights at the annual Family Concert performed by the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra Sunday afternoon, Jan. 23 in Plymouth High School gymnasium.

Beginning at 4 p.m., the concert is free to everyone and baby sitting service is available.

In order to assist the Dunning-Hough library in enlarging their circulating library, each person is asked to bring one used or new LP record to the concert.

Especially for the youngsters, "Jonathon and the Gingersnare" by Ward will be narrated by Henry Austin, who assisted with this number at the last Family Concert.

The program includes:

New World Symphony, 2nd movement, by Dvorak. Variations on a Cowboy Tune by Efflinger. Winter's Past by Barlow. Espagna Rhapsody by Chabrier. Fantasy on a Theme of Thomas Tallis by Vaughan Williams (with the Ferndale High School Orchestra). Jonathon and the Gingersnare by Ward. Brandenburg Concerto No. 3, 1st movement, by Bach.

YMCA to expand with added staff

A new staff member has been added to the Plymouth Community YMCA, part of the Y's program of expanding services to local youth.

Tony Monte, a student at Eastern Michigan University, and long time right hand man in the PHS adult education and recreation program, will work in all phases of the Y program. He is married and has a young son, Dean.

Presently, he has established a group of junior high boys who meet at the PHS gym on Wednesday nights for exercise and sports.

Monte joined the Y staff shortly before Christmas, and will work hand in hand with Mrs. Eugene Crosby, who directs the YMCA's Youth Employment Office — an office which last year placed 672 people in jobs.

This week, Jan. 16 to Jan. 22, is National YMCA week, and as the week arrives, Y officials reflected on progress made.

ACTIVITIES of the YMCA have included:

• The Indian Guides program, that now boasts 18 tribes, under the general leadership of Jay Leavenworth. For more information, he may be contacted at 453-7654.

• The Chip, or Plymouth's youth center noting increased attendance, and a new decor, is located behind the City Hall.

• The senior Hi-Y program which last year at one point helped raise money for the kidney foundation.

• A graduation party sponsored by the "Y" for the class of 1965; a similar one is being planned for the class of 1966.

• During the summer, a high school guidance teacher conducted a drop-out study on all students who had dropped out over the past three years, under YMCA auspices.

These, and many other programs, have earned the Plymouth YMCA recognition in a United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare book. The book points to the local effort as an outstanding example of what a YMCA can do for youth of the community — youth that have no where else to turn.

And all of this has been done without either the benefit of a building or a full time director.

Further information about the YMCA may be had by calling 453-2904.

Woman of the Year is Mrs. Russell Koepke

Plymouth's Outstanding Woman of the Year, Mrs. Russell (Ruth) Koepke, was presented a distinguished service award Tuesday evening by the Jay-C-Ettes at their dinner meeting at Thunderbird Inn. As part of Jay-C-Ette week, the DSA award is a first for the organization and plans are that it will be an annual event.

A picture of Mrs. Koepke and the presentation will appear in next week's issue of the Plymouth Mail, since the award was presented too late to meet the deadline.

Mrs. Koepke, who has been active in community and church work for many years, lives at 1316 Sheridan Ave. She is the mother of eight children.

As an auxiliary, the Jay-C-Ettes' purpose is to assist the JayCees in their work, but they also have their own community projects.

DURING 1965 their work centered around the Plymouth State Home. Their card party netted $180 which was presented to PSH. They have also sewn clothing for the children, collected toys and bought a record player.

Jay-C-Ette plans for 1966 include a trading stamp drive to buy a bus for the home.

Organized in May, 1962, the Jay-C-Ettes now have 25 members. Their presidents have been Mrs. Douglas Blunk, Mrs. James Garber, Mrs. Maurice Breen, and, presently, Mrs. Roderick Willard. Mrs. Terry West is the State Chairman for Jay-C-Ette week.

"WE JUST LIKED the Plymouth area so much that we wanted to build our home here," says Mrs. Lewis Morton of 9422 Ivanhoe Dr. She added that they had lived in an apartment on the west side of Detroit prior to their move here. Her child Kenneth, 7 months, keeps her busy, but she plans to become a member of the Newcomer's Club. that the cost of treating Detroit sewage will be passed on to suburban water users."

DPW chief, Joe Bida noted that a survey of water softeners in the City had already been made, with a surprisingly low one-third of the 3000 customers using one.

Currently, the City has its own well as source of water.

Parking

On the downtown parking problem, the Commission agreed to name a committee made up of commissioners, after commissioner Lawton noted that the problem was "no longer just a Christmas problem."

Lawton recommended the committee report at least every two months.

Vallier noted that the original parking committee hadn't met for some time and at that they were "discouraged."

While the mayor works on the formation of the committee, City Manager Blodgett was instructed to make a detailed report on the City's parking lots.

In other action, the Commission:

- Tabled for a committee-of-the-whole session next Monday a revision of the parking ordinance as it relates to multiple dwellings.
- Agreed to let Blodgett detail plans for the sale of land cleared by the removal of one of the City's water towers near the Presbyterian church.
- Set a hearing on the vacation of Maple St. from Main to Deer for the building plans of Ralph Lorenz.
- Approved a new sanitary land fill contract for Sheldon G. Hayes to operate the Salem dump site, and cancelled the original contract to J & H trucking.

GETTING AT A source of the fire at a construction trailer at Packaging Corporation of America on Sheldon Rd. last Thursday is Richard Hill, a volunteer on the City of Plymouth's fire department. Hill, whose full time job is with the Ajax Composite Die Co., has been with the department about a year.

Fire chars trailer

Fire caused by a faulty smoke pipe connection did moderate damage to a construction trailer at the Packaging Corporation of America last Wednesday evening.

According to City of Plymouth fire chief George Schoenneman, the stock of a space heater was open near the ceiling, and the fumes from the heater ignited the ceiling.

Firemen had the blaze doused in minutes.

In another fire in the City, firemen are continuing to investigate the cause of a blaze in a garage at 1400 Ross last Thursday about 6:30 p.m.

Damage was light to the garage, attached to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Winterhalter.

The fire started in a box full of Styro-foam and other combustibles near a wall. The family reported hearing a slight "pop" or explosion, and firemen found an aerosol can in the remains.

Hudson's closes deal on two industrial rentals

Two industrial buildings built by Jack Cook and located on Lilley Rd. have been rented, according to Joseph L. Hudson, who closed the deals.

The bigger building — 32,000 square feet — will be rented to the Ford Motor Co. for warehousing purposes. Hudson said Friday he expected very few people to be employed there because the building would be mainly used for storage of pallets, racks and a few parts.

The smaller building — 16,000 square feet — has been rented to Plymouth Stamping by Hudson's real estate firm.

Elvin Taylor, top executive at Stamping, said Monday the plant would house an already existing portion of their industrial operation.

"Actually, it's a section of our existing business — the special machine section. The move merely helps us meet a rather pressing need for floor space, Taylor said.

Cook, who is an executive with National Concrete Products on Lilley Rd., built the buildings on a speculative basis. Construction by the Seymour Wiseman Co. began about four months ago.

"We were real happy to put the two deals together, both at about the same time," Hudson said.

Grass roots idea

The Community Opportunity Center for the mentally retarded adults of Livonia, Northville, Plymouth and Redford, held an open house Sunday, marking its first few months of successful operation.

The center, operating in a building on Newburgh Rd. given to the group by a generous Livonia School Board is designed as a sheltered workshop for those mentally retarded adults who are trainable.

At the end of the month, the workshop will place its first trainee in a Plymouth industry. The man involved was able to meet the standards set by the industry, and will go from a useless, listless home life into the productive life of a wage-earner — a step for the betterment of the individual and the community.

The organization has had the support of a Plymouth church, several Plymouth industries, several Plymouth service clubs, and extensive support from the other communities.

The Center has provided a sheltered work situation where basic skills are learned: personal appearance, punching in and out, following directions, person to person relationships and simple manual skills.

Thanks to the efforts of the director, Earnest Moran of Plymouth, and the board of directors, the workshop has been able to clear enough to meet expenses.

The shop obtains contracts for industry for jobs, such as simple packaging, assembly or product checking operations. They are the hundreds of tasks industry calls "nuisance" jobs.

Then, in the sheltered situation, the workers are aided and trained by a qualified director.

As a project, its one of the few in the State.

A part of the work began several months ago at a townhall held here in Plymouth. With a push from members of the local JayCee club, the workshop got off the ground.

Now the Newburgh Rd. Opportunity Center is open and functioning.

The next steps:

- More full time help.
- Volunteer office help.
- Expanded work force.
- Support from the United Fund, or Community Fund.

The truly grassroots movement is expected to someday help take the load off the institutions.

The workshop and its backers are to be saluted for accomplishing on the local level what has been needed for years — and doing it before a gigantic federal program was formed to do the same thing.

Beware

The recent attacks on young teenage girls in Plymouth hopefully may have shocked Plymouthites into awareness of a few simple rules about their children.

- Instruct your child to never accept rides from strangers.
- Know where they are at all times.
- If they must walk to school early in the morning when its dark, let them walk in groups.
- Know what time they should get home after school; the youngest ones should have transportation, or an older brother or sister to walk with.
- Report any incidents to the police.

The recent early morning attacks may have been isolated incidents, and may not occur again for several years.

But letting a 12-year-old girl walk to school alone at 7 in the morning is only inviting trouble.

Deny Shopping center rezoning

neighborhood unit plan, how can we turn around and set a precedent by creating even more commercial acreage."

Trustee Gene Overholt said he did not like the lack of a one-year time lapse, and pointed to a recent decision on Mrs. Julia Magnona's request for re-consideration.

"The planning commission suggested a C-1," said Wedler. "That's not their function," Lauterbach replied. At that point the trustees voted to reverse the planner's rezoning and deny the request.

In other action, Township treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes posed three questions about the proposed transfer of City of Plymouth water lines over to the Township, particularly lines that service Plymouth Colony just west of Sheldon Rd. between Ann Arbor Road and the Trail. The questions:

- Can municipalities buy and sell water lines?
  - Can Township residents subsidize buying of other customers through the water department making payments to the City?
  - Do Township residents who use City water need to help retire debts of the City mains?
- Those questions were posed to new interim Township attorney, Ralph Cole, a Salem Township lawyer and justice of the peace.
- The action came after review of a report on the 169 Township residents who are served by City water — the only water users that must face a rate one and one-half the times normal.
- The Board also:
- Agreed to continue to interview candidates for the post of Township public service director.
  - Agreed to take the next steps in making sewer lines available for a proposed multi-million dollar food warehouse on a site along Haggerty Road south of Ann Arbor Rd.

- Adopted for publication a swimming pool ordinance.
- Tabled a request from the Western Wayne County Conservation Club for a transfer of a liquor license, pending word on court action affecting the Club.

In final action, the Board discussed the need for a $2500 bond to be posted for the portion of Haggerty Rd. affected by the location of the new food warehouse.

It was agreed to hold a special meeting later in the week, a meeting Harold Fischer, Plymouth Area Planning Commission director said was fruitful.

The bond, Fischer indicated, was to be posted, and that was the last stepping stone to the final agreement on the sale of the 30 acres of land involved for the warehouse.

While this has not normally been the kind of offering that gushes at great length about the accomplishments of deserving individuals, I would seek your indulgence for a moment to comment on a Distinguished Service Award and its recipient.

The DSA award, of course, was handed out Monday night by Plymouth JayCees; and the receiver was Wendell Smith.

Now there may be curmudgeons in our midst who would look askance at the Junior Chamber for citing one of their own for distinguished service to the community.

But I would hasten to point out that if, in reality, an award of this type can be earned, Wendell Smith earned it before now.

Any criticism of the JayCees, if one were so inclined, might better be directed at the fact that they have waited this long to recognize a man whose deeds are appropriate recognition in themselves.

Anyone who knows Smith realizes that he puts substantially more than 40 hours a week into his career at The Kroger Co. But he still found time to serve on a group whose task was thankless to the extent that its mission ultimately was to recommend passage of a 3.25 mill referendum for school operating funds.

Take this past year, for instance. When the Plymouth Community School District appointed a group of citizens to make recommendations on financing, it was Wendell Smith who eventually chaired the committee.

If that weren't enough, he served on a task force to investigate the possibility of a community civic center and auditorium — an unrewarding assignment if only because the school board has been unable to find time to comment on the matter since submission of the report last July.

"We'll study it," the school board promised; and that, for all practical purposes, has been that.

Wendell Smith's greatest amour, however, has been with the Sheltered Workshop — a sincere and honest attempt on the part of a dedicated nucleus of local citizens to skirt the beneficent, monolithic edge of The Great Society and provide help for retarded persons.

No giveaway program, this. No scheme to attract vast sums of outside governmental fiscal greenery.

Just a plan to help unfortunate persons acquire a measure of self discipline and confidence and the spark of a desire to help themselves.

Wendell Smith has been at the core of it. He puts in "only 10 or 15 hours a week" at the Workshop headquarters in the old Newburgh School, provided at present without charge by the Livonia school system.

But that's just part of the story. Earlier last year, when the Sheltered Workshop program was shakier than an MSU grad watching the somnolent Spartans on the day after the night before, Wendell was averaging 30, 40, maybe more hours a week.

It almost got to the point that you could call him at home and his wife Margaret would say, "Wendell who?"

Even now, with the program underway and work contracts assured for workshop trainees, he seeks support and help for the project.

All of which is to say that no one deserved Monday night's award more than Wendell Smith, an honor he accepted with humility and dignity. Cheers.

Free Press pundit Judd Arnett waxed a mite indignant Monday because a columnist for the weekly county-seat Livingston County Press in Howell inferred that ol' Judd Baby would be less caustic in a small-town setting. I doubt it.

I've only met the Morning Friendly's back-page nasty once, but he's my kind of people.

He'd probably be just as obnoxious if he worked for the Podunk Press, circ. 540. After all, isn't that what columns are for?

Co-op system makes books available from nearby libraries

The Wayne County Library system, which extends service to 35 communities in Wayne and Oakland Counties including Dunning-Hough Library in Plymouth has announced the introduction of a new plan to assist the user of any member library in getting the book or information he needs.

The plan makes use of catalogs published for the use of librarians by the Wilson Company. These catalogs list and describe over 24,000 books on a broad range of subjects for all ages. The books listed were chosen by librarians throughout the country as the most useful to library patrons. The most valuable are indicated by a star or double star.

The Wayne County Library system is, as far as is known, the first library in the United States to use these important publications as a system's guide to its book collections.

These catalogs are regularly used by libraries to measure the quality of their book collections. Nine member libraries of the Wayne County Library system have undertaken to provide all of the books marked by a single or double star in the catalogs as of most value, and the system as a whole has undertaken to provide at least one copy of each title whether starred or not.

Each Library in the Wayne County Library system will have a complete set of these catalogs. For the library user, this means that if his local library doesn't have the information he needs, he can find it in a nearby library within driving distance or can have the book sent to his library through a twice weekly delivery system.

This cooperative service presents to the user of every member library of the Wayne County Library system a key to the very best, among the many books, held by the various libraries.

SPITTING ON A STONE?

Ever try spitting on a stone to ease pain? Sounds foolish, nowadays. But a long time ago folks actually used this "remedy." We're lucky to be living in this age of modern medicine. Medical science has given us many wonderful pain relievers and other reliable, effective drugs. However, it's still not wise to use any medication indiscriminately. When you don't feel up to par, ask your physician's advice first. Then, if he prescribes medication, come to us. We'll fill his prescription promptly and carefully.

The Jaycee Creed

We believe:
That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of laws rather than of men;
That earth's great treasure lies in human personality;
And that service to humanity is the best work of life.

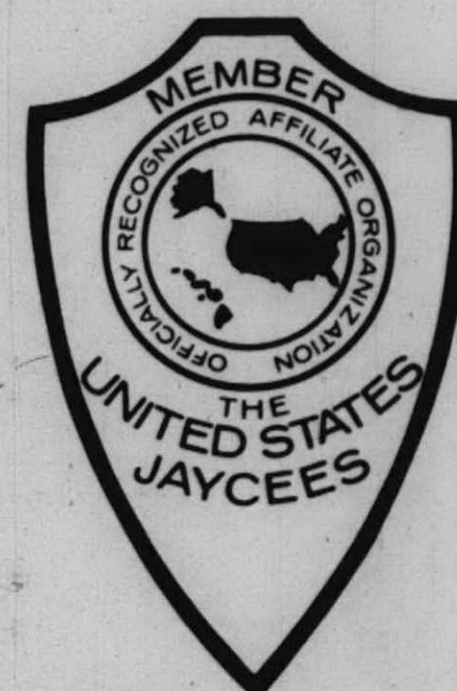

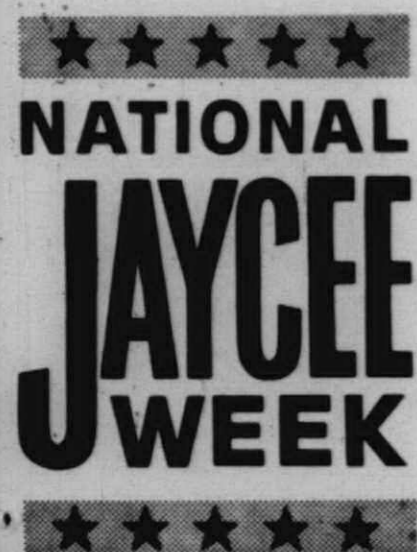

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

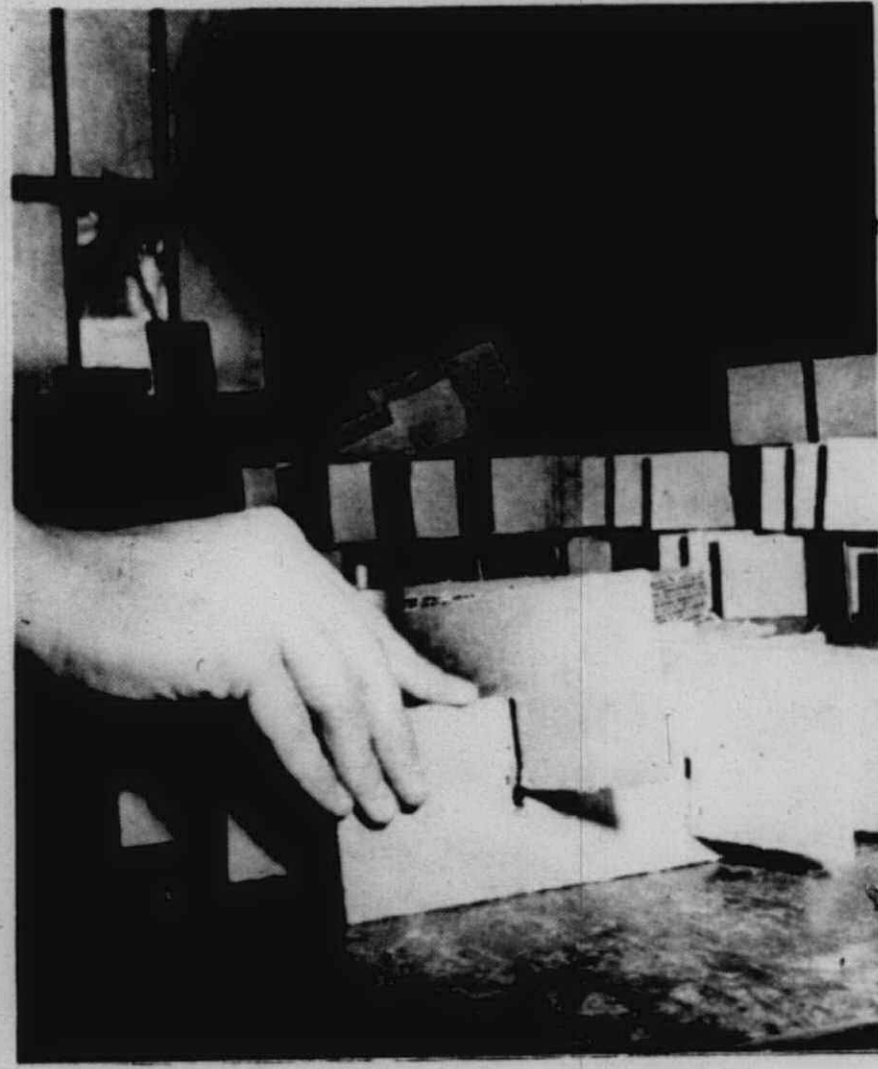

Sometimes, when a week is set aside to honor an organization, it becomes a time for basking in self reflection. Not so with the JayCees. A glance at the activities above shows that JayCee Week is one of the most active of their year. The days of this week prove their dedication to the concept that "service to humanity is the best work of life."

Workshop means new life for retarded

HANDS that never knew a skill are now being taught one at the Community Opportunity Center, a project sponsored by citizens of Plymouth, Livonia, Redford and Northville.

The Community Opportunity Center for trainable mentally retarded adults held an open house Sunday, marking its first months of successful operation.

Many guests and supporters of the workshop viewed first hand the work being done at the Center's headquarters in the old Newburgh School near Hines Park in Livonia. The school building was given to the center by a generous Livonia School Board.

Wendell E. Smith, president of the board of directors of the workshop, and Ernie Moran, director of the Center, were on hand to answer questions. Moran commented on the Center's opening:

"At the time when we opened in mid-September we were operating at a $100 loss. Now we clear enough to pay our costs. Our facilities are expanding and our number of employees will be expanding.

"WE WILL place our first employee at the end of the month in a job with private industry."

The workshop specializes in two things: teaching personal work habits and skills to the mentally retarded in a sheltered situation, and, in doing the "nuisance" tasks that industry has by the hundreds. Smith commented:

"We take up where the special education programs in the schools leave off. We work with trainable adults."

The Center is run by Moran, and a retired Ford engineer. The workers work a 8:30 to 3:30 shift, get paid a salary, and are taught simple skills: personal appearance, punctuality, person to person relationships and how to follow directions.

A total of 13 now attend the workshop, which serves Plymouth, Livonia, Northville and Redford.

Simple assembly, gluing and packaging jobs are done, on contract, by the workers.

Support from the contracts has been supplemented considerably by money from private industry, service and church groups, and private individuals.

The workshop for a few provides permanent employment; unfortunately, they will not be placed in private jobs.

The success of the workshop is hard to determine. How can you measure the satisfaction and self-respect that is felt when a person, long relying on others, suddenly can become a useful part of the community?

Information of the center may be had by calling 425-9560.

A member of Plymouth's First Presbyterian church, Smith, his wife, Margaret, and their three children live at 14302 Shadywood Drive in Lake Pointe Sub-division.

Monday evening's ceremonies kicked off a week of activities by Plymouth JayCees in observance of National JayCee Week.

Included in the rest of the week's programs are a Leadership Motivation Conference in the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce offices Tuesday morning, a press appreciation party Wednesday evening, a Friday morning breakfast at the Mayflower Hotel honoring Plymouth's Outstanding Young Educator and an educator from Schoolcraft College, and a Sunday morning prayer breakfast at First Methodist Church.

All JayCees, their families and local ministers are invited to attend the Sunday morning prayer breakfast, to be led by the Rev. David Strang of Epiphany Lutheran Church.

C of C dinner

Dr. Kenneth McFarland will highlight the annual Chamber of Commerce Dinner set for Jan. 27 in the Mayflower Meeting House. McFarland, who has spent nearly two decades as America's Number One platform speaker, spent many years as an innovator in education in Topeka, Kansas, where he was superintendent of schools. The dinner will feature the Mayflower's best prime rib dinner, music from the organ of Dan Greer and special recognition for the 50 new members of the Chamber of Commerce. Dinner reservations may be made by calling C of C offices at 453-1540.

Woman, two youths hurt in car crashes

A woman was injured early Sunday morning when her car ran off the road, and two children were hurt slightly in a pedestrian accident last Wednesday, according to Plymouth Police.

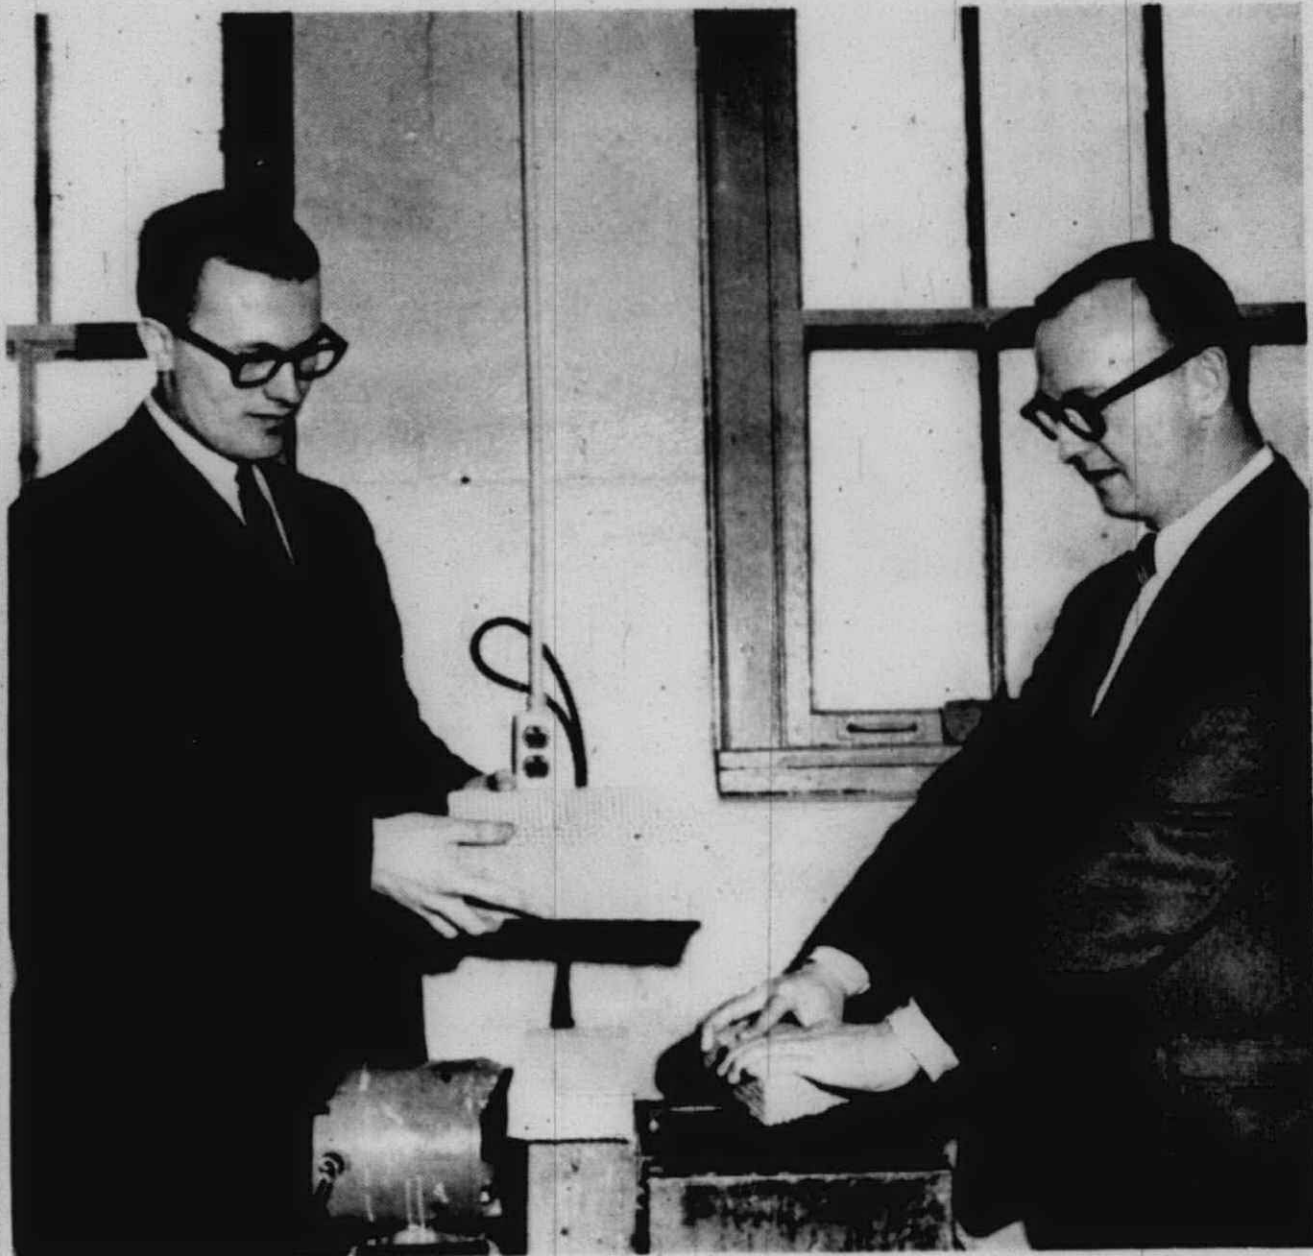

Officers said Norma L. Loveless, 27, of 875 Wing St. was taken to the hospital shortly after 4 a.m. Sunday when her northbound car failed to make a curve at Mill St. and Wilcox Road and veered over an embankment before hitting some trees and stopping.

On Wednesday, two Plymouth youngsters were slightly injured when they ignored a crossing guard and darted in front of a car driven by Mrs. E. Beman Letchfield, 69, of Northville.

The children, Debbie Walsh, 6, of 402 Sunset and Steven Gray, 6, of 710 Provincetown Lane ran in front of Mrs. Letchfield's eastbound car at the intersection of Sheldon and North Territorial Roads.

Police said Mrs. Letchfield, fortunately, was driving slowly and was able to stop before the children were seriously hurt.

No tickets were issued in either accident.

We still take care of his banking and trust needs with the cooperation of the Grayling State Bank. He moved his plant to Grayling in 1947. We do a good deal of business by telephone and about once or twice a year he drops in on us in Detroit. Come April, he'll be off for Alaska to hunt the polar bear. With bow and arrow, of course. ### American Legion Auxiliary

The need for nurses is critical, says Mrs. Melva Gardner, Chairman of the Education and Scholarship Committee of Unit No. 391 of the American Legion Auxiliary. There is an immediate need for five hundred nurses to serve as Army Nurse Corps Officers.

Mrs. Gardner said a report received from an Army Nurse Counselor told of this critical need, adding that Army nurses are needed not only to give care to the sick and the injured—but to assist in the training of our enlisted medical personnel who must be prepared to give immediate care to the wounded amidst, and in spite of, the dangers of combat.

This critical shortage of Army nurses coincides and is related to the overall national shortage of Registered Nurses and the national need for nurses continues to grow.

The members of the American Legion Auxiliary, as conscientious citizens, are cooperating to improve this grim situation which promises to worsen.

They urge you to: Encourage young men and women to consider the nursing profession as a career. Circulate and inform prospective nurses of the scholarship available to them. Assist in improving salaries and fringe benefits for nurses.

Encourage non-active nurses to return to work, even part time.

Encourage qualified Registered Nurses to consider serving a two year tour of duty in the military and to investigate the Military Nurse Corps to determine where they can best serve those who serve their country.

President Mae Hoelischer stated that it was announced at the 17th District meeting that the Passage-Gayde Unit No. 391 had won a $5 award for being the first Unit of the 17th District to reach their membership quota. Redford-Detroit Unit was second.

Just a reminder of Passage-Gayde Unit meeting, Wednesday, Jan. 22, at 8 p.m.—Unit President has called for an Executive Committee meeting at 7 p.m., just prior to the Unit's business meeting. All officers are asked to attend.

Saturday, Jan. 22 will be our first "Why Are We?" banquet of the new year. The guests are the American Association of Women. Dinner begins at 6:30 p.m. and program to follow. Members are urged to get their donations in to Lillian Kinghorn.

Auxiliary Activities Chairman Betty Richter wishes to thank Mrs. Mable Johnston for her assistance in preparations for the New Years party.

Saturday, Jan. 22 the Garden City Post No. 396 in Garden City is holding a Social Night. It will begin at 9 p.m. All members are invited to come.

Colonial Community

Sledding was in vogue this week in the Plymouth Community as snow and winter came to stay. Neighborhood youngsters flocked to Hamilton Playground where the hills are not too steep but fun is still to be had. Tom Quigg, left, above, and Mike Roberts show how best to use time after school in the winter. Below, gals jam on three sleds for a downhill slide. From left, they are Rebecca Roberts, Nora Barnes, Debbie Ward, Jill Waide, Faye Barnes and Nicki Vernard. The only disappointment? — That long climb back up the hill.

FEDERAL AID:

Schools eye pilot plans for disadvantaged students

Three pilot projects, designed to aid socially, culturally and economically disadvantaged children in the Plymouth Community School District, were approved recently by the school board for presentation to a consultant from the State Board of Education in Lansing.

The three programs are generally designed to identify under-achievers, particularly in the area of reading, and to provide corrective action.

If approved at the state level, the projects would qualify The Plymouth Community School District for up to $51,000 in Federal Funds. The programs presented Monday evening, however, would not necessarily use up the money available, according to curriculum planning subcommittee Chairman Mrs. Esther Hulsing.

Four additional personnel—a reading specialist, a social worker, a psychologist and another staff member—would be needed to execute the programs.

PROJECT I, which notes the school district's concern with reaching disadvantaged children, would seek to measure and appraise the kinds of problems that handicap students in school work.

It would provide testing data and findings to be used by other school personnel.

And it would result in recommendations for specific programs to meet the needs of the students tested.

Project II, a Teacher In-Service Training Program, would help teachers gain the necessary skills to administer and interpret informal diagnostic tests that determine weakness in reading.

Insight into the reading process would be provided for teachers and techniques for motivating poor readers would be learned.

In addition, it would show ways of adapting instruction to meet individual needs, give techniques for teaching various levels of reading found within each classroom and introduce them to basic reading aids, new books and special equipment.

Forty teachers from kindergarten through the ninth grade level would be invited to participate in the program.

Project III, Reading Specialists, is designed to bring immediate action to the problem of the culturally disadvantaged student.

THREE teachers from the elementary staff who have displayed talent in the teaching of reading and have undergone graduate training in reading, will be identified with the project.

In other action at the school board meeting, board members heard two Plymouth High School student council representatives ask for improved communication between the faculty board and the student governing body.

They noted that the student council, if it were given more information and responsibility, could work to inform the student body more adequately about faculty actions.

Cited as an instance was recent cancellation of the Senior Class plays, "An American Dream," and "The Sandbox," written by Edward Albee.

The council representatives noted that unfavorable comment by the student body might have been staved off if communication were better and the council had been informed and given more to say about the matter.

ONE RESIGNATION and six faculty appointments were approved by the board at the meeting.

The resignation of Mrs. Clarissa Witwer, effective Jan. 28, was accepted by board members, and the following appointments were approved:

Florence Jones, Gallimore School, Second Grade; Janet Lawson, Jr. High East Physical Education; Robert McGregor, Jr. High East Math-Science; Ann Palmer, Farrand School First Grade; Emily Schuster, Jr. High West Sixth Grade and Stephen Wichar, Jr. High West Art.

The request of Junior High School West Principal Robert Smith to attend the National Association of Secondary School Principals Convention in Cleveland, O., Feb. 5-9 and approval for Superintendent Russell Isbister to attend the American Association of School Administrators Convention in Atlantic City, Feb. 12-17, were granted.

Present construction projects are progressing on schedule, according to Assistant Superintendent Melvin Blunk.

Blunk noted that investigation of sites for Elementary School No. 6 is being continued. He said that roof completion for Elementary School No. 7, being built north of the Lake Pointe Subdivision Area in Northville Township, is set for March.

Blunk was authorized to seek permission from Northville Township to waive the building permit fee for the school. Other area governments follow a policy of waiving such fees in the case of school construction. The fee amounts to over $400.

Tankers dunk Redford U., trip Franklin

Plymouth tankers, after a victory at Redford Union Friday, returned home and beat Franklin, 54-51, Saturday in a meet that wasn't decided until the final event.

A quartet of Whittoff, Leonard, Saxton and Wolfe won the medley relay with a 1:52 time. John Skinner won a second in the 200 yd. freestyle, McCord won a first in the 50 yd. freestyle, with Whittaker taking a third.

Sophomore Bob Reinas took a second in the individual medley, and Rick Lorenz took a second in the diving followed by John Larson with a third.

McCord went on to win the butterfly event with a 58.8 time. Al Saxton won the 100 yd. freestyle event, and Whittoff took a first in the backstroke, posting a 1:02.5 time, and Brian Foust won a third.

REINAS won the 400 yd. freestyle event, and Leonard took a third in breaststroke.

A team of Wolfe, Shirey, Whittaker and Skinner won the closing relay, and that win decided the meet.

After losing several meets by fractions of seconds, the Rock swimmers last Friday whipped Redford Union 59-46, winning both relay events and taking four other firsts.

Coach John McFall noted improvements in all times, and continued to get considerable help from several sophomores.

A team of Ron Whittoff, Biff Leonard, Mike Malboeuf and Bob Shirey won the opening 200 yd. medley relay.

Veteran Bill Wolfe won the 200 yd. freestyle event, Pat Brady and Al Saxton finished one-two in the 50 yd. freestyle.

Cagers in 65-49 give-a-way

Redford Union led 44-28 at the half over Plymouth Friday, and went on to win easily, 65-49.

The defeat left Plymouth tied for fourth place in Suburban Six standings:

Team	Won	Lost
Redford Union	3	1
Bentley	4	0
Trenton	3	1
Allen Park	1	3
Plymouth	1	3
Belleville	0	4

The loss leaves Plymouth 1-6 for the season, with their only victory coming over Belleville, a league foe.

Redford Union hit for a fantastic 52% in the first half, and scored 21 points in the first quarter, and 23 in the second quarter. Their pace cooled considerably in the second half, and they hit only 10 and 11 points in the last two quarters.

But Plymouth, in scoring doldrums typical of past year's performances could muster no rally, scoring a measly 7 points in the final frame.

Plymouth closed the gap midway in the third quarter to 50-40, a 10 point spread, but Redford Union gritted it out, and kept the Rocks from scoring.

Poor rebounding in the first half hurt the Rocks as time and again they got only one shot at the basket, while RU was getting three and four at a time.

Lee Bjecke of RU hit for 23 points, 16 in the first half. The impressive forward hit from outside and passed to teammates for easy baskets.

VETERAN GUARD, Rick Jones, failed to get this shot off against a good Redford Union defense Friday as RU dumped the Rocks with a sizzling first half, 65-49.

Two hat tricks for icemen

Two Plymouth Hockey Association players scored their hat tricks this week.

Ken Wilkins scored three goals in the Trading Post 11-2 rout of Allen Park.

John Gilles scored four goals in Wilson's Engineering's 7-2 victory over Allen Park.

Other goal-makers in the Trading Post game were Dale Crawford (2), John Price (2), Dennis Shelley (2), Jim Elias (1), and Tim Smith (1).

In the Midget Wilson Engineering game, John Campbell, Butch Shelley and Pat Williams each scored one apiece.

Chuck Prochaska scored the lone goal in University Litho's shutout of Allen Park. Chuck Wibbey was credited with 20 saves at the net, and the shutout.

The VFW Pee Wees defeated Allen Park 3-1 as Dave Schwartz, Pat Herter and Tom Pruess split scoring honors with one goal each.

JV's rout RU 56-35 Friday

Bouncing back from a 56-50 defeat at the hands of Trenton last week, the Plymouth JV cagers whipped Redford Union 56-35 Friday.

Scoring 23 points in the first quarter, the JV Rocks featured balanced scoring with Jeff Adams, Mike Kubik and Jim Ruby hitting for 12 apiece, and Bob Resch adding six.

Coach Pat Montagano praised the work of his team: "I can't say enough about that kind of balance. I thought they did a tremendous job."

Montagano emptied the bench at the end of the game as the Rocks led 23-17 at the first quarter, 31-17 at the half, 41-26 at the end of three quarters.

JV's rout RU 56-35 Friday

The JV's will face Allen Park this Friday, beginning at 6:30 p.m. there, then return home to test their skill against Farmington Saturday night, in back-to-back games.

Tom Kimble led Redford Union with 8 points.

The JV's will face Allen Park this Friday, beginning at 6:30 p.m. there, then return home to test their skill against Farmington Saturday night, in back-to-back games.

JV swimmers trounce two

Two wins were posted last week by the Junior Varsity Rock swimmers.

They beat Stevenson High in Livonia 77-24, and Redford Union 63-42.

Stevenson, in its first year of sports, only fields a team of tenth graders.

Stevenson meet results: Brian Foust, Craig Zurn, Ed Norman and Chick Porter won the medley relay.

Bob Reinas, first, Bob Wellman, second, in the 200 yd. freestyle; Pete Kenney, first, Mark Whittaker, second, in the 50 yd. freestyle; John Norman first, and Dave Derr second in the 200 yd. individual medley.

Junior League Basketball

The Celtics are the only unbeaten team in Class 'A' after their decisive 53-8 win over the 76'ers on Saturday.

The most thrilling of Saturday's play was the Class 'A' Stags double overtime victory over the Lakers, 31-27, and the Celtics' closely fought 19-16 victory over the 76'ers in Class 'B'.

Next Saturday is position day, and the first half champions could very well be decided in both classes.

Jaskierny aids in Schoolcraft tank win over Windsor U.

Last Saturday in a dual meet Schoolcraft College swimmers outscored the University of Windsor by a 57-35 score. Former P.H.S. swimmers again played a big part in helping Schoolcraft chalk up its second victory of the young season.

Doug Jaskierny played the "iron-man" role for the local collegians. He set a new Schoolcraft record in the 200 yd. breaststroke and also took first place in the 200 yd. individual medley and 500 yd. freestyle.

Gary Bohl's victory in the 100 yd. freestyle was matched by George Gardner's win in the 200 yd. backstroke to round out the contribution by Plymouth men.

Other new Schoolcraft records were set by Larry Fitzgerald in the 200 yd. butterfly, and the quartet of Gary Bohl, Ron Dotzenroth, Tom Carney, and Larry Fitzgerald in the 400 yd. freestyle relay.

Schoolcraft's season record was balanced out at two wins and two losses by a 57-38 loss to Oakland University in the Oakland pool. Oakland won the first event of the afternoon and maintained its lead throughout the meet.

First place performances were turned in by Jaskierny, Fitzgerald, and the freestyle relay team.

Next week, Saturday, Jan. 22, Schoolcraft has dual meets with Grand Rapids C. C. and the deep, experienced, state champions from Henry Ford C. C.

JC bowlers get new league shirts

The Plymouth Junior Bowling league celebrated its 16th week of league play with distribution of bowling shirts Saturday, furnished by the Plymouth JayCees, who sponsor the group.

The season for the league began in October and will run until April.

Bowling clinics with professional bowlers have been planned as well as a league banquet at the close of the season (April 9).

About 85 members are on the teams, but league chairman Dave McCormick said Saturday that more regular bowlers are needed, as well as substitute bowlers.

The program, aimed at junior high youngsters, has produced several games over 200. One two-game series posted was 402.

Trophies and other awards will be handed out at the banquet.

Schoolcraft Bd. reviews freeway location proposals

At the regular meeting of the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees, Wednesday evening, Jan. 5, Howard Hill, director of the Michigan state highway department, and his associates, discussed with the Board three possible routes for the proposed limited access highway I-96.

The three proposals were that (1) cross the Schoolcraft campus along its eastern boundary; (2) miss the campus entirely by passing to the west between Hawthorne Center and Northville State Hospital; (3) be built along the present Haggerty Road.

After discussing the proposals at length, the Board of Trustees voted to deny the suggestion of the highway department that the highway be located along the present Haggerty Road. Board members pointed out to Hill that the Haggerty Road proposal would completely upset the College Campus Master Plan.

However, the Board indicated to Hill and his associates that it would listen to additional suggestions from the highway department in the future.

In other action, the Board received a communication from its legal representative, Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone to the effect that the College is now under the Charter Provision of the Community College Law. This means that the one mill voted by the people some years ago and which has been used both for operation and bond retirement may now be used entirely for operation and that additional millage may be levied outside the one mill to service the present outstanding bonds.

The Board approved the establishment of a summer music festival which will be conducted on the Schoolcraft campus for four weeks during the month of July. During this special series, advanced music students will have an opportunity to receive instruction and to participate in concerts. This program will be under the direction of the College's Director of Music, Mr. Wayne Dunlap.

The Board accepted a bell which was given to the College by the Northville Public Schools. The addition of this bell will bring the total number of bells in the Schoolcraft Bell Tower to five. These five bells are symbolic of the five school districts which comprise the present college district.

The Board also accepted an agenda for a joint meeting to be held on January 12 with the Boards of Education of Clarenceville, Garden City, Livonia, Northville and Plymouth.

ANNUAL REPORT

"Up the Down Staircase" most popular at Dunning-Hough

Several new features have been added during the past year at the Dunning-Hough Library.

About two hundred long playing records have been collected through donations by public spirited individuals, the Rotary Club, and Melody House. These records are now circulating, and are proving very popular.

About seventy five were borrowed during the first week that they were available. More records are needed, and donations are very welcome. Checks should be made out to the Plymouth Symphony Society Record Fund.

Photographed copies of pages of encyclopedias and other reference books have been available at no cost to patrons since the Kiwanis Club gave the library a photo copier several years ago.

But there was an increasing demand for other kinds of photographed materials, far beyond the resources of available staff time, so a do-it-yourself Vicomatic was set up near the entrance. With a coin in the slot and a push of the button, it makes a clear copy in just a few seconds.

The number of periodicals available at the library has jumped from around sixty to almost a hundred and sixty, thanks to a grant from the State of Michigan. The library is now receiving all the magazines indexed in the Reader's Guide.

The most popular book of the year was "Up the Down Staircase" by Bel Kaufman, the story of a young woman's first year as a teacher in a New York City high school. Other titles in demand were "The Source" by Michener, "The Intern" by "Doctor X", "My Shadow Ran Fast" by Sands, and "The Gift of Prophecy" by Montgomery. Story time for pre-schoolers is a popular feature of library service. Miss Gene Gardner, the children's librarian, tells the stories, and occasionally shows a film to the children. The fall series ended at Thanksgiving and the winter series will begin Feb. 11 at 10:30. In addition stories will be told for children in kindergarten and first grade Tuesday afternoons at 4 beginning Feb. 8. The library is open from 10 a.m. until 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday. On Friday and Saturday the hours are 10 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. from Labor Day to Memorial Day. During the summer, the library is closed on Saturdays.

PLYMOUTH'S NEWEST business, a Baskins-Robbins ice cream store, held a grand opening last week, with the proud new owners, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Conzett keeping busy serving the over 31 different flavors the store offers. Located on Ann Arbor Rd. and Harvey St., the store features new flavors every month and specially made birthday party treats, created to order.

Airman Third Class Frank C. Dorset was home on leave this week from Amarillo Air Force Base, Texas. He visited his mother, Mrs. Winifred Dorset, who lives here in Plymouth. A 1965 graduate of PHS, he will leave here Jan. 28 for Elgin Air Force Base, Florida, to attend administrative specialists school.

PFC James G. Perlongo Marine Private James G. Perlongo, son of Mrs. N. Perlongo of 523 McKinley, was graduated from Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

During his eight weeks of intensified recruit training under veteran noncommissioned officer Drill Instructors, he learned small arms marksmanship, bayonet fighting, and methods of self-protection, as well as receiving instruction in military drill, history and traditions of the Marine Corps, and other academic subjects. He has been assigned to Camp Pendleton, Calif. for four weeks of individual combat training and four weeks of basic specialist training in his military occupational field.

drew G. Smith for water to serve an industrial plant he built in Van Buren Township at a meeting last week.

The action came after about an hour's discussion over how Smith would pay.

The Board insisted he pay at the normal per front foot assessment; Smith did not agree this was fair, according to Canton supervisor, Phil Dingeldey.

Smith relented, however, at the Board's insistence, and will pay "his fair share," Dingeldey said.

In other action, the Board approved the utilities for the first two phases of Holliday Park, a subdivision of medium priced homes being built just south of Joy Rd. in Canton. Signatures Homes presently has 21 permits out for homes.

FOLLOWING the regular board meeting, a joint Board-planning commission meeting was held to detail final plans on the 701 zoning, which was forwarded to Wayne County officials for final approval.

Hear actress Jane Wyatt at Mother's March meeting

Actress Jane Wyatt was in Detroit on Tuesday, January 11 to meet with over 800 Wayne County March of Dimes leaders. The national chairman of the Mothers' March attended the evening meeting at the Veterans Memorial Building.

Miss Wyatt was introduced to the group by Mrs. Joseph Molnar, wife of the syndicated columnist, Dr. Molnar.

It was announced that some 22,000 mothers will march from door to door throughout Wayne County on February 1 to collect $200,000 for the National Foundation - March of Dimes, which is fighting birth defects.

Plymouth's Mothers' March chairman, Mrs. Roger Corey, attended the reception and tea with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Witwer, co-chairmen of the local drive.

Other volunteer workers locally attending were Mrs.

Robert Andes, Mrs. L. E. Curak, Mrs. James Canady, Mrs. Jerry Baker, Mrs. E. R. McClure, and Mrs. Ronald Wood. The theme of the meeting was a "happy birth day" for every child.

Mrs. Corey expects to have more than 200 mothers marching on Tuesday, Feb. 1 in the Plymouth area. Plans call for collecting $3,000 locally to aid scientists and doctors to cut down the terrible frequency of Birth Defects.

One is born every other minute, 700 a day, the five years between now and 1970 will add at least 1,250,000 more defective American babies.

March of Dimes donations to date have resulted in a $86,900,000 investment in research. Fifty Treatment Centers, such as at University Hospital, have been built since 1960 and more will be opened in 1966.

The Old Timer

"A gentleman farmer is one who has to read all of the government news bulletins."

Lon Dickerson

A Creole takes a bride

A young man went to another man's house to ask permission to take a rose from his garden for his master. Actually he was seeking a wife for a friend in the traditional Creole fashion.

The Creoles are the liberated slaves who founded Freetown in 1787. Since slaves were obtained throughout West Africa, it is only natural that the Creole customs should be a unique blend of the customs of the numerous tribes all along the coast.

The marriage proposal, for instance, originated among the Yorubas of Nigeria. Slight alterations brought about by Victorian influences resulted in a charming Creole custom.

Recently I was invited to see this ritual firsthand. Nearly 50 people who were friends and relatives of the prospective fiance gathered at his house on the appointed night. A prayer was said. Then everyone, including a small combo with wooden boxes for drums, boarded a chartered bus. The bus seemed to sway with the singing and drumming of its occupants as we made our way across town to the house of the girl's father.

There the girl's father invited everyone inside the house already filled with the girl's friends and relatives. Then he asked the friend serving as the spokesman for the fiance why he had come. With a modern twist the friend replied that his master had spotted a beautiful rose in the man's garden when he flew over Sierra Leone with the Gemini VI flight. Now he had come to seek permission to transfer that rose to his master's garden.

The girl's father continued asking questions for several minutes. He wanted to know what the master's garden was like, what type of fertilizer he used, and several other things. Then he asked the spokesman to describe the rose.

The father said that his garden contained several roses which fitted the description given, and invited the spokesman to look at them.

Several girls entered the room one at a time. Each time the spokesman said that she wasn't the rose his master had seen. Finally the right girl entered and everyone clapped when the man said that she was the rose for which he was looking.

The father then gave the man permission to transport it to his master's garden.

Two calabashes containing gifts were next presented to the father. Each of the gifts was symbolic of the future marriage and the unity of the two families.

Included was a diamond ring for prosperity and unity, a Bible for God's guidance, pins for industry, kola nuts for friendship and fertility, a piece of charcoal to keep the household fire burning, beauty preparations and fine cloth to remind the girl to always remain beautiful, alcoholic beverages for joy and happiness, the wedding trousseau, and the dowry.

Africa & Me

EVERYONE was served beer and stout while the father prepared a gift for the man's family. He included half of the original kola nuts to signify his acceptance of the gifts and the union of the two families, and alcoholic beverages for joy and happiness in the man's family.

The spokesman accepted the gifts from the father and announced the date his master would come to take the rose.

A benediction was said. Then the people who had come in the bus rebounded the bus. Refrains of "The old mommie don say yes-o" resounded throughout the homeward trip.

Skiers Should Shield Eyes

From Glare, Says WSU Prof.

DETROIT—"Happiness is a forecast of snow for Michigan's thousands of ski enthusiasts, but trouble in the form of 'snow blindness' can occur for those who don't shield their eyes properly from glare," says Wayne State University School of Medicine Prof. Albert Ruedemann.

An emergency treatment, says Dr. Ruedemann, is for the person to relax in a dark room and apply cold compresses to his eyes. An ophthalmologist should be consulted if the symptoms persist.

"Snow is a highly reflective surface, just like beach sand," says Dr. Ruedemann, "and the ultraviolet rays reflected from it can cause temporary and painful corneal damage to the unprotected eye even on cloudy days."

The ultraviolet rays cause a sunburn of the cornea. This burn affects only the superficial layers. It is extremely painful and is accompanied by tearing and swelling of the eyelids.

"The condition is not actual blindness," says Dr. Ruedemann, who is chairman of ophthalmology, "but a temporary irritant reaction to glare."

"The danger of glare is not always apparent when one is outside skiing," says Dr. Ruedemann, "because the reaction of the eyes to glare is often delayed by several hours. The resulting uncomfortable condition could last for days."

If you are caught outside in the winter without a pair of sunglasses, you can help to protect your eyes by making an imitation of the protective mask used by the Eskimos.

It consists merely of a strip of material with two thin slits cut into it barely wide enough to see through. The strip is fastened around the head with a string. The narrow slits serve to reduce harmful glare by cutting down the number of angles through which light rays can enter.

Hamilton to sell in Louisiana and Rhode Island

Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America has been granted licenses to do business in the states of Louisiana and Rhode Island, Chairman of the Board, E. Keith Owens, announced last week. The licenses, issued by the Louisiana State Insurance Department under Commissioner Dudley A. Guglielmo, and Rhode Island Commissioner Warren B. Campbell, marks the company's fifth and sixth out-of-state licensing in two months. Other charters have been granted in Indiana, Maine, Alabama, and Minnesota since November, 1965.

As part of the one-and-a-half year old company's scheduled expansion program, applications for licenses are now pending in 25 additional states, Owens said.

As Michigan's third largest ordinary life insurance firm, Hamilton ranks in the top 25% of the country's 1600 life companies and currently operates 13 regional offices throughout Michigan.

After long, weary weeks in the Christmas card room, with hours of tabulating totals and refunding ice balls, the Christmas card chairmen and helpers are glad to announce this year's top Christmas card salesmen.

George Applegate took top honors, selling $146.70, while Diana Felt and Harold Burdon took second and third with $144.45 and $129.90. George will receive $10, Diana $5 and Harold $2.50 for their efforts. The seniors are happy to say that they did indeed reach their $6000 goal set for the project.

JUNIOR HIGH WEST PTSA

On Monday, Jan. 24 at 9 a.m. there will be a meeting for all parents of students at Junior High West. A group discussion is planned.

Parents are urged to attend and ask questions of interest concerning school activities or curriculum. Several teachers as well as students will be present to aid in the discussion.

The meeting will begin in the school library promptly at 9 and adjourn at approximately 10:30 a.m. Coffee will be served.

Looking ahead to a busy May 14 are this year's Senior Prom chairmen! Under the general direction of Pat Turrentine and Chris Campbell, the chairmen of the various committees are as follows:

Decorations—Ruth Ann Morrell and Kay Hannula; Refreshments—Michele Binger and Faye Langert; Tickets and Sales—Diane Cenko and Tom Leack; Entertainment—Laura Raafaub; Clean-up—Lynn Niles and Chuck Catlett; Publicity—Curt Irish and Cindy Erdelyi; and Chaperones and Guests—Steve Stribley and Sue Dougan.

A senior class meeting was held Tuesday after school in the auditorium so that the members of the class might be given a chance to decide where they wanted their Prom to be held.

The Plymouth Teen Ski Club held their first ski trip of the year last Friday, when they traveled up to Silver Bell for an evening of skiing, snow and fun. About 50 members of the club took the trip. Next on the agenda for the club—Alpine Ski Lodge.

Cross country boys should be glad to hear that starting next year the regular swimming cheerleaders will be coming to cheer at their meets. The cheerleaders made the decision on a recommendation made by the Student Council.

All interested juniors are reminded to sign up for the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test to be held Feb. 26. Seniors are reminded at the same time that College Boards will be held for the last time at PHS on May 7. Applications for both tests may be picked up in the guidance office.

IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN—unfortunately.

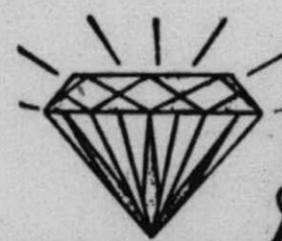

Exams will be given next Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 26 and 27, for all of you interested students who were dying to know! The exams for the first three hours will be given on Wednesday, the last three on Thursday. There will be no school either afternoon. The second semester will begin on Monday, Jan. 31.

By the way, if anyone was wondering just what the confusion was Monday and Tuesday, and why everyone looked so immaculate, and why the Pep Club had such a big turnout for a meeting, it was simply because—the annual staffers were snapping club pictures! Shame it's over—it seemed kind of nice to see everybody smiling for a change.

IT'S A FACT...
YOUR MODERN GAS RANGE BURNS FUEL THAT IS MILLIONS OF YEARS OLD.
NATURAL GAS WAS FORMED FROM TINY MARINE ORGANISMS. ABUNDANT IN SEAS THAT ONCE COVERED MOST OF THE EARTH, THEY SETTLED ON THE OCEAN BED AND WERE BURIED IN MANY LAYERS OF MUD AND SAND. GRADUAL DECAY, HEAT, PRESSURE AND PERHAPS RADIOACTIVITY TRANSFORMED THEM INTO GAS.
TODAY, NATURAL GAS SUPPLIES VITAL ENERGY IN 3 OUT OF 4 HOMES, THOUSANDS OF INDUSTRIES AND MILLIONS OF COMMERCIAL BUSINESSES IN AMERICA.
